4. PUBLIC DEFENDERSArt. 341-1. Tarrant County; Appointment and Compensation; Entitlement of Indigents*Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) Recent federal and state court decisions have emphasized the constitutional obligation of the state to afford needy persons the effective assistance of counsel in criminal actions. In some counties, the bar has partially met this obligation through creation of a nonprofit organization, primarily financed by federal grants, which provides counsel; in others, volunteers from the bar donate their services to defend needy persons. And in still other counties, the courts concerned appoint counsel under Articles 26.04 and 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(b) Especially in the metropolitan counties, the obligation to furnish competent counsel imposes a substantial burden on county financial resources. None of the alternative methods presently employed to furnish counsel has proved entirely satisfactory and the Legislature finds that a countywide public defender system, functioning either alone or in a combination with other methods, may better satisfy the constitutional and statutory obligations for providing counsel for the needy accused.

(c) In view of the findings and determinations expressed in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section, there is established in Tarrant County the offices of Public Defender of Tarrant County, hereafter referred to as the "public defender."

Appointment of Public Defenders

Sec. 2. (a) Each criminal district judge of Tarrant County shall appoint one attorney to serve as a public defender and define his duties and responsibilities. A public defender serves at the pleasure of the appointing Judge.

(b) To be eligible for appointment as a public defender, a person must:

- (1) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;
- (2) have practiced law at least three years; and
- (3) be experienced in the practice of criminal law.

Compensation

Sec. 3. (a) The public defenders shall receive an annual salary of not less than $10,000 to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County and paid from the appropriate county fund.

(b) The provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding daily appearance fees shall not apply to public defenders, however, all other provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding fees and allowances shall apply to public defenders.

(c) A public defender may not engage in any criminal law practice other than that authorized in this Act and shall accept nothing of value, except as authorized in this Act, for any services rendered in connection with a criminal case.

(d) A violation of Subsection (c), Section 3 of this Act shall be cause for removal of the public defender by the judge who appointed him.

Entitlement to Representation

Sec. 4. (a) Any indigent person charged with a criminal offense in a court in Tarrant County or any indigent person in Tarrant County who is a party in a juvenile delinquency proceeding shall be represented by a public defender or other practicing attorney appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction. If an attorney, other than a public defender, is appointed, he shall be compensated as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) A public defender may inquire into the financial condition of any person whom he is appointed to represent and shall report any findings of the investigation to the court appointing him. The court may hold a hearing into the financial condition of the defendant and shall make a determination as to his indigency and to his entitlement to representation by a public defender.

Substitute Defender

Sec. 5. At any stage, including appeal or other post-conviction proceedings, the court concerned may assign a substitute attorney. The substitute attorney shall be entitled to compensation as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Severability

Sec. 6. If any provision of the Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 342-305. Application for and Granting of Charters—Approval

A. Applications for a State bank charter shall be granted only upon good and sufficient proof that all of the following conditions presently exist:

(1) A public necessity exists for the proposed bank;

(2) The proposed capital structure is adequate;

(3) The volume of business in the community where such proposed bank is to be established is such as to indicate profitable operation of the proposed bank;

(4) The proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking experience, ability and standing to render success of the proposed bank probable; and

(5) The applicants are acting in good faith.

The burden to establish said conditions shall be upon the applicants.

B. Applicants desiring to incorporate a State bank shall file with the Banking Commissioner an application for charter, the proposed Articles of Association, and a written list of information as may tend to establish the above conditions of incorporation, all upon official forms prepared and prescribed by the Commissioner. All persons subscribing to the capital stock of the proposed bank shall sign and verify under oath a statement of such stock subscribed, and which statement shall truly report the number of shares and the amount to be paid in consideration; the names, identity, title and address of any other persons who will be beneficial owners of such stock or otherwise share an interest or ownership in said stock, or who will pay any portion of the consideration; whether said stock is to be pledged as security for any loan; whether a loan has been committed or is intended for the subscription and purchase of said stock, and if so, the name and address of such person or corporation which is intended to loan funds for said purchase; the names of any cosigners, guarantors, partners or other persons liable for the repayment of any loan financing the purchase of such stock. Provided, however, that the verified statement of subscribers to stock shall be confidential and privileged from public disclosure prior to the final determination by the Board of the application for a charter, unless the Board shall find that public disclosure prior to public hearing and final determination of the charter application is necessary to a full development of the factual record. Subject to the above qualification, the list of incorporators and proposed officers and directors who support the application for a charter shall be available to public inspection.

C. Upon the filing of said application the Commissioner may meet and confer with any applicants for charter, examine data submitted in support of the application, and request such further information and data as may be pertinent and necessary. The Commissioner shall require deposit of such charter fees as are required by law and shall proceed to conduct a thorough investigation of the application, the applicants and their personnel, and the charter conditions alleged. The actual expense of such investigation and report shall be paid by the applicants, and the Commissioner may require a deposit in an estimated amount, the balance to be paid in full prior to hearing of the application. Upon the conclusion of the investigation, and based upon the written report of such investigation, the Commissioner shall make his findings and report such findings, together with the investigation report, to the State Banking Board. The written report of investigation and the findings of the Commissioner shall also be made available to all interested parties at their request, provided that all sources of information contained in the investigation report shall be considered confidential and shall be privileged communications.

D. Upon completion of the investigation and findings the Commissioner shall promptly set the time and place for public hearing of the application for charter, giving the applicants and such other banks in the same trade area reasonable notice thereof. After full and public hearing the Board shall vote and determine whether the necessary conditions set out in Paragraph 1 above have been established. Should the Board, or a majority of the Board, determine all of the said conditions affirmatively, then the application shall be approved; if not, then the application shall be denied. If approved, and when the Commissioner receives satisfactory evidence that the capital has been paid in full in cash, the Commissioner shall deliver to the incorporators a certified copy of the Articles of Association, and the bank shall come into corporate existence. Provided however, that the State Banking Board may make its approval of any application conditional, and in such event shall set out such condition in the resolution granting the charter, and the Commissioner shall not deliver the certified copy of the Articles of Association until such condition has been met, after which the Commissioner shall in writing inform the State Banking Board as to compliance with such condition and delivery of the Articles of Association.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided: "Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-306. Recordation of Articles of Association and Amendments

If any state bank does not open and actually engage in business within three months after the granting of its charter, or conditional approval of application for charter, the Commissioner may so inform the State Banking Board which may in its discretion forfeit the charter or cancel its conditional approval of application for charter, without any judicial action.

Art. 342-308. Merger—Trust Powers

Any two or more state banks, or if national banks are hereafter authorized by the laws of the United States to participate in such a merger, any one or more state banks and any one or more national banks domiciled in this State may, with the approval of the Commissioner and the written consent of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital of each of said banks, be merged. Said merging banks shall file with the Commissioner:

(1) A statement of the plan of merger approved by the board of directors of each merging bank, by a majority vote of the qualified directors.

(2) Written consent to such merger executed by the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital of each merging bank.

(3) Certificate of merger stating the facts required by Article 4 of this chapter¹ and executed and acknowledged by a majority of the qualified directors of each merging bank.

The Banking Commissioner shall thereupon investigate the condition of the merging banks and if he finds that the state bank which will result from the merger (hereafter called the "resulting bank") will be solvent and its capital unimpaired; that it will have adequate capital structure; that such merger is to the best interest of the depositors, creditors and stockholders of the merging banks and of the public in general; that the distribution of the stock of the resulting bank is to be upon an equitable basis; and that the resulting bank has in all respects complied with the laws of this State relative to the incorporation of State banks, he may approve such merger, and, if he so approves, he shall deliver to the resulting bank a certified copy of the certificate of merger, which certificate shall constitute the charter and articles of association of the resulting bank, and shall be filed as provided in Article 6 of this chapter.² The resulting bank shall be deemed a continuation in entity and identity of each of the banks involved in the merger; shall be subject to all the liabilities, obligations, duties and relations of each merging bank; and shall without the necessity of any conveyance, assignment or transfer become the owner of all of the assets of every kind and character formerly belonging to the merging banks; further, provided, that if any merging bank shall at the time of the merger be acting as trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, or in any other fiduciary capacity, the resulting bank shall, without the necessity of any judicial action or action by the creator of such trust, continue such office, trust or fiduciary relationship and shall perform all of the duties and obligations and exercise all of the powers and authority connected with or incidental to such fiduciary relationship in the same manner as though the resulting bank had been originally named or designated as such fiduciary.

The naming or designating by a testator, or the creator of a living trust, of any one of the merging banks to act as trustee, guardian, executor or in any other fiduciary capacity shall be considered the naming or designating of the bank resulting from the merger.

Art. 342-309. Reorganization—Incorporation to Take Over Business of Other Banks—Trust Powers

A state bank may be incorporated to take over the business of any incorporated bank or banks, state or national, as a step in the reorganization of such bank or banks, (which bank or banks, whether one or more, will be hereafter referred to as the "reorganizing bank"), and shall, subject to the provisions of this article, be authorized to purchase assets from the reorganizing bank and as consideration therefor, assume all liabilities, known or unknown, of the reorganizing bank, other than its liability to stockholders as such.

Persons desiring to incorporate a state bank under the provisions of this article shall proceed in the manner provided in Article 5 of this Chapter,¹ and in addition, shall file with the Commissioner:

(1) The proposed contract whereby the state bank is to purchase the assets from and assume the liabilities of the reorganizing bank, as above mentioned.

(2) Contracts, if any, whereby the proposed state bank is to purchase for cash the whole or any part of the right of any or all of the stockholders of the reorganizing bank to receive liquidating dividends upon liquidation of the reorganizing bank, which contracts shall expressly provide that they shall be binding and effective only in event the reorganizing bank is placed in voluntary liquidation within ten (10) days of the granting of the application for the charter applied for. Such contracts shall be executed on behalf of the proposed bank by the persons applying for the charter.

If the Commissioner, after investigation, determines that the proposed bank, if incorporated, will, after its capital has been paid in full and all contracts above mentioned finally consummated, be solvent, its capital adequate and unimpaired, that such reorganization is to the best interest of the reorganizing bank, its depositors, creditors and stockholders and the public in general, and that upon incorporation such bank will have in all other respects complied with the law, he shall recommend to the State Banking Board that the charter be granted.

If the State Banking Board concurs in the findings of the Commissioner, it shall grant the application, and the Commissioner shall deliver a certified copy of the articles of association in the manner provided in Article 5 of this chapter. Provided, however, that the Commissioner shall not deliver a certificate of authority until the contracts above mentioned have been fully consummated, and the requirements of Article 7 of this chapter² have been met. The state bank so incorporated shall be deemed a reorganization of the reorganizing bank, and a continuation of such bank in entity and identity, subject to all of its liabilities, obligations, duties and relations, save and except its liability to stockholders as such, and shall pay and perform each and every obligation, duty and liability of the reorganizing bank in exactly the same manner as the reorganizing bank was obligated to do; further provided that if the reorganizing bank was at the time of incorporation of the new state bank, named or acting as guardian, trustee, executor, administrator or in any other fiduciary capacity, such state bank shall, without the necessity of any judicial action, or action by the creator of such trust, continue the trusteeship or other fiduciary relation and perform all of the duties and obligations of the reorganizing bank and exercise all the powers and authority relative thereto; and neither the reorganization of such bank, nor any liquidation of such bank in connection therewith, shall be deemed a resignation or refusal to act. The naming or designating by a testator or the creator of a living trust of the reorganizing bank to act as trustee, guardian, executor, or in any other fiduciary capacity shall be considered the naming or designating of the bank resulting from the reorganization.

The new state bank shall give notice of its assumption of the liabilities of the reorganizing bank by publishing notice thereof once each week for a period of two (2) weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county of its domicile, or in event no such newspaper is published in said county, then in a newspaper of general circulation published in an adjacent county. The first notice shall be published within ten (10) days after the delivery of the certificate of authority to such bank.

Art. 342-310. Purchase of Assets of Another Bank—Disbursing Agent

Any state bank may, with the consent of the Commissioner, purchase the whole or any part of the assets of any other state bank or of any national bank domiciled in this State, and may hold the purchase price and any additional funds delivered to it by the selling bank in trust for or as a deposit to the credit of the selling bank. The purchasing bank may act as agent of the selling bank in disbursing the funds so held in trust or on deposit by paying the depositors and creditors of the selling bank, provided that if the purchasing bank acts under written contract of agency which specifically names each depositor and creditor and the amount to be paid each, and if such agency is confined to the purely ministerial act of paying such depositors and creditors the amounts due them as determined by the selling bank and reflected in the contract of agency and involves no discretionary duties or authority other than the identification of the depositors and creditors named, and if such contract is approved by the Commissioner, then the purchasing bank may rely upon such contract of agency and the instructions included therein, and shall not be in any way liable or responsible for any error made by the selling bank in determining its liabilities, the depositors and creditors to whom such liabilities are due, or the amounts due such depositors and creditors; nor liable or in any way responsible for any preference which may result from the payments made pursuant to such contract of agency and the instructions included therein. Further provided that, in event the selling bank should, at any time after such sale of assets, be closed and come into the hands of the Commissioner or, if a national bank into the hands of a receiver, then the purchasing bank shall pay to the Commissioner as statutory liquidator or to the receiver of such national bank the balance of the funds held by it in trust or on deposit for the selling bank, not theretofore paid to the depositors and creditors of the selling bank, and shall thereupon stand discharged of any and all liabilities, obligations or responsibilities to the selling bank, its receiver, the Commissioner as its statutory liquidator, or to the depositors, creditors or stockholders thereof. Provided further that payment to any depositor or creditor of the selling bank of the amount to be paid him under the terms of the contract of agency may be effected by the purchasing bank opening an account in the name of such depositor or creditor, crediting such account with the amount to be paid the depositor or creditor under the terms of such agency contract, and mailing a duplicate deposit ticket evidencing such credit to such depositor or creditor at his address as reflected by the records of the selling bank, or delivering it to him personally, and the relation of debtor to creditor shall thereupon arise between the purchasing bank and such depositors and creditors to the extent and only to the extent of the credit reflected by such deposit tickets. Further provided, that if any such depositor or creditor checks upon the credit so created, or if he does not within sixty (60) days of the mailing or the personal delivery of such deposit ticket protest the transaction and demand payment from the selling bank, he shall be deemed to have ratified the transaction and to the extent of the credit so created to have accepted the obligation of the purchasing bank as reflected by said deposit ticket in satisfaction of the obligation of the selling bank, and the obligation of the selling bank to the extent of such credit shall be deemed paid and satisfied within the meaning of this article.

Art. 342-311. Existing Corporations—Powers Retained

Art. 342-312. Amendment of Articles of Association—Rights of Stockholders upon Increase in Capital—Stock Option Plans

Subject to the provisions of this Code, any state bank may amend its articles of association for any lawful purpose.

If the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, at any regular meeting of stockholders, or any special meeting called for that purpose, vote to amend the charter, the board of directors shall prepare, execute in the manner provided for the execution of articles of association, and file with the Commissioner an amendment to the articles of association. If the Commissioner finds that the amendment is not violative of law and does not prejudice the interest of depositors and creditors or the public, he shall approve such amendment and deliver to the bank a certified copy thereof, and said amendment shall thereupon become effective; provided, however, that if a state bank does not have the power to receive demand deposits, no amendments of its articles of association adopting any power provided under Subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), or (f) of Article 1 of this Chapter¹ and no amendment changing the domicile of any state bank shall be effective until approved by the State Banking Board in the manner provided for the approval of an original application for charter. Any state bank may amend its articles of association to extend its corporate existence for a perpetual period or for any period of years.

Each stockholder of a state bank shall be entitled to his proportionate part of any increase of stock effected out of surplus funds or undivided profits, and shall be entitled to subscribe for his proportionate share of any capital increase to be paid in cash; provided, however, that each stockholder or his assignee, in event he elects to assign such rights of subscription, shall subscribe for and pay the amount of such subscription to the corporation within ten (10) days after the stockholders have adopted such amendment, otherwise the board of directors may allocate the unsubscribed or unpaid portion of the increase among the other stockholders or otherwise as they deem to the best interest of the bank.

With prior approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, shares of stock in a bank, which are created by a capital increase, may be allocated to and purchased by the bank out of its surplus which is not certified or out of its undivided profits to be held by the bank for fulfilling the requirements of an officer or employee stock option plan, whereby officers or employees, or both, of the bank are given options to purchase shares of the bank's capital stock at a specified price, subject to the following requirements and restrictions:

The number of shares so held shall not, at any time, exceed five per cent (5%) of the total number of shares outstanding in the hands of other stockholders. Stock option plans authorized under this Article may not extend beyond a period of ten years from the date of issuance and shall otherwise qualify under applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as it may be amended from time to time. No officer or employee who owns or controls more than five per cent (5%) of the bank's capital stock shall be eligible to participate or to continue participation in a stock option plan authorized by this Article.

In considering the application for conversion from a national bank into a state bank the Board shall consider and determine that the new bank meets with all the requirements of a new state bank applicant. Included also in the application for conversion and to be considered along with the other information submitted shall be the terms of the transition from a national bank into a state bank which shall also show that the provisions of Public Law 706 of the 81st Congress of the United States¹ have been fully satisfied. If title to more than ten percent (10%) of the total number of shares of stock outstanding is transferred, the transferee shall, within fifteen (15) days thereafter, give the Commissioner written notice of the date of the transfer, the number of shares transferred and the consideration therefor, and the names and addresses of the persons or corporations from

At all stockholders' meetings the owners of a majority of the capital stock, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum a stockholders' meeting may be adjourned from time to time without notice to the stockholders. Each stockholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by him, which he may cast in person or by proxy duly authorized in writing filed among the records of the bank. Stock owned of record by an estate shall be voted by its executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or personal representative, and stock held in a fiduciary capacity shall be voted by the fiduciary, but stock which is owned or held by the State bank in any such capacity and stock which is acquired by the State bank in any other lawful manner shall not be voted by the bank for any purpose and shall not be included in determining whether or not a quorum is present at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders; provided, however, if the voting rights to stock held in trust by a state bank are

At each regular meeting the board shall review and approve or disapprove each loan and investment made and item of expense incurred since the last meeting; and shall examine and take appropriate action upon the over-draft, suspense and bills of exchange accounts. Such approval, disapproval or other action of the board shall be spread upon its minutes.

By a majority vote of its qualified members, the board shall elect a president, one or more vice presidents, and a cashier or secretary, and such other officers of the bank as may be prescribed by the by-laws or deemed necessary by the directors and fix their compensation; provided, however, that the president shall be a member of the board of directors. Each officer of the bank shall serve only during the pleasure of the board, and any contract for a fixed term of employment shall be void.

Art. 342-410. Directors, Officers and Employees—Liability—Reimbursement for Expenses

Except as otherwise provided by statute, directors and officers of state banks shall be liable for financial losses sustained by state banks to the extent that directors and officers of other corporations are now responsible for such losses in equity and common law. Further provided that any officer or director who does not approve of any act or omission of the board, and desires to relieve himself from any personal liability for such act or omission shall promptly announce his opposition to such act or omission and cause such opposition to be spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting. If for any reason such opposition is not spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting, he shall promptly report the facts to the Commissioner.

Any person may be indemnified or reimbursed by a state bank, through action of its board, for reasonable expenses actually incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he is a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of said bank. If there is a compromise of such an action or threatened action, there shall be no indemnification or reimbursement for the amount paid to settle the claim or for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such claim without the vote, or the written consent, of the owners of record of a majority of the stock of the bank. Provided, however, that no such person shall be indemnified or reimbursed if he has been finally adjudged to have been negligent in the performance of his duties or to have committed any act or to have failed to perform any duty for which there is a common law or statutory liability. This article shall not bar any right or action to which such person would be entitled at common law or any other statute of this State.

Art. 342-411. Officers—Transfer of Securities—Bills Payable—Rediscounts—Sale of Notes

No officer of a state bank shall endorse, pledge, assign, transfer, rediscount or in anywise dispose of any note, bond, security or other obligation held by the bank, nor create any bills payable, unless he shall have previously been duly authorized to do so by the board of directors, as reflected by the minutes of its meeting.

Art. 342-412. Officers and Directors—Cease and Desist—Removal—Appeal

1. If the Commissioner finds that an officer, director or employee of a State bank, or the State bank itself acting through any authorized person, has committed any of the following violations or practices:

(a) violates the provisions of this Code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks; or

(b) refuses to comply with the provisions of this code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks; or

(c) wilfully neglects to perform his duties, or commits a breach of trust or of fiduciary duty.

(d) Commits any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the bank's business that endangers the bank's reputation or threatens its solvency; or

(e) refuses to submit to examination under oath; or

(f) conducts business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner; or

(g) violates any conditions of its charter or of any agreement entered with the Banking Commissioner or the Banking Department; then in such event the Commissioner shall give notice in writing to such bank and the offending officer, director or employee, stating the particular violations or practices complained of, and the Commissioner shall call a meeting of the directors of said bank and lay before them such findings and demand a discontinuance of such violations and practices as have been found.

2. If the Commissioner shall find that an order to cease and desist from such actions is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, then at the directors' meeting above provided or within thirty (30) days thereafter the Commissioner may serve on the State bank, its board of directors, and any offending officers, directors or employees, a written order to cease and desist from the violations and practices enumerated therein and to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to correct the conditions resulting from such violations or practices. Said cease and desist order shall be effective instantaneously if the Commissioner finds that immediate and irreparable harm is threatened to the bank, its depositors or stockholders; otherwise, said order shall state the effective date, not less than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of the notice thereof. Unless the bank or directors shall file a notice of appeal with the Banking Section of the Finance Commission within ten (10) days after such delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order shall be final. A copy of said order shall be entered upon the minutes of the directors, who shall thereafter certify to the Commissioner in writing that each has read and understood the order.

3. If the Commissioner subsequently finds by examination or other credible evidence that the offending officer, director or employee has continued such violations or practices as previously charged and found by the Commissioner, after notice and demand made under Paragraph 1 above, and further finds that removal from office is necessary and in the best interests of such bank and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, then the Commissioner may serve such officer, director or employee with an order of removal from office. Said order shall state the grounds for removal with reasonable certainty and shall state the effective date of removal, not less than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of the notice thereof. Unless the bank, the directors or the person removed shall file a notice of appeal with the Banking Section of the Finance Commission within ten (10) days after such delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order of removal shall be effective and final and said person shall thereafter be prohibited from further holding office or employment by, or participating in the affairs of, the said State bank. A copy of said order shall be entered upon the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of such order and certify to the Commissioner that such person has been removed from office.

4. Upon the timely filing of an appeal the Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall set a time and place for hearing such appeal, giving reasonable notice thereof to the appellants. The Banking Section may adopt such rules or procedure as may be necessary to govern the fair hearing and adjudication of the questions appealed, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Appeal from Cease and Desist Order. If the Banking Section finds that appellants have committed one or more of the violations or practices charged by the Commissioner, and further finds that an order to cease and desist from said actions is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, the said order of the Commissioner shall be affirmed and made final and effective. If the findings are otherwise, the Banking Section shall set aside the order of the Commissioner.

(b) Appeal from Order of Removal. If the Banking Section finds that appellant has committed one or more of the violations or practices charged by the Commissioner sufficient to justify his removal, and further finds that an order of removal from office is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, the said order of the Commissioner shall be affirmed and made final and effective. If the findings are otherwise, the Banking Section shall set aside the order of the Commissioner.

5. After a cease and desist order or an order of removal becomes effective and final, should a State bank or its board of directors or any duly authorized officer of said bank fail or refuse to comply with such an order, then the Commissioner may, upon notice, assess a penalty against said State bank in an amount not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) per day for each day the bank is in violation of said order of the Commissioner or the Banking Section of the Finance Commission. Failure to remit any penalty so assessed shall subject the bank to a suit for collection by the Attorney General of Texas to be instituted in the District Court of Travis County, Texas. In addition to the remedy above provided the Attorney General of Texas, upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner, may bring suit in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, against any bank in violation of the final orders of the Commissioner or the Banking Section to enjoin the further violation of said orders and the violations and practices charged by the Commissioner as the grounds for such orders.

6. Orders to cease and desist, orders for removal from office, and all copies of notices, correspondence or other records in the Banking Department relating to such orders concerning such violations or unsound practices shall be confidential and shall not be publicized or revealed to the public except in any lawsuit authorized by this Code or by other lawful order or authority.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided: "Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-413. Officers, Employees, Agents—Embezzlement, Abstraction and Misapplication—Penalty

Any officer, employee or agent of a state bank who embezzles, fraudulently abstracts or wilfully misapplies money, funds, credit or other asset of such bank shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than ten (10) years, or both.

Art. 342-414. Officers, Employees, Directors—False Entries and Statements—Penalty

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who knowingly makes a false entry upon the books or records or in any report or statement of such bank, or knowingly gives a false answer to any question propounded to him while being examined under oath by the Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner, or any Examiner, shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than ten (10) years, or both.

Art. 342-415. Officers, Directors, Employees, Stockholders—Destruction of Bank Records—Penalty

Any officer, director, employee or stockholder of a state bank who, for the purpose of concealing any fact or information from the Banking Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner or any Examiner, or for the purpose of suppressing any evidence material to any pending or anticipated suit or legal proceeding, abstracts, removes, destroys, or conceals any book or record of such bank shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both. Destruction or disposition of any book or record of a state bank after the period which it is required to be preserved by any rule or regulation of the Banking Section under Article 13 of Chapter I¹ shall raise a rebuttable presumption that this article has not been violated.

Art. 342-416. Officers, Employees—Certification of Check Without Funds—Penalty

Any officer or employee of a state bank who certifies any check drawn upon such bank, if the drawer does not have sufficient credit in his checking account to pay such check, unless he acts in good faith with reason to believe that the credit is sufficient, shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

Art. 342-417. Officers, Directors and Employees—Accepting Bonuses—Penalty

Such domicile shall be depreciated each year not less than two and one-half per cent (2½%) of its cost to the bank until such domicile is charged down to twenty-five per cent (25%) of its cost, and the furniture and fixtures shall be depreciated each year not less than ten per cent (10%) of their cost to the bank until said account is charged down to One Dollar ($1), provided that the Commissioner may permit a lesser percentage to be charged off during any year.

Art. 342-502. Other Real Estate—Depreciation—Exceptions

No State bank shall acquire real estate, other than its domicile, except in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of indebtedness, or in the ordinary course of the collection of loans and other obligations owing the bank, or for the use of the bank in future expansion of its banking house. No State bank shall assign an original book value to such real estate in excess of its reasonable value at the time of acquisition, and such real estate shall be depreciated each year ten per cent (10%) of such original book value until charged down to twenty-five per cent (25%) of its original book value; provided that the Commissioner may permit a lesser percentage to be depreciated during any year. If such real estate is acquired for the use of the bank in future expansion of its banking house, such real estate shall be depreciated each year ten per cent (10%) of its original book value until such time as it is actually improved and occupied as a banking house, after which it shall be depreciated in accordance with the provisions of Article 1 of this Chapter.¹ The original book value of such real estate shall be included in determining whether the State bank has invested an amount in excess of fifty per cent (50%) of its capital and certified surplus in a domicile (including land and building) under the provisions of Article 1 of this Chapter. If such real estate acquired for the use of the bank in future expansion of its banking house is not improved and occupied as a banking house within three (3) years from the date of its acquisition, the bank shall sell or otherwise dispose of such property; provided that the Commissioner may for good cause shown grant an extension of time for a period of one year or more.

Art. 342-503. Engaging in Commerce—Exceptions

No state bank shall invest its funds in trade or commerce by buying and selling goods, wares, merchandise or chattels or by owning or operating an industrial plant except when necessary to avoid a loss on a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Provided that to the extent that national banks may now or hereafter have authority to do so, a state bank may become the owner and lessor of personal property acquired upon the specific request and for the use of a customer and may incur such additional obligations as may be incident to becoming an owner and lessor of such property.

Rental payments collected by the bank under the lease agreement shall be considered to be rent and shall not be deemed to be interest or compensation for the use of money loaned.

The aggregate of the bank's investment in properties so acquired shall not exceed limits prescribed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission as they may be adjusted from time to time, and property so acquired shall not be retained more than six (6) months beyond the duration of the original lease period agreed to by the customer for whom the property was acquired, except with written permission of the Banking Commissioner.

Art. 342-504. Real Estate Loans—Limitations—Exceptions

State banks are authorized to make loans upon the security of real estate and invest their funds in obligations secured by real estate subject to such rules and regulations as may be imposed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission of Texas relating to margin requirements, repayment programs or terms, and the aggregate in the various types and classes of real estate loans; provided, however, that no state bank shall make a loan upon security of real estate or invest its funds in obligations secured by real estate unless:

1. The security is a first lien upon such real estate or the loan or investment made by the bank is wholly guaranteed by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs under Title III of the Serviceman's Readjustment Act of 1944,¹ as amended from time to time.

2. Such loan or obligation is supported by:

(a) either an attorney's opinion or a mortgagee's title insurance policy;

(b) evidence of payment of all taxes other than taxes for the current year;

(c) a written appraisal of such real estate signed by an appraiser; and

(d) if the improvements situated upon such real estate constitute an appreciable portion of the security, adequate coverage insuring the interest of the bank against loss by fire and tornado.

3. The limitations, restrictions and requirements of this Article shall not apply to a loan or obligation insured by the Federal Housing Administration, or to any loan or obligation which the United States of America has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest through a federal agency or instrumentality, or to security taken to prevent loss on a loan or investment previously made in good faith.

4. Construction loans:

(a) The following loans made to finance the construction of buildings shall not be considered as loans secured by real estate within the meaning of this Article but shall be classed as ordinary commercial loans, provided that such loans shall be secured by a first lien on the real estate upon which the building or buildings are being constructed:

(1) loans having maturities which shall be fixed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission, made to finance the construction of industrial or commercial buildings on which there are valid and binding agreements entered into by financially responsible lenders to advance the full amount of the bank's loan upon completion of the buildings, and

(2) loans made to finance the construction of residential or farm buildings having maturities which shall be fixed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission from time to time.

(b) Such loans or obligations shall be supported by:

(1) either an attorney's opinion, a mortgagee's title insurance policy or a mortgagee's title insurance policy binder;

(2) evidence of payment of all taxes other than taxes for the current year;

(3) either a written appraisal of such real estate, signed by an appraiser, or a valid and binding agreement entered into by a financially responsible lender or lenders to advance the full amount of the bank's loan upon completion of the buildings; and

(4) insurance coverage upon the building or buildings under construction in an amount adequate to insure the interest of the bank against loss by fire, tornado and other casualties.

(c) No state bank shall invest its funds in, or be liable on, any such loans covered by this Section in an amount in excess of that prescribed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission.

5. Loans made to established industrial or commercial businesses in which the Housing and Home Finance Administrator or the Small Business Administration cooperates or purchases a participation under the provisions of Section 102 or 102a of the Housing Act of 1948, as amended,² or of the Small Business Act of 1953,³ shall not be subject to the requirements, restrictions or limitations of this Article upon loans secured by real estate.

6. Loans made to businesses where the bank looks for repayment out of the operations of the borrower's business, relying primarily on the borrower's general credit standing and forecast of operations, with or without other security, but wishes to take a mortgage on the borrower's real estate as a precaution against contingencies, shall not be considered as real estate loans within the meaning of this Article but shall be classed as ordinary commercial loans.

7. Loans may be made to finance the construction of buildings during periods of construction which shall be fixed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission from time to time upon the security of:

(a) a purchase contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of the Public Buildings Purchase Contract Act of 1954⁴ or the Post Office Department Property Act of 1954,⁵ or an assignment thereof irrevocably binding the Administrator of General Services or the Postmaster General to commence payments at a specified date not later than one month from the date of completion and acceptance of the building and to continue such payments at least at annual intervals until the loan has been paid in full, and

(b) a bid and performance bond with one or more financially responsible sureties thereon in favor of the General Services Administration or the Post Office Department, jointly with the lender, without complying with the requirements, restrictions or limitations of this Article concerning loans secured by real estate, even though the lender may hold additional security in the form of a mortgage, deed of trust, title to the premises involved, or other such lien on such premises.

A state bank may invest in, or lend on the security of, shares of stock or savings accounts insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation which are issued by any building and loan association or savings and loan association domiciled in this state.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 148, ch. 97, subch. V, art. 5; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1856, ch. 722, § 5, eff. June 18, 1967.]

Art. 342-505a. Federal National Mortgage Association; Subscription for Stock in Connection with Sale of Mortgage Loans

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any bank or trust company organized under the laws of this State which has as one of its principal purposes the making or purchasing of loans secured by real estate mortgages, is authorized to sell such mortgage loans to the Federal National Mortgage Association, a corporation chartered by an Act of Congress, or any successor thereof, and in connection therewith to make payments of any capital contributions required pursuant to law, in the nature of subscriptions for stock of the Federal National Mortgage Association or any successor thereof, to receive stock evidencing such capital contributions, and to hold or dispose of such stock.

Art. 342-506. Own Stock—Security—Acquisition—Disposition—Investment Certificates—Maturity

No state bank shall acquire a lien by pledge or otherwise on its shares of stock nor purchase or acquire title to such stock, except to prevent loss upon a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Provided, however, that with the approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, a bank may purchase and carry as an asset its own shares for the purpose of fulfilling the requirements of an officer or employee stock option plan.

The number of shares so held shall not, at any time, exceed five per cent (5%) of the total number of shares outstanding in the hands of the other stockholders. Stock option plans authorized under this Article may not extend beyond a period of ten years from the date of issuance and shall otherwise qualify under applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as it may be amended from time to time. No officer or employee who owns or controls more than five per cent (5%) of the bank's capital stock shall be eligible to participate or to continue participation in a stock option plan authorized by this Article.

If a state bank acquires a lien upon or title to its stock under the exception first provided for in this Article, it shall not permit such lien to continue for more than two (2) years, nor shall it hold title to such stock for more than one (1) year. Provided that the stock on which the bank has a lien plus the stock held by it as owner shall not exceed, in par value, the aggregate of all surplus accounts and undivided profits of said bank; provided, however, that any provision of this Code to the contrary notwithstanding, a state bank may make loans, charge or collect in advance interest thereon at a rate not exceeding that permitted by law, together with other charges permitted by this Code, and take as collateral thereof its investment certificates, issued simultaneously with the granting of the loans or otherwise, requiring weekly, semi-monthly, monthly or other regular periodic installments to be paid upon such certificates; such loans, subject to acceleration for specified causes, shall mature when the withdrawal value of the investment certificate or certificates securing the same equals the face amount of the note evidencing the loans, and shall be comparable in form and principle of operation to sinking-fund loans which building and loan associations are now authorized to make under the laws of this State.

Art. 342-507. Limit of Liability of Any One Borrower—Exceptions—Penalty

No state bank shall permit any person or any corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus. The phrase "indebted or in any other way liable" shall be construed to include liability as partner or otherwise. The above limitation shall not apply to the following classes of indebtedness or liability:

1. Liability as endorser or guarantor of commercial or business paper discounted by or assigned to the bank by the actual owner thereof who has acquired it in the ordinary course of business.

2. Indebtedness evidenced by bills of exchange or drafts drawn against actually existing values and secured by a lien upon goods in transit with shippers' order bills of lading or comparable instruments attached.

3. Indebtedness evidenced by notes or other paper secured by liens upon agricultural products, manufactured goods, or other chattels in storage in bonded warehouses or elevators with warehouse or elevator receipts attached, cotton yard tickets, signed by a bonded weigher, when the value of the security is not less than one hundred twenty-five per cent (125%) of the indebtedness, and the bank's interest therein is adequately insured against loss, with insurance policies or certificates of insurance attached.

4. Deposit in a reserve depository, or a Federal Reserve Bank.

5. Indebtedness of another state or national bank arising out of short-term loans when such loans are made out of the excess cash reserve funds of the lending bank and have settlement periods of less than one week.

6. Indebtedness arising out of the daily transaction of the business of any clearing house association in this State.

7. Bonds and other legally created general obligations of any State or of any county, city, municipality or political subdivision thereof and indebtedness of the United States of America, or any instrumentality or agency of the United States Government.

8. Any portion of any indebtedness which the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest.

A state bank may permit any person, partnership, association or corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount equal to or less than fifteen per cent (15%) of its capital and certified surplus in addition to any indebtedness or liability of such person, partnership, association or corporation to the bank in an amount not in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus, when such additional indebtedness or liability to the bank is secured by bonds or notes of the United States issued since April 24, 1917, certificates of indebtedness of the United States, Treasury bills of the United States, or obligations fully guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States, the market value of which security is at all times not less than one hundred twenty per cent (120%) of such indebtedness or liability to the bank.

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who knowingly violates or participates in the violation of any provision of this Article shall upon conviction be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or confined in the State penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided: "Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-607. Capital Notes or Debentures—Capital Defined

With the prior written approval of the Commissioner any state bank may, at any time, through action of its board of directors and without requiring any action of its stockholders, issue and sell its capital notes or debentures, which shall be subordinate and subject to the claims of depositors and may be subordinated and subjected to the claims of other creditors or the holders of investment certificates.

The term "capital" as used in this article relating to solvency of state banks shall be construed to embrace the amount of outstanding capital notes and debentures legally issued by any state bank and sold by it to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or any other corporation or individual. The capital stock of any such bank may be deemed to be unimpaired when the amount of capital notes and debentures as represented by cash or sound assets exceeds the impairment as found by the Commissioner. Before any such capital notes or debentures are retired or paid by the bank, any existing deficiency of its capital (disregarding the notes or debentures to be retired) must be paid in cash, to the end that the sound capital assets shall at least equal the capital stock of the bank. Provided, in the event the net profits are not sufficient to meet the interest and retirement payments on the capital notes or debentures issued prior to the effective date of this Act,¹ the Commissioner may require the bank's stockholders to pay into the bank in cash an amount sufficient to meet the deficiency. Such capital notes or debentures shall in no case be subject to any assessment. The holders of such capital notes or debentures shall not be held individually responsible as such holders for any debts, contracts, or engagements of such bank, and shall not be held liable for assessments to restore impairment in the capital of such bank.

Art. 342-608. Limitation Upon Withdrawals

Upon the request of any state bank which is suffering from or threatened with unusual and excessive withdrawals due to financial conditions, panic or crisis, the Commissioner may, if he deems such action necessary in order to prevent unnecessary loss to or preference among the depositors and creditors of such bank, and to preserve the financial structure of the bank and its usefulness to the community, limit the right of withdrawal by or payment to depositors and creditors, and other persons to whom the bank is liable, provided, however, that such limitations shall be uniform in their application to each class of liability, and shall not defer any person in his right to full payment or withdrawal for more than ten (10) days.

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721, enacting the Uniform Commercial Code, repealed Articles 1 to 6, 11 and 12 of Subchapter VII of the Banking Code of 1943 [former articles 342-701 to 342-706, 342-711 and 342-712, respectively], effective June 30, 1966. Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721 was itself repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, adopting the Business & Commerce Code effective September 1, 1967. However, the latter Act specifically provided that the repeal did not affect the prior operation of the 1965 Act or any prior action taken under it. See, now, Business and Commerce Code, § 4.101 et seq.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2875, ch. 947, §§ 1, 2, effective August 30, 1971, amended Subchapter VII of the Banking Code of 1943 by adding Article 2 [article 342-702], and by renumbering Articles 7, 7a to 10 [formerly numbered articles 342-707, 342-707a to 342-710] as Articles 1, 3 to 6 [articles 342-701, 342-703 to 342-706], respectively.

Art. 342-701. Depository Contract—Limitation of Actions

The contract of deposit between a bank and a depositor, whether evidenced by deposit tickets or otherwise shall be deemed a contract in writing within the purview of Article 5527 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas. The cause of action on any such depository contract, other than a time deposit, shall not accrue until the bank has denied liability and given the depositor notice thereof. Provided that the delivery to the depositor of a statement of his account or pass book reflecting the balance, or the mailing of a statement of such account (with or without cancelled items) to the depositor at his address as reflected by the books of the bank, shall constitute a denial of any liability on the part of the bank in excess of the balance reflected by such statement or pass book, and notice thereof to the depositor, and, to the extent of any excess over the balance reflected shall accrue the cause of action.

Art. 342-702. Brokered Funds Defined—Reporting—Commissioner's Authority

For the purpose of this article, "brokered funds" are funds accepted by a bank on which a fee in money is paid or agreed to be paid, directly or indirectly, either to the depositor of such funds or a third party by such bank or a third party, in addition to any interest to be paid under the contract of repayment.

In the event that any bank shall accept brokered funds as defined herein, it shall forthwith notify the Commissioner in writing of the acceptance of such funds, the depositor and his address, any loans, if any, made in consideration of or conditioned upon said deposit, and listing the borrower, his address, and any collateral securing said loan, and such other information concerning said deposit and loan as the Commissioner may require and on such forms as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. The Commissioner may further require any bank to report such brokered funds and loans as above described, if any, which have been accepted or made previous to the effective date of this Act.

Provided, however, should the Commissioner find from examination or other evidence that a bank is being operated in an unsafe manner, or insolvency of the bank is threatened, or the continued acceptance of brokered funds will threaten the liquidity of the bank, then the Commissioner shall have the authority to act as follows:

(a) to issue an order to cease and desist from further accepting any brokered funds, or otherwise to regulate the amount of such funds which may be accepted or the rate of interest to be paid, and

(b) to issue a written order stating that after the effective date thereof all brokered funds accepted by said bank shall be and are hereby classified as the issuance, sale and negotiation of "notes, bonds, and other evidence of indebtedness" by the bank as provided in Paragraph (h), Article 1, Chapter III of such Code,¹ and not as deposits received by the bank as provided in Paragraph (a), Article 1, Chapter III of the Banking Code of 1943 as amended.² In the event that brokered funds are accepted after issuance of such order, it shall be the duty of said bank to state in the contract of repayment that in the event of liquidation of the issuing bank, the owner and holder of such contract of repayment shall be considered and treated as a common creditor and not as a depositor of the bank, and a cash reserve of ten percent (10%) of the total outstanding brokered funds shall be maintained against such funds, in the same manner as cash reserves are maintained against demand deposits and time deposits.

Provided further, that the Commissioner may exercise any or all of the powers above provided, which shall be cumulative of any other powers and remedies provided elsewhere in this Code.

Conditions for Supervision by Commissioner

Sec. 2. If upon examination or at any other time it appears to or is the opinion of the Banking Commissioner that any bank is in an unsafe condition (as defined herein) and its condition is such as to render the continuance of its business hazardous to the public or to its depositors and creditors, or if such bank appears to have exceeded its powers (as defined herein) or has failed to comply with the law, or if such bank gives its consent (as defined herein), then the Banking Commissioner shall upon his determination (a) notify the bank of his determination, and (b) furnish to the bank a written list of the Commissioner's requirements to abate his determination, and (c) if the Commissioner makes a further determination to supervise he shall notify the bank that it is under the supervision of the Banking Commissioner and that the Commissioner is invoking the provisions of this article. If placed under supervision such bank shall comply with the lawful requirements of the Banking Commissioner within such time as provided in the notice of the Commissioner, subject however to the provisions of this article. In the event of such bank's failure to comply within such time the Banking Commissioner may appoint a conservator as hereafter provided.

Prohibited Acts During Period of Supervision

Sec. 3. During the period of supervision the Commissioner may appoint a supervisor to supervise such bank and may provide that the bank may not do any of the following things during the period of supervision, without the prior approval of the Commissioner or his supervisor:

- (1) Dispose of, convey or encumber any of its assets;
- (2) Withdraw any of its bank accounts;
- (3) Lend any of its funds;
- (4) Invest any of its funds;
- (5) Transfer any of its property; or
- (6) Incur any debt, obligation or liability.

Conservatorship Proceedings

Sec. 4. After the period of supervision specified by the Commissioner for compliance, if it is determined that such bank has failed to comply with the lawful requirements of the Commissioner, then upon due notice and hearing, or by consent of the bank, the Commissioner may appoint a conservator, who shall immediately take charge of such bank and all of the property, books, records, and effects thereof. The conservator shall conduct the business of the bank and take such steps toward the removal of the causes and conditions which have necessitated such order, as the Commissioner may direct. During the pendency of conservatorship the conservator shall make such reports to the Commissioner from time to time as may be required by the Commissioner, and shall be empowered to take all necessary measures to preserve, protect, and recover any assets or property of such bank, including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank, and to deal with the same in his own name as conservator, and shall be empowered to file, prosecute, and defend any suit or suits which have been filed or which may thereafter be filed by or against such bank which are deemed by the conservator to be necessary to protect all of the interested parties or any property affected thereby. The Banking Commissioner, or any duly appointed deputy, may be appointed to serve as the conservator. If the Banking Commissioner, however, is satisfied that such bank is not in condition to continue business in the interest of its depositors or creditors, under the conservator as above provided, the Banking Commissioner may proceed with an appropriate remedy provided by any other provision of this Code.

Supervisor's and Conservator's Service Charge

Sec. 5. The cost incident to the supervisor's and conservator's service shall be fixed and determined by the Banking Commissioner and shall be a charge against the assets and funds of the bank to be allowed and paid as the Banking Commissioner may determine.

Review and Stay of Action

Sec. 6. During the period of supervision and during the period of conservatorship, the bank may request the Banking Commissioner or in his absence, the duly appointed deputy for such purpose, to review an action taken or proposed to be taken by the supervisor or conservator, specifying wherein the action complained of is believed not to be in the best interests of the bank, and such request shall stay the action specified pending review of such action by the Commissioner or his duly appointed deputy. Any order entered by the Commissioner appointing a supervisor and providing that the bank shall not do certain acts as provided in Section 3 and Section 4 of this article, any order entered by the Commissioner appointing a conservator, and any order by the Commissioner following the review of an action of the supervisor or conservator as hereinabove provided shall be immediately reviewed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission upon the filing of an appeal by the bank. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission may stay the effectiveness of any order appealed from, pending its review of such order. Such appeal shall have precedence over all other business of a different nature pending before the Banking Section of the Finance Commission; and all matters and evidence pertaining to the bank's condition and the subject appeal shall be presented to the Banking Section of the Finance Commission in a closed hearing. Upon hearing the Banking Section shall promptly render a decision which may affirm or terminate the order appealed from, modify the order, continue or discontinue such supervision, conservatorship or other order in connection therewith, or enter such other order as is appropriate and consistent with this article. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall make such other rules and regulations with regard to such appeals and their consideration as it deems advisable. Any bank dissatisfied with any order rendered by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission under this article shall have the right to appeal to the district court in the manner prescribed elsewhere in this Code, which order shall be considered final for the purpose of such appeal.

Venue

Sec. 7. Any suit filed against a bank or its conservator, after the entrance of an order by the Banking Commissioner placing such bank in conservatorship and while such order is in effect, shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere. The conservator appointed hereunder for such bank may file suit in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, against any person for the purpose of preserving, protecting, or recovering any assets or property of such bank including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank.

Duration of Conservatorship

Sec. 8. As respects a conservatorship, the conservator shall serve for such time as is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the conservatorship as intended by this Act. If rehabilitated, the rehabilitated bank shall be returned to management or new management under such conditions as are reasonable and necessary to prevent recurrence of the conditions which occasioned the conservatorship.

Administrative Election of Remedies

Sec. 9. If the Commissioner determines to act under authority of this article, or is directed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission to act under this article, the sequence of his acts and proceedings shall be as set forth herein. However, it is a purpose and substance of this article to authorize administrative discretion—to allow Commissioner and the Banking Section of the Finance Commission administrative discretion in the event of unsound banking operations—and in furtherance of that purpose, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to proceed with regulation either under this article or under any other applicable article or law, or under this law in conjunction with other law, either as such law is now existing or as is hereafter enacted, and it is so provided.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 10. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall be empowered to adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary for the augmentation and accomplishment of this Act, including its purposes.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2877, ch. 948, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.]

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1971 act provided:

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only.

"Sec. 4. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 342-802. Voluntary Liquidation of Solvent State Bank—Cancellation of Charter—Resumption of Business Prohibited

A solvent state bank may be closed and liquidated upon the written consent or vote of the owners of record of two thirds of its capital, which consent, or the resolution adopted by the stockholders, shall specify the date when such bank is to be closed and shall designate one or more individuals to act as the liquidating agent, who shall conduct the liquidation under the supervision of the board of directors, after giving suitable bond as prescribed by said board and approved by the Commissioner. Prior to the closing of such state bank, the directors shall file with the Commissioner a transcript of the proceedings authorizing the closing of the bank. Notice to its depositors and creditors to present their claims shall be published once a week for thirteen (13) weeks, beginning within ten (10) days after the closing of the bank, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of the bank's domicile, or if no such newspaper is published in said county, in an adjacent county. Upon presentment of lawful claims, the bank shall pay its depositors and creditors, provided that such payment may be effected through a disbursing agent as authorized under Article 10 of Chapter 3 of this Code.¹ The liquidating agent shall make a written report to the stockholders at each annual meeting, a copy of which, signed and sworn to by the liquidating agent, shall be filed with the Commissioner. The stockholders at any regular or special meeting may remove the liquidating agent and name a successor. The Commissioner may from time to time examine the liquidating bank and may, if the depositors and creditors are not paid upon presentment of their lawful claims, or if, prior to the payment of all depositors and creditors, he finds any condition which would authorize the closing of the bank were it not in voluntary liquidation, take possession of the assets and liquidate the same in the manner herein provided for the liquidation of insolvent state banks.

Upon the expiration of six (6) months from the first publication of notice as above provided, the bank shall file with the Commissioner an affidavit sworn to by a majority of the qualified directors stating that all depositors and creditors who have presented their claims have been paid the amounts due them, and listing those depositors and creditors who have not presented their claims, giving their addresses as shown by the books of the bank and the amounts respectively due each. Such affidavit shall be accompanied by a publisher's certificate showing publication of notice as above provided, and by a sum equal to the aggregate amount due the non-claiming depositors and creditors. The Commissioner shall hold such money for the benefit of said depositors and creditors in the manner provided in Article 15 of this Chapter.²

At any time after the filing of such affidavit, the board of directors may distribute the remaining assets among the shareholders in proportion to their ownership of stock of the bank and shall thereafter file with the Commissioner an affidavit sworn to by a majority of the qualified directors showing such distribution. The filing of such affidavit and the approval thereof by the Commissioner shall have the effect of cancelling the charter of the bank without the necessity of any judicial action.

No state bank which has been closed pursuant to the provisions of this article shall resume business or reopen without the prior written consent of the Commissioner.

Art. 342-803. Closing State Banks—By Commissioner—By Directors

Whenever the Commissioner, through examination, finds that the interests of depositors and creditors of a state bank are seriously jeopardized through its insolvency or imminent insolvency and that it is to the best interest of such depositors and creditors that the bank be closed and its assets liquidated, he may close and liquidate the bank, unless its board of directors close the bank and place it in his hands for liquidation. Further, if the Commissioner, through examination, finds that the capital of a state bank is seriously impaired, or that it is conducting its affairs in an unsafe, unauthorized or unlawful manner, or that it refuses to submit to examination, or is hindering examination, he shall call together the directors of such bank and lay before them the facts and require such bank to make good the matter or matters complained of. If the board of directors of such bank fails or refuses to file with the Commissioner, within ten (10) days from the date of the Commissioner's official notice, satisfactory evidence that the matter or matters complained of have been cured to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, then in such event the Commissioner shall certify such facts to the State Banking Board, whereupon the State Banking Board shall notify such directors of a hearing to be held in Austin, Texas, not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) days from the date such notice is mailed. Said directors may appear at such hearing and be heard and after said hearing said State Banking Board may order such bank closed and its affairs liquidated as provided in this Code, or said State Banking Board may enter such other order as said State Banking Board may deem appropriate.

Art. 342-804. Posting of Notice—Creation of Liens, Transfers and Payment after Closing Immediately after the closing of any state bank by its directors or by the Commissioner under the provisions of Article 3 of this chapter,¹ the Commissioner shall place an appropriate sign to that effect at the main entrance of the bank, and thereafter no judgment lien, attachment lien or other voluntary lien shall attach to any asset of said bank, nor shall the directors, officers or agents of such bank thereafter have authority to act for or on behalf of said bank or to convey, transfer, assign, pledge, mortgage or encumber any asset thereof, and any attempt by any officer, director or agent to transfer, assign, convey, mortgage or pledge any asset of the bank or to create any lien thereon or in any manner to prefer any depositor or creditor of the bank after the posting of such notice or in contemplation thereof shall be void. The Commissioner immediately after posting the notice at the entrance of such bank shall advise its correspondent banks of its closing. No correspondent shall pay any item drawn on the account of the closed bank which is presented for payment after the receipt of such advice, unless the same has been previously certified.

Art. 342-805. Contest of Liquidation

At any time within five (5) days after the Commissioner has closed any state bank under the provisions of Article 3 of this chapter,¹ such bank, acting through its directors, may sue in the district court of the bank's domicile to enjoin the Commissioner from liquidating such bank, and the court, or the judge thereof if in vacation, may, without notice or hearing, restrain the Commissioner from liquidating the assets of such bank pending hearing on the merits, and shall, in that event instruct the Commissioner to hold the assets of such bank in his possession pending final disposition of such suit. The Commissioner shall thereupon refrain from liquidating such assets, provided, however, the Commissioner may, with the approval of the district judge, take such action as may be necessary or proper to prevent loss or depreciation in the value of the assets. The court shall, as soon as possible, hear the suit upon its merits and shall enter a judgment (1) enjoining the Commissioner from liquidating the assets of such bank, or (2) refusing such injunction. Appeal shall lie from such judgment as in other civil cases, but the Commissioner, irrespective of the character of judgment entered by the trial court or any supersedeas bond filed, shall retain possession of the assets of such bank pending final disposition on appeal.

Art. 342-806. Inventory of Assets—Custodia Legis—Jurisdiction

Promptly after the Commissioner has acquired possession of the assets of a state bank for liquidation, he shall prepare and file in the office of the district clerk of the county of the bank's domicile an inventory of such assets, and the clerk shall assign a cause number to the proceedings so instituted. The assets of the bank shall be deemed to be in the custody of the court in which such proceedings are pending and all suits and orders provided for under this chapter¹ shall be deemed to be in the nature of interventions or orders in said proceedings, of which suits and orders said court shall have exclusive jurisdiction. Provided, however, that during vacation of such court, the judge thereof shall be authorized to enter any of such orders and to conduct any hearing incident thereto.

Art. 342-807. Resumption of Business—Reorganization

No state bank which has been closed under the provisions of Article 3 of this Chapter¹ shall be reopened unless the contest provided for under Article 5 of this chapter² is finally determined adversely to the Commissioner, or unless the Commissioner, acting under order of the district court, shall authorize such reopening by a certificate under the seal of his office. The Commissioner may in such certificate place such limitations upon the right of withdrawal by, or payment of, depositors and creditors of such bank as he may deem necessary to the protection of the depositors and creditors as a whole. Provided, however, that such limitation shall be applicable alike to all unsecured depositors and creditors and shall not defer their right of full withdrawal or payment for more than eighteen (18) months from the date of the reopening of such bank, nor defer any secured depositor or creditor to any extent without his written consent.

The limitations upon the right of withdrawal or payment set out in the certificate of the Commissioner shall when the bank is reopened be binding upon all unsecured depositors and creditors and all secured depositors and creditors who have assented thereto in writing. The State of Texas, or any county, city, common or independent school district or any other political subdivision of this State, as depositor or creditor, may by the proper administrative official or officials, board, or tribunal agree to such limitations, if, in his or their opinion such agreement is to the best interest of all concerned.

If he approves such claim, or any part thereof, he shall classify the same and enter such claim and his action thereon in a claim register. If the Commissioner rejects any claim in whole or in part, or if he denies any right of priority of payment or any other right asserted by the claimant, he shall notify the claimant of his action by registered mail.

Any claimant may, within three (3) months from the date of mailing of notice by the Commissioner as provided by the preceding Article,¹ sue upon such claim in the district court; otherwise the action of the Commissioner shall be final and not subject to review. The trial of such suit shall be de novo as if originally filed in said court and subject to the rules of procedure and appeal applicable to civil cases.

Art. 342-812. Powers of Commissioner—Sale of Assets, Compromises and Agreements

Pursuant to the order of the district court, entered with or without hearing, the Commissioner may sell any of the assets of a state bank in his hands for liquidation; may borrow money and pledge the whole or any part of such assets of such bank to secure the debt created; may compromise or compound any bad or doubtful claim held by or asserted against such bank; and may enter into any other kind or character of contract or agreement on behalf of such bank which he deems necessary or proper to the management, conservation or liquidation of its assets and all parties interested in the affairs of such bank shall be bound and precluded by the action of the Commissioner. Provided that said court, if it deems it advantageous or proper, may require notice and hearing before entering any order, and in that event shall, by order, fix the time and place of the hearing and prescribe the character of notice to be given thereof. Further provided that said court, in its discretion, and subject to such limitations as it may prescribe, may by general order authorize the Commissioner (a) to compound or compromise any claim or debt involving not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) held by or asserted against the bank, and (b) to sell all chattels belonging to the bank.

Art. 342-814. Dividends—Delayed Claims

The Commissioner may from time to time in the course of the liquidation of a state bank, upon order of the district court, pay dividends to those depositors and creditors who have established their claims, provided that no final dividend shall be paid within eighteen (18) months of the date of the first publication of notice as prescribed in Article 8 of this Chapter.¹ All claims filed after the declaration and payment of any dividend and prior to the expiration of such eighteen (18) months shall, if approved, participate in dividends previously paid before any additional dividend is

Art. 342-815. Final Dividend—Report—Disposition of Assets—Discharge

At any time after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the first publication of notice as specified in Article 8 of this Chapter,¹ after the Commissioner has liquidated all of the assets of a bank capable of liquidation or has realized sufficient funds from such liquidation to pay the costs thereof, to pay all claims which have been filed and established, and leave funds available to provide for the payment of all non-claiming depositors and creditors, the Commissioner shall, acting under order of the district court, declare and pay a final dividend. The Commissioner shall deposit in one or more state banks all funds hereafter available for the benefit of non-claiming depositors and creditors. All unclaimed dividends and all funds hereafter available for non-claiming depositors and creditors, together with all funds held pursuant to the provisions of Article 540 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas,² (which latter funds shall be transmitted by the State Treasurer to the Commissioner, together with a list of the depositors and creditors for whose benefit the same is held), shall be deposited by the Commissioner in one or more State banks for the benefit of the depositors and creditors entitled thereto. The Commissioner shall pay any depositor or creditor, upon his demand, any amount so held for his benefit. In event the Commissioner is in doubt as to the identity of any claimant or his right to the funds thus held, he shall reject the claim and notify the claimant by registered mail. The claimant shall, within three (3) months after mailing of such notice by the Commissioner, institute suit against the Commissioner in the district court to recover such funds, which suit shall be in the nature of an action in rem governed by the rules of procedure and appeal applicable to civil cases and the judgment therein shall be binding upon all persons interested in such funds. If such suit is not filed within the time prescribed, the rejection of the Commissioner shall be final. After paying a final dividend as above provided and doing each and every act necessary or proper in connection with the liquidation of the assets of such bank for the benefit of the depositors and creditors, the Commissioner shall file in the district court his final report of such liquidation, and said court shall by order fix and designate a time and place when and where such report shall be heard, and direct the Commissioner to give such notice thereof as the court may deem proper. If said court, after such notice and hearing shall find that the affairs of said bank have been admin-

No State, national or private bank shall engage in business in more than one place, maintain any branch office, or cash checks or receive deposits except in its own banking house. For purposes of this article "banking house" means the building in whose offices the business of the bank is conducted and which is functionally one place of business, including (a) office facilities whose nearest wall is located within five hundred (500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by pneumatic tube or other similar carrier, and (b) in addition, in a county having a population of at least 350,000 according to the last preceding federal census, if authorized in the manner hereinafter provided, not more than one (1) automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within one thousand eight hundred fifty (1,850) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom and is connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected automobile drive-in facility or by pneumatic tube or other similar carrier. An automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within one thousand eight hundred fifty (1,850) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom shall be authorized only in the following manner: Written application for authority to operate the same shall be filed with the Commissioner by the bank proposing such facility, which application shall specify the location of the proposed facility. Promptly upon the filing of such written application the Commissioner shall, by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, notify each bank, if any, whose central building is situated within a one (1) mile radius of said proposed facility, hereinafter called the "Interested Banks," of the filing of such application, transmitting with such notice a true copy of said application. If within thirty (30) days following the mailing of such notice no written protest to the operation of the said proposed facility has been filed with the Commissioner by an Interested Bank, or, if there are no Interested Banks, said proposed facility shall thereupon be fully authorized without the necessity of any further action by the applying bank or by the Commissioner. However, if a written protest to the operation of said proposed facility is filed with the Commissioner during said thirty (30) day period by one or more of the Interested Banks, said application shall be promptly considered by the State Banking Board at a public hearing duly called, noticed and held in the same manner as hearings to consider applications for the granting of bank charters, and authorization to operate said proposed facility shall be granted at such hearing unless the State Banking Board shall find that the operation thereof will substantially and adversely affect one or more of the Interested Banks, in which case authorization shall be denied. National banks and private banks doing business in this State shall voluntarily submit to the jurisdiction of the State Banking Board, and abide by the determination of the Board as to whether or not permission should be granted to establish and operate an additional drive-in facility authorized under this article, provided that any national bank which does not abide by the determination of the Board shall immediately forfeit all rights it may have under State law to act as reserve depository for any State chartered bank and to act as depository for the public funds of the State and any county, city, municipality, school district or any other political subdivision of the State, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank unless and until the Commissioner certifies to the depositor that said national bank is conducting its business in compliance with the Board's determinations and orders. In addition the Attorney General shall seek an injunction against any violation of the Board's orders under this article by any national bank or private bank.

Art. 342-910. Moratoriums—Emergency Closing of Banks or Bank Operations—Limitations on Liabilities During Emergencies

(a) The Commissioner, with the approval of a majority of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas, may proclaim a financial moratorium for and invoke a uniform limitation on withdrawal of deposits of every character from all banks within the State. Any bank refusing to comply with any written proclamation of the Commissioner, signed by a majority of the members of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas, shall forfeit its charter, if it is a State chartered bank; or forfeit its right to continue to do business, if it is a private bank; or forfeit any and all rights it may have under State law, if it is a national bank, to act as reserve agent for any State chartered bank and to act as depository of any State, county, municipal or other public funds, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor on order of the Commissioner and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank without the written approval of the Commissioner.

(b) 1. Whenever the officers of a bank are of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, which affects, or may affect, a bank's offices or particular bank operations, they shall have the authority, in the reasonable and proper exercise of their discretion, to determine not to conduct the particular bank operations or open the bank's offices on any business or banking day or, if having opened, to close such offices or suspend and close the particular bank operations during the continuation of such emergency, even if the Commissioner has not issued a proclamation of emergency. The office or operations so closed shall remain closed until such time as the officers determine that the emergency has ended, and for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to reopen; however, in no case shall such office or operations remain closed for more than 48 consecutive hours, excluding other legal holidays, without receiving the approval of the Commissioner. A bank closing an office or operations pursuant to the authority granted under this article shall give as prompt notice of its action as conditions will permit and by any means available, to the Commissioner.

2. Whenever the Commissioner is of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, in this State or in any part or parts of this State, he may, by proclamation, authorize banks located in the affected area or areas to close any part or all of their offices or operations. In addition, if the Commissioner is of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, which affects, or may affect, a particular bank or banks, or a particular bank operation, but not banks located in the area generally, he may authorize the particular bank or banks so affected, to close or to suspend and close a particular bank operation. The office or bank operation so closed shall remain closed until the Commissioner proclaims that the emergency has ended, or until such earlier time as the officers of the bank determine that the office or bank operation, theretofore closed because of the emergency, should reopen, and, in either event, for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to reopen.

3. "Emergency" means any condition or occurrence which may interfere physically with the conduct of normal business at the offices of a bank or of particular bank operations, or which poses an imminent or existing threat to the safety or security of persons or property, or both. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, an emergency may arise as a result of any one or more of the following: fire; flood; earthquake; hurricane; tornado; wind, rain, or snow storm; labor dispute and strike; power failure; transportation failure; interruption of communication facilities; shortage of fuel, housing, food, transportation or labor; robbery or burglary or attempted robbery or burglary; actual or threatened enemy attack; epidemic or other catastrophe; riot; civil commotion, and other acts of lawlessness or violence, actual or threatened.

4. Any day on which a bank, or any one or more of its operations, is closed during all or any part of its normal banking hours pursuant to the authorization granted under this article shall be, as to such bank or, if not all of its operations are closed, then as to any operations which are closed, a legal holiday for all purposes with respect to any banking business of any character. No liability, or loss of rights of any kind, on the part of any bank, or any director, officer, or employee thereof, shall accrue or result by virtue of any closing authorized by this article.

5. The provisions of this article shall be construed and applied as being in addition to, and not in substitution for or limitation of, any other provision in this Code or other law of this State or of the United States, authorizing the closing of a bank or excusing the delay by a bank in the performance of its duties and obligations because of emergencies or conditions beyond the bank's control, or otherwise.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 164, ch. 97, subch. IX, art. 10; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 881, ch. 113, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided: "Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-910a. Legal Holidays for Banks Or Trust Companies—Alternative Legal Holidays for Banks or Trust Companies—Discrimination Prohibited

Sec. 1. Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Notwithstanding any existing provisions of law relative to negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or commercial paper, but subject to the provisions of Section 2 of this article, only the following enumerated days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed: Saturdays, Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second and fourth Mondays in October, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25.

When the dates January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed, and when such dates fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following such Sunday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed.

All such legal holidays shall be neither business days nor banking days under the laws of this State or the United States, and any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed at or by any bank or trust company on such days may be performed on the next succeeding business day and no liability or loss of right of any kind shall result therefrom to any bank or trust company.

Sec. 2. Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Any bank or trust company may elect to designate days on which it may close for general banking purposes pursuant to the provisions of this section, instead of Section 1 of this article, provided that any bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed on the following enumerated days, which days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes: Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second and fourth Mondays in October, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25. When the dates January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday may also, if the board of directors so elects, be a legal holiday for all banking purposes on which each bank and trust company so electing shall remain closed, and when such dates fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following each Sunday shall also be a mandatory legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed. Except as herein provided, any bank or trust company doing business in this state may, at its option, elect to be governed by this section and close for general banking purposes either on Saturday or on any other weekday of any week in the year and may elect to be closed on the preceding Friday when January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on a Saturday, provided:

(a) such day is designated at least 15 days in advance by adoption of a resolution concurred in by a majority of the board of directors thereof (or, if an unincorporated bank or trust company, by its owner or a majority of its owners, if there be more than one owner); and

(b) notice of the day or days designated in such resolution is posted in a conspicuous place in such bank or trust company for at least 15 days in advance of the day or days designated; and

(c) a copy of such resolution certified by the president or cashier of such bank or trust company is filed with the office of the commissioner of Banking Department of Texas.

The filing of such copy of resolution as aforesaid with the office of the commissioner of the Banking Department of Texas shall be deemed to be proof in all courts in this state that such bank or trust company has duly complied with the provisions of this section. Any such election to so close shall remain in effect until a subsequent resolution shall be adopted and notice thereof posted and a copy thereof filed in the manner above provided.

If any bank or trust company elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday as herein provided, it may, at its option, remain open on such day for the purpose of performing limited banking services. Notice of election to perform limited banking services shall be contained in the resolution and notices, above provided, with respect to closing for general banking purposes. Limited banking services may include such of the ordinary and usual services provided by the bank as the board of directors may determine, except the following: making loans, renewing or extending loans, certifying checks, issuing cashier's checks, and providing access to safety deposit boxes or to property held in safekeeping by the bank.

Such day upon which such bank or trust company may elect to close for general banking purposes shall with respect to such institution be treated as a legal holiday for all purposes and not a business day; provided that if such bank shall elect to perform limited banking services on such day, the same shall not be deemed a legal holiday for the performance of limited banking services. Any bank or trust company which elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday but which elects to perform limited banking services shall not be subjected to any liability or loss of rights for performing limited banking services or refusing to perform any other banking services on such day.

Sec. 3. Discrimination Prohibited. The provisions of Section 2 of this article shall be completely permissive with each individual bank or trust company in this State, and no bank, trust company, clearing house association, or group of banks or trust companies, shall discriminate against or refuse its services to any bank or trust company or enter into any agreement to discriminate against or refuse its services, either directly or indirectly, to any bank or trust company which may or may not elect to exercise any of the options contained in Section 2 of this article. The provisions of the Antitrust Laws of this State shall be applicable to the provisions of this article, and the Attorney General of Texas shall institute and prosecute any legal proceedings authorized by law to enforce the provisions of this article, including forfeiture of right to do business in Texas for violation of such provisions.

Sec. 9. The validity of any provision or part of this Act shall not be dependent upon any other provision or part thereof. If any provision or part thereof should for any reason be held unconstitutional or invalid such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions or parts of this Act.

License Required

Sec. 3. No person, except those specified in Section 4 shall engage in the business of selling checks, as a service or for a fee or other consideration, without having first obtained a license hereunder. Any person engaged in said business on the effective date of this Act may continue to engage therein without a license until the Commissioner shall have acted upon his application for a license, provided that such application be filed within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act.

Exemption from Licensing

Sec. 4. No license to sell checks as aforesaid shall be required hereunder of any of the following:

(a) Banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, and savings and loan associations, whether organized under the laws of this state or of the United States; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be deemed to enlarge the powers of the foregoing persons;

(b) Incorporated telegraph companies insofar as they receive money at any of their respective offices or agencies for immediate transmission by telegraph; or

(c) Agents of a licensee, as provided in Section 11.

Qualifications

Sec. 5. To qualify for a license hereunder an applicant shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The applicant shall have a net worth of at least Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), computed according to generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) The financial responsibility, financial condition, and business experience, and character and general fitness of the applicant shall be such as reasonably to warrant the belief that applicant's business will be conducted honestly, carefully and efficiently. To the extent deemed advisable by the Commissioner, the Commissioner may investigate and consider the qualifications of officers and directors of an applicant in determining whether this qualification has been met.

Applications

Sec. 6. Each application for such a license shall be made in writing and under oath to the Commissioner in such form as he may prescribe. The application shall state the full name and business address of:

(a) The proprietor, if the applicant is an individual;

(b) Every member, if the applicant is a partnership or association, except that if the applicant is a joint stock association having fifty (50) or more members, the name and business address need be given only of the association and each officer and director thereof;

(c) Every trustee and officer if the applicant is a trust; and

(d) The corporation and each officer and director thereof, if the applicant is a corporation.

Accompanying Fee, Statements and Bond.

Sec. 7. Each application for a license shall be accompanied by:

(a) An investigation fee of Fifty Dollars ($50) which shall not be subject to refund but which, if the license be granted, shall constitute the license fee for the first license year or part thereof;

(b) Financial statements reasonably satisfactory to the Commissioner;

(c) A surety bond issued by a bonding company or insurance company authorized to do business in this state, in the principal sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), and an additional principal sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for each location, in excess of one, at which the applicant proposes to sell checks in this state, but in no event shall the bond be required to be in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). If the bond accompanying the application be in a principal sum of less than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), the application shall also be accompanied by a list of the locations at which the business is to be conducted. The bond shall be in form satisfactory to the Commissioner and shall run to the state for the benefit of any claimants against the applicant or his agents to secure the faithful performance of the obligations of the applicant and his agents with respect to the receipt, handling, transmission and payment of money in connection with the sale of checks. The aggregate liability of the surety in no event shall exceed the principal sum of the bond. Such claimants against the applicant or his agents may themselves bring suit directly on the bond, or the Attorney General may bring suit thereon in behalf of such claimants, either in one action or successive actions; or

(d) In lieu of such corporate surety bond or bonds, or of any portion of the principal thereof as required by this Section, the applicant may deposit with the Commissioner or with such banks or trust companies or national banks in this state as such applicant may designate and the Commissioner may approve interest-bearing stocks and bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or guaranteed by the United States, or of this state, or of a city, county, town, village, school district or instrumentality of this state, or guaranteed by this state, to an aggregate amount, based upon principal amount or market value, whichever is lower, of not less than the amount of the required corporate surety bond or portion thereof. The securities shall be deposited as aforesaid and held to secure the same obligations as would the surety bond, but the depositor shall be entitled to receive all interest and dividends thereon, shall have the right, with the approval of the Commissioner, to substitute other securities for those deposited, and shall be required so to do on written order of the Commissioner made for good cause shown.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of (c) above, when the Commissioner determines with respect to any applicant or licensee that a bond or equivalent deposit of less than the sums prescribed therein will be sufficient to fully secure the faithful performance of the obligations of the applicant or licensee and his agents with respect to the receipt, handling, transmission and payment of money in connection with the sale of checks, then he is authorized to reduce the bond or equivalent deposit required of such applicant or licensee to such sums as will be sufficient. In making such determination, the Commissioner may consider the maximum sums of checks sold or to be sold by the applicant or licensee and which are or can reasonably be expected to be outstanding at any one time and all other relevant facts. Nothing herein shall be deemed to restrict or limit the authority of the Commissioner to require the filing of a new or supplemental bond or the deposit of new or additional securities as provided for in subsection (b) of Section 9.

Investigation; Granting of License

Sec. 8. Upon the filing of an application in due form, accompanied by the fee and documents mentioned in Section 7, the Commissioner shall investigate to ascertain whether the qualifications prescribed by Section 5 have been met. If he finds that such qualifications have been met, and if he approves the said documents and finds that said bond is in the prescribed amount, he shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business of selling checks in this state.

Maintenance of Bond or Securities

Sec. 9. After a license has been granted, the licensee shall maintain said bond or securities in the amount prescribed by Section 7, as follows:

(a) Each licensee who does not have on file or deposit a bond or securities, as aforesaid, in the undiminished principal sum of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), shall file quarterly reports with the Commissioner setting forth the locations at which he sells checks in this state as of January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 in each year, the report for each such date being due on or before the 15th day thereafter. Within ten (10) days following the filing of such a report, the principal sum of the bond or securities shall be increased to reflect any increase in the number of locations, and may be decreased to reflect any decrease in the number of locations.

(b) If the Commissioner shall at any time reasonably determine that the bond or securities aforesaid are insecure, deficient in amount, or exhausted in whole or part, he may by written order require the filing of a new or supplemental bond or the deposit of new or additional securities in order to secure compliance with this Act, such order to be complied with within thirty (30) days following service thereof upon the licensee.

Annual License Fee

Sec. 10. Each licensee shall pay to the Commissioner annually on or before April 15 of each year a license fee of Fifty Dollars ($50).

Agents and Sub-agents

Sec. 11. A licensee may conduct his business at one or more locations within this state, as follows:

(a) The business may be conducted through or by means of such agents and sub-agents as the licensee may from time to time designate or appoint.

(b) No license under this Act shall be required of any agent or sub-agent of a licensee except as provided in the following subsection.

(c) An agent or sub-agent, other than a person referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 4, who sells the licensee's checks over-the-counter to the public shall not be exempt from licensing under this Act if such agent or sub-agent in the regular conduct of such business receives or at any time has access to (1) the licensee's checks which, having been paid, are returned through banking channels or otherwise for verification or for reconciliation or accounting with respect thereto or (2) bank statements relating to checks so returned. This subsection shall not affect the exemption of any agent of a licensee who does not sell checks over-the-counter to the public.

Liability of Licensees

Sec. 12. Each licensee shall be liable for the payment of all checks which he sells, in whatever form and whether directly or through an agent, as the maker or drawer thereof according to the negotiable instrument laws of this state; and a licensee who sells a check, whether directly or through an agent, upon which he is not designated as maker or drawer shall nevertheless have the same liabilities with respect thereto as if he had signed same as the drawer thereof.

Disclosure of Responsibility

Sec. 13. Every check sold by a licensee, directly or through an agent, shall bear the name of the licensee clearly imprinted thereon.

Revocation of License; Investigations

Sec. 14. The Commissioner may revoke a license on any ground on which he may refuse to grant a license or for violation of any provision of this Act. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Commissioner, if he has reasonable cause to believe that the grounds for revocation exist, may investigate the business, books and records of the licensee.

Hearings

Sec. 15. No license shall be denied or revoked except after a hearing thereon. The Commissioner shall give the applicant or licensee at least twenty (20) days written notice of the time and place of such hearing by registered or certified mail addressed to the principal place of business of such applicant or licensee. Any order of the Commissioner denying or revoking such license shall state the grounds upon which it is based and shall not be effective until twenty (20) days after written notice thereof has been sent by registered or certified mail to the applicant or licensee at such principal place of business.

Penalties

Sec. 16. Any person who directly or through another violates or attempts to violate any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ninety (90) days, or both. Each transaction in violation of this Act and each day that a violation continues shall be a separate offense.

Severability

Sec. 17. Should any provision, sentence, clause, Section or part of this Act for any reason be held unconstitutional, illegal or invalid, such unconstitutionality, illegality, or invalidity shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, Sections or parts of this Act. It is hereby declared to be the intention of this Legislature that this Act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional, illegal or invalid sentence, clause, Section or part thereof not been included herein.

PREPAID FUNERAL SERVICES OR MERCHANDISE

Art. 548b. Sale of Prepaid Funeral Services or Funeral Merchandise

Permit from State Banking Department Authorizing Transaction of Business

Sec. 1. Any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association (hereinafter called "organization" or "seller") desiring to sell prearranged or prepaid funeral services or funeral merchandise (including caskets, grave vaults, and all other articles of merchandise incidental to a funeral service, but excluding grave lots, grave spaces, grave markers, monuments, tombstones, crypts, niches, and mausoleums), or accepting funds for such services or merchandise, in this state, under any contract, expressed or implied, providing for prepaid burial or funeral benefits or merchandise (hereinafter called "prepaid funeral benefits"), or who shall solicit the designations by an individual of the items of funeral merchandise or services which he desires to be provided out of any fund, investment, security, or contract to be created or purchased by such individual at the suggestion or solicitation of the organization shall obtain a permit from the State Banking Department (hereinafter called Department) of this state authorizing the transaction of this type of business, before conducting such business. Seller shall not be entitled to enforce a contract made in violation of this Act, but the purchaser or his heirs, or legal representative, shall be entitled to recover all amounts paid to the seller under any contract made in violation thereof, and all amounts paid whether or not paid seller, to any fund or for any investment, security, or contract where the seller has violated the provisions of this Act. Delivery of funeral merchandise prior to death shall not constitute performance or fulfillment, either wholly or in part, of any prepaid funeral benefits contract entered into after the effective date of this amendatory Act.

Provided, however, that grave lots, grave spaces, grave markers, monuments, tombstones, crypts, niches, and mausoleums shall not be excluded from the provisions of this Section when these items and articles are sold in contemplation of trade or barter for services and articles designated as included by the provisions of this Section.

Solicitation of Designation of Funeral Services or Merchandise Without Approval of Fund, Investment, Security or Contract

Sec. 1a. No organization covered by this Act shall solicit by any means whatsoever the designation by an individual of funeral services or merchandise which he desires to be provided to be paid out of any fund, investment, security, or contract, to be created or purchased by or for such an individual at the suggestion or solicitation of the organization, unless such a fund is to be created by a contract of insurance with an insurance company licensed in Texas, or unless such fund, investment, security, or contract shall have been approved by the Department as safeguarding the rights and interests of the individual, his heirs and assigns, to substantially the same or greater degree as is provided with respect to funds regulated by Section 5 hereof. Provided, however, that the Department may require evidence of payment of premiums on any contract of insurance used to create a fund to guarantee prepaid funeral benefits. Any seller failing to provide such evidence to the Department after being so requested by written notice shall be subject to cancellation of its permit under the provisions of Section 4 of this Act.

Administration of Act by Banking Department;
Rules and Regulations; Contracts

Sec. 2. This law shall be administered by the State Banking Department. The Department is authorized to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations concerning the keeping and inspection of records, the filing of contracts and reports, and all other matters incidental to the orderly administration of this law; and the Department may approve forms for sales contracts for prepaid funeral benefits. All such contracts must be in writing and no contract form shall be used without prior approval of the Department. All such contracts shall state the name of the funeral home or other organization primarily responsible for providing the funeral services or merchandise specified in such contracts. In the event the seller is not the funeral home designated to provide the specified funeral services or merchandise, such contract shall not be valid unless the funeral home so designated is a party to the contract and therein agrees and obligates itself to provide such specified funeral services or merchandise. It is further provided, that all prearranged or prepaid funeral contracts shall set forth the particulars of the funeral merchandise, including a description and specifications of the material used in the caskets or grave vaults to be furnished, and such contracts shall set forth the particulars of the professional services to be performed and the funeral home facilities to be provided.

Application for and Issuance of Permit; Filing Fees; Duration of Permit

Sec. 3. Each organization desiring to sell prepaid funeral benefits shall file an application for a permit with the Department and shall pay a filing fee of $50. The Banking Commissioner may issue a permit upon receipt of the application and payment of the filing fee. Permits shall expire on March 1st each year, but may be renewed for a period of one year upon payment of a fee of $40 on or before March 1st.

Cancellation of Permit; Refusal to Renew; Appeal

Sec. 4. The Department may cancel a permit or refuse to renew a permit for failure to comply with any provision of this Act or any valid rule or regulation which the Department has prescribed, after reasonable notice to the permittee and after a hearing if the permittee requests a hearing.

No organization shall be entitled to a new permit for a period of one year after cancellation or refusal by the Department to renew its permit, but shall thereafter be entitled to a new permit upon satisfactory proof of compliance with this law.

Any person aggrieved by the action of the Department may appeal therefrom to a District Court in Travis County, Texas.

Handling of Funds Paid or Collected Under Contract

Sec. 5. All sums heretofore or hereafter paid or collected on contracts for prepaid funeral benefits entered into prior to the effective date of this Act shall be handled in accordance with the manner in which they have heretofore been handled. All sums paid or collected on such contracts entered into after the effective date of this Act (with the exception of those paid where a contract of insurance is created or those approved by the Department, as both are provided for in Section 1a of this Act) shall be handled in the following manner:

(1) The funeral home (or other entity collecting said funds) may retain as its own money, for the purpose of covering its selling expenses, servicing costs, and general overhead, an amount not to exceed one-half of all funds so collected or paid until it has received for its use and benefit an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser of said prepaid funeral benefits as such total amount is reflected in the contract. No charges or assessments, except premiums collected on an insurance policy guaranteeing the payments on a prepaid funeral contract or the unpaid balance thereof, shall be collected from the purchaser other than those included in the total amount of said contract.

(2) All amounts paid or collected, with the exception of those permitted to be retained as set forth above, shall, within thirty days after such collection, be (a) deposited in a savings and loan association in this state, or (b) deposited in a state or national bank in this state, or (c) placed with the trust department in a state or national bank in this state to be invested by such trust department in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Texas Trust Act. Such deposits or trust accounts shall be carried in the name of the funeral home or other entity to whom the purchaser makes payment, but accounting records shall be maintained showing the amount deposited or invested with respect to any particular purchaser's contract.

(3) The date of death of the purchaser of such contract (or other individual who may be designated in the contract as the person for whose funeral such funds may be used) shall be the maturity date of the contract, and as soon as conveniently practicable after such maturity date and upon presentation of a certified copy of the death certificate of such person together with proper affidavits as may be required by the Department, such funds shall be released in fulfillment of the contract, and the funeral home (or other entity to the contract which has collected the funds) shall, if the amount so withdrawn does not equal one hundred percent of the total amount paid under such contract, make up the difference so that the amount available for funeral benefits shall equal one hundred percent of the total amount paid in under such contract. Any amounts accumulated at maturity on any particular contract in excess of one hundred percent of the amount paid in on such contract shall be available to the funeral home (or other entity collecting said funds) in making up the difference on any particular contract which at maturity did not have funds available equal to one hundred percent of the amount paid under such contract.

The seller may withdraw at any time funds out of accrued interest or income of the deposit accounts or trust accounts for the purpose of paying reasonable and necessary charges made by a savings and loan association, or bank, or trust department of a bank, and trustee's fees made by a savings and loan association, or bank, or trust department of a bank, with respect to such accounts, or for the purpose of paying any taxes caused or created by reason of the existence of such deposit accounts or trust accounts.

Upon the maturity date of a contract as above provided and only after the funeral home has fully performed its obligations under said contract with the purchaser, or at the time of cancellation prior to maturity as provided in Subsection (4) herein, the seller may additionally withdraw from said deposit account (whether a trust or other funded account) any enhanced value, accrued interest, or accrued income of said contract. Such withdrawal shall be the proportionate part of the total enhanced value, accrued interest or accrued income, that the amount deposited under said contract bears to the total amount deposited from all unmatured contracts.

(4) In the event a purchaser under a contract should desire to cancel the contract prior to maturity, such cancellation may be accomplished by the purchaser giving fifteen days notice in writing to the Department and to the seller of the contract, and thereafter, upon written authorization from the Department, such purchaser may withdraw the funds in such depository being held for his use and benefit; provided, however, such purchaser shall be entitled to withdraw and receive only the actual amounts paid in by him less the amounts permitted to be retained as provided in Subsection (1) hereof. Purchaser may make no partial cancellations or withdrawals.

Agents Responsible for Funds Collected; Designation; Violation a Misdemeanor

Sec. 6. Each organization subject to this Act shall designate an agent or agents, either by names of the individuals or by titles of their offices or positions, who shall be responsible for deposit of funds collected under contracts for prepaid funeral benefits. The organization shall notify the Department of such designation within 10 days after it becomes subject to this Act, and shall also notify the Department of any change in such designation within 10 days after such change occurs. If any person acting on behalf of the seller collects any money under such a contract and fails to deliver it, within 30 days after collection, to a designated agent, or if any designated agent fails to deposit the money within 30 days after he receives it, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and a violation of this Act and shall be punished by those means prescribed in Section 9 of this Act.

Annual Report

Sec. 7. The Department may require an annual report from any permit holder in such form as the Department may require. Any organization which has discontinued the sale of prepaid funeral benefits but which still has outstanding contracts shall not be required to obtain a renewal of its permit, but the Department may require annual reports of said organization until all such contracts have been fully discharged. If any officer of any organization fails or refuses to file an annual report or to cause it to be filed within 30 days after he has been notified of the requirement by the Department, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and a violation of this Act and shall be punished by those means prescribed in Section 9 of this Act.

Records Required; Examination; Fee

Sec. 8. Each organization which has outstanding contracts for prepaid funeral benefits shall maintain within this state such records as the Department may require to enable it to determine whether the organization is complying with the provisions of this Act. Such records shall be subject to annual examination by the Department or its agent and to such additional examinations as it deems necessary. The organization shall pay for the cost of examination, including the salary and traveling expenses paid to the person making the examination during the time spent in making the examination and in traveling to and returning from the point where the records are kept, and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the examination. The Banking Commissioner or his agent shall assess and collect a fee in connection with each examination, based on the organization's total outstanding contracts, covering the cost of such examination, the equitable or proportionate cost of maintenance and operation of the Banking Department, and the enforcement of the provisions of this Act; but the cost to the organization shall not be more than a total cost of $500 for each examination. Those organizations with less than 50 contracts outstanding shall be assessed an examination fee of $50 plus one-fourth of one percent of the dollar amount of the organization's outstanding contract funds on deposit, in trust, or vested in any other program subject to this Act. Those organizations with 50 or more contracts outstanding shall be assessed an examination fee of $100 plus one-fourth of one percent of the dollar amount of the organization's outstanding contract funds on deposit, in trust, or vested in any other program subject to this Act.

Violation of Act; Punishment

Sec. 9. Any officer, director, agent, or employee of any organization subject to the terms of this Act who makes or attempts to make any contract in violation of this Act, or who refuses to allow an inspection of the organization's records, or who violates any other provision of this Act, or who is guilty of fraud, deception, misrepresentation or any other dishonest practice in sale of any contract subject to this Act, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month and not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each violation of any provision of this Act shall be deemed a separate offense and prosecuted individually.

The Department may bring each such violation of this Act to the attention of the Attorney General of this state and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to institute suit in the name of the State of Texas against such violator in any county in this state where such violation might occur.

In addition to the misdemeanor penalties prescribed above, the Attorney General shall have the power and authority to institute quo warranto proceedings in a District Court of Travis County, Texas to forfeit the charter and right to do business of a corporation whose officer, director, agent or employee refuses or fails to correct a violation of this Act after such violation has been called to the attention of said officer, director, agent or employee by the Department or the Attorney General. A period of 30 days shall be considered sufficient time to correct such violation after notice from the Department or Attorney General.

Fees, Penalties and Revenues; Disposition

Sec. 10. All fees, penalties and revenues collected by the department shall be paid to the State Treasury, placed in the prepaid funeral account fund and shall be expended as authorized by legislative appropriation.

Applicability to Insurance Code and Group Term Life Insurance

Sec. 10a. Nothing in this Act shall alter or affect any provisions of the Insurance Code of the State of Texas; provided however, that purchasers of contracts for prepaid funeral benefits from the same seller of such contracts shall constitute a lawful group for the issuance of a group contract of decreasing term life insurance by a life insurance company authorized to do a life insurance business in the State of Texas. The amount of insurance relative to any particular purchaser shall at all times approximate the future unpaid balance of such contract for prepaid funeral benefits. The seller of prepaid funeral benefit contracts shall have an insurable interest in the life of any purchaser of such contract to the extent of any unpaid balance thereof, and the proceeds of any life insurance policy received by a seller of a prepaid funeral benefit contract on the life of a purchaser of such contract shall be applied to the reduction or elimination of any unpaid balance thereof. This section shall not be construed as having any effect on the funding of prepaid funeral benefits by other contracts of insurance as provided for in Section 1a of this Act.

Art. 565a. Apiary Equipment Brands

System of Registration; Serial Numbers;
Application for Brand; Fee

Sec. 1. (a) The Texas Department of Agriculture shall establish and maintain a system of registration of apiary equipment serial numbers, hereafter referred to as brands, to identify equipment used by beekeepers in their apiaries.

(b) A brand consists of three numbers separated by hyphens: the first number signifies that it is a state-registered brand; the second number identifies the registrant's county of residence; the third number identifies the registrant.

(c) The Texas Department of Agriculture shall issue a brand to any person who applies for a brand and pays the recording fee of 50 cents.

Affixing Brand

Sec. 2. The beekeeper shall affix the brand to his apiary equipment by burning or pressing the number, in figures at least one inch high, into the wood or other material in such manner as to show identification. The location of the brand on all hives shall be on either or both ends, even with the handhold; other equipment, such as frames, intercovers, tops, bottoms, and planks may be branded with the same brand in any place.

Transfer of Brands; Sale of Equipment

Sec. 3. A brand may be transferred only with the permission of the Texas Department of Agriculture and then only if the transferor is selling all his bees and equipment to the person to whom the brand is transferred. The seller shall give a bill of sale for all bees and equipment, setting forth the brand number in the bill of sale. Sale of separate branded equipment is permissible, but the brand itself is not transferable except as provided for in this section. If the buyer of the branded equipment has his own brand number, he shall place his brand below the brand of the prior owner.

Tampering with Registered Brand; Penalty

Sec. 4. No unauthorized person may tamper with a registered apiary equipment brand. A person who violates this prohibition is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $200 or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 30 days or both. Unauthorized possession of equipment on which the brand has been tampered with, possession of branded equipment without a bill of sale or written proof of ownership, or the use of a registered brand not issued to the one using it is prima facie evidence that the possessor or user has violated the prohibition of this section.

However, the latter Act specifically provided that the repeal did not affect the prior operation of the 1965 Act or any prior action taken under it.

Upon the expiration of these initial terms, the term of each member shall be six (6) years from the time of his appointment and qualification, and

The same requirement is made of the Deputy Securities Commissioner, and the Securities Commissioner may require any or all of his staff and employees to be likewise bonded. The expense of all such bonds may be paid by the state.

E. The Board, with the advice of the Commissioner, shall report annually in November to the Governor as to its administration of this Act, as well as plans and needs for future securities regulation.

² Article 581-6.

B. Registration by Notification.

(1) Securities may be registered by notification under this subsection B if they are issued by an issuer which has been in continuous operation for not less than three (3) years and which has shown, during the period of not less than three (3) years next prior to the date of registration under this section, average annual net earnings after deducting all prior charges including income taxes except charges upon securities to be retired out of the proceeds of sale, as follows:

a. In the case of interest-bearing securities, not less than one and one-half times the annual interest charges on such securities and on all other outstanding interest-bearing securities of equal rank;

b. In the case of securities having a specified dividend rate, not less than one and one-half times the annual dividend requirements on such securities and on all outstanding securities of equal rank;

c. In the case of securities wherein no dividend rate is specified, not less than five per cent (5%) on all outstanding securities of equal rank, together with the amount of such securities then offered for sale, based upon the maximum price at which such securities are to be offered for sale. The ownership by an issuer of more than fifty per cent (50%) of the outstanding voting stock of a corporation shall be construed as the proportionate ownership of such corporation and shall permit the inclusion of the earnings of such corporation applicable to the payment of dividends upon the stock so owned in the earnings of the issuer of the securities being registered by notification.

(2) Securities entitled to registration by notification shall be registered by the filing with the Commissioner by the issuer or by a registered dealer of a registration statement as required by subsection (a),

and completion of the procedures outlined in subsection b hereof:

a. A registration statement in a form prescribed by the Commissioner signed by the applicant filing such statement and containing the following information:

1. Name and business address of main office of issuer and address of issuer's principal office, if any, in this state;

2. Title of securities being registered and total amount of securities to be offered;

3. Price at which securities are to be offered for sale to the public, amount of securities to be offered in this state, and amount of registration fee, computed as hereinafter provided;

4. A brief statement of the facts which show that the securities are entitled to be registered by notification;

5. Name and business address of the applicant filing statement;

6. Financial statements to include a certified profit and loss statement, a certified balance sheet, and certified statements of surplus, each to be for a period of not less than three (3) years prior to the date of registration. These financial statements shall reflect the financial condition of the issuer as of a date not more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of such filing with the Commissioner;

7. A copy of the prospectus, if any, describing such securities;

8. Payment of a filing fee of Five Dollars (\$5.00) and a registration fee of one-tenth of one per cent ($\frac{1}{10}$ of 1%) of the aggregate amount of securities proposed to be sold in this state based upon the price at which such securities are to be offered to the public;

9. Filing of a consent to service of process conforming to the requirements of Section 8¹ of this Act, if the issuer is registering the securities and is not a resident of this state or is not incorporated under the laws of this state.

b. Such filing with the Commissioner shall constitute the registration of securities by notification and such registration shall become effective five (5) days after receipt of the registration statement and all accompanying papers by the Commissioner; provided that the Commissioner may in his discretion waive or reduce the five (5) days waiting period in any case where he finds no injury to the public will result therefrom. Upon such registration by notification, securities may be sold in this state by registered dealers and registered salesmen. Upon the receipt of a registration statement, prospectus, if any, payment of the filing fee and registration fee, and, if required, a consent to service of process, the Commissioner shall record the registration by notification of the securities described. Such registration shall be effective for a period of one (1) year and may be renewed for additional periods of one (1) year, if the securities are entitled to registration under this subsection at the time of renewal, by a new filing under this section together with the payment of the renewal fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00).

c. If at any time, before or after registration of securities under this section, in the opinion of the Commissioner the information in a registration statement filed with him is insufficient to establish the fact that the securities described therein are, or were, entitled to registration by notification under this section, or that the registration information contains, or contained, false, misleading or fraudulent facts, he may order the applicant who filed such statement to cease and desist from selling, or offering for sale, such securities registered, or proposed to be registered, under provisions of this section, until there is filed with the Commissioner such further information as may in his judgment be necessary to establish the fact that such securities are, or were, entitled to registration under this section. The provisions of Section 24² of this Act as to hearing shall be applicable to an order issued hereunder.

C. Registration by Coordination.

(1) Any security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended,³ in connection with the same offering, may be registered by coordination. A registration statement under this section shall be filed with the Commissioner by the issuer or any registered dealer and shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents:

a. Three copies of the prospectus filed under the Federal Securities Act together with all amendments thereto;

b. The amount of securities to be offered in this state;

c. The states in which a registration statement or similar document in connection with the offering has been or is expected to be filed;

d. Any adverse order, judgment or decree previously entered in connection with the offering by any court or the Securities and Exchange Commission;

e. A copy of the articles of incorporation and by-laws (or their substantial equivalents) currently in effect, a copy of any agreements with or among underwriters, a copy of any indenture or other instrument governing the issuance of the security to be registered, and a specimen or copy of the security;

f. If the Commissioner requests any other information, or copies of any other documents, filed under the Federal Securities Act of 1933;

g. An undertaking to forward promptly all amendments to the federal registration statement, other than an amendment which merely delays the effective date;

h. Payment of a filing fee of Five Dollars (\$5.00) and a registration fee of one-tenth of one per cent ($\frac{1}{10}$ of 1%) of the aggregate amount of securities proposed to be sold in this state based upon the price at which such securities are to be offered to the public; and

i. If the registration statement is filed by the issuer, or by a dealer who will offer such securities for sale as the agent of the issuer, and the issuer is not a resident of this state or is not incorporated under the laws of this state, a consent to service of process conforming to the requirements of Section 8.

(2) Upon receipt of a registration statement under this section the Commissioner shall examine such registration statement and he may enter an order denying registration of the securities described therein if he finds that the registrant has not proven the proposed plan of business of the issuer to be fair, just and equitable, and also that any consideration paid, or to be paid, for such securities by promoters is fair, just and equitable when such consideration for such securities is less than the proposed offering price to the public, and that the securities which it proposes to issue and the methods to be used by it in issuing and disposing of the same will be such as will not work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof. If the Commissioner enters an order denying the registration of securities under this section, he shall notify the registrant immediately. The provisions of Section 24 of this Act as to hearing shall be applicable to an order issued hereunder. A registration statement under this section automatically becomes effective at the moment the federal registration statement becomes effective if all the following conditions are satisfied:

a. No order has been entered by the Commissioner denying registration of the securities;

b. The registration statement has been on file with the Commissioner for at least ten (10) days; and

c. A statement of the maximum and minimum proposed offering prices and the maximum underwriting discounts and commissions has been on file for two full business days or such shorter period as the Commissioner expressly permits and the offering is made within those limitations. The registrant shall promptly notify the Commissioner by telephone or telegram of the date and time when the federal registration statement became effective and the content of the price amendment, if any, and shall promptly file a post-effective amendment containing the information and documents in the price amendment. "Price amendment" means the final federal amendment which includes a statement of the offering price, underwriting and selling discounts or commissions, amount of proceeds, conversion rates, call prices, and other matters dependent upon the offering price.

Upon failure to receive the required notification and post-effective amendment with respect to the price amendment, the Commissioner may enter a stop order, without notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with this subsection, if he promptly notifies the registrant by telephone or telegram (and promptly confirms by letter or telegram when he notifies by telephone) of the issuance of the order. If the registrant proves compliance with the requirements of this subsection as to notice and post-effective amendment, the stop order is void as of the time of its entry. The Commissioner may waive either or both of the conditions specified in clauses b and c. If the federal registration statement becomes effective before all these conditions are satisfied and they are not waived, the registration statement automatically becomes effective as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the registrant advises the Commissioner of the date when the federal registration statement is expected to become effective the Commissioner shall promptly advise the registrant by telephone or telegram, at the registrant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether he then contemplates the issuance of an order denying registration; but this advice by the Commissioner does not preclude the issuance of such an order at any time.

(3) Registration of securities under this subsection shall be effective for a period of one (1) year and may be renewed for additional periods of one (1) year, if a renewal fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) is paid, and if the securities are entitled to registration at the time of renewal by the same standards of fairness, justice and equity as prescribed by this subsection for original approval.

D. Termination Of Fiscal Year; Certification Of Statements.

If the fiscal year of the issuer terminated on a date more than 90 days prior to the date of the filing, then the financial statements required in Subsections A and B of this Section 7, which must be as of a date not more than 90 days prior to the date of filing, need not be certified by an independent certified public or independent public accountant if there are filed in addition thereto financial statements containing the information required by the applicable subdivision which are certified by an independent certified public or independent public accountant as of the end of the preceding fiscal year of the issuer.

Art. 581-8. Consent to Service and Certificate of Good Standing

If the application for a permit to sell securities be filed by an issuer, or by a dealer who will offer such securities for sale as the agent of the issuer, and the issuer is organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or government, or domiciled in any other state than Texas, such application shall also contain a certificate executed by the proper officer of such state, territory or government dated not more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of filing of the application showing that such issuer is authorized to transact business in such state, territory or government, and is not delinquent in any taxes or assessments required to be paid to such state, territory or government. Such application shall also contain a written instrument duly executed by an executive officer of such issuer, under proper resolution of its board of directors, and authenticated and attested by the seal of said issuer, appointing the Commissioner irrevocably its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process in any action or proceedings against such issuer arising out of any transaction subject to this Act may be served with the same effect as if such issuer were organized or created under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner, whenever he shall have been served with any process as is herein provided, to forward same by United States mail to the home office of such issuer.

Art. 581-9. Protection to Purchasers of Securities

A. In the event any company, as defined herein, shall sell, or offer for sale, any securities, as defined in this Act, the Commissioner, if he deems it necessary to protect the interests of prospective purchasers of such securities, may require the company so offering such securities for sale to deposit all, or any part, of the proposed securities, or all, or any part, of the moneys and funds received from the sale thereof, except such amounts thereof as the Commissioner deems necessary to be used, and not to exceed the amount allowed as expenses and commissions for the sale of such securities, to be deposited in a trust account in some bank or trust company approved by the Commissioner and doing business in the State of Texas, until such time as such proposed company or existing company shall have sold a specified monetary amount or number of shares of such securities as in his opinion will reasonably assure protection of the public. When the Commissioner makes a written finding that the terms of the escrow agreement have been fully met, the bank or trust company shall transfer such funds to the proposed or existing corporation and its executive officers for the purpose of permitting it to use such securities or money in its business. In the event such proposed or existing company shall fail within two (2) years to sell the minimum amount of capital necessary under the escrow agreement, the Commissioner may authorize, and the bank or trust company shall return to the subscribers, upon receipt of such authority from the Commissioner, that portion of the funds which were deposited or escrowed under such escrow agreement; provided, however, that any securities held by such bank or trust company under the escrow agreement shall be returned to the corporation only after the bank or trust company has received evidence of cancellation thereof from the issuer. At the time of making the deposits, as herein provided for, the dealer or issuer shall furnish to such bank or trust company, and to the Commissioner, the names of the persons purchasing or subscribing for such securities, and the amount of money paid in by each.

B. The total expenses for marketing securities, including all commissions for the sale of such securities, and all other incidental selling expenses, shall not in the aggregate exceed twenty per cent (20%) of the price at which the stock or other securities of any proposed or existing company are to be sold, or offered for sale, to the public of this State; and this amount may be limited by the Commissioner to a less percentage which is in his opinion fair, just and equitable under the facts of the particular case.

C. In connection with any permit to sell securities the Commissioner shall require all offers for sale of said securities to be made through and by prospectus which fairly discloses the material facts about the plan of finance and business. Said prospectus shall be filed with and approved by the Commissioner; provided, however, if the applicant files a prospectus or offering circular with the Commissioner which is also filed with the S. E. C. under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the regulations thereunder, this subsection shall in all respects be satisfied. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be treated as a violation of this Act, subjecting the parties responsible to the consequences thereof as provided herein.

Art. 581-10. Examination of Application; Permit

A. Commissioner to Examine Application; Grant or Deny.

Upon the filing of an application for qualifying securities under Section 7A,¹ it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to examine the same and the papers and documents filed therewith. If he finds that the proposed plan of business of the applicant appears to be fair, just and equitable, and also that any consideration paid, or to be paid, for such securities by promoters is fair, just and equitable when such consideration for such securities is less than the proposed offering price to the public, and that the securities which it proposes to issue and the methods to be used by it in issuing and disposing of the same are not such as will work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to issue and dispose of such securities. Should the Commissioner find that the proposed plan of business of the applicant appears to be unfair, unjust or inequitable, he shall deny the application for a permit and notify the applicant in writing of his decision.

B. Permit, Form and Contents; Term and Renewals.

Every permit qualifying securities shall be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe, and shall recite in bold type that the issuance thereof is permissive only, and does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the securities permitted to be issued. Such permit shall be for a period of one (1) year; provided, however, that if the securities authorized to be sold are not sold within the term provided by the permit, a renewal application may be filed with the Commissioner. Such renewal application shall recite the total number of shares sold in Texas, the total number of shares sold elsewhere, total number of shares outstanding, and shall contain a detailed balance sheet, an operating statement, and such other information as the Commissioner may require. The Commissioner shall examine applications for renewal by the same standards as stated in subsection A of this section for original applications and upon that basis issue or deny renewal permits; such permits, if issued, shall be for a period of one (1) year and be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe. The Commissioner shall charge such fees for the issuance of permits to sell securities as are hereinafter provided. No permit instrument need be issued if securities are registered under Sections 7B or C of this Act, but the Commissioner will examine the registration papers to determine their sufficiency under the requirements there stated.

C. Use of Permit to Aid Sale of Securities Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any dealer or issuer, agent or salesman, to use a permit authorizing the issuance of securities in connection with any sale or effort to sell any security.

Art. 581-11. Papers Filed with Commissioner; Records Open to Inspection

All information, papers, documents, instruments and affidavits required by this Act to be filed with the Commissioner shall be deemed public records of this state, and shall be open to the inspection and examination of any purchaser or prospective purchaser of said securities or the agent or representative of such purchaser or prospective purchaser; and the Commissioner shall give out to any such purchaser or prospective purchaser or his agent or representative any information required to be filed with him under the provisions of this section, or any other part of this Act, and shall furnish any such purchaser, prospective purchaser, or his agent or representative requesting it, certified copies of any and all papers, documents, instruments and affidavits filed with him under the provisions of this section or of any part of this Act. Provided, however, this provision shall not apply to the information supplied by dealers or salesmen under Sections 13 and 18¹ in response to requirements for licenses to sell securities, which shall be confidential except for the courts or governmental agencies in the performance of official duties. But the Commissioner shall maintain a record, which shall be open for public inspection, upon which shall be entered the names and addresses of all registered dealers and salesmen and all orders of the Commissioner denying, suspending or revoking registration.

C. Each application shall be accompanied by certificates or other evidences satisfactory to the Commissioner establishing the good reputation of the applicant, his directors, officers, copartners or principals.

D. The Commissioner shall require as a condition of registration for all registrations granted after the effective date of this Subsection D that the applicant (and, in the case of a corporation or partnership, the officers, directors or partners to be licensed by the applicant) pass successfully a written examination to determine the applicant's qualifications and competency to engage in the business of dealing in and selling securities as a dealer or as a salesman, or rendering services as an investment adviser. This condition may be waived as to any applicant or class of applicants by action of the State Securities Board.

E. If the applicant is a corporation organized under the laws of any other state or territory or government or shall have its principal place of business therein, it shall accompany the application with a copy of its Articles of Incorporation and all amendments thereto, certified by the proper officer of such state or government or of the corporation, and its regulations and by laws.

A. B. After a securities permit is issued by the Commissioner, or registration with the Commissioner is completed under Sections 7B or C,³ any advertising may be issued, distributed, or published, until notice to cease publication has been given under Section 23:⁴

(1) If such person, company, dealer, agent or salesman shall have been registered as in this Act provided; and

(2) If such securities shall have been qualified under a securities permit granted by the Commissioner, or shall have been registered under Sections 7B or C, as in this Act provided; and

THE SECURITIES HEREIN DESCRIBED HAVE NOT BEEN QUALIFIED OR REGISTERED FOR SALE IN TEXAS. ANY REPRESENTATIONS TO THE CONTRARY, OR SALE OF THESE SECURITIES IN TEXAS PRIOR TO QUALIFICATION OR REGISTRATION THEREOF, IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

If any advertising matter used under this subsection D does not bear the above legend, or if such information is televised, broadcast over radio, or printed in a newspaper, prior to issue of a permit, or prior to completion of registration by notification or coordination, or if a copy is not first sent to the Commissioner, such use is declared unlawful and shall be deemed a sale punishable under the penalties set out in Section 29 of this Act.

Art. 581-23. List of Securities Filed With the Commissioner on Request, Notice and Hearing as to Securities Questioned by Commissioner

Anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding,

A. If it appears to the commissioner at any time that the sale or proposed sale or method of sale of any securities, whether exempt or not, would not be in compliance with this Act or would tend to work a fraud on any purchaser thereof or would not be fair, just or equitable to any purchaser thereof, the commissioner may, after notice to the issuer, the registrant and the person on whose behalf such securities are being or are to be offered, by personal service or the sending of a confirmed telegraphic notice, and after opportunity for a hearing (at a time fixed by the commissioner) within 15 days after such notice by personal service or the sending of such telegraphic notice, if the commissioner shall determine at such hearing that such sale would not be in compliance with the Act or would tend to work a fraud on any purchaser thereof or would not be fair, just or equitable to any purchaser thereof, issue a written cease and desist order, prohibiting or suspending the sale of such securities or denying or revoking the registration of such securities. No dealer, agent or salesman shall thereafter knowingly sell or offer for sale any security named in such cease and desist order.

B. No dealer, agent or salesman shall publish within this state or use in connection with any sale or offer of sale any circular, advertisement, prospectus, program or other matter in the nature thereof, after notice in writing has been given him by the commissioner that, in the commissioner's opinion, the same contains any statement that is false or misleading or otherwise likely to deceive a reader thereof.

C. The commissioner may, in the exercise of reasonable discretion hereunder, at any time, require a dealer to file with the commissioner a list of securities which he has offered for sale or has advertised for sale within this state during the preceding six months, or which he is at the time offering for sale or advertising, or any portion thereof.

Art. 581-24. Hearings by Commissioner Upon Notice, Upon Exception by Any Party at Interest, to Actions of Commissioner

If any person or company should take exception to the action of the Commissioner under Section 10¹ in failing or refusing to issue a permit for the sale of securities under Sections 15 or 18,² in failing or refusing to register and issue certificate for a dealer or salesman, under Section 23³ in issuing an order against the sale of securities or the use of materials therein, or in any other particular where this Act specifies no other procedure, the complaining party may request a hearing before the Commissioner. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of such request, the hearing must be held, except that the Commissioner may continue same on consent of the complaining party. The complaining party shall be given at least seven (7) days notice of the time and date of such hearing. After fair hearing, the Commissioner shall issue a written order or decision, upholding, amending, extending, or reversing the previous action, and stating reasons therefor.

Art. 581-25. Revocation of Registration of any Dealer or Agent or Salesman of any Dealer, Upon Hearing after Notice

If the Commissioner at any time has reason to believe any dealer or salesman has in any way violated, or is violating or about to violate any of the provisions of this Act, or has been guilty of any fraud or fraudulent practice, or has failed to meet the requirements of Section 14,¹ then the Commissioner may, after hearing, and having reasonable cause to believe the dealer or salesman has been guilty of such offense or failed in such respect, revoke the registration of said dealer or salesman. Notice of the time and place of any such hearing shall be sent to such dealer or salesman at least seven (7) days prior thereto. The dealer or salesman shall not be regarded as registered under the provisions hereof until restored to registration by the Commissioner, either on the Commissioner's own initiative or upon the order of the court, as in this Act hereinafter provided. The revocation of the dealer's registration shall constitute a revocation of the registration of any agent or salesman of the dealer and notice of its operation on such agent or salesman shall be forthwith sent by the Commissioner to each of such agents or salesmen. All registrations revoked shall at once be surrendered to the Commissioner upon request.

Art. 581-26. Notices by Registered Mail

Any notice required by this Act shall be sufficient if sent by registered or certified mail unless otherwise specified in this Act, addressed to the dealer, agent or salesman, as the case may be, at the address designated in the application for registration. All testimony taken at any hearing before the Commissioner shall be reported stenographically and a full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings had before the Commissioner on any hearing or investigation.

Art. 581-27. Petition to District Court of Travis County on Complaint of Decision of Commissioner

Any dealer, salesman or applicant aggrieved by any decision of the Commissioner may file within thirty (30) days thereafter in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, a petition against the Commissioner, officially as defendant, alleging therein in brief detail the action and decision complained of. Upon service of a summons upon the Commissioner, returnable within ten (10) days from its date, the Commissioner shall, on or before the return day, file an answer in which he shall allege, by way of defense, the grounds for his decision. The Commissioner shall also, on or before the return day of such summons, certify to said District Court the record of the proceedings to which the petition refers. Such record shall include the testimony taken therein, the finding of fact, if any, of the Commissioner based upon such testimony, a copy of all orders made by the Commissioner in the proceedings, and a copy of the action or decision of the Commissioner which the petition calls upon the court to reverse. The cost of preparing and certifying such record shall be paid to the Commissioner by the petitioner and taxed as a part of the cost in the case, to be paid as directed by the court upon the final determination of the case.

All appeals to the District Court shall be tried by such court as a trial de novo as that term is used in an appeal from Justice of the Peace Court to a County Court, as if there had been no previous determination or hearing on the matters in controversy, and under no circumstances shall the substantial evidence rule as interpreted by the courts of Texas ever be applied to appeals taken under this Act.

From the decision of the District Court an appeal may be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals by either party as in other cases, and no bond shall be required by the Commissioner.

A judgment sustaining the refusal of the Commissioner to grant or renew a registration as a dealer or as an agent or salesman of any dealer, shall not bar, after one (1) year, a new application by the plaintiff for registration, nor shall a judgment in favor of the plaintiff prevent the Commissioner from thereafter revoking or refusing to renew such registration for any proper cause which may thereafter accrue or be discovered. The court shall have full power to dispose of all costs.

Art. 581-28. Subpoenas or Other Process in Investigations by Commissioner

The Commissioner may require, by subpoena or summons issued by the Commissioner, addressed to the sheriff or any constable, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any books, accounts, records, papers and correspondence or other records or indices showing the names and addresses of the stockholders (except such books of account as are necessary to the continued conduct of the business, which books the Commissioner shall have the right to examine or cause to be examined at the office of the concern and to require copies of such portion thereof as may be deemed necessary touching the matter in question, which copies shall be verified by affidavit of an officer of such concern and shall be admissible in evidence as provided in Section 30 hereof),¹ relating to any matter which the Commissioner has authority by this Act to consider or investigate, and for this purpose the Commissioner may sign subpoenas, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses and receive evidence; provided, however, that all information of every kind and nature contained therein shall be treated as confidential by the Commissioner and shall not be disclosed to the public except under order of court; but nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prohibit or limit the publication of rulings or decisions of the Commissioner nor shall this limitation apply to hearings provided for in Sections 24 and 25 of this Act.² In case of disobedience of any subpoena, or of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the Commissioner, the Commissioner may invoke the aid of the District Court within whose jurisdiction any witness may be found, and such court may thereupon issue an order requiring the person subpoenaed to obey the subpoena or give evidence, or produce books, accounts, records, papers, and correspondence touching the matter in question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as contempt thereof.

In the course of an investigation looking to the enforcement of this Act, or in connection with the application of a person or company for registration or to qualify securities, the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner shall have free access to all records of the Board of Insurance Commissioners, including company examination reports to the Board and reports of special investigations made by personnel of the Board, as well as records and reports of and to any other department or agency of the state government. In the event, however, that the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner should give out any information which the law makes confidential, the affected corporation, firm or person shall have a right of action on the official bond of the Commissioner or Deputy for his injuries, in a suit brought in the name of the state at the relation of the injured party.

The Commissioner may in any investigation cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed for depositions in civil actions under the laws of Texas.

Each witness required to attend before the Commissioner shall receive, for each day's attendance, the sum of Two Dollars ($2.00), and shall receive in addition the sum of Ten Cents (10¢) for each mile traveled by such witness by the usual route going to and returning from the place where his presence is required. All disbursements made in the payment of such fees shall be included in and paid in the same manner as is provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration and enforcement of this Act as hereinafter provided.

The fee for serving the subpoena shall be the same as those paid the sheriff for similar services. The fees, expenses and costs incurred at or in connection with any hearing may be imposed by the Commissioner upon any party to the record, or may be divided between any and all parties to the record in such proportions as the Commissioner may determine.

Art. 581-33. Civil Liabilities

A. Any person who

(1) Offers or sells a security in violation of Sections 7, 9¹ (or any requirement of the Commissioner thereunder), 12, 23B or any order under 23A of this Act,² or

(2) Offers or sells a security (whether or not the security or transaction is exempt under Section 5 or 6 of this Act)³ by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made not misleading (when the person buying the security does not know of the untruth or omission, and who in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the untruth or omission) is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at six per cent (6%) per year from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security upon the tender of the security, or for damages if he no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less (a) the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it and (b) interest at six per cent (6%) per year on such value from the date of disposition. Nothing herein shall prevent the award of punitive or exemplary damages in an amount not to exceed twice the actual damages, as found by the jury, when such false representation or omission is proven to be willfully made.

B. Every cause of action under this Act survives the death of any person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

C. No person may sue under Subsection A(1) of this Section 33 more than three (3) years after the contract of sale. No person may sue under said Subsection A(1) if the buyer received a written offer accompanied by reasonable financial information before suit and at a time when he owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at six per cent (6%) per year from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security, and he failed to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt; or if the buyer received such an offer in the amount specified above less the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it, and less interest at six per cent (6%) per year on such value from date of disposition, before suit and at a time when he did not own the security, unless he rejected the offer in writing within thirty (30) days of its receipt. In connection with any such offer, the seller shall deposit funds in escrow in a state or national bank doing business in the State of Texas, or receive an unqualified commitment from such bank to furnish funds, sufficient to provide for the refund on all securities covered by the offer. The notice accompanying such offer shall state (1) the name of such bank where the refund may be obtained upon surrender of the security, or if the buyer has disposed of such security upon satisfactory proof of such disposition and of the value received therefor, and (2) that buyer, upon receipt of the refund, may not sue to recover the consideration paid plus interest or for damages under Subsection A(1) of this Section 33, and (3) that the buyer, in the event of failure to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt, may not sue to recover the consideration paid plus interest or for damages under Subsection A(1) of this Section 33. No person may sue under Subsection A(2) more than three (3) years after the contract of sale or more than three (3) years after the buyer in the exercise of ordinary care should have discovered that such sale was made in violation of said Subsection A(2). Nothing in this Subsection C shall affect or restrict the periods of limitation or other rights applicable to causes of action based on fraud brought pursuant to Article 4004 of the Revised Civil Statutes.

D. No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this Act or any rule or order or requirement hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any such contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract.

E. Any condition, stipulation or provision binding any person acquiring any security to waive compliance with any provision of this Act or any rule or order or requirement hereunder is void.

F. The rights and remedies provided by this Act are in addition to any other rights or remedies that may exist at law or in equity.

All motor vehicles including buses and bus bodies, tires and tubes, purchased for or by any school district receiving aid under the terms of any equalization act which seeks to equalize educational advantages, shall be purchased by and through the Board of Control. Such motor vehicles, including buses and bus bodies, tires and tubes, shall be purchased on competitive bids under such rules and regulations as may be made by the Board of Control. Such purchases shall be made on requisition of any such school district. After such approval by the Board, above-mentioned, said warrants may be issued and sold by such districts at not less than their face value, and the proceeds thereof used to provide the Funds required for such purchase as herein provided. Full records of all warrants issued and sold shall be kept by the County Superintendent and reported to the Board of Control. Such warrants shall be entitled to first and prior payment out of any available Funds of such district as they become due. If such school district has an old bus or other equipment which is to be replaced by the purchases under the provisions of this Act, the Board shall investigate the proposed disposition of such old bus equipment and shall not approve the issuance of any warrants for the purpose of buying a new bus or equipment unless and until it is satisfied that such old bus or equipment, including buses, may be traded in upon the purchase of new equipment, as the Board of Control may provide.

In addition to the above, the provisions of this Section and Article shall apply to the purchase, if any, of all motor vehicles, buses, bus bodies, tires and tubes purchased in whole or in part with any Funds appropriated in any Act seeking to equalize educational advantages.

If the Board does not regard the purchase to be justified in the best interests of the state because of restrictive specifications or conditions, it shall report the reasons for its exceptions to the specifications or conditions to the agency and to the State Auditor before purchasing the supplies, materials, services or equipment.

Purchasing

Sec. 7. The Board may determine the purchasing methods to be used in buying any supplies, materials, services, and equipment. It may use, but is not limited to, the contract purchase procedure and open market purchase procedures set out in this Act. Use of the bidders list shall not be confined to contract purchases but it may be used by the Board as it may find desirable in making any purchase.

(c) Bid Deposits. When deemed necessary by the Board bid deposits in amounts to be set by the Board shall be prescribed in the public notices and the invitation to bid. The Board shall establish and maintain records of bid deposits and their disposition with the cooperation of the State Auditor, and upon the award of bids or rejection of all bids, bid deposits shall be returned to unsuccessful bidders making bid deposits. The Board may accept a bid

(10) The number and scope of conditions attached to the bid.

(f) Rejection of Bids. If a bid is submitted in which there is a material failure to comply with the specification requirements, such bid shall be rejected and the contract awarded to the bidder submitting the lowest and best bid conforming to the specifications, provided, however, the Board shall in any event have the authority to reject all bids or parts of bids when the interest of the state will be served thereby.

(g) Bid Record. When an award is made a statement of the basis for placing the order with the successful bidder shall be prepared by the purchasing division and filed with other papers relating to the transaction.

Any bond required under this subsection shall be conditioned that the bidder will faithfully execute the terms of the contract into which he has entered. Any bond required shall be filed with the Board and recoveries may be had thereon until it is exhausted.

If any using agency determines that any supplies, materials, services or equipment received do not meet specifications it shall promptly notify the Board in writing detailing the reasons why the supplies, materials, services, or equipment do not meet the specifications of the contract. The Board shall immediately determine whether or not the reported supplies, materials, services, or equipment meet specifications. The sole power to determine whether materials, supplies, services and equipment meet specifications shall rest with the Board. When the Board finds that contract specifications or conditions have not been complied with, it shall take action, with the assistance of the Attorney General, if necessary, against the defaulting contractor.

Art. 666. Salvage and Surplus Act of 1957

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Salvage and Surplus Act of 1957.

Purpose

Sec. 2. It is the purpose of this Act to save the state money and recover as much money as possible for the state by giving the Board of Control authority to implement the transfer and use the best means of sale and disposal of all serviceable state personal property no longer needed by state agencies, and authority to use the best means for the sale and disposal of all state-owned personal property that is depleted, worn out, damaged or consumed to the extent that it is no longer usable.

Definitions

Sec. 3. As used in this Act:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Control.

(b) "Comptroller" means the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

(c) "Auditor" means the State Auditor.

(d) "Property" means personal property, and does not mean real property, or any interest in real property. Personal property affixed to real property may be sold under this law if its removal and disposition is to carry out a lawful objective under this law or any other law.

(e) "Surplus property" means any personal property which is in excess of the needs of any state agency and which is not required for its foreseeable needs. Surplus property may be used or new, but possesses some usefulness for the purpose for which it was intended or for some other purpose.

(f) "Salvage property" means any personal property which through use, time, or accident is so depleted, worn out, damaged, used or consumed that it has no value for the purpose for which it was originally intended.

Surplus Property

Sec. 4. (a) All state agencies which determine that they have surplus property shall inform the Board of the kind, number, location, condition, and original cost or value and date of acquisition of the property. The Board may inform other state agencies of the existence, kind, number, location and condition of any surplus property. Any state agency when so informed may negotiate directly with the other agencies for an inter-agency transfer of the property but shall inform the Board of its interest in order that the property will not be sold or disposed of before a transfer may be made. If a transfer of surplus property is made the agencies taking part in the transfer shall mutually agree on the value of the transferred property and shall report the value to the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall credit and debit their respective appropriations and adjust the state inventory records to show the transfer if inventoried property is transferred. Transfers of surplus property shall be reported to the Board but the consent of the Board shall not be required for any transfer. After surplus property is reported to the Board it shall not be sold by the reporting agency unless written authority to sell is given by the Board.

(b) If no state agency desires to receive any property reported as surplus the Board shall dispose of the property and recover for the state the maximum money value possible. The Board may by rules and regulations establish procedures for the sale and disposition of surplus property, but shall always seek competitive bids in all sales. If the value of any property or lot of property is estimated to be over One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) the sale shall be advertised at least one time in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity where the property is located.

When the Board sells any surplus property it shall report the items sold and the sale price to the agency that declared such property as surplus.

(c) If the value of the property to be sold by the agency under this subsection is estimated to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) the sale shall be advertised by the agency at least one time in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity where the property is located.

(d) All agencies for whom surplus property is sold or who sell surplus property under authorization of the Board shall report the sale together with the prices realized to the Comptroller; and if the property is on the state inventory the Comptroller then shall be authorized to remove it from the inventory. Authorization by the Board shall not be required for the deletion of any surplus property except its own from the state inventory.

(e) The proceeds from the sale of any surplus property less the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited to the credit of the item of appropriation to the agency for whom the sale was made. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of any surplus property equal to the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the item of appropriation to the State Board of Control from which such cost was expended.

Salvage Property

Sec. 5. (a) All state agencies which determine that they have salvage property shall inform the Board of the kind, number, location, condition, original value, and date of acquisition of the salvage. The Board shall either:

(1) sell the salvage for all state agencies, or

(2) issue written permission to any agency to sell all or part of its salvage, or

(3) issue written permission to any agency to destroy salvage property if it is worthless and cannot be sold.

If the value of any salvage or lot of salvage offered for sale is estimated to be over One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) the sale shall be advertised at least once in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity where the salvage is located.

(b) The proceeds from the sale of any salvage property less the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited to the credit of the item of appropriation to the agency for whom the sale was made. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of any salvage property equal to the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the item of appropriation to the State Board of Control from which such cost was expended.

(c) If the Board cannot sell or dispose of any property reported to it as surplus or salvage it may order the property destroyed as worthless salvage and report the destruction to the declaring agency and to the Comptroller. All agencies for whom salvage property is sold or who sell salvage property under authorization of the Board or who destroy worthless salvage under authorization of the Board or for whom the Board has ordered destruction of property as worthless salvage shall report the items sold or destroyed and the prices realized, if any, to the Comptroller. A report of disposal of salvage by any of these methods shall authorize the Comptroller to then remove reported property from the state inventory if any reported items were on the state inventory. Authorization by the Board to delete salvage items not its own from the state inventory shall not be required. It is not the intention of this subsection to alter, enlarge or amend the law providing for the deletion from inventory upon the authorization of the Auditor of property that is missing from any agency.

(d) When the Board sells any surplus property it shall report the items sold and the sale price to the agency that declared such property as salvage.

Trade-in of Surplus or Salvage Property; Definitions; Exceptions; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 6. Any state agency may offer surplus or salvage property which has become unfit for use as a trade-in on new property of the same general type when such exchange is in the best interests of the state.

For purposes of this Act the terms "Surplus" and "Salvage" shall not apply to products and by-products of research, forestry, agricultural, livestock and industrial products in excess of that quantity required for consumption by the producing agency, such products being those of the University of Texas, the Texas A. & M. College System and the Texas Prison System, and/or other agencies of like character, and then only when such agencies have, on the effective date of this Act, a continuing and adequate system of marketing research and sales, the efficiency of which shall be certified to the Board of Control by the State Auditor. Provided, however, that the Board of Control shall be furnished by such agency with a copy of the rules and regulations and latest revisions thereof laid down by the policy making body of each agency or institution for the guidance and administration of the programs enumerated herein. And further provided that when requested by such agency or institution to do so, and under the terms and conditions set forth in Sections 4 and 5 above, the Board of Control will dispose of the said property as provided for in this Act.

Transfer or Sale of Surplus and Salvage Equipment or Material

Sec. 6a. (a) When a state agency reports to the Board of Control that it has surplus or salvage equipment or material, the Board shall inform other state agencies of the existence, kind, number, location and condition of the equipment or material and it shall maintain a mailing list, renewable annually, of county purchasing agents or other officers performing similar functions who have asked for information on such surplus or salvage equipment or material as the State may have available.

(b) The county purchasing agent or other officer shall notify the Board of Control within 30 days from the date of the notice of the Board of Control if he desires to negotiate for surplus or salvage equipment or material.

(c) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice of the Board of Control, and if the Board of Control determines that the equipment or material will not satisfy a state need, the Board may authorize the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material or equipment to any county which has expressed a desire to negotiate.

(d) The Board of Control shall adopt rules and regulations to govern occasions when more than one county expresses a desire to negotiate for the same surplus or salvage material or equipment. The Board may adopt other necessary rules and regulations to govern the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material and equipment to counties.

(e) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice from the Board of control and no county has expressed a desire to negotiate, or if a county or counties have expressed a desire to negotiate but are unable to negotiate a sale or transfer of the equipment or material within 40 days from the date of the notice from the Board of Control, the Board may offer the equipment or material to the organization known as the Texas Partners of the Alliance, a registered agency with the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, with the approval of the Partners of the Alliance office of the Agency for International Development. The equipment or material shall be offered at its fair market value as determined by mutual agreement between the Board of Control and the Texas Partners of the Alliance.

(f) If the Texas Partners of the Alliance do not accept the offer within 60 days, or if the Board of Control and the Texas Partners of the Alliance cannot agree on the fair market value of the equipment or material, the Board shall sell or dispose of the material as otherwise provided by this Act.

Continuing Service

Sec. 7. The Board shall at all times try to realize the maximum return to the state in the sale and disposal of salvage and surplus. It shall maintain a list of prospective buyers of salvage and surplus and it may in all cases reject any or all offers if it finds rejection to be in the best interests of the state. It shall cooperate with all state agencies in a continuing program of salvage and surplus evaluation to minimize losses from accumulations and it shall cooperate at all times with the Auditor in salvage and surplus analysis.

Title of Purchaser

Sec. 8. Any purchaser of surplus or salvage at a sale made by the Board or by any agency under authorization of the Board shall obtain good title to any property purchased if the purchaser has in good faith complied with the conditions of the sale and the applicable rules and regulations of the Board.

Rules and Regulations; Delegation of Authority

Sec. 9. The Board shall have authority to carry out the provisions of this law by making rules and regulations. In carrying out the provisions of this law the Board shall act under the provisions of Chapter 208, Section 1 of Acts 1953, 53rd Legislature (compiled as Texas Civil Statutes 601) and any power, duties or authority imposed on the Board by this Act may be exercised or performed by an authorized employee, but the delegation of a duty does not relieve the Board from its responsibility.

Reports and Forms; Powers to Prescribe

Sec. 10. The Comptroller is authorized to prescribe reports and forms, and rules and regulations pertaining to such forms or reports necessary to accomplish the object of this Act subject to the approval of the State Auditor.

Legislative Intent Declared

Sec. 11. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Board may authorize an agency to dispose of surplus or salvage property where the agency demonstrates to the Board its ability to make such disposition under the rules and regulations set up by the Board, as provided for herein. It is the further intent of the Legislature that state eleemosynary institutions and institutions and agencies of higher learning shall be excepted from the terms of this act.

See, now, article 678d-1.

Art. 678d-1. Vending Facilities Operated by Blind Persons

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition,

(1) "blind person" means a person having not more than 20/200 visual acuity in the better eye with correcting lenses, or visual acuity greater than 20/200 but with a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle of no greater than 20 degrees;

(2) "vending facility" includes a cafe, cafeteria, restaurant, snack bar, concession stand, or other facility at which food, drinks, drugs, novelties, souvenirs, tobacco products, notions or related items are regularly sold, but does not include those facilities consisting solely of vending machines not in competition, directly or indirectly, with a vending facility operated by or suitable for being operated by a vocationally handicapped person, except where this Act specifically mentioned vending machines;

(3) "state property" means buildings and land owned, leased or otherwise controlled by the state;

(4) "agency" means the state department or agency in charge of state property;

(5) "Commission" means the State Commission for the Blind;

(6) "Rehabilitation Commission" means the Texas Constitution for Rehabilitation.

(7) "handicap" includes any physical or mental condition determined by the Commission or the Rehabilitation Commission to constitute a substantial vocational disadvantage.

License or Permit Required

Sec. 2. No person may operate a vending facility, including any vending machine or other coin-operated device, unless he is licensed to do so by the Commission or authorized to do so by an agency granted a permit to arrange for vending facilities.

Licensing Procedure—First Priority to be Given to Blind

Sec. 3. Upon written notification by an agency in control of state property that a vending facility is desired on the property, or, upon its own initiative, the Commission

(1) shall survey the property (or blueprints, plans, and other similar, available information) to determine if the installation of one of its vending facilities is feasible and consonant with its vocational rehabilitation objectives; and

(2) license a blind person to operate the vending facility to be installed by the Commission; or else

(3) allow the Rehabilitation Commission to install a vending facility to be operated by a handicapped person other than a blind individual, according to rules and procedures comparable to those adopted by the Commission pursuant to Section 4 of this Act (interagency agreements for management services and related forms of necessary assistance being hereby expressly authorized), if the Rehabilitation Commission indicates that it is interested in undertaking such activities.

Adoption of Rules

Sec. 4. The Commission shall adopt—

(1) substantive rules relating to the conditions for revoking a license, and

(2) procedural rules relating to the manner of revocation.

Revocation of Permits and Licenses

Sec. 5. (a) Every license and general permit granted by the Commission for operating vending facilities on state property expires three years after the date of issuance, at which time the merits of renewing the license or general permit shall be reviewed by the Commission, and a new or different license or general permit issued, as the Commission finds proper.

(b) Should there be a material change in conditions before the expiration of a general permit, however, the agency and the Commission may revoke the general permit by mutual consent.

(c) The wilful failure of a blind person to operate a vending facility in compliance with rules of the Commission or the provisions of this Act constitutes grounds for the automatic revocation of the license granted by the Commission.

Persons Who May Be Licensed

Sec. 6. (a) The Commission may issue licenses to operate its vending facilities on state property to blind persons who are citizens of the state and who are capable of efficiently operating the vending facilities in a manner resulting in a reasonable satisfaction for all concerned parties.

(b) No blind person may be licensed to operate a vending facility until the Commission, through devices such as prevocational testing and training, has determined that the blind person has the requisite physical, psychological, and personal traits and abilities for operating a vending facility in a manner which is satisfactory to the Commission and the agency concerned.

(c) The Commission shall place the name of a blind person who has satisfactorily completed prevocational testing and training on a roster of individuals, certified as suitable for licensing as operators of vending facilities.

(d) When a Commission-sponsored vending facility becomes available on state property, the Commission shall, if two or more equally qualified and certified blind persons apply for a license to operate the facility, issue the license to the applicant on its roster of individuals certified as suitable for licensing whom it judges to be most in need of employment.

(e) When a vending facility is installed or operated by the Rehabilitation Commission pursuant to Section 7(a), the installation and operation of the facility shall, so far as possible, conform to the provisions of this Act applicable to vending facilities installed by the Commission.

(f) The granting of a license, general permit, authorization, or contract under the provisions of this Act does not vest the person, agency, firm, or corporation to whom granted with any property or other rights, in law or in equity, which might constitute the basis of a cause of action against the state, any of its agencies or departments, or any of its officials or employees.

Employment of Other Handicapped Persons in Vending Facilities

Sec. 7. (a) If the nature of a location for a vending facility on State property is such that the Commission determines a blind person could not properly operate the facility, the Rehabilitation Commission may survey the location to determine if an individual handicapped by a condition other than blindness might be able to operate the facility in a proper manner. The Commission and the Rehabilitation Commission are authorized to develop such procedures and methods of exchanging information as might be necessary to implement the cooperative activities agreed to under this subsection.

(b) If an individual licensed to operate a vending facility on State property requires hired assistance for the proper operation of the vending facility, priority shall be given to the employment of a visually handicapped person who is available and qualified to work as an assistant in the vending facility. If labor requirements are such that another visually handicapped person cannot, in the Commission's determination, successfully perform the labor for which an assistant is desired, or if another qualified visually handicapped person is not available, preference in employment shall be given to an individual handicapped by a disability that is not of a visual nature. If it is determined that a person handicapped by a disability not related to vision cannot successfully perform the labor for which an assistant is desired, or if no qualified person with a disability that is not of a visual nature is available, preference in employment of an assistant shall be given to an individual who is disadvantaged by reason of social, cultural, economic or educational factors.

(c) Any assistant employed by a blind person licensed by the Commission under the provisions of this Act must be approved by the Commission, and the deliberate refusal of a blind operator to comply with this section constitutes grounds for automatic revocation of his license.

Competing Vending Facilities

Sec. 8. (a) No additional permit or license is required for installing additional vending facilities, such as vending machines, on state property having a Commission-sponsored vending facility, but additional vending facilities may not be installed on the property unless an agreement is reached between the agency and the Commission concerning the installation and operation of the competing vending facilities. If the competing vending facilities consist of vending machines or other coin-operated devices the installation and operation shall be by the authorization of the Commission, which authorization shall be made with a view toward providing the greatest economic benefits to blind clients of the Commission consonant with the supplying of additional services necessary at the building in which the Commission-sponsored vending facility is located.

(b) It is the duty of the heads of all State agencies concerned to negotiate and to cooperate in good faith to accomplish the purposes of this Act. This provision applies equally to vending facilities, including vending machines or other coin-operated devices, in competition with a Commission sponsored vending facility on or before the effective date of this Act, vending facilities, including vending machines and other coin-operated devices, which would, if installed, be in competition with an existing Commission sponsored vending facility, and vending facilities, including vending machines or other coin-operated devices, the installation and operation of which in a State building precludes the installation and operation of a vending facility by the Commission or the Rehabilitation Commission.

(c) When vending machines are located in the same building as is a vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual, all commissions from the vending machine are to be received by the blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual. When vending machines and more than one vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual are located in the same building, the assignment of commissions from the vending machines shall be determined by the Commission, with a view toward achieving equity and equality in the incomes of the blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individuals. If the Commission and the Rehabilitation Commission have, pursuant to Section 3 and Section 7(a) of this Act, rejected a location for a vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual, the assignment of commissions from vending machines is to be determined by the agency to whom a general permit is issued.

Vending Facility Locations

Sec. 9. (a) The Commission is responsible for designating vending facility locations on state property after the agency in charge has requested such a facility. The designation is effective after the agency in charge of the state property concurs in it.

(b) The agency responsible for state property shall alter the property to make it suitable for properly operating the vending facilities to be established on it. To this end, the agency in charge of the construction of new state property shall consult with the Commission during the planning stage in the construction of state property.

Vending Facility Equipment and Stock

Sec. 10. (a) The Commission may supply a blind vending facility operator with equipment and initial stock necessary for him to begin business.

(b) The Commission shall collect and set aside from the proceeds of the operation of its vending facilities enough money

(1) to insure a sufficient amount of initial stock for the vending facilities it operates and for their proper maintenance;

(2) to defray the costs of supervision and other expenses incidental to the operation of the vending facilities;

(3) to defray other program costs, to the extent not contraindicated by federal statutes applicable to those programs through which the Commission obtains financial support, and to the extent determined by the Commission to be necessary for assuring the fair and equal treatment of all blind persons licensed by the Commission to operate vending facilities on State or other property.

(c) Except for purchasing and installing original equipment, the operation of Commission-sponsored vending facilities on state property is to be as self-supporting and as self-sustaining as possible, and, to this end, the Commission shall periodically review and, when necessary, revise its schedules for collecting and setting aside money from the proceeds of its vending facilities.

Responsibilities, Duties, and Privileges of Parties

Sec. 11. (a) The Commission, in addition to the responsibilities and duties vested in it by other sections of this Act, may promulgate such rules and initiate such procedures as it finds necessary to the implementation of this Act.

(b) The blind person licensed by the Commission to operate one of its vending facilities on state property, in exercising the privilege granted by the license, shall operate the vending facility,

(1) in accordance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws;

(2) in accordance with the rules, regulations, and policies promulgated by the Commission.

(c) The agency in charge of state property shall

(1) exert every effort to cooperate with the Commission and with the blind persons it licenses to operate vending facilities on state property, in order to accomplish the purposes of this Act;

(2) furnish all necessary utility service, including connections and outlets necessary in the installation of the facility, janitorial, and garbage disposal services, where feasible, and other related assistance.

Conformity with Federal Statutes; Training; Program Improvements

Sec. 11A. (a) The provisions of this Act shall be construed in such manner as to be made as consistent as possible with the requirements of federal programs through which the Commission obtains financial support. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Act and applicable federal requirements, the Commission may, to the extent necessary to preclude questions of conformity and to the extent necessary to secure full and continued benefit of any applicable federal statutes, waive or modify provisions of this Act determined to be contraindicated by federal statutes, federal requirements or final decisions by courts of competent jurisdiction.

(b) In order to provide necessary and proper training to blind persons desiring to be licensed to operate vending facilities, and in order to develop and perfect techniques which will allow blind persons to operate such facilities or related types of small business enterprises more efficiently and more productively, the Commission may establish such locations for training or experimentation as may be determined necessary.

Applicability

Sec. 12. (a) The provisions of this Act do not apply to property maintained and operated by state-supported institutions of higher education, or property over which control is either wholly or in part maintained by the federal government.

(b) No vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual, nor any vending facility location surveyed by the Commission, is to be closed because of the transfer of State property from one agency to another, the reorganization of a State agency, or the alteration of a State building, unless the closing is agreed to by the Commission or the Rehabilitation Commission.

(c) The provisions of this Act apply immediately to all state property having no vending facilities or having only vending facilities installed by the Commission.

(d) None of the provisions of this Act shall apply to vending facilities operated by an institution under the control and management of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools or its successor in function so long as such vending facility is operated for the benefit of the patients of the institutions without profit.

(e) Section 8(b) and (c) become applicable to state property having vending facilities other than those installed by the Commission six months after the effective date of this Act; all other provisions of this Act are of immediate applicability.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as prohibiting the Commission from selecting blind persons for operating other types of vending facilities or business enterprises determined by the Commission to be suitable for operation by blind persons, or as prohibiting the installation of automated vending facilities serviced by blind persons, or as precluding agreements between the Commission and heads of state-supported institutions of higher education leading to the utilization of blind labor in vending facilities at state-supported institutions of higher education, if there is agreement that the utilization of blind labor would be of mutual advantage to all concerned parties.

Insignia color or colors shall be changed effective January first of each calendar year; insignia shall be valid from January first to December thirty-first of each year.

Each administrative head of any state agency located in Austin shall be responsible to the Board of Control for notification to the board of the termination of any state employee to whom vehicle identification insignia has been issued. Upon receipt of such certification of the termination of employment by a state agency of an employee, then and thereafter such person or former employee who shall continue to

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the "State Building Construction Administration Act."

The purpose of this Act is to provide for the orderly planning of buildings constructed by the State, to provide for adequate inspection in the State's interest of building construction work in progress, and to provide for reasonably accurate projections of building program requirements, and estimates of the cost of proposed projects prior to legislative appropriations or specific authorizations for the construction and equipping of such projects.

The Legislature hereby declares that the policy of the State of Texas in regard to projects constructed under the provisions of this Act shall be to provide requisite physical facilities for the operation of State government in an architectural form which will represent the dignity of the State of Texas and which shall be aesthetically pleasing. Designs shall adhere to established construction practices and utilize materials, methods and equipment of proven dependability to the end that projects shall be economical to construct, operate and maintain.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the Commission from undertaking a project excluded by this section under an interagency agreement originated by the appropriate using agency, and provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed as exempting any agency or institution from the requirements of Section 15 of this Act (Compilation of Construction and Maintenance Data).

(c) In addition to the exclusions enumerated in this section, the Commission may, by regulation, exclude repair and rehabilitation projects involving the use of contract labor, provided such projects do not require the advance preparation of working plans and drawings.

State Building Commission

Sec. 5. (A) The State Building Commission is hereby designated as the administering agency and shall exercise the powers and duties conferred upon it by this Act in addition to all powers, duties and responsibilities previously conferred upon it by Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, Chapter

514, as amended (compiled as Article 678m, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), and the provisions of such Act, as amended, shall apply where pertinent to all construction under the provisions of this Act. The Commission shall be the coordinating authority for the construction of any multiagency State office buildings which the Legislature may, from time to time, authorize.

(B) The Commission shall, subject to the provisions of the Appropriations Act and such General Laws as may apply, employ professional, technical and clerical personnel. In selecting such personnel, the Commission shall give first preference to persons currently employed in the Engineering Section of the State Board of Control and in the design and Construction Division of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools.

(C) The Commission shall appoint a Director who shall serve at the pleasure of the Commission. The Director shall be a registered architect or a registered professional engineer and shall be chosen for proven administrative ability and experience in the fields of building design and construction. The Director shall be the full-time executive and administrative officer of the Commission which shall delegate to him such power, authority and duties as it may deem necessary and proper.

(D) The Commission may assign a qualified professional employee to any using agency where the volume of construction projects is such that the Commission and the using agency agree that full-time coordination between the Commission and the using agency is desirable. The Commission and the using agency shall mutually agree upon the qualifications and duties of such assigned employees and the salary and related expenses of such assigned employees shall be charged against the projects of the using agency to which they are assigned. Such assignments shall be terminated whenever in the opinion of the Commission they are no longer required.

(E) The operating expenses of the State Building Commission shall, unless otherwise specified by the Legislature, be paid from appropriations made out of the State Building Fund. The State Building Fund shall be reimbursed for such expenditures from the funds appropriated by the legislature for projects supervised by the Commission. In order that each project shall bear its fair and proper share of the Commission's expenses, the Commission shall institute and maintain a cost accounting system which shall be devised by the State Auditor as soon after the effective date of this Act as possible.

(F) The State Building Commission may promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement the powers, duties and responsibilities imposed upon it by this Act. Such rules and regulations shall be binding on all State agencies upon being filed with the Secretary of State. As soon as practical, the Commission shall cause to be prepared and published a manual to assist using agencies in complying with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations of the Commission. Copies of the manual shall be distributed to all using agencies and shall be available to architects, engineers, contractors and others who may need and request a copy of it.

(G) On or before the first working day of the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1965, all files, records, equipment, furnishings and personal property of all kinds heretofore used by the Engineering Section of the Building Engineering and Management Division of the State Board of Control and by the Design and Construction Division of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall be transferred to the Commission. The Commission shall agree with the State Board of Control and with the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools on the personal property to be transferred and shall evidence such agreement in a written inventory to be signed by representatives of the Commission and the respective Boards. The agreement when so signed shall be full authority (1) for the Commission to transfer the personal property listed thereon to its control and (2) for the Comptroller of Public Accounts to enter any inventoried items on the property inventory records of the Commission and to delete the same items from the property inventory records of the State Board of Control and of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools.

(H) Legal representation of the State Building Commission shall be performed by the Attorney General of Texas. This provision shall not restrict the Attorney General from employing special assistants to assist in the performance of duties arising by virtue of the provisions of this Act in those instances where the Attorney General deems such employment necessary.

(I) Venue of all suits for any breach of contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be in Travis County, Texas.

(J) The Commission may waive, suspend or modify any provision of this Act which shall be in conflict with any federal statute or any rule, regulation or administrative procedure of any federal agency where such waiver, suspension or modification shall be essential to the receipt of federal funds for any project. In the case of any project wholly financed from federal funds, any standards required by the enabling federal statute or required by the rules and regulations of the administering federal agency shall be controlling.

Pre-preliminary Planning; Project Analysis

Sec. 6. (A) Each using agency of the State which shall desire any project, other than those specifically excluded by Sections 3 and 4 of this Act, shall prepare and submit to the Commission a general description of the project. The Commission shall cause all such projects to be studied and shall initiate the preparation of a project analysis for all new construction projects and for all other projects where, in the opinion of the Commission, the cost of preparing a project analysis is justified.

(B) A project analysis may be prepared by a private architect/engineer employed by the Commission or, at its discretion, by the Commission's staff. A private architect/engineer employed for the purpose of preparing a project analysis shall be selected by the method set forth in Section 10 of this Act and shall be paid from the State Building Construction Planning Fund established by Section 12 of this Act. The contract to prepare a project analysis shall specify that the analysis shall become the property of the State Building Commission.

(C) A project analysis shall consist of (1) a complete description of the facility or project together with a justification of such facility or project prepared by the using agency, (2) a detailed estimate of the amount of space needed to meet the needs of the using agency and to allow for realistic future growth, (3) a description of the proposed facility prepared by an architect/engineer and including schematic plans and outline specifications describing the type of construction and probable materials to be used, sufficient to establish the general scope and quality of construction, (4) an estimate of the probable cost of construction, (5) a description of the proposed site of the project and an estimate of the cost of site preparation, and (6) an overall estimate of the cost of the project as that term is defined in this Act. All estimates involved in the preparation of a project analysis shall be carefully and fully documented and incorporated into the project analysis.

Throughout the preparation of the project analysis, the State Building Commission and any private architect/engineer employed by the Commission shall work closely and cooperatively with the using agency to the end that the project analysis shall fully reflect the needs of the using agency.

The using agency shall use the cost of the project as determined by such project analysis as the basis of its request to the budget offices of this State.

(D) In the case of projects where, in the opinion of the Commission, the cost of a project analysis is not justified or required, the Commission shall, in cooperation with the using agency, develop a realistic estimate of the cost of the project. When necessary, the Commission shall arrange for an on-site inspection and analysis of the proposed project by a member of its staff. The using agency shall be informed of the cost estimate so developed and shall use such estimate as the basis of its request to the budget offices of this State.

(E) On or before a date to be specified by the budget agencies of this State in each year immediately preceding a Regular Session of the Legislature, the Commission shall submit to said budget agencies a report listing all projects requested pursuant to this Section. The list shall contain (1) a brief and specific justification of each project as prepared by the using agency, (2) a summary of the project analysis where one was made or a statement briefly describing the cost-estimating method used for projects for which a project analysis was not made, (3) a project cost estimate developed in accordance with the provisions of this Section, with sufficient detail given to afford the budget agencies, the Governor and the Legislature the widest possible latitude in developing policy in regard to each such project request, (4) an estimate, prepared by the Commission with the cooperation of the using agency and with the cooperation of the private architect/engineer employed, of the annual cost of maintaining the completed project including the estimated cost of utility services, and (5) an estimate, prepared by the using agency, of the annual cost of staffing and operating the completed project exclusive of maintenance cost. Where appropriate, the Commission, with the approval of the using agency, may indicate the feasibility of stage construction of a requested project and may indicate the degree to which funds would be required in the next biennium if the project were undertaken in stages.

(F) Whenever any using agency shall request three (3) or more projects, it shall designate its priority rating for each project. The budget agencies shall, with the cooperation of the Commission, develop detailed instructions to implement this priority system and the Commission's report shall show the designated priority of each project to which a priority rating has been assigned.

Legislative Authorizations and Appropriations

Sec. 7. (A) The Legislature shall, from time to time, authorize and appropriate for such projects as it may approve. Project appropriations shall be made directly to the using agency except in those instances where the project is to be constructed from the State Building Fund, in which case the appropriation shall be made to the State Building Commission.

(B) The appropriation of funds by the Legislature for the construction of a project shall be construed by the Commission and the using agency as an expression of legislative intent that the project be completed within the limits of the funds actually appropriated. In the event that the funds so appropriated are less than the amount originally requested or if, for any reason, the funds so appropriated are less than the amount required for the project as originally submitted to the budget agencies, the Commission and the using agency shall jointly confer on ways and means whereby the project cost can be brought within the bounds of the funds so appropriated and shall, in such conferences, make every effort to comply with legislative intent with regard to modification of the project from the original request. In the event that it is impossible to modify the project to bring the cost within the amount appropriated, the Commission shall notify the using agency that it considers such project as cancelled.

When authorized by the biennial Appropriations Act, the using agency may appeal the decision of the Commission to the Governor by submitting to him a request that the project be undertaken as stage construction or that the funds available for such project be supplemented by the transfer of funds appropriated to the same using agency for other projects of equal or lower priority or from the unused contingency reserves of any project of the same using agency. The Governor shall, after obtaining the advice of the Legislative Budget Board, rule on such request and if his ruling shall favor the agency the Commission shall proceed with the project.

(C) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (B) of this Section, the Legislature may, by specific provision, provide for stage construction of a project and in such event the Commission shall proceed with the project through the specifically authorized stage.

(D) There is hereby appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund to the State Building Commission for the implementation of the "Building Construction Administration Act" for an Archaeologist the sum of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) each fiscal year, four Project Analysts (not to exceed $12,000) the sum of Forty-four Thousand Dollars ($44,000) each fiscal year. Salaries of Classified Positions the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) each fiscal year, Professional Fees and Services, Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) each fiscal year and unexpended balances of the first year of the biennium, Travel Expenses, Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) each fiscal year and unexpended balances of the first year of the biennium, Other Operating Expenses, Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) each fiscal year and unexpended balances of the first year of the biennium. The combined sum for the biennium from the General Revenue Fund shall be Four Hundred Seventy-two Thousand Dollars ($472,000).

Preliminary Plans, Working Plans and Specifications; Change Orders

Sec. 8. (A) Preliminary plans and outline specifications and working plans and specifications for all projects shall be prepared either by a private architect/engineer selected and appointed by the Commission in accordance with Section 10 of this Act, or by the professional staff of the Commission, provided, however, that a private architect/engineer shall be appointed for any new construction project estimated to cost in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) and for any new construction project for which the using agency requests a private architect/engineer be selected and appointed. In either case, such plans and specifications shall be approved by the Commission, and shall not be accepted or used by the using agency without such approval. The Commission shall see that plans and specifications (1) are clear and complete; (2) permit execution of the project with appropriate economy and efficiency; and (3) conform with the requirements as set forth in the project analysis previously prepared.

(B) The Commission shall appoint a Design Advisory Panel to advise with the Commission and the using agency on the design concept and aesthetic merits of plans submitted by an architect/engineer, provided, however, that the final decision on such matters shall rest with the Commission. The Design Advisory Panel shall consist of five (5) persons, two (2) of whom shall be selected from a list of nominees submitted by the Texas Society of Architects, two (2) of whom (one a structural engineer and the other a mechanical-electrical engineer) shall be selected from a list of nominees submitted by the Texas Society of Professional Engineers and one (1) of whom shall be neither an architect nor an engineer and who shall serve as chairman of the Panel. Members of the Panel shall serve for two years and shall be eligible for reappointment and the Commission shall promulgate regulations to provide for an orderly rotation of membership which may specify a shorter term of office for the original appointees. The members of the Panel shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses out of the appropriations to the Commission. No member of the Panel shall, during the period of his service, advise on any project in which he is employed, retained or in any manner financially interested. The Panel shall have no responsibility for reviewing the plans and specifications other than to the extent set forth in this Subsection.

(C) Following final approval of the working plans and specifications and their acceptance by the using agency, the Commission shall cause to be advertised in not less than two (2) newspapers of general circulation for bids or proposals for performance of the construction and related work on the project. Subject to the applicable provisions of other law respecting the award of State contracts, the contract or contracts shall be awarded to the qualified bidder making the lowest and best bid; but no contract shall be awarded for a sum in excess of the amount which the Comptroller shall certify to be available for such project, provided, the Commission shall have the right to reject any and all bids.

(D) Upon notice and on itemized statements by the Commission:

(1) The Comptroller shall transfer from each project appropriation to the State Building Construction Planning Fund created by Section 12 of this Act an amount certified by the Commission as sufficient to reimburse the Planning Fund for prior expenditures on behalf of the project.

(2) The Comptroller shall reserve from each project appropriation an amount estimated by the Commission to be sufficient to reimburse the State Building Fund for services rendered and to be rendered by the Commission and shall transfer funds from such reserve to the State Building Fund upon certification by the Commission that such services have been rendered and any funds remaining in such reserve following the final certification shall be transferred to the contingent reserve created by paragraph (3) below.

(3) The Comptroller shall reserve from each project appropriation an amount estimated by the Commission to be sufficient to cover contingencies over and above all amounts obligated by contract or otherwise, for planning, engineering and architectural work, site acquisition and development, and construction, equipment and furnishings contracts. The amount so reserved shall be used only upon the following conditions:

(a) That the architect/engineer or the contractor recommend and justify the proposed contingency expenditures by submitting a change order request;

(b) That the proposed change order request be approved by the architect/engineer;

(c) That the proposed change order request be approved by the using agency which shall make formal request for the allocation of funds from the contingency reserve; and

(d) That the Director of the Commission shall investigate the nature of the change order and concur in the necessity of the proposed expenditure or refuse same within fifteen (15) days after receiving the request.

In the event the Director shall refuse to concur in a proposed contingency expenditure, the using agency may appeal to the Commission and the findings of the Commission shall be final. The Commission shall promulgate regulations setting forth the procedures for such appeals.

If an approved change order shall result in a reduction of construction cost, the contingency reserve shall be increased by the amount of such reduction.

(E) The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall issue warrants in payment of progress payments as well as final payments on construction under this Act upon the written approval of the Commission.

(F) Any equipment and furnishings not constructed or installed under the construction contract or contracts shall be acquired through regular purchasing channels of the State under the provisions of the State Purchasing Act of 1957.

Project Construction Inspection

Sec. 9. The Commission shall be responsible for protecting the interests of the State during the actual construction of each project covered by the provisions of this Act. Construction inspection shall fall into three (3) categories: detailed inspection, general inspection and professional inspection, as defined and provided for in this Section.

(A) Detailed inspection shall mean the close, technical on-site examination of the materials, structure and equipment, and surveillance of the workmanship and methods used to insure reasonably that the project is accomplished in compliance with information given by the contract documents and good construction practices by one or more full-time personnel at the project site. The Commission shall be the sole judge of when detailed inspection is required and shall base its decision on the size and complexity of the project.

Detailed inspection shall be exercised by a Project Construction Inspector who shall be appointed by the architect/engineer with the approval of the Commission.

The duties of the Project Construction Inspector shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) He shall become thoroughly conversant with the drawings, specifications, details and general conditions for executing the work.

(2) He shall keep such records of the work as the architect/engineer and the Commission may specify and require and shall make such reports to the architect/engineer with copies to the Commission and the using agency as the architect/engineer and the Commission may specify and require. He shall maintain copies of these records and reports at the site of construction together with the plans, specifications, shop drawings, change orders and correspondence dealing with the project.

(3) He shall endeavor to see that the requirements of the contract documents are being carried out by the contractor.

(4) He shall endeavor to see that all authorized changes are properly incorporated in the work and that no changes are made unless properly authorized.

(5) He shall notify the architect/engineer if conditions encountered at the project are at variance with the contract documents and he shall comply with the directives of the architect/engineer in endeavoring to correct these conditions.

(6) He shall review shop drawings in relation to their adaptability to job conditions and advise the architect/engineer in respect thereto.

(7) He shall endeavor to see that materials and equipment furnished are in accordance with the specifications.

(8) He shall see that records are kept, on construction plans, of the principal elements of mechanical and electrical systems.

(9) He shall see that accurate records are kept of all underground utility installations (including existing installations uncovered in the process of construction) at the project site so that the information may be recorded on site plans or drawings which may be established and maintained by the Commission and/or the using agency.

(10) He shall keep a daily written log of all significant happenings on the job. His log shall include the number of workers that worked that particular day and weather conditions that existed during the day.

(11) He shall observe and give prompt written notice to the construction contractor's representative and the architect/engineer of any noncompliance on the part of the contractor's representative with any contract documents. He shall notify the architect/engineer and the Commission of any failure to take corrective measures promptly.

(12) He shall initiate, attend and participate in progress meetings and inspections with the contractor.

(13) He shall review every contractor's invoice against the value of partially completed or completed work and the materials stored at the project site prior to it being forwarded to the architect/engineer and shall promptly notify the architect/engineer of any discrepancy between his review of the work and the invoice.

(14) He shall be responsible to the architect/engineer for the proper administration of the duties enumerated herein, and he shall comply with other instructions and assignments of the architect/engineer.

The full cost of detailed inspection shall be a charge against the project.

(B) General inspection shall mean the examination and inspection of the project at periodic intervals by employees of the Commission. On projects where a Project Construction Inspector is employed by an architect/engineer, the General Inspector shall work with and through the Project Construction Inspector and the architect/engineer. On all other projects, the General Inspector shall work with and through the architect/engineer and shall exercise such detailed inspection functions as the Commission may require. The cost of general inspection shall be a charge against the project.

(C) Professional inspection shall mean the periodic examination of all elements of the project to reasonably insure that these meet the performance and design features and the technical and functional requirements of the contract documents. Professional inspection shall be exercised by the architect/engineer or his authorized representative and his duties shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) He shall assist the Commission in obtaining proposals from contractors and in awarding and preparing construction contracts. He shall be responsible for the interpretation of the contract documents and any changes made thereto. He shall provide such interpretation of the plans and specifications as may be required during the construction phase.

(2) He shall check and approve samples, schedules, shop drawings and other submissions only for conformance with the design concept of the project and for compliance with the information given by contract documents.

(3) He shall approve or disapprove all change order requests and shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8 of this Act, prepare all change orders.

(4) He shall assemble all written guarantees required of the contractors.

(5) He shall make periodic visits to the site of the project to familiarize himself generally with the progress and quality of the work and to determine in general if the work is proceeding in accordance with the contract documents. The amount of time that such on-site inspections shall entail shall be determined by dividing the total compensation for professional services, exclusive of payments for detailed inspection, by one hundred (100) with the result being expressed as the number of hours to be devoted to on-site inspections, project conferences with the contractor and others, and travel to and from such inspections and conferences. He shall make a written inspection report after each visit to the project and he shall send a copy of such report to the contractor and to the Commission.

(6) He shall keep the Commission informed of the progress of the work and shall endeavor to guard against defects and deficiencies in the work of contractors.

(7) He shall determine periodically the amount owing to the contractors and shall recommend payment of such amounts to the Commission. Such recommendation shall constitute a representation to the Commission that, based upon his observations and other pertinent data, the work has progressed to the point indicated and it shall also constitute a representation to the Commission on the part of the architect/engineer that, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the quality of the work is in accordance with the plans, specifications and contract documents. He shall conduct inspections to determine the dates of substantial and final completion and shall notify the Commission and the using agency of his findings in this respect.

(8) In the event that the Commission requires full-time detailed inspection of the construction of a project, he shall select, subject to the Commission's approval, the Project Construction Inspector and shall be responsible for the proper administration of the duties enumerated under Subsection (A) of this Section. He shall pay the salary of the Project Construction Inspector and shall be reimbursed for all such salary costs plus expenses of overhead directly applicable to such salary.

Nothing in this Subsection (C) shall be construed as requiring the architect/engineer to assume responsibility for or to guarantee the complete adherence of the contractor to the plans and specifications and contract documents nor shall anything in this Subsection (C) be construed as requiring that the architect/engineer shall be liable for defects in construction.

It is the responsibility of the architect/engineer to furnish the professional inspection of a project and when a private architect/engineer is employed, the fee paid such architect/engineer shall be deemed to cover professional inspection, provided, however, that such fee shall not be deemed to cover the additional cost of detailed inspection over and above the administrative duties specifically encompassed by paragraph (C)(8) of this Subsection. In projects where the Commission's staff serves as architect/engineer, the Commission shall be responsible for professional supervision and the cost of such supervision shall be a charge against the project.

Selection of Private Architects/Engineers

Sec. 10. (A) The Commission shall establish and maintain a file of all qualified private architects/engineers who express an interest in State building construction projects. Said file shall contain such information as the Commission shall deem essential and desirable together with brochures and exhibits submitted by each private architect/engineer. Each private architect/engineer may submit additional brochures, exhibits and information as he may deem necessary and that may be in accordance with his ethical practice in order that his file shall be current at all times. Such files shall be open to the inspection of any using agency.

(B) Ultimate responsibility for the selection of a private architect/engineer employed for any project covered by the provisions of this Act shall be vested in the Commission. In recognition of the close working relationship which must exist between the architect/engineer and the using agency, the Commission shall request the using agency to make recommendations regarding private architects/engineers and the using agency which desires to take advantage of such opportunity shall submit to the Commission the names of three (3) private architects/engineers designating its order of preference. The Commission shall consider such using agency recommendations in order of preference and shall not reject such recommendations without good and sufficient reason set forth in writing to the using agency. In the event that the Commission rejects all of the using agency recommendations, the using agency shall prepare and submit a new list.

(C) If the using agency does not choose to submit recommendations, it shall request the Commission to proceed to select a private architect/engineer in accordance with the generally accepted standards for such selection and in conformity with the ethical standards of the professional societies of such architects/engineers.

Compensation of Private Architects/Engineers

Sec. 11. Private architects/engineers employed by the Commission shall be compensated in accordance with the following provisions:

(A) The compensation for new projects and rehabilitation projects shall be established by the Commission on the basis of studies of the compensation paid within the State by private clients for projects of comparable size and complexity, provided that such compensation shall not exceed the minimum recommended for similar projects by the Texas Society of Architects in instances where the private architect/engineer is an architect or the minimum recommended by the Texas Society of Professional Engineers in instances where the private architect/engineer is an engineer. The compensation so established by the Commission shall be deemed to cover all professional services to be rendered by the private architect/engineer including professional inspection as that term is defined in Section 9 of this Act. On any project where the Commission requires detailed inspection, as defined by Section 9 of this Act, the compensation shall be increased by the actual cost of providing such detailed inspection.

(B) The compensation for preparation of a project analysis as required by Section 6 of this Act shall not exceed one per cent (1%) of the estimated cost of construction. In the event the project is approved by the Legislature in substantially the form originally requested and the same private architect/engineer is employed for the subsequent phases of design, the compensation paid under this Subsection shall be deducted from the compensation paid under the provisions of Subsection (A) of this Section.

(C) The State shall furnish detailed information on space requirements and relationships and the justification for, use of and general requirements to be met by the project. The State shall furnish a complete site survey and soil analysis.

Planning Fund

Sec. 12. (A) There is hereby created with the State Treasury a special fund to be known as the State Building Construction Planning Fund.

(B) On the first working day of the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1965, the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) shall be transferred from the State Building Fund to the State Building Construction Planning Fund. Such amount is hereby appropriated for the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1965, and ending August 31, 1966. The unexpended balance of such appropriation is hereby reappropriated for the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1966, and ending August 31, 1967. Any interest earned on the assets of said Planning Fund shall thereafter be credited to the account of said Planning Fund.

(C) The State Building Construction Planning Fund shall be used to make payments for engineering, architectural and other planning expenses necessary to make a project analysis in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 of this Act. The State Building Commission shall authorize all payments made from said Planning Fund. Such payments shall be a first charge against the project for which they were drawn and the amount so paid shall be credited to and transferred to said Planning Fund at such time as the Legislature may approve the project and appropriate funds for its construction.

Final Inspection, Acceptance of Project, Guarantee Period

Sec. 13. (A) The Commission shall be responsible for directing final payment for work done on each project; provided, however, that if upon final inspection of any project it shall be found that the plans, specifications, contract or change orders for the project shall not have been fully complied with, the Commission shall, until such compliance shall have been effected or adjustments satisfactory to it shall have been made, refuse to direct such payment.

(B) The final inspection shall consist of an on-site inspection by the architect/engineer, a representative of the Commission, a representative of the using agency and a representative or representatives of the contractor or contractors. The final inspection shall be scheduled by the Commission upon notification by the architect/engineer within ten (10) days after the architect/engineer has notified the Commission that the contract has been performed according to the plans and specifications.

(C) Upon completion of the project the Commission shall release the same to the using agency. The Commission shall be responsible for making an inspection of the project prior to the expiration of the guarantee period to observe any defects which may appear within one (1) year after completion of the contract. The Commission shall give prompt written notice to the contractor of defects which are due to faulty materials and workmanship. Nothing in this Subsection shall be construed as requiring the contractor to assume responsibility for or guarantee any defects other than those due to faulty materials or workmanship or failure on his part to adhere to the contract documents.

Uniform General Conditions in Construction Contracts

Sec. 14. (A) The Commission shall, not later than six (6) months after the effective date of this Act, appoint an advisory committee consisting of the Director of the Commission who shall serve ex officio as chairman of the committee and who shall vote only in the event of a tie; two (2) persons appointed by the Commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the President of the Texas Society of Architects; two (2) persons appointed by the Commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the President of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers; and two (2) persons appointed by the Commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the Chairman of the Executive Council of the Texas Associated General Contractors Chapters; and two (2) persons appointed by the Commission from the list of nominees submitted to it by the Executive Secretary of the Mechanical Contractors Associations of Texas, Incorporated.

(B) The committee shall review the general conditions of State building construction contracts and shall, within three (3) months after its appointment, recommend to the Commission a set of uniform general conditions to be incorporated into all State building construction contracts. The members of the committee shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses.

(C) The Commission may, after consultation with the State Highway Department, modify or amend the recommendations submitted to it but shall, not later than one (1) year after the effective date of this Act, adopt a uniform set of general conditions which shall thereafter be incorporated into all building construction contracts executed by the State of Texas, including those pertaining to projects otherwise excluded from the provisions of this Act by Section 3 of this Act, but not including those excluded by Section 4 of this Act.

(D) The Commission shall cause the uniform general conditions of State building construction contracts to be reviewed whenever in its opinion such review is desirable, but in no event less frequently than once every five (5) years. The review shall be made by a committee appointed in the manner required by Subsection (A) of this Section. Members of any review committee appointed pursuant to this Subsection shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses.

Compilation of Construction and Maintenance Data

Sec. 15. (A) For the purpose of providing the Governor, the Legislature and the budget offices of the State with current information on the status of State-owned buildings, and for the purpose of obtaining up-to-date information on construction costs, the Commission shall biennially obtain from all using agencies a list of all State-owned buildings showing the year of completion, the general type of construction, size, usage and general condition of each. In addition the Commission shall, for all buildings completed from and after the effective date of this Act, obtain from all using agencies data showing the total cost of the project and the cost of construction together with such data as may be necessary to enable a meaningful comparison to be made on the cost of buildings of like nature.

(B) For the purpose of obtaining up-to-date information on maintenance data, the Commission shall obtain biennially from all using agencies information on the cost of heating, cooling and maintaining all buildings owned by the State.

(C) The Commission shall summarize its findings in a report to be made available to the Governor, the Legislature and the budget offices of this State. All State agencies, departments and institutions shall cooperate with the Commission in providing the information necessary for said report.

Repealer

Sec. 16. Articles 670, 671, 672, 679, 680, 681, 682, and 683 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, are hereby repealed; and all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby expressly repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Section 17 of Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 926, ch. 455 was a severability clause; section 18 of the act provided that the act should become effective on September 1, 1965.

Art. 678f-1. Consent to Buildings, Concessions, Parking Areas, etc., Within Capitol Grounds

Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful, without the prior express consent of the Legislature, for any officer of this state or any employee thereof or any other person to construct, build, erect or maintain any building, structure, memorial, monument, statue, concession or any other structure including creation of parking areas or the laying of additional paving on any of the grounds that surrounded the State Capitol on January 1, 1955, and which grounds were then bounded by Eleventh, Brazos, Thirteenth and Colorado Streets, in the City of Austin, Texas, whether such land lay inside or outside the fence enclosing part of the grounds; provided, however, that paved access and underground utility installations may be constructed and maintained; provided further, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to the Supreme Court Building, according to the approved plans dated October 29, 1956, nor to the State Office Building, according to the approved plans dated November, 1956.

Sec. 2. Any officer or employee of this state, or other person violating Section 1 of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or imprisoned in the County Jail of Travis County for a period of time not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 3. Any officer of this state who is subject to removal from office by means of impeachment shall be subject to such removal for violation of Section 1 of this Act and any other officer or any employee of the state who shall violate Section 1 shall be dismissed immediately from any employment by the state. [Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 758, ch. 313.]

Art. 678g. Construction of Public Buildings and Facilities for Use by Handicapped Persons

Policy

Sec. 1. The provisions of this Act are enacted to further the policy of the State of Texas to encourage and promote the rehabilitation of handicapped or disabled citizens. It is the intent of this Act to eliminate, insofar as possible, unnecessary barriers encountered by aged, handicapped or disabled persons, whose ability to engage in gainful occupations or to achieve maximum personal independence is needlessly restricted when such persons cannot readily use public buildings.

Application of Act

Sec. 2. (a) The standards and specifications set forth in this Act shall apply to all buildings and facilities used by the public which are constructed in whole or in part by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the state's power of regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings and facilities constructed in this state through partial or total use of federal funds. All buildings and facilities constructed in this state, or substantially renovated, modified, or altered, after the effective date of this Act from any one of these funds or any combination thereof shall conform to each of the standards and specifications prescribed herein except where the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned shall determine, after taking all circumstances into consideration, that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impracticable. Where it is determined that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the State Building Commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practicable, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification.

(b) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in those buildings and facilities under construction on the effective date of this Act, unless the authority responsible for the construction shall determine that the construction has reached a state where compliance is impractical. This Act shall apply to temporary or emergency construction as well as permanent buildings.

(c) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in all buildings leased or rented in whole or in part for use by the state under any lease or rental agreement entered into on or after January 1, 1972. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the power of the state's regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings or facilities leased or rented for use by the state through partial or total use of federal funds. Facilities which are the subject of lease or rental agreements on January 1, 1972, will not be required to meet standards and specifications for the term of the existing lease or rental agreement but must be brought into compliance before a lease or rental agreement is renewed. Where it is determined by the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned that full compliance with any particular standard is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the State Building Commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practical, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification.

Scope and Purpose

Sec. 3. (a) This Act is concerned with non-ambulatory disabilities, semiambulatory disabilities, sight disabilities, hearing disabilities, disabilities of coordination and aging.

(b) It is intended to make all buildings and facilities covered by this Act accessible to, and functional for, the physically handicapped to, through, and within their doors, without loss of function, space, or facilities where the general public is concerned.

Definitions

Sec. 4. For the purpose of this Act the following terms have the meanings as herein set forth:

- (1) "Nonambulatory disabilities" means impairments that, regardless of cause or manifestation, for all practical purposes, confine individuals to wheelchairs.

(2) "Semiambulatory disabilities" means impairments that cause individuals to walk with difficulty or insecurity. Individuals using braces or crutches, amputees, arthritics, spastics, and those with pulmonary and cardiac ills may be semiambulatory. The listing here made is illustrative and shall not be construed as being exhaustive.

(3) "Sight disabilities" means total blindness or impairments affecting sight to the extent that the individual functioning in public areas is insecure or exposed to danger.

(4) "Hearing disabilities" means deafness or hearing handicaps that might make an individual insecure in a public area because he is unable to communicate or hear warning signals.

(5) "Disabilities of coordination" means faulty coordination or palsy from brain, spinal, or peripheral nerve injury.

(6) "Aging" means those manifestations of the aging processes that significantly reduce mobility, flexibility, coordination, and perceptiveness but are not accounted for in the aforementioned categories.

(7) "Standard," when this term appears in small letters, is descriptive and means typical type.

(8) "Fixed turning radius, wheel to wheel" means the tracking of the caster wheels and large wheels or a wheelchair when pivoting on a spot.

(10) "Involved (involvement)" means a portion or portions of the human anatomy or physiology, or both, that have a loss or impairment of normal function as a result of genesis, trauma, disease, inflammation, or degeneration.

(11) "Ramps, ramps with gradients" means ramps with gradients (or ramps with slopes) that deviate from what would otherwise be considered the normal level. An exterior ramp, as distinguished from a "walk," shall be considered an appendage to a building leading to a level above or below existing ground level. As such, a ramp shall meet certain requirements similar to those imposed upon stairs.

(12) "Walk, walks" means a predetermined, prepared-surface, exterior pathway leading to or from a building or a facility, or from one exterior area to another, places on the existing ground level and not deviating from the level of the existing ground immediately adjacent.

(13) "Appropriate number" means the number of a specific item that would be reasonably necessary, in accord with the purpose and function of a building or a facility, to accommodate individuals with specific disabilities in proportion to the anticipated number of individuals with disabilities who would use a particular building or facility.

Design Criteria

Sec. 5. The following design criteria shall be applicable:

(1) The collapsible-model wheelchair of tubular metal construction with plastic upholstery for back and seat is most commonly used. The standard model of all manufacturers falls within the following limits, which are used as the basis of consideration:

- (A) Length: 42 inches
- (B) Width, when open: 25 inches
- (C) Height of seat from floor: 19½ inches
- (D) Height of armrest from floor: 29 inches
- (E) Height of pusher handles (rear) from floor: 36 inches
- (F) Width, when collapsed: 11 inches

(2) The fixed turning radius of a standard wheelchair, wheel to wheel, is 18 inches. The fixed turning radius, front structure to rear structure, is 31.5 inches.

(3) The average turning space required by a person in a wheelchair (180 to 360 degrees) is 60 × 60 inches. A turning space of 63 × 56 inches may at times prove more workable and desirable.

(4) A minimum width of 60 inches is required for two individuals in wheelchairs to pass each other.

(5) In a wheelchair the average unilateral vertical reach is 60 inches and ranges from 56 to 78 inches.

(6) The average horizontal working (table) reach of a person in a wheelchair is 30.8 inches and ranges from 28.5 inches to 33.2 inches.

(7) The bilateral horizontal reach, both arms extended to each side, shoulder high, of a person in a wheelchair, ranges from 54 inches to 71 inches and averages 64.5 inches.

(8) An individual reaching diagonally (from a wheelchair) as would be required in using wall-mounted dial telephones or towel dispenser, would make the average reach (on the wall) 48 inches from the floor.

(9) Most individuals ambulating on braces or crutches, or both, or on canes are able to manipulate within the specifications prescribed for wheelchairs, although doors present quite a problem at times. However, a crutch tip extending laterally from an individual is not obvious to others in heavily trafficked areas, and not as obvious or protective as a wheelchair and is, therefore, a source of vulnerability.

(10) On the average, individuals 5 feet 6 inches tall require an average of 31 inches between crutch tips in the normally accepted gait.

(11) On the average, individuals 6 feet 0 inches tall require an average of 32.5 inches between crutch tips in the normally accepted gait.

Site Development

Sec. 6. (a) The ground shall be graded, even contrary to existing topography, so that it attains a level with a normal entrance and will make a facility accessible to individuals with physical disabilities.

(b) Public walks shall be at least 48 inches wide and shall have a gradient not greater than 5 percent. These walks shall be of continuing common surface, not interrupted by steps or abrupt changes in level. Wherever walks cross other walks, driveways, or parking lots they shall blend to a common level. A walk shall have a level platform at the top which is at least 5 feet by 5 feet if a door swings out onto the platform or toward the walk. This platform shall extend at least one foot beyond each side of the doorway. A walk shall have a level platform at least 3 feet deep and 5 feet wide, if the door does not swing onto the platform or toward the walk. This platform shall extend at least one foot beyond each side of the doorway.

(c) Spaces in parking lots that are accessible to the building or facility shall be set aside and identified for use by individuals with physical disabilities. An adequate parking space is one that is open on one side and which allows room for individuals in wheelchairs or individuals with braces and crutches to get in and out of an automobile onto a level surface, suitable for wheeling and walking. Parking spaces for individuals with physical disabilities when placed between two conventional diagonal or head-on parking spaces shall be 12 feet wide. Care in planning shall be exercised so that individuals in wheelchairs and individuals using braces and crutches are not compelled to wheel or walk behind parked cars. Consideration shall be given to the distribution of spaces for use by the disabled, in accordance with the frequency and regularity of their parking needs. Walks shall be in conformity with Section 6(b) of this Act.

Ramps

Sec. 7. (a) Where ramps with gradients are necessary or desired, they shall conform to the following specifications:

(1) A ramp shall not have a slope greater than one foot rise in 12 feet, or 8.33 percent, or 4 degrees 50 minutes.

(2) A ramp shall have handrails on at least one side, and preferably two sides, that are 32 inches in height, measured from the surface of the ramp, that are smooth, that extend one foot beyond the top and bottom of the ramp, and that as far as practicable conform with American Standard Safety Code for Floor and Wall Openings, and Toe Boards as promulgated by the American Standards Association, Inc.

(b) Ramps shall have a surface that is non-slip. A ramp shall have a level platform at the top which is at least 5 feet by 5 feet, if a door swings out onto the platform or toward the ramp. This platform shall extend at least one foot beyond each side of the doorway. A ramp shall have a level platform at least 3 feet deep and 5 feet wide, if the door does not swing onto the platform or toward the ramp. This platform shall extend at least one foot beyond each side of the doorway. Each ramp shall have at least 6 feet of straight clearance at the bottom. Ramps shall have level platforms at 30 foot intervals for purposes of rest and safety and shall have level platforms wherever they turn.

Entrances

Sec. 8. At least one primary entrance to each building shall be useable by individuals in wheelchairs. At least one entrance useable by individuals in wheelchairs shall be on a level that would make the elevators accessible.

Doors

Sec. 9. Doors shall have a clear opening of no less than 32 inches when open and shall be operable by a single effort. The floor on the inside and outside of each doorway shall be level for a distance of 5 feet from the door in the direction the door swings and shall extend one foot beyond each side of the door. Sharp inclines and abrupt changes in level shall be avoided at doorsills. As much as practicable, thresholds shall be flush with the floor.

Stairs

Sec. 10. Stairs shall conform to standards of the American Standards Association, Inc., with the following additional considerations: Steps in stairs shall be designed wherever practicable so as not to have abrupt (square) nosing. Stairs shall have handrails 32 inches high as measured from the tread at the face of the riser. Stairs shall have at least one handrail that extends at least 18 inches beyond the top step and beyond the bottom step. Steps should, wherever possible, and in conformation with existing step formulas, have risers that do not exceed 7 inches.

Floors

Sec. 11. Floors shall wherever practicable have a surface that is non-slip. Floors on the same story shall be of a common level throughout or be connected by a ramp in accord with Section 7(a) through the first paragraph of Section 7(b), inclusive.

Toilet Rooms

Sec. 12. (a) An appropriate number of toilet rooms, in accordance with the nature and use of a specific building or facility, shall be accessible to, and useable by, the physically handicapped.

(b) Toilet rooms shall have space to allow traffic of individuals in wheelchairs, in accordance with Section 5.

(c) Toilet rooms shall have at least one toilet stall that

(1) is 3 feet wide

(2) is at least 4 feet 8 inches, preferably 5 feet deep

(3) has a door (where doors are used) that is 32 inches wide and swings out

(4) has handrails on each side, 33 inches high and parallel to the floor, 1- $\frac{1}{2}$ inches in outside diameter, with 1- $\frac{1}{2}$ inches clearance between rail and wall, and fastened securely at ends and center

(5) has a water closet with the seat 20 inches from the floor.

(d) Toilet rooms shall have lavatories with narrow aprons, which when mounted at standard height are useable by individuals in wheelchairs, or shall have lavatories mounted higher, when particular designs demand, so that they are useable by individuals in wheelchairs.

(e) Mirrors and shelves shall be provided above lavatories at a height as low as practicable and no higher than 40 inches above the floor measured from the top of the shelf and the bottom of the mirror.

(f) Toilet rooms for men shall have an appropriate number of wall-mounted urinals with the opening of the basin 19 inches from the floor, or shall have floor-mounted urinals that are on level with the main floor of the toilet room.

(g) Toilet rooms shall have an appropriate number of towel racks, towel dispensers, and other dispensers and disposal units mounted no higher than 40 inches from the floor.

Water Fountains

Sec. 13. (a) An appropriate number of water fountains or other water-dispensing means shall be accessible to, and useable by, the physically disabled.

(b) Water fountains or coolers shall have up-front spouts and controls. Water fountains or coolers shall be hand-operated or hand- and foot-operated.

Public Telephones

Sec. 14. (a) An appropriate number of public telephones shall be made accessible to, and useable by, the physically disabled.

(b) Such telephones shall be placed so that the dial and the handset can be reached by individuals in wheelchairs.

(c) An appropriate number of public telephones shall be equipped for those with hearing disabilities and so identified with instructions for use.

Elevators

Sec. 15. Elevators shall be provided and shall be accessible to, and useable by, the physically disabled at all levels normally used by the general public. Elevator control buttons shall have identifying features for the benefit of the blind. Elevators shall allow for traffic by wheelchairs.

Switches and Controls

Sec. 16. Switches and controls for light, heat, ventilation, windows, draperies, fire alarms, and all similar controls of frequent or essential use, shall be placed within the reach of individuals in wheelchairs.

Identification for the Blind

Sec. 10. It shall be the further duty of the Chief of the Division of Child Welfare to visit and study conditions in the eleemosynary institutions maintained by State appropriations for the care and custody of defective, illegitimate, dependent, neglected and delinquent children, namely:—The State Orphans Home at Corsicana, Texas; the Home for Dependent and Neglected Children at Waco; the Girls' Training School at Gainesville, Texas; the Juvenile Training School at Gatesville, Texas; the Austin State School, Austin, Texas, and the Colored Orphans Home at Gilmer, Texas, and to make recommendations as to the policy of management of these Institutions and outline a program for each of these Institutions so that these various types of children shall receive the best possible training in contemplation of their earliest discharge from said institution.

(a) Every person, agency, association, institution or corporation coming within the purview of this Act, shall maintain such reasonable individual social records and individual health records; except day care centers, commercial day care centers, commercial boarding homes, agency boarding homes, and convalescent children's boarding homes, as defined in this Act, as are promulgated under the process hereinafter provided and said records shall be open for inspection by the State Department of Public Welfare at all reasonable times.

(b) Every person, agency, association, institution or corporation coming within the purview of this Act, except day-care centers, commercial day-care centers, commercial boarding homes, agency boarding homes, and convalescent children's boarding homes, as defined in subsection 1(c), 1(d), 1(e), 1(g), and 1(h) of Section 1 of this Act, shall maintain statistical records and complete financial records of income and disbursements, and shall have its books audited annually by a licensed public accountant and shall submit, annually, a copy of such auditor's statement concerning receipts and disbursements to the Executive Director of the State Department of Public Welfare, or he may accept the financial report made to the fraternal order, church, religious or denominational body which owns or controls such licensed facility, or which is published in its official organ, handbook, or minutes in lieu of the said auditor's statement. It is further provided that every person, agency, association, institution or corporation coming within the purview of this Act, upon the written request of the Attorney General of the State of Texas, shall open its books for inspection by the Attorney General, to ascertain the honesty and legitimacy of its operation.

6. Children Improperly Cared For.

Whenever the State Department of Public Welfare has reason to believe that any person, association or corporation having the care or custody of a child subjects such child to mistreatment or neglect, or immoral surroundings, it shall cause a complaint or petition to be filed in the proper court, and said Department may be represented by the Attorney General of the State of Texas in such a proceeding.

7. Denial, Suspension and Revocation of License.

(a) The State Department of Public Welfare is authorized to deny a license to a person or to an unincorporated or incorporated institution, agency, or association coming within the purview of this Act, if it or he is organized so loosely, poorly, and intangibly, or if it or he operates by such methods that said State Department reasonably concludes that the manner of organization and/or operation admits of probability of fraud being perpetrated. Appeal may be made for a hearing as provided elsewhere in this Act.

(b) The State Department of Public Welfare is authorized to suspend or revoke any license if it ascertains failure to comply with the law or with the reasonable rules and regulations provided for herein; provided that the following procedure is followed: (1) The State Department of Public Welfare, in writing, shall call to the attention of the licensee the particulars in which he fails to comply and shall specify a reasonable time by which it is probable that the licensee can remedy said failure; then, (2) if failure to comply persists, said Department shall give written notice of intention to suspend or revoke said license thirty (30) days thereafter if no appeal for a hearing is made by the licensee; (3) if, within said thirty (30) days, licensee files with the State Department of Public Welfare written request for a hearing, the matter then shall be referred to the Advisory Board, which shall conduct a hearing and render a written opinion, as elsewhere provided for in this Act; and (4) after receiving a copy of said opinion, the State Department of Public Welfare may proceed to suspend or revoke the license in question.

8. Advisory Board.

(a) In the event that any person, association, agency, corporation, or facility coming within the purview of this Act is denied a license to operate or solicit funds or said license to operate or to solicit funds has been suspended or revoked, said person, association, corporation, agency or facility shall have the right to appeal within a reasonable time, and upon filing written notice of appeal, said appellant shall be granted a reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the Advisory Board created in this Act.

Within a reasonable time prior to the appellant's appeal hearing, he, or his authorized agent, shall be fully advised of the information contained in his record on which action was based if a request for such information is made in writing, and no evidence of which the appellant is not informed shall be considered by the Advisory Board or the State Department of Public Welfare as the basis for the decision after the hearing.

(b) The Advisory Board provided for herein shall consist of five (5) members appointed by the State Board of Public Welfare. The members shall be appointed at least thirty (30) days prior to the date set for the hearing and shall be comprised of the Executive Officers of institutions coming within the same classification as the appellant, provided that not more than one (1) member shall be appointed from any one (1) institution. When the Advisory Board is appointed, the Board shall immediately select its chairman and the chairman of the Board shall notify the appellant in writing of the date and place of the hearing, said hearing to be set within a period of not more than forty-five (45) days after the Advisory Board is notified of its appointment. Members of the Advisory Board shall serve on the Board without salary, but each member attending the appeal hearing shall be paid Ten Dollars ($10) per day for expenses, for each day in session, said payments being made by the State Department of Public Welfare out of its funds. The Advisory Board meeting shall be held in Austin or in the immediate vicinity of the appellant's residence.

(c) At the hearing all of the evidence shall be recorded verbatim, and a copy of the transcript shall be made available to the appellant and the State Department of Public Welfare, in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Public Welfare.

The Advisory Board shall make written opinions and recommendations to the State Department of Public Welfare within a period of ten (10) days after the hearing is closed and failure to make the report within the time prescribed may be considered by the State Board of Public Welfare as sufficient justification for the appointment of a new Advisory Board. These opinions and recommendations shall be advisory only, and shall not be binding upon the State Department of Public Welfare.

(d) Nothing in this Article 8 concerning Advisory Boards shall be interpreted to prevent any party involved from due recourse to the courts, and in case of flagrant violation of this Act which endangers either the health or welfare of the children in the institution or facility, the person, association, corporation, agency or facility may be temporarily enjoined from operation during the pendency of the appeal.

9. Promulgations of Rules and Regulations.

It is the expressed intent of this Act that the State Department of Public Welfare shall be given the right and the authority to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations governing the granting of licenses to the institutions and facilities coming within the purview of this Act, and for the suspension or revocation of such license for the operation of such institutions and facilities named in this Act, or for the solicitation of funds for the maintenance of such institutions and facilities; said rules and regulations shall be reasonable, and shall be uniform in nature. A copy of the rules governing the granting, suspension, or revocation of the licenses to operate or to solicit funds, which are currently used by the State Department of Public Welfare, shall be furnished to each person, organization, agency or facility contemplated in this Act and if the State Department of Public Welfare makes changes or revisions in said rules and regulations, copies of the proposed changes shall be sent to each person, association, corporation, agency or facility coming within the purview of this Act at least sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of the proposed changes or revisions in order to enable those persons, associations, corporations, or agencies affected an opportunity to review the proposed changes and make written recommendations or suggestions concerning them, if desirable.

9a. Rules Relating to Immunization of Children.

(a) The State Department of Public Welfare shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to the immunization of children admitted to institutions and facilities covered by this Act.

The rules shall require the immunization of each child at an appropriate age against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, rubella, rubeola, and smallpox, and such immunization must be effective upon the date of first entry into the institution or facility; provided however, a person may be provisionally admitted if he has begun the required immunizations and if he continues to receive the necessary immunizations as rapidly as is medically feasible. The State Department of Health shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to the provisional admission of persons to institutions and facilities covered by this Act. The State Board of Health may modify or delete any of the immunizations listed in this section or may require immunization against additional diseases as a requirement for admission to institutions and facilities covered by this Act, provided however, that no form of immunization shall be required for a child's admission to an institution or facility if the person applying for the child's admission submits either an affidavit signed by a doctor in which it is stated that, in the doctor's opinion, the immunization would be injurious to the health and well-being of the child or any member of his family or household, or an affidavit signed by the parent or guardian of the child stating that the immunization conflicts with the tenets and practice of a recognized church or religious denomination of which the applicant is an adherent or member.

(b) Each institution or facility covered by this Act shall keep an individual immunization record for each child admitted, and the records shall be open for inspection by the State Department of Public Welfare at all reasonable times.

(c) The State Department of Health shall provide the required immunizations to children in areas where no local provision exists to provide these services.

10. State Institutions Exempt.

Child-caring and child-placing institutions and agencies, which are owned and operated by the State of Texas, are exempt from the licensing and regulatory provisions of this Act; except that this provision shall not prevent the State Department of Public Welfare, or the Board which controls a state-owned child-caring or child-placing institution or agency, from requesting the State Department of Public Welfare, or an Advisory Board composed of the Executives of licensed institutions, to give counsel, to be expressed in a written opinion, on any matter which might contribute to the efficiency of said institution or agency, and hence might be in the public interest.

11. Injunction.

Any person, association, or corporation, for cause, may be enjoined from soliciting for, or conducting, or managing any institution, agency, or facility coming within the purview of this Act through suit brought by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, or by the county attorney or district attorney, in the county where such illegal practices occur.

12. Misdemeanor.

Any person who (i) impersonates an official, employee, representative, agent, or solicitor of any licensed institution or agency within the scope of this Act, (ii) falsely represents himself as representing a licensee under this Act, (iii) solicits funds in the name of, or for, any licensee under this Act without authorization, or (iv) without a license conducts a child-caring institution, a commercial child-caring institution, a child-placing agency, or places children for adoption, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or confinement in county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both. Each day of violation shall be considered a separate offense.

Powers and Functions Not Affected

Sec. 9. No provision of this Act shall in any manner interfere with the powers and functions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the Department of Education, the State Commission for the Blind, or the Division of Maternal and Child Health of the State Health Department, or the Juvenile Boards of any of the counties authorized by Title 82, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.¹

Sec. 10. The Executive Director shall prepare and submit to the Board, for its approval, a biennial budget of all funds necessary to be appropriated by the Legislature for the State Department for the purposes of this Act, including in such budget an estimate of all Federal funds which may be allotted to this State by the Federal Government for the purposes of the State Department. The budget so prepared shall by the State Board be submitted to and filed with the Board of Control in the form and manner and within the time prescribed by law.

Reports

Sec. 11. The Executive Director shall prepare annually a full report of the operation and administration of the State Department, together with such recommendations and suggestions as he may deem advisable, and such reports shall be submitted to the State Board not later than the first day of October of each year. The State Board, in turn, shall submit a report to the Governor and the Legislature.

Blind Persons; Assistance To

Sec. 12. Assistance shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any needy blind person who:

- (1) Is over the age of eighteen (18) years; and
- (2) Whose vision, with correctional glasses, is insufficient for use in an occupation for which sight is essential; and
- (3) Who resides in the State; and
- (4) Who is not publicly soliciting alms in any part of this State. The term "publicly soliciting" shall be construed to mean the wearing, carrying, or exhibiting the signs denoting blindness, or the carrying of receptacles for the reception of alms, or the doing of the same by proxy, or by begging from house to house or on any public street, road, or thoroughfare within the state; and

(5) Who has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health; and

(6) Who is a citizen of the United States.

Blind Persons; Exceptions to Aid

Sec. 13. No aid to needy blind persons shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any individual for any period with respect to which he is receiving Old Age Assistance.

Blind Persons; Amount of Assistance

Sec. 14. The amount of assistance which shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any individual as aid to the blind shall be determined by the State Department through its district or county agencies in the county or district in which the needy blind person resides with due consideration to the income and other resources of such blind person and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Department. In considering eligibility and the amount of the assistance grant, the Department shall exempt from consideration the earned income from employment of such blind applicant or recipient in such amounts as may be determined by the State Department of Public Welfare in conformity with rules and regulations promulgated by said Department and which are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Federal Social Security Act, as it now is, or as it may hereafter be amended, in respect to the earned income of blind recipients. The amount of assistance given shall provide such blind person with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health, within the limitations and provisions of the Constitution of Texas as are now provided, or may hereafter be provided.

Blind Persons; Application for Assistance

Sec. 15. No application for assistance as a needy blind person shall be approved until the applicant shall have been examined by an ophthalmologist or physician skilled in treatment of diseases of the eye who is licensed to practice medicine in Texas and who has been approved by the State Department to make such examination, or an optometrist who is legally licensed to practice optometry in the State of Texas and who has been approved by the State Department to make such examination. The examining ophthalmologist or physician or optometrist shall certify in writing, upon forms prescribed by the State Department, such information as the Department may require for proper diagnosis, prognosis, and recommendations as to medical and surgical treatment. The State Department shall adopt a reasonable fee schedule for such examinations, such fees not to exceed those customarily charged by the examiner for similar examinations for his private patients. Such fees shall be paid out of the funds appropriated to the State Department for the purpose of assistance to needy blind persons under the provisions of this Act or for administrative expense.

Blind Persons; Reexamination of Eyes; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 16. Every recipient of aid to the blind shall submit to a reexamination of his eyesight at least once every two (2) years, unless excused therefrom by the State Department. The State Department shall promulgate such rules and regulations stating in terms of ophthalmic measurements, the amount of visual acuity which an applicant or recipient may have and still be eligible for assistance under this Act.

Permanently and Totally Disabled Persons; Assistance To; Acceptance of Money from Federal Government

Sec. 16-A. The State Department of Public Welfare is hereby designated as the State Department to administer financial assistance to needy individuals who are permanently and totally disabled as defined in this Act, and is designated as the State Department to cooperate with the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare or any other Federal Agency which may hereafter be designated by Federal Statute to administer such aid to needy individuals who are permanently and totally disabled, so as to provide assistance payments to permanently and totally disabled persons who meet the eligibility requirements as are herein prescribed or as may hereafter be provided.

The State Department of Public Welfare is hereby authorized to accept money from the Federal Government for the purposes enumerated in this Act, and is hereby authorized to expend such sums as may be received for such purposes and in the manner prescribed in this Act or as otherwise provided by law.

Permanently and Totally Disabled Persons; Eligibility for Assistance; Definitions; Amount of Assistance

Sec. 16-B. (1) Assistance to the permanently and totally disabled shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any needy person:

1. Who is permanently and totally disabled as hereinafter defined; and
2. Who is eighteen (18) years of age or older but less than sixty-five (65) years of age; and
3. Who is a citizen of the United States, and
4. Who resides in the State; and
5. Who is in need as hereinafter defined; and
6. Who is not receiving Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, or Aid to Families with Dependent Children; and
7. Who has not disposed of property, either personal or real, for the purpose of qualifying or increasing need for assistance, provided that the property, if still available, would affect either eligibility or the amount of the assistance payment.

No application for assistance under the provisions of this Act shall be approved until it has been established in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Public Welfare that the applicant is permanently and totally disabled by reason of a mental or physical impairment or a combination of both.

(2) The term "Permanently and totally disabled", as used in this Act, means that the individual has a permanent physical or mental impairment, disease, or loss, or a combination of such which is verifiable by medical findings, which is irreversible, or progressive, and not amenable to treatment, or requires treatment that is continuous, extremely hazardous, or of questionable benefit, and renders the individual totally disabled, as demonstrated by the fact that he is restricted in his performance of usual activities of daily living to the extent that he requires services, or the presence of another person in performing these activities, and which permanently precludes the applicant from engaging in a useful occupation as a homemaker or as a wage earner.

"Permanent and total disability", as defined herein, shall be established on the basis of a current applicable medical report of examination by a physician legally licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas and who has been approved by the State Department of Public Welfare to make such examinations. The examining physician shall certify in writing, upon forms prescribed by the State Department, such information as the Department may require for proper diagnosis, prognosis, and recommendations as to medical and surgical treatment. Said reports shall be reviewed by a physician legally licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas and employed by the State Department of Public Welfare, who shall approve or disapprove the medical evidence to substantiate the finding of "permanent and total disability". Said reviewing physician shall also determine the feasibility of referring said applicant for vocational rehabilitation. The State Department of Public Welfare shall adopt a reasonable fee schedule for examinations, when examinations are considered necessary by the State Department of Public Welfare for the purpose of determining eligibility for assistance of individuals who are permanently and totally disabled under the provisions of this Act, and the Department of Public Welfare is hereby authorized to pay for such examinations out of the funds appropriated to the State Department for the purpose of assistance to the permanently and totally disabled persons under the provisions of this Act or for administrative expense. The State Department of Public Welfare is hereby authorized to incur claims for medical examinations which may be paid later out of subsequent appropriations for medical expenses when the current appropriation is inadequate to pay for such medical examinations.

Each recipient of assistance who is permanently and totally disabled shall submit to a reexamination whenever such reexamination is deemed necessary by the State Department of Public Welfare for the continuance of the assistance grant.

(3) The Department of Public Welfare is authorized to provide through employment of properly qualified personnel such medical, social and related services as are found necessary for proper administration of this Act, and for most effective use of other resources for rehabilitation and restoration to health and independence. The Department of Public Welfare shall refer recipients who can be benefited thereby to the appropriate public and private resources for rehabilitation through retraining, restorative services, or treatment and therapy.

(4) In determining "need", the State Department of Public Welfare shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the purpose of determining eligibility, and shall take into consideration all of the resources and income available to the individual from any source. Assistance may not be granted if such individual has available resources which are sufficient to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with health and decency; provided that in consideration of income and resources actually available to an applicant, the State Department shall take into consideration the income and resources which may be available to the relatives of an applicant or a recipient, who under rules and regulations promulgated by the Department pursuant to Federal rules and regulations, are responsible for his support.

The State Department of Public Welfare shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for determining the amounts of assistance given to an applicant. The amount of assistance given shall be determined by the State Department of Public Welfare through its District or County Agents in the County or District in which the needy person resides. The amount granted shall provide such person with a reasonable subsistence compatible with health and decency and within the limitations and provisions of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as is now provided or may hereafter be provided. The amount of such assistance out of state funds to each person assisted shall never exceed the amount so expended out of Federal funds. The method of investigation and the determination of the amount of assistance granted shall comply with the limitations and provisions of the Federal Social Security Act as is now provided or may hereafter be provided.

Permanently and Totally Disabled Persons; General Provisions Applicable To

Sec. 16-C. Sections 22 through 42 of this Act and all the other general provisions of this Act shall be applicable to the program for assistance to the permanently and totally disabled.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children

Sec. 17. Aid to Families with Dependent Children shall be given under the provisions of this Act with respect to any dependent child. "Dependent Child" is any needy child:

(1) Who is a citizen of the United States; and

(2) Who resides in the State; and

(3) Who is under the age of eighteen (18), or under the age of twenty-one (21) and (as determined by the Department in accordance with standards prescribed by the Department) a student regularly attending a school, college, or university, or regularly attending a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment; and

(4) Who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of the death, continued absence from the home, or physical or mental incapacity of a parent; and

(5) Who is living with his father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, or niece, in a place of residence maintained by one or more of such relatives as his or their own home; and

(6) Who has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. In determining need, the State Department of Public Welfare shall take into consideration any other income and resources of any child or relative claiming Aid to Families with Dependent Children, as well as any expenses reasonably attributable to the earning of any such income; except that, in making such determination, the State Department may, subject to limitations prescribed by the Department, permit all or any portion of the earned or other income to be set aside for the future identifiable needs of the dependent child.

Dependent Child; Definition

Sec. 17-A. The term "dependent child" shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 17 of this Act, also include a child:

(1) Who would meet the requirements of such Section 17 except for his removal from the home of a relative as specified in said Section, as a result of a judicial determination to the effect that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of such child; and

(2) Whose placement and care are the responsibility of the State Department of Public Welfare or some other agency with whom the State Department of Public Welfare has made an agreement for the care and supervision of such child, and in compliance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Public Welfare for carrying out the provisions of this Act and for whose placement and care the State Department of Public Welfare is responsible, and who has been placed in a foster family home or child-caring institution as a result of such determination, and for whom the State may receive Federal funds for the purpose of providing foster family care in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Department; and the Department is empowered and authorized to accept and expend funds made available to it from any and all sources for the purpose of providing foster care on behalf of such children. Any such homes which may not be subject to the licensing provisions of this Act are hereby made subject to such licensing provisions.

Needy Family with Dependent Children; Amount of Assistance

Sec. 18. The amount of assistance which shall be given under the provisions of this Act with respect to any needy family with dependent children shall be determined by the State Department through its district or county agencies in the district or county in which the needy family with dependent children resides with due consideration to the income and other resources of such family in compliance with Sub-section (6) of Section 17 of this Act and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Department. The amount of assistance given shall provide such needy family with dependent children with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health, within the limitations and provisions of the Constitution of Texas as are now provided or as may hereafter be provided.

Program for Welfare and Related Services; Federal Programs and Funds; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 18-A. (1) The State Department of Public Welfare shall provide for the development and application of a program for such welfare and related services for each child who receives Aid to Families with Dependent Children as may be necessary in the light of the particular home conditions and other needs of such child, and provide for coordination of such programs with any other services provided for children in the State, and particularly with the Child Welfare Services provided by the Department, with a view of making available welfare and related services which will best promote the welfare of such child and his family and which will help to maintain and strengthen family life by helping such parents or relatives to attain or retain their capabilities for maximum self-support and personal independence consistent with the maintenance of continued parental care and protection, and in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations prescribed by the State Department of Public Welfare in cooperation with other public and private welfare agencies for the care and protection of children.

(2) The State Department of Public Welfare is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations which will enable it to fully participate in the work and training programs authorized by Federal Law as it now reads or as it may hereafter be amended; to provide through rules and regulations for all services required or deemed advisable under the provisions of the Program; and to accept, transfer and expend funds made available by the Government of the United States, the State of Texas, or through any other public or private source for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Section.

Support from Parent of Child Living Outside Home

Sec. 18-B. (1) In considering the resources and income available to families with dependent children, the State Department of Public Welfare shall explore with the parent or other relative with whom the child is living the possibility of obtaining support and/or services on behalf of such child from the parent of such child who is living outside the home, and shall, in all cases where it seems appropriate and feasible to the Department, require the parent or other relative with whom the child is living to take whatever action is necessary to obtain maximum support which has been ordered pursuant to a court order for the support of said child, and shall consider such support payments wherever available in determining the needs and resources of the family with dependent children. The Department shall also provide for prompt notice to appropriate law enforcement officials of the furnishing of Aid to Families with Dependent Children in respect to a child who has been deserted or abandoned by a parent.

(2) After every reasonable effort on the part of the person having the care and custody of the child has been exerted to obtain support payments from the absent or deserting parent or other person liable for the child's support and the payments are not being made, the State Department may grant assistance payments without taking into consideration the amount of such support payments. The State Department may not withhold an assistance payment on behalf of a dependent child because of a court order for support of such child unless the amount available to said child under such court order is sufficient to supply the needs of the child in accordance with standards and rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department. If such assistance payments are made by the State Department, the State Department is authorized to file notice with the court ordering the support payments and upon receipt of such notice, the court shall order that the payments be made to the State Department to the extent that the State Department has supplied the needs of such dependent child.

The State Department shall have the right, the authority, and the responsibility to collect the payments and to take whatever legal steps are necessary to initiate support payments and to assure continuance of such payments on behalf of such child through the courts.

If payments are resumed to the person having the care and custody of the child, then the State Department may consider such payments as being available for meeting the needs of the child and will no longer continue to seek direct payments from the court.

Moneys received under the provisions of this Act shall be deposited by the State Department in the "Department of Public Welfare Assistance Operating Fund" and used for providing assistance and services on behalf of needy dependent children.

Assistance to Needy Family with Dependent Children Living with Relatives

Sec. 19. When the investigation discloses that a family with children in whose behalf application for assistance has been made is a needy family with dependent children as defined in this Act, and that such needy dependent child meets the other provisions of this Act and that such child is living, or will live, with one or more of the relatives prescribed in this Act, assistance and/or services may be allowed for the support of such needy family with dependent children. It is expressly provided that the Department shall:

(1) Formulate policies for studying and improving the home conditions and specific needs of the child,

(2) Make plans for services for the protection of children especially in relation to specific needs of children such as health and educational opportunities. The State Department shall require that each dependent child between the ages of eighteen (18) and twenty-one (21) years to whose family or relatives or others assistance or services are allowed for the support of such dependent child shall remain enrolled in the regular term of school in the community in which the child resides, unless the State Department finds that good cause exists for the nonattendance of the child at school. Failure to comply with this requirement shall, under applicable rules and regulations of the State Department, constitute good cause for a termination of such assistance or services,

(3) Develop a mutual plan of co-ordination between the Aid to Needy Families with Dependent Children and the Child Welfare Services Programs in order to carry out its responsibilities for the protection and care of children as provided in this Act.

Counseling and Guidance Services

Sec. 19-A. Whenever the State Department of Public Welfare has reason to believe that any payments of Aid to Families with Dependent Children made with respect to a child are not being or may not be used in the best interest of the child, the State Department of Public Welfare may provide for counseling and guidance services with respect to the use of such payments and the management of other funds by the relative receiving such payments as is deemed advisable in order to assure use of the payments in the best interest of the child, and may provide for advising the relative that continued failure to so use such payments will result in substitution therefor of protective payments. If the State Department of Public Welfare determines that protective payments are required in order to safeguard the best interest of the child, payments to a substitute payee may be made on a temporary basis in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Public Welfare. If the situation in the home which made the protective payments necessary does not improve and it is determined that the relative with whom the children are living is unable or does not have the capacity to use the funds for the best interest of the children, then the Department may arrange with the family for other plans for the care of the children, such as removal of the children to the home of other relatives; the appointment of a guardian or legal representative of such relative with whom the child is living, and/or the imposition of criminal or civil penalties authorized under State Law if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such relative is not using or has not used for the benefit of the child any such payments made for that purpose, or the referral to a court of competent jurisdiction for removal of the child and placement in a foster home. The State Department of Public Welfare is further authorized to make payments on behalf of dependent children residing in foster family homes or child-caring institutions in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department.

Old Age Assistance; Persons Eligible

Sec. 20. Old Age Assistance shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any needy person:

(1) Who has attained the age of sixty-five (65) years; and

(2) Who is a citizen of the United States or who is a noncitizen and has resided within the boundaries of the United States for at least twenty-five (25) years; and

(3) Who resides in the State; and

(4) Who has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with health and decency. Provided that in consideration of income and resources actually available to applicant the State Agency shall not evaluate income and resources which may be available only to relatives of applicant. Income and resources to be taken into consideration shall be known to exist and shall be available to the applicant. An applicant for old age assistance shall not be denied assistance because of the existence of a child or other relative, except husband or wife, who is able to contribute to the applicant's support, and no inquiry shall be made into the financial ability of said child or other relative, except husband or wife, in determining applicant's eligibility.

The applicant's child or other relative, except husband or wife, is to be treated by the State Department in the same way as any person not related to the applicant; any aid or contributions to the applicant from such child or other relative, except husband or wife, must actually exist in fact, or with reasonable certainty, be available in the future to constitute a resource to the applicant.

(5) An applicant for old age assistance shall not be denied assistance because of the ownership of a resident homestead, as the term "resident homestead" is defined in the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas.

Old Age Assistance; Amount of Assistance

Sec. 21. The amount of assistance which shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any individual as old age assistance shall be determined by the State Department through its district or county agencies in the county or district in which the needy aged person resides with due consideration to the income and other resources of such aged person and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Department. A voluntary statement by any child or other relative, except husband or wife, as to the amount and kind of aid or assistance he is contributing or expects to contribute to an applicant for old age assistance shall be accepted by the State Department as prima facie evidence of the availability and amount of such contribution; provided, however, that actual contributions to the applicant must be considered by the State Department. The amount of assistance given shall provide such aged person with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health, within the limitations and provisions of the Constitution of Texas as are now provided, or may hereafter be provided.

Seasonal or Occasional Employment During War

Sec. 21a. Provided, however, that until the United States of America has concluded and entered into treaties of peace with all of the nations with whom she is now at war, commonly referred to as the Axis Powers, no grant of assistance to any recipient of old age assistance who is already on the rolls or who may hereafter be placed on said rolls, and is already receiving old age assistance, shall be reduced or revoked by reason of the fact that any such needy recipient may derive or receive other and additional income to take care of his additional needs above his grant, from seasonal or occasional employment, until and unless such needy recipient shall receive more than Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars of outside and additional income during a calendar year; provided said recipient of old age pension reports his said employment, in writing, to the local office of Public Welfare, giving the name and address of his employer or employers at the end of each month, and giving the amount of his earnings during the month just passed. Provided further, that neither the State Department of Public Welfare nor any of its district or county agencies in the county or district in which the needy aged person resides shall give any consideration to any such income received by recipients of old age assistance up to the amount of Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars that is actually derived and received in payment for labor actually performed or services rendered during a calendar year.

It is the declared purpose of this section to encourage recipients of old age assistance to aid in overcoming the great shortage of manpower during this great war emergency by performing necessary labor when and wherever possible without being faced with the possibility of having pensions reduced, or being removed from the pension rolls altogether.

Applications for Assistance

Sec. 22. Application for old age assistance, aid to the blind, and aid to dependent children under the provisions of this Act shall be made in the manner and in the form prescribed by the rules and regulations of the State Department. Such application may contain a statement of the amount of property, both personal and real, in which the applicant has an interest and of all income which the applicant may have at the time of the filing of the application, and such other information as may be required by the State Department.

Investigations and Determinations by State Department

Sec. 23. Whenever the State Department shall receive an application for old age assistance, aid to the blind or aid to dependent children as provided under this Act, the State Department shall:

(1) Make an investigation and record of the circumstances of the applicant in order to ascertain the facts supporting the application and to obtain such other information as it may require.

(2) After completion of its investigation, determine whether the applicant is eligible for assistance under the provisions of this Act, the type and amount of assistance, the date on which such assistance shall begin, and the manner in which payment shall be made. All applicants shall be promptly notified of the final action taken by the State Department.

Reinvestigations

Sec. 24. All assistance granted under the provisions of this Act to any needy aged person, needy blind person or with respect to any dependent child shall be reconsidered as frequently as may be required by the rules of the State Department. After such reconsideration as the State Department may deem necessary or may require, the amount of assistance may be changed, or the assistance may be entirely withdrawn if the State Department finds that the recipient's circumstances have altered sufficiently to warrant such action. The State Department may at any time cancel and revoke assistance or it may suspend assistance for such period as it may deem proper, upon the grounds of ineligibility of the recipient under the provisions of this Act. Whenever assistance is thus withdrawn, revoked, suspended, or in any way changed, the State Department shall at once notify the recipient of such decision. If at any time during the continuance of public assistance the recipient thereof becomes possessed of income or resources in excess of the amount previously reported by him, it shall be his duty to notify the State Department of this fact immediately on the receipt or possession of such additional income or resources.

Appeal to State Department from Local Unit

Sec. 25. (1) In the event that an application for public assistance by a needy blind person, a needy aged person, or with respect to a needy dependent child, is not acted upon by the local unit of administration within a reasonable time after the filing of such an application, or is denied in whole, or in part, or any award of assistance is modified or cancelled, or an applicant or recipient is dissatisfied with any action or failure to act on the part of the local administrative unit, the applicant or recipient shall have the right to appeal to the State Department and shall be granted a reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the State Department.

(2) Within a reasonable time prior to an applicant's or recipient's appeal hearing he, or his authorized agent, shall be fully advised of the information contained in his record on which action was based if a request for such information is made in writing, and no evidence of which the applicant or recipient is not informed shall be considered by the State Department as the basis for a decision after a hearing.

Method of Assistance Payments

Sec. 26. All assistance payments provided for under the terms of this Act shall be paid by vouchers or warrants drawn by the State Comptroller on the proper accounts of a "State Department of Public Welfare Fund"; for the purpose of permitting the State Comptroller to properly draw and issue such vouchers or warrants, the State Department of Public Welfare shall furnish the Comptroller with a list of or roll of those entitled to assistance from time to time, together with the amount to which each recipient is entitled. When such vouchers or warrants have been drawn they shall be delivered to the Executive Director of the State Department of Public Welfare, who in turn shall supervise the delivery of same to the persons entitled thereto.

Separate Accounts of State Department of Public Welfare Fund; Special Funds; Transfer of Funds; Accounting System; Custodian of Moneys

Sec. 27. (1) For the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the "Old Age Assistance Fund," the "Blind Assistance Fund," and the "Children Assistance Fund" as provided for in House Bill No. 8, Acts of the Forty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended;¹ the "Disabled Assistance Fund" as created by House Bill No. 78, Acts of the Fifty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended;² and the "Medical Assistance Fund" as created by Senate Bill No. 79, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, as amended,³ are hereby made separate accounts of the "State Department of Public Welfare Fund." Provided, that all moneys in the separate accounts of the "State Department of Public Welfare Fund" shall be expended for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, and for the purposes for which said separate accounts were created or appropriated, and for such other purposes as the Legislature by statutory enactment may direct.

The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall establish two (2) special funds in the State Treasury to be known as the "Department of Public Welfare Administration Operating Fund" and the "Department of Public Welfare Assistance Operating Fund."

The State Comptroller, after appropriate allocations, transfers, and credits to and from the various funds involved, is hereby authorized to transfer funds appropriated for the operation of the Department into the "Department of Public Welfare Administration Operating Fund" and/or the "Department of Public Welfare Assistance Operating Fund" and all other current revenues (including but not limited to grants, earnings, allotments, refunds and reimbursements) and balances on hand, such amounts as are designated and authorized by the Department of Public Welfare. The State Comptroller shall transfer between the "Department of Public Welfare Administration Operating Fund" and the "Department of Public Welfare Assistance Operating Fund" such amounts as are designated and authorized by the Department of Public Welfare.

The State Department of Public Welfare with the approval of the State Auditor shall establish an internal accounting system, and the expenditures of the State Department of Public Welfare shall be allocated to the various funds in accordance with such internal accounting system. At the close of each fiscal year of the biennium, any remaining unencumbered balance in the "Department of Public Welfare Administration Operating Fund" and/or the "Department of Public Welfare Assistance Operating Fund" shall be reported to the State Comptroller by funds to which it belongs as determined and designated by the Department of Public Welfare. Unencumbered balances thus identified with fund balances which revert to the General Revenue Fund under Legislative Acts, shall be returned to the appropriate funds as determined and designated by the Department of Public Welfare.

The revenues to, the balances in, and the appropriations out of the "Social Security Fund," the "Social Security Administration Fund," the "Commodity Distribution Fund" (including the "Food Stamp Fund"), and the "Donated Commodity Distribution Fund" are excluded from the two (2) special Public Welfare operating funds established herein.

(2) Should the State Department of Public Welfare determine that a transfer among appropriated State funds is needed to match Federal Medical Assistance funds then, upon written authorization of the State Department of Public Welfare, the State Comptroller of Public Accounts is hereby authorized to transfer moneys allocated and appropriated for payments for Old Age Assistance, Blind Assistance, Children's Assistance, and/or Disabled Assistance out of the respective special assistance funds into the "Medical Assistance Fund," and the State Department is authorized to pay Medical Assistance out of said funds so transferred and appropriated so as to provide Assistance and Medical Assistance to the greatest extent possible within Federal and State Laws, and within the limitations of the Texas Constitution and within the limits of total appropriated funds.

(3) The State Treasurer is hereby designated as the custodian of any and all moneys which may be received by the State of Texas (which the State Department of Public Welfare is authorized to administer), from any appropriations made by the Congress of the United States, for the purpose of cooperating with the several provisions of the Federal Social Security Act, or as it may hereafter be amended, and all moneys received from any other source; and the State Treasurer is hereby authorized to receive such moneys, pay such moneys into the proper fund or the proper account of the General Fund of the State Treasury, provide for the proper custody thereof, and to make disbursements therefrom upon the order of the State Department and upon warrant of the State Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Proration of Assistance Grants

Sec. 28. If at any time, State funds are not available to pay all such grants of assistance in full as authorized in this Act, such grants shall be prorated as the State Board of Public Welfare may direct; except that during the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1957, in the operation of the Permanently and Totally Disabled Assistance Program the Department of Public Welfare is authorized to set up a maximum grant which may be paid to any individual in a lesser amount than the possible maximum within the Constitution of the State of Texas and the Federal Social Security Act¹ in order that the amount of money available out of State funds may be distributed more equitably until it is possible to determine an average grant.

Non-transferability of Assistance; Exemptions; Death of Recipient before Warrant is Cashed

Sec. 29. Old age assistance, aid to the blind, or aid to dependent children as provided for under the provisions of this Act shall not be transferable or assignable, at law or in equity, and none of the money paid or payable under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any insolvency law; the provision of this Act providing for old age assistance, aid to the blind, and aid to dependent children shall not be construed as a vested right in the recipient of such assistance; provided, however, in case any person who is an approved recipient of old age assistance, aid to the blind, or aid to dependent children, living on the first day of any month, or living at the date of the issuance of the check, or living at the date of the mailing of the check, and entitled to assistance for that month, dies before the check issued for such assistance, for the month in which the death occurs, has been endorsed or cashed by recipient, the amount of said check may be paid to any person determined by the Department of Public Welfare to have been responsible for the caring of the recipient at the time of his death and responsible for the payment of obligations incurred; the Executive Director of the State Department of Public Welfare will endorse the check payable only to the person whom the Department of Public Welfare has determined was responsible for the care of the recipient at the time of the latter's death and who is responsible for the payment of obligations incurred by the recipient; the State Department of Public Welfare shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations prescribing a method of payment and limitations of such payments in such cases and the manner of ascertaining the person entitled to receive the same; provided, however, that payments to recipients under the above provisions shall be made only in such manner and to such extent as are permissible under and consistent with the laws and regulations governing the disbursement of funds received through the Federal Social Security Board. And provided further, that all old age assistance, aid to the blind, and aid to dependent children warrants not cashed, as provided by this Act, within a reasonable time after issuance may be cancelled by the State Comptroller upon proper authorization of the State Department of Public Welfare.

Issuance of Duplicate Assistance Warrants

Sec. 29-A. If a warrant has been issued by the Comptroller in payment of assistance as provided under this Act, and if the claimant entitled to receive such warrant has lost or loses, or for any reason failed or fails to receive such warrant after such warrant is or has been issued by the Comptroller, and upon satisfactory proof of such, the Comptroller may issue to the claimant a duplicate warrant as provided for in Article 4365, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by House Bill No. 519, Page 576, General and Special Laws of the State of Texas, Fifty-third Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, but in no event shall a duplicate warrant be issued after one year from the date of the original warrant.

Such services shall be provided by an attorney legally licensed to practice in the State of Texas, or through the use of law students acting under the supervision of a law teacher or of a legal services organization, and who has been approved by the State Department of Public Welfare. The State Department shall adopt a reasonable fee schedule for such services, such fees not to exceed those customarily charged by the attorney for similar services for private clients. Such fees shall be paid only out of such funds as may be appropriated to the Department for this purpose.

In order to enable the State Department of Public Welfare to expend the funds in such a manner so as not to jeopardize the receipt of Federal funds provided for these purposes, the State Department is granted the latitude of expending the funds as provided herein so as to meet the needs of those individuals who are eligible for Assistance and/or Medical Assistance to the fullest extent possible as provided by Federal and State Laws, in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, within the constitutional limitations, and within the limits of total appropriated funds; therefore, if any Section or provision of this Act shall for any reason be held unconstitutional or invalid in whole or in part, then, and in that event, this Act shall be invalidated and of no force or effect in respect to such unconstitutional provisions only, and the Sections or parts of laws found to be amended or modified by the provision or Section found to be unconstitutional shall remain in full force and effect."

"Sec. 10. The fact that under Federal Law the Department is required to extend the welfare programs and to provide services to and on behalf of the needy people served by the Department, and such services can, in many instances, be best provided through contracts and agreements with individuals or with other public or private agencies; the fact that by extending these programs and services, funds which could be made available to the Department through other public or private sources can be used for matching Federal funds; the fact that the Federal and State Laws enacted since the State Department of Public Welfare was created have added innumerable responsibilities to the Department thereby making the divisions which were created within the Department at that time inoperative; the further fact that the Department could more effectively operate and more effectively use staff time if divisions were restructured; the fact that many persons, particularly aged and disabled persons, live with their children or other relatives so as to receive personal care and assistance; the fact that these aged and disabled recipients have to frequently move across state lines in order to receive this care because the relatives with whom they live have to move across state lines due to military service or employment; the fact it works a grave hardship and injustice on the recipient whose public assistance grant is denied because of these factors beyond his control; the fact that part of the funds used in paying the grants come from Federal funds; the fact that the Federal courts have held that the durational residence requirement for recipients of public assistance is unconstitutional; the fact that under Title XIX durational residence for Medical Assistance is prohibited; the fact that the Social Security Amendments of 1967 provided additional funds for extending the assistance and services available to applicants for and recipients of Public Assistance, and the crowded condition of the calendar create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and the said Rule is suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage and it is so enacted.

Sections 2 to 4 of Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2410, ch. 761, read:

"Sec. 2. The effective date of the assessments for food stamps and the increased assessments herein provided for commodities shall be September 1, 1971.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

"Sec. 4. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word in this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity."

Rules and Regulations; Terms of Agreements

Sec. 5. The State Board of Public Welfare is authorized and directed to promulgate all reasonable rules and regulations it deems necessary to govern applications for and eligibility to participate in this program, and it shall prescribe the terms of the agreements necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act and to insure financial responsibility on the part of participating counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State.

Authority of Governing Bodies

Sec. 6. The respective governing bodies of the various counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State which are now or shall hereafter become eligible under applicable Federal requirements are hereby authorized to enter into all necessary agreements with the State Agency to enable the employees of the respective counties, municipalities and other political subdivisions to have coverage under the Social Security Act. The respective governing bodies are authorized to pay contributions as required by these agreements from those funds from which the covered employees receive their compensation, and it is expressly provided that all prior laws and parts of laws which fix a maximum compensation for any covered employees of counties are hereby amended to allow payment of the matching contribution necessary to this program in addition to any maximum compensations otherwise fixed by law.

Submission and Approval of Plans

Sec. 7. Each county, municipality or other political subdivision of the State is authorized to submit for approval by the State Agency a plan for extending the benefits of the Federal old-age and survivor's insurance system to employees of the county, municipality or political subdivision. The State Agency shall not finally refuse to approve a submitted plan and shall not terminate an approved plan without reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the affected county, municipality or political subdivision. Each plan shall be approved by the State Agency if it finds it is in conformity with requirements provided in the regulations of the State Agency, except that no plan shall be approved unless:

(a) it is in conformity with requirements of the applicable Federal law and with the Federal-State agreements;

(b) it specifies the source or sources from which the funds necessary to make the payments required are to be derived and contains guarantees that these sources will be adequate for this purpose (the State Agency may by appropriate rules and regulations require guarantees in the form of surety bonds, advance payments into escrow, detailed representations and assurances of priority dedication, or any legal undertakings to create adequate security that each county, municipality and political subdivision will be financially responsible for its share in this program for at least a minimum period equivalent to that specified by Federal requirements to precede coverage cancellation);

(c) provides such methods for administration of the plan by the county, municipality or political subdivision as are found by the State Agency to be necessary for proper and efficient administration;

(d) it provides the county, municipality or political subdivision will make reports in such form and containing such information as the State Agency may from time to time require and will comply with such provisions as the State Agency or appropriate Federal authorities may from time to time find necessary to assure the receipt, correctness and verification of these reports; and

(e) it authorizes the State Agency to terminate the plan in its entirety if it finds there has been a failure to comply with any provision contained in the plan, this termination to take effect at the expiration of such notice and upon such conditions as may be provided by regulations of the State Agency consistent with applicable Federal law.

Contributions

Sec. 8. Each county, municipality or other political subdivision as to which a plan has been approved may and shall pay to the State Agency, with respect to employees' wages, at such time as the State Agency may by regulations prescribe, contributions in the amounts and at the rates specified by the applicable agreement entered into pursuant to the Federal-State agreement. Counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions required to make such payments are authorized, in consideration of the employees' retention in or entry upon employment, to impose upon its employees as to services which are covered by an approved plan, a contribution with respect to wages in keeping with applicable State and Federal requirements. Contributions so collected shall be paid to the State Agency in partial discharge of the liability of the county, municipality or political subdivision, but failure to deduct contributions from employees' wages shall not relieve the employee or the employer of liability for the contribution. If more or less than the correct amount of any contribution is paid or deducted, adjustments or refunds shall be made in the manner and at the time prescribed by the State Agency. Matching contributions by the employing counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions as prescribed by the approved plan in keeping with Federal requirements shall be paid from the respective sources of funds from which covered employees receive their compensation.

Assessment and Collection of Contributions

Sec. 9. When the governing body of a county, municipality or other political subdivision elects to enter into an agreement with the State Agency, it shall become the duty of the County Treasurer in the respective counties and of the person or persons who hold comparable positions in the municipalities or other political subdivisions to assess and collect the required contributions of the various employees in the respective counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions and transmit the same to the State Agency. Each plan approved by the State Agency will specify the responsible personnel of the undertaking county, municipality or other political subdivision who will be charged with the duty to make assessments, collections, and reports.

Administrative Expenses

Sec. 10. The respective governing bodies of the various counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of this State which enter into agreements under this program are hereby authorized to pay to the State Agency, out of any available funds not otherwise dedicated, such amounts, separate and apart from employees' contributions and matching contributions, as may be agreed between the respective governing body and the State Agency to be necessary to finance the county's, municipality's or other political subdivision's proportionate share in the administrative cost of this program at the State level. The State Agency shall require specific undertakings to defray a proportionate share of the administrative expenses at the State level in agreements negotiated with counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions on any basis mutually agreeable between the State Agency and the participating county, municipality or other political subdivision, whether as an annual fee for each participating county, municipality or other political subdivision, an annual fee per employee covered, a percentage based upon the contributions to the Federal authorities, or any other equitable measure. Annually at the close of each fiscal year, the State Agency shall pay from the Social Security Administration Fund to the State Treasurer for deposit to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas an amount not less than ten (10%) per cent of these contributions during the preceding year to defray administrative expenses until such time as the amount appropriated to the State Agency from funds of the State for administrative purposes has been reimbursed in full, at which time such payments shall cease.

Delinquent Payments

Sec. 11. The State Agency may require in agreements with counties, municipalities and other political subdivisions an undertaking to pay legal interest on delinquent payments. The State Agency is empowered to sue to collect any delinquencies and interest thereon in courts of competent jurisdiction. The State Agency may direct the deduction of any delinquent payments with interest from any moneys payable to the delinquent county, municipality or other political subdivision by the State or any department or agency of the State; provided, however, that deductions shall be made only from such prior appropriations as were expressly made subject to such deductions. The Comptroller and the State Treasurer are empowered and directed to comply with the State Agency's deduction directives and to remit the deducted amounts to the State Agency in trust for the contributions of the delinquent county, municipality or other political subdivision.

Social Security Fund; Social Security Administration Fund

Sec. 12. There is hereby established as a special fund, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this State, to be known as the Social Security Fund, which shall be administered as directed by the State Agency exclusively for the purposes of this Act. The State Treasurer shall be treasurer and custodian of the fund. He shall administer such fund in accordance with the directions of the State Agency, and the Comptroller shall issue warrants upon it in accordance with such regulations as the State Agency shall prescribe. The State Agency shall deposit all moneys collected under the provisions of this Act, except moneys to defray administrative expenses at the State level, in the Social Security Fund. Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as "The Medical Assistance Act of 1967."

Legislative Intent; Medical Assistance Defined; Liberal Construction of Act

Sec. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature to make statutory provision which will enable the State of Texas to provide Medical Assistance on behalf of needy individuals of this state and to enable the state to obtain all benefits provided by the Federal Social Security Act¹ as it now reads or as it may hereafter be amended, or by any other Federal Act now in effect or which may hereafter be enacted within the limits of funds available for such purposes. A. Reasonable fees, charges, and rates for professional fees or services shall be the usual and customary fees, charges, and rates prevailing in the community.

B. Reasonable fees, charges, and rates, paid for other Medical Assistance shall be the usual and customary fees, charges, and rates, provided, however, that if such payments are otherwise limited by Federal Law, such payments shall be as near the usual and customary fees, charges, and rates as may be permitted by law.

The State Department is hereby authorized and empowered to determine the method of payment of claims for Medical Assistance by establishing a direct vendor payment program administered by the State Department or by an insurance plan or hospital service plan, and/or a medical service plan, or any other health service plan authorized to do business in Texas or by any other fiscal intermediary or method of payment or a combination of such plans and/or methods which the State Department finds to be the most satisfactory and economical method of paying costs and/or processing claims, and said State Department may make whatever amendments or changes as it finds necessary from time to time in order to provide Medical Assistance in an economical and equitable manner consistent with simplicity of administration and in the best interest of the recipients.

If the State Department elects as part of its plan and/or methods to make payments directly to vendors of Medical Assistance as authorized in this Act, then such vendor payments provided for under the terms of this Act shall be paid by vouchers or warrants drawn by the State Comptroller on the proper accounts of a "State Department of Public Welfare Fund"; for the purpose of permitting the State Comptroller to properly draw and issue such vouchers or warrants, the State Department of Public Welfare shall furnish the Comptroller with a list of or roll of those entitled to such vendor payments from time to time, together with the amount to which each vendor is entitled. When such vouchers or warrants have been drawn they shall be delivered to the Commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare, who in turn shall supervise the delivery of same to the vendors entitled thereto.

The amount of such Medical Assistance out of state funds on behalf of any individual shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of Federal funds and provided further, that the total amount of Medical Assistance payments out of state funds on behalf of such eligible individuals shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of Federal funds.

Transfer as Assignment of Assistance or Funds; Exemption from Legal Process

Sec. 7. Neither Medical Assistance nor amounts payable to vendors out of public assistance funds are transferable or assignable, at law or in equity, and none of the money paid or payable under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any insolvency law.

Eligibility of Recipients of Public Assistance Grants for Medical Assistance

Sec. 8. All individuals who are receiving public assistance grants shall be automatically eligible for Medical Assistance as provided in this Act and an application for Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled, or Aid to Families with Dependent Children shall constitute an application for Medical Assistance as provided herein.

For any groups for which Medical Assistance is provided who are not recipients of public assistance, the State Department shall prescribe the necessary forms and shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for accepting and processing applications for Medical Assistance.

Appeal

Sec. 9. Any individual whose application for Medical Assistance is denied or is not acted upon with reasonable promptness shall have the right to appeal to the State Department for a fair hearing. The provisions in the Public Welfare Act of 1941, as amended, or as it may hereafter be amended (codified as Article 695c, Section 25, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), granting the right of appeal to applicants and recipients of public assistance, shall be applied in relation to appeals for Medical Assistance insofar as applicable and the same rights and procedures shall be granted to applicants for and recipients of Medical Assistance.

Disclosure of Information Concerning Applicants or Recipients; Records, Papers and Files

Sec. 10. The State Department shall provide safeguards which restrict the use and/or disclosure of information concerning applicants or recipients of Medical Assistance to purposes directly connected with the administration of the Program.

It shall be unlawful, except for purposes directly connected with the administration of general assistance, old age assistance, aid to the blind, aid to families with dependent children, aid to the permanently and totally disabled, or Medical Assistance, and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Department, for any person or persons to solicit, disclose, receive, make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of, any list of, or names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving such public assistance or Medical Assistance, directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the State Department or subdivisions or agencies thereof, or acquired in the course of the performance of official duties.

The rule-making power of the State Department shall include the power to establish and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing the custody, use, and preservation of the records, papers, files, and communications of the State Department and its local offices. Wherever, under provisions of law, names and addresses of recipients of public assistance or Medical Assistance are furnished to or held by any other agency or department of government, such agency or department or government shall be required to adopt regulations necessary to prevent the publication of lists thereof or their use for purposes not directly connected with the administration of public assistance or Medical Assistance.

Subrogation

Sec. 11. The State Department or any person, firm, or institution which has furnished service shall be subrogated to any applicant's or recipient's right of recovery from personal insurance or other sources or the right of recovery for personal injuries occasioned by the negligence or wrong of another to the extent of the cost of medical care services paid for by the State Department or to the extent of the services rendered by such person, firm, or institution which has furnished service. The State Department is authorized to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the enforcement of its right of subrogation and the Commissioner of Public Welfare may, in his discretion, waive this right of subrogation to the extent that the Commissioner finds that the enforcement thereof would tend to defeat the purpose of the public assistance laws. The fact that an applicant for or a recipient of Medical Assistance has a claim for damages for personal injuries shall not be grounds for denying or discontinuing Medical Assistance.

Rules and Regulations to Minimize Fraud; Fraudulent Representations; Penalties

Sec. 12. The State Department shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for minimizing the opportunity for fraud; for establishing and maintaining methods of detecting and identifying situations in which a question of fraud in the program may exist; and for referring cases where fraud appears to exist to the appropriate law enforcement agencies for prosecution.

Whoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain by means of a wilfully false statement or representation or by impersonation, or by other fraudulent means:

(1) Medical Assistance, services, or treatment to which he is not entitled;

(2) Medical Assistance, services, or treatment greater than that to which he is justly entitled;

(3) Or, with intent to defraud, aids or abets in buying, or in any way disposing of the property of a recipient of assistance or Medical Assistance without the consent of the State Department, or whoever violates Section 10 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined any sum not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) or be imprisoned for not less than six (6) months, nor more than two (2) years, or be both so fined and imprisoned. If any of the acts defined and punishable as a misdemeanor under this Act shall also constitute some other offense punishable under the laws of the State of Texas, the offender shall be amenable to prosecution, at the state's election, either under this Act, or for such other offense as may have been committed by him.

Rules and Regulations to Administer Medical Assistance Program; Personnel and Administrative Expenses

Sec. 13. The State Department is authorized to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for administering the Medical Assistance Program and is authorized to use such funds as may be appropriated for the administrative costs of the operation of the Medical Assistance Program including, but not limited to, the payment of salaries, travel expense, rent, bond premiums, postage, telephone and telegraph, freight, express, drayage, stationery, printed forms, office supplies, equipment, repairs, examining fees, medical services, maintenance, and miscellaneous and contingent expense (includes Merit System).

The personnel and other administrative expenses provided for in this Section shall constitute additional staff and additional administrative expenses of the State Department of Public Welfare, and said State Department is hereby authorized to establish position classifications, and such additional personnel and administrative expenses shall be integrated with the present staff and other costs of administration for the purpose of administering the Public Assistance and Medical Assistance Programs, and shall in no way lessen the authority or the power of the Commissioner of Public Welfare to allocate and reallocate functions, duties, and responsibilities of the employees as provided in Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 36, Acts of the 46th Legislature, Regular Session, 1939, as amended by House Bill No. 611, Chapter 562, Page 914, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended.¹

Comprehensive Staff Development Program

Sec. 14. In order to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the administration of the Public Assistance and Medical Assistance Programs which will result in improved services to the needy of the State of Texas, it is necessary to assist employees to obtain the technical and professional education required in the administration of these Programs. The State Department is authorized and empowered under rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department and in conformity with the Plan of Administration with the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, to establish personnel plans and policies which will enable the State Department to formulate a comprehensive Staff Development Program which shall include, among other things, a provision for granting paid educational leave to selected employees and to make payments in the form of grants, stipends, or other methods selected by the State Department out of Federal and State funds within the limits of appropriated funds.

Research and Demonstration Projects

Sec. 15. The State Department is authorized independently or in cooperation with any public or private agency or department to set up research and demonstration projects which in the judgment of the Commissioner of Public Welfare are likely to assist in promoting the objectives of Title I, Old Age Assistance; Title IV, Aid to Families with Dependent Children; Title X, Aid to the Blind; Title XIV, Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled; or Title XIX, Medical Assistance, as they now read or as they may hereafter be amended, or any other Federal Act now in effect or which may hereafter be enacted. Federal funds made available for assistance payments and/or Medical Assistance, and/or Federal funds made available for research and demonstration projects may be used in paying the costs of such research and demonstration projects. The State Department is also authorized to use any state funds appropriated for such purposes in conducting such research and demonstration projects.

The State Department may conduct such research and demonstration projects and use funds available for any purpose which in the judgment of the Commissioner of Public Welfare would be beneficial to the programs administered by the State Department and which is not contrary to or inconsistent with Federal and State Laws making such funds available.

Medical Care Advisory Committee

Sec. 16. The Commissioner of Public Welfare shall establish a Medical Care Advisory Committee, which Committee shall be of such size, membership, and experience as may be determined by the Commissioner of Public Welfare to be essential for the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act and in compliance with the requirements of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare or any other Federal Agencies or Departments responsible for the administration of the Medical Assistance Program.

The State Department shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for establishing membership on the Committee which will provide for rotation, stability, continuity, efficiency of operation, and representation of the various professions and disciplines authorized to provide Medical Assistance.

The members of the Medical Care Advisory Committee shall receive no compensation for their services except that they may receive their actual expenses while engaged in the performance of their duties.

As requested by the Commissioner of Public Welfare from time to time in the furtherance of the objectives of the Program, the Medical Care Advisory Committee shall cooperate with and advise the State Department in developing and maintaining the Medical Assistance Program and provide professional advice on immediate and long-range plans with the view of reaching the overall objectives and goals in providing high quality comprehensive medical and health services to needy individuals in the state.

The Commissioner of Public Welfare also is authorized to appoint regional and local medical care advisory committees and is authorized to appoint any other state or local advisory committees as may be considered appropriate and necessary in the administration of public welfare.

Medical Assistance Fund; Expenditures; Transfer of Monies

Sec. 17. At such time as appropriations are authorized by the Legislature for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, there shall be continued in the Treasury a special fund to be known as the "Medical Assistance Fund" created by Senate Bill No. 79, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,¹ which constitutes a separate account of the "State Department of Public Welfare Fund," and shall be expended only for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act or any amendments thereto, and for the purposes for which said separate account was created; provided, however, that the amount of Medical Assistance on behalf of such individuals qualifying for Medical Assistance out of state funds shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of Federal funds.

Medical Assistance on a limited basis is currently provided for recipients of public assistance and with the implementation of Title XIX of the Federal Social Security Act, as it now reads or as it may hereafter be amended, or any other Federal Act now in effect or which may hereafter be enacted, it is imperative that Medical Assistance be extended, the cost of which is unpredictable and the assistance grants currently include, insofar as possible, amounts to meet medical needs within the limits of appropriated funds. Under Title XIX, some medical needs of recipients which were formerly included in assistance grants will be paid on a vendor basis; therefore, some of the funds allocated and appropriated for the purpose of paying assistance grants may be required for Medical Assistance payments.

If the necessity arises, the State Department by rules and regulations and as authorized in the Appropriations Act, may request the transfer of monies appropriated for the payment of assistance grants out of the Assistance Funds into the "Medical Assistance Fund" and is empowered and authorized to use such funds for the purpose of paying Medical Assistance in addition to the funds specifically appropriated out of the "Medical Assistance Fund" for such purposes.

Infringement on Health Programs; Cooperative Arrangements

Sec. 19. It is not the intention of this Act to preempt or dilute or in any way infringe upon the health programs for which any State Agency or Department is or may be responsible, and it is the intention of this Act that the state plan for Medical Assistance provide for entering into cooperative arrangements with other State Agencies and Departments responsible for administering or supervising the administration of health services in the state looking toward maximum utilization of such services in the provision of Medical Assistance under this plan.

Conflict with Federal Statutes; Money for Medical Assistance for Needy Persons

Sec. 20. If any portion of this Act or amendments thereto are found to be in conflict with the provisions of appropriate Federal Statutes as they now are or as they may be amended, then and in that event, the State Department is specifically authorized and empowered to prescribe in its rules and regulations such limitations and restrictions as may be necessary in order that money will be available for Medical Assistance for or on behalf of needy persons.

Effective Date; Implementation of Plans for Administration of Program

Sec. 21. If this Act meets the Constitutional requirements for becoming effective upon being signed by the Governor, the State Department shall immediately implement plans for administering the Program, but the payments for Medical Assistance under the provisions of this Act shall be effective September 1, 1967.

Repealer

Sec. 22. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only and it is specifically provided that the Medical Assistance Act, being Senate Bill No. 79, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, as amended by Senate Bill No. 405, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, and being codified as Article 695j, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, is retained in the law and shall remain operable insofar as it is not in conflict with this Act so as to enable the State Department to promulgate rules and regulations and to enter into agreements with the Federal Government to implement this Act, and to assure continuity of Medical Assistance to the individuals receiving Medical Assistance under provisions of that Act until such time as plans can be implemented and approved, and funds, both State and Federal, made available for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 23. If any Section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Section 2 of Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 714, ch. 307, provided: "If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Functions and Responsibilities of Committee

Sec. 6. The Committee shall be the designated State Agency to handle programs of the Federal Government relating to the aging, requiring action within the state, which are not the specific responsibility of another State Agency under the provisions of Federal or State Law. This Committee is not intended to supplant or to take over from the counties and municipalities of this state or from other State Agencies or facilities of this state any of the specific responsibilities which are currently borne by them, but it is intended that this Committee shall cooperate with such Federal and State Agencies, counties, and municipalities and private agencies or facilities within the state in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Act on behalf of the aged.

If the same be purchased from the county, city, precinct, or district issuing the same or from the University of Texas, or from any person authorized to act for it in the negotiation or sale of the same, they shall thereafter be held to be valid and binding obligations in every action or proceeding in which their validity is or may be called in question, unless fraudulently issued, or issued in violation of the constitutional limitation. In every such action, such certificate of the Attorney General shall be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of the validity of such bonds, obligations, or pledges, and coupons thereto, which may have been so purchased.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 573, ch. 278, § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3024, ch. 994, § 16(a), eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

In every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds, the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence of its validity, together with the coupons attached thereto. The only defense which can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. This article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds as may be issued in excess of the limit fixed by the Constitution, or contrary to its provisions.

Sec. 4. Any such replacement bond shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his approval. No bonds or coupons legally and lawfully issued and signed by the duly authorized officers of any county, city, town, political subdivision, defined district, water improvement district or water control district or any school district of this State, shall ever be held invalid by reason of the fact that at the time of the actual delivery of such bonds to a purchaser, such bonds or coupons had been signed or executed by different officers acting in the same capacity or when such bonds or coupons had been signed or executed by officers who had succeeded other officers who had executed or signed a part of said bonds or coupons, nor shall any such bonds ever be held invalid by reason of the fact that at the time of the actual delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, the respective persons who had signed such bonds or coupons, or any part thereof, may have been replaced in their respective offices by other persons after the signing of such bonds or coupons or any part thereof and before the delivery thereof, and any officer acting in the same official capacity as his predecessor, shall have the same right to complete the execution of such bonds and their issuance in the manner and form as provided by law and to the same extent as did his predecessor and it shall be lawful for the official board or managing body of any such political subdivision or district to select in the manner provided by law another official or person in whom may be vested the authority and duty of the execution of such bonds and/or coupons and of issuing such bonds and completing the record in respect thereto, provided, however, such action or actions shall be set forth in the records of said subdivision or district.

Sec. 3. All bonds heretofore issued for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of any work, undertaking or project by any public body to which any loan or grant has heretofore been made by the United States of America through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of such work, undertaking or project, including all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds, and the sale, execution and delivery thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, notwithstanding any lack of power (other than constitutional) of such public body, or the governing board or commission or officers thereof, to authorize and issue such bonds, or to sell, execute or deliver the same, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities (other than constitutional) in such proceedings, or in such sale, execution or delivery; and such bonds are and shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body.

Sec. 4. Provided however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings, or bonds or other obligations issued by virtue thereof, where the validity of any such proceedings or obligations or bonds issued thereunder has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation. such order, and notwithstanding the fact that the notice of election was posted within such county instead of having been both posted and published in a newspaper of general circulation, and notwithstanding the fact that both such irregularities have occurred in connection with the same election. All bonds issued pursuant to such proceedings, when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers thereof, shall constitute valid and binding obligations of such county. All tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds, are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and legalized.

Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or obligations issued thereunder, the validity of which is being contested or attacked in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, or that may be filed sixty (60) days after the effective date hereof and shall not validate any levy, assessment of valuation made or placed on any property where any suit, as aforementioned, shall be or shall have been filed within the time aforementioned.

Sec. 4. Art. 717k. State, County, Municipality or Political Subdivision; Issuer of Bonds, Notes, etc.

"Issuer" Defined; Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to (and the term "issuer" as used in this Act shall mean and include) the State of Texas, or any department, agency or instrumentality of the State of Texas or any county, municipal corporation, taxing district or other political district or subdivision of the State of Texas having power to borrow money and issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness; and which has the power to issue refunding bonds in lieu of outstanding obligations of the issuer.

Refunding Bonds; Power to Issue; Sale Price; Maturity; Interest Rate; Security; Combination Issuance; Election; Approval; Registration; Sale and Delivery; Legal Investments; Exception

Sec. 2. (a) The governing body of any issuer shall be authorized to refund all or any part of any of its outstanding bonds, notes, or other general or special obligations by the issuance of refunding bonds to be sold for cash in such principal amounts as are necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of any obligations being refunded and the interest to accrue on said obligations to the maturity thereof, and/or to provide all or any part of the money required to redeem any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on any date or dates upon which said obligations are subject to such redemption, including principal, and any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on said obligations to said redemption date or dates. Said refunding bonds shall be sold for not less than their par value plus accrued interest to date of delivery, shall mature not more than forty years from their date, and shall bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer. Such refunding bonds may be secured by and made payable from the same source as the obligations being refunded thereby, or may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues, or both, or any other or different source, or any combination of sources, if the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Texas Constitution or any statute to secure to pay any kind or type of bonds by or from any such source. Said refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and/or with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions, and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any encumbrance in connection therewith; except that if the Texas Constitution would require an election or vote to permit any procedure, action, or matter pertaining to such refunding bonds, then an election to authorize any such procedure, action, or matter shall be held substantially in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, to the extent practicable, applicable, and appropriate. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with the Texas Constitution and this Act he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, without the surrender, exchange, or cancellation of the obligations being refunded; and notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, such bonds shall be so registered before the making of the deposit with the State Treasurer as required hereunder, and such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered to the purchaser thereof in order to permit the issuer to use the proceeds from such sale and delivery to make all or any part of said deposit. After such approval and registration, such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. All refunding bonds issued under this Act, shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees and guardians, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act. Said refunding bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act, to the extent of the market value of said refunding bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder unless the obligations to be refunded are scheduled to mature or are subject to redemption prior to maturity within not more than five years from the date of the refunding bonds; and no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder to refund electric and gas system revenue bonds issued by any city having a population in excess of 500,000, according to the most recent federal census.

(b) An issuer shall have the right to deposit, or cause to be deposited to the State Treasurer of the State of Texas a sum of money equal to the principal amount of the bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness which it proposes to refund plus the amount of interest which will accrue thereon calculated to the date on which it is to become due or on which it may be redeemed, together with the amount of contract premium if any, required for redemption; and concurrently with such deposit shall pay to the State Treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act a sum of money equivalent to one-twentieth ($1/20$) of one per cent (1%) of the principal amount of said bonds and one-eighth ($1/8$) of one per cent (1%) of the interest to accrue on all of said underlying obligations, and an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the charges of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest of said underlying obligations are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing said underlying obligations, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such underlying obligations, the date when the principal becomes subject to redemption, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments, and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act and for no other purpose, and no part of such money except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services shall be used by or for the State of Texas or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

Duty of State Treasurer

Sec. 3. Upon receipt of such deposits and payments, it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer, if the securities involved are to be redeemed at a place of payment other than his office, immediately and by the most expeditious means to forward to and deposit with the bank or trust company where such underlying securities are payable, the amount out of such deposits as is specified as being for the payment of the principal and interest, and contract premium, if any, on the securities to be redeemed, and for the payment of the service charges of such bank or trust company; provided however, that the issuer shall have made deposits and payments with the State Treasurer during normal banking hours at least one (1) business day prior to the date on which such securities are designated to be redeemed. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him the underlying securities thus redeemed and cancelled, and after the State Treasurer shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such cancelled bonds, coupons or securities to issuer.

Issuance and Sale of Refunding Bonds; Registration by Comptroller of Public Accounts

Sec. 4. When the issuer shall have deposited and paid into the Office of the State Treasurer the money, and shall have done the things required by Section 2 of this Act, it shall have authority to issue, sell and deliver refunding bonds in lieu of the underlying securities, despite the fact that the holders of other such underlying securities may not have surrendered or presented the same for payment; provided that the Attorney General of Texas shall certify to the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to any underlying securities which have not reached their normal maturity date that the issuer has validly called the bonds for redemption in accordance with the contract rights of the issuer. Where the issuer has complied with the requirements of this Act, the Comptroller shall register the refunding bonds despite the fact that some or all of the underlying securities shall not have been surrendered by the holder for payment and cancellation.

Cancellation of Underlying Securities not Required for Issuance, Sale or Registration of Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in prior laws requiring the issuance of refunding bonds, the issuer shall have the right to issue, register and sell such bonds without cancellation of the underlying securities provided the issuer has made the deposit required and has otherwise complied with the requirements of this Act.

Withdrawal of Deposits on Cancellation of Underlying Obligation

Sec. 6. After an issuer has made the deposits and payments required under Section 2 hereof, the issuer may apply to the State Treasurer to withdraw from the paying agent the amount of money deposited on the account of any underlying bond or security, together with the deposit for interest thereon and premium, if any, by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said obligation duly cancelled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such instrument. No funds so deposited by issuer with the State Treasurer under the provisions of this Act shall otherwise be withdrawn by the issuer except upon the conditions stated above in this Section, or unless the Attorney General of Texas shall certify to the State Treasurer that the payment by the issuer of the underlying security is barred by limitation and that payment thereof by the issuer is forbidden by law.

Deposits with State Treasurer; Effect; Refunding of Obligations; Fees; Forwarding to Place of Payment; Time of Payment

Sec. 7. When the deposit of money required hereunder is made with the State Treasurer in accordance with this Act, for any obligations being refunded pursuant hereto, such deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded; provided, however, that, at the option of and within the discretion of the issuer, provision may be made in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds for the subordination thereof to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent specifically provided in said proceedings. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, the fees to be paid the State Treasurer for his services and expenses under this Act shall not exceed a maximum of $1,000. Immediately after the receipt thereof, and by the most expeditious means, it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to forward to and deposit with the place of payment (paying agent) for the obligations being refunded all of the money deposited with him pursuant hereto (excepting the fees for his services). If there is more than one place of payment for the obligations being refunded, the State Treasurer shall forward the aforesaid money directly to the one of said places of payment which is located in the State of Texas; provided that if more than one of such places of payment is located in the State of Texas, or if no place of payment is located in the State of Texas and there is more than one place of payment located outside of the State of Texas, then said money shall be forwarded directly to the one of such places of payment having the largest capital and surplus. It shall be the duty of the place of payment to deposit the aforesaid money received from the State Treasurer (excepting the amount thereof representing the charges of the place of payment) into an interest and sinking fund to be established and maintained in trust and as a trust fund for the payment of the obligations being refunded. Further, it shall be the duty of the place of payment, out of said interest and sinking fund, to pay or redeem the obligations being refunded when duly presented therefor at the maturity, due date, or redemption date thereof. If there is more than one place of payment, the one having the deposit shall make appropriate financial arrangements so that the necessary funds will be available at the other place or places of payment to pay or redeem any of such obligations being refunded when so presented for payment or redemption. The holder or holders of any obligations being refunded by any refunding bonds issued and sold under this Act shall not have the right to demand or receive payment thereof at any time before the scheduled maturity date or dates, due date or dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of said obligations being refunded, unless the governing body of the issuer shall have specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of said obligations in the proceedings authorizing said refunding bonds.

State Treasurer's Bond; Protection of Deposits of Moneys and Securities

Sec. 8. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4368 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer, shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Cumulative of Other Acts

Sec. 9. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject, but to the extent that its provisions are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of other laws, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1256, ch. 503; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2316, ch. 783, §§ 1, 2, eff. June 14, 1969.]

Art. 717k-1. Public Securities; Issuance by State, County, Municipality or Political Subdivision; Denominations

Sec. 1. The term "public securities" as used herein shall mean bonds, notes, or other obligations for the payment of money which may hereafter be issued by this state, or by any department, agency, or other instrumentality of this state, or by any county, municipality, taxing district, or other political district or subdivision (whether included within one county or more than one county) which are now or may hereafter be authorized by law to borrow money and to issue bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness.

Sec. 2. All public securities authorized under the laws of this state may hereafter be issued in any denomination fixed and determined in the order, resolution, or ordinance authorizing the issuance of such securities, by the board, body, or officer empowered by law to authorize the issuance of such securities.

Sec. 3. The provisions of the Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws pertaining to the issuance of public securities, but the provisions hereof concerning the denominations in which public securities may be issued shall apply to all public securities, despite any provision in any earlier law to the contrary.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2043, ch. 752, eff. June 18, 1967.]

Art. 717k-2. Public Securities; Issuance by Public Agencies; Interest Rate

Sec. 1. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The term "public agency" shall mean and include the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, and any body politic and corporate of the State of Texas.

(b) The term "public securities" shall mean any bonds, notes, or other obligations payable from taxes, or revenues, or both, which any public agency is now or hereafter may be authorized to issue and sell pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act.

(c) The term "net interest cost" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total of all interest to accrue and come due thereon through the final scheduled maturity date thereof, plus any discount or minus any premium included in the price paid therefor. The term "bond years" with reference to each separate bond, note, or other obligation constituting part of an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the principal amount (par value) of each such bond, note, or other obligation by one-thousand (1000) and multiplying such quotient by the number of years from the date interest commences to accrue thereon to its scheduled maturity date. The term "net effective interest rate" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the amount of the net interest cost of such issue or series by the aggregate total number of bond years of all bonds, notes, or other obligations constituting such issue or series, and then dividing such quotient by ten (10) and expressing the result as a rate of interest in per cent per annum.

Sec. 2. Any public agency is hereby authorized to issue and sell any issue or series of its public securities at any price or prices and bearing interest at any rate or rates, as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided. Any public securities heretofore authorized by an election may be issued, sold, and bear interest as provided in this Act, except that public securities heretofore authorized by an election required by the Constitution of Texas shall not be issued at an interest rate greater than authorized at such election unless a further election is held resulting favorably to the issuance of such previously voted public securities at a price and at a rate authorized by this Act. Elections for that purpose shall be called and held, and notice thereof given, in the same manner as provided by law applicable to the previous election authorizing such public securities.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act concerning sale price and the maximum rates of interest which public securities may bear shall apply to all public securities notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or charter to the contrary, but shall not apply to any public securities whose maximum rate of interest or maximum net effective interest rate is, at the time of issuance thereof, otherwise specifically fixed by the Constitution.

Art. 717k-3. Refunding Bonds; Issuance by Public Agencies; Approval; Registration; etc.

Definitions

Sec. 1. The term "issuer," as used in this Act, shall mean any department, board, authority, agency, subdivision, municipal corporation, district, public corporation, body politic, or instrumentality of the State of Texas of every kind or type whatsoever, including, without limitation, all counties, home rule charter cities, general law cities, towns, villages, state-supported educational institutions of higher learning, junior and regional college districts, school districts, hospital districts, water districts, road districts, navigation districts, conservation districts, and all other kinds and types of political or governmental entities. The term "governing body," as used in this Act, shall mean the board, council, commission, court, or other group which is authorized by law to issue bonds for or on behalf of any issuer.

Complete or Partial Refunding

Sec. 2. The governing body of any issuer shall be authorized to refund all or any part of any of its outstanding bonds, notes, or other general or special obligations by the issuance of refunding bonds.

Maturity; Interest; Security and Source of Payment; Combination Issuance; Election; Exception

Sec. 3. Said refunding bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than forty years from their date, and shall bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer. Such refunding bonds may be secured by and made payable from the same source as the obligations being refunded thereby, or may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues, or both, or any other or different source, or any combination of sources, if the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Texas Constitution or any statute to secure or pay any kind or type of bonds by or from any such source. Said refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and/or with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions, and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any incumbrance in connection therewith; except that if the Texas Constitution would require an election or vote to permit any procedure, action, or matter pertaining to such refunding bonds, then an election to authorize any such procedure, action, or matter shall be held substantially in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, to the extent practicable, applicable, and appropriate. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder to refund electric and gas system revenue bonds issued by any city having a population in excess of 500,000, according to the most recent federal census.

Negotiability; Redeemability; Issuance

Sec. 4. Said bonds, and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, shall be negotiable instruments (except that such bonds may be made registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and they may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions and details, and may be executed, as provided by the governing body of the issuer in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

Approval; Registration; Exchange

Sec. 5. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with the Texas Constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas; and after such approval and registration, such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. The refunding bonds authorized by this Act shall be issued in exchange for, and upon surrender and cancellation of, the obligations being refunded thereby, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the obligations being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds. Any such exchange may be made in one or in several installment deliveries, and all or any part of any outstanding issue of bonds, notes, or other obligations may be refunded in whole or in part hereunder. Any outstanding issue of bonds, notes, or other obligations, whether payable from revenues, taxes, or otherwise, may be refunded hereunder in part provided that the issuer can demonstrate to the attorney general at the time of the refunding that adequate resources will remain, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment of the unrefunded part of such issue when due.

Legal Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 6. All bonds issued under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees and guardians, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act. Said refunding bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act, to the extent of the value of said refunding bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 7. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any issuer shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 8. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 717k-4. Revenue Bonds; Issuance by Cities, Towns and Villages; Validation of Proceedings

Sec. 1. Where any city, town, or village incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas has heretofore submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who had duly rendered the same for taxation a proposition or propositions for the issuance of revenue bonds for a purpose or purposes provided by Chapter 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and such revenue bonds were approved by a majority vote of the said participating property tax-paying voters, all election proceedings relating thereto are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed and such bonds may be issued and made payable from and secured by the net revenues of one or more of the utility systems mentioned in the said proposition or propositions approved at the said election, but in no event shall any such pledge of net revenues be made which would conflict with the contract rights of the holders of any outstanding bonds.

Sec. 2. All proceedings of the governing body of an incorporated city with respect to the authorization of bonds payable from revenues (any sources except ad valorem taxes) are hereby ratified and confirmed and such bonds shall be payable from and secured by the revenues pledged to the payment thereof.

Sec. 3. In all instances where revenue bonds are validated by the provisions hereof, all proceedings relating to the authorization of such bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 4. The provisions hereof shall not be construed as validating any bonds where (i) such bonds were required by law to be approved at an election unless the issuance thereof was approved at such election by a majority of the participating resident qualified property taxpaying electors, or (ii) the bonds or election proceedings are involved in litigation questioning the validity thereof on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

The Commissioners Court may submit at any bond election one proposition for the issuance of such bonds, which proposition may include all the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued; or it may, at its option, submit at any bond election one or more separate propositions for the issuance of such bonds, each of which separate propositions may include any one or more of the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued.

Sec. 4. Such bonds under and pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be an obligation of and a charge against the county; and it shall be the duty of such Commissioners Court to have assessed and collected a tax sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds as such principal and interest become due, which tax shall be levied pursuant to the authority of Article 8, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended, for general fund purposes. Contents of Petition

Sec. 2. The petition for declaratory judgment in such cases shall briefly set out, by proper allegations, references or exhibits, the petitioner's authority for issuing the Securities, the holding of an election and the results thereof where an election is required, the ordinance, resolution or other act or proceeding authorizing the issuance of such Securities and the minutes relating to adoption thereof, all other essential proceedings had or taken and/or proposed to be taken in connection therewith, the amount of the Securities to be issued, the rate of interest or maximum rate of interest they are to bear, and, in case it is desired to adjudicate the organization or validity of the Issuer, the authority for and proceedings had in the creation of the Issuer; the consideration to be received by the Issuer for the Securities, the county or counties in which the proceeds of the Securities, or any part thereof, are to be expended, and all other pertinent matters.

The judge of the District Court wherein the petition is filed, shall, upon the filing and presentation thereof, make and issue an order in general terms in the form of a notice directed to "all property owners, taxpayers, citizens and others having or claiming any right, title or interest in any property or funds to be affected by the issuance of the Securities or affected in any way thereby," requiring, in general terms and without naming them, all such persons and the Attorney General of Texas to appear at or before 10 o'clock A.M. on the first Monday after the expiration of forty-two (42) days from the date of issue of said order, and show cause why the prayers of the petition should not be granted and the proceedings and the Securities validated and confirmed as therein prayed. A copy of the above mentioned petition, together with all exhibits attached, and a copy of said order shall be served upon the Attorney General at least twenty (20) days before the time fixed in said order for hearing as aforesaid; provided, that the Attorney General may waive such service when he has been furnished a certified copy of such petition, order and a full transcript of the proceedings relating to issuance of the Securities. The Attorney General shall carefully examine the petition and if it appears, or there is reason to believe, that the petition is defective, insufficient or untrue, or if in his opinion, the issuance of the Securities has not been duly authorized, defense shall be made thereto as he may deem proper. Such records and proceedings shall be open to inspection at reasonable times to any party to such suit. Any officer, agent or employee having charge, possession, custody or control of any of the books, papers or records of the Issuer shall, on demand of the Attorney General, exhibit for examination such books, papers or records and shall, without cost, furnish duly authenticated copies thereof, which pertain to the proceedings for the issuance of the Securities or which may affect the legality of the same, as may be demanded of him. It is specifically provided that if the validity of bonds or warrants or the security for the payment of either of them is not involved in the litigation, the Attorney General shall so allege and upon a finding by the court to this effect, the Attorney General may be dismissed as a party and the court shall proceed to a final determination of the cause. The Issuer shall pay the mileage and travel expenses of the Attorney General or his assistant in the same amount as is allowable by the state to such officials for travel on other official business; the claim for such expenses shall be filed in duplicate with the clerk of the court in which the proceeding is pending, and shall be taxed as costs against the petitioner.

Injunctions Against Actions Contesting Validity of Organizational Proceedings, Etc.; Joint Hearing; Consolidation of Proceedings

Sec. 4. Upon motion of the petitioner, whether before or after the date set for hearing as provided in Section 3, the judge may enjoin the commencement by any person of any other action or proceeding contesting the validity of organizational proceedings of petitioner, or the validity of the Securities described in the petition, or the validity of the taxes, assessments, tolls, rates or other levies authorized to be imposed or made for the payment of such Securities or the interest thereon, or the validity of any pledge of revenues, or property to secure such payment, and shall order a joint hearing or trial before him of all such issues then pending in any action or proceeding in any court in the state, and may order all such actions or proceedings consolidated with the suit for declaratory judgment pending before him as herein authorized, and may make such orders as may be necessary or proper to affect such consolidation and as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delays or multiplicity of suits, and all such interlocutory orders shall not be appealable.

Sec. 5. Prior to the date set for hearing as provided in Section 3, the clerk of the court wherein said petition is filed, shall cause a copy of said order to be published in a newspaper of general circulation, in the county wherein the petitioner is situated or, if the petitioner lies or functions in more than one county, then in each of such counties once in each of four consecutive calendar weeks; such publication to be made in each instance upon any business day of the week, but the publication in the first calendar week in each county to be not less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the date set for hearing. By the publication of said order, all property owners, taxpayers, citizens or others having or claiming any right, title or interest in or against the petitioner or property subject to taxation thereby or otherwise affected by or interested in the issuance of the Securities described in the petition, shall be considered as and are made parties defendant to said proceedings, and the court shall have jurisdiction of them to the same extent as if individually named as defendants in said petition and personally served with process in the cause.

In the case of proceedings hereunder to adjudicate the validity of the Securities of any state agency, commission or department, the order shall be published in the manner herein provided in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County, Texas.

Additional Named Parties; Hearing; Determination; Decree

Sec. 6. Any property owner, taxpayer, citizen or person affected by or interested in the issuance of the Securities may become a named party to said proceedings by pleading to the petition on or before the time set for hearing as provided in Section 3, or thereafter by intervention upon leave of court. At or after the time, and at place designated in the order for hearing, the judge shall proceed to hear and determine all questions of law and fact in said proceedings and may make such orders as to the proceedings and such adjournments as will enable him properly to try and determine the same and to render a final decree therein with the least possible delay.

Appeals; Priority; Review by Writ of Error

Sec. 7. Any party to the cause, whether petitioner, defendant or intervenor or otherwise, dissatisfied with the final decree may appeal therefrom to the Court of Civil Appeals within twenty (20) days after the entry of such decree. Such appeal shall take priority over all other civil cases pending in said court except habeas corpus. The Supreme Court shall have authority to review by writ of error questions of law arising out of final judgments or decrees of the Court of Civil Appeals in such cases, in the manner, time and form applicable in other civil causes wherein the decision of Courts of Civil Appeals are not final.

Binding Effect of Decree; Permanent Injunction Against Actions Contesting Validity of Bonds, Notes, Etc.

Sec. 8. In the event the decree of the District Court determines that the Issuer has authority to issue the Securities for the consideration and upon the terms set forth in the petition for declaratory judgment hereunder, and adjudicates the legality of all proceedings taken and/or proposed to be taken in connection therewith, and no appeal is taken within the time above prescribed, or if taken and the decree of the District Court is affirmed, such decree shall, as to all matters adjudicated, be forever binding and conclusive, against the petitioner and all other parties to the cause, whether mentioned in and served with said notice of the proceedings, or included in the description "all property owners, taxpayers, citizens and others having or claiming any right, title or interest in any properties or funds to be affected by the issuance of the Securities or affected in any way thereby," and shall constitute a permanent injunction against the institution by any person of any action or proceeding contesting the validity of the bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness described in the petition, or the validity of provisions made for the payment of the same or of interest thereon.

Recording Decree

Sec. 9. The decree shall be recorded in the same manner as other decrees or judgments in each county in which notice of the hearing is required to be published by Section 5.

Notation as to Validity of Bonds and Other Evidences of Indebtedness

Sec. 10. Bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness adjudged valid as herein provided may have stamped or written thereon the following statement:

"Validated and confirmed by a decree of the _____ court (specifying the date when such decree was rendered and the court in which it was rendered and the style and number of the cause in said court) which perpetually enjoins the institution of any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity of this security or the provision made for the payment of the principal and interest thereof."

Said certificate may be signed by the clerk, secretary or other official of the Issuer; said signature may be by facsimile if authorized by the governing body of the Issuer.

Filing Copy of Decree with Comptroller of Public Accounts; Registration of Securities

Sec. 11. Where the securities are required by other statutes to be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts before the same may be issued, a certified copy of the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the securities, and a certified copy of the final judgment or decree in a proceeding hereunder, adjudicating the validity of the securities, shall be filed with the Comptroller; he shall thereupon register the securities in the manner provided by law.

Costs

Sec. 12. The cost in each proceeding under this Act shall be paid by the petitioner except in cases where a taxpayer, citizen or other person may appear and contest the proceeding or intervene therein, the court may tax whole or any part of the cost against such party or parties as shall be equitable and just; provided, that in no event shall any costs be taxed against the Attorney General.

Cumulative Effect of Procedure

Sec. 13. The procedure prescribed herein is cumulative of all other methods permitted under law for approval and validation of securities and shall not have the effect of repealing any such laws. The method prescribed in this Act may be invoked only by the Issuer and when so used may be employed concurrently with, or after use of other means of approval or validation; nothing in this Act shall be construed as varying venue in, or the procedures prescribed by law for maintaining actions contesting any election. This Act shall not have the effect of repealing the existing right of an Issuer to apply for and of the Supreme Court to issue writs of mandamus to the Attorney General for the approval of bonds, in appropriate cases.

An eligible county is defined to mean any county whose total taxable valuations at the time of the adoption of the provisions of this Act, according to the last approved tax rolls of the county, decreased by as much as seven per centum (7%) from the year preceding and which county will not have sufficient funds available within the current fiscal year to meet its general fund operating expenses as the same shall become due.

Issuance of Certificates; Purpose

Sec. 2. Subject to the limitations contained in this Act, an eligible county is authorized to issue certificates of indebtedness for the purpose of paying the operating expenses of the county to be legally incurred payable from the county's constitutional general fund as the same shall become due. Any such certificates shall be sold for cash at not less than par and accrued interest and the proceeds thereof, excluding accrued interest, shall be used for the purpose authorized in this Act, provided, however, no such certificates shall be issued, sold or delivered after two (2) years from the effective date of this Act.

Maturity; Interest; Form of Certificates and Coupons

Sec. 3. Such certificates shall be authorized by order of the Commissioners Court, shall mature in not exceeding fifteen (15) years from their date and bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per centum (5%) per annum. Interest may be evidenced by coupons and the certificates shall be fully negotiable. The certificates and coupons pertaining thereto shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, or the signatures of such officials may be lithographed or printed on such certificates or coupons in accordance with the provisions of Article 717j, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other law as may then be applicable to the execution of obligations issued by a county.

Tax

Sec. 4. When such certificates are issued, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners Court to levy and have assessed and collected a tax (out of the constitutional general fund tax as provided by Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution of Texas) sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on the certificates as such principal and interest become due, not to exceed ten cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars (\$100.00) valuation of taxable property in said county, nor may any eligible county issue any certificates under the provisions of this Act in the aggregate principal amount in excess of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one per centum (1%) of the valuation of taxable property in said county according to the last approved tax rolls of such county at the time of the adoption of this Act.

Examination and Approval of Certificates

Sec. 5. The certificates and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination and if they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and thereafter they shall be incontestable.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 6. The certificates of indebtedness shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, savings and loan associations, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such certificates shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such certificates shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value or to the extent of their market value, whichever value is the smaller, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 7. The Commissioners Court of an eligible county shall have the right at all times to issue refunding bonds for the refunding of certificates issued under the terms of this Act, subject to the General Laws applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds by counties and without the necessity of any notice or right to referendum vote.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 725. Substitution of Bonds

Where bonds have been legally issued, or may be hereafter issued for any purpose authorized in this chapter, new bonds in lieu thereof bearing the same or a lower rate of interest may be issued, in conformity with existing law, and the commissioners court may issue such bonds to mature serially or otherwise, not to exceed forty years from their date.

work, undertaking or project, including all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds, and the sale, execution and delivery thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, notwithstanding any lack of power (other than Constitutional) of such public body, or the governing board or commission or officers thereof, to authorize and issue such bonds, or to sell, execute or deliver the same, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities (other than Constitutional) in such proceedings, or in such sale, execution or delivery; and such bonds are and shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body.

Bonds for any or all of said purposes may be submitted to the voters in a single proposition. The bonds, in the discretion of the Commissioners Court, may be made optional for redemption prior to maturity on any date specified by the court in the bonds. Said bonds may be issued and delivered by the Commissioners Court for the purpose or purposes so voted, may mature serially or otherwise and may contain such option or options of redemption or no option of redemption, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of the county. The issuance of such bonds and the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of principal and interest thereon shall otherwise be in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and when so issued shall constitute valid and enforceable obligations of the issuer in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings the validity of which has been or is being questioned in litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

1. COUNTY AND DISTRICT BONDS

Arts. 726 to 752. Repealed by Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 23, ch. 16, § 30

Section 31 of the repealing act contained a saving clause, as follows: "Nothing in this Act shall be construed as invalidating any bond elections previously ordered or held within and for any county in this state or any political subdivision or defined district of any county under the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 18, Revised Statutes of 1911, and amendments thereto, or Chapter 3, Title 22, Revised Statutes, 1925, or under authority of any special county road law."

Art. 752a. Power to Issue Road and Turnpike Bonds; Taxes for Interest and Sinking Fund for Redemption; Use of Surplus Funds

Any county, or any political subdivision of a county, or any road district that has been or may hereafter be created by any General or Special Law, is hereby authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such county or political subdivision or road district, and to levy and collect ad valorem taxes to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof. Such bonds shall be issued in the manner hereinafter provided, and as contemplated and authorized by Section 52, of Article 3, of the Constitution of this State. The term "Political Subdivision," as used in this Act, shall be construed to mean any commissioners precinct or any justice precinct of a county, now or hereafter to be created and established. Provided, when the principal and all interest on said bonds are fully paid, in the event there is any surplus remaining in the sinking fund, said remaining surplus not used in the full payment of the principal and interest on said bond or bonds may be used by the county, political subdivision of the county, or any local district that has been or may hereafter be created by any General or Special Law for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes or in aid thereof or for any other lawful permanent improvement as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of any county or the officials of any political subdivision of a county or any said road district.

Provided further, that after each biennial appropriation has been made by the Legislature under the provisions of Section 7-a, Article VIII, Constitution of Texas, for the payment of principal, interest, and sinking fund requirements of bonds or warrants voted or issued prior to January 2, 1939, and declared eligible prior to January 2, 1945, for payment out of the County and Road District Highway Fund, all moneys in the interest and sinking fund of any such bond or warrant issue over and above whatever is necessary to supplement the funds made available under said appropriation for the biennium for which the appropriation is made, less such moneys as have been accumulated for sinking fund requirements for prior years as "sinking fund" is defined in Article 6674q-7(a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, may be considered as surplus and may be used by the Commissioners Court for the purchase of right of ways in the county, or district, or political subdivision, as the case may be, for highways and roads constructed by, or constructed under the supervision of, or maintained by the State Highway Department; provided further, that if the funds appropriated by the Legislature shall ever for any reason be insufficient for the payment of the eligible portion of the principal, interest, and sinking fund requirements falling due during the biennium for which the appropriation is made, or if the Legislature shall fail to make an appropriation, then taxes shall be assessed, levied, and collected in an amount sufficient to insure full payment of said principal, interest, and sinking fund requirements. The Commissioners Court is limited to the expenditure of such surplus sinking funds as are on hand upon the effective date of this Act, and any further payments of any kind or character made to such sinking funds after that date shall not be available for the purchase of additional right of ways.

Art. 752b. Bond Elections

Upon the petition of the resident property taxpaying voters of any county equivalent in number to one percent or more of the total votes cast in said county in the last preceding general election for Governor, the commissioners court of such county, at any Regular or Special Session thereof, shall order an election to be held in such county to determine whether or not the bonds of such county shall be issued for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled, or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, and whether or not taxes shall be levied on all taxable property of said county, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity. Provided, however, that if said petition designates any particular road or roads; project or projects or any portion or portions thereof, the petition shall be accompanied with a written estimate of the cost thereof prepared by the county engineer at county expense. In lieu of the petition process described in this section the commissioners court of a county may, by majority vote, order the election. The election order and notice of election shall state the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount thereof, the rate of interest, and that ad valorem taxes are to be levied annually on all taxable property within said county sufficient to pay the bonds at maturity.

Art. 752c. Establishment of Road Districts

The County Commissioners' Courts of the several counties of this State may hereafter establish one or more road districts in their respective counties, and may or may not include within the boundaries and limits of such districts, villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any portion thereof, and may or may not include previously created road districts and political subdivisions or precincts that have voted and issued road bonds pursuant to Section 52 of Article 3, of the Constitution, by entering an order declaring such road district established and defining the boundaries thereof. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to prevent the creation of defined road districts and the issuance of bonds of said districts in counties having outstanding county-wide road bonds, and said defined road districts may be created in such counties in the manner provided by statute for the creation of defined road districts and issuing the bonds thereof.

Art. 752c-1. Abolishment of Dormant Road Districts

When any road district in any county in this State shall have paid off and discharged all of the bonds issued and sold by said road district, or when an election to issue bonds in such road district shall have failed by a vote of the people and such road district has issued no bonds, and no further election has been held in such road district for a period of one year from date of its creation, or when the bonds issued by such road district have been assumed and exchanged for county bonds under the Compensation Bond Statutes, Chapter 16, page 23, General Laws, Thirty-ninth Legislature, First Called Session, 1926,¹ and in the opinion of the Commissioners Court of such county such road district has become dormant and there exists no further necessity for such road district, the Commissioners Court of any county is hereby authorized by an order duly passed abolishing such road district, to abolish such road district, and it shall thereafter cease to exist.

Art. 752cc. Road District Including Portion of Previous Road District Containing Other Improvement District

If any road district, a portion of which is proposed to be incorporated into a new road district, should embrace the whole or any part of any levee improvement district, drainage district, or other improvement district created under any law passed pursuant to Section 52, Article 3, of the Constitution of this State, the territory covered by such other district and other territory adjacent thereto may be excluded from the district sought to be created, but except as herein specifically permitted, no fractional part of a previously created road district shall be included within the limits of the road district created under the provision of this Act, and such excluded territory shall continue to bear and pay its proper proportion or any existing debt created for the construction of macadamized, graveled, or paved roads and turnpikes or in aid thereof, but shall not pay any portion of any debt created for said purposes after such territory is excluded from the district.

Art. 752d. Petition for Election

Where any political subdivision, or any road district, desires to issue bonds, there shall be presented to the Commissioners' Court of the county in which such subdivision or district is situated, a petition signed by fifty or a majority of the resident property taxpaying voters of said subdivision or road district praying such court to order an election to determine whether or not the bonds of such subdivision or district shall be issued to an amount stated for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, and whether or not taxes shall be levied on all taxable property within said subdivision or district in payment thereof. Upon presentation of such petition, it shall be the duty of the court to which it is presented to fix a time and place at which such petition shall be heard, which date shall be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the order. The clerk of said court shall forthwith issue a notice of such time and place of hearing, which notice shall inform all persons concerned of the time and place of hearing and of their right to appear at such hearing and contend for or protest the ordering of such bond election. Such notice shall state the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and shall describe such political subdivision or road district by its name or number, and shall describe the boundaries thereof as such boundaries are described and defined in the order of the Commissioners' Court establishing such subdivision or district. The clerk shall execute said notice by posting true copies thereof in three public places within such subdivision or road district and one at the court house door of the county. Said notice shall be posted for ten days prior to the date of said hearing. Said notice shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the subdivision or district, if a newspaper is published therein, one time, and at least five days prior to such hearing. If no newspaper is published in such subdivision or district, then such notice shall be published in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one. The duties herein imposed upon the clerk may be performed by said clerk in person or by deputy, as provided by law for other similar duties.

Art. 752e. Hearing and Determination

At the time and place set for the hearing of the petition, or such subsequent date as may then be fixed, the court shall proceed to hear such petition and all matters in respect of the proposed bond election. Any person interested may appear before the court in person or by attorney and contend for or protest the calling of such proposed bond election. Such a hearing may be adjourned from day to day and from time to time, as the court may deem necessary. If upon the hearing of such petition, it be found that the same is signed by fifty or a majority of the resident property tax paying voters of such subdivision or road district, and that due notice has been given, and that the proposed improvements would be for the benefit of all taxable property situated in such subdivision or road district, then such court may make and cause to be entered of record upon its minutes an order directing that an election be held within and for such subdivision or road district at a date to be fixed in the order, for the purpose of determining the questions mentioned in such petitions; provided, however, that such court may change the amount of the bonds proposed to be issued, if, upon the hearing such change be found necessary or desirable. The proposition to be submitted at such election shall specify the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount thereof, the rate of interest, and that ad valorem taxes are to be levied annually on all taxable property within said district or subdivision sufficient to pay the annual interest and provide a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity.

Art. 752f. Notice of Election

If the proposed issue of bonds and levy of taxes is for the entire county, notice of the election shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in such county, for three successive weeks, if there be one. In addition thereto, for three weeks prior to said election, notice shall be posted by the county clerk at four public places in the county, one of which shall be the courthouse door.

[Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 23, ch. 16, § 6.]

Art. 752f-1. Election in Political Subdivision or Road District

It shall also be the duty of the Commissioners' Court to set aside annually, from the taxes levied to provide the necessary sinking fund for such county bonds, the necessary sinking fund for the retirement of said county bonds and upon maturity of said county bonds the Commissioners' Court shall pay said bonds in full and said payments shall be passed to the credit of the sinking fund of such road district or districts and the funds so realized by said road district or districts shall be used by the Commissioners' Court to pay in full all outstanding district bonds.

Art. 778a. Power to Issue Bonds

That, pursuant to authority conferred by Section 52, of Article 3, of the Constitution, any number of adjoining counties within this State are hereby empowered and authorized to issue bonds in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of the territory included within such counties, and to levy and collect annually ad valorem taxes to pay the interest upon such bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof. The phrase "any number of adjoining counties" as used in this Act, shall be construed to mean "two or more counties contiguous to each other."

Art. 778b. Procedure Prescribed

In the event the qualified property taxpaying voters residing within two or more adjoining counties desire to combine such counties into one defined road district, for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, it shall be lawful for them to do so by following the procedure prescribed in the subsequent sections of this Act.

Art. 778c. Petition for Road District

The petition for the creation and establishment of a defined road district composed of two or more adjoining counties, shall be signed by not less than fifty qualified voters and property taxpayers in each county. A separate petition for the establishment of said district shall be presented to the commissioners' court of each county in said proposed district. The following proceedings shall be had in each county:

(1) Each petition shall describe in general terms the road or roads proposed to be constructed, and in like general terms the cities, towns and villages, if any, to be connected by such road or roads, and shall name each county proposed to be included within such road district. Each petition shall request the commissioners' court to order an election to determine whether said county shall be included in the proposed road district;

(2) Upon presentation of each petition, it shall be the duty of the court to which it is presented, to fix a time such petition shall be heard, and the date of hearing shall be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the order, and the place of hearing shall be the regular meeting place of the commissioners' court in the county courthouse;

(3) The county clerk shall forthwith issue notice of such time and place of hearing, which notice shall inform all persons concerned of the time and place of hearing, and of their right to appear at such hearing and contend for or protest the ordering of such election. Such notice shall set forth in substance the contents of the petition, and shall give the name of each county proposed to be included within the road district. The clerk shall execute said notice by posting true copies thereof in five public places, within the county, to-wit: One copy at the courthouse door, and one copy in each commissioners' precinct. Said notice shall be posted for ten days prior to the date of such hearing. Said notice shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation, published in the county one time, and at least five days prior to such hearing; provided, however, that if no newspaper is published in the county, then the posting of the notice as hereinabove directed, shall be sufficient. The duties herein imposed upon the clerk, may be performed by said clerk in person, or by deputy, as provided by law for similar duties;

(4) At the time and place set for the hearing of the petition or such subsequent date as may then be fixed, the court shall proceed to hear such petition and all matters in respect of the proposed road district. Any person interested may appear before the court in person, or by attorney, and contend for or protest the creation of the proposed road district. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day, and from time to time, as the court may deem necessary. If upon the hearing of such petition, it be found that the same is signed by fifty of the resident property taxpaying voters of the county, and that due notice thereof has been given, and that the creation of the proposed district by the consolidation of such county with the other counties named in the proceedings, would be for the benefit of all taxable property situated in such county, then such court may make and cause to be entered of record upon its minutes, an order directing that an election be held within such county at a date to be fixed in the order, but not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the election order. Notice of such election shall be given in the same manner and for the same time required for notices of the hearing on the petition. Provided, however, that the elections shall be held in each county on the same date;

(5) The manner of holding such election and canvassing and making the returns thereof, shall be governed by the General Laws of this State, when not in conflict with the provisions of this Act;

(6) When the election for the creation of the district has been held, the officers named by the commissioners' courts of the different counties to hold the election in their respective counties, shall make returns of the election to the commissioners' courts of their respective counties, and return all ballot boxes to the clerk of the commissioners' court of the county. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of each county in the proposed road district, upon receiving the returns of the election, to canvass the same and certify the result of the election in the county to the county judge of the county having the largest number of inhabitants, as shown by the last Federal census. Upon receipt of the returns of the election in the different counties of the district, the county judge designated to canvass the vote, shall canvass such vote and certify the result to each county in the proposed district. If the votes cast in each and all counties show a majority in favor of the consolidation of such counties into a defined road district, the commissioners' court of each county shall thereupon declare such defined road district created, and such district shall be known as _____

Thereupon, the commissioners' court of each county, at a regular or special session held in their respective counties, shall give notice of such proposed bond election to be held on the date named in the order of the courts passed at such joint meeting. Each election notice shall state the time and place of holding such election, and shall also state in substance the contents of such election order, and all other proceedings in respect of the question so submitted shall be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 16, of the General Laws, passed by the Thirty-ninth Legislature, at its First Called Session, in 1926,¹ relative to county road bond elections. The commissioners' courts of such counties as ex-officio directors of said road district, shall by order declare the result, and the county judge shall certify the result to the county judge of the county having the largest population. If at such election two-thirds of the property tax-paying voters of each county, voting at such election cast their ballots in favor of the issuance of the bonds, the commissioners' court of each county, as soon after the declaration of the result as practicable, shall pass all such orders that may be necessary in the issuance of such bonds and the levy of taxes in payment thereof.

Art. 790. Issue of Bonds

They shall bear interest not exceeding five per cent payable annually, and be redeemable in not less than five nor more than forty years from the date thereof. The time of maturity shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Such bonds shall be registered or enrolled as other county bonds, and shall not be sold or negotiated at less than their par value.

Art. 791. Limit of Issue

In no case shall bonds be issued under this chapter for a greater sum than that a levy of five cents of the one hundred dollars property valuation of said county will yield sufficient revenue to pay the interest as it accrues, and create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal of such bonds at maturity.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 792. Tax Levy

When bonds are issued under the provisions of this chapter, the commissioners court shall levy an annual ad valorem tax on all property of the county, which shall be used only for the purpose of paying interest on said bonds and creating a sinking fund to pay the principal.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 793. Court May Contract

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 795a. Bond Issue to Refund Outstanding Causeway Revenue Bonds

Authority to Issue Bonds; Ad Valorem Taxes

Sec. 1. That the Commissioners Court of any county in the State of Texas which has heretofore or shall hereafter issue bonds, to construct, acquire, improve, operate or maintain a causeway, and the interest on such bonds and the principal thereof are payable from revenues derived from the operation of such causeway, is hereby authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of refunding such outstanding revenue bonds and to levy and collect ad valorem taxes to pay the interest on such refunding bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof.

Aggregate Principal Amount

Sec. 2. That the aggregate principal amount of bonds issued from time to time pursuant to this Act and at any time outstanding, shall not exceed a principal amount which will permit the interest on and the principal of such bonds to be paid from a tax levied within the eighty cent (80¢) limitation provided by Article 8, Section 9 of the Texas Constitution, and provided that the Commissioners Court shall not authorize the issuance of bonds under authority of Section 1 hereof unless authorized at an election at which only the qualified voters who reside in the county and who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be allowed to vote, and unless the majority of the votes cast thereat are in favor of issuing the bonds. Said election shall be conducted in accordance with the terms of Title 22 of Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.

Sec. 3. That the Commissioners Court shall have full discretion in fixing the details of the bonds and in determining the manner of sale thereof, providing that the bonds shall not mature later than forty (40) years after their date, and no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six per cent (6%) per annum, computed with relationship to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding from such computations the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds prior to maturity. The bonds may be redeemable prior to maturity in such manner and at such prices as may be determined by the Commissioners Court prior to the issuance of the bonds. All bonds issued hereunder shall and are hereby declared to have all of the qualifications and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instrument Law of Texas. Provision may be made for registration of such bonds as to principal only. The bonds issued hereunder may be exchanged for the revenue bonds being refunded or the proceeds of the bonds issued hereunder may be used to pay the principal amount of the bonds being refunded and any premium required by the terms thereof to be payable on redemption prior to maturity. Any monies accumulated in the funds established by the resolution or order authorizing the issuance of the bonds to be refunded may be used by the Commissioners Court, upon cancellation of such bonds to be refunded, to pay accrued interest on and the principal of any such bonds to be refunded, to pay any premium required to be paid thereon in event of redemption prior to maturity, to pay into the road and bridge fund of the county, or may be used for any other lawful purpose.

That any county issuing bonds pursuant to this Act shall continue to levy ad valorem taxes to pay the interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof even though the facilities constructed with the proceeds of the bonds to be refunded by the bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall become a part of the State Highway System.

Refunds; Terms and Conditions

Sec. 5. Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded by the Commissioners Court upon such terms and conditions, including interest rates and maturity, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court, provided that such terms and conditions shall not be inconsistent with the application of the constitutional provision to which reference is herein made. Any such bonds may be so refunded by issuance of refunding bonds, either to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded, or to be sold, with the proceeds thereof to be used for the redemption and cancellation of the bonds being refunded.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 6. All bonds, whether original or refunding, heretofore or hereafter issued pursuant to this Act, shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and all other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and all said bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and all other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and all said bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their par value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Approval of Attorney General; Registration

Sec. 7. Prior to the delivery thereof to the purchasers, all bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and the records related to the issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination, and if he finds they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and upon such approval and registration they shall be uncontestable.

Art. 796. In Case of Storms, Etc.

Any county or any city incorporated under the general laws which may suffer great destruction or damage of property or depreciation of the value of taxable property from storms, floods or other disasters, may fund, refund, compromise or settle its valid outstanding bonded and floating indebtedness.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 797. Regulation of Bonds

For such purpose, the bonds of the county or city may be issued by the governing body without a vote of the tax payers in denominations of not less than one hundred, nor more than one thousand dollars each, for an amount sufficient to consummate such compromise or settlement, not to exceed the amount unpaid on the outstanding indebtedness. Such bonds may be exchanged for bonds or other evidences of outstanding indebtedness of such county or city, or may be sold and the proceeds applied in the purchase of outstanding bonds or the payment of outstanding floating indebtedness, and may be exchanged or sold from time to time in such amounts as may be required for refunding said outstanding bonds and funding or settling said floating debts.

Art. 798. Order of Commissioners Court

Before issuing such bonds, and not later than two years after the disaster, the governing body of the county or city shall, by an order or ordinance, entered on the minutes, recite the nature and date of such disaster, the taxable value of the remaining property subject to taxation in said city or county as shown by the first approved assessment roll of such county or city made after such disaster, and the amount of bonds that will be sufficient to fund, refund or settle the outstanding bonded and floating indebtedness of such county or city, stating also, the amount of new bonds that will be required for refunding or settling each outstanding issue of bonds, and the amount of new bonds necessary to fund or settle the outstanding indebtedness charged against each particular fund.

Art. 799. Classification of Issues

Separate classes of bonds shall be issued to refund or settle, respectively, each separate issue of outstanding bonds, and to fund or settle, respectively, the indebtedness against each particular fund.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 800. Apportionment of Taxes

The court or council shall determine and record in the minutes the proportion of the several annual ad valorem taxes authorized by law that can be applied, respectively, in payment of the interest and sinking funds of the several classes of bonds without depriving the city or county of the funds which will be required to meet the necessary current annual expenses of such county or city. A levy in proportion to such excess or excesses beyond the amount required for current annual expenses may be made to pay the interest and sinking fund, respectively, of the said several classes of bonds. The constitutional limitation as to the rates and purposes of the several taxes shall not be exceeded nor disregarded.

Art. 801. Requisites of Bonds

The court, or city council, shall also by order or ordinance, prescribe the form and the classes of said bonds, and provide for the issuance thereof, at such dates as may be expedient. Such bonds may be made payable at any date deemed expedient by the commissioners court or city council, not later than forty years from the date of the execution, and provision may be made for their redemption after five years, or after such longer period as may be deemed expedient. Said bonds shall bear interest as stipulated and specified in coupons attached thereto, not to exceed four per cent per annum. Said bonds shall be issued under and subject to all requirements of chapter one of this title, which are not in conflict with the requirements and provisions of this chapter, and shall be signed by the county judge or mayor, and attested by the county or city clerk, as the case may be.

Art. 802. Registration and Sale

When examined and certified by the Attorney General, said bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller without requiring the old bonds, warrants or other evidence of indebtedness to be presented to him for cancellation. Said bonds shall be delivered to the county or city treasurer, and said officer shall register said bonds in a book kept for that purpose, and said bonds may thereafter be sold or exchanged for not less than their face value and accrued interest. Before delivery of the bonds, the date of the sale or exchange thereof shall be indorsed and certified on the bonds by the county judge or mayor, whose signature shall be attested by the county or city clerk.

Art. 802a. Funding Indebtedness Representing Difference Between Wages Paid and Wages Required to be Paid to Firemen and Policemen by Cities of Over 75,000 Population

Sec. 1. All cities within the State of Texas, whether incorporated under General Law or Special Law or operating under charters adopted under the provisions of Article XI, Section 5, of the Constitution of Texas, with a population of more than seventy-five thousand (75,000) enumerated by the preceding United States Census, shall have the power to fund by ordinance enacted by the governing body the whole or any part of any legal debt of said city, which debt is the difference between the wages paid or to be paid the firemen and the policemen, and the wages required to be paid the firemen and the policemen by the terms of Senate Bill No. 89, passed and approved the 19th day of April, A. D. 1937, by the Forty-fifth Legislature of Texas, at the Regular Session,¹ and which debt accrued or will have accrued before the 31st of May, A. D. 1939, and to issue negotiable bonds with or without coupons, bearing interest at an annual rate as provided by the Charter of the City which issues the said obligations. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the debt which may be legally due such firemen and policemen.

Sec. 2. Articles 709 to 715 and Article 4398 of the Revised Statutes of Texas for 1925 shall apply to all bonds issued under this Act.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all laws on this subject, and wherever the provisions of this Act are in conflict with any existing law or laws on this subject, the provisions hereof, in so far as same are in conflict with any existing law or laws, shall govern and control.

Art. 802b-1. Home Rule Cities Without Specified Utilities Authorized to Issue Funding Bonds or Warrants

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city or town operating under its special charter adopted under the Home Rule Amendment to the Constitution, having outstanding as of January 1, 1939, unpaid and delinquent indebtedness against its General Fund, whether in the form of scrip warrants, warrants or notes, or in either or all of such forms, in an amount exceeding thirty-three and one-third (33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %) per cent of its current tax levy for General Fund purposes, and which did not, on said date, own any one of the following utilities from which it could derive revenues: water system, sanitary sewer system, electric lighting system, or natural gas distribution system, is hereby authorized to issue funding bonds or funding warrants for the purpose of funding any such items which constitute legal indebtedness of such city. No election nor notice of intention to issue such funding bonds or warrants shall be required. If funding bonds are issued they shall be issued in the manner prescribed by Article 717 of the Revised Civil Statutes for the issuance of refunding bonds.

Sec. 2. Such funding bonds or warrants shall mature serially, or otherwise, not to exceed thirty (30) years from their date and shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed five (5%) per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually.

Sec. 3. When said funding bonds or warrants are issued it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to levy a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest thereon as such principal and interest mature.

Sec. 4. If funding bonds are issued they shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination and approval in the same manner and with the same effect as is provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as is provided in said Articles.

Sec. 5. All such outstanding indebtedness is hereby validated, provided that the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any such items of indebtedness which may be in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but in the event any of its provisions are in conflict with any existing laws the provisions hereof shall prevail and be effective to the extent of such conflict. [Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 103.]

Art. 802b-2. Refunding Bonds Supported by Ad Valorem Tax or by Pledge of Income of Specified Utilities; Issuance by Cities Operating Under Charters Authorized

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city operating under a charter either adopted or amended by vote of the people which owns and operates its waterworks and sanitary sewer systems, and the principal amount of whose bond and time warrant indebtedness is in an aggregate amount exceeding forty (40) per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city, for the purposes of this Act, shall be an eligible city.

Classes of Refunding Bonds Authorized; Prerequisites

Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds of two classes. One class of its refunding bonds, which may be in one or more series, shall not be supported by an ad valorem tax but by a pledge to the payment of the principal and interest thereof of all or a stipulated part of the net income from the operation of its waterworks system or its sewer system, or both, and by a deed of trust or a mortgage upon such systems, and by a grant to the purchaser, under sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the systems and property so purchased for a term of not over twenty (20) years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. The other class, which may be in one or more series, shall be supported by an ad valorem tax levied at a rate or in an amount sufficient to pay the interest thereon and the principal at maturity. Such city shall designate the several issues or parts of issues of outstanding bonds or time warrants, or both, eligible to be refunded by the issuance of the respective classes of its refunding bonds, provided, however, that bonds and warrants which were issued for waterworks or sewer purposes shall be refunded into the class which is secured by the revenues from, and deed of trust or mortgage upon such systems, and all other bonds and warrants shall be refunded in the class of bonds payable from ad valorem taxes. No such city shall be authorized to exercise the additional powers conferred by this Act unless it obtains a reduction in the principal amount of its indebtedness to the extent of not less than fifteen (15) per cent, and unless it obtains a reduction in the average interest rate of its refunded indebtedness so that the average interest rate borne by its two classes of refunding bonds shall be not more than three (3) per cent per annum. Such city shall not be permitted to deliver refunding bonds of said two classes unless and until it shall have obtained consent to such refunding by the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds (66 $\frac{2}{3}$) per cent of aggregate principal amount of its outstanding indebtedness, which sixty-six and two-thirds (66 $\frac{2}{3}$) per cent shall include not less than one hundred (100) per cent of the revenue bonds outstanding against said system or systems, or unless such refinancing plan shall have been made effective in composition proceedings instituted by such city under Title 11, Chapter 9, of the United States Code and amendments thereto.¹

Before any income from such utility or utilities shall be used to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds, the expenses of operation and maintenance shall have first been provided substantially in accordance with the provisions of Article 1113 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, which is applicable to the income of an encumbered utility system or encumbered utility systems. When such city issues refunding bonds under the provisions of this law, it shall be the duty of the city, after making said pledge of such utility income, to establish and maintain utility rates adequate to yield revenues sufficient to operate and maintain said utility system or systems and to fulfill the city's pledge of such income.

Revenue Bonds, Refund of

Sec. 3. Such city also shall refund, par for par, all of its outstanding revenue bonds which are secured by a pledge of the revenues of either or both of such systems, and bonds issued to refund such revenue bonds may be included in any refunding issues under the class secured by the pledge of utility revenues authorized by this Act.

Form; Registration; Procedure

Sec. 4. The refunding bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable and shall be issued in the same manner as refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up outstanding bonds issued under the provisions of Title 22 and Title 28 of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas and amendments thereto; no notice of intention to issue refunding bonds and no election for the issuance of such bonds shall be required. No such refunding bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller and delivered by him unless and until he shall have received and cancelled in lieu thereof bonds or time warrants in the proportion prescribed in the ordinances authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds, and in accordance with this Act. The procedure prescribed in Articles 709 to 715 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, in reference to examination and approval of the bonds by the Attorney General, their registration by the Comptroller, and the effect of approval by the Attorney General shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law.

Law as Cumulative; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 5. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with or are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with the provisions of the charter of any such eligible city, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions and shall prevail.

Art. 802b-3. Cities of 35,000 to 45,000 Under Special or Home Rule Charters May Issue Notes to Fund or Refund Warrants

Sec. 1. All cities in this State, operating under a Special or Home Rule Charter and having a population of not less than thirty-five thousand (35,000) nor more than forty-five thousand (45,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, are hereby authorized and empowered to issue notes for the purpose of funding or refunding outstanding and unpaid warrants drawn against the General Fund for general operating expenses, subject to the limitations and provisions contained hereinafter in this Act.

Sec. 2. Before any city of the classification prescribed in Section 1 hereof may avail itself of the provisions of said Section, the governing body of such city shall order an election on the question of whether or not the governing body shall be authorized to issue notes for the purpose of funding or refunding outstanding and unpaid warrants drawn against its General Fund. Such election shall be held, and notice thereof given, and the results thereof declared, in the same manner as prescribed by General Law on the question of the issuance of municipal bonds. Only qualified electors, who own taxable property in such city and who have duly rendered same for taxation, shall be allowed to vote at such election.

Sec. 3. In the event such election results favorably to the issuance of such notes, the governing body of such city shall have the authority to pass all appropriate ordinances and resolutions to effect their issuance. The notes so authorized shall mature serially over a period not exceeding ten years from their date, and may bear interest not exceeding five (5) per cent per annum and may be redeemable at the pleasure of the governing body. The full faith and credit of such city may be pledged to the payment of such notes and the interest thereon. Provided, however, that only such general fund warrants issued during the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which such funding or refunding operation is performed may be funded or refunded by the issuance of such notes; and provided further, that all warrants drawn against the General Fund during the calendar year in which such funding or refunding operation takes place and all warrants drawn against the General Fund in subsequent years in which such funding or refunding takes place shall be paid out of current funds appropriated for that purpose and shall never be funded or refunded.

Art. 802b-4. Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum Bonds, Refunding; Cities Over 100,000

Eligible Cities; Issuance of Refunding Bonds

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city of over one hundred thousand (100,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census, which owns and operates an Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum against which there are outstanding revenue bonds issued for the construction thereof, and which owns and operates an unencumbered natural gas distribution system which serves the inhabitants of all or a part of such city. Any such city, for the purposes of this Act, shall be an "eligible" city.

Any eligible city is authorized, without an election and without notice of intention to issue such bonds, to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up and in lieu of its outstanding revenue bonds issued for the purpose of financing the construction of its Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum, and may secure said refunding bonds by a pledge of the net revenues from the operation of such Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum, and by the net revenues from the operation of its natural gas distribution system; provided that the revenues from its natural gas distribution system shall not be pledged as security for such refunding bonds unless such refunding bonds are issued to bear an interest rate lower than the rate borne by said outstanding revenue bonds.

Maturity; Interest; Options; Bonds as Special Obligations

Sec. 2. The bonds issued under this Act shall mature serially within a period of time not exceeding thirty (30) years from their date. The governing body of such city shall prescribe the interest rates, maturities and any options of redemption prior to maturity of such bonds. Such bonds which constitute special obligations of the issuing city, shall never be considered indebtedness of such city or town, but solely a charge upon the revenues pledged for the payment of such bonds, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue tax supported bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Books and Accounts; "Net Revenues"; Rates; Rentals; Charges; Reserve; Lien

Sec. 3. Whenever the income of such Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum and of such natural gas distribution system shall be encumbered as authorized in this Act it shall be the duty of the city to establish and maintain separate books and accounts for each of the properties whose income shall have been pledged. The total revenues remaining after providing for payment of reasonable operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, improvement, necessary expansion and repair charges, resulting from the operation of the encumbered Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum shall constitute "net revenues." The total revenues remaining after providing for payment of reasonable operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, improvement, necessary expansion and repair charges, resulting from the operation of the encumbered natural gas distribution system shall constitute "net revenues." The ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds shall prescribe the conditions under which such revenues may be used to pay depreciation, replacement, improvement and necessary expansion charges. It shall be the duty of any city issuing bonds under the provision of this Act to fix and maintain rates, rentals, and charges in the instance of each such encumbered property to assure receipt of income sufficient to pay reasonable operating, maintenance, improvement, necessary expansion and repair charges in connection with the proper operation of such property and to assure net revenues from the property or properties encumbered sufficient to pay the principal and interest of such bonds according to their tenor and effect, and to establish and maintain a reasonable reserve in the interest and sinking fund to be provided for such bonds. The requirement for a "reasonable reserve" shall be satisfied by establishing and maintaining in the Interest and Sinking Fund, in addition to requirements for a given calendar year, money sufficient to pay the principal and interest scheduled to mature and accrue during the succeeding calendar year. After such reserve account shall have been established and so long as it shall remain intact and while there are no delinquencies of principal or interest on any of the outstanding bonds, such city may use the pledged revenues in excess of such requirements for any other lawful purpose. The pledging of the revenues as authorized herein shall not constitute a lien on the physical properties of the Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum or of the Natural Gas Distribution System.

Required Clause; Transcript of Proceedings

Sec. 4. Every contract and bond, or other evidence of indebtedness, issued pursuant to this Act shall contain substantially the following clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." It shall be the duty of the officials of any such city to file with the Attorney General of the State of Texas a proper transcript of proceedings authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds and evidencing the pledge of revenues from which the principal and interest of said bonds are to be paid, and to deliver to the Attorney General the executed refunding bonds. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record and said bonds when issued in accordance with this law.

Registration of Bonds; Defenses

Sec. 5. After said bonds have been examined and approved by the Attorney General they shall be registered by the Comptroller and delivered in exchange for a like principal amount of said original revenue bonds. After receiving the approval by the Attorney General and having been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, said bonds shall be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, valid and binding obligations. In every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds the certificate of approval by the Attorney General or a duly certified copy thereof shall be received in evidence of the validity of such bonds. The only defense which can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud.

Law as Cumulative; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 6. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with or are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with the provisions of the charter of any such eligible city, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over any such conflicting or inconsistent provisions.

Art. 802b-5. Home Rule or Special Charter Cities and Towns; Bonds to Pay Existing Judgments Authorized

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city or town operating under a special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted or amended pursuant to the Home Rule Amendment to the Constitution, having outstanding as of January 1, 1943, against its General Fund unpaid judgments or judgment in an amount exceeding fifty (50) per cent of its general fund revenue derivable from ad valorem taxes levied for the fiscal year within which the bonds hereinafter authorized are directed to be issued, bearing interest at a rate of five (5) per cent or more per annum, shall be authorized to order an election for the purpose of submitting to the resident qualified property taxpaying voters thereof the proposition of the issuance and sale of its bonds to provide funds for the payment of such judgment or judgments and the levy of a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest as it matures.

Sec. 2. Such bonds shall be authorized, issued and sold in the manner prescribed in the General Law relating to the issuance and sale of bonds by cities and towns, shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed twenty (20) years from their date and shall bear interest not to exceed four (4) per cent per annum, payable annually or semiannually.

Sec. 3. When said bonds are issued it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to levy a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest thereon as such principal and interest mature.

Sec. 4. Before such bonds are sold they shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination and approval in the same manner and with the same effect as is provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as provided in said Articles.

Art. 802c. Refunding Bonds of Certain Cities Operating Utilities

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to cities operating under charters either adopted or amended by vote of the people, which own and operate waterworks, electric light and sanitary sewer systems, and whose outstanding bond and time warrant indebtedness, including accrued and unpaid interest thereon, exists in an aggregate amount of not less than thirty-five (35) per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city for the purposes of this Act shall be an "eligible" city.

Refunding Bonds Authorized; Proceedings under Municipal Bankruptcy Act Authorized; Pledge of Revenues from Utilities

Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up all or any part of its outstanding indebtedness evidenced by bonds or interest-bearing time warrants, or both, regardless of whether such indebtedness is in its original form or has been funded, or refunded, in whole or in part, such refunding bonds to bear interest at a rate or rates to be determined by the governing body of said city, not exceeding the average rate or rates of interest borne by the indebtedness to be refunded, and no election shall be required as a condition precedent to the issuance of the said refunding securities. In the event not less than seventy-five (75) per cent of the total amount of its outstanding indebtedness is refunded in accordance with the provisions of this Act, by consent of the holders of such portion of such indebtedness, or under a plan of composition confirmed or to be confirmed by the Court in proceedings instituted by such city under Title 11, Chapter 9, of the United States Code,¹ and amendment thereto, which proceedings by any such city are hereby expressly authorized, the governing body of such eligible city, in addition to the levying of a tax to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds, is authorized to pledge to the payment of such principal and interest, a designated annual amount or a designated proportion of the net revenues from the operation of any one or more of the utility systems owned and operated by said city, which pledge shall remain in full force and effect so long as any part of the principal or interest of said refunding bonds is outstanding and unpaid. For the purposes of this Act the expression "net revenues" shall mean the gross revenues of such system or systems after the payment of the reasonable and necessary expenses of operation, maintenance, and collection of income, including salaries and wages of employees of such utility or utilities, the setting aside of a five (5) per cent (of such gross income) reserve for replacements, depreciations, and obsolescence, and for the construction of such extensions and additions as may be determined by the governing body to be reasonably necessary and economically justified. When such city issues refunding bonds under the provisions of this law it shall be the duty of the city, after making said pledge of such utility revenues, to establish and maintain utility rates adequate to yield revenues sufficient to operate and maintain said utility systems and to fulfill the city's pledge of said utility revenues.

Amount of Bonds; Procedure; Registration

Sec. 3. The refunding bonds authorized in this Act may be issued in an amount not exceeding the combined amount of outstanding principal, matured interest coupons, and accrued interest on said original securities and shall mature at such time or times as the governing body may prescribe. The procedure of the issuance of said refunding bonds shall be that which is prescribed in the Statutes for the issuance of refunding bonds to take up outstanding bonds.

Such refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts in exchange for and upon cancellation of such original indebtedness after they shall have been approved by the Attorney General, and when so registered shall have all of the elements of protections of bonds approved by the Attorney General of Texas under the provisions of Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Form of Bonds; Exemptions from Certain Charter Provisions

Sec. 4. Refunding Bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable coupon bonds payable to bearer, constituting general obligations of the issuing city, and the holders thereof shall succeed to all the privileges of the holders of the indebtedness constituting the basis of the Refunding Bonds except as modified and changed by the express terms of the proceedings employed in the refunding operation. No provisions in the charter of any such issuing city shall be applicable to the Refunding Bonds thus to be issued but the provisions of this Act and other General Laws shall prevail as to said Refunding Bonds. Particularly, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, said Refunding Bonds shall be exempt from any charter provision restricting the interest rate to be borne by said bonds, limiting the maximum tax rate which may be levied to pay the principal and interest thereof, restricting the place of payment, restricting the recovery of interest upon defaulted principal and interest coupons, requiring the registration of said bonds, requiring notice of intention as a condition precedent to the right to bring suit on said bonds or coupons, or requiring an election thereon.

Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) Whenever a city shall have issued refunding bonds under the provisions of this law as passed originally or under any amendments thereof supported by a tax levy and by a pledge of a designated portion of the net revenues from the operation of one or more of its utility systems and so long as any part of such indebtedness is outstanding either as refunded originally or as again subsequently refunded, it may refund such indebtedness and it is further authorized and empowered to issue its fully negotiable coupon bonds, hereinafter called "Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds," from time to time, to finance repairs, replacements, extensions and improvements of and to one or more of its utility systems, payable from and secured as to principal and interest by a pledge of the net revenues only of any or all of said utility systems, provided that so long as any refunding bonds issued under the provisions of Chapter 103, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-seventh Legislature of Texas remain outstanding and unpaid, either as refunded originally or as again subsequently refunded, the pledge of the net revenues securing such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall be of equal dignity with the pledge securing such refunding bonds, provided further, that while any of such refunding bonds are outstanding no Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall be issued except to the extent expressly permitted by the ordinance authorizing such outstanding refunding bonds and in no event shall Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds be issued in an amount and under terms which would cause the aggregate amount of all annual pledges, securing the refunding bonds and Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds to exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per cent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the average net revenues of such utility systems for the three (3) completed fiscal years next preceding.

(b) Such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise not more than forty (40) years from their date, with or without option of prior redemption as may be determined by the governing body, the terms of which option, if any, shall be prescribed in the authorizing ordinance and in the bonds, bearing interest at not exceeding five per cent (5%) per annum. No such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall be issued until authorized at an election for such purpose called and held in the manner provided in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, for the issuance of bonds by cities.

(c) When Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall have been issued hereunder they shall constitute special obligations of such city and such bonds shall never be a debt of the city, but solely a charge upon the pledged revenues and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of the city to incur obligations payable from taxation. The bonds hereby authorized shall contain substantially the following provision:

The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

(d) The term "net revenues" as used herein shall mean the amount of gross revenues of the city's utility systems remaining after deducting:

(1) Expense of operation of said systems and collection of the income, including salaries and wages of employees thereof;

(2) Maintenance and repair of same;

(3) Five per cent (5%) of gross income therefrom as a reserve for depreciation and obsolescence, which sum may be invested in bonds of such city, the State of Texas, or the United States of America, and which reserve may be used for repairing damage caused by wars, riots, floods, hurricanes, fires, or acts of God or other causes not within the control of the governing body of the city;

(4) Cost of such extensions and repairs, as in the judgment of the governing body are necessary to keep the utility systems in operation and render adequate service to the city and its inhabitants or such as may be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the efficient operation of the utility system;

(e) When any such bonds shall have been authorized and issued as herein permitted it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city, enforceable by any bondholder through mandamus or through any other method, to fix and maintain rates for services rendered by any and all of the city's utility systems sufficient to pay all operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation, replacement and betterment charges and to assure payment of the interest and principal of all of such Refunding Bonds and Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds;

(f) Before any such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds are sold they shall be submitted to and approved by the Attorney General in the manner and with the effect provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and except as prescribed in this Act said bonds shall be executed and issued in the manner provided by the charter of the city.

Art. 802e. Validation of Refunding Bonds of Cities and Proceedings Therefor

Wherever any city, pursuant to election and to ordinance adopted by the governing body thereof, has heretofore issued bonds of the city for any corporate purpose and where such bonds have been purchased from the holders thereof for the bond and sinking funds of such city and have been paid for with money taken from such funds, and where such bonds have been cancelled, through error or otherwise, and where the governing body of such city has heretofore adopted an ordinance authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds of such city for the purpose of refunding the indebtedness so represented, the proceedings authorizing such refunding bonds are hereby validated and confirmed and the bonds to be issued pursuant to such proceedings are validated and confirmed and shall, when duly issued, constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of such city in accordance with their terms. Each such city is authorized to do all things necessary to complete the issuance of such bonds and, within constitutional limitations, is hereby required to levy such taxes as may be necessary and fully sufficient to assure the prompt payment of principal of and interest on such bonds.

Art. 802f. Wharf and Terminal Facility Bonds of Cities or Towns, Bonds to Redeem; Subrogation

Sec. 1. Whenever any city or town in this state incorporated under general law or having a special charter, has outstanding unpaid revenue bonds issued for the purchase price, in whole or in part, of the wharf and terminal facilities, or an interest therein, theretofore purchased by such city or town, which bonds are subject to call and redemption prior to their maturity and are secured by an encumbrance on such wharf and terminal facilities, or an interest therein, and a pledge of the revenues thereof, such city or town, subject to the below prescribed requirements, conditions and restrictions, through its governing body, may, for the purpose of redeeming such revenue bonds, issue negotiable bonds of such city or town in an aggregate principal amount not greater than the aggregate principal amount of the revenue bonds redeemed and the interest thereon accrued to the date of redemption and having an interest rate less than the interest rate of the revenue bonds redeemed, and may make provision for the payment of the bonds issued under authority of this Act, by annual levies of taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund to pay them at maturity; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued under authority of this Act unless the issuance thereof, and the levy of annual taxes to provide for the payment of the interest thereon and create a sinking fund with which to pay them at maturity, shall have been authorized at an election called and conducted under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas¹ and laws amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto which shall govern the issuance of all bonds issued under the authority herein given.

Nor shall anything herein contained be deemed as affecting the right of any such city or town to payments from such revenues provided to be made by the terms of any contract under which its revenue bonds may have been issued, but such contract right on the part of such city or town shall remain unaffected, and payments to which such city or town is entitled thereunder shall be made in addition to the payments above prescribed in this section.

Sec. 2. Any such city is hereby authorized to issue refunding bonds (hereinafter called "Serial Refunding Bonds") having serial maturities and bearing interest at a rate to be determined by the governing body of the city provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed an average rate of four (4%) per cent per annum, for the purpose of refunding such outstanding term bonds, in the manner provided by law for the issuance of city refunding bonds. Where serial refunding bonds are issued to refund outstanding revenue bonds, the governing body of the city is authorized to secure the serial refunding bonds by a deed of trust upon the utility system as well as by a pledge of the net revenues of the system if the bonds being refunded so provide.

Sale of Refunding Bonds in Lieu of Exchange for Term Bonds

Sec. 3. In lieu of exchanging the serial refunding bonds for the term bonds in the manner otherwise provided by law, the city may, at any time after calling the outstanding term bonds for redemption in the manner provided in said bonds, sell the serial refunding bonds (or the unexchanged portion of them) at not less than par and accrued interest and deposit the principal amount received from such sale together with the additional amount necessary to pay the interest to the call date, with the bank where the term bonds are payable, in which event, a certified copy of the ordinance or resolution so providing shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of Public Accounts and he shall register the serial refunding bonds without cancellation of the underlying term bonds and deliver them as provided in said ordinance or resolution. No city charter provision relating to the terms, issuance, sale and delivery of bonds shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law.

Such bonds are herein called "Original Refunding Bonds."

Maturities; Interest Rate

Sec. 2. Any such city is hereby authorized to issue refunding bonds (hereinafter called "New Refunding Bonds") having serial maturities and bearing interest at a rate to be determined by the governing body of the city, not to exceed six percent (6%) per annum, for the purpose of refunding such Original Refunding Bonds, in the manner provided by law for the issuance of city refunding bonds.

Sale of New Refunding Bonds in Lieu of Exchange for Original Refunding Bonds

Sec. 3. In lieu of exchanging the New Refunding Bonds for the Original Refunding Bonds in the manner otherwise provided by law, the city may sell the New Refunding Bonds (or the unexchanged portion of them) at not less than par and accrued interest and deposit the principal amount received from such sale, together with the additional amount necessary to pay the interest to the call date, or maturity dates, with the bank where the Original Refunding Bonds are payable, in which event, a certified copy of the ordinance or resolution so providing shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of Public Accounts and he shall register the New Refunding Bonds without cancellation of the Original Refunding Bonds and deliver them as provided in said ordinance or resolution. No city charter provision relating to the terms, issuance, sale and delivery of bonds shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law.

The fact that the present laws relating to savings and loan associations are in many respects inadequate, containing in many instances overlapping, ambiguous, inconsistent and obsolete provisions and seriously impairing the efficient operation of such associations and their ability to serve the public needs in home financing creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity, demanding that the Constitutional Rule requiring all bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended and such Rule is hereby suspended and this Act shall take effect and be in full force from and after the date specified in Section 4 hereof and it is so enacted."

CHAPTER TWO. FORMATION OF ASSOCIATIONS

Application for Charter

Sec. 2.01. Application for a charter for a savings and loan association may be made by five (5) or more citizens of this State (hereinafter referred to as incorporators) by tendering to the Commissioner along with the proper filing fee, an application consisting of the following:

(1) Two (2) copies of Articles of incorporation for the proposed association stating (i) the name of the association, (ii) the site of the principal office and (iii) the names and addresses of the initial directors.

(2) A statement as to (i) the amount, if any, of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock which has been subscribed and paid for at the time of filing, (ii) the names and addresses of such subscribers and the amount subscribed by each, (iii) the amount of savings liability, if any, with which the association will commence business, (iv) the amount of paid-in surplus or expense fund with which the association will commence business.

(3) Two (2) copies of the bylaws under which the association proposes to operate.

(4) Statements, exhibits, maps and other data sufficiently detailed and comprehensive as to enable the Commissioner to pass upon the matters set forth in Section 2.08(2), (3) and (4) of this Act and such other information in regard to the proposed association and its operation as may be required by duly promulgated rules and regulations of the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas.

The Articles of incorporation and all statements of fact tendered to the Commissioner in connection with an application for charter shall be subscribed and sworn to under the sanction of an oath, or such affirmation as is by law equivalent to an oath, made before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

Proposed Managing Officer of Applicants; Approval

Sec. 2.01a. The applicants for a charter for a new association shall not be required at any contested hearing concerning the granting of the charter by the Commissioner, to identify in the public record of that hearing the name and qualifications of the proposed managing officer of the new association, but such evidence may be presented to the Commissioner before, during, or after other determinations required by this Act are made; provided, however, no new association shall commence business without first having presented to the Commissioner the name and qualifications of its proposed managing officer, and until that managing officer is approved as qualified by the Commissioner.

Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.02. The charter of an association may provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock. No other form or type of stock or shares may be issued. Such Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, when issued, may not be retired or withdrawn except as hereinafter provided, until after all liabilities of the association shall have been satisfied in full, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts. Such stock must be fully paid for in cash in advance of issuance and the association may not make any loans against the shares of such stock. Shares of such stock may be issued with par value of not less than One Dollar ($1) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100). With the prior written approval of the Commissioner as to the number of shares to be issued, the bylaws of an association may provide that its Permanent Reserve Fund Stock may be issued with no par value. An association authorized to issue such stock must have at all times issued and outstanding stock with a value on its books of at least Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or two and one-half per cent (2½%) of its gross assets, whichever is greater, but no association shall be required to have an amount of such stock with a value on its books of more than Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). Associations whose savings accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation may retire in whole or in part any such stock heretofore issued when such associations are authorized to do so by a majority vote at any annual meeting of its members, or any special meeting of members called for such purpose; provided, that the basis of such retirement shall have been first approved by the Commissioner and consent to such retirement upon the part of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation has been filed in writing with the Commission.

Stock Requirements for Proposed Permanent Reserve Fund Stock Associations

Sec. 2.03. Incorporators of proposed associations with authority to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, as a prerequisite to the approval of an application for a charter shall be required to have subscribed and paid for in cash to the credit of the proposed association an aggregate amount of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock as the Commissioner shall specify within the limits set for such stock in the preceding Section. Such stock shall be issued within thirty (30) days from the date of incorporation.

Paid-in Surplus Requirements for Permanent Reserve Fund Stock Associations

Sec. 2.04. As a prerequisite to approval of any application for a proposed association with authority to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock the Commissioner may require in addition to the amount paid in for such stock a paid-in surplus up to but not in excess of the aggregate amount of the Permanent Reserve Fund Stock required under the preceding Section. Such paid-in surplus may be used in lieu of earnings to pay organization and operating expenses, dividends on savings accounts and to meet any loss reserve requirements. If the application should not be approved or if the proposed association does not proceed to do business, the stock subscriptions for Permanent Reserve Fund Stock and paid-in surplus shall be returned pro-rata to the subscribers, less any lawful expenditures.

Savings Account Requirements for Proposed Associations Without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.05. As a prerequisite to the approval of an application for a charter of an association without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock the incorporators must show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner subscribed and paid-in savings accounts in the following aggregate amounts in relation to the population of the community in which the home office of the association is to be located:

(a) in communities having not more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, the minimum sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000);

(b) in communities having more than ten thousand (10,000) but less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, the minimum sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000);

(c) in communities having one hundred thousand (100,000) or more inhabitants, the minimum sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000);

provided, that the Commissioner may, in his discretion, require a larger amount to be paid in. The population of the community shall be determined by the Commissioner based upon the latest Federal census.

Expense Fund Requirements for Proposed Association Without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.06. In addition to the savings account subscriptions required by the preceding Section the incorporators of an association without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock must show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that an expense fund has been subscribed and paid into the credit of the proposed association equal to not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the minimum specified amount of required savings accounts set out in Section 2.05, from which expense fund the expense of organizing the association and its operating expenses in addition to such dividends as may be declared and paid or credited to its savings account holders may be paid until such time as its earnings are sufficient to pay same. The amounts so contributed to the expense fund shall not constitute a liability of the association except as hereinafter provided. Such contributions may be repaid pro-rata to the contributors from the net earnings of the association after provision for required loss reserve allocations and payment or credit of dividends declared on savings accounts. In case of the liquidation of an association before contributions to the expense fund have been repaid, any contributions to the expense fund remaining unexpended, after the payment of expenses of liquidation, all creditors, and the withdrawal value of all savings accounts shall be paid to the contributors pro-rata. The books of the association shall reflect such expense fund. Contributors to the expense fund shall be paid dividends on the amounts paid in by them and for such purpose such contributions shall in all respects be considered as savings accounts of the association.

Hearings on Charter Applications

Sec. 2.07. When a proper application for a charter has been filed, the Commissioner shall cause public notice of such application to be given and give any interested party an opportunity to appear, present evidence and be heard for or against such application.

Approval of Application for Charter

Sec. 2.08. The Commissioner shall not approve any charter application unless he shall have affirmatively found from the data furnished with the application, the evidence adduced at such hearing and his official records that:

(1) the prerequisites, where applicable, set forth in Sections 2.02, 2.03, 2.04, 2.05, and 2.06 have been complied with and that the Articles of incorporation comply with all other provisions of this Act;

(2) the character, responsibility and general fitness of the persons named in the Articles of incorporation are such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed association will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of this Act and that the proposed association will have qualified fulltime management;

(3) there is a public need for the proposed association and the volume of business in the community in which the proposed association will conduct its business is such as to indicate profitable operation;

(4) the operation of the proposed association will not unduly harm any existing association.

If the Commissioner so finds, he shall state his findings in writing and issue under his official seal a certificate of incorporation and deliver a copy of the approved Articles of incorporation and bylaws to the incorporators and retain a copy thereof as a permanent file of his office, whereupon the proposed association shall be a corporate body with perpetual existence unless terminated by law and may exercise the powers of a savings and loan association as herein set forth.

Refusal of Charter Application

Sec. 2.09. If the Commissioner is unable to make the findings as required by the preceding Section, he shall endorse upon each copy of the proposed Articles of incorporation the word "refused" with the date of such endorsement and attach thereto a written statement of his grounds for such refusal. One copy of the proposed Articles and attached grounds of refusal shall be promptly mailed to the incorporators by certified mail.

Forfeiture of Charter for Failure to Commence Business

Sec. 2.10. Any association whose charter has been approved under this Act shall commence business within six (6) months after the date of such approval. If an association has not commenced business within such time, the incorporators may request a hearing before the Commissioner; and if good cause is shown for such failure, the Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of the time for commencing business to give such association an opportunity to overcome the cause for the delay in commencing business. Failure to commence business as herein required shall constitute grounds for forfeiture of the association's charter at the suit of the Attorney General upon request of the Commissioner brought in the County where the association proposes to locate its principal office.

Amendment of Charter and Bylaws

Sec. 2.11. Any association may, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of its members at any annual meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, amend its charter or bylaws in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; provided, that before such amendments become effective they must be filed with and approved by the Commissioner.

Corporate Name; Exclusive Use by Associations

Sec. 2.12. The name of every association shall include either the words "Savings Association," or "Savings and Loan Association." These words shall be preceded by an appropriate descriptive word or words approved by the Commissioner. An ordinal number may not be used as a single descriptive word preceding the words "Savings Association," or "Savings and Loan Association," unless such words are followed by the name of the town, city or county in which the association has its home office. No certificate of incorporation of a proposed association having the same name as any other association authorized to do business in this State under this Act or a name so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive shall be issued by the Commissioner, except to an association formed by the reincorporation, reorganization, or consolidation of other associations, or upon the sale of the property or franchise of an association. No person, firm, company, association, fiduciary, partnership or corporation, either domestic or foreign, unless authorized to do business in this State under the provisions of this Act shall do business under any name or title which indicates or reasonably implies that the business is the character or kind of business carried on or transacted by an association or which is calculated to lead any person to believe that the business is that of an association. Upon application by the Commissioner or any association, a court of competent jurisdiction may issue an injunction to restrain any such entity from violating or continuing to violate any of the foregoing provisions of this Section.

Change of Office or Name

Sec. 2.13. No association shall, without the prior approval of the Commissioner (i) establish any office other than the principal office stated in its articles of incorporation, (ii) move any office of the association from its immediate vicinity or (iii) change its name. When his approval is applied for, the Commissioner shall give any person who might be affected an opportunity to be heard on the action proposed to be taken for which approval is sought.

Preference to Local Control

Sec. 2.14. In any instance where there is a conflict between an application for the approval of a charter for a new association and an application for the establishment of an additional office by an existing association both seeking to locate in the same community and the principal office of the existing association is located in a different county than such community, the Commissioner may give additional weight to the application having the greater degree of control vested in or held by residents of the particular community.

CHAPTER THREE. DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND MEMBERS

Board of Directors

Sec. 3.01. The business of the association shall be directed by a board of directors of not less than five (5) nor more than twenty-one (21) elected by a majority vote at each annual meeting of the members; provided, that associations authorized to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock by their bylaws may provide in such bylaws that all or at least a majority of the board of directors shall be elected from among the holders of such stock. The number of directors shall be fixed from time to time within the limits above prescribed by resolution adopted at any annual meeting of members, or any special meeting called for such purpose.

Organization Meeting

Sec. 3.02. Within thirty (30) days after the corporate existence of an association shall begin, the initial board of directors shall hold an organization meeting and, pursuant to the provisions of this Act and the bylaws, shall elect officers and take such other action as is appropriate in connection with beginning the transaction of business by the association. The Commissioner upon good cause shown may extend by order the time within which the organization meeting shall be held.

Qualification of Directors

Sec. 3.03. The bylaws of an association may prescribe other qualifications for directors, but no person shall be eligible to election as a director unless he is the owner in good faith and his own right on the books of the association either in the form of a savings account or Permanent Reserve Fund Stock or a combination of both having a value on such books of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) and which shall not be reduced by withdrawal or pledge for a loan by the association, so long as such person remains a director. Any director, who after his election as such, ceases to be the owner in his own right of the necessary qualifying interest shall cease to be a director; provided, that no action of the board of directors shall be invalidated through the participation of such director in such action; provided, further, that if a director becomes ineligible under the terms of this Section by reason of the exercise by the association of the right of redemption of savings accounts provided for in Section 6.16, he shall remain validly in office until the expiration of his term or until he otherwise becomes ineligible, whichever may occur first. Any vacancy among directors may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, by electing a director to serve until the next annual meeting of members. In the event of a vacancy on the board of directors from any cause, the remaining directors shall have full power and authority to continue direction of the association until such vacancy is filled.

Officers

Sec. 3.04. The officers of an association shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and such other officers as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such officers shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors. The president shall be a member of the board of directors.

Indemnity Bonds of Directors, Officers and Employees

Sec. 3.05. Every association shall maintain on file with the Commissioner an effective blanket indemnity bond with an adequate corporate surety protecting the association from loss by or through any fraud, dishonesty, forgery or alteration, larceny, theft, embezzlement, robbery, burglary, holdup, wrongful or unlawful abstraction, misappropriation, or any other dishonest or criminal action or omission by any officer or employee of such association and any director of such association when performing the duty of an officer or employee. Associations which employ collection agents, who for any reason are not covered by a bond as hereinabove required, shall provide for the bonding of each such agent in an amount equal to at least twice the average monthly collection of such agent. Such agents shall be required to make settlement with the association at least monthly. No bond coverage will be required of any agent which is a bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The amounts and form of such bonds and sufficiency of the surety thereon shall be approved by the board of directors and the Commissioner. All such bonds shall provide that a cancellation thereof either by the surety or the insured shall not become effective unless and until thirty (30) days' notice in writing first shall have been given to the Commissioner, unless he shall have approved such cancellation earlier.

Meetings of Members; Voting Rights

Sec. 3.06. The annual meeting of the members of each association shall be held each year at the time fixed in the bylaws of the association. Special meetings may be called as provided in the bylaws. Those members or stockholders who shall be entitled to vote at any annual or special meeting of the association shall be those members or stockholders of record as of the end of the calendar year preceding the meeting or those of record 20 business days prior to the date on which the notice of the meeting is given, whichever is later, except those who have ceased to be members or stockholders between the record date and the date of the meeting. The bylaws may provide the basis for computing the number of votes which a member shall be entitled to cast, and in the instance of a Permanent Reserve Fund Stock association the bylaws may provide that only holders of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock shall have the right to vote. In the absence of any bylaw provision to the contrary, in the determination of all questions requiring action by the members, each member shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote by virtue of his membership, plus an additional vote for each share or fraction thereof of the Permanent Reserve Fund Stock of the association, if any, owned by such member, and an additional vote for each One Hundred Dollars ($100) or fraction thereof of the withdrawal value of savings accounts, if any, held by such member. A loan or a savings account shall create a single membership for voting purposes even though more than one person is obligated on such loan or has an interest in such savings account. Voting may be in person or by proxy. Every proxy shall be in writing and signed by the member or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact and, when filed with the secretary, shall, unless otherwise specified in the proxy, continue in force from year to year until a revocation in writing is duly delivered to the secretary or until superseded by subsequent proxies. The bylaws of each association shall specify the quorum requirements and other voting requirements for conducting business at membership meetings.

Access to Books and Records

Sec. 3.07. Every member shall have the right to inspect such books and records of an association as pertain to his loan, Permanent Reserve Fund Stock or savings account. Otherwise, the right of inspection and examination of the books and records shall be limited to the Commissioner or his duly authorized representatives as provided in this Act, to persons duly authorized to act for the association and to any Federal instrumentality or agency authorized to inspect or examine the books and records of an association whose savings accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The books and records pertaining to the accounts and loans of members shall be kept confidential by the Commissioner, his examiners and representatives, except where disclosure thereof shall be compelled by a court of competent jurisdiction, and no member or other person shall have access to the books and records or shall be furnished or shall possess a partial or complete list of the members except upon express action and authority of the board of directors. The books, records and files of an association shall not be admissible as evidence in any proceeding concerning the validity of any tax assessment or the collection of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest except where

(i) the owner of an account is a proper party to the proceeding in which event the books, files and records pertaining to the account of such party shall be admissible or

(ii) the association itself is a proper party to the proceeding in which event any book, file or record material to the proceeding shall be admissible.

General Corporate Powers

Sec. 4.01. Sec. 4.02. An association shall have power to borrow an aggregate amount equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of its savings liability on the date of borrowing from any non-governmental source and may pledge its assets to secure the repayment of money so borrowed. Any borrowing from non-governmental sources in excess of such amount must first be approved in writing by the Commissioner. Notwithstanding the aforesaid limitation, an association which is a member of a Federal Home Loan Bank shall have power to borrow or obtain advances from such bank in such amounts and upon such terms as may be prescribed by such bank from time to time. Sec. 4.04. Any association shall have power to act as fiscal agent of the United States, and, when so designated by the Secretary of the

Sec. 5.01. Every association may make real estate loans to members secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument creating or constituting a first and prior lien on improved real estate and may make additional real estate loans secured by liens subsequent to its own first lien upon the same property. Additional security may also be taken by the association in connection with any such loan if deemed necessary and proper.

Power to Deal in Real Estate Loans

Sec. 5.02. Every association may purchase real estate loans upon security of the same character against which such association may make an original loan and also may lend money on the security of such real estate loans.

Sec. 5.03. Subject to the requirements of any rules and regulations adopted under Section 5.04 hereof, every association may participate with other lenders in real estate loans of any type that such association could originate; may sell with or without recourse any real estate loan it holds or any participating interest therein; and may service any real estate loans sold by it.

Loans Shall Conform to Rules and Regulations of the Commissioner and Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission

Sec. 5.04. The Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, acting pursuant to the rule-making power delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,¹ as the same may be amended shall, from time to time, promulgate such rules and regulations in respect to loans by associations operating under this law as may be reasonably necessary to assure that such loans are in keeping with sound lending practices and promote the purposes of this Act; provided that such rules and regulations shall not prohibit an association from making any loan or investment that a Federal association could make under applicable Federal regulations.

Requirements in Regard to Lending Transactions

Sec. 5.05. In no event shall an association make a loan, purchase or sell a note or lien or enter into any participation transaction authorized in Sections 5.01, 5.02, and 5.03 in violation of any rule or regulation promulgated under Section 5.04 and no association shall:

(1) Make a real estate loan to an officer or director of the association unless such loan be first approved unanimously by its board of directors and such approval recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the board at which such loan was approved.

(2) Make a real estate loan or loans to any one borrower in the aggregate in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) or the sum of its loss reserves, surplus and permanent Reserve Fund Stock, if any, or within such limits as may be fixed by appropriate rule and regulation promulgated under Section 5.04 hereof, whichever is the greater amount.

(3) Make a real estate loan unless an appraisal by an appraiser or committee of appraisers appointed by the board of directors first be made and filed in writing with the association as a part of its permanent files; reappraisals may be required by the Commissioner on real estate securing loans which are delinquent more than twelve (12) months at the expense of the association.

(4) Make a real estate loan which is not secured by a first and prior lien upon the property described in the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument creating or constituting such lien, unless every prior lien thereon is owned by such association.

(5) Make a real estate loan unless the association is furnished with either a satisfactory abstract of title or a policy of title insurance issued by a title company authorized to insure titles in this state showing that the lien securing such loan meets the requirements of the preceding subsection (4).

(6) Make a real estate loan unless the insurable improvements thereon are insured against loss by a fire and extended coverage policy or its equivalent issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state.

(7) Sell or transfer a prior lien held by the association while retaining a junior lien on the same security to secure an unsatisfied obligation due the association unless such junior lien or liens were created in connection with a loan made under Sections 5.08 and 5.10 of this Act.

(8) Fail to promptly record in the proper county records every mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument, creating, constituting or transferring any lien securing in whole or in part any real estate loan or the association's interest therein.

Advances to Pay Taxes, Etc., on Security

Sec. 5.06. Associations may pay taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other similar charges for the protection of their interests in properties securing their real estate loans, which such advances may be carried on their books as an asset of the association and for which they may charge and collect interest, or such advances may be added to the unpaid balance of the loan as of the first day of the month in which such advances are made. All such advances shall constitute a valid lien against the real estate securing the loan for which they were made. Associations may require borrowers to pay monthly in advance, in addition to interest or interest and principal, the equivalent of one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$) of the estimated annual taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other charges upon the real estate securing any loan, or any of such charges, so as to enable the association to pay same as they become due from the funds so received. The amount of such monthly charges may be increased or decreased as is necessary for the payment of same. Associations may carry such funds in trust in an account or may credit the same to the indebtedness and advance the money for taxes, insurance or other charges as they come due. Every association shall keep a record of the status of taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other charges on all real estate securing its loans and on all real and personal property owned by it.

Expenses, Fees and Charges for Real Estate Loans

Sec. 5.07. Every association may require borrowing members to pay all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the making, closing, disbursing, extending, readjusting or renewing of real estate loans, which such charges may be collected by the association from the borrower and retained by it or paid to any persons, including any director, officer, or employee of the association rendering services in connection therewith, or paid directly by the borrower. In addition, associations may charge premiums for making such loans as well as penalties for prepayments or late payments; provided, that unless agreed in writing to the contrary, any prepayment of principal shall be applied on the final installment of the note or other obligation until fully paid, and thereafter on the installments in the inverse order of their maturity. The expenses, fees and charges authorized herein shall be in addition to interest authorized by law, and shall not be deemed to be a part of the interest collected or agreed to be paid on such loans within the meaning of any law of this State which limits the rate of interest which may be exacted in any transaction. No director, officer or employee of an association shall receive any fee or other compensation of any kind in connection with procuring any loan for an association, except for services actually rendered as above provided. A loan settlement statement shall be furnished by or on behalf of the association to each borrower upon the closing of every real estate loan, indicating in detail the expenses, fees and charges such borrower has paid or obligated himself to pay to the association or to any other person in connection with such loan. A copy of such statement shall be retained in the records of the association.

Insured and Guaranteed Loans

Sec. 5.08. Any association may make, without regard to any loan limitations or restrictions otherwise imposed by this Act, any loan, secured or unsecured, which is insured or guaranteed in any manner and in any amount by the United States or any instrumentality thereof.

Loans on Security of Savings Accounts

Sec. 5.09. Any association may make loans on the sole security value of the accounts owned or otherwise pledged for or by the borrower. No such loan shall be made when an association has applications for withdrawal which have been on file more than sixty (60) days and not reached for payment.

Property Improvement Loans and Other Loans to Members

Sec. 5.10. Any association may make property improvement loans to home owners and other property owners for maintenance, repair, modernization, improvement and equipment of their properties, and may make other loans to members, on such terms and conditions as may be fixed by rules and regulations adopted under Section 5.04 hereof and which shall not be subject to the requirements of Section 5.05 of this Act.

Investment in Securities

Sec. 5.11. Every association shall have power to invest in obligations of, or guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the United States or this State; in stock of a Federal Home Loan Bank of which it is eligible to be a member, and in any obligations or consolidated obligations of any Federal Home Loan Bank or Banks; in stock or obligations of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; in stock or obligations of a national mortgage association or any successor or successors thereto; in demand, time, or savings deposits with any bank or trust company the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; in stock or obligations of any corporation or agency of the United States or this State, or in deposits therewith to the extent that such corporation or agency assists in furthering or facilitating the association's purposes or power; in savings accounts of any association operating under the provisions of this Act and of any Federal association; in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are a general obligation of any city, town, village, county, school district, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of this State; and in such other securities or obligations which the Commissioner may approve and place on a published list. An association investing in securities which are listed by the Commissioner shall not be required to dispose of such securities if at a later time the Commissioner shall remove same from list. No security owned by an association shall be carried on its books at more than the actual cost thereof unless a different treatment is permitted by the Commissioner in writing.

Sec. 5.12. An association may own during the period of its corporate existence real property upon which any facility used in connection with the operation of such association is located. Every other parcel of real estate acquired by such association in the course of business shall be disposed of within five (5) years from the date acquired unless the Commissioner shall have extended the time in which such disposition shall be made. Any of such real property may be sold, conveyed, leased, improved, repaired, mortgaged or exchanged for other real estate when such is authorized by the board of directors.

Limitation on Investment in Office Buildings

Sec. 5.13. An association may not invest more in office buildings than an amount equal to the aggregate dollar value of its loss reserves and surplus plus the par value of any outstanding Permanent Reserve Fund Stock as reflected by its books at the time of such investment unless the investment of a greater amount is authorized by the Commissioner in writing.

Valuation of Real Property on the Books of an Association

Sec. 5.14. No association shall carry any real estate on its books at a sum in excess of the total amount invested by such association on account of such real estate, including advances, costs and improvements, but excluding accrued but uncollected interest unless the Commissioner has specifically approved in writing a higher valuation. Any association selling real estate under a contract of sale may carry the amount due the association under the terms of such contract as an asset upon its books; provided, that at no time shall the contract be considered as having an asset value greater in amount than the sales price agreed upon in the contract, or greater in amount than the value at which such property so sold was permitted to be carried upon the books of the association.

Appraisals of Real Estate Owned

Sec. 5.15. Every association shall appraise every parcel of real estate at the time of acquisition thereof and upon completion of any permanent improvements thereto. The report of such appraisal shall be in writing and kept in the records of the association.

CHAPTER SIX. SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

No Limitation on Savings Accounts

Who May Open a Savings Account

Sec. 6.02. Investments in savings accounts may be made only with cash and may be made by any person in his own right or in a trust or other fiduciary capacity and by any partnership, association, corporation, political subdivision, public and governmental unit or entity.

Savings Contracts

Sec. 6.03. Each holder of a savings account shall execute a savings contract setting forth any special terms and provisions applicable to such account and the conditions upon which withdrawals may be made not inconsistent with provisions of this Act. Such savings contract shall be held by the association as part of its records pertaining to such account. The savings contract in respect to savings accounts of political subdivisions and public and governmental units or entities shall provide that the holder of any such account shall not become a member of the association.

Evidence of Ownership of an Account

Sec. 6.04. As evidence of each savings account the association shall issue to the holder of such account either an account book or certificate.

Transfer of Savings Accounts

Savings accounts shall be transferable only on the books of the association upon presentation of evidence of transfer satisfactory to the association accompanied by proper application for transfer by the transferee who shall accept such account subject to the terms and conditions of the savings contract, the bylaws of the association and the provisions of its charter. The association may treat the holder of record of a savings account as the owner thereof for all purposes without being affected by any notice to the contrary unless the association has acknowledged in writing that a pledge of such savings account has been made.

Lost or Destroyed Account Books or Certificates

Sec. 6.06. A new account book or certificate may be issued in the name of the holder of record at any time when requested by such holder or his legal representative upon proof satisfactory to the association that the original book or certificate has been lost or destroyed. The new account book or certificate shall expressly state that it is issued in lieu of the one lost or destroyed and the association shall in no way be liable thereafter on account of the original account book or certificate. The association may if it desires require indemnification against any loss that might result from the issuance of the new account book or certificate.

Savings Accounts of Married Women and Minors

Sec. 6.07. Any association operating under this law and any Federal savings and loan association doing business in this State may accept savings accounts from any married woman or minor as the sole and absolute owner of such savings account, and receive payments thereon by or for such owner, and pay withdrawals, accept pledges to the association, and act in any other manner with respect to such accounts on the order of such married woman or minor. Any payment or delivery of rights to a married woman or to any minor, or a receipt or acquittance signed by a married woman or by a minor who holds a savings account, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of such institution for any payment so made or delivery of rights to such married woman or minor. In the case of a minor, the receipt, acquittance, pledge or other action required by the institution to be taken by the minor shall be binding upon such minor with like effect as if he were of full age and legal capacity; provided, if any parent or guardian of such minor should not desire the minor to have authority to pledge, hypothecate, control, transfer or make withdrawals from his savings account, such fact may be made known to the association in writing by such parent or guardian, in which event the right of the minor to pledge, hypothecate, control, transfer and make withdrawals from the account during the minority of such minor shall not be exercised by him except with the joinder of such parent or guardian. In the event of the death of such minor, the receipt or acquittance of either parent or guardian of such minor shall be valid and sufficient discharge of such institution for any sum or sums not exceeding in the aggregate One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

Savings Accounts in Two or More Names

Sec. 6.08. When a savings account is opened in any association operating under this law or Federal Savings and Loan Association doing business in this state in the names of two or more persons, whether minor or adult, and the savings contract provides that the moneys in such account may be paid to or on the order of any one of such persons, then the institution may pay the moneys in such account to or on the order of any one of such persons either before or after the death of the other person or persons named on such account and such institution shall have no further liability for the amounts so paid, but if the savings contract provides that the signatures of more than one of such persons during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them are required on any check, receipt or withdrawal order, then the institution shall pay the moneys in the account only in accordance with such instructions; provided, that any one of the parties to such an account may give written notice to the institution not to permit withdrawals in accordance with the terms of the savings contract, in which event the institution may refuse, without liability, to honor any check, receipt or withdrawal request on the account pending determination of the rights of the parties thereto.

Joint Accounts by Husband and Wife

Sec. 6.09. A husband and wife shall have full power to enter into a savings contract involving a savings account consisting of funds which are community property of their marriage so as to create a joint tenancy with right of survivorship as to such account and any future additions or dividends made or credited thereto and, to the extent necessary to accomplish such result in law, such contract shall constitute a partition of such community property or reciprocal gifts from the respective spouses, if the same is in writing and subscribed to by such husband and wife even though not acknowledged by either of them.

Pledge to Association of Joint Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.10. The pledge or hypothecation to any association or Federal association of all or part of a savings account issued in the names of two (2) or more persons signed by any person or persons upon whose signature or signatures withdrawals may be made from the account shall, unless the terms of the savings account provide specifically to the contrary, be a valid pledge and transfer to the institution of that part of the account pledged or hypothecated, and shall not operate to sever or terminate the joint and survivorship ownership of all or any part of the account.

Savings Accounts of Fiduciaries

Sec. 6.11. Any association operating under this law or any Federal savings and loan association doing business in this State may accept savings accounts in the name of any administrator, executor, custodian, guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary for a named beneficiary or beneficiaries, and any such fiduciary shall have power to vote as a member as if the membership were held absolutely, to open and make additions to, and to withdraw from any such account in whole or in part. Except when otherwise provided by law, the payment to any such fiduciary or a receipt or acquittance signed by any such fiduciary to whom any payment is made shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of an institution for the payment so made. Whenever a person holding an account in a fiduciary capacity dies and no written notice or order of the probate court of the revocation or termination of the fiduciary relationship shall have been given to the institution and the institution has no written notice or order of the probate court of any other disposition of the beneficial estate, the withdrawal value of such account, and dividends thereon, or other rights relating thereto may, at the option of the institution, be paid or delivered, in whole or in part, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and such institution shall have no further liability therefor.

Trust Accounts Where Trust Instrument Not Disclosed

Sec. 6.12. Whenever an account shall be opened by any person, describing himself in opening such account as a trustee for another and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust than such description shall have been given in writing to such institution, withdrawals from such account may be made on the signature of the person so described as trustee, and in the event of the death of such person, the withdrawal value of such account, or any part thereof, together with dividends thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the account was thus stated to have been opened, and the institution shall have no further liability therefor.

Powers of Attorney on Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.13. Any association operating under this law or any Federal association doing business in this State may continue to recognize the authority of an attorney-in-fact authorized in writing to manage or to make withdrawals either in whole or in part from the savings account of a member until it receives written notice or is on actual notice of the revocation of his authority. For the purposes of this Section, written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of such member shall constitute written notice of revocation of the authority of his attorney.

Savings Accounts as Legal Investments

Sec. 6.14. Administrators, executors, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries of every kind and nature; counties, cities, towns and all other political subdivisions or instrumentalities of this State; insurance companies doing business in this State; business and nonprofit corporations; charitable or educational corporations or associations; banks, credit unions and all other financial institutions are hereby specifically authorized and empowered to invest funds held by them in savings accounts of any association operating under this law or any Federal association. Any such investments made by insurance companies shall be eligible for tax reducing purposes under Article 7064 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, and any such investment by a school district of any of its funds in such savings accounts which are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation shall for all purposes be considered as meeting the requirements of Section 1, Acts 1953, Fifty-third Legislature, Regular Session, page 464, Chapter 150, as amended (Article 2786d, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), and Article 2832, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. If upon the effective date of this Act the shares and share accounts of associations operating under Article 881a of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, are legal investments for any particular business, organization, corporation, fiduciary or political subdivision, the savings accounts of associations subject to terms of this Act shall be deemed to be legal investments to the same extent as such shares and share accounts.

Withdrawals from Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.15. Any savings account holder may at any time present a written application for withdrawal of all or any part of his savings account except to the extent the same may be pledged to the association or to another person on the books of the association. The association may pay in full each and every withdrawal request as presented and without requiring that written application therefor be made or the association may elect to number, date and file in the order of actual receipt every withdrawal application and to pay such requests out of its net receipts. Not more than one half of the net receipts of the association in any month shall be applied to the payment of withdrawal applications unless the board of directors specifically authorizes the use of a greater portion of such receipts for such purpose. By the term "Net receipts" is meant the cash receipts of the association as loan repayments, interest and investments in savings accounts less disbursements for all expenses necessary and incidental to the operation of the association in carrying on its business. Whenever the net receipts so made applicable to withdrawal applications on file for a particular month are not sufficient to pay such applications in full, the applications on file shall be paid out of such net receipts on a pro-rata basis or, with the approval of the Commissioner, the board of directors may fix maximum amounts to be paid upon any one application during any one month and payments shall be made pro-rata out of such net receipts to all applications on file subject to such maximum payment limitation. No association can obligate itself to pay withdrawals on any plan other than that set forth above. While an application for withdrawal by a member remains in effect and unpaid, no withdrawal applications subsequently filed by the same member shall be paid and no loan shall be made secured by transfer or pledge of the account. A member filing a withdrawal application shall not become a creditor of the association by reason of such filing. Full payment may be made at any time to members whose entire interest in the association amounts to One Hundred Dollars ($100) or less. The Commissioner with the approval of the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas may invoke a uniform limitation on the amounts withdrawable from savings accounts of associations subject to this Act during any period when such limitation is necessary in the public interest. The membership of a savings account holder who has filed an application for withdrawal shall remain unimpaired so long as any withdrawal value remains to his credit on the books of the association. An application for withdrawal may be cancelled in whole or in part at any time by a member.

Redemption of Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.16. At any time funds are on hand for the purpose an association shall have the right to redeem by lot or otherwise, as the board of directors may determine, all or any part of any of its savings accounts on a dividend date by giving thirty (30) days' notice by certified mail addressed to each affected account holder at his last address as recorded on the books of the association. No association shall redeem any of its savings accounts when the association is subject to receivership action under Section 8.16 hereof or when it has applications for withdrawal which have been on file for more than thirty (30) days and have not been reached for payment. The redemption price of savings accounts redeemed shall be the withdrawal value thereof. If the aforesaid notice of redemption shall have been duly given, and if on or before the redemption date the funds necessary for such redemption shall have been set aside so as to be and continue to be available therefor, dividends upon the accounts called for redemption shall cease to accrue from and after the dividend date specified as the redemption date, and all rights with respect to such accounts shall forthwith, after such redemption date, terminate, except only the right of the account holder of record to receive the redemption price.

Lien on Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.17. Every association operating under this law or any Federal association doing business in this State shall have a lien, without further agreement or pledge, upon all savings accounts owned by any member to whom or on whose behalf the association has made an advance of money by loan or otherwise and upon the default in the repayment or satisfaction thereof, the association may, without notice to or consent of the member, cancel on its books all or any part of the savings accounts owned by such member and apply the value of such accounts in payment on account of such obligation. An association may by written instrument waive its lien in whole or in part on any savings accounts. Any association may take the pledge of savings accounts of the association owned by a member other than the borrower as additional security for any loan secured by an account or by an account and real estate, or as additional security for any real estate loan.

Method of Paying Dividends on Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.18. Dividends shall be credited to savings accounts on the books of the association unless a savings account holder shall have requested and the association shall have agreed to pay dividends on such savings account in cash. Dividends payable in cash may be paid by check or bank draft.

Permissive Bylaw Provisions in Respect to Priority of Savings Accounts and Notice of Withdrawal

Sec. 6.19. The bylaws of an association may provide that in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the association or in the event of any other situation in which the priority of savings accounts is in controversy, all savings accounts shall, to the extent of their withdrawal value, be debts of the association having the same priority as the claims of general creditors of the association not having priority (other than any priority arising or resulting from consensual subordination) over other general creditors of the association. If its bylaws so provide, an association may require advance notice of as much as sixty (60) days before paying withdrawal applications. An association which, having required advance notice of withdrawal, fails to make full payment of any withdrawal application at the end of the notice period shall be deemed to be subject to receivership proceedings under Section 8.16 of this Act.

Enlargement of Powers

Sec. 6.20. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary, an association may raise capital in the manner and form and issue any certificate in the form and pay dividends, earnings or interest thereon in the manner which the association could if it were a Federal Association as defined in Section 1.03(9) of this Act.

CHAPTER SEVEN. COMPUTATION OF EARNINGS, TRANSFERS TO LOSS RESERVES, DIVIDENDS, SURPLUS

Computation of Net Income

Sec. 7.01. Each association shall close its books on the last business day of June and December of each year, and at such other times as its bylaws may provide, for the purpose of determining the gross income of the association for the period since the date of the last such closing of its books and from which shall be deducted the expenses of operating the association for such period, the balance remaining being the net income for the period.

Transfers to Loss Reserves

Sec. 7.02. If, at the date of any closing of its books, the loss reserves of an association equal an aggregate amount of less than five per cent (5%) of its savings liability, then an amount equal to at least five per cent (5%) of its net income, or so much thereof as may be necessary to increase its loss reserves to the above required amount, shall be transferred from the net income of the association to its loss reserves. In the event that any credit to the loss reserves of an association is made following the effective date of this Act in excess of the minimum five per cent (5%) requirement the dollar amount of such excess may be carried over as a credit toward the minimum requirement for any subsequent accounting period.

Dividends on Savings Accounts

Sec. 7.03. After providing for payment of the expenses of operation of the association and for the required minimum transfer to its loss reserves, the board of directors of the association may declare dividends on savings accounts. Dividends, when declared, shall be computed and paid in accordance with such terms and conditions as may from time to time be authorized by rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas. An association shall not be required to pay or credit a dividend of less than One Dollar ($1) on any account or any dividend on short-term accounts where the savings contract provides for closing the account within one (1) year and waives dividend participation.

Dividends on Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 7.04. The balance of net income of the association, if any, may be credited to a surplus account, from which the board of directors of any association whose bylaws provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, and which has such stock outstanding, may, at their discretion, and at such times as they may determine, declare and pay dividends in cash or additional stock to the holders of record of such stock outstanding at the date such dividends are declared.

Use of Surplus Accounts and Expense Fund Contributions

Sec. 7.05. Any association at any closing date may use all or any part of any surplus accounts, whether earned or paid-in, or any expense fund contributions on its books at such time to meet all or any part of the expenses of operating the association for the period just closed, required transfers to loss reserves, or the payment or credit of dividends declared on savings accounts.

Contracts with Members to Pay Interest

Sec. 7.06. An association may contract with its savings members to pay interest on savings accounts provided that the association's bylaws contain provisions substantially similar to those authorized by Section 6.19 of this Act. Any interest so paid shall be considered a cost of savings money to the association.

CHAPTER EIGHT. SUPERVISION AND REGULATION, BOOKS AND RECORDS, ACCOUNTING PRACTICES, STATEMENTS, REPORTS, AUDITS, EXAMINATIONS, VIOLATIONS, RECEIVERSHIP

Supervision and Regulation

Sec. 8.01. All associations subject to this Act shall be supervised and regulated and the provisions of this Act shall be enforced by the Savings and Loan Department of Texas and the Savings and Loan Commissioner, acting pursuant to the authority hereby delegated and the authority delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, 1961.¹

Books and Records

Sec. 8.02. Every association shall keep at its home office correct and complete books of account and minutes of the meetings of members and directors. Complete records of all business transacted at the home office shall be maintained at the home office. Records of business transacted at any branch or agency office may be kept at such branch or agency office; provided, that control records of all business transacted at any branch or agency office shall be kept at the home office.

Accounting Practices

Sec. 8.03. Every association shall use such forms and observe such accounting principles and practices as the Commissioner may require from time to time.

Misdescription of Assets

Sec. 8.04. No association by any system of account or any device of bookkeeping shall, either directly or indirectly, knowingly enter any of its assets upon its books in the name of any other person, partnership, association or corporation or under any title or designation that is not truly descriptive of such assets.

Charging Off or Setting Up Reserves Against Bad Assets

Sec. 8.05. The Commissioner, after a determination of value, may order that assets in the aggregate, to the extent that such assets have depreciated in value, be charged off, or that a special reserve or reserves equal to such depreciation in value be set up by transfers from surplus.

Maintenance of Membership Records

Sec. 8.06. Every association shall maintain membership records which shall show the name and address of the member, the status of the member as a savings account holder, a stockholder or an obligor, and the date of membership thereof.

Reproduction and Destruction of Records

Sec. 8.07. Any association may cause any or all records kept by such association to be copied or reproduced by any photostatic, photographic, or microfilming process which correctly and permanently copies, reproduces or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a film or other durable material, and such association may thereafter dispose of the original record. Any such copy or reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes and shall be treated as an original record in all courts or administrative agencies for the purpose of its admissibility in evidence. A facsimile, exemplification or certified copy shall, for all purposes, be deemed a facsimile, exemplification or certified copy of the original record.

Financial Statement

Sec. 8.08. Every association shall prepare and publish annually in the month of January of each year in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the home office of such association is located, a statement of its financial condition in the form prescribed or approved by the Commissioner as of the last business day of December of the preceding year.

Annual Reports, Other Reports

Sec. 8.09. On or before the last day of March in each year, every association shall make an annual written report to the Commissioner, upon a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner, of its affairs and operations, which shall include a complete statement of its financial condition, including a statement of income and expense since its last previous similar report, for the twelve (12) months ending on the last business day of December of the previous year. Every such report shall be signed by the president, vice president or secretary. Every association shall also make such other reports as the Commissioner may from time to time require, which reports shall be in such form and filed on such dates as he may prescribe and shall, if required by him, be signed in the same manner as the annual report.

Annual Audit and Examination

Sec. 8.10. The Commissioner shall at frequent intervals examine or cause an examination to be made into the affairs of every association subject to this Act. If an association is not audited in a manner satisfactory to the Commissioner, the examination of such association shall include an audit. Upon completion of an audit, one (1) copy of same, signed and certified by the auditor making such audit, shall be promptly filed with the Commissioner. The Commissioner, any deputy commissioner, or his examiners or auditors shall have free access to all books and records of an association which relate to its business and books and records kept by any officer, agent or employee relating to or upon which any record of its business is kept; and may summon witnesses and administer oaths or affirmations in examination of the directors, officers, agents, or employees of any such association, or any other person in relation to its affairs, transactions and condition, and may require and compel the production of records, books, papers, contracts or other documents by court order, if not voluntarily produced.

Joint Examinations

Sec. 8.11. The Commissioner may examine or cause to be examined any association in conjunction with an examination by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, a Federal Home Loan Bank or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, and shall accept any audit made by or accepted by any of said agencies during the course of any examination of an association.

Extra or Additional Examinations

Sec. 8.12. Whenever, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the condition of any association renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra or additional examination or audit or to devote any extraordinary attention to its affairs, the Commissioner shall cause such work to be done, and such association shall be charged with the cost of same. A full and complete copy of the report of all examinations and audits shall be promptly furnished to the association examined or audited. Every report of examination or audit shall be presented to the board of directors at their next regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for such purpose, and noted in the minutes thereof.

Commissioner Shall Order Discontinuance of Violations

Sec. 8.13. If the Commissioner, as a result of any examination or from any report made to him shall find that any association or any director, officer or employee of any association is violating the provisions of the charter or by-laws of the association, or the laws of this State, or the laws of the United States, or any lawful rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, he shall deliver a formal written order to the board of directors of the association in which the facts known to the Commissioner are set forth, demanding the discontinuance of such violation and conformance with all requirements of law. The association affected by such order may within ten (10) days after the same has been delivered to the association request a public hearing before the Commissioner in regard to such order, at which hearing any pertinent evidence relating to said order or the facts stated therein may be presented. After such hearing the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented and any matters of record in his office, shall either continue such order in effect, modify the same or set it aside.

Commissioner May Remove Directors, Officers and Employees Participating in Violations

Sec. 8.14. The Commissioner may require that any director, officer or employee of an association, who has participated in a violation as described in Section 8.13, be removed from the association if the action of the person or persons concerned was knowingly and willfully taken. Prior to entering an order of removal, the Commissioner shall deliver a full statement of the acts and conduct to which he objects to the board of directors of the association and the person or persons concerned and of his intention to enter a removal order. If a hearing on the matter is requested within ten (10) days after such delivery, the Commissioner shall hold a public hearing at which any pertinent evidence relating to the matters set forth in such statement may be presented. After such hearing the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented at such hearing, may proceed to enter an order for the immediate removal of the director, officer or employee affected, a reprimand of the individuals and association concerned or a dismissal of the entire matter. If no hearing is requested within the time specified, the Commissioner may proceed to enter an order of removal on the basis of the facts set forth in his original statement.

When Order May Be Reviewed

Sec. 8.15. If a hearing has been held in regard to an order made under Sections 8.13 or 8.14 hereof and such order is continued either in its original form or a modified form, the same shall be final and reviewable when the Commissioner makes and enters in the record his decision after such hearing. If no hearing is requested on such an order the order shall be final and reviewable after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the date such order is entered by the Commissioner.

Receivership

Sec. 8.16. If, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the public interest requires it, he may apply to a district court of the county in which the home office of any association is located for the appointment of a receiver for such association. Such court shall appoint a receiver as applied for if it finds either

(i) that such association's assets in the aggregate do not have a fair value equal to the total liabilities of the association to its creditors and to all holders of savings accounts or

(ii) that the association is in violation of any final and binding order of the Commissioner and that such alleged violations cannot be otherwise corrected.

All proceedings in regard to such applications shall be governed by the laws of this State applicable to receiverships generally. The Commissioner, or his deputy or a Savings and Loan Examiner may be appointed by the court as a receiver. The receiver, upon appointment by the court, shall immediately take charge of the affairs of the association, subject to the direction of the court, and proceed to conduct the business of the association or to take such steps as may be necessary to conserve the assets and protect the rights of the creditors of the association and its members as may be ordered by the court. The official who is appointed receiver shall receive no additional compensation for such service. If the association is an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, said corporation shall be tendered appointment as receiver or co-receiver. If it accepts such appointment, it may, nevertheless, make loans on the security of or purchase at public or private sale any part or all of the assets of the association of which it is receiver or co-receiver, provided such loan or purchase is approved by such court. The directors, officers and attorneys of an association in office at the time of the initiation of any proceeding under this Section are expressly authorized to contest any such proceedings and shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses and attorneys' fees by the association or from its assets, the amount of which shall be fixed by the court.

Communications from Commissioner

Sec. 8.17. Every approval or rejection by the Commissioner given pursuant to the provisions of this Act and every communication having the effect of an order or instruction to any association shall be sent by certified mail to the association affected thereby, addressed to the president thereof at the home office of the association, and shall be presented to the board of directors of such association at its next regular meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose and noted in the minutes of such meeting.

CHAPTER NINE. FOREIGN ASSOCIATIONS

Limitation on Right to do Business as a Savings and Loan Association

Sec. 9.01. From and after the effective date of this Act no person, firm, company, association, fiduciary, partnership or corporation by whatever name called shall do business as a savings and loan association within this State or maintain any office in this State for the purpose of doing such business except:

(1) associations organized under the laws of this State and subject to this Act;

(2) Federal associations as herein defined;

(3) savings and loan associations organized under the laws of another state of the United States which have held on the effective date of this Act certificates of authority issued pursuant to Section 61 of Senate Bill No. 111, Acts, 1929, Forty-first Legislature, Second Called Session, page 100, Chapter 61,¹ for not less than ten (10) consecutive years and have actually done business in this State continuously for such period; and

(4) to the extent any activity does not constitute transacting business in this State under Article 8.01B of the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Renewal of Outstanding Certificates

Sec. 9.02. Any savings and loan association organized under the laws of another state of the United States holding a certificate of authority to do business in this State on the effective date of this Act may renew such certificate from year to year thereafter by the payment of an annual renewal fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or Twenty Dollars ($20) for each million dollars or major fraction thereof of the total assets of such association, whichever is the greater, and by fulfilling all the prerequisites required by law at the time it secured its last renewal certificate prior to the effective date of this Act. Such association shall pay the same annual fees in lieu of examination charges paid by domestic associations under Section 11.06 of this Act, together with all traveling expenses of such examination; provided that if such examination fee is inadequate to defray all expenses of such examination, then such association shall pay the additional cost thereof. Examinations shall not be made more than once each year.

Contracts Deemed Made in this State

Sec. 9.03. Any contract made by any foreign association with any citizen of this State shall be deemed and considered a Texas contract and shall be construed by all the courts of this State according to the laws of this State.

Rights, Privileges and Obligations of Foreign Associations with Certificates of Authority

Sec. 9.04. Any foreign association operating under a certificate of authority as herein provided, during the time such certificate is in force, shall have all of the rights and privileges of associations created under this Act and its savings accounts shall be eligible for investment to the same extent as that of a domestic association; likewise, all provisions of this Act and all rules and regulations made pursuant thereto shall be applicable to such foreign associations.

Power of Commissioner to Revoke Certificate

Sec. 9.05. The Commissioner may issue discontinuance orders against a foreign association in the same manner as against domestic associations as set forth in Section 8.13 hereof, and upon the failure or refusal of a foreign association to comply with a final order of the Commissioner he shall revoke the certificate of authority held by such association and it will be unlawful thereafter for any agent of such association to transact any business in this State, except to receive payments to apply on loan contracts then in effect, and to pay withdrawal requests.

Federal Savings and Loan Associations

Sec. 9.06. Federal associations are not foreign corporations or associations. Unless Federal laws or regulations provide otherwise, Federal associations and the members thereof shall possess all of the rights, powers, privileges, benefits, immunities and exemptions that are herein provided or that may hereafter be provided by the laws of this State for associations subject to this Act or the members thereof. This provision is additional and supplemental to any provision which, by specific reference, is applicable to Federal associations and the members thereof.

CHAPTER TEN. CONVERSION, REORGANIZATION, MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION, VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION

Conversion Into Federal Associations

Sec. 10.01. Any association subject to this Act may convert itself into a Federal association in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as now or hereafter amended,¹ upon a majority vote of the members at any annual meeting or any special meeting called to consider such action. A copy of the minutes of the proceedings of such meeting of the members, verified by affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner within ten (10) days after the date of such meeting. A sworn copy of the proceedings of such meeting, when so filed, shall be presumptive evidence of the holding and action of such meeting. Within three (3) months after the date of such meeting, the association shall take such action in the manner prescribed and authorized by the laws of the United States as shall make it a Federal association. There shall be filed with the Commissioner a copy of the charter issued to such Federal association by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a Federal association, certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. No failure to file any such instruments with the Commissioner shall affect the validity of such conversion. Upon the grant of any association of a charter by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the association receiving such charter shall cease to be an association incorporated under this Act and shall no longer be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner. Upon the conversion of any association into a Federal association, the corporate existence of such association shall not terminate, but such Federal association shall be deemed to be a continuation of the entity of the association so converted and all property of the converted association, including its rights, titles, and interests in and to all property of whatever kind, whether real, personal, or mixed, and things in action, and every right, privilege, interest, and asset of any conceivable value or benefit then existing, or pertaining to it, or which would inure to it, shall immediately by operation of law and without any conveyance or transfer and without any further act or deed remain and be vested in and continue and be the property of such Federal association into which the state association has converted itself, and such Federal association shall have, hold and enjoy the same in its own right as fully and to the same extent as the same was possessed, held, and enjoyed by the converting association, and such Federal association as of the time of the taking effect of such conversion shall continue to have and succeed to all the rights, obligations, and relations of the converting association. All pending actions and other judicial proceedings to which the converting state association is a party shall not be deemed to have abated or to have discontinued by reason of such conversion, but may be prosecuted to final judgment, order, or decree in the same manner as if such conversion into Federal association had not been made and such Federal association resulting from such conversion may continue such action in its corporate name as a Federal association, and any judgment, order, or decree may be rendered for or against it which might have been rendered for or against the converting state association theretofore involved in such judicial proceedings. Any association or corporation, which has heretofore converted itself into a Federal association under the provisions of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 and has received a charter from the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, shall hereafter be recognized as a Federal association, and its Federal charter shall be given full credence by the courts of this State to the same extent as if such conversion had taken place under the provisions of this Section; provided, however, that there shall have been compliance with the foregoing requirements with respect to the filing with the Commissioner of a copy of the Federal charter or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a Federal association. All such conversions are hereby ratified and confirmed, and all the obligations of such an association which has so converted shall continue as valid and subsisting obligations of such Federal association, and the title to all of the property of such an association shall be deemed to have continued and vested, as of the date of issuance of such Federal charter, in such Federal association as fully and completely as if such conversion had taken place since the enactment of this Act pursuant to this Section.

Conversion Into State Chartered Association

Sec. 10.02. Any Federal association may convert itself into an association under this Act upon a majority vote of the members of such Federal association cast at an annual meeting or any special meeting called to consider such action. Copies of the minutes of the proceedings of such meeting of members, verified by affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary, shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner and mailed to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Washington, D.C., within ten (10) days after such meeting. Such verified copies of the proceedings of the meeting when so filed shall be presumptive evidence of the holding and action of such meeting. At the meeting at which conversion is voted upon, the members shall also vote upon the directors who shall be the directors of the state-chartered association after conversion takes effect. Such directors then shall execute two (2) copies of the application for certificate of incorporation provided in this Act. The Commissioner shall, upon receipt of such application, cause the association to be examined and if he finds that it is in sound condition, approve the conversion and insert in the certificate of incorporation, at the end of the paragraph preceding the testimonium clause, the following: "This association is incorporated by conversion from a Federal savings and loan association." Each of the directors chosen for the association shall sign and acknowledge the application for certificate of incorporation as subscribers thereto and the proposed bylaws as incorporators of the association. The provisions of this Act shall, so far as applicable, apply to such conversion. The state-chartered association shall be a continuation of the corporate entity of the converting Federal association and continue to have all of its property and rights.

Reorganization, Merger and Consolidation

Sec. 10.03. Pursuant to a plan adopted by the board of directors and approved by the Commissioner as equitable to the members of the association and as not impairing the usefulness and success of other properly conducted associations in the same vicinity, an association shall have power to reorganize or to merge or consolidate with another association or Federal association within its vicinity; provided, that the plan of such reorganization, merger or consolidation shall be approved by a majority of the total vote the members are entitled to cast. Approval may be voted at either an annual meeting or at a special meeting called to consider such action. In all cases the corporate continuity of the resulting corporation shall possess the same incidents as that of an association which has converted in accordance with this Act. The foregoing geographical limitation shall not apply where one of the associations involved in a proposed merger or consolidation would be subject to action by the Commissioner under Section 8.16 of this Act in the absence of such merger or consolidation.

• Voluntary Liquidation

Sec. 10.04. At any annual meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, any association may by majority vote of its members resolve to liquidate and dissolve the association; provided, that before such resolution shall take effect, a copy thereof certified to by the president and the secretary of the association, together with an itemized statement of its assets and liabilities sworn to by a majority of its board of directors, shall be filed with and approved by the Commissioner. When the Commissioner shall have approved such resolution it shall thereafter be unlawful for such association to accept any additional savings accounts or additions to savings accounts or to make any additional loans, but all its income and receipts in excess of actual expenses of liquidation of the association shall be applied to the discharge of its liabilities. The board of directors of the association, under the supervision of the Commissioner and in accordance with a plan of liquidation approved by him, shall thereupon proceed to liquidate the affairs of the association and reduce the assets thereof to cash for the purpose of paying, satisfying and discharging all existing liabilities and obligations of the association, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts, the balance remaining, if any there be, to be distributed pro-rata among the savings account members of record on the date of adoption by the association of the resolution to liquidate; provided, however, that if the association be one whose bylaws provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock and such association has issued and has outstanding such stock, then any such balance remaining after all liabilities and obligations have been fully paid and satisfied, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts, shall be distributed among the holders of such stock in proportion to their stockholding. All expenses incurred by the Commissioner or any of his representatives during the course of any such liquidation shall be paid from the assets of the association. Upon completion of liquidation, the board of directors shall file with the Commissioner a final report and accounting of such liquidation. The approval of such report by the Commissioner shall operate as a complete and final discharge of the board of directors and each member in connection with the liquidation of such association.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. MISCELLANEOUS

Exemption from Securities Laws

Sec. 11.01. Savings associations, the officers, employees or agents, savings accounts and the permanent reserve stock thereof, and the sale, issuance or offering of savings accounts and permanent reserve fund stock of any association or Federal savings and loan association are hereby exempted from all provisions of law of this State, other than this Act, which provide for supervision, registration or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance or offering of securities, and the sale, issuance or offering of any such accounts or stock shall be legal without any action or approval whatsoever on the part of any official, other than the Commissioner, authorized to license, regulate, or supervise the sale, issuance or offering of securities.

Acknowledgments by Members and Employees

Sec. 11.02. No public officer qualified to take acknowledgments or proofs of written instruments shall be disqualified from taking the acknowledgments or proofs of any instrument in writing in which an association or Federal association is interested by reason of his mem-

Fees

Sec. 11.05. The amount of the fees to be charged by the Commissioner for supervision and examination of associations, filing of applications and other documents and for other services performed by the Commissioner and his office and the time and manner of payment thereof shall be fixed by rule and regulation adopted by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, acting pursuant to the rule-making power delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961.¹ All fees collected by the Commissioner shall be retained by him and expended only for the expenses of the Savings and Loan Department.

Any association or corporation authorized to conduct a building and loan association, savings and loan association, building society or other similar business under prior law by whatever name known which has substantially the same purpose as a savings and loan association as defined by this Act shall, at the time this Act becomes effective, be subject to the provisions of this Act and shall thereafter be deemed to exist by virtue of this Act. The name, rights, powers, privileges, and immunities of each such association or corporation shall be governed, controlled, construed, extended, limited and determined by the provisions of this Act to the same extent and effect as if such corporation had been incorporated pursuant hereto, and the Articles of association, certificate of incorporation, or charter, however entitled, bylaws and constitutions, or other rules of every such corporation heretofore made or existing are hereby modified, altered and amended to conform to the provisions of this Act, with or without the issuance or approval by the Commissioner of conformed copies of such documents, and the same are declared void to the extent that the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; except that

(i) the obligations of any such existing corporation, whether between such corporation and its members, or any of them, or any other person or persons, or any valid contract between the members of such corporation, or between such corporation and any other person or persons, existing at the time this Act takes effect shall not be in any way impaired by the provisions of this Act and

(ii) no association shall be required to change its name, and, with such exceptions, every such corporation shall possess the rights, powers, privileges and immunities and shall be subject to the duties, liabilities, disabilities and restrictions conferred and imposed by this Act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its certificate of incorporation, bylaws, constitution, or rules.

All obligations of any such corporation heretofore contracted shall be enforceable by it and in its name, and demands, claims, and rights of action against any such corporation may be enforced against it as fully and completely as they might have been enforced heretofore.

Outstanding Shares, Stock, Share Accounts and Investment Certificates (Except Permanent Reserve Fund Stock) to be Considered as Savings Accounts

Sec. 11.07. From and after the effective date of this Act any shares, stock, share accounts and investment certificates (except Permanent Reserve Fund Stock) which an association subject to this Act has issued and which is then outstanding shall be considered as savings accounts as defined in this Act and the holders thereof shall have all of the rights and privileges appertaining to the holder of savings accounts under this Act as well as any valid contractual or other legal rights in respect thereto preserved by Section 11.06 of this Act; except that any such outstanding shares or share accounts which are not entitled to dividends shall not by virtue of any provision of this Act become so entitled.

Associations Prohibited from Issuing any Stock or Shares not Authorized by this Act

Sec. 11.08. No association subject to this Act shall, after the effective date of this Act, issue any form of stock, share, account or investment certificate except as permitted by this Act for associations formed under its terms.

Sec. 11.09. Each association subject to this Act and all Federal associations domiciled in this State shall render for ad valorem taxation all of its real estate as other real estate is rendered. The personal property of each such association shall be valued as other personal

(1) its furniture, fixtures, equipment and automobiles shall be rendered where such property is located in the same manner as other similar property;

(2) the remainder of the personal property of such association shall be rendered as a whole in the city and county where its principal office is located at the value remaining after deducting from the total value of such association's entire assets the following:

Notice of all other hearings held under any provision of this Act shall be given to all associations and Federal associations in the county where the subject matter of the hearing is or will be situated.

(2) Opportunity shall be afforded any interested party to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved in any hearing held under any provision of this Act.

(3) Upon the written request of any interested party the Commissioner shall keep a formal record of the proceedings of any hearing held under any provision of this Act.

(4) A decision or order adverse to a party who has appeared and participated in a hearing shall be in writing and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated, on all issues material to the decision reached. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings.

(5) A decision or order entered after hearing shall be final and appealable fifteen (15) days after the day the same is entered unless a motion for rehearing is filed by a party within such time and if the motion for rehearing is overruled such decision or order shall be final and appealable from and after the date the order overruling such motion is entered.

(6) Parties to a hearing shall be promptly notified either personally or by mail of any decision, order or other action taken in respect to the subject matter of the hearing.

Judicial Review

Sec. 11.12. Any party with an interest in the subject matter thereof who is dissatisfied with any act, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner taken or made, or with any rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission in connection with the administration of this Act, may secure judicial review thereof in the following manner:

(1) Venue. (a) Proceedings for review of a removal order entered pursuant to Section 8.14 of this Act, may be instituted by filing a petition as in civil actions generally against the Commissioner, as defendant, either in a district court of Travis County, or in the district court of the county in which any person affected by such order resides or of the county in which the principal office of the association affected by such order is located.

(b) Proceedings for review of other acts, orders, rulings or decisions of the Commissioner or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission may be instituted by filing a petition as in a civil action generally against the Commissioner, as defendant, in a district court of Travis County and not elsewhere.

(2) Time for Filing. Any petition for judicial review must be filed within thirty (30) days after the action, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner is final or the rule or regulation complained of is promulgated.

(3) Stay of Enforcement. The filing of a petition for review shall not itself stay the effect of the act, order, ruling, decision or rule or regulation complained of, but the Commissioner or the reviewing court may order a stay upon appropriate terms and if a stay is so granted no super-seedeas bond shall be required.

(4) Service of Process. The petition for review shall be served on the Commissioner and upon all parties of record in any hearing before the Commissioner in respect to the matter for which review is sought or upon the Commissioner alone if the matter for which review is sought is a rule or regulation promulgated in connection with the administration of this Act.

After service of such petition upon the Commissioner and within the time permitted for filing an answer, the Commissioner shall certify to the District Court in which such petition is filed the record of the proceedings to which the petition refers. The cost of preparing and certifying such record shall be paid to the Commissioner by the petitioner and taxed as part of the cost in the case, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of said cause.

(5) Trial. (a) The review of an order issued under Section 8.14 of this Act shall be tried in the same manner as civil actions generally and the complaining party shall be entitled to a jury. The trial shall be governed by the rules of civil procedure and all fact issues material to the validity of such order shall be determined de novo on the preponderance of the evidence and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply. Any relevant and competent evidence shall be admissible for or against the order.

(b) The review of any other act, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner or of any rule or regulation shall be tried by the court without a jury in the same manner as civil actions generally and all fact issues material to the validity of the Act, order, ruling, decision or rule or regulation complained of shall be redetermined in such trial on the preponderance of the competent evidence, but no evidence shall be admissible which was not adduced at the hearing on the matter before the Commissioner or officially noticed in the record of such hearing.

(6) Burden of Proof and Judgment. The burden of proof shall be on the plaintiff. The reviewing court may affirm the action complained of or remand the matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings.

(7) Appeals. Appeals from any final judgment may be taken by either party in the manner provided for in civil actions generally, but no appeal bond shall be required of the Commissioner.

1. DUTIES AND LIABILITIES

Art. 882. At Common Law

The duties and liabilities of carriers in this State and the remedies against them, shall be the same as are prescribed by the common law except where otherwise provided by this title. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 883. Liability Fixed; Exceptions for Rates Based on Value; Evidence; Notice of Claim May be Required

Railroad companies, and other carriers of passengers, goods, wares, and merchandise for hire, within this state, on land, or in boats or vessels on the waters entirely within this state, shall not limit or restrict their liability as it exists at common law, by any general or special notice, or by inserting exceptions in the bill of lading or memorandum given upon the receipt of the goods for transportation or in any other manner whatsoever; provided, however, that the provisions hereof respecting liabilities of carriers as it exists at common law for loss, damage, or injury to baggage and personal effects of passengers transported incident to the carriage of persons, goods, wares, and merchandise shall not apply to property received for transportation concerning which the carriers shall have been or shall hereafter be expressly authorized or required by order of the Railroad Commission of Texas to establish and maintain rates dependent upon the value declared in writing by the shipper of the property or agreed upon in writing as the released value of the property, in which case, such declaration or agreement shall have no effect other than to limit liability and recovery to an amount not exceeding the value so declared or released, and so far as relates to values, shall be valid and is not hereby prohibited. The Railroad Commission of Texas is hereby authorized to fix and establish just and reasonable rates for transportation of goods, wares, and merchandise described by commodities or articles or by generic grouping of commodities or articles, and the baggage and personal effects of passengers, dependent upon the value thereof declared in writing, or agreed upon in writing by the shipper or passenger as the agreed value, under the circumstances and conditions surrounding such transportation. Provided further, that a requirement of a notice or claim consistent with the provisions of Article 5546 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as heretofore amended, as a condition precedent to the enforcement of any claim or loss, damage and delay or either, or any of them, whether inserted in a bill of lading or other contract or arrangement for carriage, or otherwise provided, shall be valid and is not hereby prohibited.

Section 2 of the amendatory Act of 1941 declared an emergency and provided that the Act should take effect from and after its passage.

Section 2 of the amendatory Act of 1965 provided: "All other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are to the extent of such conflict hereby repealed, provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of Acts 1931, 42nd Legislature, page 480, Chapter 277, Section 6aa, [art. 911b, § 6aa], requiring that minimum rates, fares and charges of contract carriers shall not be less than the rates prescribed for common carriers for substantially the same service, or the provisions of Acts 1947, 50th Legislature, page 563, Chapter 327 [arts. 883(a), 833b] relating to declaration of value, rates based on value and evidence, with respect to transportation of household goods, personal effects or used office furniture and equipment by specialized motor carriers and other carriers for hire."

Section 2 of the amendatory act of 1969 provided: "All other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith or to the extent of such conflict are hereby repealed, provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of Section 6aa, Chapter 314, General Laws, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as added by Section 6, Chapter 277, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931 (Section 6aa, Article 911a [should read "911b"]), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), requiring that minimum rates, fares, and charges of contract carriers shall not be less than the rates prescribed for common carriers for substantially the same service, or the provisions of Article 883(a), Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added by Section 1, Chapter 327, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947, relating to declaration of value, rates based on value, and evidence, with respect to transportation of household goods, personal effects, or used office furniture and equipment by specialized motor carriers and other carriers for hire."

Art. 883(a). Declaration of Value; Rates Based on Value; Evidence

No specialized motor carrier or other carrier for hire, including the carriers referred to in said Article 883, shall be required to accept for transportation household goods, personal effects or used office furniture and equipment, unless the shipper or owner thereof or his agent shall first declare in writing the reasonable value thereof. The carrier shall not be liable in damages for an amount in excess of such declared value for the loss, destruction or damage of such property. The Railroad Commission shall establish adequate rates consistent with such declared values to be assessed and collected by such carriers. If the Railroad Commission fails to establish such rates, then in that event such carriers are authorized to collect reasonable transportation charges consistent with the declared value of such property.

Saving Clause

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 581, ch. 295, § 1 and Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 618, ch. 213, § 1, which amended article 883, in § 2 thereof repealed conflicting laws but provided that nothing therein should affect the provisions of this article. See notes under article 883.

Art. 883b. Declaration of Value as Evidence

The declaration of value by the shipper shall not be admissible as evidence in any court action unless the carrier at the time of acceptance of such shipment had or provided and maintained in force insurance in a solvent company authorized to do business in Texas, or bonds, in an amount equal to such declared value to protect the owner of such shipment against loss or damage thereto; provided, however, this requirement as to insurance or bonds shall not apply to steam or electrical railways.

Art. 884. Must Carry Goods

Upon the tender of the legal or customary rates of freight on goods offered for transportation, to a common carrier other than a railroad, such carrier shall receive and transport such goods, provided his vehicle or vessel has capacity safely to carry the goods so offered on the trip or voyage then pending, and such goods are of the kind usually carried upon such vehicle or vessel, and are offered at a reasonable time. Any common carrier refusing to transport goods as above provided or to take the same in the order presented, shall be liable in damages to the party injured, by reason of such refusal, and shall also be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in each case by the owner of the goods in the county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 885. Must Give Bill of Lading

Art. 886. Liability as a Warehouseman, etc.

Railroad companies and other common carriers having depots and warehouses for storing goods shall be liable as warehousemen are at common law for goods and the care of the same stored at such depots or warehouses before the commencement of the trip or voyage on which said goods are to be transported. They shall be liable as common carriers from the commencement of the trip or voyage until the goods are delivered to the consignee at the point of destination. The trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of the bill of lading, and the liability of the common carrier shall attach, as at common law, from and after such signing.

Art. 887. Diligence in Delivery

If the carrier at the point of destination shall use due diligence to notify the consignee, and the goods are not taken by the consignee, and have in consequence to be stored in the depots or warehouses of the common carriers, they shall thereafter only be liable as warehousemen.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 888. Shall Ship in Order

Where common carriers receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots, they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 901. Sale

Thirty days' notice of the time and place of sale, and a descriptive list of the packages to be sold, with names and numbers or marks found thereon, shall be posted in three public places in the county where the sale is to be made and on the door of the depot or warehouse if any, where the goods are, and notice shall also be given in at least one newspaper in the county, if any be published therein, for thirty days before sale. Out of the proceeds of such sale, the carrier shall deduct the proper charges on such freight or baggage, including costs of storing and costs of sale, and hold the overplus, if any, to the order of the owner any time within five years, on proof of ownership made by the claimant or his duly authorized agent or attorney.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

4. CONNECTING LINES OF COMMON CARRIERS

Art. 905. "Connecting Lines"

All common carriers in this State over whose transportation lines, or parts thereof, is transported any freight, baggage or other property received by either of such carriers for shipment or transportation between points in this State, on a contract for carriage recognized, acquiesced in, or acted upon by such carriers shall, with respect to the undertaking and matter of such transportation be considered and construed to be connecting lines. Such lines shall be deemed and held to be agents of each other, each the agent of the others, and all the others the agents of each, and shall be deemed and held to be under a contract with each other and with the shipper, owner and consignee of such property for the safe and speedy transportation of such property from point of shipment to destination; and such contract as to the shipper, owner and consignee of such property shall be deemed and held to be the contract of each of such common carriers. The provisions of this law shall apply whether the route of such freight, baggage or other property be chosen by the owner or his agents, or by the initial carrier to whom such property is delivered. In any suit brought hereunder, the rights, duties and liabilities of the parties shall be determined by the initial contract executed by and between the owner, shipper or his or her duly authorized agents and the initial carrier, unless it be proved that a subsequent contract supported by a valuable consideration moving to the owner or shipper, in addition to that of the initial contract, was executed by such owner, shipper or his or their duly authorized agents with a subsequent connecting carrier handling the shipment, and the transportation of a caretaker shall not be deemed to be such valuable consideration. In any court of this State, any bill of lading, waybill, receipt, check or other instrument issued by either of such carriers, or other proof showing that either of them has received such freight, baggage or other property for shipment or transportation, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the subsistence of the relations, duties and liabilities of such carrier as herein provided, notwithstanding any stipulation or attempted stipulation to the contrary by such carrier, or either of them, and any stipulation contained in any contract contrary to any provision of this law shall be void.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 906. Recovery by Shipper

For any damage or injury to, or loss or delay of, any freight, baggage or other property, sustained anywhere during the transportation over connecting lines or either of them, as contemplated and defined in the preceding article, either or all of such connecting carriers, as the person or persons sustaining such damage may elect to sue therefor in this State, shall be held liable to such person or persons. The provisions of law allowing an apportionment of damage shall not be applicable to suits brought by such person or persons under the provisions of this subdivision except upon the plaintiff's request. Any carrier or carriers held liable under the provisions hereof shall be entitled in a subsequent action to recover the amount of any loss, damage or injury it has been required to pay hereunder, from the carrier or carriers through whose negligence the loss, damage or injury was sustained, together with all costs of suit; and for the purpose of such recovery, it shall only be necessary that the carrier against whom judgment was had, show which carrier or carriers caused the loss or damage and produce satisfactory evidence that the judgment rendered against it has been paid, and in such action between the carriers, the provisions of law allowing an apportionment of damage shall be applicable.

5. PROTECTING MOVEMENT OF COMMERCE

Art. 907. Protecting Commerce

If at any time the movement of commerce by common carriers of this State or any of them is interfered with in violation of any of the provisions of Chapter 42 of the Penal Code,¹ and the Governor, after investigation, becomes convinced that the local authorities were failing to enforce the law, either because they were unable or unwilling to do so, the Governor shall, in order to prevent such interference, forthwith issue his proclamations declaring such conditions to exist and describing the areas thus affected.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 988, ch. 399, § 2(G), eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

Certificates of Convenience and Necessity

Sec. 3. It is hereby declared that when existing transportation facilities on any highway in this State do not provide passenger service which the Commission shall deem adequate to provide for public convenience on such highway, then such inadequacy of service shall be considered as creating a condition wherein the public convenience and necessity require the designation of, and provision for, additional service on such highway, and it shall be the duty of the Commission to issue certificate or certificates as herein provided, if in the opinion of said Commission the issuance of such certificate will promote the public welfare.

Regulations by Commission

Sec. 4. (a) The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority, and it is hereby made its duty to supervise and regulate the public service rendered by every motor bus company operating over the highways in this State, to fix or approve the maximum, or minimum, or maximum and minimum, fares, rates or charges of, and to prescribe all rules and regulations necessary for the government of, each motor bus company; to prescribe the routes, schedules, service, and safety of operations of each such motor bus company; to acquire the filing of such annual or other reports and of such other data by such motor bus company as the Commission may deem necessary.

(b) The Commission is hereby vested with authority to supervise, control and regulate all terminals of motor bus companies, including the location of facilities and charges to be made motor bus companies for the use of such terminal, or termini; provided, that the Commission shall have no authority to interfere in any way with valid contracts existing between motor bus companies and the owner or owners of motor bus terminals at the time of the passage of this Act.

(f) The Commission in prescribing and adopting routes and dealing with all other matters affecting the physical operation and control of motor bus companies over the public highways, under the power and authority of this Act, shall give due and proper consideration in forming its conclusions, and prescribing its orders and regulations to the general highway laws of this State, and to the orders, regulations, ordinances, or recommendations of the Highway Commission of Texas, or the Commissioners' Courts of any county or counties, or the local government of any municipality, through or between which the routes for such motor bus companies are prescribed and adopted.

Application for Certificate or Permit; Temporary Permits

Sec. 5. No motor-bus company shall hereafter regularly operate for the transportation of persons as passengers for compensation or hire over the public highways of this State without first having obtained from the Commission under the provisions of this Act a certificate or permit declaring that the public convenience and necessity require such operation; provided, however, that when it appears to the satisfaction of the Commission that any motor-bus company making application for a certificate or permit is operating and has been continuously operating a motor-propelled passenger vehicle service in good faith, over the particular highways designated in said application for certificate or permit, for a period commencing January 11th, 1927, or prior thereto, said motor-bus company, shall upon application be granted a temporary permit to operate just as said company shall have been operating during said period and no more; said temporary certificate or permit shall become permanent without notice and hearing before the Commission unless a protest shall be filed with the Commission as provided herein; and in the event protest is filed to the application of such motor-bus company then said temporary certificate or permit shall continue in effect until said application and protest is heard and decided upon by the Commission, and said hearing and decision shall be had and rendered by the Commission as speedily as possible.

At any time within thirty days after the day this Act shall take effect anyone affected by the granting of said certificate or permit may file with the Commission, a protest against said certificate or permit becoming or being made permanent, but such protest to be considered by the Commission must be filed within the specified thirty days and shall be in writing, and the author or authors of said protest shall supply the applying motor-bus company with a copy of same, setting forth in reasonable detail the reasons for said protest. In the event of protest to any application of any existing motor-bus company, hearing upon such application and protest shall be had and decision rendered as provided for all other applications.

In all other matters the holders of temporary or permanent certificates or permits obtained in this manner shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Act.

Any right, privilege, permit, or certificate held, owned or obtained by any motor-bus company under the provisions of this Act may be sold, assigned, leased or transferred, or inherited; provided, however, that any proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer shall be first presented in writing to the Commission for its approval or disapproval and the Commission may disapprove such proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer if it be found and determined by the Commission that such proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer is not made in good faith or that the proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee or transferee is not able or capable of continuing the operation of the equipment proposed to be sold, assigned, leased or transferred, in such manner as to render the service demanded by the public necessity and convenience on and along the designated route.

Provided, however, that any right, privilege, permit or certificate held, owned or obtained by any Motor Bus Company under the provisions of this Act or owned or obtained by any assignee or transferee of any such Motor Bus Company shall be taken and held subject to the right of the State at any time to limit, restrict or forbid the use of the Streets and Highways of this State to any owner or holder of such right, privilege, permit or certificate.

Commission to Determine Necessity for Service

Sec. 6. The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority, and it is hereby made its duty upon the filing of an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, to ascertain and determine under such rules and regulations as it may promulgate, after considering existing transportation facilities on such highway, the service rendered and capable of being rendered thereby, and the demand for, or need of additional service, if there exists a public necessity for such service, and if public convenience will be promoted by granting said application and permitting the operating of motor vehicles on the highways designated in such application, as a common carrier for hire.

Interference with General Use of Highways; Refusal Because of Existing Railroad Transportation

Sec. 7. The Commission shall also ascertain and determine if a particular highway or highways designated in said application are of such type of construction or in such state of repair, or subject to such use as to permit of the use sought to be made by the applicant, without unreasonable interference with the use of such highway or highways by the general public for highway purposes. And if the Commission shall determine, after hearing that the service rendered or capable of being rendered by existing transportation facilities or agencies on such highways is reasonably adequate, or that public convenience on such highways would not be promoted by granting of said application and the operation of motor vehicles on the public highways therein designated, or that such highway or highways are not in such state of repair, or are already subject to such use as would not permit of the use sought to be made by the applicant without unreasonable interference with the use of such highway or highways by the general public for highway purposes, then in either or any of such event said application may be denied and said certificate refused, otherwise the application shall be granted and the certificate issued upon such terms and conditions as said Commission may impose and subject to such rules and regulations as it may thereafter prescribe.

The Railroad Commission shall have no power in any event to refuse an application for a certificate of convenience and necessity on the ground that there are existing railroad or interurban railroad transportation facilities sufficient to serve the transportation needs of the territory involved.

In determining whether or not a certificate should be issued, the Commission shall give weight and due regard to (1) probable permanence and quality of the service offered by the applicant, (2) the financial ability and responsibility of the applicant and its organization and personnel (3) the character of vehicles and the character and location of depots or termini proposed to be used, and (4) the experience of the applicant in the transportation of passengers and the character of the bond or insurance proposed to be given to insure the protection of its passengers and the public.

The Commission shall have the power and authority to grant temporary certificates to meet emergencies and shall have the power to make special rules and regulations to meet special conditions in different localities and for such time as in its judgment may be deemed expedient and best for the public welfare.

Contents of Application

Sec. 8. No application for certificate shall be considered by said Commission except that it shall be reduced to writing and set forth the following facts:

(a) It shall contain the name and address of the applicant, and the names and addresses of its officers, if any, and shall give full information concerning the financial condition and physical properties of the applicant.

(b) The complete route or routes over which the applicant desires to operate, together with a brief description of each vehicle which the applicant intends to use, including the seating capacity thereof.

(c) A proposed time schedule and a schedule of rates showing the passenger fares to be charged between the several points or localities to be served.

(d) It shall be accompanied by a plat or map showing the route or routes over which the applicant desires to operate, on which plat or map shall be delineated the line or lines of any existing transportation company or companies over the highways serving such territory, with the names and addresses of the owner or owners thereof, and shall point out the inadequacy of existing transportation facilities or service, and shall specify wherein additional facilities or service are required and would be secured by the granting of said application.

(e) Every application for a certificate of convenience and necessity shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, which fee shall be in addition to other fees and taxes, and such fees shall be retained by the Commission whether the certificate of convenience and necessity be granted or not.

(f) Every application filed with the Commission for an order approving the lease, sale, or transfer of any certificate of convenience and necessity, or stock of any corporation owning or controlling a "motor bus company" shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, which fee shall be in addition to the other fees and taxes, and shall be retained by the Commission whether the lease, sale, or transfer of the certificate of convenience and necessity, or stock of any corporation owning or controlling a "motor bus company" is approved or not, such fee to be paid by the purchaser.

(g) No stock of any corporation owning and operating any "motor bus company" shall be sold or transferred without first securing the approval of the Commission as provided for certificates of convenience and necessity, in Section 5 of House Bill No. 50, the same being Chapter 270 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the 40th Legislature of the State of Texas, 1927,¹ and this paragraph shall be cumulative of that section, provided that the provisions of this subsection shall apply only to those cases where the proposed sale will change the controlling interest in such motor bus company.

Hearing on Application at Austin; Notice

Sec. 9. Upon the filing of said application the Commission shall fix a time and place for hearing, and the place of hearing shall be the city of Austin, Texas, unless otherwise ordered by said Commission. Notice of the filing of said application, and the time and place of hearing shall be given by mail not less than ten days exclusive of the day of mailing before such hearing, addressed to the owner or owners of existing transportation facilities over the highways, serving such territory as applicant seeks to serve, as well as to the Highway Commission of the State of Texas, the County Judge or Judges of the Counties and to the Mayor of any incorporated city or town, through which such motor carriers seek to operate.

Appearance by Parties Including Highway Commission; Suspension or Revocation of Certificate

Sec. 10. The hearing shall be conducted under such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe, and all parties interested, including the Highway Commission of this State, may appear either in person or by counsel, and present such evidence and argument as they may desire and as the Commission may deem pertinent, in favor of or against the granting of said application. It shall be the duty of the Highway Commission of this State, upon the request of the Commission to furnish any and all information that it has at its command relating to the highway or highways designated in such application as well as such other information as said Commission may deem pertinent to the granting or refusal of such application. After such hearing, and such investigation as the Commission may make of its own motion, it shall be the duty of said Commission to either refuse said application and certificate, or to grant said application and issue said certificate, in whole or in part, upon such terms and conditions as it may impose, and subject to such rules and regulations as it may thereafter prescribe.

The Commission, at any time by its order duly entered after hearing had upon notice to the holder of any certificate granted under this Act¹ and an opportunity given such holder to be heard, at which hearing it shall be proven to the satisfaction of the Commission that such certificate holder has discontinued operation or has violated or refused or neglected to observe any of its proper orders, rates, fares, rules, or regulations, may suspend, revoke, alter or amend any certificate issued under the provisions of this Act, provided that the holder of such certificate shall have the right of appeal as provided herein.

Liability and Property Damage Insurance; Protection of Employees

Sec. 11. The Commission shall, in the granting of any certificate to any motor bus company for regularly transporting persons as passengers for compensation or hire, require the owner or operator to first procure liability and property damage insurance from a company licensed to make and issue such insurance policy in the State of Texas covering each and every motor propelled vehicle while actually being operated by such applicant. The amount of such policy or policies of insurance shall be fixed by the Commission by general order or otherwise, and the terms and conditions of said policy or policies covering said motor vehicle are to be such as to indemnify the applicant against loss by reason of any personal injury to any person or loss or damage to the property of any person other than the assured and his employees. Such policy or policies shall furthermore provide that the insurer will pay all judgments which may be recovered against the insured motor bus company based on claims for loss or damage from personal injury or loss of or injury to property occurring during the term of the said policy or policies and arising out of the actual operation of such motor bus or busses, and such policy or policies shall also provide for successive recoveries to the complete exhaustion of the face amount thereof, and that such judgment will be paid by the insurer irrespective of the solvency or insolvency of the insured. Such liability and property damage insurance as required by the Commission shall be continuously maintained in force on each and every motor propelled vehicle while being operated in common carrier service. In addition to the insurance hereinabove set forth, the owner or operator shall also protect his employees by taking out workmen's compensation insurance either as provided by the Workmen's Compensation Laws of the State of Texas or in a reliable insurance company approved by the Railroad Commission of the State of Texas. The taking out of such indemnity policy or policies shall be a condition precedent to any operation and such policy or policies as required under this Act, shall be approved and filed with the Commission and failure to file and keep such policy or policies in force and effect as provided herein shall be cause for the revocation of the certificate and shall subject the motor bus company so failing to the penalties prescribed herein.

Identification Plates On Busses

Sec. 11-A. It shall be unlawful for any motor bus company, as hereinbefore defined, to operate any motor bus within this State unless there shall be displayed and firmly fixed upon the front of such bus an identification metal plate to be furnished by the Commission. Each of such plates shall be so designed as to identify the vehicle on which same is attached as being a motor bus authorized to operate under the terms of this law, and the rules and regulations of the Commission, and said plate shall bear the number given to said vehicle by the Commission, and such other marks of identification as may be necessary. The identification plates provided for herein shall be in addition to the regular license plates required by law. It shall be the duty of the Commission to provide such plates and each motor bus operating in this State shall display one of said plates within sixty days after this Act takes effect, and such plates shall be issued annually thereafter and attached to each motor bus not later than September first of each year. The Commission is authorized to collect from the applicant a fee of One ($1.00) Dollar for each plate so issued and said fee shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the "Motor Transportation Fund."

Commission to Hear Applications and Complaints Presented; Attendance of Witnesses

Sec. 12. The Commission shall have the power and authority under this Act to hear and determine all applications of motor-bus companies; to determine complaints presented to it by motor-bus companies, by any public official or by any citizen having an interest in the subject matter of the complaint, or it may institute and investigate any matter pertaining to automobile passenger transportation for compensation or hire upon its own motion. The Commission or any member thereof, or authorized representative of the Commission, shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, swear witnesses, take their testimony under oath, make record thereof, and if such record is made under the direction of a Commissioner, or authorized representative of the Commission a majority of the Commission may upon the record render judgment as if the case had been heard before a majority of the members of the Commission. The Commission shall have the power and authority under this Act to do and perform all necessary things to carry out the purpose, intent, and provisions of this Act, whether herein specifically mentioned or not, and to that end may hold hearings at any place in Texas which it may designate.

(b) Any officer, agent, servant, or employee of any motor bus company as heretofore defined, and any motor bus company, as heretofore defined and/or the owner or operator, officer, servant, agent or employee, or any such owner or operator of any bus terminal who violates or fails to obey, observe or comply with any order, decision, rule or regulation, direction, demand or requirement of the Commission shall be subject to and shall pay a penalty not exceeding Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, for each and every day of such violation. Such Penalty to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, or in the County in which the violation occurs. (c) Upon the violation of any provisions of this Chapter, or upon the violation of any rule, regulation, order or decree of the Commission, promulgated under the terms of this Act, any district court of Travis County, Texas, or any district court of any county where such violation occurs, shall have the power to restrain and enjoin the person, firm or corporation so offending from further violating the provisions of this Act, or from violating the rules, regulations, orders and decrees of the Commission. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in a said court; either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending; provided, that if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days notice. In all trials under this section the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff who must show by the preponderance of evidence that the decisions, rates, regulations, rules, orders, classifications, acts, or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. The Commission shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder and no injunction shall be granted against any order of the Commission without hearing unless it shall clearly appear that irreparable injury will be done the complaining party if the injunction is not granted.

Certificate of Convenience and Necessity

Sec. 3. No motor carrier shall, after this Act goes into effect, operate as a contract carrier without first having obtained from the Commission a permit so to do, which permit shall not be issued until the applicant shall have in all things complied with the requirements of this Act.

Supervision and Regulation by Commission

Sec. 4. (a) The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority and it is hereby made its duty to supervise and regulate the transportation of property for compensation or hire by motor vehicle on any public highway in this State, to fix, prescribe or approve the maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum rates, fares and charges of each motor carrier in accordance with the specific provisions herein contained, to prescribe all rules and regulations necessary for the government of motor carriers, to prescribe rules and regulations for the safety of operations of each of such motor carriers, to require the filing of such monthly, annual or other reports and other data of motor carriers as the Commission may deem necessary, to prescribe the schedules and services of motor carriers operating as common carriers, and to supervise and regulate motor carriers in all matters affecting the relationship between such carriers and the shipping public whether herein specifically mentioned or not.

The Commission, in prescribing and adopting rules and regulations and in forming its conclusions and in prescribing its orders, shall invite the Highway Commission's opinion on the condition of the public highways involved and the ability of said highways to carry the existing and proposed additional traffic, and the Commission shall give due and proper consideration to the orders, regulations, ordinances or recommendations of the Highway Commission of Texas; provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to restrict the powers of the Highway Commission under existing laws. The Commission shall also give due and proper consideration to the recommendations of the Commissioners' Courts of the several Counties and to the recommendations of the local government of any municipality through or between which motor carriers operate.

Commission to Issue Certificates of Convenience and Necessity; Assignment or Sale of Certificate

Sec. 5. No motor carrier shall hereafter operate as a common carrier for the transportation of property for compensation or hire over the public highways of this State without first having obtained from the Commission, under the provisions of this Act, a certificate declaring that the public convenience and necessity requires such operation; provided, however, the Commission shall, without application or hearing when this Act goes into effect, issue all motor carriers then operating lawfully under permanent certificates of public convenience and necessity heretofore issued to them, certificates in lieu of the certificates issued under the terms of the former law covering the same routes that said common carrier shall have been operating over, and no more.

Any certificate held, owned or obtained by any motor carrier operating as a common carrier under the provisions of this Act may be sold, assigned, leased, transferred or inherited; provided, however, that any proposed sale, lease, assignment or transfer shall be first presented in writing to the Commission for its approval or disapproval, and the Commission may disapprove such proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer if it be found and determined by the Commission that such proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer is not in good faith or that the proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee or transferee is not able or capable of continuing the operation of the equipment proposed to be sold, assigned, leased or transferred in such manner as to render the services demanded by the public necessity and convenience on and along the designated route, or that said proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer is not best for the public interest; the Commission, in approving or disapproving any sale, assignment, lease or transfer of any certificate, may take into consideration all of the requirements and qualifications of a regular applicant required in this Act and apply same as necessary qualifications of any proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee or transferee; provided, however, that in case a certificate is transferred that the transferee shall pay to the Commission a sum of money equal to ten per cent (10%) of the amount paid as a consideration for the transfer of the certificate, which sum of ten per cent (10%) shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Highway Fund of the State; provided further, that any certificate obtained by any motor carrier or by any assignee or transferee shall be taken and held subject to the right of the State at any time to limit, restrict or forbid the use of the streets and highways of this State to any holder or owner of such certificate. Every application filed with the Commission for an order approving the lease, sale or transfer of any certificate of convenience and necessity shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), which fee shall be in addition to the other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission whether the lease, sale or transfer of the certificate of convenience and necessity is approved or not.

Certificates of Convenience and Necessity; Issuance to Specialized Motor Carrier; Application; Filing Fee

Sec. 5a. (a) The Commission is hereby given authority to issue upon application and hearing as provided in this Act, to those persons who desire to engage in the business of a "specialized motor carrier," certificates of convenience and necessity in the manner and under the terms and conditions as provided in this Act.

Any certificate held, owned, or obtained by any motor carrier operating as a "specialized motor carrier" under the provisions of this Act, may be sold, assigned, leased, transferred, or inherited; provided, however, that any proposed sale, lease, assignment, or transfer shall be first presented in writing to the Commission for its approval or disapproval, and the Commission may disapprove such proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer if it be found and determined by the Commission that such proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer is not in good faith or that the proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee, or transferee is not able or capable of continuing the operation of the equipment proposed to be sold, assigned, leased, or transferred in such manner as to render the services demanded by the public necessity and convenience in the territory covered by the certificate, or that said proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer is not best for the public interest; the Commission, in approving or disapproving the sale, assignment, lease, or transfer of any certificate, may take into consideration all of the requirements and qualifications of a regular applicant required in this Act and apply same as necessary qualifications of any proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee, or transferee; provided however, that in case a certificate is transferred that the transferee shall pay the Commission a sum of money equal to ten (10) per cent of the amount paid as a consideration for the transfer of the certificate, which sum of ten (10) per cent shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Highway Fund of the State; provided further, that any certificate obtained by any motor carrier or by any assignee or transferee shall be taken and held subject to the rights of the State at any time to limit, restrict, or forbid the use of the streets and highways of this State to any holder or owner of such certificate. Every application filed with the Commission for an order approving the lease, sale, or transfer of any certificate of convenience and necessity shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25), which fee shall be in addition to the other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission whether the lease, sale, or transfer of the certificate of convenience and necessity is approved or not.

(b) No motor carrier shall transport oil field equipment, household goods, used office furniture and equipment, livestock, milk, livestock feedstuff, grain, farm machinery, timber in its natural state, wool or mohair, on any highway in this State unless there is in force with respect to such carrier and such carrier is the owner or lessee of a certificate of convenience and necessity issued pursuant to a finding and containing a declaration that a necessity requires such operation or a contract carrier permit issued by the Commission, authorizing the transportation of such commodity or commodities; providing that nothing herein shall modify, restrict, or add to, the authority of the common carrier motor carriers operating under certificates of convenience and necessity issued by the Commission, nor shall any person who now holds or who may hereafter hold a certificate of convenience and necessity to operate as a common carrier be granted any certificate of convenience and necessity to operate as a Specialized Motor Carrier; provided further that any person to whom a "Special Commodity" permit for the transportation of any or all of said commodities had been issued under the provisions of Section 6, paragraph (d), Article 911b, Title 25, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, as amended, if such "Special Commodity" permit shall have been in force and effect on January 1, 1941, and if such person or predecessor in interest may desire to continue in the business of a motor carrier of such commodity or commodities shall file an application for a certificate of convenience and necessity under the terms of this Act within sixty (60) days after the effective date hereof, it shall be the duty of the Commission to issue without further proof a certificate authorizing the operation as a "Specialized Motor Carrier" for the transportation of such commodity or commodities covered by the "Special Commodity" permit held by the applicant, which "Specialized Motor Carrier" certificate shall be issued to the applicant and include all the rights and privileges granted under said "Special Commodity" permit.

(c) The Commission shall have no jurisdiction to consider, set for hearing, hear, or determine any application for a certificate of convenience and necessity authorizing the operation as a "specialized motor carrier" or any other common carrier except as provided in the preceding paragraph unless the application shall be in writing and set forth in detail the following facts:

1. It shall contain the name and address of the applicant, who shall be the real party at interest, and the names and addresses of its officers, if any, and shall give full information concerning the financial condition and physical properties of the applicant.

2. The commodity or commodities or class or classes of commodities which the applicant proposes to transport and the specific territory or points to, or from, or between which the applicant desires to operate, together with the description of each vehicle which the applicant intends to use.

3. It shall be accompanied by a map, showing the territory within which, or the points to or from or between which, the applicant desires to operate, and shall contain a list of any existing transportation company or companies serving such territory, and shall point out the inadequacy of existing transportation facilities or service, and shall specify wherein additional facilities or service are required and would be secured by the granting of said application.

(d) Before any such application shall be granted, the Commission shall hear, consider and determine said application in accordance with Sections 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 13a, 14, and 15 of Chapter 277, Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, Regular Session, as amended (Article 911b, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, as amended), and if the Commission shall find any such applicant entitled thereto, it shall issue certificate hereunder on such terms and conditions as is justified by the facts; otherwise said application shall be denied. The Commission shall have no authority to grant any application for a certificate of convenience and necessity authorizing operation as a "Specialized Motor Carrier" or any other common carrier unless it is established by substantial evidence (1) that the services and facilities of the existing carriers serving the territory or any part thereof are inadequate; (2) that there exists a public necessity for such service, and (3) the public convenience will be promoted by granting said application. The order of the Commission granting said application and the certificate issued thereunder shall be void unless the Commission shall set forth in its order full and complete findings of fact pointing out in detail the inadequacies of the services and facilities of the existing carriers, and the public need for the proposed service. Likewise, the Commission shall have no authority to grant any contract carrier application for the transportation of any commodities in any territory or between any points where the existing carriers are rendering, or are capable of rendering, a reasonably adequate service in the transportation of such commodities.

(e) Except where otherwise provided, applications for and holders of certificates of public convenience and necessity, as provided for in this Section, shall be subject to all of the provisions of the Act relating to common carriers by motor vehicle.

(f) Every application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under this Section shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25), which fee shall be in addition to other fees and taxes, and shall be retained by the Commission whether certificate of convenience and necessity is granted or not.

(g) For the purpose of defraying the expense of administering this Act, every motor carrier operating as a "specialized motor carrier" in this State shall at the time of the issuance of a certificate of convenience and necessity to him, and annually thereafter on or between September 1st and September 15th of each calendar year, pay a special fee of Ten Dollars ($10) for each motor-propelled vehicle operated or to be operated by such motor carrier in the carriage of property. If the certificate of convenience and necessity herein referred to is issued after the month of September of any year, the fee paid shall be prorated to the remaining portion of the year ending August 31st following, but in no case less than one-fourth the annual fee. In case of emergency or unusual temporary demands for transportation the fee for additional motor-propelled vehicles for less period shall be fixed by the Commission in such reasonable amounts as may be prescribed by general rule or temporary order.

(h) It shall be unlawful for any "specialized motor carrier" as hereinbefore defined, to operate any motor vehicle within this State unless there shall be displayed and firmly fixed upon the front and rear of such vehicle an identification plate to be furnished by the Commission. Each of such plates shall be designed so as to identify the vehicle on which the same is attached as being a vehicle authorized to operate under the terms of this Act; said plate shall bear the number given to the vehicle by the Commission and such other marks of identification as may be necessary. The plates for vehicles operated by "specialized motor carriers" shall be different in design to the plates for common carrier vehicles and the plates for contract carrier vehicles. The identification plates provided for herein shall be in addition to the regular license plates provided by law. It shall be the duty of the Commission to provide these plates and each motor vehicle operating in this State shall display such plates as soon as the same are received, and such plates shall be issued annually thereafter and attached to each motor vehicle not later than September 1st of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. The Commission shall be authorized to collect from the applicant a fee of One Dollar ($1) for each pair of plates so issued, and all fees for such plates shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Motor Carrier Fund.

Application for Permits; Special Permits; Specialized Motor Carrier Certificates; Transfer or Sale of Permits

Sec. 6. (a) No motor carrier now operating as a contract carrier or that may hereafter desire to engage in the business of a contract carrier shall so operate until it shall have received a permit from the Commission to engage in such business and such permit shall not be issued until the applicant shall have in all things complied with the requirements of this Act; nor shall such permit be issued unless the character of business being done or to be done by the applicant strictly conforms with the definition of a contract carrier. The Commission shall have the power to suspend for ten (10) days any existing permit after notice and hearing and to revoke any existing permit when it appears that such permit holder has disobeyed or violated any provision of this Act or of General Laws regulating motor vehicles or violated any rule or regulation of the Commission authorized by this Act.

(b) No application for a permit shall be considered by the Commission unless it be reduced to writing and set forth the following facts:

(1) It shall contain the name and address of the applicant and the names and addresses of its officers, if any, and shall give full information concerning the financial condition and physical properties of the applicant.

(2) The application shall set forth the nature of the transportation in which the applicant wishes to engage stating substantially the territory to be covered by the operation and including the condition and character of the roads over which the transportation is to be performed.

(3) It shall give a description of each vehicle which the applicant intends to use, including weight and size of vehicle and its carrying capacity.

(c) No application for permit shall be granted by the Commission until after a hearing nor shall any such permit be granted if the Commission shall be of the opinion that the proposed operation of any such contract carrier will impair the efficient public service of any authorized common carrier or common carriers then adequately serving the same territory; provided, however, any person now lawfully operating as a Class "B" operator in this State who may desire to continue in the business of a motor carrier shall file an application for a permit or certificate under the terms of this Act within thirty (30) days after the effective date hereof and it shall be the duty of the Commission to determine such applications forthwith and such applicants may, subject to the provisions of this Act and to the orders, rules, rates and regulations of the Commission continue to operate as motor carriers pending the determination by the Commission of such application.

(d) The Railroad Commission is hereby given authority to issue upon application to those persons who desire to engage in the business of transporting for hire over the highways of this State livestock, mohair, wool, milk, livestock feedstuff, household goods, used office furniture and equipment, oil field equipment, timber in its natural state, farm machinery and grain, "Specialized Motor Carrier" certificates when it is shown by substantial evidence that there exists (1) a public necessity for such service, and that (2) public convenience will be promoted by the granting of said application.

Such certificates shall be granted upon such terms, conditions and restrictions as the Railroad Commission may deem proper, and said Railroad Commission is authorized to make rules and regulations governing such operations, keeping in mind the protection of the highways and the safety of the traveling public.

Provided that the order of the Commission granting said application, and the certificate issued thereunder shall set forth in its order findings of fact pointing out the inadequacies of the service of the existing carriers and the public need for such proposed service.

(e) Any permit held, owned, or obtained by any motor carrier operating under the provisions of Subsection (d) of this Section may be sold, assigned, leased, transferred, or inherited; provided, however, that any proposed sale, lease, assignment, or transfer shall be first presented in writing to the Commission for its approval or disapproval and the Commission may disapprove such proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer if it be found and determined by the Commission that such proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer is not in good faith or that the proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee, or transferee is not capable of continuing the operation of the equipment proposed to be sold, assigned, leased, or transferred in such a manner as to render the services demanded in the best interest of the public; the Commission in approving or disapproving any sale, assignment, lease, or transfer of any permit may take into consideration all of the requirements and qualifications of a regular applicant required in this Section, and apply same as necessary qualifications of any proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee, or transferee; provided, however, that in case a permit is transferred that the transferee shall pay to the Commission a sum of money equal to ten (10) per cent of the amount paid as a consideration for the transfer of the permit which sum of ten (10) per cent shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Highway Fund of the State; provided, further, that any permit obtained by any motor carrier or by any assignee or transferee shall be taken and held subject to the right of the State at any time to limit, restrict, or forbid the use of the streets and highways of this State to any holder or owner of such permit. Every application filed with the Commission for an order approving the lease, sale, or transfer of any permit shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) which fee shall be in addition to other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission whether the lease, sale, or transfer of the permit is approved or not.

(f) Any contract carrier permit held, owned, or obtained by any motor carrier operating under the provisions of Section 6 may be sold, assigned, leased, transferred, or inherited; provided, however, that any proposed sale, lease, assignment, or transfer shall be first presented in writing to the Commission for its approval or disapproval and the Commission may disapprove such proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer if it be found and determined by the Commission that such proposed sale, assignment, lease, or transfer is not in good faith or that the proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee, or transferee is not capable of continuing the operation of the equipment proposed to be sold, assigned, leased, or transferred in such a manner as to render the services demanded in the best interest of the public; the Commission in approving or disapproving any sale, assignment, lease, or transfer of any permit may take into consideration all of the requirements and qualifications of a regular applicant required in this Section, and apply same as necessary qualifications of any proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee, or transferee; provided, however, that in case a permit is transferred that the transferee shall pay to the Commission a sum of money equal to ten (10) per cent of the amount paid as a consideration for the transfer of the permit which sum of ten (10) per cent shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Highway Fund of the State; provided, however, that any permit obtained by any motor carrier or by any assignee or transferee shall be taken and held subject to the right of the State at any time to limit, restrict, or forbid the use of the streets and highways of this State to any holder or owner of such permit. Every application filed with the Commission for an order approving the lease, sale, or transfer of any permit shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) which fee shall be in addition to other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission whether the lease, sale, or transfer of the permit is approved or not.

Rules and Regulations for Contract Carriers

Sec. 6-aa. The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority and it is hereby made its duty to prescribe rules and regulations covering the operation of contract carriers in competition with common carriers over the highways of this State and the Commission shall prescribe minimum rates, fares and charges to be collected by such contract carriers which shall not be less than the rates prescribed for common carriers for substantially the same service.

Permits Not Granted as Contract Carrier to Person Operating as Common Carrier

Sec. 6-bb. No application for permit to operate as a contract carrier shall be granted by the Commission to any person operating as a common carrier and holding a certificate of convenience and necessity, nor shall any application for certificate of convenience and necessity be granted by the Commission to any person operating as a contract carrier nor shall any vehicle be operated by any motor carrier with both a permit and a certificate.

for Service

Sec. 8. The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority, and it is hereby made its duty upon the filing of an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to ascertain and determine under such rules and regulations as it may promulgate, after considering existing transportation facilities, and the demand for, or need of additional service, if there exists a public necessity for such service, and if public convenience will be promoted by granting said application and permitting the operating of motor vehicles on the highways designated in such application as a common carrier for hire.

Interference with General Use of Highways

Sec. 9. The Commission shall ascertain and determine if a particular highway or highways designated in an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity are of such type of construction or in such state of repair, or subject to such use as to permit of the use sought to be made by the applicant, without unreasonable interference with the use of such highways by the general public for highway purposes. And if the Commission shall determine, after hearing, that the service rendered by existing transportation facilities or agencies is reasonably adequate, or that public convenience would not be promoted by granting of said application, and the operation of motor vehicles on the public highways therein designated, or that such highway or highways are not in such state of repair, or are already subject to such use as would not permit of the use sought to be made by the applicant without unreasonable interference with the use of such highways by the general public for highway purposes then in either or any of such events said application may be denied and said certificate refused, otherwise the application shall be granted and the certificate issued upon such terms and conditions as said Commission may impose and subject to such rules and regulations as it has or may thereafter prescribe.

In determining whether or not a certificate should be issued to a motor carrier, the Commission shall give weight and due regard to:

- (1) Probable permanence and the quality of service offered by the applicant.
- (2) The financial ability and responsibility of the applicant and its organization and personnel.
- (3) The character of vehicles and the character and location of depots or termini proposed to be used.
- (4) The experience of the applicant in the transportation of property and the character of the bond or insurance proposed to be given to insure the protection of the public.

Contents of Written Application

Sec. 10. No application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity shall be considered by said Commission unless it be in writing and set forth the following facts:

(1) It shall contain the name and address of the applicant and the names and addresses of its officers, if any, and shall give full information concerning the financial condition and physical properties of the applicant.

(2) The complete route or routes over which the applicant desires to operate, together with the description of each vehicle which the applicant intends to use.

(3) A proposed schedule of service and a schedule of rates to be charged between the several points or localities to be served.

(4) It shall be accompanied by a plat or map showing the route or routes over which the applicant desires to operate, on which plat or maps shall be delineated the line or lines of any existing transportation company or companies serving such territory, and shall point out the inadequacy of existing transportation facilities or service, and shall specify wherein additional facilities or service are required and would be secured by the granting of said application.

The Commission, in prescribing and adopting rules and regulations and in forming its conclusions and in prescribing its orders, shall invite the Highway Commission's opinion on the conditions of the public highways involved and the ability of said highways to carry the existing and proposed additional traffic, and the Commission shall give due and proper consideration to the orders, regulations, ordinances or recommendations of the Highway Commission of Texas; provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to restrict the powers of the Highway Commission under existing laws. The Commission shall also give due and proper consideration to the recommendations of the Commissioners' Courts of the several Counties and to the recommendations of the local government of any municipality through or between which motor carriers operate.

Hearing at Austin; Notice to Existing Owners and to Highway Commission

Sec. 11. Upon the filing of said application for a certificate or permit, the Commission shall fix a time and place for hearing, and the place of hearing shall be in the City of Austin, Texas, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. Notice of the filing of said application, and the time and place of hearing, shall be given by mail not less than ten (10) days, exclusive of the day of mailing before such hearing, addressed to the owner or owners of existing transportation facilities serving such territory as applicant seeks to serve, as well as to the Highway Commission of the State of Texas, the County Judge or Judges of the counties and to the mayor of any incorporated city or town through which such carrier seeks to operate.

Rules for Hearing; Appearance by Interested Persons and Highway Commission; Revocation of Permit

Sec. 12. (a) The hearing on an application for certificate or permit shall be conducted under such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe, and the parties interested, including the Highway Commission of this State, may appear either in person or by counsel and present such evidence and argument as they may desire and as the Commission may deem pertinent, in favor of or against the granting of such application. It shall be the duty of the Highway Commission, upon request of the Commission, to furnish information relating to the highway or highways designated in such application, as well as such other information as the Commission may deem pertinent to the hearing. After hearing and such investigation as the Commission may make, it shall be the duty of the Commission to grant or refuse the application, and, in any contested hearing, the Commission shall, along with its order, file a concise written opinion setting forth the facts and grounds for its action, and such opinion shall be admissible as evidence on any appeal taken therefrom; upon request of any party at interest in a contested hearing of any nature, the proceedings shall be taken down and reported by a reporter under the direction of the Commission.

(b) The Commission at any time after hearing, had, upon notice to the holder of any certificate or permit and after opportunity given such holder to be heard, may by its order revoke, suspend or amend any certificate or permit issued under the provisions of this Act, where in such hearing the Commission shall find that such certificate or permit holder has discontinued operation or has violated, refused or neglected to observe the Commission's lawful orders, rules, rates or regulations or has violated the terms of said certificate or permit; provided, that the holder of such certificate or permit shall have the right of appeal as provided in this Act.

Bonds or Insurance to Cover Loss or Damages; Protection to Employees

Sec. 13. Before any permit or certificate of public convenience and necessity may be issued to any motor carrier and before any motor carrier may lawfully operate under such permit or certificate as the case may be, such motor carrier shall file with the Commission bonds and/or insurance policies issued by some insurance company including mutuals and reciprocals or bonding company authorized by law to transact business in Texas in an amount to be fixed by the Commission under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, which bonds and insurance policies shall provide that the obligor therein will pay to the extent of the face amount of such insurance policies and bonds all judgments which may be recovered against the motor carrier so filing said insurance policies and bonds, based on claims for loss or damages from personal injury or loss of, or injury to property occurring during the term of said bonds and policies and arising out of the actual operation of such motor carrier; and such bonds and policies shall also provide for successive recoveries to the complete exhaustion of the face amount thereof and that such judgments will be paid by the obligor in said bonds and insurance policies irrespective of the solvency or insolvency of the motor carrier; provided, however, such bonds and policies shall not cover personal injuries sustained by the servants, agents or employees of such motor carrier. Provided further, that in the event the insured shall abandon his permit or certificate and leave the state, a claimant, asserting a claim within the provisions of said bonds or policies, may file suit against the sureties executing such bond or the company issuing such policies in a court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of making the insured a party to said suit. Provided, however, that the Commission shall not require insurance covering loss of or damage to cargo in amount excessive for the class of service to be rendered by any motor carrier. Each such motor carrier shall, on or before the date of the expiration of the term of any policy or bond so filed by him, file a renewal thereof, or new bonds or policies containing the same terms and obligations of the preceding bonds and policies, and shall each year thereafter on or before the expiration date of the existing bonds and policies, file such renewal policies and bonds so as to provide continuous and unbroken protection to the public having legal claims against such motor carrier; and in the event such renewal bonds and policies are not so filed, the Commission, after notice to the motor carrier, and hearing, may, within its discretion if it shall find and determine that the ends of justice will be better subserved thereby, cancel such permit or certificate for failure to furnish and provide such bonds or insurance as herein required. The Commission may accept in lieu of the filing of the original policies of insurance, a certificate of insurance, in such form as may be prescribed by the Commission, which certificate, when filed with the Commission, will bind the obligor thereunder and satisfy the requirements of this section as if the original policies of insurance had been filed.

Each motor carrier shall also protect his employees by taking out workmen's compensation insurance, either as provided by the Workmen's Compensation Laws of the State of Texas, or in a reliable insurance company authorized to write workmen's compensation insurance approved by the Commission.

Commission to Approve Equipment

Sec. 13a. The Commission is vested with power and authority, and it is hereby made its duty, to approve or disapprove the nature and character of the equipment to be used under any permit or certificate and the amount and character of tonnage which may be hauled thereunder on any motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer used under such permit or certificate and in approving the amount and character of tonnage to be hauled on any such vehicles, trailers or semi-trailers under any permit or certificate, it may fix the number and size of boxes, packages, barrels or bales of any particular commodity to be transported on any such vehicles, trailers or semi-trailers under such permit or certificate, and the method of loading such boxes, packages, barrels or bales of such commodity on the motor vehicle, trailers and semi-trailers to be used under such permit or certificate; provided, however, said Commission shall not authorize the use of any equipment of greater dimensions than otherwise permitted by law, nor any tonnage of greater weight than otherwise permitted by law.

Provided, that if this section is for any reason held to be unconstitutional and invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this Act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that this section be declared unconstitutional; provided further, that if this Act or any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof is held to be unconstitutional and invalid by reason of the inclusion of this section, the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this Act and any such section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof without this section.

Approval of Deposits of United States Government Bonds or Cash in Lieu of Bonds and/or Insurance

Sec. 13aa. The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority to approve the deposit by a motor carrier of United States Government bonds or cash, in lieu of bonds and/or insurance required in Section 13, in an amount to be fixed by the Commission under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe; and provided further that upon a full and proper showing of financial fitness and responsibility under and in compliance with rules and regulations prescribed and administered by the Commission such motor carrier may become self-insured in lieu of any coverage required other than the Workmen's Compensation Insurance which each motor carrier shall take out either as provided by the Workmen's Compensation Laws of the State of Texas or in a reliable insurance company authorized to write Workmen's Compensation Insurance approved by the Commission.

Accounts to be Kept; Reports to Commission

Sec. 13b. The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority and it is hereby made its duty to require all motor carriers to keep a set of accounts strictly in accordance with such classification of accounts and rules in respect thereto as may be established by the Commission and to file reports and such other data as the Commission may deem necessary, and which said accounts shall be open to the inspection of the Commission or its representatives or agents at all times; provided, however, that the Commission may, in its discretion, direct that the inspection or audit of the above described accounts and records of motor carriers, whose principal offices are located outside the State of Texas, be made at said principal office located outside the State of Texas.

Commission to Hear Applications, Complaints, and Compel Attendance of Witnesses; Examiner to Hear Applications Assigned by Commission and Report Thereon

Sec. 14. (a) The Commission shall have the power and authority under this Act to hear and determine all applications of motor carriers; to determine complaints presented to it by such carrier, by any public official, or by any citizen having an interest in the subject matter of the complaint, or it may institute and investigate any matter pertaining to motor carriers upon its own motion. The Commission, or any member thereof, or authorized representative or Examiner of the Commission, shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, swear witnesses, take their testimony under oath, make record thereof, and if such record is made under the direction of a Commissioner, or authorized representative or Examiner of the Commission, a majority of the Commission may, upon the record, render judgment as if the case had been heard before a majority of the members of the Commission. The Commission shall have the power and authority under this Act to do and perform all necessary things to carry out the purpose, intent, and provisions of this Act, whether herein specifically mentioned or not, and to that end may hold hearings at any place in Texas which it may designate.

(b) To expedite the hearing and disposition of applications, the Examiner or authorized representative of the Commission shall have authority under orders of the Commission to hear applications which may be assigned to him by the Commission; after the hearing of an application has been concluded by such representative or Examiner, it shall be his duty promptly to make a written report to the Commission recommending disposition of said application. Such report and recommendation shall be accompanied by a brief narrative statement of the evidence, and shall contain such other information as such representative or Examiner may think advisable, or as may be required by the Commission. Unless required by the Commission, it shall not be necessary for the reporter to transcribe said evidence in full, but it shall be sufficient to make a brief narrative statement giving the correct summary of such evidence; provided, however, the Commission shall have the authority to require said evidence, or any part thereof, to be transcribed in full if deemed advisable or necessary.

Per Diem and Mileage of Witnesses; Process to Sheriff

Sec. 15. Every witness who shall be summoned to appear before the Commission, or a Commissioner or authorized representative outside the county of his residence shall receive for his attendance the same per diem and fees as now provided for witnesses in attendance in District Courts of this State in criminal cases; such fees and mileage shall be order¹ paid upon proper voucher, sworn to by such witness and approved by the Commission or the chairman thereof out of the monies or funds arising under this Act; provided that no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested in any motor carrier involved or concerning which the investigation or hearing on account of which he is called, shall relate, and no witnesses furnished with free transportation shall receive pay for the distance he may have traveled on such free transportation. All process issued by the Commission for summoning witnesses or other purposes shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in the State of Texas, and any sheriff or constable of any county in this State shall promptly execute any subpoenas or other documents directed to him by the Commission and shall receive such fees for this service as is now paid for like services in the District Courts of this State, such payment to be made on accounts properly verified and approved by the Commission or the chairman thereof out of the fund provided in this Act.

It shall be the duty of all judges and prosecuting attorneys of this State to assist in the enforcement of this Act.

(e) The Commission shall prescribe an identification card which must be displayed within the cab of each motor vehicle, setting out the certificate or permit number and the route or territory over which the vehicle is authorized to operate, giving the name and address of the owner of said certificate or permit. It shall be unlawful for the owner of said certificate or permit, his agent, servant or employee, or any other person to use or display said identification card after said certificate or permit has been cancelled or disposed of. Filing Fee Accompanying Application

Sec. 17. (a) For the purpose of defraying the expense of administering this Act, every common carrier motor carrier now regularly operating, or which shall hereafter regularly operate in this state, shall at the time of the issuance of a certificate of convenience and necessity, unless otherwise provided herein, and annually thereafter, on or between September 1st and September 15th of each calendar year, pay a special fee of ten dollars (\$10), for each motor propelled vehicle operated or to be operated by such motor carrier in the carriage of property. If the certificate of convenience and necessity herein referred to is issued after the month of September of any year the fee paid shall be prorated to the remaining portion of the year ending August 31st following, but in no case less than one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) the annual fee. In case of an emergency or unusual temporary demands for transportation the fee for additional motor propelled vehicles for less period shall be fixed by the Commission in such reasonable amounts as may be prescribed by general rule or temporary order. Every application for a certificate of convenience and necessity shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Twenty-five (\$25.00) Dollars, which fee shall be in addition to other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission whether the certificate of convenience and necessity be granted or not.

(b) Every application filed with the Commission for an order approving the lease, sale or transfer of any certificate of convenience and necessity shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, which fee shall be in addition to the other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission whether the lease, sale or transfer of the certificate of convenience and necessity is approved or not.

(c) All fees except the fee provided in Section 5 of this Act accruing under the terms of this Act and all fines and penalties collected under the provisions of this Act shall be payable to the State Treasury at Austin and credited to a fund to be known and designated as the "Motor Carrier Fund," which fund is appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Act and out of which all warrants and expenditures necessary in administering and enforcing this Act shall be paid.

Identification Plates on Motor Vehicles

Sec. 18. It shall be unlawful for any motor carrier as hereinbefore defined to operate any motor vehicle within this State unless there shall be displayed and firmly fixed upon the front and rear of such vehicle an identification plate to be furnished by the Commission. Each of such plates shall be designed so as to identify the vehicle on which the same is attached as being a vehicle authorized to operate under the terms of this law; said plate shall bear the number given to the vehicle by the Commission and such other marks of identification as may be necessary. The plates for common carrier vehicles and the plates for contract carrier vehicles shall be different in design. The identification plates provided for herein shall be in addition to the regular license plates required by law. It shall be the duty of the Commission to provide these plates and each motor vehicle operating in this State shall display such plates as soon as the same are received and such plates shall be issued annually thereafter and attached to each motor vehicle not later than September 1st of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. The Commission shall be authorized to collect from the applicant a fee of one dollar ($1) for each pair of plates so issued, and all fees for such plates shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the "Motor Carrier Fund."

Reciprocity

Sec. 18a. Motor carriers of property for hire residing or domiciled outside of the State of Texas, who have authority from the Interstate Commerce Commission to transport property for hire to, from or between points in Texas, and whose operations in this State are limited to the transportation of property for hire in interstate or foreign commerce only under such authority, shall not be required to pay the special fees provided for in Sections 7, 17(a), 18 and subparagraphs (g) and (h) of Section 5a(a) of this Act; provided, however, this exemption from the payment of said fees shall not apply unless the States in which such foreign motor carriers reside or are domiciled shall likewise extend to motor carriers residing or domiciled in Texas exemption from the payment of the same or similar fees or expenses in their respective States; such exemptions from the payment of such fees in Texas shall be effective when the governmental agency or the authorized representative thereof of such foreign States having jurisdiction over the operations of motor carriers for hire shall certify in writing to the Railroad Commission of Texas that the exemption from the payment of such fees and expenses by such Texas carriers has been granted, and is in full force and effect. Provided, further, however, that this exemption shall not apply to the payment of filing fees for applications for certificates or permits to operate in this State.

Nonresident motor carriers coming within the exemptions herein provided for shall not be required to display upon the vehicles operated in this State under the provisions of such exemption, identification plates issued by the Railroad Commission of Texas, and the Commission shall not be required to furnish such carriers with such plates.

Commission May Employ Experts, Assistants, Etc.; Payment of Expenses

Sec. 19. (a) The Commission shall have power to employ and appoint from time to time such experts, assistants, and other help, in addition to its present force, as may be deemed necessary to enable it at all times to properly administer and enforce this Act. Such persons and employees of the Commission shall be paid for the service rendered such sums as may be fixed and prescribed by the Commission in monthly installments, and no employee of the Commission shall ask or receive any fee from any person for the taking of acknowledgments or any other service except as herein provided, and such salaries, wages and all fees that may be paid to witnesses and officers shall be paid out of the Railroad Commission Operating Fund by the State Treasurer on warrants of the Comptroller of Public Accounts on order or voucher approved by the Commission or the Chairman thereof. All actual and necessary traveling expenses of the members of the Commission and employees shall also be paid out of said Fund in the same manner as recurring operating expenses (including travel expense) when such accounts shall have been itemized and sworn to by the Commission or employee incurring the expenses and approved by the Commission or the Chairman thereof; provided, however, that when audits or inspections of records and accounts are made at out-of-state locations pursuant to the provisions of Section 13b of this Act, the Commission may, in its discretion, direct that all actual and necessary traveling expenses of the members of the Commission, its agents or representatives shall be paid by the inspected carrier. These traveling expenses shall be itemized and sworn to by the Commission or employee, representative or agent of the Commission incurring the expenses and approved by the Commission or the Chairman thereof. The amount of the necessary expenses shall be paid to the Railroad Commission of Texas and shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the account of the Railroad Commission Operating Fund. These incurred expenses after deposit are hereby reappropriated to the Railroad Commission for continued use for the same purpose.

(b) If the amount of total fees collected under the provisions of this Act shall not be sufficient during any annual period to pay such salaries, costs, charges, fees, and expenses, then the deficit shall be paid by the State Treasurer out of any fund not otherwise appropriated. Until sufficient funds have accrued to said Motor Carrier Fund for the payment of expenses, fees, etc., as provided herein, said expenses shall be paid by the State Treasurer out of any funds not otherwise appropriated, such sum to be paid out of the General Revenue not to exceed the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00), and said sum is hereby appropriated. Any surplus remaining in the Motor Carrier Fund at the end of any fiscal year, after paying such salaries, accounts, fees and charges and after deducting such amounts as may be contracted to be paid and incurred and such sums as may be reasonably estimated by the Commission for its use pending further collection of fees, shall be paid over to the General Revenue Fund.

Review of Decisions of Commission by District Court of Travis County; Appeals

Sec. 20. If any motor carrier or other party at interest be dissatisfied with any decision, rate, charge, rule, order, act, or regulation adopted by the Commission, such dissatisfied person, association, corporation, or party after failing to get relief from the Commission may file a petition setting forth the particular objection to such decision, rate, charge, rule, order, act or regulations, or to either or all of them in the District Court in Travis County, Texas, against said Commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Either party to said action may appeal to the Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said Appellate Court over all causes of a different character therein pending; provided, that if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days' notice. In all trials under this section the burden of proof shall rest upon plaintiff, who must show by the preponderance of evidence that the decisions, rates, regulations, rules, orders, classifications, acts, or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. The Commission shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder and no injunction shall be granted against any order of the Commission without hearing unless it shall clearly appear that irreparable injury will be done the complaining party if the injunction is not granted.

Ten Days as Reasonable Notice

Sec. 21. Whenever notice is required in this Act to be given ten days exclusive of the day of service and return shall be considered as reasonable notice; provided, that in case of emergency the Commission may hear any cause or complaint on less than ten days' notice.

Board of Control to Provide Office Space

Sec. 22. The State Board of Control is hereby authorized and directed to set aside such additional office space in the Capitol at Austin as may be deemed necessary by the Commission for the proper performance of its added duties as herein defined.

Cancellation of Certificate

Sec. 22a. Any certificate of public convenience and necessity shall be cancelled by the Commission if the owner or owners thereof shall in any manner avoid, fail or refuse to pay any gasoline or other tax imposed by law on such business.

General Policy

Sec. 22b. Declaration of Policy. The business of operating as a motor carrier of property for hire along the highways of this State is declared to be a business affected with the public interest. The rapid increase of motor carrier traffic, and the fact that under existing law many motor trucks are not effectively regulated, have increased the dangers and hazards on public highways and make it imperative that more stringent regulation should be employed, to the end that the highways may be rendered safer for the use of the general public; that the wear of such highways may be reduced; that discrimination in rates charged may be eliminated; that congestion of traffic on the highways may be minimized; that the use of the highways for the transportation of property for hire may be restricted to the extent required by the necessity of the general public, and that the various transportation agencies of the State may be adjusted and correlated so that public highways may serve the best interest of the general public.

Repeal of Conflicting Laws; Construction

Sec. 23. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed. Provided, however, that nothing in this act shall be construed as giving legislative sanction to any act that would violate the provisions of the Anti-Trust Laws of Texas.

Art. 911c. Unconstitutional

This article, derived from Acts 1935, 44th Leg., p. 746, ch. 325, §§ 1 to 9, regulating and licensing transportation agents, was held unconstitutional by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Ex parte Talkington, 132 Cr.R. 361, 104 S.W.2d 495, as arbitrary, unreasonable abridgment of citizens' rights and privileges and invasion of their liberty to engage in lawful business, because of unreasonable requirements, impossible to perform, not fairly applicable, and prohibitive.

Art. 911d. Regulation of Motor Bus Ticket Brokers

Definitions

Sec. 1. (a) That the term "corporation" when used in this Act means a corporation, company, association or joint stock association.

(b) The term "person" when used in this Act means an individual, firm, or co-partnership.

(c) The term "motor bus company" when used in this Act means every corporation or person as herein defined, their lessees, trustees, receivers, or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, operating, or managing any motor propelled passenger vehicle, not usually operated on or over rails, and engaged in the business of transporting persons for compensation or hire over the public highways within the State of Texas, under certificates of public convenience and necessity issued by the Railroad Commission of Texas, whether operating over fixed routes or fixed schedules or otherwise; provided further, that the term "motor bus company" as used in this Act shall not include corporations or persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, insofar as they own, control, operate, or manage motor propelled passenger vehicles operated wholly within the limits of any incorporated municipal corporation, town or city and the suburbs thereof, whether separately incorporated or otherwise.

(d) The term "Commission" when used in this Act means the Railroad Commission of the State of Texas.

(e) The term "broker" as used in this Act shall mean any person, firm, corporation or association of persons whatsoever, who or which, as principal or agent, shall for compensation, sell or offer for sale, transportation for passengers of any character, or who or which make any contract, agreement, or arrangement to provide, furnish, or arrange for such transportation, directly or indirectly, whether by selling of tickets or of information, or the introduction of parties where a consideration is received or otherwise, or who or which shall hold himself or itself out by advertisement, solicitation or otherwise as one who sells, provides, procures, contracts, or arranges for such transportation, information or introduction; provided, however, the term "broker" shall not apply to or include any such person, firm, corporation or association of persons whatsoever unless and until the Railroad Commission of Texas, after notice and hearing, shall have determined, from credible and competent evidence introduced before it or before some person authorized by present laws to conduct hearings for it, that such person, firm, corporation or association of persons has so conducted himself or itself in the course of the acts, transactions and things mentioned in this Sub-section (e) as to bring about a reasonably continuous or customary competition with one or more "motor bus companies," holding one or more certificates of convenience and necessity, duly and properly issued by the Railroad Commission of Texas under Chapter 270, General Laws Fortieth Legislature, 1927, as amended at the First Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature and any and all present and future amendments thereto;¹ provided however, a carrier of passengers by rail shall never be considered a broker.

(e¹/₂) The Railroad Commission of Texas shall have and it is hereby given the power and authority, either upon motion of any interested person or upon its own motion to investigate through a public hearing any person, firm, corporation or association of persons thought to be or charged with being a "broker" as that term is defined herein and to make a determination of the fact question as to whether said status of "broker" actually exists.

The person, firm, corporation, or association of persons sought to be so investigated shall be given at least ten (10) days notice by mail of such hearing and all motor bus companies probably or possibly affected by the asserted competition of such person, firm, corporation or association of persons shall likewise be given the same character of notice by mail and shall be given an opportunity to be heard; and, in addition, the owner or owners of all other existing passenger transportation facilities serving all or a portion of the territory thought to be or charged with being served by the person, firm, corporation, or association of persons under investigation shall be given the same character of written notice and, they along with any other interested party, shall be given an opportunity to be heard. The notice mentioned shall be not less than ten (10) days exclusive of the day of mailing.

Before the Commission determines that a person, firm, corporation or association of persons is a "broker" as that term is defined herein, it shall make findings, based on competent and credible testimony that the said person, firm, corporation or association of persons has customarily or with reasonable continuity brought about competition in the transportation of persons for hire between one or more motor bus companies, which have theretofore been duly and properly issued one or more certificates of public convenience and necessity, on the one hand, and other motor vehicles, not so certificated, on the other hand.

(f) The term "license" as used herein means a license issued to a broker.

Certain Sales Prohibited

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any broker or anyone else to sell any ticket or tickets for the transportation of passengers within this State over any motor bus company's line at any rates other than the rates legally authorized and approved by the Commission.

Sec. 3. No broker shall for compensation sell or offer for sale, transportation for passengers of any character, nor make any contract, agreement, or arrangement to provide, procure, furnish, or arrange for such transportation, directly or indirectly, whether by the selling of tickets, or of information, or the introduction of parties where a consideration is received or otherwise, nor shall hold himself or itself out by advertisement, solicitation, or otherwise as one who sells, provides, procures, contracts or arranges for such transportation or information unless such broker holds a broker's license issued by the Railroad Commission of Texas authorizing such activities; provided further that the provisions hereof shall not apply to transportation of passengers on steamship lines operating between ports of this State and ports of the United States and ports of any foreign company, and transportation of passengers of any authorized carrier or carriers operating in either interstate or intrastate transportation; and provided further that nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect the rights of private individuals as a mere incident to travel who are not brokers to enter into agreements or arrangements for transportation on a share-expense plan where in such negotiations or arrangements the services of an unlicensed broker, as herein defined, do not intervene or are not used.

License, To Whom Issued, Etc.

Sec. 4. A broker's license may be issued to any qualified applicant therefor upon application to the Commission in such form as the Commission shall prescribe, authorizing the whole or any part of the operation covered by the application, if it is found that the applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform the services proposed and to conform to the requirements, rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated hereunder, and within the limits hereof, and that the proposed service to the extent authorized by the license, is, or will be consistent with the public interest; otherwise, such application shall be denied. Any broker in bona fide operation when this Act takes effect shall have a period of thirty (30) days thereafter within which to apply for a broker's license, and if such application be filed such broker, if in bona fide operation when this Act takes effect may continue such operation under such rules and regulations, as the Commission may prescribe within the limits of this Act, until such application be by the Commission determined.

Nature and Effect of License

Sec. 5. The license herein provided for shall be personal in nature and shall not be sold, transferred, nor assigned. No broker shall be authorized to have more than one place of business, the location of which shall be designated in the license as issued by the Commission and no broker shall be authorized to change the location of his business without the approval of the Commission. If a broker dies, discontinues business for a period of thirty (30) days, or removes from the county where such license was issued, the license shall immediately become void and shall be by the Commission cancelled.

Tariff Rates Applicable to Brokers

Sec. 6. All brokers in transporting or causing to be transported passengers on the highways of Texas shall be bound by the tariffs, fares and rates approved of by the Railroad Commission of Texas covering the transportation for hire of persons over the highways of Texas; and shall not, directly or indirectly, transport or cause to be transported over State Highways any person at a greater or lesser fare or rate than that approved of by the Commission save and except that any broker shall be allowed a reasonable brokerage for his services but said brokerage and all details and particulars in connection therewith, including who shall pay such brokerage, shall be first approved of by the Commission.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 7. The Commission shall have power, after proper notice and hearing, in a manner hereinafter more particularly set forth, to make, adopt and enforce any reasonable rules and regulations, and to enforce the same, which may be necessary in assisting it to determine just who are and who are not brokers and in enforcing observance of its duly authorized and approved rates, tariffs and fares and in inspecting and approving brokerage charges to be charged by brokers for their services as such and in seeing to it that passengers are not transported in vehicles and under circumstances wherein and whereunder they are unprotected against injury and damage to person and property during such transportation or as a proximate result thereof and in assisting it in otherwise exercising the powers expressly given it or necessarily implied from and by this Act.

Broker's Bond

Sec. 8. Each broker, prior to the issuance of any license to him, shall file a bond or other security with the Commission and shall procure its approval of the same conditioned in such fashion that the State of Texas, through its Attorney General or any District or County Attorney, may proceed against said bond or other security and the principals and sureties thereon for a recovery of all money representing the difference between the money actually paid by any and all persons for such transportation arranged for by the broker, on the one hand, and the money which should have been paid under the applicable tariffs, rates and fares theretofore approved of by the Commission, on the other hand, plus a penalty of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars for each person so transported at the instigation of the broker at a lesser or greater charge or fare than the Commission's duly and properly approved tariff, rate or fare; and further conditioned in such fashion that the Attorney General or any District or County Attorney may similarly proceed for a recovery of all money representing the difference between the money actually collected by said broker as for his brokerage, on the one hand, and the money which should have been collected by him as for brokerage under the Commission's duly approved rate of brokerage, on the other hand, plus a penalty of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars on each passenger connected with the broker, but with respect to whom the broker failed, refused or neglected to collect the proper brokerage previously fixed or approved of by the Commission. All money recovered, either as differences between money actually collected and that which should have been collected as penalties under this Section 8, shall become the property of, and be owned by, the State of Texas, as a penalty and not as a forfeiture.

Vehicles to be Bonded for Damages Due to Injuries

Sec. 9. No broker shall have any part in transporting, or causing to be transported, any person, for hire, over the highways of Texas, except in a vehicle and under circumstances wherein and whereunder such passenger and his heirs, his estate and his beneficiaries are fully protected by security, bond or insurance, to be approved by the Commission, against damage, loss and injury resulting from loss of or damage to property possessed by such passenger during such transportation, or as a proximate result thereof; and, as well, against damage, loss and injury resulting from such passenger's personal injury or death during such transportation; or as a proximate result thereof; and, if any such passenger, his heirs, his estate or his beneficiaries, be damaged or injured in his person or rights or property as a result of such passenger's being transported in such unprotected manner, then those entitled to a recovery by reason of such unprotected transportation, in the event they cannot make themselves whole by proceeding against the actual hauler or carrier, shall be entitled to proceed against the broker, insurer, bond or other security and the principal and sureties thereon to the extent necessary to make them and each of them whole; and each broker's bond, insurance or other security shall be so conditioned; and each broker shall be required to furnish or renew such insurance, bond or other security as may be, and to the extent necessary from time to time, and as may be ordered by the Commission to effectuate all of the protection for the State and for such other persons as are mentioned in this Section; and such insurance, bond or other security shall be further conditioned in such fashion that, if and when any passenger, through no fault of his own, has not been carried over the route called for by the agreement with the broker, or has not been carried all of the way to the destination agreed upon with the broker, then the party or parties injured or damaged by such deviation from route or by such failure to carry the passenger through to his destination, in the event they cannot make themselves whole by proceeding against the actual hauler or carrier, shall be fully protected by, and shall be allowed to proceed against, the broker, insurance, bond or other security and the insurer, principal or sureties thereon to the extent necessary to make the injured or damaged party or parties whole.

Powers of Commission Concerning Rules, Etc.

Sec. 10. The Railroad Commission of Texas shall have and it is hereby given power and authority to adopt, approve, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations to the extent necessary, and only to the extent necessary, to aid and assist it in carrying out the express and necessarily implied powers granted it by this Act; but before adopting, approving, promulgating or enforcing any such rules and regulations, a copy thereof shall be sent by mail to each person, firm, corporation and association of persons known or thought by the Commission to have an interest in the subject matter of such rules and regulations; and in addition such proposed rules and regulations shall be published on three successive days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each of the Cities of San Antonio, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, El Paso, Texarkana, Amarillo and Brownsville, Texas, and in each such notice and publication the Commission shall give all interested persons, firms, corporations and associations of persons express notice that it intends to adopt, approve, promulgate, and enforce such proposed rules and regulations and that a public hearing will be held thereon in Austin, Texas, at a given hour and date, for the purpose of hearing any and all objections thereto and any and all evidence and statements and arguments in regard thereto and for the purpose of making any and all necessary changes, eliminations and amendments in and to such published and proposed rules and regulations; and in such notices and publications all interested parties shall be given notice to be and appear at the given time and place for the purpose of such a hearing. At any and all such hearings the Commission shall give all interested parties an opportunity to present evidence, statements and arguments for and against the adoption of the proposed rules and regulations. And the Commission shall adopt or reject such rules and regulations, in whole or in part, as it shall deem proper; but its action shall be reasonable, and shall be based upon the substantial effect of the record made at such hearing, or upon the substantial effect of its other records of which it may take notice under present laws. The hearing contemplated shall be held at least ten (10) days from the mailing of the notices exclusive of the day of mailing, and at least ten (10) days from the appearance of the last notice in said newspapers or either of them.

Broker's Records

Sec. 11. Each and every broker shall keep an accurate record of each and every contract, agreement, or arrangement for transportation which he or it may make with every person traveling, or desiring to travel, with whom the broker may contract or arrange transportation, on such form and containing such information as the Commission may prescribe and require. Such record shall be open to inspection to any sheriff, constable, County or District Attorney, and to any officer, agent, inspector, or other employee of the Railroad Commission at all times. Such records shall not be destroyed until after the expiration of three (3) years, and then only after an order of the Commission authorizing the destruction thereof.

Hearing and Fee for License

Sec. 12. No application for a broker's license shall be granted until after hearing thereof, notice of which shall be given to all motor bus companies serving the territory proposed to be served by applicant, and to the County Judge and District and County Attorney of the county in which applicant resides, at least ten (10) days prior to the date of such hearing, at which hearing any interested party may appear and be heard. Each application for a broker's license shall be accompanied by a filing fee of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, which shall be payable to the State Treasurer at Austin, and shall be by the State Treasurer deposited in the State Treasury and credited to the fund known and designated as the "Motor Transportation Fund," and be used in administering this Act. Each person, firm, corporation, or association of persons holding a broker's license under the terms of this Act, shall on the first day of January of each and every year that such license is in effect, pay to the State Treasurer a fee of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, which shall be deposited in and become a part of the General Revenues of the State; and such brokers shall not be authorized to transact any business in any calendar year until such fee is paid, and if not paid on or before the first day of March of any year, such license shall be automatically cancelled.

Powers of Commission, In General

Sec. 13. The Commission shall have the power and authority under this Act to hear and determine all applications of brokers for a license; to determine complaints presented to it by brokers, by any public official or by any citizen having an interest in the subject matter of the complaints; or it may institute an investigation in any matter pertaining to brokers upon its own motion. The Commission, or any member thereof, or authorized representative of the Commission, shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, swear witnesses, take their testimony under oath and make a record thereof, and if such record is made under the direction of a Commissioner, or authorized representative of the Commission, a majority of the Commission may, upon the record, render judgment as if the case had been heard before a majority of the members of the Commission. The Commission shall have the power and authority under this Act to do and perform all necessary things to carry out the purpose, intent, and provisions of this Act, and to that end may hold hearings at any place in Texas which it may designate.

Review of Commission's Orders or Decisions

Sec. 14. The applicant for a broker's license, any motor bus company, or any other in-interested person, if he or it be dissatisfied with any decision, rule, order, act, or regulation adopted by the Commission, such dissatisfied person, association, corporation, or party may file a petition setting forth the particular objection to such decision, rule, order, act or regulation, or to either or all of them in the district court of the plaintiff's residence or principal place of business, against said Commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket, of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court; either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause, and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending; provided, that if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days notice. In all trials under this Section, the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff, who must show by the preponderance of the evidence that the decisions, regulations, rules, orders, and acts are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. The Commission shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder, and no injunction shall be granted against any order of the Commission without hearing, unless it shall clearly appear that irreparable injury will be done the complaining party if the injunction is not granted.

Violation of Act; Penalty

Sec. 15. Any person, corporation, or any officer, agent, servant, or employee of any such corporation, and every other person who violates or fails to comply with, or who procures, aids or abets in the violation of this Act, or any rule, regulation, order or decree of the Commission promulgated under the terms of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred ($100) Dollars and not to exceed Two Hundred ($200) Dollars, and the violations occurring on each day shall each constitute a separate offense. Any authorized inspector for the Railroad Commission, and all law enforcement officers of the State, shall have power and authority, and it shall be their duty, to make arrests for the violation of any of the provisions of this Act.

Cancellation of License

Sec. 16. The Railroad Commission may in its discretion, after ten days notice and a hearing, cancel any license issued under the provisions of this Act for the violation of this or any other statute of this State, the violation of any lawful order, rule or regulation promulgated by the Commission under authority hereof, or for any failure of any broker to discharge any and all claims or demands of any member of the public for which such broker may be legally liable, by reason of any act of such broker in selling, providing, procuring, contracting, or arranging for such transportation, information, or introduction under the terms of this Act.

Repeal of Conflicting Laws

Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are expressly repealed.

Severability

Sec. 18. If any Section, sub-section, clause, sentence, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional and invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this Act and each Section, sub-section, clause, sentence, or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the Sections, sub-sections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

Declaration of Policy

Sec. 19. The Legislature finds that there has grown up in this State a type of business in which transportation is sold or arranged for in various forms, consisting of the selling or giving of information with respect to travel and transportation, the introduction of parties, and various other methods and practices, which interferes with and obstructs the functions of the Railroad Commission of Texas in connection with its control of motor bus companies holding certificates of public convenience and necessity issued by said Commission, and which is hazardous and dangerous to the public health, morals and general welfare, and that passengers are often stranded by drivers of cars to whom they had paid money for transportation, and other fees or commissions, for being brought into contact with the drivers of such cars, and that this often occurs when such passengers are far from home and friends and left to complete their journey any way they can; that passengers after beginning a journey are often required to pay additional money or buy supplies in order to complete their journey; that passengers are often carried over long and circuitous routes contrary to representations made to them; that there has developed a class of irresponsible persons who operate automobiles from place to place with no destination and no motive except to transport persons as passengers for hire, who have no insurance to protect a passenger for personal injury or loss or damage to property, and who are unable to respond in damages; that passengers are subjected to indignities and insults; that irregularities and abuses require the regulations and policing of broker's operations, and that such regulation is necessary in the interest of the health, moral and general welfare of the people of this State.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 672.]

Art. 911e. Unconstitutional

This article, derived from Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 606, ch. 375, was held unconstitutional by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Ex parte Garland, Cr.App., 154 S.W.2d 834.

Art. 911f. Motor Transportation Brokers of Fresh Citrus Fruits and VegetablesLegislative Declaration; Regulation and Control of Intermediaries

Sec. 1. The Legislature declares that the public welfare requires the regulation and control of those persons, whether acting individually or as officers, commission agents, or employees of any person, firm, or corporation, who hold themselves out to act as intermediaries between the public and those motor carriers of fresh citrus fruits (as that term is defined by Acts 1963, 58th Legislature, page 312, Chapter 117)¹ and fresh vegetables (as that term is defined by Acts 1963, 58th Legislature, page 598, Chapter 218)² operating over the public highways of the state, for compensation. Until the Congress of the United States acts, the public welfare requires the regulation and control of such intermediaries between the public and interstate motor carriers as well as between the public and intrastate carriers.

Sec. 2. In this Act the following words shall mean:

(1) "Motor transportation broker"—any person who, acting either individually or as an officer, commission agent, or employee of a corporation, or as a member of a copartnership, or as a commission agent or employee of another person, sells or offers for sale, or negotiates for or holds himself out as one who sells, furnishes, or provides, transportation of fresh citrus fruits and fresh vegetables over the public highways of this state, when such transportation is furnished, or offered or proposed to be furnished, by a motor carrier.

(2) "Motor carrier"—any person, firm, or corporation, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, transporting or offering or proposing to transport fresh citrus fruits and fresh vegetables for compensation over any portion of the public highways of the state.

(3) "Commission"—the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Application of Act

Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to the officers, agents, or employees of any carrier operating for compensation over the public highways of this state who is under the jurisdiction of the commission, or to a person, firm, or corporation engaged in transporting express when such transportation is incidental to the transportation of passengers.

The provisions of this Chapter shall apply whether the transportation sold, or offered to be sold, is interstate or intrastate.

License; Necessity; Power to Regulate Issuance of License

Sec. 4. It is unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to engage in the business, or act in the capacity, of a motor transportation broker without first obtaining a license therefor. The commission may administer this Act, with full power to regulate and control the issuance and revocation of motor transportation broker licenses, and may perform all other acts and duties provided in this Act and necessary for its enforcement.

Copartnerships and Corporations; Agents or Employees; Joinder in Application

Sec. 5. The commission shall not issue a motor transportation broker license to any copartnership or corporation, it being the intent of this Act to require each person acting as a motor transportation broker to be individually licensed. If an applicant is an officer or commission agent or employee of a corporation, or a member of any copartnership, he shall so state in his application. The corporation, copartnership, or person of which the applicant is an officer, member, or employee, as the case may be, shall join in the applicant's application and shall set forth therein the relationship between the applicant and the person, copartnership, or corporation so joining.

Form of Application; Contents

Sec. 6. An application for a license as a motor transportation broker shall be made in writing to the commission. The application shall be verified and shall be in such form and contain such information as the commission from time to time requires.

Issuance of License; Refusal of License; Hearing

Sec. 7. The commission, without a hearing, may issue the license as prayed for. The commission, with a hearing, may refuse to issue the license or may issue it for the partial exercise of the privilege sought. The commission shall not issue a license when it determines that (a) the applicant is not a fit and proper person to receive the license, or (b) the motor carriers for whom the applicant proposes to sell transportation have not complied, or are not complying, or do not propose to comply, with state or federal laws, or all general orders of the commission, applicable to the operations of the motor carrier.

Bond

Sec. 8. No license shall be issued unless the applicant therefor provides a good and sufficient bond in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) executed by a solvent bonding company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, payable to the State of Texas or to any person to whom the applicant furnishes transportation, and be conditioned:

(a) Upon the faithful performance, by the motor carrier or motor carriers for whom the applicant is licensed to act, of the contract or agreement of transportation negotiated by the licensee; and

(b) Upon the honest and faithful performance by the applicant of any undertaking as a licensed motor carrier transportation agent under this Act.

Limitation on Liability; Actions on Bond

Sec. 9. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to impose upon the surety on any such bond a greater liability than the total amount thereof or the amount remaining unextinguished by any prior recovery.

No suit or action against the surety on any such bond given in compliance with this Act shall be brought later than one (1) year from the accrual of the cause of action thereon. The surety may terminate its liability under the bond by giving thirty (30) days written notice thereof, served either personally or by registered mail, to the principal and to the commission. Upon giving the notice the surety is discharged from all liability under the bond for any act or omission of the principal occurring after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of the service of the notice. Unless on or before the expiration of such period the principal files a new bond in like amount and conditioned as the original in substitution of the bond so terminated, the license of the principal shall likewise terminate upon the expiration of the period.

Transfer or Assignment of License

Sec. 10. No license issued pursuant to this Act gives authority to do any act for which the license is issued, to any person, other than the licensee. The license is not transferable or assignable. No such license authorizes the licensee to do business except in the location stipulated in the license.

Fees

Sec. 11. The fees for licenses, and each renewal thereof, are Five Dollars ($5) a year, or fraction thereof. All applications for licenses shall be accompanied by the fee, and all licenses, subject to the provisions for renewal, which the commission prescribes, shall expire on September 30th of each year.

All fees charged and collected under this Act shall be deposited at least once a month in the State Treasury to the credit of the commission and in augmentation of the current appropriation for the support of the commission, and may be expended by the commission for the administration of this Act.

Insuring Property

Sec. 12. Each broker licensee provided for in this Act shall insure any property for which he has sold transportation with a solvent insurer authorized to do business in the State of Texas, for the protection of both the shipper and receiver of such property.

Powers of Commission; Proceedings

Sec. 13. All powers vested in the commission relating to hearing and determining matters presented to it, are made applicable to the proceedings under the provisions of this Act.

Suspension or Revocation of License

Every motor vehicle carrying migrant agricultural workers as defined in this Act, shall, upon approaching any railroad grade crossing, make a full stop not more than 50 feet, nor less than 15 feet from the nearest rail of such railroad grade crossing, and shall not proceed until due caution has been taken to ascertain that the course is clear; except that a full stop need not be made at:

(1) A streetcar crossing within a business or residence district of a municipality.

(2) A railroad grade crossing where a police officer or a traffic-control signal (not a railroad flashing signal) directs traffic to proceed.

(3) An abandoned or exempted grade crossing which is clearly marked as such by or with the consent of the proper state authority, when such marking can be read from the driver's position.

All such motor vehicles shall display a sign on the rear reading, "This Vehicle Stops at Railroad Crossings."

Such U-bolts shall not be of welded construction. The installation shall be such as not to cause cracking, warping, or deformation of the frame. Adequate means shall be provided positively to prevent the shifting of the lower half of the fifth wheel on the frame to which it is attached. The upper half of every fifth wheel shall be fastened to the motor vehicle with at least the security required for the securing of the lower half to the truck tractor or dolly. Locking means shall be provided in every fifth wheel mechanism including adapters when used, so that the upper and lower halves may not be separated without the operation of a positive manual release. A release mechanism operated by the driver from the cab shall be deemed to meet this requirement. On fifth wheels designed and constructed as to be readily separable, the fifth wheel locking devices shall apply automatically on coupling for any motor vehicle the date of manufacture of which is subsequent to December 31, 1952.

(d) Tires. Every motor vehicle shall be equipped with tires of adequate capacity to support its gross weight. No motor vehicle shall be operated on tires which have been worn so smooth as to expose any tread fabric or which have any other defect likely to cause failure. Stake body construction shall be construed to comply with this requirement only if all six-inch or larger spaces between stakes are suitably closed to prevent passengers from falling off the vehicle.

(3) Nails, screws, splinters: The floor and the interior of the sides and ends of the passenger-carrying space shall be free of inwardly protruding nails, screws, splinters, or other projecting objects, likely to be injurious to passengers or their apparel.

The seats shall be: securely attached to the vehicle during the course of transportation; not less than 16 inches nor more than 19 inches above the floor; at least 13 inches deep; equipped with backrests extending to a height of at least 36 inches above the floor, with at least 24 inches of space between the backrests or between the edges of the opposite seats when face to face; designed to provide at least 18 inches of seat for each passenger; without cracks more than one-fourth inch wide, and the backrests, if slatted, without cracks more than two inches wide, and the exposed surfaces, if made of wood, planed or sanded smooth and free of splinters.

(5) Protection from weather: Whenever necessary to protect the passengers from inclement weather conditions, be equipped with a top at least 80 inches high above the floor and facilities for closing the sides and ends of the passenger-carrying compartment. Tarpaulins or other such removable devices for protection from the weather shall be secured in place.

(6) Exit: Adequate means of ingress and egress to and from the passenger space shall be provided on the rear or at the right side. Such means of ingress and egress shall be at least 18 inches wide. The top and the clear opening shall be at least 60 inches high, or as high as the side wall of the passenger space if less than 60 inches. The bottom shall be at the floor of the passenger space.

(7) Gates and doors: Gates or doors shall be provided to close the means of ingress and egress and each such gate or door shall be equipped with at least one latch or other fastening device of such construction as to keep the gate or door securely closed during the course of transportation; and readily operative without the use of tools.

(8) Ladders or steps: Ladders or steps for the purpose of ingress and egress shall be used when necessary. The maximum vertical spacing of footholds shall not exceed 12 inches, except that the lowest step may be not more than 18 inches above the ground when the vehicle is empty.

(9) Handholds: Handholds or devices for similar purpose shall be provided to permit ingress and egress without hazard to passengers.

(10) Emergency exit: Vehicles with permanently affixed roofs shall be equipped with at least one emergency exit having a gate or door, latch and hold as prescribed in this section and located on a side or rear not equipped with the exit described in Subparagraph (6) of this subsection.

(11) Communication with driver: Means shall be provided to enable the passengers to communicate with the driver. Such means may include telephone, speaker tubes, buzzers, pull cords, or other mechanical or electrical means.

(f) Protection from cold. Every motor vehicle shall be provided with a safe means of protecting passengers from cold or undue exposure, but in no event shall heaters of the following types be used:

(3) Heaters permitting fuel leakage: Any type of heater from the burner of which there could be spillage or leakage of fuel upon the tilting or overturning of the vehicle in which it is mounted.

(4) Heaters permitting air contamination: Any heater taking air, heated or to be heated, from the engine compartment or from direct contact with any portion of the exhaust system; or any heater taking air in ducts from the outside atmosphere to be conveyed through the engine compartment, unless said ducts are so constructed and installed as to prevent contamination of the air so conveyed by exhaust or engine compartment gases.

(5) Any heater not securely fastened to the vehicle.

Hours of Service of Drivers; Maximum Driving Time

Sec. 6. No person shall drive nor shall any motor carrier permit or require a driver employed or used by it to drive or operate for more than 10 hours in the aggregate (excluding rest stops and stops for meals) in any period of 24 consecutive hours, unless such driver be afforded eight consecutive hours rest immediately following the 10 hours aggregate driving. The term "24 consecutive hours" as used in this section means any period starting at the time the driver reports for duty.

Inspection and Maintenance of Motor Vehicles

Sec. 7. Every motor carrier shall systematically inspect and maintain or cause to be systematically maintained, all motor vehicles and their accessories subject to its control, to insure that such motor vehicles and their accessories are in safe and proper operating condition.
