Art. 1926-15. Criminal District Court No. 5 of Dallas County

A. There is hereby created, effective October 1, 1965, in and for Dallas County, Texas, one additional Criminal Judicial District to be known as Criminal Judicial District No. 5, and the court of said district shall be known as the Criminal District Court No. 5 of Dallas County, Texas. The limits of said district shall be coextensive with the limits of Dallas County, Texas.

B. The Criminal District Court No. 5 shall have and exercise the powers conferred by the constitution and laws of the State of Texas on the judges of the existing Criminal District Courts of Dallas County, Texas, and the jurisdiction of said court shall be concurrent with that of the existing Criminal District Courts of Dallas County, Texas. The said court shall have and exercise, in addition to the jurisdiction now conferred by law on said court, concurrent jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of Dallas County in all actions, proceedings, matters and causes, both civil and criminal, of which district courts of general jurisdiction are given jurisdiction by the constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

C. The terms of said Criminal District Court No. 5 shall begin on the first Monday of January, April, July, and October of each year respectively, and each of said terms of said court shall continue until the convening of the next succeeding term.

D. The Judge of said Criminal District Court No. 5 is authorized to appoint an official court reporter for such court, and said court reporter shall have the qualifications now required by law for official shorthand reporters. Such reporter shall perform the duties as required by law and such duties as may be assigned to the court reporter by the judge of such court and shall receive as compensation for his services the compensation now allowed or hereinafter allowed for the official shorthand reporters for the District Courts of Dallas County, Texas, under the laws of this state.

E. The district clerk shall equalize the dockets of the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County by transferring cases from the Criminal District Court, the Criminal District Court No. 2, the Criminal District Court No. 3, and the Criminal District Court No. 4 to the Criminal District Court No. 5 hereby created.

F. The judges of any of the District Courts in Dallas County may in his discretion try and dispose of any causes, matters or proceedings for any other judge of said courts. Either of the judges of said District Courts of Dallas County may at his discretion at termtime or in vacation transfer a case or cases to said other district court with the consent of the judge of said other district court by order entered in the minutes of his court. When such transfer is ordered, the District Clerk of Dallas County shall certify all orders made in said case and such certified copies of such orders together with the original papers shall be filed among the papers of the case thus transferred and the fees thereof shall be taxed as part of the costs of said suit and the clerk of said court shall docket any such case in the court to which it shall have been transferred, and when so entered, the court to which same shall have been thus transferred shall have like jurisdiction therein as in cases originally filed in said court. All process and writs issued out of the district court from which any such transfer is made shall be returnable to the court to which said transfer is made.

G. The District Attorney of Dallas County shall also be the district attorney for the additional Criminal District Court hereby created.

H. The District Clerk of Dallas County, Texas shall also act as District Clerk for the Criminal District Court No. 5 hereby created.

I. The Sheriff of Dallas County, either in person or by deputy shall attend the Criminal District Court No. 5 as required by the judge thereof, and the sheriff and constables of the several counties of this state, with executing processes issued out of said court, shall receive fees as provided by General Law for executing processes issued out of district courts.

J. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued out of the District Courts or Criminal District Courts of Dallas County are hereby made returnable to the said District Courts of Dallas County as required by law, and all bonds executed and recognizances entered by and in said courts shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of such courts as fixed by law and this Act, and all processes heretofore returned or hereafter returned to the District Courts of Dallas County shall be valid.

K. Except as herein otherwise provided, the laws and parts of laws applicable to District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Dallas County shall be applicable to the Criminal District Court No. 5 created by this Act.

L. If any provision of this Act is held unconstitutional or invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Act. Except as otherwise provided in this Act all laws now in effect with respect to Judicial District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Dallas County shall apply respectively to the Criminal District Court No. 5 created by this Act.

M. The Governor shall appoint a suitable person as Judge of the Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County created by this Act, who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. At the first general election after the creation of said court provided for herein, the judge of said court shall be elected for a term of four (4) years. Such person so appointed and elected shall have the qualifications provided by the constitution and the laws of this state for district judges.

A sum of $16,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1966, and a sum of $16,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1967, is hereby appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for the salary of the Judge of the Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County. The salary shall be paid as provided by law.

JURISDICTION

Art. 1926-21. Concurrent Jurisdiction of Criminal District Courts with County Court at Law

Sec. 1. The Criminal District Court and Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with each other and with the County Court of Dallas County at Law in all matters and proceedings relative to misdemeanor causes of which the County Court of Dallas County at Law now has jurisdiction and either of the judges of said Criminal District Courts and the judge of said County Court of Dallas County at Law may, in his discretion, or upon the motion of the county attorney of Dallas county, transfer by written order or orders, entered upon the minutes of said court, any misdemeanor cause or misdemeanor causes that may at any time be pending in either of said courts to either of the other of said courts, as should, in his discretion, be transferred or as may be ordered for in the motion of the county attorney.

Sec. 2. Upon the transfer of any such cause or causes from said County Court of Dallas County at Law to either of said Criminal District Courts it shall be the duty of the county clerk of Dallas County to prepare and forward with the papers in said cause or causes so transferred a bill of the cost then accrued which said cost shall follow said cause or causes, and be taxed in said cause or causes with any other cost that may accrue in said cause or causes in either of said Criminal District Courts to which said cause or causes may be transferred; provided that the county clerk of Dallas County making such a bill of cost shall receive the sum of 50 cents for the preparation and forwarding of said bill of cost, in each cause so transferred, which said sum and cost shall be taxed in said cause and collected as other cost in the manner now provided by law; and the clerk of the District Court of Dallas County shall likewise, upon the transfer of any such cause from either of said Criminal District Courts to the County Court of Dallas County at Law, prepare such bill of cost and forward same as provided therein, and shall receive the same compensation as herein provided for the county clerk of Dallas County in such cases.

Sec. 3. The clerk of the District Court of Dallas County shall keep for each of said Criminal District Courts a misdemeanor docket and a misdemeanor motion docket in like manner as is now provided for by law for the County Court of Dallas County at Law, and upon any such cause or causes being transferred from the County Court of Dallas County at Law or from one of said Criminal District Courts to the other, said cause or causes shall be docketed as now provided by law for the County Court of Dallas County at Law.

Sec. 4. In trial of causes transferred to either of the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County from the County Court of Dallas County at Law, the trials, pleadings and practice shall be the same as in trial of other causes over which the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County now have jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. The county attorney of Dallas county and all other officers shall receive the same fees in misdemeanor causes in said Criminal District Courts as are now provided by law in the County Court of Dallas County at Law and in all other matters of cost tax in said causes in said Criminal District Courts, the item shall in no event be greater than that provided by law for such items in the County Court of Dallas County at Law, and all such cost in such causes shall be paid to the officers of the court in which same is accrued.

Sec. 6. [General repealer.]

Sec. 7. All misdemeanor causes of which the County Court of Dallas County now has jurisdiction may be filed originally with the clerk of the district [court] of Dallas 1 county, in either the Criminal District Court of Dallas County or the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the filing of such causes with the county clerk of Dallas County in the County Court of Dallas County at Law.

Sec. 7a. Said Criminal District Courts shall have jurisdiction on all bail bonds and recognizances taken in proceedings had before such courts; in all causes transferred to said courts from either of them or that may be transferred to said courts from the County Court of Dallas County at Law; and may enter forfeitures thereof; and final judgment and enforce the collection of same by proper process in the manner as provided by law in said bond proceeding; and all bail bonds, recognizances or other obligations taken for the appearance of defendants, parties and witnesses, in either the County Court of Dallas County at Law or Criminal District Court of Dallas County or Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, shall be binding on all such defendants, parties and witnesses and their sureties for appearance in either of said courts in which said cause may be pending or to which same may be transferred.

Art. 1926-22. Jurisdiction Increased

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the Criminal District Court of Dallas County, and upon the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, said Courts shall hereafter have and exercise civil jurisdiction in suits, causes and matters of:

(1) Divorce, as provided in Chapter 4, Title 76, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and any amendments thereof, heretofore or hereafter made thereto.
(2) Dependent and delinquent children, as provided in Title 43, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and any amendments thereof, heretofore or hereafter made thereto.

(3) Adoption, as provided in Title 3, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and any and all amendments heretofore or that may hereafter be made thereto.

(4) Habeas Corpus proceedings in civil matters.

Sec. 2. In all matters pertaining to the additional jurisdiction herein conferred upon said Courts, all the officers of said Courts shall have the same powers, rights and duties that are now or that may hereafter be conferred upon the same or similar officers in the other District Courts of Dallas County, Texas; and all fees and costs in such matters shall be the same as now or that may hereafter be provided in the same or similar matters in the other District Courts of Dallas County, Texas.

Sec. 3. Any Judge of any District Court of Dallas County may, at his discretion, transfer any cause or causes set out in Section 1 hereof that may at any time be pending in his Court to any other District Court of Dallas County by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his Court; and the presiding Judge of the District Courts of Dallas County may in like manner assign any case in his Court or in any of the District Courts in Dallas County involving or pertaining to the matters set out in Section 1 hereof to any other Judge or Court, including the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County, or may assign any Judge to try any of said causes in any of said Courts, and the Judge in whose Court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the cause to the Court to which it is assigned, and the Judge of the Court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case. When such transfer or transfers are made the Clerk of such Court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which said transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the Judge shall try and dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 4. The trials and proceedings in said Courts in such matters shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice and proceedings in civil cases in the District Courts and in conformity with the provisions of Article 2092, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and all appeals in such civil cases shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals for the Fifth Supreme Judicial District of Texas in the manner now or that may hereafter be provided by law.

JUDGES; CRIMINAL DISTRICT ATTORNEYS

Art. 1926–27. Judges of Criminal District Courts May Sit in Either Court

From and after the time this law shall take effect the Criminal District Court of Dallas County, Texas, and the Criminal District Court Number Two of Dallas County, Texas, and the respective judges thereof, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all felony cases, and in all misdemeanor cases in which said courts have, or may hereafter have, concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Dallas County at Law, and in all matters and proceedings of which either of said criminal district courts of Dallas County, Texas, now have jurisdiction; and either of the judges of said criminal district courts may, in his discretion, in the absence of the judge of the other criminal district court from his courtroom, or from the County of Dallas, Texas, try and dispose of any cause or causes that may be pending in such criminal district court as fully as could such absent judge were he personally present and presiding. And either of said judges may receive in open court from the presiding officer of the grand jury any bill or bills of indictment in the court to which such bill or bills of indictment may be returnable, entering the presentment of such bill or bills of indictment in the minutes of the proceedings of such court, and may hear and receive from any impaneled petit jury any report, information or verdict, and make and cause to be entered any order or orders in reference thereto, or with reference to the continuation of the deliberation of such petit jury or their final discharge, as fully and completely as such absent district judge could do if personally present and presiding over such court; and may make any other order or orders in such courts respecting the causes therein pending or the proceedings pertaining thereto, as the regular judge of said criminal district court could make if personally present and presiding.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926–26. Criminal District Attorney; Duties; Salary; Fees; Accounting; Assistants; Oath; Powers; Report of Expenses; Election

Sec. 1. See article 199 (14th Dist.).

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Criminal Judicial District of Dallas County, Texas, an attorney for said district, who shall be styled the "Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County," and who shall hold his office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said Criminal District Attorney shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State, of other district attorneys.
Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney or his assistants, as hereinafter provided to be in attendance upon each term of the "Criminal Court of Dallas County" and the "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County" and to represent the state in all matters pending before said courts. And he shall have exclusive control of all criminal cases wherever pending, or in whatever court in Dallas County that now has jurisdiction of criminal cases, as well as any or all courts that may hereafter be created and given jurisdiction in criminal cases, and he shall have the fees therefor fixed by law. He shall also have control of any and all cases heard on habeas corpus before any civil district court of Dallas County, as well as before the Criminal Court of said county. The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within said Criminal District of Dallas County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state.

It is further provided that he and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and it shall be their sole duty to perform the duties provided for in this Act, except in cases of absence from the county of the Criminal District Attorney and his assistants, or their inability or refusal to act; and no other person shall have the power to perform the duties provided for in this Act, or to represent the state in any criminal case in Dallas County, except in case of the absence from Dallas County, or the inability or refusal to act of the Criminal District Attorney and his assistants.

Sec. 4. The said Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive a salary of $800.00 per annum, to be paid by the state, and in addition thereto shall receive the following fees in felony cases, to be paid by the state; for each conviction of felonious homicide, where the defendant does not appeal or dies, or escapes after appeal and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of forty dollars. For all other convictions in felony cases, where the defendant does not appeal, or dies, or escapes, after appeal, and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of thirty dollars; provided, that in all convictions of felony, in which punishment is fixed by the verdict and judgment by confinement in the House of Correction and Reformatory, his fee shall be fifteen dollars. For representing the state in each case of habeas corpus where the defendant is charged with felony, the sum of twenty dollars. For representing the state in examining trials, in felony cases, where indictment is returned, in each case, the sum of five dollars. The Criminal District Attorney shall also receive such fees for other services rendered by him as is now, or may hereafter be authorized by law to be paid to other district and county attorneys in this state for such services.

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall retain out of the fees earned and collected by him the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum and in addition thereto one fourth of the gross excess of all such fees in excess of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum to an amount not in excess of two thousand dollars. The three fourths remaining to be applied first to the payment of the salaries of the Assistant District Attorneys and extra assistant District Attorneys and stenographer as hereinafter provided for. The remainder to be paid into the treasury of Dallas County; provided that in arriving at the amount collected by him he shall include the fees arising from all classes of criminal cases whether felony or misdemeanor arising in any of the courts in Dallas County now existing, or which may hereafter be created including habeas corpus hearing and fines and forfeitures; provided that after the 30th day of November and before the first day of January following of each year, he shall make a full and complete report and accounting to the county judge of Dallas County of all such fees so collected by him; provided that in addition to the above he shall receive ten per cent, for the collection of delinquent fees as is now provided by law relating to the collection of delinquent fees by county and district attorneys. Such fees however, to be included in the reports herein provided for and to be taken into consideration in arriving at the total maximum compensation provided in this Act.

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County may appoint two assistant criminal district attorneys who shall each receive a salary of not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum payable monthly, and four additional assistant district attorneys who shall each receive a salary of not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars a year payable monthly. He may appoint a stenographer who shall receive a salary of not more than twelve hundred dollars per annum payable monthly.

In addition to the assistant criminal district attorneys and stenographer above provided for, said Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County may, with the approval of the county judge and commissioners court of Dallas county, appoint as many additional extra assistant district attorneys as may be necessary to properly administer the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney and enforce the law, upon the Criminal District Attorney making application under oath addressed to the county judge of Dallas county, setting out the need therefor; provided, the county judge, with the approval of the commissioners court, may discontinue the services of any one or more of said extra assistant criminal district attorneys so appointed, the salary of said extra assistant criminal district attorney to be fixed by the commissioners court of Dallas county.

Sec. 7. The assistant criminal district attorneys and the extra assistant criminal district attorneys above provided for, when so appointed, shall take oath of office and be authorized to represent the state before said criminal district court, and in all other courts of Dallas county, in which the criminal district attorney of Dallas county is authorized by this Act to represent the state, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said criminal district attorney, and which said assistants shall be subject to removal at the will of the said criminal district attorney. Each of said assistant criminal district attorneys shall be authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon the said criminal district attorney when by him so authorized. The criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be paid the same fees for services rendered by his assistants as he would be entitled to receive if the services shall have been rendered by himself.

Sec. 8. The criminal district attorney of Dallas county is authorized, with the consent of the county judge and county commissioners of Dallas county, to appoint not to exceed two assistants in addition to his regular assistant criminal district attorneys, provided for in this Act, which two assistants shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for district or county attorneys, and who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the criminal district attorney, and who shall receive as their compensation one hundred dollars per month each, to be paid in monthly installments out of the county funds of Dallas county, Texas, by warrants drawn on such county fund; and provided further, that the criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be allowed a sum of money by order of said commissioners court of Dallas county, as in the judgment of the commissioners court may be deemed necessary, to the proper administration of the duties of such office not to exceed, however, the amount of fifty dollars per month. Such amount as may be thus necessarily incurred shall be paid by the commissioners court upon affidavit made by the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, showing the necessity for such expenditure and for what the same was incurred. The commissioners court may also require any other evidence as in their opinion may be necessary to show the necessity for such expenditure, but they shall be the sole judge as to the necessity for such expenditure and their judgment allowing same shall be final.

Sec. 9. The criminal district attorney shall at the close of each month of the tenure of such office make, as a part of the report required by this Act, an itemized and sworn statement of the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him in the conduct of his said office, such as stamps, stationery, books, telephone, traveling expenses and other necessary expenses. If such expenses be incurred in connection with any particular case such statement shall name such case. Such expense account shall be subject to the audit of the county auditor and if it appears that any item of such expenses was not incurred by such officer or that such item was not necessary thereto, such item may be by the said auditor rejected, in which case the correction of such item may be adjudicated in any court of competent jurisdiction. The amount of such expense shall be deducted by the criminal district attorney of Dallas county in making such a report from the amount if any due by him to the county under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 10. The criminal district attorney of Dallas county, as provided for in this Act, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the criminal judicial district of Dallas county at the next general election, and it is provided and directed that the present county attorney of Dallas county, Texas shall continue in office and assume the duties and be known as the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, Texas, and proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of criminal district attorney of Dallas county, and appoint assistants as provided for in this Act and receive the fees provided for in this Act for such office until the next general election and until the criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be elected and qualified. 1926 C.C.P.)

Sec. 11. Such office may be created and established at the city of Ft. Worth a Criminal District Court to be known as "Criminal District Court of Tarrant County," which Court shall have and exercise, from and after the taking effect of this Act, original and exclusive jurisdiction over all criminal cases of the grade of felony in the county of Tarrant of which district courts, under the Constitution and laws of this State, have original and exclusive jurisdiction, and shall have and exercise such concurrent jurisdiction with the county court of Tarrant county over misdemeanor cases as is hereinafter provided by this Act.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this Act shall take effect, the county court of Tarrant county and the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county created by this Act, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all misdemeanor cases of which the county court of Tarrant county may now, or may hereafter have exclusive jurisdiction; and of such misdemeanor cases as shall be filed in said county court on appeal from justices' or recorders' courts; and either the judge of said Criminal District Court, or the judge of said county court of Tarrant county, may upon motion of the county attorney of Tarrant county, or other officer representing the State in said courts, in his discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers, are made, the clerk of the court making such transfer shall certify to the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made a statement of the cause or causes so transferred giving the style and number of the same to the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made and shall accompany such statement with all the papers in said cause or causes so transferred and upon receipt of such statement and the papers in such cause or causes so transferred, the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said court.

Sec. 3. Said court shall have jurisdiction over all bail bonds and recognizances taken in proceedings had before said court, or that may be returned to said court from other courts, and may enter forfeitures thereof and final judgments, and enforce the collection of the same by proper process in the same manner as is provided by law in district courts.

Sec. 4. The said Criminal District Court of Tarrant county shall have a seal similar to the seal of the district court with the words "Criminal District Court of Tarrant county" engraved thereon, an impression of which seal shall be attached to all writs and other processes, except subpoenas, issuing from said court, and shall be used in the authentication of the official acts of the clerk of said court.

Sec. 5. The practice in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the practice in the district court, and the rules of pleading and evidence in the district court shall govern insofar as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 6. All laws regulating the selection, summoning and impanelling of grand and petit jurors in the district court shall govern and apply in the Criminal District Court in so far as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 7. All rules of criminal procedure governing the district and county courts shall apply to and govern said Criminal District Court.

Sec. 8. Said Criminal District Court of Tarrant County shall try all misdemeanor cases coming before it with six jurors instead of twelve jurors, unless a jury be waived by the defendant.

Sec. 9. Said Court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, one term beginning the first Monday of October, one term beginning the first Monday of January. Each term shall continue until the term ends by operation of law or the business is disposed of. The grand jury shall be impanelled in said court for each term thereof, unless otherwise directed by the judge of said Court.

Sec. 10. Whenever the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County shall be engaged in the trial of any cause when the time for expiration of the terms of said court as fixed by law shall arrive, the judge presiding shall have the power, and may, if he deems it expedient, continue the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial; in such case, the extension of such term shall be shown on the minutes of the court before they are signed.

Sec. 11. The sheriff, county attorney, and the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county shall be the sheriff, county attorney and clerk, respectively, of said Criminal District Court under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys, and clerks of the district courts of this State; and said sheriff, county attorney and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed for such officers in the district courts of the State, to be paid in the same manner, provided that the clerk of the court herein created, shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of $125.00 (one hundred and twenty-five dollars) per month, to be paid as all the salaries of other clerks of criminal district courts in this State.

Sec. 12. In all such matters over which said Criminal District Court has jurisdiction, it shall have the same power within said district as is conferred by law upon the district court, and shall be governed by the same rule in the exercise of said power.

Sec. 13. Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from said Criminal District Court to the court of criminal appeals in criminal cases and to the courts of civil appeals in the same manner and form as from district courts in like cases.

Sec. 14. From and after the taking effect of this Act, the district courts of Tarrant county as now constituted, shall be, and they are hereby deprived and divested of all jurisdiction in all criminal cases, and of all jurisdiction given the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county by this Act, and all criminal causes pending in said district courts at the time of the taking effect of this Act and all matters pertaining to criminal cases pending therein over which the court herein created is given jurisdiction, shall be, by the judges of the other district courts ordered transferred to and entered upon the docket of said Criminal District Court, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said Criminal District Court shall try and dispose of same in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted therein. Provided that the other district courts of Tarrant county shall have jurisdiction concurrently with this court to empanel grand juries and to receive their bills of indictment and make proper transfer of same to the Criminal District Court.

Sec. 15. The judge of said Criminal Court of Tarrant county shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of a district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter be paid, to the district judges to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges of this State in criminal cases. Provided, that the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, shall appoint a judge of said court who shall hold the office until the next general election after the passage of this Act, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Sec. 16. The judge of said criminal district court may exchange districts with or hold court for any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of a judge, a special judge may be selected.

Sec. 17. All orders heretofore issued and all process heretofore issued in any criminal cause so transferred are hereby validated and made of full force and effect in the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county.

Said from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-42. Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established a Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County, Texas, to be composed of the County of Tarrant, in which shall be co-extensive with the territorial boundaries and limits of said Tarrant County, and the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall have and exercise all of the criminal jurisdiction of and for said Criminal District of Tarrant County, Texas, which is now conferred by law on said Criminal District Court.

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County, Texas, an Attorney for said District who shall be styled the "Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County" and who shall hold his office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said Criminal District Attorney shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State, of other District Attorneys.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney or his assistants as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County and of all sessions and terms of the County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, held for the transaction of criminal business, and to represent the state in all matters pending before said courts, and to represent Tarrant County in all matters pending before such courts, the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County and Justice Courts and any other courts where said Tarrant County has pending business of any kind or matter of concern or interest; provided, however, the Commissioners Court may employ the services of the Criminal District Attorney or his assistants, or if the court elects to do so it may employ special counsel of its own choice, learned in the law, to represent the county in all condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of right-of-way for highways and proper purposes where the right of eminent domain is given to the county; and particularly with authority to render aid and work with the Commissioners Court, the county engineer and other county employees in the preparation of documents necessary in the acquisition of rights-of-way for the county, or in cases where the county is required to obtain right-of-way for state highways, or to assist in the acquisition of such rights-of-way. Such employment may be made for such time and on such terms as the Commissioners Court may deem proper and expedient; provided, however, that the compensation for such employment shall be paid out of the Road and Bridge fund of Tarrant County. The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within such criminal district of Tarrant County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state except in regard to condemnation proceedings where the Commissioners Court elects to hire a special counsel.

Sec. 4. Said Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive as salary and compensation the following and no more:

A salary of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars from the State of Texas, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas, for the salary of District Attorney, and so much of the fees, commissions and perquisites earned by said office to make up the total compensation to the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000) Dollars; provided, that the amounts of such salary, fees and perquisites to be received and retained by him shall never exceed the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000) Dollars in any one year; and, provided, further, that all salaries, fees, commissions and perquisites so earned and received by such office in excess of $6,000 during each and every fiscal year shall be paid into the County Treasury of said county in accordance with the terms and provisions of the maximum fee bill, except as to such portion of such excess as shall be used and expended in the payment of salaries to deputies, as herein-after provided.

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of such office, shall be and is hereby authorized, by and with the written consent of the county judge of said county, to appoint such assistant district attorneys who shall have all the qualifications of the criminal district attorney, as are necessary to perform the duties and affairs of such office, not to exceed six in number, two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed three thousand dollars each per annum; two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-five hundred dollars each per annum; one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum; and, provided further, that all salaries, fees, commissions and perquisites so earned and received by such office in excess of $6,000 during each and every fiscal year shall be paid into the County Treasury of said county in accordance with the terms and provisions of the maximum fee bill, except as to such portion of such excess as shall be used and expended in the payment of salaries to deputies, as herein-after provided.

Sec. 6. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys above provided for when so appointed shall take the oath of office as such, and be authorized to represent the State before the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County in which the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County is authorized by this Act to represent the State, or to represent Tarrant County. Each of said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys shall be authorized to the payment of fees, file information, examine witnesses before the Grand Jury, and generally to perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon such Criminal District Attorney when by him so authorized and directed.

Sec. 7. Said Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall be clothed with all the powers and vested with all the rights and privileges conferred upon County Attorneys and District Attorneys of the State, and shall receive no salary or compensation or perquisites or fees of any character save those provided in Section 4 of this Act. All fees or commissions from all sources, including fees and commissions in all criminal and civil cases, and for the prosecution of all tax suits, and from every other source, shall be turned over to the County Treasurer of said County by the said District Attorney, subject only to the payment of the salary of himself and his deputies, as provided in this Act.

Sec. 8. The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, as provided for in this Act shall be elected by the qualified voters of the Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County at the next general election, but it is provided and directed that the present County Attorney of Tarrant County shall continue in office and assume the duties and be known as the "Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County" and shall proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, and appoint Assistants as provided for in this Act, and receive the compensation and salary provided for in this Act for such office until the next general election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Provided this Act shall not be construed as, creating any Court additional to those now existing in Tarrant County.

Art. 1926-42a. Change of Name to Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County

(a) The name of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, created by Chapter 80, General Laws, Acts of the 86th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1919 (Articles 52-64 through 52-87, Vernon’s Texas Code of Criminal Procedure). 1 is changed to the Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County.

(b) Wherever the name “Criminal District Court of Tarrant County” appears in the statutes of this state, or in any document, the name refers to the Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County.

1 See, now, articles 1926-41 and 1926-42.

Art. 1926–43. Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County

Sec. 1. That there is hereby created and established at the City of Fort Worth, a Criminal District Court to be known as the “Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County”, which Court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County 1 under the constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this law shall take effect, the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all felony and misdemeanor causes, and in all matters and proceedings of which the said Criminal District Court of Tarrant County 1 has jurisdiction; and either of the Judges of said Criminal District Courts may in their discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other Criminal District Court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made the Clerk of such Criminal District Court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which said transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the Judge of that court shall try and dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted in said court.

Sec. 3. From and after the date this Act shall take effect the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall have and exercise original and concurrent jurisdiction over misdemeanor cases as is hereafter provided by this Act.

Sec. 4. Immediately after this Act takes effect the Clerk of the County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2, Tarrant County, Texas, shall transfer all civil cases which may be pending in the County Court at Law No. 1 to the County Court at Law No. 2, and all misdemeanor cases which may be pending in said County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2, to the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas; and the office of Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be abolished and the said County Court at Law No. 2 shall hereafter be known as the County Court at Law of Tarrant County, Texas. All process and orders issued by the court transferring any case under the provisions of this Act shall be valid for all purposes in the court to which such case is transferred as if originally issued or made by the court to which such case is transferred.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the said Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant County for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as required of the Judge of a District Court, and shall receive the same salary as is now or may hereafter be provided for the District Judges and to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by District Judges of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County. 1 The Judge of said court may exchange with any District Judge, as provided by law in cases of District Judges, and, in case of disqualification or absence of a Judge, a Special Judge may be selected, elected or appointed as provided by law in cases of District Judges; provided, that the Governor, under the authority now provided by law, upon this Act becoming effective shall appoint a Judge of said court, who shall hold the office until the next general election after the passage of this law, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Either of the Judges of said Criminal District Courts may, in his discretion, in the absence or inability to serve of the Judge of the other Criminal District Court from his court room or from the County of Tarrant, Texas, try and dispose of any cause or causes that may be pending in such Criminal District Court as fully as could such absent Judge were he personally present and presiding. And either of said Judges may receive in open court from the Foreman of the grand jury any bill or bills of indictment in the court to which such bill or bills of indictment may be returnable, entering the presentment of such bill or bills of indictment in the minutes of the proceedings of such court, and may hear and receive from any empaneled petit jury any report, information or verdict, and make and cause to be entered any order or orders in reference thereto, or with reference to the continuation of the deliberation of such petit jury or their final discharge, as fully and completely as such other District Judge could do if personally present and presiding over such court; and make any other order or orders in such courts respecting the causes therein pending or the procedure pertaining thereto as the regular Judge of said Criminal District Court could make if personally present and presiding.

Sec. 6. Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for District Courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seal of the District Courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the Clerk and attested by the seal of said court shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state in like manner as similar certified copies from the courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible.

Sec. 7. The Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney and Clerk of the District Courts of Tarrant County, as heretofore provided by law, shall be the Sheriff, District Attorney and Clerk, respectively, of said Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County under the same rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of Sheriffs, District Attorneys and Clerks of the District Courts of the state; and said Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney and Clerk shall, respectively, receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such offices in the District Courts of the state and to be paid in the same manner.

Sec. 8. The County Commissioners Court shall have authority to authorize the employment of such additional Deputy District Clerks as in their judgment shall be required, and to pay out of the General Fund of the county for their services such Deputy or Deputies to be appointed by the District Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, and to be removable at the will of the Clerk, and to be paid a salary not to exceed the compensation allowed by law to other Deputy District Clerks. The Criminal District Attorney may appoint an Assistant Criminal District Attorney, in addition to those now provided by law, to attend said court. Said Assistant shall have the authority and shall qualify as provided by law for Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, and shall receive a salary not to exceed the maximum salary allowed Assistant Criminal District Attorneys; said salary to be payable as is provided by law.

Sec. 9. Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it; one term beginning the first Monday in January, one term beginning the first Monday in April, one term beginning on the first Monday in July, and one term beginning the first Monday in October, of each year. The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the law governing the practice and proceedings in felony and misdemeanor cases. The District Judges of the Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County may alternately appoint Grand Jury Commissioners and empanel grand juries.

Sec. 10. All laws regulating the selection, summoning and empaneling of grand and petit jurors in the District Courts shall govern and apply in the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County to the extent that the same may be applicable. Provisions of the articles commonly known as the "Jury Wheel Law" shall remain in full force and effect as far as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 10a. The salary for such District Judge shall be the same as the salary provided for other District Judges in this state. There is hereby appropriated to pay the salary of such Judge for the biennium beginning September 1, 1947, the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars for each year of such biennium, which said salary shall be paid in monthly installments out of the General Revenue Fund of the state in the same manner as provided for other District Judges in House Bill No. 244, Acts of the Regular Session, 50th Legislature, 1947.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-44. Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County

A. Creation and Jurisdiction. The Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County is created. Its jurisdiction is identical with that provided by law for the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County and shall be exercised concurrently.

B. Terms of Court. The terms of the Criminal District Court No. 3 begin on the first Monday in April, the first Monday in July, the first Monday in October, and the first Monday in January of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term convenes.

C. Judge. As soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, the Governor shall appoint to the Criminal District Court No. 3 a person qualified to serve as a District Judge under the Constitution and laws of this state.
The judge appointed holds office until the next general election at which his successor is duly elected and until he qualifies; and each elected successor holds office for a term of four years. The judge appointed and his successor is entitled to the same compensation and allowances provided by law for District Judges of Tarrant County, Texas.

D. Appropriation. A sum of $16,000.00 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1966, and a sum of $16,000.00 for fiscal year ending August 31, 1967, is hereby appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for the salary of the Judge of the Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County. The salary shall be paid as provided by law.

E. Court Officials. (a) The Judge of the Criminal District Court No. 3 may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances provided by law for the official district court reporters of Tarrant County, Texas.

(b) The Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney, and District Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall serve as Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney, and Clerk, respectively, of the Criminal District Court No. 3. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Texas, may employ as many additional deputy sheriffs, assistant criminal district attorneys, and deputy clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Tarrant County, Texas.

F. Practice. (a) The rules of practice and procedure applicable to the District Courts of this state governing practice in the Criminal District Court No. 3, and the judge of said court shall have the same power as any other District Judge in Tarrant County.

(b) The judges of all three criminal district courts in Tarrant County may freely transfer causes to and from the dockets of their respective courts. The judges may also freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other and with the judges of the 17th, 48th, 67th, 96th, and 153rd judicial districts and with any other District Court in Tarrant County, so that if a judge is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, another judge may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause involved.

(c) The Criminal District Judges of Tarrant County shall each appoint two officers of each of the said courts to act as Bailiffs for said courts and no less than three (3) Bailiffs shall be assigned regularly to each of the Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County, Texas, with the judge of each court, respectively, appointing two (2) Bailiffs and the Sheriff of such county appointing one (1) Bailiff for each of said courts, and the Sheriff of such county shall appoint such Bailiff for each court in the same manner as is now authorized by law.

The Judges of County Criminal Courts Nos. 1 and 2 of Tarrant County shall each appoint one officer to act as a Bailiff for said courts and no less than two (2) Bailiffs shall be assigned regularly to each of the said County Criminal Courts, with the judge of each of said courts respectively appointing one (1) Bailiff for each of said courts and the Sheriff of Tarrant County shall appoint one (1) Bailiff for each of said courts in the same manner as now authorized by law. The Bailiffs appointed under the provisions hereof by the said courts shall be paid a salary out of the general fund of the county of such courts as may be set by the judges of said courts with the approval of the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County. The Bailiffs so appointed by each of the said courts of Tarrant County shall perform such duties as are required by the judges. The said Bailiffs thus appointed by each of the judges, under the provisions hereof, are subject to removal without cause at the will of the judge in whose court such Bailiff or Bailiffs may be assigned. Bailiffs thus appointed by any such judge or judges, under the provisions hereof shall be duly deputized by the Sheriff of such county upon the request of the Criminal District Judges in the manner now authorized by law, and such Bailiffs shall be in addition to all other deputies now authorized by law.

Art. 1926-45. Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County

(a) The Criminal Judicial District No. 4 of Tarrant County is hereby created. It is composed of the County of Tarrant.

(b) The Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County shall give preference to criminal cases.

TRAVIS COUNTY

Art. 1926-51. Criminal District Court of Travis County

Sects. 1 to 4. See Art. 199 (26th and 53rd Dists.).

Sec. 5. The criminal district court of Travis and Williamson Counties, as now created by law shall when this bill takes effect, be known as the Criminal District Court of Travis County, Texas, and shall exercise, have and enforce all the powers and jurisdiction which it now has within and for Travis County and, in addition thereto, shall have and exercise all of the jurisdiction, powers, and functions of a district court under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas; provided, however, that it shall not exercise or have any jurisdiction or powers as such other than is incident to a district court of general jurisdiction, it being the purpose of this Act to take Williamson County out of the district of said criminal district court as now organized and confine its jurisdiction exclusively to Travis County. The said criminal district court, when this bill becomes effective, shall have the right and power to certify and transfer to the Fifty-third Judicial District Court either civil or criminal cases and the Fifty-third Judicial District Court shall have the right to certify and transfer to the criminal district court of Travis County for trial civil cases. Civil cases may be filed or instituted in either the criminal district court of Travis County or in the Fifty-third Judicial District Court in Travis County and both of said courts, or either of them, shall have the right, power and jurisdiction to try either civil or criminal cases within its jurisdiction under the Constitution and General Laws of the State. The Criminal District Court of Travis County shall continue, as now provided by law, to select jury commissioners and impanel grand juries and exercise all of the other powers, functions and jurisdiction now conferred upon it by law, it being the purpose of this Act, not to repeal the Act hereby amended otherwise than is herein specifically done, and this Act is in addition to and cumulative of the Act hereby amended.

Sec. 5a. The Criminal District Court of Travis County shall hold its terms at the following time, to-wit: On the first Monday in February and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in March; on the first Monday in April and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in May; on the first Monday in June and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in August; on the first Monday in October and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in November; on the first Monday in December and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in January.

Sec. 6. The district clerk of Travis County shall be the clerk of the district courts for the Fifty-third Judicial District and of the Criminal District Court of Travis County and shall perform all of the duties of clerk of the said two courts.

Sec. 7. [Not included.]

Sec. 8. At the general election, next preceding the taking effect of this Act, there shall be elected, a district judge for the Criminal District Court of Travis County who shall qualify as soon as the Act takes effect, and his term of office shall be four years, and he shall continue in office until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. Upon the taking effect of this Act, the respective judges of each of the said three district courts shall, each for his respective court, appoint an official court reporter who shall have the qualifications and be subject to the same regulations and receive the same compensation as is now, or may hereafter be, fixed by law, for court reporters in district courts.

Sec. 10. The office of district attorney of Travis and Williamson Counties from and after the first day of January, 1927, shall cease to exist, and there shall be elected a district attorney for the Fifty-third Judicial District at the next general election after the passage of this Act, and at each general election thereafter. He shall represent the State in all criminal cases in all of the district courts of Travis County, and perform such other duties as are or may be provided by law governing district attorneys; and he shall receive, in addition to the five hundred ($500.00) dollars per annum allowed by law to district attorneys, the same per diem and compensation provided by law for district attorneys in judicial districts of this State composed of two or more counties.

Sec. 11. Grand juries for the Criminal District Court of Travis County shall be organized at each of the terms of said court. And grand juries for the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court shall be organized at each of the terms of said court. And grand juries for the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court shall be organized at the January, May and September terms of the said court; provided, however, that the judge of the district court for the Twenty-sixth Judicial District may, when deemed necessary, organize and impanel grand juries at any other term of said court by entering an order therefor.

Sec. 12. [Not included.]

Sec. 13. Upon the taking effect of this Act the district clerk of Williamson County shall transfer all causes pending on the docket of the said Criminal District Court in Williamson County to the docket of the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court; and that all causes so transferred shall be disposed of as though originally filed in the said court to which they were so transferred.

Sec. 14. Either judge of the Fifty-third Judicial District or the Criminal District Court of Travis County may, in his discretion, at any time, transfer any cause pending on the docket of his court to the other District Court in Travis County, and when the said transfer is so made the said cause so transferred shall be disposed of by the court to which the same was so transferred as though originally filed in the said court.

Sec. 15. All writs, processes, bonds, recognizances and orders in civil and criminal cases and matters, issued, executed, entered into, or required prior to the taking effect of this Act, in the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court, and in the Criminal District Court of Travis and Williamson Counties, respectively, and returnable to terms of said courts, as heretofore fixed by law, in the counties of Travis and Williamson, are hereby made returnable to the next ensuing terms of the respective courts to which they are required to be transferred, under the provisions of this Act, and shall be as valid and binding as if no change had been made in said courts, or in the time of holding same; and all juries drawn and selected under existing laws shall be as valid as if no change had been made in said courts or in the time of holding same; and at the last term of the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties held in Williamson and Travis Counties, under existing laws, the judge of said criminal district court shall provide for the drawing and selection of a grand jury for the proper terms of court in Travis and Williamson Counties, to be held after this Act takes effect; and the said petit and grand juries so drawn and selected shall be required to appear and serve and their acts shall be valid as if no change had been made in said courts, or in the times of holding said courts.

Sec. 16. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments or orders rendered or made in the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court in Travis County, or rendered or made in the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties, in either of said counties prior to the taking effect of this Act; but it is provided that after this Act becomes effective as a law the Twenty-sixth Judicial District shall have jurisdiction of all judgments, orders and matters over which the Criminal District Court of Travis and Williamson Counties had or could exercise jurisdiction in Williamson County under the law as it now exists; and after this Act becomes effective as a law the Twenty-sixth Judicial District shall have jurisdiction of all judgments, orders and matters over which the Criminal District Court of Travis and Williamson Counties had or could exercise jurisdiction in Williamson County under the law as it now exists.

Sec. 17. It is provided that this Act shall take effect and be in force on and after January first, 1925.

[Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.]

JEFFERSON COUNTY

Art. 1926-61. Criminal District Court of Jefferson County

Sec. 1. That there is hereby created and established at the County Seat of Jefferson County, a criminal District Court to be known as "Criminal District Court of Jefferson County," which court shall have and exercise, from and after the taking effect of this Act, original and exclusive jurisdiction over all criminal cases of the grade of felony in the County of Jefferson of which district courts, under the Constitution and laws of this State, have original and exclusive jurisdiction, and shall have and exercise such concurrent jurisdiction with the county court of Jefferson County at law over misdemeanor cases as is hereinafter provided by this Act.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this Act shall take effect the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County created by this Act, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all misdemeanor cases of which the County Court of Jefferson County at Law may now, or may hereafter have exclusive jurisdiction; and of such misdemeanor cases as shall be filed in said County Court on appeal from Justices' or Recorders' Courts; and either the Judge of said Criminal District Court, or the Judge of said County Court of Jefferson County at Law may upon motion of the County Attorney of Jefferson County, or other officer representing the State in said courts, in his discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made, the Clerk of the Court making such transfer shall certify to the Clerk of the Court to which such transfer is made, a statement of the cause or causes so transferred, giving the style and number of the same to the Clerk of the Court to which such transfer is made and shall accompany such statement with all the papers in said cause or causes so transferred and upon receipt of such statement and the papers in such cause or causes so transferred, the Clerk of the Court to which such transfer is made shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the Judge of the Court to which such transfer or transfers are made, shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted in said court.

Sec. 3. Said Court shall have jurisdiction over all bail, bond and recognizances taken in proceedings had before said court, or that may be returned to said court from other courts, and may enter forfeitures thereof and final judgments and enforce the collection of the same by proper process in the same manner as is provided by law in District Courts.

Sec. 4. The said Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall have a seal similar to the seal of the District Court with the words "Criminal District Court of Jefferson County" engraved thereon, an impression of which seal shall be attached to all writs and other processes, except subpoenas, issuing from said court, and shall be used in the authentication of the official acts of the Clerk of said Court.

Sec. 5. The practice in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the practice in the District Court, and the rules of pleading and evidence in the District Court shall govern in so far as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 6. All laws regulating the selecting, summoning and impanelling of grand and petit jurors in the District Court shall govern and apply in the Criminal District Court in so far as the same may be applicable.
Sec. 7. All rules of criminal procedure governing the District and County Courts shall apply to and govern said Criminal District Court.

Sec. 8. Said Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall try all misdemeanor cases coming before it with six jurors instead of twelve jurors, unless a jury be waived by the defendant.

Sec. 9. Said Court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, one term beginning the first Monday of October, and one term beginning the first Monday of January. Each term shall continue until the term ends by operation of law or the business is disposed of. The grand jury shall be impaneled in said Court for each term thereof, unless otherwise directed by the Judge of said Court.

Sec. 10. Whenever the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall be engaged in the trial of any cause when the time for expiration of the terms of said court as fixed by law shall arrive, the Judge presiding shall have the power, and may if he deems it expedient, continue the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial; in such case, the extension of such term shall be shown on the minutes of the Court before they are signed.

Sec. 11. The Sheriff, County Attorney, and the Clerk of the District Court of Jefferson County shall be the sheriff, County Attorney and Clerk, respectively, of said Criminal Court under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys and clerks of the District Courts of this State; and said Sheriff, County Attorney and Clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed for such officers in the District Courts of the State, to be paid in the same manner.

Sec. 12. In all such matters over which said Criminal District Court has jurisdiction, it shall have the same power within said District as is conferred by law upon the District Court, and shall be governed by the same rules in the exercise of said power.

Sec. 13. Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from said Criminal District Court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and to the Courts of Civil Appeals in the same manner and form as from the District Courts in like cases.

Sec. 14. From and after the taking effect of this Act, the District Courts of Jefferson County as now constituted, shall be, and they are hereby deprived and divested of all jurisdiction in all criminal cases, and of all jurisdiction given the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County by this Act, and all criminal cases pending in said District Courts at the time of the taking effect of this Act, and all matters pertaining to criminal cases pending therein over which the Court herein created is given jurisdiction, shall be, by the Clerk of the District Courts transferred to and entered upon the docket of said Criminal District Court, and when so entered upon the docket, the judges of said Criminal District Court shall try and dispose of same in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted therein.

Sec. 15. The Judges of said Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall be elected by the qualified voters of Jefferson County for a term of four years, and shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the Judge of the District Court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter be paid, to the District Judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by District Judges of this State in criminal cases. Provided, that the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, shall appoint a Judge of said Court who shall hold the office until the next general election after the passage of this Act, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Sec. 16. The Judge of said Criminal District Court may exchange Districts with or hold court for any District Judge, as provided by law in cases of District Judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of a Judge, a special Judge may be selected.

Art. 1926-62. Jurisdiction Increased

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, said Court shall hereafter have and exercise civil jurisdiction in suits, causes, and matters of:

(1) Divorce, as provided in Chapter 4, Title 75, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and any amendments thereto, heretofore or hereafter made thereto;

(2) Dependent and delinquent children, as provided in Title 43, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and any amendments thereto, heretofore or hereafter made thereto;

(3) Adoption, as provided in Title 3, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and any and all amendments heretofore or that may hereafter be made thereto;

(4) Habeas corpus proceedings in civil matters.

Sec. 2. In all matters pertaining to the additional jurisdiction herein conferred upon said Court, all the officers of said Court shall have the same powers, rights, and duties that are now or that may hereafter be conferred upon the same or similar officers in the other Dis-
The Sheriff of Jefferson County or his deputy shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under order of the court.

The official court reporter of said court shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under the order of the court.

The Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas is hereby authorized to provide suitable quarters for said court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, which said quarters shall be located within the sub-courthouse in Port Arthur, Jefferson County, Texas.

Sec. 3. The Judges of the District Courts of Jefferson County and the Judge of the Criminal Court of Jefferson County shall elect one of their number as the presiding Judge of all the District Courts of Jefferson County including the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County; and the presiding Judge of the District Courts of Jefferson County may assign any cases in his Court, or in any of the District Courts in Jefferson County involving or pertaining to the matters set out in Section 1 hereof to any Judge or Court, including the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, or may assign any Judge to try any of said causes in any of said Courts, and the Judge in whose Court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the case to the Court to which it is assigned, and the Judge of the Court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case. When such transfer or transfers are made, the Clerk of such Court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which said transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the Judge shall try and dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 4. The trials and proceedings in said Courts in such matters shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice, and proceedings in civil cases in the District Courts and in conformity with the provisions of Article 2002, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and all appeals in such civil cases shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals for the Ninth Supreme Judicial District of Texas in the manner now or that may hereafter be provided by law.

Sec. 5. During each term of said court the court may sit at any time in Port Arthur, Texas to try, hear and determine any civil non-jury cases over which it has jurisdiction as to the matters set out in Section 1, 3, and 4 hereof, and may hear and determine motions, arguments and such other non-jury civil matters over which said court may have jurisdiction; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed to deprive the court of jurisdiction to try non-jury civil cases and hear and determine motions, arguments and such other non-jury civil matters at the county seat at Beaumont, Texas.

The District Clerk of Jefferson County or his deputy shall wait upon the said court when sitting at Port Arthur, Texas and shall be permitted to transfer all necessary books, minutes and records to Port Arthur, Texas while the court is in session there, and likewise to transfer all necessary books, minutes, records and papers from Port Arthur, Texas to Beaumont, Texas at the end of each session in Port Arthur, Texas.
upon District and County Attorneys in the various counties and Judicial Districts of this State. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as are now, or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by District or County Attorneys of this State.

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive a salary of not more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) per annum, as shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, to be paid out of the Officer's Salary Fund of Jefferson County if adequate; if inadequate, the Commissioners Court shall transfer necessary funds from the General Fund of the County to the Officer's Salary Fund.

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of this office, shall appoint such Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, Investigators, Court Reporters, Stenographers, Secretaries and other employees as he may deem adequate and necessary with the approval of the Commissioners Court of such County. All Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, Investigators, Court Reporters, Stenographers, Secretaries and other employees so appointed shall be paid such salaries, and receive such other compensation and reimbursement as may be set by the Criminal District Attorney and the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County. All of the salaries shall be paid from the Officer's Salary Fund if adequate; if inadequate, the Commissioners Court may pay such salaries out of the General Fund, the Jury Fund, or any other fund available for the purpose.

Sec. 6. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Jefferson County, and Investigators, when so appointed, shall take the Constitutional Oath of Office, and said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys shall exercise any and every power and perform any and every duty conferred and imposed by law upon the Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County under the supervision and direction of the Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County.

Increase in Term of Office

Const. art. 5 § 15 was amended in November, 1954 to increase the term of office of county judges from two to four years.

Art. 1928. Bond

The county judge shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond payable to the treasurer of his county to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, in a sum of not less than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, the amount to be fixed by the commissioners court, conditioned that he will pay over to the person or office entitled to receive it, all moneys that may come into his hands as county judge, and that he will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, and that he will not vote or give his consent to pay out county funds except for lawful purposes.

Art. 1929. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1384, ch. 369, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971

Art. 1930. Special County Judge

When a judge of the county court is disqualified, the parties may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try such case.

Art. 1931. Governor May Appoint Special Judge

Whenever a judge of the county court is disqualified to try a civil case pending in the county court, and the parties shall fail at the first term of the court to agree upon a special judge, the judge shall certify his disqualification to the Governor and the failure to agree upon another to try the same, whereupon the Governor shall appoint some person, learned in the law to try such case.

Art. 1932. Special Judge in Probate Matter

When a county judge is disqualified to act in any probate matter, he shall forthwith certify his disqualification therein to the Governor, whereupon the Governor shall appoint some person to act as special judge in said case, who shall act from term to term until such disqualification ceases to exist. A special judge so appointed shall receive the same compensation as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for regular judges in similar cases, and the Commissioners' Court shall, at the beginning of each fiscal year, include in the budget of the county, a sufficient sum for the payment of the special judge or judges appointed by the Governor to act for the regular county judge.

Art. 1933. Appointment by Wire

Whenever the county judge or the special judge shall be disqualified from trying a case, the parties or their counsel may agree upon an attorney for the trial thereof; and, if they shall fail to agree upon an attorney at or before the time it is called for trial, or if the trial of the case is pending and the county judge should become unable to act, or is absent, and a special judge is selected who is disqualified to proceed with the trial, and the parties then fail to select or agree upon a special judge who is qualified, the county judge or special judge presiding shall certify the fact to the Governor immediately, whereupon the Governor shall appoint a special judge, qualified to try same. Such appointment may be made by telegram or otherwise. The special judge shall proceed to the trial or disposition of such case. Any special judge agreed upon or appointed to try cases shall receive the same pay for his services as is provided by law for county judges.

Art. 1934. Election of Judges

If a county judge fails to appear at the time appointed for holding the court, or should he be absent during the term or unable or unwilling to hold the court, a special county judge may be elected in like manner as is provided for the election of a special district judge. The special county judge so elected shall have all the authority of the county judge while in the trial and disposition of any case pending in said court during the absence, inability, or such refusal of the county judge. Similar elections may be held at any time during the term, to supply the absence, failure or inability of the county judge, or any special judge, to perform the duties of the office. When a special county judge shall have been so elected, the clerk shall enter upon the minutes of the court, a record such as is provided for in like cases in the district court.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1934a. Stenographer or Clerk for County Judge in Certain Counties

In any county in this State of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, according to the United States census of nineteen hundred twenty, which county contains a city, of more than forty-three thousand inhabitants according to said census, the County Judge shall be allowed to employ a stenographer or clerk at a salary not exceeding One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars per month, such salary to be paid monthly by the county by warrants drawn on the general county fund. Such stenographer or clerk shall be subject to removal at the will of such County Judge.

Art. 1934a-15. Stenographer or Secretary in all Counties; Salary

Sec. 1. Whenever any County Judge of this State shall require the services of a secretary or stenographer, he shall apply to the Commissioners Court of his County for authority to employ such secretary or stenographer. If the Commissioners Court determines that the services of a secretary or stenographer is needed for the County Judge, it shall enter an order authorizing the County Judge to employ a secretary or stenographer and the Commissioners Court shall prescribe the salary to be paid such secretary or stenographer. The compensation which may be allowed the secretary or stenographer for his or her services shall be any reasonable sum that the Commissioners Court may determine is proper and adequate provided the compensation shall not be less than the following prescribed minimums:

(a) In each County having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the secretary or stenographer of the County Judge shall receive a salary of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) per annum, nor more than Two Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400) per annum.

(b) In each county having a population of at least twenty-eight thousand (28,000) inhabitants and not more than thirty thousand (30,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, the secretary or stenographer of the county judge may receive a salary of not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) per annum, nor more than Four Thousand and Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) per annum.

(c) In each county having a population of at least fifty thousand and one (50,001) inhabitants and not more than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the secretary or stenographer of the County Judge shall receive an annual salary in an amount as determined by the Commissioners Court.

(d) In each County having a population of one hundred thousand and one (100,001) inhabitants or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the secretary or stenographer of the County Judge shall receive a salary of not less than One Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($1,600), nor more than Three Thousand, Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($3,750) per annum.

Sec. 2. The salaries provided in this Act shall be paid monthly out of the General Fund or Officers' Salary Fund of the County.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, sentence, phrase or word of this Act shall be held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Art. 1935. Election and Power

A clerk of the county court of each county shall be elected at each general election for a term of two years. Each such clerk shall be authorized to issue all marriage licenses, to administer all oaths and affirmations, and to take affidavits and depositions to be used as provided by law in any of the courts.

Increase in Term of Office

Const. art. 5, § 20 was amended in November, 1954, to increase the term of office of county clerks from two to four years.

Art. 1936. Clerk Pro Tem.

Where a county clerk shall be a party to any motion or proceeding in his court, the county judge shall, on his own motion, or on application of any person interested, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding. The person so appointed shall take the oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the State of Texas, in such amount as may be required by the judge, to be approved by him, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. The person so appointed shall perform all the duties required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed.

Art. 1937. Bond, Oath and Insurance

Sec. 1. Each county clerk shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond either with four or more good and sufficient sureties or with a surety company authorized to do business in Texas as a surety, to be approved by the Commissioners Court in an amount equal to not less than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) nor less than twenty per cent (20%) of the maximum amount of fees collected in any year during the previous term of office immediately preceding the term of office for which the bond is to be given, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Said clerk shall also take and subscribe the official oath which shall be endorsed on the bond, and the bond and oath so taken and approved shall be recorded in the county clerk's office, and deposited in the office of the clerk of the District Court. A certified copy of such bond may be put in suit in the name of the county for the use and benefit of the county clerk.

Sec. 2. Each county clerk shall obtain a surety bond covering his deputy; or a schedule of each deputy or the surety company covering his deputies, if more than one, and all employees of his office. Each deputy and each employee, shall be covered for the same conditions and in the same amount as the county clerk.

Sec. 3. The bond covering the county clerk shall be made payable to the county and the bond or bonds covering the deputies and the employees of the county clerk shall be made payable to the county for the use and benefit of the county clerk.

Sec. 4. Each county clerk shall obtain an errors and omissions insurance policy, covering the county clerk and the deputy or deputies of the county clerk against liabilities incurred through errors and omissions in the performance of the official duties of said county clerk and the deputy or deputies of said county clerk; with the amount of the policy being in an amount equal to a maximum amount of fees collected in any year during the previous term of office immediately preceding the term of office for which said insurance policy is to be obtained, but in no event shall the amount of the policy be for less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

Sec. 5. The premiums for the bonds and the errors and omissions policies required by this Act to be given, or to be obtained, by the county clerk of each county shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of the county out of the general fund of the county as additional compensation for the services of the county clerk and which additional compensation shall be cumulative of and to all other compensation presently or hereafter authorized for said county clerk.

Art. 1938. Deputies

The county clerk may in writing, appoint one or more deputies under his hand and the seal of his court, which shall be recorded in the office of such clerk, and shall be deposited in the office of the district clerk. Deputies shall take the official oath and shall act in the name of their principal, and may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by such clerk in person. When the clerk does not reside at the county seat, he shall have a deputy residing there.

Art. 1939. Armed Forces or Auxiliaries, Records of Official Discharges From Service

Each County Clerk shall record in a well-bound book the official discharge of each member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America or the Armed Force Reserve of the United States of America or the Auxiliary of either Armed Forces of the United States of America or the Armed Force Reserve of America who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States of America since 1916. There shall be no charge made for the recording and keeping of these records.

Art. 1. Any person, his guardian, or his dependents or heirs at law who is eligible to make a claim against the Government of the United States of America as a result of service in the Armed Forces of the United States of America, or the services auxiliary thereto, including the Maritime Service and the Merchant Marine, shall upon the request therefor by such person, his guardian, or his dependents, or heirs at law, be furnished without cost a certified and authenticated copy or copies of any instrument, public record or document necessary to prove or establish such claim, which is in the custody or on file in the office of the County Clerks, District Clerks and other public officials of this State, by such officials. Provided, the issuance of such certified or authenticated copy or copies by such officials shall not be considered in determining the maximum fee of such offices.

Art. 2. The rights conferred by this Act shall extend to any person, his guardian or his dependents, or heirs-at-law who are eligible by reason of service heretofore or hereafter rendered in the Armed Forces of the United States of America, or the services auxiliary thereto, including the Maritime Service and the Merchant Marine, when such person, his guardian, or his dependents, or heirs-at-law are eligible to make claim against the Government of the United States of America as a result of such service.

Art. 1940. Clerk of Commissioners Court

They shall be ex-officio clerks of the commissioners court.

Art. 1941. Recorders

They shall be ex-officio recorders for their several counties, and as such shall record in suitable books to be procured for that purpose all deeds, mortgages and other instruments required or permitted by law to be recorded; they shall be the keepers of such record books, and shall keep the same properly indexed, arranged and preserved.

Repeal

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2721, ch. 888, effective June 14, 1971, relating to the microfilming of records by counties, and classified as article 1941(a), provided in section 2 that all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, to the extent of conflict only, including but not limited to this article.

Art. 1941(a). Microfilm Records of County Clerks

Microfilming Authorized

Sec. 1. County clerks and county recorders and clerks of county courts are hereby authorized, in their sole discretion, to adopt and thereafter to use exclusively, for the purpose of recording, preserving or reproducing public records in their custody and control, or for the purpose of obtaining economical recording costs for such public records, or for the purpose of reducing and conserving the space required for filing, storing and safekeeping of such public records, or for the purpose of providing efficient retrieval of such public records, or for any similar purpose or purposes, a microphotograph or microfilm process or processes which accurately and permanently copies or reproduces, or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a film, in lieu of any other process, processes, method, or methods authorized or required, for filing, for filing and registering, or for filing and recording all instruments of writing, legal documents, papers or records authorized, permitted or required to be filed or to be filed and registered or to be filed and recorded in the offices of county clerks, or of county recorders, or of clerks of county courts; subject to the conditions and requirements hereinafter set out and specified in this Act.

Official Public Records

Sec. 2. (a) Said instruments of writing, legal documents, papers or records authorized, permitted or required to be filed, or filed and registered, or filed and recorded in the offices of said county clerks and county recorders and clerks of county courts, shall be divided into seven types or classes of records for recording by microphotograph or microfilm process or processes as described hereinbelow. The recording and indexing of said instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record in an Official Public Record which is on microfilm imparts notice in like manner and effect as if recorded in separate books or films and as if recorded in each Official Public Record described hereinbelow. Each of said classes or types of records shall be recorded on a separate series of rolls of microfilm, or on a separate series of discrete groups of separate and individual discrete microfilm images. Each of such rolls of microfilm shall be deemed to be a bound volume or book and each image on each of said rolls shall be properly identified for indexing purposes; and each of such separate series of discrete groups of separate and individual discrete microfilm images shall be deemed to be a bound volume or book and each discrete image of each of said discrete groups shall be properly identified for indexing purposes.

(b) The said seven types or classes of records for recording on microfilm shall be as follows:

1. Records relating to or affecting real property, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Real Property";
2. Records relating to or affecting receivables, chattels and personal property, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Personal Property and Chattels";
3. Records relating or incidental to matters in probate, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Probate Courts";
4. Records relating or incidental to matters in county civil courts, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of County Civil Courts";
5. Records relating or incidental to matters in county criminal courts, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of County Criminal Courts";
6. Records relating or incidental to matters in Commissioners Court, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Commissioners Court";
7. Records relating to or affecting persons, business entities and/or agencies of government, other than property records, both real and personal, court proceedings and court records as described in Subparagraphs (1) thru (6) above, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Governmental, Business and Personal Matters."

(c) Releases, transfers, assignments and other actions relating to any instruments of writing, legal document, paper, or record, which has been recorded in an Official Public Record, shall be made by separate instruments of writing, documents, papers or records filed, or filed and registered, or filed and recorded in the same manner provided for herein for said original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record; and no entry, marginal or records, or indexes, previously made.

Microfilm Records Deemed Original Records; Certified Copies

Sec. 3. The microfilm records provided for in this Act shall be deemed to be original records for all purposes and shall be so accepted by all courts and administrative agencies of this State; and transcripts, exemplifications, copies, or reproductions on paper or on film of an image or images of said microfilm records, when issued and certified to by said clerk, shall be deemed to be certified copies of the originals for all purposes and shall be so accepted by all courts and administrative agencies of this State.

Indices

Sec. 4. (a) Each such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record which is recorded in an Official Public Record, as provided in Sections 2(a)(1) thru 2(a)(7) hereinafore, shall be indexed and cross-indexed in the indices to the Public Record in which it is recorded in the full and perfect alphabetical order of the names of the parties as definitely identified therein in each such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record.

(b) In addition to the names of the parties, each entry in an index for the appropriate Official Public Record described in Sections 2(a)(1), 2(a)(2) and 2(a)(7) shall include: an abbreviated description of the nature of such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record as shown therein, including the name of the record in which it would have been recorded under existing laws pertaining to bound volume records and to other records in the Recorder's office; the time and date of filing; the location of the recorded image or images on microfilm by roll number, or by group number, and image number or numbers, or by other suitable data; an abbreviated description of the property, if any, or an abbreviated description of a lien or mortgage, if any, or of other reference, if any, to former recorded data, or such additional information as will properly identify each index entry as pertaining to the particular type of record to which the index applies.

(c) In addition to the names of the parties in actions in county courts, each entry in an index for the appropriate Official Public Record described in Sections 2(a)(3) thru 2(a)(6) shall include the nature of the cause or action, the date the cause or action was opened or taken, the court in which the cause or action lies, the docket number, such other data which would assist in further identifying the cause or action being indexed, and the location of the recorded image or images on the microfilm by roll number, or by group number, and image number or numbers, or by other suitable data.

(d) Such alphabetical indices shall be revised periodically throughout each year so that there will be a full and perfect alphabetical index to each of said Public Records for each full calendar year.

(e) Registers shall be kept up to date of court docket numbers in perfect numerical sequence for each type Court Record, and shall include essentially the same data as is contained in the indices.

(f) Such other Registers of file numbers shall be kept as will be of assistance to the public, and shall include essentially the same data as is contained in the indices.

(g) No marginal entry or entries shall be required to be made by said clerks on indices previously completed.

Standards for Microfilm Records

Sec. 5. Should a Public Records Commission of Texas be authorized by law, all microfilming shall be done in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations, and under the general supervision of said Commission; otherwise the county clerk shall establish the reasonable rules and regulations and have complete control of the microfilming in the county clerk’s office in accordance with the following:

(a) Each original negative roll, and each original negative discrete image, of microfilmed records shall meet all of the requirements for archival quality, for density, for resolution and for definition, of the Public Records Commission of Texas, if there be one, otherwise of the United States Bureau of Standards.

(b) For each roll, or part of a roll, of microfilm to be an official original record, the first image on the roll, or part of a roll, shall be of a Title Page showing the name of the Official Record, the starting identification number, the date, and a certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator; and the last image on the roll, or part of a roll, shall be of a Certificate of Legality and Authenticity certifying that “the microfilming of the images between the Title Page and the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity has been in strict accordance with Article 1941(a), Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes, and that each image is a true, correct, and exact copy of the page or pages of the identified instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record which had been filed for record on the date and at the time stamped on each; that no microfilm image or images were substituted for any original discrete microfilm image or images between the Title Page and this Certificate”; followed by the name of the Official Record, the starting image identification number of the Title Page and the ending image identification number of the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity, the date microfilmed and the certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator, if the camera operator is a deputy county clerk, or otherwise signed by the county clerk in person.

(c) For each separate and individual image of a discrete group of discrete images of a microfilm record to be an official original record, the first image of the discrete group shall be of a Title Page showing the name of the Official Record, the starting identification number, the date, and a certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator; and the last image of the discrete group shall be of a Certificate of Legality and Authenticity certifying “that the discrete numbered microfilm images between the Title Page and the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity have been made in strict accordance with Article 1941(a), Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes, and that each image is a true, correct, and exact copy of the page or pages of the identified instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record which had been filed for record on the date and at the time stamped on each; that no microfilm image or images were substituted for any original discrete microfilm image or images between the Title Page and this Certificate”; followed by the name of the Official Record, the starting image identification number of the Title Page and the ending image identification number of the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity, the date microfilmed and the certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator, if the camera operator is a deputy county clerk, or otherwise signed by the county clerk in person.

(d) At least one additional negative copy of each roll, or part of a roll, or of each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of the original negative microfilm shall be made. The original negative of each roll, or part of a roll, or of each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of microfilm shall be the security record and, in the absence of positive copies or visions, shall be stored in a fireproof and burglarproof safe or locker outside of, and at a distance from, the courthouse. One negative copy of each roll, or part of a roll, or of each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of microfilm shall be used for making positive film prints and for no other purpose. Either negative copies or positive copies of film shall be used on projection devices or readers.

(e) All original negative microfilm now in an office of a county clerk and which negative microfilm is of archival quality, or which is made into negative film of archival quality, and which has thereon the certificates of the county clerk is hereby designated original records for all purposes and shall be so accepted by all courts and administrative agencies of this State.

(f) Each image on each roll, or each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of microfilm shall be of such a size that its image can be projected with clear legibility and without distortion onto a view screen or view glass with such projected image being as large as or larger than, the original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record from which it was made.

(g) Each image on a microfilm record shall be identified by a number by which it can be located quickly and easily, and which number shall be used in indexing such image.

(h) Cameras used for microfilming shall meet or exceed the then current standards of the United States Bureau of Standards for the documentation of permanent records.

(i) Suitable means shall be furnished for the public to quickly and easily locate and project onto a viewing screen or viewing glass the complete image of a desired record. Such projected image shall be as large as, or larger than, the instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record of which it is an image.

Checking and Proving Microfilm Records; Return of Original Instruments; Disposition of Printed Records

Sec. 6. (a) Each county clerk and county recorder and clerk of county courts, whenever the original paper record is not retained in the files of the county clerk, shall reproduce from microfilm onto paper records each filmed image on each roll of microfilm, or each filmed image of the discrete group of filmed images of such paper records, and shall inspect and check each reproduced paper record against the original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record for accuracy and clarity. Should the paper record which was reproduced from a microfilm image be defective in any respect due to the image or images on the microfilm, the original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record, from which said defective reproduced paper record was made, shall be remicrofilmed on a subsequent roll of microfilm, or on a subsequent discrete image or images of a subsequent discrete group of individual images, to obtain acceptable images on microfilm.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided by any other statute or statutes, when an instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record has been microfilmed, reproduced from microfilm onto paper records and said reproduced paper record has been proven satisfactory by inspecting and checking as provided herein, said clerk is hereby authorized to, and shall, return each such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record, excepting those involved in or relating to court matters and proceedings, to the party or parties who filed it.

(c) Original instruments of writing, original legal documents, original papers and original records, which have been filed relating to court matters and proceedings and which have been recorded on microfilm records, shall be retained in the files of the clerk, to which they relate until a written order of the court closes such docket, after which all of the records in such docket shall be microfilmed in time sequence to provide all of such records of a docket in an unbroken continuous sequence on one roll of microfilm, or in an unbroken continuous sequence of discrete images in a group of discrete images.

(d) Upon the certificate of a county clerk of a county to the Commissioners Court of the county that the original negative microfilm of a designated microfilm record fully meets the requirements of the Bureau of Standards of the United States Government for archival quality, for density, for resolution and for definition of said original negative microfilm and, further, that microfilm film prints from said negative have been satisfactorily used by the public for five years, or more, said Commissioners Court may authorize by order of said court the disposal of the original paper records from which said microfilm records were made.

Art. 1961. Terms of Court

The County Court shall hold at least four terms for both Civil and Criminal business annually, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court. After having fixed the times and number of the terms of a County Court, they shall not change the same until the expiration of one year. Until, or unless otherwise provided, the term of the County Court shall be held on the first Monday in February, May, August and November, and may remain in session three weeks; provided said court shall be open at all times for the transaction of probate business.

Art. 1962. Other Terms

The commissioners court may, at a regular term thereof, by an order entered upon its records, provide for more terms of the county court for the transaction of civil, criminal and probate business, and fix the times at which each of the four terms required by the Constitution, and the terms exceeding four, if any, shall be held, not to exceed six annually, and may fix the length of each term. When the number of the terms of the county court has been fixed, the court shall not change the order before one year from the date of entry of the original order fixing such terms.

Art. 1963. Probate Business

Said court shall dispose of probate business either in term time or vacation under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

Art. 1964. Judge Failing to Appear

If the county judge fails to appear at the time appointed for holding his court and no election of a special judge is had, the sheriff of the county, or, in his default, any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day for three days. If the judge should not appear on the fourth day and no special judge is elected, the sheriff or constable as the case may be, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof.

Art. 1965

Title 41

Art. 1965. Minutes
The Minutes of the proceedings of each preceding day of the session shall be read in open court on the morning of the succeeding day, except on the last day of the session, on which day they shall be read, if necessary be corrected, and signed in open Court by the County Judge. Each Special Judge shall sign the Minutes of such proceedings as were had before him; provided the Probate Minutes of said Court shall be approved and signed by the presiding Judge on the first day of each month, except, however, that if the first day of the month falls on a Sunday, then such approval shall be entered on the preceding day.

Art. 1966. Seal of the Court
Each county court shall be provided with a seal, having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center, and the words, "County Court of .......... County, Texas," the impress of which shall be attached to all process, except subpoenas, issued out of such court, and shall be used to authenticate the official acts of the clerk and of the county judge.

Art. 1968. When Case is Transferred
Whenever a cause shall be transferred from the county court to the district court, the clerk shall immediately make out a transcript of all the proceedings had in said cause in the county court, and shall transmit the same duly certified as such, together with a bill of the costs which have accrued in said court, and all the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the district court.

Art. 1969. Jurisdiction Taken Away
Each clerk of the county court where the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county courts has been transferred to the district court, shall make out a certified copy of all judgments remaining unsatisfied, which have been rendered in civil or criminal cases in the county court, and transmit the same to the clerk of the district court of their respective counties.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1969a-1. Exchange of Judges in County Courts at Law and County Criminal Courts in Counties of Over 300,000 Population
In any county in this State having a population in excess of three hundred thousand (300,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there may be now, or at any future time, one or more county courts at law and one or more county criminal courts, the judges of such county criminal courts and such county courts at law may hold court for or with one another; to the extent necessary to enable the judge of any such county criminal court to hold court for or with the judge of any such county court at law, the same civil jurisdiction is hereby conferred on such county criminal court as now exists or may hereafter be conferred upon the county courts at law under the Constitution and laws of this State.

Art. 1969a-2. Judges of County Courts at Law Authorized to Act for County Judge Sec. 1. The Judge of any County Court at Law in any county having a population of less than seven hundred thousand (700,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, may act for the County Judge of the county in any juvenile, lunacy, probate and condemnation proceedings, and also may perform for the County Judge any and all other ministerial acts required by the laws of this State, during the absence, inability or failure of the County Judge for any reason to perform such duties; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law, while acting for the County Judge, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such proceedings or matters the same as if performed by the County Judge. Provided that the powers thus given the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State shall extend to and include all powers of the County Judge ex-cet his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the County, as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court and as the budget officer for the Commisssioners Court.

Sec. 2. The absence, inability or failure of the County Judge to perform any of the duties hereinabove set forth shall be certified by the County Judge or the Commissioners Court to the Judge of any such County Court at Law, and when such certification is for the purpose of conferring powers to do some judicial act, such certificate shall be spread upon the minutes of the appropriate Court.

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the additional powers and duties conferred upon the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State no additional compensation or salary shall be paid to them, but the compensation or salary of such Judges of the County Courts at Law shall remain the same as now, or as may be hereafter fixed by law.

Sec. 4. It is not intended by this Act to repeal any law providing for the election and/or appointment of a special County Judge, but this Act shall be cumulative of, and in addition to such law or laws.

Sec. 5. If any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not in any manner affect the validity of the remainning portions of this Act.

Section 6 of Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 520, ch. 156 was a separability clause.

Art. 1970. County Courts at Law

All county courts at law and all similar courts by whatever name known, which now exist, shall be continued in force, together with their organization, jurisdiction, duties, powers, procedure and emoluments that now exist by law, until otherwise changed by law.

Art. 1970a. Amount in Controversy

All county courts at law, county civil courts, and other statutory courts exercising civil jur-sidiction corresponding to the constitutional jurisdiction of the county court in civil cases shall have jurisdiction concurrent with that of the district court when the matter in controversy shall exceed in value Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and shall not exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) exclusive of interest.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2814, ch. 915, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.]

ACTS CREATING COUNTY COURTS AT LAW AND SIMILAR COURTS, AND AFFECT-ING PARTICULAR COUNTY COURTS, AND DECISIONS THEREUNDER

DALLAS COUNTY AT LAW NO. 1

Art. 1970-1. Creation

There is hereby created a court to be held in Dallas county, to be called the “County Court of Dallas County, at Law."

1 Name of County Court of Dallas County at Law to be called “County Court of Dallas County, at Law No. 1,” see art. 1970-2.

Art. 1970-2. Name of County Court of Dallas County at Law Changed

The County Court of Dallas County at Law shall hereafter be known and designated as the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1.
The judge and all officers of the County Court of Dallas County at Law shall continue as such respective officers of the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1, and all of the jurisdiction and powers of the County Court of Dallas County at Law and of the judges thereof, shall be preserved and continued as the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. No change in the organization of the County Court of Dallas County at Law is effected hereby except the change of name, nor shall this section in any way affect any case pending in said court. All process issued out of the County Court of Dallas County at Law before this Act takes effect, and all bonds executed and recognizances entered of record in said County Court of Dallas County at Law may be amended at any time under the direction of the judge, to conform to this change in name.

1 So in enrolled bill. Should probably read "affect".

The County Court of Dallas County at Law shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Dallas County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws of the State, county courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 3 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the commissioners court, or of the county judge of Dallas county as the presiding officer of such commissioners court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the judge thereof.

1 Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

2 Article 1970-4.

Art. 1970-4. Jurisdiction Retained by County Court of Dallas County

The County Court of Dallas County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons not compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transmit all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons not compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said court, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by general law governing county courts throughout the State. The county judge of Dallas county shall be the judge of the County Court of Dallas County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the County Court of Dallas County except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law.

1 Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-5. Terms of County Court of Dallas County, at Law; Practice, etc.

The terms of the county court of Dallas County, at law, and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by laws relating to county courts. The terms of the county court of Dallas County, at law, shall be held as now established for the terms of the county court of Dallas County, until the same may be changed in accordance with the law.

1 Terms of court. See article 1970-28.

2 Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-6. Judge to be Elected, When, etc.; Qualifications; Term

There shall be elected in said county, by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified.

1 Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

The judge of the county court of Dallas County, at law, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

1 Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-8. Special Judge Elected or Appointed, How

A special judge of the county court of Dallas County, at law, may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

1 Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

The county court of Dallas county, at law, or the judges thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court, or of any other court or tribunal inferior to said court.

Art. 1970–10. Clerk of; Seal; Sheriff to Attend When, etc.

The county clerk of Dallas county shall be the clerk of the county court of Dallas county, at law.¹ The seal of the said court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Dallas County, at Law;" the sheriff of Dallas county shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said court when required by the judge thereof.

Art. 1970–11. Appointment of Jury Commissioners; Selection, etc., of Juries

The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court for the appointment of jury commissioners and the selection and service of jurors, shall be exercised by the county court of Dallas county, at law.¹

Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law,¹ may be filled by the commissioners' court of Dallas county until the next general election.

The judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law,¹ shall collect the same fees as are now established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be by him paid monthly into the county treasury, and he shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars per annum,² payable monthly, to be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners' court.

The county judge of Dallas county shall hereafter receive from the county treasury, in addition to the fees allowed him by law, such a salary for the ex-officio duties of his office, as may be allowed him by the commissioners' court, not less than twelve hundred dollars per year.

There is hereby created a court to be held in Dallas county, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2."

The County Court of Dallas County at Law, No. 2, shall have exclusive concurrent civil and criminal jurisdiction of all cases, original and appellate, over which by the laws of the State of Texas, the existing County Court of Dallas County at Law,¹ of Dallas county, Texas, would have original and appellate jurisdiction; provided all civil and criminal cases appealed from the several justice's courts of Dallas county shall be by the county clerk, filed in the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, and the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, alternately as said appealed cases are received by said clerk from the several justices of the peace in said county, except in cases wherein the judge of either of said courts, at law, has granted the writ of certiorari, in which case the same shall be docketed in the court so granting said writ, and shall not be transferred from said court.

The County Court of Dallas County at Law¹ shall be known and designated as the "A" Court and the County Court of Dallas County at Law, No. 2, shall be known and designated as the "B" Court. The county clerk shall number consecutively all cases filed in said courts, affixing immediately following the number of all cases falling in the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, the letter "A," and immediately following the number of all cases falling in the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, the letter "B," and he shall make up the trial docket of each of said courts with respect to said numbers. The judge of either of said courts shall have the power to transfer to the other court any case pending upon the docket of his court, except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted; provided there shall never be transferred from the docket of one of said courts to that of the other a sufficient number of cases to reduce the number of cases on the docket of the court from which said case was transferred to a less number than the number of cases pending upon the docket of the court to which the same is transferred, without the consent of the judge to which said case is transferred. It shall be the duty of the judge to whose court said case is transferred to receive and try the case, and he shall not have the power to retransfer the same back to the court from which it came ex-

Art. 1970-31.1 County Courts of Dallas County at Law Nos. 3 and 4

Sec. 1. There are hereby created two (2) County Courts to be held in Dallas County; Texas, to be known as and designated as “County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3” and “County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4,” and the seal of said Courts shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts except the seal shall contain the words “County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3” and “County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4.”

Sec. 2. The Courts hereby created shall have exclusive, concurrent civil jurisdiction of all cases, original and appellate, over which by the laws of the State of Texas the existing County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 have original and appellate jurisdiction; in addition thereto, it is hereby specifically provided that the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3, and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall have concurrent and coextensive and equal jurisdiction over all civil, administrative and ministerial acts and over the filing and disposition of all proceedings in eminent domain matters; provided that the Judge of any County Court at Law of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of any other County Court at Law of Dallas County when such Judge is unavailable for the performing of any of the administrative acts in connection with eminent domain proceedings, but the performing of the same shall not transfer the cause or proceedings from the Court for which the act was performed; provided all civil cases appealed from the several Justice Courts of Dallas County shall be by the County Clerk filed in the several County Courts of Dallas County at Law consecutively as said appealed cases are received by said Clerk from the several Justices of the Peace in said County, except in cases wherein the Judge of either of said County Courts at Law has granted a writ of certiorari, in which case the same shall be docketed in the Court so granting said writ and shall not be transferred from said Court.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 shall be known and designated as the “C” Court and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall be known and designated as the “D” Court. The County Clerk shall number consecutively all cases filed in the County Courts of Dallas County at Law affixing immediately following the number of all cases the letter A, B, C or D, according to which County Court at Law of Dallas County said case is assigned, and each case so filed shall be filed in rotation in each of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law with the letter designation being used to denote the Court in which the case is filed. The Judge of either of said County Courts of Dallas County at Law shall have the power to transfer to any of the other of said Courts any case pending upon the docket of said Court except where a writ of certiorari has been granted; provided that such cases so transferred shall be for the purpose of equalizing the dockets of each of said County Courts of Dallas County at Law and each of the Judges of said Courts shall together at least once a year, transfer cases from one to the other in order to equalize said dockets.

Sec. 4. All of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law and the respective Judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs and processes necessary to the enforcement of their jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the State.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 shall be held six (6) times each year on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of. The terms of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall be held six (6) times each year on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October and December, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 and the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4, shall be a licensed attorney in this State and informed in the laws of the State, who shall have resided in and actively engaged in the practice of law in Dallas County for a period of not less than four (4) years prior to the general election, and such Judge shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall be duly qualified. The Judges of said Courts shall receive the same salary now provided by law or hereafter provided by law to be paid to the Judges of other County Courts of Dallas County at Law. As soon as possible after the effective date of this Act, the Commissioners Court of Dallas County shall appoint a Judge to each of said Courts to function on the same date, who shall hold office until January 1st following the next general election or until his successor shall be duly qualified. The successor shall hold office for a period of four (4) years.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the Judges of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 to immediately transfer from their dockets one half (½) of the civil cases pending upon said dockets to the Courts hereby created, which shall be done by beginning with the oldest case pending upon the docket of said Courts and transferring every second case without reference to whether any particular case be pending upon the jury or nonjury docket of said Courts.

Sec. 8. In case of disqualification, an overcrowded docket, sickness or absence from the County of any of the Judges of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law Number 1, Number 2, Number 3 or Number 4, any other Judge of said Courts may exchange benches with said Judge, and when so exchanging benches with any of the other Judges of the County Courts at Law shall have all of the power and jurisdiction of the Court and Judge for whom he is sitting while so exchanging benches, and may sign orders, judgments and decrees or other process of any kind as “Judge Presiding” when acting for such disqualified or absent Judge upon request, or in an emergency without request, or for any other good cause shown. This shall be in addition to the provisions hereinabove made for performing administrative matters for each other.

Sec. 9. Except as herein otherwise provided, all laws applicable to County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 shall be applicable to County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4.
county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas; and except such as have heretofore been conferred upon the judges of the County Court at Law, Number One, and the County Court at Law, Number Two, of Dallas County, Texas.

Sec. 4. The county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, or the judge thereof shall have the power of [to] issue writs of habeas corpus and grant injunctions for the enforcement of the penal laws, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or any court or tribunal inferior to said court; and shall also have power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are now or may be provided by the General Law governing county courts throughout the State.

Sec. 5. The terms of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, and the practice therein and appeals therefrom shall be as prescribed by law relating to the county courts. The terms of said county criminal court shall be held not less than four times each year and the commissioners' court of Dallas County, Texas, shall fix the time at which said court shall hold its terms, until the same may be changed according to law.

Sec. 6. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act, there shall be appointed by the commissioners' court of Dallas County in accordance with the law, a judge of the county criminal court hereby created, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State and who shall hold his office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall have duly qualified. The judge of said court elected at any general election shall hold office for two years and until his successor shall have duly qualified; provided, that no person shall be eligible for judge of said court unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this State or a judge of a court in said State for four years next preceding his appointment or election, and who shall have resided in the county of Dallas for two years next preceding his appointment or election.

Sec. 7. The judge of the county court of Dallas County, Texas, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. A special judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, may be appointed or elected as provided by the laws relating to county courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of Dallas County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, the seal of said court shall be the same as provided for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "The county criminal court, Dallas County, Texas." The sheriff of Dallas County, Texas, shall in person or by deputy, attend said court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 10. The judge of the County Criminal Court of Dallas County, Texas, shall collect the same fee provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the County Treasury, and the Judge of said Court shall receive a salary of Five Thousand Dollars, ($5,000.00) annually, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners' Court; such Judge shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office, and shall not engage in the practice of law while in office.

Sec. 11. The judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, may be removed from office in the same manner, and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the court, jury, and parties, the judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the court and, who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court; the provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for the District Courts shall, and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and shall take the same oath as are in said laws provided for the stenographers of District Courts of this State, and also be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the District Courts of this State; provided, that the official shorthand reporter of said court shall not be required to take testimony in cases where neither party litigant nor the judge demands it; but where the testimony is taken by said reporter a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00) shall be taxed by the clerk as costs in the case, the said Three Dollars ($3.00), when collected to be paid into the County Treasury of Dallas County, Texas.

Sec. 13. As soon as may be, after this Act takes effect, the clerk of the County Court of Law Number One of Dallas County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number Two, shall transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court of Dallas County, Texas, hereby created, all of the criminal cases then pending in the County Courts at Law Number One and Number Two of Dallas County, Texas. The clerk shall note such transfer when made on the minutes of the County Courts at Law Number One and Number Two of Dallas County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The Probate Court of Dallas County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing County Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 7. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court of Dallas County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term; it shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in said County by the qualified voters thereof, at the General Election, for a term of two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified, a Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of the State for not less than (5) consecutive years prior to his election. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County as soon as may be after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to County Judges.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County by the appointment of a Judge of said Court, who shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, the County Judge of Dallas County shall sit and act as Judge of said Court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said Court, any matter or proceeding there pending, and may enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Court might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the County Judge of Dallas County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County may be appointed or elected, as provided by the general laws relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Dallas County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court of Dallas County. The seal of such Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court of Dallas County, Texas." The Sheriff of Dallas County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The Judges of the Probate Court of Dallas County shall have an administrative assistant to aid him in the performance of his duties. The salary of said administrative assistant shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to County Judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected, and from and after the date of his qualification as Judge of said Court he shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Dallas County, of not less than Six Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($6,500) nor more than Eight Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($8,250), payable monthly, to be paid out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed so far as such conflict exists. As to all other laws and parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 16. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word contained in this Act shall be held unconstitutional by the Courts of this State, the invalidity of such portion of the Act shall not be construed to affect any other part of the Act.

Art. 1970-31b. Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a County Court to be held in and for Dallas County to be called the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County.

Sec. 2. Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall have the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court within the limits of Dallas County concurrent with the jurisdiction of the Probate Court of Dallas County and of the County Court of Dallas County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and administrative, settle accounts of executor, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court under the jurisdiction of the County Judge and of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Dallas County and of the Probate Court of Dallas County such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the Probate Court of Dallas County and in the County Court of Dallas County as will equalize the number of such cases pending on the dockets of each of said three (3) Courts, and all writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of said Probate Court of Dallas County and said County Court of Dallas County in such matters or proceedings filed on said day or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Dallas County irrespective of the Courts or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk in rotation in said respective Courts in the order in which the same are deposited with him for filing.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Dallas County shall retain as heretofore the powers and jurisdiction of said Court existing at the time of the passage of this Act and shall exercise its own powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those provided hereinabove to be transferred to and filed in the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. The County Judge of Dallas County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Dallas County as they now exist shall be exercised by the County Judge of Dallas County except insofar as the same shall have been committed heretofore to the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, or as the same shall by this Act expressly be committed to the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County, the Probate Court of Dallas County, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 or the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2, or any other County Court of Dallas County at Law heretofore or hereafter created.

Sec. 5. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County in each year and the first term shall be known as the January-June term, which shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July, and the second of such terms shall be known as the July-December term and shall begin on the first Monday in July and continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in said County by the qualified voters thereof at the general election for a term of two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified, a Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County who shall be well-informed on the laws of the State and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County as soon as may be possible after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County by appointment of a Judge of said Court who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, the County Judge of Dallas County shall sit and act as Judge of said Court and may hear and determine either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said Court any matter or proceeding there pending and may enter such orders in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County on any matters or proceedings pending in either of said Courts. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of Dallas County, the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Judge of Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, a special Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may be appointed or elected as provided by the General Laws relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof.

Sec. 11. The County Clerk of Dallas County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. The seal of such Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, Texas." The Sheriff of Dallas County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall have an administrative assistant to aid him in the performance of his duties. The salary of said administrative assistant shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to County Judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected and from after the date of his qualification as Judge of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Dallas County which shall be the same salary as that paid to the Judge of the probate Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 13. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. All other laws applicable to the Probate Court of Dallas County shall be applicable to Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. As to all other laws and parts of laws this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 13a. Regardless of any provisions of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until January 1, 1965.

TARRANT COUNTY AT LAW NO. 2

Art. 1970–32. Creation

There is hereby created a court to be held in Tarrant county, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court of Tarrant County for Civil Cases." ¹

¹ Name changed to County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas. See article 1970–32.

Art. 1970–33. Jurisdiction of Said Court

The county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall have jurisdiction of all civil matters and causes, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the state of Texas, the county court of said county would have jurisdiction, except as provided in article 1981; and all civil cases pending in the county court of said county, other than probate matters, and such as are provided in said article, shall be, and the same are hereby, transferred to the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases; and all civil writs and process heretofore issued by, or out of, said county court, other than those pertaining to matters over which by said article jurisdiction remains in the county court of Tarrant county and the same are hereby made returnable to the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases. The jurisdiction of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, and of the judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the county court of Tarrant county, or the judge thereof; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners' court or of the county judge of Tarrant county as the presiding officer of said court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners' court or of the judge of the county court of Tarrant county.

¹ See note under art. 1970–32.

In addition to the jurisdiction heretofore conferred by law upon the County Court of Tarrant County for Civil Cases,¹ of Tarrant County, Texas, and the judge thereof, the said County Court of Tarrant County for Civil Cases shall have jurisdiction within Tarrant County of all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate, over which the County Court at Law of Tarrant County now has jurisdiction, and the jurisdiction of said courts, over such matters, within said county, shall be concurrent, provided, that the jurisdiction of the County Court of Tarrant County shall remain as now fixed by law, and be in no wise affected by this Act.

¹ Name changed to County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas. See article 1970–32.

Art. 1970–35. Jurisdiction Retained by County Court of Tarrant County

The county court of Tarrant county shall retain, as heretofore the jurisdiction of all criminal cases, its jurisdiction as a juvenile court, its jurisdiction in matters pertaining to liquor licenses, forfeitures and bonds, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and shall apprentice minors as provided by law. The county judge of Tarrant county shall be the judge of the county court of Tarrant county; and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the county court of Tarrant county, except in so far as the same shall, by this chapter, be committed to the judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases.¹

Both the said county court of Tarrant county and the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, or either of the judges thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said courts, and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be, provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said courts, or of any court or tribunal inferior to said courts.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The terms of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by law relating to the county courts. The terms of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall be held not less than four times each year; and the commissioners' court of Tarrant county shall fix the time at which said court shall hold its terms, until the same may be changed according to law.

See note under art. 1970-32.

At each general election there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant county a judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, who shall be well informed in the laws of this state, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, that no person shall be eligible for judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state, who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this state, or a judge of a court in this state, for four years next preceding his election, and who shall have resided in the county of Tarrant for two years next preceding his election. All vacancies in said office shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election thereafter.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

See note under art. 1970-32.

A special judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The county clerk of Tarrant county shall be the clerk for the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases. The seal of said court shall be the same as that provided for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words, "County Court of Tarrant County for Civil Cases." The sheriff of Tarrant county shall, in person or by deputy, attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court of Tarrant county for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the two courts jointly and not separately.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall collect the same fees provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the county treasury; and he shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars annually, to be paid monthly out of the county treasury by the commissioners' court.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The county judge of Tarrant county shall hereafter receive from the county treasury in addition to the fees allowed him by law, such a salary, for the ex officio duties of his office, as may be allowed him by the commissioners' court.

See note under art. 1970-32.

The Sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, shall in person or by deputy, attend said Court when required by the Judge thereof. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act the Sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, shall appoint two (2) deputy sheriffs in addition to the staff now authorized for the sheriff's office; such two (2) deputy sheriffs shall conform to the qualifications generally prescribed for deputy sheriffs. Said two (2) deputy sheriffs shall receive a salary as fixed by the Commissioners Court in an amount not exceeding the maximum salary now authorized for deputy sheriffs, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court from any fund available for this purpose.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall collect the same fee provided by law for county Judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the County Treasury, and the Judge of said Court shall receive a salary as fixed by the Commissioners Court not to exceed Eight Thousand, Nine Hundred Dollars ($8,900) per annum, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court; such Judge shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office, and shall not engage in the practice of law while in office.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, may be removed from office in the same manner, and for the same causes as any other county Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County one (1) Assistant Criminal District Attorney who shall conformed to the qualifications generally prescribed for Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, such appointment to be in addition to the staff authorized for the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County at the time of the passage of this Act. Said additional Assistant Criminal District Attorney shall receive a salary as fixed by the Commissioners Court not less than Five Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($5,400) per annum, nor more than Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000) per annum, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court from any funds available for this purpose.

Sec. 13. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County in accordance with the law one (1) Criminal Investigator who shall conform to the qualifications generally prescribed for Criminal Investigators, such appointment to be in addition to the staff authorized for the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County at the time of the passage of this Act. Said additional Criminal Investigator shall receive a salary as fixed by the Commissioners Court not less than Three Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600) per annum, nor more than Four Thousand, Two Hundred Dollars ($4,200) per annum, plus the usual automobile allowance, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court from any funds available for this purpose.

Sec. 14. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the Court, jury, and parties, the Judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court; the provisions of the General Laws of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for the District Courts shall, and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and shall take the same oath as are in said laws provided for the stenographers of District Courts of this State, and also be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the District Courts of this State; provided, that the official shorthand reporter of said Court shall not be required to take testimony in cases where neither party litigant nor the Judge demands it; but where the testimony is taken by said reporter a fee of Three Dollars ($3) shall be taxed by the clerk as costs in the case, the said Three Dollars ($3), when collected, to be paid into the County Treasury of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 15. As soon as may be after this Act takes effect, the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Tarrant County, Texas, and the Clerk of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the Clerk of the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas, may transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, hereby created, any of the criminal cases then pending in any of the said Courts and which may properly come within the jurisdiction of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, hereby created, and thereafter the Judge of any of the four (4) said Courts may, in his discretion, transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his Court to any of the other Courts by an order or orders entered in the minutes of his Court, provided, however, that the Court to which any such cause is transferred would have had proper jurisdiction of such cause or causes if such cause or causes had been originally instituted in said Court; and the Court to the Court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A special Judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be appointed or elected as provided by the laws relating to County Courts and the Judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, the seal of said court shall be the same as provided for County Courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "The County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas." The sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, shall in person or by deputy, attend said court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall collect the same fee provided by law for County Judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the County Treasury, and the Judge of said court shall receive a salary as fixed by the Commissioners Court; such Judge shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office, and shall not engage in the practice of the law while in office.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be removed from office in the same manner, and for the same causes as any other County Judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 12. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the court, jury, and parties, the Judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well-skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the court and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Judge thereof, and shall be entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties as are in said laws provided for the stenographers of District Courts of this state, and also be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the District Courts of this state.

Sec. 13. After this Act shall become effective, the Judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County and the Judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County shall together with the clerk of said courts, make a just and fair division of the cases pending on the docket of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, and after such division is made the clerk of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County shall transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County all cases divided to said County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County in the division made by said Judges and the County Clerk shall retain the remaining cases on the docket of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County. For the balance of the month in which the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County is created and becomes operative, all cases shall be filed in said court, and during the next succeeding month all cases shall be filed in the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, and thereafter the filings shall alternate each month as between said courts.

Provided that the Judge of each court shall, by agreement with the other Judge, have authority to transfer any case pending for trial from the docket of such court to the docket of such other court, and during the absence, illness, or inability of either Judge to preside in his own court, the Judge of the other court shall be and is hereby authorized to act for such Judge absent for any of the above reasons in the trial or other disposition of cases on the docket of such other court.[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 86, ch. 50; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 444, § 1.]
State of Texas and the municipal ordinances of the municipalities located in Tarrant County, Texas, in Justice Courts, Corporation Courts and other municipal Courts in said County, now pending in the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas; and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of the said Courts in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, as though originally issued therefrom. All proceedings shall be returnable to the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, on said day or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, and the judge of the County Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall retain, as heretofore, its jurisdiction as a juvenile court and its general jurisdiction as a probate court. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and habitual drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians, and transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of the estates of deceased persons and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law. The county judge of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be judge of the County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of said county Court except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, and except such as have heretofore been conferred upon the judge of the County Court at Law of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 5. The County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and grant injunctions for the enforcement of the penal laws in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or any court or tribunal inferior to said Court, and shall also have power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are now or may be provided by the General Law governing County Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 6. The terms of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, and the practice therein and appeals therefrom shall be as prescribed by law relating to the County Courts. The terms of said County Criminal Court No. 3 shall be held not less than four (4) times each year, and the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall fix the time at which said Court shall hold its terms until the same may be changed according to law.

Sec. 7. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act, there shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, in accordance with the law, a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 hereby created, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State and who shall hold his office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall have duly qualified. At the next General Election there shall be elected a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 who shall hold office for the unexpired term. The judges of said Court elected at the General Election in 1966 and thereafter shall hold office for four (4) years and until their successors shall have duly qualified; provided that no person shall be eligible for judge of said Court unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this State or a judge of a Court in said State for four (4) years next preceding his appointment or election, and who shall have resided in the County of Tarrant for two (2) years next preceding his appointment or election.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 9. A special judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be appointed or elected as provided by the laws relating to County Courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 10. The County Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas. The seal of said Court shall be the same as provided for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words “The County Criminal Court No. 3, Tarrant County, Texas.” The sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, shall in person or by deputy, attend said Court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall collect the same fee provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the County Treasury, and the judge of said Court shall receive a salary of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) per annum, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court; such judge shall not engage in the practice of law while in office.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be removed from office in the same manner, and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the Court, jury and parties, the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County,
Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court; the provisions of the General Laws of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for the District Courts shall, and is hereby made to, apply in all its provisions insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and take the same oath as are in said laws provided for the stenographers of District Courts of this State, and he shall also be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the District Courts of this State; provided that the official shorthand reporter of said Court shall not be required to take testimony in cases where neither party litigant nor the judge demands it, but where the testimony is taken by said reporter, a fee of Three Dollars ($3) shall be taken by the clerk as costs in the case, the said Three Dollars ($3), when collected, shall be paid into the County Treasury of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 14. As soon as may be after this Act takes effect, the clerk of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, may transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, hereby created, any of the criminal cases then pending in the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, and thereafter the judge of either of said Courts may, in his discretion, transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his Court to the other Courts by an order or orders entered in the minutes of his Court, and the judge of the Court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispense of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 15. The judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, may, in their discretion, exchange benches and sit and hear cases in the Court in which the case or proceeding is then pending, and try or otherwise dispose of same.

Sec. 16. The County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall hereafter be referred to and known as the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 2 of Tarrant County respectively and all references in this Act or existing laws to the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County or the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County shall, hereafter, refer to the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County and County Criminal Court No. 2 of Tarrant County respectively.

Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws and parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 18. If any Section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word contained in this Act shall be held unconstitutional by the Courts of this State, the invalidity of such portion of the Act shall not be construed to affect any other part of the Act.

1 Name changed to County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County, Texas. See article 1970-301.

Art. 1970-75a. Practice and Administration of Courts

Rotational Filing Required

Sec. 1. (a) On and after the effective date of this Act, the County Clerk of Bexar County shall, with respect to cases addressed to one of the county courts at law of Bexar County and regarding the court or judge to which they are addressed, file the cases alternately in the county courts at law of Bexar County, starting with the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, and continuing with the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, and so forth.

(b) The rotational filing requirement of Subsection (a) of this Section does not apply to appeals in criminal cases.

(c) The county clerk's failure to comply with Subsection (a) of this Section does not affect any action taken with regard to a case filed with one of the county courts at law of Bexar County.

Presiding Judge

Sec. 2. (a) The judges of the county courts at law of Bexar County shall, in January and July of each year, select by majority vote one of their number as presiding judge. The election may be cancelled, and another judge selected, at any time, by majority vote. Each judge shall enter on the minutes of his court an order reciting each selection of a presiding judge.

(b) The presiding judge of the county courts at law of Bexar County may assign any case pending in one of the county courts at law to another county court at law and such case shall be transferred and tried in accordance with the assignment. The presiding judge may also assign one of the judges of the county courts at law to another court, or to try a particular case pending in another court, and the judge assigned shall sit or try the case as requested.

Rules of Practice

Sec. 3. The judges may also adopt rules, not inconsistent with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and the code of Criminal Procedure for practice in the county courts at law of Bexar County. A rule may only be adopted by majority vote of the judges and upon adoption shall be entered verbatim on the minutes of each of the county courts at law. The County Clerk of Bexar County shall supply copies of the adopted rules to every interested person.

1 Article 1970–106.

HARRIS COUNTY

Art. 1970–110a. Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County

Sec. 1. The Probate Court of Harris County, Texas, which was created by Chapter 520, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, shall hereafter be called and known as the “Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas.”

Sec. 2. The Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Harris County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Harris County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. All such matters hereafter filed with the County Clerk of Harris County, irrespective of the court or judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said clerk alternately in said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, with every fifth case bearing the last number “5” or “0” being filed by said clerk in the County Court of Harris County, and continuing alternatively thereafter, except every fifth case so deposited shall be filed with the County Court of Harris County, and further, said clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said courts. Each of the judges of the County Court and the said Probate Courts Nos. 1 and 2 of Harris County may, at any time, with the consent of the judge of the County Court or of the Probate Court to which transfer is to be made, by an order entered upon the minutes of the said County Court or of such Probate Court, transfer to said Court or Probate Court any such matter or proceeding pending in such court or Probate Court of Harris County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returnable to and filed in the County Court or Probate Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the County Court or Probate Court to which such transfer may be made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Harris County shall retain, as heretofore, the powers and jurisdiction of said court existing at the time of the passage of this Act, and shall exercise its powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those transferred to or filed in the said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County or Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County. The County Judge of Harris County shall be the judge of the County Court of Harris County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Harris County, as they now exist, shall be exercised by the County Judge of Harris County, except in so far as the same are expressly committed by statute to the judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County or to the judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County or the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County.

Sec. 5. The practice and procedure in the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall be the same as that provided by law generally for the county courts of this state; and all statutes and laws of the state, as well as all rules of court relating to proceedings in the county courts of this state, or to the review thereof or appeals therefrom, shall, as to all matters within the jurisdiction of said court, apply equally thereto.

Sec. 6. The Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing County Courts throughout the state.

Sec. 7. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term, shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

Sec. 8. The Judge of the Probate Court of Harris County shall continue as judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County until December 31, 1970, and until his successor is duly qualified. There shall be elected in said county by the duly qualified voters thereof at the general election of 1970, and at the general election every four (4) years thereafter, a judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall be duly qualified. The judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall be well informed in the laws of the state and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election.

Sec. 9. The judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall execute a bond in the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), payable as required by law, and take the oath relating to county judge as provided by law.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County by the appointment of a judge of said court, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, the County Judge of Harris County or the judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall sit and act as judge of said court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said court, any matter or proceeding there pending, and enter any order in such matters or proceedings as the judge of said court may enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the judge of the said Probate Court No. 1 and the judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County and the County Judge of Harris County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County may be appointed or elected as provided by the general laws relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 13. The judge of the County Court of Harris County is designated as the presiding judge of the Courts of Probate of Harris County. It shall be the duty of the county judge to equalize as nearly as possible the dockets of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County so that each of said courts will have two-fifths of the probate cases pending in Harris County. It shall be the duty of the said presiding judge of the courts of Probate of Harris County, to call a conference two times a year for the purpose of consultation and counsel as to the state of business in probate matters in Harris County, Texas, and to arrange for the disposition of the business pending on the probate docket of each of the courts with probate jurisdiction in Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 14. The county clerk of Harris County shall be the clerk of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed. The sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 15. The judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to county judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said court, all of which shall be paid to him into the County Treasury as collected, and he shall receive an annual salary in the amount, and to be fixed, as is now or hereafter established by law for probate judges.

Sec. 16. The primary purpose of this Act is to change the name of the Probate Court of Harris County, Texas, to Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and none of the provisions hereof shall be construed as creating a new court. All processes extant in the Probate Court of Harris County on the effective date of this Act shall be returnable to and filed in the said court, the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, and all of such processes so returned to and filed in the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall be valid and binding."

Art. 1970–110a.2 Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County

Sec. 1. [Classified as art. 1970–110a.1, now repealed].

Sec. 2. There is hereby created a County Court to be held in and for Harris County, to be called the "Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas."

Sec. 3. Said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Harris County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, in such matters and proceedings, and also concurrent with and in all things equal to that heretofore conferred upon the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 4. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court, under the direction of the County Judge and by order entered on the Minutes of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the County Court of Harris County, Texas, as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day, or thereafter filed, with the County Clerk of Harris County, irrespective of the Courts or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk alternately in said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County with every fifth case bearing the last number 5 or 0 being filed by said Clerk in the County Court of Harris County, in the order in which the same are deposited with said Clerk for filing, beginning first with the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, filing the next with the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, and continuing alternately thereafter except every fifth case so deposited shall be filled with the County Court of Harris County, and further, said Clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said Courts. The County Judge of Harris County, in his discretion, may, by an order entered upon the Minutes of the County Court of Harris County, or on or after the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, transfer to said Probate Court No. 2 any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending in the County Court of Harris County and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made. Records of the Judges of the County Court and said Probate Courts No. 1 and 2 may, at any time, with the consent of the Judge of the County Court or the Judge of the Probate Court to which transfer is to be made by an order entered upon the Minutes of the County Court or of such Probate Court of Harris County, transfer to said County Court or any such other Probate Court any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending in such

County or Probate Court of Harris County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returnable to and filed in the County Court or the Probate Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the County Court or the Probate Court to which such transfer may be made.

Sec. 5. The County Court of Harris County shall retain, as heretofore, the powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature, except those matters and proceedings provided in Section 4 of this Act to be transferred to and filed in said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County and those matters and proceedings heretofore transferred to and filed either originally or subsequently, in the Probate Court of Harris County in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 526, Acts of 1949, 51st Legislature, Regular Session. The County Judge of Harris County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Harris County, and all ex-officio duties of the County Judge of Harris County as they now exist shall be exercised by the County Judge of Harris County. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as in any wise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, or of the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, or the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, or 4 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The practice and procedure in the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall be the same as that provided by law generally for the county courts of this State; and all statutes and laws of the State as well as all Rules of Court relating to proceedings therefrom, shall, as to all matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, apply equally thereto.

Sec. 7. The Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provision as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the State.

Sec. 8. The initial term of the Probate Court No. 2 shall begin on the first Monday next after the first day of the first calendar month following the effective date of this Act and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in January, of the following year. Thereafter there shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term, and shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July, and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

Sec. 9. The term of office of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall be for a period of four (4) years; the first full term of office of said Judge is to commence on January 1, 1969. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Harris County as soon as practicable after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the General Election next before the first full term of office of said Judge, as herein provided and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. The Judge of said Court shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall execute a bond in the amount of $100,000.00; take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to County Judges.

Sec. 11. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County by the appointment of a Judge of said Court, who shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, the County Judge of Harris County or the Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, the County Judge of Harris County or the Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, shall sit and act as Judge of said Court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said Court, any matter or proceeding there pending, and enter any order in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Court may enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 13. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County or the Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and the County Judge of Harris County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County or of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County as the need may demand, may be appointed or elected, as provided by the General Laws relating to county courts and to the Judge thereof.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Court of Harris County is designated as the Presiding Judge of the Courts of Probate of Harris County. It shall be the duty of the County Judge upon the creation of the Probate Court No. 2 to equalize as nearly as possible the dockets of the Probate Court No. 1 and the Probate Court No. 2 so that each Court will have two-fifths of the probate cases pending in Harris County. It shall be the duty of the presiding Judge of the Courts of Probate of Harris County, to call a conference two times a year for the purpose of consultation and counsel as to the state of business in probate matters in Harris County, Texas, and to arrange for the disposition of the business pending on the probate docket of each of the courts with probate jurisdiction in Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Harris County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County. The seal of the Court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed. The Sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 16. The Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to County Judges or to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected. From and after the date he becomes duly qualified thereafter, he shall receive an annual salary equal to the salary of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and payable in like manner.

Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws or parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 18. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not thereby be rendered invalid or unconstitutional, nor be affected thereby.

Art. 1970–110b. County Criminal Court at Law No. 2

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Criminal Court at Law No. 2."

Hereafter wherever the name of County Court at Law No. 3 appears in this Act creating said Court it shall be read and understood as meaning and referring to "County Criminal Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Harris County, Texas, and the judges of said court shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction: provided that said court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which is now vested exclusively in the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 or in the judge thereof.

Sec. 3. At each General Election, there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) years, and who shall hold his office for two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court in equal monthly installments; but such judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case, as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas. Said Court or the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 4. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the Law relating to "official court reporters" shall and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of Harris County is paid.

Sec. 5. The county clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, in civil matters and the district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, in criminal matters. The county clerk shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law and causes. The district clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said court when required by the judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of county courts shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

Sec. 7. The seal of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas,” and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 8. A special judge of said court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The terms of the court hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February and April of each year. The session of said court shall be held in such place as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

Sec. 10. When this Act becomes effective all civil actions or proceedings having numbers ending with 3, 6 and 9 pending on the docket of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, shall be transferred to and docketed in the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, by the county clerk and jurisdiction of such civil actions and proceedings so transferred is hereby conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas. All criminal cases of even numbers pending on the docket of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, on the effective date of this Act shall be transferred to and docketed in the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, by the district clerk and jurisdiction of such cases so transferred is hereby conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, may exchange benches with the judges of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, in the same manner that the judges of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, are authorized to exchange benches under the provisions of Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 144, Chapter 16 and Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 143, Chapter 24, Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, Regular Session, 1929.

Sec. 12. The practice in said County Court at Law No. 3, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now, or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts.

Sec. 13. All process issued out of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, prior to the time when the clerks thereof shall transfer cases from the docket of said courts, as provided in Section 10 of this Act, in cases transferred as therein provided, shall be returned to and filed in the court hereby created, and shall be equally as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such process had been issued out of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas. Likewise, in cases transferred to any one of the County Courts at Law by order of the judge of one of said courts as provided in Section 2 of this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer may be made.

Sec. 14. If any part of this Act is held unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction such holding of unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this Act.

Sec. 15. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

tion over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Harris County, and the judges of said courts shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided that said courts shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the judge thereof.

(c) Each of the judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7 shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four years and shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this state for not less than five years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court in equal monthly installments; but such judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case, as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas. Said courts or the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County, Texas, and a judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County, Texas, and a judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and shall serve until the next general election and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County, Texas, or in the office of the judge of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County, Texas, or in the office of the judge of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County, Texas, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

(d) The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporters herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporters shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the district courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Harris County is paid.

(e) The district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County, Texas, of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County, Texas, and of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County, Texas. The district clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 of Harris County, Texas.

(f) The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said courts when required by the judges thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this state executing process issued out of said courts shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

(g) The seals of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seals shall contain the words “County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County, Texas,” and the words “County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County, Texas,” and the words “County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County, Texas,” respectively, and said seals shall be judicially noticed.

(h) A special judge of each of said courts may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

(i) The terms of the courts hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February, and April of each year. The sessions of said courts shall be held in such places as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

(j) When this Act becomes effective, the district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall alternately file the first 300 cases to be filed in the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 5, and the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 6, and the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 7, with 100 cases being filed in each of the three said courts. Thereafter, cases shall be filed in rotation so thereafter of every seven cases filed, each of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 shall receive one case.
(k) The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, may exchange benches with each other and with the judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 of Harris County, Texas, in the same manner that the judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, are authorized to exchange benches. The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, may transfer criminal causes between said courts by entry of an order on the docket of the court from which the cause is transferred, provided that no cause shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

(l) The practice in said County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereeto, shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts.

(m) In cases transferred to any one of the County Criminal Courts at Law of Harris County, Texas, as provided in this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer may be made.

Art. 1970-110d. County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County

(a) There is hereby created a court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas," and the seal of said Court shall be as provided by law for county courts except the seal shall contain the words "County Civil Court at Law No. 2."

(b) The County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over civil matters, proceedings and cases, that is now or may be vested in the County Civil Court at Law No. 1, and shall have jurisdiction in civil actions, and the judge thereof to exercise equal administrative and ministerial jurisdiction in matters of the filing and disposition of proceedings in eminent domain, concurrently and coextensively with the judge presiding in County Civil Court at Law No. 1, under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and this Court shall have appellate jurisdiction likewise in appeals of civil cases from the justice courts within Harris County, and the Judges of said Court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to civil matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having civil jurisdiction, provided that the said Court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which is now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the Judge thereof.

(c) The County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County shall have jurisdiction in all civil matters and causes, original and appellate, except probate matters, over which, by the Constitution and general laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said County would have formerly had jurisdiction, and shall have equal and like jurisdiction over civil cases, and civil proceedings in the same manner as jurisdiction has been heretofore exercised in civil cases and civil proceedings and in eminent domain by the County Civil Court at Law No. 1.

That County Civil Courts at Law (No. 1 and No. 2) shall have special jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and the Judges thereof shall have sole administrative and ministerial jurisdiction to file and dispose of proceedings in eminent domain concurrently and coextensively when filed in either of said Civil Courts or with the respective Judges thereof.

(d) The terms of the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by laws relating to county courts. The terms of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2 for civil cases shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County until the same be changed in accordance with the law.

Said Court shall hold six (6) terms a year, beginning respectively on the first Monday in January, in March, in May, in July, in September, and in November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

(e) The Judge of the said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2, shall be elected at the General Election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court in equal monthly installments; and when this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a Judge to the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed, and shall serve until the next General Election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of Judge of said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.
Art. 1970-110d

(f) The Judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

(g) A special Judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2 may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

(h) The County Clerk of Harris County shall be the Clerk of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2. The Sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Said County Clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said Civil Courts, No. 1 and No. 2, and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions filed in each of said Courts in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts.

The County Clerk shall after the effective date of this Act, file all civil cases and civil proceedings exclusively in the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 and No. 2 and shall file said civil cases alternately in each of said Courts as presented for filing.

(i) In case of disqualification, an overcrowded docket, sickness or absence from the county, of any of the Judges of the Judges of the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 or No. 2, of County Criminal Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2 or 3, any other Judge of said Courts, may exchange benches with any other County Court at Law Judge of Harris County, Texas, and when so exchanging benches with any other of the said County Court at Law Judges of Harris County, the Judge of County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have all power and jurisdiction of the County Civil or County Criminal Courts at Law, and of the Judge thereof, while so exchanging benches; and in like manner the Judges of said County Civil or Criminal Courts at Law of Harris County, Texas, shall have all the power and jurisdiction of any other of said Civil or Criminal County Courts at Law and of the Judges thereof while so exchanging benches, and may sign orders, judgments and decrees, or other process as "Judge Presiding" when acting for such disqualified or absent judge upon request or in an emergency, or for good cause shown.

That the salary of the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law No. 2 and the salaries of all County and Civil and Criminal Court Judges mentioned herein, to wit: County Civil Court at Law No. 1; County Criminal Court at Law No. 1; County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 and County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 shall be not less than Thirteen Thousand, Two Hundred Dollars ($13,200) or more than Fifteen Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($15,600), per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Harris County, Texas.

(j) That the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law No. 2, of Harris County, Texas, may appoint and discharge an Official Court Reporter in the same manner as such a reporter is appointed or discharged by the district courts, and who shall receive the same salary as the reporters of the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, the same to be paid by the County Treasurer out of the General Fund of the County, and in addition to said salary the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law.

Art. 1970-110e. County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County

(a) There is hereby created a court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas," and the seal of said court shall be the same as provided by law for county courts except the seal shall contain the words "County Civil Court at Law No. 3."

(b) The County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over civil matters, proceedings and cases, that is now or may be vested in the County Civil Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2, and shall have jurisdiction in civil actions, and the judge thereof to exercise equal administrative and ministerial jurisdiction in matters of the filing and disposition of proceedings in eminent domain, concurrently and coextensively with the judge presiding in County Civil Court at Law No. 1 and the judge presiding in County Civil Court at Law No. 2, under the constitution and laws of Texas, and this court shall have appellate jurisdiction likewise in appeals of civil cases from the justice courts within Harris County, and the judges of said court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to civil matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having civil jurisdiction, provided that the said court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which is now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the Judge thereof.

(c) The County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County shall have jurisdiction in all civil matters and causes, original and appellate, except probate matters, over which, by the constitution and general laws of the State of Texas, the county court of said county would have formerly had jurisdiction, and shall have equal and like jurisdiction over civil cases, and civil proceedings in the same manner as jurisdiction has been heretofore exercised in civil cases and civil proceedings and in eminent domain by the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 and by the County Civil Court at Law No. 2. The County Civil Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, and 3 shall have special jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and the judges thereof shall have sole administrative and ministerial jurisdiction to file and dispose of proceedings in eminent domain concurrently and coextensively when filed in either of said civil courts or with the respective judges thereof.
(d) The terms of the County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by laws relating to county courts. The terms of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 for civil cases shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Civil Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Harris County until the same be changed in accordance with the law.

Said court shall hold six terms a year, beginning respectively on the first Monday in January, in March, in May, in July, in September, and in November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

(e) The judge of the said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state for not less than five years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court in equal monthly installments; and when this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a judge to the County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed, and shall serve until the next general election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of judge of said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

(f) The judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

(g) A special judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

(h) The County Clerk of Harris County shall be the clerk of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3. The Sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said court when required by the judge thereof.

Said county clerk shall keep separate docket files for each of said Civil Courts Nos. 1, 2, and 3, and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costing fees in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts.

The county clerk shall after the effective date of this Act, file all civil cases and civil proceedings exclusively in the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 and No. 2 and No. 3 and shall file said civil cases alternately in each of said courts as presented for filing.

(i) In case of disqualification, an overcrowded docket, sickness or absence from the county, of any of the judges of the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 or No. 2 or No. 3, or county criminal courts at law, any other judge of said courts may exchange benches with any other county court at law judge of Harris County, Texas, and when so exchanging benches with any other of the said county court at law judges of Harris County, the Judge of County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall have all power and jurisdiction of the county civil or county criminal courts at law, and of the judge thereof, while so exchanging benches; and in like manner the judges of said county civil or criminal courts at law of Harris County, Texas, shall have all the power and jurisdiction of any other of said civil or criminal county courts at law and of the judges thereof while so exchanging benches, and may sign orders, judgments and decrees, or other process as "Judge Presiding" while acting for such disqualified or absent judge upon request or in an emergency, or for good cause shown.

The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, may appoint and discharge an official court reporter in the same manner as such a reporter is appointed or discharged by the district courts, and who shall receive the same salary as the reporters of the district courts of Harris County, Texas, the same to be paid by the county treasurer out of the general fund of the county, and in addition to said salary the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law.

JEFFERSON COUNTY

Art. 1970–111. County Court of Jefferson County at Law Created

There is hereby created a court to be held in Beaumont, Jefferson County, Texas, to be called the County Court of Jefferson County at Law.

The County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall have jurisdiction in all matters and cases, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the State the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as hereinafter provided in Section 3 of this Act, and all cases pending in the County Court of said County other than probate matters such as are provided in Section 3 of this Act shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, herefore issued by or out of said County Court, other than those pertaining to matters which are hereby exempt by this Act that are to remain in the County Court of Jefferson County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law. The jurisdiction of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and to the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction as heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Jefferson County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, or matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof. The County Court of Jefferson County at Law, in addition to the jurisdiction provided by law, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil matters and cases when the matter in controversy shall exceed $500 and not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

The County Court of Jefferson County shall retain, as heretofore, general jurisdiction of the probate court, and all jurisdiction conferred by law now over probate matters, and the judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law may act for the judge of the county court in any juvenile, lunacy or probate matter, and also may perform for the county court any and all ministerial acts required by the laws of this state of the county judge, and any and all acts thus performed by the judge of the County Court at Law while acting for the county court shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such proceedings or matters, the same as if performed by the county judge, provided that the powers thus given the judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall extend to and include all powers of the county judge except his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the county as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court, and the County Court of Jefferson County as now and heretofore existing shall have all the jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law by this Act, but the county court as now existing shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The county judge of Jefferson County shall be judge of the county court for the county, and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by said judge of the County Court of Jefferson County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to require that the County Judge of Jefferson County shall be an attorney.

Art. 1970–114. Terms of Court

There shall be four terms of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, each year, the first of said terms beginning on the first Monday of July; one term beginning on the first Monday of October; one term beginning on the first Monday of January; one term beginning on the first Monday of April; with each of said terms beginning on the first Monday, as aforesaid, and to continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday of the term immediately following.

Art. 1970–115. Election of Judge; Tenure; Qualifications

There shall be elected in Jefferson County by the qualified voters thereof at each general election a Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, who shall hold his office for two years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. No person shall be elected Judge of said Court who has not been a resident citizen of Jefferson County, Texas, for at least two years prior to his election, and shall possess all of the qualifications for the office that are now required by the General Laws of the State of Texas for District Judges.

When this Act shall become effective the present Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, who shall hold his office for two years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. No person shall be elected Judge of said Court who has not been a resident citizen of Jefferson County, Texas, for at least two years prior to his election, and shall possess all of the qualifications for the office that are now required by the General Laws of the State of Texas for District Judges.

When the Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, is disqualified to try any case pending in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, the parties or their attorneys in such a case may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case, but if the parties or their attorneys fail to agree upon the selection of a Special Judge to try such case, it shall be the duty of the Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, to certify to the Governor that he is disqualified to try such case and the failure of the parties or their attorneys to agree upon the selection of a Special Judge to try such a case. Thereupon, the Governor shall proceed to appoint a Special Judge, learned in the law, to try such case.

Art. 1970–118. Issuance of Writs

The County Court of Jefferson County at Law, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law.

The County Clerk of Jefferson County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and the Seal of said Court shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts, except the Seal shall contain the words "County Court of Jefferson County at Law," and the Sheriff of Jefferson County, Texas, shall, in person, or by deputy, attend such Court when required by the Judge thereof, and the County Clerk of Jefferson County, Texas, is hereby authorized and directed to appoint a deputy, who shall be acceptable to the Judge of said Court to specially attend the sessions of said Court and to attend to all matters pertaining to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and said deputy shall receive a salary not to exceed the maximum salary paid other deputies in the County Clerk's office with the rating of head of a department, said salary to be paid out of the County Treasury of Jefferson County upon order of the Commissioners Court of said County. For the purpose of preserving a record in any matter or proceeding heard in said Court for the information of the Court, Jury, or Parties, the Judge of said Court is hereby authorized to appoint an official stenographer for such Court, who shall be well skilled in his profession, who shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Commissioners Court, and the provisions of Chapter 13, of Title 40, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, relating to the appointment of a stenographer for the District Courts shall apply. In all its provisions in so far as applicable, to the official stenographer herein authorized to be appointed by the Judge of said Court, and such reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and shall perform the same duties as provided in said Title, except in addition to the lawful fees for transcription of testimony and preparing statement of facts he shall receive a salary of One Hundred, Twenty-five Dollars ($125) per month, which salary shall be paid monthly out of the County Treasury of said County, upon order of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1970–120. Selection of Jurors

The Jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the District Courts of this State for the drawing, selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, provided a panel of not exceeding twenty-four jurors shall be drawn for any one week of said Court, and juries selected in the trial of any case shall not exceed six.

Art. 1970–121. Vacancy in Office of Judge

Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, may be filled by the County Commissioners Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Art. 1970–122. Salary of Judge; Assessment and Collection of Fees

The Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall receive a salary of not more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) per annum, which shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the County Treasury of Jefferson County as fixed and ordered by the Commissioners Court of said county. The Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to county judges' fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the County Treasury on collection and no part of which shall be paid to said judge, who shall instead draw a salary as herein provided.

All cases appealed from the Justices Courts and Recorders Courts in Jefferson County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Art. 1970–124. Fees of County Judge

The County Judge of Jefferson County, at the time this Act goes into effect, shall receive the same compensation in ex-officio salary and fees as he would have received had this Act, creating the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, not been enacted, said compensation to be computed and allowed and ordered paid by the Commissioners Court of said County out of the general fund of said county.

Art. 1970–125. Special Judge; Election; Compensation

Should the Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law on the first or any future day of a term, fail or refuse to hold the court, a majority of the practicing attorneys present in said Court shall proceed to elect among their number a Special Judge in the same manner prescribed by law for the election of Special Judges of County Courts; and such Special Judge shall be entitled to receive a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00) for each case tried by him, the same to be paid by the County Treasurer upon the order of the Commissioners' Court of Jefferson County, Texas. [Acts 1919, ch. 27, § 16; Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 3, ch. 3, § 1.]

Nothing in this Act shall be construed in any manner to affect or repeal the Act Not Repealed [Acts 1919, ch. 27, § 16a.]

Art. 1970-126a. County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Beaumont, Jefferson County, Texas, to be called the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2.

Sec. 2. The County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction and powers in all actions, matters, and proceedings of every nature that are now conferred by law upon and vested in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the Judge thereof. Provided, however, that the jurisdiction of the said County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 over all such actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, shall be concurrent. The County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, in addition to the jurisdiction provided by law, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil matters and cases when the matter in controversy shall exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), exclusive of interest.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 shall be the same and identical with the terms of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law as the same now exists or may exist in the future.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters and proceedings may be filed in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and all such actions, matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the Court in which filed or in such manner as may be determined by the Judges of the said County Court of Jefferson County at Law and County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 by an order duly made by such Judges entered upon the minutes of each such Court.

Sec. 5. At the next General Election after the effective date of this Act, and at each applicable General Election thereafter, there shall be elected in Jefferson County by the qualified voters thereof, a Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, who shall possess all of the qualifications which are now required of the Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 who shall have the qualifications herein described and he shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the Judge of said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, shall, in like manner as hereinabove provided, be filled by the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until a successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The County Clerk of Jefferson County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and the seal of said County Court at Law No. 2, shall be created for the city of Port Arthur in Jefferson County, Texas, passed by the Fourth Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature and known as House Bill No. 112. [Acts 1919, ch. 27, § 16a.]
County Treasury of said County upon order of the Commissioners Court of said County.

Sec. 7. The jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the District Court for this state for the drawing, selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and the drawing, selection and service of jurors for said Court shall be the same in practice and procedure as in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 shall receive a salary of not more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) per annum, which shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the County Treasury of Jefferson County as fixed and ordered by the Commissioners Court of said county. The judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to county judges’ fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the County Treasury on collection and no part of which shall be paid to said judge who shall instead draw a salary as herein provided.

Sec. 9. All cases appealed from the Justices Courts and Recorders Courts in Jefferson County, Texas, shall be made direct to either the County Court of Jefferson County at Law or the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (the jurisdiction of such courts being concurrent) under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 10. The Judges of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 may at any time exchange benches, and may at any time sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now or hereafter pending in either of said Courts, and any and all of such acts thus performed by the Judges of said Courts shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 11. Each of the Judges of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 may, with the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions or proceedings from his respective Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket. On the effective date of this Act, or thereafter, the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and the Judge thereof, shall transfer to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 any civil or criminal action or proceeding pending on the docket of said Court as may be necessary in order that the now overcrowded docket of said Court may be relieved, and said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and the Judge thereof, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said civil or criminal matters, and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein. No cause shall be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which it is transferred.

Sec. 12. Special Judges may be appointed or elected for either or both the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the General Laws of this state, relating to the appointment and election of the Special Judge or Judges of the several district and county courts of this state; and every such Special Judge thus appointed or elected for either of said two courts shall receive for the services he may actually perform as a Special Judge the same amount of pay which the regular Judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid to such Special Judge shall be paid out of a general fund of Jefferson County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County and upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, but no part of the amount paid the Special Judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of either of the regular Judges of said respective Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2.

EL PASO COUNTY

Art. 1970–127. Court Created

There is hereby created a court to be held in El Paso county, Texas, to be known and designated as the “El Paso County Court at Law.”

Sec. 1. The name of the El Paso County Court at Law is changed to the “County Court at Law No. 1 of El Paso County, Texas.”

The El Paso County Court at Law shall have jurisdiction of all civil matters and causes, original and appellate over which by the General Laws of the State of Texas the County Court of said county would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 3, of this Act; and the El Paso County Court at Law of said county shall have jurisdiction in all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate over which by the General Laws of this State the County Court has jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 3, of this Act (Art. 1811-135); and all civil and criminal writs and processes heretofore issued by and out of said County Court shall be, and the same are hereby made returnable to the El Paso County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas. The jurisdiction of El Paso County Court at Law and the judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore rested in the County Court of El Paso County, Texas, or the judge thereof, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners' Court or the County Judge of El Paso County as presiding judge of said court as to roads, bridges and public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners' Court or of the judge of the County Court of El Paso County, Texas.

Art. 1970–141.1 County Court at Law No. 2 of
El Paso County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created an additional county court at law in El Paso County, Texas, to be known and designated as the “County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas.”

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall have and is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in County Courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in appeals in criminal cases from Justice Courts and Corporation Courts within El Paso County, and the judges of said Court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of County Courts having criminal jurisdiction. Said County Court at Law No. 2 shall have and is hereby granted the same jurisdiction and powers in criminal matters and civil actions or proceedings that are now or may be conferred by law upon and vested in the County Court of Law of El Paso County, Texas; and each of the judges of said County Courts at Law may with the consent of the judges of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions or proceedings from his respective Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, and the said County Court at Law of El Paso County, and the judge thereof, shall transfer to the said County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, any civil or criminal action or proceeding pending on the docket of said Court on the effective date of this Act as may be necessary in order that the now overcrowded dockets of said Court may be relieved, and said County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, and the judge thereof, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said civil or criminal matters, and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees, and judgments therein. No cause shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the Court to which it is transferred.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of El Paso County and County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County shall henceforth have general jurisdiction of Probate Courts within the limits of El Paso County concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of El Paso County in such matters and proceedings. Such County Court at Law and County Court at Law No. 2 shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots and lunatics, persons non compos mentis and drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts with administrators, executors and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and drunkards; including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors or incompetents as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings. Said County Court at Law and County Court at Law No. 2 shall have no jurisdiction over any other of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of El Paso County, or in the judge therein.

The County Court of El Paso County, the El Paso County Court at Law and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, or either of the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Courts; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by the General Laws governing County Courts throughout the State, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Courts or of any Court or tribunal inferior to said Courts.

The judges of the County Court of El Paso County, County Court at Law of El Paso County, and County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County may with the consent of the judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer probate matters or proceedings from his respective Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, to enable the efficient and justiciable disposition of the probate matters and proceedings in El Paso County, Texas.

The judges of the County Court, County Court at Law and County Court at Law No. 2 may collectively make and publish rules from time to time governing the docketing and disposition of probate matters and proceedings in their Courts not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and for the purpose of efficient and justiciable disposition of such probate matters and proceedings. A copy of such rules and changes shall be filed with the County Clerk of El Paso County, Texas, and one (1) copy of such rules and changes shall be available in each such Court for the examination of participants in any probate matters filed.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of El Paso County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall commence on the first Monday in January and July and said Courts may continue in session until the Sunday next preceding the Monday for the convening of the next regular term of Court.

The judges of the County Court at Law of El Paso County, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County may divide each term of Court into as many sessions as they deem necessary for the disposition of business, and may extend a particular term of Court whenever practicable for the efficient and justiciable disposition of individual proceedings and matters.

Sec. 5. The judge of the County Court at Law of El Paso, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a practicing attorney of this State for at least five (5) years next preceding his election or appointment and who shall have resided in the County of El Paso.
Paso for at least two (2) years next preceding his election or appointment.

Judges of the County Court at Law of El Paso County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County shall each receive an annual salary of not less than Five Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($5,500) and not more than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000), the amount of the salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of El Paso County and to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury upon order of the Commissioners Court; such judges shall not collect any fee from the County for disposing of any criminal case.

Sec. 6. Within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this Act, the senior district judge in and for El Paso County, Texas, shall call an election of the licensed attorneys practicing in El Paso County, Texas, for the purpose of electing a panel of three (3) qualified nominees for the office of judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas. Notice of the time of such election shall be prominently posted in the district clerk's office and the county clerk's office at least one (1) week prior to the date of such nominations. A candidate for the office of judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, may be nominated for said panel by a written nomination from one (1) of said licensed attorneys or the candidate himself filed prior to the date of said election with the said senior district judge. At the said called election, the senior district judge shall present said written applications and nominations and shall receive further oral nominations at that time; the senior district judge shall not permit nominations to be closed until it is apparent no further nominations are forthcoming. Said attorneys then present shall then vote by secret ballot from the written and oral nominees and applicants, their respective three (3) preferences marked in order of their preference, which vote shall be counted according to preference.

The panel of the three (3) candidates receiving the highest number of votes and the results of said election shall be certified by the said senior district judge and submitted to the county judge of El Paso County, Texas, as a recommendation only, but such recommendation shall not be binding on the Commissioners Court in their appointment as hereinafter provided. Within one (1) week from the receipt of said panel by the said county judge, the Commissioners Court of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, who shall serve beginning September 1, 1955, until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter said office shall be filled at general election as provided by law except in case of vacancy. In case of vacancy said office shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court in the same manner.

After the effective date of this Act a vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas, shall likewise be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court from a panel of three (3) nominees elected in the same manner as in the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, which appointed judge shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified, as now provided by law.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, shall execute bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint an official court reporter for such Court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official court reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official court reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official court reporters in the District Courts of El Paso County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official court reporters of the District Courts of El Paso County are paid.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of El Paso County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, in civil and criminal matters. The county clerk shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas. Said clerk shall keep separate docket books for each of said Courts; and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in each of said Courts in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the District Courts.

Sec. 10. The sheriff of El Paso County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said Court when required by the judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of said Court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of County Courts.

Sec. 11. The seal of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except that such seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 12. A special judge of said Court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to County Courts and judges thereof.
Art. 1970-141.1 TITLE 41

Sec. 13. The judges of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, and the judge thereof, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine civil or criminal matters, and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees, and judgments therein. No cause may be transferred without the consent of the judge of the county to which it is transferred.

Sec. 3. (a) The County Courts at Law of El Paso County shall henceforth have general jurisdiction of probate courts within the limits of El Paso County concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of El Paso County in such matters and proceedings. The County Courts at Law shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, and lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and drunkards; including the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings. The county courts at law shall have no jurisdiction over any other of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of El Paso County, or in the judge therein.

(b) The County Court of El Paso County, and the County Courts at Law of El Paso County, or each of the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the courts; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the courts or of any court or tribunal inferior to the courts.

(c) The judges of the County Court of El Paso County and the County Courts at Law of El Paso County may with the consent of the judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer probate matters or proceedings from his respective court to the other court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, to enable the efficient and justiciable disposition of the probate matters and proceedings in El Paso County, Texas.

(d) The judges of the county court and the county courts at law may collectively make and publish rules from time to time governing the docketing and disposition of probate matters and proceedings in their courts not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and for the purpose of efficient and justiciable disposition of probate matters and proceedings. A copy of the rules and changes shall be filed with the County Clerk of El Paso County, Texas, and one copy of the rules and changes shall be... available in each court for the examination of participants in any probate matters filed.

Sec. 4. (a) The terms of the County Courts at Law of El Paso County shall commence on the first Monday in January and July and the court may continue in session until the Sunday next preceding the Monday for the convening of the next regular term of court.

(b) The judges of the County Courts at Law of El Paso County may divide each term of court into as many sessions as they deem necessary for the disposition of business, and may extend a particular term of court whenever practicable for the efficient and justicable disposition of individual proceedings and matters.

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of each County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas, shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state, who shall have been a practicing attorney of this state for at least five years next preceding his election or appointment and who shall have resided in the County of El Paso for at least two years next preceding his election or appointment.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County shall receive an annual salary in an amount identical to that received by the judge of each other county court at law in El Paso County. The salary shall be set and paid in the same manner and from the same source as the salaries of the judges of the other County Courts at Law in El Paso County are set and paid. The judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case.

Sec. 6. The Commissioners Court of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, who shall serve beginning September 1, 1969, until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified. Thereafter the office shall be filled at general election as provided by law except in case of vacancy. In case of vacancy the office shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, shall execute bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint an official court reporter for the court, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as hereafter amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall apply in all their provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official court reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and the official court reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official court reporters in the district courts of El Paso County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official court reporters of the district courts of El Paso County are paid.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of El Paso County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, in civil and criminal matters. The county clerk shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Courts at Law No. 1 and No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas. The clerk shall keep separate dockets for each court; and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in each court in like manner as the fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts.

Sec. 10. The sheriff of El Paso County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend the court when required by the judge; and the various sheriffs and constables of this state executing process issued out of said court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

Sec. 11. The seal of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas," and the seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 12. A special judge of the court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 13. (a) The judges of the County Courts at Law No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3 shall have the power to make and publish rules as to the docketing and disposition of criminal and civil cases in their courts not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) The judges of the County Courts at Law of El Paso County, Texas, with mutual consent may exchange benches with one another or act as presiding judge of the other court in individual proceedings or actions in the absence or disqualification of the other judge.

Sec. 14. In cases transferred to any one of the county courts at law by order of the judge of one of said courts as provided in Section 2 of this Act, all process extant at the time of the transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

EASTLAND COUNTY

Art. 1970-141a. Eminent Domain and Probate Jurisdiction; Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction Transferred

Sec. 1. The County Court of Eastland County shall retain and continue to have and exer-
exercise the general jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, general jurisdiction of probate courts, and all other jurisdiction now or hereafter conferred by the Constitution and laws of this State, except as is hereinafter provided, and shall retain all jurisdiction and power to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempt; but said County Court shall have no civil jurisdiction and no criminal jurisdiction except jurisdiction to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases, and except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2 hereof.

Sec. 2. The District Court having jurisdiction in Eastland County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and cases of a civil nature and in all matters of a criminal nature, except as to such jurisdiction that the County Court has to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases, and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court having jurisdiction in Eastland County, Texas, and all writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of said County Court and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by all appropriate process.

Sec. 3. The County Attorney of Eastland County shall represent the State in all misdemeanor cases before the District Court of Eastland County, and shall receive therefor the same fees to which he would be entitled under the law as County Attorney had said cases been tried in the County Court.

Sec. 4. The clerk of the County Court of Eastland County is, and he is hereby required within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect to file with the clerk of the District Court of said county all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Court, and all Judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment, or other order entered in the minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred; and the district clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the District Court of Eastland County in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. It shall not be necessary that the district clerk refile any papers heretofore filed by the county clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of the same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the county clerk, prior to the time of said transfer, shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the district clerk.

Said county clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost and against all cost deposits, if any, the county clerk shall charge accrued fees due him, and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the district clerk as a deposit in the particular case for which the same was deposited. Credit shall also be given the litigants for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

These articles, Acts 1919, 2nd C.S., ch. 16, §§ 1 to 11, creating County Court at Law for Eastland County, were held unconstitutional and void in State v. Gillette's Estate, Com.App., 10 S.W.2d 984.

WICHITA COUNTY

Art. 1970–166a. Jurisdiction of Wichita County Court at Law Transferred to Wichita County Court

Immediately upon the taking effect of this Act, as provided for in Section 2, all jurisdiction of all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, which is now within the jurisdiction of the County Court of Wichita County at Law will at once be transferred to, conferred upon, and will vest in the County Court of Wichita County and all powers now and heretofore existing in the Judge of the County Court of Wichita County at Law are hereby, upon the effective date of this Act, conferred on the County Judge of Wichita County, and all cases pending at the effective date of this Act in the County Court of Wichita County at Law shall be and the same are hereby, on said effective date, transferred to the County Court of Wichita County, and all writs and processes, civil and criminal, issued by or out of the County Court of Wichita County at Law prior to the effective date of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Wichita County as fully and effectively as if they had been originally issued out of said County Court.

The County Clerk of Wichita County shall, upon the effective date of this Act, transfer all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, then in the County Court of Wichita County to the County Court of Wichita County at Law.

1 Section 2 of Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., Spec.Laws, p. 86, ch. 65, provides that this Act shall have no force and shall not disturb the operation of the County Court of Wichita County at Law until and after January 1, 1935.
Art. 1970–166b. Jurisdiction in Civil Cases Transferred to District Courts

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Wichita County shall retain and continue to have and exercise the general criminal jurisdiction, both original and appellate, the general jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, and the general jurisdiction of Probate Courts, and all jurisdiction other than in civil matters, jurisdiction of the District Courts, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, shall have no civil jurisdiction, except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2 hereof.

Sec. 2. That the District Courts having jurisdiction in said Wichita County shall have and exercise in all matters and cases of a civil nature, whether the same be of original jurisdiction or of appellate jurisdiction, over which, by the General Laws of the State of Texas now existing and hereinafter enacted, the County Court would have had jurisdiction, and that all pending civil cases be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Wichita County, Texas, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in said civil cases be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court, in and for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Wichita County, Texas. Provided, however, that there shall not be transferred to said District Courts jurisdiction over any judgments, even in civil cases, rendered prior to the time this Act takes effect and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by execution, order of sale, or other appropriate process. Provided further, that as to any civil case on appeal from said County Court, should a judgment be entered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to one of the District Courts having jurisdiction in Wichita County, Texas, and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case shall thereafter vest in the District Courts sitting in and having jurisdiction of Wichita County, Texas.

Sec. 3. That the fact that the cases of which the District Courts are given jurisdiction have been transferred by this Act to the District Court in and for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District shall not be construed to limit the jurisdiction of the other District Courts sitting in and having jurisdiction in said County, but the said District Court in and for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District shall have power to transfer any or all of said cases to said other District Courts, under the applicable provisions of the laws governing the transfer of cases among said District Courts, and all applicable provisions of law in regard to the transfer and retransfer governing cases now pending in said District Courts shall govern the cases so transferred, as well as cases subsequently filed under the jurisdiction here conferred upon said District Courts; and that, as to cases subsequently filed, same may be filed in either of said District Courts which are here given jurisdiction thereof.

Sec. 4. That the Clerk of the County Court of said Wichita County be and is hereby required, within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County, all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Courts, and all Judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the Minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred, and the District Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the said District Court for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District of Texas, and all such cases shall stand on the docket of said Court in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. Provided, further, that it shall not be necessary that the District Clerk refile any papers theretofore filed by the County Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the County Clerk, prior to the time of said transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the District Clerk. Said County Clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost, and against all cost deposits, if any, the County Clerk shall be discharged of all liability for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

Art. 1970–166c. Concurrent Jurisdiction with District Courts in Juvenile Delinquency, Child Neglect or Dependency Proceedings

Sec. 1. The County Court of Wichita County, Texas, has jurisdiction concurrent with the district courts in Wichita County of all cases involving juvenile delinquency, child neglect, or dependency proceedings, if the judge of the County Court of Wichita County possesses qualifications equal to those required to serve as a district court judge in the State of Texas; and if the judge of the County Court of Wichita County is designated by the Wichita County Juvenile Board to preside as judge of the juvenile court.

Sec. 2. When the county judge is so qualified and is designated by the Wichita County Juvenile Board to preside over such proceedings, the jurisdiction of the county court extends to contempt proceedings growing out of or ancillary to such cases, and a district court in Wichita County may transfer to the county court any such case of juvenile delinquency, child neglect, or dependency on its docket, with the consent of the Wichita County Court. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1365, ch. 519, eff. June 14, 1973.]

TEXARKANA COURT AT LAW

These articles, Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 63, creating Texarkana Court at Law, were held unconstitutional in Turner v. Tucker, 113 T. 434, 258 S.W. 149.

Art. 1970–223. May Fix Terms of Court

The county commissioners' court of said county may hereafter fix the terms of said court whenever it may be deemed necessary.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
appoint a Judge to the County Court at Law of Harrison County. The Judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this Section and serves until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law may be filled in like manner by the Commissioners Court and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law is entitled to receive the same salary as the Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County and, in addition to this salary, the Commissioners Court of Harrison County may pay him the full supplemental compensation paid to other members of the Harrison County Juvenile Board. Such salary and any additional compensation approved by the commissioners for his services on the Juvenile Board shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the Commissioners Court. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the Judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge when the Judge of the County Court at Law of Harrison County is disqualified. A special judge must have the same qualifications as the Judge of the County Court at Law and is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Court Officials and Personnel

Sec. 4. (a) The County Clerk and Sheriff of Harrison County, Texas, shall serve as clerk and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Harrison County. The Commissioners Court of Harrison County may employ as many additional deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Harrison County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Harrison County, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Judge of the County Court at Law.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Harrison County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Harrison County.

(b) The Judges of the County Court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) The County Judge and the Judge of the County Court at Law may freely exchange benches with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the County Court or County Court at Law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the Judge of the County Court at Law may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court.

(d) The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Harrison County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Harrison County and the judge thereof; but jurors summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Harrison County and the Judge of the County Court of Harrison County jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Representation of the State

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Harrison County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Court, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Court.

Facilities and Equipment

Sec. 7. (a) The Commissioners Court of Harrison County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the County Court at Law.

(b) The County Court at Law shall have a seal identical with the seal of the County Court at Harrison County, except that it contains the words “County Court at Law of Harrison County.”

Effective Date

Sec. 8. This Act becomes effective upon order of the Commissioners Court of Harrison County duly entered in its minutes.

HOCKLEY AND COCHRAN COUNTIES

Art. 1970–224. County Court of Hockley and Cochrans Counties; Jurisdiction

The county court of Hockley County and the unorganized county of Cochrans shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justices' courts in all civil matters which by the general laws of this State is conferred upon said justice of the peace courts.

Art. 1970–225. Other Jurisdiction

Said county court shall also have and exercise such jurisdiction over and pertaining to all matters, things and proceedings as is by the general laws of this state conferred upon county courts.

No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said county court in civil cases of which said court has appellate jurisdiction or original concurrent jurisdiction with the justices' court where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars exclusive of interest and costs.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deprive the justices' courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law or in any manner to impair or alter their jurisdiction, but only to give original concurrent jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in Section 1 of this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the justices' court to said county court in any case originally brought in any justice court where the right of appeal now exists by General Law.

[Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 96, § 4.]

JASPER COUNTY

Art. 1970–228. Jasper County Court; Jurisdiction in Civil Cases

That the county court of Jasper county shall hereafter have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the matter in controversy shall exceed in value two hundred dollars, and shall not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court of said county, when the amount in controversy shall exceed five hundred dollars, and not exceed one thousand dollars exclusive of interest.

Said county court shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases over which justices courts have original jurisdiction, when the judgment of the court appealed from, or the amount in controversy, shall exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, and said county court shall have power to hear and determine cases brought up from the justices courts by certiorari, under the provisions of the title of the Revised Civil Statutes, of 1895, relating thereto.

[Acts 1911, p. 11, § 2.]

Art. 1970–230. May Grant Writs longer have jurisdiction of misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and shall no longer have jurisdiction of civil cases of which the county court of said county, by the provisions of this Act, has original or appellate jurisdiction.

[Acts 1913, p. 83, § 7.]

Art. 1970–293. District Clerk to Deliver Transcripts, etc., to County Clerk
It shall be the duty of the district clerk of said county, within thirty days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcript of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the district court of said county, of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said county court, and to file said transcript together with the original papers in each case, in the county court of said county, and the county clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said county court as appearance cases for trial by said court.
[Acts 1913, p. 83, § 8.]

Art. 1970–294. Motions Against Sheriffs and Other Officers; Contempts; Other Powers
The said court shall also have the power to hear and determine all motions against sheriffs and other officers of the court for failure to pay over moneys collected under the process of said court, or other defalcations of official duty in connection with said process, and shall have power to punish by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three days, any person guilty of contempt of said court, and all other powers and jurisdictions conferred on county courts by the constitution and general laws of the state of Texas.
[Acts 1913, p. 83, § 9.]

Art. 1970–295. Terms of Court
The terms of said court shall commence on the third Monday in February, and on the third Monday in May, and on the third Monday in September, and on the third Monday in Novemer of each year, and shall continue in session for three weeks at each term, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the county commissioner's court of said county may hereafter change the terms of said court whenever it may be deemed necessary.
[Acts 1913, p. 83, § 10.]

EDWARDS COUNTY

Art. 1970–296. Edwards County Court; Act
Repealed
That Chapter 30 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-seventh Legislature be and the same is hereby repealed, and any and all laws which now stand repealed by reason of said Chapter 30 are hereby revived.

SHELBY COUNTY

Art. 1970–297. Shelby County Court; Jurisdiction Restored
Chapter 8 of the General Laws of the Fourth Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature is hereby repealed, and hereafter the county court of Shelby County, Texas, shall have the same jurisdiction and shall be subject to the same provisions as county courts generally throughout the State under the General Laws of the State of Texas.

The jurisdiction of the district court in Shelby County is hereby conformed to the change herein made of the jurisdiction of the county court, and hereafter said district court shall have the same jurisdiction as district courts under the Constitution and General Laws. It shall be the duty of the district clerk of said county within thirty days after this Act shall take effect to make full and complete transcripts of all orders on the civil and criminal dockets in cases then pending before the district court of said county of which cases by the provisions of this Act original or appellate jurisdiction is given to said county court, and to deliver said transcripts together with all original papers and a certified bill of costs in each case to the county clerk of said county and said county clerk shall take charge of said transcripts and papers and file the same and other said cases on the proper docket. All process heretofore issued from the district court of said court in cases transferred under this Act to the county court shall be returnable to the first term of the county court, and all civil cases transferred shall be entered as appearance cases upon the docket of said county court.

MCLENNAN COUNTY

Art. 1970–298a. Jurisdiction of McLennan County Court at Law Transferred to McLennan County Court; Salary of Judge

Sec. 2. All jurisdiction of all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, which is now within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, as hereby conferred and conferred on the County Court of McLennan County, and all powers heretofore residing in said County Court at Law of McLennan County are hereby conferred on the County Court of McLennan County, and all powers heretofore residing in the Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County are hereby conferred on the County Judge of McLennan County, and all cases now pending in the County Court at Law of McLennan County, shall be, and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of McLennan County, and all writs and processes, civil and criminal heretofore issued by or out of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, or the County Court of said County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of McLennan County.

Sec. 3. The Judge of the County Court of McLennan County shall assess such fees as are or may be established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of said court, and be by him paid monthly into the County Treasury, and the judge of said County Court shall receive an annual salary of Three Thousand Six Hundred ($3,600.00) Dollars, per year to be paid out of the County Treasury and from the general fund of said County.

Art. 1970–298b, County Court at Law of McLennan County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in McLennan County, to be called the County Court at Law of McLennan County.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of McLennan County shall have jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the general laws and Constitution of the State, the County Court of the county would have jurisdiction.

(b) The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of McLennan County and the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court, or of the County Judge of McLennan County as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, the County Court at Law of McLennan County and the Judge thereof shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of McLennan County and the Judge thereof in all matters and causes over which by law governing County Courts, any or all of which may be exercised by the Judges of the County Court of McLennan County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of McLennan County, and all of which may be provided by law governing County Courts.

Sec. 3. The County Court of McLennan County shall have the jurisdiction given County Courts under the Constitution and general laws of this State. The County Court, and the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are provided by law governing County Courts, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court, or of the County Judge of McLennan County, as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain.

Sec. 3a. (a) The Judge of either the County Court at Law of McLennan County or the County Court of McLennan County may, in his discretion, either in term time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any cause on his docket, to the docket of the other Court.

(c) Either Judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either Court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other Court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other Court and there hear and determine any case there pending. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending.

(d) In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either Judge, the other Judge may hold Court for him. Either of the Judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of the Courts and determine the same or may hear and determine any question in any case, and either Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

(e) In cases transferred to either of the Courts by order of the Judge of the other Court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the Court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law.

(f) All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 10. The judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in this State or as the Judge of a Court for a period of not less than five (5) years next preceding such general election, who shall hold his office for two (2) years, and until his successor shall have been duly qualified.

Sec. 11. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court created by this Act shall be pointed or elected when and under such circumstances as are provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Ten ($10.00) Dollars per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.
filled by the Commissioners Court of McLennan County until the next general election. The Commissioners Court of McLennan County shall, as soon as may be, after this Act shall take effect, appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County shall assess the same fees as are or may be established by law relating to County Judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of said court and be by him paid monthly into the County Treasury; and the Judge of said County Court at Law shall receive an annual salary of not more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000), payable monthly, to be paid out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 14. The County Judge of McLennan County shall receive an annual salary of Six Thousand, Six Hundred ($6,600.00) Dollars to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury, out of the general fund of the county. Said County Judge shall assess the same fees, in matters within the jurisdiction of the County Court, as are or may be prescribed by law relating to County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be by him paid into the County Treasury monthly, for the use and benefit of the general fund; provided that the Commissioners Court of McLennan County may, if and when it sees fit, pay the County Judge a larger amount of annual salary, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury in accordance with Chapter 320, page 601, 51st Legislature, Acts 1949.1

1 Article 3912c.

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of McLennan County may fix the total annual compensation of the judge of county court-at-law at an amount not to exceed $14,000 a year. In all other respects, the compensation of the judge of county court-at-law is governed by the General Law.

HARRISON COUNTY

Art. 1970–299. Jurisdiction of County Court of Harrison County

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Harrison County, Texas, shall have the same jurisdiction and shall be subject to the same provisions as County Courts generally throughout the State, under the Constitution and General Laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. The Jurisdiction of the District Court of the Seventy-first Judicial District of Texas is hereby conformed to the change hereinafter made of the County Court of Harrison County, and hereby said District Court shall have the same jurisdiction as District Courts generally throughout the State as provided and conferred by the Constitution and General Laws of the State of Texas.

EDWARDS COUNTY

Art. 1970–300. Changing Jurisdiction of County Court of Edwards County

Sec. 1. Hereafter the county court of Edwards County shall have no civil or criminal jurisdiction and shall have jurisdiction in probate matters only. The civil and criminal jurisdiction heretofore vested in said county court is hereby transferred to the district court of said county.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the county court of said county within thirty days after this Act shall take effect to make a full and complete transcript of all orders on the civil and criminal docket in said county court in all civil and criminal matters, and shall transfer the same together with all other papers and records in connection with such cases and matters, to the clerk of the district court of said county. Said county clerk shall also prepare and deliver the same to the clerk of said district court, and the district clerk shall take charge of such transcripts, papers and cost bills and file and enter the same in said cases on the proper docket. All process heretofore issued from the county court in said county in cases transferred by this Act to the district court shall be returnable to the first term of the district court after this Act takes effect, and all cases transferred by this Act shall be entered as appearance cases upon the docket of the district court.

Art. 1970–300a. Jurisdiction of Edwards County Court Increased; Terms of Court

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Edwards County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for County Courts.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction of the District Court of Edwards County, Texas, shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of the State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Edwards County, Texas, shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County...
Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said County Court in civil cases, of which said court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with Justice Court, where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Court of jurisdiction now conferred upon it by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said County Court over such matters as are specified in this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal to the Justice Court to said County Court, in any case originally brought in the Justice Court where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of this State.

Sec. 7. The District Clerk of Edwards County is required, within thirty (30) days after this Act takes effect, to make a full and complete transcript of all entries upon the criminal and civil dockets of said court, of any cases then pending before the District Court of said county, of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court, and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case, in the County Court of said county; and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said court, and said cases shall be disposed of in the same manner as if said had been originally filed in the County Court, and all bonds executed and recognizances entered and returnable to said District Court shall be returnable to said County Court; all processes heretofore issued by the District Court in said cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore taken in the District Court, shall be as valid as if no changes had been made as to the jurisdiction of said respective courts; and all bonds executed and recognizances entered in said District Court shall bind the parties to the next term of the County Court after this law becomes effective.

Sec. 8. The terms of said County Court shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May, and on the first Monday in August, and on the first Monday in November of each year; and each of said terms shall continue in session until the Saturday before the Monday on which a new term commences; provided that the Commissioners' Court of said county may hereafter change the terms of said court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby expressly repealed insofar as they relate to Edwards County, Texas. [Acts 1949, 51st Leg. p. 261, ch. 140.]

WATCH COUNTY

Art. 1970-301. County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act the county court of Bexar County for civil cases shall be known and designated as the “County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas.” The present judge and all officers of the county court of Bexar County for civil cases shall continue as such respective judge and officers of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, until the expiration of their present terms of office and until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases shall be known and designated as the “County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas.” The present judge and all officers of the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases shall continue as such respective judge and officers of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, until the expiration of their present terms of office and until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified.

Sec. 3. Said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge thereof, shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction, original and appellate, heretofore conferred on said county court of Bexar County for civil cases, and the judge thereof, and in addition thereto, shall have jurisdiction within Bexar County, Texas, of all such subject matters and causes, original and appellate, over which the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases has heretofore had jurisdiction; and the authorized jurisdiction of said courts, namely, the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, over all such matters, within said county, shall be concurrent.

Sec. 4. Said County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge thereof, shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction, original and appellate heretofore conferred on said county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, and the judge thereof, and in addition thereto, shall have jurisdiction within Bexar County, Texas, of all such subject matters and causes, original and appellate, over which the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases has heretofore had jurisdiction; and the authorized jurisdiction of said courts, namely, the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, over all such matters, within said county, shall be concurrent.

Sec. 5. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal cases, within the jurisdiction of said courts, may be filed in either the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 6. Whenever the judge of said County Court at Law No. 1, or the judge of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, may deem it advisable or expedient he may transfer any case or cases pending in the court over which he presides to the other of said county courts at law, and the written order upon the minutes of said court so transferring such case, signed by the judge thereof making the transfer, shall be authority for the clerk of said court to make such transfer.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County, Texas, as soon as practicable after the passage and taking effect of this Act to transfer as aforesaid from the docket of said court to the docket of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, approximately one-half of the civil cases pending upon said docket, which shall be done by transferring every alternate case without reference to whether any particular case be pending upon the jury or nonjury of said court, provided, this section is directory in nature.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, as soon as practicable after the passage and taking effect of this Act, to transfer as aforesaid from the docket of said court to the docket of said County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County, Texas, approximately one-half of the criminal cases pending upon said docket, which shall be done by transferring every alternate case without reference to whether any particular case be pending upon the jury or nonjury docket of said court; provided, this section is directory in nature.

Sec. 9. The Judges of the two County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, may at any time exchange benches, and may at any time sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now and hereafter pending in either of the said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 10. All writs, processes, judgments and decrees, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the said county court of Bexar County for civil cases or the said county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken in either of said courts, and all other acts and proceedings had therein, shall be as valid and enforceable and binding as if no change had been made in the name, designation, jurisdiction or time of the holding of either of said courts, and each and all of the same are, respectively, hereby made returnable and effective in that one of said county courts at law which shall have jurisdiction of the cause in conformity with the terms and provisions of this Act.

Sec. 11. The Judges of the County Courts at Law, Nos. 1 and 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall each take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of either of said Judges. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive an annual salary of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive an annual salary of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars. Said salary shall be paid to each of said Judges in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasurer of said county upon orders of the Commissioners' Court of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 12. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge thereof shall have and retain the same jurisdiction, powers, fees, and perquisites of office as conferred on said County Court of Bexar County, or the Judge thereof, at and before the time of the passage and taking effect of this Act; and this Act shall in no wise affect said County Court. Provided, however, that the maximum fees of the office of the County Judge shall not exceed Six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($6,500.00), even though more than one person may perform the duties of said County Judge, in which case the total shall be divided in accordance with services performed. Provided, however, that a County Judge shall not draw a salary amounting to more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per annum and providing that no more than the aggregate sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) shall be paid in any one (1) year to special judges for said county.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November, and each term shall continue until the business shall have been disposed of; and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October and December, and each term shall continue until the business shall have been disposed of; provided, no term of either of said courts shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 14. Special judges may be appointed or elected for either or both of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the general laws of this state relating to the appointment and election of a special judge or judges of the several district and county courts of this state; and every such special judge thus appointed or elected for either of said courts shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such special judge the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid to such special judge shall be paid out of the general fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the county treasury of said county upon orders of the Commissioners' Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of either of the regular judges of said respective County Courts at Law.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and also the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas. The seal of said courts shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts, except that the seal of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas", and the seal of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas." The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the taking effect of this Act or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint a deputy for each of the said County Courts at Law; provided, however, that the persons thus appointed must be acceptable to the respective Judges of said courts, and such appointment for each of said courts must be confirmed in writing by the Judge thereof before it becomes effective. The said two deputies thus appointed shall, before assuming their respective duties, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, Article 16, Section 1 thereof; and the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputies to furnish bonds in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by said clerk or provided by law. The said two deputies shall act in the name of their principal and they, and each of them, may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the said County Clerk in person; and it shall be the duty of each of said two deputies to attend all sessions of the County Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, to which he has been appointed, and perform such services in and for said courts as are usually performed by the County Clerk and their deputies in the several County Courts of this State; and said two deputies shall also perform any and all other services that may from time to time be assigned them by the Judges of said courts. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and his several deputies, including the two deputies to be appointed for said courts as hereinabove provided, shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, pending in said courts when this Act takes effect, and also in all such cases thereafter filed thereupon, examine, testify, appraise, value, and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner, as now provided by law for the County Courts of this state and the Judges thereof in similar cases; and all such fees and costs, when collected by said County Clerk and his several deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by said County Clerk and his deputies in their official capacity, shall be paid to said clerk and deputies and deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same, and in the manner, as may be provided by law. The said two deputies to be appointed for said two courts are authorized to act for one another in any matter pertaining to the clerical business of said courts, and it shall be their duty to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the Judges of said Courts or by the said County Clerk; but such deputies acting for one another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The said two deputies shall, from and after their said appointment, confirmation and qualification, as herein provided, continue as such respective deputies at the pleasure of the Judges of said courts; and should either of said Judges for any reason whatsoever not further desire the services of said deputy clerk, the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge or Judges, appoint another deputy for such court or courts, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. In the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for the court in which a vacancy may occur, such appointment, however, shall be with written approval and confirmation of the Judge of the Court in which a vacancy may occur. The salary of the deputy clerk appointed for each of the said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the respective Judges of such courts in any amount not exceeding Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars annually; said annual salaries to be paid to said deputy clerks in equal monthly installments out of each fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salaries shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salaries are paid to said deputies the Judges of said courts shall cause to be filed with the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said county, a written statement, signed by said Judges, certifying that said two deputies have performed the services required of them and that they are entitled to receive their said salaries, and such salaries of said deputies shall be paid to them only upon such certificate being signed and filed by said Judges. Provided that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.
Sec. 15-A. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through deputies to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint one deputy for each of the said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; provided, however, that the persons thus appointed as such deputies must be acceptable to the Judges of said courts, and said appointments for each of said courts must be approved and confirmed in writing by the judge of said court before same becomes effective. The said deputy sheriffs shall, before assuming their respective duties, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, Article 16, Section 1 thereof; and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputies to furnish bonds in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by said Sheriff or provided by law. The said two official duties shall act in the name of their principal and they may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person. The said two deputies shall, from and after their said appointment, confirmation and qualification, as hereinabove provided, continue as such respective deputies at the pleasure of the Judges of said courts; and should either of said Judges, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of said deputy sheriffs, the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such court, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. It shall be the duty of the said two deputies, who are to be appointed as herein provided, to attend all sessions of the said two courts and also perform and render such services in and for said courts, and for the Judges thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by Sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several district and county courts throughout this state, and including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants and writs of any and all kinds and nature, in both civil and criminal cases, matters and proceedings; and it shall be the duty of said deputy sheriffs to also perform and render such other services that may from time to time be assigned them, or to either of them, by the Judges of said courts. The said two deputies shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout this state now or may hereafter have, possess and enjoy. The said deputy sheriff of the said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the said deputy sheriff of the said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, are authorized and empowered to act for one another, and it shall be their duty to so act for one another when required to do so by either of the Judges of said courts or by said Sheriff; but said deputies thus acting for one another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such court in which a vacancy may occur, such appointment, however, to be subject to the approval and written confirmation of the Judge of the court in which such vacancy may exist. The salary of the said deputy appointed for each of said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said court in any sum not exceeding Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars annually. The said annual salaries to be paid to said two deputies, when fixed by said Judges as herein provided, shall be paid to them in equal monthly installments out of the fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salaries shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salaries are paid to said deputy sheriffs the Judges of said courts shall cause to be filed with the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said county, a written statement, signed by said Judges, certifying that said two deputies have performed and rendered the services required of them and that they are entitled to receive their said salaries. Provided that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

Sec. 16. The term of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, current at the time of the taking effect of this Act shall continue until the commencement of the next following term of said court, in the month as fixed by this Act, in the year 1927, or until any earlier adjournment thereof. All process issued out of said court before this Act takes effect, and not theretofore returnable, or returnable on some special date, is hereby made returnable to the terms of court as fixed by this Act. All bonds heretofore executed in said court shall bind the parties to fulfill the obligation of such bonds at the terms of court, and that one of said county courts at law having jurisdiction of the cause, in conformity with this Act. All writs and process hereafter issued and returned, as well as all bonds heretofore taken in said county court of Bexar County for civil cases, and all judgments, writs and decrees thereof, shall be as valid and binding, and enforceable, as if no change had been made in the jurisdiction or the time of the holdings of said court, or in the name and designation of said court.

continue until the commencement of the next following term of said court in the month as fixed by this Act, in the year 1927, or until any earlier adjournment thereof. All process issued out of said court before this Act takes effect, and not theretofore returnable, or returnable on some special date, is hereby made returnable to the terms of court as fixed by this Act. All bonds and recognizances heretofore executed and taken in said court shall bind the parties to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of court, and to the one of said county courts at law having jurisdiction of the cause, in conformity with this Act. All writs and processes heretofore issued and returned, as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore executed and taken in said county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, and all judgments and writs and decrees thereof shall be as valid and binding and enforceable as if no change had been made in the jurisdiction or the time of the holdings of said court, or in the name and designation of said court.

Sec. 18. There shall be appointed by the county attorney of said county, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one special assistant, for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said courts. Such assistant county attorney shall be paid a salary of three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars annually, in equal monthly installments, by said county, upon warrants drawn against the general fund by orders of the commissioners court.

Sec. 19. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the court, jury and parties, the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, may appoint an official shorthand reporter for said court who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be sworn officer of the court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court; and the provisions of the law relating to the appointment of stenographers for the district courts of this State shall, and they are hereby made to apply in all their provisions, in so far as they are applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary, and shall perform the same duties, and shall take the same oath as now provided by the General Laws of this State covering the stenographers of the district courts of this State; and in all cases pending in said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, at the time of the passage and taking effect of this Act, and in all civil cases that may hereafter be filed in said court in which an answer has been filed or may be filed, and also in all other cases, civil and criminal, where either party litigant, or the court, should require the official shorthand reporter to take down the testimony, a stenographer's fee of three ($3.00) dollars shall be taxed as costs in said court as costs in this case, the same to be in addition to all other costs, and said fee, when so collected by said clerk, shall be by him paid into the treasury of Bexar County in the same manner as now required of district clerks under similar circumstances.

Sec. 20. The Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, enacted by the Thirty-second Legislature, Regular Session, known as House Bill No. 111, Chapter 10, approved February 20, 1911, found on pages 15, 16 and 17, of the Session Laws of said Legislature, creating the county court of Bexar County for civil cases, and each provision of said Act, and the amendment to said Act passed by the Thirty-eighth Legislature of the State of Texas, known as House Bill No. 367, found on pages 73 and 74, of the Session Laws of the said Legislature, authorizing the appointment of an official shorthand reporter for said court, shall, except in so far as in conflict herewith, remain in full force and effect, and apply to the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 21. The Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, enacted by the Thirty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session, known as Senate Bill No. 923, Chapter 39, approved March 8, 1915, as found on pages 75, 76, 80 and 81, of the Session Laws of said Legislature, creating the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, and each provision of said Act, shall, except in so far as in conflict herewith, remain in full force and effect, and apply to the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 21-A. The terms of office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be two years. The present Judge of each of said courts shall continue as such Judge thereof until the expiration of his present term of office, and until his successor shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified, as hereinafter provided. At the next general election to be held within this state and in Bexar County, Texas, after the taking effect of this Act, to-wit, the first Tuesday in the month of November, A. D. 1938, and every two years thereafter, at each general election, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said county a Judge of each of said courts, both of whom shall be well informed in the laws of this State, and who shall hold their respective offices for a term of two years and until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified; provided, however, that no person shall be eligible for Judge of either the said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or the said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state, and shall have been a practicing lawyer of Bexar County, Texas, for at least four years next preceding his election, or is or has been a Judge of a court in this State. Should there be a vacancy in the office of Judge of either of said courts such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners' Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the person or persons thus appointed shall hold such office until their successor, or successors, who shall be elected at the next general election to be held in Bexar County, Texas, after such appointment, shall have qualified according to law; and the person thus appointed shall have the qualifications hereinbefore specified for a Judge of said courts.

Sec. 21-B. The practice in said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by laws relating to County Courts. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said two County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the Judges thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by laws relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the County Courts throughout this state, and the respective Judges thereof, in similar cases. And appeals may be taken from interlocutory orders of the said two County Courts at Law appointing a receiver, and also from orders of the said two County Courts at Law overruling a motion to vacate or an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the District Courts throughout this state.

Art. 1970-301a. Official Shorthand Reporters; Salary

From and after the effective date of this Act the Official Shorthand Reporter for the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Official Shorthand Reporter for the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall each receive an annual salary of Five Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($5,500), said annual salary to be paid to each of said Official Shorthand Reporters in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, upon orders of the Commissioners Court of said County.

Art. 1970-301b. Salaries of Judges

Art. 1970-301c. Salaries of Judges

From and after the effective date of this Act the Judge of the County Court-at-Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court-at-Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall each receive an annual salary of Nine Thousand, Six Hundred ($9,600.00) Dollars. Said annual salary shall be paid to each of said Judges in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasurer of said county, upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas.

Art. 1970-301d. County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Bexar County, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions, matters and proceedings under the Constitution and Laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of said Court shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are now or may be vested in the Judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction.

The County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction and powers in civil actions, matters and proceedings that are now or may be conferred by law upon and vested in the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judges thereof. Provided, however, that the jurisdiction of said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the jurisdiction of said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the jurisdiction of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, over all such actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, within said Bexar County, shall be concurrent.

The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County, Texas, upon proper certification of the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, because of conflicting duties, or absence or inability to act; or, upon the failure or refusal of such County Judge to act for any reason or cause, shall also be authorized and empowered to act for and in the place and stead of said such County Judge in any lunacy, probate and condemnation proceeding or matter, and also may perform for the County Judge of Bexar County any and all other ministerial acts required by the laws of this State of said County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. Upon any such certification, the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall give preference and priority to all such actions, matters and proceedings so certified, and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such actions, matters and proceedings the same as if performed by the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. Provided that the powers thus conferred on the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall extend to and include all powers of the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, except his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the County as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court, and in connection with the budget of Bexar County. And provided further that the provisions of this paragraph shall be in addition to and cumulative of the provisions of House Bill No. 748, Acts 1951, Regular Session, Fifty-second Legislature, Page 601, Chapter 355.

Notwithstanding the additional powers and duties conferred upon the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, by the provisions of this paragraph, no additional compensation or salary shall be paid to said Judge, but the compensation or salary of such Judge shall remain the same as now, or as may be hereafter, fixed by law.

Sec. 3. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters and proceedings may be filed in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and in the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and all such actions, matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the Court in which filed, or in such other manner as may be determined by a majority of the Judges of said County Court at Law by an order duly made by them and entered upon the minutes of each such County Court at Law.

Sec. 4. The Clerk of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, the same as is now or may be provided by law for the keeping of dockets for the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; he shall tax the official Court Reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the District Courts of this State. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and each of them may, with the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions, matters and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by the entry of an order to the effect upon the docket of such court; and the Judge of the County Court at Law to which any such action, matter or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall have been transferred, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein, and in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case, action, matter or proceeding had been originally filed in said County Court at Law, to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transferred.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, together with the Judges of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, may at any time, either individually or jointly, transfer any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now, or hereafter, pending in either of said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, or by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 6. The practice in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to County Courts and County Courts at Law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the Judge thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the County Courts and County Courts of Law throughout this State, and the respective judges thereof, in similar cases. And appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, appointing a receiver, and also from orders of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, overruling a motion to vacate or an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the District Courts throughout this State.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall, and the same are hereby made to, apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as allowable to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, and paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of said District Court of Bexar County is paid.

Sec. 8. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to his duties as they are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law. The seal of said Court shall be the same as provided by law for Courts of Law, except that the seal of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas." The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint a deputy for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas; provided, however, that the person so appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court, and such appointment must be confirmed in writing by the Judge of said Court before the same becomes effective. Said deputy so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by said County Clerk of Bexar County in person; it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and perform such services in and for said Court as are usually performed by the County Clerk and his deputies of the several County Courts of this State; and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, that may be filed in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, or that may be transferred to said Court from the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or that may be transferred to said Court from the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner, as now provided by law for the County Courts of this State and the Judges thereof in similar cases; and all such fees and costs, when collected by said County Clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by said County Clerk and his deputies in their official capacity, shall be placed in an account in the name of said Clerk and his deputies to be held by said Clerk and his deputies in trust for the respective County Judges or the same as provided by law. The deputies appointed hereunder are hereby authorized to act for the deputy appointed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and he shall also be authorized to act for the deputy appointed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and each and all of said deputies shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to act for each other, in any matter pertaining to the clerical business of said Court, and it shall be the duty of said deputies to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the Judges of the several Courts at Law of Bexar County, but they shall receive no additional compensation for so serving. Said deputy so appointed shall, from and after his said appointment, confirmation and qualification, provided. continue as such deputy at the pleasure of the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of such deputy, the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for said Court; such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. In the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for said Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. The salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said Court but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputy for County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or the deputy for the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary to be paid to said deputy in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy, the Judge of said County Court of Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by the Judge, certifying that said deputy has performed the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive said salary and such salary of said deputy shall be paid to him only upon certificate being signed and filed by said Judge. Provided, that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being
pressly stated.

Sec. 9. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through a deputy to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and said sheriff shall, upon taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint one (1) deputy for said Court, provided, however, that the person thus appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court and said appointment of said deputy must be approved and confirmed in writing by said Judge before the same becomes effective. The deputy sheriff so appointed shall, before assuming his duties, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said Deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person. Said deputy shall, from and after his appointment, confirmation and qualification, as hereinabove provided, continue as such deputy at the pleasure of the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of said deputy sheriff, the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such court; such appointment, however, to be made in the same manner as hereinabove provided. It shall be the duty of the deputy sheriff appointed as herein provided, to attend all sessions of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and also perform and render such services in and for said Court, and for the Judge thereof, and generally perform and rendered by Sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several district and County Courts of this State, and including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants and writs of any and all kinds, nature and character, in both civil and criminal cases, matters and proceedings; and it shall be the duty of said deputy sheriff to also perform and render any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned to him, by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy sheriff shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout this State now or may hereafter have, possess and enjoy; and said deputy sheriff is authorized and empowered to act for the deputy sheriff of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and he is also authorized and empowered to act for the deputy sheriff of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and all of said deputy sheriffs may, and are hereby authorized and empowered to, act for one another, and it shall be their duty to act for one another when required to do so by either of the Judges of said Courts or by said Sheriff; but said deputy thus acting for another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such court, such appointment, however, to be subject to the approval and written confirmation of the Judge of said Court. The salary of the deputy sheriff appointed for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said Court but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputy sheriff for County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or the deputy sheriff for County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; and said annual salary shall be paid to such deputy sheriff in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy sheriff, the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by said Judge, certifying that said deputy sheriff has performed and rendered the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive his salary. Provided, that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly provided.

Sec. 10. At the next General Election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five (5) years, well informed in the laws of the State, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Bexar County, Texas, for a period of not less than four (4) years prior to such General Election, and who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in like manner as aforesaid, be filled by the appointment of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, the appointee thereof to hold office un-until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of such Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive and shall be paid the same salary as is now, or as may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the Judges of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas. Said salary shall be paid to said Judge in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 12. A special judge may be appointed or elected for the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the general laws of this State relating to the appointment and election of a special judge, or judges, of the several District and County Courts and County Courts at Law of this State; and every such special judge thus appointed or elected for said Court shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such special judge the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such special judge shall be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to grant all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 14. The County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said Court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of said Court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 15. For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said Court. Said assistant shall be paid the same salary as is now, or may be hereafter, paid to the assistants serving in County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and in County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments, by said County, upon warrants drawn against the General Fund by orders of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1970–301e. Salaries of Judges

From and after the effective day of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall each receive an annual salary of not less than Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) nor more than Sixteen Thousand Dollars ($16,000). Such annual salary to be paid to each of said judges shall be determined and fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, and, when so determined and fixed, such annual salary shall be paid to each of said judges in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn on the County Treasury of Bexar County, Texas, upon orders of the Commissioners Court of said County.

Art. 1970–301e.1 County Courts at Law Nos. 4 and 5 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. There are hereby created two courts to be held in Bexar County, Texas, to be known as the “County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas,” and the “County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas.”

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, have the same jurisdiction, powers, and duties, and concurrent jurisdiction, powers, and duties in all civil and criminal actions, proceedings, and matters, original and appellate, over which by the constitution and general laws of this state, the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, have jurisdiction, and have concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000 exclusive of interest, as provided in Chapter 915, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 1970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 2a. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Bexar County in such matters and proceedings. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, has authority to probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, to hear and determine all matters affecting minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors.

Sec. 3. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters, and proceedings may be filed in the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances, and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters, and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3 of Bexar County, and all such actions, matters, and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed, or in such manner as may be determined by a majority of the judges of the said county courts at law, the judge of the County Civil Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 3a. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, probate matters and proceedings may be filed in said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same circumstances and conditions as now obtain for the filing of such matters and proceedings in the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge, and all such matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge, and all such matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge, and all such matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge, and all such matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge.

Sec. 4. The clerk of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the clerk of said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, the same as is now or may be provided by law for keeping of dockets for the county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas; they shall tax the official court reporter’s fee as costs in civil actions in said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and Count Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts of this state. The judges of the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, and each of them may, with the consent of the judge of the court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions, matters, and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by the entry of an order to the effect upon the docket of such court; and the judge of the county court at law to which any such action, matter, or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall have been transferred, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees, and judgments therein, and in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case, action, matter, or proceeding had been originally filed in said county court at law to which transferred. Provided, however, no cause, action, matter, case, or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

Sec. 5. The judges of the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, may, at any time, exchange benches, and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now, or hereafter, pending in either of said county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 1 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 2 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters, and proceedings.

Sec. 6. The practice in said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to county courts and county courts at law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the judges thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the county courts and county courts at law throughout this state, and the respective judges thereof, in similar cases. And appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, appointing a receiver, and also from orders of said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, overruling a motion to vacate an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals.
from similar orders of the district courts throughout this state.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall, and the same are hereby made to, apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the district courts of Bexar County, Texas, and each of said others in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of said district court of Bexar County is paid.

Sec. 8. The county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the clerk of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to his duties as they are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law. The seal of said court shall be the same as provided by law for county courts, except that the seal of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas," and the seal of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas." The county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint a deputy for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and a deputy for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas. Said deputy so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by said county clerk of Bexar County in person; it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of said county court at law to which he is appointed and perform such services in and for said court as are usually performed by the county clerk and his deputies of the several county courts of this state; and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the judge of said court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, be may be transferred to said court from another county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and said sheriff shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, the deputies of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner, as now provided by law for the county courts of this state and the judges thereof in similar cases; and all such fees and costs, when collected, by said county clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by said county clerk and his deputies in their official capacity, shall by said clerk and his deputies be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same, and in the manner as may be provided by law. The deputy appointed hereunder is hereby authorized to act for the deputy of any other county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and each and all of said deputies shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to act for each other, in any manner pertaining to the clerical business of said court, and it shall be the duty of said deputies to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the judges of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but they shall receive no additional compensation for so serving. In the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for said court. The salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed as prescribed by law for the deputies of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputies for the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2 and 3 of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary to be paid to said deputy in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as is provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. Provided, that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

Sec. 9. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through a deputy to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and all sessions of said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, and said sheriff shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, the deputies of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas, and each and all of said deputies, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the county clerk of Bexar County in person; it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of said county court at law to which he is appointed and perform such services in and for said court as are usually performed by the county clerk and his deputies of the several county courts of this state; and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the judge of said court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, be may be transferred to said court from another county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and said sheriff shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, the deputies of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner, as now provided by law for the county courts of this state and the judges thereof in similar cases; and all such fees and costs, when collected, by said county clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by said county clerk and his deputies in their official capacity, shall by said clerk and his deputies be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same, and in the manner as may be provided by law. The deputy appointed hereunder is hereby authorized to act for the deputy of any other county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and each and all of said deputies shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to act for each other, in any manner pertaining to the clerical business of said court, and it shall be the duty of said deputies to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the judges of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but they shall receive no additional compensation for so serving. In the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for said court. The salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed as prescribed by law for the deputies of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputies for the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2 and 3 of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary to be paid to said deputy in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as is provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. Provided, that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and may do and perform all such acts and services as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person. It shall be the duty of the deputy sheriff appointed as herein provided, to attend all sessions of said county court at law to which he is appointed, and also perform and render such services in and for said court, and for the judge thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several district and county courts of this state, and including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants, and writs of any and all kinds, nature, and character, in both civil and criminal cases, matters, and proceedings; and it shall be the duty of said deputy sheriff to also perform and render any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned to him, by the judge of said court. Said deputy sheriff shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority, and privileges that the sheriffs and their deputies throughout this state now or may hereafter have, possess and enjoy; and said deputy sheriff is authorized and empowered to act for the deputy sheriff of any other county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and all of said deputy sheriffs may, and are hereby authorized and empowered to, act for one another, and it shall be their duty to act for one another when required to do so by either of the judges of said courts or by said sheriff; but said deputy thus acting for another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such court. The salary of the deputy sheriff appointed for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the salary of the deputy sheriff appointed for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed as prescribed by law for the deputy sheriffs for the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputy sheriffs for the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, Texas; and said annual salary shall be paid to such deputy sheriff in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. Provided, that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the deputies and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly provided.

Sec. 10. The judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Bexar County for a term of four years and shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall be a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state; he shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of such judge. The judges of the County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive and shall be paid the same salary as is now, or as may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the judges of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas, in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn on the county treasurer of said county upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County.

Sec. 11. The County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, are created effective January 1, 1975. At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be filled by appointment made by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, and the judge so appointed shall serve until January 1 following the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. A special judge may be appointed or elected for the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the general laws of this state relating to the appointment and election of a special judge, or judges, of the several district and county courts and county courts at law of this state; and every such special judge thus appointed or elected for said court shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such special judge the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such special judge shall be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the county treasurer of said county upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular judge of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or the salary of the regular judge of said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or the judge thereof, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, or the judge thereof, shall have power to grant all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court, or of any other court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 14. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of said court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 15. For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas and said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for each of said county courts at law for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said court. Said assistant shall be paid the same salary as is now, or may be hereafter, paid to the assistants serving in County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments, by said county, upon warrants drawn against the General Fund by orders of the commissioners court.

Art. 1970–301f. County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in and for Bexar County, Texas, which shall be known as the “County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas,” and it shall be a Court of record.

Sec. 1a. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be known hereafter as the “County Court at Law Number 6, of Bexar County, Texas,” and the seal of said court shall be the same as now provided by law except that the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law Number 6, of Bexar County, Texas.” Wherever the name “County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas,” appears in this Act, it shall hereafter be understood to mean the “County Court at Law Number 6, of Bexar County, Texas.”

Sec. 2. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the same jurisdiction, powers, and duties, and concurrent jurisdiction, powers, and duties in all civil and criminal actions, proceedings, and matters, original and appellate, over which by the constitution and general laws of this state the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County have jurisdiction, and have concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided in Chapter 915, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 1970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 3. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction, powers, and duties in matters probate, and each shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non composit mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, and to hear and determine all matters affecting minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non composit mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall hear and determine all matters affecting juvenile offenders as now provided by law and shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters relating to or arising out of the granting or revoking of liquor licenses. The County Judge of Bexar County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, and shall be the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court; all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the said Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, or otherwise by law, have been committed to the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge thereof shall have and retain the same jurisdiction, powers, duties, fees and perquisites of office as are conferred on said County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, at and before the passage and taking effect of this Act, and this Act shall in no wise affect the said County Court or the Judge thereof except as provided herein.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters, and proceedings may be filed in the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances, and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters, and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, and all such actions, matters, and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the court in which filed, or in such manner as may be determined by a majority of the judges of the said county courts at law, the judge of the County Civil Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, all actions, cases, matters or proceedings of eminent domain arising under Title 52, Articles 3264 to 3271, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, or under the provisions of House Bill No. 77, Chapter 423, pages 1128 to 1130, inclusive, Acts, 1955, Regular Session, now codified as Article 6674-1 of Vernon’s Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas or otherwise, as well as all proceedings instituted under the provisions of the Acts, 1957, Fifty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, Chapter 243, pages 505, et seq., now codified as Article 5547-1, et seq., Title 92, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and all amendments thereto, shall be filed and docketed in the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same circumstances and conditions as now obtain for the filing of such actions, proceedings and matters or proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said Court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the Judge of the County Civil Court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 5. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, probate matters and proceedings may be filed in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same circumstances and conditions as now obtained for the filing of such matters and proceedings in the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge, and all such actions, cases, matters or proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said Court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of Court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business of said Court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of Court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its next term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Bexar County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall be a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State; he shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of such Judge. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive and shall be paid the same salary as is now, or as may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the Judges of the several County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn on the County Treasurer of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County.

Sec. 8. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of the said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until January 1st following the next general election. His successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be filled by appointment made by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, and the Judge so appointed shall serve until January 1st following the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The Clerk of the said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, as is now or may be provided by law for keeping of dockets for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; he shall tax the Official Court Reporter’s fee as costs in civil actions in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts of this State. The Judges of the several County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, or with the consent of the Judge of the county civil court to which any such action, matter or proceeding shall have been transferred shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case action, matter or proceeding had been originally filed in said court to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judges of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, may, at any time, exchange benches with each other, and may at any time, sit and act for each other in any civil or criminal case, proceeding or matter now, or hereafter, pending in any of said County Courts of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and/or by the County Judge of Bexar County Court, and/or by either of the Judges of County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, proceedings and matters.

Sec. 11. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, the County Judge of Bexar County, or any of the Judges of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, may sit and act as Judge of said Court and may determine, either in his own courtroom or in that of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, civil and criminal matters or proceedings there pending, and may enter any orders in such matters and proceedings as the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. A Special Judge may be appointed or elected for the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the General Laws of this State relating to the appointment and election of a Special Judge, for Judges, of the several District and County Courts and County Courts at Law of this State; and every such Special Judge thus appointed or elected for said Court shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such Special Judge the same amount of pay which the regular Judge of said Court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such Special Judge shall be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasurer of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any Special Judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular Judge of said County Civil Court at Law.

Sec. 13. The practice in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to County Courts and County Courts at Law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the Judge thereof in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the County Courts and County Courts at Law throughout this State, and the respective judges thereof, in similar cases, and appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, appointing a receiver, and also from orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, overruling a motion to vacate an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the District Courts throughout this State.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, may appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall be applied, and as the same are hereby made to apply in all its provisions, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation paid to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, and paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of said District Courts of Bexar County is paid.

Sec. 15. The judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, may appoint an administrative assistant or assistants to aid him in the performance of his duties in matters probate. The salary of said administrative assistant or assistants shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County to be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn on the county treasurer of said county upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to his duties as they are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient and necessary, appoint a deputy for said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, provided, however, that the person so appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court, and such appointment must be confirmed in writing by the Judge of said Court before the same becomes effective. Said deputy so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount as the Judge of said Court may prescribe and such bond shall be conditioned as prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by said County Clerk of Bexar County in person; and it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and to perform such services in and for said Court as are usually performed by the County Clerk and his deputies in and for the several County Courts of this State, and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, that may be filed in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, or that may be transferred to said Court from the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner as now provided by law for the County Courts of this State, and all such fees and costs, when collected by said County Clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by them in their official capacity, shall be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same and in the manner as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy so appointed shall, from and after his appointment, confirmation and qualification, as herein provided, continue as such deputy at the pleasure of the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of such deputy, the County Clerk of Bexar County shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinbefore provided, continue as such at the pleasure of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and should Judge, for any reason whatsoever, no longer desire the services of said deputy, the Sheriff of Bexar County shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for said Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the same manner as hereinabove prescribed. It shall be the duty of such deputy to attend all sessions of said Court and also to perform and render such services in and for said Court, and for the Judge thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by Sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several District Courts and County Courts of this State, including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants and writs of any and all kinds, nature or character, in civil matters and proceedings, and it shall be the duty of said deputy to also perform and render any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned to him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout this State now, or may hereafter, have, possess and enjoy; and said deputy is authorized to act for the deputy Sheriff of the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and each such deputy shall be authorized and empowered to act for each other, and it shall be the duty of such deputies to act for one another when required to do so by either of the Judges of said Courts, or by the Sheriff, but the deputy thus acting for the other shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall he be paid, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County shall, in the event of a vacancy, caused for any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such Court, such appointment, however, to be subject to the written approval and confirmation of the Judge of said Court. The salary of the deputy Sheriff appointed for said Court shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said Court but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to the deputy Sheriffs for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary shall be paid to such deputy in equal monthly installments out of such funds of Bexar County as is provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, and payment to be made in the manner prescribed by law. Provided, however, that before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy, the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by said Judge, certifying that said deputy has performed and rendered the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive his salary. And provided, further, that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly provided.

Sec. 18. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, of mandamus and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court.

Sec. 19. The seal of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as that prescribed by law for County Courts except that such seal shall contain the words “County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas,” and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 20. For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said Court. Said assistant shall be paid a salary to be set by the said Criminal District Attorney and approved by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments by said County upon warrants drawn against the General Fund of Bexar County by orders of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1970–301g. County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Bexar County, Texas to be called the “County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases.”

Sec. 2. The County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate, over which, by the General Laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said county would have jurisdiction, and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases; and all criminal writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, be, and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction hereby transferred to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall include all criminal cases and matters, the forfeiture of bonds in criminal cases, all proceedings in relation thereto; but the County Court of Bexar County shall retain, as heretofore, the jurisdiction of all cases of eminent domain; the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians; transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors, as provided by law. The county judge of Bexar county shall be the judge of the County Court of Bexar County, and all ex-officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said

Number of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said court shall have been disposed of, provided, however, that no term of said court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Court at Law Number 6 of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for said county court at law for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said Court. Said assistant shall be paid the same salary as is now, or may be hereafter, paid to the assistants serving in County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Bexar County, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments, by said county, upon warrants drawn against the General Fund by orders of the commissioners court.

Art. 1970–301f.1. County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County; Terms of Court; Assistant

The County Court at Law Number 6 of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and judge of the County Court of Bexar County, except in so far as the same shall, by this Act and by Act of the Thirty-second Legislature, General Laws pages 15-17, House Bill No. 111, Chapter 10, be committed to the judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases.

The county judge of Bexar County shall retain authority to determine all matters relating to or arising out of, or connected with, the granting or revoking of liquor licenses, and all matters appertaining thereto, try all applications for liquor licenses and shall approve all liquor bonds as may be provided by law. He shall also retain jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.

Sec. 4. The said County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, and the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, certiorari, supersedeas, mandamus, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing County Courts throughout the State; and to issue writs of habitation in cases within the jurisdiction of said court.

Sec. 5. The County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall hold at least four terms for criminal business annually as may be provided by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County under authority of law, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County; provided the Commissioners Court having fixed the terms of said court, shall not change the same until the expiration of one year.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in said county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, who shall be learned in the laws of the State, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly qualified.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall execute a bond in the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. Special judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to County Courts, and to the judges thereof, and shall receive salary and compensation similar to the judge of the court hereby created, but which shall be prorated and paid to him only for the actual number of days he actually serves.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of Bexar County shall be the clerk of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases. The seal of said court shall be the same as that provided for County Courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases." The sheriff of Bexar County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 10. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Bexar County, and the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by each of the three courts within their jurisdiction.

Sec. 11. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the court created by this Act may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County until the next general election. The Commissioners Court of the county shall, as soon as may be, after this Act shall take effect, appoint a judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, who shall serve until the next general election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. [Not included.]

Sec. 13. The judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 14. The provisions of this law are not intended to in any manner affect the jurisdiction of the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, and this law is intended to create another court somewhat similar to said County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, but the court hereby created to have jurisdiction of criminal matters only.

Art. 1970–301h. Salaries of Judges

From and after the effective date of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall each receive an annual salary of not less than Eighteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($18,500) nor more than Twenty-two Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($22,500). Such annual salary to be paid to each of said judges shall be determined and fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, and, when so determined and fixed, such annual salary shall be paid to each of said judges in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn on the County Treasury of Bexar County, Texas, upon orders of the Commissioners Court of said county.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise, or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which, by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the District Court of Menard County shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Menard County shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said Court in civil cases, of which Court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts, where the amount in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court, where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of the State.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Menard County, Texas, within thirty days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case in the County Court of said County and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said Courts shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May and on the first Monday in August and the first Monday in November of each year and each of said terms shall continue in session for six weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the County Commissioners’ Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said Court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners’ Court.

CAMERON COUNTY

Art. 1970–305. County Court at Law of Cameron County Created

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Brownsville, Cameron County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court of Cameron County at Law.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Cameron County shall have and exercise the jurisdiction in all matters and cases, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction except as herein provided in Section 3 of this Act.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Cameron County at Law shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the general laws of this State is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court of Cameron County at Law in Civil cases of which said court has appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the said County Court of Cameron County at Law over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal to the County Court of Cameron County at Law from the Justice Court where the right of appeal to the County Court now exists by law. The jurisdiction of the County Court of Cameron County at Law, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court of Cameron County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners' Court nor of the County Judge of Cameron County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners' Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, or matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners' Court or the Judge of the County Court of Cameron County.

Sec. 6. (a) The County Court at Law of Cameron County shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and all jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, within the limits of Cameron County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Cameron County in such matters and proceedings. The County Court at Law of Cameron County shall have no other jurisdiction than that specifically provided by law, and the County Court of Cameron County as now and as heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law of Cameron County by this Act, or as may be otherwise specifically given by law to said County Court at Law of Cameron County, but the County Court of Cameron County shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Cameron County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Cameron County, except insofar as the same shall be herein, or as may be otherwise by law specifically committed to the County Court at Law of Cameron County, or the Judge thereof.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Cameron County or the judge of the County Court of Cameron County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any probate matter on his docket to the docket of the other court.

The Judges of the Courts may, in their discretion, in any probate matter exchange benches from time to time. Whenever a Judge in one of the Courts is disqualified in a probate matter, he shall transfer the matter from his Court to the other Court.

Either Judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any probate matter pending in either Court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other Court and there hear and determine any probate matter there pending. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the matter is pending.

The Judges may try different probate matters in the same Court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the courtroom of the other. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either Judge, the other Judge may hold court for him in any probate matter. Either of the Judges may hear any part of or question in any probate matter pending in either of the Courts and determine the matter or question. Either Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

In any matter transferred by order of the Judge of one of the Courts, all process, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the matter shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the matter shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the Court to which the matter is transferred as are fixed by law and by this Act. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the matter shall as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer may be made.

Sec. 7. The County Court at Law of Cameron County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of Court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said Court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of said Court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Cameron County by the qualified voters thereof at each general election a Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. No person shall be elected Judge of said Court who has not been a resident citizen of Cameron County, Texas, for at least one year prior to his election, and shall possess all of the qualifications for the office that are now required by the general laws of the State for County Judge, before entering upon the duties.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Cameron County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court of Cameron County at Law, and shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this bill becomes effective the Governor shall appoint a Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law, who shall hold his office until the next general election.

Sec. 11. In case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Cameron County in any case pending in said Court, the County Judge of Cameron County shall sit in such case to hear and determine all matters of such disqualification and the appointment of a Judge to hear such case and the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases; and in default of such agreement, a majority of the practicing lawyers of Cameron County, not less than three, present and voting in open Court, shall elect a Special Judge to try such case or cases, and the County Judge hearing such disqualification shall so order.

Sec. 12. The County Court of Cameron County at Law, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other court of such county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Cameron County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court of Cameron County at Law, and the seal of said court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court of Cameron County at Law,” and the Sheriff of Cameron County shall in person or by deputy attend said court when required by the judge thereof, and the County Clerk of Cameron County, Texas, is hereby authorized, if it becomes necessary, in his judgment, to appoint a deputy to specially attend to the matters pertaining to the County Court of Cameron County at Law, and said deputy shall be allowed a salary of one hundred dollars per month.

Sec. 14. The jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the County Court for the appointment of jury commission and selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court of Cameron County at Law and all petit jurors for criminal under existing laws at the time this act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made, and the persons constituting such juries shall be required to appear and serve at the next ensuing terms of said courts as fixed by this act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid and legal as if they had served as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 15. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law may be filled by the Commissioners’ Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.
Sec. 16. The judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law shall receive a salary of not less than Twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) per annum, nor more than Thirty hundred ($3,000.00) dollars per annum at the discretion of the Commissioners' Court, to be paid out of the County Treasury of Cameron County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners' Court of said County, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

Sec. 17. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior courts in Cameron County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court of Cameron County at Law, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 18. The judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 19. The name of the "County Court of Cameron County at Law," created by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 59, Acts 1927, 40th Leg., First Called Session, 1927, codified as Article 1970-305 of Vernon's Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, is hereby changed to County Court at Law of Cameron County.

Sec. 20. All laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by the Legislature, applicable or relating to the "County Court of Cameron County at Law" shall hereafter be applicable and relate to the County Court at Law of Cameron County.

Art. 1970-305b. Salary of Judge

The salary of the Judge of the County Court of Law of Cameron County shall be not less than the present salary actually being paid the Judge of the County Court of Law of Cameron County and not more than Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000.00) to be determined annually by the Commissioners of Cameron County. The annual salary provided herein shall be paid in twelve (12) equal installments out of the General Fund or Officers' Salary Fund of Cameron County.

Art. 1970-306. Jurisdiction of Bowie County Court Diminished

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Bowie County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of probate courts, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors as prescribed by law, and to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by general law governing County Courts throughout the State; but said County Court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal.

Sec. 2. That the District Courts of said County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, over which, by General Laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and that all cases other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 1 of this Act be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Courts of said County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, other than those appertaining to matters over which by Section 1 of this Act jurisdiction is given to the County Court of said County, and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Courts in and for said County.

Sec. 3. That the Clerk of the County Court of said Bowie County be and he is hereby required, within twenty days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County all original papers in all of said causes, both civil and criminal, and all docket slips and orders and proceedings had in all such causes, and said District Clerk shall immediately docket all of such causes on the docket or dockets of the District Courts of said County, and all of such causes, both civil and criminal shall stand on the dockets of said District Courts in the same manner and place as each individual case stood on the docket of the County Court of said County.

Art. 1970-306a. Name Changed to County Court at Law of Cameron County

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Cameron County at Law, as created by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 59, Acts 1927, 40th Leg., First Called Session, 1927, codified as Article 1970-305 of Vernon's Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, is hereby changed to the County Court at Law of Cameron County.

Sec. 2. That the District Courts of said County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, over which, by General Laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and that all cases other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 1 of this Act be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Courts of said County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, other than those appertaining to matters over which by Section 1 of this Act jurisdiction is given to the County Court of said County, and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Courts in and for said County.

Sec. 3. That the Clerk of the County Court of said Bowie County be and he is hereby required, within twenty days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County all original papers in all of said causes, both civil and criminal, and all docket slips and orders and proceedings had in all such causes, and said District Clerk shall immediately docket all of such causes on the docket or dockets of the District Courts of said County, and all of such causes, both civil and criminal shall stand on the dockets of said District Courts in the same manner and place as each individual case stood on the docket of the County Court of said County.

KERR COUNTY

Art. 1970-307. Jurisdiction and Time for Holding County Court of Kerr County

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Kerr County shall hereafter have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases where the matter in controversy shall exceed in value two hundred dollars, and shall not exceed five hundred dollars exclusive of interest, and that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the District Court of said County when the matter in controversy shall exceed five hundred dollars and not exceed one thousand dollars.

Sec. 2. Said County Court shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases over which Justice's Courts of said County have original jurisdiction when the judgment of the Court appealed from or the amount in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of interest, and said County Court shall have the power to hear and determine cases brought up from the Justice's Courts by certiorari under the provisions of law relating thereto.

Sec. 3. The County Judge of said County shall have authority either in term time or in vacation, to grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, garnishment, attachment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and shall also have power to issue writs of habeas corpus in all cases in which the Constitution and laws have not exclusively conferred the power on the District Judge or District Court thereof.

Sec. 4. Said Court shall have, as now, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons, non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons; apprentice minors as provided by law; and to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, orders, and decrees; and generally to exercise all the powers in probate matters conferred upon such courts by the Constitution and laws of the State.

Sec. 5. Such Court shall have jurisdiction in the forfeiture of all bonds and recognizances taken in criminal cases of which said Court has original or appellate jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. Said Court shall have and exercise exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and except misdemeanors in which the highest penalty that may be imposed by law is a fine, without imprisonment, that does not exceed two hundred dollars; and said Court shall have appellate jurisdiction of criminal cases in which Justice Courts and other inferior tribunals of said County have original jurisdiction.

Sec. 7. The District Court of said County shall no longer have jurisdiction of misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and shall no longer have jurisdiction of civil cases of which the County Court of said County, by the provisions of this Act, has original or appellate jurisdiction.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of said County, within thirty days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcript of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County, of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court, and to file said transcript together with the original papers in each case, in the County Court of said County, and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 9. The said Court shall also have the power to hear and determine all actions against sheriffs and other officers of the Court for failure to pay over moneys collected under the process of said Court, or other defalcations of official duty in connection with said process, and shall have power to punish by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the County jail not exceeding three days, any person guilty of contempt of said Court, and all other powers, and jurisdictions conferred on County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 10. The terms of said Court shall commence on the first Monday in February, and on the first Monday in May, and on the first Monday in August, and on the first Monday in November, in each year, and shall continue in session for three weeks at each term, or until the business may be deemed necessary.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

Art. 1970-308. Jurisdiction of Washington County Court

Sec. 1. The county court of Washington County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justices' courts in all civil matters which by the general laws of this State is conferred upon said justices of the peace courts.

Sec. 2. Said county court shall also have and exercise such jurisdiction over and pertaining to all matters, things and proceedings as is by the General Laws of this State conferred upon county courts.

Sec. 3. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said county court in civil cases of which said court has appellate jurisdiction or original concurrent jurisdiction with the justices' court where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deprive the justices' courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law or in any manner to impair or alter their jurisdiction, but only to give original concurrent jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in Section 1 of this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justices' court to said county court in any case originally brought in any justice court where the right of appeal now exists by General law.

POTTER COUNTY

Art. 1970–311. Jurisdiction of Potter County Court at Law Diminished; Transfer of Causes to County Court and Justice Court

Sec. 2. All causes of action pending in the County Court of Potter County at Law on the effective date of this Act over which the County Court of Potter County would have had jurisdiction under general law had it not been for the creation of said County Court of Potter County at Law, are hereby transferred to the County Court of Potter County, and all process, writs, and bonds, civil and criminal, issued in said causes prior to and executed subsequent to the taking effect of this Act, shall be returnable to the County Court of Potter County. And all bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the County Court of Potter County at Law shall bind the parties for their appearance and to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of the County Court of Potter County; and all process of every nature heretofore issued and returned or executables subsequent to the taking effect of this Act, shall be returnable to the proper Justice Court. And all bonds executed and recognizances hereafter taken or entered into in the County Court of Potter County at Law, shall all likewise be as valid and binding in the County Court of Potter County as they would have been in the County Court of Potter County at Law had this Act not been passed.

Sec. 3. All causes of action pending in the County Court of Potter County at Law over which any Justice Court of Potter County would have had jurisdiction under general law had it not been for the creation of said County Court of Potter County at Law, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the proper Justice Court, and all process, writs, and bonds, civil and criminal, issued prior to and/or executed subsequent to the taking effect of this Act out of such causes, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the proper Justice Court. And all bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the County Court of Potter County at Law in such cases shall bind the parties for their appearance and to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of the proper Justice Court to which said causes are hereby transferred, and all process of every nature whatsoever issued in said causes as well as all bonds and recognizances, shall all likewise be valid and binding in such Justice Court as they would have been in the County Court of Potter County at Law had this Act not been passed.

Art. 1970-311a. County Court at Law of Potter County Created, etc.

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Amarillo, Potter County, Texas which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Potter County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Potter County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Potter County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this state, County Courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Potter County, Texas as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain, which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the judge of Potter County.

With the consent of the other, the judge of either of such courts shall have the power to transfer to the other court any case over which the courts have concurrent jurisdiction pending upon the docket of his court except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Potter County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil matters which by the General Laws of this state is conferred upon Justice Courts. Neither the County Court at Law of Potter County nor the judge thereof shall have jurisdiction to act as a coroner nor to preside at inquests, nor have jurisdiction of claims which come within the jurisdiction of the Small Claims Court as prescribed by Article 2460a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of the County Court at Law of Potter County in civil cases of which said court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law of Potter County over such matters as are specified in this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of an appeal to the County Court at Law of Potter County from the Justice Court, where the right of appeals to the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Potter County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said court, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by General Law governing County Courts throughout the state. The County Judge of Potter County shall be the judge of the County Court of Potter County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Potter County except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Potter County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Potter County.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Potter County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County. No person shall be elected or appointed judge of the court who is not a resident citizen of Potter County. He shall also be a licensed attorney of the State of Texas and shall have been a licensed attorney of the State of Texas for at least two years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such judge shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Potter County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Potter County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Potter County shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 13. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 14. In the case of the disqualification of the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 19 of this Act.

Sec. 15. The County Court at Law of Potter County, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Potter County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Potter County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Potter County.”

Sec. 17. The sheriff of Potter County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Potter County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 18. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Potter County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Potter County and the judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County and the judge of the County Court of Potter County jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 19. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 20. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall receive the same salary and be paid from the same fund and in the same manner as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the County Judge of Potter County, to be paid out by the County Treasurer of Potter County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said county, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 21. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to the County Judge’s fees all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 22. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court at the pleasure of the court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Potter County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Potter County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 23. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Potter County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Potter County.

Stephens County

Art. 1970–321. Stephens County Court; Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction Diminished

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Stephens County shall retain and continue to have and exercise the general jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, and the general jurisdiction of Probate Courts, and all jurisdiction other than in civil and criminal matters, jurisdiction of which is here conferred on the District Court of Stephens County, Texas, now or hereafter conferred upon such County Court by the Constitution and Laws of the State, and shall retain all jurisdiction and power to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts; but said County Court shall have no civil or criminal jurisdiction, except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2 hereof.

Sec. 2. That the District Court having jurisdiction in said Stephens County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and cases of a civil and criminal nature, whether the same be of original jurisdiction, or appellate jurisdiction, over which, by the General Laws of the State of Texas now existing and hereinafter enacted, the County Court of said County would have had jurisdiction, and all pending civil and criminal cases be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court for the Ninetieth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Stephens County, Texas, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in said civil or criminal cases be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court, and for the Ninetieth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Stephens County, Texas. Provided, however, that there shall not be transferred to said District Court jurisdiction over any judgments, even in civil or criminal cases, rendered prior to the time this Act takes effect and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by execution, order of sale, or other appropriate process. Provided further, however, that as to any civil or criminal case on appeal from said County Court, should a judgment be entered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court, or the Court of Criminal Appeals, remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to the District Court of Stephens County, Texas, and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case shall thereafter vest in the District Court sitting in and having jurisdiction of Stephens County, Texas.

Sec. 3. That the County Attorney of Stephens County, Texas, shall represent the State in all misdemeanor cases before the District Court of Stephens County, Texas, and shall receive therefor the same fees to which he would be entitled under the laws as County Attorney had said cases been tried in the County Court.

Sec. 4. That the Clerk of the County Court of said Stephens County be and is hereby re-

MARION COUNTY

Art. 1970–322. County Court of Marion County; Jurisdiction in Criminal Matters; Fee of County Judge

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction hereof conferred by law upon the County Court of Marion County, Texas, and the County Judge of Marion County, Texas, the said County Court shall have jurisdiction within Marion County of all criminal matters and causes of misdemeanor over which the District Court of Marion County, Texas, now has jurisdiction, and the jurisdiction of said Courts over such matters shall be concurrent, provided that the jurisdiction of the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall be and remain as now fixed by law and be in nowise affected by this Act; and provided further, that the jurisdiction hereby conferred upon the County Judge of Marion County, Texas, shall extend to and only to those cases in which pleas of guilty are entered by the defendant, and in any cases of misdemeanor filed in said Court.

Sec. 3. The County Judge of Marion County, Texas, shall receive a fee of Three ($3.00) Dollars for each and every misdemeanor case tried before him, and the fees of the officers of the court shall be and remain as is now provided by the laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The County Attorney of Marion County shall represent the state in all misdemeanor cases before the District Court of Marion County, Texas, and shall receive the same compensation to which he would be entitled under the law as county attorney had said cases been tried in the county court.

Section 2 of the Act of 1947 provided that "The Clerk of the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall, and is hereby required within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the County Court of said county, all the original miscellaneous cases, judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgments or other orders entered in the minutes of the District Court in said cases, and the said Clerk shall re-file any papers theretofore filed by the District Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of the same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the District Clerk prior to the time of said transfer, shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed, without being re-filed by the County Clerk.

Section 2 of the amendatory act of 1969 provided: "(a) All misdemeanor cases, except those in which pleas of guilty were filed, docketed in the County Court of Marion County, Texas, prior to the effective date of this Act shall be transferred to the docket of the District Court of Marion County, Texas. The Judge of the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall have the power to try all cases and determine all ancillary matters as if the cases had been originally filed in that court.

(b) All writs and processes issued prior to the effective date of this Act, by the County Court of Marion County, Texas, in cases transferred to the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall be returnable to the district court as if issued from that court.

(c) All bonds returnable to the County Court of Marion County, Texas, in cases transferred to the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall be returnable to the court to which the case is transferred."
Art. 1970–323a. Panola County Court; Panola District Court; Jurisdiction; Transfer of Dockets

Sec. 1. The County Court of Panola County, Texas, from and after the effective date of this Act, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all probate, civil and criminal matters, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and the general law governing county Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 2. That the District Court of Panola County, Texas, shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction, both original and appellate, in all civil and criminal matters and causes, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and in the general law governing the jurisdiction of district Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 3. All causes pending in the County Court of Panola County and in the District Court of Panola County, the jurisdiction of which is changed by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby transferred in conformity with the provisions of this Act to the Court having jurisdiction of such cause under the provisions hereof, and all writs and process relating to such causes which have been issued by or out of either of said Courts shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the Court having jurisdiction of said cause under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Panola County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court of Panola County, and the Clerk of the District Court of said County shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the County Court of Panola County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the District Court of Panola County, and the Clerk of the County Court of said County shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed by this Act.

Sec. 6. The clerks of the respective Courts shall transfer the dockets of all cases the jurisdiction of which is changed by the provisions of this Act to the Court having such jurisdiction after the effective date of this Act, and shall transfer all Court papers and do such other things as may be necessary to fully transfer all said causes and matters to the Court having jurisdiction of same under the provisions of this Act.

TRAVIS COUNTY

Art. 1970–324. County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County

Sec. 1. That there is hereby created a Court to be held in Austin, Travis County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, in lieu of the present County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State the County Court of said County would have had jurisdiction; and all cases pending in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, and all writs and process civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, and of the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge or in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas; and such County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall exercise and have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court or County Judge or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, as to all probate matters.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain, as heretofore, jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters; but such jurisdiction shall hereafter be concurrent as herein provided; but the County Court of said County as now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters civil or criminal. The County Judge of Travis County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Travis County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act or otherwise be committed exclusively to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, now or hereafter created.

Sec. 4. The County Judge of Travis County, in his discretion, may from time to time, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the County Court of Travis County transfer to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or to any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, any such probate matter or proceeding then pending in the County Court of Travis County and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, having jurisdiction thereof, now or hereafter created, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County and any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court and the jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law over probate matters.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall be held in the Courthouse of Travis County as follows: Beginning on the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September and November in each year, and each term of said Court shall continue in session until the convening of the next succeeding term. The practice in said Court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by the laws of this state relating to County Courts except as herein expressly provided.

Sec. 6. The present Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall serve as the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, until the General Election in 1966 and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. The person elected Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, at the General Election in 1966 shall serve for a term of four (4) years, and there shall be elected every four (4) years thereafter a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, must be a qualified voter in Travis County, must be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this state, and must be a resident of Travis County, Texas, who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than four (4) years next preceding the General Election.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the same compensation per day for each day he so actually serves as the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, to be paid out of the General Funds of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court of Travis County, Texas, shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 10. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County is disqualified.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge or Judge of any County Court at Law may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. When either party to a civil case pending in the County Court or County Court at Law No. 1, or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, applies therefor, the Judge thereof shall appoint a competent stenographer, to report the oral testimony given in such case. Such stenographer shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive not less than Ten Dollars ($10) per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases, the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the Court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil cases tried in said Court, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in District Court and the use of same on appeal shall apply to civil cases tried in said Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of concurrent or inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the justice courts and other inferior courts in Travis County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, or to any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Travis County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County. The seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law.
No. 1 of Travis County.” The Sheriff of Travis County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Travis County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, and be shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecution in the County Courts.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Travis County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall be exercised by said County Court at Law No. 1 or by any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, but juries summoned for either or any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to any of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 17. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, may be paid by the Commissioners Court of Travis County a yearly salary not less than the amount paid District Judges from the general revenue fund of the State of Texas and not more than the total salary, including supplements, paid any District Judge sitting in Travis County, Texas. The salary shall be paid out of the general fund of the County in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn upon the County Treasurer upon Orders of the Commissioners Court of Travis County, Texas. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 shall assess the same fees and costs as are now prescribed and paid by or out of the general fund of the State of Texas, to be deposited in the County Treasury as prescribed by law.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof, who shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law for special judges of county courts or county courts at law, whichever is the greater, to be paid out of the general funds of the county by the commissioners court.

Sec. 9. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County shall be filled by the commissioners court, and when so filled, the judge shall be notified until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court of Travis County, Texas, shall provide a suitable quarters for the holding of said County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 10. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County is disqualified. Otherwise, a special judge may be appointed or elected as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for county judges or for judges of county courts at law.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge or judge of a county court at law may be removed under the laws of the state.

Sec. 12. When either party to a civil case pending in the County Court or County Court at Law Number 3, or any other county court at law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, applies therefor, the judge thereof shall appoint a competent stenographer, to report the oral testimony given in such case. Such stenographer shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive not less than $10 per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases, the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil cases tried in said courts, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in district courts and the use of same on appeal shall apply to civil cases tried in said courts.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County, and the judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court, or of any other court in said county of concurrent or inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the justice courts and other inferior courts in Travis County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County, or to any other county court at law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, until otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Travis County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County. The seal of said court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the said seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County”. The Sheriff of Travis County shall in person or by deputy attend the said court when required by the judge thereof. The County Attorney of Travis County shall represent the state in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County, and he shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecution in the county courts.
Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Travis County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall be exercised by said County Court at Law Number 3 or by any other county court at law of Travis County, but jurors summoned for either or any of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to any of the other courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 17. The Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County, Texas, may be paid by the commissioners court a yearly salary not less than $19,000 and not more than the amount paid district judges from the general revenue fund of the State of Texas. The salary shall be paid out of the general fund of the county in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn upon the county treasurer upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Travis County, Texas. The Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 shall assess the same fees and costs as are now prescribed by law for county judges, to be deposited in the county treasury as prescribed by law.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Travis County, Texas, shall not engage in the private practice of law while holding the office of judge of the said court.

Art. 1970–324b. Exchange of Benches of County Courts at Law of Travis County

The Judge of each of the County Courts at Law of Travis County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any cause, civil or criminal, on his docket, to the docket of the other County Court at Law; and the Judges of said Courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time; and whenever a Judge of one of said Courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case from his Court to the other County Court at Law, and either Judge may, in his courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either County Court at Law, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other County Court at Law and there hear and determine any case there pending; and each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending; and the Judges may try different cases in the same Court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any County Court at Law. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either Judge of the County Courts at Law, the other Judge of the County Court at Law may hold Court for him. Either of said Judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of said County Courts at Law and determine the same or may hear and determine any question in any case and either Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in said case. In cases transferred to any one of the County Courts at Law by order of the Judge of one of said Courts, all process, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in said cases shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in said cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the Court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law and by this Act. And all processes issued or returned before transfer of said cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in said cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made.

NAVARRO COUNTY

Art. 1970-326. County Court of Navarro County; Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. The County Court of Navarro County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non composit mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non composit mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such courts; to conduct lunacy hearings; to apprentice minors, as provided by law; and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provision as now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State; but neither said County Court of Navarro County, nor the Judge thereof, shall have any jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain, or other original civil jurisdiction; and the said County Court of Navarro County shall have criminal jurisdiction under such provisions as are now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State; and said County Court shall have such appellate jurisdiction, save as to eminent domain, as is now or may hereafter be given it by law; provided, however, that all future statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, shall be operative in said Navarro County, as fully as though this statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. That the District Court of Navarro County and the presiding judge thereof shall have and exercise original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and in all civil matters and causes over which, by the laws of this State, the County Court of Navarro County would have had original jurisdiction, but for the provisions set out in Section 1 of this Act: all causes, other than probate matters, criminal matters and cases appealed from the Justice of the Peace Courts, as are provided in Section 1 of this Act shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court of Navarro County, and all writs and process relating to such civil matters and causes included in the subject matter of jurisdiction prescribed in this Act, issued by or out of said County Court of Navarro County be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court of said County after this Act takes effect.

Sec. 3. That the County Clerk of Navarro County be and he is hereby required, within thirty days after this Act takes effect, to make a full and complete transcript of all entries upon his civil docket herefore made in cases which by Section 2 of this Act are required to be transferred to the District Court of said County, to prepare a certified bill of costs in each case, and to transmit the same together with all the papers pertaining to such cases to the Clerk of the District Court of said county; all such cases shall be immediately docketed by the District Clerk as appearance cases for the next succeeding term of such District Court, and all process now issued and returnable to said County Court shall be returnable to said District Court.

Sec. 4. That this Act shall not be construed to in any wise or manner affect any judgments heretofore rendered by said County Court of Navarro County pertaining to matters and causes which by Section 2 of this Act are transferred to the District Court of said County; but such County Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce said final judgments and the County Clerk of said County shall issue all writs of execution and orders of sale, and proceedings thereunder, and his act in so doing shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes, the same as if no change had been made as set out in Section 2.

MORRIS COUNTY

Art. 1970-328. County Court of Morris County; Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction herefore conferred by law upon the County Court of Morris County, Texas, and the County Judge of Morris County, Texas, the said County Court shall have jurisdiction within Morris County of all criminal matters and causes of misdemeanor, or over which the District Court of Morris County, Texas, now has jurisdiction, and the jurisdiction of said courts over such matters shall be concurrent; provided that the jurisdiction of the District Court of Morris County, Texas, shall be and remain as now fixed by law and be in nowise affected by this Act; and provided further, that the jurisdiction hereby conferred upon the County Judge of Morris County, Texas, shall extend to and only to those cases in which pleas of guilty are entered by the defendant in any cases of misdemeanor filed in said court.

Sec. 2. The County Judge of Morris County, Texas, shall receive a fee of Three ($3.00) Dollars for each and every case tried before him in which a plea of guilty is entered, and the fees of the other officers of the Court shall be and remain as is now provided by the laws of this state.

POWERS

Art. 1970-329. Judge of County Court at Law in Counties Under 500,000 May Act for County Judge in Certain Cases

Sec. 1. That the Judge of any County Court at Law in any county having a population of less than five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding, or any future Federal Census, may act for the County Judge of the county in any juvenile, lunacy, probate and condemnation proceeding or matter and also may perform for the County Judge any and all other ministerial acts required by the laws of this State of the County Judge, during the absence, inability or failure of the County Judge for any reason to perform such duties; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law, while acting for the County Judge, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such proceedings or matters the same as if performed by the County Judge. Provided that the powers thus given the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State shall extend to and include all powers of the County Judge except his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the county, as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court and as the budget officer for the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 2. That the absence, inability or failure of the County Judge to perform any of the duties hereinabove set forth shall be certified by the County Judge or the Commissioners Court to the Judge of any such County Court at Law, and when such certification is for the purpose of conferring powers to do some judicial act, such certificate shall be spread upon the minutes of the appropriate Court.

Sec. 3. That notwithstanding the additional powers and duties conferred upon the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State no additional compensation or salary shall be paid to them, but the compensation or salary of such Judges of the County Courts at Law shall remain the same as now, or as may be hereafter, fixed by law.

Sec. 4. That it is not intended by this Act to repeal any law providing for the election and/or appointment of a special County Judge, but this Act shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, such law or laws.

Sec. 5. That if any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, of this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not in any manner affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

es here transferred to the said District Court, and all Judge's dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment, or other order entered in the minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred; and the District Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the District Court of Titus County and all Judge's dockets and certified copies here transferred to the said District Court, the Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases prior to the time of said transfer, shall be held in Sherman, Grayson County, as of the date filed without being refiled by the District Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of the same, but papers in said case filed without being refiled by the District Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of the same, but papers in said case shall accompany the papers with a certificate bearing the file mark of the County Clerk, and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the said Court other than those pertaining to matters which are hereby exempt from this Act that are to remain in the County Court of Grayson County shall have and exercise the jurisdiction in all matters and cases, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction except as herein provided in Section 3 of this Act, and all cases pending in the County Court of said County, other than probate matters such as are provided in Section 3 of this Act, at the time this Act becomes effective, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of Grayson County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the said County Court other than those pertaining to matters which are hereby exempt from this Act that are to remain in the County Court of Grayson County shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Grayson County.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Grayson County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the General Laws of this State are conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court at Law of Grayson County in civil cases of which said Court has appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the said County Court at Law of Grayson County over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal to the County Court at Law of Grayson County from the Justice Court, where the right of appeal to the County Court now exists by law. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has herebefore vested in the County Court of Grayson County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court nor of the County Judge of Grayson County as presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, or matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge of the County Court of Grayson County.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Grayson County shall have and retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and all jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, and the Court herein created shall have no other jurisdiction than that named in this Act, and the County Court of Grayson County as now and heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law of Grayson County in this Act, but the County Court now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Grayson County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Grayson County, except in so far as the same shall be by this Act be committed to the County Court of Law of Grayson County.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, and the practice therein, and the appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Grayson County shall be held in the Courthouse of Grayson County, and shall begin on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October and December of each year, and shall continue in session until the Saturday before the first Monday in April, June, August, October, December and February of each year.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Grayson County by the qualified voters thereof at each general election a Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, who shall be a qualified voter in said County, and who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall be a resident of Grayson County, Texas, and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than one (1) year next preceding such general election, who shall hold such office for two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Grayson County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law of Grayson County, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Governor shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, who shall hold his office until the next general election.

Sec. 11. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law in any case pending in this Court, the Judge shall sit in such case, or, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases; and in default of such agreement a majority of the practicing lawyers of Grayson County shall elect a Judge to try such cases where the County Judge at Law is disqualified.

Sec. 12. The County Court at Law of Grayson County, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Grayson County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, and the Seal of said County shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the Seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Grayson County.”

Sec. 14. The jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the County Court for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court at Law of Grayson County and all petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such juries shall be required to appear and serve at the next ensuing terms of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had served as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 15. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 16. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County shall receive a salary of not more than Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000) per year to be paid out of the County Treasury of Grayson County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said County, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fee, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Section.

Sec. 17. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior Courts in Grayson County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Grayson County, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 18A. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for his court in the manner now provided for district courts in this State who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not more than the compensation paid the official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Grayson County, Texas, said salary to be fixed, determined, set and allowed by the commissioners court of Grayson County, said salary to be fixed, determined, set and allowed by the commissioners court shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the commissioners court, in the same manner as salaries of other county officers are paid. From and after passage of this Act, all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the commissioners court of Grayson County.

Sec. 19. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, if any, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 20. If any part, section, paragraph, sentence, or clause contained in this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portion despite such invalidity.

HILL COUNTY

Art. 1970–332. Hill County; Jurisdiction of Courts; Clerk's Duties

Sec. 1. The County Court of Hill County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate Court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non composit mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non composit mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such Court; to conduct lunacy hearings; to apprentice minors as provided by law, and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State, but neither said County Court of Hill County nor the Judge thereof shall have any jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain or other original civil jurisdiction, or appellate civil jurisdiction, or other appellate criminal jurisdiction; provided, however, that all future Statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, shall be operative in said Hill County as fully as though this Statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. That the District Court of Hill County and the presiding Judge thereof shall have and exercise original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and all judges' dockets and Court of Hill County, Texas, and the presiding Judge thereof shall have and exercise original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters and causes over which by the laws of this State the County Court of Hill County would have had original or appellate jurisdiction, but for the provisions set out in Section 1 of this Act; all causes, other than probate matters, as are provided in Section 1 of this Act shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court of Hill County, and all writs and process relating to such civil and criminal matters and causes included in the subject matter of jurisdiction prescribed in this Act, issued by or out of said County Court of Hill County be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court of said County after this Act takes effect. Provided further, however, that as to any civil or criminal case on appeal from said County Court, should a judgment be entered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court, or the Court of Criminal Appeals, remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to the District Court of Hill County and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case shall thereafter vest in the District Court of Hill County, Texas.

Sec. 3. That the County Clerk of Hill County be and is hereby required, within thirty (30) days after this Act takes effect to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Court and all Judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred, and the District Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the said District Court for Hill County, Texas, and all such cases shall stand on the docket of said Court in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. Provided further that it shall not be necessary that the District Clerk refile any papers theretofore filed by the County Court, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the County Clerk prior to the time of the said transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the District Clerk. Said County Clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost, and against all cost deposits, if any, the County Clerk shall charge accrued fees due him and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the District Court as a deposit in the particular case for which same was deposited. Credit shall be given litigants for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

Sec. 4. That this Act shall not be construed to in anywise or manner affect final judgments heretofore rendered by said County Court of Hill County pertaining to matters and causes which by Section 2 of this Act are transferred to the District Court of said County; but such County Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce said final judgments and the County Clerk of said County shall issue all writs of execution and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder and his act in so doing shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes the same as if no change had been made as set out in Section 2.

Sec. 5. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Art. 1970-333a. Jurisdiction Restored; Jurisdiction of District Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby restored to the County Court of Hill County, original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain which had been transferred to the District Court of Hill County by the provisions of House Bill No. 648, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session 1947, Chapter 271 (codified in Vernon's Civil Statutes as Article 1970-333), and original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain is hereby transferred from the District Court of Hill County to the County Court of Hill County.

From and after the effective date of this Act, the County Court of Hill County shall have and exercise original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain.

Sec. 2. The District Clerk of Hill County is hereby required within thirty days after this Act takes effect to file with the Clerk of the County Court of Hill County all original papers in cases or proceedings here transferred to the County Court of Hill County, and all docket and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the District Court in said cases or proceedings so transferred, and the Clerk of the County Court shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the County Court of Hill County and all such cases or proceedings shall stand on the docket of said court in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the District Court. It shall not be necessary that the Clerk of the County Court refile any papers heretofore filed by the District Clerk, but papers in said case or proceeding bearing the file marks of the District Clerk prior to the time of such transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case or proceeding as of the date filed, without being refiled by the Clerk of the County Court. The District Clerk in cases or proceedings so transferred shall accompany the papers with the certified bill of costs, and against all costs deposits, if any, the District Clerk shall charge accrued fees to him and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the County Court as a deposit in the particular case for which the same was deposited. Credit shall be given litigants for all jury fees paid in the District Court.

Sec. 3. All writs and process relating to such cases or proceedings issued by or out of the District Court of Hill County are hereby made returnable to the next term of the County Court of Hill County after this Act takes effect. Any case or proceeding on appeal which has been transferred by this Act to the County Court, should a judgment be rendered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court remanding the case or proceeding for a new trial or for further proceedings, shall be remanded to the County Court of Hill County, and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case or proceeding shall vest in the County Court of Hill County.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or manner affect final judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Hill County pertaining to matters transferred by the provisions of this Act to the County Court, but the District Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce said final judgments.

KENT COUNTY

Art. 1970-334. Kent County; Concurrent Jurisdiction of County Court with Justices' Courts

Sec. 1. The County Court of Kent County, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices' Courts in all civil matters, which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justices' Courts.

Sec. 2. Said County Court shall also have and exercise such jurisdiction over and pertaining to all matters and things and proceedings as by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon the County Court.

Sec. 3. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court in civil cases of which said Court has appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to said
County Court over such matters as are specified in Section 1 of this Act, nor shall this Act be construed as taking away the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court where the right of appeal now exists by law. [Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 791, ch. 302.]

JOHNSON COUNTY

Art. 1970-335. Johnson County; Jurisdiction of County Court Diminished; Jurisdiction of District Court

Sec. 1. The County Court of Johnson County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate court, shall probate wills, appointment of guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such Court; to conduct lunacy hearings; to appoint minors as provided by law, and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts under the Constitution and General Laws of this State; provided, however, that all future Statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas shall be operative in Johnson County as fully as though this Statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. The Judge of the District Court of Johnson County will be the presiding Judge, insofar as said District Court and said County Court are concerned, over original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, as well as original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters in causes over which by the laws of this State the County Court of Johnson County would have original or appellate jurisdiction; and all such causes will be filed with the District Clerk of Johnson County in said District Court. The Judge of the District Court of Johnson County may, in his discretion, assign to the County Court of Johnson County for trial and disposition, cases, or portions thereof, of eminent domain as well as original and appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters and causes over which, by the General Laws of this State, the County Court of Johnson County would have original or appellate jurisdiction. Such assignments shall be made by docket notation. The purpose and intent of this Statute is to vest the District Court of Johnson County and the County Court of Johnson County with concurrent jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain as well as original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters over which, by the General Laws of this State, the County Court of Johnson County would have original or appellate jurisdiction, subject to the control over assignments of such cases, or parts thereof, by the said District Court, as hereinafter set out.

Sec. 3. The District Clerk of Johnson County shall continue to perform all the clerical functions of and for the County Court of Johnson County, insofar as all matters and causes over which the said District Court and County Court have concurrent jurisdiction, as hereinafter set out. Insofar as all cases over which the said District Court and County Court have concurrent jurisdiction, as hereinafter set out, said Clerk shall charge fees at the rate set by law for County Court cases.

Sec. 4. The duties of the County Attorney of Johnson County shall not be in any manner changed or affected by this Act; and said County Attorney shall have and perform the same duties as were had and performed prior to the passage of this Act.

Sec. 5. The duties of the County Attorney of Johnson County shall not be in any wise or manner changed or affected by this Act; and the County Attorney of Johnson County shall have and perform the same duties as were had and performed prior to the passage of this Act. [Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 185, ch. 102; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 26, ch. 11, § 1, eff. March 4, 1971.]

COUNTIES OF 225,000 INHABITANTS

Art. 1970–336. Salary of Judge in Counties Having Only One County Court at Law

Sec. 1. In all counties in this State having a population of not less than two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census and having within said county only one County Court at Law the salary of the Judge of said County Court at Law shall be Seven Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($7,400) per annum. Said salary shall be paid out of the County General Fund in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. The Commissioners Court of the county out of whose funds said salary is paid may, if it so elects, order such payments to be made out of the Jury Fund.

Sec. 2. The term “County Court at Law” as used in this Act shall mean and include County Courts at Law having jurisdiction over civil cases only or criminal cases only or both civil and criminal cases.

Sec. 3. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.
Sec. 4. All laws or parts of laws fixing the salaries of Judges of County Courts at Law in any county having not less than two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) population and having within said county only one County Court at Law as herein defined to the extent that they conflict with this Act are hereby repealed, but to the extent of the conflict only; it being intended that, and this Act shall control as to the amount of the salary in such counties over any classification by population of such counties heretofore made.

BLANCO COUNTY

Art. 1970-337. Jurisdiction Extended; Civil and Criminal; Concurrent with Justices Court

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Blanco County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for county courts.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise, or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which, by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the District Court of Blanco County shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Blanco County shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said Court in civil cases, of which Court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts, where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justices Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court, where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of the State.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Blanco County, Texas, within thirty (30) days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case in the County Court of said County and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said Courts shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May and on the first Monday in November of each year and each of said terms shall continue in session for six weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the County Commissioners Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said Court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners Court.

ELLIS COUNTY

Art. 1970-338A. Original and Appellate Jurisdiction in Misdemeanor Cases

Sec. 1. The County Court of Ellis County, Texas, and the County Judge thereof shall have and exercise original and appellate jurisdiction in all misdemeanor cases over which the laws of this state has conferred jurisdiction in the County Court. All misdemeanor cases now pending in the District Court of Ellis County, Texas, and all writs and processes relating to such criminal cases issued by or out of said District Court of Ellis County are hereby made returnable to the next term of the County Court of Ellis County after this Act takes effect; provided further, however, that as to any misdemeanor case on appeal from said District Court should a judgment be entered by the Court of Criminal Appeals remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to the County Court of Ellis County and all jurisdiction in and to said particular case shall thereafter rest in the County Court of Ellis County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The District Clerk of Ellis County be and he is hereby required, within thirty days after this Act takes effect, to file with the County Clerk of said county all original papers in misdemeanor cases here transferred to said County Court, together with all Judge's dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the District Court in said misdemeanor cases so transferred, and the County Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of said County Court of Ellis County,
Art. 1970–338A

Texas, and all such misdemeanor cases shall stand on the docket of said County Court in the manner and place as each stands on the docket of the District Court. Providing further, that it shall not be necessary that the County Clerk re-file any papers heretofore filed by the District Clerk; but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the District Clerk prior to the time of the said transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being re-filed by the County Clerk. Said District Clerk in misdemeanor cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of costs.

Sec. 3. All unfinished business and all final judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Ellis County pertaining to misdemeanor cases shall likewise be transferred to said County Court and the County Clerk of said county shall issue all writs of process thereunder, and his act in doing so shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes the same as if no change had been made in said criminal jurisdiction.

Art. 1970–338B. Jurisdiction of Courts; Transfer of Cases; Judgments

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Ellis County, Texas, from and after the effective date of this Act, shall have and exercise the jurisdiction, both original and appellate, in all civil and criminal matters and causes, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and the general law governing county courts throughout the state.

Sec. 2. The District Court of Ellis County, Texas, shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction, both original and appellate, in all civil and criminal matters and causes, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and in the general law governing the jurisdiction of district courts throughout the state.

Sec. 3. All causes pending in the County Court of Ellis County and in the District Court of Ellis County, the jurisdiction of which is changed by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby transferred in conformity with the provisions of this Act to the court having jurisdiction of such cause under the provisions hereof, and all writs and process relating to such causes which have been issued by or out of either of said courts shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the court having jurisdiction of said cause under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Ellis County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court of Ellis County, and the clerk of the district court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed by this Act.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the County Court of Ellis County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the District Court of Ellis County, and the clerk of the county court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed by this Act.

Sec. 6. The clerks of the respective courts shall transfer the dockets of all cases the jurisdiction of which is changed by the provisions of this Act to the court having such jurisdiction after the effective date of this Act, and shall transfer all court papers and do such other things as may be necessary to fully transfer all said causes and matters to the court having jurisdiction of same under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 7. Chapter 355, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949 (Article 1970–338, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), together with any and all other acts or laws and parts of acts or laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed.

NUECES COUNTY

Art. 1970–320. County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Corpus Christi, Nueces County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law of Nueces County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Nueces County, Texas, in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which the County Court of Nueces County, Texas, would have jurisdiction under the general laws of Texas. Such jurisdiction shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Court of Nueces County or in the County Judge; provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the County Judge of Nueces County as the presiding officer of such commissioners court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the presiding judge thereof. Said court shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Nueces County, Texas, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court in such matters and proceedings. County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, and transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and the conduct of lunacy proceedings.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Nueces County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the General Laws of this State are conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Nueces County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court with jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law in the future over probate matters, but shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised and retained by the Judge of the County Court of Nueces County, except insofar as same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County.

Sec. 5. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County shall hold four (4) terms of Court each year in the Courthouse of Nueces County, said terms to be as follows: One term beginning on the first Monday in January, one term beginning on the first Monday in April, one term beginning on the first Monday in July, and one term beginning on the first Monday in October; and each of said terms shall continue until and including the Sunday next before the first Monday of the term immediately following.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in Nueces County by the qualified voters thereof a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county, a resident of said county, a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than five (5) years next preceding the election to select such Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 shall hold his office for a term of four years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. The present Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 having been elected in 1966, he shall continue in such capacity for the full term of four years to which he was elected, and his successor shall be elected in the general election to be held in 1970 for the term of four years, and a like election shall be held every four years thereafter.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. As soon as this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Nueces County shall appoint a Judge to the County Court at Law of Nueces County, who shall hold his office as Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified. Any subsequent vacancies in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court of Nueces County and when so filled, the Judge of the County Court at Law shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 10. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree upon the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County is disqualified.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court, at Law is authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for such County Court at Law; such official shorthand reporter shall receive the same compensation as provided in Article 2326, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas; the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law of Nueces County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said Court.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the Justice Courts and other inferior Courts in Nueces County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Nueces County, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Nueces County, Texas shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas. The Seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the Seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County." The Sheriff of Nueces County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Nueces County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, and he shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Nueces County, for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors, shall be exercised by said Court; but juries summoned for either of said Courts may be sworn by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned and transferred to the other Court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 17. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County shall receive a salary of Twenty Thousand Dollars per annum, to be paid out by the County Treasurer by order of the commissioners court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasurer, and said salary as above specified in this section shall be paid to said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

Art. 1970-339A. County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Corpus Christi, Nueces County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The name of the County Court at Law of Nueces County, created by Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, Page 692, Chapter 362, and known and cited as Article 1970-339, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, is hereby changed to County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, and all laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by the Legislature applicable or relating to the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall hereafter be applicable and shall relate to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in the matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County has jurisdiction according to the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, page 692, Chapter 362, known and cited as Article 1970-339, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of the State of Texas. Its jurisdiction shall be concurrent with that of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, except that each Court shall give priority to cases according to the provisions contained in this Act.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Nueces County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court with jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law in the future over probate matters, but shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised and retained by the Judge of the County Court of Nueces County, except insofar as same shall be performed by this Act. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court.

Sec. 5. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall hold four (4) terms of Court each year in the Courthouse of Nueces County, said terms to be as follows: One term beginning on the first Monday in January, one term beginning on the first Monday in April, one term beginning on the first Monday in July, and one term beginning on the first Monday in October; and each of said terms shall continue until and including the Sunday next before the first Monday of the term immediately following.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in Nueces County by the qualified voters thereof a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county, a resident of said County, a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than five (5) years next preceding the election to select such Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall hold his office for a term of four years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. As soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, the commissioners court of Nueces County shall appoint a suitable person to be Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, who shall take office on July 1, 1967 and shall hold office until December 31, 1968 and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. His successor shall be elected in the general election to be held in 1968, for the term of four years, and a like election shall be held every four years thereafter.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas, as herein created, shall come into legal existence on January 1, 1955, and said Court shall have no legal status, shall perform no duties, and shall receive no compensation until on or after said date. The first Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall be elected by the qualified voters of Nueces County at the General Election to be held in November, 1954, and the person so elected shall qualify for such office on January 1, 1955, or as soon thereafter as practicable. Candidates for the position of Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall be nominated by the respective political parties of Texas in the primaries to be held in July and August of 1954 in the same manner and under the same legal provisions as govern the holding of all other primary elections.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall be filled by appointment by the commissioners court of Nueces County, and the Judge so appointed shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In the event that the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County is disqualified for any reason to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree upon the selection of a special Judge to try such case or cases in the same manner and under the same provisions of law as govern the selection of Special Judges for County Courts of the State of Texas.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 is authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for such County Court at Law. Such official shorthand reporter shall receive the same compensation provided for in Article 2326, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall have the authority to terminate the employment of such official shorthand reporter at any time.

Sec. 14. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County.

Sec. 15. All cases appealed from the Justice Courts and other inferior Courts in Nueces County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Courts at Law of Nueces County, Texas, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals; provided, however, that such appeals shall be assigned to the proper Court and shall be docketed and heard in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Nueces County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas. The Seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the Seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County." The Sheriff of Nueces County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Nueces County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, and he shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 17. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Nueces County and the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors, shall be exercised by said Court; but juries summoned for any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to either of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall receive a salary of Twenty Thousand Dollars per annum, to be paid out of the County Treasury by order of the commissioners court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection and no part of which shall be paid to said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

Sec. 19. On or before January 1, 1955, the County Clerk of Nueces County shall establish a separate docket for County Court at Law No. 1 and a separate docket for County Court at Law No. 2. The present docket of the County Court at Law shall become the docket of the County Court at Law No. 1. All criminal cases on which original jurisdiction is vested by law at the County Court level shall be retained by the Clerk on the docket of the County Court at Law No. 1. All civil cases, plus all criminal cases which have been appealed to the County Court, shall be transferred by the County Clerk to the docket of the County Court at Law No. 2. Thereafter, as new cases are filed with the County Clerk, he shall docket said cases as follows: All criminal cases on which original jurisdiction is vested by law at the County Court level shall be docketed in the County Court at Law No. 1; and all civil cases, plus all criminal cases appealed from Courts of inferior jurisdiction, shall be docketed in the County Court at Law No. 2. Each of said Courts shall give preference to the cases which are originally docketed in their Court.

Sec. 20. Each of the judges of said County Courts at Law may, with the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer any case, action or proceeding from his Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, and the Court to which such case, action or proceeding is transferred shall have full power and authority to hear and determine same in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if said case had been originally docketed in his Court.

Sec. 21. The Judges of said County Courts at Law may exchange benches from time to time and hear and determine any case, action or proceeding pending in the other Court in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if said case were originally docketed in the Court of the Judge hearing same. The Judge of either of said Courts may issue restraining orders, injunctions, and other extraordinary writs returnable to the other Judge or Court, and either of said Judges may hear and determine preliminary matters with respect to cases, actions or proceedings pending in the other Court; provided, however, that every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending.

Sec. 22. The practice of said County Courts at Law, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be prescribed for County Courts.
Art. 1970-339C. County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) On January 1, 1976, the County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County is created.

(b) The Court created by this Act has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal and probate, original and appellate, including eminent domain proceedings, prescribed by law for either the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County or the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County.

(c) The judge of the court created by this Act may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedes, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. The judge of the court may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county.

County Court

Sec. 2. The County Court of Nueces County shall have and retain concurrently with the court created by this Act and the other county courts at law in Nueces County the general jurisdiction of a probate court. The county court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised and retained by the judge of the County Court of Nueces County, except as provided by this Act or otherwise provided by law.

Terms of Court

Sec. 3. The terms of the court created by this Act are the same as those of the County Court at Law No. 1 and County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County.

Judge

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the court created by this Act shall be a resident of and qualified voter in Nueces County. He shall be a licensed attorney in this State, who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than five years next preceding his election.

(b) At the general election in 1974, there shall be elected a judge of the court created by this Act for a four-year term beginning on January 1, 1976. Every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Section 30, Article V, and Section 65, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas.

(c) Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of County Court at Law No. 3 shall be filled by the commissioners court of Nueces County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(d) The judge of County Court at Law No. 3 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The judge of County Court at Law No. 3 shall receive an annual salary of $20,000. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which fees shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury.

(f) A special judge of County Court at Law No. 3 may be selected in the manner provided by law for selection of a special county judge. A special judge is entitled to compensation at a rate of $25 for each day he actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the commissioners court.

Court Officials and Personnel

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Nueces County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, for the court created by this Act. The Nueces County commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court. Those serving shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed for their respective offices in Nueces County.

(b) The judge of County Court at Law No. 3 may appoint an official shorthand reporter. The reporter serves at the pleasure of the judge and is entitled to the compensation fixed for the shorthand reporters for the other county courts at law in Nueces County.

Transfer of Cases; Exchange of Benches

Sec. 6. (a) As soon as practicable following the date specified in Section 1(a) of this Act, the Nueces County Clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the other county courts at law in the county and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act. Thereafter, as new cases are filed with the County Clerk, he shall equalize the dockets of the three county courts at law, consistent with the docketing preferences assigned by law for the County Court at Law No. 1 and County Court at Law No. 2.

(b) With the consent of the judge of the court to which transfer is to be made, any of the judges of the county courts at law in Nueces County may transfer any case, action, or proceeding from his court to either of the other courts by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket. The court to which the case, action, or proceeding is transferred shall have full power and authority to hear and determine the matter in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if the case had been originally docketed in his court.
(c) In cases transferred under authority of Subsections (a) or (b) of this section, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(d) The judges of the county courts at law in Nueces County may exchange benches from time to time and hear and determine any case, action, or proceeding in any of the other county courts at law in the county in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if the matter were originally docketed in the court of the judge hearing it. The judge of any of the courts may issue restraining orders, injunctions, and other extraordinary writs returnable to any other of the judges or courts. Any of the judges may hear and determine preliminary matters with respect to cases, actions, or proceedings pending in the other courts. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

Practice; Juries

Sec. 7. (a) Practice in County Court at Law No. 3 shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the court created by this Act. Juries summoned for the County Court of Nueces County or any of the county courts at law in that county, by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned, may be transferred to any of the other courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they are transferred.

Facilities

Sec. 8. The commissioners court of Nueces County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Seal

Sec. 9. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County." [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., ch. 1334, § 1 to 9, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Sec. 10. The provisions of this Act shall be severable. Should any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or other part hereof, be declared for any reason unconstitutional or void, such declaration shall not affect or impair the remaining provisions hereof, and the Legislature specifically declares that it would have passed this Act notwithstanding the absence of such portion as may be declared unconstitutional or void.

Sec. 11. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

LUBBOCK COUNTY

Art. 1970-340. County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court of Lubbock County at Law.

Sec. 1a. The name and designation of the court created by this Act is hereby changed to the "County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County" and wherever the name "County Court at Law of Lubbock County" shall appear in this Act it shall be deemed to refer to the "County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County."

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Lubbock County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes; civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; and all cases pending in the County Court of said County, other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 6 of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby transferred to the County Court of Lubbock County at Law, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court of said County, other than those pertaining to matters over which by Section 6 of this Act jurisdiction remains in the County Court of Lubbock County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law of Lubbock County.

The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court of Lubbock County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Lubbock County as the presiding officers of such Commissioners Court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof.

Sec. 2a. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County, by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County, in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, and all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child support and custody of minors, and change of name of persons. This court and the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2b. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County in all civil cases and matters when the matter in controversy shall exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), exclusive of interest.

Sec. 2e. The County Court at Law No. 1 in all those cases enumerated in Section 2a.

Sec. 2d. Practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in this court involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. In cases in which this court has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts as herein provided, juries shall be composed of 12 members. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the 12 members. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of said courts.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Lubbock County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court of Lubbock County at Law in civil cases of which said Court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to said County Court of Lubbock County at Law over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the return of an appeal to the County Court of Lubbock County at Law from the Justice Court, where the return of appeals to the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Lubbock County shall have and retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and of jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, and the Court herein created shall have no other jurisdiction than that named in this Act, and the County Court of Lubbock County as now and heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law of Lubbock County in this Act; but the County Court now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Lubbock County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Lubbock County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law of Lubbock County.

Sec. 7. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the Court of Lubbock County for drawing, selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by said Court by jury summons for either the County Court of Lubbock County or the County Court at Law of Lubbock County may, by the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned, be transferred to the other County Court for service therein and may be used in such other Court as if summoned for jury service for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 8. The terms of the County Court of Lubbock County at Law and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts. The terms of the County Court of Lubbock County at Law shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County and the same may be changed in accordance with the law governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County, Texas.

Sec. 9. There shall be elected in Lubbock County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a resident citizen of said Lubbock County for the immediate preceding two years and a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 10. The County Attorney of Lubbock County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in said County Court at Law of Lubbock County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 11. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 14. A special Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judge thereof, who shall receive the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15) per day for each day he so actually served, to be paid out of the general fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special Judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special Judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 14 of this Act.

Sec. 16. The County Court at Law of Lubbock County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court having jurisdiction of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law.

Sec. 17. The County Clerk of Lubbock County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, and the seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Lubbock County."

Sec. 18. The Sheriff of Lubbock County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 19. The jurisdiction of authority now vested by law in the County Court for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court at Law of Lubbock County. All petit jurors summoned for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 20. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 21. After the effective date of this amendment, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County shall receive an annual salary in an amount not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the total annual salary paid to the Judge of the 94th Judicial District of Texas by the State of Texas. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Lubbock County on orders from the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 22. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 23. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official Court Reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County, Texas, of not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per annum, to be paid out of the County Treasury of Lubbock County, Texas, as other County officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to official Court Reporters shall be and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein.
authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 24. The laws of Texas and the rules of procedure and rules of evidence governing trials in and appeals from all proceedings in County Courts shall be applicable to, govern and control proceedings in and appeals from the County Court at Law of Lubbock County.

Sec. 25. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior Courts of Lubbock County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, under the provisions governing appeals to County Courts.

Sec. 26. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County is authorized to appoint an official interpreter for such County Court at Law. And the County Commissioners shall by resolution fix the compensation of said official interpreter and provide for the payment of such compensation and shall prescribe the duties of such official interpreter. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall have authority to terminate the employment of such interpreter at any time. The official interpreter so appointed by the Judge of the said County Court at Law shall take the constitutional oath of office, and in addition thereto shall make oath that as such official interpreter he will faithfully interpret all testimony given in the County Court at Law, and which oaths shall qualify him for service as official interpreter of such Court in all cases before such Court during his term of office.

Sec. 27. If any part, section, paragraph, sentence, or clause contained in this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portion despite such invalidity.

Art. 1970–340.1 County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes; civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 7 of this Act.

The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court of Lubbock County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Lubbock County as the presiding officers of such Commissioners Court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof.

Sec. 2a. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County, in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, and all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child support and custody of minors, and change of name of persons. This court and the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2b. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County in all civil cases and matters when the matter in controversy shall exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), exclusive of interest.

Sec. 2c. After the effective date of this amendment all cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Section 2a of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Lubbock County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County. The District Clerk of Lubbock County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 in all those cases enumerated in Section 2a.

Sec. 2d. Practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in this court involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. In cases in which this court has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts as herein provided, juries shall be composed of 12 members. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts in Lubbock County and the county court of Lubbock County, and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said courts.

Sec. 2e. The County Court at Law No. 2 in only those cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act, shall have the same terms of court as those district courts sitting only in Lubbock County as are presently established or as they may hereinaft-

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall have and exercise origi-

Sec. 4. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall have concurrent original jurisdiction with the County Court at Law No.
1 of Lubbock County. The Judges in either County Court at Law may try cases in the other County Court at Law and cases may be transferred by the respective Judges from one (1) Court to the other County Court at Law.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court at Law
No. 2 of Lubbock County in civil cases of which said Court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to said County Courts at Law of Lubbock County over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the return of an appeal to the County Courts of Lubbock County from the Justice Court, where the return of appeals to the County Court at Law or the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 7. The County Court of Lubbock County shall have and retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and of jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, and the Court herein created shall have no other jurisdiction than that named in this Act, and the County Court of Lubbock County as now and heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law No. 1 and County Court at Law
No. 2 of Lubbock County; but the County Court now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Lubbock County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Lubbock County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County.

Sec. 8. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Lubbock County and the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County, for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors, shall be exercised by said Court; but juries summoned for any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to either of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 9. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County and the same may be changed in accordance with the law governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County, Texas.

Sec. 10. There shall be elected in Lubbock County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a Judge for the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a resident citizen of said Lubbock County for the immediate preceding two (2) years and a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected as such Judge shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. The County Attorney of Lubbock County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in said County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 12. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Sec. 13. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.
Sec. 15. A special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judge thereof, who shall receive the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15) per day for each day he so actually served, to be paid out of the general fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 16. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special Judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special Judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 15 of this Act.

Sec. 17. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 2.

Sec. 18. The County Clerk of Lubbock County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, and the seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Lubbock County."

Sec. 19. The Sheriff of Lubbock County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 20. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court and in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County for the selection and service of jurors shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County. All petit jurors summoned for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 21. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 22. After the effective date of this amendment, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall receive an annual salary in an amount not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the total annual salary paid to the Judge of the 99th Judicial District of Texas by the State of Texas. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Lubbock County on orders from the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 23. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasurer on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 24. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official Court Reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County, Texas, of not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per annum, to be paid out of the County Treasurer of Lubbock County, Texas, as other County officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to official Court Reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all their provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 25. The laws of Texas and the rules of procedure and rules of evidence governing trials in and appeals from all proceedings in County Courts shall be applied to, govern and control proceedings in and appeals from the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County.

Sec. 26. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior Courts of Lubbock County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law No. 1 or No. 2 of Lubbock County, under the provisions governing appeals to County Courts.

Sec. 27. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County is authorized to appoint an official interpreter for such County Court at Law. And the County Commissioners shall by resolution fix the compensation and shall prescribe the duties of such official interpreter. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall have authority to terminate the employment of such interpreter at any time. The official interpreter so appointed by the Judge of the said County Court at Law shall take the constitutional oath of office, and in addition thereto shall make oath... that as such official interpreter he will faithfully interpret all testimony given in the County Court at Law No. 2 and which oaths shall qualify him for service as official interpreter of such Court in all cases before such Court during his term of office.

HIDALGO COUNTY

Art. 1970-341. County Court at Law of Hidalgo County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in and for Hidalgo County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas, and which shall be a court of record.

Sec. 2. Said County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of Hidalgo County, Texas, would have jurisdiction; and all cases pending in the County Court of said County, except as hereafter provided, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County; and all cases pending in the District Court of the 92nd Judicial District which cases involve matters over which, by General Law, the County Court of Hidalgo County would have exclusive original jurisdiction, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County; and all writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of the County Court of Hidalgo County except those pertaining to matters as hereafter provided to remain in the County Court of Hidalgo County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County; and all cases pending in the District Court of the 92nd Judicial District pertaining to such cases shall be and the same are made returnable to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County.

The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County and of the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Court of Hidalgo County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Hidalgo County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding Judge thereof.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Hidalgo County shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Hidalgo County, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of Hidalgo County in such matters and proceedings. Such County Court at Law of Hidalgo County shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings.

As soon as may be practical but not later than one month after the effective date of this Act, there shall be transferred to the probate docket of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, under the direction of the County Judge and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Hidalgo County, such number of such probate proceedings and matters pending on the effective date of this Act in the County Court of Hidalgo County as shall be, as near as may be, one half (1/2) in number of the total of all of same then pending, and all writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in Hidalgo County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County as though originally issued therefrom.

All such new probate matters and proceedings filed after the effective date of this Act with the County Clerk of Hidalgo County irrespective of the court or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed shall be filed by said Clerk alternately in said respective courts in the order in which same are deposited with him for filing, beginning first with the County Court of Hidalgo County. The County Judge of Hidalgo County, in his discretion, may from time to time, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the County Court of Hidalgo County transfer to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County any such probate matter or proceeding then pending in the County Court of Hidalgo County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of said County Court at Law of Hidalgo County.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Hidalgo County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County the general jurisdiction of a probate court and of jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law over probate matters, but shall have no other jurisdiction criminal or civil, original or appellate. The District Court of the 92nd Judicial District shall have and retain all jurisdictions conferred by Acts, 1931, Forty-second Legislature, Page 876, Chapter 370, (Article 199, Section 92, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), save and except jurisdiction over all civil matters which, by general law the County Court of Hidalgo County would have exclusive original jurisdiction and said jurisdiction over all civil matters which, by general law, the County Court of Hidalgo County would have exclusive original jurisdiction is hereby transferred from said Dis-
COURTS—COUNTY

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold office at the pleasure of said Judge. The duties of such reporter shall be the same as provided by general law for reporters of the District Courts and such reporter shall receive a salary not to exceed Eleven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($11,500), to be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court out of any funds available for the purpose. The clerk of the Court shall tax as costs in each case, civil, criminal and probate where a record or any part thereof is made of the evidence in said case by the reporter, a stenographer’s fee of Three Dollars ($3). Such fee shall be paid as other costs in the case and paid by the clerk, when collected, into the general fund of the County.

Sec. 11. (a) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County is entitled to receive an annual salary, the amount of which shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County. The salary shall be paid in the same manner and from the same fund as prescribed by law for payment of the salary of the County Judge of Hidalgo County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.
Sec. 12. The official interpreter of the District Courts of Hidalgo County shall serve as official interpreter of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas, but if such official interpreter be not available when needed for service in said County Court at Law, the Judge of said Court is authorized to appoint an interpreter who shall serve only temporarily and who shall be paid not to exceed Five Dollars ($5) per day out of the general fund of the County on certificate of said Judge. Upon concurrence of the County Commissioners Court, the Judge of the County Court at Law may appoint an official interpreter for such Court as provided by general law.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, quo warranto, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law, and to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by general laws governing County Courts, and said Judge shall have all other powers, duties, immunities and privileges as are or may be provided by general law for Judges of Courts of Record and for Judges of County Courts at Law, and he shall be a magistrate and a conservator of the peace.

Sec. 14. The County Clerk of Hidalgo County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, and as clerk of such Court he shall have the same powers, duties, privileges and immunities as provided by law for County Clerks and the seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas."

Sec. 15. The sheriff of Hidalgo County shall in person or by deputy attend the said County Court at Law when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Hidalgo County and the Judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and themen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law and the Judge thereof; but jurors and themen summoned for either of said Courts may be ordered by the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned, be transferred to the other Court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law and the County Judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both Courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such Courts.

Jurons regularly impaneled for the week by the District Court or Courts may on request of either the County Judge or the Judge of the County Court at Law, be made available by the District Judge or Judges in such numbers as may be requested, for service for the week in either or both the County Court or the County Court at Law and such jurors shall serve in the County Court and County Court at Law the same as if they had been drawn and selected as is otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws and parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 18. If any part or parts of this Act shall be held unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this Act if it had known that such invalid part or parts thereof would be so declared unconstitutional.

GALVESTON COUNTY

Art. 1970-342. Probate Court of Galveston County

Sec. 1. The Probate Court of Galveston County provided by Section 1, Chapter 187, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, shall hereafter be known as the "County Court No. 2 of Galveston County." The court shall have, in addition to its present jurisdiction, civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the Constitution and General Laws for county courts and as provided herein.

Sec. 1a. The County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall be known hereafter as the "Probate Court at Galveston County," and the seal of the court shall be the same as now provided by law except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court of Galveston County, Texas." Wherever the name "County Court No. 2 of Galveston County" appears in this Act, it shall hereafter be understood to mean "Probate Court of Galveston County."

Sec. 2. The county clerk of Galveston County shall be the clerk of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County. The court shall have a seal consisting of a star of five (5) points with the words "County Court No. 2, Galveston County, Texas" engraved thereon. The sheriff of Galveston County may appoint a deputy to attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 3. All cases over which County Court No. 2 has jurisdiction may be instituted in or transferred to the County Court No. 2. The county judge and the district judges of Galveston County may transfer to County Court No. 2 all cases pending in their respective courts of which the court has jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders.
therefore entered in said cases, with the consent of the Judge of the County Court No. 2.

All cases and matters over which the County Court No. 2 is given jurisdiction may be transferred by the Judge thereof to the county or district courts having jurisdiction under the laws of this state, with the consent of the judge of the court concerned. All cases and matters over which the County Court No. 2 and the County Court of Galveston County have concurrent jurisdiction and over which the district courts also have jurisdiction may be transferred to one of the district courts of Galveston County with the consent of the judge thereof.

Provided that the Judge of the County Court and the Judge of County Court No. 2 shall have authority to transfer any case pending for trial from the docket of such court to the docket of such other court, and during the absence, illness, or inability of either judge to preside in his own court of the other court shall be and is hereby authorized to act for such judge absent for any of the above reasons in the trial or other disposition of cases on the docket of such other court.

All writs or process issued by a court prior to the time any case is transferred shall be returned and filed in the court to which the case is transferred and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred case as though such writ or process had been issued out of the court to which transferred, and all waivers of process and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Sec. 4. In the event of a vacancy in this office the Governor shall appoint some suitable person who is a resident citizen of Galveston County as Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County as herein constituted, who shall hold such office until the next general election after his appointment, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, and all vacancies in said office shall also be filled by appointment of the Governor until the next applicable general election thereafter.

At the first general election in said county and at each applicable general election thereafter there shall be elected by the qualified voters a Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County who shall be well informed in the laws of this state, who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided that no person shall be eligible for Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County by election, unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state; who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this state or a judge of a court in this state for at least four (4) years next preceding his election, and who shall have resided in the County of Galveston for two (2) years next preceding his election.

Sec. 4a. Any vacancy occurring in the office of Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Galveston County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the appointee shall hold office until the next succeeding general election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 6. A special judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefore shall be, as prescribed by law relating to county courts. The County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall hold at least four (4) terms for both civil and criminal business annually, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. After having fixed the times and number of terms of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, the Commissioners Court shall not change the same until the expiration of one (1) year. Until otherwise provided by the Commissioners Court, the term of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall be held on the first Monday in March, June, September and December.

Sec. 8. Both the said County Court of Galveston County, and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County or either of the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said courts; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said courts or of any court or tribunal inferior to said courts.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 may be paid by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County a yearly salary not more than the total salary, including supplements, paid any District Judge sitting in Galveston County. The salary shall be paid out of the general fund of the County in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn upon the County Treasurer upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.
Art. 1970-342

Art. 1970-342a. County Court No. 1 of Galveston County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created on the effective date of this Act, a Court to be held in Galveston County, Texas, to be known and designated as the “County Court No. 1 of Galveston County.”

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions, matters, and proceedings under the constitutions and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Galveston County, Texas, and the judge of said court shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are now or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction.

(b) The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction and powers in civil actions, matters, and proceedings that are now or may be conferred by law upon the vested in the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, and in the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, and the judges thereof. Provided, however, that the jurisdiction of said County Court of Galveston County, Texas, the jurisdiction of said County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, and the jurisdiction of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, over all such actions, matters, and proceedings, civil and criminal, within Galveston County, shall be concurrent.

Sec. 3. (a) Upon the effective date of this Act, the pending civil and criminal cases on the docket of the County Court of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, save and except probate matters, mental illness cases, condemnation cases and alcoholic hearings, shall be automatically transferred to the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County. Thereafter, civil and criminal cases, except matters described in Subsection (b) of this Section, shall be filed and docketed in the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County.

(b) Probate matters, mental illness cases, condemnation cases and alcoholic hearings shall continue to be filed and docketed in the County Court of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County in the same manner as they have been heretofore filed and docketed.

Sec. 4. The clerk of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall keep a separate docket for the court, in the same manner as now or may be provided by law for the keeping of dockets for the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County. He shall tax the official court reporter’s fee as costs in civil actions in said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County in like manner as the fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts of this state. The Judge of the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, the Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, and the Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may, with the consent of the judge of the court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions, matters, and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by entry of an order to that effect upon the docket of his court; and the judge of the court to which any such action, matter, or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall have been transferred, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein, and in the same manner and with the same procedure and manner as if such case, action, matter, or proceeding had been originally filed in the court to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case, or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, together with the Judges of the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, may, at any time, exchange respective cases and may, at any time, sit and act together and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter, or proceeding now, or hereafter, pending in their courts; and any and all such acts thus performed by any of said judges shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters, and proceedings.

Sec. 6. The practice in said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to county courts and county courts at law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, and from judgments and orders of the judge thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to such appeals and writs of error. Appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, appointing a receiver, or from orders overruling a motion to vacate or appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the district courts throughout this state.

Sec. 7. The Judges of the County Court of Galveston County, the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for the County Court No. 1, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. All of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42,
Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and all other applicable provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall apply to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed. Such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation, to be paid in the same manner, as provided for the official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Galveston County, Texas. Said court reporter shall be required primarily to report cases in the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, but shall be made available, when not engaged in a jury trial in said court, to report jury trials in the County Court of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County and to the District Attorney for examining trials in Justice Courts and trials in the Court of Domestic Relations.

Sec. 8. The County Clerk of Galveston County shall be the Clerk of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County. The court shall have a seal consisting of a star of five points with the words "County Court No. 1 of Galveston County" engraved thereon. The Sheriff of Galveston County shall appoint a deputy to attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 9. The Criminal District Attorney of Galveston County, Texas, shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County as provided by law for prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as in other cases.

Sec. 10. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act, there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years; who shall be well-versed in the laws of the state; who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Galveston County, Texas, for a period of not less than four years prior to such general election; and who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Governor shall appoint a Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Galveston County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the appointee shall hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. (a) The Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution, but no bond shall be required of him.

(b) The Judges of the County Court No. 1 and of the County Court No. 2 may each be paid an annual salary of not more than the total salary, including supplements, paid any District Judge in and for Galveston County. The salary shall be paid to each Judge in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Galveston County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasurer upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas.

Sec. 12. A special judge may be appointed or elected for the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the General Laws of this state relating to the appointment and election of special judges. Every such special judge thus appointed or elected for said court shall receive for the services he may actually perform the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular judge of said court.

Sec. 13. The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, or the judge thereof, shall have power to grant all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in Galveston County, or of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County.

Sec. 14. The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall hold six terms of court, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business of the court is disposed of; provided, however, that no term of the court shall extend beyond the date fixed for the commencement of the succeeding term except pursuant to an order entered upon the minutes during the term to be extended.

TAYLOR COUNTY

Art. 1970–343. County Court at Law of Taylor County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court in and for Taylor County, to be called the County Court at Law of Taylor County. It is expressly provided that the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until the Commissioners Court of Taylor County enters an order adopting the same.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Taylor County shall have jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws of the State, the County Court of said county would have jurisdiction except as provided in Section 3 of this Act; and all cases now pending in the County Court of said county, other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 3 of this Act, are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law of Taylor County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court at Law of said county, other than pertaining to matters over which, by Section 3 of this Act, jurisdiction remains in the County Court of Taylor County, are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law of Taylor County. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Taylor County and the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has been heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court, or of the County Judge of Taylor County as the presiding officer of such Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof. The County Court at Law of Taylor County shall be the Juvenile Court of Taylor County and shall exercise the jurisdiction granted by the Juvenile Court Act of 1971, Chapter 204, Acts of the Forty-eighth Legislature, as heretofore or hereafter amended. All cases pending in the Juvenile Court of Taylor County on the effective date of this Act, along with all the books and records thereof, shall be transferred to the County Court at Law of Taylor County. The County Court at Law of Taylor County and the Judge thereof shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Taylor County and the Judge thereof in the trial of insanity cases and the restoration thereof, approval of applications for admission to State Hospitals and Special Schools where admissions are by application, and the power to punish for contempt.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Taylor County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, and all such writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by law governing County Courts throughout the State; but said County Judge of Taylor County shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Taylor County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Taylor County. All ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the said Judge of the County Court of Taylor County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall be held as follows:

On the third Mondays in February, April, June, August, October, and December in each year, and each term of said Court shall continue in session until and including the Saturday next preceding the beginning of the next succeeding term thereof. The practice in said Court, and appeals from the judgments of the Judge thereof, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to county courts.

Sec. 5. There shall be elected in Taylor County by the qualified voters thereof, at a general election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county and who shall be a regularly licensed attorney in this State, well informed in the laws of this State, and who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in this State or as the Judge of a Court for a period of not less than three (3) years next preceding such general election, who shall hold his office for four (4) years, and until his successor shall have been duly qualified. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court created by this Act shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County until the next general election. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall, upon the adoption of this Act, appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 7. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County may be appointed or elected when and under such circumstances as are provided by law relating to County Courts, and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 8. The Court created by this Act, and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, and supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or of any other Court or tribunal inferior to said Court.

Sec. 9. The clerk of the County Court of Taylor County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Taylor County. The seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words “Clerk of the County Court at Law of Taylor County." The sheriff of Taylor County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 10. Upon authorization by the Commissioners Court, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County may appoint a secretary for such County Court at Law. Such secretary shall receive the same compensation as is now allowed to the secretary of the Judge of the County Court, to be paid out of the treasury of Taylor County as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall have the authority to terminate the employment of said secretary at any time.

Sec. 11. Upon authorization by the Commissioners Court, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County, to be paid out of the county treasury of Taylor County as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall apply in so far as they may be made applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall assess the same fees as are or may be established by law relating to County Judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of said court and be by him paid monthly into the county treasury. The Judge of said County Court at Law shall receive an annual salary which shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County at an amount not less than the salary paid to the County Judge of Taylor County, and which shall be payable monthly, out of the county treasury of Taylor County.

Sec. 2. The Probate Court of Tarrant County shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Tarrant County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Tarrant County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and habitual drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and habitual drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court of Tarrant County there shall be transferred to the docket of said court, under the direction of the county judge and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Tarrant County, such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the County Court of Tarrant County as shall be, as near as may be, one-half in number of the total of all of the same then pending, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said County Court of Tarrant County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court of Tarrant County as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day, or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Tarrant County, irrespective of the court or judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said clerk alternately in said respective courts in the order in which the same are deposited with him for filing, beginning first with the County Court of Tarrant County. No proceeding had in either of said courts, nor any order entered therein, shall be invalid because of any failure of said clerk to file new matters and proceedings alternately as above provided. The judge of either of said courts, in his discretion, may, by an order entered upon the minutes, on or after the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court of Tarrant County, transfer from either of said courts to the other, any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending therein, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer may be made. No application, pleading, motion, order, judgment, oath, bond, citation, return of citation, or any other matter or proceeding shall be invalid because of any reference therein to either of said courts by the name of the other, and any reference therein to either of said courts by the name of the other of said courts shall be legally sufficient for every purpose.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Tarrant County shall retain, as heretofore, the powers and jurisdiction of said Court existing at the time of the passage of this Act, and shall exercise its powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court.
with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those provided in Section 3 of this Act to be transferred to and filed in the Probate Court of Tarrant County. The County Judge of Tarrant County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Tarrant County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Tarrant County, as they now exist, shall be exercised by the County Judge of Tarrant County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act expressly be committed to the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Tarrant County.

Sec. 5. The practice and procedure in the Probate Court of Tarrant County shall be the same as that provided by law generally for the county courts of this State; and all Statutes and Laws of the State, as well as all rules of court relating to proceedings in the County Courts of this State, or to the review thereof or appeals therefrom, shall, as to all matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, apply equally thereto.

Sec. 6. The Probate Court of Tarrant County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing County Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 7. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court of Tarrant County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term; it shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in said County by the qualified voters thereof, at the General Election, for a term of four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified, a Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County as soon as may be after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the next General Election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to the County Judges.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County by the appointment of a Judge of said Court, who shall serve until the next General Election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of either the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County, or the County Judge of Tarrant County, or in the discretion of either of them for any other reason, the County Judge of Tarrant County may sit and act as Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County, and the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County may sit and act as Judge of the County Court of Tarrant County, with respect to any matters referred to in Section 2 of this Act, and either of said judges may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or, with the consent of the judge thereof, in the courtroom of the other of said courts, any matter or proceeding pending in either of said courts, and may enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the judge of said other court might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County and the County Judge of Tarrant County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County may be appointed or elected, as provided by the general laws relating to the County Courts and to the Judges thereof.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Tarrant County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court of Tarrant County. The seal of the Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court of Tarrant County." The sheriff of Tarrant County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter may be established by law relating to County Judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected, and from and after the effective date of this Act, the Judge of said Court shall receive, upon qualifying, an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, of not less than Sixteen Thousand Dollars ($16,000), payable out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County shall provide the following employees for the Judge of the County Probate Court of Tarrant County: (a) a secretary to be paid not less than Four Thousand, One Hundred and Forty Dollars ($4,140) per annum, and (b) a chief clerk to be paid not less than Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000) per annum, at salaries to be fixed by the Commissioners Court but not less than the figures indicated, which salaries shall be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court from any funds available for this purpose, provided, however, that the Judge of the County Probate Court of Tarrant County is hereby authorized to employ, supervise, and terminate each and every one of said employees. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County may also provide such other and additional clerical assistance as may be required to properly carry on the business of said Court at salaries to be fixed by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15a. No action taken, nor any order made or entered, nor any application, pleading, motion, bond, citation, return of citation filed, nor any other proceeding had in the County Court of Tarrant County or in the Probate Court of Tarrant County, heretofore or hereafter, shall ever be held invalid because done in either of said courts when it should have been done in the other of said courts, or because of erroneous reference therein to either of said courts by the name of the other of said courts, and as against any complaint or charge of such nature, all of the same heretofore done are hereby validated for every purpose.

Sec. 16. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County is hereby authorized to amend the county budget for the fiscal year of 1957, if necessary, from and at the effective date of this Act for the balance of said fiscal year, in order to provide for the salaries of the Judge of the Probate Court and employees authorized in this Act.

ECTOR COUNTY

Art. 1970–346. County Court at Law for Ector County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Odessa, Ector County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Ector County, and which shall be a court of record.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Ector County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Ector County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this state, county courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 5 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the county judge of Ector County, as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court except as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding judge thereof.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Ector County and of the judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Court of Ector County or in the county judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the county judge of Ector County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding judge thereof.

Sec. 4. The County Court at Law of Ector County shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Ector County, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of Ector County in such matters and proceedings. Such County Court at Law of Ector County shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings.

The County Court at Law of Ector County shall have the jurisdiction conferred upon probate courts specially created by the Legislature in Article 170a–1, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as the same now stands or may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to probate courts, whether specially created by the Legislature or otherwise, shall be and are hereby made to apply in all their provisions insofar as they are applicable to the County Court at Law of Ector County and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 5. The County Judge of Ector County shall be the judge of the county court of Ector County. All ex-officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Ector County except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County.

Sec. 6. The respective judges of the County Court of Ector County and of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall, from time to time as occasion may require, transfer cases from one of such courts to the other of such courts in order that the business may be equally distributed among them, that the judges thereof may at all times be provided with cases to be tried or otherwise considered, and that the trial of no case need be delayed because of the disqualification of the judge in whose court it is pending; provided, however, that no case shall be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; provided further, that no case may be transferred from the County Court of Ector County which does not come within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Ector County as prescribed in this Act.

Sec. 7. In probate matters, in the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County, the County Judge of Ector County may sit and act as judge of the County Court at Law, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of the County Court at Law any matter or proceedings there pending, and enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the judge of the County Court at Law may enter if personally presiding therein. Likewise, in probate matters, the judge of the County Court at Law may, in the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the county judge sit and act as judge of the county court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of the county court, any matter or proceeding there pending and enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the county judge may enter if personally presiding therein. The signature of either judge on any order shall be conclusive that all conditions have been met or complied with to qualify him to act for the other in such probate matters.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County and the judge of the County Court of Ector County may, at any time, exchange benches, and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding of which the said courts have concurrent jurisdiction, pending now, or hereafter, in either the County Court at Law of Ector County or the County Court of Ector County; and any and all such acts thus performed by the judge of the County Court of Ector County or the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 9. The terms of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the county courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Ector County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Ector County.

Sec. 10. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five (5) years, well informed in the laws of the state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Ector County, Texas, for a period of not less than two (2) years prior to such general election, and who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Ector County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of said Court at Law of Ector County, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law of Ector County shall in like manner, as hereinabove provided, be filled by said Commissioners Court of Ector County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. The county attorney of Ector County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Ector County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 13. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 14. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. In the case of the disqualification of the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge of the County Court at Law to try such case or cases where the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 14 of this Act.

Sec. 16. The County Court at Law of Ector County, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the state, and said judge shall have all other powers, duties, immunities and privileges as are or may be provided by general law for judges of courts.
Sec. 17. The county clerk of Ector County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Ector County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Ector County."

Sec. 18. The sheriff of Ector County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Ector County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 19. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county clerk of Ector County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talemen shall, and the county Court at Law and the judge thereof; but jurors and talemen summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned, be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the judge of the County Court at Law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts.

Sec. 20. Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the district court or courts, if there be more than one, may on request of either the judge of the county court or the judge of the County Court at Law, be made available by the district judge or judges in such numbers as may be requested, for service for the week in either or both the county court or the County Court at Law and such jurors shall serve in the county court or the County Court at Law the same as they had been drawn and selected as is otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 21. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Ector County to be paid out of the county treasury of Ector County as other county officials are paid in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all their provisions so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 22. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall receive the same salary and be paid from the same fund and the same manner as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the county judge of Ector County, to be paid out of the county treasury of Ector County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said county, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 23. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to the county judge's fees, all of which will be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 24. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Ector County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Ector County.

Sec. 25. The County Court at Law of Nolan County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Nolan County, in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this State, County Courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Nolan County, Texas, as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain, which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge of Nolan County.

Sec. 26. (a) The County Court at Law of Nolan County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the State Court of Nolan County, in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this State, County Courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Nolan County, Texas, as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain, which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge of Nolan County.

(b) With the consent of the other, the Judge of either of such Courts shall have the power to transfer to the other Court any case over which the Courts have concurrent jurisdiction pending upon the docket of his Court except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted.

Sec. 27. The County Court at Law of Nolan County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil matters which by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon Justice Courts. Neither the County Court at Law of Nolan County nor the Judge thereof shall have jurisdiction to act as a Coroner nor to preside at inquests, nor have jurisdiction of claims which come within the jurisdiction of the Small Claims Court as prescribed by Article 2460a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of the County Court at Law of Nolan County in civil cases of which said court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law of Nolan County over such matters as are specified in this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of an appeal to the County Court of Nolan County from the Justice Court, where the right of appeal to the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Nolan County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court; it shall probate wills; appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said Court, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State. The County Judge of Nolan County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Nolan County. All ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Nolan County except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Nolan County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Nolan County.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Nolan County by the qualified voters thereof, at each General Election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of the Court who is not a resident citizen of Nolan County. He shall also be a licensed Attorney of the State of Texas and shall have been a licensed Attorney of the State of Texas for at least two (2) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Nolan County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Nolan County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Nolan County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County, who shall hold his office until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 13. A special Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30) per day for each day he actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 14. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such cases or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such Special Judge by agreement of the parties or their Attorneys, such Special Judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 13 of this Act.

Sec. 15. The County Court at Law of Nolan County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the Court and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Nolan County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Nolan County, and the seal of the Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Nolan County."

Sec. 17. The Sheriff of Nolan County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Nolan County when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 18. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Nolan County and the Judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talemen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Nolan County and the Judge thereof; but jurors and talemen summoned for either of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other Court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County and the Judge of the County Court of Nolan County, jurors may be summoned for service in both Courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such Courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 19. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 20. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall receive the same salary and be paid from the same fund and in the same manner as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the County Judge of Nolan County, to be paid out of the County Treasurer of Nolan County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said County, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 21. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 22. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Nolan County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Nolan County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 23. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Nolan County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Nolan County.

SMITH COUNTY

Art. 1970–348. County Court at Law of Smith County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Tyler, Smith County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Smith County shall have jurisdiction in all matters, causes, and proceedings, civil, criminal and probate, original and appellate, and also including eminent domain, proceedings, over which by the General Laws of this State county courts have jurisdiction, and jurisdiction of said County Court at Law shall be concurrent with that of the County Court of Smith County; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Smith County as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law may sit in the absence of the County Judge of Smith County from the courtroom in all matters, causes, and proceedings, except matters coming under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court where the County Judge would be the presiding officer of that Court.

(c) The County Judge, if a duly licensed attorney, may sit in the absence of the Judge of the County Court at Law from the courtroom in all matters and causes without the necessity of transferring those matters, causes, and proceedings except matters coming under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court where the County Judge would be the presiding officer of that Court.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the County Court of Smith County. The County Court of Smith County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by General Law governing county courts throughout the State. The County Judge of Smith County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Smith County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Smith County, except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the county courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Smith County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Smith County.

Sec. 5. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five (5) years, well-informed in the laws of the state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Smith County, Texas, for a period of not less than two (2) years prior to such general election, and who shall hold his office for the unexpired term. At the general election in November, 1966, he shall be elected to hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Smith County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of said court at law of Smith County, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law of Smith County shall be in like manner, as hereinabove provided, be filled by said Commissioners Court of Smith County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Smith County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Smith County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 7. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Smith County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Sec. 8. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 10. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 11. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 10 of this Act.

Sec. 12. The County Court at Law of Smith County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law. The County Court at Law or the Judge thereof shall also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for County Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Smith County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Smith County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Smith County.”

Sec. 14. The Sheriff of Smith County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Smith County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 15. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Smith County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Smith County and the judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either said courts may be summoned for the judge in both court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County and the Judge of the County Court of Smith County jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 16. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 17. From and after the passage of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall receive an annual salary of not less than $12,000 nor more than $16,000 as set by the Commissioners Court, to be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the Commissioners Court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Section.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Smith County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Smith County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 18, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 18a. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County, with the consent of the Commissioners Court, may employ a secretary. The secretary is entitled to a salary as determined by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 19. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Smith County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and from the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 20. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may issue writs of habeas corpus in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 21. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County who has been duly elected and qualified. During his term of office the Judge may not appear and plead as an attorney at law in any court of record in this State.
(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Orange County shall appoint a Judge to the County Court at Law of Orange County. The Judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this Section and serves until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law may be filled in like manner by the Commissioners Court and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall receive not less than the same salary prescribed by the Commissioners Court of Orange County for the County Judge of Orange County and not more than $15,000 per annum. Such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the Commissioners Court. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the Judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Court Officials

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Orange County, Texas, shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Orange County. The Commissioners Court of Orange County may employ as many additional assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the Court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Orange County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall appoint an official court reporter, who shall have the qualifications and duties prescribed by law. The official court reporter shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Orange County, of not more than $9,000 per year.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Orange County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Orange County.

(b) The Judges of the County Court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that Court.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the District Courts of Orange County, Texas, may, at the request of either the Judge of the County Court or of the County Court at Law, be made available by the District Judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either or both the County Court or the County Court at Law.

Effective Date

Sec. 6. The Act becomes effective upon order of the Commissioners Court of Orange County duly entered in its minutes.

Art. 1970-349A. County Court at Law of Orange County; Jurisdiction Concurrent with District and County Courts

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the Commissioners Court of Orange County, by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the District Courts in Orange County, in suits, causes and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and custody and support of dependent children involved therein, in all actions involving the adjustment of property rights and child custody and support of minor children involved therein; said court shall have and exercise jurisdiction concurrently with the District Courts in Orange County, in all divorce and marriage annulment cases, in all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent or neglected or dependent child proceedings, including the adjustment of property rights and child custody and support of minor children involved therein, in any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children, as provided by law, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs... of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. After the effective date of this Act all cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included above may be instituted or transferred between the District Courts of Orange County and the County Court at Law of Orange County.

Sec. 3. Should the Judge be disqualified to try a particular case, or should the Judge by reason of illness or otherwise fail or refuse to hold court as needed, on matters pending in the County Court at Law of Orange County, such fact shall be brought to the attention of a Judge of the District Courts of Orange County by any attorney, whereupon such matters as required attention shall be promptly acted by the said Judge of the District Courts of Orange County and disposed of in the manner as other matters or trials in the several District Courts. In the event it should ever become necessary to select a special Judge for the District Court at Law of Orange County, such special Judge shall be selected in the manner provided by law for the selection of a special Judge of the District Court.

Sec. 4. Nothing in the Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the District Courts of Orange County, but such Courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law. Such District Courts shall continue to exercise concurrent jurisdiction in all matters which by this Act are brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Orange County and none of the District Courts of Orange County shall be relieved by the provisions of this Act of their several responsibilities for the handling and disposition of all matters which are by this Act brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Orange County at time and the condition of the dockets of such District Courts will permit.

Sec. 5. The County Court at Law of Orange County shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Orange County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws and the Constitution of this State County Courts have jurisdiction, and in addition thereunto any additional jurisdiction which may hereafter be assigned to the County Courts at Law of the State of Texas as now constituted or as they may hereafter be constituted, except the executive functions of the County Judge as a member of the Commissioners Court, Board of Equalization, Budget Officer and other executive and administrative functions.

Sec. 6. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has herefore been vested in the County Courts of Orange County, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Orange County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding Judge thereof, including the right of the County Judge of Orange County to appoint commissioners in condemnation, receive the reports and enter judgments. It is the intention of this Section to vest the County Court at Law of Orange County jurisdiction to hear any and all matters in condemnation, whether by commission or jury of view, appealed to the County Court at Law of Orange County or to the County Court only.

Sec. 7. The County Court at Law of Orange County shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Orange County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Orange County in such matters and proceedings. Said County Court shall be the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall have authority to probe wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executor, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the appointing of minors as provided by law and conduct lunacy proceedings.

The County Court at Law of Orange County shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court of Orange County conferred upon County Courts or upon Probate Court specially created by the Legislature in Article 1970a-1, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as the same now stands or may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to Probate Courts whether specially created by the Legislature or otherwise, shall be and they are hereby made to apply concurrently in all their provisions insofar as such apply to the County Court at Law of Orange County and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act. It is the intention of the Legislature in this Act that the County Judge of Orange County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Orange County; all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Orange County and all duties and jurisdiction vested in the County Court of Orange County by this Act now being performed by the County Judge of Orange County, Texas, is and shall be concurrent.

Sec. 8. With reference to all matters, civil, criminal and probate, over which the County Court at Law is given concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Orange County, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall use the same dockets as now provided by said County Clerk in accordance with law for the use of the Judge of the County Court and Probate Court of Orange County and the Judge of the County Court at Law of Or-Orange County and County Judge shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all matters therein insofar as provided in this Act. All suits and other proceedings instituted in the County over which the County Court or Probate Court has jurisdiction shall be addressed to the County Court of the County. The Judge of either the County Court at Law of Orange County or the County Judge may hear and dispose of any suit or other proceeding on the civil, criminal and probate dockets of the County Court of Orange County without the necessity of transferring the suit or other proceeding, either civil, criminal or probate, from one court to the other. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the County Court or Probate Court and the Clerk of the County Court in said County shall keep one set of minutes in which shall be recorded all the judgments and orders of the County Court at Law of Orange County and the County Court of Orange County. All citations and other process issued by the County Clerk and all notices, restraining orders and other process authorized to be issued by the Clerk of the County Court shall be returnable to the County Court of Orange County and the return of such process may be had over by the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County insofar as provided by this Act or the Judge of the County Court, and any and all such Acts thus performed by the County Court at Law of Orange County or the County Court of Orange County shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 9. Immediately after this Act takes effect, the District Clerk of Orange County, who shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Orange County in all matters wherein the County Court at Law of Orange County has concurrent jurisdiction with the District Courts of Orange County may file in the County Court at Law of Orange County any cases involving adoption and independent actions involving child custody and support of minors, including cases under the Reciprocal Support Act, all applications to change the names of persons and all divorce cases. The County Clerk of Orange County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Orange County in all matters wherein the County Court at Law of Orange County has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court.

Sec. 10. The said County Court at Law of Orange County shall be a Court of Record shall sit and hold court in the county seat of Orange County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes as herein provided. These dockets, records and minutes shall be separate from the dockets, records and minutes of the District Courts of Orange County and as provided hereinbefore with the County Court of Orange County, Texas and Orange County and the cities thereof as well as Welfare Agencies, to furnish said County Court at Law of Orange County such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court and all Sheriffs and Constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services with reference to process and writs from the District Court, County Courts and Probate Courts.

Sec. 12. The said County Court at Law of Orange County and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts and County Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said County Court at Law of Orange County has jurisdiction. It shall also have power to punish for contempt.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law of Orange County as herein created shall have the same terms of Court as the District Courts of Orange County as are presently established or as they may hereinafter be changed.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County may be appointed a member of the Juvenile Board of Orange County and may be paid additional compensation therefor by the Commissioners Court of Orange County, not to exceed the amount paid by Orange County, to the District Judges and/or the County Judge of Orange County for acting as members of the Juvenile Board.

Sec. 15. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals as is now or may be hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Sec. 16. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, the drawing of jury panels, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearing in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts, general or special, as well as County Courts; provided that juries in all matters civil or criminal shall always be composed of twelve (12) members except that in misdemeanor criminal cases the juries shall be composed of six (6) members, as well as six (6) member juries in cases where this Court has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court as herein provided.

Sec. 17. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall have authority to appoint a Court Reporter in such cases as may be required by law, and in such other cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. Such Court Reporter may be paid a salary out of the general fund of the County as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court, and shall not exceed the amount paid to reporters of the District Courts of Orange County. The Judge shall also have the power.
and authority to appoint a court interpreter, in such cases as may be necessary, who may be paid such fees and compensation out of the general fund of the County for such service as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall not appear as an attorney at law in any court of record in this State nor shall he appear and practice as an attorney at law in any Court or Justice Court over which he has original or appellate jurisdiction.

Sec. 19. From and after the passage of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall receive an annual salary of not less than is presently being paid by the County of Orange to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County nor more than that which is paid by the State of Texas to the Judges of the District Courts of Orange County, Texas, as set by the Commissioners Court to be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the Commissioners Court and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 20. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several District Courts of Orange County and the County Court of Orange County and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said Courts.

BELB COUNTY

Art. 1970-350. County Court at Law of Bell County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) On the effective date of this Act (as provided in Section 6), the County Court at Law of Bell County is created.

(b) The County Court at Law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Bell County.

(c) The County Court at Law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Bell County is the Judge of the County Court of Bell County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Bell County unless by this Act committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Bell County by order duly entered of record, shall prescribe not less than four terms each year for the County Court at Law of Bell County.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law of Bell County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than three years, well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Bell County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The Judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. During his term of office the Judge may not appear and plead as an attorney at law in any court of record in this State.

(b) If any vacancy occurs in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law, the Commissioners Court shall appoint the Judge of the County Court at Law who must have the same qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this Section and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall receive a salary in an amount determined by the Commissioners Court not to exceed the salary prescribed by the Commissioners Court for the County Judge of Bell County. Such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the Commissioners Court. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the Judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

(f) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Bell County, and for this additional work as a member of the Juvenile Board he shall be allowed compensation in like manner as other members of said Juvenile Board, such compensation to be determined and fixed by order of the Commissioners Court and to be paid in addition to any other compensation to which he is entitled under the provisions of law.

Court Officials

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Bell County, Texas shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Bell County. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Bell County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bell County.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Bell County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court at Bell County.

(b) The Judges of the County Court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that Court.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the District Courts of Bell County, Texas, may at the request of either the Judge of the County Court or of the County Court at Law, be made available by the District Judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either or both the County Court or the County Court at Law.

GUADALUPE COUNTY

Art. 1970–351. County Court at Law of Guadalupe County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) The County Court at Law of Guadalupe County is created on the effective date of this Act provided in Section 7. It sits in Seguin.

(b) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Guadalupe County. However, the county court at law does not have jurisdiction over eminent domain proceedings or over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or County Court of Guadalupe County.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the same power to punish for contempt prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Guadalupe County is the Judge of the County Court of Guadalupe County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Guadalupe County unless by this Act committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The terms of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County are the same as those of the County Court of Guadalupe County.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the general election in November 1970, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County shall be elected if this Act has taken effect in accordance with Section 7.

(b) To be eligible for the office of Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County, a person must be 30 years old or older, have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years before the election, and have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Guadalupe County for a period of not less than two years before the election.

(c) The judge elected holds office for four years and until a successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(d) Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by the commissioners court appointing a person with the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (b) of this section. The appointee holds office until the next general election and until a successor has been duly elected and qualified. The appointee is entitled to the same compensation as his predecessor.

(e) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.
(f) The Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County shall fix the salary of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County.

(g) When the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County is disqualified, the Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County shall appoint a special judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Court Officials and Personnel

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Guadalupe County shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, for the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County. The Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County may employ as many assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Guadalupe County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must have the qualifications prescribed by law for district court reporters, who serves at the pleasure of the judge, and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at law of Guadalupe County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Guadalupe County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, which are now within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. However, the judge of the county court at law may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court.

(d) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the district courts whose districts include Guadalupe County may, at the request of either the Judge of the County Court or County Court at Law of Guadalupe County, be made available by the district judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either or both the county court or county court at law.

Facilities and Equipment

Sec. 6. (a) The Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law has a seal identical with the seal of the County Court of Guadalupe County except that it contains the words "County Court at Law of Guadalupe County."

Effective Date

Sec. 7. (a) This Act takes effect when the Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County appoints a judge to the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County.

(b) The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Section 3(b) of this Act and serves until December 31, 1970, and until a successor has been duly elected and qualified.

DENTON COUNTY

Art. 1970–352. County Court at Law of Denton County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) The County Court at Law of Denton County, Texas, is created.

(b) The court has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Denton County.

(c) The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Denton County extends to all matters of eminent domain and is concurrent with that of the County Court and Commissioners Court of Denton County.

(d) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Denton County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Denton County in probate matters and proceedings.

(e) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county... court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, and he is a magistrate and conservator of the peace.

(f) The County Judge of Denton County is the judge of the County Court of Denton County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Denton County except insofar as the same are, by this Act, committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The terms of the County Court at Law of Denton County are the same as those for the County Court of Denton County, Texas.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years, who must be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Denton County, Texas, for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Denton County, Texas, shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Denton County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County may be filled in like manner by the commissioners court and the appointee holds office until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County is entitled to receive the same salary, to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner, as the County Judge of Denton County receives. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to receive $30 a day for each day he serves, to be paid out of the general fund of Denton County by the commissioners court.

(f) If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided by Subsection (e) of this section.

Court Officials

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Denton County, Texas, shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Denton County. They shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter, who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than $7500 per annum, nor more than $10,600 per annum, and this compensation shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Denton County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Denton County", but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Denton County.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Denton County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Denton County, Texas.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Denton County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause or proceeding, civil, criminal, or probate, involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a cause or proceeding pending in the county court or county court at law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause or proceeding without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of the county court at law may not sit or act in any cause or proceeding over which exclusive jurisdiction is vested by this Act in the Denton County Court.
Juries

Sec. 6. (a) The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Clerk and County Judge of Denton County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the county court at law and its judge. Jurors and talesmen summoned for either court may by order of the judge of the court to which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service. Upon concurrence of the judge of the county court at law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and used interchangeably.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

PARKER COUNTY

Art. 1970–353. Parker County; Jurisdiction of County Court Diminished

Sec. 1. The County Court of Parker County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such court; conduct lunacy hearings; apprentice minors as provided by law, and issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; punish for contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by general law governing county courts throughout the state; and in addition thereto, the County Court of Parker County and the judge thereof, subject to the conditions hereinafter stated, shall have original and appellate civil jurisdiction, exclusive of matters of eminent domain, and original and appellate criminal jurisdiction as normally exercised by county courts under the constitution and general laws of this state; provided, however, neither the County Court of Parker County, nor the judge thereof shall have any jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain, and further provided, however, that all future statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas shall be operative in Parker County as fully as though this statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. The County Court of Parker County and the 43rd District Court shall have and exercise concurrent original criminal jurisdiction over causes in which the punishment that may be assessed includes confinement in the county jail or with the Texas Department of Corrections, and over which said causes, by the general laws of the state, the County Court of Parker County would have original jurisdiction; all such civil and criminal causes shall be filed with the District Clerk of Parker County in the district court. The judge of the 43rd District Court will be the presiding judge, insofar as the district court and the county court are concerned in matters over which said courts exercise concurrent jurisdiction and may, in his discretion, assign to the County Court of Parker County for trial and disposition, cases or portions thereof over which concurrent jurisdiction is exercised by said courts. Such assignments shall be made by docket notation. The purpose and intent of this Act is to vest the 43rd District Court and the County Court of Parker County with concurrent jurisdiction over matters of original civil jurisdiction, exclusive of probate matters and eminent domain matters, and concurrent jurisdiction over matters of original criminal jurisdiction of cases in which the punishment that may be assessed includes confinement in the county jail or with the Texas Department of Corrections, over which said civil and criminal matters, by the general laws of this state, the County Court of Parker County and the county court of Parker County would have original jurisdiction; the concurrent jurisdiction being subject to the control over assignments of such cases, or parts thereof, by the district court and the judge thereof. However, there shall not be any concurrent jurisdiction in matters of probate, or original criminal jurisdiction of cases in which the punishment that may be assessed does not include confinement in the county jail or with the Texas Department of Corrections, nor shall there be concurrent jurisdiction by the courts of matters over which the constitution or general laws of this state confer jurisdiction upon the county courts, all of such jurisdiction remaining exclusively with the County Court of Parker County and the judge thereof; nor shall there be concurrent original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, the original jurisdiction of which shall remain exclusively in the 43rd District Court. The trial of cases assigned to the county court shall be governed by the rules applicable to the trial of cases in the county courts.

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided in this article, jurisdiction over juvenile matters in Parker County shall be as established by the constitution and general laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The District Clerk of Parker County shall continue to perform all clerical functions of and for the County Court of Parker County, pertaining to all matters and causes over which the district court and the county court have concurrent jurisdiction. Insofar as all cases over which the district court and the county court have concurrent jurisdiction, the clerk shall charge fees at the rate set by law for county court cases or such other rates as may be authorized by the constitution or general laws of this state.

Sec. 5. The duties of the county attorney of Parker County shall not be affected by this article. The county attorney of Parker County shall have and perform the same duties as were had and performed prior to the effective date of this article, including, but not limited to, the prosecution of all misdemeanor cases which come within the jurisdiction of either the 43rd District Court or the inferior courts within the county.

Sections 6 to 8 of the 1971 act provided:

"Sec. 6. This Act shall take effect September 1, 1971."

"Sec. 7. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

"Sec. 8. All laws and parts of laws in conflict here­with are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict and in any and all cases of such conflict, the provisions of this Act shall prevail."

HUNT COUNTY

Art. 1970–354. County Court at Law of Hunt County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court in Hunt County, to be called the County Court at Law of Hunt County.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Hunt County, Texas, is created.

(b) The court has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. However, this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of the County Judge of Hunt County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, as are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer.

(c) The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Hunt County extends to all matters of eminent domain and is concurrent with that of the County Court and Commissioners Court of Hunt County.

(d) The County Court at Law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Hunt County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Hunt County in probate matters and proceedings.

(e) The County Court at Law of Hunt County and the judge thereof shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Hunt County and the judge thereof in the trial of insanity cases and the restoration thereof, approval of applications for admission to state hospitals and special schools where admissions are by application, and the power to punish for contempt.

(f) The County Court at Law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, assignment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the County Court at Law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, and he is a magistrate and conservator of the peace.

(g) The County Judge of Hunt County is the judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County. All other duties of the court shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Hunt County except insofar as the same are, specified by this Act, committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Hunt County are the same as those for the County Court of Hunt County, Texas.

Sec. 4. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than two years, who must be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have been a bona fide resident of Hunt County, Texas, and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Hunt County, Texas, for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment initially, and after the initial appointment, for a period not less than two (2) years prior to the general election. The judge holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Hunt County, Texas, shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Hunt County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1974 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Hunt County a Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County for a regular term of four years to commence on the first day of January following his election. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Hunt County until the next general election. The judge of the Hunt County Court at Law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County is entitled to receive the same salary, to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner, as the County Judge of Hunt County receives. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to receive $15.00 a day for each day he serves, to be paid out of the general fund of Hunt County by the commissioners court.

(f) If a judge of the County Court at Law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided by Subsection (e) of this section.

(g) The Clerk of the County Court of Hunt County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Hunt County. The County Attorney of Hunt County shall represent the state in all prosecutions pending in the court, and he shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts. The Sheriff of Hunt County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge; and the various sheriffs and constables of this state executing process issued out of the court shall receive the fees fixed by law for execution of process out of county courts.

Sec. 5. (a) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall assess the same fees as are or may be established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and be by him paid into the county treasury, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall receive an annual salary set by the commissioners court in the same manner as the other elected county officials who are on a salary basis.

(b) The seal of the court shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Hunt County,” but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Hunt County.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall have the power to make and publish rules as to the docketing and disposition of criminal and civil cases in the court not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Practice in the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Hunt County, Texas.

Sec. 7. (a) The judges of the county court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Hunt County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(b) The county judge and the judge of the County Court at Law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause or proceeding civil, criminal, or probate, involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a cause or proceeding pending in the county court or County Court at Law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause or proceeding without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of the County Court at Law may not sit or act in any cause or proceeding over which exclusive jurisdiction is vested by this Act in the Hunt County Court.

Sec. 8. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall be entitled to traveling expenses and shall be entitled to necessary office expenses in the same manner as is allowed county judges.

ANGELINA COUNTY

Art. 1970-355. County Court at Law of Angelina County

Sec. 1. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law of Angelina County is created.

(b) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, including eminent domain proceedings, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Angelina County.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Angelina County is the judge of the County Court of Angelina County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Angelina County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.
Sec. 2. (a) The judge of either the County Court at Law of Angelina County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any cause on his docket to the docket of the other court.

(b) The judges of the courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time. Whenever a judge of one of the courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case from his court to the other court.

(c) Either judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either court without having the case transferred or may sit in the other court and there hear and determine any case there pending. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either judge, the other judge may hold court for him. Either of the judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of the courts and determine them or may hear and determine any question in any case, and either judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

(e) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law.

(f) All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of Angelina County by order duly entered of record, shall prescribe not less than four terms each year for the County Court at Law of Angelina County.

Sec. 4. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Angelina County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas, be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Angelina County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Angelina County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Angelina County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law may be filled in like manner by the Commissioners court and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary of not less than $14,000 per year nor more than $18,000 per year. Such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Angelina County, shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Angelina County. The Commissioners Court of Angelina County may employ as many additional assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Angelina County; provided that the county attorney shall receive a salary of not less than $2,000 per year less than the salary paid to the judge of the county court at law.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Angelina County.

Sec. 6. Practice in the County Court at Law of Angelina County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Angelina County.

Sec. 7. This Act becomes effective on January 8, 1972.
VICTORIA COUNTY

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Victoria County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Victoria County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the County Judge of Victoria County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, as are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, quo warranto, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The County Judge of Victoria County is the judge of the County Court of Victoria County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Victoria County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County, shall be a member of the juvenile board in Victoria County and shall be entitled to additional compensation for the additional duties hereby imposed, to be fixed by the commissioners court and paid in 12 equal installments out of the general fund or other available fund of the county. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation provided in this Act.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Victoria County are the same as those for the County Court of Victoria County.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Victoria County, and actively engaged in the practice of law in Victoria County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Victoria County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Victoria County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1974 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Victoria County a judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Victoria County until the next general election. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County shall receive the same salary, to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner, as the County Judge of Victoria County. He shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The Criminal District Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Victoria County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Victoria County. They shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Victoria County; however, such compensation shall not be less than the total compensation paid to official court reporters serving the district courts in Victoria County.
Art. 1970–356

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Victoria County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Victoria County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Victoria County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Victoria County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 7. (a) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

(c) At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, Constitution of Texas. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County or the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. Either judge may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall receive not less than the total compensation received by the County Judge of Brazoria County, including the same salary prescribed by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County for the County Judge of Brazoria County and other compensation for office expense, travel expense, service on the juvenile board and other allowances paid by the county. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judges.

(f) A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County or the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Sec. 4. (a) The Criminal District Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Brazoria County, shall serve as Criminal District Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County. The Commissioners Court of Brazoria County may employ as many additional assistant criminal district attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and clerks as are necessary to serve the courts created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Brazoria County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County may each appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County.

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Brazoria County.

(b) The judges of the County Court of Brazoria County and the County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Brazoria County may transfer cases and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to a county court at law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the district courts of Brazoria County, may, at the request of either the Judge of the County Court of Brazoria County, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County, or the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County be made available by the district judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either the county court or the county courts at law.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall not engage in the private practice of law while serving as judges of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall be members of the Juvenile Board of Brazoria County and receive as additional compensation thereof the same as paid by Brazoria County to the county judge of Brazoria County for acting as a member of the juvenile board.

HAYS COUNTY

Art. 1970–358. County Court at Law of Hays County

Sec. 1. There is created a court in Hays County to be called the County Court at Law of Hays County.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, original, and appellate, prescribed by the law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Hays County. However, the county court at law does not have jurisdiction over eminent domain proceedings or over caus­

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

(f) If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided in Subsection (e) of this section.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Hays County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Hays County. The Commissioners Court of Hays County may employ as many assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices in Hays County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who serves at the pleasure of the judge and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the commissioners court. The official court reporter must have the qualifications prescribed by law for district court reporters.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Commissioners Court of Hays County shall fix the salary of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

(f) If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided in Subsection (e) of this section.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Hays County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Hays County. The Commissioners Court of Hays County may employ as many assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices in Hays County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who serves at the pleasure of the judge and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the commissioners court. The official court reporter must have the qualifications prescribed by law for district court reporters.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Hays County,” but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Hays County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Hays County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Hays County, Texas.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Hays County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause or proceeding, civil, criminal, or probate, involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a cause or proceeding pending in the county court or county court at law; and he may rule or enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause or proceeding without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of the county court at law may not sit or act in any cause or proceeding over which exclusive jurisdiction is vested by this Act in the Hays County Court.

Sec. 7. (a) The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county clerk and the county judge of Hays County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors and talesman shall be also exercised by the county court at law and its judge. Jurors and talesmen summoned for either court may by order of the judge of the court to which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service. Upon concurrence of the judge of the county court at law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and used interchangeably.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

JURISDICTION OF PROBATE COURTS

Art. 1970a-1. Probate Courts Specially Created; Jurisdiction as to Mentally Ill, Mentally Retarded and Persons Afflicted with Tuberculosis

Sec. 1. In all counties of the State of Texas having Probate Courts specially created by the Legislature, such courts shall share jurisdiction concurrently with the County Courts of such counties in relation to proceedings under the Mentally Retarded Persons Act, and such Probate Courts shall have jurisdiction concurrently with the County Courts of such counties in relation to all proceedings for the commitment, temporarily or otherwise, of persons who are not charged with any criminal offense who are mentally ill, or against whom information of mental illness has been given to the judge of any such Probate Court, whether such proceeding is for the commitment of such persons for treatment or for observation and/or treatment. The judges of such Probate Courts shall have the authority to hear and determine matters relating to the foregoing proceedings in the same manner and with the same powers as are vested in the County Courts and the judges thereof under the laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. The Probate Courts referred to in Section 1 hereof shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the County Courts of their respective counties, in relation to all proceedings with respect to the treatment of persons afflicted with tuberculosis or epilepsy, and the judges of such Probate Courts shall have authority to do all things relative to the commitment of persons so afflicted which the county judges are authorized to do.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to divest or in any manner impair or reduce the jurisdiction or authority of the County Courts and the Judges thereof, or to limit the jurisdiction conferred upon Probate Courts by other laws.

CHAPTER ONE. INSTITUTION, PARTIES AND VENUE

1. INSTITUTION OF SUITS

2. SUITS AGAINST NON-RESIDENTS

3. PARTIES TO SUITS

Art. 1981. By Executors, etc.
Persons claiming a right to or interest in property in this State may bring and prosecute to final decree, judgment or order, actions against non-residents of this State, or persons whose place of residence is unknown, or who are transient persons, who claim an adverse estate, or interest in, or who claim any lien or incumbrance on said property, for the purpose of determining such estate, interest, lien, or incumbrance, and granting the title to said property, or settling the lien or incumbrance thereon.

Art. 1976. Actual Possession Not Necessary
Such action as provided for in Article 1975, Title 42, Chapter 1, of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes, of the State of Texas, may be maintained by any such person whether or not he is in actual possession of such property. Service on the defendant or defendants may be made by publication as is now or may be hereafter provided by law for publication of citation against such defendants, or by service of notice of the character and in the manner provided for by Articles 2037 and 2038, of Title 42, Chapter 3, of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes, of the State of Texas.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

3. PARTIES TO SUITS

Art. 1981. By Executors, etc.
Suits for the recovery of personal property, debts or damages, and suits for title or possession of lands, or for any right attached to, or growing out of the same, or for injury or damage done thereto, may be instituted by executors, administrators or guardians appointed in this State; and judgment in such cases shall be conclusive, but may be set aside by any person interested for fraud or collusion on the part of such executor or administrator.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1982. For Lands Against Decedents
In every suit against the estate of a decedent involving the title to real estate, the executor or administrator, if any, and the heirs shall be made parties defendant.

Art. 1986. Several Obligors to Contract

The acceptor of a bill of exchange, or a principal obligor in a contract, may be sued either alone or jointly with any other party who may be liable thereon; but no judgment shall be rendered against a party not primarily liable on such bill or other contract, unless judgment be also rendered against such acceptor or other principal obligor, except where the plaintiff may discontinue his suit against such principal obligor as hereinafter provided.

Art. 1987. Parties Conditionally Liable

The assignor, indorser, guarantor and surety upon a contract, and the drawer of a bill which has been accepted, may be sued without suing the maker, acceptor or other principal obligor, when the principal obligor resides beyond the limits of the State, or where his residence is unknown and cannot be ascertained by the use of reasonable diligence, or when he is dead, or actually or notoriously insolvent.

Art. 1991. Suit in Name of State

Whenever an official bond is made payable to the State of Texas, or any officer thereof, and a recovery thereon is authorized by, or would inure to the benefit of parties other than the State, suit may be brought on such bond in the name of the State alone for the benefit of all parties entitled to recover thereon.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1994. Suit and Representation by Next Friend

Minors, lunatics, idiots or non compos mentis persons who have no legal guardian may sue and be represented by "next friend" under the following rules:

1. In such cases when a judgment is recovered for money or other personal property the value of which does not exceed One Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500), the court may by order entered of record, authorize such next friend or other person to take charge of such money or other property for the use and benefit of the plaintiff when he has executed a proper bond [in a sum at least double the value of the property], payable to the county judge, conditioned that he will pay said money with lawful interest thereon or deliver said property and its increase to the person entitled to receive the same when ordered by the court to do so, and that he will use such money or property for the benefit of the owner under the direction of the court. The bond shall be in a sum at least double the value of the property and money recovered, with the exception that a bond which is executed by the next friend or other person taking charge of the money or property, as principal, and by a solvent surety company authorized under the laws of Texas to execute such bonds, as surety, shall be in a sum equal to the value of the property and money recovered.

2. The judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered upon an application and hearing, in termtime or vacation, may provide by decree for an investment of the funds accruing under such judgment. Such decree, if made in vacation, shall be recorded in the minutes of the succeeding term of the court.

3. The person who takes such money or property shall receive such compensation as the court may allow and shall make such disposition thereof as the court may order; and he shall return such money or property into court upon the order of the court.

4. If any person has an interest in such recovery, the court may hear evidence as to such interest, and order such claim, or such part as is deemed just, to be paid to whoever is entitled to receive the same.

5. If not otherwise provided in this article, any moneys recovered by the plaintiff, regardless of the amount, may be invested as follows by either the next friend or the Clerk of the Court:

(a) in savings accounts or certificates of any savings and loan association domiciled in this State provided such accounts are insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; or

(b) in interest-bearing time deposits in any bank doing business in this State provided the payment of such time deposits is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and if such moneys are so invested in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such moneys from the financial institution in which they are invested without an order of the court no bond shall be required of the "next friend” in respect to such moneys until the same are withdrawn from such financial institution, at which time the court shall order such bond to be made as may be appropriate under the other provisions of this article, or the court may order such funds turned over directly to the person entitled thereto upon the court finding that the previous disability had ceased to exist.

4. VENUE

Art. 1995. Venue, General Rule

No person who is an inhabitant of this State shall be sued out of the county in which he has his domicile except in the following cases:

2. Transient persons.—A transient person may be sued in any county in which he may be found.

3. Non-residents; residence unknown.—If one or all of several defendants reside without the State or if their residence is unknown, suit may be brought in the county where the plaintiff resides.

4. Defendants in different counties.—If two or more defendants reside in different counties, suit may be brought in any county where one of the defendants resides. The transfer or assignment of a note or other security shall not entitle any subsequent holder to sue thereon in any other county than that in which such suit could have been prosecuted if no assignment or transfer had been made.

5. Contract in writing.—(a) Subject to the provisions of Subsection (b), if a person has contracted in writing to perform an obligation in a particular county, expressly naming such county, or a definite place therein, by such writing, suit upon or by reason of such obligation may be brought against him, either in such county or where the defendant has his domicile.

(b) In an action founded upon a contractual obligation of the defendant to pay money arising out of or based upon a consumer transaction for goods, services, loans, or extensions of credit intended primarily for personal, family, household or agricultural use, suit by a creditor upon or by reason of such obligation may be brought against the defendant either in the county in which the defendant in fact signed the contract, or in the county in which the defendant resides at the time of the commencement of the action. No term or statement contained in an obligation described in this subsection shall constitute a waiver of this provision.

6. Executors, administrators, etc.—If the suit is against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, to establish a money demand against the estate which he represents, the suit may be brought in the county in which such estate is administered.

7. Fraud and defalcation.—In all cases of fraud, and in all cases of defalcation by public officers, suit may be brought in the county where the fraud was committed or where the defalcation occurred, or any of such suits may be brought where the defendant has his domicile.

8. Attachment, sequestration, etc.—A suit for damages resulting from the suing out of a writ of attachment or sequestration, or for levying any such writ, may be brought in the county from which such writ was issued, or in any county where such levy was made in whole or in part.

9. Crime or trespass.—A suit based upon a crime, offense, or trespass may be brought in the county where such crime, offense, or trespass was committed by the defendant, or by his agent or representative, or in the county where the defendant has his domicile. This subdivision shall not apply to any suit based upon negligence per se, negligence at common law or any form of negligence, active or passive.

9a. Negligence.—A suit based upon negligence per se, negligence at common law or any form of negligence, active or passive, may be brought in the county where the act or omission of negligence occurred or in the county where the defendant has his domicile. The venue facts necessary for plaintiff to establish by the preponderance of the evidence to sustain venue in a county other than the county of defendant’s residence are:

1. That an act or omission of negligence occurred in the county where suit was filed.

2. That such act or omission was that of the defendant, in person, or that of his servant, agent or representative acting within the scope of his employment.

3. That such negligence was a proximate cause of plaintiff’s injuries.

10. Personal property.—Suit for the recovery of personal property may be brought in any county where the property may be or where the defendant resides.

11. Inheritances.—If the defendant has inherited an estate concerning which the suit is commenced, suit may be brought in the county where such estate principally lies.

12. Lien.—A suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien may be brought in the county where the property or any part thereof subject to such lien is situated.

13. Partition.—Suits for the partition of land or other property may be brought in the county where such land or other property, or a part thereof, may be, or in the county in which one or more of the defendants reside, or in the county of the residence of any defendant who may assert an adverse claim to or interest in such property, or seeks to recover the title to the same. Nothing herein shall be construed to fix venue of a suit to recover the title to land.

14. Lands.—Suits for the recovery of lands or damages thereto, or to remove incumbrances upon the title to land, or to quiet the title to land, or to prevent or stay waste on lands, must be brought in the county in which the land, or a part thereof, may lie.

15. Breach of warranty.—Suits for breach of warranty of title to lands may be brought in any county where either vendor resides, and all other vendors may be joined in the same suit.

16. Divorce.—Suits for divorce shall be brought in the county in which the plaintiff shall have resided for six months next preceding the bringing of the suit. However, the hearing may be held and judgment rendered in any other county within the same judicial dis-

17. Injunctions.—Suits to enjoin the execution of a judgment or to stay proceedings in any suit shall be brought in the county in which such judgment was rendered or in which such suit is pending.

17a. Labor disputes.—Suits to enjoin strikes or picketing for an unlawful purpose or conducted in an unlawful manner shall be brought (1) in the county where the strike or picketing is alleged to have occurred; or (2) if service cannot be had on any of the defendants in the county described in clause (1), in the county of the residence of the defendant or any one of the defendants, if there be more than one; or (3) in Travis County when suit is brought by the State of Texas, and the state, its agencies or a political subdivision thereof shall be a party to the suit. Provided, however, that where suit is filed in a county authorized by the provisions of clauses (1) or (2) above, any party thereto may, within five (5) days after notice of institution of suit, make written ap-

18. Revision of probate.—Suits to revise the proceedings of the county court in matters of probate must be brought in the district court of the county in which such proceedings were had.

19. Suits against counties.—Suits against a county shall be brought within such county.

20. Heads of departments.—Suits for mandamus against the head of any department of the State Government shall be brought in Travis County.

21. Corporations: charters.—Suits brought by the State for the purpose of forfeiting the charter of a private corporation chartered by Act of the Legislature, or organized under the laws of this State, and for the purpose of cancelling the permit authorizing a foreign corporation to transact business in this State, and for the purpose of restraining corporations from exercising powers not conferred upon them by the laws of this State, and for the purpose of preventing persons from engaging in business in this State contrary to the laws thereof, may be brought in Travis County.

22. Railway lands.—Suits on behalf of the State to forfeit land fraudulently or colorably alienated by railway companies in fraud of the rights of the State, under the laws granting lands to railway companies, shall be brought in

23. Corporations and associations.—Suits against a private corporation, association, or joint stock company may be brought in the county in which its principal office is situated;
or in the county in which the cause of action or part thereof arose; or in the county in in which the plaintiff resided at the time the cause of action or part thereof arose, provided such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative in such county; or, if the corporation, association, or joint stock company had no agency or representative in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time the cause of action or part thereof arose, then suit may be brought in the county nearest that in which plaintiff resided at said time in which the corporation, association or joint stock company then had an agency or representative. Suits against a railroad corporation, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating its railway, may also be brought in any county through or into which the railroad of such corporation extends or is operated. Suits against receivers of persons and corporations may also be brought as otherwise provided by law.

24. Carriers.—Suits arising from damage or loss to any passenger, freight, baggage or other property, by reason of its transportation, or contract in relation thereto, in whole or in part by one or more common carriers or the assignees, lessees, trustees or receivers thereof, operating or doing business as such in this State, or having agents or representatives in this State, may be brought against one or more of those so doing business, in any county where either does business or has an agent or representative.

25. Railway personal injuries.—Suits against railroad corporations, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating any railway in this State, for damages arising from personal injuries, resulting in death or otherwise, shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury.

If the defendant railroad corporation does not run or operate its railway in, or through, the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, and has no agent in said county, then said suit shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county nearest that in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, in which the defendant corporation runs or operates its road, or has an agent. When an injury occurs within one-half mile of the boundary line dividing two counties, suit may be brought in either of said counties. If the plaintiff is a nonresident of this State then such suit shall be brought in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county in which the defendant railroad corporation has its principal office.

26. Railroad wages.—Suits by mechanics, laborers and operatives, for their wages due by railroad companies, may be instituted and prosecuted in any county in this State where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action, or part thereof, accrued, or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated.

27. Foreign corporations.—Foreign corporations, private or public, joint stock companies or associations, not incorporated by the laws of this State, and doing business within this State, may be sued in any county where the cause of action or a part thereof accrued, or in any county where such company may have an agency or representative, or in the county in which the principal office of such company may be situated; or, when the defendant corporation has no agent or representative in this State, then in the county where the plaintiffs or either of them reside.

28. Insurance.—Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may also be commenced in any county in which the insured property was situated. Suits on policies may be brought against any life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, or health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, in the county where the home office of such company is located, or in the county where loss has occurred or where the policyholder or beneficiary instituting such suit resides.

28a. Fraternal benefit societies and statewide mutual assessment companies.—In all actions brought against Fraternal Benefit Societies and/or Statewide Mutual Assessment Companies, regardless of the plan upon which they operate and whether incorporated or not, growing out of or based upon any alleged right or claim or loss or proceeds due, arising from or predicated upon any policy or contract issued or made by such Fraternal Benefit Society and/or Statewide Mutual Assessment Companies, venue shall lie in the county where the policyholder or beneficiary instituting such suit resides or in the county of the principal office of such association or where such cause of action arose.

29. Libel or slander.—A suit for damages for libel or slander shall be brought, and can only be maintained, in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the accrual of the cause of action, or in the county where the defendant resided at the time of filing suit, or in the county of the residence of defendants, or any of them, or the domicile of any corporate defendant, at the election of the plaintiff.

29a. Two or more defendants.—Whenever there are two or more defendants in any suit brought in any county in this State and such suit is lawfully maintainable therein under the provisions of Article 1995 as to any of such defendants, then such suit may be maintained in such county against any and all necessary parties thereto.

30. Special venue.—Whenever in any law authorizing or regulating any particular character of action, the venue is expressly prescribed, the suit shall be commenced in the county to which jurisdiction may be so expressly given.

31. Breach of warranty by a manufacturer.—Suits for breach of warranty by a manufacturer of consumer goods may be brought in any county where the cause of action or a part thereof accrued, or in any county where such manufacturer may have an agency or representative, or in the county in which the principal office of such company may be situated, or in the county where the plaintiff or plaintiffs reside.

Art. 1996. When Water Course or Highway is Boundary
Where any part of a river, water course, highway, road or street is the boundary line between two counties, the several counties in each of said counties shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases over such parts of said river, water course, highway, road or street as shall be the boundary of such county in the same manner as if such parts of said river, water course, highway, road or street were within the body of such county.

3. PLEADINGS OF THE DEFENDANT

1. PLEADING IN GENERAL

Art. 2002a. Filing Pleadings; Copy Delivered to Adverse Party or to Clerk; Withdrawal
Whenever any party files a pleading of any character, he shall at the same time either deliver to the adverse party, or deposit with the Clerk for the adverse party, a copy of such pleading, which copy shall not be filed by the Clerk. All filed pleadings shall remain at all times in the Clerk's office or in the Court or in custody of the Clerk, except that the Court may by order entered on the Minutes allow a filed pleading to be withdrawn for a limited time whenever necessary, on leaving a certified copy on file. The party withdrawing such pleading shall pay the costs of such order and certified copy.

2. PLEADINGS OF THE PLAINTIFF

3. PLEADINGS OF THE DEFENDANT

Art. 2007. Plea of Privilege

A plea of privilege to be sued in the county of one's residence shall be sufficient if it be in writing and sworn to, and shall state that the party claiming such privilege was not, at the institution of such suit, nor at the time of the service of process thereon, nor at the time of filing such plea, a resident of the county in which suit was instituted and shall state the county of his residence at the time of such plea, and that "no exception to exclusive venue in the county of one's residence provided by law exists in said cause"; and such plea of privilege when filed shall be prima facie proof of the defendant's right to change of venue; provided that such plea shall not be construed to embrace any of the matters set forth in the Revised Civil Statutes, Article 10. If the plaintiff desires to controvert the plea of privilege, he shall within five days after appearing and setting out specifically the fact or facts relied upon to confer venue of such cause on the court where the cause is pending.

See Rule 86, Vernon's Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Art. 2008. Hearing on Plea

Upon the filing of such controverting plea, the judge or justice of the peace shall note on the date of hearing the plea of privilege. Such hearing, unless the parties agree upon the date, shall not be had until a copy of such controverting plea, including a copy of such notation thereon, shall have been served on each defendant, or his attorney, for at least ten days exclusive of the day of service and the date of hearing, after which the court shall promptly hear such plea of privilege and enter judgment thereon. Either party may appeal from the judgment sustaining or overruling the plea of privilege, and if the judgment is one sustaining the plea of privilege and an appeal is taken, such appeal shall suspend the transfer of the venue and a trial of the cause pending the final determination of such appeal.

See, now, Article 2031b and Business Corporation Act, Article 8.10, § D.

Art. 2031b. Service of Process Upon Foreign Corporations and Nonresidents

Failure to Appoint Agent; Designation of Secretary of State as Lawful Attorney

Sec. 1. When any foreign corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person required by any Statute of this State to designate or maintain a resident agent, or any such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person subject to Section 3 of this Act, has not appointed or maintained a designated agent, upon whom service of process can be made, or has one or more resident agents and two (2) unsuccessful attempts have been made on different business days to serve process upon each of its designated agents, such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person shall be conclusively presumed to have designated the Secretary of State of Texas as their true and lawful attorney upon whom service of process or complaint may be made.

Engaging in Business in State; Service upon Person in Charge of Business

Sec. 2. When any foreign corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person is a party or is to be made a party arising out of such business, service may be made by serving a copy of the process with the person who, at the time of the service, is in charge of any business in which the defendant or defendants are engaged in this State, provided a copy of such process, together with notice of such service upon such person in charge of such business shall forthwith be sent to the defendant or to the defendants principal place of business by registered mail, return receipt requested.

Act of Engaging in Business in State as Equivalent to Appointment of Secretary of State as Agent

Sec. 3. Any foreign corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person that engages in business in this State, irrespective of any Statute or law respecting designation or maintenance of resident agents, and does not maintain a place of regular business in this State or a designated agent upon whom service may be made upon causes of action arising out of such business done in this State, the act or acts of engaging in such business within this State shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such foreign corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person of the Secretary of State of Texas as agent upon whom service of process may be made in any action, suit or proceedings arising out of such business done in this State, wherein such corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person is a party or is to be made a party.

Doing Business in State; Definition

Sec. 4. For the purpose of this Act, and without including other acts that may constitute doing business, any foreign corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person shall be deemed doing business in this State by entering into contract by mail or otherwise with a resident of Texas to be performed in whole or in part by either party in this State, or the committing of any tort in whole or in part in this State.

Delivery of Process to Secretary of State; Forwarding Copy

Sec. 5. Whenever process against a foreign corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person is made by delivering to the Secretary of State duplicate copies of such process, the Secretary of State shall require a statement of the name and address of the home or home office of the non-resident. Upon receipt of such process, the Secretary of State shall forthwith forward to the defendant a copy of the process by registered mail, return receipt requested.

Nonresidency after Accrual of Cause of Action; Service upon Secretary of State

Sec. 6. When any corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership or natural person becomes a non-resident of Texas, as that term is commonly used, after a cause of action shall arise in this State, but prior to the time the cause of action is matured by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction in this State, when such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership or natural person is not required to appoint a service agent in this State, such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership or natural person may be served with citation by serving a copy of the process upon the Secretary of State, who shall be conclusively presumed to be the true and lawful attorney to receive service of process; provided that the Secretary of State shall forward a copy of such service to the person in charge of such business or an officer of such company, or to such natural person by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 7. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing any statute in force in this State in reference to service of process, but this Act shall be cumulative of all existing statutes.

Art. 2032. Foreign Railway Corporations

Service may also be had on foreign railway corporations by serving citation upon any train conductor who is engaged in handling trains for two or more railway corporations where one is a foreign railway corporation, and the other a domestic corporation, if said conductor handles and operates trains over such foreign and domestic corporation's tracks across the State line of Texas and on the track of the domestic corporation within this State or upon any agent who has an office in Texas who sells tickets or makes contracts for the transportation of passengers or property over any line of railway, or part thereof, of such foreign railway corporation or company. Conductors who are engaged in handling trains and employed by a foreign railway corporation and a domestic corporation, and who operate such trains across the State line of Texas, and agents engaged in selling tickets or making contracts for the transportation of property, are hereby designated as agents of such foreign corporation or companies upon whom service of citation may be had.

Art. 2033. Against Partners

Citation served upon one member of a partnership or firm shall be sufficient to authorize a judgment against the firm and the partner actually served.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Saved from repeal, see art. 6132b, § 46.

Art. 2033a. Service on Local Representative of Nonresident Individual or Partnership Supplying Public Utility Service

In suits against individuals and partnerships engaging in supplying gas, water, electricity or other public utility service to villages, towns, or cities in Texas, where such individuals or members of such partnerships reside out of the State of Texas, citation may be served upon the local agent, representative, superintendent or person in charge of the business of such individuals or partnerships.

Art. 2033b. Service of Process on Agent or Clerk in Office in County Other than Residence of Principal

When an individual, partnership or unincorporated association (either being referred to herein as principal, whether one or more) has, for the transaction or doing of any business in Texas, an office, place of business, or agency in any county other than that in which the principal resides, service of citation or other civil process to bind any such principal, may be made on any agent or clerk employed in such office, place of business or agency, in all suits or actions growing out of or connected with such business and brought in the county in which such office, place of business or agency is located; and the provisions hereof shall apply as well to non-residents of the state as to non-residents of such county; and shall also apply to cases where a principal, though claiming or alleged to be a resident of the county wherein is located such office, place of business or agency, has not been found in such county for service on him of process in such suit, in which case, if the officer making return of the process unexecuted shall certify in such return that after diligent search and inquiry a principal cannot be found and served, then process in such suit to any succeeding term of court may be served on such clerk or agent as is herein provided for in case of non-residents of such county; but provided that nothing herein shall prevent or interfere with the application of the articles of the statutes relating to venue of suits.

Art. 2033c. Effect of Service

Such service of process, made in the manner herein provided, shall have the same effect as if made personally on the principal and shall especially have effect to subject all non-exempt property in Texas of the principal so served to the jurisdiction and judgment of the court in such suit; but provided that no default judgment shall be rendered on service so obtained until after twenty days after the date of such service, and provided further that the method of service afforded by this Act shall be cumulative.

Arts. 2034 to 2039. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2039a. Citation of Nonresident Motor Vehicle Operators by Serving Chairman of State Highway Commission; Forwarding Notice to Defendant

Acceptance of Benefits of Highways Deemed Equivalent to Appointment of Agent; Service

Sec. 1. The acceptance by a nonresident of this State or by a person who was a resident of this State at the time of the accrual of a cause of action but who subsequently removes therefrom, or the acceptance by his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian of the rights, privileges and benefits extended by law to such persons of operating a motor vehicle or motorcycle or of having the same driven or operated within the State of Texas shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such nonresident and of his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, of the Chairman of the State Highway Commission of this State, or his successor in office, to be his true and lawful attorney, and of his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, of the Chairman of the State Highway Commission of this State, or his successor in office, to be his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any civil action or proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted against said nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, growing out of any accident, or collision in which said nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, may be involved while operating a motor vehicle or motorcycle within this State, either in person or by his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, and said acceptance or operation shall be a signification of the agreement of said nonresident, or his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, that any such process against him or against his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, served upon said Chairman of the State Highway Commission or his successor in office, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served personally.

Service of such process shall be made by leaving a certified copy of the process issued in the hands of the Chairman of the State Highway Commission in Texas at least twenty (20) days prior to the return date thereof, to be stated in said process, upon such service shall be sufficient upon said nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, provided, however, that notice of such service and a copy of the process be forthwith sent by registered mail to the Chairman of the State Highway Commission to the nonresident defendant, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian.

Forwarding Process; Notice; Return

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Chairman of the State Highway Commission of the State of Texas, upon being served with process as provided in Section 1 of this Act, to immediately enclose copy of the process served upon him in a letter properly addressed to the defendant, or to his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, and shall forward the same by registered mail, postage prepaid. If and in the event notice of service of the process upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission cannot be effected by registered mail or if the person to whom it is addressed refuses to accept or receive the same, then the plaintiff may cause the defendant to be served with a notice of the fact that the process has been served upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission, stating the date of the service thereof, which notice shall also be accompanied with a certified copy of the process so served upon said Chairman of the State Highway Commission. Such notice may be served by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact by delivering to the person to be served in person a true copy of such notice, together with a certified copy of the process served upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission. The return of service in such case shall be endorsed on or attached to the original notice stating when it was served and upon whom it was served and it shall be signed and sworn to by the party making such service before any person authorized by the Statutes of this State to make affidavit under the hand and official seal of such officer.

Return

Sec. 3. The officer serving such process upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission, shall in his return state the day and hour of the service upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission of such process and such other facts as are now required to be made in his return as in the case of service of citations generally.

Certificate of Chairman of Highway Commission

Sec. 4. The Chairman of the State Highway Commission shall upon request of a party and upon the payment of a fee of Three Dollars ($3), to certify to the court out of which said process is issued or in which any suit or action may be pending against such nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, the occurrence or performance of any of the duties, acts, omissions, transactions or happenings contemplated or required by this Act, including the wording of any registered letter received, and his certificate, as well as the wording of said registered letter receipt, shall be accepted as prima facie evidence and proof of the statements contained therein.

Judgment by Default

Sec. 5. No judgment by default shall be taken in any such cause or action, suit or proceeding, until after the expiration of at least twenty days after such process shall have been served upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission as herein provided, and the presumption shall obtain, unless rebutted, that such process was transmitted by the Chairman of the State Highway Commission and received by the defendant after being deposited in the mail by the Chairman of the State Highway Commission.

Continuance or Postponement

Sec. 6. The court in which the action or proceeding is pending shall have the right to continue or postpone said action or proceeding, as may be necessary to afford the defendant reasonable opportunity to defend the action.

1 So in enrolled bill. The word "to" should probably be omitted.

Art. 2040. Unknown Heirs or Stockholders of Defunct Corporation

Where property in this State has been granted or has accrued to the heirs as such, of any deceased person, or to the stockholders of defunct corporation, any party having a claim or cause of action against them relative to such property, if their names be unknown to him, may bring an action against them, their heirs or legal representatives, describing them as the heirs of such named ancestor or unknown stockholder of such corporation. If the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, shall make oath that the names of such heirs or stockholders are unknown to the affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for such heirs or stockholders, addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which such suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the officer to summon the defendant by making publication of such citation as provided in the preceding article.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

Art. 2041. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2041a. Suits Against Unknown Owners or Claimants of Interest in Land; Citation by Publication

Sec. 1. When land in this State or any interest of any kind in land has been or may hereafter be conveyed, or any lease or contract with reference to land made by written instrument (a) to any person or persons as trustee or trustees and in the conveyance or instrument constituting source of title or claim of title the names of the persons taking or holding the equitable or beneficial title are not disclosed and are unknown, or (b) to any association, joint stock company or partnership, in an association, company or firm name, without disclosing the names of the members, shareholders or partners or persons owning interests in such association, company or firm, and such association, joint stock company or partnership shall thereafter be dissolved and the names of the persons holding or acquiring title to such land after dissolution are not disclosed in such instrument and are unknown; in each such case any person claiming ownership of or any interest in such lands or having a claim or cause of action against such unknown owners or claimants relative to such property, may bring action or actions against such unknown owners or claimants as such. The provisions hereof shall apply to conveyances made to all character and kinds of companies, associations and organizations, and in which conveyance the names and identity of the persons taking and holding the beneficial or equitable title are not disclosed and are unknown; provided, however, that if the grantee in such conveyance is shown therein to be a corporation or if the grantee be known to be a corporation, in such event this Act shall not apply, but the rights of action shall be governed by Article 2040 of Revised Civil Statutes; but if the character of the organization as whether incorporated or unincorporated is not shown in such conveyance and such facts are unknown, then suit brought under the provisions of this Act against the unknown owners or claimants of property under such conveyance shall be sufficient to give the Court jurisdiction over such unknown owners or claimants regardless of whether the named grantee is in fact a corporation or unincorporated.

Art. 2092. Rules of Practice and Procedure
The following rules of practice and procedure shall govern and be followed in the Civil District Courts in counties having two (2) or more District Courts with civil jurisdiction only, whose terms continue three (3) months or longer and in all civil litigation in counties having five (5) or more District Courts with either civil or criminal jurisdiction or both civil and criminal jurisdiction:

1. Citation. Citations issued for personal service in the county in which the suit is pending shall command the officer to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before ten o'clock a.m. of the Monday next following the expiration of the twenty-five (25) days from the date of citation and shall be executed and returned by the officer twenty (20) days after date of issuance.

2. Execution and Return. Citations or notices issued for personal service on a defendant to appear at or before ten o'clock a.m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifty-five (55) days from the date the citation or notice is issued, shall be executed or served on or before thirty-five (35) days from the date of issue and shall be made returnable thirty-five (35) days after such date.

3. Out-County Citation. Citation for defendants alleged to reside or be outside of the county in which the suit is pending.
but within this State, shall be directed to the Sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be and shall command him to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff’s petition at or before ten o’clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date the citation is issued and shall be executed and returned to the officer within twenty (20) days after the date of issue.

4. Time for Appearance. Citations or notices issued for personal service on a defendant alleged to reside or be outside of the State but within the United States, shall notify the defendant to appear at or before ten o’clock a.m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifty-five (55) days from the date the citation or notice is issued and shall be executed or served on or before thirty-five (35) days from the date of issue and shall be made returnable thirty-five (35) days after date of issue.

5. Citation Shall Specify Day. In each of said cases the citation or notice shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and if any defendant so served does not appear and answer at or before the time specified in such citation or notice, judgment by default may be rendered against such defendant.

6. Citation by Publication. If citation is to be served by publication it shall be returnable forty-two (42) days after the date of issue and shall command the defendant to appear at or before ten o’clock a.m. of the Monday next following the expiration of forty-two (42) days after the citation was issued, and shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and shall be served by being published in the manner and for the length of time required by law for citations by publication in the same kind of cases or matters in other District Courts at the time the publication is made and the first publication shall be at least twenty-eight (28) days before the return day of the citation.

7. Service in Foreign Country. If citation is issued to be served personally on any defendant or party in any foreign country it shall be made returnable at such time as the plaintiff or person procuring its issuance shall direct, which shall not be less than thirty (30) days nor more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the date of issue and shall notify and command the defendant or person to be served to appear and answer at or before ten o’clock a.m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty (20) days after the return day of the citation or notice and shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and shall be served on or before the return day, and if any defendant so served does not appear and answer at or before the time specified in the citation or notice, judgment by default may be rendered against such defendant.

8. Where Citation or Service is Quashed. If the citation or service thereof is quashed on motion of the defendant, such defendant shall be deemed to have entered his appearance at ten o’clock a.m. on the Monday next after the expiration of twenty (20) days after the day on which the citation or service is quashed, and such defendant shall be deemed to have been duly served so as to require him to appear and answer at that time, and if he fails to do so, judgment by default may be rendered against him.

9. Writs of Attachment. Writs of attachment shall be executed immediately after their issuance. Every such writ shall be made returnable, on or before ten o’clock a.m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifteen (15) days from the issuance of the writ, and the officer executing the writ shall return the same at or before that time with his action indorsed thereon or attached thereto, signed by him officially, showing how he has executed the writ.

10. Writs of Garnishment. Writs of garnishment shall be executed immediately after their issuance and every such writ shall command the officer to summon the garnishee to appear at or before ten o’clock a.m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty-five (25) days from the date the writ was issued and the writ shall specify when and where the garnishee is required to answer and the officer receiving the writ of garnishment shall within fifteen (15) days after the issuance of the writ make his return showing how he has executed the writ.

11. Failure of Garnishee to Answer. If the garnishee fails to make answer to the writ on or before ten o’clock a.m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty-five (25) days from the date of the writ, he shall be in default and it shall be lawful for the Court, at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, to render judgment by default against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, with all accruing interest and costs. The plaintiff in garnishment shall have fifteen (15) days after the garnishee’s answer is filed within which to controvert the same if he so desires.

12. Other Writs and Process. All other writs and process not expressly otherwise provided for in this Article and which under the general law are now returnable to the first day of the next term of Court after the issuance thereof, and which require the defendant or person served to appear before the expiration thereof, and which require the defendant or party served to appear and answer at or before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after the date thereof and shall require the defendant or party served to appear and answer at or before the expiration of twenty-five (25) days after the date thereof and shall be executory after the date thereof and shall be executory after such writ or process was issued, and if a contest is filed and if a contest is filed, the same shall, and if a contest is filed, the same shall, be postponed longer than sixty (60) days after the date for which the same is set unless postponed or continued without prejudice, by order or leave of the Court, by agreement of the parties, and shall not be postponed longer than sixty (60) days after being filed unless by order of the Court entered by agreement of the parties.

15. Amended Pleadings. Whenever any party files a pleading of any character, he shall at the same time either deliver to the adverse party, a copy of such pleading, which copy shall not be filed by the Clerk. All filed pleadings shall remain at all times in the Clerk's office or in the Court or in custody of the Clerk, except that the Court may by order entered on the Minutes allow a filed pleading to be withdrawn for a limited time whenever necessary on leaving a certified copy on file. The party withdrawing such pleading shall pay the costs of such order and certified copy.

16. Where More Than One Adverse Party. If there is more than one adverse party and the adverse parties are represented by different attorneys, one copy of each pleading shall on request be furnished to each attorney representing the adverse parties, but a firm or attorneys associated in the case shall count as one. Not more than four (4) copies of any pleading shall be required to be furnished to adverse parties and they shall be delivered to the first four (4) applicants entitled thereunto. After a copy of a pleading is furnished to an attorney or deposited with the Clerk for him, he cannot require another copy of the same pleading to be furnished to him.

17. Failure to Furnish Copy. If any party fails to furnish the adverse party with a copy of any pleading in accordance with this Article, he may be required to do so by order of the Court on motion made and notice given, and if he fails to comply with any such order within five (5) days after its date, he may be punished for contempt of Court, and the Court may order the Clerk to furnish a certified copy, the costs thereof to be charged against the party who failed to comply with the order to furnish it.

18. Setting Cases for Trial, Etc. On the first Monday in each calendar month the Judge of each Court may, and as far as practicable shall, set for trial during the calendar month next after the month during which the setting is made, all contested cases which are requested to be set, and by agreement of the parties, or on motion of either party, or on the Court's own motion with notice to the parties, the Court may set any case for trial at any time so as to allow the parties reasonable time for preparation. Non-contested cases may be tried or disposed of at any time and may be set at any time for any other time.

18a. Assignment Clerks. In all counties having a population of more than three hundred thousand (300,000) inhabitants and less than three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) inhabitants, according to the preceding Federal Census, a majority of the District Judges of the District Courts with civil jurisdiction only may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve under the Presiding Judge of said District Courts in the setting and disposing of cases on the general Jury Docket. The salary of said Clerk shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of the county and paid in monthly installments on voucher approved by the Presiding Judge of said Courts. His appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

19. Postponement or Continuance. Cases may be postponed or continued by agreement with the approval of the Court, or upon the Court's own motion or for good cause. When a case is called for trial and only one party is ready, the Court may for good cause either continue the case for the term or postpone and reset it for a later day in the same or succeeding term.
20. Cases May Be Reset. A case that is set and reached for trial may be postponed for a later day in the term or continued and reset for a day certain in the succeeding term on the same grounds as an application for continuance would be granted in other District Courts. After any case has been set and reached in its due order and called for trial two (2) or more times and not tried, the Court may dismiss the same unless the parties agree to a postponement or continuance but the Court shall respect written agreements of counsel for postponement and continuance if filed in the case when or before it is called for trial unless to do so will unreasonably delay or interfere with other business of the Court.

21. Exchange and Transfer. The Judges of such Courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches or districts from time to time, and may transfer cases and other proceedings from one Court to another, and any of them may in his own courtroom try and determine any case or proceeding pending in another Court without having the case transferred, or may sit in any other of said Courts and there hear and determine any case there pending, and every judgment and order shall be entered in the Minutes of the Court in which the case is pending and at the time the judgment or order is rendered, and two (2) or more Judges may try different cases in the same Court at the same time, and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any other Court. The Judge of any such Court may issue restraining orders and injunctions returnable to any other Judge or Court, and any Judge may transfer any case or proceeding pending in his Court to any other of said Courts, and the Judge of any Court to which a case or proceeding is transferred shall receive and try the same, and in turn shall have power in his discretion to transfer any such case to any other of said Courts and any other Judge may in his courtroom try any case pending in any other of such Courts.

22. Cases Transferred to Judges not Occupied. When the Judge of any such Court shall become disengaged, he shall notify the Presiding Judge, and the Presiding Judge shall transfer to the Court of the disengaged Judge the next case which is ready for trial in any of said Courts. Any Judge not engaged in his own Court may try any case in any other Court.

23. Judge Disqualified. If a Judge of any Court is disqualified in any case pending in his Court, and his disqualification is certified to the Governor, the Governor may require the Judge of any other of such Courts to exchange benches or districts with the disqualified Judge, and may, at any time, require any of such Judges to exchange districts with each other or with any other District Judge. In case of the absence, sickness, or disqualification of any Judge, any other of said Judges may hold Court for him or may transfer from his Court to any other of said Courts any case or proceeding then pending in the Court of said absent, sick, or disqualified Judge and in such circumstances the practicing lawyers of the Court may elect a special Judge of said Court in the same manner as provided in Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and such special Judge when so elected shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which the regular Judge of said Court could have and exercise.

24. Judge May Hear Only Part of Case. Any Judge may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in any of said Courts and determine the same, or may hear and determine any question in any case, and any other Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

25. Any Judge May Hear Dilatory Pleas, Etc. Any Judge may hear and determine demurrers, motions, petitions for injunction, applications for appointment of receivers, interventions, pleas of privilege, pleas in abatement, all dilatory pleas, motions for new trial and all preliminary matters, questions and proceedings and may enter judgment or order thereon in the Court in which the case is pending without having the case transferred to the Court of the Judge acting, and the Judge in whose Court the case is pending may thereafter proceed to hear, complete, and determine the case or other matter, or any part thereof, and render final judgment therein. Any judgment rendered or action taken by any Judge in any of said Courts in the county shall be valid and binding.

26. Selection of Presiding Judge. The Judges of such Courts shall twice a year, in January and July, select one of their number as Presiding Judge and may at any time cancel and annul such selection and select any other Judge as Presiding Judge. Each such proceeding shall be by majority vote. Each Judge shall enter on his Minutes an order reciting the selection of the Presiding Judge. The Presiding Judge may assign any case in his Court or any of such Courts in the county to any other Judge or Court, or may assign any Judge to try any case in any of the Courts, and the Judge in whose Court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the case to the Court to which it is assigned, and the Judge of the Court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case, and such Judge shall hold any other Court or try any case which he is requested by the Presiding Judge to try.

27. Judges May Make Rules. The Judges may by a majority vote make rules for the calling of the docket, for the set-appeal bond shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the judgment or order appealed from is rendered, if no motion for new trial is filed, and if a motion for new trial is filed, the appeal bond shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the motion for new trial is overruled. In such appeals the statement of facts and bills of exception shall be filed within ninety (90) days after the judgment is rendered if there is no motion for new trial, but if there is a motion for new trial then ninety (90) days after motion for new trial is overruled. When a statement of facts or bills of exception is presented to the adverse party, or his attorney, it shall be returned within five (5) days signed by the attorney of such adverse party if found correct, and if found incorrect shall be returned within that time with a written statement of the objections thereto.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

Subdivisions 1 to 18, 19 to 22, 24 to 21 of this article were included in the list of articles deemed repealed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Rule Making Act which repealed the laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions in Texas and which directed the Supreme Court, upon the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to file a list of all Articles deemed repealed by "Section 1 of this (Rule Making) Act" was approved and became effective May 15, 1939, while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. See Rules of Civil Procedure, rules 114, 116, 122, 330.

Art. 2093 to 2093b. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2093c. Assignment Clerk in Certain Counties Having Eight District Courts

In all counties having at least eight (8) District Courts, at least two (2) of which are Criminal District Courts, and at least four (4) County Courts, at least two (2) of which are County Courts at Law and at least one (1) is a County Criminal Court, a majority of the Judges of the District Courts with civil jurisdiction may appoint an assignment clerk to serve under the Judges of said Courts in disposing and setting of cases on the General Jury Docket.

The salary of said clerk shall be set by the Commissioners Court upon recommendation of the District Judges and paid in monthly installments on voucher approved by the presiding Judge of said Courts. His appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority vote of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

Art. 2093d. Presiding Judge and Assignment Clerk in 28th, 94th and 117th Judicial Districts

The Judges of the three (3) District Courts included within the provisions of this Act may from time to time, as they may see fit, elect a Presiding Judge, who shall attend to the administration of this Act and the setting and assignment of cases in said Courts, in accordance with this Act, and in all other matters not provided for by this Act or some other Law or Rules of Civil Procedure. Such Presiding Judge shall be elected by said Judges for such term as they see fit. A majority of the Judges of the District Courts within the provisions of this Act may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve said Courts in Nueces County under the Presiding Judge of said District Courts in the setting and disposing of cases on the general docket. Such Assignment Clerk shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by said Judges in connection with the setting and disposing of cases. The salary of such Clerk shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Nueces County and paid in monthly installments out of the General Fund or the Jury Fund of such County, as the Commissioners Court may provide, on voucher approved by the Presiding Judge of said Courts; provided, such salary shall not exceed Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per annum. The appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

Art. 2093e. Assignment Clerk of District Courts of Bexar County

See 1. A majority of the Judges of the 37th, 45th, 57th and 73rd District Courts may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve said Courts in Bexar County under the presiding Judge of said District Courts in the setting and disposing of cases on the general docket. Such Assignment Clerk shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by said Judges in connection with the setting and disposing of cases. The salary of such Clerk shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County and paid in monthly installments out of the General Fund or the Jury Fund of such County, as the Commissioners Court may provide, on voucher approved by the Presiding Judge of said Courts. The appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

Art. 2094. Selecting Names for Jury Wheel

Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in each county in this State, the tax collector, sheriff, county clerk, and district clerk of the county, each in person or represented by one of his deputies, shall meet at the county courthouse and reconstitute the jury wheel, using as the sole and mandatory source, all names on the voter registration lists from all precincts in the county.

For text as otherwise amended in 1971, see article 2094, ante.

Section 1 of Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 373, ch. 150, provided: "Purpose. The 58th Legislature amended Article 2094, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, by two separate Acts with different provisions. The purpose of this amendment is to clarify the law by combining all of the provisions of both amendments, and to facilitate future amendment."

Section 2 of Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 348, ch. 159 provided: "As used in this Act, 'the last preceding federal census' means the 1970 census or any future census, or any section of the 1970 federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effective date of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes."

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 205, ch. 845, § 1, providing for the court's equalization of the number of peremptory challenges of prospective jurors allotted to the parties, appears as article 215a.]

"Sec. 11. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit the power of the court to determine the number of prospective jurors to be impanelled for any cause, or to any particular purpose, as may be necessary to serve well the interests of justice."

"Sec. 12. All statutes, rules of civil procedure, or case laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict."

"Sec. 13. This Act shall take effect immediately upon the the county, whenever possible, the post-office address of the prospective juror."

"Sec. 15. All counties under 10,000 population not presently using the jury wheel system for selection of jurors, the district clerk of the county or of the judicial district of which the county is a part, may determine whether the county should come under the provisions of this law or may choose to adopt the jury commissioners system for selection of jurors in that county. If the district clerk should determine to adopt the jury commissioners system for selection of jurors in a particular county, he must do so by July 15, 1971, otherwise, the county will come under the provisions of this Act. If, pursuant to the passage of this Act, this section is held to be unconstitutional by a court of this State or of the United States, then the jury wheel system for selection of jurors as provided by this Act shall be applicable to all counties of the State."

"Sec. 18. The provisions of this Act shall become effective on July 1, 1971."

"Sec. 19. If any article, section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such invalid portion shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the valid portions of the Act irrespective of the fact that any one or more portions be declared unconstitutional."
Art. 2097. List Certified

The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk or the deputy doing the drawing, and the district or county judge in whose presence the names were drawn from the wheel, to be the lists drawn by him for that term, and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes indorsed, "List No. ___ of the petit jurors drawn on the ___ day of ____ ___, for the ____ Court of ____ County." (filling in the blanks properly and numbering the envelopes consecutively from one up). The clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge, who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly indorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his office.

Art. 2098. List Delivered to Clerk

The judge shall deliver such envelopes to the clerk, or one of his deputies, and in his discretion instruct the clerk to indorse on any of such envelopes that the jury for that week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday of said week, and the judge shall, at the same time, administer to the clerk and to each of his deputies an oath in substance as follows: "You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to any one the name or names of the men appearing on any of the jury lists, that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any one selected as juror concerning any case pending for trial in this court at its next term. So help you God."

those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four (4) days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk, or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four (4) days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors for the wheel; provided that in any county with a population greater than 100,000 according to the last preceding federal census, the clerk may withhold from or his deputy; and the cards immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk, the jury wheel all cards so selected, unless or otherwise select the jurors for the wheel; provided that in any county with a population greater than 100,000 according to the last preceding federal census, the clerk may withhold from or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names on the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the term and return the cards to the wheel.

Art. 2100. Loss of Wheel

If the wheel containing the names of jurors be lost or destroyed, with the contents thereof, or if all the cards in said wheel be drawn out, such wheel shall immediately be refurnished, and cards bearing the names of jurors shall be placed therein immediately in accordance with the laws of the State.

Art. 2100a. Selection in Counties with Aid of Mechanical or Electronic Means; Adoption of Plan

[Text of section 1 as amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2799, ch. 905, § 3, eff. July 15, 1971.]

Sec. 1. (a) This Act applies to any county with at least one district court whose jurisdiction is limited to that county.

(b) In lieu of any other method of procedure now provided by law, the Commissioners Court of any such county may, upon recommendation of the judge of that court, or if there is more than one such court, a majority of the judges of these courts, by order entered upon its minutes, adopt a plan for the selection of persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic means.

Sec. 1. In lieu of any other procedure now provided by law, the Commissioners Court of any county in the State, upon recommendation of the district judge or a majority of the district judges of said courts, by order entered upon its minutes, may adopt a plan for the selection of persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic means.

Sec. 2. Any such plan so adopted shall conform to the following requirements:

(a) It shall be proposed in writing to the Commissioners Court by a majority of the judges of the district courts in such county, including criminal district courts, at a meeting of the district judges called for that purpose.

(b) It shall specify that the sources from which names are to be taken for jury purposes are all voter registration lists from all precincts in the county.

(c) It shall provide a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic equipment.

(d) It shall designate the clerk of the district courts as the official to be in charge of the selection process and shall define his duties.

(e) It shall specify that a true and complete written list showing the names and addresses of the persons summoned to begin jury service on a particular date shall be filed of record with the county clerk at least 10 days prior to the date such persons are to begin such jury service.

Sec. 3. In any county where such a plan is adopted, as above provided, the laws relating to the selection of petit juries by jury wheel shall not apply.

Art. 2101. Interchangeable Juries

The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

1. Jury Wheel Law governs.—The provisions of the statutes governing jury wheels shall remain in full force and effect, except as modified by the special provisions of this law.

2. Organization and supervision.—In each county under this law, the district judges shall meet together and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in all the county courts at law, county courts and district courts of such county, for each week during the time said courts may hold during the year, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of jurors from the wheel for each of said weeks, said jury to be known as the general panel of jurors for service in all such courts of such county for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. A majority of said district judges are authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this law; they may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week, and shall order said jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and said judge, for such time as he is chosen to so act shall organize said juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The said jurors so limited in number shall, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before said judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the said jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in any of said courts.

3. Used interchangeably.—Said jurors, when impaneled shall constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in all county and district courts in said county, and shall be used interchangeably in all of said courts. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of all said courts, the judge having control of the said general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.

4. Provided, however, that in any county of this state having a population in excess of nine hundred thousand (900,000) according to the last preceding or any future United States Census, it shall be permissible, after having been approved by a majority of the judges for the district courts of any such county, to draw from said jury wheel two separate jury panels for the week; one of which said jury panels for the week shall be drawn and be in attendance upon those criminal district courts and county courts which have a criminal docket, and the other said jury panel for the week shall be drawn and be in attendance upon those courts which have a civil docket.

5. This Article is also applicable to a county that has two district courts and a domestic relations court.

Art. 2102. Jury Quarters

The Commissioners Court of each such county shall set apart for the use and convenience of said general panel or panels some room or rooms or place or places in or near to the court house, which shall be comfortably furnished and fitted up for them to stay when not required for actual jury service. Said quarters shall be occupied by said panel or panels when not in service and they shall remain in or conveniently near thereto so as to be at all times subject to duty in any court in accordance with the preceding Article when called for, without delaying the proceedings of such court. The sheriff shall assign one of his deputies to look after said panel, call them when needed by the judges, provide for their wants and to have general custody and control of them when not in actual service.

Art. 2103. Reducing Number in General Panel

When it becomes necessary to diminish the general panel for the week of its selection on account of lack of work in any court or for any other cause, the judge having supervision of said jury for the week shall designate the number to remain. He shall cause the clerk to draw from the names of the general panel the number required, and those jurors whose names are so drawn shall continue in service for the remainder of the week and the others excused.

Art. 2103a. County Judges and Judges of County Courts-at-Law in Certain Counties; Drawing Additional Jurors

In all counties having two or more County Courts-at-Law, when a panel of jurors shall not have been drawn by one of the district judges as directed by Article 2101, or when the number of jurors drawn shall be deemed insufficient by the county judge or either of the judges of the County Courts-at-Law, the county judge or judge of either County Court-at-Law may order the drawing of such additional jurors from the jury wheel for service in any of such courts for so long a period of time as the trials in such courts may reasonably require. Such jurors when drawn shall be available for service in either of such courts. All of the provisions of law now otherwise governing the drawing of jurors in the courts in such counties by the district judge shall govern so far as applicable, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. The county judge and the judge of any of the County Courts-at-Law shall concurrently have the same authority with respect to determining and remedying a deficiency in the number of jurors as is now conferred on the judge having control of the general jury panel by Section 3, Article 2101, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

2. JURY COMMISSIONERS

See, now, article 2094 et seq.
Art. 2116a. Unconstitutional

This article, Acts 1921, 41st C.S., p. 63, ch. 29, as amended by Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 920, ch. 393, was declared unconstitutional by the Court of Criminal Appeals as a special law in violation of Const. art. 3, § 6. See Smith v. State, 120 Cr.R. 431, 49 S.W.2d 730.

Art. 2116b. Unconstitutional

This article, Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 176, ch. 67, §§ 1 to 14, was declared unconstitutional by the Court of Criminal Appeals as being discriminatory. See Randolph v. State, 117 Cr.R. 80, 36 S.W.2d 484.

Art. 2116d. Summons to Report for Jury Service; Sufficiency; Service

(a) A summons to report for jury service shall be served on the jurors verbally, or if the judge drawing the jury so directs, by registered mail, return receipt requested, or by first class mail to the address shown on the source from which the names of the jurors were taken.

(b) The summons to report for jury service shall be sufficient if it states the time and place for the juror to report, the purpose for which he is to report, and the penalty for failure to report as required.

[Acts 1957, 45th Leg., p. 677, ch. 335, § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1676, ch. 475, § 1, eff. May 27, 1971.]

Art. 2116d. Notification by the Sheriff

The sheriff shall notify the several persons named for jury service by mailing notice thereof, which notice shall include the time and place at which said juror is to report, to the juror at the address shown by the card placed in the jury wheel, or the address shown by the last voter registration list in said county, and if said letter be received by some person authorized by the United States mail to receive said letter, said service shall be sufficient.

3. JURY FOR THE WEEK

Art. 2117. Summoming Jurors

At any time when the Judge of the County or District Court needs a jury for any particular week of such Court, he shall notify the Clerk of such Court to open the next consecutive unopened list of jurors in his possession, and shall direct him as to the date for which such jurors shall be summoned. Such notice shall be given to the Clerk within a reasonable time prior to the time when such jurors are to be summoned. The Clerk shall immediately note on the list the date for which the jurors are to be summoned, and deliver said list to the sheriff. On receipt of such list, the sheriff shall immediately notify the several persons named therein to be in attendance on Court on the date so designated by the Judge.

Art. 2118. Selection of Jurors

On any day when a jury has been summoned and there are jury trials the court shall select a sufficient number of qualified jurors, in his discretion, to serve as jurors. Such jurors shall be selected from the names included in the jury lists, if there be the requisite number of such in attendance who are not excused by the court, but if such number be not in attendance at any time, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of qualified persons to make up the requisite number of jurors which is to be drawn from the jury wheel for jury trials in the district and county courts, under order of the court, to fill the panel. The names of such jurors to be summoned by the sheriff shall be drawn from the jury wheel as herein provided. All said extra jurors summoned shall be discharged when their services are no longer needed. The court may adjourn the whole number of jurors or any part thereof, to any subsequent day of the term, but the jurors shall not be paid for the time they may stand adjourned.

Art. 2120. Excuses of Jurors

The court may hear any reasonable sworn excuse of a juror, and may release him entirely or until some other day of the term; provided, however, the court shall not excuse any juror for economic reasons unless all parties of record are present and approve such excuse.

Art. 2121. Defaulting Juror

Any juror lawfully notified who without reasonable excuse fails to be in attendance on the court in obedience to such notice or who files a false claim of exemption from jury service shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Art. 2122. Pay of Jurors

(a) Each juror in a district or county court or county court at law is entitled to receive not less than $4 nor more than $10 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court as a juror. The commissioner's court of each county shall determine annually, within the minimum and maximum prescribed in this subsection, the amount of per diem for jurors, which shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county. A person who responds to the process of a court, but who is excused from jury service by the court for any cause after being tested on voir dire, is entitled to receive not less than $4 nor more than $5 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court in response to such process.

(b) A check drawn on the jury fund by the clerk of the district court of a county may be transferred by endorsement and delivery and is receivable at par from the holder for all county taxes.

Art. 2123. Right to Jury

The right to trial by jury shall remain inviolate, subject to the following rules and regulations.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2124 to 2132. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2133. Qualifications

All persons both male and female eighteen years of age or older are competent jurors, unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter. No person shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

1. He must be a citizen of the State and of the county in which he is to serve and qualified under the Constitution and laws to vote in said county.
2. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.
3. He must be able to read and write, except as otherwise provided herein.
4. He must not have served as a juror for six (6) days during the preceding six (6) months in the District Court, or during the preceding three (3) months in the County Court.
5. He must not have been convicted of felony.

Art. 2134. Disqualification

The following persons shall be disqualified to serve as jurors in any particular case:

1. Any witness in the case.
2. Any person interested, directly or indirectly, in the subject matter of the suit.
3. Any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree to either of the parties to the suit.
4. Any person who has a bias or prejudice in favor of or against either of the parties.
5. Any person who has sat as a petit juror in a former trial of the same, or of another case, involving the same questions of fact.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2135. Jury Service

All competent jurors are liable to jury service, except the following persons:

1. All persons over sixty-five (65) years of age.
2. All females who have legal custody of a child or children under the age of ten (10) years.
3. All students of public or private secondary schools.
4. Every person who is enrolled and in actual attendance at an institution of higher education.

Art. 2137. Filing of Exemptions

Sec. 1. Any person summoned as a juror who is exempt by law from jury service may establish his exemption without appearing in person by filing a signed statement of the ground of his exemption with the clerk of the court at any time before the date upon which he is summoned to appear.

Sec. 2. Any person wishing to claim any statutory exemption under Article 2135 in counties employing the jury wheel system may do so by filing a sworn statement stating the nature of and claiming such exemption with the sheriff, the tax assessor-collector, or the district or county clerk of the county of his residence, in which event no card for such person shall be placed in the jury wheel for the ensuing year.

Arts. 2138 to 2151. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2151a. Peremptory Challenges; Equalization of Number

After proper alignment of parties, it shall be the duty of the court to equalize the number of peremptory challenges provided under Rule 233, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Annotated, in accordance with the ends of justice so that no party is given an unequal advantage because of the number of peremptory challenges allowed that party.

CHAPTER EIGHT. TRIAL OF CAUSES

3. THE TRIAL

2175 to 2183. Repealed. 4. CHARGE OF THE COURT

2184 to 2190. Repealed. 5. CASE TO JURY

Art. 2168a. Attendance on Legislature

In all suits, either civil or criminal, or in matters of probate, pending in any court of this State, and in all matters ancillary to such suits which require action by or the attendance of an attorney, including appeals but excluding temporary restraining orders, at any time within thirty (30) days of a date when the Legislature is to be in Session, or at any time the Legislature is in Session, or when the Legislature sits as a Constitutional Convention, it shall be mandatory that the court continue such cause if it shall appear to the court, by affidavit, that any party applying for such continuance, or any attorney for any party to such cause, is a Member of either branch of the Legislature, and will be or is in actual attendance on a Session of the same. If the member of the Legislature is an attorney for a party to such cause, his affidavit shall contain a declaration that it is his intention to participate actively in the preparation and/or presentation of the case. Where a party to any cause or an attorney for any party to such cause is a Member of the Legislature, his affidavit need not be corroborated. On the filing of such affidavit, the court shall continue the cause until thirty (30) days after the adjournment of the Legislature and such affidavit shall be proof of the necessity for such continuance, and such continuance shall be deemed one of right and shall not be charged against the party receiving such continuance upon any subsequent application for continuance. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the provisions of this Section shall be deemed mandatory and not discretionary.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the right to such continuance, where such continuance is based upon an attorney in such cause being a member of the Legislature, shall be discretionary with the Court in the following situations.
and under the following circumstances, and none other, to wit:

(1) Where such attorney was employed within 10 days of the date such suit is set for trial.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

This article, as to civil actions, was included in the list of articles deemed repealed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Rule Making Act which repealed the laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions in Texas and which directed the Supreme Court, upon the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure to file a list of all Articles deemed repealed by "Section 1 of this (Rule Making) Act" was approved and became effective May 15, 1939, while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. See Rule 254, Vernon's Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1973 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. Rule 254, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, is hereby repealed to the extent of any inconsistency with the provisions of this Act, and said Rule is hereby conformed to the provisions hereof.

"Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to any civil case transferred by reason of the Order of any Court based upon a plea of privilege filed in said case.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 131, ch. 88.]

Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to any civil case transferred by reason of the Order of any Court based upon a plea of privilege filed in said case.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 131, ch. 88.]

5. CASE TO JURY

Art. 2191. Number of Jurors

The jury in the district courts shall be composed of twelve men; but the parties may by consent agree, in a particular case, to try with a less number. In county courts the jury shall be composed of six men.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 2192 to 2194. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2194a. Bringing Meals into Jury Room

(a) Whenever the judge deems it advisable, in order to expedite the final disposition of any district court civil case for which a jury is empaneled, to keep the jury together for deliberation rather than to dismiss it for meals, he shall have the power to draw a warrant on the jury fund or other appropriate fund of the county in which the case is being tried, to cover the cost of buying meals and bringing same into the jury room. However, not more than One Dollar ($1) may be spent per meal for any juror.

(b) The provisions of this Act shall not apply in any county unless the Commissioners Court has approved jury meals in civil cases as a proper expense of the county.

Arts. 2195 to 2198. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2199. Disagreement as to Evidence

If the jury disagree as to the statement of any witness, they may, upon applying to the Court, have read to them from the Court Reporter's notes that part of such witness' testimony on the point in dispute; but if there be no such Reporter, or if his notes cannot be read to the jury, the Court may cause such witness to be again brought upon the stand and the Judge shall direct him to repeat his testimony on the point in dispute; but if there be no such Reporter, or if his notes cannot be read to the jury, the Court may cause such witness to be again brought upon the stand and the Judge shall direct him to repeat his testimony on the point in dispute; and on their notifying the Court that they disagree as to any portion of a deposition or other paper not carried with them in their retirement, the Court may, in like manner, permit such portion of said deposition or paper to be again read to the jury.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

This article was included in the list of articles deemed repealed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Rule Making Act which repealed the laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions in Texas and which directed the Supreme Court, upon the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to file a list of all Articles deemed repealed by "Section 1 of this (Rule Making) Act" was approved and became effective May 15, 1939, while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. Art. 2211. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2212. Contribution Between Tort Feasors Any person against whom, with one or more others, a judgment is rendered in any suit on an action arising out of, or based on tort, except in causes wherein the right of contribution or of indemnity, or of recovery, over, by and between the defendants is given by statute or exists under the common law, shall, upon payment of said judgment, have a right of action against his co-defendant or co-defendants and may recover from each a sum equal to the proportion of all of the defendants named in said judgment rendered to the whole amount of said judgment. If any of said persons co-defendant be insolvent, then recovery may be had in proportion as such defendant or defendants are not insolvent; and the right of recovery over against such insolvent defendant or defendants in judgment shall exist in favor of each defendant in judgment in proportion as he has been caused to pay by reason of such insolvency.

Supersedure

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 41, ch. 28, §§ 1, 2, classified as article 2212a, provides for a system of comparative negligence and contribution among joint tort-feasors. Section 2(h) thereof reads: "This section prevails over Article 2212, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and all other laws to the extent of any conflict."

Art. 2212a. Comparative Negligence; Contribution Among Joint Tort-feasors

Modified Comparative Negligence

Sec. 1. Contributory negligence shall not bar recovery in an action by any person or party or the legal representative of any person or party to recover damages for negligence resulting in death or injury to persons or property if such negligence is not greater than the negligence of the person or party or persons or parties against whom recovery is sought, but any damages allowed shall be diminished in proportion to the amount of negligence attributed to the person or party recovering.

Contribution Among Joint Tort-feasors

Sec. 2. (a) In this section:
(1) "Claimant" means any party seeking relief, whether he is a plaintiff, counter-claimant, or cross-claimant.
(2) "Defendant" includes any party from whom a claimant seeks relief.
Art. 2212b. Indemnity Provisions in Mineral Agreements Where Negligence Attributable to Indemnitee

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that an inequity is fostered on certain contractors by the indemnity provisions contained in some agreements pertaining to wells for oil, gas, or water, or mines for other minerals. It is the intent of the legislature and the purpose of this Act to declare provisions for indemnity in certain agreements where there is negligence attributable to the indemnitee to be against the public policy of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. Except as specified in Section 4 of this Act, a covenant, promise, agreement, or understanding contained in, collateral to, or affecting an agreement pertaining to a well for oil, gas, or water, or mine for any mineral, is void and unenforceable if it purports to indemnify the indemnitee against loss or liability for damages arising from either death or bodily injury to persons, or injury to property, or any other loss, damage, or expense arising from either death or bodily injury, injury to property, or loss, damage, or expense, which is caused by or results from the sole or concurrent negligence of the indemnitee, or an agent or employee of the indemnitee, or an independent contractor who is directly responsible to the indemnitee.

Sec. 3. The term "agreement pertaining to a well for oil, gas, or water, or mine for any mineral" as used in Section 2 of this Act, means any agreement, or understanding, written or oral, concerning any operations related to drilling, deepening, reworking, repairing, improving, testing, treating, perforating, acidizing, logging, conditioning, altering, plugging, or otherwise rendering services in or in connection with any well drilled for the purpose of producing or disposing of oil, gas, or other minerals, or water, or designing, excavating, constructing, improving, or otherwise rendering services in or in connection with any mine shaft, drift, or other structure intended for use in the exploration for or production of any mineral, or an agreement to perform any portion of any such work or services or any act collateral thereto, including the furnishing or re-74tal of equipment, incidental transportation, and other goods and services furnished in connection with any such service or operation.

Sec. 4. (a) The provisions of this Act do not apply to loss or liability for damages, or any other expenses, arising from

(1) death or bodily injury to persons or injury to property resulting from radioactivity;

(2) injury to property resulting from pollution; or

(3) injury to property resulting from reservoir or underground damage.

(b) The provisions of this Act do not affect the validity of any insurance contract or any benefit conferred by the Workmen's Compensation Law of this state and do not deprive an owner of the surface estate of the right to secure an indemnity from any lessee, operator, contractor, or other person conducting operations for the exploration or production of minerals of the owner's land.

(c) The provisions of Section 2 of this Act shall not apply to any agreement providing for indemnity with respect to claims for personal injury or death to indemnitor's employees or agents, or the employees or agents of indemnitor's sub-contractors if the parties agree in writing that such indemnity obligation shall be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by indemniator; provided, however, that such indemnity obligation shall be only to the extent of the coverages and dollar limits of insurance agreed to be furnished; but in no event shall such indemnity be required in an amount in excess of twelve times state basic limits for bodily injury, approved by the Board of Insurance Commissioners in accordance with Article 5.15 of the Texas Insurance Code.

(d) The provisions of this Act apply only to agreements or contracts made on or after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 5. Each party to an agreement defined in Section 3 of this Act shall be responsible for the results of his own actions and for the actions of those persons over whom he exercises control.

Art. 2213. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2214. May Pass Title
Where the judgment is for the conveyance of real estate, or for the delivery of personal property, the decree may pass the title to such property without any act to be done on the part of the party against whom the judgment is rendered.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 2215 to 2218. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2218a. Unconstitutional
This article, Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 256, ch. 102, providing for limitation of action on note after sale of real estate security and process to enforce deficiency judgment, was held unconstitutional in Langsever v. Miller, 124 T. 80, 76 S.W.2d 1025, 96 A.L.R. 838, followed in Farm & Home Savings & Loan Ass'n of Missouri v. Robertson, Civ.App., 98 S.W.2d 135; Lisenbee v. Wichita Falls Building & Loan Ass'n, Civ.App., 92 S.W.2d 155; Eisenbee v. Wichita Falls, Texas Nat. Securities Co. v. Oldham, Civ.App., 92 S.W.2d 651; Stahlman v. McManus, Civ.App., 93 S.W.2d 476; Currie v. First Nat. Bank, Civ.App., 96 S.W.2d 721; National Loan & Investment Co. of Detroit, Mich., v. Browne, Civ.App., 98 S.W.2d 271.

Art. 2218b. Expired
Arts. 2219 to 2222. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2223. Against Partners
Where the suit is against several partners jointly indebted upon contract, and the citation has been served upon some of such partners but not upon all, judgment may be rendered therein against such partnership and against the partners actually served, but no personal judgment or execution shall be awarded against those not served.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Saved From Repeal
Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 283, ch. 158, enacting the Texas Uniform Partnership Act (Article 6132b), provides in Section 46(C) that the Act should not be deemed to repeal Acts 1858, p. 110, P.D. 1514; G.L. Vol. 4, p. 982, incorporated in this article.

Art. 2224. Contract to Waive or Confess
No acceptance of service and waiver of process, nor entry of appearance in open court, nor a confession of judgment shall be authorized in any case by the contract or writing sued on, or any other instrument executed prior to the institution of such suit, nor shall such acceptance or waiver be made until after suit brought.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2225. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2226. Attorney's Fees
Any person, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity having a valid claim against a person or corporation for services rendered, labor done, material furnished, overcharges on freight or express, lost or damaged freight or express, or stock killed or injured or suits founded upon a sworn account or accounts, may present the same to such persons or corporation, or to any duly authorized agent thereof; and if, at the expiration of 30 days thereafter, the claim has not been paid or satisfied, and he should finally obtain judgment for any amount thereof as presented for payment to such person or corporation, he may, if represented by an attorney, also recover, in addition to his claim and costs, a reasonable amount as attorney's fees. The amount prescribed in the current State Bar Minimum Fee Schedule shall be prima facie evidence of reasonable attorney's fees. The court, in non-jury cases, may take judicial knowledge of such schedule and of the contents of the case file in determining the amount of attorney's fees without the necessity of hearing further evidence.

Art. 2226a. Effect of Adjudications in Lower Trial Courts on Proceedings in Higher Courts
Sec. 1. A determination of fact or law or a judgment in any proceeding in the Small Claims Court, Justice of the Peace Court, County Court, County Civil Court at Law, County Criminal Court at Law, or County Court at Law shall not be res judicata and shall not constitute a basis for estoppel by judgment in any proceeding in a District Court, except that any such judgment shall be binding on the parties thereto as to the recovery or denial thereof rendered in that particular case, and further except that all judgments in probate, guardianship, lunacy and other matters over which said inferior courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the subject matter, on a basis other than the amount in controversy, shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 2. A determination of fact or law or a judgment in any proceeding in the Small Claims Court or Justice of the Peace Court shall not be res judicata and shall not constitute a basis for estoppel by judgment in any proceeding in a County Court, County Civil Court at Law, County Criminal Court at Law or County Court at Law, except that any such judgment shall be binding on the parties thereto as to the recovery or denial thereof rendered in that particular case.

Art. 2237. When Taken; Rules

If either party during the progress of a cause is dissatisfied with any ruling, opinion or other action of the Court, he may except thereto at the time the said ruling is made, or announced or such action taken, and at his request time shall be given to embody such exceptions in a written bill. The preparation and filing of bills of exceptions shall be governed by the following rules:

1. No particular form of words shall be required in a bill of exception; but the objection to the ruling or action of the Court shall be stated with such circumstances, or so much of the evidence as may be necessary to explain, and no more, and the whole as briefly as possible.

2. Where the statement of facts contains all the evidence requisite to explain the bill of exception evidence need not be set out in the bill; but it shall be sufficient to refer to the same as it appears in the statement of facts.

2a. All objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence and exceptions to the ruling of the Court upon the admission or exclusion of evidence or other matters may be shown by the official stenographer's transcript of the evidence, known as a statement of facts in question and answer form, all as hereinafter provided in Article 2239, and no formal bill of exception to the admission or exclusion of evidence or to any of the Court's rulings shall be required where the matters complained of, the objections, the Court's rulings, and exceptions thereto clearly appear of record in said transcript of evidence, or statement of facts in question and answer form; provided, however, that in any case where such matters do not clearly appear of record the parties may, if they so desire, prepare and have approved and filed, as otherwise provided by law, a formal bill of exception.

3. The ruling of the court in the giving, refusing or qualifying of instructions to the jury shall be regarded as approved unless excepted to.

4. Where the ruling or other action of the Court appears otherwise of record, no bill shall be necessary to reserve an exception thereto; and all motions and answers thereto, the orders thereon and any exceptions shown in such orders shall, for the purpose of this Article, be considered a part of the record without the necessity of bills of exception, provided that if testimony is heard upon a motion, such testimony may be preserved only by bill of exception or in the statement of facts.

5. The party taking a bill of exception shall reduce the same to writing and present it to the Judge for his allowance and signature.

6. The Judge shall submit such bill to the adverse party or his counsel, if in attendance on the Court, and if found to be correct, the Judge shall sign it without delay and file it with the Clerk.

7. If the Judge finds such bill incorrect, he shall suggest to the party or his counsel, such corrections as he deems necessary therein, and if they are agreed to, he shall make such corrections, sign the bill and file it with the Clerk.

8. Should the party not agree to such corrections, the Judge shall return the bill to him with his refusal indorsed thereon, and shall prepare, sign and file with the
Art. 2237

Clerk such bill of exception, as will, in his opinion, present the ruling of the court as it actually occurred.

9. Should the party be dissatisfied with said bill filed by the Judge, he may, upon procureing the signatures of three respectable by-standers, citizens of this State, attesting to the correctness of the bill as presented by him, have the same filed as part of the record of the cause; and the truth of the matter in reference thereto may be controverted and maintained by affidavits, not exceeding five in number on each side, to be filed with the papers of the cause, within ten days after the filing of said bill and to be considered as a part of the record relating thereto.

10. This Act shall not serve to repeal other laws regarding or dispensing with exceptions or bills of exception.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

This article was included in the list of articles deemed repealed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Rule Making Act which repealed the laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions in Texas and which directed the Supreme Court, upon the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to file a list of all Articles deemed repealed by "Section 1 of this (Rule Making) Act" was approved and became effective May 15, 1939, while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. See Rule 372, Vernon's Texas Rule of Civil Procedure.

Arts. 2241a to 2245. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2246. Time for Filing

When an appeal is taken from a judgment rendered in a civil cause tried in either the District Court, County Court, or County Court at Law, the party appealing shall have fifty (50) days after final judgment or order overruling motion for new trial, if such motion is filed, or perfection of writ of error, within which to prepare and file his statement of facts and bills of exception in the Trial Court.

Sec. 2. Upon application of the party appealing, the Judge of the Court may, in term-time or vacation, for good cause shown, extend the time for filing such statement of facts and bills of exception; but the time shall not be extended in any case so as to delay the filing thereof beyond the time for filing the transcript, bills of exceptions, and statement of facts in the Court of Civil Appeals, as prescribed by law, or as such time has been extended by said Court.

Art. 2292e. Bailiffs in Counties with Nine District Courts; Duties; Terms; Compensation

Sec. 1. In all counties having nine (9) or more District Courts, a majority of the District Judges of each such county may appoint a bailiff to be in charge of the central jury room and the general panel. In such counties, if the District Judges of such county do not appoint a bailiff to be in charge of the central jury room and the general panel, the sheriff of that county shall perform all the duties in connection with the central jury room and the general panel, as provided by law. In any or all of such counties in which the District Judges thereof appoint a bailiff in charge of the central jury room and the general panel, the sheriff of such county shall not assign a deputy to the central jury room as is now provided by law. The bailiff appointed by the said District Judges is hereby authorized to summon jurors whose names have been drawn from the jury wheel, and to serve notices upon absent jurors as directed by the District Judge having supervision and control of the general panel.

Sec. 2. In counties having nine (9) or more District Courts, the jurors in each of such counties may be summoned by the bailiff in charge of the central jury room, and the general panel of such county or the sheriff of such county, as the District Judges thereof may direct. Such service on the jurors may be made verbally in person, by registered mail, by ordinary mail or in any other manner or by any other method as may be determined upon the District Judges of such county. Jurors so selected and summoned for service on the central jury panel shall serve in civil cases as well as criminal cases, and no additional service shall be required in criminal cases.

Art. 2292-2. Tarrant County; Adult Probation and Parole Officer

Sec. 1. The Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts in Tarrant County, for the purpose of effectively carrying out the adult probation and parole laws of this State, are hereby authorized to appoint an Adult Probation and Parole Officer for Tarrant County, where a probation and parole officer has not been assigned to a court and/or district in Tarrant County as provided in this Act. Upon approval of such expenditures by the Commissioners Court, the aforesaid Judges may appoint assistant probation and parole officers and such other employees as they deem necessary to serve in the Adult Probation Office. The salaries of all such employees shall be paid from the general fund of the county. All necessary and reasonable expenses, including an automobile allowance for use of personal automobiles on official business, of the Adult Probation and Parole Officer or other employees incurred in the performance of their duties and the conduct of the Adult Probation Office, may be paid out of the general fund, upon approval of the Commissioners Court.

The Adult Probation and Parole Officer and all assistant probation and parole officers shall be of good moral character and acquainted with the Adult Probation and Parole Law. The authority and duties of such officer shall be the same as those prescribed for probation and parole officers by the Adult Probation and Parole Law. Such officer and all other employees of the Adult Probation Office shall be subject to removal at the will of the majority of the Judges of the several District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County.

The Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to provide office space and equipment for the Probation Office and to pay all other necessary office expenses out of the general fund of the county.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County is hereby authorized to amend the county budget for the fiscal year 1955, from and at the effective date of this Act for the balance of the said fiscal year, in order to provide for the salaries of the employees authorized in this Act and for all reasonable and necessary expenses of such office as herein provided.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing Chapter 452, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, except as to provide an alternate method of appointment of Chief and Assistant Probation and Parole Officers where such an Officer has not been assigned to any court and/or district in Tarrant County as provided in this Act.

Art. 2292-3. Anderson County; Probation Officer

The county judge of Anderson County may employ a probation officer to serve the county court. The duties and responsibilities of the probation officer shall be prescribed by the county judge. The probation officer shall receive a salary set by the commissioners court.

Art. 2292-4. Montague County Probation Department

Establishment

Sec. 1. There is hereby established the Montague County Probation Department upon affirmative order of the Commissioners Court and so reflected in the minutes of the Court.

Composition and Authority of Board

Sec. 2. The Montague County Probation Board is composed of the district judge and county judge of Montague County, Texas. The board shall have authority to adopt such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the law, necessary for the operation of the probation board.

Probation Officer; Appointment; Powers and Duties; Term

Sec. 3. The probation board shall appoint a probation officer, who shall have such authority, duties, and powers as now given to probation officers by general laws of the State of Texas, and such authority, duties, and powers as may be given him by the probation board. The probation officer shall be appointed, or reappointed, for two year terms, or unexpired portions thereof. The first term of the probation officer shall expire on December 31, 1974.

Service as Juvenile Officer

Sec. 4. The probation officer shall also serve as juvenile officer of Montague County, Texas, and shall have such authority, duties, and powers as now given juvenile officers by general laws of the State of Texas, and such authority, duties, and powers as may be given him by the probation board.

Salary and Office of Probation Officer

Sec. 5. The salary of the probation officer shall be set by the probation board with the approval of the Commissioners Court, and may be paid by the county treasurer, upon an order of the probation board, from fees collected by the probation department under authority of this Act. The Commissioners Court of Montague County may furnish the probation officer with a suitable office, including necessary office equipment and supplies, which shall be paid for by the county from its general fund.

Secretarial Help; Expenses

Sec. 6. The probation board may employ such secretarial help, and pay such additional expenses, including automobile expenses, as may be necessary, and as may be paid from the fees collected by the probation department under authority of this Act.

Bond of Officer

Sec. 7. The probation board shall have authority to require and approve a good and sufficient bond of the probation officer, in an amount not to exceed the sum of $5,000, for the faithful performance of his duties.

Probation Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 8. For the purpose of providing adequate funds for the proper supervision of the probationers of Montague County, the probation board shall have authority to set probation fees, to be paid to the district court or to the county court in an amount not to exceed the sum of $10 per month, such fees to be paid to the courts by such probationers as a condition of their respective probations. All probation fees collected by the clerk of the court shall be paid over to the county treasurer on the last day of each monthly calendar month. The county treasurer shall deposit all of such fees in an account to be styled "Probation Fund."

Child Support Division

Sec. 9. There is hereby established in the Montague County Probation Department a child support division. It shall be the duty of the division to assist the district clerk of Montague County in the collection of child support payments, alimony payments, separate maintenance payments, and in the enforcement of child visitation privileges, ordered by the district court of Montague County. The child support division shall initiate contempt proceedings for the enforcement of such orders of the district court.

Service Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 10. (a) Each month for which a person has been ordered by the district court of Montague County to pay child support, alimony, or separate maintenance into the district clerk's office, the recipient (payee) of such child support, alimony, or separate maintenance shall pay into said district clerk's office a service fee of $1 per month. The $1 fee shall be deducted from the payment by the district clerk. If such payments are ordered to be paid semi-monthly or weekly, then the sum of 50 cents shall be deducted from each semi-monthly or weekly payment.

(b) All service fees collected by the district clerk shall be paid over by the district clerk to the county treasurer on the last day of each calendar month. The county treasurer shall deposit all of such fees in an account to be styled "Probation Fund."

(c) The service fees authorized by Subsection (a), Section 10, shall be applicable to all child support, alimony, and separate maintenance payments ordered after the effective date of this Act, and to all other such payments (even though ordered prior to the effective date of this Act) when the person ordered to make such payments has defaulted and has been cited for contempt of court. The service fee shall become due and payable for each month following the hearing on the contempt citation.

County Attorney as Legal Officer; Attorney's Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 11. For the purpose of providing legal services to the Montague County Probation Department, the county attorney of Montague County is hereby designated as the legal officer of the department. There shall be assessed, as attorney's fees, a fee of $15 in all matters involving contempt of court for failure or refusal to pay child support, alimony, separate maintenance, or temporary alimony payments, when such contempt action is initiated by the probation department. The fees shall be taxed against the contemner as costs, and shall be collected as under contempt. The attorneys fees shall be paid to the district clerk, and by the district clerk paid over to the county treasurer on the last day of each month. The county treasurer shall deposit the fees in the probation fund. The attorneys fees shall be paid by the county treasurer to the county attorney on order of the probation board.

Appointment of Other Attorney as Legal Officer

Sec. 12. Should the county attorney of Montague County fail, refuse, or decline to perform the duties of legal officer for the probation department, the probation board shall appoint some other suitable attorney as legal officer of the probation department.

Adoption Investigation Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 13. For the purpose of maintaining adoption investigation services, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, the sum of $25 in each adoption case hereafter filed in district court of Montague County. Such adoption investigations shall be made by the probation officer and findings filed with the judge of the district court as provided by law, and as may be otherwise ordered by the judge of the court. The investigation fees shall be collected by the district clerk, and paid over to the county treasurer by the district clerk on the last day of each month. The county treasurer shall deposit the fees in the probation fund.

Juvenile Investigations

Sec. 14. The juvenile officer shall make such investigation in juvenile cases as is directed by the judge of the juvenile court of Montague County.

Judge; Requiring Probationer to Pay Supervision Fee

Sec. 15. The district judge may in any probation pending in district court on the effective date of this Act, and the county judge may in any probation pending in the county court on the effective date of this Act, upon a motion to revoke such probation, and where such motion is denied, require such probationer to pay the set monthly supervision fee, applicable to such probationer’s case, for the remainder of such probationer’s period of probation.

2. RECEIVERS

Art. 2293. Appointment

Receivers may be appointed by any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of this State, in the following cases:

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property; or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim; or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff or any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund or the proceeds thereof is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.

2. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured; or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed and the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

3. In cases where a corporation is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency; or has been dissolved or has forfeited its corporate rights.

4. In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity.

[Acts 1923, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2293a. Appointment for Church or Congregation

Sec. 1. That the judge of any district court, or other court having jurisdiction, is hereby authorized and required in term, time, or on vacation, to appoint a receiver or receivers for any defunct or disorganized church or congregation when the fact of such condition is brought to the attention of such court by an application for the appointment of a receiver or receivers for such defunct or disorganized church or congregation.

Sec. 5. The term “church or congregation” is meant to refer to a local congregation of believers in Christ, and not to a denomination or communion as a whole.

Sec. 6. The terms “defunct or disorganized” are meant to apply to an organization which formerly maintained regular forms of work and worship in a given community such as the Bible School, Communion Services, Preaching Services, etc., a regular interval, and which has ceased to function in these and similar capacities as a church for a period of one or more years.

1 So in enrolled bill. Should probably read “at regular intervals”

Art. 2294. Qualifications

A receiver for property within or partly within and partly without this State must, when appointed, be a bona fide citizen and qualified voter of this State, and if so qualified and appointed he shall keep and maintain his place of residence within this State during the pendency of such receivership; if not so qualified, his appointment as such receiver shall be void in so far as the property within this State is concerned. No party, attorney, or any person interested in any way in an action for the appointment of a receiver shall be appointed receiver therein.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2294a. Member of Church or Congregation

That the receiver or receivers appointed for any such defunct or disorganized church or congregation, shall be a member or members of an active church or congregation of like faith and order, or shall be a recognized missionary or ecclesiastical body of like faith and order, denomination or communion; and in case any such denomination or communion of like faith and order, shall have a State Missionary Society, or shall hereafter appoint, elect or organize, or cause to be appointed, elected or organized, such a State Missionary Society, and shall au-authorize the same to act as a receiver or trustee for such denomination or communion, then such State Missionary Society, or other similar organization so formed and named, shall be appointed to serve as receiver or trustee by said court.

Art. 2295. Quo Warranto
Where a domestic corporation owning property in this State shall have a receiver of such property appointed who is not a bona fide citizen and qualified voter of this State, said corporation shall thereby forfeit its charter; and the Attorney General shall at once prosecute a suit by quo warranto against said corporation so offending to forfeit its charter. The court trying the cause shall forfeit the charter of said corporation upon proof that a person has been appointed receiver of its property situated in this State who is not so qualified.

Art. 2296. Oath and Bond
When a receiver is appointed, he shall, before he enters upon his duties, be sworn to perform them faithfully, and shall execute a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the court appointing him, in the sum fixed by the court, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge his duty as receiver in the action (naming it) and obey the orders of the court there in.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2297. Receiver's Power
The receiver shall have power, under the control of the court, to bring and defend actions in his own name as receiver, to take charge and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect, compound for, compromise demands, make transfers, and generally to do such acts respecting the property as the court may authorize.

Art. 2297a. Receiver of Church or Congregation
That it shall be the duty of such trustee or trustees when so appointed, to take charge of all property, real, personal or mixed, and choses in action, belonging to such defunct or disorganized church or congregation and administer the same under the direction of the court making the appointment, for the best interest of such defunct or disorganized church or congregation; and where necessary to preserve the property, to sell the same under the order of said court; and in case said court shall be of the opinion that said church or congregation may not be revived or reorganized within a reasonable time, it shall be the duty of said court to order all of said property sold at public or private sale, and the proceeds received from such sale or sales shall be turned over and delivered to said trustee or trustees to be used by them for a church or congregation, denomination or communion or organization of like faith and order.

Art. 2298. Investing Funds
The funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest by order of the court, but no such order shall be made except upon consent of all the parties to the action.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2299. Application of Funds
All moneys that come into the hands of a receiver as such receiver shall be applied as follows, to the payment:

1. Of all court costs of the suit.
2. Of all wages of employés due by the receiver.
3. Of all debts due by the receiver for materials and supplies purchased during receivership by the receiver for the improvement of the property in his hands as receiver.
4. Of all debts due for betterments and improvements done during receivership to the property in his hands as such receiver.
5. Of all claims and accounts against the receiver on contracts made by the receiver during the receivership, and of personal injury claims and claims for stock against said receiver accruing during said receivership, and all judgments rendered against said receiver for personal injuries and for stock killed.
6. Of all judgments recovered against persons or corporations in suits brought before the receiver in the action.

As to all money coming into the hands of a receiver which are the earnings of the property in his hands, said claims shall have a preference lien on the same, and the receiver shall pay the same on the claims against him in the order of preference named above, and the court shall see that he does so.

Art. 2300. Discharge of Receiver
If a receiver is discharged pending suits against him for causes of action growing out of and arising during the receivership, the cause of action shall not abate, but may be prosecuted to final judgment against the receiver; and the plaintiff may make the party or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered the property a party to the suit. If judgment is finally rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the receiver, the court shall also enter judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the party to whom the property was delivered by the receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2301. When Property Subject to Execution
Where there is a judgment against a receiver and he shall have in possession moneys subject to the payment of such judgment, and the plaintiff owning the judgment shall apply to the court appointing the receiver for an order to pay said judgment, and if said court should refuse to order said judgment paid, when there is money in the hands of said receiver subject to the payment of the judgment, then the court rendering the judgment shall order an execution to issue on said judgment against said receiver upon the filing by the plaintiff in the court where the judgment was rendered an affidavit reciting that the plaintiff had applied to the court appointing the receiver for an order for said receiver to pay said judgment, and that it was shown to the court that there was money in the hands of the receiver at that time which was subject to the payment of the judgment, and that said court refused to order him to pay the judgment. Said execution when so issued shall be levied upon any property in the hands of the receiver and the same shall be sold as under ordinary execution; and a sale of the property will convey the title of the same to the purchaser.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]

Art. 2302. Judgments First Lien on Property

All judgments rendered against a receiver for causes of action arising during the receivership shall be a lien upon all property in the hands of the receiver superior to the mortgage lien. If the property should be turned back into the possession of the party or corporation owning same at the time of the appointment of a receiver, or any one for them, or to their assigns or purchasers, the party or corporation so receiving said property from said receiver shall take said property charged with all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver occurring during the receivership, to the value of the property delivered by the receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]

Art. 2303. Persons Liable for Debts

If a receiver is discharged by the court before all of the liabilities of the receiver arising during the receivership are settled in full, then the person, persons, or corporation to whom the receiver delivers the property that was in his hands as receiver shall be liable to the persons having claims against said receiver for the full amount of the liabilities.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]

Art. 2304. Effect of Discharge

The discharge of a receiver shall not work an abatement of the suit against a receiver nor in any way affect the right of the party to sue the receiver if he sees proper.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]

Art. 2305. Property Liable for Debts

When property has been returned to the original owner without any sale of said property, such owner shall be liable for all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver in causes of action arising out of and during the receivership, and the plaintiff may make such owner to whom the property was delivered a party defendant along with the receiver; and, if judgment is rendered against the receiver upon a cause of action arising out of and during the receivership, then the court shall also, at the same time, render judgment against such defendants for the amount so found for plaintiff; and plaintiff shall have the right to foreclose his lien on the property so returned.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]

Art. 2306. Outstanding Liabilities at Discharge

If at the date of the discharge of a receiver there exists against him any judgments or unpaid claims not sued on which arose during the receivership, then such claims and judgments shall be a preference lien on all of the property that was in the receiver's hands as such at said date superior to the mortgage lien; and the person or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered such property shall be liable for such claims and judgments to the value of such property.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]

Art. 2307. Liability of Receiver and Person to Whom Property is Delivered

Any person having a claim against a receiver not sued on at the date of the discharge of the receiver, shall have the right to sue said receiver, either alone or jointly, with the person or corporation to whom the receiver delivered said property that was in his hands as such receiver; and, if any judgment is rendered against said receiver, a judgment shall also be rendered against the person or corporation for the same amount that is rendered against the receiver, not to exceed the value of the property so received by said person or corporation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]

Art. 2308. Receiver to Give Bond on Appeal

In a suit against a receiver, if the receiver desires to appeal or apply for a writ of error from judgment rendered against him, before such appeal or writ of error shall be perfected or allowed, such receiver shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court or justice of the peace, payable to the appellee or the defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, conditioned that such receiver shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect; and, in case the judgment of the court to which such appeal or writ or error be taken shall be against him, that he will perform its judgment, sentence, or decree, and pay all such damages and costs as said court may award against him. If the judgment of the appellate court shall be against such receiver, judgment shall, at the same time, be entered against the sureties on his said bond, and execution thereon may issue against such sureties within twenty days after such judgment is rendered.

[Acts 1925, S.B. S.I.]
Art. 2309. Deposit of Railroad Funds
When a line of railroad operated by a receiver lies wholly within this State, all money which comes into the hands of the receiver, whether from operating the road or otherwise, shall be kept and deposited in such place within this State as the court may direct, until properly disbursed; but, if any portion of the road lies in another State, the receiver shall be required to deposit in this State at least such share of the funds in his hands as is proportioned to the value of the property of the company within this State.

Art. 2310. Suit By or Against
When property within the limits of this State has been placed in the hands of a receiver who has taken charge of such property, such receiver may, in his official capacity, sue or be sued in any court of this State having jurisdiction of the cause of action, without leave of the court appointing him. If judgment is recovered against said receiver, the court shall order said judgment paid out of any funds in the hands of said receiver as such receiver.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2311. Venue of Suit Against
Actions may be brought against the receiver of the property of any person where said person resides; and against receivers of a corporation in the county where the principal office of said corporation may be located, and against receivers of railroad companies in any county through or into which the road is constructed. Service of summons may be had upon the receiver, or upon the general or division superintendent of the road, or upon any agent of said receiver who resides in the county where the suit is brought.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2312. Venue to Appoint
If the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is a corporation whose property lies within this State, or partly within this State, then the action to have a receiver appointed shall be brought in this State in the county where the principal office of said corporation is located.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 20, ch. 13, § 1.]

Art. 2313. Jurisdiction to Appoint
When a person resides in this State and a receiver is applied for, or if the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is situated within the limits of this State, no court other than one within the limits of this State, shall have power to appoint any receiver of said property.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2314. Inventory by Receiver
The receiver as soon after his appointment as possible, shall return to the court appointing him a true and correct inventory of all property received by him as such receiver.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2315. Where There are Betterments, etc.
When a receiver of a corporation has, under the order of the court appointing him, made improvements upon the property and purchased rolling stock, machinery, and made other improvements whereby the value of the property of said corporation has been increased, or has extended a road, or acquired any property in connection with said road, and has paid for same out of the current receipts of the corporation that came into his hands as receiver, then, if there be any floating debts against said corporation, said corporation shall be made to contribute to the floating indebtedness to the full value of the money so spent by said receiver as aforesaid. When there are liens of any kind upon the property of said corporation in the hands of such receiver, and said property is sold under the order of the court, and said liens foreclosed, then the court appointing such receiver, if there be any unpaid debts or judgments, or claims against the corporation itself, shall detain in the hands of the clerk of the court money to the full value of the improvements made by the receiver of the property sold, and pay the same over to whoever has or may have a claim, debt, or judgment against said corporation; and the court, in ordering the sale of the property, shall require sufficient cash to be paid in at date of sale to cover the full value of the improvements so made by said receiver out of the current funds received by him from the property while receiver.

Art. 2316. Preference Claims
All judgments, claims, or causes of action when determined, existing against any corporation at the time of the appointment of a receiver, shall be paid out of the earnings of such corporation while in the hands of the receiver, to the exclusion of mortgage action; and the same shall be a lien on such earnings.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2317. Receivership of Corporation Limited; Certain Corporations Excepted
No corporation shall be administered in any court more than three years from the date of such appointment except as hereinafter provided; and within three years such court shall wind up the affairs of such corporation, unless prevented by litigation, or unless, at said time, the Receiver shall be conducting and operating the affairs of such corporation as a going concern, in which event the court, upon application, by proper order entered upon the minutes, after hearing held after due notice to all attorneys of record, may extend, from time to time, such receivership for such term and upon such conditions as in its judgment the best interests of all parties concerned may require; provided, that no continuance of a receivership shall be for more than five years additional to the original three years; and provided further, that corporations organized and existing under Section 68 of Article 1302, Chapter 1 of Title 32,¹ and under Title 112, of Revised Civil Stat­utes of Texas,² shall not be subject to the above provision limiting receiverships to five additional years, but as to such exempted corporations, the time in which to close any such re­ ceivership shall be determined by the court, and it may extend the same, from time to time, for such additional period or periods of time as it may determine.

²Article 6259 et seq.

Art. 2318. Application for Receiver

No receiver of a joint stock or incorporated company, co-partnership or private person shall ever be appointed on the petition of such joint stock or incorporated company, partnership or person. A stockholder or stockholders of such joint stock or incorporated company may have his or their action against such company, and may have a receiver appointed as in ordinary cases. Nothing herein shall prevent a member of any co-partnership from having a receiver appointed whenever a cause of action arises between the co-partners.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2319. Rules of Equity Shall Govern

In all matters relating to the appointment of receivers, and to their powers, duties and liabilities, and to the powers of the court in relation thereto, the rules of equity shall govern whenever the same are not inconsistent with any provision of this chapter and the general laws of the State.

Art. 2320. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2320a. Unconstitutional

Article 2320a, which provided for the reorganization and adjustment of the affairs of distressed debtors and was derived from Acts 1924, 3rd Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 43, ch. 24, § 2, was held unconstitutional on the ground of impairment of obligations of contract in violation of Const. art.
1, § 16, and U.S.C.A.Const. art. 1, § 10, in Cattle Raisers Loan Co. v. Dean (Civ.App.1935) 86 S.W.2d 252, error dedicated 127 T. l, 86 S.W.2d 1082.

Art. 2320b. Receivers of Mineral Interests
Owned by Nonresidents or Absentees

Claimants or Owners of Undivided Mineral and Leasehold Interests: Appointment of Receiver: Petition

Sec. 1. In an action filed in the District Court by any person, firm or corporation having, claiming or owning an undivided mineral interest in any tract of land in the State of Texas, or any person, firm or corporation having, claiming or owning an undivided leasehold interest granted under a mineral lease covering any tract of land in the State of Texas, in which it is made to appear that one or more of the defendants in such action are nonresidents of the State of Texas, or persons whose place of residence is unknown and that such nonresidents of Texas or persons whose place of residence is unknown have absented themselves for at least five years successively next preceding the filing of the action, and who have, claim or own an undivided mineral interest in said land and have not paid taxes on said mineral interest or rendered same for taxes within said five-year period, the District Court shall have power to appoint the county judge of the particular county in which the land is located, and his successors in office or the county clerk of the particular county in which the land is located and his successors in office or any resident of said county, as the receiver of said undivided mineral interest owned by any one or more of such defendants, such receiver to serve without the necessity of his posting bond, provided a duly verified petition is filed and satisfactory proof is made to the Court that the plaintiff or plaintiffs have made diligent but unsuccessful effort to locate such defendants, and that the plaintiff or plaintiffs will suffer substantial damage or injury unless such receiver is appointed. Such receivership shall continue so long as any of such defendants, or his heirs, assigns or personal representatives, shall have failed to appear, either in person or by agent or attorney, in such court to claim his interest in the ownership of the minerals dealt with in the action.

Claimants or Owners of Undivided Leasehold Interests under Mineral Lease; Appointment of Receiver; Petition

Sec. 2. In an action filed in the District Court by any person, firm or corporation having, claiming or owning an undivided leasehold interest granted under a mineral lease covering
any tract of land in the State of Texas in which it is made to appear that one or more of the defendants in such action are nonresidents of the State of Texas, or persons whose place of residence is unknown, and who have absented themselves for at least five years successively next preceding the filing of said action, and who have, claim or own an undivided leasehold interest granted under a mineral lease covering said land and have not paid taxes on said leasehold interest or rendered same for taxes within said five-year period, the District Court shall have power to appoint a receiver of said undivided leasehold interest owned by any one or more of such defendants, provided a duly verified petition is filed and satisfactory proof is made that the plaintiff or plaintiffs have made diligent but unsuccessful effort to locate such defendants, and that the plaintiff or plaintiffs will suffer substantial damages or injury unless such receiver is appointed.

Execution of Mineral Leases; Assignment of Outstanding Undivided Mineral Leasehold Interest; Unitization Agreements; Payment and Application of Consideration

Sec. 3. Such receiver, under the orders of the court, shall have power, authority and duty, subsequent to his appointment and from time to time thereafter, to (1) execute and deliver to a lessee, or successive lessees, mineral leases on such outstanding mineral interests, (2) to execute and deliver to a lessee, or successive lessees, an assignment of any such outstanding undivided mineral leasehold interest, and (3) to enter into any unitization agreement which has been duly authorized by the Railroad Commission of Texas. Such receiver shall execute such leases or assignments, or enter into such unitization agreements forthwith upon the entry of any such decree by the District Court. The money consideration, if any, to be paid for the execution of the aforementioned leases, assignments and/or unitization agreements by such receiver, shall be paid over to the clerk of the District Court in which the cause is pending, prior to the execution of such nonresident or unknown owners of such mineral interests or leasehold interests, as the case may be, and any future payments paid under such mineral lease, assignment of leasehold interest or unitization agreement, shall be paid directly into the registry of the court and im­pounded for the use and benefit of such nonresident and unknown owners.

Definitions

Sec. 4. When used in this Act

(1) the term "mineral lease" shall be deemed to include oil and gas leases and oil, gas and mineral leases of every kind and nature containing any and all provisions necessary or incidental to the orderly exploration, development, and recovery of oil, gas and other minerals including provision authorizing lessee to pool and unitize the lands subject thereto with adjacent lands into a unit not to exceed 160 acres for an oil well or 640 acres for a gas well plus 10% tolerance provided that should the governmental authority having jurisdiction prescribe or permit larger units, then such units may conform substantially in size with those prescribed by government regulations;

(2) the term "leasehold interest" shall be deemed to include any and all ownerships created under a mineral lease or carved out of a leasehold estate granted under a mineral lease and without limiting the foregoing shall include production payments, overriding royalty interests and working interests;

(3) the term "lessee" shall be deemed to include an assignee under an assignment or a mineral lease as that term is defined under Subsection 1 above.

Cumulative Effect of Law

Sec. 5. This Act shall not have the effect of altering or changing any laws now in effect relating to suits for the removal of cloud from title or the appointment of receivers under any other law, but is cumulative thereof.

Art. 2320c

Contingent Interests; Receiver to Make Mineral, Oil or Gas Lease; Pooling

Sec. 1. Where lands or any estate therein are subject to contingent future interests, legal or equitable, whether arising by way of remainder, reversion, possibility of reverter, executory devise, upon the happening of a condition subsequent, or otherwise, and it is made to appear that such lands or estate are liable to drainage of oil, gas and other minerals, or either of them, upon application of any person having a vested, contingent, or possible interest in said lands or estate, any District Court of the county in which the lands or a part thereof lie shall have power, pending the happening of the contingency and the vesting of such future interests, to appoint a receiver for such lands or estate and to authorize and direct the lease of such property for development of oil, gas and other minerals, or either of them, for the conservation, preservation or protection of the property or estate or of any present or contingent or future interest therein, that such lands or estate be leased for the production of oil, gas and other minerals, or either of them, upon application of any person having a vested, contingent, or possible interest in said lands or estate, any District Court of the county in which the lands or a part thereof lie shall have power, pending the happening of the contingency and the vesting of such future interests, to appoint a receiver for such lands or estate and to authorize and direct the proceeds thereof under the direction of the Court for the benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, and to that end may confer all necessary powers on the receiver.

Sec. 2. Where lands or any estate therein, including any contingent future interests described in Section 1 of this Act, are subject to an existing oil, gas and mineral lease which fails to provide for pooling or contains pooling provisions which are ineffective as to the contingent future interests covered by the lease, and it is made to appear that pooling of the contingent future interests is necessary to protect correlative rights, or to prevent the physical or economic waste of oil, gas and other minerals, or any of them, or that pooling of the contingent future interests will inure to the benefit and advantage of the persons entitled thereto, or that pooling is otherwise necessary for the conservation, preservation or protection of the property or estate or of any present or contingent or future interest therein, upon application of any person having a vested, contingent or possible interest in the land subject to the lease, including the lessee therein and any assignee of the lessee, any district court of the county in which the lands or part thereof lie shall have power, pending the happening of the contingency and the vesting of the future interests, to appoint a receiver for the contingent interests covered by the lease and to authorize and direct the amendments of the lease to authorize covering any mineral interest in lands, upon the terms and conditions and for additional consideration, if any, as the court may direct; and in such case to authorize a receiver to make such an amendment to the lease and to receive, hold and invest the additional consideration therefor, if any, under the direction of the court for the benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, and to that end may confer all necessary powers on the receiver.

Sec. 2A. Any lease given pursuant to Section 1 of this Act or any amendment of an existing lease made pursuant to Section 2 of this Act may authorize the lessee and his assigns to pool all or any part of the lands subject to the lease with adjacent lands into a unit not to exceed 160 acres for an oil well or 640 acres for a gas well plus 10% tolerance. Provided that any governmental authority having jurisdiction may authorize and direct the pooling of the contingent future interests, upon the terms and conditions and for additional consideration, if any, as the court may direct; and in such case to authorize a receiver to make such an amendment to the lease and to receive, hold and invest the additional consideration therefor, if any, under the direction of the court for the benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, and to that end may confer all necessary powers on the receiver.

Sec. 2B. In any cause commenced pursuant to Section 1 or Section 2 of this Act, all persons in being having a vested, contingent or possible interest in the lands shall be cited in the cause in the manner and for the time provided for in actions concerning title to lands. All persons not in being shall be cited in the manner and for the time provided in actions against unknown owners or claimants of interest in land. Provided in any cause commenced pursuant to Section 2 of this Act, a person shall not be a necessary party in the cause if the persons in being having a vested, contingent or possible interest in land. Provided in any cause commenced pursuant to Section 2 of this Act, a person who has already been drilled any oil or gas well, or both, and no mineral lease or leasing unit upon which drilling operations for oil and gas, or both, have already begun at the time of the effective date of this Act, shall come within the application of the provisions of this Act; it being the intention of the Legislature that the provisions of this Act shall apply only to mineral leases where there has been no development for oil and gas, or other minerals, upon the effective date of this Act. It is further provided, however, that no lease shall be authorized covering any mineral interest in lands, in which lands there are existing homestead rights, without the written consent of the owner or owners of such homestead rights given in the manner provided by law for the conveyance of homesteads.

Sec. 4. If any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act; and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted, and does here now enact, such remaining portions despite any such invalidity.

3. OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

Art. 2321. Appointment and Examination

Each district and criminal district judge shall appoint an official court reporter who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office during the pleasure of the court. Before any person is so appointed, the judge shall assign three attorneys practicing in said court to examine said applicant as to his competency as follows: The applicant shall, in the presence of such committee, write at the rate of at least one hundred and seventy-five words per minute for five consecutive minutes from questions and answers submitted to him, not counting the words "question" and "answer," and shall transcribe the same with accuracy. If the applicant passes this test satisfactorily a majority of the committee shall furnish him with a certificate of that fact, which shall be filed among the records of the court and be recorded by the clerk in the minutes thereof. As to subsequent appointments, the presentation of a certified copy from said clerk of said certificates shall be prima facie evidence of the applicant's competency. No examination by any committee shall be required of an applicant who has been official stenographer of any district court in this State for not less than two years prior to his appointment.

Repealer

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2019, ch. 632, providing for the setting of compensation, expenses and allowances for certain county and precinct officials and employees by the commissioners courts effective January 1, 1972, provides in section 8 thereof that to the ex-
Art. 2322. Oath

Said reporter in addition to taking the official oath shall subscribe to an oath to be administered by the district clerk to the effect that he will well and truly in an impartial manner keep a correct record of all evidence offered in each case reported by him, together with the objections and exceptions made by the parties to such suit, and the rulings and remarks of the court in passing upon the admissibility of testimony.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2323. Deputy Reporter

In case of illness, press of official work, or unavoidable disability of the official shorthand reporter to perform his duties in reporting proceedings in court, the judge of the court may, in his discretion, authorize a deputy shorthand reporter to act during the absence of said official shorthand reporter, and said deputy shorthand reporter shall receive, during the time he acts for said official shorthand reporter, the same salary and fees as the official shorthand reporter of said court, to be paid in the manner provided for the official shorthand reporter; but the said official shorthand reporter shall also receive his salary in full during said temporary disability to act. The necessity for a deputy official shorthand reporter shall be left entirely within the discretion of the Judge of the court.

Saved from Repeal

Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 576, ch. 288, § 1, which amended Art. 2327A (repealed in 1947), relating to salary of certain court reporters, provided in the second paragraph that nothing in the Act should be construed as repealing this article.

Art. 2323a. Deputy Court Reporter for 70th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The official court reporter of the 70th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Midland and Ector, is hereby granted authority to appoint a deputy court reporter for the 70th Judicial District.

Sec. 2. The deputy court reporter provided for in this Act shall have the authority and perform such duties as are now required of the official court reporter of the 70th Judicial District under the direction and in the name of the official court reporter of the 70th Judicial District.

Sec. 3. No money shall ever be expended by the counties composing the 70th Judicial District and no money shall ever be expended by the State of Texas for salary or other expense of such deputy court reporter.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 314, ch. 190.]

Art. 2324. Duty of Reporter

Each Official Court Reporter shall:

Attend all sessions of the court; take full shorthand notes of all oral testimony offered in cases tried in said court, together with all objections to the admissibility of the evidence, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions thereto; take full shorthand notes of closing arguments when requested to do so by the attorney for any party to such case, together with all objections to such arguments, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon and all exceptions thereto;

Preserve all shorthand notes taken in said court for future use or reference for a full year, and furnish to any person a transcript of all such evidence or other proceedings, or any portion thereof as such person may order, upon the payment to him of the fees provided by law.

When any party to any suit reported by any such reporter shall desire a transcript of the evidence in said suit, said party may apply for same and the reporter shall make up such transcript and shall receive as compensation therefor the sum of not more than thirty cents per one hundred words for the original thereof, and in addition such reporter may make a reasonable charge, subject to the approval of the trial court if objection shall be made thereto, for postage and/or express charges paid; photostating, blue-printing or other reproduction of exhibits; indexing; and preparation for filing and special binding of original exhibits. Provided further, that in case any such reporter shall charge more than the fees herein allowed, whether by accident or design, and shall refuse to make proper refund or correction of such charges, he shall be liable to the person paying the same a sum equal to four times the excess so paid.

Art. 2324a. Powers as to Depositions, Commissions, Oaths and Affidavits

Sec. 1. All official District Court reporters are authorized to take depositions of witnesses, and to receive, execute and return commissions, administer oaths and affidavits, in connection with such depositions, and make a certificate of such fact, and do all other things necessary in the taking of such depositions in accordance with existing laws.

Sec. 2. Said reporters shall have authority to perform the above mentioned acts only within any county within the judicial district that such reporter was appointed and serving in connection with his official business, in the State of Texas.
Sec. 3. This Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws provided for the method and manner of taking depositions.

Art. 2325. Repealed by Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1033, ch. 390, § 2

Art. 2326. Compensation

The official shorthand reporter of each Judicial District Court, civil or criminal, and the official shorthand reporter of each County Court-at-Law, civil or criminal, in any county in this State which constitutes in itself a judicial district, and having a population in excess of six hundred thousand (600,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall receive a salary of not less than Forty-eight Hundred ($4800.00) Dollars per annum, nor more than Sixty-six Hundred ($6600.00) Dollars per annum, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law. Said salaries shall be fixed and determined annually by the County Commissioners Court; provided, however that the judges of the judicial districts and the County Courts-at-Law shall annually make recommendations to the Commissioners Court as to the fixing of such salaries. Such salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees and traveling and hotel expenses of official shorthand reporters now or hereafter provided by law. The salaries of such reporters shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of the county in which the service is performed out of any funds available for the purpose, in the same manner as such salaries have heretofore been paid.

The official shorthand reporter of each Judicial District Court, civil or criminal, and the official shorthand reporter of each County Court-at-Law, civil or criminal, in any county in this State having a population in excess of three hundred sixty thousand (360,000) inhabitants, but less than six hundred thousand (600,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall receive a salary of Sixty-six Hundred ($6600.00) Dollars per annum, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law. Said salary shall be fixed and determined by the Commissioners Court of the county in which the service is performed.

The official shorthand reporter in each of all other Judicial District Courts, civil or criminal, and the official shorthand reporter in each of all other County Courts-at-Law, civil or criminal, in this State shall receive a salary of not less than Twenty-seven Hundred and Fifty ($2750.00) Dollars per annum, and not more than Sixty-six Hundred ($6600.00) Dollars per annum; said salary shall be fixed and determined by the District Judges of such Judicial District Courts, civil or criminal, and the Judges of such County Courts-at-Law, civil or criminal, who shall enter an order in the minutes of the court, in each county of the district, which shall be a public record and open for public inspection, stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid said reporter. The District Judge shall file a copy of said order with each Commissioners Court of the District.

The salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees and traveling and hotel expenses of official shorthand reporters as provided by law; and the salary shall be paid monthly out of the General Fund, Officers Salary Fund, Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of the county or counties in which the court sits, and in which the service is performed.

It is further provided that before any increase in salary shall become effective, notice thereof shall be printed one time in at least one (1) newspaper in each county of the judicial district, the cost of publication of said notice to be paid by the Commissioners Court of each county out of any funds available.

Art. 2326a. Expenses and Manner of Payment

All official shorthand reporters and deputy official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of the State of Texas composed of more than one county, when engaged in the discharge of their official duties in any county in this state other than the county of their residence shall, in addition to the compensation now provided by law for their services, be allowed their actual and necessary expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of such duties, not to exceed the sum of Six Dollars ($6.00) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed Four Cents (4¢) a mile when traveling by railroad or bus lines, and not to exceed Ten Cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid after the completion of each term of court by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expenses incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official or deputy official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the general fund of the county, upon the sworn statement of the reporter, approved by the Judge.

Provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter, or his deputy, more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in any one year under the provisions of this Act; provided further, that in districts containing two counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per annum; in districts containing three counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per annum; in districts containing four counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Seven Hundred Dollars ($700.00) per annum; in districts containing five or more counties the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per annum.

The account for such services herein provided for shall be sworn to in duplicate by the reporter, and approved by the District Judge, and one copy of said account shall be filed by the reporter with the clerk of the District Court of the county where the Judge of the district resides.

Whenever a special term of any District Court in this state is convened and the services of an additional official or deputy official shorthand reporter is required, then this Act shall also apply to said shorthand reporter so employed by the Judge of said special term, and all expenses as herein provided shall be allowed and paid said shorthand reporter so employed for said special term by the county wherein said special term is convened and held, and shall be in addition to the expenses herein provided for the official or deputy official shorthand reporter of the district.

Provided, however, that whenever any official or deputy official shorthand reporter is called upon to report the proceedings of any special term of court, or on account of the sickness of any official shorthand reporter of any Judicial District, necessitating the employment of a shorthand reporter from some other county within the state, then the shorthand reporter so employed shall receive and be paid all actual and necessary expenses in going to and returning from the place where he or she may be called on to report the proceedings of any regular or special terms of court.

Art. 2326b. Reporters for Judicial Districts, Salary

The salary of the official shorthand reporter in each Judicial District in any county of this State which alone constitutes two or more Judicial Districts, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law shall be $3,000.00 per annum, to be paid as the salary of other court reporters are paid, out of the general fund of the county.

Art. 2326c. Salaries of Reporters for Judicial Districts; Exception of Certain Districts

The official shorthand reporter of each Judicial District in this State and the official shorthand reporter of any County Court, either civil or criminal, in this State, where the compensation of such reporter of such County Court or Judicial District is not otherwise provided for by special law, shall receive a salary of not more than Two Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($2,700.00) per annum; nor less than Two Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400.00) per annum, such salary to be fixed and determined by the District or County Judge respectively of the Court wherein such shorthand reporter is employed, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided for by law. Said salary shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of the county out of the General Fund of the county, or in the discretion of the Commissioners Court, out of the jury fund of said county, upon the certificate of the Judge of such District or County Court. In districts of this State composed of two or more counties, said salary shall be paid monthly by the counties of the District in proportion to the number of weeks provided by law for holding Court in the respective counties in the District; provided, that in a District where in any county the term may continue until the business is disposed of, each county shall pay in proportion to the time Court is actually held in such county.

The salary of the official shorthand reporter in each Judicial District in any county of this State with a population in excess of one hundred and fifty thousand (150,000) according to the last preceding Federal census and which alone constitutes two or more Judicial Districts, in addition to the compensation of transcript fees as provided by law, shall be Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) per annum to be paid as the salaries of other court reporters are paid.

It is expressly provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not in any way apploy to the official shorthand reporter in and for the 25th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Guadalupe, Gonzales, Colorado and Lavaca, nor shall this Act repeal Senate Bill 135, Regular Session, 43rd Legislature; nor shall the provisions of this Act apply in any way to the official shorthand reporters in and for any Judicial District Court of Bexar County, civil or criminal, nor shall this Act repeal Senate Bill No. 315, Regular Session, 43rd Legislature; nor shall the provisions of this Act apply to any official shorthand reporter in and for the 22nd Judicial District of Texas composed of the counties of Comal, Hays, Caldwell, Fayette and Austin.

Art. 2326d. Salaries of Official Shorthand Reporters for Districts Composed of Four Counties

The salary of the official shorthand reporter in each judicial district composed of four counties in this State, with the population of said four counties totalling in the aggregate, in excess of one hundred thousand (100,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census, and which alone constitute one or more judicial districts, in addition to the compensation of transcript fees as provided by law, shall be Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) per annum to be paid as the salaries of other court reporters are paid.

It is further expressly provided that nothing herein shall be construed as repealing Article 2326-A of 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas as amended by Acts 1929, 41st Legislature, Chapter 56, page 112.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 75, ch. 44, § 1.]

Art. 2326d-1. Salaries in Districts of Four or More Counties with Valuations of $230,000,000 or More

Minimum Salaries; Increase

Sec. 1. The official Court Reporter in all Judicial Districts composed of four or more counties, where the aggregate total assessed valuations of all taxable property in the counties composing any of said Districts is not less than Two Hundred Thirty Million Dollars ($230,000,000.00) as shown by the approved tax rolls of the several counties composing any of said Judicial Districts for any year commencing January 1, 1945, shall, from and after the effective date of this Act, receive a minimum salary of Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00) per annum, in addition to all traveling expenses, transcript fees and all other compensation now provided by law to be paid to the said official Court Reporters; and providing that the said salary shall be increased up to, but not to exceed, Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per annum in the following manner:

If the aggregate total assessed valuations of all taxable property in the several counties comprising any of said Judicial Districts shall exceed Two Hundred Thirty Million Dollars ($230,000,000.00), as shown by the approved tax rolls of the several counties composing any of said Judicial Districts for any year commencing January 1, 1945, such salary of the official Court Reporter in each said District shall be increased for the year immediately succeeding the year in which such aggregate total valuations shall exceed Two Hundred Thirty Million Dollars ($230,000,000.00), as reflected by the approved tax rolls for said year; and such increase shall be at the rate of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per year for each increase in said aggregate total valuation of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) or fractional part thereof.

Traveling Expenses

Sec. 2. All traveling expenses now provided by law to be paid to the said official Court Reporters shall be paid quarterly by the county for which the same are incurred.

Payment of Salary; Taxable Valuations as Basis

Sec. 3. The salary of the official Court Reporter as herein fixed shall be paid monthly by the respective counties composing any of said Judicial Districts, and in the proportion that the taxable values in each county bear to the aggregate total taxable values of all the counties in each of said Districts. For the purpose of the allowed increase in the salary of the official Court Reporters as herein fixed, the tax rolls of each of the counties as approved by the Commissioners Court of each such county shall conclusively establish and shall be conclusively presumed to be the correct total taxable valuation. In determining the salary of the official Court Reporter for the year 1946, in any of said Judicial Districts, the taxable values of each county for the year 1945 shall serve as the basis for such determination. Thereafter the taxable valuations as shown by the approved tax rolls for each year shall serve as the basis for determining the salary of the said official Court Reporter for the ensuing year.

Salary for 1945

Sec. 4. The salary of the said official Court Reporters for the year 1945, commencing January 1, 1945, is hereby fixed at Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00) per annum, payable monthly, commencing on the effective date of this Act; provided that all payments of salary to the said official Court Reporters under laws existing in the year 1945, and at the effective date of this Act, shall be deducted; that is to say, all payments made by the respective counties composing said Judicial Districts under existing laws for all months of 1945, until the effective date of the Act, shall be applied against the total annual salary of Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00), as herein fixed, so that for the year 1945 the total salary of any such official Court Reporter shall amount to Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00), and no more.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase, or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

[Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 430, ch. 272.]

Saved From Repeal

Act 1949, 51st Leg., p. 820, ch. 440, §2 provides that nothing in that act, which amends art. 2326, shall affect or repeal this article, and that it remains in full force and effect.

Art. 2326g-1. Salaries of Official Shorthand Reporters for District and County Courts at Law in Counties Over 225,000

In all counties in this State having a population in excess of two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000), and 398,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, the salary of the Official Shorthand Reporter of each District Court and County Court at Law in any such county shall be Four Thousand, Two Hundred Dollars ($4,200) per annum, in addition to transcript and other fees allowed by law. The salary shall be paid out of the County General Fund in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as now provided by law. Said salary shall be paid monthly on approval of the Judge of such Court or the Commissioners Court of any such County.

Sec. 2. Repealed by Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 549, ch. 346, §2.

Sec. 3. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this Act be held invalid for any reason, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of the Act.

Sec. 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only.
Art. 2326h. Apportionment of Expenses and Salaries of Reporters Among Several Counties

In each Judicial District in this State in which the terms of Court do not operate on a continuous term basis and in which there is more than one county, the salaries and expenses of the official Court reporter shall be paid by the respective counties as provided herein. Each of the counties within such District shall pay that portion of the expenses and salaries of the official Court reporter which the population of the county, according to the last preceding Federal Census, bears to the total population of the counties comprising the Judicial District.

Art. 2326i. Salaries of Official Shorthand Reporters for Counties Having Six to Nine District Courts

Sec. 1. In any county in this State which now or hereafter in itself constitutes a judicial district, and in which county a total of not less than six (6) and not more than nine (9) permanent District Courts, including Civil and Criminal District Courts, have been or shall be hereafter created, the salaries of the official shorthand reporters shall be Forty-eight Hundred Dollars ($4800) per annum, in addition to transcript and other fees allowed by law. Such salaries shall be paid out of the County General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or the Officers Salary Fund, in twelve (12) equal monthly installments on approval of the Judge of the Court in which the service is rendered.

Sec. 2. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase, or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

Art. 2326j. Shorthand Reporter for 16th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Cooke and Denton, or the Judge of the Judicial District of which the Counties of Cooke and Denton are a part thereof, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such district in the manner now provided for district courts in this State; who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than Forty-eight Hundred Dollars ($4800) per annum, nor more than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial District composed of the Counties of Cooke and Denton, or by the District Judge of which the Counties of Cooke and Denton are a part thereof, and said salary shall be in addition to transcript fees which shall not be more than Thirty Cents (30¢) per one hundred (100) words, and said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for traveling and hotel expenses as now provided by Chapter 56, House Bill No. 276, Acts, Regular Session of the Forty-first Legislature, 1929, which allowances, as now provided by law, are fixed and established as a part of this Act. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts, by the respective counties of the Judicial District in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the Judicial District.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise; and the transcript fees and allowances for traveling and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise.
Art. 2326j-1. Appointment and Compensation of Reporters for 10th, 56th and 122nd Judicial Districts

The judges of the 10th, 56th, and 122nd Judicial Districts of Texas, composed entirely of the County of Galveston, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his respective Judicial District in the manner now provided for district courts in this State; who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Each of said official shorthand reporters shall receive an annual salary of not less than the amount paid such person annually on the effective date of this Act, nor more than Twenty thousand, Four hundred Dollars ($20,400.00) per annum, and said salary to be fixed and determined by the judges of the Fifty-third, Ninety-eighth and One Hundred Twenty-sixth District Courts of Travis County and the judges of the Criminal District Court of Travis County, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of fact and all other fees. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the district judges of said respective courts shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the County Commissioners Court. From and after passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporters as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the district judges of the Fifty-third, Ninety-eighth and One Hundred Twenty-sixth District Courts of Travis County and the Criminal District Court of Travis County and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-3a. Appointment and Compensation of Reporters for District Courts of Travis County

The judges of the District Courts of Travis County shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his respective judicial district court or district court in the manner now provided for district courts in this State, who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law, and whose salary shall be fixed and determined by the district judges of said respective courts, shall be paid monthly out of the general fund or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Court. From and after the effective date of this Act, all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporters as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the district judges of the District Courts of Travis County, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of fact and all other fees. Said salary, when so fixed and determined by the district judges of said respective courts, shall be paid monthly out of the general fund or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Court. From and after the effective date of this Act, all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporters as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the judges of the District Courts of Travis County, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-18. Compensation of Reporters for 64th and 154th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. From and after the passage of this Act the Official Shorthand Reporter for the 154th Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Lamb, Bailey and Parmer, and the Official Shorthand Reporter for the 64th Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Hale, Swisher and Castro, shall receive a salary of not less than Six Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($6,600) per annum, nor more than Nine Thousand Dollars ($9,000) per annum, which shall be determined, fixed and set in each of said Districts by the respective Judges thereof; and from and after the time that said Judges, or either of them, shall have entered an Order in the Minutes of the Court, in each County of said District, which Order shall be a public record and open for inspection, stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid to said reporter, and shall have filed a copy of said Order with each Commissioners Court of the District, the salary so determined, fixed and set shall be paid monthly, by and in the proportion for each County of the District as provided by law, out of the General Fund, or out of the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act, all provisions of the law relating to the appointment, qualifications and duties of Official Shorthand Reporters in this State, and as to allowances to them of transcript fees and hotel and traveling expense, shall govern, save and except that when the salary of the Official Shorthand Reporter for either the 154th Judicial District or the 64th Judicial District shall have been determined, fixed and set by the Judge of either said District, in the manner and within the amount limits as in this Act provided, said salary shall be paid to said Official Shorthand Reporter as in this Act provided, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-18a. Appointment and Compensation of Reporter for 64th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The judge of the 64th Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Hale, Swisher and Castro, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such District in the manner now provided for District Courts in this state who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not more than Thirteen Thousand Dollars ($13,000.00) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 64th Judicial District, composed of the Counties of Hale, Swisher and Castro, with the approval of the Commissioners Courts, and said salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees, fees for statement of facts, and all other fees as now provided by law. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts, by the respective counties of the Judicial District in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the Judicial District.

Sec. 2. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

Sec. 3. Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties, not to exceed Eight Dollars ($8.00) per day for the hotel bills, and not to exceed ten cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county out of the General Fund.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge and not otherwise, and the allowances for traveling, meals and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-20. Compensation of Reporter for 29th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The Court Reporter of the 29th Judicial District of Texas shall receive a salary of not less than $4,800 per annum and not more than $12,000 per annum as fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 29th Judicial District Court, and shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of each of the counties comprising the 29th Judicial District of Texas in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the 29th Judicial District, or in the proportion for each county of the 29th Judicial District as provided by law.

Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling, meals and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties; such expenses will be paid by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county out of the General Fund.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge and not otherwise, and the allowances for traveling, meals and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-19. Compensation of Reporter for 29th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The Court Reporter of the 29th Judicial District of Texas shall receive a salary of not less than $4,800 per annum and not more than $12,000 per annum as fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 29th Judicial District Court, and shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of each of the counties comprising the 29th Judicial District of Texas in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the 29th Judicial District, or in the proportion for each county of the 29th Judicial District as provided by law.

Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling, meals and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties; such expenses will be paid by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county out of the General Fund.

Art. 2326j-25. Appointment and Compensation of Reporters for 92nd, 93rd, 139th and 111th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. The Judges of the District Courts of the Ninety-second, Ninety-third and One Hundred Thirty-ninth Judicial Districts of Texas, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his respective judicial district in the manner now provided for District Courts in this state who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not more than Eight Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($8,500.00) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the judges of the Ninety-second, Ninety-third and One Hundred Thirty-ninth District Courts of Hidalgo County, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statement of fact and all other fees. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the district judges of said respective courts shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the County Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County, Texas. From and after passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in District Courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salaries of such official shorthand reporters for the 92nd, 93rd, and 139th Judicial Districts of Texas shall be fixed and determined as provided in this Act.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act, all provisions of law now existing, relating to the appointment of such official shorthand reporters, their qualifications and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salaries of such official shorthand reporters for the 92nd, 93rd, and 139th Judicial Districts of Texas shall be fixed and determined as provided in this Act.

Art. 2326j-25b. Compensation of Reporter for 111th Judicial District

The Official Court Reporter of the 111th Judicial District of Texas shall receive a salary not to exceed $12,000 per annum, the amount to be determined by the Judge of the 111th Judicial District Court, in addition to the compensation for transcription fees as provided by law. The salary shall be paid monthly upon approval of the Judge of the 111th Judicial District Court, and shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Webb County, Texas. The salary shall be payable out of the general fund, officers salary fund, the jury fund, or any fund available for that purpose.

Art. 2326j-26. Compensation of Reporters for 135th and 24th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. The official shorthand reporter for the 135th Judicial District and the official shorthand reporter for the 24th Judicial District shall each receive a salary of not less than Six Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($6,600.00) nor more than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00) per annum, in addition to the compensation for transcription fees as provided by law. Such reasonable salary shall be determined, fixed and set by the Judge of said Judicial District; and from and after that time that said Judge shall have entered an order in the minutes of the court, which order shall be a public record and open for inspection, stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid to said reporter, and shall have filed a copy of said order with the Commissioners Court of Webb County, the salary so determined, fixed and set shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or out of the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose.

Art. 2326j-25a. Compensation of Reporters for 92nd, 93rd and 139th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. From and after the passage of this Act, the official shorthand reporters for the 92nd, 93rd, and 139th Judicial Districts of Texas shall each receive a salary not to exceed $11,500 per annum, which salary shall be determined, fixed, and set by the presiding judge of each such judicial district; and such salary compensation shall be in addition to transcript fees or fees of any character now authorized by law to be paid to official shorthand reporters.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act, all provisions of law now existing, relating to the appointment of such official shorthand reporters, their qualifications and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salaries of such official shorthand reporters for the 92nd, 93rd, and 139th Judicial Districts of Texas shall be fixed and determined as provided in this Act.

Separate provisions for compensation of the reporters for the 92nd, 93rd and 139th Judicial districts were enacted by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1132, ch. 378, and incorporated into art. 2326j-25b.
to be paid to the official shorthand reporter of the district and shall have filed a copy of such order with each Commissioners Court of the district, the salary so determined, fixed, and set shall be paid monthly, by and in proportion for each county of the district as provided by law, out of the general fund, or out of the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose; provided, however, that the Commissioners Court of each county shall have the discretion to determine whether or not said county shall contribute its proportion of any salary in­crease authorized by this Act. Such order of each district judge shall be a public record and open for inspection.

Sec. 2. All provisions of the law relating to the appointment, qualifications and duties of official shorthand reporters in this state, and as to allowances to them of transcript fees and hotel and traveling expenses, shall govern, but when the salary of the official shorthand reporter for the 135th Judicial District and the salary of the official shorthand reporter for the 24th Judicial District shall have been determined, fixed, and set as provided herein, such salary shall be paid to such official shorthand reporters as provided in this Act, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-27. Compensation of Reporter for 59th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The judge of the 59th Judicial District of Texas, composed of Collin and Grayson Counties, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such district in the manner now provided for district courts in this state; who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than Sixty-six Hundred Dollars ($6,600) per annum, nor more than Nine Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($9,600) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 59th Judicial District composed of Collin and Grayson Counties, and said salary shall be in addition to transcript fees. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts of Collin and Grayson Counties.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-28. Compensation of Reporters for 103rd, 107th and 138th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. The official shorthand reporters of the 103rd, 107th, and 138th Judicial Districts of Texas are authorized to receive a salary of not more than Eight Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($8,500) per annum and all other compensation now provided by law to be paid official shorthand reporters, the specific amount of such salary to be fixed by the district judges of the judicial districts.

Sec. 2. The salary of the official shorthand reporter shall be paid in equal monthly installments by the counties composing such judicial district in accordance with the proportion that the population of each county bears to the total population of the judicial district as shown by the last preceding federal census. Such salaries may be paid out of the general fund, the jury fund or any other fund lawfully available for such purpose.

Sec. also, article 2326j-72.

Art. 2326j-29. Appointment and Compensation of Reporter for 31st Judicial District

Sec. 1. The judge of the 31st Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such District in the manner now provided for District Courts in this state who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than Seventy-five Hundred Dollars ($7,500.00) per annum, nor more than Ten Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($10,500.00) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 31st Judicial District, composed of the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts, and said salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees, fees for statements of fact, and all other fees as now provided by law. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts, by the respective counties of the Judicial District in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the Judicial District.

Sec. 2. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

Sec. 3. Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties, not to exceed Eight Dollars ($8.00) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed ten cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the General Fund of the county upon the sworn statement of the reporter approved by the judge, provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter more than Twelve Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,250.00) in any one year under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise; and the transcript fees and allowances for traveling and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-30. Compensation of Reporter for 75th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The official shorthand reporter for the 75th Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Liberty and Chambers, shall receive a salary of not more than $13,000 per annum, which shall be determined, fixed and set by the Judge of said District, with the approval of the Commissioners Court of each of the counties comprising the 75th Judicial District, and from and after the time that said Judge shall have entered an order in the minutes of the Court in each county of said District, which shall be a public record and open for inspection; stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid said reporter, and shall have filed a copy of said order with each Commissioners Court of the District, the salary so determined and approved, fixed and set, shall be paid monthly, by and in the proportion for each County of the District as provided by law, out of the General Fund, or out of the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose.

Sec. 2. All provisions of the law relating to the appointment, qualifications and duties of official shorthand reporters in the State, and as to allowances to them of transcript fees and hotel and traveling expenses, shall govern, save and except that when the salary of the official shorthand reporter for the 75th Judicial District shall have been determined, fixed and set by the Judge of said District, in the manner and within the amount limits, as in this Act provided, said salary shall be paid to said official shorthand reporter as in this Act provided, and not otherwise.

Nueces County, Texas, with any amount in excess of Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200) to be subject to the consent and approval of the commissioners court of Nueces County, Texas; and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of facts and all other fees.

Sec. 2. Where any of said Judicial Districts include more than one county, the salary of the official shorthand reporter for such Judicial Districts shall be paid by the counties composing such Judicial Districts in accordance with the proportion that the population of each county bears to the total population of the Judicial District as shown by the last preceding Federal Census. Such salaries shall be paid in equal monthly installments, and may be paid out of the general fund or any other fund available for such purpose as may be determined by the county commissioners court.

Sec. 3. From and after passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in District Courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporters for the 117th, 94th, 28th and 105th Judicial Districts of Texas, and the Court of Domestic Relations, County Court at Law No. 1 and County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas, shall be fixed and determined as provided in this Act.

Art. 2326j–36. Compensation of Reporters for 124th and 188th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. The official shorthand reporters for the 124th and 188th Judicial Districts of Texas shall receive a salary of not more than $12,000 per annum, said salary to be fixed, determined, and set by the Judges of the 124th and 188th Judicial Districts respectively and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of facts, and all other fees. From and after the time that said respective District Judges shall have entered an order in the minutes of said court, which order shall be a public record and open for inspection, stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid to said reporters, and shall have filed a copy of said order with the Commissioners Court of Gregg County, the salary so determined, fixed and set by majority vote of the Commissioners Court, shall be paid monthly out of the general fund or the jury fund or any fund available for the purpose.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act, all provisions of the law relating to the appointment, qualifications, and duties of official shorthand reporters in this State, and as to allowances to them of transcript fees and hotel and traveling expense, shall govern, except that when the salary of the official shorthand reporters for the District Courts of Gregg County shall have been determined in the maner and within the limits prescribed by this Act, said salary shall be paid to said official shorthand reporters as provided in this Act, and not otherwise.

Sec. 1. The respective judges of the 17th, 48th, 67th, 96th, 141st and 153rd Judicial District Courts; the respective judges of Criminal District Courts No. 1, No. 2, No. 3 and No. 4; the judge of the County Court at Law; and, the respective judges of the County Criminal Courts No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3, in Tarrant County, Texas, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for each of such courts. The judges of the Courts of Domestic Relations Nos. 1, No. 2, No. 3 and No. 4, in Tarrant County, Texas, shall appoint a total of three official shorthand reporters for such courts; if the said judges of the Courts of Domestic Relations fail to agree upon any appointment within 30 days after a vacancy occurs, the juvenile board shall have authority to appoint a court reporter for said Courts of Domestic Relations. A bailiff shall be designated by the sheriff of Tarrant County to serve the court as in other courts of the county. Such appointments shall be evidenced by an order entered on the minutes of each such court. Such appointment, when once made, shall continue in effect from year to year, unless otherwise ordered by the judge(s) of such court(s). Each salary compensation of such reporter serving in each of said court(s) shall be not more than Sixteen Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($16,500.00) per annum, and the amount of such salary compensation shall be determined, fixed and the payment thereof authorized by the judge(s) of each respective court(s) within the maximum amount herein provided, and such salary compensation shall be paid semimonthly out of the General Fund, Officers Salary Fund, or out of any appropriate fund available for such purpose, as shall be determined by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act, all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters as provided in Article 2324, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 290, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, shall in all respects govern; except the salary compensation to the official shorthand reporters as provided in this Act shall be determined, fixed and the payment thereof authorized by the Judge of each such court, and not otherwise.

Sec. 3. In any Act or statute passed by any previous session of the Legislature of this State wherein the salary compensation of any reporter in any other court than those named in this Act has been fixed by reference to salary compensation of any official shorthand reporter or reporters of courts named in this Act, such reference shall be deemed to apply to and be governed by the statutes in existence at the time of the passage of the Act named in such reference, and the provisions of this Act shall, in no way serve to affect, increase, or decrease the salary of any reporter or reporters so fixed by reference in any previous legislative sessions. The purpose and intent of this Act is to fix and delineate the salary compensation of the official shorthand reporters of the courts herein specifically named and none other.

See, now, article 2326j-53a.

Art. 2326j-53a. Appointment and Compensation of Reporter for 84th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The Judge of the 84th Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Hansford, Hutchinson and Ochiltree, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such District in the manner now provided for District Courts in this state who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not more than Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 84th Judicial District, composed of the Counties of Hansford, Hutchinson and Ochiltree, and said salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees, fees for statements of fact, and all other fees as now provided by law. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts, by the respective counties of the Judicial District in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the Judicial District.

Sec. 2. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

Sec. 3. Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties, not to exceed Eight Dollars ($8.00) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed ten cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expenses incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the General Fund of the county upon the sworn statement of the reporter approved by the judge, provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter more than Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) in any one year under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage of this Act, all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise; and the transcript fees and allowances for traveling and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326l. Shorthand Reporters for District Courts and County Courts at Law in Counties of 613,000 or More Population

Sec. 1. In all counties in the State of Texas having a population of six hundred and thirteen thousand (613,000) or more, according to the 1950 census, the Judge of each District Court, civil or criminal, and the Judge of each County Court at Law, civil or criminal, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court. Said appointment shall be evidenced by an order entered in the minutes of each such court. Such appointment, when once made, shall continue in effect from year to year, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge of the Court in which such reporter serves. The compensation of such reporters shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court after the recommendation of the Commissioners Court and the recommendation of the general fund, the officers' salary fund, or out of such other fund as may be available for the purpose. The salaries of such reporters shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of fact and other fees.

Sec. 2. A certified copy of the order appointing such reporter and the recommendation of the Judge as to the salary to be paid such reporter shall be transmitted to the Commissioners Court of such counties, who shall annually make provision for the payment of any such salary out of the general fund, the officers' salary fund, or out of such other fund as may be available for the purpose. The salaries of such reporters shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of fact and other fees.

Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict; but nothing contained herein shall be construed to repeal Articles 2326a, 2326h, 2327a-1 and 2326c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The last four mentioned Articles shall remain in full force and effect.

Saved From Repeal

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2119, ch. 723, § 3, provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed to repeal this article and that this article shall remain in full force and effect. See article 2326o, § 3.

Art. 2326l-2. Shorthand Reporters for District Courts and County Courts at Law in Counties of 650,000 to 900,000

In all counties in the State of Texas having a population of not less than six hundred and fifty thousand (650,000) nor more than nine hundred thousand (900,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Judges of each District Court, civil or criminal, and the Judge of each County Court at Law, civil or criminal, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court. Such appointment shall be evidenced by an order entered on the minutes of each such court. Such appointment, when once made, shall continue in effect from year to year, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge of the Court in which such reporter serves. The compensation of such reporters shall be not less than Seventy-five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) nor more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) per annum; such compensation shall be determined, set, and allowed by the judge of such court or courts within such minimum and maximum compensation authorized hereby, in addition to compensation for transcript fees as provided by law; such compensation shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the General Fund, Officers Salary Fund, the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose, as may be determined by the commissioners of any such county, and shall be in addition to compensation for transcript fees as provided by law.

Art. 2326m. Shorthand Reporters for County Courts at Law in Counties of 360,000 to 612,000

In all counties in the State of Texas having a population of not less than three hundred sixty thousand ($360,000) nor more than six hundred twelve thousand ($612,000), according to the 1950 Federal Census, the Judge of each District Court, civil or criminal, and the Judge of each County Court at Law, civil or criminal, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court. Such appointment shall be evidenced by an order entered on the minutes of each such court. Such appointment, when once made, shall continue in effect from year to year, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge of the Court in which such reporter serves at not less than Seventy-five Hundred Dollars ($7500.00) nor more than Eighty-five Hundred Dollars ($8500.00) per annum; such compensation shall be determined, set, and allowed by the judge of such court or courts within such minimum and maximum compensation authorized hereby, in addition to compensation for transcript fees as provided by law; such compensation shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the General Fund, Officers Salary Fund, the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of any such county, and shall be in addition to compensation for transcript fees as provided by law.

Art. 2326o. Shorthand Reporters for Counties of 1,500,000 or More; Appointment and Compensation

Sec. 1. In all counties in the State of Texas having a population of 1,500,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the judge of each district court, and the judge of each county court at law, civil or criminal, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court. The compensation of such reporters shall be fixed by the judge of the court in which such reporter serves at not less than Eight Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($8,500.00) per annum and not more than Sixteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($16,500.00) per annum, in addition to compensation for transcripts, statement of facts and other fees. The appointment of each such court reporter and his annual salary as fixed by the judge of the court in which such court reporter serves, shall be evidenced by an order entered in the minutes of each such court, which appointment and the salary so fixed shall continue in effect from year to year unless and until changed by order of the judge of the court in which such court reporter serves.

Sec. 2. A certified copy of the order appointing such reporter and fixing his salary shall be transmitted to the commissioners courts of such counties, who shall annually make provision for the payment thereof, out of the general fund, the officers' salary fund, or out of such other fund as may be available for the purpose. The salaries of such reporters shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statement of facts and other fees.

Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict; but nothing contained herein shall be construed to repeal articles 2326a, 2327a-1, 2326c and 2326l-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The last five mentioned articles shall remain in full force and effect.

Art. 2327. In County Court

When either party to a civil case pending in the county court or county court at law applies therefor, the judge thereof shall appoint a competent stenographer, if one be present, to report the oral testimony given in such case. Such stenographer shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive not less than five dollars per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil cases tried in said courts, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in district courts and the use of same on appeal, shall apply to civil cases tried in said courts.

Art. 2327a-1. Apportionment of Reporter's Salary Among Counties

Where any Judicial District in this State is composed of more than one county, and the District Court thereof has successive terms in either of such counties throughout the year, without more than two (2) days intervening between any of such terms, the salary of the official shorthand reporter of such District shall be paid by the several counties of the District, the same to be apportioned among such counties in proportion to their population according to the latest United States decennial census; provided that where such county is in two (2) different Judicial Districts, either one of which is composed of more than one county, in calculating such county's proportion of liability for the salary of the official shorthand reporter in any such District containing more than one county, such county's population shall be counted at one-half of its actual population as shown by the last preceding United States decennial census.

Art. 2327b-1. County Court Reporter for Counties of 22,100 to 22,500 Population

Sec. 1. In counties having a population of not less than twenty-two thousand, one hundred (22,100) and not more than twenty-two thousand, five hundred (22,500), according to the last preceding Federal Census, there shall be and there is hereby created and established the office of Court Reporter of the County Court; such office to be called and known as the Official Court Reporter of the County Court.

Sec. 2. In said counties the Judge of the County Court shall have the power to appoint an Official Court Reporter for the County Court, who shall possess the same qualifications, perform the same duties as are now required of Court Reporters of the District Court, and who shall hold the office of Court
Reporter of the County Court for a term of two
(2) years from the date of such appointment, or until his successor shall be appointed and qualified.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the Commissioners Court of the county wherein such appointment is made shall approve the person appointed by the Judge of the County Court of said county.

Sec. 4. Said Official Court Reporter of such county shall be paid a salary of not to exceed Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1200) per year, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, on the first of each month during the year, out of the Jury Fund of the county. The amount of salary to be paid said Official Court Reporter shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of such county.

Art. 2327c. Shorthand Reporters for County Courts at Law and County Criminal Courts in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to counties of this State which now have, or which may hereafter have, two (2) or more County Courts at Law and one (1) or more County Criminal Courts.

Sec. 2. The Judge of each County Court at Law and of each County Criminal Court shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for the respective Court over which he presides, who shall be skilled in such profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold such office at the pleasure of the Court, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the County
Judges, and for Certain Judges of Probate

Courts at Law and County Criminal

Courts shall not be required to take testimony in cases where neither party litigant nor the Judge demands it; but, where the testimony is taken by the said reporter a fee of Three Dollars ($3) shall be taxed by the Clerk as costs in the case; said Three Dollars ($3) when collected, to be paid into the Treasury of the county in which said Court is located.

Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

Sec. 4. Should any portion of this Act be declared invalid, the same shall not invalidate the remaining portions of said Act.

Sec. 5. The County Judge, the County Auditor, the Commissioners Court, and any other officials charged with the preparation and approval of the county budget, are authorized to amend and shall amend the budget of such county, as come within this Act, to provide for the payment of the compensation and salaries provided for official court reporters autho-ized by this Act.

amended by Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 1017,
ch. 418, § 2.

Art. 2327d. Shorthand Reporters for County
Judges and for Certain Judges of Probate

Court

Sec. 1. For the purpose of preserving a record of all hearings had before the County Judge of the counties of Texas, for the information of the Court and parties that may be interested therein, the Judge of the County Courts of Texas may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the County Judge, and all provisions of the Civil Statutes of the State of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for District Courts shall apply, in so far as applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed by the County Judge of the County Courts of Texas, and such shorthand reporter shall receive a salary not to exceed Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200) anually to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the County Treasury of the vari-cous counties upon order of the Commissioners Court. Provided, that in counties having a population of not less than five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any future Federal Census, there may be paid to the official shorthand reporter for the County Court of such county a salary to be fixed by the County Judge and approved by the Commissioners Court not to exceed Five Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($5,500) per annum, payable in equal monthly installments, in addition to compensation for transcript fees as provided by law, such salary to be paid out of the Officer's Salary Fund of such county.

Sec. 1A. For the purpose of preserving a record of all hearings had before the County Judge or any Judge of a Probate Court in counties having a population of not less than one million five hundred thousand (1,500,000) according to the last preceding federal census, or any future federal census, the County Judge or any Judge of a Probate Court in such counties may elect to appoint an official shorthand reporter in any case pending before any of such courts. The official shorthand reporter so appointed shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold office for the duration of the case in which he was appointed to serve. The County Judge or the Judge of the Probate Courts of such counties shall set the compensation to be paid to the official shorthand reporter appointed in such courts, and such compensation shall be in addition to compensation for transcript fees as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the General Fund of such counties.

4. MANDAMUS

Art. 2328. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

5. CIVIL JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Art. 2328a. Civil Judicial Council

Creation; Purposes

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the Texas Civil Judicial Council for the continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the civil judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts, and methods for its improvement; provided that the Council also may make such statistical and other investigations concerning the criminal judicial system of the State as hereinafter stipulated.

Classes of Members

Sec. 2. The Council shall be composed of two classes of members, one designated as ex officio, and the other as appointive.

Ex Officio Members

Sec. 3. The ex officio members of the Council shall consist of the following:

(1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Chief Justice;

(2) two Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals, to be designated by the Governor for overlapping four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years;

(3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, to be designated by the Governor for four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term, with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years;

(4) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; and

(5) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may from time to time designate some other Justice of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The foregoing references to justices and judges other than the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, include respectively such retired justices and judges of the same grade as are legally eligible for assignment to part-time judicial duties. In the event of the Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee or the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee is reappointed to such position, his immediate predecessor shall continue to serve on the Council as immediate past Chairman, it being the intent of the Legislature that two members of the Senate and two members of the House be at all times members of the Council; provided, however, that in the case of legislative members, cessation of membership in the Legislature shall not terminate their membership on the Council, but they shall continue to serve for their full term notwithstanding their cessation of membership in the Legislature. In the event of a vacancy in a legislative membership, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term only by the presiding officer of the appropriate house of the Legislature, and vacancies in other official memberships shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment and for the unexpired term only. Ex officio members of the Council shall be entitled to all the privileges of full membership thereon and shall be regarded and treated in every respect as full members thereon.

Appointive Members; Tenure; Quorum

Sec. 4. The appointive members of the Council shall consist of nine resident citizens of the State of Texas, seven of whom shall be members of the State Bar of Texas and two of whom shall be persons not licensed to practice law, including at least one who is by profession a journalist. The Governor of Texas shall select the appointive members of the Council for six-year overlapping terms, three to be appointed to serve until July 1, 1975, three to serve until July 1, 1977, and three to serve until July 1, 1979, and thereafter their successors shall be appointed for terms of six years; provided that appointive members of the Council holding office on the effective date of this Act shall continue in office for the balance of the term to which they were appointed, and their successors shall be selected in the manner and for the term herein provided. Vacancies in the appointive membership of the Council shall be filled by appointment of the Governor for the unexpired term only.

All members of the Council shall continue to serve until their successors have been appointed and qualified.
Five members of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the Council.

Duties of Council

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Council:

1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the civil courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the civil judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the civil courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expeditcd, and justice better administered.

2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of civil justice.

3. To formulate methods for simplifying civil judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of civil judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of civil justice.

4. To gather civil judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.

5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable. All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of civil justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.

7. To hold one meeting in each calendar year, and such other meetings as may be ordered by the Council or under its authority, and at such time and place as may be designated by it or under its authority; provided, that the first meeting of said Council shall be held prior to October 6, 1929, upon call of its president.

Powers of Council

Sec. 6. The Council shall have power:

1. To hold public meetings or hearings, by and through committees of three or more of its members, require the production of books and documents, require reports from the several courts of this State, including courts not of record, as may be deemed necessary, to administer oaths and take testimony.

For the purposes of any hearing, any Council officer, in advance of such hearing, or any Council member or officer sitting at such hearing, may issue under his official signature and cause to be served by registered or certified mail or by any adult person upon any prospective witness, a subpoena or like appropriate order. Upon the failure of a witness to testify, or upon his failure to appear or to produce books and documents as so ordered, any district judge of the county of residence of such witness shall, on written motion by, or on behalf of, the Council or Committee conducting said hearing, compel said witness to testify or, as the case may be, to appear and testify, by the same means, including attachment and penalties, whereby said judge may compel the testimony and appearance of witnesses in the trial of a cause pending in his own court.

2. To elect from its membership a president and such other officers as it may deem advisable; provided the secretary need not be a member of the Council; and provided further that the president of the Council may appoint, for and during his term as president, such committees as he may deem necessary for the proper organization of the Council.

3. To make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient for its government and that of its officers and committees; and to prescribe the duties of its officers and committees.

4. To appoint committees from its membership, and charge such committees with such of its duties and delegate to such committees such of its powers as it may deem proper.

5. To require the supplying of statistical data and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the civil and criminal business transacted by the courts of this State and other information pertaining to their conduct and operation; and to prescribe procedures and forms for the supplying of such statistical data and other information.

It shall be an official duty of every justice, judge, clerk or other officer of every court of this State to comply with the reasonable requirements of the Council for the supplying of statistical data appertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by his court and of such other information concerning said court or the office of the clerk thereof as may be within the scope of the functions of the Council. Failure to supply such data or information within a reasonable time after request therefor shall be presumptively deemed a willful refusal to supply the same.

Due performance of the duty to supply data and information as aforesaid shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus, the corresponding actions for which shall be brought, and the corresponding courts shall have jurisdiction of the same, as follows: if against a district clerk or a clerk, judge or other officer of a trial court other than a district court, in a district court of the county of residence of the respondent; if against a district judge or clerk of a court of civil appeals, in the Court of Civil Appeals for the Supreme Judicial District in which the respondent resides; in all other cases, in the Supreme Court of Texas. The Attorney General of Texas shall file and prosecute the foregoing actions on behalf of the Council upon its written request, which shall be presumptively taken as the action of the Council if signed by its president or by as many as five of its members; but no such action shall be filed if the attorney general shall in writing certify his opinion that the same is without merit.

Compensation Limited to Traveling and Necessary Expenses

Sec. 7. No member of the Council shall receive any compensation for his services as such member, but shall be paid for actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties as such member, to be paid upon verified, itemized account approved by the President of the Council or by a Vice President thereof when so authorized in writing by the President. The necessary clerical expenses of the Council and its officers and committees shall be paid in like manner.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 8. If any section or portion of any section of this Act shall for any reason be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other section or portion of section of this Act.

6. ENFORCEMENT OF SUPPORT

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1458, ch. 543, repealing this article, enacts Title 2 of the Texas Family Code.

See, now, Family Code, § 21.01 et seq.

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 650, ch. 276, also amended § 25 of this article to read:

"In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this State when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the defendant to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular: (a) To require the defendant to furnish a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the defendant.

(b) To require the defendant to make payments at specified intervals to the district clerk or probation department of the court.

(c) To punish the defendant who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

(d) To order the defendant (obliger) to pay as court costs a reasonable fee to any attorney or to the prosecuting attorney's office who represents the petitioner in any enforcement proceeding."

Art. 2328a TITLe 42 1496

Art. 2338. Contributing to Delinquency of Child.

When any person is an habitual drunkard or an addict to cocaine, morphine or other narcotics, and in all cases where a child is caused to become a delinquent child or a dependent and neglected child under the age of seventeen years, whether previously convicted or not, the parent, guardian or person having the custody of, or the person responsible for such child, habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, or any person who by any act encourages, causes, acts in conjunction with, or contributes to the delinquency, dependency or the neglect of such child, habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, or who shall in any manner cause, encourage, act in conjunction with or contribute to the delinquency, dependency or the neglect of any such child under the age of seventeen years, or habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, shall be fined not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year, or both. By the term “delinquency” as used herein is also meant any act which tends to debase or injure the morals, health or welfare of such child, habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, and includes drinking intoxicating liquor, the use of narcotics, going into or remaining in any bawdy house, assignation house, disorderly house, or road house, hotel, public dance hall where prostitutes, gamblers or thieves are permitted to enter and ply their trade, going into a place where intoxicating liquors or narcotics are kept, drunk, used or sold, or associating with thieves and immoral persons, or cause them to leave home or to leave the custody of their parents or guardian or persons standing in lieu thereof without first receiving their consent or against their will, or who by undue influence, cause such habitual drunkard or narcotic addict to unlawfully cohabit with any person known to them to be an habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, and any other act which would constitute such a child a delinquent or cause it to become a delinquent by committing such act. The fact that a child has not been declared a delinquent child or a neglected or dependent child, as defined by the Statutes of this State, shall not be a defense under this Act.

Repeal
Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 924, ch. 500, also defined the offense of contributing to delinquency of child and prescribed the punishment therefor. Section 3 of such Act expressly repealed this article to the extent of conflict. See article 2338-1b.

Art. 2338-1b. Contributing to Delinquency of Child or Acting in Conjunction with Child

Sec. 1. In all cases where any child shall be a delinquent, dependent or neglected child, as defined in the statutes of this State, irrespective of whether any former proceedings have been had to determine the status of such child, the parent or parents, legal guardian, or any person having such custody of such child, or any other person or persons who shall by any act encourage, cause or contribute to the dependency of delinquency of such child, or who acts in conjunction with such child in the acts which cause such child to be dependent or delinquent, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine not exceeding Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six (6) months, or by both fine and imprisonment; provided, however, that the court in which the case is heard may suspend the sentence for violation of the provisions of this Act, and imposed conditions upon the defendant as to his future conduct, and may make such suspensions dependent upon the fulfillment by the defendant of such conditions; and in case of the breach of such conditions or any part of them, the court may impose sentence as though there had been no such suspension. The court may also as a condition of such suspension, require a bond in such sum as the court may designate, to be approved by the Judge requiring it, to secure the performance by such person of the conditions placed by the court on such suspension; the bond by its terms shall be made payable to the County Judge of the county in which the prosecution is pending, and any money received from a breach of any of the provisions of the bond shall be paid into the County Treasury. The provisions of law regulating forfeiture of appearance bonds shall govern so far as they are applicable. Exclusive jurisdiction of the offense defined in this Act is hereby conferred on Juvenile Courts, in accordance with the provisions of law establishing such courts.

Sec. 2. By the term "delinquency," as used in this Act, is meant any act which tends to base or injure morals, health or welfare of a child, drinking intoxicating liquor, the use of narcotics, going into or remaining in any bawdy house, assignation house, disorderly house or roadhouse, hotel, public dance hall, or other gathering place where prostitutes, gamblers or thieves are permitted to enter and ply their trade, going into a place where intoxicating liquors or narcotics are kept, drunk, used, sold or given away, or associating with thieves and immoral persons, or enticing a minor to leave home or to leave the custody of its parents, guardians or persons standing in lieu thereof, without first receiving the consent of the parent, guardian or other person, in addition to all of the other acts which any other laws now in effect define to be delinquency or which create any child a delinquent.

Sec. 3. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to repeal or affect any other statutes regulating the powers and duties of Juvenile Courts; but Article 834 of the Penal Code, as amended,1 is expressly repealed insofar as it conflicts herewith.

1 Transferred to article 2338-1a.

Art. 2338-2. Designation of District Court as Juvenile Court in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. In counties having ten (10) or more District Courts, either temporary or permanent, and having a Juvenile Board composed of District Judges and the County Judge of said county, such Juvenile Board shall designate one (1) of the District Courts to be the Juvenile Court of such county and may change the designation of such Juvenile Court from time to time when in the opinion of the Juvenile Board the best interest of the people require it.

Provided, however, the Juvenile Board of any county having a population of eight hundred and six thousand (806,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census, may designate one or more District Courts, or one or more Courts of Domestic Relations, or the County Court, or one or more of both of such District Courts and Courts of Domestic Relations, or one or more of such District Courts, Courts of Domestic Relations and County Court or any combination thereof, as Juvenile Courts of such county, with all the rights and authority and subject to the same terms and restrictions as provided in this Act; provided, however, that the Juvenile Board of any county having a population of eight hundred and six thousand (806,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census, may make such new designation or designations as to it shall seem proper without reference to the provision of Section 4, requiring a new designation within any particular period of time, it being the legislative intent that the matter of designation of one or more Juvenile Courts in any such county be within the discretion of the Juvenile Board of such county.

Sec. 2. Such Juvenile Courts shall give preference to child delinquency, dependency, neglect, support, change of custody and adoption, and to contempt proceedings growing out of or ancillary to such cases, and all other District Courts in such counties may from time to time transfer to such District Court as has been designated as the Juvenile Court of such county all such cases on their dockets.

Sec. 3. Immediately after the designation of a Juvenile Court for each county, as herein provided for, the Clerks of the Courts of such counties shall transfer all cases of juvenile delinquency on their dockets to the docket of the Juvenile Court so designated, under the direction of the Judges of said courts, and thereafter all cases of juvenile delinquency shall be filed in such Juvenile Courts.

In all counties having ten (10) or more district courts, in addition to cases of juvenile delinquency, all new cases of dependency, neglect, support, change of custody and adoption may be transferred to the docket of the Juvenile Court so designated under the direction of the Judges of said courts.

The jurisdiction, powers, and duties thus conferred upon the established courts hereunder are superadded jurisdiction, powers, and duties; it being the intention of the Legislature not to create hereby any additional offices.

Sec. 4. Pending the designation of Juvenile Courts under the provisions of this Act, all Juvenile Courts heretofore designated under the previous Law shall continue to function with all powers and jurisdiction heretofore vested in them; it being the intention of the Legislature, however, that the new designation shall be made in each county of the State within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 2338-2b. Referee for Juvenile and District Courts of Wichita County

Authority to Appoint Referee; Qualifications; Costs

Sec. 1. (a) The Judges of the Juvenile and District Courts of Wichita County are hereby authorized to appoint referees in civil cases as hereinafter provided.

(b) A referee shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be a citizen of this State. The compensation, if any, of the referee shall be found and taxed in the same manner as now provided by law for taxing costs in civil cases. The Judge of said Court shall determine if the parties litigant are able to defray the costs of the referee's compensation and where so found and determined, such costs shall be taxed as costs against the parties litigant. However, if such costs are not taxed against the parties litigant, then such compensation, if any, shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid out of the jury fund of Wichita County. No costs shall be taxed against said county where both or either of said parties litigant own real property in the State of Texas or are otherwise financially able to defray said costs.

Cases in which Referee may be Appointed by District Court

Sec. 2. Whenever the Judge of a District Court shall deem it advisable, he may appoint a referee and refer to said referee any civil case involving motions of contempt for failure or refusal to pay child support, temporary alimony, or separate maintenance; motions for failure or refusal to comply with court orders concerning visitation with children growing out of separate maintenance and divorce actions; motions for changes of child custody; motions for revision of child support payments; and motions for revision of visitation privileges.

Cases in which Referee may be Appointed by Juvenile Court

Sec. 3. Whenever the Judge sitting as a Juvenile Court shall deem it advisable, he may appoint a referee and refer to said referee any civil case before him involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected, or delinquent or any other matters over which the Juvenile Court is given exclusive jurisdiction.

Powers of Referee

Sec. 4. (a) In all such cases designated in Sections 2 and 3 of this Act, the Judge of the Juvenile or District Court may authorize the referee to hear evidence, to make findings of fact thereon, to formulate conclusions of law, and to recommend judgment and order in such cases. In all such cases referred to the referee, the order of reference may specify or limit the powers of the referee and may direct him to report only upon particular issues, or to do or perform particular acts; or to receive and report on evidence only, and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing hearings, and for filing reports.

(b) Subject to the limitations and specifications stated in the order, the referee shall have the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary and proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order.

He may require the production of evidence, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference. He shall have the authority to issue summons for the appearance of witnesses, and swear said witnesses for said hearing, and he may, himself, examine them. And said witness appearing before him and being duly sworn shall be subject to the penalty of perjury. If the witnesses, after being duly summoned, shall fail to appear, or having appeared, shall refuse to answer questions, then upon certification of such refusal to the referring Court, said Court shall have the power to issue attachment against such witnesses, and to fine and imprison them.

Transmittal of Papers; Notice of Findings

Sec. 5. Upon the conclusion of the hearing in each case, the referee shall transmit to the referring Judge all papers relating to the case, together with his findings and a statement that notice of his findings and of the right to a hearing before the Judge has been given to all adult principals, minors, or parents, guardians, or custodians of any minor whose case has been heard by the referee. This notice may be given at the hearing, or otherwise as the referring Court directs.

Adoption or Rejection of Referee's Report

Sec. 6. After it is filed, the referring court may adopt, modify, correct, reject, or reverse the referee's report, or recommit it for further information, as the Court may deem proper and necessary in the particular circumstances of the case. Where judgment has been recommended, the Court in its discretion may approve the recommendation and hear further evidence before rendition of judgment.

Hearing Before Referring Court; Request

Sec. 7. Adult principals, a minor child, his parents, guardians, or custodians are entitled to a hearing by the Judge of the referring Court if, within three days after receiving notice of the findings of the referee, they file a request with such Court for a hearing. The referring Court may allow such a hearing at any time.

Adoption of Findings and Recommendations

Sec. 8. In case no hearing before the Judge of the referring Court is requested, or when the right to such hearing is waived, the findings and recommendations of the referee become the decree of the Court when adopted by an order of the Judge.

Notice of Hearing

Sec. 9. Prior to the hearing by the referee the parties litigant shall be given due notice as provided by law of the time and place of such hearing.

Demand for Jury Trial

Sec. 10. In any proceeding where a jury trial has been demanded, the referee shall refer the case back to the referring Court for a full hearing before the Court and jury, subject to the usual rules of the Court in such cases. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1350, ch. 612.]

Art. 2338-2c. Juvenile Court for Hopkins County; Judge

Sec. 1. The judges of the district courts of Hopkins County and the county Judge of such county shall designate one of such district courts having a resident judge as the Juvenile Court for Hopkins County and the court so designated shall exercise such jurisdiction in addition to the duties now imposed upon such court by law; provided, however, that in the event neither of the judges of the district courts of such county is a resident of Hopkins County, the County Court of Hopkins County may be designated as the Juvenile Court of such county.

Sec. 2. The judge of the court so designated shall exercise the duties of Judge of the Juvenile Court of Hopkins County in addition to the duties now imposed upon him by law as District Judge or County Judge of Hopkins County.

Sec. 3. The judge designated as Judge of the Juvenile Court of Hopkins County, in addition to the compensation received as district judge or county judge, shall be paid a salary of not less than $2,400 nor more than $3,600 for his services as Judge of the Juvenile Court of Hopkins County, said additional salary to be set by the Commissioners Court of Hopkins County, and the salary so set shall be paid out of the General Fund of Hopkins County, the Salary Fund, or any fund available for the purpose, by the county in equal monthly installments. [Acts 1965, 61st Leg., p. 1592, ch. 486, eff. June 10, 1965.]

Art. 2338-3. Court of Domestic Relations for Potter County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Potter County, Texas.

Qualifications of Judge; Salary; Jurisdiction of Court

Sec. 2. (a) The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations hereby established shall have such qualifications as are fixed by the Juvenile Board herein provided for.

(b) The Court of Domestic Relations for Potter County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Potter County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, or of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Transfer of Cases

Sec. 3. The County Court of Potter County and the District Courts in Potter County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations any and all cases, in their respective courts in Potter County, Texas, of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

All writs and process issued by or out of a District or County Court prior to the time any case is transferred by either of said courts to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Duties of Clerk; Docket and Records

Sec. 4. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat of Potter County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Potter County shall also act as clerk for the Court of Domestic Relations and shall assume and perform all duties required by law of clerks of county and district courts as well as any other duties as may be assigned to him by the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations. The District Clerk shall immediately prepare a civil and criminal docket for such Court and shall docket thereon all cases and proceedings transferred to or filed in said Court. The clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County shall transfer all his records for said Court to the District Clerk of Potter County upon the effective date of this Act.

Juvenile Board

Sec. 5. There shall be a Juvenile Board of Potter County composed of the several District Judges of the District Courts of Potter County and the County Judge of Potter County, Texas. The members composing such Juvenile Board shall be paid additional compensation not to exceed One Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) per annum, to be determined by the Commissioners Court and to be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of such County by the Commissioners Court. The compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation provided or allowed by law for County and District Judges.

Election of Judge; Duties of Board; Special Judge

Sec. 6. (a) A Judge for the Court of Domestic Relations for Potter County shall be elected for a four (4) year term at the general election in November 1968 and every four (4) years thereafter.

(b) Said Judge shall be subject to removal from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the removal of county officers.

(c) Said Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations when deemed necessary or when sought by him, and cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court.

(d) In the event of the disqualification of the Judge to try a particular case, or because of the illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, said Juvenile Board shall select a special Judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof.

Boards and Officers to Furnish Services

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constables of Potter County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same service and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from district courts as required of them by law with reference to process and writs from district courts.

Juvenile Officers and Investigators; Reporter

Sec. 8. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint such juvenile officers, juvenile probation officers and investigators as might be deemed necessary to the proper administration of its jurisdiction in Potter County, provided such appointments are approved by the Commissioners Court of such county and shall also have authority to appoint a court reporter in such cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony, utilizing the services of the regular district court reporters and their assistants when possible, the salaries and compensation of such juvenile officers and court reporters to be determined and paid by the Commissioners Court of Potter County.

In all suits for divorce where it appears from the petition or otherwise that the parties
Art. 2338-3 TITLE 43

Complete investigation as to the necessities, discretion, may require any such juvenile officer or investigator to make a thorough and complete investigation as to the necessities, environment and surroundings of the child or children and of the disposition that should be made of such child or children, and to make report thereof to the Court and, if desired by the Court, to produce such evidence on any hearing in such case as may have been developed in connection with such examination.

Injunctions and Writs; Contempt

Sec. 9. The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by district courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Sessions of Court

Sec. 10. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified and remain in session until the first day of the following September and its terms shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 11. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from district and county courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice; Number of Jurors

Sec. 12. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Prosecution and Defense of Cases

Sec. 13. The County Attorney of Potter County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer or any other welfare agency is interested.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 15. If any Section, clause or part of this Act shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder thereof not held invalid shall remain in effect, and the validity of the remainder of this Act shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 2338-3a. Compensation of Judge and Clerk of Court of Domestic Relations for Potter County

Sec. 1. (a) After the effective date of this Act, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County may receive from the General Fund or Officers' Salary Fund of Potter County an annual salary equal to the salary allowed District Judges of Potter County under the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether paid from State or County funds.

(b) The Commissioners Court of Potter County shall determine the exact salary to be paid the Judge.

(c) The Commissioners Court shall pay the salary in equal monthly installments, drawn on the county treasurer on order of the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 1a. From and after the effective date of this Act the Clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County, Texas, shall receive the same salary as fixed by law for the District Clerk of Potter County, the same to be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments.

Art. 2338-4. Court of Domestic Relations for Lubbock County

Creation of Court; Adoption of Act

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Lubbock County, Texas. It is expressly provided that the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County enters an order adopting same.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Said Court of Domestic Relations shall have jurisdiction of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority, change of name of persons, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and all of divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights involved therein, as well as cases of child support, alimony pending final hearing and adjustment of property rights, as well as any and all other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings; and all other cases of domestic relations involving justiciable controversies and differences between parents or between them and their minor children which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts in the manner provided by Articles 2337, 2338-1, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-eighth Legislature, 1943, Chapter 240, Page 313, and Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-ninth Legislature, 1945, Chapter 35, Page 52, and any other Article of the Civil Statutes of this State.

Eligibility of Judge; Term of Office

Sec. 3. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations hereby established shall be a legally licensed attorney at law in the State. No person shall be elected or appointed judge of said court who has not been a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such judge shall hold the office for two (2) years, and until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Appointment of Judge; Quarters for Court

Sec. 4. As soon as this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County shall appoint a Judge of the Domestic Relations Court in and for Lubbock County, who shall hold the office until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Salary of Judge

Sec. 5. The Judge of the Domestic Relations Court of Lubbock County shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County out of the general fund of Lubbock County, an annual salary which shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County at not less than Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000) nor more than Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000), to be paid in twelve (12) monthly installments.

Bond and Oath of Office

Sec. 6. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Lubbock County shall execute a bond and take an oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Transfer of Cases from Other Courts

Sec. 7. When the Court of Domestic Relations is organized and the judge thereof shall qualify, the County Judge of Lubbock County, the Judge of the County Court at Law, and Judges of the 99th Judicial District and of the 72nd Judicial District may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations all cases which may then be pending in their respective courts in Lubbock County, of which said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders entered by them.

Transfers to Other Court

Sec. 8. All cases and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said court, but the judge of said court may transfer any such cases or matters to the County or District Court having jurisdiction thereof under the law of the State, to be tried in such court in which such transfer is made, with the permission and consent of the judge thereof.

Place of Sitting; Dockets and Minutes

Sec. 9. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall sit and hold court in Lubbock County, and shall maintain all necessary dockets and minutes therein.

Officers and Boards to Furnish Suggestions

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, Sheriff and Constables within Lubbock County, to furnish to said court such suggestions in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said court.

Officers and Investigators; Clerk; Reporter

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint such officers and investigators as might be necessary to the proper administration of its jurisdiction in Lubbock County, and shall also have authority to appoint a clerk of said court, and when he deems it necessary to the proper administration of such court, he may appoint a court reporter, provided such appointments are approved by the Commissioners Court of said county; the salary and compensation of such officers, clerk and court reporter to be determined and paid by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County for the services rendered therein.

Injunctions and Writs

Sec. 12. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations herein created shall have power to issue injunctions, temporary injunctions and restraining orders and such other writs as are now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by county and district courts when necessary in cases or matters in which said court has jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 13. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the judge thereof is duly selected and qualified and remain in session until the first day of the following September and its terms shall hereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Special Judge

Sec. 14. A Special Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Lubbock County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof, who shall receive the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20) per day for each day he shall actually serve, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Special Judge in Case of Disqualification

Sec. 15. In the case of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Lubbock County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Lubbock County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 13 of this Act.

Vacancies

Sec. 16. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Lubbock County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County and when so filled, the judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Appeals

Sec. 17. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from district and county courts.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 18. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said court shall be governed by the laws and rules pertaining to district and county courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 19. If any section, clause, or part of this Act shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder thereof not held invalid shall remain in effect and the validity of the remainder of this Act shall not be affected thereby.

[Acts 1953, 52nd Leg., p. 678, ch. 393.]
Transfer of Cases and Papers

Sec. 4. The County Court of Harris County, the County Courts-at-Law of Harris County, and the District Courts of Harris County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations any and all cases, in their respective courts in Harris County, Texas, of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and Process in Transferred Cases

Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District or County Court prior to the time any case is transferred by either of said courts to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Place of Sitting; Seal; Dockets and Records; Clerk

Sec. 6. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat in Harris County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Harris County shall serve as the Clerk of said Court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said Court and shall perform generally all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this Court. The seal of said Court shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations, Harris County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Term of Office of Judge; Appointment and Election; Removal; Vacancies; Cooperation by Juvenile Board; Disqualification, Etc.; Special Judge

Sec. 7. The term of office of the Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations shall be for a period of two years, the first full term to commence on January 1, 1955. Immediately upon passage of this Act, the Governor shall appoint a suitable person as Judge of said Court, who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, said Judge shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and laws of the State for the election of County Judges. He shall be subject to removal from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for removal of county officers. Vacancies in the office shall be filled by appointment by the Governor. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations when deemed necessary or when sought by him, and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court. In the event of disqualification of the Judge to try a particular case, or because of the illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board shall select a special Judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof.

Boards and Officers, Duties Of

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constables of Harris County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same service and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court Reporter; Bailiff

Sec. 9. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint a court reporter, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporters of District Courts in Harris County and whose salary shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Harris County. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of Harris County to serve the Court as in other courts of the county.

Custody of Children; Investigations

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 11. The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 12. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its terms shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 13. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the First Su-
The preme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Procedure

Sec. 14. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

District Attorney to Prosecute or Defend

Sec. 15. The District Attorney of Harris County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer or any other welfare agency is interested.

Transfer of Cases Between Courts

Sec. 16. All cases, complaints and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court; but said Court, and the Judge thereof, may transfer any such cases or matters to the County or District Court having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State, with the consent of the Judge of said Court, to be tried in such court to which such transfer is made.

Creation of Court

(1) There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Starr County, Texas, to be known as the Starr County Court of Domestic Relations.

Qualification of Judge; Salary

(2) The Judge of the Starr County Court of Domestic Relations shall have the qualifications provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for District Judges. He shall be paid an annual salary out of the general fund of the County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, in such amount as may be fixed by law for District Judges.

Jurisdiction

(3) Said Court of Domestic Relations shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the District Court in said County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, change of name of persons, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child-welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases; including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incidental to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; and all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law. Said Court shall also have and exercise jurisdiction over all civil and criminal matters over which, by general law, the County Court of Starr County would have original jurisdiction, except probate matters. Such jurisdiction shall be concurrent with that of the County Court in such county. All cases and proceedings enumerated in and above may be instituted in or transferred to the Starr County Court of Domestic Relations.

Transfer of Cases

(4) The County Court of Starr County and the District Court of such County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations any and all cases, in their respective courts, of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and Process In Transferred Cases

(5) All writs and process issued by or out of a District or County Court prior to the time any case is transferred by either of said Courts to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Place of Sitting; Seal; Dockets and Records; Clerk

(6) The said Court of Domestic Relations shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat in Starr County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The sheriff of Starr County shall perform all duties in the Court of Domestic Relations provided by law for such officer to perform in the District and County Courts. The District Clerk of Starr County shall be the Clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations and shall keep a fair record of all acts done, and proceedings had, in said Court, and perform generally all such duties as are now or as may be hereafter imposed upon...
District and County Clerks relative to District or County Courts in so far as applicable to the Court of Domestic Relations. The seal of said Court shall have a star of five (5) points with the words "Starr County Court of Domestic Relations," engraved thereon.

Appointment of Judge; Term of Office; Vacancies

(7) The Commissioners Court of Starr County, Texas, shall appoint the Judge of the Starr County Court of Domestic Relations whose term of office shall be for a period of two (2) years from December 1st preceding the date of his appointment and qualification or from the date of his appointment and qualification if same be made and effected on December 1st, who shall serve in such capacity until the expiration of his term of office and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. Upon the expiration of the term of office of such Judge, or upon the vacation of such office from whatever cause, the Commissioners Court shall appoint a successor whose term of office shall be for a term of two (2) years except that in cases of vacancy the successor shall be appointed to fill the unexpired term only. The Judge of said Court shall be subject to removal from office as provided by law for the removal of County officers.

Injunctions and Writs; Contempts

(8) The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

(9) There shall be two (2) terms of the Starr County Court of Domestic Relations each year, one beginning on the first Monday in January and continuing until the convening of the next regular term, and one beginning on the first Monday in July and continuing until the convening of the next regular term. The first term of such Court shall begin on the first Monday following the appointment and qualification of the Judge thereof and shall continue until the convening of the next regular term thereof as above provided for.

Appeals

(10) Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Fourth Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and Procedure

(11) The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Representation of State by County Attorney

(12) The County Attorney of Starr County shall represent the State in all proceedings in the Starr County Court of Domestic Relations.

Transfers to Other Court

(13) All cases, complaints and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court; but said Court, and the Judge thereof, may transfer any such cases or matters to the County or District Court having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State, with the consent of the Judge of said Court, to be tried in such Court to which such transfer is made.

Court Reporter; Salary; Appointment of Interpreters

(14) The Judge of the Starr County Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint a Court Reporter in such cases as may be required by law and in such other cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. Such Court Reporter shall be paid such salary out of the general fund of the County as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. The Judge shall also have the power and authority to appoint a Court Interpreter in such cases as may be necessary who shall be paid such fees and compensation out of the general fund of the County, for such service as may be fixed by the Judge, and approved by the Commissioners Court.

Art. 2338-7. Court of Domestic Relations for Hutchinson County

Creation of Court; Adoption of Act; Referendum

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Hutchinson County which shall be a court of record; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not become operative until the Commissioners Court of Hutchinson County enters an order adopting same. The Commissioners Court may adopt the provisions of this Act only if the qualified voters who are property taxpayers and whose names appear on the rendered rolls of Hutchinson County express their will that such court be established in Hutchinson County in an election called for that purpose as provided for in Section 2 of this Act.

Referendum; Ballot Form

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court may upon its own motion at any time after the effective date of this Act call an election to determine whether there shall be created and established in Hutchinson County a Court of Domestic Relations. The issue submitted to the qualified voters who are property taxpayers and whose names appear on the rendered rolls at the election shall be by ballot upon which shall be printed:

"FOR the creation of a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Hutchinson County."

"AGAINST the creation of a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Hutchinson County."

The Commissioners Court must call such an election when petitioned by five per cent (5%) of the qualified voters who are property taxpayers and whose names appear on the rendered rolls in Hutchinson County as determined by the number of votes cast in the last General Election for Governor.

If a majority of the qualified voters who are property taxpayers and whose names appear on the rendered rolls voting at the election, votes for the creation of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Hutchinson County, the Commissioners Court shall immediately enter an order adopting the provisions of this Act.

If a majority of the qualified voters who are property taxpayers and whose names appear on the rendered rolls voting at the election, vote against the creation of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Hutchinson County, the provisions of this Act shall expire and have no force and effect thereafter.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations for Hutchinson County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Hutchinson County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the Juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved herein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Terms of Court

Sec. 4. The terms of the Court of Domestic Relations shall be as follows:

On the first Monday in January and July of each year and may continue in session until the Saturday immediately preceding the Monday for the convening of the next regular term of such court. Any term of court may be divided into as many sessions as the judge thereof may deem expedient for the disposition of business.

Qualifications of Judge; Term of Office; Vacancies; Compensation; Special Judge; Disqualification; Oath of Office; Exchange of Benches

Sec. 5. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have the same qualifications as District Judges of this State and shall be elected for a term of four (4) years as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State. In the event of a vacancy, created by death or resignation, of the office, the Governor shall appoint as Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations a suitable person having the qualifications provided by the Constitution and laws of this State of District Judges, who shall hold office for the unexpired term or until the next general election after said appointment. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall receive such total compensation as allowed other District Judges by the laws of this State from the State and counties, which shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Hutchinson County out of the general fund, the officers’ salary fund, jury fund, or any other available fund of the county, which said annual salary shall be paid to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in equal monthly installments. If the Judge be absent, a Special Judge, possessing the qualifications herein set out, may be elected by the Bar as provided by law for election of a Special Judge in District Courts. If the Judge be disqualified in a cause and the parties fail to agree upon a Special Judge to try the cause, the Judge shall certify his disqualification to the Commissioners Court of Hutchinson County, Texas, and the Commissioners Court shall appoint a Special Judge in such cause; a Special Judge shall be paid the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each and every day he actually serves as such. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall qualify by subscribing to and filing with the Commissioners Court of Hutchinson County the official oath of office. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations may hold Court for or with any other District Judge; and the Judges of such Courts may exchange benches whenever they deem it expedient.

Shorthand Reporter

Sec. 6. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall appoint an Official Shorthand Reporter who shall have the qualifications required by law of Official Shorthand Reporters. Such reporters shall perform such duties as are required by law. The compensation of such reporters shall be fixed by the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations at not less than Six Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($6,600.00) per annum nor more than Eleven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($11,500.00) per annum, in addition to the compensation for transcripts, statements of fact, and other fees. Said reporters shall receive such travel and expense allowances as set by the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations. The appointment of such court reporter, the annual salary and expenses, including travel, of such reporter as fixed by the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall be evidenced by an Order entered in the Minutes of such Court, which appointment, salary, and expenses so fixed shall continue in effect from year to year unless and until changed by Order of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations. A certified copy of Order appointing such court reporter and fixing the salary and expenses to be paid such reporter shall be transmitted to the Commissioners Court of Hutchinson County, who shall annually make provision for the payment of any such salary and expenses out of the general fund, the officers’ salary fund, the jury fund, or out of such other fund as may be available. The salary and expenses of such reporter shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of fact, and other fees.

District Clerk for Court; Dockets; Transfer of Cases

Sec. 7. The District Clerk of Hutchinson County shall also act as District Clerk for the Court of Domestic Relations and shall assume all perform all duties required by law of Clerks of County and District Courts, as well as any other duties as may be assigned to him by the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations. The compensation of such District Clerk shall be fixed as provided by law at not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per annum and not more than that provided by law for District Clerks. The District Clerk shall provide and prepare a civil and criminal docket for such Court and shall docket thereon all cases or proceedings transferred to or filed in such Court. The County Judge of Hutchinson County and the Judge of the 84th Judicial District, in their discretion, may transfer to the Court of Domestic Relations all cases of which the Court of Domestic Relations is given jurisdiction by this Act.

Prosecuting Attorneys

Sec. 8. The District Attorney for the 84th Judicial District of Texas shall prosecute all cases of a felony nature over which the Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction and the County Attorney of Hutchinson County shall prosecute all misdemeanor cases, juvenile cases and dependent and neglected child actions over which the Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction.

Sec. 9. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, drawing and selection of juries, issuing process, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court of Domestic Relations shall be governed by the laws and rules pertaining to practice and procedure in district and county courts; provided that petit juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members and no grand jury shall be selected or summoned to appear or be empaneled by said court. All appeals from the Court of Domestic Relations shall be governed by the laws and rules pertaining to appeals from district courts.

Writs and Process in Transferred Cases

Sec. 10. All writs and process issued by or out of the district or county courts prior to the time any case is transferred by either of said courts to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned to and filed in the said Court of Domestic Relations, and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writs or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer; and when a cause may be transferred from the Court of Domestic Relations to the district or county court, all such matters transpiring while such cause was pending in the said Court of Domestic Relations shall be as valid and binding in the county or district court to which transferred as though such matter transpired after such transfer.

Boards and Officers, Duties

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, County Juvenile Officer, Sheriff and Constables of Hutchinson County, Texas, to furnish to said court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said court or by the judge thereof; and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services and perform the same duties with reference to the process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations of Hutchinson County, as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from district and county courts of Texas.

Art. 2338–7a. Domestic Relations Court for Hutchinson County; Compensation of Judge

From and after the effective date of this Act the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Hutchinson County, Texas, shall receive such compensation as allowed other District Judges by the laws of this State which shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Hutchin-

Art. 2338-8. Court of Domestic Relations for Smith County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Smith County, Texas.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. (a) The Court of Domestic Relations for Smith County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Smith County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

(b) The Juvenile Board of Smith County may designate the Court of Domestic Relations as the Juvenile Court of said County.

Qualifications of Judge; Term of Office

Sec. 3. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations hereby established shall be a legally licensed attorney at law in the State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least four (4) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold the office for four (4) years and until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Appointment of Judge; Term of Office; Subsequent Elections; Quarters for Court

Sec. 4. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Juvenile Board of Smith County, Texas, by a majority vote of said members, shall appoint a Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Smith County who shall hold office until the next General Election after said appointment and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations for Smith County shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the election of Judges for County Domestic Relations Courts.

The Commissioners Court of Smith County shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Salary of Judge; Oath of Office

Sec. 5. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations hereby established shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Smith County, the same salary paid to the District Judge by the State of Texas, same to be paid out of the General Fund of the County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Smith County shall take an oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Transfer of Cases from Other Courts

Sec. 6. When the Court of Domestic Relations is organized and the Judge thereof shall qualify, the County Judge of Smith County and the Judges of the Seventh Judicial District and the One Hundred Fourteenth Judicial District may transfer, at their discretion, to said Court of Domestic Relations all cases which may then be pending in their respective Courts in Smith County, or all cases which have been adjudicated by their respective Courts and whose jurisdiction they still have jurisdiction over, of which by this Act said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction of, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders entered by them.

Transfers to Other Court

Sec. 7. All cases and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court but the Judge of said Court may transfer any such cases or matters to the County or District Courts having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State to be tried in such court in which such transfer is made with the permission and consent of the Judge thereof.

Place of Holding Court; Dockets and Minutes

Sec. 8. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall sit and hold court in Smith County and shall maintain all necessary dockets and minutes therein.
Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Child Welfare Department, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, Sheriff and Constables within Smith County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court.

Appointment of Officers, Investigators and Court Reporter; Salaries

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint such officers and investigators that might be necessary to the proper administration of its jurisdiction in Smith County; when he deems it necessary to the proper administration of such Court, he may appoint a Court Reporter provided such appointments are approved by the Juvenile Board of Smith County, by a majority vote of said members, the salaries and compensation of such officers and Court Reporter to be determined by the Juvenile Board by a majority vote of said members and to be paid by the Commissioners Court out of the General Fund of Smith County for the services rendered therein.

Injunctions and Writs; Contempts

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations herein created shall have power to issue injunctions, temporary injunctions and restraining orders and such other writs as are now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by the County and District Courts when necessary in cases or matters in which said Court has jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court; Number of Sessions

Sec. 12. Terms of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Smith County shall be as follows: on the first Mondays in January and July of each year and may continue until the date herein fixed for the beginning of the next succeeding term therein. Partial Invalidity

Sec. 17. If any Section, clause or part of this Act shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder thereof not held invalid shall remain in effect, and the validity of the thereby. Laws relating to the handling of juvenile cases not in conflict with this Act shall govern the investigation of juvenile cases, hearings and disposition of cases.

Art. 2338–9b.1 Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 of Dallas County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a domestic relations court in and for Dallas County to be known as the Court of Domestic Relations Number Four of Dallas County.

Qualifications and Salary of Judge

Sec. 2. The judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number Four of Dallas County hereby established, shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state. The judge of said court shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid to a district judge of Dallas County. Said salary shall be paid out of the General Fund of Dallas County in 12 equal monthly installments.

Appointment and Election of Judge; Term; Vacancies; Disqualification; Special Judge

Sec. 3. The judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number Four of Dallas County hereby established, shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate immediately upon the taking effect of this Act; said judge so appointed shall be a suitable person to be judge of said court and shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, the term of office of the judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number Four of Dallas County shall be for four years and said judge shall be appointed and elected as provided by the constitution and laws of the state for the election or appointment of district judges. Vacancies in the office shall be filled by appointment by the governor by and with the consent and advice of the senate. In the event of disqualification of the judge of said court to try a particular case or because of the illness, inability, failure or refusal of said judge to hold court at any time, the juvenile board of said county shall select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof.

Dependent, Neglected or Delinquent Children and Support Cases; District Attorney

Sec. 4. The district attorney of Dallas County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent or in support cases coming under the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 5. Said court of domestic relations number four shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the district courts and courts of domestic relations situated in said county of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce and marriage annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors; change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities which are now, or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law; of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon; of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said court and the judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction. All cases enumerated or included above may be instituted in or transferred to said court.

Division and Transfer of Cases

Art. 2338-10. Court of Domestic Relations for Nueces County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Nueces County, Texas.

Judge; Election; Qualifications and Term; Salary

Sec. 2. There shall be elected in Nueces County by the qualified voters thereof a Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Nueces County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county, a resident of said county, and a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than five (5) years next preceding the election to select such Judge. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Nueces County shall hold office for a term of four years, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall receive a salary of Twenty Thousand Dollars per annum, to be paid out of the County Treasury by order of the commissioners court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Nueces County, and for this additional work as member of the Juvenile Board he shall be allowed compensation in like manner as other members of said Juvenile Board, such compensation to be in addition to the salary herein provided.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts of Nueces County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the Juvenile and Child Welfare Laws of this State; and all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings and the adjudication of title to land when such adjudication is incident to a divorce or other proceeding within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations, as well as dependent actions involving child custody or support of minors, or between parents, or between them or one of them and their minor children, which are now or may be hereafter within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; and all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children, or delinquent children, as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

For amendment of section 3 of this article by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 435, ch. 200, § 10, see section 3, ante.

Transfer of Cases Between Courts

Sec. 4. Immediately after this Act takes effect all cases enumerated or included above no pending in the District Courts of Nueces County, with the exception of the cases involving delinquent children and children charged to be dependent and neglected, shall be transferred to the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act. The cases involving delinquent children and children charged to be dependent and neglected shall be tried by the Court designated as the Juvenile Court of Nueces County, Texas. Thereafter the Judges of the District Courts of Nueces County may transfer any case within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act to said Court of Domestic Relations, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations may transfer any case pending in said Court to any District Court of Nueces County, the particular District Court to which the transfer is to be made to be designated by the Presiding Judge of the District Courts of Nueces County. Said Court of Domestic Relations may also sit for any of the District Courts of Nueces County and hear and decide for such Courts any case coming within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act. All District Courts of Nueces County may likewise sit for, hear and decide cases pending in the Court of Domestic Relations, as, the sitting for, hearing and deciding cases is now or hereafter may be authorized by law for all District Courts of Nueces County.

Filing of Cases

Sec. 5. Immediately after this Act takes effect, the District Clerk of Nueces County, who shall be Clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations shall file in the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act all cases involving adoptions and independent actions involving child custody and support of minors, including cases under the Reciprocal Support Act, all applications to change the name of persons, and all divorce cases.

Disqualification of Judge and Congested Docket; Assignment of Cases; Selection of Special Judge

Sec. 6. Should the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations be disqualified to try a particular case or should he be unable to do so by reason of illness or other cause, or should the docket of his court become so congested as to make it improbable that he can dispose of all matters pending thereon, such fact shall be brought to the attention of the presiding judge of the District Courts of Nueces County by any practicing lawyer of Nueces County, whereupon such matters as require attention shall be promptly assigned by the presiding judge to one of the District Courts of Nueces County for action and disposition in the same manner as other matters are assigned to the several District Courts of said County. All cases within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations which are set for trial as contested matters in accordance with the local rules of the District Courts of Nueces County, shall be treated and assigned to courts for trial in the same manner as other civil cases of a contested nature, with no distinction being made between domestic relations matters and other civil cases insofar as contested trials are concerned; and it shall be the duty of the several District Courts of Nueces County to accept assignment of contested cases within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations when such cases are assigned to them by the presiding judge, in the same manner and to the same extent that their responsibility extends to other contested civil cases. In the event that it should ever become necessary to select a special judge for the Court of Domestic Relations, such special judge shall be selected in the manner provided by law for the selection of a special judge of the district court.

County Attorney; Duty to Prosecute or Defend

Sec. 7. The County Attorney of Nueces County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, and the District Attorney of Nueces County shall prosecute all support cases coming under the Reciprocal Support Act.

Writ and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 8. The Court of Domestic Relations of Nueces County shall be a Court of Record, shall sit and hold court at the County Seat of Nueces County, shall have a seal, and shall maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes pertaining to the activities of such court.

Probation Department, Sheriffs and Constables, Etc.; Duties

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the Probation Department, the Sheriff and Constables of Nueces County, Texas, and all Welfare Agencies of Nueces County having as their objective the protection of children, to furnish said Court of Domestic Relations such service in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court, and all Sheriffs and Constables within the State of Texas shall render the same service with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 10. The said Court of Domestic Relations and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 11. The terms of the Court of Domestic Relations shall begin on the first Monday in January and July of each year, respectively, and each term of said Court shall continue until the convening of the next successive term.

Juvenile Board; Composition; Compensation of Members

Sec. 12. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Nueces County, which board, hereafter, shall be composed of the Judges of the several District Courts of Nueces County, the County Judge of Nueces County, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations. The Judges of the District Courts shall continue to receive such compensation for their services as members of the Juvenile Board and for such other administrative duties as are now or may hereafter be required, from County funds, as they are entitled to receive under the General or Special Laws. The members of the Juvenile Board shall continue to have the same authority as is now provided by law.

Shorthand Reporter

Sec. 13. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations is authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court. Such official shorthand reporter shall receive the same compensation provided for in Article 2326, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have the authority to terminate the employment of such official shorthand reporter at any time.
Art. 2338-11. Courts of Domestic Relations Nos. 2 and 3 for Harris County

Writs and Orders: Contempt

Sec. 11. The said courts and the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Courts of Domestic Relations have jurisdiction, and also shall have the power, as in District Courts, to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 12. The first term of such courts created herein shall begin when the judge of such court is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its terms shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 13. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said courts shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the First Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Procedure

Sec. 14. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said courts shall be governed by provision of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided, that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

District Attorney to Prosecute or Defend

Sec. 15. The District Attorney of Harris County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Office or any other welfare agency is interested.

Transfer of Cases Between Courts

Sec. 16. All cases, complaints and other matters over which the said Courts of Domestic Relations Nos. 2 and 3 of Harris County may, in their discretion, exchange defendants or suits from time to time, and may transfer cases and other proceedings from one court to another, and any or either of said judges of said courts of Domestic Relations of Harris County may, in his own court room, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either of such other courts of Domestic Relations without having the case transferred, or may sit in any other of such courts and hear and determine any case there pending, and every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending and at the time the judgment or order is rendered, and two or more of such judges of such court of Domestic Relations may try different cases in the same court at the same time, and each may occupy his own court room or the court room of any other such court. The judge of any or either of such court may issue restraining orders and injunctions, or other orders and processes returnable to any other such judge of such court and any such judge may transfer any case or proceeding pending in his court to any other of said courts, and the judge of any such court to which a case or proceeding is transferred shall receive and try the same, and in turn shall have power, in his discretion, to transfer any such case to any other of said courts, and any other such judge may in his court room try any case pending in any other of such courts.

Art. 2338-11a. Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 for Harris County

Creation of Courts

Sec. 1. There is hereby created an additional Court of Domestic Relations to be known as Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 in and for Harris County, Texas.

Judges; Juvenile Board

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be a legally licensed attorney at law in the State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. He shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid to a District Judge of Harris County. His salary shall be paid out of the General Fund of Harris County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. He shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Harris County, which shall hereafter be composed of the Judges of the several District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Harris County, the County Judge of Harris County, and the Judges of the several Courts of Domestic Relations for Harris County, which Juvenile Board shall be authorized to designate the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 as a Juvenile Court of Harris County. Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts and Courts of Domestic Relations shall continue to receive such compensation for their services as members of the Juvenile Board and otherwise from County funds as they are entitled to receive under General or Special Law.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 for Harris County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Harris County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Transfer of Cases and Papers

Sec. 4. The Court of Harris County, the County Courts at Law of Harris County, and the District Courts of Harris County may transfer to the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 any and all cases, in their respective courts in Harris County, Texas, which said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and Process in Transferred Cases

Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District, Domestic Relations, or County Court prior to the time any case is transferred by any of said courts to the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be returned and filed in said Domestic Relations Court and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the said Court of Domestic Relations No. 4, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Place of Sitting; Seal; Dockets and Records; Clerks

Sec. 6. The said Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat in Harris County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Harris County shall serve as the Clerk of said Court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said Court and shall perform generally all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this Court. The seal of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations No. 4, Harris County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Term of Office of the Judges: Appointment and Elections; Removal; Vacancies; Cooperation by Juvenile Board; Disqualification, Etc.; Special Judges

Sec. 7. The term of office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be for a period of four (4) years, the first full term of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 to commence on January 1, 1964. Immediately upon passage of this Act, the Governor shall appoint a suitable person as Judge of said Court, such Judge to hold office until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, such Judge shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and laws of the State for the election of District Judges. He shall be subject to removal of office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of the State for the removal of County Officers. Vacancies in such office shall be filled by appointment by the Governor. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to said Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 when deemed necessary or when sought by him; and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court. In the event of disqualification of such Judge to try a particular case, or because of the illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board shall select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof.

Boards and Officers, Duties Of

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constable of Harris County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court; and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same service and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court Reporter, Bailiff

Sec. 9. The Judge of the Court created herein shall have authority to appoint a court reporter, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporter of District Courts in Harris County and whose salary shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Harris County. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of Harris County to serve in the Court created herein as in other courts of the County.

Art. 2338-13. Court of Domestic Relations for Gregg County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Gregg County, Texas.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. The Court of Domestic Relations for Gregg County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Gregg County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law; of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property; all criminal cases involving crimes against children, including wife and child desertion, contributing to the delinquency of a minor, enticing a minor from legal custody as provided in Articles 602, 534, and 535, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, and Chapter 500, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949 (Article 534a, Vernon's Texas Penal Code), and all cases enumerated above may be instituted in or transferred to said court; and said court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Qualifications of Judge; Term of Office

Sec. 3. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations hereby established shall be a legally licensed attorney-at-law in the State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least four (4) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold the office for four (4) years and until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Appointment of Judge; Term of Office; Subsequent Elections; Quarters for Court

Sec. 4. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Commissioners Court of Gregg County shall appoint a Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Gregg County who shall hold office until the next General Election after said appointment and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Thereafter, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Gregg County shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State for the election of Judges of the County Domestic Relations Courts.

The Commissioners Court of Gregg County shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Salary of Judge; Oath

Sec. 5. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Gregg County shall be paid at a salary rate no greater than that set by a majority vote of the Commissioners Court of Gregg County. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Gregg County shall take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Transfer of Cases from Other Courts

Sec. 6. When the Court of Domestic Relations is organized and the Judge thereof shall qualify, the County Judge of Gregg County and the Judges of the Seventy-first Judicial District and the One Hundred Twenty-fourth Judicial District may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations all cases which may then be pending in their respective Courts in Gregg County of which said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders entered by them.

Transfers to Other Court

Sec. 7. All cases and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court but the Judge of said Court may transfer any such cases or matters to the County or District Courts having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State to be tried in such Court in which such transfer is made with the permission and consent of the Judge thereof.

Place of Holding Court; Dockets and Minutes

Sec. 8. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall sit and hold court in Gregg County and shall maintain all necessary dockets and minutes therein.

Officers and Boards to Furnish Suggestions

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Child Welfare Department, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, Sheriff and Constables within Gregg County to furnish to said Court such suggestions in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court.
Appointment of Officers, Investigators and Court Reporters; Salaries

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint such officers and investigators that might be necessary to the proper administration of its jurisdiction in Gregg County; when he deems it necessary to the proper administration of such Court, he may appoint a Court Reporter provided such appointments are approved by the Commissioners Court of Gregg County, by a majority vote of said members, the salaries and compensation of such officers and Court Reporter to be determined by the Commissioners Court of Gregg County by a majority vote of said members and to be paid by the Commissioners Court out of the General Fund of Gregg County for the services rendered therein.

Injunctions and Writs; Contempts

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations herein created shall have power to issue injunctions, temporary injunctions and restraining orders and such other writs as are now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by the County and District Courts when necessary in cases or matters in which said Court has jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court; Number of Sessions

Sec. 12. Terms of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Gregg County shall be as follows: on the first Mondays in January and July of each year and may continue until the date herein fixed for the beginning of the next succeeding term. As soon as this Act becomes effective and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations is appointed and qualified, he shall begin a term of Court which shall continue until the day fixed for the beginning of the next succeeding term of Court and thereafter the terms of Court of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Gregg County shall begin and end on the above-mentioned date. The Judge of said Court in his discretion may hold as many sessions of Court in any term of the Court as is deemed by him proper and expedient for the dispatch of business.

Disqualification of Judge; Special Judge; Compensation

Sec. 13. In the event of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations to try a particular case because of illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold Court at any time, a Special Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Gregg County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judge thereof, who shall receive the same compensation as that provided in Section 5 of this Act; such compensation shall not be deducted from the salary of the Regular Judge, but shall be in addition thereto.

Vacancies in Office

Sec. 14. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Gregg County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Gregg County by a majority vote of its members, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Appeals

Sec. 15. Appeals in all Civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Sixth Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts, and in all criminal cases, appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 16. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by the laws and rules pertaining to District and County Courts providing the juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Writs and Process in Transferred Cases

Sec. 17. All writs and processes issued by or out of the Districts or County Court prior to the time any case is transferred by either of said Courts to the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Gregg County shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed under such transfer.

Court of Record; Place of Sitting; Seal; Dockets and Records; Clerk

Sec. 18. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall be a Court of Record, shall sit and hold Court at the County seat in Gregg County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records, and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Gregg County shall serve as a Clerk of said Court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said Court and shall perform generally all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks in so far as the same may be applicable in this Court. The seal of said Court shall have a star of five (5) points with the words “Court of Domestic Relations, Gregg County, Texas” engraved thereon.

Sheriffs and Constables; Performance of Duties

Sec. 19. All sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same service and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs for said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs for District Courts.
Suits Involving Custody of Children; Investigations

Dependent, Neglected or Delinquent Children; Prosecution and Defense of Cases by Criminal District Attorney
Sec. 21. The Criminal District Attorney of Gregg County or his duly and legally qualified assistant, or assistants, shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Unit, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer or any other welfare agency is interested and shall represent the State in all proceedings in said Court of Domestic Relations.

Juvenile Board; Counsel and Advice; Cooperation with Judge
Sec. 22. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations when deemed necessary or when sought by him and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court.

Removal of Judge
Sec. 23. The Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations shall be subject to removal from the office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the removal of County Officers.

Partial Invalidity
Sec. 24. If any Section, clause or part of this Act shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder thereof not held invalid shall remain in effect and the validity of the remainder of this Act shall not be affected thereby.

Suits Involving Custody of Children; Investigations

Dependent, Neglected or Delinquent Children; Prosecution and Defense of Cases by Criminal District Attorney
Sec. 21. The Criminal District Attorney of Gregg County or his duly and legally qualified assistant, or assistants, shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Unit, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer or any other welfare agency is interested and shall represent the State in all proceedings in said Court of Domestic Relations.

Juvenile Board; Counsel and Advice; Cooperation with Judge
Sec. 22. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations when deemed necessary or when sought by him and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court.

Removal of Judge
Sec. 23. The Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations shall be subject to removal from the office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the removal of County Officers.

Partial Invalidity
Sec. 24. If any Section, clause or part of this Act shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder thereof not held invalid shall remain in effect and the validity of the remainder of this Act shall not be affected thereby.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1458, ch. 543, repealing § 20 of this article, enact Title 5 of the Texas Family Code. See, now, Family Code, § 11.01 et seq.]

Art. 2338-14. Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County

Creation of Court
Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations to be known as Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County, Texas.

Judge: Juvenile Board
Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall be a legally licensed attorney at law in the state. No person shall be elected or appointed judge of said court who has not been a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. He shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid to a District Judge of Jefferson County.

The salary shall be paid out of the General Fund or Officers Salary Fund of Jefferson County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. He shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Jefferson County and shall be paid for his services as a member of the Juvenile Board in the same manner as other District Judges of Jefferson County, but in no event shall his total salary exceed the total salary paid to a District Judge of Jefferson County.

Jurisdiction
Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Jefferson County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions, involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent or neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Transfer of Cases and Papers
Sec. 4. The County Court of Jefferson County, the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and the District Courts of Jefferson County may transfer to the Court of Domestic Relations any and all cases, in their respective courts in Jefferson County, Texas, over which said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and Process in Transferred Cases
Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District, Domestic Relations, or County Court prior to the time any case is transferred by any of said courts to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in said Domestic Relations Court and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the said Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Place of Sitting; Seal; Dockets and Records; Clerks

Sec. 6. (a) The Court of Domestic Relations shall be a court of record; shall sit and hold court at the county seat in Jefferson County and at Port Arthur, Texas, as hereinafter provided; shall have a seal, and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Jefferson County shall serve as the clerk of said court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said court and shall perform generally all such duties as are required generally of district clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this court. The seal of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have a star of five points with the words “Court of Domestic Relations, Jefferson County, Texas,” engraved thereon.

(b) During each term of the Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County, Texas, said court may sit at any time in Port Arthur, Texas, to try, hear and determine any civil non-jury case over which it has jurisdiction, and may hear and determine motions, arguments and such other non-jury matters which said court may have jurisdiction over, provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said court from hearing and determining any non-jury cases and hearing and determining motions, arguments and such other non-jury civil matters at the county seat at Beaumont, Texas.

(c) The District Clerk of Jefferson County or his deputy shall wait upon the said court when sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and shall be permitted to transfer all necessary books, minutes, records, and papers to Port Arthur, Texas, while the court is in session there, and likewise to transfer all necessary books, minutes, records and papers from Port Arthur, Texas, to Beaumont, Texas, at the end of each session in Port Arthur, Texas.

(d) The Sheriff of Jefferson County or his deputy shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under the order of the court.

(e) The official court reporter of said court shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under the order of the court.

(f) The Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, is hereby authorized to provide suitable quarters for said court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, which said quarters shall be located within the sub-courthouse in Port Arthur, Jefferson County, Texas.

(g) Any Judge of any District Court of Jefferson County, Texas, may hear and determine cases, motions and arguments that are filed in the Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County, Texas, without the necessity of a formal transfer of the Judge to the said Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County, Texas.

Term of Office of the Judge; Appointment and Election; Removal; Vacancies; Cooperation by Juvenile Board; Disqualification, Etc.; Special Judges

Sec. 7. The term of office of the judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall be for a period of four (4) years, the first full term of the Court of Domestic Relations to commence on January 1, 1963. Immediately upon passage of this Act, the Governor shall appoint a suitable person as judge of said court, such judge to hold office until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, such judge shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and Laws of the state for the election of District Judges. He shall be subject to removal from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and Laws of the state for the removal of District Judges. A vacancy in the office shall be filled by appointment by the Governor. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to said judge of the Court of Domestic Relations when deemed necessary or when sought by him; and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said court. In the event of disqualification of the judge to try a particular case, or because of the illness, inability, failure or refusal of said judge to hold court at any time, the practicing lawyers of the court may elect a special judge of said court in the same manner as provided in Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and such special judge when so elected shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which the regular judge of said court could have and exercise.

Boards and Officers, Duties Of

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Unit, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, Sheriff, and Constable of Jefferson County to furnish to said court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas, shall render the same service and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said court as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court Reporter; Bailiff

Sec. 9. The judge of the court created herein shall have authority to appoint a court reporter, who shall receive the same compensa-

 Custody of Children; Investigations

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 11. The said court and the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habens corpus and mandamus, injunctions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have the power, as in District Courts, to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 12. The first term of the court created herein shall begin when the judge of such court is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its terms shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the 31st day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 13. Appeals from judgments and orders of the said court shall be the Court of Civil Appeals for the Ninth Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts.

Procedure

Sec. 14. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said court shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided, that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

District Attorney to Prosecute or Defend

Sec. 15. The District Attorney of Jefferson County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Unit, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer or any other welfare agency is interested.

Transfer of Cases

Sec. 16. This Court of Domestic Relations may transfer any case or matter to the County Court, County Court of Jefferson County at Law, or any other District Court of Jefferson County, having jurisdictional qualifications for such case or subject matter.
haring and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody, visitation, support, or reciprocal support cases, contempt actions arising out of failure to pay child support and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them or one of them, and their minor children, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District Courts or Courts of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County; and all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent children as provided by law. All cases enumerated or included above may be instituted in or transferred to said court.

For amendment of section 3 of this article by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1242, ch. 565, § 12, see section 3, post.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations [Number 1] for Tarrant County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Tarrant County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

For amendment of section 3 of this article by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1150, ch. 510, see section 3, ante.

Transfer of Cases and Papers

Sec. 4. The District Courts of Tarrant County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations any and all cases, in their respective courts of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers, reports, records, and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and Process in Transferred Cases

Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District Court prior to the time any case is transferred by said court to the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Place of Sitting; Seal; Dockets and Records; Clerks

Sec. 6. The said Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat of Tarrant County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Tarrant County shall serve as the clerk of said court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said court and shall perform all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this court. The seal of said court shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations Number 1, Tarrant County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Election of Judge; Removal; Vacancies

Sec. 7. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 of Tarrant County is elected in accordance with the terms of Section 65, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas. He is subject to removal for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this state for removal of District Judges. Vacancies in the office shall be filled by appointment by the governor.

Cooperation of Juvenile Board; Filing of Cases

Sec. 8. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 when deemed necessary or when sought by him, and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said court, and shall provide for the filing of any or all cases within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Domestic Relations in either the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 or the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2, or in any one or more of the District Courts of Tarrant County.

Transfer of Cases to District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations

Sec. 9. All cases, applications, complaints, and all other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said court; said court and the Judge thereof may transfer any such cases, complaints, or other matters to any District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State of Texas, with the consent of the Judge of such court, and the Judge of such Criminal District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations may try all such cases, complaints, or other matters which may be so transferred. Any Judge of a District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County may preside as Judge of the Juvenile Court and of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 and hear and determine all such cases, complaints, or other matters over which the Judge of such District Courts, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas, with the same authority to act as presiding Judge over all such cases, complaints, or other matters for all purposes, and to the same extent as the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 and such Judge of a District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, Texas, may sit in his own courtroom, the Juvenile Courtroom, or any other courtroom, or in the courtroom of any other District Court or Court of Domestic Relations within the county, or the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 and hear and determine any cases, complaint, or matter pending in the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1. In the event of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 to try a particular case or because of illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board may select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof, or said Juvenile Board may request the presiding judge of the Eighth Administrative Judicial District of Texas to assign a judge to handle the business of said court pursuant to the provisions of Article 200a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and said judge so selected by the board or assigned by the presiding judge shall be paid for his services in the same manner as provided by the Constitution and laws of this state for the payment of District Judges assigned to sit for other District Judges. The Judge of such Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 may, in any case, matter or proceeding pending in any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, or which case, matter or proceeding said Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 would have potential jurisdiction, in the courtroom of such Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 or in the Juvenile Courtroom, or in the courtroom of any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, sit and hear and determine any such case, matter or proceeding pending therein, and enter any order or judgment, or do any other thing, which the Judge of such District Court or Court of Domestic Relations would have authority under law to do.

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constables of Tarrant County to furnish to said court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 1 and Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 shall have authority to appoint a court reporter necessary for the operations of the Courts of Domestic Relations, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporters of District Courts in Tarrant County and the court reporter's salary shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County from appropriate county funds. If the said Judges of the Courts of Domestic Relations fail to agree upon the appointment within thirty (30) days after a vacancy occurs, the Juvenile Board shall have authority to appoint a court reporter for said Courts of Domestic Relations. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of Tarrant County to serve the court as in other courts of the county.

Sec. 13. The said court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, execution, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Sec. 14. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its term shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Sec. 15. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Second Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 16. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1458, ch. 543, repealing § 12 of this article, enacted Title 2 of the Texas Family Code.

See, now, Family Code, § 11.01 et seq.

Art. 2338-15a. Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 of Tarrant County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas.

Qualifications of Judge; Salary; Juvenile Board

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 shall be at least twenty-five (25) years of age and licensed to practice law in this state, who has been a practicing attorney or a judge of a court for four (4) years and a resident of Tarrant County for two (2) years next before his election or appointment. He shall reside in Tarrant County during his term of office. He shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid by the County of Tarrant and State of Texas to any one judge of a District Court of Tarrant County, Texas. His salary shall be paid out of the General Fund of Tarrant County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. He shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Tarrant County, which shall hereafter be composed of the Judges of the several District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County, the Judge, City, and Justice of Peace of Tarrant County, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 1 of Tarrant County and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 of Tarrant County, which Juvenile Board shall be authorized to designate the Courts of Domestic Relations as the Juvenile Courts of Tarrant County; Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County shall continue to receive such compensation for all judicial and administrative services required of them including the services as members of the Juvenile Board and otherwise from county funds as they are now entitled to receive or may hereafter be authorized to receive under General or Special Law.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. Said Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 shall have jurisdiction within the limits of Tarrant County concurrent with the District Courts and Courts of Domestic Relations sitting in said county of all cases involving adoptions, birth records, removal of disability of minority, and coverture, change of name of persons, delinquent child proceedings, neglected or dependent child proceedings, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District Courts or Courts of Domestic Relations under the juvenile and child-welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody, visitation and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody, visitation, support, or reciprocal support cases, contempt actions arising out of failure to pay child support and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them or one of them, and their minor children, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District Courts or Domestic Relations Courts of Tarrant County; and all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent children as provided by law. All cases enumerated or included above may be instituted in or transferred to said court.

For amendment of section 3 of this article by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1250, ch. 565, § 13, see section 3, post.

Art. 2338-15a. Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 of Tarrant County

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 for Tarrant County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Tarrant County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority, and coverture, change of name of persons, delinquent child proceedings, neglected or dependent child proceedings, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

For amendment of section 3 of this article by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1146, ch. 509, § 1, see section 3, ante.

Transfer of Cases and Papers

Sec. 4. The District Courts and Courts of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 any and all cases, in their respective courts of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers, reports, records, and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and Process in Transferred Cases

Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District Court or Court of Domestic Relations prior to the time any case is transferred by said court to the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Place of Sitting; Dockets and Records; Clerks

Sec. 6. The said Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat of Tarrant County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records, and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Tarrant County shall serve as the clerk of said court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said court and shall perform all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this court. The seal of said court shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Election of Judge; Removal; Vacancies

Sec. 7. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations Number 2 of Tarrant County is elected in accordance with the terms of Section 65, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas. He is subject to removal for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this state for removal of District Judges. Vacancies in the office shall be filled by appointment by the Governor.

Cooperation of Juvenile Board; Filing of Cases

Sec. 8. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 when deemed necessary or when sought by him, and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said court, and shall provide for the filing of any or all cases within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Domestic Relations in either the Court of Domestic Relations No. 1 or the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2, or in any one or more of the District Courts of Tarrant County.

Transfer of Cases to District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations

Sec. 9. All cases, applications, complaints, and all other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said court; said court and the Judge thereof may transfer any such cases, complaints, or other matters to any District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State of Texas, with the consent of the Judge of such court, and the Judge of such District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations may try all such cases, complaints, or other matters which may be so transferred. Any Judge of a District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County may preside as Judge of the Juvenile Court and of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 and hear and determine all such cases, complaints, or other matters over which the Judge of such District Courts, Criminal District Courts or Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas, with the same authority to act as presiding Judge over all such cases, complaints, or other matters for all purposes, and to the same extent as the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 and such Judge of a District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, Texas, may sit in his own courtroom, the Juvenile Courtroom, the courtroom of any other District Court or Court of Domestic Relations within the county, or the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 and hear and determine any cases, complaints, or matter pending in the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2. In the event of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 to try a particular case or because of illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board may select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof, or said Juvenile Board may request the Presiding Judge of the Eighth Administrative Judicial District of Texas to assign a judge to handle the business of said court pursuant to the provisions of Article 200a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and said judge so selected by the board or assigned by the presiding judge shall be paid for his services in the same manner as provided by the Constitution and laws of this state for the payment of District Judges assigned to sit for other District Judges. The Judge of such Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 may, in any case, matter or proceeding pending in any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, or which case, matter or proceeding said Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 would have potential jurisdiction, in the courtroom of such Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 or in the Juvenile Courtroom, or in the courtroom of any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, sit and hear and determine any such case, matter or proceeding pending therein, and enter any order or judgment, or do any other thing, which the Judge of such District Court or Court of Domestic Relations would have authority under law to do.

Boards and Officers; Duties

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constables of Tarrant County to furnish to said court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court Reporter; Bailiff

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 1 and Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 shall have authority to appoint a court reporter necessary for the operations of the Courts of Domestic Relations, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporters of District Courts in Tarrant County and the court reporter's salary shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County from appropriate county funds. If the said Judges of the Courts of Domestic Relations fail to agree upon the appointment within thirty (30) days after a vacancy occurs, the Juvenile Board shall have authority to appoint a court reporter for said Courts of Domestic Relations. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of Tarrant County to serve the court as in other courts of the County.

Divorce; Custody of Children: Investigations

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 13. The said court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, execution, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 14. Election of Judge; Term of Office; Removal; Vacancies

Sec. 7. (a) At the next general election following the effective date of this Act there shall be elected the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 of Tarrant County. The term of office shall be for a period of four (4) years. The first term shall commence on the first day of January after a general election. The Judge is subject to removal from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this state for the removal of District Judges.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Governor shall appoint a Judge to the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 of Tarrant County. The Judge appointed serves until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy in the office is filled in like manner and the appointee holds office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

Cooperation by Juvenile Board; Priority to Cases; Juvenile Court

Sec. 8. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 when deemed necessary or when sought by him, and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court, and shall provide for the filing of any or all cases within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Domestic Relations

Transferring Cases and Papers

Sec. 4. The District Courts of Tarrant County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 any and all cases, in their respective courts of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers, reports, records, and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 for Tarrant County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Tarrant County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the Juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Transfer of Cases and Papers

Sec. 4. The District Courts of Tarrant County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 any and all cases, in their respective courts of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers, reports, records, and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Juvenile Board of Tarrant County, which shall hereafter be composed of the Judges of the several District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County, the County Judge of Tarrant County, and the Judges of the Courts of Domestic Relations for Tarrant County, which Juvenile Board shall be authorized to designate the Courts of Domestic Relations as the Juvenile Court of Tarrant County; Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County shall continue to receive such compensation for all judicial and administrative services required of them including the services as members of the Juvenile Board and otherwise from county funds as they are now entitled to receive or may hereafter be authorized to receive under General or Special Law.
in either the Court of Domestic Relations No. 1, the Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 or the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3, or in any one or more of the District Courts of Tarrant County. The Juvenile Board shall designate one of the Courts of Domestic Relations as the Juvenile Court of Tarrant County. The judge of said Juvenile Court must give priority to all cases and controversies involving juveniles. Said court so designated as the Juvenile Court may also be officially styled as the Juvenile Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and said Court may have a seal which shall be a star of five points with the words "Juvenile Court of Tarrant County, Texas," engraved thereon.

Transfer of Cases to District or Criminal District Court or to Court of Domestic Relations

Sec. 9. All cases, applications, complaints, and all other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court; said Court and the Judge thereof may transfer any such cases, complaints, or other matters to any District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State of Texas, with the consent of the Judge of such Court, and the Judge of such District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations may try all such cases, complaints, or other matters which may be so transferred. Any Judge of a District Court, Criminal District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County may preside as Judge of the Juvenile Court and of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 and hear and determine all such cases, complaints, or other matters over which the Judge of such District Courts, Criminal District Courts or Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas, with the same authority to act as presiding Judge over all such cases, complaints, or other matters for all purposes, and to the same extent as the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 and such Judge of a District Court, Criminal District Court, or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, Texas, may sit in his own courtroom, the Juvenile Courtroom, the courtroom of any other District Court or Court of Domestic Relations within the County, or the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 and hear and determine any cases, complaint, or matter pending in the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3. In the event of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 to try a particular case or because of illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold Court at any time, the Juvenile Board may select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof, or said Juvenile Board may request the presiding judge of the Eighth Administrative Judicial District of Texas to assign a judge to handle the business of said court pursuant to the provisions of Article 200a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and said judge so selected by the board or assigned by the presiding judge shall be paid for his services in the same manner as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the payment of District Judges assigned to sit for other District Judges. The Judge of such Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 may, in any case, matter or proceeding pending in any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, or which case, matter or proceeding said Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 would have potential jurisdiction, in the courtroom of such Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 or in the Juvenile Courtroom, or in the courtroom of any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County, sit and hear and determine any such case, matter or proceeding pending therein, and enter any order, judgment or do any other thing, which the Judge of such District Court or Court of Domestic Relations would have authority under law to do.

Boards and Officers; Duties

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constables of Tarrant County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court Reporters; Bailiff

Sec. 11. The Judges of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 1 and Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 and Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 shall have authority to appoint a total of two court reporters necessary for the operations of the Courts of Domestic Relations, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporters of District Courts in Tarrant County and the court reporters' salaries shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County from appropriate County funds. If the said judges of the Courts of Domestic Relations fail to agree upon any appointment within thirty days after a vacancy occurs, the Juvenile Board shall have authority to appoint a court reporter for said Courts of Domestic Relations. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of Tarrant County to serve the Court as in other courts of the County.

Custody of Children; Investigations

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 13. The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, execution, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 14. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly appointed and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its term shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 15. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Second Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 16. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Art. 2338-17. Court of Domestic Relations for Taylor County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Taylor County, Texas.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. The Court of Domestic Relations for Taylor County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Taylor County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities. This Court shall continue to have, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Qualifications of Judge; Term of Office

Sec. 3. The Judge of the said Court of Domestic Relations shall be a legally licensed attorney at law in this State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold the office for four (4) years, and until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Appointment of Judge; Term of Office; Subsequent Elections

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall appoint the Judge of the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations who shall hold the office until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations for Taylor County shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the election of Judges for County Domestic Relations Courts.

The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Salary of Judge; Bonds; Oath

Sec. 5. The Judge of the said Court of Domestic Relations shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County out of the General Fund of Taylor County an annual salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid to a District Judge of Taylor County. Said salary shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. Said Judge of said Court shall not engage in the private practice of the law during his term of office. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County shall execute a bond and take an oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Juvenile Board

Sec. 5a. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Taylor County shall be a member of the Taylor County Juvenile Board and shall receive as additional compensation for his services on the board the same salary as paid by Taylor County to the district judges of Taylor County for acting as members of the Juvenile Board. The Juvenile Board shall consist of the Judge of the 42nd District Court, the Judge of the 104th Judicial District Court, the County Judge of Taylor County, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Taylor County, Texas. The Juvenile Board shall continue with the same authority now provided by law, and the existing members shall continue to receive the compensation provided by law for serving on the Juvenile Board. The Juvenile Board of Taylor County may designate the Court of Domestic Relations as the Juvenile Court of Taylor County. The Judge of the Juvenile Court of Taylor County shall appoint the juvenile officer, subject to the approval of the Juvenile Board, for a period not to exceed two (2) years from date of appointment.

Judge; Additional Compensation

Sec. 5b. The Judge of the 42nd District Court and the Judge of the 104th District Court shall each receive as additional compensation for acting as a member of the Juvenile Board the sum of One Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) per year. The additional salary shall be paid monthly out of the General Fund of Taylor County on the order of the Commissioners Court.
Transfer of Cases, Writs and Process

Sec. 6. (a) When said Court of Domestic Relations is organized and the Judge thereof shall qualify, the County Judge of Taylor County, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County, and the Judges of the 42nd Judicial District and of the 104th Judicial District may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations all cases which then may be pending in their respective Courts in Taylor County, of which said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders entered by them and all cases pending in the County Court at Law of Taylor County concerning juvenile delinquents, on the effective date of this Act, along with all the books and records thereof, shall be transferred to the said Court of Domestic Relations.

(b) All writs and process issued by or out of a District or County Court or County Court at Law prior to the time any case is transferred by any one of said Courts to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Transfer of Cases to and from District Court; Jurisdiction

Sec. 7. All cases and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court. The Judges of the District Courts of Taylor County may transfer any case within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act to said Court of Domestic Relations, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations may transfer any case pending in said Court to any District Court of Taylor County. Said Court of Domestic Relations may also sit for any of the District Courts of Taylor County and hear and decide for such Courts any case coming within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act. All District Courts of Taylor County may likewise sit for, hear and decide cases pending in the Court of Domestic Relations, as the sitting for, hearing and deciding cases as now or hereafter may be authorized by law for all District Courts of Taylor County.

Place of Holding Court; Dockets and Minutes; Clerks

Sec. 8. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall sit and hold court in Taylor County, and shall maintain all necessary dockets and minutes therein.

The Sheriff of Taylor County shall perform all duties in the Court of Domestic Relations provided by law for such officer to perform in the District and County Courts, including bailiffs to attend the Court. The District Clerk of Taylor County shall be the Clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations and shall keep a fair record of all acts done, all necessary dockets and minutes thereof, and proceedings had, in said Court, and perform generally all such duties as are now or as may be hereafter imposed upon District or County Clerks relative to District or County Courts insofar as applicable to the Court of Domestic Relations. The seal of said Court shall have a star of five points with the words "Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations," engraved thereon.

Boards and Officers, Duties

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Child Welfare Department, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, County Juvenile Officer, Sheriff and Constables within Taylor County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court.

Injunctions and Writs; Contempts

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations herein created shall have power to issue injunctions, temporary injunctions and restraining orders and such other writs as are now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by the County and District Courts when necessary in cases or matters in which said Court has jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 11. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified and remain in session until the first day of the following September and its terms shall hereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Disqualification of Judge; Special Judge; Compensation

Sec. 12. In the case of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County is disqualified. In the case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day compensation for each day he shall actually serve, to be paid out of the General Fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Vacancies in Office

Sec. 13. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.
Sec. 14. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the 11th Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts, and in all criminal cases, appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals sitting in Austin, Travis County, Texas.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 15. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Criminal District Attorney; Representation of State

Sec. 16. The Criminal District Attorney of Taylor County or his duly and legally qualified assistant, or assistants, shall represent the State in all proceedings in the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations.

Suit Involving Custody of Children; Investigations

Court Reporter; Interpreter; Investigator

Sec. 18. The Judge of the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint a court reporter in such cases as may be required by law and in such other cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. Such court reporter shall be paid such salary out of the General Fund of the County as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. The Judge shall also have the power and authority to appoint a court interpreter in such cases as may be necessary who shall be paid such fees and compensation out of the General Fund of the County, for such service as may be fixed by the Judge, and approved by the Commissioners Court. The Judge of said Court shall employ an investigator for the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations, who shall also serve as secretary to the Judge of said Court and which said investigator shall have and be hereby invested with all of the general authority of any peace officer of Taylor County, Texas, with full power and authority to make arrests, serve any process, the same as any peace officer, and said investigator shall be furnished all necessary transportation in the discharge of the duties as such investigator. Said investigator shall be paid a salary fixed by the Commissioners Court, and said salary and such transportation costs shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County, Texas, out of the General Fund of Taylor County, Texas.

Removal of Judge

Sec. 19. The Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations shall be subject to removal from the office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the removal of County Officers.

Repealer

Sec. 20. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict, but otherwise this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws.

Activation and Operation of Court

Sec. 21. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County, Texas, may immediately after the effective date of this Act, make said Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations activated and operational or as soon thereafter as is practical.

Sec. 18. (a) Either judge may issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, execution, or writs of possession and restitution, and any other writs which the district courts may issue.

(b) The judges may punish for contempt.

(c) Writs, processes, and orders issued by the transferring court on cases subsequently transferred are returnable to the court to which the case is transferred as if that court had issued the writ, process, or order.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 19. (a) When not in conflict with this Act, the provisions of Chapter 204, Acts of the 48th Legislature, 1943 (Article 2338-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended, and Articles 2330-2337, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, govern the practice and procedure of the court.

(b) When the provisions of this Act and the laws cited in Subsection (a) do not apply, the laws and rules pertaining to district courts govern the practice and procedure of the court.

Art. 2338–19. Court of Domestic Relations for Brazoria County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Brazoria County, Texas, to be known as the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations.

Qualifications of Judge; Salary

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall have the qualifications provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for District Judges. He may be paid by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County no more than the salary paid to the District Judge by the State of Texas, same to be paid out of the General Fund of the County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations for Brazoria County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Brazoria County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District Courts in Brazoria County, and all cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Transfer of Cases

Sec. 4. All cases enumerated or included above may be instituted or transferred to the Court of Domestic Relations. Immediately after this Act takes effect all cases enumerated or included above now pending in the District Courts of Brazoria County may be transferred to the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act. Thereafter the Judges of the District Courts of Brazoria County may transfer any case within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act to said Court of Domestic Relations, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations may transfer any case pending in said Court to any District Court of Brazoria County as designated by the presiding District Judge of said County. Said Court of Domestic Relations may also sit for any of the District Courts of Brazoria County and hear and decide for such Courts any case coming within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act. All District Courts of Brazoria County may likewise sit for, hear and decide cases pending in the Court of Domestic Relations, as the sitting for, hearing and deciding cases as now or hereafter may be authorized by law for all District Courts of Brazoria County.

Disqualification of Judge; Special Judge

Sec. 5. Should the Judge be disqualified to try a particular case, or should the Judge by reason of illness or other inability fail or refuse to hold court as needed, on matters pending in the Court of Domestic Relations only, such fact shall be brought to the attention of the presiding Judge of the District Courts of Brazoria County by any practicing lawyer of Brazoria County, whereupon such matters as require attention shall be promptly assigned by the presiding Judge to one of the District Courts of Brazoria County for action and disposition in the same manner as other matters or trials in the several District Courts. In the event it should ever become necessary to select a special Judge for the Court of Domestic Relations, such special Judge shall be selected in the manner provided by law for the selection of a special Judge of the District Court.

Concurrent Jurisdiction with District Courts

Sec. 6. Nothing in the Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the District Courts of Brazoria County, but such Courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law. Such District Courts shall continue to exercise concurrent jurisdiction on all matters which by this Act are brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations and none of the District Courts of Brazoria County shall be relieved by the provisions of this Act of their several responsibilities for the handling and disposition of all matters which are by this Act brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations as time and the condition of the dockets of such District Courts will permit.

Concurrent Jurisdiction with County Courts

Sec. 7. As additional concurrent jurisdiction, the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Brazoria County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws and the Constitution of this State, County Courts have jurisdiction, except the executive functions of the County Judge as a member of the Commissioners Court, Board of Equalization, Budget Officer and other executive and administrative functions.

Eminent Domain Proceedings

Sec. 8. The jurisdiction of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Court of Brazoria County, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Brazoria County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding Judge thereof, including the right of the County Judge of Brazoria County to appoint commissioners in condemnation, receive the reports and enter judgments. It is the intention of this Section to vest in the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations jurisdiction to hear any and all matters in condemnation, whether by commission or jury of view, appealable to the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations or to the County Court only.

Probate Matters and Proceedings

Sec. 9. The Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall also have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Brazoria County, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of Brazoria County in such matters and proceedings. Said Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law and conduct lunacy proceedings.

The Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court of Brazoria County conferred upon County Courts or upon Probate Courts specially created by the Legislature in Article 1970a-1, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as the same now stands or may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to Probate Courts whether specially created by the Legislature or otherwise, shall be and they are hereby made to apply concurrently in all their provisions insofar as they are applicable to the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act. It is the intention of the Legislature in this Act that the County Judge of Brazoria County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Brazoria County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Brazoria County and all duties and jurisdiction vested in the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations by this Act now being performed by the County Judge of Brazoria County, Texas, is and shall be concurrent.

Dockets; Citations and Other Process

Sec. 10. With reference to all matters civil, criminal and probate, over which the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations is invested concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Brazoria County, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall use the same dockets as now provided by said County Clerk in accordance with law for the use of the Judge of the County Court and Probate Court of Brazoria County and the Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations and the County Judge shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all matters therein provided as provided in this Act. All suits and other proceedings instituted in the County over which the County Court or Probate Court has jurisdiction shall be addressed to the County Court of the County. The Judge of either the County Court of Domestic Relations or the County Judge may hear and dispose of any suit or other proceeding on the civil, criminal and probate dockets of the County Court of Brazoria County, without the necessity of transferring the suit or other proceeding, either civil, criminal or probate, from one court to the other. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the County Court or Probate Court and the Clerk of the County Court in said County shall keep one set of minutes in which shall be recorded all the judgments and orders of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations and the County Court of Brazoria County. All citations and other process issued by the County Clerk and all notices, restraining orders and other process authorized to be issued by the Clerk of the County Court shall be returnable to the County Court of Brazoria County, and on the return of such process the hearing or trial may be presided over by the Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations insofar as provided by this Act or the Judge of the County Court, and any and all such Acts thus performed by the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations or the County Court of Brazoria County shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Suits Involving Adoptions, Custody of Children and Support of Minors

Sec. 11. Immediately after this Act takes effect, the District Clerk of Brazoria County, who shall be the Clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations in all matters wherein the Court of Domestic Relations has concurrent jurisdiction with the District Courts of Brazoria County, shall file in the Court of Domestic Relations created by this Act all cases involving adoptions and independent actions involving child custody and support of minors, including cases under the Reciprocal Support Act, all applications to change the names of persons and all divorce cases. The County Clerk of Brazoria County shall be the Clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations in all matters wherein the Court of Domestic Relations has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court.

Court of Record; Seal; Records and Minutes

Sec. 12. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall be a Court of record, shall sit and hold court in the county seat of Brazoria County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein provided. These dockets, records and minutes shall be separate from the dockets, records and minutes of the District Courts of Brazoria County and as provided hereinafter with the County Judge of Brazoria County.

Boards and Officers, Duties

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the Probation Department, the Sheriff, Constables and other law enforcement agencies of the State of Texas and Brazoria County and the cities thereof, as well as Welfare Agencies, to furnish said Court of Domestic Relations such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court and all Sheriffs and Constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from the District Courts, County Courts and Probate Courts.

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 14. The said Court of Domestic Relations and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts and County Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 15. There shall be two terms of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations each year, one beginning on the first Monday in January and continuing until the convening of the next regular term beginning the following January. The first term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday following the appointment of the Judge thereof and shall continue until the convening of the next term thereof as above provided.

Membership of Judge on Juvenile Board; Compensation

Sec. 16. The Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Brazoria County and receive as additional compensation thereof the same salary as paid by Brazoria County to the District Judges of Brazoria County for acting as members of the Juvenile Board. The Juvenile Board shall continue as now constituted with the same salary and authority as now provided by law.

Election of Judge; Term; Vacancies

Sec. 17. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations, who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of said Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the Judge of said Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall, in like manner as hereinabove provided, be filled by said Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

District Attorney; Representation of State

Sec. 18. The Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County shall represent the State of Texas in all prosecutions and in all matters in the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations as provided by law for such prosecutions and matters in County Courts and in District Courts over which the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations is by this Act given jurisdiction and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law in such matters.

Removal of Judge

Sec. 19. The Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any District Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Oath and Bond of Judge

Sec. 20. The Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall take the oath and execute the bond in the manner and form as required by law relating to District Judges and the said bond shall be approved in the same manner as that of District Judges.

Appeals

Sec. 21. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals as is now or may be hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 22. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, the drawing of jury panels, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearing in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts, general or special, as well as County Courts; provided that juries in all matters civil or criminal shall always be composed of twelve (12) members except that in misdemeanor criminal cases the juries shall be composed of six (6) members, as well as six (6) member juries in cases where this Court has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court as herein provided.
Art. 2338-19  TITLE 43  1558

Effect on Jurisdiction of District, County and Probate Courts

Sec. 23. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several District Courts of Brazoria County, the County Court and the Probate Court of Brazoria County and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said Courts.

Court Reporter

Sec. 24. The Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint a Court Reporter in such cases as may be required by law, and in such other cases as shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. Such Court Reporter shall be paid such salary out of the general fund of the County as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. The Judge shall also have the power and authority to appoint a court interpreter, in such cases as may be necessary, who shall be paid such fees and compensation out of the general fund of the County for such service as may be fixed by the Judge and approved by the Commissioners Court.

Judge as Attorney at Law

Sec. 25. The Judge of the Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations shall not appear as an attorney at law in any court of record in this State nor shall he appear and practice as an attorney at law in any county or Justice Court over which he has original or appellate jurisdiction.

Inconsistent Laws

Sec. 26. Any law or laws of this State which are inconsistent with this Act are hereby expressly repealed; however, this Act is meant to be cumulative with existing laws and is meant to be reconciled with existing laws where possible.

Art. 2338–20. Court of Domestic Relations for Midland County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas.

Qualifications of Judge

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, hereby established, shall have such qualifications as are fixed by the Constitution and Laws of this State for Judges of District Courts.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations for Midland County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in Midland County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Contempt Proceedings

Sec. 4. The Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall have jurisdiction to hear contempt proceedings on, or any motion to alter, amend, or modify any judgment of a domestic relations case (such cases that are described in Section 3 of this Act) heretofore determined by the County Court of Midland County or the 142nd Judicial District Court for Midland County.

Juvenile Board

Sec. 5. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall be a member of the Midland County Juvenile Board, which shall hereafter be composed of the Judge of the 142nd Judicial District Court, the County Judge of Midland County, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, which Juvenile Board is authorized to designate the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, as the Juvenile Court of Midland County. The members of the Juvenile Board shall receive such compensation for their services as members of the Juvenile Board as is provided by the laws of this State governing compensation for members of Juvenile Boards. The compensation shall be paid by Midland County.
Appointment of Judge; Term of Office; Salary; Special Judge

Sec. 6. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Governor shall appoint as Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, a suitable person having the qualifications provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State for District Judges, who shall hold office until the next general election after his appointment and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall be elected for a term of four years as provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid to the District Judge of the 142nd Judicial District Court of Midland County, which shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Midland County out of the General Fund or the Officers' Salary Fund of the County. If the Judge be absent, a special judge, possessing the qualifications herein set out, may be elected by the Bar as provided by the law for election of a special judge in County Courts. If the Judge be disqualified in a cause and the parties fail to agree upon a special judge to try the cause, the Judge shall certify his disqualification to the Commissioners Court of Midland County, Texas, and the Commissioners Court shall appoint a special judge in such cause. A special judge shall be paid the sum of $25 for each day he actually serves as such and his compensation shall not be deducted from the salary of the regular Judge, but shall be in addition thereto.

Transfer of Cases to Court of Domestic Relations

Sec. 7. When the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, is organized and the Judge thereof shall qualify, the County Judge of Midland County, Texas, and the Judge of the 142nd Judicial District Court of Midland County, Texas, may transfer, at their discretion, to the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, all cases which may then be pending in their respective Courts in Midland County, or all cases which have been adjudicated by their respective Courts and whose judgment they still have jurisdiction over, of which by this Act said Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders entered by them.

Transfer of Cases to County or District Courts

Sec. 8. All cases and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, is hereby given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in that Court but the Judge of said Court may transfer any such cases or matters to the County or District Courts having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State to be tried in the court to which such transfer is made, with the permission and consent of the Judge thereof.

Place of Sitting; Dockets and Minutes

Sec. 9. The Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall sit and hold court in Midland County and shall maintain all necessary dockets and minutes therein.

Boards and Officers; Duties

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Child Welfare Department, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, County Juvenile Officer, sheriff, and constables within Midland County to furnish to the Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by the Court.

Officers and Investigators; Court Reporter; Compensation

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall have authority to appoint such officers and investigators that might be necessary to the proper administration of its jurisdiction in Midland County. When he deems it necessary to the proper administration of the Court, he may appoint a court reporter. Provided, however, that all such appointments must be approved by the Juvenile Board of Midland County, by a majority vote of its members, and the salaries and compensation of the officers, investigators, and court reporter shall in like manner be determined by the members and paid by the Commissioners Court out of the General Fund of Midland County.

Injunctions and Writs; Contempts

Sec. 12. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall have power to issue injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders and such other writs as are now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by the County and District Courts when necessary in cases or matters over which the court has jurisdiction. The Court shall also have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 13. The terms of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall begin on the first Monday in March and September of each year and may continue until the date fixed for the beginning of the next term. As soon as this Act becomes effective and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, is appointed and qualified, he shall begin a term of court which shall continue until the day fixed for the beginning of the next succeeding term and thereafter the terms shall begin on the above-mentioned dates. The Judge in his discretion may hold as many sessions of court in any term as he considers proper and expedient for the dispatch of business.
Vacancies
Sec. 14. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Appeals
Sec. 15. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of the Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals for the Eighth Supreme Judicial District of Texas as provided by law for appeals from District and County Courts.

Practice and Procedure
Sec. 16. The practice, procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the Court shall be governed by the laws and rules pertaining to District and County Courts; provided, however, that juries shall be composed of 12 members.

Court of Record; Seal; Clerk of Court
Sec. 17. The Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat in Midland County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records, and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Midland County shall serve as Clerk of the court and perform all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this Court. The seal of the court shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations, Midland County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Sheriffs and Constables; Process and Writs
Sec. 18. All sheriffs and constables within the State shall render the same service and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs for said Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs for District Courts.

Custody of Children; Investigations

County Attorney; Representation of State
Sec. 20. The County Attorney of Midland County or his duly and legally qualified assistant, or assistants, shall represent the State in all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected, or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Unit, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, or any other welfare agency is interested, and shall represent the State in all proceedings in the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas.

Juvenile Board; Counsel and Advice to Judge
Sec. 21. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, when deemed necessary or when sought by him and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of the Court.

Removal of Judge
Sec. 22. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations in and for Midland County, Texas, shall be subject to removal from the office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the removal of county officers.

Court of Domestic Relations for El Paso County
Creation of Court
Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for El Paso County, Texas.

Qualifications of Judge; Salary; Member of Juvenile Board
Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall be at least twenty-five (25) years of age and licensed to practice law in this State and shall have been a practicing attorney or a judge of a court for four (4) years and a resident of El Paso County for two (2) years next before his election or appointment. He shall reside in El Paso County during his term of office. He shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid by the County of El Paso and the State of Texas to any one judge of a District Court of El Paso County, Texas. His salary shall be paid out of the General Fund of El Paso County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. He shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of El Paso County, which Juvenile Board shall be authorized to designate the Court of Domestic Relations as the Juvenile Court of El Paso County; Judges of the District Courts of El Paso County shall continue to receive such compensation for all judicial and administrative services required of them including services as members of the Juvenile Board and otherwise from county funds as they are now entitled to receive or may hereafter be authorized to receive under general or special law.

Jurisdiction
Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations shall have jurisdiction within the limits of El Paso County, concurrent with the District Courts sitting in said county, of all cases involving adoptions, birth records, removal of disability of minority and coverture, change of name of persons, delinquent child proceedings, neglected or dependent child proceedings, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District Courts or Courts of Domestic Relations under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody, visitation and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending pending hearing and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody, visitation, support, or reciprocal support cases, contempt actions arising out of failure to pay child support and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and difference between spouses, or between parents, or between them or one of them, and their minor children, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District Courts of El Paso County; and all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent children as provided by law. All cases enumerated or included above may be instituted in or transferred to said Court.

Transfer of Cases from District Courts

Sec. 4. The District Courts of El Paso County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations any and all cases in their respective courts of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers, reports, records, and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Return of Writs and Process; Valid and Binding Effect

Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District Court prior to the time any case is transferred by said Court to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of Record; Sale; Clerk of Court

Sec. 6. The Court of Domestic Relations shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat of El Paso County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of El Paso County shall serve as the clerk of said Court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said Court and shall perform all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this Court. The seal of said Court shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations, El Paso County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Appointment of Judge; Removal; Vacancies

Sec. 7. The Governor shall nominate the first Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of El Paso County who shall be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate to serve until the next general election or until his successor is qualified. Thereafter, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of El Paso County shall be elected in accordance with the terms of Section 65, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas. He shall be subject to removal for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for removal of District Judges. Vacancies in the office shall be filled by appointment by the Governor.

Juvenile Board; Counsel and Advice to Judge

Sec. 8. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations whenever deemed necessary or when sought by him, and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court, and shall provide for the filing of any or all cases within the jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations in the Court of Domestic Relations, or in any one or more of the District Courts of El Paso County.

Transfer of Cases to District Courts; Presiding Judge; Disqualification of Judge; Special Judge

Sec. 9. All cases, applications, complaints, and all other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court; said Court and the Judge thereof may transfer any such cases, complaints, or other matters to any District Court of El Paso County having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State of Texas, with the consent of the Judge of such Court, and the Judge of such District Court may try all such cases, complaints, or other matters which may be so transferred. Any Judge of a District Court of El Paso County may preside as Judge of the Juvenile Court and of the Court of Domestic Relations and hear and determine all such cases, complaints, or other matters over which the Judge of such District Courts has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas, with the same authority to act as presiding Judge over all such cases, complaints, or other matters for all purposes, and to the same extent as the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations; and such Judge of a District Court of El Paso County, Texas, may sit in his own courtroom, the Juvenile Courtroom, the courtroom of any other District Court or Court of Domestic Relations within the county, or the Court of Domestic Relations and hear and determine any case, complaint, or matter pending in the Court of Domestic Relations. In the event of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations to try a particular case or because of illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board may select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof, or said Juvenile Board may request the presiding judge of the Sixth Administrative Judicial District of Texas to assign a judge to handle the business of said Court pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 156, Acts of the 40th Legislature, 1927 (Article 200a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and said judge so selected by the board or assigned by the presiding judge shall be paid for his services in the same manner as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the payment of District Judges assigned to sit for other District Judges. The Judge of such Court of Domestic Relations may, in any case, matter or proceeding pending in any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of El Paso County of which case, matter or proceeding said Court of Domestic Relations would have potential jurisdiction, in the courtroom of such Court of Domestic Relations or in the Juvenile Courtroom, or in the courtroom of any District Court or Court of Domestic Relations of El Paso County, sit and hear and determine any such case, matter or proceeding pending therein, and enter any order or judgment, or do any other thing, which the Judge of such District Court or Court of Domestic Relations would have authority under law to do.

Probation Officers, Sheriffs, Etc.; Duty to Furnish Services; Process and Writs

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constables of El Paso County to furnish to said court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court Reporter; Compensation, Payment; Bailiff

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint a court reporter necessary for the operations of the Court of Domestic Relations, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporters of District Courts in El Paso County and the court reporter's salary shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of El Paso County from appropriate county funds. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of El Paso County to serve the court as in other courts of the county.

Child Custody Cases; Investigation

Sec. 12. In all suits for divorce where it appears from the petition or otherwise that the parties to such suit have a child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, and in any other cases involving the custody of any child or children, the said Court or Judge thereof, in its or his discretion, may require such juvenile officer or investigator to make a thorough and complete investigation as to the necessities, environment and surroundings of the child or children and of the disposition that should be made of such child or children, and to make report thereof to the court, and if desired by the court, to produce such evidence on any hearing in such case as may have been developed in connection with such investigation.

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 13. The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, execution, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Term of Court

Sec. 14. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its term shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 15. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Eighth Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 16. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Court; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

Art. 2338-22. Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County, Texas.

Qualifications and Salary of Judge

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County shall have the qualifications provided by the constitution and laws of this state for district judges. He shall be paid an annual salary out of the general fund of the county in 12 equal monthly installments in an amount not less than $16,000 to be set by the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the district courts in Fort Bend County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected, or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act, and all jurisdiction, powers, and authority placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees, or other legal entities, which are within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said court and the judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Institution and Transfer of Cases

Sec. 4. All cases enumerated or included in Section 3 of this Act may be instituted or transferred to the court of domestic relations. All cases enumerated or included in Section 3 of this Act which are pending in the district courts of Fort Bend County on the effective date of this Act may be transferred to the court of domestic relations. Thereafter the judges of the district courts of Fort Bend County may transfer any case within the jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations created by this Act to said court of domestic relations, and the judge of the court of domestic relations may transfer any case pending in said court to any district court of Fort Bend County as designated by the presiding judge of said county. The court of domestic relations may also sit for any of the district courts of Fort Bend County and hear and decide for such courts any case coming within the jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations created by this Act. All district courts of Fort Bend County may likewise sit for, hear and decide cases pending in the court of domestic relations, as the sitting for, hearing and deciding of cases may be authorized by law for all district courts of Fort Bend County.

Disqualification of Judge; Special Judge

Sec. 5. Should the judge be disqualified to try a particular case, or should the judge by reason of illness or other inability fail or refuse to hold court as needed, or matters pending in the court of domestic relations only, such fact shall be brought to the attention of the presiding judge of the district courts of Fort Bend County by any practicing lawyer of Fort Bend County, whereupon such matters as require attention shall be promptly assigned by the presiding judge to one of the district courts of Fort Bend County for action and disposition in the same manner as other matters or trials in the several district courts. In the event it should ever become necessary to select a special judge for the court of domestic relations, such special judge shall be selected in the manner provided by law for the selection of a special judge of the district court.

Concurrent Jurisdiction with District Courts

Sec. 6. Nothing in the Act diminishes the jurisdiction of the district courts of Fort Bend County, but such courts shall retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction of district courts as conferred by law. The district courts shall continue to exercise concurrent jurisdiction on all matters which by this Act are brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations and none of the district courts of Fort Bend County shall be relieved by the provisions of this Act of their several responsibilities for the handling and disposition of all matters which are by this Act brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations as time and the condition of the dockets of such district courts will permit.

Concurrent Jurisdiction with County Courts

Sec. 7. As additional concurrent jurisdiction, the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County has original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Fort Bend County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws and the constitution of this state, county courts have jurisdiction, except the executive functions of the county judge as a member of the commissioners court, board of equalization, budget officer, and other executive and administrative functions.

Eminent Domain Proceedings

Sec. 8. The jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County extends to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has been vested in the district court of Fort Bend County, but this provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Fort Bend County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the presiding judge thereof, including the right of the County Judge of Fort Bend County to appoint commissioners in condemnation, receive the reports and enter judgments. It is the intention of this section to vest in the court of domestic relations jurisdiction to hear any and all matters in condemnation, whether by commission or jury of view, appealed to the court of domestic relations or to the district court only.

Probate Matters and Proceedings

Sec. 9. The Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County also has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Fort Bend County, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of Fort Bend County in such matters and proceedings. The court of domestic relations has authority to probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, conveying the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law and conduct lunacy proceedings.

The Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County has jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court of Fort Bend County conferred upon county courts or upon probate courts specially created by the legislature in Chapter 334, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 1970a-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and all other provisions of the law relating to probate courts, whether specially created by the legislature or otherwise, apply concurrently in all their provisions insofar as they are applicable to the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act. It is the intention of the legislature in this Act that the County Judge of Fort Bend County shall be the judge of the County Court of Fort Bend County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Fort Bend County and all duties and jurisdiction vested in the court of domestic relations by this Act now being performed by the County Judge of Fort Bend County, Texas, is and shall be concurrent.

Dockets; Citations and Other Process

Sec. 10. With reference to all matters civil, criminal and probate, over which the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County is given concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Fort Bend County, the judge of the court of domestic relations shall use the same dockets as now provided by the county clerk in accordance with law for the use of the judge of the county court and probate court of Fort Bend County and the judge of the court of domestic relations and the county judge shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all matters therein insofar as provided in this Act. All suits and other proceedings instituted in the county over which the county court or probate court has jurisdiction shall be addressed to the county court of the county. The judge of either the court of domestic relations or the county judge may hear and dispose of any suit or other proceeding on the civil, criminal and probate dockets of the County Court of Fort Bend County, without the necessity of transferring the suit or other proceeding, either civil, criminal, or probate, from one court to the other. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the county court or probate court and the clerk of the county court in said county shall keep one set of minutes in which shall be recorded all the judgments and orders of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County and the County Court of Fort Bend County. All citations and other process issued by the county clerk and all notices, restraining orders and other process authorized to be issued by the clerk of the county court shall be returnable to the County Court of Fort Bend County, and on the return of such process the hearing or trial may be presided over by the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County insofar as provided by this Act or the judge of the county court, and any and all such Acts thus performed by the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County or the County Court of Fort Bend County shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Suits Involving Adoptions, Custody of Children and Support of Minors

Sec. 11. The District Clerk of Fort Bend County, who shall be the clerk of the court of domestic relations in all matters wherein the court of domestic relations has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts of Fort Bend County, shall file in the court of domestic relations created by this Act all cases involving adoptions and independent actions involving child custody and support of minors, including cases under the Reciprocal Support Act, all applications to change the names of persons, and all divorce cases. The County Clerk of Fort Bend County shall be the clerk of the court of domestic relations in all matters wherein the court of domestic relations has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court.

Court of Record; Seal; Records and Minutes

Sec. 12. The said court of domestic relations shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court in the county seat of Fort Bend County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein as herein provided. These dockets, records and minutes shall be separate from the dockets, records and minutes of the district courts of Fort Bend County and as provided hereinbefore with the County Judge of Fort Bend County.

Duties of Officers and Agencies

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the probation department, the sheriff, constables and other law enforcement agencies of the State of Texas and Fort Bend County and the cities thereof, as well as welfare agencies, to furnish said court of domestic relations such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said court and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services with reference to process and writs from said court of domestic relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from the district courts, county courts, and probate courts.

Writs and Orders; Contempt

Sec. 14. The court of domestic relations and the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by district courts and county courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said court of domestic relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 15. There shall be two terms of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County each year, one beginning on the first Monday in January and continuing until the convening of the next regular term, and one beginning on the first Monday in July and continuing until the next regular term beginning the following January. The first term shall begin on the first Monday following the appointment of the judge thereof and shall continue until the convening of the next term as provided in this section.

Membership of Judge on Juvenile Board; Compensation

Sec. 16. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Fort Bend County and receive as additional compensation the same salary as paid by Fort Bend County to the district judges of Fort Bend County for acting as members of the juvenile board. The juvenile board shall continue as now constituted with the same salary and authority as now provided by law.

Appointment and Election of Judge; Term; Vacancies

Sec. 17. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County shall appoint a judge of the court of domestic relations, to serve until the next general election. At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the judge shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, Constitution of Texas. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

District or County Attorney; Representation of State; Fees

Sec. 18. The Criminal District Attorney or County Attorney of Fort Bend County shall represent the State of Texas in all prosecutions and in all matters in the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County as provided by law for such prosecutions and matters in county courts and in district courts over which the court of domestic relations is by this Act given jurisdiction and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law in such matters.

Removal of Judge

Sec. 19. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any district judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Appeals

Sec. 20. Except where a direct appeal is allowed to the supreme court, appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of this court, including appeals from judgments and orders in probate matters, shall be to the court of civil appeals as is provided for appeals from district and county courts and in all criminal cases shall be to the court of criminal appeals.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 21. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, the drawing of jury panels, selection of juries, issuance of process, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearing in this court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts; provided that juries in all matters civil or criminal shall always be composed of 12 members except that in misdemeanor criminal cases the juries shall be composed of six members, as well as six-member juries in cases where this court has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court as herein provided.

Effect on Jurisdiction of District and County Courts

Sec. 22. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts and the County Court of Fort Bend County, and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is conferred by law and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said courts.

Court Reporter

Sec. 23. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County may appoint a court reporter in such cases as may be required by law, and in such other cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. The court reporter shall be paid a salary out of the general fund of the county to be fixed by the commissioners court. The judge may appoint a court interpreter, in such cases as may be necessary, who shall be paid such fees and compensation out of the general fund of the county for such service as may be fixed by the judge and approved by the commissioners court. The judge may appoint a stenographer, who shall be paid such compensation as may be fixed by the judge and approved by the commissioners court out of the general fund of the county.

Judge as Attorney at Law

Sec. 24. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Fort Bend County shall not appear as an attorney at law in any court of record in this state nor shall he appear and practice as an attorney at law in any county or justice court over which he has original or appellate jurisdiction.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 221, ch. 100, eff. May 18, 1973.]

Art. 2338-23. Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County

Creation of Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County, Texas.

Qualifications and Salary of Judge

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County shall have the qualifications provided by the constitution and laws of this state for district judges. He shall be paid an annual salary out of the general fund of the county in 12 equal monthly installments in an amount not less than $12,000 to be set by the Commissioners Court of Wharton County.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. The Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County shall have the jurisdiction concurrent with the district courts in Wharton County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, as amended (Article 2325b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), and all jurisdiction, powers, and authority placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees, or other legal entities, which are within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon, of all suits for trial of the right of property, and said court and the judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Institution and Transfer of Cases

Sec. 4. All cases enumerated or included in Section 3 may be instituted or transferred to the court of domestic relations. All cases enumerated or included in Section 3 which are pending in the district courts of Wharton County on the effective date of this Act may be transferred to the court of domestic relations. Thereafter the judges of the district courts of Wharton County may transfer any case within the jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations created by this Act to said court of domestic relations, and the judge of the court of domestic relations may transfer any case pending in said court to any district court of Wharton County as designated by the presiding district judge of said county. The court of domestic relations may also sit for any of the district courts of Wharton County and hear and decide for such courts any case coming within the jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations created by this Act. All district courts of Wharton County may likewise sit for, hear and decide cases pending in the court of domestic relations, as the sitting for, hearing and deciding of cases may be authorized by law for all district courts of Wharton County.

Disqualification of Judge; Special Judge

Sec. 5. Should the judge be disqualified to try a particular case, or should the judge by reason of illness or other inability fail or refuse to hold court as needed, on matters pending in the court of domestic relations only, such fact shall be brought to the attention of the presiding judge of the district courts of Wharton County by any practicing lawyer of Wharton County, whereupon such matters as require attention shall be promptly assigned by the presiding judge to one of the district courts of Wharton County for action and disposition in the same manner as other matters or trials in the several district courts. In the event it should ever become necessary to select a special judge for the court of domestic relations, such special judge shall be selected in the manner provided by law for the selection of a special judge of the district court.

Concurrent Jurisdiction with District Courts

Sec. 6. Nothing in the Act diminishes the jurisdiction of the district courts of Wharton County, but such courts shall retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction of district courts as conferred by law. The district courts shall continue to exercise concurrent jurisdiction on all matters which by this Act are brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations and none of the district courts of Wharton County shall be relieved by the provisions of this Act of their several responsibilities for the handling and disposition of all matters which are by this Act brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the court of domestic relations as time and the condition of the dockets of such district courts will permit.

Concurrent Jurisdiction with County Courts

Sec. 7. As additional concurrent jurisdiction, the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County has original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Wharton County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws and the constitution of this state, county courts have jurisdiction, except the executive functions of the county judge as a member of the commissioners court, board of equalization, budget officer, and other executive and administrative functions.

Eminent Domain Proceedings

Sec. 8. The jurisdiction of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County extends to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has been vested in the district court of Wharton County, but this provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Wharton County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the presiding judge thereof, including the right of the County Judge of Wharton County to appoint commissioners in condemnation, receive the reports and enter judgments. It is the intention of this section to vest in the court of domestic relations jurisdiction to hear any and all matters in condemnation, whether by commission or jury of view, appealed to the court of domestic relations or to the district court only.

Probate Matters and Proceedings

Sec. 9. The Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County also has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Wharton County, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of Wharton County in such matters and proceedings. The court of domestic relations has authority to probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law and conduct lunacy proceedings.

The Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County has jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court of Wharton County conferred upon county courts or upon probate courts specially created by the legislature in Chapter 334, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 1970a-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and all other provisions of the law relating to probate courts, whether specially created by the legislature or otherwise, apply concurrently in all their provisions insofar as they are applicable to the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act. It is the intention of the legislature in this Act that the county judge of Wharton County shall be the judge of the County Court of Wharton County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Wharton County and all duties and jurisdiction vested in the court of domestic relations by this Act now being performed by the county judge of Wharton County, Texas, is and shall be concurrent.

Dockets; Citations and Other Process

Sec. 10. With reference to all matters civil, criminal and probate, over which the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County is given concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Wharton County, the judge of the court of domestic relations shall use the same dockets as now provided by the county court in accordance with law for the use of the judge of the county court and probate court of Wharton County and the judge of the court of domestic relations and the county judge shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all matters therein insofar as provided in this Act. All suits and other proceedings instituted in the county over which the county court or probate court has jurisdiction shall be addressed to the county court of the county. The judge of either the court of domestic relations or the county judge may hear and dispose of any suit or other proceeding on the civil, criminal and probate dockets of the County Court of Wharton County, without the necessity of transferring the suit or other proceeding, either civil, criminal, or probate, from one court to the other. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the county court or probate court and the clerk of the county court in said county shall keep one set of minutes in which shall be recorded all the judgments and orders of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County and the County Court of Wharton County. All citations and other process issued by the county clerk and all notices, restraining orders and other process authorized to be issued by the clerk of the county court shall be returnable to the County Court of Wharton County, and on the return of such process the hearing or trial may be presided over by the judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County insofar as provided by this Act or the judge of the county court, and any and all such Acts thus performed by the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County or the County Court of Wharton County shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.
Art. 2338-23

Suits Involving Adoption, Custody of Children and Support of Minors

Sec. 11. The District Clerk of Wharton County, who shall be the clerk of the court of domestic relations in all matters wherein the court of domestic relations has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts of Wharton County, shall file in the court of domestic relations created by this Act all cases involving adoptions and independent actions involving child custody and support of minors, including cases under the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, as amended (Article 2328b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and all applications to change the names of persons, and all divorce cases. The County Clerk of Wharton County shall be the clerk of the court of domestic relations in all matters wherein the court of domestic relations has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court.

Sec. 12. The said court of domestic relations shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court in the county seat of Wharton County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein as herein provided. These dockets, records and minutes shall be separate from the dockets, records and minutes of the district courts of Wharton County and as provided hereinbefore with the County Judge of Wharton County.

Duties of Officers and Agencies

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the probation department, the sheriff, constables and other law enforcement agencies of the State of Texas and Wharton County and the cities thereof, as well as welfare agencies, to furnish said court of domestic relations such services as the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said court and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services with reference to process and writs from said court of domestic relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from the district courts, county courts, and probate courts.

Sec. 14. The court of domestic relations and the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by district courts and county courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said court of domestic relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of Court

Sec. 15. There shall be two terms of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County each year, one beginning on the first Monday in January and continuing until the convening of the next regular term, and one beginning on the first Monday in July and continuing until the next regular term beginning the following January. The first term shall begin on the first Monday following the appointment of the judge thereof and shall continue until the convening of the next term as provided in this section.

Membership of Judge on Juvenile Board; Compensation

Sec. 16. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Wharton County and receive as additional compensation the same salary as paid by Wharton County to the district judges of Wharton County for acting as members of the juvenile board. The juvenile board shall continue as now constituted with the same salary and authority as now provided by law.

Appointment and Election of Judge; Term; Vacancies

Sec. 17. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Wharton County shall appoint a judge of the court of domestic relations, to serve until the next general election. At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the judge shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article 5, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, Constitution of Texas. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Wharton County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

District or County Attorney; Representation of State; Fees

Sec. 18. The Criminal District Attorney or County Attorney of Wharton County shall represent the State of Texas in all prosecutions and in all matters in the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County as provided by law for such prosecutions and matters in county courts and in district courts over which the court of domestic relations is by this Act given jurisdiction and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law in such matters.

Removal of Judge

Sec. 19. The judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any district judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Appeals

Sec. 20. Except where a direct appeal is allowed to the supreme court, appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of this court, including appeals from judgments and orders in probate matters, shall be to the court of civil appeals as is provided for appeals from district and county courts and in all criminal cases shall be to the court of criminal appeals.
Practice and Procedure
Sec. 21. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, the drawing of jury panels, selection of juries, issuance of process, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearing in this court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts; provided that juries in all matters civil or criminal shall always be composed of 12 members except that in misdemeanor criminal cases the juries shall be composed of six members, as well as six-member juries in cases where this court has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court as herein provided.

Effect on Jurisdiction of District and County Courts
Sec. 22. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts and the County Court of Wharton County, and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is conferred by law and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said courts.

Court Reporter
Sec. 23. The judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County may appoint a court reporter in such cases as may be required by law, and in such other cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. The court reporter shall be paid a salary out of the general fund of the county to be fixed by the commissioners court. The judge may appoint a court interpreter, in such cases as may be necessary, who shall be paid such fees and compensation out of the general fund of the county for such service as may be fixed by the judge and approved by the commissioners court. The judge may appoint a stenographer, who shall be paid such compensation as may be fixed by the judge and approved by the commissioners court out of the general fund of the county.

Judge as Attorney at Law
Sec. 24. The judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County shall not appear as an attorney at law in any court of record in this state nor shall he appear and practice as an attorney at law in any county or justice court over which he has original or appellate jurisdiction.

1. COMMISSIONERS COURTS

Art. 2339. Election

Each county shall be divided into four commissioners precincts, and one commissioner shall be elected biennially in each precinct, and each commissioner shall hold his office for two years.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 2339

Increase in Term of Office
Const. art. 5, § 18, was amended in November 1953 to increase the term of office of county commissioners from two to four years.

Art. 2340. Oath and Bond

Before entering upon the duties of their office, the county judge and each commissioner shall take the official oath, and shall also take a written oath that he will not be directly or indirectly interested in any contract with, or claim against, the county in which he resides, except such warrants as may issue to him as fees of office. Each commissioner shall execute a bond to be approved by the county judge in the sum of three thousand dollars, payable to the county treasurer, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, that he will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, and that he will not vote or give his consent to pay out county funds except for lawful purposes. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2341. Vacancy

In case of vacancy in the office of commissioner, the county judge shall appoint some suitable person living in the precinct where such vacancy occurs, to serve as commissioner for such precinct until the next general election. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2342. The Court

The several commissioners, together with the county judge, shall compose the "Commissioners Court," and the county judge, when present, shall be the presiding officer of said court. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2343. Quorum

(a) Any three members of the court, including the county judge, constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business except that of levying a county tax.

(b) In case a member of the court is incapacitated from any cause, then any other four members of the court constitute a quorum for levying the tax if

(1) the member's incapacity is certified in writing by a duly licensed physician; and

(2) a district court of the county approves the certification. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1002, ch. 488, § 1, eff. June 10, 1965.]

Art. 2344. Seal

Each commissioners court shall have a seal, whereon shall be engraved a star with five points, the words, "Commissioners Court, County, Texas," (the blank to be filled with the name of the County) which seal shall be kept by the clerk of said court and used in authentication of all official acts of the court, or of the presiding officer or clerk of said court, in all cases where a seal may be necessary for the authentication of any of said acts. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2345. The Clerk

The county clerk shall be ex-officio clerk of the commissioners court; and he shall attend upon each term of said commissioners court; preserve and keep all books, papers, records and effects belonging thereto, issue all notices, writes and process necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties of the commissioners court, and perform all such other duties as may be prescribed by law. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2346. Process

All notices, citations, writs and process issued from said court shall be in the name of the "State of Texas," and shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of a county and shall be dated and signed officially by the clerk, and shall have the seal of the court impressed thereon. All process of said court, when not otherwise directed by law shall be executed at least five days before the return day thereof, which return day shall be specified in the process. Subpoenas for witnesses may be executed and returned forthwith when necessary. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2347. Notice Posted

Whenever the commissioners court shall be unable to secure the publication of any notice or report required by law in the manner and for the fee provided therefor, such notice or report may be made and published by posting one copy of such notice at the courthouse door, and one of said copies shall be posted at some public place in each commissioners precinct to thirty days prior to the next succeeding term of the commissioners court. No two such copies shall be posted in the same town or city. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2348. Regular Terms

The regular terms of the commissioners court shall be commenced and be held at the court house on the second Monday of each month throughout the year and may continue in session one week; provided the court need not hold more than one session each quarter if the business of the court does not demand a session. Any session may adjourn at any time the business of the court is disposed of. Special terms may be called by the county judge or three of the commissioners, and may continue in session until the business is completed. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2349. Minutes

The court shall require the county clerk to keep suitable books in which shall be recorded the proceedings of each term of the court; which record shall be read and signed after each term by the county judge, or the member presiding and attested by the clerk. The clerk shall also record all authorized proceedings of the court between terms; and such record shall be read and signed on the first day of the term next after such proceedings occurred.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2350. County Commissioners Salaries

Sec. 1. In counties having the following assessed valuations, respectively, as shown by the total assessed valuations of all properties certified by the county assessor and approved by the Commissioners Court, for county purposes, for the previous year, from time to time, the County Commissioners of such counties shall each receive annual salaries not to exceed the amounts herein specified, said salaries to be paid in equal monthly instalments, at least one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$), and not exceeding three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$), out of the Road and Bridge Fund, and the remainder out of the General Fund of the county; said assessed valuations and salaries applicable thereto being as follows:

Art. 2350n. Repealed by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 502, ch. 221, § 7, eff. May 22, 1959

Article 2350n was derived from Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 812, ch. 456 as amended by Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1195, ch. 411, § 1 and related to allowances for traveling expenses and automobile depreciation. See now, art. 2356o.

Art. 2350o. Allowance for Traveling Expenses and Automobile Depreciation

Sec. 1. In any county in this State having a population of not more than forty-one thousand, five hundred (41,500), according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, the Commissioners Court shall pay all expenses in the operation of such automobile and keep same in repair free of any other charge to the county.

Sec. 2. In any county in this State having a population in excess of twenty-one thousand, five hundred (21,500) but not in excess of one hundred twenty-four thousand (124,000), according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, the Commissioners Court shall pay all expenses in the operation of such automobile and keep same in repair free of any other charge to the county.

Sec. 3. In any county in this State having a population in excess of 124,000, according to the last preceding or any future federal census, the Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to allow each member of the Commissioners Court the sum of not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100) per month for traveling expenses and depreciation on his automobile while on official business within the county. Each member of such Commissioners Court shall pay all expenses in the operation of such automobile and keep same in repair free of any other charge to the county.

Sec. 5. The term "members of the Commissioners Court" when used herein means the County Commissioners and the County Judge.

Sec. 6. The provisions of this bill shall apply only to those counties not furnishing an automobile, truck, or by other means providing for the traveling expenses of its commissioners, while on official business within the county.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 502, ch. 221; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2459, ch. 511, §§ 1, 2, eff. June 8, 1971.]

Saved from Repeal

Article 2350o was saved from repeal by Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 71, ch. 26, § 8. See article 2372f-2, § 3.

Art. 2350p. Allowance for Traveling Expenses and Automobile Depreciation in Counties of 73,000 to 75,750 and 11,870 to 12,000

Sec. 1. In any county having a population of not less than 73,000 nor more than 75,750 according to the last preceding federal census, the commissioners court may allow each member of the commissioners court not more than $150 per month for traveling expenses and depreciation on his automobile while on official business within the county. Each member of the commissioners court shall pay all expenses in the operation of his automobile and keep it in repair free of any other charge to the county.

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, "members of the commissioners court" means the county commissioners and the county judge.
Sec. 3. This Act applies only to counties not furnishing an automobile or truck or by other means providing for the traveling expenses of members of their commissioners courts while on official business within the county.

Sec. 4. In any county in this state having a population of not less than 11,870 and not more than 12,000 according to the last preceding federal census, the commissioners court is hereby authorized to allow each member of the court the sum of not exceeding $125 per month for traveling expenses and depreciation on his automobile while on official business within the county. Each member of the court shall pay all expenses in the operation of such automobile and keep the automobile in repair free of any other charge to the county.

Sec. 5. As used in this Act, "the last preceding federal census" means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes. (Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1927, ch. 583, eff. June 1, 1971.)

2. POWERS AND DUTIES

Art. 2351. Certain Powers Specified

Each commissioners court shall:

1. Lay off their respective counties into precincts, not less than four, and not more than eight, for the election of justices of the peace and constables, fix the times and places of holding justices courts, and shall establish places in such precincts where elections shall be held; and shall establish justices precincts and justices courts for the unorganized counties as provided by law.

2. Establish public ferries whenever the public interest may require.

3. Lay out and establish, change and discontinue public roads and highways.

4. Build bridges and keep them in repair.

5. Appoint road overseers and apportion hands.

6. Exercise general control over all roads, highways, ferries and bridges in their counties.

7. Provide and keep in repair court houses, jails and all necessary public buildings.

8. Provide for the protection, preservation and disposition of all lands granted to the county for education or schools.

9. Provide seals required by law for the district and county courts.

10. Audit and settle all accounts against the county and direct their payment.

11. Provide for the support of paupers and such idiots and lunatics as cannot be admitted into the lunatic asylum, residents of their county, who are unable to support themselves. By the term resident as used herein, is meant a person who has been a bona fide inhabitant of the county not less than six months and of the State not less than one year.

12. Provide for the burial of paupers.

13. Punish contempts by fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment not to exceed twenty-four hours, and in case of fine, the party may be held in custody until the fine is paid.

14. Issue all such notices, citations, writs and process as may be necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties imposed by such court and to enforce its jurisdiction.

15. Said court shall have all such other powers and jurisdiction, and shall perform all such other duties, as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law.

16. Said Court shall have the authority to use county road machinery and funds from the General Fund or Road and Bridge Funds in cleaning streams and in aiding flood control when such improvements are deemed to be of aid of the county in the maintenance and the building of county roads, in counties having a population of from nineteen thousand, eight hundred and fifty (19,850) to nineteen thousand, eight hundred and ninety-five (19,895) according to the last Federal Census.

17. a. The Commissioners Court of each county of this State, in addition to the powers already conferred on it by law, is hereby empowered to create a revolving fund or funds and to make appropriations thereto out of the general revenue of such county; and such revolving fund shall be used by such county only in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture to aid and assist in carrying out the purposes and provisions of an Act of Congress of the United States pertaining to the distribution of commodities to persons in need of assistance, under the direction of the United States Department of Agriculture; provided, however, that the county shall have on hand at all times either the moneys appropriated to such revolving fund or funds or the equivalent thereof in stamps issued by the United States Department of Agriculture under the Food and/or Cotton Stamp Plan, which stamps are convertible into cash at any time.

b. In such counties of this State exercising the powers herein granted, an issuing officer shall be appointed to carry out the provisions of this Act and to administer the funds herein appropriated. Such issuing officer shall be a citizen of the the grant to such county. Said counties through such Commissioners Courts are also hereby expressly authorized and empowered to contract with reference to oil, gas or other minerals or natural resources which may be vested in said counties by virtue of the ownership of such airports and to execute and deliver to any person upon such conditions and for such consideration, including oil payments, gas payments, over-riding royalties, etc., as the Commissioners Court may deem advisable, mineral deeds or mineral leases of all or any part of said minerals, or the rights thereto, which are vested in the county and to generally contract for the exploration and development of the minerals underlying said land or any part thereof.

(b) The proceeds from the sale of any minerals or mineral rights, or the consideration for the execution of any mineral leases, including cash bonuses, delay rentals and royalties, need not be devoted to the maintenance, upkeep, improvement and operation of such airport, but may be expended by the Commissioners Court for any lawful purpose.

(c) The proceeds received, or to be received from any person from the lease of the surface of said land, or from the lease of the facilities thereof, or any part thereof, for purposes other than airport purposes, or for purposes other than those relating to the operation of an airport, may likewise be expended by the Commissioners Court for any lawful purpose.

(d) The proceeds received, or to be received, from any person for any lease of the surface of said land, or for the lease of the facilities thereof, or any part thereof, for airport purposes, or for purposes related to the operation of an airport, shall be devoted, first, to the maintenance, upkeep, improvement and operation of such airport and the facilities, structures and improvements thereof, but any surplus remaining at the close of any fiscal year of operation may be expended by such Commissioners Court for any lawful purpose.

(e) The proceeds received, or to be received, from any charges for the use of said airport for airport purposes shall be devoted, first, to the maintenance, upkeep, improvement and operation of such airport and the facilities, structures and improvements thereof, but any surplus remaining at the close of the fiscal year of operation may be expended by the Commissioners Court for any lawful purpose.

19(a) The Commissioners Court of each county of this State, in addition to the powers already conferred upon it by law, is expressly authorized and empowered to contract with the United States Government, or with any agency thereof, and particularly with the Federal Works Administrator, the Housing and Home Finance Administrator, and/or the National Housing Administrator, or their successor or successors, for the acquisition of any land, or interest in land, in such county, owned by the United States Government, or any agency thereof, and for the acquisition of any temporary housing on land which the United States Government, or any agency thereof, may own or control; and each such county in this State is authorized and empowered to acquire by purchase, gift or otherwise, any such land and any such housing from the United States Government, or any agency thereof, and to own and operate such land and housing.

(b) Each Commissioners Court in this State is authorized and empowered to adopt a resolution or order requesting the transfer to said county of any such land or housing, or interest therein, which the United States Government, or any agency thereof, is now, or may be hereafter, authorized to convey or transfer to such county, and each such county, through its Commissioners Court, is expressly authorized and empowered to bind itself to comply with any and all terms and conditions which the United States Government, or any agency thereof, may own or control; and each such county, through its Commissioners Court, is expressly authorized and empowered to acquire by purchase, gift or otherwise, any such land and any such housing from the United States Government, or any agency thereof, and to own and operate such land and housing.

(c) For the purpose of purchasing or otherwise acquiring said lands or housing, or both, and improving, enlarging, extending or repairing the same, the Commissioners Court of any county may issue negotiable bonds of the county and levy taxes to provide the interest and sinking funds of such bonds so issued, the authority hereby given for the issuance of such bonds and the levy of taxes and collection of such taxes to be exercised in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(d) Counties are expressly authorized and empowered to lease or rent any lands, housing, or facilities acquired by them pursuant to this Act and to establish and revise the rent or charges therefor; to arrange or contract for the furnishing by any person or agency, public or private, of services, or facilities for, or in connection with, any of such lands, housing or facilities, or the occupants thereof.

(e) Said counties are further authorized to sell and convey all or any part of the land or housing so acquired or to lease or exchange same; and said counties are further expressly authorized to execute oil, gas or mineral leases covering all or any part of said lands so acquired on such terms and conditions as may be deemed advisable by the Commissioners Court and for such consideration, including oil payments, gas payments, overriding royalties, etc. as may be deemed advisable; and such counties, through their Commissioners Courts, are expressly authorized and empowered to execute conveyances of minerals or mineral rights, and to generally contract for the exploration and development of the minerals underlying said land, if any, or any part thereof.

20. The Commissioners Court of each county of this State, in addition to the powers already conferred on it by law, is authorized and empowered in all cases where such county has acquired a water supply from subterranean waters for county purposes, to sell, contract to sell and deliver any or all of such water which is not needed for county purposes to any public or municipal corporation, or political subdivision of this State, including any water control and improvement district, or fresh water supply district now created and existing, or which may hereafter be created under the laws of this State; any such water sold or contracted to be sold and delivered to any such public or municipal corporation or political subdivision of this State, may be used or re-sold for any lawful purpose; and said Commissioners Court shall have the right to fix and determine the rates or rates at which such water shall be sold to any such public or municipal corporation or political subdivision of this State, and to enter into contracts to sell and supply such water at such determined rate or rates for any term of years not exceeding forty (40); and all monies received by the county from the sale of such water shall be placed to the credit of the General Fund of the county and may be expended for general county purposes as now or hereafter permitted by law.

Art. 2351 1/2. Change in Boundaries of Commissioners Precincts and Justice of the Peace Precincts

(a) Whenever the Commissioners Court changes the boundaries of commissioners precincts or of justice precincts, it may specify in its order a future date, not later than all the first day of January following the next general election, on which the changes shall become effective. If an election for any precinct office is held before the effective date of the order, the office shall be filled at the election by the vote­ ers of the precinct as it will exist on the effective date of the change in boundaries. A person who has resided within the territory embraced in the new boundaries for the length of time required to be eligible to hold the office shall not be rendered ineligible by virtue of the precinct's not having been in existence for that length of time.

(b) When boundaries of commissioners precincts are changed, the terms of office of the commissioners then in office shall not be affected by such change, and each commissioner shall be entitled to serve for the remainder of the term to which he was elected even though the change in boundaries may have placed his residence outside of the precinct for which he was elected.

(c) When boundaries of justice of the peace precincts are changed, so that existing precincts are altered, new precincts are formed, or former precincts are abolished, if only one precinct's not having been in existence for precinct's having two members, both offices shall continue in office, and become vacant.

Art. 2351a. Fire Fighting Equipment; Purchase Authorized in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court in counties having a population of more than three hundred thousand (300,000) and less than three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) inhabitants in accordance with the last preceding Federal Census, and in counties having a population of more than forty-eight thousand, five hundred (48,500) and less than forty-nine hundred (49,000) inhabitants, and in counties having a population of not less than twenty-two thousand and eighty-nine (22,089) nor more than twenty-two thousand, one hundred (22,100) inhabitants, and in counties having a population of more than six thousand, one hundred (6,100) and less than six thousand, one hundred and eighty-nine (6,189) inhabitants, and in accordance with the last preceding Federal Census, shall have the authority to purchase fire trucks and other fire-fighting equipment by first advertising and receiving bids thereon as provided by law, to be used for the protection and preservation of bridges, county shops, county warehouses, and other property located without the limits of any incorporated city or town.

Contracts with Centrally Located Municipality for Operation and Maintenance

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts in such counties are empowered and authorized to enter into contracts with any centrally located municipality in the county for the operation and maintenance of said fire trucks and other fire-fighting equipment on such terms as the Commissioners Court may deem proper and expedient.

Provisions Cumulative; Partial Invalidity

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act are cumulative of all other laws other than special laws and if any section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, or clause of this Act be held unconstitutional, the remaining portions thereof shall be valid.

Art. 2351a-1. Fire Protection and Fire Fighting Equipment in All Counties; Contracts; Liability of Municipalities for Firemen's Acts

The Commissioners Court in all counties of this State shall be authorized to furnish fire protection and fire-fighting equipment to the citizens of such county residing outside the city limits of any incorporated city, town or village within the county and/or adjoining counties. The Commissioners Court shall have the authority to purchase fire trucks and other fire-fighting equipment by first advertising and receiving bids thereon, and is hereby authorized to issue time warrants of the county and to levy and collect taxes to pay the interest and principal thereon as provided by law. The Commissioners Court of any county of this State shall also have the authority to enter into contracts with any city,
town or village within the county and/or adjoining counties, upon such terms and conditions as shall be agreed upon between the Commissioners Court and the governing body of such city, town or village, for the use of the fire trucks and other fire-fighting equipment of the city, town or village. It is specifically provided that the acts of any person or persons while fighting fires, traveling to or from fires, or in any manner furnishing fire protection to the citizens of a county outside the city limits of any city, town or village, shall be considered as the acts of agents of the county in all respects, notwithstanding such person or persons may be regular employees or firemen of a city, town or village. No city, town or village within a county and/or adjoining counties shall be held liable for the acts of any of its employees while engaged in fighting fires outside the city limits pursuant to any contract theretofore entered into between the Commissioners Court of the county and the governing body of the city, town or village.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 507, ch. 360, § 1; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 392, ch. 284, § 1.]
Art. 2351a-2. Fire Fighting Equipment; Purchase Authorized in Counties of 350,000 to 450,000; Contracts

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court in counties having a population of more than three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) and less than four hundred and fifty thousand (450,000) inhabitants in accordance with the last preceding Federal Census shall have the authority to purchase fire trucks and other fire-fighting equipment by first advertising and receiving bids thereon as provided by law, to be used for the protection and preservation of bridges, county shops, county warehouses, and other property located without the limits of any incorporated city or town.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts in such counties are empowered and authorized to enter into contracts with any centrally located municipality in the county for the operation and maintenance of said fire trucks and other fire-fighting equipment on such terms as the Commissioners Court may deem proper and expedient.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act are cumulative of all other laws other than special laws and if any section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, or clause of this Act be held unconstitutional, the remaining portions thereof shall be valid.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 681, ch. 424.]

Art. 2351a-3. Fire Fighting Equipment; Counties Over 350,000; Furnishing Equipment to Towns and Villages Having Volunteer Departments

"County" Defined

Sec. 1. The term "county" when used in this Act shall mean any county in Texas having a population of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Authority to Furnish Equipment

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of the county is hereby authorized to and may furnish fire fighting equipment under the terms and provisions of this Act. It is the legislative intent and purpose that this Act be construed as permitting the Commissioners Court within their discretion to carry out the provisions of this Bill but the language in this Bill shall not be construed as being mandatory in nature.

Petition; Contract

Sec. 3. The governing authorities of any incorporated town or village of the county, which has a volunteer fire department recognized by the Insurance Commission of the State of Texas, may, by an order or resolution, a majority voting in favor thereof, petition the Commissioners Court of the county to enter into a contract to furnish fire fighting equipment as provided in this Act. The Commissioners Court may enter into the contract and furnish the fire fighting equipment where the petitioners show the incorporated town or village is eligible to receive the service and benefit of such equipment by compliance with the terms of this Act.

Duty of Commissioners Court

Sec. 4. When at least twenty-five (25) citizens, living in any unincorporated village, town or community, who have, or will organize within a reasonable time, a volunteer fire department recognized by the Insurance Commission of the State of Texas, and who are in all respects qualified to vote in a county bond election, petition the Commissioners Court for fire fighting equipment, it may be the duty of the Commissioners Court to enter into a contract and furnish such fire fighting equipment, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

"Fire Fighting Equipment" Defined

Sec. 5. The term "fire fighting equipment" referred to herein shall mean a four hundred-gallon booster tank mounted on a suitable truck chassis, equipped with a front-end pump and other necessary appliances and equipment. Total initial cost of each unit of fire fighting equipment shall in no instance exceed the sum of Two Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($2,750).

Provisions of Contract

Sec. 6. The contract referred to herein shall provide and be conditioned that the county may furnish the fire fighting equipment for the use and benefit of the petitioners, subject to the agreement and understanding that the petitioners shall furnish a satisfactory place in which to keep and house the fire fighting equipment and pay at their own expense all of the costs of operation of said fire fighting equipment, and furnish the personnel to operate the same. The county shall be charged with the duty of keeping the fire fighting equipment in good working condition and shall be responsible for all replacements and repairs required. The Commissioners Court shall determine when repairs and replacements are necessary for such equipment. The Commissioners Court may provide for at least one emergency unit of fire fighting equipment to be used by the petitioners while the regular unit is being repaired or replaced by the Commissioners Court. The Court shall require that all repairs, including labor and materials, shall be made, in so far as possible, in the shops of the Commissioners, and the Commissioners Court shall have the power to designate any one or all of said shops for such purposes. The Commissioners Court may use trucks or other equipment, now on hand, if they are unable to acquire new trucks or other equipment for the purpose of building or equipping said fire fighting equipment.

The petitioners shall be charged with the safe keeping of the fire fighting equipment. They shall be responsible to the county for any loss of such equipment from theft. They shall be responsible to the county for any loss resulting to said fire fighting equipment assigned by reason of any negligence of any officer, agent or employee of any incorporated town or village or of any one of the twenty-five (25) petitioners in an unincorporated town, city or community handling or operating such equipment.

Bond

Sec. 7. Before any unit of fire fighting equipment is delivered to any petitioners, they shall give bond with good and sufficient surety, payable to the county, in an amount to be fixed by the Commissioners Court, not to exceed the initial cost of the unit of fire fighting equipment, conditioned that they will pay to the county the amount of the actual loss to each unit of equipment, or any part thereof, resulting from theft or negligence as hereinafter provided.

"Petitioners" Defined

Sec. 8. The term "petitioners" as used herein shall mean any governing body of any incorporated town or village of the county. It shall also mean and include the number of petitioners not less than twenty-five (25) authorized herein to petition the Commissioners Court for fire fighting equipment, who reside in an unincorporated town, village or community.

Location of Equipment; Inspection

Sec. 9. Said fire fighting equipment shall remain in the county and the Commissioners Court shall at all times have the right to inspect and examine said equipment and shall have the right to repossess the same upon noncompliance by the petitioners with the terms of this Act.

Contracts for Use of Equipment

Sec. 10. The Commissioners Court may have, and is hereby granted, the power and authority to contract with any city or cities within said county for the use of fire fighting equipment and the use and service thereof by the fire department of such city or cities for the purpose of fighting fires outside the city limits of such city or cities, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by such Commissioners Court and the governing authorities of such city or cities, and said Commissioners Court and it is hereby authorized and empowered to pay out of the General Fund of said county such compensation for such services as may be agreed upon as hereinabove provided.

Costs of Administration

Sec. 11. The Court shall pay all costs of administering this Act out of the General Fund of the county.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 566, ch. 336.]

Art. 2351a-4. Fire Fighting Equipment; Time Warrants or Bonds

The Commissioners Court of any county in this State is hereby authorized to purchase fire trucks and other fire fighting equipment to be used for the protection and preservation of bridges, county shops, county warehouses, and other county property located in the county but without the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, and in payment thereof is hereby authorized to issue either time warrants or negotiable bonds, or both, of the county, and to levy and collect taxes against the county general fund in payment thereof; provided, however, that any such warrants or bonds must have been authorized by a majority of the qualified property-taxpaying voters, who had duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at an election duly called for that purpose by the Commissioners Court, such bonds and warrants to be issued and such taxes to be levied and collected in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns, and/or counties in this State; and provided further, that said warrants or bonds will be issued only in such amount or amounts as will at all times leave remaining and unencumbered sufficient taxes for general fund purposes to fully take care of all current expenses thereof.

Art. 2351a-5. Contracts with Volunteer Fire Departments for Fire Protection Services in Unincorporated Areas

The commissioners court of any county may contract with any incorporated volunteer fire department which is located within the county but not within the corporate limits of any city or town, for the purpose of furnishing fire protection services to areas of the county which are not within the corporate limits of a city or town. The terms of the contract may be as mutually agreed upon by the commissioners court and the volunteer fire department. The commissioners court may pay for the services under the contract out of the general fund of the county.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 371, ch. 235, § 1; Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1053, ch. 516, § 1, eff. June 16, 1965.]

Art. 2351a-6. Rural Fire Prevention Districts Organization Authorized

Sec. 1. Rural Fire Prevention Districts may be organized in the State of Texas under the provisions of Section 48- d of Article III of the State Constitution for the protection of life and property from fire and for the conservation of natural and human resources as in this Act provided.

District Within One County; Petition to County Judge

Sec. 2. (1) When it is proposed to create a Rural Fire Prevention District under the provisions of this Act wholly within one county, there shall be presented to the County Judge of that county a petition signed by not less than one hundred (100) of the qualified voters who own taxable real property within the proposed district, or in the event there are less than one hundred such voters then by a majority of such voters.
(2) The County Judge of each county shall have jurisdiction to receive and act on the petition if it shows:

(a) That the district is to be created and operated under the provisions of Article III, Section 48-d of the Constitution of Texas;

(b) Name of the proposed district, which shall be "______ County Rural Fire Prevention District No. ____" filling in name of county and proper consecutive number;

(c) Designation of the boundaries of the proposed district by metes and bounds, or other sufficient legal description;

(d) That none of the land encompassed within said district is now included within any other rural fire protection district;

(e) The mailing address of each petitioner.

(3) Said petition shall in addition contain the signed agreement of at least two of the petitioners therein, obligating themselves to pay the cost incident to the formation of the proposed district not to exceed One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00), which shall include among any other necessary and incidental expenses, the cost of publication of notices and election costs.

Multi-County Districts; Petition

Sec. 2(a). (1) When it is proposed to create a Rural Fire Prevention District under the provisions of this Act which shall encompass territory not solely within one county, there shall be presented to the County Judge of each county wherein such Rural Fire Prevention District is sought to be created, a petition signed by not less than 100 of the qualified voters who own taxable real property within the proposed district and also in the county where such County Judge presides, or in the event there are less than 100 such voters within that area sought to be made a part of said district within such county, then by a majority of such voters residing therein.

(2) The County Judge of each county wherein such district is sought to be created shall have jurisdiction to receive and act on the petition if it shows:

(a) That the district is to be created and operated under the provisions of Article III, Section 48-d of the Constitution of Texas;

(b) Name of the proposed district which shall be "______ Rural Fire Prevention District";

(c) Designation of the boundaries of the proposed district by metes and bounds or other sufficient legal description;

(d) That none of the land encompassed within the said district is now included within any other Rural Fire Prevention District;

(e) The mailing address of each petitioner residing in the county wherein the County Judge presides.

(3) Said petition shall, in addition, contain the signed agreement of at least two of the petitioners therein, which two shall reside in the county wherein the County Judge presides, obligating themselves to pay the cost incident to the formation of the proposed district not to exceed One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00), which shall include among any other necessary and incidental expenses, the cost of publication of notices and election costs.

Filing Of and Hearing On Petition

Sec. 3. If the petition is in proper form, the County Judge shall file same with the County Clerk. The Commissioners Court shall at its next regular or special session set the place, day and hour when it will hear and consider the petition.

Notices of Hearing

Sec. 4. The County Clerk shall issue notices of such hearing, which shall state that such district is proposed and shall further state:

(a) That the district is to be created and operated under the terms of Article III, Section 48-d of the Constitution of Texas;

(b) Name of the proposed district;

(c) Designation of the boundaries of said districts, as stated in the petition therefor;

(d) The place, day and hour of hearing on the petition;

(e) and shall notify all persons who may have an interest therein that they are invited to attend said hearing and present their grounds, if any, for or against the formation of said district.

Said notice shall be prepared in multiple copies, one of which shall be retained by the clerk, and sufficient additional copies as may be necessary delivered to the Sheriff.

The Sheriff shall post one copy at the court house door at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing, and have published in a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed district once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication thereof to be made at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing.

The return of each officer executing such notice shall be endorsed or attached to a copy of the same, and show the execution of the same, specifying the dates of posting, and publication, and shall be accompanied by a printed copy of such publication.

Hearing on Petition by Commissioners Court; Jurisdiction and Powers

Sec. 5. At the time and place set for the hearing of the petition, or such subsequent date as may then be fixed, the Commissioners Court shall proceed to hear such petition and all issues in respect to the creation of such proposed district, and any person interested may appear before the court in person or by attorney and contend for or contest the creation of such district, and offer testimony pertinent to any issue thereon. Such court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine all issues in respect to the creation of such district, may adjourn the hearing from day to day and from time to time as the facts may require, and shall have power to make all incidental orders deemed proper in respect to the matters before it.

Granting or Denying Petition; Fixing Boundaries of District

Sec. 6. If it shall appear on hearing by the court that the organization of a district as prayed for is feasible and practicable, would benefit the land included therein, and will be conclusive to the public safety, welfare and convenience, and aid in the conservation of the real property or natural resources within said district, the court shall so find and grant the petition and fix the boundaries thereof; otherwise it shall deny the petition.

Appeal to District Court by Persons Aggrieved

Sec. 7. Any person or other owner of real or personal property situated within said district as created, who may consider himself aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioners Court, may appeal to the district court in the same manner as is provided for appeals in cases involving estates of decedents.

Elections

Sec. 8. Upon granting of the petition, the Commissioners Court shall call an election to confirm the organization and authorize the levy of a tax, not to exceed three cents (3¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation. If it appears on the face of the petition that the proposed district is to encompass more than one county or portions thereof, then the Commissioners Court shall not call an election until such time as the Commissioners Court of any other county or such district is proposed shall have also granted the petition. When the foregoing has been accomplished, such election shall be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the order calling the same; and notice of such election shall be given in the same mode and manner as hereinabove required for hearing on the petition to form the District. The notice shall contain the proposition submitted, the classification of voters who are authorized to vote, and the time and place for holding the election. Such time for holding the election if the district be multi-county shall be as near as practical to the time that the Commissioners Courts in the other counties have agreed to hold the election.

Incorporated City, Town or Village Included in Proposed District; Referendum

Sec. 8(a). If the area of the proposed District encompasses the territory of any incorporated city, town or village, the Commissioners Court, if such city, town or village lies within its county, in making the determinations required in Section 6 of this Act, shall also determine whether those findings would be the same as to the remaining portion of the proposed district, excluding any or all such incorporated municipalities in the event any one or more of such incorporated municipalities should fail to cast a majority vote in favor of the district and the tax.

This finding shall be made as to each particular city, town or village whose territory is proposed to be included within the area of the proposed district.

No district hereafter created shall include the area of any incorporated city, town, or village, unless the majority of the electors residing in the municipality and participating in the election called by the Commissioners Court to confirm the district and levy the tax voted in favor of both the creation of the district and the levy of the tax.

Should a majority of the voters residing in a municipality and participating in the election vote against creation of the district or levy of the tax, the municipality shall not be included within the district, but its exclusion shall not affect the creation of the district embracing the remainder of the proposed territory if the findings of the Commissioners Courts made as required in Section 6 and in this section of this Act are favorable to the creation of the district, as thus restricted. Should any non-consenting city, town or village ever annex territory into such proposed Rural Fire Prevention District, then the Board of Fire Commissioners shall, after due notice, immediately deannex such area from its district and shall cease to provide any further services to the residents of that area.

Election Favoring Confirmation of District; Order of Commissioners Court

Sec. 9. If a majority of those voting at such election, as provided in Section 2 or Section 2(a) of this Act, vote in favor of the confirmation of the district, it shall thenceforth be deemed an organized Rural Fire Prevention District under this Act; and the Commissioners Courts of the several counties wherein such district is created shall enter orders accordingly in their minutes in the following substantial form:

Whereas, at an election duly and regularly held on the ______ day of ______, A.D. 19____, within that portion of ______ County, State of Texas, described as: (insert description unless the district is county-wide) there was submitted to the legal voters thereof the question whether the above described territory shall be formed into a Rural Fire Prevention District under the provisions of the laws of this state; and

Whereas, at such election ______ votes were cast in favor of formation of said district and ___ votes were cast against such formation; and

Whereas, the formation of such Rural Fire Prevention District received the affirmative vote of the majority votes cast at such election as provided by law;
Now, therefore, the County Commissioners Court of __________ County, State of Texas, does hereby find, declare and order that the tract hereinbefore described has been duly and legally formed into a Rural Fire Prevention District (or a portion thereof) under the name of __________ under and pursuant to Article III, Section 48-d of the Constitution of Texas, and with the powers vested in such district conferred by law.

Districts Declared Political Subdivisions of State; Powers

Sec. 10. Such fire protection districts are hereby declared to be political subdivisions of the state, and shall have full authority to carry out the objects of their creation and to that end are authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, lease, manage, occupy and sell real and personal property or any interest therein; to enter into and to perform any and all necessary contracts; to appoint and employ the necessary officers, agents and employees; to sue and be sued; to levy and enforce the collection of taxes in the manner and subject to the limitations herein provided against the lands and other property within the district for the district revenues; to accept and receive donations; and to do any and all lawful acts required and expedient to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Further Powers of Districts

Sec. 11. Any fire protection district organized under the provisions of this Act shall further have the authority:

(1) To lease, own, maintain, operate and provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus, instrumentalities, machinery, and equipment for the prevention and extinguishment of fires in the district as authorized in this Act;

(2) To lease, own and maintain real property, improvements and fixtures thereon, suitable and convenient for housing, repairing and caring for fire-fighting equipment;

(3) To enter into contracts with any others, including incorporated cities or towns or other districts whereby fire fighting facilities and fire extinguishment services and/or emergency rescue and ambulance services may be available to the district, upon such terms as the governing body of the district shall determine. The contract may provide for reciprocal operation of services and facilities if the contracting parties find that such operation would be mutually beneficial, and not detrimental to the district.

(4) The Board of Fire Commissioners may cause inspections to be made within the district pertinent to the causes and prevention of fires therein, and may promote such educational programs as it may deem proper to more fully effect the purposes of this Act.

(5) To lease, own, maintain, operate and provide emergency rescue equipment and all other necessary or proper apparatus, instrumentalities, machinery, and equipment for the prevention of loss of life from fire or other hazards, which may result in serious injuries to persons.

(6) To lease, own, maintain, operate and provide emergency ambulance service and all other necessary and proper equipment therewith for the prevention of loss of life from fire and other hazards which may result in serious injuries to persons.

(7) To do and perform all things in its discretion proper and necessary to fully carry out the intent of this Act.

Limitation on Indebtedness; Assessment of Property; Election; Ballots

Sec. 12. (1) No indebtedness shall be contracted in any one year in excess of funds then on hand or which may be satisfied out of current revenues for the year. The Board of Fire Commissioners shall annually levy and cause to be assessed and collected a tax upon all properties, real and personal, situated within the district and subject to district taxation, in an amount not to exceed three cents (3¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation for the support of the district, and for the purposes authorized in this Act. Such tax levy shall be certified to the County Tax Assessor-Collector, who shall be the Assessor-Collector for the district. The County Tax Assessor-Collector shall assess property in the district for the purpose of the Rural Fire Prevention District tax at the same values as shown on the county tax rolls, unless a different method of assessing the values has been adopted under the provisions of Subdivisions (2) through (8) of this section.

(2) The Board of Fire Commissioners may by a majority vote of the members order an election in the district, at the expense of the district, on the proposition of assessing property in the district for the purpose of the Rural Fire Prevention District tax at a percentage of actual market value different from the percentage used by the county. The Board of Fire Commissioners shall cause notice of the election to be published by posting notice of the election at each precinct 20 days before the election. The notice shall state the time of holding the election and the question to be voted on. If the district encompasses more than one county it shall be mandatory upon the Board of Fire Commissioners to hold such an election whether such tax be the same percentage of actual market value used by any one or more counties within the district.

(3) Residents of the district eligible to vote in a general election are eligible to vote in the district election provided for in Subdivision (2) of this section.

(4) Except as provided in this Act, the general laws of this state apply to elections held under this Act.
(5) The proposition shall be printed on the ballots as follows:

FOR assessing property in the County Rural Fire Prevention District No. ___ for the purpose of the rural fire prevention district tax at a percentage of actual market value different from that used by the county, not to exceed ___ percent of actual market value.

AGAINST assessing property in the County Rural Fire Prevention District No. ___ for the purpose of the rural fire prevention district tax at a percentage of actual market value different from that used by the county, not to exceed ___ percent of actual market value.

The proposition shall be printed on the ballot of any Rural Fire Prevention District which is in more than one county as follows:

FOR assessing property in the Rural Fire Prevention District for the purpose of the rural fire prevention district tax at a percentage of actual market value not to exceed ___ percent of actual market value.

AGAINST assessing property in the Rural Fire Prevention District for the purpose of the rural fire prevention district tax at a percentage of actual market value not to exceed ___ percent of actual market value.

(6) If the proposition carries, the Board of Fire Commissioners shall certify that fact to the County Tax Assessor-Collector, notifying him of the percentage of actual market value approved for fire prevention district tax purposes.

(7) The County Tax Assessor-Collector shall assess property for the purpose of the rural fire prevention district tax on separate assessment blanks furnished by the district, at the percentage of actual market value approved in the election.

(8) In a county where the County Tax Assessor-Collector makes a separate assessment of property in a district under the provisions of this section, the rural fire prevention district shall reimburse the County Tax Assessor-Collector for any additional expense incurred in assessing and collecting taxes for the district, not to exceed one percent of the taxes collected in each year.

Board of Fire Commissioners; Organization, Officers; Bond of Treasurer

Sec. 13. (1) The Board of Fire Commissioners, who shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court, shall be the governing body of the districts created under the provisions of this Act. They shall serve for a term of two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(2) Upon the canvass of the election returns and entering of the order creating the district (provided in Section 9), the Commissioners Court shall name five commissioners to serve until January 1st of the next year. On that date, the court shall designate three of such commissioners together with the County Judge and two commissioners to serve for one year. Annually on January 1st thereafter, the court shall appoint a successor to each commissioner whose term has expired. Vacancies on the board shall be filled by the Commissioners Court for their unexpired term.

Each of said fire commissioners shall take the official oath required of members of the Legislature of this state before entering upon his duties.

(3) Said fire commissioners shall choose from their number a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, who shall have the power to perform respectively, the duties usually incumbent upon their said offices. The office of secretary and treasurer may be vested in the same person.

The treasurer shall enter into and file with the county clerk his bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The sufficiency and amount of the bond shall be determined by the County Judge before it may be filed.

Multi-County District Board of Fire Commissioners; Election; Term; Oath; Officers; Bond of Treasurer

Sec. 13(a). (1) The Board of Fire Commissioners of a multi-county fire prevention district shall consist of five (5) members, who will be the governing body of the districts created under the provisions of this Act. They shall serve for a term of two years and until their successors are elected and have taken office.

(2) The County Judges of the county where such Rural Fire Prevention District lies of any Rural Fire Prevention District which is multi-county shall mutually establish a day convenient to them in the month of November to hold an election for the purpose of electing the Board of Fire Commissioners of the district. Any person who is a resident of the district and has attained the age of 18 years shall be eligible to run as Fire Commissioner. He shall give notice to the County Clerk of each county wherein the district lies of his intention to run for office. Such notice shall give his name, age, and address and state that he is serving notice of his intent to run as Fire Commissioner of the Rural Fire Prevention District. Such notice shall be sworn to before the County Clerk can receive it. Upon receipt of such notice the County Clerk shall call such candidate’s name to be printed upon the ballots suitable to the County Clerk for an election of the character. The County Clerk of the counties wherein such multi-county district lies shall mutually appoint an election judge to certify the names of the candidates and the election shall be held at the county clerk of each county whereon such multi-county district lies. After the election is held each of the County Clerks or one of their deputies wherein the district lies shall prepare a statement of cost under oath of the election. Such statement shall be tendered to the newly elected constituted Board of the Rural Fire Prevention District. It shall be the duty of the Board of Fire Commissioners to order its proper official to reimburse each county for the cost expended by it for the election.

The term of the Board of Fire Commissioners shall commence on January 1 and run for two years. Then and thereafter elections of the Board shall be held in the month of November on the year after the election of the first Board at a day to be agreed upon by the County Judges wherein the district lies.

Two of the members of the first Board of Fire Commissioners shall have initial terms of one year. In November of the year of taking office another election shall be provided for these two offices. Then and thereafter there shall be one election every two years for these two officers. The two commissioners that shall run for office in the next year shall be the two who received the lowest number of votes in the first election of the board.

Each of said Fire Commissioners shall take the official oath required by members of the legislature of this State before entering upon their said offices. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be vested in the same person.

The Treasurer shall enter into and file with the County Clerk of the largest county in population according to the last preceding federal census wherein the district lies his bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The sufficiency and amount of the bond shall be determined by the County Judge of that county before it may be filed.

Powers and Duties of Fire Commissioners; Meetings; Records; Quorum; Compensation

Sec. 14. The Board of Fire Commissioners shall administer all the affairs of said district in accordance with the provisions of this Act; shall hold regular monthly meetings, and such other meetings as deemed advisable; and shall keep proper minutes and records of all their acts and proceedings. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum.

No fire commissioner shall receive any compensation for his services, but when on official business of the district may be compensated for their reasonable and necessary expenses. All moneys of the district shall be disbursed by check signed by the treasurer countersigned by the president, but no payments from tax monies shall be paid unless a sworn itemized account covering the same has been presented to and approved by the board.

The board shall not later than February 1st of each year render in writing to the Commissioners Court of the county an accounting of its administration for the preceding calendar year and of the financial condition of the district.

The board shall further render such reports as may be required from time to time by the State Fire Marshall and other authorized party or agency.

No fire commissioner shall become interested in any contract or transaction in which said district is a party whereby he may receive any money consideration or other thing of value, other than as a resident or property owner of the district.

Expansion of District Territory; Petition; Hearing; Notice; Resolution; Election; Debts or Taxes

Sec. 14a. (1) Qualified voters who own taxable real property in a defined area of territory not included in a district may file a petition requesting inclusion with the secretary of the Board of Fire Commissioners. The petition shall be signed by fifty (50) such voters or a majority of such voters, whichever number is less.

(2) The board by order shall set the time and place of the hearing on the petition to include the territory in the district. The hearing shall be held not less than thirty (30) days from the date of the order.

(3)(a) The secretary of the board shall issue notice of the time and place of the hearing, and the notice shall describe the territory proposed to be annexed.

(b) The secretary shall post copies of the notice in three public places in the district and one copy in a public place in the territory proposed to be annexed. The notices shall be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the day of the hearing.

(c) The notice shall be published one time in a newspaper with general circulation in the county. The notice shall be published at least fifteen (15) days before the day of the hearing.

(4) If the board finds after the hearing that the addition would be feasible and practical and would be of benefit to the district, it may add the territory to the district by resolution entered in its minutes. The board does not have to include all the territory described in the petition if it finds that a modification or change is necessary or desirable.

(5)(a) Annexation of the territory is not final until ratified by a majority vote of the electors at a separate election held in the district and by a majority vote of the electors at a separate election held in the territory proposed to be added.

(b) If the district has outstanding debts or taxes, the same election shall determine also whether or not the territory to be added will assume its proportion of the debts or taxes if the land is added to the district.
Art. 2351a-6

(6) The ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the following propositions:

(A) "Adding (description of territory to be added) to the ______ Rural Fire Prevention District."

(B) "(description of territory to be added) assuming its proportionate share of the outstanding debts and taxes of the ______ Rural Fire Prevention District, if it is added to such district."

(7) The notice of the election, the manner and time of giving the notice, the manner of holding the election, and qualifications of the voters shall be governed by other provisions of this Act, so far as applicable.

Liberal Construction of Act; Partial Invalidity

Sec. 15. The provisions of this Act and proceedings thereunder shall be liberally construed with a view to effect their objects. If any section or provision of this Act shall be adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudications shall not affect the validity of the Act as a whole, or any section, provision, or part thereof not adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional.

Validation of Orders or Proceedings of Commissioners Court

Sec. 16. The order of any Commissioners Court by which a rural fire prevention district has been or has sought to be created or established, wholly within one county, are hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such district shall be hereafter deemed to have been established and in existence as of the date of the entry of the order by the Commissioners Court which declared such rural fire prevent district to be in existence; provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to validate the organization or creation of such district unless each of the following steps have also been taken: (a) that the Commissioners Court has entered a finding that the court has investigated the benefits to be derived from the creation of the district and that all of the properties and persons within the territorial confines of the district will be benefited by the creation or existence of such district with the powers authorized under this law and under the provisions of Article III, Section 48-d, of the Constitution of Texas; and (b) the order creating the district has heretofore been filed in the deed records of the county, which order or supplement thereto shows the area of the district; and (c) the Commissioners Court has heretofore appointed fire commissioners for the governing of the rural fire prevention district; and (d) the proposition for the creation of the district, levying a tax, or both, has been submitted to the electorate and a majority of those participating in such election voted in favor of the district, the tax, or both, such election having been called by the Commissioners Court.

Taxation: Levy and Collection

Sec. 17. In those districts validated and declared to be and to have been established under the provisions of Section 16 of this Act, the district shall have the right to levy and collect the rate of tax of not to exceed the rate of tax voted at the election required under the provisions of Section 16; provided, however, that if the election sought to authorize more than a tax of three cents (3¢) per One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation contrary to the provisions of Article III, Section 48-d of the Constitution of Texas, the provisions of this section shall not be effective.

Validation of Governmental Proceedings of Districts

Sec. 18. All governmental proceedings of the districts (which are validated by the provisions of Section 16 of this Act) are hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed.

Art. 2351b-1. Fire Protection; Counties of Less Than 20,000 Population Authorized to Contract For with Municipalities

The Commissioners Courts in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, and a property valuation of more than One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000), according to the last approved county tax rolls, are authorized and empowered to enter into contracts and agreements with the governing bodies of municipalities within such counties for the purpose of furnishing fire protection within such counties, but outside the corporate limits of such municipalities, and to make appropriations for paying such municipalities for furnishing such fire protection.

Art. 2351b-2. Aid to State and Federal Agencies

From and after the date of passage of this Act the Commissioners Courts in all counties having a population of not less than twenty-two thousand and fifty (22,050) and not more than twenty-three thousand (23,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have the power and authority to provide for facilities and such financial aid as the said Commissioners Courts may deem necessary to Federal or State government agencies and bureaus having activities or maintaining projects within the county in which the said Commissioners Court is located.

Art. 2351b-3. Resettlement or Rural Rehabilitation Projects; Agreements Between Commissioners Courts and United States; Payments in Lieu of Taxes

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following definitions shall be applied to the terms used in this Act:

(1) "Agreement" shall mean contract and shall include renewals and alterations of a contract.

(2) "Political subdivision" shall mean any agency or unit of this State which is now, or hereafter shall be, authorized to levy taxes or empowered to cause taxes to be levied.

(3) "Services" shall mean such public municipal functions as are performed for property in, and for persons residing within, a political subdivision.

(4) "Project" shall mean any resettlement project or rural rehabilitation project for resettlement purposes of the United States located within a political subdivision and shall include the persons inhabiting such projects.

(5) "Governing body" shall mean the board, body, or persons in which the powers of a political subdivision as a body corporate, or otherwise, are vested.

Payments by United States in Lieu of Taxes, Agreements For

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any county in this State is hereby authorized and empowered (a) to make requests of the United States, for and on behalf of the county and political subdivisions whose jurisdictional limits are within or coextensive with the limits of the county, for the payment of such sums in lieu of taxes as the United States may agree to pay, and (b) to enter into agreements with the United States, in the name of the county, for the performance of services by the county and such political subdivisions for the benefit of a project, and for the payment by the United States to the county, in one or more installments, of sums in lieu of taxes.

Contents of Agreements; Notice to Subdivision

Sec. 3. Each agreement entered into pursuant to Section 2 shall contain the names of the political subdivisions in whose behalf it is consummated and a statement of the proportionate share of the payment by the United States to which each political subdivision shall be entitled. The Commissioners Court shall immediately notify each political subdivision in whose behalf an agreement is entered into of the consummation thereof.

Filing Agreement; Receipts

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court shall file one copy of any agreement for a payment of sums in lieu of taxes with the County Treasurer. On or before the date on which any payment of sums in lieu of taxes is due, the County Treasurer shall present a bill to the United States, in the name of the county, in the amount of such payment. Whenever such payment is received, the County Treasurer shall issue a receipt therefor in the name of the County.

Apportionment of Payments Received; Acceptance

Sec. 5. Immediately after receiving a payment in lieu of taxes, the County Treasurer shall, without any deduction, apportion and pay it to the several political subdivisions in accordance with the agreement under which the payment was received, notwithstanding any other law controlling the expenditure of county funds. The acceptance by the governing body of a political subdivision of its share of a payment in lieu of taxes shall be construed as an approval of the agreement under which the payment was received. If any governing body shall refuse to accept a political subdivision's share of a payment in lieu of taxes, the County Treasurer shall refund the same, without any deduction, to the United States.

Powers of Subdivisions to Make Agreements with United States

Sec. 6. If the United States declines to deal with a Commissioners Court with respect to any political subdivision whose jurisdictional limits are within or coextensive with the limits of the county, or in the event the jurisdictional limits of a political subdivision lie within more than one county, that political subdivision is authorized to make requests of the United States for such payments in lieu of taxes as the United States may agree to pay. Such political subdivision is hereby empowered to enter into agreements with the United States for the performance by the political subdivision of services for the benefit of a project and for the payment by the United States to the political subdivision, in one or more installments, of sums in lieu of taxes.

Amount of Payments

Sec. 7. The amount of any payment of sums in lieu of taxes may be based on the estimated cost to each political subdivision, for and on whose behalf an agreement is entered into, of performing services for the benefit of a project during the period of an agreement, after taking into consideration the benefits to be derived by each political subdivision from such project, but shall not be in excess of the taxes which would result to each political subdivision from such project for said period if the real property of the project within each political subdivision were taxable.

Deposit of Moneys Received

Sec. 8. All money received by a political subdivision pursuant to Sections 5 and 6 shall be deposited in such fund or funds as may be designated in the agreement; provided, however, that if the agreement does not make such designation, the money shall be deposited in such fund or funds as the governing body of such political subdivision shall by appropriate resolution direct.
Art. 2351b-3

Services to be Furnished by Political Subdivisions for Project

Sec. 9. No provision of this Act shall be construed to relieve any political subdivision of this State, in the absence of an agreement for payment of sums in lieu of taxes by the United States, as provided in this Act, of the duty of furnishing for the benefit of a project all services which the political subdivision usually furnished to property in, and to persons residing within, the political subdivision without a payment of sums in lieu of taxes.

Whereas Congress has heretofore passed a law which provides that thereafter twenty-five per centum (25%) of all moneys received during any fiscal year from each national forest shall be paid at the end thereof by the Secretary of the Treasury to the State or Territory as the State or Territorial Legislature may prescribe for the benefit of the public schools and the public roads of the county or counties in which the national forest is situated, and whereas the Legislature of the State of Texas has not prescribed any method for prorating said funds, now, therefore, be it enacted that the Commissioners Courts of the counties in Texas in which such national forests are situated are hereby authorized to prorate all such funds received and to be received from the Federal Government for timber and all other income derived from such lands as follows:

Fifty per cent (50%) of such money received shall be allocated to the school districts in proportion to the area in said districts, and fifty per cent (50%) of same to the county for the benefit of the public roads in said county. Provided the Commissioners Court may transfer the fifty per cent (50%) received by said Court to the school districts.

[Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 29, c. 19, § 1.]

Art. 2351c. Court Houses and Criminal Court Buildings; Maintenance and Operation Employees under Control of Commissioners' Courts of Counties of Over 500,000

In all Counties having a population of more than five hundred thousand (500,000), according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, all employees necessary to the repair, maintenance, and operation of all court houses and Criminal Court Buildings shall be under the direction and control of the Commissioners' Court. The Court may designate a building superintendent who shall appoint all necessary employees subject to confirmation by the Commissioners' Court. The Court shall have the right to discharge any such employee at any time for cause. Such appointments shall be in writing, shall be signed by the employee, state the nature of the duties to be performed, the period for which such employment is made, the hours to be worked, and the amount to be paid, and shall conform to the requirements and be subject to the limitations provided by Section 19, Chapter 465, Acts of 1935, Second Called Session. Such employments shall in no event extend beyond January 1st of the year succeeding the appointment, but may be renewed from year to year. The number of persons to be employed and the amounts to be paid shall be subject to the approval of the County Auditor. All laws regulating the making of employments, the accounting for funds, and all budget laws and regulations applicable in the Counties to which this Act applies shall apply to such employments, except insofar as in conflict with this Act, in which event this Act shall control. All employees, including jail guards, matrons, elevator operators and other such employees engaged in the operation of the jails in such Counties shall continue to be employed and discharged by the Sheriff in the manner now provided by law, and all employees necessary for the proper conduct of the jails or the safekeeping of the prisoners shall be subject to the exclusive direction and control of the Sheriff of such County.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 35, ch. 21, § 1.]

1 Article 3912e.

Art. 2351d. Purchases Through State Board of Control

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of each county, from and after the effective date of this Act, is hereby authorized to purchase any road machinery, road equipment, tires and tubes to be used by the county through the State Board of Control. If the Commissioners Court elects to purchase such road machinery, road equipment, tires and tubes by and through the State Board of Control, such road machinery, road equipment, tires and tubes shall be purchased on competitive bids under such rules and regulations as may be made by the State Board of Control. Such purchases shall be made on reservation of the Commissioners Court. The Commissioners Court making such reservation for the purchase of any road machinery, road equipment and tires and tubes shall, when sending in the requisition therefor, include therewith a general description of the article desired and shall certify the funds that will be available to pay therefor.

Sec. 2. The State Board of Control shall have the power to make any rules or to adopt any regulations to effectuate the purpose of this Act.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be cumulative and in addition to all of the laws pertaining to the purchase of road machinery, road equipment, tires and tubes by counties and shall be construed as an additional method for such purchase.

Sec. 4. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Art. 2351e. Public Cemeteries; Expenditures for Maintenance and Upkeep

Sec. 1. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than one thousand (1,000) nor more than one thousand, three hundred (1,300) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries in their respective counties.

Sec. 2. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than two thousand (2,000) nor more than two thousand, five hundred (2,500) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries in their respective counties.

Sec. 3. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than two thousand, five hundred (2,500) nor more than two thousand, eight hundred (2,800) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries in their respective counties.

Sec. 4. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than two thousand, five hundred (2,500) nor more than two thousand, eight hundred (2,800) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries situated in their respective counties.

Sec. 5. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than three thousand, five hundred (3,500) nor more than three thousand, eight hundred (3,800) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries situated in their respective counties.

Sec. 6. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than four thousand (4,000) nor more than four thousand, two hundred and twenty-five (4,225) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries situated in their respective counties.

Sec. 7. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than four thousand, three hundred (4,300) nor more than four thousand, five hundred (4,500) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries situated in their respective counties.

Sec. 8. Commissioners Courts of those counties in this State having a population of not less than six thousand, two hundred and fifty (6,250) nor more than six thousand, three hundred and fifty (6,350) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census are hereby authorized to expend moneys in the General Fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of the public cemeteries situated in their respective counties.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 9. If any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted, and does here now enact, such remaining portions despite any such invalidity.

Art. 2351f. Counties Generally; Expenditures for Maintenance and Upkeep of Public Cemeteries

Sec. 1. Commissioners Courts of the counties of this State are hereby authorized to spend moneys in the general fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of public cemeteries in their respective counties.

Sec. 2. If a part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted, and does here now enact, such remaining portion despite any such invalidity.

Art. 2351f-1. Perpetual Trust Fund to Maintain Cemeteries

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county by resolution may authorize creation of a perpetual trust fund to provide for maintenance and upkeep of neglected and unkept public and private cemeteries in the county, and in the event such action is taken by the commissioners court, it shall appoint the county judge as trustee for such perpetual trust fund.
Art. 2351f-1

Sec. 2. The trustee may make reasonable rules and regulations relating to gifts, grants, and donations from any source and to amounts necessary for the permanent maintenance and upkeep of the cemeteries.

Sec. 3. (a) Any person interested in the maintenance and upkeep of neglected and unkept public or private cemeteries within the county may make donations to the trust fund, and acceptance of the funds by the trustee constitutes a permanent and perpetual trust fund for maintenance and upkeep of such cemeteries.

(b) On acceptance of the donations, the trustee shall instruct the county treasurer to issue to each donor a certificate which states:

1. the purpose of the donation;
2. the amount of the donation; and
3. any other information the trustee considers necessary.

Sec. 4. The trustee may invest and reinvest funds of the trust in interest-bearing bonds or securities of federal, state, and local governments, including municipalities and political subdivisions of the state.

Sec. 5. Interest, revenue or any other accrual or increase of funds in the trust fund shall be used only for maintenance and upkeep of neglected and unkept public and private cemeteries in the county, but the original amount of the trust fund shall remain intact as a permanent principal trust fund.

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed to prevent any person who has an interest in a grave or burial lot or who has kinship within the third degree of affinity or consanguinity to those interred from caring for a particular grave or burial lot in any cemetery maintained and kept by the trustee under this Act.

Sec. 7. After a trust fund is established under this Act, if the county judge refuses to act as trustee, or if the county judge dies or resigns or renounces the trust, the district judge shall appoint a new trustee to carry out the trust. The new trustee appointed shall be a person other than a county commissioner.

Sec. 8. The trustee, the commissioners court, and other elected public officials of the county are hereby prohibited from paying or using any public funds, or using county employees or county equipment and property for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of neglected and unkept public and private cemeteries.

Art. 2351g-1. Acquisition of Land for Dumping and Garbage Disposal

Sec. 1. Commissioners Courts of the counties of the State of Texas, are hereby authorized on behalf of the counties, to acquire by easement or in fee simple, lands on which to locate public dumping and garbage disposal grounds, and to expend moneys out of the General Fund for the purpose of acquiring such easements or fee simple title, either by purchase or by condemnation.

Sec. 2. The location of such dumping or garbage disposal grounds, and the consideration to be paid therefor, shall be a matter committed to the sound discretion of the Commissioners Courts, taking into consideration the convenience of the people to be served, and the general health of, and the annoyance to, the community to be served by such dumping and garbage disposal grounds.

Sec. 3. Counties are hereby given the right of eminent domain in acquiring such grounds in accordance with the provisions of the eminent domain Statutes of the State of Texas; provided, however, that counties shall not have the right of eminent domain in acquiring such grounds as against corporations which also have the right of eminent domain by Statute.

Sec. 4. Chapter 464, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955 (codified as Article 2351g, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

[Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1019, ch. 503.]

Art. 2351l. Counties of 800,000 or More; Petty Cash Fund for County Welfare Department; Audits

Sec. 1. In all counties in the State of eight hundred thousand (800,000) population or over, the Commissioners Courts in providing for the support of paupers, through a County Welfare Department, may authorize the disbursing of not to exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) to the head of such department to be used as a petty cash fund, so that immediate cash for transportation and other expenses of such paupers may be handled without delay. This fund must be established under such system as provided and installed by the county auditor of such county, with such reports as required by him to be made by the head of the Welfare Department.

In making payments to support such paupers as should be furnished support by the counties, the Commissioners Court may, with the concurrence of the county auditors, make one (1) payment to the head of the Welfare Department, with the actual disbursements to be made to such paupers by such head of the County Welfare Department on warrants designed by the county auditor, and further subject to his audit at any time. Such disbursements, if made in the prescribed manner, shall be reported on such forms and at such times as the county auditor may prescribe.

Sec. 2. This Act shall be cumulative with all other laws pertaining to this subject unless they be in conflict with this Act, in which cases this Act shall govern.

[Acts 1937, 55th Leg., p. 223, ch. 106.]

Art. 2352. May Levy Taxes

Said court shall have the power to levy and collect a tax for county purposes, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, and a tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation to supplement the jury fund of the county, and not to exceed fifteen cents for roads and bridges on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of debts incurred prior to the adoption of the amendment to the Constitution, September 25, A.D. 1883, and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, water works and other permanent improvements, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation in any one year, and except as in the Constitution otherwise provided. They may levy an additional tax for road purposes not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of the property subject to taxation, under the limitations and in the manner provided for in Article 8, Sec. 9, of the Constitution and in pursuance of the laws relating thereto.

[Act 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2352a. County Tax for Advertising

That in all counties in Texas having a population of at least 202,000 inhabitants and less than 210,000 inhabitants, as shown by the Census of 1920, a direct tax of not over five cents on the valuation of One Hundred Dollars may be authorized and levied by the Commissioners' Court of such county for the purpose of advertising said county and its county seat, provided that all such levy of taxes shall be submitted to the qualified tax-paying voters of the county and a majority vote shall be necessary to levy the taxes.

[Acts 1930, 41st Leg., 5th C.S., p. 182, ch. 42, § 1.]

Art. 2352b. Unconstitutional

This article, Acts 1935, 44th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1541, ch. 370, was a local law applicable only to El Paso County and hence void as making an unreasonable classification bearing no relation to the object sought to be accomplished by the act. Miller v. El Paso County, (1941) 136 Tex. 516, 150 S.W.2d 1000.

Art. 2352c. County Tax for Advertising in Counties of 40,000 to 50,000 Population; Board of County Development

Sec. 1. In all counties in this State having a population of not less than forty thousand (40,000) inhabitants and not more than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants, and containing a city having a population of not less than thirty thousand (30,000) inhabitants nor more than forty thousand (40,000) inhabitants, as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, a direct tax of not over five cents (5¢) on the valuation of One Hundred Dollars ($100) may be authorized and levied by the Commissioners Court of such county, for the purpose of advertising and promoting the growth and development of said county and its county seat; provided that before the Commissioners Court of any such counties shall be authorized to levy any tax for such purpose, the qualified taxpaying voters of the county shall by a majority vote authorize the Commissioners Court to thereafter levy annually a tax not to exceed five cents (5¢) on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation.

Sec. 2. The amount of money collected from such levy of taxes by the Commissioners Court of any such county shall be paid to the Board of County Development in twelve (12) monthly installments as collected. All moneys received by the Board of County Development from such tax shall be expended only for the purposes authorized by this Act, and such Board shall annually render an itemized account to the County Auditor of all receipts and disbursements.

Sec. 3. There is hereby created in such counties as may vote in favor of this tax a Board of County Development, which shall devote its time and efforts to the growth, advertising, and development of any such county. The Board of County Development shall consist of five (5) members; two (2) to be appointed by the Commissioners Court of such counties, representative of the agricultural interest of such counties, and three (3) of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the county seat of such county. Said members shall serve for a period of two (2) years from their appointment, without compensation, and until their successors are appointed and accept such appointment. Vacancies on such Board shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments, and by the same agencies.

All members of such Board of County Development shall be qualified tax-paying voters of the county in which they are appointed to serve.

Art. 2352d. Appropriations for Advertising and Promoting Growth and Development by Certain Counties; Board of Development

Appropriation

Sec. 1. All counties in the State of Texas may appropriate from the General Fund of said counties an amount not exceeding Five Cents (5¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation for the purpose of advertising and promoting the growth and development of such county; providing that before the Commissioners Court of any county may appropriate any sums for such purpose, the qualified taxpaying voters of said county shall, by a majority vote of the persons voting at such election, authorize the County Commissioners to thereafter appropriate not to exceed Five Cents (5¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation.

Board of Development Fund; Budget

Sec. 2. The amount of money approved by the Commissioners Court for the Board of De-development shall constitute a separate fund to be known as the Board of Development Fund and shall not be used for any other purpose. Each claim against the Board of Development shall be authorized and approved by the Board of Development before presented for payment and after such approval, shall be presented to the Commissioners Court and acted upon as all other claims against the Commissioners Court.

The Board of Development hereinafter provided for shall annually in advance, prepare and submit to the Commissioners Court a budget for the ensuing year in the same manner as required of counties. The money appropriated annually shall be governed by the discretion of the Commissioners Court, but in no event shall said sum be in excess of Five Cents (5¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation.

Board of Development

Sec. 3. There is hereby created, in counties qualifying under this law, a Board of Development, which shall devote its time and effort for the purpose of advertising and promoting the growth and development of any such county. The Board of Development shall be authorized to expend any sums reasonably necessary to accomplish its purposes for personnel, rent, and materials, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court.

The Board of Development shall consist of five (5) members, to be appointed by the Commissioners Court; said members shall serve for a period of two (2) years from their appointment, without compensation and until their successors are appointed and accept said appointment. Vacancies on such Board shall be filled by the Commissioners Court in the same manner as the original appointment.

Law as Cumulative; Maximum Appropriation

Sec. 4. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws authorizing counties to appropriate money to levy a tax for advertising and promotional purposes, and counties shall have the option of operating under any one applicable law, but in any event, the maximum amount of money which can be appropriated for such purpose shall not exceed the limits herein fixed.

Appropriations Validated

Sec. 5. Any sums heretofore appropriated or expended for advertising or promotional purposes under any such previous Acts are hereby validated.

Art. 2352e. Water Supply for County Purposes; Authority to Acquire Treatment and Distribution Facilities

Adoption of Provisions of Act by Commissioners Court

Sec. 1. The provisions of this Act may be adopted by an order of the Commissioners Court of any county within this state only upon the unanimous vote of the members of such court.

Authority to Acquire or Construct Source of Supply; Pools, Lakes, Reservoirs, Wells, Dams; Treatment and Distribution Facilities; Limitation on Cost

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any county is hereby authorized to acquire by purchase, construction or otherwise an adequate source of fresh water, either surface or subterranean, for the purpose of supplying water to the courthouse and for other county purposes provided that such county shall comply with the provisions of Chapter I, Title 128, R.C.S. of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to water permits, where applicable; and in the furtherance of such project such county shall be authorized and empowered to purchase, construct, repair and maintain pools, lakes, reservoirs, wells, dams, and such treatment and distribution facilities as may be required, all of which is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the project; provided, however, that no project or projects adopted by any one county under the provisions of this Act shall exceed the total cost of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), exclusive of interest.

Sale of Water Not Needed for County Purposes

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of any county is hereby authorized and empowered to sell, contract to sell, deliver and distribute any or all water of the project which is not needed for county purposes to any municipal corporation or political subdivision of this state now created or existing or hereafter established under the laws of the State of Texas, or to any individual, corporation or company under such terms and conditions as the court may determine to be in the best interests of the county, but in no event may the county sell water under the terms of this Section if an adequate public water supply is available to such municipal corporation, political subdivision, individual, corporation or company at the time the provisions of this Act are adopted by the county, nor shall the county sell water under this Act for irrigation purposes. The cost of supplying the water, including any increase in the cost of acquisition, storage, treatment and distribution facilities shall be considered a part of the cost of the project as such term is used in the preceding and following Sections.

Bond Issue; Ad Valorem Tax; Rates and Charges for Water; Limitation on Cost of Project

Sec. 4. (a) For the purpose of paying the cost of the project, including, without limitation, legal, fiscal, engineering expenses, and interest during the construction of the project, the county may, after approval in an election of bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues of the project. When so provided in the order, and after an election, authorizing the issuance of bonds, bonds issued by the county may be additionally secured by levy of an ad valorem tax on the taxable property of the county out of the Permanent Im-improvement Tax prescribed under Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution. If the bonds are to be supported by a tax, the Commissioners Court shall levy such tax sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds as it accrues and the principal as it matures, but the order authorizing the issuance of the bonds may provide that the amount of tax to be collected each year may be reduced or abated to the extent that money is on hand from the pledged revenues applicable to the payment of interest and principal.

(b) As to bonds issued by the county secured solely by a pledge of net revenues of the project as aforesaid, it shall be the mandatory duty of the Commissioners Court to contract for and impose such rates and charges, for water supplied by the project as will be fully sufficient to operate and maintain the project and produce all amounts required to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due, and establish such reserves as may be provided in the order authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

(c) All water used by the county for its own facilities shall be paid for out of general funds of the county legally available for such purpose and no free service shall be allowed.

(d) Prior to the construction of the proposed work or any future additional improvements, works or construction, the Commissioners Court must enter a resolution ordering an election on a day certain. Based on such order, notice of such election shall be given, returns made, result declared, orders entered, tax levied, certified, assessed, or collected, and all other matters applicable shall be performed as required by the resolution and order. The order shall set forth the proposed project, the amount of bonds to be issued to pay for the same, their rate of interest and maturity dates, and shall show whether or not a tax shall be levied to redeem such bonds and if so the amount of the tax.

(e) In the event a majority of the electors who own taxable property in the county and who have duly rendered the same for taxation approve the issuance of the bonds, then the Commissioners Court shall issue such bonds as hereinafter provided. In no event shall any single project proposed by the Commissioners Court require the issuance of bonds whose total par value is in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000).

(f) The Commissioners Court shall have full discretion in fixing the details of the bonds and in determining the manner of sale thereof provided the bonds shall bear interest at not exceeding six percent (6%) per annum and mature in not more than forty (40) years from their date and such order may contain such covenants for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the county in relation to the acquisition of properties and the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the project, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all moneys, and may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and may contain such other provisions as the Commissioners Court may deem advisable and proper for the security of the bondholders, including but without limitation covenants prescribing all happenings or occurrences which constitute events of default and the rights, liabilities, powers and duties arising upon breach by the county of any of its duties or obligations. The bonds may be made redeemable prior to maturity in such manner and at such prices as may be determined by the Commissioners Court in the order authorizing their issuance. All bonds issued hereunder shall and are hereby declared to have all the qualifications and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of Texas. The proceeds of the bonds shall be used solely to pay the cost of the project as above provided, and shall be disbursed under such restrictions as may be provided in the bond order and there shall be and is hereby created and granted a lien upon such moneys until so applied in favor of the holders of the bonds. Pending the use of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds for the construction of the project such proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States Government having maturities not more than ninety-one (91) days from the date of investment. Unless otherwise provided in such order or indenture, if the proceeds of the bonds prove insufficient to pay the cost of the project, additional bonds may be issued under the methods herein prescribed to the amount of the deficit.

Bonds Not Supported by Tax Levy as Revenue Bonds

Sec. 5. If the bonds are not supported by a tax levy, they shall never constitute a debt of the county, but shall be solely a charge upon the pledged revenues, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of the county to issue bonds or incur other debt for any purpose authorized by law, and each bond shall contain this cause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Bonds; Signature; Registration; Approval by Attorney General; Incontestability

Sec. 6. The bonds shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, but the facsimile signature of such officials may be printed or lithographed on the bonds in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 293, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955. The county treasurer shall register the bonds, but he need not sign them. The seal of the Commissioners Court shall be impressed on the bonds, or a facsimile of the seal may be printed or lithographed thereon. The bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be presented to the Attorney General of Texas, and if they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this law he shall approve them.
Upon approval by the Attorney General the bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and thereafter the bonds and the provisions made for their security and payment shall be incontestable.

Acquisition of Land and Easements; Eminent Domain; Relocation

Sec. 7. For the purpose of carrying out any power or authority conferred by this Act the county shall have the right to acquire land and easements, by condemnation in the manner provided by Title 52, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, relating to eminent domain. The amount of and character of interest in land and easements thus to be acquired shall be determined by the Commissioners Court. In the event that the county, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting, or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line or pipeline or telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the county. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of relocation, raising, rerouting, change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Additional Bonds; Pledge of Revenues; Security

Sec. 8. Additional bonds payable solely by a pledge of the net revenues of the project as well as additional bonds payable from the net revenues of the project and additionally secured by levy of an ad valorem tax on the taxable property of the county may be issued for the purpose of improving, repairing or extending the project or for any or all such purposes if permitted by the order authorizing the original issue of bonds, and if authorized by proper election.

Refunding Bonds; Issuance; Interest

Sec. 9. Subject to any restrictions which may appear in the bond authorizing order, the Commissioners Court may provide for the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding any of the bonds issued under this Act and at the time outstanding. The issuance of such refunding bonds, the maturities and other terms thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the duties of the county in respect to the same, shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this Act so far as the same may be applicable, but no such refunding bonds shall be delivered unless delivered in exchange for the bonds authorized to be refunded thereby or unless sold and delivered to provide funds for the payment of matured or redeemable bonds maturing or redeemable within six (6) months. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total of interest to be paid.

Bonds as Legal Investments; Bonds as Security for Deposits of Public Funds

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this law shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value.

Mandamus to Compel Levy and Collection of Taxes and to Perform Agreements

Sec. 11. The holder or holders of any of such bonds herein authorized to be issued shall have the right, in addition to all other rights, by mandamus or other proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce his or their rights against the county and its employees and against the agents and the employees thereof, including but not limited to the right to require the county to impose and collect sufficient rates and charges to carry out the agreements contained in the bond order and to perform all agreements and covenants therein contained and duties arising therefrom.

Taxes Pledged to Pay Bonds

Sec. 12. Obligations issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act which are secured wholly or partially by a pledge of taxes out of the Permanent Improvement Tax prescribed under Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution shall be considered as payable wholly from such tax for the purpose of determining the availability of taxing power of the county to pay obligations which are payable from such tax.

Law Cumulative

Sec. 13. This Act is declared cumulative of all other Acts or laws and the powers, rights and privileges and functions hereby conferred shall not prevent the exercise by any county of any and all other powers, rights, privileges, or functions conferred upon such county by any other Act or law now existing or hereafter enacted. Specifically, nothing herein shall prevent any county from issuing warrants in connection with the project in the manner prescribed by Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931, as amended.

Facilities, Etc., Free From Taxation; Bonds Tax Exempt

Sec. 14. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state, and for the improvement of their commerce and property, the county in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential governmental function and shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom including any profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 15. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this Act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or ineffective, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this Act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment has been rendered.

Time Limitation on Adoption by County

Sec. 15a. No county may adopt the provisions of this Act after September 1, 1963.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 890, ch. 433.]

Art. 2352f. State Association of Counties; Membership Fees and Dues

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of each county within the state is authorized to approve the expenditure of county funds from the general fund for membership fees and dues assessed by a nonprofit state association or organization of counties if:

(1) the membership in such association is approved by majority vote of the commissioners court;
(2) such association is established and designed for the betterment of county government and the benefit of all county officials;
(3) the expenditure authorized by this section is made in the name of the county;
(4) such association is not affiliated in any way with a labor organization;
(5) such association or any employee thereof, does not in any way, directly or indirectly, influence or attempt to influence the outcome of any legislation pending before the Legislature of the State of Texas; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any agent, servant, or representative of such association from providing information for any member of the Legislature, or from appearing before any committee thereof when requested to do so by said member or committee; and
(6) such association or any employee thereof does not, either directly or indirectly, make any contribution, gift or donation of any money, services or other valuable thing to any political campaign or does not endorse any candidate or group of candidates for public office.

Sec. 2. If any association or organization supported in whole or in part by tax money from a political subdivision engages in any act specified in Subdivisions (5) and (6) of Section 1 of this Act, any taxpayer of a political subdivision which pays fees or dues to such association or organization may bring suit to prohibit the political subdivision from making further expenditures to such association or organization and the court upon proof of the violation of any provision hereof shall enjoin any further payments or activity.

Art. 2353. Tax Limit

No tax levied for the purpose of paying debts incurred prior to the eighteenth day of April, A.D. 1876, shall exceed two and one-half mills on the dollar, and no tax levied for the erection or repair of public buildings shall exceed two and one-half mills on the dollar for any one year.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2354. When Tax Levied

No county tax shall be levied except at a regular term of the court, and when all members of said court are present.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2354a. Expired

Art. 2355. To Fill Vacancies

The Court shall have power to fill vacancies in the office of: County Judge, County Clerk, Sheriff, County Attorney, County Treasurer, County Surveyor, County Hide Inspector, Assessor of Taxes, Collector of Taxes, Justices of the Peace, Constables, and County Superintendent of Public Instruction. Such vacancies shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of said Court, present and voting, and the person chosen shall hold office until the next general election.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1927, 46th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 248, ch. 90, § 1.]

Art. 2356. Bridges in Corporate Limits

Said court may erect bridges within the corporate limits of any city or town to the same extent and under the same conditions now prescribed by law for the construction of bridges outside the limits of any city or town. Said court and the governing body of any city or town may co-operate in the erection of a bridge within the corporate limits of a city or town, and jointly erect such bridge upon terms and conditions mutually agreed upon; and either or both the city and county may issue its bonds to pay its proportionate part of the debt by complying with the requirements of the law regulating the issuance of bonds by counties and cities and towns.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 248, ch. 90, § 1.]
Art. 2357. Shall Keep in Repair
The commissioners court of counties owning bridges, situated within the corporate limits of cities and towns, shall keep the same in repair. This article shall not affect or diminish the liability of town and city corporations for injuries caused by defective condition of such bridges situated within the city limits.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2358. May Contract for Supplies
The commissioners court by an order entered of record, may contract as hereinafter prescribed, with some suitable person or persons to supply the county with blank books, all legal blanks and stationery as may be required by law to be furnished the county officials.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2359. Bids Advertised
The commissioners court shall advertise, at least once in every two years, for sealed proposals to furnish blank books, legal blanks, stationery and such other printing as may be required for the county for the term of such contract, and shall receive separate bids for the different classes hereinafter designated. Such advertisement shall be made by the county clerk, who shall notify by registered letter, each newspaper and job printing house in the county, and at least three stationery and printing houses in the State, of the time said contract is to be awarded, and of the probable amount of supplies needed.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2360. New Bids Advertised For
Should supplies furnished by the successful bidder not be of the quality designated and provided for, then the commissioners court may declare such contract null and void, and from time to time advertise for sealed proposals as in the first instance, rejecting any or all bids as often as they may deem best.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2361. Preference to Local Citizens
All things being equal, contracts must be awarded to a citizen or taxpayer of the county in which the contract is let.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2362. Stationery Classified
The stationery shall be divided into four classes: Class "A" shall embrace all blank books and all work requiring permanent and substantial binding. Class "B" shall embrace all legal blanks, letter heads and other printing, stationery and blank papers. Class "C" shall embrace typewriter ribbons, pens, ink, mucilage, pencils, penholders, ink stands and ware of like kind. Class "D" shall embrace tax receipts and all election supplies of whatever nature and description, not furnished by the State. Each and every bid shall be upon a particular class, separate and apart from any other class.

To the lowest bidder on each class shall be awarded the contract for all work of that class.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2363. Bond with Bid
Each bid shall be accompanied by a bond of the bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that, should the contract be awarded to him, he will without delay, upon being notified of such award, enter into a written contract, according to law and with his proposal, and will give such bond as may be required for the faithful performance of said contract.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2364. Unlawful Interest in Contract
No member of the commissioners court or any county officer shall be, either directly or indirectly, interested in any such contract.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2365. Contract Made in Open Court
All contracts shall be made in open court, with the lowest bidder, and all bids shall be spread in full on the minutes of the court.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2366. Contract and Bond
The successful bidder shall enter into a written contract with the court, and shall give bond in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for each class or contract, to be approved by the county judge, conditioned for the faithful compliance with his bid and with the law, and shall be made payable to the county judge or his successors in office.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2367. Affidavit with Bid
The manager, secretary or other agent or officer of the bidder shall attach to each bid an affidavit to the effect that affiant has full knowledge of the relations of the bidder with the other firms in the same line of business and that the bidder is not a member of any trust, pool or combination of any kind and has not been for six months last past, directly or indirectly concerned in any pool or agreement or combination to control the price of supplies bid on, or to influence any person to bid or not to bid thereon.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2367a. Counties and Cities; Identical Bids; Casting of Lots
Sec. 1. In all cases where bidding is required and where two or more responsible bidders submit the lowest and best bids in connection with a proposed county, city or district contract and these bids are identical in both amount and nature, the Commissioners Court of the county or the governing body of the city or district shall enter into a contract with only one of the responsible bidders and reject all other bids. The one bidder shall be selected by the casting of lots. The casting of lots shall be in such a manner as shall be prescribed by the County Judge or Mayor or governing body of the district, as the case may be, and shall be conducted in the presence of the governing body of the county, city or district at which time all qualified bidders or their legal representatives may also be present. Nothing hereinafter shall prohibit the rejection of all bids by the awarding authority.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be applicable to all counties, cities and districts in the State of Texas where bidding is required and contracts are to be let on the basis of the lowest and best bid, regardless of whether the bids are submitted pursuant to the provisions of a General Law, a Special Law, a city charter, or a city ordinance; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply or be construed to apply to the bidding by any private, bank, banking corporation or association for designation as depository of public funds of any county, city or district or to the letting of contracts therefor, nor shall such provisions apply to bids submitted to an independent school district by those persons or corporations seeking appointment as treasurer of the School Fund under Article 2832, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as last amended by Chapter 48, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session 1959.

Art. 2368. Repealed by Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 269, ch. 163, § 10

This article, Acts 1917, p. 349; Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 127, p. 262, §§ 1, 2, related to advertising for bids and letting contracts. This subject matter is now covered by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 204; ch. 116; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 385, ch. 10, § 1.

Art. 2368a. Requirements Governing Advertising for Bids by Counties and Cities

Definitions

Sec. 1. The word "city" as used in this Act shall include all cities and towns incorporated under General or Special Laws, and all cities operating under charter adopted under the provisions of Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of Texas, unless especially excepted under the terms of this Act.

The term "governing body" as used in this Act shall include the governing body of every city, whether designated as "Board of Aldermen," "City Council," "City Commission," or otherwise.

For the purposes of this Act the term "current funds," shall include money in the treasury, taxes in process of collection during such tax year, and all other revenues which may be anticipated with reasonable certainty during such tax year.

The term "bond funds" shall include money in the treasury already received from the sale of bonds, and the proceeds of bonds theretofore voted but not yet issued and delivered.

The term "time warrant" as used in this Act shall include any warrant issued by a city or county not payable out of current funds.

The short title of this Act shall be "Bond and Warrant Law of 1931."

Nothing in this Act shall be construed as to affect any bonds or warrants legally issued or authorized to be issued and for which a tax has been levied for the payment of interest and principal thereof, prior to the time when this Act shall become effective and under the laws existing at that time, nor as affecting the matters covered by House Bill No. 981, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, provided that after June 1, 1932, the requirements of this Act with respect to notice, competitive bidding, and a referendum election shall also be complied with by all cities then acting under the provisions of said House Bill No. 981.

1 Article 1118a.

Competitive Bidding for Contracts for Public Works; Notice to Bidders; Advertisement; Exceptions; Conflicting Provisions; Noncompliance with Law

Sec. 2. No county, acting through its Commissioners Court, and no city in this state shall hereafter make any contract calling for or requiring the expenditure of payment of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) or more out of any fund or funds of any city or county subdivision of any county creating or imposing an obligation or liability of any nature or character upon such county or any subdivision of such county, or upon such city, without first submitting such proposed contract to competitive bids. Notice of the time and place when and where such contracts shall be let shall be published in such county (if concerning a county contract or contracts for such subdivision of such county) and in such city, (if concerning a city contract), once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the time set for letting such contract, the date of the first publication to be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for letting said contract; and such contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The court and/or governing body shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and if the contract is for the construction of public works, then the successful bidder shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond in the full amount of the contract price, for the faithful performance of such contract, executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this state in accordance with the provisions of Article 5160, Revised Statutes of 1925, and the amendments thereto. However, the city or county in making any contract calling for or requiring the expenditure of payment of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) or more and less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) may, in lieu of the bond requirement, provide in the contract that no money will be paid to the contractor until completion and acceptance of the work by the city or county. If there is no newspaper published in such county, the notice of the letting of such contract by such county shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the County Court House door for fourteen (14) days prior to the time of letting such contract. If there is no newspaper published in such city, then the notice of letting such contract shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the City Hall for days prior to the time of letting such contract. Provided, that in case of public calamity, where it becomes necessary to act at once to appropriate money to relieve the neces­sity of the citizens, or to preserve the property of such county, subdivision, or city, or when it is necessary to preserve or protect the public health of the citizens of such county or city, or in case of unforeseen damage to public proper­ty, machinery or equipment, this provision shall not apply; and provided further, as to contracts for personal or professional services;

Art. 2368a
work done by such county or city and paid for by the day, as such work progresses; and the purchase of land and right-of-way for autho­rized needs and purposes, the provisions hereof requiring competitive bids shall not apply and in such cases the notice herein provided shall be given but only with respect to an intention to issue time warrants with right of referendum as contemplated in Sections 3 and 4 hereof respectively.

Provisions in reference to notice to bidders, advertisement thereof, requirements as to the taking of sealed bids based upon specifications for public improvements or purchases, the fur­nishing of surety bonds by contractors and the manner of letting of contracts, as contained in the charter of a city, if in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall be followed in such city notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act.

Any and all such contracts or agreements hereafter made by any county or city in this state, without complying with the terms of this Section, shall be void and shall not be enforce­able in any court of this state and the perform­ance of same and the payment of any money thereunder may be enjoined by any property taxpaying citizen of such county or city. Pro­vided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to counties having a population of more than three hundred fifty thousand (350,000) inhabitants according to the last pre­ceding or any future Federal Census.

Lump Sum Basis; Unit Price Basis; Changes in Plans and Specifications

Sec. 2a. Contracts for the construction of public works or the purchase of materials, equipment and supplies may be let under the provisions of Section 2 on a lump sum basis or on a unit price basis, as the governing body or Commissioners Court shall determine. In the event a contract is to be let on a unit price ba­sis, the information furnished bidders shall specify the approximate quantities estimated upon the best available information, but the compensation paid the contractor shall be based upon the actual quantities constructed or supplied.

In the event it becomes necessary to make changes in the plans or specifications after performance of a contract has been com­menced, or it becomes necessary to decrease or increase the quantity of work to be performed or materials, equipment or supplies to be fur­nished, the Commissioners Court or governing body shall be authorized to approve change or­ders effecting such changes but the total con­tract price shall not be increased thereby un­less due provision has been made to provide for the payment of such added cost either by ap­propriating available funds for that purpose or by authorizing the issuance of time warrants as provided in the Act amended hereby.

Where any change order involves a decrease or increase in cost of five thousand dollars or less, the Commissioner's Court or governing body may grant general authority to one of its administrative officials to approve such change orders.

Provided, however, that the original contract price may not be increased under the provisions of this Section 2a by more than twenty­five (25%) per cent or decreased more than twenty-five (25%) per cent without the con­sent of the contractor to such decrease.

Contracts for Purchase of Machinery

Sec. 2b. Contracts for the purchase of ma­chnery for the construction and/or maintenance of roads and/or streets, may be made by the governing bodies of all counties and cities within the State in accordance with the provi­sions of this Section. The order for purchase and notice for bids shall provide full specifica­tion of the machinery desired and contracts for the purchase thereof shall be let to the lowest and best bidder.

Issuance of Time Warrants

Sec. 3. When it shall be the intention of the Commissioners' Court, or of the governing body, to issue time warrants for the payment of all or any part of the proposed contract, the notice to bidders required under Section 2 of this Act shall recite that fact, setting out the maximum amount of the proposed time warrant indebtedness, the rate of interest such time warrants are to bear, and the maximum matur­ity date thereof.

Referendum on Bond Issues

Sec. 4. If, by the time set for the letting of the contract, as many as ten per cent (10%) in number of the qualified voters of said county, or city, as the case may be, whose names ap­pear on the last approved tax rolls as property taxpayers, petition the Commissioners' Court, or governing body, in writing to submit to a referendum vote the question as to the issu­ance of bonds for such purpose, then such Commissioners' Court, or governing body, shall not be authorized to make said expenditure, and shall not finally award said contract un­less the proposition to issue bonds for such purpose is sustained by a majority of the votes cast at such election. The law in reference to elections for the issuance of city and county bonds as contained in Chapters 1 and 2, Title
22, Revised Statutes of 1925, shall govern in so far as consistent with the provisions of this Act. The law in reference to the issuance, approval, registration and sale of bonds as contained in Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Statutes of 1925, shall govern in so far as consistent with the provisions of this Act. Provided, that all such bonds shall mature and be payable as provided herein for funding bonds.

If such petition is not so filed with the County Clerk, or the City Secretary or Clerk, then the Commissioners' Court or the governing body may proceed with the final award of the contract and with the issuance of said warrants, but in the absence of such petition, the Commissioners' Court or governing body may at its discretion also submit such question to a vote of the people.

Expenditures Permissible Without Notice or Referendum

Sec. 5. The notice required in Sections 2 and 3, and the right to referendum election defined in Section 4, shall not be applicable to expenditures payable out of current funds or bond funds, as above described, nor to additional expenditures by counties unless in excess of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars for each One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars, or a part thereof, of taxable property in said county, according to the last approved tax rolls; provided, however, that in counties of a valuation of less than Six Million ($6,000,000.00) Dollars, said restriction of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars for each One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars shall not apply, but in lieu thereof the maximum authorized warrants shall be Three Thousand ($3,000.00) Dollars annually; said Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars for every One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars of property shall be the maximum amount of time warrants for all purposes to be issued by such county during the current calendar year; including the proposed expenditure, except in the counties of a valuation of less than Six Million ($6,000,000.00) Dollars as above provided; and provided further that no such warrants shall ever be issued by a county in excess of One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars for any one year, without the duty to give notice and the right to referendum provided in Section 3. If in excess of the maximum, the expenditure cannot be authorized until the expiration of the time for the filing of petition for referendum vote has expired, including the proposed expenditure.

Provided, that in case of public calamity caused by fire, flood, storm, or to protect the public health, or in case of unforeseen damage to public property, machinery or equipment, the Commissioners Court or the governing body may issue such time warrants as are necessary to provide for the immediate repair, preservation or protection of public property and the lives and health of the citizens of such county or city, irrespective of the limitations contained in this Section and the restrictions imposed by Sections 2, 3 and 4 hereof.

Improvements Exempt from Operation of Act

Sec. 6. The provisions of Sections 2, 3 and 4 of this Act shall not apply to expenditures for, or relating to paving drainage, street widening and other public improvements, the cost of at least one-third of which is to be paid by or through special assessments levied on properties to be benefited thereby. The provisions of this Act shall not affect projects for public improvements theretofore lawfully authorized by a vote of the people, and where there may be a deficiency of funds to complete same in accordance with the plans and purposes authorized by the voters. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to bonds or warrants issued under Title 118, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, pertaining to sea walls.

Provisions Inapplicable to Reconstruction or Repair of Court Houses or Jails

Sec. 6a. The provisions of Section 4 of the "Bond and Warrant Law of 1931" shall not apply to the issuance of warrants for the building, construction, reconstruction and/or repair of a court house and/or jail in any county where the court house has been torn down or demolished and where notice was given under Section 2 of said Bond and Warrant Law prior to the taking effect of this Act, and there was no county court house at the time such notice was published, but in such cases warrants may be issued for the building, construction, reconstruction and/or repair of court house.
houses and/or jails, without notice, and no election shall be called upon any petition filed under Section 4 of said Bond and Warrant Law. All proceedings for the issuance of warrants, and all warrants issued or to be issued for any such purpose or purposes in any such case are hereby validated.

Refunding Indebtedness: Procedure

Sec. 7. The Commissioners' Court of any county or the governing body of any city in the State of Texas may pass all necessary orders and ordinances to provide for funding or refunding the whole or any part of any legal debt of such county or city, by canceling evidences thereof and issuing to the holders or creditors, notes, bonds or treasury warrants, with or without coupons, bearing interest payable annually, or semi-annually, at a rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum. The exercise of such authority shall be regulated as follows:

(a) Such Commissioners' Court and such governing bodies shall have the right at all times to issue refunding bonds for the refunding of any outstanding bonds legally issued and outstanding matured in interest on any legally issued outstanding bonds, subject to laws applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds and without the necessity of any notice or right to a referendum vote.

(b) Such Commissioners' Courts and governing bodies shall have the power to provide for funding the whole or any part of any legal debt of their respective counties or cities, existing at the time this Act becomes effective, except that which was created upon the condition that it should never become a charge upon the general revenues of such county or city, but canceling the evidences of such indebtedness and issuing to the holders or creditors, notes, bonds, or treasury warrants; provided that if funding bonds are delivered, the evidences of the original indebtedness shall be surrendered to the Comptroller of the State of Texas and cancelled by him prior to the registration of such funding bonds, and prior to their delivery to said holders or creditors.

(c) Such Commissioners' Courts and such governing bodies shall have the power to fund or refund any and all outstanding legal indebtedness, existing at the time this Act becomes effective, into notes or treasury warrants with or without coupons, in accordance with this Act and in accordance with the law as it exists at the time this Act becomes effective.

The funding bonds hereby authorized shall be payable serially not exceeding forty (40) years from the date thereof, unless the Commissioners' Court or governing body affirmatively adjudge that the financial condition of such county or city will not permit in such installment as will make the burden of taxation to support same, approximately uniform throughout the term of said bond issue. Such bonds shall be executed and issued in the same manner now provided by law for the execution and issuance of bonds to refund outstanding county or city bonds. Said bonds shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, and shall be approved by the Attorney General and registered by the State Comptroller in the same manner as other county or city refunding or funding bonds.

(d) After this Act becomes effective, no item of indebtedness thereafter issued, except bonds and matured coupons thereon, and except items of indebtedness to be issued under contracts made before this law becomes effective, shall be funded or refunded except in the manner hereinafter in this subsection prescribed, to-wit:

Notice of intention to issue such funding bonds, including a statement of the amount and purpose of such bonds, shall be published at least once a week for three (3) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within such county, or within such city, as the case may be, at least thirty (30) days before the meeting of the Commissioners' Court or of the governing body, at which time it is proposed to issue such bonds. If no newspaper is published in such county or city, as the case may be, such notice may be posted at the Courthouse door of the county, or at the City Hall, as the case may be. At any time before the date fixed for the issuance of such bonds, not less than ten per cent (10%) of the qualified property taxpayers of the county, as shown by the records in the office of the County Tax Collector, or in the office of the City Tax Collector, as the case may be, may file a petition in the office of the County Clerk or City Secretary or Clerk, praying the Court or the governing body to order an election for the purpose of submitting the proposition to issue such bonds to a vote of the qualified property taxpayers of the county or city as the case may be. Upon the filing of such petition, such Court or governing body shall at the next meeting thereof, order an election to be held in such county or city to determine whether or not such funding bonds shall be issued as indicated in such petition.

The Commissioners' Court or governing body shall determine the time and the place or places of holding said election; and the manner of holding same shall be governed by the laws of the State regulating elections for the issuance of other county or city bonds under Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925. If the proposition for the issuance of such bonds be sustained by a majority of the property taxpaying voters, voting at such election, then such bonds shall be authorized and shall be issued by such Commissioners' Court or governing body.

In the event no such petition is presented to the Commissioners' Court or governing body within the time hereinabove prescribed, no election on the proposition shall be required, and such Court or governing body shall then have the power to pass all necessary orders to provide for canceling or funding the indebtedness described in such published notice of intention to fund said debts, and may cancel the evidences thereof by issuing to the holders the necessary amount of funding bonds.

The funding bonds hereby authorized shall be payable serially not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, unless the Commissioners' Court or governing body affirmatively adjudge that the financial condition of such county or city will not permit, in such installations as will make the burden of taxation to support same, approximately uniform throughout the term of said bond issue. Such bonds shall be executed and issued in the same manner now provided by law for the execution and issuance of bonds to refund outstanding county or city bonds. Said bonds shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, and shall be approved by the Attorney General and registered by the State Comptroller in the same manner as other county or city refunding or funding bonds.

The Commissioners' Court of any county and the governing body of any city shall at all times have power without notice or the right to referendum to fund or refund any item of indebtedness created in accordance with the provisions of this Act to prevent or relieve a default or an impending default in the payment of principal or interest.

1 Article 701 et seq.

Tax Levy for Payment of Bonds or Warrants

Sec. 8. It is hereby made the duty of all Commissioners' Courts and of all governing bodies, as the case may be, to levy, and have assessed and collected, taxes sufficient to pay the interest as it accrues and the principal as it matures on all bonds and time warrants issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act to prevent or relieve a default or an impending default in the payment of principal or interest.

1 Article 701 et seq.

Refunding Inapplicable to Utility Bonds Payable from Revenues

Sec. 8a. Provided any city or town which has theretofore issued bonds, warrants, certificates, or other securities payable from revenues and income of any utility or utilities owned by such city or town may fund, refund, or extend such bonds, warrants, certificates or other securities, without the necessity of adhering with the referendum provisions hereof, provided such refunding does not increase the amount of such indebtedness, taking into consideration interest adjustments; provided, however, that no such bonds, warrants, certificates, or other securities payable from revenues, or from the income of any utility, which may be funded, refunded or extended by a city or town, shall ever be made a charge upon moneys raised or to be raised by taxation.

Sec. 9. Any warrant bond, funding bond, refunding bond or other evidence of debt or obligation created, or attempted to be created, by the County Commissioners' Court of any county, or the governing body of any city in this State, in violation of or contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be void, and the payment thereof may be enjoined by any taxpaying citizen of such city, in any court of competent jurisdiction in such county.

Provided, however, that notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, Articles 709 to 718, inclusive, of the Revised Statutes of Texas for 1925, shall apply with full force and effect to all bonds, funding bonds and refunding bonds issued under this Act.

Application to Special Charter Cities

Sec. 10. In all cities operating under Special Charter the provisions of this Act shall apply, providing for a referendum vote where the proposed expenditure is not payable out of current funds, or bond funds, and requires the issuance of time warrants in excess of the permitted amount. This Act shall not repeal provisions of Special Charters providing any additional rights to referendum elections. The rights, powers and duties conferred on and imposed on all cities in reference to the issuance of funding or refunding bonds and warrants shall be applicable to all cities, irrespective of charter provisions to the contrary. All laws, General and Special, and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed.
Article 2368, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, is expressly repealed.

Mortgage of Utility Systems Permissible

Sec. 11. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to preclude any city or town in this State, whether organized under General or Special Law or operating under Special Charter, from encumbering or mortgaging its light system, water system, sewer system or any other utility, either, both or all, and the franchise and the income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase same or to make or purchase extensions, additions, or improvements thereto, or by valid provisions of the charter of such city or town, or by the provisions of Article 1175, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, to 1111 to 1118, both inclusive, of the Revised Special Law or operating under Special Charter or by the provisions of this Act, and the franchise and the income thereof and everything pertaining thereto shall not be purchased, in the manner and under the conditions set forth in this Act.

Provided, however, that no competitive bids shall be required in case the municipality proposes to acquire an existing utility plant, and in such cases the voters shall be entitled to a referendum, only on the question of whether or not the utility shall be purchased, in the manner and under the conditions set forth in this Act.

Provided, further, that notwithstanding any provisions of this Act, and notwithstanding any provision of its Special Charter, if such city or town is acting under authority of House Bill No. 981, passed by the Regular Session of the 42d Legislature, the requirements of this Act in reference to notice, competitive bids and the right to a referendum of such question.

Inapplicable to Warrants Based or Issued on Current Funds

Sec. 11a. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as requiring any city to give any notice as a condition precedent to issuing warrants payable out of current funds of said city and the issuance of any such warrants by any such city shall not be subject to the terms and provisions of this Act; provided, however, that at the time of the authorization of such warrants the Governing Body of the city, shall also pass an order setting aside such an amount of the current funds as will discharge the principal and interest of the warrants issued and based upon such current funds. And thereafter the so appropriated portion of such current funds shall not be used for any purpose other than to discharge said warrants. And no such warrants shall ever be refunded, but they must be discharged out of the designated funds.

Saved From Repeal

Acts 1931, ch. 36, p. 67 [Art. 2368f], relating to the issuance of the time warrants in counties with a population in excess of 300,000 by section 3 excepts sections 2 of this article, as amended, from the repeal of the conflicting laws except as to the warrants authorized by that act.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2824, ch. 923, enacting the Certificate of Obligation Act (Article 2368a.1), provided in section 10 that nothing herein shall be construed as repealing the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931. See article 2368a.1, § 10.

Art. 2368a.1. Certificate of Obligation Act

Citation of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as "The Certificate of Obligation Act of 1971".

Definitions

Sec. 2. When used in this Act, unless otherwise apparent from the context:

(a) "Bond funds" shall mean money received from the sale of bonds by the issuer.

(b) "Certificate" means a certificate of obligation authorized to be issued under the terms of this Act.

(c) "City" means any incorporated municipality of this State incorporated under the provisions of (i) any general or special law provided the municipality has the power to levy an ad valorem tax of not less than $1.50 on each $100 valuation of taxable property therein, or (ii) the home rule amendment to the Constitution.

(d) "Contractual obligation" shall mean any contract entered by an issuer through its governing body executed pursuant to Section 6 or Section 7 of this Act. No such contract shall be required to be in writing where (i) work is to be done by the regular salaried employees of an issuer, (ii) the work is to be paid for as the work progresses, and (iii) legal services.

(e) "County" means a political subdivision of the State of Texas created and established under Article IX, Section 1, of the Constitution of Texas which, according to the Federal Census then preceding has a population of less than 350,000.
(f) "Current funds" shall mean money in the treasury, taxes in the process of collection during the then current budget year of the issuer, and all other revenues which may be anticipated with reasonable certainty during such budget year.

(g) "Governing body" shall mean the board, council, commission, court or other body or group which is authorized to issue bonds for or on behalf of an issuer.

(h) "Issuer" means a city or county.

Certificates Authorized; Amount, Public Works Construction

Sec. 3. (a) The governing body of an issuer may authorize certificates for the purpose of paying any contractual obligation to be incurred for the construction of any public work or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, machinery, the purchase of land and rights-of-way for authorized needs and purposes, or for the payment of contractual obligations for professional services (including tax appraisal engineers, engineering, architectural, attorneys, mapping, auditing, financial advisors, fiscal agent) or for any one or more of such purposes.

(b) Certificates may be authorized in an amount not in excess of 25% of any contractual obligation incurred for construction of public works in order to provide for change orders as work progresses (as contemplated by Section 6) but only such amount of certificates as required to discharge contractual obligation after execution of such change orders shall be delivered by an issuer.

Claims and Accounts; Funding or Exchange

Sec. 4. The governing body of an issuer may provide that claims and accounts may thereafter be incurred for such authorized purposes to represent an undivided interest in certificates simultaneously authorized and may provide for the funding or exchange of such claims and accounts for a like total principal amount of such certificates with any amount in excess of the principal amount of certificates delivered at any one time may be paid in cash or carried forward to a subsequent exchange of claims and accounts for certificates. While the authorization of certificates (and the indebtedness thereby evidenced) may precede the execution of the contract or contracts under the provisions of this section, nothing in this section shall be construed as an exception to the requirement for the receipt of competitive bids under Section 6.

Notice to Bidders

Sec. 5. No certificates of indebtedness may be authorized by any issuer unless the notice to bidders (where the same is required) states (i) the successful bidder or bidders will be required to accept such certificates in payment of all or a portion of the contract price or (ii) that the governing body of any issuer has made provision for the contractor to sell and assign such certificates to another and that each bidder is required (at the time of the receipt of bids) to elect whether he will accept such certificates in payment of all or a part of the contract price or assign such certificates in accordance with such arrangements.

Competitive Bids; Notice, Publication; Change Orders, Payment of Added Cost; Rejection of Bids; Performance Bond

Sec. 6. (a) Except as provided herein, the governing body of an issuer shall hereafter make no contract calling for requiring the expenditure or payment or creating or imposing an obligation or liability of any nature upon such city, county, or subdivision of the county in excess of $2,000 without first submitting such proposed contract to competitive bids.

(b) Notice of the time, place, when and where such contract shall be let shall be given in accordance with the provisions of (i) Section 2, or Section 2(a) of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended or (ii) the home rule charter of an issuer or (iii) this Act. If such notice is given under the provisions of this Act, it shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper as defined in Chapter 84, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1933, as amended (Article 28a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), of general circulation in the city or county which is to receive bids, the date of the first publication to be 14 days prior to the date set for the receipt of bids, and shall specify that plans and specifications for the work to be done or specifications for machinery, supplies, equipment or materials to be purchased are on file with a designated official of the issuer where they may be examined without charge. All contracts for the construction of public works, the purchase of materials, equipment, supplies, or machinery let under the provisions of this Act shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder and may be let on a lump sum basis or on a unit price basis, as the governing body shall determine. In the event a contract is to be let on a unit price basis, the information furnished bidders shall specify the approximate quantities estimated upon the best available information, but the compensation paid the contractor shall be based upon the actual quantities constructed or supplied.

(c) After performance of a construction contract has been commenced, if it becomes necessary to (i) make changes in the plans or specifications or (ii) decrease or increase the quantity of work to be performed or materials, equipment or supplies to be furnished, the governing body shall be authorized to approve change orders effecting such changes but the total contract price shall not be increased thereby unless due provision has been made to provide for the payment of such added cost either by appropriating current or bond funds for that purpose, by authorizing the issuance of certificates or by any one or more such procedures, but the original contract price may not be increased by more than twenty-five per cent (25%) or decreased more than twenty-five per cent (25%) without the consent of the contractor to such decrease.

(d) The governing body shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and if the contract is for the construction of public works and is for or requires the expenditure of $2,000 or more, then the successful bidder shall be required to give a good and sufficient payment and performance bond each in the full amount of the contract price, executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this State in accordance with the provisions of Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

1 Article 2368a.

Advertisements for Bids, Exceptions; Sale of Certificates; Use of Proceeds; Registration, Etc.; Legal Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 7. The provisions of Section 6 of this Act relating to advertisement for competitive bids shall not apply in the following instances:

1. in case of a public calamity where it becomes necessary to act at once to relieve the necessity of the citizens or to preserve the property of such city or county; or

2. where it is necessary to preserve or protect the public health of the citizens of such city or county; or

3. in the case of unforeseen damage to public property, machinery or equipment;

4. contracts for personal or professional services;

5. work done by employees of the issuer and paid for as such work progresses;

6. the purchase of land, buildings, existing utility systems or rights-of-way for authorized needs and purposes; or

7. expenditures for or relating to improvements to a city water system, sewer system, streets or drainage (any one or all) where the cost of at least one-third (1/3) of which is to be paid by special assessments levied against properties to be benefited thereby; or

8. where the entire contractual obligation is to be paid from bond funds or current funds, or where an advertisement for bids has previously been published (in the manner authorized or permitted in Section 6) but the current funds or bond funds are not adequate to permit the awarding of a contract and the certificates are to be issued to provide the deficiency; or

Certificates authorized to be issued for the purpose or purposes specified in this section, in the discretion of the governing body of the issuer, may be sold for cash and the proceeds thereof shall be used only for the purpose or purposes for which the same were authorized; provided, (i) accrued interest received, if any, shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund established for the payment of such certificates and (ii) no certificate may be sold for cash to pay for work done by employees of the issuer and paid for as such work progresses and (iii) a certified copy of the proceedings relating to the authorization of such certificates shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and be approved by such officer as having been authorized in accordance with the provisions of this Act. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General of Texas to examine the proceedings relating to the authorization of such certificates and the provisions of Article 709 through Article 716, inclusive, of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and Chapter 204, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, as amended by Chapter 290, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, shall apply to and govern the execution, approval, registration, and validity of such certificates. From and after the registration of such certificates by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, the same shall be incontestable for any cause.

Certificates approved by the Attorney General shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for any sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such certificates shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Certificates Payable From and Secured By Other Revenues; Delivery

Sec. 8a. The governing body of an issuer, in lieu of or in combination with the existing source provided herein for the payment of cer-
Certificates, may (under the provisions of this Section):

(i) provide that such certificates will be payable from and secured by other revenues, if the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Constitution or statutes to secure or pay any kind or type of general or special obligation by or from such revenues, and

(ii) deliver the certificates so secured in exchange for services or property in the manner and with the effect provided in other Sections of this law, or sell the same for cash under this Section.

Notice of Intention to Issue Certificates; Contents and Publication; Petition of Protest; Election

Sec. 8(b). Except for certificates issued for the purposes specified in paragraphs numbered (1) through (5) of Section 7, no certificates, irrespective of their sources of payment, may be authorized under Section 9 of this Act until the issuer has caused notice of its intention to issue such certificates to be published in a newspaper, as defined in Chapter 84, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1933, as amended (Article 28a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), of general circulation in area of the issuer. Such notice shall (i) state the time and place the issuer tentatively proposes to authorize the issuance of certificates, the maximum amount that may be authorized, the purpose thereof, and the manner in which the issuer then proposes to provide for payment of such certificates (by taxes or revenues, either or both) and (ii) be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the date of the first publication at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date tentatively set for the passage of the order or ordinance authorizing the issuance of such certificates. If prior to the date tentatively set for the authorization of the issuance of the certificates or prior to such authorization a petition signed by 5% of the qualified electors of the issuer is filed with the County Clerk (if the issuer is a county) or the City Secretary or City Clerk (if the issuer is a city) protesting the issuance of such certificates, the issuer shall not be authorized to issue certificates for such purpose unless the issuance thereof is approved at an election called, held, and conducted in the manner provided for bond elections under Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.1

Authorization of Certificates; Payment; Options for Redemption; Maturity; Interest

Sec. 9. Certificates may be authorized by (i) an order duly passed and adopted by the governing body of a county (upon compliance with Article 2343 and Article 2354, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended) or (ii) an ordinance adopted by the governing body of a city. Certificates shall be payable at such times, be in such form and denomination or denominations, either in coupon form or registered as to principal and interest, or both, may contain such options for redemption prior to scheduled maturity, and be payable at such place or places and contain such other provisions as the governing body of the issuer may determine, but in no event shall any certificate mature over a period in excess of 40 years from the date thereof, or bear interest at a rate in excess of that prescribed by Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, 1969, as amended by Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1969.1

Sec. 10. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of other laws and nothing herein shall be construed as repealing the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended.1

It is the purpose and intent of this Act to (i) provide an alternate procedure with respect to certain financing which is now subject to being accomplished under the said Bond and Warrant Law of 1931 which is not so cumbersome, and (ii) provide a new class of securities which may be issued and delivered within the financial capabilities of an issuer upon compliance with the procedures herein set forth.

In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Act and the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, an issuer may proceed under either of such procedures and it shall not be necessary for the governing body to designate the statute under which action is being taken.

Construction; Alternative Procedure; Severability

Sec. 11. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the Federal or State Constitutions and all acts done hereunder shall be done in such manner as may conform thereto whether herein expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such Constitutions, the issuer shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable to such Constitutions. If any provision of the Act shall be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provision of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

Art. 2368a-1

173. Acts of the 50th Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1947,1 where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works, the purchase of land or interests in land, or the furnishing of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional services, and has authorized or issued scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city for the cost of such public works, land, materials, supplies, equipment and personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved; provided that no such scrip or time warrants shall be ratified, validated, confirmed, and approved by this Act unless the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, shall have heretofore specifically and officially found and declared in effect that such county or city has actually received the full benefit of the work performed or the land, materials, supplies, equipment or services furnished to the full extent of the amount of scrip or time warrants so authorized or issued. It is expressly provided, however, that this Section 2 shall not validate, ratify or confirm any contract, time warrant or scrip warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred twenty-five thousand (325,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, time warrant or scrip warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 1. [Adds §§ 2a, 2b to art. 2368a.]

Sec. 2. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas on May 11, 1951, of Chapter 164, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951 (Senate Bill No. 105, page 281),1 where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved; provided, that such scrip or time warrants themselves shall not be ratified, validated, confirmed and approved by this Act unless the Commissioners Court or the governing body, as the case may be, shall have heretofore specifically and officially found and declared in effect that such county or city has actually received the full benefit of the work performed or the land, materials, supplies, equipment or services furnished to the full extent of the amount of scrip or time warrants so authorized and issued. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work, where such Commissioners Court or governing body shall have heretofore specifically and officially found and declared in effect that such county or city has actually received the full benefit of the work performed or the materials and supplies furnished to the full extent of the amount of scrip or time warrants so issued, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred thousand (300,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 3. All proceedings, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city authorizing the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any county or city and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, and such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances, and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred thousand (300,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 2368a-4. Validation of Contracts, Scrip and Time Warrants; Proceedings; Refunding Bonds; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas, on June 8, 1953, of Chapter 382, Acts of the Fifty-third Legislature, Regular Session, 1953,2 where the Commissioners Court of a county in this State has entered into contracts or agreements, or has incurred and recognized or approved claims for the construction of public works or improvements, for the purchase of land or interests in land, including right of ways for public roads or highways and the fencing of right of ways on and along public roads or highways, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders authorizing the issuance of scrip or interest-bearing time warrants to pay for or to evidence the indebtedness incurred by such county for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, interests in land, including right of ways for public roads or highways and the fencing of right of ways on or along public roads and highways and such materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, all such contracts or agreements and claims, and assignments of such claims and such scrip and interest-bearing time warrants, and the proceedings adopted by such Commissioners Court relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip and interest-bearing time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court of any county in this State in payment for or to evidence the indebtedness incurred for work done by such county and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services purchased or secured in connection with such work, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any scrip or interest-bearing time warrants issued by the Commissioners Court of a county in this State unless the proceedings of such Commissioners Court shall have heretofore found or declared, in effect, that such county has received full value and consideration for the issuance of such scrip or interest-bearing time warrants. It is expressly further provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of one hundred and sixty-five thousand (165,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, orders, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by any Commissioners Court in this State authorizing the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any such county and all refunding bonds here­tofore issued for such purpose are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, and such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, orders and resolutions heretofore adopted by any such Commissioners Court may be issued irrespective of the fact that such Commissioners Court in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds execut-

Art. 2368a-5. Validation of Contracts, Scrip and Time Warrants; Refunding Bonds; Acts and Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas on May 11, 1951, of Chapter 164, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951 (Senate Bill No. 105, page 281), where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city (including home-rule cities) or town in this state has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including home-rule cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including home-rule cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding federal census, or any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, time warrants or bonds the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 2368a-6. Validation of Contracts, Scrip and Time Warrants; Refunding Bonds; Acts and Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas on May 11, 1951, of Chapter 164, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951 (Senate Bill No. 105, page 281), where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city (including home-rule cities) or town in this state has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including home-rule cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including home-rule cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city (including home-rule cities) or town, and of all officers and officials thereof, authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to time warrants or of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any county or city (including home-rule cities) or town, and all time warrants and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. Such time warrants and refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, time warrants or bonds the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 2368a-7. Validation of Contracts, Scrip and Time Warrants; Refunding Bonds; Acts and Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas of Chapter 321, Acts of the Fifty-sixth Legislature, Regular Session, 1959,1 where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city (including Home Rule Cities) or town in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city (including Home Rule Cities) or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to time warrants or of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town, and all time warrants and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. Such time warrants and refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. ment, labor, or supervision and has heretofore adopted contracts, orders or ordinances to authorize the payment therefor out of any fund or funds of such county, city (including Home Rule Cities) or town or the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, products, services, personal services, professional services, equipment, labor, or supervision, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by or in behalf of the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant or time warrant executed or issued by any county or city (including Home Rule Cities) with a population of less than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) or any county with a population of more than three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant or time warrant relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All such contracts, scrip and time warrants and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town, and all time warrants and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. Such time warrants and refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, time warrants or bonds the validity of which is now in litigation.

Art. 2368a-9. Validation of Contracts, Scrip and Time Warrants; Refunding Bonds; Acts and Proceedings; Exceptions; Elections for City Officials

Sec. 1. Every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas on May 15, 1961, of Chapter 126, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,1 where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city (including Home-Rule cities) or town in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, personal or professional services and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or personal or professional services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All such contracts, scrip and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work for professional or personal service rendered to the county, city or town, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed and all such warrants shall be payable in accordance with their respective terms. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant or time warrant, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city (including Home Rule Cities) or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to time warrants or of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants, by any county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town, and all time warrants and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. Such time warrants and refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, time warrants or bonds executed, adopted or issued by any county or city (including Home Rule Cities) or town with a population of less than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) or counties with a population of more than three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, time warrants or bonds the validity of which is now in litigation.

cluding Home-Rule cities) or town and all such warrants and all refunding bonds, heretofore issued for such purpose, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. Such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued, irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word in this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Sec. 4. All actions heretofore taken by the Commissioners Court of any county in ordering the holding of an election for the selection of a mayor and aldermen of a city, town or village heretofore incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas, and all orders of such court in canvassing the returns and declaring the results of such election are hereby in all things ratified and confirmed, and the persons so declared or found to have been elected by the said Court as the result of such election, and their successors in office, shall be and are hereby recognized as the governing body of such city, town or village irrespective of whether such municipal corporation was originally established or incorporated under the aldermanic or commission form of government.

Art. 2368a-10. Validation of Contracts, Scrip and Time Warrants; Refunding Bonds; Acts and Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. [Amends art. 2368a, § 2.]

Sec. 2. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas of Article 384, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963,1 where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city (including Home-Rule cities) or town in this state has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such city or county (including Home-Rule cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 3. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city (including Home-Rule cities) or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance, delivery of or in anywise pertaining to time warrants or of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town, and all time warrants and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. Such time warrants and refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, time warrants or bonds the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

1 Article 2368a-9.
Art. 2368a-11. Validation of Contracts, Scrip and Time Warrants; Refunding Bonds; Acts and Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In every instance where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing board of a city (including Home-Rule cities) in this state has entered into contracts for, or has determined the advisability thereof by giving notice of intention to issue interest-bearing time warrants in payment therefor, the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work and for professional or personal services rendered to the county, city or town, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved and all such warrants shall be payable in accordance with their respective terms. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 2368a-12. Validation of Contracts, Warrants, Assessments, Acts and Proceedings, etc. of Certain Counties, Cities and Towns

Contracts for Construction, Etc., Scrip or Time Warrants Issued and Related Proceedings

Sec. 1. In every instance where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing board of a city (including Home Rule cities) or town in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including Home Rule cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including Home Rule cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work and for professional or personal services rendered to the county, city or town, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved and all such warrants shall be payable in accordance with their respective terms. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contracts, scrip warrant or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant or time warrant, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city (including Home-Rule cities) or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding scrip or time warrants issued by any county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town and all such warrants and all refunding bonds, heretofore issued for such purpose, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved and all such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized heretofore adopted may be issued, irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

tion of rights-of-way for State or federal highways (which may or may not also be classed as city streets), all such contracts or payments and the delivery of time warrants therefor are hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed as are such findings made by such governing body.

Proceedings, Governmental Acts, Orders, Etc., Authorizing Issuance of Refunding Bonds

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city (including Home Rule cities) or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding scrip or time warrants issued by any county or city (including Home Rule cities) or town and all such warrants and all refunding bonds, heretofore issued for such purpose, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed.

Bond Elections and Proceedings

Sec. 3. In every instance where the governing body of a city (including Home Rule cities) or a town or a county has heretofore provided for the calling and holding of an election for the authorization of bonds or has authorized the issuance of refunding bonds to refund time warrants or other obligations, all such election proceedings and proceedings for the authorization of such bonds and refunding bonds are hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed.

Leases and Attempted Leases of Nursing Homes or Interests Therein by Counties

Sec. 4. In every instance where the County Court or Commissioners Court in any county of this State acting as such court has leased or attempted to lease a nursing home or an interest therein belonging to said county to any person, firm, or corporation, and where the County Court or Commissioners Court has made, executed, and delivered to any such person, firm, or corporation an instrument purporting to lease such nursing home, and where the lessee or his successors has enlarged or developed the facility, then all such leases or attempted leases are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, and approved.

Form of Government Change by Cities of 950 to 1,100

Sec. 4a. The adoption of an ordinance to change the form of government of a general law city with a population between 950 and 1,100 from commission to aldermanic is hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Acquisitions of Property by Counties and Conveyances to University of Texas

Sec. 5. All actions of a Commissioners Court of any county in this State in acquiring property and the subsequent conveyance of such property by deeds of record in any county in this State to the Board of Regents of The University of Texas, as trustees, for the use and benefit of The University of Texas are hereby ratified and confirmed and in all things approved.

Assessments by Cities for Street or Highway Improvements and Liens and Liabilities Thereby Created

Sec. 6. All assessments and reassessments for street or highway improvements and the liens and liabilities created thereby heretofore levied or purported to be levied by any and all cities in the State against properties abutting their streets or highways and against the owners of such properties, and all proceedings of the governing bodies of such cities levying or purporting to levy such assessments or reassessments are in all respects validated and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of Chapter 106 of the 40th Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1927, as amended, except that nothing herein shall be construed to validate or to legalize any assessment lien levied or attempted to be levied against any property or interest in property exempt at the time the improvements were ordered from the lien of special assessment for street improvements.

Assignable Certificates of Special Assessment

Sec. 7. All assignable certificates of special assessment issued in evidence of such assessments or reassessments are hereby validated according to their terms. Any city which has not yet issued assignable certificates of special assessment to evidence such assessments may issue same and such certificates shall be valid and legal.

Assessments for Street Improvements Subject to Pending Litigation; Exception

Sec. 8. This Act is not intended to validate, nor does it apply to any assessments or reassessments for street improvements, which are the subject matter of any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act, in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State in which the validity thereof is being challenged, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of same.

Proceedings, Governmental Acts, Orders, Resolutions and Bonds of Counties in Excess of $50,000 or Subject to Litigation; Inapplicability

Sec. 9. This Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred fifty thousand ($350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is directly involved as a party in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Section 10 of the 1971 act provided: "If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word in this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity."

Art. 2368b. Validating Notes, Bonds and Warrant Issues in Certain Cities

Sec. 1. All findings and funding and refunding notes, bonds, warrants, time warrants and treasury warrants heretofore issued or authorized to be issued and attempted to be issued by any and all cities in the State, whether or not incorporated under General or Special Laws, and any and all cities operating under charters adopted under the provisions of Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of Texas, having a population in excess of One Hundred Seventy Five Thousand (175,000) according to the last preceding United States census, and which were heretofore issued, authorized to be issued, or attempted to be issued under authority of H.B.No. 312 of the Forty-second Legislature, are in all respects validated.

Sec. 2. All orders of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing such issues of funding and refunding notes, bonds, warrants, time warrants and treasury warrants, or attempting to authorize the same, or any of the same, are in all respects validated.

Sec. 3. All orders of said governing bodies of said cities directing the levying and assessing of taxes to provide for the payment of the interest and principal of such notes, bonds, warrants, time warrants and treasury warrants, as they respectively mature, are in all respects validated.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 85, ch. 40.]

1. Article 2368a.

Art. 2368b-1. Validating Notes, Taxes, etc. in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. All notes heretofore authorized to be issued and sold for cash, or attempted to be issued and sold for cash, by any county in the State whose Commissioners Court has by official determination declared that such cash is necessary and essential to the continued current operations of the county for its public purposes are in all respects hereby validated.

Sec. 2. All orders of the Commissioners Court of such counties authorizing such notes or attempting to authorize the same, or any of the same, and the sales and attempted sales thereof for cash for the par or principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the date of delivery thereof, if said date shall be other than the date of the notes, are in all respects hereby validated.

Sec. 3. All orders of said Commissioners Courts of said counties levying and directing the levying and assessing of taxes to provide for the payment of the interest on and principal of such notes, as they respectively mature, are in all respects hereby validated.

Art. 2368c. Validating Proceedings as to Funding Warrants and Bonds in Counties of 11,000 and Not Less Than 10,500

All acts and proceedings of governing bodies of counties containing a population of not more than eleven thousand (11,000) nor less than ten thousand, five hundred (10,500), according to the last preceding Federal Census, in connection with the issuance of funding warrants and funding bonds heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized, or heretofore issued or attempted to be issued, under the provisions of Chapter 163, Acts Forty-second Legislature, Regular Session, are hereby in all things validated. The fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act of the officers of any such county was omitted shall in no wise invalidate such warrants or bonds. Provided that this Act shall not apply to any county whose bonds or warrants are the subject matter of litigation.

1. Article 2368a.

Art. 2368d. Validation of Funding and Refunding Securities Issued by Commissioners' Court or Cities and Towns

All actions heretofore taken by Commissioners' Courts and by the governing bodies of Cities and Towns in the authorization, execution, issuance and delivery of such funding and refunding bonds and such funding and refunding warrants, in attempted compliance with the provisions of Chapter 163, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature are hereby validated and all such funding and refunding securities issued pursuant to such actions are hereby validated; provided, however, that such validation shall not affect or in any wise apply to the subject matter of any litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, until such litigation is determined, finally, favorably to its validity, or until such litigation has been dismissed.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 179, ch. 95, § 2.]

1 Article 2368a.

Art. 2368e. Validating Notices to Bidders on Certain County Projects and Time Warrants in Payment

Sec. 1. In each instance wherein a county has given notice to bidders for the construction, improvement, or repair of any public building in the county and notice of intention to issue time warrants in which notice the maximum amount of time warrants stated does not exceed Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000), in payment for all or a part of the cost of such work, and such notice was published in a newspaper of general circulation in said county fourteen (14) days or more prior to the date therein set for receiving bids, and the second publication thereof is had before or after the effective date of this Act, and before the date set for receiving bids, such notice is hereby validated and declared to be legal and sufficient notice, notwithstanding the fact that such notice was not published for two (2) consecutive weeks, and the Commissioners Court is authorized to proceed with the making of a contract pursuant to such notice and the issuance of time warrants in payment therefor. Contracts made, and time warrants authorized in payment therefor, pursuant to such notice and prior to the effective date of this Act, are hereby validated.

Sec. 2. Provided that this Act shall not validate any warrants issued as herein described, the validity of which is attacked in any court of competent jurisdiction by suit pending therein at the time or within fifteen (15) days of the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 2368f. Time Warrants; Issuance in Counties with 300,000 Population

Sec. 1. In all counties having a population in excess of three hundred thousand (300,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, the Commissioners Court shall have no authority or power to issue time warrants until and unless the same have been authorized by a majority vote of the qualified electors who own taxable property in the county and have duly rendered the same for taxation voting at an election therefor, such election to be held under the authority of and in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925.1 Provided, that in case of public calamity caused by fire, flood, storm, or to protect the public health, or in case of unforeseen damage to public property, machinery, or equipment, the Commissioners Court may issue such time warrants in the aggregate amount of not exceeding Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) during any one calendar year as are necessary to provide for the immediate repair, preservation or protection of public property, and the lives and health of the citizens of the county without the necessity of such election.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to apply to time warrants of such counties issued or authorized to be issued prior to the effective date of this Act.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 67, ch. 36.]

1 Article 701 et seq.

Saved From Repeal

Section 3 of Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 1098, ch. 569, read as follows: "All General and Special Laws in conflict herewith, except House Bill No. 106 enacted by the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949 [this article], are by this Act expressly repealed; provided, however, that this Act shall not limit or affect the authority granted by Section 5 and Section 6 of Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1931 [Art. 2368a], in the making of expenditures and the issuance of warrants as therein provided, except as such Section 5 and Section 6 are limited by House Bill No. 106, enacted by the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949."

Art. 2369. Commissioners May Repeal Order

The commissioners court may, by order entered of record after contracts have been in force for the specified time in such contract, repeal said order.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2370. Buildings, etc. Other Than Courthouse for Courts and Public Business; Leasing Part; Income; Bonds or Other Evidence of Indebtedness

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county may, when necessary, provide buildings, rooms, or apartments at the county seat, other than the courthouse, for holding the sessions of the County Courts, District Courts, and for carrying on such other public business as may be authorized by the Commissioners Court, and may lease or rent such part of any such buildings, rooms, or apartments as may not be necessary for public use.

Sec. 2. Whenever any county in this State may have acquired a building (other than the courthouse) at the county seat which is used partly for public business and which is partly rented for private purposes, where such building was acquired by such county in settlement of an obligation owed to the county, and the Commissioners Court of such county desires to enlarge, remodel, renovate, add onto, repair, improve, or otherwise alter such building, and funds are not available for such purpose, the Commissioners Court of such county shall have the power to issue negotiable bonds, notes, warrants, or other evidences of indebtedness to secure funds for such purpose and to pledge, assign, encumber, and hypothecate the net income and revenues from the portion of such building which the Commissioners Court finds is not then and will not thereafter be necessary for public purposes. No such obligation so issued shall ever be a debt of such county but shall be solely a charge upon the income and revenue so encumbered and no such obligation shall ever be counted in determining the power of any such county to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Sec. 3. No part of the income or revenue of any such building shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such county until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid; provided that the expense of operation and maintenance including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, improvements, repairs, and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income and revenue and only such repairs and extensions as in the judgment of the Commissioners Court are necessary to keep the building in operation and render adequate service, or such as might be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the original security, shall be a lien prior to the lien herein provided for.

There shall be charged and collected as rental for those parts of such building not used for public purposes, a sufficient amount to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment, and interest charges, and expenses, and to create an interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any securities issued hereunder.

Sec. 4. Each contract bond, warrant, note, or other evidence of indebtedness issued pursuant to this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." Where bonds are issued hereunder, they may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by counties. In such case, upon approval, the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other municipal bonds. Projects financed in accordance with this law are hereby declared to be self-liquidating in character and supported by charge other than by taxation. Securities issued under the provisions hereof shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931 as amended (House Bill No. 312, Acts of 1931, Forty-second Legislature, page 269, Chapter 163, as amended) except as same may be inconsistent herewith and under no circumstances shall any vote of the taxpayers be required upon any securities issued hereunder.

Sec. 2. Such building or buildings, when purchased, constructed or otherwise acquired and equipped may also be used for the purpose of carrying on such other public business as may be authorized by the Commissioners Court, and/or the Commissioners Court may also lease or rent any part or parts of any such building or buildings, (which may not be presently needed for any of the above purposes) to the State of Texas and any of its political subdivisions, and the Federal Government.

BOND ISSUE; LEVY OF TAXES

Sec. 3. To pay for the purchase, construction, reconstruction, remodeling, improvement, and equipment of any such building or buildings and/or jail or jails, including the purchase and improvement of the site or sites therefor, the Commissioners Court is authorized to issue negotiable bonds of the county and to levy and collect taxes in payment thereof, which taxes shall be levied, pursuant to the authority of Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended, for permanent improvement fund purposes; and such bonds may mature serially or otherwise as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of the county, not exceeding forty (40) years from their date, and such bonds may contain such option or options of redemption or no option of redemption as may be determined by the Commissioners Court; and the issuance of such bonds and the levy and collection of such taxes shall otherwise be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas,1 governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns and/or counties in this State.

1 Article 701 et seq.

Bond Election; Propositions Submitted

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court may submit at any bond election one proposition for the issuance of such bonds which proposition may include all the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued; or it may at its option, submit at any bond election one or more separate propositions for the issuance of such bonds, each of which separate propositions may include any one or more of the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued.

Notices; Posting

Sec. 5. The acquisition or use of any such building or buildings for any of the purposes herein authorized shall not alter, change or affect any requirement of any law to the effect that certain notices shall be posted at the courthouse door of the county; all notices which have heretofore been required to be posted at the courthouse door of the county shall be posted at the door of the main courthouse and nothing in this Act shall require that additional notices shall be posted at the door or doors of the building or of any of the buildings acquired or used pursuant to the authority herein granted.

Provisions Cumulative

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act are in addition to all the powers given by, and are cumulative of, all other provisions of the Laws of the State of Texas on the same subject.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1386, ch. 476.]

Art. 2370b–1. Branch Courthouses; Counties of 47,500 to 49,000 and 24,500 to 25,000

Sec. 1. In counties which have a population of not less than 47,500 nor more than 49,000, or less than 24,500 nor more than 25,000, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Court may provide for, operate, and maintain one or more branch courthouses outside the county seat for any length of time the Commissioners Court considers necessary.

Sec. 2. (a) If the branch courthouse is maintained in a building which is owned by the county, the commissioners court shall operate and maintain the building in the same manner in which it operates and maintains the county courthouse. The commissioners court shall have care and custody of the building and may place any limitations on the use and maintenance of the building which it finds necessary.

(b) If the commissioners court does not wish to construct a building or purchase office space for the branch courthouse, the commissioners may rent or lease a sufficient amount of office space for the branch courthouse.

Sec. 3. After the commissioners court has authorized the creation of a branch courthouse, any office, department, facility, court, or other agency of the county may open branch offices in the branch courthouse with the approval of the commissioners court.

Sec. 4. Expenses incurred by the county in operating and maintaining the branch courthouse shall be paid from county funds used to maintain and operate other county buildings.

Art. 2370c. Counties of Over 900,000; County Workhouses and Farms

Bond Issue; Tax Levy; Election; Notice; Execution, Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county in this State having a population in excess of nine hundred thousand (900,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census is hereby authorized from time to time to issue the negotiable bonds of said county and levy taxes in payment thereof for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and equipping county workhouses and county farms to be used for the confinement of prisoners of the county or for the purpose of utilizing the labor of such prisoners (either or both), including the acquisition or purchase of sites therefor. Such taxes shall be from the Constitutional Permanent Improvement Fund. Such bonds shall be issued and taxes in payment thereof shall be levied and collected in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1911, as amended,1 governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns, and/or counties in this State, except as may be otherwise provided in this Act. Any and all bonds authorized to be issued by this Act may be submitted at the bond election in a single proposition. Notice of a bond election shall be given by publication of a notice containing a substantial copy of the election order on the same day in each of two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, the first of which publications shall be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the election. No other notice of election shall be necessary. No bonds authorized by this Act (except refunding bonds) shall be issued unless more than a majority of the duly qualified resident electors of said county who own taxable property within said county and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at the election, have voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and such bonds may or may not contain option of prior redemption provisions as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts. Such
Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any such county shall have the right at all times to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds (including the refunding of refunding bonds) issued under the provisions of this Act, subject to the General Laws applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds by counties and without the necessity of an election or of any notice or of any right to referendum vote. The provisions of Section 1 hereof relating to maturities of original bonds and their execution shall apply to refunding bonds issued hereunder.

Validation of Election Proceedings

Sec. 3. Any and all bonds heretofore authorized for the purposes mentioned in Section 1 hereof by a majority of the duly qualified resident electors of the county who owned taxable property within such county and who had duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at an election called and held for such purpose, and the election proceedings relating to such bonds, are hereby in all things validated; and the Commissioners Court may issue any such bonds in the manner herein provided. It is expressly provided, however, that the validation provisions of this Section 3 shall not apply to litigation pending upon the effective date of this Act.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 548, ch. 204.]

Art. 2370c

Crime Detection Facilities; Certificates of Indebtedness

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of each county having a population in excess of 900,000, according to the most recent federal census, shall be authorized, for and on behalf of the county, to issue negotiable certificates of indebtedness for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, constructing, repairing, renovating, improving, and/or equipping crime detection facilities, and acquiring any real or personal property in connection therewith, and to levy and pledge annual county ad valorem taxes under Article VIII, Section 9, of the Texas Constitution, sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on said certificates of indebtedness as the same come due. When any such certificates of indebtedness are issued, it shall be the duty of the commissioners court annually to levy the aforesaid taxes, and cause the same to be assessed and collected, in an amount sufficient to pay such principal and interest. Such certificates of indebtedness may be issued in one or more series or issues, shall mature seri-tenance of said facilities from such fees and charges and/or from any other available county funds.

Art. 2370d. Counties with City of Over 275,000 Population; Public Health Administration Buildings

Application of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to any county containing a city which, according to the then latest United States Census, has a population in excess of 275,000.

Validation of Actions for Election and Bond Issue

Sec. 2. All actions heretofore taken by the Commissioners Court of any county mentioned in Section 1 hereof in ordering an election for the issuance of bonds for the purpose of erecting public health administration buildings and acquiring sites and equipment therefor, and all elections held pursuant to any such action and all such bonds heretofore voted or attempted to be voted and which have not been issued and sold are hereby in all things validated, and any such county may proceed with the issuance and sale of such bonds. Provided, however, this Act shall not affect any suit pending in any court of this state prior to the effective date hereof.

Issuance of Bonds; Erection of Public Health Administration Buildings; Repairs

Sec. 3. Any county whose bonds are validated by Section 2 of this Act is hereby authorized to proceed with the issuance of such bonds and to erect and maintain such public health administration buildings and to acquire sites and equipment therefor, and to expand and repair such buildings, acting either alone or jointly with any city contained in such county and to issue the county's general obligation bonds for such purpose. Such bonds shall be authorized in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas (1925), as amended, relating to county bonds. Provided, when a city and a county jointly erect such buildings, they shall share in the cost in such manner as may be agreed upon and as authorized by orders or ordinances to be passed by the respective governing bodies. Such buildings may be jointly occupied and utilized by any such county and city and such county and city shall be vested with an undivided interest in any such buildings in accordance with any agreements reached by such county and city as authorized by orders or ordinances passed by the respective governing bodies. Provided, such buildings shall not be used for hospital purposes but may be used for any other purpose which will contribute to the health of the inhabitants of such county and city.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 4. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 2370e. Sale and Lease Back of Land, Buildings, Equipment, etc., in Counties Over 500,000

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county in this state having a population in excess of 500,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census is hereby authorized to sell land, buildings, facilities or equipment for the purpose of entering into contracts, to lease or to rent buildings, land, facilities, equipment or services from others for county purposes and to pay the regular monthly utility bills for such land, buildings, facilities, equipment, or services so contracted, leased, or rented, such as electricity, gas, and water; and when in the opinion of a majority of the commissioners court of a county such facilities and equipment are essential to the proper administration of such agencies of the county, said court is hereby specifically authorized to pay for same and for the regular monthly utility bills for such offices out of the county's general fund by warrant as in the payment of other obligations of the county.

Sec. 2. Provided that all construction projects originated or initiated under the term of this Act, shall be let by contract, which contract shall contain the prevailing wage for all mechanics, laborers and persons employed in the construction of such project. The commissioners court of Tarrant County shall determine and set the prevailing wage, which shall be the same prevailing wage set by the commissioners court of Tarrant County on all construction projects involving the expenditure of county funds.

Sec. 3. All actions, proceedings, orders and contracts for such sale, rental, lease, or utility bills for such purposes as stated in Section 1 hereof, made and entered into by any commissioners court of this state, pursuant to which such service has been rendered, are hereby validated, confirmed, and declared to be in full force and effect, notwithstanding any irregularity thereof prior to the enactment of this Act.

Sec. 4. Provided further, that upon or prior to the expiration of the number of terms of years as set forth in any such contract, and when in the opinion of a majority of the commissioners court of such county the stated price is a reasonable price within the judgment of a majority of said court, such facilities may be purchased and become the property of said county and be paid for out of the general fund.

Art. 2371. Rest Room for Women

The Commissioners Court in each county in this State may maintain a rest room for women in the courthouse, or if for any reason a suitable rest room cannot be had in the courthouse, they may maintain a rest room at some convenient place near the courthouse. The rest room may be comfortably furnished with lounge, chairs, mirror, lavatory, tables, and such other furnishings as may be needed to make the room attractive and comfortable for women who may be in attendance on the Court or who may for other reasons be in town.

The Commissioners Court may assist the business and professional men, the various women's clubs, and other organizations in paying the salary of a matron for the rest room; providing the Commissioners Court shall appoint such matron; providing that the expense of maintaining the rest room shall not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) per month, including the compensation paid by the county to the matron.

Art. 2372. Interpreters

(a) The commissioners court of each county may fix the amount of compensation for interpreters employed by the various courts within the county. The compensation for interpreters shall be paid out of the general fund of the county on warrants issued by the court or the clerk of the court in favor of the person rendering the service.

(b) The provisions of this Article do not apply to interpreters for deaf or deaf-mute persons employed under Chapter 105, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967 (Article 3712a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or Article 38.31, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

Art. 2372a–1. Compensation of Interpreters

The Commissioners Court of each county in this State having a population in excess of five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census is hereby authorized to pay for the services of interpreters employed by the various courts within their respective counties a sum not to exceed Ten ($10.00) Dollars per day, which is to be paid out of the General Funds of the county on warrants issued by the respective courts or clerks thereof in favor of the persons rendering such services; provided, however, that such interpreter shall be paid only for the time he is actually employed.

Art. 2372a–2. County Highway Patrolmen Authorized in Certain Counties

The Commissioners' Courts of Counties containing not less than eleven thousand nine hundred eighty (11,980) inhabitants, and not more than twelve thousand one hundred (12,100) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census shall from and after the passage of this Act be empowered to appoint not more than five (5) County Highway Patrolmen for such County, which appointment for Highway Patrolmen shall be limited to the Sheriff or any of his duly appointed Deputies, and any Constable or his duly appointed Deputies, whose duty it shall be to patrol all County Public Roads for the purpose of enforcing the Highway laws of this State, regulating the use of public Highways by motor vehicles. Said County Highway Patrolmen shall have authority to weigh all motor vehicles, if said officer has reasons to believe that the gross weight of any loaded motor vehicle is unlawful and said officer shall have the authority to require such motor vehicle to be driven to the nearest scale, provided however, that such scale is not more than two (2) miles distant and said officer shall have authority to cause said motor vehicle to be unloaded to the extent that the gross weight of such motor vehicle shall not exceed the maximum allowed under the laws of the State of Texas.

Said County Highway Patrolmen may as such be dismissed by said Commissioners' Courts on their own initiative, whenever their services are no longer needed or have proven unsatisfactory, and said County Highway Patrolmen shall as such, receive no compensation from the Commissioners' Court.

Art. 2372b. Employment of Dairying Specialists

The Commissioners' Court of Counties having not less than 72,900, and not more than 73,000 at the last regular Federal Census in 1920, shall be empowered to employ dairying specialists at a total salary not to exceed $7,000.00 annually, said money to be paid out of the funds of said county.

Art. 2372c. Conservation of Agricultural Soils; Use of Road Machinery

Sec. 1. The widespread and rapid extension of soil erosion upon our agricultural and other lands, causing the irreparable waste of soil fertility, and loss of productive power, must be recognized as the gravest menace to the continuing usefulness of this greatest of all our natural resources; and as vitally affecting conditions fundamental in the economic well-being of the people.

Sec. 2. The State must recognize its responsibility, as the representative of the people, for the conservation of resources essential in the production of necessary agricultural products, and the promotion of the public welfare; and must provide, by uniform policies, for the cooperation in the discharge of such responsibility, of all constitutional subdivisions of the State.
Sec. 3. The Counties of the State are hereby declared to have the authority to employ, or permit to be employed, any road construction or other machinery or road equipment in the service of soil conservation and prevention of soil waste through erosion, whenever in the judgment of the County Commissioners' Court, entered upon the Minutes of the Court, such machinery or equipment is not demanded for the service of building and the upkeep of the roads of the County, and shall provide for compensation to the County Road Fund, or the road funds of any defined district or authorized subdivision in the County, for such employment of road equipment.

Sec. 4. In the public service of conserving the soil fertility of the lands of the County, the Commissioners' Courts shall have the authority to co-operate with the land owners and taxpayers of the County in all judicious efforts for the preservation of the productiveness of the soil from avoidable waste, and loss of productiveness of agricultural crops necessary to the public welfare, through permission to use the machinery and equipment that may be made available by the County for such purposes under written contract, and the County shall receive from such landowners and taxpayers compensation, upon such uniform basis as may be deemed equitable, and proper, for the co-operation extended and services rendered, all such compensation or funds to the County to be paid into the Road and Bridge Fund of the County; and the County Commissioners' Court may provide for payments from landowners and taxpayers of the County at such stated intervals and in such amounts, as and when the County taxes are collected, as may be equitable, for the use of the equipment for the protection of lands against continuing immeasurable injury through soil erosion; provided that the Commissioners' Court or representative thereof shall not go upon the land of any owner to improve, terrace, protect, or ditch such land until requested to do so in writing by such owner; and provided further, that the Commissioners' Court or representative thereof shall not be required to do such improving, terracing, protecting, and ditching unless such Court shall determine that such work is of some public benefit and said Court elects to do the work.

Art. 2372d. County Horticultural and Agricultural Exhibits

Sec. 1. All counties in the State acting by and through their respective Commissioners' Courts may provide for annual exhibits of horticultural and agricultural products, livestock and mineral products, and such other products as are of interest to the community. In connection therewith, such counties may establish and maintain museums, including the erection of the necessary buildings and other improvements, in their own counties or in any other county or city in the United States, where fairs or exhibitions are being held.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners' courts of the respective counties or the Commissioners' Courts of several counties may cooperate with each other and participate with local interests in providing for the erection of such buildings and other improvements as may be necessary to accomplish the purpose mentioned in Section 1, of this Act and for the assembling, erecting, and maintaining of such horticultural and agricultural, livestock and mineral exhibits and the expenses incident thereto.

Sec. 3. All incorporated cities, water improvement districts, and water control and improvement districts may cooperate with the Commissioners' Courts of such counties for the purposes stated in Section 1, and Section 2 of this Act and appropriate monies in providing for such exhibits, establishing and maintaining such museums, and in the erection of such buildings and improvements, and the assembling, erecting and maintaining of such horticultural, agricultural, livestock and mineral exhibits.

Sec. 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing or modifying any of the provisions of Chapter 163, General Laws, Regular Session, Forty-second Legislature (known as House Bill 312),1 nor as taking the provisions of this Act out of limitations of said Chapter 163.

[Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 4th C.S., p. 52, ch. 20; Acts 1936, 44th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 2103, ch. 587, § 1.]

1 Article 2103a.

Art. 2372d-1. Validation of Warrants Issued to Construct Exhibition Buildings and Bonds Issued to Fund Such Warrants

Sec. 1. All warrants heretofore authorized and issued by the Commissioners Court of any County for the purpose of constructing a livestock and agricultural exhibition building within said County, where such livestock and agricultural exhibition building has been constructed, are hereby validated notwithstanding any objections other than constitutional that might be raised thereto and are hereby declared to be the valid and legal obligations of such County in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof.

Sec. 2. All bonds heretofore authorized by the Commissioners Court of any County for the purpose of funding any such warrants described in Section 1 hereof are hereby validated notwithstanding any objections other than constitutional that might be raised thereto, and any such County is hereby authorized to complete proceedings for the delivery of such bonds and to deliver such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General and registered complete proceedings for the delivery of such bonds and to deliver such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General and registered.

Art. 2372d-2. Buildings and Permanent Improvements for Annual Exhibits and for Coliseum and Auditorium

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county is hereby authorized to purchase, build, or construct buildings and other permanent improvements to be used for annual exhibits of horticultural and agricultural products, and/or livestock and mineral products of the county, and for a coliseum and auditorium. Such building or buildings and other permanent improvements may be located in the county at such place or places as the Commissioners Court may determine. Payment for such building or buildings and other permanent improvements shall be made from the Constitutional Permanent Improvement Fund.

Sec. 2. To pay for such building or buildings and other permanent improvements, the Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds of the county and to levy and collect taxes in payment thereof, the issuance of such bonds and the levy and collection of taxes to be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas 1925, governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns, and/or counties in this State.

Art. 2372d-3. Leases and Contracts for Management, Conduct and Maintenance

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county of this State which has, or may hereafter provide for exhibits or the erection of buildings or improvements authorized by Acts, 1936, Forty-fourth Legislature, Third Called Session, page 2103, Chapter 507, 1 or Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, page 764, Chapter 411, 2 are authorized to enter into contracts with persons, firms, or corporations for complete management of, the conducting, maintenance, use, and operation of such exhibits, buildings and improvements on such terms as may be agreeable to the Court, and shall have the authority to lease such exhibits, buildings and improvements under such terms and agreements as may be satisfactory to the Commissioners Court and the lessee. The action of the Commissioners Court in making such agreements or leases shall be evidenced by order of the Commissioners Court recorded in the Minutes of the Court.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to permit the use of such exhibits, buildings or improvements for any useful public purpose which, in the opinion of the Court, will be of benefit to the county and its citizens.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court is authorized to determine and provide for the manner in which the net income and revenue derived from the conducting, use and operation of such exhibits, buildings, and improvements, or any projects thereto, shall be used and disbursed; provided, that such income and revenue may be used solely for the management, operation, maintenance, development, improvement and promotion of such exhibits, buildings and improvements or projects and purposes for which same are authorized to be used, and for any other proper public purpose.

2 Article 2372d-2.

Art. 2372d-4. Parking Stations Near Coliseums and Auditoriums in Counties of 500,000 or More

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county which has a population in excess of 500,000 according to the most recent federal census and which has issued bonds for the purpose of constructing buildings and other permanent improvements to be used for coliseums and auditoriums within the county, upon finding that it is to the best interest of the county and its inhabitants, shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish, equip, and operate parking stations in the vicinity of such coliseums and auditoriums. Any said commissioners court is further authorized to lease said parking stations from time to time to such persons or corporations on such terms as the commissioners court shall deem appropriate.

Sec. 2. As used in this law, "parking station" means a lot or area or surface or subsurface structure for the parking of automotive vehicles, together with equipment used in connection with the maintenance and operation thereof, and the site therefor;

"Bond order" means the order authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds;

"Trust indenture" means the instrument of mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument pledging revenues, or in addition thereto, creating a mortgage or deed of trust lien on properties, or both, to secure the revenue bonds issued by the county;

"Trustee" means the trustee under a trust indenture.

Sec. 3. The commissioners court may issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide funds for the construction, enlargement, furnishing, or equipping said parking station. Such bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues to be derived from the operation by the county of the parking station or may be payable from rentals received from leasing all or part of said parking station, or from both such net revenues and rentals, and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of the parking station.

Sec. 4. The bonds shall be authorized by bond order or trust indenture adopted or approved by a majority vote of a quorum of the commissioners court (without the prerequisite of an election) and shall be signed by the county judge, countersigned by the county clerk, and registered by the county treasurer. The seal of the commissioners court shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 40 years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the commissioners court to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the county, including the discount, if any, calculated by use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses does not exceed six percent per annum, and within the discretion of the commissioners court, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and places as may be prescribed in the order authorizing the bonds.

Sec. 5. Bonds constituting a junior lien on the net revenues or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the bond order or trust indenture. Parity bonds may be issued under conditions specified in the bond order or trust indenture.

Sec. 6. Money for the payment of interest on the bonds and an amount estimated by the commissioners court to be required for operating expenses until the parking station becomes sufficiently operative may be set aside out of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds. However, such amounts shall be set aside only in such amount as will cover interest and operating expenses for the estimated period of construction and the first two years of operation and shall be limited to the interest and to the estimated operating expenses over and above earnings for such years.

Sec. 7. Bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds, and may be exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas or sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of outstanding bonds.

Sec. 8. Bonds issued under this Act and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with this law and constitute valid and binding special obligations of the county and are secured as recited therein he shall approve them, and they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, who shall certify such registration thereon. Thereafter they shall be incontestable. The bonds shall be negotiable and shall contain the following provision: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment thereof out of money raised or to be raised by taxation."

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the commissioners court to charge sufficient rentals under any leases entered into pursuant hereto or rates for services rendered by the parking station if operated by the county and to utilize any other sources of its revenues so that revenues will be produced sufficient to pay all expenses in connection with the ownership, operation, and upkeep of the parking station, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the bond order or trust indenture. The bond order or trust indenture may prescribe systems, methods, routines, and procedures under or in accordance with which the parking station shall be operated. No free use of the parking station or any part thereof shall be afforded to any person, firm, or corporation, and so long as any bonds issued under this Act are outstanding neither the county nor any of its agencies and departments shall make free use thereof, but the commissioners court is hereby authorized in behalf of the county to provide in any order authorizing such bonds or in any lease of the parking station for minimum periodic payments, from any resource of the county, into the bond interest and sinking fund or to the lessee as payment for use by the county and its agencies or departments, of any part of the parking station designated for use by the county or such agencies or departments.

Sec. 2. The board of managers shall be composed of nine members, four (4) of this number shall be appointed by the commissioners court of such county, four (4) shall be appointed by the governing body of such city or town, and one (1) shall be appointed by the commissioners court of such county and the governing body of such city or town acting jointly as one body. The commissioners court of such county and the governing body of such city or town shall each appoint one member for a term of office expiring at the end of one (1) year from date of appointment, one member for a term of office expiring two (2) years from date of appointment, one member for a term of three (3) years expiring from date of appointment and one for a term of four (4) years from date of appointment. Thereafter, at the expiration of each term of office of the members so appointed to such board the commissioners court or the governing body of such county and the governing body of such city or town, acting jointly as an appointive body, shall appoint one member for a term of office for four (4) years from date of appointment. Thereafter, at the expiration of each term of office of the member so appointed to such board the commissioners court and the governing board of such city or town, acting jointly as an appointive body, shall appoint one member for a term of office for four (4) years from date of appointment. Any vacancy occurring by death or resignation from such board before expiration of the departing member's term shall be filled for the unexpired portion of such term by the body or bodies making such appointment.

Sec. 3. Such board of managers shall select a chairman or presiding officer from among their number who shall preside over all board meetings of said board, and shall sign all contracts, agreements and other instruments made by such board, on behalf of such county and city or town, and have authority to elect such other officers from their body as they shall see fit. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum with full power and authority to act.

Sec. 4. Such board shall have full and complete authority to enter into any contract connected with or incident to the establishment, equipping, maintaining and operating of such museum, and shall have authority to pay and dispense funds set aside by such county and city for purposes connected with and maintaining same as if such action were taken by the governing body of such county and city.

Sec. 5. Once each year such board shall prepare and present to this county and city governing bodies a complete financial statement as to the condition of said museum, and shall submit to such bodies a proposed budget for the anticipated financial year of the ensuing year. On the basis of such financial statement and budget the commissioners court and governing body of the city shall appropriate and set aside for the use of such board in the operation of such museum the amount of money which seems proper and necessary.

Sec. 6. The board of managers shall have authority to hire a superintendent or manager of such museum and such superintendent or manager shall have the right with the consent of the board to hire extra help, but at all times the superintendent or manager and extra help shall be subject to the bylaws, rules and regulations as prescribed by the board.
the County. The provisions of this Act shall apply to counties having a population of not less than forty-eight thousand nine hundred and not more than forty-nine thousand according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. All actions, proceedings, orders and contracts for such rental, lease or utility bills for such purposes as stated in Section 1 hereof, made and entered into by any Commissioners' Courts of this State, pursuant to which such service has been rendered, are hereby validated, confirmed and declared to be in full force and effect, notwithstanding any irregularity thereof prior to the enactment of this Act.

Sec. 3. If any part, section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall ever be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 1869, ch. 5.]

Art. 2372e-2. Renting Office Space for Administration of Unemployment Relief; Cooperation with State and Federal Agencies

Sec. 1. The County Commissioners Courts and the City Commission of any incorporated town or city of this State are hereby authorized to lease, rent, or provide office space for the purpose of aiding and co-operating with the agencies of the State and Federal Governments engaged in the administration of relief to the unemployed or needy people of the State of Texas, and to pay the regular monthly utility bills for such offices, such as lights, gas, and water; and when in the opinion of a majority of a Commissioners Court of a county, such office space is essential to the proper administration of such agencies of either the State or Federal Governments, said Court is hereby specifically authorized to pay for same and for the regular monthly utility bills for such offices out of the County's General Fund by warrants as in the payment of such other obligations of the county.

Sec. 2. All actions, proceedings, orders, and contracts for such rentals, lease, or utility bills for such purposes as stated in Section 1 hereof, made and entered into by any Commissioners Court of this State, pursuant to such services as have been rendered are hereby validated, confirmed, and declared to be in full force and effect, notwithstanding any irregularity thereof prior to the enactment of this Act.

Sec. 3. If any part, section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall ever be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Art. 2372g. Repealed by Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 82, ch. 58, § 4

Art. 2372g-1. Incapacitated Employees; Payment of Salaries in Counties of 290,000–500,000; Vacations

Sec. 1. From and after the effective date of this Act, in all counties in this State, having a population of not less than two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000), nor more than five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants, according to the last Federal Census and any future Federal Census, the Commissioners Courts shall provide for, and it shall be their duty to pay employees of such counties while incapacitated from duty on account of injury suffered or sustained while in the active and actual discharge of his or her duty to said county, upon the following basis and in the following manner, to wit: Where said employee suffers or sustains physical injury while in the actual discharge of his or her duties to the county which renders said employee totally unfit for the discharge of such duties as may be imposed upon said employee by the Commissioners Court, then said Commissioners Court is hereby authorized and required to pay said employee not exceeding six (6) months pay upon the following basis: (a) The first three (3) months total incapacity, or any fractional part thereof, upon the basis of said employee's full and regular pay; (b) the last three (3) months total incapacity, or any fractional part thereof, if such incapacity should continue for said period, upon the basis of one-half (½) the regular pay of said employee.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts of said counties and each of them shall inquire into any and all injuries of said employees before making any awards of money under this law, and it shall be the duty of said Commissioners Courts to examine witnesses, conduct hearings and subpoena witnesses for the purpose of determining the merits of each claim. The said Commissioners Courts are hereby specifically authorized to grant or refuse awards of money unto any employee, and are also given the right to make awards in any amount not exceeding the limits as set by this Act. Any employee feeling himself or herself aggrieved by the action of the Commissioners Court shall have the right of appeal to the Court having jurisdiction of the amount involved, provided said appeal is taken within ten (10) days after rendition of the judgment of the Commissioners Court of such county and said trial shall be de novo.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Courts may grant vacations to employees in the actual employ of such counties not exceeding fourteen (14) days in any calendar year and, when such vacations are granted, all employees in actual employment of such counties shall be compensated for such vacation time as if actual service were being rendered under their employment. It being the purpose of this Act to grant reasonable vacation time during each calendar year for employees in the counties embraced within this Act.

Art. 2372h. Hours of Work, Vacations, Sick Leave, Hospitalization, etc., in Counties of 500,000 or More; Flood Control Districts; Personnel System

Rules and Regulations; Form of Contract

Sec. 1. In all counties having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, the Commissioners' Court of the county shall have authority to formulate in the manner hereinafter set out rules and regulations governing the hours of work, vacations, holidays, sick leave, medical care, hospitalization, compensation and accident insurance, and deductions for absences with reference to all persons whom this Act affects, and to establish for such persons classifications of positions and rates of compensation therefor, and to provide for the filing by the incumbents thereof of time, work, and statistical reports. The said rules and regulations when adopted as hereinafter provided shall apply to and govern all deputies, assistants, and employees of the county, or any flood control district lying wholly within the boundary lines of any such county, working under the Commissioners' Court or its appointees, and the deputies and assistants appointed by county and district officers pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 465, Acts of the 44th Legislature, 1935, Section 19, as amended, where the salaries are paid from county or from the funds of any flood control district in said county, provided that nothing herein shall be construed as repealing said Chapter 465, supra., with respect to the authority of the county or district officers therein named to apply for appointment of deputies or assistants or the maximum amount or source of compensation which may be paid, but all such regulations with respect to deputies or assistants to such officers shall conform to laws now in effect or such as may hereafter be enacted by the Legislature and each county officer and each district officer, where the deputy or assistant or employee is authorized to be paid from county funds or funds of any flood control district within the county, shall continue to make appointments according to existing laws and shall designate the employee for each such position and shall direct and control the work or terminate the employment at the pleasure of such officer, as is now or as may be hereafter provided by law, it being the intention of this Act only to authorize the Commissioners' Court, in addition to the authority now vested in it by law, to formulate rules and regulations governing the hours of work, vacations, holidays, sick leave, medical care, hospitalization, compensation and accident insurance, and deductions for absences; to establish classifications of positions and salaries thereof; and to provide for filing of time, work, and statistical reports by such deputies, assistants, and employees, in the interests of efficiency and economy.

After appointment and approval thereof by the proper authority, all employments shall be placed in effect through written contracts of employment. Said court shall have the right to prescribe the form of contract of employment for its employees and employees of any said flood control district and for all employees of officers who are required to execute deputations under Chapter 465, Acts of the 44th Legislature, 1935, as amended, and all officers whose deputies are appointed subject to the approval of the Commissioners' Court shall be required to use such forms in the appointment of their deputies and assistants.

Contracts; Hospital and Insurance Fund

Sec. 2. The Commissioners' Court of any such county shall have the right to provide in said contract of employment that deputies, assistants, and other employees of the county, its departments or officers, or of any flood control district within such county, whose compensation is payable from funds of any such county or flood control district, may receive hospitalization and medical care and treatment in any county or city-county operated hospitals located in such county under such rules, regulations, and conditions as said court may prescribe and shall be authorized to enter into contracts with the proper municipal authorities for that purpose. All such rules, regulations, and conditions adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act and approved as provided herein, including those for hospitalization, medical care, and insurance, shall become a part of each deputation or contract of employment. The Commissioners' Court may provide in unusual cases for the expense of such hospital care in a private hospital and may provide for compensation, accident, hospital, or disability insurance, and for contributions for part payment from deputies, assistants, and employees. To provide for cases of hospitalization or medical attention in a county or city-county hospital, or private hospital when necessary, and for the payment of premiums for accident, disability, hospital, or compensation insurance, a fund shall be created to be known as "Hospital and Insurance Fund—County Employees," and there shall be credited to such fund agreed deductions made from the salaries or wages of deputies, assistants, and employees, and contributions from the county or flood control district, from which fund payments shall be authorized only for the purpose of expenses of hospital and medical care and the payment of premiums on accident, disability, or compensation insurance under the adopted rules and regulations, which claims shall be payable under existing laws in like manner as other county or flood control district claims. Any employee who shall be discharged or voluntarily leave the service of the county or flood control district for any reason shall have no further right in said hospital and insurance fund or any right to the further benefits of this Act, but said fund shall continue to be used for the benefit of all remaining employees of the county or flood control district. No contract of employment shall become effective as to any deputy, assistant, or employee as defined herein until the employment is made conformably to law and until the person employed shall have agreed in writing to the terms and conditions thereof. No deduction from the salary of any employee shall be made except he shall have consented in writing given at the time of his employment or at the effective date of the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act; provided any employee not contributing shall not receive any hospitalization or insurance benefits hereunder, but all other provisions hereof shall apply to him. In the event of the abandonment by the Commissioners' Court of the system herein authorized with respect to insurance and hospitalization, the balance remaining in the fund provided for shall thereupon be transferred to the county and to any flood control district participating, in proportion to the total contributions of each.

Personnel and Equipment Records

Sec. 3. Upon the occasion of each employment of each deputy, assistant, or employee whose salary or wages is paid in whole or in part from county or flood control district funds, the employing officer shall file in such form as may be prescribed by lawful authority and in addition to the other requirements of law, a statistical record which shall disclose, among other things, the date of employment, the rate of pay, nature of employment, business or personal history, the education record of employee, and his race, sex, color, age, place and date of birth, and previous experience, and other information essential to the keeping of proper personnel records. Each officer or department head of the county or any flood control district affected hereby shall file sworn pay rolls at the close of each month or oftener if authorized or required by law, which pay rolls shall show the names of each employee working under the officer in the department affected, the dates present or absent, time worked, rates of pay, and amounts due each deputy or assistant, and in addition thereto in cases of engineers and employees in the field engaged in road, flood control, or construction work, reports shall accompany said pay roll indicating the dates upon which the work was performed, the nature of the work, the road or project location, and such other information as may be needed for statistical or accounting purposes and said work reports shall be signed and shall accompany or be a part of each pay roll which pay roll in each case shall be signed and sworn to by the officer filing the same.

The county auditor shall install and maintain an adequate system of personnel and equipment records and shall prescribe the forms and systems necessary to carry out the provisions of this law and shall have authority to enforce the rules and regulations adopted. He shall be authorized annually to assemble statistics and make recommendations which may be incorporated in, printed, and distributed with and as a part of the annual report now required by law of said officer.

In the event of failure to file reports as provided in this Act or to furnish essential information as required, he may withhold payment of claims for salaries until such information has been given in the form and manner required. All contracts of employment shall be made in the manner and be governed by the laws now in effect, except as herein specifically provided. All the rules, regulations, and forms provided for in the Act shall be subject to the approval of the county auditor of the county.

Reports

Sec. 4. Each officer and employee of any county or its departments, or any county or district officer, or any employee of any flood control district in any such county affected by this Act who operates equipment purchased from and operated with public funds or personal equipment for which he is reimbursed by the county or flood control district for operation and maintenance charges shall file with each pay roll a report in writing showing the daily use to which each piece of equipment in his charge was put and the time and mileage run, the amount expended for repairs, the gasoline, oil, and grease purchased, and the roads, bridges, or projects concerning which the work was performed; and all said reports shall be in writing and signed and certified by the officer or employee actually using said equipment. In like manner each said officer or employee shall file reports of accidents involving equipment in his charge, giving the cause, damage, location, circumstances and persons and equipment involved. All such reports shall be on prescribed forms and shall be filed not later than the fifth day of the month succeeding the period of operation, and shall disclose all facts essential to a proper analysis of maintenance and operating costs and for statistical purposes.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 5. Before adopting any rules or regulations, or revising rules or regulations theretofore adopted in connection with the subject matter of this Act, the Commissioners' Court shall give at least fifteen (15) days' notice of such proposed adoption or revision of rules or regulations by publishing a notice at least once in each week for two (2) successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county in which such rules, regulations, or revisions are to be made effective of its intention so to do, and that a hearing is to be held before said court at a fixed time and day to be specified in the notice. At the time and place fixed for hearing, any employee or taxpayer may appear to protest against the adoption of any such rule or regulation, or revision of existing rules. If sustained, the regulations shall be published accordingly. Upon the adjustment or the overruling of protests, the court shall adopt the regulations and direct their recording upon its minutes, and upon approval thereof, as herein provided, they shall become effective on the date set out therein. The notice published shall contain a brief summary of the rules or regulations, or the amendments or changes therein, which it is proposed to make.

Persons Subject to Regulations

Sec. 6. Juvenile officers and probation officers appointed under the terms of Title 82, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be subject to the provisions of such regulations as hereinbefore provided, including those for retirement, to the extent that the juvenile board of any county affected by this Act may determine. In like manner, court reporters in the various courts in such counties shall be subject to the provisions of such regulations to the extent that a majority of the District Judges of such counties in meeting assembled may determine by a vote of the majority present; an order to be entered in the minutes of each of the courts of such judges and a certified copy thereof to be supplied to the Commissioners Court. In like manner, the County Auditor and his assistants in such counties shall adopt the rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioners Court and make them uniformly applicable so far as practicable to all the juvenile, probation officers, court reporters, and the County Auditor and his assistants.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed as authorizing any change in regard to the time, method and manner of appointment or discharge of juvenile and probation officers, or the County Auditor or his assistants, or court reporters, or as authorizing any change in the number thereof or the salaries to be paid, it being the intention of the Legislature that all of such matters shall continue to be regulated by the Statutes applying thereto. If any juvenile, or probation officer, or County Auditor or his assistants shall be jointly employed by two (2) or more subdivisions of Government, the rules and regulations applying to them may be adapted or amended accordingly. For the purpose of adapting such regulations to such employees, they may, if necessary to give equal application to the regulations to all employees, be considered as being upon the same basis as if they were employed by one such unit, and the total salary paid by such unit, and the necessary expense of administration and contributions may be prorated to the different employing units.

2 Article 5119 et seq.

Effect of Act

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of any other laws upon the subject matter, but where in conflict with such other laws, this Act shall prevail.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 8. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, void, or invalid, the validity of the remaining portion of this Act shall not be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Legislature in adopting, and of the Governor in approving this Act, that no portion thereof or provision or regulation contained herein shall become inoperative or fail by reason of any unconstitutionality or invalidity of any other portion, provision, or regulation.

Art. 2372h-1. Vacations, Holidays and Sick Leave for Employees of County Officers and Commissioners Courts

In each county of this State, each elected county officer or the Commissioners Court, as the case may be, shall have authority to provide for vacations, holidays fixed by State law, and sick leaves, without deduction or loss of pay, and to provide for deductions for absences, for the employees working under the elected county officer or his appointees or under the Commissioners Court or its appointees or under a County Commissioner or his appointees, regardless of whether the employee is paid on a fixed salary basis or on the basis of an hourly or daily wage. Nothing in this Act shall affect existing laws authorizing or regulating vacations, holidays, sick leave and absences for county employees, it being the intention of this Act only to provide such authority with respect to the employees covered by this Act in counties where it does not now exist.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 544, ch. 243, § 1.]

Art. 2372h-2. Hospitalization Insurance for County Officials and Employees

The Commissioners Court of any county may adopt any insurance plan, as they deem necessary, to provide hospitalization insurance to any county official, deputy, assistant, and/or any other county employee.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 585, ch. 268, § 1.]

Art. 2372h-3. Vacations, Holidays and Sick Pay for Employees of Counties of 34,000 to 34,120

The Commissioners Court of any county having a population of more than 34,000 and less than 34,120, according to the last preceding federal census, may provide for vacations, holidays fixed by State law, sick leaves without deduction or loss of pay, and deductions for absences from work of all county employees whether paid a fixed salary or an hourly or daily wage.

Art. 2372h-4. Payroll Deductions; Authorized Purposes

Sec. 1. (a) The commissioners court of any county of 20,000 or more population may authorize payroll deductions to be made from the wages and salaries of county employees, on each employee's written request, to a credit union, to a union, and to pay membership dues in a labor union or a bona fide employees association.

(b) Each employee requesting a deduction under this Act shall submit to the county auditor a written request indicating the amount to be deducted from the employee's wages or salary and to transfer the withheld funds to the credit union, proper labor union or employees association. The request shall remain in effect until the county auditor receives written notice of revocation signed by the employee.

(c) The amount deducted from an employee's wages or salary for the purpose stated in this Act shall not be more than the amount stipulated in the written request.

(d) Participation in the program authorized by this Act is voluntary on the part of any county employee and the county.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not alter, amend, modify, or repeal any of the provisions of Chapter 135, Acts of the 56th Legislature, 1947 (Article 5154c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 3. Federal funds shall not be used to defray the administrative cost of making the deductions authorized under this Act. The credit union, labor union or employees association shall pay the full and complete administrative cost, if any, as determined and approved by the commissioners court of the deductions made under this Act.

Art. 2372h-5. Travel Expenses of County Officers or Employees

The Commissioners Court of any county may authorize the payment of reasonable travel expenses incurred by any officer, agent, or employee of the county, or by any board or committee member appointed by the Commissioners Court, in the event that the travel expenses were incurred by the officer, agent, employee, or board or committee member while performing any county business authorized by the Commissioners Court.

Art. 2372h-6. Civil Service System in Counties of 300,000 or More

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) "Commission" means the county civil service commission.

(2) "Chairman" means the chairman of the county civil service commission.

(3) "Employee" means any person who obtains his position by appointment and who is not authorized by statute to perform governmental functions in his own right involving some exercise of discretion, but does not include a holder of an office the term of which is limited by the Constitution of the State of Texas.

(4) "Department" means any county, district, or precinct office or other agency of the county which has jurisdiction and control of the activities of the employees’ official duties.

Establishment of Civil Service

Sec. 2. Any county having a population of 300,000 or more inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census may establish a county civil service system under the provisions of this Act to cover all employees of the county.

Methods for Creation of a County Civil Service System

Sec. 3. Before a county civil service system may be created under the provisions of this Act, the system must be approved either by an order adopted by a majority of the members of the Commissioners Court or by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the county voting at an election called for that purpose.

Creation by Order

Sec. 4. If the civil service system is created by order of the county commissioners, a copy of the order shall be placed in the minutes of the Commissioners Court and shall be available for public inspection.

Creation by Election

Sec. 5. (a) On its own motion, the Commissioners Court may order an election to be held to approve the creation of a county civil service system. The election must be held within the 60-day period immediately following the date of the order of election.

(b) The order calling the election shall specify the time and place, or places, of holding the election, the form of the ballots, and the presiding judge for each voting place.

(c) The Commissioners Court shall publish a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks before the election. The first notice must be published before the 14-day period immediately preceding the day of the election.

(d) The presiding judge of each voting place shall supervise the counting of all votes cast and shall certify the results to the Commissioners Court within 24 hours after the election. A copy of the results is to be filed with the county clerk and become of public record.

(e) At the election, the qualified electors shall vote on the proposition of whether or not a county civil service system is to be created. To create the system, a majority of the qualified electors voting in the election must approve the proposition.

(f) The ballots shall be printed to allow for voting for or against the proposition: “Creation of a county civil service system.”

(g) If the proposition is approved, the Commissioners Court shall declare the results and order the civil service system created. A copy of this order shall be placed in the minutes of the Commissioners Court.

Creation of the Civil Service Commission

Sec. 6. (a) After a civil service system is approved under the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners Court shall appoint a civil service commission consisting of three members to administer the system. The Commissioners Court shall designate one of the members as chairman of the commission.

(b) Each member of the commission holds office for a term of two years and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled by appointment of the Commissioners Court for the unexpired term of the member whose position has been vacated.

(c) To qualify for appointment to the commission, a person must:

(1) be at least 25 years of age; and

(2) have been a resident of the county for the three-year period immediately preceding the beginning of his term of office.

Compensation; Expenses; Staff; Etc.

Sec. 7. The members of the commission serve without compensation, but the Commissioners Court shall reimburse them for expenses necessarily incurred in performing their duties. The Commissioners Court shall provide the commission with adequate office space and with enough money to employ an adequate staff and to purchase necessary supplies and equipment.

Powers of Commission

Sec. 8. (a) The commission shall make, publish, and enforce rules, consistent with the purposes of this Act, relating to:

(1) selection and classification of county employees;

(2) competitive examinations;

(3) promotions, seniority, and tenure;
Art. 2372h-6

TITLE 44

(4) layoffs and dismissals;
(5) disciplinary actions;
(6) grievance procedures and other procedural and substantive rights of employees; and
(7) other matters having to do with selection of employees and their advancement, rights, benefits, and working conditions.

(b) The commission may adopt or use as a guide any civil service laws, rules, or regulations of the United States or of this State or any political subdivision or municipal corporation in this State to the extent that they promote the purposes of this Act and are consistent with the necessities and circumstances of the county.

Appeals

Sec. 9. (a) Any employee who, under a final decision of the commission, is demoted, suspended, or removed from his position, may appeal the decision by filing a petition in a district court of the county within 30 days after the date of the decision.

(b) Appeals under this section shall be tried de novo.

(c) If the district court renders judgment for the petitioner, it may order reinstatement, back pay, and any other appropriate relief.

(d) Suits instituted under this section have precedence over other civil cases, and the judgment of the district court is appealable as in other civil cases.

Exemptions

Sec. 10. (a) Any person who is an employee of a county covered by this Act on the effective date of this Act shall not be required to take any competitive examination or perform any other act to maintain his present employment.

(b) Nothing in this Act applies to:

(1) assistant district attorneys, investigators, or other employees of the district attorney;
(2) the official shorthand reporter of any district or criminal district court.

Dissolution of System

Sec. 11. (a) In any county in which the provisions of this Act have been in effect for one year, on being petitioned by at least 10 percent of the qualified electors of the county, the Commissioners Court shall call an election to determine whether or not the county civil service should be dissolved.

(b) The provisions of Section 5 of this Act shall apply to holding an election under the provisions of this section.

(c) The ballots shall be printed to allow for voting for or against the proposition: "Dissolution of the civil service system."

(d) If the proposition is approved, the Commissioners Court shall declare the results and order the civil service system dissolved. A copy of this order shall be placed in the minutes of the Commissioners Court.

Limitation on Elections

Sec. 12. After an election is held in accordance with Section 5 or Section 11 of this Act, a two-year period of time must elapse prior to the calling of another election under either Section 5 or Section 11.

Severability

Sec. 13. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 2372i. Burial Ground for Veterans

Each Commissioners Court in this State may purchase sufficient burial ground to be used exclusively for the burial of any honorably discharged person who has served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States during any war in which the United States participated, and who may hereafter die without leaving sufficient means to defray funeral expenses. Provided, however, that the Commissioners Court shall not purchase such burial ground in any instance where there is situated within the county a national military cemetery or other military plot in which honorably discharged veterans of the armed forces of the United States of America may be buried free of charge.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 734, ch. 396, § 1.]

Art. 2372j. County Office Building and Other Buildings; Certain Counties of 90,000 to 225,000

Sec. 1. In all counties having a population in excess of ninety thousand (90,000) persons and not more than two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) persons according to the last preceding Federal Census, having an assessed valuation on property for ad valorem tax purposes of more than One Hundred and Twenty-five Million Dollars ($125,000,000) and having at least four (4) incorporated cities within the county, at least one (1) of which cities having a population of more than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, whenever the Commissioners Court of any such county determines that the county courthouse is not adequate in size or facilities to properly house all county offices and permit the proper exercise of the duties of such office, and/or that the county jail is not adequate in size or facilities to properly confine prisoners, and/or that there is a need for an agricultural building, said Commissioners Court may purchase, construct, or otherwise acquire either in the city... of the county seat or elsewhere in the county, a county office building or buildings for any such offices for which the courthouse is not adequate, and/or for which there is a need, including the site or sites therefor. Without limitation of the generalization of the foregoing, any such jail, agricultural building, or other structure or improvement may include an auditorium to be used by the Commissioners Court or any other county officer or county office for any proper county purpose or public purpose. Payment for such buildings or improvements, including the site or sites therefor, shall be made from the Constitutional Permanent Improvement Fund.

Sec. 2. All proceedings heretofore had by the Commissioners Court of any such county within the past two (2) years providing for and/or establishing any of the buildings herein authorized by Section 1 of this Act, are hereby approved and validated as the proper, lawful and authorized proceedings of any such county and/or its Commissioners Court; provided, however, nothing in this Act shall affect any case or cause of action now pending in any court in this State.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the same subject.

Sec. 4. If any Section, subsection, phrase or word of this Act shall be held unconstitutional or invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act and the Legislature hereby declares it would have enacted such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 781, ch. 421.]

Art. 2372k. Real Estate Subdivisions in Counties of 190,000; Requirements as to Roads

Sec. 1. (a) In all counties having a population of not less than one hundred ninety thousand (190,000), according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, the Commissioners Courts of such counties shall have the authority to require the owner or owners of any tract of land situated outside of the boundaries of any incorporated town or city in such counties, who may hereafter divide the same in two or more parts for the purpose of laying out any subdivision of any such tract of land, or for laying out suburban lots or building lots, and streets, alleys or parks or other portions intended for public use, or the use of purchasers or owners of lots of any such tract of land, to provide for a right-of-way of not less than sixty (60) feet for any road or street within such subdivision.

(b) The Commissioners Courts of any such counties shall have the authority to promulgate reasonable specifications to be followed in the construction of any such roads or streets within such subdivisions, which specifications may include provisions for the construction of adequate drainage for such roads or streets.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts of any such counties shall have the authority to require the owner or owners of any such tract of land which may be so subdivided to give a good and sufficient bond for the proper construction and maintenance of such roads or streets, executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this State. Such bond shall be made payable to the County Judge, or his successors in office, of the county wherein such subdivision lies, and conditioned that the owner or owners of any such tract of land to be subdivided will construct any roads or streets within such subdivision in accordance with the specifications promulgated by the Commissioners Court of such county and will maintain such roads or streets for a period of one year from the date of the approval by such Commissioners Court of any map or plat of any such subdivision. The bond shall be in such amount as may be determined by the Commissioners Court but shall not exceed a sum equal to Three ($3.00) Dollars for each lineal foot of road or street within such subdivision.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Courts of any such counties shall have the authority to refuse to approve and authorize any map or plat of any such subdivision unless such map or plat provides for not less than the minimum right-of-way for roads or streets as required in Section 1(a) hereof; and there is submitted with such map or plat a bond as required by Section 2 hereof.

Sec. 4. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby expressly repealed.

Sec. 5. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause or provision of this law be declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, it shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remainder thereof, and it is hereby declared that this Act would nevertheless have been passed without such section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause or provisions so declared unconstitutional.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 256, ch. 151.]

Art. 2372l. Zoning of Padre Island

Legislative Finding

Sec. 1. The Legislature finds as a matter of fact that that portion of Padre Island lying within Cameron and Willacy Counties is frequented for recreational purposes by citizens from every part of the State and that the orderly development and utilization of this area is a matter of concern to the entire State. The Legislature further finds as a matter of fact that buildings on islands which are frequented as resort areas tend to become congested and to be put to uses which interfere with the proper use of the area as a place of recreation, to the detriment of the health, safety, morals, and the general welfare of the public.

Authority of Commissioners’ Courts

Sec. 2. For the purpose of promoting health, safety, peace, morals and the general welfare of the community, including the recreational use of county parks, the Commissioners
Courts of Cameron and Willacy Counties are hereby empowered to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purposes, and to regulate the placing of water, sewerage, park and other requirements on such island in areas of such island lying outside the corporate limits of a city, town or village, and within two miles of any publicly owned park or recreational development and all areas which lie within two miles of any beach, wharf or bath house which is used by as many as five hundred persons annually.

Districts

Sec. 3. For any or all of said purposes the Commissioners Court of each said county may divide said area in said islands into districts of such number, shape, and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this Act; and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures, or land. All such regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts.

Purposes in View

Sec. 4. Such regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the streets and roads; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, parks, and other public requirements, and to assist in developing said island into parks, playgrounds and places of recreation for the inhabitants of the State of Texas, and other states and nations. Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a review to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout said islands, and it is hereby provided that this Act shall not enable said Commissioners Courts to require the removal or destruction of property existing at the time said Commissioners Courts shall take advantage of this Act.

Method of Procedure

Sec. 5. The said Commissioners Courts shall provide for the manner in which such regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established, and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented, or changed. However, no such regulation, restriction, or boundary shall become effective until after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen (15) days notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in a paper of general circulation in each said county.

Changes

Sec. 6. Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a protest against such change, signed by the owners of twenty (20%) per cent or more either of the area of the lots included in such proposed change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending 200 feet therefrom, or from the street frontage of such opposite lots, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the Commissioners Court. The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearing and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.

Zoning Commission

Sec. 7. In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this Act, the said Commissioners Courts shall appoint a commission, all of whom shall be residents of each said county, and to be known as the Zoning Commission, to be composed of seven (7) members, to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts, and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. Such commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report, and said Commissioners Court shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such commission. Where a Board of Park Commissioners for each said county already exists, it may be appointed as the Zoning Commission. Written notice of all public hearings on proposed changes in classification shall be sent to all owners of property, or to the person rendering the same for county taxes, located within two hundred (200) feet of any property affected thereby, within not less than ten (10) days before any such hearing is held. Such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the post office.

The Zoning Commission shall choose from its own membership its chairman for such tenure (not extending beyond the term of his office as a member of said commission) as it sees fit and at any time may choose from its own membership for any particular meeting or occasion, an acting chairman; and it may employ its own secretary, and at any time an acting secretary, and other technical and clerical help to be paid by each said county, compensation not in excess of the amount determined by prior order of the said Commissioners Court.
No member of the commission shall be entitled to compensation as such, but may be entitled to expenses actually incurred while serving on the commission in accordance with the provisions of any order entered by the County Commissioners Court to that effect.

Board of Adjustment

Sec. 8. The said Commissioners Court may provide for the appointment of a board of adjustment, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this Act may provide that the said board of adjustment may, in appropriate cases, and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the zoning regulations in harmony with their general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

The board of adjustment shall consist of five members, each to be appointed for a term of two (2) years and removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant.

The board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any order adopted pursuant to this Act. Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine. Such chairman, or in his absence the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon each question, or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be immediately filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record.

Appeals to the Board of Adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer, department, board, or bureau of the county or of any municipality affected by any decision of the administrative officer. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time, as provided by the rules of the board, by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken, and with the Board of Adjustment, a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the Board of Adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

The Board of Adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

The Board of Adjustment shall have the following powers:

1. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this Act or of any order adopted pursuant thereto; 2. To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the order upon which such board is required to pass under such order; 3. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the order as will not be contrary to the public interest, where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the order will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the order shall be observed and substantial justice done.

In exercising the above mentioned powers such board may, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, reverse or reaffirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

The concurring vote of four (4) members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of any such administrative official, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any such order, or to effect any variation in such order.

Any person, or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the county or of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth the ground of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within ten (10) days after the filing of the decision in the office of the board.

Upon the presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review such decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the attorney, which shall not be less than ten (10) days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to... the board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

If, upon the hearing, it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

Costs shall not be allowed against the board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence, or in bad faith, or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

All issues in any proceeding under this section shall have preference over all other civil actions and proceedings.

Enforcement and Remedies

Sec. 9. The said Commissioners Court may provide by order for the enforcement of this Act and of any order or regulation made thereunder. A violation of this Act or of such order or regulation is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and such local legislative body may provide for the punishment thereof by fine or imprisonment or both. It is also empowered to provide civil penalties for such violation.

In case any building or structure is erected, constructed, re-constructed, altered, repaired, converted, or maintained, or any building, structure, or land is used in violation of this Act or of any order or other regulation made under authority conferred hereby, the proper authorities of the county, in addition to other remedies, may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful erection, construction, re-construction, alteration, repair, conversion, maintenance, or use, to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, to prevent the occupancy of said building, structure, or land, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct business, or use in or about such premises.

Conflict with Other Laws

Sec. 10. Wherever the regulations made under authority of this Act require a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose higher standards than are required in any other statute or local order or regulation, the provisions of the regulations made under authority of this Act shall govern. Wherever the provisions of any other statute or local order or regulation requires a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or a less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required by the regulations made under authority of this Act, the provisions of such statute or local order or regulation shall govern.

Telephone Buildings

Sec. 10a. The provisions of this Act or of any orders, regulations or restrictions made or entered under the authority of this Act, shall not apply to the location, construction, maintenance or use of central office buildings of corporations, firms, or individuals engaged in the furnishing of telephone service to the public, or to the location, construction, maintenance or use of any equipment in connection with such buildings or as a part of such telephone system, necessary in the furnishing of telephone service to the public.

Art. 2372I—1. Zoning of Portion of Val Verde County Surrounding Amistad Recreation Area

Legislative Finding

Sec. 1. The Legislature finds as a matter of fact that a portion of Val Verde County surrounding Amistad recreation area is frequented for recreational purposes by citizens from every part of the state and that the orderly development and utilization of this area is a matter of concern to the entire state. The Legislature further finds as a matter of fact that buildings in this area which are frequented for resort or recreation purposes tend to become congested and to be put to uses which interfere with the proper use of the area as a place of recreation, to the detriment of the health, safety, morals, and the general welfare of the public.

Authority of Commissioners Court

Sec. 2. For the purpose of promoting health, safety, peace, morals, and the general welfare of the community, including the recreational use of county land, the Commissioners Court of Val Verde County may regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts, and other spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purposes, and regulate the placing of water, sewerage, park, and other public requirements for those areas of the county which would be on the lakeward side of the following described boundaries:

THENCE in an Easterly Northeasterly direction across Devil’s River to the place of beginning.

Districts

Sec. 3. For any or all of the purposes set forth in Section 2 of this Act, the commissioners court may divide the area into zoned districts of such number, shape, and area as it may consider best suited to carry out the purposes of this Act; and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures, or land. All regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts.

Purposes in View

Sec. 4. These regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the streets and roads; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, parks, and other public requirements, and to assist in developing said area into parks, playgrounds and places of recreation for the inhabitants of the State of Texas, and other states and nations. In making these regulations the commissioners court shall give reasonable consideration to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the area. However, this Act shall not enable the commissioners court to require the removal or destruction of property existing at the time the commissioners court implements the provisions of this Act, nor may the commissioners court limit or otherwise restrict the right of a landowner acting in his own behalf to construct improvements to be used for agricultural purposes, or otherwise use his land for agricultural purposes. However, the commissioners court may limit, restrict, or prohibit any commercial agricultural enterprise such as feed lots.
Art. 2372l-1

1638

Zoning Commission

Sec. 5. (a) The commissioners court shall appoint a zoning commission, to be composed of five members, to recommend the boundaries of the various original zoned districts, and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. The commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report, and the commissioners court shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of the commission. Written notice of all public hearings on proposed changes in classification shall be sent to all owners of property, or to the person rendering the same for county taxes, affected by such proposed changes of classification, and to all owners of property, or to the person rendering the same for county taxes, located within 200 feet of any property affected thereby, within not less than 10 days before any such hearing is held. This notice may be served by depositing a letter, properly addressed and postage paid, containing all necessary information, in the post office.

(b) The zoning commission consists of an ex officio chairman and four additional members. The chairman shall be a public official in Val Verde County, and shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Val Verde County to hold a term of office of two years. Initial appointment of the four additional members of the zoning commission shall be made by the commissioners court with members to be assigned terms of one, two, three, and four years. Thereafter, in the event of resignation, end of term, or vacancy occurring in the membership, new members shall be selected by the commissioners court. A vacancy in the office of ex officio chairman shall be filled by appointment of the commissioners court.

(c) The zoning commission may employ a secretary, and an acting secretary, and other technical and clerical help to be paid not in excess of an amount determined by prior order of the commissioners court.

(d) Members of the commission shall receive compensation in the amount of $10 per month, and may also be entitled to expenses actually incurred while serving on the commission in accordance with the provisions of any order entered by the commissioners court to that effect. However, the chairman shall not receive compensation under this subsection if he receives compensation in his capacity as a public official in Val Verde County.

(e) No person may be appointed to, or serve on, the commission after his 70th birthday.

Method of Procedure

Sec. 6. (a) No preliminary report, or proposed order, rule, or regulation of the zoning commission is effective until it has been approved and adopted by the commissioners court.

(b) The commissioners court shall hold a public hearing before adopting any preliminary report or proposed order, rule, or regulation of the zoning commission, and it shall publish public notice of the hearing at least 15 days in advance of the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in Val Verde County.

(c) A preliminary report, or proposed order, rule, or regulation of the zoning commission may be amended, supplemented, altered, modified, or rejected by a majority vote of the commissioners court. However, in the event of a protest against any such change, signed by the owners of 20 percent or more of the lots included in the change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending 200 feet therefrom, or from the street frontage of these opposite lots, the change shall not become effective except upon favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the commissioners court. The commissioners court shall hold a public hearing after receiving such a protest, and the provisions of public notice set forth in Subsection (b) of this section shall apply to the hearing.

Appeals

Sec. 7. (a) Any person aggrieved, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of Val Verde County, or of any municipality in Val Verde County, may petition the commissioners court for a special exception to any final report, order, rule, or regulation adopted by the commissioners court. The commissioners court shall hold a public hearing on the petition and shall publish public notice of the hearing at least 15 days in advance of the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in Val Verde County.

(b) The commissioners court may grant any petition for a special exception by majority vote; however, in the event of a protest against the special exception presented at the hearing and signed by the owners of 20 percent or more either of the lots included in the change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending 200 feet therefrom, or from the street frontage of these opposite lots, the change shall not become effective except upon favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the commissioners court.
Enforcement and Remedies

Sec. 8. (a) The commissioners court may provide by order for the enforcement of this Act and of any order or regulation made thereunder. Any person who violates any provision of this Act, or any rule or regulation made pursuant to this Act by the commissioners court, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000. Each day that a violation occurs constitutes a separate offense. Trial of offenses under this section shall be in the district court.

(b) In the event any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired, converted, or maintained, or any building, structure, or land is used, in violation of this Act or any order or other regulation made pursuant to the authority conferred on the commissioners court by this Act, the proper authorities of the county may, in addition to other remedies, institute an appropriate action or proceeding to prevent the unlawful action or use, to restrain, correct, or abate the violation, to prevent the occupancy of the building, structure, or land, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct of business, or other use in or about the premises.

Conflict With Other Laws

Sec. 9. (a) Whenever the regulations made by the commissioners court pursuant to the authority granted in this Act require a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose higher standards than are required in any other statute or local order or regulation, the provisions of the regulations made pursuant to this Act shall govern.

(b) Wherever the provisions of any other statute or local order or regulation require a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required by the regulations made pursuant to this Act, the provisions of the statute or other local order or regulation shall govern.

Inapplicability to Telephone Systems

Sec. 10. The provisions of this Act or of any orders, regulations, or restrictions made or entered under the authority of this Act, shall not apply to the location, construction, maintenance, or use of central office buildings of corporations, firms, or individuals engaged in the furnishing of telephone service to the public, or to the location, construction, maintenance, or use of any equipment in connection with such buildings or as a part of such telephone systems, necessary in the furnishing of telephone service to the public.

Art. 2372m. Rabies; Regulations

Declaration of Danger of Epizootic; Powers; Duration of Regulations

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county in this State is hereby authorized, by an order duly entered in the minutes of proceedings of said court in order to prevent the introduction or spread of rabies, to declare the area of said county to be in danger of a rabies epizootic in the animal population thereof. Upon such order being duly entered, as above described, that the existence of such epizootic would be a menace to the health and safety of the people of each area of the county, said Commissioners Court shall be authorized to promulgate and establish regulations in accordance with this Act, including but not limited to, the requirement for restraint of domestic animals, anti-rabies vaccination of dogs, registration of dogs, quarantining of biting animals and rabies suspects.

The Commissioners Court may declare such emergency to exist after a public hearing held by the Court concerning the proposed regulation. Said regulations shall remain in effect until amended or rescinded by the Court after a public hearing concerning the proposed amendment or rescission.

Regulations Authorized

Sec. 2. The regulations necessary for the control of animals of such county as determined by the Commissioners Court shall be set forth in the minutes of the Court. The said Court shall have the power and authority upon the basis of preventing the introduction or spread of rabies in the county to protect public health and safety of the people, to determine and fix any reasonable regulation to control animals, which may include the following but which shall not limit the power of the Court to act:

A. To authorize the County Health Officer or his delegate to enforce a rabies quarantine in the county and cause the removal or disposition of animals which may endanger the public health and safety.

B. Require each and every dog in the county to be registered with the county unless registered with a local municipality within the county. Such registration shall be evidenced by an identification tag to be furnished by the enforcing agency, which tag shall carry the registration number of the dog and, as required by this Act, an anti-rabies vaccination is a condition precedent to the issuance of such a registration, the tag bearing the number and fact of such vaccination shall be securely fastened to a collar or harness worn by such dog. Such registration shall be good for one (1) year from the date of registration and the owner of such dog shall be required to renew the registration each year.

C. To require a current anti-rabies vaccination of dogs by the time they reach 4 months of age with a vaccine (preferably modified live virus) approved by the United States Department of Agriculture as a condition precedent to the issuance of such registration to help prevent the spread of rabies in the animal population, since the existence of a rabies epizootic would be a menace to the health and safety of the people in such county. A rabies vaccination shall remain current for such period as determined by the court upon due consideration of the specific type of anti-rabies vaccine to be administered and the local rabies situation. Evidence of the current vaccination certified by a licensed veterinarian, shall be furnished to the enforcement agency before issuance of such registration and evidence of such shall be carried on the tag required to be fastened to the collar or harness of the dog.

D. To declare any dog, whether registered and tagged or unregistered and untagged, that is not restrained by the owner within the county to be a public nuisance and require that such animal be detained or impounded by any person or persons designated by the Court. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to direct the holding of such dog until claimed, to charge the owner of such animal for impoundment and board during the period of retention at a rate to be set by the Court, and to dispose of any animals which are unclaimed by their owners.

E. To allow the enforcement agency (whether it be the county or local municipality therein) to collect a fee set by the Commissioners Court order for the registration of any dog. Such fees shall be used only to help defray the expense of administration of these regulations promulgated by the Commissioners Court.

F. To require the reporting to the enforcement agency of all animal bites and the quarantining for a minimum of ten days under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian of the biting animal suspected of being rabid or being exposed to a possibly rabid animal.

G. The promulgation and establishment of regulations by the Commissioners Court of any county in accordance with this Act shall not prevent or jeopardize a corporate municipality within the county to establish more stringent rules and regulations to prevent the introduction and spread of rabies and the control of animals within their corporate limits, and such ordinances established by said corporate municipalities shall supersede the county order within the municipality so that dual enforcement will not occur.

Punishment for Violations

Sec. 3. Any owner who fails to restrain a dog in the county, whether registered and tagged or not, or any owner who fails to vaccinate any dog in violation of any or der of the Commissioners Court promulgated pursuant to this Act or otherwise violating any provision thereof or any provision of any regulation established by the Court, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50) for the first offense; by a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100) for the second offense; and by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200) or imprisonment in the County Jail not to exceed sixty (60) days, or both such fine and imprisonment for each subsequent offense.

Art. 2372n. Public Platform Tonnage Scales

Sec. 1. In each county in this State, upon the presentation of a suitable petition in writing signed by not less than five hundred (500) inhabitants of the county, the Commissioners Court shall have the power and authority to purchase and install one (1) or more public platform tonnage scales suitable and adapted for the weighing of livestock, produce, agricultural products or any other articles, goods or wares as will permit, facilitate and encourage the development of truck farming, cattle raising or other trades or businesses in which the availability of such public scales is necessary or desirable.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court in each county shall have authority to prescribe rules and regulations concerning use of such scales and prescribe the fees to be charged for such use, and the Commissioners Court shall have the power and authority to operate such public scales, to provide adequate personnel for the operation of such scales, or to lease, let or rent such scales to responsible private individuals, corporations, business concerns or associations upon the terms and conditions prescribed by the Commissioners Court. Provided, however, that such public scales provided for in this Act shall at all times be available for use by the public.

Sec. 3. Any and all money which may be collected or received by virtue of the use or operation of such scales and through any contract which may be executed under the provisions of this Act shall be designated to the General Fund of the county.

[Acts 1954, 53rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 95, ch. 44.]
as hereinafter provided. This law shall be known as the "County Building Authority Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this law: (a) "County" means any county to which this Act is applicable;

(b) "Authority" means a County Building Authority created under this Act;

(c) "Board" or "Board of Directors" means the board of directors of the Authority;

(d) "Project" means the building and property to be constructed or acquired by the Authority;

(e) "Bond Resolution" means the resolution of the Board of Directors authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds;

(f) "Trust Indenture" means the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument pledging revenues of, or creating a mortgage lien on properties, or both, to secure the revenue bonds issued by the Authority;

(g) "Trustee" means the trustee under the Trust Indenture.

County Building Study Committee; Powers; Payment of Costs

Sec. 3. When the Commissioners Court of any county coming under the provisions of this Act shall find that it is to the best interest of the county and its inhabitants it shall by order create a County Building Study Committee composed of five (5) members, one (1) to be appointed by each County Commissioner and one (1) by the County Judge. The Study Committee shall have the power to study the needs of the county for a new or expanded county building and the possibility of incorporating therewith devices and characteristics designed to afford protection of life and property in modern warfare, make preliminary plans and surveys with reference to requirements, costs and feasibility of the project and to make recommendations to the Commissioners Court. The county may pay the cost of such study, not to exceed Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.).

Election on Construction of County Building and Issuance of Bonds; Ballots

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court, after reviewing and considering the recommendations of the Study Committee, may call an election of the qualified voters of the county on the question of construction of a County Building and the issuance of bonds. At such election the following question shall be submitted to the voters: "FOR the constructing, acquiring, improving, equipping, furnishing a County Building and to issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide funds for this purpose." "AGAINST constructing, acquiring, improving, equipping, furnishing a County Building and to issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide funds for any of its purposes."

If a majority of the qualified voters of the county vote affirmatively on the above question the Authority shall come into existence and the following Sections of this Act shall apply.

Board of Directors; Membership; Terms; Vacancies; Appointments; Qualifications; Compensation

Sec. 5. The Authority shall be governed by a board of five (5) directors; each County Commissioner shall appoint one (1) director and the County Judge shall appoint one (1) director. Each director shall serve for a term of not more than two (2) years ending on December 31 not more than two (2) years after his term begins. The directors may provide for overlapping terms, in which event, the directors who are to serve until the following December 31, and those who are to serve until December 31 of the following year shall be determined by lot. Upon the death, resignation, or expiration of the term of any director, a new director to succeed said director, shall be appointed by the person then holding the office of County Judge or County Commissioner, as the case may be, who originally appointed such retiring director; and further, no provisions may hereafter be made in the bylaws of the Authority herein created, to provide for any other means of filling vacancies on the Board of Directors, as if and when they may occur. No officer or employee of any such county shall be eligible for appointment as a director. Directors shall not receive compensation for services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their expenses incurred in performing such service.

Officers; Quorum; Appointment of Managers of Properties; Comptroller; Duties

Sec. 6. (a) The Board of Directors shall elect from among its members a president and a vice-president, and shall elect a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be directors and may elect such other officers as may be authorized by Authority's bylaws. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined. The president shall have the same right to vote on all matters as other members of the Board. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum and when a quorum is present action may be taken by a majority vote of directors present. The Board shall employ a manager or executive director of the properties and such other employees, experts and agents as it may see fit, but it may delegate to the manager the power to employ and discharge employees. The Board may employ legal counsel.

(b) The County Auditor shall appoint a Comptroller for the Authority, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors and the Commissioners Court. The Comptroller shall work under the direction of the County Auditor and shall institute such budgetary, purchasing and fiscal procedures as conform to accepted business and accounting practices. The Comptroller shall make quarterly reports to the Commissioners Court. His employment may be terminated by the County Auditor and a majority vote of the Board of Directors, and a majority vote of the Commissioners Court. The Comptroller's salary shall be fixed by the County Auditor and approved by the Board of Directors and by the Commissioners Court, and his salary shall be paid by the Authority.

Power to Construct, Enlarge and Furnish Courthouse; Bids

Sec. 7. The Authority shall have the power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court, to construct, enlarge, furnish and equip a building to be used principally as a county courthouse. The Board of Directors shall comply with Chapter 168, Acts of the 42nd Legislature (Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes Article 2368a), as amended, and Sections 2a and 2b thereof with reference to any construction contract or contract for purchase of equipment and material calling for or requiring the expenditure or payment of Two Thousand Dollars
($2,000.) or more.

Purpose; Cooperation with Civil Defense Administrator; Participation in Federal or State Assistance

Sec. 8. The Authority is created primarily for the purpose of constructing, acquiring, improving, equipping, furnishing, maintaining and operating a County Building adequate to meet the needs and requirements of such county, and may incorporate shelter protection as a part of the underground facilities to be constructed. In this connection the Authority is authorized to cooperate with the Civil Defense Administrator operating under the Acts of Congress and with the Civil Defense Officers operating under state laws and may make all necessary contracts which would entitle the Authority to participate in Federal or State Assistance in constructing and operating such shelter protection facilities. In making the plans for any such building the Authority may take into consideration the anticipated population and economic growth of the county and its consequent increasing demands for space for housing offices, courts and other activities of the county.

General Powers of Authority

Sec. 9. The Authority is hereby granted and shall have and may exercise all powers necessary or convenient for the carrying out of the purposes set forth in Section 6 above, including but without limiting the generality of the grant of powers, the following rights and powers:

(a) To sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, to complain and defend in all courts;
(b) To adopt, use and alter at will a corporate seal;
(c) To acquire, purchase, hold and use the land necessary for carrying out the purpose of the Authority, including the power, but without limitation, to the generality of the power hereby granted, to lease as lessee from such county any land or any interest therein for a term not to exceed ninety-nine (99) years, at a nominal rental, or at such annual rental as may be determined by contract between the county and the Authority; to lease as lessor to the county any property, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein for a term of not exceeding ninety-nine (99) years, at a nominal rental or at such anual rental as may be determined by contract between the county and Authority; to lease as lessor to other persons any property, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein or any space therein, for a term of not exceeding forty (40) years, at such annual rental as may be determined by contract between the Authority and such person or persons, but with the provision that upon such notice as may be specified therein the possession of such proper-ity will be surrendered by such person or persons to the Authority in the event and to the extent that it shall then be required for use by the county, provided that the obligations of the Authority under its bond resolution and indenture are not to be impaired thereby;

(d) To make bylaws for the management and regulation of its affairs;
(e) To fix, alter, charge and collect rates, rentals, and other charges for the use of the facilities of, or for the services rendered by the Authority or the Project, which must yield an aggregate income adequate to provide for the payment of the expenses of the Authority, maintenance and operation of the Project and to pay the principal of and interest on the obligations of the Authority, including the amounts necessary to establish and maintain such reserve funds as are required under the resolution authorizing the issuance of Authority's obligations and under the indenture securing such obligations;

(f) To make contracts of all kinds and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient for the carrying on of its business;

(g) Without limitation of the foregoing to borrow money and accept grants from,
and to enter into contracts, leases or other transactions with any Federal Agencies;
(h) To have and exercise the power of eminent domain to the same extent and to be exercised in the same manner and under the same laws that are applicable to counties under the laws of the State of Texas for the purpose of acquiring property needed for any purpose authorized by this law;

(i) Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year the Comptroller under the direction of the Board of Directors shall prepare the budget for the ensuing fiscal year and submit it to the Commissioners Court. The Commissioners Court is authorized to approve or revise the budget within fifteen (15) days after it is so submitted;

(j) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers granted to it by this Act or any other Acts.

Authority of Counties; Accomplishment of Objectives of Act

Sec. 10. A county, acting through its Commissioners Court is authorized to do all things necessary or convenient to permit the accomplishment of the objectives of this Act including, but without limitation as to the generality of such authorization, the following:

(a) The acquisition of land and the conveyance of such land and additional land owned by the county, to the Authority, which in the opinion of such court is needed for the Project, such conveyance to be either in the form of a deed or a lease, and upon such consideration as may be deemed reasonable by such court, after taking into consideration the fact that the Project is for the primary benefit of the county;

(b) To enter into such contracts of lease, as lessee, with the Authority as lessor, as may be necessary or convenient under this Act, to the extent that such contracts are considered by the court to be in the best interest of the county and in such contract of lease the county is authorized to obligate itself to pay to the Authority, at a bank to be designated by the Authority, an annual rental fixed or determined in the manner provided in such lease and to levy a tax sufficient to pay such rental as it becomes due.

Issuance of Negotiable Revenue Bonds

Sec. 11. The Authority may issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide funds for any of its purposes. Such bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues to be derived from the operation of its properties and any other revenues resulting from the ownership thereof. The bonds may be additionally secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real and personal property of the Authority.

Bond Issue Election; Notice; Series; Maturity Date; Interest Cost; Recall Prior to Maturity

Sec. 12. No bonds shall be issued unless authorized by an election held throughout the Authority for that purpose. Such election shall be called by resolution of the Board of Directors. Said election shall be called and held and notice thereof published in the manner provided by Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended.1 The bonds shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors, and shall be signed by the president or vice-president and countersigned by the secretary, or either or both of their facsimile signatures may be printed thereon. The seal of the Authority shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed (40) years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the Board of Directors to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the Authority, including the discount, if any, calculated by use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses does not exceed six percent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the Board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the bonds, and must be made registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest.

1 Article 701 et seq.

Bonds Constituting Junior Lien on Net Revenues; Issuance; Bond Resolution

Sec. 13. Bonds constituting a junior lien on the net revenues or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. Parity bonds may be issued under condition specified in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture.

Money for Payment of Initial Interest and Operating Expenses

Sec. 14. Money for the payment of not more than two (2) years interest on the bonds and an amount estimated by the Board to be required for operating expenses during the first year of operation may be set aside for those purposes out of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds.

Refunding Bonds: Exchange by Comptroller

Sec. 15. Bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds except that no election shall be required, and may be exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas or sold and the proceeds applied in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature.1

1 Article 117k.

Examination of Bonds by Attorney General; Lease Contracts; Approval; Registration

Sec. 16. After any bonds (including refunding bonds) are authorized by the Authority such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his examination as to the validity thereof. Where such bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of the proceeds of a lease contract theretofore made between the Authority and the county, or other governmental agency, a copy of such contract and the proceedings of the county or other governmental agency, authorizing such lease contract shall also be submitted to the Attorney General. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve the bonds, and the lease contract, if any, if he finds them to be valid. If he shall approve the bonds and such lease contract the bonds then shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Thereafter, the bonds, and the lease contract, if any, shall be valid and binding and shall be incontestable for any cause. The creation of the Authority, the bonds, the provision made for the payment and security thereof, and the lease contract if one is made, may also be adjudicated as to validity in the manner provided by Senate Bill No. 348, Acts of the Regular Session of the 56th Legislature.¹

Legal and Authorized Investments; Eligibility to Secure Deposit of Public Funds

Sec. 17. All bonds of the Authority shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Operation of Properties Without Private Profit; Payment of Expenses; Sinking Fund; Bond Reserve Fund

Sec. 18. The properties shall be operated without the intervention of private profit for the use and benefit of the public. But it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to charge sufficient rentals and charges and to utilize other sources of its revenues so that revenues will be produced sufficient to pay all expenses in connection with the ownership, operation and upkeep of the property, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture.

Depository

Sec. 19. The Authority may select a depository or depositories according to the procedures provided by law for the selection of county depositories or it may award its depository contract to the same depository or depositories selected by the county and on the same terms.

Use of Property for Benefit of Public; Tax Exemption

Sec. 20. The property owned by Authority will be held for governmental and public purposes only and will be devoted exclusively to the use and benefit of the public, and it shall be exempt from taxation of every character.

Investment of Funds

Sec. 21. The law as to the security for, and the investment of funds, applicable to counties shall control, insofar as applicable the investment of funds belonging to the Authority. The Bond Resolution or the Indenture or both may further restrict the making of such investments. In addition to other powers, the Authority shall have the right to invest the proceeds of its bonds, until such money is needed, in the direct obligations of or obligations unconditionally guaranteed by the United States Government, to the extent authorized in the Bond Resolution or Indenture or in both.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 22. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Limiting Rights and Powers of Commissioners Court

Sec. 23. No power or authority herein delegated, given, or granted to the Authority authorized to be created by this Act, shall in any manner, alter or limit the rights and powers of the County Commissioners Court, to continue to provide for itself, and the public to be served, such buildings and other facilities which, in their judgment are necessary for the convenience of the people in populated areas.

Payment of Indebtedness; Conveyance of Property to County; Dissolution

Sec. 24. After payment of all indebtedness incurred by the Authority, the Authority shall convey all of its properties and assets to the county without cost to the county, and the Authority shall be dissolved upon the making of such conveyance.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 126, ch. 25.]

Art. 2372p. Employment of Special Counsel in Counties of More Than 500,000 Population

The Commissioners Court of all counties containing more than five hundred thousand (500,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census shall have the authority to employ special counsel, learned in the law, to represent the county in all suits brought by or against such county, and particularly with authority to render aid and work with the Commissioners Court, the county engineer and other county employees in the preparation of documents necessary in the acquisition of rights-of-way for county, or in cases where the county is required to obtain rights-of-way for state highways, or to assist in the acquisition of such rights-of-way; to represent the county in all condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of rights-of-way for highways and other proper purposes where the right of eminent domain is given to counties. Provided, however, that in such counties having a County Attorney, the special counsel shall be named by the County Attorney, and in such counties having no County Attorney, special counsel shall be named by the District Attorney or Criminal District Attorney, and such employment shall be made for such time and on such terms as said County Attorney, District Attorney, or Criminal District Attorney may deem proper and expedient, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 493, ch. 235, § 1.]

Art. 2372p-1. Furnishing Counsel and Investigative Services for Indigents Accused of Crime; Counties Over 1,500,000

Authority to Contract

Sec. 1. For the purpose of providing timely and effective assistance of counsel to those persons accused of crime and who are financially unable to employ counsel on their own, the Commissioners Court of any county in this State having a population of more than 1,500,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may contract with some already established bar association, nonprofit corporation, nonprofit trust association or any other nonprofit entity (which has for its purpose the providing of timely effective assistance of counsel for the indigent accused of crime) to assist the courts in providing the timely and effective assistance of counsel.

Aid to Court Appointed Counsel

Sec. 2. Under the terms of such contract, provision may be made for the contracting entity to provide additional legal counseling and advice to the court appointed counsel as well as the necessary investigative services authorized by Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

Recommendations for Release on Personal Bond

Sec. 3. Likewise, for the purpose of providing the judge before whom a criminal case is pending in the information necessary for making a proper determination as to whether or not the accused should be authorized to execute a personal bond as authorized by Article 17.03, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, the commissioners court of any such county may contract with such above named entity to interview the accused, to verify the information given, to make the appropriate recommendation as to release to the judge of the court where the case is pending, and, if the accused is released on his personal bond, to assure the judge of the court that such release was made in securing the presence of the accused at his trial.

Duration of Contract; Renewal

Sec. 4. Such contract may not be entered into or renewed from time to time. Either party to such contract may terminate the same by giving six months notice of intention to do so.

Compensation for Services

Sec. 5. Services provided under said contract shall be compensated for from the general funds of the county, and the commissioners court is empowered to accept grants or other financial assistance from the federal government or other private source to aid and assist in carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Art. 2372p-2. Personal Bond Offices

Sec. 1. Any county, or any judicial district with jurisdiction in more than one county, with the approval of the commissioners court of each county in the district, may establish a personal bond office to gather and review information about an accused that may have a bearing on whether he will comply with the conditions of a personal bond and report its findings to the court before which the case is pending.

Sec. 2. (a) The commissioners court of a county that establishes the office, or the district and county judges of a judicial district that establishes the office, may employ a director of the office.

(b) The director may employ the staff authorized by the commissioners court of the county or the commissioners courts of each county in the judicial district if the judicial district includes more than one county.

Sec. 3. If a judicial district establishes the office, each county in the district shall pay its pro rata share of the costs of administering the office according to its population in the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 4. (a) If a court releases an accused on personal bond on a personal bond office's recommendation, the court shall assess a personal bond fee of $10 or of three percent of the amount of the bail fixed for the accused, whichever is greater. The court may waive the fee or assess a lesser fee if good cause is shown.

(b) Fees collected under this Act may be used solely to defray expenses of the personal bond office, including defraying the expenses of extradition.

(c) Fees collected under this Act shall be deposited in the county treasury, unless the office serves more than one county in which event the fees shall be apportioned to each county in the district according to each county's pro rata share of the costs of the office.

Art. 2372p-3. Licensing and Regulation of Bail Bondsmen

Declaration of Policy

Sec. 1. The business of executing bail bonds is declared to be a business affecting the public interest. It is declared to be the policy of this state to provide reasonable regulation to the end that the right of bail be preserved and implemented by just and practical procedures governing the giving or making of bail bond and other security to guarantee appearance of the accused.
Art. 2372p-3

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Person" includes corporations, other business entities, and associations of persons.

(2) "Bondsman" means any person who for hire or for any compensation deposits any cash or bonds or other securities, or executes as surety any bond for other persons, as many as five times in any 12-month period.

(3) "Company" includes corporations and other business entities.

(4) "Bond" includes cash deposit and any similar deposit or written undertaking to assure appearance.

(5) "Board" means the County Bail Bond Board.

Requirements of License

Sec. 3. (a) No person may act as a bondsman without the license required under the provisions of this Act, except as provided in Subsections (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

(b) Persons who are actually engaged in the practice of law and who are members of the State Bar of Texas who personally execute bail bonds or act as sureties for persons they actually represent in criminal cases may execute bail bonds or sureties without being licensed under this Act, but they are prohibited from engaging in the practices made the basis for revocation of license under this Act and, if found guilty of violating the terms of this Act, may not qualify thereafter under the exception provided in this subsection.

(c) The provisions of this Act do not apply to the execution of bail bonds in counties having a population of less than 150,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

(d) Persons who execute bonds as sureties with a licensed bondsman.

Examination of Bondsman by Any Sheriff

Sec. 4. A sheriff may examine under oath any proposed bondsman, or an officer or attorney of any company proposing to execute a bond, as to the indemnity, if any, deposited or otherwise provided directly or indirectly against loss by reason of the bond, and may refuse to accept the bond if, in the exercise of his discretion, he is satisfied that the security is insufficient, any portion of the security has been feloniously obtained, or the provisions of this Act have been violated.

County Bail Bond Board

Sec. 5. (a) There is hereby created in all counties having a population of 150,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, a County Bail Bond Board.

(b) It shall be the duty of the County Bail Bond Board to set rules and regulations relative to the making of bail bonds by bondsmen within the county. No person may act as a bondsman unless he first obtains a license from the board unless exempted under the provisions of Section 8 of this Act.

(c) The County Bail Bond Board shall be composed of the following persons:

(1) the county sheriff or his designee;

(2) a district judge of the county having jurisdiction over criminal matters designated by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district;

(3) the county judge or a member of the commissioners court designated by the county judge;

(4) a judge of a county court or a county court at law in the county having jurisdiction over criminal matters designated by the commissioners court;

(5) the district attorney or his designee.

(d) The board shall meet within 60 days after its creation. The board shall initially elect one of its members as chairman who shall preside at all meetings to be held thereafter at the call of the chairman.

(e) Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business. All action by the board shall require the vote of a majority of the members present.

(f) Unless clearly not required by this Act, all rules, regulations, and actions of the board passed pursuant to this Act shall be posted at an appropriate place in the courthouse for a period of 10 days prior to their effective date.

(g) The County Bail Bond Board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To establish rules to be followed in the county relating to the setting and taking of bail bonds;

(2) To conduct hearings and make determinations respecting the issuance of licenses to bondsmen within the provisions of this Act and to issue licenses to those applicants who qualify under the terms of this Act;

(3) To administer oaths and examine witnesses in its hearings;

(4) To investigate applicants and licensees and all persons in concert with them to determine their qualifications to meet the requirements of this Act;

(5) To cause records and transcripts to be made of all its proceedings; and

(6) To maintain records and minutes and otherwise operate its office affairs.

Application and Issuance of License

Sec. 6. (a) Any person desiring to act as a bondsman in any court of the county shall file with the County Bail Bond Board a sworn application for a license. The application shall be in such form as the board may prescribe, and shall set forth:

(1) The name and address of the applicant, and if the applicant shall be a firm or corporation, the name of each officer and director thereof and all of its employees actively engaged in processing the giving or making of bail bonds within the county;

(2) The name under which the business shall be conducted;

(3) The name of the place or places wherein the business is to be conducted;

(4) The list of nonexempt properties owned by the applicant and rendered on the tax rolls of the county, the same to be certified by the county tax assessor and collector of the county involved, along with a personal financial statement of the applicant;

(5) Any corporation duly qualified to act as a surety in the State of Texas shall name its agent or agents proposed to do business of making bail in the county;

(6) A statement that such applicant has not been denied or refused a license in the county during the past 12 months.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by letters of recommendation from three reputable persons who have known the applicant for a period of at least three years. Each letter shall recommend applicant as having a reputation and shall recommend that the letters of recommendation from three reputable persons be granted to the applicant.

(c) The application shall be accompanied by a fee of $500 for the filing of any original application.

(d) Upon notice from the board that the application has been tentatively approved, the applicant shall then:

(1) Deposit with the county treasurer of the county in which his principal office is located a cashier’s check, certificate of deposit, or cash in the amount of $5,000, to be held in a special fund to be called the bail security fund; or

(2) Execute in trust to the sheriff of the county in which his principal office is located a deed to nonexempt real property of the value, as determined by the sheriff, of not less than $10,000, the condition of the trust being that the property may be made in bonds executed by him after such notice and upon such conditions as are hereinafter provided.

(e) The cash deposit or the funds realized from the trust may be used to pay the judgments of any bail forfeitures that result from the person’s execution of a bail bond, if the licensee fails to satisfy the judgment within 30 days subsequent to the date of issue by presentment of final judgment to the county treasurer. When any sums are depleted from the deposit or trust to pay a judgment resulting from a forfeited bond, the licensee shall, as a condition to continuing as a surety, replenish the amount so depleted. When the licensee ceases to engage in the business of executing bail bonds and ceases to maintain his license, he may withdraw his security deposit or trust upon presentment of a release by the sheriff, if there are no judgments or bond liabilities outstanding against the license. Any portion of the deposit or trust not used to pay judgments shall be returned to the licensee or his heirs or assigns upon presentment of a release by the sheriff.

(f) Before application of the cash deposit, cashier’s check, or certificate of deposit, or before any action is taken to liquidate property held in trust, the sheriff or his agent shall make demand of the licensee to pay the judgment. In the event of failure or refusal to do so within 30 days of the demand, the sheriff may apply the deposit to pay the judgment or liquidate the trust and apply the proceeds to pay the judgment. The licensee shall keep the sheriff notified of the mailing address to which notice of a judgment may be sent, and the mailing of notices by certified mail to the address provided by the licensee shall be sufficient to comply with the notice requirements of this section.

Corporation as Surety

Sec. 7. (a) Wherever in this Act any person is required or authorized to give or execute any bail bond, such bail bond may be given or executed by such principal and any corporation authorized by law to act as surety. Any such corporation authorized by law to act as a surety undertakes to be a surety on a bail bond, such corporation, before being acceptable as a surety on a bail bond, shall be required to meet the same requirements an individual is required to meet by this chapter before being acceptable as a personal surety on a bail bond.

(b) The certificate of authority to do business in this state issued to a corporation by the State Board of Insurance pursuant to Article 8.20, Insurance Code, as now or hereafter amended, shall not be conclusive evidence as to the sufficiency of the security, the corporation’s solvency, or its credits; and if the court or officer taking the bail bond is not fully satisfied as to the sufficiency of the security offered by the corporation, further evidence shall be required before approving the bail bond.

(c) Any corporation which acts as a surety shall, before executing any bail bond, first file in the office of the county clerk of the county where such bail bond is given a power of attorney designating and authorizing the named agent, agents, or attorney of such corporation to execute such bail bonds by such agent, agents, or attorney. This power of attorney shall be a valid and binding obligation of the corporation.

(d) Notwithstanding any statutory requirements to the contrary, any agent so designated and licensed hereunder for the purpose of writing bail bonds shall not be required to be licensed as a local recording agent as defined in Article 21.14, Texas Insurance Code, as amended, for the purpose of this Act.
Art. 2372p-3  TITLE 44

Expiration of License

Sec. 8. (a) A license issued under this Act expires 24 months after the date of its issuance and may not be renewed unless an application for renewal is filed with the board at least 30 days before expiration. The application for renewal shall have the same form and content as an application for an original license under this Act. The application for renewal shall be accompanied by a renewal fee of $250. The license may then be renewed for a period of 12 months from the date of expiration and may be renewed subsequently each year in like manner.

(b) All fees collected by the board shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

(c) Each license, when issued, shall show on its face the date of expiration and license number, and it shall be the responsibility of the licensee to file for renewal under the terms of this Act, and each subsequent renewal license shall have the same number as assigned the original license.

Refusal and Revocation of Licenses

Sec. 9. (a) No license may be issued to any person who:

(1) is bankrupt or insolvent; or

(2) has had his license revoked for default upon a bond and has not satisfied the obligation of the bond.

(b) Any license may be suspended or revoked by the board for:

(1) violation of the provisions of this Act;

(2) fraudulently obtaining a license under the provisions of this Act;

(3) conviction under the laws of this or any other state or of the federal government of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or of a felony;

(4) being adjudged bankrupt or becoming insolvent;

(5) failing to pay within 30 days any final judgment rendered on any forfeited bond in any court of competent jurisdiction within this state;

(6) failure to pay, in addition to the principal amount of a forfeited bond, all necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by all peace officers in arresting the principal on any bail bond executed by him, in the event the principal fails to appear as required by law;

(7) a licensee's paying commission or dividing commissions or fees with any person, company, firm, or corporation not permitted hereunder to execute bonds or in any manner passing anything of value to any person for referrals of bond business; or

(8) soliciting bail bond business in any building where prisoners are processed or confined.

Procedure for Suspension or Revocation of License

Sec. 10. (a) The board may revoke or suspend a license in accordance with the procedure provided in this section for the violation of any provision of this Act.

(b) Notice of a hearing to suspend or revoke shall be given by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the licensee at least 10 days prior to a date set for the hearing.

(c) The notice shall specify the charges of violation of this Act made against the licensee, and no other charges shall be made at the hearing pursuant to the notice.

(d) The hearing shall afford to the licensee opportunity to be heard, to present witnesses in his behalf, and to question witnesses against him.

(e) A record of the hearing shall be made. It shall be made available to the licensee on his request subject to his paying reasonable costs of transcription.

Court Review

Sec. 11. An appeal may be taken from any board's order revoking, suspending, or refusing to issue a license. The appeal must be made within 30 days after written notice of the suspension, revocation, or refusal by filing a petition in a district court in the county in which the license is issued or refused. If no appeal is taken within 30 days after written notice of suspension, revocation, or refusal, such action shall become final. An appeal shall be by trial de novo, as in proceedings appealed from justice to county courts. The decision of the board shall have full force and effect pending the determination of the appeal. All appeals taken from actions of the board shall be against the board and not against the members individually.

Other Procedural Provisions

Sec. 12. (a) In each instance where a principal has been rearrested and returned to the county wherein his bond was made within 120 days after the date of the final judgment on the bond forfeiture and no appeal has been taken and provided that the principal was rearrested as a result of money spent or information furnished by the surety, the surety thereon may file a motion of remittance in the court commanding the appearance of the principal and the court shall order at least 50 percent of the amount paid on the judgment remitted. The payment shall be made by the county treasurer.

(b) Any licensee under this Act may execute bail bonds in the county in which his license is issued and, after being certified by the sheriff in his county, may present a bail bond to any sheriff in the state having custody of the accused person named therein, except that a sheriff of a county having a population in excess of 150,000 according to the last preceding federal census may require that all bail bonds be executed by persons licensed in that county.
(c) A person whose application for license to engage in the execution of bail bonds has been refused may not make or renew the application for a period of one year from the date of final rejection.

Surrender of Principal

Sec. 13. (a) No person who executes a bail bond as a surety for a principal may surrender the principal unless he forthwith executes an affidavit to be filed with the clerk of the court stating:

(1) the date the bond was made;
(2) the fee paid for the bond; and
(3) the reason for the surrender.

(b) If the reason for surrender is deemed without reasonable cause by the principal, any agent of the sheriff, or any attorney representing the state or any accused in the proceeding, that person may bring the matter to the attention of the court.

(c) If the court determines that the person who surrendered the principal did so without reasonable cause, the court in its discretion may require that all or a part of the fees paid as a condition for making the bail bond shall be returned to the principal. In making the determination the court shall determine what fees, whether denominated fees for the making of the bond or not, were in fact paid for the purpose of inducing the surety to make the bond.

Approval of Bond

Sec. 14. The sheriff of any county has the sole responsibility of receiving and approving bail bonds for the purpose of gaining the release of a named principal held in custody by any authority in his county upon accusation of an offense of which the county or district court has jurisdiction.

Acts Subject to Fine

Sec. 15. (a) No person required to be licensed under this Act may execute a bail bond without a license.

(b) No bondsman or agent of a bondsman may, by any means, recommend or suggest to any person whose bail bond has been posted by that person the name of any particular attorney or firm of attorneys for employment in connection with a criminal offense.

(c) No sheriff, peace officer, or his deputy or employee, or clerk, or deputy clerk of any court may recommend to any person or persons, family of such person or persons, friends, relatives, or employer the name of any particular bondsman. In all places where prisoners are examined, processed, or confined, a list of licensed bondsmen of that county may be displayed.

(d) No person may advertise as a bondsman who does not hold a valid license under this Act. Provided, however, any second or subsequent violation of this subsection shall be punishable as provided by Subsection (g) of this section.

(e) Any person who violates a provision of this section commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $500.

(f) No stocks or bonds or real estate used as security for the making of any bail bond may be transferred at any time while there remains an outstanding bail bond secured by this property; except that a surety may make application to the sheriff for permission to sell or trade any portion of such property and the sheriff shall give a written consent for such sale or trade upon finding that the remaining property is sufficient security for all outstanding bonds of the licensee.

(g) Any person who violates Subsection (f) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 or confinement in the county jail for not more than one year or both.

Severability

Sec. 16. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Sale of Gas Not Needed for County Purposes

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of any eligible county is hereby authorized and empowered to sell, contract to sell, deliver and distribute any or all natural gas of the Project which is not needed for county purposes to any municipal corporation or political subdivision of this state now existing or hereafter established under the laws of the State of Texas, or to any individual, corporation or company under such terms and conditions as the court may determine to be in the best interest of the county. The cost of supplying the natural gas, including any increase in the cost of the distribution lines or facilities, shall be considered as a part of the Project as such term is used in the preceding and the following Sections.

Bonds; Rates and Charges; Manner of Sale; Redemption; Proceeds

Sec. 4. (a) For the purpose of paying the cost of the Project, including any increase in the cost of the distribution lines or facilities, shall be considered as a part of the Project as such term is used in the preceding and the following Sections.

(b) It shall be the mandatory duty of the Commissioners Court to contract for and impose such rates and charges, for gas supplied by the Project as will be fully sufficient to operate and maintain the Project and produce all amounts required to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due, and establish such reserves as may be provided in the order authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

(c) All gas used by the county for its own facilities shall be paid out of General Funds of the county legally available for such purpose and no free service shall be allowed.

(d) The Commissioners Court shall have full discretion in fixing the details of the bonds and in determining the manner of sale thereof provided the bonds shall bear interest at not exceeding six percent (6%) per annum and mature in not more than forty (40) years from their date and such order may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the county in relation to the acquisition of properties and the construction, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the Project, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all moneys, and may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and may contain such other provisions as the Commissioners Court may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders, including but without limitation covenants prescribing all happenings or occurrences which constitute events of default and the rights, liabilities, powers and duties arising upon breach by the county of any of its duties or obligations. The bonds may be made redeemable prior to maturity in such manner and at such prices as may be determined by the Commissioners Court in the order authorizing their issuance. All bonds issued hereunder shall and are hereby declared to have all the qualifications and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of Texas as. The proceeds of the bonds shall be disbursed under such restrictions as may be provided in the bond order, and there shall be and is hereby created and granted a lien upon such moneys until so applied in favor of the holders of the bonds. Pending use of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds for the construction of the Project such proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States Government having maturities not more than ninety-one (91) days from the date of investment. Unless otherwise provided in such order or indenture, if the proceeds of the bonds prove insufficient to pay the cost of the Project, additional bonds may be issued under the methods herein prescribed to the amount of the deficit.

Debt of County; Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 5. The bonds shall never constitute a debt of the county, but shall be solely a charge upon the pledged revenues, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of the county to issue bonds or incur other debt for any purpose authorized by law, and each bond shall contain this clause: “The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.”

Form of Bonds; Approval

Sec. 6. The bonds shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, but the facsimile signatures of such officials may be printed or lithographed on the bonds in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 293, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955. The county treasurer shall register the bonds, but he need not sign them. The seal of the Commissioners Court shall be impressed on the bonds or a facsimile of the seal may be printed or lithographed thereon. The bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be presented to the Attorney General of Texas, and if they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this law he shall approve them. Upon approval by the Attorney General the bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and thereafter the bonds and the provisions made for their security and payment shall be incontestable.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 7. It is expressly provided that an eligible county shall not have any power of eminent domain in the acquisition of any existing facilities constituting the Project as that term is used in Section 2 of this Act, nor shall any such county exercise such power outside of its own territorial limits, but for the purpose of carrying out any other power or authority conferred by this Act, such county shall have the right to acquire land and easements, by condemnation in the manner provided by Title 52, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to eminent domain. The amount of and character of interest in land and easements thus to be acquired shall be determined by the Commissioners Court. In the event that the county, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line or pipeline or telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, all such necessary relocations, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the county.

1 Article 2364 et seq.

Additional Bonds

Sec. 8. Additional bonds payable solely by a pledge of the net revenues of the Project as well as additional bonds payable from the net revenues of the Project may be issued for the purpose of improving, repairing or extending the Project or for any or all such purposes if permitted by the order authorizing the original issue of bonds, and under the conditions there­in provided.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 9. Subject to any restrictions which may appear in the bond authorizing order, the Commissioners Court may provide for the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding any of the bonds issued under this Act and at the time outstanding. The issuance of such refunding bonds, the maturities and other terms thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the duties of the county in respect to the same, shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable, but no such refunding bonds shall be delivered unless delivered, unless sold and delivered to provide funds for the payment of matured or redeemable bonds maturing or redeemable within six (6) months. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a savings will result in the total of interest to be paid.

Notice of Intention to Issue Bonds

Sec. 10. No bonds may be authorized under and pursuant to the provisions of this Act until such time as the Commissioners Court of such county has, after adoption of the provisions hereof as provided in Section 1, given notice of intention to issue bonds. Such notice shall specify the maximum amount of bonds proposed to be issued, the maximum interest rate and maximum maturity of the proposed bonds and the time and place the court proposes to proceed with the authorization thereof and such notice shall be published once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in such county, the date of the first publication being at least fourteen (14) full days prior to the date set for the authorization of such bonds and the time and place specified in said notice. The court may proceed with the authorization of bonds pursuant to the provisions of this Act, provided, however, if a petition executed by more than ten percent (10%) of the resident qualified property taxpayers of the county asking that an election be called on the issuance of such bonds is presented to the court, the court may not proceed with the authorization of bonds until such time as a proposition for the issuance of bonds has been approved by a majority of the resident qualified property tax­paying voters of the county at an election held for such purpose. Notice of any such election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the resolution calling the election in a newspaper of general circulation in such county one (1) each week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication being at least fourteen (14) full days prior to the election. The returns of the election shall be made to the Com­missioners Court within five (5) days of the holding of such election. The General Laws relating to elections shall be applicable to such elections except as modified by the provisions of this Act.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 11. All bonds issued under this law shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value.

Enforcement of Rights Against County

Sec. 12. The holder or holders of any of such bonds herein authorized to be issued shall have the right, in addition to all other rights, by mandamus or other proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce his or their rights against the county and its employees and against the agents and employees thereof, including but not limited to the right to require the county to impose and collect sufficient rates and charges to carry out the agreements contained in the bond order and to perform all agreements and covenants therein contained and duties arising therefrom.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 13. This Act is declared cumulative of all other Acts or laws and the powers, rights and privileges and functions hereby conferred shall not prevent the exercise by any such county of any and all other powers, rights, privileges, or functions conferred upon such county by any other Act or law now existing or hereafter enacted.

Accomplishment of Purposes of Act

Sec. 14. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state, and for the improvement of their commerce and property, the county in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential governmental function and shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the Project or any part thereof, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom including any profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 638, ch. 298.]

Art. 2372r. Historical Markers, Monuments and Medallions

The Commissioners Court of each county of this state, in addition to the powers already conferred on it by law, is hereby empowered to appropriate from the general fund of said counties, monies for the purpose of erecting historical markers, monuments, and medallions, and purchasing objects and collections of objects of any kind which are of historical significance to such county.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 431, ch. 150, § 1.]

Art. 2372r-1. Counties of 100,000 to 120,000; Construction, Restoration, Preservation and Maintenance of Historical Landmarks and Buildings

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any county of this State having a population of not less than 100,000 nor more than 120,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court is hereby empowered to appropriate and expend from the General Fund of said counties, monies for the purpose of purchasing, constructing, restoring, preserving, maintaining, and reconstructing historical landmarks, buildings, and furnishings which are of historical significance to such counties. The Commissioners Court may appropriate and expend such monies for the purposes herein given to historical foundations and organizations in said counties that are duly incorporated under the laws of this state as a non-profit corporation.

Art. 2372s. Parking Stations Near Courthouses in Counties of 900,000 or More

Power to Construct and Operate Parking Stations; Leases

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county which had a population in excess of 900,000 according to the most recent federal census upon finding that it is to the best interest of the county and its inhabitants shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish, equip and operate a parking station in the vicinity of the courthouse of the county. It is further authorized from time to time to lease said parking station to a person or corporation on such terms as the commissioners court shall deem appropriate.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this law, "parking station" means a lot or area or surface or subsurface structure for the parking of automotive vehicles, together with equipment used in connection with the maintenance and operation thereof, and the site therefor;

"Bond order" means the order authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds;

"Trust indenture" means the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument pledging revenues, or in addition thereto, creating a mortgage lien on properties, or both, to secure the revenue bonds issued by the county;

"Trustee" means the trustee under the trust indenture.

Bonds; Pledge of Revenues; Payment of Bonds

Sec. 3. The commissioners court may issue negotiable bonds to provide funds for the construction, enlargement, furnishing or equipping said parking station. Such bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues to be derived from the operation of the parking station and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of the parking station properties including rentals received from leasing all or part of said parking station. The commissioners court may additionally secure and provide for the payment of such bonds by the levy of an ad valorem tax of not to exceed two and one-half cents on each $100 of taxable property in the county, in which event the provision stated in Section 8 hereof shall not be contained in the bonds.

Authorization of Bonds; Signature and Seal; Maturity Date

Sec. 4. The bonds shall be authorized by order adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the commissioners court, (without the prerequisite of an election) and shall be signed by the county judge, countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer. The seal of the commissioners court shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the commissioners court to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the county, including the discount, if any, calculated by use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the commissioners court, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the order authorizing the bonds.
Bonds Constituting Junior Liens; Parity Bonds

Sec. 5. Bonds constituting a junior lien on the net revenues or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the bond order or trust indenture. Parity bonds may be issued under conditions specified in the bond order or trust indenture.

Payment of Bond Interest

Sec. 6. Money for the payment of interest on the bonds and an amount estimated by the commissioners court to be required for operating expenses until the parking station becomes sufficiently operative may be set aside out of the proceeds from the sales of the bonds.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 7. Bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds, and may be exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas or sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of outstanding bonds.

Approval of Attorney General; Incontestability

Sec. 8. Bonds issued under this Act and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with this law and constitute valid and binding special obligations of the county and are secured as recited therein he shall approve them, and they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas who shall certify such registration thereon. Thereafter they shall be incontestable.

The bonds shall be negotiable and shall contain the following provision: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment thereof out of money raised or to be raised by taxation."

Rentals and Rates for Services

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the commissioners court to charge sufficient rentals or rates for services rendered by the parking station and to utilize any other sources of its revenues so that revenues will be produced sufficient to pay all expenses in connection with the ownership, operation and upkeep of the parking station, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the bond order or trust indenture. The bond order or trust indenture may prescribe systems, methods, routines and procedures under or in accordance with which the parking station shall be operated.

Section 2 of the 1973 amendatory act provided: "The provisions of this Act are severable. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, section, part, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless be valid; and the Legislature hereby declares that the Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, section, part, or provision."

Art. 2372s-1. Regulation of Parking in Certain Courthouse Parking Lots

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply in every county having a population of not less than 12,500 nor more than 13,000, and in every county having a population of not less than 14,000 nor more than 14,000, and in every county having a population of not less than 15,000 nor more than 15,340, and in every county having a population of not less than 18,098 nor more than 18,099, and in every county having a population of not less than 27,800 nor more than 28,000, and in every county having a population of not less than 140,000 nor more than 180,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. The commissioners court is authorized to purchase such equipment as is necessary and make and enforce regulations for parking in county-owned or county-leased parking lots in, under, adjacent to, or near the county courthouse. The commissioners court may in its discretion contract with the city for enforcement of the regulations and likewise the city in its discretion may contract with the county. The Sheriff's Department of such counties is hereby authorized to enforce any and all regulations passed by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 3. A person who violates a regulation authorized by this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $20.

Art. 2372s-2. Parking Stations Near Court-houses in Counties of 150,000 or More

Definition

Sec. 1. The term "parking station," as used in this Act, shall mean a lot or area or surface or subsurface structure of one or more levels for the parking of automotive vehicles, together with equipment used in connection with the maintenance and operation thereof.

Authority to Appropriate and Expend; Lease

Sec. 2. The commissioners courts of counties with a population of 150,000 or more are hereby empowered to appropriate and expend from the general fund or permanent improvement fund of said counties, moneys for the purpose of constructing, enlarging, furnishing, equipping and operating a parking station adjacent to or near the courthouse of the county. It is further authorized from time to time to lease said parking station to a person or corporation on such terms as the commissioners court shall deem appropriate.

Art. 2372t. Emergency Ambulance Service in Counties of 9,800 to 10,150

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county with a population in excess of 9,800 inhabitants but less than 10,150, according to the last preceding federal census, may provide within the county for emergency ambulance service, including all necessary equipment, personnel, and maintenance for the service.

Sec. 2. In providing for the service required by Section 1 of this Act, a commissioners court may enter into agreements with any city or town, hospital district, sheriff's office or fire department, private ambulance service, or any other agency or entity which the commissioners court finds to be suitably organized to provide efficient emergency ambulance service within the county.

Sec. 3. Any agreement to provide emergency ambulance service within a city, town, or hospital district entered into under Section 2 of this Act shall have the approval of the governing body of the city, town, or hospital district within which the service is to be rendered.

Sec. 4. A commissioners court operating under this Act may expend county funds to defray the expense of the establishment, operation, and maintenance of emergency ambulance service within the county, whether such service is provided directly by the county or by agreement with some other governmental agency or private entity.

Sec. 5. A commissioners court providing for emergency ambulance service under this Act shall establish reasonable fees for the service. The charging and collection of fees established may be done either by the commissioners court or by any other agency or entity performing the service. Special provision may be made for the rendering of emergency ambulance service to indigent persons.

COURTS—JUSTICE

CHAPTER ONE. JUSTICES AND JUSTICE COURTS

Art. 2373. Election, Bond and Term of Office

The qualified voters of each justice precinct in this State, at each election, shall elect one justice of the peace, styled in this title "justice," who shall hold his office for four years. Each justice shall give bond payable to the county judge in a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties required of him by law, and will promptly pay over to the party entitled to receive it, all moneys that may come into his hands during his term of office.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 703, ch. 291, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 2374. In Unorganized Counties

The commissioners courts of counties to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes may appoint a justice and a constable for each unorganized county attached to said county for judicial purposes, in accordance with the law authorizing such appointments in organized counties. Whenever, in any unorganized county, a necessity may exist for the appointment of more than one justice and constable, and one hundred qualified voters of said county shall petition the commissioners court of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, asking the appointment of such officers, such commissioners court shall lay off and designate as many justice precincts in such unorganized county as may be necessary, not exceeding four, and such court may appoint one justice and one constable for each justice precinct in such unorganized county; and such justice precincts shall be legally constituted election precincts.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2375. Two Justices Elected

Where there is a city of eight thousand inhabitants or more in a justice precinct, two justices of the peace shall be elected.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2376. Commissioned

Each justice of the peace shall be commissioned as justice of the peace of his precinct and ex officio notary public of his county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2377. Nearest Justice to Hold Court

Whenever there is a vacancy or the justice in any precinct shall be absent, or unable or unwilling to perform the duties of his office, the nearest justice in the county may temporarily perform the duties of the office.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2378. Disqualification

No justice of the peace shall sit in a cause where he may be interested, or where he may be related to either party within the third degree by consanguinity or affinity.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2379. Justice's Office

When the justice precinct where the courthouse of any county is located contains more than seventy-five thousand inhabitants, the commissioners court of said county shall provide and furnish a suitable place in such courthouse for such justice to hold court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2380. Term of Court

These rules shall govern as to the terms of court:

1. Each justice shall hold a term of his court, for civil business once in each month, and may transact such business out of term time as may be authorized by law.

2. Each justice shall hold the regular term of his court at his office at such time as the commissioners court may prescribe.

3. The justice may hold court from day to day until all business shall be diposessed of, or may adjourn the court or the trial of any case to a particular day.

4. If the regular term from any cause shall not be opened on the day fixed therefor by law, the court shall be considered adjourned until its next regular term.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 2381, 2382. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2383. Custody of Books, etc.

Each justice shall arrange and safely keep all dockets, books and papers transmitted to him by his predecessors, and all papers filed in any case in his court subject at all reasonable times to the inspection of any interested party. Any person having possession of dockets, books or papers belonging to the office of any justice shall deliver the same to such justice on demand.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2384. Enforcing Delivery

If any person having such dockets, books or papers, refuses to deliver the same on such demand, he may, upon motion, be attached and imprisoned by order of the county judge in term time or vacation, until he shall make such delivery; but such motion shall be supported by affidavit, and three days' notice thereof shall be given to the party against whom such motion is made.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2385. Jurisdiction

Justice courts shall, in addition to their other powers and duties, have and exercise original jurisdiction in civil matters of all cases where the amount in controversy is two hundred dollars, or less, exclusive of interest, of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the district or county courts, and of cases of forcible entry and detainer, and to foreclose mortgages and enforce liens on personal property, where the amount in controversy is within their jurisdiction.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2386. Other Powers

Justices of the peace shall also have power:

1. To issue writs of attachment, garnishment and sequestration within their jurisdiction, the same as judges and clerks of the district and county courts.

2. To exercise jurisdiction over all other matters not hereinbefore enumerated that are or may be cognizable before a justice of the peace under any law of this State.

3. To proceed with all unfinished business of his office in like manner as if such business had been originally commenced before him.

Art. 2387. No Jurisdiction

Justice courts have no jurisdiction of suits in behalf of the State to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats, of suits for divorce, of suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character, suits for the trial of title to land, or of suits for the enforcement of liens on land.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 2388, 2389. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

CHAPTER TWO. INSTITUTION OF SUIT

Article

2390. Suits, Where Brought

Every suit in the justice court shall be commenced in the county and precinct in which the defendant or one or more of the several defendants resides, except in the following cases and such other cases as are or may be provided by law:

1. Cases of forcible entry and detainer must be brought in the precinct where the premises, or a part thereof, are situated.

2. Suits against executors, administrators and guardians as such must be brought in the county in which such administration or guardianship is pending, and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

3. Suits against counties must be brought in such county and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

In the following cases the suit may, at the plaintiff's option, be brought either in the county and precinct of the defendant's residence or in that provided in each exception:

4. Suits upon a contract promising performance at any particular place, may be brought in the county and precinct in which such contract was to be performed, provided that in all suits to recover for labor actually performed, suit may be brought and maintained where such labor is performed, whether the contract for same be oral or in writing.

5. Suits for the recovery of rents may be brought in the county and precinct in which the rented premises, or a part thereof are situated.

6. Suits for damages for torts may be brought in the county and precinct in which the injury was inflicted.
7. Suits against transient persons may be brought in any county and precinct where such defendant is to be found.
8. Suits against non-residents of the State or persons whose residence is unknown, may be brought in the county and precinct where the plaintiff resides.
9. Suits for the recovery of personal property may be brought in any county and precinct in which the property may be.
10. Suits against private corporations, associations and joint stock companies may be brought in any county and precinct in which the cause of action or a part thereof arose, or in which such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative, or in which its principal office is situated.
11. Suits against railroad and canal companies, or the owners of any line of transportation vehicles of any character, for any injury to person or property upon the road, canal, or line of vehicles of the defendant, or upon any liability as a carrier, may be brought in any precinct through which the road, canal or line of vehicles may pass, or in any precinct where the route of such railroad, canal, or vehicle may begin or terminate.
12. Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may be brought in any county and precinct in which any part of the insured property was situated; and suits against life and accident insurance companies or associations may be brought in the county and precinct in which the persons insured, or any of them resided at the time of such injury or death.
13. Suits against the owners of a steamboat or other vessel may be brought in any county or precinct where such steamboat or vessel may be found, or where the cause of action arose or the liability was contracted or accrued. In every suit commenced in a county or precinct in which the defendants or one of them may reside, it shall be affirmatively shown in the citation or pleading, if any, that such suit comes within one of the exceptions named in this article.

Art. 2460. Certiorari
A cause tried before a justice, wherein the amount in controversy or the judgment exceeded twenty dollars, exclusive of costs, may be removed from such justice court to the county court by certiorari under the rules prescribed in the title and chapter relating thereto. Whenever a writ of certiorari to remove any cause from the justice court to the county court shall be served on any justice of the peace, he shall immediately make out a certified copy of the entries made on his docket, and of the bill of costs, as provided in case of appeals, and send same, together with the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the county court in the manner and within the time prescribed in the preceding article.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

CHAPTER SEVEN. SMALL CLAIMS COURT

Art. 2460a. Creation; Jurisdiction; Procedure
Creation; Judge
Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established in each of the several counties of this State a court of inferior jurisdiction to be known as the “Small Claims Court”. The justices of the peace in their several counties and precincts shall sit as judges of said courts and exercise the jurisdiction hereby conferred in all cases arising under the provisions of this Chapter.

Jurisdiction
Sec. 2. The Small Claims Court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice of the Peace Court in all actions for the recovery of money by any person, association of persons, corporation or by any attorney for such parties, or other legal entity only where the amount involved, exclusive of costs, does not exceed the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150), except that when the claim is for wages or salary earned, or for work or labor performed under any contract of employment, the jurisdictional amount, exclusive of costs, shall not exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200). Provided, however, that no action may be brought in the Small Claims Court by any assignee of such action or upon any assigned claim or by any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation engaged, either primarily or secondarily, in the business of lending money at interest, nor by any collection agency or collection agent. Provided, further, however, that nothing in this Act shall prevent the bringing of any action by a legal heir or heirs on any account or claim otherwise within the jurisdiction of these Courts.

Venue
Sec. 3. All actions brought under the provisions of this Act shall be brought in the county and precinct in which the defendant resides except that when a defendant has contracted to perform an obligation in a particular county the action upon such obligation may be brought in such county. Except nothing in this Section shall conflict with Article 2392 of the Revised Civil Statutes.

Commencement of Action
Sec. 4. Actions shall be commenced under the provisions of this Act whenever the claimant, or the personal representative of a deceased claimant, appears before the judge of the Small Claims Court and files a statement of his claim under oath. Such statement shall be in substantially the following form:
In the Small Claims Court of ______, County, Texas.
A. B., Plaintiff vs.
C. D., Defendant
State of Texas }
County of ______ }
A. B., whose post office address is ______ County, Texas, being duly sworn, on his oath deposes and says that C. D., whose post office address is ______ County, Texas, is justly indebted to him in the sum of ______ Dollars and ______ Cents ($_____), for ______.
(here the nature of the claim should be stated in concise form and without technicality, including all pertinent dates), and that there are no counterclaims existing in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff, except ______.

Plaintiff
Subscribed and sworn to before me this ______ day of _______, 19_____.
Judge

Failure of Parties to Appear; Postponement
Sec. 6. Upon the date set for the hearing of such action, if the defendant fails to appear at the time and place specified in the notice and order to appear, he having been duly served therewith as herein provided, the judge shall enter judgment for the amount proved to be due the plaintiff. If the plaintiff does not appear, the judge may enter an order dismissing the action. No postponement or continuance shall be granted except for good cause shown.

Hearing
Sec. 7. If both parties appear, the judge shall proceed to hear the case. No formal pleading other than the affidavit hereinabove described, shall be required. The judge shall hear the testimony of the parties and such other witnesses as they may produce, together with such other evidence as may be offered. The hearing shall be informal, with the sole objective of dispensing speedy justice between the parties.

Plea of Privilege
Sec. 8. Provided nothing in this Act shall prevent a plea of privilege which shall be filed in writing as set out in the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and appeal may be taken from the final ruling of the justice to the County Court where a trial de novo shall be had on such plea.

Evidence and Witnesses
Sec. 9. In every case before the Small Claims Court, it shall be the duty of the judge to develop all of the facts in the particular case. In the exercise of this duty, the judge may propound any question of any witness or party to the suit or upon his own motion may summon any party to appear as a witness in the suit as, in the discretion of the judge, appears necessary to effect a correct judgment and speedily dispose of such case.

Judgment and Execution
Sec. 10. Upon the conclusion of the hearing the judge shall render such judgment as the justice of the case shall require. If the judgment is against the defendant, he shall pay the same forthwith, and in default of such payment execution may issue as in the justice courts.

Jury Trial
Sec. 11. If either party desires a trial by jury he shall, at least one (1) calendar day prior to the date upon which the hearing is to be held, file with the Small Claims Court a request for a trial by jury, depositing with the judge, at the time such request is filed, a jury fee of Three Dollars ($3). Thereupon, a jury shall be had as in other civil cases in the justice courts.

Right of Appeal
Sec. 12. Where the amount in controversy, exclusive of costs, exceeds the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20), upon the rendition of final judgment by the judge of the Small Claims Court, a dissatisfied party may appeal to the County Court or County Court at Law of the proper county in the same manner as is now provided by statute for appeals from the justice court to the County Court.

Hearing on Appeal; Costs; Finality of Judgment

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the County Court or County Court at Law to dispose of all such appeals with all convenient speed. The trial on appeal shall be de novo, but no further pleadings shall be required and the procedure shall be the same as that herein prescribed for the Small Claims Court. In the event of such an appeal to the County Court, all costs not heretofore paid by the parties shall accrue until judgment is rendered by the County Court.
It is specifically provided that the judgment of the County Court or County Court at Law shall be final.

Blank Forms, Docket Books and Supplies

Sec. 14. The Commissioners Court of each of the several counties shall furnish to the justices of the peace a reasonable supply of blank forms, docket books, and other supplies necessary for the use of such justices and judges when sitting as a Small Claims Court.
