WEST PUBLISHING CO.
These volumes of West's Texas Statutes and Codes include, in compact and convenient form, the text of all the general and permanent laws of the State of Texas enacted through the Regular Session and First Called Session of the 63rd Legislature, and the Texas Constitution, as amended through November 6, 1973.

The laws in West's Texas Statutes and Codes are under the same classification as Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes and Vernon's Texas Codes Annotated. Therefore, the user of this edition may go from any article or section herein to the same article or section in the annotated editions, where the complete constructions of the laws by the state and federal courts, historical data relative to the origin and development of the law, and other helpful research aids, are conveniently available.

Scope of Volumes

Volume 1 contains the Constitution of the State of Texas; the Business and Commerce Code; the Education Code; the Family Code; the Penal Code; Penal Auxiliary Laws (Liquor Control Act; Game, Fish and Oysters); the Code of Criminal Procedure; and the Water Code. The Business and Commerce, Education, Family, Penal and Water Codes are units of the Texas Legislative Council's on-going statutory revision program, authorized by Civil Statutes, Art. 5429b-1.

Volume 2 contains the Business Corporation Act; Title 32, Corporations, of the Civil Statutes; the Election Code; the Insurance Code; Title 78, Insurance, of the Civil Statutes; the Probate Code; and Title 122, Taxation, and Title 122A, Taxation-General, of the Civil Statutes.

Volumes 3 to 5 contain the balance of the text of the Civil Statutes.

Tables

Disposition Tables are provided following each Code and throughout the Civil Statutes, providing a means of tracing repealed subject matter to parallel provisions.

Special laws pertaining to education and water, which were neither repealed by, nor incorporated into, the Education and Water Codes, are tabulated following the respective Codes.

Additionally, Disposition Table 2 of the Penal Code shows the new official citations or classifications of unrepealed articles of the Texas Penal Code of 1925.
PREFACE

Indexes

A separate detailed descriptive word Index follows the Constitution, each Code and the Penal Auxiliary Laws to facilitate the search for specific provisions found therein. Laws in the Civil Statutes may be located by means of the Topical Index at the end of Volume 5.

That the general, great and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established, we declare:

§ 1. Freedom and Sovereignty of State
Sec. 1. Texas is a free and independent State, subject only to the Constitution of the United States, and the maintenance of our free institutions and the perpetuity of the Union depend upon the preservation of the right of local self-government, unimpaired to all the States.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 2. Inherent Political Power; Republican Form of Government
Sec. 2. All political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded upon their authority, and instituted for their benefit. The faith of the people of Texas stands pledged to the preservation of a republican form of government, and, subject to this limitation only, they have at all times the inalienable right to alter, reform or abolish their government in such manner as they may think expedient.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 3. Equal Rights
Sec. 3. All free men, when they form a social compact, have equal rights, and no man, or set of men, is entitled to exclusive separate public emoluments, or privileges, but in consideration of public services.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

1 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes—1
Art. 1 § 3a

CONSTITUTION

§ 3a. Equality Under the Law

Sec. 3a. Equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged because of sex, race, color, creed, or national origin. This amendment is self-operative.
[Adopted Nov. 7, 1972.]

§ 4. Religious Tests

Sec. 4. No religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office, or public trust, in this State; nor shall any one be excluded from holding office on account of his religious sentiments, provided he acknowledge the existence of a Supreme Being.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 5. Witnesses not Disqualified by Religious Beliefs; Oaths and Affirmations

Sec. 5. No person shall be disqualified to give evidence in any of the Courts of this State on account of his religious opinions, or for the want of any religious belief, but all oaths or affirmations shall be administered in the mode most binding upon the conscience, and shall be taken subject to the pains and penalties of perjury.

§ 6. Freedom of Worship

Sec. 6. All men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences. No man shall be compelled to attend, erect or support any place of worship, or to maintain any ministry against his consent. No human authority ought, in any case whatever, to control or interfere with the rights of conscience in matters of religion, and no preference shall ever be given by law to any religious society or mode of worship. But it shall be the duty of the Legislature to pass such laws as may be necessary to protect equally every religious denomination in the peaceable enjoyment of its own mode of public worship.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 7. Appropriations for Sectarian Purposes

Sec. 7. No money shall be appropriated, or drawn from the Treasury for the benefit of any sect or religious society, theological or religious seminary; nor shall property belonging to the State be appropriated for any such purposes.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 8. Freedom of Speech and Press; Libel

Sec. 8. Every person shall be at liberty to speak, write or publish his opinions on any subject, being responsible for the abuse of that privilege; and no law shall ever be passed curtailing the liberty of speech or of the press. In prosecutions for the publication of papers, investigating the conduct of officers, or men in public capacity, or when the matter published is proper for public information, the truth thereof may be given in evidence. And in all indictments for libels, the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts, under the direction of the court, as in other cases.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 9. Searches and Seizures

Sec. 9. The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions, from all unreasonable seizures or searches, and no warrant to search any place, or to seize any person or thing, shall issue without describing them as near as may be, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 10. Rights of Accused in Criminal Prosecutions

Sec. 10. In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. He shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof. He shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself, and shall have the right of being heard by himself or counsel, or both, shall be confronted by the witnesses against him and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, except that when the witness resides out of the State and the offense charged is in violation of any of the anti-trust laws of this State, the defendant and the State shall have the right to produce and have the evidence admitted by deposition, under such rules and laws as the Legislature may hereafter provide; and no person shall be held to answer for a criminal offense, unless on an indictment of a grand jury, except in cases in which the punishment is by fine or imprisonment, otherwise than in the penitentiary, in cases of impeachment, and in cases arising in the army or navy, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger.

§ 11. Bail

Sec. 11. All prisoners shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, unless for capital offenses, when the proof is evident, but this provision shall not be so construed as to prevent bail after indictment found upon examination of the evidence, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11-a. Multiple Convictions; Denial of Bail

Sec. 11-a. Any person accused of a felony less than capital in this State, who has been theretofore convicted of a felony, the second conviction being subsequent to the first, both in point of time of commission of the offense and conviction therefor may, after a hearing, and upon evidence substantially showing the guilt of the accused, be denied bail pending trial, by any judge of a court of record or magistrate in this State; provided, however, that if the accused is not accorded a trial upon the accusation within sixty (60) days from the time of his incarceration upon such charge, the order denying bail shall be automatically set aside, unless a continuance is obtained upon the motion or request of the accused; provided, further, that the right of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals of this State is expressly accorded the accused for a review of any judgment or order made hereunder.
[Adopted Nov. 6, 1956.]

§ 12. Habeas Corpus

Sec. 12. The writ of habeas corpus is a writ of right, and shall never be suspended. The Legislature shall enact laws to render the remedy speedy and effectual.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 13. Excessive Bail or Fines; Cruel and Unusual Punishment; Remedy by Due Course of Law.

Sec. 13. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishment inflicted. All courts shall be open, and every person for an injury done him, in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law.

§ 14. Double Jeopardy

Sec. 14. No person, for the same offense, shall be twice put in jeopardy of life or liberty, nor shall a person be again put upon trial for the same offense, after a verdict of not guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 15. Right of Trial by Jury

Sec. 15. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate. The Legislature shall pass such laws as may be needed to regulate the same, and to maintain its purity and efficiency. Provided, that the Legislature may provide for the temporary commitment, for observation and/or treatment, of mentally ill persons not charged with a criminal offense, for a period of time not to exceed ninety (90) days, by order of the County Court without the necessity of a trial by jury.

§ 15-a. Commitment of Persons of Unsound Mind

Sec. 15-a. No person shall be committed as a person of unsound mind except on competent medical or psychiatric testimony. The Legislature may enact all laws necessary to provide for the trial, adjudication of insanity and commitment of persons of unsound mind and to provide for a method of appeal from judgments rendered in such cases. Such laws may provide for a waiver of trial by jury, in cases where the person under inquiry has not been charged with the commission of a criminal offense, by the concurrence of the person under inquiry, or his next of kin, and an attorney ad litem appointed by a judge of either the County or Probate Court of the county where the trial is being held, and shall provide for a method of service of notice of such trial upon the person under inquiry and of his right to demand a trial by jury.
[Adopted Nov. 6, 1956.]

§ 16. Bills of Attainder; Ex Post Facto or Retroactive Laws; Impairing Obligation of Contracts

Sec. 16. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, retroactive law, or any law impairing the obligation of contracts, shall be made.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 17. Taking, Damaging or Destroying Property for Public Use; Special Privileges and Immunities; Control of Privileges and Franchises

Sec. 17. No person's property shall be taken, damaged or destroyed for or applied to public use without adequate compensation being made, unless by the consent of such person; and, when taken, except for the use of the State, such compensation shall be first made, or secured by a deposit of money; and no irrevocable or uncontrollable grant of special privileges or immunities, shall be made; but all privileges and franchises granted by the Legislature, or created under its authority shall be subject to the control thereof.

§ 18. Imprisonment for Debt

Sec. 18. No person shall ever be imprisoned for debt.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 19. Deprivation of Life, Liberty, Etc.; Due Course of Law

Sec. 19. No citizen of this State shall be deprived of life, liberty, property, privileges or immunities, or in any manner disfranchised, except by the due course of the law of the land.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 20. Outlawry or Transportation for Offence

Sec. 20. No citizen shall be outlawed, nor shall any person be transported out of the State for any offence committed within the same.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 21. Corruption of Blood; Forfeiture of Estate; Descent in Case of Suicide

Sec. 21. No conviction shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture of estate, and the estates of those who destroy their own lives shall descend or vest as in case of natural death.

§ 22. Treason

Sec. 22. Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort; and no person shall be convicted of treason except on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 23. Right to Keep and Bear Arms

Sec. 23. Every citizen shall have the right to keep and bear arms in the lawful defence of himself or the State; but the Legislature shall have power, by law, to regulate the wearing of arms, with a view to prevent crime.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 24. Military Subordinate to Civil Authority

Sec. 24. The military shall at all times be subordinate to the civil authority.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 25. Quartering Soldiers in Houses

Sec. 25. No soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in the house of any citizen without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner prescribed by law.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 26. Perpetuities and Monopolies; Primogeniture or Entailments

Sec. 26. Perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free government, and shall never be allowed, nor shall the law of primogeniture or entailments ever be in force in this State.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 27. Right of Assembly; Petition for Redress of Grievances

Sec. 27. The citizens shall have the right, in a peaceable manner, to assemble together for their common good; and apply to those invested with the powers of government for redress of grievances or other purposes, by petition, address or remonstrance.

§ 28. Suspension of Laws

Sec. 28. No power of suspending laws in this State shall be exercised except by the Legislature.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 29. Provisions of Bill of Rights excepted from Powers of Government; to Forever Remain Inviolate

Sec. 29. To guard against transgressions of the high powers herein delegated, we declare that everything in this “Bill of Rights” is excepted out of the general powers of government, and shall forever remain inviolate, and all laws contrary thereto, or to the following provisions, shall be void.

ARTICLE II

THE POWERS OF GOVERNMENT

Sec. 1. Division of Powers; Three Separate Departments; Exercise of Power Properly Attached to Other Departments

§ 1. Division of Powers; Three Separate Departments; Exercise of Power Properly Attached to Other Departments

Sec. 1. The powers of the Government of the State of Texas shall be divided into three distinct departments, each of which shall be confined to a separate body of magistracy, to wit: Those which are Legislative to one; those which are Executive to another, and those which are Judicial to another; and no person, or collection of persons, being of one of these departments, shall exercise any power properly attached to either of the others, except in the instances herein expressly permitted.

§ 1. Senate and House of Representatives

Sec. 1. The Legislative power of this State shall be vested in a Senate and House of Representatives, which together shall be styled "The Legislature of the State of Texas."
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 2. Membership of Senate and House of Representatives

Sec. 2. The Senate shall consist of thirty-one members, and shall never be increased above this number. The House of Representatives shall consist of ninety-three members until the first apportionment after the adoption of this Constitution, when or at any apportionment thereafter, the number of Representatives may be increased by the Legislature, upon the ratio of not more than one Representative for every fifteen thousand inhabitants; provided, the number of Representatives shall never exceed one hundred and fifty.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 3. Election and term of office of Senators

Sec. 3. The Senators shall be chosen by the qualified electors for the term of four years; but a new Senate shall be chosen after every apportionment, and the Senators elected after each apportionment shall be divided by lot into two classes. The seats of the Senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the first two years, and those of the second class at the expiration of four years, so that one half of the Senators shall be chosen biennially thereafter. Senators shall take office following their election, on the day set by law for the convening of the Regular Session of the Legislature, and shall serve thereafter for the full term of years to which elected and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 8, 1966.]

§ 4. Election and term of members of House of Representatives

Sec. 4. The Members of the House of Representatives shall be chosen by the qualified electors for the term of two years. Representatives shall take office following their election, on the day set by law for the convening of the Regular Session of the Legislature, and shall serve thereafter for the full term of years to which elected and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 8, 1966.]

§ 5. Meetings; Order of Business

Sec. 5. The Legislature shall meet every two years at such time as may be provided by law and at other times when convened by the Governor. When convened in regular session, the first thirty days thereof shall be devoted to the introduction of bills and resolutions, acting upon emergency appropriations, passing upon the confirmation of the recess appointees of the Governor and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided that during the succeeding thirty days of the regular session of the Legislature the various committees of each House shall hold hearings to consider all bills and resolutions and other matters then pending; and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor; provided further that during the following sixty days the Legislature shall act upon such bills and resolutions as may be then pending and upon such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided, however, either House may otherwise determine its order of business by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of its membership.

§ 6. Qualifications of Senator

Sec. 6. No person shall be a Senator, unless he be a citizen of the United States, and, at the time of his election a qualified elector of this State, and shall have been a resident of this State five years next preceding his election, and the last year thereof a resident of the district for which he shall be chosen, and shall have attained the age of twenty-six years.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 7. Qualifications of Representatives

Sec. 7. No person shall be a Representative, unless he be a citizen of the United States, and, at the time of his election, a qualified elector of this State, and shall have been a resident of this State two years next preceding his election, the last year thereof a resident of the district for which he shall be chosen, and shall have attained the age of twenty-one years.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 8. Each House Judge of Qualifications and Election; Contests
Sec. 8. Each House shall be the judge of the qualifications and election of its own members; but contested elections shall be determined in such manner as shall be provided by law.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 9. President Pro Tempore of Senate; Speaker of House of Representatives
Sec. 9. The Senate shall, at the beginning and close of each session, and at such other times as may be necessary, elect one of its members President pro tempore, who shall perform the duties of the Lieutenant Governor in any case of absence or disability of that officer, and whenever the said office of Lieutenant Governor shall be vacant. The House of Representatives shall, when it first assembles, organize temporarily, and thereupon proceed to the election of a Speaker from its own members; and each House shall choose its other officers.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 10. Quorum; Adjournments from Day to Day; Compelling Attendance
Sec. 10. Two-thirds of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each House may provide.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11. Rules of Procedure; Expulsion of Member
Sec. 11. Each House may determine the rules of its own proceedings, punish members for disorderly conduct, and, with the consent of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same offence.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 12. Journals of Proceedings; Entering Yeas and Nays
Sec. 12. Each House shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same; and the yeas and nays of the members of either House on any question shall, at the desire of any three members present, be entered on the journals.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 13. Vacancies; Writs of Election
Sec. 13. When vacancies occur in either House, the Governor, or the person exercising the power of the Governor, shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies; and should the Governor fail to issue a writ of election to fill any such vacancy within twenty days after it occurs, the returning officer of the district in which such vacancy may have happened, shall be authorized to order an election for that purpose.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 14. Privileged from Arrest
Sec. 14. Senators and Representatives shall, except in cases of treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session of the Legislature, and in going to and returning from the same, allowing one day for every twenty miles such member may reside from the place at which the Legislature is convened.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 15. Disrespectful or Disorderly Conduct; Obstruction of Proceedings
Sec. 15. Each House may punish, by imprisonment, during its session, any person not a member, for disrespectful or disorderly conduct in its presence, or for obstructing any of its proceedings; provided, such imprisonment shall not, at any one time, exceed forty-eight hours.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 16. Open Sessions
Sec. 16. The sessions of each House shall be open, except the Senate when in Executive session.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 17. Adjournments
Sec. 17. Neither House shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that where the Legislature may be sitting.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 18. Ineligibility for other Offices; Interest in Contracts
Sec. 18. No Senator or Representative shall, during the term for which he was elected, be eligible to (1) any civil office of profit under this State which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which may have been increased, during such term, or (2) any office or place, the appointment to which may be made, in whole or in part, by either branch of the Legislature; provided, however, the fact that the term of office of Senators and Representatives does not end precisely on the last day of December but extends a few days into January of the succeeding year shall be considered as de minimis, and the ineligibility herein created shall terminate on the last day in December of the last full calendar year of the term for which he was elected. No member of either House shall vote for any other member for any office whatever, which may be filled by a vote of the Legislature, except in such cases as are in this Constitution provided, nor shall any member of the Legislature be interested, either directly or indirectly, in any contract with the State, or any county thereof, authorized by any law passed during the term for which he was elected.

§ 19. Ineligibility of Persons holding other Offices
Sec. 19. No judge of any court, Secretary of State, Attorney General, clerk of any court of record, or any person holding a lucrative office under the United States, or this State, or any foreign government shall during the term for which he is elected or appointed, be eligible to the Legislature.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 20. Collectors of Taxes; Persons entrusted with Public Money; Ineligibility
Sec. 20. No person who at any time may have been a collector of taxes, or who may have been otherwise entrusted with public money, shall be eligible to the Legislature, or to any office of profit or trust under the State government, until he shall have obtained a discharge for the amount of such collections, or for all public moneys with which he may have been entrusted.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 21. Words spoken in Debate
Sec. 21. No member shall be questioned in any other place for words spoken in debate in either House.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 22. Disclosure of Private Interest in Measure or Bill; Not to Vote
Sec. 22. A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill, proposed, or pending before the Legislature, shall disclose the fact to the House, of which he is a member, and shall not vote thereon.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 23. Removal from District or County from which Elected
Sec. 23. If any Senator or Representative remove his residence from the district or county for which he was elected, his office shall thereby become vacant, and the vacancy shall be filled as provided in section 13 of this article.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 24. Compensation and Expenses of members of Legislature; Duration of Sessions
Sec. 24. Members of the Legislature shall receive from the Public Treasury an annual salary of not exceeding Four Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) per year and a per diem of not exceeding Twelve Dollars ($12) per day for the first one hundred and twenty (120) days only of each Regular Session and for thirty (30) days of each Special Session of the Legislature. No Regular Session shall be of longer duration than one hundred and forty (140) days.

In addition to the per diem the Members of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) for every twenty-five (25) miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel, from a table of distances prepared by the Comptroller to each county seat now or hereafter to be established; no Member to be entitled to mileage for any extra Session that may be called within one (1) day after the adjournment of the Regular or Called Session.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 4, 1930; Nov. 2, 1954; Nov. 8, 1960.]

§ 25. Senatorial Districts
Sec. 25. The State shall be divided into Senatorial Districts of contiguous territory according to the number of qualified electors, as nearly as may be, and each district shall be entitled to elect one Senator; and no single county shall be entitled to more than one Senator.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 26. Apportionment of members of House of Representatives
Sec. 26. The members of the House of Representatives shall be apportioned among the several counties, according to the number of population in each, as nearly as may be, on a ratio obtained by dividing the population of the State, as ascertained by the most recent United States census, by the number of members of which the House is composed; provided, that whenever a single county has sufficient population to be entitled to a Representative, such county shall be formed into a separate Representative District, and when two or more counties are required to make up the ratio of representation, such counties shall be contiguous to each other; and when any one county has more than sufficient population to be entitled to one or more Representatives, such Representative or Representatives shall be apportioned to such county, and for any surplus of population it may be joined in a Representative District with any other contiguous county or counties.

§ 26-a. Counties with More than Seven Representatives
Sec. 26-a. Provided however, that no county shall be entitled to or have under any apportionment more than seven (7) Representatives unless the population of such county shall exceed seven hundred thousand (700,000) people as ascertained by the most recent United States Census, in which event such county shall be entitled to one additional Representative for each one hundred thousand (100,000) population in excess of seven hundred thousand (700,000) population as shown by the latest United States Census; nor shall any district be created which would permit any county to have more than seven (7) Representatives except under the conditions set forth above.
[Adopted Nov. 3, 1936.]

§ 27. Elections
Sec. 27. Elections for Senators and Representatives shall be general throughout the State, and shall be regulated by law.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 28. Time for Apportionment; Apportionment by Legislative Redistricting Board
Sec. 28. The Legislature shall, at its first regular session after the publication of each United States decennial census, apportion the state into senatorial and representative districts, agreeable to the provisions of Sections 25, 26, and 26-a of this Article. In the event the Legislature shall at any such first regular session following the publication of a United States decennial census, fail to make such apportionment, same shall be done by the Legislative Redistricting Board of Texas, which is hereby created, and shall be composed of five (5) members, as follows: The Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Attorney General, the Comptroller of Public Accounts and the Commissioner of the General Land Office, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Said Board shall assemble in the City of Austin within ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of such regular session. The Board shall, within sixty (60) days after assembling, apportion the state into senatorial and representative districts, or into senatorial or representative districts, as the failure of action of such Legislature may make necessary. Such apportionment shall be in writing and signed by three (3) or more of the members of the Board duly acknowledged as the act and deed of such Board, and, when so executed and filed with the Secretary of State, shall have force and effect of law. Such apportionment shall become effective at the next succeeding statewide general election. The Supreme Court of Texas shall have jurisdiction to compel such commission to perform its duties in accordance with the provisions of this section by writ of mandamus or other extraordinary writs conformable to the usages of law. The Legislature shall provide necessary funds for clerical and technical aid and for other expenses incidental to the work of the Board, and the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be entitled to receive per diem and travel expense during the Board's session in the same manner and amount as they would receive while attending a special session of the Legislature. This amendment shall become effective January 1, 1951.

PROCEEDINGS

§ 29. Enacting Clause of Laws

Sec. 29. The enacting clause of all laws shall be:

"Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas."

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 30. Laws Passed by Bill; Amendments Changing Purpose

Sec. 30. No law shall be passed, except by bill, and no bill shall be so amended in its passage through either House, as to change its original purpose.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 31. Origination in either House; Amendment

Sec. 31. Bills may originate in either House, and, when passed by such House, may be amended, altered or rejected by the other.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 32. Reading on Three Several Days; Suspension of Rule

Sec. 32. No bill shall have the force of a law, until it has been read on three several days in each House, and free discussion allowed thereon; but in cases of imperative public necessity (which necessity shall be stated in a preamble or in the body of the bill) four-fifths of the House, in which the bill may be pending, may suspend this rule, the yeas and nays being taken on the question of suspension, and entered upon the journals.

§ 33. Revenue Bills

Sec. 33. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives, but the Senate may amend or reject them as other bills.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 34. Defeated Bills and Resolutions

Sec. 34. After a bill has been considered and defeated by either House of the Legislature, no bill containing the same substance shall be passed into a law during the same session. After a resolution has been acted on and defeated, no resolution containing the same substance, shall be considered at the same session.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 35. Subjects and Titles of Bills

Sec. 35. No bill, (except general appropriation bills, which may embrace the various subjects and accounts, for and on account of which moneys are appropriated) shall contain more than one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. But if any subject shall be embraced in an act, which shall not be expressed in the title, such act shall be void only as to so much thereof, as shall not be so expressed.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 36. Revival or Amendment by Reference; Re-enactment and Publication at Length

Sec. 36. No law shall be revived or amended by reference to its title; but in such case the act revived, or the section or sections amended, shall be re-enacted and published at length.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 37. Reference to Committee and Report

Sec. 37. No bill shall be considered, unless it has been first referred to a committee and reported thereon, and no bill shall be passed which has not been presented and referred to and reported from a committee at least, three days before the final adjournment of the Legislature.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 38. Signing Bills and Joint Resolutions; Entry on Journals

Sec. 38. The presiding officer of each House shall, in the presence of the House over which he presides, sign all bills and joint resolutions passed by the Legislature, after their titles have been publicly read before signing; and the fact of signing shall be entered on the journals.

§ 39. Time of taking Effect of Laws; Emergencies; Entry on Journal

Sec. 39. No law passed by the Legislature, except the general appropriation act, shall take effect or go into force until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted, unless in case of an emergency, which emergency must be expressed in a preamble or in the body of the act, the Legislature shall, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House, otherwise direct; said vote to be taken by yeas and nays, and entered upon the journals.

§ 40. Special Sessions; Subjects of Legislation; Duration

Sec. 40. When the Legislature shall be convened in special session, there shall be no legislation upon subjects other than those designated in the proclamation of the Governor calling such session, or presented to them by the Governor; and no such session shall be of longer duration than thirty days.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 41. Elections by Senate and House of Representatives

Sec. 41. In all elections by the Senate and House of Representatives, jointly or separately, the vote shall be given viva voce, except in the election of their officers.

§ 42. Repealed. Aug. 5, 1969

§ 43. Revision of Laws

Sec. 43. The first session of the Legislature under this Constitution shall provide for revising, digesting and publishing the laws, civil and criminal; and a like revision, digest and publication may be made every ten years thereafter; provided, that in the adoption of and giving effect to any such digest or revision, the Legislature shall not be limited by sections 35 and 36 of this Article.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 44. Compensation of Public Officers, Servants, Agents and Contractors; Extra Compensation; Unauthorized Claims; Unauthorized Employment

Sec. 44. The Legislature shall provide by law for the compensation of all officers, servants, agents and public contractors, not provided for in this Constitution, but shall not grant extra compensation to any officer, agent, servant, or public contractors, after such public service shall have been performed or contract entered into, for the performance of the same; nor grant, by appropriation or otherwise, any amount of money out of the Treasury of the State, to any individual, on a claim, real or pretended, when the same shall not have been provided for by pre-existing law; nor employ any one in the name of the State, unless authorized by pre-existing law.

§ 45. Change of Venue in Civil and Criminal Cases

Sec. 45. The power to change the venue in civil and criminal cases shall be vested in the courts, to be exercised in such manner as shall be provided by law; and the Legislature shall pass laws for that purpose.

§ 47. Lotteries and Gift Enterprises

Sec. 47. The Legislature shall pass laws prohibiting the establishment of lotteries and gift enterprises in this State, as well as the sale of tickets in lotteries, gift enterprises or other evasions involving the lottery principle, established or existing in other States.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 48. Taxes; Restrictions on Levy; Permissible Purposes

Sec. 48. The Legislature shall not have the right to levy taxes or impose burdens upon the people, except to raise revenue sufficient for the economical administration of the government, in which may be included the following purposes:

The payment of all interest upon the bonded debt of the State;

The erection and repairs of public buildings;

The benefit of the sinking fund, which shall not be more than two per centum of the public debt; and for the payment of the present floating debt of the State, including matured bonds for the payment of which the sinking fund is inadequate;

The support of public schools, in which shall be included colleges and universities established by the State; and the maintenance and support of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas;

The payment of the cost of assessing and collecting the revenue; and the payment of all officers, agents and employees of the State Government, and all incidental expenses connected therewith;

The support of the Blind Asylum, the Deaf and Dumb Asylum and the Insane Asylum; State Cemetery and the public grounds of the State;

The enforcement of quarantine regulations on the coast of Texas;

The protection of the frontier.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 48-a. Fund for Retirement, Disability and Death Benefits for Employees of Public Schools, Colleges and Universities

Sec. 48-a. In addition to the powers given the Legislature under Section 48, Article III, it shall have the right to levy taxes to establish a fund to provide retirement, disability and death benefits for persons employed in the public schools, colleges and universities supported wholly or partly by the state; provided that the amount contributed by the state to such fund each year shall be equal to the aggregate amount required by law to be paid into the fund by such employees, and shall not exceed at any time six per centum (6%) of the compensation paid each such person by the state and/or school districts; and provided that no person shall be eligible for retirement who has not rendered ten (10) years of creditable service in such employment, and in no case shall any person retire before either attaining the age fifty-five (55) or completing thirty (30) years of creditable service, but shall be entitled to refund of moneys paid into the fund.

Moneys coming into such fund shall be managed and invested as provided in Section 48b of Section III of the Constitution of Texas; provided a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may be provided by law; and provided that the recipients of such retirement fund shall not be eligible for any other state pension retirement funds or direct aid from the State of Texas, unless such other state pension or retirement fund, contributed by the state, is released to the State of Texas as a condition to receiving such other pension aid; providing, however, that this Section shall not amend, alter, or repeal Section 63 of Article 16 of the Constitution of Texas as adopted November, 1954, or any enabling legislation passed pursuant thereto.

§ 48-b. Teacher Retirement System of Texas

Sec. 48-b. There is hereby created as an agency of the State of Texas the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, the rights of membership in which, the retirement privileges and benefits thereunder, and the management and operations of which shall be governed by the provisions herein contained and by present or hereafter enacted Acts of the Legislature not inconsistent herewith. The general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of said system are hereby vested in a State Board of Trustees, to be known as the State Board of Trustees of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, which Board shall be constituted and shall serve as may now or hereafter be provided by the Legislature. Said Board shall exercise such powers as are herein provided together with such other powers and duties not inconsistent herewith as may be prescribed by the Legislature. All moneys from whatever source coming into the Fund to provide retirement, disability, and death benefits for persons employed in the public schools, colleges, and universities supported wholly or partly by the state and all other securities, evidences of debt, and other investments in which said securities, moneys, and assets have been or may hereafter be invested by said Board. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, hold, manage, purchase, sell, assign, trade, transfer, and dispose of any securities, evidences of debt, and other investments in which such said securities, moneys, and assets have been or may hereafter be invested by said Board. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to invest and reinvest any of said moneys, securities, and assets, as well as the proceeds of any of such investments, in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are assumed or guaranteed in whole or in part, by the United States or any agency of the United States, or by the State of Texas, or by any county, city, school district, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas, both general and special obligations; in home mortgages upon the residences or trade, transportation, and office facilities to be used in administering the Teacher Retirement System; in the stock of any one corporation, nor shall be invested at any given time in common stocks. This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any enabling legislation. This Section shall not alter, amend or repeal the first paragraph of Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas as amended November 6, 1956, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto. This Section shall not alter, amend or repeal the second paragraph of Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas as amended November 6, 1956, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto, except insofar as the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 48a and any legislation passed pursuant thereto, may limit or restrict the provisions hereof and only to the extent of such limitation or restriction.

§ 48–d. Rural Fire Prevention Districts

Sec. 48–d. The Legislature shall have the power to provide for the establishment and creation of rural fire prevention districts and to authorize a tax on the ad valorem valuation of property situated in said districts not to exceed Three (3%) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the support thereof; provided that no tax shall be levied in support of said districts until approved by vote of the people residing therein.

§ 49. State Debts

Sec. 49. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State, except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiencies in the revenue, shall never exceed in the aggregate at any one time ten hundred thousand dollars.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 49–a. Financial Statement and Estimate by Comptroller of Public Accounts; Limitation of Appropriations; Bonds

Sec. 49–a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each Regular Session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing fully the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the last fiscal period and an estimate of the probable revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium and said statement shall contain such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes.

From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash

000 of said Fund is invested in the government and municipal securities enumerated above, not more than thirty-three and one-third per cent (33⅓%) of the Fund shall be invested at any given time in common stocks. This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any enabling legislation. This Section shall not alter, amend or repeal the first paragraph of Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas as amended November 6, 1956, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto. This Section shall not alter, amend or repeal the second paragraph of Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas as amended November 6, 1956, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto, except insofar as the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 48a and any legislation passed pursuant thereto, may limit or restrict the provisions hereof and only to the extent of such limitation or restriction.

and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid.

From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such finding thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State, and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1943, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date.

§ 49-b. Veterans' Land Program

Sec. 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not be exceed Five Hundred Million Dollars ($500,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed the rate specified in Section 65 of this Article. All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after registration by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the sale or resale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein: the bonuses, income, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds here-tofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional amendment and the lands purchased therefor) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds here-tofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be held for a governmental purpose, the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of retiring all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Fund for the purpose of retiring such bonds, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law.

Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board may be used by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board (a "series of bonds" being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds hereafter issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided hereinafter.

This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.
§ 49-c. Texas Water Development Board; Bond Issue; Texas Water Development Fund

The Texas Water Development Board shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The Legislature of Texas, upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected Members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue additional bonds in an amount not exceeding One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The bonds authorized herein or permitted to be authorized by the Legislature shall be called "Texas Water Development Bonds," shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein.

All moneys received from the sale of State bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Water Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the Texas Water Development Board in such manner as prescribed by law.

Such fund shall be used only for the purpose of aiding or making funds available upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe, to the various political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas including river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts and districts created or organized or authorized to be created or organized under Article XVI, Section 59 or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party and municipal corporations, in the conservation and development of the water resources of this State, including the control, storing and preservation of its storm and flood waters and the waters of its rivers and streams, for all useful and lawful purposes by the acquisition, improvement, extension, or construction of dams, reservoirs and other water storage projects, including any system necessary for the transportation of water from storage to points of treatment and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods.

Any or all financial assistance as provided herein shall be repaid with interest upon such terms, conditions and manner of repayment as may be provided by law.

While any of the bonds authorized by this provision or while any of the bonds that may be authorized by the Legislature under this provision, or any interest on any of such bonds, is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Water Development Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Texas Water Development Board. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature. The Legislature may also make appropriations from the General Revenue Fund for paying administrative expenses of the Board.

From the moneys received by the Texas Water Development Board as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this Section sufficient moneys to pay the interest and principal to become due during the ensuing year and sufficient to establish and maintain a reserve in said fund equal to the average annual principal and interest requirements on all outstanding bonds issued under this Section. If any year prior to December 31, 1982 moneys are received in excess of the foregoing requirements then such excess shall be deposited to the Texas Water Development Fund, and may be used for administrative expenses of the Board and for the same purposes and upon the same terms and conditions prescribed for the proceeds derived from the sale of such State bonds. No grant of financial assistance shall be made under the provisions of this Section after December 31, 1982, and all moneys thereafter received as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the State bonds; except that such amount as may be required to meet the administrative expenses of the Board may be annually set aside; and provided, that if all State bonds have been fully paid at interest, or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys so received shall be deposited to the General Revenue Fund.

All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature.

Art. 3 § 49–d

CONSTITUTION

§ 49–d. Acquisition and Development of Water Storage Facilities; Filtration, Treatment and Transportation of Water; Enlargement of Reservoirs

Sec. 49–d. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the State of Texas to encourage the optimum development of the limited number of feasible sites available for the construction or enlargement of dams and reservoirs for conservation of the public waters of the state, which waters are held in trust for the use and benefit of the public. The proceeds from the sale of the additional bonds authorized hereunder deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund and the proceeds of bonds previously authorized by said Section 49–c of Article III of this Constitution, may be used by the Texas Water Development Board, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law, including the requirement of a permit for storage or beneficial use, for the additional purposes of acquiring and developing storage facilities, and any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and transportation of water from storage to points of treatment, filtration and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to whole sale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods; provided, however, the Texas Water Development Fund or any other state fund provided for water development, transmission, transfer or filtration shall not be used to finance any project which contemplates or results in the removal from the basin of origin of any surface water necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable future water requirements for the next ensuing fifty-year period within the river basin of origin, except on a temporary, interim basis.

Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law the Texas Water Development Fund may be used for the conservation and development of water for useful purposes by construction or reconstruction or enlargement of reservoirs constructed or to be constructed or enlarged within the State of Texas or on any stream constituting a boundary of the State of Texas, together with any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and/or transportation of water, by any one or more of the following governmental agencies: by the United States of America or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by the State of Texas or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the state; by interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party; and by municipal corporations. The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions under which the Texas Water Development Board may sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any reservoir and associated system or works which the Texas Water Development Board has financed in whole or in part.

Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law, the Texas Water Development Board—may also execute long-term contracts with the United States or any of its agencies for the acquisition and development of storage facilities in reservoirs constructed or to be constructed by the Federal Government. Such contracts when executed shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas in the same manner and with the same effect as state bonds issued under the authority of the preceding Section 49–c of this Constitution, and the provisions in said Section 49–c with respect to payment of principal and interest on state bonds issued shall likewise apply with respect to interest required to be paid by such contracts. If storage facilities are acquired for a term of years, such contracts shall contain provisions for renewal that will protect the state’s investment.

The aggregate of the bonds authorized hereunder shall not exceed $200,000,000 and shall be in addition to the aggregate of the bonds previously authorized by said Section 49–c of Article III of this Constitution. The Legislature upon two-thirds (% vote of the elected members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue all or any portion of such $200,-000,000 in additional bonds herein authorized.

The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions for the Texas Water Development Board to sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any acquired storage facilities or the right to use such storage facilities together with any associated system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment or transportation of water at a price not less than the cost of the Board to provide such facilities; and the Legislature may provide terms and conditions for the Board to sell any unappropriated public waters of the state that might be stored in such facilities. As a prerequisite to the purchase of such storage or water, the applicant therefor shall have secured a valid permit from the Texas Water Commission or its successor authorizing the acquisition of such storage facilities or the water impounded therein. The money received from any sale, transfer or lease of storage facilities or associated system or works shall be used to pay principal and interest on state bonds issued or contractual obligations incurred by the Texas Water Development Board, provided that when moneys are sufficient to pay the full amount of indebtedness then outstanding and the full amount of interest to accrue thereon, any further sums received from the sale, transfer or lease of such storage facilities or associated system or works may be used for the acquisition of additional storage facilities or associated system or works or for providing financial assistance as authorized by said Section 49–c. Money received from the sale of water, which shall include standby service, may be used for the operation and maintenance of acquired facilities, and for the payment of principal and interest on debt incurred.

Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character.

§ 49–d–1. Texas Water Development Bonds; Additional Issue

Sec. 49–d–1. (a) The Texas Water Development Board shall upon direction of the Texas Water Quality Board, or any successor agency designated by the Legislature, issue additional Texas Water Development Bonds up to an additional aggregate principal amount of One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) to provide grants, loans, or any combination of grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature. The Texas Water Quality Board or any successor agency designated by the Legislature may make such grants and loans to political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas, including municipal corporations, river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts, and districts created or organized or authorized to be created or organized under Article XVI, Section 59, or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, state agencies, and inter-state agencies and compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party, and upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may authorize by general law. The bonds shall be issued for such terms, in such denominations, form and installments, and upon such conditions as the Legislature may authorize.

(b) The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund to be invested and administered as prescribed by law.

(c) The bonds authorized in this Section 49-d-1 and all bonds authorized by Sections 49-e and 49-d of Article III shall bear interest at not more than 6% per annum and mature as the Texas Water Development Board shall prescribe, subject to the limitations as may be imposed by the Legislature.

(d) The Texas Water Development Fund shall be used for the purposes heretofore permitted by, and subject to the limitations in Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1; provided, however, that the financial assistance may be made pursuant to the provisions of Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1 subject only to the availability of funds and without regard to the provisions in Section 49-c that such financial assistance shall terminate after December 31, 1982.

(e) Texas Water Development Bonds are secured by the general credit of the State and shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

(f) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature.

§ 49-e. Texas Park Development Fund

Sec. 49-e. The Parks and Wildlife Department, or its successor vested with the powers, duties, and authority which deals with the operation, maintenance, and improvement of State Parks, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called “Texas Park Development Bonds,” shall be executed in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by the Parks and Wildlife Department or its successor, but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds, shall not exceed four and one-half percent (4½%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein.

All moneys received from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created with the State Treasurer to be known as the Texas Park Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, in such manner as prescribed by law.

Such fund shall be used by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by general law, for the purposes of acquiring lands from the United States, or any governmental agency thereof, from any governmental agency of the State of Texas, or from any person, firm, or corporation, for State Park Sites and for developing said sites as State Parks.

While any of the bonds authorized by this provision, or any interest on any such bonds, is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the interest and sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year, which includes any receipts derived during the prior fiscal year by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from admission charges to State Parks, as the Legislature may prescribe by general law.

The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Park Development Fund and the interest and sinking fund established for the payment of bonds issued by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

From the moneys received by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from the sale of the bonds issued hereunder, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this section sufficient moneys to pay the interest to become due during the State fiscal year in which the bonds were issued. After all bonds have been fully paid with interest, or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys received from admission charges to State Parks shall be deposited to the State Parks Fund, or any successor fund which may be established by the Legislature as a depository for Park revenue earned by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor.

All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature.

§ 50. Loan or Pledge of Credit of State

Sec. 50. The Legislature shall have the power to give or to lend, or to authorize the giving or lending, of the credit of the State in aid of, or to any person, association or corporation, whether municipal or otherwise, or to pledge the credit of the State in any manner whatsoever, for the payment of the liabilities, present or prospective, of any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporation whatsoever.

§ 50-a. State Medical Education Board; State Medical Education Fund; Purpose

Sec. 50-a. The Legislature shall create a State Medical Education Board to be composed of not more than six (6) members whose qualifications, duties and terms of office shall be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall also establish a State Medical Education Fund and make adequate appropriations therefor to be used by the State Medical Education Board to provide grants, loans or scholarships to students desiring to study medicine and agreeing to practice in the rural areas of this State, upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by law. The term “rural areas” as used in this Section shall be defined by law.

§ 50-b. Student Loans

Sec. 50-b. (a) The Legislature may provide that the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Eighty-five Million Dollars ($85,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called “Texas College Student Loan Bonds”, shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purposes of this Section.

(b) All moneys received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund to be administered by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors to make loans to students who have been admitted to attend any institution of higher education within the State of Texas, public or private, including Junior Colleges, which are recognized or accredited under terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature, and to pay interest and principal on such bonds and provide a sinking fund therefor under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe.

(c) While any of the bonds, or interest on said bonds authorized by this Section is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

(d) The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

(e) All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under this Constitution.

(f) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such acts shall not be void because of their anticipatory nature.

§ 50-b-1. Additional Student Loans

Sec. 50-b-1. (a) The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund created by Section 50b of the Constitution and shall otherwise be handled as provided in Section 50b of the Constitution and the laws enacted pursuant thereto.

(b) All moneys received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited to the credit of the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors to make loans to students who have been admitted to attend any institution of higher education within the State of Texas, public or private, including Junior Colleges, which are recognized or accredited under terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature, and to pay interest and principal on such bonds and provide a sinking fund therefor under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe.

(c) The said bonds shall be general obligations of the state and shall be payable in the same manner and from the same sources as bonds heretofore authorized pursuant to Section 50b.

(d) All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under this Constitution.

(e) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment such acts shall not be void because of their anticipatory nature.

[Adopted Aug. 5, 1969.]

§ 51. Grants of Public Money Prohibited; Exceptions

Sec. 51. The Legislature shall have no power to make any grant or authorize the making of any grant of public moneys to any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporations whatsoever; provided, however, the Legislature may grant aid to indigent and disabled Confederate soldiers and sailors under such regulations and limitations as may be deemed by the Legislature as expedient, and to their widows in indigent circumstances under such regulations and limitations as may be deemed by the Legislature as expedient; provided that the provisions of this Section shall not be construed so as to prevent the grant of aid in cases of public calamity.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 6, 1894; Nov. 1, 1898; Nov. 5, 1904; Nov. 5, 1910; Nov. 5, 1912; Nov. 4, 1924; Nov. 6, 1928; Nov. 5, 1968.]

§ 51-a. Assistance Grants and Medical Care for Needy Aged, Disabled and Blind Persons, and Needy Dependent Children; Federal Funds; Supplemental Appropriations

Sec. 51-a. The Legislature shall have the power, by General Laws, to provide, subject to limitations herein contained, and such other limitations, restrictions and regulations as may by the Legislature be deemed expedient, for assistance grants to and/or medical care for, and for rehabilitation and any other services included in the federal laws as they now read or as they may hereafter be amended, providing matching funds to help such families and individuals attain or retain eligibility for independence or self-care, and for the payment of assistance grants to and/or medical care for, and for rehabilitation and other services to or on behalf of:

(1) Needy aged persons who are citizens of the United States or noncitizens who shall have resided within the boundaries of the United States for at least twenty-five (25) years;

(2) Needy individuals who are totally and permanently disabled by reason of a mental or physical handicap or a combination of physical and mental handicaps;

(3) Needy blind persons;

(4) Needy dependent children and the caretakers of such children.

The Legislature may prescribe such other eligibility requirements for participation in these programs as it deems appropriate.

The Legislature shall have authority to enact appropriate legislation which will enable the State of Texas to cooperate with the Government of the United States in providing assistance to and/or medical care on behalf of needy persons, in providing rehabilitation and any other services included in the federal laws making matching funds available to help such families and individuals attain or retain capability for independence or self-care, to accept and expend funds from the Government of the United States for such purposes, in accordance with the laws of the United States as they now are or as they may hereafter be amended, and to make appropriations out of state funds for such purposes; provided that the maximum amount paid out of state funds to or on behalf of any needy person shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds; provided that the total amount of such assistance payments only out of state funds on behalf of such individuals shall not exceed the amount of Eighty Million Dollars ($80,000,000) during any fiscal year.

Provided further, that if the limitations and restrictions herein contained are found to be in conflict with the provisions of appropriate federal statutes, as they now are or as they may be amended to the extent that federal matching money is not available to the state for these purposes, then and in that event the Legislature is specifically authorized and empowered to prescribe such limitations and restrictions and enact such laws as may be necessary in order that such federal matching money will be available for assistance and/or medical care for or on behalf of needy persons.

Nothing in this Section shall be construed to amend, modify or repeal Section 31 of Article XVI of this Constitution; provided further, however, that such medical care, services or assistance shall also include the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting lenses or prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit optometrists to treat the eyes for any defect whatsoever in any manner nor to administer nor to prescribe any drug or physical treatment whatsoever, unless such optometrist is a regularly licensed physician or surgeon under the laws of this state.

§ 51-b. State Building Commission; State Building Fund

Sec. 51-b. (a) The State Building Commission is hereby created. Its membership shall consist of the Governor, the Attorney General and the Chairman of the Board of Control. The Legislature may provide by law for some other State official to be a member of this Commission in lieu of the Chairman of the Board of Control, and in the event said State official has not already been confirmed by the Senate as such State official he shall be so confirmed as a member of the State Building Commission in the same manner that other State officials are confirmed.

(b) The State Building Fund is hereby created. On or before the first day of January following the adoption of this amendment, and each year thereafter, the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of money necessary to pay Confederate pensions for the ensuing calendar year as provided by the constitution and laws of this State. Thereupon each year the State Treasurer shall transfer forthwith from the Confederate Pension Fund to the State Building Fund all money except that needed to pay the Confederate pensions as certified by the Comptroller. This provi-

section is self-enacting. The State Building Fund shall be expended by the Commission upon appropriation by the Legislature for the uses and purposes set forth in subdivision (c) hereof.

(c) Under such terms and conditions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law, the Commission may acquire necessary real and personal property, salvage and dispose of property unsuitable for State purposes, modernize, remodel, build and equip buildings for State purposes, and negotiate and make contracts necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes herein mentioned.

The first major structure erected from the State Building Fund shall be known and shall be devoted to the use and occupancy of the agencies as may be provided by law. The second major structure erected from the State Building Fund shall be a State office building and shall be used by whatever State agencies as may be provided by law.

Under such terms and conditions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law, the State Building Commission may expend not exceeding five (5%) percent of the moneys available to it in any one year, for the purpose of erecting memorials to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Confederate States of America, and shall be devoted to the use and occupancy of the Supreme Court and such other courts and State agencies as may be provided by law. The authorization for expenditures for memorials herein mentioned shall cease as of December 31, 1965. Under such terms and conditions as are now or may hereafter be permitted by law, the State Building Commission may expend not exceeding Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars in the aggregate for the purpose of erecting memorials to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Republic in the Texas War for Independence. Said memorials may be upon battlefields or other suitable places within or without the boundaries of this State. The authorization for expenditures for memorials herein mentioned shall cease as of December 31, 1965.

(d) The State ad valorem tax on property of Two (2½) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation now levied under Section 51 of Article III of the Constitution as amended by Section 17, of Article VII (adopted in 1947) is hereby specifically levied for the purposes of continuing the payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Article III, Section 51, and for the establishment and continued maintenance of the State Building Fund hereby created.

(e) Should the 53rd Legislature enact a law or laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such shall not be invalid by reason of their anticipatory character.

§ 51-b-1. Assistance for Totally and Permanently Disabled Individuals

Amendment proposed by S.J.R. No. 21, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1804, adopted by the voters at election held on Nov. 9, 1963, amended and merged this section and section 51-a into one

§ 51-c. Aid or Compensation to Persons Improperly Fined or Imprisoned

Sec. 51-c. The Legislature may grant aid and compensation to any person who has heretofore paid a fine or served a sentence in prison, or who may hereafter pay a fine or serve a sentence in prison, under the laws of this State for an offense for which he or she is not guilty, under such regulations and limitations as the Legislature may deem expedient.

§ 51-d. Payment of Assistance to Survivors of Law Enforcement Officers

Sec. 51-d. The Legislature shall have the power, by general law, to provide for the payment of assistance by the State of Texas to the surviving spouse and minor children of officers, employees, and agents, including members of organized volunteer fire departments and members of organized police reserve or auxiliary units with authority to make an arrest, of the state or of any city, county, district, or other political subdivision who, because of the hazardous nature of their duties, suffer death in the course of the performance of those official duties. Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

§ 51-e. Municipal Retirement Systems and Disability Pensions

Sec. 51-e. Each incorporated city and town in this State shall have the power and authority to provide a system of retirement and disability pensions for its appointive officers and employees who have become disabled as a direct and proximate result of the performance of their duties, or have passed their sixty-fifth birthday, or have been employed by such city or town for more than twentyfive (25) years and have passed their sixtieth birthday, or have been employed by such city or town for more than twenty-five (25) years and have passed their sixty-sixth birthday, and when and if, but only when and if, such system has been approved at an election by the qualified voters of such city or town entitled to vote on the question of issuance of tax supported bonds; provided that no city or town shall contribute more than the equivalent of seven and one half (7½) per cent of salaries and wages of the officers and employees entitled to participate in its pension system, and that said officers and employees shall contribute a like amount; and this Amendment shall not reduce the authority nor duty of any city or town otherwise existing.

§ 51-f. State-wide Retirement and Disability System for Municipal Officers and Employees

Sec. 51-f. The Legislature of this State shall have the authority to provide for a system of retirement and disability pensions for appointive officers and employees of cities and towns to operate State-wide or by districts under such a plan and program as the Legislature shall direct and shall provide that participation therein by cities and towns shall be voluntary; provided that the Legislature shall never make an appropriation to pay any cost of any system authorized by this Section.
[Adopted Nov. 7, 1944.]

§ 51-g. Social Security Coverage of Proprietary Employees of Political Subdivisions

Sec. 51-g. The Legislature shall have the power to pass such laws as may be necessary to enable the State to enter into agreements with the Federal Government to obtain for proprietary employees of its political subdivisions coverage under the old-age and survivors insurance provisions of Title II of the Federal Social Security Act as amended.¹ The Legislature shall have the power to make appropriations and authorize all obligations necessary to the establishment of such Social Security coverage program.
[Adopted Nov. 2, 1954.]

§ 52. Counties, Cities, Towns or other Political Corporations or Subdivisions; Lending Credit; Grants

Sec. 52. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the Legislature shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other political corporation or subdivision of the State to lend its credit or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of, or to any individual, association or corporation whatsoever, or to become a stockholder in such corporation, association or company.

(b) Under Legislative provision, any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties, or any political subdivision of the State, or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, and which may or may not include, towns, villages or municipal corporations, upon a vote of two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be affected thereby, in addition to all other debts, may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district or territory, except that the total bonded indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by other provisions of this Constitution, and levy and collect taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, as the Legislature may authorize, and in such manner as it may authorize the same, for the following purposes to wit:

1. The improvement of rivers, creeks, and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof, or irrigation thereof, or in aid of such purposes.

2. The construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purposes of irrigation, drainage or navigation, or in aid thereof.

3. The construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled, or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, upon a vote of a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of the county, and without the necessity of further or amendatory legislation. The county may levy and collect taxes to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due and to provide a sinking fund for redemption of the bonds.

§ 52-a. Blank

§ 52-b. Loan of State's Credit or Grant of Public Money for Toll Road Purposes

Sec. 52-b. The Legislature shall have no power or authority to lend the credit of the State or grant any public money to, or assume any indebtedness, present or future, bonded or otherwise, of any individual, person, firm, partnership, association, corporation, public corporation, public agency, or political subdivision of the State, or anyone else, which is now or hereafter authorized to construct, maintain or operate toll roads and turnpikes within this State.

§ 52-c. Blank

§ 52-d. County or Road District Tax for Road Purposes

Sec. 52-d. Upon the vote of a majority of the resident qualified electors owning rendered taxable property therein so authorizing, a county or road district may collect an annual tax for a period not exceeding five (5) years to create a fund for constructing lasting and permanent roads and bridges or both. No contract involving the expenditure of any of such fund shall be valid unless, when it is made, money shall be on hand in such fund.

At such election, the Commissioners' Court shall submit for adoption a road plan and designate the amount of special tax to be levied; the number of years said tax is to be levied; the location, description, and character of the roads and bridges; and the estimated cost thereof. The funds raised by such taxes shall not be used for purposes other than those specified in the plan submitted to the voters. Elections may be held from time to time to extend or discontinue said plan or to increase or diminish said tax. The Legislature shall enact laws prescribing the procedure hereunder.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to Harris County and road districts therein.

§ 63. Consolidation of Governmental Functions of Political Subdivisions in Counties of 1,200,000 or More

Sec. 63. (1) The Legislature may by statute provide for the consolidation of some functions of government of any one or more political subdivisions comprising or located within any county in this State having one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more inhabitants. Any such statute shall require an election to be held within the political subdivisions affected thereby with approval by a majority of the voters in each of these political subdivisions, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may require.

(2) The county government, or any political subdivision(s) comprising or located therein, may contract one with another for the performance of governmental functions required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe. The term "governmental functions," as it relates to counties, includes all duties, activities and operations of state-wide importance in which the county acts for the State, as well as of local importance, whether required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State. [Adopted Nov. 8, 1966.]

any county. Any such statute shall require an election to be held within the political subdivisions affected thereby with approval by a majority of the voters in each of these subdivisions, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may require.

(b) The county government, or any political subdivision(s) comprising or located therein, may contract one with another for the performance of governmental functions, required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe. No person acting under a contract made pursuant to this Subsection (b) shall be deemed to hold more than one office of honor, trust or profit or more than one civil office of emolument. The term “governmental functions,” as it relates to counties, includes all duties, activities and operations of statewide importance in which the county acts for the State, as well as of local importance, whether required or authorized by this Constitution or the Laws of this State.

§ 65. Public Bonds; Interest Rate; Conflicting Rates Repealed

Sec. 65. Wherever the Constitution authorizes an agency, instrumentality, or subdivision of the State to issue bonds and specifies the maximum rate of interest which may be paid on such bonds issued pursuant to such constitutional authority, such bonds may bear interest at rates not to exceed a weighted average annual interest rate of 6%. All Constitutional provisions specifically setting rates in conflict with this provision are hereby repealed. [This amendment shall become effective upon its adoption].

§ 1. Officers constituting the Executive Department

Sec. 1. The Executive Department of the State shall consist of a Governor, who shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the State, a Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, and Attorney General.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 2. Election of officers of Executive Department

Sec. 2. All the above officers of the Executive Department (except Secretary of State) shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State at the time and places of election for members of the Legislature.

§ 3. Returns of Election; Declaration of Election; Tie Votes; Contests

Sec. 3. The returns of every election for said executive officers, until otherwise provided by law, shall be made out, sealed up, and transmitted by the returning officers prescribed by law, to the seat of Government, directed to the Secretary of State, who shall deliver the same to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as soon as the Speaker shall be chosen, and the said Speaker shall, during the first week of the session of the Legislature, open and publish them in the presence of both Houses of the Legislature. The person, voted for at said election, having the highest number of votes for each of said offices respectively, and being constitutionally eligible, shall be declared by the Speaker, under sanction of the Legislature, to be elected to said office. But, if two or more persons shall have the highest and an equal number of votes for either of said offices, one of them shall be immediately chosen to such office by joint vote of both Houses of the Legislature. Contested elections for either of said offices, shall be determined by both Houses of the Legislature in joint session.

§ 3-a. Death, Disability or Failure to Qualify of Person receiving Highest Vote

Sec. 3-a. If, at the time the Legislature shall canvass the election returns for the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, the person receiving the highest number of votes for the office of Governor, as declared by the Speaker, has died, then the person having the highest number of votes for the office of Lieutenant Governor shall act as Governor until after the next general election. It is further provided that in the event the person with the highest number of votes for the office of Governor, as declared by the Speaker, shall become disabled, or fail to qualify, then the Lieutenant Governor shall § 4. Installation of Governor; Term; Eligibility
Sec. 4. The Governor elected at the general election in 1974, and thereafter, shall be installed on the first Tuesday after the organization of the Legislature, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall hold his office for the term of four years, or until his successor shall be duly installed. He shall be at least thirty years of age, a citizen of the United States, and shall have resided in this State at least five years immediately preceding his election. [Adopted Nov. 2, 1948.]

§ 5. Compensation of Governor
Sec. 5. The Governor shall, at stated times, receive as compensation for his services an annual salary in an amount to be fixed by the Legislature, and shall have the use and occupation of the Governor's Mansion, fixtures and furniture. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 3, 1936; Nov. 2, 1948.]

§ 6. Holding other Offices; Practice of Profession; Other Salary Reward or Compensation
Sec. 6. During the time he holds the office of Governor, he shall not hold any other office: civil, military or corporate; nor shall he practice any profession, and receive compensation, reward, fee, or the promise thereof for the same; nor receive any salary, reward or compensation or the promise thereof from any person or corporation, for any service rendered or performed during the time he is Governor, or to be thereafter rendered or performed. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 7. Commander in Chief of Military Forces; Calling Forth Militia
Sec. 7. He shall be Commander-in-Chief of the military forces of the State, except when they are called into actual service of the United States. He shall have power to call forth the militia to execute the laws of the State, to suppress insurrections, repel invasions, and protect the frontier from hostile incursions by Indians or other predatory bands. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 8. Convening Legislature on Extraordinary Occasions
Sec. 8. The Governor may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the Legislature at the seat of Government, or at a different place, in case that should be in possession of the public enemy or in case of the prevalence of disease thereat. His proclamation therefor shall state specifically the purpose for which the Legislature is convened. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 9. Governor's Message and Recommendations; Accounting for Public Money; Estimates of Money Required
Sec. 9. The Governor shall, at the commencement of each session of the Legislature, and at the close of his term of office, give to the Legislature information, by message, of the condition of the State; and he shall recommend to the Legislature such measures as he may deem expedient. He shall account to the Legislature for all public moneys received and paid out by him, from any funds subject to his order, with vouchers; and shall accompany his message with a statement of the same. And at the commencement of each regular session, he shall present estimates of the amount of money required to be raised by taxation for all purposes. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 10. Execution of Laws; Conduct of Business with other States and United States
Sec. 10. He shall cause the laws to be faithfully executed and shall conduct, in person, or in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, all intercourse and business of the State with other States and with the United States. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11. Reprieves, Commutations and Pardons; Remission of Fines and Forfeitures
Sec. 11. There is hereby created a Board of Pardons and Paroles, to be composed of three members, who shall have been resident citizens of the State of Texas for a period of not less than two years immediately preceding such appointment, each of whom shall hold office for a term of six years; provided that of the members of the first board appointed, one shall serve for two years, one for four years and one for six years from the first day of February, 1937, and they shall cast lots for their respective terms. One member of said Board shall be appointed by the Governor, one member by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Texas, and one member by the presiding Justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals; the appointments of all members of said Board shall be made with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the Senate present. Each vacancy shall be filled by the respective appointing power that theretofore made the appointment to such position and the appointive powers shall have the authority to make recess appointments until the convening of the Senate.

In all criminal cases, except treason and impeachment, the Governor shall have power, after conviction, on the written signed recommendation and advice of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, or a majority thereof, to grant reprieves and commutations of punishment and pardons; and under such rules as the Legislature may prescribe, and upon the written recommendation and advice of a majority of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, he shall have the power to remit fines and forfeitures. The Governor shall have the power to grant one reprieve in any capital case for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days; and he shall have the power to grant conditional pardons. With the advice and consent of the Legislature, he may grant reprieves, commutations of punishment and pardons in cases of treason.

The Legislature shall have power to regulate procedure before the Board of Pardons and Paroles and shall require it to keep record of its actions and the § 11 - A. Suspension of Sentence and Probation

Sec. 11 - A. The Courts of the State of Texas having original jurisdiction of criminal actions shall have the power, after conviction, to suspend the imposition or execution of sentence and to place the defendant upon probation and to reimpose such sentence, under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe.

§ 12. Vacancies in State or District Offices

Sec. 12. All vacancies in State or district offices, except members of the Legislature, shall be filled unless otherwise provided by law, by appointment of the Governor, which appointment, if made during its session, shall be with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the Senate present. If made during the recess of the Senate, the said appointee, or some other person to fill such vacancy, shall be nominated to the Senate during the first ten days of its session. If rejected, said office shall immediately become vacant, and the Governor shall, without delay, make further nominations, until a confirmation takes place. But should there be no confirmation during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall not thereafter appoint any person to fill such vacancy who has been rejected by the Senate; but may appoint some other person to fill the vacancy until the next session of the Senate or until the regular election to said office, should it sooner occur. Appointments to vacancies in offices elective by the people shall only continue until the first general election thereafter.

§ 13. Residence of Governor

Sec. 13. During the session of the Legislature the Governor shall reside where its sessions are held, and at all other times at the seat of Government, except when by act of the Legislature, he may be required or authorized to reside elsewhere.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 14. Approval or Disapproval of Bills; Return and Reconsideration; Failure to Return; Disapproval of Items of Appropriation

Sec. 14. Every bill which shall have passed both Houses of the Legislature shall be presented to the Governor for his approval. If he approve he shall sign it; but if he disapprove it, he shall return it, with his objections, to the House in which it originated, which House shall enter the objections at large upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members present agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the objections, to the other House, by which likewise it shall be reconsidered; and, if approved by two-thirds of the members of that House, it shall become a law; but in such cases the votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the yeas or nays are to be inserted on the journal of each House respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor with his objections within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature, by its adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be a law, unless he shall file the same, with his objections, in the office of the Secretary of State and give notice thereof by public proclamation within twenty days after such adjournment. If any bill presented to the Governor contains several items of appropriation he may object to one or more of such items, and approve the other portion of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects, and no item so objected to shall take effect. If the Legislature be in session, he shall transmit to the House in which the bill originated a copy of such statement and the items objected to shall be separately considered. If, on reconsideration, one or more of such items be approved by two-thirds of the members present of each House, the same shall be part of the law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. If any such bill, containing several items of appropriation, not having been presented to the Governor ten days (Sundays excepted) prior to adjournment, be in the hands of the Governor at the time of adjournment, he shall have twenty days from such adjournment within which to file objections to any items thereof and make proclamation of the same, and such item or items shall not take effect.

§ 15. Approval or Disapproval of Orders, Resolutions or Votes

Sec. 15. Every order, resolution or vote to which the concurrence of both Houses of the Legislature may be necessary, except on questions of adjournment, shall be presented to the Governor, and, before it shall take effect, shall be approved by him; or, being disapproved, shall be repassed by both Houses, and all the rules, provisions and limitations shall apply thereto as prescribed in the last preceding section in the case of a bill.

§ 16. Lieutenant Governor

Sec. 16. There shall also be a Lieutenant Governor, who shall be chosen at every election for Governor by the same electors, in the same manner, continue in office for the same time, and possess the same qualifications. The electors shall distinguish for whom they vote as Governor and for whom as Lieutenant Governor. The Lieutenant Governor, shall by virtue of his office, be President of the Senate, and shall have, when in Committee of the Whole, a right to debate and vote on all questions; and when the Senate is equally divided to give the casting vote. In case of the death, resignation, removal from office, inability or refusal of the Governor to serve, or of his impeachment or absence from the State, the Lieutenant Governor shall exercise the powers and authority appertaining to the office of Governor until another be chosen at the periodical election, and be duly qualified; or until the Governor impeached, absent or disabled, shall be acquitted, return, or his disability be removed.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 17. Death, Resignation, Refusal to Serve, Removal, Inability to Serve, Impeachment or Absence; Compensation

Sec. 17. If, during the vacancy in the office of Governor, the Lieutenant Governor should die, resign, refuse to serve, or be removed from office, or be unable to serve; or if he shall be impeached or absent from the State, the President of the Senate, for the time being, shall, in like manner, administer the Government until he shall be superseded by a Governor or Lieutenant Governor. The Lieutenant Governor shall, while he acts as President of the Senate, receive for his services the same compensation and mileage which shall be allowed to the members of the Senate, and no more; and during the time he administers the Government, as Governor, he shall receive in like manner the same compensation which the Governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office, and no more. The President, for the time being, of the Senate, shall, during the time he administers the Government, receive in like manner the same compensation, which the Governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office.

§ 18. Restrictions and Inhibitions

Sec. 18. The Lieutenant Governor or President of the Senate succeeding to the office of Governor, shall, during the entire term to which he may succeed, be under all the restrictions and inhibitions imposed in this Constitution on the Governor.

§ 19. Seal of State

Sec. 19. There shall be a Seal of the State which shall be kept by the Secretary of State, and used by him officially under the direction of the Governor. The Seal of the State shall be a star of five points encircled by olive and live oak branches, and the words “The State of Texas.”

§ 20. Commissions

Sec. 20. All commissions shall be in the name and by the authority of the State of Texas, sealed with the State Seal, signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State.

§ 21. Secretary of State

Sec. 21. There shall be a Secretary of State, who shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall continue in office during the term of service of the Governor. He shall authenticate the publication of the laws, and keep a fair register of all official acts and proceedings of the Governor, and shall, when required, lay the same and all papers, minutes and vouchers relative thereto, before the Legislature, or either House thereof, and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by law. He shall receive for his services an annual salary in an amount to be fixed by the Legislature.

§ 22. Attorney General

Sec. 22. The Attorney General elected at the general election in 1974, and thereafter, shall hold office for four years and until his successor is duly qualified. He shall represent the State in all suits and pleas in the Supreme Court of the State in which the State may be a party, and shall especially inquire into the charter rights of all private corporations, and from time to time, in the name of the State, take such action in the courts as may be proper and necessary to prevent any private corporation from exercising any power or demanding or collecting any species of taxes, tolls, freight or wharfage not authorized by law. He shall, whenever sufficient cause exists, seek a judicial forfeiture of such charters, unless otherwise expressly directed by law, and give legal advice in writing to the Governor and other executive officers, when requested by them, and perform such other duties as may be required by law. He shall reside at the seat of government during his continuance in office. He shall receive for his services an annual salary in an amount to be fixed by the Legislature.

§ 23. Comptroller of Public Accounts; Treasurer; Commissioner of General Land Office; Elected Statutory State Officers; Term; Salary, Fees, Costs and Perquisites

Sec. 23. The Comptroller of Public Accounts, the Treasurer, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and any statutory State officer who is elected by the electorate of Texas at large, unless a term of office is otherwise specifically provided in this Constitution, shall each hold office for the term of four years and until his successor is qualified. The four-year term applies to these officers who are elected at the general election in 1974 or thereafter. An account shall be kept by the officers and managers, upon any subject relating to the respective offices and institutions, which information in writing from any and all of said officers or managers, upon any subject relating to the duties, condition, management and expenses of their respective offices and institutions, which information shall be required by the Governor under oath, and the Governor may, at any time, require information in writing from any and all of said officers or managers, upon any subject relating to the duties, condition, management and expenses of their respective offices and institutions, which information shall be required by the Governor under oath, and the Governor may also inspect their books, accounts, vouchers and public funds; and any officer or manager who, at any time, shall wilfully make a false report or give false information, shall be guilty of perjury, and so adjudged, and punished accordingly, and removed from office.

§ 24. Accounts and Reports; Information To, and Inspection By, Governor; Perjury

Sec. 24. An account shall be kept by the officers of the Executive Department, and by all officers and managers of State institutions, of all moneys and choses in action received and disbursed or otherwise disposed of by them, severally, from all sources, and for every service performed; and a semi-annual report thereof shall be made to the Governor under oath. The Governor may, at any time, require information in writing from any and all of said officers or managers, upon any subject relating to the duties, condition, management and expenses of their respective offices and institutions, which information shall be required by the Governor under oath, and the Governor may also inspect their books, accounts, vouchers and public funds; and any officer or manager who, at any time, shall wilfully make a false report or give false information, shall be guilty of perjury, and so adjudged, and punished accordingly, and removed from office.

§ 25. Custodians of Public Funds; Breaches of Trust and Duty

Sec. 25. The Legislature shall pass efficient laws facilitating the investigation of breaches of trust and duty by all custodians of public funds and providing for their suspension from office on reasonable cause shown, and for the appointment of temporary incumbents of their offices during such suspension.

§ 26. Notaries Public

Sec. 26. (a) The Secretary of State shall appoint a convenient number of Notaries Public for each county who shall perform such duties as now are or may be prescribed by law. The qualifications of Notaries Public shall be prescribed by law.

(b) Nothing herein shall affect the terms of office of Notaries Public who have qualified for the present term prior to the taking effect of this amendment.

(c) Should the Legislature enact an enabling law hereto in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such law shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 5, 1891, by Act of June 29, 1891.]

§ 1-a. Retirement, Censure, Removal and Compensation of Justices and Judges; State Judicial Qualifications Commission; Procedure

Sec. 1-a. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices and Judges of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent him from serving the remainder of said term nor be applicable to him before his period or periods of judicial service shall have reached a total of ten (10) years.

(2) There is hereby created the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, to consist of nine (9) members, to wit: (i) two (2) Justices of Courts of Civil Appeals; (ii) two (2) District Judges; (iii) two (2) members of the State Bar, who have respectively practiced as such for over ten (10) consecutive years next preceding their selection; (iii) three (3) citizens, at least thirty (30) years of age, not licensed to practice law nor holding any salaried public office or employment; provided that no person shall be or remain a member of the Commission, who does not maintain physical residence within this State, or who resides in, or holds a judgeship within or for, the same Supreme Judicial District as another member of the Commission, or who shall have ceased to retain the qualifications above specified for his respective class of membership. Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, and those of class (iii) by appointment of the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate.

(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iii) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years.

(4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission.

(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

(6) A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts, any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature.

B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf, and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to and cumulative of, the methods of removal of persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section provided elsewhere in this Constitution.

§ 2. Supreme Court; Justices; Sections; Eligibility; Election; Vacancies

Sec. 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case; provided, that when the business of the court may require, the court may sit in sections as designated by the court to hear argument of causes and to consider applications for writs of error or other preliminary matters. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of this state, and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty-five years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together at least ten years. Said Justices shall be elected (three of them each two years) by the qualified voters of the state at a general election; shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified; and shall each receive such compensation as shall be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of any Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for state officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the state. The Justices of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their term of office under the present Constitution, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The Judges of the Commission of Appeals who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall become Associate Justices of the Supreme Court and each shall continue in office as such Associate Justice of the Supreme Court until January 1st next preceding the expiration of the term to which he has been appointed and until his successor shall be elected and qualified.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Aug. 11, 1891;
Aug. 25, 1945.]

§ 3. Jurisdiction of Supreme Court; Writs; Sessions; Clerk

Sec. 3. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State.
The appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction under such restrictions and regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. Until otherwise provided by law the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree, or where the several Courts of Civil Appeals may hold differently on the same question of law or where a statute of the State is held void. The Supreme Court and the Justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, as may be prescribed by law, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the said courts and the Justices thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and such other writs, as may be necessary to enable its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified, except as against the Governor of the State.

The Supreme Court shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction.
The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter, be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years and shall be subject to removal by said court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said court who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Aug. 11, 1891; Nov. 4, 1930.]

§ 3 - a. Sessions of Court

Sec. 3-a. The Supreme Court may sit at any time during the year at the seat of government for the transaction of business and each term thereof shall begin and end with each calendar year.
[Adopted Nov. 4, 1930.]

§ 3 - b. Appeal from Order granting or denying Injunction

Sec. 3-b. The Legislature shall have the power to provide by law, for an appeal direct to the Supreme Court of this State from an order of any trial court granting or denying an interlocutory or permanent injunction on the grounds of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute of this State, or on the validity or invalidity of any administrative order issued by any state agency under any statute of this State.
[Adopted Nov. 5, 1940.]

§ 4. Court of Criminal Appeals; Judges

Sec. 4. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of five Judges, one of whom shall be Presiding Judge, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three Judges shall be necessary to a decision of said court. Said Judges shall have the same qualifications and receive the same salaries as the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court. They shall be elected by the qualified voters of the state at a general election and shall hold their offices for a term of six years. In case of a vacancy in the office of a Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Governor shall, with the advise and consent of the Senate, fill said vacancy by appointment until the next succeeding general election.

The Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time when this Amendment takes effect shall become Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals and continue in office until the expiration of the term of office for which each has been elected or appointed under the present Constitution and laws of this state, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

The two members of the Commission of Appeals in aid of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time when this Amendment takes effect shall become Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals and shall hold their offices, one for a term of two years and the other for a term of four years, beginning the first day of January following the adoption of this Amendment and until their successors are elected and qualified. Said Judges shall by agreement or otherwise designate the incumbent for each of the terms mentioned.
The Governor shall designate one of the five Judges as Presiding Judge and at the expiration of his term and each six years thereafter a Presiding Judge shall be elected.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Aug. 11, 1891, proclamation Sept. 22, 1891; Nov. 8, 1966.]

§ 5. Jurisdiction of Court of Criminal Appeals; Terms of Court; Clerk

Sec. 5. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of the state in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

The Court of Criminal Appeals and the Judges thereof shall have the power to issue the writ of habeas corpus, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

The Court of Criminal Appeals may sit for the transaction of business at any time from the first Monday in October to the last Saturday in September in each year, at the State Capitol. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall appoint a clerk of the court who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and who shall hold his office for a term of four years unless sooner removed by the court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said court.

The Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time when this Amendment takes effect shall continue in office for the term of his appointment.

§ 6. Courts of Civil Appeals; Transfer of Causes; Terms of Judges

Sec. 6. The Legislature shall as soon as practicable after the adoption of this amendment divide the State into not less than two nor more than three Supreme judicial districts and thereafter into such additional districts as the increase of population and business may require, and shall establish a Court of civil Appeals in each of said districts, which shall consist of a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices, who shall have the qualifications as herein prescribed for Justices of the Supreme Court. Said Court of Civil Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of their respective districts, which shall extend to all civil cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. Provided, that the decision of said courts shall be conclusive on all questions of fact brought before them on appeal or error.

Each of said Courts of Civil Appeals shall hold its sessions at a place in its district to be designated by the Legislature, and at such time as may be prescribed by law. Said Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective districts at a general election, for a term of six years and shall receive for their services the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum, until otherwise provided by law. Said courts shall have such other jurisdiction, original and appellate, as may be prescribed by law. Each Court of Civil Appeals shall appoint a clerk in the same manner as the clerk of the Supreme Court which clerk shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by law.

Until the organization of the Courts of Civil Appeals and Criminal Appeals, as herein provided for, the jurisdiction, power and organization and location of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals and the Commission of Appeals shall continue as they were before the adoption of this amendment.

All civil cases which may be pending in the Court of Appeals shall as soon as practicable after the organization of the Courts of Civil Appeals be certified to, and the records thereof transmitted to the proper Courts of Civil Appeals to be decided by said courts. At the first session of the Supreme Court the Court of Criminal Appeals and such of [of] the Courts of Civil Appeals which may be hereafter created under this article after the first election of the Judges of such courts under this amendment. The terms of office of the Judges of each court shall be divided into three classes and the Justices thereof shall draw for the different classes. Those who shall hold class No. 1 shall hold their offices two years, those drawing class No. 2 shall hold their offices for four years and those who may draw class No. 3 shall hold their offices for six years, from the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified, and thereafter each of the said Judges shall hold his office for six years, as provided in this Constitution.

§ 7. Judicial Districts; District Judges; Terms or Sessions; Absence, Disability or Disqualification of Judge

Sec. 7. The State shall be divided into as many judicial districts as may now or hereafter be provided by law, which may be increased or diminished by law. For each district there shall be elected by the qualified voters therein, at a General Election, a Judge, who shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall be licensed to practice law in this State and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a Judge of a Court in this State, or both combined, for four (4) years next preceding his election, who shall have resided in the district in which he was elected for two (2) years next preceding his election, who shall reside in his district during his term of office, who shall hold his office for the period of four (4) years, and shall receive for his services an annual salary to be fixed by the Legislature. The Court shall conduct its proceedings at the county seat of the county in which the case is pending, except as otherwise provided by law. He shall hold the regular terms of his Court at the County Seat of each County in his district at least twice in each year in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall have power by General or Special Laws to make such provisions concerning the terms or sessions of each Court as it may deem necessary.

The Legislature shall also provide for the holding of District Court when the Judge thereof is absent, or is from any cause disabled or disqualified from presiding.
Art. 5 § 7

The District Judges who may be in office when this Amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Aug. 11, 1891; Nov. 6, 1949.]

§ 8. Jurisdiction of District Court

Sec. 8. The District Court shall have original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony; in all suits in behalf of the State to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats; of all cases of divorce; of all misdemeanors involving official misconduct; of all suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character; of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon; of all suits for the trial of the right of property levied upon by virtue of any writ of execution, sequestration or attachment when the property levied on shall be equal to or exceed in value five hundred dollars; of all suits, complaints or pleas whatever, without regard to any distinction between law and equity, when the matter in controversy shall be valued at or amount to five hundred dollars exclusive of interest; of contested elections, and said court and the judges thereof, shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction and certiorari, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

The District Court shall have appellate jurisdiction and general control in probate matters, over the County Court established in each county, for appointing guardians, granting letters testamentary and of administration, probating wills, for settling the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, and for the transaction of all business appertaining to estates; and original jurisdiction and general control over executors, administrators, guardians and minors under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. The District Court shall have appellate jurisdiction and general supervisory control over the County Commissioners Court, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and shall have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action whatever for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or this Constitution, and such other jurisdiction, original and appellate, as may be provided by law.

The district court, concurrently with the county court, shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons and to apprentice minors, as provided by law. In any proceeding involving the general jurisdiction of a probate court, including such specified proceedings, the district court shall also have all other jurisdiction conferred upon the district court by law. The legislature, however, shall have the power, by local or general law, Section 16 of Article V of this Constitution notwithstanding, to increase, diminish or eliminate the jurisdiction of either the district court or the county court in probate matters, and in cases of any such change of jurisdiction, the legislature shall also conform the jurisdiction of the other courts to such change. The legislature shall have power to adopt rules governing the filing, distribution and transfer of all such cases and proceedings as between district courts, county courts, and other courts having jurisdiction thereof, and may provide that all appeals in such matters shall be to the courts of (civil) appeals.

§ 9. Clerk of District Court

Sec. 9. There shall be a Clerk for the District Court of each county, who shall be elected by the qualified voters for State and county officers, and who shall hold his office for four years, subject to removal by information, or by indictment of a grand jury, and conviction of a petit jury. In case of vacancy, the Judge of the District Court shall have the power to appoint a Clerk, who shall hold until the office can be filled by election.

§ 10. Trial by Jury

Sec. 10. In the trial of all causes in the District Courts, the plaintiff or defendant shall, upon application made in open court, have the right of trial by jury; but no jury shall be empanelled in any civil case unless demanded by a party to the case, and a jury fee be paid by the party demanding a jury, for such sum, and with such exceptions as may be prescribed by the Legislature.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11. Disqualification of Judges; Exchange of Districts; Holding Court for other Judges

Sec. 11. No judge shall sit in any case wherein he may be interested, or where either of the parties may be connected with him, either by affinity or consanguinity, within such a degree as may be prescribed by law, or when he shall have been counsel in the case. When the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Court of Civil Appeals, or any member of either, shall be thus disqualified to hear and determine any case or cases in said court, the same shall be certified to the Governor of the State, who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons learned in the law for the trial and determination of such cause or causes. When a judge of the District Court is disqualified by any of the causes above stated, the parties may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try said case; or upon their failing to do so, a competent person may be appointed to try the same in the county where it is pending, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

And the District Judges may exchange districts, or hold courts for each other when they may deem it expedient, and shall do so when required by law. This disqualification of judges of inferior tribunals shall be remedied and vacancies in their offices filled as may be prescribed by law.

§ 12. Judges to be Conservators of the Peace; Style of Writs and Process; Proceedings in Name of State; Conclusion

Sec. 12. All judges of courts of this State, by virtue of their office, be conservators of the peace.
throughout the State. The style of all writs and process shall be, "The State of Texas." All prosecutions shall be carried on in the name and by authority of the State of Texas, and shall conclude: "Against the peace and dignity of the State."

1 The resolution proposing this section, Acts 22nd Leg., 1891, p. 197, read as above. It is apparent that the word "shall" should be read into the first sentence making it read: "All judges of courts of this state, by virtue of their office, shall be conservators of the peace throughout the state."

§ 13. Number of Grand and Petit Jurors; Number Concurring

Sec. 13. Grand and petit juries in the District Courts shall be composed of twelve men; but nine members of a grand jury shall be a quorum to transact business and present bills. In trials of civil cases, and in trials of criminal cases below the grade of felony in the District Courts, nine members of the jury, concurring, may render a verdict, but when the verdict shall be rendered by less than the whole number, it shall be signed by every member of the jury concurring in it. When, pending the trial of any case, one or more jurors not exceeding three, may die, or be disabled from sitting, the remainder of the jury shall have the power to render the verdict; provided, that the Legislature may change or modify the rule authorizing less than the whole number of the jury to render a verdict.

§ 14. Judicial Districts and Time of Holding Court fixed by Ordinance

Sec. 14. The Judicial Districts in this State and the time of holding the Courts therein are fixed by ordinance forming part of this Constitution, until otherwise provided by law.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 15. County Court; County Judge

Sec. 15. There shall be established in each county in this State a County Court, which shall be a court of record; and there shall be elected in each county, by the qualified voters, a County Judge, who shall be well informed in the law of the State; shall be a conservator of the peace, and shall hold his office for four years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall receive as compensation for his services such fees and perquisites as may be prescribed by law.

§ 16. County Courts; Jurisdiction; Appeals to Court of Civil Appeals and Court of Criminal Appeals; Disqualification of Judge

Sec. 16. The County Court shall have original jurisdiction of all misdemeanors of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the Justices Court as the same is now or may hereafter be prescribed by law, and when the fine to be imposed shall exceed $200, and they shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all civil cases when the matter in controversy shall exceed in value $200, and not exceed $500, exclusive of interest, and concurrent jurisdiction with the District Court when the matter in controversy shall exceed $500, and not exceed $1,000, exclusive of interest, but shall not have jurisdiction of suits for the recovery of land. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in cases civil and criminal of which Justices Courts have original jurisdiction, but of such civil cases only when the judgment of the court appealed from shall exceed $20, exclusive of cost, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law:

In all appeals from Justices Courts there shall be a trial de novo in the County Court, and appeals may be prosecuted from the final judgment rendered in such cases by the County Court, as well as all cases civil and criminal of which the County Court has exclusive or concurrent or original jurisdiction of civil appeals in civil cases to the Court of Civil Appeals and in such criminal cases to the Court of Criminal Appeals, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

The County Court shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court; they shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons and of apprentices minors, as provided by the laws of the County Court, or judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunctions, mandamus and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the County Court, or any other Court or tribunal inferior to said Court. The County Court shall not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where there is a Criminal District Court, unless expressly conferred by law, and in such counties appeals from Justices Courts and other inferior courts and tribunals in criminal cases shall be to the Criminal District Court, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and in all such cases an appeal shall lie from such District Court to the Court of Criminal Appeals. When the judge of the County Court is disqualified in any case pending in the County Court the parties interested may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try said case, or upon their failing to do so a competent person may be appointed to try the same in the county where it is pending in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

§ 17. Terms of County Court; Prosecutions; Juries

Sec. 17. The County Court shall hold a term for civil business at least once in every two months, and shall dispose of probate business, either in term time or vacation as may be provided by law, and said court shall hold a term for criminal business once in every month as may be provided by law. Prosecutions may be commenced in said court by information filed by the county attorney, or by affidavit, as may be provided by law. Grand juries empaneled in the District Courts shall enquire into misdemeanors, and all indictments therefor returned into the District Courts shall forthwith be verified to the County Courts or other inferior courts, having jurisdiction to try them for trial; and if such indictment be quashed in the County, or other inferior court, the person charged, shall not be discharged if there is probable cause of guilt, but may be held by such court or magistrate to answer an information or affidavit. A jury in the County Court shall consist of six men; but no jury shall be empaneled to try a civil case unless demanded by one of the parties, who shall pay such jury fee therefor, in advance, as may be prescribed by law, unless he makes affidavit that he is unable to pay the same.

§ 18. Division of Counties into Precincts; Election of Constable and Justice of the Peace; County Commissioners and County Commissioners Court

Sec. 18. Each organized county in the State now or hereafter existing, shall be divided from time to time, for the convenience of the people, into precincts, not less than four and not more than eight. Divisions shall be made by the Commissioners Court provided for by this Constitution. In each such precinct there shall be elected one Justice of the Peace and one Constable, each of whom shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified; provided that in any precinct in which there may be a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, there shall be elected two Justices of the Peace. Each county shall in like manner be divided into four commissioners precincts in each of which there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof one County Commissioner, who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. The County Commissioners so chosen, with the County Judge as presiding officer, shall compose the County Commissioners Court, which shall exercise such powers and jurisdiction over all county business, as is conferred by this Constitution and the laws of the State, or as may be hereafter prescribed.

§ 19. Justices of the Peace; Jurisdiction; Appeals; Ex Officio Notaries Public; Times and Places of holding Court

Sec. 19. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction in criminal matters of all cases where the penalty or fine to be imposed by law may not be more than for two hundred dollars, and in civil matters of all cases where the amount in controversy is two hundred dollars or less, exclusive of interest, of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the District or County Courts; and such other jurisdiction, criminal and civil, as may be provided by law, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and appeals to the County Courts shall be allowed in all cases decided in Justices' Courts where the judgment is for more than twenty dollars exclusive of costs; and in all criminal cases under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. And the justices of the peace shall be ex officio notaries public. And they shall hold their courts at such times and places as may be provided by law.

§ 20. County Clerk

Sec. 20. There shall be elected for each county, by the qualified voters, a County Clerk, who shall hold his office for four years, who shall be clerk of the County and Commissioners Courts and recorder of the county, whose duties, perquisites and fees of office shall be prescribed by the Legislature, and a vacancy in whose office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, until the next general election; provided, that in counties having a population of less than 8,000 persons there may be an election of a single Clerk, who shall perform the duties of District and County Clerks.

§ 21. County Attorneys; District Attorneys

Sec. 21. A County Attorney, for counties in which there is not a resident Criminal District Attorney, shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county, who shall be commissioned by the Governor, and hold his office for the term of four years. In case of vacancy the Commissioners Court of the county shall have the power to appoint a County Attorney until the next general election. The County Attorneys shall represent the State in all cases in the District and inferior courts in their respective counties; but if any county shall be included in a district in which there shall be a District Attorney, the respective duties of District Attorneys and County Attorneys shall in such counties be regulated by the Legislature. The Legislature may provide for the election of District Attorneys in such districts, as may be deemed necessary, and make provision for the compensation of District Attorneys and County Attorneys. District Attorneys shall hold office for a term of four years, and until their successors have qualified.

§ 22. Changing Jurisdiction of County Courts

Sec. 22. The Legislature shall have power, by local or general law, to increase, diminish or change the civil and criminal jurisdiction of County Courts; and in cases of any such change of jurisdiction, the Legislature shall also conform the jurisdiction of the other courts to such change.

§ 23. Sheriffs

Sec. 23. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county a Sheriff, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, whose duties and perquisites, and fees of office, shall be prescribed by the Legislature, and vacancies in whose office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court until the next general election.

§ 24. Removal of County Officers

Sec. 24. County Judges, county attorneys, clerks of the District and County Courts, justices of the peace, constables, and other county officers, may be removed by the Judges of the District Courts for incompetency, official misconduct, habitual drunkenness, or other causes defined by law, upon the cause therefor being set forth in writing and the finding of its truth by a jury.

§ 25. Rules of Court

Sec. 25. The Supreme Court shall have power to make and establish rules of procedure not inconsistent with the laws of the State for the government of said court and the other courts of this State to expedite the dispatch of business therein.
§ 26. Criminal Cases; No Appeal by State

Sec. 26. The State shall have no right of appeal in criminal cases.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 27. Transfer of Cases Pending at Adoption of Constitution

Sec. 27. The Legislature shall, at its first session, provide for the transfer of all business, civil and criminal, pending in District Courts, over which jurisdiction is given by this Constitution to the County Courts, or other inferior courts, to such County or inferior courts, and for the trial or disposition of all such causes by such County or other inferior courts.

§ 28. Vacancies in Judicial Offices

Sec. 28. Vacancies In Offices Of Judges Of Superior Courts To Be Filled By The Governor.

Vacancies in the office of judges of the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Court of Civil Appeals and the District Courts shall be filled by the Governor until the next succeeding General Election; and vacancies in the office of County Judge and Justices of the Peace shall be filled by the Commissioners Court until the next succeeding General Election.

§ 29. County Court; Terms of Court; Probate Business; Commencement of Prosecutions; Jury

Sec. 29. The County Court shall hold at least four terms for both civil and criminal business annually, as may be provided by the Legislature, or by the Commissioners' Court of the county under authority of law, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court; provided, the Commissioners' Court of any county having fixed the times and number of terms of the County Court, shall not change the same again until the expiration of one year. Said court shall dispose of probate business either in term time or vacation, under such regulation as may be prescribed by law. Prosecutions may be commenced in said courts in such manner as is or may be provided by law, and a jury therein shall consist of six men. Until otherwise provided, the terms of the County Court shall be held on the first Mondays in February, May, August and November, and may remain in session three weeks.

§ 30. Judges of Courts of County-wide Jurisdiction; Criminal District Attorneys

Sec. 30. The Judges of all Courts of county-wide jurisdiction heretofore or hereafter created by the Legislature of this State, and all Criminal District Attorneys now or hereafter authorized by the laws of this State, shall be elected for a term of four years, and shall serve until their successors have qualified.

Sec. 2-a. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the Legislature may enact laws and provide a method of registration, including the time of such registration, permitting any person who is qualified to vote in this State except for the residence requirements within a county or district, as set forth in Section 2 of this Article, to vote for...

§ 2-a

(1) Electors for President and Vice President of the United States and (2) all offices, questions or propositions to be voted on by all electors throughout this State.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the Legislature may enact laws and provide for a method of registration, including the time for such registration, permitting any person (1) who is qualified to vote in this State except for the residence requirements of Section 2 of this Article, and (2) who shall have resided anywhere within this State at least thirty (30) days next preceding a General Election in a presidential election year, and (3) who shall have been a qualified elector in another state immediately prior to his removal to this State or would have been eligible to vote in such other state had he remained there until such election, to vote for electors for President and Vice President of the United States in that election.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the Legislature may enact laws and provide for a method of registration, including the time for such registration, permitting absentee voting for electors for President and Vice President of the United States in this State for former residents of this State (1) who have removed to another state, and (2) who meet all qualifications, except residence requirements, for voting for electors for President and Vice President in this State at the time of the election, but the privileges of suffrage so granted shall be only for such period of time as would permit a former resident of this State to meet the residence requirements for voting in his new state of residence, and in no case for more than twenty-four (24) months.

§ 3. Municipal Elections; Qualifications of Voters

Sec. 3. All qualified electors of the State, as herein described, who shall have resided for six months immediately preceding an election, within the limits of any city or corporate town, shall have the right to vote for Mayor and all other elective officers; but in all elections to determine expenditure of money or assumption of debt, only those shall be qualified to vote, who pay taxes on property in said city or incorporated town; provided, that no poll tax for the payment of debts thus incurred, shall be levied upon the persons debarred from voting in relation thereto.

§ 3-a. Bond Issues; Loans of Credit; Expenditures; Assumption of Debts; Qualifications of Voters

Sec. 3-a. When an election is held by any county, or any number of counties, or any political subdivision of the State, or any political subdivision of a county, or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State and which may or may not include towns, villages or municipal corporations, or any city, town or village, for the purpose of issuing bonds or otherwise lending credit, or expending money or assuming any debt, only qualified electors who own taxable property in the State, county, political subdivision, district, city, town or village where such election is held, and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be qualified to vote and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence.

§ 4. Elections by Ballot; Numbering, Fraud and Purity of Elections; Registration of Voters

Sec. 4. In all elections by the people, the vote shall be by ballot, and the Legislature shall provide for the numbering of tickets and make such other regulations as may be necessary to detect and punish fraud and preserve the purity of the ballot box; and the Legislature shall provide by law for the registration of all voters.

§ 5. Privilege of Voters from Arrest

Sec. 5. Voters shall, in all cases, except treason, felony or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at elections, and in going to and returning therefrom.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

[Adopted Nov. 8, 1966.]

§ 4. Elections by Ballot; Numbering, Fraud and Purity of Elections; Registration of Voters

Sec. 4. In all elections by the people, the vote shall be by ballot, and the Legislature shall provide for the numbering of tickets and make such other regulations as may be necessary to detect and punish fraud and preserve the purity of the ballot box; and the Legislature shall provide by law for the registration of all voters.

THE PUBLIC FREE SCHOOLS

§ 1. Support and Maintenance of System of Public Free Schools

Sec. 1. A general diffusion of knowledge being essential to the preservation of the liberties and rights of the people, it shall be the duty of the Legislature of the State to establish and make suitable provision for the support and maintenance of an efficient system of public free schools.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 2. Perpetual School Fund

Sec. 2. All funds, lands and other property heretofore set apart and appropriated for the support of public schools; all the alternate sections of land reserved by the State out of grants heretofore made or that may hereafter be made to railroads or other corporations of any nature whatsoever; one half of the public domain of the State; and all sums of money that may come to the State from the sale of any portion of the same, shall constitute a perpetual public school fund.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 3. Taxes for Benefit of Schools; School Districts

Sec. 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and poll tax of one dollar on every inhabitant of the State, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem State tax of such an amount not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollars valuation, as with the available school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State; provided, however, that the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State and the Legislature may also provide for the formation of school district by general laws; and all such school districts may embrace parts of two or more counties, and the Legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such districts, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties, and the Legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts having at the time of such change the greatest scholastic population according to the latest scholastic census and only the unissued bonds of such district voted prior to such change, may be subsequently sold and delivered and any voted, but unissued, bonds of other school districts involved in such annexation or consolidation shall not thereafter be issued.

§ 4. Sale of Lands; Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 4. The lands herein set apart to the Public Free School fund, shall be sold under such regulations, at such times, and on such terms as may be prescribed by law; and the Legislature shall not have power to grant any relief to purchasers thereof. The Comptroller shall invest the proceeds of such sales, and of those heretofore made, as may be directed by the Board of Education herein provided for, in the bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties in said State, or in such other ent school districts, nor to independent or common school districts created by general or special law.

§ 3-b. Independent School Districts and Junior College Districts; Taxes and Bonds; Changes in Boundaries

Sec. 3-b. No tax for the maintenance of public free schools voted in any independent school district and no tax for the maintenance of a junior college voted by a junior college district, nor any bonds voted in any such district, but unissued, shall be abrogated, cancelled or invalidated by change of any kind in the boundaries thereof. After any change in boundaries, the governing body of any such district, without the necessity of an additional election, shall have the power to assess, levy and collect ad valorem taxes on all taxable property within the boundaries of the district as changed, for the purposes of the maintenance of public free schools or the maintenance of a junior college, as the case may be, and the payment of principal of and interest on all bonded indebtedness outstanding against, or attributable, adjusted or allocated to, such district or any territory therein, in the amount, at the rate, or not to exceed the rate, and in the manner authorized in the district prior to the change in its boundaries, and further in accordance with the laws under which all such bonds, respectively, were voted; and such governing body also shall have the power, without the necessity of an additional election, to sell and deliver any unissued bonds voted in the district prior to any such change in boundaries, and to assess, levy and collect ad valorem taxes on all taxable property in the district as changed, for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds in the manner permitted by the laws under which such bonds were voted. In those instances where the boundaries of any such independent school district are changed by the annexation of, or consolidation with, one or more whole school districts, the taxes to be levied for the purposes hereinabove authorized may be in the amount or at not to exceed the rate theretofore voted in the district having at the time of such change the greatest scholastic population according to the latest scholastic census and only the unissued bonds of such district voted prior to such change, may be subsequently sold and delivered and any voted, but unissued, bonds of other school districts involved in such annexation or consolidation shall not thereafter be issued.

CONSTITUTION

Securities, and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by law; and the State shall be responsible for all investments.

§ 5. Permanent School Fund; Available School Fund; Use of Funds; Distribution of Available School Fund

Sec. 5. The principal of all bonds and other funds, and the principal arising from the sale of the lands hereinbefore set apart to said school fund, shall be the permanent school fund, and all the interest derivable therefrom and the taxes herein authorized and levied shall be the available school fund. The available school fund shall be applied annually to the support of the public free schools. And no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school fund to any other purpose whatever; nor shall the same, or any part thereof ever be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school; and the available school fund herein provided shall be distributed to the several counties according to their scholastic population and applied in such manner as may be provided by law.

§ 6. County School Lands; Proceeds of Sales; Investment; Available School Fund

Sec. 6. All lands heretofore, or hereafter granted to the several counties of this State for educational purposes, are of right the property of said counties respectively, but to which they were granted, and title thereto is vested in said counties, and no adverse possession or limitation shall ever be available against the title of any county. Each county may sell or dispose of its lands in whole or in part, in manner to be provided by the Commissioners' Court of the county. Actual settlers residing on said lands, shall be protected in the prior right of purchasing the same to the extent of their settlement, to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, at the price fixed by said court, which price shall not include the value of existing improvements made thereon by such settlers. Said lands, and the proceeds thereof, when sold, shall be held by said counties alone as a trust for the benefit of public schools therein; said proceeds to be invested in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties in said State, or in such other securities, and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by law; and the counties shall be responsible for all investments; the interest thereon, and other revenue, except the principal shall be available fund.

§ 6-b. County Permanent School Fund; Reduction and Its Distribution

Sec. 6-b. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6, Article VII, Constitution of the State of Texas, any county, acting through the commissioners court, may reduce the county permanent school fund of that county and may distribute the amount of the reduction to the independent and common school districts of the county on a per scholastic basis to be used solely for the purpose of reducing bonded indebtedness of those districts or for making permanent improvements. The commissioners court shall, however, retain a sufficient amount of the corpus of the county permanent school fund to pay ad valorem taxes on school lands or royalty interests owned at the time of the distribution. Nothing in this Section affects financial aid to any school district by the State.
[Adopted Nov. 7, 1972.]

§ 8. State Board of Education

Sec. 8. The Legislature shall provide by law for a State Board of Education, whose members shall be appointed or elected in such manner and by such authority and shall serve for such terms as the Legislature shall prescribe not to exceed six years. The said board shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 6, 1928.]

ASYLUMS

§ 9. Lands for Benefit of Asylums; Permanent Fund; Sale and Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 9. All lands heretofore granted for the benefit of the Lunatic, Blind, Deaf and Dumb, and Orphan Asylums, together with such donations as may have been or may hereafter be made to either of them, respectively, as indicated in the several grants, are hereby set apart to provide a permanent fund for the support, maintenance and improvement of said Asylums. And the Legislature may provide for the sale of the lands and the investment of the proceeds in manner as provided for the sale and investment of school lands in section 4 of this Article.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

UNIVERSITY

§ 10. Establishment of University; Agricultural and Mechanical Department

Sec. 10. The Legislature shall as soon as practicable establish, organize and provide for the maintenance, support and direction of a University of the first class, to be located by a vote of the people of this State, and styled, "The University of Texas", for the promotion of literature, and the arts and sciences, including an Agricultural, and Mechanical department.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11. Permanent University Fund; Investment; Alternate Sections of Railroad Grant

Sec. 11. In order to enable the Legislature to perform the duties set forth in the foregoing Section, it is hereby declared all lands and other property heretofore set apart and appropriated for the establishment and maintenance of the University of Texas, together with all the proceeds of sales of the same, heretofore made or hereafter to be made, and all grants, donations and appropriations that may hereafter be made by the State of Texas, or from any other source, except donations limited to specific purposes, shall constitute and become a Permanent University Fund. And the same as realized and received into the Treasury of the State (together with such sums belonging to the Fund, as may now be in the Treasury), shall be invested in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties of said State, or in School Bonds of municipalities, or in bonds of any city of this State, or in bonds issued under and by virtue of the Federal Farm Loan Act approved by the President of the United States, July 17, 1916, and amendments thereto; and the interest accruing thereon shall be subject to appropriation by the Legislature to accomplish the purpose declared in the foregoing Section; provided, that the one-half of the principal and interest of the lands granted to railroads, reserved by the State, which were set apart and appropriated to the establishment of the University of Texas, by an Act of the Legislature of February 11, 1858, entitled, "An Act to establish the University of Texas," shall not be included in, or constitute a part of, the Permanent University Fund. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 4, 1903; Nov. 8, 1982.]

§ 11-a. Investment of Permanent University Fund

Sec. 11-a. In addition to the bonds enumerated in Section 11 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, the Board of Regents of The University of Texas may invest the Permanent University Fund in securities, bonds or other obligations issued, insured, or guaranteed in any manner by the United States, the United States Government, or any of its agencies, and in such bonds, debentures, or obligations, and preferred and common stocks issued by corporations, associations, or other institutions as the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System may deem to be proper investments for said funds; provided, however, that not more than one per cent (1%) of said fund shall be invested in the securities of any one (1) corporation, nor shall more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; provided, further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid dividends for five (5) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors.

In making each and all of such investments said Board of Regents shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital.

The interest, dividends and other income accruing from the investments of the Permanent University Fund, except the portion thereof which is appropriated by the operation of Section 18 of Article VII for the payment of principal and interest on bonds or notes issued thereunder, shall be subject to appropriation by the Legislature to accomplish the purposes declared in Section 10 of Article VII of this Constitution.

This amendment shall be self-enacting, and shall become effective upon its adoption, provided, however, that the Legislature shall provide by law for full disclosure of all details concerning the investments in corporate stocks and bonds and other investments authorized herein. [Adopted Nov. 6, 1956. Amended Nov. 5, 1968.]

§ 12. Sale of Lands

Sec. 12. The land herein set apart to the University fund shall be sold under such regulations, at such times, and on such terms as may be provided by law; and the Legislature shall provide for the prompt collection, at maturity, of all debts due on account of University lands, heretofore sold, or that may hereafter be sold, and shall in neither event have the power to grant relief to the purchasers. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 13. Agricultural and Mechanical College

Sec. 13. The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, established by an Act of the Legislature passed April 17th, 1871, located in the county of Brazos, is hereby made, and constituted a Branch of the University of Texas, for instruction in Agriculture, the Mechanic Arts, and the Natural Sciences connected therewith. And the Legislature shall at its next session, make an appropriation, not to exceed forty thousand dollars, for the construction and completion of the buildings and improvements, and for providing the furniture necessary to put said College in immediate and successful operation. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 14. College or Branch University for Colored Youths; Taxes and Appropriations

Sec. 14. The Legislature shall also when deemed practicable, establish and provide for the maintenance of a College or Branch University for the instruction of the colored youths of the State, to be located by a vote of the people: Provided, that no tax shall be levied, and no money appropriated, out of the general revenue, either for this purpose or for the establishment, and erection of the buildings of the University of Texas. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 15. Grant of Additional Lands to University

Sec. 15. In addition to the lands heretofore granted to the University of Texas, there is hereby set apart, and appropriated, for the endowment maintenance, and support of said University and its branches, one million acres of the unappropriated public domain of the State, to be designated, and surveyed as may be provided by law; and said lands shall be sold under the same regulations, and the proceeds invested in the same manner, as is provided for the sale and investment of the permanent University fund; and the Legislature shall not have power to grant any relief to the purchasers of said lands.

§ 16. Terms of Office

Sec. 16. The Legislature shall fix by law the terms of all offices of the public school system and of the State institutions of higher education, inclusive, and the terms of members of the respective boards, not to exceed six years.

[Adopted Nov. 6, 1928.]

County taxation of University lands, see § 16, post.

§ 16. County Taxation of University Lands

Sec. 16. All land mentioned in Sections 11, 12 and 15 of Article VII, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, now belonging to the University of Texas shall be subject to the taxation for county purposes to the same extent as lands privately owned; provided they shall be rendered for taxation upon values fixed by the State Tax Board; and providing that the State shall remit annually to each of the counties in which said lands are located an amount equal to the tax imposed upon said land for county purposes.

Terms of office, see § 16, ante.

§ 17. State Ad Valorem Tax for Pensions and for Permanent Improvements at Institutions of Higher Learning

Sec. 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven Cents (7¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article III, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the continuing payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Section 51, Article III, and for the establishment and continued maintenance of the State Building Fund as provided in Section 51b, Article III, of the Constitution.

Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Ten Cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning provided that none of the proceeds of this tax shall be used for auxiliary enterprises; and the governing board of each such institution of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed four per cent (4%) per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than ten (10) years; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty Cents (30¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

The following state institutions then in existence shall be eligible to receive funds raised from said state ad valorem tax, and for the succeeding ten-year period:

- Arlington State College at Arlington
- Texas Technological College at Lubbock
- North Texas State University at Denton
- Lamar State College of Technology at Beaumont
- Texas College of Arts and Industries at Kingsville
- Texas Woman's University at Denton
- Texas Southern University at Houston
- Midwestern University at Wichita Falls
- University of Houston at Houston
- Pan American College at Edinburg
- East Texas State College at Commerce
- Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville
- Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos
- West Texas State University at Canyon
- Stephen F. Austin State College at Nacogdoches
- Sul Ross State College at Alpine
- Angelo State College at San Angelo

Eighty-five per cent (85%) of such funds shall be allocated by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas on June 1, 1966, and fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds shall be allocated by said Comptroller on June 1, 1972, based on the following determinations:

(1) Ninety per cent (90%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966, shall be allocated to state institutions based on projected enrollment increases published by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System for fall 1966 to fall 1978.

(2) Ten per cent (10%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966 shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on the number of additional square feet needed in educational and general facilities by such eligible state institution to meet the average square feet per full time equivalent student of all state senior institutions (currently numbering twenty-two).

(3) All of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on determinations used in the June 1, 1966, allocations except that the allocation of fifty per cent (50%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on projected enrollment increases for fall 1972 to fall 1978, and fifty per cent (50%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be used in the last year of such ten-year period that are similar to those used in allocating funds during the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, except that in determining the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities the Comptroller shall reallocate fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds to the eligible state institutions in existence based on determinations for the said ten-year period that are similar to the determinations used in allocating funds during the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, except that enrollment projections for succeeding ten-year periods will be from the fall semester of the first year to the fall semester of the tenth year. All such designated institutions of higher learning shall not thereafter receive any General Revenue funds for acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to make up the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of any General Revenue funds. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall draw all necessary and proper warrants upon the State Treasury in order to carry out the purpose of this Amendment, and the State Treasurer shall pay warrants so issued out of the special fund hereby created for said purpose. This Amendment shall be self-enacting.

§ 18. Texas A & M University System; University of Texas System: Bonds or Notes Payable from income of Permanent University Fund

Sec. 18. For the purpose of constructing, equipping, or acquiring buildings or other permanent improvements for the Texas A & M University System, including Texas A & M University, Prairie View Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas at Prairie View, Tarleton State College at Stephenville, Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas Engineering Experiment Station at College Station, Texas Engineering Extension Service at College Station, the Texas Forest Service, the Board of Directors is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds or notes not to exceed a total amount of one-third (1/3) of twenty per cent (20%) of the value of the Permanent University Fund exclusive of real estate at the time of any issuance thereof; provided, however, no building or other permanent improvement shall be acquired or constructed hereunder for use by any part of the Texas A & M University System, except as hereinabove enumerated, and The University of Texas System, except at and for the use of the general academic institutions of said System, namely, the Main University of Texas at Austin, the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston, the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas, The University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston, Texas Western College of The University of Texas at El Paso, The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston, The University of Texas Postgraduate School of Medicine, The University of Texas School of Public Health, McDonald Observatory at Mount Locke, and the Marine Science Institute at Port Aransas, by the Board of Regents of The University of Texas is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds and notes not to exceed a total amount of two-thirds (2/3) of twenty per cent (20%) of the value of the Permanent University Fund exclusive of real estate at the time of any issuance thereof; provided, however, no building or other permanent improvement shall be acquired or constructed hereunder for use by any institution of The University of Texas System, except at and for the use of the general academic institutions of said System, namely, The Main University and Texas Western College, without the prior approval of the Legislature or of such agency as may be authorized by the Legislature to grant such approval. Any bonds or notes issued hereunder shall be payable solely out of the income from the Permanent University Fund, and all of the income from such bonds not so payable shall be used in making improvements, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of General Revenue funds.

Said Boards are severally authorized to pledge the whole or any part of the respective interests of Texas A & M University and of The University of Texas in the income from the Permanent University Fund, as such interests are now apportioned by Chapter 42 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the 42nd Legislature of the State of Texas for the purpose of securing the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds or notes. The Permanent University Fund may be invested in such bonds or notes.

1 Name changed to "The University of Texas at Arlington." See Education Code, § 68.02.

The Legislature may impose a poll tax. It may also impose occupation taxes, both upon natural persons and upon corporations, other than municipal, doing any business in this State. It may also tax incomes of both natural persons and corporations other than municipal, except that persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits shall never be required to pay an occupation tax; provided, that two hundred and fifty dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture, belonging to each family in this State shall be exempt from taxation, and provided further that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town for any year on persons or corporations pursuing any profession or business, shall not exceed one half of the tax levied by the State for the same period on such profession or business.

§ 1-a. No State Ad Valorem Tax Levy; County Levy for Roads and Flood Control; Tax Donations.

Sec. 1-a. From and after January 1, 1951, no State ad valorem tax shall be levied upon any property within this State for general revenue purposes. From and after January 1, 1951, the several counties of the State are authorized to levy ad valorem taxes upon all property within their respective boundaries for county purposes, except the first Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) value of residential homesteads of married or unmarried adults male or female, including those living alone, not to exceed thirty cents (30¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, in addition to all other ad valorem taxes authorized by the Constitution of this State, provided the revenue derived therefrom shall be used for construction and maintenance of Farm to Market Roads or for Flood Control, except as herein otherwise provided.

Provided that in those counties or political subdivisions or areas of the State from which tax donations have heretofore been granted, the State Automatic Tax Board shall continue to levy the full amount of the State ad valorem tax for the duration of such donation, or until all legal obligations heretofore authorized by the law granting such donation or donations shall have been fully discharged, whichever shall first occur; provided that if such donation to any such county or political subdivision is for less than the full amount of State ad valorem taxes so levied, the portion of such taxes remaining over and above such donation shall be retained by said county or subdivision.

§ 1-b. Residence Homestead Exemption.

Sec. 1-b. (a) Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads of married or unmarried adults, male or female, including those living alone, shall be exempt from all taxation for all State purposes.

(b) From and after January 1, 1973, the governing body of any county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the State may exempt by its own action not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed value of residence homesteads of married or unmarried persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older, including those living alone, from all ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. As an alternative, upon receipt of a petition signed by twenty percent (20%) of the voters who voted in the last preceding election held by the political subdivision, the governing body of the subdivision shall call an election to determine by majority vote whether an amount not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) as provided in the petition, of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or over shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. Where any ad valorem tax has theretofore been pledged for the payment of any debt, the taxing officers of the political subdivision shall have authority to continue to levy and collect the tax against the homestead property at the same rate as the tax so pledged until the debt is discharged, if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created.

§ 1 - c. Effectiveness of Resolution

Sec. 1-c. Provided, however, the terms of this Resolution shall not be effective unless House Joint Resolution No. 24 is adopted by the people and in no event shall this Resolution go into effect until January 1, 1951.

[Adopted Nov. 2, 1948.]

[1] House Joint Resolution No. 35 of 1947, proposing addition of this section and section 1-b to this article.

[2] Proposing amendment of section 1-c of this article, which was adopted Nov. 2, 1948.

§ 1 - d. Assessment of Lands designated for Agricultural Use

Sec. 1-d. (a) All land owned by natural persons which is designated for agricultural use in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use. "Agricultural use" means the raising of livestock or growing of crops, fruit, flowers, and other products of the soil under natural conditions as a business venture for profit, which business is the primary occupation and source of income of the owner.

(b) For each assessment year the owner wishes to qualify his land under provisions of this Section as designated for agricultural use he shall file with the local tax assessor a sworn statement in writing describing the use to which the land is devoted.

(c) Upon receipt of the sworn statement in writing the local tax assessor shall determine whether or not such land qualifies for the designation as to agricultural use as defined herein and in the event it so qualifies he shall designate such land as being for agricultural use and assess the land accordingly.

(d) Such local tax assessor may inspect the land and require such evidence of use and source of income as may be necessary or useful in determining whether or not the agricultural use provision of this article applies.

(e) No land may qualify for the designation provided for in this Act unless for at least three (3) successive years immediately preceding the assessment date the land has been devoted exclusively for agricultural use, or unless the land has been continuously developed for agriculture during such time.

(f) Each year during which the land is designated for agricultural use, the local tax assessor shall note on his records the valuation which would have been made had the land not qualified for such designation under this Section. If designated land is subsequently diverted to a purpose other than that of agricultural use, or is sold, the land shall be subject to an additional tax. The additional tax shall equal the difference between taxes paid or payable, hereunder, and the amount of tax payable for the preceding three years had the land been otherwise assessed. Until paid, there shall be a lien for additional taxes and interest on land assessed under the provisions of this Section.

(g) The valuation and assessment of any minerals or subsurface rights to minerals shall not come within the provisions of this Section.

[Adopted Nov. 8, 1966.]

§ 1 - e. Abolition of Ad Valorem Property Taxes

Sec. 1-e. 1. From and after December 31, 1973, no State ad valorem taxes shall be levied upon any property within this State for State purposes except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

2. The State ad valorem tax authorized by Article VII, Section 3, of this Constitution shall be imposed at the following rates on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the years 1968 through 1974: On January 1, 1968, Thirty-Five Cents (35¢); on January 1, 1969, Thirty Cents (30¢); on January 1, 1970, Twenty-Five Cents (25¢); on January 1, 1971, Twenty Cents (20¢); on January 1, 1972, Fifteen Cents (15¢); on January 1, 1973, Ten Cents (10¢); on January 1, 1974, Five Cents (5¢); and thereafter no such tax for school purposes shall be levied and collected. An amount sufficient to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State shall be set aside from any revenues deposited in the Available School Fund, provided, however, that should such funds be insufficient, the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State.

3. The State ad valorem tax of Two Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation levied by Article VII, Section 17, of this Constitution shall not be levied after December 31, 1976. At any time prior to December 31, 1976, the Legislature may establish a trust fund solely for the benefit of the widows of Confederate veterans and such Texas Rangers and their widows as are eligible for retirement or disability pensions under the provisions of Article XVI, Section 66, of this Constitution, and after such fund is established the ad valorem tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, shall not thereafter be levied.

4. Unless otherwise provided by the Legislature, after December 31, 1976 all delinquent State ad valorem taxes together with penalties and interest thereon, less lawful costs of collection, shall be used to secure bonds issued for permanent improvements at institutions of higher learning, as authorized by Article VII, Section 17, of this Constitution.

5. The fees paid by the State for both assessing and collecting State ad valorem taxes shall not exceed two per cent (2%) of the State taxes collected. This subsection shall be self-executing.

[Adopted Nov. 5, 1968.]
Art. 8 § 2

CONSTITUTION

§ 2. Occupation Taxes; Equality and Uniformity; Exemptions from Taxation

Sec. 2. (a) All occupation taxes shall be equal and uniform upon the same class of subjects within the limits of the authority levying the tax; but the legislature may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes; actual places of religious worship, also any property owned by a church or by a strictly religious society for the exclusive use as a dwelling place for the ministry of such church or religious society, and which yields no revenue whatever to such church or religious society; provided that such exemption shall not extend to more property than is reasonably necessary for a dwelling place and in no event more than one acre of land; places of burial not held for private or corporate profit; all buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes and the necessary furniture of all schools and property used exclusively and reasonably necessary in conducting any association engaged in promoting the religious, educational and physical development of boys, girls, young men or young women operating under a State or National organization of like character; also the endowment funds of such institutions of a religious nature not used with a view to profit, and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been and shall hereafter be bought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages, that such exemption of such land and property shall continue only for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer, and institutions of purely public charity; and all laws exempting property from taxation other than the property mentioned in this Section shall be null and void.

(b) The Legislature may, by general law, exempt property owned by a disabled veteran or by the surviving spouse and surviving minor children of a disabled veteran. A disabled veteran is a veteran of the armed forces of the United States who loses his life while on active duty will be granted an exemption which in the aggregate is equal to the exemption to which the decedent was entitled at the time he died. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 6, 1906, proclamation Jan. 7, 1907; Nov. 6, 1928; Nov. 7, 1972.]

§ 3. General Laws; Public Purposes

Sec. 3. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws and for public purposes only. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 4. Surrender or Suspension of Taxing Power

Sec. 4. The power to tax corporations and corporate property shall not be surrendered or suspended by act of the Legislature, by any contract or grant to which the State shall be a party. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 5. Railroad Property; Liability to Municipal Taxation

Sec. 5. All property of railroad companies, of whatever description, lying or being within the limits of any city or incorporated town within this State, shall bear its proportionate share of municipal taxation, and if any such property shall not have been heretofore rendered, the authorities of the city or town within which it lies, shall have power to require its rendition, and collect the usual municipal tax thereon, as on other property lying within said municipality. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 6. Withdrawal of Money from Treasury; Duration of Appropriation

Sec. 6. No money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in pursuance of specific appropriations made by law; nor shall any appropriation of money be made for a longer term than two years, except by the first Legislature to assemble under this Constitution, which may make the necessary appropriations to carry on the government until the adjournment of the sixteenth Legislature. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 7. Borrowing, Withholding or Diverting Special Funds

Sec. 7. The Legislature shall not have power to borrow, or in any manner divert from its purpose, any special fund that may, or ought to, come into the Treasury; and shall make it penal for any person or persons to borrow, withhold or in any manner to divert from its purpose any special fund, or any part thereof. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 7-a. Revenues from Motor Vehicle Registration Fees and Taxes on Motor Fuels and Lubricants; Purposes for which Used

Sec. 7-a. Subject to legislative appropriation, allocation and direction, all net revenues remaining after payment of all refunds allowed by law and expenses of collection derived from motor vehicle registration fees, and all taxes, except gross production and ad valorem taxes, on motor fuels and lubricants used to propel motor vehicles over public roadways, shall be used for the sole purpose of acquiring rights-of-way, constructing, maintaining, and policing such public roadways, and for the administration of such laws as may be prescribed by the Legislature pertaining to the supervision of traffic and safety on such roads; and for the payment of the principal and interest on county and road district bonds or warrants voted or issued prior to January 2, 1939, and declared eligible prior to January 2, 1945, for payment out of the County Distinct Highway Fund under existing law; provided, however, that one-fourth (1/4) of such net revenue from the motor fuel tax shall be allocated to the Available School Fund; and, provided, however, that the net revenue derived by counties from motor vehicle registration fees shall never be less than the maximum amounts allowed to be retained by each County and the percentage allowed to be retained by each County under the laws in effect on January 1, 1945. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as authorizing the pledging of the State's credit for any purpose. [Adopted Nov. 5, 1946.]

§ 8. Railroad Companies; Assessment and Collection of Taxes

Sec. 8. All property of railroad companies shall be assessed, and the taxes collected in the several counties in which said property is situated, including so much of the roadbed and fixtures as shall be in such county, among the several counties through the road may run through any county, among the several counties through which the road passes, as a part of their tax assets. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 9. Maximum State Tax; County, City and Town Levies; County Funds; Local Road Laws

Sec. 9. The State tax on property, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty-five Cents (35¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation; and no county, city or town shall levy a tax rate in excess of Eighty Cents (80¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation in any one (1) year for general fund, permanent improvement fund, road and bridge fund and jury fund purposes; provided further that at the time the Commissioners Court meets to levy the annual tax rate for each county it shall levy whatever tax rate may be needed for the four (4) constitutional purposes; namely, general fund, permanent improvement fund, road and bridge fund and jury fund so long as the Court does not impair any outstanding bonds or other obligations and so long as the total of the foregoing tax levies does not exceed Eighty Cents (80¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation in any one (1) year. Once the Court has levied the annual tax rate, the same shall remain in force and effect during that taxable year; and the Legislature may also authorize an additional annual ad valorem tax to be levied and collected for the further maintenance of the public roads; provided, that a majority of the qualified property taxing voters of the county voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax, not to exceed Fifteen Cents (15¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of the property subject to taxation in such county. Any county may put all tax money collected by the county into one general fund, without regard to the purpose or source of each tax. And the Legislature may pass local laws for the maintenance of the public roads and highways, without the local notice required for special or local laws. This Section shall not be construed as a limitation of powers delegated to counties, cities or towns by any other Section or Sections of this Constitution. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Aug. 14, 1883, proclamation Sept. 25, 1883; Nov. 4, 1890, proclamation Dec. 19, 1899; Nov. 6, 1906, proclamation Jan. 7, 1907; Nov. 7, 1944; Nov. 6, 1956; Nov. 11, 1967.]

§ 10. Release from Payment of Taxes

Sec. 10. The Legislature shall have no power to release the inhabitants of, or property in, any county, city or town from the payment of taxes levied for State or county purposes, unless in case of great public calamity in any such county, city or town, when such release may be made by a vote of two-thirds of each House of the Legislature. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11. Place of Assessment; Value of Property not rendered by Owner

Sec. 11. All property, whether owned by persons or corporations shall be assessed for taxation, and the taxes paid in the county where situated, but the Legislature may, by a two-thirds vote, authorize the payment of taxes of non-residents of counties to be made at the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts. And all lands and other property not rendered for taxation by the owner thereof shall be assessed at its fair value by the proper officer. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 13. Sales of Lands and other Property for Taxes; Redemption

Sec. 13. Provision shall be made by the first Legislature for the speedy sale, without the necessity of a suit in Court, of a sufficient portion of all lands and other property for the taxes due thereon, and every year thereafter for the sale in like manner of all lands and other property upon which the taxes have not been paid; and the deed of conveyance to the purchaser for all lands and other property thus sold shall be held to vest a good and perfect title in the purchaser thereof, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud; provided, that the former owner shall within two years from date of the filing for record of the Purchaser's Deed have the right to redeem the land on the following basis:

(1) Within the first year of the redemption period upon the payment of the amount of money paid for the land, including One ($1.00) Dollar Tax Deed Recording Fee and all taxes, penalties, interest and costs paid plus not exceeding twenty-five (25%) percent of the aggregate total;

(2) Within the last year of the redemption period upon the payment of the amount of money paid for the land, including One ($1.00) Dollar Tax Deed Recording Fee and all taxes, penalties, interest and costs paid plus not exceeding fifty (50%) percent of the aggregate total. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 8, 1932.]
§ 14. Assessor and Collector of Taxes

Sec. 14. Except as provided in Section 16 of this Article, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county, an Assessor and Collector of Taxes, who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor is elected and qualified; and such Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall perform all the duties with respect to assessing property for the purpose of taxation and of collecting taxes, as may be prescribed by the Legislature.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 8, 1932; Nov. 2, 1954.]

§ 15. Lien of Assessment; Seizure and Sale of Property

Sec. 15. The annual assessment made upon landed property shall be a special lien thereon; and all property, both real and personal, belonging to any delinquent taxpayer shall be liable to seizure and sale for the payment of all the taxes and penalties due by such delinquent; and such property may be sold for the payment of the taxes and penalties due by such delinquent, under such regulations as the Legislature may provide.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 16. Sheriff to be Assessor and Collector of Taxes; Counties having 10,000 or more Inhabitants

Sec. 16. The Sheriff of each county, in addition to his other duties, shall be the Assessor and Collector of Taxes therefor; but, in counties having 10,000 or more inhabitants, to be determined by the last preceding census of the United States, an Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall be elected as provided in Section 14 of this Article, and shall hold office for four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified.

§ 16-a. Assessor-Collector of Taxes; Counties having less than 10,000 Inhabitants

Sec. 16-a. In any county having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, as determined by the last preceding census of the United States, the Commissioners Court may submit to the qualified property taxpaying voters of such county at an election the question of adding an Assessor-Collector of Taxes to the list of authorized county officials. If a majority of such voters voting in such election shall approve of adding an Assessor-Collector of Taxes to such list, then such official shall be elected at the next General Election for such Constitutional term of office as is provided for other Tax Assessor-Collectors in this State.

[Adopted Nov. 2, 1954.]

§ 17. Specification of Subjects not limitation of Legislature's Power

Sec. 17. The specification of the objects and subjects of taxation shall not deprive the Legislature of the power to require other subjects or objects to be taxed in such manner as may be consistent with the principles of taxation fixed in this Constitution.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 1. Creation of Counties
Sec. 1. The Legislature shall have power to create counties for the convenience of the people subject to the following provisions:

First. In the territory of the State exterior to all counties now existing, no new counties shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles, in a square form, unless prevented by pre-existing boundary lines. Should the State lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less. The territory referred to may, at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population and attached, for judicial and land surveying purposes, to the most convenient organized county or counties.

Second. Within the territory of any county or counties now existing, no new county shall be created with a less area than seven hundred square miles, nor shall any such county now existing be reduced to a less area than seven hundred square miles. No new counties shall be created so as to approach nearer than twelve miles of the county seat of any county from which it may in whole or in part be taken.

Counties of a less area than nine hundred, but of seven hundred or more square miles, within counties now existing, may be created by a two-thirds vote of each House of the Legislature, taken by yeas and nays and entered on the journals. Any county now existing may be reduced to an area of not less than seven hundred square miles by a like two-thirds vote. When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into another county, the part stricken off shall be held for and obliged to pay its proportion of all the liabilities then existing, of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Third. No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change shall have been submitted, in such manner as may be provided by law, to a vote of the electors of both counties, and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each.

[ Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 1-A. Counties bordering on Gulf of Mexico or Tidewater Limits Thereof; Regulation of Motor Vehicles on Beaches
Sec. 1-A. The Legislature may authorize the governing body of any county bordering on the Gulf of Mexico or the tidewater limits thereof to regulate and restrict the speed, parking and travel of motor vehicles on beaches available to the public by virtue of public right and the littering of such beaches.

Nothing in this amendment shall increase the rights of any riparian or littoral landowner with regard to beaches available to the public by virtue of public right or submerged lands.

The Legislature may enact any laws not inconsistent with this Section which it may deem necessary to permit said counties to implement, enforce and administer the provisions contained herein.

Should the Legislature enact legislation in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character.

[ Adopted Nov. 6, 1962.]

COUNTY SEATS
§ 2. Removal of County Seats
Sec. 2. The Legislature shall pass laws regulating the manner of removing county seats, but no county seat situated within five miles of the geographical centre of the county shall be removed, except by a vote of two-thirds of all the electors voting on the subject. A majority of such electors, however, voting at such election, may remove a county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical centre of the county to a point within five miles such centre, in either case the centre to be determined by a certificate from the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

[ Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

HOME RULE CHARTERS
§ 3. Repealed. Aug. 5, 1969

HOSPITAL DISTRICTS
§ 4. County-wide Hospital Districts
Sec. 4. The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of county-wide Hospital Districts in counties having a population in excess of 190,000 and in Galveston County, with power to issue bonds for the purchase, acquisition, construction, maintenance and operation of any county owned hospital, or where the hospital system is jointly operated by a county and city within the county, and to provide for the transfer to the county-wide Hospital District of the title to any land, buildings or equipment, jointly or separately owned, and for the assumption by the district of any outstanding bonded indebtedness theretofore issued by any county or city for the establishment of hospitals or hospital facilities; to levy a tax not to exceed seventy-five ($75.00) cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation of all taxable property within such district, provided, however, that such district shall be approved at an election held for that purpose, and that only qualified, property taxpaying voters in such county shall vote therein; provided further, that such Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care to needy inhabitants of the county, and thereafter such county and cities therein shall not levy any other tax for hospital purposes; and provided further that should such Hospital District construct, maintain and support a hospital or hospital system, that the same shall never become a charge against the State of Texas, nor shall any direct appropriation ever be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of the said hospital or hospitals. Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid because of their anticipatory character.

[Adopted Nov. 2, 1954.]

§ 5. City of Amarillo; Wichita County; Jefferson County; Creation of Hospital Districts

Sec. 5. (a) The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of two hospital districts, one to be coextensive with and have the same boundaries as the incorporated City of Amarillo, as such boundaries now exist or as they may hereafter be lawfully extended, and the other to be coextensive with Wichita County.

If such district or districts are created, they may be authorized to levy a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation of taxable property within the district; provided, however, no tax may be levied until approved by a majority vote of the participat­ing resident qualified property taxpayers who have duly rendered their property for taxation. The maximum rate of tax may be changed at subsequent elections so long as obligations are not impaired, and not to exceed the maximum limit of Seventy-five Cents (75¢) per One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation, and no election shall be required by subse­quent changes in the boundaries of the City of Amarillo.

If such tax is authorized, no political subdivision or municipality within or having the same bounda­ries as the district may levy a tax for medical or hospital care for needy individuals, nor shall they maintain or erect hospital facilities, but the district shall by resolution assume all such responsibilities and shall assume all of the liabilities and obligations (including bonds and warrants) of such subdivisions or municipalities or both. The maximum tax rate submitted shall be sufficient to discharge such obliga­tions, liabilities, and responsibilities, and to main­tain and operate the hospital system, and the Legis­lature may authorize the district to issue tax bonds for the purpose of the purchase, construction, acqui­sition, repair or renovation of improvements and initially equipping the same, and such bonds shall be payable from said Seventy-five Cents (75¢) tax. The Legislature shall provide for transfer of title to properties to the district.

(b) The Legislature may by law permit the Coun­ty of Potter (in which the City of Amarillo is partially located) to render financial aid to that district by paying a part of the expenses of operating and maintaining the system and paying a part of the debts of the district (whether assumed or created by the district) and may authorize the levy of a tax not to exceed Ten Cents (10¢) per One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation (in addition to other taxes per­mitted by this Constitution) upon all property within the county but without the City of Amarillo at the time such levy is made for such purposes. If such tax is authorized, the district shall by resolution assume the responsibilities, obligations, and liabil­i­ties of the county in the manner and to the extent hereina­bove provided for political subdivisions hav­ing boundaries coextensive with the district, and the county shall not thereafter levy taxes (other than herein provided) for hospital purposes nor for pro­viding hospital care for needy individuals of the county.

(c) The Legislature may by law authorize the cre­ation of a hospital district within Jefferson County, the boundaries of which shall include only the area comprising the Jefferson County Drainage District No. 7 and the Port Arthur Independent School Dis­trict, as such boundaries existed on the first day of January, 1957, with the power to issue bonds for the sole purpose of purchasing a site for, and the con­struction and initial equipping of, a hospital system, and with the power to levy a tax of not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation of property therein for the purpose of paying the principal and interest on such bonds.

The creation of such hospital district shall not be final until approved at an election by a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting at such election who have duly rendered their property for taxation upon the tax rolls of either said Drain­age or said School District, nor shall such bonds be issued or such tax be levied until so approved by such voters.

The district shall not have the power to levy any tax for maintenance or operation of the hospital or facilities, but shall contract with other political subdivi­sions of the state or private individuals, associa­tions, or corporations for such purposes.

If the district hereina­bove authorized is finally created, no other hospital district may be created embracing any part of the territory within its boundaries, but the Legislature by law may autho­rize the creation of a hospital district incorporating therein the remainder of Jefferson County, having the powers and duties and with the limitations presently provided by Article IX, Section 4, of the Consti­tution of Texas, except that such district shall be confirmed at an election wherein the resident qualified property taxpayers voting who have duly ren­dered their property within such proposed district for taxation on the county rolls, shall be authorized to vote. A majority of those participating in the election voting in favor of the district shall be neces­sary for its confirmation and for bonds to be issued.

(d) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid because of their anticipato­ry character.

[Adopted Nov. 4, 1958.]

§ 6. Lamar County Hospital District; Abolition; Transfer of Assets

Sec. 6. On the effective date of this Amendment, the Lamar County Hospital District is abolished. The Commissioners Court of Lamar County may provide for the transfer or for the disposition of the assets of the Lamar County Hospital District.

[Adopted Nov. 8, 1960. Amended Nov. 7, 1972.]

§ 7. Hidalgo County; Hospital District; Creation; Tax Rate

Sec. 7. The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of a Hospital District co-extensive with Hidalgo County, having the powers and duties and with the limitations presently provided in Article IX, Section 5(a), of the Constitution of Texas, as it applies to Hidalgo County, except that the maximum rate of tax that the said Hidalgo County Hospital District may be authorized to levy shall be ten cents (10¢) per One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of taxable property within the District subject to district taxation. [Adopted Nov. 8, 1960.]

§ 8. County Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County; Hospital District; Creation; Tax Rate

Sec. 8. (a) The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of a Hospital District to be co-extensive with the limits of County Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County, Texas.

If such District is created, it may be authorized to levy a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property within the District; provided, however, no tax may be levied until approved by a majority vote of the participating resident qualified property taxpayers of the District who have duly rendered their property for taxation. The maximum rate of tax may be changed at subsequent elections so long as obligations are not impaired, and not to exceed the maximum limit of seventy-five cents (75¢) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation, and no election shall be required by subsequent changes in the boundaries of the Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County.

If such tax is authorized, no political subdivision or municipality within or having the same boundaries as the District may levy a tax for medical or hospital care for needy individuals, nor shall they maintain or erect hospital facilities, but the District shall by resolution assume all such responsibilities and shall assume all of the liabilities and obligations (including bonds and warrants) of such subdivisions or municipalities or both. The maximum tax rate submitted shall be sufficient to discharge such obligations, liabilities, and responsibilities, and to maintain and operate the hospital system, and the Legislature may authorize the District to issue tax bonds for the purpose of the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of improvements and equipping same, for hospital purposes; providing for the transfer to the hospital district of the title to any land, buildings, improvements and equipment located wholly within the district which may be jointly or separately owned by any city, town or county, providing that any district so created shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants and assume the outstanding indebtedness incurred by cities, towns and counties for hospital purposes prior to the creation of the district, if same are located wholly within its boundaries, and a pro rata portion of such indebtedness based upon the then last approved tax assessment rolls of the cities, towns and counties if less than all the territory thereof is included within the district boundaries; providing that after its creation no other municipality or political subdivision shall have the power to levy taxes or issue bonds or other obligations for hospital purposes or for providing medical care within the boundaries of the district; providing for the levy of annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation of all taxable property within such district for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the district's bonds, the indebtedness assumed by it and its maintenance and operating expenses, providing that such district shall not be created or such tax authorized unless approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpayers thereof voting at an election called for the purpose; and providing further that the support and maintenance of the district's hospital system shall never become a charge against or obligation of the State of Texas nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such district.

Provided, however, that no district shall be created except by act of the Legislature and then only after thirty (30) days' public notice to the district affected, and in no event may the Legislature provide for a district to be created without the affirmative vote of a majority of the taxpaying voters in the district concerned.

The Legislature may also provide for the dissolution of hospital districts provided that a process is afforded by statute for:

1. determining the desire of a majority of the qualified voters within the district to dissolve it;
2. disposing of or transferring the assets, if any, of the district; and

(c) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid because of their anticipatory character. [Adopted Nov. 8, 1960.]

§ 9. Hospital Districts; Creation, Operation, Powers, Duties and Dissolution

Sec. 9. The Legislature may by law provide for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of hospital districts composed of one or more counties or all or any part of one or more counties with power to issue bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, purchase, improvement of any of the facilities of such district. The Legislature may also provide for the dissolution of hospital districts provided that a process is afforded by statute for:

1. determining the desire of a majority of the qualified voters within the district to dissolve it;
2. disposing of or transferring the assets, if any, of the district; and

CONSTITUTION
(3) satisfying the debts and bond obligations, if any, of the district, in such manner as to protect the interests of the citizens within the district, including their collective property rights in the assets and property of the district, provided, however, that any grant from federal funds, however dispensed, shall be considered an obligation to be repaid in satisfaction and provided that no election to dissolve shall be held more often than once each year. In such connection, the statute shall provide against disposal or transfer of the assets of the district except for due compensation unless such assets are transferred to another governmental agency, such as a county, embracing such district and using such transferred assets in such a way as to benefit citizens formerly within the district.

§ 10. Blank.

§ 11. Hospital Districts; Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties; Creation; Taxes

Sec. 11. The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of hospital districts in Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties, each district to be coextensive with the limits of such county.

If any such district is created, it may be authorized to levy a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents ($0.75) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property within the district; provided, however, no tax may be levied until approved by a majority vote of the participating resident qualified property-taxpaying voters who have duly rendered their property for taxation. The maximum rate of tax may be changed at subsequent elections so long as obligations are not impaired, and not to exceed the maximum limit of Seventy-five Cents ($0.75) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation.

If such tax is authorized, no political subdivision or municipality within or having the same boundaries as the district may levy a tax for medical or hospital care for needy individuals, nor shall they maintain or erect hospital facilities, but the district shall by resolution assume all such responsibilities and shall assume all of the liabilities and obligations (including bonds and warrants) of such subdivisions or municipalities or both. The maximum tax rate submitted shall be sufficient to discharge obligations, liabilities, and responsibilities, and to maintain and operate the hospital system, and the Legislature may authorize the district to issue tax bonds for the purpose of the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of improvements and initially equipping the same, and such bonds shall be payable from said Seventy-five Cent ($0.75) tax. The Legislature shall provide for transfer of title to properties to the district.

Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of the amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid because of their anticipatory character.

§ 12. Airport Authorities

Sec. 12. The Legislature may by law provide for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of Airport Authorities composed of one or more counties, with power to issue general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, either or both of them, for the purchase, acquisition by the exercise of the power of eminent domain or otherwise, construction, reconstruction, repair or renovation of any airport or airports, landing fields and runways, airport buildings, hangars, facilities, equipment, fixtures, and any and all property, real or personal, necessary to operate, equip and maintain an airport; shall provide for the option by the governing body of the city or cities whose airport facilities are served by certificated airlines and whose facility or some interest therein, is proposed to be or has been acquired by the Authority, to either appoint or elect a Board of Directors of said Authority; if the Directors are appointed such appointment shall be made by the County Commissioners Court after consultation with and consent of the governing body or bodies of such city or cities, and if the Board of Directors is elected they shall be elected by the qualified taxing voters of the county which chooses to elect the Directors to represent that county, such Directors shall serve without compensation for a term not to exceed six (6) years, and shall be selected on the basis of the proportionate population of each county based upon the last preceding Federal Census, and shall be a resident or residents of such county; provide that no county shall have less than one (1) member on the Board of Directors; provided, however, the Legislature shall provide against dissolution of an Authority created by the Legislature not to exceed sixty (60) years, and thereafter only upon a petition of ten percent (10%) of the qualified taxing voters within the county or counties, said elections to be held on the same day if more than one county is included, provided that no more than one (1) such election may be held in a county until after the expiration of one (1) year; in the event such an election has failed, and thereafter only upon a petition of ten percent (10%) of the qualified taxing voters being presented to the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts of the county or counties in which such an election has failed, and in the event that two or more counties vote in favor of the proposition of the creation of an Authority therein, the proposition shall not be deemed to carry unless the majority of the qualified taxing voters in each county voting thereon vote in favor thereof; provided, however, that an Airport Authority may be created and be composed of the county or counties that vote in favor of its creation if separate propositions are submitted to the voters of each county so that they may vote for a two or more county Authority or a single county Authority; provide for the appointment by the Board of Directors of an Assessor and Collector of Taxes in the Authority, whether constituted of one or more counties, whose duty it shall be to assess all taxable property, both real and personal, and collect the taxes thereon; provided, however, that the property of such state regulated common carriers required by law to pay a tax upon intangible assets shall not be subject to taxation by the Authority, said taxable property shall be assessed on a valuation not to exceed the market value and shall be equal and uniform.
throughout the Authority as is otherwise provided by the Constitution; the Legislature shall authorize the purchase or acquisition by the Authority of any existing airport facility publicly owned and financed and served by certificated airlines, in fee or of any interest therein, or to enter into any lease agreement therefor, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreeable to the Authority and the owner of such facilities, or authorize the acquisition of same through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, and in the event of such acquisition, if there are any general obligation bonds that the owner of the publicly owned airport facility has outstanding, the same shall be fully assumed by the Authority and sufficient taxes levied by the Authority to discharge said outstanding indebtedness; and likewise any city or owner that has outstanding revenue bonds where the revenues of the airport have been pledged or said bonds constitute a lien against the airport facilities, the Authority shall assume and discharge all the obligations of the city under the ordinances and bond indentures under which said revenue bonds have been issued and sold. Any city which owns airport facilities not serving certificated airlines which are not purchased or acquired or taken over as herein provided by such Authority, shall have the power to operate the same under the existing laws or as the same may hereafter be amended. Any such Authority when created may be granted the power and authority to promulgate, adopt and enforce appropriate zoning regulations to protect the airport from hazards and obstructions which would interfere with the use of the airport and its facilities for landing and take-off; an additional county or counties may be added to an existing Authority if a petition of five per cent (5%) of the qualified taxing voters is filed with and an election is called by the Commissioners Court of the county or counties seeking admission to an Authority and the vote is favorable, then admission may be granted to such county or counties by the Board of Directors of the then existing Authority upon such terms and conditions as they may agree upon and evidenced by a resolution approved by two-thirds (2/3's) of the then existing Board of Directors, provided, however, the county or counties that may be so added to the then existing Authority shall be given representation on the Board of Directors by adding additional directors in proportion to their population according to the last preceding Federal census. [Adopted Nov. 8, 1966.]

§ 13. Participation of Municipalities and other Political Subdivisions in establishment of Mental Health, Mental Retardation or Public Health Services

Sec. 13. Notwithstanding any other section of this article, the Legislature, in providing for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of a hospital district, shall not be required to provide that such district shall assume full responsibility for the establishment, maintenance, support, or operation of mental health services, mental retardation services, public health units or clinics and related public health activities or services, and the Legislature shall not be required to restrict the power of any municipality or political subdivision to levy taxes or issue bonds or other obligations or to expend public moneys for the establishment, maintenance, support, or operation of mental health services, mental retardation services, public health units or clinics or related public health activities or services or the operation of such community mental health or mental retardation centers within the boundaries of the hospital districts; and unless a statute creating a hospital district shall expressly prohibit participation by any entity other than the hospital district in the establishment, maintenance, or support of mental health services, mental retardation services, public health units or clinics or related public health activities within or partly within the boundaries of any hospital district, any municipality or any other political subdivision or state-supported entity within the hospital district may participate in the establishment, maintenance, and support of mental health services, mental retardation services, public health units and clinics and related public health activities and may levy taxes, issue bonds or other obligations, and expend public moneys for such purposes as provided by law. [Adopted Nov. 11, 1967.]

§ 2. Jails, Court-houses, Bridges and Roads

Sec. 2. The construction of jails, court-houses and bridges and the establishment of county poor houses and farms, and the laying out, construction and repairing of county roads shall be provided for by general laws.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 3. Subscriptions to Corporate Capital; Donations; Loan of Credit

Sec. 3. No county, city, or other municipal corporation shall hereafter become a subscriber to the capital of any private corporation or association, or make any appropriation or donation to the same, or in anywise loan its credit; but this shall not be construed to in any way affect any obligation here­tofore undertaken pursuant to law.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 4. Cities and Towns with Population of 5,000 or Less; Chartered by General Law; Taxes; Fines, Forfeitures and Penalties

Sec. 4. Cities and towns having a population of five thousand or less may be chartered alone by qualified voters of said city, at an election held for the adoption of a charter, and the ordinance passed under said charter shall contain such provisions as may be prescribed by the Legislature, and providing that no charter or any amendment or repeal thereof shall in any way affect any obligation here­tofore undertaken pursuant to law.

§ 5. Cities of 5000 or more Population; Adoption or Amendment of Charters; Taxes; Debt Restrictions

Sec. 5. Cities having more than five thousand (5000) inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, and providing that no charter or any ordinance passed under said charter shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Charter of the State, or of the general laws enacted by the Legislature of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year, which shall exceed two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city; and all taxes shall be collectible only in current money, and all licenses and occupation taxes levied, and all fines, forfeitures and penalties accruing to said cities and towns shall be collectible only in current money.

§ 6. Taxes to Pay Interest and Create Sinking Fund to satisfy Indebtedness

Sec. 6. Counties, cities and towns are authorized in such mode as may now or may hereafter be provided by law, to levy, assess and collect the taxes necessary to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to satisfy any indebtedness heretofore legally made and undertaken; but all such taxes shall be assessed and collected separately from that levied, assessed and collected for current expenses of municipal government, and shall when levied specify in the act of levying the purpose therefor, and such taxes may be paid in the coupons, bonds or other indebtedness for the payment of which such tax may have been levied.

§ 7. Counties and Cities on Gulf of Mexico; Tax for Sea Walls, Breakwaters and Sanitation; Bonds; Condemnation of Right of Way

Sec. 7. All counties and cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico are hereby authorized upon a vote of the majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon at an election called for such purpose to levy and collect such tax for construction of sea walls, breakwaters, or sanitary purposes, as may now or may hereafter be authorized by law, and may create a debt for such works and issue bonds in evidence thereof. But no debt for any purpose shall ever be incurred in any manner by any city or county unless provision is made, at the time of creating the same, for levying and collecting a sufficient tax to pay the interest thereon and provide at least two per cent (2%) as a sinking fund; and the condemnation of the right of way for the erection of such works shall be fully provided for.

§ 8. Donation of Portion of Public Domain to Aid in Construction of Sea Walls or Breakwaters

Sec. 8. The counties and cities on the Gulf Coast being subject to calamitous overflows, and a very large proportion of the general revenue being derived from those otherwise prosperous localities, the Legislature is especially authorized to aid by donation of such portion of the public domain as may be deemed proper, and in such mode as may be provided by law, the construction of sea walls, or breakwaters, such aid to be proportioned to the extent and value of the works constructed, or to be constructed, in any locality.

§ 9. Property Exempt from Forced Sale and from Taxation

Sec. 9. The property of counties, cities and towns, owned and held only for public purposes, such as public buildings and the sites therefor, fire engines and the furniture thereof, and all property used, or intended for extinguishing fires, public grounds and all other property devoted exclusively to the use and benefit of the public shall be exempt from forced sale and from taxation, provided, nothing herein shall prevent the enforcement of the liens now existing.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11. Term of Office exceeding two years in Home Rule and General Law Cities; Vacancies

Sec. 11. A Home Rule City may provide by charter or charter amendment, and a city, town or village operating under the general laws may provide by majority vote of the qualified voters voting at an election called for that purpose, for a longer term of office than two (2) years for its officers, either elective or appointive, or both, but not to exceed four (4) years; provided, however, that tenure under Civil Service shall not be affected hereby.

Provided, however, if any of such officers, elective or appointive, shall announce their candidacy, or shall in fact become a candidate, in any general, special or primary election, for any office of profit or trust under the laws of this State or the United States other than the office then held, at any time when the unexpired term of the office then held shall exceed one (1) year, such announcement or such candidacy shall constitute an automatic resignation of the office then held, and the vacancy thereby created shall be filled pursuant to law in the same manner as other vacancies for such office are filled.

A municipality so providing a term exceeding two (2) years but not exceeding four (4) years for any of its non-civil service officers must elect all of the members of its governing body by majority vote of the qualified voters in such municipality, and any vacancy or vacancies occurring on such governing body shall not be filled by appointment but must be filled by majority vote of the qualified voters at a special election called for such purpose within one hundred and twenty (120) days after such vacancy or vacancies occur. [Adopted Nov. 4, 1958.]

§ 5. Suspension pending Impeachment; Provisional Appointments

Sec. 5. All officers against whom articles of impeachment may be preferred shall be suspended from the exercise of the duties of their office, during the pendency of such impeachment. The Governor may make a provisional appointment to fill the vacancy occasioned by the suspension of an officer until the decision on the impeachment.

§ 6. Judges of District Court; Removal by Supreme Court

Sec. 6. Any judge of the District Courts of the State who is incompetent to discharge the duties of his office, or who shall be guilty of partiality, or oppression, or other official misconduct, or whose habits and conduct are such as to render him unfit to hold such office, or who shall negligently fail to perform his duties as judge; or who shall fail to execute in a reasonable measure the business in his courts, may be removed by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine the causes aforesaid when presented in writing upon the oaths taken before some judge of a court of record of not less than ten lawyers, practicing in the courts held by such judge, and licensed to practice in the Supreme Court; said presentment to be founded either upon the knowledge of the persons making it or upon the written oaths as to the facts of credible witnesses. The Supreme Court may issue all needful process and be tried as soon as practicable.

§ 7. Removal of Officers when Mode not provided in Constitution

Sec. 7. The Legislature shall provide by law for the trial and removal from office of all officers of this State, the modes for which have not been provided in this Constitution.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

ADDRESS

§ 8. Removal of Judges by Governor on Address of Two-thirds of Each House of Legislature

Sec. 8. The Judges of the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and District Courts, shall be removed by the Governor on the addresses of two-thirds of each House of the Legislature, or who, for wilful neglect of duty, incompetency, habitual drunkenness, oppression in office, or other reasonable cause which shall not be sufficient ground for impeachment; provided, however, that the cause or causes for which such removal shall be required, shall be stated at length in such address and entered on the journals of each House; and provided further, that the cause or causes shall be notified to the judge so intended to be removed, and he shall be admitted to a hearing in his own defense before any vote for such address shall pass, and in all such cases, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and entered on the journals of each House respectively.

§ 1. Official Oath

Sec. 1. Members of the Legislature, and all other elected officers, before they enter upon the duties of their offices, shall take the following Oath or Affirmation:

"I, , do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I will faithfully execute the duties of the office of of the State of Texas, and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this State; and I furthermore solemnly swear (or affirm), that I have not directly nor indirectly paid, offered, or promised to pay, contributed, nor promised to contribute any money, or valuable thing, or promised any public office or employment, as a reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected. So help me God." The Secretary of State, and all other appointed officers, before they enter upon the duties of their offices, shall take the following Oath or Affirmation:

"I, , do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I will faithfully execute the duties of the office of of the State of Texas, and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this State; and I furthermore solemnly swear (or affirm), that I have not directly nor indirectly paid, offered, or promised to pay, contributed, nor promised to contribute any money, or valuable thing, or promised any public office or employment, as a reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected. So help me God." [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 8, 1938; Nov. 6, 1956.]

§ 2. Exclusions from Office, Jury Service and Right of Service; Protection of Right of Service

Sec. 2. Laws shall be made to exclude from office, serving on juries, and from the right of suffrage, those who may have been or shall hereafter be convicted of bribery, perjury, forgery, or other high crimes. The privilege of free suffrage shall be protected by laws regulating elections and prohibiting under adequate penalties all undue influence therein from power, bribery, tumult or other improper practice. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 5. Disqualification to Office by giving or offering Bribe

Sec. 5. Every person shall be disqualified from holding any office of profit, or trust, in this State, who shall have been convicted of having given or offered a bribe to procure his election or appointment. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 6. Appropriations for Private Purposes; State Participation in Programs Financed with Private or Federal Funds for Rehabilitation of Blind, Crippled, Physically or Mentally Handicapped Persons

Sec. 6. (a) No appropriation for private or individual purposes shall be made, unless authorized by this Constitution. A regular statement, under oath, and an account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published annually, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

(b) State agencies charged with the responsibility of providing services to those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped may accept money from private or federal sources, designated by the private or federal source as money to be used in and establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, in rehabilitating and restoring the handicapped, and in providing other services determined by the state agency to be essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped. Money accepted under this subsection is state money. State agencies may spend money accepted under this subsection, and no other money, for specific programs and projects to be conducted by local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations, in establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, in rehabilitating and restoring the handicapped, and in providing other services determined by the state agency to be essential for the better care or treatment of the handicapped.

The state agencies may deposit money accepted under this subsection either in the state treasury or in other secure depositories. The money may not be expended for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was given. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the state agencies may expend money accepted under this subsection without the necessity of an appropriation, unless the Legislature, by law, requires that the money be expended only on appropriation. The Legislature may prohibit state agencies from accepting money under this subsection or may regulate the amount of money accepted, the way the acceptance and expenditure of the money is administered, and the purposes for which the state agencies may expend the money. Money accepted under this subsection for a purpose prohibited by the Legislature shall be returned to the entity that gave the money.

This subsection does not prohibit state agencies authorized to render services to the handicapped from contracting with privately-owned or local facilities for necessary and essential services, subject to such conditions, standards, and procedures as may be prescribed by law. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 8, 1966.]

§ 8. County Poor House and Farm

Sec. 8. Each county in the State may provide, in such manner as may be prescribed by law, a Manual Labor Poor House and Farm, for taking care of, managing, employing and supplying the wants of its indigent and poor inhabitants.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 9. Forfeiture of Residence by Absence on Public Business

Sec. 9. Absence on business of the State, or of the United States, shall not forfeit a residence once obtained, so as to deprive any one of the right of suffrage, or of being elected or appointed to any office under the exceptions contained in this Constitution.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 10. Deductions from Salary for Neglect of Duty

Sec. 10. The Legislature shall provide for deductions from the salaries of public officers who may neglect the performance of any duty that may be assigned them by law.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 11. Usury; Rate of Interest in Absence of Legislation

Sec. 11. The Legislature shall have authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; provided, however, in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest all contracts for a greater rate of interest than ten per centum (10%) per annum shall be deemed usurious; provided, further, that in contracts where no rate of interest is agreed upon, the rate shall not exceed six per centum (6%) per annum. Should any regulatory agency, acting under the provisions of this Section, cancel or refuse to grant any permit under any law passed by the Legislature, then such applicant or holder shall have the right of appeal to the courts and granted a trial de novo as that term is used in appealing from the justice of peace court to the county court.

§ 12. Members of Congress; Officers of United States or Foreign Power; Ineligibility to Hold Office

Sec. 12. No member of Congress, nor person holding or exercising any office of profit or trust, under the United States, or either of them, or under any foreign power, shall be eligible as a member of the Legislature, or hold or exercise any office of profit or trust under this State.

§ 13. Arbitration

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the Legislature to pass such laws as may be necessary and proper to decide differences by arbitration, when the parties shall elect that method of trial.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 14. Civil Officers; Residence; Location of Offices

Sec. 14. All civil officers shall reside within the State; and all district or county officers within their districts or counties, and shall keep their offices at such places as may be required by law; and failure to comply with this condition shall vacate the office so held.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 15. Separate and Community Property of Husband and Wife

Sec. 15. All property, both real and personal, of the wife, owned or claimed by her before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent, shall be the separate property of the wife; and laws shall be passed more clearly defining the rights of the wife, in relation as well to her separate property as that held in common with her husband; provided that husband and wife, without prejudice to pre-existing creditors, may from time to time by written instrument as if the wife were a feme sole partition between themselves in severalty or into equal undivided interests all or any part of their existing community property, or exchange between themselves the community interest of one spouse in any property for the community interest of the other spouse in other community property, whereupon the portion or interest set aside to each spouse shall be and constitute a part of the separate property of such spouse.

This Amendment is self-operative, but laws may be passed prescribing requirements as to the form and manner of execution of such instruments, and providing for their recordation, and for such other reasonable requirements not inconsistent herewith as the Legislature may from time to time consider proper with relation to the subject of this Amendment. Should the Legislature pass an Act dealing with the subject of this Amendment and prescribing requirements as to the form and manner of the execution of such instruments and providing for their recordation and other reasonable requirements not inconsistent herewith and anticipatory hereto, such Act shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character and shall take effect just as though this Constitutional Amendment was in effect when the Act was passed.

§ 16. Corporations with Banking and Discounting Privileges

Sec. 16. The Legislature shall by general laws, authorize the incorporation of corporate bodies with banking and discounting privileges, and shall provide for a system of State supervision, regulation and control of such bodies which will adequately protect and secure the depositors and creditors thereof.

No such corporate body shall be chartered until all of the authorized capital stock has been subscribed and paid for in full in cash. Such body corporate shall not be authorized to engage in business at more than one place which shall be designated in its charter.

No foreign corporation, other than the national banks of the United States, shall be permitted to exercise banking or discounting privileges in this State.

§ 17. Officers to Serve until Successors Qualified

Sec. 17. All officers within this State shall continue to perform the duties of their offices until their successors shall be duly qualified.
[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]
§ 18. Existing Rights of Property and of Action; Rights or Actions Not Revived

Sec. 18. The rights of property and of action, which have been acquired under the Constitution and laws of the Republic and State, shall not be divested; nor shall any rights or actions which have been divested, barred or declared null and void by the Constitution of the Republic and State, be re-invested, renewed, or re-instanted by this Constitution; but the same shall remain precisely in the situation which they were before the adoption of this Constitution, unless otherwise herein provided; and provided further, that no cause of action heretofore barred shall be revived.

§ 19. Qualifications of Jurors

Sec. 19. The Legislature shall prescribe by law the qualifications of grand and petit jurors; provided that neither the right nor the duty to serve on grand and petit juries shall be denied or abridged by reason of sex. Whenever in the Constitution the term "men" is used in reference to grand or petit juries, such term shall include persons of the female as well as the male sex.

§ 20. Alcoholic Beverages; Mixed Beverage Law; Regulation; Local Option

Sec. 20. (a) The Legislature shall have the power to enact a Mixed Beverage Law regulating the sale of mixed alcoholic beverages on a local option election basis. The Legislature shall also have the power to regulate the manufacture, sale, possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors, including the power to establish a State Monopoly on the sale of distilled liquors.

Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

(b) The Legislature shall enact a law or laws whereby the qualified voters of any county, justice’s precinct or incorporated town or city, may, by a majority vote of those voting, determine from time to time whether the sale of Intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits; and such laws shall contain provisions for voting on the sale of intoxicating liquors of various types and various alcoholic content.

(c) In all counties, justice’s precincts or incorporated towns or cities wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option elections held under the laws of the State of Texas and in force at the time of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, it shall continue to be unlawful to manufacture, sell, barter or exchange in any such county, justice’s precinct or incorporated town or city, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication or any other intoxicants whatsoever, for beverage purposes, unless and until a majority of the qualified voters in such county or political subdivision voting in an election held for such purpose shall determine such to be lawful; provided that this subsection shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages containing not more than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties or political subdivisions thereof in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature.

§ 48. Existing Laws to continue in Force

Sec. 48. All laws and parts of laws now in force in the State of Texas, which are not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States, or to this Constitution, shall continue and remain in force as the laws of this State, until they expire by their own limitation or shall be amended or repealed by the Legislature.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 49. Protection of Personal Property from Forced Sale

Sec. 49. The Legislature shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to protect by law from forced sale a certain portion of the personal property of all heads of families, and also of unmarried adults, male and female.

[Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 50. Homestead; Protection from Forced Sale; Mortgages, Trust Deeds and Liens

Sec. 50. The homestead of a family, or of a single adult person, shall be, and is hereby protected from forced sale, for the payment of all debts except for the purchase money thereof, or a part of such purchase money, the taxes due thereon, or for work and material used in constructing improvements thereon, and in this last case only when the work and material are contracted for in writing, with the consent of both spouses, in the case of a family homestead, given in the same manner as is required in making a sale and conveyance of the homestead;
§ 51. Amount and Value of Homestead; Uses

Sec. 51. The homestead, not in a town or city, shall consist of not more than two hundred acres of land, which may be in one or more parcels, with the improvements thereon; the homestead in a city or town or village, shall consist of lot, or lots, not to exceed in value Ten Thousand Dollars, at the time of their designation as the homestead, without reference to the value of any improvements thereon; provided, that the same shall be used for the purposes of a home, or as a place to exercise the calling or business of the homestead claimant, whether a single adult person, or the head of a family; provided also, that any temporary renting of the homestead shall not change the character of the same, when no other homestead has been acquired. This amendment shall become effective upon its adoption. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 6, 1973.]

§ 52. Descent and Distribution of Homestead; Restrictions on Partition

Sec. 52. On the death of the husband or wife, or both, the homestead shall descend and vest in like manner as other real property of the deceased, and shall be governed by the same laws of descent and distribution, but it shall not be partitioned among the heirs of the deceased during the lifetime of the surviving husband or wife, or so long as the survivor may elect to use or occupy the same as a homestead, or so long as the guardian of the minor children of the deceased may be permitted, under the order of the proper court having the jurisdiction, to use and occupy the same. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 53. Process and Writs not Executed or Returned at Adoption of Constitution

Sec. 53. That no inconvenience may arise from the adoption of this Constitution, it is declared that all process and writs of all kinds which have been or may be issued and not returned or executed when this Constitution is adopted, shall remain valid, and shall not be, in any way, affected by the adoption of this Constitution. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876.]

§ 56. Appropriations for Development and Dissemination of Information concerning Texas Resources

Sec. 56. The Legislature of the State of Texas shall have the power to appropriate money and establish the procedure necessary to expend such money for the purpose of developing information about the historical, natural, agricultural, industrial, educational, marketing, recreational and living resources of Texas, and for the purpose of informing persons and corporations of other states through advertising in periodicals having national circulation, and the dissemination of factual information about the advantages and economic resources offered by the State of Texas; providing, however, that neither the name nor the picture of any living state official shall ever be used in any of said advertising, and providing that the Legislature may require that any sum of money appropriated hereunder shall be matched by an equal sum paid into the State Treasury from private sources before any of said money may be expended. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 4, 1958.]

§ 59. Conservation and Development of Natural Resources; Conservation and Reclamation Districts

Sec. 59. (a) The conservation and development of all of the natural resources of this State, including the control, storing, preservation and distribution of its storm and flood waters, the waters of its rivers and streams, for irrigation, power and all other useful purposes, the reclamation and irrigation of its arid, semi-arid and other lands needing irrigation, the reclamation and drainage of its overflowed lands, and other lands needing drainage, the conservation and development of its forests, water and hydro-electric power, the navigation of its inland and coastal waters, and the preservation and conservation of all such natural resources of the State are hereby declared public rights and duties; and the Legislature shall pass all such laws as may be appropriate thereto.

(b) There may be created within the State of Texas, or the State may be divided into, such number of conservation and reclamation districts as may be determined to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of this amendment to the constitution, which districts shall be governmental agencies and bodies politic and corporate with such powers of government and with the authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions concerning the subject matter of this amendment as may be conferred by law.

(c) The Legislature shall authorize all such indebtedness as may be necessary to provide all improvements and the maintenance thereof requisite to the achievement of the purposes of this amendment, and all such indebtedness may be evidenced by bonds of such conservation and reclamation districts, to be issued under such regulations as any may be prescribed by law and shall also, authorize the levy and collection within such districts of all such taxes, equitably distributed, as may be necessary for the payment of the interest and the creation of a sinking fund for the payment of such bonds; and also for the maintenance of such districts and improvements, and such indebtedness shall be a lien upon the property assessed for the payment thereof; provided the Legislature shall not authorize the issuance of any bonds or provide for any indebtedness against any reclamation district unless such proposition shall... first be submitted to the qualified property tax-paying voters of such district and the proposition adopted.

(d) No law creating a conservation and reclamation district shall be passed unless notice of the intention to introduce such a bill setting forth the general substance of the contemplated law shall have been published at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to the introduction thereof in a newspaper or newspapers having general circulation in the county or counties in which said district or any part thereof is or will be located and by delivering a copy of such notice and such bill to the Governor who shall submit such notice and bill to the Texas Water Commission, or its successor, which shall file its recommendation as to such bill with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives within thirty (30) days from notice received was published by the Texas Water Commission. Such notice and copy of bill shall also be given of the introduction of any bill amending a law creating or governing a particular conservation and reclamation district if such bill (1) adds additional land to the district, (2) alters the taxing authority of the district, (3) alters the authority of the district with respect to the issuance of bonds, or (4) alters the qualifications or terms of office of the members of the governing body of the district.

(e) No law creating a conservation and reclamation district shall be passed unless, at the time notice of the intention to introduce such a bill is published as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, a copy of the proposed bill is delivered to the commissioners court of each county in which said district or any part thereof is or will be located and to the governing body of each incorporated city or town in whose jurisdiction said district or any part thereof is or will be located. Each such commissioners court and governing body may file its written consent or opposition to the creation of the proposed district with the governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker of the house of representatives. Each special law creating or governing a conservation and reclamation district shall comply with the provisions of the general laws then in effect relating to consent by political subdivisions to the creation of conservation and reclamation districts and to the inclusion of land within the district. [Adopted Aug. 21, 1917, proclamation Oct. 2, 1917. Amended Nov. 3, 1964; Nov. 6, 1973.]

§ 61. Compensation of District, County and Precinct Officers; Salary or Fee Basis; Disposition of Fees

Sec. 61. All district officers in the State of Texas and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more, according to the then last preceding Federal Census, shall be compensated on a salary basis. In all counties in this State, the Commissioners Courts shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis, with the exception that it shall be mandatory upon the Commissioners Courts, to compensate all justices of the peace, constables, deputy constables and precinct law enforcement officers on a salary basis beginning January 1, 1973; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000), according to the then last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Courts shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis, with the exception that it shall be mandatory upon the Commissioners Courts to compensate all sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, county law enforcement officers including sheriffs who also perform the duties of assessor and collector of taxes, and their deputies, on a salary basis beginning January 1, 1949.

All fees earned by district, county and precinct officers shall be paid into the county treasury where earned for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the State, county and any municipality, or in case where a pauper's oath is filed shall be paid into the county treasury when collected and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis such fees may be retained by such officer or paid into the treasury of the county as the Commissioners Court may direct. All Notaries Public, county surveyors and public weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis.

§ 62. State and County Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Funds

Sec. 62. (a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the State, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of this state as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of the state who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the state, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of judicial districts of this state as it deems advisable. Persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 1-a of Article V of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this subsection; and persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 1-a of Article III of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this subsection except as permitted by Section 63 of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of a county as provided for in Article XVI, Section 62, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this subsection, except as otherwise provided herein. The amount contributed by the state to such Fund shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time six per centum (6%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the state.

There is hereby created as an agency of the State of Texas the Employees Retirement System of Texas, the rights of membership in which, the retirement privileges and benefits thereunder, and the management and operation of which shall be governed by the provisions herein contained and by present or hereafter enacted Acts of the Legislature not inconsistent herewith. The general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of said system are hereby vested in a State Board of Trustees, to be known as the State Board of Trustees of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, which Board shall be constituted and shall serve as may now or hereafter be provided by the Legislature. Said Board shall exercise such powers as are herein provided together with such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Legislature. All moneys from whatever source coming into the Fund and all other securities, moneys, and assets of the Employees Retirement System of Texas shall be administered by said Board and said Board shall be the trustees thereof. The Treasurer of the State of Texas shall be custodian of said moneys and securities. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, hold, manage, purchase, sell, assign, trade, transfer, and dispose of any securities, evidence of debt, and other investments in which said securities, moneys, and assets have been or may hereafter be invested by said Board. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to invest and reinvest any of said securities, and to assume or to proceed with any of such investments, in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued, or assumed or guaranteed in whole or in part, by the United States or any agency of the United States, or by the State of Texas, or by any county, city, school district, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of the United States, the State of Texas, both general and special obligations; or in home office facilities to be used in administering the Employees Retirement System including land, equipment, and office building; or in such corporation bonds, notes, other evidences of indebtedness, and corporation stocks, including common and preferred stocks, of any corporation created or existing under the laws of the United States, or of any of the states of the United States, as said Board may deem to be proper investments; provided that in making each and all of such investments said Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as probable safety of their capital; and further provided, that a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may now or hereafter be provided by law. Unless investments authorized herein are hereafter further restricted by an Act of the Legislature, no more than one per cent (1%) of the book value of the total assets of the Employees Retirement System shall be invested in the stock of any one (1) corporation, nor shall more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid cash dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors; and provided further, that not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) at any one time of the book value of investments of said Fund shall be invested in Government and Municipal Securities as enumerated above. This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any enabling legislation.

(b) Each county shall have the right to provide for and administer a Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the appointive officers and employees of the county; provided same is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such county and after such election has been advertised in being published in at least one newspaper of general circulation in said county once each week for four consecutive weeks; provided that the amount contributed by the county to such Fund shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time five per centum (5%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the county, and shall in no one year exceed the sum of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180) for any such person.

All funds provided from the compensation of each such person, or by the county, for such Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund, as are received by the county, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties or cities of this State, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States, provided that a sufficient amount of said funds shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said Fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the county which may be provided by law to administrator said Fund; and provided that the recipients of benefits from said Fund shall not be eligible for any other pension retirement funds or direct aid from the State of Texas, unless the Fund, the creation of which is provided for herein, contributed by the county, is released to the State of Texas as a condition to receiving such other person.

c) The Texas Legislature is authorized to enact appropriate laws to provide for a System of Retirement, Disability and Death Benefits for all the officers and employees of a county or other political subdivision of the state, or a political subdivision of a county; providing that when the Texas Legislature has passed the necessary enabling legislation pursuant to the Constitutional authorization, then the governing body of the county, or other political subdivision of the state, or political subdivision of the county shall make the determination as to whether a particular county or other political subdivision of the state, or subdivision of the county participates in this System; providing further that such System shall be operated at the expense of the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county electing to participate therein and the officers and employees covered by the System; and providing that the Legislature of the State of Texas shall never make an appropriation to pay the costs of this Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation System.

The Legislature may provide for a voluntary merger into the System herein authorized by this Constitutional Amendment of any System of Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Benefits which may now exist or that may hereafter be established under subsection (b) of Section 62 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution; providing further that the Texas Legislature in the enabling statute will make the determination as to the amount of money that will be contributed by the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county to the State-wide System of Retirement, Disability and Death Benefits, and the Legislature shall further provide that the amount of money contributed by the county or other political subdivision of the state or subdivision of the county shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each officer and employee covered by this State-wide System.

It is the further intention of the Legislature, in submitting this Constitutional Amendment, that the officers and employees of the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of a county may be included in these systems regardless of whether the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county participates in the Retirement, Disability and Death Benefit System authorized by this Constitutional Amendment, or whether they participate in a System under the provisions of subsection (b) of Section 62 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution as the same is herein amended.

§ 63. Teachers and Employees Retirement Systems, Service Credit

Sec. 63. Qualified members of the Teacher Retirement System, in addition to the benefits allowed them under the Teacher Retirement System shall be entitled to credit in the Teacher Retirement System for all services, including prior service and membership service, earned or rendered by them as an appointive officer or employee of the State. Likewise, qualified members of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, in addition to the benefits allowed them under the Employees Retirement System of Texas shall be entitled to credit in the Employees Retirement System of Texas for all services, including prior service and membership service, earned or rendered by them as a teacher or person employed in the public schools, colleges, and universities supported wholly or partly by the State.

§ 64. Terms of Office, Certain Offices

Sec. 64. The office of Inspector of Hides and Animals, the elective district, county and precinct offices which have herefore had terms of two years, shall hereafter have terms of four years; and the holders of such offices shall serve until their successors are qualified.

[Adopted Nov. 2, 1954.]

§ 65. Transition from two year to four year Terms of Office

Sec. 65. Staggering Terms of Office—The following officers elected at the General Election in November, 1954, and thereafter, shall serve for the full terms provided in this Constitution:

(a) District Clerks; (b) County Clerks; (c) County Judges; (d) Judges of the County Courts at Law, County Criminal Courts, County Probate Courts and County Domestic Relations Courts; (e) County Treasurers; (f) Criminal District Attorneys; (g) County Surveyors; (h) Inspectors of Hides and Animals; (i) County Commissioners for Precincts Two and Four; (j) Justices of the Peace.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this Constitution, the following officers elected at the General Election in November, 1954, shall serve only for terms of two (2) years: (a) Sheriffs; (b) Assessors and Collectors of Taxes; (c) District Attorneys; (d) County Attorneys; (e) Public Weighers; (f) County Commissioners for Precincts One and Three; (g) Constables. At subsequent elections, such officers shall be elected for the full terms provided in this Constitution.

In any district, county or precinct where any of the aforementioned offices is of such nature that two (2) or more persons hold such office, with the result that candidates file for “Place No. 1,” “Place No. 2,” etc., the officers elected at the General Election in November, 1954, shall serve for a term of two (2) years if the designation of their office is an uneven number, and for a term of four (4) years if the designation of their office is an even number. Thereafter, all such officers shall be elected for the terms provided in this Constitution.

Provided, however, if any of the officers named herein shall announce their candidacy, or shall in fact become a candidate, in any General, Special or Primary Election, for any office of profit or trust under the laws of this State or the United States other than the office then held, at any time when the unexpired term of the office then held shall exceed one (1) year, such announcement or such candidacy shall constitute an automatic resignation of the office then held, and the vacancy thereby created shall be filled pursuant to law in the same manner as other vacancies for such office are filled.

§ 66. Texas Rangers; Retirement and Disability Pension System for Rangers ineligible for Membership in Employees Retirement System

Sec. 66. The Legislature shall have authority to provide for a system of retirement and disability pensions for retiring Texas Rangers who have not been eligible at any time for membership in the Employees Retirement System of Texas as that retirement system was established by Chapter 352, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, Regular Session, 1947, and who have had as much as two (2) years service as a Texas Ranger, and to their widows; providing that no pension shall exceed Eighty Dollars ($80) per month to any such Texas Ranger or his widow, provided that such widow was legally married prior to January 1, 1957, to a Texas Ranger qualifying for such pension.

These pensions may be paid only from the special fund created by Section 17, Article VII for a payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations, and the militia of the State of Texas, and for widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia.

[Adopted Nov. 4, 1958.]
ARTICLE XVII

MODE OF AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION OF THIS STATE

§ 1. Proposed Amendments; Submission to Voters; Adoption

Sec. 1. The Legislature, at any regular session, or at any special session when the matter is included within the purposes for which the session is convened, may propose amendments revising the Constitution, to be voted upon by the qualified electors for statewide offices and propositions, as defined in the Constitution and statutes of this State. The date of the elections shall be specified by the Legislature. The proposal for submission must be approved by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House, entered by yeas and nays on the journals.

A brief explanatory statement of the nature of a proposed amendment, together with the date of the election and the wording of the proposition as it is to appear on the ballot, shall be published twice in each newspaper in the State which meets requirements set by the Legislature for the publication of official notices of officers and departments of the state government. The explanatory statement shall be prepared by the Secretary of State and shall be approved by the Attorney General. The Secretary of State shall send a full and complete copy of the proposed amendment or amendments to each county clerk who shall post the same in a public place in the courthouse at least 30 days prior to the election on said amendment. The first notice shall be published not more than 60 days nor less than 50 days before the date of the election, and the second notice shall be published on the same day in the succeeding week. The Legislature shall fix the standards for the rate of charge for the publication, which may not be higher than the newspaper’s published national rate for advertising per column inch.

The election shall be held in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Legislature, and the returning officer in each county shall make returns to the Secretary of State of the number of legal votes cast at the election for and against each amendment. If it appears from the returns that a majority of the votes cast have been cast in favor of an amendment, it shall become a part of this Constitution, and proclamation thereof shall be made by the Governor. [Adopted Feb. 15, 1876. Amended Nov. 7, 1972.]

§ 2. Constitutional Revision Commission; Establishment; Report; 1974 Constitutional Convention

Sec. 2. (a) When the legislature convenes in regular session in January, 1978, it shall provide by concurrent resolution for the establishment of a constitutional revision commission. The legislature shall appropriate money to provide an adequate staff, office space, equipment, and supplies for the commission.

(b) The commission shall study the need for constitutional change and shall report its recommendations to the members of the legislature not later than November 1, 1973.

(c) The members of the 63rd Legislature shall be convened as a constitutional convention at noon on the second Tuesday in January, 1974. The lieutenant governor shall preside until a chairman of the convention is elected. The convention shall elect other officers it deems necessary, adopt temporary and permanent rules, and publish a journal of its proceedings. A person elected to fill a vacancy in the 63rd Legislature before dissolution of the convention becomes a member of the convention on taking office as a member of the legislature.

(d) Members of the convention shall receive compensation, mileage, per diem as determined by a five member committee, to be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and Chief Justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals. This shall not be held in conflict with Article XVI, Section 38 of the Texas Constitution. The convention may provide for the expenses of its members and for the employment of a staff for the convention, and for these purposes may by resolution appropriate money from the general revenue fund of the state treasury. Warrants shall be drawn pursuant to vouchers signed by the chairman or by a person authorized by him in writing to sign them.

(e) The convention, by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members, may submit for a vote of the qualified electors of this state a new constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections, or may submit revisions of the existing constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections. Each resolution shall specify the date of the election, the form of the ballots, and the method of publicizing the proposals to be voted on. To be adopted, each proposal must receive the favorable vote of the majority of those voting on the proposal. The conduct of the election, the canvassing of the votes, and the reporting of the returns shall be as provided for elections under Section 1 of this article.

(f) The convention may be dissolved by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members; but it is automatically dissolved at 11:59 p. m. on May 31, 1974, unless its duration is extended for a period not to exceed 60 days by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members.

(g) The Bill of Rights of the present Texas Constitution shall be retained in full. [Adopted Nov. 7, 1972.]

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE
Acts 1967, 60th Leg., Ch. 785
Effective September 1, 1967

Analysis
The text of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code as set out herein is identified by section rather than article numbers. The section numbers correspond to the section numbers of the Uniform Commercial Code, except that as enacted in 1967 a period has been substituted for a dash so that section 1-101 in the official text is section 1.101 in the Texas Code, and so on. Additionally, most lettered subsections and numbered subdivisions of the Texas Code have been substituted for the numbered subsections and lettered subdivisions of the official text so that subdivision (a) of subsection (2) of section 1-102 in the official text is subdivision (1) of subsection (b) of section 1.102 in the Texas Code, and so on.

Effective Date
Section 3 of Acts 1967, ch. 785 provided that “This Act takes effect on September 1, 1967.”

Table—Prior Statutory Provisions
Disposition tables are provided preceding this Code to enable the user to trace the disposition in the Texas Business and Commerce Code of the subject matter of articles repealed by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721 and Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785.

Enactment
The Uniform Commercial Code was first enacted in Texas in 1965 (Acts 1965, chapter 721) to become effective at midnight June 30, 1966. Section 10–102 of the Code as then enacted repealed numerous existing provisions of the Texas Statutes relating to commercial transactions, but provided that transactions validly entered into before the effective date and the rights, duties and interests flowing from them should remain valid thereafter and could be terminated, completed, consummated or enforced as required or permitted by any statute or other law amended or repealed by the Act as though such repeal or amendment had not occurred.

Acts 1967, chapter 785, reenacted the Uniform Commercial Code as a part of the Business and Commerce Code and repealed Acts 1965, chapter 721. However, section 5 of the 1967 Act provided in part that the repeal of a statute by the Act did not affect the prior operation of the statute or any prior action taken under it.

§ 1.101. Short Title

This title may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 1.102. Purposes; Rules of Construction; Variation by Agreement

(a) This title shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.

(b) Underlying purposes and policies of this title are:

1. to simplify, clarify and modernize the law governing commercial transactions;
2. to permit the continued expansion of commercial practices through custom, usage and agreement of the parties;
3. to make uniform the law among the various jurisdictions.

(c) The effect of provisions of this title may be varied by agreement, except as otherwise provided in this title and except that the obligations of good faith, diligence, reasonableness and care prescribed by this title may not be disclaimed by agreement but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the performance of such obligations is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(d) The presence in certain provisions of this title of the words “unless otherwise agreed” or words of similar import does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement under Subsection (c).

(e) In this title unless the context otherwise requires:

1. words in the singular number include the plural, and in the plural include the singular;
2. words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and when the sense so indicates words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender.

§ 1.103. Supplementary General Principles of Law Applicable

Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this title, the principles of law and equity, including the law merchant and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause shall supplement its provisions.

§ 1.104. Construction Against Implicit Repeal

This title being a general body of law intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it shall be deemed to be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if such construction can reasonably be avoided.

§ 1.105. Territorial Application of the Title: Parties’ Power to Choose Applicable Law

(a) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this title applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

(b) Where one of the following provisions of this title specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified:

- Rights of creditors against sold goods. Section 2.402.
- Applicability of the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections. Section 4.102.
- Bulk transfers subject to the chapter on Bulk Transfers. Section 6.102.
- Applicability of the chapter on Investment Securities. Section 8.106.
- Perfection provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions. Section 9.103.

§ 1.106. Remedies to be Liberally Administered

(a) The remedies provided by this title shall be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party may be put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed but neither consequential or special nor penal damages may be had except as specifically provided in this title or by other rule of law.

(b) Any right or obligation declared by this title is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect.

§ 1.107. Waiver or Renunciation of Claim or Right After Breach

Any claim or right arising out of an alleged breach can be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party.

§ 1.108. Severability

If any provision or clause of this title or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the title which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this title are declared to be severable.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 1.109. Section Captions

Section captions are parts of this title.

§ 1.105. Territorial Application of the Title: Parties’ Power to Choose Applicable Law

(a) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this title applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

(b) Where one of the following provisions of this title specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified:

- Rights of creditors against sold goods. Section 2.402.
- Applicability of the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections. Section 4.102.
- Bulk transfers subject to the chapter on Bulk Transfers. Section 6.102.
- Applicability of the chapter on Investment Securities. Section 8.106.
- Perfection provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions. Section 9.103.

§ 1.106. Remedies to be Liberally Administered

(a) The remedies provided by this title shall be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party may be put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed but neither consequential or special nor penal damages may be had except as specifically provided in this title or by other rule of law.

(b) Any right or obligation declared by this title is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect.

§ 1.107. Waiver or Renunciation of Claim or Right After Breach

Any claim or right arising out of an alleged breach can be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party.

§ 1.108. Severability

If any provision or clause of this title or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the title which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this title are declared to be severable.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 1.109. Section Captions

Section captions are parts of this title.

§ 1.105. Territorial Application of the Title: Parties’ Power to Choose Applicable Law

(a) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this title applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

(b) Where one of the following provisions of this title specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified:

- Rights of creditors against sold goods. Section 2.402.
- Applicability of the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections. Section 4.102.
- Bulk transfers subject to the chapter on Bulk Transfers. Section 6.102.
- Applicability of the chapter on Investment Securities. Section 8.106.
- Perfection provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions. Section 9.103.

§ 1.106. Remedies to be Liberally Administered

(a) The remedies provided by this title shall be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party may be put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed but neither consequential or special nor penal damages may be had except as specifically provided in this title or by other rule of law.

(b) Any right or obligation declared by this title is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect.

§ 1.107. Waiver or Renunciation of Claim or Right After Breach

Any claim or right arising out of an alleged breach can be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party.

§ 1.108. Severability

If any provision or clause of this title or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the title which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this title are declared to be severable.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 1.109. Section Captions

Section captions are parts of this title.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]
SUBCHAPTER B. GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERPRETATION

§ 1.201. General Definitions
Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent chapters of this title which are applicable to specific chapters or subchapters thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this title:

1. "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

2. "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

3. "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this title (Sections 1.205 and 2.208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this title, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (Section 1.103). (Compare "Contract").

5. "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or security payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.

6. "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

7. "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

8. "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its non-existence.

9. "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

10. "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: Non-Negotiable Bill of Lading) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous". Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

11. "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this title and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare "Agreement").

12. "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

13. "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

14. "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper or securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

15. "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

17. "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this title to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

18. "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

19. "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

20. "Holder" means a person who is in possession of a document of title or an instrument or an investment security drawn, issued or indorsed to him or to his order or to bearer or in blank.

21. To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

22. "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

23. A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.
§ 1.201 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency.

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when
   (A) he has actual knowledge of it; or
   (B) he has received a notice or notification of it; or
   (C) from all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists.

A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this title.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actual comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when
   (A) it comes to his attention; or
   (B) it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(29) "Party", as distinct from "third party", means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this title.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization (See Section 1.102).

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its non-existence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, issue or reissue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

(36) "Rights" includes remedies.

(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (Section 2.401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest." The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Chapter 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under Section 2.401 is not a "security interest", but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Chapter 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest" but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (Section 2.326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (A) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (B) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.

(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.

(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

(43) "Unauthorized" signature or indorsement means one made without actual, implied or apparent authority and includes a forgery.
(44) "Value". Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (Sections 3.303, 4.208 and 4.209) a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them

(A) in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or

(B) as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a pre-existing claim; or

(C) by accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase; or

(D) generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form.

§ 1.202. Prima Facie Evidence by Third Party Documents

A document in due form purporting to be a bill of lading, policy or certificate of insurance, official weigher's or inspector's certificate, consular invoice, or any other document authorized or required by the contract to be issued by a third party shall be prima facie evidence of its own authenticity and genuineness and of the facts stated in the document by the third party.

§ 1.203. Obligation of Good Faith

Every contract or duty within this title imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

§ 1.204. Time; Reasonable Time; "Seasonably"

(a) Whenever this title requires any action to be taken within a reasonable time, any time which is not manifestly unreasonable may be fixed by agreement.

(b) What is a reasonable time for taking any action depends on the nature, purpose and circumstances of such action.

(c) An action is taken "seasonably" when it is taken at or within the time agreed or if no time is agreed at or within a reasonable time.

§ 1.205. Course of Dealing and Usage of Trade

(a) A course of dealing is a sequence of previous conduct between the parties to a particular transaction which is fairly to be regarded as establishing a common basis of understanding for interpreting their expressions and other conduct.

(b) A usage of trade is any practice or method of dealing having such regularity of observance in a place, vocation or trade as to justify an expectation that it will be observed with respect to the transaction in question. The existence and scope of such a usage are to be proved as facts. If it is established that such a usage is embodied in a written trade code or similar writing the interpretation of the writing is for the court.

(c) A course of dealing between parties and any usage of trade in the vocation or trade in which they are engaged or of which they are or should be aware give particular meaning to and supplement or qualify terms of an agreement.

(d) The express terms of an agreement and an applicable course of dealing or usage of trade shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but when such construction is unreasonable express terms control both course of dealing and usage of trade and course of dealing controls usage of trade.

(e) An applicable usage of trade in the place where any part of performance is to occur shall be used in interpreting the agreement as to that part of the performance.

(f) Evidence of a relevant usage of trade offered by one party is not admissible unless and until he has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise to the latter.

§ 1.206. Statute of Frauds for Kinds of Personal Property Not Otherwise Covered

(a) Except in the cases described in Subsection (b) of this section a contract for the sale of personal property is not enforceable by way of action or defense beyond $5,000 in amount or value of remedy unless there is some writing which indicates that a contract for sale has been made between the parties at a defined or stated price, reasonably identifies the subject matter, and is signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by his authorized agent.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to contracts for the sale of goods (Section 2.201) nor of securities (Section 8.319) nor to security agreements (Section 9.203).

§ 1.207. Performance or Acceptance Under Reservation of Rights

A party who with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice", "under protest" or the like are sufficient.

§ 1.208. Option to Accelerate at Will

A term providing that one party or his successor in interest may accelerate payment or performance or require collateral or additional collateral "at will" or "when he deems himself insecure" or in words of similar import shall be construed to mean that he shall have power to do so only if he in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired. The burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against whom the power has been exercised.

“Draft”. Section 3.104.

(d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

(a) “Merchant” means a person who deals in goods of the kind or otherwise by his occupation holds himself out as having knowledge or skill peculiar to the practices or goods involved in the transaction or to whom such knowledge or skill may be attributed by his employment of an agent or broker or other intermediary who by his occupation holds himself out as having such knowledge or skill.

(b) “Financing agency” means a bank, finance company or other person who in the ordinary course of business makes advances against goods or documents of title or who by arrangement with either the seller or the buyer intervenes in ordinary course to make or collect payment due or claimed under the contract for sale, as by purchasing or paying the seller’s draft or making advances against it or by merely taking it for collection whether or not documents of title accompany the draft. “Financing agency” includes also a bank or other person who similarly intervenes between persons who are in the position of seller and buyer in respect to the goods (Section 2.707).

(c) “Between merchants” means in any transaction with respect to which both parties are chargeable with the knowledge or skill of merchants.

(a) “Goods” means all things (including specially manufactured goods) which are movable at the time of identification to the contract for sale other than the money in which the price is to be paid, investment securities (Chapter 8) and things in action. “Goods” also includes the unborn young of animals and growing crops and other identified things attached to reality as described in the section on goods to be severed from reality (Section 2.107).

(b) Goods must be both existing and identified before any interest in them can pass. Goods which are not both existing and identified are “future” goods. A purported present sale of future goods or of daily interest therein operates as a contract to sell.

(c) There may be a sale of a part interest in existing identified goods.

(d) An undivided share in an identified bulk of fungible goods is sufficiently identified to be sold although the quantity of the bulk is not determined. Any agreed proportion of such a bulk or any quantity thereof agreed upon by number, weight or other measure may to the extent of the seller’s interest in the bulk be sold to the buyer who then becomes an owner in common.

(e) “Lot” means a parcel or a single article which is the subject matter of a separate sale or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the contract.
§ 2.105 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(f) “Commercial unit” means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of sale and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article (as a machine) or a set of articles (as a suite of furniture or an assortment of sizes) or a quantity (as a bale, gross, or carload) or any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires “contract” and “agreement” are limited to those relating to the present or future sale of goods. “Contract for sale” includes both a present sale of goods and a contract to sell goods at a future time. A “sale” consists in the passing of title from the seller to the buyer for a price (Section 2.401). A “present sale” means a sale which is accomplished by the making of the contract.

(b) Goods or conduct including any part of a performance are “conforming” or conform to the contract when they are in accordance with the obligations under the contract.

(c) “Termination” occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the contract otherwise than for its breach. On “termination” all obligations which are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior breach or performance survives.

(d) “Cancellation” occurs when either party puts an end to the contract for breach by the other and its effect is the same as that of “termination” except that the cancelling party also retains any remedy for breach of the whole contract or any unperformed balance.

§ 2.107. Goods to be Severed From Realty: Recording

(a) A contract for the sale of minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or a structure or its materials to be removed from realty is a contract for the sale of goods within this chapter if they are to be severed from the realty before the seller has completed performance of the contract and is not capable of severance without material harm thereto but described in Subsection (a) or of timber to be cut is a contract for the sale of goods within this chapter whether the subject matter is to be severed by the buyer or by the seller even though it forms part of the Realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance.

(b) A contract for the sale of crops or other things attached to realty and capable of severance without material harm thereto but not described in Subsection (a) or of timber to be cut is a contract for the sale of goods within this chapter whether the subject matter is to be severed by the buyer or by the seller even though it forms part of the realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance.

(c) The provisions of this section are subject to any third party rights provided by the law relating to realty records, and the contract for sale may be executed and recorded as a document transferring an interest in land and shall then constitute notice to third parties of the buyer’s rights under the contract for sale.

§ 2.203. Seals Inoperative

The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a contract for sale or an offer to buy or sell goods does not constitute the writing a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to such a contract or offer.

§ 2.204. Formation in General

(a) A contract for sale of goods may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of such a contract.

(b) An agreement sufficient to constitute a contract for sale may be found even though the moment of its making is undetermined.

(c) Even though one or more terms are left open a contract for sale does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy.

§ 2.205. Firm Offers

An offer by a merchant to buy or sell goods in a signed writing which by its terms gives assurance that it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or if no time is stated for a reasonable time, but in no event may such period of irrevocability exceed three months; but any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 2.206. Offer and Acceptance in Formation of Contract

(a) Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances

(1) an offer to make a contract shall be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonable in the circumstances;

(2) an order or other offer to buy goods for prompt or current shipment shall be construed as inviting acceptance either by a prompt promise to ship or by the prompt or current shipment of conforming or non-conforming goods, but such a shipment of non-conforming goods does not constitute an acceptance if the seller reasonably notifies the buyer that the shipment is offered only as an accommodation to the buyer.

(b) Where the beginning of a requested performance is a reasonable mode of acceptance an offeror who is not notified of acceptance within a reasonable time may treat the offer as having lapsed before acceptance.

§ 2.207. Additional Terms in Acceptance or Confirmation

(a) A definite and reasonable expression of acceptance or a written confirmation which is sent within a reasonable time operates as an acceptance even though it states terms additional to or different from those offered or agreed upon, unless acceptance is expressly made conditional on assent to the additional or different terms.

(b) The additional terms are to be construed as proposals for addition to the contract. Between merchants such terms become part of the contract unless:

(1) the offer expressly limits acceptance to the terms of the offer;

(2) they materially alter it; or

(3) notification of objection to them has already been given or is given within a reasonable time after notice of them is received.

(c) Conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a contract is sufficient to establish a contract for sale although the writings of the parties do not otherwise establish a contract. In such case the terms of the particular contract consist of those terms on which the writings of the parties agree, together with any supplementary terms incorporated under any other provisions of this title.

§ 2.208. Course of Performance or Practical Construction

(a) Where the contract for sale involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in within objection shall be relevant to determine the meaning of the agreement.

(b) The express terms of the agreement and any such course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, shall be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but when such construction is unreasonable, express terms shall control course of performance and course of performance shall control both course of dealing and usage of trade (Section 1.205).

(c) Subject to the provisions of the next section on modification and waiver, such course of performance shall be relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with such course of performance.

§ 2.209. Modification, Rescission and Waiver

(a) An agreement modifying a contract within this chapter needs no consideration to be binding.

(b) A signed agreement which excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing cannot be otherwise modified or rescinded, but except as between merchants such a requirement on a form supplied by the merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

(c) The requirements of the statute of frauds section of this chapter (Section 2.201) must be satisfied if the contract as modified is within its provisions.

(d) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of Subsection (b) or (c) it can operate as a waiver.

(e) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of the contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

§ 2.210 Delegation of Performance; Assignment of Rights

(a) A party may perform his duty through a delegate unless otherwise agreed or unless the other party has a substantial interest in having his original promisor perform or control the acts required by the contract. No delegation of performance relieves the party delegating of any duty to perform or any liability for breach.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed all rights of either seller or buyer can be assigned except where the assignor would materially change the duty of the other party, or increase materially the burden or risk imposed on him by his contract, or impair materially his chance of obtaining return performance. A right to damages for breach of the whole contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of his entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.

(c) Unless the circumstances indicate the contrary a prohibition of assignment of "the contract" is to be construed as barring only the delegation to the assignee of the assignor's performance.

(d) An assignment of "the contract" or of "all my rights under the contract" or an assignment in similar general terms is an assignment of rights and unless the language or the circumstances (as in an assignment for security) indicate the contrary, it is a delegation of performance of the duties of the assignor and its acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by him to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the original contract.

(e) The other party may treat any assignment which delegates performance as creating reasonable grounds for insecurity and may without prejudice to his rights against the assignor demand assurances from the assignee (Section 2.609).

SUBCHAPTER C. GENERAL OBLIGATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF CONTRACT

§ 2.301 General Obligations of Parties

The obligation of the seller is to transfer and deliver and that of the buyer is to accept and pay in accordance with the contract.

§ 2.302 Unconscionable Contract or Clause

(a) If the court as a matter of law finds the contract or any clause of the contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made the court may refuse to enforce the contract, or it may enforce the remainder of the contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.

(b) When it is claimed or appears to the court that the contract or any clause thereof may be unconscionable the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to its commercial setting, purpose and effect to aid the court in making the determination.

§ 2.303 Allocation or Division of Risks

Where this chapter allocates a risk or a burden as between the parties “unless otherwise agreed”, the agreement may not only shift the allocation but may also divide the risk or burden.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.1]

§ 2.304 Price Payable in Money, Goods, Realty, or Otherwise

(a) The price can be made payable in money or otherwise. If it is payable in whole or in part in goods each party is a seller of the goods which he is to transfer.

(b) Even though all or part of the price is payable in an interest in realty the transfer of the goods and the seller's obligations with reference to them are subject to this chapter, but not the transfer of the interest in realty or the transferor's obligations in connection therewith.

§ 2.305 Open Price Term

(a) The parties if they so intend can conclude a contract for sale even though the price is not settled. In such a case the price is a reasonable price at the time for delivery if

1. nothing is said as to price; or
2. the price is left to be agreed by the parties and they fail to agree; or
3. the price is to be fixed in terms of some agreed market or other standard as set or recorded by a third person or agency and it is not so set or recorded.

(b) A price to be fixed by the seller or by the buyer means a price for him to fix in good faith.

c) When a price left to be fixed otherwise than by agreement of the parties fails to be fixed through fault of one party the other may at his option treat the contract as cancelled or himself fix a reasonable price.

(d) Where, however, the parties intend not to be bound unless the price be fixed or agreed and it is not fixed or agreed there is no contract. In such a case the buyer must return any goods already received or if unable so to do must pay their reasonable value at the time of delivery and the seller must return any portion of the price paid on account.

§ 2.306 Output, Requirements and Exclusive Dealings

(a) A term which measures the quantity by the output of the seller or the requirements of the buyer means such actual output or requirements as may occur in good faith, except that no quantity unreasonably disproportionate to any stated estimate or in the absence of a stated estimate to any normal or otherwise comparable prior output or requirements may be tendered or demanded.

(b) A lawful agreement by either the seller or the buyer for exclusive dealing in the kind of goods concerned imposes unless otherwise agreed an obligation by the seller to use best efforts to supply the goods and by the buyer to use best efforts to promote their sale.

§ 2.307. Delivery in Single Lot or Several Lots

Unless otherwise agreed all goods called for by a contract for sale must be tendered in a single delivery and payment is due only on such tender but where the circumstances give either party the right to make or demand delivery in lots the price if it can be apportioned may be demanded for each lot.

§ 2.308. Absence of Specified Place for Delivery

Unless otherwise agreed

(1) the place for delivery of goods is the seller's place of business or if he has none his residence; but

(2) in a contract for sale of identified goods which to the knowledge of the parties at the time of contracting are in some other place, that place is the place for their delivery; and

(3) documents of title may be delivered through customary banking channels.

§ 2.309. Absence of Specific Time Provisions; Notice of Termination

(a) The time for shipment or delivery or any other action under a contract if not provided in this chapter or agreed upon shall be a reasonable time.

(b) Where the contract provides for successive performances but is indefinite in duration it is valid for a reasonable time but unless otherwise agreed may be terminated at any time by either party.

(c) Termination of a contract by one party except on the happening of an agreed event requires that reasonable notification be received by the other party. Any such specification must be made in good faith and within limits set by commercial reasonableness.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed specifications relating to assortment of the goods are at the buyer's option and except as otherwise provided in Subsections (a)(3) and (c) of Section 2.319 specifications or arrangements relating to shipment are at the seller's option.

(c) Where such specification would materially affect the other party's performance but is not seasonably made or where one party's cooperation is necessary to the agreed performance of the other but is not seasonably forthcoming, the other party in addition to all other remedies

(1) is excused for any resulting delay in his own performance; and

(2) may also either proceed to perform in any reasonable manner or after the time for a material part of his own performance treat the failure to specify or to cooperate as a breach by the noncooperating party.

§ 2.310. Open Time for Payment or Running of Credit; Authority to Ship Under Reservation

Unless otherwise agreed

(1) payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the goods even though the place of shipment is the place of delivery; and

(2) if the seller is authorized to send the goods he may ship them under reservation, and may tender the documents of title, but the buyer may inspect the goods after their arrival before payment is due unless such inspection is inconsistent with the terms of the contract (Section 2.513); and

(3) if delivery is authorized and made by way of documents of title otherwise than by Subdivision (2) then payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the documents regardless of where the goods are to be received; and

(4) where the seller is required or authorized to ship the goods on credit the credit period runs from the time of shipment but post-dating the invoice or delaying its dispatch will correspondingly delay the starting of the credit period.

§ 2.311. Options and Cooperation Respecting Performance

(a) An agreement for sale which is otherwise sufficiently definite (Subsection (c) of Section 2.204) to be a contract is not made invalid by the fact that it leaves particular performance to be specified by one of the parties. Any such specification must be made in good faith and within limits set by commercial reasonableness.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed specifications relating to assortment of the goods are at the buyer's option and except as otherwise provided in Subsections (a)(3) and (c) of Section 2.319 specifications or arrangements relating to shipment are at the seller's option.

(c) Where such specification would materially affect the other party's performance but is not seasonably made or where one party's cooperation is necessary to the agreed performance of the other but is not seasonably forthcoming, the other party in addition to all other remedies

(1) is excused for any resulting delay in his own performance; and

(2) may also proceed to perform in any reasonable manner or after the time for a material part of his own performance treat the failure to specify or to cooperate as a breach by the noncooperating party.

§ 2.312. Warranty of Title and Against Infringement; Buyer's Obligation Against Infringement

(a) Subject to Subsection (b) there is in a contract for sale a warranty by the seller that

(1) the title conveyed shall be good, and its transfer rightful; and

(2) the goods shall be delivered free from any security interest or other lien or encumbrance of which the buyer at the time of contracting has no knowledge.

(b) A warranty under Subsection (a) will be excluded or modified only by specific language or by circumstances which give the buyer reason to know that the person selling does not claim title in himself or that he is purporting to sell only such right or title as he or a third person may have.

(c) Where such specification would materially affect the other party's performance but is not seasonably made or where one party's cooperation is necessary to the agreed performance of the other but is not seasonably forthcoming, the other party in addition to all other remedies

(1) is excused for any resulting delay in his own performance; and

(2) may also proceed to perform in any reasonable manner or after the time for a material part of his own performance treat the failure to specify or to cooperate as a breach by the noncooperating party.

§ 2.313. Express Warranties by Affirmation, Promise, Description, Sample

(a) Express warranties by the seller are created as follows:

(1) Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the seller to the buyer which relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the affirmation or promise.
§ 2.313  BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) Any description of the goods which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the description.

(3) Any sample or model which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods shall conform to the sample or model.

(b) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the seller use formal words such as "warranty" or "guarantee" or that he have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the seller's opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

§ 2.314. Implied Warranty: Merchantability; Us­age of Trade

(a) Unless excluded or modified (Section 2.316), a warranty that the goods shall be merchantable is implied in a contract for their sale if the seller is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind. Under this section the serving for value of food or drink to be consumed either on the premises or elsewhere is a sale.

(b) Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as

(1) pass without objection in the trade under the contract description; and

(2) in the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description; and

(3) are fit for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used; and

(4) run, within the variations permitted by the agreement, of even kind, quality and quantity within each unit and among all units involved; and

(5) are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the agreement may require; and

(6) conform to the promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label if any.

(c) Unless excluded or modified (Section 2.316) other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.

§ 2.315. Implied Warranty: Fitness for Particular Purpose

Where the seller at the time of contracting has reason to know any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the buyer is relying on the seller's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is unless excluded or modified under the next section an implied warranty that the goods shall be fit for such purpose.

§ 2.316. Exclusion or Modification of Warranties

(a) Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit warranty shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but subject to the provisions of this chapter on parol or extrinsic evidence (Section 2.202) negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that such construction is unreasonable.

(b) Subject to Subsection (c), to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it the language must mention merchantability and in case of a writing must be conspicuous, and to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness the exclusion must be by a writing and conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it states, for example, that "There are no warranties which extend beyond the description on the face hereof."

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (b)

(1) unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions like "as is", "with all faults" or other language which in common understanding calls the buyer's attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty; and

(2) when the buyer before entering into the contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as he desired or has refused to examine the goods there is no implied warranty with regard to defects which an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed to him; and

(3) an implied warranty can also be excluded or modified by course of dealing or course of performance or usage of trade.

(d) Remedies for breach of warranty can be limited in accordance with the provisions of this chapter on liquidation or limitation of damages and on contractual modification of remedy (Sections 2.718 and 2.719).

(e) The implied warranties of merchantability and fitness shall not be applicable to the furnishing of human blood, blood plasma, or other human tissue or organs from a blood bank or reservoir of such other tissues or organs. Such blood, blood plasma or tissue or organs shall not for the purpose of this Title be considered commodities subject to sale or barter, but shall be considered as medical services.

§ 2.317. Cumulation and Conflict of Warranties

Warranties whether express or implied shall be construed as consistent with each other and as cumulative, but if such construction is unreasonable the intention of the parties shall determine which warranty is dominant. In ascertaining that intention the following rules apply:

(1) Exact or technical specifications displace an inconsistent sample or model or general language of description.

(2) A sample from an existing bulk displaces inconsistent general language of description.

(3) Express warranties displace inconsistent implied warranties other than an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

§ 2.318. Chapter Neutral on Question of Third Party Beneficiaries of Warranties

This chapter does not provide whether anyone other than a buyer may take advantage of an express or implied warranty of quality made to the buyer or whether the buyer or anyone entitled to take advantage of a warranty made to the buyer may sue a third party other than the immediate seller for deficiencies in the quality of the goods. These matters are left to the courts for their determination.

§ 2.319. F.O.B. and F.A.S. Terms

(a) Unless otherwise agreed the term F.O.B. (which means “free on board”) at a named place, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which

(1) when the term is F.O.B. the place of shipment, the seller must at that place ship the goods in the manner provided in this chapter (Section 2.504) and bear the expense and risk of putting them into the possession of the carrier; or

(2) when the term is F.O.B. the place of destination, the seller must at his own expense and risk transport the goods to that place and there tender delivery of them in the manner provided in this chapter (Section 2.503);

(3) when under either Subdivision (1) or (2) the term is also F.O.B. vessel, car or other vehicle, the seller must in addition at his own expense and risk load the goods on board. If the term is F.O.B. vessel the buyer must name the vessel and in an appropriate case the seller must comply with the provisions of this chapter on the form of bill of lading (Section 2.523).

(b) Unless otherwise agreed the term F.A.S. vessel (which means “free alongside”) at a named port, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which the seller must

(1) at his own expense and risk deliver the goods alongside the vessel in the manner usual in that port or on a dock designated and provided, by the buyer; and

(2) obtain and tender a receipt for the goods in exchange for which the carrier is under a duty to issue a bill of lading.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed in any case falling within Subsection (a)(1) or (3) or Subsection (b) the buyer must reasonably give any needed instructions for making delivery, including when the term is F.A.S. or F.O.B. the loading berth of the vessel and in an appropriate case its name and sailing date. The seller may treat the failure of needed instructions as a failure of cooperation under this chapter (Section 2.311). He may also at his option move the goods in any reasonable manner preparatory to delivery or shipment.

(d) Under the term F.O.B. vessel or F.A.S. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents.

Under a contract containing a term C.I.F. or C. & F.

(a) Where the price is based on or is to be adjusted according to “net landed weights”, “delivered weights”, “out turn” quantity or quality or the like, unless otherwise agreed the seller must reasonably estimate the price. The payment due on tender of the documents called for by the contract is the amount so estimated, but after final adjustment of the price a settlement must be made with commercial promptness.

(b) An agreement described in Subsection (a) or any warranty of quality or condition of the goods on arrival places upon the seller the risk of ordinary deterioration, shrinkage and the like in transportation but has no effect on the place or time of identification to the contract for sale or delivery or on the passing of the risk of loss.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed where the contract provides for payment on or after arrival of the goods the seller must before payment allow such preliminary inspection as is feasible; but if the goods are lost delivery of the documents and payment are due when the goods should have arrived.

§ 2.322. Delivery "Ex-Ship"
(a) Unless otherwise agreed a term for delivery of goods "ex-ship" (which means from the carrying vessel) or in equivalent language is not restricted to a particular ship and requires delivery from a ship which has reached a place at the named port of destination where goods of the kind are usually discharged.
(b) Under such a term unless otherwise agreed
(1) the seller must discharge all liens arising out of the carriage and furnish the buyer with a direction which puts the carrier under a duty to deliver the goods; and
(2) the risk of loss does not pass to the buyer until the goods leave the ship's tackle or are otherwise properly unloaded.

§ 2.323. Form of Bill of Lading Required in Overseas Shipment; "Overseas"
(a) Where the contract contemplates overseas shipment and contains a term C.I.F. or C. & F. or F.O.B. vessel, the seller unless otherwise agreed must obtain a negotiable bill of lading stating that the goods have been loaded on board or, in the case of a term C.I.F. or C. & F., received for shipment.
(b) Where in a case within Subsection (a) a bill of lading has been issued in a set of parts, unless otherwise agreed if the documents are not to be sent from abroad the buyer may demand tender of the full set; otherwise only one part of the bill of lading need be tendered. Even if the agreement expressly requires a full set
(1) due tender of a single part is acceptable within the provisions of this chapter on care of improper delivery (Subsection (a) of Section 2.508); and
(2) even though the full set is demanded, if the documents are sent from abroad the person tendering an incomplete set may nevertheless require payment upon furnishing an indemnity which the buyer in good faith deems adequate.
(c) A shipment by water or by air or a contract contemplating such shipment is "overseas" insofar as by usage of trade or agreement it is subject to the commercial, financing or shipping practices characteristic of international deep water commerce.

§ 2.324. "No Arrival, No Sale" Term
Under a term "no arrival, no sale" or terms of like meaning, unless otherwise agreed,
(1) the seller must properly ship conforming goods and if they arrive by any means he must tender them on arrival but he assumes no obligation that the goods will arrive unless he has caused the non-arrival; and
(2) where without fault of the seller the goods are in part lost or have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract or arrive after the contract time, the buyer may proceed as if there had been casualty to identified goods (Section 2.615).

§ 2.325. "Letter of Credit" Term; "Confirmed Credit"
(a) Failure of the buyer seasonably to furnish an agreed letter of credit is a breach of the contract for sale.
(b) The delivery to seller of a proper letter of credit suspends the buyer’s obligation to pay. If the letter of credit is dishonored, the seller may on reasonable notification to the buyer require payment directly from him.
(c) Unless otherwise agreed the term “letter of credit” or “banker’s credit” in a contract for sale means an irrevocable credit issued by a financing agency of good repute and, where the shipment is overseas, of good international repute. The term “confirmed credit” means that the credit must also carry the direct obligation of such an agency which does business in the seller’s financial market.

§ 2.326. Sale on Approval and Sale or Return; Consignment Sales and Rights of Creditors
(a) Unless otherwise agreed, if delivered goods may be returned by the buyer even though they conform to the contract, the transaction is
(1) a “sale on approval” if the goods are delivered primarily for use, and
(2) a “sale or return” if the goods are delivered primarily for resale.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (c), goods held on approval are not subject to the claims of the buyer’s creditors until acceptance; goods held on sale or return are subject to such claims while in the buyer’s possession.
(c) Where goods are delivered to a person for sale and such person maintains a place of business at which he deals in goods of the kind involved, under a name other than the name of the person making delivery, then with respect to claims of creditors of the person conducting the business the goods are deemed to be on sale or return. The provisions of this subsection are applicable even though an agreement purports to reserve title to the person making delivery until payment or resale or uses such words as “on consignment” or “on memorandum”. However, this subsection is not applicable if the person making delivery
(1) complies with an applicable law providing for a consignor’s interest or the like to be evidenced by a sign, or
(2) establishes that the person conducting the business is generally known by his creditors to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others, or
(3) complies with the filing provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9).
(d) Any “or return” term of a contract for sale is to be treated as a separate contract for sale within the statute of frauds section of this chapter (Section 2.201) and as contradicting the sale aspect of the contract within the provisions of this chapter on parol or extrinsic evidence (Section 2.202).
§ 2.327. Special Incidents of Sale on Approval and Sale or Return

(a) Under a sale on approval unless otherwise agreed

(1) although the goods are identified to the contract the risk of loss and the title do not pass to the buyer until acceptance; and

(2) use of the goods consistent with the purpose of trial is not acceptance but failure seasonably to notify the seller of election to return the goods is acceptance, and if the goods conform to the contract acceptance of any part is acceptance of the whole; and

(3) after due notification of election to return, the return is at the seller's risk and expense but a merchant buyer must follow any reasonable instructions.

(b) Under a sale or return unless otherwise agreed

(1) the option to return extends to the whole or any commercial unit of the goods while in substantially their original condition, but must be exercised seasonably; and

(2) the return is at the buyer's risk and expense.

§ 2.328. Sale by Auction

(a) In a sale by auction if goods are put up in lots each lot is the subject of a separate sale.

(b) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so announces by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner. Where a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid the auctioneer may in his discretion reopen the bidding or declare the goods sold under the bid on which the hammer was falling.

(c) Such a sale is with reserve unless the goods are in explicit terms put up without reserve. In an auction with reserve the auctioneer may withdraw the goods at any time until he announces completion of the sale. In an auction without reserve, after the auctioneer calls for bids on an article or lot, that article or lot cannot be withdrawn unless no bid is made within a reasonable time. In either case a bidder may retract his bid until the auctioneer's announcement of completion of the sale, but a bidder's retraction does not revive any previous bid.

(d) If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's behalf or the seller makes or procures such a bid, and notice has not been given that liberty for such bidding is reserved, the buyer may at his option avoid the sale or take the goods at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the completion of the sale. This subsection shall not apply to any bid at a forced sale.

SUBCHAPTER D. TITLE, CREDITORS AND GOOD FAITH PURCHASERS

§ 2.402. Rights of Seller's Creditors Against Sold Goods

(a) Except as provided in Subsections (b) and (c), rights of unsecured creditors of the seller with respect to goods which have been identified to a contract for sale are subject to the buyer's rights to recover the goods under this chapter (Section 2.502 and 2.716).

(b) A creditor of the seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to a contract for sale as void if as against him a retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated, except that retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by a merchant-seller for a commercially reasonable time after a sale or identification is not fraudulent.

(c) Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to impair the rights of creditors of the seller provision refers to such title. Insofar as situations are not covered by the other provisions of this chapter and matters concerning title become material the following rules apply:

(a) Title to goods cannot pass under a contract for sale prior to their identification to the contract (Section 2.501), and unless otherwise explicitly agreed the buyer acquires by their identification a special property as limited by this title. Any retention or reservation by the seller of the title (property) in goods shipped or delivered to the buyer is limited in effect to a reservation of a security interest. Subject to these provisions and to the provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9), title to goods passes from the seller to the buyer in any manner and on any conditions explicitly agreed on by the parties.

(b) Unless otherwise explicitly agreed title passes to the buyer at the time and place at which the seller completes his performance with reference to the physical delivery of the goods, despite any reservation of a security interest and even though a document of title is to be delivered at a different time or place; and in particular and despite any reservation of a security interest by the bill of lading

(1) if the contract requires or authorizes the seller to send the goods to the buyer but does not require him to deliver them at destination, title passes to the buyer at the time and place of shipment; but

(2) if the contract requires delivery at destination, title passes on tender there.

(c) Unless otherwise explicitly agreed where delivery is to be made without moving the goods,

(1) if the seller is to deliver a document of title, title passes at the time when and the place where he delivers such documents; or

(2) if the goods are at the time of contracting already identified and no documents are to be delivered, title passes at the time and place of contracting.

(d) A rejection or other refusal by the buyer to receive or retain the goods, whether or not justified, or a justified revocation of acceptance revests title to the goods in the seller. Such revesting occurs by operation of law and is not a "sale".

§ 2.402. Rights of Seller's Creditors Against Sold Goods
§ 2.402 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(1) under the provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9); or

(2) where identification to the contract or delivery is made not in current course of trade but in satisfaction of or as security for a pre-existing claim for money, security or the like and is made under circumstances which under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated would apart from this chapter constitute the transaction a fraudulent transfer or voidable preference.

§ 2.403. Power to Transfer; Good Faith Purchase of Goods; "Entrusting"

(a) A purchaser of goods acquires all title which his transferor had or had power to transfer except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person with voidable title has power to transfer a good faith purchaser for value. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the purchaser has such power even though

(1) the transferor was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser, or

(2) the delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored, or

(3) it was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale", or

(4) the delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

(b) Any entrusting of possession of goods to a merchant who deals in goods of that kind gives him power to transfer all rights of the entrustor to a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(c) "Entrusting" includes any delivery and any acquiescence in retention of possession regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the delivery or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor's disposition of the goods have been such as to be larcenous under the criminal law.

(d) The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the chapters on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9), Bulk Transfers (Chapter 6) and Documents of Title (Chapter 7).

SUBCHAPTER E. PERFORMANCE

§ 2.501. Insurable Interest in Goods; Manner of Identification of Goods

(a) The buyer obtains a special property and an insurable interest in goods by identification of existing goods as goods to which the contract refers even though the goods so identified are non-conforming and he has an option to return or reject them. Such identification can be made at any time and in any manner explicitly agreed to by the parties. In the absence of explicit agreement identification occurs

(1) when the contract is made if it is for the sale of goods already existing and identified;

(2) if the contract is for the sale of future goods other than those described in Subdivision (3), when goods are shipped, marked or otherwise designated by the seller as goods to which the contract refers;

(3) when the crops are planted or otherwise become growing crops or the young are conceived if the contract is for the sale of unborn young to be born within twelve months after contracting or for the sale of crops to be harvested within twelve months or the next normal harvest season after contracting whichever is longer.

(b) The seller retains an insurable interest in goods so long as title to or any security interest in the goods remains in him and where the identification is by the seller alone he may until default or insolvency or notification to the buyer that the identification is final substitute other goods for those identified.

(c) Nothing in this section impairs any insurable interest recognized under any other statute or rule of law.

§ 2.502. Buyer's Right to Goods on Seller's Insolvency

(a) Subject to Subsection (b) and even though the goods have not been shipped a buyer who has paid a part or all of the price of goods in which he has a special property under the provisions of the immediately preceding section may on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of their price recover them from the seller if the seller becomes insolvent within ten days after receipt of the first installment on their price.

(b) If the identification creating his special property has been made by the buyer he acquires the right to recover the goods only if they conform to the contract for sale.

§ 2.503. Manner of Seller's Tender of Delivery

(a) Tender of delivery requires that the seller put and hold conforming goods at the buyer's disposition and give the buyer any notification reasonably necessary to enable him to take delivery. The manner, time and place for tender are determined by the agreement and this chapter, and in particular

(1) tender must be at a reasonable hour, and if it is of goods they must be kept available for the period reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take possession; but

(2) unless otherwise agreed the buyer must furnish facilities reasonably suited to the receipt of the goods.

(b) Where the case is within the next section respecting shipment tender requires that the seller comply with its provisions.

(c) Where the seller is required to deliver at a particular destination tender requires that he comply with Subsection (a) and also in any appropriate case tender documents as described in Subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Where goods are in the possession of a bailee and are to be delivered without being moved

(1) tender requires that the seller either deliver a negotiable document of title covering such goods or procure acknowledgement by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; but
§ 2.504. Shipment by Seller
Where the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer and the contract does not require him to deliver them at a particular destination, then unless otherwise agreed he must (1) put the goods in the possession of such a carrier and make such a contract for their transportation as may be reasonable having regard to the nature of the goods and other circumstances of the case; and (2) obtain and promptly deliver or tender in due form any document necessary to enable the buyer to obtain possession of the goods or otherwise required by the agreement or by usage of trade; and (3) promptly notify the buyer of the shipment. Failure to notify the buyer under Subdivision (3) or to make a proper contract under Subdivision (1) is a ground for rejection only if material delay or loss ensues.

§ 2.505. Seller’s Shipment Under Reservation
(a) Where the seller has identified goods to the contract by or before shipment:
(1) his procurement of a negotiable bill of lading to his own order or otherwise reserves in him a security interest in the goods. His procurement of the bill to the order of a financing agency or of the buyer indicates in addition only the seller’s expectation of transferring that interest to the person named.
(2) a non-negotiable bill of lading to himself or his nominee reserves possession of the goods as security but except in a case of conditional delivery (Subsection (b) of Section 2.507) a non-negotiable bill of lading naming the buyer as consignee reserves no security interest even though the seller retains possession of the bill of lading.
(b) When shipment by the seller with reservation of a security interest is in violation of the contract for sale it constitutes an improper contract for transportation within the preceding section but impairs neither the rights given to the buyer by shipment and identification of the goods to the contract nor the seller’s powers as a holder of a negotiable document.

§ 2.506. Rights of Financing Agency
(a) A financing agency by paying or purchasing for value a draft which relates to a shipment of goods acquires to the extent of the payment or purchase and in addition to its own rights under the draft and any document of title securing it any rights of the shipper in the goods including the right to stop delivery and the shipper’s right to have the draft honored by the buyer.
(b) The right to reimbursement of a financing agency which has in good faith honored or purchased the draft under commitment to or authority from the buyer is not impaired by subsequent discovery of defects with reference to any relevant document which was apparently regular on its face.

§ 2.507. Effect of Seller’s Tender; Delivery on Condition
(a) Tender of delivery is a condition to the buyer’s duty to accept the goods and, unless otherwise agreed, to his duty to pay for them. Tender entitles the seller to acceptance of the goods and to payment according to the contract.
(b) Where payment is due and demanded on the delivery to the buyer of goods or documents of title, his right as against the seller to retain or dispose of them is conditional upon his making the payment due.

§ 2.508. Cure by Seller of Improper Tender or Delivery; Replacement
(a) Where any tender or delivery by the seller is rejected because non-conforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the seller may seasonably notify the buyer of his intention to cure and may then within the contract time make a conforming delivery.
(b) Where the buyer rejects a non-conforming tender which the seller had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance the seller may if he seasonably notifies the buyer have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender.

§ 2.509. Risk of Loss in the Absence of Breach
(a) Where the contract requires or authorizes the seller to ship the goods by carrier
(1) if it does not require him to deliver them at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier even though the shipment is under reservation (Section 2.505); but
(2) if it does require him to deliver them at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the buyer to take delivery.

(b) Where the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the buyer:

(1) on his receipt of a negotiable document of title covering the goods; or

(2) on acknowledgement by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; or

(3) after his receipt of a non-negotiable document of title or other written direction to deliver, as provided in Subsection (d)(2) of Section 2.503.

(c) In any case not within Subsection (a) or (b), the risk of loss passes to the buyer on his receipt of the goods if the seller is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the buyer on tender of delivery.

(d) The provisions of this section are subject to contrary agreement of the parties and to the provisions of this chapter on sale on approval (Section 2.510) and on effect of breach on risk of loss (Section 2.510).

§ 2.510. Effect of Breach on Risk of Loss

(a) Where a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the contract as to give a right of rejection the risk of their loss remains on the seller until cure or acceptance.

(b) Where the buyer rightfully revokes acceptance he may to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as having rested on the seller from the beginning.

(c) Where the buyer as to conforming goods already identified to the contract for sale repudiates or is otherwise in breach before risk of their loss has passed to him, the seller may to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as resting on the buyer for a commercially reasonable time.

§ 2.511. Tender of Payment by Buyer; Payment by Check

(a) Unless otherwise agreed tender of payment is a condition to the seller's duty to tender and complete any delivery.

(b) Tender of payment is sufficient when made by any means or in any manner current in the ordinary course of business unless the seller demands payment in legal tender and gives any extension of time reasonably necessary to procure it.

(c) Subject to the provisions of this title on the effect of an instrument on an obligation (Section 2.509), payment by check is conditional and is defeated as between the parties by dishonor of the check on due presentment.

§ 2.512. Payment by Buyer Before Inspection

(a) Where the contract requires payment before inspection non-conformity of the goods does not excuse the buyer from so making payment unless

(1) the non-conformity appears without inspection; or

(2) despite tender of the required documents circumstances would justify injunction against honor under the provisions of this title (Section 5.114).

(b) Payment pursuant to Subsection (a) does not constitute an acceptance of goods or impair the buyer's right to inspect or any of his remedies.

§ 2.513. Buyer's Right to Inspection of Goods

(a) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to Subsection (c), where goods are tendered or delivered or identified to the contract for sale, the buyer has a right before payment or acceptance to inspect them at any reasonable place and time and in any reasonable manner. When the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer, the inspection may be after their arrival.

(b) Expenses of inspection must be borne by the buyer but may be recovered from the seller if the goods do not conform and are rejected.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to the provisions of this chapter on C.I.F. contracts (Subsection (c) of Section 2.321), the buyer is not entitled to inspect the goods before payment of the price when the contract provides

(1) for delivery "C.O.D." or on other like terms; or

(2) for payment against documents of title, except where such payment is due only after the goods are to become available for inspection.

(d) A place or method of inspection fixed by the parties is presumed to be exclusive but unless otherwise expressly agreed it does not postpone identification or shift the place for delivery or for passing the risk of loss. If compliance becomes impossible, inspection shall as provided in this section unless the place or method fixed was clearly intended as an indispensable condition failure of which avoids the contract.

§ 2.514. When Documents Deliverable on Acceptance; When on Payment

Unless otherwise agreed documents against which a draft is drawn are to be delivered to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment.

§ 2.515. Preserving Evidence of Goods in Dispute

In furtherance of the adjustment of any claim or dispute

(1) either party on reasonable notification to the other and for the purpose of ascertaining the facts and preserving evidence has the right to inspect, test and sample the goods including such of them as may be in the possession or control of the other; and

(2) the parties may agree to a third party inspection or survey to determine the conformity or condition of the goods and may agree that the findings shall be binding upon them in any subsequent litigation or adjustment.

§ 2.601. Buyer's Rights on Improper Delivery
Subject to the provisions of this chapter on breach in installment contracts (Section 2.612) and unless otherwise agreed under the sections on contractual limitations of remedy (Sections 2.718 and 2.719), if the goods or the tender of delivery fail in any respect to conform to the contract, the buyer may (1) reject the whole; or (2) accept the whole; or (3) accept any commercial unit or units and reject the rest.

§ 2.602. Manner and Effect of Rightful Rejection
(a) Rejection of goods must be within a reasonable time after their delivery or tender. If the buyer seasonably notifies the seller, (b) Subject to the provisions of the two following sections on rejected goods (Sections 2.603 and 2.604), (1) after rejection any exercise of ownership by the buyer with respect to any commercial unit is wrongful as against the seller; and (2) if the buyer has before rejection taken physical possession of goods in which he does not have a security interest under the provisions of this chapter (Subsection (c) of Section 2.711), he is under a duty after rejection to hold them with reasonable care at the seller's disposition for a time sufficient to permit the seller to remove them; but (3) the buyer has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.
(c) The seller's rights with respect to goods wrongfully rejected are governed by the provisions of this chapter on Seller's remedies in general (Section 2.703).

§ 2.603. Merchant Buyer's Duties as to Rightfully Rejected Goods
(a) Subject to any security interest in the buyer (Subsection (c) of Section 2.711), when the seller has no agent or place of business at the market of rejection a merchant buyer is under a duty after rejection a particular defect which is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes him from relying on the unstated defect to justify rejection or to establish breach (1) where the seller could have cured it if stated seasonably; or (2) between merchants when the seller has after rejection made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the buyer proposes to rely.
(b) Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance or reshipment to the seller for the seller's account or reship them to him; or (3) does any act inconsistent with the seller's ownership; but if such act is wrongful as against the seller it is an acceptance only if ratified by him.

§ 2.604. Buyer's Options as to Salvage of Rightfully Rejected Goods
Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceding section on perishables if the seller gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection the buyer may store the rejected goods for the seller's account or reship them to him or resell them for the seller's account with reimbursement as provided in the preceding section. Such action is not acceptance or conversion.

§ 2.605. Waiver of Buyer's Objections by Failure to Particularize
(a) The buyer's failure to state in connection with rejection a particular defect which is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes him from relying on the unstated defect to justify rejection or to establish breach (1) where the seller could have cured it if stated seasonably; or (2) between merchants when the seller has after rejection made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the buyer proposes to rely.
(b) Payment against documents made without reservation of rights precludes recovery of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents.

§ 2.606. What Constitutes Acceptance of Goods
(a) Acceptance of goods occurs when the buyer (1) after a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods signifies to the seller that the goods are conforming or that he will take or retain them in spite of their non-conformity; or (2) fails to make an effective rejection (Subsection (a) of Section 2.602), but such acceptance does not occur until the buyer has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect them; or (3) does any act inconsistent with the seller's ownership; but if such act is wrongful as against the seller it is an acceptance only if ratified by him.
(b) Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit.

§ 2.607. Effect of Acceptance; Notice of Breach; Burden of Establishing Breach After Acceptance; Notice of Claim or Litigation to Person Answerable Over
(a) The buyer must pay at the contract rate for any goods accepted.
(b) Acceptance of goods by the buyer precludes rejection of the goods accepted and if made with knowledge of a non-conformity cannot be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the non-conformity would be seasonably cured but acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by this chapter for non-conformity.
(c) Where a tender has been accepted (1) the buyer must within a reasonable time after he discovers or should have discovered any breach notify the seller of breach or be barred from any remedy; and
§ 2.607 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) if the claim is one for infringement or the like (Subsection (e) of Section 2.312) and the buyer is sued as a result of such a breach he must so notify the seller within a reasonable time after he receives notice of the litigation or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation.

(d) The burden is on the buyer to establish any breach with respect to the goods accepted.

(e) Where the buyer is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which his seller is answerable over

(1) he may give his seller written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the seller may come in and defend and that if the seller does not so he will be bound in any action against him by his buyer by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the seller after seasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend he is so bound.

(2) if the claim is one for infringement or the like (Subsection (c) of Section 2.312) the original seller may demand in writing that his buyer turn over to him control of the litigation including settlement or else be barred from any remedy over and if he also agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the buyer after seasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control the buyer is so barred.

(f) The provisions of Subsections (c), (d) and (e) apply to any obligation of a buyer to hold the seller harmless against infringement or the like (Subsection (c) of Section 2.312).

§ 2.608. Revocation of Acceptance in Whole or in Part

(a) The buyer may revoke his acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose non-conformity substantially impairs its value to him if he has accepted it

(1) on the reasonable assumption that its non-conformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured; or

(2) without discovery of such non-conformity if its acceptance was reasonably induced either by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance or by the seller's assurances.

(b) Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by their own defects. It is not effective until the buyer notifies the seller of it.

(c) A buyer who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if he had rejected them.

§ 2.609. Right to Adequate Assurance of Performance

(a) A contract for sale imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired. When reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performances of either party the other may in writing demand adequate assurance of due performance and until he receives such assurance may if commercially reasonable suspend any performance for which he has not already received the agreed return.

(b) Between merchants the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered shall be determined according to commercial standards.

(c) Acceptance of any improper delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.

(d) After receipt of a justified demand failure to provide within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days such assurance of due performance as is adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is a repudiation of the contract.

§ 2.610. Anticipatory Repudiation

When either party repudiates the contract with respect to a performance not yet due the loss of which will substantially impair the value of the contract to the other, the aggrieved party may

(1) for a commercially reasonable time await performance by the repudiating party;

(2) resort to any remedy for breach (Section 2.703 or Section 2.711), even though he has notified the repudiating party that he would await the latter's performance and has urged retraction; and

(3) in either case suspend his own performance or proceed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter on the seller's right to identify goods to the contract notwithstanding breach or to salvage unfinished goods (Section 2.704).

§ 2.611. Retraction of Anticipatory Repudiation

(a) Until the repudiating party's next performance is due he can retract his repudiation unless the aggrieved party has since the repudiation cancelled or materially changed his position or otherwise indicated that he considers the repudiation final.

(b) Retraction may be by any method which clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform, but must include any assurance justifiably demanded under the provisions of this chapter (Section 2.609).

(c) Retraction reinstates the repudiating party's rights under the contract with due excuse and allowance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation.

§ 2.612. "Installment Contract"; Breach

(a) An "installment contract" is one which requires or authorizes the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate contract" or its equivalent.

(b) The buyer may reject any installment which is non-conforming if the non-conformity substantially impairs the value of that installment and cannot be cured or if the non-conformity is a defect in the required documents; but if the non-conformity does not fall within Subsection (e) and the seller gives adequate assurance of its cure the buyer must accept that installment.

(c) Whenever non-conformity or default with respect to one or more installments substantially impairs the value of the whole contract there is a breach of the whole. But the aggrieved party reinstates the contract if he accepts a non-conforming installment without seasonably notifying of cancellation or if he brings an action with respect only to past installments or demands performance as to future installments.

§ 2.613. Casualty to Identified Goods

Where the contract requires for its performance goods identified when the contract is made, and the goods suffer casualty without fault of either party before the risk of loss passes to the buyer, or in a proper case under a "no arrival, no sale" term (Section 2.324) then

(1) if the loss is total the contract is avoided; and

(2) if the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract the buyer may nevertheless demand inspection and at his option either treat the contract as avoided or accept the goods with due allowance from the contract price for the deterioration of the deficiency in quantity but without further right against the seller.

§ 2.614. Substituted Performance

(a) Where without fault of either party the agreed means of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation, the seller may withhold or stop delivery unless the buyer provides a means or manner of payment which is commercially a substantial equivalent. If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the buyer’s obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive or predatory.

(b) If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation, the seller may withhold or stop delivery unless the buyer provides a means or manner of payment which is commercially a substantial equivalent. If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the buyer’s obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive or predatory.

§ 2.615. Excuse by Failure of Presupposed Conditions

Except so far as a seller may have assumed a greater obligation and subject to the preceding section on substituted performance:

(1) Delay in delivery or non-delivery in whole or in part by a seller who complies with Subdivisions (2) and (3) is not a breach of his duty under a contract for sale if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the non-occurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order whether or not it later proves to be invalid.

(2) Where the causes mentioned in Subdivision (1) affect only a part of the seller’s capacity to perform, he must allocate production and deliveries among his customers but may at his option include regular customers not then under contract as well as his own requirements for further manufacture. He may so allocate in any manner which is fair and reasonable.

(3) The seller must notify the buyer seasonably that there will be delay or non-delivery and, when allocation is required under Subdivision (2), of the estimated quota thus made available for the buyer.

§ 2.616. Procedure on Notice Claiming Excuse

(a) Where the buyer receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under the preceding section he may by written notification to the seller as to any delivery concerned, and where the prospective deficiency substantially impairs the value of the whole contract under the provisions of this chapter relating to breach of installment contracts (Section 2.612), then also as to the whole,

(1) terminate and thereby discharge any unexecuted portion of the contract; or

(2) modify the contract by agreeing to take his available quota in substitution.

(b) If after receipt of such notification from the seller the buyer fails so to modify the contract within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days the contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

(c) The provisions of this section may not be negated by agreement except insofar as the seller has assumed a greater obligation under the preceding section.

SUBCHAPTER G. REMEDIES

§ 2.701. Remedies for Breach of Collateral Contracts Not Impaired

Remedies for breach of any obligation or promise collateral or ancillary to a contract for sale are not impaired by the provisions of this chapter.

§ 2.702. Seller’s Remedies on Discovery of Buyer’s Insolvency

(a) Where the seller discovers the buyer to be insolvent he may refuse delivery except for cash including payment for all goods theretofore delivered under the contract, and stop delivery under this chapter (Section 2.705).

(b) Where the seller discovers that the buyer has received goods on credit while insolvent he may reclaim the goods upon demand made within ten days after the receipt, but if misrepresentation of solvency has been made to the particular seller in writing within three months before delivery the ten day limitation does not apply. Except as provided in this subsection the seller may not base a right to reclaim goods on the buyer’s fraudulent or innocent misrepresentation of solvency or of intent to pay.
§ 2.702 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(c) The seller's right to reclaim under Subsection (b) is subject to the rights of a buyer in ordinary course or other good faith purchaser or lien creditor under this chapter (Section 2.408). Successful reclamation of goods excludes all other remedies with respect to them.

§ 2.703. Seller's Remedies in General

Where the buyer wrongfully rejects or revokes acceptance of goods or fails to make a payment due on or before delivery or repudiates with respect to a part or the whole, then with respect to any goods directly affected and, if the breach is of the whole contract (Section 2.612), then also with respect to the whole undelivered balance, the aggrieved seller may

(1) withhold delivery of such goods;
(2) stop delivery by any bailee as hereafter provided (Section 2.706);
(3) proceed under the next section respecting goods still unidentified to the contract;
(4) resell and recover damages as hereafter provided (Section 2.706);
(5) recover damages for non-acceptance (Section 2.708) or in a proper case the price (Section 2.709);
(6) cancel.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 2.704. Seller's Right to Identify Goods to the Contract Notwithstanding Breach or to Salvage Unfinished Goods

(a) An aggrieved seller under the preceding section may

(1) identify to the contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time he learned of the breach they are in his possession or control;
(2) treat as the subject of resale goods which have demonstrably been intended for the particular contract even though those goods are unfinished.

(b) Where the goods are unfinished an aggrieved seller may in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization either complete the manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the contract or cease manufacture and resell for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner.

§ 2.705. Seller's Stoppage of Delivery in Transit or Otherwise

(a) The seller may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee when he discovers the buyer to be insolvent (Section 2.702) and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, plane load or larger shipments of express or freight when the buyer repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery or if for any other reason the seller has a right to withhold or reclaim the goods.

(b) As against such buyer the seller may stop delivery until

(1) receipt of the goods by the buyer; or
(2) acknowledgment to the buyer by any bailee of the goods except a carrier that the bailee holds the goods for the buyer; or
(3) such acknowledgment to the buyer by a carrier by reshipment or as warehouseman; or
(4) negotiation to the buyer of any negotiable document of title covering the goods.

(c) (1) To stop delivery the seller must so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods.
(2) After such notification the bailee must hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the seller but the seller is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages.
(3) If a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods the bailee is not obliged to obey a notification to stop until surrender of the document.
(4) A carrier who has issued a non-negotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor.

§ 2.706. Seller's Resale Including Contract for Resale

(a) Under the conditions stated in Section 2.703 on seller's remedies, the seller may resell the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof. Where the resale is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner the seller may recover the difference between the resale price and the contract price together with any incidental damages allowed under the provisions of this chapter (Section 2.710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (c) or unless otherwise agreed resale may be at public or private sale including sale by way of one or more contracts to sell or of identification to an existing contract of the seller. Sale may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the sale including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable. The resale must be reasonably identified as referring to the broken contract, but it is not necessary that the goods be in existence or that any or all of them have been identified to the contract before the breach.

(c) Where the resale is at private sale the seller must give the buyer reasonable notification of his intention to resell.

(d) Where the resale is at public sale

(1) only identified goods can be sold except where there is a recognized market for a public sale of futures in goods of the kind; and
(2) it must be made at a usual place or market for public sale if one is reasonably available and except in the case of goods which are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily the seller must give the buyer reasonable notice of the time and place of the resale; and
(3) if the goods are not to be within the view of those attending the sale the notification of sale must state the place where the goods are located and provide for their reasonable inspection by prospective bidders; and
(4) the seller may buy.
(e) A purchaser who buys in good faith at a resale takes the goods free of any rights of the original buyer even though the seller fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this section.

(f) The seller is not accountable to the buyer for any profit made on any resale. A person in the position of a principal or anyone who otherwise holds a security interest or other right in goods similar to that of a seller.

§ 2.707. "Person in the Position of a Seller"

(a) A “person in the position of a seller” includes as against a principal an agent who has paid or become responsible for the price of goods on behalf of his principal or anyone who otherwise holds a security interest or other right in goods similar to that of a seller.

(b) A person in the position of a seller may as provided in this chapter withhold or stop delivery (Section 2.705) and resell (Section 2.706) and recover incidental damages (Section 2.710).

§ 2.708. Seller’s Damages for Non-Acceptance or Repudiation

(a) Subject to Subsection (b) and to the provisions of this chapter with respect to proof of market price (Section 2.723), the measure of damages for non-acceptance or repudiation by the buyer is the difference between the market price at the time and place for tender and the unpaid contract price together with any incidental damages provided in this chapter (Section 2.710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer’s breach.

(b) If the measure of damages provided in Subsection (a) is inadequate to put the seller in as good a position as performance would have done then the measure of damages is the profit (including reasonable overhead) which the seller would have made from full performance by the buyer, together with any incidental damages provided in this chapter (Section 2.710), due allowance for costs reasonably incurred and due credit for payments or proceeds of resale.

§ 2.709. Action for the Price

(a) When the buyer fails to pay the price as it becomes due the seller may recover, together with any incidental damages under the next section, the price

1. of goods accepted or of conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of their loss has passed to the buyer; and

2. of goods identified to the contract if the seller is unable after reasonable effort to resell them at a reasonable price or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing.

(b) Where the seller sues for the price he must hold for the buyer any goods which have been identified to the contract and are still in his control except that if resale becomes possible he may resell them at any time prior to the collection of the judgment.

The net proceeds of any such resale must be credited to the buyer and payment of the judgment entitles him to any goods not resold.

(c) After the buyer has wrongfully rejected or revoked acceptance of the goods or has failed to make a payment due or has repudiated (Section 2.910), a seller who is held not entitled to the price under this section shall nevertheless be awarded damages for nonacceptance under the preceding section.

§ 2.710. Seller’s Incidental Damages

Incidental damages to an aggrieved seller include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions incurred in stopping delivery, in the transportation, care and custody of goods after the buyer’s breach, in connection with return or resale of the goods or otherwise resulting from the breach.

§ 2.711. Buyer’s Remedies in General; Buyer’s Security Interest in Rejected Goods

(a) Where the seller fails to make delivery or repudiates or the buyer rightfully rejects or justifiably revokes acceptance then with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to the whole if the breach goes to the whole contract (Section 2.612), the buyer may cancel and whether or not he has done so may in addition to recovering so much of the price as has been paid

1. “cover” and have damages under the next section as to all the goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the contract; or

2. recover damages for non-delivery as provided in this chapter (Section 2.713).

(b) Where the seller fails to deliver or repudiates the buyer may also

1. if the goods have been identified recover them as provided in this chapter (Section 2.502); or

2. in a proper case obtain specific performance or replevy the goods as provided in this chapter (Section 2.716).

(c) On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance a buyer has a security interest in goods in his possession or control for any payments made on their price and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, care and custody and may hold such goods and resell them in like manner as an aggrieved seller (Section 2.706).

§ 2.712. “Cover”; Buyer’s Procurement of Substitute Goods

(a) After a breach within the preceding section the buyer may “cover” by making in good faith and without unreasonable delay any reasonable purchase of or contract to purchase goods in substitution for those due from the seller.

(b) The buyer may recover from the seller as damages the difference between the cost of cover and the contract price together with any incidental or consequential damages as hereinafter defined (Section 2.715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller’s breach.
§ 2.712 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(c) Failure of the buyer to effect cover within this section does not bar him from any other remedy.

§ 2.713. Buyer's Damages for Non-Delivery or Repudiation

(a) Subject to the provisions of this chapter with respect to proof of market price (Section 2.723), the measure of damages for non-delivery or repudiation by the seller is the difference between the market price at the time when the buyer learned of the breach and the contract price together with any incidental and consequential damages provided in this chapter (Section 2.715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.

(b) Market price is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival.

§ 2.714. Buyer's Damages for Breach in Regard to Accepted Goods

(a) Where the buyer has accepted goods and given notification (Subsection (c) of Section 2.607) he may recover as damages for any non-conformity of the goods accepted and the value they would have had if they had been as warranted, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount.

(b) The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the difference at the time and place of tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival.

§ 2.715. Buyer's Incidental and Consequential Damages

(a) Incidental damages resulting from the seller's breach include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected, any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions in connection with effecting cover and any other reasonable expense incident to the delay or other breach.

(b) Consequential damages resulting from the seller's breach include

(1) any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the seller at the time of contracting had reason to know and which could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise; and

(2) injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 2.716. Buyer's Right to Specific Performance or Replevin

(a) Specific performance may be decreed where the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.

(b) The decree for specific performance may include such terms and conditions as to payment of the price, damages, or other relief as the court may deem just.

(c) The buyer has a right of replevin for goods identified to the contract if after reasonable effort he is unable to effect cover for such goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing or if the goods have been shipped under reservation and satisfaction of the security interest in them has been made or tendered.

§ 2.717. Deduction of Damages from the Price

The buyer on notifying the seller of his intention to do so may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any breach of the contract from any part of the price still due under the same contract.

§ 2.718. Liquidation or Limitation of Damages; Deposits

(a) Damages for breach by either party may be liquidated in the agreement but only at an amount which is reasonable in the light of the anticipated or actual harm caused by the breach, the difficulties of proof of loss, and the inconvenience or non-feasibility of otherwise obtaining an adequate remedy. A term fixing unreasonably large liquidated damages is void as a penalty.

(b) Where the seller justifiably withholds delivery of goods because of the buyer's breach, the buyer is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of his payments exceeds the value the buyer has received by or for his use.

(1) the amount to which the seller is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the seller's damages in accordance with Subsection (a), or

(2) in the absence of such terms, twenty percent of the value of the total performance for which the buyer is obligated under the contract or $500, whichever is smaller.

(c) The buyer's right to restitution under Subsection (b) is subject to offset to the extent that the seller establishes

(1) a right to recover damages under the provisions of this chapter other than Subsection (a), and

(2) the amount or value of any benefits received by the buyer directly or indirectly by reason of the contract.

(d) Where a seller has received payment in goods their reasonable value or the proceeds of their resale shall be treated as payments for the purposes of Subsection (b); but if the seller has notice of the buyer's breach before reselling goods received in part performance, his resale is subject to the conditions laid down in this chapter on resale by an aggrieved seller (Section 2.706).

§ 2.719. Contractual Modification or Limitation of Remedy

(a) Subject to the provisions of Subsections (b) and (c) of this section and of the preceding section on liquidation and limitation of damages,

(1) the agreement may provide for remedies in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this chapter and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this chapter, as by limiting the buyer’s remedies to return of the goods and repayment of the price or to repair and replacement of non-conforming goods or parts; and

(2) resort to a remedy as provided is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive, in which case it is the sole remedy.

(b) Where circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this title.

(c) Consequential damages may be limited or excluded unless the limitation or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima facie unconscionable but limitation of damages where the loss is commercial is not.

§ 2.720. Effect of "Cancellation" or "Rescission" on Claims for Antecedent Breach

Unless the contrary intention clearly appears express a cancellations or rescission of the contract or the like shall not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent breach.

§ 2.721. Remedies for Fraud

Remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all remedies available under this chapter for non-fraudulent breach. Neither rescission or a claim for rescission of the contract for sale nor rejection or return of the goods shall bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or other remedy.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 2.722. Who Can Sue Third Parties for Injury to Goods

Where a third party so deals with goods which have been identified to a contract for sale as to cause actionable injury to a party to that contract

(1) a right of action against the third party is in either party to the contract for sale who has title to or a security interest or a special property or an insurable interest in the goods; and if the goods have been destroyed or converted a right of action is also in the party who either bore the risk of loss under the contract for sale or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the other;

(2) if at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the contract for sale and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, his suit or settlement is, subject to his own interest, as a fiduciary for the other party to the contract;

(3) either party may with the consent of the other sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

§ 2.723. Proof of Market Price: Time and Place

(a) If an action based on anticipatory repudiation comes to trial before the time for performance with respect to some or all of the goods, any damages based on market price (Section 2.708 or Section 2.713) shall be determined according to the price of such goods prevailing at the time when the aggrieved party learned of the repudiation.

(b) If evidence of a price prevailing at the times or places described in this chapter is not readily available the price prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place which in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the cost of transporting the goods to or from such other place.

(c) Evidence of a relevant price prevailing at a time or place other than the one described in this chapter offered by one party is not admissible unless and until he has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise.

§ 2.724. Admissibility of Market Quotations

Whenever the prevailing price or value of any goods regularly bought and sold in any established commodity market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of such market shall be admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of such a report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility.

§ 2.725. Statute of Limitations in Contracts for Sale

(a) An action for breach of any contract for sale must be commenced within four years after the cause of action has accrued. By the original agreement the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than one year but may not extend it.

(b) A cause of action accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party’s lack of knowledge of the breach. A breach of warranty occurs when tender of delivery is made, except that where a warranty explicitly extends to future performance of the goods and discovery of the breach must await the time of such performance the cause of action accrues when the breach is or should have been discovered.

(c) Where an action commenced within the time limited by Subsection (a) is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same breach such other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

(d) This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations nor does it apply to causes of action which have accrued before this title becomes effective.

SUBCHAPTER A. SHORT TITLE, FORM AND INTERPRETATION
§ 3.101. Short Title
This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Commercial Paper.

§ 3.102. Definitions and Index of Definitions
(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

(1) “Issue” means the first delivery of an instrument to a holder or a remitter.

(2) An “order” is a direction to pay and must be more than an authorization or request. It must identify the person to pay with reasonable certainty. It may be addressed to one or more such persons jointly or in the alternative but not in succession.

(3) A “promise” is an undertaking to pay and must be more than an acknowledgment of an obligation.

(4) “Secondary party” means a drawer or endorser.

(5) “Instrument” means a negotiable instrument.

(d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

§ 3.103. Limitations on Scope of Chapter

(a) This chapter does not apply to money, documents of title or investment securities.

(b) The provisions of this chapter are subject to the provisions of the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections (Chapter 4) and Secured Transactions (Chapter 9).

§ 3.104. Form of Negotiable Instruments; "Draft"; "Check"; "Certificate of Deposit"; "Note"

(a) Any writing to be a negotiable instrument within this chapter must

(1) be signed by the maker or drawer; and

(2) contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money and no other promise, order, obligation or power given by the maker or drawer except as authorized by this chapter; and

(3) be payable on demand or at a definite time; and

(4) be payable to order or to bearer.

(b) A writing which complies with the requirements of this section is

(1) a "draft" ("bill of exchange") if it is an order;

(2) a "check" if it is a draft drawn on a bank and payable on demand;

(3) a "certificate of deposit" if it is an acknowledgment by a bank of receipt of money with an engagement to repay it;

(4) a "note" if it is a promise other than a certificate of deposit.

(c) As used in other chapters of this title, and as the context may require, the terms "draft", "check", "certificate of deposit" and "note" may refer to instruments which are not negotiable within this chapter as well as to instruments which are so negotiable.

§ 3.105. When Promise or Order Unconditional

(a) A promise or order otherwise unconditional is not made conditional by the fact that the instrument

(1) is subject to implied or constructive conditions; or

(2) states its consideration, whether performed or promised, or the transaction which gave rise to the instrument, or that the promise or order is made or the instrument matures in accordance with or "as per" such transaction; or

(3) refers to or states that it arises out of a separate agreement or refers to a separate agreement for rights as to prepayment or acceleration; or

(4) states that it is drawn under a letter of credit; or

(5) states that it is secured, whether by mortgage, reservation of title or otherwise; or

(6) indicates a particular account to be debited or any other fund or source from which reimbursement is expected; or

(7) is limited to payment out of a particular fund or the proceeds of a particular source, if the instrument is issued by a government or governmental agency or unit; or

(8) is limited to payment out of the entire assets of a partnership, unincorporated association, trust or estate by or on behalf of which the instrument is issued.

(b) A promise or order is not unconditional if the instrument

(1) states that it is subject to or governed by any other agreement; or

(2) states that it is to be paid only out of a particular fund or source except as provided in this section.

§ 3.106. Sum Certain

(a) The sum payable is a sum certain even though it is to be paid

(1) with stated interest or by stated installments; or

(2) with stated different rates of interest before and after default or a specified date; or

(3) with a stated discount or addition if paid before or after the date fixed for payment; or

(4) with exchange or less exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or

(5) with costs of collection or an attorney's fee or both upon default.

(b) Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal.

§ 3.107. Money

(a) An instrument is payable in money if the medium of exchange in which it is payable is money at the time the instrument is made. An instrument payable in "currency" or "current funds" is payable in money.

(b) A promise or order to pay a sum stated in a foreign currency is for a sum certain in money and, unless a different medium of payment is specified in the instrument, may be satisfied by payment of that number of dollars which the stated foreign currency will purchase at the buying sight rate for that currency on the day on which the instrument is payable or, if payable on demand, on the day of demand. If such an instrument specifies a foreign currency as the medium of payment the instrument is payable in that currency.

§ 3.108. Payable on Demand

Instruments payable on demand include those payable at sight or on presentation and those in which no time for payment is stated.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]

§ 3.109. Definite Time

(a) An instrument is payable at a definite time if by its terms it is payable

(1) on or before a stated date or at a fixed period after a stated date; or
(2) at a fixed period after sight; or
(3) at a definite time subject to any acceleration; or
(4) at a definite time subject to extension at the option of the holder, or to extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

(b) An instrument which by its terms is otherwise payable only upon an act or event uncertain as to time of occurrence is not payable at a definite time even though the act or event has occurred.

§ 3.110. Payable to Order

(a) An instrument is payable to order when by its terms it is payable to the order or assigns of any person therein specified with reasonable certainty, or to him or his order, or when it is conspicuously designated on its face as "exchange" or the like and names a payee. It may be payable to the order of

(1) the maker or drawer; or
(2) the drawee; or
(3) a payee who is not maker, drawer or drawee; or
(4) two or more payees together or in the alternative; or
(5) an estate, trust or fund, in which case it is payable to the order of the representative of such estate, trust or fund or his successors; or
(6) an office, or an officer by his title as such in which case it is payable to the principal but the incumbent of the office or his successors may act as if he or they were the holder; or
(7) a partnership or unincorporated association, in which case it is payable to the partnership or association and may be indorsed or transferred by any person thereto authorized.

(b) An instrument not payable to order is not made so payable by such words as "payable upon return of this instrument properly indorsed."

(c) An instrument made payable both to order and to bearer is payable to order unless the bearer words are handwritten or typewritten.

§ 3.111. Payable to Bearer

An instrument is payable to bearer when by its terms it is payable to

(1) bearer or the order of bearer; or
(2) a specified person or bearer; or
(3) "cash" or the order of "cash", or any other indication which does not purport to designate a specific payee.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]

§ 3.112. Terms and Omissions Not Affecting Negotiability

(a) The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by

(1) the omission of a statement of any consideration or of the place where the instrument is drawn or payable; or
(2) a statement that collateral has been given to secure obligations either on the instrument or otherwise of an obligor on the instrument or that in case of default on those obligations the holder may realize on or dispose of the collateral; or
(3) a promise or power to maintain or protect collateral or to give additional collateral; or
(4) a term authorizing a confession of judgment on the instrument if it is not paid when due; or
(5) a term purporting to waive the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of any obligor; or
(6) a term in a draft providing that the payee by indorsing or cashing it acknowledges full satisfaction of an obligation of the drawer; or
(7) a statement in a draft drawn in a set of parts (Section 3.801) to the effect that the order is effective only if no other part has been honored.

(b) Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal.

§ 3.113. Seal

An instrument otherwise negotiable is within this chapter even though it is under a seal.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]

§ 3.114. Date, Antedating, Postdating

(a) The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by the fact that it is undated, antedated or postdated.

(b) Where an instrument is antedated or postdated the time when it is payable is determined by the stated date if the instrument is payable on demand or at a fixed period after date.

(c) Where the instrument or any signature thereon is dated, the date is presumed to be correct.

§ 3.115. Incomplete Instruments

(a) When a paper whose contents at the time of signing show that it is intended to become an instrument is signed while still incomplete in any necessary respect it cannot be enforced until completed, but when it is completed in accordance with authority given it is effective as completed.
§ 3.116. Instruments Payable to Two or More Persons

An instrument payable to the order of two or more persons:

1. If in the alternative is payable to any one of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by any of them who has possession of it;
2. If not in the alternative is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced only by all of them.

§ 3.117. Instruments Payable With Words of Description

An instrument made payable to a named person with the addition of words describing him:

1. As agent or officer of a specified person is payable to his principal but the agent or officer may act as if he were the holder;
2. As any other fiduciary for a specified person or purpose is payable to the payee and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by him;
3. In any other manner is payable to the payee unconditionally and the additional words are without effect on subsequent parties.

§ 3.118. Ambiguous Terms and Rules of Construction

The following rules apply to every instrument:

1. Where there is doubt whether the instrument is a draft or a note the holder may treat it as either. A draft drawn on the drawer is effective as a note.
2. Handwritten terms control typewritten and printed terms, and typewritten control printed.
3. Words control figures except that if the words are ambiguous figures control.
4. Unless otherwise specified a provision for interest means interest at the judgment rate at the place of payment from the date of the instrument, or if it is undated from the date of issue.
5. Unless the instrument otherwise specifies two or more persons who sign as maker, acceptor or drawer or indorser and as a part of the same transaction are jointly and severally liable even though the instrument contains such words as "I promise to pay."
6. Unless otherwise specified consent to extension authorizes a single extension for not longer than the original period. A consent to extension, expressed in the instrument, is binding on secondary parties and accommodation makers. A holder may not exercise his option to extend an instrument over the objection of a maker or acceptor or other party who in accord-

§ 3.119. Other Writings Affecting Instrument

(a) As between the obligor and his immediate obligee or any transferee the terms of an instrument may be modified or affected by any other written agreement executed as a part of the same transaction, except that a holder in due course is not affected by any limitation of his rights arising out of the separate written agreement if he had no notice of the limitation when he took the instrument.
(b) A separate agreement does not affect the negotiability of an instrument.

§ 3.120. Instruments "Payable Through" Bank

An instrument which states that it is "payable through" a bank or the like designates that bank as a collecting bank to make presentment but does not of itself authorize the bank to pay the instrument.

§ 3.121. Instruments Payable at Bank

A note or acceptance which states that it is payable at a bank is the equivalent of a draft drawn on the bank payable when it falls due out of any funds of the maker or acceptor in current account or otherwise available for such payment.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 3.122. Accrual of Cause of Action

(a) A cause of action against a maker or an acceptor accrues
1. In the case of a time instrument on the day after maturity;
2. In the case of a demand instrument upon its date or, if no date is stated, on the date of issue.
(b) A cause of action against the obligor of a demand or time certificate of deposit accrues upon demand, but demand on a time certificate may not be made until on or after the date of maturity.
(c) A cause of action against a drawer of a draft or an indorser of any instrument accrues upon demand following dishonor of the instrument. Notice of dishonor is a demand.
(d) Unless an instrument provides otherwise, interest runs at the rate provided by law for a judgment
1. In the case of a maker, acceptor or other primary obligor of a demand instrument, from the date of demand;
2. In all other cases from the date of accrual of the cause of action.

SUBCHAPTER B. TRANSFER AND NEGOTIATION

§ 3.201. Transfer: Right to Indorsement

(a) Transfer of an instrument vests in the transferee such rights as the transferor has therein, except that a transferee who has himself been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument or who as a prior holder had notice of a defense or

§ 3.202. Negotiation

(a) Negotiation is the transfer of an instrument in such form that the transferee becomes a holder. If the instrument is payable to order it is negotiated by delivery with any necessary indorsement; if payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery.

(b) An indorsement must be written by or on behalf of the holder and on the instrument or on a paper so firmly affixed thereto as to become a part thereof.

(c) An indorsement is effective for negotiation only when it conveys the entire instrument or any unpaid residue. If it purports to be of less it operates only as a partial assignment.

(d) Words of assignment, condition, waiver, guaranty, limitation or disclaimer of liability and the like accompanying an indorsement do not affect its character as an indorsement.

§ 3.203. Wrong or Misspelled Name

Where an instrument is made payable to a person under a misspelled name or one other than his own he may indorse in that name or his own or both; but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or giving value for the instrument.

§ 3.204. Special Indorsement: Blank Indorsement

(a) A special indorsement specifies the person to whom or to whose order it makes the instrument payable. Any instrument specially indorsed becomes payable to the order of the special indorsee and may be further negotiated only by his indorsement.

(b) An indorsement in blank specifies no particular indorsee and may consist of a mere signature. An instrument payable to order and indorsed in blank becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery alone until specially indorsed.

(c) The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.

§ 3.205. Restrictive Indorsements

An indorsement is restrictive which either

(1) is conditional; or

(2) purports to prohibit further transfer of the instrument; or

(3) includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms signifying a purpose of deposit or collection; or

(4) otherwise states that it is for the benefit or use of the indorser or of another person.

§ 3.206. Effect of Restrictive Indorsement

(a) No restrictive indorsement prevents further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.

(b) An intermediary bank, or a payor bank which is not the depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive indorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor or the person presenting for payment.

(c) Except for an intermediary bank, any transferee under an indorsement which is conditional or includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms (Subdivisions (1) and (3) of Section 3.205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value.

(d) The first taker under an indorsement for the benefit of the indorser or another person (Subdivision (4) of Section 3.205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value.

§ 3.207. Negotiation Effective Although It May Be Rescinded

(a) Negotiation is effective to transfer the instrument although the negotiation is

(1) made by an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or any other person without capacity; or

(2) obtained by fraud, duress or mistake of any kind; or

(3) part of an illegal transaction; or

(4) made in breach of duty.

(b) Except as against a subsequent holder in due course such negotiation is in an appropriate case subject to rescission, the declaration of a constructive trust or any other remedy permitted by law.

§ 3.208. Reacquisition

Where an instrument is returned to or reacquired by a prior party he may cancel any indorsement which is not necessary to his title and reissue or further negotiate the instrument, but any intervening party is discharged as against the reacquiring party and subsequent holders not in due course and if his indorsement has been cancelled is discharged as against subsequent holders in due course as well. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, §1.]

SUBCHAPTER C. RIGHTS OF A HOLDER

§ 3.301. Rights of a Holder

The holder of an instrument whether or not he is the owner may transfer or negotiate it and, except as otherwise provided in Section 3.608 on payment or satisfaction, discharge it or enforce payment in his own name.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, §1.]

§ 3.302. Holder in Due Course

(a) A holder in due course is a holder who takes the instrument

(1) for value; and

(2) in good faith; and

(3) without notice that it is overdue or has been dishonored or of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person.

(b) A payee may be a holder in due course.

(c) A holder does not become a holder in due course of an instrument:

(1) by purchase of it at judicial sale or by taking it under legal process; or

(2) by acquiring it in taking over an estate; or

(3) by purchasing it as part of a bulk transaction not in regular course of business of the transferor.

(d) A purchaser of a limited interest can be a holder in due course only to the extent of the interest purchased.

§ 3.303. Taking for Value

A holder takes the instrument for value

(1) to the extent that the agreed consideration has been performed or that he acquires a security interest in or a lien on the instrument otherwise than by legal process; or

(2) when he takes the instrument in payment of or as security for an antecedent claim against any person whether or not the claim is due; or

(3) when he gives a negotiable instrument for it or makes an irrevocable commitment to a third person.

§ 3.304. Notice to Purchaser

(a) The purchaser has notice of a claim or defense if

(1) the instrument is so incomplete, bears such visible evidence of forgery or alteration, or is otherwise so irregular as to call into question its validity, terms or ownership or to create an ambiguity as to the party to pay; or

(2) the purchaser has notice that the obligation of any party is voidable in whole or in part, or that all parties have been discharged.

(b) The purchaser has notice of a claim against the instrument when he has knowledge that a fiduciary has negotiated the instrument in payment of or as security for his own debt or in any transaction for his own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty.

(c) The purchaser has notice that an instrument is overdue if he has reason to know

(1) that any part of the principal amount is overdue or that there is an uncured default in payment of another instrument of the same series; or

(2) that acceleration of the instrument has been made; or

(3) that he is taking a demand instrument after demand has been made or more than a reasonable length of time after its issue. A reasonable time for a check drawn and payable within the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia is presumed to be thirty days.

(d) Knowledge of the following facts does not of itself give the purchaser notice of a defense or claim

(1) that the instrument is antedated or postdated;

(2) that it was issued or negotiated in return for an executory promise or accompanied by a separate agreement, unless the purchaser has notice that a defense or claim has arisen from the terms thereof;

(3) that any party has signed for accommodation;

(4) that an incomplete instrument has been completed, unless the purchaser has notice of any improper completion;

(5) that any person negotiating the instrument is or was a fiduciary;

(6) that there has been default in payment of interest on the instrument or in payment of any other instrument, except one of the same series.

(e) The filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice within the provisions of this chapter to a person who would otherwise be a holder in due course.

(f) To be effective notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

§ 3.305. Rights of a Holder in Due Course

To the extent that a holder is a holder in due course he takes the instrument free from

(a) all claims to it on the part of any person; and

(b) all defenses of any party to the instrument with whom the holder has not dealt except

(1) infancy, to the extent that it is a defense to a simple contract; and

(2) such other incapacity, or duress, or illegality of the transaction, as renders the obligation of the party a nullity; and

(3) such misrepresentation as has induced the party to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to obtain knowledge of its character or its essential terms; and

(4) discharge in insolvency proceedings; and
§ 3.305  BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(5) any other discharge of which the holder has notice when he takes the instrument.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 3.306. Rights of One Not Holder in Due Course
Unless he has the rights of a holder in due course any person takes the instrument subject to

(1) all valid claims to it on the part of any person; and
(2) all defenses of any party which would be available in an action on a simple contract; and
(3) the defenses of want or failure of consideration, non-performance of any condition precedent, non-delivery, or delivery for a special purpose (Section 3.405); and
(4) the defense that he or a person through whom he holds the instrument acquired it by theft, or that payment or satisfaction to such holder would be inconsistent with the terms of a restrictive indorsement. The claim of any third person to the instrument is not otherwise available as a defense to any party liable thereon unless the third person himself defends the action for such party.

§ 3.307. Burden of Establishing Signatures, Defenses and Due Course
(a) Unless specifically denied in the pleadings each signature on an instrument is admitted. When the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue

(1) the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature; but
(2) the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized except where the action is to enforce the obligation of a purported signer who has died or become incompetent before proof is required.

(b) When signatures are admitted or established, production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense.

(c) After it is shown that a defense exists a person claiming the rights of a holder in due course has the burden of establishing that he or some person under whom he claims is in all respects a holder in due course.

SUBCHAPTER D. LIABILITY OF PARTIES

§ 3.401. Signature
(a) No person is liable on an instrument unless his signature appears thereon.

(b) A signature is made by use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, upon an instrument, or by any word or mark used in lieu of a written signature.

§ 3.402. Signature in Ambiguous Capacity
Unless the instrument clearly indicates that a signature is made in some other capacity it is an indorsement.

§ 3.403. Signature by Authorized Representative
(a) A signature may be made by an agent or other representative, and his authority to make it may be established as in other cases of representation. No particular form of appointment is necessary to establish such authority.

(b) An authorized representative who signs his own name to an instrument

(1) is personally obligated if the instrument neither names the person represented nor shows that the representative signed in a representative capacity;
(2) except as otherwise established between the immediate parties, is personally obligated if the instrument names the person represented but does not show that the representative signed in a representative capacity, or if the instrument does not name the person represented but does show that the representative signed in a representative capacity.
(c) Except as otherwise established the name of an organization preceded or followed by the name and office of an authorized individual is a signature made in a representative capacity.

§ 3.404. Unauthorized Signatures
(a) Any unauthorized signature is wholly inoperative as that of the person whose name is signed unless he ratifies it or is precluded from denying it, but it operates as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value.

(b) Any unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this chapter. Such ratification does not of itself affect any rights of the person ratifying against the actual signer.

§ 3.405. Imposters; Signature in Name of Payee
(a) An indorsement by any person in the name of a named payee is effective if

(1) an imposter by use of the mails or otherwise has induced the maker or drawer to issue the instrument to him or his confederate in the name of the payee; or
(2) a person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument; or
(3) an agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied him with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so indorsing.

§ 3.406. Negligence Contributing to Alteration or Unauthorized Signature
Any person who by his negligence substantially contributes to a material alteration of the instrument or to the making of an unauthorized signature is precluded from asserting the alteration or lack of authority against a holder in due course or against a drawer or other payor who pays the instrument in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable
§ 3.407. Alteration
(a) Any alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any respect, including any such change in
(1) the number or relations of the parties; or
(2) an incomplete instrument, by completing it otherwise than as authorized; or
(3) the writing as signed, by adding to it or by removing any part of it.
(b) As against any person other than a subsequent holder in due course
(1) alteration by the holder which is both fraudulent and material discharges any party whose contract is thereby changed unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the defense;
(2) no other alteration discharges any party and the instrument may be enforced according to its original tenor, or as to incomplete instruments according to the authority given.
(c) A subsequent holder in due course may in all cases enforce the instrument according to its original tenor, and when an incomplete instrument has been completed, he may enforce it as completed.

§ 3.408. Consideration
Want or failure of consideration is a defense as against any person not having the rights of a holder in due course (Section 3.305), except that no consideration is necessary for an instrument or obligation thereon given in payment of or as security for an antecedent obligation of any kind. Nothing in this section shall be taken to displace any statute outside this title under which a promise is enforceable notwithstanding lack or failure of consideration. Partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto whether or not the failure is in an ascertained or liquidated amount.

§ 3.409. Draft Not an Assignment
(a) A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of any funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until he accepts it.
(b) Nothing in this section shall affect any liability in contract, tort or otherwise arising from any letter of credit or other obligation or representation which is not an acceptance.

§ 3.410. Definition and Operation of Acceptance
(a) Acceptance is the drawee's signed engagement to honor the draft as presented. It must be written on the draft, and may consist of his signature alone. It becomes operative when completed by delivery or notification.
(b) A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer or is otherwise incomplete or is overdue or has been dishonored.
(c) Where the draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date his acceptance the holder may complete it by supplying a date in good faith.

§ 3.411. Certification of a Check
(a) Certification of a check is acceptance. Where a holder procures certification the drawer and all prior indorsers are discharged.
(b) Unless otherwise agreed a bank has no obligation to certify a check.
(c) A bank may certify a check before returning it for lack of proper indorsement. If it does so the drawer is discharged.

§ 3.412. Acceptance Varying Draft
(a) Where the drawee's proffered acceptance in any manner varies the draft as presented the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored in which case the drawee is entitled to have his acceptance cancelled.
(b) The terms of the draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at any particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at such bank or place.
(c) Where the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of the draft each drawer and indorser who does not affirmatively assent is discharged.

§ 3.413. Contract of Maker, Drawer and Acceptor
(a) The maker or acceptor engages that he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his engagement or as completed pursuant to Section 3.115 on incomplete instruments.
(b) The drawer engages that upon dishonor of the draft and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest he will pay the amount of the draft to the holder or to any indorser who takes it up. The drawer may disclaim this liability by drawing without recourse.
(c) By making, drawing or accepting the party admits as against all subsequent parties including the drawee the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

§ 3.414. Contract of Indorser; Order of Liability
(a) Unless the indorsement otherwise specifies (as by such words as "without recourse") every indorser engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his indorsement to the holder or to any subsequent indorser who takes it up, even though the indorser who takes it up was not obligated to do so.
(b) Unless they otherwise agree indorsers are liable to one another in the order in which they indorse, which is presumed to be the order in which their signatures appear on the instrument.

§ 3.415. Contract of Accommodation Party
(a) An accommodation party is one who signs the instrument in any capacity for the purpose of lending his name to another party to it.
§ 3.415 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) When the instrument has been taken for value before it is due the accommodation party is liable in the capacity in which he has signed even though the taker knows of the accommodation.

(c) As against a holder in due course and without notice of the accommodation, oral proof of the accommodation is not admissible to give the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on his character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.

(d) An indorsement which shows that it is not in the chain of title is notice of its accommodation character.

(e) An accommodation party is not liable to the party accommodated, and if he pays the instrument has a right of recourse on the instrument against such party.

§ 3.416. Contract of Guarantor

(a) “Payment guaranteed” or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor without resort by the holder to any other party.

(b) “Collection guaranteed” or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor, but only after the holder has reduced his claim against the maker or acceptor to judgment and execution has been returned unsatisfied, or after the maker or acceptor has become insolvent or it is otherwise apparent that it is useless to proceed against him.

(c) Words of guaranty which do not otherwise specify guarantee payment.

(d) No words of guaranty added to the signature of a sole maker or acceptor affect his liability on the instrument. Such words added to the signature of one of two or more makers or acceptors create a presumption that the signature is for the accommodation of the others.

(e) When words of guaranty are used presentment, notice of dishonor and protest are not necessary to charge the user.

(f) Any guaranty written on the instrument is enforceable notwithstanding any statute of frauds.

§ 3.417. Warranties on Presentment and Transfer

(a) Any person who obtains payment or acceptance and any prior transferor warrants to a person who in good faith pays or accepts that

(1) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and

(2) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith.

(A) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or

(B) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(C) to an acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and

(3) the instrument has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith

(A) to the maker of a note; or

(B) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(C) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or

(D) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.

(b) Any person who transfers an instrument and receives consideration warrants to his transferee and if the transfer is by indorsement to any subsequent holder who takes the instrument in good faith that

(1) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and

(2) all signatures are genuine or authorized; and

(3) the instrument has not been materially altered; and

(4) no defense of any party is good against him; and

(5) he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted instrument.

(e) By transferring "without recourse" the transferor limits the obligation stated in Subsection (b)(4) to a warranty that he has no knowledge of such a defense.

(d) A selling agent or broker who does not disclose the fact that he is acting only as such gives the warranties provided in this section, but if he makes such disclosure warrants only his good faith and authority.

§ 3.418. Finality of Payment or Acceptance

Except for recovery of bank payments as provided in the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections (Chapter 4) and except for liability for breach of warranty on presentment under the preceding section, payment or acceptance of any instrument is final in favor of a holder in due course, or a person who has in good faith changed his position in reliance on the payment.

§ 3.419. Conversion of Instrument; Innocent Representative

(a) An instrument is converted when

(1) a drawee to whom it is delivered for acceptance refuses to return it on demand; or § 3.503

Unexcused Delay; Discharge

(a) Where without excuse any necessary presentment or notice of dishonor is delayed beyond the time when it is due

(1) any indorser is discharged; and

(2) any drawer or the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank who because the drawee or payor bank becomes insolvent during the delay is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee or payor bank to cover the instrument may discharge his liability by written assignment to the holder of his rights against the drawee or payor bank in respect of such funds, but such drawer, acceptor or maker is not otherwise discharged.

(b) Where without excuse a necessary protest is delayed beyond the time when it is due any drawer or indorser is discharged.

§ 3.503. Time of Presentment

(a) Unless a different time is expressed in the instrument the time for any presentment is determined as follows:

(1) where an instrument is payable at or a fixed period after a stated date any presentment for acceptance must be made on or before the date it is payable;

(2) where an instrument is payable after sight it must either be presented for acceptance or negotiated within a reasonable time after date or issue whichever is later;

(3) where an instrument shows the date on which it is payable presentment for payment is due on that date;

(4) where an instrument is accelerated presentment for payment is due within a reasonable time after the acceleration;

(5) with respect to the liability of any secondary party presentment for acceptance or payment of any other instrument is due within a reasonable time after such party becomes liable thereon.

(b) A reasonable time for presentment is determined by the nature of the instrument, any usage of banking or trade and the facts of the particular case. In the case of an uncertificated check which is drawn and payable within the United States and which is not a draft drawn by a bank the following are presumed to be reasonable periods within which to present for payment or to initiate bank collection:

(1) with respect to the liability of the drawer, thirty days after date or issue whichever is later; and

Puerto Rico. The holder may at his option make protest of any dishonor of any other instrument and in the case of a foreign draft may on insolvency of the acceptor before maturity make protest for better security.

Notwithstanding any provision of this section, neither presentment nor notice of dishonor nor protest is necessary to charge an indorser who has indorsed an instrument after maturity.

§ 3.502. Unexcused Delay; Discharge

(a) Where without excuse any necessary presentment or notice of dishonor is delayed beyond the time when it is due

(1) any indorser is discharged; and

(2) any drawer or the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank who because the drawee or payor bank becomes insolvent during the delay is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee or payor bank to cover the instrument may discharge his liability by written assignment to the holder of his rights against the drawee or payor bank in respect of such funds, but such drawer, acceptor or maker is not otherwise discharged.

(b) Where without excuse a necessary protest is delayed beyond the time when it is due any drawer or indorser is discharged.
§ 3.503  BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) with respect to the liability of an indorser, seven days after his indorsement.

e) Where any presentment is due on a day which is not a full business day for either the person making presentment or the party to pay or accept, presentment is due on the next following day which is a full business day for both parties.

d) Presentment to be sufficient must be made at a reasonable hour, and if at a bank during its banking day.

§ 3.504. How Presentment Made

(a) Presentment is a demand for acceptance or payment made upon the maker, acceptor, drawee or other payor by or on behalf of the holder.

(b) Presentment may be made

(1) by mail, in which event the time of presentment is determined by the time of receipt of the mail; or

(2) through a clearing house; or

(3) at the place of acceptance or payment specified in the instrument or if there be none at the place of business or residence of the party to accept or pay. If neither the party to accept or pay nor anyone authorized to act for him is present or accessible at such place presentment is excused.

c) It may be made

(1) to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees or other payors; or

(2) to any person who has authority to make or refuse the acceptance or payment.

d) A draft accepted or a note made payable at a bank in the United States must be presented at such bank.

(e) In the cases described in Section 4.210 presentment may be made in the manner and with the result stated in that section.

§ 3.505. Rights of Party to Whom Presentment Is Made

(a) The party to whom presentment is made may without dishonor require

(1) exhibition of the instrument; and

(2) reasonable identification of the person making presentment and evidence of his authority to make it if made for another; and

(3) that the instrument be produced for acceptance or payment at a place specified in it, or if there be none at any place reasonable in the circumstances; and

(4) a signed receipt on the instrument for any partial or full payment and its surrender upon full payment.

(b) Failure to comply with any such requirement invalidates the presentment but the person presenting has a reasonable time in which to comply and the time for acceptance or payment runs from the time of compliance.

§ 3.506. Time Allowed for Acceptance or Payment

(a) Acceptance may be deferred without dishonor until the close of the next business day following presentment. The holder may also in a good faith effort to obtain acceptance and without either dishonor of the instrument or discharge of secondary parties allow postponement of acceptance for an additional business day.

(b) Except as a longer time is allowed in the case of documentary drafts drawn under a letter of credit, and unless an earlier time is agreed to by the party to pay, payment of an instrument may be deferred without dishonor pending reasonable examination to determine whether it is properly payable, but payment must be made in any event before the close of business on the day of presentment.

§ 3.507. Dishonor; Holder's Right of Recourse; Term Allowing Re-Presentment

(a) An instrument is dishonored when

(1) a necessary or optional presentment is duly made and due acceptance or payment is refused or cannot be obtained within the prescribed time or in case of bank collections the instrument is seasonably returned by the midnight deadline (Section 4.301); or

(2) presentment is excused and the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.

(b) Subject to any necessary notice of dishonor and protest, the holder has upon dishonor an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and indorsers.

(c) Return of an instrument for lack of proper indorsement is not dishonor.

(d) A term in a draft or an indorsement thereof allowing a stated time for re-presentment in the event of any dishonor of the draft by nonacceptance if a time draft or by nonpayment if a sight draft gives the holder as against any secondary party bound by the term an option to waive the dishonor without affecting the liability of the secondary party and he may present again up to the end of the stated time.

§ 3.508. Notice of Dishonor

(a) Notice of dishonor may be given to any person who may be liable on the instrument by or on behalf of the holder or any party who has himself received notice, or any other party who can be compelled to pay the instrument. In addition an agent or bank in whose hands the instrument is dishonored may give notice to his principal or customer or to another agent or bank from which the instrument was received.

(b) Any necessary notice must be given by a bank before its midnight deadline and by any other person before midnight of the third business day after dishonor or receipt of notice of dishonor.

(c) Notice may be given in any reasonable manner. It may be oral or written and in any terms which identify the instrument and state that it has been dishonored. A misdescription which does not mislead the party notified does not vitiate the notice. Sending the instrument bearing a stamp, ticket or writing stating that acceptance or payment has been refused or sending a notice of debit with respect to the instrument is sufficient.

(d) Written notice is given when sent although it is not received.
§ 3.601

Discharge of Parties

(a) The extent of the discharge of any party from liability on an instrument is governed by the sections on

(1) payment or satisfaction (Section 3.603); or
(2) tender of payment (Section 3.604); or
(3) cancellation or renunciation (Section 3.605); or
(4) impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (Section 3.606); or
(5) reacquisition of the instrument by a prior party (Section 3.208); or
(6) fraudulent and material alteration (Section 3.407); or
(7) certification of a check (Section 3.411); or
(8) acceptance varying a draft (Section 3.412); or
(9) unexcused delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (Section 3.502).

(b) Any party is also discharged from his liability on an instrument to another party by any other act or agreement with such party which would discharge his simple contract for the payment of money.

(c) The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has himself no right of action or recourse on the instrument

(1) reacquires the instrument in his own right; or
(2) is discharged under any provision of this Chapter, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of collateral (Section 3.606).
§ 3.602. Effect of Discharge Against Holder in Due Course

No discharge of any party provided by this chapter is effective against a subsequent holder in due course unless he has notice thereof when he takes the instrument.

§ 3.603. Payment or Satisfaction

(a) The liability of any party is discharged to the extent of his payment or satisfaction to the holder even though it is made with knowledge of a claim of another person to the instrument unless prior to such payment or satisfaction the person making the claim either supplies indemnity deemed adequate by the party seeking the discharge or enjoins payment or satisfaction by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and the holder are parties. This subsection does not, however, result in the discharge of the liability

(1) of a party who in bad faith pays or satisfies a holder who acquired the instrument by theft or who (unless having the rights of a holder in due course) holds through one who so acquired it; or

(2) of a party (other than an intermediary bank or a payor bank which is not a depositary bank) who pays or satisfies the holder of an instrument which has been restrictively indorsed in a manner not consistent with the terms of such restrictively indorsement.

(b) Payment or satisfaction may be made with the consent of the holder by any person including a stranger to the instrument. Surrender of the instrument to the extent that without such party's consent

(a) The holder discharges any party to the instrument to the extent that without such party's consent the holder

(1) without express reservation of rights releases or agrees not to sue any person against whom the party has to the knowledge of the holder a right of recourse or agrees to suspend the right to enforce against such person the instrument or collateral or otherwise discharges such person, except that failure or delay in effecting any required presentment, protest or notice of dishonor with respect to any such person does not discharge any party as to whom presentment, protest or notice of dishonor is effective or unnecessary; or

(2) unjustifiably impairs any collateral for the instrument given by or on behalf of the party or any person against whom he has a right of recourse.

(b) By express reservation of rights against a party with a right of recourse the holder preserves

(1) all his rights against such party as of the time when the instrument was originally due; and

(2) the right of the party to pay the instrument as of that time; and

(3) all rights of such party to recourse against others.

SUBCHAPTER G. ADVICE OF INTERNATIONAL SIGHT DRAFT

§ 3.701. Letter of Advice of International Sight Draft

(a) A “letter of advice” is a drawer’s communication to the drawee that a described draft has been drawn.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed when a bank receives from another bank a letter of advice of an international sight draft the drawee bank may immediately debit the drawer’s account and stop the running of interest pro tanto. Such a debit and any resulting credit to any account covering outstanding drafts leaves in the drawer full power to stop payment or otherwise dispose of the amount and creates no trust or interest in favor of the holder.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed and except where a draft is drawn under a credit issued by the drawee, the drawee of an international sight draft owes the drawer no duty to pay an unadvised draft but if it does so and the draft is genuine, may appropriately debit the drawer’s account.

SUBCHAPTER H. MISCELLANEOUS

§ 3.801. Drafts in a Set

(a) Where a draft is drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be an order only if no other part has been honored, the whole of the parts constitutes one draft but a taker of any part may become a holder in due course of the draft.

(b) Any person who negotiates, indorses or accepts a single part of a draft drawn in a set thereby becomes liable to any holder in due course of that part as if it were the whole set, but as between different holders in due course to whom different parts have been negotiated the holder whose title first accrues has all rights to the draft and its proceeds.

(c) As against the drawee the first presented part of a draft drawn in a set is the part entitled to payment, or if a time draft to acceptance and payment. Acceptance of any subsequently presented part renders the drawee liable thereon under Sub-section (b). With respect both to a holder and to the drawer payment of a subsequently presented part of a draft payable at sight has the same effect as if it were the whole set, but as between parts have been negotiated the holder whose title stops order (Section 4.407).

§ 3.802. Effect of Instrument on Obligation for Which It Is Given

(a) Unless otherwise agreed where an instrument is taken for an underlying obligation

(1) the obligation is pro tanto discharged if a bank is drawer, maker or acceptor of the instrument and there is no recourse on the instrument against the underlying obligor; and

(2) in any other case the obligation is suspended pro tanto until the instrument is due or if it is payable on demand until its presentment. If the instrument is dishonored action may be maintained on either the instrument or the obligation; discharge of the underlying obligor on the instrument also discharges him on the obligation.

(b) The taking in good faith of a check which is not postdated does not of itself so extend the time on the original obligation as to discharge a surety.

§ 3.803. Notice to Third Party

Where a defendant is sued for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over under this chapter he may give the third person written notice of the litigation, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over to him under this chapter. If the notice states that the person notified may come in and defend and that if the person notified does not do so he will in any action against him by the person giving the notice be bound by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless after reasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend he is so bound.

§ 3.804. Lost, Destroyed or Stolen Instruments

The owner of an instrument which is lost, whether by destruction, theft or otherwise, may maintain an action in his own name and recover from any party liable thereon upon due proof of his ownership, the facts which prevent his production of the instrument and its terms. The court may require security indemnifying the defendant against loss by reason of further claims on the instrument.

§ 3.805. Instruments Not Payable to Order or toBearer

This chapter applies to any instrument whose terms do not preclude transfer and which is otherwise negotiable within this chapter but which is not payable to order or to bearer, except that there can be no holder in due course of such an instrument.

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

§ 4.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Bank Deposits and Collections.

§ 4.102. Applicability

(a) To the extent that items within this chapter are also within the scope of Chapters 3 and 8, they are subject to the provisions of those chapters. In the event of conflict the provisions of this chapter govern those of Chapter 3 but the provisions of Chapter 8 govern those of this chapter.

(b) The liability of a bank for action or non-action with respect to any item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment or collection is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located.

§ 4.103. Variation by Agreement; Measure of Damages; Certain Action Constituting Ordinary Care

(a) The effect of the provisions of this chapter may be varied by agreement except that no agreement can disclaim a bank’s responsibility for its own lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or can limit the measure of damages for such lack or failure; but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which such responsibility is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(b) Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and the like, have the effect of agreements under Subsection (a), whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.

(c) Action or non-action approved by this chapter or pursuant to Federal Reserve regulations or operating letters constitutes the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or non-action consistent with clearing house rules and the like or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this chapter, prima facie constitutes the exercise of ordinary care.

(d) The specification or approval of certain procedures by this chapter does not constitute disapproval of other procedures which may be reasonable under the circumstances.

(e) The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount which could not have been realized by the use of ordinary care, and where there is bad faith it includes other damages, if any, suffered by the party as a proximate consequence.

§ 4.104. Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

(1) “Account” means any account with a bank and includes a checking, time, interest or savings account;

(2) “Afternoon” means the period of a day between noon and midnight;

(3) “Banking day” means that part of any day on which a bank is open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its banking functions;

(4) “Clearing house” means any association of banks or other payors regularly clearing items;

(5) “Customer” means any person having an account with a bank or for whom a bank has agreed to collect items and includes a bank carrying an account with another bank;

(6) “Documentary draft” means any negotiable or non-negotiable draft with accompanying documents, securities or other papers to be delivered against honor of the draft;

(7) “Item” means any instrument for the payment of money even though it is not negotiable but does not include money;

(8) “Midnight deadline” with respect to a bank is midnight on its next banking day following the banking day on which it receives the relevant item or notice or from which the time for taking action commences to run, whichever is later;

(9) “Properly payable” includes the availability of funds for payment at the time of decision to pay or dishonor;

(10) “Settle” means to pay in cash, by clearing house settlement, in a charge or credit or by remittance, or otherwise as instructed. A settlement may be either provisional or final;

(11) “Suspends payments” with respect to a bank means that it has been closed by order of the supervisory authorities, that a public officer has been appointed to take it over or that it ceases or refuses to make payments in the ordinary course of business.

(b) Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

§ 4.105. "Depositary Bank"; "Intermediary Bank"; "Collecting Bank"; "Payor Bank"; "Presenting Bank"; "Remitting Bank"

In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Depositary bank" means the first bank to which an item is transferred for collection even though it is also the payor bank;
2. "Payor bank" means a bank by which an item is payable as drawn or accepted;
3. "Intermediary bank" means any bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depositary or payor bank;
4. "Collecting bank" means any bank handling the item for collection except the payor bank;
5. "Presenting bank" means any bank presenting an item except a payor bank;
6. "Remitting bank" means any payor or intermediary bank remitting for an item.

§ 4.106. Separate Office of a Bank

A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders shall be given under this chapter and under Chapter 3.

§ 4.107. Time of Receipt of Items

(a) For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of two P.M. or later as a cut-off hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.

(b) Any item or deposit of money received on any day after a cut-off hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day.

§ 4.108. Delays

(a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment may, in the case of specific items and with or without the approval of any person involved, waive, modify or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this title for a period not in excess of an additional banking day without discharge of secondary parties and without liability to its transferor or any prior party.

(b) Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this title or by instructions is excused if caused by interruption of communication facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank provided it exercises such diligence as the circumstances require.

§ 4.109. Process of Posting

The "process of posting" means the usual procedure followed by a payor bank in determining to pay an item and in recording the payment including one or more of the following or other steps as determined by the bank:

1. verification of any signature;
2. ascertaining that sufficient funds are available;
3. affixing a "paid" or other stamp;
4. entering a charge or entry to a customer's account;
5. correcting or reversing an entry or erroneous action with respect to the item.

SUBCHAPTER B. COLLECTION OF ITEMS: DEPOSITARY AND COLLECTING BANKS

§ 4.201. Presumption and Duration of Agency Status of Collecting Banks and Provisional Status of Credits; Applicability of Chapter; Item Indorsed "Pay Any Bank"

(a) Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and prior to the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final (Subsection (c) of Section 4.211 and Sections 4.212 and 4.213) the bank is an agent or sub-agent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of indorsement or lack of indorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and valid rights of setoff. When an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment and collection, the relevant provisions of this chapter apply even though action of parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it.

(b) After an item has been indorsed with the words "pay any bank" or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder

1. until the item has been returned to the customer initiating collection; or
2. until the item has been specially indorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank.

(Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.)
§ 4.202. Responsibility for Collection; When Action Seasonable
(a) A collecting bank must use ordinary care in
   (1) presenting an item or sending it for presentment; and
   (2) sending notice of dishonor or non-payment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank's transferor or directly to the depositary bank under Subsection (b) of Section 4.212 after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be; and
   (3) settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement; and
   (4) making or providing for any necessary protest; and
   (5) notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.
(b) A collecting bank taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice or payment acts seasonably; taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may be seasonable but the bank has the burden of so establishing.
(c) Subject to Subsection (a)(1), a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in transit or in the possession of others.

§ 4.203. Effect of Instructions
Subject to the provisions of Chapter 3 concerning conversion of instruments (Section 3.419) and the provisions of both Chapter 3 and this chapter concerning restrictive indorsements only a collecting bank's transferor can give instructions which affect the bank or constitute notice to it and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to such instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 4.204. Methods of Sending and Presenting; Sending Direct to Payor Bank
(a) A collecting bank must send items by reasonably prompt method taking into consideration any relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of such items on hand, and the cost of collection involved and the method generally used by it or others to present such items.
(b) A collecting bank may send
   (1) any item direct to the payor bank;
   (2) any item to any non-bank payor if authorized by its transferor; and
   (3) any item other than documentary drafts to any non-bank payor, if authorized by Federal Reserve regulation or operating letter, clearing house rule or the like.
(c) Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank has requested that presentment be made.

§ 4.205. Supplying Missing Indorsement; No Notice from Prior Indorsement
(a) A depositary bank which has taken an item for collection may supply any indorsement of the customer which is necessary to title unless the item contains the words "payee's indorsement required" or the like. In the absence of such a requirement a statement placed on the item by the depositary bank to the effect that the item was deposited by a customer or credited to his account is effective as the customer's indorsement.
(b) An intermediary bank, or payor bank which is not a depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive indorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor.

§ 4.206. Transfer Between Banks
Any agreed method which identifies the transferor or bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 4.207. Warranties of Customer and Collecting Bank on Transfer or Presentment of Items; Time for Claims
(a) Each customer or collecting bank who obtains payment or acceptance of an item and each prior customer and collecting bank warrants to the payor bank or other payor who in good faith pays or accepts the item that
   (1) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and
   (2) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith
      (A) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or
      (B) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or
      (C) to an acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance provided the acceptance was unauthorized; and
   (3) the item has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith
      (A) to the maker of a note; or
      (B) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawee is also the drawee; or
      (C) to the acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and
      (D) to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.
(b) Each customer and collecting bank who transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to his transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

1. he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and
2. all signatures are genuine or authorized; and
3. the item has not been materially altered; and
4. no defense of any party is good against him; and
5. he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item.

(c) The warranties and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise transferring an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to his transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

1. he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and
2. all signatures are genuine or authorized; and
3. the item has not been materially altered; and
4. no defense of any party is good against him; and
5. he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item.

(d) Each customer and collecting bank who transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item.

(e) The warranties and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise transferring an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to his transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

1. he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and
2. all signatures are genuine or authorized; and
3. the item has not been materially altered; and
4. no defense of any party is good against him; and
5. he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item.
§ 4.211 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(4) if the item is drawn upon or payable by a person other than a bank, a cashier's check, certified check or other bank check or obligation.

(b) If before its midnight deadline the collecting bank properly dishonors a remittance check or authorization to charge on itself or presents or forwards for collection a remittance instrument of or on another bank which is of a kind approved by Subsection (a) or has not been authorized by it, the collecting bank is not liable to prior parties in the event of the dishonor of such check, instrument or authorization.

(c) A settlement for an item by means of a remittance instrument or authorization to charge is or becomes a final settlement as to both the person making and the person receiving the settlement

(1) if the remittance instrument or authorization to charge is of a kind approved by Subsection (a) or has not been authorized by the person receiving the settlement and in either case the person receiving the settlement acts seasonably before its midnight deadline in presenting, forwarding for collection or paying the instrument or authorization,—at the time the remittance instrument or authorization is finally paid by the payor by which it is payable;

(2) if the person receiving the settlement has authorized remittance by a non-bank check or obligation or by a cashier's check remitting bank which is not of a kind approved by Subsection (a)(2),—at the time of the receipt of such remittance check or obligation; or

(3) if in a case not covered by Subdivision (1) or (2) the person receiving the settlement fails to seasonably present, forward for collection, pay or return a remittance instrument or authorization to it to charge before its midnight deadline,—at such midnight deadline.

§ 4.212. Right of Charge-Back or Refund

(a) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and it fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account or obtain refund from its customer for an item in an account with its customer, credit given

(c) A depository bank which is also the payor may charge-back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (Section 4.301).

(d) The right to charge-back is not affected by

(1) prior use of the credit given for the item; or

(2) failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item but any bank so failing remains liable.

(e) A failure to charge-back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(f) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign currency the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund shall be calculated on the basis of the buying sight rate for the foreign currency prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course.

§ 4.213. Final Payment of Item by Payor Bank; When Provisional Debits and Credits Become Final; When Certain Credits Become Available for Withdrawal

(a) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first:

(1) paid the item in cash; or

(2) settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement; or

(3) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith; or

(4) made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing house rule or agreement.

Upon a final payment under Subdivisions (2), (3) or (4) the payor bank shall be accountable for the amount of the item.

(b) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(c) If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final (Subsection (c) of Section 4.211, Subsection (b) of Section 4.213) the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(d) Subject to any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in an account with its customer becomes available for withdrawal as of right
§ 4.214. Insolvency and Preference

(a) Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank, which suspends payment and which item is not finally paid shall be returned by the receiver, trustee or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.

(b) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(c) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events (Subsection (c) of Section 4.211, Subsections (a)(4), (b) and (c) of Section 4.213).

(d) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against such collecting bank.

SUBCHAPTER C. COLLECTION OF ITEMS: PAYOR BANKS

§ 4.301. Deferred Posting; Recovery of Payment by Return of Items; Time of Dishonor

(a) Where an authorized settlement for a demand item (other than a documentary draft) received by a payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter has been made before midnight of the banking day of receipt the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover any payment if before it has made final payment (Subsection (a) of Section 4.213) and before its midnight deadline it

(1) returns the item; or

(2) sends written notice of dishonor or non-payment if the item is held for protest or is otherwise unavailable for return.

(b) If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books it may return such item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in the preceding subsection.

(c) Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent an item is dishonored at the time when for purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent in accordance with this section.

(d) An item is returned:

(1) as to an item received through a clearing house, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearing house or is sent or delivered in accordance with its rules; or

(2) in all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to his instructions.

§ 4.302. Payor Bank's Responsibility for Late Return of Item

In the absence of a valid defense such as breach of a presentment warranty (Subsection (a) of Section 4.207), settlement effected or the like, if an item is presented on and received by a payor bank the bank is accountable for the amount of

(1) a demand item other than a documentary draft whether properly payable or not if the bank, in any case where it is not also the depositary bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, regardless of whether it is also the depositary bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline; or

(2) any other properly payable item unless within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.

§ 4.303. When Items Subject to Notice, Stop-Order, Legal Process or Setoff; Order in Which Items May Be Charged or Certified

(a) Any knowledge, notice or stop-order received by, legal process served upon or setoff exercised by a payor bank, whether or not effective under other rules of law to terminate, suspend or modify the bank's right or duty to pay an item or to charge its customer's account for the item, comes too late to so terminate, suspend or modify such right or duty if the knowledge, notice, stop-order or legal process is received or served and a reasonable time for the bank to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the bank has done any of the following:

(1) accepted or certified the item;

(2) paid the item in cash;

(3) settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement;

(4) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith or otherwise has evidenced by examination of such indicated account and by action its decision to pay the item; or
§ 4.401. When Bank May Charge Customer’s Account
(a) As against its customer, a bank may charge against his account any item which is otherwise properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft.
(b) A bank which in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to
1. the original tenor of his altered item; or
2. the tenor of his completed item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper.

§ 4.402. Bank’s Liability to Customer for Wrongful Dishonor
A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. When the dishonor occurs through mistake, liability is limited to actual damages proved. If so proximately caused and proved damages may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case.

§ 4.403. Customer’s Right to Stop Payment; Burden of Proof of Loss
(a) A customer may by order to his bank stop payment of any item payable for his account but the order must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to any action by the bank with respect to the item described in Section 4.303.
(b) An order is binding upon the bank only if it is in writing, dated, signed, and describes the item with certainty. An order is effective for only six months unless renewed in writing.
(c) The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop payment order is on the customer.

§ 4.404. Bank Not Obligated to Pay Check More Than Six Months Old
A bank is under no obligation to a customer having a checking account to pay a check, other than a certified check, which is presented more than six months after its date, but it may charge its customer’s account for a payment made thereafter in good faith.

§ 4.405. Death or Incompetence of Customer
(a) A payor or collecting bank’s authority to accept, pay or collect an item or to account for proceeds of its collection if otherwise effective is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an adjudication of incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes such authority to accept, pay or collect an item,

(b) Even with knowledge a bank may for ten days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or prior to that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account.

§ 4.406. Customer’s Duty to Discover and Report Unauthorized Signature or Alteration
(a) When a bank sends to its customer a statement of account accompanied by items paid in good faith in support of the debit entries or holds the statement and items pursuant to a request or instructions of its customer or otherwise in a reasonable manner makes the statement and items available to the customer, the customer must exercise reasonable care and promptness to examine the statement and items to discover his unauthorized signature or any alteration on an item and must notify the bank promptly after discovery thereof.
(b) If the bank establishes that the customer failed with respect to an item to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by Subsection (a) the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank

1. his unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item if the bank also establishes that it suffered a loss by reason of such failure; and
2. an unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrongdoer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank after the first item and statement was available to the customer for a reasonable period not exceeding fourteen calendar days and before the bank receives notification from the customer of any such unauthorized signature or alteration.
(c) The preclusion under Subsection (b) does not apply if the customer establishes lack of ordinary care on the part of the bank in paying the item(s).
(d) Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank a customer who does not within one year from the time the statement and items are made available to the customer (Subsection (a)) discover and report his unauthorized signature or any alteration on the face or back of the item or does not within three years from that time discover and report any unauthorized indorsement is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or indorsement or such alteration.
§ 4.407. Payor Bank's Right to Subrogation on Improper Payment

If a payor bank has paid an item over the stop payment order of the drawer or maker or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank shall be subrogated to the rights

(1) of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker; and

(2) of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose; and

(3) of the drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose.

SUBCHAPTER E. COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS

§ 4.501. Handling of Documentary Drafts; Duty to Send for Presentment and to Notify Customer of Dishonor

A bank which takes a documentary draft for collection must present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and upon learning that its efforts have not been paid or accepted in due course must seasonably notify its customer of such fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right.

§ 4.502. Presentment of "On Arrival" Drafts

When a draft or the relevant instructions require presentment "on arrival", "when goods arrive" or the like, the collecting bank need not present until in its judgment a reasonable time for arrival of the goods has expired. Refusal to pay or accept because the goods have not arrived is not dishonor; the bank must notify its transferee or such refusal but need not present the draft again until it is instructed to do so or learns of the arrival of the goods.

§ 4.503. Responsibility of Presenting Bank for Documents and Goods; Report of Reasons for Dishonor; Referee in Case of Need

Unless otherwise instructed and except as provided in Chapter 5 a bank presenting a documentary draft

(1) must deliver the documents to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment; and

(2) upon dishonor, either in the case of presentment for acceptance or presentment for payment, may seek and follow instructions from any referee in case of need designated in the draft or if the presenting bank does not choose to utilize his services it must use diligence and good faith to ascertain the reason for dishonor, must notify its transferee of the dishonor and of the results of its effort to ascertain the reasons therefor and must request instructions.

But the presenting bank is under no obligation with respect to goods represented by the documents except to follow any reasonable instructions seasonably received; it has a right to reimbursement for any expense incurred in following instructions and to prepayment of or indemnity for such expenses.

§ 4.504. Privilege of Presenting Bank to Deal With Goods; Security Interest for Expenses

(a) A presenting bank which, following the dishonor of a documentary draft, has seasonably requested instructions but does not receive them within a reasonable time may store, sell, or otherwise deal with the goods in any reasonable manner.

(b) For its reasonable expenses incurred by action under Subsection (a) the presenting bank has a lien upon the goods or their proceeds, which may be foreclosed in the same manner as an unpaid seller's lien.

CHAPTER 5. LETTERS OF CREDIT

§ 5.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Letters of Credit.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]
§ 5.102. Scope
(a) This chapter applies

(1) to a credit issued by a bank if the credit requires a documentary draft or a documentary demand for payment; and

(2) to a credit issued by a person other than a bank if the credit requires that the draft or demand for payment be accompanied by a document of title; and

(3) to a credit issued by a bank or other person if the credit is not within Subdivision (1) or (2) but conspicuously states that it is a letter of credit or is conspicuously so entitled.

(b) Unless the engagement meets the requirements of Subsection (a), this chapter does not apply to engagements to make advances or to honor drafts or demands for payment, to authorities to pay or purchase, to guarantees or to general agreements.

(c) This chapter deals with some but not all of the rules and concepts of letters of credit as such rules or concepts have developed prior to this title or may hereafter develop. The fact that this chapter states a rule does not by itself require, imply or negate application of the same or a converse rule to a situation not provided for or to a person not specified by this chapter.

§ 5.103. Definitions
(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

(1) "Credit" or "letter of credit" means an engagement by a bank or other person made at the request of a customer and of a kind within the scope of this chapter (Section 5.102) that the issuer will honor drafts or other demands for payment upon compliance with the conditions specified in the credit. A credit may be either revocable or irrevocable. The engagement may be either an agreement to honor or a statement that the bank or other person is authorized to honor.

(2) A "documentary draft" or a "documentary demand for payment" is one honor of which is conditioned upon the presentation of a document or documents. "Document" means any paper including document of title, security, invoice, certificate, notice of default and the like.

(3) An "issuer" is a bank or other person issuing a credit.

(4) A "beneficiary" of a credit is a person who is entitled under its terms to draw or demand payment.

(5) An "advising bank" is a bank which gives notification of the issuance of a credit by another bank.

(6) A "confirming bank" is a bank which engages either that it will itself honor a credit already issued by another bank or that such a credit will be honored by the issuer or a third bank.

(7) A "customer" is a buyer or other person who causes an issuer to issue a credit. The term also includes a bank which procures issuance or confirmation on behalf of that bank's customer.

(b) Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

"Notation Credit". Section 5.108.
"Presenter". Section 5.112(c).

(c) Definitions in other chapters applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

"Accept" or "Acceptance". Section 3.410.
"Contract for sale". Section 2.106.
"Draft". Section 3.104.
"Holder in due course". Section 3.302.
"Midnight deadline". Section 4.104.
"Security". Section 8.102.

(d) In addition, Chapter contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

§ 5.104. Formal Requirements; Signing
(a) Except as otherwise required in Subsection (a)(5) of Section 5.102 on scope, no particular form of phrasing is required for a credit. A credit must be in writing and signed by the issuer and a confirmation must be in writing and signed by the confirming bank. A modification of the terms of a credit or confirmation must be signed by the issuer or confirming bank.

(b) A telegram may be a sufficient signed writing if it identifies its sender by an authorized authentication. The authentication may be in code and the authorized naming of the issuer in an advice of credit is a sufficient signing.

§ 5.105. Consideration
No consideration is necessary to establish a credit or to enlarge or otherwise modify its terms.

§ 5.106. Time and Effect of Establishment of Credit
(a) Unless otherwise agreed a credit is established (1) as regards the customer as soon as a letter of credit is sent to him or the letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance is sent to the beneficiary; and

(2) as regards the beneficiary when he receives a letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed once an irrevocable credit is established as regards the customer it can be modified or revoked only with the consent of the customer and once it is established as regards the beneficiary it can be modified or revoked only with his consent.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed after a revocable credit is established it may be modified or revoked by the issuer without notice to or consent from the customer or beneficiary.

(d) Notwithstanding any modification or revocation of a revocable credit any person authorized to honor or negotiate under the terms of the original credit is entitled to reimbursement for or honor of any draft or demand for payment duly honored or negotiated before receipt of notice of the modification or revocation and the issuer in turn is entitled to reimbursement from its customer.

§ 5.107. Advice of Credit; Confirmation; Error in Statement of Terms

(a) Unless otherwise specified an advising bank by advising a credit issued by another bank does not assume any obligation to honor drafts drawn or demands for payment made under the credit but it does assume obligation for the accuracy of its own statement.

(b) A confirming bank by confirming a credit becomes directly obligated on the credit to the extent of its confirmation as though it were its issuer and acquires the rights of an issuer.

(c) Even though an advising bank incorrectly advises the terms of a credit it has been authorized to advise the credit is established as against the issuer to the extent of its original terms.

(d) Unless otherwise specified the customer bears as against the issuer all risks of transmission and reasonable translation or interpretation of any message relating to a credit.

§ 5.108. "Notation Credit"; Exhaustion of Credit

(a) A credit which specifies that any person purchasing or paying drafts drawn or demands for payment made under it must note the amount of the draft or demand on the letter or advice of credit is a "notation credit".

(b) Under a notation credit

(1) a person paying the beneficiary or purchasing a draft or demand for payment from him acquires a right to honor only if the appropriate notation has been made and by transferring or forwarding for honor the documents under the credit such a person warrants to the issuer that the notation has been made; and

(2) unless the credit or a signed statement that an appropriate notation has been made accompanies the draft or demand for payment the issuer may delay honor until evidence of notation has been procured which is satisfactory to it but its obligation and that of its customer continue for a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days to obtain such evidence.

(c) If the credit is not a notation credit

(1) the issuer may honor complying drafts or demands for payment presented to it in the order in which they are presented and is discharged pro tanto by honor of any such draft or demand;

(2) as between competing good faith purchasers of complying drafts or demands the person first purhasing has priority over a subsequent purchaser even though the latter purchased draft or demand has been first honored.

§ 5.109. Issuer's Obligation to Its Customer

(a) An issuer's obligation to its customer includes good faith and observance of any general banking usage but unless otherwise agreed does not include liability or responsibility

(1) for performance of the underlying contract for sale or other transaction between the customer and the beneficiary; or

(2) for any act or omission of any person other than itself or its own branch or for loss or destruction of a draft, demand or document in transit or in the possession of others; or

(3) based on knowledge or lack of knowledge of any usage of any particular trade.

(b) An issuer must examine documents with care so as to ascertain that on their face they appear to comply with the terms of the credit but unless otherwise agreed assumes no liability or responsibility for the genuineness, falsification or effect of any document which appears on such examination to be regular on its face.

(c) A non-bank issuer is not bound by any banking usage of which it has no knowledge.

§ 5.110. Availability of Credit in Portions; Presenter's Reservation of Lien or Claim

(a) Unless otherwise specified a credit may be used in portions in the discretion of the beneficiary.

(b) Unless otherwise specified a person by presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment under a credit relinquishes upon its honor all claims to the documents and a person by transferring such draft or demand or causing such presentment authorizes such relinquishment. An explicit reservation of claim makes the draft or demand non-complying.

§ 5.111. Warranties on Transfer and Presentment

(a) Unless otherwise agreed the beneficiary by transferring or presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment warrants to all interested parties that the necessary conditions of the credit have been complied with. This is in addition to any warranties arising under Chapters 3, 4, 7 and 8.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed a negotiating, advising, confirming, collecting or issuing bank presenting or transferring a draft or demand for payment under a credit warrants only the matters warranted by a collecting bank under Chapter 4 and any such bank transferring a document warrants only the matters warranted by an intermediary under Chapters 7 and 8.

§ 5.112. Time Allowed for Honor or Rejection; Withholding Honor or Rejection by Consent; "Presenter"

(a) A bank to which a documentary draft or demand for payment is presented under a credit may without dishonor of the draft, demand or credit

(1) defer honor until the close of the third banking day following receipt of the documents; and

(2) further defer honor if the presenter has expressly or impliedly consented thereto.

Failure to honor within the time here specified constitutes dishonor of the draft or demand and of the credit except as otherwise provided in Subsection (d) of Section 5.114 on conditional payment.
§ 5.112 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) Upon dishonor the bank may unless otherwise instructed fulfill its duty to return the draft or demand and the documents by holding them at the disposal of the presenter and sending him an advice to that effect.

c) “Presenter” means any person presenting a draft or demand for payment for honor under a credit even though that person is a confirming bank or other correspondent which is acting under an issuer’s authorization.

§ 5.113. Indemnities

(a) A bank seeking to obtain (whether for itself or another) honor, negotiation or reimbursement under a credit may give an indemnity to induce such honor, negotiation or reimbursement.

(b) An indemnity agreement inducing honor, negotiation or reimbursement

(1) unless otherwise explicitly agreed applies to defects in the documents but not in the goods; and

(2) unless a longer time is explicitly agreed expires at the end of ten business days following receipt of the documents by the ultimate customer unless notice of objection is sent before such expiration date. The ultimate customer may send notice of objection to the person from whom he received the documents and any bank receiving such notice is under a duty to send notice to its transferor before its midnight deadline.

§ 5.114. Issuer’s Duty and Privilege to Honor; Right to Reimbursement

(a) An issuer must honor a draft or demand for payment which complies with the terms of the relevant credit regardless of whether the goods or documents conform to the underlying contract for sale or other contract between the customer and the beneficiary. The issuer is not excused from honor of such a draft or demand by reason of an additional general term that all documents must be satisfactory to the issuer, but an issuer may require that specified documents must be satisfactory to it.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document does not in fact conform to the warranties made on negotiation or transfer of a document of title (Section 7.507) or of a security (Section 8.306) or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction

(1) the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank or other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (Section 3.302) and in an appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated (Section 7.502) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (Section 8.302); and

(2) in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but, a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed an issuer which has duly honored a draft or demand for payment is entitled to immediate reimbursement of any payment made under the credit and to be put in effectively available funds not later than the day before maturity of any acceptance made under the credit.

(d) When a credit provides for payment by the issuer on receipt of notice that the required documents are in the possession of a correspondent or other agent of the issuer

(1) any payment made on receipt of such notice is conditional; and

(2) the issuer may reject documents which do not comply with the credit if it does so within three banking days following its receipt of the documents; and

(3) in the event of such rejection, the issuer is entitled by charge back or otherwise to return of the payment made.

(e) In the case covered by Subsection (d) failure to reject documents within the time specified in Subdivision (2), constitutes acceptance of the documents and makes the payment final in favor of the beneficiary.

§ 5.115. Remedy for Improper Dishonor or Anticipatory Repudiation

(a) When an issuer wrongfully dishonors a draft or demand for payment presented under a credit the person entitled to honor has with respect to any documents the rights of a person in the position of a seller (Section 2.707) and may recover from the issuer the face amount of the draft or demand together with incidental damages under Section 2.710 on seller’s incidental damages and interest but less any amount realized by resale or other use or disposition of the subject matter of the transaction. In the event no resale or other utilization is made the documents, goods or other subject matter involved in the transaction must be turned over to the issuer on payment of judgment.

(b) When an issuer wrongfully cancels or otherwise repudiates a credit before presentment of a draft or demand for payment drawn under it the beneficiary has the rights of a seller after anticipatory repudiation by the buyer under Section 2.610 if he learns of the repudiation in time reasonably to avoid procurement of the required documents. Otherwise the beneficiary has an immediate right of action for wrongful dishonor.

§ 5.116. Transfer and Assignment

(a) The right to draw under a credit can be transferred or assigned only when the credit is expressly designated as transferable or assignable.

(b) Even though the credit specifically states that it is nontransferable or nonassignable the beneficiary may before performance of the conditions of the credit assign his right to proceed. Such an assignment is an assignment of an account under Chapter 9 on Secured Transactions and is governed by that chapter except that
(1) the assignment is ineffective until the letter of credit or advice of credit is delivered to the assignee which delivery constitutes perfection of the security interest under Chapter 9; and

(2) the issuer may honor drafts or demands for payment drawn under the credit until it receives a notification of the assignment signed by the beneficiary which reasonably identifies the credit involved in the assignment and contains a request to pay the assignee; and

(3) after what reasonably appears to be such a notification has been received the issuer may without dishonor refuse to accept or pay even to a person otherwise entitled to honor until the letter of credit or advice of credit is exhibited to the issuer.

c) Except where the beneficiary has effectively assigned his right to draw or his right to proceed, nothing in this section limits his right to transfer or negotiate drafts or demands drawn under the credit. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 998, ch. 400, § 4, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 5.117. Insolvency of Bank Holding Funds for Documentary Credit

(a) Where an issuer or an advising or confirming bank or a bank which has for a customer procured issuance of a credit by another bank becomes insolvent before final payment under the credit and the credit is one to which this chapter is made applicable by Subdivision (1) or (2) of Section 5.102(a) on scope, the receipt or allocation of funds or collateral to the customer or other person for whose account the documents involved.

(b) A transfer of a substantial part of the equipment (Section 9.109) of such an enterprise is a bulk transfer if it is made in connection with a bulk transfer of inventory, but not otherwise.

c) The enterprises subject to this chapter are all those whose principal business is the sale of merchandise from stock, including those who manufacture what they sell.

d) Except as limited by the following section all bulk transfers of goods located within this state are subject to this chapter. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 6.103. Transfers Excepted From This Chapter

The following transfers are not subject to this chapter:

1. Those made to give security for the performance of an obligation;

2. General assignments for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder;

3. Transfers in settlement or realization of a lien or other security interest;

4. Sales by executors, administrators, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or any public officer under judicial process;

5. Sales made in the course of judicial or administrative proceedings for the dissolution or reorganization of a corporation and of which notice is sent to the creditors of the corporation pursuant to order of the court or administrative agency;

6. Transfers to a person maintaining a known place of business in this state who becomes bound to pay the debts of the transferor in full and gives public notice of that fact, and who is solvent after becoming so bound;

7. A transfer to a new business enterprise organized to take over and continue the business, if public notice of the transaction is given and the new enterprise assumes the debts of the transferor and he receives nothing from the transaction except an interest in the new enterprise junior to the claims of creditors;

(8) Transfers of property which are exempt from execution.

Public notice under Subdivision (6) or (7) may be given by publishing once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation where the transferor had its principal place of business in this state an advertisement including the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee and the effective date of the transfer.

§ 6.104. Schedule of Property, List of Creditors

(a) Except as provided with respect to auction sales (Section 6.108), a bulk transfer subject to this chapter is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless:

(1) The transferee requires the transferor to furnish a list of his existing creditors prepared as stated in this section; and

(2) The parties prepare a schedule of the property transferred sufficient to identify it; and

(3) The transferee preserves the list and schedule for six months next following the transfer and permits inspection of either or both and copying therefrom at all reasonable hours by any creditor of the transferor, or files the list and schedule in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which the transferor had its principal place of business in this state.

(b) The list of creditors must be signed and sworn to or affirmed by the transferor or his agent. It must contain the names and business addresses of all creditors of the transferor, with the amounts when known, and also the names of all persons who are known to the transferor to assert claims against him even though such claims are disputed. If the transferor is the obligor of an outstanding issue of bonds, debentures or the like as to which there is an indenture trustee, the list of creditors need include only the name and address of the indenture trustee and the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the issue.

(c) Responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of the list of creditors rests on the transferor, and the transfer is not rendered ineffective by errors or omissions therein unless the transferee is shown to have had knowledge.

§ 6.105. Notice to Creditors

In addition to the requirements of the preceding section, any bulk transfer subject to this chapter except one made by auction sale (Section 6.108) is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless at least ten days before he takes possession of the goods or pays for them, whichever happens first, the transferee gives notice of the transfer in the manner and to the persons hereafter provided (Section 6.107).

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 6.106. Application of the Proceeds

In addition to the requirements of the two preceding sections:

(1) Upon every bulk transfer subject to this chapter for which new consideration becomespayable except those made by sale at auction it is the duty of the transferee to assure that such consideration is applied so far as necessary to pay those debts of the transferor which are either shown on the list furnished by the transferee (Section 6.104) or filed in writing in the place stated in the notice (Section 6.107) within thirty days after the mailing of such notice. This duty of the transferee runs to all the holders of such debts, and may be enforced by any of them for the benefit of all.

(2) If any of said debts are in dispute the necessary sum may be withheld from distribution until the dispute is settled or adjudicated.

(3) If the consideration payable is not enough to pay all of the said debts in full distribution shall be made pro rata.

§ 6.107. The Notice

(a) The notice to creditors (Section 6.105) shall state:

(1) that a bulk transfer is about to be made; and

(2) the names and business addresses of the transferor and transferee, and all other business names and addresses used by the transferor within three years last past so far as known to the transferee; and

(3) whether or not all the debts of the transferor are to be paid in full as they fall due as a result of the transaction, and if so, the address to which creditors should send their bills.

(b) If the debts of the transferor are not to be paid in full as they fall due or if the transferee is in doubt on that point then the notice shall state further:

(1) the location and general description of the property to be transferred and the estimated total of the transferor’s debts;

(2) the address where the schedule of property and list of creditors (Section 6.104) may be inspected;

(3) whether the transfer is to pay existing debts and if so the amount of such debts and to whom owing;

(4) whether the transfer is for new consideration and if so the amount of such consideration and the time and place of payment; and

(5) if for new consideration the time and place where creditors of the transferor are to file their claims.

(c) The notice in any case shall be delivered personally or sent by registered or certified mail to all the persons shown on the list of creditors furnished by the transferee (Section 6.104) and to all other persons who are known to the transferee to hold or assert claims against the transferor.

§ 6.108. Auction Sales; “Auctioneer”

(a) A bulk transfer is subject to this chapter even though it is by sale at auction, but only in the manner and with the results stated in this section.

(b) The transferee shall furnish a list of his creditors and assist in the preparation of a schedule of the property to be sold, both prepared as before stated (Section 6.104).

c) The person or persons other than the transferee or who direct, control or are responsible for the auction are collectively called the "auctioneer". The auctioneer shall:

1. receive and retain the list of creditors and prepare and retain the schedule of property for the period stated in this chapter (Section 6.104);

2. give notice of the auction personally or by registered or certified mail at least ten days before it occurs to all persons shown on the list of creditors and to all other persons who are known to him to hold or assert claims against the transferee; and

3. assure that the net proceeds of the auction are applied as provided in this chapter (Section 6.106).

d) Failure of the auctioneer to perform any of these duties does not affect the validity of the sale or the title of the purchasers, but if the auctioneer knows that the auction constitutes a bulk transfer such failure renders the auctioneer liable to the creditors of the transferee as a class for sums owing to them from the transferee up to but not exceeding the net proceeds of the auction. If the auctioneer consists of several persons their liability is joint and several.

§ 6.109. What Creditors Protected; Credit for Payment to Particular Creditors

(a) The creditors of the transferee mentioned in this chapter are those holding claims based on transactions or events occurring before the bulk transfer, but creditors who become such after notice to creditors is given (Sections 6.106 and 6.107) are not entitled to notice.

(b) Against the aggregate obligation imposed by the provisions of this chapter concerning the application of the proceeds (Section 6.106 and Subsection (c)(3) of 6.108) the transferee or auctioneer is entitled to credit for sums paid to particular creditors of the transferee, not exceeding the sums believed in good faith at the time of the payment to be properly payable to such creditors.

§ 6.110. Subsequent Transfers

When the title of the transferee to property is subject to a defect by reason of his noncompliance with the requirements of this chapter, then:

1. A purchaser of any such property from such transferee who pays no value or who takes with notice of such noncompliance takes subject to such defect, but

2. A purchaser for value in good faith and without such notice takes free of such defect.

§ 6.111. Limitation of Actions and Levies

No action under this chapter shall be brought nor levy made more than six months after the date on which the transferee took possession of the goods unless the transfer has been concealed. If the transfer has been concealed, actions may be brought or levies made within six months after its discovery.

§ 7.101 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL

§ 7.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Documents of Title.

§ 7.102. Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Bailee" means the person who by a warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title acknowledges possession of goods and contracts to deliver them.

2. "Consignee" means the person named in a bill to whom or to whose order the bill promises delivery.

3. "Consignor" means the person named in a bill as the person from whom the goods have been received for shipment.

4. "Delivery order" means a written order to deliver goods directed to a warehouseman, carrier or other person who in the ordinary course of business issues warehouse receipts or bills of lading.

5. "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions in Chapter 1 (Section 1.201).

6. "Goods" means all things which are treated as movable for the purposes of a contract of storage or transportation.

7. "Issuer" means a bailee who issues a document except that in relation to an unaccepted delivery order it means the person who orders the possession of goods to deliver. Issuer includes any person for whom an agent or employee purports to act in issuing a document if the agent or employee has real or apparent authority to issue documents, notwithstanding that the issuer received no goods or that the goods were misdescribed or that in any other respect the agent or employee violated his instructions.

8. "Warehouseman" is a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(b) Other definitions applying to this chapter or to specified subchapters thereof, and the sections in which they appear are:

"Duly negotiate". Section 7.501.

"Person entitled under the document". Section 7.403(d).

(c) Definitions in other chapters applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

"Contract for sale". Section 2.106.

"Overseas". Section 2.233.

"Receipt" of goods. Section 2.103.

(d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

§ 7.103. Relation of Chapter to Treaty, Statute, Tariff, Classification or Regulation

To the extent that any treaty or statute of the United States, regulatory statute of this state or tariff, classification or regulation filed or issued pursuant thereto is applicable, the provisions of this chapter are subject thereto.

§ 7.104. Negotiable and Non-Negotiable Warehouse Receipt, Bill of Lading or Other Document of Title

(a) A warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title is negotiable:

1. if by its terms the goods are to be delivered to bearer or to the order of a named person; or

2. where recognized in overseas trade, if it runs to a named person or assigns.

(b) Any other document is non-negotiable. A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned to a named person is not made negotiable by a provision that the goods are to be delivered only against a written order signed by the same or another named person.

§ 7.105. Construction Against Negative Implication

The omission from either Subchapter B or Subchapter C of this chapter of a provision corresponding to a provision made in the other subchapter does not imply that a corresponding rule of law is not applicable.

SUBCHAPTER B. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

§ 7.201. Who May Issue a Warehouse Receipt; Storage Under Government Bond

(a) A warehouse receipt may be issued by any warehouseman.

(b) Where goods including distilled spirits and agricultural commodities are stored under a statute requiring a bond against withdrawal or a license for the issuance of receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, a receipt issued for the goods has like effect as a warehouse receipt even though issued by a person who is the owner of the goods and is not a warehouseman.

§ 7.202. Form of Warehouse Receipt; Essential Terms; Optional Terms

(a) A warehouse receipt need not be in any particular form.

(b) Unless a warehouse receipt embodies within its written or printed terms each of the following, the warehouseman is liable for damages caused by the omission to a person injured thereby:

1. the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored;

2. the date of issue of the receipt;

3. the consecutive number of the receipt;

4. a statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order;

5. the rate of storage and handling charges, except that where goods are stored under a field warehousing arrangement a statement of that fact is sufficient on a non-negotiable receipt;
§ 7.203. Liability for Non-Receipt or Misdescription

A party to or purchaser for value in good faith of a document of title other than a bill of lading relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods may recover from the issuer damages caused by the non-receipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document conspicuously indicates that the issuer does not know to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

(c) A warehouseman may insert in his receipt any other terms which are not contrary to the provisions of this title and do not impair his obligation of delivery (Section 7.403) or his duty of care (Section 7.204). Any contrary provisions shall be ineffective. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 7.204. Duty of Care; Contractual Limitation of Warehouseman's Liability

(a) A warehouseman is liable for damages for loss of or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful man would exercise under like circumstances but unless otherwise agreed he is not liable for damages which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

(b) Damages may be limited by a term in the warehouse receipt or storage agreement limiting the amount of liability in case of loss or damage, and setting forth a specific liability per article or item, or value per unit of weight, beyond which the warehouseman shall not be liable; provided, however, that such liability may on written request of the bailor at the time of signing such storage agreement or within a reasonable time after receipt of the warehouse receipt be increased on part or all of the goods thereunder, in which event increased rates may be charged based on such increased valuation, but that no such increase shall be permitted contrary to a lawful limitation of liability contained in the warehouseman's tariff, if any. No such limitation is effective with respect to the warehouseman's liability for conversion to his own use.

(c) Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and instituting actions based on the bailment may be included in the warehouse receipt or tariff.

(d) This section does not impair or repeal Texas Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, Articles 5545 and 5546. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 7.205. Title Under Warehouse Receipt Defeated in Certain Cases

A buyer in the ordinary course of business of fungible goods sold and delivered by a warehouseman who is also in the business of buying and selling such goods takes free of any claim under a warehouse receipt even though it has been duly negotiated. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 7.206. Termination of Storage at Warehouseman's Option

(a) A warehouseman may on notifying the person or whose account the goods are held and any other person known to claim an interest in the goods require payment of any charges and removal of the goods from the warehouse at the termination of the period of storage fixed by the document, or, if no period is fixed, within a stated period not less than thirty days after the notification. If the goods are not removed before the date specified in the notification, the warehouseman may sell them in accordance with the provisions of the section on enforcement of a warehouseman's lien (Section 7.210).

(b) If a warehouseman in good faith believes that the goods are about to deteriorate or decline in value to less than the amount of his lien within the time prescribed in Subsection (a) for notification, advertisement and sale, the warehouseman may specify in the notification any reasonable shorter time for removal of the goods and in case the goods are not removed, may sell them at public sale held not less than one week after a single advertisement or posting.

(c) If as a result of a quality or condition of the goods of which the warehouseman had no notice at the time of deposit the goods are a hazard to other property or to the warehouse or to persons, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertisement on reasonable notification to all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. If the warehouseman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell the goods he may dispose of them in any lawful manner and shall incur no liability by reason of such disposition.

(d) The warehouseman must deliver the goods to any person entitled to them under this chapter upon due demand made at any time prior to sale or other disposition under this section.

(e) The warehouseman may satisfy his lien from the proceeds of any sale or disposition under this section but must hold the balance for delivery on the demand of any person to whom he would have been bound to deliver the goods. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]
§ 7.207. Goods Must be Kept Separate; Fungible Goods

(a) Unless the warehouse receipt otherwise provides, a warehouseman must keep separate the goods covered by each receipt so as to permit at all times identification and delivery of those goods except that different lots of fungible goods may be commingled.

(b) Fungible goods so commingled are owned in common by the persons entitled thereto and the warehouseman is severally liable to each owner for that owner’s share. Where because of oversize a mass of fungible goods is insufficient to meet all the receipts which the warehouseman has issued against it, the persons entitled include all holders to whom oversized receipts have been duly negotiated.

§ 7.208. Altered Warehouse Receipts

Where a blank in a negotiable warehouse receipt has been filled in without authority, a purchaser for value would have been valid but is not unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

§ 7.209. Lien of Warehouseman

(a) (1) A warehouseman has a lien against the bailor on the goods covered by a warehouse receipt or on the proceeds thereof in his possession for charges for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges), insurance, labor, or charges present or future in relation to the goods, and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law.

(2) If the person on whose account the goods are held is liable for like charges or expenses in relation to other goods whenever deposited and it is stated in the receipt that a lien is claimed for charges and expenses in relation to other goods, the warehouseman is held liable for such charges and expenses whether or not the other goods have been delivered by the warehouseman. But against a person to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt is duly negotiated a warehouseman's lien is limited to charges in an amount or at a rate specified on the receipt or if no charges are so specified then to a reasonable charge for storage of the goods covered by the receipt subsequent to the date of the receipt.

(b) The warehouseman may also reserve a security interest against the bailor for a maximum amount specified on the receipt for charges other than those specified in Subsection (a), such as for money advanced and interest. Such a security interest is governed by the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9).

(c) A warehouseman’s lien for a security interest under Subsection (b) is effective against any person who so entrusted the bailor with possession of the goods that a pledge of them by him to a good faith purchaser for value would have been valid but is not effective against a person as to whom the document confers no right in the goods covered by it under Section 7.503. However, the warehouseman’s specific lien for charges and expenses under Subsection (a)(1) is effective against any security interest. If the warehouseman learners otherwise perfected security interest owned by a person as to whom the document confers no right in the goods covered by it under Section 7.503 against the goods and fails thereafter to give such secured party (Section 9.105) written notice of the accrued and unpaid charges and expenses at the time when they have accrued for a period of more than 60 days, then the warehouseman’s specific lien under Subsection (a)(1) is effective as against such secured party only with respect to unpaid charges and expenses which have accrued by the end of six months.

(d) A warehouseman loses his lien on any goods which he voluntarily delivers or which he unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b), a warehouseman’s lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods in block or in parcels, at any time or place and on any terms which are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. Such notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the warehouseman is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the warehouseman either sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market thereof, or if he sells at the price current in such market at the time of his sale, or if he has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold, he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to insure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.

(b) A warehouseman’s lien on goods other than goods stored by a merchant in the course of his business may be enforced only as follows:

(1) All persons known to claim an interest in the goods must be notified.

(2) The notification must be delivered in person or sent by registered or certified letter to the last known address of any person to be notified.

(3) The notification must include an itemized statement of the claim, a description of the goods subject to the lien, a demand for payment within a specified time not less than ten days after receipt of the notification, and a conscientious statement that unless the claim is paid within that time the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

(4) The sale must conform to the terms of the notification.

(5) The sale must be held at the nearest suitable place to that where the goods are held or stored.
(6) After the expiration of the time given in the notification, an advertisement of the sale must be published once a week for two weeks consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held. The advertisement must include a description of the goods, the name of the person on whose account they are being held, and the time and place of the sale. The sale must take place at least fifteen days after the first publication. If there is no newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held, the advertisement must be posted at least ten days before the sale in not less than six conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the proposed sale.

(c) Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reason­ of the receipt and this chapter.

(c) Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reason­ of the receipt and this chapter.

(d) The warehouseman may buy at any public sale pursuant to this section.

(e) A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a warehouseman's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the warehouseman with the requirements of this section.

(f) The warehouseman may satisfy his lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on de­ mand to any person to whom he would have been bound to deliver the goods.

(g) The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor.

(h) Where a lien is on goods stored by a merchant in the course of his business the lien may be en­ forced in accordance with either Subsection (a) or (b).

(i) The warehouseman is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for conversion.

SUBCHAPTER C. BILLS OF LADING: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

§ 7.301. Liability for Non-Receipt or Misdescription; "Said to Contain": "Shipper's Load and Count"; Improper Handling

(a) A consignee of a non-negotiable bill who has given value in good faith or a holder to whom a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods, or upon the date therein shown, may recover from the issuer damages caused by the misdating of the bill or the non-receipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document indicates that the issuer does not know whether any part or all of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, as where the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity, or condition or the receipt or description is qualified by "contents or condition of contents of packages unknown", "said to contain", "shipper's weight, load and count" or the like, if such indication be true.

(b) When goods are loaded by an issuer who is a common carrier, the issuer must count the packages of goods if package freight and ascertain the kind and quantity of bulk freight. In such cases "ship­ per's weight, load and count" or other words indicating that the description was made by the shipper are ineffective except as to freight concealed by pack­ ages.

(c) When bulk freight is loaded by a shipper who makes available to the issuer adequate facilities for weighing such freight, an issuer who is a common carrier must ascertain the kind and quantity within a reasonable time after receiving the written request of the shipper to do so. In such cases "ship­ per's weight" or other words of like purport are ineffective.

(d) The issuer may by inserting in the bill the words "shipper's weight, load and count" or other words of like purport indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper; and if such statement be true, the issuer shall not be liable for damages caused by the improper loading. But their omission does not imply liability for such damages.

(e) The shipper shall be deemed to have guaran­ teed to the issuer the accuracy at the time of ship­ ment of the description, marks, labels, number, kind, quantity, condition and weight, as furnished by him; and the shipper shall indemnify the issuer against damage caused by inaccuracies in such particulars. The right of the issuer to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper.

§ 7.302. Through Bills of Lading and Similar Doc­ uments

(a) The issuer of a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons acting as its agents or by connecting carriers is liable to anyone entitled to recover on the document for any breach by such persons or by a connecting carrier of its ob­ liation under the document but to the extent that the bill covers an undertaking to be performed over­ seas or in territory not contiguous to the continental United States or an undertaking including matters other than transportation this liability may be varied by agreement of the parties.

(b) Where goods covered by a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons other than the issuer are received by any such person, he is subject with respect to his own performance while the goods are in his possession to the obligation of the issuer. His obligation is discharged by delivery of the goods to another such person pursuant to the document, and does not include liability for breach by any other such persons or by the issuer.

(c) The issuer of such through bill of lading or other document shall be entitled to recover from the connecting carrier or such other person in possession of the goods when the breach of the obligation under the document occurred, the amount it may be re­ quired to pay to anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor, as may be evidenced by any receipt, judgment, or transcript thereof, and the amount of any expense reasonably incurred by it in defending any action brought by anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor.

§ 7.303. Diversion; Reconsignment; Change of Instructions

(a) Unless the bill of lading otherwise provides, the carrier may deliver the goods to a person or destination other than that stated in the bill or may otherwise dispose of the goods on instructions from

1. the holder of a negotiable bill; or
2. the consignor on a non-negotiable bill notwithstanding contrary instructions from the consignee; or
3. the consignee on a non-negotiable bill in the absence of contrary instructions from the consignor, if the goods have arrived at the billed destination or if the consignee is in possession of the bill; or
4. the consignee on a non-negotiable bill if he is entitled as against the consignor to dispose of them.

(b) Unless such instructions are noted on a negotiable bill of lading, a person to whom the bill is duly negotiated can hold the bailee according to the original terms.

§ 7.304. Bills of Lading in a Set

(a) Except where customary in overseas transportation, a bill of lading must not be issued in a set of parts. The issuer is liable for damages caused by violation of this subsection.

(b) Where a bill of lading is lawfully drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be valid only if the goods have not been delivered against any other part, the whole of the parts constitute one bill.

(c) Where a bill of lading is lawfully issued in a set of parts and different parts are negotiated to different persons, the title of the holder to whom the first due negotiation is made prevails as to both the document and the goods even though any later holder or may have received the goods from the carrier in good faith and discharged the carrier's obligation by surrender of his part.

(d) Any person who negotiates or transfers a single part of a bill of lading drawn in a set is liable to holders of that part as if it were the whole set.

(e) The bailee is obliged to deliver in accordance with Subchapter D of this chapter against the first presented part of a bill of lading lawfully drawn in a set. Such delivery discharges the bailee's obligation on the whole bill.

§ 7.305. Destination Bills

(a) Instead of issuing a bill of lading to the consignor at the place of shipment a carrier may at the request of the consignor procure the bill to be issued at destination or at any other place designated in the request.

(b) Upon request of anyone entitled as against the carrier to control the goods while in transit and on surrender of any outstanding bill of lading or other receipt covering such goods, the issuer may procure a substitute bill to be issued at any place designated in the request.

§ 7.306. Altered Bills of Lading

An unauthorized alteration or filling in of a blank in a bill of lading leaves the bill enforceable according to its original tenor.

§ 7.307. Lien of Carrier

(a) A carrier has a lien on the goods covered by a bill of lading for charges subsequent to the date of its receipt of the goods for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges) and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods incident to their transportation or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law. But against a purchaser for value of a negotiable bill of lading a carrier's lien is limited to charges stated in the bill or the applicable tariffs, or if no charges are stated, then to a reasonable charge.

(b) A lien for charges and expenses under Subsection (a) on goods which the carrier was required by law to receive for transportation is effective against the consignor or any person entitled to the goods unless the carrier had notice that the consignor lacked authority to subject the goods to such charges and expenses. Any other lien under Subsection (a) is effective against the consignor and any person who permitted the bailor to have control or possession of the goods unless the carrier had notice that the bailor lacked such authority.

(c) A carrier loses his lien on any goods which he voluntarily delivers or which he unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

§ 7.308. Enforcement of Carrier's Lien

(a) A carrier's lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods, in bulk or in parcels, at any time or place and on any terms which are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. Such notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the carrier is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the carrier either sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market thereafter or if he sells at the price current in such market at the time of his sale or if he has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to ensure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.

(b) Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred under this section. In that event the goods must not be sold, but must be
7.402. Duplicate Receipt or Bill; Overissue

Neither a duplicate nor any other document of title purporting to cover goods already represented by an outstanding document of the same issuer confers any right in the goods, except as provided in the case of bills in a set, overissue of documents for fungible goods substitutes for lost, stolen or destroyed documents. But the issuer is liable for damages caused by his overissue or failure to identify a duplicate document as such by conspicuous notation on its face.

§ 7.403. Obligation of Warehouseman or Carrier to Deliver; Excuse

(a) The bailee must deliver the goods to a person entitled under the document who complies with Subsections (b) and (c), unless and to the extent that the bailee establishes any of the following:

(1) delivery of the goods to a person whose receipt was rightful as against the claimant;

(2) damage to or delay, loss or destruction of the goods for which the bailee is not liable, but the burden of establishing negligence in case of damage or destruction by fire is on the person entitled under the document;

(3) previous sale or other disposition of the goods in lawful enforcement of a lien or on warehouseman's lawful termination of storage;

(4) the exercise by a seller of his right to stop delivery pursuant to the provisions of the chapter on Sales (Section 2.705);

(5) a diversion, reconsignment or other disposition pursuant to the provisions of this chapter (Section 7.305) or tariff regulating such right;

(6) release, satisfaction or any other fact affording a personal defense against the claimant;

(7) any other lawful excuse.

(b) A person claiming goods covered by a document of title must satisfy the bailee's lien where the bailee so requests or where the bailee is prohibited by law from delivering the goods until the charges are paid.

(c) Unless the person claiming is one against whom the document confers no right under Section 7.505(a), he must surrender for cancellation or notation of partial deliveries any outstanding negotiable document covering the goods, and the bailee must cancel the document or conspicuously note the partial delivery thereon or be liable to any person to whom the document is duly negotiated.

(d) “Person entitled under the document” means holder in the case of a negotiable document, or the person to whom delivery is to be made by the terms of or pursuant to written instructions under a non-negotiable document.

§ 7.404. No Liability for Good Faith Delivery Pursuant to Receipt or Bill
A bailee who in good faith including observance of reasonable commercial standards has received goods and delivered or otherwise disposed of them according to the terms of the document of title or pursuant to this chapter is not liable therefor. This rule applies even though the person from whom he received the goods had no authority to procure the document or to dispose of the goods and even though the person to whom he delivered the goods had no authority to receive them.

SUBCHAPTER E. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER

§ 7.501. Form of Negotiation and Requirements of "Due Negotiation"
(a) A negotiable document of title running to the order of a named person is negotiated by his indorsement and delivery. After his indorsement in blank or to bearer any person can negotiate it by delivery alone.
(b) (1) A negotiable document of title is also negotiated by delivery alone when by its original terms it runs to bearer.
(2) When a document running to the order of a named person is delivered to him the effect is the same as if the document had been negotiated.
(c) Negotiation of a negotiable document of title after it has been indorsed to a specified person requires indorsement by the special indorsee as well as delivery.
(d) A negotiable document of title is "duly negotiated" when it is negotiated in the manner stated in this section to a holder who purchases it in good faith without notice of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person and for value, unless it is established that the negotiation is not in the regular course of business or financing or involves receiving the document in settlement or payment of a money obligation.
(e) Indorsement of a non-negotiable document neither makes it negotiable nor adds to the transferee's rights.
(f) The naming in a negotiable bill of a person to be notified of the arrival of the goods does not limit the negotiability of the bill nor constitute notice to a purchaser thereof of any interest of such person in the goods.

§ 7.502. Rights Acquired by Due Negotiation
(a) Subject to the following section and to the provisions of Section 7.205 on fungible goods, a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:
(1) title to the document;
(2) title to the goods;
(3) all rights accruing under the law of agency or estoppel, including rights to goods delivered to the bailee after the document was issued; and
(4) the direct obligation of the issuer to hold or deliver the goods according to the terms of the document free of any defense or claim by him except those arising under the terms of the document or under this chapter. In the case of a delivery order the bailee's obligation accrues only upon acceptance and the obligation acquired by the holder is that the issuer and any indorser will procure the acceptance of the bailee.
(b) Subject to the following section, title and rights so acquired are not defeated by any stoppage of the goods represented by the document or by surrender of such goods by the bailee, and are not impaired even though the negotiation or any prior negotiation constituted a breach of duty or even though any person has been deprived of possession of the document by misrepresentation, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft or conversion, or even though a previous sale or other transfer of the goods or document has been made to a third person.

§ 7.503. Document of Title to Goods Defeated in Certain Cases
(a) A document of title confers no right in goods against a person who before issuance of the document had a legal interest or a perfected security interest in them and who neither
(1) delivered or entrusted them or any document of title covering them to the bailor or his nominee with actual or apparent authority to ship, store or sell or with power to obtain delivery under this chapter (Section 7.403) or with power of disposition under this title (Sections 2.403 and 9.307) or other statute or rule of law;
(2) acquiesced in the procurement by the bailor or his nominee of any document of title.
(b) Title to goods based upon an unaccepted delivery order is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt or bill of lading covering the goods has been duly negotiated. Such a title may be defeeted under the next section to the same extent as the rights of the issuer or a transferee from the issuer.
(c) Title to goods based upon a bill of lading issued to a freight forwarder is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a bill issued by the freight forwarder is duly negotiated; but delivery by the carrier in accordance with Subchapter D of this chapter pursuant to its own bill of lading discharges the carrier's obligation to delivery.

§ 7.504. Rights Acquired in the Absence of Due Negotiation; Effect of Diversion; Seller's Stoppage of Delivery
(a) A transferee of a document, whether negotiable or non-negotiable, to whom the document has been delivered but not duly negotiated, acquires the title and rights which his transferor had or had actual authority to convey.
(b) In the case of a non-negotiable document, until but not after the bailee receives notification of the transfer, the rights of the transferee may be defeated
§ 7.505. Indorser Not a Guarantor for Other Parties

The indorsement of a document of title issued by a bailee does not make the indorser liable for any default by the bailee or by previous indorsers.

§ 7.506. Delivery Without Indorsement: Right to Compel Indorsement

The transferee of a negotiable document of title has a specifically enforceable right to have his transferee supply any necessary indorsement but the transfer becomes a negotiation only as of the time the indorsement is supplied.

§ 7.507. Warranties on Negotiation or Transfer of Receipt or Bill

Where a person negotiates or transfers a document of title for value otherwise than as a mere intermediary under the next following section, then unless otherwise agreed he warrants to his immediate purchaser only in addition to any warranty made in selling the goods

(1) that the document is genuine; and

(2) that he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair its validity or worth; and

(3) that his negotiation or transfer is rightful and fully effective with respect to the title to the document and the goods it represents.

§ 7.508. Warranties of Collecting Bank as to Documents

A collecting bank or other intermediary known to be entrusted with documents on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against delivery of documents warrants by such delivery of the documents only its own good faith and authority. This rule applies even though the intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim or draft to be collected.

§ 7.509. Receipt or Bill: When Adequate Compliance With Commercial Contract

The question whether a document is adequate to fulfill the obligations of a contract for sale or the conditions of a credit is governed by the chapters on Sales (Chapter 2) and on Letters of Credit (Chapter 5).

SUBCHAPTER F. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 7.601. Lost and Missing Documents

(a) If a document has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a court may order delivery of the goods or issuance of a substitute document and the bailee may without liability to any person comply with such order. If the document was negotiable the claimant must post security approved by the court to indemnify any person who may suffer loss as a result of a non-surrender of the document. If the document was not negotiable, such security may be required at the discretion of the court. The court may also in its discretion order payment of the bailee's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

(b) A bailee who without court order delivers goods to a person claiming under a missing negotiable document is liable to any person injured thereby, and if the delivery is not in good faith becomes liable for conversion. Delivery in good faith is not conversion if made in accordance with a filed classification or tariff or, where no classification or tariff is filed, if the claimant posts security with the bailee in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting to indemnify any person injured by the delivery who files a notice of claim within one year after the delivery.

§ 7.602. Attachment of Goods Covered by a Negotiable Document

Except where the document was originally issued upon delivery of the goods by a person who had no power to dispose of them, no lien attaches by virtue of any judicial process to goods in the possession of a bailee for which a negotiable document of title is outstanding unless the document be first surrendered to the bailee or its negotiation enjoined, and the bailee shall not be compelled to deliver the goods pursuant to process until the document is surrendered to him or impounded by the court. One who purchases the document for value without notice of the process or injunction takes free of the lien imposed by judicial process.

§ 7.603. Conflicting Claims; Interpleader

If more than one person claims title or possession of the goods, the bailee is excused from delivery until he has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claims or to bring an action to compel all claimants to interplead and may compel such interpleader, either in defending an action for non-delivery of the goods, or by original action, whichever is appropriate.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]
§ 8.101  BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE  158

CHAPTER 8. INVESTMENT SECURITIES

SUBCHAPTER A. SHORT TITLE AND GENERAL MATTERS

Section 8.101. Short Title.
This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Investment Securities. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 8.102. Definitions and Index of Definitions
(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

(1) A “security” is an instrument which

(A) is issued in bearer or registered form; and

(B) is of a type commonly dealt in upon securities exchanges or markets or commonly recognized in any area in which it is issued or dealt in as a medium for investment; and

(C) is either one of a class or series or by its terms is divisible into a class or series of instruments; and

(D) evidences a share, participation or other interest in property or in an enterprise or evidences an obligation of the issuer.

(2) A writing which is a security is governed by this chapter and not by Uniform Commercial Code—Commercial Code—Commercial Code—Commercial Code even though it also meets the requirements of that chapter. This chapter does not apply to money.

(3) A security is in “registered form” when it specifies a person entitled to the security or to the rights it evidences and when its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of an issuer or the security so states.

(4) A security is in “bearer form” when it runs to bearer according to its terms and not by reason of any indorsement.

(b) A “subsequent purchaser” is a person who takes other than by original issue.

(c) A “clearing corporation” is a corporation

(1) at least ninety per cent of the capital stock of which is held by or for one or more persons (other than individuals), each of whom (A) is subject to supervision or regulation pursuant to the provisions of federal or state banking laws or state insurance laws, or

(B) is a broker or dealer or investment company registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 \( ^1 \) or the Investment Company Act of 1940 \( ^2 \) or

(C) is a national securities exchange or association registered under a statute of the United States such as the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and none of whom, other than a national securities exchange or association, holds in excess of 20 per cent of the capital stock of such corporation; and

(2) any remaining capital stock of which is held by individuals who have purchased such capital stock at or prior to the time of their taking office as directors of such corporation and who have purchased only so much of such capital stock as may be necessary to permit them to qualify as such directors.

(d) A “custodian bank” is any bank or trust company which is supervised and examined by state or federal authority having supervision over banks and which is acting as custodian for a clearing corporation.

(e) Other definitions applying to this chapter or to specified subchapters thereof and the sections in which they appear are:

“Averse claim”.  Section 8.301.
“Bona fide purchaser”.  Section 8.302.
“Broker”.
“Guarantee of the signature”.
“Intermediary bank”.
“Issuer”.
“Overissue”.

(f) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

§ 8.103. Issuer's Lien

A lien upon a security in favor of an issuer thereof is valid against a purchaser only if the right of the issuer to such lien is noted conspicuously on the security.

§ 8.104. Effect of Overissue; "Overissue"

(a) The provisions of this chapter which validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue or reissue would result in overissue; but

(1) if an identical security which does not constitute an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase and deliver such a security to him against surrender of the security, if any, which he holds; or

(2) if a security is not so available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may recover from the issuer the price he or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest from the date of his demand.

(b) “Overissue” means the issue of securities in excess of the amount which the issuer has corporate power to issue.

§ 8.105. Securities Negotiable; Presumptions

(a) Securities governed by this chapter are negotiable instruments.

(b) In any action on a security

(1) unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on the security or in a necessary indorsement is admitted;

(2) when the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized;

(3) when signatures are admitted or established production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the validity of the security; and

(4) after it is shown that a defense or defect exists the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that he or some person under whom he claims is a person against whom the defense or defect is ineffective (Section 8.202).

though issued with a defect going to its validity is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value and without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of constitutional provisions in which case the security is valid in the hands of a subsequent purchaser for value and without notice of the defect.

(2) The rule of Subdivision (1) applies to an issuer which is a governmental or governmental agency or unit only if either there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in the case of certain unauthorized signatures on issue (Section 8.205), lack of genuineness of a security is a complete defense even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

(d) All other defenses of the issuer including nondelivery and conditional delivery of the security are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken without notice of the particular defense.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of a party to a "when, as and if issued" or a "when distributed" contract to cancel the contract in the event of a material change in the character of the security which is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which such security is to be issued or distributed.

§ 8.203. Staleness as Notice of Defects or Defenses

(a) After an act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for presentation or exchange, a purchaser is charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer.

(1) if the act or event is one requiring the payment of money or the delivery of securities or both on presentation or surrender of the security and such funds or securities are available on the date set for payment or exchange and he takes the security more than one year after that date; and

(2) if the act or event is not covered by Subdivision (1) and he takes the security more than two years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which such performance became due.

(b) A call which has been revoked is not within Subsection (a).

§ 8.204. Effect of Issuer's Restrictions on Transfer

Unless noted conspicuously on the security a restriction on transfer imposed by the issuer even though otherwise lawful is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of it.

§ 8.205. Effect of Unauthorized Signature on Issue

An unauthorized signature placed on a security prior to or in the course of issue is ineffective except that the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value and without notice of the lack of authority if the signing has been done by

(1) an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security or of similar securities or their immediate preparation for signing; or

(2) an employee of the issuer or of any of the foregoing entrusted with responsible handling of the security.

§ 8.206. Completion or Alteration of Instrument

(a) Where a security contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect

(1) any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and

(2) even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of such incorrectness.

(b) A complete security which has been improperly altered even though fraudulently remains enforceable but only according to its original terms.

§ 8.207. Rights of Issuer With Respect to Registered Owners

(a) Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of a security in registered form the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notifications and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for calls, assessments or the like.

§ 8.208. Effect of Signature of Authenticating Trustee, Registrar or Transfer Agent

(a) A person placing his signature upon a security as an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like without certifying to due presentment become a holder in due course.

(1) the security is genuine; and

(2) his own participation in the issue of the security is within his capacity and within the scope of the authorization received by him from the issuer; and

(3) he has reasonable grounds to believe that the security is in the Firm and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed, a person by so placing his signature does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in other respects.

SUBCHAPTER C. PURCHASE

§ 8.301. Rights Acquired by Purchaser; "Adverse Claim"; Title Acquired by Bona Fide Purchaser

(a) Upon delivery of a security the purchaser acquires the rights in the security which his transferor had or had actual authority to convey except that a purchaser who has himself been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the security or who as a prior holder had notice of an adverse claim cannot improve his position by taking from a later bona fide purchaser. "Adverse claim" includes a claim that a transfer was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the security.

(b) A bona fide purchaser in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser also acquires the security free of any adverse claim.

(c) A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.

§ 8.302. "Bona Fide Purchaser"

A "bona fide purchaser" is a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim who takes delivery of a security in bearer form or of one in registered form issued to him or indorsed to him or in blank.

§ 8.303. "Broker"

"Broker" means a person engaged for all or part of his time in the business of buying and selling securities, who in the transaction concerned acts for, or buys a security from or sells a security to a customer. Nothing in this chapter determines the capacity in which a person acts for purposes of any other statute or rule to which such person is subject.

§ 8.304. Notice to Purchaser of Adverse Claims

(a) A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer) has notice of an adverse claim if

(1) the security whether in bearer or registered form has been indorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for some other purpose not involving transfer; or

(2) the security is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor. The mere writing of a name on a security is not such a statement.

(b) The fact that the purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer) has notice that the security is held for a third person or is registered in the name of or indorsed by a fiduciary does not create a duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of the transfer or constitute notice of adverse claims. If, however, the purchaser (excluding an intermediary bank) has knowledge that the proceeds are being used or that the transaction is for the individual benefit of the fiduciary or otherwise in breach of duty, the purchaser is charged with notice of adverse claims.

§ 8.305. Staleness as Notice of Adverse Claims

An act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange does not of itself constitute any notice of adverse claims except in the case of a purchase

(1) after one year from any date set for such presentation or surrender for redemption or exchange; or

(2) after six months from any date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security if funds are available for payment on that date.

§ 8.306. Warranties on Presentment and Transfer

(a) A person who presents a security for registration of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that he is entitled to the registration, payment or exchange. But a purchaser for value without notice of adverse claims who receives a new, reissued or reregistered security on registration of transfer warrants only that he has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature (Section 8.311) in a necessary indorsement.

(b) A person by transferring a security to a purchaser for value warrants only that

(1) his transfer is effective and rightful; and

(2) the security is genuine and has not been materially altered; and

(3) he knows no fact which might impair the validity of the security.

(c) Where a security is delivered by an intermediary known to be entrusted with delivery of the security on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against such delivery, the intermediary by such delivery warrants only his own good faith and authority even though he has purchased or made advances against the claim to be collected against the delivery.

(d) A pledgee or other holder for security who redeems the security received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers that security to a third person makes only the warranties of an intermediary under Subsection (c).

(e) A broker gives to his customer and to the issuer and a purchaser the warranties provided in this section and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warranties given by and in favor of his customer.

§ 8.307. Effect of Delivery Without Indorsement; Right to Compel Indorsement

Where a security in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary indorsement he may become a bona fide purchaser only as of the time the indorsement is supplied, but against the transferee the transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary indorsement supplied.

§ 8.308. Indorsement, How Made; Special Indorsement; Indorser Not a Guarantor; Partial Assignment

(a) An indorsement of a security in registered form is made when an appropriate person sets on it or on a separate document an assignment or transfer of the security or a power to assign or transfer it or when the signature of such person is written without more upon the back of the security.

(b) An indorsement may be in blank or special. An indorsement in blank includes an indorsement to bearer. A special indorsement specifies the person to whom the security is to be transferred, or who has power to transfer it. A holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement.

(c) "An appropriate person" in Subsection (a) means

1. the person specified by the security or by special indorsement to be entitled to the security; or
2. the person so specified is described as a fiduciary but is no longer serving in the described capacity, or either that person or his successor; or
3. where the security or indorsement so specifies more than one person as fiduciaries and one or more are no longer serving in the described capacity, the remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries, whether or not a successor has been appointed or qualified; or
4. where the person so specifies is an individual and is without capacity to act by virtue of death, incompetence, insanity or otherwise; or his executor, administrator, guardian or like fiduciary; or
5. where the security or indorsement so specifies more than one person as tenants by the entirety or with right of survivorship and by reason of death all cannot sign, the survivor or survivors; or
6. a person having power to sign under applicable law or controlling instrument; or
7. to the extent that any of the foregoing persons may act through an agent, his authorized agent.

(d) Unless otherwise agreed the indorser by his indorsement assumes no obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer.

(e) An indorsement purporting to be only of part of a security representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the indorsement.

(f) Whether the person signing is appropriate is determined as of the date of signing and an indorsement by such a person does not become unauthorized for the purposes of this chapter by virtue of any subsequent change of circumstances.

(g) Failure of a fiduciary to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer, does not render his indorsement unauthorized for the purposes of this chapter.

§ 8.310. Indorsement of Security in Bearer Form

An indorsement of a security in bearer form may give notice of adverse claims (Section 8.304) but does not otherwise affect any right to registration the holder may possess.

§ 8.311. Effect of Unauthorized Indorsement

Unless the owner has ratified an unauthorized indorsement or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness

1. he may assert its ineffectiveness against the issuer or any purchaser other than a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims who has in good faith received a new, reissued or re-registered security on registration of transfer; and

2. an issuer who registers the transfer of a security upon the unauthorized indorsement is subject to liability for improper registration (Section 8.404).

§ 8.312. Effect of Guaranteeing Signature or Indorsement

(a) Any person guaranteeing a signature of an indorser of a security warrants that at the time of signing

1. the signature was genuine; and

2. the signer was an appropriate person to indorse (Section 8.308); and

3. the signer had legal capacity to sign. But the guarantor does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the particular transfer.

(b) Any person may guarantee an indorsement of a security and by so doing warrants not only the signature (Subsection (a)) but also the rightfulness of the particular transfer in all respects. But no issuer may require a guarantee of indorsement as a condition to registration of transfer.

(c) The foregoing warranties are made to any person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to such person for any loss resulting from breach of the warranties.

§ 8.313. When Delivery to the Purchaser Occurs; Purchaser's Broker as Holder

(a) Delivery to a purchaser occurs when

1. he or a person designated by him acquires possession of a security; or

2. his broker acquires possession of a security specially indorsed to or issued in the name of the purchaser; or

3. his broker sends him confirmation of the purchase and also by book entry or otherwise identifies a specific security in the broker's possession as belonging to the purchaser; or

4. with respect to an identified security to be delivered while still in the possession of a third person when that person acknowledges that he holds for the purchaser; or

5. appropriate entries on the books of a clearing corporation are made under Section 8.320.
§ 8.316. Purchaser's Right to Requisites for Registration of Transfer on Books

Unless otherwise agreed the transferor must on due demand supply his purchaser with any proof of his authority to transfer or with any other requisite which may be necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of the security but if the transfer is not for value a transferor need not do so unless the purchaser furnishes the necessary expenses. Failure to comply with a demand made within a reasonable time gives the purchaser the right to reject or rescind the transfer.

§ 8.317. Attachment or Levy Upon Security

(a) No attachment or levy upon a security or any share or other interest evidenced thereby which is outstanding shall be valid until the security is actually seized by the officer making the attachment or levy but a security which has been surrendered to the issuer may be attached or levied upon at the source.

(b) A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a security shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in reaching such security or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which cannot readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

§ 8.318. No Conversion by Good Faith Delivery

An agent or bailee who in good faith (including observance of reasonable commercial standards if he is in the business of buying, selling or otherwise dealing with securities) has received securities and sold, pledged or delivered them according to the instructions of his principal is not liable for conversion or for participation in breach of fiduciary duty although the principal had no right to dispose of them.

§ 8.319. Statute of Frauds

A contract for the sale of securities is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless

(1) there is some writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by his authorized agent or broker sufficient to indicate that a contract has been made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price; or

(2) delivery of the security has been accepted or payment has been made but the contract is enforceable under this provision only to the extent of such delivery or payment; or

(3) within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the sale or purchase and sufficient against the sender under Subdivision (1) has been received by the party against whom enforcement is sought and he has failed to send written objection to its contents within ten days after its receipt; or

(4) the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in his pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract was made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price.

§ 8.320. Transfer or Pledge within a Central Depository System

(a) If a security (1) is in the custody of a clearing corporation or of a custodian bank or a nominee of either subject to the instructions of the clearing corporation; and (2) is in bearer form or indorsed in blank by an appropriate person or registered in the name of the clearing corporation or custodian bank or a nominee of either; and (3) is shown on the account of a transferor or pledgor on the books of the clearing corporation; then, in addition to other methods, a transfer or pledge of the security or any interest therein may be effected by the making of appropriate entries on the books of the clearing corporation reducing the account of the transferor or pledgor and increasing the account of the transferee or pledgee by the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged.

(b) Under this section entries may be with respect to like securities or interests therein as a part of a fungible bulk and may refer merely to a quantity of a particular security without reference to the name of the registered owner, certificate or bond number or the like and, in appropriate cases, may be on a net basis taking into account other transfers or pledges of the same security.

(c) A transfer or pledge under this section has the effect of a delivery of a security in bearer form or duly indorsed in blank (Section 8.301) representing the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged. If a pledge or the creation of a security interest is intended, the making of entries has the effect of a taking of delivery by the pledgee or a secured party (Sections 9.304 and 9.305). A transferee or pledgee under this section is a holder.

(d) A transfer or pledge under this section does not constitute a registration of transfer under Subchapter D of this chapter.

(e) That entries made on the books of the clearing corporation as provided in Subsection (a) are not appropriate does not affect the validity or effect of the entries nor the liabilities or obligations of the clearing corporation to any person adversely affected thereby.

SUBCHAPTER D. REGISTRATION

§ 8.401. Duty of Issuer to Register Transfer

(a) Where a security in registered form is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer, the issuer is under a duty to register the transfer as requested if

(1) the security is indorsed by the appropriate person or persons (Section 8.308); and (2) reasonable assurance is given that those indorsements are genuine and effective (Section 8.402); and (3) the issuer has no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (Section 8.403); and (4) any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with; and (5) the transfer in fact rightful or is to a bona fide purchaser.

(b) Where an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer of a security the issuer is also liable to the person presenting it for registration or his principal for loss resulting from any unreasonable delay in registration or from failure or refusal to register the transfer.

§ 8.402. Assurance That Indorsements Are Effective

(a) The issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary indorsement (Section 8.308) is genuine and effective

(1) in all cases, a guarantee of the signature (Subsection (a) of Section 8.312) of the person indorsing; and (2) where the indorsement is by an agent, appropriate assurance of authority to sign; and (3) where the indorsement is by a fiduciary, appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency; and (4) where there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so; and (5) where the indorsement is by a person not covered by any of the foregoing, assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the foregoing.

(b) A “guarantee of the signature” in Subsection (a) means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(c) “Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency” in Subsection (a) means

(1) in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction or supervision of that court or an officer thereof and dated within sixty days before the date of presentation for transfer; or (2) in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of such a document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the issuer to be appropriate.

The issuer may adopt standards with respect to such evidence provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable. The issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to this Subdivision except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency.

(d) The issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section but if it does so and for a purpose other than that specified in Subsection (c)(2) both requires and obtains a copy of a will, trust, indenture, articles of co-partnership, by-laws or other controlling instrument it is charged with notice of all matters contained therein affecting the transfer.

§ 8.403. Limited Duty of Inquiry

(a) An issuer to whom a security is presented for registration is under a duty to inquire into adverse claims if

(1) a written notification of an adverse claim is received at a time and in a manner which affords the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to the issuance of a new, re-issued or re-registered security and the notification identifies the claimant, the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part and provides an address for communications directed to the claimant; or

(2) the issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under Subsection (d) of Section 8.402.

(b) The issuer may discharge any duty of inquiry by any reasonable means, including notifying an adverse claimant by registered or certified mail at the address furnished by him or if there be no such address at his residence or regular place of business that the security has been presented for registration of transfer by a named person, and that the transfer will be registered unless within thirty days from the date of mailing the notification, either

(1) an appropriate restraining order, injunction or other process issues from a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) an indemnity bond sufficient in the issuer’s judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the issuer involved, from any loss which it or they may suffer by complying with the adverse claim is filed with the issuer.

(c) Unless an issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under Subsection (d) of Section 8.402 or receives notification of an adverse claim under Subsection (a) of this section, where a security presented for registration is indorsed by the appropriate person or persons the issuer is under no duty to inquire into adverse claims. In particular

(1) an issuer registering a security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship and thereafter the issuer may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the issuer receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security;

(2) an issuer registering transfer on an indorsement by a fiduciary is not bound to inquire whether the transfer is made in compliance with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and

(3) the issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any court record or file or other recorded or unrecorded document even though the document is in its possession and even though the transfer is made on the indorsement of a fiduciary to the fiduciary himself or to his nominee.

§ 8.404. Liability and Non-Liability for Registration

(a) Except as otherwise provided in any law relating to the collection of taxes, the issuer is not liable to the owner or any other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer of a security if

(1) there were on or with the security the necessary indorsements (Section 8.308); and

(2) the issuer had no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (Section 8.403).

(b) Where an issuer has registered a transfer of a security to a person not entitled to it the issuer on demand must deliver a like security to the true owner unless

(1) the registration was pursuant to Subsection (a); or

(2) the owner is precluded from asserting any claim for registering the transfer under Subsection (a) of the following section; or

(3) such delivery would result in overissue, in which case the issuer’s liability is governed by Section 8.104.

§ 8.405. Lost, Destroyed and Stolen Securities

(a) Where a security has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after he has notice of it and the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving such a notification, the owner is precluded from asserting against the issuer any claim for registering the transfer under the preceding section or any claim to a new security under this section.

(b) Where the owner of a security claims that the security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the issuer must issue a new security in place of the original security if the owner

(1) so requests before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser; and

(2) files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and

(3) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

(c) If, after the issue of the new security, a bona fide purchaser of the original security presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer must register the transfer unless registration would result in overissue, in which event the issuer’s liability is governed by Section 8.104. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, the issuer may recover the new security from the person to whom it was issued or any person taking under him except a bona fide purchaser.

§ 8.406. Duty of Authenticating Trustee, Transfer Agent or Registrar

(a) Where a person acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities

(1) he is under a duty to the suer to exercise good faith and due diligence in performing his functions; and

(2) he has with regard to the particular functions he performs the same obligation to the holder or owner of the security and has the same rights and privileges as the issuer has in regard to those functions.

(b) Notice to an authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other such agent is notice to the issuer with respect to the functions performed by the agent.

§ 9.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Secured Transactions.

§ 9.102. Policy and Subject Matter of Chapter

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 9.104 on excluded transactions, this chapter applies

(1) to any transaction (regardless of its form) which is intended to create a security interest in personal property or fixtures including goods, documents, instruments, general intangibles, chattel paper or accounts; and also

(2) to any sale of accounts or chattel paper.

(b) This chapter applies to security interests created by contract including pledge, assignment, chattel mortgage, chattel trust, trust deed, factor's lien, equipment trust, conditional sale, trust receipt, other lien or title retention contract and lease or consignment intended as security. This chapter does not apply to statutory liens except as provided in Section 9.310.

(c) The application of this chapter to a security interest in a secured obligation is not affected by the fact that the obligation is itself secured by a transaction or interest to which this chapter does not apply. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.103. Perfection of Security Interests in Multiple State Transactions

(a) Documents, instruments and ordinary goods.

(1) This subsection applies to documents and instruments to goods other than those covered by a certificate of title described in Subsection (b), mobile goods described in Subsection (c), and minerals described in Subsection (e).

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of a security interest in collateral are governed by the law of the jurisdiction where the collateral is when the last event occurs on which is based the assertion that the security interest is perfected or unperfected.

(3) If the parties to a transaction creating a purchase money security interest in goods in one jurisdiction understand at the time that the security interest attaches that the goods will be kept in another jurisdiction, then the law of the other jurisdiction governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of the security interest from the time it attaches until 30 days after the debtor receives possession of the goods and thereafter if the goods are taken to the other jurisdiction before the end of the 30-day period.

(4) When collateral is brought into and kept in this state while subject to a security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction from which the collateral was removed, the security interest remains perfected, but if action is required by Subchapter C of this chapter to perfect the security interest,

(A) if the action is not taken before the expiration of the period of perfection in the other jurisdiction or the end of four months after the collateral is brought into this state, whichever period first expires, the security interest becomes unperfected at the end of that period and is thereafter deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after removal;

(B) if the action is taken before the expiration of the period specified in paragraph (A), the security interest continues perfected thereafter;

(C) for the purpose of priority over a buyer of consumer goods (Subsection (b) of Section 9.307), the period of the effectiveness of a filing in the jurisdiction from which the collateral is removed is governed by the rules with respect to perfection in paragraphs (A) and (B).

(b) Certificate of title.

(1) This subsection applies to goods covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of the security interest are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction issuing the certificate until four months after the goods are removed from that jurisdiction and thereafter until the goods are registered in another jurisdiction, but in any event not beyond surrender of the certificate. After the expiration of that period, the goods are not covered by the certificate of title within the meaning of this section.

(3) Except with respect to the rights of a buyer described in the next paragraph, a security interest, perfected in another jurisdiction otherwise than by notation of a certificate of title, in goods brought into this state and thereafter covered by a certificate of title issued by this state is subject to the rules stated in paragraph (4) of Subsection (a).

(4) If goods are brought into this state while a security interest therein is perfected in any manner under the law of the jurisdiction from which the goods are removed and a certificate of title is issued by this state and the certificate does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate, the security interest is subordinate to the rights of a buyer of the goods who is not in the business of selling goods of that kind to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest.

(c) Accounts, general intangibles and mobile goods.

(1) This subsection applies to accounts (other than an account described in Subsection (e) on minerals) and general intangibles and to goods which are mobile and which are of a type normally used in more than one jurisdiction, such as motor vehicles, trailers, rolling stock, airplanes, shipping containers, road building and construction machinery and commercial harvesting machinery and the like, if the goods are equipment or are inventory leased or held for lease by the debtor to others, and are not covered by a certificate of title described in Subsection (b).

(2) The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction in which the debtor is located governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of the security interest.

(3) If, however, the debtor is located in the jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States, and which does not provide for perfection of the security interest by filing or recording in that jurisdiction, the law of the jurisdiction in the United States in which the debtor has its major executive office in the United States governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of the security in-
§ 9.104. Transactions Excluded From Chapter
This chapter does not apply
(1) to a security interest subject to any statute of the United States such as the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920, to the extent that such statute governs the rights of parties to and third parties affected by transactions in particular types of property; or
(2) to a landlord's lien; or
(3) to a lien given by statute or other rule of law for services or materials except as provided in Section 9.310 on priority of such liens; or
(4) to a transfer of a claim for wages, salary or other compensation of an employee; or
(5) to a transfer by a government or governmental subdivision or agency; or
(6) to a sale of accounts or chattel paper as part of a sale of the business out of which they arose, or an assignment of accounts or chattel paper which is for the purpose of collection only, or a transfer of a right to payment under a contract to an assignee who is also to do the performance under the contract or a transfer of a single account to an assignee in whole or partial satisfaction of a preexisting indebtedness; or
(7) to a transfer of an interest or claim in or under any policy of insurance, except as provided with respect to proceeds (Section 9.306) and priorities in proceeds (Section 9.312); or
(8) to a right represented by a judgment (other than a judgment taken on a right to payment which was collateral); or
(9) to any right of set-off; or
(10) except to the extent that provision is made for fixtures in Section 9.313, to the creation or transfer of an interest in or lien on real estate, including a lease or rents thereunder; or
(11) to a transfer in whole or in part of any claim arising out of tort; or
(12) to a transfer of an interest in any deposit account (Subsection (a)(5) of Section 9.105), except as provided with respect to proceeds (Section 9.306) and priorities in proceeds (Section 9.312).

§ 9.105. Definitions and Index of Definitions
(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Account debtor" means the person who owes pay­ment for services or materials except as provided with respect to proceeds (Section 9.306) and priorities in proceeds (Section 9.312).

(2) "Chattel paper" means a writing or writings which evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in or a lease of specific goods, but a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel is not chattel paper. When a transaction is evidenced both by such a security agreement or a lease and by an instrument or a series of instruments, the group of writings taken together constitutes chattel paper; or

(3) "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts and chattel paper which have been sold;

(4) "Debtor" means the person who owes pay­ment or other performance of the obligation secured, whether or not he owns or has rights in the collateral, and includes the seller of accounts or chattel paper. Where the debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, the term "debtor" means the owner of the collateral in any provision of the chapter dealing with the collateral, the obligor in any provision dealing with the obligation, and may include both where the context so requires;

(5) "Deposit account" means a demand, time, savings, passbook or like account maintained through filing. In the alternative, if the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States or Canada and the collateral is accounts or general intangibles for money due or to become due, the security interest may be perfected by notification to the account debtor. As used in this paragraph, "United States" includes its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(4) A debtor shall be deemed located at his place of business if he has one, at his chief executive office if he has more than one place of business, otherwise at his residence. If, however, the debtor is a foreign air carrier under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, it shall be deemed located at the designated office of the agent upon whom service of process may be made on behalf of the foreign air carrier.

(5) A security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction of the location of the debtor is perfected until the expiration of four months after a change of the debtor's location to another jurisdiction, or until perfection would have ceased by the law of the first jurisdiction, whichever period first expires. Unless perfected in the new jurisdiction before the end of that period, it becomes unperfected thereafter and is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after the change.

The rules stated for goods in Subsection (a) apply to a possessory security interest in chattel paper. The rules stated for accounts in Subsection (c) apply to a non-possessory security interest in chattel paper, but the security interest may not be perfected before extraction and which was collateral); or

(e) Minerals.
Perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of a security interest which is created by a debtor who has an interest in minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction and which attaches thereto as extracted, or which attaches to an account resulting from the sale thereof at the wellhead or minehead are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction wherein the wellhead or minehead is located.

§ 9.301 et seq.
 § 9.310 et seq.
with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or like organization, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit;

(6) "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions of Chapter 1 (Section 1.201), and a receipt of the kind described in Subsection (b) of Section 7.201;

(7) "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests;

(8) "Goods" includes all things which are movable at the time the security interest attaches or which are fixtures (Section 9.315), but does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction. "Goods" also includes standing timber which is to be cut and removed under a conveyance or contract for sale, the unborn young of animals, and growing crops;

(9) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument (defined in Section 3.104), or a security (defined in Section 8.102) or any other writing which evidences a right to the payment of money and is not itself a security agreement or lease and is of a type which is in ordinary course of business transferred by delivery with any necessary indorsement or assignment;

(10) "Mortgage" means a consensual interest created by a real estate mortgage, a trust deed on real estate, or the like;

(11) An advance is made "pursuant to commitment" if the secured party has bound himself to make it, whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within his control has relieved or may relieve him from his obligation;

(12) "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest;

(13) "Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations issued under a conveyance or contract are accounts or chattel paper, documents, instruments, and money. All rights to payment earned or unearned under a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel and all rights incident to the charter or contract are accounts.

"Sale". Section 2.106.

(d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

§ 9.106. Definitions: "Account"; "General Intangibles"

"Account" means any right to payment for goods sold or leased or for services rendered which is not evidenced by an instrument or chattel paper, whether or not it has been earned by performance. "General intangibles" means any personal property (including things in action) other than goods, accounts, chattel paper, documents, instruments, and money. All rights to payment earned or unearned under a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel and all rights incident to the charter or contract are accounts.

A security interest is a "purchase money security interest" to the extent that it is

(1) taken or retained by the seller of the collateral to secure all or part of its price; or

(2) taken by a person who by making advances or incurring an obligation gives value to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of collateral if such value is in fact so used.

§ 9.108. When After-Acquired Collateral Not Security For Antecedent Debt

Where a secured party makes an advance, incurs an obligation, releases a perfected security interest, or otherwise gives new value which is to be secured in whole or in part by after-acquired property his security interest in the after-acquired collateral shall be deemed to be taken for new value and not as security for an antecedent debt if the debtor acquires his rights in such collateral either in the ordinary course of his business or under a contract of purchase made pursuant to the security agreement within a reasonable time after new value is given.

Goods are

(1) "consumer goods" if they are used or bought for use primarily for personal, family or household purposes;
§ 9.109 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) “equipment” if they are used or bought for use primarily in business (including farming or a profession) or by a debtor who is a non-profit organization or a governmental subdivision or agency or if the goods are not included in the definitions of inventory, farm products or consumer goods;

(3) “farm products” if they are crops or livestock or supplies used or produced in farming operations or if they are products of crops or livestock in their unmanufactured states (such as ginned cotton, wool-clip, maple syrup, milk and eggs), and if they are in the possession of a debtor engaged in raising, fattening, grazing or other farming operations. If goods are farm products they are neither equipment nor inventory;

(4) “inventory” if they are held by a person who holds them for sale or lease or to be furnished under contracts of service or if he has so furnished them, or if they are raw materials, work in process or materials used or consumed in a business. Inventory of a person is not to be classified as his equipment.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.110. Sufficiency of Description

For the purposes of this chapter any description of personal property or real estate is sufficient whether or not it is specific if it reasonably identifies what is described.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.111. Applicability of Bulk Transfer Laws

The creation of a security interest is not a bulk transfer under Chapter 6 (see Section 6.103).

§ 9.112. Where Collateral is Not Owned by Debtor

Unless otherwise agreed, when a secured party knows that collateral is owned by a person who is not the debtor, the owner of the collateral is entitled to receive from the secured party any surplus under Section 9.502(b) or under Section 9.504(a), and is not liable for the debt or for any deficiency after resale, and he has the same right as the debtor

(1) to receive statements under Section 9.208;

(2) to receive notice of and to object to a secured party’s proposal to retain the collateral in satisfaction of the indebtedness under Section 9.505;

(3) to redeem the collateral under Section 9.506;

(4) to obtain injunctive or other relief under Section 9.507(a); and

(5) to recover losses caused to him under Section 9.208(b).

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.113. Security Interests Arising Under Chapter on Sales

A security interest arising solely under the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2) is subject to the provisions of this chapter except that to the extent that and so long as the debtor does not have or does not lawfully obtain possession of the goods

(1) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable; and

(2) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

(3) the rights of the secured party on default by the debtor are governed by the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2).

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.114. Consignment

(a) A person who delivers goods under a consignment which is not a security interest and who would be required to file under this chapter by Subsection (c)(3) of Section 2.326 has priority over a secured party who is or becomes a creditor of the consignee and who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the consignee, and also has priority with respect to identifiable cash proceeds received on or before delivery of the goods to a buyer, if

(1) the consignor complies with the filing provision of the chapter on Sales with respect to consignments (Subsection (c)(3) of Section 2.326) before the consignee receives possession of the goods; and

(2) the consignor gives notification in writing to the holder of the security interest if the holder has filed a financing statement covering the same types of goods before the date of the filing made by the consignor; and

(3) the holder of the security interest receives the notification within five years before the consignee receives possession of the goods; and

(4) the notification states that the consignor expects to deliver goods on consignment to the consignee, describing the goods by item or type.

(b) In the case of a consignment which is not a security interest and in which the requirements of the preceding subsection have not been met, a person who delivers goods to another is subordinate to a person who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the debtor.

[Acts 1978, 63rd Leg., p. 999, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

SUBCHAPTER B. VALIDITY OF SECURITY AGREEMENT AND RIGHTS OF PARTIES THEREETO

§ 9.201. General Validity of Security Agreement

Except as otherwise provided by this title a security agreement is effective according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the collateral and against creditors. Nothing in this chapter validates any charge or practice illegal under any statute or regulation thereunder governing usury, small loans, retail installment sales, or the like, or extends the application of any such statute or regulation to any transaction not otherwise subject thereto.

§ 9.202. Title to Collateral Immaterial

Each provision of this chapter with regard to rights, obligations and remedies applies whether title to collateral is in the secured party or in the debtor. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2243, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.203. Attachment and Enforceability of Security Interest; Proceeds, Formal Requisites

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 4.208 on the security interest of a collecting bank and Section 9.115 on a security interest arising under the chapter on Sales, a security interest is not enforceable against the debtor or third parties with respect to the collateral and does not attach unless

(1) the collateral is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to agreement or the debtor has signed a security agreement which contains a description of the collateral and in addition, when the security interest covers crops growing or to be grown or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned; and

(2) value has been given; and

(3) the debtor has rights in the collateral.

(b) A security interest attaches when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the collateral. Attachment occurs as soon as all of the events specified in Subsection (a) have taken place unless explicit agreement postpones the time of attaching.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed a security agreement gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided in Section 9.206.

(d) A transaction, although subject to this chapter, is also subject to Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and in the case of conflict between the provisions of this Chapter and any such statute, the provisions of such statute control. Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect which is specified therein. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2243, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2466, ch. 839, § 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1969; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.204. After-Acquired Property; Future Advances

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b), a security agreement may provide that any or all obligations covered by the security agreement are to be secured by after-acquired collateral.

(b) No security interest attaches under an after-acquired property clause to consumer goods other than accessions (Section 9.314) when given as additional security unless the debtor acquires rights in them within ten days after the secured party gives value.

(c) Obligations covered by a security agreement may include future advances or other value whether or not the advances or value are given pursuant to commitment (Subsection (a) of Section 9.105). [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2243, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.205. Use or Disposition of Collateral Without Accounting Permissible

A security interest is not invalid or fraudulent against creditors by reason of liberty in the debtor to use, commingle or dispose of all or part of the collateral (including returned or repossessed goods) or to collect or compromise accounts or chattel paper, or to accept the return of goods or make repossession, or to use, commingle or dispose of proceeds, or by reason of the failure of the secured party to require the debtor to account for proceeds or replace collateral. This section does not relax the requirements of possession where perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by the secured party or by a bailee. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2243, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.206. Agreement Not to Assert Defenses Against Assignee; Modification of Security Agreement Exists

(a) Subject to any statute or decision which establishes a different rule for buyers or lessees of consumer goods, an agreement by a buyer or lessee that he will not assert against an assignee any claim or defense which he may have against the seller or lessor is enforceable by an assignee who takes his rights, obligations and remedies applies whether title to collateral is in the secured party or in the debtor. A buyer who as part of one transaction signs both a negotiable instrument and a security agreement makes such an agreement.

(b) When a seller retains a purchase money security interest in goods the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2) governs the sale and any disclaimer, limitation or modification of the seller's warranties. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2243, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.207. Rights and Duties When Collateral is in Secured Party's Possession

(a) A secured party must use reasonable care in the custody and preservation of collateral in his possession. In the case of an instrument or chattel paper reasonable care includes taking necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties unless otherwise agreed.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed, when collateral is in the secured party's possession

(1) reasonable expenses (including the cost of any insurance and payment of taxes or other charges) incurred in the custody, preservation, use or operation of the collateral are chargeable to the debtor and are secured by the collateral;

(2) the risk of accidental loss or damage is on the debtor to the extent of any deficiency in any effective insurance coverage;

(3) the secured party may hold as additional security any increase or profits (except money) received from the collateral, but money so received, unless remitted to the debtor, shall be applied in reduction of the secured obligation;

(4) the secured party must keep the collateral identifiable but fungible collateral may be commingled;

(5) the secured party may repledge the collateral upon terms which do not impair the debtor's right to redeem it.
(c) A secured party is liable for any loss caused by his failure to meet any obligation imposed by the preceding subsections but does not lose his security interest.

(d) A secured party may use or operate the collateral for the purpose of preserving the collateral or its value or pursuant to the order of a court of appropriate jurisdiction or, except in the case of consumer goods, in the manner and to the extent provided in the security agreement.

[Arts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.208. Request for Statement of Account or List of Collateral

(a) A debtor may sign a statement indicating what he believes to be the aggregate amount of unpaid indebtedness as of a specified date and may send it to the secured party with a request that the statement be approved or corrected and returned to the debtor. When the security agreement or any other record kept by the secured party identifies the collateral a debtor may similarly request the secured party to approve or correct a list of the collateral.

(b) The secured party must comply with such a request within two weeks after receipt by sending a written correction or approval. If the secured party claims a security interest in all of a particular type of collateral owned by the debtor he may indicate that fact in his reply and need not approve or correct an itemized list of such collateral. If the secured party without reasonable excuse fails to comply he is liable for any loss caused to the debtor thereby; and if the debtor has properly included in his request a good faith statement of the obligation or a list of the collateral or both the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the statement against persons misled by his failure to comply. If he no longer has an interest in the obligation or collateral at the time the request is received he must disclose the name and address of any successor in interest known to him and he is liable for any loss caused to the debtor as a result of failure to disclose. A successor in interest is not subject to this section until a request is received by him.

(c) A debtor is entitled to such a statement once every six months without charge. The secured party may require payment of a charge not exceeding $10 for each additional statement furnished.

SUBCHAPTER C. RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES; perfected and unperfected security interests; rules of priority

§ 9.301. Persons Who Take Priority Over Unperfected Security Interests; Right of "Lien Creditor"

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (b), an unperfected security interest is subordinate to the rights of:

(1) persons entitled to priority under Section 9.312;

(2) a person who becomes a lien creditor before the security interest is perfected;

(3) in the case of goods, instruments, documents, and chattel paper, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee in bulk or other buyer not in ordinary course of business, or is a buyer of farm products in ordinary course of business, to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected;

(4) in the case of accounts and general intangibles, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee to the extent that he gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(b) If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within ten days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral, he takes priority over the rights of a transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

(c) A "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

(d) A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest is perfected takes subject to the security interest only to the extent that it secures advances made before he becomes a lien creditor or within 45 days thereafter or made without knowledge of the lien or pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

§ 9.302. When Filing is Required to Perfect Security Interest; Security Interests to Which Filing Provisions of This Article Do Not Apply

(a) A financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:

(1) a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under Section 9.305;

(2) a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments or documents without delivery under Section 9.304 or in proceeds for a 10 day period under Section 9.306;

(3) a security interest created by an assignment of a beneficial interest in a trust or a decedent’s estate;

(4) a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but notation on a certificate of title is required for goods covered by a statute referred to in Subsection (e)(2); and fixture filing is required for priority over conflicting interests in fixtures to the extent provided in Section 9.313;

(5) an assignment of accounts which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts of the assignor;

(6) a security interest of a collecting bank (Section 4.208) or arising under the Chapter on Sales (see Section 9.113) or covered in Subsection (e) of this Section;

(b) If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within ten days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral, he takes priority over the rights of a transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

(c) A "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

(d) A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest is perfected takes subject to the security interest only to the extent that it secures advances made before he becomes a lien creditor or within 45 days thereafter or made without knowledge of the lien or pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

§ 9.302. When Filing is Required to Perfect Security Interest; Security Interests to Which Filing Provisions of This Article Do Not Apply

(a) A financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:

(1) a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under Section 9.305;

(2) a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments or documents without delivery under Section 9.304 or in proceeds for a 10 day period under Section 9.306;

(3) a security interest created by an assignment of a beneficial interest in a trust or a decedent’s estate;

(4) a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but notation on a certificate of title is required for goods covered by a statute referred to in Subsection (e)(2); and fixture filing is required for priority over conflicting interests in fixtures to the extent provided in Section 9.313;

(5) an assignment of accounts which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts of the assignor;

(6) a security interest of a collecting bank (Section 4.208) or arising under the Chapter on Sales (see Section 9.113) or covered in Subsection (e) of this Section;
§ 9.305. Perfection of Security Interest in Instruments, Documents and Goods Covered by Documents; Perfection by Pervasive Filing; Temporary Perfection Without Filing or Transfer of Possession

(a) A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments (other than instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party’s taking possession, except as provided in Subsections (d) and (e) of this section and Subsections (b) and (c) of Section 9.306 on proceeds.

(b) During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document therefor, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

(c) A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee’s receipt of notification of the secured party’s interest or by filing as to the goods.

(d) A security interest in instruments or negotiable documents is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of 21 days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

(e) A security interest remains perfected for a period of 21 days without filing where a secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument, a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor

(1) makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, manufacturing, processing or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange, but priority between conflicting security interests in the goods is subject to Subsection (c) of Section 9.312; or

(2) delivers the instrument to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal or registration of transfer.

(f) After the 21 day period in Subsections (d) and (e) perfection depends upon compliance with applicable provisions of this chapter.

A security interest in letters of credit and advices of credit (Subsection (b)(1) of Section 5.116), goods, instruments, money, negotiable documents or chattel paper may be perfected by the secured party’s taking possession of the collateral. If such collateral other than goods covered by a negotiable document is held by a bailee, the secured party is deemed to have possession from the time the bailee receives notification of the secured party’s interest. A security interest is perfected by possession from the time possession is taken without relation back and continues only so long as possession is retained, unless otherwise specified in this chapter. The security interest may be otherwise perfected as provided in this chapter before or after the period of possession by the secured party.

(a) "Proceeds" includes whatever is received upon the sale, exchange, collection or other disposition of collateral or proceeds. Insurance payable by reason of loss or damage to the collateral is proceeds, except to the extent that it is payable to a person other than a party to the security agreement. Money, checks, deposit accounts and the like are "cash proceeds."

(b) Except where this chapter otherwise provides, a security interest continues in collateral notwithstanding the sale, exchange or other disposition thereof unless the disposition was authorized by the secured party in the security agreement or otherwise, and also continues in any identifiable proceeds including collections received by the debtor.

(c) The security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the original collateral was perfected but it ceases to be a perfected security interest and becomes unperfected ten days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor unless

(1) a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing in the office or offices where the financing statement has been filed and, if the proceeds are acquired with cash proceeds, the description of collateral in the financing statement indicates the types of property constituting the proceeds; or

(2) a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are identifiable cash proceeds; or

(3) the security interest in the proceeds is perfected before the expiration of the ten day period. Except as provided in this section, a security interest in proceeds can be perfected only by the methods or under the circumstances permitted in this chapter for original collateral of the same type.

(d) In the event of insolvency proceedings instituted by or against a debtor, a secured party with a perfected security interest in proceeds has a perfected security interest only in the following proceeds:

(1) in identifiable non-cash proceeds and in separate deposit accounts containing only proceeds;

(2) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of money which is neither commingled with other money nor deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings;

(3) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of checks and the like which are not deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings; and

(4) in all cash and deposit accounts of the debtor in which proceeds have been commingled with other funds, but the perfected security interest under this Subdivision (4) is:

(A) subject to any right of set-off; and

(B) limited to an amount not greater than the amount of any cash proceeds received by the debtor within ten days before the institution of the insolvency proceedings less the sum of (I) the payments to the secured party on account of cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period and (II) the cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period to which the secured party is entitled under this Subdivision (1) through (3) of this Subsection (d).

(e) If a sale of goods results in an account or chattel paper which is transferred by the seller to a secured party, and if the goods are returned to or are repossessed by the seller or the secured party, the following rules determine priorities:

(1) If the goods were collateral at the time of sale for an indebtedness of the seller which is still unpaid, the original security interest attaches again to the goods and continues as a perfected security interest if it was perfected at the time when the goods were sold. If the security interest was originally perfected by a filing which is still effective, nothing further is required to continue the perfected status; in any other case, the secured party must take possession of the returned or repossessed goods or must file.

(2) An unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is prior to a security interest asserted under Subdivision (1) to the extent that the transferee of the chattel paper was entitled to priority under Section 9.308.

(3) An unpaid transferee of the account has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is subject to a security interest asserted under Subdivision (1).

(4) A security interest of an unpaid transferee asserted under Subdivision (2) or (3) must be perfected for protection against creditors of the transferor and purchasers of the returned or repossessed goods.

(a) A buyer in ordinary course of business (Subdivision (9) of Section 1.201) other than a person buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations takes free of a security interest created by his seller even though the security interest is perfected and even though the buyer knows of its existence.

(b) In the case of consumer goods, a buyer takes free of a security interest even though perfected if he buys without knowledge of the security interest, for value and for his own personal, family or household purposes unless prior to the purchase the secured party has filed a financing statement covering such goods.
(c) A buyer other than a buyer in ordinary course of business (Subsection (a) of this section) takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the purchase, or more than 45 days after the purchase, whichever first occurs, unless made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the purchase and before the expiration of the 45 day period.

§ 9.308. Purchase of Chattel Paper and Instruments

A purchaser of chattel paper or an instrument who gives new value and takes possession of it in the ordinary course of his business has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper or instrument

(1) which is perfected under Section 9.304 (permissive filing and temporary perfection) or under Section 9.306 (perfection as to proceeds) if he acts without knowledge that the specific paper or instrument is subject to a security interest; or

(2) which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest (Section 9.306) even though he knows that the specific paper or instrument is subject to the security interest.

§ 9.309. Protection of Purchasers of Instruments and Documents

Nothing in this chapter limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument (Section 3.302) or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated (Section 7.501) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (Section 8.301) and such holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under this chapter does not constitute notice of the security interest to such holders or purchasers.

§ 9.310. Priority of Certain Liens Arising by Operation of Law

When a person in the ordinary course of his business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a security interest, a lien upon goods in the possession of such person given by statute or rule of law for such materials or services takes priority over a perfected security interest unless the lien is statutory and the statute expressly provides otherwise.

§ 9.311. Alienability of Debtor's Rights: Judicial Process

The debtor's rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred (by way of sale, creation of a security interest, attachment, levy, garnishment or other judicial process) notwithstanding a provision in the security agreement prohibiting any transfer or making the transfer constitute a default.

§ 9.312. Priorities Among Conflicting Security Interests in the Same Collateral

(a) The rules of priority stated in other sections of this subchapter and in the following sections shall govern when applicable: Section 4.208 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; Section 9.103 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; Section 9.114 on consignments.

(b) A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest.

(c) A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if

(1) the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(2) the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory (i) before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party, or (ii) before the beginning of the 21 day period where the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession (Subsection (e) of Section 9.304); and

(3) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(4) the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

(d) A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within ten days thereafter.

(e) In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in Subsections (c) and (d) of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined according to the following rules:

(1) Conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the time a filing is first made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first perfected, whichever is § 9.313. Priority of Security Interests in Fixtures

(a) In this section and in the provisions of Subchapter D of this chapter, referring to fixture filing, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) goods are “fixtures” when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under the real estate law of the state in which the real estate is situated;

(2) a “fixture filing” is the filing in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded of a financing statement covering goods which are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of Subsection (c) of Section 9.402;

(3) a mortgage is a “construction mortgage” to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates.

(b) A security interest under this chapter may be created in goods which are fixtures or may continue in goods which become fixtures, but no security interest exists under this chapter in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(c) This chapter does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures pursuant to real estate law.

(d) A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate where:

(1) the security interest is a purchase money security interest, the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within ten days thereafter, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate; or

(2) the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the security interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate; or

(3) the fixtures are readily removable factory or office machines or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances which are consumer goods, and before the goods become fixtures the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this chapter; or

(4) the conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this chapter.

(e) A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate where:

(1) the encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the security interest or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(2) the debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the debtor’s right terminates, the priority of the security interest continues for a reasonable time.

(f) Notwithstanding Subdivision (1) of Subsection (d) but otherwise subject to Subsections (d) and (e), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage, a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the construction mortgage.

(g) In cases not within the preceding subsections, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real estate who is not the debtor.

(h) When the secured party has priority over all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, he may, on default, subject to the provisions of Subchapter E, remove his collateral from the real estate but he must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the debtor and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

§ 9.314. Accessions

(a) A security interest in goods which attaches before they are installed in or affixed to other goods takes priority as to the goods installed or affixed (called in this section “accessions”) over the claims of all persons to the whole except as stated in Subsection (c) and subject to Section 9.315(a).

(b) A security interest which attaches to goods after they become part of a whole is valid against all persons subsequently acquiring interests in the whole except as stated in Subsection (c) but is invalid against any person with an interest in the whole at the time the security interest attaches to the goods who has not in writing consented to the secur-
§ 9.315. Priority When Goods are Commingled or Processed

(a) If a security interest in goods was perfected and subsequently the goods or a part thereof have become part of a product or mass, the security interest continues in the product or mass if:

1. The goods are so manufactured, processed, assembled or commingled that their identity is lost in the product or mass;

2. A financing statement covering the original goods also covers the product into which the goods have been manufactured, processed or assembled.

In a case to which Subdivision (2) applies, no separate security interest in that part of the original goods which has been manufactured, processed or assembled into the product may be claimed under Section 9.314.

(b) When under Subsection (a) more than one security interest attaches to the product or mass, they rank equally according to the ratio that the cost of the goods to which each interest originally attached bears to the cost of the total product or mass.

§ 9.316. Priority Subject to Subordination

Nothing in this chapter prevents subordination by agreement of any person entitled to priority.

§ 9.317. Secured Party not Obligated on Contract of Debtor

The mere existence of a security interest or authority given to the debtor to dispose of or use collateral does not impose contract or tort liability upon the secured party for the debtor’s acts or omissions.

§ 9.318. Defenses Against Assignee; Modification of Contract After Notification of Assignment; Term Prohibiting Assignment Ineffective; Identification and Proof of Assignment

(a) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims arising out of a sale as provided in Section 9.206 the rights of an assignee are subject to:

1. All the terms of the contract between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim arising therefrom;

2. Any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives notification of the assignment.

(b) So far as the right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance, and notwithstanding notification of the assignment, any modification of or substitution for the contract made in good faith and in accordance with reasonable commercial standards is effective against an assignee unless the account debtor has otherwise agreed but the assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that such modification or substitution is a breach by the assignor.

(c) The account debtor is authorized to pay the assignor until the account debtor receives notification that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably notify the assignor until the account debtor receives notification of which if the account debtor pays the assignor.

(d) A term in any contract between an account debtor and assignor is ineffective if it prohibits assignment of an account or prohibits creation of a security interest in a general intangible for money due or to become due or requires the account debtor’s consent to such assignment or security interest.

§ 9.401. Place of Filing; Erroneous Filing; Removal of Collateral

(a) The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

1. When the collateral is equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or consumer goods, then in the office of the

County Clerk in the county of the debtor’s residence or if the debtor is not a resident of this state then in the office of the County Clerk in the county where the goods are kept, and in addition when the collateral is crops growing or to be grown in the office of the County Clerk in the county where the land is located;

(2) when the collateral is timber to be cut or is minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to Subsection (e) of Section 9.103, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (Section 9.313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also comply with Subsection (e). A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of a security agreement or a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement if the security agreement so provides or if the original has been filed in this state.

(b) A financing statement which otherwise complies with Subsection (a) is sufficient when it is signed by the secured party instead of the debtor if it is filed to perfect a security interest in

(1) collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state, or when the debtor’s location is changed to this state. Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor’s location was changed to this state under such circumstances;

or

(2) proceeds under Section 9.306 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral; or

(3) collateral as to which the filing has lapsed;

or

(4) collateral acquired after a change of name, identity or corporate structure of the debtor (Subsection (g)).

(c) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with Subsection (a):

Name of debtor (or assignor) ________________________________
Address ________________________________
Name of secured party (or assignee) ________________________________
Address ________________________________

1. This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property:
   (Describe) ________________________________

2. (If collateral is crops) The above described crops are growing or are to be grown on:
   (Describe Real Estate) ________________________________

3. (If applicable) The above goods are to become fixtures on (or where appropriate substitute either “The above timber is standing on,” or “The above minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts will be financed at the wellhead or minehead of the well or mine located on ”)
   (Describe Real Estate) ________________________________

4. (If products of collateral are claimed) Product of the Collateral are also covered.
   (use whichever)
   Signature of Debtor (or Assignor) ________________________________

   Signature of Secured Party (or Assignee) ________________________________
(d) A financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party. An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term “financing statement” means the original financing statement and any amendments.

(e) A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to Subsection (e) of Section 9.103, or a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (Section 9.313), must show that it covers this type of collateral, must recite that it is to be filed for record in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real estate, the financing statement must show the name of the record owner.

(f) A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing from the date of its filing for record in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records, and the mortgage is duly recorded. No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

(g) A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or the names of partners. Where the debtor so changes his name or in the case of an organization its name, identity or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective. A security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the change, unless a new appropriate financing statement is filed before the expiration of that time. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of or consents to the transfer.

(h) A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading.

§ 9.403. What Constitutes Filing; Duration of Filing; Effect of Lapsed Filing; Duties of Filing Officer

(a) Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this chapter.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (f) a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the five year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. If a security interest perfected by filing exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of sixty days or until expiration of the five year period, whichever occurs later. Upon lapse the security interest becomes unperfected, unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.

(c) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party within six months prior to the expiration of the five year period specified in Subsection (b). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number and state that the original statement is still effective. A continuation statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with Subsection (b) of Section 9.405, including payment of the required fee. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in Subsection (b) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it immediately if he has retained a microfilm or other photographic record, or in other cases after one year after the lapse. The filing officer shall so arrange matters by physical annexation of financing statements to continuation statements or other related filings, or by other means, that if he physically destroys the financing statements of a period more than five years past, those which have been continued by a continuation statement or which are still effective under Subsection (f) shall be retained.

(d) Except as provided in Subsection (g) a filing officer shall mark each statement with a file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

(e) The uniform fee for filing and indexing and for stamping a copy furnished by the secured party to show the date and place of filing for an original financing statement or for a continuation statement shall be $3.00 if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State and otherwise shall be $6.00, plus in each case, if the financing statement is subject to Subsection (e) of Section
§ 9.402 Business and Commerce Code

9.402, $3.00. The secured party may at his option show a trade name for any person.

(f) A real estate mortgage which is effective as a fixture filing under Subsection (f) of Section 9.402 remains effective as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real estate.

(g) When a financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to Subsection (e) of Section 9.103, or is filed as a fixture filing, it shall be filed for record and the filing officer shall index it under the names of the debtor and any owner of record shown on the financing statement in the same fashion as if they were the mortgagors in a mortgage of the real estate described, and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing of mortgages under the name of the mortgagor, under the name of the secured party as if he were the mortgagor thereunder, or where indexing is by description in the same fashion as if the financing statement were a mortgage of the real estate described.

(h) The filing and other fees paid to the Secretary of State under this chapter shall be deposited in the general revenue fund of the state treasury.

§ 9.405 Assignment of Security Interest: Duties of Filing Officer; Fees

(a) A financing statement covering consumer goods is filed on or after January 1, 1974, then within one month or within ten days following written demand by the debtor after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement which shall be identified by file number. In other cases whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor, for each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with Subsection (b) of Section 9.405, including payment of the required fee. If the affected secured party fails to file such a termination statement as required by this subsection, or to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand therefor he shall be liable to the debtor for $100, and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.

(b) On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement he must note it in the index. If he has received the termination statement in duplicate, he shall return one copy of the termination statement to the secured party stamped to show the time of receipt thereof. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the financing statement, and of any related continuation statement, statement of assignment and statement of release, he may remove the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement, or if he has no such record, he may remove them from the files at any time after one year after receipt of the termination statement.

(c) If the termination statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State, the uniform fee for filing and indexing the termination statement shall be $3.00, and otherwise shall be $6.00.

§ 9.404 Termination statement

(a) If a financing statement covering consumer goods is filed on or after January 1, 1974, then within one month or within ten days following written demand by the debtor after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement which shall be identified by file number. In other cases whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor, for each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with Subsection (b) of Section 9.405, including payment of the required fee. If the affected secured party fails to file such a termination statement as required by this subsection, or to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand therefor he shall be liable to the debtor for $100, and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.

(b) On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement he must note it in the index. If he has received the termination statement in duplicate, he shall return one copy of the termination statement to the secured party stamped to show the time of receipt thereof. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the financing statement, and of any related continuation statement, statement of assignment and statement of release, he may remove the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement, or if he has no such record, he may remove them from the files at any time after one year after receipt of the termination statement.

(c) If the termination statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State, the uniform fee for filing and indexing the termination statement shall be $3.00, and otherwise shall be $6.00.

§ 9.404. Termination statement

(a) If a financing statement covering consumer goods is filed on or after January 1, 1974, then within one month or within ten days following written demand by the debtor after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement which shall be identified by file number. In other cases whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor, for each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by and address of the assignee and containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement, the filing officer shall mark such separate statement with the date and hour of the filing. He shall note the assignment under the name of the assignor as grantor and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing the assignment of a mortgage under the name of the assignee, he shall index the assignment of the financing statement under the name of the assignee. The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment shall be $3.00 if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State and otherwise shall be $6.00. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, an assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture contained in a mortgage effective as a fixture filing (Subsection (f) of Section 9.402) may be made only by an assignment of the mortgage in the manner provided by the law of this state other than this code.

(c) After the disclosure of filing of an assignment under this section, the assignee is the secured party of record.

§ 9.407. Information From Filing Officer

(a) If the person filing any financing statement, termination statement, statement of assignment, or statement of release, furnishes the filing officer a copy thereof, the filing officer shall upon request note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.

(b) Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall issue his certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective financing statement naming a particular debtor and any statement of assignment thereof and if there is, giving the date and hour of filing of each such statement and the names and addresses of each secured party therein. The uniform fee for such a certificate shall be $5.00 if the request for the certificate is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State and otherwise shall be $10.00. Upon request the filing officer shall furnish a copy of any filed financing statement or statement of assignment for a uniform fee of $1.00 per page, at not less than $5.00 per request concerning a debtor.

§ 9.406. Release of Collateral; Duties of Filing Officer; Fees

A secured party of record may by his signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains a description of the collateral being released, the name and address of the debtor, the name and address of the secured party, and the file number of the financing statement. A statement of release signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with Subsection (b) of Section 9.405, including payment of the required fee. Upon presentation of such a statement of release to the filing officer he shall mark the statement with the hour and date of filing and shall note the same upon the margin of the index of the filing of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing and noting such a statement of release shall be $3.00 if the

§ 9.408. Financing Statements Covering Consignor or Leased Goods

A consignor or lessor of goods may file a financing statement using the terms "consignor," "consignee," "lessor," "lessee" or the like instead of the terms specified in Section 9.402. The provisions of this subchapter shall apply as appropriate to such a financing statement but its filing shall not of itself be a factor in determining whether or not the consignment or lease is intended as security (Section 1.201(37)). However, if it is determined for other reasons that the consignment or lease is so intended, a security interest of the consignor or lessor which attaches to the consigned or lease goods is perfected by such filing.

§ 9.409. Prescribed Forms

(a) The Secretary of State may prescribe the forms to be used in making any filing or in requesting any information of the filing officer under this chapter. Where the Secretary of State has prescribed the form and a person fails to use this form, the fee shall be twice that specified in the preceding sections.

(b) The filing and other fees paid to the Secretary of State under this chapter shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund of the State Treasury.

SUBCHAPTER E. DEFAULT

§ 9.501. Default; Procedure When Security Agreement Covers Both Real and Personal Property

(a) When a debtor is in default under a security agreement, a secured party has the rights and remedies provided in this subchapter and except as limited by Subsection (c) those provided in the security agreement. He may reduce his claim to judgment, foreclose or otherwise enforce the security interest by any available judicial procedure. If the collateral is documents the secured party may proceed either as to the documents or as to the goods covered thereby. A secured party in possession has the remedies and duties provided in Section 9.207. The rights and remedies referred to in this subsection are cumulative.

(b) After default, the debtor has the rights and remedies provided in this subchapter, those provided in the security agreement and those provided in Section 9.504. (Subsection (c) of Section 9.504) and Section 9.505 which deal with compulsory disposition of collateral (Subsection (c) of Section 9.504 and Section 9.505) and with respect to redemption of collateral (Section 9.506) but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the fulfillment of these rights and duties is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable:

(1) Subsection (b) of Section 9.502 and Subsection (b) of Section 9.504 insofar as they require accounting for surplus proceeds of collateral;

(2) Subsection (c) of Section 9.504 and Subsection (a) of Section 9.505 which deal with disposition of collateral;

(3) Subsection (b) of Section 9.505 which deals with acceptance of collateral as discharge of obligation;

(4) Section 9.506 which deals with redemption of collateral; and

(5) Subsection (a) of Section 9.507 which deals with the secured party's liability for failure to comply with this subchapter.

(d) If the security agreement covers both real and personal property, the secured party may proceed under this subchapter as to the personal property or he may proceed as to both the real and the personal property in accordance with his rights and remedies in respect of the real property in which case the provisions of this subchapter do not apply.

(e) When a secured party has reduced his claim to judgment the lien of any levy which may be made upon his collateral by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the date of the perfection of the security interest in such collateral. A judicial sale, pursuant to such execution, is a foreclosure of security interest by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section, and the secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this chapter.

(a) When so agreed and in any event on default the secured party is entitled to notify an account debtor or the obligor on an instrument to make payment to him whether or not the assignor was theretofore making collections on the collateral, and also to take control of any proceeds to which he is entitled under Section 9.506.

(b) A secured party who by agreement is entitled to charge back uncollected collateral or otherwise to full or limited recourse against the debtor and who undertakes to collect from the account debtors or obligors must proceed in a commercially reasonable manner and may deduct his reasonable expenses of realization from the collections. If the security agreement secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But, if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides.

§ 9.503. Secured Party's Right to Take Possession After Default

Unless otherwise agreed a secured party has on default the right to take possession of the collateral. In taking possession a secured party may proceed without judicial process if this can be done without breach of the peace or may proceed by action. If the security agreement so provides the secured party may require the debtor to assemble the collateral and make it available to the secured party at a place to be designated by the secured party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Without removal a secured party may render equipment unusable, and may dispose of collateral on the debtor's premises under Section 9.504.

§ 9.504. Secured Party's Right to Dispose of Collateral After Default; Effect of Disposition

(a) A secured party after default may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in § 9.506

Debtor’s Right to Redeem Collateral

At any time before the secured party has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under Section 9.504 or before the obligation has been discharged under Section 9.505(b) the debtor or any other secured party may unless otherwise agreed in writing after default redeem the collateral by tendering fulfillment of all obligations secured by the collateral as well as the expenses reasonably incurred by the secured party in retaking, holding and preparing the collateral for disposition, in arranging for the sale, and to the extent provided in its then condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. Any sale of goods is subject to the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2). The proceeds of disposition shall be applied in the order following to:

(1) the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale or lease, selling, leasing and the like and, to the extent provided for in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the reasonable attorneys’ fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;

(2) the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by the security interest under which the disposition is made;

(3) the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate security interest in the collateral if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. If requested by the secured party, the holder of a subordinate security interest must seasonably furnish reasonable proof of his interest, and unless he does so, the secured party need not comply with his demand.

(c) Disposition of the collateral may be by public or private proceedings and may be made by way of one or more contracts. Sale or other disposition may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable. Unless collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, reasonable notification of the time and place of any public sale or reasonable notification of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the secured party to the debtor. If the debtor has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying his right to notification of sale, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides.

(d) When collateral is disposed of by a secured party after default, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the debtor’s rights therein, discharges the security interest under which it is made and any security interest or lien subordinate thereunto. The purchaser takes free of all such rights and interests even though the secured party fails to comply with the requirements of this subchapter or of any judicial proceedings

(1) in the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if he does not buy in collusion with the secured party, other bidders or the person conducting the sale; or

(2) in any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith.

(e) A person who is liable to a secured party under a guaranty, endorsement, repurchase agreement or the like and who receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party or is subrogated to his rights has thereafter the rights and duties of the secured party. Such a transfer of collateral is not a sale or disposition of the collateral under this chapter.

the agreement and not prohibited by law, his reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses.

Leg., p. 999, ch. 400, § 8, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 9.507. Secured Party's Liability for Failure to Comply With This Subchapter

(a) If it is established that the secured party is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter disposition may be ordered or restrained on appropriate terms and conditions. If the disposition has occurred the debtor or any person entitled to notification or whose security interest has been made known to the secured party prior to the disposition has a right to recover from the secured party any loss caused by a failure to comply with the provisions of this subchapter. If the collateral is consumer goods, the debtor has a right to recover in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus ten per cent of the principal amount of the debt or the time price differential plus ten per cent of the cash price.

(b) The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the secured party either sells the collateral in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or if he sells at the price current in such market at the time of his sale or if he has otherwise sold in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property sold he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. The principles stated in the two preceding sentences with respect to sales also apply as may be appropriate to other types of disposition. A disposition which has been approved in any judicial proceeding or by any bona fide creditors' committee or representative of creditors shall conclusively be deemed to be commercially reasonable, but this sentence does not indicate that any such approval not so approved is not commercially reasonable.

CHAPTER 11. EFFECTIVE DATE AND TRANSITION PROVISIONS—1973 AMENDMENTS

Section
11.101. Effective Date.
11.105. Transition Provision on Change of Place of Filing.
11.106. Required Refilings.
11.108. Presumption That Rule of Law Continues Unchanged.

§ 11.101. Effective Date
This Act 1 (referred to as the "1973 amendments") takes effect on January 1, 1974.

1 Amending §§ 1.105, 1.201(9), and (37), 2.107, 5.116, 9.103 et seq., 35.01 to 35.09; Civil Statistics, art. 680 and repealing art. 6845.

The provisions of Article 10 of the Uniform Commercial Code, as amended, shall continue to apply to the amended code, and for this purpose this code as amended shall be considered one continuous statute.

§ 11.103. Transition to 1973 Amendments—General Rule
Transactions validly entered into after June 30, 1966, and before January 1, 1974, and which were subject to the provisions of this title and which would be subject to the 1973 amendments if they had been entered into on or after January 1, 1974, and the rights, duties and interests flowing from such transactions remain valid on and after the latter date and may be terminated, completed, consummated or enforced as required or permitted by the 1973 amendments. Security interests arising out of such transactions which are perfected when the 1973 amendments become effective shall remain perfected until they lapse as provided in the code as amended, and may be continued as permitted by the code as amended, except as stated in Section 11.105.

§ 11.104. Transition Provision on Change of Requirement of Filing
A security interest for the perfection of which filing or the taking of possession was required under this code and which attached prior to January 1, 1974, but was not perfected shall be deemed perfected on January 1, 1974, if this code as amended permits perfection without filing or authorizes filing in the office or offices where a prior ineffective filing was made.
[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1030, ch. 400, § 6, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 11.105. Transition Provision on Change of Place of Filing
(a) If a financing statement or continuation statement filed prior to January 1, 1974, which shall not have lapsed prior to January 1, 1974, shall remain effective for the period provided in the code before January 1, 1974, but not less than five years after the filing.

(b) With respect to any collateral acquired by the debtor on or after January 1, 1974, any effective financing statement or continuation statement described in this section shall apply only if the filing or filings are in the office or offices that would be appropriate to perfect the security interests in the new collateral under the code with its 1973 amendments.

The effectiveness of any financing statement or continuation statement filed prior to January 1, 1974, may be continued by a continuation statement as permitted by this code with 1973 amendments, except that if this code with 1973 amendments, requires a filing or a filing for record in an office where there was no previous financing statement, a new financing statement conforming to Section 11.-106 shall be filed or filed for record in that office.

(d) If the record of a mortgage of real estate would have been effective as a fixture filing of goods described therein if the 1973 amendments had been in effect on the date of the filing for record of the mortgage, the mortgage shall be deemed effective as a fixture filing as to such goods under Subsection (f) of Section 9.402 of this code, as amended, on January 1, 1974.

§ 11.106. Required Refilings

(a) If a security interest is perfected or has priority when the 1973 amendments take effect as to all persons or as to certain persons without any filing or recording, and if the filing of a financing statement would be required for the perfection or priority of the security interest against those persons under the 1973 amendments, the perfection and priority rights of the security interest continue until January 1, 1977. The perfection will then lapse unless a financing statement is filed as provided in Subsection (d) or unless the security interest is perfected otherwise than by filing.

(b) If a security interest is perfected when the 1973 amendments take effect under a law other than this title which requires no further filing, refiling or recording to continue its perfection, perfection continues until and will lapse on January 1, 1977, unless a financing statement is filed as provided in Subsection (d) or unless the security interest is perfected otherwise than by filing, or unless under Subsection (c) of Section 9.302 the other law continues to govern filing.

(c) If a security interest is perfected by a filing, refiling or recording under a law repealed by this Act which required further filing, refiling or recording to continue its perfection, perfection continues and will lapse on the date provided by the law so repealed for such further filing, refiling or recording unless a financing statement is filed as provided in Subsection (d) or unless the security interest is perfected otherwise than by filing.

(d) A financing statement may be filed within six months before the perfection of a security interest would otherwise lapse. Any such financing statement shall continue to be governed by the law under which the security interest is perfected and the secured party. It must identify the security agreement, statement or notice (however denominated in any statute or other law repealed or modified by this Act), state the office where and the date when the last filing, refiling or recording, if any, was made with respect thereto, and the filing number, if any.

§ 11.107. Transition Provisions as to Priorities

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, this title as it existed before the 1973 amendments took effect shall apply to any questions of priority if the positions of the parties were fixed prior to January 1, 1974. In other cases questions of priority shall be determined by this title with 1973 amendments.

§ 11.108. Presumption That Rule of Law Continues Unchanged

Unless a change in law has clearly been made, the provisions of this title with 1973 amendments shall be deemed declaratory of the meaning of the title.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1030, ch. 400, § 6, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

SUBCHAPTER A. DEFINITIONS AND PROHIBITIONS

§ 15.01. Monopoly Defined

A "monopoly" is a combination or consolidation of two or more corporations effected by

(1) bringing the direction of their affairs under common management or control to create, or where the common management or control
§ 15.01 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

15.01 tends to create, a trust as defined in Section 15.02 of this code; or

(2) one corporation acquiring (in whole or part and whether directly, through trustees, or otherwise) the stock, bonds, franchise or other rights, or physical property of one or more other corporations to prevent or lessen, or where the acquisition tends to prevent or lessen, competition.

§ 15.02. Trust Defined

(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "person" does not include municipal corporation. (No source citation.)

(b) A "trust" is a combination of capital, skill, or acts by two or more persons to

(1) restrict, or tend to restrict, trade, commerce, aids to commerce, the preparation of tangible personal property for market or transportation, or the free pursuit of a lawful business; or

(2) fix, maintain, increase, or reduce the price of tangible personal property, the cost of insurance, or the cost of preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or

(3) prevent or lessen competition in

(A) the manufacture, transportation, sale, or purchase of tangible personal property;

(B) the business of insurance;

(C) aids to commerce; or

(D) preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or

(4) affect, control, or establish the price of tangible personal property, or the cost of transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or

(5) agree

(A) not to sell, dispose of, transport, or prepare tangible personal property for market or transportation, or not to make an insurance contract, at a price below a common standard or figure;

(B) to maintain the price of tangible personal property, the charge for transportation, insurance, or the cost of preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation at a fixed or graded figure;

(C) to affect or maintain the price of tangible personal property or the cost of transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation in order to preclude free competition between or among themselves or others in the sale or transportation of tangible personal property, in the business of transportation or insurance, or in preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or

(D) to pool, combine, or unite an interest they have in the sale or purchase of tangible personal property, or in the charge for transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation, so that the price of the tangible personal property, or charge for transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation, might be in any manner affected; or

(6) regulate, fix, or limit the output of tangible personal property, or the amount of insurance undertaken, or the amount of work performed in preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or

(7) refrain from engaging in business, or from buying or selling tangible personal property, partially or entirely in this state.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 15.03. Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade Defined

(a) It is a conspiracy in restraint of trade for

(1) two or more persons engaged in buying or selling tangible personal property to agree not to buy from or sell to another person tangible personal property;

(2) two or more persons to agree to boycott, or threaten not to buy from or sell to, a person because that person buys from or sells to another person;

(3) two or more persons to agree to boycott, or not to deal with, the tangible personal property of another person; or

(4) an employer and labor union or other organization to agree or combine so that

(A) a person is denied the right to work for an employer because of membership or nonmembership in the labor union or other organization; or

(B) membership or nonmembership in the labor union or other organization is made a condition of obtaining or keeping a job with the employer.

(b) It is not a conspiracy in restraint of trade for

(1) employees to agree to quit their employment, or to refuse to deal with tangible personal property of their immediate employer, unless their refusal to deal with tangible personal property of their immediate employer is intended to induce, or has the effect of inducing, that employer to refrain from buying or otherwise acquiring tangible personal property from a person;

(2) persons to agree to refer for employment a migratory farm worker who works on seasonal crops if the referral is made irrespective of whether or not the worker belongs to a labor union or other organization.

§ 15.04. Monopoly, Trust, and Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade Prohibited; Agreement Violating Prohibition Void

(a) Every monopoly, trust, and conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03 of this code, respectively, is illegal and prohibited.

(b) An agreement violating the prohibition against a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade contained in Subsection (a) of this section is void and unenforceable in law or equity.

§ 15.05. Public Utility Prohibited from Injuring Competition or Discriminating in Rates

(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "utility" means an individual, company, partnership, or corporation in the business of transporting or selling natural gas, electric current and power, telephone or telegraph service, or a similar public utility.

(b) No utility may intentionally prevent or hinder legitimate competition among utilities. No utility doing business in more than one municipality or county may discriminate between or among persons in rates, prices, or kinds of service for the purpose of injuring a competitor or preventing or hindering competition among utilities.

(c) For purposes of this section,

(1) "subsidiary utility" means a utility that is controlled by another individual, company, partnership, or corporation;

(2) "controlling company" means an individual, company, partnership, or corporation that controls a subsidiary utility;

(3) the act of a subsidiary utility is the act of its controlling company and of every other subsidiary utility of that controlling company;

(4) the act of a controlling company is the act of each of its subsidiary utilities; and

(5) the costs of production and transportation shall be considered in determining whether or not discrimination in rates, prices, or kinds of service exists.

(d) A utility's reduction of rates or prices below those required by an ordinance or proposed in a petition is prima facie evidence of an intent to prevent competition or injure a competitor if

(1) a municipality has required by ordinance, or its governing body, a majority of its citizens, or a majority of the residents of a community served by the utility has requested by petition, that the utility lower the rates or prices charged for its services;

(2) the petition proposes rates or prices for the utility to charge which the municipality, its citizens, or the residents believe to be fair and reasonable;

(3) the utility first refuses or fails to reduce its rates or prices;

(4) within 12 months after the refusal or failure another utility begins, or attempts to begin, serving the municipality or community; and

(5) the reduction is made after the other utility began, or attempted to begin, serving the municipality or community.

(e) It is not prima facie evidence of an intent to prevent competition or injure a competitor for a utility to reduce its rates or prices to the level of those charged by the municipality or a competing utility, even though the reduced rates or prices are below those required by the ordinance or requested in the petition.

(f) A utility adjudged guilty of violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section forfeits its charter or articles of incorporation (or permit or certificate of authority) and right to do business in this state. The attorney general on learning of the violation shall file suit, or institute quo warranto proceedings, in a district court in any county in this state to obtain the forfeiture.

§ 15.06. Publication Tying Arrangement Prohibited

(a) No wholesale distributor or news agency, or its agent or employee, may require or demand that a retailer purchase or accept from the wholesale distributor or news agency a particular publication so that the retailer can obtain another publication from the wholesale distributor or news agency.

(b) A wholesale distributor or news agency, or its agent or employee, who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2945, ch. 785, § 1.]

[Sections 15.07 to 15.11 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. PROCEDURE AND EVIDENCE

§ 15.12. Declaratory Judgment Action

(a) A person (other than a foreign corporation not having a permit or certificate of authority to do business in this state) uncertain of whether or not his action or proposed action violates or will violate the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code may file suit against the state for declaratory judgment, citing this section as authority, in one of the Travis County district courts.

(b) Citation and all process in the suit shall be served on the attorney general, who shall represent the state. The petition shall describe in detail the person's action, or proposed action, and all other relevant facts, and the court in its declaratory judgment shall fully recite the action, or proposed action, and other facts considered.

(c) A declaratory judgment granted under this section which rules that action or proposed action does not violate the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code

(1) shall be strictly construed and may not be extended by implication to an action or fact not recited in the judgment;

(2) does not bind the state with reference to a person not a party to the suit in which the judgment was granted; and

(3) does not estop the state from subsequently establishing a violation of the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code based on an action or fact not recited in the declaratory judgment, which action or fact, when combined with an action or fact recited in the judgment, constitutes a violation of the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code.

(d) A person filing suit under this section shall pay all costs of the suit.

§ 15.13. Attorney General's Assistants

An assistant attorney general, county attorney, district attorney, or criminal district attorney acting under the attorney general's direction has the powers and duties of the attorney general set out in Sections 15.14-15.17 of this code.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2943, ch. 785, § 1.]
§ 15.14  Discovery Procedure
(a) If the attorney general believes that a person knows of a violation of the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, he may apply to the county judge or to a justice of the peace in the county where the person is located to compel the examination of the person.

(b) Upon receipt of the application, the county judge or justice of the peace shall
   (1) summon the person as in a criminal case;
   (2) administer an oath to him;
   (3) transcribe his statement;
   (4) have him swear to and sign his statement; and
   (5) deliver his statement to the attorney general.

(c) A person summoned under Subsection (b) of this section is guilty of contempt of court if he fails to
   (1) appear in response to the summons;
   (2) make a sworn statement of the facts he knows; or
   (3) sign his written statement.

(d) A person guilty of contempt under Subsection (c) of this section may be
   (1) fined not more than $100; and
   (2) attached and imprisoned in the county jail for ten days or until he makes a full statement about the facts he knows.

§ 15.15  Party to Suit May Subpoena Witness
(a) A party to a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to enforce the laws regulating corporate associations, may apply to the clerk of the court in which the suit is pending to subpoena a witness located anywhere in the state. On receipt of the application, the clerk shall issue the subpoena applied for but may not issue more than five subpoenas each for state witnesses and defense witnesses without first obtaining the court's written approval.

(b) A witness subpoenaed under Subsection (a) of this section who fails to appear and testify in compliance with the subpoena is guilty of contempt of court and may be
   (1) fined not more than $100; and
   (2) attached and imprisoned in the county jail until he appears in court and testifies about the facts he knows.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 15.16  State May Compel Attendance of Defendant and Production of Documentary Evidence
(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition,
   (1) "witness" includes
      (A) director, officer, agent, and employee of a defendant corporation or joint stock association;
      (B) member of a defendant partnership; and
      (C) individual defendant; and
   (2) "court" includes special commissioner appointed under Section 15.19 of this code.

(b) The attorney general in a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to enforce the laws regulating corporations, may request the appearance and testimony of a witness, and his production of documentary evidence, at a place in or out of the state by written application to the court in term time or vacation.

(c) The attorney general in the application shall
   (1) state the name and address of each witness whose testimony he wishes to take;
   (2) describe in a general way the documentary evidence he wishes produced; and
   (3) state the place where and the time when the witness is to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence.

(d) On receipt of the attorney general's application, the court shall immediately issue a written notice, directed to the witness and defendant or his attorney, requiring the defendant or his attorney to notify the witness of the place where and the time when he is to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence.

(e) A defendant or his attorney notified by written notice issued under Subsection (d) of this section
   (1) that a witness is wanted to testify shall immediately inform the witness of the place where and time when he is required to appear and testify; and
   (2) to produce documentary evidence shall produce the evidence if it belongs to the defendant or is under his control at the place and time specified in the notice.

(f) A witness notified under Subsection (e) of this section shall remain in attendance before the court from day to day until discharged by the court.

§ 15.17  Sanction for Failure to Appear or Produce Documentary Evidence
(a) The court on motion of the attorney general and after a hearing shall strike all of the defendant's pleadings and render default judgment against him if a witness fails or refuses to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence in compliance with a written notice issued under Section 15.16(d) of this code.

(b) A defendant's pleadings may not be stricken, nor default judgment rendered against him, if the defendant
   (1) files with the court a sworn statement that
      (A) a witness's failure or refusal to attend and testify was due to no act or fault of the defendant;
      (B) documentary evidence demanded was not in defendant's possession or control and could not be produced; and
      (C) defendant complied with the written notice to the best of his ability; and
   (2) the court after a hearing is satisfied that the defendant's statement is true.

(c) The court after the hearing provided in Subsection (b)(2) of this section may make additional orders concerning evidence that it considers necessary.

§ 15.18. Service of Written Notice

(a) Written notice issued under Section 15.16(d) of this code must allow the witness named in the notice at least 10 days after the day of service before he is required to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence in compliance with the written notice.

(b) Written notice issued under Section 15.16(d) of this code may be served, and the return completed for it, by a sheriff, constable, or a disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact of service. The person serving the written notice shall deliver a copy to the person to be served, or to his attorney, shall endorse (either on the original notice or on an attachment to it) the date, time, and manner of service and the name of the person served, and shall sign the return. If the person serving the written notice is not a sheriff or constable, he shall swear to the return before someone authorized to administer an oath.

§ 15.19. Special Commissioner Appointed to Take Evidence

(a) A party to a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to enforce the laws regulating corporations, may apply in term time or vacation to the court in which the suit is pending for appointment of a special commissioner to take evidence at a location in or out of the state as designated in the application. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall appoint a disinterested person as special commissioner, who shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office.

(b) A special commissioner appointed under Subsection (a) of this section may

(1) issue
   (A) a written notice under Section 15.16(d) of this code, or a subpoena, to compel the attendance and testimony of a witness or the production of documentary evidence; and
   (B) an attachment for a witness;

(2) punish for contempt of court to the extent provided by law for the court appointing him;

(3) administer an oath to a witness; and

(4) have a witness examined orally and his testimony transcribed, sworn to, and signed by the witness.

(c) The special commissioner shall

(1) note and reserve each objection to the evidence taken for the court hearing the suit and may not exclude evidence;

(2) with all convenient speed certify and return the evidence taken to the court appointing him.

(d) Evidence taken by a special commissioner is admissible in the suit for which it was taken, subject to objection made at the time it is offered in the suit.

(e) When filed with the court appointing him, a special commissioner’s certificate, showing the failure or refusal of a witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence, is prima facie evidence of the failure or refusal.

(f) A special commissioner appointed under Subsection (a) of this section is entitled to be reimbursed for his actual travel expenses and to the fee allowed by law to a notary public for taking a deposition. A special commissioner’s travel expenses and fee are taxed as costs in the suit and collected as in a civil case.

§ 15.20. Immunity of State’s Witness

A person testifying or producing documentary evidence for the state in a discovery procedure under Section 15.14 of this code, in a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or in a suit brought to enforce the laws regulating corporations, is immune from indictment and prosecution for anything about which he truthfully testifies or produces documentary evidence.

§ 15.21. Priority of Civil Suits and Cumulative Effect of Subchapter

(a) A civil suit filed by the state under Section 15.29, 15.30, or 15.32 of this code has priority over all other court business, civil or criminal, except a criminal prosecution in which the defendant is in jail.

(b) The provisions of Sections 15.14 and 15.16—15.20 of this code

(1) are cumulative of and do not repeal other law relating to securing evidence; and

(2) provide additional means of securing evidence to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code and the laws regulating corporations.

§ 15.22. Witness Fees

(a) A witness residing outside the county in which a suit is pending, before he need comply with a subpoena issued under Section 15.15(a) of this code, must be tendered by the party calling him his anticipated expenses, not to exceed four cents a mile and $2 a day, for going to, attending, and returning from court. In the case of a state witness, these expenses shall be paid in the same manner as in a felony case.

(b) A person complying with a written notice or summons issued under Section 15.16(d) or 15.14 of this code, respectively, is entitled to four cents a mile and $1 a day for going to, attending, and returning from court. A person shall file a sworn claim for his mileage and per diem with the court, and the mileage and per diem shall be taxed as costs and collected as in a civil case.

SUBCHAPTER C. CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES

§ 15.28. Definitions

In Sections 15.29—15.31 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition,

(1) “domestic corporation” means a corporation organized under the law of this state;
§ 15.28  BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) "foreign corporation" means a corporation organized under the law of another state or country; and

(3) "successor" means a corporation to which another corporation has transferred its property and business or which has assumed payment of its obligations.

§ 15.29. Charter of Domestic Corporation Forfeit­ed

(a) When he believes the public interest requires it, the attorney general shall file suit to forfeit the charter or articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation which has violated or is violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code. The attorney general may file suit under this subsection in a district court in any county in the state.

(b) To the extent consistent with this chapter, the law governing quo warranto applies to a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section.

(c) If he finds the public interest requires it, in a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section, the court may forfeit the charter or articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code. The forfeiture is in addition to other penalties provided by law.

(d) The successor to a domestic corporation whose charter or articles of incorporation has been forfeited under Subsection (c) of this section may not incorporate or do business in this state.

§ 15.30. Foreign Corporation Enjoined From Doing Business

(a) If a foreign corporation has violated or is violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, the attorney general may file suit in a district court in Travis County to permanently enjoin the foreign corporation from doing business or incorporating in this state.

(b) If the court finds the public interest requires it, in a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section, it shall permanently enjoin from doing business or incorporating in this state a foreign corporation adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code. The injunction is in addition to other penalties provided by law.

(c) The successor to a foreign corporation permanently enjoined from doing business in this state may not incorporate or do business in this state.

§ 15.31. Reinstatement of Enjoined Foreign Cor­poration

(a) Five or more years after being enjoined from doing business in this state under Section 15.30(b) of this code, a foreign corporation or its successor may apply for reinstatement to the district court originally granting the injunction. The corporation shall have a copy of the application, and all other papers, served on the attorney general, who shall represent the state in the reinstatement proceeding.

(b) On receipt of the application, the court shall hold a hearing on it, may compel the production of documentary evidence, and may appoint a special commissioner under Section 15.19 of this code to take testimony either in or out of the state.

(c) The court after the hearing may modify the original injunction and permit the foreign corporation or its successor to incorporate or secure a certificate of authority to do business in this state, if the corporation or its successor has established that the enjoined corporation

(1) fully obeyed the injunction and paid all fines adjudged against it;

(2) has organized or reorganized its affairs so that it may do business in this state without violating a state law; and

(3) is not itself violating, and is not connected with a person who is violating, the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code.

(d) If the court modifies the original injunction in a reinstatement proceeding, it shall retain jurisdiction over the proceeding. The attorney general for good cause shall apply to the court to set aside the modification. If the attorney general establishes that the reinstated foreign corporation or its successor has violated or is violating, or is connected with a person who is violating, the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, the court shall set aside the modification and permanently enjoin the foreign corporation or its successor from doing business or incorporating in this state. If the modification is set aside, all proceedings based on it are void.

(e) The clerk of the court shall forward to the secretary of state a certified copy of the court's judgment in a reinstatement proceeding, and the secretary of state shall comply with the judgment.

(f) A foreign corporation or its successor seeking reinstatement shall pay all expenses of the proceeding, including a reasonable attorney's fee fixed by the court. The attorney general shall deposit the attorney's fee in the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund.

(g) A foreign corporation or its successor adjudged guilty a second time of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code may not apply for reinstatement under Subsection (a) of this section.

§ 15.32. Monetary Penalty

(a) A person adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code shall pay a fine to the state of not less than $50 nor more than $1,500 for each day of violation. The attorney general, or a district, criminal district, or county attorney acting under his direction, shall represent the state in a suit filed to collect this fine.

(b) Each district court in this state has jurisdiction and venue over a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section, and once suit is filed, it may not be transferred to another county except on order of the court.

(c) A district, criminal district, or county attorney representing the state in a suit filed to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to collect a fine under Subsection (a) of this section, is entitled to a fee equal to

(1) 10 percent of the amount collected up to and including $50,000; and

(2) five percent of the amount collected over $50,000; or
(3) one-half of the percentages specified in Subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, if the suit is compromised before final judgment in the trial court.

(d) The fee specified in Subsection (c) of this section may be retained by the district, criminal district, or county attorney collecting it and is in addition to other fees allowed him by law.

(e) A district, criminal district, or county attorney representing the state, who ceases to hold office before a fine is collected, is entitled to share equally with his successor in the fee specified in Subsection (c) of this section. A contract hiring special counsel to assist in representing the state is binding on the district, criminal district, or county attorney making the contract and subsequently retiring from office.

§ 15.33. Criminal Penalties

(a) A person may not agree to form, form, be a party to the formation of, or aid a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a)(1)–(3) of this code, respectively.

(b) A person acting as a member, agent, employee, officer, director, or stockholder of a business, firm, corporation, or association may not

(1) sell, purchase, contract, do business or any other act for, or form or operate, the business, firm, corporation, or association in violation of the prohibition against a monopoly, trust, and conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a)(1)–(3) of this code, respectively; or

(2) in this state, with an intent to drive out competition or financially injure a competitor,

(A) sell a product below the cost of its manufacture or production;

(B) give away a product; or

(C) give a secret rebate on the sale price of a product.

(c) A person who forms outside this state a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a)(1)–(3) of this code, respectively, may not, with respect to the monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade,

(1) cause or permit it to do business, operate, or have an effect in this state;

(2) aid it to do business in this state or otherwise violate the prohibition against a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a)(1)–(3) of this code, respectively; or

(3) buy, sell, or contract for it.

(d) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a), (b) or (c) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than 2 nor more than 10 years.

(e) A criminal prosecution under this section may be brought in Travis or any other county in which a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade is allegedly operating.

§ 15.34. Exemption From Criminal Penalties

Section 15.33 of this code does not apply to agri-cultural products or livestock while in the hands of the producer or raiser.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

SUBCHAPTER D. RECOVERY OF DAMAGES PURSUANT TO FEDERAL ANTITRUST LAWS

§ 15.40. Authority, Powers, and Duties of Attorney General

(a) The attorney general may bring an action on behalf of the state or of any of its political subdivisions or tax supported institutions to recover the damages provided for by the federal antitrust laws, Title 15, United States Code, provided that the attorney general shall notify in writing any political subdivision or tax supported institution of his intention to bring any such action on its behalf, and at any time within 30 days thereafter, such political subdivision or tax supported institution may, by formal resolution of its governing body or as otherwise specifically provided by applicable law, withdraw the authority of the attorney general to bring the intended action. In any action brought pursuant to this section on behalf of any political subdivision or tax supported institution of the state, the state shall retain for deposit in the general revenue fund of the State Treasury, out of the proceeds, if any, resulting from such action, an amount equal to the expense incurred by the state in the investigation and prosecution of such action.

(b) In any action brought by the attorney general pursuant to the federal antitrust laws for the recovery of damages by the estate or any of its political subdivisions or tax supported institutions, in addition to his other powers and authority the attorney general may enter into contracts relating to the investigation and the prosecution of such action with any other party who could bring a similar action or who has brought such an action for the recovery of damages and with whom the attorney general finds it advantageous to act jointly, or to share common expenses or to cooperate in any manner relative to such action. In any such action the attorney general may undertake, among other things, either to render legal services as special counsel to, or to obtain the legal services of special counsel from, any department or agency of the United States, any other state or any department or agency thereof, any county, city, public corporation or public district of this state or of any other state, that has brought or intends to bring a similar action for the recovery of damages, or their duly authorized legal representatives in such action.

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 16.01. Definitions
(a) In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition,
(1) "applicant" means the person applying for registration of a mark under this chapter and includes his legal representative, successor, assignee, and predecessor in title to the mark sought to be registered;
(2) "mark" includes service mark and trademark;
(3) "registrant" means the person to whom a registration has been issued under this chapter and includes his legal representative, successor, assignee, and predecessor in title to the registration;
(4) "service mark" means a word, name, symbol, device, slogan or any combination thereof which, whether registered or not, has been adopted and used by a person to identify his services and distinguish them from the services of others, and includes the titles, designations, character names, and distinctive features of broadcast or other advertising;
(5) "trademark" means a word, name, symbol, device, slogan or any combination thereof which, whether registered or not, has been adopted and used by a person to identify his goods and distinguish them from the goods manufactured or sold by others; and
(6) "trade name" includes individual name, surname, firm name, corporate name, and lawfully adopted name or title used by a person to identify his business, vocation, or occupation.
(b) This chapter does not apply to the registration or use of livestock brands or other indicia of ownership of goods which do not qualify as a "mark" as defined in this chapter.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.02. When Mark Considered to be Used
(a) A mark is considered to be used in this state in connection with goods when
(1) it is placed on (A) the goods;

(b) Container of the goods;
(C) displays associated with the goods;
or
(D) tags or labels affixed to the goods; and
(2) the goods are sold, displayed for sale, or otherwise publicly distributed in this state.
(b) A mark is considered to be used in this state in connection with services when
(1) it is used or displayed in this state in connection with selling or advertising the services; and
(2) the services are rendered in this state.

[Sections 16.03 to 16.07 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. REGISTRATION OF MARK

§ 16.08. Registrable Marks
(a) A mark in actual use in connection with the applicant's goods or services, which distinguishes his goods or services from those of others, is registrable unless it
(1) is, or includes matter which is, immoral, deceptively, or scandalous;
(2) may disparage, or falsely suggest a connection with, or bring into contempt or disrepute
(A) a person, whether living or dead;
(B) an institution;
(C) a belief; or
(D) a national symbol;
(3) depicts or simulates the flag, coat of arms, or other insignia of
(A) the United States;
(B) a state;
(C) a municipality; or
(D) a foreign nation;
(4) is or includes the name, signature, or portrait of a living individual who has not consented in writing to its registration;
(5) is
(A) merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of the applicant's goods or services;
(B) primarily geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of the applicant's goods or services; or
(C) primarily merely a surname; or
(6) is likely to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive, because, when applied to the applicant's goods or services, it resembles another person's unabandoned mark registered in this state.
(b) Subsection (a)(5) of this section does not prevent the registration of a mark that has become distinctive as applied to the applicant's goods or services. The secretary of state may accept as evidence that a mark has become distinctive as applied to the applicant's goods or services proof of substantially exclusive and continuous use of the mark by the applicant in this state for the five years next preceding the date on which the applicant filed his application for registration.
(c) A trade name is not registrable under this chapter. However, if a trade name is also a service mark or trademark, as defined in this chapter, it is registrable as a service mark or trademark.

§ 16.09. Classes of Goods and Services

(a) An applicant may include in a single application for registration of a mark all goods or services in connection with which the mark is actually being used and which are in a single class. An applicant may not include in a single application for registration goods or services which are not in a single class.

(b) The classes of goods are:

(1) Class 1: raw or partly prepared materials;
(2) Class 2: receptacles;
(3) Class 3: baggage, animal equipment, portfolios, and pocketbooks;
(4) Class 4: abrasives and polishing materials;
(5) Class 5: adhesives;
(6) Class 6: chemicals and chemical compositions;
(7) Class 7: cordage;
(8) Class 8: smokers’ articles, not including tobacco products;
(9) Class 9: explosives, firearms, equipment, and projectiles;
(10) Class 10: fertilizers;
(11) Class 11: inks and inking materials;
(12) Class 12: construction materials;
(13) Class 13: hardware, and plumbing and steam-fitting supplies;
(14) Class 14: metals, and metal castings and forgings;
(15) Class 15: oils and greases;
(16) Class 16: protective and decorative coatings;
(17) Class 17: tobacco products;
(18) Class 18: medicines and pharmaceutical preparations;
(19) Class 19: vehicles;
(20) Class 20: linoleum and oilcloth;
(21) Class 21: electrical apparatus, machines, and supplies;
(22) Class 22: games, toys, and sporting goods;
(23) Class 23: cutlery, machinery, and tools and parts thereof;
(24) Class 24: laundry appliances and machines;
(25) Class 25: locks and safes;
(26) Class 26: measuring and scientific appliances;
(27) Class 27: horological instruments;
(28) Class 28: jewelry and precious metalware;
(29) Class 29: brooms, brushes, and dusters;
(30) Class 30: crockery, earthenware, and porcelain;
(31) Class 31: filters and refrigerators;
(32) Class 32: furniture and upholstery;
(33) Class 33: glassware;
(34) Class 34: heating, lighting, and ventilating apparatus;
(35) Class 35: belting, hose, machinery packing, and non-metallic tires;
(36) Class 36: musical instruments and supplies;
(37) Class 37: paper and stationery;
(38) Class 38: prints and publications;
(39) Class 39: clothing;
(40) Class 40: fancy goods, furnishings, and notions;
(41) Class 41: canes, parasols, and umbrellas;
(42) Class 42: knitted, netted, and textile fabrics, and substitutes therefor;
(43) Class 43: thread and yarn;
(44) Class 44: dental, medical, and surgical appliances;
(45) Class 45: soft drinks and carbonated waters;
(46) Class 46: foods and ingredients of foods;
(47) Class 47: wines;
(48) Class 48: malt beverages and liquors;
(49) Class 49: distilled alcoholic liquors;
(50) Class 50: merchandise not otherwise classified;
(51) Class 51: cosmetics and toilet preparations; and
(52) Class 52: detergents and soaps.

(c) The classes of services are:

(1) Class 100: miscellaneous;
(2) Class 101: advertising and business;
(3) Class 102: insurance and financial;
(4) Class 103: construction and repair;
(5) Class 104: communication;
(6) Class 105: transportation and storage;
(7) Class 106: material treatment; and
(8) Class 107: education and entertainment.

(d) The classes of goods and services enumerated in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section are established for the convenient administration of this chapter and do not limit or expand an applicant’s or registrant’s rights. The secretary of state may amend the classes of goods and services to conform to those now or later established by the U.S. Patent Office.

§ 16.10. Application for Registration

(a) A person shall file his application to register a mark in the office of the secretary of state on a form prescribed by the secretary of state.
§ 16.10 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) The applicant shall include in the application
(1) the name and business address of the applicant;
(2) the state of incorporation of the applicant if the applicant is a corporation;
(3) an appointment of the secretary of state as the applicant’s agent for service of process only in suits relating to the registration which may be issued if the applicant;
   (A) is or becomes a
      (i) nonresident individual, partnership, or association; or
      (ii) foreign corporation without a certificate of authority to do business in this state; or
   (B) cannot be found in this state;
(4) the names or a description of the goods or services in connection with which the mark is being used;
(5) the manner in which the mark is being used in connection with the goods or services;
(6) the class in which the applicant believes the goods or services belong;
(7) the date on which the applicant first used the mark anywhere in connection with the goods or services;
(8) the date on which the applicant first used the mark in this state in connection with the goods or services;
(9) a statement that the applicant believes he is the owner of the mark and that, to the best of his knowledge, no other person is entitled to use the mark in this state
   (A) in the identical form used by the applicant; or
   (B) in a form that is likely, when used in connection with the goods or services, to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive, because of its resemblance to the mark used by the applicant; and
(10) such additional information or documents as the secretary of state may reasonably require.

c) The applicant shall
(1) prepare and file the application with the secretary of state in duplicate originals; and
(2) submit as part of the application to the secretary of state
   (A) two identical specimens or facsimiles of the mark as actually used, one specimen or facsimile with each duplicate original application; and
   (B) a filing fee of $10 payable to the secretary of state.

d) The applicant or his agent shall sign and verify the application.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.11. Registration by Secretary of State
If the application satisfies the requirements of this chapter, and the filing fee is paid, the secretary of state shall
(1) endorse on each duplicate original application
   (A) the word “filed”; and
   (B) the date on which the application was filed;
(2) file one of the duplicate original applications in his office;
(3) issue a certificate of registration evidencing registration on the date on which the application was filed;
(4) attach the other duplicate original application to the certificate of registration; and
(5) deliver the certificate of registration with the attached duplicate original application to the applicant.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.12. Term of Registration
(a) The registration of a mark under this chapter is effective for a term of 10 years from the date of registration.
(b) A registration in force before May 2, 1962, expires 10 years from the date of registration.

§ 16.13. Notice of Expiration of Registration
(a) During the period beginning 12 months and ending 6 months before the day a registration expires, the secretary of state shall, by writing to the last known address of the registrant under this chapter or under a prior act, notify the registrant of the necessity for renewing or reregistering under Section 16.14 of this code.
(b) Neither the secretary of state’s failure to notify a registrant nor the registrant’s nonreceipt of a notice under Subsection (a) of this section
   (1) extends the term of a registration; or
   (2) excuses the registrant’s failure to renew or reregister.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.14. Renewal of Registration and Reregistration
(a) The registration of a mark under this chapter may be renewed for an additional 10-year term by filing a renewal application within six months before the day the registration expires on a form prescribed by the secretary of state. The registrant shall submit as part of his renewal application to the secretary of state
   (1) an affidavit stating that
      (A) the mark is still in use in this state; or
      (B) nonuse of the mark in this state
         (i) is due to special circumstances which excuse the nonuse; and
         (ii) is not due to an intention to abandon the mark in this state; and
   (2) a renewal fee of $10 payable to the secretary of state.
(b) A registrant may renew a registration under Subsection (a) of this section for successive terms of 10 years.
(c) A mark for which a registration was in force before May 2, 1962, may be reregistered by filing an original application under Section 16.10 of this code.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]
§ 16.15. Record, Notice, and Proof of Registration
(a) The secretary of state shall keep for public examination a record of all
(1) marks registered, reregistered, or renewed under this chapter; and
(2) assignments recorded under Section 16.18 of this code.
(b) Registration of a mark under this chapter is constructive notice throughout this state of the registrant’s claim of ownership of the mark throughout this state.
(c) A certificate of registration issued by the secretary of state under this chapter, or a copy of it certified by the secretary of state, is admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of
(1) the validity of the registration;
(2) the registrant’s ownership of the mark; and
(3) the registrant’s exclusive right to use the mark in commerce in this state in connection with the goods or services specified in the certificate, subject to any conditions and limitations stated in the certificate.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.16. Cancellation of Registration
(a) The secretary of state shall cancel
(1) all registrations in force before May 2, 1962, which are more than 10 years old and which have not been reregistered under Section 16.14(c) of this code;
(2) a registration on receipt of a voluntary request for cancellation from the registrant under this chapter or under a prior act as identified by the records of the secretary of state;
(3) registrations granted under this chapter and not renewed under Section 16.14(a) of this code;
(4) a registration concerning which a district or appellate court has rendered a final judgment, which has become unappealable, cancelling the registration or finding that
(A) the registered mark has been abandoned;
(B) the registrant under this chapter or under a prior act is not the owner of the mark;
(C) the registration was granted contrary to the provisions of this chapter;
(D) the registration was obtained fraudulently;
(E) the registered mark has become incapable of serving as a mark.
(b) The clerk of the court whose final judgment cancels a registration or makes any of the findings specified in Subsection (a)(4) of this section shall, when the judgment becomes unappealable, transmit a certified copy of it to the secretary of state.

§ 16.17. Assignment of Mark and Registration
(a) A mark and its registration under this chapter are assignable with the goodwill of the business in which the mark is used, or with that part of the goodwill connected with the use of, and symbolized by, the mark.
(b) An assignment shall be made by duly executed written instrument.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.18. Recordation of Assignment and Its Effect
(a) An assignment made under Section 16.17 of this code may be recorded with the secretary of state by
(1) filing with him
(A) the original assignment; and
(B) a duplicate original or legible photocopy on durable paper of the assignment; and
(2) paying him a fee of $3.
(b) If an assignment has been properly filed for record under Subsection (a) of this section, the secretary of state shall
(1) issue in the assignee’s name a new certificate of registration for the remainder of the term of the mark’s registration, reregistration, or last renewal;
(2) endorse on the original and duplicate original assignment or photocopy the
(A) words “Filed for record in the office of the Secretary of State, State of Texas”; and
(B) date on which the assignment was filed for record;
(3) file the duplicate original or photocopy of the assignment in his office; and
(4) return the endorsed original or photocopy of the assignment to the assignee or his representative.
(c) The assignment of a mark registered under this chapter is void against a purchaser who purchases the mark for value after the assignment is made and without notice of it unless the assignment is recorded by the secretary of state
(1) within three months after the date of the assignment; or
(2) before the mark is purchased.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

[Sections 16.19 to 16.23 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. COURT ACTION

§ 16.24. Review of Secretary of State’s Decisions
(a) Final action taken or a final decision made by the secretary of state under this chapter may be reviewed by a suit filed in one of the Travis County district courts.
(b) A suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section is tried de novo, as an appeal from a justice court to a county court, and
(1) every decision or action concerning an issue in the suit made or taken by the secretary of state before the suit was filed is void;
(2) the district court shall determine the issues in the suit as if no decision had been made or action taken by the secretary of state; and
§ 16.24 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(3) the district court may not apply in any form the substantial evidence rule in reviewing a decision or action of the secretary of state.

(c) The legislature declares that
(1) this section is not severable from the other sections of this chapter;
(2) it would not have enacted this chapter without this section; and
(3) this chapter is void if a court in a final judgment which becomes unappealable invalidates this section in whole or part.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.25. Suit to Cancel Registration
(a) A person who believes that he is or will be damaged by a registration under this chapter may sue to cancel the registration in a district court having venue.

(b) The clerk of a court in which suit is filed under Subsection (a) of this section shall transmit notice of the suit to the secretary of state, who shall place the notice in the registration file with proper notations and endorsements.

(c) When the registrant's agent for service of process is the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall forward notice of the suit by registered mail to the registrant at his last address of record.

(d) If the court finds that the losing party in a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section should have known his position was without merit, the court may award the successful party his reasonable attorneys' fees and charge them as part of the costs against the losing party.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.26. Infringement of Registered Mark
(a) Subject to Section 16.27 of this code, a person commits an infringement if, without the registrant's consent, he
(1) uses anywhere in this state a reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of a mark registered under this chapter in connection with selling, offering for sale, or advertising goods or services when the use is likely to deceive or cause confusion or mistake as to the source or origin of the goods or services; or
(2) reproduces, counterfeits, copies, or colorably imitates a mark registered under this chapter and applies the reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation to a label, sign, print, package, wrapper, receptacle, or advertisement intended to be used in selling, leasing, distributing, or rendering goods or services in this state when the use is likely to deceive or cause confusion or mistake as to the source or origin of the goods or services.

(b) A registrant may sue for damages and to enjoin an infringement proscribed by Subsection (a) of this section in a district court having venue.

(c) If the district court determines that there has been an infringement, it shall enjoin the act of infringement and may
(1) require the infringer to pay the registrant all damages resulting from the acts of infringement and occurring from and after the date two years before the day the suit was filed; and

(2) order that the infringing reproductions, counterfeits, copies, or colorable imitations in the possession or under the control of the infringer be
(A) delivered to an officer of the court;
(B) delivered to the registrant; or
(C) destroyed.

(d) A registrant is entitled to recover damages under Subsection (c)(1) of this section only for an infringement that occurred during the period of time the infringer had actual knowledge of the registrant's mark.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 16.27. Exceptions to Liability for Infringement
(a) No registration under this chapter adversely affects common law rights acquired prior to registration under this chapter. However, during any period when the registration of a mark under this chapter is in force and the registrant has not abandoned the mark, no common law rights as against the registrant of the mark may be acquired.

(b) The owner or operator of a radio or television station, or the owner or publisher of a newspaper, magazine, directory, or other publication, is not liable in that business under Section 16.26 of this code for the use of a registered mark furnished by one of his advertisers or customers.

§ 16.28. Procuring Application or Registration by Fraud
(a) No person may procure for himself or another the filing of an application or the registration of a mark under this chapter by knowingly making a false or fraudulent representation or declaration, oral or written, or by any other fraudulent means.

(b) A person injured by the false or fraudulent procurement of an application or registration may sue the person who violated Subsection (a) of this section in a district court having venue and
(1) recover from him damages resulting from use of the fraudulently registered mark, plus costs of suit, including attorneys' fees; and
(2) have the registration cancelled.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 17.01. Definitions
In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition,
(1) “container” includes bale, barrel, bottle, box, cask, keg, and package; and
(2) “proprietary mark” includes word, name, symbol, device, and any combination of them in any form or arrangement, used by a person to identify his tangible personal property and distinguish it from the tangible personal property of another.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

[Sections 17.02 to 17.06 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. DECEPTIVE ADVERTISING, PACKING, SELLING, AND EXPORTING

§ 17.07. Using Representation of Texas Flag in Advertising and Selling
(a) No person may use a representation of the Texas flag
(1) to advertise or publicize tangible personal property or a commercial undertaking; or
(2) for a trade or commercial purpose.
   (b) No person may offer to sell tangible personal property bearing a representation of the Texas flag.
   (c) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to a fraternal or patriotic organization using the Texas flag for an emblem.
   (d) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100.
   (e) A person who violates Subsection (b) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50.
   (f) A person who violates Subsection (a) or (b) of this section commits a separate offense each day he violates a provision of either subsection.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 17.08. Using Representation of Great Seal of Texas in Advertising
(a) No person may use a representation of the Great Seal of Texas
   (1) to advertise or publicize tangible personal property or a commercial undertaking; or
   (2) for a commercial purpose.
   (b) A person who reproduces an official document bearing the Great Seal of Texas does not violate Subsection (a) of this section if the document is
      (1) reproduced in complete form; and
      (2) used for a purpose related to the purpose for which the document was issued by the state.
   (c) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100.
   (d) A person who violates Subsection (a) of this section commits a separate offense each day he violates a provision of that subsection.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 17.11. Deceptive Wholesale and Going-Out-Of-Business Advertising
(a) In Subsection (b) of this section, unless the context requires a different definition, “wholesaler” means a person who sells for the purpose of resale and not directly to a consuming purchaser.
   (b) No person may wilfully misrepresent the nature of his business by using in selling or advertising the word manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or other word of similar meaning.
   (c) No person may wilfully misrepresent the ownership of a business for the purpose of holding a liquidation sale, auction sale, or other sale which represents that the business is going out of business. A person who advertises a liquidation sale, auction sale, or going-out-of-business sale shall state the correct name and permanent address of the owner of the business in the advertising.
   (d) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (b) or (c) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]
§ 17.11 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 17.12. Deceptive Advertising
(a) No person may disseminate a statement he knows materially misrepresents the cost or character of tangible personal property, a security, service, or anything he may offer for the purpose of

(1) selling, contracting to sell, otherwise disposing of, or contracting to dispose of the tangible personal property, security, service, or anything he may offer; or

(2) inducing a person to contract with regard to the tangible personal property, security, service, or anything he may offer.

(b) No person may solicit advertising in the name of a club, association, or organization without the written permission of such club, association, or organization or distribute any publication purporting to represent officially a club, association, or organization without the written authority of or a contract with such club, association, or organization and without listing in such publication the complete name and address of the club, association, or organization endorsing it.

(c) A person's proprietary mark appearing on or in a statement described in Subsection (a) of this section is prima facie evidence that the person disseminated the statement.

(d) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) or (b) of this Section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $200.

§ 17.18. Applicability of Subchapter to Secondhand Watches

§ 17.19. Labeling Secondhand Watches

No person in the business of buying or selling watches may sell or exchange, offer to sell or exchange, possess, or display with intent to sell or exchange a secondhand watch unless he

(1) fastens to the watch a clearly written or printed tag bearing the word "secondhand"; and

(2) places the tag so the word "secondhand" is in plain sight at all times.

§ 17.20. Content of Invoice for Secondhand Watch

(a) No person in the business of buying or selling watches may sell or transfer a secondhand watch unless he gives the purchaser or transferee a written invoice

(1) bearing the words "secondhand watch" in letters larger than any other letters on the invoice, except those of the letterhead; and

(2) listing the following items:

(A) the seller’s or transferor’s name and address;

(B) the purchaser’s or transferee’s name and address;

(C) the date of sale or transfer;

(D) the name of the watch or its manufacturer; and

(E) the serial number or proprietary mark on the watch or, if the serial number or proprietary mark has been removed, altered, or covered up, a statement to that effect.

(b) The seller or transferor shall keep on file a duplicate of the invoice required by Subsection (a) of this section for at least five years from the date of sale or transfer.

(c) The county or district attorney, or his authorized representative, of the county in which the seller or transferor does business may inspect the duplicate invoice described in Subsection (b) of this section

(1) during the seller’s or transferor’s business hours; and
(2) at the seller's or transferor's business address.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 17.21. Advertising Watch as Secondhand
No person may advertise or display a secondhand watch for sale or exchange unless he clearly states in the advertisement or display that the watch is secondhand.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 17.22. Criminal Penalty
A person, or his agent or employee, who violates a provision of Section 17.19, 17.20, or 17.21 of this code is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 100 days or by a fine of not more than $500 or by both.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

[Sections 17.23 to 17.27 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER D. COUNTERFEITING OR CHANGING A REQUIRED MARK; MISUSE OF CONTAINER BEARING MARK

§ 17.28. Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 995, ch. 399, § 3(d), eff. January 1, 1974

§ 17.29. Misusing Container; Evidence of Misuse and Container's Ownership
(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "container" also includes drink-dispensing fountain.
(b) Unless the owner of a reusable container bearing a proprietary mark (or one acting with the owner's written permission) agrees, no person may
(1) fill the container for sale or other commercial purpose;
(2) deface, cover up, or remove the proprietary mark from the container; or
(3) refuse to return the container to the owner if he requests its return.
(c) A person's willful
(1) possession of a full or empty reusable container without the owner's permission is prima facie evidence of his violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section;
(2) use, purchase, sale, or other disposition of a full or empty reusable container without the owner's permission is prima facie evidence of his violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section; and
(3) breaking, damaging, or destroying a full or empty reusable container is prima facie evidence of his violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section.
(d) In an action in which the ownership of a reusable container is in issue, a person's proprietary mark on the container is prima facie evidence that the person or his licensee owns the container.
(e) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (b) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by
(1) a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 for each violation concerning a drink-dispensing fountain; or
(2) a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $10 for each violation concerning any other container.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 17.30. Misusing Dairy Container Bearing Proprietary Mark
(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "dairy container" includes butter box, ice cream can, ice cream tub, milk bottle, milk bottle case, milk can, and milk jar.
(b) Without the owner's consent, no person may
(1) fill with milk, cream, butter, or ice cream; damage; mutilate; or destroy a dairy container bearing the owner's commonly used proprietary mark; or
(2) wilfully refuse to return on request to the owner a dairy container bearing his commonly used proprietary mark.
(c) Without the owner's written consent, no person may
(1) deface or remove an owner's proprietary mark from a dairy container; or
(2) substitute on a dairy container his proprietary mark for that of the owner.
(d) A person's commonly used proprietary mark on a dairy container is prima facie evidence of that person's ownership of the container.
(e) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (b) or (e) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

[Sections 17.31 to 17.40 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER E. DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES AND CONSUMER PROTECTION

§ 17.41. Short Title
This subchapter may be cited as the Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act.
[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 322, ch. 143, § 1, eff. May 21, 1973.]

§ 17.42. Waivers: Public Policy
Any waiver by a consumer of the provisions of this subchapter is contrary to public policy and is unenforceable and void.

§ 17.43. Cumulative Remedies
The provisions of this subchapter are not exclusive. The remedies provided in this subchapter are in addition to any other procedures or remedies provided for in any other law. The provisions of this subchapter do not in any way preclude other political subdivisions of this state from dealing with deceptive trade practices.

§ 17.44. Construction and Application
This subchapter shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes, which are to protect consumers against false, misleading, and deceptive business practices, unconscionable actions, and breaches of warranty and to provide efficient and economical procedures to secure such protection.
§ 17.45. Definitions

As used in this subchapter:

(1) “Goods” means tangible chattels bought for use.

(2) “Services” means work, labor, and services for other than commercial or business use, including services furnished in connection with the sale or repair of goods.

(3) “Person” means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other group, however organized.

(4) “Consumer” means an individual who seeks or acquires by purchase or lease, any goods or services.

(5) “Merchant” means a party to a consumer transaction other than a consumer.

(6) “Trade” and “commerce” mean the advertising, offering for sale, sale, lease, or distribution of any good or service, of any property, tangible or intangible, real, personal, or mixed, and any other article, commodity, or thing of value, wherever situated, and shall include any trade or commerce directly or indirectly affecting the people of this state.

(7) “Documentary material” includes the original or a copy of any book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription, or other tangible document or recording, wherever situated.

(8) “Consumer protection division” means the attorney general’s office.

(9) “Knowingly” means actual awareness of the falsity or deception, but actual awareness may be inferred where objective manifestations indicate that a person acted with actual awareness.

(10) “Deceptive representations or designations of geographic origin in connection with goods or services” includes, but is not limited to, the following acts:

(1) passing off goods or services as those of another;

(2) causing confusion or misunderstanding as to the source, sponsorship, approval, or certification of goods or services;

(3) causing confusion or misunderstanding as to affiliation, connection, or association with, or certification by, another;

(4) using deceptive representations or designations of geographic origin in connection with goods or services;

(5) representing that goods or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or quantities which they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status, affiliation, or connection which he does not;

(6) representing that goods are original or new if they are deteriorated, reconditioned, reclaimed, used, or secondhand;

(7) representing that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality, or grade, or that goods are of a particular style or model, if they are of another;

(8) disparaging the goods, services, or business of another by false or misleading representations of facts;

(9) advertising goods or services with intent not to sell them as advertised;

(10) advertising goods or services with intent not to supply a reasonable expectable public demand, unless the advertisements disclosed a limitation of quantity;

(11) making false or misleading statements of fact concerning the reasons for, existence of, or amount of price reductions;

(12) representing that an agreement confers or involves rights, remedies, or obligations which it does not have or involve, or which are prohibited by law;

(13) knowingly making false or misleading statements of fact concerning the need for parts, replacement, or repair service;

(14) misrepresenting the authority of a salesman, representative or agent to negotiate the final terms of a consumer transaction;

(15) basing a charge for the repair of any item in whole or in part on a guaranty or warranty instead of on the value of the actual repairs made or work to be performed on the item without stating separately the charges for the work and the charge for the warranty or guaranty, if any;

(16) disconnecting, turning back, or resetting the odometer of any motor vehicle so as to reduce the number of miles indicated on the odometer gauge;

(17) advertising of any sale by fraudulently representing that a person is going out of business;

(18) using or employing a chain referral sales plan in connection with the sale or offer to sell of goods, merchandise, or anything of value, which uses the sales technique, plan, arrangement, or agreement in which the buyer or prospective buyer is offered the opportunity to purchase merchandise or goods and in connection with the purchase receives the seller’s promise or representation that the buyer shall have the right to receive compensation or consideration in any form for furnishing to the seller the names of other prospective buyers if receipt of the compensation or consideration is contingent upon the occurrence of an event subsequent to the time the buyer purchases the merchandise or goods;

(19) representing that a guarantee or warranty confers or involves rights or remedies which it does not have or involve, provided, however, that nothing in this subchapter shall be construed to expand the implied warranty of merchantability as defined in Sections 2.314 through 2.318 of the Business & Commerce Code to involve obligations in excess of those which are appropriate to the goods; or

(20) selling or offering to sell, either directly or associated with the sale of goods or services, a right of participation in a multi-level distributorship. As used herein, “multi-level distribu-torship” means a sales plan for the distribution of goods or services in which promises of rebate or payment are made to individuals, conditioned upon those individuals recommending or securing additional individuals to assume positions in the sales operation, and where the rebate or payment is not exclusively conditioned on or in relation to proceeds from the retail sale of goods.

(c) It is the intent of the legislature that in construing Subsection (a) of this section the courts to the extent possible will be guided by Subsection (b) of this section and the interpretations given by the Federal Trade Commission and federal courts to Section 5(a)(1) of the Federal Trade Commission Act [15 U.S.C.A. 45(a)(1)].

§ 17.47. Restraining Orders
(a) Whenever the consumer protection division has reason to believe that any person is engaging in, has engaged in, or is about to engage in any act or practice declared to be unlawful by this subchapter, and that proceedings would be in the public interest, the division may bring an action in the name of the state against the person to restrain by temporary or permanent injunction the use of such method, act, or practice.

(b) An action brought under Subsection (a) of this section may be commenced in the district court of the county in which the person against whom it is brought resides, has his principal place of business, is doing business, or in the district court of the county where the transaction occurred, or, on the consent of the parties, in a district court of Travis County. The court may issue temporary or permanent injunctions to restrain such unlawful conduct after such prior contact. Such prior contact shall not be required if, in the opinion of the consumer protection division, there is good cause to believe that such person would evade service of process if prior contact were made.

(c) An action brought under Subsection (a) of this section may be commenced in the district court of the county in which the person against whom it is brought resides, has his principal place of business, is doing business, or in the district court of the county where the transaction occurred, or, on the consent of the parties, in a district court of Travis County. The court may issue temporary or permanent injunctions to restrain such unlawful conduct after such prior contact. Such prior contact shall not be required if, in the opinion of the consumer protection division, there is good cause to believe that such person would evade service of process if prior contact were made.

(d) The court may make such additional orders or judgments as are necessary to compensate identifiable persons for actual damages or restoration of money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of any act or practice restrained. Damages may not include any damages incurred beyond a point two years prior to the institution of the action by the consumer protection division. Orders of the court may also include the appointment of a receiver or a sequestration of assets if a person who has been ordered by a court to make restitution under this section has failed to do so within three months after the order to make restitution has become final and nonappealable.

(e) Any person who violates the terms of an injunction under this section shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty of not more than $10,000 per violation, not to exceed $50,000. In determining whether or not an injunction has been violated the court shall take into consideration the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to insure compliance with the injunction. For the purposes of this section, the district court issuing the injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and the cause shall be continued, and in these cases, the consumer protection division, or the district or county attorney with prior notice to the consumer protection division, acting in the name of the state, may petition for recovery of civil penalties under this section.

(f) An order of the court awarding civil penalties under Subsection (e) of this section applies only to violations of the injunction incurred prior to the awarding of the penalty order. Second or subsequent violations of an injunction issued under this section are subject to the same penalties set out in Subsection (e) of this section.

§ 17.48. Duty of District and County Attorney
(a) It is the duty of the district and county attorneys to lend to the consumer protection division any assistance requested in the commencement and prosecution of actions under this subchapter.

(b) A district or county attorney, with prior written notice to the consumer protection division, may institute and prosecute actions seeking injunctive relief under this subchapter, after complying with the prior contact provisions of Subsection (a) of Section 17.47 of this subchapter. On request, the consumer protection division shall assist the district or county attorney in any action taken under this subchapter. If an action is prosecuted by a district or county attorney alone, he shall make a full report to the consumer protection division including the final disposition of the matter. No district or county attorney may bring an action under this section against any licensed insurer or licensed insurance agent transacting business under the authority and jurisdiction of the State Board of Insurance unless first requested in writing to do so by the State Board of Insurance, the commissioner of insurance, or the consumer protection division pursuant to a request by the State Board of Insurance or commissioner of insurance.

§ 17.49. Exemptions

(a) Nothing in this subchapter shall apply to the owner or employees of a regularly published newspaper, magazine, or telephone directory, or broadcast station, or billboard, wherein any advertisement in violation of this subchapter is published or disseminated, unless it is established that the owner or employees of the advertising medium have knowledge of the false, deceptive, or misleading acts or practices declared to be unlawful by this subchapter, or had a direct or substantial financial interest in the sale or distribution of the unlawfully advertised good or service. Financial interest as used in this section relates to an expectation which would be the direct result of such advertisement.

(b) Nothing in this subchapter shall apply to acts or practices authorized under specific rules or regulations promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under Section 5(a)(1) of the Federal Trade Commission Act [15 U.S.C.A. 145(a)(1)]. The provisions of this subchapter do not apply to any act or practice prohibited or not specifically authorized by a rule or regulation of the Federal Trade Commission. An act or practice is not specifically authorized if no rule or regulation has been issued on the act or practice.

§ 17.50. Relief for Consumers

(a) A consumer may maintain an action if he has been adversely affected by any of the following:

(1) the use or employment by any person of an act or practice declared to be unlawful by Section 17.46 of this subchapter;

(2) a failure by any person to comply with an express or implied warranty;

(3) any unconscionable action or course of action by any person; or

(4) the use or employment by any person of an act or practice in violation of Article 21.21, Texas Insurance Code, as amended, or rules or regulations issued by the State Board of Insurance under Article 21.21, Texas Insurance Code, as amended.

(b) In a suit filed under this section, each consumer who prevails may obtain:

(1) three times the amount of actual damages plus court costs and attorneys' fees reasonable in relation to the amount of work expended;

(2) an order enjoining such acts or failure to act;

(3) orders necessary to restore to any party to the suit any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired in violation of this subchapter; and

(4) any other relief which the court deems proper, including the appointment of a receiver or revocation of a license or certificate to engage in business in this state if the judgment has not been satisfied within three months of the date of the final judgment. The court may not revoke or suspend a license to do business in this state or appoint a receiver to take over the affairs of a person who has failed to satisfy a judgment if the person is a licensee of or regulated by a state agency which has statutory authority to revoke or suspend a license or to appoint a receiver or trustee.

(c) On a finding by the court that an action under this section was brought in bad faith or for the purpose of harassment, the court may award to the defendant reasonable attorneys' fees in relation to the amount of work expended, and court costs.

§ 17.51. Class Actions

(a) If a consumer has been damaged in an amount in excess of $10 by an unlawful method, act, or practice contained in Subsection (b) of Section 17.46 of this subchapter, an act or practice in violation of Article 21.21, Texas Insurance Code, as amended, or rules or regulations issued by the State Board of Insurance under Article 21.21, Texas Insurance Code, as amended, or by an act or practice or type of act or practice occurring subsequent to the time the act or practice or type of act or practice was declared unlawful or deceptive to the consumer by a final judgment of an appellate court of proper jurisdiction and venue of this state that was reported officially, a consumer may bring an action on behalf of himself and other consumers if the unlawful act or practice has caused damage to the other consumers who are similarly situated, to recover damages and relief as provided in this subchapter.

(b) A plaintiff who prevails in a class action under this subchapter may recover:

(1) court costs and attorneys' fees reasonable in relation to the amount of work expended in addition to actual damages;

(2) an order enjoining the act or failure to act;

(3) any orders which may be necessary to restore to any party to the suit any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired in violation of this subchapter; and

(4) any other relief which the court deems proper including the appointment of a receiver or revocation of a license or certificate to engage in business in this state if the judgment has not been satisfied within six months of the date of issuance of the final judgment. The court may not revoke or suspend a license to do business in this state or appoint a receiver to take over the affairs of a person who has failed to satisfy a judgment if the person is a licensee of or regulated by a state agency which has statutory authority to revoke or suspend a license or to appoint a receiver or trustee.

(c) On a finding by the court that an action under this section was brought in bad faith or for purposes of harassment, the court may award to the defendant reasonable attorneys' fees in relation to the work expended, and court costs.

(d) An action under this section may not be maintained or shall be stayed if proceedings regarding an administrative class action under Section 14, Article 21.21, Texas Insurance Code, as amended, have been initiated regarding the same acts or practices and the same defendant in the action under this section.

§ 17.52. Class Action: Procedure

(a) The court shall permit one or more members of a class to sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of the class only if:

(1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;

(2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class;

(3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and

(4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

(b) An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of Subsection (a) of this section are satisfied and in addition:

(1) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:

(A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class; or

(B) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or

(2) the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or

(3) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

The matters pertinent to the findings include:

(A) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;

(B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class;

(C) the desirability or undesirability of controversy concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and

(D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(c) In construing this section, the courts of Texas shall be guided by the decisions of the federal courts interpreting Rule 23, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be maintained as a class action. An order under this subsection may be altered or amended before a decision on the merits. An order determining that the action may or may not be brought as a class action is an interlocutory order which is appealable and the procedures provided in Rule 385, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, apply.

(e) If the action is permitted as a class action, the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.

(f) If the notice shall contain a statement that:

(1) the court will exclude the member notified from the class if he so requests by a specified date;

(2) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and

(3) any member who does not request exclusion, if he desires, may enter an appearance through counsel.

(g) A class action may not be dismissed, settled, or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal, settlement, or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.

(h) When appropriate, an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues or a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this section shall be construed and applied accordingly.

(i) The judgment in a class action shall describe those to whom the notice was directed and who have not requested exclusion and those the court finds to be members of the class. The court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.

(j) In the conduct of a class action the court may make appropriate orders:

(1) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;

(2) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members or to the attorney general of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;

(3) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;

(4) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; or

(5) dealing with similar procedural matters.

(k) The filing of a suit under this section tolls the statute of limitations for bringing a suit by an individual under Section 17.50 of this subchapter. An order of the court denying the bringing of a suit as a class action does not affect the ability of an individual to bring the same or a similar suit under Section 17.50 of this subchapter.

§ 17.53. Preliminary Notice

(a) At least 30 days prior to the commencement of a suit for damages under Section 17.51 of this subchapter, the consumer must notify the intended defendant of his complaint and make demand that the defendant provide relief to the consumer and others similarly situated.

(b) The notice must be in writing and sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the place where the transaction occurred, the intended defendants’ principal place of business in this state, or if neither will affect notice, to the office of the Secretary of State of Texas.

(c) An action for injunctive relief under Section 17.51 of this subchapter may be commenced without compliance with Subsection (a) of this section. Not less than 30 days after the commencement of an action for injunctive relief, and after compliance with the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section, the consumer may amend his complaint without leave of court to include a request for damages.

(d) No damages may be awarded to a consumer class under this section if within 30 days of receipt of the notice the intended defendant furnished the consumer, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, a written offer of settlement. The offer of settlement must include a statement that:

(1) all consumers similarly situated have been adequately identified or a reasonable effort to identify such other consumers has been made, and a description of the class so identified and the method employed to identify them;

(2) all consumers so identified have been notified that upon their request the intended defendant will provide relief to the consumer and all others similarly situated, and a complete explanation of the relief being afforded and a copy of the notice or communication which the intended defendant is providing to the members of the class;

(3) the relief being afforded the consumer has been, or if said offer is accepted by the consumer, will be given within a stated reasonable period of time; and

(4) the practice complained of has ceased.

(e) Attempts to comply with the provisions of this section by a person receiving a demand shall be an offer to compromise and shall be inadmissible as evidence. Attempts to comply with a demand shall not be considered an admission of engaging in an unlawful act or practice. Evidence of compliance or attempts to comply with the provisions of this section may be introduced by a defendant for the purpose of establishing good faith or to show compliance with the provisions of this section.

§ 17.54. Damages: Defense

No award of damages may be given in any action filed under Section 17.51 of this subchapter if the defendant:

(1) proves that the action complained of resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the use of reasonable procedures adopted to avoid any error; and

(2) made restitution of any consideration received from any member of the class.

§ 17.55. Promotional Material

If damages or civil penalties are assessed against the seller of goods or services for advertisements or promotional material in a suit filed under Section 17.47, 17.48, 17.50, or 17.51 of this subchapter, the seller of the goods or services has a cause of action against a third party for the amount of damages or civil penalties assessed against the seller plus attorneys’ fees on a showing that:

(1) the seller received the advertisements or promotional material from the third party;

(2) the seller’s only action with regard to the advertisements or promotional material was to disseminate the material; and

(3) the seller has ceased disseminating the material.

§ 17.56. Venue

An action brought under Section 17.50 or 17.51 of this subchapter may be commenced in the county in which the person against whom the suit is brought resides, has his principal place of business, or is doing business.

§ 17.57. Subpoenas

The clerk of a district court at the request of any party to a suit pending in his court which is brought under this subchapter shall issue a subpoena for any witness or witnesses who may be represented to reside within 100 miles of the courthouse of the county in which the suit is pending or who may be found within such distance at the time of trial. The clerk shall issue a separate subpoena and a copy thereof for each witness subpoenaed. When an action is pending in Travis County on the consent of the parties a subpoena may be issued for any witness or witnesses who may be represented to reside within 100 miles of the courthouse of a county in which the suit could otherwise have been brought or who may be found within such distance at the time of trial.

§ 17.58. Voluntary Compliance

(a) In the administration of this subchapter the consumer protection division may accept assurance of voluntary compliance with respect to any act or practice which violates this subchapter from any person who is engaging in, has engaged in, or is about to engage in the act or practice. The assurance shall be in writing and shall be filed with and subject to the approval of the district court in the county in which the alleged violator resides or does business or in the district court of Travis County.

(b) The acceptance of an assurance of voluntary compliance may be conditioned on the stipulation that the person in violation of this subchapter re­stores to any person or interests any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of acts or practices which violate this subchapter.
(c) An assurance of voluntary compliance shall not be considered an admission of prior violation of this subchapter. However, unless an assurance has been rescinded by agreement of the parties or voided by a court for good cause, subsequent failure to comply with the terms of an assurance is prima facie evidence of a violation of this subchapter.

(d) Matters closed by the filing of an assurance of voluntary compliance may be reopened at any time. Assurances of voluntary compliance shall in no way affect individual rights of action under this subchapter, except that the rights of individuals with regard to money or property received pursuant to a stipulation in the voluntary compliance under Subsection (b) of this section are governed by the terms of the voluntary compliance.

§ 17.59. Powers of Receiver

(a) When a receiver is appointed by the court under this subchapter, he shall have the power to sue for, collect, receive, and take into his possession all the goods and chattels, rights and credits, money, and effects, lands, tenements, books, records, documents, papers, choses in action, bills, notes, and property of every description, derived by means of any practice declared to be illegal and prohibited by this subchapter, including property with which such property has been mingled if it cannot be identified in kind because of the commingling, and to sell, convey, and assign the property and hold and dispose of the proceeds under the direction of the court.

(b) Any person who has suffered damages as a result of any unlawful practices and submits proof to the satisfaction of the court that he has in fact been damaged, may participate with general creditors in the distribution of the assets to the extent he has sustained out-of-pocket losses. In the case of a partnership or business entity, the receiver shall settle the estate and distribute the assets under the direction of the court. The court shall have jurisdiction of all questions arising in the proceedings and may make any orders or judgments required.

(b) If the claims of consumers remain unsatisfied after distribution of the assets, the court may order that all persons who knowingly participated in the unlawful enterprise be held jointly and severally liable to the extent of the unsatisfied consumer claims if such person:

1. Contributed substantial personal services, money, credit, real, personal, or mixed property, or any other thing of substantial value with the expectation of sharing in the profits of the enterprise; and

2. Had knowledge or should have had knowledge of the unlawful purpose of the enterprise at the time such things of value were contributed, or freely continued in the association or other relationship after gaining knowledge of the unlawful purpose of the enterprise.

§ 17.60. Reports and Examinations

Whenever the consumer protection division has reason to believe that a person is engaging in, has engaged in, or is about to engage in any act or practice declared to be unlawful by this subchapter, or when it reasonably believes it to be in the public interest to conduct an investigation to ascertain whether any person is engaging in, has engaged in, is about to engage in any such act or practice, an authorized member of the division may:

1. Require the person to file on the prescribed forms a statement or report in writing, under oath or otherwise, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the alleged violation and such other data and information as the consumer protection division deems necessary;

2. Examine under oath any person in connection with this alleged violation;

3. Examine any merchandise or sample of merchandise deemed necessary and proper; and

4. Pursuant to an order of the appropriate court, impound any sample of merchandise that is produced in accordance with this subchapter and retain it in the possession of the division until the completion of all proceedings in connection with which the merchandise is produced.

This section shall not apply to licensed insurers or licensed insurance agents transacting an insurance business in this state under the authority and jurisdiction of the State Board of Insurance unless the State Board of Insurance or the Insurance Commissioner has requested in writing that the consumer protection division file an action under Section 17.47 of this subchapter.

§ 17.61. Civil Investigative Demand

(a) Whenever the consumer protection division believes that any person may be in possession, custody, or control of the original copy of any documentary material relevant to the subject matter of an investigation of a possible violation of this subchapter, an authorized agent of the division may execute in writing and serve on the person a civil investigative demand requiring the person to produce the documentary material and permit inspection and copying. This section shall not apply to licensed insurers or licensed insurance agents transacting an insurance business in this state under the authority and jurisdiction of the State Board of Insurance unless the State Board of Insurance or the Insurance Commissioner has requested in writing that the consumer protection division file an action under Section 17.47 of this subchapter.

(b) Each demand shall:

1. State the statute and section under which the alleged violation is being investigated, and the general subject matter of the investigation;

2. Describe the class or classes of documentary material to be produced with reasonable specificity so as to fairly indicate the material demanded;

3. Prescribe a return date within which the documentary material is to be produced; and

4. Identify the members of the consumer protection division to whom the documentary material is to be made available for inspection and copying.

(c) A civil investigative demand may contain a requirement or disclosure of documentary material which would be discoverable under the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.
§ 17.61 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE 206

(d) Service of any demand may be made by:
(1) delivering a duly executed copy of the demand to the person to be served or to a partner or to any officer or agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process on behalf of that person;
(2) delivering a duly executed copy of the demand to the principal place of business in the state of the person to be served;
(3) mailing by registered mail or certified mail a duly executed copy of the demand addressed to the person to be served at the principal place of business in this state, or if the person has no place of business in this state, to his principal office or place of business.

(e) Documentary material demanded pursuant to this section shall be produced for inspection and copying during normal business hours at the principal office or place of business of the person served, or at other times and places as may be agreed on by the person served and the consumer protection division.

(f) No documentary material produced pursuant to a demand under this section, unless otherwise ordered by a court for good cause shown, shall be produced for inspection or copying by, nor shall its contents be disclosed to any person other than the authorized employee of the consumer protection division without the consent of the person who produced the material. The consumer protection division shall prescribe reasonable terms and conditions allowing the documentary material to be available for inspection and copying by the person who produced the material or any duly authorized representative of that person. The consumer protection division may use the documentary material or copies of it as it determines necessary in the enforcement of this subchapter, including presentation before any court. Any material which contains trade secrets shall not be presented except with the approval of the court in which the action is pending after adequate notice to the person furnishing the material.

(g) At any time before the return date specified in the demand, or within 20 days after the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, a petition to extend the return date for, or to modify or set aside the demand, stating good cause, may be filed in the district court in the county where the parties reside, or a district court of Travis County.

(h) A person on whom a demand is served under this section shall comply with the terms of the demand unless otherwise provided by a court order.

(i) Personal service of a similar investigative demand under this section may be made on any person outside of this state if the person has engaged in conduct in violation of this subchapter. Such persons shall be deemed to have submitted themselves to the jurisdiction of this state within the meaning of this section.

§ 17.62 Penalties

(a) Any person who, with intent to avoid, evade, or prevent compliance, in whole or in part, with Section 17.60 or 17.61 of this subchapter, removes from any place, conceal, withholds, or destroys, mutilates, alters, or by any other means falsifies any documentary material or merchandise or sample of merchandise is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by confinement in the county jail for not more than one year, or both.

(b) If a person fails to comply with a directive of the consumer protection division under Section 17.60 of this subchapter or with a civil investigative demand for documentary material served on him under Section 17.61 of this subchapter, or if satisfactory copying or reproduction of the material cannot be done and the person refuses to surrender the material, the consumer protection division may file in the district court in the county in which the person resides, is found, or transacts business, and serve on the person, a petition for an order of the court for enforcement of Sections 17.60 and 17.61 of this subchapter. If the person transacts business in more than one county, the petition shall be filed in the county in which the person maintains his principal place of business, or in another county agreed on by the parties to the petition.

(c) When a petition is filed in the district court in any county under this section, the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter presented and to enter any order required to carry into effect the provisions of Sections 17.60 and 17.61 of this subchapter. Any final order entered is subject to appeal to the Texas Supreme Court. Failure to comply with any final order entered under this section is punishable by contempt.

§ 17.63 Application

The provisions of this subchapter apply only to acts or practices occurring after the effective date of this subchapter, except a right of action or power granted to the attorney general under Chapter 10, Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, prior to the effective date of this subchapter.

23.10. Assignment Discharges Debtor.
§ 23.02. Nature and Effect of Assignment

(a) A debtor may assign his real and personal estate under this chapter to an assignee for the benefit of the debtor's creditors.

(b) An assigning debtor shall provide in the assignment for distribution of all his real and personal estate to each consenting creditor in proportion to each consenting creditor's claim.

(c) Regardless of an expression to the contrary, an assignment with an intent described in Subsection (b) of this section, and when the property is recovered, the assignee shall apply it for the benefit of the assigning debtor's creditors along with property belonging to the assigned estate already in the assignee's possession. If an assignee neglects or refuses to sue to recover property transferred with an intent to defeat, delay, defraud, or give preference to a creditor is void and the property passes under the assignment rather than by the transfer.

§ 23.03. Form and Content of Assignment

(a) For an assignment to be valid, it must be proved or acknowledged and recorded in the manner provided by law for the conveyance of real estate.

(b) An assigning debtor shall attach to his assignment an inventory containing the following information:

1. A list naming each creditor of the assigning debtor;
2. The resident address, if known, of each creditor;
3. The amount owed each creditor and the type of debt;
4. The consideration for the debt and the place where the debt arose;
5. A description of each existing judgment or security for the payment of the debt;
6. A schedule of all the assigning debtor's real and personal estate at the date of the assignment;
7. A description of
   (A) each encumbrance on the real and personal estate; and
   (B) each voucher and security relating to the estate; and
8. The value of the estate.

(c) The assigning debtor shall sign the inventory required by Subsection (b) of this section and swear that it is just and true.

SUBCHAPTER C. DUTIES AND RIGHTS OF ASSIGNEE

§ 23.16. Assignee's Qualifications, Duty to Record Assignment, and Bond

(a) An assignee shall be a resident of this state and a resident of the county in which the assigning debtor resides, or in which the assigning debtor's principal business was conducted.

(b) Immediately after the assignment instrument is executed and delivered to him, the assignee shall record it in the county of his residence and in each county in which there is real property conveyed to the assignee on application of the assigning debtor or a creditor, or on its own motion,

(c) As soon as the new assignee executes and files a bond as required by Sections 23.16(c) and (d) of this code, he shall take possession of the assigned estate and carry out the assignment.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 23.17. Notice of Assignee's Appointment

(a) Within 30 days after an assignment is executed, the assignee shall publish notice of his appointment as assignee in a newspaper published in the county

(1) where the assigning debtor resides or where he operated his principal business before the assignment; or

(2) nearest the assigning debtor's residence or principal business if a newspaper is not published in the county of the assigning debtor's residence or principal business.

(b) The assignee shall publish notice of his appointment as assignee once each week for three consecutive weeks.

(c) The assignee shall notify by mail each of the assigning debtor's listed creditors of his appointment as assignee.

§ 23.18. Replacement of Assignee

(a) A county or district court of the county in which the assignee resides shall remove or replace the assignee on application of the assigning debtor or a creditor, or on its own motion,

(1) if the court is satisfied that the assignee has not executed and filed the bond required by Sections 23.16(c) and (d) of this code;

(2) if the assignee refuses or fails to serve for any reason; or

(3) for good cause.

(b) On removal, resignation, or death of the assignee, the court shall appoint in writing a new assignee in term time or vacation.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 23.19. Assignee's Duty to Distribute Assigned Estate

Each time an assignee has enough money to pay 10 percent of the assigning debtor's debts, he shall distribute the money among the creditors entitled to receive it in proportion to their claims allowed under Section 23.31(b) of this code.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 23.20. Discount of Claim Not Due and Allowance of Secured Claim

(a) The assignee may allow a claim which is not due at its present value by discounting it at the legal rate.

(b) If a creditor holds collateral to secure his claim worth less than his claim, the assignee may estimate the value of the collateral and allow the creditor as a claim against the assigned estate only the difference between the value of the collateral and the amount of the claim.

§ 23.21. Assignee's Entitlement to Compensation

An assignee is entitled to reasonable compensation for his services and reimbursement for his necessary expenses, including an attorney's fee, all of which shall be fixed by the county or district court who approved his bond. The compensation, expenses, and attorney's fee fixed by the county or district court shall be paid out of the assigned estate.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 23.22. Examination of Debtor or Other Person

(a) The court in which a proceeding involving an assigned estate has been filed may, after reasonable notice to each person concerned, compel any person to answer questions under oath on

(1) application of a creditor of the assigning debtor; or

(2) its own motion.

(b) The court may compel attendance and an answer to any question concerning the assigned estate by writ or order as in other cases. Questions asked and answers given during the examination shall be in writing, the person examined shall swear to and sign his answers before the clerk, and the questions and answers shall be filed with the clerk for use by anyone interested in the proceeding.

(c) The court shall charge the cost of the examination against the applicant or the assigned estate, as the court deems proper.
(d) The assigning debtor may not be prosecuted or punished for an answer given by him during the examination.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]

§ 23.23. Assignee's Final Report and Discharge

(a) An assignee wishing to be discharged from his appointment shall prepare and file for record with the county clerk of the county in which his assignment is recorded a sworn report describing

(1) all property which came into his possession under the assignment; and

(2) how and to whom he distributed the property.

(b) The assignee shall also deposit in the registry of the court who approved his bond money belonging to the assigned estate still in his possession at the time he files his report under Subsection (a) of this section. The court shall distribute the money under the order of the court who approved his bond money belonging to the assigned estate unless he has good reason to believe the claim is not just and true.

(2) stating that

(A) the claim is true;

(B) the debt is just; and

(C) all proper credits or offsets have been allowed against the claim.

(b) The assignee shall allow a claim filed under Subsection (a) of this section against the assigned estate unless he has good reason to believe the claim is not just and true.

(c) If a creditor does not file a statement in the time required by Subsection (a) of this section, he is not entitled to receive any of the assigned estate.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]

§ 23.24. Time Limit on Bringing Action Against Assignee

An action against an assignee based on his conduct in carrying out the assignment, as shown in his report filed under Section 23.23(a) of this code, must be brought within 12 months after the report is filed or the action is barred.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]

[Sections 23.25 to 23.29 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER D. DUTIES AND RIGHTS OF CREDITORs

§ 23.30. Creditor's Consent to Assignment

(a) A creditor must inform the assignee in writing of his consent to the assignment within four months after the assignee gives the notice required by Section 23.17 of this code.

(b) If a creditor is not given actual notice of an assignment, but subsequently learns of the assignment, he may consent to the assignment at any time before the first distribution of the assigned estate is begun.

(c) Receipt by a creditor of payment for part of his claim from the assignee is conclusive evidence of the creditor's consent to the assignment.

(d) If a creditor does not consent to an assignment, he is not entitled to receive any of the assigned estate under the assignment.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]

§ 23.31. Creditor's Proof and Assignee's Allowance of Claim

(a) Within six months after the first publication of notice of appointment required by Section 23.17 of this code, a consenting creditor must file with the assignee a statement, sworn to by the creditor, his agent, or attorney,

(1) describing the nature and amount of the creditor's claim against the assigning debtor; and

(2) stating that

(A) the claim is true;

(B) the debt is just; and

(C) all proper credits or offsets have been allowed against the claim.

§ 24.02. Transfer to Defraud Is Void

(a) A transfer of real or personal property, a suit, a decree, judgment, or execution, or a bond or other writing is void with respect to a creditor, purchaser, or other interested person if the transfer, suit, decree, judgment, execution, or bond or other writing was intended to

(1) delay or hinder any creditor, purchaser, or other interested person from obtaining that to which he is, or may become, entitled; or

(2) restrain payment of the claim by the assignee; and

(3) the expense of carrying out the assignment.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1]
§ 24.02 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) defraud any creditor, purchaser, or other interested person of that to which he is, or may become, entitled.

(b) The title of a purchaser for value is not void under Subsection (a) of this section unless he purchased with notice of

(1) the intent of his transferor to delay, hinder, or defraud; or

(2) the fraud that voided the title of his transferor.

§ 24.03. Debtor's Transfer Not for Value Is Void

(a) A transfer by a debtor is void with respect to an existing creditor of the debtor if the transfer is not made for fair consideration, unless, in addition to the property transferred, the debtor has at the time of transfer enough property in this state subject to execution to pay all of his existing debts.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not void a transfer with respect to a subsequent creditor of or purchaser from the debtor.

§ 24.04. Fraudulent Gift of Tangible Personal Property Is Void

A gift of tangible personal property is void unless

(1) the gift is evidenced by

(A) a deed that has been duly acknowledged or proved and recorded; or

(B) a will that has been duly probated; or

(2) actual possession of the subject matter of the gift is in the donee or someone claiming under him.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 24.05. Pretended Loan of Tangible Personal Property Is Ineffective

(a) With respect to a creditor of or purchaser from the possessor of tangible personal property, a pretended loan of tangible personal property is fraudulent, and the absolute title to the tangible personal property is in the possessor, if

(1) the possessor, or someone claiming under him, has possessed the tangible personal property for two years; and

(2) the lender of the tangible personal property has not, during those two years, made and pursued by law a demand for the tangible personal property.

(b) With respect to a creditor of or purchaser from the possessor of tangible personal property, a pretended reservation or limitation on the use of tangible personal property is fraudulent, and the absolute title to the tangible personal property is in the possessor, if the possessor, if someone claiming under him, has possessed the tangible personal property for two years.

(c) Neither Subsection (a) nor (b) of this section applies to a loan, or reservation or limitation on the use of tangible personal property if the loan, reservation, or limitation is evidenced by a

(1) duly probated will; or

(2) duly acknowledged or proved and recorded deed or other writing.

Sections
26.01. Promised or Agreement Must be In Writing.

§ 26.01. Promise or Agreement Must be In Writing

(a) A promise or agreement described in Subsection (b) of this section is not enforceable unless the promise or agreement, or a memorandum of it, is

(1) in writing; and

(2) signed by the person to be charged with the promise or agreement or by someone lawfully authorized to sign for him.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section applies to

(1) a promise by an executor or administrator to answer out of his own estate for any debt or damage due from his testator or intestate;

(2) a promise by one person to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another person;

(3) an agreement made on consideration of marriage;

(4) a contract for the sale of real estate;

(5) a lease of real estate for a term longer than one year;

(6) an agreement which is not to be performed within one year from the date of making the agreement; and

(7) a promise or agreement to pay a commission for the sale or purchase of

(A) an oil or gas mining lease;

(B) an oil or gas royalty;

(C) minerals; or

(D) a mineral interest.

Sections
27.01. Fraud In Real Estate and Stock Transactions.

§ 27.01. Fraud In Real Estate and Stock Transactions

(a) Fraud in a transaction involving real estate or stock in a corporation or joint stock company consists of a

(1) false representation of a past or existing material fact, when the false representation is

(A) made to a person for the purpose of inducing that person to enter into a contract; and

(B) relied on by that person in entering into that contract; or
(2) false promise to do an act, when the false promise is
(A) material;
(B) made with the intention of not fulfilling it;
(C) made to a person for the purpose of inducing that person to enter into a contract; and
(D) relied on by that person in entering into that contract.

(b) A person who makes a false representation or false promise, and a person who benefits from that false representation or false promise, commit the fraud described in Subsection (a) of this section and are jointly and severally liable to the person defrauded for actual damages. The measure of actual damages is the difference between the value of the real estate or stock as represented or promised, and its actual value in the condition in which it is delivered at the time of the contract.

(c) A person who willfully makes a false representation or false promise, and a person who knowingly benefits from a false representation or false promise, commit the fraud described in Subsection (a) of this section and are liable to the person defrauded for exemplary damages not to exceed twice the amount of the actual damages.

§ 33.01. Definitions

In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition,

(1) “assignment” includes any written stock power, bond power, bill of sale, deed, declaration of trust, or other instrument of transfer;

(2) “claim of beneficial interest” includes a claim of any interest by a decedent’s legatee, distributee, heir or creditor, a beneficiary under a trust, a ward, a beneficial owner of a security registered in the name of a nominee, or a minor owner of a security registered in the name of a custodian, or a claim of any similar interest, whether the claim is asserted by the claimant, a fiduciary, or any other authorized person on his behalf, and includes a claim that the transfer would be in breach of fiduciary duties;

(3) “corporation” means a private or public corporation, association, or trust issuing a security;

(4) “fiduciary” means an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, committee, conservator, curator, tutor, custodian, or nominee;

(5) “person” includes an individual, a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity;

(6) “security” includes any share of stock, bond, debenture, note, or other security issued by a corporation which is registered as to ownership on the books of the corporation;

(7) “transfer” means a change on the books of a corporation in the registered ownership of a security; and

(8) “transfer agent” means a person employed or authorized by a corporation to transfer securities issued by the corporation.

§ 33.02. Registration In the Name of a Fiduciary

A corporation or transfer agent registering a security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship; and thereafter the corporation and its transfer agent may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the corporation or transfer agent receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security.

§ 33.03. Assignment by a Fiduciary

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a corporation or transfer agent making a transfer of a security pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary

(1) may assume without inquiry that the assignment, even though to the fiduciary himself or to his nominee, is within his authority and capacity and is not in breach of his fiduciary duties;

(2) may assume without inquiry that the fiduciary has complied with any controlling instrument and with the law of the jurisdiction governing the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and

(3) is not charged with notice of and is not bound to obtain or examine any court record or any recorded or unrecorded document relating to the fiduciary relationship or the assignment.

§ 33.04. Requirement of Signature Guarantee

For the transfer of a security to come within the terms of this Chapter, the signature on the assign-
§ 33.04 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

Section 34. Principal and Surety

A corporation or transfer agent incurs no liability to any person by making a transfer or otherwise acting in a manner authorized by this chapter.

§ 33.08. Nonliability of Third Persons

(a) No person who participates in the acquisition, disposition, assignment, or transfer of a security by or to a fiduciary (including a person who guarantees the signature of the fiduciary) is liable for participation in a breach of fiduciary duty by reason of failure to inquire whether the transaction involves such a breach unless it is shown that

(1) he acted with actual knowledge that the proceeds of the transaction were being or were to be used wrongfully for the individual benefit of the fiduciary; or

(2) the transaction was otherwise in breach of duty.

(b) If a corporation or transfer agent makes a transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary, a person who guaranteed the signature of the fiduciary is not liable on the guarantee to any person to whom the corporation or transfer agent by reason of this chapter incurs no liability.

(c) This section does not impose any liability on the corporation or its transfer agent.

§ 33.09. Territorial Application

(a) The rights and duties of a corporation and its transfer agents in registering a security in the name of a fiduciary or in making a transfer of a security pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction under whose laws the corporation is organized; provided, however, that for purposes of this Act, a National Banking Association shall be deemed to have been organized in the state in which its principal banking house is located.

(b) This chapter applies to the rights and duties of a person

(1) other than the corporation and its transfer agents with regard to acts and omissions in this state in connection with the acquisition, disposition, assignment, or transfer of a security by or to a fiduciary; and

(2) who guarantees in this state the signature of a fiduciary in connection with such a transaction.

§ 33.10. Tax Obligations

This chapter does not affect any obligation of a corporation or transfer agent with respect to estate, inheritance, succession, or other taxes imposed by the laws of this state.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

CHAPTER 34. PRINCIPAL AND SURETY

Section 34.01. Definition of Surety.

Section 34.02. Surety May Require Suit on Accrued Right of Action.
§ 34.01. Definition of Surety

In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition, "surety" includes endorser, guarantor, drawer of a draft which has been accepted, and every other form of suretyship, whether created by express contract or by operation of law.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 34.02. Surety May Require Suit on Accrued Right of Action

(a) When a right of action has accrued on a contract for the payment of money or performance of an act, a surety on the contract may require by written notice that the obligee forthwith sue on the contract.

(b) A surety who gives notice to an obligee under Subsection (a) of this section is discharged from all liability on the contract if the obligee

(1) is not under legal disability; and either

(2) fails to sue on the contract during the first term of court after receiving the notice, or during the second term showing good cause for the delay; or

(3) fails to prosecute the suit to judgment and execution.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 34.03. Levy First on Principal's Property

(a) If a judgment granted against two or more defendants finds a suretyship relation between or among them, the court shall order the sheriff to levy

(1) first, against the principal's property which is located in the county where the judgment was granted;

(2) second, if the sheriff cannot find enough of the principal's property in the county to satisfy the execution, against so much of the principal's property as he finds; and

(3) third, against so much of the surety's property as is necessary to make up the balance of the amount shown in the writ of execution.

(b) The clerk shall note the order to the sheriff on the writ of execution.

§ 34.04. Subrogation Rights of Surety

(a) A judgment is not discharged by a surety's payment of it in whole or part if the payment is compelled or, if voluntarily made, is applied to the judgment because of the suretyship relation.

(b) A surety who pays on a judgment as described in Subsection (a) of this section is subrogated to all of the judgment creditor's rights under the judgment.

A subrogated surety is entitled

(1) to execution on the judgment against the principal's property for the amount of his payment, plus interest and costs; and

(2) if there is more than one surety, to execution on the judgment against both the principal's property and the property of his cosurety or cosureties for the amount his payment exceeded his proportionate share of the judgment, plus interest and costs.

(c) A subrogated surety seeking execution under Subsection (b) of this section shall apply for it to the clerk or court, and execution shall be levied, collected, and returned as in other cases.

[ Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1. ]

§ 34.05. Officer Compelled to Pay on Judgment Treated As Surety

(a) An officer has the rights of a surety provided in Section 34.04 of this code if compelled to pay a judgment in whole or part because of his default.

(b) An officer who fails to pay over money collected, or who wastes property levied on by him or in his possession, does not have the rights of a surety provided in Section 34.04 of this code.

§ 35.01. Definitions

(a) In Sections 35.02-35.08 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition,

(1) "Security instrument" means a mortgage, deed of trust, security agreement or other instrument executed to secure the payment of a bond, note, or other obligation of a utility, or instruments supplementary or amendatory thereto (including any signed copy thereof); and

(2) "Utility" means a person engaged in this state in the

(A) generation, transmission, or distribution and sale of electric power;
(B) transportation, distribution and sale through a local distribution system of natural or other gas for domestic, commercial, industrial, or other use;
(C) ownership or operation of a pipeline for the transmission or sale of natural or other gas, crude oil or petroleum products to other pipeline companies, refineries, local distribution systems, municipalities, or industrial consumers;
(D) provision of telephone or telegraph service to others;
(E) production, transmission, or distribution and sale of steam or water;
(F) operation of a railroad; and
(G) the provision of sewer service to others.

(b) The definitions in Chapters 1 and 9 of this code also apply to this subchapter.

§ 35.02. Filing Utility Security Instruments With Secretary of State; Perfection; Notice

(a) Payment of the statutory filing fee and deposit for filing in the office of the Secretary of State of a security instrument executed by a utility which creates a security interest in any personal property (including goods which are, or are to become, fixtures) in which a security interest may be perfected by filing under Chapter 9 of this code, located in this state, and owned by the utility when the security instrument was executed or to be acquired by the utility after execution of the security instrument; and

(b) A security instrument deposited for filing be­

PROVIDED THAT THE SECURITY INSTRUMENT SHALL FIRST BE PROVEN, ACKNOWLEDGED OR CERTIFIED AS OTHERWISE REQUIRED BY LAW FOR THE RECORDING OF REAL PROPERTY MORTGAGES.

(b) For perfection or notice to be effective as to a particular item of property, the filed security instrument must

(1) identify the property by type, character, or description if it is presently owned personal property (including fixtures); provided that for such purposes, any description of personal property or real estate is sufficient whether or not it is specific if it reasonably identifies what is described;
(2) provide a description of the property if it is presently owned real property; and
(3) state conspicuously on its title page: "This Instrument Contains After-Acquired Property Provisions" if the property is to be acquired after the execution of the security instrument.

§ 35.05. Filing of Security Instruments and Statement of Name Change, Merger or Consolidation by Secretary of State; Fees

(a) The Secretary of State shall endorse upon any security instrument and any statement of name change, merger, or consolidation deposited for filing in his office, the day and hour of receipt and the file number assigned to it. Such endorsement shall, in the absence of other evidence, be conclusive proof of the time and fact of deposit for filing.

(b) The Secretary of State shall retain in his office all security instruments and statements of name change, merger, or consolidation deposited in his office and shall file such in adequate filing devices.

(c) The uniform fee for filing and indexing a security instrument, or an instrument supplementary or amendatory thereto, and a statement of name change, merger, or consolidation and for stamping a copy of such documents, furnished by the secured party or the utility, to show the date and place of filing shall be $6.00.

§ 35.06. Information From Secretary of State

Upon the request of any person, the Secretary of State shall issue his certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective security instrument naming a particular utility, and if there is, giving the date and hour of filing of such instrument and the names and addresses of each secured party therein. The uniform fee for such a certificate shall be $5.00 if the request for the certificate is in the standard form prescribed by the Secretary of State, and otherwise shall be $10.00. Upon request the Secretary of State shall furnish a copy of any filed security instrument for a uniform fee of $1.00 per page, but not less than $5.00 nor more than $50.00 per request concerning a particular utility.

§ 35.07. Recording of Notice in County of Real Property; Separate Index by County Clerk of Security Instruments and Continuation Statements

(a) If any security instrument filed with the office of the Secretary of State under Section 35.02 of this code grants an interest, as security, in any real property owned by the utility, a notice of any security instrument affecting real property shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county where the real property is located, stating:

(1) the name of the utility which executed the security instrument;

(2) that a security instrument affecting real property in the county has been executed by the utility; and

(3) that such security instrument was filed, and other security instruments may be on file, in the office of the Secretary of State.

(b) It shall not be necessary to record a notice regarding other security instruments executed by the utility, and the notice recorded under Subsection (a) of this section shall be sufficient to provide notice of any and all other security instruments

(1) executed by the utility;

(2) filed in the office of the Secretary of State; and

(3) granting an interest, as security, in any real property, and fixtures thereto, located in the county where such notice was recorded.

(c) Notices recorded under Subsection (a) of this section shall be recorded and indexed by the county clerk in the same records and indices as are mortgages on real property.

(d) The county clerk shall maintain a separate index of utility security instruments and continuation statements recorded under prior law.

§ 35.08. Prior Perfected Liens; Refiling With Secretary of State

The perfection or notice provided by any security instrument covering any real or personal property located in this state which was heretofore filed or recorded in the office of the Secretary of State or the office of the county clerk of any county in this state continues effective until it would have lapsed under prior law or January 1, 1978, whichever occurs first; but it may be filed or refiled prior to such time in the office of the Secretary of State as provided in Section 35.02 of this code, and such filing or refiling shall continue the effectiveness as provided in Sections 35.02 and 35.03 of this code.

§ 35.09. Repealer

The following act and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed:

Article 6645, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

[Sections 35.10 to 35.13 reserved for expansion]

§ 35.14. Definitions

In Sections 35.15-35.21 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition, (1) "agent" includes officer, employee, and receiver;

(2) "airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill;

(3) "bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of trans-
§ 35.14 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

porting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill;

(4) "common carrier" in Sections 35.15–35.17 of this code does not include a pipeline company or express company; and

(5) "goods" means all things which are treated as movable for the purposes of a contract of storage or transportation.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.15. Duties of Railroad Commission

(a) The railroad commission shall

(1) prescribe forms, terms, and conditions for authenticating, certifying, or validating bills of lading issued by a common carrier;

(2) regulate the manner of issuing bills of lading by a common carrier; and

(3) take other action necessary to carry out the purposes of Chapter 7 of this code.

(b) After giving reasonable notice to interested common carriers and to the public, the railroad commission may amend a rule promulgated under Subsection (a) of this section.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.16. Agent Wrongfully Failing to Issue Bill of Lading

(a) An agent of a common carrier may not after lawful demand fail or refuse to issue a bill of lading in accordance with Chapter 7 of this code or a rule of the railroad commission.

(b) An agent who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than $200 or by both.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.17. Agent Issuing Fraudulent Bill of Lading

(a) An agent of a common carrier may not with intent to defraud issue a bill of lading;

(1) issue a bill of lading;

(2) misdescribe in a bill of lading goods or their quantity described in the bill of lading; or

(3) issue a bill of lading without authority.

(b) An agent who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than 2 nor more than 5 years.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.18. Agent Issuing Duplicate Order Bill of Lading

(a) Except where customary in overseas transportation, an agent of a common carrier may not knowingly issue or aid in issuing an order bill of lading in duplicate or in a set of parts.

(b) An agent who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than 5 years and by a fine of not more than $5,000.

§ 35.19. Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 995, ch. 399, § 3(d), eff. January 1, 1974

§ 35.20. Inducing Issuance of Fraudulent Bill of Lading

(a) A person may not with intent to defraud induce an agent of a common carrier to

(1) issue to him a bill of lading; or

(2) materially misrepresent in a bill of lading issued on behalf of the common carrier the quantity of goods described in the bill of lading.

(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than 2 nor more than 5 years.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.21. Negotiating Fraudulent Bill of Lading

(a) A person may not with intent to defraud negotiate or transfer a bill of lading

(1) issued in violation of Chapter 7 of this code; or

(2) containing a false, material statement of fact.

(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than 10 years.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

[Sections 35.22 to 35.26 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. CRIMINAL OFFENSES INVOLVING WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS

§ 35.27. Definitions

In Sections 35.28–35.33 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition,

(1) "goods" means all things which are treated as movable for the purposes of a contract of storage or transportation;

(2) "issue" includes aiding in the issue of;

(3) "warehouseman" means a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire; and

(4) "warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.28. Warehouseman Issuing Fraudulent Warehouse Receipt

(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not with intent to defraud issue a warehouse receipt which contains a false statement of fact.

(b) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]
§ 35.29. Warehouseman Failing to State His Ownership of Goods on Receipt
(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not knowingly issue a negotiable warehouse receipt describing goods the warehouseman owns and is storing (whether the warehouseman owns them solely, jointly, or in common) unless he states the warehouseman's ownership on the receipt.
(b) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.30. Warehouseman Issuing Warehouse Receipt Without Goods
(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not issue a warehouse receipt if he knows at the time of issuance that the goods described in the warehouse receipt are not under his actual control.
(b) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years or by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by both.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.31. Warehouseman Issuing Duplicate Warehouse Receipt
(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not issue a duplicate or additional negotiable warehouse receipt for goods if he knows at the time of issuance that a previously issued negotiable warehouse receipt describing those goods is outstanding and uncancelled.
(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply if
(1) the word "Duplicate" is plainly placed on the duplicate or additional negotiable warehouse receipt; or
(2) goods described in the outstanding and uncancelled negotiable warehouse receipt were delivered pursuant to court order on proof that the receipt was lost or destroyed.
(c) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years or by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by both.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.32. Warehouseman Wrongfully Delivering Goods
(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not knowingly deliver goods described in a negotiable warehouse receipt and stored with him unless the receipt is surrendered to him at or before the time he delivers the goods.
(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply if the goods are
(1) delivered pursuant to court order on proof that the negotiable warehouse receipt describing them was lost or destroyed;
(2) lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien; or
(3) disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature.
(c) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.33. Failing to Disclose Ownership of Goods
(a) A person who obtains a negotiable warehouse receipt describing goods he does not own, or goods subject to a lien, may not with intent to defraud negotiate the receipt for value without disclosing his lack of ownership or the lien's existence.
(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

[Sections 35.34 to 35.38 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER D. MISCELLANEOUS

§ 35.39. Damages on Protested, Out-of-State Draft
The holder of a protested draft is entitled to damages equaling 10 percent of the amount of the draft, plus interest and costs of suit, if the
(1) draft was drawn by a merchant in this state on his agent or factor outside this state; and
(2) drawer's or indorser's liability on the draft has been fixed.
[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2343, ch. 785, § 1.]

§ 35.40. Identification of Patent Right Note or Lien
(a) A note or lien evidencing or securing the purchase price for a patent right or patent right territory must contain on its face a statement that it was given for a patent right or patent right territory.
(b) The statement required by Subsection (a) of this section
(1) is notice to a subsequent purchaser of the note or lien of all equities between the original parties to the note or lien; and
(2) subjects a subsequent holder of the note or lien to all defenses available against the original parties to the note or lien.
(c) A person selling a patent right or patent right territory may not take a note or lien evidencing or securing the purchase price for it without placing on the face of the note or lien the statement required by Subsection (a) of this section.
(d) A person who violates Subsection (c) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200.
DISPOSITION TABLE 1

Former Texas Statutes and Uniform Laws to Business and Commerce Code (Title 1)

Where there are no relevant sections in the Texas Business and Commerce Code, that fact is noted by the use of the abbreviation "N" for "None." The letter "S" before a section of the Business and Commerce Code means "Sec.". The abbreviation "Cf." before a section means "Compare."

Enactment

Titles 1 and 2 of the Texas Education Code and the chapter on public junior colleges in Title 3 were enacted by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2735, ch. 889, effective September 1, 1969.

The laws relating to higher education were included in the Code by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3072, ch. 1024, Article 1, § 1, effective September 1, 1971, which amended and reenacted Title 3. Article 1, § 2, thereof provided:

"Sec. 2. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. This is intended as a recodification only and no substantive changes are intended by this legislation."

Article 2 of the 1971 Act, which by sections 1 to 44 incorporated the provisions of certain acts passed during the 62nd legislative session into the Code, provided in sections 45 to 48:

"Section 45. Each section of this article takes effect only if and when the legislation on which it is based takes effect, but not earlier than September 1, 1971.

"Section 46. All provisions of the Code Construction Act (Article 5429b-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) apply to this article.

"Section 47. This article is intended as a codification only, and nothing in this article is intended to affect any substantive change in the law.

"Section 48. As each section of this article takes effect, the Act on which it is based is repealed."

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1449, ch. 405, which by sections 1 to 53 incorporated the provisions of certain acts passed during the regular and second called sessions of the 61st Legislature into the Code, and which by section 54 repealed the acts so incorporated, provided in sections 55 and 56:

"Sec. 55. Nothing in this Act is intended to make any change in the substantive law, but this Act is merely intended to be a recodification of the present law.

Sec. 56. If any other Act passed at the same session of the Legislative conflicts with any provision of this Act, the other Act prevails."

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3007, ch. 994, which codified various omitted civil and penal statutes and repealed said statutes, provided in section 18:

"Sec. 18. If any other Act passed at the same session of the Legislature conflicts with any provision of this Act, the other Act prevails."

Conversion Table

A conversion table is provided at the end of this Code to enable the user to trace the disposition in the Texas Education Code of the subject matter of repealed articles of the Civil Statutes and Penal Code.

This code shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Education Code." [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2736, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 1.02. Organization

(a) The division of this code into titles, subtitles, chapters, subchapters, sections, subsections and subdivisions, and the use of captions in connection therewith, are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of the code.

(b) This code has been organized and subdivided in the following manner:

(1) the code is divided into titles, containing groups of related chapters;

(2) the code is also divided into chapters, which are numbered consecutively throughout the code;

(3) chapters are divided into sections, each of which carries the initial arabic numeral of the chapter in which it is found, and the arrangement of sections within chapters is determined by the numbers following the decimal;

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

(4) sections are divided into subsections, and the subsections are numbered consecutively with lowercase letters enclosed in parentheses;

(5) subsections are divided into subdivisions, and subdivisions are numbered consecutively with arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses;

(6) subdivisions are divided into paragraphs, and paragraphs are numbered consecutively with capital letters enclosed in parentheses; and

(7) paragraphs are divided into subparagraphs, and subparagraphs are numbered consecutively with lowercase Roman numerals enclosed in parentheses.

§ 1.03. Purpose and Objectives

The aim in adopting this code is to bring together in a unified and organized form the existing law relating to tax-supported educational institutions and to simplify, clarify, and harmonize existing law relating both to the public school system and to the state-supported institutions of higher education.

§ 1.04. Applicability

(a) This code shall apply to all educational institutions supported either wholly or in part by state tax funds unless specifically excluded.

(b) This code shall not apply to those eleemosynary institutions under the control and direction of the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation or to the institutions and activities of the Texas Youth Council.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 2.01. Public Education in General

The objective of state support and maintenance of a system of public education is education for citizenship and is grounded upon conviction that a general diffusion of knowledge is essential for the welfare of Texas and for the preservation of the liberties and rights of citizens.

§ 2.02. The Flying of the State Flag

On all regular school days, every school and other educational institution covered by this code shall fly the Texas flag in accordance with the general rules governing its use.

§ 2.03. Dedication to the People of Texas

The educational institutions covered by this code are designed for and are open to the people of the State of Texas, subject only to such rules and regulations as the governing boards of such institutions may be authorized in this code to make and enforce for the welfare of the various institutions under their control.

§ 2.04. Protection of Land in Use by Schools

No public road shall be opened across land owned and used by any school district or other educational institution covered by this code without the consent of the regents, directors, or trustees of that institution and approval of the governor, unless the land is subject to sale under the general laws of Texas. The roads already opened across such land may be closed by the authorities in charge whenever they deem it necessary to protect the interest of the institution and on repayment with eight percent interest of the amount actually paid out as appears on the records of the commissioners court, by the situs county for the land's condemnation.

§ 2.05. Motor Vehicles Owned and Used by State-Supported Educational Institutions

(a) Motor vehicles, trailers, and semitrailers which are the property of and used exclusively by any school district, institution of higher education, or agency in charge, or branch are exempt from the payment of state registration fee. Nevertheless, the owners of such vehicles must comply with the general statutes relating to motor vehicle registration.

(b) Application for license plates, identification of vehicles and transfer of ownership are governed by the general statutes relating to motor vehicles and such special provisions of those statutes that relate to the particular type of vehicle concerned.

§ 2.06. Oath of Office and Allegiance

(a) No public funds shall be paid to any person as a teacher, instructor, visiting instructor, or other employee connected with any tax-supported educational institution in Texas unless he takes the oath of office required of members of the legislature and all other state officers, as provided in Article XVI, Section 1, of the Texas Constitution.

(b) Foreign visiting instructors, refugees, and political refugees from conquered countries are exempted from the requirements in Subsection (a) of this section if they file an affidavit, on a form prescribed by the attorney general of Texas, stating, among other things, that they are not members of the Communist, Fascist, or Nazi parties, nor of any bund, or affiliated organization, and that they will not engage in any un-American activities, nor teach any doctrines contrary to the constitution and laws of the United States of America or of the State of Texas.

(c) Any teacher or instructor of any tax-supported educational institution in Texas who shall be found guilty of openly advocating doctrines which seek to undermine or overthrow by force or violence the republican and democratic forms of government in the United States or which in any way seek to establish a government that does not rest upon the fundamental principle of consent of the governed, shall after a full adjudicative hearing by his employing or appointing authority be dismissed.

§ 2.07. Assignment, Transfer, or Pledge of Compensaton

(a) The terms "teacher" and "school employee" used in this section include:
(1) any person employed by any public school district, in an executive, administrative, or clerical capacity, or as a superintendent, principal, teacher, or instructor; and
(2) any person employed by a university, college, or other educational institution in an executive, administrative, or clerical capacity, or as a professor, instructor, or in any similar capacity.

(b) Any teacher's or school employee's assignment, pledge, or transfer of his salary or wages as security for indebtedness—or any interest or part of his salary or wages—then due or which may become due under an existing contract of employment shall be enforceable only under the following conditions:

(1) Before or at the time of execution, delivery, or acceptance of an assignment, pledge, or transfer, written approval must be obtained from the employing authority or officer, and if the teacher or school employee executing the instrument is employed by:
(A) a common school district, approval of his assignment, pledge, or transfer must be obtained from the secretary or chairman of the district board of trustees and also from the county superintendent of the county in which the district is located;
(B) an independent school district, approval of his assignment, pledge, or transfer must be obtained either from the president or secretary of the board of trustees or from the superintendent or business manager of the independent school district; and
(C) a college, university, or any other educational institution, approval of his assignment, pledge, or transfer must be obtained from the salary disbursement officer of the college, university, or other educational institution;

(2) Any assignment, pledge, or transfer must be in writing and acknowledged as required for the acknowledgment of deeds or other recorded instruments, and if executed by a married person, it must also be executed and acknowledged in a like manner by his or her spouse; however, the employer approving an assignment, pledge, or transfer need not acknowledge it; and

(3) An assignment, pledge, or transfer shall be enforceable only to the extent of the indebtedness it secures is a valid and enforceable obligation.

(c) Any school district, college, university, or other educational institution, or county superintendent—or disbursing agent—shall honor an assignment, pledge, or transfer fulfilling the conditions of Subsection (b) of this section without incurring any liability to the teacher or school employee executing the assignment, pledge, or transfer. Payment to any assignee, pledgee, or transferee in accordance with the terms of the instrument shall constitute payment to or for the account of the assignor, pledgor, or transferor. However, an assignment, pledge, or transfer shall be enforceable only to the extent of salary due or which may become due during continuation of the assignor's employment as a teacher or school employee.

(d) Venue for any suit against the employer of a teacher or school employee to enforce an assignment, pledge, or transfer of salary shall be in the county where the employing school or educational institution is located.

Saved from Repeal

Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 585, ch. 203, relating to actions on assignment of wages, and classified as Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 319c, provided, in part, in § 8 that "nothing in this Act shall in any manner affect or repeal any part of Acts, 1939, Forty-sixth Legislature, page 282, Chapter 13, as amended (codified as Vernon's Article 2883a) [now, this section]."

§ 2.08. Forfeiture of Position

During the term of his employment, a trustee or teacher in any public school or institution of higher learning in Texas, county or city superintendent, university president, or college president shall not act as agent or attorney for any textbook publishing company selling textbooks in Texas. Acceptance of the agency or attorneyship shall by operation of law forfeit his position with the public schools.

§ 2.09. Immunization

(a) No person may be admitted to any elementary or secondary school or institution of higher education unless he has been immunized against diphtheria, rubella, rubella, tetanus, poliomyelitis, and smallpox, except as provided in Subsection (c).

(b) Subject to the provisions of Subsection (c) the State Board of Health may modify or delete any of the immunizations in Subsection (a) or may require immunizations against additional diseases as a requirement for admission to any elementary or secondary school or institution of higher education.

(c) No form of immunization is required for a person's admission to any elementary or secondary school or institution of higher education when the person applying for admission submits to the admitting official either of the following:

(1) an affidavit or a certificate signed by a doctor who is duly registered and licensed under the Medical Practice Act of Texas, in which it is stated that, in the doctor's opinion, the immunization required would be injurious to the health and well-being of the applicant or any member of his family or household; or

(2) an affidavit signed by the applicant or, if a minor, by his parent or guardian stating that the immunization conflicts with the tenets and practice of a recognized church or religious denominated of which the applicant is an adheret or member; provided, however, that this exemption does not apply in times of emergency or epidemic declared by the Commissioner of Health.

(d) The State Department of Health shall provide the required immunizations to children in areas where no local provision exists to provide these services.

(e) A person may be provisionally admitted to an elementary or secondary school or institution of higher education if he has begun the required immunizations and if he continues to receive the necessary immunizations as rapidly as is medically feasible.
The State Department of Health shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to the provisional admission of persons to an elementary or secondary school or institution of higher education.

Chapter 3 of the Education Code, formerly consisting of a Section 3.01 which provided that 1969 H.B.No.241 (hereinafter cited) governed the Teacher Retirement System, was amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1449, ch. 405, § 1, effective May 26, 1971, to consist of Subchapters A to D containing Sections 3.01 to 3.62. These sections incorporate the provisions of Civil Statutes Arts. 2922–1.01 to 2922–4.11, enacted by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 109, (H.B.241) ch. 41 which was repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p.
1533, ch. 405, § 54(2).

The 1971 Act, which by sections 1 to 53 incorcorporated the provisions of certain acts passed during the regular and second called sessions of the 61st Legislature into the Code, and which by section 54 repealed the acts so incorporated, provided in sections 55 and 56:

“Sec. 55. Nothing in this Act is intended to make any change in the substantive law, but this Act is merely intended to be a recodification of the present law.

“Sec. 56. If any other Act passed at the same session of the Legislature conflicts with any provision of this Act, the other Act prevails.”

SUBCHAPTER C. BENEFITS

defined below in this section shall have the meanings hereinbelow given.

(1) "Retirement system" means the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, as defined in Section 3.01 of this code.

(2) "Public school" means any educational institution or organization in this state which under the laws of Texas is entitled to be supported wholly or partly by state, county, school district, or other municipal corporation funds.

(3) "Teacher" means any person employed to render teaching service on a full-time, regular salary basis by the governing board of any school district created under the laws of this state, by any county school board, by the State Board of Trustees of the Retirement System, by the State Board of Education, by the Central Education Agency, by the board of regents of any college or university, or by any other legally constituted board or agency of any public school.

(4) "Teaching service" means service rendered in organized public education in this state in professional or business administration, or in supervision or instruction.

(5) "Auxiliary employee" means a person other than a "teacher" employed on a full-time, regular salary basis by the boards or agencies listed in Subsection (a)(3) of this section.

(6) "Teaching" or "taught" means all regular services rendered by teachers and auxiliary employees which contribute directly or indirectly to instruction offered in the public schools of this state.

(7) "Employer" means the State of Texas or any of its designated agents or agencies responsible for public education, to include those boards and agencies listed in Subsection (a)(3) of this section.

(8) "Member" means any teacher or auxiliary employee included in the membership of the retirement system in accordance with this chapter.

(9) "State Board of Trustees" means the board established to administer the retirement system under the terms of this chapter.

(10) "Service" means service as a teacher or auxiliary employee in the public schools of this state, or in one of the other departments, institutions, or agencies of the public school system of Texas.

(11) "Prior service" means service by such person as a teacher or auxiliary employee prior to:

(A) September 1, 1987, as relates to any person who became a member or who at any time on or before August 31, 1949, was eligible for membership in the retirement system; or
(B) September 1, 1949, as relates to any person who for the first time became eligible for membership in the retirement system on or after September 1, 1949.

(12) "Membership service" means service rendered as a teacher or auxiliary employee while a member of the retirement system.

(13) "Creditable service" means the prior service, membership service, and military leave service for which a member of the retirement system is entitled to credit under the provisions of this chapter.

(14) "Accumulated contributions" means the sum of all the amounts deducted from the compensation of a member and credited with the authorized interest to his individual account in the member savings account.

(15) "Annual compensation" means the compensation that is paid or payable to a teacher or auxiliary employee by his employers for service during a school year, except that compensation in excess of $25,000 for school years after September 1, 1969, and compensation in excess of $8,400 for school years prior to September 1, 1969, shall not be included as annual compensation.

(16) "Military duty" means:

(A) active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States during World War I or a period within 12 months thereafter;
(B) active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States during World War II or a period within 12 months thereafter; and
(C) any active duty, while a member of the retirement system, in the Armed Forces or Reserve Components of the United States or any of their auxiliaries, or the American Red Cross, or the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or as a civil service librarian under a war service appointment, and during either a period when the United States was or is at war or involved in a police action with foreign powers, as defined by the State Board of Trustees in accordance with this chapter, or a period within 12 months thereafter.

(17) "Retirement" means withdrawal from service with a retirement benefit or allowance granted under the provisions of this chapter.

(18) "Beneficiary" means any person receiving an annuity, retirement benefit or allowance, or other benefit provided in this chapter.

(19) "Designated beneficiary" means any person nominated by a member to receive in case of the member's death any benefit payable after such death under the provisions of this chapter.

(20) As to retirements under the retirement system prior to May 31, 1971, the term "standard annuity" shall have the meaning given such term by the laws in effect at the date of the retirement of the member; as to retirement benefits, or at the date of death of the member as to death benefits allowed under the system prior to May 31, 1971. As to benefits arising by reason of retirement or death of any member on or after May 31, 1971, the term "standard annuity" means an annuity payable in equal monthly installments, aggregating in 12 months:

(A) one and seventy-five one-hundredths percent (1.75%) for each year of prior service credit multiplied by the member's "best-five-years-average compensation"; plus
(B) one and seventy-five one-hundredths percent (1.75%) for each year of membership service multiplied by the member's "best-five-years-average compensation."
(21) "Best-five-years-average compensation" means the average annual compensation received by the member as a teacher or as an auxiliary employee during the 5 years of creditable service (whether or not consecutive) in which the member earned the highest annual compensation. For school years prior to September 1, 1969, compensation in excess of $8,400 shall be excluded in calculating the best-five-years-average compensation, and for school years after September 1, 1969, compensation in excess of $25,000 shall be excluded in calculating the best-five-years-average compensation.

(22) "School year" means the year beginning on or about September 1 of any calendar year and ending August 31 of the following calendar year.

(23) "Actuarial equivalent" of any benefit means a benefit of equal monetary value when computed upon the basis of annuity or mortality tables and on an interest or discount rate adopted by the State Board of Trustees for such purpose from time to time and in force at the time the benefit is originally entered upon.

(b) In case of doubt the State Board of Trustees of the retirement system shall determine whether a person is a "teacher" or "auxiliary employee" within the contemplation of this chapter.

(c) In cases where the annual compensation includes maintenance, the State Board of Trustees shall fix the value of that part of the compensation not paid in money.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1450, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.03. Membership

(a) All persons who on the effective date of this code were members of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas shall continue as members subject to the provisions of this chapter, except as provided in Chapter 729, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967 (Article 2922–Li, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). 1

(b) Every person who may be employed as a teacher or auxiliary employee in any public school or other branch or unit of the public school system of this state shall become a member of the retirement system as a condition of his employment. This subsection shall not apply to require membership of any person who

(1) has heretofore, pursuant to authority of former laws, executed and filed a waiver of membership in the retirement system; however, any such person may elect to become a member at the beginning of any school year, but shall not be entitled to credit for prior service unless payments for the waived service are made as provided in Section 3.25 of this code;

(2) was or may be for the first time employed as a teacher or auxiliary employee, and who at such time was or may be more than 60 years of age; however, such person may elect to become a member of the retirement system as of the effective date of employment by notifying his employer and the State Board of Trustees within 90 days from the effective date of employment; or

(3) elects to participate in the retirement program provided by Chapter 729, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967 (Article 2922–Li, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

1 Repealed; see now, § 51.551 et seq.

§ 3.04. Termination of Membership

(a) Membership in the retirement system shall terminate if the member

(1) dies;

(2) withdraws his accumulated contributions while absent from service;

(3) accepts retirement under this chapter; or

(4) is absent from service more than five consecutive years within any period of six consecutive years, except as provided in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Absence from service shall not terminate membership if the member does not withdraw his accumulated contributions and has 10 or more years of creditable service, regardless of age, at or before the time he ceases to be employed in the public schools of Texas.

(c) A member is not considered to be absent from service while rendering active military duty.

(d) If the membership of any member shall terminate, except by death or retirement, all his creditable service theretofore allowed or earned shall be forfeited.

(e) Should a person whose membership has terminated again become a member, he shall enter the retirement system upon the same terms as a person entering service for the first time on that date and shall not be entitled to credit for prior service or other terminated service, unless it is reinstated upon the terms and conditions set out in Section 3.25 of this code.

§ 3.05. Reciprocal Service

Any member of the teacher retirement system may claim credit with the teacher retirement system for service rendered as a state employee as provided in Chapter 230, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (Article 6228a–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1453, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.06. Offenses Against the Retirement System

(a) Any person convicted of confiscation, misappropriation, or conversion of money representing deductions from members' salaries, and/or belonging to the retirement system; or intentional falsification, or acquiescence therein, of any statement or record in order to defraud the retirement system, is guilty of a felony and for each offense shall be punished.

(b) Any person convicted of violating any provision of this chapter (excluding those felonies set out in Subsection (a) of this section) is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.
§ 3.06  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

(c) A member of the retirement system convicted of intentionally receiving money which should have been deducted from his salary in accordance with this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

(d) The state commissioner of education may cancel the teacher certificate of any person committing any offense set out above in this section when notified thereof by the State Board of Trustees and after giving the person opportunity for a fair hearing. Actual prosecution of any person committing any of the offenses named in this section is not prerequisite to the commissioner's cancellation action. Appeal from the commissioner's action lies with the State Board of Education, whose decision in the matter is final.

§ 3.07. Exemptions From Execution

Retirement allowances, annuities, refunded contributions, optional benefits, money in the various accounts created by this chapter, or any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this chapter are exempt from any state or municipal tax, levy, sale, garnishment, attachment, or any other process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as provided in this chapter.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1453, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

[Sections 3.08 to 3.20 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. CREDITABLE SERVICE

§ 3.21. Determination

(a) The State Board of Trustees shall determine by appropriate rules and regulations how much service in any year is equivalent to one creditable year of service, but in no case shall more than one creditable year of service be given for all service in one school year.

(b) Years of creditable service at retirement, on which the amounts of retirement benefit or allowance of a member is based, shall consist of the number of years of membership service credits, prior service credits, and military leave credits to which he is entitled. Such service credits shall be determined and regulated by Sections 3.22-3.25 of this code.

§ 3.22. Prior Service Credits

(a) Under the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Trustees each person on becoming a member of the retirement system for the first time shall file a detailed statement of all his prior service approved.

(b) Subject to the restrictions in Subsection (a) of this section and to such other rules and regulations as they may adopt, the State Board of Trustees, as soon as practicable after the filing of the statements of service, shall verify and adjust the service claimed and shall grant one year of prior service credit for each year of prior service approved.

(c) After verification and adjustment, the State Board of Trustees shall notify each member of the number of years of prior service credits which have been granted.

(d) Nothing in this section shall require the filing of new claims for credits by members who have previously verified and had prior service credits approved.

(e) In addition to teachers who became members in 1937, and auxiliaries who became members in 1949, any member who has credit for five consecutive years of membership service and who has no unpaid, waived, withdrawn, or delinquent service shall be entitled to credit for prior service.

(f) Any member shall be entitled to one year of prior service credit for each year of military duty performed during World War I or within a period of 12 months thereafter.

§ 3.23. Membership Service Credits

(a) Under such rules and regulations as the State Board of Trustees may adopt, a member shall be allowed membership service credit for each year of service rendered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter if he has made and maintained with the retirement system all deposits and payments required by this chapter or prior existing laws.

(b) Any member who performed one or more years of military duty while a member of the retirement system shall be permitted to deposit to his individual account in the member savings account for each year of duty an amount equal to his deposits made with the retirement system during the last preceding full year of service as a teacher or auxiliary employee. He shall then be entitled to one year of membership service credit for each year of military duty.

(c) Any member who performed one or more years of military duty during World War II and within a period of 12 months thereafter shall be permitted to deposit to his individual account in the member savings account for each year of such military duty, but not to exceed five years, an amount equal to his deposits made with the retirement system during the first full year of service as a teacher or auxiliary employee. Any member who failed or fails to make deposits within a period of 12 months thereafter shall be entitled to one year of membership service credit for each year of military duty.

(d) Any member who performed one or more years of service as educational adviser in the Civilian Conservation Corps shall be permitted to deposit to his individual account in the member savings account for each year of service as an educational adviser, but not to exceed five years, an amount equal to his deposits made with the Retirement System during the full period of service as an educational adviser. He shall then be entitled to one year of membership service credit for each year of educational adviser duty.

§ 3.24. Military Leave Credits

Military leave credit shall be granted to any member who has performed, or may perform, a period of military duty, but who failed or fails to make deposits entitling him under this chapter to membership service credit. The member shall be credited with a year of service for each year of military duty in determining his eligibility for retirement under this chapter, but military leave credit shall not be included in calculating the amount of benefits payable to the member upon retirement.

§ 3.25. Reinstatement of Service Credits

(a) Any teacher or auxiliary employee who has executed a waiver of membership in the retirement system shall have the privilege of electing to full membership service credit, provided such teacher or auxiliary employee after becoming a member of the retirement system shall deposit all back deposits, assessments, and dues which he would have paid or deposited had he been a member of the retirement system during each of the years he actually taught or was employed as an auxiliary employee in the public schools following the date on which he first became eligible for membership in the retirement system, together with interest from the date each amount was payable at the rate of five percent per annum. One-half of the interest shall be credited to the state contribution account.

(b) Any person who terminates or has terminated membership in the retirement system by withdrawal of deposits or by absence from service shall have the privilege of reinstating such terminated membership by rendering service for five subsequent consecutive creditable years or seven subsequent creditable years within any ten-year period and depositing the amount withdrawn plus membership fees for the years during which membership was terminated plus a reinstatement fee of two and one-half percent per annum from the date of withdrawal to date of redeposit. The reinstatement fee shall be credited to the state contribution account.

(c) Any person who terminates or has terminated membership in the retirement system by retiring or auxiliary employee after becoming a member of the retirement system shall deposit all back deposits, assessments, and dues which he would have paid or deposited had he been a member of the retirement system during each of the years he actually taught or was employed as an auxiliary employee in the public schools following the date on which he first became eligible for membership in the retirement system, together with interest from the date each amount was payable at the rate of five percent per annum. One-half of the interest shall be credited to the state contribution account.

§ 3.26. Purchase of Credit for Out-of-State Teaching

(a) Any member of the retirement system who has been employed as a teacher in any public school system maintained in whole or in part by any other state or territory of the United States or by the United States for children of United States citizens may purchase equivalent membership service credits under this retirement system for such teaching.

(b) For each year that out-of-state service credit is desired, the member shall deposit to his individual account with the retirement system 12 percent of the annual compensation received during his first year as a teacher of this state which is both after the out-of-state teaching and September 1, 1956, or, in the event the member has no creditable service in Texas after September 1, 1956, 12 percent of his rate of annual compensation during his last creditable year of service in Texas prior to that date and subsequent to the out-of-state teaching. A deposit for at least one year's credit must be made with the initial application and all payments for out-of-state service for which credit is desired must be made before retirement.

(c) For each year that deposits are made, the member shall be granted immediately upon payment of the required deposit one year’s membership service credit subject, however, to the special conditions which are:

(1) No person shall be allowed to acquire credits on the basis of teaching employment outside this state in excess of one year for each two years of service in Texas.

(2) In the event credits for employment outside this state must be disallowed in part because of the member’s failure to qualify the non-Texas service under the provisions of this section, his deposits made for the years disallowed (considered to be those last purchased) will be refunded to him.

(3) No more than 10 years’ total credit can be purchased under the provisions of this section.

(d) No member by reason of any credits purchased for non-Texas teaching employment shall be entitled to service retirement benefits under this chapter until he has actually rendered at least 10 years of creditable service in Texas, excluding any credit for non-Texas employment. Equivalent membership service credits granted for out-of-state teaching shall not be used in computing the member’s “best ten-years-average compensation.”

(e) All such deposits shall be credited, pending retirement, to the member’s individual account in the member savings account.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1455, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

[Sections 3.27 to 3.30 reserved for expansion]
A member who retires after the effective date of this chapter shall be eligible to retire:

1. with a standard service retirement benefit consisting of a standard annuity (calculated as provided in Section 3.02(a)(20) of this code) payable in monthly installments during such retired member's life, provided he has completed 10 or more years of creditable service and has attained the age of 65 years;

2. with a service retirement allowance consisting of the actuarial equivalent of the standard service retirement benefit allowable under Subsection (a)(1) of this section for a like amount of creditable service reduced for early retirement from age 65, provided he has completed at least 15 years of creditable service and has attained the age of 55 years;

3. with a standard service retirement benefit consisting of a standard annuity (calculated as provided in Section 3.02(a)(20) of this code) payable in monthly installments during such retired member's life, provided he has completed 20 or more years of creditable service and has attained the age of 60 years;

4. with a service retirement allowance consisting of the actuarial equivalent of the standard service retirement benefit allowable under Subsection (a)(3) of this section for a like amount of creditable service reduced for early retirement from age 60, provided he has completed at least 20 years of creditable service and has attained the age of 55 years; or

5. with a service retirement allowance consisting of the actuarial equivalent of the standard service retirement benefit allowable under Subsection (a)(3) of this section for a like amount of creditable service reduced for early retirement from age 60, provided he has completed 30 or more years of creditable service. (b) In lieu of any service retirement benefit allowable under Subsection (a) of this section, a member may elect, by giving notice to the State Board of Trustees in writing before the date fixed for retirement, to receive the actuarial equivalent of the benefit in the form of a reduced monthly amount payable throughout his lifetime, with provision for:

1. Option One: on his death, the same monthly payments shall be made to and continued throughout the life of the person nominated by the member's written designation filed with the State Board of Trustees prior to his retirement; or

2. Option Two: on his death, one-half of the same monthly payments shall be made to and continued throughout the life of the person nominated by the member's written designation filed with the State Board of Trustees prior to his retirement; or

3. Option Three: on his death before 60 monthly payments have been made, they shall continue to the person nominated by the member in writing, or to such person's executor or administrator, until the remainder of the 60 payments have been made; or

4. Option Four: on his death before 120 monthly payments have been made, they shall continue to the person nominated by the member in writing, or to such person's executor or administrator, until the remainder of the 120 payments have been made; or

5. Option Five: any other benefit arrangement approved by the State Board of Trustees and certified by the actuary to constitute the actuarial equivalent of the standard retirement benefit to which the member is entitled under Subsection (a) of this section.

(e) A teacher member who takes service retirement upon or after attaining 65 years of age and completing 10 or more but less than 20 years of creditable service shall in any event be entitled to receive a minimum standard service retirement benefit of $75 per month or its actuarial equivalent.

(d) An auxiliary member who retires upon or after attaining 60 years of age and completing 20 or more years of creditable service shall in any event be entitled to receive a minimum standard service retirement benefit of $85 per month or its actuarial equivalent. An auxiliary member who takes service retirement on or after attaining 65 years of age and completing 10 or more but less than 20 years of creditable service shall in any event be entitled to receive a minimum standard service retirement benefit of $60 per month or its actuarial equivalent.

(f) No annuity payment authorized under the provisions of this chapter shall be made for any fraction of a month in which the annuitant dies.

(g) At any time before his date of retirement a member by giving written notice to the State Board of Trustees may revoke his application for retirement and may make, revoke, or change his selection of an option as provided in Subsection (b) of this section. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, no person who has retired under the provisions of this chapter may revoke his retirement nor make, revoke, or change his selection of an option under Subsection (b) of this section.

§ 3.32. Disability Benefits

(a) Upon application of a member, or (where the member is unable to make application) of his employer or legal representative acting in behalf of the member, the State Board of Trustees may, after the filing of said application, retire such member upon the applicable disability benefit set out below if the medical board after a medical examination, certifies that the member is mentally or physically disabled from further performance of duty and that such disability is probably permanent.
(b) If the member has less than 10 years of creditable service at the date of his retirement, he shall be paid a monthly disability benefit of $50 for the duration of such disability, or for life, or for a period equal to the number of months of creditable service rendered by such member prior to date of such retirement, whichever term is shortest.

(c) If the member has more than 10 years of creditable service, but is not eligible for service retirement, he shall receive for the duration of his disability the standard annuity calculated on the basis of his creditable service to date of retirement, or the sum of $50 per month, whichever is greater. In the event the disability retirement occurs after or continues until he attains 60 years of age, his disability shall be conclusively presumed continuous for the remainder of his life.

(d) Once each year during the first five years following disability retirement and once every three years thereafter, the State Board of Trustees may require any member who retired on a disability benefit and who has not yet attained age 60 to undergo a medical examination by a physician or physicians designated by the State Board of Trustees at the retired member's residence or any other place mutually agreed upon. Should he refuse to submit to at least one such medical examination during any authorized examination period, his allowance shall be discontinued until he consents to an examination; if his refusal continues for one year, all his rights to his allowance shall be revoked by the State Board of Trustees.

(e) If a person under 60 years of age who is receiving a disability retirement benefit is restored to active service, or if the medical board certifies to the State Board of Trustees that he is no longer physically or mentally disabled from further performance of duty and the State Board of Trustees concurs, his allowance shall be discontinued, he shall again become a member of the retirement system and the sum in his account before disability retirement, less all disability benefits paid to him, shall be transferred from the retired reserve account to his individual account in the member savings account. On restoration to membership, any creditable service used to compute a member's benefit when he retired shall be restored to full force and effect.

(f) If a person receiving a disability retirement benefit is gainfully employed, his allowance shall be suspended or reduced to an amount by which his salary earned during his last year of creditable service exceeds his present earnings. Should his earnings later change, his allowance may be further modified, but shall never exceed his original allowance.

(g) No member eligible for service retirement without reduction shall be allowed to retire on a disability allowance.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.34. Death Benefits

(a) If a member dies before retirement and during any school year in which he is in service, his eligible designated beneficiary shall be paid, at the beneficiary’s election, the greatest of the following amounts in the manner the State Board of Trustees by rule may prescribe:

(1) the annual compensation of the member for the preceding school year; or

(2) the rate of annual compensation of the member for the current school year; or

(3) 60 monthly payments equal to the monthly installments of a standard annuity (calculated as provided in Section 3.02(a)(20) of this code); or

(4) an annuity payable for the designated beneficiary's life with payments equal to those under Option (b) in Section 3.31(b)(1) of this code had the member retired at the end of the month preceding his death; or

(5) the accumulated contributions of the member's member savings account.

(b) In the event the designated beneficiary is other than a surviving widow, dependent widower, child, grandchild, brother, sister, or dependent parent of the deceased, or other person financially dependent on the deceased, the death benefits payable to the beneficiary under the provisions of this chapter shall be limited to the accumulated contributions in the member's member savings account.

(c) If a member dies during an absence from service, his designated beneficiary shall be paid:

(1) the same benefits payable upon the member’s death in active service if the absence of the member from service was due to sickness, accident, or other cause which the State Board of Trustees determines to be involuntary or in furtherance of the objectives or welfare of the public school system, or during a period when he was eligible to retire or would become eligible...
without further service to retire within five years of his last covered employment; or

(2) the accumulated contributions in the member's individual account if the absence of the member from service was not the result of sickness, accident, or other justifiable cause determined in this chapter.

§ 3.34. Survivor Benefits

(a) If a teacher member dies before retirement, his designated beneficiary (if entitled to a death benefit other than the accumulated contributions of the member) may elect, in lieu of the applicable death benefit authorized under Section 3.34 of this code, to receive a lump sum payment of $500 plus the following applicable survivor benefits:

1. if the designated beneficiary is the widow, dependent widower, or dependent parent of the deceased, he may elect to receive for life a monthly benefit of $75 commencing at age 65 or immediately if the beneficiary has already attained that age; or

2. if the designated beneficiary is the widow or dependent widower of the deceased and has one or more children under 18 years of age or has the custody of one or more children of the deceased under 18 years of age, he may elect to receive a monthly benefit of $150 until the youngest child attains the age of 18 years, and at that time all payments shall cease until the beneficiary attains age 65 when he shall receive for life a monthly benefit of $75; or

3. if the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries are the deceased's dependent children under the age of 18 years, they may, on election of their guardian, receive a total monthly benefit of $150 so long as there are two or more such children under 18 years of age; thereafter, when there is only one child remaining under 18 years of age, he may receive $75 per month until attaining 18 years.

(b) If the designated beneficiary is a widow, dependent widower, or dependent parent of the deceased, the benefits payable under Subsection (a)(1) and (2) of this section shall cease upon the beneficiary's death or remarriage; in that event, however, payment of the benefits provided in Subsection (a)(3) of this section will commence if applicable.

(c) If an auxiliary member dies before retirement, his designated beneficiary or beneficiaries shall be entitled to the same benefits provided in Subsection (a) of this section except that the monthly benefits shall be two-thirds of the amount payable to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of a deceased teacher member if his rate of compensation for his last year of employment was less than $3,800.

§ 3.35. Benefits Payable Upon Death After Retirement

(a) If a retired member dies while receiving a retirement benefit, his eligible designated beneficiary shall be entitled to the same survivor benefits provided for designated beneficiaries of members in active service at death. Any benefit payable to the designated beneficiary under a service retirement option previously elected by the deceased shall not be affected by the beneficiary's eligibility for survivor benefits. The lump sum payment of $500 shall be made regardless of the beneficiary's eligibility for any other survivor benefit.

(b) If a member retires upon a disability retirement benefit and dies while drawing his benefit, his beneficiary may elect to receive, in lieu of the benefit provided in Subsection (a) of this section, the same death benefit to which he would have been entitled had the deceased been in active service at death, less all disability payments made to the deceased.

(c) An unmarried widow or widower, as designated beneficiary of a member of the retirement system with 25 or more years of creditable service who died prior to April 8, 1957, shall be entitled to receive survivor benefits provided in this chapter for beneficiaries of members with a creditable year of service, except that the $500 lump sum amount shall not be payable, and provided that such beneficiary did not receive or is not receiving a death benefit other than the return of the member's deposits plus accumulated interest.

(d) Any unmarried widow or widower, as designated beneficiary of a retired member who did not have a creditable year of service after November 22, 1956, and who died prior to August 23, 1963, while receiving a retirement annuity from the retirement system, shall be entitled to receive survivor benefits provided elsewhere in this chapter, except that the lump sum amount shall not be payable.

(e) Benefits provided in Subsections (e) and (d) of this section shall become effective on the last day of the month in which the qualified beneficiary applies to the retirement system in such form as may be prescribed by the State Board of Trustees and payments shall be due from and after that date only, and the same age requirements specified elsewhere in this chapter shall apply to the provisions of these subsections.

(f) Upon the death of a retired member receiving service retirement benefits under Subsection (a) of Section 3.31 or service retirement benefits under Subsections (b)(1), (2) or (5) of Section 3.31 of this chapter when the retired member's designated beneficiary predeceases him, there shall be paid to the designated beneficiary, or to those provided in Subsections (b) and (c) of Section 3.35 of this chapter if there is no designated beneficiary in existence at the time of the retired member's death, an amount equal to the retired member's accumulated contributions less the total amount of service retirement benefits paid pursuant to Section 3.31 of this chapter to the retired member.

(g) Upon the death of a retired member's designated beneficiary who is receiving an annuity under Option One or Option Two as provided by Subsection (b) of Section 3.31 of this chapter or under Option Three of that subsection, if such option results in a total payment of benefits which is less than the accumulated contributions of the retired member, the estate or the heirs of the beneficiary shall be refunded an amount equal to the accumulated contributions of the retired member less the total amount of service retirement benefits paid pursuant...
§ 3.37. Employment After Retirement

(a) Any person receiving a service retirement benefit from the retirement system may be employed in the public schools of Texas:

(1) on a part-time day-to-day basis only not to exceed 80 school days in any one school year as a substitute for an employee who is absent from duty;

(2) as a substitute in a vacant position until such position can be filled, but not to exceed 30 days, but any substitute employment in a vacant position shall be deducted from the 80 days permitted as a substitute for an absent employee; or

(3) on as much as a one-third time basis if the retired member is over age 60.

(b) This employment will not affect any person's rights to any benefits under the retirement system. However, it will not entitle a person to additional creditable service under the retirement system and the person so employed shall not be required to make further contributions to the system.

(c) A person who reports for duty as a substitute during any day and works any portion of that day, shall be considered to have worked one day. The State Board of Trustees of the retirement system shall by rule define "one-third time basis" and shall adopt rules governing the employment of a substitute.

(d) A person receiving a service retirement from the retirement system who is employed in any position in the public schools of Texas except as provided in this section, shall forfeit all retirement benefits for any month in which such employment occurs. Employment which begins as substituting may become permanent employment. A person who substitutes on a day-to-day basis in a regular position for an absent employee for more than 80 school days or for more than 30 school days in a vacant position and then continues in the same position shall be considered to have been a regular employee since the first day of employment and forfeits his retirement benefits for all months of employment in that position.

§ 3.38. Limited Adjustment of Benefits in Effect

(a) Except as provided in this section, nothing in this chapter is intended to affect benefits allowed prior to May 31, 1971, by reason of retirement or death, prior to such date, of a member of the system.

(b) Beginning with the first day of March, 1971, a retired member shall have his monthly benefit increased by 10 percent of the amount he received during the preceding month or would have received the preceding month if his benefit had not been suspended.

(c) Beginning with the first day of March, 1971, any person who, as beneficiary of a member, is receiving a benefit under the provisions of Section 3.01(b) or Section 3.04(a)(3) or Section 3.04(a)(4) of Chapter 41, Acts of the Regular Session of the 61st Texas Legislature, 1969, shall have his monthly benefit increased by 10 percent of the amount he received during the preceding month.

(d) If, after increasing benefits to retired teacher members and beneficiaries of retired teacher members as provided in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the benefit is still less than the minimum benefit provided in Section 3.31(e) of this code, then the retired teacher member or his beneficiary shall be entitled to receive the minimum or the actuarial equivalent of the minimum provided by Section 3.31(e) of this code.

(e) Any person with more than 20 years and less than 25 years of service who has retired under a provision of the laws which governed the Teacher Retirement System of Texas granting a retirement annuity based upon the actuarial equivalent of a standard service retirement benefit reduced for early retirement from age 65 shall receive an annuity recomputed under the terms of Subsection (a)(4) of Section 3.31 of this chapter. The increase in payments to those affected shall begin on the last day of the month of the effective date of this subsection and shall not be retroactive to their respective dates of retirement.

§ 3.39. Optional Deductions for Medicare Payments

Any eligible person receiving retirement benefits under Section 3.31 of this chapter may authorize in writing the retirement system to deduct from his monthly annuity payment the amount required as a monthly premium for hospital insurance benefits provided to uninsured individuals not otherwise eligible for medical insurance for the aged as provided by Part A of Title XVIII of the Social Security Act and for supplementary medical insurance benefits for the aged as provided by Part B of Title XVIII of the Social Security Act. The retirement system shall, upon making these authorized deductions, pay the required premiums for the retired member to the Treasurer of the United States subject to the laws of the United States and the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare concerning the time and manner of payment.

§ 3.51  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

To one of five accounts: the member savings account, the state contribution account, the retired reserve account, the interest account, and the expense account.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1462, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.52. Member Savings Account

(a) In the member savings account shall be accumulated the regular percentage contributions made by members from their compensation together with interest allowable thereon. Interest on members' contributions shall be credited annually on August 31 at the rate of two and one-half percent of the balance in the account on the preceding September 1.

(b) Whenever any person ceases to be a member of the retirement system, except by death or retirement under the terms of this chapter, he shall be paid, after applying in writing on a form prescribed by the State Board of Trustees, all accumulated contributions in his individual account in the member savings account; his account shall be closed, and his membership (if not previously ended) shall be terminated.

(c) Accumulated contributions in any member's account at the date of termination of membership shall bear no interest thereafter.

(d) Seven years after cessation of service of a member with less than 10 years of service, and if no previous demand has been made, all accumulated contributions of a member shall be returned to him or his heirs. If the member or his heirs cannot be found, his accumulated contributions shall escheat to the retirement system and be credited to the retired reserve account.

§ 3.53. State Contribution Account

In the state contribution account shall be accumulated all contributions hereafter made to the retirement system by the State of Texas as provided in Section 3.55 of this code, interest as provided in Section 3.55(b)(2) of this code, the retirement annuities forfeited by members who return to employment under the provisions of Section 3.37(d) of this code, and reinstatement fees and interest as provided in Section 3.25 of this code.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1462, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.54. Retired Reserve Account

(a) In the retired reserve account shall be held all reserves for benefits heretofore or hereafter granted under the retirement system. From this account shall be paid all retirement annuities and all death or survivor benefits provided in this chapter. This account shall consist of transfers previously authorized by law and of future transfers made.

(b) To the retired reserve account shall be transferred:

(1) the accumulated contributions in the member's individual account in the member savings account on his retirement or approval for payment of any benefit authorized under this chapter (except for the return of his accumulated contributions); plus, additional reserves from the state contribution account which are certified by the actuary as necessary to provide for the payment of the approved benefit as it becomes due;

(2) interest as specified in Section 3.55(b)(2) of this code; and

(3) accounts as specified in Section 3.52(d) of this code.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1462, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.55. Interest Account

(a) Into the interest account shall be paid all income, interest, and dividends derived from deposits and investments authorized by this chapter. Net capital gains realized from the sale of securities will be accumulated in the interest account until a reserve equal to 10 percent total common stock investments has been established. Annually, the excess over 10 percent will be transferred to the state contribution account together with any other balance remaining in the interest account.

(b) Once each year on August 31, transfers from the interest account shall be made:

(1) to the member savings account in an amount sufficient to credit the members' contributions with interest at the rate of two and one-half percent;

(2) to the retired reserve account in an amount sufficient to credit the average balance of the reserve account with interest at the rate of four and three-fourths percent per annum;

(3) to the expense account in an amount designated by the State Board of Trustees pursuant to Section 3.56(d) of this chapter; and

(4) to the state contribution account any balance remaining in the interest account.

(c) On August 31 of each year the State Board of Trustees may authorize by resolution a transfer from the interest account to the retired reserve account of an amount calculated by a rate in excess of that required by Subsection (b)(2) of Section 3.55 of this chapter, provided that the actuary designated in accordance with Subsection (e) of Section 3.59 of this chapter shall have recommended such rate as sufficient to fund the retired reserve account at an adequate level.

§ 3.56. Expense Account

(a) From the expense account shall be paid all expenses of administration and maintenance of the retirement system.

(b) The executive secretary shall prepare annually an itemized expense budget for the ensuing fiscal year and submit it to the State Board of Trustees for review and adoption.

(c) All membership fees required by provisions of this chapter shall be credited to the expense account. This fee payment shall be made to the State Board of Trustees each year with the member's first payment to the member savings account in the same manner provided in this chapter for payments to the member savings account. If the member is inactive, he shall pay the membership fee directly to the Teacher Retirement System. If this fee payment is not made, however, the State Board of Trustees may deduct it from the member's first payment, or from the member's accumulated contributions in his member savings account before a refund is made.

(d) The State Board of Trustees by resolution recorded in its minutes shall transfer to the expense account from the interest account an amount necessary to cover the expenses as estimated for the year including the expense of servicing mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration under the National Housing Act.¹

§ 3.57. Member Contributions

(a) "Member Contributions": The rate of contributions required of each member of the retirement system shall be five percent of his annual compensation or $180, whichever is the lesser, for service rendered by teachers between September 1, 1937, and September 1, 1949, and September 1, 1957, and for any member six percent of the first $8,400 of his annual compensation for service rendered on or after September 1, 1957, to September 1, 1969. The rate of contribution required of each member after September 1, 1969, shall be six percent of his annual compensation. Every member shall also pay for operation of the system, an annual membership fee of $5 which shall be credited to the expense account.

(b) Each employer shall deduct from the salary of each member six percent of his compensation for each payroll period.

(c) These deductions shall be made although they reduce a member's minimum compensation provided by law. Every member shall be deemed to consent to the deductions made and the payment of his compensation, less said deductions, shall constitute a complete release of all claims, except for benefits provided under this chapter for service rendered by him during the payment period.

(d) Each employer or his designated disbursing officer shall send all deductions and a certification of earnings of the member to the executive secretary, at such time and in such form as the State Board of Trustees may prescribe. All deductions received shall be deposited with the state treasurer whereupon they shall be deemed appropriated for use according to the provisions of this chapter.

(e) For the purpose of collecting contributions of members employed in common school or other school districts under his jurisdiction, the county superintendent or ex officio county superintendent is designated to perform the duties listed in this chapter.

(f) Any other educational institution supported in whole or part by the state shall have contributions regularly appropriated by the state for its current maintenance.

(g) If deductions which should have been made from any member's salary were not in fact made, the member must pay these deductions, on terms prescribed by the State Board of Trustees. The member shall thereupon receive credit for the prior service to which he may be entitled under this chapter.

(h) The records of the State Board of Trustees shall be open to public inspection and any member shall be furnished, upon written request, no more often than once each year, with a statement of the amount in his individual account.

§ 3.58. State Contributions

(a) "State Contributions": The State of Texas shall contribute during each year an amount equal to the collective deposits paid by all members of the retirement system during that same year. All assets heretofore contributed by the state to the retirement system, together with the contributions hereafter made, shall be held, credited, transferred, and expended for payment of authorized benefits as provided in this chapter.

(b) On or before November 1 preceding each regular session of the legislature, the State Board of Trustees shall certify to the state comptroller for his review and adoption the amount necessary to pay the state's matching contributions to the teacher retirement system for the ensuing biennium. This amount shall be included in the budget of the state which the governor submits to the legislature. The State Board of Trustees shall certify on or before August 31 of each year to the state comptroller and treasurer the estimated amount of contributions to be received from members during the ensuing year.

(c) All money appropriated by the state for the teacher retirement system shall be paid in monthly installments as provided in Chapter 5, Acts of 57th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1961 (Article 7083a, Section 2(3), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Each monthly installment shall be paid into the state contribution account.

§ 3.59. General Administration

(a) General administration of and responsibility for proper operation of the retirement system in accordance with the provisions of this chapter are vested in a State Board of Trustees, which shall consist of nine persons appointed as specified in Subsections (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

(b) Three members shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, one to hold office for the term of two years ending August 31, 1957, one to hold office for the term of four years ending August 31, 1959, and the third to hold office for the term of six years ending August 31, 1961.

(c) Two members shall be nominated by the State Board of Education subject to confirmation by two-thirds of the senate, one of whom shall hold office for a term ending August 31, 1973, and the other for a term of four years ending August 31, 1977.

(d) Four members shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, subject to the following requirements:

(1) Three such members shall each be appointed from a slate of three teacher members of the retirement system nominated by written ballot by the membership of the retirement system at an election conducted under the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Trustees, one member to hold office for a term ending August 31, 1973, one member to hold office for a term ending August 31, 1975, and one member to hold office for a term ending August 31, 1977.

(2) One such member shall be appointed from a slate of three former teachers who have retired and are receiving benefits under the provisions of this chapter or of previous laws governing the Teacher Retirement System of Texas and who have been nominated by written ballot by those persons who have retired and are receiving benefits under the provisions of this chapter or of previous laws governing the Teacher Retirement System of Texas at an election conducted under the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Trustees. The retired teacher member shall hold office for a term of two years ending August 31, 1975. The State Board of Trustees shall send directly to all retired teachers notice of deadlines for filing as a candidate for nomination, information on procedures to follow in filing as such candidate, and written ballots.

(e) After expiration of the original terms, all appointments of trustees shall be for a term of six years. A vacancy in the office of a trustee shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the office was previously filled.

(f) The trustees shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed from the expense account for all necessary expenses they may incur because of service on the board.

(g) Within 10 days after his appointment, each trustee, in addition to the constitutional oath, shall subscribe to the following: "I do solemnly swear that I shall, to the best of my ability, discharge the duties of a trustee of the Teacher Retirement System and shall diligently and honestly administer the affairs of its State Board of Trustees and that I shall not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provision of law applicable to the retirement system." Trustees shall subscribe to this oath before any officer qualified to administer oaths in Texas and file it in the office of the secretary of state.

(h) Each trustee shall be entitled to one vote and a majority of trustees present shall constitute the quorum necessary for a board decision at any meeting.

(i) Subject to the limitations in this chapter, the State Board of Trustees shall, from time to time, establish rules and regulations for membership eligibility, administration of the funds created by this chapter, and for transaction of its business.

(j) The State Board of Trustees shall elect from its membership a chairman. By a majority vote of all its members, the board shall appoint an executive secretary who is not one of its members but who has been a Texas citizen three years immediately preceding his appointment. The secretary shall recommend to the State Board of Trustees actuarial and other services necessary to administer the retirement system. The rate of compensation of all persons employed by the State Board of Trustees, as well as the amounts necessary for other expenses for the operation of the retirement system, shall be approved by the State Board of Trustees, provided they shall be no greater than those for similar services performed for the State of Texas.

(k) The State Board of Trustees shall keep in convenient form data necessary for actuarial valuation of the various accounts of the retirement system and for checking the expenses of the system.

(l) The State Board of Trustees shall keep and open to public inspection a record of all of its proceedings. It shall publish annually a report showing the fiscal transactions of the retirement system for the preceding school year, the amount of the accumulated cash and securities of the system, and the last balance sheet presenting an actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of the retirement system.

(m) The attorney general of the State of Texas shall be legal advisor to the State Board of Trustees and represent it in all litigation.

(n) The State Board of Trustees shall appoint a medical board to be composed of three physicians not eligible to participate in the retirement system. They shall be legally qualified to practice medicine in Texas and shall be physicians in good standing in the medical profession. If required, other physicians may be employed to report on special cases. The medical board shall pass upon all medical examinations required by the provisions of this chapter, investigate all essential statements and certificates by or on behalf of a member in connection with an application for disability retirement, and report in writing to the State Board of Trustees its conclusions and recommendations upon the matters referred to it.

(o) The State Board of Trustees shall designate an actuary as its technical advisor. At least once every five years the actuary, on the authorization of the State Board of Trustees, shall:

(1) investigate the mortality, service, and compensation experience of members and beneficiaries of the retirement system;

(2) recommend, on the basis of this investigation, to the State Board of Trustees such tables and rates as are required; and

(3) make a valuation of all assets in and liabilities of the accounts created by this chapter based on tables and rates adopted by the State Board of Trustees.

(p) If by error in the records a member or beneficiary received more or less from the retirement system than he was entitled to receive, the State Board of Trustees shall correct the error and, so far as practical, adjust future payments so that he receives the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which he was entitled.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1465, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 24, ch. 21, § 1, eff. April 3, 1973.]

§ 3.60. Management and Investment of Funds

(a) The State Board of Trustees shall be the trustee of all funds, securities, money, and other assets of the retirement system with full power to invest and reinvest them, as authorized by Article III, Section 48b, of the Texas Constitution.

(b) All assets belonging to the retirement system from whatever source derived, shall be invested as a single fund and all securities acquired shall be held...
collectively for the proportionate benefit of all accounts of the system.

(c) The state treasurer shall be custodian of all securities and cash. All payments from the accounts shall be made by him on warrants drawn by the state comptroller and authorized by vouchers signed by the executive secretary or such persons as the State Board of Trustees may designate. An attested copy of the board's resolution designating those persons shall be filed with the comptroller as his authority for issuing these warrants. The state treasurer shall furnish annually to the State Board of Trustees a sworn statement of the amount of funds in his custody belonging to the Teacher Retirement System.

(d) For meeting annuity and other disbursements, available cash not exceeding 10 percent of the combined assets in the retirement system, may be kept on deposit with the state treasurer.

(e) No trustee or employee of the State Board of Trustees shall have any direct or indirect interest in the gains from investments made with system assets, nor as trustee or employee receive any compensation for his service other than designated salary and authorized expenses. Any interest a person sets, nor as trustee or employee receive any compensation for his service other than designated salary and authorized expenses. Any interest a person aforesaid may have in the retirement funds as a member of the retirement system, however, is excluded from the preceding prohibition.

(f) Income from investments of funds shall be credited and expended as provided in this chapter. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1466, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.61. Bonds

(a) Bonds in the following amounts shall be required of: the state treasurer, on becoming custodian of the Teacher Retirement fund, $50,000; the executive secretary, $25,000; and any other employee or employees of the board, in an amount the board deems necessary and sufficient.

(b) All bonds shall be made with a solvent surety company authorized to do business in Texas, shall be payable to the State Board of Trustees, shall be approved by the board and the attorney general, and shall be conditioned upon the bonded person's faithful performance of all his duties.

(c) Expenses incident to execution of the bonds, including premiums thereon, shall be paid by the State Board of Trustees from the expense account. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1467, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 3.62. Records—Microfilm, Etc.

(a) The retirement system is hereby authorized to photograph, microphotograph, or film all records pertaining to a member's individual file, accounting records, district report records, and investment records, and whenever the retirement system shall have photographed, microphotographed, or filmed such records and whenever such photographs, microphotographs, or films have been placed in conveniently accessible files and provisions made for preserving, examining, and using the same, the retirement system may cause the original record from which the photographs, microphotographs, or films have been made to be disposed of or destroyed.

(b) Photographs or microphotographs or films of any record photographed, microphotographed, or filmed, as herein provided, shall have the same force and effect as the originals thereof would have had, and shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes, including introduction in evidence in all courts or administrative agencies. Duly certified or authenticated copies of such photographs or microphotographs or films shall be admitted in evidence equally with the original photographs or microphotographs or films.

(c) The executive secretary or his duly authorized representative is hereby authorized to certify to the authenticity of any photograph, microphotograph, or film herein authorized and shall make such charges therefor as may be authorized by law. Such certified records shall be furnished to any person who is authorized by law. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1467, ch. 405, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 42, ch. 33, § 2.
Penal Code, art. 294a.

§ 4.02. Interference with Operation of Foundation School Program

(a) Any person who shall confiscate, misappropriate, or convert money appropriated to the Foundation School Fund to carry out the purposes of that program as set out in Chapter 16 of this code after such money is received by the school district or board of county school trustees in accordance with the terms of Chapter 16, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by confinement in the state penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years.

(b) Any person who shall knowingly make any false statement, or shall falsify or permit to be falsified, any record, form, report, or budget required under the provisions of Chapter 16 of this code, or the rules of the state officials charged with the enforcement of the Foundation School Program, in any attempt to defraud the state or its school system as a result of such act, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by confinement in the state penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years. Such proceedings shall be instituted by the proper district or county attorney in accordance with Article 339, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, or any other law appertaining thereto.

(c) Should any change or error in the records, forms, reports, or budgets result in any school district receiving from the Foundation School Fund more or less than it would have been entitled to receive had said records been correct, the commissioner of education shall correct such error, and so far as practicable shall adjust the payment in such a manner that the amount to which such district was correctly eligible shall be paid.

(d) Any person, including any county superintendent or ex officio county superintendent, school bus driver, school trustee, or any district superintendent, principal or other administrative personnel, or teacher of a school district, or its treasurer or proper disbursing officer, who violates any of the provisions of Chapter 16 of this code other than those to which subsections (a) and (b) of this section apply, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1000. Proceedings shall be instituted by the proper district or county attorney upon receipt of information from the state commissioner of education.

(e) If any person shall knowingly submit incorrect information to the Central Education Agency in any report required by Chapter 16 of this code or by the rules of the agency or by the commissioner of education for the honest administration of the Foundation School Program, such offenses shall constitute a felony, and any person upon conviction shall be punished by confinement in the state penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years.

§ 4.02. Failure to Comply with Budget Requirements

(a) Whoever fails to comply with the duties assigned him with regard to the preparation or the following of a county school budget or who violates any provision of Section 17.56 of this code shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100.

(b) Any county superintendent approving any expenditure of school funds in excess of the item or items appropriated in the adopted budget or a supplementary or amended budget shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100.

(c) Whoever fails to comply with the duties assigned him with regard to the preparation or the following of a budget of an independent school district or who violates any provision of Section 23.42 of this code shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100.

(d) Each and any trustee of an independent school district who votes to approve any expenditure of school funds in excess of the item or items appropriated in the adopted budget or a supplementary or amended budget shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100.

(e) Charges of the violation of this section may be instituted by the proper county or district attorney or by the attorney general.

§ 4.04. Violations by Treasurer or Depository

(a) If any person who is by law a treasurer of any school district in this state, or if any officer, director, stockholder, agent, or employee of any corporation that is by law the treasurer or depository of any school district in this state shall fraudulently take, misapply, or convert to his own use any money, property, or other thing of value belonging to such district that may have come into his possession by virtue of his being treasurer of such district or that may have come into his possession by virtue of the corporation of which he is officer, director, stockholder, agent, or employee being the treasurer or depository of such district, or shall secrete the same with intent to take, misapply, or convert it to his own use or shall pay or deliver the same to any person knowing that he is not entitled to receive it, he shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be confined in the state penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years.

(b) Any county or city treasurer or treasurer of the school board of each city or town having exclusive control of its schools who fails to make and transmit any report and certified copy thereof, or either, required by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500.

§ 4.05. Improper Payment of Salaries

Any employee of the state or of any district, county, city, town, or school, who may be responsible for the payment of the salary of any county judge acting as ex officio county superintendent of public schools, or of any county, district, or town superintendent or principal, or other school officer, or any teacher, librarian, assessor, county treasurer, treasurer of county school depository, or treasurer of school district depository, after notice by the commissioner of education that the person has failed to comply with the provisions of Sec. 21.254 of this code shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2744, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.]
§ 4.06. [Blank]

§ 4.07. Unlawful Inquiry Into Religious Affiliation of Applicants for Positions

(a) No board of education, trustee of a school district, superintendent, principal, or teacher of a public school, or other official or employee of a board of education shall directly or indirectly ask, indicate, or transmit orally or in writing the religion or religious affiliation of any person seeking employment or official position in the public schools of the State of Texas, except to inquire of the applicant whether or not he is or believes in the existence of a Supreme Being.

(b) No department, agency, or commission or any agent or employee of the state shall have the right to inquire, request, or in any manner directly or indirectly indicate, require, or request the religious affiliation of any applicant for any position in the public education system of this state.

(c) Any person who shall violate any provision of this section, or who shall aid or incite the violation of any provision of this section, shall for each and every violation thereof be liable to a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500, to be recovered by the person aggrieved thereby or by any resident of this state, to whom such person shall assign his cause of action, in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the plaintiff or the defendant shall reside; and such person shall also for every such offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500 or shall be imprisoned not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, or both.

§ 4.08. Unlawful Inquiry Into Religious Affiliation

(a) No person or organization employed or maintained to obtain or aid in obtaining positions for public school employees shall directly or indirectly ask or communicate orally or in writing, the religion or religious affiliation of anyone applying for employment in the public schools of this state, except to inquire whether or not he believes in the existence of a Supreme Being.

(b) Violation of Section (a) above shall subject the violator for each offense to:

(1) a civil penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500, recoverable by the aggrieved applicant or his assignee in any court of competent jurisdiction located in the county of plaintiff's or defendant's residence; and

(2) a criminal punishment, of misdemeanor status, consisting of a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 or a jail term of not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, or both.

§ 4.09. Failure to Transfer Pupils and Funds

Any county judge serving as ex officio county superintendent or any county superintendent, district, city or town superintendent or any school officer, who resists or refuses to transfer pupils and funds as provided in Subchapter C of Chapter 21 of this code, shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500 or be confined in jail not more than 60 days, or both.

§ 4.10. Alteration of Teacher's Certificate

Whoever shall wilfully raise, change, or alter any teacher's certificate or diploma, or other instrument having the force of a teacher's certificate, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years.

§ 4.11. Approving Voucher Without Certificate

Any county or city superintendent or school trustee who approves any teacher's contract or voucher before the person has presented a valid teacher's certificate shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100.

Whoever shall sell, barter, or give away, prior to any forthcoming examination, to applicants for teachers' certificates, or to any person, the questions to be used by any board of examiners in the examination of teachers at any forthcoming examination; or any person who shall accept or otherwise obtain possession of such questions, or the answers thereto, prior to any such examination; or whoever shall use the same fraudulently at the time of said examination, or thereafter; or who shall permit or aid in the substitution of examination papers fraudulently prepared to be substituted for examination papers prepared during the examination; or who accepts remuneration for the granting of certificates or for aiding others to obtain certificates, except as provided for by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined a sum of not less than $5 and not more than $50 and imprisoned in jail for not less than 20 days nor more than 60 days.

§ 4.13. Preventing Use of Adopted Textbooks

Any school trustee who shall prevent or aid in preventing the use in any public school in this state of the books or any of them as adopted under the provisions of Chapter 12 of this code, or any teacher in any public school in this state who shall wilfully fail or refuse to use the books adopted shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined a sum of not less than $5 nor more than $50 and imprisoned not more than seven years, and each day of such wilful failure or refusal by a teacher or wilful prevention of the use of the books by a trustee shall constitute a separate offense.

§ 4.14. Accepting Rebate on Textbooks

Any school trustee or teacher who shall ever receive any commission or rebate on any books used in the schools with which he is concerned as trustee or teacher shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $50 and not more than $100.
§ 4.14 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

§ 4.15. Failure to Teach Texas History

The history of Texas shall be taught in all public schools in and only in the history course of all such schools. The said course shall be not less than two hours in any one week. The commissioner of education shall notify the various county and city superintendents as to how said course shall be divided, and any city or county superintendent who fails or refuses to follow the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $200.

§ 4.16. Failure to Teach Patriotism

Any official or employee of the public free schools of this state who fails to perform his legal duty in connection with the requirement that the daily program of every public school shall be so formulated as to include at least 10 minutes for the teaching of intelligent patriotism, including the needs of the state and federal governments, the duty of the citizen to the state and the obligation of the state to the citizen, shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500 or removal from office or both fine and removal from office.

Section 4.17 provided penalties for failure of any school official to use the English language as required by § 21.139, and was derived from:

Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 267, ch. 168.
Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 335, ch. 125.
Penal Code, art. 428.

§ 4.18. Operation of School Buses

(a) All vehicles used for the transportation of pupils to and/or from any school or college shall have a sign on the front and rear and on each side of the vehicle, showing the words “School Bus” and such words shall be plainly readable in letters not less than eight inches in height. It shall be the duty of the operator of any school bus to see that the signs are displayed, but if a school bus is being operated on a highway for any purpose other than the transportation of pupils, the markings indicating “School Bus” shall be covered or concealed.

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor unless such violation is by other law of this state declared to be a felony. Every person convicted of a misdemeanor for violation of this section shall be fined not less than $1 nor more than $200 or confined in the county jail not to exceed 90 days or both; provided, however, that if death results to any person, caused either actually or remotely by a noncompliance or violation of this section, then and in that event, the party or parties so offending shall be punished as is now provided by law.

§ 4.19. Hazing

(a) No student of the University of Texas, or Texas A & M University, or any state school of Texas, or any other state-supported institution of higher education, shall engage in what is commonly known and recognized as hazing, or encourage, aid, or assist any other person thus offending.

(b) “Hazing” is defined as follows:

(1) any wilful act by one student alone or acting with others, directed against any other student of such educational institution, done for the purpose of submitting the student made the subject of the attack committed, to indignity or humiliation, without his consent;

(2) any wilful act of any one student alone, or acting with others, directed against any other student of such educational institution, done for the purpose of intimidating the student attacked by threatening such student with social or other ostracism, or of submitting such student to ignominy, shame, or disgrace among his fellow students, and acts calculated to produce such results;

(3) any wilful act of any one student alone, or acting with others, directed against any other student of such educational institution, done for the purpose of humiliating, or that is reasonably calculated to humble the pride, stifle the ambition, or blight the courage of the student attacked, or to discourage any such student from longer remaining in such educational institution or reasonably to cause him to leave the institution rather than submit to such acts;

(4) any wilful act by any one student alone, or acting with others, in striking, beating, bruising, or maiming; or seriously offering, threatening, or attempting to strike, beat, bruise, or maim, or to do or seriously offer, threaten, or attempt to do physical violence to any student of any such educational institution or any assault upon any such students made for the purpose of committing any of the acts, or producing any of the results, to such student as defined in this section.

(c) No teacher, instructor, member of any faculty, or any officer or director, or a member of any governing board of any state-supported educational institution shall knowingly permit, encourage, aid, or assist any student in committing the offense of hazing, or wilfully acquiesce in the commission of such offense, or fail to report promptly his knowledge or reasonable information to his superior or the executive head or governing board of the educational institution in which he may be serving to the knowledge of the presence and practice of hazing in the educational institution.

Any act of omission or commission shall be deemed “hazing” under the provisions of this section.

(d) Any student of any state-supported educational institution of this state who shall commit the offense of hazing shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $250 or shall be confined in jail not less than 10 days nor more than three months, or both.

(e) Any teacher, instructor, or member of any faculty, or officer or director of any state-supported educational institution who shall commit the offense of hazing shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $500 or shall be imprisoned in jail not less than
§ 4.21. Soliciting Pupils to Join Secret Societies
(a) It shall be unlawful for any person not enrolled in a public school to solicit any student enrolled in any public school to join or pledge any public school fraternity, sorority, or secret society, or to solicit any such student to attend a meeting thereof, or any meeting where membership therein is encouraged.

(b) A public school fraternity, sorority, or secret society is any organization composed wholly or partially of students of public schools below the rank of college or junior college which seeks to perpetuate itself by taking in additional members from the student body of the school on the basis of its members' decision rather than on the free choice of any student qualified by the rules of the school to fulfill the special aims of the organization. This definition, however, does not apply to agencies organized for the public welfare including the Boy Scouts, Hi-Y, Girl Reserves, DeMolay, Rainbow Girls, Pan-American Clubs, scholarship societies, or any other kindred education organization sponsored by state or national education authorities.

(c) Universities, colleges, or other schools organized for education beyond the high school level are exempted from all provisions of this section.

(d) Any person convicted of violating any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $200.

§ 4.22. Taking Intoxicants to Athletic Events
(a) The possession of any intoxicating beverage while entering or inside any enclosure, field, or stadium where athletic events sponsored or participated in by the public schools of this state are being held is unlawful.

(b) If any officer of this state sees any person violating this section, he shall immediately seize the intoxicating beverage and within a reasonable time deliver it to the county or district attorney to be held as evidence until the trial of the accused possessor and then dispose of same.

(c) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $200.

§ 4.23. Loitering on School Property
(a) Any person loitering upon school property after being warned to leave by the person in charge shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $200.00.

(b) School property for the purposes of this Act shall include the grounds of any public school and any grounds or buildings used for school sponsored assemblies or for activities.

§ 4.24. Violation of Free Textbook Law
Any person convicted of wilfully violating any law providing for the purchase and distribution of free
§ 4.24 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

Textbooks for the public schools shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $100.

§ 4.25. Thwarting Compulsory Attendance Law

(a) If any parent or person standing in parental relation to a child, within the compulsory school attendance ages and not lawfully exempt or properly excused from school attendance, fails to require such child to attend school for such periods as required by law, it shall be the duty of the proper attendance officer to warn, in writing, the parent or person standing in parental relation that attendance must be immediately required. If after this warning the parent or person standing in parental relation wilfully fails to comply, the attendance officer shall file a complaint against him in the county court, or in the justice court of his resident precinct.

Any parent or person standing in parental relation convicted of wilfully violating this section shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $50 for the first offense, not less than $100 for the second offense, and not less than $25 nor more than $100 for a subsequent offense. Each day the child remains out of school after the warning has been given or the child ordered to school by the juvenile court may constitute a separate offense.

(b) If any parent or person standing in parental relation can prove that he is unable to compel his child to attend school, he shall be exempt from the penalties provided in this section and his child may be proceeded against as a habitual truant and committed to a state juvenile training school or any other suitable school agreed upon between his parent or person standing in parental relation and the judge of the juvenile court.

(c) At the trial of any person charged with violating the provisions of this section, the attendance records of the child or ward may be presented in court by any authorized employee of the school district.

§ 4.26. Refusal to Answer Census Trustee

Any person who is in a position of control over a child who will be over six but under 17 years of age on the next September 1 and who, although requested by the census trustee, refuses to comply with the requirements in Section 14.03 of this code shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $10.

§ 4.27. Unlawful Campaign Contributions

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, group of persons, organization, or corporation engaged in manufacturing, shipping, selling, storing, or advertising textbooks or in any other manner connected with the textbook business to make a financial contribution to or take part in, directly or indirectly, the campaign of any person seeking election to the State Board of Education.

(b) It shall be unlawful for anyone interested in selling bonds of any type whatsoever to make a financial contribution to or take part in, directly or indirectly, the campaign of any person seeking election to the State Board of Education.

(c) Any person convicted of violating any provision of this section shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000 or sentenced to serve a jail term of not less than 90 days nor more than 180 days, or both.

§ 4.28. Interference with the Peaceful Operation of the Public Schools

(a) In order to maintain law, peace, and order in the operation of the public schools without the use of military force, the county judge of each county in this state is authorized to require any organization, operating or functioning within the county and engaged in activities designed to hinder, harass, or interfere with the powers and duties of the State of Texas in controlling and operating its public schools to file with the county clerk, within seven days after such request is made, the following information, subscribed under oath before a notary public:

(1) the official name of the organization and list of members;
(2) the office, place of business, headquarters, or usual meeting place of the organization;
(3) the officers, agents, servants, employees, or representatives of the organization;
(4) the purpose or purposes of the organization; and
(5) a statement disclosing whether the organization is subordinate to a parent organization and, if so, the name of the parent organization.

(b) The term "organization" as used in this section means any group of persons, whether incorporated or unincorporated, and includes any civic, fraternal, political, mutual benefit, legal, medical, trade, or other kind of organization.

(c) The information filed pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section is hereby declared public and subject to the inspection of any interested party.

(d) Any person having custody or control of the records of an organization who fails to furnish the information requested or any other person or organization who shall violate any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $200, and each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense.

§ 4.29. Falsifying Documents

(a) No person may buy, sell, create, duplicate, alter, give, or obtain, or attempt to buy, sell, create, duplicate, alter, give, or obtain a diploma, certificate, academic record, certificate of enrollment, or other instrument which purports to signify merit or achievement conferred by an institution of education in this state with the intent to use fraudulently that document or to allow the fraudulent use of the document.

(b) A person who violates this section or who aids another in violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000, and/or confinement in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1484, ch. 405, § 5, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 4.30. Disruptive Activities

(a) No person or group of persons acting in concert may wilfully engage in disruptive activity or disrupt a lawful assembly on the campus or property of any private or public school or institution of higher education or public vocational and technical school or institute.

(b) For the purposes of this section, disruptive activity means:

1. obstructing or restraining the passage of persons in an exit, entrance, or hallway of any building without the authorization of the administration of the school;
2. seizing control of any building or portion of a building for the purpose of interfering with any administrative, educational, research, or other authorized activity;
3. preventing or attempting to prevent by force or violence or the threat of force or violence any lawful assembly authorized by the school administration;
4. disrupting by force or violence or the threat of force or violence a lawful assembly in progress;
5. obstructing or restraining the passage of any person at an exit or entrance to said campus or property or preventing or attempting to prevent by force or violence or by threats thereof the ingress or egress of any person to or from said property or campus without the authorization of the administration of the school.

(c) For the purposes of this section, a lawful assembly is disrupted when any person in attendance is rendered incapable of participating in the assembly due to the use of force or violence or due to a reasonable fear that force or violence is likely to occur.

(d) A person who violates any provision of this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $200. and/or confinement in jail for not less than 6 months, or both.

(e) Any person who is convicted the third time of violating this section shall not thereafter be eligible to attend any school, college, or university receiving funds from the State of Texas for a period of two years from such third conviction.

(f) Nothing herein shall be construed to infringe upon any right of free speech or expression guaranteed by the Constitutions of the United States or the State of Texas. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1484, ch. 405, § 6, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 4.31. Exhibition of Firearms

(a) It shall be unlawful to interfere with the normal activities, the normal occupancy, or normal use of any building or portion of a campus of any private or public school or institution of higher education or public vocational and technical school or institute by exhibiting or using or threatening to exhibit or use a firearm.

(b) A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of up to $1,000 or by imprisonment in jail for a period not to exceed six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a period not to exceed five years. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1485, ch. 405, § 7, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 4.32. [Blank]

§ 4.33. Disruption of Classes

(a) Any person who, on school property or on public property within 500 feet of school property, shall alone or in concert with others willfully disrupt the conduct of classes or other school activities shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $200.

(b) In this section:
1. “School property” shall include public school campuses or school grounds upon which any public school is located, and any grounds or buildings used by a school for assemblies or other school-sponsored activities.
2. “Public property” shall include any street, highway, alley, public park, or sidewalk.
3. Conduct which disrupts the educational activities of a school includes:
   (A) emission by any means of noise of an intensity which prevents or hinders classroom instruction;
   (B) enticement or attempted enticement of students away from classes or other school activities which students are required to attend; and
   (C) prevention or attempted prevention of students from attending classes or other school activities which students are required to attend.

(c) The provisions of this section shall be cumulative of existing law, and should any portion hereof be found to be in conflict with any provision of existing law, the provisions hereof shall prevail. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3341, ch. 1024, art. 2, § 11, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.]

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 11.01. Composition and Purpose
The State Board of Education, the State Board for Vocational Education, the state commissioner of education, and the State Department of Education shall comprise the Central Education Agency. It shall carry out such educational functions as may be assigned to it by the legislature, but all educational functions not specifically delegated to the Central Education Agency shall be performed by county boards of education or district boards of trustees. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2752, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 11.02. General Powers and Duties
(a) The Central Education Agency shall exercise general control of the system of public education at the state level in accordance with the provisions of this code.
(b) Any activity with persons under 21 years of age which is carried on in the state by other state or federal agencies, except higher education in approved colleges, shall be subject in its education aspects to the rules and regulations of the Central Education Agency.
(c) Except for agreements entered into by the governing board of a state university or college, the Central Education Agency shall be the sole agency of the State of Texas empowered to enter into agreements with respect to education undertakings, including provision of school lunches and the construction of school buildings, with an agency of the federal government. No county board of education or board of trustees of a school district shall enter into contracts with, or accept money from, an agency of the federal government except under rules and regulations prescribed by the Central Education Agency. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2753, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 11.03. Supervision of the Texas School for the Deaf
The Central Education Agency shall have exclusive jurisdiction and control over the Texas School for the Deaf, and it shall be the duty of the commissioner of education to appoint a superintendent for that school, subject to approval by the State Board of Education. Such jurisdiction shall extend but not be limited to the physical assets of the school, and appropriations made for its benefit shall be administered and expended by the agency. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2753, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 11.04. Superintendent of the Texas School for the Deaf
(a) The superintendent of the Texas School for the Deaf shall be a graduate of an accredited university or college, shall have a minimum of one school year of full-time classroom teaching, shall have at least a total of five years' experience in educating the deaf with at least two of those years acquired in some supervisory capacity in training the deaf, and shall have special training in the education of the deaf in a duly certified school granting such special training.
(b) The superintendent shall reside at the school and shall devote his time exclusively to the duties of his office.
(c) The superintendent may be removed from office by the State Board of Education on recommendation of the commissioner of education for the commission of any felony or any other offense involving moral turpitude, or for failure to carry out the duties of his office. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2753, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 11.05. Printing at the Texas School for the Deaf
(a) The art of printing, in all its branches, shall be among the subjects of study offered at the Texas School for the Deaf.
(b) A competent, practical printer shall be employed as instructor.
(c) Any public printing for the state may be performed at the Texas School for the Deaf without regard to any contract with an individual, firm, or corporation for public printing.
§ 11.051. Travel and Clothing Expenses for Certain Deaf Students

(a) In this section, "economically deprived children" means children having parents or guardians whose financial condition is such that it would work a hardship upon them to pay the travel or clothing expenses of their children.

(b) The travel expenses of economically deprived children attending the Texas School for the Deaf shall be paid by the state out of funds appropriated by the legislature. The superintendent of the school shall make the determination in his sole discretion of which children are entitled to have their travel expenses paid.

(c) No money appropriated for travel expenses may be expended except in compliance with the following rules:

(1) The travel expenses shall be paid only when it is necessary for the student to travel to his home, and only for trips to and returning from his home.

(2) The superintendent of the school shall plan the travel of students so as to achieve maximum economy and efficiency.

(3) A student traveling by rented or public conveyance is entitled to a travel allowance equal to the actual cost of necessary transportation, meals, and lodging.

(d) The expenses of purchasing clothes for economically deprived children attending the Texas School for the Deaf shall be paid out of funds appropriated by the legislature. The superintendent of the school shall make the determination in his sole discretion of which children are entitled to have clothes purchased for them.

§ 11.06. Supervision of the Texas School for the Blind

The Central Education Agency shall have exclusive jurisdiction and control over the Texas School for the Blind. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of education to appoint a superintendent for that school, subject to approval by the State Board of Education. Such jurisdiction shall extend but not be limited to the physical assets of said school, and appropriations made for its benefit shall be administered and expended by the agency.

§ 11.07. Superintendent of the Texas School for the Blind

(a) The superintendent of the Texas School for the Blind shall be a graduate of an accredited university or college and shall have a minimum of four years of educational administrative experience, at least two years of which shall have been in the education or supervisory training of the blind.

(b) The superintendent shall reside at the school and shall devote his time exclusively to the duties of his office.

(c) The superintendent may be removed from office by the State Board of Education on recommendation of the commissioner of education for the commission of any felony or any other offense involving moral turpitude, or for failure to carry out the duties of his office.

§ 11.08. Skilled Oculist for the Texas School for the Blind

A skilled oculist shall be employed to examine regularly all students at the Texas School for the Blind and to administer treatment to all cases of curable blindness among such students.

§ 11.09. Preschool Program for Children With Hearing Loss

(a) The Central Education Agency shall develop a special program for preschool children who have a hearing loss sufficiently severe to prevent adequate progress in speech development.

(b) The purpose of the program shall be to prepare such children for entry in the first grade of the Texas School for the Deaf or the Texas public schools by providing them with a command of some form of communication with others.

(c) Any child three years of age or older on his last birthday, who has a hearing loss sufficiently severe to prevent adequate speech development, shall be eligible for such a program.

(d) The Central Education Agency shall establish the academic requirements for teachers who teach in this program and shall issue certificates to teachers who meet such standards.

(e) The cost of operating this special program shall be borne by the state and each participating district on the same percentage basis applicable to financing the Foundation School Program within the district. The cost of the program shall include a salary—not to exceed the prevailing local salary scale—as well as a maintenance and operational allotment of $50 per month for each teacher. The state's share of the cost will be paid from the foundation school program fund and shall be considered by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for Foundation School Program purposes.

§ 11.10. Special Day Schools for the Deaf

(a) The Central Education Agency is authorized to approve the establishment and operation of county-wide special day schools for the deaf in all counties having a population of 300,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census. Such schools shall be administered by a centrally located school district designated by the Central Education Agency in each such county, and the school districts accepting the designation shall provide appropriate physical facilities, buildings, equipment, supplies, materials, and transportation to all eligible children residing in the county without regard to school district boundaries.
(b) The provisions of this section may apply to any two contiguous counties whose cumulative population exceeds 140,000 but does not exceed 355,000, according to the last preceding federal census, provided that such bi-county day schools shall be administered by one school district designated by the Central Education Agency.

(c) School districts in counties contiguous to those authorized to operate a bi-county day school for the deaf may participate in the day school for the deaf program upon approval by the Central Education Agency of requests from a school district in a county contiguous to those counties authorized to operate the bi-county day school and the school district designated to conduct the school. Participation of school districts in counties contiguous to those authorized to operate the bi-county day school for the deaf shall be on the same basis as for school districts within the counties authorized to operate the school.

(d) (1) All deaf children between the scholastic ages of 6 and 21, inclusive, residing in the county or multi-county providing a day school program herein authorized for such scholastics, shall be eligible to attend the school designated by the operating district.

(2) Provided, however, not later than June 1, the governing board of any school district, within a county or multi-county which has in operation a day school program approved under this law, may file with the Central Education Agency notice withdrawing for a next ensuing school year from such day school program to operate in lieu thereof an exceptional children program providing for the education of all its resident deaf children under applicable provisions of Subsection (4)a of Section 1 of Article III, Chapter 334, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949, as amended (Article 2922–13,1 Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

(e) Deaf children between the scholastic ages of 6 and 13, inclusive, in such counties (hereafter eligible) for admission in the Texas School for the Deaf shall not be eligible for admission to the Texas School for the Deaf except upon recommendation of the superintendent of the operating district with the concurrence of the superintendent of the Texas School for the Deaf.

(f) Students between the scholastic ages of 6 and 13, inclusive, enrolled in the Texas School for the Deaf prior to August 28, 1961, from counties herein authorized to provide and which do provide countywide day schools for the deaf, shall not be eligible for admission to the Texas School for the Deaf except upon recommendation of the superintendent of the operating district with the concurrence of the superintendent of the Texas School for the Deaf.

(g) Children enrolled in the countywide day schools in such counties, who become 14 years of age on or before December 31, shall be eligible for admission to the Texas School for the Deaf or to their homes to attend the designated day schools authorized by this code.

(h) Total cost of operating countywide day schools authorized by this section shall be borne entirely by the state and shall be paid from the foundation school program fund. Such costs shall be considered and included by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for purposes of the Foundation School Program and such countywide day school program. No part of the operating costs herein provided for shall be charged to any of the school districts of this state.

(i) Operating costs for the program in each county shall be determined and paid on the basis of the following factors:

(1) one teacher unit shall be allocated for every eight eligible deaf pupils or major fraction of eight, except that in the case of a bi-county day school authorized by Subsection (b) of this section which has participating school districts as authorized by Subsection (e) of this section one teacher unit shall be allocated for every seven eligible deaf pupils or major fraction of seven;

(2) schools with 15 or more teacher units shall be allocated a full-time principal unit except that a bi-county day school authorized by Subsection (b) of this section which has participating school districts as authorized by Subsection (e) of this section shall be allocated a full-time principal unit;

(3) one supervisor shall be allocated for every 10 teacher units but not to exceed three supervisors provided, however, that each approved school shall have at least one supervisor;

(4) one visiting teacher unit shall be allocated for each countywide or bi-county day school for the deaf;

(5) salaries of the teacher, supervisor, principal, and visiting teacher shall be determined, respectively, in accordance with the official salary schedule of the district where the day school is established;

(6) an operation expense allotment, including transportation, of $700 per each eligible deaf pupil enrolled in the program each current school year;

(7) one initial allotment in the amount of $3,000 per each teacher unit approved for the first year of operation only shall be allowed for the acquisition of transportation vehicles, auditory and other classroom equipment, and other aids and adjustments needed for training the deaf pupils in this program; and

(8) an allocation of $1,000 operating fund for each continuing teacher unit activated for the 1969–1970 school year shall be made.

(j) No state funds provided for in Subsection (i) of this section shall be used for any other purpose than for the countywide special day schools for the deaf program herein referred to.

(k) The Central Education Agency shall approve the educational program for the countywide day schools, and the program shall be comparable to that of the Texas School for the Deaf.

(l) Except for school districts in any county already participating in the operation of countywide special day schools for the deaf, school districts in counties contiguous to counties participating in bi-county day schools for the deaf and also school districts in counties contiguous to those counties authorized to be added under this subsection may participate in the multi-county day school for the deaf program upon approval by the Texas Education Agency of requests from the applying school district and the school district designated to conduct the school. Participation of school districts in all counties authorized to be added to the multi-county day school for the deaf program by this subsection shall be on the same basis as for school districts within the counties already included in the program.

(m) For the purposes of this section, any bi-county day school for the deaf which serves one or more additional counties may be referred to as a multi-county day school.

(n) The legislature by the addition of this and the following subsections to this Section 11.10, Texas Education Code, intends to continue a process of providing better education available to deaf children on a statewide basis in Texas, and to afford all deaf children an opportunity for achievement more equal to their peers with normal hearing.

(o) To carry out legislative intent and the objectives of subsections (n) and the following subsections of this Section 11.10, the Central Education Agency shall employ a Director of Deaf Education (at a salary not exceeding $30,000) with the responsibility to develop and administer a comprehensive statewide plan for deaf education services including continuing diagnosis and evaluation, counseling and teaching, and designed to accomplish the following objectives:

1. Assisting and counseling parents of children of any age whose hearing is determined by professionally acceptable evaluation to be nonfunctional for educational purposes, such assistance and counseling to be provided in each of the regional day school programs for the deaf hereinafter authorized, and admitting all children between the ages of three and 21 whose hearing is determined by professionally acceptable evaluation to be nonfunctional for educational purposes to the regional day school programs for the deaf;

2. Enabling a majority or as many as may be practicable of deaf children to reside with their parents or guardians and be afforded compensatory education in their home school districts or in facilities of regional day school programs for the deaf;

3. Enabling deaf children who are unable to attend schools at their place of residence and whose parents or guardians live too far from facilities of regional day school programs for the deaf for daily commuting or to be accommodated five nights a week in foster homes or other residential school facilities provided for by the Central Education Agency in order that such children may attend a regional day school program for the deaf;

4. Enrolling children in the Texas School for the Deaf at Austin or any other educational facility for the deaf upon the joint recommendations of the Director of Deaf Education, the superintendent of the child’s regional day school program for the deaf, and the Superintendent of the Texas School for the Deaf at Austin, admitting to the Texas School for the Deaf only those children whose needs can best be met in that institution, designating the Texas School for the Deaf as the principal regional school for the central region of the state and Superintendent of the Texas School for the Deaf as the superintendent of the central region; and

5. Encouraging children enrolled in regional day school programs for the deaf who have demonstrated ability to do so to return to regular school classes on a part-time, full-time or trial basis. Supplemental aid from the regional day school program for the deaf shall be made available to such children; and

6. Recognizing the need for development of oral communications abilities in deaf children and the ability of many to achieve high educational excellence through that method, but also recognizing the inability of some to gain their education successfully by this means, the comprehensive plan developed by the Central Education Agency will call for the use of methods of communication which will best meet the needs of each individual deaf child in this state, with each child to be examined thoroughly so as to ascertain his potential for communications through oral means. The state director and regional superintendents may establish separate programs to accommodate diverse communication methodologies.

(p) The Central Education Agency shall apportion the state into not more than eight nor less than five areas each furnishing a regional day school program for the deaf. Geographic areas of each regional day school program for the deaf may be revised by the Central Education Agency for betterment of education for the deaf. Activities of a regional day school program for the deaf may be conducted on more than one site.

(q) The Central Education Agency shall employ a superintendent for each regional day school program for the deaf. These superintendents shall be responsible to the Director of Deaf Education of the Central Education Agency.

It is the intent of the legislature that local resources be utilized to the fullest practicable extent in the establishment and operation of the regional day school programs for the deaf. Regional superintendents are authorized and expected to contract with any qualified public or private organization or qualified individuals for diagnostic, evaluation and instructional services or any other services incidental to the education of deaf children, including transportation and/or maintenance.

Upon the recommendation of regional superintendents of the regional day school programs for the deaf the Central Education Agency shall employ educational and other personnel, may purchase or lease real or personal property, may accept gifts or grants of real or personal property or services from any source, public or private, including independent school districts and any institution of higher learning in this state, for the purpose of establishing and operating regional day school programs for the deaf.

The Central Education Agency may promulgate by rule or regulation that upon establishment of each regional school the countywide school(s) in that region shall become a part of the regional school operation and that all equipment, classroom supplies, and other personal property owned by the countywide schools shall become the property of the regional day school. Where any such program is compromised, the directors and employees of the former countywide schools shall be employed in appropriate, substantially similar capacities within the regional day school program for that region.
(r) Costs of operation of the regional day school programs for the deaf shall be borne by the state and paid from the Foundation School Program Fund. Such costs shall be considered and included by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the needs for purposes of the Foundation School Program and the regional day school programs for the deaf. However, funds allocated to countywide schools shall remain so allocated except in those regions in which the countywide program has been made a part of the appropriate region, as aforesaid. Funds specially appropriated to the regional day school program by the General Appropriations Act of the 63rd Legislature, or any substitute therefor, shall be used so as to implement as completely as may be possible the provisions of this Act during the next biennium and in accordance with a budget of expenditures approved by the State Board of Education with the first funds, however, hereby required to be expended in such numbers as the Central Education Agency shall upon the passage of this Act institute planning and research designed to accomplish the intent and objectives set forth herein including employment of the Director of Deaf Education and other personnel considered essential to meet the operational date specified for this Act.

(u) The regional day school programs for the deaf shall commence operation to the fullest extent possible on September 1, 1974.

§ 11.101. Education of Deaf in Private Schools

(a) The Central Education Agency may under the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education contract with private schools for the deaf to provide education and training for deaf children who are eligible for admission to the Texas School for the Deaf.

(b) Any contract authorized by this section shall provide for standards of education and training and standards for buildings, equipment, and facilities at least equal to those provided by the Texas School for the Deaf.

(c) The amount paid under a contract authorized by this section on account of each eligible child shall not exceed the average cost per child under the program of countywide day schools for the deaf.

(d) The cost of this program shall be borne entirely by the state and shall be paid from the Foundation School Program. The total cost of this program shall be considered and included by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for the Foundation School Program.

§ 11.11. Program for Non-English Speaking Children

(a) The Central Education Agency shall develop a special program for non-English speaking children.

(b) The purpose of the program shall be to prepare such children for entry in the first grade of the Texas public schools by providing them with a command of essential English words which will afford them a better opportunity to complete successfully the work assigned them.

(c) The program for non-English speaking children shall cover a period of not to exceed four and one-half months.

(d) Any non-English speaking child who is at least five years of age and who will be eligible to enter the first grade in the ensuing school year may be enrolled.

(e) The Central Education Agency shall establish the academic requirements for teachers who teach in this program and issue certificates to those who meet such standards.

(f) The cost of operating this program shall be borne by the state and each participating district on the same percentage basis applicable to financing the Foundation School Program within the district. The state's share of the cost of the program shall include a monthly salary not to exceed one-half the prevailing minimum salary schedule with increments as prescribed for classroom teachers in Subchapter D, Chapter 16 of this code, as well as a maintenance and operational allotment of $50 per month for each teacher. The state's share of the cost shall be paid from the foundation school program fund, and shall be considered by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for Foundation School Program purposes.

(g) This program shall not be set up in any school district, or combination of school districts, unless at least 15 children qualify. The extent to which any school district shall participate in the foundation school program fund over and above the first unit shall be based on an average daily attendance of 20 eligible pupils. No state funds provided for in this section shall be used by the school district for any purpose other than for the non-English speaking program.

(§ 11.12. Involvement With School Bus Regulations)

The Central Education Agency and the State Board of Control, by and with the advice of the director of the Department of Public Safety, shall have joint and complete responsibility to adopt and enforce regulations governing the design, color, lighting and other equipment, construction, and operation of all school buses for the transportation of school children when owned and operated by any school district or privately owned and operated under contract with any school district in this state, and the regulations shall by reference be made a part of any such contract with a school district. The State Board of Control shall coordinate and correlate all specification data, finalize and issue the specification so adopted as provided for by Section 10, Chapter 334, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949 (Article 634-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). In the regulations, emphasis shall be placed on safety features and long-range, maintenance-free factors, and requiring that all school buses shall be purchased on competitive bids as provided by Section 3, Article V, Chapter 334, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949 (Article 634(B), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Every school district, its officers, employees, and any person employed under contract by a school district shall be subject to these regulations. The State Board of Control shall purchase equipment to conform to these standards.

(§ 11.13. Appeals)

(a) Persons having any matter of dispute among them arising under the school laws of Texas or any person aggrieved by the school laws of Texas or by actions or decisions of any board of trustees or board of education may appeal in writing to the commissioner of education who, after due notice to the parties interested, shall hold a hearing and render a decision without cost to the parties involved, but nothing contained in this section shall deprive any party of any legal remedy.

(b) The decisions of the commissioner of education shall be subject to review by the State Board of Education.

(c) Any person, county, or school district aggrieved by any action of the Central Education Agency may appeal to a district court in Travis County, Texas. Appeals shall be made by serving the commissioner of education with citation issued and served in the manner provided by law for civil suits. The petition shall state the action from which the appeal is taken, and if the appeal is from an order of the State Board of Education, shall also set out the order, or relevant portion thereof. Upon trial the court shall determine all issues of law and fact.

(a) The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to give the State Board of Education, the commissioner of education, the State Department of Education, or anyone whomsoever, the power to close, to consolidate, or cause by regulation or rule to be closed or consolidated, any public school district in this state.

(b) The provisions of this code regarding and applicable to the consolidating, annexing, or otherwise closing of school districts of this state shall govern in all such matters.

(§ 11.15. Advisory Council for Language-Handicapped Children)

(a) The Advisory Council for Language-Handicapped Children shall consist of 12 members appointed by the governor, each member to serve a term of two years from the date of his appointment. A member may be reappointed for more than one term.

(b) The governor shall designate the chairman of the council. A majority of the appointed members, at the call of the chair, shall organize and elect the other officers that the council deems necessary.

(c) A member of the council serves without compensation, but on presentation of a voucher signed by the chairman of the council and approved by the commissioner of education, is entitled to receive reimbursement for actual expenses incurred while traveling on official council business.

(d) A majority of the council is a quorum for the conduct of business.

(e) The duty of the council is to study the problems of language-handicapped children and to advise the commissioner and the Central Education Agency in the development of programs designed to diagnose and treat the problems of language-handicapped children.

(f) The council shall report to the 63rd Legislature its findings and recommendations concerning the establishment of statewide diagnostic and treatment facilities for language-handicapped children.

1 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes—20
§ 11.15 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 306

(g) The governor shall appoint the members of the council as soon after the effective date of this act as possible. Because of the diverse nature of the problem of language-handicapped children, the governor is hereby encouraged by the legislature to make some appointments from the fields of psychology, medicine, and education.

(h) The Central Education Agency shall:

(1) develop programs, with the advice of the council, designed to diagnose and treat the problems of language-handicapped children; that is, a child who is deficient in the acquisition of language skills due to language disability where no other handicapping condition exists;

(2) establish, with the advice of the council, at least three regional experimental diagnostic facilities;

(3) develop rules, regulations, and guidelines governing the operation of the experimental diagnostic facilities;

(4) make the necessary agreements and contacts to establish the regional diagnostic facilities;

(5) actively seek the advice and cooperation of all appropriate public agencies and private institutions in the development of a program of diagnosis and treatment of language-handicapped children;

(6) seek and may accept grants from public and private sources to finance research and to develop a program designed to diagnose and treat language-handicapped children; and

(7) provide necessary staff, offices, and facilities for the council to conduct its business.

(i) The commissioner of education shall transmit to the 62nd Legislature an interim report on the status of the research into the problem of diagnosing and treating language-handicapped children. He shall include in his report an itemized estimate of the money required to conclude the research project satisfactorily by August 31, 1972.

(j) The council ceases to exist at midnight August 31, 1972.

§ 11.17. Bilingual Education Training Institutes

(Text as added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 863, ch. 392, § 2)

(a) The Central Education Agency shall conduct bilingual education training institutes.

(b) The agency shall make rules and regulations governing the conduct of and participation in the institutes.

(c) Professional and paraprofessional public school personnel who participate in the bilingual education training institutes shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred as a result of their participation in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the agency.

For text as added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1760, ch. 642, § 1, see section 11.17, post.

§ 11.17. Advisory Council on Early Childhood Education

(Text as added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1760, ch. 642, § 1)

(a) The Advisory Council on Early Childhood Education is created and shall assist the State Board of Education in formulating minimum standards for quality educational experiences in all public programs at the kindergarten grade level.

(b) The council is composed of 24 members appointed by the governor;

(1) one specialist from the State Department of Education from the kindergarten area;

(2) one specialist from Vocational Homemaking Education in the State Department of Education;

(3) one specialist in early childhood education from the faculty of a college or university department of education;

(4) one specialist in child development from the faculty of a college or university department of home economics;

(5) one specialist from the State Department of Public Welfare in early childhood development.
(6) one representative of the Texas Association for the Education of Young Children;
(7) one certified kindergarten teacher;
(8) one nursery school teacher;
(9) one representative of the Texas-Elementary-Kindergarten-Nursery Educators Association;
(10) one director of a private nursery school;
(11) one director of a day care facility;
(12) one child psychologist;
(13) one pediatrician;
(14) one representative of the State Department of Health;
(15) one representative of the State Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation;
(16) one representative of the Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association;
(17) one representative of the Texas State Teachers Association;
(18) one representative from the Texas Association of Childhood Education;
(19) one representative of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association;
(20) one optometrist;
(21) one representative from Vocational Homemaking Teachers Association of Texas;
(22) one ophthalmologist;
(23) one child psychiatrist; and
(24) one parent of a child enrolled in a prekindergarten or kindergarten grade level program at the time of appointment.

(c) All appointments shall be for terms of two years, but membership of a representative of a specific agency or group shall terminate if the representative terminates his association with the agency or group. No person may be appointed to serve on the commission for more than two full terms. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term, and an appointment for a portion of a term shall not disqualify the appointee for appointment for two additional full terms. If a member is absent from any four regularly scheduled meetings in any calendar year, his membership on the council shall terminate, and the chairman of the council shall notify the governor that the vacancy exists and the governor shall make a new appointment within 30 days.

(d) The council by majority vote of all its members shall elect a chairman from its membership. The council shall meet regularly with a minimum of six meetings each year. Additional meetings may be held at the call of the chairman. Members of the council serve without compensation, but are entitled to reimbursement for necessary and actual travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(e) The Central Education Agency, with the advice of the council, shall:

(1) develop minimum standards for kindergarten education;
(2) formulate minimum standards for the certification of teachers at the kindergarten grade level including:

(A) issuance of a kindergarten teaching certificate upon the completion of the bache- lor's degree in child development through home economics or early childhood education departments from an accredited college or university which requires a multidisciplinary preparation and includes student teaching or one year of teaching experience;
(B) issuance of a preliminary teaching certificate upon the completion of the associate of arts degree in child development from an accredited junior college or other institution authorized to issue such degree;
(C) issuance of an emergency teaching certificate for those who do not qualify under Paragraph (A) or (B) of this subdivision but present evidence of commitment to a definite approved plan of study which upon completion would result in a regular certification;
(D) issuance of a paraprofessional teaching certificate for those who have completed training through a Home Economics Gainful Employment Program at a high school or through other programs approved by the State Board of Education;
(E) develop the curriculum and course of studies for the kindergarten grade level, to be revised each year as deemed necessary.

(f) The Central Education Agency, with the advice of the council, shall develop standards for the certification of professional and paraprofessional personnel and for the accreditation of public kindergartens.

(g) Not less than six months prior to each regular session of the legislature the Commissioner of Education shall recommend to the Governor desirable programs for public kindergartens and the administrative and legislative changes necessary to accomplish them.

For text as added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 863, ch. 392, § 2, see section 11.17, ante.

§ 11.18. Adult Education

(a) As used in this section, the following words and phrases shall have the indicated meanings:

(1) “Adult education” means services and instruction provided by public local education agencies below the college credit level for adults.

(2) “Adult” means any individual who is over the age of compulsory school attendance as set forth in Section 21.032 of this code.

(b) The Central Education Agency shall:

(1) manage this program with adequate staffing to develop, administer, and support a comprehensive statewide adult education program and coordinate related federal and state programs for education and training of adults;
(2) develop, implement, and regulate a comprehensive statewide program for community level education services to meet the special needs of adults;
(3) develop the mechanism and guidelines for coordination of comprehensive adult education and related skill training services for adults with other agencies, both public and private, in planning, developing, and implementing related programs;
§ 11.18 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

(4) administer all state and federal funds for adult education and related skill training in Texas;

(5) prescribe and administer standards and accrediting policies for adult education;

(6) prescribe and administer rules and regulations for teacher certification for adult education; and

(7) accept and administer grants, gifts, services, and funds from available sources for use in adult education.

(e) Adult education programs shall be provided by public school districts, public junior colleges, and public universities approved in accordance with state statute and the regulations and standards formulated by the Central Education Agency. The programs shall be designed to meet the education and training needs of adults to the extent possible within available public and private resources. Bilingual education may be the method of instruction for students who do not function satisfactorily in English whenever it is appropriate for their optimum development.

(d) The State Board of Education may establish or designate an adult education advisory committee composed of no more than 21 members representing public and private nonprofit education, business, labor, minority groups, and the general public for the purpose of advising the board on needs, priorities, and standards of adult education programs conducted in accordance with this section of the Texas Education Code.

(e) Funds shall be appropriated to implement statewide adult basic education, high school equivalency, and high school credit programs to eliminate illiteracy in Texas and to implement and support a statewide program to meet the total range of adult educational needs for adult education and related skill training. An additional sum of money may be appropriated for the purpose of skill training in direct support of industrial expansion and start-up, in those locations, industries, and occupations designated by the Texas Industrial Commission, when such training is also in support of the basic purposes of this section.

§ 11.19. [Blank]

§ 11.20. Pilot Programs for Physical Evaluations of School Children

(a) The Central Education Agency shall plan, institute, and supervise pilot programs in various school districts of this state for the purpose of screening children for health defects or problems.

(b) In each district selected for a pilot program, children shall be examined or evaluated in the manner prescribed by the Central Education Agency and by nurses or other allied health personnel specifically authorized to do so by the agency.

(c) Prior notice of the examination shall be given to the parents or guardian of each child, and no child shall be examined or evaluated if his parents or guardian object because of religious convictions.

(d) Whenever an abnormal health condition or problem is found in any child, the school nurse shall:

(1) advise the child's parent or guardian;

(2) suggest what action should be taken;

(3) if necessary, assist the family in obtaining access to appropriate health, rehabilitation, or treatment services; and

(4) review the case as necessary to determine that corrective action is taken to the extent possible.

(e) The agency shall require a record to be kept of each examination and actions taken pursuant to each examination. The record shall be confidential and shall be kept separate from the other records of the child. The records may be used for statistical purposes as long as the identity of each child is kept confidential.

(f) The agency shall require periodic reports from each district participating in the program for the purpose of evaluating the results of the program. The agency shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature biennially during the first month of the regular session.

(g) The legislature shall appropriate money to finance the cost of the program, including planning, compensation for personal services, and necessary equipment and supplies.

Subchapter B. State Board of Education

§ 11.21. Composition of Board

The State Board of Education is composed of one member elected from each congressional district established by law.

§ 11.22. Membership

(a) Members of the State Board of Education shall be elected at biennial general elections held in compliance with the general election laws of this state, to the board offices which will become vacant on December 31 of that year.

(b) No person shall be eligible for election to or serve on the board if he holds an office with the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof, or holds employment with or receives any compensation for services from the state or any political subdivision thereof (except retirement benefits paid by the State of Texas or the federal government), or engages in organized public educational activity.

(c) No person shall be elected from or serve in a district who is not a qualified voter of his district, and is 30 years of age or older.

(d) The total amount authorized to be expended furthering or opposing the candidacy of any person for membership on the State Board of Education shall not exceed $1,500.
(e) Candidates shall be nominated and elected in the manner provided in the Texas Election Code for nomination and election of district officers generally, except as otherwise provided in the Election Code on this code.

(f) Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 90, ch. 51,

(g) It shall be unlawful for any person, group of persons, organization, or corporation engaged in manufacturing, shipping, selling, storing, advertising textbooks—or in any other manner connected with the textbook business—to make a financial contribu­tion to, or take part in, directly or indirectly, the campaign of any person seeking election to the State Board of Education. It shall likewise be unlawful for anyone interested in selling bonds of any type whatsoever to make a financial contribution to or take part in, directly or indirectly, the campaign of any person seeking election to the board. Anyone convicted of violating the provisions of this subsection shall be punished as prescribed by the penal laws of this state.

(h) At the general election in 1972, and at each general election thereafter immediately following a decennial reapportionment of congressional districts, one member shall be elected to the board from each congressional district. Except as provided in Subsection (i) of this section, members of the board serve staggered terms of six years with the terms of one-third of the members expiring on December 31 of each even-numbered year.

(i) One-third of the members of the board elected in 1972 and at each general election following a decennial reapportionment of congressional districts shall serve for terms of two years, one-third for four years, and one-third for six years. Members shall draw lots to determine which shall serve for terms of two, four, and six years. If the total number of members divided by three results in a remainder of one, one additional six-year term shall be filled by lot. If the total number of members divided by three results in a remainder of two, one additional six-year term and one additional four-year term shall be filled by lot.

(j) Each member of the board shall take the official oath of office, and shall be bonded in the amount of $10,000, in the manner prescribed in Chapter 383, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (Article 6003b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(k) In case of resignation or death of a board member, or in case a position on the board otherwise becomes vacant, the board shall fill such vacancy as soon as possible by appointment of a qualified person from the affected district. The appointee shall hold office only until his successor is duly elected for the remainder of the unexpired term at the next general election and has qualified by taking the required oath and filing the required bond or until expiration of the term of office to which he has been appointed, whichever occurs first.

(l) A vacancy that occurs at a time when it is impossible to place the name of a candidate for the unexpired term on the general election ballot shall be filled by appointment, as specified in Subsection
(k) of this section.

(m) Members of the board shall receive no salary but shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in attending meetings of the board or incident to any judicial action taken because of appeal from a board order.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., 1st C.S. p. 25, ch. 5, §2, eff. June 15, 27, 1973.]

§ 11.23. Meetings and Organization

(a) The board shall hold regular meetings in Austin, Texas, on the second Saturday in January, March,
May, July, September, and November. It may hold other meetings as scheduled by its formal sessions or as may be called by the chairman.

(b) At its regular January meeting of each year following general election and qualification of new members, the State Board of Education shall organize, adopt rules of procedure, and elect a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary.

(c) No meeting of the State Board of Education shall be held unless attended by 14 members or more. All members shall constitute a quorum for transacting all business. When the board is reduced below 14 members, vacancies may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1581, ch. 428, §1, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 11.24. General Powers and Duties

(a) The State Board of Education is the policy­ forming and planning body for the public school system of the state. It shall also be the State Board for Vocational Education and as such, the board shall have all the powers and duties conferred on it by the various statutes relating to the State Board for Vocational Education.

(b) As one part of the Central Education Agency, the State Board of Education shall have specific responsibility for adopting policies, enacting regulations, and establishing general rules for carrying out the duties placed on it or the Central Education Agency by the legislature.

§ 11.25. Powers and Duties Related to Commissoner of Education

(a) The state commissioner of education shall be the executive officer through whom the State Board of Education shall carry out its policies and enforce its rules and regulations.

(b) The State Board of Education shall have power to pass on appeals from decisions made by the commissioner in applying such rules and regulations.

(c) The State Board of Education shall appoint, by and with the consent of the Texas Senate and in conformity with the requirements of Section 11.51 of this code, the state commissioner of education to serve for a period of four years, beginning June 1 and ending May 31, and may reappoint him for successive terms of four years at a salary to be set by the board.

(d) The board shall have power to remove the commissioner for conviction of a felony, or of any crime involving moral turpitude, or for wilful and continuous disregard of the board's directions on matters vital to the operation of the Central Education Agency and the public school system.
§ 11.25  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

(c) When a vacancy occurs by reason of resignation, death, or removal, the board shall appoint a new commissioner for the unexpired term or an acting commissioner to serve at the board’s discretion for a total consecutive term of not more than one year.

(f) On recommendation of the commissioner of education, the State Board of Education may authorize the commissioner to appoint as many official commissions composed of citizens of the state as are necessary to advise the commissioner of education in the discharge of his duties. A member of such a commission shall not receive any pay for his services on a commission other than reimbursement for actual expenses incurred. Necessary expenses for the operation of such commissions shall be included in the appropriate operating budget of the Central Education Agency and shall be subject to the same budget controls applied to all other items in the budget.

§ 11.26. Powers and Duties Related to Educational Needs of the State

(a) The State Board of Education shall review periodically the educational needs of the state, adopt or promote plans for meeting these needs, and evaluate the achievements of the educational program. With the advice and assistance of the state commissioner of education, the State Board of Education shall

(1) formulate and present to the governor and Legislative Budget Board the proposed budget or budgets for operating the Foundation School Program, the Central Education Agency, and the other programs for which it has responsibility;
(2) adopt operating budgets on the basis of appropriation by the legislature;
(3) establish procedures for budgetary control, expending, auditing, and reporting on expenditures within the budgets adopted;
(4) make to the legislature biennial reports covering all the activities and expenditures of the Central Education Agency;
(5) establish regulations for the accreditation of schools;
(6) execute contracts for the purchase of instructional aids, including textbooks, within the limits of authority granted by the legislature;
(7) execute contracts for the investment of the permanent school fund, within the limits of authority granted by Chapter 15 of this code;
(8) prescribe rules and regulations for certification of teachers and for granting certificates for teaching in the public schools of this state, in accordance with Chapter 13 of this code; and
(9) consider the athletic necessities and activities of the public schools of Texas and in advance of each regular session of the legislature specifically report to the governor of Texas the proper and lawful division of time and money to be devoted to athletics, holidays, legal and otherwise, and to educational purposes.

(b) The State Board of Education shall not adopt any policy, rule, regulation, or other plan which would require any school district within the state, as a prerequisite for accreditation or other approval, to hire any supervisor or any guidance counselor.

(c) All rules promulgated by the State Board of Education concerning the qualifications of personnel employed to fill the positions classified by the Central Education Agency shall contain the provisions stating that when specifically requested by a local board, persons holding a degree and a permanent teaching certificate, and already employed to fill the positions for which new qualifications are set shall not be disqualified from holding the positions for failure to meet the new qualifications.

§ 11.27. Providing for Deaf and Blind or Totally Blind and Nonspeaking Persons

(a) For the purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires,

(1) “totally deaf and blind person” means a person having such defects of hearing and sight that in the opinion of the board he may not be cared for, treated, or educated in the manner provided elsewhere in this code for the deaf or blind; and
(2) “totally blind and nonspeaking person” means a person having such defects of sight and speech that in the determination of the board he may not be cared for, treated, or educated in the manner provided elsewhere in this code for the blind or nonspeaking.

(b) The State Board of Education may provide for the maintenance, care, and education of persons under the age of 21 years who are totally deaf and blind or totally blind and nonspeaking.

(c) The board may accept such persons on application of the parent or guardian and may require reimbursement for the cost of their maintenance, care, and education as is provided by law for other deaf and blind, or blind and nonspeaking, persons.

(d) The board may negotiate and enter into contracts with public or private institutions inside or outside the State of Texas which are equipped to provide the specialized facilities and personnel necessary to care for and educate persons who are totally deaf and blind, or totally blind and nonspeaking; it may also provide maintenance, the necessary attendants, and transportation to and from such institutions for such persons. The costs of these services may be paid from appropriations made to the Central Education Agency for the care of persons who are totally deaf and blind.

§ 11.28. Powers Related to Independent School Districts

(a) The power of the State Board of Education to create and establish independent school districts has been abolished, but the State Board of Education shall continue to exercise the powers as provided in this section in those independent school districts which were created by the board under its former authority.
shall not be required to be residents of the district, except that for each military reservation independent school district the trustees shall be selected from a list of civilians who are qualified under the general school laws of Texas and who live or are employed on the military reservation. The list shall be furnished by the commanding officer of the military reservation to the commissioner of education. The trustees so appointed shall hold office for two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(d) Each year the board of trustees shall take and certify the census of eligible children within the scholastic ages, and the children entitled to attend the reservation schools thus established shall be those of the officers, soldiers, and civilian employees residing or employed on the reservation.

(e) The board of trustees shall have the authority of transferring any school children who cannot be accommodated in the reservation schools thus established shall be those of the officers, soldiers, and civilian employees residing or employed on the reservation.

(f) The State Board of Education may make such special regulations and orders for the government of the district as it may deem expedient, but the laws pertaining to independent school districts where the district is not otherwise ordered, shall govern such district.

(g) On the written request signed by a majority of the board of trustees of the district, the State Board of Education may abolish the district, in which event the State Board of Education shall give written notice to the board of trustees of the district and to the board of county school trustees or county board of education of the county in which the district is located. The county governing board shall be required to add the territory of the abolished district to a school district contiguous to the territory and to add the school census taken for the district prior to its abolishment to the scholastic census of the district to which the territory is added.

(h) Any military reservation territory which is subject to the same post or base command as a military reservation used to house dependents of military and civilian personnel and which wholly contains an independent school district, whether or not such reservations are contiguous, may be annexed to that reservation independent school district by the State Board of Education pursuant to a petition by that post or base commander.

(i) When any military reservation territory has been annexed to an independent school district of the same post or base command under Subsection (h) of this section, and the territory is no longer used to house dependents of military and civilian personnel, the State Board of Education, on petition of the post or base command, or on petition of a majority of the trustees of the school district from which the territory was originally detached, shall be authorized to detach such territory from the military reservation constituting an independent school district and to annex it to the school district from which it was originally detached.

§ 11.29. Adoption of Budget for the Central Education Agency

(a) The State Board of Education shall adopt annually a budget for the operation of the Central Education Agency. The budget shall be in accordance with the amounts appropriated by the general appropriations act and shall provide funds for the administration and operation of the Central Education Agency and any other necessary expense.

(b) Expenses eligible for payment in whole or in part from federal and special funds shall be designated in the budget.

(c) Expense items budgeted which are not eligible for payment from federal or special funds shall be paid from the foundation school program fund.

(d) The State Board of Education shall budget annually from the foundation school program fund for the operation of the Central Education Agency an amount not to exceed four-tenths of one percent of the total cost of the Foundation School Program as estimated for purposes of the Foundation School Program Act by the board at its March meeting immediately prior to the adoption of the budget at the July meeting.

(e) The budget cost of operating the Central Education Agency which is paid from the foundation school program fund shall be included in the estimated cost of the Foundation School Program which is computed by the State Board of Education in March of each year for the determination of the local fund assignment to be charged to each school district.

(f) On or before August 15 of each year, a copy of the approved operating budget for the Central Education Agency showing total funds budgeted by sources of funds shall be filed with the state comptroller of public accounts. Thereafter, vouchers submitted by the state commissioner of education shall be paid from the appropriate fund.

§ 11.30. Authority to Enter Into Contracts for Grants

For the maintenance and improvement of state educational programs and activities in the public schools, the State Board of Education may enter into contracts for grants from both public and private organizations and may expend such funds under the terms and for the specific purposes contracted.

§ 11.31. Teacher-Training Programs

(a) The State Board of Education shall develop and publicize a program specifically designed to encourage and facilitate the entry into public-school teaching and into teacher-training programs of a corps of intelligent, mature, and concerned persons who have received bachelor's degrees from accredited institutions of higher education.

(b) The State Board of Education and the institutions of higher learning in this state that are approved for teacher education shall cooperate to develop procedures for the individual evaluation and appraisal of the training and training needs of persons applying for teacher certification who have possessed an accredited institution of higher learning for a period of three years or longer and who are eligible under the laws of Texas to be certified, and to provide to these persons teacher-training programs that are appropriate to their needs and that can be completed in a reasonable time.

(c) The president or chancellor of each college or university in this state approved for teacher training shall appoint a three-member evaluation team to perform the individual evaluation and determine the individual training needs referred to in Subsection (b) of this section. The evaluation team shall be comprised of two members of the faculty of the department or school of education and

1. one member from the school or college of arts and sciences if the individual is applying for evaluation for elementary certification; or
2. one member from the teaching field of the individual if the applicant is applying for evaluation for secondary certification.

(d) More than one team as described in Subsection (c) of this section may be appointed at an institution when needed.

(e) When an applicant meeting the requirements in Subsection (b) of this section seeks to become certified to teach in the public schools of Texas, he shall present his transcript and any information covering any work experience or additional qualifications to an institution of higher learning approved for teacher education. The institution's evaluation team shall evaluate the applicant's transcript and work experience and, when practicable, interview the applicant to determine any deficiencies in either professional or content preparation, in the area of teaching specialization chosen by the applicant. The evaluation team shall give due consideration to the applicant's work experience, as well as to his academic record, and to any other evidence bearing upon his qualification as a teacher. The evaluation team shall then recommend what additional course work or other preparation is needed by the applicant to qualify for certification under standards established by the State Board of Education. While the applicant is pursuing the study and preparation recommended by the evaluation team, he will remain under its general guidance. His training may be reevaluated by the team when necessary, as when any teaching experience is acquired by the applicant either in student teaching or under emergency permit. When the team finds the applicant has satisfactorily met the requirements for certification, the team shall recommend him for a provisional certificate.

(f) The State Board of Education, with the advice and assistance of the state commissioner of education, shall develop a pattern of minimum standards for the certification of persons under this section. The pattern shall recognize the role and responsibilities of the evaluation teams. As far as the training of persons under this section is concerned, the board shall allow the waiver of any current requirements for the provisional certificate not stipulated or implied by the standards developed for the guidance of institutions for this particular program. However, nothing in this section shall be construed as permitting more requirements of an applicant under this section than would be made in an undergraduate program of teacher preparation; to the contrary, the legislative intent of this section is that, in recognition of the maturity, experience, and level of achievement of applicants in this program, course requirements would more likely be reduced, compressed, or combined, and would be more freely interchangeable with similar courses.

(g) The Central Education Agency is hereby authorized and directed to prepare, or have prepared, publicity materials, and to make these materials available for use to television and radio stations, newspapers and other periodicals, and any other appropriate communications media, to encourage qualified persons to enter the teaching profession and to publicize the training program directed in this section, as well as other teacher-training programs. The Central Education Agency is hereby authorized to use for this purpose any funds that have been or may be appropriated to it, and to accept and spend for this purpose any gifts or donations of funds made for this purpose.

(h) When the commissioner of education shall so direct, in the case of applicants seeking to enter this program to qualify to teach in trade or industrial courses, the requirement herein for a bachelor's degree may be waived.

(i) The State Board of Education, with the advice and assistance of the state commissioner of education, is hereby authorized to establish such rules and regulations as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section and which may be necessary to implement and carry out the legislative policy expressed herein.

§ 11.311 Student Teacher Centers

(a) To provide college students facilities and supervision for student teaching experience required by law as a prerequisite to the issuance of a valid Texas teaching certificate, it is necessary that joint responsibility among the colleges or universities approved for teacher education by the State Board of Education of this state, the Texas public school districts, and the State of Texas be hereby established.

(b) The Central Education Agency, with the assistance of colleges, universities, and public school personnel, shall establish standards for approval of public school districts to serve as Student Teacher Centers, and define the cooperative relationship between the college or university and the public school which serves the student teaching program.

(c) The approved public school district serving as a student teacher center and the college or university using its facilities shall jointly approve or select the supervising teachers, employees of the district, to serve in the program and adopt an agreement continuing in-service improvement program for supervising teachers.

(d) There shall be paid to the public school district serving as a student teacher center the sum of $200 for each supervising teacher, to be an additional increment for such additional services to the annual salary of each such serving supervising teacher. In addition there shall be paid to the district the sum of $50 per each supervising teacher usable to assist in meeting the costs incurred in providing facilities for student teaching. This total, $250 per supervising teacher, shall be paid from the Minimum Foundation Program Fund; this cost shall be considered by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for Foundation School Program purposes. The total number of supervising teachers to receive the additional increment herein provided shall never exceed 70 percent of the total number of student teachers enrolled in the practice teaching program.

§ 11.32. Regional Education Media Centers

(a) The State Board of Education shall provide, by rules and regulations, for the establishment and operation of Regional Education Media Centers to furnish participating school districts with education media materials, equipment and maintenance, and educational services.

(b) Centers approved by the Central Education Agency as meeting the Board of Education requirements are established for the purpose of developing, providing and making available to participating school districts, among other education media services, the following:

- Lending library service for educational motion picture films, 16 mm and 8 mm or improvements thereof, with such processing and servicing of films as is needed to maintain the library;
- Lending library service for 35 mm slides, or improvements thereof, filmstrips, and disc recordings;
- Comprehensive lending library collection of programmed instruction materials for both remedial and enrichment purposes;
- Educational magnetic tape duplicating service for both audio and visual tapes, with the agency central duplicating faculty servicing the regional centers for program materials;
- Overhead and other projection transparency duplicating service to provide visuals from prepared master copies; and
- Professional and other services to assist schools in effective and efficient utilization of all center materials and services.

(c) Regional centers shall be located throughout the state so that each school district has the opportunity to be served and to participate in an approved center, on a voluntary basis. No center shall be approved unless it serves an area having 50,000 or more eligible schoolchildren in average daily attendance for the next preceding school year, except that the Central Education Agency may make an exception for sparsely populated areas.

(d) A Regional Education Media Center is an area center, composed of one or more Texas school districts, that is approved to house, circulate, and service educational media for the public schools of the participating districts.

(e) Each center shall be governed by a five- or seven-member board. The board size shall be determined locally and recommended in the initial application for center approval. The State Board of Education shall adopt uniform rules and regulations to provide for the local selection, appointment, and continuity of membership for regional center boards. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the remaining members of the regional board for the unexpired term. All members shall serve without compensation.

(f) The Regional Media Board is authorized to employ an executive director for its respective center and such other personnel, professional and clerical, as it deems necessary to carry out the functions of the center, and to do and perform all things which it deems proper for the successful operation thereof, and to pay for all operating expenses by warrants drawn on proper funds available for such purpose.

(g) Any school district which is a participant member of a Regional Education Media Center may elect to withdraw its membership in the center for a succeeding scholastic year, electing not to support nor to receive its services for any succeeding year. Title to and all educational media and property purchased by the center shall remain with and in the center.

(h) The Central Education Agency, through its audit and accreditation divisions, shall review for purposes of continuity and standardization the services of the centers.

(i) The cost incident to setting up the centers, their operation, and the purchase of education media supplies and equipment shall be borne by the state and each participating district to the extent and in the manner provided in this section.

(j) The state shall allot and pay to each approved center annually an amount determined on the basis of not to exceed $1 per scholastic in average daily attendance for the next preceding school year in the district or districts that are participants in an approved center. The funds or amount provided by the state shall be used only to purchase educational media or equipment for the center which have had prior approval of its Regional Media Board and the Central Education Agency through its budgetary system.

(k) School districts as participant members in the center shall provide and pay to the center a proportionate amount determined on its ADA for the next preceding school year matching the amount provided by the state. The matching funds provided by the participant districts, including any donated or other local-source funds, may be used to pay for costs of administration of and/or servicing by the center and to purchase supplemental educational media. A center shall not enter into obligations which shall exceed funds available and/or reasonably anticipated as receivable for the current school year.

(l) Annually, pursuant to such regulations and procedure as may be prescribed by the agency, the governing board of each center shall determine the rate per pupil based on ADA the next preceding school year, not to exceed the $1 limit prescribed in this section, which shall constitute the basis for determination of total amount to be transmitted by participant districts to the center and as matching funds from the state's contribution to this program.

(m) The state's share of the cost in the Regional Education Media Centers program herein authorized
§ 11.32. Regional Education Service Centers

(a) The State Board of Education may provide for the establishment and a procedure for the operation of Regional Education Service Centers by rules and regulations adopted under this section and the provisions of Section 11.32, to provide educational services to the school districts and to coordinate educational planning in the region.

(b) The governing board of each Regional Education Service Center, under rules and regulations of the State Board of Education, may enter into contracts for grants from both public and private organizations and to expend such funds for the specific purposes in accordance with the terms of the contract with the contracting agency.

(c) Basic costs for the provision of regional educational services to school districts and coordination of educational planning in the region and for administrative costs necessary to support these services shall be paid from the Foundation School Program under a formula developed by the state commissioner of education and approved by the State Board of Education. Such allotment amounts here authorized to be granted by the State Board of Education shall not exceed in any year a sum equal to $2 multiplied by the average daily attendance in the public schools of Texas as determined for the next preceding school year.

(d) A program of financial assistance for computer services to school districts of the state through Regional Education Service Centers shall be developed by the State Board of Education to encourage a planned statewide network or system of computer services designed to meet public school educational needs, current and future. Toward achievement of maximum efficiency and to insure a practicable uniformity in services, the State Board of Education, by rules and regulations, shall adopt eligibility requirements for data processing computer services to receive the state financial assistance authorized herein.

(e) Only computer services that are provided by or through a Regional Education Service Center to make available computer services required to meet the needs of the school districts of one or more Education Service Center regions shall be eligible for financial assistance hereunder.

(f) The Central Education Agency annually shall approve a state assistance allotment for computer services to be paid to eligible Regional Education Service Centers that qualify, and in an amount to be determined under rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education for that purpose; provided that the allotment amounts here authorized to be granted by the State Board of Education shall not exceed in any year a sum equal to $1 multiplied by the average daily attendance in the public schools of Texas as determined for the next preceding school year.

(g) The state's share of the cost of this program authorized by Subsections (d), (e), and (f) of this section shall be paid from the Foundation School Fund, and this cost shall be considered by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for Foundation School Program purposes.

§ 11.33. Authority to Serve Also as the State Board for Vocational Education

The State Board of Education is also the State Board for Vocational Education. As such it shall have the powers and perform the duties assigned in this code and the laws relating to the State Board for Vocational Education.

§ 11.34. High School Equivalency Examinations

The State Board of Education shall provide for the administration of high school equivalency examinations. Any person over the age of 17 who does not have a high school diploma may take the examination in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the board.

§ 11.41. Composition and Executive Officer

(a) The State Board of Vocational Education is a unit of the Central Education Agency and is composed of those persons who are members of the State Board of Education as set forth in Section 11.22 of this code.

(b) The state commissioner of education shall be the executive officer through whom the state board for vocational education shall carry out its policies and enforce its rules and regulations.

§ 11.42. Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the Central Agency

(a) The vocational rehabilitation division of the Central Education Agency is designated and authorized to provide for the rehabilitation of severely physically disabled Texas citizens, except those who are visually handicapped as defined by laws relating to the State Commission for the Blind; provided that nothing herein contained shall affect or repeal the crippled children's restoration service authorized by Chapter 216, Acts of the 49th Legislature, 1945 (Article 4419c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), administered by the crippled children's division of the State Department of Health, so far as that authority is consistent with laws relating to the State Commission for the Blind.
(b) Other functions and duties now or hereafter assigned to the supervision of the State Board for Vocational Education shall be carried out by appropriate divisions in the State Department of Education.

§ 11.43. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1533, ch. 405, § 54(1), eff. May 26, 1971

Section 11.43 provided for cooperation with the congressional act promoting vocational rehabilitation, and was derived from:

Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 57, ch. 23.
Civil Statutes, Art. 2675-11.
See, now, section 30.43.

SUBCHAPTER D. STATE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

§ 11.51. Selection and Qualifications

(a) The Office of State Commissioner of Education is a unit of the Central Education Agency and shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.25 of this code.

(b) The state commissioner of education shall be a person of broad and professional educational experience, with special and recognized abilities of the highest order in organization, direction, and coordination of education systems and programs, and in administration and management of public schools and public education generally. The commissioner of education shall be a citizen of the United States and shall have been a resident of the State of Texas for a period of not less than five years immediately preceding his appointment. He shall possess good moral character, be eligible for the highest school administrative post in the State Department of Education, and shall have at least a master's degree from a recognized institution of higher learning. He shall take the oath of office required of other state officials.

(c) The commissioner shall execute his official bond in a sum not to exceed $50,000, conditioned on the faithful performance of his duties as required by the laws of Texas and the rules and regulations imposed by the State Board of Education, and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 383, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (Article 6003b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

§ 11.52. Powers and Duties

(a) The commissioner of education shall serve as executive officer of the Central Education Agency and as executive secretary of the State Board of Education and of the State Board for Vocational Education.

(b) The commissioner of education shall be responsible for promoting efficiency and improvement in the public school system of the state and shall have the powers necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities placed upon him by the legislature and by the State Board of Education.

(c) The commissioner of education shall recommend to the State Board of Education such policies, rules, and regulations as he considers necessary to promote educational progress and shall supply the State Board of Education with all necessary or pertinent information to guide it in its deliberations.

(d) The commissioner of education shall prescribe uniform systems of forms, reports, and records necessary to secure needed information from county school officers and local school districts.

(e) The commissioner of education shall require of county judges, county and district school superintendents, county and school district treasurers or depositaries, and other school officers and teachers such school reports relating to school funds and other school affairs as he may deem proper for collecting information and advancing the interests of the public schools. He shall furnish the necessary blanks, forms, and instructions for this purpose.

(f) The commissioner of education may delegate ministerial and executive functions to members of the State Department of Education and may employ division heads and all other employees and clerks necessary to perform the duties of the Central Education Agency as may be authorized by appropriations therefor.

(g) The commissioner of education shall issue teaching certificates to public school teachers and administrators in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 13 of this code.

(h) The commissioner of education is authorized to issue vouchers for the expenditures of the Central Education Agency according to the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education.

(i) The commissioner of education shall examine and approve all accounts to be paid out of the school funds by the state treasurer, and, upon such approval, the comptroller of public accounts shall be authorized to draw his warrant.

(j) The commissioner of education shall observe and execute the mandates, prohibitions, and regulations established by law or by the State Board of Education in accordance with law.

(k) The commissioner of education shall have printed for general distribution as many copies of the school laws as the State Board of Education may determine.

(l) The commissioner of education shall advise and counsel the school officers of the counties, cities, towns, and school districts on the best methods of conducting the public schools. He may issue instructions and opinions regarding rules and regulations which shall be binding for observance on all officers and teachers.

(m) The commissioner shall inform himself about the educational progress of the different parts of this state and of other states. Insofar as he may be able, he shall visit different sections of this state, address teachers' institutes, associations, and other educational gatherings, instruct teachers, and promote all aspects of education. The legislature shall make adequate appropriations for the commissioner's necessary travel expenses, or those of his representative, when in service of the state.

(n) The commissioner shall, one month before the meeting of each regular session of the legislature and 10 days prior to any special session thereof, at which, under the governor's proclamation convening the same, any legislation may be had respecting the public schools, make a full report to the State Board of Education on the condition of all the public schools. This report shall
(1) give all the information called for by the board and such other matters as the commissioner shall deem important; and
(2) be presented by the governor to the legislature, and 2,000 copies of it shall be printed in pamphlet form for use of the legislature and for distribution to the various school officers and libraries in this state and in other states and territories of the United States and Canada, and to the United States Office of Education in Washington.

Subchapter E. The State Department of Education

§ 11.61. Composition
The State Department of Education shall constitute the professional, technical, and clerical staff of the Central Education Agency.

§ 11.62. Organization and Regulations
(a) The State Department of Education shall be organized into divisions and subdivisions established by the commissioner of education subject to the approval of the State Board of Education.
(b) Directors of the major divisions of the State Department of Education, and all of its other employees, shall be appointed by the commissioner of education pursuant to general rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education.
(c) The rules and regulations pertaining to personnel administration shall include a comprehensive classification plan, including an appropriate title for each position, a description of duties and responsibilities, and the minimum requirements of training, experience, and other qualifications essential for adequate performance of the work. These rules and regulations shall likewise provide tenure safeguards, leave and retirement provisions, and establish hearing procedures.

§ 11.63. Functions
(a) The State Department of Education shall
(1) carry out the mandates, prohibitions, and regulations for which it is made responsible by statute, the State Board of Education, or the commissioner of education;
(2) make free and full use of advisory committees and commissions composed of professional educators and/or other citizens of the state; and
(3) seek to assist local school districts in developing effective and improved programs of education through research and experimentation, consultation, conferences, and evaluation, but shall have no power over local school districts except those specifically granted by statute.
(b) The budgets and fiscal reports filed with the Central Education Agency shall be reviewed and analyzed by the staff of the State Department of Education to determine whether or not all legal requirements have been met and to collect fiscal data needed in preparing school fiscal reports for the governor and legislature. The Central Education Agency may drop from the list of accredited schools any school district which fails to comply with the laws or the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education applicable to preparation and adoption of the local budget and/or fiscal accounting system of public school districts.

Chapter 12. Textbooks

Subchapter A. General Provisions

§ 12.01. Free Textbooks
(a) Textbooks adopted by the State Board of Education for use in the public schools of Texas shall be furnished, under the plan as set out in this chapter, without cost to the pupils attending such schools.
The adoption, purchase, distribution, and free use of such state-owned textbooks shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

§ 12.02. Textbook Fund

(a) The state textbook fund shall consist of the fund set aside by the State Board of Education from the available school fund as provided below, together with all funds accruing from the sale of disused books, all money derived from the purchase of books from boards of school trustees by private individuals or by other schools, and all amounts lawfully paid into the fund from any other source.

(b) The State Board of Education shall annually, at a meeting designated by them, set apart out of the available school fund of the state an amount sufficient to purchase and distribute the necessary school books for the use of the pupils of this state for the scholastic year ensuing.

(c) Funds transferred to the textbook fund shall remain permanently in this fund until expended and shall not lapse to the state at the close of the fiscal year.

(d) The transfer of funds set apart to the textbook fund shall be determined by the State Board of Education on the basis of a report of the commissioner of education submitted on July 1 of each year, stating:

(1) the amount of the textbook fund which is then unexpended; and
(2) his estimate as to the funds necessary for the purchase and distribution and other necessary expenses of textbooks for the school session of the following year.

(e) On the basis of the information furnished, the state board shall have the power to set apart from the available school fund the estimated amount needed with 25 percent additional, this additional sum to be used to meet emergencies or necessities caused by unusual increase in scholastic attendance or by unusual and unforeseen expenses and school conditions.

(f) All necessary expenses incurred by the operation of this law or incident to the enforcement of this law shall be paid from the state textbook fund provided for in this chapter on bills approved by the commissioner of education.

§ 12.03. Textbooks for the Blind and Visually Handicapped

(a) The State Board of Education is authorized to acquire, purchase, and contract for, with or without bids, subject to rules and regulations adopted by the board, free textbooks recommended as suitable by and usable as textbooks for the education of the blind and visually handicapped in the public school systems of this state in grades one to twelve inclusive. The board may also enter into agreements providing for the acceptance, requisition, and distribution of books and instructional aids pursuant to Public Law 92-222, 94th Congress, or as amended, for use by students enrolled in public or private non-profit schools. The agreements may include the purchase of textbooks for blind and visually handicapped students attending private, non-profit schools if no state funds except for administrative cost are involved.

(b) For purposes of this section, a blind and/or visually handicapped scholastic means and includes any pupil whose visual acuity is impaired to the extent that he is unable to read the print in regularly adopted textbooks used in the subject class.

(c) For purposes of this section, “textbook” means and includes books in Braille, large type or any other medium or any apparatus which conveys information to the scholastic or otherwise contributes to the learning process.

(d) All textbooks for the blind and visually handicapped available and submitted on invitation shall be examined by the State Textbook Committee for its recommendation as to their suitability and usability as textbooks for the blind and visually handicapped in the public school systems.

(e) Textbooks for the blind and visually handicapped may be obtained and distributed by the Central Education Agency pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education as it may act on recommendations of the State Textbook Committee and commissioner of education.

(g) All textbooks acquired by the provisions of this section shall be the property of the State of Texas, to be controlled, distributed, and disposed of pursuant to board regulations.

§ 12.04. Textbooks for Children Enrolled in Kindergarten Classes

[Text as added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1396, ch. 377, § 1]

(a) The State Board of Education may acquire, purchase, and contract for, with or without bids, subject to rules and regulations adopted by the board, free textbooks recommended as suitable by the State Textbook Committee in accordance with guidelines established by the Central Education Agency for the education of children enrolled in kindergarten classes in the public school systems of this State.

(b) For purposes of this section, “textbooks” means books and any apparatus, including three-dimensional manipulative materials, which convey information to the scholastic or otherwise contribute to the learning process. The Central Education Agency shall establish guidelines clearly delimiting the types of material most effectively used in helping kindergarten children learn and most appropriately delimiting the definition of the term “textbooks” for the purposes of this section.

(c) All textbooks for kindergarten children available and submitted on invitation shall be examined by the State Textbook Committee in accordance with the guidelines established by the Central Education
§ 12.04  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 318

Agency for its recommendation as to their suitability for use in the public school systems.

(d) Textbooks for kindergarten children and teacher copies requisitioned and purchased by the board pursuant to contract signed by the chairman and all administrative costs shall be paid out of the textbook fund of this State.

(e) Textbooks for kindergarten children may be obtained and distributed by the Central Education Agency pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education as it may act on recommendations of the State Textbook Committee and the Commissioner of Education.

(f) All textbooks acquired by the provisions of this section shall be the property of the State of Texas, to be controlled, distributed, and disposed of pursuant to board regulations.

(g) Each school district may elect to receive an allotment of $400 at the time each new kindergarten classroom is established in the district by issuance of textbooks procured under the provisions of this section. The option shall be open only at the time each classroom is initiated, and thereafter textbooks shall be procured in the usual manner. If the school district elects to receive the $400 allotment, it shall use the funds only for the purpose of purchasing teaching materials for the kindergarten class which meet the standards and guidelines established by the Texas Education Agency.

SUBCHAPTER B. STATE ADOPTION, PURCHASE, ACQUISITION, AND CUSTODY

§ 12.11. State Textbook Committee

(a) The commissioner of education, annually at the meeting of the State Board of Education held on the first Monday in May, shall recommend the names of 15 persons, no two of whom shall live in the same congressional district, for appointment to the textbook committee for a one-year term.

(b) Each of the persons so named shall be an experienced and active educator engaged in teaching in the public schools of Texas. At least a majority of the members of the committee shall be classroom teachers, and all members shall be appointed because of unusual backgrounds of training and recognized ability as teachers in the subject fields for which adoptions are to be made during the year of appointment.

(c) No person who has acted as an agent for any author or textbook publishing house or who has been an author or associate author of any textbook published by any publishing house, or who owns stock in any publishing house, or who has been or is directly or indirectly connected with any textbook publishing house, shall be eligible for appointment to the State Textbook Committee.

(d) The State Board of Education shall approve or reject the nominations: and if any name is rejected, the commissioner of education shall nominate others until 15 persons have been selected, no two of whom shall live in the same congressional district, who shall be named by the State Board of Education to membership on the textbook committee.

(e) It shall be the duty of the textbook committee to recommend to the commissioner of education a complete list of textbooks which it approves for adoption at the various grade levels and in the various school subjects. The committee shall examine carefully all books submitted for adoption and shall prepare for publication a list of its recommendations to the state commissioner.

(f) The textbook committee shall hold its meetings where and when the State Board of Education shall determine; its members shall receive no salary but shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in attending meetings and/or appeals involving the committee.

§ 12.12. Recommendations by State Commissioner of Education

(a) The commissioner of education may remove books from the list recommended by the State Textbook Committee, but he shall not place on the list any book not recommended by the committee, nor shall he reduce to a single adoption any list for a specific grade or subject in which multiple adoption is recommended by the committee.

(b) The commissioner of education, pursuant to the provisions in Subsection (a) of this section, shall submit to the State Board of Education the list recommended by the State Textbook Committee.

§ 12.13. Adoption by State Board of Education

The State Board of Education may remove books from the list submitted by the commissioner of education, but the board shall not place on the list any book not recommended by the commissioner of education, nor shall the board reduce to a single adoption any list for a specific grade or subject in which multiple adoption is recommended by the commissioner of education.

§ 12.14. Multiple List for Elementary Grades
(a) The State Board of Education shall select and adopt a multiple list of textbooks for use in the elementary grades of the public schools of Texas.
(b) The multiple list shall consist of not less than three nor more than five textbooks on the following subjects: spelling, reading (basal and supplementary), English language and grammar, geography, arithmetic, physiology-hygiene, civil government, driver education and safety, vocal music, elementary science, history of the United States (in which the Confederacy shall be fairly represented), history of Texas, agriculture, a system of writing books, and a system of drawing books.
(c) The board may also select and adopt textbooks for any additional subjects approved by the State Department of Education for teaching in the elementary schools, including but not limited to the foreign languages of German, Bohemian, Spanish, French, Latin, or Greek.
(d) The board may, if deemed necessary, adopt as textbooks a geography of Texas and a civil government of Texas.
(e) No book adopted shall contain anything of a partisan or sectarian character. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2775, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 12.15. Multiple List for High Schools
(a) The State Board of Education shall adopt a multiple list of books for use in the high schools of Texas.
(b) The multiple list shall include not fewer than three nor more than five textbooks on the following subjects: algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, general science, biology, physics, chemistry, a one-year world history, American history, homemaking, physical geography, driver education and safety, vocal music, English composition, literature (including American literature and English literature), shop courses, physiology, agriculture, civil government, commercial arithmetic, bookkeeping, typewriting, shorthand, journalism, and the Latin, Spanish, German, Czech, and French languages.
(c) Free textbooks may also be adopted and provided for any additional courses or subjects approved by the Central Education Agency and accredited by the state accrediting committee. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2775, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1254, ch. 456, § 1, eff. June 14, 1973.]

(a) In the event as many as three suitable textbooks are not offered for adoption on any one subject, the board may select fewer than three textbooks.
(b) Specific rules as to the manner of selection for all books on the multiple lists provided for in this section shall be made by the State Board of Education.
(c) Textbooks adopted in accordance with the provisions of this section are adoptions for every public school in this state and no public school in the state shall use any textbook unless it has previously been approved and adopted by the State Board of Education. The board shall prescribe rules under which such textbooks adopted and approved shall be introduced or used by or in the public schools of the state.
(d) Textbooks on physiology and hygiene shall contain at least one chapter on the effect of alcohol and narcotics. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2776, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 12.17. Public Notice of Adoptions to be Made
(a) When textbooks are to be selected and adopted under the provisions of this code, or where a contract for a textbook then in use is about to expire, two months in advance of the meeting of the State Board of Education at which the adoptions may be made, the chairman of the State Board of Education shall give public notice—
(1) by having printed in the public press a notice to the effect that the meeting will be held and that adoptions will be made; and
(2) by sending written notices to all persons, firms, or corporations in whose behalf the notices shall have been requested.
(b) The notices required by Subsection (a) of this section shall contain:
(1) the time and place of the meeting of the State Board of Education at which the adoptions may be made;
(2) the subjects on which textbooks may be adopted;
(3) the last date on which sample copies of books offered for textbook adoption may be submitted;
(4) the amount of cash deposit required;
(5) the time to be allowed for signing contract and filing bond after the award is made; and
(6) a statement that formal proposals will be received on the date of the meeting. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2776, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 12.18. Filing of Bids and Sample Copies
(a) At least 30 days prior to the date of the meeting of the State Board of Education at which adoptions are to be made, sample copies of each book on which a bid will be submitted shall be filed with the commissioner of education.
(b) Every person, firm, or corporation desiring to submit a bid on a book for adoption shall make the bid, by filing with the commissioner of education five copies of each book offered for consideration, and such additional copies as thereafter may be requested by the commissioner. Publisher's price information as required in this section and as may be requested on regular and special editions shall be printed, stamped, or pasted in each copy of each book filed with the commissioner of education.
(c) The bid shall state the prices at which the book is offered to Texas, f. o. b. the publisher's Texas depository and the terms and conditions upon which the book will be furnished. The terms and conditions shall not be in conflict with other provisions of this chapter.
(d) The bids shall be submitted in two forms, one in which is stated the allowance made for books then in use and the property of the state when offered in exchange for the new books to be adopted under this code; the other without stating the allowance for presently owned books, which would remain the property of the state. The allowance and condition for exchange, if agreed to and accepted by the state, shall be enforced only during the two scholastic years following a change in books.

(e) Information which shall also be printed, stamped, or pasted in each copy of each book filed with the commissioner of education shall be:

1. A statement of the price at which the book or special editions are sold in other places under state or county adoptions, and the minimum quantities in which it will be sold at such prices;

2. A statement of the publisher's catalogue price of the book or special editions, together with trade discounts and the conditions under which, and the purchasers to whom, such discounts are allowed, and the place of delivery; and

3. A statement of the minimum wholesale price at which the book or special editions are sold f. o. b. the shipping point of the publisher and the name of the shipping point.

§ 12.19. Deposits With the Treasurer of the State

(a) In compliance with the published notice of adoptions to be made, each person, firm, or corporation submitting a bid or bids on a book or books for adoption shall deposit with the treasurer of the State of Texas such sum of money as the State Board of Education may require, but not less than $500 nor more than $2,500 according to the value of the books each bidder may propose to supply.

(b) Such deposits shall be returned to the unsuccessful bidders on certificate of the commissioner of education that no adoption has been awarded on the bid for which the sum was deposited.

(c) When any successful bidder has been awarded a contract and has filed his bond and contract with the State Board of Education and they have been approved, the State Board of Education shall make an order on the treasurer of the state reciting such facts, and the treasurer shall return the deposit of such bidder to him.

(d) If any successful bidder fails to make and execute the contract and bond as provided in this subchapter, the deposit made by the successful bidder shall be forfeited to the state absolutely and the treasurer shall place the deposit of the bidder in the state treasury to the credit of the available school fund, and the State Board of Education may advertise for other bids to supply the book or books.

§ 12.20. Affidavit of Eligibility and Agency

(a) Each person, firm, or corporation submitting a bid on any book or books for adoption shall file with the commissioner of education on the day that the State Board of Education meets or within the last five days just preceding the date on which the board meets, an affidavit executed by the individual bidder or a member of the firm or the president and secretary of the corporation bidding, setting forth all of the facts with reference to the eligibility of the bidder to make a proposal.

(b) Each affidavit filed must contain the following:

1. The names of all persons employed to act for the bidder, directly or indirectly, in any way whatsoever in securing the contract or in the preparation of the bid or bids and supporting documents, together with the addresses of such individuals and the capacity in which each served;

2. The names of any persons who may have at any time during the preceding year received, either directly or indirectly, any money or other thing of value from the bidder by way of emolument for services rendered in this state, either directly or indirectly, in securing or attempting to secure contracts for the sale of books of the publisher or in promoting the sale of such books to the State of Texas;

3. A statement that no member of the State Board of Education or of the State Textbook Committee is in any way interested, directly or indirectly, in the individual, firm, or corporation bidding; and

4. A statement that the antitrust affidavits and other materials required by Section 12.22 of this code have been filed.

(c) In the event any publisher, after filing the affidavit, shall employ an attorney or other representative to assist in securing the award of a contract by the State Board of Education, he shall disclose such employment to the board by filing a supplementary affidavit before any contract in which he is interested shall be awarded.

(d) A publisher who cannot or does not comply with the provisions of this section shall not be eligible to bid.

§ 12.21. Affidavit as Warranty

The statements made in all affidavits filed by a publisher shall be considered warranties and, if found to be untrue, shall subject the contract to forfeiture and authorize a recovery on the bond to the full amount thereof, as liquidated damages, unless it is shown that such misstatement or nondisclosure of fact was unintentional or an oversight on the part of the publisher.

§ 12.22. Antitrust Regulations

(a) No book or books shall be purchased from any person, firm, or corporation who is a member of or connected with any trust.

(b) The affidavits (as shall be applicable to the bidder) which the State Board of Education shall require all persons, firms, and corporations bidding for a contract to file with the board, on or before the date selected by the board for receiving sealed bids for textbook adoptions, and in order to carry out the requirement of Subsection (a) of this section, are as follows:

1. Each person, firm, or corporation shall file a sworn affidavit that said person, firm, or corporation is not a trust and is not connected either directly or indirectly with a trust.
(2) Each person, firm, or corporation shall file a sworn affidavit stating whether the person, firm, or corporation is interested, or whether the person, firm, or any member thereof, or any individual stockholder of such corporation is interested or acting as a director, trustee, or stockholder, either directly or indirectly or through a third party, or in any manner in any other textbook publishing house. This statement shall be sworn to by the person, a member of such firm, or the president, secretary, and each of the directors of a corporation.

(3) Each firm bidding for a contract supplying books shall present a sworn statement signed by all its members, showing the names of all members of the firm, and stating whether any other person, firm, or corporation has any financial interest in the firm, and also whether any individual members of the firm have any financial interest in any other textbook publishing firm or corporation or textbook publishers.

(c) The State Board of Education shall also require the corporations, persons, or firms to file attested copies of all written agreements entered into and existing between them and others engaged in the textbook publishing business.

§ 12.23. Consideration of Bids

(a) The State Board of Education shall meet at the time and place mentioned in the public notice of adoptions to be made, as specified in Section 12.17 of this code. The board shall then and there open and examine the sealed proposals received.

(b) No bid shall be considered from, and no contract shall be made with, any publisher who has failed to establish his eligibility in compliance with the terms of Section 12.20 of this code;

(c) No bid shall be considered and no book or books shall be purchased from any person, firm, or corporation who is a member of or connected with any trust, or if, in the opinion of the State Board of Education, the affidavit, written agreements, or other facts presented in compliance with the terms of Section 12.22 of this code are violations of the anti-trust laws of the State of Texas or opposed to public policy.

(d) No person, not the author or publisher or the bona fide permanent and regular employee of the publisher, shall appear before the State Board of Education in behalf of any book submitted to the board for adoption or seek to influence the members thereof.

§ 12.24. Selection and Adoption

(a) The State Board of Education shall make a full and complete investigation of all books and accompanying bids. The textbooks shall be selected and adopted after a careful examination and consideration of all books presented.

(b) The books selected and adopted shall be those which in the opinion of the board are most acceptable for use in the schools. Quality, mechanical construction, paper, print, price, authorship, literary merit, and other relevant matters shall be given such weight in making the decisions as the board may deem advisable.

(c) No textbook shall be adopted until it has been read carefully and examined by at least a majority of the State Textbook Committee.

(d) The State Board of Education shall proceed without delay to adopt for use in the public schools of this state textbooks on all branches authorized by this chapter; but if the bids submitted are not satisfactory, the board may postpone the selection of the books or a part of them to such time as the board may select, and after readvertising, new bids may be received and acted on by the board in the same manner as original bids.

(e) If no texts on any prescribed subject are submitted by any particular publisher or publishers that meet the requirements of the schools, as may be determined by the board, then it shall be the duty of the board to instruct the commissioner of education to investigate the book market for the purpose of securing bids with a view of providing at the most reasonable price or prices possible, the best available texts on subjects that are to be adopted by the board for the schools of Texas.

§ 12.25. Maximum Price

The maximum price which the State Board of Education shall contract to pay, f. o. b. the Texas depository of the publisher, for any books to be used in the public schools of this state shall not exceed the minimum price at which the publisher sells the book in wholesale quantities, f. o. b. the publisher's publishing house, after all discounts have been deducted. Any contract made for the purchase of books for use in the public schools of Texas at a higher price than the maximum price fixed by the preceding sentence of this section shall be void.

§ 12.26. Bond

(a) The bidder to whom any contract may have been awarded shall execute a good and sufficient bond payable to the State of Texas, for any books to be used in the public schools of this state shall not exceed the minimum price at which the publisher sells the book in wholesale quantities, f. o. b. the publisher's publishing house, after all discounts have been deducted. Any contract made for the purchase of books for use in the public schools of Texas at a higher price than the maximum price fixed by the preceding sentence of this section shall be void.

(b) For the purpose of securing satisfactory bond a series of pamphlet writing books shall be considered as one textbook, a series of band, chorus, or orchestra pamphlet-type books shall be considered as one textbook.

(c) The bond shall not be exhausted by a single recovery thereon, but may be sued on from time to time until the full amount is recovered.

(d) The State Board of Education may, at any time, on 20 days' notice, require a new bond to be given and in the event the contractor shall fail to furnish new bond, the contract of the contractor may at the option of the State Board of Education, be forfeited.
§ 12.26  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE  322

§ 12.27. Preparation and Execution of Contract and Bond

(a) The contract and bond shall be prepared by the attorney general, and be payable in Travis County, Texas, and shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state.

(b) Each contract shall be duly signed by the publishing house or its authorized officers and agents; and if it is found to be in accordance with all the provisions of this chapter, and if the bond required by this chapter is presented and duly approved, the State Board of Education shall approve the contract and order it to be signed on behalf of the board by the chairman.

(c) All contracts shall be made in duplicate, one copy to remain in custody of the secretary of state and be copied or appear reproduced in full in the minutes of the meeting of the State Board of Education in a well-bound book, and the other copy to be delivered to the company or its agent.

§ 12.28. Provisions for Updating Books

(a) Every contract shall contain a provision that the State Board of Education may, during the life of the contract, on giving one year's previous notice to the publishers of the book or books, order the changes, amendments, and additions to the book or books so selected and adopted as in the discretion of the board shall keep them up-to-date and abreast of the times. Such revisions shall not be made more often than at two-year intervals.

(b) If in the judgment of the State Board of Education changes or revisions make it impractical for the revised books to be used in the same class with the old books, the publishers shall be required to give the same exchange terms as were given when the books were first adopted, and the exchange period shall extend two years from the time the revised books are first put into use in the schools.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to give the State Board of Education power or authority to abandon any book or books originally contracted for.

(a) The State Board of Education shall specify the duration of time of all adoption contracts, which shall be for a period the board may determine but not to exceed six years.

(b) The right to exclusive use of new books during the first three years of the term of any contract shall be waived by the contracting publishers to provide for the gradual introduction of new books.

(c) No contract shall ever be made that binds the state to buy a specific number of a specific quantity of textbooks, but all contracts shall be for such books as the state may need.

(d) Each contract shall provide or be construed to authorize that any book adopted in the contract by the State Board of Education may be sold by the publisher designated depository to any person, or to private and/or parochial schools, or state institutions of this state at the same rate and discount as those granted to the state, provided advance payment accompanies the purchase.

(e) Each contract shall contain a clause to the effect that, if the contract is cancelled by reason of fraud, collusion, or material breach, the full amount of the bond given by the contractor shall be considered as liquidated damages to be recovered out of the bond by the state at the suit of the attorney general.

§ 12.30. Announcement of Adoption

(a) As soon as the State Board of Education has entered into the contract for the furnishing of books for the public schools of this state under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the board to issue its proclamations of such facts to the people of the state.

(b) As soon as practical after the adoption of the textbooks provided for in this chapter, the commissioner of education shall address to the county superintendents and to the presidents of the school boards in independent school districts and to the presidents of school boards in common school districts having 300 or more scholastic population a circular letter which shall contain a list of all the books and such other information as he may deem advisable.

§ 12.31. Central Depositories

(a) All parties with whom existing book contracts have been or hereafter may be made shall establish or designate a depository in some city of this State approved by the State Board of Education as the shipping point for depositories, where a stock of the new books to supply all immediate demands shall be kept. All contractors not maintaining their own separate or individual depository shall designate and/or maintain a joint agency or depository in a city of this State approved by the State Board as the shipping point for depositories. At such approved depository each contractor joining in such joint depository shall keep on hand a sufficient stock of books to supply the schools of the State.

(b) The designation of any depository(ies) for purposes as required in above subsection (a), and/or any change thereof shall be subject to the approval of the State Board of Education.

§ 12.32. Enforcement of Contracts

(a) Any person, firm, or corporation with whom a contract has been entered into under the provisions of this chapter, shall designate the secretary of state of Texas as its agent, on whom citation shall be served, and all other writs and processes, in the event any suit shall be brought against the person, firm, or corporation.

(b) The commissioner of education shall carefully label and file away the copies of books adopted as furnished for examination to the State Board of Education; the copies shall be securely kept and the standard of quality and mechanical excellence of the books so furnished under contract shall be maintained during the continuance of the contract.

(c) Complaints regarding textbook service or quality shall be made both to the commissioner of education and to the state depository designated by the contractor of the books. In the event a complaint does not receive reasonable prompt attention, the complaint shall be taken to the county judge, who shall report the fact to the attorney general. The attorney general shall bring suit on account of the failure in the name of the State of Texas in a district court of Travis County, and shall recover on the bond given by the contractor for the full value of the books not furnished as required, and an additional sum of $100. Each day of failure to furnish the books shall constitute a separate offense. The amounts so recovered shall be placed to the credit of the state textbook fund.

§ 12.33. Cancellation of Contracts

(a) Any contract entered into under the provisions of this chapter may be cancelled by the state in a suit instituted by the attorney general for fraud, or collusion, or material breach of the contract on the part of either party to the contract or any member of the State Board of Education or any person, firm, or corporation, or their agents making the bond or contract.

(b) For the cancellation of any such contract the attorney general is authorized to bring suit in the proper court of Travis County.

(c) In case of the cancellation of any contract as provided for, the damages shall be fixed at not less than the amount of the bond, to be recovered as liquidated damages in the same suit canceling contract. Because of the difficulty of determining the damages that might accrue by reason of fraud, collusion, or material breach, and cancellation of a contract, the full amount of the bond given by the contractor shall be considered as liquidated damages to be recovered by the state at the suit of the attorney general.

(d) In the event it is established that any antitrust regulation as specified in Section 12.22 of this code has been violated, the violation shall be held to be fraud and collusion, and the attorney general shall bring suit on the bond of that person, firm, or corporation, and on proof of violation shall recover the liquidated damages as provided for in this section.

§ 12.34. Continuing or Discontinuing Textbooks

(a) It shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to meet annually on the second Monday in November and at such other times as it may deem necessary for the purpose of considering the advisability of continuing or discontinuing, at the expiration of each current contract, any or all of the state-adopted textbooks in use in the public schools of Texas and for making such adoptions as are provided for in this chapter.

(b) Adoptions for the total number of different texts shall be so arranged that contracts on not more than one-sixth of the total number of different basal subjects shall expire in any one year or shall be changed in any one year. The series of pamphlet books referred to in Section 12.26(b) of this code shall each be considered as one book.

(c) Before making any change in the adopted series, the board shall, on thorough investigation, satisfy itself that a change is necessary for the best interest of the school children and that such change is consistent with financial economy.

(d) Before the board shall determine to displace any book on which the contract is expiring, it shall, before making a new contract for a new text, ascertain through the office of the commissioner of education the number of usable books of the kind on which the contract has expired or is about to expire, there are on hand, and also the estimated number of books that would be required to supply the needs of the schools of the state. The board shall then report the fact to the attorney general. The amounts so recovered shall be placed to the credit of the state textbook fund. The purpose of furnishing such an estimate of the number of books needed shall be to give the textbook publishers only an approximation as to the possible quantity of books which the state may need, but the state shall not be bound to any specific quantity.

(e) At the time the commissioner of education undertakes to secure a statement of the number of usable books on hand, as provided above, he shall also secure from the superintendents of independent school districts and of common school districts having 300 or more scholastic population and from county superintendents an expression as to whether or not they believe the existing text should be readopted or a new text adopted, and such information shall be for the use of the State Board of Education, but the board shall not be bound to readopt the old text or to adopt a new text by reason of such expression of preference by the superintendents.

(f) The board shall then secure from the publisher of the book on which the contract has expired or is about to expire a bid or offer for the furnishing of such textbooks to meet the actual necessities of the schools of the state during the first-, second-, and/or third-year period, allowing the state, however, a margin of 25 percent over, or 25 percent under, the estimated number to be required.

(g) If, upon consideration of the cost of the books required to supply such needs for such a period, it appears to the board that it will be economical to do so, it may make a contract with such publishers to furnish such books during said first-, second-, and/or third-year period, allowing the state, however, a margin of 25 percent over, or 25 percent under, the estimated number to be required.

(h) Unless new textbooks better suited to the requirements of the schools are offered to supplant existing textbooks at a price and in quality satisfactory to the board, the board shall renew the existing contracts for such period as may be deemed advisable not to exceed a period of six years.

(i) Whenever the contractor supplying any book agrees to renew the contract on the same terms for a period of not less than two years nor more than six years, the members of the State Board of Education shall give preference to the offer of the company holding the contract if they shall thereby secure as good or better books at a lower price than by making a different contract.

(j) It shall always be lawful for the board to renew a contract on such terms that in its judgment may be for the best interest of the state.

§ 12.35. Purchase and Distribution

(a) The purchase and distribution of free textbooks for the state shall be under the management of the commissioner of education, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education.

(b) One copy of each textbook used in the work taught by the teacher shall be issued by the school trustees, or their representatives, to each teacher as a desk copy. These books shall be returned to the trustees or their representatives at the close of the session.

(c) Books purchased in accordance with the terms of this chapter shall be delivered to the school districts f. o. b. the Texas depository of the publisher and shall be shipped by freight, parcel post, or express, as may be set out in the requisition.

(d) If it is necessary for the publisher or the depository to prepay any shipping charge, it shall be repaid by the state, in the same manner that the books are paid for, and in addition to the bill for books.

(e) The State Department of Education may direct the route by which books shall be shipped.

(f) Bills for textbooks purchased by the state on requisitions as provided for in this chapter shall be paid by warrants on the state treasury made by the state comptroller of public accounts on receipt of bills approved by the commissioner of education. The payment shall be made within 90 days from date of delivery, and if payment is delayed thereafter, a six percent per annum shall be added until date of payment.

(g) Any person, school not controlled by the state, state institution, or dealer in any county in the state may order books from the state depository designated by the publisher, and the books so ordered shall be furnished at the same rate and discount as are granted to the state, but in that case the designated depository may require that the price of books so ordered shall be paid in advance.

[Sections 12.36 to 12.60 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. LOCAL OPERATIONS

§ 12.61. Requisitions

(a) On the first school day of April each teacher shall report the maximum attendance of each of his grade levels taught, to the school principal or superintendent, if any, or to the county superintendent.

(b) Within one week subsequent to the first school day in April compiled reports as to the maximum attendance for the school shall be made by the principal to the superintendent or, if there is no district superintendent, the report shall be made to the county superintendent having jurisdiction of the district.

(c) Each superintendent of an independent school district, and each principal of a school district classified as common having a scholastic population of 300 or more and electing to have its books requisitioned and distributed directly to the district, shall compile maximum attendance reports and make such reports to the commissioner of education.

(d) Each county superintendent shall compile reports of the schools classified as common and under his jurisdiction (except for those electing to requisition directly as provided in Subsection (c) of this section), and make a report to the commissioner of education.

(e) Books needed as reported in Subsection (d) of this section shall be requisitioned and distributed entirely through the office of the county superintendent. However, any school district classified as common with a scholastic population of 300 or more may elect to have its books requisitioned and distributed in the same manner as are those for independent school districts. The duties of the county superintendent with reference to the care and distribution of textbooks shall be subject to the approval of the county school board and the commissioner of education.

(f) Reports as to the maximum attendance of each school shall be made to the commissioner of education as prescribed in Subsections (c) and (d) of this section not later than April 25 of each year. Blank forms for such reports and for the requisition of textbooks shall be prepared and furnished by the State Department of Education.

(g) Requisition for textbooks for a subsequent session shall be based on the reports of the maximum number of scholastics in attendance during the preceding school session, plus an additional 10 percent, except as otherwise provided. Requisitions shall be made through the commissioner of education and furnished by him to the state depository designated by contractors of books not later than June 1 of each year; but in cases of unforeseen emergency the designated state depository shall fill orders for books on requisition approved by the State Department of Education.

(h) Requisitions for textbooks shall be delivered to the county superintendent by each principal or superintendent of those school districts whose books are requisitioned and distributed through the county superintendent.

(i) Requisitions for supplementary readers and other textbooks may be made at convenient times during the session and should be made within one month in advance of the time the books will be needed.

§ 12.62. Local Adoptions

(a) No public school in the state shall use any textbook unless it has been previously adopted and approved by the State Board of Education.

(b) In each subject of the elementary and high school grades, one or more of the several textbooks of each multiple list adopted may be selected by local school officials; but all of the schools in any one district, or all districts under the supervision of any one county school system (county school board and/or superintendent) must select the same book or books for all of the schools within the system.

(c) Once textbooks are selected from the multiple lists, they shall be continued in use in that school system for the entire period of the adoption or for a minimum period of not less than five years.

(d) Supplementary readers for pre-primer, primer, first, second, and third grades shall be distributed on a quota of not more than 300 percent of the enrollment for each of the grades to which the book is assigned.

(e) Supplementary readers for the fourth through the eighth grades shall be distributed on a quota basis not in excess of 200 percent of the grade enrollment to which the books are assigned.

(f) Agriculture and homemaking textbooks for grades 9 through 12 shall be distributed on a quota basis not in excess of 220 percent of the subject enrollment.

(g) All other books not specified in this section shall be supplied on the basis of one book for each pupil enrolled in the subject for which the book is adopted and not to exceed the total enrollment for the subject plus the teachers' copies.

§ 12.63. Title, Custody, and Disposition

(a) After purchase according to the provisions of this chapter, all textbooks are and shall remain the property of the State of Texas.

(b) Specific rules as to the requisition, distribution, care, use, and disposal of books may be made by the commissioner of education, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education. Such rules shall not conflict with the provisions of this code.

(c) Textbooks shall be subject to inspection by any agent or inspector authorized by those having charge of the local textbook service or authorized by the commissioner of education subject to approval of the State Board of Education.

(d) The commissioner of education with the approval of the State Board of Education may provide for the disposition of those textbooks which are no longer in fit condition to be used for instruction purposes, or for the disposition of discarded books remaining the property of the state. In case of the disuse of books in fair condition, inspectors of the State Department of Education may require continuance of their use.

(e) The school trustees of each district shall be designated as the legal custodians of the books and shall have the power to make such arrangements for the distribution of books to the pupils as they may deem most effective and economical.

§ 12.64. Bond

(a) One or more members or employees of each district board of trustees shall enter into bond in the sum of 15 percent of the value of the books consigned to the district by the state, payable in Austin, Texas, to the governor of the state, or his successors in office. All money accruing from the forfeiture of the bonds shall be deposited by the governor to the credit of the state textbook fund.

(b) The bond shall be approved by the county judge of the county in which the school is situated and by the commissioner of education; deposited with the commissioner; and conditioned on the faithful discharge by the member or employee of his duties under his employment and under this section and on his faithfully accounting for all books coming into his possession and for all money received from the sale thereof.

§ 12.65. Distribution; Handling

(a) The district school trustees may delegate, under such terms as they deem best, to their employees power to requisition and distribute books and to manage books, but such delegations of authority shall not be at variance with the provisions of this code or with the rules for free textbooks formulated by the commissioner of education and approved by the State Board of Education.

(b) All books shall have on one inside cover a printed label stating that the book is the property of the state. Schools shall number all books, placing the number on the printed label. Teachers shall keep a record of the number of all books issued to each pupil. Books must be covered by the pupil under the direction of the teacher. Books must be returned to the teacher at the close of the session or when the pupil withdraws from school.

(c) Each pupil, or his parent or guardian, shall be responsible to the teacher for all books not returned by the pupil, and any pupil failing to return all books shall forfeit his right to free textbooks until the books previously issued but not returned are paid for by the parent or guardian.

(d) Teachers and school officers must make such reports as to the use, care, and condition of free textbooks as may be required by the local trustees or by the State Department of Education. The salary for any month of any teacher or employee who neglects to make the report at the proper time may be withheld until each report is received in a condition satisfactory in form and content.

(e) No teacher or employee of the school engaged in the distribution of textbooks under this code as the agent or employee of the state, or of any county or district in the state, shall, in connection with this distribution, sell or distribute, or in any way handle, any kind of school furniture or supplies, such as desks, stoves, blackboards, crayons, erasers, pens, ink, pencils, tablets, etc.

(f) Local boards of trustees shall make provision for the fumigation of books before the reissue of the books. Covers of all books shall be removed before reissue, and the pupils to whom the books are issued shall replace covers under the direction of the teacher.

§ 12.66. Sale of Books

The local boards of school trustees may sell books to pupils or parents attending the public schools of this state, at the state contract price. All money accruing from sales of textbooks by boards of school trustees shall be forwarded to the commissioner of education as directed, and deposited in the state textbook fund. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2787, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Chapter 13 of the Education Code, formerly entitled “Certification of Teachers” and consisting of Sections 13.01 to 13.16, was amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1468, ch. 405, § 2, effective May 26, 1971, to consist of Subchapters A to D and Z containing Sections 13.001 to 13.904. The provisions of former Sections 13.01 to 13.16 were incorporated by such Act as Sections 13.031 to 13.046 of Subchapter B.

The provisions of former Subchapter G of Chapter 21 of the Code, consisting of Sections 21.201 to 21.216, were transferred to Chapter 13 as Subchapter C consisting of Sections 13.101 to 13.116, by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1474, ch. 405, §§ 2, 54(1).

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1449, ch. 405, which by sections 1 to 53 incorporated the provisions of certain acts passed during the regular and second called sessions of the 61st Legislature into the Code, and which by section 54 repealed the acts so incorporated, provided in sections 55 and 56:

“Sec. 55. Nothing in this Act is intended to make any change in the substantive law, but this Act is merely intended to be a recodification of the present law.

“Sec. 56. If any other Act passed at the same session of the Legislature conflicts with any provision of this Act, the other Act prevails.”

SUBCHAPTER A. SCOPE OF CHAPTER; GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 13.001. Scope of Chapter

The provisions of this chapter apply to the teachers of the public schools of the state and, as indicated by the context, to the auxiliary employees of the public schools. However, this chapter is not exclusive, and its provisions shall be construed as necessary along with other provisions of this code applicable to teachers and auxiliary employees. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1468, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.002. Salaries

Salaries of teachers and other personnel are governed by Subchapter D, Chapter 16 of this code.1 [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1468, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

1 Section 16.301 et seq.

§ 13.003. Retirement

Retirement of teachers and other personnel is governed by Chapter 3 of this code.1 [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1468, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

1 Section 3.01 et seq.

[Sections 13.004 to 13.030 reserved for expansion]
 § 13.031. State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education

(a) The state commissioner of education shall be authorized to appoint a board of examiners for teacher education consisting of not less than three competent teachers, living in the state, to serve during his pleasure, and he may increase or decrease the number as varying conditions may make necessary.

(b) It shall be the additive and cumulative duty of every person who is a state employee, teacher, professor, or officer of any of the state institutions of higher learning, and drawing a state warrant for salary as such, to serve as an ex officio member of the board of examiners for teacher education when called upon by the state commissioner of education for the performance of such ex officio duties.

 § 13.032. Rules and Regulations

(a) The State Board of Education, with the advice and assistance of the state commissioner of education, is authorized to establish such rules and regulations as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and which may be necessary to administer the responsibilities vested under the terms of this chapter concerning the issuance of certificates and the standards and procedures for the approval of colleges and universities offering programs of teacher education.

(b) In order to secure professional advice for his recommendations to the State Board of Education, the state commissioner of education shall consider recommendations of the board of examiners for teacher education in all matters covered by this chapter.

 § 13.033. Filing of Application and Payment of Fees

(a) Any person eligible to obtain a teacher certificate of any kind or classification provided for in this chapter shall make application to the state commissioner of education, stating the class of certificate or certificates desired, and shall present to the commissioner such proof as this and other teacher certification laws shall not be required to have a bachelor's degree as a predicate to the issuance of a provisional certificate to them, but must in lieu of the bachelor's degree requirement have work experience to the extent that shall be established in the state plan for professional teaching service positions in the public schools of this state, shall be of two classes, designated as provisional certificates and professional certificates.

(b) No applicant shall receive a teacher certificate of any class or kind, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, without first depositing with the state commissioner of education the application fee prescribed to be paid under the provisions of this chapter for the particular type or class of certificate requested.

(c) All application fees collected under the provisions of the teacher certification laws shall be used to cover the expenses of inspection and identification of approved college or university teacher education programs and of recording and issuing certificates.

 § 13.034. Qualifications

(a) No person shall receive a certificate authorizing his employment in the public schools of Texas without showing to the satisfaction of the state commissioner of education that he:

(1) is a person of good moral character, evidenced by written statements of three good and well-known citizens, or such proof as the commissioner may require of his moral qualifications;

(2) will support and defend the constitutions of the United States and the State of Texas;

(3) has secured credit from a college or university in this state in a course or courses (government or political science) which give special emphasis on the Texas Constitution and has secured credit from a college or university in a course or courses (government or political science) which give special emphasis on the United States Constitution, or shall have passed examination(s) administered under the direction of the Central Education Agency, in the one or both, as the situation demands; and

(4) has ability to speak and understand the English language sufficiently to use it easily and readily in conversation and teaching.

(b) No certificate shall be granted to a person under 18 years of age.

 § 13.035. Classes of Certificates

Teacher certificates authorizing the holders thereof to contract to teach, or to be employed in professional teaching service positions in the public schools of this state, shall be of two classes, designated as provisional certificates and professional certificates.

 § 13.036. Provisional Certificate

(a) The provisional certificate shall be issued to each applicant who has acquired, or shall acquire, a bachelor's degree conferred by a college or university approved for teacher education by the State Board of Education of Texas, and who is otherwise eligible to teach in the public schools of this state.

(b) Vocational teachers in trade and industrial courses shall not be required to have the bachelor's degree as a predicate to the issuance of a provisional certificate to them, but must in lieu of the bachelor's degree requirement have work experience to the extent that shall be established in the state plan for vocational education.

(c) A special teacher designated as a school nurse shall not be required to have a bachelor's degree as a predicate to the issuance of a provisional certificate, but must in lieu thereof have been certified as a registered nurse under the laws of this state.

(d) An application fee of $2 shall be paid by each applicant for the certificate provided for herein.
§ 13.037. Professional Certificate

(a) The professional certificate shall be issued to each applicant who has acquired a bachelor's degree conferred by a college or university approved for teacher education by the State Board of Education; who has satisfactorily completed at least 30 additional graduate-level hours, that shall be completed in accordance with an approved college plan of graduate teacher education designed for the purpose of qualifying the applicant to serve in the area or areas of specialization to appear on his certificate, in a college or university which has an approved graduate program of teacher education; and who has at least three years of teaching experience.

(b) The State Board of Education acting on recommendation of the state commissioner of education shall define by regulations what constitutes a year of teaching experience for purposes of this section.

(c) An application fee of $3 shall be paid by each applicant for the certificate provided for in this section.

§ 13.038. Duration of Certificate

Either a provisional or professional certificate shall be permanent and valid for life, unless cancelled by lawful authority.

§ 13.039. Certificate Areas of Specialization

(a) The provisional and professional certificates shall show clearly that the holders thereof may teach or perform duties in professional service positions in one or more of the specialization areas in which the applicant shall have completed the college or university teacher education program approved for such area(s).

(b) The specialization areas shall be in:

1. the elementary schools, including kindergartens, grades 1 to 8 inclusive, and in grade 9 in junior high school;
2. junior high schools, including grades 6 to 10 inclusive;
3. high schools, including grades 7 to 12 inclusive;
4. in a special subject for all grades; and
5. in a professional service position or area as provided in the foundation school program law.

(c) The specialization area or areas designated above (which are to appear on the face of the certificate issued to an eligible applicant) shall be based upon the satisfactory completion by the applicant of a college or university teacher education program approved in one or more of the above five areas of specialization by the State Board of Education as recommended by the state commissioner of education.

§ 13.040. Emergency Teaching Permits

An emergency permit to teach, valid for not more than one scholastic year, may be issued under regulations adopted by the State Board of Education upon recommendation of the state commissioner of education. An application fee of $1 shall be paid by an applicant for the permit authorized herein, and for each necessary renewal thereof.

§ 13.041. Transition Certificates

(a) "Permanent," as used throughout this section, shall mean valid for life unless cancelled by lawful authority.

(b) All persons enrolled in a college approved for teacher education and preparing for the teaching profession and all persons or teachers qualified for teacher certification or certified to teach in the public schools of this state prior to September 1, 1955, are safeguarded and protected in their right or privilege to pursue and continue in the teaching profession or training. Such persons as are eligible therefor shall receive, on application, the certificate or certificates authorized in Subsections (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (j) of this section.

(c) A non-degree teacher who, on September 1, 1955, held a valid temporary certificate issued upon prior certification laws of this state, and who is employed as a teacher in any scholastic year, may be revived and continued by complying with the certification laws in effect at the time the temporary certificate was issued. Upon the holder's completion of the requirements entitling him to a permanent certificate, as prescribed by law pursuant to which his temporary certificate was issued, the provisional certificate shall be marked permanent.

(d) A non-degree teacher who, on September 1, 1955, held a valid temporary certificate issued under prior certification laws of this state, and who is employed as a teacher in any scholastic year thereafter, on application, shall be issued a provisional certificate marked temporary. This certificate shall be good for the remaining years of validity of his previous temporary certificate, but on expiration may be revived and continued by complying with the certification laws in effect at the time the temporary certificate was issued. Upon the holder's completion of the requirements entitling him to a permanent certificate, as prescribed by law pursuant to which his temporary certificate was issued, the provisional certificate shall be marked permanent.

(e) Any person who, prior to September 1, 1955, had established his eligibility for any teacher certificate under the then-existing certification laws of this state may apply for and receive the state certificate to which he was entitled under such laws on payment of the fees prescribed. On application, such person may also receive the class of certificate to which the provisions of this chapter entitle him.

(f) Any teacher who has a bachelor's degree, holds a valid Texas teacher certificate, has five years or more of teaching experience, and is employed as a teacher in any scholastic year following September 1, 1955, shall, on application, be issued a professional certificate. Such a teacher may, however, substitute six semester hours of college credit earned in a college or university approved for teacher education, and acquired after the conferring of his bachelor's degree for a year of teaching experience, but no more than three years (a total of 18 semester hours) of college credit may be substituted in order to qualify for a professional certificate.

(g) Any teacher who has a bachelor's degree, holds a valid Texas teacher certificate, but has less than five years of teaching experience (and cannot meet the requirements in Subsection (f) of this section for college credit in lieu of teaching experience), and who is employed as a teacher in any scholastic year following September 1, 1955, shall, on application, be issued a provisional certificate marked "permanent."

(h) Any teacher who has a master's degree, holds a valid Texas teacher certificate, and is employed as a teacher in any scholastic year following September 1, 1955, shall, on application, be issued a professional certificate.

(i) Any person who, prior to September 1, 1955, was enrolled in a program leading to a bachelor's degree in a college or university approved for teacher education may continue to pursue the program established or altered by the college. On completion of the program and acquisition of the bachelor's degree, he shall be issued, on application and payment of fee prescribed therefor, the kind of certificate for which such preparation entitled him under the previous certification law when his college program was begun.

(j) Any person who held a valid permanent teaching certificate prior to September 1, 1955, shall, on application, be issued a professional certificate. If any part of this chapter is in conflict with this subsection, then this subsection shall control.

(k) There shall be no fee charged for the issuance of either class of new transitional certificates authorized under this section.

(l) The new classes of transitional certificates authorized to be issued under this section shall have designated on their face the area(s) of specialization corresponding to those specializations authorized by the applicable provisions of the previous certification laws.

§ 13.042. Issuance of Certificates to Applicants With Credentials From Other States

(a) The commissioner shall issue an appropriate Texas teacher certificate to and upon request of a person holding a valid teaching certificate from another state who desires to teach in Texas, provided the college or university in which the teacher completed the requirements for his certificate is accredited by a recognized accrediting agency as an approved teacher training institution.

(b) An out-of-state applicant shall take all required courses in Texas history that a Texas teacher certificate requires and shall complete the courses within 12 months of the issuance of the certificate; otherwise, the certificate will be revoked.

§ 13.043. Certificates for Teaching in the Texas School for the Deaf or the Texas School for the Blind

(a) A provisional certificate to teach the deaf or blind shall be issued, on application and payment of fees, to any person who is 18 years of age; has satisfactorily completed a four-year course of study in an accredited college, professional or technical school, or a university or college approved for teacher education; and has graduated with a degree including 10 semester hours of education (with not less than five of these covering principles and methods of teaching the type of handicapped children he is being certified to teach).

(b) Applicants for certificates to teach industrial and special subjects may substitute four years of trade or professional experience or successful teaching experience for college work, but the certificates issued for these industrial and special subjects shall authorize the holder to teach only such subjects in the Texas School for the Deaf or the Texas School for the Blind.

(c) Any teacher, who prior to 1935 had five years of successful teaching experience of particular types of handicapped children or of industrial and special subjects in the School for the Deaf or the School for the Blind, shall be granted a permanent provisional certificate entitled him to teach those types of children or subjects in the Texas School for the Deaf or the Texas School for the Blind.

(d) Any person now holding a valid teacher certificate, or who may hereafter be granted a certificate, may be deemed qualified to teach in the Texas School for the Deaf or the Texas School for the Blind.

§ 13.044. Alien Teachers

(a) No certificate of any type shall be issued to an alien unless proper evidence is produced showing his intention to become a naturalized citizen of the United States of America.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any board of trustees of any public school district of this state to contract with any person who is an alien to teach, unless the person has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States. Except as provided in Subsection (c) of this section, any contract in violation of this provision shall be void and of no effect.

(c) If a like privilege is currently granted by any nation to any teacher designated by the governing body of a school district in this state, Subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to any alien teacher, a subject of that nation, who has been regularly designated by proper authority to serve as an exchange teacher in the United States and to teach in the public schools of Texas for not more than one year.
§ 13.045. Presentation and Recording of Certificates

(a) The county superintendent shall keep a record of all certificates held by persons teaching in the public schools of all common school districts, rural high school districts, and independent school districts having less than 150 scholastics (according to the last scholastic census approved by the Central Education Agency) and administered by the laws applicable to common school districts under the jurisdiction of his county.

(b) Any person who desires to teach in a public school of a district as above designated shall present his certificate for record before his contract with the board of trustees of the district shall become binding.

(c) Any person who desires to teach in a public school of an independent school district having 150 or more scholastics or in an independent school district having less than 150 scholastics but which has elected not to be governed by laws applicable to common school districts shall present his certificate for filing with the employing district before his contract with the board of trustees of the district shall become binding.

(d) A teacher or superintendent who does not hold a valid certificate or emergency permit shall not be paid for teaching or work done before the effective date of issuance of a valid certificate or permit.

§ 13.046. Cancellation of Certificates

(a) Any teacher's certificate issued under the provisions of this code or under any previous statute relating to the certification of teachers may be cancelled by the state commissioner of education under any one or more of the following circumstances:

(1) on satisfactory evidence that the holder is conducting his school or his teaching activities in violation of the laws of this state;

(2) on satisfactory evidence that the holder is a person unworthy to instruct the youth of this state;

(3) on complaint made by the board of trustees that the holder of a certificate after entering into a written contract with the board of trustees of the district has without good cause and without the consent of the trustees abandoned the contract.

(b) Before any certificate shall be cancelled the holder shall be notified and shall have an opportunity to be heard. Any person whose certificate is cancelled by the state commissioner of education shall have the right of appeal to the State Board of Education.

(c) The state commissioner of education shall have the authority, upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence, to reinstate any teacher's certificate cancelled under the provisions of this section. On a refusal of the commissioner so to reinstate a certificate, the applicant shall have the right of appeal to the State Board of Education.

§ 13.047 to 13.100 reserved for expansion

SUBCHAPTER C. TEACHERS' EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS

§ 13.101. Probationary or Continuing Contract

Each teacher hereafter employed by any school district in this state shall be employed under, and shall receive from such district, a contract that is either a "probationary contract" or a "continuing contract" in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter if the school board chooses to offer such teacher a "probationary contract" or a "continuing contract." All such contracts shall be in writing, in such form as may be promulgated by or approved by the commissioner of education, and shall embody the terms and conditions of employment hereinafter set forth, and such other provisions not inconsistent with this subchapter as may be appropriate.

§ 13.102. Probationary Contract

Any person who is employed as a teacher by any school district for the first time, or who has not been employed by such district for three consecutive school years subsequent to August 28, 1967, shall be employed under a "probationary contract," which shall be for a fixed term as therein stated; provided, that no such contract shall be for a term exceeding three school years beginning on September 1 next ensuing from the making of such contract; and provided further that no such contract shall be made which extends the probationary contract period beyond the end of the third consecutive school year of such teacher's employment by the school district, unless the board of trustees determines and recites that it is in doubt whether the particular teacher should be given a continuing contract, in which event a probationary contract may be made with such teacher for a term ending with the fourth consecutive school year of such teacher's employment with the school district, at which time the employment of such teacher by such school district shall be terminated, or such teacher shall be employed under a continuing contract as hereinafter provided.

§ 13.103. Probationary Contract: Termination

The board of trustees of any school district may terminate the employment of any teacher holding a probationary contract at the end of the contract term, if in their judgment the best interests of the school district will be served thereby; provided, that notice of intention to terminate the employment shall be given by the board of trustees to the teacher on or before April 1, preceding the end of the employment term fixed in the contract. In event of failure to give such notice of intention to terminate within the time above specified, the board of trustees shall thereby elect to employ such probationary teacher in the same capacity, and under probationary contract status for the succeeding school year if the teacher has been employed by such district for less than three successive school years, or in a continuing contract position if such teacher has been employed during three consecutive school years.
§ 13.104. Hearing
In event a teacher holding a probationary contract is notified of the intention of the board of trustees to terminate his employment at the end of his current contract period, he shall have a right upon written request to a hearing before the board of trustees, and at such hearing, the teacher shall be given the reasons for termination of his employment. After such hearing, the board of trustees may confirm or revoke its previous action of termination; but in any event, the decision of the board of trustees shall be final and non-appealable.

§ 13.105. Probationary Contract: Exception
The requirement to serve a probationary period shall not apply to any teacher who previously completed a probationary period under a contract with the school district where employed before September 1, 1967, and who was then considered to be on a permanent contract status as defined by the school district.

§ 13.106. Continuing Contract
Any teacher employed by a school district who is performing his third, or where permitted fourth, consecutive year of service with the district under probationary contract, and who is elected to employment by the board of trustees of such district for the succeeding year, shall be notified in writing of his election to continuing contract status with such district, and such teacher shall within 30 days after such notification file with the board of trustees of the employing school district notification in writing of his acceptance of the continuing contract, beginning with the school year following the conclusion of his period of probationary contract employment. Failure of the teacher to accept the contract within such 30 day period shall be considered a refusal on the part of the teacher to accept the contract.

Each teacher with whom a continuing contract has been made as herein provided shall be entitled to continue in his position or a position with the school district, at a salary authorized by the board of trustees of said district complying with the minimum salary provisions of the foundation aid law, for future school years without the necessity for annual nomination or reappointment, until such time as the person:

(1) resigns, or retires under the teacher retirement system;
(2) is released from employment by the school district at the end of a school year because of necessary reduction of personnel as herein defined;
(3) is discharged for lawful cause, as defined in Section 13.109 of this code and in accordance with the procedures hereinafter provided;
(4) is dismissed at the end of a school year for any reason as set out in Section 13.110 of this code and pursuant to the procedures hereinafter provided in such cases; or
(5) is returned to probationary status, as authorized in Section 13.110 of this code.

§ 13.108. Administrative Personnel
The board of trustees may grant to a person who has served as superintendent, principal, supervisor, or other person employed in any administrative position for which certification is required, at the completion of his service in such capacity, a continuing contract to serve as a teacher, and the period of service in such other capacity shall be construed as contract service as a teacher within the meaning of this subchapter.

§ 13.109. Discharge During Year
Any teacher, whether employed under a probationary contract or a continuing contract, may be discharged during the school year for one or more of the following reasons, which shall constitute lawful cause for discharge:

(1) immorality;
(2) conviction of any felony or other crime involving moral turpitude;
(3) drunkenness;
(4) repeated failure to comply with official directives and established school board policy;
(5) physical or mental incapacity preventing performance of the contract of employment; and
(6) repeated and continuing neglect of duties.

§ 13.110. Release at End of Year
Any teacher employed under a continuing contract may be released at the end of any school year and his employment with the school district terminated at that time, or he may be returned to probationary contract employment for not exceeding the three succeeding school years, upon notice and hearing (if requested) as hereinafter provided, for any reason enumerated in Section 13.109 of this code or for any of the following additional reasons:

(1) inefficiency or incompetency in performance of duties;
(2) failure to comply with such reasonable requirements as the board of trustees of the employing school district may prescribe for achieving professional improvement and growth;
(3) willful failure to pay debts;
(4) habitual use of addictive drugs or hallucinogens;
(5) excessive use of alcoholic beverages;
(6) necessary reduction of personnel by the school district (such reductions shall be made in the reverse order of seniority in the specific teaching fields); or
§ 13.110   TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

(7) for good cause as determined by the local school board, good cause being the failure of a teacher to meet the accepted standards of conduct for the profession as generally recognized and applied in similarly situated school districts throughout Texas.

§ 13.111. Notice

(a) Before any teacher shall be discharged during the year for any of the causes mentioned in Section 13.109 of this code, or before any probationary contract teacher shall be dismissed at the end of a school year before the end of the term fixed in his contract, or before any teacher holding a continuing contract shall be dismissed or returned to probationary contract status at the end of a school year for any of the reasons mentioned in Section 13.110 of this code, he shall be notified in writing by the board of trustees or under its direction of the proposed action and of the grounds assigned therefor.

(b) In the event the grounds for the proposed action relate to the inability or failure of the teacher to perform his assigned duties, the action shall be based upon the written recommendation by the superintendent of schools, filed with the board of trustees. Any teacher so discharged or dismissed or returned to probationary contract status shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to a copy of each and every evaluation report, or any other memorandum in writing which has been made touching or concerning the fitness or conduct of such teacher, by requesting in writing a copy of the same.

§ 13.112. Hearing

(a) If, upon written notification of the proposed action, the teacher desires to contest the same, he shall notify the board of trustees in writing within 10 days after the date of receipt by him of the official notice above prescribed, of his desire to be heard, and he shall be given a public hearing if within 15 days thereafter the board of trustees determines that a public hearing is necessary in the public interest.

(b) Upon any charges based upon grounds of inefficiency, or inability or failure of the teacher to perform his assigned duties, the board of trustees may in its discretion establish a committee of classroom teachers and administrators, and the teacher may request a hearing before this committee prior to hearing of the matter by the board of trustees.

(c) Within 10 days after request for hearing made by the teacher, the board of trustees shall fix a time and place of hearing, which shall be held before the proposed action shall be effective. Such hearing shall be public unless the teacher requests in writing that it be private.

(d) At such hearing, the teacher may employ counsel, if desired, and shall have the right to hear the evidence upon which the charges are based, to cross-examine all adverse witnesses, and to present evidence in opposition thereto, or in extenuation.

§ 13.113. Suspension Without Pay

If the proposed action be discharge of the teacher for any of the reasons set forth in Section 13.109 of this code, the teacher may be suspended without pay by order of the board of trustees, or by the superintendent of schools if such power has been delegated to him by express regulation previously adopted by the board of trustees, but in such event the hearing shall not be delayed for more than 15 days after request for hearing, unless by written consent of the teacher.

§ 13.114. Decision of Board

If the teacher upon notification of any such proposed action fails to request a hearing within 10 days thereafter, or after a hearing as hereinafore provided, the board of trustees shall take such action and shall enter such order as it deems lawful and appropriate. If the teacher is reinstated, he shall immediately be paid any compensation withheld during any period of suspension without pay. No order adverse to the teacher shall be entered except upon majority vote of the full membership of the board of trustees.

§ 13.115. Appeals

(a) If the board of trustees shall order the teacher discharged during the school year under Section 13.109 of this code, the teacher shall have the right to appeal such action to the commissioner of education, for review by him, provided notice of such appeal is filed with the board of trustees and a copy thereof mailed to the commissioner within 15 days after written notice of the action taken by the board of trustees shall be given to the teacher; or, the teacher may challenge the legality of such action by suit brought in the district court of any county in which such school district lies within 30 days after notice of the action taken by the board of trustees has been given to the teacher.

(b) If the board of trustees shall order the continuing contract status of any teacher holding such a contract abrogated at the end of any school year and such teacher returned to probationary contract status, or if the board of trustees shall order that any teacher holding a continuing contract be dismissed at the end of the school year, or that any teacher holding a probationary contract shall be dismissed at the end of a school year before the end of the employment period covered by such probationary contract, the teacher affected by such order, after filing notice of appeal with the board of trustees, may appeal to the commissioner of education by mailing a copy of the notice of appeal to the commissioner within 15 days after written notice of the action taken by the board of trustees has been given to the teacher.

(c) Either party to an appeal to the commissioner shall have the right to appeal from his decision to the State Board of Education, according to the procedures prescribed by the State Board of Education. The decision of the State Board of Education shall be final on all questions of fact, but shall be subject to appeal to the district court of any county in which such school district or portion thereof lies, if the decision of the state board:

(1) is not supported in the record by substantial evidence;

(2) is arbitrary or capricious; or

(3) is in error in the application of existing law to the facts of the case.

(d) Trial procedure in the district court shall be the same as that accorded other civil cases on the docket of said court, with the decision of the trial court to be subject to the same rights of appeal under the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure as is accorded other civil cases so tried.

§ 13.116. Resignations
(a) Any teacher holding a continuing contract with any school district, or holding a probationary contract with an unexpired term continuing through the ensuing school year, may relinquish the position and leave the employment of the district at the end of any school year without penalty by written resignation addressed to and filed with the board of trustees prior to August 1, preceding the end of the school year that the resignation is to be effective. A written resignation mailed by prepaid certified or registered mail to the superintendent of schools of the district at the post office address of the district shall be considered filed at time of mailing.

(b) Any teacher holding a continuing contract or such unfulfilled probationary contract may resign, with the consent of the board of trustees of the employing school district, at any other time mutually agreeable.

(c) A teacher holding a probationary contract or a continuing contract obligating the employing district to employ such person for the ensuing school year, who fails to resign within the time and in the manner allowed under Subsections (a) and (b) of this section, and who fails to perform such contract, shall be ineligible for employment by any other Texas school district during the ensuing school year covered by such contract, and his teaching certificate shall be suspended for that school year only.

§ 13.201. Responsibilities of the Teaching Profession
Teaching is hereby declared to be and is recognized as a profession. The members of such profession shall accept responsibilities in development and promotion of high standards of ethics, conduct, and professional performance and practices of persons engaged in the practice of such profession in this state.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1479, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]
§ 13.207. Expenses
Members of the commission shall serve without pay, but shall be reimbursed for their actual and reasonable traveling expenses in attendance on commission meetings, and in attending meetings of committees of such commission.

§ 13.208. Officers; Meetings; Rules
The commission shall annually select a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary. The commission shall meet not less than three times each year in Austin at a place, time, and hour determined by the commission (at least 10 days' notice in writing by chairman shall constitute proper notice). A majority shall constitute a quorum, and a majority of such quorum shall have authority to act upon any matter properly before the commission. The commission shall adopt its own rules of order and procedure not inconsistent with this subchapter and shall hold meetings pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter.

§ 13.209. Privileged Status of Members
Members of the commission shall be privileged in their utterances while acting in good faith in the course of their duties.

(a) After public hearings at which associations and individuals representing the teaching profession and other interested persons shall have full opportunity to submit and request adoption of all or part of the provisions of unofficial codes of ethics that have been adopted by state and national associations of members of the teaching profession, and to support, oppose, or request amendments to proposals, the commission shall adopt its own rules of order and procedure not inconsistent with this subchapter and shall hold meetings pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter.

(b) The code of ethics and standard practices adopted by the commission shall include standards of professional teaching practices and professional performance, and standards of ethical conduct of members of the teaching profession toward other members of the profession, parents, students, and the community.

(c) The professional standards developed by the commission shall be submitted to the Texas Education Agency to all active certificated professional personnel in a referendum to determine approval or disapproval of each individual standard and the commission shall have available the results of the referendum and give them consideration before finally adopting the standards.

(d) The commission shall likewise have power to revise or adopt amendments to the code of ethics and standards.

(e) The code of ethics and standard practices originally adopted by the commission, and in like manner any amendment thereto or revision thereof, shall become effective on the first day of September following the expiration of 90 days after the full text of the professional standards so adopted by the commission or the amendment or revision so adopted shall have been filed with the Commissioner of Education of the State of Texas. No professional standards disapproved in the referendum vote shall be adopted.

(f) It shall be the duty of the commissioner of education on request of any member of the profession, licensed in this state, to furnish him a copy of the code of ethics and standard practices, together with amendments then in effect.

§ 13.211. Unprofessional Practice
A violation of any rule or provision of the code of ethics and standard practices adopted in conformity with this subchapter shall be deemed to be "unprofessional practice," which shall constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of the teaching certificate of the member, which grounds shall be additional to those specified in Section 13.046 of this code; or the member may be warned or reprimanded for such violation, if in the judgment of the commissioner of education the violation is not of sufficient gravity to require suspension or revocation of the teaching certificate.

§ 13.212. Advisory Function of Commission
The commission shall act in an advisory capacity to the state commissioner of education and to the State Board of Education in matters of interpretation and enforcement of the code of ethics and standard practices.

§ 13.213. Complaint, Notice, Hearing, Recommendations
(a) The commission shall be authorized to receive written complaints from any certified teacher of alleged violation by any member of the profession of any rule or provision of the code of ethics and standard practices, and may hear the matter en banc, or may refer the matter to a committee of the commission, composed of three of its members, for hearing, as it may order.

(b) Upon receipt of a complaint, the commission shall give to the member against whom the complaint is made at least 15 days' notice of the nature of the complaint, and the time and place at which the commission, or a panel thereof, will hear the matter, such notice to be given by registered mail addressed to the member.

(c) At any hearing before the commission, or before a panel of the commission, the member complained of shall be entitled to produce witnesses in his behalf, and shall have a right to be represented by counsel. After hearing (which shall be private unless the party affected requests a public hearing), the commission, or the hearing panel, shall make findings and recommendations whether the complaint shall be dismissed or whether the complaint shall be heard by the commissioner of education.
(d) The commission or panel thereof hearing the matter shall file its recommendations with the commissioner of education and shall also file with him a transcript of any evidence presented before it. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1481, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.214. Action of Commissioner on Complaints

(a) In cases wherein the commission, or the panel thereof hearing the matter, has recommended dismissal of the complaint, the commissioner of education may dismiss the complaint without further hearing. No appeal shall lie from the action of the commissioner of education in dismissing a complaint hereunder.

(b) In cases where the commission, or the panel thereof hearing the matter, shall recommend suspension or revocation of the certificate of any member, the commissioner of education may dismiss the complaint on this basis only if the record of the hearing is set aside, or may set the matter for hearing and disposition by the commissioner of education; and from his final decision in the matter, after hearing, appeal shall lie to the State Board of Education. The party charged by the complaint may appeal the decision of the State Board of Education to the district court of the county of his residence. The trial on appeal in the district court shall be conducted de novo.

(c) Nothing in this section contained is intended to bind the commissioner of education to adopt the findings and recommendations of the commission, or any panel thereof.

(d) The commissioner of education shall have power to adopt rules of procedure (subject to approval of the State Board of Education) for the conduct of hearings before him pursuant to this subchapter. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1451, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.215. Appeals

In all appeals prosecuted in any of the courts of this state pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter, such trials shall be de novo as that term is used and understood in appeals from justice of the peace courts to county courts. When such an appeal is filed and the court thereby acquires jurisdiction, all administrative or executive action taken prior thereto shall be null and void and of no force and effect, and the rights of the parties thereto shall be determined by the court upon a trial of the matters in controversy under rules governing the trial of other civil suits in the same manner and to the same extent as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative or executive action or decision. Under no circumstances shall the substantial evidence rule as interpreted and applied by the courts of Texas in other cases ever be used or applied to appeals prosecuted under the provisions of this subchapter. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1482, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

Any certified teacher who violates the provisions of Chapter 135, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947 (Article 5154c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), shall be suspended by the commissioner of education. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1482, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.217. Right to Join or Not to Join Professional Association

Nothing in this subchapter shall abridge the right of any certified teacher to join any professional association or organization, or to refuse to join any professional association or organization. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1482, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.218. Local Authority

Nothing in this subchapter shall abridge the right of any duly elected board of trustees of any independent school district to hire or dismiss any teacher, nor shall a board be prohibited from establishing any standard of conduct to be expected of any teacher. Provided, however, the superintendent or other person designated by the school board shall notify the commission of any teacher dismissed for the violation of the code of ethics and standard practices established by a school board. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1482, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

[Sections 13.219 to 13.900 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER Z. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 13.901. Employment Consultation With Teachers

The board of trustees of each independent school district, rural high school district, and common school district, and their administrative personnel, may consult with teachers with respect to matters of educational policy and conditions of employment; and such boards of trustees may adopt and make reasonable rules, regulations and agreements to provide for such consultation. This section shall not limit or affect the power of said trustees to manage and govern said schools. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1483, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.902. Planning and Preparation Time

(a) Public schools shall be taught for not less than seven hours each day including intermissions and recesses. Each teacher actively engaged in the instruction of children shall have at least one period of not less than 45 minutes within the scheduled school day for planning and preparation.

(b) The implementation of the provisions of this section shall not result in a lengthened school day. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1483, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.903. Uniform Retirement Age

The board of trustees of each public school district in Texas shall have full authority to establish a uniform retirement age for its professional and support personnel and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary. No district shall be required to retain any person in its employment after he reaches such prescribed age. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1483, ch. 405, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 13.904. Minimum Sick Leave Program

(a) A state minimum sick leave program consisting of five days per year sick leave with no limit on accumulation and transferable among districts shall be provided for every teacher regularly employed in the public free schools of Texas. Local school districts may provide additional sick leave beyond this minimum.

(b) Each district shall file, immediately after the regular term of the school year has been completed, a report with the Central Education Agency setting out the total number of days of sick leave utilized by teachers and other professional personnel, excepting excess units, approved and listed for foundation school program benefits. The Central Education Agency, each current scholastic year, shall calculate the cost of providing approved sick leave for each person listed at the rate of $15 per day and shall reimburse the participating local district on the basis of the percentage relationship between the state and the district in financing the cost of the foundation school program multiplied by the total approved sick leave expenditure for the year. Said reimbursement shall be paid from the Foundation Program Fund and this cost shall be considered by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for foundation program purposes.

(c) Each district's local board of education shall establish a sick leave plan, and shall administer the program to assure compliance with the intent of the law that leave shall be approved only for illness of the teacher or because of a death in his or her immediate family.

(d) The Central Education Agency shall prescribe rules, regulations, and forms necessary to the administration of this minimum foundation program and the auditing of the state allocations made therefor as part of the foundation school program.

§ 13.905. Leave of Absence for Temporary Disability

(a) Each certified, full-time employee of a school district shall be expected to be given a leave of absence for temporary disability at any time the employee's condition interferes with the performance of regular duties. The contract and/or employment of the employee cannot be terminated by the school district while on a leave of absence for temporary disability. Temporary disability in this Act includes the condition of pregnancy.

(b) Requests for a leave of absence for temporary disability shall be made to the superintendent of the school district. The request shall be accompanied by a physician's statement confirming inability to work and shall state the date requested by the employee for the leave to begin and the probable date of return as certified by the physician.

(c) The governing board of a school district may adopt a policy providing for placing an employee on leave of absence for temporary disability if, in their judgment and in consultation with a physician who has performed a thorough medical examination of the employee, the employee's condition interferes with the performance of regular duties. Such a policy shall reserve to the employee the right to present to the governing board of a school district testimony and/or other information relevant to the employee's fitness to continue the performance of regular duties.

(d) The employee shall notify the superintendent of the desire to return to active duty at least thirty (30) days prior to the expected date of return. The notice shall be accompanied by a physician's statement indicating the employee's physical fitness for the resumption of regular duties.

(e) An employee returning to active duty after a leave of absence for temporary disability shall be entitled to an assignment at the school where the employee formerly taught, subject to the availability of an appropriate teaching position. In any event, the employee shall be placed on active duty no later than the beginning of the next term.

(f) The length of a leave of absence for temporary disability shall be granted by the superintendent as required by the individual employee. The governing board of a school district may establish a maximum length for a leave of absence for temporary disability, but in no event shall that maximum be set at less than 180 days.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1276, ch. 470, § 1, eff. June 14, 1973.]

CHAPTER 14. SCHOLASTIC CENSUS

§ 14.01. Definition

All children over six and under 18 years of age on September 1, the beginning of any scholastic year, shall be included in the scholastic census.

§ 14.02. Census

A census of all children of scholastic age shall be taken by each school district of the state in January, 1970. The State Board of Education shall develop standards, regulations, and procedures for conducting a systematic census of all children of scholastic age resident in the several school districts of the state each five years beginning with 1970. Such rules and standards, regulations, and procedures shall provide for the appointment of a census trustee in each district of the state on the first day of each November or as soon thereafter as is practicable in the year immediately preceding the year in which the census is to be taken. The census trustee, between the first day of January and the first day of February after his appointment, shall take a census of all children of scholastic age who are residents in the school district on said first day of February.

§§ 14.03 to 14.06. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1533, ch. 405, § 54(1), eff. May 26, 1971

§ 14.07. Duty of Superintendent

The superintendent of schools in each school district of the state shall prepare an abstract copy of the census under oath on a form prescribed and provided by the Central Education Agency showing such data, statistical and informational, concerning the census taken as may be requested by the agency. He shall, on or before May 1 following taking of the census, forward to the commissioner of education such abstract.

§ 14.08. Authority of State Commissioner

The state commissioner of education shall have authority to investigate the census of any county and correct errors. In extreme cases where he believes gross errors have occurred or that fraud has been practiced, he may, with approval of the State Board of Education, reject any county roll and require the census of the county be retaken. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2797, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 14.09. Compensation for Census Reports

(a) Censuses shall be compensated for their services on the basis of the number of children of scholastic age listed by them at the rates of:

1. 10 cents per capita in county districts;
2. 3 cents per capita in towns of 2,500 to 5,000 inhabitants; and
3. 2 cents per capita in towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants.

(b) The county superintendent shall receive one cent per capita for the scholastic population reported by him.

Neither the census trustee nor the county superintendent shall be paid until the census of the county is accepted by the state commissioner of education.

(d) The trustee's compensation shall be forfeited if his work is rejected by the county superintendent and the census of the district ordered retaken.

(e) Both the trustee's and the county superintendent's compensation shall be forfeited if the census of the county is rejected by the state commissioner of education and the census is ordered to be retaken. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2798, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

CHAPTER 15. STATE FUNDS FOR THE SUPPORT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

§ 15.01. Composition of the Public School Funds

(a) The permanent school fund, which shall constitute a perpetual endowment for the public free schools of this state, shall consist of:

1. All land appropriated for the public schools by the constitution and laws of Texas;
2. All the unappropriated public domain remaining in Texas, including all land recovered by the state by suit or otherwise except pine forest land as defined in Section 12, Article 2618, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1955, as amended;
3. All proceeds from the authorized sale of permanent school fund land, or any portion thereof, surveyed or unsurveyed;
4. All proceeds from the lawful sale of any other properties belonging to the permanent school fund;
5. All investments (authorized in Section 15.02 of this code) of properties belonging to the permanent school fund; and
6. All income from the mineral development of land constituting the permanent school fund, including income from mineral development of riverbeds and other submerged land.

(b) The available school fund, which shall be apportioned annually to the several counties of Texas according to the scholastic population of each, shall consist of:

1. The interest and dividends arising from any securities or funds belonging to the permanent school fund;
2. All interest derivable from the proceeds of the sale of land set apart for the permanent school fund;
3. All money derived from the lease of land belonging to the permanent school fund;
4. All revenue collected by the state from an annual state ad valorem tax of an amount not to exceed 35 cents on the $100 valuation, exclusive of delinquencies and cost of collection;
5. One-fourth of all revenue derived from all state occupation taxes, exclusive of delinquencies and cost of collection;
6. $1 dollar from each poll tax collected by the state, exclusive of cost of collection;
7. One-fourth of revenue derived from state gasoline and special fuels excise taxes as provided by law; and
8. All other appropriations to the available school fund as made or may be made by the legislature for public free school purposes.

(c) The term "scholastic population" in Subsection (b) of this section, and when and wherever found in the several laws governing the apportionment, distribution, and transfer of the state available school fund, is hereby defined to mean and include all pupils within scholastic age enrolled in average daily attendance the next preceding scholastic year in the public elementary and high school grades of school districts within or under the jurisdiction of a county of this state. The basis provided herein for the apportionment, distribution, and transfers of the state available school fund shall be applicable to such fund to be apportioned for the year beginning September 1, 1969, and annually thereafter.
§ 15.01  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 338

§ 15.02. Investment of Permanent School Fund

(a) In compliance with provisions of this section, the State Board of Education is authorized and empowered to invest the permanent school fund in the types of securities, which must be carefully examined by the State Board of Education and be found to be safe and proper investments for the fund as specified below:

1. securities, bonds, or other obligations issued, insured, or guaranteed in any manner by the United States Government or any of its agencies; and in bonds issued by the State of Texas;

2. obligations and pledges of The University of Texas;

3. corporate bonds of United States corporations of at least "A" rating;

4. bonds issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the Inter-American Development Bank, the International Bank of Reconstruction and Development (the World Bank), and the Asian Development Bank;

5. bonds of counties, school districts, incorporated cities or towns, road precincts, drainage, irrigation, navigation, and levee districts in Texas, under the following rules and regulations:
   A. such securities, prior to their purchase, must be examined by the attorney general of Texas as to their form and as to their legal compliance with applicable laws;
   B. the attorney general's certificate of validity procured by the party offering such bonds, obligations, or pledges must accompany these securities when they are submitted for registration to the state comptroller, who must preserve the certificates;
   C. such securities shall be purchased under the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section;
   D. these public securities, if purchased and when certified and registered as specified above, shall be incontestable unless issued fraudulently or in violation of a constitutional limitation, and the certificates of the attorney general shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the bonds and coupons thereto; and
   E. after the issuing political subdivision of Texas has received the proceeds from the sales of such public securities, the issuing agency shall be estopped to deny their validity, and the same shall be held to be valid and binding obligations;

6. preferred stocks and common stocks as to the State Board of Education may deem to be proper investments for the permanent school fund, under the following rules and regulations:
   A. in making all such investments the State Board of Education shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital;
   B. stocks eligible for purchase are restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid dividends for five consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors;
   C. not more than one percent of the permanent school fund may be invested in stock issued by one corporation nor shall more than five percent of the voting stock of any one corporation be owned;
   D. at the discretion of the State Board of Education, corporate securities of the permanent school fund may be sold and the proceeds reinvested for the fund under the terms of this code; and
   E. notwithstanding any other law or provisions in this code, first lien real estate mortgage securities insured by the Federal Housing Administration under the National Housing Act of the United States,1 as amended from time to time, or in any other first lien real estate mortgage securities guaranteed in whole or in part by the United States Government or any agency thereof.

(b) A 10-day option to purchase must be given to the State Board of Education when any bonds of a public school district of Texas are offered for sale. The State Board of Education must be given a like option to purchase any refunding securities issued in lieu of outstanding securities held for the account of the permanent school fund, which may be redeemed before maturity and which have been called for redemption.

(c) The authorized officer of the offering school district must notify the State Board of Education of all bids received for its offered bonds, either as first issue or as securities issued in lieu of outstanding bonds held for the account of the permanent school fund.

(d) Before the option to purchase or exchange is exercised, the offered school district bonds must be carefully examined by the State Board of Education and must be found to be safe and proper investment for the fund, and unless satisfied, the board may decline to purchase same. Such offered securities must fulfill the following requirements:

1. No school district bonds nor other bonds designated in Subsection (a)(5) of this section, shall be purchased unless the annual interest rate is two and one-half percent or more;

2. No bonds issued by any political subdivision designated in Subsection (a)(5) of this section, shall be purchased if the bond indebtedness, including the security so offered, of the issuing political subdivision exceeds seven percent of the assessed value of all taxable property therein; and
(3) If default is made in the payment of interest due on bonds designated in Subsection (a)(5) of this section, the State Board of Education, at any time prior to the payment of the overdue interest, may elect to treat the principal as also due, and the principal shall, at the option of the board, become due and payable as follows:

(A) Payment of both principal and interest in such cases shall be enforced in any manner provided by law; and

(B) The right to enforce such collection shall never be barred by any law or limitation.

(e) The commissioner of education shall have authority, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education to exercise the option provided for in this section and to exercise a waiver of purchase. When and if the commissioner of education exercises the option given by law for the purchase of securities, such exercise shall prevent the sale of the securities to any other party until the State Board of Education, at its next meeting, has had opportunity either to approve or to disapprove such purchase.

(f) If the state board of education elects to exercise its option to purchase, it shall order purchase of securities at the price offered by the best bona fide bidder and shall notify and direct the state comptroller to purchase the securities as an investment for the permanent school fund.

(g) If the state board of education shall refuse or shall have refused to purchase all or any part of the bonds offered by any such political subdivision, or from the parties to whom the bonds were issued, the offering authority shall sell the bonds to the best bona fide bidder; but the State Board of Education may thereafter purchase such bonds or obligations, subject to the same restrictions provided governing the purchase of such from the political subdivision. When so purchased, such obligations shall be subject to all rights and powers provided by law governing the same when purchased by the State Board of Education from the issuing authority.

(a) If the State Board of Education authorizes the payment of a premium out of the permanent school fund in the purchase of any bond, obligation, or pledge as an investment for that fund, then the principal of such securities and an amount of the interest first accruing thereon equal to the premium so paid shall be treated as principal in such investment, and when the first interest is collected, the amount of the premium shall be returned to the permanent school fund.

(b) If the State Board of Education authorizes the purchase of a public security at less than par, the discount received in the purchase shall be paid to the available school fund when the bonds, obligations, or pledges are paid off and discharged.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2802, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.] § 15.05. Prepayment of Certain Bonds Held by the Permanent School Fund

(a) The State Board of Education may authorize the governing body of any school district or political subdivision in Texas to pay off and discharge, at any interest paying date whether the bonds are matured or not, all or any part of any outstanding bond indebtedness now owned or hereafter to be owned by the permanent school fund, under the rules and regulations of this section.

(b) The governing body of the respective political subdivision desiring to pay off and discharge any such bonded indebtedness owned by the fund shall make such desire known by direct application in writing to the State Board of Education, at least 30 days before any interest paying date on the bonds, describing the bonds or part thereof it desires to pay off and discharge. The application shall be accompanied by an affidavit stating that only such tax money as may be collected by virtue of tax levy made for the specific purpose of providing a sinking fund and paying interest on the particular bonds to be redeemed shall be expended in the redemption, taking up, or paying off the bonds.

(c) The State Board of Education upon receipt of such application and affidavit shall take action in the name of the state and at its own cost and expense for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section to give or receive any commission, premium, or compensation for the performance of such duty.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person on whom any duty rests in carrying out the provisions of this section to receive any compensation, premium, or for the performance of such duty.
§ 15.05  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE  340

(e) Only such tax money as had been collected by virtue of tax levies made for the specific purpose of providing a sinking fund and paying interest on the particular bonds to be redeemed shall be expended in the redemption, taking up, or paying off of such bonds as provided in this section, unless such bonds are being redeemed for the purpose of being refunded.

§ 15.06. Default of School District Securities Held by the Permanent School Fund

(a) If interest and/or principal has not been paid for two years or more on any bonds issued by any school district (city controlled or otherwise) and held by the permanent school fund, the State Board of Education shall have the authority described in this section.

(b) The State Board of Education may compel any such school district to levy a tax sufficient to meet the interest and principal payments as then or later due.

(c) If any such district furnishes to the State Board of Education satisfactory proof that its taxing ability is insufficient, the State Board of Education may require the district to exhaust all legal remedies in collecting taxes then delinquent, and to levy a tax at the maximum lawful rate on the bona fide valuation of taxable property located in the district.

(d) Revenue collected by either method specified in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section shall be distributed proportionately to all owners of the defaulted securities and shall be in compliance with the following rules:

(1) The proportionate share for each owner will be based on the interest and principal requirements of the original security before authorized refunding; and

(2) Prior acceptance of refunding securities will not reduce an owner's proportionate share.

(e) As long as any such school district is delinquent in its payments of principal and/or interest on any of its bonds owned by the permanent school fund, the State Board of Education shall have the authority to specify the method of crediting payments to the state made by the district as to principal and interest.

(f) The comptroller of public accounts shall not issue any warrant from the foundation school fund to or for the benefit of any district which has been for as long as two years in default in the payment of principal or interest on any security owned by the permanent school fund unless and until the State Board of Education certifies that the district has satisfactorily complied with the appropriate provisions of this section, in which event the comptroller shall resume making payments to or for the benefit of the district, including the making of pretermitted payments.

§ 15.07. Authorized Refunding of Defaulted School Bonds

(a) In compliance with the provisions of this section, the State Board of Education is authorized to revise, readjust, modify, refinance, or refund defaulted bonds issued by any school district in Texas and owned by either the permanent school fund or the available school fund.

(b) Application must be made to the State Board of Education by the district which issued the bonds and must show that:

(1) delinquent interest totals at least 50 percent of the principal amount of the bonds; and

(2) taxable valuation has decreased to such an extent that a full application of the proceeds of the voted authorized tax authorized to be levied on the $100 taxable property valuation will not meet interest and principal annually maturing on the bonds.

(c) The State Board of Education may effect a refunding of the debt due and to become due only if the board finds that:

(1) the district is unable to pay the sums already matured and the sums contracted to be paid as they mature by paying annually to the State Board of Education the full proceeds of a 50-cent tax levy on the $100 of all taxable valuation of property within the district;

(2) the taxable valuation of property in the district has decreased at least 75 percent since the bonds were issued and that the decrease was not caused by the district or any of its officials;

(3) the district for a period of at least five years before applying to the State Board of Education for refunding has levied a tax of 50 cents on the $100 of taxable valuation of property in the district, and that despite such levies, the aggregate amount due the State Board of Education exceeds the aggregate amount due at the beginning of the period;

(4) no additional bonds of the district have been authorized and sold during the five-year period immediately preceding the application; and

(5) the district has in good faith endeavored to pay its debt in accordance with the contract evidenced by the bonds held for the account of the permanent school fund or the available school fund.

(d) If the conditions specified in Subsection (c) of this section are found to exist, the district shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be insolvent, and the State Board of Education may exchange the bonds, interest coupons, and other evidences of indebtedness for new refunding bonds of the district issued in compliance with the following regulations:

(1) The principal amount of the refunding bonds shall not be less than the total amount of the bonds, matured interest coupons, accrued interest, and interest on delinquent interest then actually due to the permanent school fund and/or the available school fund;

(2) The rate of interest to be borne by the refunding bonds may be lower than that borne by the bonds to be refunded if in consideration of the interest reduction the district agrees to levy a tax each year for a period of 40 years at a rate sufficient to produce annually a sum equal to 50 percent of the amount that can be calculated by the levy of a tax at the rate of 50 cents on the $100 of taxable valuation of property as...
determined by the latest approved tax roll of the district, and in determining the rate of interest to be borne by the refunding bonds, the State Board of Education shall be governed by the following:

(A) The State Board of Education is authorized to require the rate to be such percent per annum as in its judgment will represent the maximum rate that can be paid by the district and still permit an orderly and certain retirement of the refunding bonds within 40 years from their date;

(B) The interest rate of refunding bonds to be received in exchange for bonds owned by the permanent school fund shall not be less than the minimum rate at which bonds may then be purchased as investments for the permanent school fund; and

(C) The rate of interest of refunding bonds to be received in exchange for bonds owned by the available school fund may be set by the State Board of Education at any rate which it deems feasible, and such refunding bonds may, at the discretion of the State Board of Education, be made non-interest bearing to such date as may be fixed by the board.

(e) No revision, readjustment, modification, refinancing, or refunding shall be made by the State Board of Education in compliance with the provisions of this section or Section 15.07, except as otherwise provided or permitted by this section, the refunding of the bonds of school districts herein authorized shall be in compliance with the general provisions with regard to the refunding of school district bonds as specified in this code.

(f) Except as otherwise provided or permitted by the provisions of this section, the refunding of the bonds of school districts herein authorized shall be in compliance with the general provisions with regard to the refunding of school district bonds as specified in this code.

§ 15.08. Refunding Other Defaulted Obligations

(a) Defaulted obligations (other than bonds of school districts as provided in Section 15.07 of this code) due the available school fund may be refinanced or refunded with the approval of the State Board of Education in compliance with the provisions of this section.

(b) "Defaulted obligations," as used herein, shall include delinquent interest whether represented by coupons or not, interest on delinquent interest, and any other form of obligation due the available school fund.

(c) The obligor must make application to the State Board of Education and show:

(1) that the obligations due the available school fund have been in default in whole or in part for a continuous period of at least 15 years; and

(2) that the obligor is not in default in the payment of the principal of any bonds owned by the permanent school fund.

(d) If the State Board of Education finds that the above-specified requirements have been met, it may approve a refinancing or the issuance of refunding bonds on the conditions:

(1) that the refunding bonds must mature serially in not exceeding 40 years from the date of issuance;

(2) that the principal amount of the refunding bonds shall be not less than the total amount of the obligations then in default and due the available school fund;

(3) that the refunding bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as may be determined by the State Board of Education to be for the best interest of the available school fund.

(e) The State Board of Education in its discretion is authorized to accept refunding bonds in lieu of either matured or unmatured bonds held for the benefit of the permanent school fund, provided that the rate of interest on the new refunding bonds is at least the same rate as that of the bonds being refunded.

(f) Refunding bonds issued with the approval or pursuant a refunding agreement with the State Board of Education in compliance with Section 15.07, shall, on the order of the State Board of Education, be exchanged by the state treasurer for the defaulted obligations they have been issued to refund.

§ 15.09. Jurisdiction

The district courts of Travis County shall have jurisdiction of any suit on bonds or obligations belonging to the permanent school fund, or purchased therewith, concurrent with that of any other court having jurisdiction in said case.

§ 15.10. Duties of the State Comptroller of Public Accounts

(a) On or before July 1 of each year, the comptroller of public accounts shall estimate the amount of the available school fund receivable from every source during the coming scholastic year and report this estimate to the State Board of Education.

(b) On or before the meeting of each regular session of the legislature, the comptroller of public accounts shall report to the legislature an estimate of the amount of the available school fund to be received for the succeeding two years, and the several sources from which the same accrues, and which may be subject to appropriation for the establishment and support of public schools.

(c) On or before the first working day of each month, the comptroller shall certify to the state commissioner of education the total amount of money collected from every source during the preceding month and on hand to the credit of the available school fund.

(d) On receipt of certificates issued to him by the commissioner of education, the comptroller shall draw his warrants on the state treasurer and in favor of the treasurer (depository) of the available school fund of each school district for the amounts stated in the certificates. All such warrants shall be registered and transmitted to the state treasurer.
§ 15.11. Duties of the State Treasurer

(a) At least 30 days before each regular session of the legislature and 10 days before any special session at which there can be legislation respecting the public schools, the state treasurer shall report to the governor the condition of the permanent school fund and the available school fund, the amount of each and the manner of its disbursement.

(b) The treasurer shall provide the State Board of Education with the reports specified in Subsection (a) of this section, and with such additional reports as to those funds which the State Board of Education may request.

(c) The treasurer shall see to it that no portion of either the permanent school fund or the available school fund is used to pay any warrant drawn against any other fund.

(d) The treasurer shall receive and hold in a special deposit and keep account for all properties belonging to the available school fund. All warrants drawn on this fund by the comptroller of public accounts pursuant to certificate of the state commissioner of education must be registered by the state treasurer and then transmitted to the commissioner of education; and when properly endorsed shall be paid by the treasurer in the order of their presentation.

(e) On order of the State Board of Education, the treasurer shall exchange or accept refunding bonds in lieu of:

(1) either matured or unmatured bonds held for the benefit of the permanent school fund, which are being refunded under the terms of this chapter;

(2) defaulted obligations held for the benefit of the available school fund, provided that the refunding bonds are issued in compliance with Section 15.08 of this code;

(3) defaulted obligations of any school district of Texas held for the benefit of the permanent school fund or the available school fund, provided the refunding bonds are issued in compliance with Section 15.07 of this code;

(4) refunding bonds of any school district of Texas for school bonds not matured held by the state treasurer for the permanent school fund, when such new refunding bonds are issued by the school district in compliance with this code.

(f) The state treasurer shall be the custodian of all securities in which the school funds of the state have been or may hereafter be invested, and shall keep the securities in his custody until paid off, discharged, or otherwise disposed of by the proper authorities of the state, and on the proper installment of any interest or dividend, shall see that the proper credit is given, and the coupons on bonds, when paid, shall be properly separated therefrom and cancelled by the treasurer.

§ 15.12. Use of Available School Fund

(a) All available public school funds of Texas shall be appropriated in each county for the education of its children.

(b) No part of the permanent school fund or the available school fund shall be appropriated or used for the support of any sectarian school.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2810, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 16.03. Status of Private and Parochial Schools

No provision of this chapter shall be interpreted inimically to the status previously enjoyed by the private or parochial schools operating in this state. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2810, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 16.04. Program Eligibility

(a) Beginning with the scholastic year 1973–1974, any child in this state over 5 and under 21 years of age at the beginning of the scholastic year, who has not yet graduated from high school shall be entitled to the benefits of the Basic Foundation School Program for the ensuing school year. Such eligible child shall be admitted tuition-free to the public school of the district in which he, his parents or legal guardian resides.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section, the program of preschool education shall be extended first to “educationally handicapped” children as preparation for the regular school program in which such children will participate in subsequent years. For purposes of this section, a child is “educationally handicapped” if he cannot speak, read, and comprehend the English language or if he is from a family whose income, according to standards promulgated by the State Board of Education, is at or below a subsistence level. The program shall include an appreciation for the cultural and familial traditions of the child’s parents and also an awareness and appreciation of the broader world in which the child must live; assist the child in developing appropriate language skills; prepare the child to participate in the world of his peers and the broader cultural stream into which he will progressively move as he matures; begin the development of the mental and physical skills and cooperative attitudes needed for adequate performance in a school setting; and begin the development of his unique character and personality traits.

(c) The benefits of this program for preschool education may be extended on a first priority basis to “educationally handicapped” children on a full day program school year basis.

(d) Provided, however, for the school years beginning 1973–74, and through 1976–77 inclusive, a public school kindergarten program shall be offered on a one-half day basis for all other eligible children who become five (5) years of age on or before September 1 of the scholastic year. Such kindergarten program(s) shall be operated on a one-half day basis for Foundation School Program unit eligibility allotment purposes beginning the school year 1973–74. Provided further that any school district may choose to operate a full day program for the first half of the school year for one-half, approximately, of its kindergarten children and operate a full day program the latter half of such year for the remainder of its kindergarten children.
(e) Beginning with the school year 1977–1978 and thereafter, school districts may choose to operate kindergartens on a full day basis for Foundation School Program unit allotment eligibility purposes. Provided further that any school district may choose to operate a full day program for all its kindergarten children for one semester only.

(f) A scholastic is a student in average daily attendance within the age limits prescribed in this section.

SUBCHAPTER B. CLASSIFICATION OF PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS AND SERVICES

§ 16.07. Classification
To effectuate the Foundation School Program here guaranteed, school districts are authorized to utilize the following professional positions, or units, and services:

1. Professional positions;
   a. Classroom teachers;
   b. Vocational teachers;
   c. Special service teachers, among which shall be included librarians, school nurses, school physicians, visiting teachers, and itinerant teachers;
   d. Teachers of exceptional children;
   e. Supervisors and/or counselors;
   f. Principals, part-time;
   g. Principals, full-time;
   h. Superintendents; and

2. Services;
   a. Current operating cost other than professional salaries and transportation; and
   b. Transportation.

§ 16.08. Duties of Public School Principals Public school principals, who shall hold valid administrative certificates, shall be responsible for:

(a) Assuming administrative responsibility and instructional leadership, under the supervision of the superintendent, for discipline, and the planning, operation, supervision, and evaluation of the educational program of the attendance area in which he is assigned;

(b) Submitting recommendations to the superintendent concerning assignment, evaluation, promotion, and dismissal of all personnel assigned to the attendance center; and

(c) Performing any other duties assigned by the superintendent pursuant to school board policy.

(d) Nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation on the powers, responsibilities and obligations of the school board as now prescribed by law.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 81, ch. 44, § 1, eff. April 1, 1971.]

[Sections 16.09 and 16.10 reserved for expansion]
§ 16.12. Professional Units—Allotment Formulas

Subject to the general rules set out in Section 16.11 of this code, the number of professional units for each district shall be determined as prescribed in the succeeding sections of this subchapter.

§ 16.13. Classroom Teacher Units

Classroom teacher professional units for each school district shall be determined, and teachers allotted in the following manner:

(1) to school districts having fewer than 15 pupils in average daily attendance, no classroom teacher unit, except that in cases of extreme hardship, such districts may be allotted on a year-to-year basis one classroom teacher unit if so recommended by the county school board and approved by the state commissioner of education;

(2) to school districts having from 15 to 25 pupils, inclusive, in average daily attendance, one classroom teacher unit;

(3) to school districts having from 26 to 109 pupils, inclusive, in average daily attendance, two classroom teacher units for the first 26 pupils and one classroom teacher unit for each additional 21 pupils (no credit to be given for fractions);

(4) to school districts having from 110 to 156 pupils, inclusive, in average daily attendance, six classroom teacher units;

(5) to school districts having from 157 to 444 pupils, inclusive, in average daily attendance, one classroom teacher unit for each 24 pupils, or fractional part thereof in excess of one-half;

(6) to school districts having from 445 pupils to 487 pupils, inclusive, in average daily attendance, 19 classroom teacher units; and

(7) to school districts having from 488 or more pupils in average daily attendance, one classroom teacher unit for each 25 pupils, or fractional part thereof in excess of one-half.

§ 16.14. Vocational Teacher Units

(a) Vocational teacher professional units, vocational supervisor professional units, and vocational counselor professional units for each school district shall be determined and allotted as prescribed by this section.

(b) Each school district having a four-year accredited high school shall be eligible, under rules and regulations of the State Board of Education, for two vocational teacher units to teach one or more vocational programs provided there is a need thereof, and provided the programs shall have been approved by the commissioner of education.

(c) Additional vocational teacher units for four-year accredited high schools may be allotted according to needs determined by a survey of the community and approved by the commissioner of education.

(d) A district having an accredited high school which qualifies, according to the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education, for less than one vocational teacher unit, may be allotted by the commissioner of education a fractional part of a vocational teacher professional unit. A fractional part of a vocational teacher professional unit shall entitle a district to employ a part-time vocational teacher or assign a classroom teacher to serve as part-time vocational teacher.

(e) Each school district having a four-year accredited high school shall be eligible, under rules and regulations of the State Board of Education, for such specialized vocational supervisor units and vocational counselor units as there is a need thereof, and in the number determined by application of formulas adopted by the State Board of Education and subject to approval by the commissioner of education.

(f) Vocational professional unit allotments, except classroom teachers who also served as part-time vocational teachers, shall be made in addition to other professional unit allotments. Vocational teacher units shall be included in determining the total current operating cost for each district. In addition to this allowance, there shall be an additional allocation of $400 for each vocational teacher unit.

(g) School districts which, because of limited enrollments, tax resources, or facilities are unable to offer appropriate vocational education in all occupational areas needed may enter into contracts with post-secondary public institutions, as defined by the State Board of Education, to provide for such appropriate vocational education instruction provided the instructors and instructional materials and equipment utilized meet secondary school program requirements.

(h) Such contracts shall be executed pursuant to rules and regulations of the State Board for Vocational Education (State Board of Education) and the cost to the state shall not exceed the cost that would result if said programs were operated by the respective school districts entering into such contracts.

§ 16.15. Special Service Teacher Units

(a) Special service teacher professional units for each school district, which may be separate for whites and Negroes, shall be based upon the number of approved classroom teacher units, and shall be determined and teachers allotted, in addition to other professional unit allotments, in the manner prescribed by this section.

(b) Districts which have 20 or more approved classroom teacher units shall be eligible for one special service teacher unit for each 20 classroom teacher units, no credit to be given for fractions.

(c) Districts not eligible for a full special service teacher unit may enter by vote of their respective boards of trustees, into one cooperative agreement to provide special service teachers, as prescribed in subsection (b) of this section, to be recommended and supervised by the county school superintendent, and employed by the county school board. The state commissioner of education shall, upon the county superintendent's certification of such agreement, allot to each district party thereto a fractional part of teacher units for that district divided by 20.

(d) School districts may choose from the five types of special service teacher units listed in Section 16.07(1)(C) of this code the number of each classification that it desires, to the extent of total eligibility for such units, but the allocation of special service teacher units shall not preclude the assignment of classroom teachers to special service duties. The state commissioner of education shall establish qualifications for special service teachers which shall be subject to regulations made by the State Board of Education.

§ 16.16. Comprehensive Special Education Program for Exceptional Children

(a) It is the intention of this section to provide for a comprehensive special education program for exceptional children in Texas.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Exceptional children" means children between the ages of 3 and 21, inclusive, with educational handicaps (physical, retarded, emotionally disturbed, and/or children with language and/or learning disabilities) as hereinafter more specifically defined; autistic children; and children leaving and not attending public school for a time because of pregnancy—whether disabilities render regular services and classes of the public schools inconsistent with their educational needs.

(2) "Physically handicapped children" means children of educable mind whose body functions or members are so impaired from any cause that they cannot be adequately or safely educated in the regular classes of the public schools without the provision of special services.

(3) "Mentally retarded children" means children whose mental capacity is such that they cannot be adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools without the provision of special services.

(4) "Emotionally disturbed children" means children whose emotional condition is medically and/or psychologically determined to be such that they cannot be adequately and safely educated in the regular classes of the public schools without the provision of special services.

(5) "Language and/or learning disabled children" means children who are so deficient in the acquisition of language and/or learning skills including, but not limited to, the ability to reason, think, speak, read, write, spell, or to make mathematical calculations, as identified by educational and/or psychological and/or medical diagnosis that they must be provided special services for educational progress. The term "language and/or learning disabled children" shall also apply to children diagnosed as having specific developmental dyslexia.

(6) "Special services" required for the instruction of or program for exceptional children means special teaching in the public school curriculum within and/or without the regular classroom; corrective teaching, such as lipreading, speech correction, sight conservation, corrective health habits; transportation, special seats, books, instructional media and supplies; professional counseling with students and parents; supervision of professional services and pupil evaluation services; established teaching techniques for children with language and/or learning disabilities.

(c) Under rules, regulations and/or formulae adopted by the State Board of Education subject to the provisions of this section, exceptional children teacher units, in addition to other professional and paraprofessional unit allotments herein authorized, shall be allotted to any eligible school district in the number determinable thereunder. Exceptional children teacher units for pupils who are both severely physically handicapped and mentally retarded shall be allocated on a separate formula from other type units.

(d) Professional personnel for the operation and maintenance of a program of special education shall be:

(1) exceptional children teachers;

(2) special education supervisors;

(3) special education counselors;

(4) special service teachers, such as itinerant teachers of the homebound and visiting teachers, whose duties may or may not be performed in whole or in part on the campus of any school; and

(5) psychologists and other pupil evaluation specialists. The minimum salary for such specialist to be used in computing salary allotment for purposes of this section shall be established by the commissioner of education.

(e) Paraprofessional personnel for the operation and maintenance of a program of special education shall consist of persons engaged as teacher aides, who may or may not hold a teacher certificate. The qualifications and minimum salary levels of paraprofessional personnel for salary allotment purposes of this section shall be established by the commissioner of education.
(f) Quantitative bases for the allotment of all special education unit personnel under Subsection (c) of this section shall be established by the commissioner of education under rules adopted by the State Board of Education. Any school district, at its expense, may employ any special education personnel in excess of its state allotment, may supplement the minimum salary allotted by the state for any special education personnel, and any district is authorized at local expense to pay for all or part of further or continuing training or education of its special education personnel.

(g) Special education unit personnel may be employed and/or utilized on a full-time, part-time, or upon a consultative basis, or may be allotted by the commissioner of education, pursuant to cooperative districts' agreement, jointly to serve two or more school districts. Two or more school districts may operate jointly their special education program and any school district may contract with another school district for all or any part of the program of special education for the children of either district, under rules and regulations established by the commissioner of education.

(h) To each school district operating an approved special education program there shall also be allotted a special service allowance in an amount to be determined by the commissioner of education for pupil evaluation, special seats, books, instructional media and other supplies required for quality instruction.

(i) To each school district operating an approved special education program, there shall be allotted also a transportation allowance for transporting of children in special education programs who are unable to attend the special education program for exceptional children in public school unless such special transportation is provided. The annual transportation allotment shall be $150 per exceptional child pupil receiving such transportation. Such allocated transportation funds shall be used only for transportation purposes for children who are enrolled in a program of special education or who are eligible for such enrollment.

(j) The minimum monthly base pay and increments for teaching experience for an exceptional children teacher or a special service teacher conducting a 9, 10, 11, or 12 months special education program approved by the commissioner of education shall be the same as that of a classroom teacher as provided in the Foundation Program Act; provided that special education teachers shall have qualifications approved by the commissioner of education. The annual salary of special education teachers shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by 9, 10, 11, or 12, as applicable.

(k) The minimum monthly base pay and increments for teaching experience for special education counselors and supervisors engaged in a 9, 10, 11, or 12 months special education program approved by the commissioner of education shall be the same as that of a counselor and/or supervisor as provided in the Foundation Program Act; provided that such counselors and supervisors shall have qualifications approved by the commissioner of education. The annual salary of special education counselors and supervisors shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by 9, 10, 11, or 12, as applicable.

(l) The salary costs of special education teacher units, other professional and paraprofessional units authorized in Subsections (c), (d), and (e) of this section, operating costs as provided in Subsection (h), and transportation costs as provided in Subsection (i), computed as other costs of the Foundation School Program Act for local fund assignment purposes thereof, shall be paid from the Foundation School Program Fund. Provided further, that any school district may supplement any part of the comprehensive special education program it operates or participates in with funds or sources available to it from local source, public and/or private.

(m) Under rules and regulations of the State Board of Education, eligible school districts may contract with nonprofit community mental health and/or mental retardation centers, public or private, or any other nonprofit organization, institution, or agency approved by the State Board of Education, for the provision of services to exceptional children as defined by this section, who reside with their parents or guardians.

(n) Special education program units shall be included in determining the total current operating cost for each district.

(o) The Foundation School Fund Budget Committee shall compute all amounts required for comprehensive special education program purposes to be included in the amounts to be placed in the Foundation School Fund for the ensuing biennium at the same time that certifications are made for other Foundation School Fund purposes.

§ 16.17. Supervisor and/or Counselor Units

(a) The state commissioner of education shall establish, subject to regulations by the State Board of Education, qualifications for supervisors and counselors. Supervisor and/or counselor professional units for each school district, which may be separate for whites and Negroes, shall be determined and supervised and/or counselor units allotted, in addition to other professional unit allotments, as prescribed by this section.

(b) The basic allotment shall be one supervisor or counselor unit for the first 40 classroom teacher units and one supervisor or counselor unit for each additional 50 classroom teacher units, or major fractional part thereof. If a district is eligible for one such unit, the district may employ for such unit either a supervisor or a counselor, but not both. If a district is eligible for two or more such units, the district may employ supervisors only, counselors only, or a combination of the two to the extent of total eligibility.

(c) Districts having fewer than 40 classroom teacher units may enter, by vote of their respective governing boards, into one cooperative agreement to provide supervisors and/or counselors to be recommended and supervised by the county superintendent and employed by the county school board. Under such agreements the combined classroom teacher units of the cooperating districts shall be used in calculating eligibility for supervisor and/or counselor units, but if the county employs a supervisor from the county administrative funds, 40 classroom teacher units shall be deducted from the combined total. The state commissioner of education shall, upon the county superintendent’s certification of such agreement, allot to each district party to such agreement a fractional part of a supervisor or counselor unit, said fraction to be not greater than the number of approved classroom teacher units for that district divided by 40.

§ 16.18. Principal Units
(a) Principal units shall be of two types: full-time principal units and part-time principal units. A part-time principal unit shall entitle a district to assign a classroom teacher to serve as a part-time principal and to receive an additional salary allowance as hereinafter provided in this chapter.
(b) The principal unit allotment as hereinafter provided shall be based upon the number of approved classroom teacher units and shall be made in addition to other professional unit allotments. Principal units for each school district, which may be separate for whites and Negroes, shall be determined and allotted as prescribed in this section.
(c) No district having fewer than three approved classroom teacher units shall be eligible for a principal allotment.
(d) To districts having from three to 19 classroom teacher units and not having an accredited four-year high school, one part-time principal unit shall be allotted.
(e) To districts having from nine to 19 classroom teacher units and having a four-year accredited high school, two part-time principal units shall be allotted. Additional part-time principal units shall be allotted, if necessary, to the extent that at least one part-time principal will be available for each campus on which a school with more than two classroom teachers is operated in the district.
(f) To districts having 20 or more approved classroom teacher units there shall be allotted one full-time principal unit for the first 20 classroom teacher units and one full-time principal unit for each additional 30 classroom teacher units, but fractions shall not be considered in computing principal allotments.
(g) Part-time principal units, in addition to full-time principal unit allowances provided above, shall be allowed as follows: one from the first 20 classroom teachers, and one from each additional 30 classroom teachers. Service as part-time principal shall be in addition to part-time classroom duties. Those so designated shall receive an additional allowance as hereinafter provided in this chapter. Additional part-time principal units shall be allotted, if necessary, to the extent that at least one full-time or part-time principal will be available for each campus on which a school with more than two classroom teachers is operated in the district.

§ 16.19. Superintendent Unit
Superintendents shall serve the entire school district. Allotments for superintendent units as provided for herein shall be made in addition to other professional unit allotments. Superintendent units for each district shall be determined and allotted in the following manner: A district having one or more four-year accredited high schools shall be eligible for one superintendent allotment. A district which does not have a four-year accredited high school shall not be eligible for a superintendent allotment.

§ 16.21. Allocation of Units in Certain Districts
Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 16.11 and 16.13 of this code, the number of professional units allocated to school districts which operate and have operated for at least three consecutive years a four-year accredited high school and have an average daily attendance range between 84 and 156 pupils for the immediate preceding year shall be based on the following formula: a school district having 84 to 106 pupils, inclusive, in average daily attendance shall be allotted six classroom teacher units and a superintendent unit. A school district having 107 to 156 pupils, inclusive, shall be allotted seven classroom teacher units and a superintendent unit.

§ 16.22. Administration—Office Assignments
For utilization of classroom teacher unit allotment purposes, the Central Education Agency shall regard and recognize as classroom teacher(s) as described in the Texas State Public Education Compensation Plan, teacher certificated personnel employed or assigned by any school district to teach, as classroom teachers, and/or to perform administration-office assignments or tasks.

[Sections 16.23 to 16.300 reserved for expansion]

(a) For the 1969–1970 school year, the annual salary of classroom teachers shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by nine. For the 1970–1971 school year, the annual salary of classroom teachers shall be the monthly base salary plus increments multiplied by ten.

(b) Classroom teachers shall be paid for the school year 1969–1970 on the basis of the following salary schedules:

§ 16.304

The minimum monthly base salary and increments for teaching experience for teachers of exceptional children shall be the same as that prescribed in this subchapter for classroom teachers. The annual salary of such teachers shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by 9 for 1969-1970, and by 10 for 1970-1971.

(b) A registered nurse shall be considered, for the purpose of computing salaries, as having a bachelor's degree, and a librarian having a recognized certificate or degree based upon five years of recognized college training therefor shall be considered as having a master's degree.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1499, ch. 405, § 26, eff. May 26, 1971.]

The minimum monthly base salary and increments for teaching experience for teachers of exceptional children shall be the same as that prescribed in this subchapter for classroom teachers. The annual salary of such teachers shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by 9 in 1969–1970, and by 10 in 1970–1971, except that in cases where the commissioner of education approves such a unit for more than nine months, the annual salary shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by the number of months approved by the commissioner of education.

The minimum monthly base salary and increments for teaching experience for supervisors and counselors shall be that prescribed in the salary schedules as printed above for 1969–1970 and 1970–1971, respectively.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1500, ch. 405, § 26, eff. May 26, 1971.]

(a) The minimum monthly base salary and increments for teaching experience for full-time principals shall be in compliance with the provisions set out in the above printed salary schedules for 1969–1970 and 1970–1971, respectively.

(b) The classroom teacher who serves as part-time principal on a campus to which are assigned seven or more classroom teacher units shall receive the salary prescribed for a part-time principal in the 1969–1970 and 1970–1971 schedules for each of these respective years.

(c) The classroom teacher who serves as a part-time principal on a campus to which are assigned three to six classroom teacher units shall receive the salary prescribed for the head teacher in the above printed salary schedules for 1969–1970 and 1970–1971, respectively. In addition to the allotment of part-time principals as provided in Section 16.18 of this code, districts containing an accredited high school and having fewer than nine classroom teacher units shall be granted one head teacher.

The minimum monthly base salary increments for teaching experience for superintendents shall be as prescribed in the salary schedules for 1969–1970 and 1970–1971, respectively.

§ 16.310. 10-Month Year

Beginning with the school year 1970–1971, all classroom teaching positions and all other positions previously authorized for less than 10 months shall be paid at an annual rate calculated on the basis of 10 months' compensation for 10 months' service. Such service shall include the 180-day school term providing instruction for pupils plus not to exceed 10 days of inservice education and preparation for the beginning and ending of the school term.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1500, ch. 405, § 26, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 16.311. Professional Salaries: Total Cost

The total cost of professional salaries of positions allowable for purposes of this subchapter shall be determined by application of the salary schedule to the total number of approved professional units, provided that such professional units are serviced by approved professional position employments.

(a) The annual salary of personnel authorized for employment under the Minimum Foundation Program for the school year 1971–1972 and for each year thereafter shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, shown in the schedule (entitled "Texas State Public Education Compensation Plan") below, multiplied by the number of months prescribed in the position description herein for each respective position. The salaries fixed in this schedule are minimum salaries only, and each district may supplement such salaries.

(b) The following schedule constitutes the Texas State Public Education Compensation Plan effective 1971–1972, and thereafter:

§ 16.313. Promotions, Demotions, Etc.

The commissioner of education shall develop policies, subject to approval by the State Board of Education, to provide proper salary adjustments for promotions and demotions within grades provided in the compensation schedule, and for moving experienced teachers into the schedule who were not employed in 1969–1970 or 1970–1971.

§ 16.314. Increases in 1974 and 1978

To the salary of each person employed under the Texas Public Education Compensation Schedule as printed in Section 16.312(b) of this code there shall be added $60 per month effective September 1, 1974, and continuing thereafter. An additional $66 per month shall be added effective September 1, 1978, and continuing thereafter to each salary provided under the Compensation Schedule as adjusted in 1974.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1506, ch. 405, § 26, eff. May 26, 1971.]

§ 16.315. Teacher Aides

Effective for the school year 1970–1971 and for each school year thereafter, there shall be provided one teacher aide for each 20 classroom teacher units earned by a school district. For the school year 1970–1971, an aide shall be paid a monthly salary of $300 and shall receive such salary for 10 months. For 1971–1972 and thereafter, the salary shall con-
§ 16.316. Certified Teachers Holding Law Degree

Beginning with the school year 1967–1968, any person certified to teach in the public schools of Texas who holds a bachelor of laws or doctor of jurisprudence degree from an accredited law school shall have his minimum salary calculated on the basis of a master’s degree.

SUBCHAPTER E. CURRENT OPERATING COST

§ 16.50. Operating Cost

The total operating cost for each school district, other than professional salaries and transportation, shall be determined by multiplying the number of approved classroom teacher units, excepting children teacher units, and vocational teacher units by $600, and grants therefor shall be allotted.

[Sections 16.46 to 16.50 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER F. TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

§ 16.51. Transportation Services

Transportation services shall be provided and allotments therefor shall be determined according to the provisions of this subchapter.

§ 16.52. Public School Transportation System

(a) The county school boards of the several counties of this state, subject to approval by the state commissioner of education, are authorized to establish and operate an economical public school transportation system within their respective counties.

(b) In establishing and operating such transportation systems, the county school boards shall:

1. Requisition buses and supplies from the state board of control as provided for in this subchapter;
2. Prior to June 1 of each year, with the commissioner’s approval, establish school bus routes within their respective counties for the succeeding school year;
3. Employ school bus drivers; and
4. Be responsible for the maintenance and operation of school buses.

§ 16.56. Calculation of Allotment

(a) The total annual regular transportation cost allotment for each district or county shall be based upon the rules and formulas of this section.

(b) A typical bus route is defined as being from 45 to 55 miles of daily travel and composed of 60 percent surfaced roads and 40 percent dirt roads, over which 15 or more pupils who live two or more miles from school are transported.

(c) Allowable total base costs of maintenance, operation, salaries, depreciation, etc., for each bus shall be:

- 72 capacity bus $5,276 per year
- 60–71 capacity bus $3,156 per year
- 49–59 capacity bus $3,086 per year

1 So in enrolled bill; probably should read “4.02”.
§ 16.56  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

42-48 capacity bus $2,916 per year
30-41 capacity bus 2,796 per year
20-29 capacity bus 2,676 per year
15-19 capacity bus 2,196 per year

(d) The capacity of a bus means the number of eligible children being transported who live two or more miles from school along the approved route served by the bus. A bus that makes two or more routes or serves two or more schools shall be considered as having a capacity equal to the largest number of eligible children on the bus at any one time.

(e) For each one percent increase of dirt road above 40 percent, one-half of one percent shall be added to the allowable total cost.

(f) For each five miles (or major fraction thereof) increase in daily bus travel above 55 miles, one percent shall be added to the total cost of operation. For each five miles (or major fraction thereof) less than 45 miles daily travel, one percent shall be deducted from the total cost of operation.

(g) The state commissioner of education may grant not to exceed $75 per pupil per year for private or commercial transportation for eligible pupils from isolated areas. The need for this type of transportation grant shall be determined on an individual basis and the amount granted shall not exceed the actual cost. Such grants shall be made only in extreme hardship cases, and no such grants shall be made if the pupils live within two miles of an approved school bus route or city public transportation service.

(h) The cost of transporting vocational education students from one campus to another within a district or from a sending district to an area vocational school or to an approved post-secondary institution shall be reimbursed based on the number of actual miles traveled times the district’s official extracurricular travel per mile rate as set by their local board of trustees and approved by the Central Education Agency.

§ 16.57. Routes and Systems: Evaluation and Approval

(a) All bus routes and transportation systems shall be reviewed by the state commissioner of education and he shall be responsible for establishing criteria for evaluating the several transportation systems of this state, but all such criteria shall be subject to approval by the State Board of Education.

(b) The commissioner shall evaluate all transportation systems as rapidly as possible.

(c) No new bus routes or extensions shall be approved prior to the survey of the transportation system of the district or county requesting them.

(d) Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1162, § 1, eff. May 19, 1971.

(e) Extension of a city’s boundaries for city purposes only, after June 8, 1949, so as to include within the city boundaries part of a school district into which public transportation lines or facilities are then operated shall not affect the district’s eligibility for transportation aid. Rather, all such districts shall be entitled to receive transportation aid under the provisions of this chapter, if otherwise qualified, to the same extent as if no part thereof had been annexed by the city and its public transportation lines had not operated therein.

(f) In approving a transportation system for a district or county, consideration shall be given to providing transportation for only those pupils who live two or more miles from the school they attend, but no consideration shall be given to providing transportation for pupils transferred from one district to another when their grades are taught in their home district unless transferred as provided by law and transportation has been approved by the county school board as provided by law.

(g) There shall be no duplication of bus routes and services within sending districts by buses operated by two school districts and/or counties except upon approval by the state commissioner of education.

§ 16.58. Use of Transportation Funds for Other Purposes

No funds paid to the several transportation units for the operation of transportation systems in this state shall be expended for any other purpose.

§ 16.59. Rules of Commissioner

The Commissioner of Education shall formulate rules and regulations, subject to approval by the State Board of Education for enforcing the provisions of this subchapter.

§ 16.60. Appeals

Appeals to the commissioner of education and to the State Board of Education may be had from policy decisions of the county school boards affecting transportation.

§ 16.61. Purchase of Vehicles

(a) Motor vehicles used for the purpose of transporting school children, including school buses, their chassis and/or bodies purchased through the state board of control, shall be paid for by the state board of control as set out in applicable laws. The Legislature may appropriate out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated a sum not exceeding $250,000, or so much thereof as necessary, for the state board of control to be used for such purposes.

(b) Any such sum appropriated shall be known as the school bus revolving fund. When motor vehicles and school buses are delivered to the various schools coming within the provisions of this chapter, the governing bodies of such schools shall reimburse the state board of control for the money expended for such school buses including their chassis and/or bodies and the money shall be deposited by the state board of control in the school bus revolving fund.
§ 16.62. Transportation Allotment for Exceptional Children Program

(a) An annual transportation cost allotment for each district operating an approved exceptional children program shall be computed and paid from the Foundation School Program Fund on a per capita basis as provided by this section.

(b) For physically and/or orthopedically handicapped children, visually handicapped children with conditions making impractical the use of public transportation, deaf children, trainable mentally retarded children, and/or educable mentally retarded children, the transportation allotment shall be $150 per exceptional child receiving such transportation, provided the district locally determines and certifies subject to the approval of the state commissioner of education that the pupil:

(1) is unable to utilize existing regular transportation services; and

(2) would be unable to attend the exceptional children class unless such special transportation is provided.

(c) Allotments granted under this section shall be:

(1) used only for transportation purposes of children enrolled in a district-operated exceptional children program;

(2) deposited in the district’s exceptional transportation fund; and

(3) accounted for separately from regular transportation funds.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2823, ch. 889, § 1, eff. May 26, 1969.]

§ 16.63. Contract With Public Transportation Company

(a) As an alternative to maintaining and operating a complete public school transportation system under this subchapter, and if the respective governing board is able to obtain an economically advantageous contract, a county school board for its transportation system or a board of trustees of an independent school district which has been authorized to be responsible for the maintenance and operation of its school buses may contract with public transportation companies for all or any part of its public school transportation.

(b) A contract is economically advantageous if the cost of the service contracted for is less than the projected cost of the same service as otherwise provided in this subchapter.

(c) The state commissioner of education, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education, shall make rules for the administration of this section.

(d) Contracts for public school transportation may include provisions for transporting students to and from approved school activities.

(e) Upon approval of the contract by the State Board of Education, the contract price for the service shall be included in the annual transportation cost allotment for the respective county or district.

SUBCHAPTER G. FINANCING THE PROGRAM

§ 16.71. Financing—General Rule

The sum of the approved salaries for professional positions, the current operating cost other than professional salaries and transportation, and cost of transportation service of each district, computed and determined in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall constitute the total cost of the Foundation School Program, which program shall be financed by:

(1) an equalized, local school district effort to the extent hereinafter provided for the support of this program;

(2) distribution of the state and county available school funds based on the number of school districts; and

(3) allocation to each local district a sum of state money appropriated for the purposes of public school education and sufficient to finance the remaining costs of the Foundation School Program in that district, which sum shall be computed and determined in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter.

§ 16.711. Committee to Study Financing of Program

(a) There is hereby established a committee to be comprised of 18 members: Six to be appointed by the governor, six by the lieutenant governor, and six by the speaker of the house. Three members appointed by the lieutenant governor shall be members of the senate and three members appointed by the speaker of the house shall be members of the house of representatives. The committee members shall serve from the date of their respective appointments until August 31, 1971. Members of the committee shall serve without compensation but each shall receive reimbursement for actual travel expense when on official business of the committee.

(b) The governor shall call the first meeting of the committee immediately after a majority of the members have accepted appointment and at that time the members shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman from among their number and adopt procedural rules governing membership and committee conduct.

(c) The committee may create advisory committees to perform officially and effectively the duties and responsibilities imposed by this section.

(d) A majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

(e) The committee shall have the responsibility of studying the relationship between the state and local school districts in financing the Minimum Foundation Program. They shall examine the structure of the economic index now in operation, ascertaining its weaknesses and its strengths. It shall review the findings of the Governor’s Committee on Public School Education and evaluate information available relative to the financing of the Minimum Foundation Program. They shall explore all facets and all possibilities in relation to this problem area and shall recommend to a called session of the legislature or to...
§ 16.711 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

the 62nd Legislature convening in 1971 a specific formula or formulae to establish a fair and equitable basis for the division of the financial responsibility between the state and the various local school districts of Texas.

(f) There is hereby appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1970, the sum of $25,000 to pay the expenses of the committee. Any unexpended balance of the original appropriation of $25,000 is hereby reappropriated to carry out the work of the committee during the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1970.

(g) The State Board of Education and the committee shall coordinate their efforts and the State Board of Education shall cooperate with the committee and shall furnish professional, technical, and clerical staff when deemed necessary to implement the work of the committee. Every state agency, department, and institution, and every state, county, and school district official is directed to provide such information as may be requested by the committee and to assist the committee in accomplishing its objective.

(h) The committee shall report the results of its studies and make recommendations to the governor and to each member of the legislature not later than August 31, 1970. Because of the serious problem which exists in the financing of the Minimum Foundation Program and of apparent inequities in the allocation of funds to be provided by local school districts, the committee is encouraged to complete its work at the earliest possible date so that a solution might be found to be made applicable to the 1970–1971 school year.

§ 16.72. Total Amount Chargeable to Districts

(a) The sum of the amounts to be charged for the 1969–1970 school year against the local school districts of the state toward the Foundation School Program shall be $180,800,000, to which shall be added by the State Board of Education at its March meeting in 1969, 20 percent of the estimated increased cost of the Foundation Program authorized by Acts of the 61st Legislature amending the Foundation School Program.

(b) The sum of the amounts to be charged for the 1970–1971 school year against the local school districts of the state toward the Foundation School Program shall be $204,900,000, to which shall be added by the State Board of Education at its March meeting in 1970, 20 percent of the estimated increased cost of the Foundation Program authorized by Acts of the 61st Legislature amending the Foundation School Program.

(c) For the 1971–1972 school year, and for each school year thereafter, the sum of the amounts to be charged against the local school districts of the state toward the Foundation School Program shall be 20 percent of the estimated total cost of the Foundation School Program for the immediately preceding school year, plus an amount equal to the difference between the gross local fund assignment and the net local fund assignment for the immediately preceding school year.

§ 16.73. Estimate of Total Cost of Program: Local Assignment

At its regular meeting in March, 1971, and at each regular meeting in March thereafter, the State Board of Education, after receiving the recommendation of the state commissioner of education, shall estimate the total cost of the Foundation School Program for the then current school year, based upon laws and approved school budgets in effect on the date when such estimate is made. Within 60 days after such estimate has been made, the state commissioner of education, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education, shall assign to each school district, according to its taxing ability as determined in this subchapter, its proportionate part of such total to be raised locally for the next school year and applied towards the financing of its Minimum Foundation School Program.

§ 16.74. County Economic Index

(a) The state commissioner of education, subject to approval by the State Board of Education shall, not later than the first week in March of each year, calculate an economic index of the financial ability of each county to support the Foundation School Program. This index shall be calculated to approximate each county's percentage of statewide taxing ability and shall constitute for the purpose of this subchapter a measure of that county's ability, in relation to that of other counties in the state, to support schools.

(b) The economic index for each county shall be based upon and determined by the following weighted factors:

(1) assessed property valuation of the county, weighted by twenty;

(2) scholastic population of the county, weighted by eight; and

(3) income for the county as measured by value added by manufacture, value of minerals produced, value of agricultural products, payrolls for retail establishments, payrolls for wholesale establishments, and payrolls for service establishments, all weighted collectively by seventy-two.

(c) The commissioner of education, subject to approval by the State Board of Education, shall annually recompute not later than the first week in March, a new economic index using an average of data for a three-year period which shall be taken from the most recently available official publications and reports of state and federal agencies.

§ 16.741. Livestock Sales From Feedlots

(a) In calculating an economic index of the financial ability of each county to support the Foundation School Program pursuant to Section 16.74 of this code, the commissioner of education shall calculate the value of cattle or other animal sales from feedlots at the net increase in value while in the feedlot.

(b) The "net increase in value in a feedlot" is arrived at by using the latest three years' average of the Federal Reserve Bank's interest rate as of Janu-
§ 16.75. County Assignment

For the school year beginning 1971–1972 and each school year thereafter, the state commissioner of education shall calculate and determine the total sum of local funds that the school districts of a county shall be assigned to contribute toward the total cost of the Foundation School Program by multiplying 20 percent of the estimated Foundation Program cost for the immediately preceding school year, plus an amount equal to the difference between the gross local fund assignment and the net local fund assignment for the immediately preceding school year, as determined under the provisions of this subchapter by the economic index determined for each county. The product shall be regarded as the total local funds available in each respective county toward the support of the Foundation School Program and shall be used in calculating the portion of said amount which shall be assigned to each school district in the county.

§ 16.76. School District Assignment

(a) The amount of local funds to be charged to each school district and used therein for support of the Foundation School Program shall be calculated and determined by the state commissioner of education as follows: Divide the state and county assessed valuation of all property in the county subject to school district taxation for the next preceding school year into state and county assessed valuation of the district for the next preceding school year, finding the district's percentage of the county valuation. Multiply the district's percentage of the county valuation by the amount of funds assigned to all of the districts in the county. The product shall be the amount of local funds that the district shall be assigned to raise toward the financing of its Foundation School Program.

(b) In any district containing state university-owned land, state-owned prison land, land in one or more parcels comprising a total area in excess of 7,000 acres used for municipal cooling lakes in the generation of electricity in counties having a population of more than 700,000 according to the last preceding federal census, federal-owned forestry land, federal-owned reservoirs, federal-owned recreation areas, federal-owned military reservations, or federal-owned Indian reservations, the amount assigned to a school district shall be reduced in the proportion that the area included in the above-named classification bears to the total area of the district. For purposes hereof, state university owned land is defined to mean and include also state owned land located in Brazos County and devoted to the use of Texas A & M University, land owned by East Texas State University in Hunt County, land owned by Pan American University, land owned by Texas Tech University in Carson County, and land located in McLennan County and devoted to the use of Texas State Technical Institute.

(c) No local fund assignment shall be charged to the Boy's Ranch Independent School District in Oldham County, the Bexar County School for Boys Independent School District in Bexar County, the Bexar County School for Girls Independent School District in Bexar County, or to any independent school district which is located in its entirety within the boundaries of a federally-owned military reservation.

(d) Beginning with the school year 1967–1968, and thereafter, in any school district having three percent or more of its total scholastic population for the preceding school year composed of scholastic residents and transfers of tax-exempt institutions for orphan, dependent, and/or neglected children, the amount assigned to such a district shall be reduced for the current school year by an amount equal to the product of the total average daily attendance of students who were residents and/or transfers of such tax exempt institutions during the preceding school year multiplied by $151.50. The superintendent of any district desiring to reduce such a reduction in assignment and qualifying therefor shall certify to the Central Education Agency, not later than December 1 of each year, the following information:

1. The total average daily attendance of the school district determined for students residing in the district for the preceding school year;
2. The average daily attendance for the preceding school year determined for the scholastic residents of the tax exempt institutions for orphan, dependent, and/or neglected children;
3. A list showing the name of each such institution, the total daily attendance earned for such students in the preceding school year, and the name and address of the institution;
4. If the revenue that would be derived from the legal maximum local maintenance school tax is less than the amount assigned to the school district according to its economic index, and if the district's property valuation is not less than the same property's valuation for state and county purposes, the lesser amount shall be assigned to be raised by such school district.
5. Failure of a school district to collect local maintenance school funds equal to its assigned amount will not make the district ineligible for full state per capita apportionment and full foundation school fund grants, but the assigned amount shall be charged against the district as budgetary receipts whether or not actually collected.
6. The amount of local funds assigned to a contract district, as provided for in Section 16.11(i) of this code, shall be assigned to the receiving district and all local taxes, except those required for the interest and sinking fund, shall be credited as collected to the receiving school district.
7. If a district other than a contract district has no school, the amount of local funds assigned to, and local taxes collected from, such district shall be transferred for the current year to the receiving district in which such children attend school. But if its pupils attend schools in more than one receiving district, local fund assignments and local taxes shall be apportioned for the current year between such receiving districts according to the number of transfers to each.

(i) If any school district has a budgetary income, as provided above in Section 16.71(1) and (2) of this code, in excess of the amount needed to operate a minimum Foundation School Program and transfers pupils to another district, it shall pay to the receiving district a proportionate part of such excess, based upon the ratio of the number transferred to its enumerated scholastic population, and this excess portion shall be charged to such receiving district.

(j) The sum of the amounts assigned to the several parts of a county-line school district shall be the amount assigned to be raised by such district for financing its Foundation School Program.

§ 16.77. Notification of Local Fund Assignment

(a) The county tax assessor-collector in each county, in addition to his other duties prescribed by law, shall certify to the state commissioner of education, not later than December 1 of each year, the following information:

(1) the assessed valuation, on a state and county valuation basis, of all property subject to school district taxation in each school district, or portion of a school district in such county, and the total assessed valuation of all property subject to school district taxation in the county;

(2) the total area of each school district; and

(3) the area within each school district comprised of state university-owned land, state-owned prison land, federal-owned forestry land, federal-owned reservoirs, federal-owned recreation areas, federal-owned military reservations, and/or federal-owned Indian reservation.

(b) Should any county tax assessor collector fail to submit such certificates to the state commissioner of education, the state comptroller of public accounts is directed to do so, estimating when necessary.

(c) As soon after the receipt of such certificates as practicable, and prior to setting the respective tax rates for the school districts of the county, the state commissioner of education shall notify each school district of the amount of local funds that such district is assigned to raise for the succeeding school year.

(d) If there has been a marked increase or decrease in the assessed valuation of a school district within a county, and if the county school board, after certifying that the use of the preceding year's county and school district valuations for determining local fund assignments would be inequitable, recommends a different distribution of the county total than that made by the state commissioner of education, then such recommendations, subject to the commissioner's approval, shall become and be the lawful local fund assignments for such district.

§ 16.78. Excess of Local Funds Over Amount Assigned.

Any local maintenance funds in excess of the amount assigned to a district may be expended for any lawful school purpose or carried over into the next school year.

§ 16.79. Administration of Foundation School Program

(a) It shall be the duty of the State Board of Education, State Board for Vocational Education, and the state commissioner of education to take such action, require such reports, and make such rules and regulations consistent with the terms of this chapter as may be necessary to carry out its provisions.

(b) The state commissioner of education shall determine annually:

(1) the amount of money necessary to operate a Foundation School Program in each school district;

(2) the amount of local funds to be assigned and charged to each school district; and

(3) the per capita apportionment from state and county available school funds available to each school district.

(c) The commissioner of education shall then grant to each school district from the foundation school fund appropriation the amount of funds necessary to provide the difference between subdivision (1) and the sum of subdivisions (2) and (3) of Subsection (b) of this section.

(d) The commissioner shall approve warrants to each school district equaling the amount of its grant. Warrants for all money expended according to the provisions of this chapter shall be approved and transmitted to treasurers or depositories of school districts in the same manner as warrants for state apportionment are now transmitted.

§ 16.80. Dormant School Districts

(a) The county school boards of all counties of the state are authorized and required to consolidate by order of said board each dormant school district within the county with an adjoining district or districts.

(b) The term "dormant school district" means any school district that fails for any two successive years to operate a school in the district.

(c) The governing board of the district with which a dormant school district is consolidated shall continue to be the governing board for the new district.

(d) In each case, the consolidation order of the county school board shall define by legal boundary description the territory of the new district as so enlarged and shall be recorded in the minutes of the county school board as provided by law.

(e) Elections shall be held when required by law in such consolidated districts for the assumption of outstanding bonds, if any, for the levying of taxes therefor, and for the levying of a local maintenance tax.

(f) If a county-line district is or becomes dormant, the consolidation provisions of this section shall apply to all counties affected to the extent of territory in each.

§ 16.81. Territory Not in School District

(a) All property subject to school district taxation in the state must be included within the limits of a school district and a proper and proportionate tax paid thereon for school purposes. Therefore, at any time it may be determined there is territory located in a county but not within the described limits of a school district, the county school board is authorized and required to add such territory to an adjoining district or districts.

(b) In each case, the order of consolidation shall define by legal boundary description the territory of the new district and shall be recorded in the minutes of the county school board as provided by law.

(c) Elections shall be held as provided by law in such new districts for the assumption of outstanding bonds, if any, for the levying of taxes therefor, and for the levying of a local maintenance tax.

§ 16.82. Cumulative Effect

The provisions of Sections 16.80 and 16.81 of this code shall not be construed to repeal, supercede or limit any existing law providing other methods for school district consolidation and annexation.

§ 16.83. Falsification of Records, Report

(a) When, in the opinion of the director of school audits of the Central Education Agency, audits or reviews of accounting, enrollment, or other records of a school district reveal deliberate falsification of such records, or violation of the provisions of this chapter, whereby the district's share of state funds allocated under authority of this chapter would be, or has been, illegally increased, said director shall promptly and fully report such fact direct to the State Board of Education and to the state auditor.

(b) In the event of overallocation of such funds, as determined by the State Board of Education or the state auditor by reference to the director's report, the Central Education Agency shall, by withholding from subsequent allocations of state funds, recover from such district an amount, or amounts, equal to the overallocation.

[Sections 16.84 to 16.90 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER G-1. FOUR-QUARTER SCHOOL YEAR

§ 16.861. Transition to Four-Quarter System; Curriculum Revision

The Central Education Agency shall prepare a reorganized curriculum based on operation of the schools on a quarter basis. The revision shall be so structured that the material covered during the present school year of two semesters is covered in three three-month quarters. The agency shall distribute this restructured curriculum to each school district in the state in sufficient time so that the new curriculum can be put into operation beginning with the 1972–1973 school year.

§ 16.862. Operation on Quarter Basis

Beginning with the 1972–1973 school year, each school district in this state may operate on the basis of a quarter system, and beginning with the 1975–76 school year, each school district shall operate on the basis of a quarter system, with the schools being in operation during at least three quarters during each school year, providing 180 days of instruction for students and 10 days of inservice education for teachers.

§ 16.863. Foundation School Program Credit

Each school district shall receive average daily attendance credit under the Foundation School Program for attendance by a student for any three quarters during any one school year.

§ 16.864. Four-Quarter Operation Authorized

(a) A school district may choose to operate all or some of its schools for all four quarters of the school year. This choice shall be approved or disapproved by the district school board in a regularly scheduled open meeting. If a district so chooses, no credit for average daily attendance under the Foundation School Program may be given to the district for attendance by any one student for more than three quarters during any one school year. Attendance by a student for his fourth quarter must be financed either by the student on a tuition basis or by the district from its own funds, at the option of the district.

(b) A district operating during all four quarters of the school year shall decide which students are to attend school during which quarters. However, schedules shall be so arranged that all members of a family attending the schools of a district may attend the same three quarters.

(c) A district operating during all four quarters of the school year may not require a teacher to teach more than three quarters plus the number of days provided by law for inservice education and preparation during any one school year. A teacher or other school employee under the Minimum Foundation Program who elects to work four quarters during a school year shall receive a minimum salary which is increased proportionately in compliance with the state compensation plan.

(d) A district operating during all four quarters of the school year may not require a student to attend more than three quarters.

SUBCHAPTER H. QUARTERLY SEMESTER PILOT PROGRAMS

This subchapter, consisting of sections 16.91 to 16.95, enacted by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2735, ch. 889, § 1, provided a program for the exploration of operating quarterly semester pilot programs and established the basis upon which the cost of such programs would be borne by the state and each participating district. See, now, Subchapter G–I, section 16.851 et seq.

The repealed sections were derived from Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1827, ch. 70b, §§ 1 to 5, classified as Civil Statutes, Art. 2922–26, §§ 1 to 5.

[Sections 16.96 to 16.970 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER H–1. THREE-SEMESTER PILOT PROGRAMS

§ 16.971. Pilot Program

For the purpose of exploring the feasibility of operating three-semester pilot programs, public school districts of this state are hereby authorized to operate (in lieu of the usual 9-month program) a 12-month school year program and to receive allocation of state aid toward financing the additional 3-month operation from the Foundation Program Fund, determined in the manner prescribed in this subchapter. Provided, however, that the district shall operate such 12-month program under its proposed plan submitted to the Central Education Agency, and subject to approval of the agency as meeting policy and regulations established and adopted by the State Board of Education applicable thereto.

§ 16.972. Limitation

(a) Three-semester pilot programs, annually approved under this subchapter, shall be restricted in number to involve a maximum of 10 programs not to exceed 100,000 pupils, based on average daily attendance in the preceding school year, and the attendance of eligible pupils shall be restricted to two semesters out of the three-semester program.

(b) For purposes only of this pilot program, any child otherwise eligible who becomes six years of age after September 1 may be admitted to public school in any following semester beginning after he has reached six years of age, and such attendance shall be counted as eligible attendance for allocation purposes of the Foundation School Program Fund.

§ 16.973. Cost Basis

The cost of operating such approved three-semester pilot programs shall be borne by the state and each participating district on the same percentage basis that applies to financing the Foundation School Program within the respective district.

§ 16.974. Calculation of Costs

For purpose of computing authorized state aid and allocations under this subchapter, the cost of the program shall be ascertained as follows:

(1) The district’s average daily attendance for classroom teacher unit eligibility and allocations shall be determined on a three-semester basis, limiting eligible pupil attendance to two semesters within each scholastic year. Eligibility for special service teachers, supervisors and/or counselors, head teachers, part-time principals, and full-time principals shall be determined by dividing the total aggregate days of attendance in the pilot program by the number of days that instruction is offered during two semesters, determined to the best advantage of the district.

(2) An additional salary adjustment, based on the state minimum salary schedule, shall be added for classroom teacher units occasioned by a 12-month operation. Provided further that the number of months and salary, based on the state minimum salary schedule, for eligible special service teachers, supervisors and/or counselors, head teachers, part-time principals, and full-time principals shall be allowed for 12 months.

(3) The total current operating costs of each pilot program as herein described, other than professional salaries and transportation, shall be determined by multiplying the number of classroom teacher units and exceptional teacher units times the number of months employed times $87.

(4) An additional transportation allotment shall be added not to exceed the amount of one-third of the transportation allotment as normally computed for a nine-month operation.

§ 16.975. State’s Share of Cost

The state’s share of the cost shall be paid from the Minimum Foundation Program Fund, and this cost shall be considered by the Foundation Program Committee in estimating the funds needed for Foundation School Program purposes.

[Sections 16.976 to 16.979 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER I. SUPPLEMENTAL STATE SALARY AID TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS

§ 16.98. Supplemental State Salary Aid

(a) Established hereby is a program to provide supplemental state salary aid to public free school districts in addition to funds provided under any other provision of the laws or constitution of this state. Purpose of this supplementary aid program: To encourage higher salaries for classroom teachers as defined herein, of grades one through twelve.

(b) “Classroom teacher” for purposes of this program shall mean any professionally qualified teacher employed full time by a school district and spending at least one-half of his working time in actual instruction of pupils in regularly organized and scheduled classes, vocational and exceptional teachers included.
(c) Entitlement of each district for supplemental state aid authorized herein shall be determined by adding the number of classroom, vocational and exceptional teacher units allocated only to districts eligible under those provisions of foundation school program described under Sections 16.13, 16.14 and 16.16 of this code, and multiplying the sum of all such classroom teachers as herein defined by $50.

(d) A school district may establish eligibility to receive funds to the amount determined under Subsection (c) of this section by submitting to the Central Education Agency a plan which shall meet the following conditions:

(1) State funds to be utilized as salary from amount determined under Subsection (c) of this section shall constitute not more than the same percentage of the total amount disbursed as supplemental salary to classroom teachers as the state share of the foundation school program in each participating school district; and

(2) All funds received as supplemental salary aid shall be paid as supplemental salary to persons who qualify as classroom teachers and districts as defined in above Subsections (b) and (c) of this section; and

(3) Supplemental salary paid to any such classroom teacher shall be in addition to the salary to which such teacher is entitled under the regularly established salary policy of the school district; and

(4) Not less than ten percent of such classroom teachers employed by the school district shall participate in the state-aid supplemental salary funds disbursed to any district, and no classroom teacher shall receive less than $100 or in excess of $1000 in any school year.

(e) On or before its first meeting day of each fiscal year, the State Board of Education shall certify to the comptroller of public accounts the amount of money required to meet the provisions of this salary aid program. Upon receipt of the certification or as soon thereafter as possible, the comptroller shall cause to be set aside from funds collected or to be collected and credited to the general revenue fund a sum sufficient to meet such certification, and such sum(s) as so certified are hereby appropriated therefor. Any funds remaining unexpended and unencumbered in this salary program account on the last working day of each fiscal year shall be credited to the general revenue fund.

CHAPTER 17. COUNTY ADMINISTRATION

SUBCHAPTER A. COUNTY GOVERNING BODY

Section 17.01. Management.
17.02. Composition of County Governing Board.
17.03. Elections.
17.04. Vacancies.
17.05. Qualifications for Office.
17.06. Oath of Office.
17.07. Organization.
17.08. Meetings.
17.09. Compensation.

SUBCHAPTER B. POWERS AND DUTIES

Section 17.01. Management.

(a) The general management and control of public free schools and high schools in each county, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be vested in a board of county school trustees.

(b) In those counties which have previously been placed under or adopted, by either general or special law, or which may hereafter adopt pursuant to Chapter 18 of this code, the county-unit system for tax purposes, the governing body may be designated the county board of education.
§ 17.01  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 364

(c) In any county of this state not having heretofore elected or appointed a board of county school trustees, the commissioners court is authorized to appoint a board of county school trustees for the county, the residence of whose members shall conform to the provisions of Section 17.02 of this code relating to the election of county trustees.

(d) No board of county school trustees or county board of education shall be required in those counties which have created or hereafter may create under the terms of Section 19.061 of this code a single independent school district embracing the entire county.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2833, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.\(^1\)  Section 18.01 et seq.

§ 17.02. Composition of County Governing Board

(a) Unless otherwise provided by law, the board of county school trustees or county board of education shall be composed of five members, one of whom shall be elected from each of the four commissioners precincts of the county by the qualified voters of such precincts, and one from the county at large by the qualified voters of the county. Each board shall be elected for a term of two years. Two members shall be elected in one year and three members shall be elected in the alternate year.

(b) In those counties with a population in excess of 350,000, the board of county school trustees shall consist of seven members, three of whom shall be elected from the county at large and one from each commissioners precinct. The trustees' first terms shall be fixed by lot, with two drawing to serve two years, two for four years, and three for six years. Thereafter, each member shall serve six years, with either two or three members elected every two years, the number depending upon that needed to bring the board to seven members.

§ 17.03. Elections

(a) Elections of county school trustees or members of the county board of education and district trustees shall be held on the first Saturday in April, except that in counties having a population of 500,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, such elections may be held on any other Saturday the trustees or board members may select by official resolution.

(b) Election officers appointed to hold the election for district trustees in each school district shall hold the regular election for county school trustees or county board members.

(c) In elections for county school trustees or county board members, all candidate applications for a place on the ballot must be filed with the county judge not less than 30 days prior to the day of election.

(d) The order for such elections must be made by the county judge at least 30 days prior to election day and must designate as voting places within each common or independent school district the same places at which votes are cast for the district trustees.

(e) It shall be no valid objection that the voters of a commissioners precinct are required by operation of this section to cast their ballots at a polling place outside the commissioners precinct of their residence.

(f) Election returns shall be made to the county clerk within five days after the election is held. Such returns shall be delivered by the clerk to the commissioners court at its first meeting thereafter, and that body shall canvass the returns and declare the results as in other elections.

(g) After the newly-elected trustees or county board members have taken and filed with the county clerk the official oath of office, the clerk shall issue their commissions impressed with the seal of the commissioners court.

§ 17.04. Vacancies

Any vacancy on a board of county school trustees or a county board of education shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the remaining trustees or board members.

§ 17.05. Qualifications for Office

County school trustees or members of county boards of education must meet the following qualifications:

1. They must be qualified voters of the county from which they are elected;
2. The four persons representing commissioners precincts must each reside in the precinct from which he is elected;
3. They must possess good moral character;
4. They must be able to read and speak the English language;
5. They must be persons of good education and in sympathy with the public free schools;
6. They must not be connected with the public schools of any district, either as an official or as an employee.

§ 17.06. Oath of Office

All elected trustees or members of a county board of education must take the official oath of office and file same with the county clerk.

§ 17.07. Organization

Each board of county school trustees or county board of education shall be organized as follows: A president shall be elected by the trustees or members of the board from their number at the regular meeting in May of each year. A vice-president may be elected in the same manner as the president. The county superintendent shall act as secretary.

§ 17.08. Meetings

(a) The county school trustees or county boards of education shall hold meetings once each quarter on the first Monday in August, November, February, § 17.23. Creation, Consolidation, Etc.
(a) The county school trustees or county boards of education shall participate in the creation, consolidation, subdivision, and abolition of school districts as provided in Chapter 19 of this code.¹
(b) The county school trustees or county boards of education shall participate in the establishment of public junior colleges as provided in Chapter 51 of this code.²

§ 17.24. Classification of Schools
(a) The county school trustees or county boards of education shall, at the regular meeting in May of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner of education may prescribe, classify the schools of the county, including those in independent school districts, into elementary schools and high schools for the purpose of promoting the efficiency of the elementary school and of establishing and promoting high schools at convenient and suitable places.
(b) In classifying the schools and in establishing high schools, the trustees or county board members shall give due regard to schools already located, to the distribution of population, and to the advancement of the students in their studies.

§ 17.26. Acquisition of Real Property
(a) The county school trustees or county boards of education shall have the power to purchase and lease, and by exercise of the right of eminent domain to acquire, the fee simple title to real property in the county for all common school districts and/or those independent school districts having a scholastic population of less than 150 and remaining under the supervision of the county governing board, for the purpose of supplying playgrounds, agricultural tracts, sites upon which to build schoolhouses, other buildings necessary for the operation of the schools, and for such other purposes as may be advisable for the schools within the districts.
(b) When real property is acquired by the exercise of the right of eminent domain, the trial and all other proceedings, including the assessing of damages, shall be in conformity to the statutes of the state for condemning and acquiring property by railroads. Whenever final judgment is rendered in any such condemnation proceedings, the plaintiff shall be awarded the fee simple title to the property condemned, and have full power over it, including the right of alienation.

§ 17.27. Joint Meetings
The county school trustees or county boards of education may call joint meetings with the district school trustees when deemed necessary and shall do so on petition of a majority of district school trustees.
§ 17.27  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

§ 17.28. Veterans' Training

(a) Unless the county is one in which a tax-supported college or junior college is already operating non-credit classes and schools for veterans, the board of county school trustees or county board of education may maintain, operate and administer a special school for such educational and vocational training of veterans as may be provided by law of this state or of the United States for such veterans, and may employ such instructors, as it deems necessary, and do all things deemed proper for the successful operation of such school.

(b) The State Board for Vocational Education is authorized to allocate and pay to the respective county governing boards and such county governing boards are authorized to receive such money as well as any private donations made for the same purpose and shall stand charged with the power and duty to maintain, operate and administer the same for the purposes above stated.

(c) Payment for all necessary expenses of such schools shall be made by the county governing boards by warrants drawn on funds received by them for the purpose.

§ 17.29. Budget; Finances

(a) The county school trustees or members of the county board of education shall make the annual budget for county administration, have general supervision over the financial affairs of the schools under their jurisdiction, and see to it that all funds are expended in compliance with the regulations of the Central Education Agency.

(b) The county budget, including the applicable items set out in Sections 17.51-17.54 of this code and authorized under regulations of the commissioner of education, shall be filed with the State Department of Education on or before the first day of September of each scholastic year, and shall be certified to by the county school trustees or county board of education and attested to by the county superintendent. The commissioner of education shall transmit to the county governing board all instructions necessary for proper observance of this provision and shall remit in October of each scholastic year to the depository bank of each of the respective counties the amount of the state available fund provided in the budget of each county.

§ 17.30. Interim Financing; Teachers' Salaries

(a) On September 1 of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the county school trustees or county boards of education shall, upon the basis of information furnished by the county depository bank at the request of the county governing body, ascertain the current financial resources of each school district under their supervision and, in the event any of said districts do not or will not have sufficient funds on deposit to pay the salaries of teachers when and as due, borrow funds necessary for such purpose, and authorize the depository bank of the county to charge interest at a rate to be agreed upon by said depository bank and said trustees under the rules prescribed in this section.

(b) The rate of interest shall not exceed eight percent per annum on vouchers issued to teachers from the date of the receipt by said depository until sufficient funds accrue to the credit of the district issuing said vouchers to liquidate the respective vouchers, the interest to be paid from the available funds of the district affected.

(c) No voucher shall draw interest after sufficient funds have accrued in the depository for its payment.

(d) The vouchers upon which interest is to be charged shall not exceed in amount 50 percent of the current available funds of the issuing district.

(e) All interest charged under this section shall be reported in full by the depository bank in its annual report to the state commissioner of education.

§ 17.31. Other Powers and Duties

(a) The county school trustees or county boards of education shall provide all information requested of them by the commissioner of education or any other person associated with the Central Education Agency; they shall also exercise all other functions conferred upon them by the statute and may perform any other act consistent with law for the promotion of education in the county.

(b) In those counties in which the county-unit system has been established under either general or special law of this state, and in those counties which may hereafter adopt the county-unit system under Chapter 18 of this code,1 the county school trustees or county boards of education shall have, in addition to the powers and duties set out in this subchapter, the further powers specified for such county governing boards in the applicable sections of Chapter 18.

1 Section 10.01 et seq.

[Sections 17.32 to 17.40 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

§ 17.41. Office Established; Counties With 3,000 or More Scholastics

(a) Except as provided by Section 17.45 of this code, the commissioners court of every county having 3,000 scholastic population or more, as shown by the preceding scholastic census, shall at a general election provide for the election of a county superintendent to serve for a term of four years.

(b) In every county that shall attain 3,000 scholastic population or more, the commissioners court shall appoint such superintendent who shall perform the duties of such office until the election and qualification of his successor.

(c) In counties having a scholastic population of between 3,000 and 5,000 scholastics, wherein the office of county superintendent has not been created and a superintendent elected, then in such counties the question of whether or not such office is established shall be determined by the qualified voters of said county in a special election called therefor by the commissioners court of said county, upon petition therefor as specified in Section 17.44 of this code.

§ 17.42. Where Scholastic Population Drops Below 3,000

In all counties now or hereafter having the office of county superintendent where the scholastic population according to the last scholastic census is less than 3,000 but more than 2,000, the office of county superintendent shall continue unless and until a majority of the qualified property-taxpaying voters of said county, voting at an election held to determine whether said office shall be abolished, shall vote to abolish said office, which election shall be ordered by the Commissioners Court upon petition therefor as specified in Section 17.44 of this code. Provided, however, that if a majority of said voters voting at said election hereinabove provided for, vote to abolish said office said election shall not become effective until the expiration of the term of office for which the county superintendent has been elected or appointed.

§ 17.43. Counties With Fewer Than 3,000 Scholastics

In any county having a scholastic population of fewer than 3,000, on the presentation of a petition as specified in Section 17.44 of this code, the commissioners court shall order an election for said county to determine whether or not the office of county superintendent shall be created in said county; and, if a majority of the qualified property-taxpaying voters voting at said election shall vote for the creation of the office of county superintendent in said county, the commissioners court, at its next regular term after the holding of said election, shall create the office of county superintendent and name a county superintendent who shall qualify under this chapter, and hold such office until the next general election.

§ 17.44. Petition for Election

The petition for any election under this subchapter must be signed by a number of qualified voters of the county equal to at least 25 percent of the votes cast in the county for governor at the last preceding general election.

§ 17.45. Counties of More Than 350,000

In any county having a population of more than 350,000, according to the last preceding federal census, the county superintendent shall be appointed by the county board of education, and shall hold office for four years. However, this provision shall not operate so as to deprive any elected superintendent of his office prior to the expiration of the term for which he has been elected.

§ 17.46. Appointive Superintendents

(a) In those counties which have previously adopted the county-unit system, under either general or special law of this state, wherein the county governing board was authorized to appoint the county superintendent, the office of county superintendent shall remain appointive so long as the county-unit system remains in effect.

(b) In those counties wherein the county governing board has previously been authorized, under either general or special law of the State, to appoint the county superintendent, or in any county which may hereafter qualify under the provisions of Chapter 18 of this code 1 for an appointive superintendent, the office of county superintendent shall be appointive.

1 Section 18.01 et seq.

§ 17.47. Ex Officio County Superintendent

In any county in which no county superintendent has been elected or appointed, the county judge shall be ex officio county superintendent and shall perform all the duties required of that office.

§ 17.48. Qualifications

An elective or appointive county superintendent must be a person of educational attainments, good moral character, and executive ability. He must hold a permanent, provisional, or professional teacher's certificate.

§ 17.49. Oath and Bond

The county superintendent, whether elected, appointed, or ex officio, shall take the official oath of office and shall give bond in the sum of $1,000, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and payable to and approved by the county governing board of the county, unless a county-wide independent school district has been created as provided in Chapter 19 of this code, 1 in which event the bond shall be payable to and approved by the county commissioners court.

1 Section 19.001 et seq.

§ 17.50. Office

The county commissioners court shall provide the county superintendent with an office in the courthouse and with the necessary office furniture and fixtures.

§ 17.51. Salary

(a) The salary of elective and appointive county superintendents shall be fixed as provided in this section.

(b) Each county superintendent shall receive from the available school fund an annual salary based upon the following salary schedule:

1) The minimum base pay of a county superintendent who has one year but less than two years of college training in a standard college or university shall be $155 per month. Six dollars per month shall be added for each year of teaching experience in the public schools of this state, not to exceed $72 per month.

(2) The minimum base pay for a county superintendent who has two but less than three years of college training in a standard college or university shall be $180 per month. Six dollars per month shall be added for each year of teaching experience in the public schools of this state, not to exceed $72 per month.

(3) The minimum base pay for a county superintendent who has three years or more of college training in a standard college or university but who does not hold a bachelor's degree shall be $205 per month. Six dollars per month shall be added for each year of teaching experience in the public schools of this state, not to exceed $72 per month.

(4) The minimum base pay for a county superintendent who holds a bachelor's degree from a standard college or university and no higher degree shall be $267 per month. Six dollars per month shall be added for each year of teaching experience in the public schools of this state, not to exceed $72 per month.

(5) The minimum base pay for a county superintendent who holds a master's degree from a standard college or university shall be $292 per month. Six dollars per month shall be added for each year of teaching experience in the public schools of this state, not to exceed $156 per month.

(c) Each county superintendent shall receive, in addition to the salary based upon professional training and teaching experience in public schools of Texas as described in Subsection (b) above, monthly increments based upon the scholastic population brackets as indicated in the following table:

(d) The annual salary for a county superintendent shall be the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by 12. Any county superintendent who has served 24 or more years as an elected county superintendent in Texas may receive the same base pay and increments for experience as a county superintendent with a master's degree would receive in the same position.

(e) In those counties in which the county judge acts as ex officio county superintendent, he shall receive as salary for his services in performing the duties of county superintendent, in addition to all other compensation provided by law, whether paid on a fee or salary basis, such sum as the board of county school trustees or county board of education may determine, provided that it shall never exceed $2,600 per year.

(f) The compensation provided in this section shall be paid monthly upon order of the county school trustees or county board of education, but the salary for the month of September shall not be paid until the county superintendent presents a receipt from the office of the commissioner of education showing that he has made all reports required of him. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2840, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 17.52. Office Budget for County Superintendent

(a) The office budget for an appointive or elective county superintendent may include the following items:

(1) Employment of a competent assistant with approval and confirmation of the county school trustees or county board of education. In counties with a total population equaling or fewer than 100,000, according to the last federal census, the annual salary of such assistant shall not exceed $7,200. In counties with a total population greater than 100,000, according to the last federal census, the annual salary of such assistant shall not exceed $7,700.

(2) Employment of one other assistant or assistants as may be necessary, provided that the total sum of all salaries of one other assistant or assistants to the county superintendent does not exceed annually $15,800 in counties having a total population equaling or fewer than 100,000, nor $14,500 in counties having a total population greater than 100,000.

(b) The county school trustees or county board of trustees may make further provisions as they deem necessary for office and travel expenses of the county superintendent, provided that such expenditures of the county superintendents shall not be more than $1,080 annually and shall not be paid except upon notarized claims made upon forms filed by the county school superintendent and approved by the county school trustees or county board of education. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2841, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1512, ch. 495, § 37, eff. May 26, 1971; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2451, ch. 775, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1298, ch. 488, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

§ 17.53. Office Budget: Ex Officio Superintendent

The office budget for an ex officio county superintendent may include the following items:

(1) Appointment by the county school trustees or county board of education of an assistant to the ex officio county superintendent at a salary not to exceed $2,500 per year.

(2) Provision by the county school trustees or county board of education for other office and travel expenses in an amount not to exceed $1,050 per year. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2842, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 17.54. Supervisor

Whenever a supervisor is assigned a position under the county superintendent, as provided in Section 16.17 of this Code, the office and travel expenses of such supervisor may be included in the office budget of the county superintendent. Such expenses shall be in addition to the budget maximums set out above in Sections 17.52(b) and 17.53(2), but shall not exceed $50 per month per supervisor. This budget item is limited to a ten-month basis.

§ 17.55. Duties as Secretary of Board

(a) The county superintendent shall act as secretary of the county school trustees or county board of education. He shall keep in a well bound book, which shall be open to public inspection, a true and correct record of the proceedings of the county governing board.

(b) He shall keep an accurate record of the term of office of each common school district and county school trustee or county board member and shall furnish the county judge at least 60 days prior to the date of their election the number of trustees or board members to be elected in each district or precinct or in the county at large.

(c) He shall conduct all correspondence of the board, receive all reports required by the board, and see that such reports are in proper form, complete and accurate.

(d) He shall have the right to advise on any question under consideration by the board, but shall have no vote.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2842, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969]

§ 17.56. Duties as Budget Officer

(a) The county superintendent shall be the budget officer for each common and rural high school district under such county's jurisdiction.

(b) On or before the tenth day of August, he shall prepare an itemized budget covering all carefully estimated receipts and proposed expenditures for the next succeeding fiscal year of each common and rural high school district under the jurisdiction of the county.

(c) When so prepared this budget shall be submitted to the trustees of each such district for approval; when approved by the trustees and by the county superintendent, copies shall be filed in the offices of county superintendent, the county clerk, and the Central Education Agency, all such copies having been prepared on forms authorized and according to regulations established by the State Board of Education. Such budgets shall be filed no later than the first day of November of the year for which the budget is approved.

(d) In case of an unforeseen emergency, a supplemental budget or budget amendment may be approved in the same manner and copies thereof filed with the original budget when approved.

(e) At any time during the process of budget preparation, any taxpayer of a common or rural high school district for which the budget is being prepared shall have the right to file with the county superintendent and/or trustees of the district any statement or protest he may desire to file concerning any item of expenditure proposed in the budget. Such statement or protest shall be given due consideration by the county superintendent or by the trustees for the district in their final action upon adoption of the budget.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2842, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969]

§ 17.57. Fiscal Accounting System

(a) The county superintendent shall select and install a standard school fiscal accounting system for each common and rural high school district in his jurisdiction. This system must meet at least the minimum requirements prescribed by the State Board of Education and be approved by the state auditor; it shall not, however, relieve any board from keeping any other accounting records. It shall also be keyed to and correlated with the classifications in the budget regarding the purposes of disbursements and sources of receipts.

(b) The county superintendent shall cause to be kept in his office for each district a record of expenditures made and income received during the fiscal year for which the budgets were approved. No expenditure of public funds shall be made in any common or rural high school district in any manner other than that provided in the budgets prepared and approved pursuant to the provisions of Section 17.56 of this code.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2843, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969]

§ 17.58. Reports

At the time budgets are filed as prescribed in Section 17.56 of this code, the county superintendent shall report to the Central Education Agency on forms furnished by the agency the disbursements and receipts of each common and rural high school district in his jurisdiction for the preceding fiscal year.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2843, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969]

§ 17.59. Supervision of Education in County

(a) The county superintendent shall have, under direction of the commissioner of education, the immediate supervision of all matters pertaining to public education in his county.

(b) For all common and rural high school districts and all independent school districts having fewer than 150 scholars and remaining under his jurisdiction, he shall examine all contracts, including their salary provisions, between the district trustees and teachers of his county, and if in his judgment such contracts are proper, he shall approve them.

(c) He shall confer with the teachers and trustees and give them advice when needed, visit and examine schools, and deliver lectures promoting interest in public education.

(d) He shall distribute all school blanks and books to the officers and teachers of the public schools under his jurisdiction and shall make such reports to the Central Education Agency, or any division thereof, as may be asked of him.

(e) He shall, if possible, spend at least four days each week visiting the schools while they are in session.

(f) He shall approve the reports of independent school districts, except such as have a scholastic population of 500 or more, to the Central Education
§ 17.59 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

Agency, and shall have jurisdiction over appeals from decisions of independent school districts of fewer than 500 school children.

§ 17.60. Teachers' Meetings

(a) The county superintendent or ex officio county superintendent may call the teachers of the county together for one or more meetings, but not to exceed three in any one school year, the number to be determined by the county governing board and county superintendent. These meetings may be held on Saturday for one or more hours, but not to exceed three hours on any one day, as the program arranged may demand.

(b) The county superintendent may require teachers' attendance at these meetings but they shall not be paid therefor.

(c) The trustees of any independent district having 500 or more scholastic population may authorize the superintendent of schools in the district to hold district teachers' meetings in lieu of county meetings.

§ 17.61. Administer Oaths

The county superintendents are empowered to administer oaths necessary in transacting any business relating to school affairs, but they shall receive no compensation therefor.

§ 17.62. County-Unit System

In the event the county-unit system has been previously adopted in a county, under either general or special law of this state, or in the event the county-unit system should be adopted under the provisions of Chapter 18 of this code, the county superintendent shall perform such additional duties as may have been or may be assigned to him for the proper functioning of that system.

1 Section 18.01 et seq.

§ 17.63. Appeals

All appeals from decisions of the county superintendent shall be to the county school trustees or county board of education. If desired, further appeal may be had to any court of competent jurisdiction over the subject matter, or to the commissioner of education pursuant to Section 11.13 of this code. Notice of election of either further appeal route must be given to the county governing board within five days after its final decision.

§ 17.64. Abolition of Office

(a) Upon a petition of 25 percent of the qualified voters who cast a vote in the governor's race at the preceding general election in counties of less than 100,000 population according to the last federal census; or upon a petition of 20 percent of the qualified voters who cast a vote in the governor's race at the preceding general election in counties of 100,000 or more population according to the last federal census, the county judge shall within 90 days of the receipt of such petition call an election to determine by majority vote whether the office of county superintendent (or ex officio county superintendent and the county school board in counties having an ex officio county superintendent) shall be abolished. At such an election all ballots shall have printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition:

"The abolishment of the office of county superintendent" or "the abolishment of the office of an ex officio county superintendent and the county school board" (as the case may be).

(b) Where the majority of the qualified electors approve the abolishment of the office of county superintendent, the duties of such abolished office as may still be required by law shall vest in the county judge in ex officio capacity upon expiration of the current term of that office.

(c) Where the majority of the qualified electors approve the abolishment of the office of the ex officio county superintendent and county school board, the duties of such abolished offices as may still be required by law shall be and become the duties of the office of county judge of said county upon the expiration of the current term of office of the ex officio county superintendent, and said county judge shall not be entitled to nor receive any additional compensation as a result of these additional duties.

(d) Not more than one such election may be called during any term of office of the incumbent county superintendent or ex officio county superintendent and that not during the year that a regular election for the office is being held.

(e) Nothing in this section shall apply to counties of 900,000 or more where the county superintendent and his staff are paid by the county. There shall be a county superintendent's office in these counties whether or not there is a common school district therein. The salaries of the county superintendent and his employees shall be set by the school board in said county.

[Sections 17.65 to 17.70 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER D. TREASURER AND DEPOSITORY

§ 17.71. County Depository

The county depository, selected in compliance with the general laws of the state, shall serve as treasurer of county school funds. The commissioners court of each county shall file with the State Department of Education a copy of the depository bond or a copy of the depository contract showing securities in escrow. No commission shall be paid to the county depository for receiving and disbursing school funds.

§ 17.72. Bond

(a) Within 20 days after receipt of a certificate of incorporation, the county depository shall execute a good and sufficient bond payable to the county judge.

(b) The bond shall equal the probable amounts of the available school fund which may be on deposit at any one time, plus the permanent county funds as estimated by the county superintendent, or in a county having no superintendent, by the county judge.

d) The bond shall be conditioned on the depository’s good performance of its duties, including but not limited to safekeeping and faithful disbursement of the school fund according to law and payment of such warrants as may be drawn on the fund by competent authority.

d) In lieu of a bond, the depository may secure the school funds by approved securities or in any other manner authorized by law for securing county funds.

§ 17.73. Apportionment to Districts
(a) The county depository, upon receiving notice from the Central Education Agency of the amount apportioned to the county, shall report the same to the county superintendent, who shall immediately apportion it to the several districts, according to the scholastic census, and notify the county treasurer of the amount apportioned to each district.

(b) The county treasurer shall keep a separate account with each district, showing the amount apportioned according to the certificate of apportionment and the amount paid out to each school and district.

c) In no case shall the county treasurer pay out any part of the school fund without the approval of the county superintendent.

d) All balances of the general school fund not appropriated for the current year shall be carried over by the treasurer as part of the county’s general school fund for the succeeding year. Unexpended balances of any district not exceeding $5 per capita, according to the last scholastic census, shall be carried over for the benefit of that school district. Unexpended balances in excess of $5 per capita, according to the last scholastic census, shall be carried over for the benefit of that school district only to the extent of $5 per capita, and the excess shall be reapportioned to the school districts of the county.

§ 17.74. County-Unit System
In any county in which the county-unit system has previously been established under either general or special law of this state, and in any county which may hereafter adopt the county-unit system under the provisions of Chapter 18 of this code,1 the county depository shall secure and handle such funds as may be acquired through operation of that system in the same manner as other funds available for county school purposes.

1 Section 18.01 et seq.

[Sections 17.75 to 17.80 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER E. COUNTY SCHOOL LANDS

§ 17.81. Duty of Commissioners Court
It shall be the duty of the commissioners court to provide for the protection, preservation, and disposition of all lands heretofore granted, or which may hereafter be granted, to the county for educational purposes and which constitute the permanent county school fund.

§ 17.82. Sale of School Land
(a) Each county may sell or dispose of school lands in such manner as may be prescribed by the commissioners court of the county.

(b) The proceeds of any such sale shall be invested in bonds of the United States; the State of Texas; counties of the state; independent or common school districts; road precinct, drainage, irrigation, navigation, and levee districts in the state; or incorporated cities or towns; or in interest-bearing bank time deposits with the bank having been designated the depository for that county under the terms and conditions of the depository contract. These bonds and deposits shall be held by the county in trust for the benefit of its public free schools, and only interest thereon may be used and expended annually.

§ 17.83. Rental Proceeds
Besides other available school funds provided by law, rental and lease proceeds from lands previously granted by the state to any county for educational purposes shall be appropriated by the commissioners court of the county in the same manner legally prescribed for the appropriation of interest on bonds purchased with the proceeds from sale of such lands. Likewise, proceeds from the sale of timber on these lands shall be invested by the commissioners court as prescribed in Section 17.82(b) of this code. None of the rental, lease, or timber proceeds shall be applied by the commissioners court to any purpose other than those prescribed in this code.

§ 17.84. Taxes on Agricultural or Grazing Land
Any county in this state owning as school land any agricultural or grazing land is authorized to pay taxes lawfully levied thereon out of revenue derived from such land by the county, but if any county has no revenue or insufficient revenue from the land, the taxes shall nevertheless be paid in whole or in necessary part from the county’s general fund.

[Sections 17.85 to 17.90 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER F. SOCIAL SECURITY FOR EMPLOYEES

§ 17.91. Authority of Governing Board
The county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, of each county in this state may enter into all necessary agreements with the State Department of Public Welfare to provide for coverage under the Old Age and Survivors Insurance provisions of the Federal Social Security Act1 of all persons who qualify under applicable federal regulations and whose salaries, wages or other compensation are paid from the county administration fund, the county transportation fund, or any other fund or funds administered by such governing board. With reference to these agreements, the county governing board shall have the same authority as that of counties, municipalities, and other political subdivisions with respect to participation of employees in the Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance program.

§ 17.92. Employer's Matching Contribution

(a) The minimum employer's matching contributions, required by federal regulations, shall be paid into the fund from which each person is paid his salary, wages, or other compensation, by the state or subdivisions, as the case may be, which is required by law to pay the salary, wages, or other compensation of such person.

(b) If the salary, wages, or other compensation of a person comes from more than one source, each of said sources shall pay its pro rata share of the employer's matching contribution. The administrative costs of the program shall be prorated in like manner.

(c) In the case of instructors and other authorized personnel, if any, employed by the county school governing body for duties in connection with special schools for vocational and educational training of veterans, the employer's matching contributions and pro rata administrative costs for such instructors and employees shall be paid by the board from the operating funds of said special schools and collected in the same manner as other operating expenses of those schools are collected.

(d) The minimum employer's matching contribution shall, in all cases, be in addition to any maximum compensation fixed by law for the persons or employees covered by this subchapter.

§ 18.01. Definition

The county unit system is a method by which the voters of a county may, without affecting the operation of any existing school district within the county, create an additional countywide school district which may exercise in and for the entire territory of the county the taxing power conferred on school districts by Article VII, Section 3, of the Texas Constitution, for the purpose of adopting a countywide equalization tax for the maintenance of the public schools.

§ 18.02. Validation and Conversion to Present Law

(a) All actions heretofore taken in establishing in any county a countywide equalization fund or a county-unit system of any sort, whether established, organized, and/or created by the vote of the people residing in such counties or by the action of the county school trustees or the county board of education, as the case may be, and whether authorized or attempted to be authorized by general or special law in this state, are hereby validated in all respects, regardless of whether or not such actions were duly and legally taken in the first instance; and all such county equalization funds and/or county-unit systems resulting from such action and heretofore collecting and distributing countywide equalization funds or functioning as county-unit systems are hereby in all things validated.

(b) All facts of county judges, county school trustees, or county boards of education in such counties in ordering an election or elections, declaring the results of such election, levying, attempting, or purporting to levy county equalization taxes or taxes for or on behalf of a countywide district or a county equalization fund are hereby in all things validated.

(c) All county-unit systems heretofore created and hereby validated are hereby authorized and empowered to levy, assess, and collect the same rate of tax, or not to exceed the rate of tax heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any act of the county governing body or by any election of the taxing voters of said county or by any act, whether general or special, by the legislature, or the same rate as is being levied, assessed, and collected therein and heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any act or acts of said counties or by any act, whether general or special, of the legislature.

(d) All counties in which an equalization fund has heretofore been created are hereby authorized to levy, assess, and collect the same rate of tax or not to exceed the rate of tax heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any election of the taxing voters of the county or by any act, whether general or special, by the legislature, or the same rate as is being levied, assessed, and collected therein and heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any act or acts of said counties or by any act, whether general or special, of the legislature.
§ 18.03. Authorization

(a) Any county in this state may, at an election called for that purpose under the provisions of this chapter and to the extent herein provided, adopt a county-unit system of education for the purpose of levying, assessing, and collecting a school equalization tax and for such other administrative purposes as are authorized in this chapter.

(b) Any county in which the county-unit system has been adopted may, if further authorized by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters residing therein at an election held for that purpose as provided in this chapter exercise in and for the entire territory of the county, to the extent in this chapter prescribed, the tax power conferred on the county board of education by Article VII, Section 3, of the Texas Constitution.

§ 18.04. Petition for Election to Adopt County-Unit System

(a) An election to adopt the county-unit system shall be ordered by the county judge of any county upon the presentation of a petition praying for the formation of a countywide school district and signed by the number of qualified voters specified below:

1. In any county having a population of fewer than 100,000, according to the last federal census, the petition must be signed by at least 100 qualified voters; and

2. In any county having a population of 100,000 or more, according to the last federal census, the petition must be signed by at least 500 qualified voters.

(b) Upon the receipt of a petition fulfilling the applicable requirements of subsection (a) of this section, the county judge shall order, in compliance with the applicable provision below, an election to determine whether or not the county-unit system shall be adopted in the county.

(c) In those counties with a population of fewer than 100,000, the county judge shall, within 30 days, order an election to be held throughout the county and give notice of the date of the election by publication of the order in some newspaper published in the county for 20 days prior to the date set for the election.

(d) In those counties with a population of 100,000 or more, the county judge shall, within 90 days, order an election to be held throughout the county and give notice by posting, in each precinct for at least 20 days prior to the election, notice of the date of the election and the question to be determined.

§ 18.05. Election to Adopt the County-Unit System

(a) All legally qualified voters in the county shall be allowed to vote at the election to determine whether or not the county shall adopt the county-unit system.

1. The form of ballot shall be substantially as follows: "For Equalization District" and "Against Equalization District."

2. The election shall be conducted by the election officer appointed to hold the election of district school trustees in each school district in the county and at the same polling places. The expenses of the election shall be paid from general county funds.

3. The commissioners court at its next regular meeting following the election, shall canvass the returns of the election and declare the result. If a majority of the votes cast favor the formation of such a district, the court shall declare the countywide school equalization district duly and legally created and the provisions of this chapter duly adopted.

§ 18.06. Management

(a) In those counties which have adopted or may hereafter adopt the county-unit system, the general management, supervision and control of the countywide school district shall be vested in the county governing board as specified in Section 17.01 of this code.

(b) In those counties adopting the county-unit system and having a total population of fewer than 100,000, the county governing board shall be designated as the county school trustees.

(c) In those counties adopting the county-unit system and having a total population of 100,000 or more, the county governing board shall be designated as the county board of education.

(d) After the adoption of the provisions of this chapter, the county governing board shall continue to exercise all powers and duties assigned to it in Chapter 17 and in other provisions of this code; and in addition thereto shall perform the other functions assigned to it under the terms of this chapter.

§ 18.07. Petition for Tax Election

(a) On receipt of a petition legally praying for the authority to levy and collect an equalization tax and fulfilling the requirements of this section, the county judge of any county which has adopted the county-unit system shall immediately order an election to be held throughout the county in compliance with the terms of the petition.

(b) The petition must be signed by the applicable number of legally qualified taxpaying voters of the county as specified below:

1. In those counties with a population of fewer than 500,000, according to the last federal census, the petition must be signed by at least 100 properly qualified taxpaying voters.

2. In those counties with a population of at least 500,000, according to the last federal census, the petition must be signed by a number equal to at least 10 percent of those voting for governor at the last preceding general election.
§ 18.07 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 374

c) The petition may pray for authority to levy and collect an equalization tax at any specified rate not in excess of the maximum for the county as set out in Section 18.12 of this code.

§ 18.08. Order; Notice

(a) If the petition specifies a rate, the county judge shall incorporate that rate in his order; if no rate is specified in the petition, the order of the county shall indicate that the rate shall not be in excess of the maximum under the general law applicable to the county.

(b) The county judge shall give notice of the election by publication of the order at least 20 days prior to said election in some newspaper published in the county.

§ 18.09. Election

(a) The election shall be held not more than 30 days after the date of the order.

(b) Only legally qualified property taxpaying voters, who own property in the county and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be allowed to vote.

(c) The form of the ballot shall be substantially as follows: If no specific tax rate was set in the petition, the proposition shall read: “For county tax” and “Against county tax.” If a specific tax rate was incorporated in the petition, the proposition shall read: “For county tax not exceeding ________ cents on the $100 valuation” and “Against county tax not exceeding ________ cents on the $100 valuation.”

§ 18.10. Canvass; Result

(a) The commissioners court shall, at its next regular meeting, canvass the returns of the election and declare the result.

(b) If a majority of the votes cast shall favor the tax, the court shall certify that fact to the county governing board and to the county tax assessor and collector.

(c) The county governing board, upon receipt of certification of the adoption of the tax, shall be authorized to levy the tax at the rate voted or, if no rate was specified, at a rate not to exceed the maximum for the county as provided in Section 18.12 of this code.

(d) The county tax assessor and collector, upon receipt of certification of the adoption of the tax, shall be authorized to assess and collect the equalization tax as levied by the county governing board.

(e) If a majority of the votes cast oppose the tax, a second election upon the basis of a new petition may be held at any time within two years after the adoption of the county unit system, but if at such second election a majority of the votes cast again oppose the tax, the county unit system shall cease to exist within the county and be reestablished only by a new election as provided in Sections 18.04 and 18.05 of this code.

§ 18.11. Election to Revoke Tax

No election to revoke a tax adopted under the provisions of this chapter shall be ordered until the expiration of three years from the date of the election at which the tax was adopted.

§ 18.12. Maximum Tax Rate

(a) The county-wide equalization tax which may be authorized by the voters under this chapter shall be assessed at rates not to exceed:

(1) 50 cents on the $100 property valuation in those counties with a total population of 100,000 or more.

(2) $1 on the $100 property valuation in those counties with a total population of fewer than 100,000.

(b) In the event the petition requisite to the calling of a tax election, as specified in Section 18.07 of this code, prays for authority to levy and collect an equalization tax at a specific rate less than the maximum for the county as set out in subsection (a) of this section, the maximum for that county shall be the rate specified in the petition.

§ 18.13. Assessment and Collection of Tax

(a) The officers assessing and collecting the county equalization tax shall receive therefor the same compensation as is paid for assessing and collecting school taxes in common school districts.

(b) The county tax assessor shall assess all of the taxable property in the county at the same rate of valuation as it is assessed for state and county purposes.

(c) The county tax collector shall collect the tax at the same time and in the same manner as other state and county taxes are collected.

(d) The county tax collector, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall enter into a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, or surety bond, for the protection of the equalization fund. The bond shall be made payable to the county governing board and shall be made in a sum fixed by the county governing board at not less than double the amount of money belonging to the fund which the tax collector may have in his possession at any time. A similar bond may be required by the county governing board of any and all other persons or corporations in whose possession the equalization funds may be kept.

(e) The tax collector shall have the same authority and the same laws shall apply in the collection of the equalization tax as in the collection of county ad valorem taxes.

(f) The tax collector shall deposit the returns from the equalization tax in a separate fund to be known as the county equalization fund for the support of the public schools of the county.

(g) The tax collector shall, on or about the 10th day of each month, make a report to the county governing board and to the county superintendent showing all money collected by him during the last month by the equalization tax.

(h) The tax collector shall, upon the authorization of the county governing board as provided in Section 18.14 of this code, place to the credit of the common school districts in the county such money as is apportioned to them, the funds to be protected as provided by existing depository laws.

(i) The tax collector shall honor all warrants issued by the county governing board in allocating money from the county equalization fund to independent school districts within the county, and the funds so received by the independent school districts shall be protected in accordance with existing depository laws.

§ 18.14. Distribution of Equalization Tax Funds

(a) The county governing board shall distribute the moneys collected from the equalization tax according to the provisions of this section.

(b) The funds shall be distributed to the common and independent school districts of the county on the basis of the average daily attendance for the prior year as approved by the State Department of Education.

(c) Any county-line district shall be eligible to receive its per capita apportionment based upon the number of scholastic pupils residing in the county of the equalization district as shown by the average daily attendance for the prior year as approved by the State Department of Education.

(d) The county governing board shall issue warrants (on the per capita basis specified above) against the equalization fund to the school district trustees in each district. However, the apportionment may be made by the county governing board either annually or from time to time as the money is collected.

(e) The county superintendent in each county adopting the county unit system and authorizing the assessment and collection of an equalization tax shall keep a record of all money, both received and paid out, from the county equalization fund.

§ 18.15. Effect on Local School Districts

(a) The adoption of the county unit system under the provisions of this chapter shall not have the effect of changing any duties imposed on or powers conferred on the trustees of any common, independent, or other school district within the county.

(b) The several common, independent, or other school districts within any county adopting the provisions of this chapter shall continue to have authority to levy, assess, and collect the maintenance taxes which have theretofore or hereafter may be authorized by the property taxpayers of those districts.

(c) The adoption of the provisions of this chapter shall not affect the right and duty of the respective school districts to levy, assess, and collect taxes within respective districts for the payment of principal and interest on the bonded indebtedness of those districts.

(d) No money received by a common, independent, or other school district from the county equalization tax fund shall be used to pay any present or future bond issues of the district or interest thereon.

[Sections 18.16 to 18.20 reserved for expansion]
its order upon the minutes of such Court declaring the result thereof, and shall certify such fact to the County School Trustees of such county.

§ 18.25. Meeting to Determine Tax Required

If the vote be in favor of such tax, the County School Trustees of such county shall as soon thereafter hold a meeting for the purpose of determining the amount of money required for equalization purposes, and for the payment of administration expense in such counties, and they shall thereupon make their order setting forth the estimated amount of money required for such purposes, and the rate of tax to be levied to raise such sums; and shall certify the same to the Commissioners' Court; and the Commissioners' Court shall thereupon levy the rate so certified to them by the said County School Trustees, not to exceed the rate fixed by this chapter, and cause such tax to be assessed and collected in the same manner, at the same time, and by the same officers as State and County taxes are now collected.

§ 18.26. County Equalization Fund

The tax herein provided for shall constitute a part of the school funds of said counties, and shall never be levied, assessed or collected for any purpose other than those herein specified, and for the advancement of public free schools in such counties; and when collected, it shall be deposited by the Tax Collector in the County Depository in a fund which shall be known as "County Equalization Fund", and a statement of the amounts collected shall be furnished monthly by the Collector to the County School Trustees.

§ 18.27. Tax Lien

Such tax, when levied by order of the Commissioners' Court as herein provided, shall be a lien upon all property in such county, and shall be governed by the same laws as govern the levy, assessment and collection of State and County taxes, except as otherwise specially provided herein.

§ 18.28. Expenditure of Funds

Such funds shall be expended by the County School Trustees of such counties for the equalization of educational opportunities in such counties, and for the payment of administration expense, upon warrants signed by the President and the Secretary of the County School Trustees; and all such expenditures shall be approved monthly by the County School Trustees; provided, however, no part of such fund shall be expended in any school district which does not levy a tax for school purposes of 75 cents or more on the 100 Dollars value of taxable property in such district.

§ 18.29. Duties and Powers

The duties, powers and authorities herein given to the County School Trustees shall be cumulative of all other duties, powers and authorities heretofore or hereafter given such Trustees. This law shall not affect the levy, assessment or collection of any other tax heretofore or hereafter levied, assessed or collected in any school district in such counties, and the tax herein provided for shall be in addition to such other tax, or taxes.

§ 18.30. Payment of Superintendent's Salary and Expense

(a) In the event that the tax herein provided for shall be authorized by the voters of the county to which this chapter applies, then the County Superintendent's salary and all expenses of maintaining his office shall be paid out of the funds realized from the collection of the tax herein provided for.

(b) Until the tax provided for herein shall be authorized and levied, the salary of the County Superintendent and his assistants, and the expenses of maintaining the office of County Superintendent, shall continue to be paid as otherwise provided by law.

§ 18.31. Tax Rate in Counties With Population of 500,000

(a) In all counties having a population of 500,000 or more, according to the last preceding or any future federal census, the county judge shall, upon presentation to him of a petition praying for such an election, signed by qualified taxpaying voters of such county in a number equal to 10 percent or more of those voting for governor in the last preceding general election, order an election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified taxpaying voters of such county who own taxable property and who have duly and personally rendered it for taxation, the proposition of whether or not a tax of and at a rate not to exceed five cents on the $100 valuation of all property subject to school district taxation in such county shall be levied, assessed, and collected for the purpose of creating an equalization fund for the public free schools in such county to be expended for the equalization of educational opportunities and payment of administrative expense.

(b) Such an election which shall be held in the same manner on the same day at the same polling place and under the same laws and regulations as have previously governed the holding of such elections in such counties; and the election supplies, ballots, and tally sheets shall be furnished by the same authorities and returns shall be made as here­fore provided for such elections. Notices thereof shall be given by public notice or by publication hereto­fore provided; and if and when authorization is granted, such tax shall be levied, assessed, and collected in the same manner as heretofore provided for such equalization taxes and the administration, depository bank, checking, accounting, and disburse­ment of such taxes shall be subject to all the rules and statutes governing school funds in such coun­ties; it being the intention of this section only to increase the permissive rate of tax to be levied for such purposes.

SUBCHAPTER A. ENLARGING DISTRICTS BY ANNEXING OTHER DISTRICTS

§ 19.001. Enlarged Districts

(a) The county school trustees or county boards of education, as the case may be, in any county in this State, shall have the authority to create enlarged districts by either of the following methods:

(1) By annexing one or more common school districts or one or more independent school districts having a scholastic population of less than 250 to a common school district having 400 or more scholastic population.

(2) By annexing one or more common school districts or one or more independent school districts having a scholastic population of less than 250 to an independent school district having 150 or more scholastic population.

(b) An enlarged district created by the method described in Subsection (a)(1) of this section shall be classified as a common school district; an enlarged district created by the method described in Subsection (a)(2) of this section shall be classified as an independent school district.

SUBCHAPTER B. CREATION OF COUNTY-WIDE COMMON SCHOOL DISTRICTS

§ 19.031. Qualifications

A county-wide common school district may be created, under the terms of this subchapter, in any county in the State meeting all of the following qualifications:

(1) The county must have a scholastic population of fewer than 600 as shown by the last scholastic census on file in the State Department of Education.

(2) The county must not embrace the whole or any part of an independent school district.

(3) There must be no outstanding indebtedness against any common school district in the county.

(4) The county must have an assessed property valuation of less than $6,000,000.

§ 19.032. Petition for Election: Order

(a) The county judge, when petitioned by 50 or a majority of the legally qualified property taxpayers of any county meeting the qualifications specified in Section 19.031 of this code, shall order an election to be held throughout the county for the purpose of determining whether a majority of the legally qualified property taxpayers residing in the county shall favor the creation of a common school district embracing the entire county.

(b) The petition and order for the election shall state that the purpose is to create a common school district embracing the entire county.

(c) The order for the election must be issued and public notice thereof, given, as in other school elections, for not less than three weeks prior to the date at which the election is to be held.

(d) It shall not be necessary for either the petition or the order to state the metes and bounds of the district proposed to be created.

§ 19.033. Election

The election to determine whether to create a common school district embracing the entire county shall be held at the usual voting places in each election precinct in the county and shall be conducted under the general election laws of this state.

§ 19.034. Canvass: Order

(a) The commissioners court shall, either at a regular or a special session, canvass the returns of the election and declare the results.

(b) If it is found that a majority of the legally qualified property taxpayers voting, at the election, are in favor of the creation of a common school district embracing the entire county, the commissioners court shall enter an order creating the common school district embracing the entire county and abolishing all common school districts existing prior thereto.

(c) It shall not be necessary for the order creating the district to state the metes and bounds of the county.

§ 19.035. Election of Trustees

(a) When any common school district embracing an entire county has been created as provided in this subchapter, the county judge shall immediately order an election for the election of three trustees for the school district.

(b) The county judge shall give public notice of the election by posting notices thereof at each voting place in the county not less than 20 days before the date at which the election is to be held.

(c) The county judge shall appoint for the election for each precinct in the county a presiding officer, who shall be authorized to appoint two clerks to assist him in the conduct of the election.

(d) Any person seeking election as trustee of the county-wide district shall, not less than 10 days before the election, apply in writing to the county judge to have his name placed on the ballot.

(e) The county judge shall order the preparation of the necessary number of ballots containing the names of each person applying as a candidate for trustee.

(f) The election shall be held at the usual voting places in each voting precinct in the county and shall be conducted in compliance with the general laws relating to common school district elections.

(g) The officers holding the election shall make returns thereof to the county judge within five days after the election. The commissioners court at its next regular or special session shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the election.

§ 19.036. Status of District
Any county-wide common school district created under the terms of this subchapter shall be governed as other common school districts as provided in Chapter 22 of this code \(^1\) and shall have all the rights and privileges of other common school districts heretofore created or which may hereafter be created under the general laws of this State.

\(^{1}\) Section 22.01 et seq.

[Sections 19.037 to 19.060 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. CREATION OF COUNTY-WIDE INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICTS

§ 19.061. Qualifications
A county-wide independent school district may be created, under the terms of this subchapter, in any county in the state meeting all of the following qualifications:

(1) The county must have a scholastic population of not more than 2,500.

(2) Not more than two school districts, either two common school districts or two independent school districts or one common school district and one independent school district, shall have conducted schools within the past two years.

§ 19.062. Petition
Whenever it is desired that any county meeting the qualifications of Section 19.061 of this code be created into a single independent school district, there shall be presented to the county judge a petition which shall:

(1) be signed by either a majority of the members of the board of trustees of the common and/or independent school districts within the county or by 20 qualified voters or a majority of the qualified voters of each of the common and/or independent school districts within the county;

(2) state that the purpose is to create an independent school district embracing the entire county; and

(3) provide that in the event a county line district exists within the county, such county line district shall be excepted from the proposed county-wide independent school district and the provisions hereof.

§ 19.063. Election Order; Notice
Upon the presentation of a petition fulfilling the qualifications of Section 19.061 of this code, the county judge shall:

(1) order an election to be held throughout the county on a date not less than 21 days nor more than 30 days after the date of the filing of the petition; and

(2) cause notice of the election to be given by posting a substantial copy of the election order in a public place in each common and/or independent school district in the county not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for the election.

§ 19.064. Election
(a) The election shall be held at the usual voting place or places in each of the several districts in the county and shall be conducted under the general election laws of the state unless otherwise provided herein.

(b) The commissioners court shall at any regular or special session after the election canvass the return of the election and declare the result thereof.

§ 19.065. Order Creating District
If it is found that a majority of the legally qualified voters voting in the election favor the creation of a county-wide independent school district, the commissioners court shall pass an order which shall:

(1) create the independent school district embracing the entire county and abolish all common and/or independent school districts participating in the election; and

(2) declare the boundaries of the county-wide independent school district to be co-extensive with the boundaries of the county or, in the event a county line school district exists within the county, define the boundaries of the county-wide independent school district by metes and bounds, excluding the county line district.

§ 19.066. Appointment of Initial Trustees
(a) The trustees of an independent school district embracing an entire county shall be selected as provided in this section and Section 19.067 of this code.

(b) Immediately following the election at which it was determined to create a county-wide independent school district, the county judge shall provide for the organization of the district within 10 days thereafter by appointing seven trustees as follows: One trustee shall be appointed from each of the four commissioners precincts within the county, and three trustees shall be appointed from the county at large.

§ 19.067. Election of Trustees
(a) The first election for trustees shall be called by the county judge, shall be held on the first Saturday in April of the year following the election at which the county-wide independent school district was created and shall be conducted as provided by this section.

(b) Each elector in the county shall be permitted to vote for one board member from the commissioners precinct in which the elector and the candidate reside and shall be permitted to vote for three candidates from the county at large.

(c) The commissioners court shall appoint election judges and assistants, cause ballots to be printed and...
§ 19.067 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

distributed, canvass the votes, declare the results of the election, notify the persons elected, and call a meeting of the new board of trustees on a date not more than 10 days after the results of the election are determined.

(d) The seven trustees first elected shall determine by lot which shall serve for a term of one year and which for a term of two years. Those drawing numbers 1, 2, and 3 shall serve for a term of one year, and those drawing numbers 4, 5, 6, and 7 shall serve for a term of two years.

(e) All subsequent elections of trustees shall be called by the board of trustees in the manner provided in this code for trustee elections in independent school districts. The elections shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year at places in each commissioners precinct designated by the board of trustees. Each year, either three or four trustees, as the case may be, shall be elected for a term of two years.

§ 19.068. Trustees; Powers, Etc.

(a) The boards of trustees of independent school districts established under this subchapter, whether appointed or elected, shall have all the powers, rights, duties, privileges, and qualifications granted in or required by the general provisions of this code relating to independent school districts.

(b) The boards of trustees shall have general management and control of all schools situated or established in the districts, including management of the business affairs of the district and selection of teachers.

(c) The boards of trustees shall have all rights and powers of taxation as provided for independent school districts, including assessing and valuing property for taxation, fixing tax rates, and issuing bonds.

(d) The boards of trustees shall have any other rights and powers now held and exercised by boards of trustees of independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.

§ 19.069. Taxes

(a) The maintenance and bond taxes and assessed valuations in each of the several component districts existing at the time of the creation of the independent school district embracing the entire county shall continue as authorized and approved until such time as an election shall have been held equalizing the maintenance tax and assuming the bonded indebtedness of the several component school districts making up the county-wide independent school district.

(b) Elections for the levying of taxes, assumption of debt, and issuance of bonds shall be called, held, and determined in accordance with the provisions governing such elections in independent school districts as provided in Subchapter O of this chapter or in Chapter 20 of this code.

(c) The laws governing the assessing and collecting of taxes, issuance of bonds (new or refunding), in independent school districts shall be applicable to independent school districts created under this subchapter.

§ 19.070. County Governing Board Not Required

No county school trustees or county boards of education shall be required in those counties which create county-wide independent school districts under the terms of this subchapter.

[Sections 19.071 to 19.100 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER D. COUNTY-LINE DISTRICTS

§ 19.101. Creation of County-Line Common School Districts

(a) The county school trustees and/or county boards of education of two or more adjoining counties shall have the authority, in compliance with the provisions of this section, to create common school districts to contain territory in two or more counties.

(b) No county-line common school district shall be created with or changed to an area less than nine square miles.

(c) Each county-line common school district shall be laid out in as near the shape of a square as possible, and in no event shall the length of the district be greater than one and one-half times its width.

(d) The county governing board of each county having territory included in the proposed district shall pass an order which shall:

(1) describe by metes and bounds the territory to be included in the district;

(2) give the course and direction with the exact length of each line contained in the description and locate each corner called for upon the ground;

(3) give the acres of each survey and parts of surveys of lands included in the district;

(4) include a map showing the conditions upon the ground as described in the field notes and giving the number of acres of land contained in each survey and parts of surveys contained in each county;

(5) show the exact position and location of the county line in the territory proposed to be created into a county-line district; and

(6) designate and name one of the counties having territory included in the description of the proposed district which shall manage and have control of the public schools of the county-line district for all school purposes.

(e) The proposed district shall be deemed created and established when the order described in Subsection (d) of this section has been passed by the county governing board of each county having territory included therein.

§ 19.102. County-Line Rural High School Districts

(a) The county school trustees and/or county boards of education of two or more adjoining counties shall have the authority, upon the written order of a majority of the members of the governing board of each county concerned, to establish county-line rural high school districts. The order shall designate the county which shall have supervision of the county-line rural high school district.

(b) A county-line rural high school district, so established, shall be governed in all respects as other rural high school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.¹

§ 19.103. Joint Maintenance

The county governing boards of each county having territory included within a county-line district shall have power to provide jointly for the maintenance of the county-line school.

§ 19.104. Voter Qualifications

All persons who are otherwise qualified to vote in an election involving a school district question and who reside in a county line school district shall be entitled to vote at any such election involving the school district regardless of whether or not such voters reside in the county having management and control of the county line district.

(a) Any county-line rural high school district in which there is maintained an accredited school system of 12 grades, including a high school offering 16 or more credits, may be converted into an independent school district as prescribed by this section.

(b) A petition signed by 20 or a majority of the qualified property taxing voters residing in the district and praying for an election to determine whether the rural high school district shall be incorporated for free school purposes only shall be presented to the county judge of the county in which the greater or greatest area of the district lies.

(c) Upon receipt of the petition, the county judge shall issue an order calling for an election to be held throughout the district not less than 20 nor more than 30 days from the date of filing the petition, for the purpose of converting the rural high school district into an independent school district for school purposes.

(d) After the election is held, the commissioners court of the county in which the greater or greatest area of the district lies shall canvass the returns and declare the result of the election.

(e) If a majority of the voters cast favor the change from a rural high school district into an independent school district, the commissioners court shall:

1. enter its order incorporating the independent school district; and

2. cause a certified copy of the order to be recorded by the county clerks in the deed records of the counties having territory within the district.

(f) An independent school district created under the provisions of this section shall be regarded as duly incorporated for free school purposes only and shall be vested with all the rights, powers, and privileges conferred and imposed upon independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.¹

(g) Whenever any independent school district is incorporated under this section, the members of the board of trustees of the rural high school district shall maintain their status as trustees of the newly incorporated independent school district and shall continue to serve until their respective terms of office expire.

(h) The titles and rights to all property owned, held, set apart, or in any way dedicated to the use of the public schools of the elementary school districts comprising the rural high school district for school purposes only, shall be vested in the board of trustees of the independent school district, after incorporated under this section, and shall be managed and controlled by the board of trustees, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law.

(i) All bonds issued by and outstanding against the rural high school district, as a school district, and all obligations, contracts, and indebtedness existing against the rural high school district, shall become the obligations and debts of the independent school district at the time of its incorporation.

§ 19.106. Creation of County-Line Independent School Districts

(a) Independent school districts may be created containing territory within two or more counties by the same procedure that towns and villages are created by law for municipal purposes, except that the map required by the statute governing municipal incorporations shall also show the correct location and position of the county-line or lines involved in the incorporation of the independent school district.

(b) An incorporated free school district containing territory in two or more counties shall have all the rights, powers and privileges granted to any other incorporations for free school purposes only.

(c) The same modes, manners, and methods of government and procedure provided by Chapter 23 of this code ¹ for independent school districts shall govern the management and control of incorporated school districts containing territory within two or more counties.

state shall have the authority to form one or more rural high school districts by grouping contiguous common school districts having fewer than 400 scholastic population and independent school districts having fewer than 250 scholastic population.

§ 19.132. Limitations
No rural high school district shall contain a greater area than 100 square miles or more than 10 elementary school districts, except that:

(1) The county school trustees or county board of education may create a rural high school district containing more than 100 square miles when so authorized by the vote of a majority of the qualified electors in the proposed rural high school district voting at an election called for that purpose.

(2) The county school trustees or county board of education may create a rural high school district containing more than 10 elementary districts when so authorized by the vote of a majority of the qualified electors of each elementary district in the proposed rural high school district voting at an election called for that purpose.

§ 19.133. Status
A rural high school district shall be classified as a common school district, and all other districts, whether common or independent, composing the rural high school district shall be referred to as elementary school districts.

§ 19.134. Transfer of Control
The board of trustees of each elementary school districts grouped or included to form a rural high school district, as hereinabove provided, shall continue in control of its respective district until the close of the current scholastic year, but it shall make no contract affecting the expenditure of any school funds subsequent to September 1 nor shall it have any authority in the management and control of the schools of the district after September 1. The board of trustees for the rural high school district shall, immediately upon its organization, proceed to make contracts for the operation of all schools under its control.

(a) A rural high school district in which there is maintained an accredited school system of 12 grades, including a high school offering 16 or more credits, may be converted into an independent school district as prescribed by this section.

(b) A petition signed by 20 or a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters residing in the district and praying for an election to determine whether the rural high school district shall be incorporated for free school purposes only shall be presented to the county judge.

(c) Upon receipt of the petition, the county judge shall issue an order calling for an election to be held not less than 20 nor more than 30 days from the date of filing the petition, for the purpose of converting the rural high school district into an independent school district for school purposes.

(d) After the election is held, the commissioners court shall canvass the returns and declare the result of the election.

(e) If a majority of the votes cast favor the change from a rural high school district into an independent school district, the commissioners court shall:

(1) enter its order incorporating the independent school district; and

(2) cause a certified copy of the order to be recorded by the county clerk in the deed records of the county.

(f) An independent school district created under this section shall be regarded as duly incorporated for free school purposes only and shall be vested with all the rights, powers, and privileges conferred and imposed upon independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.1

(g) When any independent school district is incorporated under the terms of this section, the members of the board of trustees of the rural high school district shall maintain their status as trustees of the newly incorporated independent school district and shall continue to serve until their respective terms of office expire.

(h) The titles and rights to all property owned, held, set apart, or in any way dedicated to the use of the public schools of the elementary school districts comprising the rural high school district for school purposes only, shall, after incorporating under this section, be vested in the board of trustees of the independent school district, and shall be managed and controlled by the board of trustees as is now or may hereafter be provided by law.

(i) All bonds issued by or outstanding against the rural high school district, as a school district, and all obligations, contracts, and indebtedness existing against the rural high school district, shall become the obligations and debts of the independent school district at the time of its incorporation.

1 Section 23.01 et seq.

§ 19.136. Abolition of Rural High School District
(a) The county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, shall have the authority to abolish a rural high school district on a petition signed by a majority of the voters of each elementary school district composing the rural high school district.

(b) When a rural high school district has been abolished, each district of which it was composed shall revert back to its original status with the exception that, in the event there is any outstanding indebtedness against the rural high school district, each component district shall assume its proportional part of the debts, bonded or otherwise.

[Sections 19.137 to 19.160 reserved for expansion]
§ 19.161. City May Acquire Control of Schools

(a) Any city or town in this state may acquire the exclusive control of the public free schools within its limits by a majority vote of the property taxpayers of the city or town voting at an election held for that purpose as herein provided.

(b) A petition, signed by not less than 50 of the qualified electors of the city or town and requesting an election to determine whether the city or town shall acquire the exclusive control of the public free schools within its limits, shall be presented to the mayor.

(c) Upon receipt of the petition, the mayor shall order an election to be held at a date within 20 days thereafter.

(d) The election shall be conducted as other municipal elections; and if a majority of the votes cast favor the proposition, the city or town shall by ordinance duly passed and entered of record, assume control and management of the public free schools within its limits. Not more than one election shall be held in any one calendar year to determine the question.

§ 19.162. Transfer of Control From District to City

(a) Any independent school district including within its limits a city or town incorporated for municipal purposes under the laws of this State may transfer the control and management of the school district to the incorporated city or town as prescribed by this section.

(b) A petition, signed by as many as 50 or a majority of the resident qualified voters of the independent school district and requesting an election on the proposition of whether the public free schools of the district should be assumed and controlled by the incorporated city or town, shall be presented to the board of trustees of the independent school district.

(c) Upon receipt of the petition, the board shall order an election to be held at the usual voting places within the district at a date within 20 days thereafter.

(d) The election shall be ordered and held in conformity with the law governing tax and bond elections in independent school districts, as provided in Section 20.04 of this code, except that the qualified electors need not be property taxpayers but need only qualify to vote under the laws of this State regulating general elections.

(e) The ballot for use at the election shall have printed thereon the words: "For assuming control of the public free school of ______ Independent School District by the city of ________ Texas," and "Against assuming control of the public free school of ________ Independent School District by the city of ________, Texas."

(f) If a majority of the qualified voters voting at the election vote in favor of the proposition, the board of trustees of the independent school district shall certify the results of the election to the governing authority of the incorporated city or town, together with a certified copy of the record showing all the proceedings had in the incorporation of the independent school district and all boundary extensions thereto, if any, and a well-defined map accurately showing the territory described in the record.

(g) If the governing authority of the city or town finds that the election has been in all respects lawfully held and the returns thereof duly and legally made, then it shall, by ordinance duly passed and entered of record, assume control and management of the public free schools within its limits and perform such other duties as may be required of it by this code.

(h) If the boundaries of the independent school district do not coincide with the boundaries of the incorporated city or town, the city governing body shall on the same day pass an ordinance extending its corporate line for school purposes only so that the same shall coincide with and embrace the same territory as the independent school district.

(i) If the independent school district shall have an outstanding bonded indebtedness, the incorporated city or town shall become liable and bound for the payment of such indebtedness, and the governing body of the city or town shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected, upon all property subject to taxation within the limits of the incorporated city or town or within the limits of the corporation as extended for school purposes only, taxes to pay interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem the same at maturity. Such tax shall thereafter be annually levied and collected so long as the bonds, or any of them, are outstanding and unpaid.

(j) If the independent school district had previously authorized a maintenance tax, the assumption of the control and management of the schools of the district shall not abrogate or affect such tax, and the maintenance tax shall thereafter be annually levied, assessed, and collected by the proper authorities of the incorporated city or town until increased or changed by the qualified voters in conformity with the provisions and requirements of Chapter 20 of this code.1

(k) The trustees of the independent school district serving at the time of the assumption of the control of the schools of the district by the incorporated city or town shall continue to serve until the expiration of their terms of office; subsequent trustees shall continue to be elected in compliance with the general law relative to the election of trustees of independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.2

1 § 20.01 et seq.
2 § 23.01 et seq.

§ 19.163. Status of District

Municipal school districts, established under either Section 19.161 or Section 19.162 of this code shall be classified as independent school districts and shall operate and be governed according to the general laws relative to independent school districts, as provided in Chapter 23 of this code, except insofar as such laws are modified by the specific provisions...
§ 19.163 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

relative to municipal school districts as contained in Chapter 24 of this code. 2

2 Section 23.991 et seq.

§ 19.164. Extension of Boundaries

(a) Any city or town which has assumed control of its schools and become a municipal school district under the terms of Section 19.161 of this code or under prior statutory authority may extend its corporation lines for school purposes only under the provisions of this section.

(b) A petition signed by a majority of the resident qualified voters of the territory seeking to be included in the municipal school district shall be presented to the board of trustees of the municipal school district.

(c) If the extension of boundaries is recommended by a majority vote of the board of trustees of the municipal school district, the governing body of the city may, by ordinance and on the conditions prescribed by this section, extend its boundaries for school purposes only.

(d) The proposed change in boundaries shall not deprive the scholastic children of the remaining part of any common or independent school district which may be affected by the proposed change of the opportunity of attending school.

(e) The added territory shall bear its pro rata part according to taxable values of any obligation owed by the municipal school district, but shall not bear any part of any other debt owed or contracted by the town or city. The property of the added territory shall bear its pro rata part of all school taxes but of no other taxes. The added territory shall not affect the city's debts or business relations in any manner whatsoever except for school purposes.

(f) The officers whose duty it is to assess and collect school taxes within the city limits shall also assess and collect school taxes within the territory added for school purposes only.

(g) When hereafter an entire territory of a contiguous district or districts is added for school purposes only, under the provisions of this section, the extended city control district shall be regarded as eligible for incentive aid to the extent and under the conditions prescribed in Subchapter G, Chapter 28, of this code. 1

§ 19.165. Disannexation of Territory

(a) Any territory added to a municipal school district for school purposes only and outside the municipal limits of the city or town may be disannexed under the terms and conditions of this section.

(b) A petition signed by a majority of the persons owning property in the territory proposed to be disannexed shall be presented to the board of trustees of the municipal school district.

(c) If the board of trustees consents to the disannexation, the governing body of the city or town may by ordinance disannex the territory, in which event:

1 The governing body of the city or town shall notify the county school trustees or county board of education of the county in which the disannexed territory is situated by sending to the commissioners court a copy of the disannexation ordinance.

1 The liability of the disannexed territory for any obligations of the municipal school district shall be adjusted in the manner provided in Subchapter N of this chapter. 1

1 The disannexed territory shall ipso facto immediately become a part of the adjoining school district other than that from which it has been disannexed, or if the disannexed territory adjoins more than one other district, the disannexed territory shall become a part of the adjoining district designated to receive the territory by the county school trustees or county board of education.

[a] [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2871, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 19.166. Separation From Municipal Control and Conversion to Independent School District

(a) Any municipal school district, established either under the terms of Section 19.161 of this code or under any other prior statutory authority, may be separated from municipal control so that the school corporation shall become and be an independent school district, without the dual character theretofore possessed by the school corporation and the city or town, under the provisions of this section.

(b) A petition signed by 100 or more of the resident qualified voters of the municipal school district and/or city or town and praying for an election on the proposition of whether or not the public schools shall be divorced from municipal control shall be presented to the board of trustees of the municipal school district. The board of trustees of the municipal school district shall certify the petition to the governing body of the city or town.

(c) Upon receipt of the petition and certification, the governing body of the city or town shall fix a date not more than 10 days thereafter for the holding of a joint meeting of the governing body of the city or town and the board of trustees of the municipal school district. At the joint meeting, the governing body of the city or town and the board of trustees of the municipal school district, acting jointly as one body, the mayor or chairman of the governing body presiding, shall order an election as prayed for in the petition.

(d) The election shall be held not more than 30 days nor less than 10 days thereafter. At least 10 days notice of the election shall be given.

(e) Every person who has attained the age of 21 years and who has resided within the limits of the municipal school district for the six months next preceding the date of election and who is a qualified elector under the laws of this State shall be entitled to vote.

(f) The ballots for use at the election shall have printed thereon the words: "For the separation of the public schools from municipal control," and “Against the separation of the public schools from municipal control.”

(g) In all respects not specifically covered herein, the election shall be conducted as nearly as possible in compliance with the law with reference to regular city elections in the town or city.

(h) The governing body of the city or town shall immediately canvass the returns of the election and certify the results to the board of trustees of the municipal school district, together with a certified copy of the record showing all proceedings in respect of the election.

(i) If a majority of the qualified voters, voting at the election in the municipal school district, vote in favor of the separation of the public schools from municipal control and if the board of trustees of the school district finds that the election has been in all respects lawfully held and the returns thereof duly and legally made to the governing body of the city or town, the board of trustees shall by resolution duly passed and entered of record, declare that the public schools of the municipal school district have been separated from municipal control and that the corporate name of the school district shall thereafter be “Independent School District,” inserting the name of the city or town.

(j) If the proposition shall be defeated at the election, then no election for that purpose shall be ordered until after the expiration of one year from the date of the previous election.

(k) The separation of the schools from municipal control shall produce the following results:

(1) The school district shall have all the powers conferred upon independent school districts by the constitution and laws of the state, including the rights to assess, levy, and collect taxes and issue bonds for school purposes.

(2) Any and all maintenance and/or bond taxes previously voted, authorized, and/or levied on the taxable properties situated within the limits of the municipal school district shall be continued in full force by the independent school district.

(3) The board of trustees of the independent school district shall consist of seven members.

(4) The members of the board of trustees of the municipal school district shall continue as members of the board of trustees of the independent school district until the term for which they have been elected or appointed, as the case may be, shall have expired or until their successors have been elected or qualified.

(5) In the event the board of trustees of the municipal school district consisted of fewer than seven members, those serving shall appoint a sufficient number of new trustees to bring the total membership of the board to seven members, the appointees to serve in accordance with the general law governing the election and tenure of office of independent school district trustees.

(6) At the expiration of the terms of office of the existing trustees, election of trustees shall be held in compliance with the general law relating to the election of trustees in independent school districts as provided in Chapter 28 of this code.

(a) Any municipal school district, established either under the terms of Section 19.161 of this code or under any other prior statutory authority, may be separated from municipal control and become a common school district, without the dual character theretofore possessed by the school corporation of the city or town, under the provisions of this section.

(b) A petition signed by 100 or more of the resident qualified voters of the municipal school district and praying for an election on the proposition of whether or not the public schools shall have divorced from municipal control, shall be presented to the board of trustees of the municipal school district. The board of trustees of the municipal school district shall certify the petition to the governing body of the city or town.

(c) Upon receipt of the petition and certification, the governing body of the city or town shall fix a date not more than 10 days thereafter for the holding of a joint meeting of the governing body of the city or town and the board of trustees of the municipal school district. At the joint meeting, the governing body of the city or town and the board of trustees of the municipal school district, acting jointly as one body, the mayor or chairman of the governing body presiding, shall order an election as prayed for in the petition.

(d) The election shall be held not more than 30 days nor less than 10 days thereafter. At least 10 days notice of the election shall be given.

(e) Every person who has attained the age of 21 years and who has resided within the limits of the municipal school district for six months next preceding the date of election, and who is a qualified
§ 19.167  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 386
elector under the laws of this State shall be entitled to vote.

(f) The ballots for use at the election shall have printed thereon the words: "For the separation of the public schools from municipal control and converting same into a common school district," and "Against the separation of the public schools from municipal control and converting same into a common school district."

(g) In all respects not specifically covered herein, the election shall be conducted as nearly as possible in compliance with the law with reference to regular city elections in the town or city.

(h) The governing body of the city or town shall immediately canvass the returns of the election and certify the results to the board of trustees of the municipal school district, together with a certified copy of the record showing all proceedings in respect of the election.

(i) If a majority of the qualified voters, voting at the election in the municipal school district, vote in favor of the separation of the public school from municipal control and in favor of creating a common school district therefor and if the board of trustees of the municipal school district finds that the election has been in all respects lawfully held and the returns thereof duly and legally made to the governing body of the city or town, then it shall by resolution duly passed and entered of record, declare that the public schools of the municipal school district have been separated from municipal control, and that the name of the school district shall there be "_____ Common School District," inserting the name of the city or town.

(j) If the proposition shall be defeated at the election, then no election for that purpose shall be ordered until after the expiration of one year from the date of the previous election.

(k) The separation of the schools from municipal control shall produce the following results:

1. The members of the board of trustees of the municipal school district shall continue to serve as the board of trustees of the common school district until a special election can be held for choosing their successors and until such successors have been duly elected and qualified.

2. The commissioners court of the county, pursuant to its duties in connection with common school districts, shall order an election for the purpose of naming a board of trustees of the school district as provided in Section 22.00 of this code.

3. The elected trustees of the common school district shall conduct the affairs of the district as provided in Chapter 22 of this code.

4. The title and rights to all property owned, held, set apart or in any way dedicated to the use of the public schools of the city or town, and/or heretofore vested in the city or town and/or the mayor, chairman of the commission, city council, city commission, or board of school trustees of the city or town prior to separation shall be vested in the board of trustees of the common school district.

5. All bonds issued by and outstanding against the city or town as a municipal school district, and all obligations, contracts, and indebtedness existing against the city or town as a municipal school district shall become the obligations and debts of the school district at the time of its separation from municipal control, and the same shall be enforceable and collectible from, paid off and discharged by the common school district as if originally created by it as a common school district; and it shall not be necessary to call an election within and for such district for the purpose of assuming such bonds and other indebtedness.

SUBCHAPTER G. CONVERSION OF COMMON SCHOOL DISTRICT TO INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

§ 19.201. Qualifications

(a) Any common school district possessing the qualifications specified below may, by the method herein provided, form an incorporation for free school purposes only and become an independent school district.

(b) In order to become an independent school district under the terms of Sections 19.202–19.205 of this code, the common school district must:

1. have 165 inhabitants or more;
2. contain an area of not less than 83 square miles;
3. have an assessed property valuation of not less than $3,000,000; and
4. not include within its bounds any municipally incorporated town or village which has assumed control of the public free schools within its limits.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2875, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Whenever it is desired that any common school district possessing the qualifications set out in Section 19.201 of this code become incorporated, there shall be presented to the county judge a petition which shall:

1. be signed by 20 or a majority of the resident qualified voters of the common school district;
2. contain a definite description by metes and bounds of the common school district proposed to be incorporated;
3. recite the name by which the independent school district should be known;
4. pray for an election to determine whether the common school district shall be incorporated as an independent school district; and
5. pray for the election of seven trustees.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2875, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 19.203. Election Order; Notice

(a) If the county judge finds that the petition fulfills the requirements of Section 19.202 of this code and that the facts contained therein are true, he shall:

(1) enter his order upon the minutes of the commissioners court granting the petition;
(2) specify in the order the place or places and a date, within 20 days of the order, at which the election shall be held;
(3) appoint in the order a presiding officer for the place of each of the places of election;
(4) describe in the order the proposition to be submitted together with a definite description by metes and bounds of the common school district proposed to be incorporated;
(5) issue a notice of the election stating in substance the contents of the election order and the time and place or places of the election; and
(6) cause the sheriff not less than 10 days prior to the date set for the election to post a copy of the notice of election in three different public places within the boundaries of the common school district as described in the election order.

(b) Whenever the county judge shall enter his order for an incorporation election, as provided above, he shall at the same time order an election to be held for the selection of a board of trustees to consist of seven members. Notice of the election for trustees shall be given the same time and in the same manner as provided for the giving of notice for the incorporation election. The election of trustees shall be held at the same time, under the same rules, and by the same officers as the incorporation election.

§ 19.204. Election
The election shall be held under the provisions of the laws of this State regulating general elections except as otherwise provided herein. Only qualified voters who are residents of the common school district proposed to be incorporated shall be entitled to vote. The officers holding the election shall make returns of the results thereof to the county judge. The county judge shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the election.

§ 19.205. Incorporation; Trustees; Organization
(a) If a majority vote favors the incorporation of the district, the county judge shall enter upon the minutes of the commissioners court an order incorporating the school district and cause the county clerk to record a certified copy of the order in the deed records of the county. The independent school district shall thereafter be regarded as duly incorporated for free school purposes only and shall be vested with all the rights, powers, and privileges conferred and imposed upon independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this Code.¹

(b) The county judge shall issue his certificate of election to each of the seven candidates for the office of trustee who received the greatest number of votes cast. Upon the issuance of the certificate of election and the taking by the trustees of the official oath of office the trustees shall be deemed to have qualified and shall immediately enter upon the discharge of their duties.

(c) The trustees elected at the incorporation election shall organize as provided in Chapter 23 of this Code but shall hold office only until the first Saturday in April next succeeding and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified.

(d) Upon notice to the commissioner of education, the independent school district shall be entitled to receive the share of the available school fund to which the district is entitled. No incorporated town or village included within the boundaries of the independent school district may thereafter acquire any right to take or assume control of the public free schools within its limits.

¹Section 23.01 et seq.

§ 19.206. Conversion of District With 12-Grade School
(a) Any common school district in which there is maintained an accredited school of 12 grades, including a high school offering 16 or more credits, may become an independent school district under the terms of this section.

(b) A petition signed by 20 or a majority of the legally qualified property taxpaying voters residing in the common school district and praying for an election to determine whether the common school district shall be incorporated shall be presented to the county judge.

(c) Upon receipt of the petition, the county judge shall issue an order calling for an election to be held not less than 20 nor more than 30 days from the date of the filing of the petition for the purpose of determining whether the common school district shall be converted into an independent school district.

(d) After the election is held, the commissioners court shall canvass the returns thereof as in other similar elections and declare the results thereof. If the majority of the votes cast favor the change from a common school district to independent school district, the county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, shall:

(1) pass such order or orders as may be necessary creating the independent school district; and
(2) appoint a board of seven members, all of whom shall possess the qualifications of school trustees and all of whom shall serve until the next regular trustee election under the laws of this state, at which time seven members shall be elected.

§ 19.207. Law Governing District
Any independent school district established in compliance with this subchapter shall be governed and controlled as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.¹

SUBCHAPTER H. CONSOLIDATION OF SCHOOL DISTRICTS

§ 19.231. Districts Which May Consolidate

(a) Subject to the limitation of Subchapter K of this chapter, any of the following groups of school districts may, by the procedure described in this subchapter, consolidate into a single school district:

1. two or more contiguous common or county-line common school districts;
2. two or more contiguous independent or county-line independent school districts;
3. one or more independent or county-line independent school districts and one or more common or county-line common school districts constituting as a whole one continuous territory;
4. a rural high school district and one or more contiguous common or county-line common school districts;
5. one or more rural high school districts and one or more independent or county-line independent school districts, where all of the districts constitute as a whole one continuous territory.

(b) The combined districts may all be located wholly within a single county, or they may be located in adjoining counties; or the combined districts may be composed of one or more districts located wholly within one or more counties and one or more county line districts.

1 Section 19.331 et seq.

§ 19.232. Petition

A petition signed by 20 or a majority of the legally qualified voters of each of the several contiguous school districts proposed to be consolidated and praying for an election to authorize the consolidation shall be presented to the county judge of the county in which the school districts are located, or if one or more districts to be consolidated is a county-line district, the county judge of the county in which the school districts are located, or if one or more districts to be consolidated is a county-line district, then the respective counties; if more than one county is involved, meet in a joint meeting to:

1. select a name by which the new consolidated school district shall be known; and
2. designate the county which shall have the supervision of the new consolidated school district.

§ 19.233. Election Order; Notice

Upon the receipt of a petition fulfilling the qualifications of Section 19.232 of this code, each county shall:

1. issue an order for an election to be held on the same day in each district included in the proposed consolidated district; and
2. give notice of the date and purpose of the election by publication of the order in some newspaper published in the county for at least 20 days prior to the date on which the elections are to be held, or by posting a notice of the election in each of the districts or by both publication and posted notice.

§ 19.234. Canvass; Result

(a) The commissioners court of the county (or the commissioners court of the several counties, if more than one county is involved) shall at the next meeting thereof, canvass the returns of the election in each district voting and publish the results separately for each district.

(b) If the votes cast in each and all districts show a majority in each district voting separately in favor of the consolidation, the commissioners court (or the commissioners courts of the several counties, if more than one county is involved) shall declare the school districts consolidated. If less than a majority of the votes cast in any one of the districts is in favor of the consolidation, then another election involving the same consolidation proposal may not be held until at least one year has elapsed since the date of the election.

§ 19.235. Consolidation of Common School Districts

(a) When common school districts are consolidated together, regardless of whether or not one or more of the districts may be a common county-line district, the consolidated district shall be classed as a common school district and shall be named and governed as provided by this section.

(b) The trustees of each district participating in the consolidation shall, upon notification and at the time and place specified by the commissioners court or commissioners courts of the county or counties involved, meet in a joint meeting to:

1. select a name by which the new consolidated school district shall be known; and
2. designate the county which shall have the supervision of the new consolidated school district.

(c) The county governing board of the county having supervision of the new consolidated school district shall appoint a board of seven trustees for the new consolidated school district who shall serve until the next April election or until their successors shall qualify.

(d) The new common consolidated school district shall thereafter be governed and controlled as provided in Chapter 22 of this code.

1 Section 22.01 et seq.

§ 19.236. Consolidation Involving Independent School District

When two or more independent school districts are consolidated together or when one or more independent school districts are consolidated with one or more independent school districts, the consolidated district shall be classed as an independent school district and shall be named and governed according to Section 19.237 or 19.238 of this code, whichever is applicable.

(a) If only one independent school district is consolidated with one or more common school districts, the provisions of this section apply.
§ 19.242

(b) The consolidated district shall bear the name of the independent school district.

c) The board of trustees of the independent school district shall serve as the board of trustees of the consolidated district until the next regular election of trustees, at which time the consolidated district shall elect a board of seven trustees, unless the scholastic population of the independent school district is in excess of five times that of the other district or districts consolidating with it, in which event the trustees of the independent school district shall continue to serve for the terms for which they have been elected and only the vacancies, as they occur, shall be filled from the consolidated district.

d) The powers, duties, and terms of office of the trustees shall be in accordance with the general laws governing independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.

§ 19.238. Consolidation Involving Two or More Independent School Districts

(a) If two or more independent school districts are included in the consolidation, the provisions of this section apply.

(b) The consolidated district shall bear the name as prescribed in the petition for consolidation and shall include “Consolidated Independent School District.”

c) The board of trustees of the independent school district having the greater or greatest number of scholastics at the time of consolidation shall serve as the board of trustees of the consolidated district until the next regular election of trustees, at which time the consolidated district shall elect a board of seven trustees, at least two of whom shall be elected from the area of each former independent district included in the consolidation, unless the scholastic population of the larger or largest independent school district is in excess of five times that of the other district or districts consolidating with it, in which event the trustees of the larger or largest district shall continue to serve for the terms for which they have been elected and only the vacancies, as they occur, shall be filled from the consolidated district.

d) The powers, duties, and terms of office of the trustees shall be in accordance with the general laws governing independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.1

§ 19.239. Consolidation of Common and Rural High School Districts

(a) When one or more common school districts are consolidated with a rural high school district, the consolidated district shall, if there be no bonded indebtedness in any district involved or if any bonded indebtedness is adjusted as specified below, take form of such rural high school district and be governed by the board of trustees of the rural high school district if all parts had originally been included in the rural high school district.

(b) In case of any outstanding bonded indebtedness in any district participating in the consolidation, an election shall be held to determine whether or not the common school district or districts or the rural high school district shall assume its or their pro rata share of the indebtedness.

c) The consolidation shall not become effective until after the election, adjusting the bonded indebtedness. In case the election fails to be carried, the consolidation shall be held for naught and such districts shall remain in their original status.

§ 19.240. Consolidation of Rural and Independent Districts

When one or more rural high school districts are consolidated with one or more independent school districts, the consolidation district shall be classed as an independent school district and shall be named and governed according to Section 19.241 or Section 19.242 of this code, whichever is applicable.

§ 19.241. One Independent District

(a) If only one independent school district is involved in the consolidation, the provisions of this section apply.

(b) The consolidated district shall bear the name of the independent school district.

c) The board of trustees of the independent school district shall serve as the board of trustees of the consolidated district until the next regular election of trustees, at which time the consolidated district shall elect a board of seven trustees, unless the scholastic population of the independent school district is in excess of five times that of the other district or combined districts consolidating with it, in which event the trustees of the independent school district shall continue to serve for the terms for which they have been elected and only the vacancies, as they occur, shall be filled from the consolidated district.

d) The powers, duties, and terms of office of the trustees shall be in accordance with the general laws governing independent school districts as provided in Chapter 23 of this code.1

§ 19.242. Two Independent Districts

(a) If two or more independent school districts are included in the consolidation, the provisions of this section apply.

(b) The consolidated district shall bear the name prescribed in the petitions for consolidation and shall include “Consolidated Independent School District.”

c) The board of trustees of the independent school district having the greater or greatest number of scholastics at the time of consolidation shall serve as the board of trustees of the consolidated district until the next regular election of trustees, at which time the consolidated district shall elect a board of seven trustees at least two of whom shall be elected from the area of each former independent school district included in the consolidation, unless the scholastic population of the larger or largest independent school district participating in the consolidation is in excess of five times that of the other district or combined districts consolidating with it, in which event the trustees of the larger or largest independent school district shall continue to serve until their terms expire and only the vacancies, as they occur, shall be filled from the consolidated district.

(d) The powers, duties, and terms of office of the trustees shall be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 23 of this code.1

Section 23.01 et seq.

§ 19.243. Assumption of Debt

(a) If at the time of the proposed consolidation there are outstanding bonds of any district included in the proposed consolidation, an election shall be held to determine whether or not the consolidated district shall assume and pay off the outstanding bonds and levy a tax therefor.

(b) The election may be held after consolidation has been accomplished on the call of the trustees of the consolidated district as authorized in Subchapter O of this chapter.1

(c) The election may be held on the same day upon which the election on the question of consolidation is held provided that separate notices, separate ballots, separate ballot boxes, and separate tally sheets are provided for the two separate elections.

(d) If at an election, either on the day of the consolidation election or on some future day, a majority of the voters vote to assume and pay off the bonded indebtedness of the district or districts consolidating, then the bonded indebtedness shall become valid and subsisting obligations of the consolidated district, and the proper officers thereof shall annually thereafter levy sufficient taxes to pay the interest thereon as it accrues and to create a sinking fund which, in addition to the sinking funds already accumulated in the original bonded district, will pay off and retire the outstanding bonds when they become due.

1 Section 19.461 et seq.

§ 19.244. Dissolution of Consolidated School Districts

(a) Any consolidated school district, may be dissolved and the districts included therein restored to their original status by the same procedure provided for consolidation, except that it shall not be necessary to provide polling places in each district.

(b) When dissolution is brought about by majority vote of the qualified voters of the consolidated district, each of the restored districts shall assume and be liable for its prorata part of the outstanding financial obligations of the consolidated district, each prorata part to be based on the relation that the total assessed valuation of all property in the original district bears to the total assessed valuation of property in the consolidated district.

(c) No election for the dissolution of a consolidated district shall be held until three years have elapsed after the date of the election at which the districts were consolidated.

§ 19.245. Dissolution of County-Line Consolidated School Districts

(a) A county-line consolidated school district may be dissolved as provided by this section whenever the consolidated school district fails to operate a public free school.

(b) A petition signed by 20 or a majority of the qualified voters of the county-line district shall be filed with the county judge of the county in which that portion of the district desiring to be dissolved is situated.

(c) Upon the filing of such a petition, the county judge shall call an election to be held at some designated place in the district.

(d) If a majority of the votes cast at the election favor dissolution, the boundaries of the original districts, before consolidation, shall be reapportioned by order of the county judge. Thereafter, the consolidated county-line school district shall cease to exist insofar as it shall relate to that portion of the district in which the election was held.

(e) Dissolution of the district under the terms of this section shall not operate to relieve any one of the original districts from assuming and bearing its prorata part of the total indebtedness of the consolidated county-line school district; and any indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, shall be borne proportionately by the original districts comprising the county-line school district.

[Sections 19.246 to 19.260 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER I. DETACHMENT AND ANNEXATION OF TERRITORY

§ 19.261. Detachment and Annexation

(a) The county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, in each county of this state shall have the authority, when duly petitioned as herein provided and in compliance with the limitations of Subchapter K of this chapter,1 to detach from and annex to any school district territory contiguous to the common boundary line of the two districts.

(b) The petition requesting detachment and annexation must:

(1) be signed by a majority of the qualified voters residing in the territory to be detached from one district and added to the other; and

(2) give the metes and bounds of the territory to be detached from one district and added to the other.

(c) The proposed annexation must be approved by a majority of the board of trustees of the district to which the annexation is to be made.

(d) Unless the petition is signed by a majority of the trustees of the district from which the territory is to be detached, no school district territory may be detached where the ratio of the number of scholastics residing in the area to be detached to the total number of the scholastics residing in the district from which the territory is to be detached is less than...
than one-half the ratio of the assessed valuation (based on preceding year valuations) in the territory to be detached to the total assessed valuation (based on the preceding year valuations) of the district from which the area is to be detached.

(e) No school district may be reduced to an area of less than nine square miles.

(f) Upon receipt of the petition and notice of the approval as required by this section, the county governing board shall notify the trustees of any other common school districts which may be affected by any contemplated change and specify the place and date at which a hearing on the matter shall be held and at which the trustees of any common school district to be affected shall be given an opportunity to be heard.

(g) After the conclusion of the hearing, the county governing board may pass an order transferring the territory and redefining the boundaries of the district affected by the transfer. The order shall be recorded in the minutes of the county governing board.

(h) Any outstanding indebtedness affected by a change in boundaries shall be adjusted by the county governing board as provided in Subchapter N of this chapter.1

1 Section 19.331 et seq.

2 Section 19.431 et seq.

§ 19.262. Annexation of Districts in Larger Counties

(a) In every county in this state having a population of 210,000 or more according to the last preceding Federal census, any school district may be annexed to any contiguous independent school district as herein provided.

(b) There shall be presented to the county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, a petition which shall:

(1) request annexation to a specified independent school district;

(2) state the metes and bounds of the district proposed to be annexed; and

(3) be signed by a majority of the board of trustees of the district seeking annexation or by not less than 20 qualified voters of such district.

(c) The proposed annexation must be approved by a majority of the board of trustees of the independent school district to which the petitioning district seeks to be annexed.

(d) Upon receipt of the petition and notice of approval, the county governing board, if the proposed annexation appears to it to be in the best interest of the districts affected, shall enter its order for an election to be held within the petitioning district at its expense.

(e) The following propositions shall be submitted at the election: “For the annexation of School District to School District” and the contrary thereof.

(f) No election in the receiving district shall be necessary on the question of annexation and the governing board of the receiving independent school district, without the necessity of an additional election, shall have the power to assess, levy and collect ad valorem taxes on all taxable property within the boundaries of the district as changed, for the purposes of the maintenance of public free schools therein, and the payment of principal of and interest on all bonded indebtedness outstanding against, or attributable, adjusted or allocated to, such district or any territory therein, in the amount, at the rate, or not to exceed the rate, and in the manner authorized in the district prior to the change in its boundaries, and further in accordance with the laws under which all such bonds, respectively, were voted; and such governing body also shall have the power, without the necessity of an additional election, to sell and deliver any unissued bonds voted in the district prior to any such change in boundaries, and to assess, levy and collect ad valorem taxes on all taxable property in the district as changed, for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds in the manner permitted by the laws under which such bonds were voted.

(g) The county governing board and the board of trustees of the receiving district shall each enter an order on its minutes:

(1) declaring the petitioning district to be duly annexed to the receiving district and subject to all the laws governing the same; and

(2) redefining the boundaries of the receiving district showing the annexation.

(h) A certified copy of the order of the county governing board shall be transmitted to the county clerk of the county and recorded in the “Record of School Districts” of the county.

(i) Title to all property, real and personal, of the annexed district shall vest in the receiving district. The receiving district shall have complete authority over and management of the public schools in the territory annexed.

(j) The receiving district shall assume all outstanding indebtedness of the annexed district, bonded or otherwise. Any tax in effect in the receiving independent school district shall continue and become effective and apply to the entire independent district as constituted after annexation is completed.

(k) The independent receiving district shall continue as the same district and operate in all respects as it was prior to the annexation except that the annexed territory shall become liable for all indebtedness, subject to all taxes, and be a part thereof for all purposes as though originally included in the independent district.

§ 19.263. Creation of Districts in Response to Petition for Detachment

(a) Subject to the limitations contained in Subchapter K of this chapter,1 and in conformity with the following provisions, new school districts, either independent or common, may be created by detaching territory from existing contiguous districts and uniting such territory into a new district.

(b) A petition requesting the creation of a new school district shall:

(1) give the metes and bounds of the proposed new district;

(2) be signed by a majority of the qualified voters residing in each territory to be detached from an existing district; and
§ 19.263  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 392

(3) be addressed to the county governing board of the county in which the territory of the proposed district is located, or, if the territory is in more than one county, to the county governing board of the county in which the principal school of the new district is to be located and in which the administrative jurisdiction of the proposed district is to be vested.

(e) The county governing board to which the petition is addressed must give notice of the proposed action in writing to the officers of the boards of trustees of each district whose area would be affected by the creation of the proposed district. The officers of the boards of trustees of each district to be affected must be given an opportunity to be heard by the county governing board to whom the petition is addressed.

(d) In the event the territory to be detached from any district exceeds 10 percent of the total area of the district, the proposed detachment must be approved in writing by a majority of the board of trustees of the district.

(e) No new district may be created within an area of less than nine square miles; and no district shall be reduced below an area of nine square miles.

(f) Any district affected, either remaining or newly created, must have sufficient taxable valuations to support an efficient school system.

(g) If all the requirements of this section are met, the county governing board to which the petition was addressed may enter its order creating the new school district. If the new district embraces territory in two or more counties, the orders affecting its establishment shall be coordinated by the county governing boards of each county concerned.

(h) At the time the order establishing the district is made, the county governing board having jurisdiction over the new district shall appoint a board of trustees for the new common or independent school district, as the case may be, to serve until the next regular election of trustees when a board of trustees shall be elected in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 22 of this code governing common school districts or the provisions of Chapter 23 of this code governing independent school districts, whichever is applicable.

(i) Any bonded indebtedness affected by the establishment of a new district shall be adjusted by the county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, as provided in Subchapter N of this chapter.

(j) Before any tax may be levied over the territory of the new district for the liquidation of its proportionate part of the outstanding bonded indebtedness of any district from which the territory of the new district was taken, the new district shall vote to assume the indebtedness and to authorize the levy of the necessary taxes.

(k) Such elections shall be held in accordance with the provisions governing bond tax elections in a common or independent school district, whichever is applicable.

(l) A new district, when created in compliance with the terms of this section, shall have all the rights and privileges of an independent or a common school district.

§ 19.301. Extension of Municipal Boundaries: Counties of Less Than 165,000

(a) In any county with a total population of fewer than 165,000 according to the last preceding federal census, whenever the limits of any incorporated city or town constituting an independent school district are so extended or enlarged as to embrace the whole or any part of any school district, independent or common, that portion so embraced within the corporate limits of the city or town shall, unless specifically determined otherwise as provided in Subsection (c) of this section, automatically become a part of the independent school district constituted by the incorporated city or town.

(b) If within a portion of a district so embraced there should be situated any real property belonging to the partially embraced district, the city or town may acquire the property upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the governing body of such city or town and the authorities of the district.

(c) If it is determined by majority vote of those voting at an election held within the city or town that the territory or any portion thereof to be embraced within the corporate limits shall not thereby become a part of the independent school district constituted by the city or town but shall be taken into the city limits for municipal purposes only, the embraced territory shall continue to be included within the school district or districts in which it had previously been included as though the city limits had not been extended.

(d) When the corporate limits of any city or town are extended to include therein the whole or any part of any school district having an outstanding bonded indebtedness and the extension was not limited to municipal purposes only, the city or town shall become liable and bound for the payment of such proportion of the bonded indebtedness of the district as the assessed value of the included portion bears to the entire assessed value of the district from which it was taken. The assessed values of the district so included shall be those shown upon the last preceding tax assessment roll after the district is so included. The incorporated city or town shall pay either directly or through the officers of the district the proportion of the interest and principal of the bonded indebtedness for which it is liable.

§ 19.302. Counties of 165,000 or More

(a) In any county with a total population of 165,000 or more according to the last preceding census, whenever the limits of any incorporated city or town are extended or enlarged to include additional territory or whenever any territory is annexed to any incorporated city or town, the extension or enlargement of the limits of the incorporated city or town shall be for municipal purposes only and shall not automatically bring about any change in any existing school district or districts situated in the annexed area.

(b) After the territory has been included in or annexed to the incorporated city or town, the county governing board of the county or counties in which the districts are situated may, with the approval specified in Subsection (c) of this section, annex the territory to any contiguous school district as specified in Section 19.261 of this code.

c) Any subdivision of or annexation to any existing school district under the terms of this section must be approved by a majority of the school trustees of each school district affected.

SUBCHAPTER K. CHANGES IN BOUNDARIES OF INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICTS

§ 19.331. Nine-Member Board; County of 100,000 or More

No change in the boundaries of an independent school district governed by an elective board of nine members and located in a county having a population of 100,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census may be made or effected, whether by election or by order of the county governing board or by any other method, until and unless the proposed change has been approved by a majority of the governing board of the independent school district.

§ 19.332. District With 30,220 or More Scholastics

No election shall be ordered for the purpose of determining whether or not territory shall be added to any independent school district having 30,220 or more scholastics according to the last official scholastic census unless prior to the ordering of the election, the proposed addition of territory has been approved by a majority vote of the board of trustees of the independent school district to which the territory is proposed to be added.

[Sections 19.333 to 19.360 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER L. ABOLITION OF INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICTS

§ 19.361. Abolition of Independent School Districts

Subject to the limitation on elections in Section 19.365 of this code, any independent school district incorporated for free school purposes under the laws of Texas may be abolished in the manner provided by this subchapter.

§ 19.362. Petition

A petition requesting the abolition of the district and signed by at least 10 percent of the qualified voters residing in the district shall be presented to the county judge of the county in which the independent school district or a part thereof is situated.

§ 19.363. Election

(a) Upon the receipt of such a petition, the county judge shall:

(1) issue an order designating the time and place within the school district and within the county of his court at which there shall be held an election to determine whether the independent school district shall be abolished;

(2) appoint to preside at the election an officer who shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding the election; and

(3) cause notice of the election to be given by posting advertisement for at least ten days prior to the date of the election at three public places within the independent school district.

(b) Except as herein provided, the election shall be held in the manner prescribed by law for holding general elections.

(c) All persons who are legally qualified voters of the state and of the county in which the independent school district or part thereof is situated and who have resided within the independent school district for at least six months next preceding shall be entitled to vote.

(d) The officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the county judge within 10 days after the election is held.

§ 19.364. Order Abolishing District

If a majority of the voters, voting at the election, shall vote to abolish the independent school district, the county judge shall declare the independent school district abolished and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the commissioners court and from the date of such order, the independent school district shall cease to exist.

§ 19.365. Limitation on Elections

Within any 12-month period not more than one election shall be held on either:

(1) the question of abolishing an independent school district; or

(2) the question of creating an independent school district out of territory formerly comprising an independent district which has been abolished within the preceding 12 months.

§ 19.366. Disposition of Territory

All of the territory of an abolished independent school district must be created into a common school district or be annexed to or included within some other contiguous district or districts, and its property and affairs, unless otherwise controlled by the manner in which the district was abolished, shall be regulated as herein provided.

§ 19.367. Territory Formerly Two or More Common School Districts

(a) Upon the abolishment of an independent school district heretofore created by local or special

§ 19.367
law out of territory theretofore containing two or more common school districts, the common school districts shall immediately come into existence by operation of law with the same boundaries they had prior to the creation of the independent school district.

(b) All funds, property, rights, and liabilities of the abolished independent school district may be divided between the common school districts by agreement of the trustees of the common school districts.

(c) In the event the district trustees are unable to agree, the county governing board shall apportion the funds, property, rights, and liabilities of the abolished independent district between the common school districts in an equitable and just manner, taking into consideration the property owned and the assets and liabilities of each common school district at the time of the creation of the independent district as well as the assets and liabilities coming into existence after the formation of the independent district.

(d) Any bonds issued by one of the common school districts prior to the creation of the independent school district shall be paid and retired by the common school district issuing the same. Taxes for the payment of the bonded indebtedness shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other taxes voted by a common school district. Any amounts paid of the abolished independent school district in connection with such bond issue shall be paid back by the common school district issuing the bonds to such an extent as will be necessary to reimburse the other common school district or districts for its or their proportionate part of the payment.

(e) Any debt incurred by the abolished independent school district, the benefits of which will accrue particularly to one of the common school districts, shall be taken over by that common school district.

(f) High school children in a common school district within the territory of the abolished independent school district shall have the right to attend, without tuition, any other common school district within the territory formerly composing the independent school district provided the common school district so chosen does not have a scholastic population of more than 350.

§ 19.368. Territory Formerly Single District or Parts of Several Districts

(a) Upon the abolishment of an independent school district created out of territory formerly comprising a single common school district and/or consisting of parts of several districts and/or districts annexed thereto, the county governing board shall contain or embrace the territory of the abolished independent school district into a newly created common school district or shall annex the territory to one or more contiguous districts.

(b) When all the territory embraced within the abolished independent school district is created into a common school district or is annexed to or included within the limits of one other district, title to all property, both real and personal, belonging to the abolished independent school districts shall be vested in the other school district or its governing officers.

(c) When the territory of the abolished independent school district is subdivided and annexed to two or more other school districts, all real property, improvements, and appurtenances belonging to the abolished independent school district shall become the property of the districts to which these properties are annexed, and all personal property shall be divided between the receiving districts in proportion to the assessed property value of the part of the abolished independent school district so annexed.

(d) When at the time of its abolishment the independent school district had no outstanding indebtedness, all uncollected taxes on the property of the district for the years up to and including the last day of January of the year following that in which the independent school district is abolished shall be levied and collected, at the same rate and in the same manner as authorized for the independent school district immediately prior to its abolishment, by the school district or districts to which the territory containing the property upon which taxes are due has been annexed.

(e) When at the time of its abolishment the independent school district had outstanding bonds or other indebtedness, enforceable either at law or in equity, the school district or districts to which the territory of the abolished independent school district has been annexed may, at an election held for that purpose, assume such bonds or other indebtedness. The election shall be held in the manner provided for holding an election for voting bonds or for voting a special tax, as the case may be, within the receiving school district as provided in Chapter 20 of this code. If a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters within the receiving district vote in favor of assuming the indebtedness, all property within the receiving district, not exempt under the general law, shall be subject to taxation for the payment of the bonds or other indebtedness of the abolished independent school district, and the proper officers of the receiving district shall levy upon the property of the district a tax adequate for the payment of the bonds or other indebtedness over such a period of time as may be necessary for that purpose.

(f) In the event the qualified taxpaying voters of the receiving district or districts do not by majority vote assume the outstanding bonds and other indebtedness of the abolished independent school district, all taxes against the property of the abolished independent school district shall remain in full force and effect and shall be levied and collected by the proper officers of the district or districts to which the territory of the abolished independent school district has been annexed until the entire indebtedness is fully paid.

(g) In the event the qualified taxpaying voters of the receiving district or districts do not by majority vote assume the outstanding bonds and other indebtedness of the abolished independent school district, the county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, shall manage, control or dispose of all property within the county belonging to the abolished independent school district. The county governing board shall have the power to do any and all things necessary for the payment of such bonds or other indebtedness which the independent school district, or the trustees thereof, could have done had the independent school district not been abolished. The county governing board shall also have the power to levy and collect taxes, and the power to bring and defend litigation in the name of the independent school district.

(h) Any creditor of an abolished independent school district shall file his claim against the district with the county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, within 60 days after the independent school district has been abolished and, if the claim is not allowed, may maintain suit against the abolished independent school district as such. Service in a suit, if necessary, may be had upon the chief officer of the county governing board. The county governing board shall defend any suit against an abolished independent school but may, in its discretion, make such settlement of the litigation as may be deemed advisable.

[Sections 19.369 to 19.400 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER M. ABOLITION OR SUBDIVISION OF COMMON SCHOOL DISTRICTS

§ 19.401. Authority of County Governing Board

(a) The county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, may abolish and annex or subdivide any common school district located entirely within its county, provided that a formal application or request is submitted by the trustees of the common school district. Said application or request shall not affect the authority of the county school trustees or county board of education, as the case may be, to determine if the common school district should be abolished, annexed or subdivided.

(b) The territory of the district so abolished shall be annexed to a single contiguous independent school district, or subdivided and annexed to one or more contiguous independent school districts located entirely within its county, in such manner as may be determined by order of the county governing board.

§ 19.402. Adjustment of Bonded Debt

The county governing board shall also, at the time of abolishing or subdividing a common school district, make an adjustment of outstanding bonded indebtedness, if there be such, and provide for an equitable distribution of all district properties as specified in Subchapter N of this chapter.1

1 Section 19.431 et seq.

§ 19.403. Appeal

Any trustee or any resident of a district or territory affected by the action of the county governing board, as authorized by this subchapter, may appeal from the decision of the county governing board to the district court of the county in which the governing board acts.

[Sections 19.404 to 19.430 reserved for expansion]
(d) The new bonds, when so issued, shall be subject to exchange for the outstanding bonds for which the district issuing them shall still be liable, according to the order adjusting the indebtedness. In the event an exchange of the new bonds for the outstanding bonds cannot be made, the new bonds of the district, to the amount of the old bonds for which it is still liable and to which no exchange can be made, shall be deposited in the county treasury to the account of the district.

(e) Taxes shall be levied and assessed only for the payment of interest, sinking fund, and principal of the new bonds so issued. The funds arising from taxation shall be used to discharge the principal and interest of such new bonds as have been issued and exchanged and such old bonds as have not been exchanged.

(f) When taxes are collected applicable to new bonds not exchanged and the proceeds applied to payment on old bonds not exchanged, the corresponding new bonds in the county treasury shall be credited with such payment and retired as the old un-exchanged bonds are retired.

§ 19.436. Failure of Bond Election

(a) If a refunding bond election held to carry out the orders of the county governing board fails to secure approval of a majority of the voters voting at such election or if the county governing board is unable otherwise to arrange an adjustment or settlement of outstanding bonded indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the county governing board to certify to the commissioners court that the bonded indebtedness of the territories affected by the changes has not been adjusted.

(b) Upon receipt of such certification, it shall be the duty of the commissioners court thereafter annually to levy and cause to be assessed and collected from the taxpayers of the districts as they existed before the changes were made, the tax necessary to pay the interest, the sinking fund, and the principal of the indebtedness as it matures.

(c) It shall be the duty of each independent school district so affected to cause all funds in its hands, whether sinking funds or otherwise, which have been collected on account of such bonded indebtedness, to be transferred to the county treasurer of the county in which the district is situated, and the district shall thereafter cease to levy and collect any tax on account of such bonds.

(d) It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to keep all funds transferred by independent school districts affected and all funds collected by the taxation authorized in Subsection (b) of this section in separate accounts and apply the same only to the discharge of the existing bonded indebtedness and the interest thereon, it matures.

§ 19.437. Discretion of County Governing Board

The county school trustees or county boards of education as the case may be, shall not be restricted to the method of adjusting bonded indebtedness set out in the preceding sections of this subchapter, but they shall have full power and authority to make any legal and equitable adjustment and settlement that can be effected to adjust the bonded indebtedness of any district affected by any type of authorized boundary change.

[Sections 19.438 to 19.460 reserved for expansion]
§ 20.04. Bond and Tax Elections

(a) No such bonds shall be issued and none of the aforesaid taxes shall be levied unless authorized by a majority of the resident, qualified electors of the district, who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at an election held for such purpose, at the expense of the district, in accordance with the Texas Election Code, except as hereinafter provided. Each such election shall be called by resolution or order of such governing board or commissioners court, which shall set forth the date of the election, the proposition or propositions to be submitted and voted on, the polling place or places, and any other matters deemed necessary or advisable by such governing board or commissioners court.

(b) In each proposition submitted to authorize the issuance of bonds there shall be included the question of whether the governing board or commissioners court shall be authorized to levy and pledge, and cause to be assessed and collected, annual ad valorem taxes, on all taxable property in the district, either—

(1) sufficient, without limit as to rate or amount, to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds; or

(2) sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds, provided that the annual aggregate bond taxes in the district shall never be more than the rate (not to exceed $1 on the $100 valuation of taxable property in the district) stated in said proposition.

(c) If bonds are ever voted in a district pursuant to Subsection (b)(1) of this section, then all bonds thereafter proposed shall be submitted pursuant to that subsection, and Subsection (b)(2) of this section shall not be applicable to such district. No bonds shall be issued pursuant to Subsection (b)(1) of this section if the aggregate principal amount of tax bond indebtedness of the district after such issuance would be in excess of 10 percent of the assessed valuation of taxable property in the district according to the then last completed and approved ad valorem tax rolls of the district.

(d) In each proposition submitted to authorize the levy of maintenance taxes there shall be included the question of whether the governing board or commissioners court shall be authorized to levy, and cause to be assessed and collected, annual ad valorem taxes, for the further maintenance of public

SUBCHAPTER A. SCHOOL DISTRICT TAX BONDS AND MAINTENANCE TAXES

§ 20.01. Bonds and Bond Taxes

The governing board of each independent school district (including, as to each municipally controlled independent school district, the city council or commission which has jurisdiction thereof), and the governing board of each rural high school district, and the commissioners court of every county, for and on behalf of each common school district under its jurisdiction, shall be authorized to levy, and cause to be assessed and collected, annual ad valorem taxes for the further maintenance of public free schools in the district, subject to the provisions and restrictions of Section 20.04 of this code.

§ 20.03. Assessment of Property

In common school districts the value of taxable property shall be assessed on the same basis as that used for state and county purposes; but in all other school districts such value may be assessed on any basis authorized or permitted by any applicable law.

§ 20.04. Bond and Tax Elections

(a) No such bonds shall be issued and none of the aforesaid taxes shall be levied unless authorized by a majority of the resident, qualified electors of the district, who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at an election held for such purpose, at the expense of the district, in accordance with the Texas Election Code, except as hereinafter provided. Each such election shall be called by resolution or order of such governing board or commissioners court, which shall set forth the date of the election, the proposition or propositions to be submitted and voted on, the polling place or places, and any other matters deemed necessary or advisable by such governing board or commissioners court.

(b) In each proposition submitted to authorize the issuance of bonds there shall be included the question of whether the governing board or commissioners court shall be authorized to levy and pledge, and cause to be assessed and collected, annual ad valorem taxes, on all taxable property in the district, either—

(1) sufficient, without limit as to rate or amount, to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds; or

(2) sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds, provided that the annual aggregate bond taxes in the district shall never be more than the rate (not to exceed $1 on the $100 valuation of taxable property in the district) stated in said proposition.

(c) If bonds are ever voted in a district pursuant to Subsection (b)(1) of this section, then all bonds thereafter proposed shall be submitted pursuant to that subsection, and Subsection (b)(2) of this section shall not be applicable to such district. No bonds shall be issued pursuant to Subsection (b)(1) of this section if the aggregate principal amount of tax bond indebtedness of the district after such issuance would be in excess of 10 percent of the assessed valuation of taxable property in the district according to the then last completed and approved ad valorem tax rolls of the district.

(d) In each proposition submitted to authorize the levy of maintenance taxes there shall be included the question of whether the governing board or commissioners court shall be authorized to levy, and cause to be assessed and collected, annual ad valorem taxes, for the further maintenance of public free schools, of not to exceed the rate (which shall be not more than $1.50 on the $100 valuation of taxable property in the district) stated in said proposition.

(c) Notice of each such election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election resolution or order one time, at least 10 days prior to the date set for the election, in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. Such governing board or commissioners court shall canvass the returns and declare the results of such elections.

§ 20.05. Refunding Bonds

Each such governing board or commissioners court shall be authorized to refund or refinance all or any part of any of the district's outstanding bonds and matured but unpaid interest coupons payable from ad valorem taxes by the issuance of negotiable, coupon refunding bonds payable from ad valorem taxes. Said refunding bonds shall mature serially or otherwise not more than forty years from their date, and shall bear interest at such rate or rates, as shall be determined within the discretion of such governing board or commissioners court. Said refunding bonds may be issued without an election in connection therewith, provided that in no event shall any series or issue of refunding bonds be issued in a principal amount greater than the face or par value of the obligations being refunded thereby, and provided that if a maximum interest rate was voted for the bonds being refunded, the refunding bonds shall not bear interest at a rate higher than such voted maximum rate, and provided further that refunding bonds shall be payable from taxes of the same nature as those pledged to the payment of the obligations being refunded thereby. Said refunding bonds, and the interest coupons appurtenant thereto, shall be negotiable instruments and they may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denomination, and manner, and under such terms, conditions and details, and shall be signed and executed, as provided by the governing board or the commissioners court in the resolution or order authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds. The refunding bonds shall be issued and delivered in lieu of, and upon surrender to the comptroller of public accounts of Texas and cancellation of, the obligations being refunded thereby, and the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same in accordance with the provisions of the resolution or order authorizing the refunding bonds. Such refunding may be accomplished in one or in several installment deliveries. Said refunding bonds also may be issued and delivered in accordance with the provisions of and procedures authorized by any other applicable law. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2896, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 20.06. Examination of Bonds by the Attorney General

All bonds issued pursuant to this subchapter, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the attorney general of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with law he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts of the State of Texas; and after such approval and registration such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

§ 20.07. Bonds are Legal Investments

All bonds issued pursuant to this subchapter shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, small business investment corporations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies and bodies politic. Said bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2897, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

§ 20.08. Previously Voted Bonds and Taxes

All tax bonds voted in any school district in accordance with law but unissued at the effective date of this code may be issued in the manner provided by the law in effect at the time such bonds were voted, or issued in the manner provided in this subchapter, to the extent pertinent and applicable, without an additional election; and all maintenance taxes heretofore voted in any school district in accordance with law may be levied and collected in the manner provided by the law in effect at the time such bonds were voted, or issued in the manner provided in this subchapter, to the extent pertinent and applicable, without an additional election. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2897, ch. 889, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

[Sections 20.09 to 20.20 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. SCHOOL DISTRICT REVENUE BONDS

§ 20.21. Gymnasium, Stadia, and Other Recreational Facilities

The governing board of each independent school district (including, as to each municipally controlled independent school district, the city council or commission which has jurisdiction thereof) and the governing board of each rural high school district, and the commissioners court of every county, for and on behalf of each common school district under its jurisdiction, shall be authorized and have the power to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, operate, and maintain gymnasium, stadia, or other recreational facilities for and on behalf of its district, and such facilities may be located within or without the district.

§ 20.22. Revenue Bonds

For the purpose of providing funds to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, and/or equip gymnasiums, stadia, or other recreational facilities, such board or commissioners court shall be authorized to issue its revenue bonds to be payable from and secured by liens on and pledges of all or any part of any of the revenues from any rentals, rates, charges, or other revenues from any or all of such facilities, in the manner hereinafter provided. Said bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages and deeds of trust on any real property on which any of said facilities are or will be located, or any real or personal property incident or appurtenant to said facilities, and the board or the commissioners court may authorize the execution and delivery of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust or other forms of encumbrances to evidence same. Said bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise not to exceed 50 years from their date. In the authorization of any such bonds, each board or the commissioners court may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, or other types of bonds, under such terms or conditions as may be set forth in the resolution or order authorizing the issuance of said bonds, all within the discretion of the board or commissioners court. Said bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, shall be negotiable instruments (provided that such bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, as shall be determined and provided by the board or commissioners court in the resolution or order authorizing the issuance of said bonds. If so permitted in the bond resolution or order, any required part of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest thereon during the period of the construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of said bonds, and for the payment of operation and maintenance expenses of said facilities to the extent, and for the period of time, specified in said bond resolution, and also for the creation of reserves for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds; and such moneys may be invested, until needed, to the extent, and in the manner provided, in said bond resolution or order.

§ 20.23. Rentals, Rates, and Charges

The board or commissioners court shall be authorized to fix and collect rentals, rates, and charges, from students and others for the occupancy or use of any of said facilities, in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by such board or commissioners court.

types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies and bodies politic. Said bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

SUBCHAPTER C. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 20.41. Proceeds; Use for Water, Sewer or Gas Connections

Whenever bonds are hereafter voted and issued by school districts for the statutory purpose of construction and equipment of school buildings in the district and the purchase of the necessary sites therefor, the bond proceeds may be used, among other things, to pay the cost of acquiring, laying, and installing pipes or lines to connect with the water, sewer, or gas lines of an incorporated city or town, including home rule cities, or other municipal corporation, or private utility company (whether or not the water, sewer, or gas lines of such city, town, or other municipal corporation adjoin the school site or sites), so that the school district may afford its public free school buildings of the water, sewer, or gas services offered by such city, town, or other municipal corporation, or private utility company.

§ 20.42. Investment of Bond Proceeds in Obligations of United States; Interest Bearing Secured Time Bank Deposits

From and after the effective date of this code, any school district within the state which has or may have on hand any sums of money which are proceeds received from the issue and sale of bonds of any such school district, either before or after the effective date of this code, which proceeds are not immediately needed for the purposes for which such bonds were issued and sold, may, upon order of the board of trustees of such school district, place the proceeds of such bonds on interest bearing time deposit, secured in the manner provided in Section 23.63 of this code, with a state or national banking corporation within this state, or invest the proceeds of such bonds in bonds of the United States of America or in other obligations of the United States of America, as may be determined by the board of trustees of the school district; but such interest bearing secured time deposits or bonds or other obligations of the United States of America shall be of a type which cannot be cashed, sold or redeemed for an amount less than the sum deposited or invested therein by such school district; and when such sums so placed or so invested by a school district are needed for the purposes for which the bonds of the school district were originally authorized, issued and sold, such time deposits or bonds or other obligations of the United States of America in which such sums have been placed or invested shall be cashed, sold or redeemed and the proceeds thereof shall be used for the purposes for which the bonds of the school district were originally authorized, issued and sold.

§ 20.43. Interest Bearing Time Warrants

(a) Any school district in the State of Texas in need of funds to repair or renovate school buildings; to purchase school buildings and school equipment; to equip school properties with necessary heating, water, sanitation, lunchroom and electric facilities; or is in need of funds with which to employ an individual firm or corporation deemed to have special skill and experience to compile taxation data for use by its board of equalization; and said school district is financially unable out of available funds to make such repairs, renovations of school buildings, purchase school buildings, purchase school equipment, to equip school properties with necessary heating, water, sanitation, lunchroom or electric facilities or is unable to pay such individual or corporation for the performance of the professional duties herein-above mentioned, may, subject to the provisions hereof, issue interest-bearing time warrants, in amounts sufficient to make such purchase and improvements, to pay all or part of the compensation of such individual, firm or corporation to compile such data, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. Such warrants shall mature in serial installments of not more than five years from their date of issue, and to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six percent per annum. Such warrants shall upon maturity be payable out of any available funds of such school district in the order of their maturity dates. Any such interest-bearing time warrants so issued may be issued and sold by such district for not less than their face value, and the proceeds thereof used to provide funds required for the purpose for which they are issued. Such warrants shall be entitled to first and prior payment out of any available funds of such district as they become due. Included in such purposes is the payment of any amounts owed by said school districts, which indebtedness was incurred in carrying out any of such purposes.

(b) No such interest-bearing time warrants shall be issued or sold by a common school district, rural high school district, or an independent school district of less than 150 scholastics until the same shall have been approved by the county board of school trustees; and said board shall, upon application of such school district, inquire into the financial conditions and needs of such district, and shall not approve the issuance of such interest-bearing time warrants unless in its opinion said district is in need of such repair and renovation of school building, and school equipment and to equip school properties with necessary heating, water, sanitation, lunchroom and electric facilities, and will be able with the resources in prospect to liquidate said warrants at their maturity.

(c) No school district in the State of Texas shall issue such interest-bearing time warrants in excess of two percent of the assessed valuation of the district, for the year in which such interest-bearing... time warrants are issued; nor shall the payment of such interest-bearing time warrants in any one year exceed the anticipated surplus income of the district for the year in which the warrants are issued. Based on the budget of the district for said year, such anticipated income to be computed by taking the entire expected income of such school district from every source for the year in which such interest-bearing time warrants are issued, less teachers' salaries, bus aid included in the foundation fund, and that part of the local maintenance tax earmarked for salaries and known in the Gilmer-Aiken Law as the economic index or fund assignment. The anticipated income computation as herein defined shall be exclusive of all bond taxes. No school district shall have outstanding at any one time warrants totaling in excess of $80,000 under the provisions of this section.

(d) In every instance wherein interest-bearing time warrants have been issued by school districts within the State of Texas for any of the purposes herein provided for, the act of the board of trustees, and/or governing board of such district in issuing such interest-bearing time warrants are each and all hereby expressly validated. The indebtedness thus attempted to be created by such action is hereby declared to be the indebtedness of such district and shall be paid out of available funds as herein provided.

(e) Whenever any such interest-bearing time warrants have been issued under this section, and so long as any of them may be outstanding the officer in charge of the collection of delinquent taxes shall pay the same to legal depository of the district, to be deposited and held in a special fund for the payment of such interest-bearing time warrants, and except as herein otherwise provided, no part thereof shall be applied or used for any other purpose.

(f) Interest and penalties on delinquent taxes shall be deemed a part of such taxes for the purpose of this section. Should any delinquent taxes, including interest and penalties, be cancelled, waivered, released or reduced either by such school district or in any other way, with or without its consent, the amount of the loss so sustained shall be paid by the district to the special fund provided for herein out of funds not otherwise pledged to such special fund.

(g) All school districts issuing interest-bearing time warrants shall have the power to fix lien on and encumber and mortgage any and all property purchased with the proceeds of such warrants, and to fix a lien on and encumber any property, including teacherages owned by the district to secure the payment of legally incurred obligations. Provided, however, there shall never be a valid lien authorized or fixed on any school building wherein actual classroom instruction of pupils attending such school is being carried on or conducted.

(h) The word "interest-bearing time warrant" as used in this section means promissory note, interest-bearing time warrant, obligation or other evidence of indebtedness issued under this section.

(i) Taxes levied in any year to pay principal and interest of bonds and which taxes subsequently become delinquent for the purpose of this section, shall not be included in the term taxes or revenues or delinquent taxes as herein used.

§ 20.44. Delinquent Tax Penalties in Independent Districts Having City of 275,000

(a) That the board of education or the board of trustees, as the case may be, of any independent school district within the State of Texas, whether created by general law or special act of the legislature, and wherein there may be situated a city having not less than 275,000 population according to the last preceding federal census, shall have the power by passing a resolution by a majority vote of the members of said board of education or board of trustees, as the case may be, beginning with 1933 delinquent taxes due to any such school district, to require in addition to the payment of any such delinquent taxes, in lieu of the present penalties provided by law, the payment of a penalty of two percent upon the amount of the tax due if paid during the first month of such delinquency, four percent if paid during the second month of such delinquency, six percent if paid during the third month of such delinquency, eight percent if paid during the fourth month of such delinquency, nine percent if paid during the fifth month of such delinquency, and 10 percent if paid thereafter. Such resolution shall provide that, in addition to the payment of the tax and penalty as provided, interest at the rate of six percent per annum shall be charged and paid upon the gross amount of the tax and penalty due from the date the tax became delinquent until paid.

(b) Until and unless the board of education or board of trustees of any such independent school district shall pass the resolution provided for in the next preceding section hereof, the penalties and interest now provided by law on delinquent taxes due to any such independent school district shall be and remain in full force and effect.

(c) Notwithstanding the fact that such board of education or board of trustees of any such independent school district may hereafter, during any particular year, pass a resolution as provided for in Subsection (a) of this section, such action may be rescinded as to future years thereafter by a resolution passed by such board of education or board of trustees in any such school district by a majority vote of the members of such board of education or board of trustees, in which event the same interest and penalties now provided by law on delinquent taxes due to independent school districts shall immediately accrue on all taxes thereafter becoming delinquent if such taxes be not paid before the same become delinquent.

§ 20.45. Pledge of Delinquent Taxes as Security for Loan

The board of trustees of any school district of Texas is hereby authorized to pledge its delinquent school taxes levied for local maintenance purposes for specific school years as security for a loan, and such delinquent taxes pledged shall be applied against the principal and interest of the loan as they are collected. Provided, there shall be no pledging of delinquent taxes levied for school bonds for purposes herein set out. Funds secured through such loans may be employed for any legal maintenance expenditure or purpose of the school district. Provided further, that such loans may bear interest at a rate not to exceed six percent per annum.

§ 20.46. Additional Tax for Construction, Repair and Equipment of School Buildings; Purchase of Sites; Election

(a) Any school district, whether created under general or special law, having all or a portion of its territory situated in a county having a population of more than 190,000 according to the last preceding federal census, shall have the authority to levy an ad valorem tax, not to exceed 50 cents per $100 valuation, for the purpose of paying the cost of the purchase, construction, repair, renovation or equipment of public free school buildings and the purchase of necessary sites therefor; provided, however, that such bonds may bear interest at a rate not to exceed six percent per annum.

(b) The levy, allocation and expenditure of such portion of the maintenance tax as herein provided, may be made after such action has been approved by a majority of the residents, qualified property tax paying voters, who own taxable property within the district which has been duly rendered for taxation, participating in an election called for that purpose. This section shall not affect maintenance taxes levied for the year 1958 and prior years by any school district adopting same.

(c) It is the intent of this section to confer upon school districts to which it is applicable now or hereafter, the right and power to make contracts for the expenditure of maintenance funds for the same purpose as it may issue bonds, without the necessity of issuing bonds and paying the interest on such obligations and this section shall be construed to this end and as not being in conflict with the provisions of any other law regulating the issuance of bonds.

(d) The provisions of this statute shall not preclude the use of any tax revenues for the same or different purposes as herein specified to the extent it is now lawful for such revenues to be used.

1 Probably should read "(c)."

§ 20.48. Authorized Expenditures

(a) The public free school funds shall not be expended except as provided in this section.

(b) The state and county available funds shall be used exclusively for the payment of teachers' and superintendents' salaries, fees for taking the scholastic census, and interest on money borrowed on short time to pay salaries of teachers and superintendents, when these salaries become due before the school funds for the current year become available; provided that no loans for the purpose of payment of teachers shall be paid out of funds other than those for the then current year.

(c) Local school funds from district taxes, tuition fees of pupils not entitled to free tuition and other local sources may be used for the purposes enumerated for state and county funds and for purchasing appliances and supplies, for the payment of insurance premiums, janitors and other employees, for buying school sites, buying, building and repairing and renting school houses, and for other purposes necessary in the conduct of the public schools to be determined by the board of trustees, the accounts and vouchers for county districts to be approved by the county superintendent; provided, that when the state available school fund in any city or district is sufficient to maintain the schools thereof in any year for at least eight months, and leave a surplus, such surplus may be expended for the purposes mentioned herein.

(d) All independent school districts having within their limits a city with a population of 160,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census shall, in addition to the powers now possessed by them for the use and expenditure of local school funds and for the issuance of school bonds, be expressly authorized and empowered, at the option of the governing body of any such school district, in the buying of school sites and/or additions to school sites and in the building of school houses, to issue and deliver notes of the school district, negotiable or non-negotiable in form, representing the whole or a part of the purchase price or cost to the school district of the land and/or building so purchased or built, and to secure such notes by a vendor’s lien and/or deed of trust lien against such land and/or building, and, by resolution or order of the governing body of the school district made at or before the delivery of such notes, to set aside and appropriate as a trust fund, and the sole and only fund, for the payment of the principal of and interest on such notes such part and portion of the local school funds, levied and collected by the school district in that year and/or subsequent years, as the governing body of the school district may determine, provided that in no event shall the aggregate amount of local school funds set aside in or for any subsequent year for the retirement of such notes exceed, in any one such subsequent year, 10 percent of the local school funds collected during such year.

§ 20.481. Use of County Available Fund Appropriation for Vocational and Technical Schools

Where any public school district or accumulation of districts of this state operates a school designated as an area vocational school for vocational and technical school purposes and/or which participates in such a designated area vocational school program, its annual county available school fund apportionment, if any, shall be employed in the operation of such school and/or in financing facilities therefor notwithstanding any laws to the contrary; provided further, that any such school district(s) shall not be held accountable for or charged with county available school funds in determination of eligibility for minimum foundation school program funds.

§ 20.49. Borrowing Money for Current Maintenance Expenses

(a) Independent or consolidated school districts are hereby authorized to borrow money for the purpose of paying maintenance expenses and to evidence such loans with negotiable notes; provided that at no time shall said loans exceed 75% of the previous years' income. Such notes shall be payable only from current maintenance taxes levied at or before the time of making such loans and from delinquent maintenance taxes. The term “maintenance expenses” or “maintenance expenditures” as used in this section means any lawful expenditure of the school district other than payment of principal of and interest on bonds.

(b) Such notes may be issued only after a budget has been adopted for the current school year and the maintenance expenditures stated therein do not exceed the maintenance tax levied for the current year, plus the delinquent maintenance taxes expected by the board of trustees to be collected during the then current school year. A budget, within the meaning of this section, may be amended or a new budget may be adopted at any time before the issuance of such notes.

(c) Such notes shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of the board of trustees, signed by the president or vice president and attested by the secretary of said board. The notes shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed six percent per annum.

(d) Any such note may contain a certification that it is issued pursuant to and in compliance with this section, and pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the board of trustees, and such certification shall constitute sufficient evidence that said note is a valid and binding obligation of the district.

(e) This section is cumulative of and is not intended to replace or impair the provisions of Section 20.48 of this code.

§ 20.50. Contracts for Athletic Facilities

(a) Any independent school district, acting by and through its board of trustees, is hereby authorized to enter into a contract with any corporation, or any city or any institution of higher learning of the State of Texas (State University or College) located wholly or partially within its boundaries, for the use of any stadium and other athletic facilities owned by, or under the control of, any such entity. Such contract may be for any period, not exceeding 75 years, and may contain such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the parties.

(b) The district may enter into such contract for the use of such stadium and other athletic facilities for any purpose related to sports activities and other physical education programs for the students at the public free schools operated and maintained by such independent school district.

(c) The consideration for any such contract may be paid from any source available to such independent school district; but if voted, as hereinafter provided, such independent school district shall be authorized to pledge to the payment of said contract an annual maintenance tax in an amount sufficient, without limitation, to provide all of such consideration. If so voted and pledged, such maintenance tax shall be assessed, levied, and collected annually in the same manner as provided by general law applicable to independent school districts for other maintenance taxes.

(d) No maintenance tax shall be pledged to the payment of any such contract or assessed, levied or collected unless an election is held in the independent school district and any such maintenance tax is duly and favorably voted by a majority of the resident, qualified electors of the independent school district who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at said election. Each such election shall be called by order of the board of trustees of the independent school district. The election order shall set forth the date of the election, the proposition to be submitted and voted on, the polling place or places, and any other matters deemed advisable by the board of trustees. Notice of said election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the order calling the election one time, at least ten days prior to the election, in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. Except as herein otherwise specifically provided, any such election shall be held in accordance with the Texas Election Code.

§ 20.51. Issuance of Time Warrants by Districts
Entitled to Certain Federal Aid

[Text as added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 53,
ch. 36, § 1]

(a) This section applies to any independent school district and to any common school district within the State of Texas, whether created by general law or special Act of the Legislature, which is entitled to payments for maintenance and operation of schools under the Act of September 30, 1950, 64 United States Statutes at Large 1100, Public Law 874 (81st Congress) as amended.1

(b) The board of trustees of an independent school district or of a common school district described in Subsection (a) of this section may, upon a determination that there are insufficient funds to properly operate and maintain the district's schools, make and enter an order in their minutes directing:

(1) the issuing of time warrants sufficient to obtain funds for operation and maintenance of the district's schools and payment of existing accounts already obligated for these purposes;

(2) the levying of a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the warrants where a sufficient maintenance tax had theretofore been authorized by a vote of the legally qualified voters in the district; and

(3) the creation of an interest and sinking fund.

(c) The board shall deposit in the sinking fund, created by the order in Subsection (b) of this section, an amount from each year's maintenance taxes sufficient to pay the principal and interest on outstanding warrants when they become due and payable, and the funds may only be used to pay the principal and interest on the warrants.

(d) The warrants shall be payable serially and annually for a period of years not to exceed eight, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six percent per annum, with the option to call any part or all of the warrants for payment on any interest installment or paying date, and may provide for the payment of interest on a quarterly or semiannual basis.

(e) The president of the board shall sign the warrants and the secretary shall countersign them.

(f) The board may not sell the warrants for less than par value and accrued interest.

(g) The board may not issue time warrants exceeding the amount to which the independent school district or the common school district was entitled on January 1, 1972, to receive as payments for maintenance and operation of schools under the Act of September 30, 1950, 64 United States Statutes at Large 1100, Public Law 874 (81st Congress) as amended, plus any anticipated payments for maintenance and operation of schools to which the independent school district or the common school district would be entitled through the expiration of the fiscal year of the United States Government which commences July 1, 1973, in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the aforesaid Act of September 30, 1950, 64 United States Statutes at Large 1100, Public Law 874 (81st Congress) as it existed on January 1, 1972.

(b) The board may not issue or execute a warrant after the expiration of four years from June 1, 1972.

(i) Upon the issuance of any warrants provided for in this section, the affidavit of the president and secretary of the board of trustees that the warrants have been issued in conformity with this section, and the statement on the face of each warrant so issued or executed that they are made in compliance with and under the authority of this section, shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the warrants.

(j) This section shall not be construed as repealing any laws now in existence authorizing the issuance of interest-bearing time warrants, but this section shall be cumulative of all existing laws and Acts.

§ 20.51. Certificates of Indebtedness; Issuance by Certain School and Junior College Dis-

[Text as added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 81,
ch. 51, § 4]

(a) Any school district, including a junior college district, situated in a county containing a population of 200,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, may issue interest-bearing certificates of indebtedness for the purpose of providing funds for the erection and equipment of school buildings within the boundaries of the district or refinancing outstanding certificates as herein provided. The term "certificates," as used in this sec-section, includes all obligations authorized to be issued hereunder, and the term shall include interest thereon, unless clearly indicated by the context that another meaning is intended.

(b) The governing body of the district shall make provision for the payment of the certificates issued under the authority of this section by the appropripation and pledge of local school funds derived and to be derived from maintenance taxes levied and as-essed or to be levied and assessed under authority of Sections 20.02 and 130.122 of this code, Chapter 273, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, 1953, as amended (Article 2784g, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or other similar law now in existence or hereinafter enacted which limits the amount of tax which may be levied for maintenance purposes, as distinguished from bond requirements. The appropriation and pledge may be in the nature of a continuing irrevocable pledge to apply the first moneys collected or to be collected annually from the tax levy to the payment of the obligations or by the irrevocable present levy and appropriation of the amount of the maintenance tax as is required to meet the annual debt service requirements of the obligations, in which event the governing body shall covenant to annually set aside the amount in the annual tax levy, showing the same is a portion of the maintenance tax. The governing body shall annually budget the amount required to pay the debt service requirements, principal and interest, of the obligations which may be scheduled to become due in any fiscal year. Nothing herein shall be construed as permitting the levy of a maintenance tax in excess of the amount approved by the resident qualified property taxpaying voters of the district.

(c) No district at any one time shall have certificates outstanding and unpaid in principal amount in excess of $250,000 unless the excessive amount becomes the obligation of the district by assumption as contemplated by Subsection (k) of this section or the new certificates are being issued to refund or refinance outstanding obligations as contemplated by Subsection (i) of this section.

(d) The principal amount of certificates which may be authorized at any one time and the scheduling of their principal maturity shall be further restricted as follows:

(1) where the assessed valuation is more than $1 million and less than $15 million the limiting factor is 25 cents.

(2) where the assessed valuation is $15 million or more but less than $35 million the limiting factor is 15 cents.

(3) where the assessed valuation is $35 million or more the limiting factor is 5 cents.

(e) Assessed valuation means the valuation for school district purposes on the tax rolls of the district last approved prior to the authorization of the certificates. The limiting factor for a particular district as determined in the foregoing schedule, shall be multiplied by the assessed valuation of the district and the product shall be the maximum amount of debt service requirements on the certificates which may be scheduled to become due in any fiscal year on a cumulative basis. No district which has an assessed valuation less than $1 million may issue certificates under this section.

(f) Certificates authorized to be issued hereunder shall be payable at such times, be in such form and denomination or denominations either in coupon form or registered as to principal and interest, either or both, and may contain such options for redemption prior to the scheduled maturity, and be payable at such place or places and contain such other provisions as the governing body of the district may determine, but in no event shall any certificate mature over a period in excess of 25 years from the date thereof, or bear interest at a rate in excess of seven percent per annum.

(g) Except where issued in exchange for certificates outstanding as provided in Subsection (i), the certificates shall be sold for cash at not less than the face or par value plus accrued interest and the proceeds applied for the purpose for which the same were issued, provided, however, that all accrued interest and premium received, if any, shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund established for the payment of the obligations. The cost of issuing the obligations, including attorneys', printing, and fiscal fees, may be paid from the proceeds received from the sale thereof, except where such certificates are sold under the provisions of Subsection (i).

(h) The certificates, including interest thereon whether issued in coupon or registered form, shall be deemed and construed to be a security within the meaning of Chapter 8, dealing with "Investment Securities," of the Uniform Commercial Code, and the provisions shall be applicable thereto from and after their approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the comptroller of public accounts.

(i) Each governing body may refund or refinance outstanding certificates by the issuance of new interest-bearing certificates within the limitations and conditions provided herein. The new certificates shall be issued and delivered in lieu of and upon surrender to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas and the cancellation of the obligations being refunded thereby, and the comptroller shall register the new certificates and deliver them in accordance with the order authorizing their issuance. The new certificates may be issued and delivered in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(j) A certified copy of all proceedings relating to the authorization of the certificates shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and if he finds the certificates to have been authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section, he shall execute a certificate or opinion to that effect which shall be filed in the office of the comptroller of public accounts, who shall register the certificates which shall thereafter be incontestable for any cause.

(k) Certificates issued under the provisions of this section shall be an indebtedness of the school district issuing them, but the holder thereof shall not have the right to demand payment thereof out of any fund or funds other than those pledged to its payment. In the event the boundary lines of any issuing district are changed while the certificates remain outstanding, the indebtedness shall be adjusted or assumed as provided under general law for the adjustment of bond indebtedness payable from taxes.

(l) All certificates issued under this section shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees and guardians, and for any sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. The certificates shall be eligible to receive deposits of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and shall be lawful and sufficient security for deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

(m) For the purpose of this section, the governing body of a common school district shall be the commissioners court of the county having administrative jurisdiction. The governing body of an independent school district, a rural high school district, or a junior college district shall be its duly elected board of trustees, and the governing body of a municipality controlled school district shall be the city or town council or commission. Certificates shall be authorized by order of the governing body of the district.

(n) The provisions of this section shall be cumulative of existing laws relating to the financing of the cost of erecting and equipping school buildings by school districts, it being the legislative intent that this section shall be complete authority for the issuance, sale, and delivery of certificates by school districts.

(o) Nothing in this section shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or state constitutions and all acts done hereunder shall be done in such manner as may conform thereto whether herein expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the district shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable to the constitutions.

Amendment by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1776, ch. 651, § 1

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1776, ch. 651, § 1, effective June 16, 1973, purports to amend Vernon’s Ann.Civ.St. art. 2784g–2, § 1 [now, subsec. (a) of this section] without reference to repeal of said article by Acts 1971, 63rd Leg., p. 90, ch. 51, § 19, effective August 27, 1973. As so amended, § 1 of article 2784g–2 reads: “(a) Any school district, including a junior college district, may issue interest bearing Certificates of Indebtedness for the purpose of (1) providing funds for the erection and equipment of school buildings within the boundaries of the district, (2) refinancing outstanding certificates as herein provided, or (3) purchasing sites for the future construction of public school facilities. The term certificates, as used in this Act, shall include all obligations authorized to be issued hereunder and the term shall include interest thereon, unless clearly indicated by the context that another meaning is intended.”

§ 20.51. Athletic Stadium Authorities

[Text as added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 286, ch. 135, § 1]

(a) Athletic stadium authorities without taxing power may be created as hereinafter provided.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) “District” means any independent school district in this state.

(2) “Stadium” means the structural and associated facilities designed for staging and holding athletic contests and other events.

(3) “Authority” means an athletic stadium authority created under this Act.

(4) “Board” or “board of directors” means the board of directors of the authority.

(5) “Bond resolution” means the resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds.

(6) “Trust indenture” means the mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument pledging revenues of or creating a mortgage lien on properties, or both, to secure the revenue bonds issued by the authority.

(7) “Trustee” means the trustee under the trust indenture.

(c) If the boards of trustees of two districts find that it is to the best interest of the districts to create an athletic stadium authority to include the districts, each board of trustees shall adopt a resolution creating an authority and designating the name by which it shall be known. The authority shall be a body politic and corporate. It shall have a seal, may sue and be sued, and may make, amend, and repeal its bylaws.

(d) The authority shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of seven members. The members of the board shall serve terms ending May 1, providing the terms do not exceed two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified. The board of trustees of each district shall each appoint three of the directors, and the appointees shall by majority vote appoint a seventh director.

(e) The board of directors shall elect from among the directors a president and vice-president, and shall elect a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be directors, and may elect such other officers as may be authorized by the authority’s bylaws. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined. The president has the same right to vote on all matters as other members of the board. A majority of the members of the board constitutes a quorum, and when a quorum is present, action may be taken by a majority vote of directors present. The board may employ a manager and such other employees, experts, and agents as it may see fit, but it may delegate to the manager the power to employ and discharge employees. The board may employ legal counsel.

(f) The authority shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish, and equip stadia, purchase existing stadia, furnishings, and equipment for its stadia, and to operate and maintain stadia. A stadium need not be located inside the district or districts.

(g) The authority may issue revenue bonds to provide funds for any of its purposes. The bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenue to be derived from the operation of the stadium or stadia and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of stadium properties. The bonds may be additionally secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on property of the authority.

(h) The bonds shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the board of directors, and shall be signed by the president or vice-president and countersigned by the secretary, or either or both of their facsimile signatures may be printed thereon. The seal of the authority shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 40 years.
The bonds may be registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. Appropriate provisions may be inserted in the resolution authorizing the execution and delivery of bonds for the conversion of registered bonds into bearer bonds and vice versa.
Provisions may be made in the bond resolution or trust indenture for the substitution of new bonds for those lost or mutilated. When bonds shall have once been approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller as prescribed in Subsection
(1) of this section, it shall not be necessary to obtain the approval of the attorney general or registration by the comptroller as to such converted or substituted bonds.

(i) All bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking fund of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient securiity for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unannulled coupons appurtenant thereto.

(j) Bonds constituting a junior lien on the revenue or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the bond resolution or trust indenture. Parity bonds may be issued under conditions specified in the bond resolution or trust indenture.

(k) (1) Any district, acting by and through its board of trustees, is authorized to enter into a contract with any athletic stadium authority organized under the act for the use of any stadium or stadia owned by any that 1 entity. Such contract may be for any period, not exceeding 75 years, and may contain such terms and conditions as may be agreed on between the parties.

(2) The district may enter into a contract for the use of the stadium or stadia for any purpose related to sports activities and other physical education programs for the students at the public free schools operated and maintained by the district.

(3) The consideration payable by the district under a contract may be paid from any source available to the district; and if voted, the district is authorized to pledge to the payment of any contract the deposits and funds as provided in the bond resolution or trust indenture or in both.

that purpose is duly and favorably voted by a majority of the resident, qualified electors of the district who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the property for taxation, voting at the election. Each election shall be called by order of the board of trustees of the district. The election order shall set forth the date of the election, the proposition to be submitted and voted on, the polling place or places, and any other matters deemed advisable by the board of trustees. Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the order calling the election one time, at least 10 days prior to the election, in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. Except as herein otherwise specifically provided, the election shall be held in accordance with the Texas Election Code.

(r) The board of directors is authorized to accept donations, gifts, and endowments to be held and vested to the use and benefit of the district, or to be pledged to any contract or mortgages to be accepted by the district, or to be used for any other purpose as determined by the board of directors.

(l) Bond resolution or trust indenture may prescribe systems, methods, routines, and procedures under or in accordance with which the stadium or stadia shall be operated.

(n) The authority may select a depository or depositories according to the procedures provided by law for the selection of independent school district depositories.

(o) Recognizing the fact that the property owned by authority will be held for public purposes only and will be devoted exclusively to the use and benefit of the public, it shall be exempt from taxation of every character.

(p) For the purpose of carrying out any power collected and annually in the same manner as provided by general law applicable to independent school districts for other maintenance taxes. No maintenance tax shall be devoted to the use of any stadium or stadium owned by any that 1 entity.

(q) In addition to other powers, the authority has the right to invest the proceeds of its bonds, until such money is needed, in the direct obligations of or obligations unconditionally guaranteed by the United States government, to the extent authorized in the bond resolution or trust indenture or in both.

(a) Whenever the board of trustees of any school district in this state shall determine that the name of the district should be changed or amended by adding or deleting any word or words therefrom or any name or names of cities or towns, the board of trustees may, by resolution, change the name of the district.
(b) Notice of the change in name shall be given to the Central Education Agency by sending to the commissioner of education a copy of the resolution, attested by the president and secretary of the board of trustees of the school district. The district, under its changed name, shall be deemed to be a continuation of the district, as formerly named, for all purposes.

§ 21.007. Qualifications of Trustees
No person shall be elected as a trustee of a school district in this state unless he is a qualified voter. This section does not apply to a school district trustee elected or appointed before August 30, 1965. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3009, ch. 994, § 6, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

[Sections 21.008 to 21.030 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. ADMISSION AND ATTENDANCE

§ 21.031. Admission
(a) All children without regard to color over the age of six years and under the age of 18 years on the first day of September of any scholastic year shall be entitled to the benefits of the Available School Fund for that year.
(b) Every child in this state over the age of six years and not over the age of 21 years on the first day of September of the year in which admission is sought shall be permitted to attend the public free schools of the district in which he resides or in which his parent, guardian, or the person having lawful control of him resides at the time he applies for admission notwithstanding the fact that he may have been enumerated in the scholastic census of a different district or may have attended school elsewhere for a part of the year.
(c) The board of trustees of any public free school district of this state shall admit into the public free schools of the district free of tuition all persons over six and not over 21 years of age at the beginning of the scholastic year if such person or his parent, guardian or person having lawful control resides within the school district.

§ 21.032. Compulsory Attendance
Unless specifically exempted by Section 21.033 of this code or under other laws, every child in the state who is as much as seven years of age and not more than 17 years of age shall be required to attend the public schools in the district of his residence or in some other district to which he may be transferred as provided or authorized by law a minimum of 165 days of the regular school term of the district in which the child resides or to which he has been transferred.
§ 21.032  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE 410

§ 21.033. Exemptions

The following classes of children are exempt from the requirements of compulsory attendance:

1. any child in attendance upon a private or parochial school which shall include in its course a study of good citizenship;
2. any child whose physical or mental condition is such that attendance in regular classrooms or in special education facilities supported, with tax funds is not feasible, and who holds a definite certificate of a qualified physician specifying this condition and covering the period of absence;
3. any child more than 17 years of age who has satisfactorily completed the work of the ninth grade and who presents to the superintendent satisfactory evidence showing that his services are needed in support of a parent or other person standing in a parental relation to the child; and
4. any child more than 15 years of age who is enrolled in a technical-vocational training program, a work-study program, or an apprenticeship program approved by the superintendent, parent or guardian of the public school he would otherwise attend.

§ 21.0331. Blind, Deaf, or Mentally Retarded Children

(a) A child who is blind or deaf and who does not have adequate or appropriate educational facilities available in the area in which he resides shall be referred by the superintendent of the school district in which he resides to the Texas School for the Blind or the Texas School for the Deaf for admission as appropriate to the child's disability. The governing board of every school district referring blind or deaf children to the Texas School for the Blind or the Texas School for the Deaf shall promptly notify the Central Education Agency of each referral made, and notice of referral shall include a statement setting forth the basis for the determination that the child could not be served adequately or appropriately in the area in which the child resides.

(b) On or before October 30 of each year preceding a regular session of the legislature, the Central Education Agency shall furnish the governor and the budget office of the legislature with statistics relating to the number of children referred to or applying for admission to the Texas School for the Blind and the Texas School for the Deaf, the number of blind or deaf children actually being served by these schools, and the number of blind or deaf children who might be eligible for admission to these schools but whose admission has been delayed because of inadequate facilities at these schools.

(c) The governing board of any school district which contains children who are blind, deaf, mute, or mentally retarded and which has failed to provide adequate services for these children shall report this fact, the number of children, and the type of disability to the Central Education Agency each year at the time required by that agency.

§ 21.034. Reports

(a) The failure of any child within the compulsory attendance age to enroll in school shall be determined upon the basis of the reports prescribed by this section.

(b) The county superintendent of each county shall furnish to the superintendent of schools of each school district in the county, or to the principal in the event there be no superintendent, a complete list of all children belonging in the district as shown by the last scholastic census and the record to transfers to and from the district.

(c) Each superintendent or principal shall report to the county superintendent the names of all children subject to the provisions of this subchapter who have not enrolled in the school.

(d) The superintendent, principal, or other official of any private, denominational, or parochial school shall furnish the county superintendent a list of all children of scholastic age enrolled in the school and the district in which each child was enumerated in the last public school census.

(e) From the lists supplied by the public school superintendents and principals and by the officials of any private, denominational, or parochial schools, the county superintendent shall compile a list for each district showing all children who are shown by the census to be of scholastic age but who have not enrolled in any school. The list for each district shall be furnished to the person or persons serving as attendance officer for the district.

§ 21.036. School Attendance Officer
In compliance with the terms of this section, a school attendance officer may be elected by either of the following types of governing bodies:

(1) The county school trustees of any county having a scholastic population of more than three thousand (3,000).

(2) The board of trustees of any independent school district having a scholastic population of more than two thousand (2,000).

§ 21.037. Selection of Attendance Officer
(a) Authorization to elect a school attendance officer shall be derived from the provisions of this section.

(b) A petition requesting and explaining the need for a school attendance officer and signed by at least 50 resident freeholders of the area involved shall be presented to the county school trustees or the trustees of the independent school district, as the case may be.

(c) The governing body, upon receipt of a petition as provided in subsection (b) of this section, shall set a date for a public hearing and give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper published at the county seat for three consecutive weeks or, if there be no such newspaper, by posting printed notices in two public places within the area and one at the courthouse door of the county.

(d) If, after the public hearing, the governing body is of the opinion that a school attendance officer is necessary to the proper enforcement of the compulsory attendance law and that the school concerned will be benefited by such an officer, the governing body may elect an attendance officer.

(e) An elected attendance officer may be compensated from the available school funds belonging to the county or independent school district.

(f) An elected attendance officer may, at the option of the county or independent district governing body, be the probation officer or some officer or officers of the juvenile court of the county.

§ 21.038. Where No Attendance Officer Selected
In those counties and independent school districts where no attendance officer has been elected, the duties of attendance officer shall devolve upon the school superintendents and peace officers of the counties and districts, but no additional compensation may be paid for the services.

§ 21.039. Powers and Duties of Attendance Officer
(a) A school attendance officer shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) to investigate all cases of unexcused absences from school;

(2) to administer oaths and to serve legal process;

(3) to enforce the provisions of the compulsory attendance law;

(4) to keep records of all cases of any kind investigated by him in the discharge of his duties;

(5) to make all reports of his work required of him by the commissioner of education; and

(6) to proceed in juvenile court against any incorrigible pupil, or against any recalcitrant person having parental control as provided in Section 4.25 of this code.

(b) A school attendance officer shall not invade or enter any private home or private residence or any part thereof without the permission of the owner or tenant except to serve lawful process upon a parent, guardian, or other person standing in parental relation to a child affected by the compulsory attendance law.

(c) A school attendance officer shall not forcibly take corporal custody of any child anywhere without permission of the parent or tenant except to serve lawful process upon a parent, guardian, or other person standing in parental relation to the child except in obedience to a valid process issued by a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 21.040. Permissive Attendance
The board of trustees of any school district may, upon such terms as it may deem just and proper, admit pupils either over or under the school age, either in or out of the district, but in admitting such pupils the board shall see to it that the schools are not overcrowded to the neglect and injury of pupils within the scholastic age.

[Sections 21.041 to 21.060 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. TRANSFERS AND SCHOOL ASSIGNMENTS

§ 21.061. Transfer of Student
(a) Any child, other than a high school graduate, who is over 6 and under 21 years of age at the beginning of any scholastic year may annually transfer from his school district of residence to another Texas district, provided that both the receiving district and the applicant parent or guardian or person having lawful control of the child jointly approve and timely agree in writing to transfer.

(b) Such a transfer agreement shall locally be filed and preserved as a receiving district record for audit purposes of the Central Education Agency.

§ 21.062. Transfer of State Funds
