(2) In all cases where application is made for a permit, the Board or Administrator shall give due consideration to the recommendations of any of the above enumerated officers in granting or refusing such permit. In all instances where a protest against the issuance of a permit is made to the Board by the above enumerated officers, if upon a hearing or upon any finding of facts, it is determined that the issuance of a permit would be in conflict with the requirements as set out in this Act, the Board or Administrator shall enter its order accordingly. A copy of any order or refusal shall be mailed or delivered immediately to the applicant which said order shall set forth the reasons for refusal.

(3) The Board or Administrator may designate any of its members or other representatives to conduct any hearing, authorized by this Act, make a record thereof, and the Board or Administrator may upon such record render its decision as though the hearing had been held before all members of the Board or Administrator. The Board may prescribe its own rules of procedure and evidence.

(4) All notices of hearing for refusal, cancellation, or suspension may be served personally or by any representative of the Board or by sending the same by United States registered mail addressed to the person cited at his last known address and no other notice shall be necessary. written instrument, executed by any person and he shall by plea under oath deny the execution of such instrument, the court shall require the production and proof of the same.

unless at the time of such possession or consumption such person under the age of twenty-one (21) years is accompanied by his or her parent, guardian, adult husband or adult wife, or other adult person into whose custody he or she has been committed for the time by some court, who is actually, visibly and personally present at the time such alcoholic bever-

the age of twenty-one (21) years, and upon convic-

$200; provided that for a second and all subsequent offenses such persons upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500).

beverage for or give, or knowingly make available, an alcoholic beverage to a person under the age of twenty-one (21) years unless the purchaser, person

(e) No person under twenty-one (21) years of age may plead guilty to any offense described in Subdiguardian to be present during all proceedings in the case. However, the court may waive the require-any case in which, after diligent effort, the court is unable to locate them or compel their presence. The court shall give written notice of such offense to the parent or guardian having legal custody of such minor who resides outside the jurisdictional limits of the court.

(f) Upon attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, any person who during his minority was con-

Permittees as authorized under this Act, it shall be unlawful for any person to import, sell, offer for sale, barter, exchange, or possess for the purpose of sale any liquor the container of which contains less the case of malt or vinous liquor a six (6) ounce container shall be the minimum; provided further that any bona fide common carrier of persons, engaged in interstate commerce, may be authorized by the Commission to transport liquor in containers of less than one-half (½) pint but not for sale, use or consumption in Texas. The prohibitions contained herein shall not apply to any licensee or permittee under this Act when engaged in supplying the needs of Airline Beverage Permittees or Mixed Beverage provided, however, in no event shall any container of liquor contain any less than one fluid ounce.

The Commission may adopt such reasonable regu-

Should any holder of a Local Cartage Permit who is also the holder of a Package Store Permit or Wine Only Package Store Permit violate any provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act, as amended, or any rule or regulation of the Board made pursuant thereto such violation shall constitute grounds for the suspension or cancellation of any or all permits and licenses held by such person.

(23) It shall be unlawful for any person to consent to the use of or to allow his permit to be displayed by or used by any person other than the one to whom the permit was issued.

(24) It shall be unlawful for any holder of either an Agent’s Permit or a Manufacturer’s Agent’s Permit in soliciting or taking orders for the sale of liquor to represent himself as an agent of any person other than the person designated in his application for permit.

(28) It shall be unlawful for any holder of a Distiller’s Permit or Rectifier’s Permit, or any person, firm or corporation engaged in distilling or rectifying liquor, either within or without the State of Texas, or for any officer, director, agent, or employee thereof, or for any affiliate, whether corporate or by management, direction or control, to own, have or hold any interest in the permit, business, assets or corporate stock of the holder of any Wholesaler’s Permit.

It shall be unlawful for the holder of any Wholesaler’s Permit to be affiliated with the holder of any Distiller’s Permit or Rectifier’s Permit, or any person, firm or corporation engaged in distilling or rectifying liquor, either within or without the State of Texas, either directly or indirectly, or by or through any officer, director, agent or employee or by management, direction or control.

(29) It shall be unlawful for the holder of any Wholesaler's Permit to own, have, possess, or sell any liquor manufactured, distilled or rectified by any person, firm or corporation who or which is directly or indirectly affiliated with such holder of a Wholesaler's Permit, whether such affiliation be corporate or by management, direction or control, or by or through any officer, director, agent, or employee; provided, that this shall not apply to the holder of a Wholesaler's Permit who held a Wholesaler's Permit on January 1, 1941, and continuously since that date, and who was so affiliated on that date, and also was on January 1, 1941, selling liquors manufactured, distilled, or rectified by such affiliate.

Nothing in this Section shall be interpreted to impose upon common carriers the duty to see that such tax stamps are affixed.

(34) It shall be unlawful for the holder of an Agent's Permit or Manufacturer's Agent's Permit to have any interest, directly or indirectly, in a Package Store Permit or a Wine Only Package Store Permit or to be residentially domiciled with any person who has any financial interest in a Package Store Permit or Wine Only Package Store Permit.

(2) The term "first sale" as used in Article I of this Act shall be construed in compliance with whichever of the following rules is applicable:

(a) As to liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, imported into this state by the holder of a wholesaler's permit authorizing such importation, the term "first sale" shall mean the first actual sale by the holder of any wholesaler's permit to the holder of any other permit authorizing the retail sale of the beverage to be taxed, or to the holder of a Local Distributor's Permit.

(b) As to any liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, distilled or produced in or brought into this state by any person, groups of persons, or legal entity other than a holder of a permit authorizing importation, the term "first sale" shall mean and include the first sale, possession, distribution, or use in this state of any and all liquor refined, blended, manufactured, imported into, or in any other manner produced or acquired, possessed, or brought into this state.

(c) As to ale and malt liquor, the term "first sale" shall be given the meaning attributed to "first sale" or importation in Section 33, Article II, Texas Liquor Control Act.1

(3) Any holder of a permit authorizing the importation into this state of any liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, shall pay the tax or taxes levied thereon by the laws of this state by the reporting system under bond in compliance with the following provisions:

(a) The Commission shall require of each holder of a permit authorizing the importation into this state of liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, a bond or bonds executed by the permit holder as principal and a surety company duly qualified and doing business in this state as surety, and said bond or bonds shall be made payable to the State of Texas and conditioned as the Commission may require and approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form. Said bond or bonds shall be in such amount as will adequately protect the State of Texas against the anticipated tax liability on the principal during any six (6) weeks' period.

(b) The tax on liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, imported into this state, shall become due and payable and shall be paid by the permit holder on or before the 15th day of the month following the first sale. As to ale and malt liquor, the tax shall become due and payable as provided in Section 33, Article II, Texas Liquor Control Act.

(c) The tax shall be computed in accordance with the applicable provision or provisions in Subsection (1) of this Section 21, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, and remittance therefor made payable to the State Treasurer shall be due at the office of the Alcoholic Beverage Commission in Austin, Travis County, Texas, on or before the 15th day of the month due less two percent (2%) of the amount due which shall be withheld by the permit holder for the keeping of records, furnishing of bonds, and properly accounting for the remittance of the tax due; provided, however, that no allowance shall be granted or permitted when the tax is delinquent at the time of payment.

(d) Such sworn statements of taxes due as may be required by the Commission, and remittances therefor made payable to the State Treasurer, shall be forwarded to the Commission each month not later than the due date set out herein. All such remittances shall be turned over by the Commission to the State Treasurer for the allocation in conformity with the terms of Section 46, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act.2

(e) If any permit holder, in computing and paying the tax due, through oversight, mistake, error or miscalculation, has paid more tax than is legally due, the permit holder who paid such excess tax shall be entitled to a refund thereof, and a claim for such refund may be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Commission or Administrator, and such excess tax shall be refunded to the permit holder who has paid the same, or credit may be allowed on future tax payment. Refunds for overpayment of tax may be made by the Commission from the revenues derived from the collection of the tax before the same has been allocated, and so much of such funds as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose.

(f) The permit holder shall report to the Commission each receipt of shipment of liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, for sale within this state, under the provisions of this Act, and shall prepare and furnish any such further information and such reports as may be required by rules and regulations of the Commission.

(g) In any suit brought to enforce the collection of any tax owed by a permit holder, a certificate by the Commission showing the deficiency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax or the delinquency of the amount of tax and penalty set forth therein and compliance by the Commission with all provisions of this Act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

(4) It is not intended that the tax levied in Subsection (1) of this Section 21 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be collected on liquor shipped out of this state for consumption outside this state or sold aboard ship for ship's supplies, and the Commission shall provide forms for obtaining exemption from or credit for such taxes and shall provide by rule and regulation for equitable and final disposition of any tax credit brought about by such payment of any such unintended or excess tax.
Art. 666-21  PENAL AUXILIARY LAWS 912

(5) Unless the liquor is exempted from tax under the terms of Subsection (4) of this Section 21 or unless payment has been or is to be made by a permit holder in conformity with the provisions of Subsection (3) of this Section 21, or unless payment has been or is to be made by the permit holder in conformity with Section 21½C, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, the tax levied under Subsection (1) of this Section 21, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, shall be paid by affixing a stamp or stamps on each bottle or container of liquor. Said stamps shall be affixed in strict accordance with any rule and regulation promulgated pursuant to this Act. The Commission, however, may, in any situation deemed by it to create an emergency or other circumstance which in its judgment would make it impractical to require the affixing of stamps, by order prescribe special rules for the payment of the tax in the specific situation under consideration.

(6) Every holder of a permit authorizing the wholesaling of liquor, upon receipt of a shipment of liquor for sale within this state, under the provisions of this Act, shall prepare and furnish such information and reports as may be required by rules and regulations of the Commission. All such permittees authorized to transport liquor beyond the boundaries of this state shall furnish to the Commission duplicate copies of all invoices for the sale of such liquors, within twenty-four (24) hours after such liquors have been removed from their place of business.

(7) Any person, persons, or association who violates any portion of this Section 21 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one (1) year.

Each such transaction shall be made on the day it occurs. All such permittees shall make and keep such other records as may be required by rule and regulation of the Board. All records which permittees are required to make shall be kept available for the inspection of the Board or its authorized representatives for a period of at least two years.

It shall be unlawful for any person to fail or refuse to make and keep a record of each year any record required in this section, or to fail or refuse to keep such records open for inspection to the Board or its duly authorized representatives during reasonable office hours.

It shall further be unlawful for any person knowingly with intent to defraud to make or cause to be made any false entry in any records required in this section or with like intent to alter or cause to be altered any item in said records.

But nothing herein shall affect the powers and rights conferred upon the Texas Liquor Control Board in Article VII of House Bill No. 3 of the First Called Session of the Fifty-first Legislature.

It shall be the duty of each person who makes a first sale of any liquor in this State to affix said stamps on each bottle or container of liquor and to cancel the same in accordance with any rule and regulation of the Board. The Board shall have power to relax the foregoing provision when in its judgment it would be impracticable to require the affixing of such stamp on the bottle or container, irrespective of any other provision of this Act. And any person, persons, or association who violates any portion of this Section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one (1) year. Such inventory shall be rendered upon a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Board. Such inventory must be placed in the United States mail, addressed to the Texas Liquor Control Board at Austin, Texas, within twenty-four (24) hours of the effective date hereof, and a true, correct, and exact copy thereof must be retained by the person making such report. Failure or refusal to render such inventory shall be deemed sufficient grounds for the cancellation of any permit or license by the Board, and, in addition thereto, any such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the County Jail for any term not more than one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sub-sec. 4. It is further provided that the Texas Liquor Control Board shall have printed and supplied to the State Treasurer, and the State Treasurer shall have on demand, tax stamps of such values as will enable any permittee, other than one authorized to sell at retail only, having possession of liquors with legal and valid Texas tax stamps affixed of a different rate of assessment than is herein provided to affix an additional stamp on each container so that the added amount of tax paid, as represented by such additional stamp together with the one originally affixed, will equal the total amount of tax levied by law. All liquors in containers to which have not been affixed proper tax stamps, or stamps in the aggregate to show payment of all tax as levied by law, are hereby declared to be illicit beverages and subject to seizure and forfeiture as otherwise provided by law, and any person in possession thereof shall be prosecuted for the possession of illicit beverages as provided by law; but this shall not apply to stocks on hand in the possession of permittees authorized to sell at retail only or their vendees.

Sub-sec. 5. The Texas Liquor Control Board is hereby authorized to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations requiring the filing of inventories and the issuance and distribution of stamps through its representatives, and for the inspection of liquor stocks wherever they may be in this State, such as may be deemed necessary to enforce compliance with this Article.

Sub-sec. 6. The tax levied in this Section 21½ is on sales made prior to midnight of August 31, 1951.

Sub-sec. 6½. The above described method of payment of the liquor tax herein levied shall not be in force and effect if, as and when and during the period of time for which the Texas Liquor Control Board, by rule and regulation, has prescribed another or different method of the payment of such tax, either with or without the additional stamps provided above. The Texas Liquor Control Board is fully authorized and empowered to adopt and promulgate, from time to time, rules and regulations relative to the collection of such tax levied in this Section; and such rule or regulation may be adopted and become effective with or without the statutory notice provided for the adoption of other rules and regulations of the Board. Such rules and regulations may include provisions for the present stamps, or stamps of the present denominations, to evidence the payment of both the tax herein levied and the tax heretofore levied in the Texas Liquor Control Act as amended, both as to collection of such tax and any refunds authorized under this Section 21½. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer in connection with the sale of any stamps used to evidence the payment of such tax, to follow and comply with any rule or regulation of the Board pursuant to the power granted herein.

Art. 666-22. Repealed by Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 1053, ch. 448, § 47

Art. 666-23. Dry and Wet Areas; Definitions

Whenever the term "dry area" is used in this Act, it shall mean and refer to all counties, justice precincts, incorporated cities or towns wherein the sale of alcoholic beverages had been prohibited by valid local option elections held under the laws of the State in force at the time of taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas in the year 1919. It likewise shall mean and refer to any such areas where sale of such alcoholic beverages shall be prohibited under the terms of this Act.

The term "wet area" shall mean and refer to all other areas of the State.

As to any particular type of alcoholic beverage, each county, justice precinct, incorporated city or town within this State shall be deemed to be a "dry area" unless such political subdivision was a "wet area" at the time Section 20 of Article XVI of the Constitution became effective and has not, since said time changed its status, or unless the sale of that particular type of alcoholic beverage has been legalized by local option election in such political subdivision since said time; provided, however, the Commissioners Court of any county of over 500,000 population according to the last federal census, may designate that the area actually encompassed by the building structure of a professional sports stadium, which is used wholly or partly for professional sporting events, having a seating capacity of 40,000 or more, and the land, not to exceed 125 acres, adjacent to such stadium used for the benefit of such stadium (regardless of ownership of such land) and where no registered voters reside, and/or the area actually encompassed by the building structure of a regional airport, shall be wet for purposes of the sale of mixed beverages, only, under this Act; provided further, that such Commissioners Court shall have authority to so declare only in counties where the sale of all alcoholic beverages has been legalized, either throughout the entire county or any portion of such county, and where a majority of the voters in the county in which such sports stadium or regional airport is located, at the general election on November 3, 1970, approved the constitutional amendment authorizing mixed beverage local option elections; and such order of the Commissioners Court designating such area wet for the purposes of the sale of mixed beverages will authorize the issuance of a Mixed Beverage Permit.

The term "wet area" shall be construed as including in each particular instance only alcoholic beverages of a type or alcoholic beverage not exceeding in alcoholic content that which have been legalized by a valid local option election in the prescribed area, except as otherwise provided above.

The trial courts of this State shall take judicial knowledge of the status of wet and dry areas as herein defined in any criminal prosecution.

An allegation that any county or political subdivision as herein provided is a dry area as to any particular type of alcoholic beverage shall in law be deemed sufficient in any information, complaint, or indictment; provided, however, that a different status of such area may be urged and proved as a defense.

Art. 666-23a. Transportation from Wet Area to Wet Area; Importation of Liquor for Personal Use; Stamps; Hotels Authorized to Hold Certain Permits; Evidence

(1) It is provided that any person who purchases alcoholic beverages for his own consumption may transport same from a place where the sale thereof is legal to a place where the possession thereof is legal.

(2) Possession of more than one quart of liquor in a dry area shall be prima facie evidence that it is possessed for the purpose of sale.

(3) It is provided that it shall be lawful for the holders of Carrier’s and Private Carrier’s Permits to transport liquor from one wet area to another wet area where in the course of such transportation it is necessary or convenient to cross a dry area.

(4) It is provided that any military personnel stationed in Texas or any resident of the State of Texas may bring into this state not more than one (1) quart of liquor for his own personal use; and it is further provided that any non-resident of the State of Texas may bring into this state for his own personal use not more than one (1) gallon of liquor. In addition to the penalties set out in Section 41 of this Act, any person violating any provision of this section shall forfeit the liquor so illegally imported to the Board. It is further provided that any person importing any liquor into this state under the provisions of this section shall pay the state tax thereon as levied in Section 21, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, and affix thereto the required State Tax Stamps. It is further provided that no person under twenty-one (21) years of age or who is intoxicated or under the influence of an intoxicating beverage shall be allowed or permitted at any time to import or bring into the State of Texas any liquor in any amount whatsoever.

(5) It is further provided that any bona fide hotel shall be authorized to hold a Package Store Permit and a Mixed Beverage Permit as well as a Wine and Beer Retailer’s Permit and a Beer Retailer’s License provided such businesses are completely and wholly segregated from each other. The Commission is authorized to adopt rules and regulations to enforce this provision. It is further provided that a hotel holding a Package Store Permit may deliver liquor at retail in unbroken packages to the rooms of bona fide guests of such hotel for consumption in such rooms.

(6) Proof of the sale or delivery by any person holding a retailer’s permit of more than three (3) gallons of distilled spirits to any person in a single or continuous transaction shall be prima facie evidence that the sale is a sale at wholesale.

(7) Proof of the sale or delivery by any person holding a permit authorizing the sale of distilled spirits at wholesale of less than three (3) gallons of such distilled spirits in any single transaction shall be prima facie evidence that the same is a sale at retail.

(8) Upon a trial for a violation of any provision of either Article I or Article II of this Act a conviction may be had upon the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice.

Art. 666-24. City Charter Restrictions

In any city where the sale of liquor as herein defined is prohibited by its charter from being sold in its residence section, or any part thereof, such charter amendment shall remain valid and continue effective until such time as said charter provision may be repealed or amended as provided by law.

[Acts 1935, 44th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 1795, ch. 467, art. 1, § 24.]

Provided further, that any person holding more than one Package Store Permit shall be privileged to transfer alcoholic beverages between any of his licensed premises in the same county under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commission, at any time between the hours of 7:00 o’clock a. m. and 9:00 o’clock p. m. on any day when the sale of such alcoholic beverage is legal, provided that he be the holder of a Local Cartage Permit.

majority of the voters favor the issue "Against the legal sale, etc." as to any alcoholic beverages of the various types and alcoholic content, said court shall immediately make an order declaring the results of said vote and absolutely prohibiting the sale of such prohibited type or types of alcoholic beverages with-from the date of declaring the results thereof, and thereafter until such time as the qualified voters therein may thereafter at the legal election held for such purpose by a majority vote decide otherwise; and the order thus made shall be held as prima facie evidence that all provisions of law have been complied with in giving notice of and holding said election and counting and returning the votes and declaring the results thereof.

limited to, the right to possess, store, warehouse and sell beer in such political subdivision, and also to deliver beer into and out of such political subdivi-sale of beer is prohibited in such political subdivision as a result of such election, sale of beer and delivery outlets located outside of such political subdivision where the possession and sale of liquor is political subdivision and not to authorize such dis-budies or wholesalers to sell any alcoholic beversuch political subdivision where the sale of such alcoholic beverage or beverages has been prohibited by such election.

under such circumstances as could not reasonably have been prevented by such permittee or licensee with the exercise of due diligence, or that such permittee or licensee has violated any provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act without the knowledge of such permittee or licensee, or the violation complained of was a technical violation, or that such permittee or licensee did not knowingly violate the provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act, then the Board or Administrator shall have the authority to relax any provision concerning suspension or cancellation of the permit or retail off-premise license and to assess such sanction as the Board or Administrator may deem just under the circumstances, and such permit or retail off-premise license may, in the discretion of the Board or Administrator be reinstated at any time during the period of suspension upon payment by such offending permittee or licensee of a fee of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500). Art. 666-42. Seizures; Replevin; Suit for Forfeiture; Intervention by Lienholders; Sale; Liens on Proceeds

(a) All illicit beverages as defined by this Act together with the containers and any device in which the beverage is packaged, and any wagon, buggy, automobile, water or aircraft, or any other vehicle, used for the transportation of any illicit beverage, or any equipment designed to be used or which is used for illicit manufacturing of beverages, or any material of any kind which is to be used in the manufacturing of illicit beverages, may be seized with or without a warrant by an agent or employee of the Texas Liquor Control Board, or by any peace officer, and any person found in possession of, or in charge thereof, may be arrested without a warrant. No alcoholic beverages, containers, or any device in which such beverage is packaged so seized shall be repleived, but shall be delivered to the Board, to be held for the sale and deposit of proceeds in escrow as provided in Section 30 of Article I. Any such wagon, buggy, automobile, water or aircraft or any other vehicle so seized may be repleived by the owner thereof or lawful lienholder thereon upon execution by him of a good and valid bond with sufficient surety in a sum double the appraised value of the property repleived, which bond shall be approved by said officer and shall be conditioned to return said property to the custody of said officer on the day of trial of any suit for the forfeiture of such property to abide the judgment of the court. In any such suit where the owner of the vehicle or the lienholder appears and contests the suit, the burden shall be on the state to prove that such owner or lienholder knowingly violated some provision of this Act; otherwise the court shall enter judgment for such owner or lienholder.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Attorney General, the District Attorney, and the County Attorney, or any of them, when notified by the officer making the seizure, or by the Texas Liquor Control Board, that such seizure has been made, to institute a suit for forfeiture of the property seized and of the proceeds of the sale of the alcoholic beverages, containers, and devices in which such alcoholic beverages are packaged (referred to hereinafter as "proceeds in escrow"), such suit to be brought in the name of the State of Texas against such property and proceeds in escrow in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county wherein such seizure was made. Notice of pendency of such suit shall be served on any person found in possession of the beverages or property at the time of seizure in the manner prescribed by law and the case shall proceed to trial as other civil cases. If no person be found in possession of the beverages or property, or if at the time suit is filed the whereabouts of those in possession is unknown, notice shall be posted at the courthouse door in the county wherein the property was seized for a period of twenty (20) days. If upon the trial of such suit it is found that the alcoholic beverages were illicit, or that the vehicle was used for the transportation of illicit beverages, or that the equipment is designed to be used or is used for illicit manufacturing of beverages, or the material is to be used in the manufacturing of illicit beverages, then the court trying said cause shall render judgment forfeiting the property and proceeds in escrow to the State of Texas and ordering the same disposed of as provided for by Section 30 of this Article, or in the opinion of the Board or Administrator any such property, except the proceeds in escrow, is needed for the use of the Board, then the same may be retained and so used until such time as such property is sold by the Board as provided herein. The costs of such proceedings shall be paid by the Board, out of funds derived under the provisions of said Section 30, or from any other fund available to the Board for such purpose.

(c) As to any property or articles upon which there may be a lien, by a bona fide lienholder, the holder of such may intervene to establish his rights and shall be required to show such lien to have been granted in a bona fide manner and without knowledge of the fact at the time of creation of the lien, that any article or property upon which such lien exists has been used or was to be used in violation of this Act. If the holder of any such lien shall intervene, then the court trying said cause shall render judgment forfeiting the same to the State of Texas, and if such lien is established to the satisfaction of the court, said court shall authorize the issuance of an order of sale directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county wherein the property was seized, commanding such officer to sell said property in the same manner as personal property is sold under execution. The court may order such property sold in whole or in part as it may deem proper and the sale shall be conducted at the courthouse door. The money realized from the sale of such property shall be applied first to the payment of the costs of suit and expenses incident to the sale and after such expenses have been approved and allowed by the court trying the case, then the further procceeds of such sale shall be used to pay all such liens according to priorities, and any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the Board to be allocated as provided in Section 30 hereof. All such liens against property sold under this Section shall be transferred from the property to the proceeds of its sale. In case such lien is not established to the satisfaction of the court the judgment shall be entered ordering same disposed of as provided in Subsection (b) of this Section.

A lien on alcoholic beverages, containers thereof, and devices in which the alcoholic beverages are packaged will attach to the proceeds of their sale, which have been placed in escrow as provided in Section 30 of this Article I. The lien must be established as provided by this Subsection. Upon establishment of liens on the proceeds in escrow to the satisfaction of the court, the proceeds in escrow will be used to pay all such liens according to priorities. The remaining proceeds shall be disposed of as provided in Subsection (b) of Section 30 of this Article I.

The sheriff, constable, or Texas Liquor Control Board executing said sale shall issue a bill of sale or certificate to the purchaser of said property, and such bill of sale or certificate shall convey valid and unimpaired title to such property.

Art. 666–58. Salvaging Insured Losses

[Text as added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1797, ch. 531, § 1]

Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, any person not otherwise permitted or licensed to sell alcoholic beverages but coming into possession of any alcoholic beverages as an insurer or an insurance salvor in the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas by a qualified permittee or licensee may sell such beverages in one lot or parcel to a duly licensed holder of a qualified permit or license without himself qualifying as a permittee or licensee. Provided, however, no alcoholic beverages unfit to be sold for public consumption may be so sold, and provided further, immediately after taking possession of said alcoholic beverages the said insurer or insurance salvor shall register same with the Texas Alcoholic...
Beverage Commission, furnishing the Commission a detailed listing and exact location of the alcoholic beverages and posting with the Commission a surety bond in such amount as the Administrator may deem adequate to protect the State in relation to taxes due on such alcoholic beverages, if any; provided, the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission shall find same to be salable and provided further, the person making such registration shall remit therewith a registration fee of Ten Dollars, which fee shall permit the sale of only the alcoholic beverages detailed in the said registration.

It is further provided, however, that as to beer, its containers, or original packages which may come into the possession of any insurer, or any insurance salvor in connection with the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas, the following procedure shall be followed as to disposition or sale:

Upon being notified and furnished a list of any beer possessed and desired to be sold by any insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission shall immediately notify the holder of a General or Local Distributor's or Branch Distributor's License who handles the brand of beer and who operates in the county where said beer is located. If the beer is located in a dry area or if no Distributor operates in the county, the insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission, and the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said beer is in a salable condition. If said beer is determined not to be in a salable condition it shall be immediately destroyed by the Commission. If said beer is determined to be in a salable condition it shall be offered for sale to the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified. If offered to a Distributor or Branch Distributor, it shall be at the Distributor's or Branch Distributor's cost price less any State taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. its place of business, or if offered to a Manufacturer the price shall be the cost price to its nearest Distributor or Branch Distributor, less any State taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. said nearest Distributor's or Branch Distributor's place of business.

Should said Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer not exercise the right to purchase any salable beer, or any returnable bottles, containers or packages within ten (10) days, then the insurer or insurance salvor shall proceed to sell same as hereinabove otherwise provided.

Having purchased such beverages in accordance with this article, the purchasing duly licensed permittee or licensee may thereafter handle, possess, transport, sell, or otherwise dispose of beverages so acquired to the same extent and in the same way allowed to other alcoholic beverages legally acquired by such permittee or licensee.

It is further provided, however, that as to any liquor, its containers or original packages which may come into the possession of any insurer or any insurance salvor in connection with the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas, the following procedure shall be followed as to disposition or sale.

Upon being notified and furnished a list of liquor that has been possessed and desired to be sold by an insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission shall immediately notify only the holder or holders of the Wholesaler's Permit or General Class B or Local Class B Wholesaler's Permit who handle and regularly sell the brand or brands of liquor possessed and who operate in the county where said liquor is located. If the liquor is located in a dry area, only the Wholesalers operating nearest said area handling and regularly selling the brand or brands shall be notified. The Commission and the Wholesaler or Wholesalers and the Non-resident Sellers or their Agents of the brand or brands possessed so notified, and the insurer or insurance salvor shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said liquor is in a salable condition; provided, however, that no Non-resident Seller or Manufacturer's Agent, acting either in this capacity or in any other, shall be authorized to represent any person, persons, or legal entity other than the primary source of supply for the alcoholic beverage involved within the United States. If said liquor is determined not to be in a salable condition, it shall be destroyed immediately by the Commission. If said liquor is determined to be in a salable condition, it shall first be offered for sale to the Wholesaler and the Non-resident Seller of the brand or brands at their cost price, less any State taxes on said liquor if theretofore paid.

Should any Wholesaler of the brand not exercise the right to purchase any salable liquor, containers or packages within ten (10) days, then the Commission shall proceed to sell same at public or private sales as hereinabove otherwise provided.

The term “salable,” as used herein, shall mean a finding that the beverage has not been adulterated and is fit for consumption, all tax stamps required by law have been affixed, and the labels are legible as to contents, brand and manufacturer. The salvor may reject any bid made on a part only of the whole salvage.

The annual State fee for a Branch Distributor's License shall be Fifty Dollars ($50); provided, however, that the fee for any license required to terminate in less than twelve (12) months from the date of issue shall be paid in advance at the rate of Four and Two Hundred Dollars ($4.25) for each month or fraction thereof for which the license is issued.

If by local option election the holder of a Branch License shall be prevented from selling beer in the county of his residence and for such reason his primary license becomes void, nevertheless he shall not be denied the right of lawfully selling beer under any existing Branch License until the normal expiration thereof; it being further provided that any such Manufacturer or Distributor may, upon the expiration of any such Branch License, immediately thereafter obtain in any county wherein a Branch License has been held a primary Manufacturer's or Distributor's License without the necessity of qualifying as a resident of the county in which such primary license is sought.

(e) Retail Dealer's On-Premise License. A Retail Dealer's On-Premise License shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer for consumption on or off the premises where sold, in or from any lawful container to the ultimate consumer, but not for resale. All sections of this Act which apply to the Retail Dealer's On-Premise License shall also apply to the Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License. The annual State fee for a Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100).

(e-2) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, the holder of a Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License shall be limited to selling authorized alcoholic beverages for on-premise consumption during extended hours.

(f) Retail Dealer's Off-Premise License. A Retail Dealer's Off-Premise License shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer in a lawful container direct to the consumer, but not for resale and not to be opened or consumed on or near the premises where sold. Annual State fee for a Retail Dealer's Off-Premise License shall be Ten Dollars ($10).

(g) No General Distributor's License, Local Distributor's License, or Branch Distributor's License shall be issued to any person who is the holder of a Package Store Permit, or a Wine Only Package Store Permit.

(h) The Commissioners Court in each county of this State shall have the power, except as herein otherwise provided as to Temporary Licenses, to levy and collect from every person licensed hereunder in said county a license fee equal to one-half (½) of the State fee; and any incorporated city or town wherein the license is issued shall have the power, except as to Temporary Licenses, to levy and collect a license fee not to exceed one-half (½) of the State fee, but no other fee or tax shall be levied by either. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the levying, assessing, and collecting of general ad valorem taxes on the property of any person licensed to sell beer. The Board or Administrator may cancel the license of any person upon finding that the licensee has not paid any fee levied by the city as provided in this subsection.

(i) The holder of a Manufacturer's License or a Distributor's License shall be authorized to maintain or engage necessary warehouses, for storage purposes only in areas where the sale of beer is lawful, from which deliveries may be made without such warehouses being licensed, except that importations of beer from outside the State shall not be made directly or indirectly to such unlicensed warehouses. Any warehouse or railway car in which sales orders for beer are taken or money therefor collected shall be deemed a separate place of business for which a license is required. The sale and delivery of beer from a truck of a licensed Manufacturer or Distributor to a licensed Retail Dealer at the latter's place of business shall not constitute such truck to be a separate place of business. The Board shall govern by rule and regulation the transportation of such beer, the sale of which is to be consummated at the licensed Retailer's place of business.

(j) Temporary License. A Temporary License shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer only for consumption on or off the premises where sold, in or from any lawful container to the ultimate consumer, and no such license shall authorize the sale of beer at any point outside the county where same is issued. Temporary Licenses shall be issued by the Board, Administrator, or any authorized representative of the Board. The Board shall adopt all necessary rules and regulations to effectuate the issuance and use of Temporary Licenses. A Temporary License shall not be issued to any person who does not also hold a Retail Dealer's On-Premise License or a Wine and Beer Retailer's Permit. A Temporary License shall be issued for a period of not more than four (4) days. Fees collected from the issuance of Temporary Licenses shall be retained by the Texas Liquor Control Board, and no fees shall be charged by any City or County for such licenses; and no refund shall be allowed upon the surrender or non-use of any such license. The Board, Administrator, or any authorized representative of the Board may issue such licenses only for the sale of beer at picnics, celebrations, or similar events, and may refuse to issue such licenses if there is reason to believe the issuance of the license would in any manner be detrimental to the public. The basic license or permit, under which the Temporary License was issued, may be suspended or cancelled for any violation of Section 19 or Section 19-B of this Article 4 on the premises of a Temporary License. The fee for a Temporary License shall be Five Dollars ($5).

(k) (1) Agent's Beer License. Agents, representatives and employees of beer manufacturers located within or without the State, which agents, representatives and employees engage in selling, offering to sell, soliciting, displaying, advertising or otherwise promoting sales of beer by personal contact with licensed retailers of beer, their agents, servants or employees, and/or consumers of beer, and whose compensation for employment is based mainly on such activities by such personal contact as opposed to similar activities by personal contact with licensed distributors of beer; and agents, representatives and employees of licensed distributors of beer who engage in selling, offering to sell, soliciting, displaying, advertising or otherwise promoting sales of beer by personal contact with licensed retailers of beer, their agents, servants or employees, and/or consumers of beer, and whose compensation for such employment is based mainly on such activities by such personal contact, are hereby required to have a license issued by the Board and designated "Agent's Beer License."

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the activities set out in paragraph (1) hereof
Art. 667-3

PENAL AUXILIARY LAWS

unless he is the holder of a valid Agent's Beer License, and upon conviction of any person for violation of this Section he shall be punished as is provided in Section 41 of Article 1 of this Act. A period of grace of five (5) days, which shall be the first five (5) days of his activities as set out in paragraph (1) hereof, is hereby extended to such person, during which period he shall procure an Agent's Beer License from the Texas Liquor Control Board. No such license shall be granted to any person until it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Board that he is employed or has good prospects of being employed to act as agent or a representative for the holder of a Manufacturer's or Distributor's License.

(3) It shall be unlawful except during the five-day grace period set out in paragraph (1) hereof for any Manufacturer or Distributor to use or be the beneficiary of the services of any person to carry on the activities set out in paragraph (1) hereof unless such person is the holder of a valid Agent's Beer License.

(4) It shall be unlawful for any Manufacturer located within or without the State or any Distributor to employ in any capacity or to continue in his employ a person who has been issued an Agent's Beer License during a time when such license is under a suspension order of the Board or within one (1) year from the date of cancellation for cause of such license by the Board.

(5) The Board is given authority to promulgate and enforce reasonable rules and regulations defining the qualifications and regulating the conduct of any such licensed agent.

(6) All applications for such licenses shall be filed with the Board, or any designated employee of the Board, on such form and including therein such required information as may be prescribed by the Board. Such application shall be acted upon exclusively by the Board or the Administrator, or a designated employee of the Board, and the County Judge shall not receive such applications nor shall he have jurisdiction over the approval or issuance of such licenses.

(7) All such licenses shall be issued on an annual basis and shall expire one (1) year from the date upon issue. Applications for renewal of such licenses shall be filed with the Board not more than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date thereof on forms requiring such information as may be prescribed by the Board.

(8) Any Agent's Beer License may be suspended or cancelled by the Board for violation of any of the rules or regulations of the Board, or for any of the reasons the license of a Manufacturer or Distributor may be suspended or cancelled, and the same procedure applicable to the suspension or cancellation of the Manufacturer's or Distributor's License shall be followed in the suspension or cancellation of such Agent's Beer License.

(9) The annual fee for an Agent's Beer License shall be Three Dollars ($3), and cities and counties shall not have the authority to assess a fee for the issuance of such licenses. It is hereby declared to be a violation of the Texas Liquor Control Act for any Manufacturer or Distributor to pay the license fee for any person licensed hereunder, or to reimburse any person for such payment. The Board shall not refund any part of the fee collected hereunder to any person for any reason.

Art. 667-3a. Importation of Beer without Distributor's or Manufacturer's License Unlawful

It shall be unlawful for any person to import into this State any beer unless he holds a Distributor's or Manufacturer's License.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 1053, ch. 448, § 49.]

Art. 667-3b. Quantity of Beer Imported for Personal Use; Importation by Railroad for Passengers

It is provided that any person may import tax paid beer into this State for his own personal use but in any one day he shall not import more than one case containing twenty-four (24) bottles having a capacity of not exceeding twelve (12) ounces each, or not exceeding the equivalent thereof if contained in any other kind of container.

It is also provided that any railroad company operating in this State may import beer owned by such railroad company into this State in such quantities as are necessary to meet the demands of the traveling public while traveling on trains operated by such railroad company, provided, however, no beer shall be sold or served in a dry area.

Art. 667-4. License Fees Payable before Issuance of License; Disposition of Proceeds

Before any license required by this Article shall be issued, the license fee required therefor shall be paid to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes of the county where such license is applied for; and such fees, except fees for Temporary Licenses herein provided, shall be deposited in the Clearance Fund provided by Section 2, Article XX of House Bill No. 8, Chapter 134, Acts of the Regular Session of the 47th Legislature, to be used as provided in that Act.

The applicant is not a citizen of the United States or has not been a citizen of Texas for a period of three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of his application, provided, however, that this paragraph (e) shall not apply to any person who has been issued a license or a renewal thereof on or before September 1, 1948; or

5. The individual natural person applying for such license or permit; or, if the applicant not be an individual natural person, the individual partner, officer, trustee or receiver who is to be primarily responsible for the management of the premises, shall be required to attend any hearing involving the application. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 80, ch. 38, § 17C, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 667-5F. — On-Premise License or Permit Applications; Refusal for Criminal Convictions

(a) The County Judge shall refuse any original application for a Retail Dealer’s On-Premise License or a Wine and Beer Retailer’s Permit if he finds that the individual applicant, or the spouse of such applicant, has at any time during the three years next preceding the filing of such application been finally convicted of a felony, or any of the following offenses:

1. Prostitution;

(b) The Texas Liquor Control Board shall refuse to issue any renewal of a Retail Dealer’s On-Premise License or a Wine and Beer Retailer’s Permit if it finds that the individual applicant, or the spouse of such applicant, has at any time during the three years next preceding the filing of application for such renewal been finally convicted of a felony, or any of the offenses listed in Subsection (a) of this Section, or if it finds that three years has not elapsed since the termination of any sentence, parole or probation served by the applicant, or the spouse of such applicant, as the result of a felony prosecution, or prosecution for any type of offense named in Subsection (a) of this Section.

(c) The word “applicant” as used in this Section shall mean the individual natural person, if any, holding or applying for such license or permit; or, if the holder or applicant not be an individual natural person, the individual partner, officer, trustee or receiver who is primarily responsible for the management of the premises.

Art. 667-5G. — Hearing upon Application

(a) The application of any person desiring to be licensed to manufacture, distribute, or sell beer shall be filed in duplicate with the county judge, who shall set same for hearing at a date not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) days from the filing of same.

(b) (1) Upon the filing of an original application for license to manufacture or distribute beer, the County Clerk shall give notice thereof by posting it at the Courthouse door, a written notice of the filing of such application, which notice shall contain the substance of said application and the date of the hearing thereon.

(b) (2) Upon the filing of an original application for a license to sell beer at retail at a location heretofore licensed, the County Clerk shall give notice thereof by posting at the Courthouse door, a written notice of the filing of such application, which notice shall contain the substance of said application and the date of the hearing thereon.

However, upon the filing of an original application for a license to sell beer at retail at a location not theretofore licensed, the County Clerk shall give notice of such application by publication for two (2) consecutive issues in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city or town in which the applicant’s place of business is to be located. Provided, however, that where no newspaper is published in the city or town, then the same shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where applicant’s business is to be located, and if no newspaper is published in the county, then notice shall be published in newspapers which is published in the closest neighboring county and circulated in the county where the license or permit is sought. Such notice shall be published in ten (10) point black face type, and shall set forth the type of retail license or permit to be applied for, the exact location of said business, the name of the owner or owners thereof, and if operating under an assumed name, the trade name, together with all names of owners, and if a corporation, the names and titles of all officers of said corporation. At the time the application is filed with the Clerk, the applicant shall deposit with said Clerk, cost of the publication of two (2) notices, which deposit shall be used in payment of such publication.

(b) (3) Any person shall be permitted to contest the facts stated in any application for a license to distribute, manufacture or sell beer at retail, and the applicant’s right to secure such license, upon giving security for all costs which may be incurred in such contest should the case be decided in favor of the applicant; provided, however, no officer of a county or incorporated city or town shall be required to give bond for such cost.

(c) If upon hearing upon the petition of any applicant for a license the county judge finds the facts stated therein to be true and has not other lawful reason for denying the application, he shall enter an order so certifying, and a copy of said order shall be delivered to the applicant; applicant shall thereupon present the same to the assessor and collector of taxes of the county wherein the application is made and shall pay to the assessor and collector of taxes the fee specified in this Article for the class of license applied for; the assessor and collector of taxes shall thereupon report to the Texas Liquor Control Board upon a form prescribed by said Board certifying that the application for license has been approved and all required fees paid, and such other information as may be required by the Board, and on such certificate shall be attached a copy of the original application for license. Upon receiving such report or certification from the assessor and collector of taxes, it shall be the duty of the Board or Administrator to issue the license accordingly, if it is found that the applicant is entitled to a license, which license shall show the class of business the applicant is authorized to conduct, amount of fees paid, date, correct address of the place of business, and date of expiration, and such other information as the Board shall deem proper; provided, however, that the Board or Administrator may refuse to issue any such license if in possession of information from which it is determined that any statement contained in the application therefor is false, untrue, or misleading, or that there are other legal reasons why a license should not be issued. Upon any refusal by the Board or Administrator, applicant shall be entitled to refund of any license fee paid to the county assessor and collector of taxes at the time of filing his application.

(d) If upon hearing upon the petition of any applicant for a license the county judge finds any facts stated therein to be untrue, the application shall be denied; and it shall be sufficient cause for the county judge to refuse to grant any license when he has reason to believe that the applicant will conduct his business of selling beer at retail in a manner contrary to law or in any place or manner conducive to the violation of the law or likely to result in any jeopardy to the peace, morals, health, or safety of the general public. There shall be sufficient legal reason to deny a license if it is found that the place, building, or premises for which the license is sought has theretofore been used for selling alcoholic beverages in violation of law at any time during the six months immediately preceding the date of application, or has during that time been a place operated, used, or frequented in any manner or for any purpose contrary to the provisions of this Act, or, so operated, used or frequented for any purpose or in any manner that is lewd, immoral or offensive to public decency. In the granting or withholding of any license to sell beer at retail, the county judge in forming his conclusions shall give due and proper consideration to any recommendations made by the district or county attorney or the sheriff of the county, and the mayor and chief of police of any incorporated city or town wherein the applicant proposes to conduct his business and to any recommendations made by representatives of the Board.

(e) In the event the county judge, Texas Liquor Control Board or Administrator denied the application for a license, he shall enter his judgment accordingly, and the applicant may within thirty (30) days thereafter appeal to the district court of the county where such application is made, and such district court may hear and determine such appeal in term-time or vacation and under the same rules and procedure as provided in Section 14, Article 1, of this Act. In the event the judgment of the district court shall be favorable to the applicant and an appeal is taken, a certified copy of the judgment shall be presented to the assessor and collector of taxes who shall thereupon accept the fees required and make report to the Board in the manner required upon like orders issued by the county judge. In the event the license is finally issued upon orders of the district court, and, upon appeal, the order of the district court be reversed, then the mandate of the appellate court shall, without further proceedings, invalidate and make void the license authorized by order of the district court, and the holder thereof shall, upon application therefor, be entitled to a refund of the proportionate amount of unexpired fees. So much of the proceeds collected for license fees under this Article as may be necessary for refunds herein provided for are appropriated for that purpose. Any person appealing from a judgment or order under the provisions of this Section shall give bond for all costs incident to such appeal and shall be required to pay such costs if the judgment on appeal is unfavorable to the applicant, but not otherwise; provided, however, no such bond shall be required upon appeals filed on behalf of the state.

(f) Every person making application for an original license of any class herein provided, except Branch Licenses and Temporary Licenses, shall be subject at the time of the hearing thereon to a fee of Five ($5.00) Dollars, which fee shall, by the county clerk, be deposited in the county treasury and the applicant shall be liable for no other fees except said application fee and the annual license fee required of him by this Act.

(g) No person shall be authorized to sell beer during the pendency of his original application for a license, and no official shall advise or suggest that such action would be lawful or permitted.

1 Article 666-1 et seq., 667-1 et seq.
Art. 667-7. Expiration and Renewal of Licenses; Assignability; Refund; Duplicate; Second License for Same Location

(a) Any license issued under the terms of this Article except Branch Licenses, Importer’s Licenses, Importer’s Carrier’s Licenses, and Temporary Licenses specifically provided for, shall terminate one (1) year from the date issued, and no license shall be issued for a longer term than one (1) year. When it is desired to renew any license obtained under the procedure provided in this Article, the holder of such license shall make written application to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes of the county wherein the license is located not more than thirty (30) days prior to, and not after, the date of expiration of the license held by him. Such application for renewal shall be signed by the applicant and contain full and complete information required of the applicant by the Board showing such applicant is not disqualified from holding a license under this Act, and applicant shall pay to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes the appropriate license fee for the class of license sought to be renewed. The Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall thereupon transmit to the Board the original copy of said application for renewal together with the certification that all required fees have been paid for the ensuing license period; and upon receiving the original copy of said application and certification as to the payment of fees, the Board or Administrator may in its discretion issue the license applied for, or may reject the same and require that the applicant for renewal file application with the County Judge and submit to hearing before such County Judge in the manner required of any applicant for the primary or original license. Any applicant for renewal when such renewal is rejected by the Board or Administrator shall be entitled to refund of any license fee paid to the County Assessor and Collector of Taxes at the time of filing his application for renewal.

(b) Any application for renewal shall be accompanied by a fee of Two Dollars ($2), which shall be in addition to the amount required by law to be paid for annual license fees, as a renewal fee charge. Any renewal fee charged collected by the County Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall be deposited in the county treasury as fees of office and be so accounted for by him. No applicant for renewal of license shall be required to pay any fees other than the renewal fee charge and license fees herein provided, except when required by action of the Board or Administrator to submit to hearing upon such renewal before the County Judge.

(c) A separate license fee shall be required for every place of business where the business of manufacturing, importing, or selling beer is conducted.

(d) No license issued under the provisions of this Article shall be assigned by the holder thereof to any person; provided that should any holder of a license desire to change the place of business designated in such license, he may do so by applying upon a form prescribed by the Board to the County Judge and receiving his consent or approval, but further providing that the County Judge may deny such application for change in the place of business for any cause for which an original application may be denied. Any such application may be subject to protest and hearing as though it were an original application. No additional license fees for the remaining unexpired term of the license shall be required of the applicant for change of location.

(e) No licensee shall obtain any refund upon the surrender or nonuse of any license for the manufacture, distribution, importation, or sale of beer except as otherwise provided in this Article.

(f) No person shall conduct as owner or part owner thereof any place of business engaged in the manufacture, distribution, importation or sale of beer except under the name to which the license covering such place of business is issued.

(g) Every license issued prior to the effective date hereof authorizing the manufacture, distribution, or sale of beer shall remain in force until the date of its expiration, but the licensee thereunder shall hold such license as fully subject to all the provisions of this Act, including, but not limited to, the cancellation or suspension thereof for cause as any license that may be issued on or after the effective date hereof.

(h) Should the license of any licensee become mutilated or destroyed the Board or Administrator may issue another license by way of replacement in any manner deemed appropriate by the Board or Administrator.

(i) If any license as provided in this Act shall have been issued to any person for a premises, location, or place of business, and said license is still in effect no other license shall be issued to an applicant therefor unless the holder of the existing license shall have made showing in a manner prescribed by the Board that any privilege conveyed by the existing license will no longer be exercised by the holder thereof at such premises, location or place of business. If the holder of such license desires to transfer the license to another location, such transfer may be applied for as herein provided. In the event the holder of such license makes any declaration required by the Board that the license is no longer to be used, then, and in that event, it shall be unlawful for the holder thereof to manufacture, sell, or possess for the purpose of sale any beer unless and until he shall have made application to reinstate the use of the license in the manner and procedure required in making application for an original license, and re-use of the license may be denied by the County Judge before whom the application for reuse shall be filed, or by the Texas Liquor Control Board or the Administrator for any cause for which a license applied for in an original application may be denied.

Art. 667-7a. Number of Distributors Unlimited

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, there shall be no limitation on the number of General, Local or Branch Distributors who may be permitted to use the same premises, location or place of business as their licensed premises, so long as the beer owned and stored by each of said distributors is kept segregated from that of any other distributor. The application for such license shall contain such information as the Board may require. No Importer's License shall be granted any person who is not already the holder of a Manufacturer's License or a Distributor's License, and all Importer's Licenses shall terminate at the same time as the primary license under which it was issued.

The application for such license shall contain such information as to description of the vehicles and such other information as the Board may require. (j) The Board shall require of Manufacturers of beer in Texas, and of Importers of beer into Texas, a bond or bonds executed by the Manufacturer or Importer as principal, and a security company, duly approved and doing business in this State, as surety, and said bond or bonds shall be made payable to the order of the State of Texas and conditioned as the Board may require and approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form. Said bond or bonds shall be in such amount as will adequately protect the State against the anticipated tax liability of the principal during any six (6) weeks period.

(k) Such sworn statements of taxes due as may be required by the Board, and remittances thereof made payable to the State Treasurer, shall be forwarded to the Board each month not later than the due date set out herein. All such remittances shall be turned over by the Board to the State Treasurer, and after the allocation of funds to defray administrative expenses of the Board as provided in the current Departmental Appropriation Act, all remaining funds shall be deposited in the State Treasury as set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Section 23½ of Article II of the Texas Liquor Control Act.

(l) In any suit brought to enforce the collection of any tax due on beer manufactured in or imported into Texas, a certificate by the Board or Administrator showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, or the delinquency of the amount of tax and penalty set forth therein and of compliance by the Board with all provisions of this Act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

(d) It is not intended that the tax herein levied in Section 21 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be collected on ale or malt liquor shipped out of this State for consumption outside this State, or sold aboard ships for ship's supplies, and the Commission shall provide forms for obtaining exemption from such taxes and shall provide by rule and regulation for equitable and final disposition of any tax credit brought about by such payment of any such unintended or excess tax. The Commission may promulgate rules and regulations generally for the enforcement of this provision.

(e) The Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to require of all Brewers and Nonresident
Brewers, and all Importers, Wholesalers, and Class B Wholesalers of ale and malt liquor such information as to purchases, sales, and shipments as will enable the Commission to collect the full amount of tax due the State, and it shall be unlawful for any such Brewer, Nonresident Brewer, Importer, Wholesaler, or Class B Wholesaler of ale or malt liquor to fail or refuse to give the Commission such information. The Commission shall have the power to seize and withhold from sale any ale or malt liquor the Brewer, Nonresident Brewer, Importer, Wholesaler, or Class B Wholesaler of which refuses to give to the Commission any information which the Commission may require under this provision, or fails or refuses to permit the Commission to make investigation of pertinent records, whether they be located within or without this State.

(g) The Commission shall require of Brewers of ale and malt liquor in Texas and of Importers of ale and malt liquor a bond or bonds executed by the Brewer or Importer as principal, and a surety company duly qualified and doing business in this State, as surety, and said bond or bonds shall be made payable to the order of the State of Texas and conditioned as the Commission may require and approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form. Said bond or bonds shall be in such amount as will adequately protect the State against the anticipated tax liability of the principal during any six (6) weeks' period.

(h) Such sworn statements of taxes due as may be required by the Commission, and remittance therefore made payable to the State Treasurer, shall be forwarded to the Commission each month not later than the due date set out herein. All such remittances shall be turned over by the Commission to the State Treasurer, and after the allocation of funds to defray administrative expenses of the Commission as provided in the current Departmental Appropriation Act, all remaining funds shall be deposited in the State Treasury as set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Section 23(1/2) of Article II of the Texas Liquor Control Act.\(^2\)

(i) In any suit brought to enforce the collection of any tax due on ale or malt liquor brewed in or imported into Texas, a certificate by the Commission or Administrator showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, or the delinquency of the amount of tax and penalty set forth therein and of compliance by the Commission with all provisions of this Act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

(j) The Commission by rule and regulation and the Administrator by directive are hereby empowered to do any and all things necessary to carry out the intent of this Section.

(k) This section shall be effective on and after September 1, 1967, and on and after that date the purchase, affixing or mutilation of ale or malt liquor tax stamps shall no longer be required in Texas, and all requirements as to ale and malt liquor tax stamps in the Texas Liquor Control Act, as amended heretofore and herein, are hereby specifically repealed. The Department shall inspect the property and shall determine whether damage is being done as alleged. If so, the Department shall make such recommendations to the owner of the property as are feasible and appropriate for controlling the damage.

(b) When the county judge receives the notice under Section (a) of this article, he shall immediately cause a substantial copy of the notice to be posted in the county courthouse.

Saved from Repeal

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 268, ch. 126, relating to the protection of endangered species, provides in § 9: "This Act does not repeal Article 913, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended." See article 913a, § 9.

Art. 913a. Protection of Endangered Species

Definitions

Sec. 1. As used in this Act:

(1) "Director" means the executive director of the parks and wildlife department.

(2) "Department" means the parks and wildlife department.

(3) "Fish or wildlife" means any wild mammal, fish, wild bird, amphibian, reptile, mollusk, or crustacean, or any part, product, egg, offspring, dead or alive, of a wild mammal, fish, wild bird, amphibian, reptile, mollusk, or crustacean.

(4) "Person" means any individual, firm, corporation, association, or partnership.

(5) "Management" means the collection and application of biological information for the purposes of increasing the number of individuals within species and populations of wildlife up to the optimum carrying capacity of their habitat and the maintaining of such levels. The term "management" likewise includes the entire range of activities constituting a full scientific resource program including, but not limited to, research, census, law enforcement, habitat acquisition and improvement, and education. Also included within the term, when and where appropriate, is the periodic or total protection of species or populations as well as regulated taking.

Sec. 2. (a) The department shall conduct investigations on nongame fish and wildlife in order to develop information relating to population, distribution, habitat needs, limiting factors, and other biological and ecological data to determine management measures necessary for their continued ability to sustain themselves successfully. On the basis of such determination, the department shall issue proposed regulations not later than one year from the effective date of this Act and develop management programs designed to insure the continued ability of nongame fish and wildlife to perpetuate themselves successfully. The proposed regulations shall set forth species or subspecies of nongame wildlife which the department deems in need of management pursuant to this section, giving their common and scientific names by species and subspecies. The department shall conduct ongoing investigations of nongame fish and wildlife and may from time to time amend such regulations by adding or deleting therefrom species or subspecies of nongame wildlife.

(b) The department shall by regulations establish proposed limitations relating to taking, possession, transportation, exportation, processing, sale or offer for sale, or shipment as may be deemed necessary to manage nongame fish and wildlife. The regulations shall become effective 60 days after being proposed and during that period public comment shall be solicited. The department shall hold a public hearing, notice of which shall be published in at least three major newspapers of general circulation in this state at least one week prior to the hearing date. On the basis of public comments received or the testimony at a hearing the department may make such changes in the proposed regulations as are consistent with effective management of nongame fish and wildlife.

Endangered Species

Sec. 3. Fish or wildlife are classified as endangered species if they appear on:

(1) the present United States List of Endangered Foreign Fish and Wildlife (50 C.F.R. Part 17, Appendix A);

(2) the present United States List of Endangered Native Fish and Wildlife (50 C.F.R. Part 17, Appendix D); or

(3) the list filed by the director under this Act of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction.

Statewide Extinction

Sec. 4. Fish or wildlife may be classified by the director as threatened with statewide extinction if the department finds that the continued existence of the fish or wildlife is endangered in this state due to any of the following factors:

(1) the destruction, drastic modification, or severe curtailment of its habitat;

(2) the over-utilization of it for commercial or sporting purposes;

(3) the effect on it of disease or predation; or
Art. 913a PENAL AUXILIARY LAWS

(4) other natural or man-made factors affecting its continued existence.

Initial Classification by Director

Sec. 5. Within 45 days after the effective date of this Act, the department shall file with the secretary of state a proposed list of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction. This list shall become effective on the 45th day after the date it is filed. Before the effective date of the proposed list, the department shall hold a public hearing on the proposed list. Notice of the hearing shall be published in at least three major newspapers of general circulation in this state at least one week prior to the hearing date. The proposed list may be amended prior to its effective date.

Classification Amendment by Director

Sec. 6. (a) If the federal lists set out in Section 3 of this Act are subsequently altered, the director shall file an order with the secretary of state accepting the alteration. The order is effective immediately.

(b) The department may amend the list filed under Section 5 of this Act by filing an order with the secretary of state. Notice of the intent to file the order and the contents of the proposed order must be given 60 days prior to the date of filing. If petition procedures set out in Section 7 of this Act are initiated relating to the contents of the proposed order during the 60-day notice period, the order may not be filed until the conclusion of the proceedings. The order is effective on the date of filing.

Petition for Reclassification

Sec. 7. (a) On the petition of three interested persons presenting substantial scientific evidence for the addition or deletion of fish or wildlife classified as threatened with statewide extinction, the department may conduct a review of the classification and file an order with the secretary of state adding or deleting fish or wildlife from the list of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction.

(b) If the department refuses to conduct a review of the classification of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction under Subsection (a) of this section, a petition of 50 interested persons presenting scientific evidence for the addition or deletion of fish or wildlife classified as threatened with statewide extinction may be presented to the department. On receipt of this petition, the department must hold a public hearing to review the classification. Notice of the hearing shall be published in at least three major newspapers of general circulation in this state at least one week prior to the hearing date. Based on findings from the public hearing, the department may file an order with the secretary of state adding or deleting fish or wildlife from the list of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction.

(d) Fish or wildlife classified as an endangered species shall be considered and included within the meaning of “protected fish or wildlife” as that term is used in Article 913, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(e) Failure to comply with this section is a violation of this Act. Failure to comply with the terms of a permit issued under Article 913, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, is a violation of that article.

(f) The provisions of this Act do not apply to the possession of mounted or preserved endangered species by public or private nonprofit educational, zoological, or research institutions held prior to the effective date of this Act. The department may require such institutions to furnish a list of mounted or preserved endangered species which they hold, together with adequate proof of the time of acquisition.

The special Game and Fish Fund shall be used for the purposes prescribed by law and nothing shall be done to jeopardize or divert this Fund or any portion thereof provided herein and for the purposes as now described by federal aid as described in Section 6 of this Act.

Art. 978f-4a. Exchange of Lands

Sec. 1. The Executive Director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, with approval of the Parks and Wildlife Commission, may execute a deed or deeds exchanging real property or an interest therein, either as the whole or as partial consideration for other real property or interest therein, to be used by the Department for a State park, historic site, scientific area or game management area.

Sec. 2. All State lands thus exchanged shall be for other lands adjoining the same park, historic site, scientific area or game management area, and shall contain no State improvements other than fences.

Special Permit to Hunt

Sec. 3. No person may receive a special permit for two (2) consecutive years unless all applications from persons who applied but did not receive a special permit in the preceding year are filled. The Parks and Wildlife Commission shall charge a fee for the issuance of permits issued under this Section. The Parks and Wildlife Department is hereby authorized and directed to expend funds to counties and school districts for assessments in lieu of property taxes on wildlife management areas purchased from federal funds or grants authorized by Pittman-Robertson Act or Dingell-Johnson Act. It is the intent of this bill to encourage the development of wildlife management areas in the counties of the state; however, it is a matter of equity that the local units of government are entitled to funds assessed in lieu of property taxes for these wildlife management areas. No general revenue funds may be expended in lieu of taxes for wildlife management areas; however, special funds may be expended for this purpose provided reimbursement or matching from the federal government is available at a federal ratio of 2 to 1 or better.

Sec. 2. Subject to the limitations provided in Section 3, it shall be unlawful, except as provided in this Act, for any person to hunt, take, kill or possess, or attempt to take or kill any game bird or game animals in these counties of the State of Texas at any time; or to take, kill, trap or possess, or attempt to take, kill or trap any fur-bearing animal in the counties to which this Act applies, at any time; or to take or attempt to take any fish or other aquatic life or marine animals by any means or method in these counties of this state at any time. The Parks and Wildlife Commission is therefore granted the authority, power and duty to provide by proclamation, rule or regulation, from time to time, periods of time when it shall be lawful to take a portion of the wildlife resources in said counties or in any portion of any of said counties when its investigations and findings of fact disclose that there is an ample supply of such wildlife resources that a portion thereof may be taken which will not threaten depletion or waste of such supply. It shall also, by proclamation, rule or regulation, from time to time, provide the means and the method and the place and the manner in which such wildlife resources may be lawfully taken, provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, take, kill or possess, or attempt to hunt, take or kill any game bird or game animal in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; or to take, kill, trap or possess, or attempt to take, kill, or trap any fur-bearing animal in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; or to take or attempt to take any fish by any means or method in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; unless the owner of the land or the water, or his duly authorized agent shall give consent thereto.

When the Commission finds that danger of depletion exists in any area by virtue of an emergency condition, the Commission may declare a state of emergency as to such species in said area, and its orders, rules and regulations issued under such state of emergency shall take effect and be in full force immediately upon issuance thereof.

Hunting Antlerless Deer, Antelope and Elk: Proclamation, Rule or Regulation; Agreement of Landowner

Sec. 6. The Parks and Wildlife Commission's proclamation, rule or regulation permitting the hunting or taking of antlerless deer, antelope and elk should not be effective as to any tract of land upon which antlerless deer, antelope or elk are to be taken until the owner or person in charge of that specific tract of land upon which antlerless deer, antelope or elk are to be taken shall have agreed in writing to the removal by hunting of such antlerless deer, antelope or elk from the tract under supervision, and regulation of the Commission; and to the number of antlerless deer, antelope and elk to be removed therefrom. Antlerless and/or doe deer, antelope or elk hunting permits may be issued by the landowner, or by the person in charge of the land, to hunters to take antlerless deer, antelope or elk only upon the particular tract covered by the landowner's agreement. For the purposes of this Section, the Parks and Wildlife Commission may, when the conditions warrant, permit the taking of antlerless deer, antelope or elk without the requirement of an antlerless and/or doe deer, antelope or elk hunting permit, but in such cases the Commission's proclamation shall be specific as to the counties or portions of counties in which antlerless deer, antelope or elk may be taken without the special hunting permit. Accounting and Division of Fees

Sec. 6. The Game, Fish and Oyster Commission is hereby empowered and directed to keep separate and strict accounting of the revenue derived from collections for Lake Texoma Fishing License and Lake Texoma Ten-day Fishing License for annual division between the States of Texas and Oklahoma, said division to be on a basis of the proportionate area of the Lake's surface lying within the territorial jurisdiction of the respective states. The Comptroller of Public Accounts is hereby directed to pay over to the State of Oklahoma seventy (70%) percent of the funds collected under the provisions of this Act, said payment to be made on February 1 of each year, from all funds so collected during the twelve-month period ending December 31 of the previous year.

Reciprocal Legislation by Oklahoma

Sec. 7. Provisions of this Act shall not become effective unless and until the State of Oklahoma shall make provision for sale of a Lake Texoma Fishing License and a Lake Texoma Ten-day Fishing License under the same relative conditions set out above and to provide for payment by the State of Oklahoma to the State of Texas not less than thirty (30%) percent of all monies collected by the State of Oklahoma for herein prescribed special licenses to be in effect on Lake Texoma, said licenses to be sold in the State of Oklahoma to be parallel in all provisions established as in effect in the State of Texas.

Art. 978n. Game Management Unit for Benefit of Texas Bighorn Mountain Sheep

Sec. 1. The Texas Bighorn Mountain Sheep (Ovis canadensis texiana) is making its last stand in the Sierra Diablo Mountains of Culberson and Hudspeth Counties. Unless the State makes every reasonable endeavor to preserve this majestic form of wildlife by affording it freedom from the encroachment of domestic livestock and predators, they will have perished. The loss of mountain sheep as part of the native fauna of this State would rob future generations of their rightful heritage to the symbols of the natural wildness of this State. In order to protect this interesting animal it is necessary that a fenced game management area be set aside. All lands to be included within such area shall be in Culberson and Hudspeth Counties. It is hereby declared the policy of the State of Texas to do everything within the bounds of sound economy to perpetuate the Texas species of the Rocky Mountain Bighorn Sheep. The purpose of this bill is to give the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission the authority to purchase not to exceed twelve (12) sections of privately owned land and to purchase not to exceed eight (8) sections of public school lands in Culberson and Hudspeth Counties.

Gifts

Sec. 2. The Game, Fish and Oyster Commission of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to accept gifts of land in Culberson or Hudspeth Counties or money to be deposited in the Special Game Fund and to be used for the purpose of a game management unit in Culberson and Hudspeth Counties for the special benefit of the Texas Bighorn Mountain Sheep.

Purchase of School Lands

Sec. 3. The Game, Fish and Oyster Commission of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to purchase, and the school land board of the State of Texas is authorized to sell, at a price not to exceed One Dollar ($1) per acre, the surface rights in and to not more than eight (8) sections of public school lands located in Culberson and Hudspeth Counties, in the following blocks:

Blocks 65 and 66, T. & P. Ry. Co. land; Blocks 42\(\frac{1}{2}\), 43, 54\(\frac{1}{2}\), Public School Lands; said lands to be paid for by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission out of the Special Game Fund.

Acquisition of Other Lands

Sec. 4. The Game, Fish and Oyster Commission shall have the right to acquire by purchase other lands in Culberson and Hudspeth Counties, Texas, that may be deemed necessary for the operation of a game management unit primarily for the protection of Bighorn Mountain Sheep. Upon approval of the title by the Attorney General of this State, said Game, Fish and Oyster Commission is hereby authorized to pay for such land so purchased out of the Special Game Fund.

Power to Appropriate Land

Sec. 5. The State of Texas, through said Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, shall have the right, power, and authority to enter upon, condemn, and appropriate not more than twelve (12) sections of land in Culberson and Hudspeth Counties of any person or corporation for the above mentioned purposes.

Condemnation Proceedings; Payment of Damages

Sec. 6. The manner and method of such condemnation, easement, and payment of damages therefor shall be the same as is now provided by law in the case of railroads. Condemnation suits brought under this Act shall be brought in the name of the State of Texas by the Attorney General at the request of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission in Travis County, Texas. All costs in such proceedings shall be paid by the State or by the person against whom such proceedings are had, to be determined as in the case of railroad condemnation proceedings. All damages and pay or compensation for property awarded in such proceedings shall be paid by the State of Texas, by warrant drawn on the Comptroller against the Special Game Fund in the State Treasury.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 7. If any section, sentence, clause, or part of this Act shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid by any Court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act and it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature to have passed each sentence, section, clause, or part thereof, irrespective of the fact that any other sentence, section, clause, or part thereof may be declared invalid.

Expenditures

Sec. 8. All expenditures provided for under this Act shall be made from the Special Game Fund of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission which expenditure shall not exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) in any one year, and three-fourths (\(\frac{3}{4}\)) of which shall be reimbursed out of any Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration funds available to this State. Said funds are hereby appropriated out of the Special Game Fund for the purposes heretofore stated. [Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 310, ch. 225.]

Art. 978n-2. Pen Raised Quail

Propagation and Sale Authorized

Sec. 1. Any person, firm or corporation may engage in the business of propagating pen raised quail for commercial purposes by complying with the provisions of this law, and may thereafter sell the carcass of such pen raised quail for any purpose, including sale for food.

Definition

Sec. 1a. A pen raised quail is a quail that has been hatched from an egg laid by a quail confined in a pen or coop and has itself been wholly raised in a pen or coop.

License

Sec. 2. A Commercial Quail Breeder's License must first be obtained from the Texas Game and Fish Commission. Said license may be obtained only during the month of July of each year and is to be valid for one year from the date of purchase and upon payment of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars for each of said licenses. Each Commercial Quail Breeder's License must be numbered by the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Rubber Stamp

Sec. 3. The holder of each Commercial Quail Breeder's License must keep and maintain a rubber stamp which shall have written thereon the number of the Commercial Quail Breeder's License issued to him by the Texas Game and Fish Commission and in addition the following: Texas Game and Fish Commission—Commercial Quail Breeder's License.

Stamping and Marking Carcasses; Manner of Killing

Sec. 4. Before the carcass of a dead pen raised quail is sold, the holder of the Commercial Breeder's License shall plainly stamp and mark each such carcass sold or offered to be sold with said rubber stamp. Any sale or purchase of the carcass of a pen raised quail not so stamped and marked shall be a violation of this law. All pen raised quail to be offered for sale must be killed otherwise than by shooting. The carcass of any quail that shows that it has been killed by shooting shall be prima facie evidence that such quail was not raised in accordance with this law; and the fact that such quail has been stamped and marked in accordance with this law shall not alter this presumption.

Sec. 5. The keeper of a hotel, restaurant, boarding house or club may sell pen raised quail for food to be consumed on the premises, and shall not be required to hold a license therefor.

Sec. 6. Any person, firm or corporation that violates any provision of this law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars nor more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars for each offense.

Art. 1.01

CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Art. 1.02. Effective Date

This Code shall take effect and be in force on and after January 1, 1966. The procedure herein prescribed shall govern all criminal proceedings instituted after the effective date of this Act and all proceedings pending upon the effective date hereof insofar as are applicable.

Art. 1.03. Objects of this Code

This Code is intended to embrace rules applicable to the prevention and prosecution of offenses against the laws of this State, and to make the rules of procedure in respect to the prevention and punishment of offenses intelligible to the officers who are to act under them, and to all persons whose rights are to be affected by them. It seeks:

1. To adopt measures for preventing the commission of crime;
2. To exclude the offender from all hope of escape;
3. To insure a trial with as little delay as is consistent with the ends of justice;
4. To bring to the investigation of each offense on the trial all the evidence tending to produce conviction or acquittal;
5. To insure a fair and impartial trial; and
6. The certain execution of the sentence of the law when declared.

Art. 1.04. Due course of law

No citizen of this State shall be deprived of life, liberty, property, privileges or immunities, or in any manner disfranchised, except by the due course of the law of the land.

Art. 1.05. Rights of accused

In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. He shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof. He shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself. He shall have the right of being heard by himself, or counsel, or both; shall be confronted with the witnesses against him, and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor. No person shall be held to answer for a felony unless on indictment of a grand jury.

Art. 1.06. Searches and seizures

The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions from all unreasonable seizures or searches. No warrant to search any place or to seize any person or thing shall issue without describing them as near as may be, nor without probable cause supported by oath or affirmation.

Art. 1.07. Right to bail

All prisoners shall be bailable unless for capital offenses when the proof is evident. This provision shall not be so construed as to prevent bail after indictment found upon examination of the evidence, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Art. 1.08. Habeas Corpus

The writ of habeas corpus is a writ of right and shall never be suspended.

Art. 1.09. Cruelty forbidden

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishment inflicted.

Art. 1.10. Jeopardy

No person for the same offense shall be twice put in jeopardy of life or liberty; nor shall a person be again put upon trial for the same offense, after a verdict of not guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 1.11. Acquittal a bar

An acquittal of the defendant exempts him from a second trial or a second prosecution for the same offense, however irregular the proceedings may have been; but if the defendant shall have been acquitted upon trial in a court having no jurisdiction of the offense, he may be prosecuted again in a court having jurisdiction.

Art. 1.12. Right to jury

The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate.

Art. 1.13. Waiver of trial by jury

The defendant in a criminal prosecution for any offense classified as a felony less than capital shall have the right, upon entering a plea, to waive the right of trial by jury, conditioned, however, that such waiver must be made in person by the defendant in writing in open court with the consent and approval of the court, and the attorney representing the State. The consent and approval by the court shall be entered of record on the minutes of the court, and the consent and approval of the attorney representing the State shall be in writing, signed by him, and filed in the papers of the cause before the defendant enters his plea. Before a defendant who has no attorney can agree to waive the jury, the court must appoint an attorney to represent him. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 1.14. Waiver of rights

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1752, ch. 659 amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Penal Code, Art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the 1967 Act provided:

"Sec. 41. Saving Clause. Any confession admissible at the time it was made shall be admissible at any trial subsequent to the effective date of this Act. The provisions of this Act shall not affect the admissibility of confessions made prior to the effective date of the Act.

Sec. 42. Severability Clause. If any provision, section or clause of this Act or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications hereof which can be given effect without the invalid provision, section or clause, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 1.141. Waiver of indictment for noncapital felony

A person represented by legal counsel may in open court or by written instrument voluntarily waive the right to be accused by indictment of any offense other than a capital felony. On waiver as provided in this article, the accused shall be charged by information. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1148, ch. 260, § 1, eff. May 19, 1971.]

Art. 1.15. Jury in felony

No person can be convicted of a felony except upon the verdict of a jury duly rendered and recorded, unless in felony cases less than capital, the defendant, upon entering a plea, has in open court in person waived his right of trial by jury in writing in accordance with Articles 1.13 and 1.14; provided, however, that it shall be necessary for the state to introduce evidence into the record showing the guilt of the defendant and said evidence shall be accepted by the court as the basis for its judgment and in no event shall a person charged be convicted upon his plea without sufficient evidence to support the same. The evidence may be stipulated if the defendant in such case consents in writing, in open court, to waive the appearance, confrontation, and cross-examination of witnesses, and further consents either to an oral stipulation of the evidence and testimony or to the introduction of testimony by affidavits, written statements of witnesses, and any other documentary evidence in support of the judgment of the court. Such waiver and consent must be approved by the court in writing, and be filed in the file of the papers of the cause. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1753, ch. 659, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3028, ch. 996, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1127, ch. 426, art. 3, § 5, eff. June 14, 1973.]

Art. 1.16. Liberty of speech and press

Every person shall be at liberty to speak, write or publish his opinion on any subject, being liable for the abuse of that privilege; and no law shall ever be passed curtailing the liberty of speech or of the press. In prosecutions for the publication of papers investigating the conduct of officers or men in public capacity, or when the matter published is proper for public information, the truth thereof may be given in evidence. In all indictments for libels, the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts, under the direction of the court, as in other cases. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 1.17. Religious belief

No person shall be disqualified to give evidence in any court of this State on account of his religious opinions, or for the want of any religious belief; but all oaths or affirmations shall be administered in the mode most binding upon the conscience, and shall be taken subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 1.18. Outlawry and transportation

Art. 1.21. Privilege of legislators

If this Code fails to provide a rule of procedure in any particular state of case which may arise, the rules of the common law shall be applied and govern.

CHAPTER TWO. GENERAL DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Art. 2.01. Duties of district attorneys
Each district attorney shall represent the State in all criminal cases in the district courts of his district, except in cases where he has been, before his election, employed adversely. When any criminal proceeding is had before an examining court in his district or before a judge upon habeas corpus, and he is notified of the same, and is at the time within his district, he shall represent the State therein, unless prevented by other official duties. It shall be the primary duty of all prosecuting attorneys, including any special prosecutors, not to convict, but to see that justice is done. They shall not suppress facts or secrete witnesses capable of establishing the innocence of the accused.

Art. 2.02. Duties of county attorneys

The county attorney shall attend the terms of court in his county below the grade of district court, and shall represent the State in all criminal cases under examination or prosecution in said county; and in the absence of the district attorney he shall represent the State alone and, when requested, shall aid the district attorney in the prosecution of any case in behalf of the State in the district court.

(b) It is the duty of the trial court, the attorney representing the accused, the attorney representing the state and all peace officers to so conduct themselves as to insure a fair trial for both the state and the defendant, not impair the presumption of innocence, and at the same time afford the public the benefits of a free press.

Art. 2.04. Shall draw complaints

Upon complaint being made before a district or county attorney that an offense has been committed in his district or county, he shall reduce the complaint to writing and cause the same to be signed and sworn to by the complainant, and it shall be duly attested by said attorney.

Art. 2.05. When complaint is made

If the offense be a misdemeanor, the attorney shall forthwith prepare an information based upon such complaint and file the same in the court having jurisdiction; provided, that in counties having no county attorney, misdemeanor cases may be tried upon complaint alone, without an information, pro-

criminal district courts an information must be filed where there is no attorney for the state, the judge of the court in which he represents the state may appoint any competent attorney to perform the duties of the office during the absence or disqualification of the attorney for the state.

(b) If the appointed attorney is also an attorney for the state, the duties of the appointed office are additional duties of his present office, and he is not entitled to additional compensation.
(c) If the appointed attorney is not an attorney for the state, he is qualified to perform the duties of the office for the period of absence or disqualification of the attorney for the state on filing an oath with the clerk of the court. He shall receive com-ensation in the same amount and manner as an attorney appointed to represent an indigent person.

"Sec. 5. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 2.13. Duties and powers

It is the duty of every peace officer to preserve the peace within his jurisdiction. To effect this purpose, he shall use all lawful means. He shall in every case where he is authorized by the provisions of this Code, interfere without warrant to prevent or suppress crime. He shall execute all lawful process issued to him by any magistrate or court. He shall give notice to some magistrate of all offenses committed within his jurisdiction, where he has good reason to believe there has been a violation of the penal law. He shall arrest offenders without warrant in every case where he is authorized by law, in order that they may be taken before the proper magistrate or court and be tried. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Wherever a duty is imposed by this Code upon the sheriff, the same duty may lawfully be performed by his deputy. When there is no sheriff in a county, the duties of that office, as to all proceedings under the criminal law, devolve upon the officer who, under the law, is empowered to discharge the duties of sheriff, in case of vacancy in the office. Art. 11.02. To whom directed
The writ runs in the name of “The State of Texas”. It is addressed to a person having another under restraint, or in his custody, describing, as near as may be, the name of the office, if any, of the person to whom it is directed, and the name of the person said to be detained. It shall fix the time and place of return, and be signed by the judge, or by the clerk with his seal, where issued by a court.

Art. 11.03. Want of form
The writ of habeas corpus is not invalid, nor shall it be disobeyed for any want of form, if it substantially appear that it is issued by competent authority, and the writ sufficiently show the object of its issuance.

Art. 11.04. Construction

Art. 11.05. By whom writ may be granted

The writ may issue upon the order of any district judge, and said judge may upon presentation to him of a petition for said writ, set the same down for a hearing as to whether the writ should issue, and ascertain the facts, which facts shall be transmitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals with the return of the writ if same is issued after such hearing. Provided further, that such writ be returned to the Court of Criminal Appeals without all the facts deemed necessary by the Court of Criminal Appeals, said court may designate and direct any district judge or judges of this state to ascertain the facts necessary for proper consideration of the issues involved.

(b) When a petition for writ of habeas corpus presented to the judge of the convicting court contains sworn allegations of fact, which, if true, would render petitioner's confinement under the felony conviction illegal, the attorney representing the state in said court and the Attorney General of Texas shall be afforded an opportunity to answer such allegations, and if it appears that there are issues of fact which are material on the question of whether the petitioner is illegally restrained which have not been resolved, the petitioner may be granted a hearing on such issues of fact and the judge conducting such hearing shall make and file his findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(c) It shall be the duty of the official court reporter of the district judge or judges so designated to forthwith prepare a narration of the facts adduced in evidence upon any such hearing and transmit the same, together with the judge's findings of fact and conclusions of law, to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals within fifteen days of the date of such hearing. Sec. 3. The Court of Criminal Appeals may deny relief upon the findings and conclusions of the hearing judge without docketing the cause, or may direct that the cause be docketed and heard as though originally presented to said court or as an appeal. Upon reviewing the record the court shall enter its judgment remanding the petitioner to custody or ordering his release, as the law and facts may justify. The mandate of the court shall issue to the court issuing the writ, as in other criminal cases. After conviction the procedure outlined in this Act shall be exclusive and any other proceeding shall be void and of no force and effect in discharging the prisoner.

Art. 11.10. Proceedings under the writ

He shall also specify some place in the county where he will hear the motion.

Art. 11.11. Early hearing

The time so appointed shall be the earliest day which the judge can devote to hearing the cause of the applicant.

Whenever it appears by satisfactory evidence to any judge authorized to issue such writ that any one is held in illegal confinement or custody, and there is good reason to believe that he will be carried out of the State, or suffer some irreparable injury before he can obtain relief in the usual course of law, or whenever the writ of habeas corpus has been issued and disregarded, the said judge may issue a warrant to any peace officer, or to any person specially named by said judge, directing him to take and bring such person before such judge, to be dealt with according to law.
Art. 11.18. May arrest detainer
Where it appears by the proof offered, under circumstances mentioned in the preceding Article, that the person charged with having illegal custody of the prisoner is, by such act, guilty of an offense against the law, the judge may, in the warrant, order that he be arrested and brought before him; and upon examination, he may be committed, discharged, or held to bail, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

Art. 11.19. Proceedings under the warrant
The officer charged with the execution of the warrant shall bring the persons therein mentioned before the judge or court issuing the same, who shall inquire into the cause of the imprisonment or restraint, and make an order thereon, as in cases of habeas corpus, either remanding into custody, discharging or admitting to bail the party so imprisoned or restrained.

Art. 11.20. Officer executing warrant
The same power may be exercised by the officer executing the warrant in cases arising under the foregoing Articles as is exercised in the execution of warrants of arrest.

Art. 11.21. Constructive custody
The words "confined", "imprisoned", "in custody", "confinement", "imprisonment", refer not only to the actual, corporeal and forcible detention of a person, but likewise to any coercive measures by threats, menaces or the fear of injury, whereby one person exercises a control over the person of another, and detains him within certain limits.

Art. 11.22. Restraint
By "restraint" is meant the kind of control which one person exercises over another, not to confine him within certain limits, but to subject him to the general authority and power of the person claiming such right.

Art. 11.23. Scope of writ
The writ of habeas corpus is intended to be applicable to all such cases of confinement and restraint, where there is no lawful right in the person exercising the power, or where, though the power in fact exists, it is exercised in a manner or degree not sanctioned by law.

Art. 11.24. One committed in default of bail
Where a person has been committed to custody for failing to enter into bond, he is entitled to the writ of habeas corpus, if it be stated in the petition that there was no sufficient cause for requiring bail, or that the bail required is excessive. If the proof sustains the petition, it will entitle the party to be discharged, or have the bail reduced.

Art. 11.25. Person afflicted with disease
When a judge or court authorized to grant writs of habeas corpus shall be satisfied, upon investigation, that a person in legal custody is afflicted with a disease which will render a removal necessary for the preservation of life, an order may be made for the removal of the prisoner to some other place where his health will not be likely to suffer; or he may be admitted to bail when it appears that any species of confinement will endanger his life.

Art. 11.26. Who may serve writ
The service of the writ may be made by any person competent to testify.

Art. 11.27. How writ may be served and returned
The writ may be served by delivering a copy of the original to the person who is charged with having the party under restraint or in custody, and exhibiting the original, if demanded; if he refuse to receive it, he shall be informed verbally of the purport of the writ. If he refuses admittance to the person wishing to make the service, or conceals himself, a copy of the writ may be fixed upon some conspicuous part of the house where such person resides or conceals himself, or of the place where the prisoner is confined; and the person serving the writ of habeas corpus shall, in all cases, state fully, in his return, the manner and the time of the service of the writ.

Art. 11.28. Return under oath
The return of a writ of habeas corpus, under the provisions of the preceding Article, if made by any person other than an officer, shall be under oath.

Art. 11.29. Must make return
The person on whom the writ of habeas corpus is served shall immediately obey the same, and make the return required by law upon the copy of the original writ served on him, and this, whether the writ be directed to him or not.

Art. 11.30. How return is made
The return is made by stating in plain language upon the copy of the writ or some paper connected with it:

1. Whether it is true or not, according to the statement of the petition, that he has in his custody, or under his restraint, the person named or described in such petition;

2. By virtue of what authority, or for what cause, he took and detains such person;
Art. 11.30 CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE 1104

3. If he had such person in his custody or under restraint at any time before the service of the writ, and has transferred him to the custody of another, he shall state particularly to whom, at what time, for what reason or by what authority he made such transfer;

4. He shall annex to his return the writ or warrant, if any, by virtue of which he holds the person in custody; and

5. The return must be signed and sworn to by the person making it.

Art. 11.31. Applicant brought before judge

The person on whom the writ is served shall bring before the judge the person in his custody, or under his restraint, unless it be made to appear that by reason of sickness he cannot be removed; in which case, another day may be appointed by the judge or court for hearing the cause, and for the production of the person in his custody, or under restraint at any time before the service of the writ, and has transferred him to the custody of another, he shall state particularly to whom, at what time, for what reason or by what authority he made such transfer;

Art. 11.32. Custody pending examination

When the return of the writ has been made, and the applicant brought before the court, he is no longer detained on the original warrant or process, but under the authority of the habeas corpus. The safekeeping of the prisoner, pending the examination or hearing, is entirely under the direction and authority of the judge or court issuing the writ, or to which the return is made. He may be bailed from day to day, or be remanded to the same jail whence he came, or to any other place of safekeeping under the control of the judge or court, till the case is finally determined.

Art. 11.33. Court shall allow time

The court or judge granting the writ of habeas corpus shall allow reasonable time for the production of the person detained in custody.

Art. 11.34. Disobeying writ

When service has been made upon a person charged with the illegal custody of another, if he refuses to obey the writ and make the return required by law, or, if he refuses to receive the writ, or conceals himself, the court or judge issuing the writ shall issue a warrant directed to any officer or other person willing to execute the same, commanding him to arrest the person charged with the illegal custody or detention of another, and bring him before such court or judge. When such person has been arrested and brought before the court or judge, if he still refuses to return the writ, or does not produce the person in his custody, he shall be committed to jail and remain there until he is willing to obey the writ of habeas corpus, and until he pays all the costs of the proceeding.

Art. 11.35. Further penalty for disobeying writ

Any person disobeying the writ of habeas corpus shall also be liable to a civil action at the suit of the party detained, and shall pay in such suit fifty dollars for each day of illegal detention and restraint, after service of the writ. It shall be deemed that a person has disobeyed the writ who detains a prisoner a longer time than three days after service thereof, unless where further time is allowed in the writ for making the return thereto.

Art. 11.36. Applicant may be brought before court

In case of disobedience of the writ of habeas corpus, the person for whose relief it is intended may also be brought before the court or judge having competent authority, by an order for that purpose, issued to any peace officer or other proper person specially named.

Art. 11.37. Death, etc., sufficient return of writ

It is a sufficient return of the writ of habeas corpus that the person, once detained, has died or escaped, or that by some superior force he has been taken from the custody of the person making the return; but where any such cause shall be assigned, the court or judge shall proceed to hear testimony; and the facts stated in the return shall be proved by satisfactory evidence.

Art. 11.38. When a prisoner dies

When a prisoner confined in jail, or who is in legal custody, shall die, the officer having charge of him shall forthwith report the same to a justice of the peace of the county, who shall hold an inquest to ascertain the cause of his death. All the proceedings had in such cases shall be reduced to writing, certified and returned as in other cases of inquest; a certified copy of which shall be sufficient proof of the death of the prisoner at the hearing of a motion under habeas corpus.

Art. 11.39. Who shall represent the State

If neither the county nor the district attorney be present, the judge may appoint some qualified practicing attorney to represent the State, who shall be paid the same fee allowed district attorneys for like services.

Art. 11.40. Prisoner discharged

The judge or court before whom a person is brought by writ of habeas corpus shall examine the writ and the papers attached to it; and if no legal cause be shown for the imprisonment or restraint, or if it appear that the imprisonment or restraint, though at first legal, cannot for any cause be lawfully prolonged, the applicant shall be discharged.

Art. 11.41. Where party is indicted for capital offense

If it appear by the return and papers attached that the party stands indicted for a capital offense, the judge or court having jurisdiction of the case shall, nevertheless, proceed to hear such testimony as may be offered on the part of the State and the applicant, and may either remand or admit him to bail, as the law and the facts may justify.

Art. 11.42. If court has no jurisdiction

If it appear by the return and papers attached that the judge or court has no jurisdiction, such court or judge shall at once remand the applicant to the person from whose custody he has been taken.

Art. 11.43. Presumption of innocence

No presumption of guilt arises from the mere fact that a criminal accusation has been made before a competent authority.

Art. 11.44. Action of court upon examination

The judge or court, after having examined the return and all documents attached, and heard the testimony offered on both sides, shall, according to the facts and circumstances of the case, proceed either to remand the party into custody, admit him to bail or discharge him; provided, that no defendant shall be discharged after indictment without bail.

Art. 11.45. Void or informal

If it appears that the applicant is detained or held under a warrant of commitment which is informal, or void; yet, if from the document on which the warrant was based, or from the proof on the hearing of the habeas corpus, it appears that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed by the prisoner, he shall not be discharged, but shall be committed or held to bail.

Art. 11.46. If proof shows offense

Where, upon an examination under habeas corpus, it appears to the court or judge that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed by the prisoner, he shall not be discharged, but shall be committed or admitted to bail.

Art. 11.47. May summon magistrate

To ascertain the grounds on which an informal or void warrant has been issued, the judge or court may cause to be summoned the magistrate who issued the warrant, and may, by an order, require him to bring with him all the papers and proceedings touching the matter. The attendance of such magistrate and the production of such papers may be enforced by warrant of arrest.

Art. 11.48. Written issue not necessary

It shall not be necessary, on the trial of any cause arising under habeas corpus, to make up a written issue, though it may be done by the applicant for the writ. He may except to the sufficiency of, or controvert the return or any part thereof, or allege any new matter in avoidance. If written denial on his part be not made, it shall be considered, for the purpose of investigation, that the statements of said return are contested by a denial of the same; and the proof shall be heard accordingly, both for and against the applicant for relief.

Art. 11.49. Order of argument

The applicant shall have the right by himself or counsel to open and conclude the argument upon the trial under habeas corpus.

Art. 11.50. Costs

The judge trying the cause under habeas corpus may make such order as is deemed right concerning the cost of bringing the defendant before him, and all other costs of the proceeding, awarding the same either against the person to whom the writ was directed, the person seeking relief, or may award no costs at all.

Art. 11.51. Record of proceedings

If a writ of habeas corpus be made returnable before a court in session, all the proceedings had shall be entered of record by the clerk thereof, as in any other case in such court.

Art. 11.52. Proceedings had in vacation

If the return is made and the proceedings had before a judge of a court in vacation, he shall cause all of the proceedings to be written, shall certify to the same, and cause them to be filed with the clerk of the court which has jurisdiction of the offense, who shall keep them safely.

Art. 11.57. Writ after indictment

Where a person once discharged or admitted to bail is afterward indicted for the same offense for which he has been once arrested, he may be committed on the indictment, but shall be again entitled to the writ of habeas corpus, and may be admitted to bail, if the facts of the case render it proper; but in cases where, after indictment is found, the cause of the defendant has been investigated on habeas corpus, and an order made, either remanding him to custody, or admitting him to bail, he shall neither be subject to be again placed in custody, unless when surrendered by his bail, nor shall he be again entitled to the writ of habeas corpus, except in the special cases mentioned in this Chapter.

Art. 11.58. Person committed for a capital offense

If the accusation against the defendant for a capital offense has been heard on habeas corpus before indictment found, and he shall have been committed after such examination, he shall not be entitled to the writ, unless in the special cases mentioned in Articles 11.25 and 11.59.

Art. 11.59. Obtaining writ a second time

County, and have property in this State liable to execution worth said amount or more.

(Dated .......... , and attested by the judge of the court, clerk, magistrate or sheriff.)"

Such affidavit shall be filed with the papers of the proceedings.

3. The nature of the offense and the circumstances under which it was committed are to be considered.
Art. 17.15

4. The ability to make bail is to be regarded, and proof may be taken upon this point.

Art. 17.17. When surrender is made during term

If a surrender of the accused be made during a term of the court to which he has bound himself to appear, the sheriff shall take him before the court; and if he is willing to give other bail, the court shall forthwith require him to do so. If he fails or refuses to give bail, the court shall make an order that he be committed to jail until the bail is given, and this shall be a sufficient commitment without any written order to the sheriff.

Art. 17.18. Surrender in vacation

When the surrender is made at any other time than during the session of the court, the sheriff may take the necessary bail bond, but if the defendant fails or refuses to give other bail, the sheriff shall take him before the nearest magistrate; and such magistrate shall issue a warrant of commitment, reciting the fact that the accused has been once admitted to bail, has been surrendered, and now fails or refuses to give other bail.

Art. 17.19. Surety may obtain a warrant

Any surety, desiring to surrender his principal, may upon making affidavit of such intention before the court or magistrate before which the prosecution is pending, obtain from such court or magistrate a warrant of arrest for such principal, which shall be executed as in other cases.

Art. 17.20. Bail in misdemeanor

The sheriff, or other peace officer, in cases of misdemeanor, may, whether during the term of the court or in vacation, where he has a defendant in custody, take of the defendant a bail bond.

Art. 17.21. Bail in felony

In cases of felony, when the accused is in custody, the sheriff, or other peace officer, and the court before which the prosecution is pending is in session in the county where the accused is in custody, the court shall fix the amount of bail, if it is a bailable case and determine if the accused is eligible for a personal bond; and the sheriff, or other peace officer, unless it be the police of a city, is authorized to take a bond of the accused in the amount as fixed by the court, to be approved by such officer taking the same, and will thereupon discharge the accused from custody. It shall not be necessary for the defendant or his sureties to appear in court.

Art. 17.22. May take bail in felony

Art. 17.23. Sureties severally bound

In all bail bonds taken under any provision of this Code, the sureties shall be severally bound. Where a surrender of the principal is made by one or more of them, all the sureties shall be considered discharged.

If the party be ready to give bail, the magistrate shall cause to be prepared a bond, which shall be signed by the accused and his surety or sureties, if any.

(a) All unclaimed or abandoned personal property of every kind, except whiskey, wine and beer, seized by any state or county peace officer in the State of Texas which is not held as evidence to be used in any pending case and has not been ordered destroyed or returned to the person entitled to possession of the same by a magistrate, which shall remain unclaimed for a period of 30 days shall be delivered for sale to the purchasing agent of the county in which the property was seized. If the county has no purchasing agent, then such property shall be sold by the sheriff of the county.

(b) The purchasing agent or sheriff of the county, as the case may be, shall mail a notice to the last known address of the owner of such property by certified mail. Such notice shall describe the property being held, give the name and address of the officer holding such property, and shall state that if the owner does not claim such property within six months from the date of the notice such property will be sold and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the reasonable expense of keeping such property and the costs of the sale, placed in the county treasury.

(c) If the owner of such property is unknown or if the address of the owner is unknown, then the purchasing agent or the sheriff, as the case may be, shall cause to be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county a notice containing a description of the property held, the name of the owner if known, the name and address of the officer holding such property, and a statement that if the owner does not claim such property within six months from the date of the publication such property will be sold and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the reasonable expense of keeping such property and the costs of the sale, placed in the county treasury.

(d) The sale of any property hereunder shall be preceded by a notice published once at least three weeks prior to the date of such sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sale is to take place, stating the description of the property, the names of the owner if known, and the date and place that such sale will occur. If the purchasing agent or sheriff, as the case may be, shall consider any bid as insufficient, he need not sell such property but may decline such bid and reoffer such property for sale.
Art. 18.17

The real owner of any property sold shall have the right to file a claim to the proceeds of such sale with the commissioners court of the county in which the sale took place. If the claim is allowed by the commissioners court, the county treasurer shall pay the owner such funds as were paid into the treasury of the county as proceeds of the sale. If the claim is denied by the commissioners court or if said court fails to act upon such claim within 90 days, the claimant may sue the county treasurer in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county, and upon sufficient proof of ownership, recover judgment against such county for the recovery of the proceeds of the sale.

Art. 18.18. Disposition of gambling paraphernalia, prohibited weapon, criminal instrument

(a) Following the final conviction of a person for possession of a gambling device or equipment, altered gambling equipment, or gambling paraphernalia, for an offense involving a criminal instrument, or an offense involving a prohibited weapon, the court entering the judgment of conviction shall order that the machine, device, gambling equipment or gambling paraphernalia, instrument, or weapon be destroyed or forfeited to the state. If forfeited, the court shall order the contraband delivered to the state, any political subdivision of the state, or to any state institution or agency. If gambling proceeds were seized, the court shall order them forfeited to the state and shall transmit them to the grand jury of the county in which they were seized for use in investigating alleged violations of the Penal Code, or to any state institution or agency.

(b) If there is no prosecution or conviction following seizure, the magistrate to whom the return was made shall notify in writing the person found in possession of the alleged gambling device or equipment, altered gambling equipment or gambling paraphernalia, gambling proceeds, prohibited weapon, or criminal instrument to show cause why the property seized should not be destroyed or the proceeds forfeited.

(c) The magistrate shall include in the notice a detailed description of the property seized and the total amount of alleged gambling proceeds; the name of the person found in possession; the address where the property or proceeds were seized; and the date and time of the seizure.

(d) The magistrate shall send the notice by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person found in possession at the address where the property or proceeds were seized. If no one was found in possession, or the possessor's address is unknown, the magistrate shall post the notice on the courthouse door.

(e) Any person interested in the alleged gambling device or equipment, altered gambling equipment or gambling paraphernalia, gambling proceeds, prohibited weapon, or criminal instrument seized must appear before the magistrate on the 20th day following the date the notice was mailed or posted. Failure to timely appear forfeits any interest the person may have in the property or proceeds seized, and no person after failing to timely appear may contest destruction or forfeiture.

(f) If a person timely appears to show cause why the property or proceeds should not be destroyed or forfeited, the magistrate shall conduct a hearing on the issue and determine the nature of property or proceeds and the person's interest therein. Unless the person proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the property or proceeds is not gambling equipment, altered gambling equipment, gambling paraphernalia, gambling device, gambling proceeds, prohibited weapon, or criminal instrument, and that he is entitled to possession, the magistrate shall dispose of the property or proceeds in accordance with Paragraph (a) of this article.

(g) For purposes of this article:

(1) "criminal instrument" has the meaning defined in the Penal Code;

(2) "gambling device or equipment, altered gambling equipment or gambling paraphernalia" has the meaning defined in the Penal Code; and

(3) "prohibited weapon" has the meaning defined in the Penal Code.

Art. 18.19. Disposition of certain weapons

(a) Weapons seized in connection with an offense involving the use of a deadly weapon or an offense under Penal Code Chapter 46 shall be held by the law enforcement agency making the seizure, subject to the following provisions, unless:

(1) the weapon is a prohibited weapon identified in Penal Code Chapter 46, in which event Article 18.18 of this code applies; or

(2) the weapon is alleged to be stolen property, in which event Chapter 47 of this code applies.

(b) When a weapon described in Paragraph (a) of this article is seized, and the seizure is not made pursuant to a search or arrest warrant, the person seizing the same shall prepare and deliver to a magistrate a written inventory of each weapon seized.

(c) If there is no prosecution or conviction for an offense involving the weapon seized, the magistrate to whom the seizure was reported shall notify in writing the person found in possession that he is entitled to the weapon upon request to the court in which he was convicted. If the weapon is not requested within 60 days after notification, the magistrate may order the weapon destroyed or forfeited.
to the state for use by the law enforcement agency holding the weapon.

(d) A person convicted under Penal Code Chapter 46 is entitled to the weapon seized upon request to the law enforcement agency holding the weapon. However, the court entering the judgment of conviction may order the weapon destroyed or forfeited to the state for use by the law enforcement agency holding the weapon if:

1. The person does not request the weapon within 60 days after his release from jail or the date of the judgment of conviction if he was not imprisoned; or
2. The person has been previously convicted under Penal Code Chapter 46; or
3. The weapon is one defined as a prohibited weapon under Penal Code Chapter 46.

(e) If the person found in possession of a weapon is convicted of an offense involving the use of a deadly weapon or under Penal Code Chapter 46, the court entering judgment of conviction may order destruction of the weapon or forfeiture to the state for use by the law enforcement agency holding the weapon.

Art. 22.09. When surety is dead

If the surety is dead at the time the forfeiture is taken, the forfeiture shall nevertheless be valid. The final judgment shall not be rendered where a surety has died, either before or after the forfeiture has been taken, unless his executor, administrator or heirs, as the case may be, have been cited to appear and show cause why the judgment should not be made final, in the same manner as provided in the case of the surety.

Art. 22.10. Scire facias docket

When a forfeiture has been declared upon a bond, the court or clerk shall docket the case upon the scire facias or upon the civil docket, in the name of the State of Texas, as plaintiff, and the principal and his sureties, if any, as defendants; and the proceedings had therein shall be governed by the same rules governing other civil suits.

Art. 22.11. Sureties may answer

After the forfeiture of the bond, if the sureties, if any, have been duly notified, the sureties, if any, may answer in writing and show cause why the defendant did not appear, which answer may be filed within the time limited for answering in other civil actions.

Art. 22.12. Proceedings not set aside for defect of form

The bond, the judgment declaring the forfeiture, the citation and the return thereupon, shall not be set aside because of any defect of form; but such defect of form may, at any time, be amended under the direction of the court.

Art. 22.13. Causes which will exonerate

The following causes, and no other, will exonerate the defendant and his sureties, if any, from liability upon the forfeiture taken:

1. That the bond is, for any cause, not a valid and binding undertaking in law. If it be valid and binding as to the principal, and one or more of his sureties, if any, they shall not be exonerated from liability because of its being invalid and not binding as to another surety or sureties, if any. If it be invalid and not binding as to the principal, each of the sureties, if any, shall be exonerated from liability. If it be valid and binding as to the principal, but not so as to the sureties, if any, the principal shall not be exonerated, but the sureties, if any, shall be.

2. The death of the principal before the forfeiture was taken.

3. The sickness of the principal or some uncontrollable circumstance which prevented his appearance at court, and it must, in every such case, be shown that his failure to appear arose from no fault on his part. The causes mentioned in this subdivision shall not be deemed sufficient to exonerate the principal and his sureties, if any, unless such principal appear before final judgment on the bond to answer the accusation against him, or show sufficient cause for not so appearing.

4. Failure to present an indictment or information at the first term of the court which may be held after the principal has been admitted to bail, in case where the party was bound over before indictment or information, and the prosecution has not been continued by order of the court.

Art. 22.14. Judgment final

When, upon a trial of the issues presented, no sufficient cause is shown for the failure of the principal to appear, the judgment shall be made final against him and his sureties, if any, for the amount in which they are respectively bound; and the same shall be collected by execution as in civil actions.

When the sureties have been duly cited and fail to answer, and the principal also fails to answer within the time limited for answering in other civil actions, the court shall enter judgment final by default.

Art. 22.15. Judgment final by default

When the sureties have been duly cited and fail to answer, and the principal also fails to answer within the time limited for answering in other civil actions, the court shall enter judgment final by default.

Art. 22.16. The court may remit

If, before final judgment is entered against the bail, the principal appears or is arrested and lodged in jail of the proper county, the court may, at its discretion, remit the whole or part of the sum specified in the bond.

Art. 22.17. Forfeiture set aside
When the principal appears before the entry of final judgment, and sufficient cause is shown for his failure to appear before the forfeiture is taken, and a trial is had of the criminal action pending against him, he shall be entitled to have the forfeiture set aside. The criminal action against him shall stand for trial, but the State shall not be forced to try the same until reasonable time has been allowed to prepare for trial, and the State shall, in such case, be entitled to a continuance.

(b) Upon the request of the attorney representing the State a summons instead of a capias shall issue. If a defendant fails to appear in response to the summons a capias shall issue.
(c) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the capias except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before the proper court at a stated time and place. The word “State” shall include any territory of the United States and the District of Columbia.
The word "summons" shall include a subpoena, order or other notice requiring the appearance of a witness.

Summons in this State to testify in another State

Sec. 3. (b) If at a hearing the judge determines that the witness is material and necessary, that it will not cause undue hardship to the witness to be compelled to attend and testify in the prosecution or a grand jury investigation in the other State, and that the laws of the State in which the prosecution is pending, or grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence, (and of any other State through which the witness may be required to pass by ordinary course of travel), will give to him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process, he shall issue a summons, with a copy of the certificate attached, directing the witness to attend and testify in the court where the prosecution is pending, or where a grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence at a time and place specified in the summons. In any such hearing the certificate shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts stated therein.

(c) If said certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting State to assure his attendance in the requesting State, such judge may, in lieu of notification of the hearing, direct that such witness be forthwith brought before him for said hearing; and the judge at the hearing being satisfied of the desirability of such custody and delivery, for which determination the certificate shall be prima facie proof of such desirability may, in lieu of issuing subpoena or summons, order that said witness be forthwith taken into custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting State.

(d) If the witness, who is summoned as above provided, after being paid or tendered by some properly authorized person the compensation for nonresident witnesses authorized and provided for by Article 35.27 of this Code, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeyes a summons issued from a court of record in this State.

Sec. 2. The minimum fee will be automatically allowed unless the trial judge orders more within five days of the judgment.

Sec. 3. All payments made under the provisions of this Article may be included as costs of court.

Sec. 4. An attorney may not receive more than one fee for each day in court, regardless of the number of cases in which he appears as appointed counsel on the same day.

Sec. 1. A county in which a state training school for delinquent children is located shall pay from its general fund the first $250 of fees awarded for court-appointed counsel under Article 26.05 toward defending a child committed to the school from another county who is being prosecuted for a felony or misdemeanor in the county where the training school is located.

Sec. 2. If the fees awarded for counsel compensation are in excess of $250, the court shall certify the amount in excess of $250 to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. The Comptroller shall issue a warrant to the court-appointed counsel in the amount certified to the comptroller by the court.

Art. 26.06. Elected officials not to be appointed

No court may appoint an elected county, district or state official to represent a person accused of crime, unless the official has notified the court of his availability for appointment. If an official has notified the court of his availability and is appointed as counsel, he may decline the appointment if he determines that it is in the best interest of his office to do so. Nothing in this Code shall modify any statutory provision for legislative continuance.

Art. 26.07. Name as stated in indictment

When the defendant is arraigned, his name, as stated in the indictment, shall be distinctly called; and unless he suggest by himself or counsel that he is not indicted by his true name, it shall be taken that his name is truly set forth, and he shall not thereafter be allowed to deny the same by way of defense.

Art. 26.08. If defendant suggests different name

If the defendant, or his counsel for him, suggests that he bears some name different from that stated in the indictment, the same shall be noted upon the minutes of the court, the indictment corrected by inserting therein the name of the defendant as suggested by himself or his counsel for him, the style of the case changed so as to give his true name, and the cause proceed as if the true name had been first recited in the indictment.

Art. 26.09. If accused refuses to give his real name

If the defendant alleges that he is not indicted by his true name, and refuses to say what his real name is, the cause shall proceed as if the name stated in the indictment were true; and the defendant shall not be allowed to contradict the same by way of defense.

Art. 26.10. Where name is unknown

A defendant described as a person whose name is unknown may have the indictment so corrected as to give therein his true name.

Art. 26.11. Indictment read

The name of the accused having been called, if no suggestion, such as is spoken of in the four preceding Articles, be made, or being made is disposed of as before directed, the indictment shall be read, and the defendant asked whether he is guilty or not, as therein charged.

If the defendant answers that he is not guilty, such plea shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; if he refuses to answer, the plea of not guilty shall in like manner be entered.

Art. 26.13. Plea of guilty

If the defendant pleads guilty, or enters a plea of nolo contendere, he shall be admonished by the court of the consequences; and neither of such pleas shall be received unless it plainly appears that he is mentally competent, and is uninfluenced by any consideration of fear, or by any persuasion, or delusive hope of pardon, prompting him to confess his guilt.

Where a defendant in a case of felony persists in pleading guilty or in entering a plea of nolo contendere, if the punishment is not absolutely fixed by law, a jury shall be impaneled to assess the punishment and evidence may be heard to enable them to decide thereupon, unless the defendant in accordance with Articles 1.13 or 37.07 shall have waived his right to trial by jury.

Art. 26.15. Correcting name
In any case, the same proceedings shall be had with respect to the name of the defendant and the correction of the indictment or information as provided with respect to the same in capital cases.

27.14. Plea of guilty or nolo contendere in misdemeanor.
27.15. Change of venue to plead guilty.
27.16. Plea of not guilty, how made.
27.17. Plea of not guilty construed.

Art. 27.01. Indictment or information
The primary pleading in a criminal action on the part of the State is the indictment or information.

Art. 27.02. Defendant's pleadings
The pleadings and motions of the defendant shall be:

(1) A motion to set aside or an exception to an indictment or information for some matter of form or substance;
(2) A special plea as provided in Article 27.05 of this code;
(3) A plea of guilty;
(4) A plea of not guilty;
(5) A plea of nolo contendere, the legal effect of which shall be the same as that of a plea of guilty, except that such plea may not be used against the defendant as an admission in any civil suit based upon or growing out of the act upon which the criminal prosecution is based;
(6) An application for probation, if any;
(7) An election, if any, to have the jury assess the punishment if he is found guilty; and
(8) Any other motions or pleadings that are by law permitted to be filed.

Art. 27.03. Motion to set aside indictment
In addition to any other grounds authorized by law, a motion to set aside an indictment or information may be based on the following:

1. That it appears by the records of the court that the indictment was not found by at least nine grand jurors, or that the information was not based upon a valid complaint;
2. That some person not authorized by law was present when the grand jury was deliberating upon the accusation against the defendant, or was voting upon the same; and
3. That the grand jury was illegally impaneled; provided, however, in order to raise such question on motion to set aside the indictment, the defendant must show that he did not have an opportunity to challenge the array at the time the grand jury was impaneled.

Art. 27.04. Motion tried by judge
An issue of fact arising upon a motion to set aside an indictment or information shall be tried by the judge without a jury.

Art. 27.05. Defendant's special plea
A defendant's only special plea is that he has already been prosecuted for the same or a different offense arising out of the same criminal episode that was or should have been consolidated into one trial, and that the former prosecution:

(1) resulted in acquittal;
(2) resulted in conviction;
(3) was improperly terminated; or
(4) was terminated by a final order or judgment for the defendant that has not been reversed, set aside, or vacated and that necessarily required a determination inconsistent with a fact that must be established to secure conviction in the subsequent prosecution.

Art. 27.06. Special plea verified
Every special plea shall be verified by the affidavit of the defendant.

Art. 27.07. Special plea tried
All issues of fact presented by a special plea shall be tried by the trier of the facts on the trial on the merits.

Art. 27.08. Exception to substance of indictment
There is no exception to the substance of an indictment or information except:

1. That it does not appear therefrom that an offense against the law was committed by the defendant;
2. That it appears from the face thereof that a prosecution for the offense is barred by a lapse of time, or that the offense was committed after the finding of the indictment;
3. That it contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the prosecution; and
4. That it shows upon its face that the court trying the case has no jurisdiction thereof.

Art. 27.09. Exception to form of indictment

Exceptions to the form of an indictment or information may be taken for the following causes only:
1. That it does not appear to have been presented in the proper court as required by law;
3. That it was not returned by a lawfully chosen or empaneled grand jury.

Art. 27.10. Written pleadings

All motions to set aside an indictment or information and all special pleas and exceptions shall be in writing.

Art. 27.11. Ten days allowed for filing pleadings

In all cases the defendant shall be allowed ten entire days, exclusive of all fractions of a day after his arrest, and during the term of the court, to file written pleadings.

Art. 27.12. Time after service

In cases where the defendant is entitled to be served with a copy of the indictment, he shall be allowed the ten days time mentioned in the preceding Article to file written pleadings after such service.

Art. 27.13. Plea of guilty or nolo contendere in felony

A plea of "guilty" or a plea of "nolo contendere" in a felony case must be made in open court by the defendant in person; and the proceedings shall be as provided in Articles 26.13, 26.14 and 27.02. If the plea is before the judge alone, same may be made in the same manner as is provided for by Articles 1.13 and 1.15.

Art. 27.14. Plea of guilty or nolo contendere in misdemeanor

A plea of "guilty" or a plea of "nolo contendere" in a misdemeanor case may be made either by the defendant or his counsel in open court; in such case, the defendant or his counsel may waive a jury, and the punishment may be assessed by the court either upon or without evidence, at the discretion of the court. In a misdemeanor case arising out of a moving traffic violation for which the maximum possible punishment is by fine only, payment of a fine, or an amount accepted by the court constitutes a finding of guilty in open court, as though a plea of nolo contendere had been entered by the defendant.

Art. 27.15. Change of venue to plead guilty

When in any county which is located in a judicial district composed of more than one county, a party is charged with a felony and the maximum punishment therefor shall not exceed fifteen years, and the district court of said county is not in session, such party may, if he desires to plead guilty, or enter a plea of nolo contendere, make application to the district judge of such district for a change of venue to the county in which said court is in session, and said district judge may enter an order changing the venue of said cause to the county in which the court is then in session, and the defendant may plead guilty or enter a plea of nolo contendere to said charge in said court to which the venue has been changed.

Art. 27.16. Plea of not guilty, how made

The plea of not guilty may be made orally by the defendant or by his counsel in open court. If the defendant refuses to plead, the plea of not guilty shall be entered for him by the court.

Art. 27.17. Plea of not guilty construed

The plea of not guilty shall be construed to be a denial of every material allegation in the indictment or information. Under this plea, evidence to establish the insanity of defendant, and every fact whatsoever tending to acquit him of the accusation may be introduced, except such facts as are proper for a special plea under Article 27.05.

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT. MOTIONS, PLEADINGS AND EXCEPTIONS

The defendant must be present at the arraignment, and his presence is required during any pre-trial proceeding. The pre-trial hearing shall be to determine any of the following matters:

2. Pleadings of the defendant;
3. Special pleas, if any;
4. Exceptions to the form or substance of the indictment or information;
5. Motions for continuance either by the State or defendant; provided that grounds for continuance not existing or not known at the time may be presented and considered at any time before the defendant announces ready for trial;

7. Motions for change of venue by the State or the defendant; provided, however, that such motions for change of venue, if overruled at the pre-trial hearing, may be renewed by the State or the defendant during the voir dire examination of the jury;

When a criminal case is set for such pre-trial hearing, the defendant shall have five days after notice of setting in which to file his motions, pleadings and exceptions; and any such preliminary matters not raised and filed within the time allowed will not thereafter be allowed to be raised or filed, except by permission of the court for good cause shown. The record made at such pre-trial hearing, the rulings of the court and the exceptions and objections thereto shall become a part of the trial record of the case upon its merits.

Sec. 3. The notice mentioned in Section 2 above shall be sufficient if given in any one of the following ways:

1. By announcement made by the court in open court in the presence of the defendant or his attorney of record;
2. By personal service upon the defendant or his attorney of record;
3. By mail to either the defendant or his attorney of record deposited by the clerk in the mail at least six days prior to the date set for hearing. If the defendant has no attorney of record such notice shall be addressed to defendant at the address shown on his bond, if the bond shows such an address and if not, it may be addressed to one of the sureties on his bond. If the envelope containing the notice is properly addressed, stamped and mailed, the state will not be required to show that it was received.

Art. 28.02. Order of argument

The counsel of the defendant has the right to open and conclude the argument upon all pleadings of the defendant presented for the decision of the judge.

Art. 28.03. Process for testimony on pleadings

When the matters involved in any written pleading depend in whole or in part upon testimony, and not altogether upon the record of the court, every process known to the law may be obtained on behalf of either party to procure such testimony; but there shall be no delay on account of the want of the testimony, unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the court that all the means given by the law have been used to procure the same.

Art. 28.04. Quashing charge in misdemeanor

If the motion to set aside or the exception to an indictment or information is sustained, the defendant in a misdemeanor case shall be discharged, but may be again prosecuted within the time allowed by law.

Art. 28.05. Quashing indictment in felony

If the motion to set aside or the exception to the indictment in cases of felony be sustained, the defendant shall not therefor be discharged, but may immediately be recommitted by order of the court, upon motion of the State's attorney or without motion; and proceedings may afterward be had against him as if no prosecution had ever been commenced.

Art. 28.06. Shall be fully discharged, when

Where, after the motion or exception is sustained, it is made known to the court by sufficient testimony that the offense of which the defendant is accused will be barred by limitation before another indictment can be presented, he shall be fully discharged.
Art. 28.07. If exception is that no offense is charged

If an exception is taken to an indictment or information as being for an offense that is not charged, the exception must be sustained, unless an affidavit be filed accusing the defendant of the commission of a penal offense.

Art. 28.08. When defendant is held by order of court

If the motion to set aside the indictment or except to lack of jurisdiction is sustained, but the court refuses to discharge the defendant, then at the expiration of ten days from the order sustaining such motions or exceptions, the defendant shall be discharged, unless in the meanwhile complaint has been made before a magistrate charging him with an offense, or unless another indictment has been presented against him for such offense.

Art. 28.09. Exception on account of form

If the exception to an indictment or information is only on account of form, it shall be amended, if defective, and the cause proceed upon such amended charge.

Art. 28.10. Amendment of indictment or information

Any matter of form in an indictment or information may be amended at any time before an announcement of ready for trial upon the merits by both parties, but not afterward. No matter of substance can be amended.

Art. 28.11. How amended

All amendments of an indictment or information shall be made with the leave of the court and under its direction.

Art. 28.12. Exception and trial of special pleas

When a special plea is filed by the defendant, the State may except to it for substantial defects. If the exception be sustained, the plea may be amended. If the plea be not excepted to, it shall be considered that issue has been taken upon the same. Such special pleas as set forth matter of fact proper to be tried by a jury shall be submitted and tried with a plea of not guilty.

Art. 28.13. Former acquittal or conviction

A former judgment of acquittal or conviction in a court of competent jurisdiction shall be a bar to any further prosecution for the same offense, but shall not bar a prosecution for any higher grade of offense over which said court had not jurisdiction, unless such judgment was had upon indictment or information, in which case the prosecution shall be barred for all grades of the offense.

Art. 28.14. Plea allowed

Plea allowed

J udgment shall, in no case, be given against the defendant where his motion, exception or plea is overruled; but in all cases the plea of not guilty may be made by or for him.

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE. CONTINUANCE

Art. 29.01. By operation of law

Criminal actions are continued by operation of law if:

(1) The individual defendant has not been arrested;
(2) A defendant corporation or association has not been served with summons; or
(3) There is not sufficient time for trial at that term of court.

Art. 29.02. By agreement

A criminal action may be continued by consent of the parties thereto, in open court, at any time.

Art. 29.03. For sufficient cause shown

A criminal action may be continued on the written motion of the State or of the defendant, upon sufficient cause shown; which cause shall be fully set forth in the motion.

Art. 29.04. First motion by State

It shall be sufficient, upon the first motion by the State for a continuance, if the same be for the want of a witness, to state:

1. The name of the witness and his residence, if known, or that his residence is unknown;
2. The diligence which has been used to procure his attendance; and it shall not be considered sufficient diligence to have caused to be issued, or to have applied for, a subpoena, in... cases where the law authorized an attachment to issue; and
3. That the testimony of the witness is believed by the applicant to be material for the State.

Art. 29.05. Subsequent motion by State

On any subsequent motion for a continuance by the State, for the want of a witness, the motion, in addition to the requisites in the preceding Article, must show:

1. The facts which the applicant expects to establish by the witness, and it must appear to the court that they are material;
2. That the applicant expects to be able to procure the attendance of the witness at the next term of the court; and
3. That the testimony cannot be procured from any other source during the present term of the court.

Art. 29.06. First motion by defendant

In the first motion by the defendant for a continuance, it shall be necessary, if the same be on account of the absence of a witness, to state:

1. The name of the witness and his residence, if known, or that his residence is not known.
2. The diligence which has been used to procure his attendance; and it shall not be considered sufficient diligence to have been caused to be issued, or to have applied for, a subpoena, in cases where the law authorized an attachment to issue.
3. The facts which are expected to be proved by the witness, and it must appear to the court that they are material.
4. That the witness is not absent by the procurement or consent of the defendant.
5. That the motion is not made for delay.
6. That there is no reasonable expectation that attendance of the witness can be secured during the present term of court by a postponement of the trial to some future day of said term. The truth of the first, or any subsequent motion, as well as the merit of the ground set forth therein and its sufficiency shall be addressed to the sound discretion of the court called to pass upon the same, and shall not be granted as a matter of right. If a motion for continuance be overruled, and the defendant convicted, if it appear upon the trial that the evidence of the witness or witnesses named in the motion was of a material character, and that the facts set forth in said motion were probably true, a new trial should be granted, and the cause continued or postponed to a future day of the same term.

Art. 29.07. Subsequent motion by defendant

Subsequent motions for continuance on the part of the defendant shall, in addition to the requisites in the preceding Article, state also:

1. That the testimony cannot be procured from any other source known to the defendant; and
2. That the defendant has reasonable expectation of procuring the same at the next term of the court.

Art. 29.08. Motion sworn to

All motions for continuance on the part of the defendant must be sworn to by himself.

Art. 29.09. Controverting motion

Any material fact stated, affecting diligence, in a motion for a continuance, may be denied in writing by the adverse party. The denial shall be supported by the oath of some credible person, and filed as soon as practicable after the filing of such motion.

Art. 29.10. When denial is filed

When such denial is filed, the issue shall be tried by the judge; and he shall hear testimony by affidavits, and grant or refuse continuance, according to the law and facts of the case.

Art. 29.11. Argument

No argument shall be heard on a motion for a continuance, unless requested by the judge; and when argument is heard, the applicant shall have the right to open and conclude it.

Art. 29.12. Bail resulting from continuance

If a defendant in a capital case demand a trial, and it appears that more than one continuance has been granted to the State, and that the defendant has not before applied for a continuance, he shall be entitled to be admitted to bail, unless it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that a material witness of the State had been prevented from attendance by the procurement of the defendant or some person acting in his behalf.

Art. 29.13. Continuance after trial is begun

A continuance or postponement may be granted on the motion of the State or defendant after the trial has begun, when it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that by some unexpected occurrence since the trial began, which no reasonable diligence could have anticipated, the applicant is so taken by surprise that a fair trial cannot be had.

CHAPTER THIRTY. DISQUALIFICATION OF THE JUDGE

Art. 30.01. Causes which disqualify
No judge or justice of the peace shall sit in any case where he may be the party injured, or where he has been of counsel for the State or the accused, or where the accused or the party injured may be connected with him by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree.

Art. 30.02. District judge disqualified
Whenever any case is pending in which the district judge or criminal district judge is disqualified from trying the case, no change of venue shall be made necessary thereby; but the judge presiding shall certify that fact to the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which the case is pending and the presiding judge of such administrative judicial district shall assign a judge to try such case in accordance with the provisions of Article 200a, V.A.C.S.

Art. 30.03. County judge disqualified
When the judge of the county court or county court at law, or of any county criminal court, is disqualified in any criminal case pending in the court of which he is judge, the parties may by consent agree upon a special judge to try such case. If they fail to agree upon a special judge to try such case, on or before the third day of the term at which such case may be called for trial, the practicing attorneys of the court present may elect from among their number a special judge who shall try the case. The election of the special judge shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Article 1887 et seq., V.A.C.S.

Art. 30.04. Special judge to take oath
The attorney agreed upon or appointed shall, before he enters upon his duties as special judge, take the oath of office required by the Constitution.

Art. 30.05. Record made by clerk
When a special judge is agreed upon by the parties or elected as herein provided, the clerk shall enter in the minutes as a part of the proceedings in such cause a record showing:

1. That the judge of the court was disqualified to try the cause;

2. That such special judge (naming him) was by consent of the parties agreed upon or elected;

3. That the oath of office prescribed by law has been duly administered to such special judge.

Art. 30.06. Compensation
A special judge selected or appointed in accordance with the preceding Articles shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for regular judges in similar cases.

Art. 30.07. Justice disqualified
If a justice of the peace be disqualified from sitting in any criminal action pending before him, he shall transfer the same to any justice of the peace in the county who is not disqualified to try the case.

Art. 30.08. Order of transfer
In cases provided for in the preceding Article, the order of transfer shall state the cause of the transfer, and name the court to which the transfer is made, and the time and place, when and where, the parties and witnesses shall appear before such court. The rules governing the transfer of cases from the district to inferior courts shall govern in the transfer of cases under the preceding Article.

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE. CHANGE OF VENUE

Art. 31.01. On court's own motion
Whenever in any case of felony or misdemeanor punishable by confinement, the judge presiding shall be satisfied that a trial, alike fair and impartial to the accused and to the State, cannot, from any cause, be held in the county in which the case is pending, he may, upon his own motion, after due notice to accused and the State, and after hearing evidence thereon, order a change of venue to any county in the judicial district in which such county is located or in an adjoining district, stating in his order the grounds for such change of venue. The judge, upon his own motion, after ten days notice to the parties or their counsel, may order a change of venue to any county beyond an adjoining district; provided, however, an order changing venue to a county beyond an adjoining district shall be grounds for reversal if, upon timely contest by the defendant, the record of the contest affirmatively shows that any county in his own and the adjoining district is not subject to the same conditions which required the transfer.
Art. 31.01 [ CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE ]

Art. 31.02. State may have
Whenever the district or county attorney shall represent in writing to the court before which any felony or misdemeanor case punishable by confinement, is pending, that, by reason of existing combinations or influences in favor of the accused, or on account of the lawless condition of affairs in the county, a fair and impartial trial as between the accused and the State cannot be safely and speedily had; or whenever he shall represent that the life of the prisoner, or of any witness, would be jeopardized by a trial in the county in which the case is pending, the judge shall hear proof in relation thereto, and if satisfied that such representation is well-founded and that the ends of public justice will be subserved thereby, he shall order a change of venue to any county in the judicial district in which such county is located or in an adjoining district.

Art. 31.03. Granted on motion of defendant
A change of venue may be granted in any felony or misdemeanor case punishable by confinement on the written motion of the defendant, supported by his own affidavit and the affidavit of at least two credible persons, residents of the county where the prosecution is instituted, for either of the following causes, the truth and sufficiency of which the court shall determine:

1. That there exists in the county where the prosecution is commenced so great a prejudice against him that he cannot obtain a fair and impartial trial; and

2. That there is a dangerous combination against him instigated by influential persons, by reason of which he cannot expect a fair trial.

An order changing venue to a county beyond an adjoining district shall be grounds for reversal, if upon timely contest by defendant, the record of the proceeding term of the court to which the venue is changed, it shall not be necessary to have the witnesses therein again subpoenaed, attached or bailed, but all the witnesses who have been subpoenaed, attached or bailed to appear and testify in the cause shall be held bound to appear before the court to which the cause has been transferred, as if there had been no such transfer.

TRIAL AND ITS INCIDENTS

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO. DISMISSING PROSECUTIONS

Art. 32.01. Defendant in custody and no indictment presented.
When a defendant has been detained in custody or held to bail for his appearance to answer any criminal accusation before the district court, the prosecution, unless otherwise ordered by the court, for good cause shown, supported by affidavit, shall be dismissed and the bail discharged, if indictment or information be not presented against such defendant at the next term of the court which is held after his commitment or admission to bail.

Art. 32.02. Dismissal by State's attorney
The attorney representing the State may, by permission of the court, dismiss a criminal action at any time upon filing a written statement with the papers in the case setting out his reasons for such dismissal, which shall be incorporated in the judgment of dismissal. No case shall be dismissed without the consent of the presiding judge.
CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE. THE MODE OF TRIAL

Art. 33.01. Jury; when of twelve, when of six.
   In the district court, the jury shall consist of twelve qualified jurors; in the county court and inferior courts, the jury shall consist of six qualified jurors.

Art. 33.02. Failure to register or pay poll tax.
   Failure to pay poll tax or register to vote shall not disqualify any person from jury service.

Art. 33.03. Presence of defendant.
   In all prosecutions for felonies, the defendant must be personally present at the trial, and he must likewise be present in all cases of misdemeanor when the punishment or any part thereof is imprisonment in jail; provided, however, that in all cases, when the defendant voluntarily absents himself after pleading to the indictment or information, the trial may proceed to its conclusion. When the record in the appellate court shows that the defendant was present at the commencement, or any portion of the trial, it shall be presumed in the absence of all evidence in the record to the contrary that he was present during the whole trial. Provided, however, that the presence of the defendant shall not be required at the hearing on the motion for new trial in any misdemeanor case.

Art. 33.04. May appear by counsel.
   In other misdemeanor cases, the defendant may, by consent of the State's attorney, appear by counsel, and the trial may proceed without his personal presence.

Art. 33.05. On bail during trial.
   If the defendant is on bail when the trial commences, such bail shall be considered as discharged if he is acquitted. If a verdict of guilty is returned against him, the discharge of his bail shall be governed by other provisions of this Code.

Art. 33.06. Sureties bound in case of mistrial.
   If there be a mistrial in a felony case, the original sureties, if any, of the defendant shall be still held bound for his appearance until they surrender him in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR. SPECIAL VENIRE IN CAPITAL CASES

Art. 34.01. Special venire.
   A “special venire” is a writ issued in a capital case by order of the district court, commanding the sheriff to summon either verbally or by mail such a number of persons, not less than 50, as the court may order, to appear before the court on a day named in the writ from whom the jury for the trial of such case is to be selected. Where as many as one hundred jurors have been summoned in such county for regular service for the week in which such capital case is set for trial, the judge of the court having jurisdiction of a capital case in which a motion for a special venire has been made, shall grant or refuse such motion for a special venire, and upon such refusal require the case to be tried by regular jurors summoned for service in such county for the week in which such capital case is set for trial and such additional talesmen as may be summoned by the sheriff upon order of the court as provided in Article 34.02 of this Code, but the clerk of such court shall furnish the defendant or his counsel a list of the persons summoned as provided in Article 34.04.

Art. 34.02. Additional names drawn.
   In any criminal case in which the court deems that the veniremen theretofore drawn will be insufficient for the trial of the case, or in any criminal case in which the venire has been exhausted by challenge or otherwise, the court shall order additional veniremen...
in such numbers as the court may deem advisable, to be summoned as follows:

(a) In a jury wheel county, the names of those to be summoned shall be drawn from the jury wheel.

(b) In counties not using the jury wheel, the veniremen shall be summoned by the sheriff. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 34.03. Instructions to sheriff
When the sheriff is ordered by the court to summon persons upon a special venire whose names have not been selected under the Jury Wheel Law, the court shall, in every case, caution and direct the sheriff to summon such persons as have legal qualifications to serve on juries, informing him of what those qualifications are, and shall direct him, as far as he may be able to summon persons of good character who can read and write, and such as are not prejudiced against the defendant or biased in his favor, if he knows of such bias or prejudice. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 34.04. Notice of list
No defendant in a capital case shall be brought to trial until he shall have had at least two days (including holidays) a copy of the names of the persons summoned as veniremen, for the week for which his case is set for trial except where he waives the right or is on bail. When such defendant is on bail, the clerk of the court in which the case is pending shall furnish such a list to the defendant or his counsel at least two days prior to the trial (including holidays) upon timely motion by the defendant or his counsel therefor at the office of such clerk, and the defendant shall not be brought to trial until such list has been furnished defendant or his counsel for at least two days (including holidays). Where the venire is exhausted, by challenges or otherwise, and additional names are drawn, the defendant shall not be entitled to two days service of the names additionally drawn, but the clerk shall compile a list of such names promptly after they are drawn and if the defendant is not on bail, the sheriff shall serve a copy of such list promptly upon the defendant, and if on bail, the clerk shall furnish a copy of such list to the defendant or his counsel upon request, but the proceedings shall not be delayed thereby. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Those not present may be fined not exceeding fifty dollars. An attachment may issue on request of either party for any absent summoned juror, to have him brought forthwith before the court. A person who is summoned but not present, may upon an appearance, before the jury is qualified, be tried as to his qualifications and impaneled as a juror unless challenged, but no cause shall be unreasonably delayed on account of his absence. Art. 35.02. Sworn to answer questions
To those present the court shall cause to be administered this oath: “You, and each of you, solemnly swear that you will make true answers to such questions as may be propounded to you by the court, or under its directions, touching your service and qualifications as a juror, so help you God.” [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Art. 35.06. Challenge to array first heard
The court shall hear and determine a challenge to the array before interrogating those summoned as to their qualifications.

Art. 35.07. Challenge to the array
Each party may challenge the array only on the ground that the officer summoning the jury has willfully summoned jurors with a view to securing a conviction or an acquittal. All such challenges must be in writing setting forth distinctly the grounds of such challenge. When made by the defendant, it must be supported by his affidavit or the affidavit of any credible person. When such challenge is made, the judge shall hear evidence and decide without delay whether or not the challenge shall be sustained.

Art. 35.08. When challenge is sustained
The array of jurors summoned shall be discharged if the challenge be sustained, and the court shall order other jurors to be summoned in their stead, and direct that the officer who summoned those so discharged, and on account of whose misconduct the challenge has been sustained shall not summon any other jurors in the case.

Art. 35.09. List of new venire
When a challenge to the array has been sustained, the defendant shall be entitled, as in the first instance, to service of a copy of the list of names of those summoned by order of the court.

Art. 35.10. Court to try qualifications
When no challenge to the array has been made, or if made, has been overruled, the court shall proceed to try the qualifications of those present who have been summoned to serve as jurors.

Art. 35.11. Preparation of list
The trial judge, upon the demand of the defendant or his attorney, or of the State's counsel, shall cause the names of all the members of the general panel drawn or assigned as jurors in such case to be placed in a receptacle and well-shaken, and the clerk shall draw therefrom the names of a sufficient number of jurors from which a jury may be selected to try such case, and such names shall be written, in the order drawn, on the jury list from which the jury is to be selected to try such case, and write the names as drawn upon two slips of paper and deliver one slip to the State's counsel and the other to the defendant or his attorney.

Art. 35.12. Mode of testing
In testing the qualification of a prospective juror after he has been sworn, he shall be asked by the court, or under its direction:

1. Except for payment of poll tax or registration, are you a qualified voter in this county and state under the Constitution and laws of this state?
2. Have you ever been convicted of theft or any felony?
3. Are you under indictment or legal accusation for theft or any felony?

Art. 35.13. Passing juror for challenge
A juror in a capital case in which the State has made known it will seek the death penalty, held to be qualified, shall be passed for acceptance or challenge first to the State and then to the defendant. Challenges to jurors are either peremptory or for cause.

Art. 35.14. A peremptory challenge
A peremptory challenge is made to a juror without assigning any reason therefor.

Art. 35.15. Number of challenges
(a) In capital cases both the State and defendant shall be entitled to fifteen peremptory challenges. Where two or more defendants are tried together, the State shall be entitled to eight peremptory challenges for each defendant; and each defendant shall be entitled to eight peremptory challenges.
(b) In non-capital felony cases, the State and defendant shall each be entitled to ten peremptory challenges. If two or more defendants are tried together each defendant shall be entitled to six peremptory challenges and the State to six for each defendant.
(c) The State and the defendant shall each be entitled to five peremptory challenges in a misdemeanor tried in the district court and to three in the county court, or county court at law. If two or more defendants are tried together, each defendant shall be entitled to three such challenges and the State to three for each defendant in either court.

Art. 35.16. Reasons for challenge for cause
(a) A challenge for cause is an objection made to a particular juror, alleging some fact which renders him incapable or unfit to serve on the jury. A challenge for cause may be made by either the state or the defense for any one of the following reasons:

1. That he is not a qualified voter in the state and county under the Constitution and laws of the state; provided, however, the failure to pay a poll tax or register to vote shall not be a disqualification;

2. That he has been convicted of theft or any felony;

3. That he is under indictment or other legal accusation for theft or any felony;

4. That he is insane or has such defect in the organs of seeing, feeling or hearing, or such bodily or mental defect or disease as to render him unfit for jury service;

5. That he is a witness in the case;

6. That he served on the grand jury which found the indictment;

7. That he served on a petit jury in a former trial of the same case;

8. That he has a bias or prejudice in favor of or against the defendant;

9. That from hearsay, or otherwise, there is established in the mind of the juror such a conclusion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant as would influence him in his action in finding a verdict. To ascertain whether this cause of challenge exists, the juror shall first be asked whether, in his opinion, the conclusion so established will influence his verdict. If he answers in the affirmative, he shall be discharged without further interrogation by either party or the court. If he answers in the negative, he shall be further examined as to how his conclusion was formed, and the extent to which it will affect his action; and, if it appears to have been formed from reading newspaper accounts, communications, statements or reports or mere rumor or hearsay, and if the juror states that he feels able, notwithstanding such opinion, to render an impartial verdict upon the whole to the entire panel of prospective jurors questions concerning the principles, as applicable to the case on trial, of reasonable doubt, burden of proof, innocence, and opinion. Then, on demand of the State or defendant, either is entitled to examine each juror on voir dire individually and apart from the entire panel, and may further question the juror on the principles propounded by the court.

10. That he cannot read or write.

No juror shall be impaneled when it appears that he is subject to the second, third or fourth grounds of challenge for cause set forth above, although both parties may consent. All other grounds for challenge may be waived by the party or parties in whose favor such grounds of challenge exist.

(b) A challenge for cause may be made by the State for any of the following reasons:

1. That the juror has conscientious scruples in regard to the infliction of the punishment of death for crime, in a capital case, where the State is seeking the death penalty;

2. That he is related within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity to the defendant; and

3. That he has a bias or prejudice against any phase of the law upon which the State is entitled to rely for conviction or punishment.

(c) A challenge for cause may be made by the defense for any of the following reasons:

1. That he is related within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity to the person injured by the commission of the offense, or to any prosecutor in the case; and

2. That he has a bias or prejudice against any of the law applicable to the case upon which the defense is entitled to rely, either as a defense to some phase of the offense for which the defendant is being prosecuted or as a mitigation thereof or of the punishment therefor.

Art. 35.17. Voir dire examination

1. When the court in its discretion so directs, except as provided in Section 2, the state and defendant shall conduct the voir dire examination of prospective jurors in the presence of the entire panel.

2. In a capital felony case, the court shall propound to the entire panel of prospective jurors questions concerning the principles, as applicable to the case on trial, of reasonable doubt, burden of proof, return of indictment by grand jury, presumption of innocence, and opinion. Then, on demand of the State or defendant, either is entitled to examine each juror on voir dire individually and apart from the entire panel, and may further question the juror on the principles propounded by the court.

Art. 35.18. Other evidence on challenge

Upon a challenge for cause, the examination is not confined to the answers of the juror, but other evidence may be heard for or against the challenge.

Art. 35.19. Absolute disqualification

No juror shall be impaneled when it appears that he is subject to the second, third or fourth cause of challenge in Article 35.16, though both parties may consent.

Art. 35.20. Names called in order

In selecting the jury from the persons summoned, the names of such persons shall be called in the order in which they appear upon the list furnished the defendant. Each juror shall be tried and passed upon separately. A person who has been summoned, but who is not present, may, upon his appearance before the jury is completed, be tried as to his qualifications and impaneled as a juror, unless challenged, but no cause shall be unreasonably delayed on account of such absence.

Art. 35.21. Judge to decide qualifications

The court is the judge, after proper examination, of the qualifications of a juror, and shall decide all challenges without delay and without argument thereupon.

Art. 35.22. Oath to jury

When the jury has been selected, the following oath shall be administered them by the court or under its direction: "You and each of you do solemnly swear that in the case of the State of Texas against the defendant, you will a true verdict render according to the law and the evidence, so help you God.".

Art. 35.23. Jurors may separate

The court may adjourn veniremen to any day of the term. When jurors have been sworn in a felony case, the court may, at its discretion, permit the jurors to separate until the court has given its charge to the jury, after which the jury shall be kept together, and not permitted to separate except to the extent of housing female jurors separate and apart from male jurors, until a verdict has been rendered or the jury finally discharged, unless by permission of the court with the consent of each party. Any person who makes known to the jury which party did not consent to separation shall be punished for contempt of court. If such jurors are kept overnight, facilities shall be provided for female jurors separate and apart from the facilities provided for male jurors. In misdemeanor cases the court may, at its discretion, permit the jurors to separate at any time before the verdict. In any case in which the jury is permitted to separate, the court shall first give the jurors proper instructions with regard to their conduct as jurors when so separated.

Art. 35.24. Special pay for veniremen

All veniremen and jurors shall be paid a per diem of not less than four dollars nor more than ten dollars per day, as fixed by the commissioners court of such county, which shall be paid out of the jury fund. No greater sum shall be paid challenged veniremen, regardless of the number of cases to which they may be summoned in any one day.

Art. 35.25. Making peremptory challenge

In non-capital cases and in capital cases in which the State's attorney has announced that he will not qualify the jury for, or seek the death penalty, the party desiring to challenge any juror peremptorily shall strike the name of such juror from the list furnished him by the clerk.

Art. 35.26. Lists returned to clerk

When the parties have made or declined to make their peremptory challenges, they shall deliver their lists to the clerk. The clerk shall, if the case be in the district court, call off the first twelve names on the lists that have not been stricken; and, if the case be in the county court, he shall call off the first six names on the lists that have not been stricken, those whose names are called shall be the jury.

Art. 35.27. Compensation of nonresident witnesses

Expenses for nonresident witnesses

Sec. 1. Every person subpoenaed by either party or otherwise required or requested in writing by the prosecuting attorney or the court to appear for the purpose of giving testimony in a criminal proceeding who resides outside the State or the county in which the prosecution is pending shall be compensated by the State for the reasonable and necessary travel and daily living expenses he incurs by reason of his attendance as a witness at such proceeding.

Amount of compensation for expenses

Sec. 2. Any person seeking compensation as a witness shall make an affidavit setting out the travel and daily living expenses necessitated by his travel to and from and attendance at the place he appeared to give testimony, together with the number of days that such travel and attendance made him absent from his place of residence. Compensation paid by the State to the witness for such expenses shall not exceed twenty-five dollars per day for daily living expenses and twelve cents per mile for travel by personal automobile.

Other expenses

Sec. 3. In addition to compensation for travel and living expenses, the Comptroller of Public Accounts, upon proper application by the attorney for the State, shall pay such other expenses as may be required by the laws of this State or the state from which the attendance of the witness is sought.

Application and approval by judge

Sec. 4. Compensation to witnesses as provided for in this Article shall be paid by the State to the witness or his assignee. Claim shall be made by sworn application to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, a copy of which shall be filed with the clerk of the court, setting out the facts showing entitlement as provided in this Article to the compensation, which application shall be presented for approval by the judge who presided over the court or empaneled the grand jury before whom the criminal proceeding was pending. No fee shall be required of any witness for the processing of his claim for compensation.
Art. 35.27

Payment by state

Sec. 5. The Comptroller of Public Accounts, upon receipt of a claim approved by the judge, shall examine it and, if he deems the claim in compliance with and authorized by this Article, draw his warrant on the State Treasury for the amount due the witness, or to any person to which the certificate has been assigned by the witness, but no warrant may issue to any assignee of a witness claim unless the assignment is made under oath and acknowledged before some person authorized to administer oaths, certified to by the officer, and under seal. If the appropriation for paying the account is exhausted, the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall file it away and issue a certificate in the name of the witness entitled to it, stating therein the amount of the claim. Each claim not filed in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts within twelve months from the date it became due and payable shall be forever barred.

Advance by state

Sec. 6. Funds required to be tendered to an out-of-state witness pursuant to Article 24.28 of this Code shall be paid by the Comptroller of Public Accounts into the registry of the Court in which the case is to be tried upon certification by the Court such funds are necessary to obtain attendance of said witness. The Court shall then cause to be issued checks drawn upon the registry of the Court to secure the attendance of such witness. In the event that such funds are not used pursuant to this Act, the Court shall return the funds to the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Advance by county

Sec. 7. The county in which a criminal proceeding is pending, upon request of the district attorney or other prosecutor charged with the duty of prosecution in the proceeding, may advance funds from its treasury to any witness who will be entitled to compensation under this Article in such amounts as may be reasonably necessary to enable the witness to attend as required or requested, including any sums in excess of the compensation provided for by this Article which are required for compliance with Section 4 of Article 24.28 in securing the attendance of a witness from another state under the Uniform Act, and upon any such advance or advances, the county shall be entitled to reimbursement by the State, as an assignee of compensation due a witness from the State.

Advance for expenses for witnesses of indigent defendant

Sec. 8. Upon application by a defendant shown to be indigent and a showing to the court of reasonable necessity and materiality for the testimony of a witness residing outside the State, the court shall act pursuant to Section 6 hereof to secure advance of funds necessary for the attendance of such witness.

Limitations

Sec. 9. A witness, when attached and conveyed by a sheriff or other officer, shall not be entitled to receive compensation while in custody of such officers and the court in its discretion may limit the number of character witnesses allowed compensation pursuant to this Article to not less than two for each defendant and two per defendant for the State.

Art. 35.28. When no clerk

In each instance in Article 35.27 in which the clerk of the court is authorized or directed to perform any act, the judge of such court shall perform the same if there is no clerk of the court.

Art. 36.01. Order of proceeding in trial

A jury being impaneled in any criminal action, the cause shall proceed in the following order:

1. The indictment or information shall be read to the jury by the attorney prosecuting. When prior convictions are alleged for purposes of enhancement only and are not jurisdictional, that portion of the indictment or information reciting such convictions shall not be read until the hearing on punishment is held as provided in Article 37.07.

2. The special pleas, if any, shall be read by the defendant's counsel, and if the plea of not guilty is also relied upon, it shall also be stated.
3. The State's attorney shall state to the jury the nature of the accusation and the facts which are expected to be proved by the State in support thereof.

4. The testimony on the part of the State shall be offered.

5. The nature of the defenses relied upon and the facts expected to be proved in their support shall be stated by defendant's counsel.

6. The testimony on the part of the defendant shall be offered.

7. Rebutting testimony may be offered on the part of each party.

8. In the event of a finding of guilty, the trial shall then proceed as set forth in Article 37.07.

Art. 36.02. Testimony at any time

The court shall allow testimony to be introduced at any time before the argument of a cause is concluded, if it appears that it is necessary to a due administration of justice.

Art. 36.03. Witnesses placed under rule

At the request of either party, the witnesses on both sides may be sworn and placed in the custody of an officer and removed out of the courtroom to some place where they cannot hear the testimony as delivered by any other witness in the cause. This is termed placing witnesses under the rule. However, if the defendant is a corporation or association it may designate one representative in addition to counsel to aid in the presentation of its case, which representative may not be placed under the rule.

Art. 36.04. Part of witnesses under rule

The party requesting the witnesses to be placed under rule may designate such as he desires placed under rule, and those not designated will be exempt from the rule, or the party may have all of the witnesses in the case placed under rule. The enforcement of the rule is in the discretion of the court.

Art. 36.05. Not to hear testimony

Witnesses under rule shall be attended by an officer, and all their reasonable wants provided for, unless the court, in its discretion, directs that they be allowed to go at large; but in no case where the witnesses are under rule shall they be allowed to hear any testimony in the case.

Art. 36.06. Instructed by the court

Witnesses, when placed under rule, shall be instructed by the court that they are not to converse with each other or with any other person about the case, except by permission of the court, and that they are not to read any report of or comment upon the testimony in the case while under rule. The officer who attends the witnesses shall report to the court at once any violation of its instructions, and the party violating the same shall be punished for contempt of court.

Art. 36.07. Order of argument

The order of argument may be regulated by the presiding judge; but the State's counsel shall have the right to make the concluding address to the jury.

Art. 36.08. Number of arguments

The court shall never restrict the argument in felony cases to a number of addresses less than two on each side.

Art. 36.09. Severance on separate indictments

Two or more defendants who are jointly or separately indicted or complained against for the same offense or any offense growing out of the same transaction may be, in the discretion of the court, tried jointly or separately as to one or more defendants; provided that in any event either defendant may testify for the other or on behalf of the state; and provided further, that in cases in which, upon timely motion to sever, and evidence introduced thereon, it is made known to the court that there is a previous admissible conviction against one defendant or that a joint trial would be prejudicial to any defendant, the court shall order a severance as to the defendant whose joint trial would prejudice the other defendant or defendants.

Art. 36.10. Order of trial

If a severance is granted, the defendants may agree upon the order in which they are to be tried, but if they fail to agree, the court shall direct the order of the trial.

Art. 36.11. Discharge before verdict

If it appears during a trial that the court has no jurisdiction of the offense, or that the facts charged in the indictment do not constitute an offense, the jury shall be discharged. The accused shall also be discharged, but such discharge shall be no bar in any case to a prosecution before the proper court for any offense unless termination of the former prosecution was improper.
Art. 36.11

Art. 36.12. Court may commit

If the want of jurisdiction arises from the fact that the defendant is not liable to prosecution in the county where the indictment was presented, the court may in felony cases order the accused into custody for a reasonable length of time to await a warrant for his arrest from the proper county; or if the offense be bailable, may require him to enter recognizance to answer before the proper court; in which case a certified copy of the recognizance shall be sent forthwith to the clerk of the proper court, to be enforced by that court in case of forfeiture.

Art. 36.13. Jury is judge of facts

Unless otherwise provided in this Code, the jury is the exclusive judge of the facts, but it is bound to receive the law from the court and be governed thereby.

Art. 36.14. Charge of court

Subject to the provisions of Article 36.07 in each felony case and in each misdemeanor case tried in a court of record, the judge shall, before the argument begins, deliver to the jury, except in pleas of guilty, where a jury has been waived, a written charge distinctly setting forth the law applicable to the case; not expressing any opinion as to the weight of the evidence, not summing up the testimony, discussing the facts or using any argument in his charge calculated to arouse the sympathy or excite the passions of the jury.

Before said charge is read to the jury, the defendant or his counsel shall have a reasonable time to examine the same and he shall present his objections thereto in writing, distinctly specifying each ground of objection. Said objections may embody errors claimed to have been committed in the charge, as well as errors claimed to have been committed by omissions therefrom or in failing to charge upon issues arising from the facts, and in no event shall it be necessary for the defendant or his counsel to present special requested charges to preserve or maintain any error assigned to the charge, as herein provided. Compliance with the provisions of this Article is all that is necessary to preserve, for review, the exceptions and objections presented to the charge and any amendment or modification thereof. In no event shall it be necessary for the defendant to except to the action of the court in over-ruling defendant's exceptions or objections to the charge.

Art. 36.15. Requested special charges

Before the court reads his charge to the jury, counsel on both sides shall have a reasonable time to present written instructions and ask that they be given to the jury. The court shall give or refuse these charges. The defendant may, by a special requested instruction, call the trial court's attention to error in the charge, as well as omissions therefrom, and no other exception or objection to the court's charge shall be necessary to preserve any error reflected by any special requested instruction which the trial court refuses.

Any special requested charge which is granted shall be incorporated in the main charge and shall be treated as a part thereof, and the jury shall not be advised that it is a special requested charge of either party. The judge shall read to the jury only such special charges as he gives.

When the defendant has leveled objections to the charge or has requested instructions or both, and the court thereafter modifies his charge and rewrites the same and in so doing does not respond to objections or requested charges, or any of them, then the objections or requested charges shall not be deemed to have been waived by the party making or requesting the same, but shall be deemed to continue to have been urged by the party making or requesting the same unless the contrary is shown by the record; no exception by the defendant to the action of the court shall be necessary or required in order to preserve for review the error claimed in the charge.

Art. 36.16. Final charge

After the judge shall have received the objections to his main charge, together with any special charges offered, he may make such changes in his main charge as he may deem proper, and the defendant or his counsel shall have the opportunity to present their objections thereto in the same manner as is provided in Article 36.15, and thereupon the judge shall read his charge to the jury as finally written, together with any special charges given, and no further exception or objection shall be required of the defendant in order to preserve any objections or exceptions theretofore made. After the argument begins no further charge shall be given to the jury unless required by the improper argument of counsel or the request of the jury, or unless the judge shall, in his discretion, permit the introduction of other testimony, and in the event of such further charge, the defendant or his counsel shall have the right to present objections in the same manner as is prescribed in Article 36.15. The failure of the court to give the defendant or his counsel a reasonable time to examine the charge and specify the ground of objection shall be subject to review either in the trial court or in the appellate court.

Art. 36.17. Charge certified by judge

The general charge given by the court and all special charges given or refused shall be certified by the judge and filed among the papers in the cause.

Art. 36.18. Jury may take charge
The jury may take to their jury room the charges given by the court after the same have been filed. They shall not be permitted to take with them any charge or part thereof which the court has refused to give.

Art. 36.19. Review of charge on appeal
Whenever it appears by the record in any criminal action upon appeal that any requirement of Articles 36.14, 36.15, 36.16, 36.17 and 36.18 has been disregarded, the judgment shall not be reversed unless the error appearing from the record was calculated to injure the rights of defendant, or unless it appears from the record that the defendant has not had a fair and impartial trial. All objections to the charge and to the refusal of special charges shall be made at the time of the trial.

Art. 36.20. Bill of exceptions
The defendant, by himself, or counsel, may tender his bills of exceptions to any decision, opinion, order or charge of the court or other proceedings in the case; and the judge shall sign such bills of exceptions, under the rules prescribed in Article 40.10. The bills of exception may be in narrative form or by questions and answers, and no particular form of words shall be required. Where the matter about which complaint is made and the trial court's ruling thereon reasonably appear from any formal or informal bill of exception, same shall be considered upon appeal, regardless of whether or not the bill of exception is multifarious or relates to more than one subject, complaint, or objection. Where the argument of State's counsel about which complaint is made in a bill of exception is manifestly improper, or violates some mandatory statute, or some new fact is thereby injected into the case, it shall not be necessary that the bill of exception negative that the argument was not invited, or in reply to argument of defendant or his counsel, or any other fact by which the argument complained of may have been authorized. If such matters exist, the trial court by qualification or otherwise, may require the bill of exception to reflect any reason whereby the argument complained of would not be error. The transcription of any evidence, testimony, or argument of State's counsel, with the objections made to such evidence, testimony, or argument, shall constitute an acceptable bill of exceptions under this Code.

Art. 36.21. To provide jury room
The sheriff shall provide a suitable room for the deliberation of the jury and supply them with such necessary food and lodging as he can obtain. No intoxicating liquor shall be furnished them. In all cases wherein a jury consists partly of male jurors and partly of female jurors, the sheriff shall provide facilities for the female jurors separate and apart from the facilities provided for the male jurors.

Art. 36.22. Conversing with jury
No person shall be permitted to be with a jury while it is deliberating. No person shall be permitted to converse with a juror about the case on trial except in the presence and by the permission of the court.

Art. 36.23. Violation of preceding Article
Any juror or other person violating the preceding Article shall be punished for contempt of court by confinement in jail not to exceed three days or by fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 36.24. Officer shall attend jury
The sheriff of the county shall furnish the court with a bailiff during the trial of any case to attend the wants of the jury and to act under the direction of the court. If the person furnished by the sheriff is to be called as a witness in the case he may not serve as bailiff.

Art. 36.25. Written evidence
There shall be furnished to the jury upon its request any exhibits admitted as evidence in the case.

Art. 36.26. Foreman of jury
Each jury shall appoint one of its members foreman.

Art. 36.27. Jury may communicate with court
When the jury wishes to communicate with the court, it shall so notify the sheriff, who shall inform the court thereof. Any communication relative to the cause must be written, prepared by the foreman and shall be submitted to the court through the bailiff. The court shall answer any such communication in writing, and before giving such answer to the jury shall use reasonable diligence to secure the presence of the defendant and his counsel, and shall first submit the question and also submit his answer to the same to the defendant or his counsel or objections and exceptions, in the same manner as any other written instructions are submitted to such counsel, before the court gives such answer to the jury, but if he is unable to secure the presence of the defendant and his counsel, then he shall proceed to answer the same as he deems proper. The written instruction or answer to the communication shall be read in open court unless expressly waived by the defendant.
Art. 36.27. Jury may have witness re-examined or testimony read

In the trial of a criminal case in a court of record, if the jury disagree as to the statement of any witness they may, upon applying to the court, have read to them from the court reporter's notes that part of such witness testimony or the particular point in dispute, and no other; but if there be no such reporter, or if his notes cannot be read to the jury, the court may cause such witness to be again brought upon the stand and the judge shall direct him to repeat his testimony as to the point in dispute, and no other, as nearly as he can in the language used on the trial.

Art. 36.29. If a juror becomes ill

Not less than twelve jurors can render and return a verdict in a felony case. It must be concurred in by each juror and signed by the foreman; provided, however, when pending the trial of any felony case, one juror may die or be disabled from sitting at any time before the charge of the court is read to the jury, the remainder of the jury shall have the power to render the verdict; but when the verdict shall be rendered by less than the whole number, it shall be signed by every member of the jury concurring in it. After the charge of the court is read to the jury, if any one of them becomes so sick as to prevent the continuance of his duty, or any accident of circumstance occurs to prevent their being kept together under circumstances under which the law or the instructions of the court requires that they be kept together, the jury may be discharged.

Art. 36.30. Discharging jury in misdemeanor

If nine of the jury can be kept together in a misdemeanor case in the district court, they shall not be discharged. If more than three of the twelve are discharged, the entire jury shall be discharged.

Art. 36.31. Disagreement of jury

After the cause is submitted to the jury, it may be discharged when it cannot agree and both parties consent to its discharge; or the court may in its discretion discharge it where it has been kept together for such time as to render it altogether improbable that it can agree.

Art. 36.32. Receipt of verdict and final adjournment

During the trial of any case, the term shall be deemed to have been extended until such time as the jury has rendered its verdict or been discharged according to law.

Art. 36.33. Discharge without verdict

When a jury has been discharged, as provided in the four preceding Articles, without having rendered a verdict, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term.

Art. 37.06. Presence of defendant

In felony cases the defendant must be present when the verdict is read unless his absence is wilful or voluntary. A verdict in a misdemeanor case may be received and read in the absence of the defendant.

Art. 37.07. Verdict must be general; separate hearing on proper punishment

Sec. 1. (a) The verdict in every criminal action must be general. When there are special pleas on which a jury is to find they must say in their verdict that the allegations in such pleas are true or untrue.

(b) If the plea is not guilty, they must find that the defendant is either guilty or not guilty, and, except as provided in Section 2, they shall assess the punishment in all cases where the same is not absolutely fixed by law to some particular penalty.

(c) If the charging instrument contains more than one count or if two or more offenses are consolidated for trial pursuant to Chapter 3 of the Penal Code, the jury shall be instructed to return a finding of guilty or not guilty in a separate verdict as to each count and offense submitted to them.

Sec. 2. (a) In all criminal cases, other than misdemeanor cases of which the justice court or municipal court has jurisdiction, which are tried before a jury on a plea of not guilty, the judge shall, before argument begins, first submit to the jury the issue of guilt or innocence of the defendant and the offense or offenses charged, without authorizing the jury to pass upon the punishment to be imposed.

(b) Except as provided in Article 37.071, if a finding of guilty is returned, it shall then be the responsibility of the judge to assess the punishment applicable to the offense; provided, however, that (1) in any criminal action where the jury may recommend probation and the defendant filed his sworn motion for probation before the trial began, and (2) in other cases where the defendant so elects in writing at the time he enters his plea in open court, the punishment shall be assessed by the same jury.

(c) Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting the admissibility of extraneous offenses on the question of guilt or innocence.

Art. 37.071. Procedure in capital case

(a) Upon a finding that the defendant is guilty of a capital offense, the court shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the defendant shall be sentenced to death or life imprisonment. The proceeding shall be conducted in the trial court before the trial jury as soon as practicable. In the proceeding, evidence may be presented as to any matter that the court deems relevant to sentence. This subsection shall not be construed to authorize the introduction of any evidence secured in violation of the Constitution of the United States or of the State of Texas. The state and the defendant or his counsel shall be permitted to present argument for or against sentence of death.

(b) After the introduction of such evidence has been concluded, and if the jury has the responsibility of assessing the punishment, the court shall give such additional written instructions as may be necessary and the order of procedure and the rules governing the conduct of the trial shall be the same as are applicable on the issue of guilt or innocence.

(c) In cases where the matter of punishment is referred to the jury, the verdict shall not be complete until the jury has rendered a verdict both on the guilt or innocence of the defendant and the amount of punishment, where the jury finds the defendant guilty. In the event the jury shall fail to agree, a mistrial shall be declared, the jury shall be discharged, and no jeopardy shall attach.

(d) When the judge assesses the punishment, and after the hearing of the evidence hereinabove provided for, he shall forthwith announce his decision in open court as to the punishment to be assessed.

(e) Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting the admissibility of extraneous offenses on the question of guilt or innocence.

Art. 37.071

(d) The court shall charge the jury that:
   (1) it may not answer any issue “yes” unless it agrees unanimously; and
   (2) it may not answer any issue “no” unless 10 or more jurors agree.

(e) If the jury returns an affirmative finding on each issue submitted under this article, the court shall sentence the defendant to death.

(f) The judgment of conviction and sentence of death shall be subject to automatic review by the Court of Criminal Appeals within 60 days after certification by the sentencing court of the entire record unless time is extended an additional period not to exceed 30 days by the Court of Criminal Appeals for good cause shown. Such review by the Court of Criminal Appeals shall have priority over all other cases, and shall be heard in accordance with rules promulgated by the Court of Criminal Appeals. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1125, ch. 426, art. 3, § 1, eff. June 14, 1973.]

Art. 37.08. Conviction of lesser included offenses

In a prosecution for an offense with lesser included offenses, the jury may find the defendant not guilty of the greater offense, but guilty of any lesser included offense. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 972, ch. 399, § 2(A), eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

Art. 37.09. Lesser included offenses

An offense is a lesser included offense if:
   (1) it is established by proof of the same or less than all the facts required to establish the commission of the offense charged;
   (2) it differs from the offense charged only in the respect that a less serious injury or risk of injury to the same person, property, or public interest suffices to establish its commission;
   (3) it differs from the offense charged only in the respect that a less culpable mental state suffices to establish its commission; or
   (4) it consists of an attempt to commit the offense charged or an otherwise included offense. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 972, ch. 399, § 2(A), eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

Art. 37.10. Informal verdict

If the verdict of the jury is informal, its attention shall be called to it, and with its consent the verdict may, under the direction of the court, be reduced to the proper form. If the jury refuses to have the verdict altered, it shall again retire to its room to deliberate, unless it manifestly appear that the verdict is intended as an acquittal; and in that case, the judgment shall be rendered accordingly, discharging the defendant. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 37.11. Defendants tried jointly

Where several defendants are tried together, the jury may convict each defendant if it finds a verdict of guilty and acquit others. If it agrees to a verdict as to one or more, it may find a verdict in accordance with such agreement, and if it cannot agree as to others, a mistrial may be entered as to them. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 37.12. Judgment on verdict

On each verdict of acquittal or conviction, the proper judgment shall be entered immediately. If acquitted, the defendant shall be at once discharged from all further liability upon the charge for which he was tried; provided that, in misdemeanor cases where there is returned a verdict, or a plea of guilty is entered and the punishment assessed is by fine only, the court may, on written request of the defendant and for good cause shown, defer judgment until some other day fixed by order of the court; but in no event shall the judgment be deferred for a longer period of time than six months. On expiration of the time fixed by the order of the court, the court or judge thereof, shall enter judgment on the verdict or plea and the same shall be executed as provided by Chapter 43 of this Code. Provided further, that the court or judge thereof, in the exercise of sound discretion may permit the defendant where judgment is deferred, to remain at large on his personal bond, or may require him to enter into bail bond in a sum at least double the amount of the assessed fine and costs, conditioned that the defendant and sureties, jointly and severally, will pay such fine and costs unless the defendant personally appears on the day, set in the order and discharges the judgment in the manner provided by Chapter 43 of this Code; and for the enforcement of any judgment entered, all writs, processes and remedies of this Code are made applicable so far as necessary to carry out the provisions of this Article. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 37.13. If jury believes accused insane

When a jury has been impaneled to assess the punishment upon a plea of guilty, it shall say in its verdict what the punishment is which it assesses; but if it is of the opinion that a person pleading guilty is insane, it shall so report to the court, and an issue as to that fact shall be tried before another jury; and if, upon such trial, it be found that the defendant is insane, such proceedings shall be had as directed in cases where a defendant becomes insane after conviction. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

(c) The state must prove each issue submitted beyond a reasonable doubt, and the jury shall return a special verdict of “yes” or “no” on each issue submitted.

(1) it may not answer any issue “yes” unless it agrees unanimously; and

(2) it may not answer any issue “no” unless 10 or more jurors agree.

If the jury returns an affirmative finding on each issue submitted under this article, the court shall sentence the defendant to confinement in the Texas Department of Corrections for life.

Certification by the sentencing court of the entire record unless time is extended an additional period not to exceed 30 days by the Court of Criminal Appeals for good cause shown. Such review by the Court of Criminal Appeals shall have priority over all other cases, and shall be heard in accordance with rules promulgated by the Court of Criminal Appeals. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1125, ch. 426, art. 3, § 1, eff. June 14, 1973.]

   (4) it consists of an attempt to commit the offense charged or an otherwise included offense. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 972, ch. 399, § 2(A), eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

Art. 37.14. Acquittal of higher offense as jeopardy

If a defendant, prosecuted for an offense which includes within it lesser offenses, be convicted of an offense lower than that for which he is indicted, and a new trial be granted him, or the judgment be arrested for any cause other than the want of jurisdiction, the verdict upon the first trial shall be considered an acquittal of the higher offense; but he may, upon a second trial, be convicted of the same offense of which he was before convicted, or any other inferior thereto.

Art. 38.05. Judge shall not discuss evidence

In ruling upon the admissibility of evidence, the judge shall not discuss or comment upon the weight of the same or its bearing in the case, but shall simply decide whether or not it is admissible; nor shall he, at any stage of the proceeding previous to the return of the verdict, make any remark calculated to convey to the jury his opinion of the case.

The husband and wife may, in all criminal actions, be witnesses for each other, but except as hereinafter provided, they shall in no case testify against each other in a criminal prosecution. However, a wife or husband may voluntarily testify against each other in any case for an offense involving any grade of assault or violence committed by one against the other or against any child of either under 16 years of age, or in any case where either is charged with incest of a child of either, or in any case where either is charged with bigamy, or in any case where either is charged with interference with child custody, or in any case where either is charged with nonsupport of his or her spouse or minor child.

Art. 38.14. Testimony of accomplice

A conviction cannot be had upon the testimony of an accomplice unless corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the defendant with the offense committed; and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows the commission of the offense.

Art. 38.15. Two witnesses in treason

No person can be convicted of treason except upon the testimony of at least two witnesses to the same overt act, or upon his own confession in open court.

Art. 38.16. Evidence in treason

Evidence shall not be admitted in a prosecution for treason as to an overt act not expressly charged in the indictment; nor shall any person be convicted under an indictment for treason unless one or more overt acts are expressly charged therein.

Art. 38.17. Two witnesses required

In all cases where, by law, two witnesses, or one with corroborating circumstances, are required to authorize a conviction, if the requirement be not fulfilled, the court shall instruct the jury to render a verdict of acquittal, and they are bound by the instruction.

Art. 38.18. Perjury and aggravated perjury

(a) No person may be convicted of perjury or aggravated perjury if proof that his statement is false rests solely upon the testimony of one witness other than the defendant.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this article does not apply to prosecutions for perjury or aggravated perjury involving inconsistent statements.

Art. 38.19. Intent to defraud in forgery

In trials of forgery, it need not be proved that the defendant committed the act with intent to defraud any particular person. It shall be sufficient to prove that the forgery was, in its nature, calculated to injure or defraud any of the sovereignties, bodies corporate or politic, officers or persons, named in the definition of forgery in the Penal Code.

Art. 38.19. Intent to defraud in forgery

In trials of forgery, it need not be proved that the defendant committed the act with intent to defraud any particular person. It shall be sufficient to prove that the forgery was, in its nature, calculated to injure or defraud any of the sovereignties, bodies corporate or politic, officers or persons, named in the definition of forgery in the Penal Code.

Art. 38.20. Dying declarations

The dying declaration of a deceased person may be offered in evidence, either for or against a defendant charged with the homicide of such deceased person, under the restrictions hereafter provided. To render the declarations of the deceased competent evidence, it must be satisfactorily proved:

1. That at the time of making such declaration he was conscious of approaching death, and believed there was no hope of recovery;
2. That such declaration was voluntarily made, and not through the persuasion of any person;
3. That such declaration was not made in answer to interrogatories calculated to lead the deceased to make any particular statement; and
4. That he was of sane mind at the time of making the declaration.

Art. 38.21. Confession

The confession of a defendant may be used in evidence against him if it appear that the same was freely made without compulsion or persuasion, under the rules hereafter prescribed.

Art. 38.22. When oral and written confessions shall be used

1. The oral or written confession of a defendant made while the defendant was in jail or other place of confinement or in the custody of an officer shall be admissible if:

(a) it be shown to be the voluntary statement of the accused taken in the presence of an examining court in accordance with law; or

(b) it be made in writing and signed by the accused, and show that the accused has at some time prior to the making thereof received from the person to whom the statement is made the warning set out in Subsection (c)(1), (2) and (3) below or received from the magistrate the warning provided in Article 15.17, and shows the time, date, and place of the warning and the name of the person or magistrate who administered the warning; or

(c) it be made in writing to some person who has warned the defendant from whom the statement is taken that

(1) he has the right to have a lawyer present to advise him either prior to any questioning or during any questioning,
(2) if he is unable to employ a lawyer, he has the right to have a lawyer appointed to counsel with him prior to or during any questioning, and
(3) he has the right to remain silent and not make any statement at all and that any statement he makes may be used in evidence against him at his trial.

The defendant must knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waive these rights prior to and during the making of the statement.

(d) If a written statement is taken and if the defendant is unable to write his name and signs the statement by making his mark, such statement shall not be admitted in evidence, unless it be witnessed by some person other than a peace officer, who shall sign the same as witness.

(e) It be made orally and the defendant makes a statement of facts or circumstances that are found to be true, which conduces to establish his guilt, such as the finding of secreted or stolen property, or the instrument with which he states the offense was committed.

(f) Nothing contained herein shall preclude the admissibility of any statement made by the defendant in open court at his trial or at his examining trial in compliance with Articles 16.03 and 16.04 or of any statement that is the res gestae of the arrest or of the offense.

2. In all cases where a question is raised as to the voluntariness of a confession or statement, the court must make an independent finding in the absence of the jury as to whether the confession or statement was made under voluntary conditions. If the confession or statement has been found to have been voluntarily made and held admissible as a matter of law and fact by the court in a hearing in the absence of the jury, the court must enter an order stating its findings, which order shall be filed among the papers of the cause. Such order shall not be exhibited to the jury nor the finding thereof made known to the jury in any manner. Upon the finding by the judge as a matter of law and fact that the confession or statement was voluntarily made, evidence pertaining to such matter may be submitted to the jury and it shall be instructed that unless the jury believes beyond a reasonable doubt that the confession or statement was voluntarily made, the jury shall not consider such statement or confession for any purpose nor any evidence obtained as a result thereof. In any case where a motion to suppress the statement or confession has been filed and evidence has been submitted to the court on this issue, the court within its discretion may reconsider such evidence in his finding that the statement or confession was voluntarily made and the same evidence submitted to the court at the hearing on the motion to suppress shall be made a part of the record the same as if it were being presented at the time of trial. However, the state or the defendant shall be entitled to present any new evidence on the issue of the voluntariness of the statement or confession prior to the court’s final ruling and order stating its findings.

3. When the issue is raised by the evidence, the trial judge shall appropriately instruct the jury, gen-eraly, on the law pertaining to such statement or confession.

Art. 38.23. Evidence not to be used

No evidence obtained by an officer or other person in violation of any provisions of the Constitution or laws of the State of Texas, or of the Constitution or laws of the United States of America, shall be admitted in evidence against the accused on the trial of any criminal case.

In any case where the legal evidence raises an issue hereunder, the jury shall be instructed that if it believes, or has a reasonable doubt, that the evidence was obtained in violation of the provisions of this Article, then and in such event, the jury shall disregard any such evidence so obtained.

Art. 38.24. Part of an act, declaration, conversation or writing

When part of an act, declaration or conversation or writing is given in evidence by one party, the whole on the same subject may be inquired into by the other, as when a letter is read, all letters on the same subject between the same parties may be given. When a detailed act, declaration, conversation or writing is given in evidence, any other act, declaration or writing which is necessary to make it fully understood or to explain the same may also be given in evidence.

Art. 38.25. Written part of instrument controls

When an instrument is partly written and partly printed, the written shall control the printed portion when the two are inconsistent.

Art. 38.26. If subscribing witness denies execution

When a subscribing witness denies or does not recollect the execution of an instrument to which his name appears, its execution may be proved by other evidence.

Art. 38.27. Evidence of handwriting

It is competent to give evidence of handwriting by comparison, made by experts or by the jury. Proof by comparison only shall not be sufficient to establish the handwriting of a witness who denies his signature under oath.

Art. 38.28. Attacking testimony of his own witness

A party may, when testimony of his own witness is injurious to his cause, attack the testimony in any other manner except by offering evidence of the witness' bad character.

Art. 38.29. Indictment, information or complaint not admissible to impeach witness

The fact that a defendant in a criminal case, or a witness in a criminal case, is or has been, charged by indictment, information or complaint, with the commission of an offense against the criminal laws of this State, of the United States, or any other State shall not be admissible in evidence on the trial of any criminal case for the purpose of impeaching any person as a witness unless on trial under such indictment, information or complaint a final conviction has resulted, or a suspended sentence has been given and has not been set aside, or such person has been placed on probation and the period of probation has not expired. In trials of defendants under Article 36.09, it may be shown that the witness is presently charged with the same offense as the defendant at whose trial he appears as a witness.

Art. 38.30. Interpreter

When a witness does not understand and speak the English language, an interpreter must be sworn to interpret for him. Any person may be subpoenaed, attached or recognized in any criminal action or proceeding, to appear before the proper judge or court to act as interpreter therein, under the same rules and penalties as are provided for witnesses. Such interpreters shall receive the same pay as interpreters receive in civil suits.

Art. 38.31. Interpreters for deaf or deaf-mute persons

(a) In all criminal prosecutions, where the accused is deaf or a deaf-mute, he shall have the proceedings of the trial interpreted to him in a language that he can understand by a qualified interpreter appointed by the court.

(b) In all cases where the mental condition of a person is being considered and where such person may be committed to a mental institution, and where such person is deaf or a deaf-mute, all of the court proceedings pertaining to him shall be interpreted by a qualified interpreter appointed by the court.

(c) In any case where an interpreter is required to be appointed by the court under this Article, the court shall not commence proceedings until the appointed interpreter is in court in a position not exceeding ten feet from and in full view of the deaf person.

(d) The interpreter appointed under the terms of this Article shall be required to take an oath that he will make a true interpretation to the person accused or being examined, which person is deaf or a deaf-mute, of all of the proceedings of his case in a language that he understands; and that he will repeat said deaf or deaf-mute person's answer to questions to counsel, court, or jury, in the English language, in his best skill and judgment.
(e) Interpreters appointed under the terms of this Article will receive for their services a sum not to exceed $50 a day, as follows: interpreters shall be paid not less than $15 nor more than $50 a day, at the discretion of the judge presiding. When travel of the interpreter is involved all the actual expenses of travel, lodging, and meals incurred by the interpreter pertaining to the case he is appointed to serve shall be paid at the same rate applicable to state employees.

Art. 38.32. Presumption of death

(a) Upon introduction and admission into evidence of a valid certificate of death wherein the time of death of the decedent has been entered by a licensed physician, a presumption exists that death occurred at the time stated in the certificate of death.

(b) A presumption existing pursuant to Section (a) of this Article is sufficient to support a finding as to time of death but may be rebutted through a showing by a preponderance of the evidence that death occurred at some other time.

CHAPTER THIRTY-NINE. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

Art. 39.01. In examining trial

When an examination takes place in a criminal action before a magistrate, the defendant may have the deposition of any witness taken by any officer or officers named in this Chapter. The defendant shall not use the deposition for any purpose unless he first consent that the entire evidence or statement of the witness may be used against him by the State on the trial of the case, subject to all legal objections. The deposition of a witness duly taken before an examining trial or a jury of inquest and reduced to writing and certified according to law where the defendant was present when such testimony was taken, and had the privilege afforded of cross-examining the witness, or taken at any prior trial of the defendant for the same offense, may be used by either the State or the defendant in the trial of such defendant's criminal case under the following circumstances:

When oath is made by the party using the same that the witness resides outside the State; or that since his testimony was taken, the witness has died, or that he has removed beyond the limits of the State, or that he has been prevented from attending the court through the act or agency of the other party, or by the act or agency of any person whose object was to deprive the defendant of the benefit of the testimony; or that by reason of age or bodily infirmity, such witness cannot attend. When the testimony is sought to be used by the State, the oath may be made by any credible person. When sought to be used by the defendant, the oath shall be made by him in person.

Art. 39.02. Depositions for defendant

Depositions of witnesses may be taken by the defendant. When the defendant desires to take the deposition of a witness, he shall, by himself or counsel, file with the clerk of the court in which the case is pending an affidavit stating the facts necessary to constitute a good reason for taking the same, and an application to take the same. Provided that upon the filing of such application, and after notice to the attorney for the state, the courts shall hear the application and determine if good reason exists for taking the deposition. Such determination shall be based on the facts made known at the hearing and in the court, in its judgment, shall grant or deny the application on such facts.

Art. 39.03. Officers who may take the deposition

Upon the filing of such an affidavit and application, the court shall appoint, order or designate one of the following persons before whom such deposition shall be taken:

1. A district judge.
2. A county judge.
3. A notary public.
4. A district clerk.
5. A county clerk.

Such order shall specifically name such person and the time when and place where such deposition shall be taken. Failure of a witness to respond thereto, shall be punishable by contempt by the court. Such deposition shall be oral or written, as the court shall direct.

Art. 39.04. Applicability of civil rules

The rules prescribed in civil cases for issuance of commissions, subpoenaing witnesses, taking the depositions of witnesses and all other formalities governing depositions shall, as to the manner and form of taking and returning the same and other formalities to the taking of the same, govern in criminal actions, when not in conflict with this Code.

Art. 39.05. Objections

The rules of procedure as to objections in depositions in civil actions shall govern in criminal actions when not in conflict with this Code.

Art. 39.06. Written interrogatories

When any such deposition is to be taken by written interrogatories, such written interrogatories shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and a copy of the same served on all other parties or their counsel for the length of time and in the manner required for service of interrogatories in civil action, and the same procedure shall also be followed with reference to cross-interrogatories as that prescribed in civil actions.

Art. 39.07. Certificate

Where depositions are taken under commission in criminal actions, the officer or officers taking the same shall certify that the person depositing is the identical person named in the commission; or, if they cannot certify to the identity of the witness, there shall be an affidavit of some person attached to the deposition proving the identity of such witness, and the officer or officers shall certify that the person making the affidavit is known to them.

Art. 39.08. Authenticating the deposition

The official seal and signature of the officer taking the deposition shall be attached to the certificate authenticating the deposition.

Art. 39.09. Non-resident witnesses

Depositions of a witness residing out of the State may be taken before a judge or before a commissioner of deeds and depositions for this State, who resides within the State where the deposition is to be taken, or before a notary public of the place where such deposition is to be taken, or before any commissioned officer of the armed services or before any diplomatic or consular officer. The deposition of a non-resident witness who may be temporarily within the State, may be taken under the same rules which apply to the taking of depositions of other witnesses in the State.

Art. 39.10. Return

In all cases the return of depositions may be made as provided in civil actions.

Art. 39.11. Waiver

The State and defense may agree upon a waiver of any formalities in the taking of a deposition other than that the taking of such deposition must be under oath.

Art. 39.12. Predicate to read

Depositions taken in criminal actions shall not be read unless oath be made that the witness resides out of the State; or that since his deposition was taken, the witness has died; or that he has removed beyond the limits of the State; or that he has been prevented from attending the court through the act or agency of the defendant; or by the act or agency of any person whose object was to deprive the defendant of the benefit of the testimony; or that by reason of age or bodily infirmity, such witness cannot attend. When the deposition is sought to be used by the State, the oath may be made by any credible person. When sought to be used by the defendant, the oath shall be made by him in person.

Art. 39.13. Impeachment

Nothing contained in the preceding Articles shall be construed as prohibiting the use of any such evidence for impeachment purposes under the rules of evidence heretofore existing at common law.

Art. 39.14. Discovery

Upon motion of the defendant showing good cause therefor and upon notice to the other parties, the court in which an action is pending may order the State before or during trial of a criminal action therein pending or on trial to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing by or on behalf of the defendant of any designated documents, papers, written statement of the defendant, (except written statements of witnesses and except the work product of counsel in the case and their investigators and their notes or report), books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects or tangible things not privileged, which constitute or contain evidence material to any matter involved in the action and which are in the possession, custody or control of the State or any of its agencies. The order shall specify the time, place and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographs of any of the aforementioned documents or tangible evidence; provided, however, that the rights herein granted shall not extend to written communications between the State or any of its agents or representatives or employees. Nothing in this Act shall authorize the removal of such evidence from the possession of the State, and any inspection shall be in the presence of a representative of the State.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER VERDICT

CHAPTER FORTY. NEW TRIALS

Art.
40.01. Definition of "new trial".
40.02. Granted only to accused.
40.03. Grounds for new trial in felony.
40.04. In misdemeanors.
40.05. Time to apply for new trial; amendment.
40.06. State may controvert motion.
Art. 40.01. Definition of "new trial"

A "new trial" is the rehearing of a criminal action, after verdict, before the judge or another jury. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 40.02. Granted only to accused

A new trial can in no case be granted where the verdict or judgment has been rendered for the accused. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 40.03. Grounds for new trial in felony

New trials, in cases of felony, shall be granted the defendant for the following causes, and for no other:

1. Where the defendant is an individual and has been tried in his absence, except as otherwise provided in this code, or has been denied counsel;
2. Where the court has misdirected the jury as to the law, or has committed any other material error calculated to injure the rights of the defendant;
3. Where the verdict has been decided by lot, or in any other manner than by a fair expression of opinion by the jurors;
4. Where a juror has received a bribe to convict, or has been guilty of any other corrupt conduct;
5. Where any material witness of the defendant has, by force, threats or fraud, been prevented from attending the court, or where any written evidence, tending to establish the innocence of the defendant, has been intentionally destroyed or removed so that it could not be produced upon the trial;
6. Where new evidence material to the defendant has been discovered since the trial. A motion for new trial may be presented to the court within ten days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within twenty days after it is filed. Such motion shall be presented to the court within ten days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within twenty days after the filing of the original or amended motion, but for good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court, but shall not delay the filing of the record on appeal.
7. The State may take issue with the defendant upon the expiration of the term at which said conviction resulted, either during a new term of court or during vacation, and a motion for new trial may be determined in vacation or at a new term of court, and need not be determined during the term at which filed. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 40.04. In misdemeanors

New trials in misdemeanor cases may be granted for any cause specified in the preceding Article, except that the first cause specified in subdivision 1 of said Article shall not be available as ground for new trial in any misdemeanor case where the maximum punishment may be a fine only. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 40.05. Time to apply for new trial; amendment

A motion for new trial shall be filed within ten days after conviction as evidenced by the verdict of the jury, and may be amended by leave of the court at any time before it is acted on within twenty days after it is filed. Such motion shall be presented to the court within ten days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within twenty days after the filing of the original or amended motion, but for good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court, but shall not delay the filing of the record on appeal.

Art. 40.06. State may controvert motion

The State may take issue with the defendant upon the truth of any cause set forth in the motion for a new trial; and in such case, the judge shall hear evidence, by affidavit or otherwise, and determine the issue. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 40.07. Judge not to discuss evidence

In granting or refusing a new trial, the judge shall not sum up, discuss or comment upon the evidence in the case, but shall simply grant or refuse the motion, without prejudice to either party. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 40.08. Effect of a new trial

The effect of a new trial is to place the cause in the same position in which it was before any trial had taken place. The former conviction shall be regarded as no presumption of guilt, nor shall it be alluded to in the argument.
Art. 40.08  CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Art. 40.09. The record on appeal

1. Record in appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals

In all cases appealable by law to the Court of Criminal Appeals, the clerk of the court that entered the conviction sought to be appealed from shall, under his hand and seal of the court, make and prepare an appellate record comprising a true copy of the matter designated by the parties, but shall always include, whether designated or not, copies of the material pleadings, material docket entries made by the court, the charge, verdict, judgment, sentence, notice of appeal, any appeal bond, all written motions and pleas and orders of the court, and bills of exception. The matter so prepared shall be assembled under one cover and shall constitute the record on appeal. The pages of this record shall be numbered consecutively and there shall be an index prepared by the clerk showing the location of each document in the record. The record shall be made in duplicate and one copy shall be retained by the clerk for use by the parties with permission of the court.

2. Designation of material for inclusion in the record

Each party may file with the clerk a written designation specifying matter for inclusion in the record. The failure of the clerk to include designated matter will not be ground for complaint on appeal if the designation specifying such matter be not filed with the clerk within sixty days after notice of appeal is given.

3. Statement of facts and other proceedings

The record may include a transcription of all or any part of the proceedings shown by notes of the report \(^1\) to have occurred before, during or after the trial and same will constitute the statement of facts for the appeal. A transcription applicable to any proceeding occurring before or within a period of ninety days after notice of appeal shall be filed with the clerk for inclusion in the record not later than the end of such period. A transcription of notes applicable to any proceeding occurring after the end of such period shall be filed with the clerk for inclusion in the record not later than thirty days after the end of such proceeding. The times herein provided for filing transcription of the notes of the reporter may be extended by the court for good cause shown, and the court shall have the power, in term time or vacation, on application for good cause to extend for as many times as deemed necessary the time for preparation and filing of the transcription, and the approval of the record after the expiration of the time provided by law for its approval shall be sufficient proof that the time for filing the transcription was properly extended, and the transcription so filed shall be construed as having been filed within the time required by law.

4. Effect of transcription of reporter's notes

At the request of either party the court reporter shall take shorthand notes of all trial proceedings, including voir dire examination, objections to the court's charge, and final arguments. He is not entitled to any fee in addition to his salary for taking these notes. A transcription of the reporter's notes when certified to by him and included in the record shall establish the occurrence and existence of all testimony, argument, motions, pleas, objections, exceptions, court actions, refusals of the court to act and other events thereby shown and no further proof of the occurrence or existence of same shall be necessary on appeal; provided, however, that the court shall have power, after hearing, to enter and make part of the record any finding or adjudication which the court may deem essential to make any such transcription speak the truth in any particular in which the court finds it does not speak the truth and any such finding or adjudication having support in the evidence shall be final.

5. Responsibility for obtaining transcription of reporter's notes

A party desiring to have included in the record a transcription of notes of the reporter shall have the responsibility of obtaining such transcription and furnishing same to the clerk in duplicate in time for inclusion in the record and the defendant shall pay therefor. The court will order the reporter to make such transcription without charge to defendant if the court finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by defendant that he is unable to pay or give security therefor. Upon certification of the court that this service has been rendered, payment therefor shall be made from the general funds by the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed in a sum to be set by the trial judge. The court reporter shall report any portion of the proceedings requested by either party or directed by the court.

6. Bills of exception

(a) A party desiring to have the record disclose some action, testimony, evidence, proceeding, objection, exception or other event or occurrence not otherwise shown by the record may utilize a bill of exception for this purpose. Bills of exception must be filed with the clerk and presented to the trial judge within ninety days after notice of appeal is given, and for good cause shown, the judge trying the cause may further extend the time in which to file the bills of exception and shall have the power, in term-time or in vacation, upon application for good cause to extend for as many times as deemed necessary the time for preparation and filing of bills of exception and the approval for any bill of exception by the judge trying the cause after the expiration of the ninety-day period shall be sufficient proof that the time for filing was properly extended, and any bill of exception so filed shall be construed to have been filed within the time required by law. The clerk shall notify the court of each bill immediately upon its being filed. The court shall either

approve the bill without qualification or shall approve it subject to qualification or refuse it, setting forth in the qualification or refusal any reasons that may seem proper to the judge. Notice of the court's action in qualifying or refusing a bill shall be immediately given by the clerk to the party filing the bill or to his counsel, and such party, if unwilling to accept the court's qualification or refusal may not later than fifteen days after receipt of such notice, file a by-stander's bill of exception, and the clerk shall include same in the record. A bill of exception shall be deemed approved without qualification if it be not acted upon by the trial judge within a period of 100 days after notice of appeal is given and no extension of time for filing has been granted; provided, however, if an extension of time for filing has been granted, a bill of exception will be deemed approved without qualification if it be not acted upon by the trial judge within a period of 10 days after the actual filing of the bill.

(b) A bill of exception shall be a necessary predicate for appellate review only if the matter complained of is not otherwise shown by the record as herein provided. Errors otherwise shown by the record may be reviewed on appeal without the necessity of any bill of exception. If the date of filing with the clerk of any document in the record is shown by notation of the clerk thereon, no further proof of such date or of the fact of the filing of the document with the clerk shall be necessary. If the transcription of the reporter's notes or any court order or docket entry by the court shows the occurrence or existence of any particular action by the court or refusal of the court to act or any objection or exception or any other event, no further proof of the occurrence or existence of same shall be necessary.

(c) Formal exceptions to rulings on evidence, opinions or other actions of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been necessary, it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling, opinion or action of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and if a party has no opportunity to object to the ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

(d) (1) When the court refuses to admit offered testimony or other evidence, the party offering same shall as soon as practicable but before the court's charge is read to the jury be allowed, out of the presence of the jury, to adduce the excluded testimony or other evidence before the reporter, and a transcription of his notes showing such testimony or other evidence and any objections and exceptions of the party offering same shall, when certified to by the reporter and included in the record, establish the nature of such testimony or other evidence, and the objections and exceptions made in connection with the court's exclusion of such testimony or other evidence and no bills of exception shall be essential to authorize appellate review of the question whether the court erred in excluding such testimony or other evidence. The court, in its discretion, may allow an offer of proof in the form of a concise statement by the party offering the same of what the excluded evidence would show, to be made before the reporter out of the presence of the jury as an alternative method of causing the record to show what such excluded testimony or other evidence would have consisted of had it been admitted into evidence.

(2) When testimony or other evidence has been excluded by the court over objection of the party offering same, no further offer of the same need be made to preserve the claimed error.

(3) When the court hears objections to offered evidence out of the presence of the jury and rules that such evidence shall be admitted, then in that event such objections shall be deemed to apply to such evidence when it is admitted before the jury without the necessity of such objections being renewed in the presence of the jury.

7. Approval of the record

Notice of completion of the record shall be made by the clerk by certified mail to the parties or their respective counsel. If neither files and presents to the court in writing any objection to the record, within fifteen days after the mailing of such notice and if the court has no objection to the record, he shall approve the same. If such objection be made, or if the court fails to approve the record within five days after the expiration of such fifteen-day period, the court shall set the matter down for hearing, and, after hearing, shall enter such orders as may be appropriate to cause the record to speak the truth and the findings and adjudications in such orders, if supported by evidence, shall be final. In its discretion, the court may require the attendance of the defendant at such hearing. Such proceeding shall be included in the record, and the entire record approved by the court.

8. Filing approved record with clerk

The record, on approval by the court, shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court.

9. Defendant's brief

Within thirty days after approval of the record by the court, or within such additional period as the court may in its discretion authorize, the defendant shall file with the clerk of the trial court his appellate brief and sufficient copies of said brief so that each Judge and Commissioner of the Court of Criminal Appeals individually will be provided with a copy of same. This brief shall set forth separately each ground of error of which defendant desires to complain on appeal and may set forth such arguments as he deems appropriate. Each ground of error shall briefly refer to that part of the ruling of the trial court, charge given to the jury, or charge refused, admission or rejection of evidence or other proceedings which are designated to be complained of in such way as that the point of objection can be clearly identified and understood by the court. If the defendant includes in his brief arguments supporting a particular ground of error, they shall be construed with it in determining what point of objection is sought to be presented by such ground of error; and if the court, upon consideration of such ground of error in the light of arguments made in support thereof in the brief, can identify and understand such point of objection, the same shall be reviewed notwithstanding any generality, vagueness or any other technical defect that may exist in the language employed to set forth such ground of error.

10. The State's brief

Within thirty days after defendant files his brief with the clerk of the trial court, or within such additional period as the trial court may in its discretion authorize, the State shall file with the clerk of the trial court its brief and sufficient copies of said brief so that each Judge and Commissioner of the Court of Criminal Appeals individually will be provided with a copy of same. Each party, upon filing his brief with the clerk of the trial court, shall cause a true copy thereof to be delivered to the opposing party or to the latter's counsel.

11. Oral arguments

The trial court may require oral arguments on the briefs and, if so, shall cause the clerk to notify counsel for both sides of the time and place for such arguments.

12. Trial court's duty

It shall be the duty of the trial court to decide from the briefs and oral arguments, if any, whether the defendant should be granted a new trial by the trial court. This duty shall be performed within the period of thirty days immediately after the state's brief is filed, or, if none be filed, then within the period of thirty days immediately after the last day on which the state's brief could be timely filed.
Omission of the court to perform this duty within such period shall constitute refusal of the court to grant a new trial to defendant.

13. Transmission of record to Court of Criminal Appeals

Upon refusal of the court to grant defendant a new trial, the clerk shall thereupon promptly transmit the record and briefs to the Court of Criminal Appeals, in which court all grounds of error and arguments in support thereof urged in defendant's brief in the trial court shall be reviewed, as well as any unassigned error which in the opinion of the Court of Criminal Appeals should be reviewed in the interest of justice.

14. Agreed statement

The parties may agree, with the approval of the trial court, upon a brief statement of the case and of the facts proven as will enable the appellate court to determine whether there is error in the trial. Such statement shall be copied into the record in lieu of the proceedings themselves.

15. Order as to original papers or exhibits

Whenever the trial court is of the opinion that original papers or exhibits should be inspected by the appellate court or sent to the appellate court in lieu of copies, it may make such order therefor and for the safekeeping, transportation and return thereof as it deems proper. The appellate court on its own initiative may direct the clerk of the trial court to send to it any original paper or exhibit for its inspection.

written suggestion to the court on the part of defendant that judgment has not been legally rendered against him. The record must show the grounds of the motion.

Art. 41.02. Time to make motion

A motion must be made within ten days after or information for any substantial defect therein.

Art. 41.04. Want of form
No judgment shall be arrested for want of form.

Art. 41.05. Effect of arresting judgment
The effect of arresting a judgment is to place the defendant in the same position he was before the court be satisfied from the evidence that he may be convicted upon a proper indictment or information, indictment or information was presented; and if the court so satisfied, the defendant shall be discharged.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO. JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

Art. 42.01. Judgment
A "judgment" is the declaration of the court entered of record, showing:
1. The title and number of the case;
2. That the case was called for trial and that the parties appeared;
3. The plea of the defendant;
4. The selection, impaneling and swearing of the jury;
5. The submission of the evidence;
6. That the jury was charged by the court;
7. The return of the verdict;
8. The verdict;
9. In the case of a conviction, that it is considered by the court that the defendant is adjudged to be guilty of the offense as found by the jury; or in case of acquittal, that the defendant be discharged;
10. That the defendant be punished as has been determined.

The provisions of this Article shall apply to both felony and misdemeanor cases.

Art. 42.02. Sentence
A "sentence" is the order of the court in a felony or misdemeanor case made in the presence of the defendant, except in misdemeanor cases where the maximum possible punishment is by fine only, and entered of record, pronouncing the judgment, and ordering the same to be carried into execution in the manner prescribed by law.

Art. 42.03. Pronouncing sentence; time; credit for time spent in jail between arrest and sentence or pending appeal
Sec. 1. If a new trial is not granted, nor judgment arrested in felony and misdemeanor cases, the sentence shall be pronounced in the presence of the defendant except when his presence is not required by Article 42.02 at any time after the expiration of the time allowed for making the motion for a new trial or the motion in arrest of judgment.

Sec. 2. In all criminal cases the judge of the court in which the defendant was convicted shall give the defendant credit on his sentence for the time that the defendant has spent in jail in said cause, from the time of his arrest and confinement until his sentence by the trial court.

Sec. 3. If a defendant appeals his conviction, is not released on bail, and is retained in a local jail as provided in Section 5, Article 42.09, pending his appeal, the judge of the court in which the defendant was convicted shall give the defendant credit on his sentence for the time that the defendant has spent in jail pending disposition of his appeal. The court shall endorse on both the commitment and the mandate from the appellate court all credit given the defendant under this section, and the Department of Corrections shall grant the credit in computing the defendant's eligibility for parole and discharge.

Sec. 4. When a defendant who has been sentenced to imprisonment in the Department of Corrections has spent time in jail pending trial and sentence or pending appeal, the judge of the sentencing court shall direct the sheriff to attach to the commitment papers a statement assessing the defendant's conduct while in jail. On the basis of the statement, the Department of Corrections shall grant the defendant such credit for good behavior for the time spent in jail as he would have earned had he been in the custody of the department.

Sec. 5. Where jail time has been awarded, the trial judge may, when in his discretion the ends of justice would best be served, sentence the defendant to serve his sentence during his off-work hours, or on week-ends. When such a sentence is permitted by the trial judge it must be served on consecutive days or consecutive week-ends. The trial judge may require bail of the defendant to insure the faithful performance of the sentence. The trial judge may attach conditions regarding the employment, travel, and other conduct of the defendant during the performance of such a sentence.
Art. 42.03

CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Art. 42.04. Sentence when appeal is taken

When an appeal is taken from a death penalty, sentence shall not be pronounced, but shall be suspended until the decision of the Court of Criminal Appeals has been received. In all other cases, except where imposition of sentence has been suspended in probation cases, sentence shall be pronounced before the appeal is taken. Upon the affirmance of the judgment by the appellate court, the clerk shall at once send its mandate to the clerk of the Court from which the appeal was taken, there to be duly recorded.

Art. 42.05. If court is about to adjourn

The time limit within which any act is to be done within the meaning of this Code shall not be affected by the expiration of the term of the court.

Art. 42.06. Sentence nunc pro tunc

If there is a failure from any cause whatever to enter judgment and pronounce sentence, the judgment may be entered and sentence pronounced at any subsequent time, unless a new trial has been granted, or the judgment arrested, or an appeal has been taken. Any time served or punishment suffered from the time the judgment and sentence should have been entered and pronounced and until finally entered shall be credited upon the sentence finally pronounced.

Art. 42.07. Reasons to prevent sentence

Before pronouncing sentence, the defendant shall be asked whether he has anything to say why the sentence should not be pronounced against him. The only reasons which can be shown, on account of which sentence cannot be pronounced, are:

1. That the defendant has received a pardon from the proper authority, on the presentation of which, legally authenticated, he shall be discharged;
2. That the defendant is insane; and if sufficient proof be shown to satisfy the court that the allegation is well-founded, no sentence shall be pronounced. Where there is sufficient time left, a jury may be impaneled to try the issue. Where sufficient time does not remain, the court shall order the defendant to be confined safely until the next term of the court, and shall then cause a jury to be impaneled to try such issue;
3. Where there has not been a motion for a new trial or a motion in arrest of judgment made, the defendant may answer that he has good grounds for either or both of these motions and either or both motions may be immediately entered and disposed of, although more than ten days may have elapsed since the rendition of the verdict; and
4. When a person who has been convicted escapes after conviction and before sentence and an individual supposed to be the same has been arrested he may before sentence is pronounced, deny that he is the person convicted, and an issue be accordingly tried before a jury as to his identity.

Art. 42.08. Cumulative or concurrent sentence

When the same defendant has been convicted in two or more cases, and the punishment assessed in each case is confinement in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections or the jail for a term of imprisonment, judgment and sentence shall be pronounced in each case in the same manner as if there had been but one conviction, except that in the discretion of the court, the judgment in the second and subsequent convictions may either be that the punishment shall begin when the judgment and sentence in the preceding conviction has ceased to operate, or that the punishment shall run concurrently with the other case or cases, and sentence and execution shall be accordingly.

Art. 42.09. Indeterminate sentence; commencement of sentence and delivery to place of confinement

Sec. 1. If the verdict fixes the punishment at confinement in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections for more than the minimum term, the judge in passing sentence shall pronounce an indeterminate sentence, fixing in such sentence as the minimum the time provided by law as the lowest term in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections and as the maximum the term stated in the verdict.

Sec. 2. Except as provided in Sections 3 and 4, a defendant shall be delivered to jail or to the Department of Corrections when his sentence to imprisonment is pronounced, or his sentence to death is pronounced, by the court. The defendant's sentence begins to run on the day it is pronounced, but with all credits, if any, allowed by Article 42.08.

Sec. 3. If a defendant appeals his conviction and is released on bail pending disposition of his appeal, when his conviction is affirmed, the clerk of the trial court, on receipt of the mandate from the appellate court, shall issue a commitment against the defendant. The officer executing the commitment shall endorse thereon the date he takes the defendant into custody and the defendant's sentence begins to run from the date endorsed on the commitment. The Department of Corrections shall admit the defendant named in the commitment on the basis of the commitment.
Sec. 4. If a defendant is convicted of a felony and sentenced to death, life, or a term of more than fifteen years in the Department of Corrections and he gives notice of appeal, he shall be transferred to the Department of Corrections on a commitment pending a mandate from the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Sec. 5. If a defendant is convicted of a felony and his sentence is a term of fifteen years or less and he gives notice of appeal, he shall be transferred to the Department of Corrections on a commitment pending a mandate from the Court of Criminal Appeals upon request in open court or upon written request to the sentencing court. Upon a valid transfer to the Department of Corrections under this section, the defendant may not thereafter be released on bail pending his appeal.

Sec. 6. If a defendant is transferred to the Department of Corrections pending appeal under Section 4 or 5, his sentence shall be computed as if no appeal had been taken if the appeal is affirmed.

Sec. 7. "All defendants who have been transferred to the Department of Corrections pending the appeal of their convictions under this Article, shall be under the control and authority of the Department of Corrections for all purposes as if no appeal were pending.

Art. 42.10. Satisfaction of judgment as in misdemeanor convictions

When a person is convicted of a felony, and the punishment assessed is only a fine or a term in jail, or both, the judgment may be satisfied in the same manner as a conviction for a misdemeanor by law satisfied.

Art. 42.11. Uniform Act for out-of-State parolee supervision

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Uniform Act for out-of-State parolee supervision.

Sec. 2. The Governor of this State is hereby authorized and directed to execute a compact on behalf of the State of Texas with any of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

A COMPACT

Entering into by and among the contracting state, signatories hereto, with the consent of the Congress of the United States of America, granted by an Act entitled "An Act granting the consent of Congress to any two or more States to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes".

The contracting States solemnly agree:

(1) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a State party to this compact (herein called "sending State"), to permit any person convicted of an offense within such State and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other State party to this compact (herein called "receiving State"), while on probation or parole, if

(a) Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving State and can obtain employment there; and

(b) Though not a resident of the receiving State and not having his family residing there, the receiving State consents to such person being sent there.

Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving State to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.

A resident of the receiving State, within the meaning of this section is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such State continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending State and has not resided within the sending State more than six continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

(2) That each receiving State will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending State and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

(3) That duly accredited officers of a sending State may at all times enter a receiving State and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of States party hereto, as to such persons. The decision of the sending State to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving State; provided, however, that if at the time when a State seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving State any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such State a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving State until discharged from prosecution or from any imprisonment for such offense.

(4) That the duly accredited officers of the sending State will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all States party to this compact, without interference.

(5) That the Governor of each State may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting States, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

(6) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any State as between it and other State or States so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such State, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing State.

(7) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing State until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing State shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending State. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other States party hereto.

Sec. 3. The officer designated by the Governor under Subdivision (5) of the compact shall be entitled the Interstate Parole Compact Administrator and is authorized to appoint two Deputy Parole Compact Administrators.

Art. 42.12. Adult Probation and Parole Law

A. Purpose of Article and Definitions

Sec. 1. It is the purpose of this Article to place wholly within the State courts of appropriate jurisdiction the responsibility for determining when the imposition of sentence in certain cases shall be suspended, the conditions of probation, and the supervision of probationers, in consonance with the powers assigned to the judicial branch of this government by the Constitution of Texas. It is also the intent of this Article to provide for the release of persons on parole and for the method thereof, to designate the Board of Pardons and Paroles as the responsible agency of State government to recommend determination of paroles and to further designate the Board of Pardons and Paroles as responsible for the investigation and supervision of persons released on parole. It is the final purpose of this Article to remove from existing statutes the limitations, other than questions of constitutionality, that have acted as barriers to effective systems of probations and paroles in the public interest.

Sec. 2. This Article may be cited as the "Adult Probation and Parole Law".

Unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply to the specified words and phrases as used in this Article:

a. "Courts" shall mean the courts of record having original criminal jurisdiction;

b. "Probation" shall mean the release of a convicted defendant by a court under conditions imposed by the court for a specified period during which the imposition of sentence is suspended;

c. "Parole" shall mean the release of a prisoner from imprisonment but not from the legal custody of the State, for rehabilitation outside of prison walls under such conditions and provisions for disciplinary supervision as the Board of Pardons and Paroles may determine. Parole shall not be construed to mean a commutation of sentence or any other form of executive clemency;

d. "Probation officer" shall mean either a person duly appointed by one or more courts of record having original criminal jurisdiction, to supervise defendants placed on probation; or a person designated by such courts for such duties on a part-time basis;

e. "Parole officer" shall mean a person duly appointed by the Director of the Division of Parole Supervision and assigned the duties of investigating and supervising paroled prisoners to see that the conditions of parole are complied with;

f. "Board" shall mean the Board of Pardons and Paroles;

g. "Division" shall mean the Division of Parole Supervision of the Board of Pardons and Paroles; and

h. "Director" shall mean the Director of the Division of Parole Supervision.

B. Probations

Sec. 3. The judges of the courts of the State of Texas having original jurisdiction of criminal actions, when it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the ends of justice and the best interests of the public as well as the defendant will be subserved thereby, shall have the power, after conviction or a plea of guilty for any crime or offense, where the maximum punishment assessed against the defendant does not exceed ten years imprisonment, to suspend the imposition of the sentence and may place the defendant on probation or impose a fine applicable to the offense committed and also place the defendant on probation as hereinafter provided. In all cases where the punishment is assessed by the Court it may fix the period of probation without regard to the term of punishment assessed, but in no event may the period of probation be greater than 10 years or less than the minimum prescribed for the offense for which the defendant was convicted. In all cases where the punishment is assessed by the jury and probation is recommended by the jury in accordance with Section 3a, the Court may in its discretion fix a period of probation that is equal to or less than the term of punishment assessed by the jury, but in no event may the period of probation be less than the minimum prescribed by law for the offense of which defendant was convicted. Any such person placed on probation, whether in a trial by jury or before the court, shall be under the supervision of such court.

Sec. 3a. Where there is a conviction in any court of this State and the punishment assessed by the jury shall not exceed ten years, the jury may recommend probation upon written sworn motion made therefor by the defendant, filed before the trial begins. When the trial is to a jury, and the defendant has no counsel, the court shall inform the defendant of his right to make such motion, and the court shall appoint counsel to prepare and present same, if desired by the defendant. In no case shall probation be recommended by the jury except when the sworn motion and proof shall show, and the jury shall find in their verdict that the defendant has never before been convicted of a felony in this or any other State. This law is not to be construed as preventing the jury from passing on the guilt of the defendant, but he may enter a plea of not guilty. In all eligible cases, probation shall be granted by the court if the jury recommends it in their verdict.

If probation is granted by the jury the court may impose only those conditions which are set forth in Section 6 hereof.

Sec. 3b. Where probation is recommended by the verdict of a jury as provided for in Sec. 3a above, a defendant's probation shall not be revoked during his good behavior, so long as he is within the jurisdiction of the court and his residence is known, except in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 8 of this Article. If such a defendant has no counsel, it shall be the duty of the court to inform him of his right to show cause why his probation should not be revoked; and if such a defendant requests such right, the court shall appoint counsel in accordance with Articles 26.04 and 26.05 of this Code to prepare and present the same; and in all other respects the procedure set forth in said Sec. 8 of this Article shall be followed.

Sec. 3c. Nothing herein shall limit the power of the court to grant a probation of sentence regardless of the recommendation of the jury or prior conviction of the defendant.

Sec. 4. When directed by the court, a probation officer shall fully investigate and report to the court in writing the circumstances of the offense, criminal record, social history and present condition of the defendant. Whenever practicable, such investigation shall include a physical and mental examination of the defendant. If a defendant is committed to any institution the probation officer shall send a report of such investigation to the institution at the time of commitment.

Sec. 5. Only the court in which the defendant was tried may grant probation, fix or alter conditions, revoke the probation, or discharge the defendant, unless the court has transferred jurisdiction of the case to another court with the latter's consent. After a defendant has been placed on probation, jurisdiction of the case may be transferred to a court of the same rank in this State having geographical jurisdiction where the defendant is residing or where a violation of the conditions of probation occurs. Upon transfer, the clerk of the court of original jurisdiction shall forward a transcript of such portions of the record as the transferring judge shall direct to the court accepting jurisdiction, which latter court shall thereafter proceed as if the trial and conviction had occurred in that court. Any court having geographical jurisdiction where the defendant is residing or where a violation of the conditions of probation occurs may issue a warrant for his arrest, but the determination of action to be taken after arrest shall be only by the court having jurisdiction of the case at the time the action is taken.

Sec. 6. The court having jurisdiction of the case shall determine the terms and conditions of probation and may, at any time, during the period of probation alter or modify the conditions; provided, however, that the clerk of the court shall furnish a copy of such terms and conditions to the probationer, and shall note the date of delivery of such copy on the docket. Terms and conditions of probation may include, but shall not be limited to, the conditions that the probationer shall:

a. Commit no offense against the laws of this State or of any other State or of the United States;
b. Avoid injurious or vicious habits;
c. Avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;
d. Report to the probation officer as directed;
e. Permit the probation officer to visit him at his home or elsewhere;
f. Work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;
g. Remain within a specified place;
h. Pay his fine, if one be assessed, and all court costs whether a fine be assessed or not, in one or several sums, and make restitution or reparation in any sum that the court shall determine; and
i. Support his dependents.

Sec. 6a. (a) A court granting probation may fix a fee not exceeding $10 per month to be paid to the court by the probationer during the probationary period. The court may make payment of the fee a condition of granting or continuing the probation.

(b) The court shall distribute the fees received under Subsection (a) of this section to the county or counties in which the court has jurisdiction for use in administering the probation laws. In instances where a district court has jurisdiction in two or more counties, the court shall distribute the fees received to the counties in proportion to population as prescribed by Paragraph 7, Section 10 of this Article.

Sec. 7. At any time, after the defendant has satisfactorily completed one-third of the original probationary period or two years of probation, whichever is the lesser, the period of probation may be reduced or terminated by the court. Upon the satisfactory fulfillment of the conditions of probation, and the expiration of the period of probation, the court, by order duly entered, shall amend or modify the original sentence imposed, if necessary, to conform to the probation period and shall discharge the defendant. In case the defendant has been convicted or has entered a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, and the court has discharged the defendant hereunder, such court may set aside the verdict or permit the defendant to withdraw his plea, and shall dismiss the accusation, complaint, information or indictment against such defendant, who shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense or crime of which he has been convicted or to which he has pleaded guilty, except that proof of his said conviction or plea of guilty shall be made known to the court should the defendant again be convicted of any criminal offense.

Sec. 8. (a) At any time during the period of probation the court may issue a warrant for violation of any of the conditions of the probation and cause the defendant to be arrested. Any probation officer, police officer or other officer with power of arrest may arrest such defendant without a warrant upon the order of the judge of such court to be noted on the docket of the court. A probationer so arrested may be detained in the county jail or other appropriate place of detention until he can be taken before the court. Such officer shall forthwith report such arrest and detention to such court. Thereupon, the court shall cause the defendant to be brought before it and after a hearing without a jury, may either continue or revoke the probation. If probation is revoked, the court may proceed to dispose of the case as if there had been no probation, or if it determines that the best interests of society and the probationer would be served by a shorter term of imprisonment, reduce the term of imprisonment originally assessed to any term of imprisonment not less than the minimum prescribed for the offense of which the probationer was convicted. (b) Any probationer who removes himself from the State of Texas without permission of the court having jurisdiction of the case, shall be deemed and considered a fugitive from justice and shall be subject to extradition as now provided by law. No part of the time that the defendant is on probation shall be considered as any part of the time that he shall be sentenced to serve. The right of the probationer to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals for a review of the trial and conviction, as provided by law, shall be accorded the probationer at the time he is placed on probation. When he is notified that his probation is revoked for violation of the conditions of probation and he is called on to serve a sentence in a jail or in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections, he may appeal the revocation.

Sec. 9. If, for good and sufficient reasons, probationers desire to change their residence within the State, such transfer may be effected by application to their supervising probation officer, which transfer shall be subject to the court's consent and subject to such regulations as the court may require in the absence of a probation officer in the locality to which the probationer is transferred.

Sec. 10. For the purpose of providing adequate probation services, the district judge or district judges having original jurisdiction of criminal actions in the county or counties, if applicable, are authorized, with the advice and consent of the commissioners court as hereinafter provided, to employ and designate the titles and fix the salaries of probation officers, and such administrative, supervisory, stenographic, clerical, and other personnel as may be necessary to conduct presentence investigations, supervise and rehabilitate probationers, and enforce the terms and conditions of probation. Only those persons who have successfully completed education in an accredited college or university and two years full time paid employment in responsible probation or correctional work with juveniles or adults, social welfare work, teaching or personnel work; or persons who are licensed attorneys with experience in criminal law; or persons who are serving in such capacities at the time of the passage of this Article and who are not otherwise disqualified by Section 31 of this Article, shall be eligible for appointments as probation officers; providing that additional experience in any of the above work categories may be substituted year for year for the required college education, with a maximum substitution of two years. Provided, however, that in a county having a population of less than 50,000, according to the last preceding Federal census, any person having completed at least two years education in an accredited college or university will be eligible for appointment.

It is the further intent of this Article that the caseload of each probation officer not substantially exceed seventy-five probationers.

Where more than one probation officer is required, the judge or judges shall appoint a chief adult probation officer or director, who, with their approval, shall appoint a sufficient number of assistants and other employees to carry on the professional, clerical, and other work of the court.

The judge or judges, with the approval of the juvenile board of the county, may authorize the chief probation or chief juvenile officer to establish a separate division of adult probation and appoint adult probation officers and such other personnel as required. It is the further intent of this Act that the same person serving as a probation officer for juveniles shall not be required to serve as a probation officer for adults and vice-versa.

The judge or judges may, with the approval of the director of parole supervision, designate a parole officer or supervisor employed by the Division of Parole Supervision as a probation officer for the county or district.

Probation officers shall be furnished transportation, or alternatively, shall be entitled to an automobile allowance for use of personal automobile on official business, under the same terms and conditions as is provided for sheriffs.

The salaries of personnel, and other expenses essential to the adequate supervision of probationers, shall be paid from the funds of the county or counties comprising the judicial district or geographical area served by such probation officers. In instances where a district court has jurisdiction in two or more counties, the total expenses of such probation services shall be distributed approximately in the same proportion as the population in each county bears to the total population of all those counties, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census. In all the instances of the employment of probation officers, the responsible judges and county commissioners are authorized to accept grants or gifts from other political subdivisions of the State or associations and foundations, for the sole purpose of financing adequate and effective probationary programs in the various parts of the State. For the purposes of this Act, the municipalities of this State are specifically authorized to grant and allocate such sums of money as their respective governing bodies may approve to their appropriate county governments for the support and maintenance of effective probationary programs. All grants, gifts, and allocations of the character and purpose described in this section shall be handled and accounted for separately from other public funds of the county.

Sec. 11. For the purpose of determining when fees are to be paid to any officer or officers, the placing of the defendant on probation shall be considered a final disposition of the case, without the necessity of waiting for the termination of the period of probation or suspension of sentence.

Sec. 12. The provisions of Sections 6a, 10, and 11 of this Article also apply to Article 42.12.

Parole

Sec. 12. The Board of Pardons and Paroles created by Article 4, Section 11 of the Constitution of this State, shall administer the provisions of this Act respecting determinations of which prisoners shall be paroled from an institution operated by the Department of Corrections, the conditions of such paroles, and may recommend the revocation of paroles by the Governor.

Sec. 13. The members of the Board shall give full time to the duties of their office and shall be paid such salaries as the Legislature may determine in Appropriation Acts. The members of the Board shall elect one of their number as chairman, who shall serve for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

The Board shall meet at the call of the chairman and from time to time as may otherwise be determined by majority vote of the Board. A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

The Board shall adopt an official seal of which the courts shall take judicial notice. Decisions of the Board shall be by majority vote.

The Board shall keep a record of its acts and shall notify each institution of its decision relating to the persons who are to have been confined therein. At the close of each fiscal year the Board shall submit to the Governor and to the Legislature a report with statistical and other data of its work.

All minutes of the Board and decisions relating to parole, pardon and clemency shall be matters of public record and subject to public inspection at all reasonable times.

Sec. 14. The necessary office quarters shall be provided for the Board in the manner that the same are furnished to other departments, boards, commissions, bureaus and offices of the State.

Sec. 15. (a) The Board is hereby authorized to release on parole, with the approval of the Governor, any person confined in any penal or correctional institution of this State, except persons under sentence of death, who has served one-third of the maximum sentence imposed, provided that in any case he may be paroled after serving 20 calendar years. Time served on the sentence imposed shall be the total calendar time served and all credits allowed under the laws governing the operation of the Department of Corrections, and executive clemency. All paroles shall issue upon order of the Board, duly adopted and approved by the Governor.

(b) Within one year after a prisoner's admittance to the penal or correctional institution and at such intervals thereafter, as it may determine, the Board shall secure and consider all pertinent information regarding each prisoner, except any under sentence of death, including the circumstances of his offense, his previous social history and criminal record, his conduct, employment and attitude in prison, and the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made.

(c) Before ordering the parole of any prisoner, the Board may have the prisoner appear before it and interview him. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered to be a reduction of sentence or pardon. A prisoner shall be placed on parole only when arrangements have been made for his proper employment or for his maintenance and care, and when the Board believes that he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen. Every prisoner while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the institution from which he was released but shall be amenable to the orders of the Board.

(d) The Board may adopt such other reasonable rules not inconsistent with law as it may deem proper or necessary with respect to the eligibility of prisoners for parole, the conduct of parole hearings, or conditions to be imposed upon parolees. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof in clear and intelligible language.

(e) It shall be the duty of the Board at least ten days before ordering the parole of any prisoner or upon the granting of executive clemency by the Governor to notify the sheriff, the district attorney and the district judge in the county where such person was convicted that such parole or clemency is being considered by the Board or by the Governor.

(f) If no parole officer has been assigned to the locality where a person is to be released on parole or executive clemency the Board shall notify the chairman of the Voluntary Parole Board of such county prior to the release of such person. The Board shall request such Voluntary Parole Board, in the absence of a parole office, for information which would herein be required of such duly appointed parole officer. This shall not, however, preclude the Board from requesting information from any public agency in such locality.

Sec. 16. It shall be the duty of any judge, district attorney, county attorney, police officer or other public official of the State, having information with reference to any prisoner eligible for parole, to send in writing such information as may be in his possession or under his control to the Board, upon request of any member or employee thereof.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of all prison officials to grant to the members of the Board, or its properly accredited representatives, access at all reasonable times to any prisoner, to provide for the Board or such representatives facilities for communicating with and observing such prisoner, and to furnish to the Board such reports as the Board shall require concerning the conduct and character of any prisoner in their custody and any other facts deemed by the Board pertinent in determining whether such prisoner shall be paroled.

Sec. 18. The Board shall formulate rules as to the submission and presentation of information and arguments to the Board for and in behalf of any prisoner within the jurisdiction of the Board.

All persons presenting information or arguments to the Board shall submit therewith an affidavit stating whether any fee has been paid or is to be paid for their services in the case, the amount of such fee, if any, and by whom such fee is paid or to be paid.

Sec. 19. The Board shall have power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such records, books, papers, and documents as it may deem necessary for investigation of the case of any person before it. Subpoenas may be signed and oath administered by any member of the Board. Subpoenas so issued may be served by a sheriff, constable, police, or probation officer, or other law enforcement officer, in the same manner as similar process in courts of record having original jurisdiction of criminal actions. Any person who testifies falsely or fails to appear when subpoenaed, or fails or refuses to produce such material pursuant to the subpoena, shall be subject to the same orders and penalties to which a person before a court is subject. Any courts of record having original jurisdiction of criminal actions upon application of the Board, may in their discretion compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of such material and the giving of testimony before the Board, by an attachment for contempt or otherwise in the same manner as production of evidence may be compelled before such courts of record having original jurisdiction of criminal actions.

Sec. 20. The Board shall have the power and duty to make rules for the conduct of persons placed on parole by the Board.

Sec. 21. Upon order by the Governor, the Board is authorized to issue a warrant for the return of any paroled prisoner to the institution from which he was paroled. Such warrant shall authorize all officers named therein to return such paroled prisoner to actual custody in the penal institution from which he was paroled. Pending hearing, as hereinafter provided, upon any charge of parole violation, the prisoner shall remain incarcerated in such institution.

A parolee for whose return a warrant has been issued by the Board shall, after the issuance of such warrant, be deemed a fugitive from justice and if it shall appear that he has violated the provisions of his parole, then the time from the issuing of such warrant to the date of his arrest shall not be counted as any part of the time to be served under his sentence. The law now in effect concerning the right of the State of Texas to extradite persons and return fugitives from justice, and Article 42.11 of this Code concerning the waiver of all legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice, from other states to this State, shall not be impaired by this Act and shall remain in full force and effect.

Sec. 22. Whenever a paroled prisoner is accused of a violation of his parole on information and complaint by a law enforcement officer or parole officer, he shall be entitled to be heard on such charges before the Board under such rules and regulations as the Board may adopt; providing, however, said hearing shall be held within sixty days of the date of arrest under a warrant issued by the Board.
of Pardons and Paroles or the Governor and at a time and place set by the Board. When the Board has heard the facts, it may recommend to the Governor that the parole be continued, or revoked, or modified in any manner the evidence may warrant.
When the Governor revokes a prisoner's parole, he may be required to serve the portion remaining of the sentence on which he was released on parole, such portion remaining to be calculated without credit for the time from the date of his release on parole to the date of his revocation of parole by the Governor on the charge of parole violation. When a warrant is issued by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or the Governor charging a parole violation, the sentence time credit shall be suspended until a determination is made by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or the Governor in such case and such suspended time credit may be re-instituted by the Board of Pardons and Paroles should such parole be continued.

Sec. 23. In order to complete the parole period, a parolee shall be required to serve out the whole term for which he was sentenced, subject to the deduction of the time he had served prior to his parole and to any diminution of sentence earned for good behavior while imprisoned in the Department of Corrections.
The time on parole shall be calculated as calendar time. This provision, however, shall not be construed so as to interfere with the constitutional power conferred upon the Governor to grant pardons and to commute sentences.

When any paroled prisoner has fulfilled the obligations of his parole and has served out his term as conditioned in the preceding paragraph, the Board shall make a final order of discharge and issue to the parolee a certificate of such discharge.

Sec. 24. Whenever any prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence, as provided by law, shall have served for twelve months on parole in a manner acceptable to the Board, it shall review the prisoner's record and make a determination whether to recommend to the Governor that the prisoner be pardoned and finally discharged from the sentence under which he is serving.

When any prisoner who has been paroled has complied with the rules and conditions governing his parole until the end of the term to which he was sentenced, and without a revocation of his parole, the Board shall report such fact to the Governor prior to the issuance of the final order of discharge, together with its recommendation as to whether the prisoner should be restored to citizenship.

Sec. 25. On request of the Governor the Board shall investigate and report to the Governor with respect to any person being considered by the Governor for pardon, commutation of sentence, reprieve, or remission of fine or forfeiture, and make recommendations thereon.

Sec. 26. The Board of Pardons and Paroles shall have general responsibility for the investigation and supervision of all prisoners released on parole. For the discharge of this responsibility, there is hereby created with the Board of Pardons and Paroles, a Division of Parole Supervision. Subject to the general direction of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, the Division of Parole Supervision, including its field staff shall be responsible for obtaining and assembling any facts the Board of Pardons and Paroles may desire in considering parole eligibility, and for investigating and supervising paroled prisoners to see that the conditions of parole are complied with, and for making such periodic reports on the progress of paroles as the Board may desire.

Sec. 27. All information obtained in connection with inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections subject to parole or executive clemency or individuals who may be on parole and under the supervision of the division, or persons directly identiified in any proposed plan of release for a parolee, shall be privileged information and shall not be subject to public inspection; provided, however, that all such information shall be available to the Governor and the Board of Pardons and Paroles upon request. It is further provided, that statistical and general information respecting the parole program and system, including the names of paroled prisoners and data recorded in connection with parole services, shall be subject to public inspection at any reasona­ time.

Sec. 28. Salaries of all employees of the Division of Parole Supervision shall be governed by Appropriation Acts of the Legislature. The Board of Pardons and Paroles shall appoint a Director of the Division, and all other employees shall be selected by the Director, subject to such general policies and regulations as the Board may approve.

It is expressly provided, however, that no person may be employed as a parole officer or supervisor, or be responsible for the investigations, surveillance, or supervision of persons on parole, unless he meets the following qualifications together with any other qualifications that may be specified by the Director of the Division, with the approval of the Board of Pardons and Paroles: 24 to 55 years of age, with four years of successfully completed education in an accredited college or university, and two years of full time paid employment in responsible correctional work with adults or juveniles, social welfare work, teaching, or personnel work. Additional experience in the above categories may be substituted year for year for the required college education, with a maximum substitution for two years.

Sec. 29. Any parole officer or supervisor employed by the Division of Parole Supervision may, with the approval of the director, be designated as a probation officer by the judge of a court of the State having original jurisdiction of criminal actions.
Any proportional part of the salary paid to a parole officer or supervisor so designated, however, in compensation for his service as a probation officer, shall be only with the prior written approval of the director; and all such proportional salary payments shall be periodically reported to the Governor and the Legislature by the director.

Sec. 30. In order to provide supervision of parolees or of persons granted executive clemency who reside in sparsely settled areas of the State and in localities not served by regularly employed parole officers, the Governor of this State is authorized to appoint chairmen of Voluntary Parole Boards for such areas or localities. The appointed chairman may, with the advice and approval of the Director of the Division of Parole Supervision, appoint additional members of such Voluntary Parole Boards. The term of service by such appointed chairmen of Voluntary Parole Boards shall not exceed the term of office of the appointing Governor; and the terms of service of locally appointed additional members of such Voluntary Parole Boards shall not exceed the terms of office of the director. However, it is expressly provided that the terms of service by such chairmen and additional members of Voluntary Parole Boards may be continued by appropriate reappointments. The chairman of the Voluntary Parole Board shall be responsible for assigning supervision of parolees to the members of such board.

Sec. 31. No person who is serving as a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, deputy constable, city policeman, Texas Ranger, state highway patrolman, or similar law enforcement officer, or as a prosecuting attorney, shall act as a parole officer or be responsible for the supervision of persons on parole.

Sec. 32. Any parole officer or supervisor employed by the Division of Parole Supervision may, upon request of the Governor or the Board of Pardons and Paroles and by direction of the director, be responsible for supervising persons placed on conditional pardon or furlough.

E. General Provisions

Sec. 33. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed to prevent or limit the exercise by the Governor of powers of executive clemency vested in him by the Constitution of this State.

Sec. 34. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to parole from institutions for juveniles.

Sec. 35. This Article shall not be deemed to alter or invalidate any probationary period fixed under statutes in force prior to the effective date of this Code or to limit the jurisdiction or power of a court to modify or terminate such probationary period. In other respects, persons placed on probation or parole prior to the effective date of this Code shall be amenable to the provisions of this Code insofar as it may be made applicable to them. All other actions pertaining to probations and paroles granted prior to the effective date of this Code shall be regulated according to the law in force at the time the probation or parole was granted.

Art. 42.13. Misdemeanor Probation Law

Sec. 1. All probation in misdemeanor cases shall be granted and administered under this Article.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Article, unless the context requires a different definition,

(1) "court" means a county court, or a county court at law or county criminal court or any court with original criminal jurisdiction, and includes the judge of any of these courts;

(2) "probation" means the release by a court under terms and for a period specified by the court of a defendant who has been found guilty of a misdemeanor;

(3) "probationer" means a defendant who is on probation.

Probation authorized in misdemeanor cases

Sec. 3. (a) A defendant who has been found guilty of a misdemeanor wherein the maximum permissible punishment is by confinement in jail or by a fine in excess of $200.00 or by both such fine and imprisonment may be granted probation if:

1. he applies by written motion under oath to the court for probation before trial;
2. he has not been granted probation nor been under probation under this Act or any other Act in the preceding 5 years;
3. he has paid all costs of his trial and so much of any fine imposed as the court directs; and
4. the court believes that the ends of justice and the best interests of society and of the defendant will be served by granting him probation.

(b) If a defendant satisfies all the requirements of Section 3(a)(1), (2), (3) and (4) of this Article, and the jury hearing his case recommends probation in its verdict, the court must grant the defendant probation. The court may grant the defendant probation regardless of the recommendation of the jury or the prior conviction of the defendant. The court may, however, extend the term of the probationary period to any length of time not exceeding the maximum time of confinement allowed by law. In the event probation is revoked in accordance with Section 6, the judgment of the court shall not prescribe any penalty in excess of that imposed by the jury.
(c) A defendant’s application for probation must be made under oath and must also contain statements (1) either that he has never before been convicted in this or another jurisdiction of a felony or of a misdemeanor for which the maximum permissible punishment is by confinement in jail or by a fine in excess of $200 or by both such fine and imprisonment, or, if he has been so convicted, setting forth such fact and specifying the time and place of such conviction, the nature of the offense for which he was convicted, and the final punishment assessed therein; and (2) that he has not been granted probation nor been under probation under this Article or any other Article in the preceding five years. The application may contain what other information the court directs.

(d) When a defendant has applied for probation, the court during the trial of his case must receive competent evidence concerning the defendant’s entitlement to probation.

Effect of probation

Sec. 4. (a) When a defendant is granted probation under the terms of this Act, the finding of guilt does not become final, nor may the court render judgment thereon, except as provided in Section 6 of this Article.

(b) The court shall record the fact and date that probation was granted on the docket sheet or in the minutes of the court. The court shall also note the period and terms of the probation, and the details of the judgment. The court’s records may not reflect a final conviction, however, unless probation is later revoked in accordance with Section 6 of this Article.

Terms and supervision of probation

Sec. 5. (a) The period and terms of probation shall be determined by the court granting it. Except as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, a probationer is under the supervision of the court granting him probation.

(b) The period and terms of probation shall be designed to prevent recidivism and promote rehabilitation of the probationer. The terms must include, but are not limited to, the requirement that a probationer:

(1) commit no offense against the laws of this or any other state or the United States;
(2) avoid injurious or vicious habits;
(3) avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;
(4) report to the probation officer as directed;
(5) permit the probation officer to visit him at his home or elsewhere;
(6) work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;
(7) remain within a specified place;
(8) pay his fine, if the court so orders and, if one be assessed, in one or several sums, and make restitution or reparation in any sum that the court shall determine not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000);
(9) support his dependents; and
(10) submit a copy of his fingerprints to the sheriff’s office of the county in which he was tried.

The clerk shall send such fingerprints to the Texas Department of Public Safety, which shall return a certificate to the court in which the defendant was tried, which certificate shall contain any criminal record of the defendant or record with the Department, or if no record exists, then a certificate from the Texas Department of Public Safety showing the absence of any previous criminal record. The Texas Department of Public Safety shall, in addition to its present responsibilities, keep a record of all misdemeanor arrests within the purview of this section and the deposition of such cases.

(c) The clerk of a court granting probation shall promptly furnish the probationer with a written statement of the period and terms of his probation. If the period or terms are later modified, the clerk of the modifying court shall promptly furnish the probationer with a written statement of the modifications. The clerk in either case shall take a receipt from the probationer for delivery of the statement.

(d) After probation has been granted, jurisdiction of the probationer’s case may be transferred to another court which can more conveniently supervise the probation. If the other court accepts the transfer, the transferring court shall forward to it all pertinent records in the case. The court accepting the transfer is vested with jurisdiction of the case and may exercise any power conferred by this Act upon the court initially granting probation.

Revocation of probation

Sec. 6. (a) If a probationer violates any term of his probation, the court may cause his arrest by warrant as in other cases. The probationer upon arrest shall be brought promptly before the court causing his arrest and the court, upon motion of the state and after a hearing without a jury, may continue, modify, or revoke the probation as the evidence warrants.

(b) On the date the probation is revoked, the finding of guilty becomes final and the court shall render judgment thereon against the defendant. The judgment shall be enforced as in other cases and the time served on probation may not be credited or otherwise considered for any purpose.

Discharge from probation

Sec. 7. (a) When the period and terms of a probation have been satisfactorily completed, the court shall, upon its own motion, discharge him from probation and enter an order in the minutes of the court setting aside the finding of guilty and dismissing the accusation or complaint and the information or indictment against the probationer.
Art. 42.13

(b) After the case against the probationer is dismissed by the court, his finding of guilty may not be considered for any purpose except to determine his entitlement to a future probation under this Act, or any other probation Act.

Appellate rights

Sec. 8. (a) A probationer, at the time he is granted probation, may appeal his conviction as in other cases. He may also appeal the revocation of his probation, but the revocation may not be set aside on appeal without a clear showing of abuse of discretion by the revoking court.

(b) The refusal of a court to grant probation is not appealable unless the jury hearing the case has recommended probation in its verdict and the defendant has satisfied the requirements of Section 3(a)(1), (2), (3), and (4) of this Article.

Art. 42.14. In absence of defendant

The judgment and sentence in a misdemeanor case may be rendered in the absence of the defendant. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 42.15. Fines

(a) When the defendant is fined, the judgment shall be that the defendant pay the amount of the fine and all costs to the state.

(b) When imposing a fine and costs a court may direct a defendant:

(1) to pay the entire fine and costs when sentence is pronounced; or
(2) to pay the entire fine and costs at some later date; or
(3) to pay a specified portion of the fine and costs at designated intervals.

Art. 42.16. On other judgment

If the punishment is any other than a fine, the judgment shall specify it, and order it enforced by the proper process. It shall also adjudge the costs against the defendant, and order the collection thereof as in other cases.

Art. 43.04. If defendant is absent

When a judgment and sentence have been rendered against a defendant for a fine in his absence, the court may order a capias issued for his arrest. The sheriff shall execute the capias by bringing the defendant before the court or by placing the defendant in jail until he can be brought before the court.

In each case of pecuniary fine, an execution may issue for the fine and costs, though a capias was issued for the defendant; and a capias may issue for the defendant though an execution was issued against his property. The execution shall be collected and returned as in civil actions. Art. 43.10. To do manual labor

A defendant who has remained in jail the length of time required by the judgment and sentence shall be discharged. The sheriff shall return the copy of the judgment and sentence, or the capias under which the defendant was imprisoned, to the proper court, stating how it was executed.

Art. 43.14  Execution of convict

Whenever any person is sentenced to death, the clerk of the court in which the sentence is pronounced, shall within ten days after sentence has been pronounced, issue a warrant under the seal of the court for the execution of the sentence of death, which shall recite the fact of conviction, setting forth specifically the offense, the judgment of the court, the time fixed for his execution, and directed to the Director of the Department of Corrections at Huntsville, Texas, commanding him to proceed, at the time and place named in the sentence, to carry the same into execution, as provided in the preceding Article, and shall deliver such warrant to the sheriff of the county in which such judgment of conviction was had, to be by him delivered to the said Director of the Department of Corrections, together with the condemned person.

Art. 43.16  Taken to Department of Corrections

Immediately upon the receipt of such warrant, the sheriff shall transport such condemned person to the Director of the Department of Corrections and shall deliver him and the warrant aforesaid into the hands of the Director of the Department of Corrections and shall take from the Director of the Department of Corrections his receipt for such person and such warrant, which receipt the sheriff shall return to the office of the clerk of the court where the judgment of death was rendered. (b) If the defendant is on bail when the trial commences, he shall have the same right to remain on bail during the trial of the case and until the return into court of the verdict as he had under the law before the trial commences.

(c) If the defendant is on bail when the trial commences and is convicted of a misdemeanor appealable to any court where a trial de novo may be had and is on bail when the trial commences, he shall remain at large on such bail and such bail shall not be considered discharged until his conviction becomes final or he files an appeal bond as required by this Code for appeal from such conviction.

(d) If the defendant is on bail when the trial commences and is convicted of a misdemeanor appealable to the Court of Criminal Appeals or of a felony and his punishment is assessed at a fine or confinement not to exceed fifteen years, or both, he shall remain on such bail and the bail shall not be considered discharged until his conviction becomes final, either through his failure to obtain a new trial or to perfect an appeal or through final affirmance by the appellate court on appeal and the filing of a mandate thereof with the clerk of the trial court.

(e) If the defendant is in custody when the trial commences, and his punishment is assessed at a fine or confinement not to exceed fifteen years, or both, he shall be entitled to bail until his conviction has become final, either through his failure to obtain a new trial or to perfect an appeal or through final affirmance by the appellate court upon appeal and the filing of a mandate thereof with the clerk of the trial court. Upon application by the defendant, and at any time prior to the time such conviction becomes final, the trial court shall set his bail at such amount as such court deems proper, which bail and sureties on which bond shall be approved by the trial court. Such defendant shall be committed to jail unless he enters into such bail. If he be in custody, his motion for new trial or notice of appeal shall have no effect to release him from such custody unless he enters into such bail.

(f) Any such bail may be entered into and given either in the same or any subsequent term of the court, and shall be sufficient if it substantially meets the requirements of Article 17.09.

(g) In no event shall the defendant and the sureties on his bond be released from their liability on such bond or bonds until the defendant is placed in the custody of the sheriff.

(h) If the punishment assessed exceeds fifteen years confinement, the defendant shall be placed in custody of the sheriff and the bail therein considered discharged immediately upon the return into court of the verdict as to punishment, or if the minimum punishment possible under the law exceeds fifteen years, then immediately upon the return into court of the verdict of guilty.

Such notice shall be sufficient if it shows the desire of defendant to appeal from the conviction to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(b) In cases where the death penalty has been assessed or in probation cases where imposition of sentence is suspended, such notice shall be given or filed within ten days after overruling of the motion or amended motion for new trial and if there be no motion or amended motion for new trial, then within ten days after entry of judgment on the verdict.

(c) In all other cases such notice shall be given or filed within ten days after sentence is pronounced.

(d) The record on appeal will be deemed sufficient to show notice of appeal was duly given if it contains written notice of appeal showing a date of filing within the time required by law or if the record contains any judgment or sentence or other court order or any docket entry by the court showing that notice of appeal was duly given.

(e) For good cause shown, the trial court may permit the giving of notice of appeal after the expiration of such ten days.

Art. 44.09. Escape pending appeal

If the defendant, pending an appeal in the felony case, makes his escape from custody, the jurisdiction of the Court of Criminal Appeals shall no longer attach in the case. Upon the fact of such escape being made to appear, the court shall, on motion of the State's attorney, dismiss the appeal; but the order dismissing the appeal shall be set aside if it is made to appear that the defendant has voluntarily returned within ten days to the custody of the officer from whom he escaped; and in cases where the punishment inflicted by the jury is death or confinement in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections for life, the court may in its discretion reinstate the appeal if the defendant is recaptured or voluntarily surrenders within thirty days after such escape.

Art. 44.10. Sheriff to report escape

When any such escape occurs, the sheriff who had the prisoner in custody shall immediately report the fact under oath to the district or county attorney of the county in which the conviction was had, who shall forthwith forward such report to the State prosecuting attorney. Such report shall be sufficient evidence of the fact of such escape to authorize the dismissal of the appeal.

Art. 44.11. Effect of appeal

Upon the appellate record being filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals, all further proceedings in the trial court, except as to bond as provided in Article 44.04 and the proceedings in Article 40.09, shall be suspended and arrested until the judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals is received by the trial court. In cases where the record or any portion

Art. 44.12. Procedure as to bail pending appeal

The amount of any bail given in any felony or misdemeanor case to perfect an appeal from any court to the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be fixed by the court in which the judgment and sentence appealed from was rendered. Art. 44.13. Appeals from justice and corporation courts

In appeals from the judgments and sentence of justice or corporation courts, the defendant shall, if he be in custody, be committed to jail unless he gives bail, to be approved by the court from whose judgment and sentence the appeal is taken, in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against him, payable to the State of Texas; provided the bail shall not in any case be for a less sum than fifty dollars. No appeal shall be dismissed because defendant failed to give notice of appeal in open court, nor on account of any defect in the transcript.

Art. 44.15. Appellate court may allow new bond

When an appeal is taken from any court of this State, by filing a bond within the time prescribed by law in such cases, and the court to which appeal is taken determines that such bond is defective in form or substance, such appellate court may allow the appellant to amend such bond by filing a new bond, on such terms as the court may prescribe.

Art. 44.16. Appeal bond given within what time

If the defendant is not in custody, a notice of appeal as provided in Article 44.13 shall have no effect whatever until the required appeal bond has been given and approved; and such appeal bond shall, in all cases, be given within ten days after the sentence of the court has been rendered, and not afterward.

Art. 44.17. Trials de novo

In all appeals from justice and corporation courts to the county court, the trial shall be de novo in the trial in the county court, the same as if the prosecution had been originally commenced in that court.

Art. 44.18. Original papers sent up

In appeals from justice and corporation courts, all the original papers in the case, together with the appeal bond, if any, and together, with a certified transcript of all the proceedings had in the case before such court shall be delivered without delay to the clerk of the court to which the appeal was taken, who shall file the same and docket the case.

Art. 44.19. Witnesses not again summoned

In the cases mentioned in the preceding Article, the witnesses who have been summoned or attached to appear in the case before the court below, shall appear before the court to which the appeal is taken without further process. In case of their failure to do so, the same proceedings may be had as if they had been originally summoned or attached to appear before such court.

Art. 44.20. Rules governing appeal bonds

The rules governing the taking and forfeiture of bail shall govern appeal bonds, and the forfeiture and collection of such appeal bonds shall be in the court to which such appeal is taken.

clerk of the proper court that the same has not been received, and such clerk without delay shall prepare and forward another record as in the first instance, and notify the clerk of the appellate court by letter of the fact that such record has been forwarded and how and when it was forwarded.

Art. 44.23. Appeals, when determined

The Court of Criminal Appeals shall hear and determine appeals in criminal actions at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmation or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal.

Art. 44.24. Presumptions on appeal; decisions by the Appellate Court

(a) The Court of Criminal Appeals shall presume that the venue was proved in the court below; that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; that the defendant was arraigned; that he pleaded to the indictment; that the court's charge was certified by the judge and filed by the clerk before it was read to the jury, unless such matters were made an issue in the court below, or it otherwise affirmatively appears to the contrary from the record.

(b) The Court of Criminal Appeals may affirm the judgment of the court below, or may reverse and remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform and correct the judgment, as the law and nature of the case may require.

Art. 44.29. Effect of reversal

Where the Court of Criminal Appeals awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood in case the new trial had been granted by the court below.

Art. 44.30. Motion in arrest of judgment

In every case at least two counsel for the defendant shall be heard in the Court of Criminal Appeals if such be desired by defendant.

Appellant's failure to file his brief in the time prescribed shall not authorize a dismissal of the appeal by the Court of Criminal Appeals, nor shall the Court of Criminal Appeals, for such reason, refuse to consider appellant's case on appeal. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

The fact that such defendant is released on bail shall not be grounds for a dismissal of the appeal except in capital cases where the proof is evident. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Art. 44.36. Hearing habeas corpus

Cases of habeas corpus, taken to the Court of Criminal Appeals by appeal, shall be heard at the earliest practicable time. The defendant need not be personally present, and such appeal shall be heard and determined upon the law and the facts arising upon record. No incidental question which may have arisen on the hearing of the application before the court below shall be reviewed. The only design of the appeal is to do substantial justice to the party appealing. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 317, ch. 722, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.]

Said jurors when so summoned shall remain in attendance as jurors in all cases that may come up for hearing until discharged by the court. Any person so summoned who fails to attend may be fined not exceeding $20 for contempt.

Art. 45.43. Defendant placed in jail

Whenever, by the provisions of this title, the peace officer is authorized to retain a defendant in custody, he may place him in jail or any other place where he can be safely kept.

Art. 45.44. New trial granted

A justice may, for good cause shown, grant the defendant a new trial, whenever he considers that justice has not been done the defendant in the trial of such case.

Art. 45.45. Motion for new trial

An application for a new trial must be made within one day after the rendition of judgment and sentence, and not afterward; and the execution of the judgment and sentence shall not be stayed until a new trial has been granted.

Not more than one new trial shall be granted the defendant in the same case. When a new trial has been granted, the justice shall proceed, as soon as practicable, to try the case again.

Art. 45.47. State not entitled to new trial

In no case shall the State be entitled to a new trial.

Art. 45.48. Effect of appeal

When a defendant files the appeal bond required by law with the justice, all further proceeding in the case in the justice court shall cease.

(2) to pay the entire fine and costs at some later date; or

(3) to pay a specified portion of the fine and costs at designated intervals.

Art. 45.51. Capias

(a) If the defendant is not in custody when the judgment is rendered, the court may order a capias issued for his arrest. The capias shall state the amount of the judgment and sentence, and command the sheriff to bring the defendant before the court or place him in jail until he can be brought before the court.

(b) If the defendant escapes from custody after judgment is rendered, a capias shall issue for his arrest and confinement until he is legally discharged.

Art. 45.52. Collection of fines

(a) When a judgment and sentence have been rendered against a defendant for a fine and costs and he defaults in payment, the justice may order him imprisoned in jail until discharged by law. A certified copy of the judgment, sentence, and order is sufficient to authorize such imprisonment.

(b) The justice may order the fine and costs collected by execution against the defendant's property in the same manner as a judgment in a civil suit.

Art. 45.53. Discharged from jail

A defendant placed in jail on account of failure to pay the fine and costs can be discharged on habeas corpus by showing:

CHAPTER FORTY-SIX. INSANITY

AS DEFENSE

Art.
46.01. Mental illness after conviction.
46.02. Insanity in defense or in bar.

Art. 46.01. Mental illness after conviction

Persons not charged with a criminal offense

Sec. 1. A person who has been convicted of a criminal offense and sentenced to a term in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections or the county jail and whose sentence has been probated, or suspended, or served or who is on parole, is not by reason of that offense a person charged with a criminal offense as that phrase is used in Article 1, Sections 15 and 15a of the Constitution of the State of Texas, and such a person who is mentally ill may be hospitalized under the same procedures provided for other persons who are mentally ill.

Transfer from department of corrections to mental hospital

Sec. 2. (a) The Director of the Department of Corrections may transfer a prisoner not under death sentence who is confined in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections to a State mental hospital, or to an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or to a Veterans' Administration hospital, if a prison physician certifies that the prisoner is mentally ill and would benefit from treatment in a mental hospital and if he is advised by the head of the mental hospital that facilities are available and the prisoner is eligible for treatment.

(b) A prisoner so transferred remains under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections.

(c) The Director of the Department of Corrections shall transport the prisoner to and from the mental hospital.

Transfer from county jail to mental hospital

Sec. 3. Sec. 4. Sec. 5. The Director of the Department of Corrections or the sheriff from whose custody the prisoner was transferred is responsible for regaining custody of a prisoner who escapes from a mental hospital.

Recovery before expiration of sentence

Sec. 6. When the head of a mental hospital determines that a prisoner whose sentence has not expired no longer requires hospitalization for mental illness or will not benefit from continued hospitalization, he shall so notify the Director of the Department of Corrections or the county judge who transferred the prisoner to the mental hospital. Upon receiving this notice the Director of the Department of Corrections or the county judge shall immediately transport the prisoner from the mental hospital to the Department of Corrections or county jail to serve the unexpired portion of his sentence.

Examination prior to expiration of sentence

Sec. 7. Prior to the date of the expiration of the sentence of a prisoner who is being treated in a mental hospital, the head of the mental hospital shall have the prisoner examined and shall determine whether he requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person and whether because of his mental illness he is likely to cause injury to himself or others if not restrained.

(a) The head of the mental hospital shall release the prisoner upon receiving notice of his discharge from the Department of Corrections or from jail, unless he determines that the prisoner requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person and because of his mental illness is likely to cause injury to himself or others if not restrained.

(b) If the head of the hospital determines that the prisoner requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person and because of his mental illness is likely to cause injury to himself or others if not restrained, he shall cause to be filed in the county court of the county in which the hospital is located a Certificate of Examination for Mental Illness and an Application for Temporary Hospitalization or Petition for Indefinite Commitment and may detain the person as a patient after his discharge from prison pending order of the court.

(c) If the head of the hospital determines that the prisoner requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person, he shall so inform a responsible relative of the patient, and may cause an Application for Temporary Hospitalization or Petition for Indefinite Commitment to be filed in the county court of the proper county.

Time credited

Sec. 8. The time a prisoner is confined in a mental hospital for treatment shall be considered time served and shall be credited to the term of his sentence, but he shall not be entitled to any commutation of sentence for good conduct while he is under treatment in a mental hospital.

Discharge from prison

Sec. 9. Upon the expiration of the sentence of a prisoner who is being treated in a mental hospital, he shall receive a discharge from the Department of Corrections or the county jail as in all other cases.

Art. 46.02. Insanity in defense or in bar

Trial of insanity issue in advance of trial on merits

Sec. 1. The issue of present insanity shall be tried in advance of trial on the merits, upon written application on behalf of the accused. If upon trial of the issue of insanity in advance of trial on the merits, the accused is found to be presently sane, the trial judge shall dismiss the jury which decided the issue of present insanity and empanel a new jury to hear any subsequent trial on the merits.

Procedure at trial

Sec. 2. (a) At the trial on the merits, the trial court shall hear evidence on the issue of present insanity (1) if prior to the offer thereof there be filed on behalf of the defendant's written motion asking the court to hear evidence on such issue and requesting the court to declare a mistrial because of such insanity in the manner and to the extent provided for in this article; or (2) if the defendant or his counsel otherwise asks for a decision or issue thereon, in which event such act of the defendant shall be treated and considered as if the defendant had filed such a motion for mistrial. For purposes of present insanity, the defendant shall be considered presently insane if he is presently incompetent to make a rational defense.

(b) When the issue of present insanity is tried, the following rules shall apply:

(1) The issue of present insanity shall be submitted to the jury only if supported by competent testimony.

(2) (a) Instructions submitting the issue of present insanity shall be framed so as to require the jury to state in its verdict whether defendant is sane or insane at the time of the trial.

(b) If there has been competent medical or psychiatric testimony to the effect that the defendant is presently insane, instructions submitting the issue of present insanity shall require the jury, if it finds the defendant presently insane, to state whether the defendant requires hospitalization in a mental hospital for his own welfare and protection or the protection of others.

(3) The charge shall instruct the jury that if it finds defendant is presently insane it will not consider or deliberate upon any other issues except (a) whether the defendant should be committed to a mental hospital; and (b) whether he was sane or insane as of the time of the alleged offense, if such issue be submitted.

(c) When the issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense is tried, the following rules shall apply:

(1) The issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense shall be submitted to the jury only if supported by competent evidence tending to show that defendant was insane as of the time of the alleged offense.

(2) Instructions submitting the issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense shall be framed so as to require the jury to state in its verdict whether defendant was sane or insane as of the time of the alleged offense.

(3) If the jury finds the defendant to have been insane at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed, the defendant shall stand acquitted of the alleged offense.

(d) The following rules shall apply upon defendant's being acquitted by reason of the jury's returning a finding that he was insane as of the time of the alleged offense:

(1) If the jury finds the defendant to be insane at the time of trial, and if the jury or the court further finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, the court shall enter an order committing the defendant to Rusk State Hospital or to an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or to a Veterans' Administration hospital, and placing him in the custody of the sheriff for transportation to the mental hospital to be confined therein until he becomes sane. The court shall further order that a transcript of all medical testimony adduced before the jury shall be forthwith prepared by the court reporter and such transcript shall accompany the patient to the mental hospital.

(2) If the jury returns a finding that defendant is sane as of the time of the trial, then the defendant shall be finally discharged.
Art. 46.02  CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE  1200

(3) If there be no jury finding on the issue of present insanity, then the court, if the discharge or going at large of defendant be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the people, shall order defendant committed to jail or other suitable place pending the prompt initiation and prosecution by the attorney for the state or other person designated by the court of appropriate civil proceedings to determine whether defendant shall be committed to a mental institution, or the court may give defendant into the care of his friends on their giving satisfactory security for his proper care and protection; otherwise, defendant shall be discharged.

(e) Where the jury finds that the defendant is presently insane, but does not find that he was insane at the time of the offense (either because such issue was not submitted or because the jury failed to find on that issue or because it found that he was not insane at such time), the court shall enter a mistrial as to all issues except the issue of present insanity. If the jury finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, the proper order so committing him shall be entered by the court; provided that if the court enters an order committing the defendant to a state mental hospital the rules set out in Section 2(d)(1) hereof shall be followed in designating the state mental hospital to which the defendant is to be committed.

(f) Evidence. (1) The court may, at its discretion appoint disinterested qualified experts to examine the defendant with regard to his present competency to stand trial and as to his sanity, and to testify thereto at any trial or hearing in connection to the accusation against the accused; provided that the court may not order the defendant to a state mental hospital for such examination without the consent of the head of that state mental hospital.

(2) Such appointed experts shall be paid out of the General Fund of the county where the indictment was found or information was filed. A state mental hospital which accepts a defendant for examination under Section 2(f) hereof shall be reimbursed out of the General Fund of the county where the indictment was found or information was filed for such expenses incurred as are reasonably necessary and incidental to the proper examination of the defendant.

(3) If the defendant is free on bail, the court in its discretion may commit him to custody pending such examination.

(4) No statement made by the defendant during examination into his competency shall be admitted in evidence against the accused on the issue of guilt in any criminal proceeding no matter under what circumstances such examination takes place.

(5) Any party may introduce other competent testimony regarding the defendant's competency.

(g) If trial is without a jury. (1) If the trial is before the court without a jury and if, after commencement of a trial on the merits and before the return of a verdict, there arises in the mind of the court from any cause, a reasonable doubt as to the present sanity of the defendant, the court shall suspend the proceedings and shall without unnecessary delay impanel a jury to determine the issue of the present sanity of the defendant.

(2) In such event, the trial before the jury on that issue shall proceed under the same procedure and the jury shall have the same duties and responsibilities with respect to the hearing on the question of present insanity and on the question of hospitalization and related questions, as are set forth in the other portions of this article where the question is raised in a jury trial.

(3) If the jury so impanelled shall determine that the defendant is sane at present, then in such event the court shall resume without unnecessary delay, the trial on the merits at the point where the proceedings were suspended. If the jury so impanelled shall determine that the defendant is not sane at present, then in such event the court shall declare a mistrial of the trial on the merits and shall enter such orders with respect to commitment and other matters as are authorized in accordance with the other portions of this article, and as may be appropriate under the jury findings, the facts and the law.

(4) If the jury so impanelled is unable to agree upon a unanimous verdict after a reasonable opportunity to deliberate, the court shall declare a mistrial of the competency trial, discharge the jury so impanelled and impanel another jury to determine the present mental competency of the defendant.

(h) A mistrial under the provisions of this section shall not serve to bar a subsequent trial and conviction for the same offense, and no jeopardy shall be considered as having attached in the event the defendant is found to be presently insane and a mistrial is declared by reason thereof, irrespective of the manner in which the issue is raised.

(i) The head of the state mental hospital to which a person has been committed under the provisions of Sections 2(d) or 2(e) hereof may, with the permission of the committing court, transfer such person to any other state mental hospital or an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or a Veterans' Administration hospital.

Status of patient acquitted; post-commitment procedures

Sec. 3. (a) A person committed to a State Mental Hospital or to a mental hospital operated by the United States or the Veteran's Administration under this Article upon a jury finding of insanity at the time of trial who has been acquitted of an alleged offense because of insanity at the time the alleged offense was committed is not by reason of that offense a person charged with a criminal offense. The procedures set forth in this Section, and no others, shall apply to all post-commitment determinations of the sanity of a person committed to a mental hospital upon a jury finding of insanity at the time of trial who has been acquitted of an alleged offense because of insanity at the time the alleged offense was committed and thereby is not a person charged with a criminal offense.

(b) If the head of mental hospital to which a person has been committed upon a finding of insanity at the time of trial who has been acquitted of the alleged offense, is of the opinion that the person is sane, the head of the mental hospital shall so notify the court which committed the person to the mental hospital. Upon receiving such notice, the judge of the committing court shall within a reasonable length of time impanel a jury to determine whether the person is sane or insane. If the jury finds the person is sane, he shall be ordered released as soon as the judgment on the jury verdict becomes final. If the jury finds the person is insane, the judgment on the jury verdict shall order the person returned to the mental hospital until adjudged to be sane at a subsequent jury trial in the committing court. When the person is so ordered returned to the mental hospital, the head of the mental hospital shall not again notify the committing court that he is of the opinion the person is sane for at least 180 days from the date the judgment of the committing court ordering him returned to the mental hospital on a previous jury finding of insanity has become final.

(c) When a person has been committed to a mental hospital upon a finding of insanity at the time of trial who has been acquitted of the alleged offense, and the person has been so committed for at least one year from the date of the original order so committing the person, and the head of the mental hospital to which he is committed fails or refuses to notify the court which committed the person to the mental hospital that he is of the opinion that the person is sane, then the person so committed may seek a post-commitment determination of his sanity by submitting a written request to the head of the mental hospital to which the person is committed requesting a determination of his sanity by the committing court.

Upon receipt of such a request, the head of the mental hospital shall, provided the person has been committed for at least one year from the date of the original order committing the person to the mental hospital, immediately cause the person to be examined by one or more staff physicians, and shall then immediately certify to the committing court the person's written request, the reports and findings of any examining physicians, and his own findings, if any.

Upon receipt from the head of the mental hospital of the person’s written request and accompanying papers certified to the committing court, the judge of the committing court shall immediately cause the same to be filed with the clerk of the committing court and the judge shall examine such written request and accompanying papers to determine if they reflect probable merit. In the event the judge of the committing court does not believe that the written request and accompanying papers reflect probable merit, the judge shall enter an order denying the person’s request, which order shall be appealable to determine whether there was an abuse of discretion in denying the person’s request. The committing court may, at its discretion, appoint disinterested qualified experts to examine the person as to his mental condition and requirements for hospitalization, in a mental hospital, to report their findings to the committing court, and to testify thereto, and the committing court may, at its discretion, direct the hospital to forward to the court any hospital records pertaining to such person.

If the person’s request, accompanying papers and other records or reports, reflect probable merit, the judge of the committing court shall within a reasonable length of time impanel a jury to determine whether the person is sane or insane. If the person is sane, the person shall be ordered released as soon as the judgment on the jury verdict becomes final. If the jury finds the person insane, the judgment on the jury verdict shall order the person returned to the mental hospital until adjudged to be sane at a subsequent jury trial in the committing court. When a person is so ordered returned to the mental hospital, the person shall not again be permitted to request a post-commitment determination of his sanity for at least one year from the date the judgment of the committing court ordering him returned to the mental hospital on a previous jury finding of insanity has become final.

(d) Whenever a post-commitment jury trial is had in the committing court, whether occasioned by notice from the head of the hospital to which the person is committed as set forth in Section 3(b) hereof, or whether occasioned by the written request of the person committed as set forth in Section 3(c) hereof, the same shall be conducted under the following rules:

1. The State of Texas shall be represented by the District Attorney or County Attorney of the county from where the person was originally committed. Whenever the committing court determines that the person committed is too poor to employ counsel, the court shall appoint one or more practicing attorneys to represent him and counsel so appointed shall be compensated according to the schedule set forth in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure.

2. The Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to the selection of the jury, the court's charge to the jury and to all other aspects of the proceedings and trial except when inconsistent with the provisions of this Section.

(4) The burden of proof shall rest on the person committed, by a preponderance of the evidence, and the jury shall be instructed by the court that a person is sane if they believe from a preponderance of the evidence that the person's mental condition is such that the person does not require hospitalization in a mental hospital for the person's own welfare and protection or for the welfare and protection of others.

(5) Both parties to such proceedings and jury trial shall have the same right of subpoena as in criminal cases to compel the attendance of out of county witnesses and such out of county witnesses shall be paid by the state in the same manner and amounts as provided for in Article 35.27 Code of Criminal Procedure.

Insanity as bar to proceedings

Sec. 4. If the question of the sanity of the defendant is raised after his conviction and prior to the pronouncement of sentence in a felony case or while an appeal from that conviction is pending, and sufficient proof is shown to satisfy the judge of the committing court that a reasonable doubt exists as to the sanity of the defendant, the judge shall impanel a jury to determine whether the defendant is sane or insane. If the jury finds the defendant is insane, the court shall enter an order committing the defendant to a State mental hospital under this Chapter, all further proceedings in the case against him shall be suspended until he becomes sane, except that upon motion of a defendant's counsel an appeal from a conviction may be prosecuted.

Trial on recovery of sanity

Sec. 7. (a) If the head of a State mental hospital in which a person charged with a criminal offense is confined under this Chapter is of the opinion that the person is sane, he shall so notify the court which committed the person to the State mental hospital.

(b) Upon receiving this notice, the judge of the committing court shall impanel a jury to determine whether the person is sane or insane. If the jury finds the person sane, the proceedings in the case against him shall continue. If the jury finds the person is insane, the court shall enter an order committing him to a State mental hospital to be confined therein as a person charged with a criminal offense until he becomes sane. If the jury finds the person is sane, the proceedings in the case against him shall continue.

Suspension of proceedings

Sec. 6. When a defendant is found to be insane and committed to a State mental hospital under this Chapter, all further proceedings in the case against him shall be suspended until he becomes sane, except that upon motion of a defendant's counsel an appeal from a conviction may be prosecuted.

Sec. 11. If at any time a jury or a court finds a defendant to be insane and finds that he requires commitment to a mental hospital or mental institution, and if there has been competent testimony that such defendant is a mentally retarded person, then the court may, in its discretion, in lieu of committing him to a mental hospital or mental institution, commit him to a state school for the mentally retarded. If the crime of which the defendant was accused involved an act of physical violence against the person then such commitment shall be to a state school for the mentally retarded designated by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation as having the capability to provide maximum security. In the event of a commitment to a state school for the mentally retarded, the head of the school shall have the same rights, powers, and duties as are conferred by this Article upon the heads of mental hospitals or mental institutions, and all the other provisions of this Article shall apply to the commitment. Definitions

Sec. 1. Where appearing in this Article, the term "Governor" includes any person performing the functions of Governor by authority of the laws of this State. Fugitives from justice; duty of Governor

Sec. 2. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all Acts of Congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the Governor of this State to have arrested and delivered up to the Executive Authority of any other State of the United States any person charged in that State with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this State.

Form of Demand

Sec. 3. No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another State shall be recognized by the Governor unless in writing, alleging, except in cases arising under Section 6, that the accused was present in the demanding State at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter he fled from the State, and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the State having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of an affidavit before a magistrate there, together with a copy of any warrant which issued thereupon; or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the Executive Authority of the demanding State that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that State; and the copy of indictment, information, affidavit, judgment of conviction or sentence must be authenticated by the Executive Authority making the demand; provided, however, that all such copies of the aforesaid instruments shall be in duplicate, one complete set of such instruments to be delivered to the defendant or to his attorney.

Governor may investigate case

Sec. 4. When a demand shall be made upon the Governor of this State by the Executive Authority of another State for the surrender of a person so charged with crime, the Governor may call upon the Secretary of State, Attorney General or any prosecuting officer in this State to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered.

Extradition of persons imprisoned or awaiting trial in another State or who have left the demanding State under compulsion

Sec. 5. When it is desired to have returned to this State a person charged in this State with a crime, and such person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against him in another State, the Governor of this State may agree with the Executive Authority of such other State for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of such proceedings or his term of sentence in such other State, upon condition that such person be returned to such other State at the expense of this State as soon as the prosecution in this State is terminated.

The Governor of this State may also surrender on demand of the Executive Authority of any other State any person in this State who is charged in the manner provided in Section 28 of this Act with having violated the laws of the State whose Executive Authority is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding State involuntarily.

Extradition of persons not present in demanding State at time of commission of crime

Sec. 6. The Governor of this State may also surrender, on demand of the Executive Authority of any other State, any person in this State charged in such other State in the manner provided in Section 3 with committing an act in this State, or in a third State, intentionally resulting in a crime in the State whose Executive Authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this Article not otherwise inconsistent, shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in that State at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom.

Issue of Governor’s warrant of arrest; its recitals

Sec. 7. If the Governor decides that the demand should be complied with, he shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the state seal and be directed to any peace officer or other person whom he may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof. The warrant must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance.

Manner and place of execution

Sec. 8. Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where he may be found within the State and to command the aid of all peace officers and other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this Article to the duly authorized agent of the demanding State.

Authority of arresting officer

Sec. 9. Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

Rights of accused person; application for writ of habeas corpus

Sec. 10. No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the Executive Authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this State, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prisoner or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such a writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the prosecuting officer of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding State.

Penalty for non-compliance with preceding section

Sec. 11. Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding State a person in his custody under the Governor’s warrant, in wilful disobedience to Section 10 of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

Sec. 12. The officer or persons executing the Governor’s warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding State to whom the prisoner may have been delivered may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or person being chargeable with the expense of keeping.

The officer or agent of a demanding State to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another State, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other State, and who is passing through this State with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding State may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or agent, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping; provided, however, that such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that he is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding State after a requisition by the Executive Authority of such demanding State. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this State.

Arrest prior to requisition

Sec. 13. Whenever every person within this State shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this State with the commission of any crime in any other State and except in cases arising under Section 6, with having fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that State and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this State setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another State that a crime has been committed in such other State and that the accused has been charged in such State with the commission of the crime, and except in cases arising under Section 6, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that State and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole and is believed to be in this State, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this State, and to bring him before the same or any other judge, magistrate or court who or which may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

Arrest without a warrant

Sec. 14. The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer or private person, without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a State with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the preceding section; and thereafter his answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant.

Commitment to await requisition; bail

Sec. 15. If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged and except in cases arising under Section 6, that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by warrant reciting the accusation, commit him to the county jail for such time not exceeding thirty days and specified in the warrant, as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the Governor on a requisition of the Executive Authority of the State having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged.

Bail; in what cases; conditions of bond

Sec. 16. Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the State in which it was committed, a judge or magistrate in this State may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the Governor in this State.

Extension of time of commitment; adjournment

Sec. 17. If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the Governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or magistrate may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period not to exceed sixty days, or a judge or magistrate may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in Section 16, but within a period not to exceed sixty days after the date of such new bond.

Forfeiture of bail

Sec. 18. If the prisoner is admitted to bail and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge, or magistrate by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this State. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the State as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this State.

Persons under criminal prosecution in this State at the time of requisition

Sec. 19. If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this State and is still pending, the Governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the Executive Authority of another State or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this State.

Guilt or innocence of accused, when inquired into

Sec. 20. The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the Governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the Governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime.

Governor may recall warrant or issue alias

Sec. 21. The governor may recall his warrant of the arrest or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper. Each warrant issued by the Governor shall expire and be of no force and effect when not executed within one year from the date thereof.

Fugitives from this State; duty of Governor

Sec. 22. Whenever the Governor of this State shall demand a person charged with crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of his bail, probation or parole in this State, from the Executive Authority of any other State, or from the Chief Justice or an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, he shall issue a warrant under the seal of this State, to some agent, commanding him to receive the person so charged if delivered to him and convey him to the proper officer of the county in this State in which the offense was committed, or in which the prosecution for such offense is then pending.

Application for issuance of requisition; by whom made; contents

Sec. 23. 1. When the return to this State of a person charged with crime in this State is required, the State's attorney shall present to the Governor his written motion for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which motion shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission, the State in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein at the time the motion is made and certifying that, in the opinion of the said State's attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this State for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.
2. When the return to this State is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this State and has escaped from confinement, or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county, from which escape was made, shall present to the Governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement, or the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the State in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.

3. The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge or magistrate, stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence. The prosecuting officer, parole board, warden or sheriff may also attach such further affidavits and other documents in duplicate as he shall deem proper to be submitted with such application. One copy of the application, with the action of the Governor indicated by endorsement thereon, and one of the certified copies of the indictment, complaint, information, and affidavits, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State to remain on record in that office. The other copies of all papers shall be forwarded with the Governor's requisition.

Costs and expenses

Sec. 24. In all cases of extradition, the commissioners court of the county where an offense is alleged to have been committed, or in which the prosecution is then pending may in its discretion, on request of the sheriff and the recommendation of the prosecuting attorney, pay the actual and necessary expenses of the officer or person commissioned to receive the person charged, out of any county fund or funds not otherwise pledged.

Immunity from service of process in certain civil cases

Sec. 25. A person brought into this State by, or after waiver of, extradition based on a criminal charge shall not be subject to service of personal process in civil actions arising out of the same facts as the criminal proceeding to answer which he is being or has been returned, until he has been convicted in the criminal proceeding, or if acquitted, until he has had reasonable opportunity to return to the State from which he was extradited.

Written waiver of extradition proceedings

Sec. 25a. Any person arrested in this State charged with having committed any crime in another State or alleged to have escaped from confinement, or broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole may waive the issuance and service of the warrant provided for in Sections 7 and 8 and all other procedure incidental to extradition proceedings, by executing or subscribing in the presence of a judge or any court of record within this State a writing which states that he consents to return to the demanding State; provided, however, that before such waiver shall be executed or subscribed by such person it shall be the duty of such judge to inform such person of his rights to the issuance and service of a warrant of extradition and to obtain a writ of habeas corpus as provided for in Section 10.

If and when such consent has been duly executed it shall forthwith be forwarded to the office of the Governor of this State and filed therein. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding State, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such agent or agents a copy of such consent; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the rights of the accused person to return voluntarily and without formality to the demanding State, nor shall this waiver procedure be deemed to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights or duties of the officers of the demanding State or of this State.

Non-waiver by this State

Sec. 25b. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by this State of its right, power or privilege to try such demanded person for crime committed within this State, or of its right, power or privilege to regain custody of such person by extradition proceedings or otherwise for the purpose of trial, sentence or punishment for any crime committed within this State, nor shall any proceedings had under this Article which result, or fail to result in, extradition to be deemed a waiver by this State of any of its rights, privileges or jurisdiction in any way whatsoever.

No right of asylum, no immunity from other criminal prosecutions while in this State

Sec. 26. After a person has been brought back to this State by, or after waiver of extradition proceedings, he may be tried in this State for other crimes here as well as that specified in the requisition for his extradition.

CHAPTER FIFTY-FOUR. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 54.01. Severability clause.
54.02. Repealing clause.
54.03. Emergency clause.

Art. 54.01. Severability Clause
If any provision, section or clause of this Act or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications herof which can be given effect without the invalid provision, section or clause, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 54.02. Repealing Clause
Sec. 1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article 54.02, all laws relating to criminal procedure in this State that are not embraced, incorporated, or included in this Act and that have not been enacted during the Regular Session of the 59th Legislature are repealed.

(b) None of the following articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas, 1925, in force on the effective date of this Act, is repealed: 52; 52–1 through 52–161, both inclusive; 367D through 367K, both inclusive; 781B–1, 781B–2; 944 through 951, both inclusive; 1009 through 1035, both inclusive;
1037 through 1065, both inclusive; 1058 through 1064, both inclusive; and 1075 through 1082, both inclusive.

Sec. 2. (a) All laws and parts of laws relating to criminal procedure omitted from this Act have been intentionally omitted, and all additions to and changes in such procedure have been intentionally made. This Act shall be construed to be an independent Act of the Legislature, enacted under its caption, and the articles contained in this Act, as revised, rewritten, changed, combined, and codified, may not be construed as a continuation of former laws except as otherwise provided in this Act. The existing statutes of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, which contain special or specific provisions of criminal procedure covering specific instances are not repealed by this Act.

(b) A person under recognizance or bond on the effective date of this Act continues under such recognizance or bond pending final disposition of any action pending against him.

Art. 54.03. Emergency Clause
The fact that the laws relating to criminal procedure in this State have not been completely revised and re-codified in more than a century past and the further fact that the administration of justice, in the field of criminal law, has undergone changes, through judicial construction and interpretation of constitutional provisions, which have been, in certain instances, modified or nullified, as the case may be, necessitates important changes requiring the revision or modernization of the laws relating to criminal procedure, and the further fact that it is desirous and desirable to strengthen, and to conform, various provisions in such laws to current interpretation and application, emphasizes the importance of this legislation and all of which, together with the crowded condition of the calendar in both Houses, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and said Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force and effect from and after 12 o'clock Meridian on the 1st day of January, Anno Domini, 1966, and it is so enacted.

1 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes

§ 1.001. Purpose of Code

(a) This code is enacted as a part of the state's continuing statutory revision program, begun by the Texas Legislative Council in 1963 as directed by the legislature in Chapter 448, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963 (Article 5429b-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The program contemplates a topic-by-topic revision of the state's general and permanent statute law without substantive change.

(b) Consistent with the objectives of the statutory revision program, the purpose of this code is to make the general and permanent water law more accessible and understandable, by:

1. rearranging the statutes into a more logical order;
2. employing a format and numbering system designed to facilitate citation of the law and to accommodate future expansion of the law;
3. eliminating repealed, duplicative, unconstitutional, expired, executed, and other ineffective provisions; and
4. restating the law in modern American English to the greatest extent possible.

(c) This restatement shall not in any way make any changes in the substantive laws of the State of Texas.
§ 1.001 WATER CODE

(d) Laws of a local or special nature, such as statutes creating various kinds of conservation and reclamation districts, are not included in, or affected by, this code. The legislature believes that persons interested in these local and special laws may rely on the session laws and on compilations of these laws. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 110, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971]

§ 1.002. Construction of Code

The Code Construction Act (Article 5429b-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) applies to the construction of each provision in this code, except as otherwise expressly provided by this code. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 111, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971]

§ 1.003. Public Policy

It is the public policy of the state to provide for the conservation and development of the state's natural resources, including:

1. The control, storage, preservation, and distribution of the state's storm and flood waters and the waters of its rivers and streams for irrigation, power, and other useful purposes;
2. The reclamation and irrigation of the state's arid, semiarid, and other land needing irrigation;
3. The reclamation and drainage of the state's overflowed land and other land needing drainage;
4. The conservation and development of its forest, water, and hydroelectric power; and
5. The navigation of the state's inland and coastal waters. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 111, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971]

Sections 1.004 to 1.010 reserved for expansion]

1 43 U.S.C.A. § 371 et seq.

[Sections 5.006 to 5.020 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. RIGHTS IN STATE WATER

§ 5.021. State Water

(a) The water of the ordinary flow, underflow, and tides of every flowing river, natural stream, and lake, and of every bay or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, and the storm water, floodwater, and rainwater of every river, natural stream, canyon, ravine, depression, and watershed in the state is the property of the state.

(b) Water which is imported from any source outside the boundaries of the state for use in the state and which is transported through the beds and banks of any navigable stream within the state or by utilizing any facilities owned or operated by the state is the property of the state.

§ 5.022. Acquisition of Right to Use State Water

The right to the use of state water may be acquired by appropriation in the manner and for the purposes provided in this chapter. When the right to use state water is lawfully acquired, it may be taken or diverted from its natural channel.

§ 5.023. Purposes for Which Water May Be Appropriated

(a) State water may be appropriated, stored, or diverted for:

(1) domestic and municipal uses, including water for sustaining human life and the life of domestic animals;

(2) industrial uses, being processes designed to convert materials of a lower order of value into forms having greater usability and commercial value, including the development of power by means other than hydroelectric;

(3) irrigation;

(4) mining and recovery of minerals;

(5) hydroelectric power;

(6) navigation;

(7) recreation and pleasure;

(8) stock raising;

(9) public parks; and

(10) game preserves.

(b) State water also may be stored or diverted for any other beneficial use.

(c) Unappropriated storm water and floodwater may be appropriated to recharge underground freshwater bearing sands and aquifers in the portion of the Edwards underground reservoir located within Kinney, Uvalde, Medina, Bexar, Comal, and Hays counties if it can be established by expert testimony that an unreasonable loss of state water will not occur and that the water can be withdrawn at a later time for application to a beneficial use. The normal or ordinary flow of a stream or watercourse may never be appropriated, diverted, or used by a permittee for this recharge purpose.

(d) When it is put or allowed to sink into the ground, water appropriated under Subsection (b) of this section loses its character and classification as storm water or floodwater and is considered percolating groundwater.

(e) The amount of water appropriated for each purpose mentioned in this section shall be specifically appropriated for that purpose, subject to the preferences prescribed in Section 5.024 of this code.

(f) The water of any arm, inlet, or bay of the Gulf of Mexico may be changed from salt water to sweet or fresh water and held or stored by dams, dikes, or other structures, and may be taken or diverted for any purpose authorized by this chapter.

§ 5.024. Appropriation: Preferences

In order to conserve and properly utilize state water, the public welfare requires not only recognition of beneficial uses but also a constructive public policy regarding the preferences between these uses; and it is therefore declared to be the public policy of this state that, in appropriating state water, preference shall be given to the following uses in the order named:

(1) domestic and municipal uses, including water for sustaining human life and the life of domestic animals;

(2) industrial uses, being processes designed to convert materials of a lower order of value into forms having greater usability and commercial value, including the development of power by means other than hydroelectric;

(3) irrigation;

(4) mining and recovery of minerals;

(5) hydroelectric power;

(6) navigation;

(7) recreation and pleasure; and

(8) other beneficial uses.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 114, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]
§ 5.025. Scope of Appropriative Right
A right to use state water under a permit or a certified filing is limited not only to the amount specifically appropriated but also to the amount which is being or can be beneficially used for the purposes specified in the appropriation, and all water not so used is considered not appropriated.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 114, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.026. Perfection of an Appropriation
No right to appropriate water is perfected unless the water has been beneficially used for a purpose stated in the original declaration of intention to appropriate water or stated in a permit issued by the commission or one of its predecessors.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 114, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.027. Rights Between Appropriators
As between appropriators, the first in time is the first in right.

§ 5.028. Exception
Any appropriation made after May 17, 1931, for any purpose other than domestic or municipal use, is subject to the right of any city or town to make further appropriations of the water for domestic or municipal use without paying for the water. However, this section does not apply to any stream which constitutes or defines the international boundary between the United States of America and the Republic of Mexico.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 115, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.029. Title to Appropriation by Limitation
When an appropriator from a source of water supply has used water under the terms of a certified filing or a permit for a period of three years, he acquires title to his appropriation by limitation against any other claimant of water from the same source of water supply and against any riparian owner on the same source of water supply.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 115, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.030. Forfeiture of Appropriation
If any lawful appropriation or use of state water is wilfully abandoned during any three successive years, the right to use the water is forfeited and the water is again subject to appropriation.

§ 5.031. Annual Report
(a) Not later than March 1 of every year, every person who takes water during the preceding calendar year from a stream or reservoir shall submit a written report to the commission on a form prescribed by the commission. The report shall contain all information required by the commission to aid in administering the water law and in making inventory of the state's water resources. However, with the exception of public utilities and political subdivisions which furnish water for municipal uses, no report is required of persons who take water solely for domestic or livestock purposes.
(b) A person who fails to file an annual report with the commission as required by this section is liable to a penalty of $25, plus $1 per day for each day he fails to file the statement after March 1. However, the maximum penalty under this section is $150. The state may sue to recover the penalty.

§ 5.032. Records
(a) A person who owns and operates a system of waterworks used for a purpose authorized by this code shall keep a detailed record of daily operations so that the quantity of water taken or diverted each calendar year can be determined.
(b) If the water is used for irrigation, the record must show the number of acres irrigated, the character of the crops grown, and the yield per acre. No survey is required to determine the exact number of acres irrigated.

§ 5.033. Eminent Domain
The right to take water necessary for domestic and municipal supply purposes is primary and fundamental, and the right to recover from other uses water which is essential to domestic and municipal supply purposes is paramount and unquestioned in the policy of the state. All political subdivisions of the state and constitutional governmental agencies exercising delegated legislative powers have the power of eminent domain, to be exercised as provided by law, for domestic, municipal, and manufacturing uses, and for other purposes authorized by this code, including the irrigation of lands for all requirements of agricultural employment.

§ 5.034. Reservoir Site: Land and Rights-of-Way
An appropriator who is authorized to construct a dam or reservoir is granted the right-of-way, not to exceed 100 feet wide, and the necessary area for the site, over any public school land, university land, or asylum land of this state, and the use of the rock, gravel, and timber on the site and right-of-way for construction purposes, after paying compensation as determined by the commission. An appropriator may acquire the reservoir site and rights-of-way over private land by contract.

§ 5.035. Condemnation of Private Property
(a) An appropriator may obtain rights-of-way over private land and may obtain the land necessary for pumping plants, intakes, headgates, and storage reservoirs by condemnation.
(b) The party obtaining private property by condemnation shall cause damages to be assessed and paid for as provided by the statutes of this state relating to eminent domain.

(c) If the party exercising the power granted by this section is not a corporation, district, city, or town, he shall apply to the commission for the condemnation.

(d) The commission shall investigate the proposed condemnation. After its investigation the commission may give notice to the party owning the land proposed to be condemned and hold a hearing on the proposed condemnation.

(e) If after a hearing the commission determines that the condemnation is necessary, the commission may institute condemnation proceedings in the name of the State of Texas for the use and benefit of the party who applied for the condemnation and all others similarly situated.

(f) The parties at whose instance a condemnation suit is instituted shall pay the costs of the suit and condemnation in proportion to the benefits received by each party as fixed by the commission. Before using any of the condemned rights or property, a party receiving the rights or property shall pay the amount of costs fixed by the commission.

(g) If, after the costs of the condemnation proceedings have been paid, a party seeks to take the benefits of the condemnation proceedings, he shall apply to the commission for the benefits. The commission may grant the application and fix the fees and charges to be paid by the applicant.

§ 5.036. Conserved or Stored Water: Supply Contract

(b) The price and terms of the contract shall be just and reasonable and without discrimination; and the contract is subject to the same revision and control as provided in this code for other water rates and charges. If any person uses the stored or conserved water without first entering into a contract with the party that conserved or stored it, the user shall pay for the use at a rate determined by the commission to be just and reasonable, subject to court review as in other cases.

§ 5.037. Water Suppliers: Rules and Regulations

Every person, association of persons, corporation, or irrigation district conserving or supplying water for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter shall make and publish reasonable rules and regulations relating to:

(b) Nothing in Subsection (a) of this section precludes the person, association of persons, or corporation owning or controlling the water from supplying water to a person who has a prior vested right to the water under the laws of this state.

(2) that he is willing and able to pay a just and reasonable price for the water;
(3) that the party owning or controlling the water supply has water not contracted to others and available for the petitioner's use; and
(4) that the party owning or controlling the water supply fails or refuses to supply the available water to the petitioner, or that the price or rental demanded for the available water is not reasonable and just, or is discriminatory.
(b) If the petition is accompanied by a deposit of $25, the commission shall make a preliminary investigation of the complaint and determine whether or not there is probable ground for the complaint.

§ 5.125. Commission Requirements

(a) If the proposed taking or diversion of water for irrigation exceeds nine cubic feet per second, the commission may require additional information as prescribed by this section.

(b) The commission may require a continuous longitudinal profile, cross-sections of the proposed channel, and the detail plans of any proposed structure, on any scales and with any definition the commission considers necessary or expedient.

(c) If the application proposes construction of a dam greater than six feet in height, either for diversion or storage, the commission may also require filing a copy of all plans and specifications and a copy of the engineer's field notes of any survey of the lake or reservoir. No work on the project shall proceed until approval of the plans is obtained.

(d) If the applicant is a corporation, the commission may require filing a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, a statement of the names and addresses of its directors and officers, and a statement of the amount of its authorized capital stock and its paid-up capital stock.

(e) If the applicant is not a corporation, the commission may require filing a sworn statement showing the name and address of each person interested in the appropriation, the extent of his interest, and his financial condition.

§ 5.126. Additional Requirements: Drainage Plans

If the commission believes that the efficient operation of any existing or proposed irrigation system may be adversely affected by lack of adequate drainage facilities incident to the work proposed to be done by an applicant, the commission may require the applicant to submit plans for drainage adequate to guard against any injury which the proposed work may entail.

§ 5.127. Payment of Fee

If the applicant is not exempted from payment of the filing fee under Section 6.069 of this code, he shall pay the filing fee prescribed by Section 6.068(b) of this code at the time he files the application. The commission shall not record, file, or consider the application until the fee is paid.

§ 5.128. Review of Application; Amendment

The commission shall determine whether the application, maps, or other materials to achieve necessary compliance.

§ 5.129. Recording Applications

(a) The commission shall record all applications for appropriations in a well-bound book kept for that purpose in the commission's office.

(b) The commission shall index the applications alphabetically in the name of:

(1) the applicant;
(2) the stream or source from which the appropriation is sought to be made; and
(3) the county in which the appropriation is sought to be made.

§ 5.130. Examination and Denial of Application Without Hearing

(a) The commission shall make a preliminary examination of the application and, if it appears that there is no unappropriated water in the source of supply or that the proposed appropriation should not be allowed for other reasons, the commission may deny the application.

(b) If the commission denies the application under this section and the applicant elects not to proceed further, the commission may return to the applicant any part of the fee submitted with the application.

§ 5.131. Notice of Hearing

(a) The commission shall give notice of the hearing on the application as prescribed by this section.

(b) In the notice the commission shall:

(1) state the name and address of the applicant;
(2) state the date the application was filed;
(3) state the purpose and extent of the proposed appropriation of water;
(4) identify the source of supply and the place where the water is to be stored or taken or diverted from the source of supply;
(5) specify the time and place of the hearing; and
(6) give any additional information the commission considers necessary.

(c) If the proposed use is for irrigation, the commission shall include in the notice a general description of the location and area of the land to be irrigated.

(d) The notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks before the date stated in the notice for the hearing in some newspaper having a general circulation in the section of the state where the source of water is located.

(e) The commission shall also mail a copy of the notice by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each claimant or appropriator of water from the source of water supply, the record of whose claim or appropriation has been filed in the office of the commission. The notice shall also be mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to all navigation districts within the watershed concerned. The inadvertent failure of the commission to mail a notice to a navigation district which is not a claimant or appropriator of water does not prevent the hearing on the application.

(f) The notice shall be mailed and first published not less than 20 days before the date set for the hearing.

§ 5.132. Hearing

At the time and place stated in the notice, the commission shall hold a hearing on the application. Any person may appear at the hearing, in person or by attorney, or may enter his appearance in writing. Any person who appears may present objection to the issuance of the permit. The commission may receive evidence, orally or by affidavit, in support of or in opposition to the issuance of the permit, and it may hear arguments.

§ 5.133. Action on Application

(a) After the hearing the commission shall make a written decision granting or denying the application. The application may be granted or denied in whole or in part.

(b) The commission shall grant the application only if:

(1) the application conforms to the requirements prescribed by this chapter and is accompanied by the prescribed fee;

(2) unappropriated water is available in the source of supply; and

(3) the proposed appropriation:

(A) contemplates the application of water to any beneficial use;

(B) does not impair existing water rights or vested riparian rights; and

(C) is not detrimental to the public welfare.

§ 5.134. Issuance of Permit

(a) On approval of an application, the commission shall issue a permit to the applicant. The applicant's right to take and use water is limited to the extent and purposes stated in the permit.

(b) The permit shall be in writing and attested by the seal of the commission, and it shall contain substantially the following information:

(1) the name of the person to whom the permit is issued;

(2) the date the permit is issued;

(3) the date the original application was filed;

(4) the use or purpose for which the appropriation is to be made;

(5) the amount or volume of water authorized to be appropriated for each purpose;

(6) a general description of the source of supply from which the appropriation is proposed to be made;

(7) the time within which construction or work must begin and the time within which it must be completed; and

(8) any other information the commission prescribes.

(c) If the appropriation is for irrigation, the commission shall also place in the permit a description and statement of the approximate area of the land to be irrigated.

§ 5.135. Recording of Permit

(a) The commission shall transmit the permit by registered mail to the county clerk of the county in which the appropriation is to be made.

(b) When the county clerk receives the permit and is paid the recording fee (as prescribed by Article 3930, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended), he shall file and record the permit in a well-bound book kept for that purpose. He shall index the permit alphabetically in the name of the applicant and of the stream or source of water supply. After he has recorded the permit, the county clerk shall deliver the permit, on demand, to the applicant.

(c) When the permit is filed in the office of the county clerk, it is constructive notice of:

(1) the filing of the application;

(2) the issuance of the permit; and

(3) all the rights arising under the filing of the application and the issuance of the permit.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 129, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.136. Seasonal Permits

(a) The commission may issue seasonal permits in the same manner that it issues regular permits. The provisions of this chapter governing issuance of regular permits apply to issuance of seasonal permits.

(b) The right to take, use, or divert water under seasonal permit is limited to the portion or portions of the calendar year stated in the permit.

(c) In a seasonal permit the commission shall specify the conditions necessary to fully protect prior appropriations or vested rights on the stream.

§ 5.137. Temporary Permits

(a) The commission may issue temporary permits for beneficial purposes to the extent that they do not interfere with or adversely affect prior appropriations or vested rights on the stream. The provisions of this chapter governing issuance of regular permits apply to issuance of temporary permits.

(b) The commission may prescribe rules governing notice and procedure for the issuance of temporary permits.
§ 5.137. Emergency Permits

(a) As part of its administrative authority, the commission may grant an emergency permit for the diversion and use of water for a period of not more than 30 days if it finds that emergency conditions exist which threaten the public health, safety, and welfare and which override the necessity to comply with established statutory procedures.

(b) An emergency permit may be granted for a period of not more than 30 days and no extension or additional emergency permit may be granted at the expiration of the original permit.

(c) An emergency permit may be granted under this section without the necessity to comply with statutory and other procedures required for granting other permits issued by the commission.

(d) The commission may prescribe rules and regulations and adopt fees which are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(e) An emergency permit does not vest in the permittee any right to the diversion of use of water and shall expire and be cancelled in accordance with its terms.

§ 5.138. Permits for Storage for Project Development

The commission may issue permits for storage solely for the purpose of optimum development of projects. The commission may convert these permits to permits for beneficial use if application to have them converted is made to the commission.

§ 5.139. Date of Priority

When the commission issues a permit, the priority of the appropriation of water and the claimant’s right to use the water dates from the date of filing of the application.

§ 5.140. Domestic and Livestock Reservoir—Permit Exemption

Without obtaining a permit, a person may construct on his own property a dam or reservoir to impound or contain not more than 200 acre-feet of water for domestic and livestock purposes.

§ 5.141. Domestic and Livestock Reservoir—Use for Other Purposes

(a) The owner of a dam or reservoir exempted under Section 5.140 of this code who desires to use water from the dam or reservoir for purposes other than domestic or livestock use shall obtain a permit to do so. He may obtain a regular permit, a seasonal permit, or a permit for a term of years. He may elect to obtain the permit by proceeding under this section or under the other provisions of this chapter governing issuance of permits.

(b) If the applicant elects to proceed under this section, he shall submit to the commission a sworn application, on a form furnished by the commission, containing the following information:

(1) the name and post-office address of the applicant;
(2) the nature and purpose of the use and the amount of water to be used annually for each purpose;
(3) the major watershed and the tributary (named or unnamed) on which the dam or reservoir is located;
(4) the county in which the dam or reservoir is located;
(5) the approximate distance and direction from the county seat of the county to the location of the dam or reservoir;
(6) the survey or the portion of the survey on which the dam or reservoir is located and, to the best of the applicant’s knowledge and belief, the distance and direction of the midpoint of the dam or reservoir from a corner of the survey, which information the commission may require to be marked on an aerial photograph or map furnished by the commission;
(7) the approximate surface area, to the nearest acre, of the reservoir when it is full, and the average depth in feet when it is full; and
(8) the approximate number of square miles in the drainage area above the dam or reservoir.

(c) If the permit is sought for irrigation, the application must also specify:

(1) the total number of irrigable acres in the area;
(2) the number of acres to be irrigated within the area in any one year; and
(3) the approximate distance and direction of the land to be irrigated from the midpoint of the dam or reservoir.

(d) Before the commission may approve the application and issue the permit, it shall give notice and hold a hearing as prescribed by this section.

(e) In the notice the commission shall:

(1) state the name and post-office address of the applicant;
(2) state the date the application was filed;
(3) state the purpose and extent of the proposed appropriation of water;
(4) identify the source of supply and the place where the water is stored; and
(5) specify the time and place of the hearing.

(f) The notice shall be published only once, at least 20 days before the date stated in the notice for the hearing on the application, in a newspaper having general circulation in the county where the dam or reservoir is located. At least 15 days before the date set for the hearing, the commission shall transmit a copy of the notice by first-class mail to each person whose claim or appropriation has been filed with the commission and whose diversion point is downstream from that described in the application.

(g) The applicant shall pay the filing fee prescribed by Section 6.068(b) of this code at the time he files the application.

(h) The commission shall approve the application and issue the permit as applied for in whole or in part, if it determines that:

(1) there is unappropriated water in the source of supply;
(2) the applicant has met the requirements of this section;
(3) the water is to be used for a beneficial purpose;
(4) the proposed use is not detrimental to the public welfare or to the welfare of the locality; and
(5) the proposed use will not impair existing water rights.

§ 5.142. Approval for Alterations

All holders of permits and certified filings shall obtain the approval of the commission before making any alterations, enlargements, extensions, or other changes to any reservoir, dam, main canal, or diversion work upon which a permit has been granted or a certified filing recorded. A detailed statement and plans for alterations or changes shall be filed with and approved by the commission before the alterations or changes are made. This section does not apply to the ordinary maintenance or emergency repair of the facility.

§ 5.143. When Construction Must Begin

(a) If a person's permit is for appropriation by direct diversion, he shall begin construction of the proposed facilities within 90 days after the date his permit is issued. He shall work diligently and continuously to the completion of the construction. The commission may, by entering an order of record, extend the time for beginning construction. The commission may fix fees, not to exceed $1,000, for extending the time to begin construction of reservoirs.

§ 5.144. Forfeitures and Cancellation of Permit for Inaction

(a) If a permittee fails to begin construction within the time specified in Section 5.143 of this code, he forfeits all rights to the permit, subject to notice and hearing as prescribed by this section.

(b) After beginning construction, if the appropriator fails to work diligently and continuously to the completion of the work, the appropriation is subject to cancellation in whole or in part, subject to notice and hearing as prescribed by this section.

(c) If the commission believes that an appropriation or permit should be declared forfeited under this section or any other sections of this code, it should give the appropriator or permittee 30 days' notice and provide him with an opportunity to be heard.

(d) After the hearing the commission, by entering an order of record, may cancel the appropriation in whole or in part. The commission shall immediately transmit a certified copy of the cancellation order by certified mail to the county clerk of the county in which the permit is recorded. The county clerk shall record the cancellation order.

(e) If a permit has been issued for the use of water, the water is not subject to a new appropriation until the permit has been cancelled in whole or in part as provided by this section.

(f) Except as provided by Subchapter (e) of this chapter, none of the provisions of this code may be construed as intended to impair, cause, or authorize or may impair, cause, or authorize the forfeiture of any rights acquired by any declaration of appropriation or by any permit if the appropriator has begun or begins the work and development contemplated by his declaration of appropriation or permit within the time provided by the law under which the declaration of appropriation was made or the permit was granted and has prosecuted or continues to prosecute it with all reasonable diligence toward completion.

If in any such county no newspaper is published, then the notice may be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county.

§ 5.176. Hearing

(1) any portion of the water appropriated under the permit or certified filing has not been put to an authorized beneficial use during the 10-year period;

(2) the holder has not used reasonable diligence in applying the unused portion of the water to an authorized beneficial use; and § 5.183. Reservoir
If the holder of a permit or certified filing has facilities for the storage of water in a reservoir, the commission shall allow him to retain a water appropriation to the extent of the conservation storage capacity of the reservoir.

SUBCHAPTER F. ARTESSIAN WELLS

§ 5.201. Artesian Well Defined
An artesian well is an artificial water well in which the water, when properly cased, will rise by natural pressure above the first impervious stratum below the surface of the ground.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 136, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.202. Right to Drill Artesian Well
A person is entitled to drill an artesian well on his own land for domestic purposes or for stock raising without complying with the general provisions of this code regulating the use of water. However, he shall have the well properly and securely cased; and when water is reached containing mineral or other substances injurious to vegetation or agriculture, he shall have the well securely capped, or its flow controlled so as not to injure another person's land, or shall fill the well so as to prevent the water from rising above the first impervious stratum below the surface of the ground.

§ 5.203. Artesian Well: Drilling Record
(a) A person who drills an artesian well or has one drilled shall keep a complete and accurate record of the depth, thickness, and character of the different strata penetrated and, when the well is completed, shall transmit a copy of the record to the commission by registered mail.

(b) A person who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 136, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.204. Report of New Artesian Well
Within one year after an artesian well is drilled, the owner or operator shall transmit to the commission a sworn report stating the result of the drilling operation, the use to which the water will be applied, and the contemplated extent of the use.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 137, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.205. Wasting Water from Artesian Well
(a) Unless the water from an artesian well is used for a purpose and in a manner in which it may be lawfully used on the owner's land, it is waste to wilfully cause or knowingly permit the water to run off the owner's land or to percolate through the stratum above which the water is found.

(b) It is not waste to use water from an artesian well, if suitable, for proper irrigation of trees on a street, road, or highway, or for ornamental ponds or fountains, or for the propagation of fish.

(c) A person who commits waste as defined in this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or by confinement in the county jail for not more than 90 days or by both.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 137, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.206. Improperly Cased Well: Nuisance
An artesian well that is not tightly cased, capped, and furnished with mechanical appliances that rea-ly and effectively prevent water from flowing out of the well and running over the surface of the ground about the well, or wasting through the strata through which it passes, is a public nuisance and subject to abatement by the commission.

§ 5.207. Annual Report

(b) The report shall state:
(1) the quantity of water which was obtained from the well;
(2) the nature of the uses to which the water was applied;
(3) the change in the level of the well's water table; and
(4) other information required by the commission.

(c) If water from the well was used for irrigation, the report shall also state the acreage and yield of each crop irrigated.

[Sections 5.208 to 5.300 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER G. WATER RIGHTS ADJUDICATION ACT

§ 5.301. Short Title
This subchapter may be cited as the Water Rights Adjudication Act.

§ 5.302. Declaration of Policy
The conservation and best utilization of the water resources of this state are a public necessity, and it is in the interest of the people of the state to require recordation with the commission of claims of water rights which are presently unrecorded, to limit the exercise of these claims to actual use, and to provide for the adjudication and administration of water rights to the end that the surface-water resources of the state may be put to their greatest beneficial use. Therefore, this subchapter is in furtherance of the public rights, duties, and functions mentioned in this section and in response to the mandate expressed in Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, and is in the exercise of the police powers of the state in the interest of the public welfare.

§ 5.303. Recordation and Limitation of Certain Water Rights Claims
(a) This section applies to:
(1) claims of riparian water rights;
(2) claims under Section 5.141 of this code to impound, divert, or use state water for other than domestic or livestock purposes, for which no permit has been issued;
(3) claims of water rights under the Irrigation Acts of 1889 and 1895 which were not filed with the State Board of Water Engineers in accordance with the Irrigation Act of 1913, as amended; and
(4) other claims of water rights except claims under permits or certified filings.

(b) Any claim to which this section applies shall be recognized only if valid under existing law and only to the extent of the maximum actual application of water to beneficial use without waste during any calendar year from 1963 to 1967, inclusive. However, in any case where a claimant of a riparian right has prior to August 28, 1967, commenced or completed the construction of works designed to apply a greater quantity of water to beneficial use, the right shall be recognized to the extent of the maximum amount of water actually applied to beneficial use without waste during any calendar year from 1963 to 1970, inclusive.

(e) On or before September 1, 1969, every person claiming any water right to which this section applies shall file with the commission a statement setting forth:
(1) the name and address of the claimant;
(2) the location and the nature of the right claimed;
(3) the stream or watercourse and the river basin in which the right is claimed;
(4) the date of commencement of works;
(5) the dates and volumes of use of water; and
(6) other information the commission may require to show the nature and extent of the claim.

(d) A person who files a statement as provided in this section shall certify under oath that the statements made in support of his claim are true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(e) A claimant who desires recognition of a right based on use from 1968 to 1970, inclusive, as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, shall file an additional sworn statement on or before July 1, 1971.

(f) The commission shall prescribe forms for the sworn statements required by this section, but use of the commission forms is not mandatory.

(g) On or before January 1, 1968, and June 1, 1969, the commission shall cause notice of the requirements of this section to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in newspapers having general circulation in each county of the state and by first-class mail to each user of surface water who has filed a report of water use with the commission.

(h) On sworn petition, notice, and hearing as prescribed for applications for permits, and upon finding of extenuating circumstances and good cause shown for failure to timely file, the commission may authorize the filing of the sworn statement or statements required by this section until entry of a preliminary determination of claims of water rights, in accordance with Section 5.309 of this code, which includes the area described in the petition, or, if a preliminary determination has not been entered, until September 1, 1974.

(i) Since the filing of all claims to use public water is necessary for the conservation and best utilization of the water resources of the state, failure to file a sworn statement in substantial compliance with this section extinguishes and bars any claim of water rights to which this section applies.

(j) A sworn statement submitted under this section is binding on the person submitting it and his successors in interest, but is not binding on the commission or any other person in interest.

(k) Nothing in this section shall be construed to recognize any water right which did not exist before August 28, 1967.

(1) This section does not apply to use of water for domestic or livestock purposes.

§ 5.304. Adjudication of Water Rights

The water rights in any stream or segment of a stream may be adjudicated as provided in this subchapter:

(1) on the commission's own motion;

(2) on petition to the commission signed by 10 or more claimants of water rights from the source of supply; or

(3) on petition of the Texas Water Development Board.

§ 5.305. Investigation

(a) Promptly after a petition is filed under Section 5.304 of this code, the commission shall investigate the facts and conditions necessary to determine whether the adjudication would be in the public interest. If the commission finds that an adjudication would be in the public interest, it shall enter an order to that effect, designating the stream or segment to be adjudicated and directing an investigation to be made of the area involved in order to gather relevant data and information essential to the proper understanding of the claims of water rights involved. The results of the investigation shall be reduced to writing and made a matter of record in the commission's office.

(b) In connection with the investigation, the commission shall make a map or plat showing with substantial accuracy the course of the stream or segment and the location of reservoirs, diversion works, and places of use, including lands which are being irrigated or have facilities for irrigation.

§ 5.306. Notice of Adjudication

(a) The commission shall prepare a notice of adjudication which describes the stream or segment to be adjudicated and the date by which all claims of water rights in the stream or segment shall be filed with the commission. The date shall not be less than 90 days after the date the notice is issued.

(b) The notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers having general circulation in the counties in which the stream or segment is located.

(c) The notice shall also be sent by certified mail to each claimant of water rights whose diversion is within the stream or segment to be adjudicated, to the extent that the claimants can reasonably be ascertained from the records of the commission.

§ 5.307. Filing of Sworn Claims

(a) Every person claiming a water right of any nature, except for domestic or livestock purposes, from the stream or segment under adjudication, shall file a sworn claim with the commission within the time prescribed in the notice of adjudication, including any extensions of the prescribed time, setting forth:

(1) the name and post-office address of the claimant;

(2) the location and nature of the right claimed, including a description of any permit or certified filing under which the claim is made;

(3) the purpose of the use;

(4) a description of works and irrigated land; and

(5) all other information necessary to show the nature and extent of the claim.

(b) The commission shall prescribe forms for claims, but use of the commission forms is not mandatory.

§ 5.308. Hearings on Claims; Notice

The commission shall set a time and a place for hearing all claims. Not less than 30 days before commencement of the hearings, the commission shall give notice of the hearings by certified mail to all persons who have filed claims in accordance with Section 5.307 of this code; or this notice may be included in the notice of adjudication provided in Section 5.306 of this code. The hearings shall be conducted as provided in Section 5.337 of this code.

§ 5.309. Preliminary Determination of Claims

(a) On completion of the hearings, the commission shall make a preliminary determination of the claims to water rights under adjudication.

(b) One copy of the preliminary determination shall be furnished without charge to each person who filed a claim in accordance with Section 5.307 of this code. Additional copies of the preliminary determination shall be made available for public inspection at convenient locations throughout the river basin, as designated by the commission. Copies shall also be made available to other interested persons at a reasonable price, based on the cost of reproduction. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 140, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.310. Evidence Open to Inspection
All evidence presented to or considered by the commission shall be open to public inspection for a period of not less than 60 days, as fixed by the commission, after the notice prescribed in Section 5.312 of this code is issued. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 141, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.311. Date for Filing Contests
The commission shall set a date for filing contests on the preliminary determination, which date shall not be less than 90 days after the period for public inspection of the evidence has closed. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 141, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.312. Notice of Preliminary Determination; Copies
(a) Promptly after the preliminary determination is made as provided in Section 5.309 of this code, the commission shall publish notice of the determination once a week for two consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers having general circulation in the river basin in which the stream or segment that is the subject of the adjudication is located. (b) The commission shall also send notice by certified mail to each claimant of water rights within the river basin in which the stream or segment is located, to the extent that the claimants can be reasonably ascertained from the records of the commission. (c) Each notice shall state:

(1) the place and the period of time that the preliminary determination and evidence presented to or considered by the commission will be open for public inspection;
(2) the locations throughout the river basin where copies of the preliminary determination will be available for public inspection;
(3) the method of ordering copies of the preliminary determination, and the charge for copies;
(4) the date by which contests on the preliminary determination must be filed. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 141, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.313. Filing Contests
(a) Any water right claimant affected by the preliminary determination, including any claimant to water rights within the river basin but outside the stream or segment under adjudication, who disputes the preliminary determination, may, within the time for filing contests prescribed by the commission in the notice, including any extension of the time, file a written contest with the commission, stating with reasonable certainty the grounds of his contest.

(b) The statement filed to contest a preliminary determination must be verified by an affidavit of the contestant, his agent, or his attorney.

(c) If the contest is directed against the preliminary determination of the water rights of other claimants, a copy shall be served on each of these claimants or his attorney by certified mail, and proof of service shall be filed with the commission. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 141, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.314. Hearing on Contest; Notice
After the time for filing contests has expired, the commission shall prepare a notice setting forth the part of the preliminary determination to which each contest is directed and the time and place of a hearing on the contest. The notice shall be sent to each claimant of water rights within the river basin in which the stream or segment is located, to the extent that the claimants can be reasonably ascertained from the records of the commission. The hearing shall be conducted as provided in Section 5.337 of this code. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 141, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.315. Final Determination
On completion of the hearings on all contests, the commission shall make a final determination of the claims to water rights under adjudication. The commission shall send a copy of the final determination, and any modification of the final determination, to each claimant whose rights are adjudicated and to each contesting party. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 142, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.316. Application for Rehearing
Within 30 days from the date of the final determination, any affected party may apply to the commission for a rehearing. Applications for rehearing which in the opinion of the commission are without merit may be denied without notice to other parties, but no application for rehearing shall be granted without notice to each claimant whose rights are adjudicated and to each contesting party. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 142, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.317. Filing Final Determination with District Court
(a) As soon as practicable after the disposition of all applications for rehearing, the commission shall file a certified copy of the final determination, together with all evidence presented to or considered by the commission, in a district court of any county in which the stream or segment under adjudication is located. However, if the stream or segment under adjudication includes all or parts of three or more counties and if 10 or more affected persons who appeared in the proceedings petition the commission to do so, the commission shall file the action in a convenient district court of a judicial district which is not within the river basin of the stream or segment under adjudication.
§ 5.318. Exceptions to Final Determination

(a) Any affected person who appeared in the proceeding before the commission may file exceptions to the final determination. An exception must state with a reasonable degree of certainty the grounds for the exception and must specify the particular paragraphs and pages of the determination to which the exception is taken.

(b) Three copies of the exceptions shall be filed in court, and a copy shall be served on the commission. The commission shall make copies of all exceptions available at a reasonable price, based on the cost of reproduction.

§ 5.319. Hearings on Exceptions

(a) The court shall hear any exceptions that have been filed. The commission and all affected persons who appeared in the proceedings before the commission are entitled to appear and be heard on the exceptions. The court may permit other parties in interest to appear and be heard for good cause shown.

(b) The court may conduct nonjury hearings and proceedings at any convenient location within the state. Actual expenses incurred by the court outside its judicial district shall be taxed as costs.

§ 5.320. Scope of Judicial Review

(a) In passing on exceptions, the court shall determine all issues of law and fact independently of the commission's determination. The substantial evidence rule shall not be used. The court shall not consider any exception which was not brought to the commission's attention by application for rehearing. The court shall not consider any issue of fact raised by an exception unless the record of evidence before the commission reveals that the question was genuinely in issue before the commission.

(b) A party in interest may demand a jury trial of any such issue of fact, but the court may in its discretion have a separate trial with a separate jury of any such issue.

(c) The legislature declares that the provisions of this section are not severable from the remainder of this subchapter, and that this subchapter would not have been passed without the inclusion of this section. If this section is for any reason held invalid, unconstitutional, or inoperative in any way, the holding applies to the entire subchapter so that the entire subchapter is null and void.

§ 5.321. Evidence

Any exception heard by the court without a jury may be resolved on the record of evidence before the commission, or the court may take additional evidence or direct that additional evidence be heard by the commission.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 148, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.322. Final Decree

(a) After the final hearing, the court shall enter a decree affirming or modifying the order of the commission.

(b) The court may assess the costs as it deems just.

(c) An appeal may be taken from the decree of the court in the same manner and with the same effect as in other civil cases.

(d) The final decree in every water right adjudication is final and conclusive as to all existing and prior rights and claims to the water rights in the adjudicated stream or segment of a stream. The decree is binding on all claimants to water rights outside the adjudicated stream or segment of a stream.

(e) Except for domestic and livestock purposes or rights subsequently acquired by permit, a water right is not recognized in the adjudicated stream or segment of a stream unless the right is included in the final decree of the court.

§ 5.323. Certificate of Adjudication

(a) When a final determination of the rights to the waters of a stream has been made in accordance with the procedure provided in this subchapter and the time for a rehearing has expired, the commission shall issue to each person adjudicated a water right a certificate of adjudication, signed by the chairman and bearing the seal of the commission.

(b) In the certificate the commission shall include:

(1) a reference to the final decree;

(2) the name and post-office address of the holder of the adjudicated right;

(3) the priority, extent, and purpose of the adjudicated right; and if the right is for irrigation, a description of the irrigated land; and

(4) all other information in the decree relating to the adjudicated right.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 144, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.324. Recordation of Certificate

(a) The commission shall transmit the certificate of adjudication or a true copy to the county clerk of each county in which the appropriation is made.
§ 5.325. Water Divisions

The commission shall divide the state into water divisions for the purpose of administering adjudicated water rights. Water divisions may be created from time to time as the necessity arises. The divisions shall be constituted to secure the best protection to the holders of water rights and the most economical supervision on the part of the state.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 144, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.326. Appointment of Watermaster

(a) The commission may appoint one watermaster for each water division.

(b) A watermaster holds office until a successor is appointed. The commission may remove a watermaster at any time.

(c) The commission may employ assistant watermasters and other employees necessary to aid a watermaster in the discharge of his duties.

(d) In a water division in which the office of watermaster is vacant, the commission has the powers of a watermaster.

(e) The commission shall supervise and generally direct the watermaster in the performance of his duties. A watermaster is responsible to the commission for the proper performance of his duties.

(f) A person dissatisfied with any action of a watermaster may apply to the commission for relief.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 144, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.327. Duties of Watermaster

(a) A watermaster shall divide the water of the streams or other sources of supply of his division in accordance with the adjudicated water rights.

(b) A watermaster shall regulate or cause to be regulated the controlling works of reservoirs and diversion works in time of water shortage, as is necessary because of the rights existing in the streams of his division, or as is necessary to prevent the waste of water or its diversion, taking, storage, or use in excess of the quantities to which the holders of water rights are lawfully entitled.

(c) A watermaster may regulate the distribution of water from any system of works that serves users whose rights have been separately determined.

§ 5.328. Watermaster's Notice Posted

If, in the performance of his duties, a watermaster regulates diversion works or the controlling works of reservoirs, he shall attach to the works a written notice, properly dated and signed, stating that the works have been properly regulated and are wholly under his control. The notice is legal notice to all parties interested in the diversion and distribution of the water served by the diversion works or reservoir.

§ 5.329. Compensation and Expenses of Watermaster

(a) The commission shall pay the compensation and necessary expenses of a watermaster, assistant watermasters, and other necessary employees, but the holders of water rights that have been determined or adjudicated and are to be administered by the watermaster shall reimburse the commission for the compensation and expenses.

(b) After the adjudication decree becomes final, the commission shall notify each holder of water rights under the decree of the amount of compensation that will be required annually for the administration of the water rights so determined.

(c) The commission shall hold a public hearing to determine the apportionment of the costs of administration of adjudicated water rights among the holders of the rights. After a public hearing the commission shall issue an order assessing the annual cost against the holders of water rights to whom the water will be distributed under the final decree. The commission shall equitably apportion the costs. The commission may provide for payments in installments and shall specify the dates by which payments shall be made to the commission.

(d) The commission shall transmit all collections under this section to the state treasurer.

(e) No water shall be diverted, taken, or stored by, or delivered to, any person while he is delinquent in the payment of his assessed costs.

(f) An order of the commission assessing costs remains in effect until the commission issues a further order. The commission may modify, revoke, or supersede an order assessing costs with a subsequent order. The commission may issue supplementary orders from time to time to apply to new diversions.

§ 5.330. Outlet for Free Passage of Water

The owner of any works for the diversion or storage of water shall maintain to the satisfaction of the commission a substantial headgate at the point of diversion, or a gate on each discharge pipe of a pumping plant, constructed so that it can be locked at the proper place by the watermaster, or a suitable outlet in a dam to allow the free passage of water that the owner of the dam is not entitled to divert or impound, the suitability of the outlet to be determined by the commission.

§ 5.331. Measuring Devices

The commission may require the owner of any works for the diversion, taking, storage, or distribution of water to construct and maintain suitable measuring devices at points that will enable the watermaster to determine the quantities of water to be diverted, taken, stored, released, or distributed, in order to satisfy the rights of the respective users. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 146, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.332. Installation of Flumes

The commission may order flumes to be installed along the line of any ditch if necessary for the protection of water rights or other property. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 146, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.333. Failure to Comply with Commission Directions

If the owner of waterworks using state water fails to comply with the directions of the commission given pursuant to Section 5.330, 5.331, or 5.332 of this code, the commission, after 10 days' notice or after a period of additional time that is reasonable under the circumstances, may order the watermaster to make adjustments of the control works to prevent the owner of the works from diverting, taking, storing, or distributing any water until he has fully complied with the order of the commission. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 146, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.334. Suit Against Commission for Injury

Any person who is injured by an act of the commission under this subchapter may bring suit against the commission to review the action or to obtain an injunction. If the water right involved has been adjudicated as provided in this subchapter, the court shall issue an injunction only if it shows that the commission has failed to carry into effect the decree adjudicating the water right. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 146, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.335. Administration of Water Rights Not Adjudicated

(a) If any area in which water rights of record in the office of the commission have not been adjudicated, the claimants of the rights and the commission may enter into a written agreement for their administration. (b) An agreement made under authority of this section shall provide:

(1) the basis and manner of distribution of the waters to which the agreement relates;

(2) the services of a special watermaster, and assistants if necessary, to carry out the agreement; and

(3) the allocation, collection, and payment of the annual costs of administration.

(c) An agreement to administer unadjudicated water rights shall be recorded in the offices of the commission and of the county clerk of each county in which any of the works or lands affected by the agreement are located.

(d) The administration of water rights by agreement is governed by the provisions of this subchapter except as regards allocation and payment of the expenses of the administration.

(e) No agreement authorized by this section impairs any vested right to the use of water or creates any additional rights to the use of water. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 146, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.336. Administration of Permits Issued After Adjudication

Permits, other than temporary permits, that are issued by the commission to appropriate water from an adjudicated stream or segment are subject to administration in the same manner as is provided in this subchapter for adjudicated water rights. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 147, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.337. Hearings: Notice and Procedure

(a) The commission shall give notice of a hearing or other proceeding it orders under this subchapter in the manner prescribed in the rules and regulations of the commission, unless this subchapter specifically provides otherwise.

(b) In any proceeding in any part of the state, the commission may

(1) take evidence, including the testimony of witnesses;

(2) administer oaths;

(3) issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses in the same manner as subpoenas are issued out of the courts of the state;

(4) compel witnesses to testify and give evidence; and

(5) order the taking of depositions and issue commissions for the taking of depositions in the same manner as depositions are obtained in civil actions.

(c) Evidence may be taken by a duly appointed reporter before the commission or before an authorized representative who has the power to administer oaths.

(e) If a person neglects or refuses to comply with an order or subpoena issued by the commission, or refuses to testify on any matter about which he may be lawfully interrogated, the commission may apply to a district court of the county in which the proceeding is held to punish him in the manner provided by law for such disobedience in civil actions.

(f) The commission may adjourn its proceedings from time to time and from place to place.

(g) When a proceeding before the commission is concluded, the commission shall render a decision as to the matters concerning which the proceeding was held.
§ 5.337 WATER CODE 1276

§ 5.338. Cancellation of Water Rights

Nothing in this subchapter recognizes any abandoned or cancelled water right or impairs in any way the power of the commission under general law to forfeit, cancel, or find abandoned any water right, including adjudicated water rights.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 148, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.339. Underground Water Not Affected

This subchapter does not apply to underground water as defined in Section 3c, Chapter 25, Acts of the 39th Legislature, 1925, as amended (Article 7880-3c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). 1
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 148, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

1 Repealed. See, now, § 52.001 et seq. of this code.

§ 5.340. Abatement of Certain Civil Suits

(a) Nothing in this subchapter prevents or precludes a person who claims the right to divert water from a stream from filing and prosecuting to a conclusion a suit against other claimants of the right to divert or use water from the same stream. However, if the commission has ordered a determination of water rights as provided in this subchapter, or if the commission orders such a determination within 90 days after notice of the filing of a suit, the suit shall be abated on the motion of the commission or any party in interest as to any issues involved in the water rights determination.

(b) If a suit is abated as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, the court may grant or continue any temporary relief necessary to preserve the status quo pending a final determination of the water rights involved.

§ 5.341. Saving Clause

This subchapter does not affect any action or proceeding instituted before August 28, 1967, 1 or any right accrued before that date except those specifically provided for in this subchapter.

SUBCHAPTER H. COURT-APPOINTED WATERMASTER

§ 5.401. Scope of Subchapter

The provisions of this subchapter apply to a suit if:

(1) the state is a party;
(2) the purpose of the suit is to determine the right of the parties to divert or use water of a surface stream; and
(3) rights are asserted to use water in, or divert water to, not more than four counties.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 148, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.402. Appointment and Authority of Watermaster

(a) A court having jurisdiction over a suit described in Section 5.401 of this code may appoint a watermaster with power to allocate and distribute, under the supervision of the court, the water taken into judicial custody.

(b) The court may not appoint a watermaster with authority to act both upstream and downstream from an existing reservoir on any surface stream of the state. However, once a watermaster is appointed, the construction of a new reservoir does not invalidate his appointment or restrict his authority over that portion of the stream contemplated by the original order of appointment.

(c) Under terms and conditions prescribed by the court, the watermaster may incur necessary expenses, appoint necessary deputies and assistants, and perform duties and assume responsibilities delegated to him by the court.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 148, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.403. Compensation of Watermaster

The court shall fix the compensation of the watermaster and his staff.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 149, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.404. Expenses and Assessment of Costs of Watermaster

(a) The trial court shall assess the costs and expenses of the watermaster and his staff against all persons receiving an allocation of the water in judicial custody. The court shall assess the costs and expenses monthly or at other time intervals ordered by the court.

(b) The court shall assess the costs and expenses on the basis of:

(1) acreage;
(2) acre-feet of allocated water;
(3) per capita; or
(4) any other formula the court, after notice and hearing, determines to be the most equitable.

(c) During the pendency of an appeal, the trial court, in its discretion, may assess costs against some parties on one basis and against other parties on another basis.

(d) The costs and expenses are not to be taxed as ordinary court costs, but are to be considered costs necessary to protect the rights and privileges of the parties receiving allocations of water during the litigation and are to be paid by those parties.
[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 149, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 5.405. Failure to Pay Assessed Costs

If the costs and expenses assessed are not paid within the time prescribed by the court, the court after notice and hearing may withdraw or limit allocations of water to any party failing or refusing to pay his share until all costs and expenses assessed against him are paid in full.

§ 11.357. Price of Sale: Facilities Acquired under Contracts

(a) The price of the sale or transfer of a facility acquired under a contract shall be the sum of the direct cost of acquisition, plus an interest charge computed at a rate of one-half of one percent per year from the date of acquisition of the facility to the date of sale or transfer, plus interest at the cumulative average effective rate on all water development bonds sold up to the date of the sale or transfer for each year or portion of a year for which the board paid interest to the other party to the contract, plus the board's cost of operating and maintaining the facility from the date of acquisition to the date of the sale or transfer, less any payments received by the board from the lease of the facility or the sale of water from it.

(b) If, in transferring any contract, the board remains in any way directly, conditionally, or contingently liable for the performance of any part of the contract, then the transferee, in addition to the payments prescribed by Subsection (a) of this section, shall pay to the board annually one-half of one percent of the remaining amount owed to the other party to the contract, and shall continue these payments until the board is fully released from the contract.

§ 11.358. Costs Defined

2. The state's annual cost for operation, maintenance, and rehabilitation of the facility.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 178, ch. 58, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 11.360. Sale or Lease: Condition Precedent

(a) No sale, transfer, or lease of a state facility is valid unless the board first makes the following affirmative findings:

1. That the applicant has a permit granted by the commission;
2. That the sale, transfer, or lease will contribute to the conservation and development of the water resources of the state; and
(3) that the consideration for the sale, transfer, or lease is fair, just, and reasonable and in full compliance with the law.

(b) The consideration for any such sale or transfer may be either money or revenue bonds, which revenue bonds, for the purposes hereof, shall be deemed the same as money.

(c) The amount of money shall be equal to the price for purchasing the facilities as prescribed by the provisions of Section 11.357 of this code, or if revenue bonds shall constitute the consideration, the principal amount of such revenue bonds shall be equal to the price for purchasing the facilities as prescribed by the provisions of Section 11.357 of this code and such revenue bonds shall bear interest at the rate prescribed in Section 11.409 of this code with regard to bonds purchased with the proceeds of the Texas Water Development Fund.

§ 11.361. Disposition of Proceeds

(a) The money received from any sale, transfer, or lease of facilities as cash, or in the case of a sale or transfer involving revenue bonds, the money received as matured interest or principal on the bonds shall be used to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds incurred by the board. The money shall be collected and credited to the proper special fund as is money received in payment of principal and interest on loans to political subdivisions under this chapter, taking into consideration the manner in which the facilities were acquired.

(b) When enough money has been collected to pay all outstanding indebtedness, including the principal of all state bonds and contractual obligations and the full amount of interest to accrue on these debts, the board may use any further amounts received from the sale, transfer, or lease of facilities to acquire additional facilities or to provide assistance to political subdivisions for water supply projects.

(b) Whether the application for a permit involves a proposed use of water inside or outside the watershed of the impoundment, the commission shall give paramount consideration to recouping the state's investment in order to protect the public interest and promote the general welfare.

(c) The permit shall be conditioned on continued payment of the obligations assumed under the contract with the board and may provide for cancellation at any time on breach of the contract.

(a) The board may determine the consideration and other provisions to be included in water sale contracts, but the consideration and other provisions shall be fair, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory. The board may include charges for standby service, which means holding water and conservation storage space for use and for actual delivery of water.

(b) The board shall make the same determinations with respect to the sale of water as are required in Section 11.360 of this code with respect to the sale or lease of facilities.

(c) The board shall not compete with any political subdivision in the sale of water when this competition jeopardizes the ability of the political subdivision to meet obligations incurred to finance its own water supply projects.

§ 11.365. Emergency Releases of Water

Unappropriated water and other water of the state stored in any facility acquired by and under the control of the board may be released without charge to relieve any emergency condition arising from drought, severe water shortage, or public calamity, if the Texas Water Rights Commission first determines the existence of the emergency and requests the board to release water.

Preferences shall be given in these respects in accord with the provisions of Section 5.122 of this code relating to preferences in the appropriation and use of state water. The board and the Texas Water Rights Commission shall coordinate their efforts to meet these objectives and to assure that the public water of this state, which is held in trust for the use and benefit of the public, will be conserved, developed, and utilized in the greatest practicable measure for the public welfare.

§ 11.401. Financial Assistance

The water development account may be used by the board to provide financial assistance to political subdivisions for the construction, acquisition, or improvement of projects, but to the extent that financial assistance is given by the board to an applicant for construction, acquisition, or improvement of any waste water treatment plant, the financial assistance shall be considered as state matching funds for obtaining maximum federal grants for construction of treatment works.

3. the total cost of the project;
4. the amount of state financial assistance requested;
5. the plan for repaying the total cost of the project; and
6. any other information the board requires in order to perform its duties and to protect the public interest.

(b) The board may not accept an application for financial assistance unless it is submitted in affidavit form by the officials of the political subdivision.
