Sec. 16. If a dealer handles vegetables guaranteeing a producer or owner a minimum price, but at the same time handles the vegetables for the account of the producer or owner, said dealer shall include in his contract with the producer or owner, the maximum amount which he shall charge for commission or service, or both, in connection with said vegetables so handled.

Consignments Without Price Guarantee; Settlement on Basis of Grade and Quality; Inspection

Sec. 17. All vegetables except those obtained and handled by dealers solely on a consignment basis without any price guarantee shall be settled for by every dealer on the basis of the grade and quality which is referred to in the contract pursuant to which the dealer obtained possession or control of such vegetables, unless such vegetables have been inspected by a State or Federal inspector in the State of Texas and found to be of a different grade or quality than that referred to in said contract, in which event same shall be settled for on the basis of the grade and quality determined by such inspector. But nothing herein shall prevent the parties in lieu of such inspection, from agreeing in writing only that the grade or quality of any of such vegetables was different from that referred to in the contract. Failure of the dealer to settle with a producer or seller on grade and quality in the manner herein provided shall constitute a violation of this Act and be punishable as hereinafter provided, and in addition, shall be cause for revocation of license.

Venue

Sec. 18. The venue of any and all criminal acts and civil suits instituted under the provisions of this Act shall be in the county where the violation occurred or where the vegetables were received by the dealer, packer or warehouseman.

Offenses and Violations; Fines

Sec. 19. From and after the effective date of this Act any person who shall:

(a) Act as a dealer or handler, or both, without first obtaining a license to act as such dealer or handler, or both;

(b) Act or assume to act as a transporting agent or buying agent, without first obtaining from the Commissioner a license or a buying agent's or transporting agent's card as by the terms and provisions of this Act required, shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200), and each day upon which any dealer, handler, buying agent, or transporting agent, shall act or assume to act in violation of the requirements of this Act shall constitute a separate offense.

(1) Any buying or transporting agent who ceases to be employed by, or the agent of the dealer or handler to whom such buying agent's or transporting agents' cards were issued and who fails and refuses on the termination of such employment to turn over to the Commissioner of Agriculture the buying or transporting agent's cards issued to such persons shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

(2) Any person who shall act or assume to act as a commission merchant without first filing with the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas the bond as required by this Act, and obtaining a license to act as such commission merchant shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200), and each day upon which such person shall act or assume to act as such commission merchant shall constitute a separate offense.

(3) Any licensee or any transporting agent or buying agent of any licensee under this Act who shall violate any of the terms and provisions of this Act shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

Cash Dealers; License

Sec. 20. Any person who purchases vegetables only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act, and pays therefor prior to or at the time of delivery or taking possession of such vegetables so purchased, in current money of the United States, shall be exempt from giving the bond provided for in this Act and such person shall indicate on his application for license that he desires to operate as a cash buyer, buying only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of this Section and thereupon such person shall be entitled to a license as a cash dealer, purchasing only from dealers duly qualified under this Act, upon the payment by such applicant of the license fee as required under this Act. Such dealer shall be subject to all the pertinent provisions of this Act. Any violation of this Section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and be punishable, as provided in Section 19 of this Act.

Any producer handling or dealing in his own products exclusively, shall be licensed, upon application, by the Commissioner of Agriculture without charge and without being required to give bond.

Citrus Fruit Dealers; License and Surety Bond

Sec. 21. Any person who comes within any of the classifications set out in House Bill No. 99, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature, or any amendments thereto,¹ wherein a surety bond of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) is required of him, that classification shall be permitted to have one Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) surety bond to be worded as to guarantee faithful performance of all of the provisions of both House Bill No. 99, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature, as amended, and this Act, and such bond to be in such form as the Commissioner of Agriculture may prescribe, and any person who elects to have one surety bond of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) to guarantee faithful performance under both of said Acts shall be liable for only one license fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25), and his license shall reflect the fact that he is licensed thereby to handle both citrus fruits and vegetables.

Repealer

Sec. 22. Chapter 443, Acts of the Forty-fifth Legislature, 1937, as amended,² is hereby repealed; provided that any rights accrued under such Act shall not be impaired, and any judicial or administrative proceedings in progress shall be in full force and effect. Nothing in this Act shall affect Section 2 of Chapter 306, Acts of the Fifty-fifth Legislature, 1957.³

Trusts, Monopolies and Conspiracies against Trade; Conflicts with Laws

Sec. 23. Nothing in this Act shall ever be construed as amending, modifying, suspending, or repealing any of the laws of this State defining and prohibiting trusts, monopolies, and conspiracies against trade, with particular reference to Chapter 3, Title 19, Penal Code of this State, and Title 126, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and should this Act in any manner conflict with or alter, repeal, change, modify, or affect, or attempt to alter, repeal, change, modify or affect the above-mentioned Statutes or any sentence, section, clause, phrase or word thereof, this entire Act shall fail and be held for naught.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 24. Should any word, phrase, sentence, paragraph or section of this Act be declared unconstitutional, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature to have passed the remainder of this Act in its entirety despite any such holding as to unconstitutionality.

Art. 1288. Instrument of Conveyance

No estate of inheritance or freehold, or for a term of more than one year, in lands and tenements, shall be conveyed from one to another, unless the conveyance be declared by an instrument in writing, subscribed and delivered by the party disposing of the same, or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing.

Art. 1289. Notice

A conveyance, such as is described in the preceding article, shall not be good and effectual against a purchaser in good faith, without notice thereof and for a valuable consideration, nor against any creditor, unless such conveyance be acknowledged by the party who shall have signed or delivered it, or proved, in the manner required by law, and before some officer authorized by law to take such acknowledgment or proof, and be filed for record with the clerk of the county in which the land, or a part thereof, is situated.

Art. 1290. Partial Conveyances

All alienations of real estate, made by any person purporting to pass or assure a greater right or estate than such person may lawfully pass or assure, shall operate as alienations of so much of the right and estate in such lands, tenements or hereditaments as such person might lawfully convey; but shall not pass or bar the residue of said right or estate purporting to be conveyed or assured; nor shall the alienation of any particular estate on which any remainder may depend, whether such alienation be by deed or will, nor shall the union of such particular estate with the inheritance by purchase or by descent, so operate as to defeat, impair or in any wise affect such remainder.

Art. 1291. When an Estate Deemed a Fee Simple

Every estate in lands which shall thereafter [hereafter] be granted, conveyed or devised to one although other words heretofore necessary at common law to transfer an estate in fee simple be not added, shall be deemed a fee simple, if a less estate be not limited by express words or do not appear to have been granted, conveyed or devised by construction or operation of law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1291a. Abolition of Rule in Shelley's Case, Rule Forbidding Remainder to Grantor's Heirs, and Doctrine of Worthier Title

The rules of the common law known as The Rule in Shelley's Case, the Rule Forbidding a Remainder to the Grantor's Heirs, and The Doctrine of Worthier Title are hereby declared to be no longer operative in this State. If, in any deed, will, or other conveyance of real or personal property in this State, an interest is limited, mediately or immediately, to any particular person or persons, or to any such class as the heirs, heirs of the body, issue, or next of kin of the conveyor or of any person to whom a particular interest in the same property is limited, such conveyance shall be given effect according to the intention of the conveyor. No person's claim of right to take or share in such interest as a conveyee shall be affected by such person's status as heir or next of kin of the conveyor. No person shall be denied the right to take or share in such interest as a conveyance merely by reason of the fact that such person is not identified or described in the conveyance otherwise than as a member of a class of persons, howsoever the class may be designated. Subject to the principle that within the limits prescribed by law the intention of the conveyor shall be controlling, the members of any such class of persons as those heretofore mentioned and their participation in the interest limited to the class shall be ascertained in the light of the statutes of this State governing descent and distribution.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 542, ch. 199, §§ 2, 3 provided:
"Sec. 2. This Act shall become effective January 1, 1964.

"Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to conveyances taking effect prior to the effective date of this Act. The provisions of this Act shall not affect the laws against perpetuities."

Art. 1291b. Reformation of Interests in Violation of Rule Against Perpetuities

Sec. 1. Any interest in real or personal property that would violate the Rule Against Perpetuities shall be reformed, or construed, within the limits of that Rule, to give effect to the general intent of the creator of that interest whenever that general intent can be ascertained. This provision shall be liberally construed and applied to validate such interest to the fullest extent consistent with such ascertained intent.

Sec. 2. To effectuate the provisions hereof, all courts of this state are, within their otherwise jurisdictional limits, hereby granted the power to reform or construe interests in real or personal property, as provided in Section 1 hereof, in accordance with the doctrine of cy pres.

Sec. 3. If an instrument violates the Rule Against Perpetuities, but it can be reformed or construed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, it shall not be declared totally invalid. Rather, the provisions thereof that do not offend the Rule shall be enforced, and only the provisions thereof that do violate, or might violate, the Rule shall be subject to reformation or construction under the doctrine of cy pres within the terms of this Act.

Sec. 4. This Act shall apply only to inter vivos instruments and wills taking effect after the Act becomes effective, and to appointments made after the Act becomes effective, including appointments by inter vivos instruments or wills under powers created before the Act becomes effective. The Act shall apply to both legal and equitable interests.

Art. 1292. Form of Conveyance

The following form, or the same in substance, shall be sufficient as a conveyance of the fee simple of any real estate with a covenant of general warranty, viz:

“The State of Texas,

“County of

“Know all men by these presents, That I,, of the (give name of city, town or county), in the state aforesaid, for and in consideration of dollars, to me in hand paid by, have granted, sold and conveyed, and by these presents do grant, sell and convey unto the said, of the (give name of city, town or county), in the state of, all that certain (describe the premises). To have and to hold the above described premises, together with all and singular the rights and appurtenances thereto in any wise belonging, unto the said his heirs or assigns forever. And I do hereby bind myself, my heirs, executors and administrators to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the said, his heirs and assigns, against every person whomsoever, lawfully claiming or to claim the same, or any part thereof.

“Witness my hand, this day of, A.D. 19....

“Signed and delivered in the presence of

Art. 1293. Other Forms and Clauses Valid

No person shall be obliged to insert the covenant of warranty, or be restrained from inserting any clause or clauses in conveyances hereafter to be made, that may be deemed proper and advisable by the purchaser and seller; and other forms not contravening the laws of the land shall not be invalidated.

Art. 1293a. Invalidity of Deed Restrictions Based on Race, Color, Religion or National Origin

Sec. 1. A provision in any deed conveying real property or any interest in real property, or any restrictions affecting real property, whether stated expressly in the deed or restrictions, or incorporated by reference, which provides that the property may not be sold, leased, or transferred to, or used by, any person because of race, color, religion, or national origin, is void and unenforceable.

Sec. 2. The courts of this state shall dismiss any suit or part of any suit in which a provision, restriction, or covenant declared void by the provisions of Section 1 of this Act is sought to be enforced.

Art. 1294. Must be Witnessed or Acknowledged

Every deed or conveyance of real estate must be signed and acknowledged by the grantor in the presence of at least two credible subscribing witnesses thereto; or must be duly acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments, and properly certified to by him for registration.

Art. 1295. Conveyance by Authorized Officer

Every conveyance of real estate by a commissioner, sheriff or other officer legally authorized to sell, under or by virtue of a decree or judgment of any court within this State, shall be good and effectual to pass the absolute title to such real estate to the purchaser thereof; but nothing herein shall be construed to affect the right, title or interest of any person or persons other than the parties to such conveyance, decree or judgment, and those claiming under them.

Art. 1296. Estates In Futuro

An estate or freehold or inheritance may be made to commence in futuro, by deed or conveyance, in like manner as by will.

Art. 1297. Implied Covenants

From the use of the word "grant" or "convey," in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance or fee simple is to be passed, the following covenants, and none other, on the part of the grantor for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs or assigns, are implied, unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee.

2. That such estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances.

Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance.

Art. 1298. Incumbrances Include What

The term "incumbrances" includes taxes, assessments and all liens upon real property.

Art. 1299. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1189, ch. 473, § 1, eff. Aug. 23, 1963

Art. 1300. Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 735, ch. 309, § 6, eff. Jan. 1, 1968

Art. 1301. Failing as a Conveyance

When an instrument in writing, which was intended as a conveyance of real estate, or some interest therein, shall fail, either in whole or in part, to take effect as a conveyance by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, the same shall nevertheless be valid and effectual as a contract upon which a conveyance may be enforced, as far as the rules of law will permit.

Art. 1301a. Condominium Act

Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as the "Condominium Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in the Act unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Property" means and includes the land whether leasehold or in fee simple and the building, all improvements and structures thereon and all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto.

(b) "Building" includes the principal structure or structures erected or to be erected upon the land described in the declaration provided for in Section 7 which determines the use to be made of the improved land whether or not such improvement is composed of one (1) or more separate buildings containing one (1) or more floors or stories.

(c) "Condominium Project" means a real estate condominium project; a plan, or project whereby four (4) or more apartments, rooms, office spaces, or other units in existing or proposed buildings or structures are offered or proposed to be offered for sale.

(d) "Condominium" means the separate ownership of single units or apartments in a multiple unit structure or structures with common elements.

(e) "Apartment" means an enclosed space consisting of one (1) or more rooms occupying all or part of a floor in a building of one (1) or more floors or stories regardless of whether it be designed for residence, for office, for the operation of any industry business, or for any other type of independent use, provided it has a direct exit to a thoroughfare or to a given common space leading to a thoroughfare.

(f) "Developer" means a person who undertakes to develop a real estate condominium project.

(g) "Master deed" or "Master lease" or "Declaration" means the deed, lease or declaration establishing the property as a condominium regime.

(h) "Co-owner" means a person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, trust or other legal entity, or any combination thereof, who owns an apartment or apartments within the condominium project.

(i) "Council of co-owners" means all the co-owners as defined in subsection (h) of this section.

(j) "Majority of co-owners" means the apartment owners with fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the votes weighed so as to coincide with percentages or fractions assigned in the declaration.

(k) "Person" means an individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association, trust or other legal entity or any combination thereof.

(l) "General common elements" means and includes:

(1) The land, whether leased or in fee simple, on which the building stands;

(2) The foundations, bearing walls and columns, roofs, halls, lobbies, stairways, and entrances and exits or communication ways;

(3) The basements, flat roofs, yard, and gardens, except as otherwise provided or stipulated;

(4) The premises for the lodging of janitors or persons in charge of the building, except as otherwise provided or stipulated;

(5) The compartments or installation of central services such as power, light, gas, cold and hot water, refrigeration, central air condition and central heating, reservoirs, water tanks and pumps, swimming pools, and the like;

(6) The elevators and shafts, garbage incinerators and, in general all devices or installations existing for common use; and

(7) All other elements of the building desirable or rationally of common use or necessary to the existence, upkeep and safety of the condominium regime, and any other elements described in the declaration filed pursuant to Section 7.

(m) "Limited common elements" means and includes those common elements which are agreed upon by all of the co-owners to be reserved for the use of a certain number of apartments to the exclusion of the other apartments, such as special corridors, stairways and elevators, sanitary services common to the apartments of a particular floor, and the like.

(n) "To record" means to record in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which the property is situated in accordance with the provisions of Title 115, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.¹

(o) All pronouns used herein include the singular or plural numbers, as the case may be.

Condominium Regime; Declaration

Sec. 3. When a developer, the sole owner, or the co-owners of a building or buildings or proposed building or buildings expressly declares, through the recordation of a master deed, lease, or declaration, which shall set forth the particulars enumerated by Section 7 their desire to submit their property to the regime established by this Act, there shall be thereby established a condominium regime.

Conveyance and Encumbrance of Individual Apartment

Sec. 4. Once the property is submitted to the condominium regime, an apartment in the project may be individually conveyed and encumbered and may be the subject of ownership, possession or sale and of all types of judicial acts, as if it were entirely independent of the other apartments in the project of which they form a part, and the corresponding individual titles and interests shall be recordable.

Joint or Common Ownership of Apartment

Sec. 5. Any apartment may be jointly or commonly owned by more than one person.

Exclusive Ownership of Apartment; Share in Common Elements of Property

Sec. 6. An apartment owner shall have an exclusive ownership to his apartment and shall have a common right to a share, with other co-owners, in the common elements of the property. Each co-owner may use the elements held in common in accordance with the purpose for which they are intended, as shown on the plat or expressed in the declaration or the by-laws, without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other co-owners.

Condominium Records; Contents of Declaration; Recordation of Instruments

Sec. 7. (A) Every County Clerk shall provide a suitable well-bound book, to be called "Condominium Records" in which will be recorded Master deeds, Master leases, or Declarations.

(B) The declaration provided for in Section 3 shall contain:

(1) The legal description of the land, which description shall be depicted by a plat showing the land involved and the location of each building or proposed building to be located thereon. Each building to be denoted by Letter, viz: A, B, C, etc.

(2) The general description and the number of each apartment, expressing its square footage, location and any other data necessary for its identification, which information will be depicted by a plat of such floor of each building showing also the letter of the building, the number of the floor and the number of the apartment.

(3) The general description of each garage, carport, or any other area to be subject to individual ownership and exclusive control; which information will be depicted by a plat showing such garage, carport, or other area appropriately lettered or numbered.

(4) The description of the general common elements less paragraph (1) above.

(5) The description of the limited common elements.

(6) The fractional or percentage interest which each apartment bears to the entire condominium regime, the sum of which shall be one (1) if expressed in fractions and one hundred (100) if expressed in percentages.

(7) Any further provisions, matters, or covenants desired.

(C) The County Clerk shall record such plats and instruments without the necessity of prior approval by any other authority of whatsoever character.

Common Elements; Partition or Division; Mortgages

Sec. 8. The common elements, both general and limited, shall remain undivided and shall not be the object of an action for partition or division of the co-ownership so long as suitable for a condominium regime, and, in any event, all mortgages must be paid prior to the bringing of an action for partition or the consent of all mortgagees must be obtained. Any covenant to the contrary shall be void.

Deed to Apartment; Contents and Interpretation

Sec. 9. The deed to each apartment shall describe the apartment in accordance with the plat and the fractional or percentage therein conveyed and the plats provided in Section 7 shall be included by reference. The deeds shall also express all encumbrances against the property conveyed. An individual apartment shall not be conveyed separate from the undivided interest in the common elements and visa versa, and any conveyance of an individual apartment shall be deemed to convey also the undivided interest of the owner in the common elements, both general and limited, appertaining to said apartment without specifically or particularly referring to the same. The boundaries of the apartment granted shall be and are the interior surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors, ceilings and the exterior surfaces of balconies and terraces; and the unit includes both the portions of the building so described and the airspace so encompassed, excepting common elements. In interpreting deeds, mortgages, deeds of trust and other instruments, the existing physical boundaries of the apartment or of an apartment reconstructed in substantial accordance with the original plans thereof shall be conclusively presumed to be its boundaries regardless of settling, rising, or lateral movement of the building and regardless of variances between boundaries shown on the plat and those of the building.

Loans as Eligible Investments for Lending Institutions

Sec. 10. Loans on the individual apartments and the undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto are hereby declared to be eligible investments for all banks, savings and loan or building and loan associations, trust companies, life insurance companies and all other lending institutions which will include also administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, which are now or may be hereafter authorized to make real estate loans. For the purpose of such investments, an apartment and the undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto shall be deemed a single unit as if it were entirely independent of the other units in the project of which it forms a part. In determining eligibility the existence of any prior lien for taxes, assessments (including but not limited to those for administration, maintenance and repairs) or other similar charges not yet delinquent shall not be considered in determining whether a mortgage or deed of trust upon such security is a first lien. This section shall not change any provision of law, which would otherwise be applicable, specifying limitation on mortgage investments based upon a special fraction or percentage of the value of the mortgaged property.

Regrouping and Merger of Estates

Sec. 11. All of the co-owners or the sole owner of a building constituted into a condominium regime may waive this regime and request the County Clerk to regroup or merge the records of the filial estates with the principal property, provided, that the filial estates are unencumbered, or, if encumbered, that the creditors in whose behalf the encumbrances are recorded agree to accept as security the undivided portions of the property owned by the debtors. The undivided interest in the property owned in common which shall appertain to each apartment owner shall be the percentage of undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common elements.

Reconstitution of Property into Condominium Regime

Sec. 12. The merger provided for in Section 11 shall in no way bar the subsequent constitution of the property into another condominium regime whenever so desired and upon observance of the provisions of this Act.

Administration of Project; By-Laws; Council of Co-owners

Sec. 13. The administration of every building or buildings constituted into a condominium regime shall be governed by the by-laws approved and adopted by the sole owner or owners or the council of co-owners. The by-laws may be amended from time to time by the council.

Board of Administrators; Account of Receipts and Expenditures; Examination; Audit

Sec. 14. The administrator, or board of administration, or the person appointed by the by-laws of the regime shall keep or cause to be kept a book with a detailed account of the receipts and expenditures affecting the building and its administration and specifying the maintenance and repair expenses of the common elements and any other expenses incurred by or in behalf of the regime. Both the book and vouchers accrediting the entries made thereon shall be available for examination by all the co-owners at convenient hours on working days that shall be set and announced for general knowledge. All books and records shall be kept in accordance with good accounting procedures and be audited at least once a year by an auditor outside of the organization.

Pro-rata Contributions of Co-owners Toward Expenses

Sec. 15. All co-owners are bound to contribute pro-rata toward the expense of administration and of maintenance and repairs of the general common elements, and, in the proper case, of the limited common elements of the building, and toward any other expenses lawfully agreed upon by the council of co-owners. No owner shall be exempt from contributing toward such expenses by waiver of the use of enjoyment of the common elements, either general or limited, or by abandonment of the apartment belonging to him.

Actions on Behalf of Two or More Apartment Owners

Sec. 16. Without limiting the rights of any apartment owner, action may be brought by the administrator or other person designated by the by-laws or council of co-owners, in either case in the discretion of the council of co-owners, on behalf of two (2) or more of the apartment owners, as their respective interests may appear, with respect to any cause of action relating to the common elements of more than one (1) apartment.

Home Exemptions from Property Taxes

Sec. 17. The laws relating to home exemptions from property taxes shall be applicable to the individual apartments, which shall be entitled to home exemptions in those cases where the owner of a single family dwelling would qualify.

Payment of Assessments or Charges upon Sale or Conveyance of Apartment; Preferences

Sec. 18. Upon the sale or conveyance of an apartment, all unpaid assessments against a co-owner for his pro-rata share in the expenses to which Section 15 refers shall first be paid out of the sale price or by the purchaser in preference over any other assessments or charges of whatever nature except the following:

- (a) Assessments, liens, and charges in favor of the state and any political subdivision thereof for taxes past due and unpaid on the apartment; and
- (b) Amounts due under mortgage instruments duly recorded.

Insurance

Sec. 19. The co-owners may, upon resolution of a majority, or if required or provided for in the declaration or the by-laws, insure the building and the owners thereof against risks of whatsoever character without prejudice to the right of each co-owner to insure his apartment on his own account and for his own benefit. Such insurance may be written in the name of the council of co-owners, or any person designated in the by-laws or declaration, as trustee for each apartment owner and each apartment owner's mortgagee, if any. Each co-owner and his mortgagee, if any, shall be a beneficiary, even though not named, in the percentages or fractions established in the declaration.

Application of Insurance Proceeds to Reconstruction of Building

Sec. 20. In case of fire or any other disaster, the insurance indemnity shall, except as provided in the next succeeding paragraph of this section, be applied to reconstruct the building.

Reconstruction shall not be compulsory where it comprises the whole or more than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the building as determined by the council of co-owners. In such case, and unless otherwise unanimately agreed upon by the co-owners, the indemnity shall be delivered pro-rata to the co-owners or their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, entitled to it in accordance with the percentages or fractions set forth in the declaration.

Should it be proper to proceed with the reconstruction, the provisions for such eventuality made in the by-laws shall be observed, or in lieu thereof, the decision of the council of co-owners shall prevail.

Building Costs in Excess of Insurance Proceeds

Sec. 21. Where the insurance indemnity is insufficient to cover the cost of reconstruction and reconstruction is required by Section 20, the building costs in excess of the insurance proceeds shall be paid by all the co-owners directly affected by the damage, in proportion to the percentages or fractions assigned to their respective apartments, or as may be provided by said by-laws; and if any one or more of those composing the minority shall refuse to make such payments the majority may proceed with the reconstruction at the expense of all the co-owners benefited thereby, upon proper resolution setting forth the circumstances of the case and the cost of the work.

The provisions of this section may be changed by unanimous resolution of the parties concerned, adopted subsequent to the date on which the fire or other disaster occurs.

Taxes, Assessments and Charges; Valuation of Apartments; Delinquent Taxes

Sec. 22. Taxes, assessments and other charges of this state, or of any political subdivision, or of any special improvement district, or any other taxing or assessing authority shall be assessed against and collected on each individual apartment, which shall include the garage and its percentage or fractional common elements, each of which shall be carried on the tax books as a separate and distinct entity for that purpose, and not on the building or property as a whole. The valuation of the general and limited common elements shall be assessed separately to each owner in accordance with the fraction or percentage of each owner. There shall be no forfeiture or sale of the building or property as a whole for delinquent taxes, assessments or charges. All assessments, suits and sales shall be of individual apartments, including its garage and its percentage or fractional common elements.

Planning and Zoning Commissions; Supplemental Rules and Regulations

Sec. 23. Whenever they deem it proper, the planning and zoning commission of any county or municipality may adopt supplemental rules and regulations governing a condominium regime established under this Act in order to implement this program; however, local zoning ordinances shall be construed to treat like structures, lots, or parcels in like manner regardless of whether the ownership thereof is divided by sale of condominiums rather than by lease of apartments, offices, stores or industry business.

Conflicting Laws

Sec. 24. Whenever the application of the provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance conflict with the application of other statutory provisions, the provisions or applications of this Act shall prevail for the effective carrying out of the purposes of this Act.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 25. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word of this Act is held to be unconstitutional, the remaining portion of the same, nevertheless shall be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that the Act would have been enacted without such unconstitutional portion.

Art. 1301b. Forfeiture and Acceleration Under Executory Contract for Conveyance; Notice; Avoidance

Sec. 1. A forfeiture of the interest and the acceleration of the indebtedness of a purchaser in default under an executory contract for conveyance of real property used or to be used as the purchaser's residence may be enforced only after notice of seller's intentions to enforce the forfeiture and acceleration has been given to the purchaser and only after the expiration of the periods provided below:

(a) When the purchaser has paid less than 10% of the purchase price, 15 days from the date notice is given.

(b) When the purchaser has paid 10% but less than 20% of the purchase price, 30 days from the date notice is given.

(c) When the purchaser has paid 20%, or more, of the purchase price, 60 days from the date notice is given.

(d) Notice must be by mail or other writing. If by mail, it must be registered or certified and shall be considered given at the time mailed to his residence or place of business, and notification by other writing shall be considered given at the time delivered to the purchaser at his residence or place of business.

(e) Such notice shall be conspicuously set out; shall be printed in 10 point bold face type or upper case typewritten letters; and shall include the following:

NOTICE

YOU ARE LATE IN MAKING YOUR PAYMENT UNDER THE CONTRACT TO BUY YOUR HOME. UNLESS YOU MAKE THE PAYMENT BY (date) THE SELLER HAS THE RIGHT TO TAKE POSSESSION OF YOUR HOME AND TO KEEP ALL PAYMENTS YOU HAVE MADE TO DATE.

Sec. 2. A purchaser in default under an executory contract for the conveyance of real property used or to be used as the purchaser's residence, may at any time prior to expiration of the period provided for in Section 1, avoid the forfeiture of his interest and the acceleration of his indebtedness by complying with the terms of the contract up to the date of compliance notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

Art. 1539. Legislature May Create Counties

The Legislature shall have power to create counties for the convenience of the people.

Art. 1540. Area Required

In the territory of the State exterior to the counties now existing, no new county shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles in a square form unless prevented by pre-existing boundary lines. If the State lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less.

Art. 1541. Division of Exterior Territory

The territory referred to in the preceding article may at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population, and attached for judicial and land surveying purposes to the most convenient organized county.

Art. 1542. Created Out of Other Counties

Within the territory of any county or counties now existing no new county shall be created with less area than seven hundred square miles. No such county now existing shall be reduced to a less area than seven hundred square miles.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1543. Line of New County

No new county shall be created so as to approach nearer than twelve miles of the county seat of any county from which it may, in whole or in part be taken.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1544. County from Existing County

Counties of less area than nine hundred, but of seven hundred or more square miles, within counties now existing, may be created by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals.

Art. 1545. Existing Counties Reduced

Any county now existing may be reduced to an area of not less than seven hundred square miles by a like two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1546. Liability of New County

When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into another county, the part stricken off shall be obligated to pay its proportion of all existing liabilities of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as the law shall provide.

Art. 1547. Pro Rata of Indebtedness

Any county which has been or may hereafter be created by the Legislature out of any other county or counties, shall be held liable for its proportion of all the liabilities of the county or counties from which it was taken, existing at the date of its creation as such new county, according to the proportionate value of the property in the excised territory, and the value of the property remaining in the old county. A suit to recover the same may be brought in the district court by the parent county, either in such parent county, or in the newly created county; and the court shall have power to make any order or render any judgment necessary to carry out and satisfy its decree therein. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any county, the claims against which have already been placed before courts having jurisdiction thereof and tried or dismissed under laws that were at such time constitutional.

Art. 1548. Apportionment of Indebtedness

Where any suit has been, or shall be, brought to enforce payment of the indebtedness created by the parent county or counties, or for the pro rata share of the excised territory, the assessment rolls of the parent county or counties for the year in which such new county was created shall be conclusive evidence of the property and value thereof remaining in the parent county, and in the excised territory at the date of the creation of such new county; provided that when the new county was organized and made assessment rolls for the same year as that in which it was created, such rolls shall be taken as conclusive evidence of the property therein and the taxable values thereof at the date of the creation of such new county, and the assessment rolls of the parent county for the same year shall be conclusive evidence of the property and the value thereof remaining in the parent county at the date of the creation of such new county.

Art. 1549. Suits and Special Tax

All suits brought under this law shall be given precedence upon the dockets of the courts. If the plaintiff shall recover, the commissioners court of the newly created county shall levy a special tax on all property in the territory taken from the plaintiff county sufficient to pay off the judgment, and, if the first levy be insufficient, to make said levy annually till said judgment is satisfied, and the judgment of the court shall order said commissioners court to make such levies.

Art. 1550. Non-residents to Pay

The Comptroller shall assess and collect from the non-residents of unorganized counties such rate of taxation, to pay the pro-rata share of the debt due by such unorganized county, as the commissioners court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt, and a certified statement of the commissioners court making the levy in the parent county, giving the amount of the levy, shall be authority for his action.

Art. 1551. When Territory Added

When the territory taken is added to and made a part of an organized county, the commissioners court of such county shall levy and have collected on all property in such territory a tax sufficient to pay their pro-rata of the indebtedness, said tax not to exceed the constitutional limit; and the commissioners court of the county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes shall levy and have collected on all property in such unorganized county owned or held by resident citizens a tax for the purpose of paying such indebtedness.

Art. 1552. Tax for Pro Rata Indebtedness

When any county has organized, the commissioners court of such county shall levy and have collected on all property in this county such rate of taxation to pay the pro rata share of the debt due by such county as the commissioners court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt.

Art. 1553. County Bonds Held by School Funds

When any new county has been created wholly out of an existing county, if any bonds were legally issued by the parent county prior to the severance of a part of its territory, such of said bonds and the coupons due thereon as are held by the school fund of this State shall be apportioned by the Comptroller between the parent county and the new county on the basis now provided by law.

Art. 1554. Levy of Tax for Debt

The commissioners court of the parent county, or of any county created out of the parent county, which has now or may hereafter be organized, shall levy and have collected on all property in such county a tax to pay such county's pro rata share of the debt. The commissioners court of a county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes shall levy and have collected on all property in said unorganized county owned by resident citizens thereof a tax for the purpose of paying said county's part of the debt. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller to assess and collect on all property in such unorganized counties owned by non-residents, a tax to pay said counties' pro rata part of said debt. Nothing herein shall be held to authorize the levy and collection of any tax in excess of that now allowed by the Constitution of this State.

Art. 1555. Detachment by Vote

No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change has been submitted to a vote of the electors of both counties, and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each.

Art. 1556. Election Ordered

An election for such purpose shall be ordered by the county judge, or county judges of the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach any proportion¹ thereof, or to attach any portion thereto, upon the written application of not less than fifty qualified voters of said county or counties.

¹ So in enrolled bill. Should probably read "portion".

Art. 1557. Application

Such application shall designate particularly by metes and bounds, the portion of the territory proposed to be detached, and shall show the number of square acres contained within said bounds, and the number of square acres remaining in the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach such part or parts, and the distance on a direct line of the county seat of any such county or counties from the nearest boundary line of the territory which it is proposed shall be detached.

Art. 1558. Notices of Election

The notices of such election shall contain substantially the boundaries and statements contained in the application, and in order of election.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1559. Question to be Voted Upon

The question to be voted upon at such election shall be, for or against the proposition, and the ballots shall be, "For the proposition," or "Against the proposition."

Art. 1560. Law Governing Such Elections

Such election shall be governed by the law governing other elections so far as applicable, and not in conflict with any provisions of this chapter.

Art. 1561. Returns of Election

The returns of such election shall be made to the county judge or county judges of the county or counties in which the election takes place; and such judge or judges shall estimate the vote and make duplicate statements of the same, and shall officially certify to such statements, and one of said statements, together with a copy of the application so certified, he shall seal in an envelope, writing his name across the seal, and endorsing upon the package "Election returns of _____ County," and direct and transmit the same by mail or other safe conveyance to the Speaker of the House of Representatives at the seat of government, in time for the same to be received as early as practicable during the next session of the Legislature.

Art. 1562. Subsequent Election

When any such election has been held in a county, and the proposition to detach a portion thereof has been defeated, no other election for the same purpose shall be ordered or held within five years thereafter.

Art. 1563. Old County Shall Organize New One

Whenever any new county shall hereafter be established, the commissioners court of the county from which the territory of such new county, or the greater part thereof was taken, at least one month previous to the general election next after such new county shall have been established shall lay off and divide such new county into convenient precincts for the election of justices of the peace and other precinct officers, defining particularly the boundaries of such precincts; and shall also designate convenient places in such new county where elections shall be held, and shall cause a record thereof to be made by the clerk. A copy thereof shall be transmitted to the county judge of such new county when elected.

Art. 1564. Election to be Ordered When and by Whom

It shall be the duty of the county judge of every county from which any new county has been so taken at least one month previous to the general election of county officers next after such new county has been established, to order an election to be held in such new county or¹ said general election day, for all county officers authorized to be elected by the people of such new county, and to appoint a presiding officer for each place designated in such new county, for holding elections; such order of elections shall specify the number of precincts, their boundaries, and the officers to be elected in such county. Such presiding officers shall hold such elections in accordance with the laws regulating elections, and shall make their returns to the county judge who ordered such election, who shall open and examine such returns and give certificates to the persons elected.

Art. 1565. County Commissioners May Act

In any case where the office of county judge shall be vacant, any two of the county commissioners shall be authorized to perform each duty required of the county judge under this chapter.

Art. 1566. Unorganized County

Until a new county is legally organized, the territory thereof shall remain in all respects subject to the county from which the same has been taken.

Art. 1566a. Appraisers of Taxable Property in Unorganized Counties

Sec. 1. The sum of Two Thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to each of the counties in this State to which an unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, to be used by said county through its Commissioners' Court for the employment of a skilled appraiser, with the consent and approval of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, to assist in the appraisal of taxable property situated in any such unorganized county, of which fund herein provided for, not exceeding One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, shall be available for each calendar year, for each such county, for the years 1927 and 1928.

Sec. 2. After said appraiser has completed his work of the appraisal of the properties in the unorganized county, he shall make a report in duplicate to the Commissioners' Court of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, stating therein in detail the values placed upon all classes of property by him in said unorganized county.

Sec. 3. After the Commissioners' Court has finally passed on the values fixed by said appraiser in his report, they shall certify their action to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, furnishing him with a duplicate of the report filed by the appraiser, and showing the action of the court had thereon, together with a certificate showing the extent of the services performed by the appraiser, and the value thereof, which shall be authority for the Comptroller to draw his warrant in favor of said appraiser for the amount shown to be due.

Art. 1567. Disorganized Counties

All legally organized counties that, from any cause, may have lost, or may hereafter lose, their county organization, shall be, for all judicial and surveying purposes, and for the registration of deeds, mortgages and all other instruments that are now, or may hereafter be, required or permitted by law to be recorded attached to the organized county whose county seat is nearest to the county seat of such disorganized county, and so remain attached until such disorganized county shall again be legally organized.

Art. 1568. Organization of Attached County

When any unorganized or disorganized county has been attached to another county for judicial or other purposes, and desires to be organized or reorganized, a petition expressing such desire, signed by not less than seventy-five qualified voters residing in such county, may be presented to the commissioners court of the county to which such unorganized or disorganized county is attached, and thereupon said court shall proceed without delay to the organization or reorganization of such county in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the organization of new counties.

Art. 1569. Certificates of Election

The county judge of the county conducting the organization of another county shall issue certificates of election to the officers elected in such organized or reorganized county, and approve the bonds of such officers.

Art. 1570. Delivery to New Officers

All officers of the county from which a new county has been created or to which any such newly organized or reorganized county has been attached, and all other persons who may have in their possession any books, records, maps, or other property belonging to such newly organized or reorganized county, shall deliver the same to the proper officers of such newly organized or reorganized county within five days after such officers have been legally qualified.

Art. 1571. Elections in Unorganized Counties

Where a county is not organized and there is no officer in the same authorized by law to organize such county, the county judge of the nearest county which is organized may order elections for county officers in any such county, and appoint the presiding officers and managers and clerks of election.

Art. 1572. County a Body Corporate

Each county which now exists or which may be hereafter established, shall be a body corporate and politic.

Art. 1573. Suits Against

No county shall be sued unless the claim upon which such suit is founded shall have first been presented to the commissioners court for allowance, and such court shall have neglected or refused to audit and allow the same, or any part thereof.

Art. 1574. Jurors

In any suit instituted by or against any county, the inhabitants of the county so suing or being sued may if otherwise competent, be jurors or witnesses.

Art. 1575. Execution Against County

No execution shall be issued on any judgment against any county. When a judgment is rendered against a county the commissioners court of such county shall settle and pay such judgment in like manner and pro rata as other similar claims are settled and paid by said court.

Art. 1576. Validity of Deed, etc.

All deeds, grants and conveyances heretofore or hereafter made and duly acknowledged, or proven, and recorded as other deeds of conveyance, to any county, or to the courts or commissioners of any county, or any other person or persons, by whatever form of conveyance, for the use and benefit of any county, shall be good and valid to vest in such county in fee simple or otherwise all such right, title, interest and estate as the grantor in any such instrument had at the time of the execution thereof in the lands conveyed and was intended thereby to be conveyed.

Art. 1577. Sale or Lease of Real Estate

The Commissioners Court may, by an order to be entered on its minutes, appoint a Commissioner to sell or lease any real estate of the county at public auction, and notice of said public auction shall be advertised at least twenty (20) days before the day of sale, by the officer, by having the notice thereof published in the English language once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks preceding such sale or lease in a newspaper in the county in which the real estate is located and in the county which owns the real estate, if they are not the same. If the real estate is sold, the deed of such Commissioner made in conformity to such order for and in behalf of the county, duly acknowledged and proven and recorded, shall be sufficient to convey to the purchasers all the right, title, and interest and estate which the county may have in and to the premises to be conveyed. Provided, however, that where abandoned seawall or highway right-of-way property is no longer needed for seawall or highway purposes and the county decides to sell or lease said right-of-way property, it shall be sold or leased with the following priorities: (1) to abutting or adjoining landowners; (2) to the original grantor, his heirs or assigns of the original tract from whence said right-of-way was conveyed; (3) for public use only to the United States Government, or to the State of Texas, or to any city within the established limits of which said property is located; or (4) at public auction as provided above; unless in the deed of conveyance under which the county originally acquired title to the property, the sale or lease thereof to the public is restricted or prohibited; provided, however, that where the Commissioners Court determines that the said abandoned seawall or highway right-of-way property shall be sold or leased to an adjoining or abutting landowner, or to the original grantor, his heirs or assigns, then the said Commissioners Court shall in addition to publication of notice of sale as provided above, appoint an appraiser who shall determine and report to the Commissioner of Sale the fair market and fair lease value of the property to be sold or leased, and the Commissioner shall not sell or lease said property for an amount less than that so determined, which said amount shall be reported to the Commissioners Court prior to sale and shall, if deemed reasonable, be approved by them prior to sale, the Commissioners Court being specifically authorized to reject any offers of purchase or sale or lease, whether at public auction or not, if deemed unreasonable, all costs of said sale, including the fee for appraisal, to be added to the price of sale and paid by the purchaser at such sale; provided further, whenever any real property, or interest therein, is owned by any county and is sold, leased, or exchanged hereunder and is being used by a public utility or common carrier having the right of eminent domain for right-of-way and easement purposes, the sale, lease, exchange, conveyance and surrender of possession herein provided for shall be and remain in all things subject to the right and continued use of such public utility or common carrier. The Commissioners Court may also provide for conveyance of any such real estate of the county subject to such restrictions, conditions, and limitations as the Commissioners Court may deem necessary or proper; however, every such conveyance of seawall right-of-way property shall contain a restriction that no structure may be placed within 50 feet or such greater distance as the Commissioners Court may provide of the landward boundary of the seawall right-of-way retained by the county. In the order and in the notice of public auction, the Commissioners Court shall give a substantial statement of any such restrictions, conditions, and limitations. Nothing contained in this Article shall authorize any Commissioners Court to dispose of any lands given, donated, or granted to such county for the purpose of education in any other manner than shall be directed by law.

Art. 1577a. Validation of Sales When Commissioner Not Appointed

In all cases wherein the Commissioners Court of any county, acting as such court or through some individual or individuals appointed by it for such purpose, has sold, or attempted to sell, any land, or interests in land, belonging to such county; and where such Commissioners Court shall have failed to appoint a Commissioner to sell and dispose of such real estate belonging to said county, at public auction; and where such Commissioners Court gave notice of its intention to sell such lands, describing the same, by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county, having a general circulation therein, once a week for a period of three (3) consecutive weeks, designating the time and place after such publication where such Commissioners Court would receive and consider bids for the same; and where, on the date specified in such notice, such Commissioners Court received and considered any and all bids submitted for the purchase of said lands, or any portion thereof which were advertised for sale; and where such Commissioners Court, in its discretion, awarded such land, or any part thereof to the highest bidder submitting a bid therefor; and where the consideration thus bid and accepted was received by such county; and where such Commissioners Court or some person or persons thereunto authorized by order of such Commissioners Court, made, executed, acknowledged and delivered to such successful bidder a deed or other instrument of conveyance purporting to convey to such purchaser the said property; and where more than three years have elapsed since the date of the execution and delivery of such deed or instrument of conveyance: that such sales and conveyances, or attempted sales and conveyances, are hereby in all things validated. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as validating any sale or attempted sale of any lands given, donated or granted to such county for the purpose of education, made in any other manner than is directed by law; and provided further, that this Act shall not apply to any sale or conveyance the validity of which is involved in any litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 1577b. Validation of Sales and Conveyances; Purchasers in Adverse Possession

In all cases where the County Court or Commissioners Court in any county of this State acting as such court has sold or attempted to sell land or interest therein belonging to said County to any person, firm or corporation and where the County Court or Commissioners Court has made, executed, acknowledged, and delivered to any such person, firm or corporation an instrument of conveyance purporting to convey to a purchaser title to such property, and where such purchaser or his successors have held peaceable and adverse possession, using, enjoying and cultivating such property for a period of ten (10) years or more, then such sales, attempted sales and conveyances are hereby validated.

Art. 1577c. Validation of Sales or Conveyances of Abandoned Right-of-Way Property

Sec. 1. In all cases where the Commissioners Court in any county of this State has sold or conveyed or attempted to sell or convey, in accordance with the provisions of and priorities established in Article 1577, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as last amended by Chapter 133, page 447, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, the right, title and interest of any such county in and to abandoned right-of-way property no longer needed for highway or road purposes, such sales or conveyances and attempted sales and conveyances hereby are in all things validated and the right, title and interest in such abandoned right-of-way property conveyed by any such county hereby are confirmed in the grantee in such sale or conveyance.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not apply to any sale or conveyance or attempted sale or conveyance the validity of which is involved in litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 1578. Contracts with a County Valid

Any note, bond, bill, contract, covenant, agreement or writing, made or to be made, whereby any person is or shall be bound to any county, or to the court or commissioners of any county, or to any other person or persons, in whatever form, for the payment of any debt or duty or the performance of any matter or thing to the use of any county, shall be valid and effectual to vest in said county any right, interest and action which would be vested in any person if any such contract had been made directly with him.

Art. 1578a. Contracts with United States for Improvements in Counties of 240,000 to 250,000

Sec. 1. Any county in this State is authorized and empowered, within the discretion of its governing body, to contract with the United States Government, or its agencies, for the joint construction or improvement of roads, bridges, or other county improvements, and for the maintenance of the same, and to pay the county's portion of such expense out of available county funds.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall apply only to counties having a population in excess of 240,000 inhabitants and less than 250,000 inhabitants, according to the latest preceding or any future federal census.

Art. 1579. Suits on Writings by County

Suits may be begun and prosecuted on such notes, bonds, bills, contracts, covenants, agreements, and writings, in the name of such county, or in the name of the person to whom they were made, for the use of the county, as fully and as effectually as any person may or can sue on like instruments made to him.

Art. 1580. Agents to Contract for County

The commissioners court may appoint an agent or agents to make any contract on behalf of the county for the erection or repairing of any county buildings, and to superintend their erection or repairing, or for any other purpose authorized by law. The contract or acts of such agent or agents, duly executed and done, for and on behalf of the county, and within his or their powers, shall be valid and effectual to bind such county to all intents and purposes.

Art. 1581. Costs in Suit Against County

When the plaintiff in any suit against a county shall fail to recover a greater amount than the commissioners court of such county shall have allowed to such plaintiff on the presentation of his claim to such court, such plaintiff shall pay all costs of such suit.

Art. 1581a. Ineffective

This article, derived from Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 784, ch. 232, which related to adoption of county home rule charters and which was adopted in anticipation of the amendment to Const. art. IX, section 3 (adopted Aug. 26, 1933) providing for County Home Rule, was made ineffective by Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., 1st C.S. p. 249, ch. 91, § 21, set out as article 1606a § 21, which provides that this article shall not have effect after the instant at which this Act (article 1606a) may be in effect, but all procedures taken thereunder (relating to the formulation, circulation, presentation and prosecution of petitions, including all orders and notices of commissioners courts relative to such petition conventions held or other acts done) hereby are validated, to the same effect as though the same has been done hereunder.

Art. 1581b. Additional Law Enforcement Officers

Sec. 1. In all counties in this state having five thousand (5,000) or more cattle, sheep and goats rendered for taxation, such counties may employ certain additional law enforcement officers as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. To aid in the enforcement of all penal laws of this state, and ferreting out and detecting any violation thereof, the Commissioners Court of counties having five thousand (5,000) or more cattle, sheep, and goats rendered for taxation may, if they deem it necessary, and are hereby authorized to, employ in addition to the officers now provided for by law as many other competent and discreet persons as in the judgment of said court is necessary, and shall fix the compensation; provided, however, no such person, or persons, shall be paid in excess of Five ($5.00) Dollars per day, while in actual service. Such court shall designate the duties to be performed by all such persons and shall require them to make monthly reports in writing to said court as to the manner in which they have performed such duties.

Sec. 3. If the Commissioners Court of several counties shall determine that it would be more economical and efficient to employ one or more men to serve the several counties, they may do so; provided, however, that the individual or individuals employed shall receive the compensation set out in Section 2 of this Act and that the salary and expenses of such officer or officers shall be pro-rated among the counties.

Art. 1581b-1. Personal Injury Claims by Precinct and County Law Enforcement Officials; Subrogation by County

A county which has paid medical expenses, doctor bills, hospital bills, or salary for a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, deputy constable or other county or precinct law enforcement official under the provisions of Article III, Section 52e, Constitution of the State of Texas, shall be subrogated to the law enforcement official's right of recovery for personal injuries occasioned by the negligence or wrong of another to the extent of the amount of payments made by the county under Article III, Section 52e, Constitution of the State of Texas. The fact that the law enforcement official has a claim for damages for personal injuries is not a ground for the county to deny the payment of medical expenses, doctor bills, and hospital bills.

Art. 1581c. Relinquishing to Donors Lands Donated to County for County Purposes

Sec. 1. Commissioners Courts of the respective counties in this State are authorized and empowered to abandon and relinquish to the donors of such lands and their successors in the title, all lands donated to their county for county seats, courthouses and other county purposes, in all cases where such land has been abandoned and not used for more than forty (40) years for the purpose of such donation, at the date of the order of such Court abandoning and relinquishing the same, provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply unless it is shown that such donors and their successors in title have been in actual continuous, open, peaceful and adverse possession of such lands for a period of forty (40) years next preceding the order of such court abandoning, relinquishing or conveying of such realty by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 2. All orders and judgments of the respective Commissioners Courts in this State abandoning or conveying or relinquishing lands which had been conveyed to their respective counties for county seat, courthouse or other county purpose, heretofore made, in cases where such land has not been used for the purpose of its donation for more than forty (40) years are hereby validated.

Sec. 3. Commissioners Courts of the respective counties in this State are authorized and empowered to reconvey and relinquish to the donors of such land, or to their successors in the title, all lands which were donated and conveyed to any such counties for county seat, county court, or other county purposes, which lands have been or may be abandoned and unused for such county purpose for a period of more than forty (40) years, as for failure of consideration of such grant to any such county.

Art. 1581d. Airports; Counties of 6141 to 6150 Inhabitants

Sec. 1. All counties in this State having a population of not less than six thousand one hundred forty-one (6,141) and not more than six thousand one hundred fifty (6,150) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, and having an assessed valuation of not less than Twenty-one Million ($21,000,000.00) Dollars according to the last approved tax rolls, are hereby authorized to acquire by purchase or otherwise an airport not to exceed six hundred forty (640) acres in area to be located not more than five (5) miles from the heaviest populated area in the county.

Sec. 2. Each county acquiring land to be used for an airport under the provisions of this Act may acquire such land to be used for airport purposes without the acquisition of any or all mineral interest thereunder.

Sec. 3. No airport acquired under this Act shall be located on any land which is owned by the State of Texas or in which the State of Texas has any interest, mineral or otherwise.

Sec. 4. If any provision of this Act shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions; and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted such remaining portion despite such invalidity. [Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 611, ch. 326.]

Art. 1581d-1. Airstrips; Counties of 18,200 to 18,600

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply in any county having a population of not less than eighteen thousand, two hundred (18,200) nor more than eighteen thousand, six hundred (18,600), according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, the term "airstrip" means any area of land or water used, or intended for use, for the landing and take-off of aircraft, and any appurtenant area used, or intended for use, for airport buildings, or other airport facilities, or rights-of-way.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court, in any county to which this Act applies, may authorize the use of equipment, machinery, and employees of the county to construct, establish, and maintain any public airstrip in such county. The cost of the use of equipment, machinery, and employees of the county as herein authorized shall be financed out of appropriate county funds.

Art. 1581e. Flood Control, Powers Respecting

Sec. 1. All counties in this State shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn and acquire real property and easements and right-of-ways over and through all public and private lands for the making and digging of canals, drains, levees and improvements in the county for flood control purposes and for drainage as related to flood control, and for providing necessary outlets for waters in such counties. No appeal from the finding and assessment of damages by the Special Commissioners appointed for that purpose shall suspend the work for which the land, right-of-way, easement, or other property is acquired. Where, in the judgment of the Commissioners Court, the acquisition of the fee in the land is necessary, condemnation of the fee title may be had; provided, however, that the counties shall not have authority to condemn the fee of, as distinguished from an easement or right-of-way over, across or upon, any property lawfully used or occupied by any public utility, railroad, canal, levee or other person, concern, corporation or body politic devoting its property to a public use.

Sec. 2. The proceedings with respect to condemning lands or interests therein, or other property, for the uses above specified shall be controlled by the statutes regulating such proceedings by counties in other cases, as provided in Article 3264, Revised Statutes of Texas, 1925, et seq.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of any county in this State may contract and agree with any other county, political subdivision, governmental unit, or municipal corporation for the joint acquisition of right-of-ways, or joint construction or maintenance of canals, drains, levees and other improvements for flood control, and drainage as related to flood control, and for making necessary outlets, and maintaining them. Such contracts shall contain such terms, provisions and details as the governing bodies of the respective political subdivisions shall determine to be necessary under all of the facts and circumstances, and may provide that such works may be maintained jointly, or by either one (1) of such political subdivisions, under its exclusive direction and control, with such contributions toward the expense of such maintenance as the other county or political subdivision may agree to make.

Sec. 3a. Where, in the opinion of the Court, it becomes necessary to condemn an easement, as against persons who also have the power of eminent domain, all expenses involved in the acquisition, construction, and maintenance of the flood control or drainage project shall be the obligation of the county, flood control district or drainage district, as the case may be. [Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 759, ch. 407.]

Art. 1581e-1. Flood Insurance; Participation in Federal Program by Gulf Coast Counties; Control of Flood Damage

Sec. 1. The State of Texas recognizes the personal hardships and economic distress caused by flood disasters since it has become uneconomical for the private insurance industry alone to make flood insurance available to those in need of such protection on reasonable terms and conditions. Recognizing the burden on the nation's resources, Congress enacted the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968,¹ whereby flood insurance can be made available through coordinated efforts of the Federal Government and the private insurance industry, by pooling risks, and through the positive cooperation of state and local government. The purpose of this Act is to evidence a positive interest in securing flood insurance coverage under this Federal program, and to so procure for those citizens of Texas desiring to participate; and to promote the public interest by providing appropriate protection against the perils of flood losses and encouraging sound land use by minimizing exposure of property to flood losses.

Sec. 2. Any county bordering on the Gulf of Mexico or the tidewater limits thereof may determine and describe the boundaries of flood, or rising water prone, areas. The suitability of such determination shall be conclusively established when the commissioners court of such county shall have made a finding in a resolution passed by it that an area or areas located within the boundaries of such county are flood, or rising water prone, areas.

Sec. 3. For the purposes of this Act, the phrase, "flood, or rising water prone, area" shall mean an area that is subject to or exposed to flooding by the Gulf of Mexico or its tidal waters, including lakes, bays, inlets, and lagoons, which results in damage to land or property.

Sec. 4. The commissioners court of any such county shall have the power and authority to enact and enforce regulations which regulate, restrict, or control the management and use of land, structures, and other development in flood, or rising water prone, areas in such a manner as to reduce the danger of damage caused by flood losses. This power and authority may include, but shall not be limited to, requirements for flood-proofing of structures which are permitted to remain in, or be constructed in, flood or rising water prone, areas; regulations concerning minimum elevation of any structure permitted to be erected in, or improved in, such areas; specifications for drainage; and any other action which is feasible to minimize flooding and rising water damage.

Art. 1581f. Payment for Relocation of Water Lines Owned by Water Control and Improvement Districts

The counties of the State of Texas are hereby authorized to pay for the relocation of water lines owned by water control and improvement districts when such relocation is necessary to complete the construction or improvement of Farm-to-Market Roads as defined by Subsection 4-b of Article XX of Chapter 184, Acts of the Forty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended,¹ provided the water control and improvement district which owns the water lines to be relocated agrees to repay the county for the cost of relocating the water lines within twenty (20) years with interest thereon at a rate equal to that paid by the county on their Road and Bridge Fund time warrants.

Art. 1581g. County Industrial Commission in Counties of 75,700 to 80,000 and 150,000 to 170,000

The County Judge of any county having a population of more than 75,700 and less than 80,000, or of more than 150,000 and less than 170,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may appoint a County Industrial Commission to consist of at least seven residents of the county who have exhibited interest in the industrial development of the county to serve for a term of two (2) years. The county is hereby authorized to pay the necessary expenses of such Commission. Such Commission shall investigate, study and undertake ways and means of promoting and encouraging the prosperous development of business, industry and commerce within said county. Such Commission shall promote and encourage the location and development of new businesses and industries in such county as well as the maintenance and expansion of existing businesses. Such Commission shall cooperate with, and utilize the services of, the Texas Industrial Commission. The data obtained shall be available to the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1581g-1. County Industrial Commissions in Certain Counties

The county judge of any county having a population of not less than 10,300 nor more than 10,372, or not less than 19,800 nor more than 20,150, or not less than 17,299 nor more than 17,325, or not less than 14,350 nor more than 14,400, according to the last preceding federal census, may appoint a County Industrial Commission to consist of at least seven residents of the county and who are currently serving or have served in the past on the Industrial Foundation Committee, Commissioners Court, City Council or school boards, who have exhibited interest in the industrial development of the county to serve for a term of two years. The county is hereby authorized to pay the necessary expenses of such commission. Such commission shall investigate, study, and undertake ways and means of promoting and encouraging the prosperous development of business, industry, and commerce within said county. Such Commission shall promote and encourage the location and development of new businesses and industries in such county as well as the maintenance and expansion of existing businesses. Such commission shall cooperate with, and utilize the services of, the Texas Industrial Commission. The data obtained shall be available to the commissioners court.

Art. 1582. Survey Made

Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the county court of any county, or notice shall be given such court by the Land Commissioner that the boundary or any part thereof, of the county is not sufficiently definite and well defined, such court shall appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor, whose duty it shall be to ascertain by actual survey the boundary, or any part thereof, of said county, and to make and establish the lines and corners in the manner herein prescribed. The court, in the order making the appointment, shall specify the line or lines to be run, and the corners to be established and marked; and shall in all things conform to the law defining the boundaries of said county.

Art. 1583. Marking Boundary

The initial corners of the surveys herein provided for shall be designated by posts, mounds or stone monuments; the posts shall be of hewn cedar, cypress or bois d'arc, at least eight inches in diameter, five feet long, and set in the ground not less than three feet; the mounds shall be of stone when practicable, otherwise of earth, and not less than two feet high; at the end of each mile in said boundary a like post, mound or stone monument shall be established; the initial corners shall be described on the post or monument established there.

Art. 1584. Natural Objects

In the field notes of the survey of the lines ordered to be run, the surveyor shall give accurate description of all prominent natural objects crossed by, or adjacent to said lines, as well as of the corners and lines of surveys on or near said boundaries.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1585. Notice to Other Counties

The court making such order shall cause a copy thereof to be sent to the county courts of the counties interested in such boundary, stating the time and place, which time shall not be later than twenty days after the meeting of the county court of the county notified, for the commencement of the survey; and such notice shall be given at least ten days before the meeting of said county court; and the court so notified shall appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor to proceed at the time and place to assist in running and establishing such line.

Art. 1586. Oath and Bond of Surveyors

Such surveyors shall take the oath of office prescribed by law for county surveyors, and shall, before entering upon the duties herein prescribed, enter into bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with two or more sureties to be approved by the county judge, payable to the county judge or his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty.

Art. 1587. Return and Record of Field Notes

When the line shall have been surveyed and marked as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the surveyor to make due return of the field notes and map to the county court; which field notes and map shall be recorded by the clerk, and a certified copy thereof returned to the general land office.

Art. 1588. Absence of Surveyor

If either of the surveyors appointed to run and mark such line shall fail to attend at the time and place appointed, the one in attendance shall proceed alone to perform the duties assigned and make his report to the county court of the county employing him, which being approved by such court, shall be recorded as evidence of the line in question. The line so surveyed and marked shall thereafter be regarded as the true boundary line between the counties.

Art. 1589. Land Commissioner to Direct Survey

If the surveyors above provided for fail to agree as to the true boundary line between their respective counties, the facts of such disagreement, with a full statement of the questions at issue between them, shall be by them reported to the Land Commissioner, who shall examine the disputed matter at once; and from such data as the maps and archives of his office furnish, shall designate to such surveyors the line to be run stating at what specific point they shall begin and to what specific point they shall run, adhering as nearly as possible to the line designated in the act creating such county line, which instructions shall be authority for said surveyors to run such line. The line so run as above directed shall thereafter be the true dividing line between said counties.

Art. 1590. Division of Expense

The expense of surveying and marking such line shall be divided between the counties interested, in proportion to the frontage of each county upon the line, and paid for by each county as proportioned. The surveyors appointed as herein provided shall receive for their services three dollars per mile for each mile run. The expense of establishing the posts, mounds, or stone monuments shall be paid by the counties interested, and they shall be erected under the supervision and direction of the surveyor.

Art. 1591. Suit to Establish Boundary

Notwithstanding any preceding article of this chapter, any county in this State may bring suit against any adjoining county or counties, for the purpose of establishing the boundary line between them. Such suit shall be brought in the district court of the county in an adjoining judicial district whose boundaries are not affected by the suit, and whose county seat is nearest the county seat of the county suing. Said court shall try said cause as other causes, and shall have jurisdiction to determine where such boundary line is located, and, if necessary, shall order the same to be re-marked and resurveyed. If, in the trial of any such cause, it is found that the boundary line between the counties involved has never been established and marked, or if marked has become indefinite and undefined, said court shall have power to re-establish the same and order it marked. Any boundary line so established by such judgment shall thereafter be regarded as the true boundary line between the counties in question; provided, that if it shall be found in any such cause that the boundary line in question has been heretofore established under the law then in force, the same shall be declared to be the true line, and shall be resurveyed and established as such.

Art. 1592. Marking Line on Map

It shall be unlawful for the Land Commissioner to mark, fix or place on any of the maps in said office any contested county line at any definite point thereon, until a certified copy of the final judgment of the court is filed in the General Land Office, together with a certified copy of the field notes of the line so established by such judgment.

Art. 1592a. Gulfward Boundary Lines of Counties Bordering on Gulf

Sec. 1. The gulfward boundary lines of all of the counties of this state bordering on the coast line of the Gulf of Mexico are hereby fixed and declared to be the continental shelf in the Gulf of Mexico.

Sec. 2. The Commissioner of the General Land Office is hereby authorized and directed to have the area between the coast line of the Gulf of Mexico and the continental shelf compiled and platted, and fix and locate the boundary lines between the several coastal counties from the coast line to the continental shelf. The boundary lines from the coast line to the continental shelf between the counties shall be fixed and located by the Commissioner of the General Land Office in accordance with established engineering practice. The legal description of the boundary lines as fixed between the counties from the coast line to the continental shelf shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county affected thereby.

Sec. 3. All of the areas within the extended boundaries of said counties as provided in this Act shall become a part of the Public Free School Lands and Domain and shall be subject to the Constitutional and Statutory provisions of this state pertaining to the use, distribution, sale and lease of Public Free School Lands of this state.

Sec. 4. If any section, provision, or part whatsoever of this Act should be held to be void as in violation of the Constitution, it shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof, it being the express intention that the Legislature would have passed the bill without the presence of the section or part thereof to be invalid.

Art. 1593. Election for County Seats

In the organization of any county or counties now existing, or hereafter created by the Legislature, it shall be the duty of the county judge holding the election in such county for county officers thereof to order an election for the location of a county seat therein, which shall be conducted in the same manner as that regulating the election of the officers of such new county. The place receiving a majority of all the votes cast by the electors voting on the location of such county seat shall thereafter be the county seat of such county, subject to be removed as other county seats. When any county has been organized, and no county seat has been located, the county judge of such county shall order an election for the location of a county seat.

Art. 1594. Vote Necessary

No county seat first established in a newly organized county shall be located at any point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county in this State, unless by a two-thirds vote of all the electors voting on the subject in said county.

Art. 1595. Election for Removal of

No county seat situated within five miles of the geographical center of any county shall be removed except by a vote of two-thirds of all the electors in said county voting on the subject; nor shall any county seat be removed from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county to any other point more than five miles from such center, nor from a point within five miles of the geographical center to any other point within five miles of such center, except by a two-thirds vote of all the electors in said county voting on the subject. No person shall be allowed to vote except he be a bona fide citizen of the county in which he offers to vote. A majority of said electors, however, voting at such election may remove a county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of the county to a point within five miles of such center; in either event the center to be determined by a certificate from the Land Commissioner.

Art. 1596. Proceedings for Removal of County Seat

When it becomes desirable to remove the county seat of any county, the county judge of said county, upon the written application of not less than one hundred freeholders and qualified voters, who are resident citizens of said county shall make a written order upon the minutes of said commissioners court for the holding of an election at various voting precincts in said county on a day therein named, which shall not be less than thirty nor more than sixty days from date of order, for the purpose of submitting the question to the electors of said county. When a county seat has been established for more than ten years, it shall require two hundred freeholders and qualified voters to make said application. In counties having less than three hundred and fifty legal voters, to be determined by the number of votes cast at the last preceding general election such application may be made by one hundred resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county. When a county seat has been established for more than forty years, it shall require a majority of the resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county to make the application, said majority to be ascertained by the county judge from the assessment rolls thereof. In counties having not more than 150 qualified voters, such application shall be held sufficient when it shall have been signed by a majority of the resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county, said majority to be ascertained by the county judge from the assessment rolls thereof. In the event of the failure, refusal or inability of the county judge to perform any duty imposed upon him by this article such duty may be performed by any two county commissioners of the county.

Art. 1597. Geographical Center

The Land Commissioner, upon being notified by the county judge that a proposition is submitted to the people of his county, or that it is desirable on the part of the people thereof, that the center of such county shall be designated, preliminary to the removal of any county seat, shall from the maps, surveys and other data on file in his office, designate the center of such county, and shall certify the same to such county judge, who shall cause the same to be spread upon the records of deeds of his county.

Art. 1598. Who May Vote and Form of Ballot

All persons who are qualified voters under the Constitution and laws of the State shall be entitled to vote at said election. On each ticket, the voter shall write or cause to be written or printed: "For removal to" (inserting the name of the place); or, should the voter be in favor of the county seat remaining where it is, he shall write or cause to be written or printed on his ticket: "For remaining at" (inserting the name of the place.)

Art. 1599. Election

The county judge or commissioners shall order said election in each voting precinct in said county, which shall be conducted as near as may be, as elections for county officers. The officers holding the elections shall make return thereof to the authority ordering said election within ten days after the same was held, who shall then proceed to open said returns and count the same, and declare the result, which shall be entered upon the records of said commissioners court, and shall also state the name of the place from which, and the name of the place to which, the same is removed. A certified copy of such entry shall thereupon be recorded in the proper record deeds of such county.

Art. 1600. County Seats Removed, When

When such entry has been made, the county seat, if the election be held to move the county seat from a point within five miles of the geographical center, to a point more or less than five miles from the geographical center, or from a point more than five miles from the geographical center, to any other point more than five miles from such center, shall be removed to the place receiving the votes of two-thirds of all the electors voting on the subject; and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county. If the election be held to move the county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center to a point within five miles of such center, then the county seat shall be moved to the place receiving a majority of all the electors in the county voting at such election, and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county.

Art. 1601. Subsequent Election

Whenever an election for the location or removal of a county seat has been voted on by the electors of any county, and the question settled, it shall not be lawful for a like application to be made for the same purpose within ten (10) years thereafter. Provided that an application may be made and an election held to remove the county seat from a location more than five (5) miles from a railroad operating as a common carrier, to a location on a railroad within two (2) years thereafter; and further provided that no county seat of any county in the State of Texas shall be moved from its present location until all bonds, warrants, and evidence of debt of every kind, character, and description issued by said county and incurred for the construction of existing courthouse or courthouses, shall have been paid in full provided that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to counties where the county seat is at the time of the passage of this Act located more than fifteen (15) miles air-line from a railroad.

Art. 1602. Courts Shall Hold at Seat

All terms of the district, county and commissioners court shall be held at the county seat.

Art. 1603. Buildings to be Provided

The county commissioners court of each county, as soon as practicable after the establishment of a county seat, or after its removal from one place to another, shall provide a court house and jail for the county, and offices for county officers at such county seat and keep the same in good repair.

Art. 1604. Place of Holding Court

Until the county seats of new counties are established, as required under this chapter, the courts of such new counties shall be held at such place as may be appointed by the commissioners court of such county.

Art. 1605. Location of Offices

The County Judge, Sheriff, Clerks of the District and of the County Courts, County Treasurer, Assessor and Collector of Taxes, County Surveyor and County Attorney of the several counties of this State, shall keep their offices at the county seats of their respective counties; provided, however, that in all counties having a city or cities, other than the county seats, within their boundaries, having a population of five thousand (5,000) and over, and in counties of over three hundred fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last Federal Census, the Assessor and Collector of Taxes when authorized by order of the Commissioners Court may maintain a branch office in said city or cities, and may appoint one or more Deputies for said offices, and the salaries to be paid said Deputies together with the office rent and other expenses incidental to maintaining said offices shall be considered as a part of the necessary expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes and shall be paid in the manner now provided by law for the payment of the expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes; and provided further that in all counties having a population of more than seventy thousand (70,000), according to the last Federal Census, and containing one or more cities or towns, other than the county seat, which has in excess of one thousand (1,000) inhabitants, according to the last Federal Census, said Tax Assessor and Collector with the consent and approval of the Commissioners Court may maintain a branch office and may appoint a Deputy Tax Collector in each such town or city, who shall have the right to collect taxes from all persons who desire to pay their taxes to him, and to issue a valid receipt therefor. Such Deputy shall enter into such bond, payable to the County Judge of the County, as the Tax Assessor and Collector and Commissioners Court of the county may require. The period of time such branch offices shall be maintained, and the salary of such Deputy Collector and the period of time he shall hold such office shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and such Deputy Collector shall be subject to all of the terms and provisions of the law relating to Deputy Tax Collectors. The Tax Collector shall remain liable on his bonds for all taxes collected by such Deputy, and nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation on the liability of the bonds of either the Tax Collector or such Deputy. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as making it mandatory upon the Assessor and Collector of Taxes and the Commissioners Courts of such counties to maintain such branch offices and appoint such Deputies, but the establishment of such branch offices and the appointment shall wholly be within the discretion of the Commissioners Courts of such counties. When such branch office or offices are established and a Deputy or Deputies are appointed hereunder, the salary or salaries to be paid and expense necessary to maintain said office or offices shall be considered as a part of the necessary expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, and shall be paid as now provided by law for the payment of the expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes.

Art. 1605a. Branch Office Buildings in Counties Having City of 20,000 Outside County Seat

Sec. 1. In all counties having a city or cities other than the county seat within their boundaries, of a population of twenty thousand (20,000) and over, according to the last Federal Census, the Commissioners Court of each said county shall have the power and authority to provide, maintain, and repair an office building and/or jail in the same manner as such Commissioners Court may now provide for and maintain a courthouse and jail at the county seat, and upon the acquisition or construction of such office building, the Commissioners Court may authorize, in the same manner as authorized by Article 1605, the maintaining of branch offices in each of said cities, except the District Clerk, County and District Judges, County Clerk, and County Treasurer, provided that all officers shall keep all original records at the county seat, and deputies may be provided as authorized in Article 1605. The Commissioners Court shall have the care and custody of such buildings and may place such limitations as it may see fit on the authorization and maintenance of branch offices.

Sec. 2. Said office building and/or jail may be provided for, maintained and repaired by the issuance of bonds as is provided by Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, and all amendments thereto,¹ or to provide, maintain, and repair the same through the issuance of evidences of indebtedness in the same manner as courthouses and jails at the county seats, and the taxes may be levied therefor in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as for courthouses and jails at the county seat; provided, however, that no such office building and/or jail shall cost more than Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000).

Sec. 3. All acts of the Commissioners Court in any such county ordering an election or elections on the question of the issuance of bonds for the purpose of purchasing a site and erecting and equipping an office building for county officers and a jail in any city other than the county seat of such county, declaring the result of such election or elections, in levying taxes therefor, and all bonds issued and now outstanding, and all bonds heretofore voted for such purpose but not yet issued, are in all things confirmed, approved and validated. The fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act of the Commissioners Court or other county official was omitted in ordering an election or elections, or in declaring the result thereof, or in levying the tax for such bonds, shall in no way invalidate any of such proceedings or any bonds heretofore issued or that have heretofore been voted but not yet issued, but the same shall in all things and respects be deemed valid.

Art. 1605a-1. Branch Office Buildings in Counties of Over 110,000 Having City of Over 10,000 Outside County Seat

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply only to those counties which may now or hereafter have a population in excess of 110,000, and which county, at the same time, contains one or more incorporated cities whose area is not contiguous to the county seat, which have a population in excess of 10,000.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any county to which this Act applies is hereby authorized to acquire land for and to purchase, construct, repair, equip and improve buildings and other permanent improvements to be used as a county branch office building; provided that such building may not be located at the county seat or in a city contiguous to the county seat, nor shall such building be constructed in any city having a population of less than 10,000.

Sec. 3. To pay the costs of acquiring land for and of purchasing, constructing, repairing, equipping and improving such buildings and other permanent improvements, the Commissioners Court of each county to which this Act applies is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the county and to levy and collect taxes in payment of either of such obligations out of the permanent improvement fund. The certificates or bonds shall be authorized by an order of the Commissioners Court, shall mature in not exceeding 40 years, shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent per annum which interest shall be evidenced by coupons attached to the bonds or certificates. They shall be signed by the County Judge, attested by the County Clerk and registered by the County Treasurer. The certificates or bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this Act, and the records relating to their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Texas, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts; and after they have been approved and registered and delivered to the purchaser, they shall be incontestable. Such obligations shall be fully negotiable and are hereby declared to be negotiable instruments.

Sec. 4. Any bonds authorized under the provisions of this Act may be issued only upon compliance with Chapter I of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, governing the issuance of bonds by political subdivisions. Certificates of indebtedness authorized under the provisions of this Act may be issued only if a notice of intention to issue the certificates is given in the manner provided by Section 2 of Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931 (Bond and Warrant Law of 1931),¹ and no petition is presented in the manner prescribed by Section 4 of that Act² or the result of the election called under said Section 4 permits the issuance of the certificates.

Sec. 5. It is the purpose and intent of this Act to permit the construction of a county branch office building in cities other than the county seat where the administration of the affairs of the county will not be impaired and where the acquisition of such office space can be located in a city whose population is sufficient to justify the establishment of such facilities. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as permitting a branch office to be established away from the county seat if other provisions of the laws in force and effect prohibit such establishment. The provisions of this Act shall be construed to accomplish this purpose and should any sentence, clause, paragraph or portion of this law be construed as in contravention of the constitution, its invalidity shall not affect the remainder of the provisions of the Act.

Art. 1605a-2. Office Buildings Outside County Seat in Counties of 22,400 to 22,600

Sec. 1. In all counties having a population of more than 22,400 but less than 22,600, according to the last preceding federal census, the Commissioners Court of each said county shall have the power and authority to construct, operate and maintain an office building and/or jail at a city other than the county seat in the same manner as such Commissioners Court may not provide for and maintain a court house and jail at the county seat. The Commissioners Court may authorize the maintenance of a branch office of the county tax assessor and collector, a jail, and a justice court in such buildings. However, all county officers shall keep all original records at the county seat. The Commissioners Court shall have the care and custody of such buildings and may place such limitations as it may see fit on the authorization and maintenance of such facilities. When authorized to maintain such branch office, the assessor and collector of taxes may appoint one or more deputies for said offices. The expenses incidental to maintaining said facilities shall be considered as a part of the necessary expenses of the county. Said deputy assessor-collectors shall have the right to collect taxes from all persons who desire to pay their taxes to them, and to issue a valid receipt therefor. Such deputy shall enter into such bond, payable to the County Judge of the county, as the tax assessor and collector and Commissioners Court of the county may require. The period of time such branch offices shall be maintained, and the salary of such deputy collector and the period of time he shall hold such office shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and such deputy collector shall be subject to all of the terms and provisions of the law relating to deputy tax collectors. The tax collectors shall remain liable on his bonds for all taxes collected by such deputy, and nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation on the liability of the bonds of either the tax collector or such deputy. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as making it mandatory upon the assessor and collector of taxes and the Commissioners Courts of such counties to maintain such branch offices and appoint such deputies, but the establishment of such branch offices and the appointment shall wholly be within the discretion of the Commissioners Courts of such counties. When such branch office or offices are established and a deputy or deputies are appointed hereunder, the salary or salaries to be paid and expense necessary to maintain said office or offices shall be considered as a part of the necessary expenses of the assessor and collector of taxes, and shall be paid as now provided by law for the payment of the expenses of the assessor and collector of taxes.

Sec. 2. Said office building and/or jail may be provided for, maintained and repaired by the issuance of bonds as is provided by Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, or it may be provided for, maintained, and repaired through the issuance of evidences of indebtedness in the same manner as courthouses and jails at the county seats, and the taxes may be levied therefor in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as for courthouses and jails at the county seat.

Art. 1605a-3. Counties and Cities; Joint Construction, Ownership and Maintenance of Buildings; Contracts

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable in any county in which there is an incorporated city having a population of not less than two thousand (2,000) which is located more than 10 (ten) miles from the county seat, and shall apply to such city.

Sec. 2. Any county and city to which this Act is applicable are authorized jointly to own, construct, equip, enlarge and maintain a building in such city to be used for branch offices and library of the county, the justice of the peace, and for a city hall. The cost of construction thereof shall be paid from current income and funds on hand as provided in the budgets or tax levies of the county and the city.

Sec. 3. The county and the city shall specify by contract the amount or the proportionate part of money to be contributed by each for such construction and equipment; the account or accounts in which such money is to be deposited; the party which shall award construction and other contracts or that such contracts are to be awarded by action of both parties; and the manner in which disbursements from such account shall be authorized. Such contract may provide for the appointment of a committee or a board to operate and maintain the building, or that one of the parties shall perform that service; and may specify the portion of the operation and maintenance expenses to be contributed annually by the county and the city.

Sec. 4. Annual expenses for the operation and maintenance of the building shall be budgeted by the county and by the city.

Sec. 5. Title to the land upon which the building is to be constructed shall be placed jointly in the county and the city.

Art. 1605a-4. Branch Offices for Tax Assessors and Collectors in Counties of 27,700 to 27,900

Sec. 1. In any county which has a population of not less than 27,700 inhabitants but not more than 27,900 inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census, the Commissioners Court may provide for, operate, and maintain a branch office for the county tax assessor and collector for any length of time the commissioners consider necessary.

Sec. 2. (a) If the branch office is maintained in a building which is owned by the county, the commissioners court shall operate and maintain the building in the same manner in which it operates and maintains the county courthouse. The commissioners court shall have care and custody of the building and may place any limitations on the use and maintenance of the building which it finds necessary.

(b) If the commissioners court does not wish to construct a building or purchase office space for the branch office, the commissioners court may rent or lease a sufficient amount of office space for the branch office.

Sec. 3. (a) After the commissioners court has authorized the creation of a branch office, the county tax assessor and collector may appoint one or more deputies to work in the office. The commissioners court shall determine the length of time for which the deputies will serve and the salaries to be paid to the deputies.

(b) Each deputy shall execute a bond in any amount required by the commissioners court, payable to the county judge, conditioned on the faithful performance of their duties. The county tax assessor and collector is liable under his bonds for all taxes collected by any deputy under this Act, and this Act shall not be construed as a limit on the liability of the bonds of the county tax assessor and collector or his deputies.

(c) Any deputy appointed under this Act may collect taxes from any person who desires to pay his taxes and may issue a valid receipt for the taxes.

(d) Any deputy appointed under this Act is subject to the terms and provisions of the law relating to deputy tax collectors.

Sec. 4. Expenses incurred in providing office space, in operating and maintaining the branch office, and in paying the salaries of the deputies are considered part of the necessary expenses of the county tax assessor and collector and shall be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the county tax assessor and collector.

Sec. 5. Any actions taken by the commissioners court and the county tax assessor and collector and his deputies which relate to providing, operating, and maintaining a branch tax office before the effective date of this Act and any expenditures made by the county in connection with a branch tax office before the effective date of this Act are validated.

CHAPTER SEVEN. COUNTY HOME RULE

Article

1606a. County Home Rule.

1606b. Bexar County; Manner of Determining Result.

Art. 1606a. County Home Rule

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to provide an enabling Act under the recent Constitutional Amendment adopted and known as Section 3 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, hereinafter sometimes referred to as "the amendment," in order that the counties coming within the provision of such article may adopt, upon a vote of the qualified resident electors of such counties, a Home Rule Charter in accordance with the terms and provisions of such portion of the Constitution.

Precinct and County Conventions; Delegates to Select Charter Drafting Commission

Sec. 2. This Act shall apply to any qualified county of Texas, desiring to adopt a Home Rule Charter under the powers, and within the limitations, expressed by Section 3 of Article IX of the Constitution of Texas; and, the people of any qualified county who may desire to move for the adoption of a county charter, under such Constitutional provisions, shall proceed thereto by calling a convention in each voting precinct of the county for the purpose of choosing a delegate and an alternate delegate to a countywide convention; which convention shall be charged with the duty to select a Charter Drafting Commission to be composed of persons considered capable of drafting, or to give aid in drafting, a charter deemed to conform to the will and needs of the qualified resident electors of the county; and, to be subject to rejection or adoption by vote of the people of the county; all to be done in keeping with the provision of said amendment and under the procedural safeguards by this Act provided.

Qualifications of Petitioners and Electors; Notice

Sec. 3. All persons hereinafter referred to as the signers of petitions, as participating in precinct or county conventions and as voting in elections, to be held hereunder, shall be understood to mean resident qualified electors of the affected county. Where the publication of notice is required, unless otherwise provided as to a given case, such notice shall be given by publication in one or more newspapers, having general circulation in the county, at least one day in each of two (2) consecutive weeks, and to give not less than fourteen (14) days from the first day of such publication to the day of any proposed act to which such notice may relate, excluding the day of first publication and the day of the proposed act. The mailing of notice, as later in this Act may be required, unless otherwise provided as to a given case, shall be given by depositing in the United States Mail written notice properly stamped and appropriately addressed to the person or persons proper to have notice of a given matter, giving advice of the time and place at which any given proposed act is to be considered or done. Not less than two (2) nor more than ten (10) business days (to be exclusive of the day of the mailing of the notice and the day of a proposed act) may run between the mailing of such notice and any desired meeting for the performance of an act to be done hereunder, all as hereinafter will be required; provided, however, calls for meetings of the Charter Drafting Commission (hereinafter provided for) shall be as established by it, as being reasonable, fitting and necessary.

Form and Requisites of Petition; Qualifications of Petitioners; Number of Signatures Required

Sec. 4. Proponents of the adoption of a county charter hereunder, subject to the further provisions of this Section, may procure and present to the commissioners' court of the county (hereinafter designated as the "Court") one or more petitions, bearing the true date upon which the circulation thereof began, seeking the calling of precinct and county conventions (as hereinafter provided for), and identical petitions signed by different qualified persons shall be considered as one petition. Only persons who are resident qualified voters of the county, owning real estate subject to the county's tax, may validly sign the petitions hereby provided for. The minimum number of signatures required upon such petitions shall be determined upon the county population basis, as given in the Federal Census issued next prior to the date of a given petition, and to be as follows: Counties of five thousand (5,000) population or under, one hundred (100); counties of five thousand and one (5,001) to ten thousand (10,000), two hundred (200); counties of ten thousand and one (10,001) to twenty-five thousand (25,000), three hundred (300); counties of twenty-five thousand and one (25,001) to seventy-five thousand (75,000), four hundred (400); counties of seventy-five thousand and one (75,001) to one hundred fifty thousand (150,000), five hundred (500); counties of one hundred fifty thousand and one (150,001) or more, six hundred (600). Any form of petition which indicates the desire to proceed for adoption of a Home Rule Charter for the county (which hereinafter may be referred to as the "Charter"), under said Section 3 of Article IX of the Constitution shall be sufficient. Upon the delivery of such petition it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court to mark the day of filing thereon, and thereafter, as soon as may be done, to record the same in the minutes of the court as a part of the order which the court must enter in compliance with the petition.

Calling Precinct Charter Conventions; Designation of Time and Place for Precinct and County Conventions

Sec. 5. At the first meeting of the court after the filing of any such petition, or at any time not to exceed ten (10) days after the filing of such petition, it shall be the duty of the court to enter its order to execute said petition by calling a precinct charter convention (hereinafter provided for) in each voting precinct of the county, as defined and designated at the time any such petition may bear date, for the purpose of selecting one delegate and an alternate from each precinct to participate in a county convention (hereinafter provided for). The court's call shall fix the time for holding such precinct conventions, for a time not less than twenty (20) days nor more than thirty (30) days after the date of the calling order, and shall fix the time for the holding of the county convention for a time not less than ten (10) days nor more than twenty (20) days after the time set for holding precinct conventions.

The call shall designate for each precinct a place therein for the holding of its convention and shall specify the time for opening such conventions at ten (10) o'clock of the morning. Such call also shall specify a place in the county seat (preferably a designated room in the county courthouse) for the holding of the county convention, and shall designate an opening hour therefor not earlier than ten (10) o'clock of the morning and not later than two (2) o'clock of the afternoon.

Form of Notice Calling Precinct Charter Convention; Publication; Errors

Sec. 6. The form of the call provided for in Section 5 hereof shall be in form substantially as follows:

To Each Resident Qualified Elector of This County:

Complying with a petition seeking the adoption of a County Home Rule Charter, filed with the county commissioners' court of this county on the _____ day of _____, 19____, we issue and publish this call for precinct conventions and a county convention to provide a commission to draft a proposed charter to be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this county. You respectively hereby are notified to be present at ten (10) o'clock in the morning on the _____ day of _____, 19____, at the place hereinafter designated for the county voting precinct in which you may reside, for the purpose of participating in a precinct convention for the election of one delegate and one alternate to represent your precinct in a county convention to be held in (name place, city or town and designate the place therein) and to convene at _____ o'clock ____m., on the _____ day of _____, 19____.

In the precinct convention each qualified person present and participating (to exclude all persons who are not qualified voters residing in the precinct) shall be entitled to one vote each on each question presented, and all questions shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast. Organization shall be effected by choice of a temporary chairman and a temporary secretary, to be followed by selection of a permanent chairman and a permanent secretary. The procedure shall be under Robert's Rules of Order or other orderly procedure. All votes save those incident to organization shall be by written ballot. The convention by majority vote, will choose one delegate and one alternate to participate in the county convention, both of whom must reside in the county voting precinct to be represented by them. When the delegate and the alternate shall have been chosen, the chairman and the secretary of the convention, in the presence of the convention shall sign the credentials of the delegate and the alternate, both of whom shall countersign the credentials for identification, if required by the county convention. The credentials shall be sufficient if in form substantially as follows:

To County Convention:

This certifies to you that _____ (whose post office address is _____), as delegate, and _____ (whose post office address is _____), as alternate, will be authorized to represent precinct number _____ in your proceeding.

Chairman. Secretary.
Countersigned:

Delegate. Alternate Delegate.

The credentials so executed shall be placed in an envelope bearing the secretary's name written across the closed seal, and delivered by the delegate, or the alternate, to the temporary secretary of the county convention at the time of its convening. Whereupon, the persons so certified shall be entitled to represent your precinct in the county convention. The official county voting precinct numbers and the respective places for holding the several precinct conventions follow, viz.:

Precinct No.	Place of Convention.
(Here Designate)	(Here Designate)
Commissioners' Court of _____ County, Texas.

Attest:

By _____ County Judge.

Clerk.
(Seal.)

Said notice, as soon as may be done, shall be published as provided in Section 3 of this Act. No error in the form of the notice or the printing thereof which is not harmfully misleading, after the exercise of reasonable diligence to know the truth, shall invalidate the call for the conventions.

Precinct Convention

Sec. 7. The precinct convention shall be held, organized and shall proceed to a conclusion as specified in the convention call written in Section 6 hereof.

County Convention; Procedure

Sec. 8. The county convention shall convene at the time and place designated in the call therefor (or other well known adequate place, if it be not convenient to occupy the place originally designated), and shall proceed to temporary organization as provided for precinct conventions. The temporary chairman shall call for the presentation of credentials of delegates and their alternates, whereupon the temporary chairman and temporary secretary, in the presence of all persons present who may desire to supervise, shall open the credentials and shall prepare a written permanent roll of all persons shown by the credentials to be authorized to participate in the further proceedings of the convention. The convention shall then proceed to permanent organization by electing a permanent chairman and secretary. Upon the roll shall be noted those delegates (and alternates for absent delegates) who may be present for participation in the convention. Procedure shall be in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order. The presence at roll call for the opening session of the convention of fifty-one (51), or more, per centum of the total number of authorized delegates shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business during such session and until final adjournment and dissolution of the convention.

All questions shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast thereon. An alternate shall be permitted to participate in the proceedings of the convention only in the absence or non-participation of the delegate for whom such alternate was chosen. All votes other than votes on organization shall be by written ballot bearing the voter's name and precinct number. The respective yeas and nays upon every question shall be recorded by name in the presence of the convention, the result of each ballot shall be declared to the convention in an audible voice and shall be recorded in the convention's journal, in a manner showing each issue decided by each ballot taken. The convention may recess from time to time, but may not adjourn, until the work is ended; provided that, the time and place for resuming its session after a recess thereof shall be announced prior to such recess, or written notice of reassembly given as provided in Section 3 of this Act. The business of the convention shall be dispatched with all possible diligence, and no compensation or expense shall be allowed to any member of the convention.

Manner of Choosing Charter Drafting Commission and Number of Members

Sec. 9. (a) When the convention shall have been organized, the members, by ballot shall determine whether the Charter Drafting Commission (which hereinafter may be referred to as the "Commission") to be chosen shall consist of three (3), five (5), seven (7), nine (9), eleven (11), thirteen (13) or fifteen (15) members. This having been determined, the chairman of the convention, from the membership of the convention, shall appoint a nominating committee of five (5) persons, who shall retire and prepare a list, alphabetically arranged, of proposed members of the commission to be chosen, which list shall bear twice as many names of persons as there are to be members of the Drafting Commission, and regional representation may properly be made a consideration in the nominations. The persons to be named by the nominating committee may or may not be members of the convention, but they shall be persons deemed to have peculiar fitness for the drafting of, or to aid in the drafting of, a charter to control the county government.

(b) When the nominating committee shall have reported, they shall be discharged and the secretary of the convention will furnish to each present member of the convention a true copy of the nominations, together with a ballot slip on which shall be written the number of names to be voted for. From the names nominated by the committee, each voting member of the convention shall select from those nominated persons (equal in number to the membership of the Drafting Commission) preferred by the voting member for service on the commission, indicating the choice by crossing out the names of those nominated persons not preferred by the voter. There may be as many ballots as are required to obtain a majority vote for a number of nominees equal to the membership of the Drafting Commission. Those persons receiving in consecutive order from high to low, the highest number of votes shall be elected for service: In case of a tie vote, balloting shall continue until the tie is broken. The results of each ballot shall be tallied and canvassed by the secretary, in the presence of the convention and the result audibly declared. The Drafting Commission so chosen shall be given their written credentials, signed by the chairman and secretary of the convention. Written minutes of all proceedings of the convention shall be kept in a journal, audibly read in the presence of the convention, and if found without majority sustained objection, they shall be approved and signed by the chairman and the secretary of the convention (safely to be preserved for disposition as later in this Act is provided), and thereupon the convention shall be adjourned, subject to recall only as hereinafter is provided for.

Journals

Sec. 10. The County Charter Convention and the Charter Drafting Commission each shall cause to be kept a daily journal correctly reflecting their respective proceedings, and showing the yeas and nays on all substantive questions, which shall be adequately identified in the journals. These journals must be preserved as permanent records and filed as archives in the records of the administrative body of the county, as hereinafter provided for.

Drafting Commission; Rules; Vacancy in Office; Procedure

Sec. 11. (a) Within ten (10) days after their election the Drafting Commission shall convene at some convenient time and place in the county seat, known in advance to all members of the commission, for organization, which shall be as for organization of a precinct convention. The commission may adopt all necessary reasonable rules to control notice of meetings and its procedure, save that, attendance of a majority vote of those members in attendance shall be required to constitute a quorum for business, and all questions shall be decided by a majority vote of those members in attendance. So long as there be not vacancies to destroy a lawful quorum of the commission, it lawfully may transact its business and perform its duties; however, in case of a vacancy of a membership either through inability or failure or refusal of a member to act, the commission may certify the vacancy to the commissioners' court, whereupon it shall become the duty of the court to fill the vacancy on the commission by a majority supported order entered of record in its minutes.

(b) The Drafting Commission shall be empowered to employ one clerk, who shall be a competent stenographer and who shall fill the office of secretary of the commission. The commission shall be authorized to make reasonable compensation to its secretary, but not, in any event, to exceed Six Dollars ($6.00) per day of actual service, and ratably for a fraction of a day. The commission shall be authorized to incur all other reasonable expense necessary to facilitate its work, but not in any event to exceed Three Dollars ($3.00) per day (exclusive of the cost to publish notices, as required by this Act) for the full period from the first meeting day of the commission until it may have been discharged. The expenses so incurred, and the cost to publish the notices by this Act required, shall be paid under orders signed by the chairman and the secretary of the Drafting Commission, addressed to the commissioners' court of the county, and, if the vouchers accompanying such orders be found to support the same, it shall be the duty of the court promptly to make payment thereof by warrants drawn on the county's General Fund, whether budgeted therein, or not. No member of the Drafting Commission shall have compensation for service on the commission.

(c) The Drafting Commission shall diligently pursue its labors and at a time not less than sixty (60) days nor more than one hundred and eighty (180) days after their organization, they shall have prepared a complete proposed county charter. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the commission, at all reasonable times, to make available to any interested person the minutes of any prior meeting of the commission and any written proposals pending before the commission.

(d) In the preparation of the charter, any complete section thereof may be written in two (2) alternate and elective forms, for submission to a vote of the people. The proposed charter having been completed, there shall be written at the end thereof the words, "We hereby recommend the adoption of the foregoing proposed charter, subject to such later revisions as may grow out of our public hearings hereon," to be followed by the date of the certificate and the signatures of at least a majority of the Drafting Commission: Substantial compliance as to form of the certificate shall be deemed sufficient.

(e) In case a Charter Drafting Commission, from any cause whatever, fails to complete a proposed charter hereunder, within the time limit hereinbefore specified, such commission shall automatically expire, and, upon the written request of any ten (10) signers of the original petition for the adoption of a county charter, it shall be the duty of the county judge to reconvene the county convention by giving the written notice specified in Section 3 of this Act. The convention being reassembled shall proceed to the selection of a Charter Drafting Commission of the number originally fixed, in the same manner as provided for selection of the membership of the defaulting commission. The substitute commission shall proceed in time and manner as provided for the original commission. Further, in such case, the secretary of the defaulting commission shall safely keep all records of the prior commission and deliver the same to the substitute commission, or its secretary. This procedure to remedy default of a commission may be exercised as many times as may be necessary to procure the submission of a charter to the electorate.

(f) When a proposed charter has been completed and certified, the Drafting Commission, within ten (10) days shall cause the same to be published in full, in the manner provided in Section 3 of this Act. Said publication further shall provide for five (5) or more public hearings before the commission, the first of which must be not less than fourteen (14) days nor more than twenty (20) days after the first publication of the notice. The time and place of each proposed hearing shall be stated in the notice, and all of the same must be held within thirty (30) days after the date of the first hearing. At such hearings all qualified resident electors of the county may appear and be heard to express their views in an orderly manner, within Robert's Rules of Order, and such other reasonable limitations as the commission may adopt for the timely, efficient and orderly disposition of business. When said public hearings have been concluded, the commission, within ten (10) days, shall make such revision of the proposed charter as by them may be deemed for the betterment thereof.

Form of Charter Election Report and Notice to Commissioners' Court; Amendments

Sec. 12. Within five (5) days after a proposed county charter finally has been approved for submission to the qualified electors of the county, it shall be the duty of the Charter Drafting Commission to prepare its report announcing the conclusion of its labors and to make requisition for the holding of a charter election hereunder, which shall be addressed to the commissioners' court of the county and filed with said court within said five (5) days. Such report and requisition in form shall be substantially as follows:

To the Honorable Commissioners' Court of _____ County, Texas:

We present herewith two (2) true and certified multiples of a proposed charter to provide for the government of this county, as provided for by Section 3, Article IX, of the Constitution of Texas. We also transmit to you the journals of proceedings of the county convention and of this Charter Drafting Commission. By law, you are required to safely keep said proposed charter and said journals as permanent records, in the archives of the county, where they at all reasonable times shall be open to inspection by the public.

We hereby request that, and under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of Texas to provide proceedings for adopting Home Rule Charters for counties it now is required that, you by order (to be entered of record in your minutes; to which one copy of the proposed charter shall be attached as an exhibit, and as part thereof) will call an election submitting said proposed charter to a vote of the qualified electors of this county for adoption or rejection, as their votes may determine, under the provisions of said Section 3, Article IX, of the Constitution.

This we pray you to do in time, manner, form and after due execution of all appropriate formalities required by the applicable law.

Executed in _____, Texas, on this, the _____ day of _____ A.D. 19____, by the undersigned, who constitute a majority, or more, in number of the Charter Drafting Commission of this county.

Substantial conformity to the foregoing form shall be deemed sufficient, and the same may be amended, as a matter of right, to cure any substantive defect therein.

Charter Election; Procedure

Sec. 13. (a) In compliance with the notice and request provided for by Section 12 hereof, an appropriate order shall be entered by the court at a time within ten (10) days after said request is delivered to the court. Upon delivery of such request, the clerk of the court shall endorse on the presented proposed charter, and accompanying request the day and hour of the receipt of the same.

(b) By said order the court shall call an election, in which no other question may be submitted to the electors. Said election shall be held at a time not less than thirty (30) days nor more than forty (40) days after the entry of the court's order therefor.

(c) Publication of notice of said election, the holding thereof, the canvass of the returns and the declaration of the results thereof (save in those things peculiarly appropriate to the object of the election, and which peculiar matters are specifically provided for herein), shall be had, done and performed in accordance with the then effective provisions of the law regulating the holding of general elections in the State of Texas. Those additional things required and deemed peculiarly appropriate to such election are as follows, viz.:

1. There shall be printed as many copies of the proposed charter as there were voters in the last preceding general election in the county, plus twenty-five per centum (25%) thereof, which copies on or before the second day succeeding the first publication of the notice of the election, shall be placed, for distribution, on request, to qualified voters of the county, at each polling place designated in the notice of election.

2. The notice of the election shall contain a full copy of the proposed charter and to include alternate and elective provisions, if any such have been submitted to the electorate, which distinct and alternate provisions shall be printed in the order given them in the proposed charter.

3. Ballots at least equal to one and one-half the vote cast in the last general election in the county shall be provided for the charter election. Distribution thereof to voting precincts changed or created later than the last general election held in the county shall be according to an estimate of the vote to be cast therein at the charter election. To each of the precincts remaining as at the last general election there shall be distribution of ballots approximately equal to one and one-half times the votes cast therein at the last general election. After the day upon which a petition for submitting a proposal to adopt a county home rule charter, or to amend the same, is started in circulation (the commissioners' court being advised thereof by writing filed with its clerk), no county voting precinct may be redefined, consolidated or created, until a time subsequent to the election called for by the petition so filed.

4. There shall be printed on said ballots, exclusive of all other things, the following, viz.:

"County Home Rule Charter Ballot for Adoption of Charter or Against Adoption of Charter"

Next there shall be printed in full thereon elective alternate charter provisions which may have been submitted for determination by the electors; and, in case any such elective charter provisions have been submitted, the same shall be printed in full on the ballot, in the forward progressive order in which they appear in the proposed charter. Indication of the will of the voter shall be by crossing out those propositions or provisions which are not favored. In case a voter crosses out both of two related alternate provisions, or if the voter fails to cross out one of two related alternate charter provisions, the vote to adopt or reject the charter shall nevertheless be counted on that issue.

5. No proposal to consolidate or merge the government of a governmental agency or entity, or any division or function thereof, with the government of the county for administration thereby, shall be voted on at an election held for the original adoption of a charter hereunder. However, it is provided that any such charter may contain provision whereby such consolidations may be submitted to the voters of the county.

Canvassing Returns and Declaring Results of Election; Contest Procedure

Sec. 14. The canvassing of the returns and the declaring of the result of the election shall be by the commissioners' court of the county and the charter drafting commission jointly sitting as a board for such purpose and the result as declared shall be spread on the minutes of the commissioners' court. Contest of an election held hereunder may judicially be determined as is, or may be, provided by the laws of Texas relating to contest of general elections, subject to these conditions, viz.:

(a) Written notice of such contest must be filed with the commissioners' court and with the clerk of the county charter commission within ten (10) days after the declaration of the result.

(b) In case of such notice, within five (5) days the members of the commissioners' court and the charter drafting commission shall reassemble as a joint board of review, for the public opening of those ballot boxes as to which the notice of proposed contest has specified exception, examination and recount of the ballots cast in each such voting precinct, revision, if any be required, in the tally sheets from the respective precincts in which error in the tally or returns, or illegal voting, may have been specified in the notice of proposed contest. Matters not specified in such notice of contest may not be inquired into by the board, nor later reviewed by a court. The board may hear evidence, subpoena witnesses and enforce their attendance by attachment to be issued by the clerk of any court of record on request of the board, and administer oaths to witnesses. The hearing shall be concluded as speedily as may be consistent with the object of the hearing. Having concluded the taking of evidence, the board publicly shall revise or reaffirm the tally to conform to their findings of the truth, and enter of record in the minutes of the commissioners' court their redeclaration of the result of the election. Thereupon the ballots shall be appropriately resealed in the boxes from which they were taken and, or, otherwise preserved as required by the general applicable law. A certified copy of the findings of the joint board of review must be received in evidence in any judicial proceeding contesting an election held hereunder, and shall constitute prima facie proof of the correctness of the declaration of the result of the election, as recorded by the joint board of review.

(c) The time consumed in re-examination of the returns by the Joint Board of Review, as herein provided for, shall not be computed in determining the time within which a petition initiating an election contest in a court of appropriate jurisdiction must be filed. Such time shall be computed from the day on which the Joint Board of Review announce their decision.

(d) Upon performance of the duties hereinbefore prescribed for the Charter Drafting Commission, without other or further act, it shall be dissolved, subject only to its right to designate one of its members to be a special fiscal agent, with the duty to terminate all pecuniary business matters which have been incident to the performance of the duties of the commission, to procure payment of all outstanding lawful accounts created by the commission, in the manner provided in subdivision (b) of Section 11 of this Act.

Adoption of Charter; Resubmission After Rejection; Amendments

Sec. 15. If the election results in a constitutional majority of the votes cast in the election being for the charter, the same shall be declared to be adopted and to be in effect after such procedures, at such time and under such conditions, as may be provided for in the adopted charter. If the proposal to adopt a charter be defeated in any such election, no other proposal for the adoption of a charter for the county hereunder may be initiated at a time less than twelve (12) months next succeeding the day of the defeat of the prior proposal. However, in case a charter adopted for a given county does not provide a time limitation (which may not exceed two (2) years) for a time at which such charter may be amended, and any home rule charter adopted hereunder may be amended at any time.

Majority of Votes Cast Outside Cities and Towns
Necessary for Adoption

Sec. 15a. No county home rule charter may be adopted by any county save upon a favoring vote of the resident qualified electors of the affected county. In elections submitting to the voters a proposal to adopt a charter the vote cast by the qualified electors residing within the limits of all the incorporated cities and towns of the county shall be separately kept and collectively counted and the votes of the qualified electors of the county who do not reside within the limits of any incorporated city or town likewise shall be separately kept and separately counted, and unless there be a favoring majority of the votes cast within and a favoring majority of the votes cast without such collective cities and towns, the charter shall not be adopted.

Effect of Amendment on Designation of Administrative Body

Sec. 16. In case there be adoption of a county home rule charter providing for an administrative body styled other than a "Commissioners' Court," and, or, "County Judge" (as a member of the court), and thereafter there be occasion to proceed for the amendment of such charter, the quoted designations, as they appear in this Act shall be held to conform to the appropriately related designations as contained in the charter.

Expenses of Proponents

Sec. 17. In case there be not available to a given county funds to liquidate the expenses incurred because of the exercise of power under this Act, the proponents of a proposed charter may, in writing filed with the court, designate a fiscal agent through whom the proponents may pay all such lawful and proper expenses as may accrue, preserving proper vouchers therefor. Upon presentation of the itemized verified account of such expenses, accompanied by the appropriate vouchers, the commissioners court may approve or disapprove the same, or approve the part thereof found to be proper, and on such approval the court shall pay the same to the designated fiscal agent, or his successor, as soon as money lawfully may be applied thereto, and any other law to the contrary shall be without effect. The county shall have no responsibility for the restitution of such money by the fiscal agent to the several contributing proponents, as their several interests may be.

Constitutional Rights and Powers of Counties Recognized

Sec. 18. Nothing in this Act contained is intended to deny to the counties of Texas any right or power which in the absence of this Act might lawfully be enjoyed and exercised under the provisions of said Section 3 of Article IX, of the Constitution. On the contrary, all such rights and powers hereby are expressly recognized.

Charter Provisions Ineffective Against State's Governmental Powers

Sec. 19. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to authorize county charter provisions which would impair the operation of the General Laws of the State relating to the judicial, tax, fiscal, educational, police, highway and health systems of the State, or any department of the State's superior government; and, no charter provision having such vice may have effect as against the State.

Partial Unconstitutionality

Sec. 20. If any provision, section, part, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or paragraph of this Act be declared invalid or unconstitutional, the same shall not affect any other portion or provision hereof, and all other provisions shall remain valid and unaffected by any invalid provision, if any.

Proceedings Under Anticipatory Enabling Act Validated

Sec. 21. The anticipatory enabling Act passed at the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature (known as Chapter 232 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature)¹ shall not have effect after the instant at which this Act may be in effect, but all procedures taken thereunder (relating to the formulation, circulation, presentation and prosecution of petitions, including all orders and notices of commissioners courts relative to such petition, conventions held or other acts done) hereby are validated, to the same effect as though the same had been had and done hereunder.

Art. 1606b. Bexar County; Manner of Determining Result

Sec. 1. Authority is hereby conferred upon Bexar County to adopt a "Home Rule Charter" in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of Article IX of the Constitution of Texas by a favoring vote of the resident qualified electors of said County, and it shall not be necessary for the votes cast by the qualified electors residing within the limits of all the incorporated cities and towns of the county to be separately kept nor separately counted from those cast by qualified electors of the county who do not reside within the limits of any incorporated city or town, and a favoring majority of the votes of such electors cast in the county as a whole shall determine the result of such election.

Sec. 2. The authority hereby granted is by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature.

CHAPTER EIGHT. COUNTY FIRE MARSHAL

Art. 1606c. Office of County Fire Marshal
Establishment of Office; Compensation; Facilities;
Exemption from Liability

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county may, at its option and if it deem advisable, by proper order set up and establish the office of County Fire Marshal for such period of time as it may desire, but not to exceed the term for which the members of said court are elected; said court may provide for such compensation to be paid the County Fire Marshal as in its judgment it may deem advisable. Authority is granted to such Commissioners Court to provide office facilities, equipment, transportation, assistants and professional services as it may deem necessary for said County Fire Marshal for the proper execution of his duties. Except in cases of gross neglect or wilful malfeasance in office, said County Fire Marshal, his assistants or employees, shall not be answerable in damages, for any acts or omissions, to any persons in the performance of his or their duties. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any state agency authorized to prevent and extinguish forest and grass fires.

Investigation of Fires

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the said County Fire Marshal to investigate the cause, origin and circumstances of every fire occurring within the county, outside of any incorporated city, town or village, by which property has been destroyed or damaged, and he shall especially make investigation as to whether such fire was the result of carelessness or design. Such investigation shall begin within twenty-four hours, not including Sunday, after the County Fire Marshal receives notice or information of any such fire.

Record of Fires

Sec. 3. The County Fire Marshal shall keep or cause to be kept in his office a record of all fires occurring within the county, outside of any incorporated city, town or village, together with all facts, statistics and circumstances, including the origin of the fire and the estimated amount of the loss, which may be determined by his investigation. Such record shall be kept in a legible and permanent form and be so preserved that the same may be at all times accessible and open for inspection.

Witnesses and Evidence; Filing of Criminal Charges; Contempt

Sec. 4. When in his opinion further investigation is necessary, the County Fire Marshal shall have the power to subpoena witnesses to appear before him and testify as to their knowledge of facts and circumstances surrounding the fire or attempt at setting of the fire; he shall be empowered to administer oaths and affirmations to any person appearing as a witness before him; he shall take and preserve written statements, affidavits and depositions as he shall deem fit; he shall file in courts of competent jurisdiction any charges of arson, attempt to commit arson, or any other crime or conspiracy to defraud, against any and all persons whom he shall deem guilty; he shall require the production before him of any book, paper or document deemed pertinent to such investigation and shall file misdemeanor charges in courts of competent jurisdiction against any witness who refuses to be sworn, who refuses to appear and testify, or who fails and refuses to produce before him any book, paper or document touching on any matter under examination when called upon by the County Fire Marshal to do so. Any person found guilty of such conduct of contempt of the proceedings held by the County Fire Marshal shall upon conviction be fined not more than Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars and costs in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Privacy of Examinations; Service of Process

Sec. 5. The investigations and examinations may be conducted by said County Fire Marshal in private; all persons may be excluded from being present except the persons under examination; and the witnesses may be kept separate and apart from each other and not allowed to communicate with each other until they shall have been examined. All process shall be served by any Constable or Sheriff and the same shall be signed by the County Fire Marshal in his official capacity.

Oath and Bond; Qualifications

Sec. 6. The said County Fire Marshal shall qualify by taking the oath prescribed by the Constitution and giving such good and sufficient bond as the Commissioners Court of the county may prescribe and fix, conditioned for the faithful and strict performance of his duties of office. He shall not be interested, directly or indirectly, in the sale of any fire-fighting apparatus or equipment or fire extinguisher of any kind, nor be engaged in any manner of fire insurance business.

Right of Entry; Investigation of Dangerous Conditions; Order

Sec. 7. He shall have the authority to enter and examine any and all buildings or structures where a fire has occurred, in the performance of his duties of office, day or night, and examine any adjacent buildings or premises, but this authority shall be exercised with reason and discretion and with a minimum burden upon the persons living in said buildings.

It shall be his duty when called upon, or when he has reason to believe that it is in the interest of safety and fire-prevention, to enter any premises and inspect the same, and if he find that because of inflammable substance being present, dangerous or dilapidated walls, ceilings or other parts of the structure existing, improper lighting, heating or other facilities being used that endanger life, health or safety, or if because of chimneys, wiring, flues, pipes, mains or stoves, or any substance he shall find stored in any building, he believes that the safety of said building or that of its occupants is endangered and that it will likely promote or cause fire or combustion, he shall be empowered to order the said situation rectified forthwith and the owner or occupant of the said structure shall comply with the orders of the said County Fire Marshal or shall be adjudged guilty of contempt of said order and of a misdemeanor which may be punished in a court of competent jurisdiction by a fine not in excess of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars and costs; and each recurring refusal to so rectify such conditions shall be deemed as a separate offense and violation of such order.

Enforcement of Regulations; Cooperation with State Fire Marshal and Municipal Fire Chiefs

Sec. 8. The County Fire Marshal shall be charged with enforcing all State and county regulations that pertain to fire or other combustible explosions or damages caused by fire or explosion of any kind; he shall coordinate the work of the various fire-fighting and fire-prevention units within the county, provided that, he shall have no authority to enforce his orders or decrees within the corporate limits of any incorporated city, town or village within the county and shall act in a cooperative and advisory capacity there only when his services are requested; he shall cooperate with the State Fire Marshal in the carrying out of the purposes of fire prevention, fire fighting or post-fire investigation. If called upon by any city or State Fire Marshal or the Fire Chief of any incorporated city, town or village to aid in an investigation or to take charge of same, he shall act in the capacity requested.

Civil Rights and Actions

Sec. 9. No action taken by the County Fire Marshal shall affect the rights of a policyholder or any company in respect to a loss by reason of any fire so investigated; nor shall the result of any such investigation be given in evidence upon the trial of any civil action upon such policy; nor shall any statement made by any insurance company, its officers, agents or adjusters, nor by any policy-holder or anyone representing him, made with reference to the origin, cause or supposed origin or cause of the fire to the Fire Marshal or to anyone acting for him, or under his direction, be admitted in evidence or be made the basis for any civil action for damages.

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1607. Finance Ledger

Each commissioners court shall procure a well-bound ledger and index, to be known as the finance ledger, and shall cause to be entered therein a full and orderly statement of the condition of the county finances. The county clerk shall open and keep in said book an account with each officer of the county, district or State, who may be authorized or required by law to receive or collect all money or other property for the use of, or belonging to the county, and shall state at the top of each page of said account the name of such officer and his office. The clerk shall keep such other accounts as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this title, and shall conveniently index each. And items shall be entered daily under their respective heads. All reports and vouchers shall be filed with said clerk and carefully preserved, and briefly noted in the proper account upon the ledger. Said finance ledger shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public.

Art. 1608. Quarterly Statement

Said clerk shall balance each account so kept, and make a sworn tabular statement at each regular term of the commissioners' court for the three months preceding the month when such court meets in regular session, to be presented to said court during the second day of its term, specifying therein the names of the creditors of said county, and the items of indebtedness, with their respective dates of accrual, and also the names of persons to whom moneys have been paid, with the amounts paid each, the names of persons from whom moneys have been received, with the date of receipt and for what account received, during the quarter for which such statement is prepared; said statement shall also separately show the amount to the credit or debit of each fund.

Art. 1609. Exhibit Published

Immediately after the first regular term of said court in each year said clerk shall publish once in some weekly newspaper published in his county, or if there be no paper published therein, then by posting four copies of such exhibit, one in each commissioners precinct, one of which shall be at the court house door, the other three at public places in such precincts, an exhibit showing the aggregate amount paid out of each fund for the four preceding quarters, and the balance to the credit or debit of each fund; also the amount of indebtedness of said county, with their respective dates of accrual, and to whom and for what due; also the amount to the debit or credit of each officer or other persons with whom an account is kept. The cost for publishing the same shall be paid by order of said court out of the general fund of the county.

Art. 1610. Account with Tax Collector

The accounts of the tax collector shall be kept as follows: A separate account shall be kept for each separate fund that may be upon the tax rolls; each account shall state the name of the collector, the character of the fund entered therein, and the year for which the same is assessed; and the taxes assessed for each year shall be kept separate and distinct.

Art. 1611. Receipts for Tax Rolls

Whenever the tax rolls are ready for delivery to the tax collector, the court or officer having control of the same shall take from the collector a written receipt for the same, specifying the amount therein assessed and due the county, stating separately the amount assessed to each fund, and shall deliver said receipt to the county clerk, who shall charge the collector with the amount stated in said receipt in the proper account; and said amounts shall be treated as debts due the county by the collector.

Art. 1612. Collector's Credits

The collector shall discharge said indebtedness within the time prescribed by law, by filing with said clerk receipts for the same, as follows:

1. The commission due the collector.
2. The assessor's receipt for commissions due such assessor, if any, are to be paid by the county.
3. Proper vouchers for such payments as he may be required to pay out of any money on hand.
4. The county treasurer's receipt for the money paid into the treasury.

Art. 1613. Indigent and Delinquent Tax Accounts

The collector shall make separate lists of the indigent and delinquent taxpayers, showing their names, and the amount due by each taxpayer. The court shall carefully examine said list, and shall make an order and enter the same upon its minutes, stating the names and amounts that are adjudged uncollectible; and the collector shall have credit for the amounts included in said order in the proper accounts, only after said order has been made and entered.

Art. 1614. Shall Deliver Tax Rolls to Successor

On leaving office the tax collector shall deliver to his successor the tax rolls in his possession, and shall receive from his successor a written receipt for the amount of taxes due on the tax rolls so delivered, specifying the amount of each fund and each year separately, and also the amount due on the indigent and delinquent list; and deliver said receipts to the county clerk, who shall enter those allowed by the court to the credit of the collector presenting them, and shall charge the amounts so credited to the successor in office of such collector, in the proper accounts.

Art. 1615. Occupation Tax

Said collector shall collect all occupation taxes due the county without assessment and give the party paying the tax a written receipt, stating his name, the occupation paid for, the time such occupation is to be pursued, and the amount collected for the State and for the county. On presentation of such receipt, the county clerk shall issue to the payee therein a license in the name of the State or county or both, in accordance with the tax so paid, authorizing said payee to pursue such occupation during the time for which the tax is paid. The clerk shall keep an occupation tax account with the collector of the county, in which he shall charge the collector with all licenses issued for the county. The collector shall have credit in said account for his commissions, and the amount paid into the treasury upon filing the proper receipt of the county treasurer with such clerk. Said clerk shall, at the end of every month, make two reports, one of licenses issued on taxes paid to the State which he shall forward to the Comptroller by mail; the other of licenses issued on taxes paid to the county and file the same in his office. Such reports shall recite the information contained in the tax collector's receipt for such tax, and shall be dated and signed under the clerk's official seal.

Art. 1616. Account with Sheriff

An account shall be kept with the sheriff charging him with all judgments, fines, forfeitures and penalties, payable to and rendered in any court of the county, the collection of which he is by law made chargeable. The sheriff may free himself from liability from such charge, by:

1. Producing the receipt of the county treasurer showing the payment of such judgment, fine, forfeiture or penalty.
2. Showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners court that the same cannot be collected, or that the same has been discharged by imprisonment or labor, or by escape, without his fault or neglect, and obtaining an order from said court allowing the same.

Art. 1617. Officers to Report Collections

Each district clerk, county clerk, county judge, county treasurer, sheriff, district and county attorney, constable and justice of the peace, who shall collect or handle any money for the use of the county, shall make a full report to the commissioners court, at each regular term thereof, of all fines imposed and collected and all judgments rendered and collected for the use of the county, and all jury fees collected in their respective courts in favor of, or for the use of the county; and at the same time present their receipts and vouchers showing what disposition has been made of the money collected, fines imposed and judgments rendered. Said court shall carefully examine said reports, receipts and vouchers and, if found correct, shall cause the clerk to enter the same on the finance ledger, and, if found to be incorrect, shall summon said officer before them, and have the same corrected. Said reports, receipts, and vouchers shall be filed in the county clerk's office.

Art. 1618. Collections: Form of Report

The reports required by the preceding article shall state fully:

1. The name of the party fined and the amount of the fine, or the name of the party against whom judgment was rendered and the amount of such judgment.

2. The style and number of the cases in which fines have been imposed or judgments rendered, and the date thereof.

3. The amount of jury fees collected, and the style and number of the case in which each jury fee was collected and from whom collected.

Art. 1619. Accounts of Justice

Fines imposed and judgments rendered by justices of the peace shall be charged against the justice imposing or rendering the same. He may discharge said indebtedness by filing with the county clerk the treasurer's receipt for the amount thereof, or by showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners court that he has used due diligence to collect the same without avail, or that the same have been satisfied by imprisonment or labor.

Art. 1620. Report of Attorneys

The district attorney of each district shall, at each term of the district court for each county in his district, make a report to the county clerk, of all moneys received by him since the last term of the district court for such county for the use of such county. Each county attorney shall make a similar report to the said clerk at the end of each month.

Art. 1621. Judgment Sold

Whenever the proceeds of any judgment revert to and belong to any county, if the principal and sureties thereon are insolvent so that under any existing process of law said judgment or any part thereof cannot be collected, the commissioners court is hereby constituted a board to dispose of such judgment, and may offer for sale, by such advertising as it deems necessary and to the best interests of the county, all the right of the county to such judgment. If the amount bid on same at public sale shall not be deemed sufficient, said court shall refuse to accept the same, and shall dispose of said judgment in any manner deemed most advantageous to the interest of the county. Upon sale said court shall make a proper assignment of said judgment to the purchaser.

Art. 1622. Collections: Report to Clerk

When any officer collects money belonging to, and for the use of, any county, he shall, except where otherwise provided in this title, forthwith report the same to the proper county clerk stating fully from whom collected, the amount collected, the time when collected, and by virtue of what authority or process collected. On making such report, such amount shall be charged to such officer, and he may discharge himself therefrom by producing the receipt of the proper county treasurer therefor.

Art. 1623. Estray Account

When an application to estray an animal is filed with the county clerk, said clerk shall keep an estray account on the debit side of said finance ledger showing, the date of the application, the name of the person estraying, and a brief description of the animal to be estrayed. The amount of such charge shall be left blank until said person shall file his account of the sale thereof. Upon the filing of said account, the net amount due the county from such sale shall be entered in the blank. When the receipt of the county treasurer is presented to the clerk, showing any amount paid into the treasury on account of such sale, the same shall be entered on the credit side of the account, showing the date, name of payer, amount paid and a brief description of the estray, and such amount shall be charged on the debit side of the county treasurer's account.

Art. 1624. Account with County Treasurer

An account with the county treasurer shall be kept in said ledger, in which such treasurer shall be charged separately with the amount of each fund for which he gives a receipt to the sheriff, collector, or other person paying the same into the treasury; and such treasurer shall have credit for all moneys paid out by him, when the commissioners court has approved his reports of the same and for his legal commissions.

Art. 1625. Claim Registers

Each county treasurer shall keep a well-bound book in which he shall register all claims against his county in the order of presentation, and if more than one is presented at the same time he shall register them in the order of their date. He shall pay no such claim or any part thereof, nor shall the same, or any part thereof, be received by any officer in payment of any indebtedness to the county, until it has been duly registered in accordance with the provisions of this title. All claims in each class shall be paid in the order in which they are registered.

Art. 1626. Claims Classified

Claims against a county shall be registered in three classes, as follows:

1. All jury scrip and scrip issued for feeding jurors.
2. All scrip issued under the provisions of the road law or for work done on roads and bridges.
3. All the general indebtedness of the county, including feeding and guarding prisoners, and paupers' claims.

Art. 1627. Registering Claims

Said treasurer shall enter each claim in the register, stating the class to which it belongs, the name of the payee, the amount, the date of the claim, the date of registration, the number of such claim, by what authority issued, and for what service the same was issued, and shall write on the face of the claim its registration number, the word, "registered," the date of such registration, and shall sign his name officially thereto.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1628. Classification of County Funds

The funds received by the county treasurer shall be classed as follows, and shall be appropriated, respectively, to the payment of all claims registered in the first, second and third classes:

1. All jury fees, all money received from the sale of estrays, and all occupation taxes.
2. All money received under any of the provisions of the road and bridge law, including the penalties recovered from railroads for failing to repair crossings, and all fines and forfeitures.
3. All money received, not otherwise appropriated herein or by the commissioners court.

Art. 1629. Other Classes of Funds

The commissioners court may cause such other accounts to be kept, creating other classes of funds, as it may deem proper, and require the scrip to be issued against the same and registered accordingly.

Art. 1630. Transfer of Funds

The commissioners court by an order to that effect may transfer the money in hand from one fund to another, as it may deem necessary and proper, except that the funds which belong to class first shall never be diverted from the payment of the claims registered in class first, unless there is an excess of such funds.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1630a. Road and Bridge Fund Set Aside From Other Funds in Certain Counties; Budgeting of Fund

That in all counties having a population of fifty thousand, nine hundred and fifty (50,950) to fifty-one thousand, one hundred (51,100), inclusive, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Court shall annually set aside from all other county funds the Road and Bridge Fund and shall budget this Road and Bridge Fund into three (3) equal amounts, and the total expenditures from the Road and Bridge Fund for any four-month period of the fiscal year may not exceed one-third of the annual budget; provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing or affecting the Uniform Budget Law, County Budgets, being Sections 10, 11, 12, and 13 of House Bill No. 768, Acts of 1931, Forty-second Legislature, page 339, Chapter 206.¹

Art. 1630b. Change Fund in Counties of Over 600,000 Population

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county having a population of over 600,000 by the last preceding Federal Census may set aside from the General Fund an amount to be approved by the County Auditor for the use by any county or district official collecting public funds as a change fund, which said fund is to be used only for making change in connection with collections due and payable to the county, State of Texas or any political subdivision for which collections are often made by such county or district official.

Sec. 2. The bond of each and every public official who receives such a change fund shall cover his responsibility for the correct accounting and disposition of said change fund.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful to use such change fund for making loans or advances, or for cashing checks or warrants of any kind.

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court shall upon recommendation of the County Auditor increase or decrease such change funds at any time.

[Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 376, ch. 100; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1651, ch. 515, § 1, eff. June 10, 1969.]

Art. 1630c. Change Fund in Counties of 600,000 or Less Population

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county having a population of not more than six hundred thousand (600,000), by the last preceding Federal Census, may set aside from the General Fund amounts not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) for any one collecting office for use by any county or district official collecting public funds as a change fund, which said fund is to be used only for making change in connection with collections due and payable to the county, the State of Texas or any political subdivision for which collections are lawfully made by said county or district official.

Sec. 2. The bond of each and every public official who receives such a change fund shall cover his responsibility for the correct accounting and disposition of said change fund.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful to use such change fund for making loans or advances, or for cashing checks or warrants of any kind.

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court shall, within its discretion, have the right to recall any part or all of said change funds at any time.

Art. 1631. Report of Claims

At the end of each month the county treasurer shall file in the office of the county clerk a report showing the total amount of claims registered by him during said months stating each class separately. He shall enter the same upon the ledger under the head of "Registered indebtedness of the county," keeping a separate account of each class of indebtedness, and, from the reports of the treasurer of disbursements made, credit said accounts with the total amount of vouchers of each class of claims paid.

Art. 1632. Receipt of Payee

The county treasurer or any other officer disbursing money for the county, or receiving county claims in payment of dues of any kind, shall require the party receiving payment of, or credit for the same, his agent or attorney, to receipt in writing upon the face of such claim for the amount so paid or received thereon.

Art. 1633. Report of Claims Collected

Every officer who shall collect any fine, penalty, forfeiture, judgment, tax or other indebtedness due the county in claims against the county, shall keep a descriptive list of such claims, and shall when he reports such collection, file with his report a list stating the party in whose favor each claim was issued, the class and register number thereof, the name of the party paying in such claim, and the amount received, and for what purpose received. Such claims and report shall be turned over to the county treasurer who shall give a proper receipt for the same, and he shall file said list with his report in the office of the county clerk.

Art. 1634. Accounts of Treasurer

The county treasurer shall keep accurate detailed accounts showing all the transactions of his office. And all warrants by him paid off shall be punched at the time he pays them; and the vouchers relating to and accompanying each report shall be presented to the commissioners court with the corresponding report, when said court shall compare the vouchers with the report, and all proper vouchers shall be allowed and the treasurer credited with the amount thereof.

Art. 1635. Claim Canceled

When a claim presented as a voucher has been found by the court to be correct, the court shall cause the same to be canceled by writing or stamping upon the fact¹ thereof the word, "canceled," and the clerk shall attest the same by his official signature.

¹ So in enrolled bill. Should probably read "face".

Art. 1636. To Inspect Treasurer's Accounts

When the commissioners court has compared and examined the quarterly report of the treasurer, and found the same correct, it shall cause an order to be entered upon the minutes of the court, stating the approval thereof, and reciting separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by the treasurer since the preceding treasurer's quarterly report, and the balance of such fund, if any, remaining in the treasurer's hands and the court shall cause the proper credit to be made in the accounts of the treasurer, in accordance with said order. Said court shall actually inspect and count all the actual cash and assets in the hands of the treasurer belonging to the county at the time of the examination of his said report. Prior to the adjournment of each regular term of the court, the county judge and each commissioner shall make affidavit that the requirements of this article have been in all things fully complied with by them at said term of said court, and that the cash and other assets mentioned in said county treasurer's quarterly report made by said treasurer to said court, and held by him for the county, have been fully inspected and counted by them giving the amount of said money and other assets in his hands. Such affidavits shall be filed with the county clerk and recorded in the minutes of said court the term at which the same were filed; and the same shall be published in some newspaper published in the county if there be a newspaper published in the county, for one time.

Art. 1637. To Examine Finance Accounts

The commissioners court shall, at each regular term, examine all accounts and reports relating to the finances of the county, and compare the same with the vouchers accompanying them, and cause such corrections to be made as are necessary, in order to make said accounts and reports correct, and shall cause all orders made by them, appertaining to said accounts and reports, to be properly entered upon the minutes of said court and noted upon said accounts and reports.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1638. Finance Committee

At each term of the district court, the district judge, upon request of the grand jury, may appoint a committee consisting of three citizens of the county, men of good moral character and intelligence, and experienced accountants, to examine into the condition of the finances of the county. Said committee shall examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and orders of the commissioners court relating to the finances of the county that have not been examined and reported upon by a previous committee; count all the money in the office of the county treasurer belonging to the county, and make such other examination as it deems necessary and proper in order to ascertain the true condition of the finances of the county. The court shall, if necessary, upon the application of said committee, send for persons and evidence to aid in such investigation.

Art. 1639. Report of Committee

Said committee shall, at the earliest practicable day after its appointment, make to said district court a detailed written report stating whether the books and accounts required to be kept by the provisions of this title are correctly kept in accordance with said provisions, and setting forth fully the condition of the finances of the county, the state of each officer's account, and specifying all irregularities, omissions and malfeasance of any kind that they may discover. Said report shall be signed and sworn to by said committee and filed in the office of the district clerk, and the attention of the grand jury called thereto as soon after the filing of the same as practicable.

Art. 1640. Pay of Committee

Said committeemen shall each be entitled to receive for their services three dollars for each day, not to exceed five days, that they may be engaged in the performance of their duties as such, to be paid out of the county treasury upon the certificate of the district judge stating the number of days served.

Art. 1641. Audit by Accountant

Any Commissioners Court, when in its judgment an imperative public necessity exists therefor, shall have authority to employ a disinterested, competent and expert public accountant to audit all or any part of the books, records, or accounts of the county; or of any district, county or precinct officers, agents, or employees, including auditors of the counties, and all governmental units of the county, hospitals, farms, and other institutions of the county kept and maintained at public expense, as well as for all matters relating to or affecting the fiscal affairs of the county. The resolution providing for such audit shall recite the reasons and necessity existing therefor such as that in the judgment of said court there exists official misconduct, willful omission or negligence in records and reports, misapplication, conversion or retention of public funds, failure in keeping accounts, making reports and accounting for public funds by any officer, agent or employee of the district, county or precinct, including depositories, hospitals, and other public institutions maintained for the public benefit, and at public expense; or that in the judgment of the court, it is necessary that it have the information sought to enable it to determine and fix proper appropriation and expenditure of public moneys, and to ascertain and fix a just and a proper tax levy. The said resolution may be presented in writing at any regular or called session of the Commissioners Court, but shall lie over to the next regular term of said court, and shall be published in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation published in the county; provided if there be no such newspaper published in the county, then notice thereof shall be posted in three public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door, for at least ten days prior to its adoption. At such next regular term said resolution shall be adopted by a majority vote of the four Commissioners of the court and approved by the County Judge. Any contract entered into by said Commissioners Court for the audit provided herein shall be made in accordance with the statutes applicable to the letting of contracts by said court, payment for which may be made out of the public funds of the county in accordance with said statutes. The authority conferred on county auditors contained in this title as well as other provisions of statutes relating to district, county and precinct finances and accounts thereof shall be held subordinate to the powers given herein to the Commissioners Court. Provided that in addition to the emergency powers granted herein, there is also conferred upon the Commissioners Court the authority to provide for and cause to be made an independent audit of the aforesaid accounts and officials when the court, by order duly entered at any regular term, finds that the interest of the public would be best served thereby. Any contract entered into by said Commissioners Court for the audit provided herein shall be made in accordance with the statutes applicable to the letting of contracts by said court, payment for which may be made out of the public funds of the county in accordance with said statutes. The authority conferred on county auditors contained in this title as well as other provisions of statutes relating to district, county and precinct finances and accounts thereof shall be held subordinate to the powers given herein to the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1641a. Public Accountant in Certain Counties

In counties of a population of not less than 298,000 and not more than 355,000, according to the last Federal Census, that the Grand Jury of any County or the State Auditor when in the judgment of either, an imperative public necessity exists therefor, shall have authority to employ a disinterested, competent and expert public accountant for the same purposes authorized by Article 1641, or for any other necessary purpose; provided, however, that same shall not be made more than once every two years, except for the purposes of supplementing any audit theretofore made. The same notice shall be given as provided in the preceding Article, one week prior to the making of said contract with such Auditor, and the same shall be paid for out of the general funds of said County.

Art. 1641b. Independent Audit of Finances and Offices in Counties of 40,000 to 100,000

Sec. 1. At any term of the District Court of any county in this State upon request of the grand jury of such county, the district judge of such Court shall appoint an auditor, who shall be of good moral character and intelligence and an experienced accountant, to examine into the condition of the finances of said county. Said auditor shall examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and orders of the Commissioners Court relating to the finances of the county, or such part thereof as may be ordered and directed by said district judge. Said auditor shall count all the money in the office of the county treasurer belonging to the county and make such other examination as he deems necessary and proper, or as may be ordered by said district judge in order to ascertain the true condition of the finances of the county. The Court shall, if necessary, upon the application of such auditor, summons witnesses and compel their attendance and require such witnesses to give such testimony as said auditor may desire; and said judge shall require the production of all books, records and any other evidence that such auditor may request or desire to aid in such investigation; and the said district judge shall have authority to punish for contempt any person violating any of the said orders of said district judge or any process issued under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 2. Said auditor shall, at the earliest practicable date after his appointment, make to the said District Court a detailed written report stating the true condition of the finances of said county and whether the books and accounts required to be kept by the provisions of law, are correctly kept in accordance with said provisions, and setting forth fully the condition of the finances of the county, and the state of each officer's account included within the scope and provisions of the order of said district judge; and shall point out and specify all irregularities, omissions and malfeasance of any kind that he may discover. Said report shall be signed and sworn to by said auditor and filed in the office of the district clerk of said county and the attention of the grand jury shall be called thereto as soon after the filing of said report as practicable.

Sec. 3. Said auditor shall be entitled to receive for his services a sum not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day for the time that may be reasonably required in the performance of his duties under the provisions hereof. Said sum shall be paid out of the county treasury upon the certificate of the district judge, stating the number of days served and the total amount due such auditor as herein provided.

Sec. 3a. This Act shall apply in counties having not less than forty thousand (40,000) population nor more than one hundred thousand (100,000) population, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Art. 1641c. Special Audit of County Records on Petition of Voters; Employment of Auditor

Sec. 1. In every county of this state there shall be a special audit of all the county records upon the filing of a petition of at least thirty per cent (30%) of the qualified voters residing in such county who voted in the last general election for Governor of Texas, with any district judge having jurisdiction in the county.

Sec. 2. Upon receipt of such petition the district judge shall determine its validity and if he finds that thirty per cent (30%) of the qualified voters residing in the county who voted in the last general election for Governor of Texas have requested an audit of the county records he shall immediately employ a person having the qualifications prescribed by law for county auditors to prepare a special audit of all of the county records. The person so employed to prepare such special audit shall receive as compensation for his services a reasonable fee to be fixed by the district judge and paid out of the general fund or the officers' salary fund of the county.

Sec. 3. After the preparation of the audit it shall be filed with the district judge employing the auditor, and a copy shall be filed with the State Auditor.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws.

Art. 1641d. Annual Independent Audit of Books, Records and Accounts in Counties of 350,000 or More

Sec. 1. In every county in the State of Texas having a population of 350,000 inhabitants or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, an annual independent audit shall be made of all books, records, and accounts of the district, county, and precinct officers, agents or employees, including regular auditors of the counties and all governmental units of the county hospitals, farms, and other institutions of the county, and all matters pertaining to the fiscal affairs of the county.

Sec. 2. In all counties in which this Act applies, the first independent audit shall be made in 1960 and completed prior to December 31, 1960, and thereafter an annual independent audit shall be made of all office books and records enumerated in Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court in all counties affected by this Act shall employ a disinterested, competent, experienced public accountant or certified public accountant to audit all of the above records and accounts enumerated in Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 4. At the regular meeting of the Commissioners Court in January, 1960, and at the regular meeting of the Commissioners Court in January each year thereafter, the Court shall enter into a contract with a disinterested, competent, experienced public accountant or certified public accountant to audit all the books and records of the county that are enumerated in Section 1 of this Act. It shall not be necessary that the Commissioners Court advertise for competitive bids before selecting the public accountant or certified public accountant to prepare the audit or audits required by the provisions of this Act, and the consideration specified in each contract shall be paid out of the general fund of the respective county.

Sec. 5. The audits provided for in this Act shall be in addition to any special audits that may be prepared pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1638, 1641 and 1641c, or any regular or special audit report that may be prepared by the regular county auditor.

Art. 1641e. Biennial Independent Audit of Books, Records and Accounts in Counties of 100,000 to 120,000

Sec. 1. In every county in the State of Texas having a population of not less than 100,000 inhabitants nor more than 120,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census, a biennial independent audit shall be made of all books, records, and accounts of the district, county, and precinct officers, agents or employees, including regular auditors of the counties and all governmental units of the county hospitals, farms, and other institutions of the county, and all matters pertaining to the fiscal affairs of the county.

Sec. 2. In all counties in which this bill applies, the first independent audit shall be made in 1962 and completed prior to December 31, 1962, and thereafter a biennial independent audit shall be made of all office books and records enumerated in Section 1 of this Act. Thereafter, said audit shall be made on the even-numbered years in such counties and the audit report shall be completed before December 31st of such year.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court in all counties affected by this Act shall employ a disinterested, competent, experienced public accountant or certified public accountant to audit all of the above records and accounts enumerated in Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 4. At the first regular meeting of the Commissioners Court in January, 1962, and at the regular meeting of the Commissioners Court in January every two (2) years thereafter, the Court shall enter into a contract with a disinterested, competent, experienced public accountant or certified public accountant to audit all the books and records of the county that are enumerated in Section 1 of this Act. It shall not be necessary that the Commissioners Court advertise for competitive bids before selecting the public accountant or certified public accountant to prepare the audit or audits required by the provisions of this Act, and the consideration specified in each contract shall be paid out of the general fund of the respective county.

Sec. 5. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to prevent any county coming under the provisions of this Act from having an annual independent audit made of the records covered by this Act, provided that when such annual independent audit reports covering such books, accounts and records are completed prior to December 31st of each year such annual independent audits may be considered as compliance with the audits provided by this Act.

Sec. 6. The audits provided for in this Act shall be in addition to any special audits that may be prepared pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1638, 1641 and 1641c, or any regular or special audit report that may be prepared by the regular county auditor.

Art. 1642. Requisites of Report

All reports required under any provision of this title shall be in writing and sworn to by the officer making the same, before some officer authorized to administer oaths; and all such monthly reports shall be filed within five days after the end of each month.

Art. 1643. Warrants Attested

All warrants or scrip issued against the county treasurer by any judge or court shall be signed and attested by the clerk or judge of the court issuing the same, under his official seal. No justice of the peace shall have authority to issue warrants against the treasury for any purpose whatever, except as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Art. 1644. Compensation of Clerk

The clerk shall receive annually as compensation for the labor performed in keeping the finance ledger and making the quarterly statement required by this title, the sum of five dollars for each one thousand dollars tax assessed as due the county, to be paid quarterly on order of the commissioners court out of the general fund of the county; provided, the same be not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

Art. 1644a. Expenses of Survey for Drainage, etc., or Water Control

In any county in this State having taxable values of two hundred ninety million dollars or more, according to the latest approved tax rolls of the county, the Commissioners' Court may spend not to exceed $15,000.00 in any one year out of the general fund of the county for the purpose of making a preliminary engineering survey relating to drainage, reclamation, conservation, levee improvement, or water control.

Art. 1644a-1. Surveys of Water Resources for Use Within County; Expenditure for by Certain Counties; Referendum

Sec. 1. Any county of this State having a river flowing through or forming a part of the boundary of such county is hereby authorized to make expenditures from the General Fund or any other available fund of the county for the purpose of conducting investigations and assembling information relative to the present and prospective water needs of its inhabitants and the feasibility of developing the water resources of the river for uses within the county upon approval of such expenditure at an election as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. Before any expenditure authorized in Section 1 is incurred, the Commissioners Court shall fix the maximum amount of the expenditure and shall submit to the qualified tax-paying voters of the county, at an election ordered for that purpose, the proposition of whether such expenditure shall be incurred. The election shall be ordered and conducted in accordance with the General Election laws of this State. The ballots at the election shall have printed thereon the propositions:

"FOR the expenditure of county funds for the purpose of making a survey of water resources, in an amount not to exceed _____ Dollars."

"AGAINST the expenditure of county funds for the purpose of making a survey of water resources, in an amount not to exceed _____ Dollars."

If a majority of the ballots cast are in favor of such expenditure, the Commissioners Court shall have authority to contract for professional services and incur such other expenses as may be necessary, not to exceed the maximum amount fixed for this purpose. If the majority of the ballots cast are opposed to such expenditure, the Commissioners Court shall not be authorized to make any expenditure for this purpose, and no further election shall be held for a period of two (2) years thereafter.

Art. 1644b. Authorizing Counties to Purchase Property to Satisfy Claims

Sec. 1. That any county in this State whose population according to the last preceding United States Census did not exceed Fifteen Thousand (15,000), having at the time of the passage of this Act, any claim for money against any person, partnership, corporation, joint stock or other association, and whose claim shall amount to at least fifty (50%) per cent of all the claims against such debtor, and the property of such person, partnership, corporation, joint stock or other association shall be sold, within two years from the date this Act shall become effective, under any proceedings in bankruptcy, receivership, or in any other judicial proceeding whatever, and the Commissioners' Court of such county shall be of the opinion that it is necessary or advisable, in the protection of the interests of such county so to do, the said Commissioners' Court be, and is hereby authorized to purchase any or all of the property of such debtor or debtors so sold, within two years from the date this Act shall become effective, when offered for sale by any trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, or by any other officer under the order of any court for such price as the Commissioners' Court may deem advisable and for the best interests of the county, and to have such property by said trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, or other judicial officer conveyed and transferred to the county.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners' Court of any such county is hereby expressly authorized and empowered to borrow money on the credit of the county, and to execute or cause to be executed the obligations of the county therefor, for the purpose of making such purchase or purchases; and it is further expressly authorized to pledge, hypothecate or mortgage any property so purchased to secure the payment of all sums so borrowed.

Sec. 3. The said Commissioners' Court is hereby expressly granted the full power and authority to determine upon what terms, for what length of time and at what rate of interest said sums shall be borrowed.

Sec. 4. Said Commissioners' Court is further hereby expressly authorized to liquidate all assets so purchased for the use and benefit of the county, in any manner that a private individual might liquidate such assets, and to sell and convey all or any of the properties so acquired, either for cash or upon credit, for such length of time and at such rate of interest as said court may deem advisable and to sue upon any obligations so acquired or contracted to said county, and to pay any and all expenses and costs incurred in connection with all or any of the foregoing matters from said property or the proceeds of the sale or liquidation thereof, the net proceeds received by said county to be paid to and for the use and benefit of the respective funds of the county to which said original claim belonged pro rata.

Art. 1644c. Counties, Cities, and Other Subdivisions of State Authorized to Borrow Money from Federal Agencies

Sec. 1. All counties of this State in which there has been damage to public and private property from a tropical hurricane during the year, 1933, and cities, towns, independent school districts, common school districts, water improvement districts, water control and improvement districts, navigation districts, drainage districts, and any and all other public municipal corporations, organized and existing under the Constitution and Laws of this State located in such counties; and all private corporations, created under the Laws of Texas, providing for corporations without capital stock, and the share holders of which are prohibited from receiving any income of any kind from such corporation, are hereby expressly authorized and empowered to borrow money, and to receive grants and other aid from the Government of the United States, from the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Federal Reserve Banks, and any and all other agencies of the Government of the United States, which now are or hereafter may be authorized to make such loans or grants on such terms and in such amounts as may be agreed upon with the lending agency.

Sec. 2. The several counties, cities, towns, and other public municipal corporations above enumerated and described, are further hereby expressly authorized and empowered to issue warrants or other obligations of such counties, cities, towns or other public municipal corporations, in evidence of money borrowed from the Government of the United States or from its agencies, which warrants or obligations may draw interest at any rate not to exceed six per centum (6%) per annum, and may be payable within such time and on such terms as may be agreed upon between the lending agency and the public municipal corporation to which the loan is made; and such counties, cities, towns, and other public municipal corporations are further expressly authorized to pledge the taxes and/or revenues provided for such counties, cities, towns, and other public municipal corporations, under the Constitution and Laws of this State, in payment of such loans made to them by the Government of the United States, or any agency of such Government. Provided, however, that the powers to issue warrants or other obligations by the governing boards of the public municipal corporations herein enumerated or referred to shall be contingent upon an affirmative authorizing vote by a majority of the qualified voters voting in an election called for that purpose under conditions set forth in the statutes governing special elections, except where the warrants or other evidences of obligations are issued for funds to be used to repair damage caused by any tropical hurricane during the year 1933.

Sec. 3. All funds granted or lent to counties, cities, towns, or other public municipal corporations of this State by the Government of the United States or any agency of such Government shall be administered by the officers of such public municipal corporation in the same manner that construction and maintenance funds of such corporations are required to be administered under the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Sec. 4. All funds granted or lent to non-profit corporations by the Government of the United States, or any agency of such Government, shall be administered by the officers of such non-profit corporation in accordance with its by-laws and under such rules and regulations as the lending agency may prescribe; and may be lent by such corporations to persons, firms, and corporations that have been injured or damaged by a tropical hurricane during the year, 1933.

Art. 1644c-1. Counties of 8,000 to 8,040 with Taxable Property in Excess of $45,000,000; Authority to Borrow Money

Sec. 1. All counties of this State having a population of more than eight thousand (8,000) but less than eight thousand and forty (8,040) according to the last preceding United States Census, and which had taxable property in said county in excess of Forty-five Million Dollars ($45,000,000) according to its last ad valorem tax rolls, are hereby expressly authorized and empowered to borrow money from any source, public or private, in any amount not to exceed the aggregate principal amount of One Hundred and Sixty-five Thousand Dollars ($165,000). By the term "aggregate principal amount" is meant the total of the sums so borrowed by any county under the provisions of this Act, and not the balance owing and due by any county at any one time.

Sec. 2. Such counties are further hereby expressly authorized and empowered to issue time warrants and/or other obligations of such counties in evidence of money borrowed, which warrants or obligations may draw interest at any rate not to exceed four percent (4%) per annum, and may be payable within such time, not to exceed ten (10) years, and on such terms as may be agreed upon between the lending agency and the county to which the loan is made; and such counties are further expressly authorized to levy taxes and to pledge any taxes and/or revenues provided for such counties, under the Constitution and Laws of this state, in payment of such loans.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of any such county qualifying under Section 1 is empowered with authority to approve the issuance of such warrants or obligations which may be in any amount or amounts, providing that the total of such warrants or obligations does not exceed One Hundred and Sixty-five Thousand Dollars ($165,000). No such warrants or obligations shall be issued, sold or delivered after five years from the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 4. Such warrants or obligations, upon approval by the Commissioners Court, shall be signed by the county judge and county clerk of such county.

Sec. 5. Such warrants or obligations, when issued and signed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall constitute valid obligations of such counties.

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other Laws, General and Special, relating to the subject matter hereof.

Art. 1644d. Validation of Purchases by Counties to Satisfy Claims

All purchases, pursuant to Legislative enactment of the property of any debtor or debtors, at any sale under any proceedings in bankruptcy, receivership or in any other judicial proceeding whatever, heretofore made by any county in this State whose population did not exceed fifteen thousand (15,000) according to the last United States Census, and which had a claim or claims for money against any such person, partnership, corporation, joint stock or other associations, amounting to at least fifty (50) per cent of all the claims against such debtor, and where the Commissioners Court of any such county has deemed it necessary or advisable to so purchase said property to protect the interest of such county, and all conveyances, transfers and assignments to any such county of real and personal property so purchased, and the liquidation of such assets by the Commissioners Court of any such county heretofore done, and all sales, conveyances, transfers and assignments of real and personal property, oil, gas and mineral leases, and other transfers, conveyances and assignments made by any such county to any and all purchasers in connection therewith, whether such sales were made at public or private sale, be and the same are here and now in all things fully and completely validated, ratified and confirmed.

Auditors in counties of thirty-three thousand, two hundred (33,200) to thirty-three thousand, six hundred (33,600).

In every county in this State having a population of not less than thirty-three thousand, two hundred (33,200) and not more than thirty-three thousand, six hundred (33,600), according to the last preceding Federal Census, the District Judge having jurisdiction in such county shall, if such reason be good and sufficient, appoint a County Auditor as provided in Article 1646, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and said Auditor shall receive a salary of not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) nor more than Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600) per year, and same shall be paid in the same manner as other county officers are paid in said counties.

Art. 1645a-6. County Auditors in Counties of 14,850 to 14,920 Population; Qualification; Salary

Sec. 1. From and after the effective date of this Act in all counties in this State having a population of not less than fourteen thousand, eight hundred and fifty (14,850), and not more than fourteen thousand, nine hundred and twenty (14,920), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any subsequent Federal Census, the Commissioners Court in such counties, if they shall determine that an Auditor is a public necessity in the dispatch of the county business, and shall enter an order upon the minutes of said Court, fully setting out the reasons and necessities for such Auditor, and shall cause said order to be certified to the District Judge having jurisdiction in the counties hereinabove set out, said Judge shall, if such reasons be considered good and sufficient, appoint a County Auditor as provided in Article 1647 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and upon the appointment by said Judge of such Auditor, such Auditor shall qualify by taking the oath of office and giving the bond as now provided in Article 1649 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925.

Sec. 2. When the Auditor, as hereinabove provided, shall have qualified by taking the oath and giving the bond, as provided in Section 1 hereof, he shall be authorized to perform all the duties now required of Auditors generally in counties of this State, as provided in Title 34 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and amendments thereto not in conflict herewith, and shall receive a salary not to exceed Two Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400) per annum, said salary to be paid in equal monthly installments and shall be paid from the County General Fund, of such counties, the Jury Fund, the Road and Bridge Fund, the Permanent Improvement Fund, in proportion and on the percentage of levies made for each respective Fund, and in proportion that such levies bear to the total salary of such Auditor.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be deemed cumulative of all general provisions now authorizing the employment of Auditors, and it is not intended by this Act to repeal any law, or parts of law, not in conflict herewith.

Art. 1645a-7. Abolition of Office of County Auditor in Counties of 25,500 to 25,610

No County having a population of not less than twenty-five thousand five hundred fifty (25,550), nor more than twenty-five thousand six hundred ten (25,610), according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall have a County Auditor, and the office of County Auditor is hereby abolished in any and all such Counties, and the duties of the office of County Auditor in such Counties shall be performed by such other officers of the County, as may be provided by General Law.

Art. 1645a-8. County Auditors in Counties of 25,450 to 25,500; Appointment; Compensation; Term of Office

In any county having a population of not less than twenty-five thousand, four hundred and fifty (25,450) nor more than twenty-five thousand, five hundred (25,500) according to the last preceding Federal Census, there shall be biennially appointed an auditor of accounts and finances, the title of said officer to be "County Auditor," who shall hold his office for two (2) years and who shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of Eighteen Hundred Dollars ($1800) per annum payable in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of the county upon order of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1645a-9. Office Abolished in Counties of 3,000 to 25,500

No County Auditor shall hereafter be appointed in any county having a population of not more than twenty-five thousand, five hundred (25,500) and not less than three thousand (3,000) where no such County Auditor has been appointed by the District Judge prior to the effective date of this Act, except upon the petition of the County Commissioners Court and in all such counties the duties of such County Auditor in such County shall be performed by other officers as may be prescribed by general law.

Art. 1645a-10. Auditors in Counties of 1,500,000 or More; Election by Judges; Term of Office

Sec. 1. In any county having a population of 1,500,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the district judges having jurisdiction in the county, shall nominate candidates for the office of county auditor. Each judge may nominate as many candidates as he wishes. The office of county auditor shall be filled by the candidate receiving a two-thirds vote of the district judges having jurisdiction in the county at a meeting held for that purpose and the vote of a district judge shall not be counted unless he is present at the meeting.

Sec. 2. The term of office of the county auditor in counties to which this Act applies is two years, beginning on January 1 of odd-numbered years. The initial appointee under this Act shall be appointed within 20 days after this Act takes effect and shall serve for the unexpired portion of the term of office specified in this section.

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1971 act provided:

"Sec. 3. As used in this Act, 'the last preceding federal census' means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes.

"Sec. 4. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 1645a-11. Abolition of Office of County Auditor in Counties of 2,260 to 2,290

Sec. 1. The office of county auditor is abolished in all counties having a population of not less than 2,260 nor more than 2,290 according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, "the last preceding federal census" means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes.

Art. 1646. Auditors for Other Counties

When the Commissioners' Court of a county not mentioned and enumerated in the preceding Article shall determine that an Auditor is a public necessity in the dispatch of the county business, and shall enter an order upon the minutes of said Court fully setting out the reason for and necessity of an Auditor, and shall cause such order to be certified to the District Judge or District Judges having jurisdiction in the county, said Judge or Judges shall, if said reason be considered good and sufficient, appoint a County Auditor as provided in the preceding Article, who shall qualify and perform all the duties required of County Auditors by the laws of this State, and who shall receive as compensation for his services as County Auditor an annual salary of not more than the annual total compensation and/or salary allowed or paid the Assessor and Collector of Taxes in his county, and not less than the annual salary allowed such County Auditor under the General Law provided in Article 1645, Revised Civil Statutes, as said Article existed on January 1, 1940, such salary of the County Auditor to be determined and fixed by the District Judge or District Judges having jurisdiction in the county, a majority thereof ruling, said annual salary to be paid monthly out of the general fund of the county. The action of said District Judge or District Judges in determining and fixing the salary of the County Auditor shall be made by order and recorded in the minutes of the District Court of the county, and the Clerk thereof shall certify the same for observance to the Commissioners' Court which shall cause the same to be recorded in its minutes; after the salary of the County Auditor has been fixed by the District Judge or District Judges, no change in such salary shall thereafter become effective until the beginning of the next ensuing fiscal year of the county; provided, however, any increase in the salary of any such County Auditor, over and above the annual salary allowed such County Auditor under the general law provided in Article 1645, as said Article existed on January 1, 1940, shall only be allowed or permitted with the express consent and approval of the Commissioners' Court of the county whose County Auditor is affected or may be affected by the provisions of this Act; such consent and approval of such Commissioners' Court shall be made by order of such Court and recorded in the minutes of the Commissioners' Court of such County. Provided, said District Judge or District Judges shall have the power to discontinue the services of a County Auditor as provided for in this Article at any time after the expiration of one (1) year from the appointment, when it is clearly shown that such Auditor is not a public necessity, and his services are not commensurate with his salary.

Art. 1646a. County Auditors

The commissioners' court of any county under twenty-five thousand population according to the last United States census may make an arrangement or agreement with one or more other counties whereby all counties, parties to the arrangement or agreement, may jointly employ and compensate a special auditor or auditors for the purposes specified in Articles 1645 and 1646. The county commissioners' court of every county affected by this article may have an audit made of all the books of the county, or any of them, at any time they may desire whether such arrangements can be made with other counties or not; provided the district judge or grand jury may order said audit if either so desires.

Art. 1646b. Joint Employment of County Auditor in Counties Under 25,000 Population

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county under twenty-five thousand (25,000) population according to the last United States Census may make an arrangement or agreement with one or more other such counties whereby all counties, parties to the arrangement or agreement, may jointly employ and compensate an auditor for said counties, respectively.

After such agreement or arrangement has been entered into by and between the Commissioners Courts of said counties, and they shall have determined that an auditor is a public necessity in the disposition of county business, and shall have entered an order upon the minutes of the Courts to that effect, they shall cause said orders to be certified to the District Judge or District Judges having jurisdiction in the respective counties. Said Judge or Judges shall, if said orders be considered good and sufficient, appoint a qualified person who shall act as county auditor for each of said counties. Such auditor shall qualify and perform all of the duties required of county auditors by the laws of this State, and in addition to the regular duties performed by him as required by law, shall act as purchasing agent for each of said counties.

Such county auditor shall be appointed for a term of two years from and after such appointment. The annual salary to be paid such county auditor by each county, shall be fixed by the District Judge or District Judges at a sum not in excess of Three Thousand ($3,000.00) Dollars for each county. Provided, that where such county auditor serves more than two counties under such arrangement or agreement, his total annual compensation shall not exceed Seven Thousand Five Hundred ($7,500.00) Dollars from all of said counties. Such annual salary shall be paid out of the General Fund of the counties in twelve equal monthly payments.

The action of the District Judge or District Judges in making such appointment and in determining and fixing the salary of the county auditor shall be made by order entered and recorded in the minutes of the District Courts of the counties entering into such arrangement or agreement, and the District Clerk of said counties shall certify the same for observance to the Commissioners Courts of said counties which shall cause the same to be recorded in their minutes. Provided, said District Judge or District Judges shall have the power to discontinue the services of the county auditor at any time after the expiration of one year from his appointment when in their opinion such county auditor is no longer a public necessity and his services are not commensurate with his salary. In all matters herein required to be done by the District Judges a majority action shall control.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this law shall be cumulative of all other provisions of the laws pertaining to county auditors.

Art. 1647. Appointment

The district judges having jurisdiction in the county, shall appoint the county auditor at a special meeting held for that purpose, a majority ruling; provided, that if a majority of such judges fail to agree upon the selection of some person as auditor, then either of said judges shall certify such fact to the Governor, who shall thereupon appoint some other district judge to act and vote with the aforesaid judges in the selection of such auditor. The action shall then be recorded in the minutes of the district court of the county and the clerk thereof shall certify the same to the commissioners court, which shall cause the same to be recorded in its minutes together with an order directing the payment of the auditor's salary.

Art. 1648. Qualification

Said auditor shall be a citizen of the county of at least two years residence, and must be a man of unquestionable good moral character and intelligence, thoroughly competent in public business details; and he must be a competent accountant of at least two years experience in auditing and accounting. The judges making such appointment must first carefully investigate and consider the qualifications of said person. If no such qualified citizen of the county can be procured, said judges may appoint a qualified citizen from another county. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1649. Bond and Oath

The Auditor shall within twenty days of his appointment and before he enters upon the duties of his office make bond with two or more good and sufficient personal sureties or a good and sufficient surety bond in the minimum sum of $5,000 payable to the District Judge or District Judges conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties to be approved by the District Judge or District Judges having jurisdiction of the county, a majority ruling. He shall also take the official oath and an additional one in writing stating that he is in every way qualified under the provisions and requirements of this title and giving fully the positions of private or public trust he has heretofore held and the length of service under each. He shall further include in his oath that he will not be personally interested in any contracts with the county.

Art. 1650. Organization

The County Auditor of any county of this State may, at any time, with the consent of the District Judge or District Judges having jurisdiction as hereinafter provided, appoint a first assistant and other assistants who shall be authorized to discharge such duties as may be assigned to them by the County Auditor and provided for by law. In counties where only one assistant is appointed, such assistant shall be authorized to act for the County Auditor during his absence or unavoidable detention with respect to such duties as are required by law of the County Auditor. In counties in which more than one assistant shall be appointed, the County Auditor may designate the assistant who shall be authorized to act for him during his absence or unavoidable detention. All of said assistants shall take the usual oath of office for faithful performance of duty and may be required to give such bond as the County Auditor may determine, which bond shall be paid for by the County and shall run in favor of the county and of the County Auditor as their interest may appear.

The County Auditor shall prepare a list of the number of deputies sought to be appointed, their duties, qualifications and experience, and the salaries to be paid each, and shall certify the list to the District Judge, or in the event of more than one District Judge in the county, to the District Judges, and the District Judge or the District Judges shall then carefully consider the application for the appointment of said assistants and may make all necessary inquiries concerning the qualifications of the persons named, the positions sought to be filled and the reasonableness of the salaries requested, and if, after such consideration, the District Judge, or in the event of more than one District

Judge, a majority of the District Judges shall approve the appointments sought to be made or any number thereof, he or they shall prepare a list of the appointees so approved and the salaries to be paid each and certify said list to the Commissioners Court of said county. The Commissioners Court shall thereupon order the amount paid from the General Fund of said county upon the performance of the services; and said Court shall appropriate adequate funds for the purpose. Temporary assistants as may be needed may be appointed in cases of bona fide emergencies, the number of such temporary assistants, their salaries and the duration of employment to be recommended by the County Auditor but to be determined by the District Judge or by a majority of the District Judges as the occasion may require; in like manner the District Judge or a majority of the District Judges may authorize the appointment of additional regular assistants when in their judgment a necessity exists therefor. The County Auditor shall have the right to discontinue the services of any assistant employed in accordance with the provisions of this Article, but no assistant shall be employed except in the manner herein provided. The District Judge or District Judges giving consent to the Auditor to appoint an assistant or assistants shall annually have the right to withdraw such consent and change the number of assistants permitted.

The County Auditor shall be authorized to provide himself with all necessary ledgers, books, records, blanks, stationery, equipment, telephone and postage at the county's expense, but all purchases thereof shall be made in the manner provided for by law.

Art. 1650a. Mileage Expenses

The commissioners court may reimburse the county auditor for expenses incurred in traveling to and from the county seat in his personal automobile to perform his official duties and to attend conferences and seminars relating to the performance of his official duties. However, the commissioners court may not reimburse the auditor for expenses incurred in traveling between his personal residence and county office, or for expenses incurred in any other travel of a personal nature. The commissioners court by order shall fix the rate of reimbursement, not to exceed 10 cents a mile. Reimbursement shall be made monthly from the appropriate county funds on submission of sworn expense reports by the county auditor.

Art. 1651. General Duties; Destruction of Ancient Records

The Auditor shall have a general oversight of all the books and records of all the officers of the county, district or state, who may be authorized or required by law to receive or collect any money, funds, fees, or other property for the use of, or belonging to, the county; and he shall see to the strict enforcement of the law governing county finances.

Upon the expiration of ten (10) years from their original date, the County Auditor with the consent of the Commissioners Court, may destroy the papers, cancelled checks and vouchers, accounts and records which are in the control and custody of his office. Bound volumes and ledgers shall not be destroyed in any event.

The necessary consent of the Commissioners Court shall be obtained by filing an application in writing and sworn to by the County Auditor, with the Commissioners Court setting out the classification of the papers, cancelled checks and vouchers, accounts, and records, and the years included, and that said papers, cancelled checks and vouchers, accounts, and records have been on file for not less than ten (10) years.

The Commissioners Court shall approve the application filed by the County Auditor by order and said order shall be spread upon the minutes of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1652. Repealed by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 514, ch. 178, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969

Art. 1653. To Examine Accounts

He shall have continual access to and shall examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records of any officer, the orders of the commissioners court, relating to finances of the county, and all vouchers given by the trustee of all common school districts of the county and shall inquire into the correctness of same.

Art. 1654. To Examine Reports

All reports of collections of money for the county required to be made to the commissioners court shall also be carefully examined and reported on by him. He shall at least once in each quarter check the books and examine all the reports of the tax collector, the treasurer and all other officers, in detail, verifying the footings and correctness of same, and shall stamp his approval thereon, or note any differences, errors or discrepancies. He shall carefully examine the quarterly report of the treasurer, of all the disbursements, together with the canceled warrants which have been paid, and shall verify the same with the register of warrants issued as shown on the books of the auditor.

Art. 1655. To Count Cash

The auditor, without giving any notice beforehand, shall examine fully into the condition of, or inspect and count the cash in the hands of the county treasurer, or in the bank in which he may have placed same for safe keeping, not less than once in each quarter, and oftener if desired, and shall see that all balances to the credit of the various funds are actually on hand in cash, and that none of said funds are invested in any manner, except as the law may authorize.

Art. 1656. To Prescribe Forms and Rules

He shall prescribe and prepare the forms to be used by all persons in the collection of county revenues, funds, fees and all other moneys, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and the time, mode and manner of making their reports to the auditor, also the mode and manner of making their annual report of office fees collected and disbursed, and the amount refunded to the county in excess of those allowed under the general fee bill law. He shall have power to adopt and enforce such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws, as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper collection, checking and accounting of the revenues and other funds and fees belonging to the county.

Art. 1656a. County Auditor in Certain Counties to Prescribe Accounting System; Deposit of Funds in County Depository

The County Auditor in counties having a population of one hundred ninety thousand (190,000) or more according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census shall prescribe the system of accounting for the county and the forms to be used by the District Clerk, the District Attorney and all county and precinct officers and by all persons in the collection and disbursement of county revenues, funds, fees, and all other moneys collected in an official capacity whether belonging to the county, its subdivisions or precincts, or to, or for the use or benefit of, any person, firm, or corporation; he shall prescribe the mode and manner in which the District Clerk, the District Attorney and all county and precinct officers shall keep their accounts, and he shall have the power to require all officers to furnish monthly, annual, or other reports under oath of all moneys, taxes, or fees of every nature received, disbursed, or remaining on hand; and in connection with such reports he shall have the right to count the cash on hand with such officer, or to verify the amount on deposit in the bank in which such officer may have placed the same for safekeeping. He shall have the power to adopt and enforce such regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper collection and checking of, and accounting for, the revenues and other funds and fees belonging to the county or to any person, firm, or corporation for whom any of said officers may have made collections, or for whose use or benefit they may have received or may hold such funds. All of the fees, commissions, funds, and moneys herein referred to shall be turned over to the County Treasurer by such officer as collected, and such money shall be deposited in the county depository in a special fund to the credit of such officer and draw interest for the benefit of the county, which funds, when so deposited in such depository, shall be secured by the bond of such depository. Thereafter the officer may draw checks on the County Treasurer to disburse said funds in the payment of salaries and expenses authorized by law or in payment to the county or to the persons, firms, or corporations to whom said funds may belong. The Treasurer and the depository shall make no payment unless such check is countersigned by the County Auditor. The deposit of funds in the County Treasury shall not in any wise change the ownership of any fund so deposited except to indemnify said officer and his bondsmen or other owners of such funds for such funds during the period of deposit with the county: At the close of any fiscal year or accounting period now or hereafter fixed by law, the County Auditor shall audit, adjust, and settle the accounts of such officer. In the event the County Auditor shall be unable to obtain proper reports or an adequate accounting from any District Attorney, District Clerk, county or precinct officer as herein provided, either during or after his term of office, the County Auditor shall have authority to enforce an accounting thereof, and to take such steps at the expense of the county as are necessary in his judgment to protect the interests of the county or of the persons, firms, or corporations entitled to such funds.

Art. 1656b. Reports to County Auditor by County and District Clerks as to Trust Funds; Countersigning Checks

In all counties having a population of one hundred ninety thousand (190,000) or more, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, and in which the Commissioners Court may have provided, or shall hereafter provide, for a depository for the trust funds of the County Clerk and of the District Clerk, said officers shall each make to the County Auditor in such form as he may prescribe such monthly or other reports under oath as he may require to reflect properly all trust funds received and disbursed by such officer, including all moneys remaining on hand at the time of such report. All checks issued for the disbursement of said funds shall be issued in accordance with the laws providing for trust fund depositories and such checks shall be submitted to the County Auditor for his countersignature prior to delivery or payment, and said County Auditor shall countersign said checks only upon written evidence of the order of the Judge of the Court in which said funds have been deposited, authorizing the disbursement of such funds.

Art. 1656c. State Comptroller of Public Accounts to Prescribe Uniform System of Accounts

Sec. 1. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall prescribe and prepare the forms to be used by all county officials in the collection of county revenues, funds, fees, and other moneys, and in the disbursement of all funds, and shall prescribe the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, which forms shall be so prepared, as in the judgment of the Comptroller will meet the needs of counties of different sizes in the State.

Sec. 2. In order that a modern and uniform system of accounts, properly suited to the needs of the counties in keeping their financial records may be prescribed, the Comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to make a survey and study of the financial records, reports, books and forms now in use by the counties of this State and to make such revisions and prescribe such forms as he may deem necessary. [Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 183, ch. 66.]

Art. 1657. Deposits

Sec. 1. Except as provided in Section 2 of this article, all deposits that are made in the county treasury shall be upon a deposit warrant issued by the county clerk in triplicate; said warrants shall authorize the treasurer to receive the amount named, for what purpose, and to which fund the same shall be applied. The treasurer shall retain the original; and the duplicate shall be signed and returned to the county clerk for the county auditor and the triplicate signed and returned to the depositor. The auditor shall then enter same upon his books, charging the amounts to the county treasurer and crediting the party depositing same. The treasurer shall not, under any circumstances, receive any money in any other manner than that named herein.

Sec. 2. The commissioners court of a county may adopt an order relieving the county clerk of all duties prescribed in Section 1 of this article. If an order of that type is adopted, the county treasurer shall receive all deposits that are made in the county treasury. The county treasurer shall prepare a triplicate receipt for all moneys received, retain one copy of the receipt, and transmit the original to the county auditor and a copy to the depositor. The county auditor shall prescribe for the county treasurer a system for receiving and depositing all moneys received which is not inconsistent with this section.

Art. 1657a. Relieving Clerk of Certain Duties Prescribed by Article 1657 in Counties of Over 1,500,000

In counties containing a population in excess of 1,500,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census, the county clerk is relieved of all duties prescribed by Article 1657, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925. The county treasurer shall prepare a triplicate receipt for all moneys received, retain one copy of the receipt, and transmit the original and duplicate to the county auditor and the depositor, respectively. The county auditor shall prescribe for the county treasurer a system for receiving and depositing all moneys received; provided that such system shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1658. Bids for Supplies

Bids shall be asked for all supplies of stationery, books, blanks, records, and other supplies for the various officers for which the county is required to pay, and the purchase made from the lowest bidder, after filing said bid with the auditor for record.

Art. 1659. Bids for Material

Supplies of every kind, road and bridge material, or any other material, for the use of said county, or any of its officers, departments, or institutions must be purchased on competitive bids, the contract to be awarded to the party who, in the judgment of the commissioners court, has submitted the lowest and best bid. The county auditor shall advertise the bidding at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in at least one daily newspaper published and circulated in the county. The advertisements shall state where the specifications are to be found, and shall give the time and place for receiving the bids. Publication of the first advertisement shall precede the last day for receiving bids by at least 14 days. All such competitive bids shall be kept on file by the county auditor as a part of the records of his office, and shall be subject to inspection by any one desiring to see them. Copies of all bids received shall be furnished by the county auditor to the county judge and to the commissioners court; and when the bids received are not satisfactory to the said judge or county commissioners, the auditor shall reject said bids and readvertise for new bids. In cases of emergency, purchases not in excess of $300 may be made upon requisition to be approved by the commissioners court without advertising for competitive bids.

Art. 1659a. Counties of 800,000; Bids for Supplies or Materials; Advertisement; Filing

In all counties having a population of eight hundred thousand (800,000) or more, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, supplies of every kind, road and bridge material, or any other material, for the use of said county, or any of its officers, departments, or institutions must be purchased on competitive bids, the contract to be awarded to the party who, in the judgment of the Commissioners Court, has submitted the lowest and best bid. Where the total expenditure for any such purchase or any such contract shall exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), advertisements for bids for such supplies and material, according to specifications giving in detail what is needed, shall be made by the county auditor once each week for two (2) successive weeks in a daily newspaper published and circulated in the county. Such advertisements shall state where the specifications are to be found, and shall give the time and place for receiving such bids. Where the amount to be expended shall be One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or less, it shall not be necessary to advertise for bids, but sealed bids shall be asked from as many as three (3) persons, firms or corporations, or as many more as shall offer to bid, based on written specifications filed with the county auditor at least forty-eight (48) hours before the time of opening said sealed bids. All such competitive bids shall be kept on file by the county auditor as a part of the records of his office, and shall be subject to inspection by anyone desiring to see them. Copies of all bids received shall be furnished by the county auditor to the Commissioners Court; and when the bids received are not satisfactory to the Commissioners Court, the auditor shall reject said bids and readvertise for new bids, where the amount to be expended exceeds One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or ask for new bids, where the amount to be expended shall be One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or less. In cases of emergency, purchases or contracts not in excess of Five Hundred Dollars ($500), may be made upon requisition to be approved by the Commissioners Court, without advertising for competitive bids or asking for competitive bids.

Art. 1659b. Counties of 700,000 to 800,000; Bids for Supplies or Materials; Advertising; Filing

In all counties having a population of not less than 700,000 nor more than 800,000, according to the last preceding federal census, and having an assessed valuation of $800,000,000 or more, supplies of every kind, road and bridge material, or any other material, for the use of said county, or any of its officers, departments, or institutions must be purchased on competitive bids, the contract to be awarded to the party who, in the judgment of the commissioners court, has submitted the lowest and best bid. Where the total expenditure for any such purchase or any such contract shall exceed $1,000, advertisements for bids for such supplies and material, according to purchasing specifications giving in detail what is needed, shall be made by the purchasing agent, if the county has no purchasing agent then by the county auditor, once each week for two successive weeks in a daily newspaper published and circulated in the county. Such advertisements shall state where the specifications are to be found, and shall give the time and place for receiving such bids. Where the amount to be expended shall be $1,000, or less, it shall not be necessary to advertise for bids, but sealed bids shall be asked from as many as three persons, firms, or corporations, or as many more as shall offer to bid, based on written specifications filed with the purchasing agent or auditor as the case may be, at least 48 hours before the time of opening said sealed bids. All such competitive bids shall be kept on file by the purchasing agent or auditor, as the case may be, as a part of the records of his office, and shall be subject to inspection by anyone desiring to see them. Copies of all bids received shall be furnished by the purchasing agent or auditor to the commissioners court; and when the bids received are not satisfactory to the commissioners court, the purchasing agent or auditor shall reject said bids and readvertise for new bids, where the amount to be expended exceeds $1,000, or ask for new bids, where the amount to be expended shall be $1,000 or less. In cases of emergency, purchases or contracts not in excess of $1,000 may be made upon requisition to be approved by the commissioners court, without advertising for competitive bids or asking for competitive bids.

Art. 1660. Approval of Claims

All claims, bills and accounts against the county must be filed in ample time for the auditor to examine and approve same before the meetings of the commissioners court. No claim, bill or account shall be allowed or paid until it has been examined and approved by the county auditor. The auditor shall examine the same and stamp his approval thereon. If he deems it necessary, all such accounts, bills, or claims must be verified by affidavit touching the correctness of the same. The auditor is hereby authorized to administer oaths for the purposes of this law.

Art. 1661. Requisites of Approval

Sec. 1. He shall not audit or approve any such claim unless it has been contracted as provided by law, nor any account for the purchase of supplies or materials for the use of said county or any of its officers, unless, in addition to other requirements of law, there is attached thereto a requisition signed by the officer ordering same and approved by the county judge. Said requisition must be made out and signed and approved in triplicate by the said officers, the triplicate to remain with the officer desiring the purchase, the duplicate to be filed with the county auditor, and the original to be delivered to the party from whom said purchase is to be made before any purchase shall be made. All warrants on the county treasurer, except warrants for jury service, must be countersigned by the county auditor.

Sec. 2. The county judge of a county having an auditor may waive by his own written order the approval of the county judge on requisitions. The order shall be recorded in the minutes of the Commissioners Court. If the county judge's approval is waived, all claims must be approved by the Commissioners Court in open court.

Art. 1662. Register of Warrants

He shall keep a register of all warrants issued by the judges or the district or county clerks on the county treasurer, and their dates of payment by the treasurer. Such clerks or judges shall daily furnish the auditor an itemized report specifying the warrants that have been issued, their numbers, their several amounts, the names of the persons to whom payable, and for what purpose, on forms prepared by the auditor.

Art. 1663. Accounts with Officers

He shall keep an account with each person named in the preceding articles and in doing so he shall relieve the county clerk of keeping the finance ledger. His books shall show the detailed items of the indebtedness against all of said officers and the manner of discharging same. He shall require all persons who shall have received any moneys belonging to the county, or having the disposition or management of any property of the county to render statements to him.

Art. 1663a. Penalty

A county official or other person from whom the county auditor is entitled to receive reports, statements, or other information under the provisions of Subdivision 2 of this Title who willfully refuses to comply with any reasonable request of the county auditor concerning those reports, statements, or other information is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200, removal from office, or both a fine and removal from office.

Art. 1663b. Private Business Operation on Public Property; Records and Reports of Receipts and Disbursements

Sec. 1. No county official, his agents, servants, deputies, or employees shall operate a private business on public property unless he shall:

(a) keep an accurate and detailed record of all monies received and disbursed by him; and

(b) file with the county auditor, or the auditing authority of the county, a report covering all of said receipts and disbursements during the immediately preceding calendar year on or before January 1 of each year; and

(c) make available to the county auditor all records of said receipts and disbursements, provided however that this Act shall not apply to compensation received by justices of the peace and official court reporters for performance of an act not required by law of such official.

Sec. 2. Any and all monies received and required to be reported under Section 1 of this Act together with any interest thereon which has been paid by any financial institution as a result of the deposit of said funds over and above any disbursements required to be reported under Section 1 of this Act shall be delivered to the county treasurer at the time of filing said report or at such other regular intervals throughout the year as may be prescribed by the county auditor or auditing authority of the county, provided, however, that this section shall not be applicable to any person, firm or corporation operating or doing business under or by virtue of any written contract with the county.

Sec. 3. If any county official covered by Section 1 of this Act has not complied with Sections 1 and 2 of this Act by February 1 of each year the county auditor shall notify the county or district attorney. The county or district attorney shall, or any qualified voter of the county may, file in the district court of the county a petition for a writ of mandamus to compel compliance with Sections 1 and 2 of this Act.

Sec. 4. In addition to the remedies provided in Section 3 of this Act, any county official, his agents, servants, deputies, or employees, failing to comply with any provision of Section 1 or 2 of this Act or falsifying any records or reports required in Section 1 or 2 of this Act shall be guilty of official misconduct and subject to removal under Title 100, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925 as amended.¹

Art. 1664. General Accounts

He shall keep a general set of books showing all the transactions of the county relating to accounts, contracts, indebtedness of the county, and its receipts and disbursements of all kinds, and shall make tabulated reports of said funds and accounts for each regular meeting of the commissioners court.

Art. 1665. Reports to Commissioners

The County Auditor shall make monthly and annual reports to the Commissioners Court and District Judge or District Judges of his county setting forth all the facts of interest and showing the aggregate amounts received and disbursed out of each fund, the condition of each account on the books, the amounts of county, district and school funds on deposit in the County Depository, showing further the amount of bonded and other indebtedness of the county, together with such other information and suggestions as he may deem proper or that said Commissioners Court or District Judge or District Judges may require. Said annual report shall be made to include all transactions during the year ending December 31st of each year and shall be completed and filed at a regular or special term of the Commissioners Court in the following April and copies of such reports shall be filed with the District Judge or District Judges of said county. Each time an annual audit is delivered to the Commissioners Court and the District Judge or District Judges, as the case may be, the County Auditor shall send a report to the bonding company of each district, county or precinct officer showing the condition of that particular office.

Art. 1666. Budget

He shall prepare an estimate of all the revenues and expenses, and annually submit it to the commissioners court, which court shall carefully make a budget of all appropriations to be set aside for the various expenses of the county government in each branch and department. He shall open an account with each appropriation in said budget, and all warrants drawn against same shall be entered to said account. He shall carefully keep an oversight of same to see that the expenses of any department do not exceed said budget appropriations, and keep said court advised of the condition of said appropriation accounts from time to time.

Art. 1666a. Budget; Counties Over 225,000

The County Auditor in all counties having a population in excess of two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) as shown by the last preceding or any future United States Census shall serve as the budget officer for the Commissioners Courts in each county, and on or immediately after January 1st of each year he shall prepare a budget to cover all proposed expenditures of the county government for the current fiscal and calendar year. Such budget shall be carefully itemized so as to make possible as clear a comparison as practicable between expenditures included in the proposed budget and actual expenditures for the same or similar purposes for the preceding year. The budget shall be so prepared as to show with reasonable accuracy each of the various projects for which appropriations are set up in the budget, and the estimated amount of money carried in the budget for each of such projects. The budget shall contain a complete financial statement of the county, showing all outstanding obligations of the county, the cash on hand to the credit of every and each fund of the county government, the funds received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the Auditor to be received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the Auditor to be received from all sources during the ensuing year, together with a statement of all accounts and contracts on which sums are due to or by the county as of December 31st of the year preceding, except taxes and court costs. Until a budget has been adopted by the Commissioners Court no payments shall be made during the current year except for emergencies and for obligations legally incurred prior to January 1st of such year for salaries, utilities, materials, and supplies. A copy of the budget shall be filed with the Clerk of the County Court, and it shall be available for inspection by the taxpayer.

The Commissioners Court in each county shall provide for a public hearing on the county budget, which hearing shall take place on some date to be named by the Commissioners Court within seven (7) calendar days after the filing of the budget and prior to January 31st of the current year. Public notice shall be given that on the date of said hearing the budget as prepared by the County Auditor will be considered by the Commissioners Court. Said notice shall name the hour, the date, and the place the hearing shall be conducted, and shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in said county. Any taxpayer of such county shall have the right to be present and participate in said hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the budget as prepared by the County Auditor shall be acted upon by the Commissioners Court. The Court shall have authority to make such changes in the budget as in its judgment the facts and the law warrant and the interest of the taxpayers demand, provided the amounts budgeted for current expenditures from the various funds of the county shall not exceed the balances in said funds as of January 1st plus the anticipated revenue for the current year for which the budget is made, as estimated by the County Auditor. Upon final approval of the budget by the Commissioners Court, a copy of such budget as approved shall be filed with the County Auditor, the Clerk of the Court, and the State Auditor, and no expenditures of the funds of the county shall thereafter be made except in strict compliance with said budget. Said Court may upon proper application transfer an existing budget surplus during the year to a budget of like kind and fund, but no such transfer shall increase the total of the budget.

In like manner when any bond issue of the county is submitted at an election or anticipation warrants are to be issued against future revenues and a tax levied for said warrants a budget of proposed expenditures shall be adopted and upon the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of any bonds or warrants expenditures shall be made therefrom in the manner hereinafter provided for expenditures for general purposes.

Upon the adoption of any general or special budget as hereinbefore provided and its certification, the County Auditor of each county thereupon shall open an appropriation account for each main budgeted or special item therein and it shall be his duty to charge all purchase orders or requisitions, contracts, and salary and labor allowances to said appropriations. Requisitions issued or contracts entered into conformably to the laws of the State of Texas by proper authority for work, labor, services, or materials and supplies shall nevertheless not become effective and binding unless and until there has been issued in connection with such item the certificate of said County Auditor that ample budget provision has been made in the budget therefor and funds are, or will be, on hand to pay the obligation of the county or officer when due. The amount set aside in any budget for any purchase order or requisition, contract, special purpose, or salary and labor account shall not be available for allocation for any other purpose unless an unexpended balance remains in the account after full discharge of the obligation or unless the requisition, contract, or allocation has been cancelled in writing by the Commissioners Court or county officer for a valid reason.

The County Auditor shall make to the Commissioners Court not less than monthly a complete report showing the financial condition of the county. Said report shall be in such form as may be prescribed by said County Auditor and shall set forth all facts of interest concerning the financial condition of the county and shall contain a consolidated balance sheet. The report shall contain a complete statement of the balances on hand at the beginning and close of the month and the aggregate receipts to and aggregate disbursements from each fund, the transfers to and from each fund, the bonded and warrant indebtedness with the rates of interest due thereon, a summarized budget statement showing for each officer, department, or institution budgeted the expenses paid from the budget during the month and for the period of the fiscal year inclusive of the month for which said report is made, also the encumbrances against said budgets, and the amounts available for further expenditures, together with such other information as such officer may deem necessary to reflect the true condition of the finances of such county or the Commissioners Court thereof may require. The County Auditor shall publish once in a daily newspaper published in said county a condensed copy of said report showing the condition of funds and budgets together with such recommendations as he may deem desirable.

In the preparation of the budget, the County Auditor shall have authority to require of any district, county, or precinct officer of the county such information as may be necessary to properly prepare the budget.

Art. 1667. Improvement District Finances

In all counties which have or may have a County Auditor and containing a population of one hundred ten thousand (110,000) or more, as shown by the preceding Federal Census, and in all counties having a population of not less than thirty-eight thousand (38,000) nor more than thirty-eight thousand three hundred fifty (38,350), according to the last Federal Census, and in which counties there exists or in which there may be created any improvement, navigation, drainage, or road or irrigation district, or any other character of district having for its purpose the expenditure of public funds for improvement purposes, or for improvements of any kind whether derived from the issuance of bonds or through any character of special assessment, the County Auditor shall exercise such control over the finances of said district as hereinafter provided.

Art. 1668. Improvement Districts: Supplies

All purchases for supplies and materials, and all contracts for labor on behalf of any such districts shall be made in accordance with the law governing such districts, provided, that the commissioners or other governing body be authorized, without the taking of bids in cases of emergency to make purchases or contracts not to exceed the sum of fifty dollars, upon requisition signed by at least two members of the governing body of such district. A requisition shall be issued therefor, executed in triplicate, one copy to be delivered to the person or corporation from whom the purchase is made, one to be delivered to the county auditor, and one to remain on file with the governing body of such district before any purchase shall be made.

Art. 1669. Improvement Districts: Expenditures

All bills for supplies, materials, labor, work or anything necessary to the carrying out of the purposes of any such district shall be contracted in accordance with the law creating and governing such district, except as may be otherwise provided herein. The proper officers of said districts shall file all bills with the county auditor before payment, and he shall audit and approve the same, provided said bills have been contracted in accordance with law and are found by him to be correct, and no bill shall be paid until the same has been audited and approved by the county auditor as provided by this article. All warrants in payment of bills of any such districts shall be drawn and signed in accordance with the law governing the issuance of warrants of such district, and shall be countersigned by the county auditor, and no treasurer or other depository of any such districts shall pay out any money except upon warrants so duly countersigned. He shall countersign warrants for the investment of funds only when invested in the manner authorized by law. He shall keep an accurate account of all balances on hand in the various district funds.

Art. 1670. Improvement Districts: Forms; Regulation of Collections and Disbursements

The county auditor, in counties having a population of 330,000 or more, as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, or which may hereafter have such population, shall be required to prescribe the accounting system for all navigation, drainage, and other improvement districts in such county and to revise such systems from time to time when he shall deem it necessary. He shall prescribe the forms to be used by the officers and employees of such districts in the payment of all bills, the collection and disbursement of moneys, the keeping of accounts, and he shall prescribe the time, mode, and manner of making reports to the auditor of collections, disbursements, and statistics. The county auditor shall have the power to adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution and Laws of this State as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper collection of, and accounting for, the revenues of such districts, and the checking of their disbursements. He shall make monthly and annual reports similar in all respects to those required of him concerning county finances.

Art. 1671. Improvement Districts: Reports

The county auditor shall check all reports required by law to be filed by any district officer, and within thirty days after the filing thereof shall make a detailed report to the commissioners court showing his finding thereon and the condition of such district as shown by said report, and as shown by the records of his office. He shall keep a set of books, showing all receipts and expenditures of the funds of such districts. It shall not be lawful for the treasurer or other depository to receive money for said district without executing proper receipts upon forms to be provided by the county auditor. All books, accounts, records, bills and warrants in the possession of any officer of any such district, or in the possession of any other person legally charged with their custody, shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the county auditor.

Art. 1672. Improvement Districts: Compensation

The county auditor shall receive for his services in auditing the affairs of such districts, such compensation as the commissioners court may prescribe, which shall be paid by the county out of the general fund and repaid to the county by such districts by warrants drawn upon the proper funds of such district. In such counties which have or may have as many as five such districts, the compensation allowed the county auditor for his services on behalf of such districts shall be not less than the sum of twelve hundred dollars per annum, to be prorated among the districts in such proportion as the commissioners court may determine.

Art. 1673. Pay of Assistants

In all counties having a population of 330,000 or more, as shown by the preceding Federal Census, the county auditor is authorized to apply to the district judges of his county for such assistants as may be needed by him to enable him to properly keep the financial accounts of such districts, and to audit their receipts and disbursements, and to make such reports as are required by law, or as may be necessary. Said application shall be made under oath, stating the necessity for such assistants and the salaries authorized. The district judges shall hear such application and designate the number of assistants to be allowed and their rates of pay. Such assistants shall take the usual oath of office and shall be paid from the funds of the navigation district or from the funds of the other improvement districts, as may be designated in the order of the district judges allowing such assistants.

Art. 1674. Provisions Controlling

The provisions of this subdivision are cumulative, and, where conflicting with any existing law, the provisions of this subdivision shall control.

Art. 1675. County Clerk's Duties

Where the provisions of this subdivision impose upon the auditor like duties as are required of the county clerk, the provisions of this law shall prevail, and to such extent only is the county clerk relieved of his duties.

Art. 1676. Removal of Auditor

An auditor appointed under the provisions of law, who has been sufficiently proven guilty of official misconduct, or has proven to be incompetent to faithfully discharge the duties required of him, after due investigation by the same power which appointed him, may be removed, and his successor appointed.

Art. 1676a. Auditors in Certain Counties: Duties, Powers, Reports

Sec. 1. In all counties having a County Auditor and containing a population of not less than seventy-five thousand (75,000), and not more than eighty thousand (80,000), as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there are Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts and Water Control and Improvement Districts, the County Auditor shall not exercise control over the finances and affairs of such Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts, and Water Control and Improvement Districts (or other districts created for improvement or conservation purposes, which are not administered by the Commissioners Court of such counties), but he shall annually, between July 1st and October 1st, carefully audit all books, accounts, records, bills and warrants of any such District for the year ending the 30th of June preceding, and file his report of such audit with the County Clerk of such county.

Sec. 2. The officers and directors of each such District shall, on or before the 10th of each month, make and file with the County Auditor a report in writing, authenticated by such officers and directors, showing the total amount of moneys collected for and expended from the various funds of such District for the calendar month next preceding.

Sec. 3. The method of audit hereby provided for Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts, Water Control and Improvement Districts, and all other Districts created for improvement and conservation purposes in counties containing a population of not less than seventy-five thousand (75,000), nor more than eighty thousand (80,000), as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, and not directly administered by the Commissioners Court of such counties, shall supersede all other provisions for auditing the receipts and expenditures of such districts otherwise prescribed by law, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. Only the provisions of this Act and of Articles 1672 and 1673 shall apply in counties having a population of not less than seventy-five thousand (75,000), and not more than eighty thousand (80,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, which contain Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts, and Water Control and Improvement Districts.

Sec. 5. If any provision of this Act is held to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, same shall not affect the validity of any other provision hereof.

Art. 1676b. Auditors in Counties of 83,000 to 83,350 Having Navigation Districts and Other Districts

Audit; Report

Sec. 1. In all counties having a County Auditor and containing a population of not less than eighty-three thousand (83,000) and not more than eighty-three thousand, three hundred and fifty (83,350), as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there are Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts, and Water Control and Improvement Districts, the County Auditor shall not exercise control over the finances and affairs of such Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts, and Water Control and Improvement Districts (or other districts created for improvement or conservation purposes, which are not administered by the Commissioners Courts of such counties), but he shall annually, between July 1st and October 1st, carefully audit all books, accounts, records, bills, and warrants of any such district for the year ending the 30th of June preceding, and file his report of such audit with the County Clerk of such county.

Monthly Report

Sec. 2. The officers and directors of each such district shall, on or before the 10th of each month, make and file with the County Auditor a report in writing, authenticated by such officers and directors, showing the total amount of moneys collected for and expended from the various funds of such district for the calendar month next preceding.

Other Laws Superseded—Repeal

Sec. 3. The method of audit hereby provided for Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts, Water Control and Improvement Districts, and all other districts created for improvement and conservation purposes in counties containing a population of not less than eighty-three thousand (83,000), nor more than eighty-three thousand, three hundred and fifty (83,350), as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, and not directly administered by the Commissioners Courts of such counties, shall supersede all other provisions for auditing the receipts and expenditures of such districts otherwise prescribed by law, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Exclusiveness of Provisions

Sec. 4. Only the provisions of this Act and of Articles 1667, 1672, and 1673 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925 shall apply in counties having a population of not less than eighty-three thousand (83,000), and not more than eighty-three thousand, three hundred and fifty (83,350), according to the last preceding Federal Census, which contain Navigation Districts, Water Improvement Districts, and Water Control and Improvement Districts.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any provision of this Act is held to be unconstitutional, or otherwise invalid, same shall not affect the validity of any other provision hereof.

1. COUNTY FREE LIBRARIES

Art. 1677. Authority to Establish

The commissioners court of any county may establish, maintain, and operate within their respective counties, county free libraries in the manner and with the functions prescribed in this title. The said court shall also have the power and authority to establish in co-operation with another county or counties a joint free county library for the benefit of the co-operative counties.

Art. 1678. Territory

The commissioners court of any county may establish county free libraries for that part of such county lying outside of the incorporated cities and towns already maintaining free public libraries and for such additional parts of such counties as may elect to become a part of or to participate in such county free library system. On their own initiative, or when petitioned to do so by a majority of the voters of that part of the county to be affected, said court shall proceed to establish and provide for the maintenance of such library according to the further provisions of this title. The county library shall be located at the county seat in the court house, unless more suitable quarters are available.

Art. 1679. Tax for Maintenance

The Commissioners Courts are hereby authorized to set aside annually from the General Tax Fund, or the Permanent Improvement Fund of the county, as the said Court may determine, sums for the maintaining of free county libraries and for the erection of permanent improvements and the securing of land for free county libraries, but not to exceed twelve cents (12¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of all property in such county outside of all incorporated cities and towns already supporting a free public library, and upon all property within all incorporated cities and towns already supporting a free library, and upon all property within all incorporated cities and towns already supporting a free public library which have elected to become a part of such free library systems provided in Title 35 of the Revised Civil Statutes, for the purpose of maintaining county free libraries and for purchasing property therefor.

Art. 1680. Gifts and Bequests

The commissioners court is authorized and empowered to receive on behalf of the county any gift, bequest, or devise for the county free library, or for any branch or subdivision thereof. The title to all property belonging to the county free library shall be vested in the county, but where the gifts or bequests shall be made for the benefit of any branch or branches of the county free library, such gifts or bequests shall be administered as designed by the donor.

Art. 1681. Existing Libraries

In any county where a farmers' county library has been established as provided by former laws the same shall continue to operate as a farmers' county library, unless a county free library shall be established as provided for in this title, in which case the former shall merge with and become a part of the latter.

Art. 1682. Board of Examiners

A commission is hereby created to be known as the State Board of Library Examiners, consisting of the State Librarian, who shall be ex-officio chairman of the Board; the Librarian of the State University, who shall be an ex-officio member; and three other well trained librarians of the State who shall at first be selected by the State Librarian and the Librarian of the State University. The term of each shall be for six years, one of the appointive members retiring every two years. His successor shall be chosen by the remaining members of the Board in executive session. The members of said board shall receive no compensation for their services except actual and necessary traveling expenses paid out of the State library fund. Said Board shall arrange for an annual meeting and for such other meetings as may be necessary in the pursuance of its duties. Said Board shall pass upon the qualifications of all persons desiring to become county librarians in the State of Texas, and may in writing adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law for its government and for carrying out the purposes of this title.

Art. 1683. County Librarian

Upon the establishment of a county free library the Commissioners Court shall biennially appoint a County Librarian who shall hold office for a term of two (2) years subject to removal for cause after a hearing by said Court. No person shall be eligible to the office of County Librarian unless prior to his appointment he has received from the State Board of Library Examiners a certificate of qualification for office; and when any County Librarian has heretofore received a certificate of qualification for office from the State Board of Library Examiners, and has served as County Librarian for any county in this State, said Librarian may be employed or reemployed by any county as Librarian without further examination and issuance of certificate from said State Board of Library Examiners. The County Librarian shall, prior to entering upon the duties of his office, file with the County Clerk the official oath and make a bond upon the faithful performance of his duties with sufficient sureties approved by the County Judge of the county of which the Librarian is to be the County Librarian, in such sum as the Commissioners Court may determine.

Art. 1684. Salary and Expenses

The salary of the librarian and assistants shall be fixed by said court at the time they fix the salary of the appointive county officers. The county librarian and assistants shall be allowed actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the business of the library.

Art. 1685. Duty of Librarian

The librarian shall endeavor to give an equal and complete service to all parts of the county through branch libraries and deposit stations in schools and other locations where suitable quarters may be obtained, thus distributing printed matter, books, and other educational matter as quickly as circumstances will permit. The county librarian shall have the power to make rules and regulations for the county free library, to establish branches and stations throughout the county, to determine the number and kind of employes of such library, and, with the approval of the commissioners' court, to appoint and dismiss such employes. The county librarian shall, subject to the general rules adopted by the commissioners' court, build up and manage according to accepted rules of library management, a library for the people of the county and shall determine what books and other library equipment shall be purchased.

Art. 1686. Report of Librarian

The librarian of each county library shall, on or before the first day of October in each year, report to the commissioners court and to the State Librarian the operation of the county library during the year ending August 31st preceding. Such report shall be made on blanks furnished by the State Librarian, and shall contain a statement of the condition of the library, its operation during the year, and such financial and book statistics as are kept in well regulated libraries.

Art. 1687. Supervision of Library

The county library shall be under the general supervision of the commissioners court. Such libraries shall also be under the supervision of the State Librarian, who shall, from time to time, either personally or by one of his assistants, visit the county free libraries and inquire into their condition, advising with the librarians and said court and rendering such assistance in all matters as he may be able to give.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1688. Repealed by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 362, ch. 130, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969

Art. 1689. Funds for Library

All funds of the county free library shall be in the custody of the county treasurer, or other county official, who may discharge the duties commonly delegated to the county treasurer. They shall constitute a separate fund to be known as the county free library fund, and shall not be used except for library purposes. The Commissioners Court may contract with privately-owned libraries which serve areas within the county not adequately served by the county free library to provide county free library services in such areas, and may require by such contract that such library submit to such reasonable regulation as is required of governmental libraries.

Art. 1690. Joinder with City

After the establishment of a county free library the governing body of any incorporated city or town in the county, maintaining a free public library, may notify the commissioners court that such city or town desires to become a part of the county free library system, and thereafter such city or town shall be a part thereof, and its inhabitants shall be entitled to the benefits of such county free library, and the property within such town or city shall be included in computing the amount to be set aside as a fund for county free library purposes.

Art. 1691. Contract with City

The commissioners court wherein a county free library has been established under the provisions of this title, shall have full power and authority to enter into contracts with any incorporated city or town maintaining a public free library, and such incorporated city or town shall through its governing body, have full power to enter into contracts with such county to secure to the residents of such incorporated city or town the same privileges of the county free library as are enjoyed by the residents of such county outside of such incorporated city or town, or such privileges as may be agreed upon in such contract, upon such consideration to be named in the contract as may be agreed upon, the same to be paid into the county library fund, and thereupon the residents of such incorporated city or town shall have the same privileges with regard to said county free library as are had by the residents of such county outside of such incorporated city or town, or such privileges as may be agreed upon by contract.

Art. 1692. Withdrawal of City

The governing body of such incorporated city or town may at any time after two years notify the commissioners court that such city or town no longer desires to be a part of the county free library system and thereafter such city or town shall cease to participate in the benefits of such county free library system, and the property situated in said city or town shall no longer be assessed in computing the fund to be set aside for county free library purposes. The governing body of such city or town shall give the commissioners court six months notice and publish at least once a week for six successive weeks prior to either giving or withdrawing such notice in a county newspaper designated by the governing body, and circulated throughout such city or town, notice of such contemplated action, giving date and place of meeting at which such contemplated action is proposed to be taken.

Art. 1693. Contract with Another County

The commissioners court of any county, wherein a county free library has been established under the provisions of this title, shall have full power and authority to enter into contracts or agreements with the commissioners court of any other county to secure to the residents of such other county such privileges of such county free library as may, by such contract, be agreed upon, the same to be paid into the county free library fund, and thereupon the inhabitants of such other county shall have the privilege of such county free library as may by such contract be agreed upon; and the commissioners court shall have full power and authority to enter into a contract with the commissioners court of another county wherein a county free library has been established, under the provisions of this title and shall have power to provide for and to set aside a county free library fund, in the manner already set out, for the purpose of carrying out such contract. But the making of such contract shall not bar the commissioners court of such county from establishing a county free library therein, and upon the establishment of such county free library such contract may be terminated upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, or may continue for the term thereof.

Art. 1694. Contract with Established Library

Instead of establishing a separate county free library, upon petition of a majority of the voters of the county, the commissioners court may contract for library privileges from some already established library. Such contract shall provide that such established library shall assume the functions of a county free library within the county with which the contract is made, including incorporated cities and towns therein, and shall also provide that the librarian of such established library shall hold or secure a county librarian's certificate from the State Board of Library Examiners. Said court may contract to pay annually into the library fund of said established library such sum as may be agreed upon, to be paid out of the county library fund. Either party to such contract may terminate the same by giving six months notice of intention to do so. Property acquired under such contract shall be subject to division at the termination of the contract upon such terms as are specified in such contract.

Art. 1695. Combined Counties

Where found to be more practicable, two or more adjacent counties may join for the purposes of this law and establish and maintain a free library under the terms and provisions above set forth for the establishment and maintenance of a county free library. In such cases the combined counties shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities as a single county as provided in this law. The commissioners courts of the counties which have combined for the establishment and maintenance of a free library shall operate jointly in the same manner as does the commissioners court of a single county in carrying out the provisions of this law. If any county desires to withdraw from such combination it shall be entitled to a division of property in such proportion as agreed upon in the terms of combination at the time such joint action was taken.

Art. 1696. Termination of Library

A county free library may be disestablished upon petition of a majority of the voters of that part of the county maintaining a county free library, asking that said library system be no longer maintained. The commissioners court upon the termination of existing contracts shall call in all books and movable property of the defunct county free library, and have same inventoried and stored under lock and seal in some dry and suitable place in the county court house.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1696a. Acquisition of Land; Construction, Repair, Equipment and Improvement of Buildings; Bond Issues; Taxes

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county in this State is hereby authorized to acquire land for and to purchase, construct, repair, equip and improve buildings, and other permanent improvements to be used for county library purposes. Such building or buildings and other permanent improvements may be located in the county at such place or places as the Commissioners Court may determine. Payment for such buildings and repairs and improvements and other permanent improvements shall be made from the Constitutional Permanent Improvement Fund.

Sec. 2. To pay the costs of acquiring land for and of purchasing, constructing, repairing, equipping and improving such buildings and other permanent improvements, the Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds of the county and to levy and collect taxes in payment thereof, the issuance of such bonds and the levy and collection of taxes to be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns, and/or counties in this State.

2. LAW LIBRARY

Art. 1697. Establishment of Library

A county law library may be established at the county seat by the commissioners court of any county containing a city of over 160,000 population according to the preceding Federal census.

Art. 1698. Appropriation for Library

The commissioners court of any such county may establish and provide for the maintenance of such law library on its own initiative and appropriate therefor the sum of $20,000.00 or such part thereof as it deems necessary, and shall appropriate each [year] such sum as may be necessary to properly maintain and operate such library.

Art. 1699. Rules and Regulations

Said court may make all rules and regulations necessary or proper for the establishment, maintenance, operation and use of said library not in conflict with the laws of this State.

Art. 1700. Custodian

Upon the establishment of a county law library the commissioners court shall employ a custodian or custodians of such library, who shall receive such pay as said court may fix. Each custodian shall execute a bond in the sum fixed by the court payable to and to be approved by the county judge of said county, conditioned that such custodian will faithfully perform his duties.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1701. Gifts and Bequests

The commissioners court may receive on behalf of the county any gift or bequest for such library. The title to all such property shall be vested in the county. Where any gift or bequest is made with certain conditions, and accepted by the county, these conditions shall be administered as designated by the donor.

Art. 1702. Funds of Library

All funds of such library shall be in custody of the county treasurer of such county. They shall be a separate fund and shall be used for no purpose other than for such library. Each claim against the county law library shall be acted upon in like manner as other claims against the county.

Art. 1702a. Repealed by Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 297, ch. 192, § 4

Art. 1702a-1. County Law Libraries in Certain Counties; Management

Sec. 1. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining a "County Law Library" for each county coming within the terms of this Act there shall be charged as costs, and taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, the sum of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every County or District Court, in each county having seven (7) or more District Courts and three (3) or more County Courts including County Courts at Law; except that in each county having fifteen (15) or more District Courts, including Criminal District Courts, the sum shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court, not to exceed Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50). Provided, however, that in no case shall the county be liable for said cost in any civil cases. Such costs shall be collected by the Clerk of the respective Courts, and when collected shall be paid to the County Treasurer, to be kept by him in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund"; such fund shall be administered by the Commissioners Court for the purchase, lease or maintenance of a law library, and furniture and equipment necessary thereto, in a place convenient and accessible to the Judges and litigants in such courts, and for the payment of salaries to employees to be appointed by the Commissioners Court; the Commissioners Court of counties affected by this Act shall make rules for the use of books in said library, and shall provide suitable space and shelving for housing same.

The salary of the custodian or librarian and such other employees or assistants as may be necessary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid out of the funds collected under this Act.

The Commissioners Court of such counties may vest the management of such library in a committee to be selected by the Bar Association of such county, but the acts of such committee shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 2. The Provisions of this Act may be adopted by any county in this state having five (5) or more District Courts, by the passage of a Resolution to that effect by the Commissioners Court of such county at a regular session thereof with all members of such Court present.

Sec. 3. If any part or parts of this Act shall be held unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this Act if it had known that such invalid part or parts thereof would be so declared unconstitutional.

Art. 1702b. County Law Libraries in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. For the purpose of establishing "County Law Libraries" there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each case, Civil or Criminal, except suit for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every county and/or District Court, Civil or Criminal, in each county now or hereafter having three (3) or more District Courts, one of which sits and has jurisdiction in not less than two (2) other counties and none of which have more than four (4) terms a year; provided, however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any Civil or Criminal case, such costs shall be collected by the Clerk of the respective Courts in said counties and when collected, shall be paid by him to the County Treasurer to be kept by him in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund"; such funds shall be administered by the Commissioners Court for the purchase and maintenance of a law library and the furniture and equipment necessary thereto in a place convenient and accessible to the Judges and litigants of such counties and for the payment of a salary to a librarian to be appointed by the Commissioners Court; provided, however, that said counties shall not use the funds collected under the provisions of this Act for any other purposes except the purposes above indicated. The Commissioners Court of counties affected by this Act shall make rules for the use of books in said library and provide space for housing same.

The salary of the custodian or librarian here-in provided for shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid out of the funds collected under this Act.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not have the effect of repealing or modifying any Act now in force respecting the establishment and maintenance of County Law Libraries in any county in this State but such Acts shall remain in full force and effect as to counties affected thereby.

Art. 1702b-1. County Law Libraries in Counties of 11,300 to 12,500 Population and Fulfilling Certain Other Requirements; County Law Library Fund

For the purpose of establishing "County Law Libraries" there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs in the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each case, civil or criminal, except suits for delinquent taxes hereafter filed in every County and/or District Court in each county now having an area of not less than one thousand, one hundred and thirty (1,130) and not more than one thousand, five hundred (1,500) square miles, and with a population ac-ording to the last Federal Census of not less than eleven thousand, three hundred (11,300) and not more than twelve thousand, five hundred, (12,500), and whose county seat is in a city of not less than two thousand, two hundred (2,200) and not more than three thousand (3,000) according to the last Federal Census; providing, however, that in no event shall the County be liable for said cost in any civil or criminal case. Such cost shall be collected by the Clerk of the respective Courts in said county, and when collected shall be paid by him to the County Treasurer to be kept by him in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund." Such funds shall be administered by the Commissioners Court for the purchase and/or maintenance of a law library, and the furniture and equipment necessary thereto, the same to be placed in convenient and accessible quarters for the use of Judges and litigants of such counties.

For the purpose of protecting said libraries as hereinabove set out, the Commissioners Court may provide if necessary for a custodian or librarian appointed by said Commissioners Court, and may fix salaries therefor, providing, however, that the counties come under the provisions of this Act and shall not use the funds collected for any other purposes except the purposes above set out.

The Commissioners Court of counties affected by this Act shall make rules for the use of books in said libraries and provide space for housing the same. The salaries for custodian or librarian here provided for shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and be paid out of the funds collected under this Act.

Art. 1702b-2. County Law Libraries in Counties of 50,000 to 78,000; County Law Library Fund

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Courts of all counties within this State, having a population of not less than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants nor more than seventy-eight thousand (78,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there is located no Court of Civil Appeals, shall have the power and authority, by first entering an order for that purpose, to provide for, maintain and establish a county law library.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of establishing "County Law Libraries" after the entry of such order, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each case, civil or criminal, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every County or District Court; provided, however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any case. Such costs shall be collected by the Clerks of the respective Courts in said counties and paid by said Clerk to the County Treasurer to be kept by said Treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund." Such fund shall be administered by said Courts for the purchase and maintenance of a law library in a convenient and accessible place, and said fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

Sec. 3. Said Courts are granted all necessary power and authority to make this Act effective, to make reasonable rules in regard to said library and the use of the books thereof, and to carry out the terms and provisions of this Act.

Art. 1702b-3. Law Libraries in Counties of 75,000 to 95,000; County Law Library Fund

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Courts of all counties within this State having a population of not less than seventy-five thousand (75,000) inhabitants nor more than ninety-five thousand (95,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there is located no Court of Civil Appeals, shall have the power and authority, by first entering an order for that purpose, to provide for, maintain and establish a County Law Library.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of establishing County Law Libraries after the entry of such order, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every County or District Court; provided, however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any case. Such costs shall be collected by the Clerks of the respective Courts in said counties and paid by said Clerks to the County Treasurer to be kept by said Treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund." Such Fund shall be administered by said Courts for the purchase and maintenance of a Law Library in a convenient and accessible place, and said Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

Sec. 3. Said Courts are granted all necessary power and authority to make this Act effective, to make reasonable rules in regard to said Library and the use of the books thereof, and to carry out the terms and provisions of this Act.

Art. 1702b-4. Law Libraries in Counties of 30,000 to 39,000; County Law Library Fund; Rules

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Courts of all counties within this state, having a population of not less than thirty thousand (30,000) inhabitants nor more than thirty-nine thousand (39,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there is located no Court of Civil Appeals, shall have the power and authority by first entering an order for that purpose, to provide for, maintain and establish a county law library.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of establishing county law libraries after the entry of such order, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every County or District Court; provided, however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any case. Such costs shall be collected by the clerks of the respective courts in said counties and paid by said clerk to the county treasurer to be kept by said treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund." Such fund shall be administered by said courts for the purchase and maintenance of a law library in a convenient and accessible place, and said fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

Sec. 3. Said courts are granted all necessary power and authority to make this Act effective, to make reasonable rules in regard to said library and the use of the books thereof, and to carry out the terms and provisions of this Act.

Art. 1702b-5. Law Libraries in Counties of 50,420 to 50,430; County Law Library Fund; Salaries; Management

For the purpose of establishing a "County Law Library" there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each civil case except suit for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every County or District Court, in each county having two (2) or more District Courts and one (1) or more County Courts including County Courts at Law, and having a population of not less than fifty thousand, four hundred and twenty (50,420) and not more than fifty thousand, four hundred and thirty (50,430) according to the 1940 Census for the State of Texas. Provided, however, that in no case shall the county be liable for said costs in any civil case. Such costs shall be collected by the Clerk of the respective Courts, and when collected shall be paid to the County Treasurer, to be kept by him in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund"; such fund shall be administered by the Commissioners Court for the purchase, lease or maintenance of a Law Library, and furniture and equipment necessary thereto, in a place convenient and accessible to the Judges and litigants of such county, and for the payment of salaries to employees to be appointed by the Commissioners Court; the Commissioners Court of counties affected by this Act shall make rules for the use of books in said library, and shall provide suitable space and shelving for housing same.

The salary of the custodian or librarian and such other employees or assistants as may be necessary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid out of the funds collected under this Act.

The Commissioners Court of such counties may vest the management of such library in a committee to be selected by the Bar Association of such county, but the acts of such committee shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1702b-6. Repealed by Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 98, ch. 58, § 4

Art. 1702c. Law Libraries in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. The Commissioners' Court of all counties within this State, where said counties contain in excess of fifty-three thousand five hundred (53,500) and less than fifty-seven thousand (57,000) inhabitants shall have the power and the authority by an order for that purpose to provide for, maintain and establish a County Law Library.

Sec. 2. Said library shall be established and maintained by a trial fee which shall be assessed and collected as a part of the court costs in all cases filed in the County or District Courts in such counties and said trial fee which may not exceed One ($1.00) Dollar in any case, shall be provided for by an order of the said Court, the amount of same shall be fixed by the said Court and an order to such effect be spread upon the Commissioners' Court Minutes in said Counties.

Sec. 3. Said Commissioners' Court is granted all necessary power and authority to make this Act effective and to carry out the terms and provisions hereof.

Art. 1702d. Law Libraries in Counties of 80,000 to 225,000; Library Fund

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Courts of all counties within this State, having a population of not less than eighty thousand (80,000) inhabitants nor more than two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there is located no Court of Civil Appeals, shall have the power and authority, by first entering an order for that purpose, to provide for, maintain and establish a county law library.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of establishing "County Law Libraries" after the entry of such order, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each case, civil or criminal, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every County or District Court; provided however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any case. Such costs shall be collected by the Clerks of the respective Courts in said counties and paid by said Clerk to the County Treasurer to be kept by said Treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund." Such fund shall be administered by said Courts for the purchase and maintenance of a law library in a convenient and accessible place, and said fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

Sec. 3. Said Courts are granted all necessary power and authority to make this Act effective, to make reasonable rules in regard to said library and the use of the books thereof, and to carry out the terms and provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not have the effect of repealing or modifying any existing law in regard to county law libraries; but such Acts shall remain in full force and effect as to all counties affected thereby; and this Act shall be cumulative.

Art. 1702e. Law Libraries in Counties of 30,000 to 250,000

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Courts of all counties within this State having a population of not less than thirty thousand (30,000) inhabitants nor more than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, and in which there is located a Court of Civil Appeals, shall have the power and authority, by first entering an order for that purpose, to provide for, maintain and establish a County Law Library.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of establishing County Law Libraries after the entry of such order, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every county or district court; provided, however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any case. Such costs shall be collected by the clerks of the respective courts in said counties and paid by said clerks to the County Treasurer to be kept by said Treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund." Such Fund shall be administered by said Courts for the purchase and maintenance of a Law Library in a convenient and accessible place, and said Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

Sec. 3. Said Courts are granted all necessary power and authority to make this Act effective, to make reasonable rules in regard to said Library and the use of the books thereof, and to carry out the terms and provisions of this Act.

Art. 1702f. Law Libraries in Counties of 27,000 Located in Two Judicial Districts of Four Counties Only

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Courts of any county in the State which is located in two (2) judicial districts only, each of which said judicial districts is composed of four (4) counties only; which said county has a population in excess of twenty-seven thousand (27,000) persons, according to the last or any future Federal Census, shall have the power to establish, maintain and operate a law library in said county.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any such county may establish and provide for the maintenance of such county law library on its own initiative, and appropriate the sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) or such part thereof as it may deem necessary, to establish properly such library, and shall appropriate each year such sum as may be necessary to properly maintain and operate such county law library, which shall be established, maintained and operated at the county seat.

Sec. 3. Upon the establishment of a county law library the Commissioners Court shall employ a custodian or custodians of such library and shall require such custodians to execute and deliver a bond or bonds in such sum as may be fixed by such court payable to the County Judge, and his successors in office, of such county, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties by the principal obligor. Such custodians shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court shall have power to make all rules and regulations necessary or proper for the establishment, maintenance, operation and use of said library not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this State.

Sec. 5. The Commissioners Court of any such county is hereby authorized and empowered to receive on behalf of such county any gift or bequest for such county law library. The title to all of such property shall be vested in the county. Where any gift or bequest is made with certain conditions, and accepted by the county, these conditions shall be administered as designated by the donor.

Sec. 6. All funds of the county law library shall be in the custody of the County Treasurer of such county, or other official who may discharge the duties commonly delegated to county treasurers. They shall constitute a separate fund and shall not be used for any other purpose than those of such county law library. Each claim against the county law library shall be acted upon and allowed or rejected in like manner as other claims against the county.

Sec. 7. In case any section or part thereof in this Act is found unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such invalid section or part thereof shall in no manner be held to affect any other section or portions of said Act.

Art. 1702g. Law Libraries in Counties of 29,500 to 30,000

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Courts of all counties within this State having a population of not less than twenty-nine thousand, five hundred (29,500) inhabitants nor more than thirty thousand (30,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, and in which there is located no Court of Civil Appeals, shall have the power and authority, by first entering an order for that purpose, to provide for, maintain and establish a county law library.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of establishing county law libraries after the entry of such order, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, the sum of One Dollar ($1) in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every County or District Court; provided, however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any case. Such costs shall be collected by the clerks of the respective Courts in said counties and paid by said clerks to the county treasurer to be kept by said treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the "County Law Library Fund." Such fund shall be administered by said Courts for the purchase and maintenance of a law library in a convenient and accessible place, and said fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

Sec. 3. Said Courts are granted all necessary power and authority to make this Act effective, to make reasonable rules in regard to said library and the use of the books thereof, and to carry out the terms and provisions of this Act.

Art. 1702h. County Law Libraries in All Counties

Authority to Establish

Sec. 5. The Commissioners Court of such counties may vest the management of such library in a committee to be selected by the Bar Association of such county, but the acts of such committee shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court.

Salaries

Sec. 6. The salary of the custodian or librarian and such other employees or assistants as may be necessary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid out of the funds collected under this Act, or from appropriations made under this Act.

Administration of Fund; Rules; Space and Shelving

Sec. 7. Such fund shall be administered by the Commissioners Court, or under its direction, for the purchase, lease or maintenance of a Law Library, and furniture and equipment necessary thereto, in a place convenient and accessible to the Judges and litigants of such county; and Commissioners Court of counties affected by this Act shall make rules for the use of books in said library, and shall provide suitable space and shelving for housing same.

Custody and Use of Funds; Claims

Sec. 8. All funds for the County Law Library shall be in the custody of the County Treasurer of such county, or other official who may discharge the duties commonly delegated to county treasurers. They shall constitute a separate fund and shall not be used for any other purpose than those of such County Law Library. Each claim against the County Law Library shall be acted upon and allowed or rejected in like manner as other claims against the county.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 9. If any section, paragraph, clause, phrase, sentence, or portion of this Act be held invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder thereof.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 777, ch. 429.]

Art. 1702i. County Law Libraries in Counties of 350,000 or Less

Authority to Establish

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of all counties within this State having a population of three hundred fifty thousand (350,000) or less shall have the power and authority by first entering an order for that purpose, to provide for, maintain and establish a County Law Library.

Establishment on Initiative of Commissioners Court; Appropriations

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any county may establish and provide for the maintenance of such County Law Library on its own initiative, and appropriate the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars or such part thereof as it may deem necessary, to establish properly such library, and shall appropriate each year such sum as may be necessary to properly maintain and operate such County Law Library, which shall be established, maintained and operated at the county seat.

Gifts and Bequests

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of such county is hereby authorized and empowered to receive on behalf of such county any gift or bequest for such County Law Library. The title of all such property shall be vested in the county. Where any gift or bequest is made with certain conditions, and accepted by the county, these conditions shall be administered as designated by the donor.

Costs; Law Library Fund

Sec. 4. For the purpose of establishing County Law Libraries after the entry of such order, there may be taxed, collected and paid as other costs in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every county or District Court, a sum to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of the respective counties within the State of Texas, not to exceed Five ($5.00) Dollars in each case; provided, however, that in no event shall the county be liable for said costs in any case. Such costs shall be collected by the Clerks of the respective Courts in said counties and paid by said Clerks to the County Treasurer, to be kept by said Treasurer in a separate fund to be known as "County Law Library Fund". Such fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

Managing Committee

Sec. 5. The Commissioners Court of such counties may vest the management of such library in a committee to be selected by the Bar Association of such county, but the acts of such committee shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court.

Salaries

Sec. 6. The salary of the custodian or librarian and such other employees or assistants as may be necessary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid out of the funds collected under this Act, or from appropriations made under this Act.

Administration of Fund; Rules; Space and Shelving

Sec. 7. Such fund shall be administered by the Commissioners Court, or under its direction, for the purchase, lease or maintenance of a Law Library, and furniture and equipment necessary thereto, in a place convenient and accessible to the Judges and litigants of such county; the Commissioners Courts of counties affected by this Act shall make rules for the use of books in said library, and shall provide suitable space and shelving for housing same.

Custody and Use of Funds; Claims

Sec. 8. All funds for the County Law Library shall be in the custody of the County Treasurer of such county, or other official who may discharge the duties commonly delegated to County Treasurers. They shall constitute a separate fund and shall not be used for any other purpose than those of such County Law Library. Each claim against the County Law Library shall be acted upon and allowed or rejected in like manner as other claims against the county.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 9. If any section, paragraph, clause, phrase, sentence, or portion of this Act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder thereof. [Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 1014, ch. 416.]

Art. 1702j. Law Libraries in Counties of 750,000 to 1,000,000

Application of Act; Costs

Sec. 1. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining a county law library for each county coming within the terms of this Act, there shall be charged as costs, and taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, a sum to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court, of not more than $5, in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every district or county court, including county courts at law, in each county having a population of not less than 750,000 nor more than 1,000,000, according to the last preceding federal census. In no case shall the county be liable for the cost imposed by this Act.

Collection of Costs; Law Library Fund

Sec. 2. The costs imposed by this Act shall be collected by the clerks of the respective courts. When collected, the funds shall be paid to the county treasurer and shall be kept by him in a separate fund to be known as the County Law Library Fund.

Administration of Fund; Payment of Employees' Salaries

Sec. 3. The fund authorized by Section 2 of this Act shall be administered by the Commissioners Court for the purchase, lease, or maintenance of a law library and furniture and equipment necessary for the library, in a place convenient and accessible to the judges and litigants in the district and county courts, including county courts at law. The fund may also be expended for the payment of salaries to employees to be appointed by the Commissioners Court.

Rules; Space and Shelving

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court shall make rules for the use of books in the county law library and shall provide suitable space and shelving for housing the library.

Salaries

Sec. 5. The salary of the custodian or librarian and such other employees or assistants as may be necessary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid out of the funds collected under authority of this Act.

Managing Committee

Sec. 6. The Commissioners Court may vest the management of the county law library in a committee to be selected by the bar association of the county, but the acts of the committee shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1417, ch. 394, eff. May 26, 1971.]

Section 7 of the 1971 act provided: "As used in this Act, 'the last preceding federal census' means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general State and local governmental purposes."

Art. 1703. Election and Term

A county treasurer shall be elected at each regular general election for a term of two years.

Art. 1704. Bond

The county treasurer before entering upon the duties of his office, and within twenty days after he has received his certificate of election, shall give a bond payable to the county judge of his county, to be approved by the commissioners court, in such sum as such court may deem necessary, conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over according to law all moneys which shall come into his hands as county treasurer, and render a true account thereof to said court at each regular term of said court.

Art. 1704-A. Premium on Bond; Payment by Commissioners' Courts of Certain Counties

In every county in the State of Texas having a population of not less than nineteen thousand ten (19,010), nor more than nineteen thousand seventy (19,070), and not less than twenty-three thousand eight hundred (23,800), nor more than twenty-four thousand (24,000), and not less than fifty-four thousand (54,000), nor more than fifty-four thousand five hundred (54,500), according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners' Court of such counties is hereby authorized to pay out of the General Funds of such counties the premium on the official surety bond now required of such County Treasurers.

Art. 1705. New Bond

The commissioners court, whenever they may consider the bonds, or either of the bonds, of a county treasurer, from any cause, insufficient or doubtful, shall require such treasurer to give another bond or bonds, or to give additional bond or bonds, as the case may be.

Art. 1706. Office Declared Vacant

If the person elected treasurer fails to give the bonds required by this title and take the official oath within twenty days after receiving his certificate of election, it shall be the duty of the county judge to declare the said office vacant; and, should a treasurer fail to give another or an additional bond or bonds when required to do so, as provided in the preceding article, within twenty days after notice of such requirement, he shall be removed from said office in the manner provided by law.

Art. 1707. Vacancy, How Filled

In case of vacancy in the office of the county treasurer, the commissioners court of the county in which such vacancy occurs shall fill such vacancy by appointment, such appointment to be made by a majority vote of the commissioners present, at a regular or special term of such court. Such appointment shall continue in force until the next general election.

Art. 1708. Appointee: Oath and Bond

The person appointed to fill the vacancy, as provided in the preceding article, shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of such office, and within twenty days after he has been notified of such appointment, take the oath and give the bonds required, as in the case of an election to such office.

Art. 1709. Duties

The County Treasurer, as chief custodian of county finance, shall receive all moneys belonging to the county from whatever source they may be derived; keep and account for the same in a designated depository or depositories; and pay and apply or disburse the same, in such manner as the Commissioners Court may require or direct, not inconsistent with constituted law. Said court may provide funds for adequate personnel and proper media that would enable the treasurer to perform such constituted duties. Upon failure to perform such duties the treasurer shall be guilty of dereliction of duty and subject to prosecution.

Art. 1709a. Receipt, Safekeeping and Disbursement of Moneys

Sec. 1. [Amends article 1709].

Sec. 2. From and after the effective date of this Act, the County Treasurer in each county of this State shall receive all moneys belonging to the county from whatever source they may be derived. Clarification as to moneys and mode and manner of receipt thereof not inconsistent with existing laws follows:

(a) All fees, commissions, funds and moneys belonging to the county shall be turned over to the County Treasurer by the officer who collected them, in the manner prescribed in Chapter 98, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1933, as amended (Article 1656a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Such deposit of funds in the county treasury shall not in any wise change the ownership of any fund so deposited, except to indemnify said officer and his bondsman or other owners of such funds during the period of deposit with the county.

(b) All deposits that are made in the county treasury shall be upon deposit warrant issued by the County Clerk in triplicate; said warrants shall authorize the treasurer to receive the amount named, for what purpose, and to which fund the same shall be applied. The treasurer shall retain the original; the duplicate shall be signed and returned to the clerk and the triplicate signed and returned to the depositor as provided in Article 1657, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. In each county of this State having a County Auditor the County Clerk shall give his copy to the auditor, who then shall enter same upon his books as a check and balance, charging the amounts to the County Treasurer and crediting the same to the depositing party. The treasurer shall not under any circumstances receive any money in any other manner than that named herein; except that in counties of whose population exceeds 1,200,000 the County Clerk is relieved of all duties prescribed by Article 1657, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. In such counties the County Treasurer shall prepare a triplicate receipt for all moneys received, retain one copy of the receipt and transmit the original and the duplicate to the county auditor and the depositor respectively, as provided in Chapter 235, Acts of the 60th Legislature, 1967 (Article 1657a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 3. From and after the effective date of this Act, the County Treasurer in each county of this State shall safekeep and account for all moneys belonging to the county; clarification as to mode and manner of safekeeping not inconsistent with existing laws follows:

(a) All moneys deposited with the County Treasurer by such officer as collected shall be deposited in the county depository, in a special fund to the credit of such officer as provided in Chapter 98, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1933, as amended (Article 1656a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); any interest accrued therefrom shall benefit the county in accordance with all laws.

All such funds so deposited shall be secured by the bond of such depository.

(b) Liability of Treasurer. The County Treasurer shall not be responsible for any loss of the county funds through failure or negligence of any depository; but nothing in this Act shall release any County Treasurer, for any loss resulting from any official misconduct or negligence on his part, nor from any responsibility for the funds of the county until a depository shall be selected and the funds deposited therein, nor for any misappropriation of such funds by him (Article 2557, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended).

(c) The County Treasurer before entering upon the duties of his office, and within twenty days after he has received his certificate of election, shall give a bond payable to the County Judge of his county, to be approved by the Commissioners Court, in such sum as such court may deem necessary, conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over according to law all moneys which shall come into his custody as County Treasurer and render a true account thereof to said court in accordance with Article 1704, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

(d) In counties having auditors, all reports of collections of moneys for the county required to be made to the Commissioners Court shall also be carefully examined and reported on by the auditor as provided in Article 1654, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. He shall at least once in each quarter check the books and examine all reports of the treasurer, in detail, verifying the footings and correctness of same, and shall stamp his approval thereon, or note any difference, errors or discrepancies; he shall carefully examine the quarterly report of the treasurer, of all the disbursements, together with the cancelled warrants which have been paid, and shall verify the same with the register of warrants issued, as shown in the accounts of the auditor.

(e) Furthermore, the auditor, without giving any notice beforehand, shall examine fully into the condition of, or inspect and count the cash in the hands of the treasurer, or in the banks in which he may have placed same for safekeeping, not less than once each quarter and oftener if desired in accordance with Article 1655, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and shall see that all balances to the credit of the various funds are actually on hand in cash and that none of said funds are invested in any manner except as the law may authorize.

Sec. 4. From and after the effective date of this Act the County Treasurer in each county shall disburse all moneys belonging to the county, for whatever purpose they may be claimed, and shall pay and apply the same as required by law. No moneys shall be expended or withdrawn from the county treasury except by checks or warrants drawn on the county treasury, whether such moneys are in a county depository as required by law or not. Clarification of mode and manner of disbursement not inconsistent with existing laws follows:

(a) Claims: The County Treasurer shall enter each claim in a permanent bound register, in the manner provided in Article 1627, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, stating the class, the name of the payee, and the number of the claim. On the face of such claim shall be placed the word "Registered," the date actually registered, and the official signature or approved facsimile of the County Treasurer.

(b) The treasurer shall pay no such claim, nor shall any part thereof be received by any officer in payment of any indebtedness to the county, until it has been duly registered, in accordance with the provisions of Article 1625, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. All claims in each class shall be paid in the order in which they are registered.

(c) In counties having a County Auditor, all claims, bills, and accounts against the county must be filed in ample time for the auditor to examine and approve same before the meetings of the Commissioners Court. No claim, bill, or account shall be allowed or paid until it has been examined and approved by the County Auditor as provided in Article 1660, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. Said auditor shall examine the same and stamp his approval thereon.

(d) Warrants: It shall be the duty of the County Treasurer, upon presentation to him of any warrant, check, voucher, or order drawn by the proper authority, if there be funds sufficient for payment thereof on deposit in the account against which such warrant is drawn, to endorse upon the face of such instrument his order to pay same to the payee named therein and to charge the same on his books to the fund upon which it is drawn as provided in Article 2554, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The County Treasurer is not authorized to issue nor is the county depository authorized to pay a check drawn on the county depository to take up a warrant drawn by a proper authority, but the County Treasurer must, when such a warrant is presented to him, endorse it and deliver it to the payee for the payee to present to the county depository for payment. The County Treasurer shall not make any endorsement upon any instrument designated as a "time deposit" until after the notice is duly given and the time has expired as required in the contract with said depository which designated said funds as "time deposits." In case any bonds, coupons, or other instruments of any county by the terms thereof are payable at any place other than the county treasury nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioners Court of such county from so ordering the treasurer to place a sufficient sum at the place where such debts shall be payable at the time and place of their maturity, provided such payments shall be made in the manner prescribed by law. All warrants issued or drawn by any officer under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to all laws and regulations providing for auditing and countersigning and all such laws and regulations are hereby continued in full force and effect.

(e) All warrants issued against the County Treasurer by any judge or court shall be signed and attested by the clerk or judge of the court issuing the same under his official seal as provided in Article 1643, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. No Justice of the Peace shall have authority to issue warrants against the County Treasurer for any purpose whatever, except as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

(f) In each county having an auditor, the County Treasurer and the depository shall make no payment unless such warrant is countersigned by the auditor as provided in Chapter 98, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1933, as amended (Article 1656a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) to validate the same as a proper and budgeted item of expenditure.

(g) The only exception to the auditors' countersigning is that of warrants for jury service, as provided in Article 1661, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Sec. 5. All existing laws pertaining to the duties and responsibilities of the County Auditors of the State of Texas shall in no way be affected or changed by this law. Reference to various articles mentioned herein pertaining to County Auditors is intended for the purpose of clarification only and for no other reason.

Sec. 6. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications thereto, and the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 1710. Accounts

The county treasurer shall keep a true account of the receipts and expenditures of all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office, and of the debts due to and from his county; and direct prosecutions according to law for the recovery of all debts that may be due his county, and superintend the collection thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1711. Report to Commissioners Court

He shall render a detailed report at every regular term of the commissioners court of his county of all the moneys received and disbursed by him, of all debts due to and from his county, and of all other proceedings in his office, and shall exhibit to said court at every such term all his books and accounts for their inspection and all vouchers relating to the same, to be audited and allowed.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1712. Deliver Money, etc., to Successor

He shall deliver the moneys, securities, and all other property of the county in his hands, together with all documents, instruments of writing, papers and books belonging to, or for the use of the county, to his successor in office, and perform all such other acts as may be required of him by said commissioners court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1713. Shall Not Pay Out Money, Except

The county treasurer shall not pay any money out of the county treasury except in pursuance of a certificate or warrant from some officer authorized by law to issue the same; and, if such treasurer shall have any doubt of the legality or propriety of any order, decree, certificate or warrant presented to him for payment, he shall not pay the same, but shall make report thereof to the commissioners court for their consideration and direction.

Art. 1714. To Examine Dockets, Accounts, etc.

He shall examine the accounts, dockets and records of the clerks, sheriff, justices of the peace, constables and tax collector of his county, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any moneys of right belonging to his county are in their hands which have not been accounted for and paid over according to law, and shall report the same to the commissioners court at their next term, to the end that suit may be instituted for the recovery thereof.

Art. 1718. Appointment of Clerk

The Supreme Court shall appoint for a term of four years one clerk who shall reside at Austin. Such appointment shall be recorded in the proceedings of the Court. Such appointee shall first give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Court, payable to the Governor and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. He may be removed by the Court for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after ten days' previous notice of the motion specifying the particular charges of negligence or misconduct in office preferred, and the Court shall determine the law and facts. The Court may whenever necessary appoint a clerk pro tempore.

Art. 1719. Vacancy in Vacation

If the office of clerk becomes vacant in vacation, an appointment shall be made by the Chief Justice and one of the Associates. The appointee shall give the prescribed bond and oath, the bond to be approved by any judge of the Court. Such appointment shall continue until a regular appointment shall be made.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1720. Duties of Clerk

The clerk shall:

1. Collect and pay into the State Treasury all fees and costs collected by him over and above the salaries allowed him and his deputies, under rules prescribed by the Comptroller and approved by the Judges of the Supreme Court and recorded in the minutes of the Court.

2. Procure a seal for the use of the Court, which shall have a star of five points, with the words, "Supreme Court of the State of Texas" engraved thereon.

3. File and carefully preserve the transcripts of all records certified to said Court, and all papers relative thereto, and shall docket all causes in the order in which the Court shall direct, and shall faithfully record the proceedings and decisions of said Court, and certify its judgments to the courts from which the cases were brought.

Art. 1721. Deputy Clerks

When authorized by the Court by an order recorded in the minutes, the clerk may appoint three deputies, who may discharge the duties required by Law of the clerk, and who shall give bond in like sum and conditions required by the clerk, to be approved by the Court. The compensation of such deputies shall be unanimously agreed upon by the Judges and their action recorded in the Minutes of the Court, such compensation not to exceed Two Thousand Dollars a year for each of said deputies, to be paid out of the fees collected by the clerk of the Supreme Court. The Court in its discretion may dispense with the services of one or more of such deputies, temporarily or permanently.

Art. 1723. Stenographers and Bailiff

The Court may appoint not more than three stenographers, at a salary to be fixed by the Court, not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars per month, and may appoint a bailiff to attend the sitting of the Court.

Art. 1724. Reporter

The Court shall appoint to serve at the will of the Court one or more licensed attorneys to report the decisions of the Supreme Court. The reporter shall obtain from the proper clerk the records of cases to be reported, with the briefs and opinions therein, as soon as such cases are finally disposed of and the opinions are recorded, which shall be returned after the report thereof is completed. He shall under the direction of the Court, without delay, prepare for publication such decisions with appropriate syllabus and statements when necessary, with proper index, table of cases cited and cases reported, and shall, from time to time, deliver the same to the Board of Control for publication.

Art. 1725. Reports

The Court shall designate the cases to be reported; and only those designated shall be reported and published. Only the main propositions made in the briefs and considered by the Court in the opinion, with the authorities cited in support of such propositions, shall be incorporated in the report. Each volume shall be copyrighted in the name of the reporter, who shall immediately on delivery of the edition transfer and assign the same to the State. It shall be electrotyped, and the plates shall be owned by the State and preserved by the Board of Control.

The Court may adjourn from day to day, or for such period as it deems necessary to the ends of justice and the determination of the business before them; and there shall be no discontinuance of any suit, process or matter returned to, or pending in, the Supreme Court, although a quorum of the Court may not be in attendance at the commencement or on any other day of the term. If a sufficient number of the judges shall not attend on any day of the term, any judge of the Court, or the bailiff attending, may adjourn the Court from time to time.

Art. 1728. Appellate Jurisdiction

The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State, extending to all questions of law arising in the following cases when same have been brought to the Courts of Civil Appeals from appealable judgment of trial courts:

1. Those in which the judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals may disagree upon any question of law material to the decision.
2. Those in which one of the Courts of Civil Appeals holds differently from a prior decision of another Court of Civil Appeals, or of the Supreme Court upon any question of law material to a decision of the case.

3. Those involving the construction or validity of statutes necessary to a determination of the case.

4. Those involving the revenues of the State.

5. Those in which the Railroad Commission is a party.

6. In any other case in which it is made to appear that an error of substantive law has been committed by the Court of Civil Appeals which affects the judgment, but excluding those cases in which the jurisdiction of the Court of Civil Appeals is made final by statute.

Art. 1729. Writ of Error or Certificate

All causes mentioned in the preceding article may be carried to the Supreme Court either by writ of error or by certificate from the Court of Civil Appeals, but the Court of Civil Appeals may certify any question of law arising in any such case at any time they may choose, whether before or after the decision of the case in said Court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1730. Court to Make Rules

The Supreme Court shall from time to time make and promulgate suitable rules, forms and regulations for carrying into effect the articles in this title relating to the jurisdiction and practice of said Court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1731. Rules of Practice

The Court may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure, not inconsistent with the law, for the government of said Court and all other courts of the State, so as to expedite the dispatch of business in said courts.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1731a. Rules of Practice; Power of Supreme Court in Civil Judicial Proceedings

Repeal of Practice and Procedure Laws

Sec. 1. In order to confer upon and relinquish to the Supreme Court of the State of Texas full rule-making power in civil judicial proceedings, all laws and parts of laws governing the practice and procedure in civil actions are hereby repealed, such repeal to be effective on and after September 1, 1941. Provided, however, that no substantive law or part thereof is hereby repealed.

Supreme Court to Make Rules for Practice and Procedure

Sec. 2. The Supreme Court is hereby invested with the full rule-making power in the practice and procedure in civil actions. Such rules shall not abridge, enlarge or modify the substantive rights of any litigant. Such rules, after promulgation by the Supreme Court, shall be filed with the Secretary of State and a copy thereof mailed to each elected member of the Legislature on or before December 1st immediately preceding the next Regular Session of the Legislature and shall be reported by the Secretary of State to the Legislature, and, unless disapproved by the Legislature, such rules shall become effective upon September 1, 1941; provided, however, the Supreme Court may, from time to time after September 1, 1941, promulgate any specific rule or rules or any amendment or amendments to any specific rule or rules and make the same effective, except as hereinafter provided, at such time as the Supreme Court may deem expedient in the interest of a proper administration of justice, the same to remain in effect unless and until disapproved by the Legislature. Any such specific rule or rules, or any such amendment or amendments to any specific rule or rules, shall be filed by the Clerk of the Supreme Court with the Secretary of State, and a copy thereof mailed by the said Clerk to each registered member of the State Bar of Texas, at least sixty (60) days before the effective date thereof, and reported by the Secretary of State to the next succeeding Regular Session of the Legislature in the same manner as hereinabove provided.

Supreme Court to File List of Laws Repealed by Its Rules

Sec. 3. At the time it files the rules, the Supreme Court shall file with the Secretary of State a list of all articles or sections of the General Laws of the State of Texas, and parts of articles and sections of such General Laws, which, in its judgment, are repealed by Section 1 of this Act. Such list giving the construction of the Supreme Court as to the General Laws and parts of laws repealed by Section 1 shall constitute, and have the same weight and effect, as any other decision of the Supreme Court.

Rules to be Published with Supreme Court Reports

Sec. 4. Such rules shall be published in the official reports of the Supreme Court; and the Supreme Court is authorized to adopt such method as it may deem expedient for the printing and distributing of such rules.

Severability of this Act

Sec. 5. If any sentence, paragraph or section of this Act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not invalidate any other sentence, paragraph or section hereof, and the Legislature hereby expressly declares that it would have passed such remaining sentences, paragraphs, and sections despite such invalidity.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201.]

Art. 1732. Jurisdictional Facts

It shall have the power upon affidavit or otherwise, as the Court may determine, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1733. May Issue Writs

The Supreme Court or any Justice thereof, shall have power to issue writs of procedendo, certiorari and all writs of quo warranto or mandamus agreeable to the principles of law regulating such writs, against any district judge, or Court of Civil Appeals or judges thereof, or any officer of the State Government, except the Governor.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1734. May Issue Mandamus, etc.

Said Court or any judge thereof in vacation may issue the writ of mandamus to compel a judge of the district court to proceed to trial and judgment in a cause agreeably to the principles and usages of law, returnable to the Supreme Court on or before the first day of the term, or during the session of the same, or before any judge of the said Court as the nature of the case may require.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1735. To Issue Only by Supreme Court

The Supreme Court only shall have power, authority or jurisdiction to issue the writ of mandamus or injunction or any other mandatory or compulsory writ or process against any of the officers of the executive departments of the government of this state and also the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness to order or compel the performance of any act or duty which, by the laws of this state, they, or either of them, are authorized to perform, whether such act or duty be judicial, ministerial or discretionary.

Art. 1735a. Mandamus in Connection with Elections and Political Party Conventions

The Supreme Court or any court of civil appeals shall have jurisdiction and authority to issue the writ of mandamus, or any other mandatory or compulsory writ or process, against any public officer or officer of a political party, or any judge or clerk of an election, to compel the performance, in accordance with the laws of this state, of any duty imposed upon them, respectively, by law, in connection with the holding of any general, special, or primary election or any convention of a political party. Any proceeding seeking to obtain such a writ shall be conducted in accordance with the rules pertaining to original proceedings in the court wherein the petition is filed. When presented to a court of civil appeals, any petition pertaining to an election on an office or proposition which is voted on by the voters of the entire state shall be presented to the court of the supreme judicial district in which the respondent resides, or in which one of the respondents resides, if there is more than one, and any petition pertaining to an election on an office or proposition which is voted on by the voters of only a portion of the state shall be presented to the court of a supreme judicial district in which the territory covered by the election or a portion thereof is located. A petition presented to a court of civil appeals which pertains to a precinct or county convention shall be presented to the court of the supreme judicial district in which the precinct or county is located; a petition pertaining to a district convention shall be presented to the court of a supreme judicial district in which the district or a portion thereof is located; and a petition pertaining to a state convention shall be presented to the court of a supreme judicial district in which the respondent resides, or in which one of the respondents resides, if there is more than one.

Art. 1736. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2536, ch. 831, § 6, eff. Aug. 30, 1971

See, now, article 1911a.

Art. 1737. Habeas Corpus

The Supreme Court or any of the Justices thereof, either in term time or in vacation, may issue writs of habeas corpus in any case where any person is restrained in his liberty by virtue of any order, process or commitment issued by any court or judge on account of the violation of any order, judgment or decree theretofore made, rendered or entered by such court or judge in any civil cause. Said Court or any Justice thereof, either in term time or in vacation, pending the hearing of application for such writ, may admit to bail any person to whom the writ of habeas corpus may be so granted.

Art. 1738. Transfer of Causes

The Supreme Court may, at any time, order cases transferred from one Court of Civil Appeals to another, when, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, there is good cause for such transfer. And the Courts of Civil Appeals to which such cases shall be transferred shall have jurisdiction over all such cases so transferred, without regard to the District in which the cases were originally tried and returnable upon appeal. Provided that the Justices of the Court to which such cases are transferred shall, after due notice to the parties or their counsel, hear oral argument on such cases at the place from which the cases have been originally transferred. Provided further, that there shall be but one sitting for oral argument at the place from which cases are transferred for each equalization, and all cases so transferred at any one equalization must be orally argued at such sitting, or at the regular place of sitting of the Court to which said cases are transferred. All opinions, orders and decisions in such transferred cases shall be delivered, entered and rendered at the place where the Court to which such cases are transferred regularly sits as the law provides. The actual and necessary travelling and living expenses of the Justices of said Courts in hearing oral arguments at the place from which such cases are transferred shall be borne by the state, and for payment thereof the Legislature shall make appropriation.

Art. 1738a. Direct Appeals in Injunction Cases Involving Validity of Statute or Administrative Order

From and after January 1, 1944, appeals may be taken direct to the Supreme Court of this State from any order of any trial court granting or denying an interlocutory or permanent injunction on the ground of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute of this State, or on the ground of the validity or invalidity of any administrative order issued by any State Board or Commission under any statute of this State. It shall be the duty of the Supreme Court of this State to prescribe the necessary rules of procedure to be followed in perfecting such an appeal.

Arts. 1739 to 1747. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 1748. Designation of Civil Appeals Justices

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or any two Justices thereof may, by a writing recorded in the minutes of the Supreme Court, designate three of the Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals to act as hereinafter provided. Such powers may be exercised from time to time in the same manner as long as reason therefor may exist, and the personnel of the designated Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals may be changed as often as may be advisable, by relieving one, or more, and designating another, or others, in order to interfere as little as possible with the work of the Courts of Civil Appeals. Not more than one Justice shall be designated to serve at any one time from any one of these courts.

Art. 1749. Justices to Assemble

The Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals so designated, upon receiving notice thereof, shall assemble together at the State Capitol and take up, consider and act upon applications for writs of error as may be so referred to them, by granting, refusing or dismissing the same in accordance with the practice of the Supreme Court; and then such designated Justices may make such orders and give such directions, incidental to the consideration and disposition of the application.

Art. 1750. Effect of Granting or Denying Writ

The granting of an application shall admit the cause into the Supreme Court to be proceeded with by the Court as provided by law. The refusal or dismissal of an application shall have the effect of denying the admission of the cause into the Supreme Court, except that motions for rehearing may be made to such designated Justices in the same way as such motions to the Supreme Court have been heretofore allowed. The refusal or dismissal of any application shall not be regarded as a precedent or authority.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1751. Disqualification of Justice

No one of such Justices shall participate in acting upon an application in a cause decided during his incumbency by the court of which he is a member.

Art. 1752. Supreme Court May Also Act

The Supreme Court shall still have power to act upon applications for writs of error, when deemed by it expedient. In any cause in which the Judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall have disagreed or shall have declared void a statute of the State, the application for writ of error shall be passed upon by the Supreme Court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1753. Powers

The powers herein conferred upon the Justices of the Supreme Court and of the Courts of Civil Appeals are declared to be incidental to the offices held by them respectively.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1754. Expenses of Designated Justices

Such designated Justices shall have all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of such additional duties, paid out of the State Treasury from warrants drawn by the Comptroller, upon itemized accounts of such expenses, verified by the affidavit of the claimant.

Art. 1800. Expired

Art. 1800a. Appointment of Members of Commission of Appeals; Salaries

Composition; Qualifications; Duties; Salaries

Sec. 1. The Supreme Court of this State is hereby authorized to appoint a Commission, to be composed of six attorneys at law, having those qualifications fixed by the laws and Constitution of this State for the judges of the Supreme Court of Texas, which Commission shall be for the aid and assistance of said court in disposing of the business before it; and such Commission shall discharge such duties as may be assigned it by said Court. Each member of said Commission shall receive for his services the same salary, paid in the same manner as are the salaries of the members of the present Commission of Appeals.

Present Members Continued Until Expiration of Terms; Appointments by Supreme Court

Sec. 2. The present members of the Commission of Appeals shall continue in office until the expiration of the terms for which each of them has been appointed. Upon the expiration of the terms of office of the present members of the Commission of Appeals the Supreme Court of this State shall appoint six Commissioners hereinbefore provided for, two of whom shall serve for a period of two years, two for four years and two for six years from the date of their appointment, such terms to be designated by the Supreme Court, and thereafter the Supreme Court shall every two years appoint two Commissioners whose terms of office shall be for a period of six years.

Vacancy Filled by Supreme Court

Sec. 3. In case of a vacancy on said Commission of Appeals by the death, resignation or removal of any member thereof, it shall be the duty of the Supreme Court to fill the same by appointment, and the person so appointed shall continue in office for the unexpired portion of the term for which the Commissioner so vacating his office had been appointed.

Supreme Court to Prescribe Rules and Regulations and Adopt Opinions

Sec. 4. The Commission of Appeals shall hear the submission of causes under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Supreme Court and such court may adopt the opinion prepared by any member of the said Commission and make the same the judgment of the Supreme Court.

Hearing Applications for Writs of Error

Sec. 5. Two of said Commissioners designated by the Supreme Court acting with one member of the Supreme Court shall be authorized to pass upon all applications for writs of error presented from the Courts of Civil Appeals, and the action of said two Commissioners and one member of the Supreme Court in passing upon such applications shall be given the same force and effect as if the same were passed upon by the Supreme Court; provided, upon any application in which the three judges are not unanimous, the same shall be determined by the Supreme Court.

Additional Costs

Sec. 6. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1). See Vernon's Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 519 (Repealed, effective Feb. 1, 1946).

Term and Place of Sessions

Sec. 7. The Commission shall hold its sessions in Austin at the same time and place as the Supreme Court, but it shall continue work during the vacation of the Supreme Court in midsummer. The judges of the Commission may take a vacation, not to exceed eight weeks during said period.

Stenographers; Salaries

Sec. 8. The Commission shall appoint stenographers not exceeding four, each of whom shall receive an annual salary not to exceed Fifteen Hundred Dollars, to be paid in monthly installments, on warrants approved by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Additional Compensation of Clerk of Supreme Court

Sec. 9. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall perform the duties of clerk of said Commission and shall be allowed for services rendered to said Commission by him and his deputies, an additional compensation of Fifteen Hundred Dollars per annum, to be paid out of the fees of his office.

Seal

Sec. 10. Said Commission of Appeals shall have a seal, being a star with five points and the words "Commission of Appeals of the State of Texas" around the same.

Dockets; Certiorari; Procedure

Sec. 11. Regular dockets and minutes of all proceedings by or before said Commission of Appeals shall be kept and the records and proceedings of courts of record and all cases shall be docketed in the order in which they are transferred or referred by the Supreme Court. Said Commission shall have the right to issue writs of certiorari to perfect the record, and such process as the Supreme Court might issue to make parties, and shall have power to punish for contempt. All laws and rules regulating practice and procedure in the Supreme Court shall be of force in the practice and proceedings of the Commission of Appeals so far as applicable. It is the intention of this Act to make more elastic the operation of the Commission of Appeals in order to expedite the disposition of causes in the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court is given full authority to assign such duties to the Commission of Appeals or the members thereof as it may deem proper in order to facilitate the dispatch of business before the Supreme Court.

Salaries of Commissioners and Clerical Help

Sec. 12. The salaries of the six Commissioners, stenographers, porters, clerical help and other expenses essential to carry on the work of the Commission of Appeals shall be paid out of the appropriation made to take care of the salaries and expenses of the present Commission as it now exists.

Abolition

Const. art. 5, § 2, as amended Aug. 25, 1945, in effect, abolished the Commission of Appeals and provided that the "judges of the Commission of Appeals who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall become Associate Justices of the Supreme Court and each shall continue in office as such Associate Justice of the Supreme Court until January 1st next preceding the expiration of the term to which he has been appointed and until his successor shall be elected and qualified."

Art. 1801. Judges

The Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of three judges, two of whom shall be a quorum. The concurrence of two judges shall be necessary to a decision of said court. Said judges shall have the same qualifications as judges of the Supreme Court. At each biennial general election one judge for said court shall be elected for a term of six years, the division into classes to remain as now provided by law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Number of Judges

Const. art. 5, § 4 was amended in November 1966, to provide for a Court of Criminal Appeals of five judges.

Art. 1802. Presiding Judge

The judges of said court shall choose a presiding judge from their number at such times as they deem proper. All writs and processes issuing from said court shall bear test in the name of said presiding judge and the seal of the court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1803. Disqualification of Judge

When any member thereof shall be disqualified under the Constitution and laws of this State to hear and determine any case in said court, the same shall be certified to the Governor who shall immediately commission a person learned in the law to act instead.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1804. Term of Court

Said court shall hold one term each year at the city of Austin, commencing on the first Monday in October of each year, and shall continue until the last Saturday in June next succeeding.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Extension of Term

Const. art. 5, § 5 was amended in 1966 to extend the term of court from the last Saturday of June in each year to the last Saturday in September in each year.

Art. 1805. Seal of Court

The court shall use a seal having thereon a star with five points with the words, "Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas" engraved thereon.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1806. May Ascertain Facts

Said court shall have power upon affidavit or otherwise to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1807. Mandate

When the court from which an appeal has or may be taken has been or shall be deprived of jurisdiction over any case pending such appeal, and when such case has or may be determined by the Court of Criminal Appeals, the mandate of said appellate court shall be directed to the court to which jurisdiction has been, or may be, given over such case.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1808. Clerk

Said court shall appoint a clerk for said court, who shall:

1. Hold his office for four years unless sooner removed by the court for good cause, entered in its minutes.

2. Take and subscribe the official oath and give the same bond to be approved by said court as may be required of the clerk of the Supreme Court.

3. Perform as such clerk the like duties and be subject to the same liabilities as may be required of or prescribed for the clerk of the Supreme Court.

Art. 1809. Deputy Clerk

The court, or such clerk with the approval of the court, may designate any stenographer employed by said court to act as deputy clerk during the absence, illness or disability of said clerk. Such stenographer shall receive no extra compensation for such services, and shall discharge the duties of the clerk in the name of his principal as deputy clerk, signing his name after that of said principal as deputy clerk.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1810. Reporter and Reports

Said court shall appoint a reporter of such of its decisions as the law requires to be published, and may remove him for inefficiency or neglect of duty. The clerk shall deliver to the reporter the original opinions when recorded and the record in each case to be reported, taking receipt therefor, and the reporter shall return them when he finishes using them. The volumes of such decisions shall be numbered in continuation of the present reports, styled Texas Criminal Reports, and be printed and disposed of in like manner as the reports of the Supreme Court.

Art. 1811. State Prosecuting Attorneys

The Court of Criminal Appeals shall appoint an attorney to represent the State in all proceedings before said Court, to be styled "State Prosecuting Attorney," who shall take and subscribe the official oath, hold office for a term of two (2) years and until his successor is appointed and qualified, and who shall have had at least five (5) years experience as a practicing attorney in this State in criminal cases. The State Prosecuting Attorney may also appoint one or more Assistant State Prosecuting Attorneys. Assistant State Prosecuting Attorneys shall have the same qualifications, the same duties, and the same term of office as the State Prosecuting Attorney. For good cause, the Court of Criminal Appeals shall have power to remove from office State Prosecuting Attorneys.

The subject matter of these articles is now covered by article 1811e.

Art. 1811e. Appointment of Commissioners and Commission of Court of Criminal Appeals

Sec. 1. (a) The presiding judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals may, with the concurrence of a majority of the judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals, designate and appoint a retired appellate judge or district judge who has consented to be subject to appointment, or an active appellate judge or district judge, to sit as a commissioner of the Court of Criminal Appeals, with the designated judge's consent. The presiding judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals may designate and appoint as many commissioners as he deems necessary to aid and assist the court in disposing of the business before it.

(b) A commissioner shall discharge the duties which may be assigned him by the court and may be appointed to serve either for a certain period of time or for a particular case or cases.

(c) All opinions of the commissioner shall be submitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals and shall receive the approval of the court, or a majority of the court. When approved by the court, the opinion shall have the same weight and legal effect as if prepared by the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas.

(d) The compensation of a judge while sitting as a commissioner of the court shall be paid out of moneys appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for such purpose in an amount equal to the salary of the judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals, in lieu of retirement allowance or in lieu of the compensation he receives as an active judge of another court. A judge sitting as a commissioner of the court also shall receive his actual travel expense to and from Austin, Texas, and per diem of $25 per day while he is assigned to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

Sec. 1a. (a) In addition to the authority granted under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act, the Court of Criminal Appeals of this State may appoint a Commission to be composed of two attorneys-at-law, having those qualifications fixed by the laws and Constitution of this State for the Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, which Commission shall be for the aid and assistance of said Court in disposing of the business before it; and such Commission shall discharge such duties as may be assigned it by the said Court. On September 1, 1971, and thereafter every two years, the Court of Criminal Appeals may appoint two Commissioners for terms of two years each. Each member of said Commission shall receive for his services such salary as is now or may hereafter be provided by law. Two stenographers for said Commission shall be appointed by the court.

(b) In case of a vacancy on said Commission in aid of the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas by the death, resignation, or removal of any member thereof, the Court of Criminal Appeals may fill the same by appointment, and the person so appointed shall continue in office for the unexpired portion of the term for which the Commissioner so vacating his office has been appointed.

(c) All opinions of said Commissioners shall be submitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals and shall receive the approval of said Court, or a majority of them, before handed down as opinions of said Court, and when so approved and handed down, shall have the same weight and legal effect as if originally prepared and handed down by said Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas.

Art. 1812. Three Justices

Each Court of Civil Appeals shall consist of a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices. A majority shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of two Justices shall be necessary to a decision.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1813. Election and Term of Office; Special Commissioner Appointed When Justice Disabled or Called into Active Military Service

(a) The Justices of each Court of Civil Appeals shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of their respective districts. Upon their qualification, after the first election after the creation of any Court of Civil Appeals, the Justices shall draw lots for the terms of office; those drawing number one (1) shall hold for the term of two (2) years; those drawing number two (2) shall hold for a term of four (4) years; and those drawing number three (3) shall hold office for six (6) years. Each of said offices shall be filled by election at the next general election before the respective terms expire; and the person elected shall thereafter hold his office for six (6) years.

(b) After any Justice of any Court of Civil Appeals has become totally disabled to discharge any of the duties of his office, by reason of illness, physical or mental, and has remained in such condition continuously for a period of not less than one (1) year, and if it is probable that such illness will be permanent, and is of such a nature that it will probably continue to incapacitate such Justice for the balance of his term of office, it shall be the duty of the other two Justices of the Court of which such incapacitated Justice is a member to certify such facts to the Governor. Upon receipt of such certificate by the Governor, he shall make proper investigation touching the matters therein contained and if he shall determine that the facts contained in such certificate are true, and that a necessity exists therefor, he shall forthwith appoint a Special Commissioner having the requisite qualifications of a member of such Court to assist the same. Such Special Commissioner, when so appointed, may sit with such Court, hear arguments on submitted cases, and write opinions thereon if directed to do so by the Court; and said opinions, if adopted by the Court, shall become thereupon the opinions of the Court.

(c) The Commissioner herein provided for, when appointed by the Governor, shall receive the same compensation as the regular Justices of the Court of Civil Appeals, and he shall serve until the death or expiration of the term of the disabled member; provided that in no event shall the term of service continue for a longer time than two (2) years under the same appointment; and provided further, that in the event the disabled Justice shall recover from his disability, the term of such Special Commissioner shall immediately end. In the event of such recovery two (2) Justices of said Court shall certify such fact to the Governor, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the recovery of said disabled Justice.

(d) Whenever any Justice of any Court of Civil Appeals is called or ordered into the active military service of the United States, it shall be the duty of the other two Justices of the Court of which such Justice is a member, to certify that fact to the Governor. Upon receipt of such certificate by the Governor, he shall make proper investigation touching the matters therein contained, and if he shall determine that the facts contained in such certificate are true, and that a necessity exists therefor, he shall forthwith appoint a Special Commissioner having the requisite qualifications of a member of such Court to assist the same. Such Special Commissioner, when so appointed, may sit with such Court, hear arguments on submitted cases, and write opinions thereon if directed to do so by the Court; and said opinions, if adopted by the Court, shall become thereupon the opinions of the Court.

(e) Such Special Commissioner, when so appointed by the Governor, shall receive the same compensation as the regular Justices of the Court of Civil Appeals, and shall serve until the Justice who has been so called or ordered into the active military service of the United States is discharged from such military service, or until the expiration of the term of office of such Justice; provided that in no event shall the term of service of such Special Commissioner continue for a longer period than two (2) years under the same appointment; and provided further that when such Justice so called or ordered into the active military service of the United States is discharged from such active military service, the term of such Special Commissioner shall immediately end. When the active military service of such Justice shall have terminated, the other two Justices of such Court of Civil Appeals shall certify that fact to the Governor, and their certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the facts so certified.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be considered as giving any two (2) members of any Court of Civil Appeals, or the Governor, the power or authority to remove or suspend any member of the Court of Civil Appeals from office, or to in any manner interfere with him in his Constitutional rights and powers.

Art. 1814. Qualifications of Judges

No person shall be eligible to the office of Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals, unless he be at the time of his election thirty years of age or over, a resident of the district from which he is elected, and has been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court of this State, or such lawyer and judge together, at least seven years.

Art. 1815. Special Judge

If all or any two members of any Court of Civil Appeals shall be disqualified to determine any cause in such court, that fact shall be certified to the Governor, who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons, learned in the law, to try and determine said cause.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1816. Terms of Court

The term of each Court of Civil Appeals of the State of Texas shall begin on the first Monday in October of each year and shall continue in session until the first Monday in October the next succeeding year; provided that the Justices of each of said Courts shall be permitted to take a vacation of eight weeks during each year at such time as the Court may fix, during which period the Court shall not be adjourned but shall be in recess and may be called together by the Chief Justice or by the two Associate Justices in case business requiring immediate disposal should arise.

Art. 1817. Location of Courts

A Court of Civil Appeals shall be held at the following places, respectively:

1. In the First Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Houston;
2. In the Second Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Fort Worth;
3. In the Third Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Austin;
4. In the Fourth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of San Antonio;
5. In the Fifth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Dallas;
6. In the Sixth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Texarkana;
7. In the Seventh Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Amarillo;
8. In the Eighth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of El Paso;
9. In the Ninth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Beaumont;
10. In the Tenth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Waco;
11. In the Eleventh Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Eastland;
12. In the Twelfth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Tyler;
13. In the Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Corpus Christi; and
14. In the Fourteenth Supreme Judicial District, in the city of Houston.

The cities of Beaumont, Waco, and Eastland, respectively, shall furnish and equip suitable rooms for the respective Courts of Civil Appeals therein, and the justices thereof, and the County of Harris shall furnish and equip suitable rooms in Houston for the Courts of Civil Appeals for the First and Fourteenth Supreme Judicial Districts, and for the justices thereof, all without cost or expense to the state. The city of Tyler and Smith County and the city of Corpus Christi and Nueces County, respectively, shall furnish and equip suitable rooms and a library for the respective Courts of Civil Appeals located therein, and for the justices thereof, all without cost or expense to the state.

Art. 1817a. First and Fourteenth Judicial Districts, Places Where Business Transacted: Dockets Equalized

From and after the passage of this Act, the Courts of Civil Appeals for the First and the Fourteenth Supreme Judicial Districts may transact their business either at the city of Galveston or the city of Houston, as the court shall determine it necessary and convenient; providing, that all cases originating in Galveston County may be heard and tried in such county. Subject to the provisions of Article 1738, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, the clerks of the First and the Fourteenth Supreme Judicial Districts shall also from time to time equalize by lot or chance the dockets of the two courts.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1952, ch. 728, §§ 1, 2 amended articles 198 and 1817; sections 4 to 6 of the act provided:

"Sec. 4. (a) On or before the 10th day after this Act takes effect, the Governor shall, by and with the consent of the Senate if in session, appoint one chief and two associate justices for the Fourteenth Supreme Judicial District.

"(b) To be eligible for appointment to the court, a person must possess the qualifications prescribed by Article 1814, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

"(c) The justices appointed hold their offices until the next general election at which justices shall be elected and qualify in accordance with Article 1813, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

"Sec. 5. The following sums or as much of them as may be necessary for the objectives and purposes shown are appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for the expenses of the Fourteenth Supreme Judicial District for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1968.

"Sec. 6. This Act takes effect on September 1, 1967."

Art. 1818. Adjournment

Such courts may adjourn from day to day or for such time as they may deem proper. If a quorum is not present at the first or any day of the term, any judge of the court or the bailiff thereof may adjourn the court from time to time until a quorum shall be in attendance, but the court shall not be finally adjourned for the term.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1819. Jurisdiction Defined

The appellate jurisdiction of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall extend to all civil cases within the limits of their respective districts of which the District Courts and County Courts have or assume jurisdiction with the amount in controversy or the judgment rendered shall exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) exclusive of interest and costs; provided, however, that if any Court of Civil Appeals having jurisdiction of a cause, matter or controversy requiring immediate action shall, by reason of the illness or absence or unavailability of at least two (2) of the Judges thereof, be unable to take such immediate action, then the nearest available Court of Civil Appeals may take such action as may be required in regard to said cause, matter or controversy under such rules as the Supreme Court may prescribe.

Art. 1820. Judgment Conclusive on Facts

The judgments of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall be conclusive in all cases on the facts of the case.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1821. Judgment Conclusive on Law

Except as herein otherwise provided, the judgments of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall be conclusive on the law and facts, nor shall a writ of error be allowed thereto from the Supreme Court in the following cases, to wit:

1. Any civil case appealed from the County Court or from a District Court, when, under the Constitution a County Court would have had original or appellate jurisdiction to try it, except in probate matters, and in cases involving the Revenue Laws of the State or the validity or construction of a Statute.
2. All cases of slander.
3. All cases of divorce.
4. All cases of contested elections of every character other than for State officers, except where the validity of a Statute is questioned by the decision.
5. In all appeals from interlocutory orders appointing receivers or trustees, or such other interlocutory appeals as may be allowed by law.
6. In all other cases as to law and facts except where appellate jurisdiction is given to the Supreme Court and not made final in said Courts of Civil Appeals.

It is provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to deprive the Supreme Court of jurisdiction of any case brought to the Court of Civil Appeals from an appealable judgment of the trial court in which the judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals may disagree upon any question of law material to the decision, or in which one of the Courts of Civil Appeals holds differently from a prior decision of another Court of Civil Appeals or of the Supreme Court upon a question of law, as provided for in Subdivisions (1) and (2) of Article 1728.

Art. 1822. Inquiry into Jurisdiction

Said courts shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the courts may be thought proper, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of their jurisdiction.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1823. Writs of Mandamus, etc.

Said courts and the judges thereof may issue writs of mandamus and all other writs necessary to enforce the jurisdiction of said courts.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1824. May Mandamus District Courts

Said Courts or any Judge thereof, in vacation, may issue the writ of Mandamus to compel a Judge of the District or County Court to proceed to trial and judgment in a cause, returnable as the nature of the case may require.

Art. 1824a. May Issue Writs of Habeas Corpus

Whenever any person is restrained in his liberty within a supreme judicial district, the court of civil appeals of such district, or any of the justices thereof, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme court to issue the writ of habeas corpus whenever it appears that such restraint of liberty is by virtue of any order, process, or commitment issued by any court or judge on account of the violation of any order, judgment, or decree theretofore made, rendered, or entered by such court or judge in a divorce case, wife or child support case, or child custody case. Said court or any justice thereof, pending the hearing of application for such writ, may admit to bail any person to whom the writ of habeas corpus may be so granted.

Art. 1827. Appointment of Clerk

Each Court of Civil Appeals shall appoint for a term of two years one Clerk who shall reside within a county which is a part of the Supreme Judicial District of the Court of Civil Appeals making the appointment. Such appointment shall be recorded in the minutes of the court. Whenever the necessity occurs, the court may appoint a Clerk Pro Tem.

Art. 1828. Bond

The clerk shall first make a bond for five thousand dollars payable to the Governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, to be approved by any judge of his court.

Art. 1829. Removal

The clerk may be removed by the court for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office on motion specifying the particular charge preferred. In such case the court shall determine the law and the facts after having given such clerk ten days previous notice of the hearing.

Art. 1830. Seal of Court

Each clerk shall procure a seal for the use of the court, which shall have a star of five points with "Court of Civil Appeals of the State of Texas" engraved thereon.

Art. 1831. Records and Judgments

Each clerk shall file and carefully preserve all records certified to his court and all papers relative thereto; docket all causes in the order in which they are filed; record the proceedings of said court, except opinions, and certify their judgments to the proper courts. He shall annually have bound in one or more volumes, to be preserved as a permanent record, the original opinions of the judges of said court, shall number the pages thereof consecutively, prepare and attach to each volume an index showing the style, number and page where each opinion is found, also prepare a general index showing the volume and page where each opinion can be found; the expense of which shall be paid out of the fund provided by the Legislature for the purchase of record books for said court.

He may, after ascertaining that any case filed in said court has been finally disposed of for a period of ten years, destroy all records filed in said court in connection therewith except indexes, original opinions, and records of the minutes.

Art. 1832. Librarian

Each clerk shall be librarian in charge of the library of his court, and shall take charge of, keep in good order and make catalogs of the books thereof.

Art. 1833. Deputy Clerks

Each clerk may appoint one chief deputy. With the approval of the court he may appoint additional deputies who shall be paid out of the fees collected by the clerk, not to exceed one hundred dollars a month. Each deputy shall give bond to the clerk for the faithful discharge of his duty.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1834. Disposition of Costs

Each clerk of a Court of Civil Appeals shall collect and pay into the State Treasury all costs collected by him, under such regulations as the Comptroller may prescribe and the judges of said Court approve.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1835. Report of Costs Collected

Each clerk shall, within ten days after the first day of January and July, make a sworn report to his court showing the amount of costs collected by him during the previous six months, the causes in which the same were collected, and the disposition made of such costs. This report shall be filed and recorded in the minutes of said court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1836. Stenographers

Each court may appoint one stenographer who shall be sworn to keep secret all matters which may come to his knowledge as such stenographer, and who shall give bond for two thousand dollars payable to the State of Texas, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, to be approved by the Chief Justice of said Court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1836a. Compensation of Clerk, Deputy and Stenographer

Additional Compensation to Clerk or Deputy

Sec. 1. Each clerk of a Court of Civil Appeals, and clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals, each chief deputy clerk, and each stenographer in the office of any such clerk shall receive such compensation, in addition to the salary prescribed by law, as the court may allow, to be paid from fees collected by the clerk of said court, but in no event shall the salary plus the additional compensation exceed the following:

Clerk	$4,000.00 per year
Chief Deputy Clerk	200.00 per month
Stenographer	1,800.00 per year

Provided, however, that the Clerk or Chief Deputy Clerk may be allowed by the Court for any year the Supreme Court directs, the transfers of cases from said Court to other Courts, as provided by law, additional compensation for the extra services that may be rendered incidental to said transfer, a sum not exceeding $300.00 per year to be paid monthly from the fees collected by the Clerk of said Court, who is hereby authorized to pay same if and when approved by the Court of Civil Appeals and the Court of Criminal Appeals. All fees collected by the clerk of said court, or said Chief Deputy Clerk, or stenographer in excess of said salaries shall be paid over to the State Treasurer for the General Revenue Fund.

Purchase of Law Books from Fees

Sec. 1-a. The Clerks of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall be and are hereby authorized to purchase additional law books for the use of said Courts out of the fees collected by said Courts; such expenditures shall not exceed annually the specific amounts of such fees additionally authorized for such purpose in the General Appropriation Acts of the Legislature made biennially for the support and maintenance of the Judiciary Department of the State Government. Provided, however, that all such fees collected by any clerk or other officer of any Court of Civil Appeals within this State shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the court so collecting and depositing same, and the expenditures out of said fund for the foregoing purposes shall be upon a warrant drawn upon the State Treasury by the State Comptroller, as may be provided for in the General Appropriation Bill for the Judiciary of this State.

Art. 1836b. Copy of Opinion to Clerk of Lower Court and Attorneys

It shall be the duty of the Clerk of each Court of Civil Appeals, as soon as any opinion is rendered by the Court of Civil Appeals, to immediately mail free of charge, a copy of said opinion, to the clerk of the court from which the appeal was taken, one copy for appellant and one for appellee. The Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals shall upon the delivery of a decision furnish one copy of such opinion to the appellant's attorney and when requested by State Attorney one copy of opinion free of charge to him.

Partial Repeal

Art. 1851. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 1851a. Trial Judge May Certify Question of Constitutionality of Law to Court of Civil Appeals; Procedure

Cases in Which Question May be Certified

Sec. 1. In any case hereafter pending in any District or County Court in this State, wherein the constitutionality of any law or any order, rule or regulation of any officer, board, or other State Commission is attacked as being violative of either the State or Federal Constitution, and wherein a decision on the same is material to the deciding of said case finally on its merits, the Judge of said Court shall have the power and authority to certify any such question or questions of law involved in said case directly to the Court of Civil Appeals in said District before trial on the merits for its decision.

Incorporation of Pleadings in Certificate

Sec. 2. The trial court, in certifying such question or questions, may incorporate in such certificate any or all of the pleadings of the parties therein, and in the event all of the pleadings are not set forth therein, then upon the certification of such question either party may have the right to file in the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court a certified copy of any such pleadings for the consideration of the Court.

Certification of Questions to Supreme Court

Sec. 3. In order to expedite the final determination of such questions with dispatch, the Court of Civil Appeals may forthwith certify said question or questions immediately to the Supreme Court, as provided by Article 1758 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and other Articles relating to certifying questions to the Supreme Court. When the Supreme Court, on receiving such record, shall render an opinion thereon, such opinion shall be final and shall be the law on the question involved until overruled by it, or otherwise abrogated by law. After the questions are decided the Supreme Court and the Court of Civil Appeals shall notify the Court of Civil Appeals and the trial court respectively. Either of said Appellate Courts shall give such time as it may deem advisable for the filing of briefs.

Trial May be Held in Abeyance

Sec. 4. The trial court may hold the trial of said case in abeyance until its questions have been certified and answered. Provided, however, that such trial court, if it so desires, may hold hearing on general and special demurrers involving questions of the constitutionality of any such law, order, rule, or regulation and an appeal be perfected in the same manner and time as provided by law for appealing from the granting or denying of a temporary injunction, and upon perfecting such appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals, such Court may immediately certify such questions to the Supreme Court, as hereinbefore provided, and the trial court may hold such trial in abeyance pending the determination of such questions, and if the Court of Civil Appeals shall fail to certify any such question to the Supreme Court, then such case may be carried to the Supreme Court by writ of error or appeal, as in cases where temporary injunctions are denied or granted.

Precedence Over Other Cases

Sec. 5. All such appeals and certified questions shall be given precedence over all other cases as now provided by law. The law and the rules of the various courts in reference to certifying questions by the Court of Civil Appeals to the Supreme Court and taking appeals from orders granting or denying temporary injunctions shall govern and control where not in conflict with the provisions hereof.

Application to Pending Causes

Sec. 5a. This Act shall not apply to any cause pending on the effective date hereof unless the parties each and all agree in writing to the certification to the Appellate Court and the agreement approved by the trial judge.

1893. Other Elections for Special Judge.

Art. 1884. Election and Qualification

For each judicial district there shall be elected at the general election for a term of four years a judge who shall be at least twenty-five years of age, a practicing attorney or a judge of a court in this State for four years and a resident of the district in which he is elected for two years next before his election. He shall reside in his district during his term of office.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1885. Disqualification

No change of venue shall be necessary because of the disqualification of a district judge, but he shall immediately certify his disqualification to the Governor, whereupon the Governor shall designate some district judge in an adjoining district to exchange and try such case or cases, and he shall notify both of said judges of such order; and such judges shall exchange districts for the purpose of disposing of such case or cases. If said judges be prevented from exchanging districts, the parties or their counsels may agree upon an attorney of the court for the trial thereof, and failing to agree, such fact shall be certified to the Governor by the district judge, or the special judge, whereupon the Governor shall appoint a person legally qualified to act as judge in the trial of the case.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1886. Record of Agreement

Whenever a special judge is agreed upon for the trial of a particular cause, the clerk shall enter in the minutes of the court, as a part of the proceedings in such cause, a record showing:

1. That the judge of the court was disqualified to try the cause; and
2. That such special judge (naming him) was, by consent agreed upon by the parties to try the cause; and
3. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to him.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1887. Special Judge, When

Should the judge of a district court on the first or any future day of a term, fail or refuse to hold the court, the practicing lawyers of the court present may elect from among their number a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1888. Voting for Special Judge

Such election shall be by ballot, and each practicing lawyer in attendance at such court shall be entitled to participate in such election and shall be entitled to one vote. A majority of the votes of the lawyers participating shall be necessary to the election of such special judge.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1889. Election for Special Judge

The election shall be conducted as follows: The sheriff or constable shall make proclamation at the court house door that the election of a special judge of the court is about to be made by the practicing lawyers present; the clerk shall then make a list of the practicing lawyers present; and such lawyers shall then organize and hold the election.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1890. Failure of Officers to Act

Should the sheriff, constable, and clerk, or either of them, fail or refuse to act, the said practicing lawyers may nevertheless proceed to organize themselves into such electoral body, and appoint a sheriff and clerk pro tempore to do the duties of such officers respectively.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1891. Record of the Election

The clerk shall enter upon the minutes of the court a record of the election of such special judge, showing:

1. The names of all the practicing lawyers present and participating in such election.
2. The fact that the public proclamation was made at the court house door that such election was about to take place.

3. The number of ballots polled at such election and the number polled for each person, and the result of the election.

4. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to the special judge.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1892. Effect of Such Record

The record of such proceedings, substantially complying with the requirements of the law, shall be conclusive evidence of the election and qualification of such special judge.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1893. Other Elections for Special Judge

Like elections may be held from time to time during the term of the court to supply the absence, failure or inability of the judge, or of any special judge, to perform the duties of the office.

Art. 1894. Election and Power

A clerk of the district court of each county shall be elected at each general election for a term of two years. Each such clerk shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations required in the discharge of their official duties, to take the depositions of witnesses, and generally to perform all such duties as are or may be imposed upon them by law.

Increase in Term of Office

Const. art. 5, § 9 was amended in November, 1954, to increase the term of office of clerks of district court from two to four years.

Art. 1895. Vacancy

Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district clerk, it shall be filled by the district judge of such county; and such appointee shall give bond and qualify and may hold his office until the next general election. Where a vacancy occurs in a county having two or more district courts, the vacancy shall be filled by the judges of such courts; and if they fail to agree, the Governor, upon the certificate of such judges, shall order a special election to fill such vacancy.

Art. 1896. Clerk Pro Tem

Where a district clerk is a party to any pending or proposed suit, motion or proceeding in his court, the district judge in whose court the same may be pending or proposed, shall, on application of any person interested, or on his own motion, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding. Such temporary clerk shall take an oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the State of Texas, in an amount to be fixed by the judge and to be approved by him, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. Such appointee shall perform each duty required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed.

Art. 1897. Bond and Oath

Each district clerk, before entering upon his official duties, shall give bond, to be set by the Commissioners Court of the county payable to the Governor, in a sum of not less than five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and shall also take and subscribe the official oath which shall be indorsed upon the bond. Such bond and oath shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1711, ch. 561, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 1898. Deputies

The district clerk may, in writing, under his hand and the seal of his court, appoint one or more deputies. The appointment shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk. Such deputies shall take the official oath, and shall act in the name of their principal, and may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by such clerk in person. If the clerk does not reside at the county seat he shall have a deputy residing there.

Art. 1899. To Record Proceedings

Such clerks shall keep a fair record of all the acts done, and proceedings had, in their respective courts; enter all judgments of the court, under direction of the judge, and keep a record of all executions issued and the returns thereon, in record books to be kept for the purpose.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1899a. Records of District Clerk

Sec. 1. The District Clerk may, pursuant to his duty to keep a fair record of acts and proceedings, provide a plan for the reproduction by microfilm or other process which correctly and legibly reproduces or which forms a medium of copying or reproducing all records, acts, proceedings held, minutes of the court or courts, and including all registers, records, and instruments for which the District Clerk is or may become responsible by law. The plan shall be in writing and shall include provisions for maintenance, retention, security, and retrieval of all records so microfilmed or otherwise duplicated.

Sec. 2. Any such plan shall provide for the following requirements:

(1) All original instruments, records, and minutes shall be recorded and released into the file system within a specified minimum time period after presentation to the clerk;

(2) Original paper records may be used during the pendency of any legal proceeding;

(3) The plan shall include setting standards for organizing, identifying, coding, and indexing so that the image produced during the microfilming or other duplicating process can be certified as a true and correct copy of the original and may be retrieved rapidly.

(4) All materials used in the microfilming or other process which correctly and legibly reproduces or which forms a medium of copying or reproducing all public records, as herein authorized, and all processes of development, fixation, and washing of said photographic duplicates, shall be of quality approved for permanent photographic records by the United States Bureau of Standards.

(5) The plan shall provide for permanent retention of the records and shall provide security provisions to guard against physical loss, alterations, and deterioration.

Sec. 3. The clerk may present such plan in writing to the District Judge or Judges of the county in which the clerk is located. If the Judge, or a majority of the Judges, determine that the plan meets the requirements set forth in Section 2 of this Act, they shall so inform the clerk in writing, and the clerk may adopt the plan. The decision of the Judge or Judges shall be entered in the minutes of the court or courts, and thereafter all recordings and orders of the court in accordance with the plan shall be considered to be the original records for all purposes and shall be so accepted by courts and administrative agencies in this State. All transcripts, exemplifications, copies, or reproductions on paper or on film of an image or images of any microfilmed or otherwise duplicated record shall be deemed to be certified copies of the original for all purposes.

Sec. 4. In any hearing, proceeding, or trial in which instruments and records have been filed with or left in the possession of the District Clerk, and upon certification of the clerk to the Librarian of the State that all requirements have been met and are on record as provided by this plan, the clerk may destroy such instruments and records after one year has elapsed following the time at which the judgment has become final and times for appeal, writ of error, bill of review under Rule 329, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and certiorari has expired without having been perfected, or mandate which is finally decisive of such matters has been issued, further providing, that after these requirements are reached and prior to the actual destruction of the instruments and records by the clerk, any party or parties or the State Librarian by petitioning the court may move for the return of such instruments and records.

Art. 1900. Report of Fines and Jury Fees

On the last day of each term of the court, the clerk shall make a written statement showing all moneys received by him for jury fees and fines, with the name of each party from whom received, up to the date of such statement, and since his previous statement; and also the name of each juror who has served at such term, the number of days he served, and the amount due him for such services. Such statement shall be examined, corrected, approved, and signed by the presiding judge. Such statement, when so approved and signed shall be recorded in the minutes of the court.

Art. 1901. Custody and Care of Records; Removal of Old Records; Deposit in Museum

District Clerks shall have the custody of records pertaining to or lawfully deposited in their offices and shall carefully attend to the arrangement and preservation of the same; provided however, that records dated before 1860 in counties having a population of not less than ninety-eight thousand, two hundred and ten (98,210) and not more than ninety-nine thousand, two hundred and ten (99,210) according to the last preceding Federal Census may be removed under the following conditions:

That upon the application of the curator of any museum located in the county where the records are deposited, said museum to be maintained and operated by or in connection with a recognized higher educational institution of learning and upon the proper substitution of certified copies by the curator making application to the District Clerk, said records may be removed and placed in the care and custody of such curator, or his successor, all of which shall be without expense to the State.

Art. 1901a. Destruction of Records by Shredding

Any records, ballots, stubs, lists, or papers which the district clerk or county clerk of any county in this state is required or authorized to destroy by burning may alternatively be destroyed by shredding at the discretion of the clerk.

Art. 1902. Indexes to Judgments

They shall provide and keep in well bound books, as part of the records, full and complete alphabetical indexes of the names of the parties to all suits filed in their courts; showing in full the names of all the parties, indexed and cross-indexed, so as to show the name of each party under the proper letter; and a reference shall be made opposite each name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the judgment in each case.

Art. 1903. Joint Clerk; Separation of County and District Clerk Offices; Election

In counties having a population of less than eight thousand (8,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, there shall be elected a single clerk who shall perform the duties of the district clerk and the county clerk, unless a majority of the qualified voters of the county who participate in a special election, called by the Commissioners Court for that purpose, vote to keep the offices of county and district clerk separate. The Commissioners Court may submit to the qualified voters of such counties, at an election held at least thirty (30) days before any regular primary election immediately preceding the expiration of the constitutional term of office of said clerk, the question of whether the offices of district and county clerk shall be separate or joint. The same question may again be submitted immediately prior to the expiration of each subsequent constitutional term of office of the separate clerk. Notice of such special election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least twenty (20) days prior to such election. No special election as provided herein shall prevent any county clerk, district clerk or joint clerk from serving the full term of office to which he was elected.

Art. 1904. Use of Court Seal

When a joint clerk has been elected, he shall, in performing the duties of district clerk use the seal of said court to authenticate his official acts as clerk of the district court.

Art. 1905. Seal of the Court

Each district court shall be provided with a seal, having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center and the words, "District Court of _____ County, Texas." The impress of which shall be attached to all process, except subpoenas, issued out of such court, and shall be kept by the clerk and used to authenticate his official acts.

Art. 1906. Original Jurisdiction

The district court shall have original jurisdiction in civil cases of:

1. Suits in behalf of the State to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats.
2. Cases of divorce and dissolution of marriage.
3. Suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character.
4. Suits for the trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon.
5. Suits for trial of right to property levied on by virtue of any writ of execution, sequestration or attachment, when the property levied on shall be equal to or exceed in value five hundred dollars.
6. Suits, complaints or pleas, without regard to any distinction between law and equity, when the matter in controversy [controversy] shall be valued at or amount to five hundred dollars exclusive of interest.
7. Contested elections.

Art. 1906a. Computation of Amount in Controversy Where Parties Properly Joined

Where two or more persons originally and properly join in one suit, the suit for jurisdictional purposes shall be treated as if one party were suing for the aggregate amount of all their claims added together, exclusive of interest and cost; provided that this statute shall not prevent jurisdiction from attaching on any other ground. Provided further, that the passage of this Act shall not affect any pending litigation.

Art. 1907. Matters of Probate

District courts shall have appellate jurisdiction and general control in probate matters over the county courts, for appointing guardians, granting letters testamentary and of administration, probating wills, settling accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, and for the transaction of business appertaining to estates. The district court shall also have such original jurisdiction and general control over executors, administrators, guardians and minors as provided by law.

Art. 1908. Over Commissioners Courts

Such court shall also have appellate jurisdiction and general supervisory control over the commissioners court, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1909. General Jurisdiction

Such court shall have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action, for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or the constitution, and such other jurisdiction, original and appellate as may be provided by law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1910. Motions Against Sheriffs, Attorneys, etc.

The district court shall have power to hear and determine all motions against sheriffs and other officers of the court for failure to pay over moneys, collected under the process of said court, or other defalcation of duty in connection with such process and of motions against attorneys for moneys collected by them and not paid over.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1911. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2536, ch. 831, § 6, eff. Aug. 30, 1971

Art. 1911a. Contempt; Power of Courts; Penalties

Inherent Power and Authority of Courts

Sec. 1. A court possesses inherently all powers necessary for the exercise of its jurisdiction and the enforcement of its lawful orders, including authority to issue such writs and orders as may be necessary or proper in aid of its jurisdiction. It has the duty to require that proceedings shall be conducted with dignity and in an orderly and expeditious manner and to so control the proceedings that justice is done. A court has the power to punish for contempt.

Penalties for Contempt

Sec. 2. (a) Every court other than a justice court or municipal court may punish by a fine of not more than $500, or by confinement in the county jail for not more than six months, or both, any person guilty of contempt of the court.

(b) A justice court or municipal court may punish by a fine of not more than $100, or by confinement in the county or city jail for not more than three days, or both, any person guilty of contempt of the court.

(c) Provided, however, an officer of a court held in contempt by a trial court, shall, upon proper motion filed in the offended court, be released upon his own personal recognizance pending a determination of his guilt or innocence by a judge of a district court, other than the offended court. Said judge to be appointed for that purpose by the presiding judge of the Administrative Judicial District wherein the alleged contempt occurred.

Confinement to Enforce Order

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act affects a court's power to confine a contemner in order to compel him to obey a court order.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2535, ch. 831, §§ 1 to 3, eff. Aug. 30, 1971; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1784, ch. 657, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Art. 1912. Judgments Transferred and Enforced

When a district clerk shall receive from the county clerk a certified copy of a judgment rendered in any civil or criminal case in the county court where the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county court has been transferred to the district court, he shall immediately record such judgments in the minutes of the district court; and the said district court shall enforce said judgments by execution or otherwise, as other judgments rendered in said district court are enforced.

Art. 1913. Other Jurisdiction

Subject to the limitations stated in this chapter, the district court is authorized to hear and determine any cause which is cognizable by courts, either of law or equity, and to grant any relief which could be granted by said courts, or either of them.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1914. To Grant All Remedial Writs

Judges of the district courts may either in term time or in vacation, grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court.

Art. 1915. Powers in Vacation

Judges of the district courts may in vacation, by consent of the parties, exercise all powers, make all orders, and perform all acts, as fully as in term time, and may, by consent of the parties, try any civil case, except divorce cases, without a jury and enter final judgment. All such proceedings shall be conducted under the same rules as if done in term time; and the right of appeals and writ of error shall apply as if the acts had been done in term time.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1916. May Alternate, etc.

A judge of the district court may hold court for or with any other district judge; and the judges of such courts may exchange districts whenever they deem it expedient.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1917. Appointing Attorney

Judges of district courts may appoint counsel to attend to the cause of any party who makes affidavit that he is too poor to employ counsel to attend to the same.

Sec. 1. All district courts in this State, including all criminal district courts, whenever and however created, shall hold at least two (2) terms of court per year in each county wherein they sit. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law, the terms of all district courts in the State, civil and criminal, shall be continuous and shall begin on the day now or hereafter fixed by law and shall continue until the day fixed by law for the beginning of the next succeeding term. It shall be no objection to the commencement of a term of court that the first day falls upon a legal holiday, nor that the Judge is not present in the county upon the day set for the commencement of the term of court. The Judge of the district may hold as many sessions of court in any county as is deemed proper and expedient for the dispatch of business, and may adopt such rules and regulations relating thereto as are permitted by, and not contrary to, the Statutes of this State and the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure prescribed by the Supreme Court of Texas.

Sec. 2. In all judicial districts in Texas containing more than one (1) county, the district court may hear and determine all preliminary and interlocutory matters in which a jury may not be demanded, and unless there is objection from some party to the suit, hear and determine any noncontested or agreed cases and contests of elections, pending in his district, and may sign all necessary orders and judgments therein in any county in his judicial district, and may sign any order or decree in any case pending for trial or on trial before him in any county in his district at such place as may be convenient to him, and forward such order or decree to the clerk for filing and entry. Any district judge assigned to preside in a court of another judicial district, or who may be presiding in exchange or at the request of the regular Judge of said court may in like manner hear, determine and enter any such orders, judgments and decrees in any such case which is pending for trial or has been tried before such visiting judge; provided that all contested divorce cases, all default judgments, and all cases in which any of the parties have been cited by publication shall be tried in the county in which filed.

Art. 1919a. Terms of District Court in Unorganized County Being Organized

Whenever any unorganized county within this State has become organized or may hereafter become organized, there being no time fixed by law for holding District Court in such counties, the District Judge in whose Judicial District such county is situated shall fix times to hold at least two terms of court each year in each of such counties, by a written declaration, to be forwarded by the District Judge to the District Clerk of the County, and by him spread on the minutes of the District Court. When the times are so fixed they shall not be changed, except by an act of the Legislature.

Art. 1920. Special Terms

Whenever a district judge deems it advisable to hold a special term of the district court in any county in his district, such special term may be held; and such judge may convene such term at any time which may be fixed by him. Such district judge may appoint jury commissioners, who may select and draw grand and petit jurors in accordance with the law. Such jurors may be summoned to appear before such district court at such time as may be designated by the judge thereof. In the discretion of the district judge, a grand jury need not be drawn or empaneled. No new civil cases can be brought to a special term of the district court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1921. Summoning Juries

The juries for a special term shall be summoned in accordance with the law regulating juries at regular terms of court. At a special term all proceedings may be had in any case which could be had at any regular term of such court. All process issued to a previous regular term or to such special term, and all orders, judgments and decrees, and all proceedings had in any case, civil or criminal, which would be lawful if had at a regular term, shall have the same force and effect; and any proceeding had may be appealed from as if the case were tried at a regular term.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1923. Extension of Term

Whenever a district court shall be in the midst of the trial of a cause when the time for the expiration of the term of said court arrives, the judge presiding shall have the power and may, if he deems it expedient, extend the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial. The extension of such term shall be shown in the minutes of the court before they are signed. If the term is extended as herein provided, no term of court in any other county shall fail because thereof, but the term of court therein may be opened and held as provided by law when the district judge fails to appear at the opening of a term of court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1924. Extension in Certain Counties

A district court in a judicial district composed of more than one county and having terms of court fixed by law in counties in which there is a city of one hundred and thirty-five thousand population, or over, according to the preceding Federal census, may, by an order of the judge thereof made and entered of record in the minutes of said court, have any of such terms of court in such last described counties extended for such length of time as such judge may deem advisable for the transaction of the business of such court.

Art. 1925. Effect of Extension

If any term of court is extended as provided in the preceding article, no term of such court as fixed by law shall fail, but same shall be opened and held as provided by law. When a new term shall run concurrently in time and in the same county, with an extended term, the minutes of both such terms may be recorded together during the time such terms so run concurrently. While such new term is open, each entry made in the minute records of said court, during such time shall be presumed to be the minutes of proceedings of such new term unless otherwise shown in such minutes.

DALLAS COUNTY

Art. 1926-11. Dallas Criminal District Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established at the city of Dallas a criminal district court, which shall have and exercise all the criminal jurisdiction heretofore vested in and exercised by the district courts of Dallas county. All appeals from the judgments of said court shall be to the court of criminal appeals, under the same regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for appeals in criminal cases from district courts.

Sec. 2. The district courts of Dallas county shall not have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. The judge of said criminal district court shall be elected by the qualified voters of Dallas county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of a judge of the district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter, be paid to the district judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges in criminal cases. The judge of said court may exchange with any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of the judge, a special judge may be selected, elected, or appointed, as provided by law in cases of district judges.

Sec. 4. Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for district courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court of Dallas County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seals of the district courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments, and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the clerk and attested by the seal of said court, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state in like manner as similar certified copies from courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible.

Sec. 5. The sheriff, the county attorney, and the clerk of the district court of Dallas county, as heretofore provided for by law, shall be the sheriff, county attorney, and clerk, respectively, of said criminal district court, under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys, and clerks in the district courts of the state; and said sheriff, county attorney, and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of the state, to be paid in the same manner.

Sec. 6. Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of January, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, and one term beginning the first Monday of October. A grand jury shall be impaneled in said court for each term thereof; and jury commissioners shall be appointed for drawing jurors for said court, as is now or may hereafter be required by law in district courts, and under like rules and regulations.

Sec. 7. The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice, and proceedings in criminal cases in the district courts. [1925 C.C.P.]

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-12. Criminal Judicial District of Dallas County

There is hereby created and established a Criminal Judicial District of Dallas County, Texas, to be composed of the County of Dallas, Texas, alone, and the Criminal District Court of Dallas county, and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas county, Texas, shall have and exercise all the Criminal Jurisdiction of such courts, of and for said Criminal District of Dallas county, Texas; that are now conferred by law on said Criminal District Courts.

[1925 C.C.P.]

Art. 1926-13. Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established at the city of Dallas a criminal district court to be known as the "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County," which court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the criminal district court of Dallas county, Texas, as now given and exercised by the said criminal district court of Dallas county under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this law shall take effect the criminal district court of Dallas county, and the criminal district court No. 2 of Dallas county shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all felony causes and in all matters and proceedings of which the said criminal district court of Dallas county now has jurisdiction; and either of the judges of said criminal district court may in their discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other criminal district court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made the clerk of such district court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which such transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the judge shall try and dispose of said causes in the same manner as if such causes were originally instituted in said court.

Sec. 3. The judge of said criminal district court No. 2 of Dallas county shall be elected by the qualified voters of Dallas county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of a district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now or may hereafter be paid to the district judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges of the criminal district court of Dallas county. The judge of said court may exchange with any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and, in case of disqualification or absence of a judge, a special judge may be selected, elected or appointed as provided by law in cases of district judges; provided, that the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, shall appoint a judge of said court, who shall hold the office until the next general election, after the passage of this law, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Sec. 4. Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for district courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seals of the district courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the clerk and attested by the seal of said court, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this State in like manner as similar certified copies from courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible.

Sec. 5. The sheriff, county attorney and the clerk of the district court of Dallas county, as heretofore provided for by law, shall be the sheriff, county attorney and clerk, respectively, of said criminal district court under the same rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys and clerks of the district courts of the State; and said sheriff, county attorney and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of the State to be paid in the same manner.

Sec. 6. Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, one term beginning the first Monday of October, and one term beginning the first Monday of January. The grand jury shall be impaneled in said court for each term thereof unless otherwise directed by the judge of said court, and the procedure for drawing jurors for said court shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be required by law in district courts, and under the same rules and regulations. The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice and proceedings in criminal cases in the district courts.

Art. 1926-14. Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County

Sec. 1. The Special Criminal District Court of Dallas County, heretofore established as a temporary District Court under the terms and provisions of Senate Bill No. 21, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, First Called Session, 1954, Chapter 51, page 105, is hereby established as a permanent Criminal District Court, the limits of which district shall be co-extensive with the limits of Dallas County, Texas, and shall be known as the Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County.

Sec. 2. The present District Judge of the Special Criminal District Court of Dallas County, duly elected and acting as such, shall be the District Judge of the Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County until the time for which he has been elected expires and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-15. Criminal District Court No. 5 of Dallas County

A. There is hereby created, effective October 1, 1965, in and for Dallas County, Texas, one additional Criminal Judicial District to be known as Criminal Judicial District No. 5, and the court of said district shall be known as the Criminal District Court No. 5 of Dallas County, Texas. The limits of said district shall be coextensive with the limits of Dallas County, Texas.

B. The Criminal District Court No. 5 shall have and exercise the powers conferred by the constitution and laws of the State of Texas on the judges of the existing Criminal District Courts of Dallas County, Texas, and the jurisdiction of said court shall be concurrent with that of the existing Criminal District Courts of Dallas County, Texas. The said court shall have and exercise, in addition to the jurisdiction now conferred by law on said court, concurrent jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of Dallas County in all actions, proceedings, matters and causes, both civil and criminal, of which district courts of general jurisdiction are given jurisdiction by the constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

C. The terms of said Criminal District Court No. 5 shall begin on the first Monday of January, April, July, and October of each year respectively, and each of said terms of said court shall continue until the convening of the next succeeding term.

D. The Judge of said Criminal District Court No. 5 is authorized to appoint an official court reporter for such court, and said court reporter shall have the qualifications now required by law for official shorthand reporters. Such reporter shall perform the duties as required by law and such duties as may be assigned to the court reporter by the judge of such court and shall receive as compensation for his services the compensation now allowed or hereinafter allowed for the official shorthand reporters for the District Courts of Dallas County, Texas, under the laws of this state.

E. The district clerk shall equalize the dockets of the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County by transferring cases from the Criminal District Court, the Criminal District Court No. 2, the Criminal District Court No. 3, and the Criminal District Court No. 4 to the Criminal District Court No. 5 hereby created.

F. The judge of any of the District Courts in Dallas County may in his discretion try and dispose of any causes, matters or proceedings for any other judge of said courts. Either of the judges of said District Courts of Dallas County may at his discretion at termtime or in vacation transfer a case or cases to said other district court with the consent of the judge of said other district court by order entered in the minutes of his court. When such transfer is ordered, the District Clerk of Dallas County shall certify all orders made in said case and such certified copies of such orders together with the original papers shall be filed among the papers of the case thus transferred and the fees thereof shall be taxed as part of the costs of said suit and the clerk of said court shall docket any such case in the court to which it shall have been transferred, and when so entered, the court to which same shall have been thus transferred shall have like jurisdiction therein as in cases originally filed in said court. All process and writs issued out of the district court from which any such transfer is made shall be returnable to the court to which said transfer is made.

G. The District Attorney of Dallas County shall also be the district attorney for the additional Criminal District Court hereby created.

H. The District Clerk of Dallas County, Texas shall also act as District Clerk for the Criminal District Court No. 5 hereby created.

I. The Sheriff of Dallas County, either in person or by deputy shall attend the Criminal District Court No. 5 as required by the judge thereof, and the sheriff and constables of the several counties of this state, with executing processes issued out of said court, shall receive fees as provided by General Law for executing processes issued out of district courts.

J. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued out of the District Courts or Criminal District Courts of Dallas County are hereby made returnable to the said District Courts of Dallas County as required by law and all bonds executed and recognizances entered by and in said courts shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of such courts as fixed by law and this Act, and all processes heretofore returned or hereafter returned to the District Courts of Dallas County shall be valid.

K. Except as herein otherwise provided, the laws and parts of laws applicable to District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Dallas County shall be applicable to the Criminal District Court No. 5 created by this Act.

L. If any provision of this Act is held unconstitutional or invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Act. Except as otherwise provided in this Act all laws now in effect with respect to Judicial District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Dallas County shall apply respectively to the Criminal District Court No. 5 created by this Act.

M. The Governor shall appoint a suitable person as Judge of the Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County created by this Act, who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. At the first general election after the creation of said court provided for herein, the judge of said court shall be elected for a term of four (4) years. Such person so appointed and elected shall have the qualifications provided by the constitution and the laws of this state for district judges.

A sum of $16,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1966, and a sum of $16,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1967, is hereby appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for the salary of the Judge of the Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County. The salary shall be paid as provided by law.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-16. Special Criminal District Court at Dallas County

There is hereby created and established at the City of Dallas a Special Criminal District Court to be known as the "Special Criminal District Court of Dallas County," which court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Criminal District Court of Dallas County, Texas, and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, Texas, as is now given and exercised by the said Criminal District Court of Dallas County, Texas, and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, Texas, under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

The Special Criminal District Court of Dallas County, a temporary court under Acts 1954, 53rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 105, ch. 51, art. 3, § 1 which provided that such court should cease to exist on Aug. 31, 1956, was established as permanent criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County by Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 711, ch. 256, § 1 (art. 1926-14, ante). See, also, Article 199, Judicial District 14, etc.

JURISDICTION

Art. 1926-21. Concurrent Jurisdiction of Criminal District Courts with County Court at Law

Sec. 1. The Criminal District Court and Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with each other and with the County Court of Dallas County at Law in all matters and proceedings relative to misdemeanor causes of which the County Court of Dallas County at Law now has jurisdiction and either of the judges of said Criminal District Courts and the judge of said County Court of Dallas County at Law may, in his discretion, or upon the motion of the county attorney of Dallas county, transfer by written order or orders, entered upon the minutes of said court, any misdemeanor cause or misdemeanor causes that may at any time be pending in either of said courts to either of the other of said courts, as should, in his discretion, be transferred or as may be prayed for in the motion of the county attorney.

Sec. 2. Upon the transfer of any such cause or causes from said County Court of Dallas County at Law to either of said Criminal District Courts it shall be the duty of the county clerk of Dallas County to prepare and forward with the papers in said cause or causes so transferred a bill of the cost then accrued which said cost shall follow said cause or causes, and be taxed in said cause or causes with any other cost that may accrue in said cause or causes in either of said Criminal District Courts to which said cause or causes may be transferred; provided that the county clerk of Dallas County making such a bill of cost shall receive the sum of 50 cents for the preparation and forwarding of said bill of cost, in each cause so transferred, which said sum and cost shall be taxed in said cause and collected as other cost in the manner now provided by law; and the clerk of the District Court of Dallas County shall likewise, upon the transfer of any such cause from either of said Criminal District Courts to the County Court of Dallas County at Law, prepare such bill of cost and forward same as provided therein, and shall receive the same compensation as herein provided for the county clerk of Dallas County in such cases.

Sec. 3. The clerk of the District Court of Dallas County shall keep for each of said Criminal District Courts a misdemeanor docket and a misdemeanor motion docket in like manner as is now provided for by law for the County Court of Dallas County at Law, and upon any such cause or causes being transferred from the County Court of Dallas County at Law or from one of said Criminal District Courts to the other, said cause or causes shall be docketed as now provided by law for the County Court of Dallas County at Law.

Sec. 4. In trial of causes transferred to either of the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County from the County Court of Dallas County at Law, the trials, pleadings and practice shall be the same as in trial of other causes over which the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County now have jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. The county attorney of Dallas county and all other officers shall receive the same fees in misdemeanor causes in said Criminal District Courts as are now provided by law in the County Court of Dallas County at Law and in all other matters of cost tax in said causes in said Criminal District Courts, the item shall in no event be greater than that provided by law for such items in the County Court of Dallas County at Law, and all such cost in such causes shall be paid to the officers of the court in which same is accrued.

Sec. 7. All misdemeanor causes of which the County Court of Dallas County now has jurisdiction may be filed originally with the clerk of the district [court] of Dallas¹ county, in either the Criminal District Court of Dallas County or the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the filing of such causes with the county clerk of Dallas county in the County Court of Dallas County at Law.

Sec. 7a. Said Criminal District Courts shall have jurisdiction on all bail bonds and recognizances taken in proceedings had before such courts; in all causes transferred to said courts from either of them or that may be transferred to said courts from the County Court of Dallas County at Law; and may enter forfeitures thereof; and final judgment and enforce the collection of same by proper process in the manner as provided by law in said bail bond proceedings; and all bail bonds, recognizances or other obligations taken for the appearance of defendants, parties and witnesses, in either the County Court of Dallas County at Law or Criminal District Court of Dallas County or Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, shall be binding on all such defendants, parties and witnesses and their sureties for appearance in either of said courts in which said cause may be pending or to which same may be transferred.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-22. Jurisdiction Increased

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the Criminal District Court of Dallas County, and upon the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, said Courts shall hereafter have and exercise civil jurisdiction in suits, causes and matters of:

(1) Divorce, as provided in Chapter 4, Title 75, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and any amendments thereof, heretofore or hereafter made thereto.

(2) Dependent and delinquent children, as provided in Title 43, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and any amendments thereof, heretofore or hereafter made thereto.

(3) Adoption, as provided in Title 3, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and any and all amendments heretofore or that may hereafter be made thereto.

(4) Habeas Corpus proceedings in civil matters.

Sec. 2. In all matters pertaining to the additional jurisdiction herein conferred upon said Courts, all the officers of said Courts shall have the same powers, rights and duties that are now or that may hereafter be conferred upon the same or similar officers in the other District Courts of Dallas County, Texas; and all fees and costs in such matters shall be the same as now or that may hereafter be provided in the same or similar matters in the other District Courts of Dallas County, Texas.

Sec. 3. Any Judge of any District Court of Dallas County may at his discretion transfer any cause or causes set out in Section 1 hereof that may at any time be pending in his Court to any other District Court of Dallas County by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his Court; and the presiding Judge of the District Courts of Dallas County may in like manner assign any case in his Court or in any of the District Courts in Dallas County involving or pertaining to the matters set out in Section 1 hereof to any other Judge or Court, including the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County, or may assign any Judge to try any of said causes in any of said Courts, and the Judge in whose Court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the case to the Court to which it is assigned, and the Judge of the Court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case. When such transfer or transfers are made the Clerk of such Court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which said transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the Judge shall try and dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 4. The trials and proceedings in said Courts in such matters shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice and proceedings in civil cases in the District Courts and in conformity with the provisions of Article 2092, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and all appeals in such civil cases shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals for the Fifth Supreme Judicial District of Texas in the manner now or that may hereafter be provided by law.

Art. 1926-27. Criminal District Attorney; Duties; Salary; Fees; Accounting; Assistants; Oath; Powers; Report of Expenses; Election

Sec. 1. See article 199 (14th Dist.).

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Criminal Judicial District of Dallas county, Texas, an attorney for said district, who shall be styled the "Criminal District Attorney of Dallas county," and who shall hold his office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said Criminal District Attorney shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State, of other district attorneys.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney or his assistants, as hereinafter provided to be in attendance upon each term of the "Criminal Court of Dallas County" and the "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County" and to represent the state in all matters pending before said courts. And he shall have exclusive control of all criminal cases wherever pending, or in whatever court in Dallas County that now has jurisdiction of criminal cases, as well as any or all courts that may hereafter be created and given jurisdiction in criminal cases, and he shall have the fees therefor fixed by law. He shall also have control of any and all cases heard on habeas corpus before any civil district court of Dallas County, as well as before the Criminal Court of said county. The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within said Criminal District of Dallas County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state.

It is further provided that he and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and it shall be their sole duty to perform the duties provided for in this Act, except in cases of absence from the county of the Criminal District Attorney and his assistants, or their inability or refusal to act; and no other person shall have the power to perform the duties provided for in this Act, or to represent the state in any criminal case in Dallas County, except in case of the absence from Dallas County, or the inability or refusal to act of the Criminal District Attorney and his assistants.

Sec. 4. The said Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive a salary of $500.00 per annum, to be paid by the state, and in addition thereto shall receive the following fees in felony cases, to be paid by the state; for each conviction of felonious homicide, where the defendant does not appeal or dies, or escapes after appeal and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of forty dollars. For all other convictions in felony cases, where the defendant does not appeal, or dies, or escapes, after appeal, and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of thirty dollars; provided, that in all convictions of felony, in which punishment is fixed by the verdict and judgment by confinement in the House of Correction and Reformatory, his fee shall be fifteen dollars. For representing the state in each case of habeas corpus where the defendant is charged with felony, the sum of twenty dollars. For representing the state in examining trials, in felony cases, where indictment is returned, in each case, the sum of five dollars. The Criminal District Attorney shall also receive such fees for other services rendered by him as is now, or may hereafter be authorized by law to be paid to other district and county attorneys in this state for such services.

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall retain out of the fees earned and collected by him the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum and in addition thereto one fourth of the gross excess of all such fees in excess of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum to an amount not in excess of two thousand dollars. The three fourth remaining to be applied first to the payment of the salaries of the Assistant District Attorneys and extra assistant District Attorneys and stenographer as hereinafter provided for. The remainder to be paid into the treasury of Dallas County; provided that in arriving at the amount collected by him he shall include the fees arising from all classes of criminal cases whether felony or misdemeanor arising in any of the courts in Dallas County now existing, or which may hereafter be created including habeas corpus hearing and fines and forfeitures; provided that after the 30th day of November and before the first day of January following of each year, he shall make a full and complete report and accounting to the county judge of Dallas County of all of such fees so collected by him; provided that in addition to the above he shall receive ten per cent. for the collection of delinquent fees as is now provided by law relating to the collection of delinquent fees by county and district attorneys. Such fees however, to be included in the reports herein provided for and to be taken into consideration in arriving at the total maximum compensation provided in this Act.

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County may appoint two assistant criminal district attorneys who shall each receive a salary of not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum payable monthly, and four additional assistant district attorneys who shall each receive a salary of not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars a year payable monthly. He may appoint a stenographer who shall receive a salary of not more than twelve hundred dollars per annum payable monthly.

In addition to the assistant criminal district attorneys and stenographer above provided for, said Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County may, with the approval of the county judge and commissioners court of Dallas county, appoint as many additional extra assistant district attorneys as may be necessary to properly administer the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney and enforce the law, upon the Criminal District Attorney making application under oath addressed to the county judge of Dallas county, setting out the need therefor; provided, the county judge, with the approval of the commissioners court, may discontinue the services of any one or more of said extra assistant criminal district attorneys so appointed, the salary of said extra assistant criminal district attorney to be fixed by the commissioners court of Dallas county.

Sec. 7. The assistant criminal district attorneys and the extra assistant criminal district attorneys above provided for, when so appointed, shall take oath of office and be authorized to represent the state before said criminal district court, and in all other courts of Dallas county, in which the criminal district attorney of Dallas county is authorized by this Act to represent the state, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said criminal district attorney, and which said assistants shall be subject to removal at the will of the said criminal district attorney. Each of said assistant criminal district attorneys shall be authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon the said criminal district attorney when by him so authorized. The criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be paid the same fees for services rendered by his assistants as he would be entitled to receive if the services shall have been rendered by himself.

Sec. 8. The criminal district attorney of Dallas county is authorized, with the consent of the county judge and county commissioners of Dallas county, to appoint not to exceed two assistants in addition to his regular assistant criminal district attorneys, provided for in this Act, which two assistants shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for district or county attorneys, and who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the criminal district attorney, and who shall receive as their compensation one hundred dollars per month each, to be paid in monthly installments out of the county funds of Dallas county, Texas, by warrants drawn on such county fund; and provided further, that the criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be allowed a sum of money by order of said commissioners court of Dallas county, as in the judgment of the commissioners court may be deemed necessary, to the proper administration of the duties of such office not to exceed, however, the amount of fifty dollars per month. Such amount as may be thus necessarily incurred shall be paid by the commissioners court upon affidavit made by the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, showing the necessity for such expenditure and for what the same was incurred. The commissioners court may also require any other evidence as in their opinion may be necessary to show the necessity for such expenditure, but they shall be the sole judge as to the necessity for such expenditure and their judgment allowing same shall be final.

Sec. 9. The criminal district attorney shall at the close of each month of the tenure of such office make, as a part of the report required by this Act, an itemized and sworn statement of the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him in the conduct of his said office, such as stamps, stationery, books, telephone, traveling expenses and other necessary expenses. If such expenses be incurred in connection with any particular case such statement shall name such case. Such expense account shall be subject to the audit of the county auditor and if it appears that any item of such expenses was not incurred by such officer or that such item was not necessary thereto, such item may be by the said auditor rejected, in which case the correction of such item may be adjudicated in any court of competent jurisdiction. The amount of such expense shall be deducted by the criminal district attorney of Dallas county in making such a report from the amount if any due by him to the county under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 10. The criminal district attorney of Dallas county, as provided for in this Act, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the criminal judicial district of Dallas county at the next general election, and it is provided and directed that the present county attorney of Dallas county, Texas shall continue in office and assume the duties and be known as the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, Texas, and proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of criminal district attorney of Dallas county, and appoint assistants as provided for in this Act and receive the fees provided for in this Act for such office until the next general election and until the criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be elected and qualified.

TARRANT COUNTY

Art. 1926-41. Criminal District Court for Tarrant County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established at the city of Ft. Worth a Criminal District Court to be known as "Criminal District Court of Tarrant County,"¹ which Court shall have and exercise, from and after the taking effect of this Act, original and exclusive jurisdiction over all criminal cases of the grade of felony in the county of Tarrant of which district courts, under the Constitution and laws of this State, have original and exclusive jurisdiction, and shall have and exercise such concurrent jurisdiction with the county court of Tarrant county over misdemeanor cases as is hereinafter provided by this Act.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this Act shall take effect, the county court of Tarrant county and the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county¹ created by this Act, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all misdemeanor cases of which the county court of Tarrant county may now, or may hereafter have exclusive jurisdiction; and of such misdemeanor cases as shall be filed in said county court on appeal from justices' or recorders' courts; and either the judge of said Criminal District Court, or the judge of said county court of Tarrant county, may upon motion of the county attorney of Tarrant county, or other officer representing the State in said courts, in his discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers, are made, the clerk of the court making such transfer shall certify to the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made a statement of the cause or causes so transferred giving the style and number of the same to the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made and shall accompany such statement with all the papers in said cause or causes so transferred and upon receipt of such statement and the papers in such cause or causes so transferred, the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted in said court.

Sec. 3. Said court shall have jurisdiction over all bail bonds and recognizances taken in proceedings had before said court, or that may be returned to said court from other courts, and may enter forfeitures thereof and final judgments, and enforce the collection of the same by proper process in the same manner as is provided by law in district courts.

Sec. 4. The said Criminal District Court of Tarrant county¹ shall have a seal similar to the seal of the district court with the words "Criminal District Court of Tarrant county"¹ engraved thereon, an impression of which seal shall be attached to all writs and other processes, except subpoenas, issuing from said court, and shall be used in the authentication of the official acts of the clerk of said court.

Sec. 5. The practice in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the practice in the district court, and the rules of pleading and evidence in the district court shall govern insofar as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 6. All laws regulating the selection, summoning and impaneling of grand and petit jurors in the district court shall govern and apply in the Criminal District Court in so far as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 7. All rules of criminal procedure governing the district and county courts shall apply to and govern said Criminal District Court.

Sec. 8. Said Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ shall try all misdemeanor cases coming before it with six jurors instead of twelve jurors, unless a jury be waived by the defendant.

Sec. 9. Said Court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, one term beginning the first Monday of October, one term beginning the first Monday of January. Each term shall continue until the term ends by operation of law or the business is disposed of. The grand jury shall be impanelled in said court for each term thereof, unless otherwise directed by the judge of said Court.

Sec. 10. Whenever the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ shall be engaged in the trial of any cause when the time for expiration of the terms of said court as fixed by law shall arrive, the judge presiding shall have the power, and may, if he deems it expedient, continue the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial; in such case, the extension of such term shall be shown on the minutes of the court before they are signed.

Sec. 11. The sheriff, county attorney, and the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county shall be the sheriff, county attorney and clerk, respectively, of said Criminal District Court under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys, and clerks of the district courts of this State; and said sheriff, county attorney and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed for such officers in the district courts of the State, to be paid in the same manner, provided that the clerk of the court herein created, shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of $125.00 (one hundred and twenty-five dollars) per month, to be paid as all the salaries of other clerks of criminal district courts in this State.

Sec. 12. In all such matters over which said Criminal District Court has jurisdiction, it shall have the same power within said district as is conferred by law upon the district court, and shall be governed by the same rule in the exercise of said power.

Sec. 13. Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from said Criminal District Court to the court of criminal appeals in criminal cases and to the courts of civil appeals in the same manner and form as from district courts in like cases.

Sec. 14. From and after the taking effect of this Act, the district courts of Tarrant county as now constituted, shall be, and they are hereby deprived and divested of all jurisdiction in all criminal cases, and of all jurisdiction given the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county¹ by this Act, and all criminal causes pending in said district courts at the time of the taking effect of this Act and all matters pertaining to criminal cases pending therein over which the court herein created is given jurisdiction, shall be, by the judges of the other district courts ordered transferred to and entered upon the docket of said Criminal District Court, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said Criminal District Court shall try and dispose of same in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted therein. Provided that the other district courts of Tarrant county shall have jurisdiction concurrently with this court to empanel grand juries and to receive their bills of indictment and make proper transfer of same to the Criminal District Court.

Sec. 15. The judge of said Criminal Court of Tarrant county¹ shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of a district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter be paid, to the district judges to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges of this State in criminal cases. Provided, that the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, shall appoint a judge of said court who shall hold the office until the next general election after the passage of this Act, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Sec. 16. The judge of said criminal district court may exchange districts with or hold court for any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of a judge, a special judge may be selected.

Sec. 17. All orders heretofore made and all process heretofore issued in any criminal cause so transferred are hereby validated and made of full force and effect in the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county.¹

Art. 1926-42. Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established a Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County, Texas, to be composed of the County of Tarrant, Texas, alone and which shall be co-extensive with the territorial boundaries and limits of said Tarrant County, and the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, Texas,¹ shall have and exercise all of the criminal jurisdiction of and for said Criminal District of Tarrant County, Texas, which is now conferred by law on said Criminal District Court.

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County, Texas, an Attorney for said District who shall be styled the "Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County" and who shall hold his office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said Criminal District Attorney shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State, of other District Attorneys.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney or his assistants as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ and of all sessions and terms of the County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, held for the transaction of criminal business, and to represent the state in all matters pending before said courts, and to represent Tarrant County in all matters pending before such courts, the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County and Justice Courts and any other courts where said Tarrant County has pending business of any kind or matter of concern or interest; provided, however, the Commissioners Court may employ the services of the Criminal District Attorney or his assistants, or if the court elects to do so it may employ special counsel of its own choice, learned in the law, to represent the county in all condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of right-of-way for highways and proper purposes where the right of eminent domain is given to the county; and particularly with authority to render aid and work with the Commissioners Court, the county engineer and other county employees in the preparation of documents necessary in the acquisition of rights-of-way for the county, or in cases where the county is required to obtain right-of-way for state highways, or to assist in the acquisition of such rights-of-way. Such employment may be made for such time and on such terms as the Commissioners Court may deem proper and expedient; provided, however, that the compensation for such employment shall be paid out of the Road and Bridge fund of Tarrant County. The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within such criminal district of Tarrant County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state except in regard to condemnation proceedings where the Commissioners Court elects to hire a special counsel.

Sec. 4. Said Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive as salary and compensation the following and no more:

A salary of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars from the State of Texas, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas, for the salary of District Attorney, and so much of the fees, commissions and perquisites earned by said office to make up the total compensation to the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000) Dollars; provided, that the amount of such salary, fees and perquisites to be received and retained by him shall never exceed the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000) Dollars in any one year; and, provided, further, that all salaries, fees, commissions and perquisites so earned and received by such office in excess of $6,000 during each and every fiscal year shall be paid into the County Treasury of said county in accordance with the terms and provisions of the maximum fee bill, except as to such portion of such excess as shall be used and expended in the payment of salaries to deputies, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of such office, shall be and is hereby authorized, by and with the written consent of the county judge of said county, to appoint such assistant district attorneys who shall have all the qualifications of the criminal district attorney, as are necessary to perform the duties and affairs of such office, not to exceed six in number, two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed three thousand dollars each per annum; two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-five hundred dollars each per annum; one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum; one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum. Said criminal district attorney shall also be authorized, with the consent of the county judge of said county, to appoint, not to exceed two assistants who shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for criminal district attorneys, who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by said criminal district attorney, and who shall receive as their compensation a salary not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars each per annum. All salaries above mentioned shall be payable monthly, and the said salaries to be paid only out of the fees of office collected by said district attorney, said fees of office to be the same as are now allowed and permitted by law to be paid to the county and district attorneys of this State. The fixing of the amount of salaries to be paid by said criminal district attorney to said assistants shall be fixed and regulated by the commissioners court of said county by an order passed at a regular session of said court and duly spread upon the minutes of said court; provided that the two assistants to the district attorney who are not required to have the qualifications of a criminal district attorney shall, so far as Tarrant County is concerned, be in lieu of the assistants of like character provided for in any statutes of this State.

Sec. 6. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys above provided for when so appointed shall take the oath of office as such, and be authorized to represent the State before the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ in which the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County is authorized by this Act to represent the State, or to represent Tarrant County. Each of said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys shall be authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the Grand Jury, and generally to perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon such Criminal District Attorney when by him so authorized and directed.

Sec. 7. Said Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall be clothed with all the powers and vested with all the rights and privileges conferred upon County Attorneys and District Attorneys of this state, and shall receive no salary or compensation or perquisites or fees of any character save those provided in Section 4 of this Act. All fees or commissions from all sources, including fees and commissions in all criminal and civil cases, and for the prosecution of all tax suits, and from every other source, shall be turned over to the County Treasurer of said County by the said District Attorney, subject only to the payment of the salary of himself and his deputies, as provided in this Act.

Sec. 8. The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, as provided for in this Act shall be elected by the qualified voters of the Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County at the next general election, but it is provided and directed that the present County Attorney of Tarrant County shall continue in office and assume the duties and be known as the "Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County" and shall proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, and appoint Assistants as provided for in this Act, and receive the compensation and salary provided for in this Act for such office until the next general election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Provided this Act shall not be construed as, creating any Court additional to those now existing in Tarrant County.

Art. 1926-42a. Change of Name to Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County

(a) The name of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, created by Chapter 80, General Laws, Acts of the 36th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1919 (Articles 52-64 through 52-87, Vernon's Texas Code of Criminal Procedure),¹ is changed to the Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County.

(b) Wherever the name "Criminal District Court of Tarrant County" appears in the statutes of this state, or in any document, the name refers to the Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County.

Sec. 1. That there is hereby created and established at the City of Fort Worth, a Criminal District Court to be known as the "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County", which Court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ under the constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this law shall take effect, the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all felony and misdemeanor causes, and in all matters and proceedings of which the said Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ has jurisdiction; and either of the Judges of said Criminal District Courts may in their discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other Criminal District Court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made the Clerk of such Criminal District Court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which said transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the Judge of that court shall try and dispose of said causes in the same manner as if such causes were originally instituted in said court; and the said Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall have and exercise original and concurrent jurisdiction over misdemeanor cases as is hereafter provided by this Act.

Sec. 3. From and after the date this Act shall take effect the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall have and exercise original and concurrent jurisdiction of all misdemeanor cases of which the County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 now have concurrent jurisdiction, and of such misdemeanor cases as shall be filed in said County Courts at Law of Tarrant County, Texas, on appeal from Justices or Records Courts and either the Judge of said Criminal District Court No. 2 or the Judge of said County Court at Law, may, upon motion of the District Attorney of Tarrant County, or other officer representing the state in said court, in his discretion, transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other court by an order or orders upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made, the Clerk of the court making such transfer shall certify to the Clerk of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket the Judge of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted in said court.

Sec. 4. Immediately after this Act takes effect the Clerk of the County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2, Tarrant County, Texas, shall transfer all civil cases which may be pending in the County Court at Law No. 1 to the County Court at Law No. 2, and all misdemeanor cases which may be pending in said County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 to the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas; and the office of Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be abolished and the said County Court at Law No. 2 shall hereafter be known as the County Court at Law of Tarrant County, Texas. All process and orders issued by the court transferring any case under the provisions of this Act shall be valid for all purposes in the court to which such case is transferred as if originally issued or made by the court to which such case is transferred.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the said Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant County for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as required of the Judge of a District Court, and shall receive the same salary as is now or may hereafter be paid to the District Judges and to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by District Judges of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County.¹ The Judge of said court may exchange with any District Judge, as provided by law in cases of District Judges, and, in case of disqualification or absence of a Judge, a Special Judge may be selected, elected or appointed as provided by law in cases of District Judges; provided, that the Governor, under the authority now provided by law, upon this Act becoming effective shall appoint a Judge of said court, who shall hold the office until the next general election after the passage of this law, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Either of the Judges of said Criminal District Courts may, in his discretion, in the absence or inability to serve of the Judge of the other Criminal District Court from his court room or from the County of Tarrant, Texas, try and dispose of any cause or causes that may be pending in such Criminal District Court as fully as could such absent Judge were he personally present and presiding. And either of said Judges may receive in open court from the Foreman of the grand jury any bill or bills of indictment in the court to which such bill or bills of indictment may be returnable, entering the presentment of such bill or bills of indictment in the minutes of the proceedings of such court, and may hear and receive from any empaneled petit jury any report, information or verdict, and make and cause to be entered any order or orders in reference thereto, or with reference to the continuation of the deliberation of such petit jury or their final discharge, as fully and completely as such other District Judge could do if personally present and presiding over such court; and make any other order or orders in such courts respecting the causes therein pending or the procedure pertaining thereto as the regular Judge of said Criminal District Court could make if personally present and presiding.

Sec. 6. Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for District Courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seal of the District Courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the Clerk and attested by the seal of said court shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state in like manner as similar certified copies from the courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible.

Sec. 7. The Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney and Clerk of the District Courts of Tarrant County, as heretofore provided by law, shall be the Sheriff, District Attorney and Clerk, respectively, of said Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County under the same rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of Sheriffs, District Attorneys and Clerks of the District Courts of the state; and said Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney and Clerk shall, respectively, receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such offices in the District Courts of the state and to be paid in the same manner.

Sec. 8. The County Commissioners Court shall have authority to authorize the employment of such additional Deputy District Clerks as in their judgment shall be required, and to pay out of the General Fund of the county for their services such Deputy or Deputies to be appointed by the District Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, and to be removable at the will of the Clerk, and to be paid a salary not to exceed the compensation allowed by law to other Deputy District Clerks. The Criminal District Attorney may appoint an Assistant Criminal District Attorney, in addition to those now provided by law, to attend said court. Said Assistant shall have the authority and shall qualify as provided by law for Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, and shall be removable at the will of the Criminal District Attorney, and shall receive a salary not to exceed the maxi-imum salary allowed Assistant Criminal District Attorneys; said salary to be payable as is provided by law.

Sec. 9. Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it; one term beginning the first Monday in January, one term beginning the first Monday in April, one term beginning on the first Monday in July, and one term beginning the first Monday in October, of each year. The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the law governing the practice and proceedings in felony and misdemeanor cases. The District Judges of the Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County¹ may alternately appoint Grand Jury Commissioners and empanel grand juries.

Sec. 10. All laws regulating the selection, summoning and empaneling of grand and petit jurors in the District Courts shall govern and apply in the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, insofar as the same may be applicable. Provisions of the articles commonly known as the "Jury Wheel Law" shall remain in full force and effect insofar as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 10a. The salary for such District Judge shall be the same as the salary provided for other District Judges in this state. There is hereby appropriated to pay the salary of such Judge for the biennium beginning September 1, 1947, the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars for each year of such biennium, which said salary shall be paid in monthly installments out of the General Revenue Fund of the state in the same manner as provided for other District Judges in House Bill No. 244, Acts of the Regular Session, 50th Legislature, 1947.

¹Name changed to Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County. See article 1926-42a.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-44. Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County

A. Creation and Jurisdiction. The Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County is created. Its jurisdiction is identical with that provided by law for the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County¹ and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County and shall be exercised concurrently.

B. Terms of Court. The terms of the Criminal District Court No. 3 begin on the first Monday in April, the first Monday in July, the first Monday in October, and the first Monday in January of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term convenes.

C. Judge. As soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, the Governor shall appoint to the Criminal District Court No. 3 a person qualified to serve as a District Judge under the Constitution and laws of this state.

The judge appointed holds office until the next general election at which his successor is duly elected and until he qualifies; and each elected successor holds office for a term of four years. The judge appointed and his successor is entitled to the same compensation and allowances provided by law for District Judges of Tarrant County, Texas.

D. Appropriation. A sum of $16,000.00 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1966, and a sum of $16,000.00 for fiscal year ending August 31, 1967, is hereby appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for the salary of the Judge of the Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County. The salary shall be paid as provided by law.

E. Court Officials. (a) The Judge of the Criminal District Court No. 3 may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances provided by law for the official district court reporters of Tarrant County, Texas.

(b) The Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney, and District Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall serve as Sheriff, Criminal District Attorney, and Clerk, respectively, of the Criminal District Court No. 3. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Texas, may employ as many additional deputy sheriffs, assistant criminal district attorneys, and deputy clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Tarrant County, Texas.

F. Practice. (a) The rules of practice and procedure applicable to the District Courts of this state govern practice in the Criminal District Court No. 3, and the judge of said court shall have the same power as any other District Judge in Tarrant County.

(b) The judges of all three criminal district courts in Tarrant County may freely transfer causes to and from the dockets of their respective courts. The judges may also freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other and with the judges of the 17th, 48th, 67th, 96th, and 153rd judicial districts and with any other District Court in Tarrant County, so that if a judge is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, another judge may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause involved.

(c) The Criminal District Judges of Tarrant County shall each appoint two officers of each of the said courts to act as Bailiffs for said courts and no less than three (3) Bailiffs shall be assigned regularly to each of the Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County, Texas, with the judge of each court, respectively, appointing two (2) Bailiffs and the Sheriff of such county appointing one (1) Bailiff for each of said courts, and the Sheriff of such county shall appoint such Bailiff for each court in the same manner as is now authorized by law.

The Judges of County Criminal Courts Nos. 1 and 2 of Tarrant County shall each appoint one officer to act as a Bailiff for said courts and no less than two (2) Bailiffs shall be assigned regularly to each of the said County Criminal Courts, with the judge of each of said courts respectively appointing one (1) Bailiff for each of said courts and the Sheriff of Tarrant County shall appoint one (1) Bailiff for each of said courts in the same manner as now authorized by law. The Bailiffs appointed under the provisions hereof by the said courts shall be paid a salary out of the general fund of the county of such courts as may be set by the judges of said courts with the approval of the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County. The Bailiffs so appointed by each of the said courts of Tarrant County shall perform such duties as are required by the judges. The said Bailiffs thus appointed by each of the judges, under the provisions hereof, are subject to removal without cause at the will of the judge in whose court such Bailiff or Bailiffs may be assigned. Bailiffs thus appointed by any such judge or judges, under the provisions hereof shall be duly deputized by the Sheriff of such county upon the request of the Criminal District Judges in the manner now authorized by law, and such Bailiffs shall be in addition to all other deputies now authorized by law.

TRAVIS COUNTY

Art. 1926-51. Criminal District Court of Travis County

Secs. 1 to 4. See Art. 199 (26th and 53rd Dists.).

Sec. 5. The criminal district court of Travis and Williamson Counties, as now created by law shall when this bill takes effect, be known as the Criminal District Court of Travis County, Texas, and shall exercise, have and enforce all the powers and jurisdiction which it now has within and for Travis County and, in addition thereto, shall have and exercise all of the jurisdiction, powers, and functions of a district court under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas; provided, however, that it shall not exercise or have any jurisdiction or powers as such other than is incident to a district court of general jurisdiction, it being the purpose of this Act to take Williamson County out of the district of said criminal district court as now organized and confine its jurisdiction exclusively to Travis County. The said criminal district court, when this bill becomes effective, shall have the right and power to certify and transfer to the Fifty-third Judicial District Court either civil or criminal cases and the Fifty-third Judicial District Court shall have the right to certify and transfer to the criminal district court of Travis County for trial civil cases. Civil cases may be filed or instituted in either the criminal district court of Travis County or in the Fifty-third Judicial District Court in Travis County and both of said courts, or either of them, shall have the right, power and jurisdiction to try either civil or criminal cases within its jurisdiction under the Constitution and General Laws of the State. The Criminal District Court of Travis County shall continue, as now provided by law, to select jury commissioners and impanel grand juries and exercise all of the other powers, functions and jurisdiction now conferred upon it by law, it being the purpose of this Act, not to repeal the Act hereby amended otherwise than is herein specifically done, and this Act is in addition to and cumulative of the Act hereby amended.

Sec. 5a. The Criminal District Court of Travis County shall hold its terms at the following time, to-wit: On the first Monday in February and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in March; on the first Monday in April and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in May; on the first Monday in June and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in August; on the first Monday in October and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in November; on the first Monday in December and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in January.

Sec. 6. The district clerk of Travis County shall be the clerk of the district courts for the Fifty-third Judicial District and of the Criminal District Court of Travis County and shall perform all of the duties of clerk of the said two courts.

Sec. 7. [Not included.]

Sec. 8. At the general election, next preceding the taking effect of this Act, there shall be elected, a district judge for the Criminal District Court of Travis County who shall qualify as soon as the Act takes effect, and his term of office shall be four years, and he shall continue in office until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. Upon the taking effect of this Act, the respective judges of each of the said three district courts shall, each for his respective court, appoint an official court reporter who shall have the qualifications and be subject to the same regulations and receive the same compensation as is now, or may hereafter be, fixed by law, for court reporters in district courts.

Sec. 10. The office of district attorney of Travis and Williamson Counties from and after the first day of January, 1927, shall cease to exist, and there shall be elected a district attorney for the Fifty-third Judicial District at the next general election after the passage of this Act, and at each general election thereafter. He shall represent the State in all criminal cases in all of the district courts of Travis County, and perform such other duties as are or may be provided by law governing district attorneys; and he shall receive, in addition to the five hundred ($500.00) dollars per annum allowed by law to district attorneys, the same per diem and compensation provided by law for district attorneys in judicial districts of this State composed of two or more counties.

Sec. 11. Grand juries for the Criminal District Court of Travis County shall be organized at each of the terms of said court. And grand juries for the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court shall be organized at the January, May and September terms of the said court; provided, however, that the judge of the district court for the Twenty-sixth Judicial District may, when deemed necessary, organize and impanel grand juries at any other term of said court by entering an order therefor.

Sec. 12. [Not included.]

Sec. 13. Upon the taking effect of this Act the district clerk of Williamson County shall transfer all causes pending on the docket of the said Criminal District Court in Williamson County to the docket of the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court; and that all causes so transferred shall be disposed of as though originally filed in the said court to which they were so transferred.

Sec. 14. Either judge of the Fifty-third Judicial District or the Criminal District Court of Travis County may, in his discretion, at any time, transfer any cause pending on the docket of his court to the other District Court in Travis County, and when the said transfer is so made the said cause so transferred shall be disposed of by the court to which the same was so transferred as though originally filed in the said court.

Sec. 15. All writs, processes, bonds, recognizances and orders in civil and criminal cases and matters, issued, executed, entered into, or required prior to the taking effect of this Act, in the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court, and in the Criminal District Court of Travis and Williamson Counties, respectively, and returnable to terms of said courts, as heretofore fixed by law, in the counties of Travis and Williamson, are hereby made returnable to the next ensuing terms of the respective courts to which they are required to be transferred, under the provisions of this Act, and shall be as valid and binding as if no change had been made in said courts, or in the time of holding same; and all juries drawn and selected under existing laws shall be as valid as if no change had been made in said courts or in the time of holding same; and at the last term of the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties held in Williamson and Travis Counties, under existing laws, the judge of said criminal district court shall provide for the drawing and selection of a grand jury for the proper terms of court in Travis and Williamson Counties, to be held after this Act takes effect; and the said petit and grand juries so drawn and selected shall be required to appear and serve and their acts shall be valid as if no change had been made in said courts, or in the times of holding said courts.

Sec. 16. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments or orders rendered or made in the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court in Travis County, or rendered or made in the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties, in either of said counties prior to the taking effect of this Act; but it is provided that after this Act becomes effective as a law the Twenty-sixth Judicial District shall have jurisdiction of all judgments, orders and matters over which the Criminal District Court of Travis and Williamson Counties had or could exercise jurisdiction in Williamson County under the law as it now exists; and after this Act becomes effective as a law the Fifty-third Judicial District Court and the Criminal District Court of Travis County shall have jurisdiction of all judgments, orders and matters over which the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties and the Twenty-sixth Judicial District had or could exercise jurisdiction in Travis County under the law as it now exists.

Sec. 17. It is provided that this Act shall take effect and be in force on and after January first, 1925.

JEFFERSON COUNTY

Art. 1926-61. Criminal District Court of Jefferson County

Sec. 1. That there is hereby created and established at the County Seat of Jefferson County, a criminal District Court to be known as "Criminal District Court of Jefferson County," which court shall have and exercise, from and after the taking effect of this Act, original and exclusive jurisdiction over all criminal cases of the grade of felony in the County of Jefferson of which district courts, under the Constitution and laws of this State, have original and exclusive jurisdiction, and shall have and exercise such concurrent jurisdiction with the county court of Jefferson County at law over misdemeanor cases as is hereinafter provided by this Act.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this Act shall take effect the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County created by this Act, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all misdemeanor cases of which the County Court of Jefferson County at Law may now, or may hereafter have exclusive jurisdiction; and of such misdemeanor cases as shall be filed in said County Court on appeal from Justices' or Recorders' Courts; and either the Judge of said Criminal District Court, or the Judge of said County Court of Jefferson County at Law may upon motion of the County Attorney of Jefferson County, or other officer representing the State in said Courts, in his discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made, the Clerk of the Court making such transfer shall certify to the Clerk of the Court to which such transfer is made, a statement of the cause or causes so transferred, giving the style and number of the same to the Clerk of the Court to which such transfer is made and shall accompany such statement with all the papers in said cause or causes so transferred and upon receipt of such statement and the papers in such cause or causes so transferred, the Clerk of the Court to which such transfer is made shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the Judge of the Court to which such transfer or transfers are made, shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 3. Said Court shall have jurisdiction over all bail, bond and recognizances taken in proceedings had before said court, or that may be returned to said court from other courts, and may enter forfeitures thereof and final judgments and enforce the collection of the same by proper process in the same manner as is provided by law in District Courts.

Sec. 4. The said Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall have a seal similar to the seal of the District Court with the words "Criminal District Court of Jefferson County" engraved thereon, an impression of which seal shall be attached to all writs and other processes, except subpoenas, issuing from said court, and shall be used in the authentication of the official acts of the Clerk of said Court.

Sec. 5. The practice in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the practice in the District Court, and the rules of pleading and evidence in the District Court shall govern in so far as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 6. All laws regulating the selecting, summoning and impaneling of grand and petit jurors in the District Court shall govern and apply in the Criminal District Court in so far as the same may be applicable.

Sec. 7. All rules of criminal procedure governing the District and County Courts shall apply to and govern said Criminal District Court.

Sec. 8. Said Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall try all misdemeanor cases coming before it with six jurors instead of twelve jurors, unless a jury be waived by the defendant.

Sec. 9. Said Court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, one term beginning the first Monday of October, one term beginning the first Monday of January. Each term shall continue until the term ends by operation of law or the business is disposed of. The grand jury shall be impaneled in said Court for each term thereof, unless otherwise directed by the Judge of said Court.

Sec. 10. Whenever the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall be engaged in the trial of any cause when the time for expiration of the terms of said court as fixed by law shall arrive, the Judge presiding shall have the power, and may if he deems it expedient, continue the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial; in such case, the extension of such term shall be shown on the minutes of the Court before they are signed.

Sec. 11. The Sheriff, County Attorney, and the Clerk of the District Court of Jefferson County shall be the sheriff, County Attorney and Clerk, respectively, of said Criminal Court under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys and clerks of the District Courts of this State; and said Sheriff, County Attorney and Clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed for such officers in the District Courts of the State, to be paid in the same manner.

Sec. 12. In all such matters over which said Criminal District Court has jurisdiction, it shall have the same power within said District as is conferred by law upon the District Court, and shall be governed by the same rules in the exercise of said power.

Sec. 13. Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from said Criminal District Court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and to the Courts of Civil Appeals in the same manner and form as from the District Courts in like cases.

Sec. 14. From and after the taking effect of this Act, the District Courts of Jefferson County as now constituted, shall be, and they are hereby deprived and divested of all jurisdiction in all criminal cases, and of all jurisdiction given the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County by this Act, and all criminal cases pending in said District Courts at the time of the taking effect of this Act, and all matters pertaining to criminal cases pending therein over which the Court herein created is given jurisdiction, shall be, by the Clerk of the District Courts transferred to and entered upon the docket of said Criminal District Court, and when so entered upon the docket, the judges of said Criminal District Court shall try and dispose of same in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted therein.

Sec. 15. The Judges of said Criminal District Court of Jefferson County shall be elected by the qualified voters of Jefferson County for a term of four years, and shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the Judge of the District Court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter be paid, to the District Judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by District Judges of this State in criminal cases. Provided, that the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, shall appoint a Judge of said Court who shall hold the office until the next general election after the passage of this Act, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Sec. 16. The Judge of said Criminal District Court may exchange Districts with or hold court for any District Judge, as provided by law in cases of District Judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of a Judge, a special Judge may be selected.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-62. Jurisdiction Increased

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, said Court shall hereafter have and exercise civil jurisdiction in suits, causes, and matters of:

(1) Divorce, as provided in Chapter 4, Title 75, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and any amendments thereof, heretofore or hereafter made thereto;

(2) Dependent and delinquent children, as provided in Title 43, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and any amendments thereof, heretofore or hereafter made thereto;

(3) Adoption, as provided in Title 3, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and any and all amendments heretofore or that may hereafter be made thereto;

(4) Habeas corpus proceedings in civil matters.

Sec. 2. In all matters pertaining to the additional jurisdiction herein conferred upon said Court, all the officers of said Court shall have the same powers, rights, and duties that are now or that may hereafter be conferred upon the same or similar officers in the other District Courts of Jefferson County, Texas, and all fees and costs in such matters shall be the same as now or that may hereafter be provided in the same or similar matters in the other District Courts of Jefferson County, Texas.

Sec. 3. The Judges of the District Courts of Jefferson County and the Judge of the Criminal Court of Jefferson County shall elect one of their number as the presiding Judge of all the District Courts of Jefferson County including the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County; and the presiding Judge of the District Courts of Jefferson County may assign any cases in his Court, or in any of the District Courts in Jefferson County involving or pertaining to the matters set out in Section 1 hereof to any Judge or Court, including the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, or may assign any Judge to try any of said causes in any of said Courts, and the Judge in whose Court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the case to the Court to which it is assigned, and the Judge of the Court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case. When such transfer or transfers are made, the Clerk of such Court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which said transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the Judge shall try and dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 4. The trials and proceedings in said Courts in such matters shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice, and proceedings in civil cases in the District Courts and in conformity with the provisions of Article 2092, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, and all appeals in such civil cases shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals for the Ninth Supreme Judicial District of Texas in the manner now or that may hereafter be provided by law.

Sec. 5. During each term of said court the court may sit at any time in Port Arthur, Texas to try, hear and determine any civil non-jury cases over which it has jurisdiction as to the matters set out in Section 1, 3, and 4 hereof, and may hear and determine motions, arguments and such other non-jury civil matters over which said court may have jurisdiction; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed to deprive the court of jurisdiction to try non-jury civil cases and hear and determine motions, arguments and such other non-jury civil matters at the county seat at Beaumont, Texas.

The District Clerk of Jefferson County or his deputy shall wait upon the said court when sitting at Port Arthur, Texas and shall be permitted to transfer all necessary books, minutes and records to Port Arthur, Texas while the court is in session there, and likewise to transfer all necessary books, minutes, records and papers from Port Arthur, Texas to Beaumont, Texas at the end of each session in Port Arthur, Texas.

The Sheriff of Jefferson County or his deputy shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under order of the court.

The official court reporter of said court shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under the order of the court.

The Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas is hereby authorized to provide suitable quarters for said court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, which said quarters shall be located within the sub-courthouse in Port Arthur, Jefferson County, Texas.

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1926-63. Criminal Judicial District of Jefferson County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established a Criminal Judicial District of Jefferson County, Texas, to be composed of the County of Jefferson, State of Texas alone, and which District is coextensive with the territorial boundaries and limits of Jefferson County, Texas.

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Criminal Judicial District of Jefferson County, Texas, at the regular election in November, 1950, and at the regular November election each four (4) years thereafter, an attorney for said District who shall be styled "Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County" and who shall hold his office for a period of four (4) years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State of other District Attorneys.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County, or his assistants, as herein provided, to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, all other District Courts in Jefferson County, Texas, and of all inferior courts of Jefferson County, except corporation or municipal courts of Jefferson County, held for the transaction of criminal business, and to represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before said Courts and to represent Jefferson County in all matters pending before such Courts or any other Court where Jefferson County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest. The Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County shall have and exercise, in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all powers, duties and privileges within such Criminal Judicial District of Jefferson County, Texas, as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon District and County Attorneys in the various counties and Judicial Districts of this State. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as are now, or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by District or County Attorneys of this State.

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive a salary of not more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) per annum, as shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, to be paid out of the Officer's Salary Fund of Jefferson County if adequate; if inadequate the Commissioners Court shall transfer necessary funds from the General Fund of the County to the Officer's Salary Fund.

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of this office, shall appoint such Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, Investigators, Court Reporters, Stenographers, Secretaries and other employees as he may deem adequate and necessary with the approval of the Commissioners Court of such County. All Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, Investigators, Court Reporters, Stenographers, Secretaries and other employees so appointed shall be paid such salaries, and receive such other compensation and reimbursement as may be set by the Criminal District Attorney and the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County. All of the salaries shall be paid from the Officer's Salary Fund if adequate; if inadequate, the Commissioners Court may pay such salaries out of the General Fund, the Jury Fund, or any other fund available for the purpose.

Sec. 6. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Jefferson County, and Investigators, when so appointed, shall take the Constitutional Oath of Office, and said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys shall exercise any and every power and perform any and every duty conferred and imposed by law upon the Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County under the supervision and direction of the Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County.

Art. 1927. Election and Qualification

A county judge who shall be well-informed in the law of this State shall be elected in each county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, and shall hold his office for two years.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Increase in Term of Office

Const. art. 5 § 15 was amended in November, 1954 to increase the term of office of county judges from two to four years.

Art. 1928. Bond

The county judge shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond payable to the treasurer of his county to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, in a sum of not less than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, the amount to be fixed by the commissioners court, conditioned that he will pay over to the person or office entitled to receive it, all moneys that may come into his hands as county judge, and that he will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, and that he will not vote or give his consent to pay out county funds except for lawful purposes.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1929. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1384, ch. 369, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971

Art. 1930. Special County Judge

When a judge of the county court is disqualified, the parties may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try such case.

Art. 1931. Governor May Appoint Special Judge

Whenever a judge of the county court is disqualified to try a civil case pending in the county court, and the parties shall fail at the first term of the court to agree upon a special judge, the judge shall certify his disqualification to the Governor and the failure to agree upon another to try the same, whereupon the Governor shall appoint some person, learned in the law to try such case.

Art. 1932. Special Judge in Probate Matter

When a county judge is disqualified to act in any probate matter, he shall forthwith certify his disqualification therein to the Governor, whereupon the Governor shall appoint some person to act as special judge in said case, who shall act from term to term until such disqualification ceases to exist. A special judge so appointed shall receive the same compensation as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for regular judges in similar cases, and the Commissioners' Court shall, at the beginning of each fiscal year, include in the budget of the county, a sufficient sum for the payment of the special judge or judges appointed by the Governor to act for the regular county judge.

Art. 1933. Appointment by Wire

Whenever the county judge or the special judge shall be disqualified from trying a case, the parties or their counsel may agree upon an attorney for the trial thereof; and, if they shall fail to agree upon an attorney at or before the time it is called for trial, or if the trial of the case is pending and the county judge should become unable to act, or is absent, and a special judge is selected who is disqualified to proceed with the trial, and the parties then fail to select or agree upon a special judge who is qualified, the county judge or special judge presiding shall certify the fact to the Governor immediately, whereupon the Governor shall appoint a special judge, qualified to try same. Such appointment may be made by telegram or otherwise. The special judge shall proceed to the trial or disposition of such case. Any special judge agreed upon or appointed to try cases shall receive the same pay for his services as is provided by law for county judges.

Art. 1934. Election of Judges

If a county judge fails to appear at the time appointed for holding the court, or should he be absent during the term or unable or unwilling to hold the court, a special county judge may be elected in like manner as is provided for the election of a special district judge. The special county judge so elected shall have all the authority of the county judge while in the trial and disposition of any case pending in said court during the absence, inability, or such refusal of the county judge. Similar elections may be held at any time during the term, to supply the absence, failure or inability of the county judge, or any special judge, to perform the duties of the office. When a special county judge shall have been so elected, the clerk shall enter upon the minutes of the court, a record such as is provided for in like cases in the district court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1934a. Stenographer or Clerk for County Judge in Certain Counties

In any county in this State of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants according to the United States census of nineteen hundred twenty, which county contains a city, of more than forty-three thousand inhabitants according to said census, the County Judge shall be allowed to employ a stenographer or clerk at a salary not exceeding One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars per month, such salary to be paid monthly by the county by warrants drawn on the general county fund. Such stenographer or clerk shall be subject to removal at the will of such County Judge.

Art. 1934a-1. County Judge to Employ Stenographer or Clerk, Salary

Sec. 1. In any county of this State of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, wherein is situated a city having an actual population of 38,489 inhabitants or more, the County Judge shall ascertain the population of any city in his county necessary to be ascertained under this Act by making application to the mayor of any such city for a certificate as to the population of such city. It shall be the duty of any such mayor to ascertain by some reasonable, accurate estimate the population of any such city and his certificate to same under oath shall authorize the County Judge to assume its correctness and act upon the information contained in such certificate in making any appointment of a stenographer or clerk under this Act. The population of the county shall be based on the latest United States Census for the purposes of this Act.

Sec. 2. In any county in this State of less than 100,000 inhabitants wherein is situated a city having a population of 38,489 inhabitants so certified by the mayor of the town, as provided in Section 1, hereof, the County Judge shall be allowed to employ a stenographer or clerk at a salary not exceeding One Hundred and Twenty-five ($125.00) Dollars per month, such salary to be paid monthly by the County by warrants drawn on the general county fund, under orders of the Commissioners Court of such county. A clerk of the county court of each county shall be elected at each general election for a term of two years. Each such clerk shall be authorized to issue all marriage licenses, to administer all oaths and affirmations, and to take affidavits and depositions to be used as provided by law in any of the courts.

Const. art. 5, § 20 was amended in November, 1954 to increase the term of office of county clerks from two to four years.

Art. 1936. Clerk Pro Tem.

Where a county clerk shall be a party to any motion or proceeding in his court, the county judge shall, on his own motion, or on application of any person interested, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding. The person so appointed shall take the oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the State of Texas, in such amount as may be required by the judge, to be approved by him, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. The person so appointed shall perform all the duties required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed.

Art. 1937. Bond, Oath and Insurance

Sec. 1. Each county clerk shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond either with four or more good and sufficient sureties or with a surety company authorized to do business in Texas as a surety, to be approved by the Commissioners Court in an amount equal to not less than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) nor less than twenty per cent (20%) of the maximum amount of fees collected in any year during the previous term of office immediately preceding the term of office for which the bond is to be given, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Said clerk shall also take and subscribe the official oath which shall be endorsed on the bond, and the bond and oath so taken and approved shall be recorded in the county clerk's office, and deposited in the office of the clerk of the District Court. A certified copy of such bond may be put in suit in the name of the county for the use of the party injured.

Sec. 2. Each county clerk shall obtain a surety bond covering his deputy; or a schedule surety bond or a blanket surety bond covering his deputies, if more than one, and all employees of his office. Each deputy and each employee, shall be covered for the same conditions and in the same amount as the county clerk.

Sec. 3. The bond covering the county clerk shall be made payable to the county and the bond or bonds covering the deputies and the employees of the county clerk shall be made payable to the county for the use and benefit of the county clerk.

Sec. 4. Each county clerk shall obtain an errors and omissions insurance policy, covering the county clerk and the deputy or deputies of the county clerk against liabilities incurred through errors and omissions in the performance of the official duties of said county clerk and the deputy or deputies of said county clerk; with the amount of the policy being in an amount equal to a maximum amount of fees collected in any year during the previous term of office immediately preceding the term of office for which said insurance policy is to be obtained, but in no event shall the amount of the policy be for less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

Sec. 5. The premiums for the bonds and the errors and omissions policies required by this Act to be given, or to be obtained, by the county clerk of each county shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of the county out of the general fund of the county as additional compensation for the services of the county clerk and which additional compensation shall be cumulative of and to all other compensation presently or hereafter authorized for said county clerk.

Art. 1941(a). Microfilm Records of County Clerks

Microfilming Authorized

Sec. 1. County clerks and county recorders and clerks of county courts are hereby authorized, in their sole discretion, to adopt and thereafter to use exclusively, for the purpose of recording, preserving and protecting public records in their custody and control, or for the purpose of obtaining economical recording costs for such public records, or for the purpose of reducing and conserving the space required for filing, storing and safekeeping of such public records, or for the purpose of providing efficient retrieval of such public records, or for any similar purpose or purposes, a microphotograph or microfilm process or processes which accurately and permanently copies or reproduces, or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a film, in lieu of any other process, processes, method, or methods authorized or required, for filing, for filing and registering, or for filing and recording all instruments of writing, legal documents, papers or records authorized, permitted or required to be filed or to be filed and registered or to be filed and recorded in the offices of county clerks, or of county recorders, or of clerks of county courts; subject to the conditions and requirements hereinafter set out and specified in this Act.

Official Public Records

Sec. 2. (a) Said instruments of writing, legal documents, papers or records authorized, permitted or required to be filed, or filed and registered, or filed and recorded in the offices of said county clerks and county recorders and clerks of county courts, shall be divided into seven types or classes of records for recording by microphotograph or microfilm process or processes as described hereinbelow. The recording and indexing of said instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record in an Official Public Record which is on microfilm imparts notice in like manner and effect as if recorded in separate books or films and as if recorded in each Official Public Record described hereinbelow. Each of said classes or types of records shall be recorded on a separate series of rolls of microfilm, or on a separate series of discrete groups of separate and individual discrete microfilm images. Each of such rolls of microfilm shall be deemed to be a bound volume or book and each image on each of said rolls shall be properly identified for indexing purposes; and each of such separate series of discrete groups of separate and individual discrete microfilm images shall be deemed to be a bound volume or book and each discrete image of each of said discrete groups shall be properly identified for indexing purposes.

(b) The said seven types or classes of records for recording on microfilm shall be as follows:

(1) Records relating to or affecting real property, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Real Property";

(2) Records relating to or affecting receivables, chattels and personal property, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Personal Property and Chattels";

(3) Records relating or incidental to matters in probate, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Probate Courts";

(4) Records relating or incidental to matters in county civil courts, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of County Civil Courts";

(5) Records relating or incidental to matters in county criminal courts, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of County Criminal Courts";

(6) Records relating or incidental to matters in Commissioners Court, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Commissioners Court"; and

(7) Records relating to or affecting persons, business entities and/or agencies of government, other than property records, both real and personal, court proceedings and court records as described in Subparagraphs (1) thru (6) above, the microfilm records of which shall be known as "Official Public Records of Governmental, Business and Personal Matters."

(c) Releases, transfers, assignments and other actions relating to any instruments of writing, legal document, paper, or record, which has been recorded in an Official Public Record, shall be made by separate instruments of writing, documents, papers or records filed, or filed and registered, or filed and recorded in the same manner provided for herein for said original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record; and no entry, marginal or otherwise, shall be made on any record, or index, or records, or indexes, previously made.

Microfilm Records Deemed Original Records;
Certified Copies

Sec. 3. The microfilm records provided for in this Act shall be deemed to be original records for all purposes and shall be so accepted by all courts and administrative agencies of this State; and transcripts, exemplifications, copies, or reproductions on paper or on film of an image or images of said microfilm records, when issued and certified to by said clerk, shall be deemed to be certified copies of the originals for all purposes and shall be so accepted by all courts and administrative agencies of this State.

Indices

Sec. 4. (a) Each such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record which is recorded in an Official Public Record, as provided in Sections 2(a)(1) thru 2(a)(7) hereinabove, shall be indexed and cross-indexed in the indices to the Public Record in which it is recorded in the full and perfect alphabetical order of the names of the parties as definitely identified therein in each such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record.

(b) In addition to the names of the parties, each entry in an index for the appropriate Official Public Record described in Sections 2(a)(1), 2(a)(2) and 2(a)(7) shall include: an abbreviated description of the nature of such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record as shown therein, including the name of the record in which it would have been recorded under existing laws pertaining to bound volume records and to other records in the Recorder's office; the time and date of filing; the location of the recorded image or images on microfilm by roll number, or by group number, and image number or numbers, or by other suitable data; an abbreviated description of the property, if any, or an abbreviated description of a lien or mortgage, if any, or of other reference, if any, to former recorded data, or such additional information as will properly identify each index entry as pertaining to the particular type of record to which the index applies.

(c) In addition to the names of the parties in actions in county courts, each entry in an index for the appropriate Official Public Record described in Sections 2(a)(3) thru 2(a)(6) shall include the nature of the cause or action, the date the cause or action was opened or taken, the court in which the cause or action lies, the docket number, such other data which would assist in further identifying the cause or action being indexed, and the location of the recorded image or images on the microfilm by roll number, or by group number, and image number or numbers, or by other suitable data.

(d) Such alphabetical indices shall be revised periodically throughout each year so that there will be a full and perfect alphabetical index to each of said Public Records for each full calendar year.

(e) Registers shall be kept up to date of court docket numbers in perfect numerical sequence for each type Court Record, and shall include essentially the same data as is contained in the indices.

(f) Such other Registers of file numbers shall be kept as will be of assistance to the public, and shall include essentially the same data as is contained in the indices.

(g) No marginal entry or entries shall be required to be made by said clerks on indices previously completed.

Standards for Microfilm Records

Sec. 5. Should a Public Records Commission of Texas be authorized by law, all microfilming shall be done in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations, and under the general supervision, of said Commission; otherwise the county clerk shall establish the reasonable rules and regulations and have complete control of the microfilming in the county clerk's office in accordance with the following:

(a) Each original negative roll, and each original negative discrete image, of microfilmed records shall meet all of the requirements for archival quality, for density, for resolution and for definition, of the Public Records Commission of Texas, if there be one, otherwise of the United States Bureau of Standards.

(b) For each roll, or part of a roll, of microfilm to be an official original record, the first image on the roll, or part of a roll, shall be of a Title Page showing the name of the Official Record, the starting identification number, the date, and a certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator; and the last image on the roll, or part of a roll, shall be of a Certificate of Legality and Authenticity certifying that "the microfilming of the images between the Title Page and the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity has been in strict accordance with Article 1941(a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, and that each image is a true, correct, and exact copy of the page or pages of the identified instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record which had been filed for record on the date and at the time stamped on each; that no splice was made in the original negative film between the Title Page and this Certificate"; followed by the name of the Official Record, the starting image identification number of the Title Page and the ending image identification number of the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity, the date microfilmed and the certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator, if the camera operator is a deputy county clerk, or otherwise signed by the county clerk in person.

(c) For each separate and individual image of a discrete group of discrete images of a microfilm record to be an official original record, the first image of the discrete group shall be of a Title Page showing the name of the Official Record, the starting identification number, the date, and a certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator; and the last image of the discrete group shall be of a Certificate of Legality and Authenticity certifying "that the discrete numbered microfilm images between the Title Page and the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity have been made in strict accordance with Article 1941(a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, and that each image is a true, correct, and exact copy of the page or pages of the identified instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record which had been filed for record on the date and at the time stamped on each; that no microfilm image or images were substituted for any original discrete microfilm image or images between the Title Page and this Certificate"; followed by the name of the Official Record, the starting image identification number of the Title Page and the ending image identification number of the Certificate of Legality and Authenticity, the date microfilmed and the certificate of the county clerk signed by the camera operator, if the camera operator is a deputy county clerk, or otherwise signed by the county clerk in person.

(d) At least one additional negative copy of each roll, or part of a roll, or of each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of the original negative microfilm shall be made. The original negative of each roll, or part of a roll, or of each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of microfilm shall be the security record and, in the absence of other statutory provisions, shall be stored in a fireproof and burglarproof safe or locker outside of, and at a distance from, the courthouse. One negative copy of each roll, or part of a roll, or of each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of microfilm shall be used for making positive film prints and for no other purpose. Either negative copies or positive copies of film shall be used on projection devices or readers.

(e) All original negative microfilm now in an office of a county clerk and which negative microfilm is of archival quality, or which is made into negative film of archival quality, and which has thereon the certificates of the county clerk is hereby designated original records for all purposes and shall be so accepted by all courts and administrative agencies of this State.

(f) Each image on each roll, or each discrete image of a group of discrete images, of microfilm shall be of such a size that its image can be projected with clear legibility and without distortion onto a view screen or view glass with such projected image being as large as, or larger than, the original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record from which it was made.

(g) Each image on a microfilm record shall be identified by a number by which it can be located quickly and easily, and which number shall be used in indexing such image.

(h) Cameras used for microfilming shall meet or exceed the then current standards of the United States Bureau of Standards for the documentation of permanent records.

(i) Suitable means shall be furnished for the public to quickly and easily locate and project onto a viewing screen or viewing glass the complete image of a desired record. Such projected image shall be as large as, or larger than, the instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record of which it is an image.

Checking and Proving Microfilm Records; Return of Original Instruments; Disposition of Printed Records

Sec. 6. (a) Each county clerk and county recorder and clerk of county courts, whenever the original paper record is not retained in the files of the county clerk, shall reproduce from microfilm onto paper records each filmed image on each roll of microfilm, or each filmed image of the discrete group of filmed images of such paper records, and shall inspect and check each reproduced paper record against the original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record for accuracy and clarity. Should the paper record which was reproduced from a microfilm image be defective in any respect due to the image or images on the microfilm, the original instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record, from which said defective reproduced paper record was made, shall be remicrofilmed on a subsequent roll of microfilm, or on a subsequent discrete image or images of a subsequent discrete group of individual images, to obtain acceptable images on microfilm.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided by any other statute or statutes, when an instrument of writing, legal document, paper, or record has been microfilmed, reproduced from microfilm onto paper records and said reproduced paper record has been proven satisfactory by inspecting and checking as provided herein, said clerk is hereby authorized to, and shall, return each such instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record, excepting those involved in or relating to court matters and proceedings, to the party or parties who filed it.

(c) Original instruments of writing, original legal documents, original papers and original records, which have been filed relating to court matters and proceedings and which have been recorded on microfilm records, shall be retained in the files of the docket to which they relate until a written order of the court closes such docket, after which all of the records in such docket shall be microfilmed in time sequence to provide all of such records of a docket in an unbroken continuous sequence on one roll of microfilm, or in an unbroken continuous sequence of discrete images in a group of discrete images.

(d) Upon the certificate of a county clerk of a county to the Commissioners Court of the county that the original negative microfilm of a designated microfilm record fully meets the requirements of the Bureau of Standards of the United States Government for archival quality, for density, for resolution and for definition of said original negative microfilm and, further, that microfilm film prints from said negative have been satisfactorily used by the public for five years, or more, said Commissioners Court may authorize by order of said court the disposal of the original paper records from which said microfilm records were made.

Where the jurisdiction of a county court has been taken away, altered or changed by existing laws, the jurisdiction shall remain as established, until otherwise provided by law. The county courts shall have no jurisdiction in eminent domain cases.

Art. 1960-1. County Courts; Exclusive Jurisdiction of Misdemeanors, Except, etc.

The county courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and except cases in which the highest penalty or fine that may be imposed under the law may not exceed two hundred dollars, and except in counties where there is established a criminal district court.

[1925 C.C.P.]

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1960-2. Power to Forfeit Bail Bonds

County courts shall have jurisdiction in the forfeiture and final judgment of all bonds and recognizances taken in criminal cases, of which criminal cases said courts have jurisdiction.

[1925 C.C.P.]

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1960-3. Power to Issue Writs of Habeas Corpus

The county courts, or judges thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in all cases in which the constitution has not conferred the power on the district courts or judges thereof; and, upon the return of such writ, may remand to custody, admit to bail or discharge the person imprisoned or detained, as the law and nature of the case may require.

[1925 C.C.P.]

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 1960-4. Appellate Jurisdiction

The county courts shall have appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases of which justices of the peace and other inferior tribunals have original jurisdiction.

[1925 C.C.P.]

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

CHAPTER FOUR. TERMS OF COURT

Article

- 1961. Terms of Court.
- 1962. Other Terms.
- 1963. Probate Business.
- 1964. Judge Failing to Appear.

Art. 1961. Terms of Court

The County Court shall hold at least four terms for both Civil and Criminal business annually, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court. After having fixed the times and number of the terms of a County Court, they shall not change the same until the expiration of one year. Until, or unless otherwise provided, the term of the County Court shall be held on the first Monday in February, May, August and November, and may remain in session three weeks; provided said court shall be open at all times for the transaction of probate business.

Art. 1962. Other Terms

The commissioners court may, at a regular term thereof, by an order entered upon its records, provide for more terms of the county court for the transaction of civil, criminal and probate business, and fix the times at which each of the four terms required by the Constitution, and the terms exceeding four, if any, shall be held, not to exceed six annually, and may fix the length of each term. When the number of the terms of the county court has been fixed, the court shall not change the order before one year from the date of entry of the original order fixing such terms.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1963. Probate Business

Said court shall dispose of probate business either in term time or vacation under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1964. Judge Failing to Appear

If the county judge fails to appear at the time appointed for holding his court and no election of a special judge is had, the sheriff of the county, or, in his default, any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day for three days. If the judge should not appear on the fourth day and no special judge is elected, the sheriff or constable as the case may be, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 1965. Minutes

The Minutes of the proceedings of each preceding day of the session shall be read in open court on the morning of the succeeding day, except on the last day of the session, on which day they shall be read, and if necessary be corrected, and signed in open Court by the County Judge. Each Special Judge shall sign the Minutes of such proceedings as were had before him; provided the Probate Minutes of said Court shall be approved and signed by the presiding Judge on the first day of each month, except, however, that if the first day of the month falls on a Sunday, then such approval shall be entered on the preceding day.

Art. 1966. Seal of the Court

Each county court shall be provided with a seal, having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center, and the words, "County Court of County, Texas," the impress of which shall be attached to all process, except subpoenas, issued out of such court, and shall be used to authenticate the official acts of the clerk and of the county judge.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1968. When Case is Transferred

Whenever a cause shall be transferred from the county court to the district court, the clerk shall immediately make out a transcript of all the proceedings had in said cause in the county court, and shall transmit the same, duly certified as such, together with a bill of the costs which have accrued in said court, and all the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the district court.

Art. 1969. Jurisdiction Taken Away

Each clerk of the county court where the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county courts has been transferred to the district court, shall make out a certified copy of all judgments remaining unsatisfied, which have been rendered in civil or criminal cases in the county court, and transmit the same to the clerk of the district court of their respective counties.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1969a-1. Exchange of Judges in County Courts at Law and County Criminal Courts in Counties of Over 300,000 Population

In any county in this State having a population in excess of three hundred thousand (300,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, and in which there may be now, or at any future time, one or more county courts at law and one or more county criminal courts, the judges of such county criminal courts and such county courts at law may hold court for or with one another; to the extent necessary to enable the judge of any such county criminal court to hold court for or with the judge of any such county court at law, the same civil jurisdiction is hereby conferred on such county criminal court as now exists or may hereafter be conferred upon the county courts at law under the Constitution and laws of this State.

Art. 1969a-2. Judges of County Courts at Law Authorized to Act for County Judge

Sec. 1. The Judge of any County Court at Law in any county having a population of less than seven hundred thousand (700,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, may act for the County Judge of the county in any juvenile, lunacy, probate and condemnation proceeding or matter and also may perform for the County Judge any and all other ministerial acts required by the laws of this State of the County Judge, during the absence, inability or failure of the County Judge for any reason to perform such duties; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law, while acting for the County Judge, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such proceedings or matters the same as if performed by the County Judge. Provided that the powers thus given the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State shall extend to and include all powers of the County Judge except his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the County, as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court and as the budget officer for the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 2. The absence, inability or failure of the County Judge to perform any of the duties hereinabove set forth shall be certified by the County Judge or the Commissioners Court to the Judge of any such County Court at Law, and when such certification is for the purpose of conferring powers to do some judicial act, such certificate shall be spread upon the minutes of the appropriate Court.

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the additional powers and duties conferred upon the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State no additional compensation or salary shall be paid to them, but the compensation or salary of such Judges of the County Courts at Law shall remain the same as now, or as may be hereafter fixed by law.

Sec. 4. It is not intended by this Act to repeal any law providing for the election and/or appointment of a special County Judge, but this Act shall be cumulative of, and in addition to such law or laws.

Sec. 5. If any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not in any manner affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

Art. 1969a-3. County Judges, Acting for Judge of County Court at Law

Sec. 1. The County Judge of any county in this State having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants or more, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, if such County Judge is a duly licensed attorney at law, may act for the judge of any County Court at Law of such counties in any case, civil or criminal, and also in any matter and proceeding of which such County Court at Law may now or hereafter have jurisdiction, during the absence or inability of the Judge of the County Court at Law to perform such duties.

Sec. 2. The absence or inability of the Judge of the County Court at Law to perform any of the duties set forth in Section 1 shall be certified by the Judge of the County Court at Law or the Commissioners Court to the County Judge and when such certification is for the purpose of conferring powers to perform some judicial act, such certificate shall be spread on the minutes of the appropriate court.

Sec. 3. That any act performed pursuant to this Act by the County Judge for the Judge of the County Court at Law shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such proceeding and matters the same as if performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law.

Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the additional duties herein conferred upon the County Judge, he shall not be entitled to, nor shall he receive, any additional compensation for performing such additional duties and services and his compensation shall remain the same as now or may hereafter be set by law.

Sec. 5. It is not intended by this Act to repeal any law providing for the election or appointment of a special judge of any County Court at Law, and this Act shall be cumulative of and in addition to such law.

Section 6 of Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 520, ch. 156 was a separability clause.

Art. 1970. County Courts at Law

All county courts at law and all similar courts by whatever name known, which now exist, shall be continued in force, together with their organization, jurisdiction, duties, powers, procedure and emoluments that now exist by law, until otherwise changed by law.

Art. 1970a. Amount in Controversy

All county courts at law, county civil courts, and other statutory courts exercising civil jurisdiction corresponding to the constitutional jurisdiction of the county court in civil cases shall have jurisdiction concurrent with that of the district court when the matter in controversy shall exceed in value Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and shall not exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) exclusive of interest.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2814, ch. 915, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.]

ACTS CREATING COUNTY COURTS AT LAW AND SIMILAR COURTS, AND AFFECTING PARTICULAR COUNTY COURTS, AND DECISIONS THEREUNDER

DALLAS COUNTY AT LAW NO. 1

Art. 1970-1. Creation

There is hereby created a court to be held in Dallas county, to be called the "County Court of Dallas County, at Law."¹

¹Name of County Court of Dallas County at Law changed to "County Court of Dallas County, at Law No. 1," see art. 1970-2.

Art. 1970-2. Name of County Court of Dallas County at Law Changed

The County Court of Dallas County at Law shall hereafter be known and designated as the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. The judge and all officers of the County Court of Dallas County at Law shall continue as such respective officers of the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1, and all of the jurisdiction and powers of the County Court of Dallas County at Law and of the judges thereof, shall be preserved and continued as the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. No change in the organization of the County Court of Dallas County at Law is effected hereby except the change of name, nor shall this section in any way effect¹ any case pending in said court. All process issued out of the County Court of Dallas County at Law before this Act takes effect, and all bonds executed and recognizances entered of record in said court shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfil the obligation of such bonds and recognizances in the County Court of Dallas County at Law and the acts of the judge thereof, shall be as valid and binding as before this Act takes effect, and remain unaffected thereby. All pleadings, process, writs, bonds and recognizances in the County Court of Dallas County at Law may be amended at any time under the direction of the judge, to conform to this change in name.

Art. 1970-3. Jurisdiction of Said Court

The County Court of Dallas County at Law¹ shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Dallas County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws of the State, county courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 3 of this Act;² but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the commissioners court, or of the county judge of Dallas county as the presiding officer of such commissioners court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the judge thereof.

² Article 1970-4.

Art. 1970-4. Jurisdiction Retained by County Court of Dallas County

The County Court of Dallas County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said court, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by general law governing county courts throughout the State. The county judge of Dallas county shall be the judge of the County Court of Dallas County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the County Court of Dallas County except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law.¹

² Provision for bond superseded by article 1970-30.

Art. 1970-8. Special Judge Elected or Appointed, How

A special judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law,¹ may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

Art. 1970-9. May Issue Writs

The county court of Dallas county, at law,¹ or the judges thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and super-sedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court, or of any other court or tribunal inferior to said court.

¹ Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-10. Clerk of; Seal; Sheriff to Attend When, etc.

The county clerk of Dallas county shall be the clerk of the county court of Dallas county, at law.¹ The seal of the said court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Dallas County, at Law;" the sheriff of Dallas county shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said court when required by the judge thereof.

¹ Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-11. Appointment of Jury Commissioners; Selection, etc., of Juries

The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court for the appointment of jury commissioners and the selection and service of jurors, shall be exercised by the county court of Dallas county, at law.¹

¹ Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-12. Vacancy in Office of Judge, How Filled

Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law,¹ may be filled by the commissioners' court of Dallas county until the next general election.

¹ Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-13. Fees and Salary of Judge

The judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law,¹ shall collect the same fees as are now established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be by him paid monthly into the county treasury, and he shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars per annum,² payable monthly, to be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners' court.

² Now $5,000. See article 1970-31. See, also, article 1970-30, relative to fees.

Art. 1970-14. Salary of County Judge of Dallas County

The county judge of Dallas county shall hereafter receive from the county treasury, in addition to the fees allowed him by law, such a salary, for the ex-officio duties of his office, as may be allowed him by the commissioners' court, not less than twelve hundred dollars per year.

DALLAS COUNTY AT LAW NO. 2

Art. 1970-15. Creation

There is hereby created a court to be held in Dallas county, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2."

[Acts 1917, ch. 101, § 1.]

Art. 1970-16. Jurisdiction

The County Court of Dallas County at Law, No. 2, shall have exclusive concurrent civil and criminal jurisdiction of all cases, original and appellate, over which by the laws of the State of Texas, the existing County Court of Dallas County at Law,¹ of Dallas county, Texas, would have original and appellate jurisdiction; provided all civil and criminal cases appealed from the several justice's courts of Dallas county shall be by the county clerk, filed in the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, and the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, alternately as said appealed cases are received by said clerk from the several justices of the peace in said county, except in cases wherein the judge of either of said courts, at law, has granted the writ of certiorari, in which case the same shall be docketed in the court so granting said writ, and shall not be transferred from said court.

Art. 1970-17. Courts How Designated; Transfer of Cases

The County Court of Dallas County at Law¹ shall be known and designated as the "A" Court and the County Court of Dallas County at Law, No. 2, shall be known and designated as the "B" Court. The county clerk shall number consecutively all cases filed in said courts, affixing immediately following the number of all cases falling in the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, the letter "A," and immediately following the number of all cases falling in the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, the letter "B," and he shall make up the trial docket of each of said courts with respect to said numbers. The judge of either of said courts shall have the power to transfer to the other court any case pending upon the docket of his court, except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted; provided there shall never be transferred from the docket of one of said courts to that of the other a sufficient number of cases to reduce the number of cases on the docket of the court from which said case was transferred to a less number than the number of cases pending upon the docket of the court to which the same is transferred, without the consent of the judge to which said case is transferred. It shall be the duty of the judge to whose court said case is transferred to receive and try the case, and he shall not have the power to retransfer the same back to the court from which it came except he be disqualified to try the same, in which case it shall be his duty to retransfer the said case.

¹ Name changed to County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1. See article 1970-2.

Art. 1970-18. Jurisdiction of Other County Courts

Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in anywise altering or changing the present jurisdiction provided by law of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law,¹ nor of the County Court of Dallas County, except that the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County at Law, is hereby made concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, as relates to the civil and criminal jurisdiction of said County Court of Dallas County at Law, as prescribed by the laws of the State of Texas.

Art. 1970-19. Power to Issue Writs

The said County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all other writs and process necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction; and also power to punish for contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the State.

Art. 1970-20. Terms of Court

The terms¹ of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the law relating to the county courts. The terms¹ of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, shall be held five times each year on the second Monday in January, March, May, September and November, and each term of said court shall extend over a period of two months; provided, further there shall be a term of said court convened by the judge thereof not later than two weeks after he has qualified as such, as provided by law, and such term when so convened, shall continue until the beginning of the ensuing term, as provided herein.

Art. 1970-21. Judge; Qualifications; Salary

There shall be elected in said county by the duly qualified voters thereof at each general election a judge of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, who shall be a licensed attorney in this State, well informed in the laws of the State, who shall have resided in, and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Dallas county for a period of not less than four years prior to such general election, who shall hold his office for two years and until his successor shall be duly qualified. The judge of said court shall receive a salary of three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars per annum,¹ payable monthly out of the county treasury by the commissioners' court.

¹ Now $5,000. See article 1970-31.

Art. 1970-22. Special Judge

A special judge of the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2, may be appointed or elected as provided for by the laws relating to county courts and the judges thereof.

[Acts 1917, ch. 101, § 8.]

Art. 1970-23. Jurors

The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court for the appointment of jury commissioners and the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court of Dallas County, at Law, No. 2.

Art. 1970-31.1 County Courts of Dallas County at Law Nos. 3 and 4

Sec. 1. There are hereby created two (2) County Courts to be held in Dallas County; Texas, to be known as and designated as "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3" and "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4," and the seal of said Courts shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts except the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3" and "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4."

Sec. 2. The Courts hereby created shall have exclusive, concurrent civil jurisdiction of all cases, original and appellate, over which by the laws of the State of Texas the existing County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 have original and appellate jurisdiction; in addition thereto, it is hereby specifically provided that the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3, and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall have concurrent and coextensive and equal jurisdiction over all civil, administrative and ministerial acts and over the filing and disposition of all proceedings in eminent domain matters; provided that the Judge of any County Court at Law of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of any other County Court at Law of Dallas County when such Judge is unavailable for the performing of any of the administrative acts in connection with eminent domain proceedings, but the performing of the same shall not transfer the cause or proceedings from the Court for which the act was performed; provided all civil cases appealed from the several Justice Courts of Dallas County shall be by the County Clerk filed in the several County Courts of Dallas County at Law consecutively as said appealed cases are received by said Clerk from the several Justices of the Peace in said County, except in cases wherein the Judge of either of said County Courts at Law has granted a writ of certiorari, in which case the same shall be docketed in the Court so granting said writ and shall not be transferred from said Court.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 shall be known and designated as the "C" Court and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall be known and designated as the "D" Court. The County Clerk shall number consecutively all cases filed in the County Courts of Dallas County at Law affixing immediately following the number of all cases the letter A, B, C or D, according to which County Court at Law of Dallas County said case is assigned, and each case so filed shall be filed in rotation in each of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law with the letter designation being used to denote the Court in which the case is filed. The Judge of either of said County Courts of Dallas County at Law shall have the power to transfer to any of the other of said Courts any case pending upon the docket of said Court except where a writ of certiorari has been granted; provided that such cases so transferred shall be for the purpose of equalizing the dockets of each of said County Courts of Dallas County at Law and each of the Judges of said Courts shall together at least once a year, transfer cases from one to the other in order to equalize said dockets.

Sec. 4. All of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law and the respective Judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs and processes necessary to the enforcement of their jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the State.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 shall be held six (6) times each year on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of. The terms of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall be held six (6) times each year on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October and December, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 and the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4, shall be a licensed attorney in this State and informed in the laws of the State, who shall have resided in and actively engaged in the practice of law in Dallas County for a period of not less than four (4) years prior to the general election, and such Judge shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall be duly qualified. The Judges of said Courts shall receive the same salary now provided by law or hereafter provided by law to be paid to the Judges of other County Courts of Dallas County at Law. As soon as possible after the effective date of this Act, the Commissioners Court of Dallas County shall appoint a Judge to each of said Courts to function on the same date, who shall hold office until January 1st following the next general election or until his successor shall be duly qualified. The successor shall hold office for a period of four (4) years.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the Judges of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 to immediately transfer from their dockets one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the civil cases pending upon said dockets to the Courts hereby created, which shall be done by beginning with the oldest case pending upon the docket of said Courts and transferring every second case without reference to whether any particular case be pending upon the jury or nonjury docket of said Courts.

Sec. 8. In case of disqualification, an overcrowded docket, sickness or absence from the County of any of the Judges of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law Number 1, Number 2, Number 3 or Number 4, any other Judge of said Courts may exchange benches with said Judge, and when so exchanging benches with any of the other Judges of the County Courts at Law shall have all of the power and jurisdiction of the Court and Judge for whom he is sitting while so exchanging benches, and may sign orders, judgments and decrees or other process of any kind as "Judge Presiding" when acting for such disqualified or absent Judge upon request, or in an emergency without request, or for any other good cause shown. This shall be in addition to the provisions hereinabove made for performing administrative matters for each other.

Sec. 9. Except as herein otherwise provided, all laws applicable to County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 shall be applicable to County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4.

Art. 1970-31a. Probate Court of Dallas County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a County Court to be held in and for Dallas County, to be called the Probate Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 2. The Probate Court of Dallas County shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Dallas County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court of Dallas County there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court, under the direction of the County Judge and by order entered on the Minutes of the County Court of Dallas County, such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the County Court of Dallas County as shall be, as near as may be, one half in number of the total of all of the same then pending, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said County Court of Dallas County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court of Dallas County as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day, or thereafter filed, with the County Clerk of Dallas County, irrespective of the Courts or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk alternately in said respective Courts in the order in which the same are deposited with him for filing, beginning first with the County Court of Dallas County. The County Judge of Dallas County, in his discretion, may, by an order entered upon the Minutes of the County Court of Dallas County, on or after the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court of Dallas County, transfer to said Probate Court any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending in the County Court of Dallas County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Dallas County shall retain, as heretofore, the powers and jurisdiction of said Court existing at the time of the passage of this Act, and shall exercise its powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those provided in Section 3 of this Act to be transferred to and filed in the Probate Court of Dallas County. The County Judge of Dallas County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County, and all ex-officio duties of the County Judge of Dallas County, as they now exist, shall be exercised by the County Judge of Dallas County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act expressly be committed to the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1, or the County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2.

Sec. 5. The practice and procedure in the Probate Court of Dallas County shall be the same as that provided by law generally for the County Courts of this State; and all Statutes and laws of the State, as well as all rules of court relating to proceedings in the County Courts of this State, or to the review thereof or appeals therefrom, shall, as to all matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, apply equally thereto.

Sec. 6. The Probate Court of Dallas County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing County Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 7. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court of Dallas County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term; it shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in said County by the qualified voters thereof, at the General Election, for a term of two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified, a Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County as soon as may be after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to County Judges.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County by the appointment of a Judge of said Court, who shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, the County Judge of Dallas County shall sit and act as Judge of said Court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said Court, any matter or proceeding there pending, and may enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Court might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the County Judge of Dallas County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County may be appointed or elected, as provided by the general laws relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Dallas County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court of Dallas County. The seal of such Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court of Dallas County, Texas." The Sheriff of Dallas County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County shall have an administrative assistant to aid him in the performance of his duties. The salary of said administrative assistant shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to County Judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected, and from and after the date of his qualification as Judge of said Court he shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Dallas County, of not less than Six Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($6,500) nor more than Eight Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($8,250), payable monthly, to be paid out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws and parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 16. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word contained in this Act shall be held unconstitutional by the Courts of this State, the invalidity of such portion of the Act shall not be construed to affect any other part of the Act.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 293, ch. 174; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1667, ch. 530, § 1, eff. June 10, 1969.]

Art. 1970-31b. Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a County Court to be held in and for Dallas County to be called the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County.

Sec. 2. Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall have the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court within the limits of Dallas County concurrent with the jurisdiction of the Probate Court of Dallas County and of the County Court of Dallas County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and administrative, settle accounts of executor, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court under the jurisdiction of the County Judge and of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Dallas County and of the Probate Court of Dallas County such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the Probate Court of Dallas County and in the County Court of Dallas County as will equalize the number of such cases pending on the dockets of each of said three (3) Courts, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said Probate Court of Dallas County and said County Court of Dallas County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Dallas County irrespective of the Courts or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk in rotation in said respective Courts in the order in which the same are deposited with him for filing.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Dallas County shall retain as heretofore the powers and jurisdiction of said Court existing at the time of the passage of this Act and shall exercise its own powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those provided hereinabove to be transferred to and filed in the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. The County Judge of Dallas County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Dallas County as they now exist shall be exercised by the County Judge of Dallas County except insofar as the same shall have been committed heretofore to the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, or as the same shall by this Act expressly be committed to the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County, the Probate Court of Dallas County, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 or the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2, or any other County Court of Dallas County at Law heretofore or hereafter created.

Sec. 5. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County in each year and the first term shall be known as the January-June term, which shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July, and the second of such terms shall be known as the July-December term and shall begin on the first Monday in July and continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in said County by the qualified voters thereof at the general election for a term of two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified, a Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County who shall be well-informed on the laws of the State and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County as soon as may be possible after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County by appointment of a Judge of said Court who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, the County Judge of Dallas County shall sit and act as Judge of said Court and may hear and determine either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said Court any matter or proceeding there pending and may enter such orders in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County on any matters or proceedings pending in either of said Courts. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the County Judge of Dallas County, the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Judge of Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, a special Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may be appointed or elected as provided by the General Laws relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof.

Sec. 11. The County Clerk of Dallas County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. The seal of such Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, Texas." The Sheriff of Dallas County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall have an administrative assistant to aid him in the performance of his duties. The salary of said administrative assistant shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to County Judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected and from after the date of his qualification as Judge of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County he shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Dallas County which shall be the same salary as that paid to the Judge of the probate Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 13. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. All other laws applicable to the Probate Court of Dallas County shall be applicable to Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. As to all other laws and parts of laws this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 13a. Regardless of any provisions of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until January 1, 1965.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 723, ch. 265; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1667, ch. 530, § 2, eff. June 10, 1969.]

TARRANT COUNTY AT LAW NO. 2

From and after the passage and the taking effect of this Act the said County Court at Law of Tarrant County shall be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 1" of Tarrant County, Texas, and the said County Court of Tarrant County for Civil Cases shall be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 2" of Tarrant County, Texas.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 206, p. 680, § 5.]

Art. 1970-62.1. Transfer of Eminent Domain Jurisdiction from County to District Courts

Neither the County Court of Tarrant County, the County Court at Law of Tarrant County nor the judges of the courts have any jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 50, ch. 27, § 1, eff. March 18, 1971.]

Section 2 of the 1971 act appears as a note under art. 1906. Sections 3 to 6 thereof provided:

"Sec. 3. All proceedings in matters of eminent domain pending in the County Court or County Court at Law of Tarrant County when this Act takes effect are transferred to the district courts, and all writs and process relating to those matters issued by or out of the County Court or County Court at Law of Tarrant County are returnable to the district courts of Tarrant County.

"Sec. 4. After this Act takes effect, should a judgment be entered by the court of civil appeals or the supreme court remanding for a new trial or for further proceedings any cause in matters of eminent domain that was appealed from the County Court or County Court at Law of Tarrant County, the cause shall be remanded to the district courts, and all jurisdiction in respect to that cause vests in the district courts.

"Sec. 5. Within 10 days after this Act takes effect the county clerk of Tarrant County shall file with the district clerk of Tarrant County all original papers in causes transferred by this Act to the district court, with all judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the county court in those causes, and the district clerk shall immediately docket all such causes on the dockets of the district courts in a manner to equalize case loads, and all such causes shall stand on the docket of the district court in the same order in which they appeared on the docket of the county court, and each such case shall take its place on the docket of the district court in the same manner in the same priority as other civil cases are assigned to such docket, with the position on such docket to be determined in the same manner as though such cases had been committed to the district court in the first instance. It shall not be necessary for the district clerk to refile any papers theretofore filed by the county court, but papers in a cause bearing the file mark of the county clerk prior to the time of the transfer shall be held to have been filed in the cause as of the date filed without being refiled by the district clerk. The county clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost, and against all cost deposits, if any, the county clerk shall charge accrued fees due him and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the district court as a deposit in the particular cause for which it was deposited. Credit shall be given litigants for all jury fees paid in the county court.

"Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or manner affect final judgments heretofore rendered by the County Court or County Court at Law of Tarrant County pertaining to matters of eminent domain, and the county court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce those final judgments and the county clerk of Tarrant County shall issue all writs of execution and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder and his act in so doing shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes the same as if no transfer of jurisdiction had been made by this Act."

TARRANT COUNTY CRIMINAL COURTS

Art. 1970-62a. County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County

The county judge of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be judge of the County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of said County Court except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, and except such as have heretofore been conferred upon the judge of the County Court at Law of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 5. The County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and grant injunctions for the enforcement of the penal laws in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or any court or tribunal inferior to said Court, and shall also have power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are now or may be provided by the General Law governing County Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 6. The terms of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, and the practice therein and appeals therefrom shall be as prescribed by law relating to the County Courts. The terms of said County Criminal Court No. 3 shall be held not less than four (4) times each year, and the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall fix the time at which said Court shall hold its terms until the same may be changed according to law.

Sec. 7. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act, there shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, in accordance with the law, a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 hereby created, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State and who shall hold his office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall have duly qualified. At the next General Election there shall be elected a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 who shall hold office for the unexpired term. The judges of said Court elected at the General Election in 1966 and thereafter shall hold office for four (4) years and until their successors shall have duly qualified; provided that no person shall be eligible for judge of said Court unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this State or a judge of a Court in said State for four (4) years next preceding his appointment or election, and who shall have resided in the County of Tarrant for two (2) years next preceding his appointment or election.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 9. A special judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be appointed or elected as provided by the laws relating to County Courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 10. The County Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas. The seal of said Court shall be the same as provided for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "The County Criminal Court No. 3, Tarrant County, Texas." The sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, shall in person or by deputy, attend said Court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall collect the same fee provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the County Treasury, and the judge of said Court shall receive a salary of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) per annum, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court; such judge shall not engage in the practice of law while in office.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be removed from office in the same manner, and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the Court, jury and parties, the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court; the provisions of the General Laws of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for the District Courts shall, and is hereby made to, apply in all its provisions insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and take the same oath as are in said laws provided for the stenographers of District Courts of this State, and he shall also be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the District Courts of this State; provided that the official shorthand reporter of said Court shall not be required to take testimony in cases where neither party litigant nor the judge demands it, but where the testimony is taken by said reporter, a fee of Three Dollars ($3) shall be taken by the clerk as costs in the case, the said Three Dollars ($3), when collected, shall be paid into the County Treasury of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 14. As soon as may be after this Act takes effect, the clerk of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, may transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, hereby created, any of the criminal cases then pending in the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, and thereafter the judge of either of said Courts may, in his discretion, transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his Court to the other Courts by an order or orders entered in the minutes of his Court, and the judge of the Court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 15. The judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, and the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may, in their discretion, exchange benches and sit and hear cases in the Court in which the case or proceeding is then pending, and try or otherwise dispose of same.

Sec. 16. The County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall hereafter be referred to and known as the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, and the County Criminal Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, respectively and all references in this Act or existing laws to the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County or the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County shall, hereafter, refer to the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County and County Criminal Court No. 2 of Tarrant County respectively.

Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws and parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 18. If any Section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word contained in this Act shall be held unconstitutional by the Courts of this State, the invalidity of such portion of the Act shall not be construed to affect any other part of the Act.

Art. 1970-75a. Practice and Administration of Courts

Rotational Filing Required

Sec. 1. (a) On and after the effective date of this Act, the County Clerk of Bexar County shall, with respect to cases addressed to one of the county courts at law of Bexar County and regardless of the court or judge to which they are addressed, file the cases alternately in the county courts at law of Bexar County, starting with the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, and continuing with the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, and so forth.

(b) The rotational filing requirement of Subsection (a) of this Section does not apply to appeals in criminal cases.

(c) The county clerk's failure to comply with Subsection (a) of this Section does not affect any action taken with regard to a case filed with one of the county courts at law of Bexar County.

Presiding Judge

Sec. 2. (a) The judges of the county courts at law of Bexar County shall, in January and July of each year, select by majority vote one of their number as presiding judge. The selection may be cancelled, and another judge selected, at any time, by majority vote. Each judge shall enter on the minutes of his court an order reciting each selection of a presiding judge.

(b) The presiding judge of the county courts at law of Bexar County may assign any case pending in one of the county courts at law to another county court at law and such case shall be transferred and tried in accordance with the assignment. The presiding judge may also assign one of the judges of the county courts at law to another court, or to try a particular case pending in another court, and the judge assigned shall sit or try the case as requested.

Rules of Practice

Sec. 3. The judges may also adopt rules, not inconsistent with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and the code of Criminal Procedure for practice in the county courts at law of Bexar County. A rule may only be adopted by majority vote of the judges and upon adoption shall be entered verbatim on the minutes of each of the county courts at law. The County Clerk of Bexar County shall supply copies of the adopted rules to every interested person.

Sec. 1. The Probate Court of Harris County, Texas, which was created by Chapter 520, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, shall hereafter be called and known as the "Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Harris County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Harris County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. All such matters hereafter filed with the County Clerk of Harris County, irrespective of the court or judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said clerk alternately in said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, with every fifth case bearing the last number "5" or "0" being filed by said clerk in the County Court of Harris County, and continuing alternatively thereafter, except every fifth case so deposited shall be filed with the County Court of Harris County, and further, said clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said courts. Each of the judges of the County Court and the said Probate Courts Nos. 1 and 2 of Harris County may, at any time, with the consent of the judge of the County Court or of the Probate Court to which transfer is to be made, by an order entered upon the minutes of the said County Court or of such Probate Court, transfer to said County Court or Probate Court any such matter or proceeding pending in such county or Probate Court of Harris County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returnable to and filed in the County Court or Probate Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the County Court or Probate Court to which such transfer may be made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Harris County shall retain, as heretofore, the powers and jurisdiction of said court existing at the time of the passage of this Act, and shall exercise its powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those transferred to or filed in the said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County or Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County. The County Judge of Harris County shall be the judge of the County Court of Harris County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Harris County, as they now exist, shall be exercised by the County Judge of Harris County, except in so far as the same are expressly committed by statute to the judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County or to the judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County or the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County.

Sec. 5. The practice and procedure in the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall be the same as that provided by law generally for the county courts of this state; and all statutes and laws of the state, as well as all rules of court relating to proceedings in the county courts of this state, or to the review thereof or appeals therefrom, shall, as to all matters within the jurisdiction of said court, apply equally thereto.

Sec. 6. The Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing County Courts throughout the state.

Sec. 7. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term, shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

Sec. 8. The Judge of the Probate Court of Harris County shall continue as judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County until December 31, 1970, and until his successor is duly qualified. There shall be elected in said county by the duly qualified voters thereof at the general election of 1970, and at the general election every four (4) years thereafter, a judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall be duly qualified. The judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall be well informed in the laws of the state and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election.

Sec. 9. The judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall execute a bond in the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), payable as required by law, and take the oath relating to county judges as provided by law.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County by the appointment of a judge of said court, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, the County Judge of Harris County or the judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall sit and act as judge of said court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said court, any matter or proceeding there pending, and enter any order in such matters or proceedings as the judge of said court may enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the judge of the said Probate Court No. 1 and the judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County and the County Judge of Harris County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County may be appointed or elected as provided by the general laws relating to county courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 13. The judge of the County Court of Harris County is designated as the presiding judge of the Courts of Probate of Harris County. It shall be the duty of the county judge to equalize as nearly as possible the dockets of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County so that each of said courts will have two-fifths of the probate cases pending in Harris County. It shall be the duty of the said presiding judge of the courts of Probate of Harris County, to call a conference two times a year for the purpose of consultation and counsel as to the state of business in probate matters in Harris County, Texas, and to arrange for the disposition of the business pending on the probate docket of each of the courts with probate jurisdiction in Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 14. The county clerk of Harris County shall be the clerk of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed. The sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 15. The judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to county judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said court, all of which shall be paid to him into the County Treasury as collected, and he shall receive an annual salary in the amount, and to be fixed, as is now or hereafter established by law for probate judges.

Sec. 16. The primary purpose of this Act is to change the name of the Probate Court of Harris County, Texas, to Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and none of the provisions hereof shall be construed as creating a new court. All processes extant in the Probate Court of Harris County on the effective date of this Act shall be returnable to and filed in the said court, the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, and all of such processes so returned to and filed in the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County shall be valid and binding."

Art. 1970-110a.2 Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County

Sec. 1. [Classified as art. 1970-110a.1, now repealed].

Sec. 2. There is hereby created a County Court to be held in and for Harris County, to be called the "Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas."

Sec. 3. Said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Harris County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, in such matters and proceedings, and also concurrent with and in all things equal to that heretofore conferred upon the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 4. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court, under the direction of the County Judge and by order entered on the Minutes of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the County Court of Harris County, Texas, as shall be, as near as may be, four-fifths in number of the total of all of same then pending, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said County Court of Harris County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day, or thereafter filed, with the County Clerk of Harris County, irrespective of the Courts or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk alternately in said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County with every fifth case bearing the last number 5 or 0 being filed by said Clerk in the County Court of Harris County, in the order in which the same are deposited with said Clerk for filing, beginning first with the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, filing the next with the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, and continuing alternately thereafter except every fifth case so deposited shall be filed with the County Court of Harris County, and further, said Clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said Courts. The County Judge of Harris County, in his discretion, may, by an order entered upon the Minutes of the County Court of Harris County, on or after the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, transfer to said Probate Court No. 2 any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending in the County Court of Harris County and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made. Each of the Judges of the County Court and said Probate Courts No. 1 and 2 may, at any time, with the consent of the Judge of the County Court or the Judge of the Probate Court to which transfer is to be made by an order entered upon the Minutes of the County Court or of such Probate Court of Harris County, transfer to said County Court or other Probate Court any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending in such County or Probate Court of Harris County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returnable to and filed in the County Court or the Probate Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the County Court or the Probate Court to which such transfer may be made.

Sec. 5. The County Court of Harris County shall retain, as heretofore, the powers and jurisdiction of said Court existing at the time of the passage of this Act, and shall exercise its powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature, except those matters and proceedings provided in Section 4 of this Act to be transferred to and filed in said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County and those matters and proceedings heretofore transferred to and filed either originally or subsequently, in the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 520, Acts of 1949, 51st Legislature, Regular Session. The County Judge of Harris County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Harris County, and all ex-officio duties of the County Judge of Harris County as they now exist shall be exercised by the County Judge of Harris County. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as in any wise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, or of the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, or the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, or 4 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The practice and procedure in the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall be the same as that provided by law generally for the county courts of this State; and all statutes and laws of the State as well as all Rules of Court relating to proceedings therefrom, shall, as to all matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, apply equally thereto.

Sec. 7. The Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provision as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the State.

Sec. 8. The initial term of the Probate Court No. 2 shall begin on the first Monday next after the first day of the first calendar month following the effective date of this Act and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in January, of the following year. Thereafter there shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term, and shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July, and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

Sec. 9. The term of office of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall be for a period of four (4) years; the first full term of office of said Judge is to commence on January 1, 1969. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Harris County as soon as practicable after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the General Election next before the first full term of office of said Judge, as herein provided and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. The Judge of said Court shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall execute a bond in the amount of $100,000.00; take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to County Judges.

Sec. 11. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County by the appointment of a Judge of said Court, who shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, the County Judge of Harris County or the Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, shall sit and act as Judge of said Court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said Court, any matter or proceeding there pending, and enter any order in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Court may enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 13. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County or the Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and the County Judge of Harris County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County or of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County as the need may demand, may be appointed or elected, as provided by the General Laws relating to county courts and to the Judge thereof.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Court of Harris County is designated as the Presiding Judge of the Courts of Probate of Harris County. It shall be the duty of the County Judge upon the creation of the Probate Court No. 2 to equalize as nearly as possible the dockets of the Probate Court No. 1 and the Probate Court No. 2 so that each Court will have two-fifths of the probate cases pending in Harris County. It shall be the duty of the presiding Judge of the Courts of Probate of Harris County, to call a conference two times a year for the purpose of consultation and counsel as to the state of business in probate matters in Harris County, Texas, and to arrange for the disposition of the business pending on the probate docket of each of the courts with probate jurisdiction in Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Harris County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County. The seal of the Court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas.", and said seal shall be judicially noticed. The Sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 16. The Judge of the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to County Judges or to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected. From and after the date he becomes duly qualified thereafter, he shall receive an annual salary equal to the salary of the Judge of the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and payable in like manner.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1835, ch. 712, § 1 was codified as article 1970-110a.1; sections 17 and 18 of the act provided:

"Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws or parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

"Sec. 18. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not thereby be rendered invalid or unconstitutional, nor be affected thereby."

Art. 1970-110b. County Criminal Court at Law No. 2

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Criminal Court at Law No. 2."

Hereafter wherever the name of County Court at Law No. 3 appears in this Act creating said Court it shall be read and understood as meaning and referring to "County Criminal Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Harris County, Texas, and the judges of said court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided that said court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which is now vested exclusively in the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 or in the judge thereof.

Sec. 3. At each General Election, there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) years, and who shall hold his office for two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court in equal monthly installments; but such judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case, as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas. Said Court or the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 4. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the Law relating to "official court reporters" shall and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of Harris County is paid.

Sec. 5. The county clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, in civil matters and the district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, in criminal matters. The county clerk shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law

No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, in civil matters and causes. The district clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said court when required by the judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of said court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

Sec. 7. The seal of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 8. A special judge of said court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The terms of the court hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February and April of each year. The session of said court shall be held in such place as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

Sec. 10. When this Act becomes effective all civil actions or proceedings having numbers ending with 3, 6 and 9 pending on the docket of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, shall be transferred to and docketed in the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, by the county clerk and jurisdiction of such civil actions and proceedings so transferred is hereby conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas. All criminal cases of even numbers pending on the docket of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, on the effective date of this Act shall be transferred to and docketed in the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, by the district clerk and jurisdiction of such causes so transferred is hereby conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, may exchange benches with the judges of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, in the same manner that the judges of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, are authorized to exchange benches under the provisions of Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 144, Chapter 16 and Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 143, Chapter 24, Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, Regular Session, 1929.

Sec. 12. The practice in said County Court at Law No. 3, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now, or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts.

Sec. 13. All process issued out of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, prior to the time when the clerks thereof shall transfer cases from the docket of said courts, as provided in Section 10 of this Act, in cases transferred as therein provided, shall be returned to and filed in the court hereby created, and shall be equally as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such process had been issued out of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas. Likewise, in cases transferred to any one of the County Courts at Law by order of the judge of one of said courts as provided in Section 2 of this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer may be made.

Sec. 14. If any part of this Act is held unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction such holding of unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this Act.

Sec. 15. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

Art. 1970-110c. County Criminal Court at Law No. 3

The County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases, from justice courts and corporation courts within Harris County, and the judges of said court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided that said court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which is now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the judge thereof.

Sec. 2A. Repealed by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 1073, ch. 481, § 6.

Sec. 3. The Judge of the said County Court at Law No. 4 shall be elected at the General Election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court in equal monthly installments; but such judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case, as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas. Said Court or the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 4. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the Law relating to "Official Court Reporters" shall and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of Harris County is paid.

Sec. 5. The County Clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, in civil matters. The county clerk shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, in civil matters and causes.

Sec. 5A. The District Clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, in criminal matters. The District Clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said court when required by the judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of said court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

Sec. 7. The seal of the County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 8. A special judge of said court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The terms of the court hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February and April of each year. The session of said court shall be held in such place as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

Sec. 10. When this Act becomes effective, the District Clerk of Harris County, Texas, being the clerk of this court for Criminal matters, in order to provide a criminal docket for this court, shall file the first one hundred (100) criminal cases to be filed, in the said County Court at Law No. 4, and beginning with the 101st case to be filed, such case shall be filed in County Court at Law No. 2, and the 102nd case to be filed shall be filed in County Court at Law No. 3 and the 103rd case to be filed shall be filed in County Court at Law No. 4, and so on in rotation so that thereafter of every three (3) cases filed, each of the Courts, County Court at Law No. 2, County Court at Law No. 3 and County Court at Law No. 4 shall each receive one (1) case: further, immediately on the effective date of this Act all criminal cases pending on the docket of County Court at Law No. 2 with a digit ending in the number one and all cases pending on the docket of County Court at Law No. 3 with a digit ending in the number two shall be transferred to and docketed in the County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, by the district clerk and jurisdiction of such cases so transferred is hereby conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Harris County, and the Judges of said Court shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided that said Court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the Judge thereof.

Sec. 3. The Judge of the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 shall be elected at the General Election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court in equal monthly installments; but such Judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case, as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas. Said Court or the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a Judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the Judge of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 4. The Judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the Law relating to "Official Court Reporters" shall and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of Harris County is paid.

Sec. 5. The District Clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas. The District Clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said Court when required by the Judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of said Court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

Sec. 7. The seal of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seal shall contain the words "County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 8. A special Judge of said Court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The terms of the Court hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February, and April of each year. The sessions of said Court shall be held in such place as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

Sec. 10. When this Act becomes effective, the District Clerk of Harris County, Texas, in order to provide a docket for this Court, shall file the first one hundred (100) cases to be filed, in the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4, and beginning with the 101st case to be filed, such case shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 1, and the 102nd case to be filed shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 2, and the 103rd case to be filed shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 and the 104th case to be filed shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 4, and so on in rotation so thereafter of every four (4) cases filed, each of the Courts, County Criminal Court at Law No. 1, County Criminal Court at Law No. 2, County Criminal Court at Law No. 3, and County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 shall each receive one (1) case: further, immediately on the effective date of this Act every case having numbers ending with 0 and every case having numbers ending with 5 pending on the dockets of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County shall be at once transferred to and docketed in the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, by the District Clerk and jurisdiction of such cases so transferred is hereby conferred upon the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, may exchange benches with the Judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, in the same manner that the Judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, are authorized to exchange benches under the provisions of Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 144, Chapter 16¹ and Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 143, Chapter 24,² Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, Regular Session, 1929. The Judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, may transfer criminal causes between said courts by entry of an order on the docket of the Court from which the cause is transferred, provided that no cause shall be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transferred.

Sec. 12. The practice in said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts.

Sec. 13. All process issued out of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, prior to the time when the clerks thereof shall transfer cases from the dockets of said Courts, as provided in Section 10 of this Act, in cases transferred as therein provided, shall be returned to and filed in the Court hereby created, and shall be equally as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such process had been issued out of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas. Likewise, in cases transferred to any one of the County Criminal Courts at Law by order of the Judge of one of said Courts as provided in Section 11 of this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made.

(d) The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporters herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporters shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the district courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Harris County is paid.

(e) The district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County, Texas, of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County, Texas, and of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County, Texas. The district clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 of Harris County, Texas.

(f) The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said courts when required by the judges thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this state executing process issued out of said courts shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

(g) The seals of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seals shall contain the words "County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County, Texas," and the words "County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County, Texas," and the words "County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County, Texas," respectively, and said seals shall be judicially noticed.

(h) A special judge of each of said courts may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

(i) The terms of the courts hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February, and April of each year. The sessions of said courts shall be held in such places as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

(j) When this Act becomes effective, the district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall alternately file the first 300 cases to be filed in the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 5, and the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 6, and the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 7, with 100 cases being filed in each of the three said courts. Thereafter, cases shall be filed in rotation so thereafter of every seven cases filed, each of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 shall each receive one case.

(k) The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, may exchange benches with each other and with the judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 of Harris County, Texas, in the same manner that the judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, are authorized to exchange benches. The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, may transfer criminal causes between said courts by entry of an order on the docket of the court from which the cause is transferred, provided that no cause shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

(l) The practice in said County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 5, 6, and 7, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts.

(m) In cases transferred to any one of the County Criminal Courts at Law of Harris County, Texas, as provided in this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer may be made.

Art. 1970-110d. County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County

(a) There is hereby created a court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas," and the seal of said Court shall be the same as provided by law for county courts except the seal shall contain the words "County Civil Court at Law No. 2."

(b) The County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over civil matters, proceedings and cases, that is now or may be vested in the County Civil Court at Law No. 1, and shall have jurisdiction in civil actions, and the judge thereof to exercise equal administrative and ministerial jurisdiction in matters of the filing and disposition of proceedings in eminent domain, concurrently and coextensively with the judge presiding in County Civil Court at Law No. 1, under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and this Court shall have appellate jurisdiction likewise in appeals of civil cases from the justice courts within Harris County, and the Judges of said Court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to civil matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having civil jurisdiction, provided that the said Court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which is now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the Judge thereof.

(c) The County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County shall have jurisdiction in all civil matters and causes, original and appellate, except probate matters, over which, by the Constitution and general laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said County would have formerly had jurisdiction, and shall have equal and like jurisdiction over civil cases, and civil proceedings in the same manner as jurisdiction has been heretofore exercised in civil cases and civil proceedings and in eminent domain by the County Civil Court at Law No. 1.

That County Civil Courts at Law (No. 1 and No. 2) shall have special jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and the Judges thereof shall have sole administrative and ministerial jurisdiction to file and dispose of proceedings in eminent domain concurrently and coextensively when filed in either of said Civil Courts or with the respective Judges thereof.

(d) The terms of the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by laws relating to county courts. The terms of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2 for civil cases shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County until the same be changed in accordance with the law.

Said Court shall hold six (6) terms a year, beginning respectively on the first Monday in January, in March, in May, in July, in September, and in November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

(e) The Judge of the said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2, shall be elected at the General Election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court in equal monthly installments; and when this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a Judge to the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed, and shall serve until the next General Election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of Judge of said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

(f) The Judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

(g) A special Judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2 may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

(h) The County Clerk of Harris County shall be the Clerk of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 2. The Sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Said County Clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said Civil Courts, No. 1 and No. 2, and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions filed in each of said Courts in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts.

The County Clerk shall after the effective date of this Act, file all civil cases and civil proceedings exclusively in the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 and No. 2 and shall file said civil cases alternately in each of said Courts as presented for filing.

(i) In case of disqualification, an overcrowded docket, sickness or absence from the county, of any of the Judges of the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 or No. 2, of County Criminal Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2 or 3, any other Judge of said Courts may exchange benches with any other County Court at Law Judge of Harris County, Texas, and when so exchanging benches with any other of the said County Court at Law Judges of Harris County, the Judge of County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have all power and jurisdiction of the County Civil or County Criminal Courts at Law, and of the judge thereof, while so exchanging benches; and in like manner the Judges of said County Civil or Criminal Courts at Law of Harris County, Texas, shall have all the power and jurisdiction of any other of said Civil or Criminal County Courts at Law and of the Judges thereof while so exchanging benches, and may sign orders, judgments and decrees, or other process as "Judge Presiding" when acting for such disqualified or absent judge upon request or in an emergency, or for good cause shown.

That the salary of the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law No. 2 and the salaries of all County and Civil and Criminal Court Judges mentioned herein, to wit: County Civil Court at Law No. 1; County Criminal Court at Law No. 1; County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 and County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 shall be not less than Thirteen Thousand, Two Hundred Dollars ($13,200) or more than Fifteen Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($15,600), per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Harris County, Texas.

(j) That the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law No. 2, of Harris County, Texas, may appoint and discharge an Official Court Reporter in the same manner as such a reporter is appointed or discharged by the district courts, and who shall receive the same salary as the reporters of the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, the same to be paid by the County Treasurer out of the General Fund of the County, and in addition to said salary the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law.

Art. 1970-110e. County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County

(a) There is hereby created a court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas," and the seal of said court shall be the same as provided by law for county courts except the seal shall contain the words "County Civil Court at Law No. 3."

(b) The County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over civil matters, proceedings and cases, that is now or may be vested in the County Civil Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2, and shall have jurisdiction in civil actions, and the judge thereof to exercise equal administrative and ministerial jurisdiction in matters of the filing and disposition of proceedings in eminent domain, concurrently and coextensively with the judge presiding in County Civil Court at Law No. 1 and the judge presiding in County Civil Court at Law No. 2, under the constitution and laws of Texas, and this court shall have appellate jurisdiction likewise in appeals of civil cases from the justice courts within Harris County, and the judges of said court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to civil matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having civil jurisdiction, provided that the said court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which is now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the judge thereof.

(c) The County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County shall have jurisdiction in all civil matters and causes, original and appellate, except probate matters, over which, by the constitution and general laws of the State of Texas, the county court of said county would have formerly had jurisdiction, and shall have equal and like jurisdiction over civil cases, and civil proceedings in the same manner as jurisdiction has been heretofore exercised in civil cases and civil proceedings and in eminent domain by the County Civil Court at Law No. 1 and the County Civil Court at Law No. 2. The County Civil Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, and 3 shall have special jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and the judges thereof shall have sole administrative and ministerial jurisdiction to file and dispose of proceedings in eminent domain concurrently and coextensively when filed in either of said civil courts or with the respective judges thereof.

(d) The terms of the County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by laws relating to county courts. The terms of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 for civil cases shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Civil Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Harris County until the same be changed in accordance with the law.

Said court shall hold six terms a year, beginning respectively on the first Monday in January, in March, in May, in July, in September, and in November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

(e) The judge of the said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state for not less than five years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court in equal monthly installments; and when this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a judge to the County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed, and shall serve until the next general election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of judge of said Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

(f) The judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

(g) A special judge of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3 may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

(h) The County Clerk of Harris County shall be the clerk of the Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 3. The Sheriff of Harris County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said court when required by the judge thereof.

Said county clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said Civil Courts Nos. 1, 2, and 3, and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions filed in each of said courts in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts.

The county clerk shall after the effective date of this Act, file all civil cases and civil proceedings exclusively in the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 and No. 2 and No. 3 and shall file said civil cases alternately in each of said courts as presented for filing.

(i) In case of disqualification, an overcrowded docket, sickness or absence from the county, of any of the judges of the County Civil Courts at Law No. 1 or No. 2 or No. 3, or county criminal courts at law, any other judge of said courts may exchange benches with any other county court at law judge of Harris County, Texas, and when so exchanging benches with any other of the said county court at law judges of Harris County, the Judge of County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, shall have all power and jurisdiction of the county civil or county criminal courts at law, and of the judge thereof, while so exchanging benches; and in like manner the judges of said county civil or criminal courts at law of Harris County, Texas, shall have all the power and jurisdiction of any other of said civil or criminal county courts at law and of the judges thereof while so exchanging benches, and may sign orders, judgments and decrees, or other process as "Judge Presiding" when acting for such disqualified or absent judge upon request or in an emergency, or for good cause shown.

(j) The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, may appoint and discharge an official court reporter in the same manner as such a reporter is appointed or discharged by the district courts, and who shall receive the same salary as the reporters of the district courts of Harris County, Texas, the same to be paid by the county treasurer out of the general fund of the county, and in addition to said salary the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law.

Art. 1970-123. Appeals from Lower Courts

All cases appealed from the Justices Courts and Recorders Courts in Jefferson County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

[Acts 1915, ch. 29, § 14; Acts 1919, ch. 27, § 14.]

Art. 1970-124. Fees of County Judge

The County Judge of Jefferson County, at the time this Act goes into effect, shall receive the same compensation in ex-officio salary and fees as he would have received had this Act, creating the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, not been enacted, said Compensation to be computed and allowed and ordered paid by the Commissioners Court of said County out of the general fund of said county.

Art. 1970-125. Special Judge; Election; Compensation

Should the Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law on the first or any future day of a term, fail or refuse to hold the Court, a majority of the practicing attorneys present in said Court shall proceed to elect from among their number a Special Judge in the same manner prescribed by law for the election of Special Judges of County Courts; and such Special Judge shall be entitled to receive a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00) for each case tried by him, the same to be paid by the County Treasurer upon the order of the Commissioners' Court of Jefferson County, Texas. [Acts 1919, ch. 27, § 16; Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 3, ch. 3, § 1.]

Art. 1970-126. Act Not Repealed

Nothing in this Act shall be construed in any manner to affect or repeal the Court at Law, created for the city of Port Arthur in Jefferson County, Texas, passed by the Fourth Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature and known as House Bill No. 112.

[Acts 1919, ch. 27, § 16a.]

Art. 1970-126a. County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Beaumont, Jefferson County, Texas, to be called the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2.

Sec. 2. The County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction and powers in all actions, matters, and proceedings of every nature that are now conferred by law upon and vested in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the Judge thereof. Provided, however, that the jurisdiction of the said County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 over all such actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, shall be concurrent. The County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, in addition to the jurisdiction provided by law, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil matters and cases when the matter in controversy shall exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), exclusive of interest.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 shall be the same and identical with the terms of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law as the same now exists or may exist in the future.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters and proceedings may be filed in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and all such actions, matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the Court in which filed or in such manner as may be determined by the Judges of the said County Court of Jefferson County at Law and County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 by an order duly made by such Judges entered upon the minutes of each such Court.

Sec. 5. At the next General Election after the effective date of this Act, and at each applicable General Election thereafter, there shall be elected in Jefferson County by the qualified voters thereof, a Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, who shall possess all of the qualifications which are now required of the Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 who shall have the qualifications herein described and he shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the Judge of said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, shall, in like manner as hereinabove provided, be filled by the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until a successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The County Clerk of Jefferson County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and the seal of said Court shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts except the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2," and the Sheriff of Jefferson County, Texas, shall, in person, or by deputy, attend such Court when required by the Judge thereof, and the County Clerk of Jefferson County, Texas, is hereby authorized and directed to appoint a deputy, who shall be acceptable to the Judge of said Court to specially attend the sessions of said Court and to attend to all matters pertaining to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2. For the purpose of preserving a record in any matter or proceeding heard in said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 for the information of the Court, jury, or parties, the Judge of said Court is hereby authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court, who shall be well-skilled in his profession, who shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court, and all provisions of the General Laws of this state relating to the appointment of a stenographer for the District Courts shall apply, in all its provisions so far as applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed by the Judge of said Court, and such reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and shall perform the same duties as provided in said General Laws, except in addition to the lawful fees for transcribing testimony and preparing statements of facts he shall receive a salary the same and equal to that of the official shorthand reporter of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law which salary shall be paid monthly out of the County Treasury of said County upon order of the Commissioners Court of said County.

Sec. 7. The jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the District Court for this state for the drawing, selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and the drawing, selection and service of jurors for said Court shall be the same in practice and procedure as in the County Court of Jefferson County at Law.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 shall receive a salary of not more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) per annum, which shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the County Treasury of Jefferson County as fixed and ordered by the Commissioners Court of said county. The judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to county judges' fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the County Treasury on collection and no part of which shall be paid to said judge who shall instead draw a salary as herein provided.

Sec. 9. All cases appealed from the Justices Courts and Recorders Courts in Jefferson County, Texas, shall be made direct to either the County Court of Jefferson County at Law or the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (the jurisdiction of such courts being concurrent) under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 10. The Judges of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 may at any time exchange benches, and may at any time sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now or hereafter pending in either of said Courts, and any and all of such acts thus performed by the Judges of said Courts shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 11. Each of the Judges of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 may, with the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions or proceedings from his respective Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket. On the effective date of this Act, or thereafter, the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and the Judge thereof, shall transfer to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 any civil or criminal action or proceeding pending on the docket of said Court as may be necessary in order that the now overcrowded docket of said Court may be relieved, and said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and the Judge thereof, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said civil or criminal matters, and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein. No cause shall be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which it is transferred.

Sec. 12. Special Judges may be appointed or elected for either or both the County Court of Jefferson County at Law and the County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, and in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the General Laws of this state relating to the appointment and election of the Special Judge or Judges of the several district and county courts of this state; and every such Special Judge thus appointed or elected for either of said two courts shall receive for the services he may actually perform as a Special Judge the same amount of pay which the regular Judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid to such Special Judge shall be paid out of a general fund of Jefferson County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County and upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, but no part of the amount paid the Special Judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of either of the regular Judges of said respective Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2.

Art. 1970-141. Repeal; Partial Invalidity of Act

All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be, and the same are hereby repealed, and it is further enacted that if any of the provisions of this Act shall be held void or in conflict with any provisions of the Constitution of this State the fact that such provisions may be held void shall in no wise affect any other provisions of this Act.

[Acts 1918, 4th C.S., ch. 14, § 5; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 270, ch. 191, § 1.]

Art. 1970-141.1 County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created an additional County Court at Law in El Paso County, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall have and is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in County Courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in appeals in criminal cases from Justice Courts and Corporation Courts within El Paso County, and the judges of said Court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of County Courts having criminal jurisdiction. Said County Court at Law No. 2 shall have and is hereby granted the same jurisdiction and powers in criminal matters and civil actions or proceedings that are now or may be conferred by law upon and vested in the County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas; and each of the judges of said County Courts at Law may with the consent of the judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions or proceedings from his respective Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, and the said County Court at Law of El Paso County, and the judge thereof, shall transfer to the said County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, any civil or criminal action or proceeding pending on the docket of said Court on the effective date of this Act as may be necessary in order that the now overcrowded dockets of said Court may be relieved, and said County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, and the judge thereof, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said civil or criminal matters, and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees, and judgments therein. No cause shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the Court to which it is transferred.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of El Paso County and County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County shall henceforth have general jurisdiction of Probate Courts within the limits of El Paso County concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of El Paso County in such matters and proceedings. Such County Court at Law and County Court at Law No. 2 shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots and lunatics, persons non compos mentis and drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts with administrators, executors and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and drunkards; including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings. Said County Court at Law and County Court at Law No. 2 shall have no jurisdiction over any other of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of El Paso County, or in the judge therein.

The County Court of El Paso County, the El Paso County Court at Law and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, or either of the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, certiorari, superseas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Courts; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by the General Laws governing County Courts throughout the State, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Courts or of any Court or tribunal inferior to said Courts.

The judges of the County Court of El Paso County, County Court at Law of El Paso County, and County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County may with the consent of the judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer probate matters or proceedings from his respective Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, to enable the efficient and justiciable disposition of the probate matters and proceedings in El Paso County, Texas.

The judges of the County Court, County Court at Law and County Court at Law No. 2 may collectively make and publish rules from time to time governing the docketing and disposition of probate matters and proceedings in their Courts not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and for the purpose of efficient and justiciable disposition of such probate matters and proceedings. A copy of such rules and changes shall be filed with the County Clerk of El Paso County, Texas, and one (1) copy of such rules and changes shall be available in each such Court for the examination of participants in any probate matters filed.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of El Paso County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall commence on the first Monday in January and July and said Courts may continue in session until the Sunday next preceding the Monday for the convening of the next regular term of Court.

The judges of the County Court at Law of El Paso County, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County may divide each term of Court into as many sessions as they deem necessary for the disposition of business, and may extend a particular term of Court whenever practicable for the efficient and justiciable disposition of individual proceedings and matters.

Sec. 5. The judge of the County Court at Law of El Paso, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a practicing attorney of this State for at least five (5) years next preceding his election or appointment and who shall have resided in the County of El Paso for at least two (2) years next preceding his election or appointment.

Judges of the County Court at Law of El Paso County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County shall each receive an annual salary of not less than Five Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($5,500) and not more than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000), the amount of the salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of El Paso County and to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury upon order of the Commissioners Court; such judges shall not collect any fee from the County for disposing of any criminal case.

Sec. 6. Within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this Act, the senior district judge in and for El Paso County, Texas, shall call an election of the licensed attorneys practicing in El Paso County, Texas, for the purpose of electing a panel of three (3) qualified nominees for the office of judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas. Notice of the time of such election shall be prominently posted in the district clerk's office and the county clerk's office at least one (1) week prior to the date of such nominations. A candidate for the office of judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, may be nominated for said panel by a written nomination from one (1) of said licensed attorneys or the candidate himself filed prior to the date of said election with the said senior district judge. At the said called election, the senior district judge shall present said written applications and nominations and shall receive further oral nominations at that time; the senior district judge shall not permit nominations to be closed until it is apparent no further nominations are forthcoming. Said attorneys then present shall then vote by secret ballot from the written and oral nominees and applicants, their respective three (3) preferences marked in order of their preference, which vote shall be counted according to preference.

The panel of the three (3) candidates receiving the highest number of votes and the results of said election shall be certified by the said senior district judge and submitted to the county judge of El Paso County, Texas, as a recommendation only, but such recommendation shall not be binding on the Commissioners Court in their appointment as hereinafter provided. Within one (1) week from the receipt of said panel by the said county judge, the Commissioners Court of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, who shall serve beginning September 1, 1955, until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter said office shall be filled at general election as provided by law except in case of vacancy. In case of vacancy said office shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court in the same manner.

After the effective date of this Act a vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas, shall likewise be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court from a panel of three (3) nominees elected in the same manner as in the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, which appointed judge shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified, as now provided by law.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, shall execute bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint an official court reporter for such Court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official court reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official court reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official court reporters in the District Courts of El Paso County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official court reporters of the District Courts of El Paso County are paid.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of El Paso County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, in civil and criminal matters. The county clerk shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas. Said clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said Courts; and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in each of said Courts in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the District Courts.

Sec. 10. The sheriff of El Paso County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said Court when required by the judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of said Court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of County Courts.

Sec. 11. The seal of the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except that such seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 12. A special judge of said Court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to County Courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 13. The judges of the County Court at Law and County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County shall have the power to make and publish rules as to the docketing and disposition of criminal and civil cases in their Courts not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

The judges of the County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas, with mutual consent may exchange benches with one another or act as presiding judge of the other Court in individual proceedings or actions in the absence or disqualification of the other judge.

Sec. 14. In cases transferred to any one of the County Courts at Law by order of the judge of one of said Courts as provided in Section 2 of this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made.

Art. 1970-141.2 County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created an additional County Court at Law in El Paso County, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, shall have the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within El Paso County, and the judge of the court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction. The County Court at Law No. 3 shall have and is hereby granted the same jurisdiction and powers in criminal matters and civil actions or proceedings that are now or may be conferred by law upon and vested in the County Court at Law No. 1 of El Paso County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas; and each judge of the county courts at law may with the consent of the judge of the court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions or proceedings from his respective court to the other court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, and the judges of the County Courts at Law No. 1 and No. 2 of El Paso County, shall transfer to the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, any civil or criminal action or proceeding pending on the docket of said court on the effective date of this Act as may be necessary in order that the now overcrowded dockets of the court may be relieved, and the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, and the judge thereof, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine civil or criminal matters, and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees, and judgments therein. No cause may be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred.

Sec. 3. (a) The County Courts at Law of El Paso County shall henceforth have general jurisdiction of probate courts within the limits of El Paso County concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of El Paso County in such matters and proceedings. The County Courts at Law shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, and lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts with administrators, executors, and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and drunkards; including the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings. The county courts at law shall have no jurisdiction over any other of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of El Paso County, or in the judge therein.

(b) The County Court of El Paso County, and the County Courts at Law of El Paso County, or each of the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the courts; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the courts or of any court or tribunal inferior to the courts.

(c) The judges of the County Court of El Paso County and the County Courts at Law of El Paso County may with the consent of the judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer probate matters or proceedings from his respective court to the other court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, to enable the efficient and justiciable disposition of the probate matters and proceedings in El Paso County, Texas.

(d) The judges of the county court and the county courts at law may collectively make and publish rules from time to time governing the docketing and disposition of probate matters and proceedings in their courts not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and for the purpose of efficient and justiciable disposition of probate matters and proceedings. A copy of the rules and changes shall be filed with the County Clerk of El Paso County, Texas, and one copy of the rules and changes shall be available in each court for the examination of participants in any probate matters filed.

Sec. 4. (a) The terms of the County Courts at Law of El Paso County shall commence on the first Monday in January and July and the court may continue in session until the Sunday next preceding the Monday for the convening of the next regular term of court.

(b) The judges of the County Courts at Law of El Paso County may divide each term of court into as many sessions as they deem necessary for the disposition of business, and may extend a particular term of court whenever practicable for the efficient and justiciable disposition of individual proceedings and matters.

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of each County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas, shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state, who shall have been a practicing attorney of this state for at least five years next preceding his election or appointment and who shall have resided in the County of El Paso for at least two years next preceding his election or appointment.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County shall receive an annual salary in an amount identical to that received by the judge of each other county court at law in El Paso County. The salary shall be set and paid in the same manner and from the same source as the salaries of the judges of the other County Courts at Law in El Paso County are set and paid. The judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case.

Sec. 6. The Commissioners Court of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, who shall serve beginning September 1, 1969, until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified. Thereafter the office shall be filled at general election as provided by law except in case of vacancy. In case of vacancy the office shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, shall execute bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, shall appoint an official court reporter for the court, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as hereafter amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall apply in all their provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official court reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and the official court reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official court reporters in the district courts of El Paso County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official court reporters of the district courts of El Paso County are paid.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of El Paso County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, in civil and criminal matters. The county clerk shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Courts at Law No. 1 and No. 2 of El Paso County, Texas. The clerk shall keep separate dockets for each court; and shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in each court in like manner as the fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts.

Sec. 10. The sheriff of El Paso County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend the court when required by the judge; and the various sheriffs and constables of this state executing process issued out of said court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

Sec. 11. The seal of the County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County, Texas," and the seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 12. A special judge of the court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 13. (a) The judges of the County Courts at Law No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3 shall have the power to make and publish rules as to the docketing and disposition of criminal and civil cases in their courts not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) The judges of the County Courts at Law of El Paso County, Texas, with mutual consent may exchange benches with one another or act as presiding judge of the other court in individual proceedings or actions in the absence or disqualification of the other judge.

Sec. 14. In cases transferred to any one of the county courts at law by order of the judge of one of said courts as provided in Section 2 of this Act, all process extant at the time of the transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

EASTLAND COUNTY

Art. 1970-141a. Eminent Domain and Probate Jurisdiction; Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction Transferred

cise the general jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, general jurisdiction of probate courts, and all other jurisdiction now or hereafter conferred by the Constitution and laws of this State, except as is hereinafter provided, and shall retain all jurisdiction and power to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts; but said County Court shall have no civil jurisdiction and no criminal jurisdiction except jurisdiction to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases, and except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2 hereof.

Sec. 2. The District Court having jurisdiction in Eastland County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and cases of a civil nature and in all matters of a criminal nature, except as to such jurisdiction that the County Court has to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases as is provided in Section 1 hereof, whether the same be of original jurisdiction or of appellate jurisdiction, over which, by the general laws of the State of Texas now existing and hereinafter enacted the County Court of said county would have had jurisdiction and all pending civil and criminal cases be, and the same are, hereby transferred to the District Court having jurisdiction in Eastland County, Texas, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in all pending civil or criminal cases be, and the same are, hereby made returnable to the District Court sitting in Eastland County, Texas. However, there shall not be transferred to said District Court jurisdiction over any judgments, either in civil or criminal cases, rendered prior to the time this Act takes effect and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by all appropriate process.

Sec. 3. The County Attorney of Eastland County shall represent the State in all misdemeanor cases before the District Court of Eastland County, and shall receive therefor the same fees to which he would be entitled under the law as County Attorney had said cases been tried in the County Court.

Sec. 4. The clerk of the County Court of Eastland County is, and he is hereby required within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect to file with the clerk of the District Court of said county all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Court, and all Judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment, or other order entered in the minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred; and the district clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the District Court of Eastland County in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. It shall not be necessary that the district clerk refile any papers theretofore filed by the county clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of the same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the county clerk, prior to the time of said transfer, shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the district clerk. Said county clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost and against all cost deposits, if any, the county clerk shall charge accrued fees due him, and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the district clerk as a deposit in the particular case for which the same was deposited. Credit shall also be given the litigants for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

Arts. 1970-142 to 1970-152. Unconstitutional

These articles, Acts 1919, 2nd C.S., ch. 16, §§ 1 to 11, creating County Court at Law for Eastland County, were held unconstitutional and void in State v. Gillette's Estate, Com.App., 10 S.W.2d 984.

WICHITA COUNTY

Arts. 1970-153 to 1970-166. Repealed by Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., Spec.Laws, p. 86, ch. 65

Art. 1970-166a. Jurisdiction of Wichita County Court at Law Transferred to Wichita County Court

Immediately upon the taking effect of this Act, as provided for in Section 2,¹ all jurisdiction of all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, which is now within the jurisdiction of the County Court of Wichita County at Law will at once be transferred to, conferred upon, and will vest in the County Court of Wichita County and all powers heretofore existing in the County Court of Wichita County at Law are hereby, with the effective date of this Act, conferred on the County Court of Wichita County, and all powers now and heretofore existing in the Judge of the County Court of Wichita County at Law are hereby, upon the effective date of this Act, conferred on the County Judge of Wichita County, and all cases pending at the effective date of this Act in the County Court of Wichita County at Law shall be and the same are hereby, on said effective date, transferred to the County Court of Wichita County, and all writs and processes, civil and criminal, issued by or out of the County Court of Wichita County at Law prior to the effective date of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Wichita County as fully and effectively as if they had been originally issued out of said County Court. The County Clerk of Wichita County shall, upon the effective date of this Act, transfer all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, then in the County Court of Wichita County at Law to the County Court of Wichita County.

Art. 1970-166b. Jurisdiction in Civil Cases Transferred to District Courts

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Wichita County shall retain and continue to have and exercise the general criminal jurisdiction, both original and appellate, the general jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, and the general jurisdiction of Probate Courts, and all jurisdiction other than in civil matters, jurisdiction of which is here conferred on the District Courts of Wichita County, Texas, now or hereafter conferred upon such County Court by the Constitution and Laws of the State, and shall retain all jurisdiction and power to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts; but said County Court shall have no civil jurisdiction, except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2 hereof.

Sec. 2. That the District Courts having jurisdiction in said Wichita County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and cases of a civil nature, whether the same be of original jurisdiction or of appellate jurisdiction, over which, by the General Laws of the State of Texas now existing and hereinafter enacted, the County Court of said County would have had jurisdiction, and that all pending civil cases be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Wichita County, Texas, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in said civil cases be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court, in and for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Wichita County, Texas. Provided, however, that there shall not be transferred to said District Courts jurisdiction over any judgments, even in civil cases, rendered prior to the time this Act takes effect and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by execution, order of sale, or other appropriate process. Provided further, however, that as to any civil case on appeal from said County Court, should a judgment be entered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to one of the District Courts having jurisdiction in Wichita County, Texas, and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case shall thereafter vest in the District Courts sitting in and having jurisdiction of Wichita County, Texas.

Sec. 3. That the fact that the cases of which the District Courts are given jurisdiction have been transferred by this Act to the District Court in and for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District shall not be construed to limit the jurisdiction of the other District Courts sitting in and having jurisdiction in said County, but the said District Court in and for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District shall have power to transfer any or all of said cases to said other District Courts, under the applicable provisions of the laws governing the transfer of cases among said District Courts, and all applicable provisions of law in regard to the transfer and retransfer governing cases now pending in said District Courts shall govern the cases so transferred, as well as cases subsequently filed under the jurisdiction here conferred upon said District Courts; and that, as to cases subsequently filed, same may be filed in either of said District Courts which are here given jurisdiction thereof.

Sec. 4. That the Clerk of the County Court of said Wichita County be and is hereby required, within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County, all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Courts, and all Judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the Minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred, and the District Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the said District Court for the Eighty-ninth Judicial District of Texas, and all such cases shall stand on the docket of said Court in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. Provided, further, that it shall not be necessary that the District Clerk refile any papers theretofore filed by the County Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the County Clerk, prior to the time of said transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the District Clerk. Said County Clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost, and against all cost deposits, if any, the County Clerk shall charge accrued fees due him, and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the District Court as a deposit in the particular case for which same was deposited. Credit shall also be given the litigants for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

Art. 1970-166c. Concurrent Jurisdiction with District Courts in Juvenile Delinquency, Child Neglect or Dependency Proceedings

Sec. 1. The County Court of Wichita County, Texas, has jurisdiction concurrent with the district courts in Wichita County of all cases involving juvenile delinquency, child neglect, or dependency proceedings, if the judge of the County Court of Wichita County possesses qualifications equal to those required to serve as a district court judge in the State of Texas, and if the judge of the County Court of Wichita County is designated by the Wichita County Juvenile Board to preside as judge of the juvenile court.

Sec. 2. When the county judge is so qualified and is designated by the Wichita County Juvenile Board to preside over such proceedings, the jurisdiction of the county court extends to contempt proceedings growing out of or ancillary to such cases, and a district court in Wichita County may transfer to the county court any such case of juvenile delinquency, child neglect, or dependency on its docket, with the consent of the Wichita County Court. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1365, ch. 519, eff. June 14, 1973.]

TEXARKANA COURT AT LAW

Arts. 1970-167 to 1970-189. Unconstitutional

These articles, Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 69, creating Texarkana Court at Law, were held unconstitutional in Turner v. Tucker, 113 T. 434, 258 S.W. 149.

ARMSTRONG COUNTY

Art. 1970-190. Armstrong County Court; Concurrent Jurisdiction with Justice Court

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1970-223a. County Court at Law of Harrison County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) On the effective date of this Act, as provided in Section 8 of the Act, the County Court at Law of Harrison County is created. It sits in Marshall.

(b) The County Court at Law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, including eminent domain and lunacy proceedings, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Harrison County.

(c) The County Court at Law, or its Judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the Court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The Court and Judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Harrison County is the Judge of the County Court of Harrison County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Harrison County unless by this Act committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Harrison County.

(e) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Harrison County is a member of the Harrison County Juvenile Board.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The terms of the County Court at Law of Harrison County are the same as those of the County Court of Harrison County.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law of Harrison County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than three years, be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Harrison County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The Judge elected holds office for either two years or four years, his first elected term ending in compliance with the provisions of Article 16, Section 65(a), Constitution of the State of Texas, and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. During his term of office, the Judge may not appear and plead as an attorney at law in the County Court at Law of Harrison County or in any court with jurisdiction inferior to that of the county court at law.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Harrison County shall appoint a Judge to the County Court at Law of Harrison County. The Judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this Section and serves until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law may be filled in like manner by the Commissioners Court and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law is entitled to receive the same salary as the Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County and, in addition to this salary, the Commissioners Court of Harrison County may pay him the full supplemental compensation paid to other members of the Harrison County Juvenile Board. Such salary and any additional compensation approved by the commissioners for his services on the Juvenile Board shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the Commissioners Court. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the Judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge when the Judge of the County Court at Law of Harrison County is disqualified. A special judge must have the same qualifications as the Judge of the County Court at Law and is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Court Officials and Personnel

Sec. 4. (a) The County Clerk and Sheriff of Harrison County, Texas, shall serve as clerk and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Harrison County. The Commissioners Court of Harrison County may employ as many additional deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Harrison County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Harrison County, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Judge of the County Court at Law.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Harrison County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Harrison County.

(b) The Judges of the County Court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that Court.

(c) The County Judge and the Judge of the County Court at Law may freely exchange benches with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the County Court or County Court at Law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the Judge of the County Court at Law may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court.

(d) The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Harrison County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Harrison County and the judge thereof; but jurors summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Harrison County and the Judge of the County Court of Harrison County jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Representation of the State

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Harrison County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Court, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Court.

Facilities and Equipment

Sec. 7. (a) The Commissioners Court of Harrison County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the County Court at Law.

(b) The County Court at Law shall have a seal identical with the seal of the County Court at Harrison County, except that it contains the words "County Court at Law of Harrison County."

Effective Date

Sec. 8. This Act becomes effective upon order of the Commissioners Court of Harrison County duly entered in its minutes.

All jurisdiction of all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, which is now within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, is hereby transferred and conferred on the County Court of McLennan County, and all powers heretofore residing in said County Court at Law of McLennan County are hereby conferred on the County Court of McLennan County, and all powers heretofore residing in the Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County are hereby conferred on the County Judge of McLennan County, and all cases now pending in the County Court at Law of McLennan County, shall be, and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of McLennan County, and all writs and processes, civil and criminal heretofore issued by or out of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, or the County Court of said County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of McLennan County.

Sec. 3. The Judge of the County Court of McLennan County shall assess such fees as are or may be established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of said court, and be by him paid monthly into the County Treasury, and the judge of said County Court shall receive an annual salary of Three Thousand ($3,000.00) Dollars, per year to be paid out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners' Court, provided that said Commissioners' Court may, if and when it sees fit, by order duly entered on the minutes of said Court, pay the County Judge of McLennan County a larger amount of salary, but not to exceed Three Thousand Six Hundred ($3600.00) Dollars, per year, all to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury and from the general fund of said County.

[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., Spec.Laws, p. 110, ch. 83.]

Art. 1970-298b. County Court at Law of McLennan County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in McLennan County, to be called the County Court at Law of McLennan County.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of McLennan County shall have jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the general laws and Constitution of the State, the County Court of the county would have jurisdiction.

(b) The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of McLennan County and the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court, or of the County Judge of McLennan County as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, the County Court at Law of McLennan County and the Judge thereof shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of McLennan County and the Judge thereof in all matters and causes over which by the general laws and Constitution of the State the County Court would have jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. The County Court of McLennan County shall have the jurisdiction given County Courts under the Constitution and general laws of this State. The County Court, and the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by law governing County Courts throughout the State. The County Judge of McLennan County shall be the Judge of the County Court of McLennan County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of McLennan County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County.

Sec. 3a. (a) The Judge of either the County Court at Law of McLennan County or the County Court of McLennan County may, in his discretion, either in term time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any cause on his docket, to the docket of the other Court.

(b) The Judges of the Courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time. Whenever a Judge of one of the Courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case from his Court to the other Court.

(c) Either Judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either Court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other Court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other Court and there hear and determine any case there pending. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending.

(d) In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either Judge, the other Judge may hold Court for him. Either of the Judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of the Courts and determine the same or may hear and determine any question in any case, and either Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

(e) In cases transferred to either of the Courts by order of the Judge of the other Court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the Court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law.

(f) All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, shall be held as follows, to-wit:

On the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September and November in each year, and each term of said Court shall continue in session until and including the Saturday next preceding the beginning of the next succeeding term thereof. The practice in said Court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts.

Sec. 5. There shall be elected in McLennan County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county, and who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, well informed in the laws of this State, and who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in this State or as the Judge of a Court for a period of not less than five (5) years next preceding such general election, who shall hold his office for two (2) years, and until his successor shall have been duly qualified.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 7. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County may be appointed or elected when and under such circumstances as are provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Ten ($10.00) Dollars per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 8. The Court created by this Act and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, and super-sedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or of any other Court or tribunal inferior to said Court.

Sec. 9. The Clerk of the County Court of McLennan County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of McLennan County. The seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Clerk of the County Court at Law of McLennan County". The Sheriff of McLennan County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 10. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County is authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court. A person is eligible for appointment who is well skilled in his profession. Upon appointment the reporter is to serve as a sworn officer of the court, holding his office at the pleasure of the court.

(b) The reporter is not required to take testimony in a case unless a party to the case or the judge demands that testimony be taken. In cases in which the reporter is required to take testimony, the court clerk shall tax a $3 fee as costs in the case. The clerk shall deposit fees collected under this Section in the treasury of McLennan County. The reporter shall be available for matters being considered in the County Court if a reporter is requested by the litigants before that court and the request is approved by the Judge of the County Court at Law.

(c) The reporter is entitled to receive the same compensation as the official shorthand reporters of the District Courts in McLennan County, which compensation is to be paid in the same manner as is the compensation of the official shorthand reporters of the District Courts in McLennan County. The county judge, the county auditor, the Commissioners Court and any other officials of McLennan County charged with preparing and approving the county budget are authorized to amend the budget of McLennan County to provide for paying compensation to the reporter.

(d) Except where inconsistent with this Act, all General Laws relating to court reporters apply to the official court reporter of the County Court at Law of McLennan County.

Sec. 11. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court created by this Act shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of McLennan County until the next general election. The Commissioners Court of McLennan County shall, as soon as may be, after this Act shall take effect, appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County shall assess the same fees as are or may be established by law relating to County Judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of said court and be by him paid monthly into the County Treasury; and the Judge of said County Court at Law shall receive an annual salary of not more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000), payable monthly, to be paid out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 14. The County Judge of McLennan County shall receive an annual salary of Six Thousand, Six Hundred ($6,600.00) Dollars to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury, out of the general fund of the county. Said County Judge shall assess the same fees, in matters within the jurisdiction of the County Court, as are or may be prescribed by law relating to County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be by him paid into the County Treasury monthly, for the use and benefit of the general fund; provided that the Commissioners Court of McLennan County may, if and when it sees fit, pay the County Judge a larger amount of annual salary, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury in accordance with Chapter 320, page 601, 51st Legislature, Acts 1949.¹

HARRISON COUNTY

Art. 1970-299. Jurisdiction of County Court of Harrison County

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Harrison County, Texas, shall have the same jurisdiction and shall be subject to the same provisions as County Courts generally throughout the State, under the Constitution and General Laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. The Jurisdiction of the District Court of the Seventy-first Judicial District of Texas is hereby conformed to the change herein made of the County Court of Harrison County, and hereafter said District Court shall have the same jurisdiction as District Courts generally throughout the State as provided and conferred by the Constitution and General Laws of the State of Texas.

[Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 150, ch. 99.]

EDWARDS COUNTY

Art. 1970-300. Changing Jurisdiction of County Court of Edwards County

Sec. 1. Hereafter the county court of Edwards County shall have no civil or criminal jurisdiction and shall have jurisdiction in probate matters only. The civil and criminal jurisdiction heretofore vesting in said county court is hereby transferred to the district court of said county.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the county clerk of said county within thirty days after this Act shall take effect to make a full and complete transcript of all orders on the civil and criminal docket in said county court in all civil and criminal matters, and shall transfer the same together with all other papers and records in connection with such cases and matters, to the clerk of the district court of said county. Said county clerk shall also prepare certified bills of costs in each such case and deliver the same to said district clerk, and the district clerk shall take charge of such transcripts, papers and cost bills and file and enter the same in said cases on the proper docket. All process heretofore issued from the county court in said county in cases transferred by this Act to the district court shall be returnable to the first term of the district court after this Act takes effect, and all cases transferred by this Act shall be entered as appearance cases upon the docket of the district court.

Art. 1970-300a. Jurisdiction of Edwards County Court Increased; Terms of Court

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Edwards County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for County Courts.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction of the District Court of Edwards County, Texas, shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of the State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Edwards County, Texas, shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said County Court in civil cases, of which said court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with Justice Court, where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Court of jurisdiction now conferred upon it by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said County Court over such matters as are specified in this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court, in any case originally brought in the Justice Court where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of this State.

Sec. 7. The District Clerk of Edwards County is required, within thirty (30) days after this Act takes effect, to make a full and complete transcript of all entries upon the criminal and civil dockets of said court, of any cases then pending before the District Court of said county, of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court, and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case, in the County Court of said county; and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said court, and said cases shall be disposed of in the same manner as if same had been originally filed in the County Court, and all processes now issued and returnable to said District Court shall be returnable to said County Court; all processes heretofore issued by the District Court in said cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore taken in the District Court, shall be as valid as if no changes had been made as to the jurisdiction of said respective courts; and all bonds executed and recognizances entered in said District Court shall bind the parties to the next term of the County Court after this law becomes effective.

Sec. 8. The terms of said County Court shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May, and on the first Monday in August, and on the first Monday in November of each year; and each of said terms shall continue in session until the Saturday before the Monday on which a new term commences; provided that the Commissioners Court of said county may hereafter change the terms of said court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby expressly repealed insofar as they relate to Edwards County, Texas.

BEXAR COUNTY

Art. 1970-301. County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act the county court of Bexar County for civil cases shall be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas." The present judge and all officers of the county court of Bexar County for civil cases shall continue as such respective judge and officers of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, until the expiration of their present terms of office and until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases shall be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas." The present judge and all officers of the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases shall continue as such respective judge and officers of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, until the expiration of their present terms of office and until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified.

Sec. 3. Said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge thereof, shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction, original and appellate, heretofore conferred on said county court of Bexar County for civil cases, and the judge thereof, and in addition thereto, shall have jurisdiction within Bexar County, Texas, of all such subject matters and causes, original and appellate, over which the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases has heretofore had jurisdiction; and the authorized jurisdiction of said courts, namely, the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, over all such matters, within said county, shall be concurrent.

Sec. 4. Said County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge thereof, shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction, original and appellate heretofore conferred on said county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, and the judge thereof, and in addition thereto, shall have jurisdiction within Bexar County, Texas, of all such subject matters and causes, original and appellate, over which the county court of Bexar County for civil cases has heretofore had jurisdiction; and the authorized jurisdiction of said courts, namely, the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, over all such matters, within said county, shall be concurrent.

Sec. 5. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal cases, within the jurisdiction of said courts, may be filed in either the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 6. Whenever the judge of said County Court at Law No. 1, or the judge of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, may deem it advisable or expedient he may transfer any case or cases pending in the court over which he presides to the other of said county courts at law, and the written order upon the minutes of said court so transferring such case, signed by the judge thereof making the transfer, shall be authority for the clerk of said court to make such transfer.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County, Texas, as soon as practicable after the passage and taking effect of this Act to transfer as aforesaid from the docket of said court to the docket of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, approximately one-half of the civil cases pending upon said docket, which shall be done by transferring every alternate case without reference to whether any particular case be pending upon the jury or nonjury of said court; provided, this section is directory in nature.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County, Texas, as soon as practicable after the passage and taking effect of this Act, to transfer as aforesaid from the docket of said court to the docket of said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, approximately one-half of the criminal cases pending upon said docket, which shall be done by transferring every alternate case without reference to whether any particular case be pending upon the jury or nonjury docket of said court; provided, this section is directory in nature.

Sec. 9. The Judges of the two County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, may at any time exchange benches, and may at any time sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now and hereafter pending in either of the said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 10. All writs, processes, judgments and decrees, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the said county court of Bexar County for civil cases or the said county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken in either of said courts, and all other acts and proceedings had therein, shall be as valid and enforceable and binding as if no change had been made in the name, designation, jurisdiction or time of the holding of either of said courts, and each and all of the same are, respectively, hereby made returnable and effective in that one of said county courts at law which shall have jurisdiction of the cause in conformity with the terms and provisions of this Act.

Sec. 11. The Judges of the County Courts at Law, Nos. 1 and 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall each take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of either of said Judges. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive an annual salary of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive an annual salary of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars. Said salary shall be paid to each of said Judges in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said county upon orders of the Commissioners' Court of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 12. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge thereof shall have and retain the same jurisdiction, powers, fees, and perquisites of office as conferred on said County Court of Bexar County, or the Judge thereof, at and before the time of the passage and taking effect of this Act; and this Act shall in no wise affect said County Court. Provided, however, that the maximum fees of the office of the County Judge shall not exceed Six Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($6,500.00), even though more than one person may perform the duties of said County Judge, in which case the total shall be divided in accordance with services performed. Provided, however, that a County Judge shall not draw a salary amounting to more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per annum and providing that no more than the aggregate sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) shall be paid in any one (1) year to special judges for said county.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November, and each term shall continue until the business shall have been disposed of; and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October and December, and each term shall continue until the business shall have been disposed of; provided, no term of either of said courts shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 14. Special judges may be appointed or elected for either or both of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the general laws of this state relating to the appointment and election of a special judge or judges of the several district and county courts of this state; and every such special judge thus appointed or elected for either of said two courts shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such special judge the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid to such special judge shall be paid out of the general fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the county treasury of said county upon orders of the Commissioners' Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of either of the regular judges of said respective County Courts at Law.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and also the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas. The seal of said courts shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts, except that the seal of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas", and the seal of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas." The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the taking effect of this Act or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint a deputy for each of the said County Courts at Law; provided, however, that the persons thus appointed must be acceptable to the respective judges of said courts, and such appointment for each of said courts must be confirmed in writing by the Judge thereof before it becomes effective. The said two deputies thus appointed shall, before assuming their respective duties, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, Article 16, Section 1 thereof; and the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputies to furnish bonds in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by said clerk or provided by law. The said two deputies shall act in the name of their principal and they, and each of them, may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the said County Clerk in person; and it shall be the duty of each of said two deputies to attend all sessions of the County Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, to which he has been appointed, and perform such services in and for said courts as are usually performed by the County Clerk and their deputies in the several County Courts of this State; and said two deputies shall also perform any and all other services that may from time to time be assigned them by the Judges of said courts. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and his several deputies, including the two deputies to be appointed for said courts as hereinabove provided, shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, pending in said courts when this Act takes effect, and also in all such cases thereafter filed in said courts, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner, as now provided by law for the County

Courts of this state and the Judges thereof in similar cases; and all such fees and costs, when collected by said County Clerk and his several deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by said County Clerk and his deputies in their official capacity, shall by said Clerk and deputies be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same, and in the manner, as may be provided by law. The said two deputies to be appointed for said two courts are authorized to act for one another in any matter pertaining to the clerical business of said courts, and it shall be their duty to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the Judges of said Courts or by the said County Clerk; but such deputies acting for one another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The said two deputies shall, from and after their said appointment, confirmation and qualification, as herein provided, continue as such respective deputies at the pleasure of the Judges of said courts; and should either of said Judges for any reason whatsoever not further desire the services of said deputy clerk, the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge or Judges, appoint another deputy for such court or courts, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. In the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for the court in which a vacancy may occur, such appointment, however, shall be with written approval and confirmation of the Judge of the Court in which a vacancy may occur. The salary of the deputy clerk appointed for each of the said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the respective Judges of said courts in any amount not exceeding Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars annually; said annual salaries to be paid to said deputy clerks in equal monthly installments out of each fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salaries shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salaries are paid to said deputies the Judges of said courts shall cause to be filed with the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said county, a written statement, signed by said Judges, certifying that said two deputies have performed the services required of them and that they are entitled to receive their said salaries, and such salaries of said deputies shall be paid to them only upon such certificate being signed and filed by said Judges. Provided that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

Sec. 15-A. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through deputies to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint one deputy for each of the said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; provided, however, that the persons thus appointed as such deputies must be acceptable to the Judges of said courts, and said appointments for each of said courts must be approved and confirmed in writing by the judge of said court before same becomes effective. The said deputy sheriffs shall, before assuming their respective duties, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, Article 16, Section 1 thereof; and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputies to furnish bonds in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by said Sheriff or provided by law. The said two deputies shall act in the name of their principal and they may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person. The said two deputies shall, from and after their said appointment, confirmation and qualification, as hereinabove provided, continue as such respective deputies at the pleasure of the Judges of said courts; and should either of said Judges, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of said deputy sheriffs, the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such court, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. It shall be the duty of the said two deputies, who are to be appointed as herein provided, to attend all sessions of the said two courts and also perform and render such services in and for said courts, and for the Judges thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by Sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several district and county courts throughout this state, and including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants and writs of any and all kinds and nature, in both civil and criminal cases, matters and proceedings; and it shall be the duty of said deputy sheriffs to also perform and render any and all other services that may from time to time be assigned them, or to either of them, by the Judges of said courts. The said two deputies shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout this state now or may hereafter have, possess and enjoy. The said deputy sheriff of the said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the said deputy sheriff of the said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, are authorized and empowered to act for one another, and it shall be their duty to so act for one another when required to do so by either of the Judges of said courts or by said Sheriff; but said deputies thus acting for one another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such court in which a vacancy may occur, such appointment, however, to be subject to the approval and written confirmation of the Judge of the court in which such vacancy may exist. The salary of the said deputy appointed for each of said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said court in any sum not exceeding Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars annually. The said annual salaries to be paid to said two deputies, when fixed by said Judges as herein provided, shall be paid to them in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salaries shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salaries are paid to said deputy sheriffs the Judges of said courts shall cause to be filed with the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said county, a written statement, signed by said Judges, certifying that said two deputies have performed and rendered the services required of them and that they are entitled to receive their said salaries. Provided that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

Sec. 16. The term of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, current at the time of the taking effect of this Act shall continue until the commencement of the next following term of said court, in the month as fixed by this Act, in the year 1927, or until any earlier adjournment thereof. All process issued out of said court before this Act takes effect, and not theretofore returnable, or returnable on some special date, is hereby made returnable to the terms of court as fixed by this Act. All bonds heretofore executed in said court shall bind the parties to fulfill the obligation of such bonds at the terms of court, and to that one of said county courts at law having jurisdiction of the cause, in conformity with this Act. All writs and process heretofore issued and returned, as well as all bonds heretofore taken in said county court of Bexar County for civil cases, and all judgments, writs and decrees thereof, shall be as valid and binding, and enforceable, as if no change had been made in the jurisdiction or the time of the holdings of said court, or in the name and designation of said court.

Sec. 17. The term of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, current at the time of the taking effect of this Act, shall continue until the commencement of the next following term of said court in the month as fixed by this Act, in the year 1927, or until any earlier adjournment thereof. All process issued out of said court before this Act takes effect, and not theretofore returnable, or returnable on some special date, is hereby made returnable to the terms of court as fixed by this Act. All bonds and recognizances heretofore executed and taken in said court shall bind the parties to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of court, and to the one of said county courts at law having jurisdiction of the cause, in conformity with this Act. All writs and processes heretofore issued and returned, as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore executed and taken in said county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, and all judgments and writs and decrees thereof shall be as valid and binding and enforceable as if no change had been made in the jurisdiction or the time of the holdings of said court, or in the name and designation of said court.

Sec. 18. There shall be appointed by the county attorney of said county, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one special assistant, for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said courts. Such assistant county attorney shall be paid a salary of three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars annually, in equal monthly installments, by said county, upon warrants drawn against the general fund by orders of the commissioners court.

Sec. 19. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the court, jury and parties, the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, may appoint an official shorthand reporter for said court who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court; and the provisions of the law relating to the appointment of stenographers for the district courts of this State shall, and they are hereby made to apply in all their provisions, in so far as they are applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary, and shall perform the same duties, and shall take the same oath as now provided by the General Laws of this State covering the stenographers of the district courts of this State; and in all cases pending in said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, at the time of the passage and taking effect of this Act, and in all civil cases that may hereafter be filed in said court in which an answer has been filed or may be filed, and also in all other cases, civil and criminal, where either party litigant, or the court, should require the official shorthand reporter to take down the testimony, a stenographer's fee of three ($3.00) dollars shall be taxed by the clerk of said court as costs in this case, the same to be in addition to all other costs, and said fee, when so collected by said clerk, shall be by him paid into the treasury of Bexar County in the same manner as now required of district clerks under similar circumstances.

Sec. 20. The Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, enacted by the Thirty-second Legislature, Regular Session, known as House Bill No. 111, Chapter 10, approved February 20, 1911, found on pages 15, 16 and 17, of the Session Laws of said Legislature, creating the county court of Bexar County for civil cases, and each provision of said Act, and the amendment to said Act passed by the Thirty-eighth Legislature of the State of Texas, known as House Bill No. 367, found on pages 73 and 74, of the Session Laws of the said Legislature, authorizing the appointment of an official shorthand reporter for said court, shall, except in so far as in conflict herewith, remain in full force and effect, and apply to the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 21. The Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, enacted by the Thirty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session, known as Senate Bill No. 323, Chapter 39, approved March 5, 1915, as found on pages 78, 79, 80 and 81, of the Session Laws of said Legislature, creating the county court of Bexar County for criminal cases, and each provision of said Act, shall, except in so far as in conflict herewith, remain in full force and effect, and apply to the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 21-A. The terms of office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be two years. The present Judge of each of said courts shall continue as such Judge thereof until the expiration of his present term of office, and until his successor shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified, as hereinafter provided. At the next general election to be held within this state and in Bexar County, Texas, after the taking effect of this Act, to-wit, the first Tuesday in the month of November, A. D. 1938, and every two years thereafter, at each general election, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said county a Judge of each of said courts, both of whom shall be well informed in the laws of this State, and who shall hold their respective offices for a term of two years and until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and qualified; provided, however, that no person shall be eligible for Judge of either the said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or the said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state, and shall have been a practicing lawyer of Bexar County, Texas, for at least four years next preceding his election, or is or has been a Judge of a court in this State. Should there be a vacancy in the office of Judge of either of said courts such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners' Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the person or persons thus appointed shall hold such office until their successor, or successors, who shall be elected at the next general election to be held in Bexar County, Texas, after such appointment, shall have qualified according to law; and the person thus appointed shall have the qualifications hereinbefore specified for a Judge of said courts.

Sec. 21-B. The practice in said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by laws relating to County Courts. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said two County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the Judges thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by laws relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the County Courts throughout this state, and the respective Judges thereof, in similar cases. And appeals may be taken from interlocutory orders of the said two County Courts at Law appointing a receiver, and also from orders of the said two County Courts at Law overruling a motion to vacate or an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the District Courts throughout this state.

Art. 1970-301c. Salaries of Judges

From and after the effective date of this Act the Judge of the County Court-at-Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court-at-Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, shall each receive an annual salary of Nine Thousand, Six Hundred ($9,600.00) Dollars. Said annual salary shall be paid to each of said Judges in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said county, upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas.

[Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 441, ch. 129, § 1.]

Art. 1970-301d. County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Bexar County, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions, matters and proceedings under the Constitution and Laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of said Court shall have the same powers, rights, privileges as to criminal matters as are now or may be vested in the Judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction.

The County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction and powers in civil actions, matters and proceedings that are now or may be conferred by law upon and vested in the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and in the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judges thereof. Provided, however, that the jurisdiction of said County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the jurisdiction of said County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the jurisdiction of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, over all such actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, within said Bexar County, shall be concurrent.

The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County, Texas, upon proper certification of the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, because of conflicting duties, or absence or inability to act; or, upon the failure or refusal of such County Judge to act for any reason or cause, shall also be authorized and empowered to act for and in the place and stead of said such County Judge in any lunacy, probate and condemnation proceeding or matter, and also may perform for the County Judge of Bexar County any and all other ministerial acts required by the laws of this State of said County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, and upon any such certification, the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall give preference and priority to all such actions, matters and proceedings so certified, and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such actions, matters and proceedings the same as if performed by the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. Provided, that the powers thus conferred on the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall extend to and include all powers of the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, except his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the County as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court, and in connection with the budget of Bexar County. And provided further that the provisions of this paragraph shall be in addition to and cumulative of the provisions of House Bill No. 748, Acts 1951, Regular Session, Fifty-second Legislature, Page 601, Chapter 355.

Notwithstanding the additional powers and duties conferred upon the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, by the provisions of this paragraph, no additional compensation or salary shall be paid to said Judge, but the compensation or salary of such Judge shall remain the same as now, or as may be hereafter, fixed by law.

Sec. 3. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters and proceedings may be filed in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and in the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and all such actions, matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the Court in which filed, or in such other manner as may be determined by a majority of the Judges of said County Court at Law by an order duly made by them and entered upon the minutes of each such County Court at Law.

Sec. 4. The Clerk of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, the same as is now or may be provided by law for the keeping of dockets for the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; he shall tax the official Court Reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the District Courts of this State. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and each of them may, with the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions, matters and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by the entry of an order to the effect upon the docket of such court; and the Judge of the County Court at Law to which any such action, matter or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall have been transferred, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein, and in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case, action, matter or proceeding had been originally filed in said County Court at Law, to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transferred.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, together with the Judges of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, may, at any time, exchange benches, and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now, or hereafter, pending in either of said County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, or by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 6. The practice in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to County Courts and County Courts at Law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the Judge thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the County Courts and County Courts of Law throughout this State, and the respective judges thereof, in similar cases. And appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, appointing a receiver, and also from orders of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, overruling a motion to vacate or an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the District Courts throughout this State.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall, and the same are hereby made to, apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, and paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of said District Court of Bexar County is paid.

Sec. 8. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to his duties as they are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law. The seal of said Court shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts, except that the seal of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas." The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint a deputy for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas; provided, however, that the person so appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court, and such appointment must be confirmed in writing by the Judge of said Court before the same becomes effective. Said deputy so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by said County Clerk of Bexar County in person; it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and perform such services in and for said Court as are usually performed by the County Clerk and his deputies of the several County Courts of this State; and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, that may be filed in said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, or that may be transferred to said Court from the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or that may be transferred to said Court from the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner, as now provided by law for the County Courts of this State and the Judges thereof in similar cases; and all such fees and costs, when collected by said County Clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by said County Clerk and his deputies in their official capacity, shall by said Clerk and his deputies be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same, and in the manner as may be provided by law. The deputy appointed hereunder is hereby authorized to act for the deputy appointed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and he shall also be authorized to act for the deputy appointed by the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and each and all of said deputies shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to act for each other, in any matter pertaining to the clerical business of said Court, and it shall be the duty of said deputies to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the Judges of the several County Courts at Law of Bexar County, but they shall receive no additional compensation for so serving. Said deputy so appointed shall, from and after his said appointment, confirmation and qualification, as herein provided, continue as such deputy at the pleasure of the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of such deputy, the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such Court; such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. In the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for said Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the same manner as hereinabove provided. The salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said Court but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputy for County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or the deputy for the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary to be paid to said deputy in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy, the Judge of said County Court of Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by the Judge, certifying that said deputy has performed the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive said salary and such salary of said deputy shall be paid to him only upon certificate being signed and filed by said Judge. Provided, that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

Sec. 9. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through a deputy to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and said Sheriff shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint one (1) deputy for said Court, provided, however, that the person thus appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court and said appointment of said deputy must be approved and confirmed in writing by said Judge before the same becomes effective. The deputy sheriff so appointed shall, before assuming his duties, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said Deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person. Said deputy shall, from and after his appointment, confirmation and qualification, as hereinabove provided, continue as such deputy at the pleasure of the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of said deputy sheriff, the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such court; such appointment, however, to be made in the same manner as hereinabove provided. It shall be the duty of the deputy sheriff appointed as herein provided, to attend all sessions of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and also perform and render such services in and for said Court, and for the Judge thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by Sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several district and County Courts of this State, and including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants and writs of any and all kinds, nature and character, in both civil and criminal cases, matters and proceedings; and it shall be the duty of said deputy sheriff to also perform and render any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned to him, by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy sheriff shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout this State now or may hereafter have, possess and enjoy; and said deputy sheriff is authorized and empowered to act for the deputy sheriff of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and he is also authorized and empowered to act for the deputy sheriff of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and all of said deputy sheriffs may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to, act for one another, and it shall be their duty to act for one another when required to do so by either of the Judges of said Courts or by said Sheriff; but said deputy thus acting for another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such court, such appointment, however, to be subject to the approval and written confirmation of the Judge of said Court. The salary of the deputy sheriff appointed for said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said Court but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputy sheriff for County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, or the deputy sheriff for County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas; and said annual salary shall be paid to such deputy sheriff in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. However, before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy sheriff, the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by said Judge, certifying that said deputy sheriff has performed and rendered the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive his salary. Provided, that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly provided.

Sec. 10. At the next General Election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five (5) years, well informed in the laws of the State, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Bexar County, Texas, for a period of not less than four (4) years prior to such General Election, and who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the Judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in like manner as hereinabove provided, be filled by said Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of such Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive and shall be paid the same salary as is now, or as may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the Judges of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas. Said salary shall be paid to said Judge in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 12. A special judge may be appointed or elected for the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the general laws of this State relating to the appointment and election of a special judge, or judges, of the several District and County Courts and County Courts at Law of this State; and every such special judge thus appointed or elected for said Court shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such special judge the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such special judge shall be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular judge of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to grant all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 14. The County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said Court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of said Court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 15. For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said Court. Said assistant shall be paid the same salary as is now, or may be hereafter, paid to the assistants serving in County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and in County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments, by said County, upon warrants drawn against the General Fund by orders of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1970-301e. Salaries of Judges

From and after the effective day of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, shall each receive an annual salary of not less than Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) nor more than Sixteen Thousand Dollars ($16,000). Such annual salary to be paid to each of said judges shall be determined and fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, and, when so determined and fixed, such annual salary shall be paid to each of said judges in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn on the County Treasury of Bexar County, Texas, upon orders of the Commissioners Court of said County.

Art. 1970-301e.1. County Courts at Law Nos. 4 and 5 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. There are hereby created two courts to be held in Bexar County, Texas, to be known as the "County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas," and the "County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, have the same jurisdiction, powers, and duties, and concurrent jurisdiction, powers, and duties in all civil and criminal actions, proceedings, and matters, original and appellate, over which by the constitution and general laws of this state, the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, have jurisdiction, and have concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided in Chapter 915, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 1970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 2a. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Bexar County in such matters and proceedings. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, has authority to probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, to hear and determine all matters affecting minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors.

Sec. 3. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters, and proceedings may be filed in the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances, and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters, and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, and all such actions, matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the court in which filed, or in such manner as may be determined by a majority of the judges of the said county courts at law, the judge of the County Civil Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 3a. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, probate matters and proceedings may be filed in said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same circumstances and conditions as now obtain for the filing of such matters and proceedings in the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge, and all such matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 502, Acts of the 59th Legislature, 1965 (Article 1970-75a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), it is the intention of this Act that the said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, shall give preference and priority to probate matters and proceedings.

Sec. 4. The clerk of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the clerk of said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, the same as is now or may be provided by law for keeping of dockets for the county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas; they shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts of this state. The judges of the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, and each of them may, with the consent of the judge of the court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions, matters, and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by the entry of an order to the effect upon the docket of such court; and the judge of the county court at law to which any such action, matter, or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall have been transferred, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees, and judgments therein, and in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case, action, matter, or proceeding had been originally filed in said county court at law to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case, or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

Sec. 5. The judges of the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, may, at any time, exchange benches, and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding now, or hereafter, pending in either of said county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 1 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 2 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 3 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or by the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters, and proceedings.

Sec. 6. The practice in said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to county courts and county courts at law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the judges thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the county courts and county courts at law throughout this state, and the respective judges thereof, in similar cases. And appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, appointing a receiver, and also from orders of said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, overruling a motion to vacate or an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the district courts throughout this state.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall, and the same are hereby made to, apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the district courts of Bexar County, Texas, and paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of said district court of Bexar County is paid.

Sec. 8. The county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the clerk of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to his duties as they are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law. The seal of said court shall be the same as provided by law for county courts, except that the seal of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas," and the seal of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall contain the words "County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas." The county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint a deputy for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and a deputy for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas. Said deputy so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by said county clerk of Bexar County in person; it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of said county court at law to which he is appointed and perform such services in and for said court as are usually performed by the county clerk and his deputies of the several county courts of this state; and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the judge of said court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, both civil and criminal, that may be filed in said county court at law to which he is appointed, or that may be transferred to said court from another county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner, as now provided by law for the county courts of this state and the judges thereof in similar cases; and all such fees and costs, when collected by said county clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by said county clerk and his deputies in their official capacity, shall by said clerk and his deputies be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same, and in the manner as may be provided by law. The deputy appointed hereunder is hereby authorized to act for the deputy of any other county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and each and all of said deputies shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to act for each other, in any matter pertaining to the clerical business of said court, and it shall be the duty of said deputies to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the judges of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but they shall receive no additional compensation for so serving. In the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for said court. The salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the salary of the deputy appointed for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed as prescribed by law for the deputies of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputies for the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2 and 3 of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary to be paid to said deputy in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. Provided, that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the county clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

Sec. 9. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through a deputy to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and all sessions of said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, and said sheriff shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, appoint one deputy for each of said courts. The deputy sheriff so appointed shall, before assuming his duties, take the oath of of-office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person. It shall be the duty of the deputy sheriff appointed as herein provided, to attend all sessions of said county court at law to which he is appointed, and also perform and render such services in and for said court, and for the judge thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several district and county courts of this state, and including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants, and writs of any and all kinds, nature, and character, in both civil and criminal cases, matters, and proceedings; and it shall be the duty of said deputy sheriff to also perform and render any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned to him, by the judge of said court. Said deputy sheriff shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority, and privileges that the sheriffs and their deputies throughout this state now or may hereafter have, possess and enjoy; and said deputy sheriff is authorized and empowered to act for the deputy sheriff of any other county court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and all of said deputy sheriffs may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to, act for one another, and it shall be their duty to act for one another when required to do so by either of the judges of said courts or by said sheriff; but said deputy thus acting for another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, in the event of a vacancy caused by any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such court. The salary of the deputy sheriff appointed for said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the salary of the deputy sheriff appointed for said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed as prescribed by law for the deputy sheriffs for the several county courts at law of Bexar County, but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that in the future may be paid to, the deputy sheriffs for the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, Texas; and said annual salary shall be paid to such deputy sheriff in equal monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salary shall be made in the manner provided by law. Provided, that nothing contained in this section of this Act is intended to change or alter the deputies and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly provided.

Sec. 10. The judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Bexar County for a term of four years and shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall be a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state; he shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of such judge. The judges of the County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive and shall be paid the same salary as is now, or as may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the judges of the several county courts at law of Bexar County, Texas, in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn on the county treasurer of said county upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County.

Sec. 11. The County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas, are created effective January 1, 1975. At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall be filled by appointment made by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, and the judge so appointed shall serve until January 1 following the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. A special judge may be appointed or elected for the County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and for the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the general laws of this state relating to the appointment and election of a special judge, or judges, of the several district and county courts and county courts at law of this state; and every such special judge thus appointed or elected for said court shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such special judge the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such special judge shall be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the county treasury of said county upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular judge of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or the salary of the regular judge of said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, or the judge thereof, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, or the judge thereof, shall have power to grant all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court, or of any other court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Courts at Law Numbers 4 and 5 of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 14. The County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of said court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 15. For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Court at Law Number 4 of Bexar County, Texas and said County Court at Law Number 5 of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for each of said county courts at law for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said court. Said assistant shall be paid the same salary as is now, or may be hereafter, paid to the assistants serving in County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments, by said county, upon warrants drawn against the General Fund by orders of the commissioners court.

Art. 1970-301f. County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in and for Bexar County, Texas, which shall be known as the "County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas," and it shall be a Court of record.

Sec. 1a. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be known hereafter as the "County Court at Law Number 6, of Bexar County, Texas," and the seal of the court shall be the same as now provided by law except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law Number 6, of Bexar County, Texas." Wherever the name "County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas," appears in this Act, it shall hereafter be understood to mean "County Court at Law Number 6, of Bexar County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the same jurisdiction, powers, and duties, and concurrent jurisdiction, powers, and duties in all civil and criminal actions, proceedings, and matters, original and appellate, over which by the constitution and general laws of this state the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County have jurisdiction, and have concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided in Chapter 915, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 1970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 3. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction, powers, and duties in matters probate, and each shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, and to hear and determine all matters affecting minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall hear and determine all matters affecting juvenile offenders as now provided by law and shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters relating to or arising out of the granting or revoking of liquor licenses. The County Judge of Bexar County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, and shall be the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court; all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the said Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, or otherwise by law, have been committed to the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge thereof shall have and retain the same jurisdiction, powers, duties, fees and perquisites of office as are conferred on said County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, at and before the passage and taking effect of this Act, and this Act shall in no wise affect the said County Court or the Judge thereof except as provided herein.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, civil and criminal actions, matters, and proceedings may be filed in the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances, and instances as now obtain for the filing of actions, matters, and proceedings, civil and criminal, in the County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, and 3 of Bexar County, and all such actions, matters, and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the court in which filed, or in such manner as may be determined by a majority of the judges of the said county courts at law, the judge of the County Civil Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, all actions, cases, matters or proceedings of eminent domain arising under Title 52, Articles 3264 to 3271, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, or under the provisions of House Bill No. 77, Chapter 423, pages 1128 to 1130, inclusive, Acts, 1955, Regular Session, now codified as Article 6674-n of Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas or otherwise, as well as all proceedings instituted under the provisions of the Acts, 1957, Fifty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, Chapter 243, pages 505, et seq., now codified as Article 5547-1, et seq., Title 92, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and known and cited as the Texas Mental Health Code, and all amendments thereto, shall be filed and docketed in the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same circumstances and conditions as now obtain for the filing of such actions, proceedings and matters of a civil nature or character in the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or with the County Judge, and all such actions, cases, matters or proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said Court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the Judge of the County Civil Court at law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 5. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, probate matters and proceedings may be filed in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same circumstances and conditions as now obtained for the filing of such matters and proceedings in the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or with the county judge, and all such matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of Court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business of said Court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of Court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Bexar County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall be a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State; he shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of such Judge. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive and shall be paid the same salary as is now, or as may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the Judges of the several County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn on the County Treasurer of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County.

Sec. 8. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of the said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until January 1st following the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be filled by appointment made by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, and the Judge so appointed shall serve until January 1st following the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The Clerk of the said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, the same as is now or may be provided by law for keeping of dockets for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; he shall tax the Official Court Reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts of this State. The Judges of the County Courts at Law, the County Judge, the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and each of them may with the consent of the Judge of the court to which transfer is made, transfer civil or criminal actions, matters and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by the entry of an order to the effect upon docket of such court, provided both courts have concurrent jurisdiction of any such actions, matters and proceedings; and the Judge of the court to which any such action, matter or proceeding shall have been transferred shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case action, matter or proceeding had been originally filed in said court to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judges of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, may, at any time, exchange benches with each other, and may at any time, sit and act for each other in any civil or criminal case, proceeding or matter now, or hereafter, pending in any of said County Courts of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and/or by the County Judge of Bexar County Court, and/or by either of the Judges of County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, proceedings and matters.

Sec. 11. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, the County Judge of Bexar County, or any of the Judges of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, may sit and act as Judge of said Court and may determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, any matters or proceedings there pending, and may enter any orders in such matters and proceedings as the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. A Special Judge may be appointed or elected for the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the General Laws of this State relating to the appointment and election of a Special Judge, or Judges, of the several District and County Courts and County Courts at Law of this State; and every such Special Judge thus appointed or elected for said Court shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such Special Judge the same amount of pay which the regular Judge of said Court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such Special Judge shall be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any Special Judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular Judge of said County Civil Court at Law.

Sec. 13. The practice in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to County Courts and County Courts at Law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the Judge thereof in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the County Courts and County Courts at Law throughout this State, and the respective judges thereof, in similar cases, and appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, appointing a receiver, and also from orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, overruling a motion to vacate an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the District Courts throughout this State.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, may appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall, and the same are hereby made to apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation paid to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, and paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of said District Courts of Bexar County is paid.

Sec. 15. The judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, may appoint an administrative assistant or assistants to aid him in the performance of his duties in matters probate. The salary of said administrative assistant or assistants shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County to be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn on the county treasurer of said county upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to his duties as they are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient and necessary, appoint a deputy for said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, provided, however, that the person so appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court, and such appointment must be confirmed in writing by the Judge of said Court before the same becomes effective. Said deputy so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount as he may prescribe and such bond shall be conditioned as prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by said County Clerk of Bexar County in person; and it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and to perform such services in and for said Court as are usually performed by the County Clerk and his deputies in and for the several County Courts of this State, and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, that may be filed in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, or that may be transferred to said Court from the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner as now provided by law for the County Courts of this State, and all such fees and costs, when collected by said County Clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by them in their official capacity, shall be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same and in the manner as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy so appointed shall, from and after his appointment, confirmation and qualification, as herein provided, continue as such deputy at the pleasure of the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of such deputy, the County Clerk of Bexar County shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinbefore provided, and all vacancies, however created, shall be filled by appointment made in like manner. The salary of the deputy appointed for said Court shall be fixed and determined by the Judge of said Court, but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that may in the future be paid to, the deputies for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, said annual salary to be paid to such deputy in equal monthly installments in the manner provided by law out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as may be provided for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the County Clerk. Provided, however, that before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the County Clerk of Bexar County, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by said Judge, certifying that said deputy has performed the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive said salary and such salary of said deputy shall be paid to him only upon certification so filed by said Judge. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the County Clerk of Bexar

County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly set out.

Sec. 17. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through a deputy to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and said Sheriff shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be necessary and convenient, appoint one deputy for said Court, provided, however, that the person so appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court and said appointment of said deputy must be approved and confirmed in writing by said Judge before the same becomes effective. The deputy so appointed shall, before assuming his duties, take the oath of office prescribed by law and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall be authorized and empowered to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount as he may determine, the same to be conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person, and such deputy shall, from and after his appointment, confirmation and qualification as hereinabove provided, continue as such at the pleasure of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge, for any reason whatsoever, no longer desire the services of said deputy, the Sheriff of Bexar County shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for said Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the same manner as hereinabove prescribed. It shall be the duty of such deputy to attend all sessions of said Court and also to perform and render such services in and for said Court, and for the Judge thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by Sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several District and County Courts of this State, including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants and writs of any and all kinds, nature or character, in civil matters and proceedings, and it shall be the duty of said deputy to also perform and render any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned to him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout this State now, or may hereafter, have, possess and enjoy; and said deputy is authorized to act for the deputy Sheriff of the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and each such deputy shall be authorized and empowered to act for each other, and it shall be the duty of such deputies to act for one another when required to do so by either of the Judges of said Courts, or by the Sheriff, but the deputy thus acting for the other shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall he be paid, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County shall, in the event of a vacancy, caused for any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such Court, such appointment, however, to be subject to the written approval and confirmation of the Judge of said Court. The salary of the deputy Sheriff appointed for said Court shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said Court but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to the deputy Sheriffs for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary shall be paid to such deputy in equal monthly installments out of such funds of Bexar County as is provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, and payment to be made in the manner prescribed by law. Provided, however, that before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy, the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by said Judge, certifying that said deputy has performed and rendered the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive his salary. And provided, further, that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly provided.

Sec. 18. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, of mandamus and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court.

Sec. 19. The seal of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as that prescribed by law for County Courts except that such seal shall contain the words "County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 20. For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said Court. Said assistant shall be paid a salary to be set by the said Criminal District Attorney and approved by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments by said County upon warrants drawn against the General Fund of Bexar County by orders of the Commissioners Court.

Art. 1970-301f.1. County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County; Terms of Court; Assistant

The County Court at Law Number 6 of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and

November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of said court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Court at Law Number 6 of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for said county court at law for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said court. Said assistant shall be paid the same salary as is now, or may be hereafter, paid to the assistants serving in County Courts at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Bexar County, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments, by said county, upon warrants drawn against the General Fund by orders of the commissioners court.

Art. 1970-301g. County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Bexar County, Texas to be called the "County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases."

Sec. 2. The County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate, over which, by the General Laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said county would have jurisdiction, and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases; and all criminal writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, be, and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction hereby transferred to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall include all criminal cases and matters, the forfeiture of bonds in criminal cases, all proceedings in relation thereto; but the County Court of Bexar County shall retain, as heretofore, the jurisdiction of all cases of eminent domain; the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians; transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors, as provided by law. The county judge of Bexar county shall be the judge of the County Court of Bexar County, and all ex-officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the County Court of Bexar County, except in so far as the same shall, by this Act and by Act of the Thirty-second Legislature, General Laws pages 15-17, House Bill No. 111, Chapter 10, be committed to the judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases. The county judge of Bexar County shall retain authority to determine all matters relating to or arising out of or connected with the granting or revoking of liquor licenses, and all matters appertaining thereto, try all applications for liquor licenses and shall approve all liquor bonds as may be provided by law. He shall also retain jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.

Sec. 4. The said County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, and the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, certiorari, supersedeas, mandamus, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing County Courts throughout the State; and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases within the jurisdiction of said court.

Sec. 5. The County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall hold at least four terms for criminal business annually as may be provided by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County under authority of law, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County; provided the Commissioners Court having fixed the terms of said court, shall not change the same until the expiration of one year.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in said county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, who shall be learned in the laws of the State, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly qualified.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall execute a bond in the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. Special judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to County Courts, and to the judges thereof, and shall receive salary and compensations similar to the judge of the court hereby created, but which shall be prorated and paid to him only for the actual number of days he actually serves.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of Bexar County shall be the clerk of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases. The seal of said court shall be the same as that provided for County Courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases." The sheriff of Bexar County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 10. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Bexar County, and the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by each of the three courts within their jurisdiction.

Sec. 11. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the court created by this Act may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County until the next general election. The Commissioners Court of the county shall, as soon as may be, after this Act shall take effect, appoint a judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, who shall serve until the next general election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 12. [Not included.]

Sec. 13. The judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 14. The provisions of this law are not intended to in any manner affect the jurisdiction of the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, and this law is intended to create another court somewhat similar to said County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, but the court hereby created to have jurisdiction of criminal matters only.

Art. 1970-301h. Salaries of Judges

From and after the effective date of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 3, of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall each receive an annual salary of not less than Eighteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($18,500) nor more than Twenty-two Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($22,500). Such annual salary to be paid to each of said judges shall be determined and fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, and, when so determined and fixed, such annual salary shall be paid to each of said judges in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn on the County Treasury of Bexar County, Texas, upon orders of the Commissioners Court of said county.

MENARD COUNTY

Art. 1970-302. Jurisdiction and Time for Holding Menard County Court

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Menard County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for county courts.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise, or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which, by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the District Court of Menard County shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Menard County shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said Court in civil cases, of which Court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts, where the amount in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justices Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court, where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of the State.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Menard County, Texas, within thirty days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case in the County Court of said County and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said Courts shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May and on the first Monday in August and the first Monday in November of each year and each of said terms shall continue in session for six weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the County Commissioners' Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said County Court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court, where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of the State.

Court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners' Court.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Irion County, Texas, within thirty days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County, of which cases by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case in the County Court of said County and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said Courts shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May, and on the first Monday in August and the first Monday in November of each year, and each of said terms shall continue in session for six weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the County Commissioners' Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said Court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners' Court.

CAMERON COUNTY

Art. 1970-305. County Court at Law of Cameron County Created

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Brownsville, Cameron County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court of Cameron County at Law.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Cameron County shall have and exercise the jurisdiction in all matters and cases, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction except as herein provided in Section 3 of this Act.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Cameron County at Law shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the general laws of this State is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court of Cameron County at Law in Civil cases of which said court has appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the said County Court of Cameron County at Law over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal to the County Court of Cameron County at Law from the Justice Court where the right of appeal to the County Court now exists by law. The jurisdiction of the County Court of Cameron County at Law, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court of Cameron County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners' Court nor of the County Judge of Cameron County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners' Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, or matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners' Court or the Judge of the County Court of Cameron County.

Sec. 6. (a) The County Court at Law of Cameron County shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and all jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, within the limits of Cameron County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Cameron County in such matters and proceedings. The County Court at Law of Cameron County shall have no other jurisdiction than that specifically provided by law, and the County Court of Cameron County as now and as heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law of Cameron County by this Act, or as may be otherwise specifically given by law to said County Court at Law of Cameron County, but the County Court of Cameron County shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Cameron County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Cameron County, except insofar as the same shall be herein, or as may be otherwise by law specifically committed to the County Court at Law of Cameron County, or the Judge thereof.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Cameron County or the judge of the County Court of Cameron County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any probate matter on his docket to the docket of the other court.

The Judges of the Courts may, in their discretion, in any probate matter exchange benches from time to time. Whenever a Judge in one of the Courts is disqualified in a probate matter, he shall transfer the matter from his Court to the other Court.

Either Judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any probate matter pending in either Court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other Court and there hear and determine any probate matter there pending. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the matter is pending.

The Judges may try different probate matters in the same Court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the courtroom of the other. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either Judge, the other Judge may hold court for him in any probate matter. Either of the Judges may hear any part of or question in any probate matter pending in either of the Courts and determine the matter or question. Either Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

In any matter transferred by order of the Judge of one of the Courts, all process, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the matter shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the matter shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the Court to which the matter is transferred to as are fixed by law and by this Act. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the matter as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer may be made.

Sec. 7. The County Court at Law of Cameron County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of Court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of said Court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of said Court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Cameron County by the qualified voters thereof at each general election a Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. No person shall be elected Judge of said court who has not been a resident citizen and practicing attorney of Cameron County, Texas, for at least one year prior to his election, and shall possess all of the qualifications for the office that are now required by the general laws of the State for County Judge, before entering upon the duties.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Cameron County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court of Cameron County at Law, and shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this bill becomes effective the Governor shall appoint a Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law, who shall hold his office until the next general election.

Sec. 11. In case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Cameron County in any case pending in said court, the County Judge of Cameron County shall sit in such case to hear all matters of such disqualification and the appointment of a Judge to hear such case and the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases; and in default of such agreement, a majority of the practicing lawyers of Cameron County, not less than three, present and voting in open court, shall elect a Special Judge to try such case or cases, and the County Judge hearing such disqualification shall so order.

Sec. 12. The County Court of Cameron County at Law, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court, or of any other court of said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Cameron County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court of Cameron County at Law, and the seal of said court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Cameron County at Law," and the Sheriff of Cameron County shall in person or by deputy attend said court when required by the judge thereof, and the County Clerk of Cameron County, Texas, is hereby authorized, if it becomes necessary, in his judgment, to appoint a deputy to specially attend to the matters pertaining to the County Court of Cameron County at Law, and said deputy shall be allowed a salary of one hundred dollars per month.

Sec. 14. The jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the County Court for the appointment of jury commission and selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court of Cameron County at Law and all petit jurors for criminal¹ under existing laws at the time this act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made, and the persons constituting such juries shall be required to appear and serve at the next ensuing terms of said courts as fixed by this act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid and legal as if they had served as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 15. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law may be filled by the Commissioners' Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 16. The judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law shall receive a salary of not less than Twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) per annum, nor more than Thirty hundred ($3,000.00) dollars per annum at the discretion of the Commissioners' Court, to be paid out of the County Treasury of Cameron County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners' Court of said County, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

Sec. 17. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior courts in Cameron County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court of Cameron County at Law, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 18. The judge of the County Court of Cameron County at Law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

¹ So in enrolled bill. The word "cases" should probably be inserted.

Section 2 of the 1971 amendatory act provided: "In any matter or proceeding within the jurisdiction of both the County Court at Law of Cameron County and the County Court of Cameron County, any transfer from the docket of one court to the docket of the other, exchange of benches by the judges of the two courts or any other similar action authorized by this Act prior to the effective date of this Act is hereby validated."

Art. 1970-305a. Name Changed to County Court at Law of Cameron County

Sec. 1. The name of the "County Court of Cameron County at Law," created by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 59, Acts of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, codified as Article 1970-305 of Vernon's Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, is hereby changed to County Court at Law of Cameron County.

Sec. 2. All laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by the Legislature, applicable or relating to the "County Court of Cameron County at Law" shall hereafter be applicable and relate to the County Court at Law of Cameron County.

Art. 1970-305b. Salary of Judge

The salary of the Judge of the County Court of Law of Cameron County shall be not less than the present salary actually being paid the Judge of the County Court of Law of Cameron County and not more than Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000) to be determined annually by the Commissioners Court of Cameron County. The annual salary provided herein shall be paid in twelve (12) equal installments out of the General Fund or Officers' Salary Fund of Cameron County.

BOWIE COUNTY

Art. 1970-306. Jurisdiction of Bowie County Court Diminished

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Bowie County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of probate courts, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons¹ non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors as prescribed by law, and to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by general law governing County Courts throughout the State; but said County Court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal.

Sec. 2. That the District Courts of said County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, over which, by General Laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and that all cases other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 1 of this Act be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Courts of said County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, other than those appertaining to matters over which by Section 1 of this Act jurisdiction is given to the County Court of said County, be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Courts in and for said County.

Sec. 3. That the Clerk of the County Court of said Bowie County be and he is hereby required, within twenty days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County all original papers in all of said causes, both civil and criminal, and all dockets and orders and proceedings had in all such causes, and said District Clerk shall immediately docket all of such causes on the docket or dockets of the District Courts of said County, and all of such causes, both civil and criminal shall stand on the dockets of said District Courts in the same manner and place as each individual case stood on the docket of the County Court of said County.

KERR COUNTY

Art. 1970-307. Jurisdiction and Time for Holding County Court of Kerr County

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Kerr County shall hereafter have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases where the matter in controversy shall exceed in value two hundred dollars, and shall not exceed five hundred dollars exclusive of interest, and that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the District Court of said County when the matter in controversy shall exceed five hundred dollars and not exceed one thousand dollars.

Sec. 2. Said County Court shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases over which Justice's Courts of said County have original jurisdiction when the judgment of the Court appealed from or the amount in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of interest, and said County Court shall have the power to hear and determine cases brought up from the Justice's Courts by certiorari under the provisions of law relating thereto.

Sec. 3. The County Judge of said County shall have authority either in term time or in vacation, to grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, garnishment, attachment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and shall also have power to issue writs of habeas corpus in all cases in which the Constitution and laws have not exclusively conferred the power on the District Judge or District Court thereof.

Sec. 4. Said Court shall have, as now, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons; apprentice minors as provided by law; and to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, orders, and decrees; and generally to exercise all the powers in probate matters conferred upon such courts by the Constitution and laws of the State.

Sec. 5. Such Court shall have jurisdiction in the forfeiture of all bonds and recognizances taken in criminal cases of which said Court has original or appellate jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. Said Court shall have and exercise exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and except misdemeanors in which the highest penalty that may be imposed by law is a fine, without imprisonment, that does not exceed two hundred dollars; and said Court shall have appellate jurisdiction of criminal cases in which Justice Courts and other inferior tribunals of said County have original jurisdiction.

Sec. 7. The District Court of said County shall no longer have jurisdiction of misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and shall no longer have jurisdiction of civil cases of which the County Court of said County, by the provisions of this Act, has original or appellate jurisdiction.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of said County, within thirty days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcript of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County, of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court, and to file said transcript together with the original papers in each case, in the County Court of said County, and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 9. The said Court shall also have the power to hear and determine all motions against sheriffs and other officers of the Court for failure to pay over moneys collected under the process of said Court, or other defalcations of official duty in connection with said process, and shall have power to punish by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the County jail not exceeding three days, any person guilty of contempt of said Court, and all other powers, and jurisdictions conferred on County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 10. The terms of said Court shall commence on the first Monday in February, and on the first Monday in May, and on the first Monday in August, and on the first Monday in November, in each year, and shall continue in session for three weeks at each term, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the County Commissioners' Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said Court whenever it may be deemed necessary. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 254, ch. 96.]

WASHINGTON COUNTY

Art. 1970-308. Jurisdiction of Washington County Court

Sec. 1. The county court of Washington County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justices' courts in all civil matters which by the general laws of this State is conferred upon said justice of the peace courts.

Sec. 2. Said county court shall also have and exercise such jurisdiction over and pertaining to all matters, things and proceedings as is by the General Laws of this State conferred upon county courts.

Sec. 3. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said county court in civil cases of which said court has appellate jurisdiction or original concurrent jurisdiction with the justices' court where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deprive the justices' courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law or in any manner to impair or alter their jurisdiction, but only to give original concurrent jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in Section 1 of this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justices' court to said county court in any case originally brought in any justice court where the right of appeal now exists by General law.

OFFICIAL SHORTHAND REPORTERS

Art. 1970-309. Reporters and Compensation

That the Official Shorthand Reporters of the County Courts at Law of each county having a population of not less than 202,000 and not more than 203,000, according to the 14th Census of the United States of the year 1920, shall, from and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, be entitled to receive the same fee allowed the Official Shorthand Reporters of the District Courts, and, in addition thereto, shall be entitled to receive a salary of Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars, annually, to be paid in equal monthly installments by said county by warrants drawn from the general funds thereof, out of the County Treasury by the orders of the Commissioners' Court.

POTTER COUNTY

Art. 1970-311. Jurisdiction of Potter County Court at Law Diminished; Transfer of Causes to County Court and Justice Court

Sec. 2. All causes of action pending in the County Court of Potter County at Law on the effective date of this Act over which the County Court of Potter County would have had jurisdiction under general law had it not been for the creation of said County Court of Potter County at Law, are hereby transferred to the County Court of Potter County, and all process, writs, and bonds, civil and criminal, issued in said causes prior to and executed subsequent to the taking effect of this Act, shall be returnable to the County Court of Potter County. And all bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the County Court of Potter County at Law shall bind the parties for their appearance and to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of the County Court of Potter County; and all process of every nature heretofore issued and returned or executed prior to the taking effect of this Act and returned before or after the taking effect of this Act, as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore or hereafter taken or entered into in the County Court of Potter County at Law, shall all likewise be as valid and binding in the County Court of Potter County as they would have been in the County Court of Potter County at Law had this Act not been passed.

Sec. 3. All causes of action pending in the County Court of Potter County at Law over which any Justice Court of Potter County would have had jurisdiction under general law had it not been for the creation of said County Court of Potter County at Law, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the proper Justice Court, and all process, writs, and bonds, civil and criminal, issued prior to and/or executed subsequent to the taking effect of this Act out of such causes, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the proper Justice Court. And all bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the County Court of Potter County at Law in such cases shall bind the parties for their appearance and to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of the proper Justice Court to which said causes are hereby transferred, and all process of every nature whatsoever issued in said causes as well as all bonds and recognizances, shall all likewise be valid and binding in such Justice Court as they would have been in the County Court of Potter County at Law had this Act not been passed.

Art. 1970-311a. County Court at Law of Potter County Created, etc.

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Amarillo, Potter County, Texas which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Potter County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Potter County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Potter County, in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this state, County Courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Potter County, Texas as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain, which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the judge of Potter County.

With the consent of the other, the judge of either of such courts shall have the power to transfer to the other court any case over which the courts have concurrent jurisdiction pending upon the docket of his court except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Potter County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil matters which by the General Laws of this state is conferred upon Justice Courts. Neither the County Court at Law of Potter County nor the judge thereof shall have jurisdiction to act as a coroner nor to preside at inquests, nor have jurisdiction of claims which come within the jurisdiction of the Small Claims Court as prescribed by Article 2460a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of the County Court at Law of Potter County in civil cases of which said court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law of Potter County over such matters as are specified in this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of an appeal to the County Court at Law of Potter County from the Justice Court, where the right of appeals to the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Potter County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said court, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by General Law governing County Courts throughout the state. The County Judge of Potter County shall be the judge of the County Court of Potter County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Potter County except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Potter County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Potter County.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Potter County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County. No person shall be elected or appointed judge of the court who is not a resident citizen of Potter County. He shall also be a licensed attorney of the State of Texas and shall have been a licensed attorney of the State of Texas for at least two years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such judge shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Potter County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Potter County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Potter County shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 13. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 14. In the case of the disqualification of the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 13 of this Act.

Sec. 15. The County Court at Law of Potter County, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Potter County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Potter County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Potter County."

Sec. 17. The sheriff of Potter County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Potter County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 18. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Potter County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Potter County and the judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County and the judge of the County Court of Potter County jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 19. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 20. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall receive the same salary and be paid from the same fund and in the same manner as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the County Judge of Potter County, to be paid out by the County Treasurer of Potter County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said county, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 21. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 22. The judge of the County Court at Law of Potter County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Potter County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Potter County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 23. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Potter County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Potter County.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 219, ch. 56.]

GILLESPIE COUNTY

Art. 1970-312. Jurisdiction of County Court of Gillespie County Increased

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Gillespie County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for county courts.

Sec. 2. This act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the District Court of Gillespie County shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Gillespie County shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said County Court in civil cases, of which said Court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with Justices Courts, where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justices Court of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said County Court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of the State.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Gillespie County, Texas, within thirty (30) days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil docket then pending in the District Court of said County of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original or appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case in the County Court of said County and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said County Court of Gillespie County shall commence on the first Monday in January, first Monday in April, first Monday in July and first Monday in October each year and each of said terms shall continue in session for three weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; providing that the Commissioners Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said Court and the length of the terms whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners Court.

DUVAL COUNTY

Art. 1970-313. Jurisdiction of County Court of Duval County Increased

Sec. 1. The county court of Duval County shall, from and after the passage of this Act have, as now, general jurisdiction of the probate court and generally exercise all powers in probate matters conferred upon such courts by the Constitution and laws of the State, and keep and maintain all jurisdiction which it now has and exercises in all civil matters.

Sec. 2. Said court shall also have and exercise exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and except misdemeanors in which the highest penalty which may be imposed by law is a fine without imprisonment and does not exceed Two Hundred ($200) Dollars, and shall have appellate jurisdiction of all criminal cases in which justice courts and other inferior tribunals of said county have original jurisdiction, and the district court of said county shall no longer have jurisdiction of misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct.

Sec. 3. That Chapter 3, of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Twenty-sixth Legislature be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. The district clerk of Duval County is hereby required within thirty days after this Act takes effect, to make a full and complete transcript of all entries upon the criminal docket of said court in cases now pending therein, which, under this Act, are now within the jurisdiction of the county court, and shall transfer all such cases, together with the papers pertaining thereto, and a certified bill of the costs in each case, to the county clerk of Duval County, and all such cases shall be immediately docketed by the county clerk; all such cases so transferred from the district court to the county court shall stand on the docket of said court as appearance cases for the next succeeding term and shall be docketed and disposed of in the same manner as if same had been originally filed in the county court and all processes now issued and returnable to said district court shall be returnable to said county court; all processes heretofore issued by the district court in said cases as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore taken in the district court shall be as valid as though no change had been made as to the jurisdiction of said respective courts, and all bonds executed and recognizances entered in said district court shall bind the parties for their appearance to the next term of the county court after this law becomes effective.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the district court of Duval County in causes, which by this Act, are transferred to the county court of said county, and the district clerk of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and the proceedings thereunder shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though this Act had not been passed.

Sec. 1. The County Court of Red River County, Texas, shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of Probate Courts, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors as prescribed by law, and to exercise jurisdiction over all matters of eminent domain over which the County Courts have jurisdiction under the General Laws of this State, and shall enter orders providing for the support of deserted wives and children or both, pendente lite, and may punish for the violation or refusal to obey such order as for contempt; and to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts under such provisions as are, or may be, provided by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State; and said County Court shall also have original concurrent jurisdiction with the District Court of said County in all juvenile delinquency proceedings and in all criminal cases of which County Courts throughout the State, under the General Laws of the State, have original jurisdiction; but said County Court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal.

Sec. 2. The District Court of said County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil or criminal, over which, by General Laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said County shall have jurisdiction; and that said District Court shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction over all criminal cases appealed from the Justice Courts of said County; and that all criminal cases, now on the docket of the County Court of Red River County, Texas, which have been appealed from the Justice Courts of said County be, and the same are hereby, transferred to the District Court of said County; and writs and processes heretofore issued out of or by said County Court in such cases be, and the same are, hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court of said County.

Sec. 3. That the Clerk of the County Court of Red River County, Texas, be, and he is hereby, required, within ten (10) days after this Act becomes effective, to make full and complete transcripts of all of the entries on his criminal docket heretofore made in those criminal cases which have been appealed from Justice Courts of said County, which by Section 2 hereof are transferred to the District Court of said County, and file the same, together with all original papers of all of said causes and proceedings, with the Clerk of the District Court of said County; and all of such causes under this Act transferred to the District Court shall be immediately docketed by the Clerk of said Court and shall stand on the docket of said Court as other cases which have been originally filed in the District Court of said County.

Sec. 4. The following laws are repealed: Chapter 498, Acts of the 44th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 1936; Chapter 457, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937; and Chapter 23, page 196, General Laws, Acts of the 46th Legislature, 1939 (Article 1970-314, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY

Art. 1970-315. Jurisdiction of County Court of Collingsworth Increased

Sec. 1. The County Court of Collingsworth County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice courts in all civil matters which by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon said justice of the peace courts.

Sec. 2. Said County Court of Collingsworth County shall also have and exercise such jurisdiction over and pertaining to all matters, things and proceedings as is by the General Laws of this State conferred upon county courts.

Sec. 3. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment in said County Court in civil cases of which said court has appellate jurisdiction, or original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice's court where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deprive the justice courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, or in any manner to impair or alter their jurisdiction, but only to give original concurrent jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in Section 1 of this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the justice's court to said county court in any case originally brought in a justice court where the right of appeal now exists by general law.

STERLING COUNTY

Art. 1970-316. Jurisdiction of Sterling County Increased

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Sterling County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for county records.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise, or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said County shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the District Court of Sterling County shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of the State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Sterling County shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justices Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said Court in civil cases, of which Court has appellate, original, or concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justices Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said County Court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court, where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of this State.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Sterling County, Texas, within thirty (30) days after this Act shall take effect to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case, in the County Court of said County and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said Courts shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May, and on the first Monday in August, and the first Monday in November of each year, and each of said terms shall continue in session for six weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; provided that the County Commissioners Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said Court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby expressly repealed in so far as they relate to Sterling County, Texas.

GILLESPIE COUNTY

Art. 1970-318. Gillespie County Court; Probate Jurisdiction Conferred; Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction Diminished

Sec. 1. That hereafter the County Court of Gillespie County, Texas, shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court; shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians and transact all business pertaining to estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition and distribution and settlement of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as required by law and all matters of eminent domain over which the County Courts have jurisdiction under the General Laws of this State; and to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction; and to punish contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by General Law covering County Courts throughout the State; but said County Court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal.

Sec. 2. That the District Court or Courts of said County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, over which, by the General Laws of this State, the County Court would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 1 of this Act and excepting all causes and matters, civil and criminal, over which by the General Laws of the State, the Justice Courts of said County would have jurisdiction; and that all causes, other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 1, be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court or Courts of said County; and writs and processes, civil and criminal, heretofore issued out or by said County Court other than those pertaining to matters which by Section 1 of this Act, jurisdiction is given to the County Court, be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court or Courts of said County.

Sec. 3. That the Clerk of the County Court of Gillespie County, Texas, be and he is hereby required immediately after this Act becomes effective, to make full and complete transcripts of all the entries on his dockets, civil and criminal, heretofore made in causes, which by Section 2 are transferred to the District Court or Courts of said County, and file the same, together with all original papers of all of said causes and proceedings with the Clerk of the District Court or Courts of said County which shall include all judgments, both civil and criminal, that remain uncollected and not satisfied; and for the purpose of carrying into effect this Act, the Court having jurisdiction of such matters shall have full and ample power to enforce the same by issuing execution or other process required by law and all of such causes under this Act transferred to the District Court, shall be immediately docketed by the Clerk of said Court, and shall stand on the dockets of said Courts as appearance cases for the next term of said Court; for each of said transcripts, the County Clerk shall receive Twenty-five (25) Cents per one hundred (100) words, and Fifty (50) Cents for certificate thereto to be taxed against the party cast in the suit, if a civil suit and if criminal, against the defendant if convicted.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed in any wise or in any manner as affecting judgments rendered by the County Court pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the District Court but the Clerk of the District Court of said County shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made in this Act.

Art. 1970-318a. Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction Restored

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Gillespie County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for county courts.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which, by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the District Court of Gillespie County shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Gillespie County shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon county courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the justices courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon justices courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said court in civil cases, of which court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with the justices courts, where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the justices courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the justice court to said county court in any case originally brought in the justice court, where the right to appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of the State.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Gillespie County, Texas, within thirty (30) days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said county of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said county court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case in the county court of said county and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said county court as appearance cases for trial by said court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said courts shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May, and on the first Monday in August, and the first Monday in November, of each year; and each of said terms shall continue in session for six weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the County Commissioners Court of said county may hereafter change the terms of said court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners Court.

KENDALL COUNTY

Art. 1970-319. County Court of Kendall County; Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Kendall County shall hereafter have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases where the matter in controversy shall exceed in value two hundred dollars ($200.00) and shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) exclusive of interest and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court of said county when the matter in controversy shall exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) and not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

Sec. 2. Said county court shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases over which justices' court have original jurisdiction when the judgment of the court appealed from or the amount in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars ($20.00), and said county court shall have power to hear and determine cases brought up from the justice's court by certiorari under the provisions of the title of the Revised Civil Statutes relating thereto.

Sec. 3. The county judge of said county shall have authority, either in term time or vacation, to grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, garnishment, attachment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and shall also have power to issue writs of habeas corpus in all cases in which the Constitution has not exclusively conferred the power on the district court or judge thereof.

Sec. 4. Said county court shall have jurisdiction in the forfeiture and judgment of all bonds and recognizances taken in criminal cases of which criminal cases said court has jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. Said county court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and except cases in which the highest penalty or fine that may be imposed under the law may not exceed two hundred dollars, and said courts shall also have appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases of which justices of the peace and other inferior tribunals of said county have jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. The District Court of Kendall County shall no longer have jurisdiction of cases of which the county court of said county by the provisions of this Act has exclusive original or appellate jurisdiction, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court of said county within thirty days from the passage of this Act to make a full and complete transcript of all orders on his dockets in cases now pending before said district court of which cases by the terms of this Act exclusive jurisdiction is given to the county court, and to deliver said transcripts, together with the original papers and a certified bill of costs, to the clerk of said county court, and said county clerk shall enter said case or cases on his dockets for trial by said county court.

Sec. 7. The county court of said county shall hereafter hold its regular terms for civil and criminal business as provided in the Constitution and General Laws of the State, and process heretofore issued from the district court of said county in cases to be transferred under this Act to the county court shall be returnable to the first term of the county court, and all civil cases transferred shall be entered as appearance cases upon the dockets of said county court.

Sec. 8. The county court of said Kendall County shall have, as now, the general jurisdiction of probate courts for the probate of wills, appointments of guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, and for the issuance of letters testamentary and of administration, settlement of accounts of administrators and guardians and the settlement of distribution of decedent's estates, and the apprenticeship of minors, and all other necessary powers conferred by law on courts of probate.

Sec. 9. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed.

GLASSCOCK COUNTY

Art. 1970-320. Glasscock County Court; Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction Diminished

Sec. 1. The County Court of Glasscock County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle the accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians, transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors as provided by law, and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provisions as are now or may be provided by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State, but the said County Court of Glasscock County shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, whatsoever.

Sec. 2. That the District Court of Glasscock County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters and causes over which, by the laws of this State, the County Court of said Glasscock County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 1 of this Act; all causes other than probate matters and such as are provided by Section 1 of this Act be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court of Glasscock County, and all writs and process relating to any civil or criminal matters included in the subject matter of jurisdiction prescribed in Section 1 of this Act, issued by or out of said County Court of Glasscock County, be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court of said County after this Act takes effect.

Sec. 3. That the County Clerk of Glasscock County be and he is hereby required, within thirty (30) days after this Act takes effect, to make a full and complete transcript of all entries upon his civil and criminal docket heretofore made in cases which by Section 2 of this Act are required to be transferred to the District Court of said County, together with all the papers pertaining to such cases, a certified bill of costs in each case, and all cases shall be immediately docketed by the District Court as appearance cases for the next succeeding term, and all criminal cases shall be docketed and disposed of in the same manner as if the same had been originally filed in and triable in said District Court, and all process now issued and returnable to said County Court shall be returnable to said District Court.

Sec. 4. That this Act shall not be construed to in anywise or manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by said County Court of Glasscock County pertaining to matters and causes which by Section 2 of this Act are transferred to the District Court of said County, but the County Clerk of said County shall issue all executions, and orders of sale, and proceedings thereunder, and this Act in so doing shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes, the same as if no change had been made as by Section 2 therein contemplated.

STEPHENS COUNTY

Art. 1970-321. Stephens County Court; Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction Diminished

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Stephens County shall retain and continue to have and exercise the general jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, and the general jurisdiction of Probate Courts, and all jurisdiction other than in civil and criminal matters, jurisdiction of which is here conferred on the District Court of Stephens County, Texas, now or hereafter conferred upon such County Court by the Constitution and Laws of the State, and shall retain all jurisdiction and power to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts; but said County Court shall have no civil or criminal jurisdiction, except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2 hereof.

Sec. 2. That the District Court having jurisdiction in said Stephens County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and cases of a civil and criminal nature, whether the same be of original jurisdiction or of appellate jurisdiction, over which, by the General Laws of the State of Texas now existing and hereinafter enacted, the County Court of said County would have had jurisdiction, and that all pending civil and criminal cases be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court for the Ninetieth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Stephens County, Texas, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in said civil or criminal cases be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court, in and for the Ninetieth Judicial District of Texas, sitting in Stephens County, Texas. Provided, however, that there shall not be transferred to said District Court jurisdiction over any judgments, even in civil or criminal cases, rendered prior to the time this Act takes effect and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by execution, order of sale, or other appropriate process. Provided further, however, that as to any civil or criminal case on appeal from said County Court, should a judgment be entered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court, or the Court of Criminal Appeals, remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to the District Court of Stephens County, Texas, and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case shall thereafter vest in the District Court sitting in and having jurisdiction of Stephens County, Texas.

Sec. 3. That the County Attorney of Stephens County, Texas, shall represent the State in all misdemeanor cases before the District Court of Stephens County, Texas, and shall receive therefor the same fees to which he would be entitled under the law as County Attorney had said cases been tried in the County Court.

Sec. 4. That the Clerk of the County Court of said Stephens County be and is hereby required, within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County, all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Court, and all Judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the Minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred, and the District Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the said District Court for the Ninetieth Judicial District of Texas, and all such cases shall stand on the docket of said Court in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. Provided, further, that it shall not be necessary that the District Clerk refile any papers theretofore filed by the County Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the County Clerk, prior to the time of said transfer, shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the District Clerk. Said County Clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost, and against all cost deposits, if any, the County Clerk shall charge accrued fees due him, and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the District Court as a deposit in the particular case for which same was deposited. Credit shall also be given the litigants for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

MARION COUNTY

Art. 1970-322. County Court of Marion County; Jurisdiction in Criminal Matters; Fee of County Judge

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction heretofore conferred by law upon the County Court of Marion County, Texas, and the County Judge of Marion County, Texas, the said County Court shall have jurisdiction within Marion County of all criminal matters and causes of misdemeanor over which the District Court of Marion County, Texas, now has jurisdiction, and the jurisdiction of said Courts over such matters shall be concurrent, provided that the jurisdiction of the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall be and remain as now fixed by law and be in nowise affected by this Act; and provided further, that the jurisdiction hereby conferred upon the County Judge of Marion County, Texas, shall extend to and only to those cases in which pleas of guilty are entered by the defendant in any cases of misdemeanor filed in said Court.

Sec. 2. The County Judge of Marion County, Texas, shall receive a fee of Three Dollars ($3) for each and every case tried before him in which a plea of guilty is entered, and the fees of the other officers of the Court shall be and remain as is now provided by the laws of this State.

Art. 1970-322a. County Court of Marion County; Concurrent Jurisdiction of Certain Criminal Matters

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction heretofore conferred by law upon the County Court of Marion County, Texas, and the County Judge of Marion County, Texas, the said County Court shall have jurisdiction within Marion County of all criminal matters and causes of misdemeanor over which the District Court of Marion County, Texas, now has jurisdiction, and the jurisdiction of said Courts over such matters shall be concurrent, provided that the jurisdiction of the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall be and remain as now fixed by law and be in nowise affected by this Act; and provided further, that the jurisdiction hereby conferred upon the County Judge of Marion County, Texas, shall extend to and only to those cases in which pleas of guilty are entered by the defendant in any cases of misdemeanor filed in said Court.

Sec. 3. The County Judge of Marion County, Texas, shall receive a fee of Three ($3.00) Dollars for each and every misdemeanor case tried before him, and the fees of the other officers of the court shall be and remain as is now provided by the laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The County Attorney of Marion County shall represent the state in all misdemeanor cases before the District Court of Marion County, Texas, and shall receive the same compensation to which he would be entitled under the law as county attorney had said cases been tried in the county court.

[Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 214, ch. 121; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 519, ch. 181, §§ 1, 3, eff. May 9, 1969.]

Section 2 of the Act of 1947 provided that "The Clerk of the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall, and is hereby required within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect, to file with the Clerk of the County Court of said county, all the original misdemeanor cases, judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgments or other orders entered in the minutes of the District Court in said causes so transferred; and the County Clerk of Marion County, Texas, shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the District Court. It shall not be necessary that the County Clerk shall re-file any papers theretofore filed by the District Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of the same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the District Clerk prior to the time of said transfer, shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed, without being re-filed by the County Clerk. Said District Clerk, in cases so transferred, shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost, and against all cost deposits, if any, the District Clerk shall charge accrued fees due him, and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the County Clerk as a deposit in the particular case for which the same was deposited. Credit shall also be given the litigants for all jury fees paid in the District Court."

Section 2 of the amendatory act of 1969 provided:

"(a) All misdemeanor cases, except those in which pleas of guilty were filed, docketed in the County Court of Marion County, Texas, prior to the effective date of this Act shall be transferred to the docket of the District Court of Marion County, Texas. The Judge of the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall have the power to try all cases and determine all ancillary matters as if the cases had been originally filed in that court.

"(b) All writs and processes issued prior to the effective date of this Act, by the County Court of Marion County, Texas, in cases transferred to the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall be returnable to the district court as if issued from that court.

"(c) All bonds returnable to the County Court of Marion County, Texas, in cases transferred to the District Court of Marion County, Texas, shall be returnable to the court to which the case is transferred."

PANOLA COUNTY

Art. 1970-323. Repealed by Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 42, ch. 31, § 7

Art. 1970-323a. Panola County Court; Panola District Court; Jurisdiction; Transfer of Dockets

Sec. 1. The County Court of Panola County, Texas, from and after the effective date of this Act, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all probate, civil and criminal matters, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and the general law governing county Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 2. That the District Court of Panola County, Texas, shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction, both original and appellate, in all civil and criminal matters and causes, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and in the general law governing the jurisdiction of district Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 3. All causes pending in the County Court of Panola County and in the District Court of Panola County, the jurisdiction of which is changed by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby transferred in conformity with the provisions of this Act to the Court having jurisdiction of such cause under the provisions hereof, and all writs and process relating to such causes which have been issued by or out of either of said Courts shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the Court having jurisdiction of said cause under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Panola County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court of Panola County, and the Clerk of the District Court of said County shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the County Court of Panola County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the District Court of Panola County, and the Clerk of the County Court of said County shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed by this Act.

Sec. 6. The clerks of the respective Courts shall transfer the dockets of all cases the jurisdiction of which is changed by the provisions of this Act to the Court having such jurisdiction after the effective date of this Act, and shall transfer all Court papers and do such other things as may be necessary to fully transfer all said causes and matters to the Court having jurisdiction of same under the provisions of this Act.

TRAVIS COUNTY

Art. 1970-324. County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County

Sec. 1. That there is hereby created a Court to be held in Austin, Travis County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, in lieu of the present County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction; and all cases pending in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, and of the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge or in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas; and such County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall exercise and have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court or County Judge or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, as to all probate matters.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain, as heretofore, jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters; but such jurisdiction shall hereafter be concurrent as herein provided; but the County Court of said County as now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters civil or criminal. The County Judge of Travis County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Travis County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act or otherwise be committed exclusively to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, now or hereafter created.

Sec. 4. The County Judge of Travis County, in his discretion, may from time to time, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the County Court of Travis County transfer to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or to any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, any such probate matter or proceeding then pending in the County Court of Travis County and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, having jurisdiction thereof, now or hereafter created, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County and any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court and the jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law over probate matters.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall be held in the Courthouse of Travis County as follows, to wit: Beginning on the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September and November in each year, and each term of said Court shall continue in session until the convening of the next succeeding term. The practice in said Court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by the laws of this state relating to County Courts except as herein expressly provided.

Sec. 6. The present Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall serve as the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, until the General Election in 1966 and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. The person elected Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, at the General Election in 1966 shall serve for a term of four (4) years, and there shall be elected every four (4) years thereafter a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, must be a qualified voter in Travis County, must be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this state, and must be a resident of Travis County, Texas, who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than four (4) years next preceding the General Election.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the same compensation per day for each day he so actually serves as the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, to be paid out of the General Funds of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court of Travis County, Texas, shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 10. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County is disqualified.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge or Judge of any County Court at Law may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. When either party to a civil case pending in the County Court or County Court at Law No. 1, or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, applies therefor, the Judge thereof shall appoint a competent stenographer, to report the oral testimony given in such case. Such stenographer shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive not less than Ten Dollars ($10) per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases, the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the Court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil cases tried in said Court, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in District Court and the use of same on appeal, shall apply to civil cases tried in said Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of concurrent or inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the justice courts and other inferior courts in Travis County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, or to any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Travis County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County. The seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law

No. 1 of Travis County." The Sheriff of Travis County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Travis County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, and he shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecution in the County Courts.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Travis County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall be exercised by said County Court at Law No. 1 or by any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, but juries summoned for either or any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to any of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Art. 1970-324a. County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County

Sec. 1. That there is hereby created a Court to be held in Austin, Travis County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, in addition to the present County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas. The effective date of this Act shall be January 1, 1964.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction and all cases pending in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, and of the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge or in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas; and such County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, shall exercise and have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court or County Judge or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, as to all probate matters.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain, as heretofore, jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters; and such jurisdiction shall hereafter be concurrent as herein provided; but the County Court of said County as now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters civil or criminal. The County Judge of Travis County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Travis County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act or otherwise be committed exclusively to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, now or hereafter created.

Sec. 4. The County Judge of Travis County, in his discretion, may from time to time, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the County Court of Travis County transfer to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County or any other County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, any such probate matter or proceeding then pending in the County Court of Travis County and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County or any other County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, until otherwise provided by law, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County or any other such County Court at Law of Travis County. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County and any other County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court and of jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law over probate matters.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County shall be held in the courthouse of Travis County as follows, to-wit: Beginning on the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September, and November in each year, and each term of said Court shall continue in session until the convening of the next succeeding term. The practice in said Court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts, except as herein expressly provided.

Sec. 6. The present Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, shall serve as the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, until the General Election in 1966 and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. The person elected Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, at the General Election in 1966 shall serve for a term of four (4) years, and there shall be elected every four (4) years thereafter a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas, must be a qualified voter in Travis County, Texas, must be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this state, and must be a resident of Travis County, Texas, who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than four (4) years next preceding the General Election.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law for Special Judges of County Courts or County Courts at Law, whichever is the greater, to be paid out of the general funds of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court of Travis County, Texas, shall provide a suitable quarters for the holding of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 10. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County is disqualified. Otherwise, a Special Judge may be appointed or elected as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for County Judges or for Judges of County Courts at Law.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge or Judge of a County Court at Law may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 12. When either party to a civil case pending in the County Court or County Court at Law No. 2, or any other County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, applies therefor, the Judge thereof shall appoint a competent stenographer, to report the oral testimony given in such case. Such stenographer shall take the oath required of official Court reporters, and shall receive not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases, the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the Court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil cases tried in said Courts, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in District Courts and the use of same on appeal, shall apply to civil cases tried in said Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of concurrent or inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the Justice Courts and other inferior Courts in Travis County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, or to any other County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created until otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Travis County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County. The seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County." The Sheriff of Travis

County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Travis County shall represent the state in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, and he shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecution in the County Courts.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Travis County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall be exercised by said County Court at Law No. 2 or by any other County Court at Law of Travis County, but juries summoned for either or any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to any of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Art. 1970-324b. Exchange of Benches of County Courts at Law of Travis County

The Judge of each of the County Courts at Law of Travis County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any cause, civil or criminal, on his docket, to the docket of the other County Court at Law; and the Judges of said Courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time; and whenever a Judge of one of said Courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case from his Court to the other County Court at Law, and either Judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either County Court at Law, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other County Court at Law and there hear and determine any case there pending; and each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending; and the Judges may try different cases in the same Court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any County Court at Law. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either Judge of the County Courts at Law, the other Judge of the County Court at Law may hold Court for him. Either of said Judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of said County Courts at Law and determine the same or may hear and determine any question in any case and either Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in said case. In cases transferred to any one of the County Courts at Law by order of the Judge of one of said Courts, all process, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in said cases shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in said cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the Court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law and by this Act. And all processes issued or returned before transfer of said cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in said cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made.

Art. 1970-324c. Practice of Law by Judges of County Courts at Law of Travis County

The Judges of the County Court at Law No. 1 and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County, Texas shall not engage in the private practice of law while holding the office of judge of said courts.

Art. 1970-324d. Eminent Domain Cases in Travis County

Sec. 1. The County Courts at Law shall have concurrent original jurisdiction over eminent domain proceedings with the County Court of Travis County and the administrative and ministerial jurisdiction to file and dispose of proceedings in eminent domain concurrently and coextensively with the County Court and other County Courts at Law of Travis County now or hereafter created.

Sec. 2. Eminent domain cases filed in Travis County shall be assigned in rotation to the County Courts at Law by the County Clerk.

OFFICIAL INTERPRETERS

Art. 1970-325. Official Interpreters for County Courts at Law

Sec. 1. The judge of the County Court at Law of any county having a County Court at Law, is authorized to appoint an official interpreter for such County Court at Law. And the County Commissioners shall by resolution fix the salary of said official interpreter and provide for the payment of such salary, and shall prescribe the duties of such official interpreter.

Sec. 2. The judge of the County Court at Law shall have authority to terminate such employment of such interpreter at any time.

Sec. 3. The official interpreter so appointed by the judge of the County Court at Law shall take the constitutional oath of office, and in addition thereto shall make oath that as such official interpreter he will faithfully interpret all testimony given in the County Court at Law, and which oath shall suffice for his service as official interpreter of such court in all cases before such court during his term of office.

NAVARRO COUNTY

Art. 1970-326. County Court of Navarro County; Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. The County Court of Navarro County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such courts; to conduct lunacy hearings; to apprentice minors, as provided by law; and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provision as now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State; but neither said County Court of Navarro County, nor the Judge thereof, shall have any jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain, or other original civil jurisdiction; and the said County Court of Navarro County shall have criminal jurisdiction under such provisions as are now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State; and said County Court shall have such appellate jurisdiction, save as to eminent domain, as is now or may hereafter be given it by law; provided, however, that all future statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, shall be operative in said Navarro County, as fully as though this statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. That the District Court of Navarro County and the presiding judge thereof shall have and exercise original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and in all civil matters and causes over which, by the laws of this State, the County Court of Navarro County would have had original jurisdiction, but for the provisions set out in Section 1 of this Act: all causes, other than probate matters, criminal matters and cases appealed from the Justice of the Peace Courts, as are provided in Section 1 of this Act shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court of Navarro County, and all writs and process relating to such civil matters and causes included in the subject matter of jurisdiction prescribed in this Act, issued by or out of said County Court of Navarro County be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court of said County after this Act takes effect.

Sec. 3. That the County Clerk of Navarro County be and he is hereby required, within thirty days after this Act takes effect, to make a full and complete transcript of all entries upon his civil docket heretofore made in cases which by Section 2 of this Act are required to be transferred to the District Court of said County, to prepare a certified bill of costs in each case, and to transmit the same together with all the papers pertaining to such cases to the Clerk of the District Court of said county; all such cases shall be immediately docketed by the District Clerk as appearance cases for the next succeeding term of such District Court, and all process now issued and returnable to said County Court shall be returnable to said District Court.

Sec. 4. That this Act shall not be construed to in anywise or manner affect final judgments heretofore rendered by said County Court of Navarro County pertaining to matters and causes which by Section 2 of this Act are transferred to the District Court of said County; but such County Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce said final judgments and the County Clerk of said County shall issue all writs of execution and orders of sale, and proceedings thereunder, and his act in so doing shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes, the same as if no change had been made as set out in Section 2.

MORRIS COUNTY

Art. 1970-328. County Court of Morris County; Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction heretofore conferred by law upon the County Court of Morris County, Texas, and the County Judge of Morris County, Texas, the said County Court shall have jurisdiction within Morris County of all criminal matters and causes of misdemeanor or over which the District Court of Morris County, Texas, now has jurisdiction, and the jurisdiction of said courts over such matters shall be concurrent; provided that the jurisdiction of the District Court of Morris County, Texas, shall be and remain as now fixed by law and be in nowise affected by this Act; and provided further, that the jurisdiction hereby conferred upon the County Judge of Morris County, Texas, shall extend to and only to those cases in which pleas of guilty are entered by the defendant in any cases of misdemeanor filed in said court.

Sec. 2. The County Judge of Morris County, Texas, shall receive a fee of Three ($3.00) Dollars for each and every case tried before him in which a plea of guilty is entered, and the fees of the other officers of the Court shall be and remain as is now provided by the laws of this state.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 411, ch. 278.]

POWERS

Art. 1970-329. Judge of County Court at Law in Counties Under 500,000 May Act for County Judge in Certain Cases

Sec. 1. That the Judge of any County Court at Law in any county having a population of less than five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding, or any future Federal Census, may act for the County Judge of the county in any juvenile, lunacy, probate and condemnation proceeding or matter and also may perform for the County Judge any and all other ministerial acts required by the laws of this State of the County Judge, during the absence, inability or failure of the County Judge for any reason to perform such duties; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Court at Law, while acting for the County Judge, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such proceedings or matters the same as if performed by the County Judge. Provided that the powers thus given the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State shall extend to and include all powers of the County Judge except his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the county, as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court and as the budget officer for the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 2. That the absence, inability or failure of the County Judge to perform any of the duties hereinabove set forth shall be certified by the County Judge or the Commissioners Court to the Judge of any such County Court at Law, and when such certification is for the purpose of conferring powers to do some judicial act, such certificate shall be spread upon the minutes of the appropriate Court.

Sec. 3. That notwithstanding the additional powers and duties conferred upon the Judges of the County Courts at Law of this State no additional compensation or salary shall be paid to them, but the compensation or salary of such Judges of the County Courts at Law shall remain the same as now, or as may be hereafter, fixed by law.

Sec. 4. That it is not intended by this Act to repeal any law providing for the election and/or appointment of a special County Judge, but this Act shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, such law or laws.

Sec. 5. That if any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, of this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not in any manner affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

TITUS COUNTY

Art. 1970-330. Titus County Court; Jurisdiction Diminished; District Court's Jurisdiction; Prosecutor in Misdemeanor Cases

Sec. 1. The County Court of Titus County shall retain and continue to have and exercise the general jurisdiction of probate courts, and all other jurisdiction now or hereafter conferred by the Constitution and laws of this State, except as is hereinafter provided, and shall retain all jurisdiction and power to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts; but said County Court shall have no civil jurisdiction and no criminal jurisdiction except jurisdiction to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases, and except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2, hereof, and shall have no general jurisdiction in trial of all matters of eminent domain on appeal from the awards of commissioners.

Sec. 2. The district court having jurisdiction in Titus County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and cases of a civil nature and in all matters of a criminal nature, except as to such jurisdiction that the County Court has to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases as is provided in Section 1 hereof, whether the same be of original jurisdiction or of appellate jurisdiction, and shall have the general jurisdiction in trial of all matters of eminent domain on appeal from the awards of commissioners, over which by the General Laws of the State of Texas now existing and hereinafter enacted the County Court of said County would have had jurisdiction and all pending civil and criminal cases and eminent domain appeals from the awards of commissioners, be and the same are, hereby transferred to the district court having jurisdiction in Titus County, Texas, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in all pending civil or criminal cases or eminent domain appeals from the awards of commissioners be, and the same are hereby, made returnable to the district court sitting in Titus County, Texas. However, there shall not be transferred to said district court jurisdiction over any judgments, either in civil, criminal or eminent domain cases, rendered prior to the time this Act takes effect and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by all appropriate process.

Sec. 3. The County Attorney of Titus County shall represent the State in all misdemeanor cases before the District Court of Titus County, and shall receive therefor the same fees to which he would be entitled under the law as County Attorney had said cases been tried in the County Court.

Sec. 4. The Clerk of the County Court of Titus County is, and he is hereby required within twenty (20) days after this Act takes effect to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Court, and all Judge's dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment, or other order entered in the minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred; and the District Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the District Court of Titus County in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. It shall not be necessary that the District Clerk refile any papers theretofore filed by the County Clerk, nor shall he receive any fees for the filing of the same, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the County Clerk, prior to the time of said transfer, shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the District Clerk. Said County Clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost and against all cost deposits, if any, the County Clerk shall charge accrued fees due him, and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the District Clerk as a deposit in the particular case for which the same was deposited. Credit shall also be given the litigants for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

GRAYSON COUNTY

Art. 1970-332. Grayson County; County Court at Law; Jurisdiction; Terms; Judge; Prosecutor; Writs; Clerk and Court Reporter

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Sherman, Grayson County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Grayson County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Grayson County shall have and exercise the jurisdiction in all matters and cases, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction except as herein provided in Section 3 of this Act, and all cases pending in the County Court of said County, other than probate matters such as are provided in Section 3 of this Act, at the time this Act shall become effective, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law of Grayson County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the said County Court other than those pertaining to matters which are hereby exempt from this Act that are to remain in the County Court of Grayson County shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law of Grayson County.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Grayson County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the General Laws of this State are conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court at Law of Grayson County in civil cases of which said Court has appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the said County Court at Law of Grayson County over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal to the County Court at Law of Grayson County from the Justice Court where the right of appeal to the County Court now exists by law. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court of Grayson County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court nor of the County Judge of Grayson County as presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, or matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge of the County Court of Grayson County.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Grayson County shall have and retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and all jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, and the Court herein created shall have no other jurisdiction than that named in this Act, and the County Court of Grayson County as now and heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law of Grayson County in this Act, but the County Court now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Grayson County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Grayson County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law of Grayson County.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, and the practice therein, and the appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Grayson County shall be held in the Courthouse of Grayson County, and shall begin on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October and December of each year, and shall continue in session until the Saturday before the first Monday in April, June, August, October, December and February of each year.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Grayson County by the qualified voters thereof at each general election a Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, who shall be a qualified voter in said County, and who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall be a resident of Grayson County, Texas, and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than one (1) year next preceding such general election, who shall hold such office for two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Grayson County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law of Grayson County, and shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Governor shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, who shall hold his office until the next general election.

Sec. 11. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law in any case pending in this Court, the County Judge shall sit in such case, or, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases; and in default of such agreement a majority of the practicing lawyers of Grayson County shall elect a Judge to try such cases where the County Judge at Law is disqualified.

Sec. 12. The County Court at Law of Grayson County, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Grayson County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Grayson County, and the Seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the Seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Grayson County."

Sec. 14. The jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the County Court for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court at Law of Grayson County and all petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such juries shall be required to appear and serve at the next ensuing terms of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had served as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 15. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 16. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County shall receive a salary of not more than Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000) per year to be paid out of the County Treasury of Grayson County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said County, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fee, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Section.

Sec. 17. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior Courts in Grayson County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Grayson County, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 18A. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for his court in the manner now provided for district courts in this State who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not more than the compensation paid the official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Grayson County, Texas, said salary to be fixed, determined, set and allowed by the commissioners court of Grayson County, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statement of facts and all other fees. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the commissioners court shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the commissioners court, in the same manner as salaries of other county officers are paid. From and after passage of this Act, all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the commissioners court of Grayson County.

Sec. 19. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, if any, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 20. If any part, section, paragraph, sentence, or clause contained in this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portion despite such invalidity.

HILL COUNTY

Art. 1970-333. Hill County; Jurisdiction of Courts; Clerk's Duties

Sec. 1. The County Court of Hill County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate Court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such Court; to conduct lunacy hearings; to apprentice minors as provided by law, and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State, but neither said County Court of Hill County nor the Judge thereof shall have any jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain, or other original civil jurisdiction, or other original criminal jurisdiction, or appellate civil jurisdiction, or other appellate criminal jurisdiction; provided, however, that all future Statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, shall be operative in said Hill County as fully as though this Statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. That the District Court of Hill County and the presiding Judge thereof shall have and exercise original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and that the District Court of Hill County, Texas, and the presiding Judge thereof shall have and exercise original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters and causes over which by the laws of this State the County Court of Hill County would have had original or appellate jurisdiction, but for the provisions set out in Section 1 of this Act; all causes, other than probate matters, as are provided in Section 1 of this Act shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the District Court of Hill County, and all writs and process relating to such civil and criminal matters and causes included in the subject matter of jurisdiction prescribed in this Act, issued by or out of said County Court of Hill County be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the District Court of said County after this Act takes effect. Provided further, however, that as to any civil or criminal case on appeal from said County Court, should a judgment be entered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court, or the Court of Criminal Appeals, remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to the District Court of Hill County and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case shall thereafter vest in the District Court of Hill County, Texas.

Sec. 3. That the County Clerk of Hill County be and is hereby required, within thirty (30) days after this Act takes effect to file with the Clerk of the District Court of said County all original papers in cases here transferred to the said District Court and all Judges' dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the County Court in said cases so transferred, and the District Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the said District Court for Hill County, Texas, and all such cases shall stand on the docket of said Court in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the County Court. Provided further that it shall not be necessary that the District Clerk refile any papers theretofore filed by the County Court, but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the County Clerk prior to the time of the said transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the District Clerk. Said County Clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of cost, and against all cost deposits, if any, the County Clerk shall charge accrued fees due him and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the District Court as a deposit in the particular case for which same was deposited. Credit shall be given litigants for all jury fees paid in the County Court.

Sec. 4. That this Act shall not be construed to in anywise or manner affect final judgments heretofore rendered by said County Court of Hill County pertaining to matters and causes which by Section 2 of this Act are transferred to the District Court of said County; but such County Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce said final judgments and the County Clerk of said County shall issue all writs of execution and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder and his act in so doing shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes the same as if no change had been made as set out in Section 2.

Sec. 5. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Art. 1970-333a. Jurisdiction Restored; Jurisdiction of District Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby restored to the County Court of Hill County, original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain which had been transferred to the District Court of Hill County by the provisions of House Bill No. 648, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session 1947, Chapter 271 (codified in Vernon's Civil Statutes as Article 1970-333), and original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain is hereby transferred from the District Court of Hill County to the County Court of Hill County.

From and after the effective date of this Act, the County Court of Hill County shall have and exercise original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain.

Sec. 2. The District Clerk of Hill County is hereby required within thirty days after this Act takes effect to file with the Clerk of the County Court of Hill County all original papers in cases or proceedings here transferred to the County Court of Hill County, and all dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the District Court in said cases or proceedings so transferred, and the Clerk of the County Court shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the County Court of Hill County and all such cases or proceedings shall stand on the docket of said court in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the District Court. It shall not be necessary that the Clerk of the County Court refile any papers theretofore filed by the District Clerk, but papers in said case or proceeding bearing the file marks of the District Clerk prior to the time of such transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case or proceeding as of the date filed, without being refiled by the Clerk of the County Court. The District Clerk in cases or proceedings so transferred shall accompany the papers with the certified bill of costs, and against all costs deposits, if any, the District Clerk shall charge accrued fees to him and the remainder of the deposit he shall pay to the County Court as a deposit in the particular case for which the same was deposited. Credit shall be given litigants for all jury fees paid in the District Court.

Sec. 3. All writs and process relating to such cases or proceedings issued by or out of the District Court of Hill County are hereby made returnable to the next term of the County Court of Hill County after this Act takes effect. Any case or proceeding on appeal which has been transferred by this Act to the County Court, should a judgment be rendered by the Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court remanding the case or proceeding for a new trial or for further proceedings, shall be remanded to the County Court of Hill County, and all jurisdiction in respect to said particular case or proceeding shall vest in the County Court of Hill County.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or manner affect final judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Hill County pertaining to matters transferred by the provisions of this Act to the County Court, but the District Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce said final judgments.

KENT COUNTY

Art. 1970-334. Kent County; Concurrent Jurisdiction of County Court with Justices' Courts

Sec. 1. The County Court of Kent County, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices' Courts in all civil matters, which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justices' Courts.

Sec. 2. Said County Court shall also have and exercise such jurisdiction over and pertaining to all matters and things and proceedings as by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon the County Court.

Sec. 3. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court in civil cases of which said Court has appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to said

County Court over such matters as are specified in Section 1 of this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court where the right of appeal now exists by law. [Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 791, ch. 392.]

JOHNSON COUNTY

Art. 1970-335. Johnson County; Jurisdiction of County Court Diminished; Jurisdiction of District Court

Sec. 1. The County Court of Johnson County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such Court; to conduct lunacy hearings; to apprentice minors as provided by law, and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State; and in addition thereto, said County Court of Johnson County and the Judge thereof, subject to the conditions hereinafter stated, shall have jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain and other original civil jurisdiction, and original criminal jurisdiction and appellate civil jurisdiction and appellate criminal jurisdiction as are normally exercised by County Courts under the Constitution and General Laws of this State; provided, however, that all future Statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas shall be operative in Johnson County as fully as though this Statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. The Judge of the District Court of Johnson County will be the presiding Judge, insofar as said District Court and said County Court are concerned, over original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, as well as original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters in causes over which by the laws of this State the County Court of Johnson County would have original or appellate jurisdiction; and all such causes will be filed with the District Clerk of Johnson County in said District Court. The Judge of the District Court of Johnson County may, in his discretion, assign to the County Court of Johnson County for trial and disposition, cases, or portions thereof, of eminent domain as well as cases of original and appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters and causes over which, by the General Laws of this State, the County Court of Johnson County would have original or appellate jurisdiction. Such assignments shall be made by docket notation. The purpose and intent of this Statute is to vest the District Court of Johnson County and the County Court of Johnson County with concurrent jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain as well as original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters over which, by the General Laws of this State, the County Court of Johnson County would have original or appellate jurisdiction, subject to the control over assignments of such cases, or parts thereof, by the said District Court, as hereinabove set out.

Sec. 3. The District Clerk of Johnson County shall continue to perform all the clerical functions of and for the County Court of Johnson County, insofar as all matters and causes over which the said District Court and County Court have concurrent jurisdiction, as hereinabove set out. Insofar as all cases over which the said District Court and County Court have concurrent jurisdiction, as hereinabove set out, said Clerk shall charge fees at the rate set by law for County Court cases.

Sec. 4. The duties of the County Attorney of Johnson County shall not be in any manner changed or affected by this Act; and said County Attorney shall have and perform the same duties as were had and performed prior to the passage of this Act.

Sec. 5. The duties of the County Attorney of Johnson County shall not be in any wise or manner changed or affected by this Act; and the County Attorney of Johnson County shall have and perform the same duties as were had and performed prior to the passage of this Act. [Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 185, ch. 102; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 26, ch. 11, § 1, eff. March 4, 1971.]

COUNTIES OF 225,000 INHABITANTS

Art. 1970-336. Salary of Judge in Counties Having Only One County Court at Law

Sec. 1. In all counties in this State having a population of not less than two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census and having within said county only one County Court at Law the salary of the Judge of said County Court at Law shall be Seven Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($7,400) per annum. Said salary shall be paid out of the County General Fund in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. The Commissioners Court of the county out of whose funds said salary is paid may, if it so elects, order such payments to be made out of the Jury Fund.

Sec. 2. The term "County Court at Law" as used in this Act shall mean and include County Courts at Law having jurisdiction over civil cases only or criminal cases only or both civil and criminal cases.

Sec. 3. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

Sec. 4. All laws or parts of laws fixing the salaries of Judges of County Courts at Law in any county having not less than two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) population and having within said county only one County Court at Law as herein defined to the extent that they conflict with this Act are hereby repealed, but to the extent of the conflict only; it being intended that, and this Act shall control as to the amount of the salary in such counties over any classification by population of such counties heretofore made.

BLANCO COUNTY

Art. 1970-337. Jurisdiction Extended; Civil and Criminal; Concurrent with Justices Court

Sec. 1. Hereafter the County Court of Blanco County, Texas, in addition to its present jurisdiction, shall have civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the General Laws for county courts.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise, or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court pertaining to matters and causes which, by this Act are made returnable to the County Court, and the Clerk of the District Court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the District Court of Blanco County shall be such as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, consistent with the change in jurisdiction of the County Court herein made.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Blanco County shall, in addition to the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon County Courts by the Constitution and General Laws of this State, have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts in all criminal and civil matters which, by the General Laws of this State, is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from a final judgment of said Court in civil cases, of which Court has appellate, original or concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices Courts, where the amount in controversy does not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justices Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but is only to give concurrent and original jurisdiction to said county court over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal from the Justice Court to said County Court in any case originally brought in the Justice Court, where the right of appeal exists under the Constitution and General Laws of the State.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the District Clerk of Blanco County, Texas, within thirty (30) days after this Act shall take effect, to make full and complete transcripts of orders on the criminal and civil dockets then pending before the District Court of said County of which cases, by the provisions of this Act, original and appellate jurisdiction is given to said County Court and to file said transcript, together with the original papers in each case in the County Court of said County and the County Clerk shall enter said cases on the respective dockets of said County Court as appearance cases for trial by said Court.

Sec. 8. The terms of said Courts shall commence on the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in May and on the first Monday in August and the first Monday in November of each year and each of said terms shall continue in session for six weeks, or until the business may be disposed of; provided, that the County Commissioners Court of said County may hereafter change the terms of said Court whenever it may be deemed necessary by said Commissioners Court.

ELLIS COUNTY

Art. 1970-338. Repealed by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2135, ch. 739, § 7, eff. June 12, 1969

Art. 1970-338A. Original and Appellate Jurisdiction in Misdemeanor Cases

Sec. 1. The County Court of Ellis County, Texas, and the County Judge thereof shall have and exercise original and appellate jurisdiction in all misdemeanor cases over which the laws of this state has conferred jurisdiction in the County Court. All misdemeanor cases now pending in the District Court of Ellis County, Texas, and all writs and processes relating to such criminal cases issued by or out of said District Court of Ellis County are hereby made returnable to the next term of the County Court of Ellis County after this Act takes effect; provided further, however, that as to any misdemeanor case on appeal from said District Court should a judgment be entered by the Court of Criminal Appeals remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, same shall be remanded to the County Court of Ellis County and all jurisdiction in and to said particular case shall thereafter rest in the County Court of Ellis County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The District Clerk of Ellis County be and he is hereby required, within thirty days after this Act takes effect, to file with the County Clerk of said county all original papers in misdemeanor cases here transferred to said County Court, together with all Judge's dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the District Court in said misdemeanor cases so transferred, and the County Clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of said County Court of Ellis County, Texas, and all such misdemeanor cases shall stand on the docket of said County Court in the manner and place as each stands on the docket of the District Court. Providing further, that it shall not be necessary that the County Clerk re-file any papers theretofore filed by the District Clerk; but papers in said case bearing the file mark of the District Clerk prior to the time of the said transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being re-filed by the County Clerk. Said District Clerk in misdemeanor cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of costs.

Sec. 3. All unfinished business and all final judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Ellis County pertaining to misdemeanor cases shall likewise be transferred to said County Court and the County Clerk of said county shall issue all writs of process thereunder, and his act in doing so shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes the same as if no change had been made in said criminal jurisdiction.

Art. 1970-338B. Jurisdiction of Courts; Transfer of Cases; Judgments

Sec. 1. That the County Court of Ellis County, Texas, from and after the effective date of this Act, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all probate, civil, and criminal matters, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and the general law governing county courts throughout the state.

Sec. 2. The District Court of Ellis County, Texas, shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction, both original and appellate, in all civil and criminal matters and causes, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and in the general law governing the jurisdiction of district courts throughout the state.

Sec. 3. All causes pending in the County Court of Ellis County and in the District Court of Ellis County, the jurisdiction of which is changed by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby transferred in conformity with the provisions of this Act to the court having jurisdiction of such cause under the provisions hereof, and all writs and process relating to such causes which have been issued by or out of either of said courts shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the next term of the court having jurisdiction of said cause under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the District Court of Ellis County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the County Court of Ellis County, and the clerk of the district court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder, which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed in this Act.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments heretofore rendered by the County Court of Ellis County pertaining to matters and causes which by this Act are made returnable to the District Court of Ellis County, and the clerk of the county court of said county shall issue all executions and orders of sale and proceedings thereunder which shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as though the change had not been made as directed by this Act.

Sec. 6. The clerks of the respective courts shall transfer the dockets of all cases the jurisdiction of which is changed by the provisions of this Act to the court having such jurisdiction after the effective date of this Act, and shall transfer all court papers and do such other things as may be necessary to fully transfer all said causes and matters to the court having jurisdiction of same under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 7. Chapter 355, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949 (Article 1970-338, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), together with any and all other acts or laws and parts of acts or laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2135, ch. 739, eff. June 12, 1969.]

NUECES COUNTY

Art. 1970-339. County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Corpus Christi, Nueces County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law of Nueces County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Nueces County, Texas, in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which the County Court of Nueces County, Texas, would have jurisdiction under the general laws of Texas. Such jurisdiction shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Court of Nueces County or in the County Judge; provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the County Judge of Nueces County as the presiding officer of such commissioners court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the presiding judge thereof. Said court shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Nueces County, Texas, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court in such matters and proceedings. County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, and transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and the conduct of lunacy proceedings.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Nueces County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the General Laws of this State are conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Nueces County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court with jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law in the future over probate matters, but shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised and retained by the Judge of the County Court of Nueces County, except insofar as same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County.

Sec. 5. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County shall hold four (4) terms of Court each year in the Courthouse of Nueces County, said terms to be as follows: One term beginning on the first Monday in January, one term beginning on the first Monday in April, one term beginning on the first Monday in July, and one term beginning on the first Monday in October; and each of said terms shall continue until and including the Sunday next before the first Monday of the term immediately following.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in Nueces County by the qualified voters thereof a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county, a resident of said county, a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than five (5) years next preceding the election to select such Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 shall hold his office for a term of four years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. The present Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 having been elected in 1966, he shall continue in such capacity for the full term of four years to which he was elected, and his successor shall be elected in the general election to be held in 1970 for the term of four years, and a like election shall be held every four years thereafter.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. As soon as this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Nueces County shall appoint a Judge to the County Court at Law of Nueces County, who shall hold his office as Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified. Any subsequent vacancies in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court of Nueces County and when so filled, the Judge of the County Court at Law shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 10. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County is disqualified.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law is authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for such County Court at Law; such official shorthand reporter shall receive the same compensation as provided in Article 2326, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas; the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall have the authority to terminate the employment of such official shorthand reporter at any time.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law of Nueces County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law of Nueces County.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the Justice Courts and other inferior Courts in Nueces County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Nueces County, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Nueces County, Texas shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas. The Seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the Seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County." The Sheriff of Nueces County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Nueces County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, and he shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Nueces County, for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors, shall be exercised by said Court; but juries summoned for either of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other Court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 17. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County shall receive a salary of Twenty Thousand Dollars per annum, to be paid out by the County Treasury by order of the commissioners court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

"Sec. 16. The division of functions, responsibilities, and jurisdiction between the Court of Domestic Relations and the County Court at Law No. II of Nueces County, Texas, as achieved in the foregoing sections of this Act, shall come into legal existence on July 1, 1967, and the present consolidated court shall maintain its present legal status, perform its present legal duties, and shall receive its present compensation until on and after said date. The present Judge now holding the consolidated position as Judge of both of said courts shall continue thereafter as Judge of the Domestic Relations Court of Nueces County, serving in that capacity for the full term of years to which he was elected in 1966. A Judge for the County Court at Law No. II of Nueces County shall be appointed by the commissioners court of Nueces County as soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, and the person so appointed shall qualify for such office on July 1, 1967, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall hold office until December 31, 1968. Candidates for the position of Judge of the County Court at Law No. II shall be nominated by the respective political parties of Texas in the political primaries to be held in May and June of 1968 in the same manner and under the same legal provisions as govern the holding of all other primary elections, and the selection of a Judge for the full term of four years shall occur in the general election to be held in 1968, and every four years thereafter.

"Sec. 17. The provisions of this Act shall be severable. Should any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or other part hereof, be declared for any reason unconstitutional or void, such declaration shall not affect or impair the remaining provisions hereof, and the Legislature specifically declares that it would have passed this Act notwithstanding the absence of such portion as may be declared unconstitutional or void.

"Sec. 18. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict."

Art. 1970-339A. County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Corpus Christi, Nueces County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The name of the County Court at Law of Nueces County, created by Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, Page 692, Chapter 362, known and cited as Article 1970-339, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, is hereby changed to County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, and all laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by the Legislature applicable or relating to the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall hereafter be applicable and shall relate to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in the matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County has jurisdiction according to the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, page 692, Chapter 362, known and cited as Article 1970-339, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of the State of Texas. Its jurisdiction shall be concurrent with that of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, except that each Court shall give priority to cases according to the provisions contained in this Act.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Nueces County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court with jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law in the future over probate matters, but shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised and retained by the Judge of the County Court of Nueces County, except insofar as same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County.

Sec. 5. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall hold four (4) terms of Court each year in the Courthouse of Nueces County, said terms to be as follows: One term beginning on the first Monday in January, one term beginning on the first Monday in April, one term beginning on the first Monday in July, and one term beginning on the first Monday in October; and each of said terms shall continue until and including the Sunday next before the first Monday of the term immediately following.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in Nueces County by the qualified voters thereof a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county, a resident of said County, a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than five (5) years next preceding the election to select such Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall hold his office for a term of four years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. As soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, the commissioners court of Nueces County shall appoint a suitable person to be Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, who shall take office on July 1, 1967 and shall hold office until December 31, 1968 and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. His successor shall be elected in the general election to be held in 1968, for the term of four years, and a like election shall be held every four years thereafter.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 9. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas, as herein created, shall come into legal existence on January 1, 1955, and said Court shall have no legal status, shall perform no duties, and shall receive no compensation until on or after said date. The first Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall be elected by the qualified voters of Nueces County at the General Election to be held in November, 1954, and the person so elected shall qualify for such office on January 1, 1955, or as soon thereafter as practicable. Candidates for the position of Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall be nominated by the respective political parties of Texas in the primaries to be held in July and August of 1954 in the same manner and under the same legal provisions as govern the holding of all other primary elections.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall be filled by appointment by the commissioners court of Nueces County, and the Judge so appointed shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In the event that the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County is disqualified for any reason to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree upon the selection of a special Judge to try such case or cases in the same manner and under the same provisions of law as govern the selection of Special Judges for County Courts of the State of Texas.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 is authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for such County Court at Law. Such official shorthand reporter shall receive the same compensation provided for in Article 2326, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall have the authority to terminate the employment of such official shorthand reporter at any time.

Sec. 14. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County.

Sec. 15. All cases appealed from the Justice Courts and other inferior Courts in Nueces County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Courts at Law of Nueces County, Texas, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals; provided, however, that such appeals shall be assigned to the proper Court and shall be docketed and heard in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Nueces County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas. The Seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the Seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County." The Sheriff of Nueces County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Nueces County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, and he shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 17. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Nueces County and the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors, shall be exercised by said Court; but juries summoned for any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to either of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall receive a salary of Twenty Thousand Dollars per annum, to be paid out of the County Treasury by order of the commissioners court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection and no part of which shall be paid to said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

Sec. 19. On or before January 1, 1955, the County Clerk of Nueces County shall establish a separate docket for County Court at Law No. 1 and a separate docket for County Court at Law No. 2. The present docket of the County Court at Law shall become the docket of the County Court at Law No. 1. All criminal cases on which original jurisdiction is vested by law at the County Court level shall be retained by the Clerk on the docket of the County Court at Law No. 1. All civil cases, plus all criminal cases which have been appealed to the County Court level from inferior Courts, shall be transferred by the County Clerk to the docket of the County Court at Law No. 2. Thereafter, as new cases are filed with the County Clerk, he shall docket said cases as follows: All criminal cases on which original jurisdiction is vested by law at the County Court level shall be docketed in the County Court at Law No. 1; and all civil cases, plus all criminal cases appealed from Courts of inferior jurisdiction, shall be docketed in the County Court at Law No. 2. Each of said Courts shall give preference to the cases which are originally docketed in their Court.

Sec. 20. Each of the judges of said County Courts at Law may, with the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transfer is to be made, transfer any case, action or proceeding from his Court to the other Court by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket, and the Court to which such case, action or proceeding is transferred shall have full power and authority to hear and determine same in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if said case had been originally docketed in his Court.

Sec. 21. The Judges of said County Courts at Law may exchange benches from time to time and hear and determine any case, action or proceeding pending in the other Court in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if said case were originally docketed in the Court of the Judge hearing same. The Judge of either of said Courts may issue restraining orders, injunctions, and other extraordinary writs returnable to the other Judge or Court, and either of said Judges may hear and determine preliminary matters with respect to cases, actions or proceedings pending in the other Court; provided, however, that every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending.

Sec. 22. The practice of said County Courts at Law, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be prescribed for County Courts.

Sec. 23. All process issued out of the County Court at Law of Nueces County, Texas, prior to the time when the County Clerk shall transfer cases from the present docket to the docket of the County Court at Law No. 2, as provided in Section 19 of this Act shall be returned to and filed in the appropriate County Court at Law as herein provided for; and such process shall be equally as valid and binding upon the parties as though such process had originally been issued out of the County Court at Law to which it is returned. Likewise, in cases hereafter transferred from one of the County Courts at Law to the other by order of the judge of one of said Courts as provided for in Section 20 of this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made.

Secs. 24 to 26. [Amend. art. 1970-339, §§ 5, 8, 15]

Sec. 27. Acts 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, Page 692, Chapter 362, known and cited as Article 1970-339, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, as amended, creating the County Court at Law of Nueces County shall be liberally construed in order that the provisions of same will be harmonized and made consistent with the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1970-339B. County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Nueces County; Eminent Domain Jurisdiction Concurrent with County Court

The Judge of the County Court of Nueces County, Texas, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Judges of County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, and County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas, to file the statement in eminent domain proceedings and to appoint Special Commissioners, and, where no objections are filed to the award, to cause the decision of the Commissioners to be recorded in the Minutes of the County Court, to make same the judgment of the Court, and to issue necessary process to enforce the same. In all such proceedings where objections to the decision of the Commissioners are filed, the proceedings shall be filed in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County, Texas, or County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County, Texas.

Art. 1970-339C. County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) On January 1, 1975, the County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County is created.

(b) The Court created by this Act has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal and probate, original and appellate, including eminent domain proceedings, prescribed by law for either the County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County or the County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County.

(c) The judge of the court created by this Act may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. The judge of the court may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county.

County Court

Sec. 2. The County Court of Nueces County shall have and retain concurrently with the court created by this Act and the other county courts at law in Nueces County the general jurisdiction of a probate court. The county court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised and retained by the judge of the County Court of Nueces County, except as provided by this Act or otherwise provided by law.

Terms of Court

Sec. 3. The terms of the court created by this Act are the same as those of the County Court at Law No. 1 and County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County.

Judge

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the court created by this Act shall be a resident of and qualified voter in Nueces County. He shall be a licensed attorney in this State, who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than five years next preceding his election.

(b) At the general election in 1974, there shall be elected a judge of the court created by this Act for a four-year term beginning on January 1, 1975. Every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Section 30, Article V, and Section 65, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas.

(c) Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of County Court at Law No. 3 shall be filled by the commissioners court of Nueces County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(d) The judge of County Court at Law No. 3 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The judge of County Court at Law No. 3 shall receive an annual salary of $20,000. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which fees shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury.

(f) A special judge of County Court at Law No. 3 may be selected in the manner provided by law for selection of a special county judge. A special judge is entitled to compensation at a rate of $25 for each day he actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the commissioners court.

Court Officials and Personnel

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Nueces County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, for the court created by this Act. The Nueces County commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court. Those serving shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed for their respective offices in Nueces County.

(b) The judge of County Court at Law No. 3 may appoint an official shorthand reporter. The reporter serves at the pleasure of the judge and is entitled to the compensation fixed for the shorthand reporters for the other county courts at law in Nueces County.

Transfer of Cases; Exchange of Benches

Sec. 6. (a) As soon as practicable following the date specified in Section 1(a) of this Act, the Nueces County Clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the other county courts at law in the county and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act. Thereafter, as new cases are filed with the County Clerk, he shall equalize the dockets of the three county courts at law, consistent with the docketing preferences assigned by law for the County Court at Law No. 1 and County Court at Law No. 2.

(b) With the consent of the judge of the court to which transfer is to be made, any of the judges of the county courts at law in Nueces County may transfer any case, action, or proceeding from his court to either of the other courts by the entry of an order to that effect upon the docket. The court to which the case, action, or proceeding is transferred shall have full power and authority to hear and determine the matter in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if the case had been originally docketed in his court.

(c) In cases transferred under authority of Subsections (a) or (b) of this section, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(d) The judges of the county courts at law in Nueces County may exchange benches from time to time and hear and determine any case, action, or proceeding in any of the other county courts at law in the county in the same manner and with the same legal effect as if the matter were originally docketed in the court of the judge hearing it. The judge of any of the courts may issue restraining orders, injunctions, and other extraordinary writs returnable to any other of the judges or courts. Any of the judges may hear and determine preliminary matters with respect to cases, actions, or proceedings pending in the other courts. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

Practice; Juries

Sec. 7. (a) Practice in County Court at Law No. 3 shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the court created by this Act. Juries summoned for the County Court of Nueces County or any of the county courts at law in that county, by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned, may be transferred to any of the other courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they are transferred.

Facilities

Sec. 8. The commissioners court of Nueces County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Seal

Sec. 9. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County."

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1334, ch. 503, §§ 1 to 9, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Section 10 of the 1973 Act amended art. 1970-339, § 17; § 11 thereof amended art. 1970-339A, § 10; § 12 amended art. 2338-10, § 2; and §§ 13, 14 provided:

"Sec. 13. The provisions of this Act shall be severable. Should any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or other part hereof, be declared for any reason unconstitutional or void, such declaration shall not affect or impair the remaining provisions hereof, and the Legislature specifically declares that it would have passed this Act notwithstanding the absence of such portion as may be declared unconstitutional or void.

"Sec. 14. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict."

LUBBOCK COUNTY

Art. 1970-340. County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court of Lubbock County at Law.

Sec. 1a. The name and designation of the court created by this Act is hereby changed to the "County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County" and wherever the name "County Court at Law of Lubbock County" shall appear in this Act it shall be deemed to refer to the "County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County."

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Lubbock County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes; civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; and all cases pending in the County Court of said County, other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 6 of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby transferred to the County Court of Lubbock County at Law, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court of said County, other than those pertaining to matters over which by Section 6 of this Act jurisdiction remains in the County Court of Lubbock County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law of Lubbock County.

The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court of Lubbock County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Lubbock County as the presiding officers of such Commissioners Court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof.

Sec. 2a. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County, by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County, in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, and all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child support and custody of minors, and change of name of persons. This court and the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2b. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County in all civil cases and matters when the matter in controversy shall exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), exclusive of interest.

Sec. 2c. After the effective date of this amendment all cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Section 2a of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Lubbock County and the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County. The District Clerk of Lubbock County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1 in all those cases enumerated in Section 2a.

Sec. 2d. Practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in this court involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. In cases in which this court has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts as herein provided, juries shall be composed of 12 members. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts in Lubbock County and the county court of Lubbock County, and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said courts.

Sec. 2e. The County Court at Law No. 1 in only those cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act, shall have the same terms of court as those district courts sitting only in Lubbock County as are presently established or as they may hereinafter be changed. In all cases, other than those of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act, the terms of this court shall be unchanged.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court of Lubbock County at Law in civil cases of which said

Court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to said County Court of Lubbock County at Law over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the return of an appeal to the County Court of Lubbock County at Law from the Justice Court, where the return of appeals to the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Lubbock County shall have and retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and of jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, and the Court herein created shall have no other jurisdiction than that named in this Act, and the County Court of Lubbock County as now and heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law of Lubbock County in this Act; but the County Court now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Lubbock County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Lubbock County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law of Lubbock County.

Sec. 7. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the Court of Lubbock County for drawing, selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by said Court by jury summons for either the County Court of Lubbock County or the County Court at Law of Lubbock County may, by the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned, be transferred to the other County Court for service therein and may be used in such other Court as if summoned for jury service for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 8. The terms of the County Court of Lubbock County at Law and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts. The terms of the County Court of Lubbock County at Law shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County and the same may be changed in accordance with the law governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County, Texas.

Sec. 9. There shall be elected in Lubbock County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a resident citizen of said Lubbock County for the immediate preceding two years and a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 10. The County Attorney of Lubbock County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in said County Court at Law of Lubbock County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 11. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 14. A special Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judge thereof, who shall receive the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15) per day for each day he so actually served, to be paid out of the general fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special Judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special Judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 14 of this Act.

Sec. 16. The County Court at Law of Lubbock County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law.

Sec. 17. The County Clerk of Lubbock County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, and the seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Lubbock County."

Sec. 18. The Sheriff of Lubbock County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 19. The jurisdiction of authority now vested by law in the County Court for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court at Law of Lubbock County. All petit jurors summoned for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 20. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 21. After the effective date of this amendment, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County shall receive an annual salary in an amount not less than three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the total annual salary paid to the Judge of the 99th Judicial District of Texas by the State of Texas. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Lubbock County on orders from the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 22. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 23. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official Court Reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County, Texas, of not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per annum, to be paid out of the County Treasury of Lubbock County, Texas, as other County officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to official Court Reporters shall be and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 24. The laws of Texas and the rules of procedure and rules of evidence governing trials in and appeals from all proceedings in County Courts shall be applicable to, govern and control proceedings in and appeals from the County Court at Law of Lubbock County.

Sec. 25. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior Courts of Lubbock County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Lubbock County, under the provisions governing appeals to County Courts.

Sec. 26. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County is authorized to appoint an official interpreter for such County Court at Law. And the County Commissioners shall by resolution fix the compensation of said official interpreter and provide for the payment of such compensation and shall prescribe the duties of such official interpreter. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Lubbock County shall have authority to terminate the employment of such interpreter at any time. The official interpreter so appointed by the Judge of the said County Court at Law shall take the constitutional oath of office, and in addition thereto shall make oath that as such official interpreter he will faithfully interpret all testimony given in the County Court at Law, and which oaths shall qualify him for service as official interpreter of such Court in all cases before such Court during his term of office.

Sec. 27. If any part, section, paragraph, sentence, or clause contained in this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portion despite such invalidity.

Art. 1970-340.1 County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes; civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 7 of this Act.

The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, and the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court of Lubbock County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Lubbock County as the presiding officers of such Commissioners Court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof.

Sec. 2a. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County, in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, and all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child support and custody of minors, and change of name of persons. This court and the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2b. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in Lubbock County in all civil cases and matters when the matter in controversy shall exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), exclusive of interest.

Sec. 2c. After the effective date of this amendment all cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Section 2a of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Lubbock County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County. The District Clerk of Lubbock County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 in all those cases enumerated in Section 2a.

Sec. 2d. Practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in this court involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. In cases in which this court has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts as herein provided, juries shall be composed of 12 members. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts in Lubbock County and the county court of Lubbock County, and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said courts.

Sec. 2e. The County Court at Law No. 2 in only those cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act, shall have the same terms of court as those district courts sitting only in Lubbock County as are presently established or as they may hereinafter be changed. In all cases, other than those of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2a of this Act, the terms of this court shall be unchanged.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon Justice Courts.

Sec. 4. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall have concurrent original jurisdiction with the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County. The Judges in either County Court at Law may try cases in the other County Court at Law and cases may be transferred by the respective Judges from one (1) Court to the other County Court at Law.

Sec. 5. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County in civil cases of which said Court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court, where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to said County Courts at Law of Lubbock County over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the return of an appeal to the County Courts at Law of Lubbock County from the Justice Court, where the return of appeals to the County Court at Law or the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 7. The County Court of Lubbock County shall have and retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and of jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate matters, and the Court herein created shall have no other jurisdiction than that named in this Act, and the County Court of Lubbock County as now and heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court at Law No. 1 and County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County; but the County Court now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Lubbock County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Lubbock County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County.

Sec. 8. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Lubbock County and the County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County, for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors, shall be exercised by said Court; but juries summoned for any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to either of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 9. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County and the same may be changed in accordance with the law governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Lubbock County, Texas.

Sec. 10. There shall be elected in Lubbock County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a Judge for the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a resident citizen of said Lubbock County for the immediate preceding two (2) years and a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected as such Judge shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. The County Attorney of Lubbock County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in said County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 12. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Sec. 13. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 15. A special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judge thereof, who shall receive the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15) per day for each day he so actually served, to be paid out of the general fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 16. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special Judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special Judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 15 of this Act.

Sec. 17. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 2.

Sec. 18. The County Clerk of Lubbock County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, and the seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Lubbock County."

Sec. 19. The Sheriff of Lubbock County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 20. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court and in the County Court at Law No. 1, of Lubbock County for the selection and service of jurors shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County. All petit jurors summoned for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 21. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 22. After the effective date of this amendment, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall receive an annual salary in an amount not less than three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the total annual salary paid to the Judge of the 99th Judicial District of Texas by the State of Texas. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Lubbock County on orders from the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 23. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 24. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official Court Reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Lubbock County, Texas, of not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per annum, to be paid out of the County Treasury of Lubbock County, Texas, as other County officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to official Court Reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all their provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 25. The laws of Texas and the rules of procedure and rules of evidence governing trials in and appeals from all proceedings in County Courts shall be applicable to, govern and control proceedings in and appeals from the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County.

Sec. 26. All cases appealed from the Justice Court and other inferior Courts of Lubbock County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law No. 1 or No. 2 of Lubbock County, under the provisions governing appeals to County Courts.

Sec. 27. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County is authorized to appoint an official interpreter for such County Court at Law. And the County Commissioners shall by resolution fix the compensation and shall prescribe the duties of such official interpreter. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County shall have authority to terminate the employment of such interpreter at any time. The official interpreter so appointed by the Judge of the said County Court at Law shall take the constitutional oath of office, and in addition thereto shall make oath that as such official interpreter he will faithfully interpret all testimony given in the County Court at Law No. 2 and which oaths shall qualify him for service as official interpreter of such Court in all cases before such Court during his term of office.

HIDALGO COUNTY

Art. 1970-341. County Court at Law of Hidalgo County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in and for Hidalgo County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas, and which shall be a court of record.

Sec. 2. Said County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of Hidalgo County, Texas, would have jurisdiction; and all cases pending in the County Court of said County, except as hereafter provided, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court of Hidalgo County except those pertaining to matters as hereafter provided to remain in the County Court of Hidalgo County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County; and all cases pending in the District Court of the 92nd Judicial District which cases involve matters over which, by General Law, the County Court of Hidalgo County would have exclusive original jurisdiction, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, and all writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of the said District Court of the 92nd Judicial District pertaining to such cases shall be and the same are made returnable to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County.

The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County and of the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Court of Hidalgo County or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Hidalgo County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding Judge thereof.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Hidalgo County shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Hidalgo County, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of Hidalgo County in such matters and proceedings. Such County Court at Law of Hidalgo County shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings.

As soon as may be practical but not later than one month after the effective date of this Act, there shall be transferred to the probate docket of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, under the direction of the County Judge and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Hidalgo County, such number of such probate proceedings and matters pending on the effective date of this Act in the County Court of Hidalgo County as shall be, as near as may be, one half (1/2) in number of the total of all of same then pending, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said County Court in Hidalgo County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County as though originally issued therefrom. All such new probate matters and proceedings filed after the effective date of this Act with the County Clerk of Hidalgo County irrespective of the Court or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed shall be filed by said Clerk alternately in said respective courts in the order in which same are deposited with him for filing, beginning first with the County Court of Hidalgo County. The County Judge of Hidalgo County, in his discretion, may from time to time, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the County Court of Hidalgo County transfer to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County any such probate matter or proceeding then pending in the County Court of Hidalgo County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of said County Court at Law of Hidalgo County.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Hidalgo County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County the general jurisdiction of a probate court and of jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law over probate matters, but shall have no other jurisdiction criminal or civil, original or appellate. The District Court of the 92nd Judicial District shall have and retain all jurisdictions conferred by Acts, 1931, Forty-second Legislature, Page 876, Chapter 370, (Article 199, Section 92, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), save and except jurisdiction over all civil matters which, by general law the County Court of Hidalgo County would have exclusive original jurisdiction and said jurisdiction over all civil matters which by general law, the County Court of Hidalgo County would have exclusive original jurisdiction is hereby transferred from said District Court of the 92nd Judicial District to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County. The County Judge of Hidalgo County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Hidalgo County and all ex-officio, executive, ministerial and administrative duties of the County Judge of Hidalgo County, as they now exist, shall continue to be exercised by the County Judge of Hidalgo County. Administrative, executive, ministerial and ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall include the duty of the County Judge to preside over and be a member of the Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County, to receive and hear applications for license as a dealer in beer or wine, to process applications to State Tuberculosis Sanatoriums, and the like; this listing of duties shall not be construed or deemed to be exclusive but is given to be illustrative only of administrative, executive, ministerial and ex-officio duties to be exercised by the County Judge of Hidalgo County, the only limitation being that he shall no longer act in any proceeding of a judicial nature save in probate matters.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County shall be held in the County seat of Hidalgo County as follows, to wit: Beginning on the first Mondays of January, March, May, July, September and November of each year; and each term of said Court shall continue in session for eight (8) weeks. The practice in said Court, and appeals and writs of error thereto and therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws and rules relating to County Courts.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in Hidalgo County by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and who shall be a resident citizen of Hidalgo County, and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law in this State for a period of not less than four (4) years next preceding such general election, who shall hold his office for two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. As soon as this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County shall appoint a Judge to the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County who shall hold this office as such Judge until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified; any subsequent vacancies in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County shall be filled by appointment of the Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County and when so filled, the said Judge shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall be compensated in the same manner as provided for special judges of the County Courts. In probate matters, in the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, the County Judge of Hidalgo County may sit and act as Judge of the County Court at Law, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of the County Court at Law any matter or proceedings there pending, and enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of the County Court at Law may enter if personally presiding therein. Likewise, in probate matters, the Judge of the County Court at Law, may, in the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the County Judge, sit and act as Judge of the County Court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of the County Court, any matter or proceeding there pending and enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the County Judge may enter if personally presiding therein. The signature of either Judge on an order shall be conclusive that all conditions have been met or complied with to qualify him to act for the other in such probate matters.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by law for County Judges.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold office at the pleasure of said Judge. The duties of such reporter shall be the same as provided by general law for reporters of the District Courts and such reporter shall receive a salary not to exceed Eleven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($11,500), to be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court out of any funds available for the purpose. The clerk of the Court shall tax as costs in each case, civil, criminal and probate where a record or any part thereof is made of the evidence in said case by the reporter, a stenographer's fee of Three Dollars ($3). Said fee shall be paid as other costs in the case and paid by the clerk, when collected, into the general fund of the County.

Sec. 11. (a) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County is entitled to receive an annual salary, the amount of which shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County. The salary shall be paid in the same manner and from the same fund as prescribed by law for payment of the salary of the County Judge of Hidalgo County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

Sec. 12. The official interpreter of the District Courts of Hidalgo County shall serve as official interpreter of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas, but if such official interpreter be not available when needed for service in said County Court at Law, the Judge of said Court is authorized to appoint an interpreter who shall serve only temporarily and who shall be paid not to exceed Five Dollars ($5) per day out of the general fund of the County on certificate of said Judge. Upon concurrence of the County Commissioners Court, the Judge of the County Court at Law may appoint an official interpreter for such Court as provided by general law.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law, and to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by general laws governing County Courts, and said Judge shall have all other powers, duties, immunities and privileges as are or may be provided by general law for Judges of Courts of Record and for Judges of County Courts at Law, and he shall be a magistrate and a conservator of the peace.

Sec. 14. The County Clerk of Hidalgo County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, and as clerk of such Court he shall have the same powers, duties, privileges and immunities as provided by law for County Clerks and the seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Hidalgo County, Texas."

Sec. 15. The sheriff of Hidalgo County shall in person or by deputy attend the said County Court at Law when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Hidalgo County and the Judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law and the Judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned, be transferred to the other Court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law and the County Judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both Courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such Courts.

Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the District Court or Courts may on request of either the County Judge or the Judge of the County Court at Law, be made available by the District Judge or Judges in such numbers as may be requested, for service for the week in either or both the County Court or the County Court at Law and such jurors shall serve in the County Court and County Court at Law the same as if they had been drawn and selected as is otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws and parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 18. If any part or parts of this Act shall be held unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this Act if it had known that such invalid part or parts thereof would be so declared unconstitutional.

GALVESTON COUNTY

Art. 1970-342. Probate Court of Galveston County

Sec. 1. The Probate Court of Galveston County provided by Section 1, Chapter 187, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, shall hereafter be known as the "County Court No. 2 of Galveston County." The court shall have, in addition to its present jurisdiction, civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the Constitution and General Laws for county courts and as provided herein.

Sec. 1a. The County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall be known hereafter as the "Probate Court at Galveston County," and the seal of the court shall be the same as now provided by law except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court of Galveston County, Texas." Wherever the name "County Court No. 2 of Galveston County" appears in this Act, it shall hereafter be understood to mean "Probate Court of Galveston County."

Sec. 2. The county clerk of Galveston County shall be the clerk of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County. The court shall have a seal consisting of a star of five (5) points with the words "County Court No. 2, Galveston County, Texas" engraved thereon. The sheriff of Galveston County may appoint a deputy to attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 3. All cases over which County Court No. 2 has jurisdiction may be instituted in or transferred to the County Court No. 2. The county judge and the district judges of Galveston County may transfer to County Court No. 2 all cases pending in their respective courts of which the court has jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases, with the consent of the Judge of the County Court No. 2.

All cases and matters over which the County Court No. 2 is given jurisdiction may be transferred by the Judge thereof to the county or district courts having jurisdiction under the laws of this state, with the consent of the judge of the court concerned. All cases and matters over which the County Court No. 2 and the County Court of Galveston County have concurrent jurisdiction and over which the district courts also have jurisdiction may be transferred to one of the district courts of Galveston County with the consent of the judge thereof.

Provided that the Judge of the County Court and the Judge of County Court No. 2 shall have authority to transfer any case pending for trial from the docket of such court to the docket of such other court, and during the absence, illness, or inability of either judge to preside in his own court of the other court shall be and is hereby authorized to act for such judge absent for any of the above reasons in the trial or other disposition of cases on the docket of such other court.

All writs or process issued by a court prior to the time any case is transferred shall be returned and filed in the court to which the case is transferred and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred case as though such writ or process had been issued out of the court to which transferred, and all waivers of process and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Sec. 4. In the event of a vacancy in this office the Governor shall appoint some suitable person who is a resident citizen of Galveston County as Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County as herein constituted, who shall hold such office until the next general election after his appointment, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, and all vacancies in said office shall also be filled by appointment by the Governor until the next applicable general election thereafter. At the first general election in said county and at each applicable general election thereafter there shall be elected by the qualified voters a Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County who shall be well informed in the laws of this state, who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided that no person shall be eligible for Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County by election, unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state; who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this state or a judge of a court in this state for at least four (4) years next preceding his election, and who shall have resided in the County of Galveston for two (2) years next preceding his election.

Sec. 4a. Any vacancy occurring in the office of Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Galveston County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the appointee shall hold office until the next succeeding general election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 6. A special judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to county courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be, as prescribed by law relating to county courts. The County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall hold at least four (4) terms for both civil and criminal business annually, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. After having fixed the times and number of terms of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, the Commissioners Court shall not change the same until the expiration of one (1) year. Until otherwise provided by the Commissioners Court, the term of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall be held on the first Monday in March, June, September and December.

Sec. 8. Both the said County Court of Galveston County, and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County or either of the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said courts; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said courts or of any court or tribunal inferior to said courts.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 may be paid by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County a yearly salary not more than the total salary, including supplements, paid any District Judge sitting in Galveston County. The salary shall be paid out of the general fund of the County in equal monthly installments by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Art. 1970-342a. County Court No. 1 of Galveston County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created on the effective date of this Act, a Court to be held in Galveston County, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court No. 1 of Galveston County."

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions, matters, and proceedings under the constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Galveston County, Texas, and the judge of said court shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are now or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction.

(b) The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall have, and it is hereby granted, the same jurisdiction and powers in civil actions, matters, and proceedings that are now or may be conferred by law upon the vested in the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, and in the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, and the judges thereof. Provided, however, that the jurisdiction of said County Court of Galveston County, Texas, the jurisdiction of said County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, and the jurisdiction of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, over all such actions, matters, and proceedings, civil and criminal, within Galveston County, shall be concurrent.

Sec. 3. (a) Upon the effective date of this Act, the pending civil and criminal cases on the docket of the County Court of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, save and except probate matters, mental illness cases, condemnation cases and alcoholic hearings, shall be automatically transferred to the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County. Thereafter, civil and criminal cases, except matters described in Subsection (b) of this Section, shall be filed and docketed in the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County.

(b) Probate matters, mental illness cases, condemnation cases and alcoholic hearings shall continue to be filed and docketed in the County Court of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County in the same manner as they have been heretofore filed and docketed.

Sec. 4. The clerk of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall keep a separate docket for the court, in the same manner as now or may be provided by law for the keeping of dockets for the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County. He shall tax the official court reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County in like manner as the fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts of this state. The Judge of the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, the Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, and the Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may, with the consent of the judge of the court to which transfer is to be made, transfer civil or criminal actions, matters, and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by entry of an order to that effect upon the docket of his court; and the judge of the court to which any such action, matter, or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall have been transferred, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein, and in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case, action, matter, or proceeding had been originally filed in the court to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case, or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, together with the Judges of the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, may, at any time, exchange benches and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter, or proceeding now, or hereafter, pending in their courts; and any and all such acts thus performed by any of said judges shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters, and proceedings.

Sec. 6. The practice in said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to county courts and county courts at law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, and from judgments and orders of the judge thereof, in civil and criminal cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to such appeals and writs of error. Appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, appointing a receiver, or from orders overruling a motion to vacate or appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the district courts throughout this state.

Sec. 7. The Judges of the County Court of Galveston County, the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for the County Court No. 1, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. All of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and all other applicable provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall apply to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed. Such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation, to be paid in the same manner, as provided for the official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Galveston County, Texas. Said court reporter shall be required primarily to report cases in the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, but shall be made available, when not engaged in a jury trial in said court, to report jury trials in the County Court of Galveston County and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County and to the District Attorney for examining trials in Justice Courts and trials in the Court of Domestic Relations.

Sec. 8. The County Clerk of Galveston County shall be the Clerk of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County. The court shall have a seal consisting of a star of five points with the words "County Court No. 1 of Galveston County" engraved thereon. The Sheriff of Galveston County shall appoint a deputy to attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 9. The Criminal District Attorney of Galveston County, Texas, shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County as provided by law for prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as in other cases.

Sec. 10. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act, there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years; who shall be well-versed in the laws of the state; who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Galveston County, Texas, for a period of not less than four years prior to such general election; and who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Governor shall appoint a Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Galveston County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas, and the appointee shall hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. (a) The Judge of the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution, but no bond shall be required of him.

(b) The Judges of the County Court No. 1 and of the County Court No. 2 may each be paid an annual salary of not more than the total salary, including supplements, paid any District Judge in and for Galveston County. The salary shall be paid to each Judge in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Galveston County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Galveston County, Texas.

Sec. 12. A special judge may be appointed or elected for the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the General Laws of this state relating to the appointment and election of special judges. Every such special judge thus appointed or elected for said court shall receive for the services he may actually perform the same amount of pay which the regular judge of said court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such special judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular judge of said court.

Sec. 13. The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County, or the judge thereof, shall have power to grant all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in Galveston County of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court No. 1 of Galveston County.

Sec. 14. The County Court No. 1 of Galveston County shall hold six terms of court, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business of the court is disposed of; provided, however, that no term of the court shall extend beyond the date fixed for the commencement of the succeeding term except pursuant to an order entered upon the minutes during the term to be extended.

TAYLOR COUNTY

Art. 1970-343. County Court at Law of Taylor County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court in and for Taylor County, to be called the County Court at Law of Taylor County. It is expressly provided that the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until the Commissioners Court of Taylor County enters an order adopting the same.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Taylor County shall have jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws of the State, the County Court of said county would have jurisdiction except as provided in Section 3 of this Act; and all cases now pending in the County Court of said county, other than probate matters and such as are provided in Section 3 of this Act, are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law of Taylor County, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court of said county, other than pertaining to matters over which, by Section 3 of this Act, jurisdiction remains in the County Court of Taylor County, are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law of Taylor County. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Taylor County and the Judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has been heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court, or of the County Judge of Taylor County as the presiding officer of such Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof. The County Court at Law of Taylor County shall be the Juvenile Court of Taylor County and shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred on juvenile courts by Chapter 204, Acts of the Forty-eighth Legislature,¹ as heretofore or hereafter amended. All cases pending in the Juvenile Court of Taylor County on the effective date of this Act, along with all the books and records thereof, shall be transferred to the County Court at Law of Taylor County. The County Court at Law of Taylor County and the Judge thereof shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Taylor County and the Judge thereof in the trial of insanity cases and the restoration thereof, approval of applications for admission to State Hospitals and Special Schools where admissions are by application, and the power to punish for contempt.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Taylor County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said Court and the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by law governing County Courts throughout the State; but said County Judge of Taylor County shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Taylor County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Taylor County. All ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the said Judge of the County Court of Taylor County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall be held as follows:

On the third Mondays in February, April, June, August, October, and December in each year, and each term of said Court shall continue in session until and including the Saturday next preceding the beginning of the next succeeding term thereof. The practice in said Court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to county courts.

Sec. 5. There shall be elected in Taylor County by the qualified voters thereof, at a general election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County, who shall be a qualified voter in said county and who shall be a regularly licensed attorney in this State, well informed in the laws of this State, and who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in this State or as the Judge of a Court for a period of not less than three (3) years next preceding such general election, who shall hold his office for four (4) years, and until his successor shall have been duly qualified. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court created by this Act shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County until the next general election. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall, upon the adoption of this Act, appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 7. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County may be appointed or elected when and under such circumstances as are provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the General Fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 8. The Court created by this Act and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, and super-sedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or of any other Court or tribunal inferior to said Court.

Sec. 9. The clerk of the County Court of Taylor County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Taylor County. The seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Clerk of the County Court at Law of Taylor County." The sheriff of Taylor County shall in person or by deputy² attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 10. Upon authorization by the Commissioners Court, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County may appoint a secretary for such County Court at Law. Such secretary shall receive the same compensation as is now allowed to the secretary of the Judge of the County Court, to be paid out of the treasury of Taylor County as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall have the authority to terminate the employment of said secretary at any time.

Sec. 11. Upon authorization by the Commissioners Court, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County, to be paid out of the county treasury of Taylor County as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as they may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall apply in so far as they may be made applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County shall assess the same fees as are or may be established by law relating to County Judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of said court and be by him paid monthly into the county treasury. The Judge of said County Court at Law shall receive an annual salary which shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County at an amount not less than the salary paid to the County Judge of Taylor County, and which shall be payable monthly, out of the county treasury of Taylor County.

HUNT COUNTY

Art. 1970-344. Expired

TARRANT COUNTY

Art. 1970-345. Tarrant County Probate Court

Sec. 1. There is hereby created in and for Tarrant County, Texas, effective September 1, 1957, a county court to be called Probate Court of Tarrant County.

Sec. 2. The Probate Court of Tarrant County shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Tarrant County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Tarrant County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and habitual drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and habitual drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court of Tarrant County there shall be transferred to the docket of said court, under the direction of the county judge and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Tarrant County, such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the County Court of Tarrant County as shall be, as near as may be, one-half in number of the total of all of the same then pending, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said County Court of Tarrant County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court of Tarrant County as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day, or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Tarrant County, irrespective of the court or judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said clerk alternately in said respective courts in the order in which the same are deposited with him for filing, beginning first with the County Court of Tarrant County. No proceeding had in either of said courts, nor any order entered therein, shall be invalid because of any failure of said clerk to file new matters and proceedings alternately as above provided. The judge of either of said courts, in his discretion, may, by an order entered upon the minutes, on or after the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court of Tarrant County, transfer from either of said courts to the other, any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending therein, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer may be made. No application, pleading, motion, order, judgment, oath, bond, citation, return of citation, or any other matter or proceeding shall be invalid because of any reference therein to either of said courts by the name of the other, and any reference therein to either of said courts by the name of the other of said courts shall be legally sufficient for every purpose.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Tarrant County shall retain, as heretofore, the powers and jurisdiction of said Court existing at the time of the passage of this Act, and shall exercise its powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those provided in Section 3 of this Act to be transferred to and filed in the Probate Court of Tarrant County. The County Judge of Tarrant County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Tarrant County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Tarrant County, as they now exist, shall be exercised by the County Judge of Tarrant County, except in so far as the same shall by this Act expressly be committed to the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Tarrant County.

Sec. 5. The practice and procedure in the Probate Court of Tarrant County shall be the same as that provided by law generally for the county courts of this State; and all Statutes and Laws of the State, as well as all rules of court relating to proceedings in the County Courts of this State, or to the review thereof or appeals therefrom, shall, as to all matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, apply equally thereto.

Sec. 6. The Probate Court of Tarrant County shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, execution, attachment, and all writs and process necessary to the exercise and enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing County Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 7. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court of Tarrant County in each year, and the first of such terms shall be known as the January-June Term; it shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second of such terms, which shall be known as the July-December Term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in said County by the qualified voters thereof, at the General Election, for a term of four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified, a Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election. A judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County as soon as may be after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the next General Election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to the County Judges.

Sec. 10. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County by the appointment of a Judge of said Court, who shall serve until the next General Election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of either the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County, or the County Judge of Tarrant County, or in the discretion of either of them for any other reason, the County Judge of Tarrant County may sit and act as Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County, and the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County may sit and act as Judge of the County Court of Tarrant County, with respect to any matters referred to in Section 2 of this Act, and either of said judges may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or, with the consent of the judge thereof, in the courtroom of the other of said courts, any matter or proceeding pending in either of said courts, and may enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the judge of said other court might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County and the County Judge of Tarrant County, a Special Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County may be appointed or elected, as provided by the general laws relating to the County Courts and to the Judges thereof.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Tarrant County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court of Tarrant County. The seal of the Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court of Tarrant County." The sheriff of Tarrant County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the Probate Court of Tarrant County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter may be established by law relating to County Judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected, and from and after the effective date of this Act, the Judge of said Court shall receive, upon qualifying, an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, of not less than Sixteen Thousand Dollars ($16,000), payable out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County shall provide the following employees for the Judge of the County Probate Court of Tarrant County: (a) a secretary to be paid not less than Four Thousand, One Hundred and Forty Dollars ($4,140) per annum, and (b) a chief clerk to be paid not less than Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000) per annum, at salaries to be fixed by the Commissioners Court but not less than the figures indicated, which salaries shall be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court from any funds available for this purpose, provided, however, that the Judge of the County Probate Court of Tarrant County is hereby authorized to employ, supervise, and terminate each and every one of said employees. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County may also provide such other and additional clerical assistance as may be required to properly carry on the business of said Court at salaries to be fixed by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15a. No action taken, nor any order made or entered, nor any application, pleading, motion, bond, citation, return of citation filed, nor any other proceeding had in the County Court of Tarrant County or in the Probate Court of Tarrant County, heretofore or hereafter, shall ever be held invalid because done in either of said courts when it should have been done in the other of said courts, or because of erroneous reference therein to either of said courts by the name of the other of said courts, and as against any complaint or charge of such nature, all of the same heretofore done are hereby validated for every purpose.

Sec. 16. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County is hereby authorized to amend the county budget for the fiscal year of 1957, if necessary, from and at the effective date of this Act for the balance of said fiscal year, in order to provide for the salaries of the Judge of the Probate Court and employees authorized in this Act.

ECTOR COUNTY

Art. 1970-346. County Court at Law for Ector County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Odessa, Ector County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Ector County, and which shall be a court of record.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Ector County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Ector County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this state, county courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 5 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the county judge of Ector County, as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding judge thereof.

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Ector County and of the judge thereof shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Court of Ector County or in the county judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the county judge of Ector County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, and public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding judge thereof.

Sec. 4. The County Court at Law of Ector County shall also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Ector County, concurrent with jurisdiction of the County Court of Ector County in such matters and proceedings. Such County Court at Law of Ector County shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law, and conduct lunacy proceedings.

The County Court at Law of Ector County shall have the jurisdiction conferred upon probate courts specially created by the Legislature in Article 1970a-1, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as the same now stands or may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to probate courts, whether specially created by the Legislature or otherwise, shall be and are hereby made to apply in all their provisions insofar as they are applicable to the County Court at Law of Ector County and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 5. The County Judge of Ector County shall be the judge of the county court of Ector County. All ex-officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Ector County except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County.

Sec. 6. The respective judges of the County Court of Ector County and of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall, from time to time as occasion may require, transfer cases from one of such courts to the other of such courts in order that the business may be equally distributed among them, that the judges thereof may at all times be provided with cases to be tried or otherwise considered, and that the trial of no case need be delayed because of the disqualification of the judge in whose court it is pending; provided, however, that no case shall be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and provided further, that no case may be transferred from the County Court of Ector County which does not come within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Ector County as prescribed in this Act.

Sec. 7. In probate matters, in the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County the County Judge of Ector County may sit and act as judge of the County Court at Law, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of the County Court at Law any matter or proceedings there pending, and enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the judge of the County Court at Law may enter if personally presiding therein. Likewise, in probate matters, the judge of the County Court at Law may, in the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the county judge sit and act as judge of the county court, and may hear and determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of the county court, any matter or proceeding there pending and enter any orders in such matters or proceedings as the county judge may enter if personally presiding therein. The signature of either judge on any order shall be conclusive that all conditions have been met or complied with to qualify him to act for the other in such probate matters.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County and the judge of the County Court of Ector County may, at any time, exchange benches, and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any civil or criminal case, matter or proceeding of which the said courts have concurrent jurisdiction, pending now, or hereafter, in either the County Court at Law of Ector County or the County Court of Ector County; and any and all such acts thus performed by the judge of the County Court of Ector County or the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 9. The terms of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the county courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Ector County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Ector County.

Sec. 10. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five (5) years, well informed in the laws of the state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Ector County, Texas, for a period of not less than two (2) years prior to such general election, and who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Ector County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of said Court at Law of Ector County, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law of Ector County shall in like manner, as hereinabove provided, be filled by said Commissioners Court of Ector County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 11. The county attorney of Ector County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Ector County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 13. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 14. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 15. In the case of the disqualification of the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge of the County Court at Law to try such case or cases where the judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 14 of this Act.

Sec. 16. The County Court at Law of Ector County, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law, and also the power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the state, and said judge shall have all other powers, duties, immunities and privileges as are or may be provided by general law for judges of courts of record and for judges of County Courts at Law, and he shall be a magistrate and a conservator of the peace.

Sec. 17. The county clerk of Ector County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Ector County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Ector County."

Sec. 18. The sheriff of Ector County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Ector County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 19. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county clerk of Ector County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law and the judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned, be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the judge of the County Court at Law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts.

Sec. 20. Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the district court or courts, if there be more than one, may on request of either the judge of the county court or the judge of the County Court at Law, be made available by the district judge or judges in such numbers as may be requested, for service for the week in either or both the county court or the County Court at Law and such jurors shall serve in the county court and County Court at Law the same as they had been drawn and selected as is otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 21. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Ector County to be paid out of the county treasury of Ector County, as other county officials are paid in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all their provisions insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 22. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall receive the same salary and be paid from the same fund and the same manner as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the county judge of Ector County, to be paid out of the county treasury of Ector County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said county, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 23. The judge of the County Court at Law of Ector County shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to the county judge's fees, all of which will be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 24. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Ector County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Ector County.

NOLAN COUNTY

Art. 1970-347. County Court at Law of Nolan County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court to be held in Sweetwater, Nolan County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Nolan County; providing, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not become operative until the Commissioners Court of Nolan County enters an order adopting same.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Nolan County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Nolan County, in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this State, County Courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Nolan County, Texas, as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain, which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge of Nolan County.

(b) With the consent of the other, the Judge of either of such Courts shall have the power to transfer to the other Court any case over which the Courts have concurrent jurisdiction pending upon the docket of his Court except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Nolan County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Courts in all civil matters which by the General Laws of this State is conferred upon Justice Courts. Neither the County Court at Law of Nolan County nor the Judge thereof shall have jurisdiction to act as a Coroner nor to preside at inquests, nor have jurisdiction of claims which come within the jurisdiction of the Small Claims Court as prescribed by Article 2460a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of the County Court at Law of Nolan County in civil cases of which said court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice Court where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100), exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the Justice Courts of jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law of Nolan County over such matters as are specified in this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of an appeal to the County Court of Law of Nolan County from the Justice Court, where the right of appeal to the County Court now exists by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Nolan County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court; it shall probate wills; appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said Court, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State. The County Judge of Nolan County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Nolan County. All ex-officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Nolan County except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the County Courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Nolan County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Nolan County.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in Nolan County by the qualified voters thereof, at each General Election, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of the Court who is not a resident citizen of Nolan County. He shall also be a licensed Attorney of the State of Texas and shall have been a licensed Attorney of the State of Texas for at least two (2) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Nolan County shall represent the State in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Nolan County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in County Courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the County Courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Nolan County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County, who shall hold his office until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 13. A special Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 14. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such Special Judge by agreement of the parties or their Attorneys, such Special Judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 13 of this Act.

Sec. 15. The County Court at Law of Nolan County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the Court and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or of any other Court in said County of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Nolan County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Nolan County, and the seal of the Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Nolan County."

Sec. 17. The Sheriff of Nolan County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Nolan County when required by the Judge thereof.

Sec. 18. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Nolan County and the Judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Nolan County and the Judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other Court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County and the Judge of the County Court of Nolan County, jurors may be summoned for service in both Courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such Courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said Courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the Court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 19. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 20. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall receive the same salary and be paid from the same fund and in the same manner as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the County Judge of Nolan County, to be paid out by the County Treasurer of Nolan County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said County, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 21. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fees all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Act.

Sec. 22. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Nolan County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Nolan County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Nolan County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 23. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Nolan County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Nolan County.

SMITH COUNTY

Art. 1970-348. County Court at Law of Smith County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Tyler, Smith County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Smith County shall have jurisdiction in all matters, causes, and proceedings, civil, criminal and probate, original and appellate, and also including eminent domain proceedings, over which by the General Laws of this State county courts have jurisdiction, and jurisdiction of said County Court at Law shall be concurrent with that of the County Court of Smith County; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Smith County as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law may sit in the absence of the County Judge of Smith County from the courtroom in all matters, causes, and proceedings without the necessity of transferring those matters, causes, and proceedings except matters coming under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court where the County Judge would be the presiding officer of that Court.

(c) The County Judge, if a duly licensed attorney, may sit in the absence of the Judge of the County Court at Law from the courtroom in all matters and causes without the necessity of transferring those matters and causes.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the County Court of Smith County. The County Court of Smith County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and also to punish contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by General Law governing county courts throughout the State. The County Judge of Smith County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Smith County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Smith County, except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the county courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Smith County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Smith County.

Sec. 5. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five (5) years, well-informed in the laws of the state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Smith County, Texas, for a period of not less than two (2) years prior to such general election, and who shall hold his office for the unexpired term. At the general election in November, 1966, he shall be elected to hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Smith County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of said court at law of Smith County, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law of Smith County shall in like manner, as hereinabove provided, be filled by said Commissioners Court of Smith County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Smith County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Smith County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 7. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Smith County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Sec. 8. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 10. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 11. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 10 of this Act.

Sec. 12. The County Court at Law of Smith County, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law. The County Court at Law or the Judge thereof shall also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for County Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Smith County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Smith County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Smith County."

Sec. 14. The Sheriff of Smith County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Smith County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 15. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Smith County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Smith County and the judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County and the Judge of the County Court of Smith County jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 16. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 17. From and after the passage of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall receive an annual salary of not less than $12,000 nor more than $16,000 as set by the Commissioners Court, to be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the Commissioners Court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Section.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Smith County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Smith County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 18a. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County, with the consent of the Commissioners Court, may employ a secretary. The secretary is entitled to a salary as determined by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 19. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Smith County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Smith County.

ORANGE COUNTY

Art. 1970-349. County Court at Law of Orange County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) On the effective date of this Act (as provided in Section 6), the County Court at Law of Orange County is created.

(b) The County Court at Law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, including eminent domain proceedings, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Orange County.

(c) The County Court at Law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the Court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the Court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Orange County is the Judge of the County Court of Orange County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Orange County unless by this Act committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Orange County by order duly entered of record, shall prescribe not less than four terms each year for the County Court at Law of Orange County.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than four years, be well informed in the laws of this State, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Orange County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The Judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. During his term of office the Judge may not appear and plead as an attorney at law in any court of record in this State.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Orange County shall appoint a Judge to the County Court at Law of Orange County. The Judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this Section and serves until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law may be filled in like manner by the Commissioners Court and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall receive not less than the same salary prescribed by the Commissioners Court of Orange County for the County Judge of Orange County and not more than $15,000 per annum. Such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the Commissioners Court. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the Judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Court Officials

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Orange County, Texas, shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Orange County. The Commissioners Court of Orange County may employ as many additional assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the Court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Orange County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall appoint an official court reporter, who shall have the qualifications and duties provided by law. The official court reporter shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Orange County, of not more than $9,000 per year.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Orange County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Orange County.

(b) The Judges of the County Court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that Court.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the District Courts of Orange County, Texas, may, at the request of either the Judge of the County Court or of the County Court at Law, be made available by the District Judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either or both the County Court or the County Court at Law.

Effective Date

Sec. 6. The Act becomes effective upon order of the Commissioners Court of Orange County duly entered in its minutes.

[Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1012, ch. 498, eff. Aug. 30, 1965; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2126, ch. 730, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1006, ch. 194, § 1, eff. May 13, 1971.]

Art. 1970-349A. County Court at Law of Orange County; Jurisdiction Concurrent with District and County Courts

Sec. 1. In addition to the jurisdiction now conferred upon the County Court at Law of Orange County, by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, said court shall hereinafter have and exercise concurrent civil jurisdiction with the District Courts in Orange County, in suits, causes and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District or County Courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees or other legal entities, which are now, or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the District or County Courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, and said Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. After the effective date of this Act all cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included above may be instituted or transferred between the District Courts of Orange County and the County Court at Law of Orange County.

Sec. 3. Should the Judge be disqualified to try a particular case, or should the Judge by reason of illness or otherwise fail or refuse to hold court as needed, on matters pending in the County Court at Law of Orange County, such fact shall be brought to the attention of a Judge of the District Courts of Orange County by any attorney, whereupon such matters as required attention shall be promptly acted by the said Judge of the District Courts of Orange County and disposed of in the manner as other matters or trials in the several District Courts. In the event it should ever become necessary to select a special Judge for the County Court at Law of Orange County, such special Judge shall be selected in the manner provided by law for the selection of a special Judge of the District Court.

Sec. 4. Nothing in the Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the District Courts of Orange County, but such Courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law. Such District Courts shall continue to exercise concurrent jurisdiction on all matters which by this Act are brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Orange County and none of the District Courts of Orange County shall be relieved by the provisions of this Act of their several responsibilities for the handling and disposition of all matters which are by this Act brought within the concurrent jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Orange County as time and the condition of the dockets of such District Courts will permit.

Sec. 5. The County Court at Law of Orange County shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Orange County in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws and the Constitution of this State County Courts have jurisdiction, and in addition thereto any additional jurisdiction which may hereafter be assigned to the County Courts at Law of the State of Texas as now constituted or as they may hereafter be constituted, except the executive functions of the County Judge as a member of the Commissioners Court, Board of Equalization, Budget Officer and other executive and administrative functions.

Sec. 6. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore been vested in the County Courts of Orange County, but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Orange County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges, public highways and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the presiding Judge thereof, including the right of the County Judge of Orange County to appoint commissioners in condemnation, receive the reports and enter judgments. It is the intention of this Section to vest in the County Court at Law of Orange County jurisdiction to hear any and all matters in condemnation, whether by commission or jury of view, appealed to the County Court at Law of Orange County or to the County Court only.

Sec. 7. The County Court at Law of Orange County shall also have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court within the limits of Orange County, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Orange County in such matters and proceedings. Said County Court at Law of Orange County shall have authority to probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, the apprenticing of minors as provided by law and conduct lunacy proceedings.

The County Court at Law of Orange County shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court of Orange County conferred upon County Courts or upon Probate Court specially created by the Legislature in Article 1970a-1, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as the same now stands or may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to Probate Courts whether specially created by the Legislature or otherwise, shall be and they are hereby made to apply concurrently in all their provisions insofar as they are applicable to the County Court at Law of Orange County and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act. It is the intention of the Legislature in this Act that the County Judge of Orange County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Orange County; all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Orange County and all duties and jurisdiction vested in the County Court of Orange County by this Act now being performed by the County Judge of Orange County, Texas, is and shall be concurrent.

Sec. 8. With reference to all matters, civil, criminal and probate, over which the County Court at Law is given concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Orange County, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall use the same dockets as now provided by said County Clerk in accordance with law for the use of the Judge of the County Court and Probate Court of Orange County and the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County and County Judge shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all matters therein insofar as provided in this Act. All suits and other proceedings instituted in the County over which the County Court or Probate Court has jurisdiction shall be addressed to the County Court of the County. The Judge of either the County Court at Law of Orange County or the County Judge may hear and dispose of any suit or other proceeding on the civil, criminal and probate dockets of the County Court of Orange County without the necessity of transferring the suit or other proceeding, either civil, criminal or probate, from one court to the other. Every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the County Court or Probate Court and the Clerk of the County Court in said County shall keep one set of minutes in which shall be recorded all the judgments and orders of the County Court at Law of Orange County and the County Court of Orange County. All citations and other process issued by the County Clerk and all notices, restraining orders and other process authorized to be issued by the Clerk of the County Court shall be returnable to the County Court of Orange County, and on the return of such process the hearing or trial may be presided over by the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County insofar as provided by this Act or the Judge of the County Court, and any and all such Acts thus performed by the County Court at Law of Orange County or the County Court of Orange County shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters and proceedings.

Sec. 9. Immediately after this Act takes effect, the District Clerk of Orange County, who shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Orange County in all matters wherein the County Court at Law of Orange County has concurrent jurisdiction with the District Courts of Orange County may file in the County Court at Law of Orange County any cases involving adoptions and independent actions involving child custody and support of minors, including cases under the Reciprocal Support Act, all applications to change the names of persons and all divorce cases. The County Clerk of Orange County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Orange County in all matters wherein the County Court at Law of Orange County has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court.

Sec. 10. The said County Court at Law of Orange County shall be a Court of Record, shall sit and hold court in the county seat of Orange County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes as herein provided. These dockets, records and minutes shall be separate from the dockets, records and minutes of the District Courts of Orange County and as provided hereinbefore with the County Court of Orange County, Texas.

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of the Probation Department, the Sheriff, Constables and other law enforcement agencies of the State of Texas and Orange County and the cities thereof as well as Welfare Agencies, to furnish said County Court at Law of Orange County such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court and all Sheriffs and Constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services with reference to process and writs from the District Court, County Courts and Probate Courts.

Sec. 12. The said County Court at Law of Orange County and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, executions, writs of possession and restitution and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts and County Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said County Court at Law of Orange County has jurisdiction. It shall also have power to punish for contempt.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law of Orange County as herein created shall have the same terms of Court as the District Courts of Orange County as are presently established or as they may hereinafter be changed.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County may be appointed a member of the Juvenile Board of Orange County and may be paid additional compensation therefor by the Commissioners Court of Orange County, not to exceed the amount paid by Orange County, to the District Judges and/or the County Judge of Orange County for acting as members of the Juvenile Board.

Sec. 15. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals as is now or may be hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Sec. 16. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, the drawing of jury panels, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearing in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts, general or special, as well as County Courts; provided that juries in all matters civil or criminal shall always be composed of twelve (12) members except that in misdemeanor criminal cases the juries shall be composed of six (6) members, as well as six (6) member juries in cases where this Court has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court as herein provided.

Sec. 17. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall have authority to appoint a Court Reporter in such cases as may be required by law, and in such other cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. Such Court Reporter may be paid a salary out of the general fund of the County as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court, and shall not exceed the amount paid to reporters of the District Courts of Orange County. The Judge shall also have the power and authority to appoint a court interpreter, in such cases as may be necessary, who may be paid such fees and compensation out of the general fund of the County for such service as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall not appear as an attorney at law in any court of record in this State nor shall he appear and practice as an attorney at law in any Court or Justice Court over which he has original or appellate jurisdiction.

Sec. 19. From and after the passage of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County shall receive an annual salary of not less than is presently being paid by the County of Orange to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Orange County nor more than that which is paid by the State of Texas to the Judges of the District Courts of Orange County, Texas, as set by the Commissioners Court to be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the Commissioners Court and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments.

Sec. 20. Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the several District Courts of Orange County and the County Court of Orange County and such courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law and the jurisdiction given herein is concurrent with the jurisdiction of said Courts.

BELL COUNTY

Art. 1970-350. County Court at Law of Bell County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) On the effective date of this Act (as provided in Section 6), the County Court at Law of Bell County is created.

(b) The County Court at Law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Bell County.

(c) The County Court at Law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Bell County is the Judge of the County Court of Bell County. All ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Bell County unless by this Act committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Bell County by order duly entered of record, shall prescribe not less than four terms each year for the County Court at Law of Bell County.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law of Bell County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than three years, be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Bell County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The Judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. During his term of office the Judge may not appear and plead as an attorney at law in any court of record in this state.

(b) If any vacancy occurs in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law, the Commissioners Court shall appoint the Judge of the County Court at Law who must have the same qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this Section and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall receive a salary in an amount determined by the Commissioners Court not to exceed the salary prescribed by the Commissioners Court for the County Judge of Bell County. Such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the Commissioners Court. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the Judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

(f) The Judge of the County Court at Law shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Bell County, and for this additional work as a member of the Juvenile Board he shall be allowed compensation in like manner as other members of said Juvenile Board, such compensation to be determined and fixed by order of the Commissioners Court and to be paid in addition to any other compensation to which he is entitled under the provisions of law.

Court Officials

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Bell County, Texas shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Bell County. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Bell County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bell County.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Bell County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Bell County.

(b) The Judges of the County Court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that Court.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the District Courts of Bell County, Texas, may at the request of either the Judge of the County Court or of the County Court at Law, be made available by the District Judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either or both the County Court or the County Court at Law.

Effective Date

Sec. 6. The Act becomes effective upon order of the Commissioners Court of Bell County duly entered in its minutes.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 457, ch. 208, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1972, 62nd Leg., 4th C.S., p. 21, ch. 4, § 2, eff. Oct. 17, 1972.]

GUADALUPE COUNTY

Art. 1970-351. County Court at Law of Guadalupe County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) The County Court at Law of Guadalupe County is created on the effective date of this Act provided in Section 7. It sits in Seguin.

(b) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of

Guadalupe County. However, the county court at law does not have jurisdiction over eminent domain proceedings or over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or County Court of Guadalupe County.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the same power to punish for contempt prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Guadalupe County is the Judge of the County Court of Guadalupe County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Guadalupe County unless by this Act committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The terms of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County are the same as those of the County Court of Guadalupe County.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the general election in November 1970, a Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County shall be elected if this Act has taken effect in accordance with Section 7.

(b) To be eligible for the office of Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County, a person must be 30 years old or older, have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years before the election, and have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Guadalupe County for a period of not less than two years before the election.

(c) The judge elected holds office for four years and until a successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(d) Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by the commissioners court appointing a person with the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (b) of this section. The appointee holds office until the next general election and until a successor has been duly elected and qualified. The appointee is entitled to the same compensation as his predecessor.

(e) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(f) The Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County shall fix the salary of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County.

(g) When the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County is disqualified, the Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County shall appoint a special judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Court Officials and Personnel

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Guadalupe County shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, for the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County. The Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County may employ as many assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Guadalupe County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must have the qualifications prescribed by law for district court reporters, who serves at the pleasure of the judge, and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at law of Guadalupe County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Guadalupe County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of the county court at law may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court.

(d) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the district courts whose districts include Guadalupe County may, at the request of either the Judge of the County Court or County Court at Law of Guadalupe County, be made available by the district judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either or both the county court or county court at law.

Facilities and Equipment

Sec. 6. (a) The Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law has a seal identical with the seal of the County Court of Guadalupe County except that it contains the words "County Court at Law of Guadalupe County."

Effective Date

Sec. 7. (a) This Act takes effect when the Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County appoints a judge to the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County.

(b) The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Section 3(b) of this Act and serves until December 31, 1970, and until a successor has been duly elected and qualified.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2056, ch. 761, eff. June 18, 1967.]

DENTON COUNTY

Art. 1970-352. County Court at Law of Denton County

Creation and Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. (a) The County Court at Law of Denton County, Texas, is created.

(b) The court has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Denton County.

(c) The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Denton County extends to all matters of eminent domain and is concurrent with that of the County Court and Commissioners Court of Denton County.

(d) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Denton County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Denton County in probate matters and proceedings.

(e) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, and he is a magistrate and conservator of the peace.

(f) The County Judge of Denton County is the judge of the County Court of Denton County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Denton County except insofar as the same are, by this Act, committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County.

Terms of Court

Sec. 2. The terms of the County Court at Law of Denton County are the same as those for the County Court of Denton County, Texas.

Judge

Sec. 3. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years, who must be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Denton County, Texas, for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Denton County, Texas, shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Denton County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County may be filled in like manner by the commissioners court and the appointee holds office until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Denton County is entitled to receive the same salary, to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner, as the County Judge of Denton County receives. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to receive $30 a day for each day he serves, to be paid out of the general fund of Denton County by the commissioners court.

(f) If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided by Subsection (e) of this section.

Court Officials

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Denton County, Texas, shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Denton County. They shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter, who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than $7500 per annum, nor more than $10,600 per annum, and this compensation shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Denton County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Denton County", but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Denton County.

Practice

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Denton County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Denton County, Texas.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Denton County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause or proceeding, civil, criminal, or probate, involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a cause or proceeding pending in the county court or county court at law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause or proceeding without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of the county court at law may not sit or act in any cause or proceeding over which exclusive jurisdiction is vested by this Act in the Denton County Court.

Juries

Sec. 6. (a) The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Clerk and County Judge of Denton County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the county court at law and its judge. Jurors and talesmen summoned for either court may by order of the judge of the court to which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service. Upon concurrence of the judge of the county court at law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and used interchangeably.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1626, ch. 505, eff. June 10, 1969.]

PARKER COUNTY

Art. 1970-353. Parker County; Jurisdiction of County Court Diminished

Sec. 1. The County Court of Parker County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such court; conduct lunacy hearings; apprentice minors as provided by law, and issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; punish for contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by general law governing county courts throughout the state; and in addition thereto, the County Court of Parker County and the judge thereof, subject to the conditions hereinafter stated, shall have original and appellate civil jurisdiction, exclusive of matters of eminent domain, and original and appellate criminal jurisdiction as normally exercised by county courts under the constitution and general laws of this state; provided, however, neither the County Court of Parker County, nor the judge thereof shall have any jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain, and further provided, however, that all future statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas shall be operative in Parker County as fully as though this statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. The County Court of Parker County and the 43rd District Court shall have and exercise concurrent original civil jurisdiction, exclusive of probate matters and matters of eminent domain, over causes which by the general laws of this state the County Court of Parker

County would have original civil jurisdiction; and the county court and the district court shall have and exercise concurrent original criminal jurisdiction over causes in which the punishment that may be assessed includes confinement in the county jail or with the Texas Department of Corrections, and over which said causes, by the general laws of the state, the County Court of Parker County would have original jurisdiction; all such civil and criminal causes shall be filed with the District Clerk of Parker County in the district court. The judge of the 43rd District Court will be the presiding judge, insofar as the district court and the county court are concerned in matters over which said courts exercise concurrent jurisdiction and may, in his discretion, assign to the County Court of Parker County for trial and disposition, cases or portions thereof over which concurrent jurisdiction is exercised by said courts. Such assignments shall be made by docket notation. The purpose and intent of this Act is to vest the 43rd District Court and the County Court of Parker County with concurrent jurisdiction over matters of original civil jurisdiction, exclusive of probate matters and eminent domain matters, and concurrent jurisdiction over matters of original criminal jurisdiction of cases in which the punishment that may be assessed includes confinement in the county jail or with the Texas Department of Corrections, over which said civil and criminal matters, by the general laws of this state, the County Court of Parker County would have original jurisdiction; the concurrent jurisdiction being subject to the control over assignments of such cases, or parts thereof, by the district court and the judge thereof. However, there shall not be any concurrent jurisdiction in matters of probate, or original criminal jurisdiction of cases in which the punishment that may be assessed does not include confinement in the county jail or with the Texas Department of Corrections, nor shall there be concurrent jurisdiction by the courts of matters over which the constitution or general laws of this state confer appellate jurisdiction upon the county courts, all of such jurisdiction remaining exclusively with the County Court of Parker County and the judge thereof; nor shall there be concurrent original jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain, the original jurisdiction of which shall remain exclusively in the 43rd District Court. The trial of cases assigned to the county court shall be governed by the rules applicable to the trial of cases in the county courts.

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided in this article, jurisdiction over juvenile matters in Parker County shall be as established by the constitution and general laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The District Clerk of Parker County shall continue to perform all clerical functions of and for the County Court of Parker County, pertaining to all matters and causes over which the district court and the county court have concurrent jurisdiction. Insofar as all cases over which the district court and the county court have concurrent jurisdiction, the clerk shall charge fees at the rate set by law for county court cases or such other rates as may be authorized by the constitution or general laws of this state.

Sec. 5. The duties of the county attorney of Parker County shall not be affected by this article. The county attorney of Parker County shall have and perform the same duties as were had and performed prior to the effective date of this article, including, but not limited to, the prosecution of all misdemeanor cases which come within the jurisdiction of either the 43rd District Court or the inferior courts within the county.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1807, ch. 535, § 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1971; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1769, ch. 647, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Sections 6 to 8 of the 1971 act provided:

"Sec. 6. This Act shall take effect September 1, 1971.

"Sec. 7. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 8. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict and in any and all cases of such conflict, the provisions of this Act shall prevail."

HUNT COUNTY

Art. 1970-354. County Court at Law of Hunt County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Court in Hunt County, to be called the County Court at Law of Hunt County.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Hunt County, Texas, is created.

(b) The court has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. However, this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Hunt County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, as are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer.

(c) The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Hunt County extends to all matters of eminent domain and is concurrent with that of the County Court and Commissioners Court of Hunt County.

(d) The County Court at Law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Hunt County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Hunt County in probate matters and proceedings.

(e) The County Court at Law of Hunt County and the judge thereof shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Hunt County and the judge thereof in the trial of insanity cases and the restoration thereof, approval of applications for admission to state hospitals and special schools where admissions are by application, and the power to punish for contempt.

(f) The County Court at Law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the County Court at Law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, and he is a magistrate and conservator of the peace.

(g) The County Judge of Hunt County is the judge of the County Court of Hunt County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Hunt County except insofar as the same which are, specified by this Act, committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Hunt County are the same as those for the County Court of Hunt County, Texas.

Sec. 4. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than two years, who must be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have been a bona fide resident of Hunt County, Texas, and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Hunt County, Texas, for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment initially, and after the initial appointment, for a period not less than two (2) years prior to the general election. The judge holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Hunt County, Texas, shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Hunt County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1974 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Hunt County a Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County for a regular term of four years to commence on the first day of January following his election. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Hunt County until the next general election. The judge of the Hunt County Court at Law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County is entitled to receive the same salary, to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner, as the County Judge of Hunt County receives. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to receive $15.00 a day for each day he serves, to be paid out of the general fund of Hunt County by the commissioners court.

(f) If a judge of the County Court at Law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided by Subsection (e) of this section.

(g) The Clerk of the County Court of Hunt County shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law of Hunt County. The County Attorney of Hunt County shall represent the state in all prosecutions pending in the court, and he shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts. The Sheriff of Hunt County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge; and the various sheriffs and constables of this state executing process issued out of the court shall receive the fees fixed by law for execution of process out of county courts.

Sec. 5. (a) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall assess the same fees as are or may be established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and be by him paid into the county treasury, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge. The Judge of the County Court at Law shall receive an annual salary set by the commissioners court in the same manner as the other elected county officials who are on a salary basis.

(b) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Hunt County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Hunt County.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall have the power to make and publish rules as to the docketing and disposition of criminal and civil cases in the court not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Practice in the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Hunt County, Texas.

Sec. 7. (a) The judges of the county court and the County Court at Law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Hunt County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(b) The county judge and the judge of the County Court at Law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause or proceeding, civil, criminal, or probate, involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a cause or proceeding pending in the county court or County Court at Law; and he may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause or proceeding without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of the County Court at Law may not sit or act in any cause or proceeding over which exclusive jurisdiction is vested by this Act in the Hunt County Court.

Sec. 8. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hunt County shall be entitled to traveling expenses and shall be entitled to necessary office expenses in the same manner as is allowed county judges.

ANGELINA COUNTY

Art. 1970-355. County Court at Law of Angelina County

Sec. 1. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law of Angelina County is created.

(b) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, including eminent domain proceedings, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Angelina County.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Angelina County is the judge of the County Court of Angelina County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Angelina County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 2. (a) The judge of either the County Court of Angelina County or the County Court at Law of Angelina County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any cause on his docket to the docket of the other court.

(b) The judges of the courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time. Whenever a judge of one of the courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case from his court to the other court.

(c) Either judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either court without having the case transferred or may sit in the other court and there hear and determine any case there pending. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either judge, the other judge may hold court for him. Either of the judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of the courts and determine them or may hear and determine any question in any case, and either judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

(e) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law.

(f) All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of Angelina County by order duly entered of record, shall prescribe not less than four terms each year for the County Court at Law of Angelina County.

Sec. 4. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Angelina County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas, be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Angelina County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election. The judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Angelina County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Angelina County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law may be filled in like manner by the commissioners court and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary of not less than $14,000 per year nor more than $18,000 per year. Such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Angelina County, shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Angelina County. The Commissioners Court of Angelina County may employ as many additional assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Angelina County; provided that the county attorney shall receive a salary of not less than $2,000 per year less than the salary paid to the judge of the county court at law.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Angelina County.

Sec. 6. Practice in the County Court at Law of Angelina County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Angelina County.

Sec. 7. This Act becomes effective on January 8, 1972.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1169, ch. 274, eff. Jan. 8, 1972.]

VICTORIA COUNTY

Art. 1970-356. County Court at Law of Victoria County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Victoria County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Victoria County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the County Judge of Victoria County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, as are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The County Judge of Victoria County is the judge of the County Court of Victoria County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Victoria County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County, shall be a member of the juvenile board in Victoria County and shall be entitled to additional compensation for the additional duties hereby imposed, to be fixed by the commissioners court and paid in 12 equal installments out of the general fund or other available fund of the county. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation provided in this Act.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Victoria County are the same as those for the County Court of Victoria County.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Victoria County, and actively engaged in the practice of law in Victoria County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Victoria County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Victoria County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1974 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Victoria County a judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Victoria County until the next general election. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Victoria County shall receive the same salary, to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner, as the County Judge of Victoria County. He shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The Criminal District Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Victoria County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Victoria County. They shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Victoria County; however, such compensation shall not be less than the total compensation paid to official court reporters serving the district courts in Victoria County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Victoria County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Victoria County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Victoria County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Victoria County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 7. (a) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

BRAZORIA COUNTY

Art. 1970-357. County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Brazoria County

Sec. 1. (a) The County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County are hereby created. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County is created on the effective date of this Act, and the County Court at Law No. 2 is created effective January 1, 1975.

(b) The County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County have the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and their jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Brazoria County. Each county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law.

(c) The County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County, or the judge of either court, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. Both courts and judges also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Brazoria County is the judge of the County Court of Brazoria County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Brazoria County unless by this Act committed to the judges of the county courts at law.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Brazoria County by order duly entered of record, shall prescribe not less than four terms each year for the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County.

Sec. 3. (a) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall be qualified voters of Brazoria County. Each judge shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this state, and shall have resided in this state and have been actively engaged in the practice of law or as the judge of a court for a period of not less than three years next preceding his appointment or election.

(b) Upon the effective date of this Act the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, shall make the initial appointment of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

(c) At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, Constitution of Texas. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County or the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. Either judge may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall receive not less than the total compensation received by the County Judge of Brazoria County, including the same salary prescribed by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County for the County Judge of Brazoria County and other compensation for office expense, travel expense, service on the juvenile board and other allowances paid by the county. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judges.

(f) A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County or the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Sec. 4. (a) The Criminal District Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Brazoria County, shall serve as Criminal District Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County. The Commissioners Court of Brazoria County may employ as many additional assistant criminal district attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and clerks as are necessary to serve the courts created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Brazoria County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County may each appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County.

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Brazoria County.

(b) The judges of the County Court of Brazoria County and the County Courts at Law Nos. 1 and 2 of Brazoria County may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to a county court at law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the district courts of Brazoria County, may, at the request of either the Judge of the County Court of Brazoria County, the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County, or the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County be made available by the district judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either the county court or the county courts at law.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall not engage in the private practice of law while serving as judges of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County and the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County shall be members of the Juvenile Board of Brazoria County and receive as additional compensation thereof the same as paid by Brazoria County to the county judge of Brazoria County for acting as a member of the juvenile board.

HAYS COUNTY

Art. 1970-358. County Court at Law of Hays County

Sec. 1. There is created a court in Hays County to be called the County Court at Law of Hays County.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, original, and appellate, prescribed by the law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Hays County. However, the county court at law does not have jurisdiction over eminent domain proceedings or over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or County Court of Hays County.

(b) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Hays County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Hays County in probate matters and in proceedings.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, and immunities and privileges provided by law for county court judges, and he is a magistrate and conservator of the peace.

(d) The County Judge of Hays County is a judge of the County Court of Hays County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Hays County except insofar as the same are, by this Act, committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Hays County are the same as those for the County Court of Hays County, Texas.

Sec. 4. (a) At the next general election after the effective date of this Act, there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than three years, who must be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Hays County, Texas, for a period of not less than one year prior to the general election. The judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Hays County, Texas, shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Hays County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County may be filled in like manner by the commissioners court and the appointee holds office until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Commissioners Court of Hays County shall fix the salary of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

(f) If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided in Subsection (e) of this section.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Hays County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Hays County. The Commissioners Court of Hays County may employ as many assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices in Hays County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who serves at the pleasure of the judge and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the commissioners court. The official court reporter must have the qualifications prescribed by law for district court reporters.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Hays County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Hays County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Hays County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Hays County, Texas.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred to the County Court at Law of Hays County unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause or proceeding, civil, criminal, or probate, involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a cause or proceeding pending in the county court or county court at law; and he may rule or enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause or proceeding without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of the county court at law may not sit or act in any cause or proceeding over which exclusive jurisdiction is vested by this Act in the Hays County Court.

Sec. 7. (a) The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county clerk and the county judge of Hays County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors and talesman shall be also exercised by the county court at law and its judge. Jurors and talesmen summoned for either court may by order of the judge of the court to which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service. Upon concurrence of the judge of the county court at law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and used interchangeably.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

JURISDICTION OF PROBATE COURTS

Art. 1970a-1. Probate Courts Specially Created; Jurisdiction as to Mentally Ill, Mentally Retarded and Persons Afflicted with Tuberculosis

Sec. 1. In all counties of the State of Texas having Probate Courts specially created by the Legislature, such courts shall share jurisdiction concurrently with the County Courts of such counties in relation to proceedings under the Mentally Retarded Persons Act, and such Probate Courts shall have jurisdiction concurrently with the County Courts of such counties in relation to all proceedings for the commitment, temporarily or otherwise, of persons who are not charged with any criminal offense who are mentally ill, or against whom information of mental illness has been given to the judge of any such Probate Court, whether such proceeding is for the commitment of such persons for treatment or for observation and/or treatment. The judges of such Probate Courts shall have the authority to hear and determine matters relating to the foregoing proceedings in the same manner and with the same powers as are vested in the County Courts and the judges thereof under the laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. The Probate Courts referred to in Section 1 hereof shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the County Courts of their respective counties, in relation to all proceedings with respect to the treatment of persons afflicted with tuberculosis or epilepsy, and the judges of such Probate Courts shall have authority to do all things relative to the commitment of persons so afflicted which the county judges are authorized to do.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to divest or in any manner impair or reduce the jurisdiction or authority of the County Courts and the Judges thereof, or to limit the jurisdiction conferred upon Probate Courts by other laws.

Art. 1986. Several Obligors to Contract

The acceptor of a bill of exchange, or a principal obligor in a contract, may be sued either alone or jointly with any other party who may be liable thereon; but no judgment shall be rendered against a party not primarily liable on such bill or other contract, unless judgment be also rendered against such acceptor or other principal obligor, except where the plaintiff may discontinue his suit against such principal obligor as hereinafter provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1987. Parties Conditionally Liable

The assignor, indorser, guarantor and surety upon a contract, and the drawer of a bill which has been accepted, may be sued without suing the maker, acceptor or other principal obligor, when the principal obligor resides beyond the limits of the State, or where he cannot be reached by the ordinary process of law, or when his residence is unknown and cannot be ascertained by the use of reasonable diligence, or when he is dead, or actually or notoriously insolvent.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 1988 to 1990. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 1991. Suit in Name of State

Whenever an official bond is made payable to the State of Texas, or any officer thereof, and a recovery thereon is authorized by, or would inure to the benefit of parties other than the State, suit may be brought on such bond in the name of the State alone for the benefit of all parties entitled to recover thereon.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 1992, 1993. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 1994. Suit and Representation by Next Friend

Minors, lunatics, idiots or non compos mentis persons who have no legal guardian may sue and be represented by "next friend" under the following rules:

1. In such cases when a judgment is recovered for money or other personal property the value of which does not exceed One Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500), the court may by order entered of record, authorize such next friend or other person to take charge of such money or other property for the use and benefit of the plaintiff when he has executed a proper bond [in a sum at least double the value of the property], payable to the county judge, conditioned that he will pay said money with lawful interest thereon or deliver said property and its increase to the person entitled to receive the same when ordered by the court to do so, and that he will use such money or property for the benefit of the owner under the direction of the court. The bond shall be in a sum at least double the value of the property and money recovered, with the exception that a bond which is executed by the next friend or other person taking charge of the money or property, as principal, and by a solvent surety company authorized under the laws of Texas to execute such bonds, as surety, shall be in a sum equal to the value of the property and money recovered.

2. The judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered upon an application and hearing, in termtime or vacation, may provide by decree for an investment of the funds accruing under such judgment. Such decree, if made in vacation, shall be recorded in the minutes of the succeeding term of the court.

3. The person who takes such money or property shall receive such compensation as the court may allow and shall make such disposition thereof as the court may order; and he shall return such money or property into court upon the order of the court.

4. If any person has an interest in such recovery, the court may hear evidence as to such interest, and order such claim, or such part as is deemed just, to be paid to whoever is entitled to receive the same.

5. If not otherwise invested in the manner provided in this article, any moneys recovered by the plaintiff, regardless of the amount, may be invested as follows by either the next friend or the Clerk of the Court:

(a) in savings accounts or certificates of any savings and loan association domiciled in this State provided such accounts are insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; or

(b) in interest-bearing time deposits in any bank doing business in this State provided the payment of such time deposits is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and if such moneys are so invested in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such moneys from the financial institution in which they are invested without an order of the court no bond shall be required of the "next friend" in respect to such moneys until the same are withdrawn from such financial institution, at which time the court shall order such bond to be made as may be appropriate under the other provisions of this article, or the court may order such funds turned over directly to the person entitled thereto upon the court finding that the previous disability had ceased to exist.

4. VENUE

Art. 1995. Venue, General Rule

No person who is an inhabitant of this State shall be sued out of the county in which he has his domicile except in the following cases:

1. Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 951, ch. 419, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

2. Transient persons.—A transient person may be sued in any county in which he may be found.

3. Non-residents; residence unknown.—If one or all of several defendants reside without the State or if their residence is unknown, suit may be brought in the county in which the plaintiff resides.

4. Defendants in different counties.—If two or more defendants reside in different counties, suit may be brought in any county where one of the defendants resides. The transfer or assignment of a note or chose in action shall not entitle any subsequent holder to sue thereon in any other county than that in which such suit could have been prosecuted if no assignment or transfer had been made.

5. Contract in writing.—(a) Subject to the provisions of Subsection (b), if a person has contracted in writing to perform an obligation in a particular county, expressly naming such county, or a definite place therein, by such writing, suit upon or by reason of such obligation may be brought against him, either in such county or where the defendant has his domicile.

(b) In an action founded upon a contractual obligation of the defendant to pay money arising out of or based upon a consumer transaction for goods, services, loans, or extensions of credit intended primarily for personal, family, household or agricultural use, suit by a creditor upon or by reason of such obligation may be brought against the defendant either in the county in which the defendant in fact signed the contract, or in the county in which the defendant resides at the time of the commencement of the action. No term or statement contained in an obligation described in this subsection shall constitute a waiver of this provision.

6. Executors, administrators, etc.—If the suit is against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, to establish a money demand against the estate which he represents, the suit may be brought in the county in which such estate is administered.

7. Fraud and defalcation.—In all cases of fraud, and in all cases of defalcation by public officers, suit may be brought in the county where the fraud was committed or where the defalcation occurred, or any of such suits may be brought where the defendant has his domicile.

8. Attachment, sequestration, etc.—A suit for damages resulting from the suing out of a writ of attachment or sequestration, or for levying any such writ, may be brought in the county from which such writ was issued, or in any county where such levy was made in whole or in part.

9. Crime or trespass.—A suit based upon a crime, offense, or trespass may be brought in the county where such crime, offense, or trespass was committed by the defendant, or by his agent or representative, or in the county where the defendant has his domicile. This subdivision shall not apply to any suit based upon negligence per se, negligence at common law or any form of negligence, active or passive.

9a. Negligence.—A suit based upon negligence per se, negligence at common law or any form of negligence, active or passive, may be brought in the county where the act or omission of negligence occurred or in the county where the defendant has his domicile. The venue facts necessary for plaintiff to establish by the preponderance of the evidence to sustain venue in a county other than the county of defendant's residence are:

1. That an act or omission of negligence occurred in the county where suit was filed.

2. That such act or omission was that of the defendant, in person, or that of his servant, agent or representative acting within the scope of his employment.

3. That such negligence was a proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries.

10. Personal property.—Suit for the recovery of personal property may be brought in any county where the property may be or where the defendant resides.

11. Inheritances.—If the defendant has inherited an estate concerning which the suit is commenced, suit may be brought in the county where such estate principally lies.

12. Lien.—A suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien may be brought in the county where the property or any part thereof subject to such lien is situated.

13. Partition.—Suits for the partition of land or other property may be brought in the county where such land or other property, or a part thereof, may be, or in the county in which one or more of the defendants reside, or in the county of the residence of any defendant who may assert an adverse claim to or interest in such property, or seeks to recover the title to the same. Nothing herein shall be construed to fix venue of a suit to recover the title to land.

14. Lands.—Suits for the recovery of lands or damages thereto, or to remove incumbrances upon the title to land, or to quiet the title to land, or to prevent or stay waste on lands, must be brought in the county in which the land, or a part thereof, may lie.

15. Breach of warranty.—Suits for breach of warranty of title to lands may be brought in any county where either vendor resides, and all other vendors may be joined in the same suit.

16. Divorce.—Suits for divorce shall be brought in the county in which the plaintiff shall have resided for six months next preceding the bringing of the suit. However, the hearing may be held and judgment rendered in any other county within the same judicial district if (a) no answer has been filed, or (b) the parties agree to removal of the hearing to the other county.

17. Injunctions.—Suits to enjoin the execution of a judgment or to stay proceedings in any suit shall be brought in the county in which such judgment was rendered or in which such suit is pending.

17a. Labor disputes.—Suits to enjoin strikes or picketing for an unlawful purpose or conducted in an unlawful manner shall be brought (1) in the county where the strike or picketing is alleged to have occurred; or (2) if service cannot be had on any of the defendants in the county described in clause (1), in the county of the residence of the defendant or any one of the defendants, if there be more than one; or (3) in Travis County when suit is brought by the State of Texas, and the state, its agencies or a political subdivision thereof is a party to the suit. Provided, however, that where suit is filed in a county authorized by the provisions of clauses (1) or (2) above, any party thereto may, within five (5) days after notice of institution of suit, make written application to the Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial District within which the suit is filed for the appointment of a substitute judge in the court where suit is filed, whereupon such Presiding Judge of such Administrative Judicial District immediately shall assign another District Judge from such Administrative Judicial District who shall thereafter hear all proceedings in such suit. The judge of the court in which such suit is filed shall have full power to act in the case until receipt by him of a copy of an order of the Administrative Judge removing the case or appointing a substitute judge, and the provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing rights of the parties to a change of venue as authorized by law. For the purpose of enabling all parties to procure the personal attendance of witnesses in any suit in a court of competent jurisdiction under the provisions hereof the clerk of said court where such suit is pending, if the suit is brought in or removed to a county other than the county where the strike or picketing is alleged to have occurred or the county of the residence of the defendant or any one of the defendants and on the application of any party to said suit, shall issue a subpoena for any witness or witnesses who may be represented to reside within any county in the State of Texas or found therein at the time of trial; and the provisions with respect to the issuance of subpoenas, penalties for failure of witnesses to appear, and the tendering of mileage and traveling expenses as provided in Article 7439a of Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, shall apply.

18. Revision of probate.—Suits to revise the proceedings of the county court in matters of probate must be brought in the district court of the county in which such proceedings were had.

19. Suits against counties.—Suits against a county shall be brought within such county.

20. Heads of departments.—Suits for mandamus against the head of any department of the State Government shall be brought in Travis County.

21. Corporations: charters.—Suits brought by the State for the purpose of forfeiting the charter of a private corporation chartered by Act of the Legislature, or organized under the laws of this State, and for the purpose of canceling the permit authorizing a foreign corporation to transact business in this State, and for the purpose of restraining corporations from exercising powers not conferred upon them by the laws of this State, and for the purpose of preventing persons from engaging in business in this State contrary to the laws thereof, may be brought in Travis County.

22. Railway lands.—Suits on behalf of the State to forfeit land fraudulently or colorably alienated by railway companies in fraud of the rights of the State, under the laws granting lands to railway companies, shall be brought in Travis County.

23. Corporations and associations.—Suits against a private corporation, association, or joint stock company may be brought in the county in which its principal office is situated; or in the county in which the cause of action or part thereof arose; or in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time the cause of action or part thereof arose, provided such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative in such county; or, if the corporation, association, or joint stock company had no agency or representative in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time the cause of action or part thereof arose, then suit may be brought in the county nearest that in which plaintiff resided at said time in which the corporation, association or joint stock company then had an agency or representative. Suits against a railroad corporation, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating its railway, may also be brought in any county through or into which the railroad of such corporation extends or is operated. Suits against receivers of persons and corporations may also be brought as otherwise provided by law.

24. Carriers.—Suits arising from damage or loss to any passenger, freight, baggage or other property, by reason of its transportation, or contract in relation thereto, in whole or in part by one or more common carriers or the assignees, lessees, trustees or receivers thereof, operating or doing business as such in this State, or having agents or representatives in this State, may be brought against one or more of those so doing business, in any county where either does business or has an agent or representative.

25. Railway personal injuries.—Suits against railroad corporations, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating any railway in this State, for damages arising from personal injuries, resulting in death or otherwise, shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury. If the defendant railroad corporation does not run or operate its railway in, or through, the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, and has no agent in said county, then said suit shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county nearest that in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, in which the defendant corporation runs or operates its road, or has an agent. When an injury occurs within one-half mile of the boundary line dividing two counties, suit may be brought in either of said counties. If the plaintiff is a nonresident of this State then such suit shall be brought in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county in which the defendant railroad corporation has its principal office.

26. Railroad wages.—Suits by mechanics, laborers and operatives, for their wages due by railroad companies, may be instituted and prosecuted in any county in this State where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action, or part thereof, accrued, or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated.

27. Foreign corporations.—Foreign corporations, private or public, joint stock companies or associations, not incorporated by the laws of this State, and doing business within this State, may be sued in any county where the cause of action or a part thereof accrued, or in any county where such company may have an agency or representative, or in the county in which the principal office of such company may be situated; or, when the defendant corporation has no agent or representative in this State, then in the county where the plaintiffs or either of them, reside.

28. Insurance.—Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may also be commenced in any county in which the insured property was situated. Suits on policies may be brought against any life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, or health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, in the county where the home office of such company is located, or in the county where loss has occurred or where the policyholder or beneficiary instituting such suit resides.

28a. Fraternal benefit societies and statewide mutual assessment companies.—In all actions brought against Fraternal Benefit Societies and/or Statewide Mutual Assessment Companies, regardless of the plan upon which they operate and whether incorporated or not, growing out of or based upon any alleged right or claim or loss or proceeds due, arising from or predicated upon any policy or contract issued or made by such Fraternal Benefit Society and/or Statewide Mutual Assessment Companies, venue shall lie in the county where the policyholder or beneficiary instituting such suit resides or in the county of the principal office of such association or where such cause of action arose.

29. Libel or slander.—A suit for damages for libel or slander shall be brought, and can only be maintained, in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the accrual of the cause of action, or in the county where the defendant resided at the time of filing suit, or in the county of the residence of defendants, or any of them, or the domicile of any corporate defendant, at the election of the plaintiff.

29a. Two or more defendants.—Whenever there are two or more defendants in any suit brought in any county in this State and such suit is lawfully maintainable therein under the provisions of Article 1995 as to any of such defendants, then such suit may be maintained in such county against any and all necessary parties thereto.

30. Special venue.—Whenever in any law authorizing or regulating any particular character of action, the venue is expressly prescribed, the suit shall be commenced in the county to which jurisdiction may be so expressly given.

31. Breach of warranty by a manufacturer.—Suits for breach of warranty by a manufacturer of consumer goods may be brought in any county where the cause of action or a part thereof accrued, or in any county where such manufacturer may have an agency or representative, or in the county in which the principal office of such company may be situated, or in the county where the plaintiff or plaintiffs reside.

while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. See Rules 72, 75, Vernon's Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Art. 2002b. Filing Pleadings; Several Adverse Parties; Number of Copies Furnished

If there is more than one adverse party and the adverse parties are represented by different attorneys, one copy of such pleading shall on request be furnished to each attorney representing the adverse parties, but a firm of attorneys associated in the case shall count as one. Not more than four (4) copies of any pleading shall be required to be furnished to adverse parties and they shall be delivered to the first four (4) applicants entitled thereto. After a copy of a pleading is furnished to an attorney or deposited with the Clerk for him, he cannot require another copy of the same pleading to be furnished to him.

See, now, Article 2031b and Business Corporation Act, Article 8.10, § D.

Art. 2031b. Service of Process Upon Foreign Corporations and Nonresidents

Failure to Appoint Agent; Designation of Secretary of State as Lawful Attorney

Sec. 1. When any foreign corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person required by any Statute of this State to designate or maintain a resident agent, or any such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person subject to Section 3 of this Act, has not appointed or maintained a designated agent, upon whom service of process can be made, or has one or more resident agents and two (2) unsuccessful attempts have been made on different business days to serve process upon each of its designated agents, such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person shall be conclusively presumed to have designated the Secretary of State of Texas as their true and lawful attorney upon whom service of process or complaint may be made.

Engaging in Business in State; Service upon Person in Charge of Business

Sec. 2. When any foreign corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person, though not required by any Statute of this State to designate or maintain an agent, shall engage in business in this State, in any action in which such corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person is a party or is to be made a party arising out of such business, service may be made by serving a copy of the process with the person who, at the time of the service, is in charge of any business in which the defendant or defendants are engaged in this State, provided a copy of such process, together with notice of such service upon such person in charge of such business shall forthwith be sent to the defendant or to the defendants principal place of business by registered mail, return receipt requested.

Act of Engaging in Business in State as Equivalent to Appointment of Secretary of State as Agent

Sec. 3. Any foreign corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership, or non-resident natural person that engages in business in this State, irrespective of any Statute or law respecting designation or maintenance of resident agents, and does not maintain a place of regular business in this State or a designated agent upon whom service may be made upon causes of action arising out of such business done in this State, the act or acts of engaging in such business within this State shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such foreign corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person of the Secretary of State of Texas as agent upon whom service of process may be made in any action, suit or proceedings arising out of such business done in this State, wherein such corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person is a party or is to be made a party.

Doing Business in State; Definition

Sec. 4. For the purpose of this Act, and without including other acts that may constitute doing business, any foreign corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person shall be deemed doing business in this State by entering into contract by mail or otherwise with a resident of Texas to be performed in whole or in part by either party in this State, or the committing of any tort in whole or in part in this State.

Delivery of Process to Secretary of State; Forwarding Copy

Sec. 5. Whenever process against a foreign corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, or non-resident natural person is made by delivering to the Secretary of State duplicate copies of such process, the Secretary of State shall require a statement of the name and address of the home or home office of the non-resident. Upon receipt of such process, the Secretary of State shall forthwith forward to the defendant a copy of the process by registered mail, return receipt requested.

Nonresidency after Accrual of Cause of Action; Service upon Secretary of State

Sec. 6. When any corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership or natural person becomes a non-resident of Texas, as that term is commonly used, after a cause of action shall arise in this State, but prior to the time the cause of action is matured by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction in this State, when such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership or natural person is not required to appoint a service agent in this State, such corporation, association, joint stock company, partnership or natural person may be served with citation by serving a copy of the process upon the Secretary of State of Texas, who shall be conclusively presumed to be the true and lawful attorney to receive service of process; provided that the Secretary of State shall forward a copy of such service to the person in charge of such business or an officer of such company, or to such natural person by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 7. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing any statute in force in this State in reference to service of process, but this Act shall be cumulative of all existing statutes.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 85, ch. 43.]

Art. 2032. Foreign Railway Corporations

Service may also be had on foreign railway corporations by serving citation upon any train conductor who is engaged in handling trains for two or more railway corporations where one is a foreign railway corporation, and the other a domestic corporation, if said conductor handles and operates trains over such foreign and domestic corporation's tracks across the State line of Texas and on the track of the domestic corporation within this State or upon any agent who has an office in Texas who sells tickets or makes contracts for the transportation of passengers or property over any line of railway, or part thereof, of such foreign railway corporation or company. Conductors who are engaged in handling trains and employed by a foreign railway corporation and a domestic corporation, and who operate such trains across the State line of Texas, and agents engaged in selling tickets or making contracts for the transportation of property, are hereby designated as agents of such foreign corporation or companies upon whom service of citation may be had.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2033. Against Partners

Citation served upon one member of a partnership or firm shall be sufficient to authorize a judgment against the firm and the partner actually served.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Saved from repeal, see art. 6132b, § 46.

Art. 2033a. Service on Local Representative of Nonresident Individual or Partnership Supplying Public Utility Service

In suits against individuals and partnerships engaging in supplying gas, water, electricity or other public utility service to villages, towns, or cities in Texas, where such individuals or members of such partnerships reside out of the State of Texas, citation may be served upon the local agent, representative, superintendent or person in charge of the business of such individuals or partnerships.

Art. 2033b. Service of Process on Agent or Clerk in Office in County Other than Residence of Principal

When an individual, partnership or unincorporated association (either being referred to herein as principal, whether one or more) has, for the transaction or doing of any business in Texas, an office, place of business, or agency in any county other than that in which the principal resides, service of citation or other civil process to bind any such principal, may be made on any agent or clerk employed in such office, place of business or agency, in all suits or actions growing out of or connected with such business and brought in the county in which such office, place of business or agency is located; and the provisions hereof shall apply as well to non-residents of the state as to non-residents of such county; and shall also apply to cases where a principal, though claiming or alleged to be a resident of the county wherein is located such office, place of business or agency, has not been found in such county for service on him of process in such suit, in which case, if the officer making return of the process unexecuted shall certify in such return that after diligent search and inquiry a principal cannot be found and served, then process in such suit to any succeeding term of court may be served on such clerk or agent as is herein provided for in case of non-residents of such county; but provided that nothing herein shall prevent or interfere with the application of the articles of the statutes relating to venue of suits.

Art. 2033c. Effect of Service

Such service of process, made in the manner herein provided, shall have the same effect as if made personally on the principal and shall especially have effect to subject all non-exempt property in Texas of the principal so served to the jurisdiction and judgment of the court in such suit; but provided that no default judgment shall be rendered on service so obtained until after twenty days after the date of such service, and provided further that the method of service afforded by this Act shall be cumulative.

Arts. 2034 to 2039. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2039a. Citation of Nonresident Motor Vehicle Operators by Serving Chairman of State Highway Commission; Forwarding Notice to Defendant

Acceptance of Benefits of Highways Deemed Equivalent to Appointment of Agent; Service

Sec. 1. The acceptance by a nonresident of this State or by a person who was a resident of this State at the time of the accrual of a cause of action but who subsequently removes therefrom, or the acceptance by his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian of the rights, privileges and benefits extended by law to such persons of operating a motor vehicle or motorcycle or of having the same driven or operated within the State of Texas shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such nonresident and of his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, of the Chairman of the State Highway Commission of this State, or his successor in office, to be his true and lawful attorney and agent upon whom may be served all lawful process in any civil action or proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted against said nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, growing out of any accident, or collision in which said nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, may be involved while operating a motor vehicle or motorcycle within this State, either in person or by his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, and said acceptance or operation shall be a signification of the agreement of said nonresident, or his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, that any such process against him or against his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, served upon said Chairman of the State Highway Commission or his successor in office, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served personally.

Service of such process shall be made by leaving a certified copy of the process issued in the hands of the Chairman of the State Highway Commission in Texas at least twenty (20) days prior to the return date thereof, to be stated in said process, and such service shall be sufficient upon said nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, provided, however, that notice of such service and a copy of the process be forthwith sent by registered mail by the Chairman of the State Highway Commission to the nonresident defendant, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian.

Forwarding Process; Notice; Return

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Chairman of the State Highway Commission of the State of Texas, upon being served with process as provided in Section 1 of this Act, to immediately enclose copy of the process served upon him in a letter properly addressed to the defendant, or to his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, and shall forward the same by registered mail, postage prepaid. If and in the event notice of service of the process upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission cannot be effected by registered mail or if the person to whom it is addressed refuses to accept or receive the same, then the plaintiff may cause the defendant to be served with a notice of the fact that the process has been served upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission, stating the date of the service thereof, which notice shall also be accompanied with a certified copy of the process so served upon said Chairman of the State Highway Commission. Such notice may be served by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact by delivering to the person to be served in person a true copy of such notice, together with a certified copy of the process served upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission. The return of service in such case shall be endorsed on or attached to the original notice stating when it was served and upon whom it was served and it shall be signed and sworn to by the party making such service before any person authorized by the Statutes of this State to make affidavit under the hand and official seal of such officer.

Return

Sec. 3. The officer serving such process upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission, shall in his return state the day and hour of the service upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission of such process and such other facts as are now required to be made in his return as in the case of service of citations generally.

Certificate of Chairman of Highway Commission

Sec. 4. The Chairman of the State Highway Commission shall upon request of a party and upon the payment of a fee of Three Dollars ($3), to certify to the court out of which said process is issued or in which any suit or action may be pending against such nonresident, his agent, servant, employee, heir, legal representative, executor, administrator or guardian, the occurrence or performance of any of the duties, acts, omissions, transactions or happenings contemplated or required by this Act, including the wording of any registered letter received, and his certificate, as well as the wording of said registered letter receipt, shall be accepted as prima facie evidence and proof of the statements contained therein.

Judgment by Default

Sec. 5. No judgment by default shall be taken in any such cause or action, suit or proceeding, until after the expiration of at least twenty days after such process shall have been served upon the Chairman of the State Highway Commission as herein provided, and the presumption shall obtain, unless rebutted, that such process was transmitted by the Chairman of the State Highway Commission and received by the defendant after being deposited in the mail by the Chairman of the State Highway Commission.

Continuance or Postponement

Sec. 6. The court in which the action or proceeding is pending shall have the right to continue or postpone said action or proceeding, as may be necessary to afford the defendant reasonable opportunity to defend the action.

¹ So in enrolled bill. The word "to" should probably be omitted.

Art. 2040. Unknown Heirs or Stockholders of Defunct Corporation

Where property in this State has been granted or has accrued to the heirs as such, of any deceased person, or to the stockholders of defunct corporation, any party having a claim or cause of action against them relative to such property, if their names be unknown to him, may bring an action against them, their heirs or legal representatives, describing them as the heirs of such named ancestor or unknown stockholder of such corporation. If the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, shall make oath that the names of such heirs or stockholders are unknown to the affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for such heirs or stockholders, addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which such suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the officer to summon the defendant by making publication of such citation as provided in the preceding article.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

Repealed in part by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1). See Rule 111, Vernon's Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Art. 2041. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2041a. Suits Against Unknown Owners or Claimants of Interest in Land; Citation by Publication

Sec. 1. When land in this State or any interest of any kind in land has been or may hereafter be conveyed, or any lease or contract with reference to land made by written instrument (a) to any person or persons as trustee or trustees and in the conveyance or instrument constituting source of title or claim of title the names of the persons taking or holding the equitable or beneficial title are not disclosed and are unknown, or (b) to any association, joint stock company or partnership, in an association, company or firm name, without disclosing the names of the members, shareholders or partners or persons owning interests in such association, company or firm, and such association, joint stock company or partnership shall thereafter be dissolved and the names of the persons holding or acquiring title to such lands after dissolution are not disclosed in such instrument and are unknown; in each of such cases any person claiming ownership of or any interest in such lands or having a claim or cause of action against such unknown owners or claimants relative to such property, may bring action or actions against such unknown owners or claimants as such. The provisions hereof shall apply to conveyances made to all character and kinds of companies, associations and organizations, and in which conveyance the names and identity of the persons taking and holding the beneficial or equitable title are not disclosed and are unknown; provided, however, that if the grantee in such conveyance is shown therein to be a corporation or if the grantee be known to be a corporation, in such event this Act shall not apply, but the rights of action shall be governed by Article 2040 of Revised Civil Statutes; but if the character of the organization as whether incorporated or unincorporated is not shown in such conveyance and such facts are unknown, then suit brought under the provisions of this Act against the unknown owners or claimants of property under such conveyance shall be sufficient to give the Court jurisdiction over such unknown owners or claimants regardless of whether the named grantee is in fact a corporation or unincorporated.

Art. 2092. Rules of Practice and Procedure

The following rules of practice and procedure shall govern and be followed in the Civil District Courts in counties having two (2) or more District Courts with civil jurisdiction only, whose terms continue three (3) months or longer and in all civil litigation in counties having five (5) or more District Courts with either civil or criminal jurisdiction or both civil and criminal jurisdiction:

1. Citation. Citations issued for personal service in the county in which the suit is pending shall command the officer to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of the twenty-five (25) days from the date of citation and shall be executed and returned by the officer twenty (20) days after date of issuance.

2. Execution and Return. Citations or notices issued for personal service on a defendant to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifty-five (55) days from the date the citation or notice is issued, shall be executed or served on or before thirty-five (35) days from the date of issue and shall be made returnable thirty-five (35) days after such date.

3. Out-County Citation. Citation for defendants alleged to reside or be outside of the county in which the suit is pending, but within this State, shall be directed to the Sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be and shall command him to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date the citation is issued and shall be executed and returned to the officer within twenty (20) days after the date of issue.

4. Time for Appearance. Citations or notices issued for personal service on a defendant alleged to reside or be outside of the State but within the United States, shall notify the defendant to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifty-five (55) days from the date the citation or notice is issued and shall be executed or served on or before thirty-five (35) days from the date of issue and shall be made returnable thirty-five (35) days after date of issue.

5. Citation Shall Specify Day. In each of said cases the citation or notice shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and if any defendant so served does not appear and answer at or before the time specified in such citation or notice, judgment by default may be rendered against such defendant.

6. Citation by Publication. If citation is to be served by publication it shall be returnable forty-two (42) days after the date of issue and shall command the defendant to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of forty-two (42) days after the citation was issued, and shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and shall be served by being published in the manner and for the length of time required by law for citations by publication in the same kind of cases or matters in other District Courts at the time the publication is made and the first publication shall be at least twenty-eight (28) days before the return day of the citation.

7. Service in Foreign Country. If citation is issued to be served personally on any defendant or party in any foreign country it shall be made returnable at such time as the plaintiff or person procuring its issuance shall direct, which shall not be less than thirty (30) days nor more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the date of issue and shall notify and command the defendant or person to be served to appear and answer at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty (20) days after the return day of the citation or notice and shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and shall be served on or before the return day, and if any defendant so served does not appear and answer at or before the time specified in the citation or notice, judgment by default may be rendered against such defendant.

8. Where Citation or Service is Quashed. If the citation or service thereof is quashed on motion of the defendant, such defendant shall be deemed to have entered his appearance at ten o'clock a. m. on the Monday next after the expiration of twenty (20) days after the day on which the citation or service is quashed, and such defendant shall be deemed to have been duly served so as to require him to appear and answer at that time, and if he fails to do so, judgment by default may be rendered against him.

9. Writs of Attachment. Writs of attachment shall be executed immediately after their issuance. Every such writ shall be made returnable, on or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifteen (15) days from the issuance of the writ, and the officer executing the writ shall return the same at or before that time with his action indorsed thereon or attached thereto, signed by him officially, showing how he has executed the writ.

10. Writs of Garnishment. Writs of garnishment shall be executed immediately after their issuance and every such writ shall command the officer to summon the garnishee to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty-five (25) days from the date the writ was issued and the writ shall specify when and where the garnishee is required to answer and the officer receiving the writ of garnishment shall within fifteen (15) days after the issuance of the writ make his return showing how he has executed the writ.

11. Failure of Garnishee to Answer. If the garnishee fails to make answer to the writ on or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty-five (25) days from the date of the writ, he shall be in default and it shall be lawful for the Court, at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, to render judgment by default against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, with all accruing interest and costs. The plaintiff in garnishment shall have fifteen (15) days after the garnishee's answer is filed within which to controvert the same if he so desires.

12. Other Writs and Process. All other writs and process not expressly otherwise provided for in this Article and which under the general law are now returnable to the first day of the next term of Court after the issuance thereof, and which require the defendant or person served to appear on the first day of the next succeeding term, shall be returnable fifteen (15) days after the date thereof and shall be executed and returned at or before the expiration of fifteen (15) days from the date thereof and shall require the defendant or party served to appear and answer at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of twenty-five (25) days after such writ or process was issued, and all such writs or process shall so specify.

13. Appealed Cases. In cases appealed to said District Courts from inferior Courts, the appeal, including transcript, shall be filed in the District Court within thirty (30) days after the rendition of the judgment or order appealed from, and the appellee shall enter his appearance on the docket or answer to said appeal on or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the date the appeal is filed in the District Court.

14. Pleas of Privilege. Pleas of privilege shall be filed at or before the time the defendant is required to answer and a contest thereof if any, shall be filed within twenty (20) days after the appearance day, and if a contest is filed, the same shall, when filed, be set for hearing by the Court within not exceeding thirty (30) days after being filed and shall be determined by the Court within not exceeding ten (10) days after the date for which the same is set unless postponed or continued without prejudice, by order or leave of the Court, by agreement of the parties, and shall not be postponed longer than sixty (60) days after being filed unless by order of the Court entered by agreement of the parties.

15. Amended Pleadings. Whenever any party files a pleading of any character, he shall at the same time either deliver to the adverse party, or deposit with the Clerk for the adverse party, a copy of such pleading, which copy shall not be filed by the Clerk. All filed pleadings shall remain at all times in the Clerk's office or in the Court or in custody of the Clerk, except that the Court may by order entered on the Minutes allow a filed pleading to be withdrawn for a limited time whenever necessary on leaving a certified copy on file. The party withdrawing such pleading shall pay the costs of such order and certified copy.

16. Where More Than One Adverse Party. If there is more than one adverse party and the adverse parties are represented by different attorneys, one copy of each pleading shall on request be furnished to each attorney representing the adverse parties, but a firm or attorneys associated in the case shall count as one.

Not more than four (4) copies of any pleading shall be required to be furnished to adverse parties and they shall be delivered to the first four (4) applicants entitled thereto. After a copy of a pleading is furnished to an attorney or deposited with the Clerk for him, he cannot require another copy of the same pleading to be furnished to him.

17. Failure to Furnish Copy. If any party fails to furnish the adverse party with a copy of any pleading in accordance with this Article, he may be required to do so by order of the Court on motion made and notice given, and if he fails to comply with any such order within five (5) days after its date, he may be punished for contempt of Court, and the Court may order the Clerk to furnish a certified copy, the costs thereof to be charged against the party who failed to comply with the order to furnish it.

18. Setting Cases for Trial, Etc. On the first Monday in each calendar month the Judge of each Court may, and as far as practicable shall, set for trial during the calendar month next after the month during which the setting is made, all contested cases which are requested to be set, and by agreement of the parties, or on motion of either party, or on the Court's own motion with notice to the parties, the Court may set any case for trial at any time so as to allow the parties reasonable time for preparation. Non-contested cases may be tried or disposed of at any time whether set or not, and may be set at any time for any other time.

18a. Assignment Clerks. In all counties having a population of more than three hundred thousand (300,000) inhabitants and less than three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) inhabitants, according to the preceding Federal Census, a majority of the District Judges of the District Courts with civil jurisdiction only may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve under the Presiding Judge of said District Courts in the setting and disposing of cases on the general Jury Docket. The salary of said Clerk shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of the county and paid in monthly installments on voucher approved by the Presiding Judge of said Courts. His appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

19. Postponement or Continuance. Cases may be postponed or continued by agreement with the approval of the Court, or upon the Court's own motion or for cause. When a case is called for trial and only one party is ready, the Court may for good cause either continue the case for the term or postpone and reset it for a later day in the same or succeeding term.

20. Cases May Be Reset. A case that is set and reached for trial may be postponed for a later day in the term or continued and reset for a day certain in the succeeding term on the same grounds as an application for continuance would be granted in other District Courts. After any case has been set and reached in its due order and called for trial two (2) or more times and not tried, the Court may dismiss the same unless the parties agree to a postponement or continuance but the Court shall respect written agreements of counsel for postponement and continuance if filed in the case when or before it is called for trial unless to do so will unreasonably delay or interfere with other business of the Court.

21. Exchange and Transfer. The Judges of such Courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches or districts from time to time, and may transfer cases and other proceedings from one Court to another, and any of them may in his own courtroom try and determine any case or proceeding pending in another Court without having the case transferred, or may sit in any other of said Courts and there hear and determine any case there pending, and every judgment and order shall be entered in the Minutes of the Court in which the case is pending and at the time the judgment or order is rendered, and two (2) or more Judges may try different cases in the same Court at the same time, and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any other Court. The Judge of any such Court may issue restraining orders and injunctions returnable to any other Judge or Court, and any Judge may transfer any case or proceeding pending in his Court to any other of said Courts, and the Judge of any Court to which a case or proceeding is transferred shall receive and try the same, and in turn shall have power in his discretion to transfer any such case to any other of said Courts and any other Judge may in his courtroom try any case pending in any other of such Courts.

22. Cases Transferred to Judges not Occupied. When the Judge of any such Court shall become disengaged, he shall notify the Presiding Judge, and the Presiding Judge shall transfer to the Court of the disengaged Judge the next case which is ready for trial in any of said Courts. Any Judge not engaged in his own Court may try any case in any other Court.

23. Judge Disqualified. If a Judge of any Court is disqualified in any case pending in his Court, and his disqualification is certified to the Governor, the Governor may require the Judge of any other of such Courts to exchange benches or districts with the disqualified Judge, and may, at any time, require any of such Judges to exchange districts with each other or with any other District Judge. In case of the absence, sickness, or disqualification of any Judge, any other of said Judges may hold Court for him or may transfer from his Court to any other of said Courts any case or proceeding then pending in the Court of said absent, sick, or disqualified Judge and in such circumstances the practicing lawyers of the Court may elect a special Judge of said Court in the same manner as provided in Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925,¹ and such special Judge when so elected shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which the regular Judge of said Court could have and exercise.

24. Judge May Hear Only Part of Case. Any Judge may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in any of said Courts and determine the same, or may hear and determine any question in any case, and any other Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

25. Any Judge May Hear Dilatory Pleas, Etc. Any Judge may hear and determine demurrers, motions, petitions for injunction, applications for appointment of receivers, interventions, pleas of privilege, pleas in abatement, all dilatory pleas, motions for new trial and all preliminary matters, questions and proceedings and may enter judgment or order thereon in the Court in which the case is pending without having the case transferred to the Court of the Judge acting, and the Judge in whose Court the case is pending may thereafter proceed to hear, complete, and determine the case or other matter, or any part thereof, and render final judgment therein. Any judgment rendered or action taken by any Judge in any of said Courts in the county shall be valid and binding.

26. Selection of Presiding Judge. The Judges of such Courts shall twice a year, in January and July, select one of their number as Presiding Judge and may at any time cancel and annul such selection and select any other Judge as Presiding Judge. Each such proceeding shall be by majority vote. Each Judge shall enter on his Minutes an order reciting the selection of the Presiding Judge. The Presiding Judge may assign any case in his Court or any of such Courts in the county to any other Judge or Court, or may assign any Judge to try any case in any of the Courts, and the Judge in whose Court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the case to the Court to which it is assigned, and the Judge of the Court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case, and such Judge shall hold any other Court or try any case which he is requested by the Presiding Judge to try.

27. Judges May Make Rules. The Judges may by a majority vote make rules for the calling of the docket, for the setting and postponement of cases, for the hearing and acting upon motions, questions of law, applications for injunctions and receivers, and for classifying and distributing cases and for having one calendar for all set cases in all Courts and for prescribing when the different Courts shall have jury trials and when they shall have nonjury trials, and such other rules as they deem advisable to facilitate the dispatch of business. All rules made by said Judges shall be adopted by order of each Judge and spread upon the Minutes of his Court, but such rules shall not be inconsistent with any rule adopted or prescribed by the Supreme Court, nor in conflict with any law of this State.

28. Motion for New Trial. A motion for new trial filed during one term of Court may be heard and acted on at the next term of Court. If a case or other matter is on trial or in process of hearing when the term of Court expires, such trial, hearing, or other matter may be proceeded with at the next term of the Court. No motion for new trial or other motion or plea shall be considered as waived or overruled, because not acted on at the term of Court at which it was filed, but may be acted on at the succeeding term or at any time which the Judge may fix or to which it may have been postponed or continued by agreement of the parties with leave of the Court. All motions and amended motions for new trials must be presented within thirty (30) days after the original motion or amended motion is filed and must be determined within not exceeding forty-five (45) days after the original or amended motion is filed, unless by written agreement of the parties in the case, the decision of the motion is postponed to a later date.

29. Time to File Motion for New Trial. A motion for new trial where required shall be filed within ten (10) days after the judgment is rendered or other order complained of is entered, and may be amended by leave of the Court at any time before it is acted on within twenty (20) days after it is filed.

30. Judgment Final, When. Judgments of such civil District Courts shall become as final after the expiration of thirty (30) days after the date of judgment or after a motion for a new trial is overruled as if the term of Court had expired. After the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date the judgment is rendered or motion for new trial is overruled, the judgment cannot be set aside except by bill of review for sufficient cause, filed within the time allowed by law for the filing of bills of review in other District Courts.

31. Appeal Bonds Filed, When. In appeals from such civil District Courts the appeal bond shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the judgment or order appealed from is rendered, if no motion for new trial is filed, and if a motion for new trial is filed, the appeal bond shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the motion for new trial is overruled. In such appeals the statement of facts and bills of exception shall be filed within ninety (90) days after the judgment is rendered if there is no motion for new trial, but if there is a motion for new trial then ninety (90) days after motion for new trial is overruled. When a statement of facts or bills of exception is presented to the adverse party, or his attorney, it shall be returned within five (5) days signed by the attorney of such adverse party if found correct, and if found incorrect shall be returned within that time with a written statement of the objections thereto.

Art. 2093d. Presiding Judge and Assignment Clerk in 28th, 94th and 117th Judicial Districts

The Judges of the three (3) District Courts included within the provisions of this Act may from time to time, as they may see fit, elect a Presiding Judge, who shall attend to the administration of this Act¹ and the setting and assignment of cases in said Courts, in accordance with this Act, and in all other matters not provided for by this Act or some other Law or Rules of Civil Procedure. Such Presiding Judge shall be elected by said Judges for such term as they see fit. A majority of the Judges of the District Courts within the provisions of this Act may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve said Courts in Nueces County under the Presiding Judge of said District Courts in the setting and disposing of cases on the general docket. Such Assignment Clerk shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by said Judges in connection with the setting and disposing of cases. The salary of such Clerk shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Nueces County and paid in monthly installments out of the General Fund or the Jury Fund of such County, as the Commissioners Court may provide, on voucher approved by the Presiding Judge of said Courts; provided, such salary shall not exceed Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per annum. The appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

Art. 2093e. Assignment Clerk of District Courts of Bexar County

Sec. 1. A majority of the Judges of the 37th, 45th, 57th and 73rd District Courts may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve said Courts in Bexar County under the presiding Judge of said District Courts in the setting and disposing of cases on the general docket. Such Assignment Clerk shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by said Judges in connection with the setting and disposing of cases. The salary of such Clerk shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County and paid in monthly installments out of the General Fund or the Jury Fund of such County, as the Commissioners Court may provide, on voucher approved by the Presiding Judge of said Courts. The appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

Art. 2093f. Assignment, Docketing and Transfer of Cases in Dallas County District Courts

The district judges of Dallas County shall have authority to adopt by majority vote, rules governing the assignment, docketing, and transfer of all cases in the district courts of Dallas County, including criminal district courts, and in the juvenile and domestic relations courts, subject to jurisdictional limitations. The presiding judge of the district courts of Dallas County, acting in accordance with the Rules, shall have authority to assign and transfer cases and to direct the manner in which they are docketed. The district clerk of Dallas County shall assign, docket, and transfer cases as the presiding judge shall direct.

Art. 2094. Selecting Names for Jury Wheel

[Text as amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2797, ch. 905, § 1]

Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in each county in this State, the tax collector, sheriff, county clerk, and district clerk of the county, each in person or represented by one of his deputies, shall meet at the county courthouse and reconstitute the jury wheel, using as the sole and mandatory source, all names on the voter registration lists from all precincts in the county.

Section 1 of Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 373, ch. 180, provided: "Purpose. The 58th Legislature amended Article 2094, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, by two separate Acts with different provisions. The purpose of this amendment is to clarify the law by combining all of the provisions of both amendments, and to facilitate future amendment."

Section 2 of Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 948, ch. 159 provided: "As used in this Act, 'the last preceding federal census' means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes."

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, amending this article and various other articles of this chapter, in sections 13, 14, and 16 to 19 provided:

"Sec. 13. [providing for the court's equalization of the number of peremptory challenges of prospective jurors allotted to the parties, appears as article 2151a].

"Sec. 14. Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 475, ch. 204, § 2. [See, now, article 2094a.]

"Sec. 16. All statutes, rules of civil procedure, or case laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict.

"Sec. 17. For all counties under 10,000 population not presently using the jury wheel system for selection of jurors, the district judge of the county or of the judicial district of which the county is a part, may determine whether the county should come under the provisions of this law or may choose to adopt the jury commissioners system for selection of jurors in that county. If the district judge should determine to adopt the jury commissioners system for selection of jurors in a particular county, he must do so by July 15, 1971, otherwise, the county will come under the provisions of this Act. If, pursuant to the passage of this Act, this section is held to be unconstitutional by a court of this State or of the United States, then the jury wheel system for selection of jurors as provided by this Act shall be applicable to all counties of the State.

"Sec. 18. The provisions of this Act shall become effective on July 15, 1971.

"Sec. 19. If any article, section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such invalid portion shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the valid portions of the Act irrespective of the fact that any one or more portions be declared unconstitutional."

Art. 2094a. Removal of Prospective Jurors for Cause; Dismissal from Service; Counties of Not Less Than 1,100,000

In all counties of this state having a population of not less than 1,100,000 inhabitants, once a prospective juror has been removed from a jury panel for cause, by peremptory challenge, or for any reason, he shall be immediately dismissed from jury service and shall not be placed on another jury panel until his name is returned to the jury wheel and drawn again as a prospective juror.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 475, ch. 204, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Section 2 of the 1973 Act repealed Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, § 14, which prior thereto read: "Once a prospective juror has been removed from a jury panel for cause, by peremptory challenge, or for any reason, he shall be immediately dismissed from jury service and shall not be placed on another jury panel until his name is returned to the jury wheel and drawn again as a prospective juror."

Art. 2095. Cards Put in Wheel; Typists and Expenses

Said officers shall write the names of all persons on said precinct lists, residing in their respective counties, on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on said cards, whenever possible, the post-office address of each juror so selected, except that in counties having a population of one hundred forty thousand (140,000) or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the Commissioners Court shall provide out of the jury fund a sum sufficient for the employment of typists and payment of other expenses. The typists, under the direction, control and supervision of the district clerk, shall type the names and addresses of qualified jurors upon the cards as herein described. The expenses so incurred shall be authorized, reported, paid and accounted for under the same laws, rules and regulations as govern the payment of other expenses of the office of the district clerk in such counties, except as otherwise herein specifically provided. The cards containing said names shall be deposited in a jury wheel, to be provided for such purpose by the Commissioners Court of the county. Said wheel shall be constructed of any durable material and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle; and may be equipped with a motor capable of revolving said wheel in such a manner as to thoroughly mix said cards; and shall be kept locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks, so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock; and said wheel, and the clasps thereto attached into which the locks shall be fitted, shall be so arranged that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of said locks are unlocked at the time the wheel is opened. The keys to such locks shall be kept, one by the sheriff and the other by the district clerk. The sheriff and the clerk shall not open such wheel, nor permit the same to be opened by any person, except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified; but said sheriff and clerk shall keep such wheel, when not in use, in a safe and secure place, where the same cannot be tampered with.

Art. 2096. Cards Drawn from Wheel

(a) Not less than 10 days prior to the first day of a term of court, the district clerk or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the district judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for district court, or the clerk of the county court, or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the county judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for the county court, shall draw from the wheel containing the names of the jurors, after the same has been well turned so that the cards therein are thoroughly mixed, one by one the names of those jurors where such judge has so directed to compose as many lists as the term of the district or county courts may require, and shall record the names upon as many lists as the judge shall deem necessary to insure an adequate number of jurors for each session of the court. At such drawing, no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present, except as hereinafter provided. The officers attending such drawing shall not divulge the names of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. If at any time during the term it appears that the lists already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of the term, additional jurors as are needed may be drawn in the same manner.

(b) Drawing of names observed. Upon the application in writing of any party to any suit pending upon the docket of a court for which a jury is required, said party, or his duly authorized representative, shall have the right to be present and observe the drawing of names from the jury wheel and the placement thereof upon the jury lists for the time period in which his case is set, provided, however, that the identity of the names so drawn and placed upon the lists at such time shall not be made known to such observer.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 871, ch. 396, § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2800, ch. 905, § 7, eff. July 15, 1971.]

Art. 2097. List Certified

The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk or the deputy doing the drawing, and the district or county judge in whose presence the names were drawn from the wheel, to be the lists drawn by him for that term, and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes indorsed, "List No. _____ of the petit jurors drawn on the _____ day of _____, 19____, for the _____ Court of _____ County," (filling in the blanks properly and numbering the envelopes consecutively from one up). The clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge, who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly indorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his office.

Art. 2098. List Delivered to Clerk

The judge shall deliver such envelopes to the clerk, or one of his deputies, and shall in his discretion instruct the clerk to indorse on any of such envelopes that the jury for that week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday of said week, and the judge shall, at the same time, administer to the clerk and to each of his deputies an oath in substance as follows: "You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to any one the name or names of the men appearing on any of the jury lists, that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any one selected as juror concerning any case pending for trial in this court at its next term. So help you God."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2099. Cards to be Used Again

When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing such names shall be sealed in separate envelopes, indorsed, "Cards containing the names of jurors on List No. _____ of the petit jurors drawn on the _____ day of _____, 19____, for the _____ Court of _____ County," (filling in the blanks properly). Each envelope shall be retained securely by the clerk, unopened, until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled; and after such jurors so impaneled have served four (4) or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk, or his deputy, and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four (4) days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk, or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four (4) days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors for the wheel; provided that in any county with a population greater than 100,000 according to the last preceding federal census, the clerk may withhold from the jury wheel all cards so selected, unless ordered by the judge to return such cards to the wheel. If any of the lists drawn for a term of court are not used, the clerk or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names on the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the term and return the cards to the wheel.

Art. 2100. Loss of Wheel

If the wheel containing the names of jurors be lost or destroyed, with the contents thereof, or if all the cards in said wheel be drawn out, such wheel shall immediately be refurnished, and cards bearing the names of jurors shall be placed therein immediately in accordance with the laws of the State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2798, ch. 905, § 3, eff. July 15, 1971.]

Art. 2100a. Selection in Counties with Aid of Mechanical or Electronic Means; Adoption of Plan

[Text of section 1 as amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1408, ch. 386, § 1]

Sec. 1. (a) This Act applies to any county with at least one district court whose jurisdiction is limited to that county.

(b) In lieu of any other method of procedure now provided by law, the Commissioners Court of any such county may, upon recommendation of the judge of that court, or if there is more than one such court, a majority of the judges of these courts, by order entered upon its minutes, adopt a plan for the selection of persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic means.

[Text of section 1 as amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2799, ch. 905, § 5]

Sec. 1. In lieu of any other procedure now provided by law, the Commissioners Court of any county in the State, upon recommendation of the district judge or a majority of the district judges of said courts, by order entered upon its minutes, may adopt a plan for the selection of persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic means.

Sec. 2. Any such plan so adopted shall conform to the following requirements:

(a) It shall be proposed in writing to the Commissioners Court by a majority of the judges of the district courts in such county, including criminal district courts, at a meeting of the district judges called for that purpose.

(b) It shall specify that the sources from which names are to be taken for jury purposes are all voter registration lists from all precincts in the county.

(c) It shall provide a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic equipment.

(d) It shall designate the clerk of the district courts as the official to be in charge of the selection process and shall define his duties.

(e) It shall specify that a true and complete written list showing the names and addresses of the persons summoned to begin jury service on a particular date shall be filed of record with the county clerk at least 10 days prior to the date such persons are to begin such jury service.

Sec. 3. In any county where such a plan is adopted, as above provided, the laws relating to the selection of petit juries by jury wheel shall not apply.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1666, ch. 529, eff. June 10, 1969; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1408, ch. 386, § 1, eff. May 26, 1971; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2799, ch. 905, § 5, eff. July 15, 1971.]

Art. 2101. Interchangeable Juries

The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

1. Jury Wheel Law governs.—The provisions of the statutes governing jury wheels shall remain in full force and effect, except as modified by the special provisions of this law.

2. Organization and supervision.—In each county under this law, the district judges shall meet together and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in all the county courts at law, county courts and district courts of such county, for each week during the time said courts may hold during the year, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of jurors from the wheel for each of said weeks, said jury to be known as the general panel of jurors for service in all such courts of such county for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. A majority of said district judges are authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this law; they may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week, and shall order said jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and said judge, for such time as he is chosen to so act shall organize said juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The said jurors so limited in number shall, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before said judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the said jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in any of said courts.

3. Used interchangeably.—Said jurors when impaneled shall constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in all county and district courts in said county, and shall be used interchangeably in all of said courts. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of all said courts, the judge having control of the said general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.

4. Provided, however, that in any county of this state having a population in excess of nine hundred thousand (900,000) according to the last preceding or any future United States Census, it shall be permissible, after having been approved by a majority of the judges for the district courts of any such county, to draw from said jury wheel two separate jury panels for the week; one of which said jury panels for the week shall be drawn and be in attendance upon those criminal district courts and county courts which have a criminal docket, and the other said jury panel for the week shall be drawn and be in attendance upon those courts which have a civil docket.

5. This Article is also applicable to a county that has two district courts and a domestic relations court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 882, ch. 385, § 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 520, ch. 224, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2798, ch. 905, § 4, eff. July 15, 1971.]

Art. 2102. Jury Quarters

The Commissioners Court of each such county shall set apart for the use and convenience of said general panel or panels some room or rooms or place or places in or near to the court house, which shall be comfortably furnished and fitted up for them to stay when not required for actual jury service. Said quarters shall be occupied by said panel or panels when not in service and they shall remain in or conveniently near thereto so as to be at all times subject to duty in any court in accordance with the preceding Article when called for, without delaying the proceedings of such court. The sheriff shall assign one of his deputies to look after said panel, call them when needed by the judges, provide for their wants and to have general custody and control of them when not in actual service.

Art. 2103. Reducing Number in General Panel

When it becomes necessary to diminish the general panel for the week of its selection on account of lack of work in any court or for any other cause, the judge having supervision of said jury for the week shall designate the number to remain. He shall cause the clerk to draw from the names of the general panel the number required, and those jurors whose names are so drawn shall continue in service for the remainder of the week and the others excused.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2103a. County Judges and Judges of County Courts-at-Law in Certain Counties; Drawing Additional Jurors

In all counties having two or more County Courts-at-Law, when a panel of jurors shall not have been drawn by one of the district judges as directed by Article 2101, or when the number of jurors drawn shall be deemed insufficient by the county judge or either of the judges of the County Courts-at-Law, the county judge or judge of either County Court-at-Law may order the drawing of such additional jurors from the jury wheel for service in any of such courts for so long a period of time as the trials in such courts may reasonably require. Such jurors when drawn shall be available for service in either of such courts. All of the provisions of law now otherwise governing the drawing of jurors in the courts in such counties by the district judge shall govern so far as applicable, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. The county judge and the judge of any of the County Courts-at-Law shall concurrently have the same authority with respect to determining and remedying a deficiency in the number of jurors as is now conferred on the judge having control of the general jury panel by Section 3, Article 2101, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Art. 2116d. Summons to Report for Jury Service; Sufficiency; Service

[Text as amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1676, ch. 475, § 1]

(a) A summons to report for jury service shall be served on the jurors verbally, or if the judge drawing the jury so directs, by registered mail, return receipt requested, or by first class mail to the address shown on the source from which the names of the jurors were taken.

(b) The summons to report for jury service shall be sufficient if it states the time and place for the juror to report, the purpose for which he is to report, and the penalty for failure to report as required.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 677, ch. 338, § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1676, ch. 475, § 1, eff. May 27, 1971.]

Art. 2116d. Notification by the Sheriff

[Text as amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, § 9]

The sheriff shall notify the several persons named for jury service by mailing notice thereof, which notice shall include the time and place at which said juror is to report, to the juror at the address shown by the card placed in the jury wheel, or the address shown by the last voter registration list in said county, and if said letter be received by some person authorized by the United States mail to receive said letter, said service shall be sufficient.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 677, ch. 338, § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, § 9, eff. July 15, 1971.]

3. JURY FOR THE WEEK

Art. 2117. Summoning Jurors

At any time when the Judge of the County or District Court needs a jury for any particular week of such Court, he shall notify the Clerk of such Court to open the next consecutive unopened list of jurors in his possession, and shall direct him as to the date for which such jurors shall be summonsed. Such notice shall be given to the Clerk within a reasonable time prior to the time when such jurors are to be summonsed. The Clerk shall immediately note on the list the date for which the jurors are to be summonsed, and deliver said list to the sheriff. On receipt of such list, the sheriff shall immediately notify the several persons named therein to be in attendance on Court on the date so designated by the Judge.

Art. 2118. Selection of Jurors

On any day when a jury has been summoned and there are jury trials the court shall select a sufficient number of qualified jurors, in his discretion, to serve as jurors. Such jurors shall be selected from the names included in the jury lists, if there be the requisite number of such in attendance who are not excused by the court, but if such number be not in attendance at any time, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of qualified persons to make up the requisite number of jurors which is to be drawn from the jury wheel for jury trials in the district and county courts, under order of the court, to fill the panel. The names of such jurors to be summoned by the sheriff shall be drawn from the jury wheel as herein provided. All said extra jurors summonsed shall be discharged when their services are no longer needed. The court may adjourn the whole number of jurors or any part thereof, to any subsequent day of the term, but the jurors shall not be paid for the time they may stand adjourned.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 314, ch. 229 § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2800, ch. 905, § 8, eff. July 15, 1971.]

Art. 2119. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, § 15, eff. July 15, 1971

Art. 2120. Excuses of Jurors

The court may hear any reasonable sworn excuse of a juror, and may release him entirely or until some other day of the term; provided, however, the court shall not excuse any juror for economic reasons unless all parties of record are present and approve such excuse.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, § 10, eff. July 15, 1971.]

Art. 2121. Defaulting Juror

Any juror lawfully notified who without reasonable excuse fails to be in attendance on the court in obedience to such notice or who files a false claim of exemption from jury service shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1560, ch. 421, § 2, eff. May 26, 1971.]

Art. 2122. Pay of Jurors

(a) Each juror in a district or county court or county court at law is entitled to receive not less than $4 nor more than $10 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court as a juror. The commissioners court of each county shall determine annually, within the minimum and maximum prescribed in this subsection, the amount of per diem for jurors, which shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county. A person who responds to the process of a court, but who is excused from jury service by the court for any cause after being tested on voir dire, is entitled to receive not less than $4 nor more than $5 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court in response to such process.

(b) A check drawn on the jury fund by the clerk of the district court of a county may be transferred by endorsement and delivery and is receivable at par from the holder for all county taxes.

4. THE JURY IN COURTArt. 2123. Right to Jury

The right to trial by jury shall remain inviolate, subject to the following rules and regulations.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 2124 to 2132. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2133. Qualifications

All persons both male and female eighteen years of age or older are competent jurors, unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter. No person shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

1. He must be a citizen of the State and of the county in which he is to serve and qualified under the Constitution and laws to vote in said county.
2. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.
3. He must be able to read and write, except as otherwise provided herein.
4. He must not have served as a juror for six (6) days during the preceding six (6) months in the District Court, or during the preceding three (3) months in the County Court.
5. He must not have been convicted of felony.

6. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felony.

Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write cannot be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the third subdivision; and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient.

Where the word "he" is used in this Section it shall be used in the generic term so as to include both male and female persons.

Art. 2134. Disqualification

The following persons shall be disqualified to serve as jurors in any particular case:

1. Any witness in the case.
2. Any person interested, directly or indirectly, in the subject matter of the suit.
3. Any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree to either of the parties to the suit.
4. Any person who has a bias or prejudice in favor of or against either of the parties.
5. Any person who has sat as a petit juror in a former trial of the same, or of another case, involving the same questions of fact.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2135. Jury Service

All competent jurors are liable to jury service, except the following persons:

1. All persons over sixty-five (65) years of age.
2. All females who have legal custody of a child or children under the age of ten (10) years.
3. All students of public or private secondary schools.
4. Every person who is enrolled and in actual attendance at an institution of higher education.

Art. 2136. Repealed by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, § 15, eff. July 15, 1971

Art. 2137. Filing of Exemptions

Sec. 1. Any person summoned as a juror who is exempt by law from jury service may establish his exemption without appearing in person by filing a signed statement of the ground of his exemption with the clerk of the court at any time before the date upon which he is summoned to appear.

Sec. 2. Any person wishing to claim any statutory exemption under Article 2135 in counties employing the jury wheel system may do so by filing a sworn statement stating the nature of and claiming such exemption with the sheriff, the tax assessor-collector, or the district or county clerk of the county of his residence, in which event no card for such person shall be placed in the jury wheel for the ensuing year.

Art. 2168a. Attendance on Legislature

In all suits, either civil or criminal, or in matters of probate, pending in any court of this State, and in all matters ancillary to such suits which require action by or the attendance of an attorney, including appeals but excluding temporary restraining orders, at any time within thirty (30) days of a date when the Legislature is to be in Session, or at any time the Legislature is in Session, or when the Legislature sits as a Constitutional Convention, it shall be mandatory that the court continue such cause if it shall appear to the court, by affidavit, that any party applying for such continuance, or any attorney for any party to such cause, is a Member of either branch of the Legislature, and will be or is in actual attendance on a Session of the same. If the member of the Legislature is an attorney for a party to such cause, his affidavit shall contain a declaration that it is his intention to participate actively in the preparation and/or presentation of the case. Where a party to any cause or an attorney for any party to such cause is a Member of the Legislature, his affidavit need not be corroborated. On the filing of such affidavit, the court shall continue the cause until thirty (30) days after the adjournment of the Legislature and such affidavit shall be proof of the necessity for such continuance, and such continuance shall be deemed one of right and shall not be charged against the party receiving such continuance upon any subsequent application for continuance. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the provisions of this Section shall be deemed mandatory and not discretionary.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the right to such continuance, where such continuance is based upon an attorney in such cause being a member of the Legislature, shall be discretionary with the Court in the following situations and under the following circumstances, and none other, to wit:

(1) Where such attorney was employed within 10 days of the date such suit is set for trial.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

This article, as to civil actions, was included in the list of articles deemed repealed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Rule Making Act which repealed the laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions in Texas and which directed the Supreme Court, upon the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure to file a list of all Articles deemed repealed by "Section 1 of this (Rule Making) Act" was approved and became effective May 15, 1939, while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. See Rule 254, Vernon's Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1973 amendatory act provided: "Sec. 2. Rule 254, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, is hereby repealed to the extent of any inconsistency with the provisions of this Act, and said Rule is hereby conformed to the provisions hereof.

"Sec. 3. All laws and rules, or parts of laws or parts of rules, in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict; and in the event of conflict between this Act and any other statute or rule, the provisions of this Act shall prevail."

Arts. 2169 to 2172. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2172a. County in Which Case Filed Liable for Juror's Pay on Change of Venue; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In any Civil case which has been filed in one county and removed by change of venue to another county and tried therein by a Jury, the county in which such case was filed shall be liable for the pay of jurors incurred in the trial thereof.

Sec. 2. The County Commissioners of each county, at each regular meeting, shall ascertain whether, since the last regular meeting, any Civil case has been tried by jury upon change of venue from any other county. If they find such to be the case, they shall make out an account against the county in which said case was originally filed showing the number of days the jury in such case was employed in the trial thereof, and setting forth the amount paid for such jury service. Such account shall then be certified to as correct by the County Judge of such county, under his hand and seal, and be, by him, forwarded to the county in which said case was originally filed; and said account shall be paid from the Jury fund of said county made liable therefor by this Act.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to any Civil case transferred by reason of the Order of any Court based upon a plea of privilege filed in said case.

5. CASE TO JURY

Art. 2191. Number of Jurors

The jury in the district courts shall be composed of twelve men; but the parties may by consent agree, in a particular case, to try with a less number. In county courts the jury shall be composed of six men.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 2192 to 2194. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2194a. Bringing Meals into Jury Room

(a) Whenever the judge deems it advisable, in order to expedite the final disposition of any district court civil case for which a jury is empaneled, to keep the jury together for deliberation rather than to dismiss it for meals, he shall have the power to draw a warrant on the jury fund or other appropriate fund of the county in which the case is being tried, to cover the cost of buying meals and bringing same into the jury room. However, not more than One Dollar ($1) may be spent per meal for any juror.

(b) The provisions of this Act shall not apply in any county unless the Commissioners Court has approved jury meals in civil cases as a proper expense of the county.

Arts. 2195 to 2198. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2199. Disagreement as to Evidence

If the jury disagree as to the statement of any witness, they may, upon applying to the Court, have read to them from the Court Reporter's notes that part of such witness' testimony on the point in dispute; but if there be no such Reporter, or if his notes cannot be read to the jury, the Court may cause such witness to be again brought upon the stand and the Judge shall direct him to repeat his testimony to the point in dispute, and no other, and as nearly as he can in the language used on the trial; and on their notifying the Court that they disagree as to any portion of a deposition or other paper not carried with them in their retirement, the Court may, in like manner, permit such portion of said deposition or paper to be again read to the jury.

Art. 2211. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2212. Contribution Between Tort Feasors

Any person against whom, with one or more others, a judgment is rendered in any suit on an action arising out of, or based on tort, except in causes wherein the right of contribution or of indemnity, or of recovery, over, by and between the defendants is given by statute or exists under the common law, shall, upon payment of said judgment, have a right of action against his co-defendant or co-defendants and may recover from each a sum equal to the proportion of all of the defendants named in said judgment rendered to the whole amount of said judgment. If any of said persons co-defendant be insolvent, then recovery may be had in proportion as such defendant or defendants are not insolvent; and the right of recovery over against such insolvent defendant or defendants in judgment shall exist in favor of each defendant in judgment in proportion as he has been caused to pay by reason of such insolvency.

Supersedure

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 41, ch. 28, §§ 1, 2, classified as article 2212a, provides for a system of comparative negligence and contribution among joint tort-feasors. Section 2(h) thereof reads: "This section prevails over Article 2212, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and all other laws to the extent of any conflict."

Art. 2212a. Comparative Negligence; Contribution Among Joint Tort-feasors

Modified Comparative Negligence

Sec. 1. Contributory negligence shall not bar recovery in an action by any person or party or the legal representative of any person or party to recover damages for negligence resulting in death or injury to persons or property if such negligence is not greater than the negligence of the person or party or persons or parties against whom recovery is sought, but any damages allowed shall be diminished in proportion to the amount of negligence attributed to the person or party recovering.

Contribution Among Joint Tort-feasors

Sec. 2. (a) In this section:

- (1) "Claimant" means any party seeking relief, whether he is a plaintiff, counter-claimant, or cross-claimant.
- (2) "Defendant" includes any party from whom a claimant seeks relief.

(b) In a case in which there is more than one defendant, and the claimant's negligence does not exceed the total negligence of all defendants, contribution to the damages awarded to the claimant shall be in proportion to the percentage of negligence attributable to each defendant.

(c) Each defendant is jointly and severally liable for the entire amount of the judgment awarded the claimant, except that a defendant whose negligence is less than that of the claimant is liable to the claimant only for that portion of the judgment which represents the percentage of negligence attributable to him.

(d) If an alleged joint tort-feasor pays an amount to a claimant in settlement, but is never joined as a party defendant, or having been joined, is dismissed or nonsuited after settlement with the claimant (for which reason the existence and amount of his negligence are not submitted to the jury), each defendant is entitled to deduct from the amount for which he is liable to the claimant a percentage of the amount of the settlement based on the relationship the defendant's own negligence bears to the total negligence of all defendants.

(e) If an alleged joint tort-feasor makes a settlement with a claimant but nevertheless is joined as a party defendant at the time of the submission of the case to the jury (so that the existence and amount of his negligence are submitted to the jury) and his percentage of negligence is found by the jury, the settlement is a complete release of the portion of the judgment attributable to the percentage of negligence found on the part of that joint tort-feasor.

(f) If the application of the rules contained in Subsections (a) through (e) of this section results in two claimants being liable to each other in damages, the claimant who is liable for the greater amount is entitled to a credit toward his liability in the amount of damages owed him by the other claimant.

(g) All claims for contribution between named defendants in the primary suit shall be determined in the primary suit, except that a named defendant may proceed against a person not a party to the primary suit who has not effected a settlement with the claimant.

(h) This section prevails over Article 2212, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and all other laws to the extent of any conflict.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 41, ch. 28, §§ 1, 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1973.]

Section 3 of the 1973 Act amended section 1 of article 6701b; §§ 4, 5 thereof provided:

"Sec. 4. Saving clause. This Act does not apply to any cause of action arising before its effective date.

"Sec. 5. Severability clause. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 2212b. Indemnity Provisions in Mineral Agreements Where Negligence Attributable to Indemnitee

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that an inequity is fostered on certain contractors by the indemnity provisions contained in some agreements pertaining to wells for oil, gas, or water, or mines for other minerals. It is the intent of the legislature and the purpose of this Act to declare provisions for indemnity in certain agreements where there is negligence attributable to the indemnitee to be against the public policy of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. Except as specified in Section 4 of this Act, a covenant, promise, agreement, or understanding contained in, collateral to, or affecting an agreement pertaining to a well for oil, gas, or water, or mine for any mineral, is void and unenforceable if it purports to indemnify the indemnitee against loss or liability for damages arising from either death or bodily injury to persons, or injury to property, or any other loss, damage, or expense arising from either death or bodily injury, injury to property, or loss, damage, or expense, which is caused by or results from the sole or concurrent negligence of the indemnitee, or an agent or employee of the indemnitee, or an independent contractor who is directly responsible to the indemnitee.

Sec. 3. The term "agreement pertaining to a well for oil, gas, or water, or mine for any mineral" as used in Section 2 of this Act, means any agreement, or understanding, written or oral, concerning any operations related to drilling, deepening, reworking, repairing, improving, testing, treating, perforating, acidizing, logging, conditioning, altering, plugging, or otherwise rendering services in or in connection with any well drilled for the purpose of producing or disposing of oil, gas, or other minerals, or water, or designing, excavating, constructing, improving, or otherwise rendering services in or in connection with any mine shaft, drift, or other structure intended for use in the exploration for or production of any mineral, or an agreement to perform any portion of any such work or services or any act collateral thereto, including the furnishing or rental of equipment, incidental transportation, and other goods and services furnished in connection with any such service or operation.

Sec. 4. (a) The provisions of this Act do not apply to loss or liability for damages, or any other expenses, arising from

(1) death or bodily injury to persons or injury to property resulting from radioactivity;

(2) injury to property resulting from pollution; or

(3) injury to property resulting from reservoir or underground damage.

(b) The provisions of this Act do not affect the validity of any insurance contract or any benefit conferred by the Workmen's Compensation Law of this state and do not deprive an owner of the surface estate of the right to secure an indemnity from any lessee, operator, contractor, or other person conducting operations for the exploration or production of minerals of the owner's land.

(c) The provisions of Section 2 of this Act shall not apply to any agreement providing for indemnity with respect to claims for personal injury or death to indemnitor's employees or agents, or the employees or agents of indemnitor's sub-contractors if the parties agree in writing that such indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by indemnitor; provided, however, that such indemnity obligation shall be only to the extent of the coverages and dollar limits of insurance agreed to be furnished; but in no event shall said insurance be required in an amount in excess of twelve times state basic limits for bodily injury, approved by the Board of Insurance Commissioners in accordance with Article 5.15 of the Texas Insurance Code.

(d) The provisions of this Act apply only to agreements or contracts made on or after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 5. Each party to an agreement defined in Section 3 of this Act shall be responsible for the results of his own actions and for the actions of those persons over whom he exercises control.

Art. 2225. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2226. Attorney's Fees

Any person, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity having a valid claim against a person or corporation for services rendered, labor done, material furnished, overcharges on freight or express, lost or damaged freight or express, or stock killed or injured or suits founded upon a sworn account or accounts, may present the same to such persons or corporation or to any duly authorized agent thereof; and if, at the expiration of 30 days thereafter, the claim has not been paid or satisfied, and he should finally obtain judgment for any amount thereof as presented for payment to such persons or corporation, he may, if represented by an attorney, also recover, in addition to his claim and costs, a reasonable amount as attorney's fees. The amount prescribed in the current State Bar Minimum Fee Schedule shall be prima facie evidence of reasonable attorney's fees. The court, in non-jury cases, may take judicial knowledge of such schedule and of the contents of the case file in determining the amount of attorney's fees without the necessity of hearing further evidence.

Art. 2226a. Effect of Adjudications in Lower Trial Courts on Proceedings in Higher Courts

Sec. 1. A determination of fact or law or a judgment in any proceeding in the Small Claims Court, Justice of the Peace Court, County Court, County Civil Court at Law, County Criminal Court at Law, or County Court at Law shall not be res judicata and shall not constitute a basis for estoppel by judgment in any proceeding in a District Court, except that any such judgment shall be binding on the parties thereto as to the recovery or denial thereof rendered in that particular case, and further except that all judgments in probate, guardianship, lunacy and other matters over which said inferior courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the subject matter, on a basis other than the amount in controversy, shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 2. A determination of fact or law or a judgment in any proceeding in the Small Claims Court or Justice of the Peace Court shall not be res judicata and shall not constitute a basis for estoppel by judgment in any proceeding in a County Court, County Civil Court at Law, County Criminal Court at Law or County Court at Law, except that any such judgment shall be binding on the parties thereto as to the recovery or denial thereof rendered in that particular case.

Art. 2237. When Taken; Rules

If either party during the progress of a cause is dissatisfied with any ruling, opinion or other action of the Court, he may except thereto at the time the said ruling is made, or announced or such action taken, and at his request time shall be given to embody such exceptions in a written bill. The preparation and filing of bills of exceptions shall be governed by the following rules:

1. No particular form of words shall be required in a bill of exception; but the objection to the ruling or action of the Court shall be stated with such circumstances, or so much of the evidence as may be necessary to explain, and no more, and the whole as briefly as possible.

2. Where the statement of facts contains all the evidence requisite to explain the bill of exception evidence need not be set out in the bill; but it shall be sufficient to refer to the same as it appears in the statement of facts.

2a. All objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence and exceptions to the ruling of the Court upon the admission or exclusion of evidence or other matters may be shown by the official stenographer's transcript of the evidence, known as a statement of facts in question and answer form, all as hereinafter provided in Article 2239,¹ and no formal bill of exception to the admission or exclusion of evidence or to any of the Court's rulings shall be required where the matters complained of, the objections, the Court's rulings, and exceptions thereto clearly appear of record in said transcript of evidence, or statement of facts in question and answer form; provided, however, that in any case where such matters do not clearly appear of record the parties may, if they so desire, prepare and have approved and filed, as otherwise provided by law, a formal bill of exception.

3. The ruling of the court in the giving, refusing or qualifying of instructions to the jury shall be regarded as approved unless excepted to.

4. Where the ruling or other action of the Court appears otherwise of record, no bill shall be necessary to reserve an exception thereto; and all motions and answers thereto, the orders thereon and any exceptions shown in such orders shall, for the purpose of this Article, be considered a part of the record without the necessity of bills of exception, provided that if testimony is heard upon a motion, such testimony may be preserved only by bill of exception or in the statement of facts.

5. The party taking a bill of exception shall reduce the same to writing and present it to the Judge for his allowance and signature.

6. The Judge shall submit such bill to the adverse party or his counsel, if in attendance on the Court, and if found to be correct, the Judge shall sign it without delay and file it with the Clerk.

7. If the Judge finds such bill incorrect, he shall suggest to the party or his counsel, such corrections as he deems necessary therein, and if they are agreed to, he shall make such corrections, sign the bill and file it with the Clerk.

8. Should the party not agree to such corrections, the Judge shall return the bill to him with his refusal indorsed thereon, and shall prepare, sign and file with the Clerk such bill of exception, as will, in his opinion, present the ruling of the court as it actually occurred.

9. Should the party be dissatisfied with said bill filed by the Judge, he may, upon procuring the signatures of three respectable by-standers, citizens of this State, attesting to the correctness of the bill as presented by him, have the same filed as part of the record of the cause; and the truth of the matter in reference thereto may be controverted and maintained by affidavits, not exceeding five in number on each side, to be filed with the papers of the cause, within ten days after the filing of said bill and to be considered as a part of the record relating thereto.

10. This Act shall not serve to repeal other laws regarding or dispensing with exceptions or bills of exception.

Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

This article was included in the list of articles deemed repealed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Rule Making Act which repealed the laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions in Texas and which directed the Supreme Court, upon the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to file a list of all Articles deemed repealed by "Section 1 of this (Rule Making) Act" was approved and became effective May 15, 1939, while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. See Rule 372, Vernon's Texas Rule of Civil Procedure.

Arts. 2238 to 2241. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2241a. Return of Bills of Exceptions and Statement of Facts by Attorney

Whenever within the sixty (60) days that are provided by law for filing bills of exceptions and statements of fact in the trial court, the appellant or his attorney shall present bills of exceptions and statements of fact to the appellee or his attorney for the purpose of procuring an agreement thereto as provided in Articles 2239 and 2240, it shall be the duty of the appellee and his attorney to return to the appellant or his attorney the bills of exceptions and statements of fact within ten (10) days after having received said bills of exceptions and statements of fact, with his approval or disapproval of the same. The failure of the attorney for appellee to return such statements of fact or bills of exceptions within such ten-day period shall entitle the appellant to have such bills of exceptions and statements of fact approved by the court without having first obtained the approval thereof by the attorney for appellee.

Arts. 2241b to 2245. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2246. Time for Filing

When an appeal is taken from a judgment rendered in a civil cause tried in either the District Court, County Court, or County Court at Law, the party appealing shall have fifty (50) days after final judgment or order overruling motion for new trial, if such motion is filed, or perfection of writ of error, within which to prepare and file his statement of facts and bills of exception in the Trial Court.

Sec. 2. Upon application of the party appealing, the Judge of the Court may, in term-time or vacation, for good cause shown, extend the time for filing such statement of facts and bills of exception; but the time shall not be extended in any case so as to delay the filing thereof beyond the time for filing the transcript, bills of exceptions, and statement of facts in the Court of Civil Appeals, as prescribed by law, or as such time has been extended by said Court.

Art. 2286. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2286a. Citations and Notices Improperly Directed; Validation of Proceedings

Sec. 1. All citations and notices in all cases of lunacy, guardianship, or estates of decedents, or of any other probate proceedings directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the proceedings were instituted instead of to any sheriff or constable within the State of Texas as provided in Rule 15 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, which have been duly served and returned in the manner provided by law by the sheriff or constable within the county in which the proceedings were instituted, together with all uncontested orders, decrees, sales, leases and judgments grounded on such citations or notices are hereby validated and made as effective to support proceedings in the respective county courts in lunacy, guardianship and probate as if directed to any sheriff or constable within the State of Texas, as provided in said Rule 15.

Sec. 2. In all cases where personal service is required in lunacy, guardianship, or estates of decedents, or any other probate proceedings where any citation or notice therein has been directed to the sheriff or constable of the county in which the person named in the citation or notice was located instead of to any sheriff or constable within the State of Texas as provided in Rule 15 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, and such citations or notices have been duly served on the person named therein by the sheriff or constable of the county in which the person named in the citation or notice was located, together with all uncontested orders, decrees, sales, leases and judgments grounded on such citations or notices are hereby validated and made as effective to support proceedings in the respective county courts in lunacy, guardianship and probate as if directed to any sheriff or constable in the State of Texas, as provided in said Rule 15.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not be applicable to the issues in any law suit or in any contested probate proceedings pending in any court of this State on the effective date of this Act.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 1112, ch. 570.]

Art. 2287. Neglect by Officers

Any clerk, sheriff, or other officer who neglects or refuses to perform any duty required of him under any provision of this title shall be liable to damages at the suit of any person injured, and may be punished for contempt of court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 2288, 2289. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2290. Deposits Pending Suit

The officer having custody of any money, debt, script, instrument of writing, or other article paid or deposited in court during the progress of any cause to abide the result of any legal proceeding, shall seal up in a secure package the identical money or other article so received and deposit it in some safe or bank vault, keeping it always accessible and subject to the control of the court; and he shall also keep in his office as a part of the records thereof a correct itemized statement of such deposit, on what account received, and the disposition made of the same. When his term of office expires, such officer shall turn over to his successor all of such trust funds and other property and the record book thereof, taking his receipt therefor. This article shall not exempt any officer or his surety from any liability on his official bond for any neglect or other default in regard to said property.

Art. 2292a. Appointment of Bailiff for 24th and 135th Judicial Districts

The District Judges of the 24th Judicial District and of the 135th Judicial District may appoint, with the approval of the Commissioners Court, an officer of the Court to act as bailiff, whose primary duty shall be to act as interpreter. Such bailiff shall be paid a reasonable salary not to exceed the highest salary paid to any deputy, clerk or assistant employed by the County.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 786, ch. 303 § 1.]

Art. 2292b. Bailiffs in Certain Counties with Eight Districts and Four County Courts; Duties; Compensation

Sec. 1. In all counties having eight (8) District Courts, including two (2) Criminal District Courts, and four (4) County Courts, including two (2) County Courts at Law and one County Criminal Court, the District Judges of each such county shall appoint a bailiff to be in charge of the Central Jury Room and the general panel. Such bailiff is hereby authorized to summon jurors, whose names have been drawn from the jury wheel, and to serve notices upon absent jurors, as directed by the District Judges having supervision and control over the general jury panel. Such bailiff shall look after the said panel and perform such duties in connection with the general supervision of the Central Jury Room and the general panel as are required by the District Judges of such county. He shall serve for a term of two (2) years, from January first of the odd years, and his salary shall be set by the Commissioners Court upon recommendation of the District Judges.

Sec. 2. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that if any sentence of this Act shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity shall not be held to affect the validity or constitutionality of any other paragraph or sentence of this Act.

Art. 2292e. Bailiffs in Counties with Nine District Courts; Duties; Terms; Compensation

Sec. 1. In all counties having nine (9) or more District Courts, a majority of the District Judges of each such county may appoint a bailiff to be in charge of the central jury room and the general panel. In such counties, if the District Judges of such county do not appoint a bailiff to be in charge of the central jury room and the general panel, the sheriff of that county shall perform all the duties in connection with the central jury room and the general panel, as provided by law. In any or all of such counties in which the District Judges thereof appoint a bailiff in charge of the central jury room and the general panel, the sheriff of any such county shall not assign a deputy to the central jury room as is now provided by law. The bailiff appointed by the said District Judges is hereby authorized to summon jurors whose names have been drawn from the jury wheel, and to serve notices upon absent jurors as directed by the District Judge having supervision and control of the general panel.

Said bailiff so appointed shall look after the said panel and perform such duties in connection with the general supervision of the central jury room and the general panel as is required by the District Judges of such county. He shall serve for a term of two (2) years from January 1st of the odd year, and his salary shall be set by the Commissioners Court upon the recommendation of the District Judges.

Sec. 2. In counties having nine (9) or more District Courts, the jurors in each of such counties may be summoned by the bailiff in charge of the central jury room, and the general panel of such county or the sheriff of such county, as the District Judges thereof may direct. Such service on the jurors may be made verbally in person, by registered mail, by ordinary mail or in any other manner or by any other method as may be determined upon the District Judges of such county. Jurors so selected and summoned for service on the central jury panel shall serve in criminal as well as civil cases, and no additional service shall be required in criminal cases.

Art. 2292-1. Travis County; Adult Probation Officer; Secretary; Appointment, Compensation, etc.

Sec. 1. The Judge of the 53rd Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas; the Judge of the 98th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas; and the Judge of the 126th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas, for the purpose of effectively carrying out the adult probation laws of this State, shall be and are hereby authorized to appoint one Adult Probation Officer for Travis County where a probation and parole officer has not been assigned to any court and/or district in said county, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 452, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, known as the Adult Probation and Parole Law and codified as Article 781b in Vernon's Texas Code of Criminal Procedure.¹

The Judges of the several Judicial District Courts of Travis County, Texas, shall be and are hereby further authorized to appoint one Secretary to serve in the Adult Probation Office.

The salaries of the above mentioned persons shall be set by the Commissioners Court in accordance with the laws governing the salaries permitted to be paid to deputies and assistants of elected county officers.

All such salaries are to be paid out of the General Fund of the county. All necessary and reasonable expenses, including an automobile allowance of Six Cents (6¢) per mile for use of personal automobile on official business, for the Adult Probation Officer shall be paid by the Commissioners Court out of the General Fund of the county whenever such expenses are incurred by the Adult Probation Officer in the performance of his duties and the conduct of his office.

The Adult Probation Officer should be of good moral character and acquainted with the Adult Probation and Parole Law. The authority and duties of such Officer shall be the same as those prescribed for probation and parole officers by the Adult Probation and Parole Law. Such Officer and Secretary shall be subject to removal at the will of the majority of the Judges of the several Judicial District Courts of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Travis County is hereby authorized to amend the county budget for the fiscal year of 1955, from and at the effective date of this Act for the balance of the said fiscal year in order to provide for the salaries of the employees named in this Act and for all reasonable and necessary expenses of such office as herein provided.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing Chapter 452, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, except as to provide an alternate method of appointment of an Adult Probation Officer where such officer has not been assigned to any court and/or district in Travis County as provided in this Act.

Art. 2292-2. Tarrant County; Adult Probation and Parole Officer

Sec. 1. The Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts in Tarrant County, for the purpose of effectively carrying out the adult probation and parole laws of this State, are hereby authorized to appoint an Adult Probation and Parole Officer for Tarrant County, where a probation and parole officer has not been assigned to a court and/or district in Tarrant County in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 452, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, known as the Adult Probation and Parole Law and codified as Article 781b in Vernon's Texas Code of Criminal Procedure.¹ The salary of such Probation and Parole Officer shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County and shall be paid out of the general fund of the county.

Upon approval of such expenditures by the Commissioners Court, the aforesaid Judges may appoint assistant probation and parole officers and such other employees as they deem necessary to serve in the Adult Probation Office. The salaries of all such employees shall be paid from the general fund of the county. All necessary and reasonable expenses, including an automobile allowance for use of personal automobiles on official business, of the Adult Probation and Parole Officer or other employees incurred in the performance of their duties and the conduct of the Adult Probation Office, may be paid out of the general fund, upon approval of the Commissioners Court.

The Adult Probation and Parole Officer and all assistant probation and parole officers shall be of good moral character and acquainted with the Adult Probation and Parole Law. The authority and duties of such officer shall be the same as those prescribed for probation and parole officers by the Adult Probation and Parole Law. Such officer and all other employees of the Adult Probation Office shall be subject to removal at the will of the majority of the Judges of the several District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County.

The Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to provide office space and equipment for the Probation Office and to pay all other necessary office expenses out of the general fund of the county.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Tarrant County is hereby authorized to amend the county budget for the fiscal year 1955, from and at the effective date of this Act for the balance of the said fiscal year, in order to provide for the salaries of the employees authorized in this Act and for all reasonable and necessary expenses of such office as herein provided.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing Chapter 452, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, except as to provide an alternate method of appointment of Chief and Assistant Probation and Parole Officers where such an Officer has not been assigned to any court and/or district in Tarrant County as provided in this Act.

¹ See, now, Code of Criminal Procedure, Art. 42.12.

Saved from Repeal

Saved from repeal, see Code of Criminal Procedure of 1965, art. 54.02.

Art. 2292-3. Anderson County; Probation Officer

The county judge of Anderson County may employ a probation officer to serve the county court. The duties and responsibilities of the probation officer shall be prescribed by the county judge. The probation officer shall receive a salary set by the commissioners court. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2678, ch. 875; eff. June 9, 1971.]

Art. 2292-4. Montague County Probation Department

Establishment

Sec. 1. There is hereby established the Montague County Probation Department upon affirmative order of the Commissioners Court and so reflected in the minutes of the Court.

Composition and Authority of Board

Sec. 2. The Montague County Probation Board is composed of the district judge and county judge of Montague County, Texas. The board shall have authority to adopt such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the law, necessary for the operation of the probation board.

Probation Officer; Appointment; Powers and Duties; Term

Sec. 3. The probation board shall appoint a probation officer, who shall have such authority, duties, and powers as now given to probation officers by general laws of the State of Texas, and such authority, duties, and powers as may be given him by the probation board. The probation officer shall be appointed, or reappointed, for two year terms, or unexpired portions thereof. The first term of the probation officer shall expire on December 31, 1974.

Service as Juvenile Officer

Sec. 4. The probation officer shall also serve as juvenile officer of Montague County, Texas, and shall have such authority, duties, and powers as now given juvenile officers by general laws of the State of Texas, and such authority, duties, and powers as may be given him by the probation board.

Salary and Office of Probation Officer

Sec. 5. The salary of the probation officer shall be set by the probation board with the approval of the Commissioners Court, and may be paid by the county treasurer, upon an order of the probation board, from fees collected by the probation department under authority of this Act. The Commissioners Court of Montague County may furnish the probation officer with a suitable office, including necessary office equipment and supplies, which shall be paid for by the county from its general fund.

Secretarial Help; Expenses

Sec. 6. The probation board may employ such secretarial help, and pay such additional expenses, including automobile expenses, as may be necessary, and as may be paid from the fees collected by the probation department under authority of this Act.

Bond of Officer

Sec. 7. The probation board shall have authority to require and approve a good and sufficient bond of the probation officer, in an amount not to exceed the sum of $3,000, for the faithful performance of his duties.

Probation Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 8. For the purpose of providing adequate funds for the proper supervision of the probationers of Montague County, the probation board shall have authority to set probation fees, to be paid to the district court or to the county court in an amount not to exceed the sum of $10 per month, such fees to be paid to the courts by such probationers as a condition of their respective probations. All probation fees collected by the clerk of the court shall be paid over to the county treasurer on the last day of each calendar month. The county treasurer shall deposit all of such fees in an account to be styled "Probation Fund."

Child Support Division

Sec. 9. There is hereby established in the Montague County Probation Department a child support division. It shall be the duty of the division to assist the district clerk of Montague County in the collections of child support payments, alimony payments, separate maintenance payments, and in the enforcement of child visitation privileges, ordered by the district court of Montague County. The child support division shall initiate contempt proceedings for the enforcement of such orders of the district court.

Service Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 10. (a) Each month for which a person has been ordered by the district court of Montague County to pay child support, alimony, or separate maintenance into the district clerk's office, the recipient (payee) of such child support, alimony, or separate maintenance shall pay into said district clerk's office a service fee of $1 per month. The $1 fee shall be deducted from the payment by the district clerk. If such payments are ordered to be paid semi-monthly or weekly, then the sum of 50 cents shall be deducted from each semi-monthly or weekly payment.

(b) All service fees collected by the district clerk shall be paid over by the district clerk to the county treasurer on the last day of each calendar month. The county treasurer shall deposit all of such fees in an account to be styled "Probation Fund."

(c) The service fees authorized by Subsection (a), Section 10, shall be applicable to all child support, alimony, and separate maintenance payments ordered after the effective date of this Act, and to all other such payments (even though ordered prior to the effective date of this Act) when the person ordered to make such payments has defaulted and has been cited for contempt of court. The service fee shall become due and payable for each month following the hearing on the contempt citation.

County Attorney as Legal Officer; Attorney's Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 11. For the purpose of providing legal services to the Montague County Probation Department, the county attorney of Montague County is hereby designated as the legal officer of the department. There shall be assessed, as attorney's fees, a fee of $15 in all matters involving contempt of court for failure or refusal to pay child support, alimony, separate maintenance, or temporary alimony payments, when such contempt action is initiated by the probation department. The fees shall be taxed against the contemner as costs, and shall be collected as under contempt. The attorneys fees shall be paid to the district clerk, and by the district clerk paid over to the county treasurer on the last day of each month. The county treasurer shall deposit the fees in the probation fund. The attorneys fees shall be paid by the county treasurer to the county attorney on order of the probation board.

Appointment of Other Attorney as Legal Officer

Sec. 12. Should the county attorney of Montague County fail, refuse, or decline to perform the duties of legal officer for the probation department, the probation board shall appoint some other suitable attorney as legal officer of the probation department.

Adoption Investigation Fees; Payment, Collection and Deposit

Sec. 13. For the purpose of maintaining adoption investigation services, there shall be taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, the sum of $25 in each adoption case hereafter filed in district court of Montague County. Such adoption investigations shall be made by the probation officer and findings filed with the judge of the district court as provided by law, and as may be otherwise ordered by the judge of the court. The investigation fees shall be collected by the district clerk, and paid over to the county treasurer by the district clerk on the last day of each month. The county treasurer shall deposit the fees in the probation fund.

Juvenile Investigations

Sec. 14. The juvenile officer shall make such investigation in juvenile cases as is directed by the judge of the juvenile court of Montague County.

Judge; Requiring Probationer to Pay Supervision Fee

Sec. 15. The district judge may in any probation pending in district court on the effective date of this Act, and the county judge may in any probation pending in the county court on the effective date of this Act, upon a motion to revoke such probation, and where such motion is denied, require such probationer to pay the set monthly supervision fee, applicable to such probationer's case, for the remainder of such probationer's period of probation.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1371, ch. 525, eff. June 14, 1973.]

2. RECEIVERS

Art. 2293. Appointment

Receivers may be appointed by any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of this State, in the following cases:

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property; or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim; or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff or any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund or the proceeds thereof is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.

2. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured; or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed and the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

3. In cases where a corporation is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency; or has been dissolved or has forfeited its corporate rights.

4. In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2293a. Appointment for Church or Congregation

Sec. 1. That the judge of any district court, or other court having jurisdiction, is hereby authorized and required in term, time, or on vacation, to appoint a receiver or receivers for any defunct or disorganized church or congregation when the fact of such condition is brought to the attention of such court by an application for the appointment of a receiver or receivers for such defunct or disorganized church or congregation.

Sec. 5. The term "church or congregation" is meant to refer to a local congregation of believers in Christ, and not to a denomination or communion as a whole.

Sec. 6. The terms "defunct or disorganized" are meant to apply to an organization which formerly maintained regular forms of work and worship in a given community such as the Bible School, Communion Services, Preaching Services, etc., a regular interval,¹ and which has ceased to function in these and similar capacities as a church for a period of one or more years.

[Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 68, ch. 45.]

¹ So in enrolled bill. Should probably read "at regular intervals"

Art. 2294. Qualifications

A receiver for property within or partly within and partly without this State must, when appointed, be a bona fide citizen and qualified voter of this State, and if so qualified and appointed he shall keep and maintain actual residence in this State during the pendency of such receivership; if not so qualified, his appointment as such receiver shall be void in so far as the property within this State is concerned. No party, attorney, or any person interested in any way in an action for the appointment of a receiver shall be appointed receiver therein.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2294a. Member of Church or Congregation

That the receiver or receivers appointed for any such defunct or disorganized church or congregation, shall be a member or members of an active church or congregation of like faith and order, or shall be a recognized missionary or ecclesiastical body of like faith and order, denomination or communion; and in case any such denomination or communion of like faith and order, shall have a State Missionary Society, or shall hereafter appoint, elect or organize, or cause to be appointed, elected or organized, such a State Missionary Society, and shall authorize the same to act as a receiver or trustee for such denomination or communion, then such State Missionary Society, or other similar organization so formed and named, shall be appointed to serve as receiver or trustee by said court.

Art. 2295. Quo Warranto

Where a domestic corporation owning property in this State shall have a receiver of such property appointed who is not a bona fide citizen and qualified voter of this State, said corporation shall thereby forfeit its charter; and the Attorney General shall at once prosecute a suit by quo warranto against said corporation so offending to forfeit its charter. The court trying the cause shall forfeit the charter of said corporation upon proof that a person has been appointed receiver of its property situated in this State who is not so qualified.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2296. Oath and Bond

When a receiver is appointed, he shall, before he enters upon his duties, be sworn to perform them faithfully, and shall execute a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the court appointing him, in the sum fixed by the court, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge his duty as receiver in the action (naming it) and obey the orders of the court therein.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2297. Receiver's Power

The receiver shall have power, under the control of the court, to bring and defend actions in his own name as receiver, to take charge and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect, compound for, compromise demands, make transfers, and generally to do such acts respecting the property as the court may authorize.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2297a. Receiver of Church or Congregation

That it shall be the duty of such trustee or trustees when so appointed, to take charge of all property, real, personal or mixed, and choses in action, belonging to such defunct or disorganized church or congregation and administer the same under the direction of the court making the appointment, for the best interest of such defunct or disorganized church or congregation; and where necessary to preserve the property, to sell the same under the order of said court; and in case said court shall be of the opinion that said church or congregation may not be revived or reorganized within a reasonable time, it shall be the duty of said court to order all of said property sold at public or private sale, and the proceeds received from such sale or sales shall be turned over and delivered to said trustee or trustees to be used by them for a church or congregation, denomination or communion or organization of like faith and order.

[Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 68, ch. 45, § 3.]

Art. 2298. Investing Funds

The funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest by order of the court, but no such order shall be made except upon consent of all the parties to the action.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2299. Application of Funds

All moneys that come into the hands of a receiver as such receiver shall be applied as follows, to the payment:

1. Of all court costs of the suit.
2. Of all wages of employés due by the receiver.
3. Of all debts due by the receiver for materials and supplies purchased during receivership by the receiver for the improvement of the property in his hands as receiver.
4. Of all debts due for betterments and improvements done during receivership to the property in his hands as such receiver.
5. Of all claims and accounts against the receiver on contracts made by the receiver during the receivership, and of personal injury claims and claims for stock against said receiver accruing during said receivership, and all judgments rendered against said receiver for personal injuries and for stock killed.
6. Of all judgments recovered against persons or corporations in suits brought before the receiver in the action.

As to all money coming into the hands of a receiver which are the earnings of the property in his hands, said claims shall have a preference lien on the same, and the receiver shall pay the same on the claims against him in the order of preference named above, and the court shall see that he does so.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2300. Discharge of Receiver

If a receiver is discharged pending suits against him for causes of action growing out of and arising during the receivership, the cause of action shall not abate, but may be prosecuted to final judgment against the receiver; and the plaintiff may make the party or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered the property a party to the suit. If judgment is finally rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the receiver, the court shall also enter judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the party to whom the property was delivered by the receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2301. When Property Subject to Execution

Where there is a judgment against a receiver and he shall have in possession moneys subject to the payment of such judgment, and the plaintiff owning the judgment shall apply to the court appointing the receiver for an order to pay said judgment, and if said court should refuse to order said judgment paid, when there is money in the hands of said receiver subject to the payment of the judgment, then the court rendering the judgment shall order an execution to issue on said judgment against said receiver upon the filing by the plaintiff in the court where the judgment was rendered an affidavit reciting that the plaintiff had applied to the court appointing the receiver for an order for said receiver to pay said judgment, and that it was shown to the court that there was money in the hands of the receiver at that time which was subject to the payment of the judgment, and that said court refused to order him to pay the judgment. Said execution when so issued shall be levied upon any property in the hands of the receiver and the same shall be sold as under ordinary execution; and a sale of the property will convey the title of the same to the purchaser.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2302. Judgments First Lien on Property

All judgments rendered against a receiver for causes of action arising during the receivership shall be a lien upon all property in the hands of the receiver superior to the mortgage lien. If the property should be turned back into the possession of the party or corporation owning same at the time of the appointment of a receiver, or any one for them, or to their assigns or purchasers, the party or corporation so receiving said property from said receiver shall take said property charged with all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver occurring during the receivership, to the value of the property delivered by the receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2303. Persons Liable for Debts

If a receiver is discharged by the court before all of the liabilities of the receiver arising during the receivership are settled in full, then the person, persons, or corporation to whom the receiver delivers the property that was in his hands as receiver shall be liable to the persons having claims against said receiver for the full amount of the liabilities.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2304. Effect of Discharge

The discharge of a receiver shall not work an abatement of the suit against a receiver nor in any way affect the right of the party to sue the receiver if he sees proper.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2305. Property Liable for Debts

When property has been returned to the original owner without any sale of said property, such owner shall be liable for all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver in causes of action arising out of and during the receivership, and the plaintiff may make such owner to whom the property was delivered a party defendant along with the receiver; and, if judgment is rendered against the receiver upon a cause of action arising out of and during the receivership, then the court shall also, at the same time, render judgment against such defendants for the amount so found for plaintiff; and plaintiff shall have the right to foreclose his lien on the property so returned.

Art. 2306. Outstanding Liabilities at Discharge

If at the date of the discharge of a receiver there exists against him any judgments or unpaid claims not sued on which arose during the receivership, then such claims and judgments shall be a preference lien on all of the property that was in the receiver's hands as such at said date superior to the mortgage lien; and the person or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered such property shall be liable for such claims and judgments to the value of such property.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2307. Liability of Receiver and Person to Whom Property is Delivered

Any person having a claim against a receiver not sued on at the date of the discharge of the receiver, shall have the right to sue said receiver, either alone or jointly, with the person or corporation to whom the receiver delivered said property that was in his hands as such receiver; and, if any judgment is rendered against said receiver, a judgment shall also be rendered against the person or corporation for the same amount that is rendered against the receiver, not to exceed the value of the property so received by said person or corporation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2308. Receiver to Give Bond on Appeal

In a suit against a receiver, if the receiver desires to appeal or apply for a writ of error from judgment rendered against him, before such appeal or writ of error shall be perfected or allowed, such receiver shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court or justice of the peace, payable to the appellee or the defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, conditioned that such receiver shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect; and, in case the judgment of the court to which such appeal or writ of error be taken shall be against him, that he will perform its judgment, sentence, or decree, and pay all such damages and costs as said court may award against him. If the judgment of the appellate court shall be against such receiver, judgment shall, at the same time, be entered against the sureties on his said bond, and execution thereon may issue against such sureties within twenty days after such judgment is rendered.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2309. Deposit of Railroad Funds

When a line of railroad operated by a receiver lies wholly within this State, all money which comes into the hands of the receiver, whether from operating the road or otherwise, shall be kept and deposited in such place within this State as the court may direct, until properly disbursed; but, if any portion of the road lies in another State, the receiver shall be required to deposit in this State at least such share of the funds in his hands as is proportioned to the value of the property of the company within this State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2310. Suit By or Against

When property within the limits of this State has been placed in the hands of a receiver who has taken charge of such property, such receiver may, in his official capacity, sue or be sued in any court of this State having jurisdiction of the cause of action, without leave of the court appointing him. If judgment is recovered against said receiver, the court shall order said judgment paid out of any funds in the hands of said receiver as such receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2311. Venue of Suit Against

Actions may be brought against the receiver of the property of any person where said person resides; and against receivers of a corporation in the county where the principal office of said corporation may be located, and against receivers of railroad companies in any county through or into which the road is constructed. Service of summons may be had upon the receiver, or upon the general or division superintendent of the road, or upon any agent of said receiver who resides in the county where the suit is brought.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2312. Venue to Appoint

If the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is a corporation whose property lies within this State, or partly within this State, then the action to have a receiver appointed shall be brought in this State in the county where the principal office of said corporation is located.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 20, ch. 13, § 1.]

Art. 2313. Jurisdiction to Appoint

When a person resides in this State and a receiver is applied for, or if the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is situated within the limits of this State, no court other than one within the limits of this State, shall have power to appoint any receiver of said property.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2314. Inventory by Receiver

The receiver as soon after his appointment as possible, shall return to the court appointing him a true and correct inventory of all property received by him as such receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2315. Where There are Betterments, etc.

When a receiver of a corporation has, under the order of the court appointing him, made improvements upon the property and purchased rolling stock, machinery, and made other improvements whereby the value of the property of said corporation has been increased, or has extended a road, or acquired any property in connection with said road, and has paid for same out of the current receipts of the corporation that came into his hands as receiver, then, if there be any floating debts against said corporation, said corporation shall be made to contribute to the floating indebtedness to the full value of the money so spent by said receiver as aforesaid. When there are liens of any kind upon the property of said corporation in the hands of such receiver, and said property is sold under the order of the court, and said liens foreclosed, then the court appointing such receiver, if there be any unpaid debts or judgments, or claims against the corporation itself, shall detain in the hands of the clerk of the court money to the full value of the improvements made by the receiver of the property sold, and pay the same over to whoever has or may have a claim, debt, or judgment against said corporation; and the court, in ordering the sale of the property, shall require sufficient cash to be paid in at date of sale to cover the full value of the improvements so made by said receiver out of the current funds received by him from the property while receiver.

Art. 2316. Preference Claims

All judgments, claims, or causes of action when determined, existing against any corporation at the time of the appointment of a receiver, shall be paid out of the earnings of such corporation while in the hands of the receiver, to the exclusion of mortgage action; and the same shall be a lien on such earnings.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2317. Receivership of Corporation Limited; Certain Corporations Excepted

No corporation shall be administered in any court more than three years from the date of such appointment except as hereinafter provided; and within three years such court shall wind up the affairs of such corporation, unless prevented by litigation, or unless, at said time, the Receiver shall be conducting and operating the affairs of such corporation as a going concern, in which event the court, upon application, by proper order entered upon the minutes, after hearing held after due notice to all attorneys of record, may extend, from time to time, such receivership for such term and upon such conditions as in its judgment the best interests of all parties concerned may require; provided, that no continuance of a receivership shall be for more than five years additional to the original three years; and provided further, that corporations organized and existing under Section 68 of Article 1302, Chapter 1 of Title 32,¹ and under Title 112, of Revised Civil Statutes of Texas,² shall not be subject to the above provision limiting receiverships to five additional years, but as to such exempted corporations, the time in which to close any such receivership shall be determined by the court, and it may extend the same, from time to time, for such additional period or periods of time as it may determine.

² Article 6259 et seq.

Art. 2318. Application for Receiver

No receiver of a joint stock or incorporated company, co-partnership or private person shall ever be appointed on the petition of such joint stock or incorporated company, partnership or person. A stockholder or stockholders of such joint stock or incorporated company may have his or their action against such company, and may have a receiver appointed as in ordinary cases. Nothing herein shall prevent a member of any co-partnership from having a receiver appointed whenever a cause of action arises between the co-partners.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2319. Rules of Equity Shall Govern

In all matters relating to the appointment of receivers, and to their powers, duties and liabilities, and to the powers of the court in relation thereto, the rules of equity shall govern whenever the same are not inconsistent with any provision of this chapter and the general laws of the State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2320. Repealed by Rules of Civil Procedure (Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1)

Art. 2320a. Unconstitutional

Article 2320a, which provided for the reorganization and adjustment of the affairs of distressed debtors and was derived from Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 43, ch. 24, § 2, was held unconstitutional on the ground of impairment of obligations of contract in violation of Const. art. 1, § 16, and U.S.C.A. Const. art. 1, § 10, in Cattle Raisers Loan Co. v. Doan (Civ.App.1935) 86 S.W.2d 252, error denied 127 T. 1, 86 S.W.2d 1082.

Art. 2320b. Receivers of Mineral Interests Owned by Nonresidents or Absentees

Claimants or Owners of Undivided Mineral and Leasehold Interests; Appointment of Receiver; Petition

Sec. 1. In an action filed in the District Court by any person, firm or corporation having, claiming or owning an undivided mineral interest in any tract of land in the State of Texas, or any person, firm or corporation having, claiming or owning an undivided leasehold interest granted under a mineral lease covering any tract of land in the State of Texas, in which it is made to appear that one or more of the defendants in such action are nonresidents of the State of Texas, or persons whose place of residence is unknown and that such nonresidents of Texas or persons whose place of residence is unknown have absented themselves for at least five years successively next preceding the filing of the action, and who have, claim or own an undivided mineral interest in said land and have not paid taxes on said mineral interests or rendered same for taxes within said five-year period, the District Court shall have power to appoint the county judge of the particular county in which the land is located, and his successors in office or the county clerk of the particular county in which the land is located and his successors in office or any resident of said county, as the receiver of said undivided mineral interest owned by any one or more of such defendants, such receiver to serve without the necessity of his posting bond, provided a duly verified petition is filed and satisfactory proof is made to the Court that the plaintiff or plaintiffs have made diligent but unsuccessful effort to locate such defendants, and that the plaintiff or plaintiffs will suffer substantial damage or injury unless such receiver is appointed. Such receivership shall continue so long as any of such defendants, or his heirs, assigns or personal representatives, shall have failed to appear, either in person or by agent or attorney, in such court to claim his interest in the ownership of the minerals dealt with in the action.

Claimants or Owners of Undivided Leasehold Interest under Mineral Lease; Appointment of Receiver; Petition

Sec. 2. In an action filed in the District Court by any person, firm or corporation having, claiming or owning an undivided leasehold interest granted under a mineral lease covering any tract of land in the State of Texas in which it is made to appear that one or more of the defendants in such action are nonresidents of the State of Texas, or persons whose place of residence is unknown, and who have absented themselves for at least five years successively next preceding the filing of said action, and who have, claim or own an undivided leasehold interest granted under a mineral lease covering said land and have not paid taxes on said leasehold interest or rendered same for taxes within said five-year period, the District Court shall have power to appoint a receiver of said undivided leasehold interest owned by any one or more of such defendants, provided a duly verified petition is filed and satisfactory proof is made that the plaintiff or plaintiffs have made diligent but unsuccessful effort to locate such defendants, and that the plaintiff or plaintiffs will suffer substantial damages or injury unless such receiver is appointed.

Execution of Mineral Leases; Assignment of Outstanding Undivided Mineral Leasehold Interest; Unitization Agreements; Payment and Application of Consideration

Sec. 3. Such receiver, under the orders of the court, shall have power, authority and duty, subsequent to his appointment and from time to time thereafter, to (1) execute and deliver to a lessee, or successive lessees, mineral leases on such outstanding mineral interests, (2) to execute and deliver to a lessee, or successive lessees, an assignment of any such outstanding undivided mineral leasehold interest, and (3) to enter into any unitization agreement which has been duly authorized by the Railroad Commission of Texas. Such receiver shall execute such leases or assignments, or enter into such unitization agreements forthwith upon the entry of any such decree by the District Court. The money consideration, if any, to be paid for the execution of the aforementioned leases, assignments and/or unitization agreements by such receiver, shall be paid over to the clerk of the District Court in which the cause is pending, prior to the execution of the instrument by the county judge, and thereafter, after applying such money consideration, if any, to costs that may have accrued in such cause, the district clerk shall retain the balance of such funds for the use and benefit of such nonresident or unknown owners of such mineral interests or leasehold interests, as the case may be, and any future payments paid under such mineral lease, assignment of leasehold interest or unitization agreement, shall be paid directly into the registry of the court and impounded for the use and benefit of such nonresident and unknown owners.

Definitions

Sec. 4. When used in this Act

(1) the term "mineral lease" shall be deemed to include oil and gas leases and oil, gas and mineral leases of every kind and nature containing any and all provisions necessary or incident to the orderly exploration, development and recovery of oil, gas and other minerals including provision authorizing lessee to pool and unitize the lands subject thereto with adjacent lands into a unit not to exceed 160 acres for an oil well or 640 acres for a gas well plus 10% tolerance provided that should any governmental authority having jurisdiction prescribe or permit larger units, then such units may conform substantially in size with those prescribed by government regulations;

(2) the term "leasehold interest" shall be deemed to include any and all ownerships created under a mineral lease or carved out of a leasehold estate granted under a mineral lease and without limiting the foregoing shall include production payments, overriding royalty interests and working interests;

(3) the term "lessee" shall be deemed to include an assignee under an assignment or a mineral lease as that term is defined under Subsection 1 above.

Cumulative Effect of Law

Sec. 5. This Act shall not have the effect of altering or changing any laws now in effect relating to suits for the removal of cloud from title or the appointment of receivers under any other law, but is cumulative thereof.

Art. 2320c. Contingent Interests; Receiver to Make Mineral, Oil or Gas Lease; Pooling

Sec. 1. Where lands or any estate therein are subject to contingent future interests, legal or equitable, whether arising by way of remainder, reversion, possibility of reverter, executory devise, upon the happening of a condition subsequent, or otherwise, and it is made to appear that such lands or estate are liable to drainage of oil, gas and other minerals, or either of them, or that lease thereof for oil, gas and mineral development and the safe and proper investment of the proceeds will inure to the benefit and advantage of the persons entitled thereto, or that it is otherwise necessary for the conservation, preservation or protection of the property or estate or of any present or contingent or future interest therein, that such lands or estate be leased for the production of oil, gas and other minerals, or either of them, upon application of any person having a vested, contingent, or possible interest in said lands or estate, any District Court of the county in which the lands or a part thereof lie shall have power, pending the happening of the contingency and the vesting of such future interests, to appoint a receiver for such lands or estate and to authorize and direct the lease of such property for development of oil, gas and other minerals, or either of them, either at public sale or at private sale, and upon such terms and conditions as the Court may direct; and in such case to authorize a receiver to make such lease and to receive, hold and invest the proceeds thereof under the direction of the Court for the benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, and to that end may confer all necessary powers on the receiver.

Sec. 2. Where lands or any estate therein, including any contingent future interests described in Section 1 of this Act, are subject to an existing oil, gas and mineral lease which fails to provide for pooling or contains pooling provisions which are ineffective as to the contingent future interests covered by the lease, and it is made to appear that pooling of the contingent future interests is necessary to protect correlative rights, or to prevent the physical or economic waste of oil, gas and other minerals, or any of them, or that pooling of the contingent future interests will inure to the benefit and advantage of the persons entitled thereto, or that pooling is otherwise necessary for the conservation, preservation or protection of the property or estate or of any present or contingent or future interest therein, upon application of any person having a vested, contingent or possible interest in the lands subject to the lease, including the lessee therein and any assignee of the lessee, any district court of the county in which the lands or part thereof lie shall have power, pending the happening of the contingency and the vesting of the future interests, to appoint a receiver for the contingent interests covered by the lease and to authorize and direct the amendments of the lease to authorize pooling of the contingent future interests, upon the terms and conditions and for additional consideration, if any, as the court may direct; and in such case to authorize a receiver to make such an amendment to the lease and to receive, hold and invest the additional consideration therefor, if any, under the direction of the court for the benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, and to that end may confer all necessary powers on the receiver.

Sec. 2A. Any lease given pursuant to Section 1 of this Act or any amendment of an existing lease made pursuant to Section 2 of this Act may authorize the lessee and his assigns to pool all or any part of the lands subject to the lease with adjacent lands into a unit not to exceed 160 acres for an oil well or 640 acres for a gas well plus 10% tolerance. Provided that should any governmental authority having jurisdiction prescribe or permit larger units, than¹ the units may conform substantially in size with those prescribed or permitted by government regulations.

Sec. 2B. In any cause commenced pursuant to Section 1 or Section 2 of this Act, all persons in being having a vested, contingent or possible interest in the lands shall be cited in the cause in the manner and for the time provided for in actions concerning title to lands. All persons not in being shall be cited in the manner and for the time provided in actions against unknown owners or claimants of interest in land. Provided in any cause commenced pursuant to Section 2 of this Act, a person shall not be a necessary party in the cause if at the commencement thereof the person's interest in the land is then effectively subject to pooling authority expressed in an existing oil, gas and mineral lease and if enlargement of the pooling authority as to the interest is not sought in the cause.

Sec. 2C. In any cause commenced pursuant to this Act, the court may authorize and direct that the moneys, if any, paid to the receiver, after payment of the court costs, shall be by him deposited in the registry of the court for the use and benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, and thereupon the court may immediately discharge the receiver, and any future payments accruing under the lease to the contingent future interests leased or subjected to pooling in the cause shall be paid directly into the registry of the court and impounded for the benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests.

Sec. 3. No mineral lease on which there has already been drilled any oil or gas well, or both, and no mineral lease or leasing unit upon which drilling operations for oil and gas, or both, have already begun at the time of the effective date of this Act, shall come within the application of the provisions of this Act; it being the intention of the Legislature that the provisions of this Act shall apply only to mineral leases where there has been no development for oil and gas, or other minerals, upon the effective date of this Act. It is further provided, however, that no lease shall be authorized covering any mineral interest in lands, in which lands there are existing homestead rights, without the written consent of the owner or owners of such homestead rights given in the manner provided by law for the conveyance of homesteads.

Sec. 4. If any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the Courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act; and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted, and does here now enact, such remaining portions despite any such invalidity.

3. OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

Art. 2321. Appointment and Examination

Each district and criminal district judge shall appoint an official court reporter who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office during the pleasure of the court. Before any person is so appointed, the judge shall assign three attorneys practicing in said court to examine said applicant as to his competency as follows: The applicant shall, in the presence of such committee, write at the rate of at least one hundred and seventy-five words per minute for five consecutive minutes from questions and answers submitted to him, not counting the words "question" and "answer," and shall transcribe the same with accuracy. If the applicant passes this test satisfactorily a majority of the committee shall furnish him with a certificate of that fact, which shall be filed among the records of the court and be recorded by the clerk in the minutes thereof. As to subsequent appointments, the presentation of a certified copy from said clerk of said certificates shall be prima facie evidence of the applicant's competency. No examination by any committee shall be required of an applicant who has been official stenographer of any district court in this State for not less than two years prior to his application.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Repealer

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2019, ch. 622, providing for the setting of compensation, expenses and allowances for certain county and precinct officials and employees by the commissioners courts effective January 1, 1972, provides in section 8 thereof that to the extent any local, special, or general law, including Acts of the 1971 Legislature, prescribes such compensation, expenses and allowances for any official or employee covered by this Act, that law is repealed. See article 3912k.

Art. 2322. Oath

Said reporter in addition to taking the official oath shall subscribe to an oath to be administered to him by the district clerk to the effect that he will well and truly in an impartial manner keep a correct record of all evidence offered in each case reported by him, together with the objections and exceptions made by the parties to such suit, and the rulings and remarks of the court in passing upon the admissibility of testimony.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2323. Deputy Reporter

In case of illness, press of official work, or unavoidable disability of the official shorthand reporter to perform his duties in reporting proceedings in court, the judge of the court may, in his discretion, authorize a deputy shorthand reporter to act during the absence of said official shorthand reporter, and said deputy shorthand reporter shall receive, during the time he acts for said official shorthand reporter, the same salary and fees as the official shorthand reporter of said court, to be paid in the manner provided for the official shorthand reporter; but the said official shorthand reporter shall also receive his salary in full during said temporary disability to act. The necessity for a deputy official shorthand reporter shall be left entirely within the discretion of the judge of the court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Saved from Repeal

Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 576, ch. 286, § 1, which amended Art. 2327A (repealed in 1947), relating to salary of certain court reporters, provided in the second paragraph that nothing in the Act should be construed as repealing this article.

Art. 2323a. Deputy Court Reporter for 70th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The official court reporter of the 70th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Midland and Ector, is hereby granted authority to appoint a deputy court reporter for the 70th Judicial District.

Sec. 2. The deputy court reporter provided for in this Act shall have the authority and perform such duties as are now required of the official court reporter of the 70th Judicial District under the direction and in the name of the official court reporter of the 70th Judicial District.

Sec. 3. No money shall ever be expended by the counties composing the 70th Judicial District and no money shall ever be expended by the State of Texas for salary or other expense of such deputy court reporter.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 314, ch. 190.]

Art. 2324. Duty of Reporter

Each Official Court Reporter shall:

Attend all sessions of the court; take full shorthand notes of all oral testimony offered in cases tried in said court, together with all objections to the admissibility of the evidence, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions thereto; take full shorthand notes of closing arguments when requested to do so by the attorney for any party to such case, together with all objections to such arguments, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon and all exceptions thereto;

Preserve all shorthand notes taken in said court for future use or reference for a full year, and furnish to any person a transcript of all such evidence or other proceedings, or any portion thereof as such person may order, upon the payment to him of the fees provided by law.

When any party to any suit reported by any such reporter shall desire a transcript of the evidence in said suit, said party may apply for same and the reporter shall make up such transcript and shall receive as compensation therefor the sum of not more than thirty cents per one hundred words for the original thereof, and in addition such reporter may make a reasonable charge, subject to the approval of the trial court if objection shall be made thereto, for postage and/or express charges paid; photostating, blue-printing or other reproduction of exhibits; indexing; and preparation for filing and special binding of original exhibits. Provided further, that in case any such reporter shall charge more than the fees herein allowed, whether by accident or design, and shall refuse to make proper refund or correction of such charges, he shall be liable to the person paying the same a sum equal to four times the excess so paid.

Art. 2324a. Powers as to Depositions, Commissions, Oaths and Affidavits

Sec. 1. All official District Court reporters are authorized to take depositions of witnesses, and to receive, execute and return commissions, administer oaths and affidavits, in connection with such depositions, and make a certificate of such fact, and do all other things necessary in the taking of such depositions in accordance with existing laws.

Sec. 2. Said reporters shall have authority to perform the above mentioned acts only within any county within the judicial district that such reporter was appointed and serving in connection with his official business, in the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws provided for the method and manner of taking depositions.

[Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 386, ch. 248.]

Art. 2325. Repealed by Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1033, ch. 390, § 2

Art. 2326. Compensation

The official shorthand reporter of each Judicial District Court, civil or criminal, and the official shorthand reporter of each County Court-at-Law, civil or criminal, in any county in this State which constitutes in itself a judicial district, and having a population in excess of six hundred thousand (600,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall receive a salary of not less than Forty-eight Hundred ($4800.00) Dollars per annum, nor more than Sixty-six Hundred ($6600.00) Dollars per annum, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law. Said salaries shall be fixed and determined annually by the County Commissioners Court; provided, however, that the judges of the judicial districts and the County Courts-at-Law shall annually make recommendations to the Commissioners Court as to the fixing of such salaries. Such salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees and traveling and hotel expenses of official shorthand reporters now or hereafter provided by law. The salaries of such reporters shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of the county in which the service is performed out of any funds available for the purpose, in the same manner as such salaries have heretofore been paid.

The official shorthand reporter of each Judicial District Court, civil or criminal, and the official shorthand reporter of each County Court-at-Law, civil or criminal, in any county in this State having a population in excess of three hundred sixty thousand (360,000) inhabitants, but less than six hundred thousand (600,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall receive a salary of Sixty-six Hundred ($6600.00) Dollars per annum, in addition to compensation for transcript fees as provided by law. Said salary shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the General Fund, Officers Salary Fund, the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of any such county, and shall be in addition to traveling and hotel expenses of official shorthand reporters now or hereafter provided by law.

The official shorthand reporter in each of all other Judicial District Courts, civil or criminal, and the official shorthand reporter in each of all other County Courts-at-Law, civil or criminal, in this State shall receive a salary of not less than Twenty-seven Hundred and Fifty ($2750.00) Dollars per annum, and not more than Sixty-six Hundred ($6600.00) Dollars per annum; said salary shall be fixed and determined by the District Judges of such Judicial District Courts, civil or criminal, and the Judges of such County Courts-at-Law, civil or criminal, who shall enter an order in the minutes of the court, in each county of the district, which shall be a public record and open for public inspection, stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid said reporter. The District Judge shall file a copy of said order with each Commissioners Court of the District. The salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees and traveling and hotel expenses of official shorthand reporters as provided by law; and the salary shall be paid monthly out of the General Fund, Officers Salary Fund, Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of the county or counties in which the court sits, and in which the service is performed.

It is further provided that before any increase in salary shall become effective, notice thereof shall be printed one time in at least one (1) newspaper in each county of the judicial district, the cost of publication of said notice to be paid by the Commissioners Court of each county out of any funds available.

Art. 2326a. Expenses and Manner of Payment

All official shorthand reporters and deputy official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of the State of Texas composed of more than one county, when engaged in the discharge of their official duties in any county in this state other than the county of their residence shall, in addition to the compensation now provided by law for their services, be allowed their actual and necessary expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of such duties, not to exceed the sum of Six Dollars ($6.00) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed Four Cents (4¢) a mile when traveling by railroad or bus lines, and not to exceed Ten Cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid after the completion of each term of court by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expenses incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official or deputy official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the general fund of the county, upon the sworn statement of the reporter, approved by the Judge.

Provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter, or his deputy, more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in any one year under the provisions of this Act; provided further, that in districts containing two counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per annum; in districts containing three counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per annum; in districts containing four counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Seven Hundred Dollars ($700.00) per annum; in districts containing five or more counties the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per annum.

The account for such services herein provided for shall be sworn to in duplicate by the reporter, and approved by the District Judge, and one copy of said account shall be filed by the reporter with the clerk of the District Court of the county where the Judge of the district resides.

Whenever a special term of any District Court in this state is convened and the services of an additional official or deputy official shorthand reporter is required, then this Act shall also apply to said shorthand reporter so employed by the Judge of said special term, and all expenses as herein provided shall be allowed and paid said shorthand reporter so employed for said special term by the county wherein said special term is convened and held, and shall be in addition to the expenses herein provided for the official or deputy official shorthand reporter of the district.

Provided, however, that whenever any official or deputy official shorthand reporter is called upon to report the proceedings of any special term of court, or on account of the sickness of any official shorthand reporter of any Judicial District, necessitating the employment of a shorthand reporter from some other county within the state, then the shorthand reporter so employed shall receive and be paid all actual and necessary expenses in going to and returning from the place where he or she may be called on to report the proceedings of any regular or special terms of court.

Art. 2326b. Reporters for Judicial Districts, Salary

The salary of the official shorthand reporter in each Judicial District in any county of this State which alone constitutes two or more Judicial Districts, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided by law shall be $3,000.00 per annum, to be paid as the salary of other court reporters are paid, out of the general fund of the county.

[Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 691, ch. 310, § 1.]

Art. 2326c. Salaries of Reporters for Judicial Districts; Exception of Certain Districts

The official shorthand reporter of each Judicial District in this State and the official shorthand reporter of any County Court, either civil or criminal, in this State, where the compensation of such reporter of such County Court or Judicial District is not otherwise provided by special law, shall receive a salary of not more than Two Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($2,700.00) per annum, nor less than Two Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400.00) per annum, such salary to be fixed and determined by the District or County Judge respectively of the Court wherein such shorthand reporter is employed, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided for by law. Said salary shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of the county out of the General Fund of the county, or in the discretion of the Commissioners Court, out of the jury fund of said county, upon the certificate of the Judge of such District or County Court. In districts of this State composed of two or more counties, said salary shall be paid monthly by the counties of the District in proportion to the number of weeks provided by law for holding Court in the respective counties in the District; provided, that in a District where in any county the term may continue until the business is disposed of, each county shall pay in proportion to the time Court is actually held in such county.

The salary of the official shorthand reporter in each Judicial District in any county of this State with a population in excess of one hundred and fifty thousand (150,000) according to the last preceding Federal census and which alone constitutes two or more Judicial Districts, in addition to the compensation of transcript fees as provided by law, shall be Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) per annum to be paid as the salaries of other court reporters are paid.

It is expressly provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not in any way apply to the official shorthand reporter in and for the 25th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Guadalupe, Gonzales, Colorado and Lavaca, nor shall this Act repeal Senate Bill 133, Regular Session, 43rd Legislature; nor shall the provisions of this Act apply in any way to the official shorthand reporters in and for any Judicial District Court of Bexar County, civil or criminal, nor shall this Act repeal Senate Bill No. 315, Regular Session, 43rd Legislature; nor shall the provisions of this Act apply to any official shorthand reporter in and for the 22nd Judicial District of Texas composed of the counties of Comal, Hays, Caldwell, Fayette and Austin.

Art. 2326d. Salaries of Official Shorthand Reporters for Districts Composed of Four Counties

The salary of the official shorthand reporter in each judicial district composed of four counties in this State, with the population of said four counties totalling in the aggregate, in excess of one hundred thousand (100,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census, and which alone constitute one or more judicial districts, in addition to the compensation of transcript fees as provided by law, shall be Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) per annum to be paid as the salaries of other court reporters are paid.

It is further expressly provided that nothing herein shall be construed as repealing Article 2326-A of 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas as amended by Acts 1929, 41st Legislature, Chapter 56, page 112.

Art. 2326d-1. Salaries in Districts of Four or More Counties with Valuations of $230,000,000

Minimum Salaries; Increase

Sec. 1. The official Court Reporter in all Judicial Districts composed of four or more counties, where the aggregate total assessed valuations of all taxable property in the counties composing any of said Districts is not less than Two Hundred Thirty Million Dollars ($230,000,000.00) as shown by the approved tax rolls of the several counties composing any of said Judicial Districts for any year commencing January 1, 1945, shall, from and after the effective date of this Act, receive a minimum salary of Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00) per annum, in addition to all traveling expenses, transcript fees and all other compensation now provided by law to be paid to the said official Court Reporters; and providing that the said salary shall be increased up to, but not to exceed, Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per annum in the following manner:

If the aggregate total assessed valuations of all taxable property in the several counties comprising any of said Judicial Districts shall exceed Two Hundred Thirty Million Dollars ($230,000,000.00), as shown by the approved tax rolls of the several counties comprising any of said Judicial Districts for any year commencing January 1, 1945, such salary of the official Court Reporter in each said District shall be increased for the year immediately succeeding the year in which such aggregate total valuations shall exceed Two Hundred Thirty Million Dollars ($230,000,000.00), as reflected by the approved tax rolls for said year; and such increase shall be at the rate of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per year for each increase in said aggregate total valuation of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) or fractional part thereof.

Traveling Expenses

Sec. 2. All traveling expenses now provided by law to be paid to the said official Court Reporters shall be paid quarterly by the county for which the same are incurred.

Payment of Salary; Taxable Valuations as Basis

Sec. 3. The salary of the official Court Reporter as herein fixed shall be paid monthly by the respective counties composing any of said Judicial Districts, and in the proportion that the taxable values in each county bear to the aggregate total taxable values of all the counties in each of said Districts. For the purpose of the allowed increase in the salary of the official Court Reporters as herein fixed, the tax rolls of each of the counties as approved by the Commissioners Court of each such county shall conclusively establish and shall be conclusively presumed to be the correct total taxable valuation. In determining the salary of the official Court Reporter for the year 1946, in any of said Judicial Districts, the taxable values of each county for the year 1945 shall serve as the basis for such determination. Thereafter the taxable valuations as shown by the approved tax rolls for each year shall serve as the basis for determining the salary of the said official Court Reporter for the ensuing year.

Salary for 1945

Sec. 4. The salary of the said official Court Reporters for the year 1945, commencing January 1, 1945, is hereby fixed by Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00) per annum, payable monthly, commencing on the effective date of this Act; provided that all payments of salary to the said official Court Reporters under laws existing in the year 1945, and at the effective date of this Act, shall be deducted; that is to say, all payments made by the respective counties composing said Judicial Districts under existing laws for all months of 1945, until the effective date of the Act, shall be applied against the total annual salary of Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00), as herein fixed, so that for the year 1945 the total salary of any such official Court Reporter shall amount to Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600.00), and no more.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase, or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

[Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 430, ch. 272.]

Saved From Repeal

Act 1949, 51st Leg., p. 820, ch. 440, § 2 provides that nothing in that act, which amends art. 2326, shall affect or repeal this article, and that it remain in full force and effect.

Art. 2326e. Salaries of Reporters for Counties Over 290,000

Art. 2326j-25. Appointment and Compensation of Reporters for 92nd, 93rd, 139th and 111th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. The Judges of the District Courts of the Ninety-second, Ninety-third and One Hundred Thirty-ninth Judicial Districts of Texas, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his respective judicial district in the manner now provided for District Courts in this state who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not more than Eight Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($8,500.00) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the judges of the Ninety-second, Ninety-third and One Hundred Thirty-ninth District Courts of Hidalgo County, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statement of fact and all other fees. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the district judges of said respective courts shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the County Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County, Texas. From and after passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in District Courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporters as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the district judges of the Ninety-second, Ninety-third and One Hundred Thirty-ninth District Courts of Hidalgo County, Texas, and not otherwise.

Sec. 2. The official shorthand reporter of the One Hundred Eleventh Judicial District of Texas, composed of the County of Webb, shall receive a reasonable salary of not less than Six Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($6,600.00) per annum nor more than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00) per annum, in addition to the compensation for transcription fees as provided by law. Such reasonable salary shall be determined, fixed and set by the Judge of said Judicial District; and from and after that time that said Judge shall have entered an order in the minutes of the court, which order shall be a public record and open for inspection, stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid to said reporter, and shall have filed a copy of said order with the Commissioners Court of Webb County, the salary so determined, fixed and set shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or out of the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose.

Separate provisions for compensation of the reporters for the 92nd, 93rd and 139th judicial districts were enacted by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1182, ch. 378, and incorporated into art. 2326j-25a.

Art. 2326j-25a. Compensation of Reporters for 92nd, 93rd and 139th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. From and after the passage of this Act, the official shorthand reporters for the 92nd, 93rd, and 139th Judicial Districts of Texas shall each receive a salary not to exceed $11,500 per annum, which salary shall be determined, fixed, and set by the presiding judge of each such judicial district; and such salary compensation shall be in addition to transcript fees or fees of any character now authorized by law to be paid to official shorthand reporters.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act, all provisions of law now existing, relating to the appointment of such official shorthand reporters, their qualifications and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salaries of such official shorthand reporters for the 92nd, 93rd, and 139th Judicial Districts of Texas shall be fixed and determined as provided in this Act.

Art. 2326j-25b. Compensation of Reporter for 111th Judicial District

The Official Court Reporter of the 111th Judicial District of Texas shall receive a salary not to exceed $12,000 per annum, the amount to be determined by the Judge of the 111th Judicial District Court, in addition to the compensation for transcription fees as provided by law. The salary shall be paid monthly upon approval of the Judge of the 111th Judicial District Court, and shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Webb County, Texas. The salary shall be payable out of the general fund, officers salary fund, the jury fund, or any fund available for that purpose.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 998, ch. 185, § 1, eff. May 13, 1971.]

Art. 2326j-26. Compensation of Reporters for 135th and 24th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. The official shorthand reporter for the 135th Judicial District and the official shorthand reporter for the 24th Judicial District shall each receive a salary of not less than Six Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($6,600) per annum, nor more than Eleven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($11,500) per annum. Subject to the limitations prescribed herein, the salary of the official shorthand reporter for the 135th Judicial District shall be determined, fixed, and set by the judge of the 135th Judicial District Court, and the salary of the official shorthand reporter for the 24th Judicial District shall be determined, fixed, and set by the judge of the 24th Judicial District Court. From and after the time that each of such judges shall have entered an order in the minutes of his court, in each county of the district, stating specifically the amount of salary to be paid to the official shorthand reporter of the district and shall have filed a copy of such order with each Commissioners Court of the district, the salary so determined, fixed, and set shall be paid monthly, by and in proportion for each county of the district as provided by law, out of the general fund, or out of the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose; provided, however, that the Commissioners Court of each county shall have the discretion to determine whether or not said county shall contribute its proportion of any salary increase authorized by this Act. Such order of each district judge shall be a public record and open for inspection.

Sec. 2. All provisions of the law relating to the appointment, qualifications and duties of official shorthand reporters in this state, and as to allowances to them of transcript fees and hotel and traveling expenses, shall govern, but when the salary of the official shorthand reporter for the 135th Judicial District and the salary of the official shorthand reporter for the 24th Judicial District shall have been determined, fixed, and set as provided herein, such salary shall be paid to such official shorthand reporters as provided in this Act, and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-27. Compensation of Reporter for 59th Judicial District

Sec. 1. The Judge of the 59th Judicial District of Texas, composed of Collin and Grayson Counties, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such district in the manner now provided for district courts in this state; who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than Sixty-six Hundred Dollars ($6600) per annum, nor more than Nine Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($9,600) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 59th Judicial District composed of Collin and Grayson Counties, and said salary shall be in addition to transcript fees. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts of Collin and Grayson Counties.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise.

Art. 2326j-28. Compensation of Reporters for 103rd, 107th and 138th Judicial Districts

Sec. 1. The official shorthand reporters of the 103rd, 107th, and 138th Judicial Districts of Texas are authorized to receive a salary of not more than Eight Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($8,500) per annum and all other compensation now provided by law to be paid official shorthand reporters, the specific amount of such salary to be fixed by the district judges of the judicial districts.

Sec. 2. The salary of the official shorthand reporter shall be paid in equal monthly installments by the counties composing such judicial district in accordance with the proportion that the population of each county bears to the total population of the judicial district as shown by the last preceding federal census. Such salaries may be paid out of the general fund, the jury fund or any other fund lawfully available for such purpose.

Art. 2326j-29. Appointment and Compensation of Reporter for 31st Judicial District

Sec. 1. The judge of the 31st Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such District in the manner now provided for District Courts in this state who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than Seventy-five Hundred Dollars ($7,500.00) per annum, nor more than Ten Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($10,500.00) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 31st Judicial District, composed of the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts, and said salary shall be in addition to the transcript fees, fees for statements of fact, and all other fees as now provided by law. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts, by the respective counties of the Judicial District in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the Judicial District.

Sec. 2. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this Act be held for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act.

Sec. 3. Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties, not to exceed Eight Dollars ($8.00) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed ten cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the General Fund of the county upon the sworn statement of the reporter approved by the judge, provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter more than Twelve Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,250.00) in any one year under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise; and the transcript fees and allowances for traveling and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise.
