sion for the disposition of the bodies of deceased persons, and a duty to, and for the benefit of, the general public; and said property shall be held and used exclusively for cemetery purposes, unless and until the dedication shall be removed by an order and decree of the district Court of the county in which the same is situated, in a proceeding brought therefor by the governing body of the city, if said cemetery is within, or within five (5) miles from, the city limits of any city of more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal census, or by the district attorney, if said cemetery is not within, or within five (5) miles of, the city limits of a city of more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal census, or by the owner of property so situated that its value is affected by said cemetery, upon notice and proof satisfactory to the Court that all bodies have been removed therefrom, or that no interments were made therein, and that the same is no longer used or required for interment purposes; or until the maintenance of said cemetery is enjoined or abated as a nuisance as hereinafter provided for. After such dedication and so long as said property shall remain dedicated to cemetery purposes, no railroad, street, road, alley, pipe line, telephone, telegraph, or electric line, or other public utility or thoroughfare whatsoever shall ever be laid out through, over, or across any part thereof, without the consent of the directors of the cemetery association owning or operating the same, or of not less than two-thirds of the owners of burial plots therein, and all of such property, including road, alleys, and walks therein, shall be exempt from public improvements assessments, and all public taxation, and shall not be liable to be sold on execution or applied in payment of debts due from individual owners and burial plots therein.

(b) In the event the United States of America, or the State of Texas, or a county in Texas, or a municipality or any other duly constituted governmental subdivision has made definite determination that a new highway, thoroughfare, road, or street shall be constructed along a definite proposed route, or that an existing highway, thoroughfare, road, or street shall be widened, and such determination is a matter of public record, and if after such determination any property lying within the confines of such proposed route is dedicated for cemetery purposes, such dedication for cemetery purposes shall be presumed to have been made in fraud of the rights of the public and as being made for the sole purpose of enhancing the value of property to be condemned, and the district court of the county in which such land or any part of such land so dedicated lies may, in a suit filed by such governmental subdivision to remove such dedication, remove such dedication for cemetery purposes insofar as such dedication covers land lying within the confines of such proposed highway, thoroughfare, road, or street.

Art. 912a-12. Sale of Property for Interment Purposes and Property Rights

After filing the map or plat and recording the certificate or declaration of dedication, but not prior thereto, and subject to its rules and regulations and/or to such limitations, conditions, and restrictions, as may be inserted in or by reference made a part of the instrument of conveyance, the cemetery association may sell and convey the exclusive right to sepulture in the burial plots to purchasers. No license of any kind or character shall be required of any person, firm or corporation on account of or to authorize the sale of lots, graves or interment space in any dedicated cemetery. All lots, sections, or parts thereof, the use of which has been so conveyed by certificate of ownership as a separate plot, shall be indivisible except with the consent of the cemetery association, or as shall be provided by law. All conveyances of such exclusive right of sepulture made by the cemetery association shall be signed by the president or the vice president and secretary or other officers authorized by the cemetery association. All lots, plots, and burial space in which the exclusive right of sepulture has been conveyed shall be presumed to be the sole and separate property of the person or persons named as grantee in the instrument of conveyance; provided, however, that the wife or husband shall have a vested right of interment of his or her body in any burial plot in which the exclusive right of sepulture has been conveyed to the other, which right shall continue as long as he or she shall remain the wife or husband of the plot owner or shall be his or her wife or husband at the time of such plot owner's demise. No conveyance or other action without the joinder therein or by written consent attached thereto shall divest such husband or wife of such vested right of interment; provided, however, that a final decree of divorce between them shall terminate such vested right of interment unless it shall be otherwise provided by such decree of divorce.

A vested right of interment as in this section provided may be waived and shall be terminated upon the interment elsewhere of the remains of a person entitled thereto under this section.

[Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 559, ch. 340, § 12.]

Art. 912a-13. Rights in Plot of an Individual Owner; Conveyance of Exclusive Right of Sepulture Therein; Conveyances Subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Cemetery Association; Filing and Recording of Conveyances in the Office of the Cemetery Association; Designation of Representative by Co-owners in a Plot

If the exclusive right of sepulture in a plot has been conveyed to an individual owner who is interred therein, then, unless such owner has made specific disposition of such plot either by will having express reference thereto, or by written declaration duly filed and recorded in the office of the cemetery association, then one grave, niche or crypt shall be reserved for the surviving spouse, if any, of such owner, and in those spaces remaining, if any, the children of such deceased owner in the order of need, may be interred without the consent of any person claiming any interest therein. Any surviving spouse of such owner, and any child of such deceased owner, may waive his or her right to interment in said plot in favor of any other relative of such deceased owner, or the owner's spouse, and upon such waiver, the person in whose favor the waiver is made may be interred therein. The exclusive right of sepulture in any unused grave, niche or crypt in the plot may be conveyed only by a conveyance executed by the surviving spouse, if any, of such deceased owner and the children of the deceased owner, or if there is no surviving child of such deceased owner, by the surviving spouse, if any, and the heirs-at-law of such deceased owner.

If the exclusive right of sepulture in a plot has been conveyed to an individual owner who is not interred therein, then, unless such owner has made specific disposition of such plot either by will having express reference thereto, or by written declaration duly filed and recorded in the office of the cemetery association, the exclusive right of sepulture in the whole of said plot, except the one grave, niche, or crypt which is reserved to the surviving spouse, if any, shall upon the death of such owner, vest in the heirs-at-law of such deceased owner. Such exclusive right of sepulture to any unused grave, niche or crypt in the plot may be conveyed, subject to the right of the surviving spouse, if any, to a right of interment in one space, by such heirs-at-law of the deceased owner.

All conveyances of the exclusive right of sepulture shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the cemetery association, and shall be duly filed and recorded in the office of the cemetery association.

When there are two (2) or more owners of a plot, then such owners may designate one or more persons to represent said plot and file written notice of such designation with the cemetery association; in the absence of such notice, the cemetery association is duly authorized to inter or permit an interment therein upon the request or direction of any registered co-owner of such plot.

Art. 912a-14. Rules and Regulations

The cemetery association may make, adopt and enforce rules and regulations for the use, care, control, management, restriction, and protection of its cemetery, and of all parts and subdivisions thereof; for restricting and limiting the use of all property within its cemetery; for regulating the uniformity, class, and kind of all markers, monuments, and other structures within said cemetery and subdivisions thereof, and/or prohibiting the erection of monuments, markers and/or other structures in or upon any and/or all portions of such property; for regulating and/or preventing monuments, effigies and structures within any and/or all portions of the cemetery grounds and for the removal thereof; for regulating or preventing the introduction and/or care of plants or shrubs within such grounds; for the prevention of interment in any part thereof of a body not entitled to interment therein; for preventing the use of burial plots for purposes violative of its restrictions; for regulating the conduct of persons and preventing improper assemblages therein; and for all other purposes deemed necessary by the board of directors for the proper conduct of the business of the association and the protection and safeguarding of the premises, and the principles, plans, and ideals on which the cemetery was organized; and from time to time may amend, add to, revise, change and/or modify such rules and regulations. Such rules and regulations shall be plainly printed or typewritten and maintained subject to inspection in the office of the association or in such place or places within the cemetery as the directors may prescribe. The directors may prescribe penalties for the violation of any rule or regulation which penalties may be recoverable by the association in a civil action.

Art. 912a-15. Establishment and Maintenance of Perpetual Care

Every cemetery association which has established and is now maintaining, operating or conducting a perpetual care cemetery and every association which shall hereafter establish, maintain, operate or conduct a perpetual care cemetery within this state, pursuant to this Act, shall establish with a trust company or a bank with trust powers, no two (2) of the directors of which shall be directors of the cemetery association for the benefit of which such fund is established, an endowment fund of which the income only can be used for the general perpetual care of its cemetery and to place its cemetery under perpetual care; provided, however, that if there is no such trust company or bank with trust powers, qualified and willing to accept such trust funds at the regular fees established by the Texas Trust Act,¹ located within the county within which such cemetery association is located, then and only then, such endowment fund may be established with a Board of Trustees composed of three (3) or more persons, no two (2) of the trustees of which shall be directors of such cemetery association. The principal of such fund for perpetual care shall never be voluntarily reduced, but shall remain inviolable and shall forever be maintained separate and distinct by the trustee or trustees from all other funds. Any such trustee or trustees and the perpetual care trust operated by them shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of the Texas Trust Act.

The principal of such fund shall be invested, from time to time reinvested, and kept invested as required by law for the investment of such funds, and the net income arising therefrom shall be used solely for the general care and maintenance of the property entitled to perpetual care in the cemetery for which the fund is established, and shall be applied in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine to be for the best interest of the cemetery for which such fund is established, but shall never be used for improvement or embellishment of unsold property to be offered for sale. In the event the Board of Directors shall fail to generally care for and maintain that portion of the cemetery entitled to perpetual care, as hereinbefore provided, any five (5) or more lot owners in said cemetery whose lots are entitled to perpetual care shall have the right by suit for mandatory injunction or for a Receiver to take charge of and expend said net income, filed in the District Court of the county in which the cemetery is located, to compel the expenditure either by the Board of Directors or by such Receiver of the net income from the perpetual care fund for the purpose hereinabove set forth.

If a cemetery association is operating a cemetery without provision for perpetual care, and if it is authorized by law and wishes to operate said cemetery as a perpetual care cemetery, it shall so notify the Banking Commission of the State of Texas and shall, in accordance with the foregoing provisions hereof, establish a perpetual care fund equal to the amount which would have theretofore have been paid into such a fund, in accordance with provisions of this Act, if such cemetery had been operated as a perpetual care cemetery from and after the date of the first sale of burial space therein, or the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act,² whichever is the greater. If the amount of the perpetual care fund so established is the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act, such cemetery association or corporation shall be entitled to a credit against amounts hereafter required by the provisions of this Act to be paid by it unto such perpetual care fund equal to the excess of the amount of such perpetual care fund, as originally established by it, over what would have been the amount thereof if its amount had been determined without regard to Section 29 of this Act.

In establishing its perpetual care trust fund the association may from time to time adopt plans for the general care, maintenance and embellishment of its cemetery.

A cemetery association which has established a perpetual care fund may also take, receive, and hold therefor and as a part thereof or as an incident thereto any property, real, personal or mixed, bequeathed, devised, granted, given or otherwise contributed to it therefor.

The perpetual care trust fund authorized by this Section and all sums paid therein or contributed thereto are, and each thereof is hereby, expressly permitted and shall be and be deemed to be for charitable and eleemosynary purposes. Such perpetual care shall be deemed to be a provision for the discharge of a duty due from the person or persons contributing thereto to the persons interred and to be interred in the cemetery and likewise a provision for the benefit and protection of the public by preserving and keeping cemeteries from becoming places of disorder, reproach, and desolation in the communities in which they are situated. No payment, gift, grant, bequest, or other contribution for such general perpetual care shall be or be deemed to be invalid by reason of any indefiniteness or uncertainty of the persons designated as beneficiaries in the instruments creating said trust, nor shall said fund or any contribution thereto be or be deemed to be invalid as violating any law against perpetuities or the suspension of the power of alienation of title to property.

Each perpetual care cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to such amount as may have been stipulated in any contract under which perpetual care property was sold prior to March 15, 1934, plus a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until such fund reaches a minimum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), after which each such cemetery shall deposit an amount equivalent to a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until September 3, 1945. Each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after September 3, 1945, until July 1, 1963. A minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property and a minimum of Five Dollars ($5.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between March 15, 1934, and July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. From and after July 1, 1963, each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of fifty cents (50¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after said date. A minimum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property, except that on crypts accessible only through another crypt the minimum requirement shall be Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per each such crypt, and a minimum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. Such minimum requirements shall apply to all property in which the exclusive right of sepulture has been sold and paid for, whether used for interment purposes or not.

After July 1, 1963, each agreement for the sale of burial space in a perpetual care cemetery shall set out separately the part of the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser which is to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. If the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser is payable in installments, all amounts paid thereon shall be applied, first, to the part thereof not required to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund, to the extent thereof, and the remainder shall, when received by the seller, be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. Any funds required to be deposited in its perpetual care trust fund by a seller of burial space shall be so deposited not later than ten (10) days after the end of the calendar month during which they are received. If the seller shall fail to so deposit such funds within the time required hereunder, it shall be liable for and the Banking Commissioner shall collect as a penalty the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day for the period of such failure, and, upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner of the refusal of the seller to pay to the Banking Commissioner such penalty, the Attorney General shall institute a suit to recover said penalty and for costs and such other relief by the state as in the judgment of the Attorney General is proper and necessary. No cemetery shall hereafter operate as a perpetual care, permanent maintenance, or free care cemetery until the provisions hereof are complied with.

The amount to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund shall be separately shown on the original purchase agreement and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the purchaser. In the sale of burial space, no commission shall be paid a broker or salesman on the amount to be deposited in the fund.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the laws of the State of Texas or any provision in a trust agreement executed for the purpose of providing perpetual care for a cemetery, such trust agreement may, by agreement entered into between the cemetery association and the trustee or trustees acting under such trust agreement, be amended so as to include any provision which is not inconsistent with any provision in this Act.

Art. 912a-16. Requirements of Perpetual Care Cemeteries

Each perpetual care cemetery as defined in this title shall post in a conspicuous place in the office and/or offices where sales are conducted or if there be no office, in a conspicuous place at or near the entrance of the cemetery or administration building, and readily accessible to the public, a sign which shall contain the following information in the order and manner set forth below:

(a) "Perpetual Care Cemetery"—which shall appear in a minimum of forty-eight (48) point black type.

(b) Names of officers and directors of the cemetery and the name of the bank or trust company entrusted with care of perpetual care funds.

Each perpetual care cemetery shall include in each conveyance of the exclusive right of sepulture, certificate of ownership, or sales contract executed by it, the following statement: "This cemetery is operated as a perpetual care cemetery, which means that a perpetual care fund for its maintenance has been established in conformity with the laws of the State of Texas. Perpetual care means to keep the sod in repair and all places where interments have been made in order and to care for trees and shrubs planted by the cemetery."

Art. 912a-17. Investment of Perpetual Care Funds

Perpetual care funds shall not be used for any other purpose than to provide through the income only therefrom the perpetual care stipulated in the resolution, bylaw, or other action or instrument by which the fund was created or established, and it shall be the duty of the duly appointed trustee to invest, reinvest and keep such funds invested in such securities or assets as are or shall hereafter comply with the provisions of the Texas Trust Act¹ in so far as the same may govern the investment of trust funds by the trustees thereof. No such investment shall be made without the written approval of either an active officer of the cemetery association or of a majority of its directors, and no such investment shall be made except at the prevailing market value of the securities at the time of the acquisition thereof.

Art. 912a-18. Special Care

The trustee of any cemetery perpetual care fund may also take and hold any property bequeathed, granted, or given to it in trust to apply the principal, or proceeds, or income therefrom to either or all of the following purposes: To the improvement or embellishment of such cemetery, or any part thereof, or any lot therein, to the erection, renewal, repair or preservation of any monuments, fence, building or other structure in such cemetery; to the planting, cultivation of trees, shrubs, or plants in or around such cemetery, or any part thereof; for the special care or ornamenting of any burial plot, lot, section or building or any portion thereof in said cemetery or to any other purpose or use not inconsistent with the purpose for which such cemetery was established or is being maintained. Not exceeding seventy-five (75) per cent of the proceeds or income therefrom shall be devoted to keeping up and beautifying the private blocks, lots or structures for the upkeep of which the bequest, grant, or gift is made. At least twenty-five (25) per cent of such proceeds or income shall be devoted to the general upkeep and beautifying of the cemetery in which such lots, blocks, or structures are located.

Persons desiring to provide a fund for maintaining and keeping up and beautifying private blocks, lots, or structures in any nonperpetual care cemetery in this State, may do so by setting aside for such purposes a reasonable sum of money or property and by providing by written instrument which shall recite the terms of the trust for a trustee (which shall be a trust company or a bank with trust powers, operating within this State) to handle and invest said sum or property and spend the proceeds or income therefrom as follows: Not exceeding seventy-five (75) per cent of the net income or proceeds therefrom shall be devoted to keeping up and beautifying the private blocks, lots, or structures, designated in the instrument, the portion of such income or proceeds not expended annually as set out above, the amount to be not less than twenty-five (25) per cent of such income or proceeds as are spent annually, shall be devoted to the general upkeep and beautification of the cemetery in which blocks, lots, or structures are located. Such trust and the administration thereof shall not be regarded and held to be a perpetuity, but as a provision for the discharge of a duty due from the person founding such trust to the persons interred upon such blocks or lots and to the public.

Art. 912a-19. Cemeteries Placed in Receivership

Whenever any perpetual care cemetery within this State shall be placed in receivership the receiver shall, from and out of the proceeds of the liquidation thereof, make such deposits in the perpetual care fund established for said cemetery as shall be necessary to meet the minimum requirements for perpetual care funds provided by law, and any deficit in said perpetual care fund below said minimum requirements shall be a preferred claim against any assets in the possession of the receiver, and shall take precedence over all claims other than vendor's liens on the cemetery property.

Art. 912a-20. Duty of Interring and Right to Control Disposition of Remains

The right to control the disposition of the body of a deceased person, unless other directions shall have been made therefor by the deceased, shall be vested in, and the duty of interment (and the liability for the reasonable cost of the interment) of such deceased person shall devolve upon, his or her surviving wife or husband, or if there be no surviving wife or husband they shall vest in and devolve upon the surviving child or children of deceased, or if there be no surviving husband or wife or child of deceased, they shall vest in and devolve upon the surviving parent or parents of such deceased, or if there be no surviving husband, or wife or child or parent of such deceased, they shall vest in and devolve upon the person or persons respectively in the next degrees of kindred in the order named by the laws of Texas as entitled to succeed to the estate of said deceased.

In all other cases, the disposition of the body and the duty of interment shall devolve upon the coroner conducting the inquest upon the body of the deceased, if any such inquest is held, and if there be no inquest they shall devolve upon the county in which the death occurs; provided, further, that any person representing himself as knowing the facts who shall sign any order or statement, other than a death certificate, for the purpose of procuring the interment of any remains shall be deemed to warrant the identity of the person whose remains are sought to be interred or cremated, and shall be personally and individually liable for all damage occasioned thereby or resulting directly or indirectly therefrom.

Art. 912a-21. Records of Interments

A record shall be kept of every interment in a cemetery showing the date the body was received, the date of interment, the name and age of the person interred, when these particulars can be conveniently obtained, and the plot and the grave, the niche, crypt, or vault therein, in which such interment was made. No remains, either cremated or uncremated, of any deceased person shall be removed from any cemetery, except upon written order of the health department having jurisdiction, or of the county court of any county in which such cemetery is situated. A duplicate copy of which order shall be maintained as a part of the records of such cemetery. It shall be the duty of any person and/or persons, removing any remains from any cemetery, to keep and maintain a true and correct record showing the date such remains were removed, the name and age of the person removed, when these particulars can be conveniently obtained, and the place to which the same were removed, and the cemetery and the plot therein in which such remains were buried; if there be disposition of such remains other than interment, a record shall be made and kept of such disposition. Such person or persons shall deliver to the cemetery association operating the cemetery from which such remains were removed, a true, full, and complete copy of such record.

Art. 912a-22. Removals

The remains of a deceased person interred in a plot in a cemetery may be removed therefrom with the consent of the cemetery association and the written consent of the surviving wife or husband, or if there is no surviving husband or wife, then of the children; or if there is no surviving husband or wife nor children, then of the parents of the deceased, or should there be no surviving husband or wife nor children nor parent, then of the brothers and/or sisters of the deceased. If the consent of any such person or of the association cannot be obtained, permission by the county court of the county where the cemetery is situated shall be sufficient. Notice of application to the Court for such permission must be given, at least ten (10) days prior thereto, personally, or at least fifteen (15) days prior thereto if by mail, to the cemetery association, and to the persons not consenting and to every other person or association on whom service of notice may be required by the Court. This provision shall not apply to or prohibit the removal of any remains from one plot to another in the same cemetery or the removal of remains by the cemetery association from a plot for which the purchase price is past due and unpaid, to some other suitable place. Neither shall this provision apply to the disinterment of remains upon order of Court or coroner.

Art. 912a-23. May Contract Pecuniary Indebtedness but All Liens Subordinate to Dedication

Cemetery associations shall in the conduct of their business have the right to contract such pecuniary obligations as may be required, and may secure the same by mortgage, deed of trust or otherwise upon their property. Provided, that all mortgages, deeds of trust and other liens of whatsoever nature, hereafter contracted, placed or incurred upon property which has been and was at the time of the creation or placing of such lien, dedicated as a cemetery as in this Act authorized and provided, or upon property which shall afterwards, with the consent of the owner of any such mortgage, trust deed or lien, be dedicated to cemetery purposes as authorized by this title, shall in nowise or at all affect or defeat the dedication thereof, but such mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien shall be subject and subordinate to such dedication and any and all sales made upon foreclosure thereof shall be subject and subordinate to the dedication of such property to cemetery purposes.

Art. 912a-24. Location of Cemetery

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, company, corporation, or association to establish or use for burial purposes any graveyard or cemetery, or any mausoleum and/or cemetery except in a cemetery heretofore established and operating, located within, or within less than one (1) mile from, the incorporated line of any city of not less than five thousand (5,000) nor more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, or within, or within less than two (2) miles from, the incorporated line of any city of not less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) nor more than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, or within, or within less than three (3) miles from, the incorporated line of any city of not less than fifty thousand (50,000) nor more than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, or within, or within less than four (4) miles from, the incorporated line of any city of not less than one hundred thousand (100,000) nor more than two hundred thousand (200,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, or within, or within less than five (5) miles from, the incorporated line of any city of not less than two hundred thousand (200,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census; provided that where cemeteries have heretofore been used and maintained within the limits hereinabove set forth, and additional lands are required for cemetery purposes, land adjacent to said cemetery may be acquired by the cemetery association operating such cemetery, to be used as an addition to such cemetery, and the use of said additional land for such purposes shall be exempt from the provisions of this Section; and further provided that the establishment or use of a columbarium by any organized religious society or sect as a part of or attached to the principal church building owned by such religious society or sect, and within the limits hereinabove set forth, shall not be unlawful, and shall be exempt from the provisions of this Section.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this Section, it shall be lawful for any person, company, corporation or association to establish or use for burial purposes any graveyard or cemetery, or any mausoleum within one (1) mile of the incorporated line of any city located in any county having a population of not less than 16,790 nor more than 16,850 inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census; provided that such graveyard, cemetery or mausoleum is established within two years from the effective date of this Act.

Art. 912a-25. Abatement of Nuisances

The maintenance or location and use of any graveyard or cemetery in violation of the provisions of this title are declared to be a nuisance, and the governing body of the city, if said cemetery is within, or within less than five (5) miles from, a city of more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, or the district attorney, if said cemetery is not within, or within five (5) miles of, a city of more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census; or any person owning a residence in or near the town or city in which, or in such proximity as specified in Section 24¹ hereof to which, such graveyard or cemetery is located, may maintain an action in the Courts to abate such nuisance and to enjoin its continuance, and if it appears that said nuisance exists or is threatened in violation of this Act, a perpetual injunction shall be granted against parties guilty of such nuisance. Whenever any old cemetery for which a perpetual care and endowment fund has not been regularly and legally established, is so neglected as to be offensive to the inhabitants of the section surrounding same, it may likewise be abated and its continuance enjoined. If such cemetery be located within the city limits of an incorporated city or town, the governing body thereof may authorize the removal of all bodies, monuments, tombs, etc., therein to a perpetual care cemetery as defined in this Act.

Art. 912a-26. Police Power to Sexton

The sexton, superintendent or other person in charge of a cemetery shall have, and is hereby granted, all and equal powers, functions, duties and authority granted by law to a police officer within the city in which such cemetery is located, or if such cemetery be located outside of a city, to a constable and/or sheriff of the county or counties wherein the same is situated, for the purpose of maintaining order, enforcing the rules and regulations of the cemetery association, the laws of the State and the ordinances of such city, and he shall be charged with the enforcement thereof within the cemetery over which he has charge, and within such radius of the same as shall be necessary to protect the cemetery property.

Art. 912a-26a. Perpetual Care

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, corporation, or municipality, or any officer, agent, or employee thereof, to sell, offer for sale, or advertise any cemetery plot or the exclusive right of sepulture therein under the representation that such plot is under perpetual care, before a perpetual care fund as provided for by law has been established for the cemetery in which such property so sold, offered for sale, or advertised is situated; or to engage in or transact any of the businesses of a cemetery within this State other than by means of a corporation organized for such purpose, except as otherwise provided by law; or to fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of the law as to the filing of a statement concerning the perpetual care fund with the Banking Commissioner of Texas or to fail or refuse to publish said statement as provided by law, or to fail or refuse to post the notice with reference to perpetual care required by law, or to invest perpetual care funds otherwise than as provided by law; or to fail or refuse to keep the records of interment required by law; or to sell or offer for sale or advertise for sale cemetery lots or the exclusive right of sepulture therein for purposes of speculation or investment; or to represent through advertising or printed matter that a retail department will later be established for the resale of cemetery lot purchasers that specific improvements will be made in the cemetery or that specific merchandise or service will be furnished the lot owner, unless adequate funds or reserves have been created by the operator of the cemetery for each such purpose; or for any officer, agent, or employee of any cemetery or cemetery association, to pay or offer to pay any commission, rebate, or gratuity to any funeral director or employee thereof, or for any cemetery association or any officer or employee thereof to offer a free lot or lots either in a drawing or lottery or in any other way except for actual immediate burial of indigent persons. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this Section shall be guilty of misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or, if a person, imprisoned not exceeding six (6) months in a county jail, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment. Any corporation organized for cemetery purposes which shall violate the provisions of this Act shall unless such violation is corrected within ninety (90) days after notice of such violation served upon it by the Attorney General of this State, thereby forfeit its charter and right to do business in this State; and when such violation shall be brought to the attention of the Attorney General of this State it shall be his duty to serve such notice, and, after the expiration of ninety (90) days without correction of such violation, to institute suit or quo warranto proceedings in any county in this State where such violation might occur, in the District Court of such county, for the forfeiture of the charter of such offending corporation and the dissolution of its corporate existence; and for such purposes venue is hereby conferred upon the District Courts in this State.

Art. 912a-27. Constitutionality

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, word or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, which are hereby declared distinct and severable. The Legislature hereby expressly declares that it would have passed this Act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, word and phrase irrespective of the fact that any one or more section, subsection, sentence, word, or phrase be declared unconstitutional.

Art. 912a-28. Articles of Incorporation; Requirements and Contents

No perpetual care cemetery shall ever be organized without its Articles of Incorporation filed with the Secretary of State showing the subscriptions and payment in cash of its full Capital Stock, the designation of the location of its cemetery property, and a certificate showing the deposit of its Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund as provided in Section 29 of this Act.¹ The minimum amount of such Capital shall be in accordance with the following schedule: Those serving a town or city having a population of less than fifteen thousand (15,000), Seven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500); those serving a city having a population of fifteen thousand (15,000) but not more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants, Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000); those serving a city of twenty-five thousand (25,000) or more inhabitants, Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000).

Nothing contained in this Section 28 shall apply to cemetery corporations chartered prior to the effective date of this Act, provided, however, that any corporation which amends its charter shall be required to comply with the minimum requirements set forth in this Section 28.

Art. 912a-29. Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund; Minimum; Necessity and Requisites

Any Corporation chartered under this Act desiring to operate a Perpetual Care Cemetery, before being chartered must establish a minimum Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund, according to the following schedule:

Cemeteries with a Capital Stock of Seven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) must deposit with the trustee, as provided by law, a Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund of Seven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) in cash.

Those with a Capital Stock of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000), a Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) in cash; and,

Those with a Capital Stock of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), or more, a Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in cash.

The Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund shall be permanently set aside and deposited in trust with the Trustee, as is provided in Section 15 of the Perpetual Care Cemetery Code.¹ Upon all sales made of lots, spaces, crypts, mausoleum space and columbariums, the deposits as required by law, to be placed in trust for the Perpetual Care and Maintenance of the Cemetery, shall be allowed as a credit against the original Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund to the full amount of the original deposit. The Corporation thereafter shall continue to deposit in the Perpetual Care Fund, the minimum amount required by law, and such additional amount as may be required by the Rules and Regulations and/or the Trust Agreement or contract of said Cemetery Corporation or Association, for the Perpetual Care and Maintenance of the Cemetery.

Nothing contained in this Section 29 shall apply to cemetery corporations chartered prior to the effective date of this Act, provided, however, that any corporation which amends its charter shall be required to comply with the minimum requirements set forth in this Section 29.

Art. 912a-30. Cancellation of Charter for Failure to Operate Thereunder; Recision of Cancellation

If any such incorporated association shall fail to begin actual operations thereunder after the granting and delivery of its charter for six (6) months, the Banking Commissioner shall thereupon cancel such charter and serve notice upon the association by registered letter duly addressed to the association's address. The Banking Commissioner may at his discretion rescind such order of cancellation upon the application of the Board of Directors upon the payment to him of a penalty or fee to be fixed by the Commissioner not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and the execution of and delivery to him of an agreement to begin actual operations within one (1) month, and a proper showing by the Trustee of the Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund that it is on deposit.

If such association should fail to begin such active operations within such latter period, the Commissioner shall make an order setting aside his order of recision of the cancellation of such charter, and such cancellation shall thereupon be final, and the Commissioner shall make full relation of such matters to the Attorney General of the State for liquidation, if necessary. A certified copy of such cancellation shall be sufficient to authorize the Trustee of the Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund to refund the same to the incorporators signing the Articles of Incorporation, if no sales have been made of the dedicated property.

Art. 912a-31. Examinations of Cemetery Associations' Perpetual Care Trust Funds and Records; Fees and Expenses

It shall be the duty of the Banking Commissioner to examine, or cause to be examined, each of such perpetual care cemetery associations annually or as often as necessary, for which the examined association shall pay to the Commissioner a fee not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per day or fraction thereof, for each examiner, the total fee not to exceed One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) for any one regular examination.

If in any case the conditions existing in any such association are found to be such as to necessitate an additional examination or a prolonged audit to ascertain the true status of its affairs, the whole expense of such additional examination or such prolonged audit shall be defrayed by such association.

Art. 912a-32. Compliance Required; Books, Records, and Funds to Be Maintained Within State; Examination

Any Perpetual Care Cemetery doing business in Texas shall comply with all of the provisions of this Act and shall maintain all books, accounting records, and funds within the State of Texas. Such funds and records must be available at all times to the Banking Department for examination.

Art. 912a-33. Annual Report; Liability for Failure to Make

If an Association embraced within this Act shall fail to make its annual report and file the publication with the Banking Commissioner, as provided in Section 2¹ hereof, it shall be liable for and the Banking Commissioner shall collect as a fee or penalty the sum of Five Dollars ($5) per day for the period of such failure, and upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner of such default in payment, the Attorney General shall institute a suit to recover said fees or penalties and for such other relief by the State as in the judgment of the Attorney General is proper and necessary.

Art. 912a-34. Interment; Discrimination

Cemetery associations shall not make, adopt, or enforce any rule or regulation which prohibits the interment of the remains of any deceased person in a cemetery because of the race, color, or national origin of such deceased person. Provisions in any contract entered into by a cemetery association; or in any deed or certificate of ownership granted or issued by a cemetery association with respect to the interment of the remains of deceased persons, which prohibit the interment of the remains of deceased persons in a cemetery because of race, color or national origin, are hereby declared to be against public policy, void, and unenforceable.

Arts. 913 to 930a. Repealed by Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 559, ch. 340, § 29

Art. 930a-1. Feed Pens or Slaughter Pens Near Cemetery in Certain Counties a Nuisance; Injunction; Old Abandoned or Neglected Cemeteries; Abatement of Nuisances

Sec. 1. In all counties in this State with a population of five hundred and twenty-five thousand (525,000) or more, the maintenance or location of feed pens for hogs, cattle, and horses, or slaughter pens, or of slaughter houses within five hundred (500) feet of any established cemetery is declared to be a nuisance, and the owner of said cemetery, or any of the lot owners therein, may maintain an action in the Courts to abate such nuisance and to enjoin its continuance, and if it appears that such nuisance exists or is threatened in violation of this Act, a perpetual injunction shall be granted against the parties guilty of such nuisance.

Sec. 2. In all counties in this State with a population of five hundred and twenty-five thousand (525,000) or more, when an old, abandoned and neglected cemetery for which no perpetual care and endowment fund has been regularly and legally established, is abated as a nuisance, either the Court abating same and enjoining its continuance or the city council of the city in which said cemetery is located, may authorize the removal of all bodies, monuments, tombs, etc., therein to a perpetually endowed cemetery as defined under the laws of the State of Texas; provided however, that if there exists within said county no perpetual care cemetery which under its rules and regulations will permit the interment of the bodies of the persons which are to be removed, the said bodies, monuments, tombs, etc., may be removed to a nonperpetual care cemetery which has provided for assessments for the future care of said cemetery.

Arts. 930b to 931b. Repealed by Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 559, ch. 340, § 29

Art. 931b-1. Depth of Burial Graves; Exceptions; Penalty

Sec. 1. No dead human body shall be buried in such manner that the top of the outside container within which such dead human body is placed is less than two feet below the surface of the ground, except that, if such container is made of steel, bronze, concrete or other impermeable material, the top of such container shall be not less than one and one-half feet below the surface.

The above depths shall be considered maximum limits required for such burials in this state, and if any duly constituted governing body of a political subdivision of this state declares by ordinance, rule or regulation that lesser limits are required because of sub-surface soil conditions or other relevant considerations, then such burials within that political subdivision can be at the lesser limits prescribed by such ordinance, rule or regulation.

Any person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $200. The violation of the provisions in any ordinance, rule or regulation which establishes lesser limits than herein provided shall constitute a violation of this Act and is punishable under this Act.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act do not apply to burials in sealed surface reinforced concrete burial vaults.

Art. 961. May Adopt This Title

Any incorporated city, town or village in this State containing six hundred inhabitants or over, however legally incorporated, and any incorporated city, town or village of whatever population containing one or more manufacturing establishments within the corporate limits, may accept the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, in lieu of any existing charter, by a two-thirds vote of the council of such city, town or village, had at a regular meeting thereof, and entered upon the journal of their proceedings, and a copy of the same signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or secretary under the corporate seal, filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk in which such city, town or village is situated, and the provisions of this title shall be in force, and all acts theretofore passed incorporating said city, town or village which may be in force by virtue of any existing charter, shall be repealed from and after the filing of said copy of their proceedings, as aforesaid. When such city, town or village is so incorporated as herein provided, the same shall be known as a city or town, subject to the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, and vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities and franchises therein conferred. The provisions of this title shall not apply to any city, town or village until such provisions have been accepted by the council in accordance with this article.

Art. 961a. Validation of Adoption of Provisions of Title

In every instance wherein an incorporated city, town, or village has attempted to accept the provisions of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as provided in Article 961 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and has included in the ordinance or resolution accepting the benefits of said Title, a declaration or finding to the effect that such city, town, or village contains one or more manufacturing establishments within its corporate limits, and has filed a copy of such resolution or ordinance for record in the office of the County Clerk of the county within which such city, town, or village is situated, the action of such city, town, or village is hereby authorized, ratified, confirmed, and validated, and each such city, town, or village is declared to have all of the powers of cities and towns, as provided in said Title, and all corporate actions taken by such cities, towns, and villages after such attempted compliance with said Article, and which could have been lawfully performed by a city or town having the powers under said Title, are hereby authorized, ratified, and confirmed; provided however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as applicable to cities, towns, or villages, wherein any such attempted adoption of such powers is in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 961b. Validation of Adoption of Provisions of Title

In every instance wherein an incorporated city, town, or village in all counties having a population of more than forty-six thousand, one hundred (46,100) and less than forty-six thousand, two hundred (46,200), according to the last preceding Federal Census, has attempted to accept the provisions and benefits of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and has filed a copy of the resolution or ordinance accepting such Title for record in the office of the County Clerk of the county within which such city, town, or village is situated, the action of such city, town, or village is hereby authorized, ratified, confirmed, and validated; and each such city, town, or village is declared to have all the powers of cities and towns as provided in said Title; and all corporate actions taken by such cities, towns, and villages after the passage of such ordinances or resolution accepting the benefits of said Title, and which could have been lawfully performed by a city or town having the powers under said Title, are hereby authorized, ratified, confirmed, and validated; and all proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all such cities, towns, and villages in the issuance and sale of bonds, to aid in financing any project and/or projects for which a loan or grant has been made or applied for to the United States through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or any agency, department, or division of the Government of the United States of America, are herein in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved, and legalized; and all such bonds issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of such cities and towns; and all such bonds which have been heretofore authorized but not yet issued or sold shall, when delivered and paid for, constitute valid and binding obligations of such cities and towns. All tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and legalized.

Art. 961b-1. Town or Village Under Commission Form of Government Having $500,000 Taxable Property May Adopt This Title

Sec. 1. Any town or village heretofore incorporated under the provisions of Chapter 12 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and amendments thereto, and having an assessed valuation for taxable purposes of Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars or more, according to its latest approved tax rolls, notwithstanding any limitation contained in Article 1163 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and amendments thereto, is hereby authorized to adopt the powers of cities and towns in the manner specified in Article 961 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and amendments thereto, notwithstanding any limitation contained in said Article as to minimum population or as to the inclusion of manufacturing establishments; and, after having adopted such powers, any such municipality shall be known as a city or town, and shall be vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges, immunities and franchises conferred or imposed on cities or towns by the laws contained in Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 2. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws, but, in the event any of its provisions shall conflict with the provisions of any other law, the provisions hereof shall prevail to the extent of such conflict.

Art. 962. General Powers

All the inhabitants of each city, town or village so accepting the provisions of this title shall continue to be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name and style by which such city, town or village was known before such acceptance, and as such they and their successors by that name shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers, privileges and franchises possessed and enjoyed by the same at the time of said acceptance, and those hereinafter granted and conferred, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations pertaining to or incumbent on the same as a corporation at the time of said acceptance, and may ordain and establish such acts, laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, as shall be needful for the government, interest, welfare and good order of said body politic and under the same name shall be known in law, and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, in all courts and places, and in all matters whatever, may take, hold and purchase, lease, grant and convey such real and personal or mixed property or estate as the purposes of the corporation may require, within or without the limits thereof; and may make, have and use a corporate seal and change and renew the same at pleasure.

Art. 963. Not Affected by This Title

All property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to any city accepting the provisions of this title, is hereby vested in the corporation created by this title, and the officers of said corporation, in office at the date of its acceptance, shall continue in the same, until superseded in conformity with the provisions of this title. All rights, actions, fines, penalties and forfeitures in suits or otherwise, which have accrued under the laws heretofore in force, shall be vested in and prosecuted by the corporation hereby created. No suit pending shall be affected by the passage and acceptance of this title, but the same shall be prosecuted or defended as the case may be, by the corporation hereby created.

Art. 964. Cemetery Lots Exempt

The cemetery lots which have, and may hereafter be laid out and sold for said city for private places of burial shall, with their appurtenances, be forever exempt from taxes, executions, attachments or forced sales.

Art. 965. City Limits

The bounds and limits of said municipality shall be and remain the same as fixed and defined by the provisions of the act of incorporation, substituted by the provisions of this Title; provided, that said limits of said corporation may be hereafter extended by adding additional territory to the same, whenever the majority of the qualified electors of said territory shall indicate a desire to be included within the limits of said corporation in the manner provided in Article 974 of this Title; or by ordinance of the governing body of said municipality, duly passed and spread upon the minutes thereof, describing by metes and bounds such additional territory added thereto, provided that this provision shall apply only to those cities where the additional territory so added is owned by such municipalities.

Art. 966. May Incorporate

Any city or town containing six hundred inhabitants or over may be incorporated as such, with all the powers, rights, immunities and privileges mentioned and described in the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, in the manner described in Chapter 11 of this title¹ for incorporating towns and villages, except that the application to become incorporated shall be signed by at least fifty electors, residents of such city or town, and except that when an election is held according to the provisions of such chapter the words "towns and villages" shall be construed to mean "cities and towns." When the entry by the county judge, provided in article 1139 is made with reference to a city or town of six hundred inhabitants and over, such city or town shall be vested with all the rights and privileges of such cities conferred by this title.

Art. 966a. Validation of Incorporation of Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less heretofore incorporated and/or attempted in good faith to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or under the commission form of government, and which have in good faith functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated, as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid on account of irregularities in the petition for election, order for election, notice of election, returns of election, order declaring result of election, or on account of the incorporation election having been ordered and/or the returns thereof canvassed and result declared by a person exercising the functions and/or performing the duties of County Judge without lawful authority so to do, or on account of other irregularities in the incorporation proceedings.

Sec. 1-a. Provided however, that this Act shall have no effect upon any suit or suits pending at this time in the Courts of this State which involve such cities and towns, nor upon any suit involving such cities and towns which may be filed within ninety (90) days from the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed in good faith by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, respectively, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective dates of such proceedings, and such governmental proceedings shall be effective the same as if such cities and towns had been regularly incorporated in the first instance.

Art. 966b. Validation of Incorporation; Incorrect Description; Excessive Area

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings or the order of the county judge declaring such territory to be incorporated, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the county judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village, incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof and finding and declaring the names of the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of any such city, such order by the county judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 2. Any City, town or village declared to be incorporated by an order as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act is hereby validated and declared to be a duly incorporated city with the boundaries as defined in such order, and the mayor, aldermen and city secretary named in such order shall constitute the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of such city until their successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified.

Art. 966c. Validation of Incorporation, Proceedings and Acts; Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less; Limits of Territory

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities and towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of said city or town, or because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, prior to the effective date of this Act, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings and acts.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town involved in litigation at the time of the effective date of this Act (Chapter 177, Regular Session, Acts of the 53rd Legislature) questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries.

Sec. 5. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or provision of this Act is declared unconstitutional, it is the intention of the Legislature that the remaining provisions thereof shall be effective, and that such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.

Art. 966d. Validation of Incorporation; Incorrect Description; Excessive Area; Elections

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings or the order of the county judge declaring such territory to be incorporated, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the county judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village, incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof and finding and declaring the names of the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of any such city, such order by the county judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 2. Any city, town or village declared to be incorporated by an order as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act is hereby validated and declared to be a duly incorporated city with the boundaries as defined in such order, and the mayor, aldermen and city secretary named in such order are hereby declared to have been the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of such city at the time of the entry of said order, and all elections held for the election of city officials are hereby validated and ratified.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to any municipality which is now involved, or which within sixty (60) days from the effective date of this Act becomes involved, in litigation in any district court of this State, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization, incorporation or creation of such municipality is attacked; and this Act shall not apply to any municipality involved in formal proceedings now pending before such municipality's commission or council in which proceedings the organization or creation of such municipality is attacked. Provided, further, that this Act shall not apply to any municipality which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this State or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status.

Art. 966d-1. Validation of Incorporation; Incorrect Description; Excessive Area; Elections

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the county judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village, incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof, as he finds such boundaries to exist at the time of entering such order, and finding and declaring the names of the officials of any such city, such order by the county judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 2.. Any city, town or village declared to be incorporated by an order as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act is hereby validated and declared to be a duly incorporated city with the boundaries as defined in such order, and the act of the governing body thereof in accepting the provisions of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, relating to cities and towns is hereby validated and the officials named in such order are hereby declared to have been the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of such city at the time of the entry of said order, and all elections held for the election of city officials are hereby validated and ratified.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to any municipality which is now involved in litigation in any district court of this state, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization, incorporation or creation of such municipality is attacked. Provided further, that this Act shall not apply to any municipality which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status.

Art. 966e. Validation of Incorporation, Area and Boundaries; Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities and towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation, or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of said city or town.

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns affected by this Act are in all things validated and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes, or by reason of the shape, form or outline of the area or territory included within the boundaries of such city or town.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Art. 966f. Validation of Incorporation of Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns, in this state, of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town in a county having a population of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census which city or town is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act as originally enacted or on the effective date of this Section as amended by Senate Bill No. 448, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, questioning the legality of the incorporation, annexations and/or extensions of boundaries by any such cities and towns.

Art. 966g. Validation of Incorporation; Areas and Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings and Acts; Cities of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities or towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation, or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of said city or town.

Sec. 2. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, which have attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town, and have passed an ordinance describing the territory annexed and have caused a certified copy of such ordinance to be recorded in the Deed Records of the County in which such city or town is situated, all actions, elections and proceedings had or passed in reference thereto or in connection therewith, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such attempted annexation, and such extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 3. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof are in all things validated and the incorporation of such cities and towns or any subsequent extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes.

Sec. 4. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings and acts.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 430, ch. 19.]

Art. 966h. Validation of Incorporation; Areas and Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings and Acts; Cities and Towns of 4,500 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of four thousand, five hundred (4,500) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities or towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation, or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of such city or town.

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof are in all things validated and the incorporation of such cities and towns or any subsequent extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings and acts.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Art. 967. Cities of the Republic

Any city, town or village, within this State, incorporated under any law, general or special, of the Republic of Texas, regardless of the extent of the boundaries thereof, or the number of its population, may accept the provisions of

Chapters 1 to 10, both inclusive, of this title, in lieu of any existing charter created by any such law of the Republic of Texas, by a two-thirds vote of the council of such city, town or village; which action by the council shall be held at a regular meeting thereof and entered upon the journal of their proceedings, and a copy of the same signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or secretary under the corporate seal, filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such city, town or village is situated, and the provisions of said Chapters 1 to 10, both inclusive, of this title shall be in force, and all acts theretofore passed incorporating said city, town or village, which may be in force by virtue of any existing charter shall be repealed from and after the filing of said copy of their proceedings as aforesaid, when such city, town or village is so incorporated as herein provided, the same shall be known as a city or town, subject to the provisions of this title, vested with all the rights, powers, privileges, immunities and franchises therein conferred.

Art. 968. Effect of Acceptance

All the inhabitants of each city, town or village so accepting the provisions of chapters 1 to 10 of this title, shall continue to be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name and style by which such city, town or village was known before the acceptance of the provisions of such law, and as such they and their successors by that name shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers, privileges and franchises possessed and enjoyed by the same at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of such title and those herein granted and conferred, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations pertaining to or incumbent on the same as a corporation at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of such title, and may ordain and establish such acts, laws, regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, as shall be needful for the government, interest, welfare and good order of said body politic, and, under the same name, shall be known in law, and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, in all courts and places, and in all matters whatever, may take, hold and purchase, lease, grant and convey such real and personal or mixed property or estate as the purposes of the corporation may require, within or without the limits thereof; and may make, have and use a corporate seal and change and renew the same at pleasure.

Art. 969. Property Rights

All property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to any such city, town, or village so incorporated under and by virtue of any law of the Republic of Texas, general or special, accepting said title, is hereby vested in the corporation thus created, and the council of such city, town or village is hereby authorized and empowered to sell and alienate such property and to appropriate the proceeds of such sale to the acquisition or construction, maintenance or operation of a water, sewer, gas and electric light and power system, or any one or more of such systems, within or without the limits of such city or town, or for any other public improvement within said city or town, as the council thereof may determine.

Art. 969a. Lease of Islands or Submerged Lands by Certain Cities

Sec. 1. Any city of more than forty-three thousand (43,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding United States Census located in a county in this State of less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to such Census to which city the Republic of Texas, or the State of Texas has heretofore granted any island, flats or other submerged lands be, and is hereby granted power and authority to execute leases for periods of time not to exceed ninety-nine (99) years for portions of such island, flats or other submerged lands as may from time to time be determined by the governing body of such city.

Sec. 2. Every such lease shall specify the purposes for which the same is made and provide a maximum period of five (5) years within which the lessee shall exercise the rights and privileges granted.

Art. 969a-1. Lease, Sale, Option or Conveyance of Islands, Flats or Other Submerged Lands

Sec. 1. Any city to which the State of Texas or the Republic of Texas has heretofore relinquished its right, title and interest in or to any island, flats or other submerged lands be, and is hereby granted power and authority to lease, sell, option and convey all or any portion of such island, flats or other submerged lands, and to enter upon development plans and contracts for any or all of these purposes with any person, firm or corporation, public or private. The foregoing powers may be exercised at such time and upon such considerations and terms and for such periods of years as the governing body of such city shall determine to be proper and in the public interest. In any city which has by charter provision for a referendum, a contract for the development of such island, flats and other submerged land and for the lease, sale or option of all or any part thereof, as authorized in this Act, may be entered upon by the governing board of the city without advertisement or receiving bids thereon, but shall be subject to the provisions for referendum and such contract shall not become finally effective until the period within which the petition for referendum must be presented has expired or, if a proper petition for referendum is presented, until the contract has been approved at an election ordered for that purpose.

Sec. 2. All laws or parts of laws and provisions of the charter of any city which may be in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby amended or repealed to the extent of such conflict. As to the content of all other laws or parts of laws this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not be construed to grant or convey to any city the title to any oil, gas or other minerals which was not already owned by such city at the enactment hereof.

Sec. 4. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word contained in this Act shall be held unconstitutional by any court of this State, the invalidity of such portion of the Act shall not be construed to affect any other part of this Act.

Art. 969b. Acquisition of Property for Certain Purposes; Exercise of Eminent Domain or Police Powers, etc.; Procedure; Relocation Expenses

Authorization; Modes and Purposes of Acquisition; Procedure; Relocation Expenses

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city or town in this State incorporated under general or special law or authorized to have or having a Charter under the provisions of the Constitution of Texas or the Statutes shall have and is hereby granted the power separately or jointly with any other city, town, cities or towns, or jointly with any other city, town, cities or towns and other governmental entity, to receive and acquire through gift or dedication and to acquire by purchase without condemnation or by condemnation, if within the county where said governmental entity, city, town, cities or towns are located, any property in this State located inside or outside of the corporate limits of such city or town, for the following purposes, which are declared to be public purposes: parks, hospitals, the extension, improvement and enlargement of its water system, including riparian rights, water supply reservoirs, standpipes, watersheds, dams, the laying, building, maintenance and construction of water mains and the laying, erection, establishment or maintenance of any necessary appurtenances or facilities which will furnish to the inhabitants of the city an abundant supply of wholesome water; for sewage plants and systems; rights of way for water and sewer lines; play grounds, airports, and landing fields, incinerators, garbage disposal plants, streets, boulevards and alleys or other public ways, and any right of way needed in connection with any property used for any purpose hereinabove named, and to exercise Police Power within the territory so acquired.

The procedure to be followed in condemnation proceeding hereunder and authorized herein shall be in accordance with the provisions of the State law with reference to eminent domain. The provisions of Title 52 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925,¹ shall apply to such proceedings, or such proceedings may be under any other State law now in existence or that hereafter may be passed governing and relating to the condemnation of land for public purposes by a city.

In the exercise of any authority granted by this Act to cities, towns and other governmental entities, in the event it becomes necessary in the exercise of the powers of eminent domain or Police Power, or any other power to relocate, raise, lower, reroute or change the grade or alter the construction of any railroad, electric transmission, telegraph or telephone line, conduit, pole, property or facility, or pipeline, outside of the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, all such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the city, town, cities, or towns, or other governmental entity; provided, that nothing contained herein shall affect the existing lawful rights of any city or town to control the streets, alleys, public ways and other public grounds within its corporate limits. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade or alteration of construction, in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Maintenance, Improvement and Operation of Property

Such city or town and such city, town, cities, towns and counties are hereby empowered to maintain, improve and operate the property so acquired and all improvements thereon and to sell or lease all or any part of the property and improvements so acquired and shall have full and ample power to jointly manage, control and operate such property so owned by two or more such political subdivisions, by entering into any contracts with each other on terms mutually agreeable.

Negotiable Warrants and Bonds of City or County; Taxes

Sec. 3. For the purpose of condemning or purchasing, either or both, lands to be used and maintained as provided in Section 1 hereof, and improving and equipping the same for such use, the governing body of any city or the Commissioners Court of any county, falling within the terms of such Section, may issue negotiable warrants and bonds of the city or of the county, as the case may be, and levy taxes to provide for the interest and sinking funds of any such warrants and bonds so issued, the authority hereby given for the issuance of such warrants and bonds and levy and collection of such taxes to be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925 with the amendments thereto.

Improvement and Maintenance

Sec. 4. The political subdivision or subdivisions acquiring property under this Act is and are hereby expressly authorized and empowered to improve, maintain and conduct the same for the purposes hereby authorized and to make and provide thereon all necessary or fit improvements and facilities and to fix such reasonable charges for the use thereof as the governing body or bodies or governing bodies of the city, town, cities or towns acquiring property or making improvements under the provisions of this Act shall determine by mutual agreement and are granted ample Police Power to make and enforce rules and regulations governing the use thereof as the interested governing bodies shall determine by ordinance.

Special Tax

Sec. 5. In addition to and exclusive of any taxes which may be levied for the interest and sinking fund of any bonds issued under the authority of this Act, the governing body of any such city or town and the Commissioners Court of any county, falling within the terms hereof, may and is hereby empowered to levy and collect a special tax for the purpose of improving, operating, maintaining and conducting any property which such city or county may acquire under the provisions of this Act, and to provide all suitable structures, and facilities therein. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city or county to exceed the limits of indebtedness placed upon it under the Constitution.

Contracts; Expenditure of Public Funds

Sec. 6. Any city or town acquiring any property under the authority of the foregoing section shall also be authorized to make any contract and to expend its public funds in the joint or several operation and maintenance of any of the municipal functions authorized by this Act.

Act as Cumulative

Sec. 7. This Act shall be deemed to be cumulative of all other laws and Charter Provisions relating to the same subject.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 8. In case any section, clause, sentence, paragraph, provision or part of this Act shall for any reason be adjudged by any Court of competent or final jurisdiction to be invalid such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this Act but shall be confined in its operation to the section, clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

Art. 969c. CemeteriesCity or Town as Trustee

Sec. 1. Any incorporated or chartered city or town within the State of Texas, owning, operating, or having control of any cemetery or cemetery property, shall have the power and authority to act as a permanent trustee for the perpetual care and upkeep of the lots and graves in such burial grounds. Any city or town desiring to act as such trustee may do so by the passage of an ordinance or resolution, signifying its willingness and intention to act as such trustee, by the majority of its governing board, council, or aldermen; and upon the passage of said ordinance or resolution and the acceptance of such trust, as herein provided for, the same shall become perpetual.

Rules and Regulations; Deposit of Funds Required; Certificate

Sec. 2. Said cities and towns shall have the right, power, and authority to make reasonable rules and regulations as such trustee, to receive gifts, grants, and donations from any source, and to also fix the amounts necessary for the permanent care and upkeep of individual graves or family lots. Any person desiring to have a city or town, now acting or which may hereafter desire to act as such trustee for the permanent care and upkeep of such graves and burial lots, to act as trustee for him or those deceased persons in whom he has an interest or to whom he may feel attached, shall have the right to deposit such amount or funds as may be required by the said city or town for this purpose; and the acceptance by the said city or town of the funds required for such purpose shall constitute a permanent and perpetual trust fund for the burial lot or grave or graves so designated. Upon the acceptance by said city or town of such trust, its Secretary, Clerk or Mayor shall issue a certificate to the person or persons advancing such funds or money, which said certificate shall recite the purpose, the amount advanced and by whom, and the location, as nearly as possible, of the lot, grave or burial place, and such further information and designation as said city or town may deem proper.

Record Book

Sec. 3. Any city or town acting as such trustee shall keep a permanent and well-bound record book in which shall be kept in alphabetical order the names of all persons advancing funds, the amount advanced, the purpose for which such advancement was made, names and locations, in so far as possible, of lots and graves, the condition and status of the trust imposed, and such further information as said city or town may deem proper.

Investment of Funds

Sec. 4. Said cities and towns shall have the right, power, and authority to invest and reinvest all funds advanced to it for the purposes herein set forth in interest-bearing bonds or securities of a municipality, state, or the federal government. At all times the interest, revenue, or other accrual or increase of the funds advanced for specific lots, graves, or burial places, shall be first used for the maintenance, care, and upkeep, in a first class condition, of the particular lot, graves, or burial place for which the advancement and donation was originally made. However, in the event of the accrual of a reasonable excess of revenue from such specific fund and the accumulation of a greater amount than is necessary for the faithful accomplishment of the trust and purpose herein provided for, such excess may, in the discretion of such trustee, be used to beautify the whole cemetery or burial grounds generally; but at no time shall any part of the original or principal amount first advanced and donated for the care, upkeep, and maintenance of specific lots, graves, and burial places, ever be used by such trustee. This original amount or fund shall forever remain and be kept intact as a principal trust fund.

Certificates

Sec. 5. All certificates issued by such city or town shall be issued in the name of the said city or town to the trustee or person who makes the advancement of funds or money as herein provided for; and such certificate holder shall have the right, upon the payment of the proper cost or recording fee, to have such certificate recorded in the Deed Records of the county in which such cemetery is located; and it shall be the duty of all county clerks in the State of Texas to file, index, and record such certificates in the deed records of the county in which such cemetery is situated.

Care for Graves by Individuals

Sec. 6. None of the rights, powers, and duties herein provided for shall deprive any person having an interest in a grave or burial lot, or kinship within the third degree by affinity or consanguinity to those there interred, from beautifying or caring for the same individually or at his own expense, under such reasonable rules and regulations as said city or town may provide.

Successor on Failure of Trustee to Act

Sec. 7. In the event that any city or town should, after having engaged upon and accepted the trust herein provided for, renounce such trust, or fail to refuse to act further as such trustee, as herein provided for, then the district judge or highest trial judge of the county in which such cemetery is located shall appoint a suitable successor or trustees, whenever the occasion demands or a vacancy occurs, to act in lieu of said city or town and to carry out and faithfully execute the trust herein provided for.

Budget; Tax

Sec. 7a. Such city or town may include in its annual budget such sum as may be deemed necessary for maintenance and upkeep of such cemetery and shall have power or authority to assess and collect an ad valorem tax upon all the property within such city or town not to exceed Five (5) Cents on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all the property so assessed for maintenance and upkeep of such cemetery, regardless whether such cemetery is located within or without the boundary of corporate limits of such city or town.

Act as Cumulative; Partial Invalidity

Sec. 8. This Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws; but its intention is that the trust herein provided for shall not fail for any reason and, if any section or part hereof is invalid, then the remainder shall not in any way be affected or held to be invalid.

Art. 969c-1. Termination of Perpetual Trust Funds for Cemeteries of Municipalities in Counties of 110,000 to 124,000

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all municipalities whether created by general law, special act, or under the home rule charter, in counties having a population of not less than 110,000 and not more than 124,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. The governing body of said municipalities may abolish and terminate perpetual trust funds for their cemeteries and to use all moneys therein, both principal and interest, on permanent improvements for their cemeteries.

Art. 969d. Cities With Less Than 10,000 Population; Purchase of Real Estate from United States Government

Sec. 1. The governing bodies of cities, towns and villages, including Home Rule Cities, with a population of less than ten thousand (10,000), are hereby authorized to purchase real property and improvements thereon for municipal purposes from the Federal Government when offered for sale to such cities, towns and villages.

Sec. 2. All actions and negotiations of governing bodies of cities, towns and villages prior to the effective date of this Act relating to the purchase or acquisition of real property for municipal purposes from the Federal Government are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. Governing bodies of cities, towns and villages are hereby authorized to sell and convey any such property so acquired for the highest price obtainable when the same is no longer needed for the purpose or purposes for which acquired or when the purpose or purposes for which acquired no longer exist.

Sec. 4. If any portion of this Act is held unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction the remaining portions shall nevertheless be valid the same as if the invalid portion had not been a part hereof.

Art. 969e. State-line Border Cities; Joint Governmental Facilities and Services; Agreements

Sec. 1. It is the purpose of this Act to permit any city in this state which borders on the state line and which is separated from a city in the adjoining state only by the state line, to cooperate with such adjoining city in another state in furnishing governmental services and facilities to the inhabitants of such adjoining cities to the end that such governmental services and facilities may be adequately provided in the most efficient manner.

Sec. 2. Any city in this state which borders on a state line and which is separated from a city in an adjoining state only by the state line may enter into an agreement or agreements with such adjoining city whereby either of such cities agrees to furnish certain services or facilities for the other or whereby such cities agree to jointly or cooperatively furnish any governmental service or facility or to exercise or enjoy any power or authority which the Texas city involved may furnish, exercise, or enjoy under the laws of this state, to the extent that the laws of the state in which the adjoining city is located permits such joint or cooperative activity.

Sec. 3. Every agreement or contract entered into by a city of this state as authorized in Section 2 of this Act shall specify:

- (1) its duration;
- (2) the precise organization, composition, and nature of any separate legal or administrative entity created thereby, together with the powers delegated thereto, provided such entity may be legally created;
- (3) its purpose or purposes;
- (4) the manner of financing the joint or cooperative undertaking and of establishing and maintaining a budget therefor, or in the case of an agreement whereby one city agrees to furnish specified services or facilities to the other city, the financial arrangement therefor;
- (5) the permissible method or methods to be employed in accomplishing the partial or complete termination of the agreement and for disposing of property upon such partial or complete termination; and
- (6) any other necessary and proper matters, including appropriate provisions for enforcement.

Sec. 4. If such agreement does not establish a separate legal entity to conduct the joint or cooperative undertaking, the agreement shall, in addition to the requirements of Section 3 of this Act, contain the following:

- (1) provision for an administrator or a joint board responsible for administering the joint or cooperative undertaking. In the case of a joint board, cities party to the agreement shall be represented.
- (2) the manner of acquiring, holding, and disposing of real and personal property used in the joint or cooperative undertaking.

Sec. 5. No agreement made pursuant to this Act shall relieve any public agency of any obligation or responsibility imposed upon it by law, except that to the extent of actual and timely performance thereof by an adjoining city pursuant to an agreement entered into hereunder or by a joint board or other legal or administrative entity created by an agreement made hereunder, said performance may be offered in satisfaction of the obligation or responsibility.

Sec. 6. No agreement entered into pursuant to this Act shall be effective until a copy thereof has been filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the affected Texas city is located.

Art. 970. To Adjust Boundaries

Whenever there shall exist within the boundaries of any such city, town or village accepting said provisions, territory to the extent of at least ten acres contiguous, uninhabited [uninhabited] and adjoining the lines of such city or town, the mayor and council of such city or town shall, within one year from the filing in the office of the county clerk of the action of the council accepting the provisions of this law, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and before they shall levy any taxes for said city or town by ordinance duly passed, discontinue said territory as a part of said city or town and shall redefine the bounds and limits of such city or town so that they shall conform as nearly as practicable to the requirements of article 971, and when said ordinance has been duly passed, the clerk shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city or town council; and from and after the entry of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said city or town; provided that should there be situated within the said territory, so discontinued, any property of any description belonging to said city or town, the title to said property, so situated, shall remain in such city or town and may be sold, alienated and disposed of by such city or town, the same as if it were situated within the bounds and limits of such city or town.

Art. 970a. Municipal Annexation Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act is known and may be cited as the "Municipal Annexation Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Article, the following words shall have the meanings ascribed to them:

A. "City" or "Cities" means any incorporated city, town or village in the State of Texas.

B. "Voters" means those persons qualified to vote under the laws of the State of Texas.

C. "Written consent" means consent expressed by an ordinance or resolution.

Establishing Extraterritorial Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. A. In order to promote and protect the general health, safety, and welfare of persons residing within and adjacent to the cities of this State, the Legislature of the State of Texas declares it to be the policy of the State of Texas that the unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, which is contiguous to the corporate limits of any city, to the extent described herein, shall comprise and be known as the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the various population classes of cities in the State and shall be as follows:

(1) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mile of the corporate limits of such city.

(2) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of five thousand (5,000) or more inhabitants, but less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within one (1) mile of the corporate limits of such city.

(3) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of twenty-five thousand (25,000) or more inhabitants, but less than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within two (2) miles of the corporate limits of such city.

(4) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of fifty thousand (50,000) or more inhabitants, but less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within three and one half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) miles of the corporate limits of such city.

(5) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) or more inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within five (5) miles of the corporate limits of such city.

B. In the event that on the effective date of this Act the area under the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city overlaps an area under the extraterritorial jurisdiction of one or more other cities, such overlapped area may be apportioned by mutual agreement of the governing bodies of the cities concerned. Such agreement shall be in writing and shall be approved by an ordinance or resolution adopted by such governing bodies.

At any time after one hundred and eighty (180) days from the effective date of this Act, any city having an extraterritorial claim to such overlapping area shall have authority to file a plaintiff's petition in the district court of a judicial district, within which is located the largest city having an extraterritorial claim to such overlapped area, naming as parties defendant all cities having a claim to such overlapped area and praying that such overlapped area, to which it has mutual claim, be apportioned among the cities concerned. In effecting such apportionment, the district court shall consider the population densities and patterns of growth, transportation, topography, and land utilization in the cities concerned and in the overlapped area. The territory so apportioned to a city shall be contiguous to the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city. In the event the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city is totally overlapped, the territory so apportioned to such city shall be contiguous to the corporate boundaries of such city. Such territory so apportioned shall be in a substantially compact shape. Such overlapped area shall be apportioned among such cities in the same ratio (to one decimal) as the respective populations of the cities concerned bear to one another, but in such apportionment no city shall receive less than one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of such overlapping area. Provided, however, that any apportionment made under the provisions of this Subsection shall give consideration to existing property lines, and no tract of land or adjoining tracts of land, under one ownership upon the effective date of this Act and not exceeding one hundred and sixty (160) acres in size shall be apportioned so as to be within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of more than one city unless the landowner consents in writing to such apportionment.

C. When a city annexes additional territory, the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city shall expand in conformity with such annexation and shall comprise an area around the new corporate limits of the city consistent with Subsection A of this Section. In addition, the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the city may be extended beyond the distance limitations imposed by Subsection A of this Section to include therein any territory contiguous to the otherwise existing extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city, provided the owner or owners of such contiguous territory request such expansion. However, in no event shall the expansion of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city, through annexation, or upon request, or because of increase in population of the city, conflict with the existing extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city. The extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city shall not be reduced without the written consent of the governing body of such city, except in cases of judicial apportionment of overlapping extraterritorial jurisdictions.

D. No city shall impose any tax in the area under the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city, by reason of including such area within such extraterritorial jurisdiction.

Extension of Subdivision Ordinance Within the Extraterritorial Jurisdiction

Sec. 4. The governing body of any city may extend by ordinance to all of the area under its extraterritorial jurisdiction the application of such city's ordinance establishing rules and regulations governing plats and the subdivision of land; provided, that any violation of any provision of any such ordinance outside the corporate limits of the city, but within such city's extraterritorial jurisdiction, shall not constitute a misdemeanor under such ordinance nor shall any fine provided for in such ordinance be applicable to a violation within such extraterritorial jurisdiction. However, any city which extends the application of its ordinance establishing rules and regulations governing plats and the subdivision of land to the area under its extraterritorial jurisdiction shall have the right to institute an action in the district court to enjoin the violation of any provision of such ordinance in such extraterritorial jurisdiction, and the district court shall have the power to grant any or all types of injunctive relief in such cases.

Industrial Districts

Sec. 5. The governing body of any city shall have the right, power, and authority to designate any part of the area located in its extraterritorial jurisdiction as an industrial district, as the term is customarily used, and to treat with such area from time to time as such governing body may deem to be in the best interest of the city. Included in such rights and powers of the governing body of any city is the permissive right and power to enter into contracts or agreements with the owner or owners of land in such industrial district to guarantee the continuation of the extraterritorial status of such district, and its immunity from annexation by the city for a period of time not to exceed seven (7) years, and upon such other terms and considerations as the parties might deem appropriate. Such contracts or agreements shall be evidenced in writing and may be renewed or extended for successive periods not to exceed seven (7) years each by such governing body and the owner or owners of land in such industrial district. Existing contracts or agreements of such nature, recognized in or evidenced by an ordinance or resolution of the governing body of the contracting town or city, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date they were made, for the extent of their term or for seven (7) years from the date made, whichever is shorter.

Notice and Hearing—Annexation Proceedings

Sec. 6. Before any city may institute annexation proceedings, the governing body of such city shall provide an opportunity for all interested persons to be heard at a public hearing to be held not more than twenty (20) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to institution of such proceedings. Notice of such hearing shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the city and in the territory proposed to be annexed. The notice shall be published at least once in such newspaper not more than twenty (20) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to the hearing. Additional notice by certified mail should be given to railroad companies then serving the city and on the city's tax roll where the right-of-way thereof is included in the territory to be annexed. Annexation of territory by a city shall be brought to completion within ninety (90) days of the date on which the governing body of such city institutes annexation proceedings or be null and void. Provided, however, any period of time during which a city is restrained or enjoined from annexing any such territory by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not be computed in such 90-day limitation period.

Limitation on Annexations

Sec. 7. A. A city may annex territory only within the confines of its extraterritorial jurisdiction; provided, however, that such limitation shall not apply to the annexation of property owned by the city annexing the same.

B. A city may annex in any one calendar year only territory equivalent in size to ten per cent (10%) of the total corporate area of such city as of the first day of that calendar year. In computing the total amount of territory which may be annexed in any one (1) calendar year, there shall be excluded from such ten per cent (10%) the following: (1) territory caused to be annexed by a request of a majority of the qualified resident voters in the territory and the owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in the territory, (2) territory annexed which is owned by the city, the county, the State, or the Federal Government which is used for a public purpose, (3) territory annexed at the request of a majority of the voters residing in such territory, and (4) territory annexed at the request of the owner or owners thereof.

B-1. (a) No home rule or general law city may annex any area, whether publicly or privately owned, unless the width of such area at its narrowest point is at least 500 feet.

(b) Land on an island bordering on the Gulf of Mexico which is not accessible by public road or common carrier ferry facility may not be annexed by a city, town or village, including a home rule city, without the consent of the owner or owners of such land and notwithstanding the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970(a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city, town or village, including a home rule city, shall not extend to or cover any such land on any such island without the consent of the owner or owners thereof. A city, town or village, including a home rule city, is also prohibited from taking property on any such island by exercising its power of condemnation or eminent domain.

(c) All annexation proceedings initiated for the purpose of including the site of a state institution or facility within a city are hereby and in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

C. In the event a city fails in any calendar year or years to annex the total amount of territory which it is authorized to annex in such calendar year or years, such unused allocation may be carried over and used in subsequent calendar years. A city, utilizing the power granted under this Subsection, may not annex in any one calendar year an amount of territory in excess of thirty per cent (30%) of its total area as of the first day of the calendar year.

D. All annexation proceedings by cities which are pending on or instituted after March 15, 1963, shall be subject to the limitations as to size and extent of area imposed by this Act and shall be brought to completion within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act or be null and void. Provided, however, any period of time during which a city is enjoined or restrained from completing such annexation proceedings by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not be computed in such ninety (90) day limitation period.

E. No annexation shall change or have any effect on switching limits of railroads or any rates thereof.

Limitations on Creation of Political Subdivisions Within the Extraterritorial Jurisdiction

Sec. 8. A. No city may be incorporated within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city without the written consent of the governing body of such city. Should such governing body refuse to grant permission for the incorporation of such proposed city, a majority of the resident voters, if any, in the territory of such proposed city and the owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed city may petition the governing body of such city and request annexation by such city. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to annex the area of such proposed city within six (6) months from the date of receipt of such petition, proof of such failure or refusal shall constitute authorization for the incorporation of such proposed city insofar as the purposes of this Subsection are concerned. Written consent or authorization for the incorporation of a proposed city, insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned, shall mean only authorization to initiate incorporation proceedings for such proposed city as otherwise provided by law. The provisions of this Subsection shall apply only to the area of a proposed city which lies within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city.

B. No political subdivision having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services may be created within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city without the written consent of such city. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to grant permission for the creation of such proposed political subdivision within sixty (60) days after receipt of a written request for same, a majority of the qualified resident voters in the territory of such proposed political subdivision and the owner or owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed political subdivision may petition the governing body of such city and request such city to make available to such territory the water or sanitary sewer service contemplated by the proposed political subdivision. Should the governing body of the city and a majority of the qualified resident voters and the owner or owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed political subdivision fail to execute a mutually agreeable contract providing for the water or sanitary sewer service requested within six (6) months after receipt of such petition, such failure shall constitute authorization for the creation of the proposed political subdivision insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned. Authorization for the creation of the proposed political subdivision, insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned, shall mean only authorization to initiate proceedings to create such political subdivision as otherwise provided by law. The provisions of this Subsection shall apply only to the area of such proposed political subdivision which lies within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city.

This Subsection shall not apply to any such proposed political subdivision where a valid petition seeking its creation has been filed with the county clerk or other legally designated authority prior to the effective date of this Act.

C. If authorization to initiate incorporation proceedings for a proposed city is obtained under the provisions of Subsection A of this Section, such incorporation must be initiated within six (6) months of the date of such authorization and such incorporation must be finally completed within eighteen (18) months of the date of such authorization. Failure either to initiate such incorporation proceedings or to finally complete the incorporation of such proposed city within such allotted periods of time shall terminate such authorization. If authorization to initiate proceedings to create a proposed political subdivision having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial purposes or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services is obtained under the provisions of Subsection B of this Section, such proceedings seeking the creation of such a political subdivision must be initiated within six (6) months of the date of such authorization and such proposed political subdivision must be finally completed within eighteen (18) months of the date of such authorization. Failure either to initiate such proceedings seeking the creation of such political subdivision or to finally complete the creation of such proposed political subdivision within such allotted periods of time shall terminate such authorization.

Petition for Annexation or Services

Sec. 9. The petition for annexation provided for in Subsection A of Section 8 of this Article and the petition requesting the availability of services provided for in Subsection B of Section 8 of this Article shall be made by the voters and landowners signing and presenting to the city secretary or clerk a written petition requesting annexation or requesting such services. The signatures to the petition need not be appended to one paper, but each signer shall sign his or her name in ink or indelible pencil, and each signer signing the petition as a voter shall sign his or her name as it appears on the official copy of the current poll list or an official copy of the current list of exempt voters and each voter shall note on such petition his or her residence address and the precinct number and serial number that appear on his or her poll tax receipt, exemption certificate, or such other voter registration certificate that may be provided for by law. Each landowner signing the petition shall note thereon opposite his or her name the approximate total acreage he or she owns within the territory. The petition shall describe the territory to be annexed or the territory to which such services are requested to be made available and have attached to it a plat of the territory. Prior to circulating the petition for annexation or such services among the voters and landowners, notice of the petition shall be given by means of posting for ten (10) days a copy of the petition in three (3) public places in the territory and by publishing it for one (1) issue in a newspaper of general circulation serving the territory at least fifteen (15) days prior to the circulation of the petition. Proof of posting and publication of the notice shall be made by attaching to the petition presented to the city secretary or clerk:

(1) the sworn affidavit of any voter who signed the petition, stating the places where and the dates when the petition was posted; and

(2) the sworn affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper setting forth the name of the newspaper and the issue and date when the notice was published;

(3) in addition, there shall be attached to the petition the sworn affidavit of three

(3) or more voters signing the petition, if there be that many, stating the total number of voters residing in the territory and the approximate total acreage within the territory.

Disannexation

Sec. 10. A. From and after the effective date of this Act, any city annexing a particular area shall within three (3) years of the effective date of such annexation provide or cause to be provided such area with governmental and proprietary services, the standard and scope of which are substantially equivalent to the standard and scope of governmental and proprietary services furnished by such city in other areas of such city which have characteristics of topography, patterns of land utilization, and population density similar to that of the particular area annexed. In the event a city fails or refuses to provide or cause to be provided such services within the time specified herein, a majority of the qualified voters residing within such particular annexed area and the owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such particular annexed area, which area must adjoin the outer boundaries of the city, may petition the governing body of such city to disannex such particular annexed area. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to disannex such particular annexed area within ninety (90) days after receipt of a valid petition, any one or more of the signers of such petition may, within sixty (60) days of the date of such failure or refusal, file in a district court of the district in which such city is located an action requesting that the particular annexed area be disannexed. Upon the filing of an answer in such cause by the governing body of such city, and upon application of either party, the case shall be advanced and heard without further delay, all in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Upon hearing of the case, if the district court finds that a valid petition was filed with the city, that the particular annexed area is otherwise eligible for disannexation under the provisions of this Section, and that the standard and scope of governmental and proprietary services provided or caused to be provided to such particular annexed area are not substantially equivalent to the standard and scope of governmental and proprietary services provided or caused to be provided other areas of such city having characteristics of topography, patterns of land utilization and population density similar to that of the particular annexed area, it shall enter an order disannexing such particular annexed area. Provided, however, that the right of disannexation provided for in this Section shall not be available to any particular annexed area which was lawfully within the city limits of a city at the time of the approval or sale of any general obligation bonds of the city if proceeds therefrom have been expended for capital improvements to serve such particular annexed area, so long as any such bonds are outstanding.

B. When any such area is disannexed under the provisions of this Section, it shall not again be annexed within one (1) year of such disannexation, and, if it is again annexed within three (3) years of disannexation, the period for affording such services as are required by this Section shall be one (1) year from reannexation rather than three (3) years as in other cases.

C. The request and petition for disannexation provided for in Subsection A of this Section of this Act shall be made by the qualified voters and landowners signing and presenting to the city secretary a written petition requesting disannexation. The signatures to the petition need not be appended to one paper, but each signer shall sign his or her name in ink or indelible pencil, and each signer signing the petition as a qualified voter shall sign his or her name as it appears on the official copy of the current poll list or an official copy of the current list of exempt voters and each qualified voter shall note on such petition his or her residence address and the precinct number and serial number that appear on his or her poll tax receipt, exemption certificate, or such other voter registration certificate that may be provided for by law. Each landowner signing the petition shall note thereon opposite his or her name the approximate total acreage he or she owns within the particular annexed area. The petition shall describe the particular annexed area to be disannexed and have attached to it a plat of the particular annexed area. Prior to circulating the petition for disannexation among the qualified voters and landowners, notice of the petition shall be given by means of posting for ten (10) days a copy of the petition in three (3) public places in the particular annexed area and by publishing it for one (1) issue in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation serving the particular annexed area at least fifteen (15) days prior to the circulation of the petition. Proof of posting and publication of the notice shall be made by attaching to the petition presented to the city secretary:

(1) the sworn affidavit of any qualified voter who signed the petition stating the places where and the dates when the petition was posted, and

(2) the sworn affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper or newspapers setting forth the name of the newspaper or newspapers and the issue and date in which the notice was published. In addition, there shall be attached to the petition the sworn affidavit of three (3) or more qualified voters signing the petition, if there be that many, stating the total number of qualified voters residing in the particular annexed area and the approximate total acreage within such particular annexed area.

Art. 971. Territorial Boundaries

No city or town in this State shall be hereafter incorporated under the provisions of the general charter for cities and towns contained in this title with a superficial area of more than two square miles, when such town or city has less than two thousand inhabitants, nor more than four square miles when such city or town has more than two thousand and less than five thousand inhabitants, nor more than nine square miles, when such city or town has more than five and less than ten thousand inhabitants. The mayor and board of aldermen, immediately after they qualify as such officers, shall pass an ordinance causing an actual survey of the boundaries of such town to be made according to the boundaries designated in the petition for incorporation and the field notes thereof recorded in the minute book of such town or city, and also in the record books of deeds in the county in which such city or town is situated.

Art. 971a. Map of Boundaries

Each city, town or village incorporated under the General or Special Laws, or under the Home Rule provisions of the Constitution, shall keep in the office of the city secretary or town clerk, and in the office of the city engineer, if such city, town or village has a city engineer, a map showing the boundaries of the municipal corporation. In the event any territory is thereafter annexed to such city, town or village, then the map of the city shall be corrected immediately so as to add thereto the additional territory, indicating on the map the date of annexation, the number of the ordinance, if any, and a reference to the minutes or the ordinance records of the city where such instrument is recorded in full.

Art. 972. Territory Relinquished

The mayor and the board of aldermen of any town or city in this State heretofore incorporated under Title 18 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1895 of this State, and whose boundaries have been established so as to include more territory than is specified in the preceding article, shall immediately cause a resurvey of the boundaries of such city or town to be made, so as not to include more territory than is provided for in the preceding article; such resurvey to be made and the field notes thereof to be recorded as provided in said article.

Art. 973. Discontinuing Territory

Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city or town organized under the general laws within this State territory to the extent of at least ten (10) acres, contiguous and adjoining the lines of any such city or town, which is uninhabited or on which there are fewer than one (1) occupied residence or business structure for every two (2) acres of such territory and fewer than three (3) occupied residences or business structures on any one (1) acre of such territory, the mayor and city or town council may by ordinance duly passed discontinue said territory as a part of said city or town; and when said ordinance has been duly passed, the mayor shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city or town council; and from and after the entry of such order said territory shall cease to be a part of said city or town.

Art. 973a. Validation of Discontinuance of Territory, Boundaries and Annexation of Discontinued Territory; Cities of 2,000 or Less

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this state having a population of two thousand (2,000) inhabitants or less at the time of the passage of any ordinance by the City Council of any such city or town discontinuing or attempting to discontinue any territory as a part of said city or town, and to any incorporated city or town contiguous thereto.

Sec. 2. All petitions praying for an ordinance and all ordinances discontinuing or attempting to discontinue any territory from within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town having a population of two thousand (2,000) inhabitants or less at the time of the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any territory forming a part of said city, and the boundaries and areas of any such city or town after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any territory forming a part of said city or town, although said city or town, as a result of said discontinuance or attempted discontinuance consists of two or more separate areas, after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any such territory, shall be, and the same are, hereby in all things validated and confirmed, and all cities and towns, having a population of two thousand (2,000) or less at the time of incorporation, whose charters and incorporations may be void by reason of having included in such limits more territory than authorized by Article 971, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, are hereby declared to be valid, the same as if at first authorized.

Sec. 3. In every instance wherein a city or town, coming under the provisions of the Act, has attempted to discontinue territory as a part of said city or town under statutes providing for the discontinuing of territory adjoining the boundary lines of any such city or town, and all actions, resolutions, petitions, ordinances, proceedings, and contracts held, made, or passed in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, and the boundaries of any such city or town and all cities and towns coming within and under the provisions of this Act after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any such territory, are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed, although said city, after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of such territory as a part of said city, is separated into two or more parcels or areas, as fully and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 4. The areas and boundaries of all cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been reduced or attempted to be reduced by discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of territory, or any other action, are hereby in all things ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 5. The Act of the governing body of any contiguous, incorporated city in subsequently annexing the territory thus discontinued, or attempted to be discontinued, is hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed.

Sec. 5a. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this Act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason.

Art. 973b. Validation of Disannexation or Discontinuance of Territory; Cities of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this state having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less at the time of the passage of any ordinance by the city council, aldermen or other governing officials of any such city or town, whether incorporated under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, disannexing or discontinuing or attempting to disannex or discontinue any territory, revoking previous ordinances or previous attempts to annex territory, or discontinuing or attempting to discontinue any territory as a part of any such city or town.

Sec. 2. Ordinances wherein or whereby a city or town coming under the provisions of this Act has attempted to revoke or cancel an ordinance previously adopted annexing territory as a part of said city or town, or to discontinue territory as a part of said city or town, and all actions, resolutions, petitions, ordinances, proceedings, contracts, held, made, or passed in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto and the boundaries of any such city or town coming within the provisions of this Act after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any such territory are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed, although said city or town after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance [of] such territory or part of said city or town is separated into two or more parcels or areas, as full and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 3. Areas and boundaries of all such cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been reduced or attempted to be reduced by discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of territory or any other action, are hereby in all things ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 4. All ordinances, resolutions and other municipal and governmental proceedings adopted by or performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof disannexing, discontinuing or attempting to disannex or discontinue any such territory are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such ordinances, resolutions, proceedings and acts.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of any disannexation, attempted disannexation, or attempted discontinuance of any territory as a part of such city or town.

Art. 974. Adjoining Inhabitants

When a majority of the inhabitants qualified to vote for members of the State legislature of any territory adjoining the limits of any city incorporated under, or accepting the provisions of, this title, to the extent of one-half mile in width, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said city, any three of them may make affidavit to the fact to be filed before the mayor, who shall certify the same to the city council of said city. The said city council may, by ordinance, receive them as part of said city; from thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said city; and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this title.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 974a. Platting and Recording Subdivisions or Additions

Plats Required

Sec. 1. Hereafter every owner of any tract of land situated within the corporate limits, or within five miles of the corporate limits of any city in the State of Texas, who may hereafter divide the same in two or more parts for the purpose of laying out any subdivision of any tract of land or any addition to any town or city, or for laying out suburban lots or building lots, or any lots, and streets, alleys or parks or other portions intended for public use, or the use of purchasers or owners of lots fronting thereon or adjacent thereto, shall cause a plat to be made thereof which shall accurately describe all of said subdivision or addition by metes and bounds and locate the same with respect to an original corner of the original survey of which it is a part, giving the dimensions thereof of said subdivision or addition, and dimensions of all streets, alleys, squares, parks or other portions of same intended to be dedicated to public use, or for the use of purchasers or owners of lots fronting thereon or adjacent thereto; provided, however, that no plat of any subdivision of any tract of land or any addition to any town or city shall be recorded unless the same shall accurately describe all of said subdivision or addition by metes and bounds and locate the same with respect to an original corner of the original survey of which it is a part giving the dimensions thereof of said subdivision or addition, and dimensions of all streets, alleys, squares, parks or other portions of same intended to be dedicated to public use, or for the use of purchasers or owners of lots fronting thereon or adjacent thereto.

Acknowledgment of Plats

Sec. 2. That every such plat shall be duly acknowledged by owners or proprietors of the land, or by some duly authorized agent of said owners or proprietors, in the manner required for the acknowledgment of deeds; and the said plat, subject to the provisions contained in this Act, shall be filed for record and be recorded in the office of the County Clerk of the County in which the land lies.

Approval of Plat or Plan by Planning Commission or Governing Body; Record

Sec. 3. That it shall be unlawful for the County Clerk of any county in which such land lies to receive or record any such plan, plat or replat, unless and until the same shall have been approved by the City Planning Commission of any city affected by this Act, if said city has a City Planning Commission and if it has no City Planning Commission, unless and until the said plan, plat, or replat shall have been approved by the governing body of such city. If such land lies outside of and within five (5) miles of more than one (1) city affected by this Act, then the requisite approval shall be by the City Planning Commission or governing body, as the case may be, of such of said cities having the largest population; provided, however, that the governing body of any city having the largest population may enter into an agreement with any other city or cities affected, or the governing body of the largest city may enter into an agreement with any other city within five (5) miles conferring the power of approval within stated portions of the area upon such other city; but any such agreement shall be revocable by either city at the end of twenty (20) years after the date of the agreement or at the end of such shorter period of time as may be agreed upon. A copy of any such agreement shall be filed with the County Clerk, and during the time the agreement continues in force he shall not receive or record any such plan, plat or replat unless it has been approved by the City Planning Commission or the governing body, as the case may be, of the city or cities upon which the power of approval is conferred by the agreement. Any person desiring to have a plan, plat or replat approved as herein provided, shall apply therefor to and file a copy with the Commission or governing body herein authorized to approve same, which shall act upon same within thirty (30) days from the filing date. If said plat be not disapproved within thirty (30) days from said filing date, it shall be deemed to have been approved and a certificate showing said filing date and the failure to take action thereon within thirty (30) days from said filing date, shall on demand be issued by the City Planning Commission or Governing Body, as the case may be, of such city, and said certificate shall be sufficient in lieu of the written endorsement or other evidence of approval herein required. If the plan, plat, or replat is approved, such Commission or governing body shall indicate such finding by certificate endorsed thereon, signed by the Chairman or presiding officer of said Commission or governing body and attested by its Secretary, or signed by a majority of the members of said Commission or Governing Body. Such Commission or governing body shall keep a record of such applications and the action taken thereupon, and upon demand of the owners of any land affected, shall certify its reasons for the action taken in the matter.

Indorsement of Approval of Plat by Planning Commission or Governing Body

Sec. 4. If such plan or plat, or replat shall conform to the general plan of said city and its streets, alleys, parks, playgrounds and public utility facilities, including those which have been or may be laid out, and to the general plan for the extension of such city and of its roads, streets and public highways within said city and within five miles of the corporate limits thereof, regard being had for access to and extension of sewer and water mains and the instrumentalities of public utilities, and if same shall conform to such general rules and regulations, if any, governing plats and subdivisions of land falling within its jurisdiction as the governing body of such city may adopt and promulgate to promote the health, safety, morals or general welfare of the community, and the safe, orderly and healthful development of said community (which general rules and regulations for said purposes such cities are hereby authorized to adopt and promulgate after public hearing held thereon), then it shall be the duty of said City Planning Commission or of the governing body of such city, as the case may be, to endorse approval upon the plan, plat or replat submitted to it.

Vacation of Plat or Plan; Procedure

Sec. 5. That any such plan, plat or replat may be vacated by the proprietors of the land covered thereby at any time before the sale of any lot therein by a written instrument declaring the same to be vacated, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in the same office as the plat to be vacated, provided the approval of the City Planning Commission or governing body of such city, as the case may be, shall have been obtained as above provided, and the execution and recordation of such shall operate to destroy the force and effect of the recording of the plan, plat or replat so vacated. In cases where lots have been sold, the plan, plat or replat, or any part thereof, may be vacated upon the application of all the owners of lots in said plat and with the approval, as above provided, of the City Planning Commission or governing body of said city, as the case may be. The County Clerk of the county in whose office the plan or plat thus vacated has been recorded shall write in plain, legible letters across the plan or plat so vacated the word "Vacated," and also make a reference on the same to the volume and page in which said instrument of vacation is recorded.

Improvement to Effect Dedication

Sec. 6. The approval of any such plan, plat, or replat shall not be deemed an acceptance of the proposed dedication and shall not impose any duty upon such city concerning the maintenance or improvement of any such dedicated parts until the proper authorities of said city shall have made actual appropriation of the same by entry, use or improvement.

County Clerk's Failure of Duty

Sec. 7. When any such map, plat, or replat is tendered for filing in the office of the County Clerk of any county in which any city of the above class may be situated, it shall be the duty of such Clerk to ascertain that the proposed plan, plat or replat is or is not subject to the provisions of this Act, and if it is subject to its provisions, then to examine said map, plat or replat to ascertain whether the endorsements required by this Act appear thereon. If such endorsements do appear thereon, he shall accept same for registration. If such endorsements do not appear thereon, he shall refuse to accept same for registration. When same does not disclose whether the land covered by said map, plat or replat, or any part thereof, is or is not within five miles of the corporate limits of a city of the class above mentioned, the County Clerk may require one offering said map, plat or replat for registration to file with him an affidavit setting forth such information. The filing or recording of any plan, plat or replat contrary to the provisions of this Act shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), and both the County Clerk and any Deputy filing or recording the same shall be guilty.

Approval Prior to Connection of Public Utilities

Sec. 8. Unless and until any such plan, plat or replat shall have been first approved in the manner and by the authorities provided for in this Act, it shall be unlawful within the area covered by said plan, plat or replat for any city affected by this Act, or any officials of such city, to serve or connect said land, or any part thereof, or for the use of the owners or purchasers of said land, or any part thereof, with any public utilities such as water, sewers, light, gas, etc., which may be owned, controlled or distributed by such city.

Disapproval

Sec. 9. If any such plan, plat or replat is disapproved by the City Planning Commission or governing body of such city, as the case may be, such disapproval shall be deemed a refusal by the city of the offered dedication shown thereon.

Sec. 10. Repealed by Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 321, ch. 154, § 1(2).

Saved From Repeal

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 447, ch. 160, enacting the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a) provides in Article III of the Act that it shall not repeal Acts 1927, 40th Leg., ch. 231, as amended, (this article) unless expressly inconsistent with the Act and then only to the extent of such inconsistency.

Art. 974a-1. Enforcement of Land Use Restrictions Contained in Plats; Certain Cities, Towns and Villages

Application

Sec. 1. This Act applies to incorporated cities, towns, or villages if the incorporated city, town, or village does not have zoning ordinances and provided the city, town, or village passes an ordinance that requires uniform application and enforcement of this statute to all property and citizens.

May Sue to Enforce Restrictions.

Sec. 2. (a) An incorporated city, town, or village may sue in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin or abate violation of a restriction contained or incorporated by reference in a duly recorded plan, plat, replat, or other instrument affecting a subdivision inside its boundaries.

(b) As used in this Act, "restriction" means a limitation which affects the use to which real property may be put, fixes the distance buildings or structures must be set back from property lines, street lines, or lot lines, or affects the size of a lot or the size, type, and number of buildings or structures which may be built on the property.

Previously Recorded Plan, Plat, Replat, or Other Instrument

Sec. 3. Restrictions contained in a plan, plat, replat, or other instrument duly recorded before the effective date of this Act may be enforced as provided in Section 2 but a violation of a restriction occurring before the effective date of this Act may not be enjoined or abated by the said city, town, or village as long as the nature of the violation remains unchanged. An incorporated city, town, or village may not enforce a restriction that violates the Constitution of the United States or of this State.

Art. 974a-2. Commercial Building Permits in Cities of 900,000 or More

Application of Act

Sec. 1. This Act applies to cities having a population of more than 900,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act, unless the context requires a different meaning:

(1) "department" means the agency of a city which has the authority and responsibility for issuing commercial building permits;

(2) "subdivider" means a person who divides a tract of real property under circumstances to which Chapter 231, Acts of the 40th Legislature, Regular Session, 1927, as amended (codified as Article 974a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes and Article 427b, Vernon's Texas Penal Code), is applicable;

(3) "person" includes a firm, partnership, corporation, or other private entity;

(4) "commercial building" means any building other than a single family residence.

Instrument Containing Restriction on Use or Construction on Property; Filing; Issuance of Permit

Sec. 3. (a) A person who desires a commercial building permit shall file with his application a certified copy of any instrument which contains a restriction on the use of or construction on the property described in the application, together with a certified copy of any amendment, judgment, or other document affecting the use of the property.

(b) When an applicant has complied with this Act and local ordinances relating to commercial building permits, the department shall issue a permit for construction or repair which conforms with all restrictions relating to the use of the property described in the application.

Plat and Restrictions; Filing by Subdivider

Sec. 4. (a) A subdivider shall, at the time he files the subdivision for recordation, file with the department two copies of the plat and any restrictions pertaining to the property included in the plat.

(b) The department shall keep one copy in a safe place as a permanent file.

(c) A person who desires a commercial building permit for property which is included in any plat or restrictions on file with the department is not required to file a copy of the plat and restrictions with his application.

Injunction

Sec. 5. (a) A person who attempts to construct or repair any structure for which a commercial building permit is required without having obtained a permit may be enjoined from any further construction activity until he has complied with this Act.

(b) The city may join with an interested property owner in a suit to enjoin further construction activity by one who does not have a permit issued in compliance with this Act, if the structure or proposed structure is in violation of a restriction contained in the deed or other instrument.

(c) Any commercial permit obtained without full compliance with this Act is void.

Repair of Commercial Building; Conversion of Family Residence into Commercial Building

Sec. 6. Any person, partnership, or corporation in cities having a population of more than 900,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census electing to substantially repair or to remodel a commercial building within a subdivision or proposing to convert a single family residence into a commercial building as defined in Section 2(4) of this Act shall obtain a commercial building permit from the city department issuing building permits. Provided however, that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to violations of restrictive covenants occurring prior to the date of enactment of this Act as long as they retain their existing status. Provided further, that these cities may join with any interested property owner in a suit to enjoin the maintenance of a commercial building by one who does not have a permit in compliance with any Section of this Act.

Refusal to Issue Permit; Review by Court

Sec. 7. An administrative refusal to issue a commercial permit on the grounds of violation of restrictions contained in a deed or other instrument shall be reviewable by a court of appropriate jurisdiction provided notice of filing of such suit is given the city department responsible for issuing commercial building permits within ninety (90) days. In the event of changed conditions within a subdivision or any other legally sufficient reason that restrictions should be modified a person refused a commercial building permit can petition a court of appropriate jurisdiction to alter the restrictions to better conform with present conditions.

Art. 974b. Validating Elections in Cities of 3,000 to 6,000 for Extension of Corporate Limits

Cities Affected

Sec. 1. This Act shall affect all incorporated cities in the State of Texas having a population of not less than three thousand (3,000) and not more than six thousand (6,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Elections Validated

Sec. 2. All elections, election orders, election proceedings and city ordinances annexing adjacent territory to, or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of, any incorporated city having a population of not less than three thousand (3,000) and not more than six thousand (6,000) inhabitants, as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, shall be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Ordinances Validated

Sec. 3. The city ordinances of all cities in the class described in the foregoing section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated and confirmed.

Extension of Limits Validated

Sec. 4. In every instance wherein a city coming under the provision of this Act has attempted to extend its corporate limits under statutes providing for the annexation of adjoining territory, all actions, resolutions, elections, ordinances, proceedings and contracts held, made or passed, in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, irrespective of any irregularities, and in like manner as if said annexation had been done under legislative authority previously given.

Art. 974c. Validating Annexation of Adjacent Territory

That all elections, election orders, election proceedings, affidavits and city ordinances heretofore had, subsequent to August 24, 1935, annexing adjacent territory or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of any incorporated city, incorporated and functioning under the General Laws of the State of Texas under the Commission Form of Government are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved, and legalized irrespective of any irregularities or omissions in such ordinances or in any petitions, elections, affidavits, or other proceedings purporting to authorize the passage of such ordinances.

Art. 974c-1. Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less; Validation of Annexation of Territory

Sec. 1. This Act shall affect and apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this State and having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. All elections, election orders, election proceedings, petitions and ordinances annexing territory to or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 3. The ordinances of all cities and towns in the class described in the foregoing Section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 4. In every instance wherein a city or town coming under the provisions of this Act has attempted to extend its corporate limits under Statutes providing for the annexation of adjoining territory, all actions, resolutions, elections, ordinances, proceedings and contracts held, made or passed, in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, irrespective of any irregularities, as fully and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 5. The areas and boundaries of all cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been extended or attempted to be extended by annexation or any other action are hereby in all things ratified.

Art. 974c-2. Cities of More Than 5,000 Population; Validation of Annexation, Incorporation, and Other Matters

Sec. 1. (a) All cities in the State of Texas having a population greater than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and operating under the General Laws of Texas, including those operating under the Mayor and Alderman form of government, as well as those operating under the Commissioner form of government, as in such cases provided by law, and heretofore laid out and established by incorporation under the General Laws of Texas, in the manner prescribed by the laws of this State, are hereby validated in all respects as though they had been duly and legally established and so incorporated under the General Laws of Texas in the first instance. All acts of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, or the Mayor and Board of Commissioners, or other governing body of said cities, ordering election, or elections, declaring results of such elections for the purpose of annexing additional territory to said cities; and otherwise by ordinance annexing additional territories to said cities under the provisions of Article 974, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, levying, attempting or purporting to levy taxes for and on behalf of such cities, and all bonds issued and now outstanding, and all bonds heretofore voted, but not issued, and all bond assumption tax elections, following annexation elections or annexation proceedings under the provisions of Article 974, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, under the terms of which by ordinances of said cities, adjoining territory has purportedly been annexed to said cities, are hereby in all things validated.

(b) The fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act of the officers or governing body of any city or municipality, or of the Commissioners Court of the counties in which said cities are situated, in the creation of any such city, or in the annexation thereto of adjoining territory, was omitted, shall in nowise invalidate the incorporation of such city under the General Laws of Texas, nor the annexation of adjoining territory thereto according to the terms of the ordinances so enacted; and the fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act was omitted by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, the Mayor and Board of Commissioners, or other governing body of any such city, or governing body of any municipality, in ordering an election, or elections, or in declaring the results thereof, or by ordinance annexing adjoining territory thereto under the provisions of Article 974, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or in levying taxes for such city, or in the issuance of bonds of any such city, shall in nowise invalidate any such proceedings or any bonds so issued by such city or municipality.

(c) All acts of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, by the Mayor and Board of Commissioners, or other governing body of any and all cities and municipalities operating under the General Laws of this State with a population of five thousand (5,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, in rearranging, changing, annexing additional or adjoining territory, changing the boundaries of, or subdividing such cities or municipalities, or increasing or decreasing areas thereof in any such city or municipality, or in declaring by general election or by ordinance following the provisions of Article 974, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, annexing additional territory to such cities or municipalities, and all acts of the governing bodies of any such cities or municipalities in annexing territories thereto, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. All cities or municipalities mentioned in this Act are hereby authorized and empowered to levy, assess and collect the same rate of tax as heretofore authorized, or attempted to be authorized under the General Laws of this State, or by any act of the governing body of such city or municipality, or by any election of taxpaying voters of such city or municipality, or by any act of the Legislature of this State, whether General or Special, or as is now being levied, assessed and collected therein and heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any act or acts of said cities or municipalities, or by any act of the Legislature of this State, whether General or Special.

Sec. 3. This law shall not apply to any city or municipality governed by the terms of this Act which is now involved in litigation, or the validity of the organization or creation of which, or annexation of territory in or to such city or municipality is attacked in any suit or litigation filed within forty-five (45) days after the effective date of this Act; provided, further, that this Act shall not apply to any city or municipality which may have been incorporated under the General Laws and which was later returned to its original status; nor shall this Act apply to the annexation of additional territory to any such city or municipality which may have been declared void heretofore by the Courts of this State, or otherwise voided by the governing body themselves of such city or municipality.

Sec. 4. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this Act shall be held by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, or for other reasons void or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this Act. [Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 495, ch. 270.]

Art. 974c-3. Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less; Validation of Annexation and Related Matters

Sec. 1. This Act shall affect and apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this State and having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. All elections, election orders, election proceedings, petitions and ordinances annexing territory to or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 3. The ordinances of all cities and towns in the class described in the foregoing Section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 4. In every instance wherein a city or town coming under the provisions of this Act has attempted to extend its corporate limits under Statutes providing for the annexation of adjoining territory, all actions, resolutions, elections, ordinances, proceedings and contracts held, made or passed, in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, irrespective of any irregularities, as fully and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 4a. This law shall not apply to any city or town which on the effective date of this Act is involved in litigation which questions the annexation of territory or corporate limits thereof.

Sec. 5. The areas and boundaries of all cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been extended or attempted to be extended by annexation or any other action are hereby in all things ratified.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not affect the validity of the annexation to or extension of the boundaries of any city or town wherein such annexation to, or extension of the boundaries of, are now, or within one hundred days after this bill becomes a law, involved in litigation.

Art. 974c-4. Annexation or Definition of Boundaries; Validation

Sec. 1. All city charters, city charter amendments, ordinances and proceedings of the governing bodies of all incorporated cities, including home rule cities, defining the boundaries of such incorporated cities or annexing thereto territory adjoining any such city with the consent of a majority of the inhabitants of such annexed territory, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Sec. 2. After the expiration of two (2) years from the date of any ordinance defining boundaries of or annexing territory to any incorporated city, consent to the annexation and inclusion of such territory in such city shall be conclusively presumed if no action has then been commenced to annul or review such act.

Sec. 2A. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any territory of any city where the annexation of such territory is the subject of any pending litigation at the time of passage of this Act.

Art. 974c-5. Cities and Towns of 800 Inhabitants or Less; Validation of Annexation and Extension of Boundaries

Sec. 1. The actions and proceedings of all cities and towns in Texas of eight hundred (800) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, which have attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town pursuant to a petition of owners of lands in such annexed area, and a part of which land was, prior to such annexation included in an ordinance of annexation by a neighboring city but was either discontinued as a part of such city or was deleted from the ordinance of annexation before final passage by such neighboring city, and have passed an ordinance or ordinances describing the territory annexed and have caused a certified copy of such ordinance or ordinances to be recorded in the Deed Records of the county in which such city or town is situated, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such annexation or attempted annexation.

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns covered by the provision of this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation and by any subsequent extension of the area and corporate limits by ordinance adopted pursuant to petition of owners of land included in such extension and annexation are hereby in all things validated, and such annexations and extension of corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized by Article 971 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, as amended, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town or city purposes.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Art. 974c-6. Cities and Towns of 500 or Less; Validation of Annexation of Territory

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five hundred (500) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated, under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which are located partially within two different counties, the larger of which had a population of five hundred thirty-eight thousand, four hundred ninety-five (538,495) at the last Federal Census and the smaller of which had a population of forty-seven thousand, four hundred thirty-two (47,432), which have attempted to extend the corporate limits of such cities or towns, and have passed an ordinance describing the territory annexed and have caused a certified copy of such ordinance to be recorded in the Deed Records of either of the counties in which such city or town is situated, and all actions, elections and proceedings had or passed in reference thereto or in connection therewith, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such attempted annexation, and such extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original corporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are in all things validated.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any territory of any city where the annexation of such territory is the subject of any pending litigation at the time of the passage of this Act.

Art. 974c-7. Validation of Annexation of Entire Territory of Water Control and Improvement District

Sec. 1. In each instance where an incorporated city, after a public hearing, has annexed or attempted to annex the entire territory of a water control and improvement district pursuant to the annexation provisions of The Municipal Annexation Act, Chapter 160, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session,¹ each and all of said annexations are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of the ordinance annexing or attempting to annex said territory, and the ordinance annexing or attempting to annex such territory or the proceedings in connection with said annexation or attempted annexation shall not be held void or invalid by reason of the fact that the proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities including the territory of annexed areas or areas attempted to be annexed which include the territory of an entire water control and improvement district are in all things validated as of the date of the ordinance annexing or attempting to annex said territory.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Art. 974d. Validation of Incorporation of Cities of 600 to 2,000 Inhabitants Incorporated since January 1, 1935

All cities and towns in this State having more than six hundred (600) and less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants which have heretofore incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and which are or may be invalid by reason of having included within their corporate limits lands not used for strictly town purposes, but which cities and towns do not include more than two (2) square miles of territory, are hereby declared to be duly and legally incorporated, and the boundaries of such cities as set forth in their incorporation proceedings are hereby expressly authorized and validated; that all actions, proceedings, and elections done or had in connection with the incorporation or attempted incorporation of such cities and towns are in all things validated; and all subsequent acts of such cities and towns, done or performed as a city or town, are hereby validated and declared as binding as if said cities had been duly and legally incorporated. The provisions of this Act shall apply only to cities and towns incorporated since January 1, 1935.

Art. 974d-1. Validation of Incorporation of Cities of 600 to 2,000 Inhabitants

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of more than six hundred (600) and less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants, heretofore incorporated and/or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, whether under the aldermanic form of government or under the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated, as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid on account of irregularities in the petition for election, order for election, notice of election, returns of election, order declaring result of election, or other incorporation proceedings.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, respectively, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective dates of such proceedings, and such governmental proceedings shall be effective the same as if such cities and towns had been regularly incorporated in the first instance.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this bill shall affect no city or town now in litigation.

Art. 974d-2. Validation of Incorporation, Boundaries and Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns, in this State, of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation.

Art. 974d-3. Validation of Incorporation; Counties of 600,000 Population

Sec. 1. All towns and villages in Texas located in counties of over six hundred thousand (600,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of Texas, Chapter 11, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall affect no town or village now or heretofore in litigation.

Art. 974d-4. Validation of Incorporation; Areas and Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings and Acts; Cities of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities and towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation, or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of said city or town.

Sec. 2. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, which have attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town, and have passed an ordinance describing the territory annexed and have caused a certified copy of such ordinance to be recorded in the Deed Records of the County in which such city or town is situated, all actions, elections and proceedings had or passed in reference thereto or in connection therewith, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such attempted annexation, and such extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 3. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof are in all things validated and the incorporation of such cities and towns or any subsequent extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes.

Sec. 4. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings and acts.

Sec. 4a. The provisions of this Act shall in no wise affect or validate the incorporation or attempted incorporation of any city or town where the election held for such incorporation or attempted incorporation was held prior to January 1, 1953.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the Acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

[Acts 1954, 53rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 98, ch. 47.]

Art. 974d-5. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Cities and Towns of 15,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in this State of fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not apply to any municipality which is now involved, or which within sixty (60) days from the effective date becomes involved, in litigation in any District Court of this State, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization, annexation, incorporation or creation of such municipality is attacked; and this Act shall not apply to any municipality involved in formal proceedings now pending before such municipality's commission or council in which proceedings the organization or creation of such municipality is attacked. Provided further, that this Act shall not apply to any municipality which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this State or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status, nor shall this Act apply to any annexation or incorporation proceedings which have heretofore been declared valid or invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this State before the effective date of this Act.

Art. 974d-6. Validation of Organizational Proceedings; Incorporation; Consolidation; Boundaries, etc.; Exception

Sec. 1. All cities (except home rule cities), towns and villages in this State, heretofore incorporated under the general laws of this State, whether under the aldermanic, commission, or council form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities, towns or villages since the date of their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated, ratified and confirmed as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities, towns and villages shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in compliance with law.

Sec. 2. In each instance where a charter or amendment or amendments to a charter of a home rule city has been (a) submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of such city at an election, and (b) a majority of the voters participating in such election of such city have approved the charter or amendment or amendments, and (c) the home rule city has functioned under the home rule charter or home rule charter as amended, the charter or the amendment or amendments to the home rule charter shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings required to adopt or amend home rule charters may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 3. In each instance where two or more incorporated cities (including home rule cities), towns or villages in this State have consolidated or attempted to consolidate under one government, and the question of consolidation has been approved by a majority of the electorate participating in the election in each of the cities sought to be consolidated, the consolidation or attempted consolidation of such cities is hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, and the consolidation of such cities, towns or villages shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings of consolidation may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 4. The boundary lines of all cities (including home rule cities), towns or villages, including the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation or consolidation and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body of any city (including home rule cities), town or village, including, but not limited to, the adoption of the provisions relating to cities and towns, and all offices and officers thereof since their incorporation, consolidation, adoption of a charter, or amendment or amendments to a home rule charter, are hereby in all respects validated, ratified and confirmed as of the respective dates of such proceedings; provided, however, any provision to the contrary of this Act shall not apply to the Acts of any city, town or village in this State, hereinafter incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of this State where such Acts come after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 6. In any instance where an incorporated city, town or village has changed its name by an election in which the question of the change of the name of such city, town or village has been submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of such city, and the majority of the voters of such city voting in such election have approved such change of name, such change of name is hereby validated, ratified and confirmed as of the date of such election, without regard to the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings involved in such change of name may not have been in compliance with law.

Sec. 7. The validation provisions of this Act shall not apply to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State on the effective date of this Act which litigation questions the legality of any of the matters which would otherwise be validated by the provisions hereof, if such litigation ultimately results in holdings or holding that the matters questioned thereby are invalid.

Art. 974d-7. Validation of Orders of County Judges Declaring Incorporation of Certain Cities, Towns or Villages; Boundaries; Elections and Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the County Judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village, incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof, as he finds such boundaries to exist at the time of entering such order, and finding and declaring the names of the officials of any such city, such order by the County Judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 2. Any city, town or village declared to be incorporated by an order as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act is hereby validated and declared to be a duly incorporated city with the boundaries as defined in such order, and the act of the governing body thereof in accepting the provisions of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, relating to cities and towns is hereby validated and the officials named in such order are hereby declared to have been the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of such city at the time of the entry of said order, and all elections held for the election of city officials are hereby validated and ratified.

Sec. 3. Any election held heretofore but after the entry of such order by the County Judge resulting favorably to the issuance of bonds of such city, town or village is hereby validated and shall constitute sufficient authority for the governing body to proceed with the issuance of the bonds thus voted.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not apply to any municipality which is now involved in litigation in any District Court of this State, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization, incorporation or creation of such municipality is attacked; and this Act shall not apply to any municipality involved in formal proceedings now pending before such municipality's commission or council in which proceedings the organization or creation of such municipality is attacked. Provided further, that this Act shall not apply to any municipality which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status. [Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 208, ch. 96.]

Art. 974d-8. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Adoption of Home Rule Charter; Cities and Towns of 5,100 to 5,300

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not less than 5100 nor more than 5300, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may have not been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all offices thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The proceedings for the adoption and adopting or attempting to adopt a Home Rule Charter for any such city or town in this state heretofore incorporated or attempting to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not less than 5100 nor more than 5300, where any legal step required to make such adoption effective has been omitted or was done in an irregular manner and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of said charter are in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of said city under the constitution and laws of this state. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 974d-9. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Adoption of Home Rule Charter; Cities and Towns of Not More Than 6,000

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not more than six thousand (6,000), whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may have not been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns covered by the original incorporation proceedings are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings other than annexation proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all offices thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The proceedings for the adoption and adopting or attempting to adopt a Home Rule Charter for any such city or town in this state heretofore incorporated or attempting to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not more than six thousand (6,000), where any legal step required to make such adoption effective has been omitted or was done in an irregular manner and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of said charter are in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of said city under the Constitution and laws of this state. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city, other than acts pertaining to annexation, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 974d-10. Validation of Incorporation; Elections; Governmental Proceedings; Adoption of Home Rule Charter; Exceptions; Cities, Towns or Villages

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of any city, town or village in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the Aldermanic form of government or the Commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation and the incorporation of any such city, town or village shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may have not been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the county judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof, as such boundaries were originally intended, together with territory annexed prior to any such order, and finding and declaring the names of the officials of any such city, such order by the county judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town, or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body of any such city, town or village and all offices thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings. Any election held in such city, town or village resulting favorably to the issuance of bonds is hereby validated, and the governing body thereof is authorized to proceed with the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 4. The proceedings for the adoption and adopting or attempting to adopt a Home Rule Charter for any and each city or town in this state where any legal step required to make such adoption effective has been omitted or was done in an irregular manner and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of any and each such charter are in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of said city and each such city under the Constitution and laws of this state. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of each such city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not apply to any city, town or village which is now or was heretofore involved in litigation questioning in any District Court of this state, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, the validity or legality of the charter, organization, incorporation, boundaries, extension of boundaries, or creation of such city, town or village. Nor shall this Act validate any act or proceedings of any city, town or village which upon the effective date of this Act is the subject of litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction. This Act shall neither validate any act or proceedings of any city, town or village done subsequent to October 1, 1962, nor shall the Act operate to affect any ordinance or ordinances annexing territory that have been passed on first or subsequent readings by a city, town or village prior to the passage of this Act. This Act shall not apply to any such extensions, acts or proceedings of any city, town or village if such extensions, acts or proceedings have been later rescinded.

Sec. 6. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, or for other reasons void or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence or part of this Act.

Art. 974d-11. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Cities Within Extraterritorial Jurisdiction of Other Cities; Litigation

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this State heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town incorporated or attempted to be incorporated from and after August 23, 1963, which is situated in whole or in part within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, unless consent or permission to incorporate was obtained in the manner prescribed by Chapter 160, Article I, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, the Municipal Annexation Act, compiled as Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-12. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Home Rule Cities and Towns of 6,900 to 7,100

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all home-rule cities and towns having a population of 6,900 to 7,100 and all cities and towns in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof, are hereby in all things validated. No boundary extension of any kind shall be deemed invalid by failure to comply with requirements of publication, whether such requirements are imposed by statute, general law or charter, and such extensions are hereby in all things validated. In the event of multiple annexations covering the same territory, the proceedings prior in time shall prevail despite any irregularities hereby validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-13. Validation of Incorporation; Charters and Amendments of Cities of More Than 5,000; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Revenue Bonds; Exceptions

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of cities and towns (including home rule cities) heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. That each charter, and amendment to a charter adopted by any city of more than 5,000 inhabitants in this state, or where such city has amended or attempted to amend or adopt such charter, since the enactment of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, and as thereafter amended, relating to home rule, and all of the amendments and proceedings had under same, that all bonds issued under any amendment where said bonds issued under any amendment have been approved by the attorney general and registered with the comptroller of public accounts, are hereby fully validated, ratified and confirmed and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as if adopted in strict compliance with all of the requirements of said Chapter 147, Acts of the 33rd Legislature and as thereafter amended and the general laws of Texas relating thereto.

Sec. 3. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 4. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 5. Where any city in the state which operated under the general law or pursuant to a home rule charter has heretofore at an election submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purposes stated in such propositions, such bonds being payable from the revenues stated in such propositions or payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied therefor, and such propositions having carried by the vote of a majority of the persons voting in such election, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the pertinent statutes and all proceedings heretofore had by any such city to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of Section 11 of Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (irrespective of the location of the improvements to be constructed or acquired with bond proceeds) are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of such bonds. All of such proceedings relating to the authorization of bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town incorporated or attempted to be incorporated from and after August 23, 1963, which is situated in whole or in part within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, unless consent or permission to incorporate was obtained in the manner prescribed by Chapter 160, Article I, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, the Municipal Annexation Act, compiled as Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-14. Validation of Boundary Lines; Cities and Towns of 5,270 to 5,350

Sec. 1. This Act applies to cities and towns incorporated under the general laws of this state and having a population of not less than 5,270 and not more than 5,350 inhabitants and being situated in a county having a population less than 50,000 inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of the cities and towns, including the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by subsequent extensions of the boundaries, are validated.

Sec. 3. No boundary extension is invalid for failure to comply with the provisions and requirements of the Municipal Annexation Act. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1021, ch. 331, eff. May 27, 1969.]

Art. 974d-15. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines, and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Cities and Towns of 215 to 217

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas having a population of not less than 215 nor more than 217 according to the last federal census, heretofore incorporated under a special Act of the Legislature and thereafter adopting or attempting to adopt the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as provided in Article 961, thereof, and which have functioned as incorporated cities or towns since the adoption or attempted adoption of the said provisions of Title 28 either under the aldermanic, commission, or council form of government, are hereby in all respects validated, ratified and confirmed as of the date of such adoption or attempted adoption of the said provisions of Title 28; and the adoption of said provisions of Title 28 shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact the proceedings or findings of the governing bodies of said cities or towns may not have been in compliance with the law.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation and the adoption or attempted adoption of the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 3. All cities and towns in Texas having a population of not less than 215 nor more than 217, according to the last federal census, and heretofore incorporated under a special Act of the Legislature and thereafter adopting or attempting to adopt the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, which have extended or attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town to include territory, the majority of the inhabitants of said territory qualified to vote for members of the State Legislature having voted in favor of becoming a part of said town or city, are hereby in all respects ratified, validated and confirmed as of the date of such annexation or attempted annexation, as fully and completely as if said action had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given, and such extension of boundaries and all proceedings had in connection therewith shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law nor because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes, provided, however, that the annexed area does not include any area that was validly within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another incorporated city or town at the time of such annexation.

Sec. 4. The validation provisions of this Act shall not apply to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state on the effective date of this Act which litigation questions the legality of any of the matters which would otherwise be validated by the provisions hereof, if such litigation ultimately results in holdings or holding that the matters questioned thereby are invalid.

Sec. 5. If any part or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder hereof and the application of such part or provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 6. As used in this Act, "the last federal census" means the 1970 census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes.

Art. 974d-16. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 1,500 to 1,800

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of more than one thousand five hundred (1,500) and less than one thousand eight hundred (1,800) inhabitants, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of Texas, under the Commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation, and where there was an overlapping of territory with another city or town at the time of such incorporation and which overlapping of territory has been corrected by an ordinance of either of such cities or towns, are hereby in all respects validated, as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid on account of such overlapping of territory at the time of such original incorporation.

Sec. 2. That the boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings, as corrected by such city ordinance, or by any subsequent extension thereof, are in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Art. 974d-17. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Cities and Towns of 300 to 750

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in this state with not more than 750 inhabitants, nor less than 300 inhabitants, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation.

Art. 974d-18. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 1,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of 1,000 inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated under the terms and provisions of the general laws of the State of Texas under the aldermanic form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities or towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation, or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of those cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of the city or town.

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of all cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof are in all things validated, and the incorporation of the cities and towns or any subsequent extension of the corporate limits of the cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in the limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of the proceedings and acts.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in quo warranto questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Sec. 5. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, or provision of this Act is declared unconstitutional, it is the intention of the legislature that the remaining provisions thereof shall be effective, and that such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.

Art. 974d-19. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Cities and Towns Under 10,000

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this state with a population of less than 10,000 heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof by annexation are hereby in all things validated; provided, however, that no provisions of this Act shall validate any boundary line extended by annexation, which extends into or through the extraterritorial jurisdiction [as that term is defined by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)], of any other city or town.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town incorporated or attempted to be incorporated from and after August 23, 1963, which is situated in whole or in part within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, unless consent or permission to incorporate was obtained in the manner prescribed by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 5. The provisions of the Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974e. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities or Towns of 4,190 to 4,250 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than four thousand one hundred and ninety (4,190) inhabitants, and not more than four thousand two hundred and fifty (4,250) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five and not more than thirty days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-1. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities or Towns of 1251 to 1259 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, or the Board of Trustees of any school or schools which occupy such territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than twelve hundred fifty-one (1251) and not more than twelve hundred fifty-nine (1259) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census; may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments of deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-2. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 20,520 to 20,540 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, or the Board of Directors of any University or College, which occupies such territory, which is vacant and without residents contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than twenty thousand five hundred and twenty (20,520) nor more than twenty thousand five hundred and forty (20,540) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinance of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments of deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-3. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 14,100 to 14,950 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than fourteen thousand, one hundred (14,100) inhabitants and not more than fourteen thousand, nine hundred and fifty (14,950) inhabitants, according to the Federal Census last preceding the exercise of the power herein granted, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city, and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation owning each part of such land and territory sought to be annexed shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by the owners of such land shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-4. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 1,583 to 1,602 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than one thousand, five hundred and eighty-three (1,583) inhabitants and not more than one thousand, six hundred and two (1,602) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every owner of such land and territory sought to be annexed shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every owner of such land, shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-5. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities or Towns of 900 to 920 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, or the Board of Trustees of any public school, which occupies such territory, which is vacant and without residents contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than nine hundred (900) nor more than nine hundred and twenty (920) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinance of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments of deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-6. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 3,944 to 3,964

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, or the Board of Trustees of any public school, which occupies such territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this state having a population of not less than three thousand nine hundred and forty-four (3,944) nor more than three thousand nine hundred and sixty-four (3,964) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinance of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments of deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-7. Annexation of Vacant Land to City of 2,315 to 2,400

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than two thousand, three hundred and fifteen (2,315) inhabitants, and not more than two thousand, four hundred (2,400) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city, and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-8. Annexation of Levee Improvement District; Effect; Contracts

Sec. 1. Any city, including Home Rule cities and those operating under General Laws or special charters, having a population in excess of four hundred twenty-five thousand (425,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, which has heretofore annexed or may hereafter annex all of the territory within a levee improvement district organized under the laws of the State of Texas, shall take over the properties and assets and shall assume all debts, liabilities and obligations and perform all functions and services of such district, and such district shall be abolished. No abolishment of such levee improvement district shall affect or impair any existing contracts by and between such levee improvement district and any flood control district or other governmental agency for operation or maintenance of levees or other flood control works, but the city shall assume the rights and obligations of the levee improvement district under such contract or contracts. In the event of annexation of the whole district, and the taking over of the assets and liabilities of such a district, the annexing city shall have the power and authority to refund, in whole or in part, any outstanding bonded indebtedness and provide for a sufficient sinking fund to meet the refunding bonds if any are issued.

When less than all of the territory within any such district is so annexed, the governing authorities of such city and district shall be authorized to enter into contracts in regard to the division and allocation of duplicate and overlapping powers, functions and duties between such agencies, and in regard to the use, management, control, purchase, conveyance, assumption and disposition of the properties, assets, debts, liabilities and obligations of such district; provided, however, that the amount of taxes levied by the levee improvement district against any parcel of real estate hereafter so annexed shall be credited against any ad valorem taxes levied against such parcel of real estate by the city. Any such district is expressly authorized to enter into agreements with such city for the operation of the district's utility systems and other properties by such city, and may provide for the transfer, conveyance or sale of such systems and properties of whatever kind and wherever situated (including properties outside the city) to such city upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by and between the governing bodies of such district and city. Such operating contracts may extend for such period of time not exceeding thirty (30) years as may be stipulated therein and shall be subject to amendment, renewal or termination by mutual consent of such governing bodies. No such contract shall contain any provision impairing the obligation of any existing contract of such city or district.

In the absence of such contract, the district shall be authorized to continue to exercise all the powers and functions and be required to discharge such duties and obligations granted to it, or imposed upon it, by law, wholly unaffected by the annexation. The annexing city shall not be required or be obligated to perform any drainage functions in the district; provided however, that the city may, with the consent of the district, construct and maintain drainage facilities therein consistent with the plan of reclamation of such district. The city may, however, perform all other municipal functions which it is authorized to perform and in which the district is not engaged, nor authorized to perform.

Sec. 2. If any clause, phrase, sentence, paragraph, section or provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any particular person or thing, is held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act or the application thereof to any other person or thing.

Art. 974f. Annexation of Streets, Highways and Alleys by Cities and Towns of 1245 to 1260; Procedure

All cities and towns within the State of Texas, having a population of not less than twelve hundred and forty-five (1245) and not more than twelve hundred and sixty (1260), according to the last preceding census, may, by ordinance duly passed and enacted by the governing bodies of such cities and towns, after the same shall have been advertised as provided by Article 1013 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, annex streets, highways, and alleys adjacent to the city limits of such cities and towns, and incorporate such highways, streets, and alleys within the corporate limits of such cities and towns.

Art. 974f-1. Annexation of Streets, Highways and Alleys by Cities of 15,900 to 16,000

Sec. 1. Any city incorporated and operating under the general laws of this State, having not less than 15,900 inhabitants nor more than 16,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census may, by ordinance duly passed and enacted by its governing body, annex streets, highways, and alleys contiguous and adjacent to the city limits, and incorporate such streets, highways, and alleys within the corporate limits of the city.

Sec. 2. Before the governing body of a city may pass and enact the ordinance described in Section 1 of this Act, the governing body must advertise the ordinance as provided by Article 1013, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Art. 974f-2. Annexation of Adjacent Streets, Highways and Alleys by Cities of 4,140 to 4,160

Sec. 1. Any city incorporated and operating under the general laws of this state, having a population of not less than 4,140 but less than 4,160 according to the last preceding federal census may, by ordinance duly passed and enacted by its governing body, annex streets, highways, and alleys contiguous and adjacent to the city limits, and incorporate those streets, highways, and alleys within the corporate limits of the city.

Sec. 2. Before the governing body of a city may pass and enact the ordinance described in Section 1 of this Act, the governing body must advertise the ordinance as provided by Article 1013, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Art. 974g. Annexation by Cities of Territory Occupied by Less Than Three Voters

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land or territory, to the extent of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mile in width, which is vacant and without residents, or on which less than three (3) qualified voters reside, contiguous and adjacent to any incorporated city or town within this State, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city or town request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds, said petition to be duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in said land. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of such city or town. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of such city or town, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city or town, and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city or town. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city or town is situated.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject of annexation of land or territory by incorporated cities and towns in the State.

Art. 974-1. Annexation by Petition and Election

Territory adjoining the limits of any city having a population greater than 5,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, and operating under the General Laws of Texas, may become a part of such city in the following manner:

The inhabitants of such territory may petition said city to order an election to be held within such territory for the purpose of voting upon the question of whether such territory shall become a part of such city. Such petition shall contain a metes and bounds description of the territory, which shall not be more than one mile in width, be accompanied by a plat of the territory, and shall be signed by 100, or more, or by a majority, of the qualified electors residing within such territory. Upon the filing of such petition with the City Secretary or City Clerk of such city, the City Council may, by ordinance, order such election so requested. Such ordinance shall specify the day on which such election shall be held, designate the place or places for holding such election, appoint the election officers, and prescribe the form of the ballot. Ten days notice of such election shall be given by posting a copy of such ordinance, certified by the City Secretary or City Clerk, in three public places in said territory, and by publishing the same for one time in some newspaper published in such territory or in such city. Such election shall be held in the manner prescribed for general city elections; only qualified electors residing within such territory shall be permitted to vote and the cost of such election shall be paid by such city. Returns of such election shall be made to the City Council of such city, and shall be canvassed and the result of such election declared by the City Council by an order entered in its minutes, which order shall be conclusive of the authority to annex such territory to such city. Should the results of such election show a majority in favor of becoming a part of such city, such City Council may by ordinance receive such territory as a part of such city. Thereafter, the territory so received shall be a part of such city, and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this title.

Art. 974-2. Contest of Annexation Proceeding

To contest the validity of any annexation proceeding had under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act,¹ such contestant shall, within 60 days after the effective date of the ordinance annexing such territory, file with the City Secretary or City Clerk of such city, written notice and a written statement of the grounds on which such contestant relies to sustain such contest. In the event no such contest is filed with the City Secretary or City Clerk in the manner and within the time above stated, it shall be conclusively presumed that said election as held and the results thereof as declared by the City Council or City Commission, are in all respects valid and final and binding upon all courts. The provisions of Chapter 9, Title 50, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, and amendments thereto, not in conflict herewith, shall be applicable to all proceedings contesting the validity of any annexation proceeding had under Section 1 hereof, so far as applicable.

Art. 975. Segregating Territory

Whenever fifty qualified voters of any territory within the limits of any incorporated town shall sign and present a petition to the mayor of such city, praying that such territory, setting the same out by metes and bounds, be declared no longer a part of such town, the mayor thereof shall order an election within thirty days thereafter to be held at the different voting precincts of said town; and if a majority of the legal voters of said town voting at such election cast their votes in favor of discontinuing said territory as a part of said town, the mayor of said city shall declare such territory no longer a part of said city, and shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city council; and from and after the date of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said town; provided, no city or town shall thus be reduced to a less area than one square mile or one mile in diameter around the center of the original corporate limits.

Art. 976. Liable for Debts

Whenever any territory shall withdraw as above provided, and such city or town shall at the time of such withdrawal owe any debts by bond or otherwise, such withdrawing territory shall not be released from the payment of its pro rata of such indebtedness; but it shall be the duty of said city council to continue to levy an ad valorem tax each year on the property of such territory of the same rate as is levied upon other property of such city, until the taxes collected from said territory shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city or town at the time of the withdrawal. The taxes so collected shall be charged only with the cost of levying and collecting the same, and the same shall be applied exclusively to the payment of said pro rata share of indebtedness. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the inhabitants of said territory from paying in full, at any time, their pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city.

Art. 976a. Zoning Ordinances Upon Annexation

Sec. 1. From and after the effective date of this Act, before any municipal corporation or city existing, or which may hereafter come into existence, as provided by Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of this State, and which municipal corporation or city has in effect a comprehensive zoning ordinance as prescribed by the State Statutes, may be annexed to or incorporated into another such municipal corporation or city, the annexation ordinance or consolidation proceedings combining or incorporating such zoned territory, shall provide for and adopt the identical comprehensive zoning for such zoned territory as same existed prior to any such annexation to or incorporation by another or new municipal corporation. Any attempted annexation or incorporation of such zoned territory without an ordinance adopting the comprehensive zoning as the same existed prior to incorporation of such territory into a larger or another municipal area shall render any such attempted proceedings void. Such zoning ordinance shall be administered and enforced by the governing body within the combined municipal boundaries, as provided by law.

Sec. 2. Thereafter such zoning ordinance as adopted in the incorporation or annexation ordinance shall not be repealed, altered or amended except by an election at which only the qualified voters residing in the zoned territory as it existed prior to being consolidated shall be eligible to vote.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to permit consolidation or annexation of any such municipal corporation or city without a vote of the people thereof, as now provided by law.

Sec. 4. If any word, clause, sentence or Section of this Act shall be declared invalid, such holding shall not affect any other word, clause, sentence or Section of this Act.

Art. 976b. Ascertainment of Population; Validation of Acts

All actions of the governing bodies of incorporated cities and towns in this State to ascertain the population of any such city or town which are evidenced by resolution or ordinance entered in its minutes, and all elections, election orders and other proceedings of every nature and kind in any manner dependent upon population affecting any such city or town are in all things ratified and confirmed, regardless of the population of such city or town as shown by the last Federal Census.

Art. 976c. Validation of Certain Contracts of Cities of 900,000

Sec. 1. This Act is applicable only to cities (including Home Rule Cities) having a population in excess of 900,000, according to the last preceding Federal Census or any future Federal Census.

Sec. 2. In every instance where the governing body of an incorporated city (including Home Rule Cities) in this State has, prior to the date when this Act becomes effective, entered into contracts involving terms in excess of five (5) years for the use of land or interest in land owned or to be acquired by such city and for the purchase of services related to garbage disposal and for the disposal of garbage on a contract basis and has, prior to the date when this Act becomes effective, adopted orders or ordinances to authorize or ratify execution of such contracts, all such contracts and all proceedings, governmental acts, ordinances, orders, resolutions and other instruments thus adopted or executed by or in behalf of the governing body of any such incorporated city (including Home Rule Cities) relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract executed by any city (including Home Rule Cities) the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 3. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the enactment of this legislation is in fulfillment of the duty conferred upon it by the Constitution of the State of Texas wherein it is required to pass such laws as may be appropriate for the promotion of the health and public welfare of the inhabitants of this State, and that the contracts and proceedings hereby ratified, confirmed and validated and the contracts hereby authorized to be negotiated are for the protection and preservation of the health and public welfare of the inhabitants of this State, and that the matters herein set forth and the subject matter of this legislation are of public convenience, necessity and use, and essential to the accomplishment of such purposes and that this Act therefore operates on a subject in which the State and the public at large are interested and that this legislation is for a public purpose and use and promotes the public interest and welfare of this State.

Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., H.C.R. No. 15, p. 32, provides in part as follows: "Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the 59th Legislature of Texas, 1st Called Session, the Senate concurring, clarify that the legislative intent in passing House Bill No. 869, Chapter 314, Acts of the Fifty-ninth Legislature, Regular Session, was not to authorize the diversion of bond funds or any other action contrary to the charter and ordinances of the city concerned or of the statutes of the State of Texas, save and except the right to enter contracts for longer than five years' duration."

The municipal government of the city shall consist of a city council composed of the mayor and two (2) aldermen from each ward, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except at called meetings, or meetings for the imposition of taxes, when two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of a full board shall be required, unless otherwise specified, provided that where the city or town is not divided into wards, the city council shall be composed of the mayor and five (5) aldermen, and the provisions of this title relating to proceedings in a ward shall apply to a whole city or town. The above-named officers shall be elected by the qualified electors of the city for a term of two (2) years. Other officers of the corporation shall be a treasurer, an assessor and collector, a secretary, a city attorney, a marshal, a city engineer, and such other officers and agents as the city council may from time to time direct, who may either be appointed or elected as provided by ordinance. The city council may confer the powers and duties of one or more of these offices upon other officers of the city.

Art. 978b. Joint Elections in Cities and School Districts

Whenever an election of members of the board of school trustees of any school district, all or part of which is located within all or part of the territory of any home rule city or general law city, is to be held on the same day as an election of city officers of such city, the various officers, boards or bodies charged with the duty of appointing the election officers, providing the supplies, canvassing the returns, and paying the expenses of such elections may agree to hold the elections jointly and may agree upon the method for allocating the expenses for the joint election. Resolutions reciting the terms of the agreement shall be adopted by each of the participating boards or bodies. The agreement may provide for use of a single ballot form at each polling place, to contain all the offices to be voted on at that polling place, or for separate ballot forms, provided that all the offices and candidates for each city shall appear on the same ballot and all the offices and candidates for each school district shall appear on the same ballot; provided further, that no voter shall be given a ballot containing the name of any candidate for whom the voter is ineligible to vote. One set of election officers may be appointed to conduct the joint election, and any person otherwise qualified who is a resident of either the city or school district concerned shall be eligible to serve as an election officer. Poll lists, tally sheets, and return forms for the various elections may be combined in any manner convenient and adequate to record and report the results of each election, and one set of ballot boxes and one stub box may be used for receiving all ballots and ballot stubs for the joint election. Returns on joint or separate forms may be made to, and the canvass made by, each officer, board or body designated by law to receive and canvass the returns of each election, or one of such officers, boards or bodies may be designated to receive and canvass the returns for the joint election and to report the results of each election to the proper authority. Where the counted ballots for two or more of the elections are deposited in a single ballot box, the box containing the counted ballots shall be returned to the officer or board designated in the agreement, which shall be an officer or board designated by law to receive and preserve the counted ballots for one of the elections constituting a part of the joint election.

Art. 979. Ward Election of Councilmen

At the first election under this title there shall be elected a mayor, and two aldermen from each ward, one of whom shall hold office for one year, and the other for two years from the date of their election, to be determined by lot at the first regular meeting after said election. At each annual election thereafter there shall be elected one alderman from each ward, who shall hold office for two years. If the city or town is not divided into wards, the city council may determine by ordinance what number of aldermen shall go out of office in one year, and the manner of deciding which shall hold for the long term and which for the short term.

Art. 980. Conduct of the Election

The ballots for each ward shall be taken separately. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the election shall be held and the returns thereof shall be made and canvassed in accordance with the general laws pertaining to municipal elections, and the persons receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected. In the first election held hereunder, the two persons from the same ward receiving the highest number of votes in the city for aldermen of the wards for which they are candidates shall be declared elected aldermen of such wards.

Art. 980a. Election of Governing Body on Place System in Cities of 5,550 to 5,560

The governing body of a city with a population larger than 5,550 but smaller than 5,560, according to the last preceding federal census, may, by ordinance, provide that the members of the governing body shall be elected on the place system rather than the precinct system.

Art. 980b. Election of Aldermen by Place System in Cities and Towns not Divided into Wards

In any city or town not divided into wards and incorporated under the general laws, and which city or town elects its aldermen from the city at large, at least sixty (60) days prior to any regular city election the city council may by ordinance provide that aldermen shall be elected by the place system. As soon as possible after the enactment of such ordinance, the city council shall assign place numbers to the offices of aldermen then held by the incumbent members thereof. Thereafter, as terms of incumbent aldermen expire, any candidate for the office of alderman in any city election in such city or town shall file his application for a specific place on the council, such as, "Alderman, Place No. 1", "Alderman, Place No. 2", "Alderman, Place No. 3", "Alderman, Place No. 4", or "Alderman, Place No. 5." In such election the ballot shall show each office of alderman as a separate office by place number, with the name of each candidate printed thereon under the specific office for which he is a candidate.

Art. 983. Installation of Officers

The newly elected officers may enter upon their duties on the fifth day thereafter, Sundays excepted. If any such officer fails to qualify within thirty days after his election, his office shall be deemed vacant, and a new election held to fill the same. The city council-elect shall meet at the usual place of meeting on the fifth day, Sundays excepted, after their election or as soon thereafter as possible, and be installed under the provisions of this title.

Arts. 984 to 986. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, §§ 119, 121.

Art. 987. Qualifications of Officers

No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor unless he is a qualified elector and has resided twelve months next preceding the election within the city limits. To be eligible for aldermen, one must reside in the ward from which he may be elected at the time of his election. If any alderman removes from the ward in which he was elected, his office shall be deemed vacant.

Art. 988. Limitations of Councilmen

No member of the city council shall hold any other employment or office under the city government until¹ he is a member of said council, unless herein otherwise provided. No member of the city council, or any other officer of the corporation, shall be directly or indirectly interested in any work, business or contract, the expense, price or consideration of which is paid from the city treasury, or by an assessment levied by an ordinance or resolution of the city council, nor be the surety of any person having a contract, work or business with said city, for the performance of which security may be required, nor be the surety on the official bond of any city officer.

¹ So in enrolled bill. Probably should read "while".

Art. 989. Vacancy or Vacancies

In the event of a vacancy or vacancies from any cause in the office of mayor or alderman, such vacancy or vacancies may be filled as follows:

(a) If no more than one vacancy on the city council exists, a majority of the remaining members of the city council may fill such vacancy by appointment, such appointee to serve until the next regular city election; provided, however, in filling such vacancy, the mayor, if any, shall have a vote only in the event of a tie.

(b) In lieu of filling one vacancy on the city council by appointment as provided for in paragraph (a) above, a special election may be called to fill such vacancy.

(c) If two or more vacancies on the city council exist at the same time, a special election shall be called to fill such vacancies.

(d) Any special election to fill a vacancy or vacancies shall be ordered, held, and conducted in accordance with the general laws of the State of Texas.

(e) In the event of a vacancy in any other office in the city, the mayor or acting mayor shall fill such vacancy by appointment, to be confirmed by the city council.

Art. 990. Special Election

Whenever a vacancy occurs by resignation or otherwise, in the municipal offices of any incorporated city or town in this State, so that the vacancy cannot be filled under the charter of said city or town, or under the laws of this State now in force, then the commissioners court of said county in which said town or city is situated, upon a petition of not less than twenty-six tax paying voters living in such city, shall order an election to be held to fill such vacancy, giving notice of not less than ten days in the usual manner provided for such elections, which shall be held in like manner as similar elections and the officers so elected shall in like manner be qualified and installed.

Art. 991. Mayor Pro Tempore

At the first meeting of each new council, or as soon thereafter as practicable, one of the aldermen shall be elected president pro tempore, who shall hold his office for one year. In case of the failure, inability or refusal of the mayor to act, the president pro tempore shall perform the duties and receive the fees and compensation of the mayor.

Art. 992. Change of Wards

The wards of each city accepting the provisions of this title shall be and remain unchanged by its acceptance. The city council shall have power from time to time to cause a division of said city to be made into as many wards as they may deem necessary, and for the good of the inhabitants of said city, and may change the boundaries of the same. No such division or change shall be made unless it be done at least three months preceding the city election next ensuing; and said wards so established shall contain as far as practicable an equal number of voters.

Art. 993. Oath

Every person elected or appointed to fill an office under this title shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the official oath. The city council by ordinance may require such additional oath as it may deem best calculated to secure faithfulness in the performance of their duties by such officers.

Art. 994. Duties of Mayor

The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of said corporation, and shall be active at all times in causing the laws and ordinances of said city to be duly executed and put in force. He shall inspect the conduct of all subordinate officers in the government thereof, and, shall cause all negligence, carelessness and other violations of duty to be prosecuted and punished. He shall have power, if in his judgment the good of the city may require it, to summon meetings of the city council; and he shall communicate to that body such information and recommend such measures as may tend to the improvement of the finances, the police, health security, cleanliness, comfort, ornament and good government of said city.

Art. 995. Special Police Force

Whenever the mayor deems it necessary, in order to enforce the laws of the city, or to avert danger, or to protect life or property, in case of riot or any outbreak or calamity or public disturbance, or when he has reason to fear any serious violation of law or order, or any outbreak or any other danger to said city, or the inhabitants thereof, he shall summon into service as a special police force, all or as many of the citizens as in his judgment may be necessary. Such summons may be by proclamation or other order addressed to the citizens generally, or those of any ward of the city, or subdivision thereof, or may be by personal notification. Such special police force while in service, shall be subject to the orders of the mayor, shall perform such duties as he may require, and shall have the same power while on duty as the regular police force of said city.

Art. 996. Powers of the Mayor

The mayor shall have power to administer oaths of office. He shall have authority in case of a riot or any unlawful assemblage, or with a view to preserve peace and good order in said city, to order and enforce the closing of any theatre, ball room, or other place of resort, or public room or building, and may order the arrest of any person violating in his presence, the laws of this State, or any ordinance of the city. He shall perform such other duties and possess and exercise such other power and authority as may be prescribed and conferred by the city council.

Art. 997. Ordinances and Resolutions

All ordinances and resolutions adopted by the council shall, before they take effect, be placed in the office of the city secretary; and the mayor shall sign those he approves. Such as he shall not sign, he shall return to the city council with his objections thereto. Upon the return of any ordinance or resolution by the mayor, the vote by which the same was passed shall be reconsidered. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of the whole number of aldermen agree to pass the same, and enter their votes on the journal of their proceedings, it shall be in force. If the mayor shall neglect to approve or object to any such proceedings for a longer period than three days after the same shall be placed in the secretary's office as aforesaid, the same shall go into effect.

Art. 998. Police Officers

The city or town council in any city or town in this State, incorporated under the provisions of this title may, by ordinance, provide for the appointment, term of office and qualifications of such police officers as may be deemed necessary. Such police officers so appointed shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, as shall be fixed by the city council. Such council may, by ordinance, provide that such police officers shall hold their office at the pleasure of the city council, and for such term as the city council directs. Such police officers shall give bond for the faithful performance of their duties, as the city council may require. Such officers shall have like powers, rights, authority and jurisdiction as are by said title vested in city marshals. Such police officers may serve all process issuing out of a corporation court anywhere in the county in which the city, town or village is situated. If the city, town or village is situated in more than one county, such officers may serve the process throughout those counties.

Art. 998a. Police Reserve Force

(a) The governing body of any city, town, or village may provide for the establishment of a police reserve force. Members of the police reserve force, if authorized, shall be appointed at the discretion of the chief of police and shall serve as peace officers during the actual discharge of official duties.

(b) The governing body shall establish qualifications and standards of training for members of the police reserve force, and may limit the size of the police reserve force.

(c) No person appointed to the police reserve force may carry a weapon or otherwise act as a peace officer until he has been approved by the governing body. After approval, he may carry a weapon only when authorized by the Chief of Police, and when discharging official duties as a duly constituted peace officer.

(d) Members of the police reserve force serve at the discretion of the chief of police and may be called into service at any time the chief of police considers it necessary to have additional officers to preserve the peace and enforce the law.

(e) Members of the police reserve force may serve without compensation but the governing body may provide uniform compensation for members of the police reserve force. The compensation shall be based solely upon time served by a member of the police reserve force while in training for, or in the performance of, official duties.

(f) The governing body may provide hospital and medical assistance to a member of the police reserve force who sustains injury in the course of performing official duties in the same manner as provided by the governing body for a full time police officer, and reserve officers shall be eligible for death benefits as set out in Chapter 86, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6228f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize or permit a member of the police reserve force to become eligible for participation in any pension fund created pursuant to State statute to which regular officers may become a member by payroll deductions or otherwise.

(g) Reserve police officers shall act only in a supplementary capacity to the regular police force and shall in no case assume the full time duties of regular police officers without first complying with all requirements for such regular police officers.

(h) This Act does not limit the power of the mayor of any general-law city to summon into service a special police force, as provided by Article 995, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

5. 3. 72

Art. 999. Marshal, Duties, etc.

The marshal of the city shall be ex officio chief of police, and may appoint one or more deputies which appointment shall only be valid upon the approval of the city council. Said marshal shall, in person or by deputy, attend upon the corporation court while in session, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and process issued from said court. For the purpose of executing all writs and process issued from the corporation court, the jurisdiction of the marshal extends to the boundaries of the county in which the corporation court is situated. If the corporation court is in a city which is situated in more than one county, the jurisdiction of the marshal extends to all those counties. He shall have like power, with the sheriff of the county, to execute warrants; he shall be active in quelling riots, disorder and disturbance of the peace within the city limits and shall take into custody all persons so offending against the peace of the city and shall have authority to take suitable and sufficient bail for the appearance before the corporation court of any person charged with an offense against the ordinance or laws of the city. It shall be his duty to arrest, without warrant, all violators of the public peace, and all who obstruct or interfere with him in the execution of the duties of his office or who shall be guilty of any disorderly conduct or disturbance whatever; to prevent a breach of the peace or preserve quiet and good order, he shall have authority to close any theatre, ballroom or other place or building of public resort. In the prevention and suppression of crime and arrest of offenders, he shall have, possess and execute like power, authority, and jurisdiction as the sheriff. He shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers and authority as the city council may by ordinance require and confer, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State. The marshal shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may require. He shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, to be fixed by the city council. The governing body of any city or town having less than five thousand inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census, may by an ordinance, dispense with the office of marshal, and at the same time by such ordinance confer the duties of said office upon any peace officer of the county, but no marshal elected by the people shall be removed from his office under the provisions of this article.

Art. 999a. Marshal May be Dispensed With

The governing body of any city or town operating under the general laws having less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by ordinance, dispense with the office of marshal, and at the same time by such ordinance confer the duties of said office upon a city police officer to be appointed as the city council shall direct.

Art. 999b. Law Enforcement Officers; Inter-local Assistance

Sec. 1. "Municipality" as used herein means any city or town, including home-rule city or a city operating under the general law or a special charter. "Law enforcement officer" as used herein means any policeman, sheriff, or deputy sheriff, constable, or deputy constable, marshal, or deputy marshal.

Sec. 2. Any county or municipality shall have the power by resolution or order of its governing body to make provision for, or to authorize its major or chief administrative officer, chief of police or marshal to make provision for, its regularly employed law enforcement officers to assist any other county or municipality, when in the opinion of the mayor, or other officer authorized to declare a state of civil emergency in such other county or municipality, there exists in such other county or municipality a need for the services of additional law enforcement officers to protect the health, life, and property of such other county or municipality, its inhabitants, and the visitors thereto, by reason of riot, unlawful assembly characterized by the use of force and violence, or threat thereof by three or more persons acting together or without lawful authority, or during time of natural disaster or man-made calamity.

Sec. 2a. A county or municipality may by resolution or order of its governing body enter into an agreement with any neighboring municipality or contiguous county to form a mutual aid law enforcement task force to cooperate in the investigation of criminal activity and enforcement of the laws of this state. Peace officers employed by counties or municipalities entering into such agreements shall have only such additional investigative authority throughout the region as may be set forth in the agreement. The counties or municipalities shall provide for compensation of peace officers involved in the activities of a mutual aid law enforcement task force, which provision for compensation shall be contained in the agreement.

A law enforcement officer employed by a county or municipality covered by an agreement authorized by this section may make arrests outside the county or municipality in which he is employed, but within the area covered by the agreement, provided however, that the law enforcement agencies within such county or municipality shall be notified of such arrest without delay. Such notified agency shall make available the notice of such arrest in the same manner as if said arrest were made by a member of the law enforcement agency of said county or municipality.

Sec. 3. While any law enforcement officer regularly employed as such in one county or municipality is in the service of another county or municipality pursuant to this Act, he shall be a peace officer of such other county or municipality and be under the command of the law enforcement officer therein who is in charge in that county or municipality, with all the powers of a regular law enforcement officer in such other county or municipality, as fully as though he were within the county or municipality where regularly employed and his qualification, respectively, for office where regularly employed shall constitute his qualification for office in such other county or municipality, and no other oath, bond, or compensation need be made.

Sec. 4. Any law enforcement officer who is ordered by the official designated by the governing body of any county or municipality to perform police or peace duties outside the territorial limits of the county or municipality where he is regularly employed as such officer, shall be entitled to the same wage, salary, pension, and all other compensation and all other rights for such service, including injury or death benefits, the same as though the service had been rendered within the limits of the county or municipality where he is regularly employed, and shall also be paid for any reasonable expenses of travel, food, or lodging that he may incur while on duty outside such limits.

Sec. 5. All wage and disability payments, pension payments, damage to equipment and clothing, medical expense, and expenses of travel, food, and lodging shall be paid by the county or municipality regularly employing such law enforcement officer. Upon making such payments, the county or municipality that furnished the services shall, when it so requests, be reimbursed by the county or municipality whose authorized official requested the services out of which the payments arose. Each such county or municipality is hereby expressly authorized to make such payments and reimbursements notwithstanding any provision in its charter or ordinances to the contrary.

Art. 999c. Payment of Hospitalization Costs for Peace Officers and Firemen

Sec. 1. As used in this Act:

(1) "Peace officer" means a peace officer as defined in Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(2) "City" means an incorporated city or town, whether operated under a home-rule charter or incorporated under the general laws of this state.

Sec. 2. If a peace officer or fireman employed by a city sustains an injury in the performance of his duties which results in permanent incapacity for work and requires constant confinement in a hospital or other institution providing medical treatment, the city may pay all costs of such confinement in excess of amounts which are paid under any policy of insurance or by another governmental entity.

Sec. 3. To the extent it is permitted to make payments under this Act, the city is sub-rogated to the rights of the peace officer or fireman in a suit against a third party because of the injury.

Sec. 4. To receive funds under this Act, a peace officer or fireman must furnish the governing body of the city:

(1) proof that he sustained an injury in the course of his duties resulting in permanent incapacity for work and requiring constant confinement for medical treatment;

(2) proof of the portion of the cost of confinement not paid under any policy of insurance or by another governmental entity; and

(3) any other information or evidence required by the governing body.

Sec. 5. This Act does not permit payment of costs of constant confinement for medical treatment incurred prior to the effective date of the Act.

Art. 1000. Secretary, Duties, etc.

The city secretary shall attend every meeting of the city council, and keep accurate minutes of the proceedings thereof in a book to be provided for that purpose, and engross and enroll all laws, resolutions and ordinances of the city council, keep the corporate seal, take charge of and preserve and keep in order all the books, records, papers, documents and files of said council, countersign all commissions issued to city officers, and licenses issued by the mayor, and keep a record or register thereof, and make out all notices required under any regulation or ordinance of the city. He shall draw all the warrants on the treasurer and countersign the same and keep an accurate account thereof in a book provided for the purpose. He shall be the general accountant of the corporation, and shall keep in books regular accounts of the receipts and disbursements for the city, and separately, under proper heads, each cause of receipt and disbursement, and also accounts with each person including officers who have money transactions with the city, crediting accounts allowed by proper authority and specifying the particular transaction to which such entries apply. He shall keep a register of bonds and bills issued by the city, and all evidence of debt due and payable to it, noting the particulars thereof, and all facts connected therewith, as they occur. He shall carefully keep all contracts made by the city council; and he shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law, ordinance, resolution or order of the city council. He shall receive for his services an annual salary payable at stated periods, and such additional fees as the city council may allow.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1001. Treasurer, Duties, etc.

The treasurer shall give bond in favor of the city in such amount, and in such form as the city council may require, with sufficient security to be approved by the city council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. He shall receive and securely keep all moneys belonging to the city, and make all payments for the same upon the order of the mayor, attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation. No order shall be paid unless the said order shall show upon its face that the city council has directed its issuance, and for what purpose. He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments to the city council, at their first regular meeting in every quarter and whensoever, at other times, he may be required by them so to do. At the end of every half year he shall cause to be published, at the expense of the city, a statement showing the amount of receipts and expenditures for the six months next preceding, and the general condition of the treasury. He shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require. He shall receive such compensation as the city council shall fix.

Art. 1002. Control of Officers

The city council shall have power from time to time to require other and further duties of all officers whose duties are herein prescribed, and to define and prescribe the powers and duties of all officers appointed or elected to any office under this title whose duties are not herein specially mentioned, and fix their compensation. They may also require bonds to be given to the said corporation by all officers for the faithful performance of their duties. The city council shall provide for filling vacancies in all offices, not herein provided for. In all cases of vacancy, the same shall be filled only for the unexpired term.

Art. 1003. Qualifications of Appointee

No person other than an elector resident of the city shall be appointed to any office by the city council.

Art. 1004. Officer Disqualified

Any officer who has been intrusted with the collection or custody of funds belonging to a city who shall be in default to said city, shall thereafter be incapable of holding any office under said city, until the amount of his default shall have been fully paid to said city, with ten per cent interest.

Art. 1005. Resignation of Officers

Resignation by any officer authorized by this title to be elected or appointed shall be made to the city council in writing, subject to their approval and acceptance. Any appointee of the mayor may present his written resignation to that officer for his action.

Art. 1006. Removal of Officers

The city council shall have power to remove any officer for incompetency, corruption, misconduct or malfeasance in office, after due notice and an opportunity to be heard in his defense. The city council shall also have power at any time to remove any officer of the corporation elected by them, by resolution declaratory of its want of confidence in said officer; provided, that two-thirds of the aldermen elected vote in favor of said resolution.

Art. 1007. Presiding Officer

The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the city council, and shall have a casting vote, except in elections. If he and the president pro tem are absent, any alderman may be appointed to preside.

Art. 1008. Meetings

Petitions and remonstrances may be presented to the council in writing only. The city council shall hold stated meetings at such times and places as they shall by resolution direct. The mayor, of his own motion, or on the application of three aldermen, may call special meetings, by notice to each member of said council, the secretary and city attorney, served personally or left at their usual place of abode. The council shall determine the rules of its proceedings and be the judge of the election and qualification of its own members, and may compel the attendance of absent members and punish them for disorderly conduct.

Art. 1009. Attendance of Officers

Each alderman shall be fined three dollars for each meeting which he fails to attend, unless on account of his own sickness or that of his family. Any member of the city council remaining absent for three regular consecutive meetings of the board, unless prevented by sickness, without first having obtained leave of absence at a regular meeting, shall be deemed to have vacated his office, and the mayor shall proceed to fill the vacancy in accordance with the charter.

Art. 1010. Salary of Officers

The city council shall, on or before the first day of January next preceding each election, fix the salary and fees of office of the mayor to be elected at the next regular election, and fix the compensation to be paid to the officers elected or appointed by the city council. The compensation so fixed shall not be changed during the term for which said officers shall be elected or appointed.

Art. 1011. Powers

The City Council, or other governing body shall have power to pass, publish, amend or repeal all ordinances, rules and police regulations, not contrary to the Constitution of this State, for the good government, peace and order of the City and the trade and commerce thereof, that may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers vested by this title in the corporation, the city government or in any department or office thereof; to enforce the observance of all such rules, ordinances and police regulations, and to punish violations thereof. No fine or penalty shall exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

Art. 1011a. Grant of Power for Zoning

For the purpose of promoting health, safety, morals, and for the protection and preservation of places and areas of historical and cultural importance and significance, or the general welfare of the community, the legislative body of cities and incorporated villages is hereby empowered to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings, and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of the yards, courts, and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purpose; and, in the case of designated places and areas of historic and cultural importance, to regulate and restrict the construction, alteration, reconstruction, or razing of buildings and other structures.

Art. 1011b. Districts

For any or all of said purposes the local legislative body may divide the municipality into districts of such number, shape, and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this Act; and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures, or land. All such regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts.

Art. 1011c. Purposes in View

Such regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the streets; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, and other public requirements. Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout such municipality, and it is hereby provided that this Act shall not enable cities and incorporated villages aforesaid to require the removal or destruction of property, existing at the time such city or incorporated village shall take advantage of this Act, actually and necessarily used in a public service business. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 424, ch. 283, § 3.]

Art. 1011d. Method of Procedure

The legislative body of such municipality shall provide for the manner in which such regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established, and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented, or changed. However, no such regulation, restriction, or boundary shall become effective until after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least 15 days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in an official paper, or a paper of general circulation, in such municipality.

Art. 1011e. Changes

Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a written protest against such change, signed by the owners of 20 per cent or more either of the area of the lots or land included in such proposed change, or of the lots or land immediately adjoining the same and extending 200 feet therefrom, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the legislative body of such municipality. The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearing and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.

Art. 1011f. Zoning Commission

In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this Act, such legislative body shall appoint a commission, to be known as the Zoning Commission, to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. Such Commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report, and such legislative body shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such Commission; provided, however, that any city or town, by ordinance, may provide for the holding of any public hearing of the legislative body, after published notice required by Section 4 of this Act,¹ jointly with any public hearing required to be held by the Zoning Commission, but such legislative body shall not take action until it has received the final report of such Zoning Commission. Where a City Plan Commission already exists, it may be appointed as the Zoning Commission. Written notice of all public hearings before the Zoning Commission on proposed changes in classification shall be sent to owners of real property lying within two hundred (200) feet of the property on which the change in classification is proposed, such notice to be given, not less than ten (10) days before the date set for hearing, to all such owners who have rendered their said property for city taxes as the ownership appears on the last approved city tax roll. Such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the city post office. Where property lying within two hundred (200) feet of the property proposed to be changed is located in territory which was annexed to the city after the final date for making the renditions which are included on the last approved city tax roll, notice to such owners shall be given by publication in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Act. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 424, ch. 283, § 6; Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 205, ch. 111, § 1; Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 732, ch. 287, § 1; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 570, ch. 267, § 1.]

Art. 1011g. Board of Adjustment

(a) Such local legislative body may provide for the appointment of a Board of Adjustment, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this Act may provide that the said Board of Adjustment may, in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

(b) The Board of Adjustment shall consist of five (5) members, each to be appointed for a term of two (2) years and removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant. Provided, however, that the governing body of any city may, by charter provision or ordinance, provide for the appointment of four (4) alternate members of the Board of Adjustment who shall serve in the absence of one or more regular members when requested to do so by the mayor or city manager, as the case may be. All cases to be heard by the Board of Adjustment will always be heard by a minimum number of four (4) members. These alternate members, when appointed, shall serve for the same period as the regular members and any vacancies shall be filled in the same manner and shall be subject to removal as the regular members.

(c) The Board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this Act. Meetings of the Board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the Board may determine. Such chairman, or in his absence the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the Board shall be open to the public. The Board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon each question, or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be immediately filed in the office of the Board and shall be a public record.

(d) Appeals to the Board of Adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer, department, board, or bureau of the municipality affected by any decision of the administrative officer. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time, as provided by the rules of the Board, by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the Board of Adjustment a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the Board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

(e) An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the Board of Adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

(f) The Board of Adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

(g) The Board of Adjustment shall have the following powers:

1. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this Act or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.

2. To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such Board is required to pass under such ordinance.

3. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest, where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done.

(h) In exercising the above-mentioned powers such Board may, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from and make such order, requirement, decision or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

(i) The concurring vote of four (4) members of the Board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any such administrative official, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any such ordinance, or to effect any variation in such ordinance.

(j) Any person or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board or bureau of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal, in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within ten (10) days after the filing of the decision in the office of the Board.

(k) Upon presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review such decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney, which shall not be less than ten (10) days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the Board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

(l) The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

(m) If, upon the hearing, it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reverse or affirm wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

(n) Costs shall not be allowed against the Board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence, or in bad faith, or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

(o) All issues in any proceeding under this Section shall have preference over all other civil actions and proceedings.

Art. 1011h. Enforcement and Remedies

The local legislative body may provide by ordinance for the enforcement of this Act and of any ordinance or regulation made thereunder. A violation of this Act or of such ordinance or regulation is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and such local legislative body may provide for the punishment thereof by fine or imprisonment or both. It is also empowered to provide civil penalties for such violation.

In case any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired, converted, or maintained, or any building, structure, or land is used in violation of this Act or of any ordinance or other regulation made under authority conferred hereby, the proper local authorities of the municipality, in addition to other remedies, may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, conversion, maintenance, or use, to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, to prevent the occupancy of said building, structure, or land, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct, business, or use in or about such premises.

Art. 1011i. Buildings for Telephone Service Excepted

The provisions of this Act or of any ordinance of any city or town, enacted under the authority of this Act, shall not apply to the location, construction, maintenance or use of central office buildings of corporations, firms or individuals engaged in the furnishing of telephone service to the public, or to the location, construction, maintenance or use of any equipment in connection with such buildings or a part of such telephone system, necessary in the furnishing of telephone service to the public.

Art. 1011j. Conflict with Other Laws

Wherever the regulations made under authority of this Act require a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose higher standards than are required in any other statute or local ordinance or regulation, the provisions of the regulations made under authority of this Act shall govern. Wherever the provisions of any other statute or local ordinance or regulation requires a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or a less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required by the regulations made under authority of this Act, the provisions of such statute or local ordinance or regulation shall govern.

Art. 1011k. Neighborhood Zoning Areas in Cities over 290,000

The legislative body of any city having a population of more than 290,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, and which has adopted a comprehensive zoning ordinance under the law of the State of Texas, may by ordinance divide the city into such neighborhood zoning areas after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen days notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in an official paper or a paper of general circulation in such municipality. The Mayor of such city, with the approval of its legislative body, may thereupon appoint for each of said areas a Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council, consisting of five citizens residing in the area, who shall hold office for two years or until their successors are appointed and qualify. It shall be the duty of such Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council to furnish to the Zoning Commission of such city information, advice and recommendations with respect to all applications filed with the Zoning Commission for changes in the zoning regulations of such city affecting property within said area. As soon as any such application is filed with the Zoning Commission of the city, the Zoning Commission shall furnish the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council for the area which would be affected by such application if granted with a copy thereof, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council to hold a public hearing in relation thereto, giving at least ten days notice of the time and place of such hearing by publication in an official paper or a paper of general circulation in such municipality, and at or before the hearing on such application before the Zoning Commission it shall be the duty of the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council to furnish and submit to the Zoning Commission such information, advice and recommendations with respect to such application as it deems proper. Overruling of any recommendation of the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council with respect to the disposition of such application shall require the vote of at least three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the members of the Zoning Commission present.

Art. 1011l. Joint Municipal Planning in Certain Areas

Sec. 1. Each city (including home rule charter cities), town, or village incorporated under the laws of this State, or by special act or charter, is hereby authorized, by ordinance duly passed, to expend public funds from the municipal treasury for compiling statistics, conducting studies and formulating plans relative to the future growth and development of such municipality or municipalities.

Municipalities Subject to Act

Sec. 2. Municipalities located or situated in whole or in part within an area wherein the sphere of zoning influence of each municipality is adjacent or contiguous to the other may contribute, and/or expend, public funds from the municipal treasury, to a joint planning commission for the joint planning of the growth and development of two (2) or more of such municipalities that are located or situated in whole or in part within the sphere of influence of such planning commission.

Joint Planning Commission

Sec. 3. Municipalities affected by this Act shall, if they adopt the provisions hereof, by the governing bodies of each of such municipalities, appoint an equal number of representatives, from each of the municipalities affected hereby, to a joint planning commission, and it shall be the duty of such joint planning commission to meet and determine the sphere of influence of such planning commission which they shall describe by metes and bounds in writing and cause the same to be placed upon a map and the same shall be recorded for record with the county clerk of the county within which such municipalities are located or situated.

Powers and Duties of Commission

Sec. 4. The duties, powers and authorities of such joint planning commission, so appointed by the governing body of such municipalities, shall be as follows, as authorized by ordinances duly passed within each of such municipalities, to wit:

(a). To employ engineers, clerks, secretaries, field personnel, and administrative personnel as are necessary to formulate, prepare, and design an organized master plan for the area as designated.

(b). To prepare, formulate, and design an organized master plan for the area which such members represent, including, but not limited to, highway design, street layout, park layout, schooling areas, residential areas, business areas, commercial areas, industrial areas, and water reservoir areas, for the orderly growth of the area, such plan must be approved by each of the municipalities within the area.

(c). To make aerial photographs, land surveys, and topography studies to facilitate such planning.

(d). To keep and maintain a complete record of all activities, meetings, expenditures, and plans.

(e). To submit regular reports of income, expenditures, accounts, and progress reports to each municipality represented.

(f). All records, minutes, books, accounts and meetings shall be open to the public for attendance and/or examination.

(g). To prepare and submit to each municipality represented an annual audit of all accounts, expenditures, funds and moneys coming into the hands of said joint planning commission.

(h). To make all reports, accounts, and records as may be required by each of the municipalities represented, by ordinance or resolution duly passed.

(i). To perform such duties and functions as may be required by each of the municipalities represented, by ordinance or resolution duly passed where the same is approved by a majority of the governing bodies of such municipalities so represented and where such is not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act.

Authority Cumulative

Sec. 5. The authority granted and conferred in Sections 1 and 2 of this Act is cumulative of all other existing authority of municipalities to expend public funds from the municipal treasury for the purpose or purposes of municipal planning and this Act shall not be construed to limit such authority in any manner.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 423, ch. 202.]

Art. 1011m. Regional Planning Commissions Definitions

Sec. 1. A. "City" means any incorporated city, town or village in the State of Texas.

B. "Governmental Unit" means any county, city, town, village, authority, district or other political subdivision of the state.

C. "Commission" means a Regional Planning Commission, Council of Governments or similar regional planning agency created under this Act.

D. "Region," "Area," or "Regional" means a geographic area consisting of a county or two or more adjoining counties which have common problems of transportation, water supply, drainage or land use, similar, common or inter-related forms of urban development or concentration, or special problems of agriculture, forestry, conservation or other matters, or any combination thereof. It is the intention of this Act to permit the greatest possible flexibility among the various participating governmental units to organize and establish Commissions most suitable to the nature of the area problems as they see them.

E. "Comprehensive Development Planning Process" means the process of (1) assessing the needs and resources of an area; (2) formulating goals, objectives, policies and standards to guide its long-range physical, economic, and human resource development; and (3) preparing plans and programs therefor which (a) identify alternative courses of action and the spacial and functional relationships among the activities to be carried out thereunder, (b) specify the appropriate ordering in time of such activities, (c) take into account other relevant factors affecting the achievement of the desired development of the area, (d) provide an overall framework and guide for the preparation of function and project development plans, (e) make recommendations for long-range programming and financing of capital projects and facilities which are of mutual concern to two or more member governments, and (f) make such other recommendations as may be deemed appropriate.

F. "General purpose governmental unit" means a county or incorporated municipality.

Objectives

Sec. 2. The purpose of this Act is to encourage and permit local units of government to join and cooperate with one another to improve the health, safety and general welfare of their citizens; to plan for the future development of communities, areas, and regions to the end that transportation systems may be more carefully planned; that communities, areas, and regions grow with adequate street, utility, health, educational, recreational, and other essential facilities; that needs of agriculture, business, and industry be recognized; that residential areas provide healthy surroundings for family life; that historical and cultural value be preserved; and that the growth of the communities, areas, and regions is commensurate with and promotive of the efficient and economical use of public funds.

Creation

Sec. 3. (a) Any two or more general purpose governmental units may join in the exercise, performance, and cooperation of planning, powers, duties, and functions as provided by law for any or all such governmental units. When two or more such governmental units agree, by ordinance, resolution, rule, order, or other means, to cooperate in regional planning, they may establish a Regional Planning Commission. But nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit the powers of the participating governmental units as provided by existing law. The participating governmental units, by appropriate mutual agreement, may establish a Regional Planning Commission for a region designated in such agreement, provided that such region shall consist of territory under their respective jurisdictions, including extra-territorial jurisdiction.

(b) The geographic boundaries of Commissions established under this Act must be consistent with State Planning Regions or Subregions as delineated by the Governor and subject to review and modification at the end of each State biennium.

Powers

vision of this State, the general purpose of which is to make studies and plans to guide the unified, far-reaching development of the area, to eliminate duplication, and to promote economy and efficiency in the coordinated development of the area. The Commission may make plans for the development of the area which may include recommendations on major thoroughfares, streets, traffic and transportation studies, bridges, airports, parks, recreation sites, school sites, public utilities, land use, water supply, sanitation facilities, drainage, public buildings, population density, open spaces, and other items relating to the effectuation of the general purpose.

(b) The plans and recommendations of the Commission may be adopted in whole or in part by the respective governing bodies of the cooperating governmental units. The Commission may assist the participating governmental units individually or collectively in carrying out plans or recommendations developed by the Commission. The Commission may assist any participating governmental unit individually in the preparation or effectuation of local planning consistent with the general purposes of this Act.

(c) The Commission may contract with one or more of its member governments to perform any service which that government could, by contract, have any private organization without governmental powers perform, provided that such contract imposes no cost or obligation upon any member government not signatory thereto.

(d) A Commission may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold, sell or otherwise dispose of real and personal property. It may employ such staff, and consult with and retain such experts as it deems necessary. It may provide for retirement benefits for its employees by means of a jointly contributory retirement plan with an agency, firm, or corporation authorized to do business in this State. A Commission may participate in the Texas Municipal Retirement System, the State Employees Retirement System or the City, County, and District Retirement System when such established systems by legislation or administrative arrangement make such participation permissible.

(e) Agencies of the State government and of governmental units are authorized to detail or loan employees to a Commission on either a reimbursable or nonreimbursable basis as may be mutually agreed by the State agency or governmental unit and the Commission. During the period of loan or detail the person will continue to be an employee of the lending agency or unit for purposes of salary, leave, retirement and other personnel benefits but will work under the direction and supervision of the Commission. A loan or detail made pursuant to this section shall expire at the mutual consent of the loaning or detailing agency or governmental unit and the Commission.

(f) In each State Planning Region or Subregion in which a Commission has been organized, the governing body of each governmental unit within the Region or Subregion, whether or not such unit is a member of the Commission, shall submit to the Commission for review and comment any application for loans or grants-in-aid from agencies of the federal government (for a project for which the federal government at the time is requiring the review and comment of an areawide planning agency) or agencies of the State of Texas before such application is filed with the federal or State government. For federally-aided projects for which an areawide review is required by federal law or regulation, the Commission shall review such application from the standpoint of consistency with regional plans and such other considerations as may be specified in federal or State regulations and shall enter its comments upon the application, returning same to the originating governmental unit.

(g) With respect to other federally-aided projects and to State-aided projects, the Commission shall advise the governmental unit as to whether or not the proposed project for which funds are requested has region wide significance. If it does not have region wide significance, the Commission shall certify that it is not in conflict with the regional plan or policies. If it does have region wide significance, the Commission shall determine whether or not it is in conflict with the regional plan or policies. In making such determination, it may also consider whether the proposed project is properly coordinated with other existing or proposed projects within the region. The Commission shall thereupon record upon the application its views and comments and transmit the application to the originating governmental unit, with a copy to the federal or State agency concerned.

(h) The Governor shall issue guidelines to Commissions and governmental units to carry out the provisions of this Act relating to review and comment procedures.

(i) The Governor and agencies of the State shall provide such technical information and assistance to members of Commissions and their staffs as will increase to the greatest extent feasible the capabilities of such Commissions in discharging the various duties and responsibilities set forth in this Act.

Operations

Sec. 5. The cooperating governmental units may through joint agreement determine the number and qualifications of the governing body of the Commission. The governing body of the Commission shall consist of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) elected officials of general purpose governmental units. The joint agreement may provide for the manner of cooperation and the means and methods of the operation of the Commission. The joint agreement may provide a method for the employment of the staff and consultants, the apportionment of the cost and expenses, and the purchase of property and materials. The joint agreement may allow for the addition of other governmental units to the cooperative arrangement.

Funds

Sec. 6. (a) A Regional Planning Commission is authorized to apply for, contract for, receive and expend for its purposes any funds or grants from any participating governmental unit or from the State of Texas, federal government, or any other source.

(b) The Commission shall have no power to levy any character of tax whatever. The participating governmental units may appropriate funds to the Commission for the cost and expenses required in the performance of its purposes.

(c) A Commission which meets the conditions set forth below shall be annually eligible for a maximum amount of State financial assistance based on the formula: Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) base grant to each certified organization, plus an additional One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per dues paying member county, plus an additional ten cents ($.10) per capita for all population served of dues paying member counties and incorporated municipalities. The minimum amount of annual State financial assistance for which a Commission shall apply shall be Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00).

(d) A Commission to qualify for State financial assistance must have an amount of funds available annually from sources other than federal or state governments equal to or greater than one-half of the State financial assistance amount for which the Commission applies.

(e) In order to be eligible for State financial assistance, a Commission shall comply with the regulations of the agency responsible for administering this Act and shall:

(1) Offer membership in the Commission to all general purpose governments (counties and incorporated municipalities) included in the State Planning Region or Subregion;

(2) Be composed of two or more general purpose governments having a combined population equal to not less than sixty percent (60%) of the total population of the State Planning Region or Subregion, and for purposes of this Act the population of the county shall be the population outside any dues paying member incorporated municipality;

(3) Encompass a geographical area that is economically and geographically interrelated and which forms a logical planning area or region and includes at least one full county;

(4) Be engaged in a comprehensive development planning process.

Interstate Commissions

Sec. 7. With advance approval of the Governor, a Commission including a region or area which is contiguous to an area lying in another state may join with any similar commission or planning agency in such areas to form an interstate Regional Planning Commission or may permit the Commission in the contiguous area to participate in the planning functions of a Commission formed pursuant to this Act, and the funds provided under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act may be commingled with the funds provided by the state governments having jurisdiction over the contiguous areas.

International Areas

Sec. 8. With advance approval of the governor, a Commission in a region or area contiguous to areas in the Republic of Mexico may expend the funds available under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act in cooperation with agencies of the Republic of Mexico or its constituent states or local governments for planning studies encompassing areas lying both in this state and in contiguous territory of the Republic of Mexico.

Dissolution

Sec. 9. Unless it has been agreed to the contrary, any participating governmental unit may, by a majority vote of its membership qualified in serving, withdraw from its participation in any Regional Planning Commission.

The style of all ordinances shall be "Be it ordained by the city council of the city of _____" (inserting the name of the city); but it may be omitted when published in the form of a book or pamphlet.

Art. 1013. Publication of Ordinances

(1) Every ordinance imposing any penalty, fine or forfeiture shall, after the passage thereof, be published in every issue of the official paper for ten (10) days. If the official paper be published weekly, the publication shall be made in one issue thereof. Proof of such publication shall be made by the printer or publisher of such paper by affidavit filed with the city secretary, and shall be prima-facie evidence of such publication and promulgation of such ordinances in all courts of the State. Such ordinances shall take effect and be in force from and after the publication thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided. Ordinances not required to be published shall take effect from their passage, unless otherwise provided.

(2) In lieu of the publication required in Section (1) of this Article, the governing body may in its discretion provide for the publication of a descriptive caption or title, stating in summary the purpose of the ordinance and the penalty for violation thereof.

(3) Any town or city desiring to publish its ordinances in pamphlets or book form need not republish such ordinances as have been previously published. All such ordinances, where printed and published by authority of the city council, shall be admitted and received in all courts without further proof.

Art. 1014. May Remit Fines

The city or town council shall have power to remit in whole or in part by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, any fine or penalty belonging to the city, which may be imposed or incurred under this title, or under any ordinance or resolution passed in pursuance thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1015. Other Powers

The governing body shall also have power:

1. Promotion of health.—To do all acts and make all regulations which may be necessary or expedient for the promotion of health or the suppression of disease.

2. Quarantine regulations.—To make regulations to prevent the introduction of contagious disease into the city; to make quarantine laws for that purpose, and to enforce them within the city and within ten miles thereof.

3. Joint sanitary regulations.—To co-operate with the commissioners' court of the county in which the municipality is situated in making such improvements as may, by it and said court, be deemed necessary to improve the public health and promote efficient sanitary regulations, and to arrange for the construction of, and payment for, said improvements.

4. Hospitals.—To erect or establish one or more hospitals, and control and regulate the same, and to prohibit or to permit and regulate the establishment of private hospitals.

5. Food inspection, etc.—To regulate the inspection of beef, pork, flour, meal, salt and other provisions; to appoint weighers, gaugers and inspectors, and to prescribe their duties and regulate their fees.

6. Sale of bread.—To regulate the weight and quality of the bread to be sold or used within the city.

7. Butchers.—To make such rules and regulations in relation to butchers as they may deem necessary and proper.

8. Unclean establishments.—To compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, soap, tallow, or Chandler establishment, or blacksmith shop, tannery, stable, slaughterhouse, sewers, privy, hide house or other unwholesome or nauseous house or place, to cleanse, remove or abate the same, as may be necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the inhabitants.

9. Location of establishment.—To direct the location of business, tanneries, blacksmith shops, foundries, livery stables and any manufacturing establishments; to direct the location and regulate the management and construction of, restrain, abate and prohibit within the city limits, slaughtering establishments and hide houses or establishments for making soap, for steaming or rendering lard, tallow, offal and such other substances as may be rendered; and all other establishments or places where any nauseous, offensive or unwholesome business may be carried on.

10. Drains, sinks, etc.—To require the owner of private drains, sinks and privies to fill up, cleanse, drain, alter, relay, repair, fix or improve the same as may be ordered by any resolution or ordinance of said city; and in the event of any failure, neglect or refusal to comply with any such order, the party so failing shall be liable to fine. In the event of there being no person in the city on whom such order can be served, the city may have such work done and such improvements made on account of the owner thereof. All costs, charges and expenses shall be a lien on the property, on the filing of a memorandum by the mayor, under the seal of the corporation thereof, and recording the same with the clerk of the district court. The city may enforce said lien and institute suit in the corporate name and obtain judgment against said party for the amount so due as aforesaid in any court having jurisdiction.

11. Nuisances.—To abate and remove nuisances and to punish the authors thereof by fine, and to define and declare what shall be nuisances and authorize and direct the summary abatement thereof; and to abate all nuisances which may injure or affect the public health or comfort in any manner they may deem expedient.

12. Dead animals, etc.—To prevent any person from bringing, depositing or having within the limits of said city any dead carcass, or other offensive or unwholesome substance or matter, and to require the removal or destruction by any person who shall have placed or caused to be placed upon or near his premises, or elsewhere, of any substance or matter, filth, or any putrid or unsound beef, pork or fish, hides or skins of any kind; and, on his default, to authorize the removal or destruction thereof by some officer of the city, and to require the owner of any dead animal to remove the same to such place as may be designated.

13. Burial of dead, etc.—To regulate the burial of the dead; to purchase, establish and regulate one or more cemeteries; to regulate the registration of marriages; and to direct the returning and keeping of bills of mortality.

14. Driving animals in city.—To prevent regulate and control the driving of cattle, horses and other animals into or through the city.

15. Dogs.—To tax, regulate or restrain and prohibit the running at large of dogs and to authorize their destruction when at large contrary to ordinances, and to impose penalties for violation of such ordinances.

16. Pounds.—To establish and regulate public pounds, and to regulate, restrain and prohibit the running at large of horses, mules, cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, and to authorize the distraining, impounding and sale of the same for the costs of the proceedings and the penalty incurred, and to order their destruction when they cannot be sold and to impose penalties on the owners thereof for the violation of any ordinance.

17. Breeding animals.—To pass necessary ordinances to prevent any person, corporation or association of individuals from keeping for breeding purposes a jack, bull or stallion within the corporate limits of such city or town.

18. Control of police.—To create, establish and regulate the police of the city; to appoint watchmen and policemen, and to prescribe their duties and powers and compensation.

19. Workhouses.—To erect and establish one or more workhouses or houses of correction, within or without the city limits, make all necessary rules and regulations therefor, and appoint all necessary keepers or assistants. In such workhouse or house of correction may be confined all vagrants and disorderly persons, who may be committed by the mayor or recorder, and any person who shall fail or refuse to pay the fine or costs imposed for any offense may, instead of being committed to jail, be kept therein.

20. Breach of peace, etc.—To prevent all trespasses, breaches of the peace and good order, assaults and batteries, fighting, quarreling, using abusive, obscene, profane or insulting language and all disorderly conduct, and punish all persons thus offending.

21. Public disturbances.—To suppress and prevent any riot, affray, noise, disturbance or disorderly assembly in any public or private place within the city.

22. Noises and annoyances.—To prohibit and restrain the firing of firecrackers, guns and pistols, use of velocipedes, or use of any pyrotechnic or any other amusements or practices tending to annoy persons passing in the streets or sidewalks, or to frighten horses or teams; to restrain and prohibit the ringing of bells, blowing of horns and bugles, crying of goods, and all other noises, practices and performances tending to the collection of persons on the streets and sidewalks, by auctioneers and others, for the purpose of business, amusement or otherwise.

23. Obstructions on public ways, etc.—To prevent the incumbering of the streets, alleys, sidewalks, and public grounds, with any vehicle whatsoever, boxes, lumber, posts, awnings, signs, or any other substance or material whatever, to compel persons to keep all weeds, filth or any kind of rubbish from the sidewalks and streets and gutters in front of their premises, and to compel the owners of property to fill up, grade, gravel and otherwise improve the sidewalks in front of same.

24. Dangerous buildings, etc.—To order, whenever in the opinion of the city council, any building, fence, shed, awning or any erection of any kind or any part thereof is liable to fall down and endanger persons or property, any owner or agent of the same, or any owner or occupant of the premises on which such building, shed, awning or other erection stands or to which it is attached, to take down and remove the same, or any part thereof, within such time as they may direct; and to punish by fine and imprisonment, or either, any neglect, failure or refusal to comply therewith. The city council shall have power to remove the same at the expense of the city, on account of the owner of the property or premises, and assess the expenses on the land on which it stood or to which it was attached, and shall, by ordinance, provide for such assessment, the mode and manner of giving notice and the means of recovering any such expenses.

25. Bridges, sewers, etc.—To establish, erect, construct, regulate and keep in repair, bridges, culverts, and sewers, sidewalks and crossways, and to regulate the construction and use of the same, and to abate any obstructions or encroachments thereon; and the cost of construction of sidewalks shall be defrayed by the owner of the lot, or part of lot or block, fronting on the sidewalk. The cost of any sidewalk constructed by the city shall be collected, if necessary, by the sale of the lot, or part of lot or block on which it fronts, together with the cost of collection, in such manner as the city council may by ordinance provide. A sale of any lot or part of lot or block to enforce collection of costs of sidewalks shall convey a good title to the purchaser. The balance of proceeds of such sale, after paying the amount due the city and costs of sale, shall be paid to the owner.

26. Street railways.—To compel street railway companies to keep their roads in repair, and to make them conform to the grades of the streets upon which their tracks may be laid, whenever said streets shall have been graded by the city, and to restrain the rate of speed and to compel such railroads to supply ample accommodation for the safe and convenient travel of the people on the street where their track may run. The city council may enforce these regulations by proper ordinances with suitable penalties.

27. Railway companies.—To direct and control the laying and constructing of railroad tracks, turnouts and switches, or prohibit the same in the streets, avenues and alleys, unless the same have been authorized by law, and the location of depots within the city; to require that railroad tracks, turnouts and switches shall be so constructed as to interfere as little as possible with the ordinary travel and use of streets, avenues and alleys and that sufficient space shall be left on either side of a track for the safe and convenient passage of teams, carriages and other vehicles, and persons; to require railroad companies to keep in repair the streets, avenues or alleys through which their track may run, and, if ordered by the city council, to construct and keep in repair, suitable crossings at the intersection of streets, avenues and alleys, and ditches, sewers and culverts, when the city council shall deem it necessary; to direct the use and regulate the speed of locomotive engines in said city, or to prevent and prohibit the use or running of the same within the city.

28. Unsafe driving.—To prevent, prohibit and suppress horseracing, immoderate riding or driving in the streets; to compel persons to fasten their horses or other animals attached to vehicles, or otherwise, while standing or remaining in the streets.

29. Light and gas.—To provide for lighting the streets and erecting lamp posts therein, and regulating the lighting thereof, and from time to time create, alter or extend lamp districts, to exclusively regulate, direct and control the laying and repairing of the gas pipes and gas fixtures in the streets, alleys, sidewalks and elsewhere.

30. Water system.—To provide, or cause to be provided, the city with water; to make, regulate and establish public wells, pumps and cisterns, hydrants and reservoirs in the streets or elsewhere within said city or beyond the limits thereof, for the extinguishment of fires and the convenience of the inhabitants, and to prevent the unnecessary waste of water. Any city or town owning, or that may hereafter own, its water system and plant, shall not lease or sell the same without first submitting the question of such proposed lease or sale to a vote of the qualified voters who are property taxpayers of such town or city as shown by the last preceding tax rolls, at a general election, or at one held for that especial purpose, nor unless a majority of those voting shall vote in favor thereof. Before submitting such question to a vote as aforesaid, the proposed contract of lease or sale shall be distinctly set forth in the form of an ordinance or contract, and shall be filed with the city or town secretary or clerk at least twenty days prior to the day of the election, and shall at all times be subject to inspection by the people of such city.

31. Market house.—To establish or erect, or cause to be established or erected, markets and market houses; designate, control and regulate market places and privileges; inspect and determine the mode of inspecting meat, fish, vegetables and all produce and every article and thing therein brought for sale.

32. Parks, etc.—To provide for inclosing, regulating and improving all public grounds and cemeteries belonging to the city, and to direct and regulate the planting and preserving of ornaments and shade trees in the streets, sidewalks or public grounds.

33. Libraries.—To establish a free library in such city or town; to adopt rules and regulations for the proper management thereof, and to appropriate such part of the revenues of such city or town for the management and increase of such free library as the municipal government of such city or town may determine.

34. Street car taxes.—To assess and collect the ordinary municipal taxes upon street railways.

35. Trade taxes.—To tax all trades, professions, occupations and callings, the taxing of which is not prohibited by the Constitution of this State; which tax shall not be construed to be a tax on property.

36. Chauffeurs, porters, etc.—To license, tax and regulate hackmen, draymen, omnibus drivers and drivers of baggage wagons, porters, and all others pursuing like occupations, with or without vehicles, and prescribe their compensation, and provide for their protection and make it a misdemeanor to attempt to defraud them of any legal charge for services rendered, and to regulate, license and restrain runners for railroads, stages and public houses.

37. Peddlers, theaters, etc.—To license, tax and regulate or suppress and prevent hawkers, peddlers, pawnbrokers and keepers¹ or other exhibitions, shows and amusements.

38. Circuses, etc.—To license, tax or regulate theaters, circuses, the exhibitions of common showmen, shows of any kind, and the exhibition of natural and artificial curiosities, caravans, menageries and musical exhibitions and performances.

39. Licenses and fees.—To authorize the proper officer of the city to grant and issue licenses, and to direct the manner of issuing and registering thereof, and the fees to be paid therefor. No license shall be issued for a longer period than one year, and shall not be assignable except by permission of the city council.

40. Finances and property.—To manage and control the finances and all property, real and personal and mixed, belonging to the corporation.

41. Appropriations.—To appropriate money, and provide for the payment of debts and expenses of the city.

42. Special funds.—To provide by ordinance special funds for special purposes, and to make the same disbursable only for the purpose for which the fund was created. Any officer of the city misappropriating said special fund shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office, and shall, on complaint of any one interested in said funds misappropriated, be removed from office, and be incapable thereafter to hold any office in said city.

43. Improvements.—To appropriate so much of the revenues of the city emanating from whatever source, for the purpose of retiring and discharging the accrued indebtedness of the city, and for the purpose of improving the public markets and streets, erecting and conducting city hospitals, city hall, waterworks, and so forth, as they may from time to time deem expedient; and in furtherance of these objects, to borrow money upon the credit of the city.

Art. 1015a. Condemnation of Lands for Parks

In case of the condemnation of land for laying out, establishing or enlarging any parks, parkways or pleasure grounds by any city in Texas which now has or may hereafter have a population of 12,000 or more inhabitants, the governing body of said city may, by ordinance, provide that the cost of such land and improvements shall be paid for, wholly or in part to an extent not exceeding the special benefits received by the property owners owning property in the vicinity thereof and benefited thereby, and may fix liens against said property so benefited to the extent same is specially benefited, provided, however, no assessments nor liens shall hold against homestead property so designated under existing laws and the procedure for and manner of assessing and collecting said benefits against and from said property owners and their said property shall be the same as that authorized by law in such city in which such proceedings are had in connection with the opening or widening of streets. Such assessments may be made payable in not exceeding sixteen (16) installments, the last maturing in not over fifteen (15) years, and may bear interest at not more than eight per cent (8%) per annum.

Art. 1015b. Repealed by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 362, ch. 131, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Art. 1015c. Parks and Recreation Projects

Purchase and Encumbrance

Sec. 1. All cities and towns, including Home Rule cities, in the State of Texas, shall have power to build and purchase, to mortgage and encumber any of the hereinafter named project and/or projects, to wit: parks and/or swimming pools, golf courses, golf course club houses, ball parks, fairgrounds, exposition buildings, airports, and the land upon which the same are situated, either or all, and the income therefrom and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to evidence the obligation therefor by the issuance of bonds, notes or warrants, and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same or funds with which to construct and equip the same; and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the projects herein enumerated and properties so purchased for a term of not over twenty (20) years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation of any such project and/or projects shall ever be a debt of said city or town, but solely a charge upon the properties of the project and/or projects so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city or town to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Election to Authorize Sale

Sec. 2. None of the projects named in Section 1 of this Act, nor the land upon which the same are situated, shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such city or town; nor shall the same be encumbered for more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5000), except for purchase money, or funds with which to construct and equip the same or to refund any existing indebtedness lawfully created, until authorized in like manner. Such vote in either case shall be ascertained at an election, which election shall be held and notice thereof given as is provided in the case of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities and towns, provided that no election shall be necessary for the encumbering of golf courses, golf course club houses, fairgrounds, airports and exposition buildings and the land upon which the same are situated, where encumbrances of any such project and/or projects has or have already been authorized at the time of the passage of this Act by a majority vote of the qualified voters at an election held for such purpose.

Validation of Bonds or Warrants

Sec. 3. All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including Home Rule cities, in the State of Texas in the issuance and sale of bonds, notes and warrants or other obligations to aid in financing any of such project and/or projects for which a loan or grant has been made or applied for the United States through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or any agency, department or division of the Government of the United States of America are herein in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized, and all such bonds, notes or warrants or other obligations issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligation of said cities or towns and all such bonds, notes or warrants or other obligations which have been heretofore authorized but not yet issued, shall, when delivered and paid for, constitute valid and binding obligations of such cities or towns, and any election heretofore held in such cities and towns, including Home Rule cities, in which the qualified votes of any such city or town have authorized the mortgage or encumbrance of any such project and/or projects named in this Act and the ground on which the same was to be erected, is hereby in all things fully validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and legalized.

Records and Accounts; Penalty

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the mayor of such cities or towns to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the free service rendered, and the value thereof, and showing separately the amounts expended and/or set aside for operation, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, extensions, interest and the creation of a sinking fund to pay off such bonds and indebtedness.

It shall likewise be the duty of the superintendent or manager of such project and/or projects to file with the mayor of such cities or towns, not later than February 1st, a detailed report of the operations of such project and/or projects for the year ending January 1st preceding, showing the total sum of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as the result of operation of such project and/or projects during such calendar year.

Failure or refusal on the part of the mayor to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, such system of records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such project and/or projects, or on the part of such superintendent or manager, to file or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, such mayor or superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100), nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); and any taxpayer residing within such city or town, or holder of such indebtedness, shall have the right, by appropriate civil action in the District Court of the county in which such city or town is located, to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1015c-1. Recreational Programs and Facilities; Establishment by Counties, Cities and Towns, Jointly or Singly, Authorized

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the establishment, operation and support of public recreational facilities and programs by local government units of this State either singly or jointly.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(a) The term "governing body" means any city council, city commission, county commissioners court, or other body acting in lieu thereof.

(b) The term "governmental unit" means any city, town, or county.

(c) The term "board" means any board, commission, committee or council appointed or designated to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Recreational Powers

Sec. 3. Any governmental unit may establish, provide, acquire, maintain, construct, equip, operate, and supervise recreational facilities and programs, either singly or jointly in cooperation with one (1) or more other governmental units.

Elections

Sec. 4. Any governmental unit may submit the question of whether it shall exercise the powers conferred in Section 3 to an election of the qualified electors of such unit.

Finances

Sec. 5. Any governmental unit may pay costs and expenses of carrying out the provisions of this Act from the general revenues of the unit, or from other revenues now provided by law for the establishment or the operation of parks and recreational facilities. Governmental units jointly exercising the powers conferred in Section 3 may agree upon the manner and method of division of costs and expenses.

Administration

Sec. 6. A governing body may administer and operate recreational facilities and programs through a bureau or department of recreation or through a board established jointly with another governing body. The Board shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations for administration and operation of recreational facilities and programs in its charge subject to the approval of the establishing governing bodies.

Acceptance of Gifts

Sec. 7. Any governmental unit may accept any grant, lease, loan or devise of real estate, or gift or bequest of money, either principal or income, or any other personal property for either temporary or permanent use for the establishment, operation, or support of public recreation facilities and programs.

Limitations

Sec. 8. This Act shall be cumulative as to all laws, ordinances, and charter provisions relating to public recreation and parks.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1179, ch. 458.]

Art. 1015c-2. Swimming Pools

Power of Cities; Obligations as Debts of Cities or Towns

Sec. 1. All cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities, operating under Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, shall have the power to build, purchase, improve, enlarge and repair, to mortgage and encumber their swimming pools and the gross income and revenues thereof, either or both, and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, and to evidence the obligation thereof by the issuance of its revenue bonds. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city or town, but shall be solely a charge upon the properties or income so encumbered, and such bonds shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city or town to issue bonds for any other purpose authorized by law.

Bond Issues

Sec. 2. Except as modified by the provisions of this Act, the issuance of bonds, additional bonds or refunding bonds shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, which Chapter is hereby made applicable to the bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this Act.

Examination and Approval of Bonds; Registration

Sec. 3. Prior to delivery thereof, all bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding special obligations of the city or town authorizing their issuance, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration they shall be incontestable.

Bonds Eligible for Investment and to Secure Deposits

Sec. 4. Such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments of banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and for all public funds of the State of Texas or its agencies including the State Permanent School Fund. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure deposit of public funds of the State of Texas and public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions or corporations of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect of Law

Sec. 5. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject and shall not repeal or affect any other law or part of law relating to such subject unless they are expressly inconsistent and then only to the extent of such inconsistency. It is expressly provided that all existing laws relating to the issuance of revenue bonds by cities and towns, including but not limited to those found in Chapter 10, Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall remain unimpaired by the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1015d. Acquisition of Gas Systems and Distribution of Gas by Cities

Sec. 1. Any city (or), town, or village, whether created by general or special law, including cities operating under the Home Rule Amendment to the State Constitution, which is served neither by an artificial gas distribution system nor by a natural gas distribution system, privately owned or owned by said city, may acquire either by purchase, construction, or otherwise a system designed to prepare, to make available, and to distribute to the inhabitants of the city who may subscribe for such service, artificial gas useful for fuel and lighting purposes, manufactured and compounded substantially in the following manner: liquefied butane, a by-product obtained in the manufacture of gasoline from natural gas, is mixed with a proper proportion of propane, resulting in a liquefied gas capable of being transported in tank cars or otherwise to storage tanks, whence it may be drawn and mixed by automatically controlled mixing machines and released into gas storage tanks, said mixture then being suitable for distribution in mains and laterals to consumers, or manufactured and compounded in any other manner which will result in making available for distribution in mains and laterals, an economically useful gas for domestic and commercial fuel and lighting uses.

Sec. 2. The provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, of Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 with all amendments thereto are hereby adopted by reference as prescribing the procedure to be used by such cities and towns in acquiring such gas systems, and in making and evidencing their obligations to pay for same out of revenues pledged for the purpose, in encumbering said systems, in operating said systems and in reference to the enforcement of such obligations to the extent that such provisions are not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, as fully as if all of said provisions were copied herein, including that provision that every contract, note or other evidence of indebtedness issued or under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Sec. 3. In letting contracts for construction of such systems and in providing for the issuance of revenue bonds, notes or warrants under authority of this Act, the applicable provisions of Chapter 163, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature,¹ known as "The Bond and Warrant Law of 1931" are hereby adopted as the procedure to be followed under this Act insofar as said provisions have reference to revenue bonds, notes and warrants.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws and the powers herein conferred shall be considered as in addition to powers now possessed by cities of the class included in this Act.

Art. 1015e. Licensing Dealers in Motor Vehicles or Accessories

Sec. 1. The power and authority is hereby conferred upon all cities and towns of Texas, whether incorporated under general or special law, to provide suitable ordinance, for the regulation, supervision, control and licensing of all persons, firms or corporations engaged, primarily or incidentally, in the sale, barter or exchange of motor vehicles, or parts thereof or accessories thereto within the corporate limits of such city, and to fix penalties for the violation thereof; provided that all sums of money collected from such dealers shall be used by the city for the enforcement hereof, and for the enforcement of all provisions of the law regulating the sale, theft or exchange of motor vehicles or parts, or accessories thereto and for no other purpose.

Sec. 2. In case any section, subdivision, paragraph, or sentence of this Act is declared unconstitutional the validity of the remainder of this Act shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1015f. Motor Vehicles, Regulation of Operation by Cities of 230,000 to 232,000 InhabitantsOrdinances Authorized

Sec. 1. All Cities and Towns in the State of Texas, whether incorporated under General or Special Law, including Home Rule Cities, having a population in excess of 230,000 and not exceeding 232,000 inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall have and they are hereby given the power and authority to pass an ordinance or ordinances:

(a) Requiring all residents of said City, including corporations having their principal office or place of business in said City, owning a motor vehicle used for the transportation of persons or property, to have each and every such motor vehicle tested and inspected and to comply with such requirements, as may be imposed by said ordinance, not more than four times in each calendar year;

(b) Requiring that other and additional tests and inspections may be required of all such motor vehicles involved in any wreck, collision, or accident before the same may be operated on the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said City after said wreck, collision, or accident;

(c) Requiring as a condition precedent to the right to use the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said City that such motor vehicles operated thereupon shall have been tested and inspected, shall have been approved by said testing and inspecting authorities, including the State Highway Patrol, and shall have complied with all provisions of said ordinance;

(d) Authorizing City Patrolmen and State Highway Patrolmen in uniform to stop without warrant such drivers of motor vehicles as may fail to comply with said ordinance and issue to the violators such traffic violation tickets as may be provided under said ordinance;

(e) Providing a penalty subject to the limitations of Article 1011 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas for the violation of any of the terms of said ordinance.

Testing Stations

Sec. 2. Said Cities shall be and they are hereby authorized to acquire, establish, erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, and maintain motor vehicle testing stations and to pay for the same out of the fees charged for testing and inspecting said motor vehicles.

Fees for Testing and Inspecting Vehicles

Sec. 3. Said Cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to prescribe and collect a fee, not to exceed One ($1.00) Dollar per year per vehicle, for the testing and inspecting of each such motor vehicle. All fees so collected to be placed in a separate fund, out of which costs and expenses in connection with, or growing out of the acquisition, establishment, erection, equipping, improvement, enlargement, repairing, operating, and maintaining said testing stations, and automotive and Safety Education programs, may be paid.

Financing Purchase of Testing Stations

Sec. 4. Said Cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to pay for such testing stations and the equipping, maintaining, and operating thereof out of past or future earnings of said stations, and may mortgage and encumber said stations and everything pertaining thereto acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same or any part thereof, or to erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, or maintain said stations. No such mortgage or encumbrance shall ever be a debt of such City, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such City to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law. Said Cities may borrow money and issue warrants to finance in whole or in part the cost of the acquisition, erection, equipping, improvement, enlargement, or repair of said stations and to pledge for the punctual payment of said warrants and interest thereon all or any part of the fees or other receipts derived from the operation of such stations.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality.

Not Applicable to Vehicles Operating Under Certificate from Railroad Commission

Sec. 5a. Nothing herein or in any ordinance passed pursuant hereto shall apply to motor vehicles, trailers, or semitrailers operated under a certificate or permit from the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Art. 1015g. Toll Bridges Over International Boundary Rivers, Powers Respecting Acquisition

Sec. 1. Any city or town in this State now or hereafter incorporated under the General Laws of the State, or incorporated and acting under its Special Charter or Home Rule Charter, and having located within its corporate limits or outside its corporate limits but within a distance of fifteen (15) miles from such corporate limits thereof, a toll bridge over a river between the State of Texas and the Republic of Mexico shall have power to acquire any such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, by purchase thereof from the owner or owners thereof; either by purchase of the properties, as such, or, if such toll bridge is owned by a private corporation, either by purchase from it of the properties, as such, or by purchasing the capital stock of such corporation from the owner or owners of such stock, either all of the outstanding capital stock of such corporation or a sufficient amount thereof as required under the law for the dissolution and liquidation of such corporation, and immediately liquidating such corporation, paying the debts and obligations or liabilities thereof, and winding up its business and affairs, and causing conveyance of its properties to said city or town, taking the Title to such stock either in the name of such city or town or in the name of a trustee therefor, and voting or causing such stock to be voted to carry out and accomplish such purposes, and all in such manner and to such effect as to vest title to such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, in such city or town; and to thus purchase and acquire any such properties or stock of such corporation, from the owner or owners thereof, for such price, upon such terms and conditions, and upon such covenants and agreements in respect thereto, and to make and enter into such contracts and agreements with such owner or owners therefor, in respect thereto, and to accomplish the purposes of this Act, as may be agreed upon by and between such owner or owners and the Governing Body of any such city or town, the action of the latter being expressed by Ordinance, all as consistent with and subject to the provisions of this Act.

General Powers after Acquiring Bridge

Sec. 2. Any such city or town thus acquiring any such toll bridge shall have power to maintain and operate same, and to own, hold, and control the same, and to make or cause to be made any repairs, improvements, replacements, extensions, or additions thereto, and to renew or extend any franchises therefor, and to obtain new or additional franchises therefor, and to do any and all things required or that may be proper or necessary to the maintenance and operation thereof, and conduct of the business thereof, and of rendering the services thereof to the public and to the patrons of said toll bridge; and to such end and for such purposes shall have power to make and enter into, and to carry out, observe, and perform, any and all contracts, agreements, and undertakings, of any and every kind, required by the United States of America or any of its departments, officers, or governmental agencies, or the public authorities thereof; or required by the Republic of Mexico, or any of its departments, officers, or governmental agencies, or the public authorities thereof.

Tolls and Charges

Sec. 3. Any such city or town thus acquiring any such toll bridge shall have power, to be exercised by its Governing Body as expressed by Ordinance, to fix and to enforce and collect tolls and charges for the use thereof, and for the passage or transportation of persons or property, passengers, vehicles, freight and commodities, over and across such toll bridge. Such tolls and charges shall be fixed from time to time by the Governing Body of any such city or town, and collected under its direction, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of any permits or franchises granted or extended by any governmental authority in respect of or applicable thereto; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits or franchises, shall be just and reasonable and non-discriminatory, as determined by such Governing Body of any such city or town, and with no free service until the bonds herein provided to be issued to acquire such properties, together with the interest thereon, and all duties and obligations incident thereto or arising therefrom are first fully paid, met, and discharged; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits and franchises, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(a) to pay all expenses necessary to the maintenance and operation of such toll bridge, and to comply with the requirements and make all payments necessary under the provisions of any such permits and franchises therefor;

(b) to pay the interest on and the principal of all bonds issued under this Act when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(c) to pay all sinking fund and/or reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out-of such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(d) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds and/or with any person in their behalf;

(e) out of the revenues which may be received in excess of those required for the purposes specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) above, the Governing Body of any such city or town may in its discretion establish a reasonable depreciation and emergency fund, or retire (by purchase and cancellation or redemption) bonds issued under this Act, or apply the same to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act;

(f) it is the intention of this Act that the tolls and charges herein provided for shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control tolls and charges to be collected for such purposes, or to provide for bridges over any such river to be used free of any tolls or charges, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the State will not limit or alter the power hereby vested in any such city or town or the Governing Body thereof to establish and collect such fees and charges as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this Section 3 of this Act, or exercise its powers in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and all other obligations of any such city or town in connection with such bonds are fully met and discharged.

Definition of Toll Bridge with its Rights and Franchises and Appurtenant Properties; Acquisition of All or Part

Sec. 4. The term "toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties" is hereby defined to mean and include the physical properties of any such bridge, together with and including all permits, grants, franchises, rights, and privileges, of every kind granted or extended by the United States of America, or the Congress thereof, or any department, officer, agency, or governmental authority thereof; or by the Republic of Mexico, or the Congress thereof, or any department, officer, agency, or governmental authority thereof; or by any State or municipality or political subdivision of either or both said two (2) Nations; for or in relation to or in respect of the construction, maintenance, or operation of any such toll bridge; or the collection of tolls and charges for the uses thereof; and including all lands, rights of way, easements, leasehold, contractual or other interest of any kind in any lands in either or both said two (2) Nations, held or used or in any manner incident to or for the construction, maintenance, or operation of such bridge, or the approaches thereto, or for the use or occupancy of any buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, roads, streets, parks, grounds, or conveniences or facilities of any kind, related or in any manner incident thereto; and including all buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, equipment, conveniences and facilities, of every kind, held or used or in any manner incident to or for the construction, maintenance, and operation of said bridge; and including all leases and contracts of every kind for the use or occupancy of any such lands, buildings, structures, conveniences, appliances and facilities; and including all rights and properties of every kind incident to or used for the construction, maintenance, or operation of any such toll bridge; each and all whereof shall be construed as included within the meaning of such term "toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties" as such term is used in this Act; provided, however, that any such city or town, in exercising the powers herein granted, may acquire by purchase as herein provided, all or any part of any such toll bridge, that is, either the entire bridge or only that part thereof which is situated in the State of Texas; and either all or any part of or any of the respective such grants, permits, franchises, rights, contracts, privileges, easements, leases, lands, rights of way, buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, equipment, facilities, and other interests and items above enumerated, as included within the meaning of such term "toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties" as used in this Act; as the Governing Body of any such city or town may, in its discretion, determine and deem best.

Parks, Recreation Grounds, Camps, Quarters, Accommodations and Facilities

Sec. 5. Any such city or town acquiring any such toll bridge shall have the power, in connection with the maintenance and operation thereof, to acquire lands and a site or sites for the purpose either within or without the corporate limits of such city or town, within territory adjacent to said city or town or to said toll bridge, and to construct, maintain, and operate parks, recreation grounds and facilities, camps, quarters, accommodations and facilities, for the use and convenience of the public; and to fix and to enforce and collect fees, rentals, and charges, for the use thereof, which shall be just and reasonable and non-discriminatory, as determined by and fixed from time to time by the Governing Body of such city or town; and to make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations therefor; and if such toll bridge is located within the corporate limits of the city, to manage, control, govern, police and regulate the same, and if the toll bridge is situated outside of the corporate limits of the city to manage, control, govern, police and regulate the same to the same extent as if it were located within the corporate limits of the city.

Borrowing Money; Grants from United States or Agencies

Sec. 6. Any such city or town, to accomplish the purposes of this Act, shall have power to borrow money from any person or corporation, and, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, to borrow money and accept grants from the United States of America, or from any corporation or agency created by the United States of America or designated or empowered to act as an agency thereof, and, in connection with any such loan or grant, to enter into such agreements as the United States of America or such agency or corporation may require in respect or in relation thereto.

Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 7. Any such city or town shall have the power to accomplish the purposes of this Act, to issue, sell and deliver, its negotiable bonds; which bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof may be used to purchase and acquire from the owner or owners thereof any such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, or such part or portion thereof as may be purchased by any such city or town as herein provided for, either by purchase of the properties, as such, or by using such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof for the purchase from the owner or owners thereof of the stock of any corporation owning such toll bridge and for the liquidation and winding up of the business and affairs of such corporation and paying the debts and obligations or liabilities thereof, and all in such manner and to such effect as to vest title to such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, or such part or portion thereof as may be purchased, in said city or town as provided for herein; and which bonds may be exchanged for property or sold as herein provided; to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act as herein provided.

Mortgages or Pledges

Sec. 8. Any such city or town shall have the power, in respect to any such bonds issued in pursuance of the provisions of this Act to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act, to mortgage or pledge all or any part of or any interest in any such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, or any of the properties acquired or to be acquired with such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof; and all or any part of the gross or net revenues thereafter received by said city or town from or in respect of any such properties so acquired or to be acquired by said city or town with such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof; to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, and of the sinking fund or reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of such bonds; and to make and enter into such covenants and agreements with the purchasers of such bonds or any person in their behalf in respect thereto and for securing the payment thereof and for providing rights and remedies to the owners and holders of such bonds or to any person in their behalf, as the Governing Body of any such city or town may in its discretion approve and determine and provide by an Ordinance or Ordinances adopted for such purposes; all in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Amount, Denominations and Terms of Bonds

Sec. 9. Any such bonds issued by any such city or town in pursuance of and to accomplish the purposes of this Act, shall be in such aggregate principal amount or amounts, of such denominations, bearing such date or dates, of such maturities, bearing interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding six (6) per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually on such respective dates, in such form, containing such terms, provisions, and conditions, either coupon or registered, with such registration privileges, such provisions for the call or redemption thereof before maturity, payable at such place or places within or without the State of Texas, as the Governing Body of any such city or town may in its discretion approve and determine and provide by an Ordinance or Ordinances adopted for such purposes; all in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sale or Exchange of Bonds

Sec. 10. Any such bonds issued by any such city or town in pursuance of and to accomplish the purposes of this Act, may either be:

(a) sold for cash, at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the Governing Body of any such city or town shall determine, provided, that the interest cost of the money received therefor, computed to maturity in accordance with standard bond tables in general use by banks and insurance companies, shall not exceed six (6) per cent per annum; or,

(b) may be issued on such terms as the Governing Body of any such city or town shall determine in exchange for property of any kind, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein, which the Governing Body of such city or town shall determine to be proper and necessary to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act; or,

(c) may be issued in exchange for like principal amounts of any other bonds of such issue, matured or unmatured.

Deposit of Proceeds

Sec. 11. If such bonds are sold for cash, the proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in such depository and shall be paid out pursuant to such terms and conditions, as may be agreed upon between the Governing Body of such city or town and the purchasers of such bonds.

Negotiability; Exemption from Taxation; Investment in Bonds

Sec. 12. Any such bonds issued by any such city or town in pursuance of and to accomplish the purposes of this Act, shall constitute negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Act of this State; and are hereby exempted from any and all State, county, municipal, and other taxation under the laws of this State; and shall be legal investments for banks, trust companies, and insurance companies organized under the laws of this State.

Application of Other Laws

Sec. 13. The provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, and of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended,¹ shall apply to and govern the purchase of any such properties by any such city or town, in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, and the issuance, sale, and delivery of any such bonds, and manner of securing the payment thereof, and in respect to the enforcement of such obligations, and the rights and remedies of the owners and holders of such bonds or of any person acting in their behalf, in respect to the maintenance and operation of the properties acquired in pursuance of this Act, and in respect to the accomplishment of all the purposes of this Act; except as herein specifically provided for and prescribed by the terms of this Act; and except that none of the limitations and restrictions contained in or imposed by Sections 2, 3, and 4 of said Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended, shall apply to or govern any such purchase of any such properties or issuance of any such bonds by any such city or town; and except that, as is hereby expressly provided, any such city or town may purchase any such properties and issue any such bonds, and may use such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof for the purchase of any such properties or to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act, by action of its Governing Body as expressed by Ordinance authorizing and effecting same, and without the necessity of any referendum, and without the necessity of calling or holding any election to authorize any such action, and without the necessity of giving or publishing any notice of intention to acquire any such properties or to issue any such bonds, and without the necessity of advertising or calling for any competitive bids in respect thereto; and provided that in the event there is any conflict between the provisions of this Act and the provisions of said Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, or the provisions of said Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended, or the provisions of any other applicable Act or law, the provisions of this Act shall control; and, in all events, all specific provisions of this Act shall control.

Approval of Bonds by Attorney General; Incontestability

Sec. 13(a). After any such bonds are authorized by the governing body of any such city, the bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General for examination by him. If such bonds shall have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of the State they shall be approved by the Attorney General and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and after such approval and registration the bonds shall be incontestable.

Bonds or Warrants to Repair, Improve, Alter or Reconstruct Toll Bridge; Issuance

Sec. 13(b). After any such city or town shall have acquired a toll bridge as defined and used in Section 4 of this Act, it may in the manner prescribed in Section 13 of this Act issue and deliver bonds for the purpose of repairing or improving or altering or reconstructing or replacing the toll bridge, or building an additional or supplementary, or auxiliary bridge, or for any one or more of said purposes, subject only to the restrictions contained in the ordinance authorizing the original issue and/or subsequent issue of toll bridge revenue bonds, or both, and in the deed of indenture securing such original issue or subsequent issue of bonds, or it may issue warrants, including revenue time warrants, in accordance with applicable Texas law, to accomplish any one or more of such purposes, subject to the restrictions contained in ordinances and deed of indenture authorizing prior issue or issues of bonds or warrants.

Revenue Bonds or Revenue Time Warrants; Charge Against Pledged Revenues

Sec. 13(c). Revenue bonds or revenue time warrants only may be issued to accomplish the purposes of this Act. Such bonds or warrants shall not constitute indebtedness of any such city or town, but shall be a charge only against the pledged revenues, and against the property comprising the toll bridge if a lien is given on such property. And every such bond or warrant shall contain substantially this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 13(d). The governing body of any such city or town which shall have issued bonds or warrants pursuant to this Act or has outstanding bonds or warrants or bonds and warrants, the interest on and the principal of which are payable from all or part of the gross or net revenues received by said city or town from or in respect to any such properties, shall have power and authority to issue refunding bonds to refinance or refund any or all of such bonds and warrants by the issuance of its refunding bonds, and any said governing body may pledge all or part of said gross or net revenues to the refunding bonds and may provide that the refunding bonds shall have the same relative priorities of lien as the bonds or warrants refunded, or in providing for the security of the refunding bonds, may combine liens of differing priorities securing the bonds or warrants refunded, into one or more issues of refunding bonds. The provisions of this Act, where not inconsistent with this Section, concerning form of bonds, sale, approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivery pertaining to other bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this Act shall apply to said refunding bonds.

Taxes or Assessments; Pledge of Credit; Not Authorized

Sec. 14. Nothing in this Act shall authorize any such city or town, acting in pursuance hereof or to accomplish any of the purposes hereof, to levy or collect any taxes or assessments therefor or in respect thereto, or to pledge the credit of the State in any manner; or to issue or to sell or deliver any bonds or to create any obligations of any kind or to incur any liabilities of any kind or to make or enter into any contracts or agreements of any kind, to be paid or performed or met or discharged out of or from any taxes or assessments.

How Powers Exercised

Sec. 15. All powers, rights, privileges and functions, conferred by this Act upon any such city or town shall be exercised by and through the Governing Body thereof as expressed by an Ordinance or Ordinances duly adopted to authorize and effectuate the same. No referendum and no election by the voters of any such city or town shall be necessary or required to authorize the exercise of any such powers, rights, privileges, or functions, or the doing of any act or thing to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

Application of Other Laws

Sec. 16. This Act shall constitute full authority for the authorization and issuance of bonds hereunder and no other Act or law with regard to the authorization or issuance of obligations, or the deposit of the proceeds thereof, in any way impeding or restricting the carrying out of the acts and things herein authorized to be done shall be construed as applying thereto or to any acts or proceedings taken hereunder and acts or things done pursuant hereto, and for the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act.

Cumulative Character

Sec. 17. This Act shall be cumulative of all other Acts and laws; and the powers, rights, privileges, and functions hereby conferred on any such city or town, shall not prevent the exercise by any such city or town of any and all other powers, rights, privileges, or functions conferred upon any such city or town by any other Act or law now existing or hereafter enacted.

Liberal Construction

Sec. 18. This Act and all of the terms and provisions hereof shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes set forth herein.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 19. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid, the remainder of this Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1015g-1. Pledge of Revenue Derived from Operation of Toll Bridge

Any city or town in this State incorporated under the General Laws of the State, or incorporated and acting under its Special Charter or Home Rule Charter which is receiving revenue, by virtue of a contract with another city or town concerning the operation of a toll bridge over a river between the State of Texas and the Republic of Mexico, may appropriate or pledge all or any part of such revenue to redeem or pay any bonds, notes or warrants, as well as interest thereon, authorized to be issued by such city or town under any provision of law or to retire any other indebtedness which such city or town may legally incur.

Art. 1015g-2. Validation of Proceedings for Issuance and Sale of Time Warrants for International Toll Bridges

Sec. 1. That all proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities in the State of Texas, in the issuance and sale of revenue time warrants under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and Chapter 258, Acts of the 49th Legislature, 1945, as amended (Article 1015g, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), to finance and undertaking to finance the cost of repairing, improving, reconstructing, or replacing any existing international toll bridge owned by such city or town is hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved, ratified, and legalized, and any such warrants heretofore sold or heretofore authorized but not yet delivered, are in all things fully validated, confirmed, ratified, approved, and legalized and such warrants are hereby declared to be the valid and binding special obligations of such cities or towns, payable only from sources other than taxation and which do not constitute a tax obligation. All orders, resolutions, ordinances, and actions authorizing the issuance of any such warrant and setting aside and pledging the revenues of any such international toll bridge system are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved, ratified, and legalized, and the fact that any city or town, in the issuance and sale of any such obligations or in the pledging of any said revenues of such systems to the payment of such warrants, failed to have or lacked the power and right to do all things necessary to make said obligations legal, shall in no wise impair such obligations nor the pledge of such revenues, but the same are in all things validated, confirmed, ratified, and approved.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or any obligations issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation; nor shall the provisions of this Act affect, in any way, the title to real estate, the ownership of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1015g-3. Revenue Bonds by Border Cities; Pledge of Revenue from Toll Bridges; Approval and Registration

Sec. 1. Any city or town in this state, including Home Rule Cities, having located within its corporate limits, or outside its corporate limits but within a distance of fifteen (15) miles from such corporate limits, a toll bridge over a river between the State of Texas and the Republic of Mexico, shall have the power, subject to any outstanding covenants relating to or made in favor of the holders of outstanding bonds of any such city or town, to appropriate or pledge all or any part of any revenues derived by any such city or town from or on account of any such toll bridge, including revenues derived by any such city or town from or on account of and pursuant to any contract with another city or town covering or relating to the operation of such a toll bridge, to the payment of bonds issued under and for the purposes permitted by this Act.

Sec. 2. Revenue bonds, payable from the source aforesaid, may be issued by any such city and town for the purpose of acquiring by purchase, construction or otherwise, or making repairs to, or extending or improving, any or all public buildings, utility system or systems and/or other public properties or facilities, considered necessary and appropriate by the governing body of such city or town. Such revenue bonds may be issued without the necessity of an election when authorized by an ordinance or ordinances of such governing body, which ordinance may provide and contain such terms and conditions for such bonds and such covenants and commitments to bondholders with respect thereto as may be deemed appropriate by such governing body, except that each issue of such bonds shall mature in not more than forty (40) years from their date and shall bear interest not to exceed the rate or rates as provided in and computed in accordance with Senate Bill No. 20, 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969.¹ Additionally, such bonds may be refunded upon such terms and at such times, and maturing at such times and bearing such rate or rates of interest as the issuer shall deem appropriate.

Sec. 3. The proceedings authorizing such bonds shall be presented to the Attorney General for review and to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for registration, all as in the case of other bonds issued by cities and counties in this state. Upon the approval thereof by the Attorney General, the bonds and such proceedings thus approved shall be incontestable for any cause.

Art. 1015g-4. Eligible City Operating Toll Bridge Over Rio Grande River; Acquisition of Property, etc.; Revenue Bonds

Definition

Sec. 1. As used in this Act the term "eligible city" is defined as and means any incorporated city which owns and operates any portion of a toll bridge over the Rio Grande River.

General Authority

Sec. 2. Each eligible city is authorized to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, operate, and maintain any property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or other facilities, for any public purpose.

Authority to Issue Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. For the purpose of providing funds to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, and equip any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities, for any public purpose, the governing body of an eligible city may issue revenue bonds of said eligible city from time to time and in one or more issues or series, to be payable from and secured by liens on and pledges of all or any part of any of the revenues, income, or receipts derived by the eligible city from its ownership and operation of any portion of any toll bridge or bridges over the Rio Grande River, and from its ownership and operation of any other property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or facilities.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 4. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 50 years from their date, and provisions may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are and shall constitute negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, provided that the bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of any facilities, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds, and such proceeds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges

Sec. 5. Each eligible city shall be authorized to fix and collect tolls, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use and availability of all or any of its toll bridge or bridges, and its property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or other facilities, in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the eligible city.

Pledges

Sec. 6. (a) Each eligible city may pledge all or any part of its revenues, income, or receipts from such tolls, rentals, rates, and charges, or other resources to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged tolls, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the aforesaid toll bridge or bridges, property, buildings, structures, or other facilities.

(b) Said bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property owned by the eligible city and by chattel mortgages or liens on any personal property appurtenant to such real property; and the governing body of the eligible city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence same.

(c) Also, each eligible city may pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Additional Powers

Sec. 7. It is hereby found, determined, and declared that the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, and/or equipment by an eligible city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities for lease or rental to the United States of America, or any department or agency thereof, for use in performing federal governmental functions in the city, or in performing federal governmental functions at or near, and relating to, its toll bridge, even though its toll bridge and said federal facilities relating thereto are not located in the city is and constitutes a public purpose and a proper municipal function. Any such property, buildings, structures, or other facilities acquired, purchased, constructed, improved, enlarged, and/or equipped in whole or in part with proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be leased or rented by an eligible city to the United States of America, or any department or agency thereof, upon such terms and conditions, and for such period, as such parties shall agree.

Bonds Not General Obligations of an Eligible City

Sec. 8. Bonds issued pursuant to this Act by an eligible city are payable solely from the revenues, income, receipts, or other resources of the eligible city, as provided in this Act, and such bonds are not tax obligations of the eligible city.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 9. Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for such purpose, under such terms, conditions, and details as may be determined by ordinance of the governing body of the eligible city. All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such refunding bonds, and they shall be issued in the manner provided herein for other bonds authorized under this Act; provided that such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date. Also, such refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded thereby. In the latter case, the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds; and any such exchange may be made in one delivery, or in several installment deliveries. Bonds issued at any time by an eligible city also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 10. All bonds issued pursuant to this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with law, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas; and after such approval and registration such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Bonds are Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds issued pursuant to this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. Said bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 12. This Act shall be cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any eligible city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 13. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1015h. Public Building; Powers of City Owning Natural Gas Distribution SystemApplication of Act; Powers of Eligible City

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all incorporated cities, including Home Rule Cities, of more than fifty thousand (50,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census which own and operate a natural gas distribution system serving the inhabitants of all or part of such city. Any such city, for the purposes of this Act, shall be an "eligible" city.

Any eligible city shall have the power to construct, purchase, equip, improve, repair, remodel and enlarge coliseums, exposition and convention halls, city halls and other public buildings and the necessary sites therefor, and to issue revenue bonds for such purposes. Such cities may acquire one (1) building for any one (1) or more of the foregoing purposes or may acquire one (1) or more buildings for any one (1) or more of such purposes.

Revenue Bonds; Security; Pledge of Revenues of Gas System

Sec. 2. When authorized at an election as hereinafter provided, the governing body of any eligible city shall be authorized to issue the revenue bonds of such city bearing interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum and maturing within not more than thirty (30) years from their date or dates, and to secure the payment thereof by pledging and encumbering the net revenues of the revenue producing parts of such buildings and, at the option of the governing body, by a further pledge of the net revenues of the city's municipal gas distribution system, either any part or all. Such bonds shall be issued under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, both inclusive of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, except where same are in conflict with the provisions of this Act. No such bonds shall be issued, however, until first authorized by a majority vote of the voters qualified to vote in such elections and voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called and held in the same manner provided for other bond elections for such city. The issuance of revenue bonds to provide funds with which to acquire one (1) or more buildings for one (1) or more of the foregoing purposes may be submitted as one (1) proposition at such election; provided that all bonds included in one (1) proposition are secured by a pledge of the same revenues.

Ordinances; Books and Accounts

Sec. 3. The governing body of any such city shall be authorized to make such provisions in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds as it shall deem proper and desirable in regard to the terms and conditions upon which such revenues, or any designated part thereof, shall be pledged, the method of securing the payment of such bonds, the use of the pledged revenues, the establishment of reserves for depreciation, replacements, betterments, additions and extensions, the duties and obligations of the city in regard to the use, maintenance and operation of the facilities whose net revenues are pledged to the payment of such bonds and as to the right of redemption, if any, of such bonds before their respective maturity dates. It shall be the duty of the city to establish and maintain separate books and accounts for each of the properties whose income shall have been pledged.

Additional Bonds

Sec. 4. The governing body of such cities shall be authorized to issue additional revenue bonds for such purposes secured by a pledge of all or any part of the net revenues which are pledged to the payment of previously issued bonds to the extent and in the manner expressly permitted by the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such previously authorized and outstanding revenue bonds. Such additional revenue bonds shall be issued only after being authorized at an election held as hereinabove provided for original issues. Any ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may provide for the use by the city of surplus revenues for other lawful purposes.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. The governing body of any said city shall be authorized to refund all or any part of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act by the issuance of refunding bonds without the necessity of an election; provided that the refunding bonds shall not bear interest at a higher rate than that borne by the bonds being refunded.

Act Cumulative; Conflict with Existing Laws

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but in the event any of its provisions are in conflict with any existing laws, the provisions hereof shall prevail and be effective in regard to the subject matter of this Act.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 7. If any paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any other person or circumstance and the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 1015i. Lease of City Owned Hospital; Cities of 65,000 or Less

The governing body of any incorporated city or town (including home rule cities) having a population of sixty-five thousand (65,000) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, is hereby authorized to lease any city-owned hospital, or part thereof, to be operated by the lessee as a public hospital under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by such governing body and such lessee. Any such lease shall be authorized by ordinance or resolution adopted by such governing body, and the lease agreement shall be executed, on behalf of the city or town, by the mayor and the city secretary or clerk, and the seal of the city shall be impressed thereon. Such lease may cover any period of time not to exceed fifty (50) years.

Art. 1015j. Appropriations for Advertising and Promoting Growth and Development of General Law Cities

Each city incorporated or operating under the general laws of this State may appropriate from the General Fund of the city an amount not exceeding Five Cents (5¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation, for the purpose of advertising and promoting the growth and development of such city; providing that before the governing body of any city may appropriate any sums for such purpose, the qualified property taxpaying voters of the city shall, by a majority vote at an election, authorize the governing body of the city to thereafter appropriate not to exceed Five Cents (5¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation.

Art. 1015j-1. Promotional Advertising for Growth and Development in Cities of Not More Than 500,000; Board of Development; Appropriations and Expenditures Authorized

Sec. 1. The governing body of any incorporated city having a population of not more than 500,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census may appropriate from the general fund an amount not exceeding one percent of the general fund budget for that year, such appropriation to be for advertising such city and promoting its growth and development.

Sec. 2. Before expending any money appropriated under authority of this Act, the governing body shall create a Citizens' Advisory Committee known as a City Board of Development, or by any other name, consisting of five members, to be appointed by the governing body for two-year terms. Members of the board shall receive no compensation, shall have advisory powers only, and shall not be deemed to be public officers or agents of the city, and their service on the board shall not invalidate city contracts in which they may have an interest.

Sec. 3. The board of development shall investigate the desirability of various methods of advertising and promoting the city and shall make appropriate recommendations to the governing body as to the best method of expending funds already available, and as to the amount which should be appropriated in the next budget. Recommendations of the board are not binding on the governing body, which shall have discretion as to the amount to be appropriated (within the limit of one percent of the general fund budget) and as to the methods of using it.

Sec. 4. This statute is cumulative of any powers which a city has or shall have under its charter, and shall not impair any such charter power.

Art. 1015k. Regulation of Rendering Plants

For the purpose of protecting its residents from health hazards arising from unsanitary conditions which may exist in conjunction with certain industrial establishments, any city, town or village in this State shall have the power by the enactment of the necessary ordinances to regulate the equipment and mode of operation of rendering plants within the city limits or within one (1) mile from the city limits.

Art. 1015l. Parking on Private Property

Any incorporated city or town may by ordinance regulate the parking of motor vehicles on private property, and may enforce the ordinance in the same manner that it enforces ordinances regulating parking in public no-parking zones, including impoundment of offending vehicles.

Art. 1015m. Unauthorized Vehicles in Parking Lots; Removal; Liability

Sec. 1. The owner of a parking lot, or his agent, or the lessee of a space in a parking lot may have any motor vehicle parked on the lot without the consent of the owner of the lot, or his agent, or parked in the space of the lessee without the consent of the lessee, removed and stored at the expense of the owner or operator of the vehicle if a readable sign specifying those persons who may park in the lot and prohibiting all others is prominently placed at all entrances to the lot.

Sec. 2. The owner of a lot or the lessee of a space in a lot who has an unauthorized vehicle removed and stored under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act is not liable for damages incurred by the owner or operator of an unauthorized vehicle as a result of removal or storage if the vehicle is removed by an insured vehicle wrecker service and stored by an insured storage company.

Art. 1016. Streets and Alleys, etc.

Any city or town incorporated under the general laws of this State shall have the exclusive control and power over the streets, alleys, and public grounds and highways of the city or town, and to abate and remove encroachments or obstructions thereon; to open, alter, widen, extend, establish, regulate, grade, clean and otherwise improve said streets; to put drains or sewers therein, and prevent encumbering thereof in any manner, and to protect same from encroachment or injury; and to regulate and alter the grade of premises; to require the filling up and raising of same; and, upon petition of all of the owners of real property abutting a street or alley, the governing body of any such city or town shall also have the power, by ordinance, to vacate and abandon and close any such street or alley.

Art. 1017. Sale of Parks, Land for Buildings and Abandoned Streets, etc.; Disposition of Proceeds

The governing body of any incorporated city or town in this State, however incorporated, may sell and convey any land or interest in land owned, held or claimed as public square, park or site for city hall or other municipal building, and abandoned parts of streets and alleys, together with all improvements on any such property owned by any such city or town. The proceeds of any such sale shall be used only for the acquisition and improvement of property for the same uses as that so sold. Provided, however, that the title of any purchaser of such property for a valuable consideration shall not be impaired by reason of the failure of such governing body to so apply said funds. Such sales shall be made by an ordinance passed by such governing bodies which shall direct the execution of conveyance by the mayor or city manager of any such city or town.

Art. 1018. Use by Railway, etc.

The charter, or any amendment thereto, may authorize the governing body to close for the exclusive use temporarily or perpetually by any railroad company or other corporation having power of eminent domain, any part or parts, of any street or streets, alley or alleys, and to ratify and confirm any prior ordinances closing any street or streets, alley or alleys, or any part or parts thereof, for the use of any railroad company or any such other corporation.

Art. 1019. Special Election

No public square or park shall be sold, and no street or alley, nor part or parts of any street or alley closed, until the question of such sale or closing has been submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city or town, and approved by a majority of the votes cast at such election.

Art. 1020. Towns so Empowered

The provisions of the three preceding articles shall be enforced in towns or cities under five thousand population, or cities over five thousand population which have no special charter, and in towns or cities incorporated under this title, and in cities or towns incorporated under any special law. The power authorized by this article may be conferred upon the governing body by vote of the qualified voters as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 1021. Interest on Indebtedness

No indebtedness of any character whatever, hereafter incurred by said corporation, shall draw a higher rate of interest than six per cent per annum.

Art. 1022. Audit Board

With the consent of the governing body, the mayor of each city or town incorporated under the general laws, shall at the first meeting of said body in January of each year appoint three resident citizens of said city or town who shall constitute a board of examiners of the finances of said city or town. Such examiners shall proceed to examine the books and accounts of each officer of said city or town, and make a sworn true report of the financial condition thereof to said governing body as soon as practicable and not later than the first meeting of said body in March of each year. The annual report of said board shall be passed upon by said governing body and spread upon the minutes of their meeting at the first regular meeting after the return of such report. Such examiners shall receive for their services such compensation as said governing body shall fix for every day actually employed in their investigations, not to exceed fifteen days in each year, which shall be paid by order of said body.

Art. 1023. Financial Statement

The city council shall, at least ten days before the expiration of each municipal year, cause to be published in a city newspaper a correct and full statement of the receipts and expenditures from the date of the last annual report, together with the sources from which the funds were derived, and showing for what purpose disbursed, the condition of the treasury, together with such information as may be necessary to a full understanding of the financial condition of the city.

Art. 1024. Receiver Appointed

A city or town so situated as is herein set forth, which fails to effect a compromise of its debts, or pending the negotiation of a compromise, shall be permitted, on its application setting forth its financial condition and insolvency, to have the district court of the county in which said city or town is situated, take charge of the collection and appropriation of all taxes levied and assessed by said city or town, except so much thereof as is necessary to pay the current expenses of the city or town; and to that end, said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall appoint a receiver or make the assessor and collector of said city or town its receiver to collect and pay into a named depository all taxes levied by said city or town for the payment of its debts; and said courts shall decide all questions of priority between conflicting claimants of said funds, and shall provide for the ratable and equitable distribution of said funds among all creditors entitled thereto. But it shall not be lawful for any court to appoint a receiver of or concerning any city or town except upon the voluntary application of such city or town.

Art. 1024a. Relief to Municipalities and Taxing Districts Under Federal Bankruptcy Laws

That all municipalities, political subdivisions and taxing districts in this State which have power to incur indebtedness, either through action of their own governing bodies or through action of the governing bodies of counties or cities in which such political subdivisions or taxing districts are included, are hereby authorized to proceed under all laws enacted by the Congress of the United States under the Federal Bankruptcy powers, which laws have for their object the relief of municipal indebtedness, including H.R. 5950 of the Seventy-Third Congress, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States,' approved July 1, 1898, and acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto," approved May 24, 1934,¹ and the officials and governing bodies of such municipalities, political subdivisions and taxing districts are authorized to adopt all proceedings and to do any and all acts necessary or convenient to fully avail such municipalities, political subdivisions and taxing districts of the provisions of such Acts of Congress.

Art. 1024b. Composition with Creditors Under Federal Bankruptcy Laws

All municipalities, political subdivisions, and taxing districts in this State as defined in Section 81, Chapter 657, Acts of the Seventy-fifth Congress of the United States, 50 Statutes at Large, Page 654, 11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 401, which have power to incur indebtedness, either through action of their own governing bodies or through action of the governing bodies of counties or cities in which such political subdivisions or taxing districts are included, are hereby authorized to proceed under all laws that have been heretofore enacted by the Congress of the United States under the Federal Bankruptcy powers to effect a plan for the composition of their indebtedness, and the officials and governing bodies of such municipalities, political subdivisions, and taxing districts are authorized to adopt all proceedings and to do any and all acts necessary to fully avail such municipalities, political subdivisions, and taxing districts of the provisions of such Acts of Congress, but this Act shall not apply to any bond or bonds while held by the permanent school fund of Texas.

Art. 1025. Official Paper

The city council shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of each municipal year, contract, as they may by ordinance or resolution determine, with a public newspaper of the city as the official paper thereof, and to continue as such until another is elected, and shall cause to be published therein all ordinances, notices and other matters required by this title or by the ordinance of the city to be published.

Art. 1026. Power to Levy

The governing body of any city or town in this State having a population of five thousand or less shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect such taxes as such governing body may determine, not to exceed for any one year one and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city or town, for current expenses and for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers, and other permanent improvements, within the limits of such city or town, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city or town within its limits.

Art. 1027. Ad Valorem Tax

The governing body of any incorporated city or town having a population of not more than five thousand inhabitants, shall have power, by ordinance, to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax of not exceeding one and one-half per cent on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property within such city or town for the erection, construction or purchase of public buildings, streets, sewers and other permanent improvements within the limits of such city or town. Within the meaning of this article shall be included building sites and buildings for public free schools and institutions of learning within those cities and towns which have or may assume the exclusive control and management of public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits.

Art. 1027a. Validating Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Towns of 1,200 in Certain Counties

All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing bodies of any incorporated city or town in this State which are void and unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance, or which are void and unenforceable because of the failure of the governing bodies of such incorporated city or town to appoint the proper and statutory Board of Equalization, as required by the laws of this State, or where the City Council, City Commission or other governing body of such incorporated city or town have acted as a Board of Equalization in the fixing of the valuation of taxable property for ad valorem taxes within any such incorporated city or town, and which levies are otherwise legally enforceable are hereby validated and that same are hereby declared enforceable the same as though they had been made and adopted originally by ordinance duly passed and as heard before a properly and legally appointed Board of Equalization; provided that the provisions of this Act shall be applied only to those incorporated cities and towns having a population of less than twelve hundred (1200) inhabitants and situated in counties of this State having a population of thirty-four thousand, one hundred and fifty-six (34,156) to thirty-four thousand, three hundred (34,300) according to the last preceding United States Census.

Art. 1027a-1. Cities and Towns Under 1,200; Assessments and Valuations Validated; Budget Hearings Validated

All acts of the governing bodies of all cities and towns in this State, having a population of not more than twelve hundred (1200) according to the last Federal Census, heretofore done, performed or attempted to be done in connection with the making of assessments, providing for valuations, equalization hearings, notices of budget hearings, adoption of budgets, adoption of tax rates and tax rolls and any and all other acts necessary or required in providing the assessment, valuation and collection of city taxes, heretofore had or done by the governing bodies of said cities and towns, are hereby ratified and validated in all respects as though they had been duly and legally made in the first instance, and all taxes, either real, personal or both, heretofore levied, assessed and charged against any person, by any such governing bodies in all cities and towns having a population of not more than twelve hundred (1200) according to the last Federal Census are hereby declared to be valid and binding tax obligations of said individuals and same shall be collectible under the laws of this State providing for the collection of delinquent taxes with penalty and interest.

This Act shall not have the effect of validating any tax levy unless the same shall be made by a duly constituted governing body acting in the fair and reasonable exercise of its taxing power, nor shall any levy be validated if it should be unreasonable, discriminatory or otherwise apply or affect any person, firm or individual in a confiscatory manner. All taxes validated herein shall be uniform as to persons and classes of property, and any person shall have full recourse to courts of law for the enforcement of his legal rights against discriminatory or confiscatory taxes notwithstanding the validating provisions hereof.

Art. 1027b. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Cities of 1,100 to 1,250

All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing bodies of any incorporated city or town in this State which are void and unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance, or which are void and unenforceable because of the failure of the governing bodies of such incorporated city or town to appoint the proper and Statutory Board of Equalization, as required by the laws of this State, or where the City Council, City Commission or other governing body of such incorporated city or town has acted as a Board of Equalization in the fixing of the valuation of taxable property for ad valorem taxes within any such incorporated city or town, and which levies are otherwise legally enforceable are hereby validated and that the same are hereby declared enforceable the same as though they had been made and adopted originally by ordinance duly passed and/or as heard before a properly and legally appointed Board of Equalization; provided that the provisions of this Act shall be applied only to those incorporated cities and towns in this State having a population of not less than eleven hundred (1100) and not more than twelve hundred and fifty (1250) inhabitants, according to the last preceding United States Census.

Art. 1027c. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Incorporated Cities and Towns

Sec. 1. All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing body of any incorporated city or town in this State which are void and unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion, or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance or which are void and unenforceable because of the failure of the governing bodies of such incorporated city or town to appoint the proper and Statutory Board of Equalization, as required by the laws of this State, or where the City Council, City Commission, or other governing body of such incorporated city or town has acted as a Board of Equalization in the fixing of the valuation of taxable property for ad valorem taxes within any such incorporated city or town and which levies are otherwise legally enforceable are hereby validated and that same are hereby declared enforceable the same as though they had been made and adopted originally by ordinance duly passed and as heard before a properly and legally appointed Board of Equalization.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such levies for ad valorem taxes, and/or proceedings incident thereto, where the validity of such levy, and/or proceedings incident thereto, have been attacked or contested in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1027c-1. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Incorporated Cities and Towns; Exceptions

All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing bodies of any incorporated city or town in this State incorporated under the General Laws of this State (commonly referred to as General Law Cities), which are unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance, or which are unenforceable because of the failure of the governing bodies of such incorporated cities or towns to appoint the proper statutory Board of Equalization, as required by the laws of this State, or where the governing bodies of such incorporated cities or towns have acted as a Board of Equalization in the fixing of the valuation of taxable property for ad valorem taxes within such incorporated city or town and which levies are otherwise legally enforceable, are hereby validated and the same are hereby declared enforceable the same as though they had been made and adopted originally by ordinance duly passed and/or as heard before a properly and legally appointed Board of Equalization. Provided this Act shall not validate any taxes levied for street paving, sidewalk, curb and gutter work, or similar work, and no liens shall attach to any real property by virtue of such levy.

Art. 1027d. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Cities and Towns of 3,305 to 3,445

All levies and assessments of ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing body of any city or town incorporated in this State, which are unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion or other informal action, instead of having been made by ordinance as required by law; and all assessments of taxes or assessments of property within the limits of any such city or town in this State subject to taxation under the laws of this State, for taxation under such resolution, motion or other informal action, which are insufficient because of the failure of such governing body to appoint the proper and statutory Board of Equalization, as required by law, and which are insufficient or unenforceable on account of technical irregularities in the manner of preparing the books and reports of the assessors assessing such property; and all equalizations of said valuations of such property for taxation purposes made by the Board of Equalization acting for such city or town which are irregular or insufficient because the reports of such equalization were adopted and accepted orally or by other informal action, are each and all hereby validated, ratified, approved, confirmed, and declared enforceable the same as though such levies and assessments of taxes had been made and adopted originally by the proper order, motion or resolution, duly passed, entered of record and signed by the proper officials of such governing body, and the same as though such assessments of property within such city or town for taxation purposes had been made in due and complete form, time and manner, and the same as though said equalizations and the reports of the Boards of Equalization acting for such city or town had been made in due and regular form, time and manner, and adopted and accepted in due and regular form. Provided, however, that the terms of this Act shall apply only to incorporated cities and towns having a population of not less than three thousand three hundred five (3,305) inhabitants, and not more than three thousand four hundred forty-five (3,445) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census; and provided, further, that this Act shall not affect any suit or suits pending in any Court in this State on the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1027e. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Cities and Towns of 3,000 to 4,000

Sec. 1. All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing body of any incorporated City or Town in this State which are void and unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion, or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance or which are void and unenforceable because of the failure of the governing bodies of such incorporated City or Town to appoint the proper and statutory Board of Equalization, as required by the laws of this State, or where the City Council, City Commission, or other governing body of such incorporated City or Town has acted as a Board of Equalization in the fixing of the valuation of taxable property for ad valorem taxes within any such incorporated City or Town and which levies are otherwise legally enforceable are hereby validated and that same are hereby declared enforceable the same as though they had been made and adopted originally by ordinance duly passed and as heard before a properly and legally appointed Board of Equalization; provided that the provisions of this Act shall be applied only to those incorporated Cities and Towns in this State having a population of not less than three thousand (3,000), and not more than four thousand (4,000) according to the last preceding United States Census.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such levies for ad valorem taxes, and/or proceedings incident thereto, where the validity of such levy, and/or proceedings incident thereto, have been attacked or contested in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1027f. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Cities and Towns of 1,245 to 1,255 Population

All levies and assessments of ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing body of any incorporated city or town in this State, which are voidable or unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion or other informal action, instead of having been made by order, as required by the Statutes of this State; and all assessments of taxes or assessments of property within the limits of any incorporated city or town in this State, subject to taxation under the laws of this State, for taxation under such resolution, motion, or other informal action, which are insufficient because of the failure of such governing body to appoint the proper and statutory Board of Equalization, as required by law, and which are insufficient, and voidable, or unenforceable on account of technical irregularities in the manner of preparing the books and reports of the assessors assessing such property; and all equalizations of said valuations of such property for taxation purposes made by the Board of Equalization acting for any such incorporated city or town, which are irregular or insufficient because the reports of such equalizations were adopted and accepted orally, or by other informal action; and the acts of making such equalizations were made orally or informally or in incomplete form, are each and all hereby validated, ratified, approved, confirmed, and declared enforceable, the same as though such levies and assessments of taxes had been made and adopted originally by the proper order, motion or resolution, duly passed, entered of record and signed by the proper officials of such governing body, and the same as though such assessments of property within such incorporated cities or towns for taxation purposes had been made in due and complete form, and the same as though said equalizations and the reports of each of the Boards of Equalization acting for said incorporated cities or towns had been made in due and regular form, and adopted and accepted in due and regular form; and all levies, assessments and equalizations of ad valorem taxes heretofore made in such cities or towns which are insufficient or unenforceable because of the failure of the governing body or any officer of such city or town to prepare, have public hearings on and file a budget are hereby validated and declared enforceable the same as though the budgets had been made, heard and filed; provided that the provisions of this Act shall be applied only to those incorporated cities and towns having a population of not less than twelve hundred forty-five (1245), and not more than twelve hundred fifty-five (1255), according to the last preceding United States census. Provided, however, that this Act shall not affect any suit now pending in any Court of this State.

Art. 1027g. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in Cities and Towns of 3,450 to 3,455 Population

Sec. 1. All levies and assessments of ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing body of any incorporated city or town in this State having a population of not less than three thousand four hundred fifty (3,450) inhabitants nor more than three thousand four hundred fifty-five (3,455) inhabitants according to the last Federal Census, which are void or unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion, or other informal action, instead of having been made by ordinance, as required by the Statutes of this State, and all assessments of property within the limits of any incorporated city or town in this State, subject to taxation under the laws of this State, for taxation under such resolution, motion, or other informal action, made by the Tax Assessor and Collector of any such incorporated city or town, which are void or unenforceable because of irregularities in the manner of assessing such property or preparing the assessment rolls and reports, and all ad valorem taxes levied and assessed against property within the limits of any incorporated city or town in this State, subject to taxation under the laws of this State, which are void or unenforceable because of irregularities in the manner any such Tax Assessor and Collector prepared the current tax rolls, or because of the failure of any such Tax Assessor and Collector to prepare the current tax rolls as required by the Statutes of this State, are each and all hereby ratified, validated, approved, confirmed, and declared enforceable, the same as though such levies and assessments of ad valorem taxes had been made and adopted originally by proper ordinance, duly passed, entered of record and signed by the proper officers of such governing body, and the same as though such assessments of property within such incorporated cities or towns for taxation purposes had been made in due and complete form and manner, and the same as though such assessment rolls and current tax rolls had been made and prepared in due and complete form and manner as required by the Statutes of this State.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such levies and assessments for ad valorem taxes, and/or proceedings incident thereto, where the validity of such levy and assessment, and/or proceedings incident thereto, have been attacked or contested in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1027h. Validation of Levies of Ad Valorem Taxes in Cities or Towns in Counties of 19,070 to 19,200

Sec. 1. All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing body of any city or town in this State, which are void and unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion, or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance as is required by the Statutes of the State, and which are otherwise legally enforceable, are hereby validated, and the same are hereby declared to be legally enforceable the same as though originally levied and assessed in strict conformity with the procedure prescribed therefor by law.

Sec. 2. This Act shall apply only in those counties having a population of not less than nineteen thousand and seventy (19,070) and not more than nineteen thousand, two hundred (19,200), according to the Federal Census for the year 1940.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not affect nor in any manner apply to suits pending for the enforced collection of taxes or for any other purpose.

Art. 1027i. Validation of Ad Valorem Tax Levies in All Cities and Towns for Certain Purposes

All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing bodies of any incorporated city or town in this State for current expenses, maintenance of public free schools, and for interest and sinking funds to pay bonded obligations heretofore authorized by the electorate, which levies are void and unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion, or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance, or because made and adopted prior to final approval of the annual budget of any such city or town, or because made and adopted at a time when the tax rolls were not actually before the governing bodies of any such city or town, and which levies are otherwise legally enforceable, are hereby ratified, confirmed, and validated, and such levies are hereby declared enforceable the same as though they had been adopted originally by ordinance in strict compliance with all requirements of the law; provided this Act shall not apply to levies the validity of which has been attacked in any litigation pending in Court at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 1027j. Unenforceable and Unrecorded Tax Levies in Cities of 7,800 to 8,000; Validation; Assessment and Collection as Notice of Levy

Unenforceable Levies

Sec. 1. (a) All tax levies heretofore made by and for any tax unit, which levies are unenforceable because not made in strict compliance with the form and manner required by statute or because of any other defect which may be cured by the Legislature, are hereby validated and declared enforceable the same as though they had been regularly made in proper form and manner.

(b) Henceforth if for any cause any tax unit fails to make a valid tax levy for any year, the last prior valid tax levy of that tax unit shall be continued in force as the tax levy of such tax unit for the year in which a valid levy was not made.

Levies Not Recorded

Sec. 2. Should any tax unit fail to make a proper record of a tax levy for any year, but taxes were assessed and collected by the unit for that year and the tax rate(s) can be determined by examining the tax rolls for such year, this shall constitute notice that a tax levy was made by the unit for that year even though such levy was not properly recorded; and the unit's governing body may make inquiry and determine that a proper tax levy was regularly made for such year but was not recorded, and the governing body may order that a proper tax levy ordinance for such year be entered in the official records nunc pro tunc, and this shall be conclusive evidence that the tax unit's levy for such year was properly and regularly made. This provision shall be cumulative of and in addition to all other rights and remedies not available to any tax unit in such cases.

Definitions

Sec. 3. A tax unit or unit as used in this Act is any incorporated city with a population of not less than 7,800, and not more than 8,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

Inapplicability of this Act

Sec. 4. This Act shall not affect any suit pending in any court on the effective date of this Act where the invalidity or non-record of any tax levy has heretofore been pleaded as a defense.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 1027k. Validation of Proceedings for Ad Valorem Tax Levies to Acquire Facilities for Upper Level College

Sec. 1. Where any city in the state which operates under the general law or pursuant to a home rule charter acting through its governing body has heretofore authorized the issuance of bonds payable from ad valorem taxes for the acquisition of buildings and facilities for an upper level college, and the proposition of issuance of such bonds and the levy of the tax therefor has been submitted to and approved by a majority of the resident, qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation voting at an election and a majority of all other qualified electors voting at such election, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election, the issuance of such bonds and such bonds are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the delivery of such bonds to purchasers thereof, acquire such buildings and facilities, and convey without consideration all or any part of the properties acquired with the proceeds from the sale of such bonds together with the site or sites therefor, to the State of Texas acting by and through a governing body of a state supported institution of higher learning, and said governing body is hereby authorized to accept such building and facilities and the sites therefor.

Sec. 3. The bonds of any such city when delivered and paid for pursuant to such existing proceedings and lawful proceedings hereinafter had shall be and are hereby declared to be valid and binding obligations of such city in accordance with the terms thereof.

Sec. 4. This Act shall have no application to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of same.

Art. 1028. Ad Valorem Tax in Large Cities

The governing body of any city in this State having more than five thousand inhabitants, unless otherwise provided in its special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted by the people, shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect such taxes as such governing body may determine, not to exceed for any one year two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city, for current expenses and for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers, and other permanent improvements, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city, within its limits.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1028a. Validation of Levies of Ad Valorem Taxes in Certain Cities, Towns and School Districts

That all levies and assessments of ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing body of any independent school district or city or town in this State, in counties having a population of not less than twenty-two thousand, four hundred and fifty (22,450), and not more than twenty-two thousand, eight hundred and fifty (22,850), and all cities having a population of not less than eleven thousand, four hundred (11,400), and not more than eleven thousand, five hundred (11,500), according to the last preceding Federal Census, not in excess of the limit now provided by law, which are void or unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion or other informal action, instead of having been made by order, as required by the Statutes of this State; and all assessments of taxes or assessments of property within the limits of any such independent school district or city or town in this State, subject to taxation under the laws of this State for taxation under such resolution, motion or other informal action, which are insufficient because of the failure of such governing body to appoint the proper and statutory Board of Equalization, as required by law, and which are insufficient and void, and unenforceable on account of technical irregularities in the manner of preparing the books and reports of the assessors assessing such property; and all equalizations of said valuations of such property for taxation purposes made by the Board of Equalization acting for any such independent school district or city or town which are irregular or insufficient because the reports of such equalization were adopted and accepted orally, or by other informal action; and/or the acts of making such equalization were made orally or informally or in incomplete form, are each and all hereby validated, ratified, approved, confirmed, and declared enforceable, the same as though such levies and assessments of taxes had been made and adopted originally by the proper order, motion or resolution, duly passed, entered of record, and signed by the proper officials of such governing body, and the same as though such assessments of property within such independent school district or city or town for taxation purposes had been made in due and complete form, and the same as though such equalizations and the reports of each of the Boards of Equalization acting for said independent school districts or city or town had been made in due and regular form, and adopted and accepted in due and regular form. Provided, however, that this Act shall not affect any suit or suits pending at the time same becomes effective, which have been filed for the collection of taxes by any independent school district or city or town in this State; and provided further, that this Act shall not validate any valuation placed upon property by any Board of Equalization or any Tax Assessor where such property had been valued in excess of its reasonable cash market value, or where such property has been discriminated against as to value or placed upon the rolls at a higher value than property of like kind, or at a greater percentage of its value than other property as-essed for taxation by such Independent School District or city or town in which located.

Art. 1029. Retirement of Indebtedness

To meet the interest and sinking fund on all indebtedness legally incurred prior to the adoption of the constitutional amendment of September 25, 1883, regarding the power of cities and towns to levy and collect taxes, etc., the governing body of the following cities and towns shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect an annual ad valorem tax sufficient therefor:

1. Of any city or town having a population of five thousand or less.

2. Of any city having more than five thousand inhabitants, unless otherwise provided in the special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted by the people.

Art. 1030. Poll Tax; When Prerequisite to Voting

The City Council shall have power to levy and collect an annual poll tax, not to exceed One Dollar ($1) of every inhabitant of said city over the age of twenty-one (21) and under sixty (60) years, those persons exempt by law from paying the State poll tax excepted, who is a resident thereof at the time of such annual assessment; provided that said poll tax levied by the City Council shall not be made a prerequisite to voting in any election in this State except in city elections.

Art. 1031. Occupation Tax

The city council shall have the power to levy and collect taxes, commonly known as licenses, upon trades, professions, callings and other business carried on; and each person and firm engaging in the following trades, professions, callings and business, among others, shall be liable to pay such license tax; every person or firm keeping a ball alley, or nine or ten-pin alley; every person or firm selling goods, wares and merchandise at public auction; every merchant or cotton broker or commission merchant; every person or firm pursuing the occupation of hawker or peddler of goods or any article whatever; but this enumeration shall not be held to deprive the city council of the right to levy and collect other license taxes, and from other persons and firms under the general authority herein granted.

Art. 1032. Power to Collect Tax

Nothing herein shall prevent the city council from collecting the license, and each license tax provided for by this title. Each establishment shall be liable to said license tax; and any person or firm pursuing occupations, business, avocations or calling subject to said tax shall pay on each. No license shall extend to more than one establishment, or include more than one occupation, avocation, business or calling.

Art. 1033. Power to Assess Tax

The city council shall have power to provide by ordinance for the assessing and collecting of said taxes, and to determine when taxes shall be paid by corporations, and when by the individual corporators. No tax shall be levied unless by consent of two-thirds of the aldermen elected.

Art. 1034. Collection of License Tax

The license tax shall be collected by the assessor and collector, and shall be paid to that officer by each person and firm owing such license and before engaging in any trade, profession, business, calling, avocation or occupation subject to said tax. This article shall apply to all persons owning any license and failing to pay the same. The city council may collect said license tax by suit under such rules as they may provide by ordinance. Said taxes, commonly known as licenses, shall not be construed to be a tax on property within the meaning of the provisions of this title.

Art. 1035. License Revoked

In any case where, by any provision of this title, or by an ordinance passed in pursuance thereof, a person is required to obtain a license for any calling, occupation, business or avocation, and has by the recorder been adjudged guilty of violating any city ordinance in relation thereto, the recorder, in addition to a fine, may institute proceedings to suspend or revoke the license so granted.

Art. 1036. "Real Estate"

The term real estate or property as used in this law shall be held to include lots, lands, and all buildings or machinery and structures of every kind erected upon and affixed to the same.

Art. 1037. "Personal Estate"

The term personal estate or property as used in this law shall be held to include all household furniture, money, goods, capital, chattels, public stocks and stocks of corporations, moneyed or otherwise, and generally all property which is not real.

Art. 1038. Exemptions

The city council may, by ordinance, provide for the exemption from taxation of such property as they may deem just and proper.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1039. Special Taxes

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the city council from imposing, levying and collecting special taxes and assessments for the improvement of the avenues, streets and alleys, as hereinafter provided.

Art. 1040. Indebtedness

The city council may also levy, assess and collect taxes necessary to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to satisfy any indebtedness heretofore legally made and undertaken. All such taxes shall be assessed and collected separately from those levied, assessed and collected for current expenses of municipal government, and shall, when levied, specify in the act of levying the purpose therefor. Such taxes may be paid in coupons, bonds or other indebtedness for the payment of which such tax may have been levied.

Art. 1041. Powers of Council

The city council may provide, by ordinance, for the prompt collection of all taxes assessed, levied and imposed under this title, and is authorized to sell or cause to be sold real as well as personal property, and may make such rules and regulations, and pass all ordinances as they may deem necessary to the levying, laying, imposing, assessing and collecting of any tax herein provided.

Art. 1042. Further Powers

The city council may by ordinance, regulate the manner of making out tax lists or inventories and appraisements of property therein, and prescribe the oath that shall be administered on such rendition of property, and to prescribe how and when property shall thus be rendered, and to prescribe the number and form of assessment rolls, and fix the duties and powers of the assessor and collector, and adopt such measures as they deem advisable to secure the assessment of all property within the limits of said city, and collect the tax thereupon.

Art. 1042a. Ordinances Authorizing Assessors, or Assessors and Collectors to Prescribe Assessment Forms, Lists, and Rolls; Cities and Towns of 230,000 to 250,000

All cities and towns in the State of Texas whether incorporated under General or Special Law, including Home Rule Cities, having a population in excess of two hundred and thirty thousand (230,000) and not more than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000), according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall have and they are hereby given the power and authority, any law to the contrary notwithstanding, to pass an ordinance or ordinances:

Empowering the assessor of taxes, or the assessor and collector of taxes, as the case may be, to prescribe assessment forms, lists, or statements for rendering or listing property for taxation by the taxpayer in such city or town, which said assessment forms, lists, or statements shall provide and contain sufficient space and appropriate headings as will make possible their use as a combination assessment-roll-tax-roll, which are now required by law to be made separately, and to provide for the binding of such assessment-roll-tax-roll lists, forms, or statements, into one series of rolls, alphabetically arranged, without reference as to whether such listing or rendering is made by the taxpayer or by the assessor-collector.

Art. 1042b. Assessment and Collection of Taxes in Cities, Towns, Villages, Drainage Districts, and Other Districts

County Assessor and Collector as Assessor and Collector for City, Town, Etc.

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district in the State of Texas is hereby authorized by ordinance or by proper resolution to authorize the county assessor of the county in which said incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district is located to act as tax assessor for said incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district or authorize the tax collector of the county in which said incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district is situated to act as tax collector for said incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district.

Duties of Tax Assessor

Sec. 2. When an ordinance or proper resolution is passed, making available the services of the county tax assessor to such incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district, it shall be the duty of the said tax assessor of the county in which such incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district and perform the duties of tax assessor for said incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district.

Duties of Tax Collector

Sec. 3. When an ordinance or proper resolution is passed availing such incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts of the services of the county tax collector, it shall be the duty of said tax collector of the county in which said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts are situated to collect the taxes and assessments for said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts and turn over as soon as collected to the respective proper depository of said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts, or other authority authorized to receive such taxes or assessments, all taxes or moneys collected for said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts according to the ordinances or resolutions of said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts, and according to law, less his fees hereinafter provided for, and shall perform the duties of tax collector of said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts.

Valuation

Sec. 4. The property situated within and subject to taxation in said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts taking advantage of this Act shall be assessed at the same value as it is assessed for county and state purposes.

Compensation of County Assessor and County Collector

Sec. 5. When the county assessor and county collector are required to assess and collect the taxes in any incorporated city, town or village, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, fresh water supply district, navigation district or hospital district, they shall respectively receive for such services an amount to be agreed upon by the governing body of such incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts, and the commissioners court of the county in which such incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts are situated not to exceed one percent of the taxes so collected.

Art. 1043. Rendition, Fiscal Year

Each person, partnership and corporation owning property within the limits of the corporation shall, between January first and April first of each year, hand to the city assessor and collector a full and complete sworn inventory of the property possessed or controlled by him, her or them, within said limits on the first day of January of the current year. If the fiscal year of a municipal corporation runs otherwise than the calendar year, such corporation may by ordinance require said inventory to be made as of the first day of such fiscal year, in which case the inventory shall be handed to the city assessor and collector within the first three months of the fiscal year.

Art. 1044. Assessor and Collector

The assessor and collector shall make up the assessment of all property taxed by the city, and make duplicate rolls thereof, and on completion of the rolls, shall deliver one of them to the city secretary. He shall collect all the taxes due the city, and in the event of the nonpayment of any taxes, shall proceed to sell the property to raise the amount of taxes so due; and shall in performance of his duties, observe the provisions of this title, and the ordinances of the city relating thereto. He shall give a good bond in such amount and form as the city council may prescribe. The council may require a new bond whenever they deem the existing bond insufficient; and when such bond is required, he shall perform no official act until said bond shall be given and approved. He shall at the end of every week, pay to the treasurer all money by him collected, and shall report to the city council at the first meeting in every month all money so collected and paid and perform all such other duties in such manner as the council may prescribe. The assessor and collector is authorized to require the owners of all property subject to taxation to render a correct account of the same under oath, to be administered by him. He shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the city ordinances.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1044a. City Councils and Trustees of Independent School Districts Authorized to Fix Compensation of Tax Assessors and Collectors in Counties of 43,030 to 43,040 Population

Sec. 1. The City Councils of all cities and towns within this State may at their option increase the compensation of city tax assessors and collectors in any sum not to exceed Three Hundred Dollars ($300) per annum in addition to the amount that is now allowed as compensation to tax assessors and collectors of said cities and towns.

Sec. 2. The trustees of any independent school district within said counties may at their option increase the compensation of tax assessors and collectors of taxes of said independent school districts in addition to the amount now paid not to exceed the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) per annum in all counties with a population of not less than forty-three thousand and thirty (43,030) and not more than forty-three thousand and forty (43,040), according to the last Federal Census.

Art. 1045. List of Personal Property

The assessor and collector shall make out a list of all personal property which has not been given in for assessment according to the provisions of this title, and assess the same in the name of the owner, if he be known; if not, then it shall be assessed by description of the property and as unknown owner. The value of such property shall be determined by the board of equalization. The same may be sold as in other cases, if the tax be not paid in the time prescribed by law.

Art. 1046. Unrendered Property

The assessor and collector, at the expiration of the time fixed by ordinance for the rendition of property shall ascertain such property in the city subject to taxation as has not been rendered; and the same shall be by him presented to the board of equalization for valuation by said board; and the same shall be by him entered in a supplement to the assessment roll as unknown, specifying the year for which said tax is not paid within the time prescribed by law; said property shall be sold at the same time and with like effect as other property.

Art. 1047. Back Taxes

Whenever the assessor and collector shall ascertain that any taxable property, real or personal, has not been assessed for any previous year, he shall assess the same in a supplement to his next assessment roll, at the same rate under which such property should have been assessed for such year, stating the year for which such property should have been assessed; and the taxes thereon shall be collected in the same manner as other assessments. In any case where any party has omitted to render property for taxation for any former year or years, and such taxes have not been paid, such party shall give such property in for assessment for the years thus omitted and pay such taxes; and the assessor and collector shall enter all such property in a supplement to his next assessment roll, under the head of payments for former years.

Art. 1048. Equalization Board

The councils of cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws shall within their discretion act as a Board of Equalization. Said councils of such cities and towns shall annually at their first meeting or as soon thereafter as practical exercise such discretion, and if they so determine they shall have the authority to appoint three (3) commissioners, each a qualified voter, a resident, and property owner of the city or town for which he is appointed who shall be styled the Board of Equalization. At the same meeting said council shall by ordinance fix the time for the meeting of such Board. Before said Board enters upon its duties, it shall be sworn to faithfully and impartially discharge all duties incumbent upon it by law as such Board.

Art. 1049. Meetings of Board

The board of equalization shall convene annually, at the time so fixed to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city, for examination, correction, equalization, appraisalment, and approval. At each meeting of said board the city secretary shall act as secretary therefor.

Art. 1050. Shall Value Property

The board of equalization shall cause the assessor to bring before them, at the time so fixed all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city for their examination. Said board shall have power to send for persons and papers, to swear persons who testify, to ascertain the value of such property; and, if they are satisfied it is too high, they shall lower it to its proper value; and if too low, they shall raise the value of such property to a proper figure. Said board shall also have power to correct any errors that may appear on the assessor's lists or books.

Art. 1051. Complaint

Any person may file with said board at any time before the final action of said board a complaint as to the assessment of his or any other person's property, and said board shall hear said complaint. Said complainant shall have the right to have witnesses summoned in sustaining said complainant¹ as to the insurance on said property, or the rents and profits it may bring to the holder thereof.

Art. 1052. Unrendered Property Appraisal

The city assessor, when he delivers to said board his lists and books, shall also furnish a certified list of the names of all persons who either refuse to swear or qualify or to sign the oath as required by law, together with a list of the property of such persons situated within the corporate limits of their city, as made by him through other information. The board shall examine said lists and appraise the property so listed by the assessor.

Art. 1053. Notice to Owners

In all cases where the board of equalization shall raise the value of any property appearing on the lists or books of the assessor, they shall, after having examined such lists or books and corrected all errors appearing therein, adjourn to a day not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the date of adjournment, such day to be fixed in the order of adjournment, and shall cause the secretary of said board to give written notice to the owner of such property or to the person rendering the same of the time to which said board has adjourned, and that such owner or person rendering said property may at that time appear and show cause why the value of said property should not be raised. Such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the city post office.

Art. 1054. Shall Lower Values

The board of equalization shall meet at the time fixed in said order of adjournment, and shall hear all persons the value of whose property has been raised. If said board is satisfied they have raised the value of such property too high, they shall lower the same to its proper value. The action of said board at said meeting shall be final, and shall not be subject to revision by said board or by any other tribunal.

Art. 1055. Approval of Rolls

The board of equalization, after it has finally examined and equalized the value of all property on the assessor's lists or books, shall approve said lists or books and return them, together with the lists that he may make up therefrom his general rolls as required by law; and when said general rolls are so made up, the board shall meet again to examine and approve said rolls.

Art. 1056. Compensation of Board

The members of the board of equalization and the city secretary, while acting as secretary of said board, shall receive such pay for their services, to be allowed by the city council, as said council may deem just.

Art. 1057. Collection of Taxes

The assessor and collector, after the completion of the assessment roll, shall proceed to collect the taxes therein mentioned within the time, and give such notice as may be prescribed by the city council, and shall call once upon every person taxed, or on the agent or attorney of such person and demand the payment of the tax charged upon his or her person or property, if the person is to be found, and if not, then a written demand, specifying the amount of taxes due, left at the residence of some adult member of the family, shall be sufficient demand. If any person thus owing taxes has no residence, office or place of business, and no agent in the city or town known to the assessor and collector, then said demand shall not be necessary, and the ordinary published notice required by ordinance shall be sufficient.

Art. 1058. Tax Sale

If any person shall fail to pay the taxes imposed on him and his property within the time prescribed by the ordinances of the city, the assessor and collector shall, by virtue of his tax list and assessment roll, levy upon so much of the property subject to taxation belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes and shall give notice of the time and place of the sale by advertisement (if not unknown property), of the property and amount of taxes, costs and fees dues thereupon. Such notice shall be published in some newspaper published in said city. At the expiration of the time stated in such notice and on the day therein specified, the assessor and collector shall proceed to sell such property at public auction at some public place in said city designated in said notice. When real estate is offered for sale, the least amount of such real estate shall be sold as will be sufficient to bring the amount of the taxes, penalties and costs due by said delinquent. Should a less amount than the whole tract levied upon be sold, the assessor and collector shall, in making his deed to the purchaser, begin at a corner of said tract or parcel of land and designate the same as nearly as possible in a square so that the remaining portion will be affected to as little advantage as possible.

Art. 1059. Effect of Deed

The assessor and collector shall, when any property has been sold for the payment of taxes, make, execute, and deliver a deed for said property to the person purchasing the same, and such deed shall be prima facie evidence in all controversies and suits in relation to the right of the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, to the premises thereby conveyed of the following facts:

1. That the land or lot or portions thereof conveyed was subject to taxation or assessment at the time the same was advertised for sale, and had been listed or assessed in the time or manner required by law.

2. That the taxes or assessment were not paid at any time before the sale.

3. That the land, lot, or portion thereof conveyed had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed, and shall be conclusive evidence of the following facts:

(a) That the land, lot or portion thereof sold was advertised for sale in the manner and for the length of time required by law.

(b) That the property was sold for taxes or assessments as stated in the deed.

(c) That the grantee in the deed was the purchaser.

(d) That the sale was conducted in the manner prescribed by law.

And in all controversies and suits involving the title to land claimed and held under and by virtue of such deed, the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed by such deed shall be required to prove, in order to defeat said title, either that the land was not subject to taxation at the date of the sale, that the taxes or assessment had been paid, that the land had never been listed or assessed for taxation and assessment, as required by this title, or some ordinance of the city, or that the same had been redeemed according to the provisions of this title, and that such redemption was made for the use and benefit of the person having the right of redemption under the law; but no person shall be permitted to question the title acquired by the said deed without first showing that he, or the person under whom he claims title, had title to the land at the time of the sale, or that the title was obtained after the sale; provided, however, that the owner of such property shall have the right to redeem the same at any time within two years of the day and date of the sale thereof, upon payment to the purchaser of double the amount of taxes for which the same was sold, together with the costs of such sale and double the amount of all taxes paid by the purchaser since such sale.

Art. 1060. Personal Property

The assessor and collector shall have power to levy upon any personal property to satisfy any tax imposed by this title. All taxes shall be a lien upon the property upon which they are assessed, and in case any property levied upon is about to be removed out of the city, the assessor and collector shall proceed to take into his possession so much thereof as will pay the taxes assessed and the costs of collection. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1060a. Application of Title 122 to School Districts and Municipal Corporations

All of the provisions of Title 122,¹ of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, be, and the same are made available insofar as same may be applicable and necessary to all school districts and municipal corporations organized under any general or special law of this State and which have power and authority to levy and collect their own taxes, and that each of such school districts and such municipal corporations shall have the benefit of all liens and remedies for the security and collection of taxes due them as is provided in said Title in the case of taxes due the State and county, and as otherwise provided by the General Laws of this State in the case of taxes due incorporated cities and towns.

Art. 1061. May Continue Sale

If, from any cause, the sale of property levied upon or seized for taxes shall not take place at the time first appointed, the assessor and collector shall appoint some other time, give like notice, and proceed to sell such property as prescribed in the first instance. If said property levied upon or seized for taxes cannot be sold on the day advertised, such sale may be postponed from day to day until completed, of which postponement the assessor and collector shall give verbal notice at the expiration of sale each day.

Art. 1062. Failure to Sell

If, at any sale of real or personal property or estate for taxes, no bid shall be made for any parcel of land, or any goods and chattels, the same shall be struck off to the city, and the city shall receive, in the corporate name, a deed for said property, and shall be vested with the same right as other purchasers at such sale, and may sell and convey the same. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1063. Laws Applicable

The provisions of Chapter 8, Title 122,¹ in reference to the seizure and sale of real and personal property for taxes, penalties and costs due thereon, shall apply as well to tax collectors for towns and cities as for tax collectors for counties. Tax collectors for cities and towns shall be governed, in selling real and personal property, by the same rules and regulations in all respects as to time, place, manner and terms and making deeds as are provided for tax collectors for counties, except as in this chapter otherwise provided.

Art. 1064. One Year Redemptions

If the real estate of an infant or lunatic be sold under this title, the same may be redeemed at any time within one year after such disability be removed.

Art. 1065. Two Year Redemptions

All lands sold under and by virtue of decree and judgment of court or as otherwise provided by law, for taxes due any incorporated city or town within this State, may be redeemed by the owner or owners thereof within two years from the date of deed, upon the payment to the purchaser, or his assigns, of double the amount so paid, including costs of court. The purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and his assigns, shall not be entitled to the possession of the property sold for taxes until the expiration of two years from the date of deed.

Art. 1066. Payment of Taxes

Taxes levied to defray the current expenses of the city government, and all license and occupation tax levied, and all fines, forfeitures, penalties and other dues accruing to cities, shall be collectible only in current money.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1066a. Taxes Levied by Counties and Other Political Subdivisions Not Included in Determining Power of Home Rule City or Town to Levy Taxes

Sec. 1. The taxes levied by any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties, any political subdivision of the State, or any defined district under or by virtue of Article 3, Section 52 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, shall not be reckoned in determining the power of any city or town to levy city taxes, irrespective of whether such city or town is located wholly or partly within such county, number of adjoining counties, political subdivision, or defined district, or whether such political subdivision or defined district be included wholly or partly within such city.

Sec. 2. In case of conflict between this Act and any city charter or any special law constituting the charter of a city, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Sec. 3. Provided, however, that this Act shall not apply except as to cities and towns acting under a home rule charter and which has, prior to the effective date of this Act, attempted to amend its charter and which at the time of said Charter amendment election did not own any of the following utilities from which it could derive revenue: water system, sanitary sewer system, electric light system or natural gas distribution system.

Sec. 4. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not in any manner validate any obligations issued by any such city or town, the validity of which obligations is in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective. [Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 94.]

Art. 1066b. Assessor, Collector and Equalization Board Acting for Included Municipality or District

Ordinance or Resolution; Valuation; Board of Equalization

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city, town or village, independent school district, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, navigation district, road district, or any other municipality or district in the State of Texas, located entirely or partly within the boundaries of another municipality or district, is hereby empowered, to authorize, by ordinance or resolution, the Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector of the municipality in which it is located, entirely or partly, to act as Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector respectively for the municipality or district so availing itself of the services of said officers and Board of Equalization.

The property in said municipality or district utilizing the services of such Assessor, Board of Equalization and Collector shall be assessed at not more than the value for which it is assessed for taxing purposes by the municipality or district the services of whose officers and Board of Equalization are being utilized.

When the ordinance or resolution is passed making available their services, said Assessor shall assess the taxes for and perform the duties of Tax Assessor for the municipality or district so availing itself of his services; the said Board of Equalization shall act as and perform the duties of a Board of Equalization for said municipality or district so availing itself of its services, and said Collector shall collect the taxes and assessments for, and turn over as soon as collected to the depository of said municipality or district or to such other authority as is authorized to receive such taxes and assessments, all taxes or money, so collected, and shall perform the duties of Tax Collector of said municipality or district so availing itself of his services.

In all matters pertaining to such assessments and collections the said Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector shall be, and hereby are, authorized to act as and shall perform respectively the duties of Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector of, and according to the ordinances and resolutions of the municipality or district so availing itself of their services, and according to law.

Adoptions of Laws, Ordinances and Provisions Applicable to Taxes

Sec. 1a. Whenever the governing body of any municipality or district taking advantage of this Act shall deem it necessary or expedient, said governing body may, by ordinance or resolution, adopt all or any part of the laws of the State of Texas, charters, ordinances, liens and other provisions applicable to the levying, assessing and collecting of taxes by the district or municipality rendering the tax service. All said laws, charters, ordinances, liens and other provisions are hereby conferred on and made available to any municipality or district taking advantage of this Act in order that the district or municipality rendering the service and its Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector may levy, assess and collect said municipality's or district's taxes and may assess and collect the taxes of the municipality or district for which it is rendering the services, in a uniform and economical manner.

Payments in Installments; Penalties and Interest

Sec. 1b. Any city which is acting as Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization, and Tax Collector of other districts or municipalities as provided for in this Act may by ordinance provide for payment in installments and for payment of penalties and interest at the time and in the manner prescribed by Article 7255, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as last amended by Section 1, Chapter 14, page 651, General Laws, Acts of the 46th Legislature, 1939 (Article 7255, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Article 7336, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as last amended by Section 3, Chapter 16, page 654, General Laws, Acts of the 46th Legislature, 1939 (Article 7336, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or the city may by ordinance provide that all taxes collected by the city and districts and municipalities for which it is collecting taxes shall be payable on October 1 of the year for which an assessment is made, and that if such taxes are not paid in full on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, the following penalties and interest shall be payable: During the month of February, one percent; during the month of March, two percent; during the month of April, three percent; during the month of May, four percent; during the month of June, five percent; and on and after the first day of July, eight percent; and all delinquent taxes shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of their delinquency until paid.

Compensation

Sec. 2. When the Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization, and Tax Collector of any municipality or district have been authorized by ordinance or resolution to act as and perform the duties, respectively, of Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector of another municipality or district located entirely or partly within its boundaries, such included municipality or district shall pay the municipality or district, the services of whose officers and Board of Equalization are being utilized, for said services and for such other incidental expenses as are necessarily incurred in connection with the rendering of such services, such an amount as may be agreed upon by the governing bodies of said two municipalities or districts.

Validation of Ordinances, Resolutions and Acts

Sec. 2a. All ordinances, resolutions and acts of the Governing Board, Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector of any incorporated city, town or village, independent school district, drainage district, water control and improvement district, water improvement district, navigation district, road district, or any other municipality or district in the State of Texas operating under and by virtue of the power and authority granted under Chapter 351, Acts of the 49th Legislature, Regular Session, 1945, as amended, in the levying, assessing and collecting of taxes, are hereby in all things validated. All taxes levied, assessed and/or collected and all liens for said taxes arising and accruing out of the laws of the State of Texas or any charter, ordinance or resolution of any of the above-named municipalities and districts are hereby in all things validated.

Revocation of Authority

Sec. 3. Whenever any municipality or district shall have authorized the Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector of another municipality or district to act as its Tax Assessor, Board of Equalization and Tax Collector, respectively, it may thereafter revoke and withdraw said authority by ordinance or proper resolution in the same manner in which such authority was conferred, and thereafter the municipality or district so revoking such authority shall assess, equalize and collect its taxes in the manner in which same were assessed, equalized and collected before said authority was granted.

Attorney to Collect Delinquent Taxes

Sec. 4. Whenever the governing body of any municipality or district taking advantage of this Act, shall deem it necessary or expedient, said governing body may contract with any competent attorney to enforce or assist in the enforcement of the collection of any of its delinquent taxes and the attorney with whom such contract has been made is hereby fully empowered and authorized to file and push to a speedy conclusion all suits for collection of delinquent taxes, under any contract as herein above specified, and such attorney is hereby fully empowered and authorized to proceed in such suits without the joinder and assistance of the regular attorney or attorneys of said municipality or district.

Act as Cumulative; Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of and in addition to all other rights and remedies to which any such municipalities and districts may be entitled, but as to any proceedings under this Act, if any part or portion of this Act be in conflict with any part or portion of any law of the State, the terms and provisions of this Act shall govern as to such proceedings.

A. Comptroller. "Comptroller" shall mean the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

B. City. "City" shall mean any incorporated city, town, or village in the State of Texas.

C. Title 122A. "Title 122A" shall mean Title 122A, Taxation—General of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and as heretofore or hereafter amended.

Authority to Adopt Tax; Imposition and Rate; Election and Ballots; Canvass of Returns; Results of Election; City Boundaries; Tax Schedule and Bracket System Formula for Joint Collection of Taxes; Standards

Sec. 2. A. Any city may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city voting at an election held for that purpose, adopt a local sales and use tax for the benefit of such city in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

B. The sales tax portion of any local sales and use tax adopted under this Section is hereby imposed at the rate of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail of all taxable items within any city adopting such tax which items are subject to taxation by the State of Texas under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, as enacted, and as heretofore or hereafter amended.

C. The governing body of any city may, by a majority vote of its members qualified and serving, or shall, upon petition of qualified voters of said city equal in number to at least twenty percent (20%) of the total number of votes cast in the last preceding regular city election, provide by ordinance for the calling and holding of an election on such question.

D. If such election is initiated by petition of qualified voters, the governing body of the city shall have thirty (30) days after receipt of such petition to determine the sufficiency thereof and, if such petition is sufficient, shall within sixty (60) days after receipt of such petition pass the ordinance calling such election.

E. The ordinance calling such election shall provide for the submission of such question at an election to be held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days after the passage of said ordinance. If the next regular city election is to be held during such period, the submission of such question shall be at such election; otherwise, a special election shall be called for the purpose.

F. Notice of said election shall be given by causing a substantial copy of the ordinance calling the election to be published on the same day of two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published within said city, the date of the first publication to be at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date set for such election. If there be no newspaper published within the city, such ordinance may be published in some newspaper having general circulation within the city. The provisions of this Section shall prevail over any city charter provision to the contrary.

G. The ballot at such election shall have printed on it the following:

"FOR adoption of a one percent (1%) local sales and use tax within the city."

"AGAINST adoption of a one percent (1%) local sales and use tax within the city."

The election shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for other municipal elections unless otherwise specified herein. If a majority of the votes cast at such an election be in favor of the adoption of a local sales and use tax, the same shall be effective in such city as follows: In order to allow time for the Comptroller's administrative duties under this Act, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter after the Comptroller receives notice of adoption of such tax provided for in this Act, after which such local sales and use tax shall be effective in such city beginning on the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding such elapsed quarter.

H. In any city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided for herein, in the same manner and by the same procedure such city may by majority vote of the qualified voters of said city voting at an election held for that purpose abolish such tax. The ballot for any such election shall have printed on it the following:

"FOR abolition of the local sales and use tax within the city."

"AGAINST abolition of the local sales and use tax within the city."

If a majority of the votes cast at any such election be in favor of the abolition of such tax, such local sales and use tax shall be thereby abolished effective in such city as follows: There shall elapse one whole calendar quarter after the Comptroller receives the notice of abolition of such tax, after which such local sales and use tax shall be abolished in such city beginning on the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding such elapsed quarter.

I. Within ten (10) days after any election held under the provisions of this Section at which a majority of the qualified voters voting at such election in any city shall vote in favor of the adoption or the abolition of a local sales and use tax within such city, the governing body of such city shall canvass the returns of such election and by ordinance or resolution entered in the minutes declare the results of such election. Thereafter, the City Secretary shall forward to the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail a certified copy of the ordinance or resolution of the governing body canvassing the returns and declaring the result of such election. Such ordinance or resolution shall reflect the date of the election in such city, the proposition voted on, the total number of votes cast for and against the proposition, and the number of votes by which the proposition was approved, and shall be accompanied by a map of the city clearly showing the boundaries thereof. If a majority of votes be found to be against any proposition, so that the tax status of such city under this Act is not changed, no notice of the results of the election shall be filed with the Comptroller.

J. If any city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided for herein shall thereafter change or alter its boundaries, the City Secretary of such city shall forward to the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail a certified copy of the ordinance adding or detaching territory from such city. Such ordinance shall reflect the effective date thereof, and shall be accompanied by a map of the city clearly showing the territory added thereto or detached therefrom. Upon receipt of such ordinance and map, the tax imposed by this Act shall be effective in such added territory or abolished in such detached territory on the first day of the next succeeding quarter; provided that if the Comptroller shall notify the City Secretary in writing within ten (10) days after receipt of such ordinance and map that he requires more time, the Comptroller shall be entitled to the elapsed calendar quarter referred to in Subsection G of this Section before such tax shall be imposed in such added territory or abolished in such detached territory.

K. (1) In each city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided by this Act, every retailer shall add the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act of the State of Texas and the tax imposed by this Act to his sale price, and when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. When the sale price in such city shall involve a fraction of a dollar, the two combined taxes shall be added to the sale price upon the schedule and bracket system formula set forth in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection.

(2) When such Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax imposed by the State of Texas shall be at the rate of four percent (4%) on the receipts from the sale at retail of all taxable items within this State which is subject to such tax, and the Local Sales and Use Tax imposed in any city under authority of this Act shall be at the rate of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale of all taxable items within such city which is subject to such tax, the total gross rate of such combined taxes in such city shall be at the rate of five percent

(5%) on combined taxes in such city on the receipts from the sale of all tangible personal property within such city which is subject to such taxes. When the sale price shall involve a fraction of a dollar, the taxes shall be added to the sale price upon the following schedule:

Amount of Sale	Tax
$.01 to $.09	No Tax
.10 to .29	$.01
.30 to .49	.02
.50 to .69	.03
.70 to .89	.04
.90 to 1.09	.05

Provided, that for successive brackets for this schedule in this paragraph, the tax shall be computed by multiplying five percent (5%) times the amount of the sale. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) which is less than one half of one cent ($.005) of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) of tax equal to one half of one cent ($.005) or more shall be collected as a whole cent ($.01) of tax.

Provided, however, that any retailer who can establish to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that fifty percent (50%) or more of his receipts from the sale of tangible personal property and taxable services arise from individual transactions where the total sales price is nine cents ($.09) or less may exclude the receipts from such sales when reporting and paying the tax imposed under this Act and the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax imposed by the State of Texas. No retailer shall avail himself of this provision without prior written approval of the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall grant such approval when he is satisfied that the retailer qualifies on the basis set forth in this Section and when the retailer has submitted satisfactory evidence that he can and will maintain records adequate to substantiate the exclusion herein authorized. Any attempt on the part of any retailer to exercise this provision without prior written approval of the Comptroller shall be deemed to be a failure and refusal to pay the taxes imposed by this Act and the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and the retailer shall be subject to assessment for both taxes, penalties and interest as provided for in this Act and the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act.

(3) In the event the Legislature shall either increase or decrease the rate of such State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax, the combined rate of the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax and the Local Sales and Use Tax shall be the sum of the two rates, in which event the schedule for collection of such combined taxes shall be calculated by multiplying the combined tax rate times the amount of the sale. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) which is less than one half of one cent ($.005) of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) of tax equal to one half of one cent ($.005) or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent ($.01) of tax. The Comptroller may publish a schedule based on the above formula for use in those cities which have imposed a Local Sales and Use Tax under the authority of this Act, and which cities have a need for such schedule under the provisions of this paragraph.

Frequency of Elections

Sec. 3. No election upon a proposition to adopt a local sales and use tax in any city or to abolish such tax in such city shall be held within one (1) year from the date of the last preceding election in such city on any of such propositions.

Excise Tax; Combined Rate of Excise Tax; Imposition, Rate and Collection of Tax

Sec. 4. A. In every city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption within such city of tangible personal property purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the local sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption in such city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sales price of the property or, in the case of leases or rentals, of said lease or rental price; provided, that if no excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption of any article or item of tangible personal property is owed to or collected by the State of Texas under the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, then the tax imposed by this Section shall not be owed to and shall not be collected by, for or in behalf of such city for storage or other consumption of such article or item of tangible personal property within such city.

B. In each city where the local sales and use tax has been imposed as provided in Section 2 of this Act, the excise tax imposed under the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act on the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property and the excise tax imposed by this Section of this Act shall be added together to form a combined rate of excise tax which is equal to the sum of the two taxes. The tax imposed by this Section of this Act shall be collected by the Comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of such city. The bracket system formula prescribed in Subsection K of Section 2 of this Act shall be applicable to the collection of the excise tax imposed under this Section.

C. The provisions of Article 20.031, Title 122A, shall be applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this Section, provided that the name of the city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the State where the words "this State" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed; and provided further that the effective date for commencing the collection of the sales tax portion of the tax imposed by this Act in any city shall be substituted for the phrase "the effective date of this Chapter."

Comptroller; Administration, Collection, Enforcement and Operation of Tax; Reports

Sec. 5. (a) On and after the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the Comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and the Comptroller shall collect, in addition to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax for the State of Texas, an additional tax under the authority of this Act of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use, or other consumption of all taxable items within such city which property is subject to the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any proposition to abolish such local sales and use tax in any city, the Comptroller shall comply therewith as provided in this Act.

(b) The Comptroller shall make quarterly reports to a city that has adopted this Act and is imposing the tax if the city requests the reports. The report must contain the name, address and account number of each person, firm, or corporation doing business in the city and which has remitted a payment of the tax during the quarter covered by the report.

(c) The Comptroller shall make an additional quarterly report to a city that has adopted this Act and is imposing the tax if the city requests the additional report. The additional report must include the name, address, and account number of, if any, and the amount of the tax due by each person, firm, or corporation doing business in the city and which has failed to pay the tax imposed by the city or imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The report by the Comptroller shall also state whether there has been a partial payment of tax by the delinquent taxpayer, whether the taxpayer is delinquent in payment of sales and use taxes to the State, and what steps, if any, have been taken by the Comptroller in order to collect the delinquent taxes.

(d) If a city determines that any person, firm, or corporation doing business in the city is not included in a report from the Comptroller, the city shall report the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation to the Comptroller. On receiving a report from a city the Comptroller shall send, before the expiration of a ninety (90) day period following the day the Comptroller received a report from the city, an explanation to the city as to why the person, firm, or corporation is not obligated for the tax imposed by the city, a statement that the person, firm, or corporation is obligated to pay the tax and that the tax is delinquent, or a certification that the person, firm, or corporation is obligated to pay the tax and that the full amount due under the tax has been credited to the account of the city.

Provisions Governing Collection of Tax

Sec. 6. The following provisions shall govern the collection by the Comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

A. All applicable provisions contained in Chapter 20 of Title 122A shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

B. (1) For the purposes of the local sales tax imposed by this Act, all retail sales, leases and rentals, except sales of natural gas or electricity, are consummated at the place of business of the retailer unless the tangible personal property sold, leased, or rented is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination or the taxable service is to be performed at an out-of-state location. In the event the retailer has no permanent place of business in the State, the place or places at which the retail sales, leases, or rentals are consummated for the purposes of the tax imposed by this Act shall be determined under rules and regulations prescribed by the Comptroller. If the retailer has more than one place of business in the State, the place or places at which retail sales, leases, and rentals are consummated shall be the retailer's place or places where the purchaser or lessee takes possession and removes from the retailer's premises the articles of tangible personal property, or if the retailer delivers the tangible personal property to a point designated by the purchaser or lessee, then the sales, leases, or rentals are consummated at the retailer's place or places of business from which tangible personal property is delivered to the purchaser or lessee. The sale of natural gas or electricity is consummated at the point of delivery to the consumer.

(2) For the purpose of the excise tax imposed by this Act on any retailer holding tangible personal property purchased on a Resale Certificate, and which property becomes subject to such excise tax by reason of use or other consumption of such property, such use or other consumption of such property is consummated at the place of business of the retailer, unless the tangible personal property is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination. If the retailer has more than one place of business in this State, the place at which such use or consumption is consummated shall be the last place of business of such retailer where such property is stored or kept at the time of or just prior to its use or consumption.

(3) For the purpose of the taxes imposed by this Act, any tangible personal property owned by a consumer to whom a direct payment permit has been issued by the Comptroller under the provisions of Paragraph (K) of Article 20.05, Chapter 20, Title 122A, which property becomes subject to the taxes imposed by this Act by reason of use or consumption of such property in this State, such use or other consumption of such property is consummated at the last place of business in this State where such property is used or where such property is stored or kept at the time of or just prior to its use or consumption in this State.

C. (1) All exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, persons, and to the sale, storage, use, and other consumption of certain articles and items taxable under the provisions of Article 20.04, Chapter 20, Title 122A, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this Act.

(2) The receipts from the sale, use or rental of and the storage, use or consumption in this State, of taxable items are exempt from the tax imposed by this Act, if:

(a) the items are used for the performance of a written contract entered into prior to the date this Act takes effect in any city which may affect the contract, if the contract is not subject to change or modification by reason of the tax; or

(b) the items are used pursuant to an obligation of a bid or bids submitted prior to the date this Act takes effect in any city which may affect the contract, if the bid or bids may not be withdrawn, modified, or changed by reason of the tax imposed by this Act; and

(c) if notice of a contract or bid on which an exemption is to be claimed is given by the taxpayer to the Comptroller within sixty (60) days from the date this Act takes effect in any city which may affect the bid or contract.

The exemption provided by this Subsection shall have no effect after three (3) years from the date this Act takes effect in any city.

D. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and resale certificate required by Chapter 20 of Title 122A for the administration and collection of the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax shall satisfy the requirements of this Act, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or resale certificate shall be required; except that the Comptroller may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax imposed by this Act as a result of a prior contract under Subsection C of this Section.

E. All discounts allowed the retailer under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act for the collection of and for payment of taxes under that Act are hereby allowed and made applicable to any taxes collected under the provisions of this Act.

F. The penalties provided in Chapter 20 of Title 122A (Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act) for violations of that Act are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

Deposit of Revenues; Suspense Accounts; Surety Bonds

Sec. 7. A. Any local sales and use tax collected by the Comptroller under this Act on behalf of any city shall be deposited with the State Treasurer in trust and shall be kept in a separate suspense account for each such city.

B. The Comptroller, and any of his deputies, assistants, and employees, who shall have any duties or responsibilities in connection with the collection, deposit, transfer, transmittal, disbursement, safekeeping, accounting, or recording of funds which come into the hands of the Comptroller under the provisions of this Act shall enter into a surety bond or bonds payable to any and all cities in whose behalf such funds have been collected under this Act in the amount of $100,000; provided that the Comptroller may enter into a blanket bond or bonds covering himself and all such deputies, assistants, and employees. The cost of the premium or premiums for such surety bond or bonds shall be paid by the Comptroller from out of the share of such collections retained by the Comptroller for the benefit of the State. At any time when any premium or premiums on such bond or bonds are due and payable, the Comptroller shall pay the cost of same out of the State's share of such collection in his hands, and deposit the balance of the State's share as provided in Section 8 of this Act.

Transmission of Revenues; Deductions; Retention of Revenues; Refunds; Closing of Accounts

Sec. 8. Each city's share of all local sales and use tax collected under this Act by the Comptroller shall be transmitted to the Treasurer or the officer performing the functions of such office of such city by the Comptroller payable to the city periodically as promptly as feasible. Transmittals required under this Act shall be made at least twice in each State fiscal year. The funds so transmitted may be used by the city for any purpose for which the general funds of the city may be used. Before transmitting such funds, the Comptroller shall deduct two percent (2%) of the sum collected from each such city during such period as a charge by the State of Texas for its services specified in this Act, and the amounts so deducted, subject to the provisions of Section 7B of this Act, shall be deposited by the Comptroller in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the State. The Comptroller is authorized to retain in the suspense account of any city a portion of the city's share of the tax collected under this Act. Such balance so retained in the suspense account shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the amount remitted to the city. The Comptroller is authorized to make refunds from the suspense account of any city for overpayments made to such accounts, and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of the suspense accounts of such cities. When any city shall adopt the Local Sales and Use Tax, and shall thereafter abolish such tax, the Comptroller may retain in the suspense account of such city for a period of one year five percent (5%) of the final remittance to each such city at the time of termination of collection of such tax in such city to cover possible refunds for overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in such city, the Comptroller shall remit the balance in such account to the city and close the account.

Pledge of Anticipated Revenue

Sec. 9. Money collected under this Act is for the use and benefit of the cities of the state; but no city may pledge anticipated revenue from this source to secure the payment of bonds or other indebtedness.

Existing Powers of Taxation

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to abolish or limit existing powers of taxation of any city.

Comptroller; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 11. The Comptroller may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to implement the enforcement, administration, and collection of the taxes authorized herein.

Delinquent Taxes; Collection Suits; Notice and Limitations; Parties; Seizure and Sale of Property

Sec. 12. A. In any city where the Local Sales and Use Tax has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in Article 20.09, Chapter 20, Title 122A. Where the Comptroller has determined that suit must be filed against any person for the collection of delinquent taxes due the State under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and where such person is also delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the Comptroller shall notify the Tax Collector of the city to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail at least ten (10) days before turning the case over to the Attorney General. The city, acting through its attorney, may join in such suit as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such city.

B. Where property is seized by the Comptroller under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by this Act, the Comptroller shall sell sufficient property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalty due any city under this Act in addition to that required to pay any amount due the State under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the State, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due such city.

Election Contests; Notice

Sec. 13. A. If the validity of any election held under authority of this Act or the result of such election based on the returns thereof shall be contested, such election contest shall be filed and tried as provided in the Election Code of the State of Texas; provided that the contestant shall notify the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail within ten (10) days after filing such contest by mailing a copy of such Notice of Contest to the Comptroller showing the style of the contest, the date filed, the case number, and the Court in which the same is pending; and provided further that no such contest shall be heard unless the Comptroller is timely notified as provided herein.

B. Upon receipt of a Notice of Contest, the date upon which such tax shall become effective in any city, or abolished in any city, as a result of such election shall be suspended. When a final judgment shall be entered in such election contest, the City Secretary shall notify the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail, and shall enclose a certified copy of such final judgment. If the judgment sustains the validity of such election or the result of such election so that the tax status under this Act of such city is changed, the Comptroller shall place in effect such tax, or abolish the same, as the case may be, in such city, substituting the notice of final judgment and the date on which it is received for the notice of the result of such election elsewhere provided for in this Act.

Conflicting Laws

Sec. 14. All laws and parts of laws inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency or conflict only.

Art. 1067. Frame Building Regulations

The city council may prohibit the erection, building, placing, moving or repairing of wooden buildings within such limits of the city as it may designate and prescribe, in order to guard against the calamities of fire; and may within said limits prohibit the moving or putting up of any wooden building from without said limits, and may also prohibit the removal of any wooden building from one place to another within said limits, and may direct that all buildings within the limits so designated as aforesaid, shall be made or constructed of fire-proof materials, and may prohibit the rebuilding or repairing of wooden buildings within the fire limits when the same shall have been damaged to the extent of fifty per cent of the value thereof, and may prescribe the manner of ascertaining such damage; and may declare any dilapidated building to be a nuisance and direct the same to be repaired, removed or abated in such manner as they shall direct; to declare all wooden buildings in the fire limits which they deem dangerous to contiguous buildings, or in causing or promoting fires, to be nuisances, and require and cause the same to be removed in such manner as they shall prescribe.

Art. 1068. Fire Regulations

The city council shall have power:

1. To prevent and prohibit the dangerous condition of chimneys, flues, fireplaces, stove pipes, ovens or other apparatus used in or about any building or manufactory, and to cause the same to be removed or placed in a secure and safe condition.

2. To prevent the deposit of ashes where they would be liable to produce fire, or in any wooden box or barrel, or within any wooden building, and to appoint officers to enter into any building or inclosure to examine and discover whether the same are in a dangerous state, and to cause such as may be dangerous to be put in a safe condition.

3. To require the inhabitants to keep and provide as many fire buckets and ladders, or other means to reach the roof as they shall prescribe, and to regulate the use thereof in times of fire.

4. To compel the owners or occupants of houses or other buildings to have scuttles in the roofs and stairs or ladders leading to the same.

5. To regulate or prevent the carrying on of manufactories and works dangerous in promoting or causing fires; to prohibit or regulate the building and erection of cotton presses and sheds.

6. To regulate or prevent and prohibit the use of fireworks and firearms.

7. To direct, control or prohibit the keeping and management of houses or any buildings for the storing of gun powder and other combustible, explosive or dangerous materials within the city; to regulate the keeping and conveying of the same.

8. To regulate and prescribe the manner and to order the building of parapet and party walls.

9. To authorize the mayor, officers of fire companies or any officer of said city to keep away from the vicinity of any fire all idle, disorderly or suspicious persons, and arrest and imprison the same, and compel all officers of the city and all other persons to aid in the extinguishment of fires and in the preservation of property exposed to danger thereat, and in preventing theft.

10. And generally to establish such regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fires as the city council may deem expedient.

Art. 1069. Fire Department

The city council may procure fire engines and other apparatus for the extinguishment of fires, and have control thereof, and provide engine houses for preserving the same; and shall have power to organize fire, hook and ladder, hose and ax companies and fire brigades. The companies so organized, the chief engineer and such assistant engineers as may be provided for, shall constitute the fire department. Each company may elect its own members and officers. The engineers shall be chosen as said department may determine, subject to the approval of the city council, who shall define the duties of said officers and pass such ordinances as they may deem proper for the welfare of said department. All officers so elected and approved shall be commissioned by the mayor. Said companies may adopt their own constitution and by-laws, not inconsistent with this title or the city ordinances. Said department shall take the care and management of the engines and other implements and apparatus provided and used for fighting fire, and their powers and duties shall be prescribed and defined by the city council.

Art. 1070. May Destroy Buildings

When any building in the city is on fire, it shall be lawful for the chief or acting chief engineer, with the concurrence of the mayor, to direct such building, or any other building which they may deem hazardous and likely to take fire and communicate to other buildings, to be torn down or blown up or destroyed, and no action shall be maintained against any person or against the city therefor. Any person interested in any such building so destroyed or injured may, within six months, and not thereafter, apply in writing to the city council to assess and pay the damage he has sustained, and, if the city council and the claimant cannot agree on the terms of adjustment, then the application of such claimant shall be referred to three commissioners, one to be appointed by the claimant, one by the city council and the third by both. Said commissioners shall be qualified voters and owners of real estate in the city. They shall be sworn faithfully to execute their duty according to the best of their ability, shall have power to subpoena and swear witnesses and shall give all parties a fair and impartial hearing, and give notice of the time and place of meeting. They shall take into account the probabilities of the building being destroyed by fire if it had not been so destroyed, and the loss of insurance upon said property, if any, caused by destroying the same, and may report that no damage should equitably be allowed to such claimant. Whenever a report shall be made and finally confirmed for the appraising of said damages, a compliance with the terms thereof by the city council shall be deemed a full satisfaction of said damages.

Art. 1070.1. Liability of Volunteer Firemen for Property Damage

No volunteer fireman or volunteer fire department in this state shall be liable to any person for any damage done to his property resulting from the volunteer fireman's or volunteer fire department's reasonable and necessary action in fighting or extinguishing any fire on the property.

Art. 1070a. Uniform Fire Hose Couplings and Hydrant Outlets

Sec. 1. That after this Act takes effect all fire department hose couplings and fire hydrant hose outlets now in service or which may hereafter be installed in this State, except those which are commonly known as the large steamer or pumper outlets shall be provided with an uniform thread conforming to the following specifications, to-wit:

Inside diameter of male thread 2.5 inches.

Outside diameter of finished male thread 3.0625 inches.

Diameter at root of finished male thread 2.8715 inches.

Pitch diameter of male thread 2.9670 inches.

Clearance between male and female thread .03 inches.

Total length of threaded male end one inch.

Flat at top and valley of thread .01 inch.

Pitch or number of threads per inch 7.5.
 Pattern—60 degree V thread. Female end cut $\frac{1}{8}$ inch shorter than male end for endwise clearance. Outer ends of male and female threads terminated by the "Higbee Cut," to avoid crossing and mutilation of otherwise finely drawn out thread. Outer end of male thread left blank $\frac{1}{4}$ inch.

Sec. 2. The State Fire Insurance Commission of Texas shall have full supervision over the work necessary to be done in carrying out the provisions of this Act, and that department shall employ competent mechanics and provide all necessary equipment, tools and appliances and proceed with said work, and complete it at the earliest date circumstances will permit.

Sec. 3. The State Fire Insurance Commission shall notify all property owners having equipment for fire protection purposes which it may be necessary for a fire department to use in putting out fire, of the changes necessary to meet the requirements of this Act, and shall render such assistance as may be available in converting their equipment to conform to said requirements.

Sec. 4. The sum of $5,000 or such part thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1928, and $5,000 or such part thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1929, to be used for the purchase of equipment, tools and appliances, and for salaries and traveling expenses and all other necessary expenses of mechanics, in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1070b. Cities Bordering Mexico; Mutual Fire Protection Agreements

Section 1. Any Texas city bordering on the Republic of Mexico may enter into a mutual fire protection agreement with its corresponding border city in the Republic of Mexico.

Sec. 2. Any Texas fireman responding to a call for fire fighting assistance from the corresponding border city in the Republic of Mexico under the terms of an agreement authorized by Section 1 of this Act shall be deemed to be performing his "official duty" as that term is understood in Article III, Section 51-d, of the Texas Constitution.

- 1075. Physician, Powers.
- 1076. Sewerage, etc.
- 1077. Plumbing Inspector.
- 1078 to 1081. Repealed.

Art. 1071. Health Officers

The city council shall appoint a health officer, and as many health inspectors as they may deem necessary, and shall prescribe, by ordinance, the powers and duties and compensation of the same.

Art. 1072. Regulation of Disease, etc.

The city council may take such measures as they may deem effectual to prevent the entrance of any pestilence, contagious or infectious diseases into the city; to stop, detain and examine for that purpose any person coming from any place infected, or believed to be infected, with such disease; to establish, maintain and regulate pesthouses or hospitals at some place within or not exceeding five miles beyond the city limits; to cause any person who shall be suspected of being infected with any such disease to be sent to such pesthouse or hospital; to remove from the city or destroy any furniture, wearing apparel, or property of any kind which shall be suspected of being tainted or infected with pestilence, or which shall be likely to pass into such a state as to generate or propagate diseases; to abate all nuisances of every description which are or may become injurious to the public health, in any manner that they deem expedient; and from time to time to do all acts, which they deem expedient; to preserve health and suppress disease in the city.

Art. 1073. Public Conveyances

The owner, driver, conductor or person in charge of any stage, railroad car or public conveyance which shall enter the city, knowingly having on board any person sick of a malignant fever, or pestilential, contagious or infectious disease, unless such person become¹ sick on the way and could not be left, shall, within three hours after the arrival of such sick person, report in writing the facts, with the name of such person and the house where he was put down in the city, to the health officer.

Art. 1074. Shall Report Disease

Every keeper of a hotel, boarding or lodging house in the city, in which any inmate thereof shall be sick with any infectious or pestilential disease, shall upon such fact coming to his knowledge, forthwith report the same to the health officer. Every physician in the city shall report, under his hand, to the officer above named, the name, residence and disease of every patient whom he shall have sick of any infectious or pestilential disease, within six hours after he shall have visited such patient.

Art. 1075. Physician, Powers

The health officer may be authorized by the council, when the public interest requires, to exercise for the time being such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the chief of police as the city council may direct, and is authorized to enter all houses and other places, private or public, at all times, in the discharge of such duties, having first asked permission of the owners or occupants. The city council shall have power to punish, by fine, any neglect or refusal to observe the orders and regulations of the health officer.

Art. 1076. Sewerage, etc.

Every city in this State, however organized, having underground sewers or cesspools, shall pass ordinances regulating the tapping of said sewers and cesspools, regulating house draining and plumbing.

Art. 1077. Plumbing Inspector

In any such city where there is no city inspector of plumbing provided for by special charter, the governing body shall elect such inspector of plumbing, who shall hold office for such time as fixed by such board. Such inspector of plumbing may be the city engineer, if the board sees fit to elect him.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

- 1084. Execution on Property.
- 1085. Suit.
- 1085a. Freeways.
- 1085b. Private Purposes, Use of Streets and Sidewalks for.

Art. 1082. Powers of Council

The city council shall be invested with full power and authority to grade, gravel, repair, pave or otherwise improve any avenue, street or alley, or any portion thereof, within the limits of said city, whenever, by a vote of two-thirds of the aldermen present, they may deem such improvement for the public interest; provided, the city council pay one-third and the owner of the property two-thirds thereof, except at the intersection of streets, from lot to lot across the streets either way shall be paid for by the city alone. Said costs shall be assessed on the property fronting on said street so improved, to be collected in equal annual payments, not less than five in number. All moneys collected from these assessments shall be appropriated exclusively to the payment of the bonds issued for the payment of the cost of said improvement.

Art. 1083. Estimates of Cost

Whenever the city council shall determine to make any such improvement, they shall cause an estimate to be made of the probable cost thereof by the city engineer, or by some other officer of the city, or by a committee of three aldermen; and such engineer or other officer or committee shall also report a full list of all lots or fractional lots, giving number and size of the same, and the number of the block in which situated, and the names of the owners thereof, if known, and such other information as may be required by the city council; and if there be a lot or fractional lot the owner of which is not known, the same shall be entered on said list as unknown. The officer or committee aforesaid shall enter on said list, opposite each lot or fractional lot lying and being on each side of the street, avenue or alley so to be improved as aforesaid, one-third of the estimated expense for such work or improvement on such avenue, street or alley fronting, adjoining or opposite such lot or fractional lot; and, on the acceptance and approval of said report and list by the city council, said amount shall be imposed, levied and assessed as taxes, and shall be a lien upon the property until the payment of the same.

Art. 1084. Execution on Property

After such action on the part of the city council, such officer or committee shall give such notice as may be required by ordinance, of said tax being due and within what time payable, and shall begin to collect the same. After the expiration of the period for payment of said tax, said officer or committee shall levy on so much of any property on said list on which said tax has not been paid as will be sufficient to pay the same, and the same notice of sale as is required in sales for other tax shall be given. If said tax is not paid before the day of sale, said officer or committee shall sell property in the name and under the circumstances, and to the extent and subject to the same conditions which may be provided by ordinance for the sale of real estate in the city, charged with the payment of taxes imposed by said corporation. Said officer or committee shall execute a deed to the purchaser at any such sale; and all other provisions of this title in reference to a deed drawn by the assessor and collector shall apply to the deed herein provided for.

Art. 1085. Suit

In addition to the authority granted to the city council to collect said assessment of taxes, they shall have the additional remedy of instituting suit in the corporate name for the recovery against any owner of the property for the amount due for any such work so made as aforesaid. They shall provide by resolution or ordinance under the provision of this title, for carrying out and executing the powers in this chapter conferred, and may adopt necessary resolutions, ordinances and regulations.

Art. 1085a. Freeways

Sec. 1. The State Highway Commission or the governing body of any incorporated city or town, within their respective jurisdictions may do any and all things necessary to lay out, acquire, construct, maintain and operate any section or portion of any State highway or city street as a freeway, and to make any highway or street within their respective jurisdictions a freeway, except that no existing State highway or city street shall be converted into a freeway except with the consent of the owners of abutting lands, or by the purchase or condemnation of their right of access thereto, providing, however, nothing herein shall be construed as requiring the consent of the owners of abutting lands where a State highway, or city street is constructed, established or located for the first time as a new way for the use of vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act, the State Highway Commission, County Commissioners Courts and the governing bodies of incorporated cities and towns, may acquire the necessary property and property rights by gift, devise, purchase, or condemnation, in the same manner as such governmental agencies are now or hereafter may be authorized by law to acquire such property for State highways and city streets.

Sec. 2a. The governmental agency which holds the title and property rights to land on which a freeway is located may lease for parking purposes the portions of land situated beneath the elevated sections of the freeway.

Sec. 3. "Freeway" means a State highway or city street in respect to which the right or easement of access to or from their abutting lands has been acquired in whole or in part from the owners thereof by the State Highway Commission or the governing body of an incorporated city or town as hereinabove provided.

Sec. 4. The State Highway Commission or the governing body of a city or town is authorized to close any highway or street within their respective jurisdictions at or near the point of its intersection with any freeway or to make provisions for carrying any highway or street over or under or to a connection with the freeway and may do any and all things on such highway or street as may be necessary therefor.

Sec. 5. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is for any reason held unconstitutional, the unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the Act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that one or more of the sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Art. 1086. Powers of City

Towns, cities and villages, incorporated under either general or special law, which shall accept the benefits of this chapter as herein provided, shall have power to improve any highway within their limits, by filling, grading, raising, paving or repaving the same in a permanent manner, or by the construction or reconstruction of sidewalks, curbs and gutters, or by widening, narrowing or straightening the same, and to construct necessary appurtenances thereto, including sewers and drains, and cities having a population of less than fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal census and which have levied the maximum rate of tax permitted by law, shall have the power to construct and install sanitary sewers and all of the provisions and authority of this chapter pertaining to highway improvement shall likewise apply to the construction and installation of sanitary sewers. "City" when used herein (except when otherwise provided above) shall include all incorporated towns, cities and villages, and the term "highway" shall include any street, avenue, alley, highway, or public place or square, or portion thereof, dedicated to public use. Provided that before any proposal to construct sanitary sewers hereunder shall be put into effect the Governing Body of any city shall be presented by a petition signed by two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the abutting property owners to be affected requesting the Governing Body of the city to make such improvements.

Art. 1087. Order for Improvements

The Governing Body of any city shall have power to order the improvement of any highway therein, or part thereof, and in cities having a population of less than fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal census and which have levied the maximum rate of tax permitted by law, to order the construction and installation of sanitary sewers, and to select the materials and methods of such improvement, and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of such improvements out of any available funds of the city.

Art. 1088. Costs

The cost of making such improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by the owners of the property abutting thereon. In no event shall more than three-fourths of the cost of any improvement, except sidewalks and curbs, be assessed against such property owners or their property. The whole cost of construction of sidewalks and curbs in front of any property may be assessed against the owner thereof or his property.

Art. 1089. Assessments, Railway

Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have the power to assess against the owner of any railroad or street railroad occupying any highway ordered to be improved, the whole cost of the improvement between or under the rails or tracks of said railroad or street railroad and two feet on the outside thereof, and shall have power, by ordinance, to levy a special tax upon said railroad, or street railroad, and its roadbed, ties, rails, fixtures, rights and franchise, which tax shall constitute a lien thereon superior to any other lien or claim, except State, county and municipal taxes, and which may be enforced, either by sale of said property in the manner provided by law in the collection of ad valorem taxes by the city, or by suit against the owner. The ordinance levying said tax shall prescribe when same shall become due and delinquent, and the method of enforcing the same.

Art. 1090. Assessment and Certificates

Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body shall have power by ordinance to assess the whole cost of constructing sidewalks or curbs, and not to exceed three-fourths of the cost of any other improvement, against the owners of property abutting on such improvement and against their abutting property benefited thereby, and to provide for the time and terms of payment of such assessments and the rate of interest payable upon deferred payments thereon, which rate shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, and to fix a lien upon the property and declare such assessments to be a personal liability of the owners of such abutting property; and such governing body shall have the power to cause to be issued in the name of the city, assignable certificates declaring the liability of such owners and their property for the payment of such assessments and to fix the terms and conditions for such certificate. If any such certificate shall recite that the proceedings with reference to making such improvements have been regularly had in compliance with law, and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and fixing the personal liability of the owner have been performed, such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited. The ordinance making such assessments shall provide for the collection thereof, with costs and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred. Such assessments shall be secured by, and constitute a lien on said property, which shall be the first enforceable claim against the property against which it is assessed, superior to all other liens and claims, except State, county and municipal taxes.

Art. 1090a. Validating Assessment Ordinances and Liens in Certain Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall affect all cities in the State of Texas having a population of more than one hundred thousand (100,000) according to the last preceding United States Census.

Sec. 2. In every instance where a city, coming under the provisions of this Act, has attempted to fix a lien upon property by assessment ordinance for the improvement and paving of streets, highways and boulevards, where the State, County and Federal Governments have contributed to the cost of such improvement, requiring the impounding of funds by such city for the purpose of guaranteeing its portion of the cost of such paving and improvements, all actions, resolutions, order, ordinances and proceedings taken, made or passed in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, and the lien attempted to be fixed by said assessment ordinance is a valid and subsisting lien against the property assessed irrespective of any irregularities or defects in the proceeding and in like manner as if said assessment had been authorized in the first instance.

Art. 1091. Exempt Property

Nothing herein shall be construed to empower any city to fix a lien by assessment against any property exempt by law from sale under execution; but the owner of such exempt property shall nevertheless be personally liable for the cost of improvements constructed in front of his property, which may be assessed against him. The fact that any improvement is omitted in front of exempt property shall not invalidate the lien of assessments made against other property on the highway improved, not so exempt.

Art. 1092. Enforcement of Lien

The lien created against any property, or the personal liability of the owner thereof, may be enforced by suit or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law for the sale of property for ad valorem city taxes. The recital in any deed made pursuant to such sale, that all legal prerequisites to said assessment and sale have been complied with, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited and shall in all courts be accepted without further proof.

Art. 1093. Notice of Hearing

No assessments of any part of the cost of such improvement shall be made against any property abutting thereon or its owner, until a full and fair hearing shall first have been given to the owners of such property, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof given to said owners, their agents, or attorneys. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city, town or village where such tax is sought to be levied, if there be such a paper there; if not, then in the nearest to said city, town or village, or general circulation in the county in which said city is located; and, in addition, if the owner of such abutting property is a railway or street railway, written notice of the assessment and hearing thereon shall be served by either delivering in person to the local agent or by depositing the same in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll; and such written notice, if required, shall be mailed or delivered, and the first publication shall be made, at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. The governing body may provide for additional notice cumulative of that notice specified above.

Art. 1094. Hearing

Said hearing shall be before the governing body of such cities, at which such owners shall have the right to contest the said assessment and personal liability, and the regularity of the proceedings with reference to the improvement, and the benefit of said improvement to their property, and any other matter relating thereto. No assessment shall be made against any owner of abutting property or his property in any event in excess of the actual benefit to such owner in the enhanced value of his property, by means of such improvement, as ascertained at such hearing. The governing body of any city making improvements under the terms hereof shall, by ordinance, adopt rules and regulations providing for such hearings to property owners, and for giving reasonable notice thereof.

Art. 1095. Reassessment

The governing body of any city shall be empowered to correct any mistake or irregularity in any proceedings with reference to such improvement, or the assessment of the cost thereof against abutting property and its owners, and in case of any error or invalidity, to reassess against any abutting property and its owner the cost or part of the cost of improvements, subject to the terms hereof, not in excess of the benefits in enhanced value of such property from such improvement, and to make reasonable rules and regulations for a notice to and hearing of property owners before such reassessment.

Art. 1096. Owner May Sue

Any property owner, against whom or whose property any assessment or reassessment has been made, shall have the right within twenty days thereafter, to bring suit to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto, on account of any error or invalidity therein. But thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns or successors, shall be barred from any such action, or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessments or reassessments in any action in which the same may be brought in question.

Art. 1097. Special Reassessment

In any case in which the public funds of a city or town may have been or may hereafter be expended, or its vouchers or certificates issued to any contractor, or any contract made therewith, for the special improvement, raising or lowering the grade of, opening, straightening, widening, paving, constructing or grading of any street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, gutter or public way, or any part thereof, and if for any reason, no part of the cost of such improvement has been borne by the abutting property or paid by the owner or owners thereof, either because an attempted assessment and enforcement thereof for the same was erroneous or void, or was so declared in any judicial proceeding, the governing body shall have the power to proceed at any time to specially assess or reassess, such abutting property with such amount of the cost of such improvement as it deems proper, but in no event shall the amount exceed the special benefits such property receives therefrom by enhanced value thereto, the amount of such special benefits to be determined on a basis of the condition of such improvement as it exists at the time of such assessment or reassessment.

Art. 1098. Notice, etc.

No such assessment or reassessment shall be made without at least ten (10) days written notice and an opportunity to be heard on such question of special benefits given to the owner or owners of such abutting property. Such notice may be served either personally or by publication in some newspaper of general circulation, published in said city or town; and, when any such abutting property is owned by a railway or street railway, notice shall be made both by such publication and by delivery of written notice, either in person to its local agent, or by depositing said written notice in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll, and the governing body of any such city or town shall have power, not inconsistent herewith, to provide for all procedure, rules, and regulations necessary or proper for such notice and hearing and to levy, assess, and collect such assessment or reassessment.

Art. 1099. Special Lien

Such assessment, or reassessment shall constitute a lien upon such abutting property and a personal charge against the owner or owners thereof, which amount shall not be construed as becoming due, or having become due, before such assessment or reassessment is properly made in accordance with the provisions of this law.

Art. 1100. Time Limit

Such assessment or reassessment as hereinbefore provided shall be begun within three years after the completion of improvements contiguous to the property against which assessment or reassessment is made, and not thereafter. In cases of reassessments where the question of validity of the original assessment may be, or may have been, in litigation, the period of time during which it was in litigation shall not be considered in computing said period of limitation.

Art. 1101. Amount of Assessment

Any such assessment or reassessment made by the governing body of any city or town with less than five thousand inhabitants may equal the entire cost of sidewalk, curb and gutter, and the cost of any street improvement, exclusive of street intersections, and such governing body of such town in making such assessment or reassessment, shall follow the procedure prescribed in articles 1082 and 1083 in so far as applicable, but no such assessment or reassessment shall be made in excess of the special benefits in enhanced value conferred thereby on the property abutting such improvement, or until the owner or owners of such property shall have had notice, as provided above, and opportunity to contest such issue before such governing body under such rules and regulations as it may, by ordinance, prescribe.

Art. 1102. Enforcible When

Such assessment, or reassessment, shall be due and payable in equal annual installments not less than five in number; provided that the owner of such property shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the governing board to any court of competent jurisdiction within twenty days after such reassessment shall have been made, and upon failure to do so in said period, such assessment shall be final and conclusive upon such owner and property.

Art. 1103. Effect of Law

The provisions of the six preceding articles relating to special assessments or reassessments are cumulative of all powers heretofore granted to any city or town either by general or special law; and all charter provisions of all cities and towns in this State heretofore adopted relative to the subject covered by this law are hereby validated.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1104. Adoption of Provisions

The benefits of the provisions of this article and Articles 1086 to 1096, both inclusive, and Article 1105 shall apply to any city, and the terms thereof extend to the same, when the governing body thereof shall submit the question of the adoption or rejection hereof to a vote of the resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said city, at a special election called for the purpose by said city. Said election shall be held as nearly as possible in compliance with the law with reference to regular city elections in said city, but said governing body is hereby empowered, and it shall be their duty on the written petition of one hundred qualified voters of said city, by resolution, to order said election, and prescribe the time and manner of holding the same. Said body shall canvass and determine the results of such election. If a majority of the voters voting upon the question of the adoption of said article, at such election, shall vote to adopt the same, the result of the election shall be entered by said governing body upon their minutes, and thereupon all the terms of said articles shall be applicable to and govern such city adopting the same. A certified copy of said minutes shall be prima facie evidence of the result of such election and the regularity thereof. When the provisions of said articles have been adopted by any city, the governing body thereof shall have full power to pass all ordinances or resolutions necessary or proper to give full force and effect thereto and to every part thereof.

Art. 1105. Provisions Cumulative

The provisions of Articles 1086 to 1096, both inclusive, and Article 1104 and of resolutions or ordinances passed pursuant thereto shall be cumulative of and in addition to existing laws pertaining to the making of such improvements. In any case in which a conflict may exist or arise between the provisions of said articles and the provisions of any law granting a special charter to any city in this State, the provisions of such special charter shall control.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1105a. Establishing Building Lines on Streets

"Street" Defined

Sec. 1. The word "street" as used in this Act, means any public highway, boulevard, parkway, square or street, or any part or side of any of the same.

Building Lines Authorized

Sec. 2. It shall hereafter be lawful for any city, town, or village to establish building lines on any public street or highway, or part thereof in such city, town, or village.

Ordinance or Resolution; Effect

Sec. 3. The Legislative Body of any such city desiring to establish a building line may do so by adopting a resolution or ordinance describing the street, highway or part thereof to be affected, and the location of the building line or lines, and except as herein otherwise provided, by following the same procedure as that authorized by law in such city for the acquiring of land for the opening of streets. After the establishment of any such line, no building or other structures shall be erected, reconstructed or substantially repaired, and no new buildings or other structure, or part thereof, shall be erected or reerected within said lines so established.

Condemnation Proceedings

Sec. 4. The procedure for instituting and conducting the condemnation proceedings to condemn the easements and interests necessary to be taken and acquired to establish a building line under the authority of this Act, and to assess and collect benefits against property owners and their property abutting on or the vicinity of said building line arising out of the establishment of said building line, shall be the same as that authorized by law in such city in connection with the opening of streets. In the condemnation of any tract where the ownership of or interests in said tract is in controversy or is unknown, the award may be made in bulk as to such tract, and paid into court for the use of the parties owning or interested therein, whoever they may be, as their interests may appear. The award and findings of the Special Commissioners when filed with the Judge of the County Court, or other court having jurisdiction over the condemnation proceedings, shall be final, and shall be made the judgment of said court. Compensation shall be due and payable upon rendition of the judgment by the court adopting the award.

Time for Conformance; Removal of Structures Within Line

Sec. 5. Whenever and wherever a building line shall be established under authority of this Act, all structures extending within such building lines shall be required to conform to the new line within a period of not more than twenty-five (25) years from the time of establishing said lines; such time to be provided in the ordinance providing for the establishment of such line. At any time, however, before or after the expiration of the time so fixed, the proper municipal authorities shall have the power to proceed in the manner then provided by law relating to condemnation proceedings by such cities to remove all structures and to condemn any property then within such line, and to assess benefits against property owners and their property benefited thereby, provided, however, that all owners of property so affected shall receive due notice and hearing in the manner then provided by law in the determination of the additional damages then sustained by the removal of such structures or the taking of land then within the building line and in the determination of benefits to be assessed against property owners affected and their property affected.

Act as Cumulative

Sec. 6. This Act shall be in addition to and cumulative of any powers now or hereafter conferred by law on such cities.

[Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 415, ch. 276; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1094, ch. 483, § 1, eff. June 12, 1967.]

Art. 1105b. Street Improvements and Assessments in Cities Having More Than 1000 Inhabitants

Power to Make Improvements; Boundary Streets

Sec. 1. (a) That cities, towns and villages incorporated under either general or special law, including those operating under special charter, or amendments of charter adopted pursuant to the Home Rule provisions of the Constitution, shall have power to cause to be improved, any highway, within their limits by filling, grading, raising, paving, repaving, and repairing in a permanent manner, and by constructing, reconstructing, repairing and realigning curbs, gutters and sidewalks, and by widening, narrowing and straightening, and by constructing appurtenances and incidentals to any of such improvements, including drains and culverts, which power shall include that of causing to be made any one or more of the kinds or classes of improvements herein named or any combination thereof, or of parts thereof.

(b) Whenever a part of the boundary of any such city is upon or along any street or highway, which at that point lies wholly within, partly within and partly without or wholly outside of its limits, such city may improve such portion of such street and assess a part of the cost thereof against the abutting property lying on both sides of such street by the proceedings set forth in this Act, provided that if such street lies wholly or partly within the limits of any other such city the governing body thereof shall consent to the improvement and if assessments are levied against any property lying within the limits of any other city than the one (1) initiating the improvement, the governing body of such other city shall consent to such assessments as hereinafter provided. If assessments are finally levied as particularly provided by Section 9 of this Act against any abutting property lying within the limits of any other city than the one (1) initiating the improvements, such assessments shall not be valid unless the governing body of such other city shall by ordinance or resolution ratify and approve the assessments so levied, and any one owning or claiming any such abutting property, in addition to the right of appeal given by said Section of this Act, shall have the further right of appeal from any such assessment for fifteen (15) days after the passage of the ordinance or resolution by which the governing body of such other city so ratifies and approves such assessments; provided further that if the governing body of such other city does not ratify and approve such assessments within thirty (30) days after the date of the ordinance or resolution levying the same then the city which initiated the project may in the discretion of its governing body repeal and annul all of the proceedings relating thereto, including the contract, if any, for the work; and provided further that failure on the part of the governing body of such other city to so ratify and approve such assessments shall not affect the validity of the assessments which have been levied against any property lying within the limits of the city initiating the improvement.

(c) Whenever a part of the boundary between any two (2) such cities is upon and along any street or highway or is along the edge of any street or highway and the governing bodies of both cities determine the necessity for any such improvement of such portion of said street or highway, then such two (2) cities may contract upon such terms as their respective governing bodies may approve to the effect that one (1) or the other of them shall by the proceedings provided for in this Act, improve such portion of said street and that the other of such two (2) cities shall pay a part of the cost thereof, such payment to be made at such time or times and subject to such conditions as they may so agree upon; and the use by either of such cities of its funds for such purpose shall be lawful whether the street to be improved lies wholly within, partly within and partly without, or wholly outside of its limits.

Cities Over 285,000; Improvements on Highway or Road Outside Limits

Sec. 1a. Any city mentioned in Section 1 and having a population in excess of two hundred and eighty-five thousand (285,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census may make the improvements named in Section 1 hereof on any highway or road without the limits of such city if such improvements do not extend more than one hundred and fifty (150) feet from the limits of such city.

Definitions

Sec. 2. That the term "city" whenever used herein shall include all incorporated cities, towns and villages; that the term "governing body" whenever used herein, includes the governing or legislative bodies of all incorporated towns, cities and villages, whether known as councils, commissions, boards of commissioners, common councils, boards of aldermen, city councils, or by whatever name such bodies may be known or designated under general or special laws or charters. That whenever the term "highway" is used herein it shall include any street, avenue, alley, highway, boulevard, drive, public place, square, or any portion or portions thereof, including any portion that may have or may be left wholly or partly unimproved in connection with other street improvements heretofore or hereafter made. The term "improve" or "improvements" when used herein shall include the kinds and classes of improvements, with incidents and appurtenances thereof, and any portions or combinations thereof, or of parts thereof, hereinabove mentioned, liberally construed. That whenever the term "cost" or "costs of improvements" or similar terms are used herein, same shall include expenses of engineering and other expenses incident to construction of improvements, in addition to the other costs of the improvements.

Powers of Governing Body

Sec. 3. That the governing body of any city shall have power to determine the necessity for, and to order, the improvement of any highway, highways, or parts thereof within such city, and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of such improvements by the city, or partly by the city and partly by assessments as hereinafter provided.

Cost of Improvement; Estimate for Assessment in Part on Abutting Property

Sec. 4. That the cost of such improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by property abutting upon the highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved, and the owners of such property, but if any part of the cost is to be paid by such abutting property and the owners, then before any such improvements are actually constructed, and before any hearing herein provided for is held, the governing body shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, an estimate of the cost of such improvements, and in no event shall more than all the cost of constructing, reconstructing, repairing and realigning curbs, gutters and sidewalks, and nine-tenths of the remaining cost of such improvements as shown on such estimate be assessed against such abutting property and owners thereof.

Special Tax on Street Railways for Improvement of Area Occupied

Sec. 5. If improvements be ordered constructed in any part of the area between and under rails, tracks, double tracks, turn outs and switches, and two feet on each side thereof, of any railway, street railway, or interurban, using, occupying, or crossing any such highway, portion or portions thereof, ordered improved, then the governing body shall have power to assess the whole cost of the improvements in such area against such railway, street railway, or interurban, and shall have power, by ordinance, to levy a special tax upon such railway, street railway, or interurban, and its road-bed, ties, rails, fixtures, rights and franchises, which tax shall constitute a lien thereon superior to any other lien or claim except State, County, and City ad valorem taxes, and which may be enforced either by sale of said property in the manner provided by law for the collection of ad valorem taxes by the city, or by suit in any court having jurisdiction. The ordinance levying such tax shall prescribe the time, terms and conditions of payment thereof, and the rate of interest, not to exceed 8% per annum, and same, if not paid when due, shall be collectible, together with interest, expenses of collection and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred. The Governing Body shall have power to cause to be issued assignable certificates in evidence of any such assessments as hereinafter provided.

Assessments on Abutting Property; Certificates

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess all the cost of constructing, reconstructing, repairing, and realigning, curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, and not exceeding nine-tenths of the estimated cost of such improvements, exclusive of curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, against property abutting upon the highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed eight (8) per cent per annum. Any assessment against abutting property shall be a first and prior lien thereon from the date improvements are ordered, and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at said date, whether named or not. The governing body shall have power to cause to be issued in the name of the city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied declaring the lien upon the property and the liability of the true owner or owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceedings with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or reassessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fee, if incurred, and shall be first and prior lien on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except State, county, school district, and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Assessment Apportioned under Front Foot Plan Unless Inequitable

Sec. 7. The part of the cost of improvements on each portion of highway ordered improved which may be assessed against abutting property and owners thereof shall be apportioned among the parcels of abutting property and owners thereof, in accordance with the Front Foot Plan or Rule provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the Governing Body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality, it shall be the duty of said Body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such parcels of property and owners thereof, the equities of such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed.

No Lien on Property Exempt; Personal Liability of Owner; Enforcing Lien

Sec. 8. Nothing herein shall empower any city, or its governing body, to fix a lien against any interest in property exempt, at the time the improvements are ordered, from the lien of special assessment for street improvements, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such property: The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted in front of property, any interest in which is so exempt, shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes.

Notice and Hearing; Contents of Notice

Sec. 9. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any abutting property or its owners, nor against any railway, street railway or interurban, or owner, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any abutting property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property, and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three (3) times in some newspaper published in the city where such special assessment tax is to be imposed, if there be such a paper; if not, then the nearest to such city of general circulation in the county in which such city is located; the first publication of such notice of hearing to be made at least twenty-one (21) days before the date of the hearing; and, additional written notice of the hearing shall be given by depositing in the United States mail, at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the hearing, written notice of such hearing, postage prepaid, in an envelope addressed to the owners of the respective properties abutting such highway, highways or portion or portions thereof to be improved, as the names of such owners are shown on the then current rendered tax rolls of such city and at the addresses so shown, or if the names of such respective owners do not appear on such rendered tax rolls, then addressed to such owners as their names are shown on the current unrendered rolls of the city at the addresses shown thereon; and, where a special tax is proposed to be levied against any railway or street railway using, occupying or crossing any highway, portion or portions thereof to be improved, such additional notice shall be given by depositing in the United States mail, at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the hearing, a written notice of such hearing, postage prepaid, in an envelope addressed to the said railway or street railway as shown on the then current rendered tax rolls of such city, at the address so shown, or, if the name of such respective railways do not appear on such rendered rolls of the city, then addressed to such railways or street railways as the names are shown on the current unrendered rolls of the city, at the addresses shown thereon. If any such notice shall describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are proposed to be levied and to which such notice relates, shall state the highway, highways, portion or portions thereof to be improved, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against the owner or owners of abutting property and such property on each highway or portion with reference to which hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held, and shall state the estimated total cost of the improvements on each such highway, portion or portions thereof, and, if the improvements are to be constructed in any part of the area between and under rails and tracks, double tracks, turnouts, and switches, and two (2) feet on each side thereof of any railway, street railway or interurban, shall also state the amount proposed to be assessed therefor, and shall state the time and place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such abutting property, or any interest therein, and upon all owning or claiming such railway, street railway, or interurban, or any interest therein. The notice to be mailed may consist of a copy of the published notice. In those cases in which an owner of property abutting a highway or portion thereof which is to be improved is listed as "unknown" on the then current city tax roll, or the name of an owner is shown on the city tax roll but no address for such owner is shown, no notice need be mailed. In those cases where the owner is shown to be an estate, the mailed notice may be addressed to such estate. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body of such city and all owning any such abutting property, or any interest therein, and all owning any such railway, street railway or interurban, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the abutting property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any errors, inaccuracies, irregularities, and invalidities, and to supply any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction of such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements for which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, or any railway, street railway, or interurban assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction, within fifteen (15) days from the time such assessment is levied, and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity, and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvement for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not mailed as required or was not published or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes in Proceedings; Procedure

Sec. 10. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by two-thirds vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvement as theretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been ordered or held then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered, and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in like manner as herein provided for original notices and hearings. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into, and in case of abandonment of any particular improvement an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments theretofore levied therefor, and all other proceedings relating thereto.

Assessments Against Parcels Owned Jointly

Sec. 11. Assessments against several parcels of property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation or estate, and property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations, may be assessed jointly.

Powers of Governing Body

Sec. 12. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to exercise all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt, either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Correction of Assessments; Reassessment Certificates

Sec. 13. In case any assessment shall for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and correct any mistake or irregularity in connection therewith, and at any time to make and levy reassessments after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner herein provided for original assessments, and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of reassessments shall have the same force as provided for recitals in certificates relating to original assessments.

Appeal

Sec. 14. Anyone owning or claiming any property or interest in any property against which such reassessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within fifteen (15) days from the date of such reassessment, the provisions hereinabove made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel, and defense shall apply to such reassessment.

Section 15 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 489, ch. 106, provided that the act should not repeal articles 1086-1096, 1104, 1105, and should not repeal any charter or law, but should exist as alternative provisions and that any city which might adopt or amend its charter under the Home Rule provision might provide therein for any of the provisions thereof as part of or as alternative to any charter provision, and provided further that the act should not apply to cities not having more than one thousand inhabitants, and section 16 provided that if any section or part was held invalid, such holding should not affect the remainder.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 364, ch. 176 amended section 9 of this article; sections 2 and 3 of the amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as invalidating any assessment for street improvements heretofore levied by any city pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 106, Acts of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended [this article].

"Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision."

Art. 1105b-1. Validating Special Assessments for Street Improvements

Sec. 1. That where any city acting through its governing body has heretofore levied assessments for street improvements against property abutting upon the highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved and against the owners of such property, and where such city has purported to act under the authority of Chapter 106, page 489 et seq., Acts of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, as said Act read on the date said assessments were levied (which Act as amended appears as Article 1105b in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and where not more than all of the cost of constructing, reconstructing, repairing and realigning curbs, gutters and sidewalks and not more than nine-tenths ($\frac{9}{10}$) of the remaining cost of such improvements as shown on the estimate of costs prepared or caused to be prepared by the governing body of said city, where assessed against the property abutting upon the highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved and against the owners thereof, and where the portion of the cost of the improvements which was assessed against abutting property and the owners thereof was in fact apportioned among the parcels of abutting property and the owners thereof in accordance with the front foot plan or rule, or, where the city, in addition to giving the published notice provided for by Section 9 of Chapter 106 of the Acts of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, as it then read, mailed or caused to be mailed by United States mail, postage prepaid, a reasonable time prior to the date of the hearing, notices containing the information required to be contained in the published notice, addressed to the owners of the respective properties abutting the highway, highways or portions thereof to be improved as such names of such owners were shown on the then current tax rolls of such city at the addresses so shown, all such assessments and all proceedings levying same are hereby legalized, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of said Chapter 106 of the Acts of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt at the time the improvements were ordered from the lien of special assessments for street improvements.

Sec. 2. All assignable certificates of special assessment issued in evidence of such assessments hereby validated are hereby legalized, approved and validated according to their terms. Any city which has heretofore levied assessments validated hereby but has not yet issued assignable certificates of special assessment to evidence such assessments may issue same and such certificate shall be valid and legal.

Art. 1105b-2. Validation of Special Assessments and Reassessments for Street Improvements

Sec. 1. All assessments and reassessments for street or highway improvements heretofore levied or purported to be levied by any and all cities in the state against properties abutting their streets or highways and against the owners of such properties, and all proceedings of the governing bodies of such cities levying or purporting to levy such assessments or reassessments are in all respects validated and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of Chapter 106 of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended,¹ except that nothing herein shall be construed to validate or to legalize any assessment lien levied or attempted to be levied against any property or interest in property exempt at the time the improvements were ordered from the lien of special assessment for street improvements.

Sec. 2. All assignable certificates of special assessment issued in evidence of such assessments or reassessments are hereby validated according to their terms. Any city which has not yet issued assignable certificates of special assessment to evidence such assessments may issue same and such certificates shall be valid and legal.

Sec. 3. This Act is not intended to validate, nor does it apply to any assessments or reassessments for street improvements or utility improvements (regardless whether said assessment or reassessment be in the form of zoning regulations, plat regulations, utility regulations, or direct money assessments), nor to any ordinances or resolutions of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing the issuance of any such certificates of special assessment, which are the subject matter of any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act, in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state in which the validity thereof is being challenged, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of same.

Art. 1105b-3. Validation of Assessments and Reassessments for Street, Sewer and Water Improvements

Sec. 1. That where any city acting through its governing body has heretofore levied assessments or reassessments for street improvements against property abutting upon a highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved and against the owners of such property, and such city has acted or purported to act under the authority of Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended (which Act as amended appears as Article 1105b in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), all such assessments and reassessments heretofore levied or purporting to be levied against properties abutting such streets and highways and against the owners of such properties, and all proceedings of the governing bodies of such cities levying or purporting to levy such assessments or reassessments are in all respects hereby legalized, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and reassessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of said Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., of the Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, and the liens thereof shall be effective from and after the times thereon so provided, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt, at the time the improvements were ordered from the lien of special assessment or reassessment for local improvements under the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. That where any city acting through its governing body has heretofore levied assessments or reassessments for improvements to a sanitary sewer system within its limits, or improvements to a water system within its limits, either or both, against benefited properties and the owners thereof, and the city has acted or purported to act under the authority of the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended (which Act as amended appears as Article 1110c in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), all such assessments and reassessments and all proceedings levying same are hereby legalized, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and reassessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended, and the lien thereof shall be effective from and after the times therein provided, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt from the lien of special assessment or reassessment for local improvements under the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. That where any city acting through its governing body has heretofore levied as-assessments or reassessments for street improvements against property abutting upon the highway or portions thereof ordered to be improved and against the owners of such property, and where such city has acted or purported to act under the authority of Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, and has levied or purported to levy said assessments or reassessments for such street improvements in conjunction with a levy of assessments or reassessments against benefited properties and the owners thereof for improvements to a sanitary sewer system within its limits, or for improvements to a water system within its limits, either or both, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended (which Act as amended appears as Article 1110c in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) by one joint proceeding, as provided by Section 18 of the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended, all such assessments and reassessments and all proceedings levying same are hereby legalized, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and reassessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, and by the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended, and the liens thereof shall be effective from and after the respective times so provided by said respective statutes, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt at the time the lien takes effect from the lien of special assessments or reassessments for local improvements under the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 4. That all assignable certificates of special assessment issued in evidence of any of such street, water or sanitary sewer assessment or any combination thereof, assessments or reassessments are hereby validated according to their terms. Any city which has not yet issued assignable certificates of special assessment to evidence any of such assessments may issue same and such certificates shall be valid and legal according to their terms.

Sec. 5. This Act is not intended to validate, nor does it apply to any assessments or reassessments for street improvements, nor to any certificates of special assessment or reassessment, nor to any ordinances or resolutions of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing the issuance of any such certificates of special assessment, which are the subject matter of any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act, in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state in which the validity thereof is being challenged, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of same.

Art. 1105c. Cities of More Than 100,000; Elimination of Grade-Level Street Crossings by Railroad Lines

Application of Act; Power of Cities; Purposes

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to every incorporated city or town (including Home Rule Cities) having a population of more than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to the Federal Census last preceding the taking of any action by such city or town under the provisions of this Act. Every such city or town (referred to hereinafter as "city") is hereby empowered and authorized to purchase, build, construct, acquire, improve, enlarge, extend, maintain, repair, and replace any and all properties, improvements and facilities which the governing body thereof deems to be necessary for the elimination of grade-level crossings by railroad lines of the streets of such city and for the relocation of railroad lines within said city, so that the hazards to life and property will be decreased, public safety and convenience will be promoted, traffic conditions will be improved, and the orderly development of the city will be encouraged. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, it is expressly provided that "properties, improvements and facilities" mentioned above shall include lands, properties, rights-of-way, elevated structures, grade separations, underpasses, overpasses, passenger stations or depots and other buildings, interchange yards, railroad tracks, removal and relocation of railway tracks, removal and relocation of utility lines or pipes or other improvements, removal or demolition of buildings or improvements, damages to other properties in connection with any of the foregoing, street improvements in connection with any of the foregoing, and any other properties, buildings, improvements, or facilities which the governing body deems to be necessary to accomplish the desired purposes. The "properties, improvements and facilities" mentioned in this Section 1 are hereinafter referred to as "the Facilities," or "Facilities."

Contracts; Leases; Conveyances and Other Agreements

Sec. 2. The governing body of the city shall have power and authority to make and enter all contracts, leases, conveyances, contracts of sale, lease-purchase contracts, and any other agreements with respect to the Facilities which said governing body shall deem necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes and powers granted in and by this Act, upon such terms and conditions and for such length or period of time as may be prescribed therein. Any such contract, lease, conveyance, contract of sale, lease-purchase contract, or other agreement may be entered into with any person, real or artificial, any corporation, municipal or public or private (including railroad or railway companies), any governmental agency or bureau (including the United States Government and the State of Texas and political subdivisions of said State), and the governing body may make contracts, leases, conveyances, contracts of sale, lease-purchase contracts, or other agreements with any such persons, corporations, or entities in connection with or incidental to the acquisition, financing, construction, or operation of any of the Facilities. Any and all contracts, leases, conveyances, contracts of sale, lease-purchase contracts, or other agreements herein authorized, to be effective, shall be authorized by ordinance or resolution of the governing board of the city, shall be executed by its mayor (or presiding officer) and attested by its city clerk (or city secretary). Any such contract, lease, conveyance, contract of sale, lease-purchase contract, or other agreement shall be binding upon the city and the governing body thereof, the powers and provisions set forth herein being complete within themselves, without reference to any other statute or statutes.

Tax Bonds or Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. For the purpose of providing funds for any of the Facilities provided in Section 1 hereof, the governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue, from time to time, tax bonds or revenue bonds of said city, either or both; provided, however, that no tax bonds (except refunding bonds) shall be issued unless and until they have been authorized at an election at which a majority of the duly qualified resident electors of said city who own taxable property within said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at said election, have voted in favor thereof, said election to be called and held under the provisions of and in accordance with Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as the same is now or may hereafter be amended.

Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 4. Revenue bonds may be issued, secured solely by a pledge of and payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of or use made of all or any designated part or parts of the Facilities then in existence or to be improved, constructed, or otherwise acquired, with the duty of the city to charge and collect fees, tolls, and other charges, so long as any of the revenue bonds or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid, sufficient to pay all maintenance and operation expenses of the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds), the interest on such bonds as it accrues, the principal of such bonds as it matures, and to make any and all other payments as may be prescribed in the bond ordinance and other proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds. "Net revenues" as used herein shall mean the gross revenues derived from the operation or use made of the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds) less the reasonable expenses of maintaining and operating said Facilities, and said maintenance and operation expenses shall include, among other things, necessary repair, upkeep, and insurance of said

Facilities. At the option of the governing body of the city, the proposition or propositions for the issuance of revenue bonds may be submitted at an election called and held as in the case of tax bonds, or such revenue bonds may be issued without the necessity of an election.

Ordinances; Interest and Sinking Funds; Reserve Funds

Sec. 5. In the ordinance adopted by the governing body authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds and in the proceedings relating thereto, the governing body may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund, reserve fund or funds, and any other funds provided for therein, and may provide where such funds shall be deposited, and may make such additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation, maintenance, and upkeep of the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), including provision for the leasing of all or any part or parts of said Facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from leases thereof, as it may deem appropriate. Said ordinance and other proceedings may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said net revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to the conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or other proceedings. Such ordinance and other proceedings may contain such other provisions and covenants, as the governing body shall determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of the State of Texas or by this Act, and the governing body may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of said revenue bonds.

Revenue Bonds Secured by Pledge of Future Revenues

Sec. 6. For the purpose of providing funds for any of the Facilities provided in Section 1 hereof, the governing body of the city shall also have the power to issue, from time to time, revenue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of the revenues, proceeds, or payments that will accrue to or be received by the city under any lease-purchase contract or contract of sale pertaining to any of the Facilities. Bonds may be issued secured solely by such pledge, and bonds may be issued secured not only by such pledge but also by pledges of net revenues as elsewhere provided in this Act. All the provisions of this Act relating to revenue bonds shall, insofar as the same may be made applicable, also apply to bonds issued by the city secured in the manner authorized by this Section 6. The power and authority granted by this Section 6 shall be in addition to other powers and authority granted to the city by this Act and shall not in any way limit such other powers and authority.

Form of Bonds; Maturity; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 7. All bonds of the city (tax bonds and revenue bonds) issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, shall be issued in the name of the city, shall be signed by the mayor (or presiding officer) of the city and countersigned by the city clerk (or city secretary), and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds may provide for the bonds to be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officers, either or both, and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a printed facsimile seal; and provided further that the interest coupons attached to said bonds may also be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. Said bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and may be sold either at public or private sale (no public advertisement for bids being necessary) at a price and under terms determined by the governing body to be most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard interest tables then currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be issued as non-option bonds, or may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the bonds. Such bonds may be made registerable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest.

After bonds have been authorized by the city, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and if such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, the said Attorney General shall approve the same. After such approval, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. When any revenue bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts made between the city and another party or parties (public agencies or otherwise), a copy of such contract or contracts and of the proceedings authorizing the same shall be submitted to the Attorney General along with the bond record, and the approval by the Attorney General of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or contracts, and thereafter the contract or contracts shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

Proceeds of Sale

Sec. 8. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, the governing body may appropriate or set aside out of such proceeds (i) an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, (ii) an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds, and, (iii) in the case of revenue bonds, such amount or amounts as may be prescribed by the bond ordinance to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds and into any other funds, as specified in said ordinance.

Additional Security; Mortgage of Physical Properties

Sec. 9. As additional security for the payment of any revenue bonds issued hereunder, the governing body of the city may in its discretion have executed in favor of the holders of such revenue bonds an indenture or deed of trust mortgaging and encumbering all or any part of the physical properties comprising the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of such bonds), including the lands upon which said Facilities are located, and may provide in such mortgage or encumbrance for a grant to any purchaser or purchasers at foreclosure sale of a franchise to operate such Facilities and properties for a term of not over forty (40) years from the date of such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. Any such indenture or deed of trust may contain such terms and provisions as the governing body shall deem proper and shall be enforceable in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Texas for the enforcement of other mortgages or encumbrances. Under any such sale ordered pursuant to the provisions of such mortgage or encumbrance, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale, and his or their successors or assigns, shall be vested with a permit or franchise conforming to the provisions stipulated in the indenture or deed of trust to maintain the Facilities and properties purchased at such sale with like powers and privileges as may theretofore have been enjoyed by the city in the operation of said Facilities and properties. The purchaser or purchasers of such Facilities and properties at any such sale, and his or their successors and assigns, may operate the same as provided in the last above sentence or may at their option remove all or any part or parts of said Facilities and properties for division to other purposes. The laws of the State of Texas (other than this Act) shall not be applicable to the authorization or execution of any mortgage or encumbrance entered into pursuant to the provisions of this Act, nor to the granting of any franchise hereunder.

Management and Control of Facilities

Sec. 10. While any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act or any interest thereon remain outstanding and unpaid, and whether or not there is an indenture or deed of trust mortgaging and encumbering the physical properties comprising the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), as provided in Section 9 hereof, the management and control of such Facilities (and the physical properties comprising the same), by the terms of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, may be placed in the hands of the governing body of the city or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such ordinance, consisting of not more than seven (7) members, one (1) of whom shall be a member of the governing body of such city. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed in the bond ordinance, but shall never exceed five per cent (5%) of the gross revenues of such Facilities. The terms of office of the members of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election or appointment of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties shall be specified in said ordinance. In all matters where such ordinance is silent, the laws and rules governing the governing body of the city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 11. (a) The governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue tax bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds (original or refunding) issued by the city under the provisions of this Act and accrued interest thereon, and no election therefor shall be necessary. Such refunding bonds may be issued to refund bonds of more than one series or issues of outstanding tax bonds. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

(b) The governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding revenue bonds (original or refunding) issued by the city under the provisions of this Act, and accrued interest thereon, and no election therefor shall be necessary. Revenue refunding bonds, at the option of the governing body, may be combined with new or original revenue bonds into one series or issue of bonds. Such revenue refunding bonds may be issued to refund bonds of more than one series or issue of outstanding revenue bonds and combine pledges for the outstanding bonds for the security of the refunding bonds, and such revenue refunding bonds may be secured by pledges of other net revenues and additional net revenues; provided, that such refunding will not impair the contract rights of the holders of any of the outstanding revenue bonds which are not to be refunded. Revenue refunding bonds may bear interest at a rate higher than that borne by the bonds refunded; provided, that such interest rate shall not exceed the rate specified in Section 7 of this Act.

(c) Refunding bonds (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds) shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded; but in lieu thereof, the ordinance authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient, not only to pay the principal of the underlying bonds, but also to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity dates, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. In those situations where the proceeds of revenue refunding bonds are deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, they shall be so deposited under an escrow agreement so that such proceeds will be available for the payment of the interest on and principal of said underlying bonds as such interest and principal respectively become due; and such escrow agreement may provide that such proceeds may, until such time as the same are needed to pay interest and principal as the same become due, be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America, in which instances the interest earned on such investments shall be considered as revenues of the Facilities.

(d) When any refunding bonds (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds) have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

(e) All the provisions of this Act relating to original bonds, insofar as the same may be made applicable, shall also apply to refunding bonds issued hereunder (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds).

Applicability of Statutes

Sec. 12. Insofar as the same may be applicable, the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, together with all amendments thereof and additions thereto, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and any city covered by this Act shall have, with respect to revenue bonds issued hereunder, all the powers granted by said Statutes. However, where the provisions of said Statutes are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 13. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (tax bonds and revenue bonds, and original bonds and refunding bonds) shall be, and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be, and are hereby declared to be, legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 14. The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred upon any city operating under the provisions of this Act, for the purpose of enabling such city to acquire the fee simple title, easement or right-of-way to, over and through any and all lands, water, lands under water, or any other property or properties of any nature whatsoever, private or public (except land and property used for cemetery purposes), which the governing body of the city deems to be necessary for the accomplishment of any of the purposes provided in Section 1 hereof. In the event of the condemnation, or the taking, damaging or destroying of any property for such purposes, the city shall pay to the owner thereof adequate compensation for the property taken, damaged, or destroyed. Compensation and damages adjudicated in any condemnation proceedings, and damages which may be done to the property of any person or corporation in the accomplishment of such purposes may be paid out of funds derived from the sale of any bonds (tax bonds or revenue bonds) issued pursuant to this Act or from any other available funds of the city. All procedure with reference to condemnation, the assessment of and estimating of damages, payment, appeal, the entering upon the property pending the appeal, etc., shall be in conformity with the procedure prescribed in Title 52, Articles 3264 to 3271, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and any amendments thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 15. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas that are applicable, but when a city acts under the provisions of this Act, to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail. Moreover, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions.

Validation of Proceedings and Contracts

Sec. 16. All proceedings heretofore had and all actions heretofore taken and all contracts heretofore entered into by any city relating to any of the matters covered by, or power or authority granted by, the provisions of this Act are hereby in all things validated. It is provided, however, that the validation provisions of this Section 16 shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any of the matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

1. CITY OWNED UTILITIES

Art. 1106. Appropriation of Revenue

The governing body of any city or town in this State, whether operating under special charter or under general law, may appropriate and apply the net revenues of its water works system or other public utility system, service or enterprise to the payment of the sinking fund and interest due by said city or town on the bonded indebtedness incurred on account of said system, service or enterprise, producing such revenues in the following manner:

- 1. Whenever said governing body desires to take advantage of the provisions of this article it shall at the end of its fiscal year, and before the passage of any ordinance levying taxes for that year, appropriate and set aside out of the net revenues such sums for such purpose only as such governing body shall deem to the best interest of the city or town.

2. Where the sums so set aside and appropriated shall be sufficient to pay in full the amounts needed for such sinking fund and interest for the fiscal year in which said revenues are produced, it shall not be thereafter necessary for the governing body to levy any tax for such sinking fund or interest for which this appropriation is made; but when said sums so appropriated shall not be sufficient to meet the required amounts for such sinking fund and interest, then the governing body shall include in the general tax ordinance for that year a tax sufficient to meet the deficiency in such sinking fund and interest allowance for that year. Nothing herein shall authorize said city or town to exceed the authorized tax limit.

Art. 1107. Condemnation of Property

An incorporated city or town shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn private property for either of the following purposes:

1. To open, change or widen any public street, avenue, or alley.

2. To construct water mains, or supply reservoirs, or standpipes for water works or sewers.

3. To establish thereon one or more hospitals or pesthouses, within or without the limits of such city or town.

4. To construct and maintain sewer pipes, mains and laterals and connections and also private property upon which to maintain vats, filtration pipes and other pipes, and which to use and occupy as a place for ultimate disposition of sewage in or out of the town or city limits, whenever it be made to appear that the use of any such private property is necessary for successful operation of such sewer system, and when it also be made to appear that such sewer system is beneficial to the public use, health, and convenience.

5. Construct, maintain, and operate municipal airports within or without the limits of such city or town.

6. To dig or drill water wells or well upon or produce water from or construct pump stations or reservoirs thereon, whether within or without the city limits.

7. To open and lengthen streets and alleys; to secure space for the erection of public buildings or space to relieve crowded conditions, within or without the limits of such city or town; provided, however, that the provision of this sub-section 7 shall apply only to incorporated cities or towns having a population of less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants as shown by the last preceding or any future Federal Census.

Art. 1108. Public Utilities

Any town or city in this State which has or may be chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special Act or charter, and which owns or operates waterworks, sewers, gas or electric lights, shall have the power and right:

1. To own land for such purposes within or without the limits of such town or city.

2. To purchase, construct and operate water, sewer and gas and electric light systems inside or outside of such towns or city limits, and regulate and control same in a manner to protect the interests of such town or city.

3. To extend the lines of such systems outside of the limits of such towns or cities and to sell water, sewer, gas, and electric light and power privileges or service to any person or corporation outside of the limits of such towns or cities, or permit them to connect therewith under contract with such town or city under such terms and conditions as may appear to be for the best interest of such town or city; provided that no electric lines shall, for the purposes stated in this section, be extended into the corporate limits of another incorporated town or city.

4. To prescribe the kind of water or gas mains or sewer pipes and electric appliances within or beyond the limits of such town or city, and to inspect the same and require them to be kept in good order and condition at all times and to make such rules and regulations and prescribe penalties concerning same, as shall be necessary and proper.

Art. 1108a. Electric Properties Partly in Texas and Partly in New Mexico

Sec. 1. Where any city in Texas is now or hereafter being supplied with electricity by means of a privately owned electric plant and system, part of which, including facilities for the generation and transmission of electricity distributed in part to the inhabitants of said city, is located in the State of New Mexico, such city is hereby authorized to acquire, own and operate such electric plant and system in whole or in part, and in order to pay for the cost of such acquisition to issue the revenue bonds of such city in the manner now provided for the issuance of revenue bonds by cities under the general laws of Texas, and the revenue bonds so issued shall be fully negotiable instruments for all purposes.

Sec. 2. Any city so acquiring an electric plant and system is authorized to sell electricity either at retail or wholesale for distribution in the State of New Mexico and to enter into such contracts and agreements in that connection as may be provided by the governing body thereof.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall remain fully effective, it being hereby expressly declared to be the legislative intent that this Act would have been adopted had any such invalid provision not been included therein.

Art. 1109. Waterworks

These rules shall govern incorporated cities having more than one thousand inhabitants according to its preceding Federal census and owning and operating their own waterworks systems for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants thereof with water for fire protection or domestic consumption and the users of the city:

1. They may proceed in accordance with the provisions of this article independently of and without reference to any other applicable law or charter provision, present or future, except as hereinafter provided, which said law or charter provisions shall remain in force as alternate methods.

2. Subject to the terms hereof, any such city may by purchase, gift or devise, or by the exercise of the right of eminent domain, acquire and own in fee simple or otherwise public or private lands and property including riparian rights, within or without the city limits or within any county in this State.

3. To furnish any such city an adequate and wholesome supply of water, any such city may exercise the right of eminent domain to acquire and condemn either public or private lands or property for the extension, improvement or enlargement of its waterworks system, including water supply reservoirs, riparian rights, stand pipes, water sheds, the construction of water supply reservoirs, wells or artesian wells and dams and the construction, building, erection or establishment of any necessary appurtenances or facilities which will furnish to the inhabitants of the city an abundant supply of wholesome water.

4. Any such city shall also have all the powers conferred upon water improvement districts or water control and preservation districts under the statutes now or hereafter existing providing for the exercise of the right of eminent domain, and shall have all the powers conferred by general law authorizing cities and towns to exercise the right of eminent domain.

5. Any such city may acquire the fee simple title to any land or property when same is expressed in the resolution ordering said condemnation proceedings by the governing body.

6. The term "city" or "cities" as used herein shall include all incorporated towns and cities acting hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1109a. Mortgage of Water System; Extension or Enlargements

Power to Mortgage; Acquisition of Additions; Franchise to Foreclosure Purchaser

Sec. 1. All cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants shall have power to issue bonds or notes therefor, and to secure payment thereof, to mortgage and encumber any such water system, and the incomes thereof and everything pertaining thereto.

And to purchase or otherwise acquire additions to, or extensions or enlargements of any such water systems, or additional water powers, riparian rights, or repair of such systems, or either of them; all cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants shall have power to issue bonds and notes therefor, and to secure payment thereof, to mortgage and encumber such additions, extensions, enlargements, additional water powers, riparian rights, the income therefrom, and everything pertaining thereto, either separately or with such systems, or either of them.

And as additional security therefor, by the terms of such encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser, or purchaser under any sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the system and properties so purchased, for a term not over twenty (20) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force.

Operating Expense First Lien on Income; Rates; Priorities; Agreements as to Payment

Sec. 2. Whenever the income of any water system shall be encumbered under this Act, the expense of operating and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs and extensions necessary to render efficient service, and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. The rates charged for services furnished by said system shall be equal and uniform, and no free service shall ever be allowed, except in the discretion of the governing body, for city public schools, or buildings and institutions operated by such city, and there shall be charged and collected for such services a sufficient rate to pay for all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges, and for an interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds or notes issued to purchase, construct or improve such system or any outstanding indebtedness against same.

after prescribed, there are then outstanding other bonds, notes or obligations payable from the revenues of the water system, the additional bonds or notes may nevertheless be issued, but shall be issued in such manner that they are in all respects subordinate to each issue of bonds, notes or obligations then outstanding. Each series of bonds or notes issued hereunder shall, as to lien on the revenues and physical properties of the water system, be subordinate to each series of bonds, notes or obligations theretofore issued and remaining outstanding. Provided, however, in those instances where in the ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust provision has been or shall be made for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds on a parity with the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of such ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust, any such city or town shall have the power to authorize, issue and sell additional bonds payable from the revenues of the water system and secured by pledges and liens on a parity with and of equal dignity with the pledges and liens securing the bonds previously issued; and such additional bonds, notes or obligations when issued shall in all respects be on a parity with and of equal dignity with said previously issued bonds which are then outstanding, provided in the ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust authorizing or securing such additional bonds they are declared to be on a parity and of equal dignity with said previously issued bonds, but subject in all respects to the conditions imposed upon the issuance of additional bonds by the ordinance, Deed of Trust or indenture of trust issuing or securing the bonds which are outstanding. In the issuance of revenue bonds in the future for any such purposes any such city or town may prescribe in the ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust for the issuance later of additional issues or series of bonds on a parity with the bonds being issued pursuant to and subject to the restrictions, covenants and limitations contained in such ordinance, Deed of Trust or indenture of trust.

Subject to the terms and provisions hereof, the governing body of the city, in authorizing the issuance of bonds, notes or obligations hereunder, may enter into such agreements and covenants with respect to the manner of payment of such bonds, notes or obligations, and the application of the revenues of the water system as it may deem fit, provided, however, that no such bond, warrant or note shall ever be a general obligation of such city, and it shall be proper for the governing body to apply surplus revenues of the system not needed for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or obligations, and not needed for the payment of operating and maintenance expenses, to the payment of any notes, warrants or other obligations the proceeds of which were used for the purpose of improving, repairing, adding to or extending the waterworks system.

Bonds as Charge on Property Encumbered

Sec. 3. All cities acquiring a water system, or any addition, improvement or extension thereto, under this Act, may borrow money on the security of the plant, or addition or extension, so acquired, or owned, for the purpose of paying the purchase price and for the addition, improvement and extension thereof, and may issue bonds, notes or other obligations to evidence the moneys so borrowed, which bonds, notes or other obligations shall have the characteristics of negotiable instruments under the law merchant. Every contract, bond, or note executed or issued under this Act shall contain this clause "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Management During Encumbrance

Sec. 4. The management and control of any such system or systems during the time same are encumbered, may by the terms of such encumbrance be placed in the hands of the city council of such city; but if deemed advisable may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such encumbrance, consisting of not more than five (5) members, one of whom shall always be the mayor of such city; and the compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such contract, but shall never exceed five per cent (5%) of the gross receipts of any such systems in any one year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matter pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such contract of encumbrance; but in all matters where such contract is silent, the laws and rules governing the council of such city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. Said city council or board of trustees having such management and control shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment for same, and providing for discontinuance of such service to those failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made; and such city council shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof, and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located.

Default in Payments; Procedure

Sec. 5. Any contract of encumbrance under this Act may name, or provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment of the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract, and for the selection of his successor, if disqualified or failing to act, and may provide for collection fees not exceeding five per cent (5%) of the principal; but no collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation, because of default in payment of any installment of principal shall be exercised until ninety (90) days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council of such city and to each member of such board of trustees, if any, that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a letter to each person to be notified, by registered mail, postage and registration fees prepaid, and addressed to them at the post office in such city; and if the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety (90) days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten per cent (10%) per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date same was originally due.

Property Included in Encumbrance; Attorney General to Approve Bonds; Submission to Voters

Sec. 6. In the encumbrance of any properties under this Act such city may encumber any such water systems, or any extensions, additions or enlargements thereof, singly or together, and may or may not include in such encumbrance the franchise provided for, and may omit or include in said encumbrances the whole or any part of the properties mentioned in Section 1 of this Act; but no such system shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified property taxpayers of such city, or under the terms of any such mortgage or encumbrance, such vote where necessary to be ascertained at an election, of which notice shall have been given in like manner as in cases of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities.

All bonds and notes issued hereunder shall be submitted to the Attorney General for examination, and upon his approval thereof, shall be registered by the State Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose, and the Comptroller shall endorse his certificate of registration on each such bond or note. Any bonds or notes so approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller, and delivered to the purchaser or purchasers for not less than their par value plus accrued interest shall thereafter be incontestable.

Bonds or notes may be issued under the provisions hereof and the revenues or physical properties of the water system encumbered as security for the payment of such bonds and notes; such bonds or notes shall not be issued, however, until such issuance has been authorized by a majority vote of the qualified electors who own taxable property in the city where said election is being held, and who have duly rendered their property for taxation, such electors voting only in the precinct of their residence, and voting on such proposition under the Constitution and Laws of Texas. Such election shall be called and held in the manner provided for the calling and holding of other bond elections in such city. No other notices need be published or opportunities for the filing of petitions granted despite the provisions of any other statute or of the charter of any such city.

Prior Proceedings Validated; Proviso as to Cities of 290,000

Sec. 7. All proceedings heretofore had by cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants, in the acquisition of any water systems, and the encumbrance of same, within the authority given by this Act, be and the same are hereby approved and ratified.

Provided, that in cities having a population of more than two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, the governing body thereof shall have the power to borrow money and issue bonds or notes which shall be fully negotiable within the meaning and for all purposes under the negotiable instrument law; said bonds and notes to be payable solely out of the income of such system or any extensions, replacements, betterments, additions or improvements which, in the judgment of the governing body of such city, are necessary to render adequate service and to pledge and use the income of such system for the payment of such bonds or notes and such determination by such governing body shall be conclusive and any ordinance pledging or encumbering such rents, income or revenues shall be deemed a part of the contract of said city with the holders of such bonds or notes, and

Provided, further, that the election called for in Section 6 hereof shall not be necessary in said cities having a population of more than two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, to authorize the issuance of bonds or notes payable solely out of the income of said system, and

Provided, further, that all bonds or notes of said last mentioned cities authorized under Section 1 of this Act shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination and when such bonds or notes have been examined and certified as legal obligations of such cities by said Attorney General they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Texas in a book kept for such purposes, and the Comptroller shall endorse his certificate of registration upon each of such bonds or notes; and any bonds or notes so approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller, and delivered to the purchaser or purchasers for not less than their par value plus accrued interest shall thereafter be incontestable.

Provided, further, that nothing in this Act, however, shall repeal or affect any other legislation pertaining to the same or similar subjects but shall be cumulative of all Acts granting the power to all such cities and towns, including home rule cities, operating under Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and it is not intended to limit or impair any power given by any other of such Acts, nor shall any other Act be deemed to limit or impair the power of any city under this Act.

Art. 1109a-1. Validation of Waterworks System Revenue Refunding Bonds and Sewer System Revenue Refunding Bonds

All Waterworks System Revenue Refunding Bonds and all Sewer System Revenue Refunding Bonds heretofore authorized, issued, exchanged, and delivered by cities in Texas operating under the provisions of Special Charters and which refunding bonds have been heretofore validated and confirmed by a final decree of a United States District Court in Texas, be, and the same are hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, and such refunding bonds so authorized, issued, exchanged, and delivered, shall hereafter be and constitute valid and binding obligations upon the revenues of such systems.

Art. 1109a-2. Warrants for Completion of Waterworks Extensions and Improvements

Sec. 1. In each instance where a city heretofore has issued and sold bonds for the purpose of extending and improving its waterworks system, and the governing body thereof finds and determines that the proceeds from such bonds will not be sufficient to complete such extensions and improvements according to plans and specifications heretofore approved by the governing body, and that such extensions and improvements must be completed immediately in order to afford adequate fire protection and to protect the public health, the governing body is hereby authorized to issue interest-bearing time warrants to pay for the completion of the extensions and improvements. Such warrants may be issued without the prerequisite of an election and without giving notice of intention to issue warrants.

Sec. 2. In the event of conflict between any of the provisions of this Act and any provisions of a city charter, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. Provided, however, that no city shall issue warrants under this law to a greater amount than Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars, that such warrants shall bear not more than four (4%) per cent interest, and shall mature in not to exceed five (5) years from their date, and provided further that no ordinance, authorizing the issuance of such warrants, shall be passed after ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act; but the limitations contained in this sentence shall not restrict the authority conferred by any of the provisions of Section 6 of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931.¹

Art. 1109a-3. Acquisition of Property for Water Purification and Treatment Facilities

Authority of Certain Cities and Towns

Sec. 1. Cities and towns of this state incorporated under General or Special Law or operating under a Home Rule Charter and which are located within or which have contracted or which may hereafter contract with any Municipal Water Authority or other District organized under the provisions of Section 59 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution, for a supply of untreated water shall have and are hereby granted the power separately or jointly, in combination with any one or more such cities or towns, to receive and acquire through gift or dedication, by purchase without condemnation or by condemnation, any property in this state located inside or outside the corporate limits of any such city or town for the purpose of building and acquiring water purification and treatment facilities, reservoirs, pipelines, and water transporting facilities of every kind deemed necessary for providing such cities or towns separately or jointly with a supply of fresh water for municipal, domestic and industrial purposes, and to build, construct or otherwise acquire any and all such facilities. The procedure to be followed in condemnation proceedings hereunder and authorized herein shall be in accordance with the provisions of state law with reference to eminent domain including particularly the provisions of Title 52 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.¹

Acquisition and Construction of Improvements and Facilities

Sec. 2. Such cities and towns are hereby empowered separately or jointly to maintain, improve and operate all properties acquired and constructed hereunder and all improvements thereon and to sell or lease all or any part of such property and improvements and shall have full and ample power to separately or jointly manage, control and operate properties so owned jointly by two or more such cities and towns by entering into contract with each other on terms mutually agreeable.

Negotiable Bonds or Warrants; Taxes for Interest and Sinking Fund

Sec. 3. The governing body of any city which may provide water treatment facilities under the provisions of this Act may for such purpose issue negotiable bonds or warrants of such city and levy taxes to provide the interest and sinking fund therefor in the manner provided by law for the issuance of tax supported bonds and warrants of such cities and towns, or may issue bonds supported by the revenues of any one or all of its utilities in the manner provided in Article 1111 et seq., Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Improvement, Maintenance and Operation of Facilities; Charges; Contracts for Services; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 4. Any city or town acquiring property and facilities separately or cities and towns acquiring property and facilities jointly under this Act are authorized and empowered to improve, maintain, operate and conduct same for the authorized purposes and to make and provide all necessary or useful improvements and facilities and to fix and make such reasonable charges for the use thereof as the governing body or governing bodies, by mutual agreement may determine. Any such city or town acting separately and any such cities and towns acting jointly may contract with any other city or town for supplying the latter with services to be afforded by the improvements and facilities acquired and constructed hereunder and such cities and towns are granted all necessary powers and authority to make and enforce rules and regulations pertaining to the use of improvements and facilities as the interested governing bodies may, by ordinance, determine.

Approval of Contract for Water Treatment

Sec. 5. No election shall be required of any city or town for approval of any contract pertaining to water treatment under this Act but any such contract may be entered into without the necessity of an election.

Taxes for Operation and Maintenance of Improvements and Facilities

Sec. 6. In addition to any taxes which may be levied by any city or town for the interest and sinking fund of any bonds issued hereunder any city or town acquiring improvements and facilities either separately or jointly pursuant to this Act are authorized and empowered to levy and collect taxes for the purpose of improving, operating and maintaining any such improvements and facilities; provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city or town to exceed the limits of taxation placed upon it by the Constitution and Laws of this state or by their home rule charter.

Validation of Water Treatment Contracts

Sec. 7. All acts and proceedings of the governing bodies of cities and towns, eligible under the provisions of this Act, heretofore accomplished in the authorization and execution of water treatment contracts as herein contemplated as well as the terms and provisions of said water treatment contracts themselves are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed and validated and declared to be valid in all respects as of the respective dates thereof with the parties thereto bound accordingly until the terms and provisions of said contracts are lawfully changed by mutual consent of the parties thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 8. This Act is cumulative of all other laws and city charter provisions relating to the same subject and shall take precedence over any city charter provision in conflict but only to the extent of such conflict.

[Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 48, ch. 18, §§ 1 to 8.]

Art. 1109b. Eminent Domain

Incorporated cities and towns shall have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary and to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes, to wit:

To have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary and to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes, to wit: City halls, police stations, jails, calaboose, fire stations, libraries, school houses, high school buildings, academies, hospitals, sanatoriums, auditoriums, market houses, reformatories, abattoirs, railroad terminals, docks, wharves, warehouses, ferries, ferry landings, elevators, loading and unloading devices, shipping facilities, piers, streets, alleys, parks, highways, boulevards, speedways, playgrounds, sewer systems, storm sewers, sewage disposal plants, drains, filtering beds and emptying grounds for sewer systems, reservoirs, water sheds, water supply sources, wells, water and electric light systems, gas plants, cemeteries, crematories, prison farms, and to acquire lands with¹ and without the city for any other municipal purposes that may be deemed advisable.

The power herein granted for the purpose of acquiring private property shall include the power of the improvement and enlargement of the water works, including water supply, riparian rights, stand pipes, water sheds, the construction of supply reservoirs, parks, squares, and pleasure grounds, public wharves and landing places for steamers and other crafts, and for the purpose of straightening or improving the channel of any stream, branch or drain, or the straightening or widening or extension of any street, alley, avenue or boulevard. That, in all cases where the city seeks to exercise the power of eminent domain, it shall be controlled, as nearly as practicable, by the law governing the condemnation of property of railroad corporations in this State, the city taking the position of the railroad corporations in any such case; that the power of eminent domain hereby conferred shall include the right of the governing authority, when so expressed, to take the fee in the lands so condemned and such power and authority shall include the right to condemn public property for such purposes.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2735, ch. 889, repealing this Article, enacts Titles 1 and 2 of the Texas Education Code.

Art. 1109d. Cities and Towns Authorized to Contract with Water Improvement or Water Control and Improvement District for Water Supply

Duration of Contracts

Sec. 1. Any city or town in this state may contract with any Water Improvement District or Water Control and Improvement District deriving its powers from Article XVI, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas and any such District may contract with any such City or Town, for supplying water to said City. Such contract may run for such length of time as may be agreed upon between the Board of Directors of said District and the governing body of said City, not to exceed 30 years from the date of the contract, but said contract may also provide that it shall run until all warrants, notes or bonds, issued by such District for the acquisition of facilities necessary or convenient to enable the District to supply the City with water, have been paid in full.

Payment for Water Out of Water System Revenues Exclusively

Sec. 2. Payment for water so supplied shall be made out of the water system revenues of such city or town, and the District shall never have the right to demand payment out of moneys raised or to be raised by taxation, and payments under the contracts herein authorized may be secured by a first lien on, and an irrevocable pledge of the revenues of said water system.

Election Approving Contract; Notice of Election; Ballots

Sec. 3. Provided, however, that no such contract shall become binding until approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors in such City or Town at an election held for that purpose. Such election may be called by the governing body of the city on its own motion. Notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in such City or Town once each week for two consecutive weeks the first of which publications shall be at least ten full days prior to the day set for the election, provided, that if no newspaper is published in such City or Town, notice of said election shall be given by posting notice thereof in each of the voting precincts of such City or Town and one at the City Hall. The notice of election shall state the date upon which the same shall be held, and shall state the proposition to be voted upon in such form as the governing body shall prescribe, but the notice need not set out the contract at length, or detail its provisions. For ten days next preceding the election the proposed contract shall be on file in the office of the City Secretary and may be examined by any person. The governing body of the City shall prescribe the form of the ballots.

General Election Law to Govern Elections; Qualification of Electors; Returns

Sec. 4. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, said election shall be conducted according to the general election law. Only qualified electors who own taxable property in the City and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be qualified to vote. Returns of said election shall be made to the governing body of the city.

Canvass of Returns; Effect of Election

Sec. 5. The governing body shall canvass the returns of said election as soon as practicable. If a majority of the votes cast at such election are in favor of approving the contract, the contract shall at once become binding and effective; if a majority of the votes are against the contract, the contract shall not become effective.

Construction or Acquiring of Canals, Reservoirs, Basins, Pipelines, Filtration Plants, and Other Equipment and Supplies

Sec. 6. Any such district may construct, or otherwise acquire and equip, such canals, reservoirs, basins, pipelines, conduits, filtration, and aeration plants, and all other equipment and supplies, and may acquire by purchase, eminent domain, or otherwise all such property as is necessary or convenient for the purpose of supplying water to a city as provided herein.

Issuance of Warrants, Notes, or Bonds; Refunding or Reissuing Bonds

Sec. 7. Any such District may issue warrants, notes or bonds to provide for the acquisition of the facilities necessary or convenient for supplying water to such city or town, and to secure such warrants, notes or bonds by a pledge of the revenues to be derived under any such contract then in existence or thereafter to be made for supplying water to such city or town. Where tax supported bonds hereafter are voted for such purpose, such bonds may be issued, secured by the pledge of such tax levy and by the pledge of such revenues or by either of such pledges. In instances where tax supported bonds have been voted heretofore in any such district but all or part thereof have not yet been sold, such unsold bonds may be issued and sold and the proceeds or any part thereof may be used for such purpose without the necessity of another election, and in such instances the District may secure such bonds by a levy of such taxes and by a pledge of the revenues to be derived under any such contract for supplying water either then in existence or thereafter to be made, or may secure said bonds by either of such methods. Bonds of such Districts heretofore voted may be refunded or re-issued without an election and such refunding or re-issued bonds may be secured as in this section provided.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 8. In the event any provision of this Act shall be in conflict with any other law the provisions of this Act shall be effective.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 1879, ch. 12.]

Art. 1109e. Contract with District Created to Supply Water to City

Contract Authorized; Provisions of Contract

Sec. 1. Any city or town within this State is hereby authorized to enter into a contract with any district or authority, hereinafter called "district," created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution for the purpose of supplying water to such city. Any such city may also by contract lease its water production, water supply, and water supply facilities to such district, or make a contract with such district for operation by the district of its water production, water supply, and water supply facilities, or the operation by the city of the district's water production, water supply, and water supply facilities. Any contract authorized by this Act may provide that the city shall not obtain water from any source other than the district except to the extent provided in such contract. Any such contract may be upon such terms and for such time as the parties may agree, and it may provide that it shall continue in effect until bonds specified therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu of such bonds are paid.

Rates

Sec. 2. Any water supply contract provided in the preceding section shall be subject to the statutory or the contractual duty of the district from time to time to revise the rate of compensation for water sold and services rendered by the district to the city under such contract so that the net revenues of the district will at all times be sufficient to enable the District to pay its operation and maintenance expense and to pay the principal and interest on bonds secured by such contract to the extent provided in the resolution authorizing said bonds. Money required to be paid by the city to the district under such contract shall constitute an operating expense of the waterworks system of the city.

Election

Sec. 3. (a) No city shall make any contract authorized by this Act unless authorized by a majority vote in an election held in such city. Such election shall be ordered by the governing body of the city and notice thereof shall be published once each week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first of such publications to be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the election, in a newspaper of general circulation published within the city. If no newspaper is published in the city the notice shall be posted at the City Hall and at two (2) other public places in the city. The notice shall be sufficient if it states the time and place of holding the election, and that the purpose of the election is to determine whether the governing body of the City shall be authorized to make the water supply contract, or make the lease or operating contract, or both as the case may be. Both questions may be submitted in the same proposition.

(b) Only qualified electors of the city who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be permitted to vote at such election. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the general election laws shall govern such election.

(c) If a majority of the votes cast at said election are in favor of the proposition the governing body shall pass an ordinance prescribing the form and substance of the lease or contract, or both, as the case may be, and directing the mayor or mayor pro tem to sign it. Such ordinance may be passed by vote of a majority of the members of the governing body on one (1) reading and at the same meeting at which it is introduced.

Art. 1109e-1. Contracts with Conservation and Reclamation Districts for Water Supply

Sec. 1. Incorporated cities having a population of more than 900,000 according to the next preceding Federal Census which own and operate a municipal water system shall be authorized to enter into contracts and joint enterprises with conservation and reclamation districts created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas for the conveyance, transportation and distribution of water for and on behalf of such cities or may contract to sell water to such districts and to repurchase all or part thereof at a designated point or points on the district's conveyance, transportation and distribution system. Such contracts may be for such period of time, not exceeding forty (40) years, as may be prescribed therein, and may provide that they shall continue in effect until bonds issued by such districts to finance the cost of such conveyance, transportation and distribution facilities and extensions, enlargements and improvements thereto, and refunding bonds issued in lieu of such bonds, are paid.

Sec. 2. Such contracts may provide that money required to be paid by the city to the district thereunder shall constitute an operating expense of the waterworks system of the city or shall be payable from surplus or other funds of the city's waterworks system or from the revenues of specified water sales contracts or from other sources; provided that if such contract involves an obligation by the city to pay all or any part of the consideration out of funds raised or to be raised by taxation, such contract shall not become effective until an election shall have been called, held and carried, in the manner required for bond elections of such city, on the proposition of authorizing the governing body to execute such a contract; otherwise no election shall be required.

Sec. 3. Such cities may enter into contracts for the sale of water to industrial and commercial customers and to municipal corporations and political subdivisions upon such terms and for such periods, not to exceed forty (40) years, as may be prescribed by ordinance.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative of other legislation pertaining to the same or similar subjects; provided, that cities electing to make contracts under this Act shall be governed solely by the provisions of this Act, any other Statute, charter provision or ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Art. 1109e-2. Validation of Proceedings and Contracts with Districts to Supply Water

Sec. 1. Where any city or town within this State has heretofore submitted to the qualified resident electors of such city or town who own taxable property within such city or town and who had duly rendered the same for taxation a proposition or propositions to authorize the governing body of such city or town to enter into a contract with any district or authority created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Texas Constitution for the purpose of supplying water to such city or town, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 342, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949,¹ and such water supply contract was approved by a majority vote of the said property taxpaying voters voting at such election, all such election proceedings, the results thereof, and proceedings of the governing body and officials of such city or town relating to such contracts and the authorization, execution, and delivery thereof are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed, and any such contract heretofore entered into by any such city or town pursuant to such election is hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that only qualified electors of such city or town who owned taxable property therein and who had duly rendered the same for taxation participated in such election.

Sec. 2. The provisions hereof shall not be construed as validating any contract where (i) such contract was required by law to be approved at an election, unless such contract was approved by a majority of the participating resident qualified electors owning taxable property within such city or town who had duly rendered same for taxation and the statutory election contest period has expired prior to the effective date of this Act, or (ii) such contract or election proceedings are involved in litigation questioning the validity thereof on the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1109f. Validation of Contracts for Water Supply

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any contract heretofore executed by and between an "Eligible City" and an "Eligible District" as the terms are defined in this Act. An "Eligible City" is a city having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) according to the latest Federal Census. An "Eligible District" is one created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution, which has contracted to furnish water supply service to a city or cities.

Sec. 2. Any water supply contract heretofore executed by and between an Eligible City and an Eligible District obligating the district to convey and make available for delivery water which the city will have the right to use as a supplemental supply, and for which service the city is obligated to make payments from the revenues of its waterworks system and which imposes no obligation on the tax resources of the city, is hereby validated in all things whether or not an election has been held in the city on the question of authorizing or approving such contract.

Sec. 2a. This law shall not apply to any contract by and between an Eligible City and an Eligible District as referenced above, which is now involved in litigation in any District Court of this State, Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas in which litigation the validity of any Eligible District or the validity of any contract to furnish water by and between the above referenced parties is attacked.

Art. 1109f-1. Validation of Contracts Between Districts and Cities and Towns for Water Supply

Sec. 1. All contracts between districts or authorities heretofore created under the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas and cities, towns or villages heretofore created under the General Laws of the State of Texas, whereby the district or authority has agreed and contracted to furnish a water supply to such cities, towns or villages, are hereby validated.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to validate any agreement or contract which imposes any obligation upon the tax resources of any such city, town or village, but shall apply only to those contracts whereby payments for a water supply are to be made from the revenues of the purchasers' water distribution system; nor shall this Act apply to any contract now involved in litigation questioning the validity of its provisions, if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1109g. Water Supply Contracts with Persons, Firms or Corporations

Sec. 1. Any city or town whether operating under the general law or under its special or home rule charter, which owns and operates its water distribution system, is authorized to enter into a contract for such period of time, with such renewal and extension privileges as may be prescribed therein, with any person, firm or corporation (when operating without profit) under the terms of which such supplier will make available for delivery to and use by the municipality all or part of the raw or treated water to be used in or for the distribution system of such municipality.

Sec. 2. If any such contract which is to be effective for a longer period than one (1) year involves an obligation by the municipality to pay all or any part of the consideration for such service out of funds raised or to be raised by taxation, or if it involves the leasing to the supplier or the right to operate a major part of any existing water production or supply facilities belonging to the municipality, or if the contract restricts the municipality from obtaining water from any other supplier, such contract shall not become effective unless and until an election shall have been called, held and carried on the proposition to approve or authorize such contract. In instances where such contract shall be payable solely from the revenues of the municipality's water system, not involving any obligation against its taxing power and not conferring on the supplier the right to lease or to operate a major part of the municipality's existing water production or supply facilities, and if the contracts do not restrict the municipality from obtaining water from any other supplier, no election shall be necessary. However, within its discretion the governing body of the municipality may order an election on the question before approving any such contract. Any election under this Act shall be held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 2 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas insofar as such provisions are applicable.

Sec. 3. When any contract made under this law provides for payments solely out of water system revenues of such municipality the money thus required to be paid by the municipality shall constitute an operating expense of the City's water system, and such municipality shall fix and maintain rates and charges for services rendered by such water system as will be sufficient to pay the maintenance and operation expenses thereof as contemplated by Article 1113, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, and provide for the payment of principal of and interest on any revenue bonds of such municipality which shall be payable from its water revenues.

Sec. 4. As is customary under water supply contracts made between cities and towns on the one part and districts and authorities on the other part under Chapter 342, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fifty-first Legislature,¹ the service to be rendered by the supplier may include among other items the holding of water available for and the readiness to serve the water needs of such municipality, and the charge to be effective under such contract may include compensation for such item of service. [Acts 1954, 53rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 91, ch. 41.]

Art. 1109h. Eligible City Authorized to Issue Revenue Bonds; Construction and Equipment of Water Supply Project

Eligible City Defined

Sec. 1. An "eligible" city under this Act is one having a population of more than 275,000 under the last preceding federal census, in which a majority of the resident qualified voters who shall have duly rendered their property for taxation, participating in an election, have voted to authorize such city to enter into a contract to acquire a water supply from a River Authority (hereinafter called an "Authority") created by the Legislature under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution, and which shall have obtained a permit from the State Board of Water Engineers to utilize the water from such source of supply.

Alternative Financing Procedure

Sec. 2. The right of an eligible city and of an Authority to proceed with the financing of the entire cost or the portion of such cost which is not to be provided by such city of the water supply project under law through the issuance by the Authority of its revenue bonds based on the voted contract with an eligible city is not affected by the passage of this Act. But as an alternative procedure an eligible city and an Authority may amend the voted contract so as to implement the provisions of this Act, including, but without limiting the extent of such amendments, provisions defining the extent of the city's rights in such water supply project, and the procedures under which the city will make available to the Authority the proceeds of revenue bonds issued under authority of this Act, as needed for payment of construction costs including such city's intake structures, pumping and filtration equipment, or such portion thereof as Authority is not required under such contract to provide through the issuance of its revenue bonds, and arrangements for auditing the funds and accounts to be used in the construction program. Such eligible city may proceed with the issuance and sale of its revenue bonds, payable from the revenues of its waterworks system or, if combined in such city, its waterworks and sanitary sewer system (hereinafter called the "city revenue bonds") and the use of the proceeds as provided in succeeding sections of this Act.

Ordinance Authorizing Bond Issue; Notice; Petition; Bond Election

Sec. 3. Before passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act, the governing body of such city shall give notice of the time when such ordinance is to be passed. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such city, in at least two issues thereof, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date so fixed for passage of the ordinance. Unless prior to the scheduled time for passing the ordinance a petition is filed with the city secretary, signed by not less than 10% of the qualified voters of the city who have duly rendered their property for taxation, requesting that an election be held on the question of issuing such bonds, the governing body may proceed in the issuance thereof without an election. If such petition is duly filed, it shall be the duty of the governing body to proceed in the manner prescribed in Chapter I of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes, with an election on the question, and such bonds shall not be issued unless a majority of the voters, voting at such election, vote favorably on the question. The governing body within its discretion may call an election for the issuance of the bonds without awaiting the filing of a petition requesting a referendum election.

Extent of Water Supply Projects; Passage of Bond Issue Ordinance; Amount of Bonds; Operation of Project

Sec. 4. The water supply project of the Authority may consist of a dam, reservoir, related outlet facilities, or any or all of such elements, including but without limiting the meaning of the term, lands, easements, flowage rights and interest during construction. When the designs, plans and specifications for the water supply project of the Authority shall have been completed to the extent that they have been approved by the governing body of the Authority, which will actually construct the water supply project, and likewise by the governing body of such city, such eligible city may pass an appropriate ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of its revenue bonds in an amount estimated to cover the entire cost to be incurred by the Authority in constructing the water supply project, or such portion thereof as the city shall have contracted to provide. Within the discretion of the governing body of such eligible city such revenue bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of providing all other facilities needed to deliver to the city treated water from the water supply project, including but without limiting the effect of this provision, the intake structure, pumping stations and equipment, pipelines, treatment and filtration plants and all intermediate and terminal reservoirs, intermediate reservoirs to be used wholly or in part for storing water from the water supply project and pumping and pipeline facilities for conveying water to and from such intermediate reservoirs, or any or all of such elements, including but without limiting the meaning of the term, lands, easements and rights-of-way needed for such purposes, and interest during construction. The construction and operation of the water supply project will remain the responsibility of the Authority, and except for such part of said property, if any, as may be owned by such city under the contract between the Authority and such city, such property and facilities shall be owned by the Authority; and except for the water supply project and other facilities specified by contract, city will have the responsibility of constructing and operating, and shall own all of such facilities and property, including the intake, pumping stations, pipelines and equipment, treatment and filtration plants and all intermediate and terminal reservoirs. Within the discretion of such city the bonds may be authorized and sold at one time or in installments from time to time.

Bonds, Requisites and Provisions; Additional Bond Issues; Rates, Tolls and Charges; Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) Such eligible city may authorize such revenue bonds by ordinance. The bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and by another designated officer of the city and the seal of the city shall be impressed thereon; but within the discretion of the governing body evidenced in the ordinance, bonds may be issued bearing the facsimile signature of the Mayor and the seal of such city may be printed thereon, but the signature of the other designated officer in such cases must be manually affixed. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise within such period and at such times as may be prescribed in the ordinance but not exceeding a maximum of 40 years. The bonds may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the governing body of such city to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city calculated by use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses does not exceed 6% per annum. The bonds may be registrable as to principal only or as to both principal and interest. Appropriate provisions may be inserted in the ordinance authorizing the execution and delivery of bonds for the conversion of registered bonds into bearer of bonds and vice versa. Provision may be made in the bond ordinance for substitution of new bonds for those lost or mutilated.

(b) In the ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds, the right may be reserved under the conditions therein specified to issue additional revenue bonds which will be on a parity with or subordinate to the bonds when being issued.

(c) After such revenue bonds shall have been issued, it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to fix and from time to time to revise the rates, tolls and charges for sales and services rendered by the city's waterworks system or waterworks and sanitary sewer system, as the case may be, to the end that such rates, tolls and charges will yield sufficient money to pay the expense of operating and maintaining such system or systems, the principal of and interest on said bonds as such principal and such interest mature, and to create and maintain the reserve funds and other funds as prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

(d) It shall be the duty of such city to provide for such deposits into the interest and sinking fund, the reserve and other funds to the extent and as prescribed in the ordinance authorizing such bonds. Such ordinance shall require all or any of such deposits to be made from the revenues of its waterworks system or, if combined in such city, its waterworks and sanitary sewer system; but within the discretion of the governing body of such city all or any part of the deposits necessary to pay interest during construction and for not exceeding two additional years, may be provided from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited by such city in a fund which will be utilized solely to pay the expense of issuing and selling said bonds and to pay the construction cost of such portion of the water supply project as the city shall be obligated to provide under the contract with the Authority and to pay the construction cost of that part of the facilities to be constructed, owned and operated by the city as provided in Section 4 of said Chapter 35, Acts of the Regular Session of the 55th Legislature as amended.

(e) Pending the issuance of definitive bonds, such city may authorize the delivery of negotiable interim bonds, eligible to be exchanged for definitive bonds.

(f) Such city is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds and interest thereon, authorized by this Act. The governing body, in its discretion, may inject additional security for the refunding issue. Refunding bonds shall be registrable by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu of such procedure the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the bank, or in one (1) or more of the banks where the original bonds are payable. In the latter case, the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the original bonds to their maturity date or to the date on which the bonds are to be redeemed, and the amount of the call premium, if any, as to bonds called for redemption prior to maturity, and in such event the Comptroller shall register the refunding bonds without the concurrent surrender and cancellation of the original bonds. No election shall be necessary in connection with the authorization and issuance of refunding bonds.

(g) No such bonds shall be issued by such city until they shall have been approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas. After the bonds shall have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, they shall as well as such bonds as shall be issued by Authority be negotiable instruments and shall be incontestable, provided that when the bonds of an issue shall have been thus approved and registered, the bonds thereafter delivered by such city in lieu thereof, pursuant to subsection (a) of this Section, in connection with the exchange of registered for unregistered ed bonds, or unregistered bonds for registered bonds, or in lieu of lost or mutilated bonds, need not be reapproved by the Attorney General or re-registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Nevertheless, such bonds shall likewise be incontestable, and except for the limitations resulting from registration shall be negotiable.

(h) Proceeds from the sale of any such issue of bonds may be invested during the period of construction or prior to their use for construction purposes, in bonds or other direct obligations of the United States government, and such securities may be sold pursuant to the directions of the governing body of the city when needed for construction purposes.

Bonds as Legal Investments; Security for Deposits of Public Funds

Sec. 6. All such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, saving and loan associations and insurance companies. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Precedence Over Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act shall take precedence over conflicting and inconsistent provisions of other statutes and special and home rule charters.

Severability Provision

Sec. 8. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 73, ch. 35; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 77, ch. 36, §§ 1, 2; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 151, ch. 38, § 1.]

Art. 1109i. Water Supply and Sewage Transportation and Disposal Contracts of Certain Cities with Trinity River Authority

Eligible City

Sec. 1. Each city or town which either is situated wholly or partly within the boundaries of Trinity River Authority of Texas, created by Chapter 518, Acts of the Regular Session of the 54th Legislature,¹ and any amendments thereto, (hereinafter called the "Authority"), or is situated wholly or partly within the watershed of the Trinity River, is an "Eligible City" within the meaning of this Act.

Contracts Authorized; Revenues Received, Disposition, Etc.

Sec. 2. An Eligible City, pursuant to an ordinance passed by its governing body, is hereby authorized to make a contract with the Authority under which the Authority will make available to and provide for the Eligible City, sewage transportation and disposal (including treatment) services or any or all of such services, and when prescribed therein, provision for stand-by service. Such contract may be upon such terms and for such period of time as the parties may agree, and may provide that it will remain in effect until the bonds issued by the Authority as mentioned therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu thereof, are paid. Such City shall have the right to the continued performance of such services after the amortization of the Authority's investment in such facilities during the useful life thereof, upon payment of charges reduced to take into consideration such amortization.

The revenues received by the Authority from the participating Eligible Cities shall be used only (1) for payment of principal of and interest on, and to provide reserves created for, the bonds to be issued by Authority to finance such transportation, disposal (including treatment) facilities, and (2) to pay the operation and maintenance expenses (including within the meaning of the term, legal, administrative and management supervision fees and expenses) in connection therewith; provided that such part of any surplus accumulated for the benefit of a participating Eligible City, as may be prescribed in contract between such City and the Authority, may be expended by the Authority for enlargements and betterments of Authority's facilities which are used to serve, especially, such City.

In consideration of payments made by an Eligible City under such contract, and the services performed by the Authority the Authority shall become the owner of sewage accepted by it for transportation and treatment and shall be solely responsible for the proper treatment and disposal of such sewage and the effluent, and no participating Eligible City shall be entitled to any rights in, nor shall it be liable for any improper treatment or disposal of, such sewage or effluent.

No city shall be entitled to credit of any type either in the exchange of water, money or other consideration for any effluent delivered to the Authority, and no such exchange or sale can be made a condition to any contract hereunder.

Payments by City to Authority; Source; Operating Expense

Sec. 3. Payments by such City to the Authority shall be made from the City's waterworks system or its sanitary sewer system or of both systems or of its combined water and sanitary sewer system, as prescribed in the contract between such City and the Authority, and shall constitute an operating expense of the system or systems whose revenues are thus pledged. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, neither the Authority nor the holder of any bonds of the Authority shall have the right to demand payment of the City's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Outstanding Bonds; Revenues

Sec. 3a. If any such city has revenue bonds outstanding at the time it executes such contract, secured by a pledge of the net revenues from the operation of a combined system comprising a waterworks system and a sanitary sewer system, and in addition thereto either a natural gas distribution system or an electric lighting and power system, that portion of the payments made by such city to the Authority which is used by the Authority for debt service on Authority's bonds may be treated by the city for its accounting purposes as a capital expenditure, provided that and so long as these conditions exist:

(1) The revenues from the city's gas system or electric lighting and power system, as the case may be, are adequate to satisfy the requirements of the bond ordinance or ordinances authorizing all revenue bonds outstanding at the time of making the contract and all such bonds thereafter authorized, for the provision of funds for operation, maintenance, and debt service; and

(2) The revenues from the city's sanitary sewer system and (if encumbered under the contract) the city's waterworks system, are ample to meet the requirements of the contract with the Authority.

Elections; Bond Issues

Sec. 4. (a) If an election is held and carried substantially according to the procedure prescribed in Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, in reference to the issuance of bonds by Cities, determining that the governing body of the City is authorized to execute the proposed contract for sewage transportation and disposal (including treatment) or for any of such services, and to levy ad valorem taxes to pay such obligation to the Authority, whether or not the City's obligation is to be credited with application of certain revenues of such system or systems, the contract, in such an event, will constitute an obligation against the taxing power of such City, but may be payable both from taxes and such revenues, as may be prescribed in the contract.

(b) Only qualified electors of the City who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be entitled to vote at such election. Except as otherwise provided in this Section and in such Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes as amended, the general election laws shall govern such election.

(c) If a majority of the votes cast at said election are in favor of the proposition the governing body shall pass an ordinance prescribing the form and substance of the contract, and directing the proper officers of the City to sign it.

Rates for Services

Sec. 5. Whenever any such City shall have executed a contract with the Authority involving the performance of such duties by the Authority, if the payments thereunder are to be made either wholly or partly from the revenues of the City's waterworks system or sanitary sewer system or from both systems or a combination of both systems, the duty is hereby imposed on such City and it is hereby authorized to establish and maintain and from time to time to adjust the rates charged by the City for the services of such system or systems, to the end that the revenues therefrom will be sufficient at all times to pay: the expense of operating and maintaining such system in accordance with current standards and requirements for preventing stream pollution; the City's obligations to Authority under such contract; and all of such City's obligations under and in connection with revenue bonds theretofore issued, or which may be issued thereafter for such system or systems. Any such City may charge the users of the system or systems whose revenues are to be used in paying the City's obligation under the contract rates sufficient to pay such obligation of the City. Any such contract may require the use of consulting engineers and financial experts to advise the City whether and when such service rates are to be adjusted.

Contract Provisions

Sec. 6. Any such contract between the Authority and such City may provide for services to be rendered concurrently by the Authority to more than one (1) City through the construction and operation of a multiple City system or plant, the cost for such services to be allocated among the several Cities as determined in such contract or group of contracts. It is expressly provided and recognized that all of the compensation to be received by, and all of the security pledged to the Authority by each such City and all such Cities will be available to the Authority as security for the bonds it will issue to provide necessary construction funds. Any such contract, if to be used by the Authority, as security for Authority's bonds, issued to finance its plant and facilities, must be submitted by Authority to the Attorney General for examination, and when such bonds and contract have been approved by the Attorney General, such contract thereafter shall be incontestable.

Validation of Contracts

Sec. 7. All contracts heretofore executed by and between Eligible Cities and the Authority, pursuant to ordinances passed respectively by the governing bodies thereof and pursuant to action of the Board of Directors of the Authority obligating the Authority to render service which includes transportation and disposal (including treatment) of sanitary sewage or any or all of such services, and obligating the City to pay for such services out of its waterworks system revenues or sanitary sewer system revenues or a combination of its water and sanitary sewer system revenues, are hereby validated. Any such contract for which a tax was levied, when an election has been held resulting favorably to the execution of such contract, including the obligation to make payments from ad valorem taxes, is hereby validated.

Art. 1109i-1. Contract with District for Sewage Transportation, Treatment and Disposal Services

Eligible City

Sec. 1. Any city or town, situated wholly or partially within a county containing a District which derives its powers from Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution and has statutory authority to make contracts with cities and towns for transportation and disposal of sewage (herein called "District") is an "Eligible City" within the meaning of this Act.

Contracts Authorized; Revenues Received; Disposition

Sec. 2. An Eligible City, pursuant to an ordinance passed by its governing body, is hereby authorized to make a contract with the District under which the District will make available to and provide for the Eligible City, sewage transportation, treatment and disposal services, or any or all of such services, and when prescribed therein, provision for stand-by service, such contract may also provide for use by the District of sewage transportation, treatment and disposal facilities owned by such city. Such contract may be upon such terms and for such period of time as the parties may agree, and may provide that it will remain in effect until the bonds issued by the District mentioned therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu thereof, are paid. Such a contract may contain such other provisions and requirements as the governing body of such Eligible City may find reasonably necessary to accomplish its purpose. Such city shall have the right to the continued performance of such services after the amortization of the District's investment in such facilities during the useful life thereof, upon payment of charges reduced to take into consideration such amortization.

The revenues received by the District from the participating Eligible Cities shall be used only (1) for payment of principal of and interest on, and to provide reserves created for, the bonds to be issued by District to finance such transportation, treatment and disposal facilities; and (2) to pay the operation and maintenance expenses (including within the meaning of the term, legal, administrative and management supervision fees and expenses) in connection therewith; provided that such part of any surplus accumulated for the benefit of a participating Eligible City, as may be prescribed in contract between such city and the District, may be expended by the District for enlargements and betterments of District's facilities which are used to serve such city.

Payments by City to District; Operating Expense

Sec. 3. Payments by such city to the District shall be made from the city's waterworks system or its sanitary sewer system or of both systems or of its combined water and sanitary sewer system, as prescribed in the contract between such city and the District, and shall constitute an operating expense of the system or systems whose revenues are thus to be applied. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, neither the District nor the holder of any bonds of the District shall have the right to demand payment of the city's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Elections; Bond Issues

Sec. 4. (a) If an election is held and carried substantially according to the procedure prescribed in Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, in reference to the issuance of bonds by cities, determining that the governing body of the city is authorized to execute the proposed contract for sewage transportation, treatment and disposal or for any of such services, and to levy ad valorem taxes to pay such obligation to the District, whether or not the city's obligation is to be credited with application of certain revenues of such system or systems, the contract, in such an event, will constitute an obligation against the taxing power of such city, but may be payable both from taxes and such revenues, as may be prescribed in the contract.

(b) Only qualified electors of the city who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be entitled to vote at such election. Except as otherwise provided in this Section and in such Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes as amended, the General Election Laws shall govern such election.

(c) If a majority of the votes cast at said election are in favor of the proposition the governing body shall pass an ordinance prescribing the form and substance of the contract, and directing the proper officers of the city to sign it.

Rates for Services

Sec. 5. Whenever any such city shall have executed a contract with the District involving the performance of such duties by the District, if the payments thereunder are to be made either wholly or partly from the revenues of the city's waterworks system or sanitary sewer system or from both systems or a combination of both systems, the duty is hereby imposed on such city and it is hereby authorized to establish and maintain and from time to time to adjust the rates charged by the city for the services of such system or systems, to the end that the revenues therefrom will be sufficient at all times to pay: the expense of operating and maintaining such system in accordance with current standards and requirements for preventing stream pollution; the city's obligations to District under such contract; and all of such city's obligations under and in connection with revenue bonds theretofore issued, or which may be issued thereafter for such system or systems. Any such contract may require the use of consulting engineers and financial experts to advise the city whether and when such service rates are to be adjusted.

Contract Provisions

Sec. 6. Any such contract between the District and such city may provide for services to be rendered concurrently by the District to more than one city through the construction and operation of a multiple city system or plant, the cost for such services to be allocated among the several cities as determined in such contract or group of contracts. It is expressly provided and recognized that all of the compensation to be received by, and all of the security pledged to the District by each such city and all such cities will be available to the District as security for the bonds it will issue to provide necessary construction funds.

Art. 1109j. Contracts with Water Districts or Non-profit Corporations for Water, Sewer or Drainage Services

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any city or town, whether operating under the General Law or under its special or home rule charter, is authorized to enter into a contract with a district organized under the authority of Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas or any corporation or corporations organized to be operated without profit under the terms of which such district, corporation or corporations will acquire for the benefit of the city or town one or more water supply or treatment systems, water distribution systems, sanitary sewer collection or treatment systems or works or improvements necessary for the drainage of lands in city, either singularly or together, and in connection with such acquisitions make such improvements, enlargements and extensions of and additions to the existing facilities of such city or town as may be provided for in such contract.

Payments for Water, Sewer or Drainage Services;
Purchase of Systems; Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 2. When any such contract shall provide that the city or town shall become the owner of such water, sewer or drainage system or systems at such time as all debt incurred by such district or corporation in the acquisition, construction, improvement or extension of such system or systems is paid in full, such city or town shall be authorized to make payments to such district or corporation for water, sewer or drainage services to part or all of the inhabitants of such city or town. Such contract may provide for purchase by the city or town of such system or systems by periodic payments to such district or corporation by the city or town in amounts which, together with the net income of the district or corporation, will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds of the district or corporation as they become due. Such contract may provide that any payments under this Section 2 shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of a specified portion of the revenues of the water system, the sewer system or the drainage system or systems of the city or town or may provide for the levying of a tax to make such payments.

Use of Streets and Public Ways by District or Corporation

Sec. 3. Any such contract may provide that such district or corporation shall have the right to use the streets, alleys and public ways and places of the city or town for water, sewer or drainage purposes for a period of time which shall terminate at the time all such indebtedness of such district or corporation is paid in full and the city or town acquires title to such system or systems in accordance with this Act.

Operation of Systems by City

Sec. 4. Any such contract may provide that the city shall operate the system or systems, and if such contract does so provide, the city or town shall be authorized to operate such system or systems.

Approval of Contract by Governing Body

Sec. 5. Any contract made by any city or town pursuant to this Act may be authorized by a majority vote of the governing body of such city or town.

Art. 1109k. Soil Conservation Districts; Flood Control and Drainage; Contracts; Contribution and Expenditure of Funds

Sec. 1. All counties, cities, water control and improvement districts, drainage districts and other political subdivisions in the State of Texas are authorized to enter into contracts with soil conservation districts for the joint acquisition of right-of-ways or joint construction or maintenance of dams, flood detention structures, canals, drains, levees and other improvements for flood control and drainage as related to flood control, and for making the necessary outlets and maintaining them; and providing further that such contracts and agreements shall contain such terms, provisions and details as the governing bodies of the respective political subdivisions determine to be necessary under all facts and circumstances.

Sec. 2. (a) All counties, cities, water control and improvement districts, drainage districts and other political subdivisions in the State of Texas may contribute funds to soil conservation districts for construction or maintenance of canals, dams, flood detention structures, drains, levees and other improvements for flood control and drainage as related to flood control and for making the necessary outlets and maintaining them regardless of whether the title to such properties is vested in the State of Texas, or a soil conservation district, so long as the work to be accomplished is for the mutual benefit of the donor and the agency or political subdivision having title to such property on which the improvements are located.

(b) A county may contribute funds to a soil conservation district which the district may use to match all or part of funds received by the district from the state for use in soil conservation and flood control programs.

Sec. 3. All counties in the State of Texas are authorized to expend Permanent Improvement Funds for carrying out the purposes of this Act and in addition thereto such counties may also expend Flood Control Funds levied pursuant to Section 1a of Article VIII of the Constitution of Texas and Article 7048a of Vernon's Civil Statutes for the purposes of this Act; providing that cities, water control and improvement districts, drainage districts and other political subdivisions may expend the appropriate funds of the various cities and political subdivisions for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Art. 1110. Waterworks Right of Way

To acquire rights of way for digging or excavating canals, laying mains or pipe lines for the purpose of conducting water through the same into the cities or towns for the use of the public, incorporated cities and towns owning their own waterworks system shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn private property for public use in and outside of the city or town limits of such cities or towns.

Art. 1110a. Issuance of Revenue Bonds Against Which Judgment is Entered

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city or town against which a judgment shall have been entered or may be entered hereafter because of purchase or construction money expended or advanced, awarding the plaintiff any properties theretofore used by the city as if a part of the city's waterworks system, or requiring it to pay to plaintiff an amount of money equivalent to the value of, or in lieu of the surrender of such property, whether or not requiring it to pay a rental for use and detention of such property. Any such city or town, acting through its governing body, may, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931¹ with reference to the publication of notice for a period of fourteen days and affording an opportunity to the qualified voters of such city or town to file a petition for a referendum election upon such question and the favorable outcome of such election if thus required, repurchase from such plaintiff or plaintiff's successor in title, the properties involved, or pay the money judgment awarded against it or acquire needed property in lieu of such property, and may issue revenue bonds for such purposes, conditioned that the holder thereof shall never have the right to demand payment thereof out of moneys raised or to be raised by taxation, and payable out of the revenues of its system which shall include all properties and everything pertaining thereto then owned or thereafter acquired, hereinafter called the "system," and within the discretion of the governing body of such city, further secured by a lien upon the properties constituting the system and a lien upon and grant of a franchise to operate such system, in the event of sale of such system after default in the payment of such Revenue Bonds or interest thereon. The ordinance authorizing such Revenue Bonds may pledge all or any designated part of the net revenues of such system to the payment of such Revenue Bonds. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, such Revenue Bonds shall be issued in accordance with Article 1111 and Articles 1113 to 1118, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas as amended.

Sec. 2. After Revenue Bonds shall have been issued under Section 1 of this Act, so secured by the pledge of the revenues of such system, and whether or not secured by a lien upon the properties constituting the system and franchise, nevertheless the city may thereafter while all or a part of said bonds are still outstanding issue additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the net revenues of such system and by a lien similar to that, if any, securing the outstanding revenue bonds, for improvements, extensions, repairs, or replacements of and to the system, or for any or all of said purposes, to the extent and in the manner expressly permitted by the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such previously authorized and outstanding revenue bonds. Such additional revenue bonds shall be issued only after an authorizing election on the question shall have been held in the manner prescribed by Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. If and when such revenue bonds are subsequently issued in accordance with the limitations contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the revenue bonds previously issued under authority of Section 1 of this Act, they shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues of such system and lien upon the properties constituting the system and upon the franchise of equal dignity with the pledge and liens securing such outstanding revenue bonds.

Sec. 3. Within the discretion of the governing body of such city or town, revenue bonds issued either under Section 1 of Section 2 of this Act and which are made available for such purpose, may be refunded by the same issue or several issues of refunding bonds, provided that the interest cost to the city is not increased by the refunding of such bonds.

Sec. 4. Before any revenue bonds are delivered under the provisions of this Act they shall be submitted to and approved by the Attorney General, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts in the manner and with the effect provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, pertaining to the issuance by cities of tax supported bonds.

Art. 1110b. Separate City and Rural Systems of Home Rule Cities

Sec. 1. The acts of all home-rule cities whose charters authorize such cities to furnish electric light and power service both within and without corporate limits of such cities, and which cities now own and operate municipal electric systems and where, by such acts, such cities have heretofore set up and now own and operate rural electric systems as a unit separate and apart from the city system and as a separate utility, are hereby validated in all respects as though they had been duly and legally established as separate systems in the first instance. All the acts of municipal governing bodies of such municipalities setting up such systems as separate units and all bonds, mortgages, warrants and other evidence of indebtedness heretofore issued or heretofore voted or authorized to be issued, but not issued, are hereby validated; and such bonds, mortgages, warrants, and other evidences of indebtedness shall be an obligation of each unit separately. The encumbrances and obligations pertaining to one system shall in no way apply to or affect the other system. No such obligation heretofore or hereafter issued shall ever be a debt of such city but solely a charge upon the properties of the system, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law. The expense of operation and maintenance of such system shall always be a first lien and charge against the income thereof. Included within such expense shall be all salaries, labor, repairs, cost of electrical energy, interest, repairs or extensions necessary to render efficient service, and every other proper operation and maintenance expense. The governing bodies of such cities mentioned in this Act shall charge and collect for such service a sufficient rate to pay all operation and maintenance expense, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charged, and to pay the principal of and interest on all obligations issued against each system separately, and to maintain such reserve or reserves, if any, as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such obligations. No part of the income of each of such systems shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or operation until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid. Every evidence of indebtedness issued by the cities mentioned herein shall contain the clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." All evidences of indebtedness hereafter issued by the cities mentioned herein shall be payable in not more than forty years from date and shall bear interest at not more than 5% per annum. Such evidences of indebtedness shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the city secretary; provided, however, that the facsimile signatures of such officers may be printed or lithographed on any interest coupons attached to any obligation issued by such cities. Such cities mentioned herein need not submit any obligation issued against either of such systems to any public official of this State, the only approval required or authorized under this Act being that of the governing body of the city. Any such obligations issued hereunder shall be non-contestable after issuance and delivery, except for fraud and forgery. Provided, however, no authority granted herein shall ever permit or authorize any such cities to construct facilities or furnish electric power and energy to any areas already being served with central station electric service.

Sec. 2. Any obligation issued hereunder shall be exempt from taxation by the State of Texas or by any municipal corporation, county, or other political subdivision or taxing district of the State.

Sec. 3. All acts of any such city and the governing body thereof in heretofore setting up and operating such systems are hereby in all things validated, and all encumbrances and mortgages pertaining to each such system and all obligations heretofore or hereafter issued, secured by a pledge of and/or payable from the revenues thereof, are hereby in all things validated; and such obligations shall be considered as obligations issued under this Act.

Art. 1110c. Improvements to Water and Sewer Systems

Constructing, Extending, Enlarging or Reconstructing Systems

Sec. 1. Cities, towns and villages as hereinafter defined shall have power under this Act to improve any water works system or sanitary sewer system within their limits by constructing, extending, enlarging or reconstructing such water or sanitary sewer systems, which power shall include that of making any one or more of the kinds or classes of improvements herein named or any combination thereof or parts thereof.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(A) "City" shall mean any incorporated city, town or village, including home rule cities, which has all or a major portion of its territory in a county which, at the time any action is taken under the powers herein granted, has a population in excess of 25,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census.

(B) "Improvements to the Sewer System" shall mean the laying of all mains, laterals and extensions, and all appliances and necessary adjuncts thereto necessary for the sanitary disposal of excreta and of-fal from the area in which such improvements are constructed hereunder, but shall not include such off-site mains, laterals and extensions, and appliances and necessary adjuncts thereto shall be necessary to connect such improvements to the existing sanitary sewer system operated by the city.

(C) "Improvements to the Water System" shall mean the laying of a water main or mains with gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes or extensions and any and all other appurtenances necessary and required for the furnishing of water for domestic or commercial purposes to the area in which such improvements are constructed hereunder, but shall not include such off-site mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes or extensions, and other appurtenances as shall be necessary to connect such improvements to the existing water system operated by the city.

(D) "Cost of Improvement" with regard to the construction of improvements to the water system and sewer system, either or both, shall include expenses of engineering, fiscal fees, and other expenses incident to construction of improvements in addition to the other costs of the improvements.

(E) "Construction of Improvement" when used herein shall mean the construction of improvements to the water or sewer system, either or both, as same are herein defined.

(F) "Improvements" when used alone herein shall mean improvements to the sewer or water system, either or both, as herein defined.

(G) "Governing Body" shall mean the city, town or village council or commission which serves as the legislative body of the city.

(H) "Benefited Property" shall mean any lot or tract to which water and sewer service, either or both, is made available under the terms of this Act.

Necessity of Improvements; Determination and Order

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city shall have power to determine the necessity for, and to order, the construction of improvements within said city and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of improvements by the city or partly by the city and partly by assessments as hereinafter provided.

Ordinance or Resolution; Costs; Assessments Against Benefited Property

Sec. 4. By the ordinance or resolution declaring that the necessity exists for such improvements, the city shall state generally the nature and extent of such improvements, and may direct that detailed plans, specifications and cost estimates therefor be prepared and submitted to the governing body. The cost of improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by the property benefited by the construction of improvements and the owners of such property, but if any part of the cost is to be paid by such benefited property and the owners thereof, then before any improvements are actually constructed, either before or after receipt of bids for the proposed construction are received by the city, but before any hearing herein provided for is held, the governing body shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, an estimate of the cost of such improvements; in no event shall more than nine-tenths of the cost of such improvements as shown on such estimate be assessed against such benefited property and the owners thereof.

Tax or Assessment Against Railway, Street Railway or Interurban Right-of-Way

Sec. 5. No special tax or assessment shall be levied against a railway, street railway or interurban right-of-way to defray a portion of the cost of the improvements to a city's water or sanitary sewer system.

Amount of Assessment Against Benefited Property; Payment and Default; Liens; Certificates of Special Assessment; Contents

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess nine-tenths of the estimated cost of improvements against benefited property, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed ten per cent per annum. Any assessment against benefited property shall be a first and prior lien thereon, and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at the date upon which said lien is fixed and becomes effective, whether named or not in any notice, instrument, certificate or ordinance provided for hereunder. The governing body shall have power to cause to be issued in the name of the city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied hereunder declaring the lien upon the property and liability of the true owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceeding with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or reassessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred, and shall be first and prior liens on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except State, county, school district and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Apportionment of Assessments; Front Foot Plan

Sec. 7. That part of the cost of water and sewer improvements, either or both, but computed separately, which may be assessed against benefited property and the owners thereof shall be apportioned among the tracts or parcels of benefited property and the owners thereof in accordance with the front foot plan or rule, provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the governing body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality, it shall be the duty of said body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed. For purposes of computing the amount of the assessment to be made under such front foot plan or rule, each parcel of benefited property shall be assessed according to the number of lineal feet of each such parcel abutting upon a public street irrespective of the location of improvements constructed hereunder relative to such parcel so long as such improvements provide water and sewer service, either or both, to the parcel to be assessed; provided, however, that corner lots shall be assessed only for the shorter side of same abutting upon a public street.

Notice of Improvement, Assessment and Lien

Sec. 8. Whenever the governing body of any city shall, pursuant to this Act, determine it to be necessary that any sewer or water system be improved in any manner, then if it is proposed that all or any part of the cost of such improvements be levied or assessed and made a lien on property benefited thereby, there may be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such property is situated a notice signed in the name of such city, by its clerk, secretary or mayor or other officer performing the duties of such. Such notice shall meet all requirements of the act when it shows substantially that the governing body of such city has ordered, directed or otherwise provided or determined it to be necessary that such system be improved and shall describe the location and limits between which same is to be or has been improved or shall otherwise identify or designate such system and shall state that a portion of the cost of such improvement is to be or has been specially assessed as a lien upon property benefited thereby, and shall describe such property. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of such systems or improvements.

Contents of Notice; Filing

Sec. 9. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged and same may be filed at any time and the county clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same in the records of mortgages or deeds of trust and shall index same in the name of the city and in the name of other designation of the water or sewer system or systems to the improvement of which the notice relates.

Effective Date of Lien

Sec. 10. In all instances coming within the purview of this Act the lien of any assessment or re-assessment upon the property assessed or re-assessed shall take effect and be in force at and from the filing of the notice herein provided for and not before.

Exemptions; Personal Liability for Assessments; Enforcement of Liability

Sec. 11. No property of any kind, church, school or otherwise, shall be exempt from any tax or assessment or assessments authorized hereby for local improvements, provided, however, that nothing herein shall empower any city or its governing body to fix a lien against any interest in property which is exempt from the lien of special assessments for local improvements under the Constitution of Texas at the time the lien takes effect, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such improvement and the city shall have power and authority to refuse water or sewer service, either or both, to the owners of such property until the owner thereof pays to the city the amount of the assessment made against such property or an amount equal to that amount assessed for such improvements against private property of equal or comparable size. The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted as to any property, any interest in which is so exempt, shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes, and the city, as an aid to the enforcement of the liability imposed by the assessment, may refuse to connect or may disconnect sewer or water service to a tract or parcel of benefited property during the period on which there is a default in the payment of any amount assessed hereunder against such tract or parcel and the owners thereof.

Hearing on Assessment; Notice; Contents Contesting Assessment; Appeal; Defenses

Sec. 12. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any benefited property of¹ its owners, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any benefited property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by writing mailed to the address of the owner of such property or the person who last paid taxes on such property as determined from the tax rolls of the city, such written notice to be mailed at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, and by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper of general circulation in the city where such special assessment tax is to be imposed, the first publication to be at least ten days before the date of the hearing. Proof of such mailing and such publication shall constitute proof that all notice requirements of this Act have been fully complied with.

If any such notice shall describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are proposed to be levied and to which such notice relates, shall state the water or sanitary sewer system, portion or portions thereof to be improved, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against benefited property or the owners thereof and describe the property benefited by each system or portion, with reference to which hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held, and shall state the estimated total cost of the improvements on each such system, portion or portions thereof, and shall state the time and the place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body of such city and all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the benefited property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction or¹ such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements for which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction within fifteen days from the time such assessment is levied; and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvements for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not published or mailed or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body of the city, other than the action of the governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes or Abandonment in Plans, Methods or Contracts

Sec. 13. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by two-thirds vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvements as theretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been ordered or held then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered, and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in like manner as herein provided for original notice and hearings. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into, and in case of abandonment of any particular improvement an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments theretofore levied therefor, and all other proceedings relating thereto.

Assessment Against Parcels Owned by Same Person

Sec. 14. Assessments against several parcels of benefited property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person firm, corporation or estate, and benefited property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations may be assessed jointly.

Exercise of Powers

Sec. 15. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to exercise all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt, either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Invalid or Unenforceable Assessments; Correction of Irregularities; Re-assessments

Sec. 16. In case any assessment shall for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and correct any mistake or irregularity in connection therewith, and at any time to make and levy re-assessments after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner herein provided for original assessments and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of re-assessments shall have the same force as provided for recitals in certificates relating to original assessments.

Right of Appeal from Re-assessment

Sec. 17. Anyone owning or claiming any property interest in any property against which such re-assessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within fifteen days from the date of hearing relative to such re-assessment, the provisions hereinabove made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel and defense shall apply to such re-assessment.

Assessments in Conjunction With Street Improvements; Joint Proceeding; Single Assessment Certificate

Sec. 18. Should any city so desire, it may make the improvements and assessments provided for hereunder in connection with street improvements and assessments provided for in Article 1105b, V.A.T.C.S. by one joint proceeding and only one hearing shall be necessary, and in such event the procedure herein provided shall govern. A single assessment certificate may be issued against any tract or parcel of benefited property and the owners thereof in evidence of the total assessment made for all or any improvements, including street improvements made in a joint proceeding as provided in the preceding sentence, made under this Act, provided that the amount assessed for each class of said improvements is shown separately and distinctly in the ordinance by which any assessment is made hereunder.

Assessment of Subdivided or Platted Property; Cities of Less Than 700,000

Sec. 19. In cities located in counties with a population of less than 700,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census no assessment or other charge for the construction of improvements to any water or sewer system shall be made against any property or property owners, regardless of who initiates the request for said construction, unless such property is in an area which has been subdivided or platted for a period of at least ten years next preceding the date of assessment. For purposes of determining property or areas to which this Act shall apply, "subdivided or platted property" shall mean such property as has been duly platted under the terms of Article 974-a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes or any property which has been subdivided or platted by map or plat filed for record in the office of any county clerk, by the terms of which map or plat there has been made any dedication of the property to the public use for a street or alley right-of-way or for public utility easements.

Duty to Furnish Water or Sewer Service

Sec. 19-A. It is the intention of the Legislature, due to the emergency nature of this Act, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to effect any change in any way in the law of this state, whether promulgated by Statute or court decision, either or both, relating to the duty of a city in its proprietary capacity to furnish water and sewer service, either or both.

Certificates as Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 20. Certificates of special assessment issued under the provisions of this Act, including certificates issued in joint proceedings as hereinabove set out, shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, and sinking funds of cities, towns and villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas and for all other public funds of the state or its agencies.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 21. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effec-uate its purposes and substantial compliance with the provisions hereof shall be sufficient.

Home Rule Cities; Plans and Specifications for Improvements; Payment of Contractor; Reimbursement; Assessments

Sec. 22. A home rule city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to adopt plans and specifications for improvements in accordance with the provisions hereof and shall have the power to pay to the contractor, the successful bidder, that part of the cost that may be assessed against the owners and their benefited property in cash and the city may reimburse itself for the amount by levying an assessment against benefited property and the owners thereof, after hearing and notice, as in this Act provided, up to the amount of the enhancement in value represented by the benefits and permitted by this Statute, and issue assignable certificates in favor of such city for the assessment. The certificates shall be enforceable in the same manner as herein provided. The city shall likewise have the power to do the improvement or improvements by its own forces if the work can be done more expeditiously and economically.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 23. Should any Section, provision, word, phrase, or clause of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance be held invalid, unconstitutional or ineffective, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

The 1971 act, which by sections 1 and 2 amended sections 2(H), 6 and 19 of this article, provided in section 3: "Sec. 3. As used in this Act, 'the last preceding federal census' means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general State and Local governmental purposes."

Art. 1110d. Improvements to Water and Sewer Systems; Purchase of Properties of Water Control and Improvement Districts

Application of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to any city having a population in excess of 275,000 and whose water and sewer system are operated by a board of trustees or a public service board, and water control and improvement district where all or part of the district is contained within the city and where the district's properties are being separately operated under a contract between the city and the district by a board of trustees or public service board established by the city charter or by ordinance.

Definitions

Sec. 2. Words and terms used in this Act shall have the following meanings:

(a) "city" and "district" mean a city or a district to which this Act is applicable;

(b) "improvement bonds" means bonds issued under this Act where the proceeds thereof are to be used for the purchase of district properties as herein authorized;

(c) "district properties" means the water and sewer properties owned by the District or the portion of such properties which could constitute or be used as improvements, extensions or betterments to the City's water and sewer system.

Issuance of Improvement Bonds; Use of Proceeds;
Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 3. A city is authorized to issue its negotiable improvement bonds for the purpose of improving, extending or bettering the city's water and sewer system and to use the proceeds from the sale of the improvement bonds for the purchase of district properties, if the amount to be paid by the City to the District, together with other applicable funds of the District, is adequate to make provision for the payment of all outstanding bonds of the District. The Improvement Bonds shall be secured by and payable from a pledge of net revenues of the water and sewer system of the City including the District Properties.

Notice; Petition for Election

Sec. 4. Before the issuance of Improvement Bonds the Mayor of the City shall issue a notice of the City's intent to issue such bonds stating the maximum amount thereof, the maximum interest rate and the maximum maturity, and cause such notice to be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the City once each week for two consecutive weeks, the first such publication shall be not less than fourteen days prior to the date upon which the governing body of the city intends to pass the ordinance directing the issuance of the Improvement Bonds. If, by the date specified for the passage of such ordinance, a petition signed by at least ten per cent of the voters qualified to vote in bond elections and requesting an election on the question of the issuance of such Bonds is filed with the City Secretary or City Clerk, the Improvement Bonds shall not be issued unless such election is held and results in a majority vote in favor of the Bonds. If such petition is not filed, no election is required, and the governing body may, on the date specified in the notice or on a later date pass the ordinance directing the issuance of the Improvement Bonds. If an election is called, it shall be called and held and notice thereof given as provided in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended. The Improvement Bonds shall be approved by the Attorney General of Texas, or may be validated by suit under Chapter 316, Acts of the 56th Legislature,¹ or both, and when so approved or validated they shall be incontestable.

Sale of District Properties; Amount

Sec. 5. The District is authorized to sell District Properties to the City upon payment by the City to the District of an amount of money which, together with other applicable funds of the District, will be sufficient to provide for the payment of all of the outstanding bonds of the District and the interest thereon to the maturity dates of such bonds or to the date to be fixed by the District for prior redemption of its bonds, and to provide for the payment of any required prior redemption premium, and the fees of the bank of payment.

Interest and Sinking Fund; Investment and Deposit

Sec. 6. Money thus paid by the City to the District, together with other applicable funds of the District, shall be promptly deposited in the interest and sinking fund of the District which fund shall be permanently maintained in the bank where the District's bonds are payable. Said fund shall be invested immediately in direct obligations of the United States Government, or deposited in banks or in savings and loan associations to the extent that such deposits are insured by an agency of the United States Government, or in any combination of such investments and deposits. Money and investments deposited with such bank of payment under this Act shall be held by said bank in trust for the benefit of the holders of the outstanding bonds of the District.

Payment of Interest and Principal on District Bonds

Sec. 7. The investments made of the District's interest and sinking fund shall be in obligations or deposits which will mature and produce income, without reinvestment, at times and in amounts which will pay the interest on the District's bonds as it becomes due and pay the principal as it becomes due or on the date fixed by the District for prior redemption, and any redemption premium on the redemption date, and the fees of the bank of payment.

Other Indebtedness

Sec. 8. If the District owes any indebtedness other than bonds and the amount paid by the City to the District is in excess of the amount required for bond requirements as specified in Section 7 hereof, such excess shall be applied to the payment of the other indebtedness.

Passage of Title to City; Abolishment of District; Operation and Management of Properties

Sec. 9. Upon payment of the money by the City to the District and the investment thereof as provided in this Act, the governing body of the City shall pass an ordinance specifying the date as of which title to the District Properties was or shall be vested in the City. The date so specified may, in the discretion of the governing body of the City, be the first day of the then fiscal year of the City. Title to the District Properties shall, for all purposes, be deemed vested in the City on the date specified in said ordinance. The governing body of the City shall also abolish the District by a provision in the ordinance above described or by a subsequent ordinance. Thereafter, the District Properties shall be operated and managed by the board of trustees or the public service board in which the management and operation of the other water and sewer properties of the City is vested.

Integration or Segregation of Properties

Sec. 10. After title to the District Properties is vested in the City and the District is abolished as provided in this Act, the board of trustees or public service board is authorized to integrate the District Properties with the water and sewer system of the City either completely or to the extent provided by the board. It is provided, however, that the payment and security of the outstanding bonds of the District shall not be impaired, and if money is not available at the bank where the bonds of the District are payable sufficient to pay interest on and principal of said bonds as they become due, said board shall segregate the District Properties with all replacements, renewals, improvements and betterments thereof from the remainder of the City's water and sewer system in such manner that the District Properties shall constitute a complete and operating system to serve substantially the same area as it served at the time title passed from the District to the City. Thereafter, said board shall maintain and operate the District system separately, comply with the terms and provisions of the resolutions authorizing the outstanding bonds of the District, and be vested with all of the powers, duties and obligations theretofore vested in the board of directors of the District insofar as maintenance and operation of the District system, the handling of its funds and the payment of outstanding bonds of the District are concerned. For that purpose the board shall constitute a body corporate and occupy the same position as the District and its board of directors.

Payment of Outstanding District Bonds; Interest and Prior Redemption Premiums

Sec. 11. After money has been deposited with the bank where the outstanding District bonds are payable as provided in this Act, the District or the City, as the case may be, may, at any time and from time to time, pay off any outstanding District bonds provided that the amount of money and investments then remaining to the credit of the interest and sinking fund will be sufficient to provide for the payment of all of the remaining outstanding bonds of the District and the interest thereon to the maturity dates of such bonds or to the date fixed by the District for prior redemption of its bonds, and to provide for the payment of any required prior redemption premium.

Excessive Cash and Investments in Interest and Sinking Fund; Payment to Board of Trustees

Sec. 12. If, at any time, the cash and investments in the interest and sinking fund are in excess of the amount required by Section 7 of this Act the bank in which said fund is invested shall, upon request of the board of trustees or public service board, pay such excess to said board.

Art. 1110e. Waterworks and Sanitary Sewer Systems; "On-site" and "Off-site" Improvements; Assessments; Certificates; Procedure

Power to Make Off-site Improvements and Assessments

Sec. 1. Cities as defined herein shall have the power under this Act to make improvements of the kinds or classes herein named or any combination thereof or part thereof within certain designated or defined areas within their limits so as to enable water service or sanitary sewer service, either or both, to be furnished to property situated in such areas from "off-site" waterworks system or sanitary sewer systems, either or both, as herein defined hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by such cities and to assess a portion of the cost of such improvements against the properties benefited thereby and against the owners thereof, regardless of whether or not said property is in an area which has been subdivided or platted preceding the effective date of this Act by a plat filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated or otherwise.

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) "City" shall mean any city or town, including general law and home rule cities, and not included in whole or in part within the boundaries of any political subdivision functioning and with an outstanding bonded indebtedness having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services, and which city or town does not have a municipally owned water or sanitary sewer service system at the effective date of this Act. The powers conferred in this Act shall terminate after a period of 5 years from the effective date of this Act.

(b) "On-site" when used in connection with the words sanitary sewer system, water system, mains, gates, tees, crosses, adjuncts, appurtenances or improvements, or improvements to the sewer system or water system shall refer to such segments of a water or sanitary sewer system, or improvements in connection therewith, including mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts and other appurtenances located within the "Defined Area" within which the benefited property lies. "On-site Improvements" do not include the water and/or sanitary sewer plant proper even though situated within the area.

(c) "Off-site" when used in connection with the words sanitary sewer system, water system, mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts, appurtenances or improvements, or improvements to the sewer system or improvements to the water system shall refer to mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts and other appurtenances or segments of a water or sanitary sewer system located outside of the "Defined Area" in which the benefited property lies. "Off-site Improvements" include the waterworks and/or sanitary sewer plant proper whether situated within such area or outside of such area.

(d) "Improvements to the Sanitary Sewer System" shall mean the laying of all mains, laterals and extensions, any and all other appliances or appurtenances or adjuncts thereto and any combinations thereof or of portions thereof above mentioned, and other "on-site improvements" liberally construed, necessary or advisable for the sanitary disposal of excreta and offal from Benefited Properties situated within the "Defined Area" but shall not embrace any connection facilities leading from public mains into private property for service to such property.

(e) "Improvements to the Water System" shall mean the laying of all water mains with gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts thereto and any and all other appliances or appurtenances or adjuncts thereto and any combinations thereof or of portions thereof above mentioned and other "on-site improvements" liberally construed, advisable or necessary for the furnishing of water for domestic or commercial purposes to the Benefited Properties in the "Defined Area" but shall not embrace any connection facilities leading from a meter into private property.

(f) "Cost of Improvement" with regard to the construction of improvements to the water system and sewer system, either or both, shall include expenses of engineering, fiscal fees, and other expenses incident to construction of improvements in addition to the other costs of the improvements.

(g) "Construction of Improvement" when used herein shall mean the construction of "on-site" improvements, as same are defined herein, to the water or sewer system, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by the city.

(h) "Improvements" when used alone herein shall mean "on-site" improvements within designated or defined areas of cities which will enable water service or sanitary sewer service, either or both, to be furnished to property situated in such area from "off-site" waterworks and sanitary sewer systems, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by such cities.

(i) "Governing Body" shall mean the city, or town council or commission which serves as the legislative body of the municipality.

(j) "Benefited Property" shall mean any lot or tract of land situated in a "Defined Area" and to which water and sewer service, either or both, is made available under the terms of this Act.

(k) "Defined Area or Areas" means any area or any areas within the limits of any city to which this Act applies which is served by neither a municipally owned sanitary sewer or water system the boundaries of which area or areas are defined by the governing body of the city in an ordinance or resolution declaring that a necessity exists for improvements as herein defined.

Power to Make On-site Improvements and Assessments

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city shall have at any time the power to determine the necessity for and to order the construction of "on-site" improvements within said city to a water system or to a sanitary sewer system, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by the city and to contract for the construction of such improvements by one or more contracts in the name of the city and to provide for the payment of the costs of such improvements by the city or partly by the city and partly by assessments levied against benefited property and the owners thereof as herein provided.

Ordinance; Cost Estimates; Payment of Cost by Assessment and by City

Sec. 4. By the ordinance or resolution declaring that the necessity exists for such improvements, the city shall state generally the nature and extent of the "on-site" improvements, shall define the area or areas in which the benefited property lies and in which the "on-site" improvements are to be constructed, and may direct that detailed plans, specifications and cost estimates therefor be prepared and submitted to the governing body. The costs of "on-site" improvements may be wholly paid by the city or partly by the city and partly by the property benefited by the construction of the improvements and the owners of such property, but if any part of such cost is to be paid by such benefited property and the owners thereof, then before any "on-site" improvements are actually constructed, either before or after bids for the proposed construction are received by the city, and before any hearing herein provided for is held, the governing body shall prepare or cause to be prepared an estimate of the cost of such "on-site" improvements; in no event shall more than nine-tenths of the costs of such "on-site" improvements as shown on such estimate be assessed against such benefited property and the owners thereof. The city shall pay all of the costs of "off-site" improvements.

Railway Assessment Exemption

Sec. 5. No special tax or assessment shall be levied against a railway, street railway or interurban right-of-way to defray a portion of the cost of improvements to a city's water or sanitary sewer system.

Assessments; Payment and Interest; Priority of Liens; Assignable Certificates; Suits; Collection Costs

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess not exceeding nine-tenths of the estimated cost of "on-site" improvements against benefited property, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed 10 percent per annum. Any assessment against benefited property shall be a first and prior lien thereon, from the date improvements are ordered and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at such date whether named or not in any notice, instrument, certificate or ordinance provided for hereunder. The governing body shall have the power to cause to be issued in the name of city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied hereunder declaring the lien upon the property and liability of the true owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates. Such certificates may be signed by the mayor or mayor pro tem or other authorized officer and attested by the city secretary or city clerk, which signatures may be facsimile signatures in lieu of manual signatures and such facsimile signatures may be printed, engraved, lithographed, stamped or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. The city seal may likewise be placed in facsimile thereon.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceeding with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, and that the improvements have been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications and have been accepted by the city and the date of such acceptance, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or reassessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred, and shall be first and prior liens on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except state, county, school district and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Apportionment of Cost

Sec. 7. That part of the cost of water and sewer "on-site" improvements, either or both, but computed separately, which may be assessed against benefited property and the owners thereof in the Defined Area or Areas shall be apportioned among the tracts or parcels of property benefited by such water improvements or sewer improvements, or both, and against the owners thereof in accordance with the square footage of each tract or parcel of land as shown on a recorded plat if such property is platted and the square footage can be computed from the information shown on such plat, or if no such plat is recorded, then as such square footage may be estimated by the city's engineer from such information as is available, provided that if the application of this rule of apportionment would in the opinion of the governing body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality it shall be the duty of said body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed. For purposes of computing the amount of the assessment to be made each parcel of benefited property shall be assessed according to the number of square feet of each such parcel irrespective of the location of "on-site" improvements constructed hereunder relative to such parcel so long as such improvements provide water or sanitary sewer service, or both, to the parcel to be assessed.

Notice of Assessment; Requisites; Filing

Sec. 8. Whenever the governing body of any city shall pursuant to this Act determine it to be necessary that any "on-site" improvements should be constructed, then if it is proposed that all or any part of the costs of the "on-site" improvements be levied or assessed and made a lien on property benefited thereby, there may be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such property is situated a notice signed in the name of such city by the city clerk, secretary, mayor or mayor pro tem or other authorized officer, which signatures may be facsimile signatures in lieu of manual signatures, and such facsimile signatures may be printed, engraved, lithographed, stamped or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. Such notice shall meet all requirements of the Act when it shows substantially that the governing body of such city has ordered, directed or otherwise provided or determined it to be necessary that such system be improved and shall define the outside boundaries of the area or areas in which the benefited property lies (the Defined Area or Areas), either by metes and bounds or by reference to streets, highways, survey lines, city limits lines or lot and block or subdivision lines shown on recorded plats, or shall otherwise identify or designate the area within which the improvements are to be made; and shall state that a portion of the costs of the "on-site" improvements is to be or has been specially assessed as a lien upon the benefited property. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of such systems or improvements, or designated areas. If there are lots or parcels of land within any Defined Area or Areas which it has been determined by the governing body or the city's engineer will not be Benefited Property as that term is defined herein, then in such notice or in a later notice filed as promptly as feasible after such fact has been so determined such non-benefited property shall be described as adequately as possible and the inchoate lien against same and liability of the owners thereof shall be declared released and cancelled.

Necessity of Acknowledgment and Filing of Assessment Notice

Sec. 9. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged and same may be filed at any time and the county clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same and index same in the name of the city and in the name or other designation of the water or sewer system or systems to the improvement of which it relates. The lien and liability of the assessment shall not be invalidated should said notice not be filed or not be indexed or recorded as herein provided, or shall be otherwise defective.

Exemptions From Assessment; Lien and Personal Liability; Enforcement

Sec. 10. No property of any kind, church, school or otherwise, shall be exempt from any tax or assessment or assessments authorized hereby for local improvements, provided, however, that nothing herein shall empower any city or its governing body to fix a lien against any interest in property which is exempt from the lien of special assessments for local improvements under the Constitution of Texas at the time the lien takes effect, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such improvement and the city shall have power and authority to refuse water or sewer service, either or both, to the owners of such property until the owner thereof pays to the city the amount of assessment made against such property or an amount equal to the amount assessed for such improvements against private property of equal or comparable size. The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted as to any property, any interest in which is so exempt shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes, and the city, as an aid to the enforcement of the liability imposed by the assessment, may refuse to connect or may disconnect sewer or water service to a tract or parcel of benefited property during the period on which there is a default in the payment of any amount assessed hereunder against such tract or parcel and the owners thereof.

Notice and Opportunity for Hearing; Publication and Mailing of Notices; Requisites; Powers of Governing Body; Appeal

Sec. 11. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any benefited property or its owners, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any benefited property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city where such special assessment is to be imposed, if there be such a paper: if not, then in a newspaper published in the county wherein such city is situated with general circulation in such city; the first publication of such notice of hearing to be made at least 21 days before the date of the hearing; and, additional written notice of the hearing shall be given by depositing in the United States mail, at least 14 days before the date of the hearing, notice of such hearing, (which may consist of a copy of the published notice) postage prepaid, in envelopes addressed to the respective owners of the Benefited Properties, as the names of such owners are shown on the then current rendered tax rolls of such city and at the addresses so shown, or if the names of such respective owners do not appear on such rendered tax rolls, then addressed to such owners as their names are shown on the current unrendered rolls of the city at the addresses shown thereon. The certificate of the city clerk or city secretary of such mailing and such publication shall constitute proof that all notice requirements of this Act have been fully complied with.

manner provided by Section 8 of this Act the outside boundaries of the area or areas in which the benefited property lies or lie (the Defined Area or Areas), with reference to which the hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held; shall state the estimated total cost of the "on-site" improvements to the water system separately from the estimated total cost of the "on-site" improvements to the sewer system; and shall state the time and place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such benefited property or any interest therein. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body of such city and all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the benefited property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract or contracts in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction of such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements or the portion of such improvements which make service available to the Benefited Property against which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction within 15 days from the time such assessment is levied; and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvements for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not published or mailed or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments substantially exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body of the city, other than the action of the governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes in Improvements

Sec. 12. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by a majority vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvements as theretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been held or after notice has been given of any such hearing, as herein required, then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered, and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in like manner as herein provided for original notice and hearings. The substitution of equivalents shall not be deemed a substantial change. The elimination or change of location of particular mains, laterals, adjuncts and other appurtenances shall not be deemed a substantial change if an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments theretofore levied against properties and their owners will as a result of such elimination or change receive neither water nor sewer service and cancelling any assessment so levied for sewer improvements if sewer service is eliminated or for water improvements if water service is to be eliminated, as the case may be. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into.

Separate or Joint Assessments

Sec. 13. Assessments against several parcels of benefited property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation or estate, and benefited property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations may be assessed jointly.

Powers of Governing Body; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 14. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to exercise all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt, either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Invalid Assessments; Correction of Irregularities; Amendment of Assessment; Reassessments; Effect on Certificates

Sec. 15. In case any assessment for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and at any time before or after suit is filed seeking to enforce such assessment or during the pendency of any such suit but in any event not later than two years after the maturity date of the last installment on the assessment involved extended by the period of time, if any, in which litigation involving such assessment or the certificate evidencing same was pending to make and levy reassessments after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner herein provided for original assessments and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits; however, such city may at any time correct any mistake or irregularity by amending any assessment without the necessity of reassessment proceedings and without the necessity of new notice and hearing where the original notice to the property owners after the original hearing was published and mailed as required by this Act and contained, in substance, the information required to be contained therein by this Act and the irregularity or mistake can be corrected by the substitution of a correct property description for an incorrect one, or the making of a correction showing the true area of a particular tract where an incorrect area was originally shown, so long as such correction is insubstantial and does not go to the question of benefits, or where other similar irregularities exist and where such amendment does not require an increase in the square foot rate previously assessed against the benefited property and the owner thereof nor go to the question of benefits to such property. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of reassessments or amended assessments shall have the same force as provided for in recitals in certificates relating to the original assessment, and such certificate shall be dated as of the date of the original certificate and shall bear interest as therein provided. Such certificates may be signed by the mayor, mayor pro tem or other authorized officer and attested by the city clerk or city secretary in office at the date of their issuance. Such signatures and the seal of the city may be placed on said reassessment certificates in facsimile in the manner herein provided for assessment certificates.

Reassessments; Appeal

Sec. 16. Anyone owning or claiming any property interest in any property against which such reassessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within 15 days from the date of hearing relative to such reassessment, the provisions hereinabove made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel and defense shall apply to such reassessment.

Construction of Act

Sec. 17. The powers conferred by this Act shall not be construed as precedent beyond the powers specifically granted herein, and nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect in any way the law of this State whether promulgated by Statute or court decision, either or both, relating to the duty of a city in its proprietary capacity to furnish water and sewer service, either or both. Nor shall the legislative history of this Act be construed to affect in any way the law of this State.

Certificates of Assessment; Legal Investments

Sec. 18. Certificates of special assessment issued under the provisions of this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, and sinking funds of cities, towns and villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas and for all other public funds of the State or its agencies.

Certificates of Assessment; Purchase from Contractor; Payment

Sec. 19. Any city to which this Act applies may purchase at not more than face value and accrued interest from the contractor constructing the improvements any certificates of special assessment which may be issued to him pursuant to the provisions of this Act out of the proceeds of any bond funds voted and issued for making such improvements (whether such bond funds be proceeds from the sale of general obligation tax bonds or revenue bonds issued by the city), or out of any other available funds; provided that the amount of the assessment evidenced by any such certificate levied for water improvements, if paid out of bond funds, is paid out of bond funds issued for such improvements and the amount of the assessment evidenced by any such certificates levied for sewer improvements, if paid out of bond funds, is paid out of the proceeds of bond funds voted and issued for such sewer improvements, and further provided that the proceeds from such certificates, both principal and interest, when collected shall be paid into the fund from which the money was obtained to purchase the certificates.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 20. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws, except that the provisions of this Act shall be controlling as to cities acting under its provisions, over any irreconcilable conflicting provisions of any Act enacted contemporaneously herewith at this session. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes and substantial compliance with the provisions hereof shall be sufficient.

Repealer

Sec. 21. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of conflict only.

Severability

Sec. 22. Should any section, provision, word, phrase, or clause of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance be held invalid, unconstitutional or ineffective, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

2. ENCUMBERED CITY SYSTEM

Art. 1111. Powers

All cities and towns including Home Rule Cities operating under this title shall have power to build and purchase, to mortgage and encumber their light systems, water systems, sewer systems, or sanitary disposal equipment and appliances, or natural gas systems, parks and/or swimming pools, either, or all, and the franchise and income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to evidence the obligation therefor by the issuance of bonds, notes or warrants, and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same; or to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair such systems, or any one of them, including the purchase of equipment and appliances for the sanitary disposal of excreta and offal, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the systems and properties so purchased for a term of not over twenty (20) years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation of any such systems shall ever be a debt of such city or town, but solely a charge upon the properties of the system so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city or town to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Art. 1111a. Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds; Water or Sewer Systems

Additional Bonds While Prior Bonds Outstanding

Sec. 1. Any city or town including any Home Rule city which heretofore has issued or hereafter may issue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues derived or to be derived from the operation of its water system or sewer system or both in the manner provided by Articles 1111-1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or under any other law applicable to such city or town and while all or part of such bonds remain outstanding shall have the power on one or more occasions to issue bonds or other obligations for the purpose of improving or extending, or both for improving and extending such water system or sewer system, or both, payable from the revenues of such system or systems, and such bonds shall constitute a lien upon the revenues thereof in the order of their issuance inferior to the lien securing the payment of any or all issues and series of bonds previously issued. As to any such bonds issued and outstanding prior to the effective date of this Act the power herein conferred shall not be exercised unless expressly permitted in and shall be subject to any restrictions, covenants or limitations contained in the ordinance authorizing their issuance or in the deed of trust or the indenture of trust securing their payment; provided further, in those instances where in the ordinance or deed of trust or indenture of trust provision was made for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds on a parity with the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of such ordinance or deed of trust or indenture of trust any such city or town shall have the power to authorize, issue and sell additional bonds payable from the revenues pledged to such bonds previously issued and secured by pledges and liens on a parity with and of equal dignity with the pledge securing the bonds previously issued. In the issuance of revenue bonds in the future for such purposes, any such city or town may prescribe in the ordinance or deed of trust or indenture of trust for the issuance later of additional issues or series of bonds on a parity with the bonds being issued pursuant to and subject to the restrictions, covenants and limitations contained in such ordinance, deed of trust or indenture of trust.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 2. Refunding bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds of a single series or issue or two or more consecutive issues or series of bonds and such refunding bonds shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds refunded, provided that when two or more consecutive series or issues of bonds are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds the lien of all such refunding bonds shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds of the several series or issues of bonds to be refunded are surrendered in exchange for such new refunding bonds. No refunding bonds shall attain any degree of priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issue then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased so as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds enjoying a prior or inferior lien.

Approval and Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 3. Before any such bonds are sold or exchanged as the case may be, they shall be submitted to and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas in the manner and with the effect provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, and except as otherwise provided by this law, such bonds shall be authorized and issued in accordance with Articles 1111-1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and to the extent of any conflict herewith, this law shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 4. In case any one or more of the sections or provisions of this Act or the application of such sections or provisions to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections or provisions of this Act or the application of such sections or provisions to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this law shall be construed and applied as if such unconstitutional section or provision had not been included herein.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 463, ch. 249.]

Art. 1111b. Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds; Light and Power Systems

Additional Bonds While Prior Bonds Outstanding

Sec. 1. Any city or town, including any Home Rule City, which has heretofore issued or hereafter may issue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues from the operation of its electric light and power system, gas system, water system, sewer system, or any combination of two (2) or more of such systems, in the manner provided by Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or under any similar law, and while all or part of such bonds remain outstanding, shall have the power from time to time and on one or more occasions to issue bonds or other obligations for the purpose of extending or improving, or both, such system or systems, and such bonds shall constitute a lien upon the revenues thereof in the order of their issuance inferior to the lien securing the payment of any or all issues and series of bonds previously issued. As to any such revenue bonds issued and outstanding prior to the effective date of this Act the power herein conferred shall not be exercised unless expressly permitted in and shall be subject to any restrictions, covenants or limitations contained in the ordinance authorizing their issuance or in the deed of trust or in the trust indenture securing their payment; provided further that in instances in which the ordinance or deed of trust or trust indenture authorizing or securing such revenue bonds (whether such bonds have been issued prior to the passage of this Act or may be hereafter issued), provide for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds on a parity with or of equal dignity to the previously issued revenue bonds (whether an original issue or a refunding issue), such city or town shall have the power to authorize, issue and sell additional bonds from time to time and in different series payable from the entire revenues of such system or systems on a parity with bonds previously issued and secured by liens on such system or systems on a parity with and of equal dignity with the lien securing the bonds previously issued, subject to such conditions as may be contained in the ordinance, deed of trust or trust indenture providing for or securing such issue of original bonds or refunding bonds.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 2. Refunding bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds of a single series or issue or two or more consecutive issues or series of bonds and such refunding bonds shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds refunded, provided that when two or more consecutive series or issues of bonds are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds the lien of all such refunding bonds shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds of the several series or issues of bonds to be refunded are surrendered in exchange for such new refunding bonds. No refunding bonds shall attain any degree of priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issue then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased so as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds enjoying a prior or inferior lien.

Approval and Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 3. Before any such bonds are sold or exchanged as the case may be, they shall be submitted to and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas in the manner and with the effect provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, and except as otherwise provided by this law, such bonds shall be authorized and issued in accordance with Articles 1111-1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and to the extent of any conflict herewith, this law shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 4. In case any one or more of the sections or provisions of this Act or the application of such sections or provisions to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections or provisions of this Act or the application of such sections or provisions to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this law shall be construed and applied as if such unconstitutional section or provision had not been included herein.

Art. 1111c. Issuance of Bonds in Two Series with Different Security

Sec. 1. In the issuance of revenue bonds under Articles 1111-1118, Revised Civil Statutes as amended, for the purpose of improving, enlarging and extending a waterworks system, cities are authorized to issue such bonds in two series, one of which shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the proceeds of a contract between the city and a private corporation whereby the city agrees to sell water to such corporation for the payments therein specified, and the other series shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues of the waterworks system or waterworks and sewer systems other than the proceeds of such contract. The ordinances directing the issuance of the bonds may provide that the entire cost of operation, maintenance and repair of the system or systems shall be paid from the revenues thereof other than the proceeds of such water supply contract. Cities are authorized to enter into contracts for the sale of water to private corporations and upon such terms as their governing bodies may prescribe for a period of not exceeding forty (40) years.

Sec. 2. Such bonds and a copy of the proceedings relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his examination, and if they have been lawfully issued, he shall approve them. The bonds thereupon shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts and thereafter they shall be incontestable.

Art. 1112. Vote, Etc.

No such light, water, sewer or natural gas systems, parks and/or swimming pools, shall be sold without authorization by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such city or town; nor shall same be encumbered for more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) unless authorized in like manner, except for money for acquisitions, extensions, construction, improvement, or repair of such systems and facilities, or to refund any existing indebtedness lawfully created for such purposes. Such vote to sell or encumber such systems or facilities shall be ascertained at an election, which shall be held in accordance with the laws applicable to the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities and towns. The encumbrances authorized herein shall be applicable only to bonds payable from revenues derived from said system.

Art. 1113. Income; Expenses a Lien; Rates; Records; Reports; Penalty

Whenever the income of any light, water, sewer, or natural gas systems, parks and/or swimming pools, shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such incomes. Provided, that only such repairs and extensions, as in the judgment of the governing body of such city or town, are necessary to keep the plant or utility in operation and render adequate service to such city or town and the inhabitants thereof, or such as might be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the original securities, shall be a lien prior to any existing lien. The rates charged for services furnished by any such system shall be equal and uniform, and no free service shall be allowed except for city public schools or buildings and institutions operated by such city or town. There shall be charged and collected for such services a sufficient rate to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges, and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such systems or any outstanding indebtedness against same. No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such city or town except payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes previously paid by the private owners of the plants or systems mentioned above until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

It shall be the duty of the Mayor of such city or town to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the free service rendered, and the value thereof, and showing separately the amounts expended and/or set aside for operation, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, extensions, interest, and the creation of a sinking fund to pay off such bonds and indebtedness.

It shall likewise be the duty of the superintendent or manager of such plant to file with the Mayor of such city or town, not later than February first, a detailed report of the operations of such plant for the year ending January first preceding, showing the total sums of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as the result of operation of such plant during such calendar year.

Failure or refusal on the part of the Mayor to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, such system of records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such plant, or on the part of such superintendent or manager, to file or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, such Mayor or superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100), nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); and any taxpayer or holder of such indebtedness residing within such city or town shall have the right, by appropriate civil action in the District Court of the County in which such city or town is located, to enforce the provisions of this Act as amended.

Repealed in Part

Section 6 of Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 421, ch. 251, authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds by cities of 525,000 or over, read as follows: "All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict, and particularly that expression contained in Article 1113, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas which reads, 'No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city or town, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid,' is hereby specially repealed."

Art. 1113a. Transfer of Revenues to General Fund

Incorporated cities, towns, and villages of the State of Texas, and their officials and utility trustees, are hereby authorized to transfer to the general fund of the city, town, or village and use for general or special purposes revenues (now on hand or hereafter received) of any municipally owned utility system in the amount and to the extent that may be authorized or permitted in the indenture, deed of trust, or ordinance providing for and securing payment of revenue bonds issued under Articles 1111-1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or other similar laws, notwithstanding any prohibition contained in Article 1113, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or other similar laws.

Art. 1114. Notes, Etc.

Every contract, bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness issued or included under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." Where bonds are issued hereunder, they may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by such cities or towns. In such case, the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other municipal bonds.

Art. 1114a. Self-liquidating

Projects financed in accordance with this law are hereby declared to be self liquidating in character and supported by charge other than by taxation.

[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 320, ch. 122.]

Art. 1114b. Conflicting Laws Repealed

All laws and parts thereof, in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict, and this law shall take precedence over all conflicting city charter provisions.

Art. 1114c. Ordinances, Resolutions, and Securities Validated

The actions of all cities and towns and of all officials in passing ordinances, adopting resolutions, executing securities and delivering securities to accomplish the objects permitted under this Act are hereby expressly authorized and validated in like manner as if this law had been effective at the time of such actions, subject to the provisions of Section 5.

Art. 1114d. Validation of Bonds for Swimming Pools

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore voted and issued or heretofore voted and not yet issued by any city or town in this State for the purpose of constructing swimming pools in said city or town, are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, and ratified as though they had been legally authorized in the first instance.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not operate to validate any bonds or bond elections which, at the time of the effective date of this Act, are involved in litigation, or the validity of which said bonds or bond elections may be attacked in any suit or litigation instituted within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1115. Control

The management and control of any such system or systems during the time they are encumbered, may by the terms of such encumbrance, be placed in the hands of the city council of such town, or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such encumbrance, consisting of not more than five members, one of whom shall be the mayor of such city or town. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such contract, but shall never exceed five per cent of the gross receipts of such systems in any one year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such contract of encumbrance. In all matters where such contract is silent, the laws and rules governing the council of such city or town shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.

Art. 1116. Rules

The city council or board of trustees having such management and control shall have the power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment of the same, and providing for the discontinuance of such service failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made. The city council shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof, and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located.

Art. 1117. Default

A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment of the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract, and for the selection of his successor if disqualified or failing to act, and for collection fees not exceeding five per cent of the principal.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1118. Notice

No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation because of default in payment of any installment of principal or interest shall be exercised until ninety days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council of such city or town and to each member of such board of trustees, if any, that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a prepaid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city or town. If the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date the same was originally due.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1118a. Mortgage of Gas, Water, Light or Sewer Systems by Cities and Towns

Power to Encumber; Obligation Not a Debt

Sec. 1. All cities and towns owning and operating their light systems and gas systems or water systems and gas systems or sewer and gas systems shall have power to mortgage and encumber any one or more of its gas, water, light or sewer systems and the franchise and income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase any one of same or to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair said systems or any one of said systems and as additional security therefor by the terms of such encumbrance may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate the system and properties so encumbered for a term not over twenty years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city or town, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city or town to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such city or town from mortgaging and encumbering any one or more of said systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, improving, enlarging, extending, repairing or reconstructing another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary land and other properties in connection therewith in the discretion of the governing body thereof.

Vote Required for Sale or Mortgage

Sec. 2. No such system or systems shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such city; nor shall same be encumbered for more than Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars except for purchase money or to refund any existing indebtedness or for repair or reconstruction, unless authorized in like manner. Such vote where required shall be ascertained at an election of which notice shall be given in like manner as and which shall be held in like manner as in the cases of the issuance of municipal bonds by such city.

Prior Act Inapplicable Until June 1, 1934

Sec. 2a. That notwithstanding any of the provisions of House Bill No. 312, Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931,¹ the requirements of said House Bill No. 312, Acts 42nd Legislature, 1931, Chapter 163, with reference to notice, competitive bids, and the right to referendum, shall not apply to cities and towns acting under the authority conferred in this Act, until after June 1, 1934, instead of until after June 1, 1932, as provided in House Bill No. 312, Chapter 163, Acts 42nd Legislature, 1931.

Operating Expenses as First Lien on Income; Rates

Sec. 3. Whenever the income of any system or systems shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repair and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such incomes. The rates charged for services furnished for any such system shall be equal and uniform and no free service shall be allowed except for city public schools or buildings and institutions operated by such city. There shall be charged and collected for such service a sufficient rate to pay for all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such systems or of any outstanding indebtedness against same.

Bond Recital

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond or note issued or executed under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Management Pending Encumbrance

Sec. 5. The management and control of any such system or systems during the time they are encumbered shall by the terms of such encumbrance be placed in the city council or other governing body of said city. Such city council or other governing body shall have the power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment of same and providing for the discontinuance of such service, failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made. Such governing bodies shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge therefor and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such system or systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located.

Default in Payment; Procedure

Sec. 6. A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment or ¹ the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract and for the selection of his successor if disqualified or failing to act and for collection fees not exceeding five (5%) per cent of the principal. Such encumbrance shall provide that in the event of default and sale under foreclosure and the granting of a franchise to operate the system or systems and properties so purchased for a term of not over twenty years, as hereinbefore provided, that said city at any time during any stipulated time during said franchise, not to exceed periods of five (5) years during said time, shall have the right and privilege to repurchase said system or systems upon reasonable terms and at reasonable prices, to be set forth together with said optional periods of redemption in said encumbrance agreement and in said franchise.

¹ So in enrolled bill. Session Laws read "of."

Notice of Default

Sec. 7. No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation because of default in payment of any installment of principal or interest shall be exercised until ninety days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council of such city or town that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a prepaid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city or town. If the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten (10%) per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date the same was originally due.

Property Included in Encumbrance

Sec. 8. In the encumbrance of any properties under this Act such city may encumber any such systems singly or together for the benefit and to secure funds for any one or more of said systems and may omit or include in said encumbrance the whole or any part of the properties mentioned in Section 1 of this Act.

Income Applied to Encumbrance

Sec. 9. No part of the income of any such system or systems so encumbered shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city except a debt, expense or obligation of the system or systems encumbered or the system or systems for which said encumbered system or systems was so encumbered until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

Art. 1118a-1. Moneys in Lieu of School Taxes; Payment from Current Revenue of Existing Public Utility Acquired and Financed Through Revenue Bonds

Sec. 1. Whenever any city or town, including home rule cities, is situated wholly or partially in a school district, or in which there is situated wholly or partially a school district, after the effective date of this law, shall acquire a public utility or utilities then existing, and finances the purchase thereof through the issuance of revenue bonds, and such public utility property, within its territorial limits is at the time subject to taxation for the benefit of any school district, the governing body of any such city or town in issuing revenue bonds for the purchase price thereof, may expressly provide in any indenture of trust, mortgage or other lien instrument evidencing the obligation of such city or town in respect of the purchase price of such utility or utilities, for the payment annually from the income of such utility or utilities, a sum in amount equivalent to the average annual taxes assessed in behalf of such school district upon the properties of such utility or utilities for the five (5) years immediately preceding the year in which such utility or utilities shall be acquired by such city or town; provided, however, that by mutual agreement of the board of trustees of such school district and the governing body of such city or town, provision may be made for the payment annually of a sum in lieu of school taxes as shall be deemed adequate and just under all the circumstances of the case, due consideration being given to the needs of such school district. The obligation thus assured by any such city or town, including home rule cities, to make such payment to a school district in lieu of ad valorem property school taxes shall constitute a proper item of operating expense, which together with other operating expenses shall always be a first lien and charge against the income of such encumbered utility or utilities.

Sec. 2. The obligation of any such city or town to pay any such school district moneys in lieu of taxes as provided in the encumbrance agreement shall be and constitute an "expense or obligation" of such system or systems as such terms are used in statutes authorizing the acquisition of such public utilities and the issuance of revenue bonds for the purchase thereof, and such obligations shall extend to and bind any and all cities or towns, including home rule cities, purchasing or otherwise acquiring any such then existing public utility or utilities, in accordance with the provisions of such encumbrance agreements or mutual agreements as authorized in Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 3. The obligation of any such city or town, including home rule cities, as fixed in such indenture or encumbrance, shall not be impaired or affected, modified or released, by the release or discharge of such encumbrance, and such city or town, including home rule cities, shall continue while such city or town shall own and operate any such public utility to pay to any such school district annually from the revenues thereof such amount as a sum in amount equivalent to the average annual taxes assessed in behalf of such school district upon the properties of such utility or utilities for the five (5) years immediately preceding the year in which such utility or utilities shall be acquired by such city or town, including home rule cities; provided, however, that from and after the date of release or discharge of such encumbrance the board of trustees of any such school district and the governing body of such city or town may by mutual agreement from time to time provide for the payment annually from the revenues of such utility or utilities owned and operated by such city or town of such sum or sums in lieu of school taxes as shall be deemed adequate and just under all the circumstances of the case, due consideration being given to the needs of such school district.

Sec. 4. This Act shall apply solely to purchases or acquisitions, subsequent to the effective date hereof, of then existing public utilities made by any city or town of this state, including home rule cities, and shall not apply to or in any wise affect any purchase or acquisition of a public utility or utilities of whatsoever character acquired by any such city or town prior to the effective date of this Act. Cities and towns, including home rule cities, shall be authorized to operate under the provisions of this Act in acquiring existing public utilities under any and all laws of the state permitting the acquisition of existing public utilities through the issuance of revenue bonds, including Articles 1111 to 1113, inclusive, of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas and amendments thereto, and including Chapter 314, Acts of the Regular Session of the 42nd Legislature and amendments thereto.¹

Art. 1118b. Bonds and Proceedings Validated

Bonds Issued in Connection with Public Utilities Validated

Sec. 1. That where the governing body of any city or town, owning and operating its light system and gas system, or water system and gas system, or sewer system and gas system, has authorized and/or issued bonds to purchase any one of such systems or to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair said systems, or any one of said systems, under authority of Chapter 314, of the General Laws passed by the 42nd Legislature, at its Regular Session in 1931,¹ and as security therefor has mortgaged and encumbered any one or more of its gas, water, light or sewer systems and the franchise and income thereof, and everything pertaining thereto, acquired or to be acquired, the ordinance or ordinances of such governing body, prescribing the date and maturity of such bonds, the rate of interest the same were to bear, the place of payment of principal and interest, and appropriating revenues of any such system or systems to pay the interest on such bonds and to produce a sinking fund sufficient to pay the bonds at maturity, having been recorded in the minutes or records of such governing body, and where the mortgage or indenture on the properties comprising such system or systems, to secure payment of said bonds, has been duly executed by the proper officers of said city, and the trustee therein named, and recorded in the proper deed of trust and mortgage records of the county or counties in which are situated the properties of such system or systems so mortgaged and encumbered, and such bonds having been heretofore approved by the Legal Department of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in Washington, D. C., both as to legality and as being eligible for loan under the Act of Congress authorizing loans to municipalities to aid in financing projects which are self-liquidating in character, known as "Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932,"² all acts and proceedings had and done in connection therewith by the governing body and/or the mayor, city secretary, city treasurer or any other officers of such city or town, and the trustee named in such mortgage or indenture in respect of such bonds, the appropriation and pledge of revenues of any such system or systems, and/or the mortgage or indenture on the properties of any such system or systems to secure payment of such bonds are hereby ratified, confirmed, legalized, approved and validated.

Sale of Bonds Validated

Sec. 2. That sale of said bonds, or any parcel or installment thereof, by the governing body of any such city or town, is hereby ratified, confirmed, legalized, approved and validated, and such bonds, so sold and delivered, are hereby legalized and validated, and constituted the legal obligations upon the properties of such city or town so encumbered in accordance with the terms and provisions of such recorded mortgage or indenture.

Issuance of Bonds Not Previously Delivered

Sec. 3. In event any of said bonds, or any parcel or installment thereof, have not been sold, issued, delivered, or put into circulation, power and authority is hereby expressly conferred upon and delegated to the governing body of any such city or town, the mayor, city secretary, city treasurer or other proper officer thereof, and the trustee named in such mortgage or indenture, to discharge and perform all acts and duties necessary in the issuance or sale and delivery of such bonds, and such governing body is hereby further authorized to adopt all other and further orders, resolutions or ordinances necessary in the issuance, sale, delivery and payment of said bonds, or any parcel or installment thereof.

² Act of July 21, 1932, ch. 520, 47 Stat. 709.

Art. 1118c. Order of Appropriation of Revenues of Municipal Public Utility Systems

Application

Sec. 1. In making up the annual appropriation of the income and revenue of any waterworks system, electric light plant or system, sewer system, or other public utility system, service, or enterprise now or that may be hereafter owned and operated by any city or town having a population of twelve thousand, four hundred and ten (12,410) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and owning and operating its municipal light system and municipal waterworks system in this State, the governing body thereof shall first make provision for the maintenance and operating expenses of such system, service, or enterprise, and shall then make provision for payment of principal and interest of any indebtedness outstanding against such system, service, or enterprise, and may then make such appropriations as the remaining income and revenue of such system, service, or enterprise may justify, to be appropriated among the respective departments of the municipal government, or otherwise appropriated for public uses, as such governing body may deem best; provided this Act shall not apply to municipally owned utilities or enterprises, the income from which has heretofore been pledged to secure payment of bonds or other indebtedness.

No Restrictions on Bonds Payable From Other Than Taxation

Sec. 2. Nothing in this Act shall restrict the power and authority of any such city or town to issue bonds, notes, or warrants, payable from revenues other than taxation, for the purposes, in the manner, and under the restrictions and limitations provided by the laws of this State relative to the issuance of such obligations; and all the provisions of such laws shall apply to and govern such city or town and the governing authorities thereof, except as herein otherwise provided.

Application to Cities of 12,410 or Less

Sec. 3. The benefits of this Act shall apply to any city or town having a population of twelve thousand, four hundred and ten (12,410) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and owning and operating its municipal light system and municipal waterworks system and the terms thereof extend to the same, when the governing body thereof shall submit the question of the adoption or rejection hereof, to a vote of the resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of said city or town at a special election called for the purpose by the governing body of said city or town. And said election shall be held as nearly as possible in compliance with the laws with reference to regular municipal elections in said city or town; but said governing authority is hereby empowered by resolution to order said election and prescribe the time and manner of holding the same. Said body shall canvass and determine the result of such election and if a majority of the voters voting upon the question of the adoption of this Act at such election, shall vote to adopt the same, the result of the election shall by said governing body be entered upon their minutes, and thereupon all the terms hereof shall be applicable to and govern such city or town adopting the same; provided, that nothing in this Act shall ever be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions of Article 1112, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925. [Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 4th C.S., p. 49, ch. 18; Acts 1937, 45th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 2008, ch. 74.]

Art. 1118d. Bonds Validated

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore issued, authorized by ordinance to be issued and/or attempted to be issued under authority of Articles 1111 to 1118, both inclusive, of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended by Acts 1933, Forty-third Legislature, Page 320, Chapter 122, for the purpose of improving and extending an existing municipal sewer system by any and all cities operating under charters adopted or amended under the provisions of Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, having a population in excess of one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding United States Census, and which bonds are payable exclusively out of revenues of such sewer system, and are secured only by a pledge of such revenues, and which bonds are to be issued, delivered and sold to the United States of America under existing contracts, are in all respects validated.

Sec. 2. All orders, ordinances and resolutions of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing or attempting to authorize the issuance of such bonds, or any of the same, are in all respects validated.

[Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 4th C.S., p. 69, ch. 27.]

Art. 1118e. Bonds, Notes and Warrants Validated

Sec. 1. That any provision of any other law to the contrary notwithstanding, all bonds, notes or warrants heretofore issued, or which have been authorized but not yet issued, or which may be hereafter issued under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas for 1925, including all Amendments thereto to aid in financing any undertaking or project for which a loan or grant has been made by the United States through the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, are hereby declared to be negotiable instruments and they shall be fully negotiable within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act of this State.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any proceedings authorizing the issuance of any such bonds, notes or warrants, or any bonds, notes or warrants issued by virtue thereof where the validity of such proceedings, and bonds, notes or warrants issued thereunder has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1118f. Validating Revenue Bonds

Sec. 1. That all proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas, in the issuance and sale of revenue bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, to aid in financing any undertaking, for which a loan or grant has been made by the United States through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works, or any other agency or department of the Government of the United States, are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized, and any such bonds, notes or warrants heretofore sold, or heretofore authorized but not yet delivered, are in all things fully validated, confirmed and approved, and such bonds, notes or warrants are hereby declared to be the valid and binding special obligations of such cities or towns payable from sources other than taxation. All orders, resolutions and ordinances authorizing the issuance of any such revenue bonds and setting aside and pledging the revenues of any light system, water system, sewer system or sanitary disposal equipment system, natural gas system, parks or swimming pools, either or all are hereby in all things validated, confirmed and approved, and the fact that any city or town in the issuance and sale of any such obligations or in the pledging of the revenue of any of said systems to the payment of such obligations failed or neglected or lacked the power to do all things necessary to make said obligations legal shall in nowise impair such obligations nor the pledge of such revenues but same are in all things validated, confirmed and approved.

Sec. 2. Provided however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or any obligations issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1118g. Validating Bonds for Public Works

Sec. 1. That all proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas in the issuance and sale of bonds, to aid in financing any undertaking for which a loan or grant has been made by the United States through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works, or any other agency, department or division of the Government of the United States of America are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized and all bonds issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of such cities or towns, and all bonds which have been heretofore authorized for said purpose but not yet issued shall, when delivered and paid for, constitute valid and binding obligations of such city or town. All tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or warrants are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and legalized.

Sec. 2. Provided however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or obligations issued thereunder, where the validity thereof has been contested or attacked in any suit or pending litigation.

Art. 1118h. Validating Bonds of Cities of Over 15,000 Population

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities of more than fifteen thousand (15,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census and all bond elections held in such cities for the purpose of voting such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof are hereby validated insofar as any irregularities in following the requirements of the provisions of the General Law that such election shall be held not more than thirty (30) days from the time of such election order are concerned; and irregularities in following the requirements of city charters as to time in the calling and holding of such elections shall not in any manner affect the validity of said bonds, but same shall, if otherwise valid, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts and sold for not less than par and accrued interest, be a valid subsisting indebtedness of said cities.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or to any bonds issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation, or in any suit or litigation which may be instituted within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1118i. Validating Bonds of Cities in Counties of Less Than 80,000 and More Than 70,000

In all cases where any city in the State of Texas which operates under the General Laws of Texas and which city is located in any county having a population of less than 80,000 and more than 70,000 according to the last preceding United States Census and is not operating pursuant to a home rule charter and which such city has heretofore and subsequent to the enactment of Chapter 382,¹ Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature of Texas, 1935, submitted to the qualified electors of said city the question of the issuance of the bonds of such city pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1111 et seq., of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, said bonds to be payable solely from the revenues derived from operation of the city's waterworks system, and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election on said proposition has voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds and in favor of pledging the revenues of said system for the payment of such bonds, said election and all proceedings heretofore had in connection with the calling and holding of said election and in connection with the authorization and sale of such bonds are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, despite any irregularity which may have occurred therein or despite any failure to observe any of the pertinent laws of the State of Texas, and said city is hereby authorized to complete its proceedings for the authorization and delivery of such bonds and to deliver such bonds upon receipt of the purchase price thereof, and such bonds when approved by the Attorney General, registered by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts, sold at not less than par and accrued interest and delivered are hereby declared to be and shall be the valid and legal obligations of said city in accordance with the terms thereof, and shall be paid as to both principal and interest from the revenues of the waterworks system of said city in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings so authorizing the bonds. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any proceedings, levies, or to any bonds or warrants issued there under, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act becomes a law.

Art. 1118j-1. Validation of Bond Proceedings in Cities or Towns Over 5,000 to Help Finance Improvements for Which Loan or Grant from Federal Government was Made

Sec. 1. All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns in the State of Texas operating under the provisions of the General Laws of Texas and having a population of more than five thousand (5,000), and wherein it has become necessary to supplement funds providing for the erection of certain public improvements for which a loan or grant has been made by any agent or agency of the United States Government, by the issuance and sale of additional bonds to aid in the financing of such certain public improvements, including the orders and notices of elections, the conduct and returns of elections, and the canvassing of such returns of such elections, are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved, and legalized, including among others, instances wherein there have been irregularities in the giving of notice of elections, notwithstanding the fact that the notice of election was not published on the same day in each of two successive weeks, and all bonds issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of such cities or towns, and all tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved, and legalized.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or obligations issued thereunder, where the validity thereof has been contested or attacked in any suit or pending litigation. [Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 602, ch. 370.]

Art. 1118j-2. Validation of Sewer System Bond Proceedings in Cities and Towns of Not Over 3,000

Sec. 1. All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns having a population of not more than three thousand (3,000), according to the preceding Federal Census, in submitting to the qualified electors, during the year 1941, the question of the issuance of the bonds of any such cities and towns pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, said bonds to be payable solely from the revenues derived from the operation of the sanitary sewer system, and where a majority of the qualified voters of any such city or town voting at said election on said proposition has voted in favor of the issuance of any such bonds and in favor of pledging the revenues of said system, or the mortgaging of said system, or by both pledging of the revenues and the mortgaging of said system, for the payment of such bonds, said election or elections and all proceedings heretofore had in connection with the calling and holding of said election or elections and the canvassing of the returns thereof, are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, despite any irregularity which may have occurred therein, and said cities or towns are hereby authorized to complete the proceedings for the authorization, issuance and delivery of such bonds upon receipt of the purchase price thereof, and such bonds when approved by the Attorney General, registered by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts, sold at not less than par and accrued interest and delivered are hereby declared to be and shall be the valid and legal obligations of any such city or town in accordance with the terms thereof, and shall be paid as to both principal and interest from the revenues of such sanitary sewer system in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings so authorizing the bonds.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or obligations issued thereon, where the validity thereof has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act takes effect.

Art. 1118k. Validating Bonds in Cities of Over 160,000 Population

All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities of more than one hundred sixty thousand (160,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census and all bond elections held in such cities for the purpose of voting such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof are hereby validated insofar as any irregularities in following the requirements of the provisions of the General Law that such election shall be held not more than thirty (30) days from the time of such election order and that notice of such election shall be published on the same day of each of two (2) successive weeks in a newspaper, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the election, are concerned; and irregularities in following the requirements of city charters as to time in the calling and holding of such elections shall not in any manner affect the validity of said bonds, but same shall, if otherwise valid, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts and sold for not less than par and accrued interest, be a valid subsisting indebtedness of said cities.

Art. 1118l. Validating Bonds and Bond Elections in Cities and Towns of 2,601 to 2,632 Population

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities and towns having less than two thousand six hundred thirty-two (2632) population and more than two thousand six hundred one (2601) population according to the last preceding Federal Census, and all elections held in such cities and towns for the purpose of voting such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed and legalized insofar as any irregularities in following the requirements of the provisions of the general law governing the form of election order, notice, ballot and canvassing of returns of such elections are concerned; and, if such bonds are valid in other respects, when same are approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts and sold for not less than par and accrued interest, shall constitute valid and binding obligations of said cities and towns.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or to any bonds issued thereunder the validity of which is being contested or attacked in any suit pending at the time this Act takes effect.

Art. 1118m. Validating Waterworks Revenue Bond Elections and Bonds in Cities and Towns of 989 to 1,039 in Counties of 98,650 to 98,750

In all instances wherein cities and towns having a population of not more than one thousand and thirty-nine (1,039), and not less than nine hundred and eighty-nine (989), according to the last preceding Federal Census, located in counties having a population of not more than ninety-eight thousand, seven hundred and fifty (98,750) and not less than ninety-eight thousand, six hundred and fifty (98,650), according to the last preceding Federal Census, have heretofore held elections, attempting to comply with the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, for the issuance of waterworks revenue bonds, and have failed to comply with the requirements as to publication and posting of notice of such election, and where such elections have been held resulting in a vote sufficient under the law to authorize the issuance of said bonds, such elections are hereby validated and the bonds thus authorized, when duly approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, shall constitute valid and binding special obligations of such cities; provided that the provisions of this Section shall not have the effect of validating any elections or the bonds to be issued pursuant thereto which are in litigation at the time of the passage of this Act, or which may be brought into litigation within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., Spec.Laws, p. 1004, § 1.]

Art. 1118m-1. Validation of Election Proceedings on Issuance of Bonds for Waterworks in Certain Home-rule Cities

Sec. 1. In all instances where a home-rule city has heretofore (i) issued and delivered revenue bonds payable from the net revenues of its waterworks and sanitary sewer system and (ii) by ordinance called an election to authorize the issuance of further revenue bonds, having found in the ordinance that the bond election should be called for the purpose of expanding its water system, including bond expenses, engineering, and right-of-way expense, and all other expenses incidental to the expansion of the city's water system; all proceedings relating to the calling of the election and canvass of its returns are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that the purpose for which the bonds were voted was not set forth in the proposition (though elsewhere in the ordinance calling the election) and notwithstanding the fact that the proposition merely provided for the creation of a sinking fund without specifying the net revenue of such utility systems were to be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on such revenue bonds.

The bonds may be issued and delivered for the purpose expressed in the ordinance calling the election and may be payable from the net revenue of the waterworks and sanitary sewer system, either or both, which may have been owned by the city at the time of such election. The bonds so issued shall, insofar as such pledged revenues are concerned, be on a parity with or subordinate to the revenue bonds of the city as are outstanding, all in accordance with Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not be operative so as to validate any revenue bonds unless (i) a majority of those who participated in the election voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds and (ii) there is no litigation pending on the effective date of this Act questioning the validity of the election, and (iii) no court of competent jurisdiction has, before the effective date of the Act, declared the election to be invalid.

Art. 1118n. Bonds Authorized by Elections During 1938 in Cities or Towns Not Owning Certain Utilities

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities or towns and all bond elections held in such cities or towns for the purpose of voting such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof, and all orders, resolutions, and ordinances passed or attempted to be passed by the governing body of such cities or towns as shown by the minutes of such governing body, are hereby validated.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that this Act shall not apply except as to bonds authorized by elections held during the year 1938 in cities or towns which at the time of the holding of such election did not own any of the following utilities from which it could derive revenue: water system, sanitary sewer system, electric light system, or natural gas distribution system.

Sec. 3. Provided further, however, that provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or any bonds issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1118n-1. Validating Bonds for Waterworks and Sewer Systems in Cities Operating Under General Law

Sec. 1. Where any city in this State which operated under the general law and does not have a home-rule charter has heretofore submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, such bonds to be payable only from the net revenues of such waterworks system and sewer system and secured by a joint mortgage on the properties of such systems, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, and such city has through ordinances adopted by its governing body authorized the issuance of such bonds and prescribed the details thereof and has thereafter reduced the amount of bonds to be so issued and has submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city payable from ad valorem taxes for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, the amount of tax bonds to be so issued being equal to the amount of revenue bonds originally authorized and theretofore determined not to be issued, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the revenue bonds, the proceedings of the governing body authorizing the issuance of such bonds, the indenture authorized and executed to secure such bonds, the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, the proceedings had reducing the amount of the revenue bonds, the supplemental indenture authorized or executed for the purpose of reducing the amount of such issue, and the proceedings had in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the question of the issuance of the ad valorem tax bonds, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the provisions of the pertinent statutes, are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of the revenue bonds and the ad valorem tax bonds so authorized, to make such changes as it may consider desirable in the existing proceedings and in the details of the bonds as they have been authorized by the existing proceedings, and to do everything necessary to the issuance of revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds in the amounts so authorized and to secure the revenue bonds by mortgage on the properties of the water and sewer systems, in all respects as provided by the statutes relating to the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 3. The revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds of any such city when delivered and paid for pursuant to such existing proceedings, as such proceedings may hereafter be altered or amended, shall be and are hereby declared to be valid and binding obligations of such city in accordance with the terms thereof.

Sec. 4. All proceedings heretofore had in connection with the incorporation of any such city are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed and every such city is hereby declared to be a legally incorporated and subsisting municipal corporation of the State of Texas operating under the provisions of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Sec. 5. Where any such city has not yet levied taxes on the taxable property in such city, but where the City Tax Assessor has prepared an unrendered roll for any year, using as the basis for such roll the valuation of the taxable property in said city as taken from state, county or school district rolls for such year, and where the governing body of the city has approved such roll and has fixed the percentage basis of assessed valuation to actual valuation, the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city as so determined is hereby declared to be the true and correct assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for such year and such assessment roll is declared to be and is authorized to be used as the basis for the imposition of taxes in such city until the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for the succeeding year has been determined.

Art. 1118n-2. Validating Revenue and Ad Valorem Tax Bonds and Proceedings for Waterworks and Sewer Systems in Other Than Home-rule Cities

Sec. 1. Where any city in this State which operates under the General Law and does not have a home-rule charter has heretofore submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, such bonds to be payable only from the net revenues of such waterworks system and sewer system and secured by a joint mortgage on the properties of such systems, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, and such city has through ordinances adopted by its governing body authorized the issuance of such bonds and prescribed the details thereof and has thereafter reduced the amount of bonds to be so issued and has submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city payable from ad valorem taxes for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, the amount of tax bonds to be so issued being equal to the amount of revenue bonds originally authorized and theretofore determined not to be issued, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the revenue bonds, the proceedings of the governing body authorizing the issuance of such bonds, the indenture authorized and executed to secure such bonds, the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, the proceedings had reducing the amount of the revenue bonds, the supplemental indenture authorized or executed for the purpose of reducing the amount of such issue, and the proceedings had in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the question of the issuance of the ad valorem tax bonds, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the provisions of the pertinent Statutes, are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of the revenue bonds and the ad valorem tax bonds so authorized, to make such changes as it may consider desirable in the existing proceedings and in the details of the bonds as they have been authorized by the existing proceedings, and to do everything necessary to the issuance of revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds in the amounts so authorized and to secure the revenue bonds by mortgage on the properties of the water and sewer systems, in all respects as provided by the Statutes relating to the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 3. The revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds of any such city when delivered and paid for pursuant to such existing proceedings, as such proceedings may hereafter be altered or amended, shall be and are hereby declared to be valid and binding obligations of such city in accordance with the terms thereof.

Sec. 4. All proceedings heretofore had in connection with the incorporation of any such city are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed and every such city is hereby declared to be a legally incorporated and subsisting municipal corporation of the State of Texas operating under the provisions of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Sec. 5. Where any such city has not yet levied taxes on the taxable property in such city, but where the City Tax Assessor has prepared an unrendered roll for any year, using as the basis for such roll the valuation of the taxable property in said city as taken from State, county, or school district rolls for such year, and where the governing body of the city has approved such roll and has fixed the percentage basis of assessed valuation to actual valuation, the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city as so determined is hereby declared to be the true and correct assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for such year and such assessment roll is declared to be and is authorized to be used as the basis for the imposition of taxes in such city until the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for the succeeding year has been determined. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any proceedings, levies, or to any bonds or warrants issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act becomes a law, or which may be filed within thirty (30) days after this Act becomes a law.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 695.]

Art. 1118n-3. Refunding Bonds, Issuance by Cities Operating Under General Law and Owning Waterworks or Sewer System

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city or town operating under the General Law relating to cities and towns, and which does not operate under a special or home rule charter, and which owns and operates either its waterworks or its sanitary sewer system, or both, and the principal amount of whose bond and time warrant indebtedness is in an aggregate amount exceeding thirty (30) per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city for the purpose of this Act shall be an "eligible" city.

Refunding Bonds Authorized; Prerequisites; Utility Rates

Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds to be supported by an ad valorem tax and by a pledge to the payment of the principal and interest thereof, of all or a stipulated part of the net income from the operation of its waterworks system or its sewer system, or both. No such city shall be authorized to exercise the additional powers conferred by this Act unless it obtains a reduction in the principal amount of its indebtedness to the extent of not less than twenty-five (25) per cent. Such city shall not be permitted to deliver such refunding bonds unless and until it shall have obtained consent to such refunding by the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds (66 $\frac{2}{3}$) per cent of aggregate principal amount of its outstanding indebtedness which sixty-six and two-thirds (66 $\frac{2}{3}$) per cent shall include not less than one hundred (100) per cent of the revenue bonds, if any, outstanding against said system or systems, or unless such refinancing plan shall have been made effective in Composition proceedings instituted by such city under Title 11, Chapter 9 of the United States Code and Amendments thereto.¹

Before any income from such utility or utilities shall be used to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds the expenses of operation and maintenance shall have first been provided substantially in accordance with the provisions of Article 1113 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, which is applicable to the income of encumbered utility systems. When such city issues refunding bonds under the provisions of this law it shall be the duty of the city after making said pledge of such utility income to establish and maintain utility rates, which, together with taxes levied for the payment of such bonds, will be adequate to yield revenues sufficient to operate and maintain said utility system or systems and to fulfill the city's pledge of such income.

Revenue Bonds, Refunding Of

Sec. 3. Such city also shall refund par for par, all of its outstanding revenue bonds which are secured by a pledge of the revenues of either or both of such systems, if any such revenue bonds are outstanding, and bonds issued to refund such revenue bonds may be included in any such refunding issue, authorized by this Act.

Negotiability; Registration; Approval

Sec. 4. The refunding bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable and shall be issued in the same manner as refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up outstanding bonds issued under the provisions of Title 22² and Title 28³ of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas and amendments thereto. No notice of intention to issue refunding bonds and no election for the issuance of such bonds shall be required. No such refunding bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller and delivered by him unless and until he shall have received and cancelled in lieu thereof bonds or time warrants in the proportion prescribed in the ordinances authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds, and in accordance with this Act. The procedure prescribed in Articles 709 to 715 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, in reference to examination and approval of the bonds by the Attorney General shall be applicable to bonds issued under this Act.

Act as Cumulative; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 5. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with, or are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general or special, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions and shall prevail.

² Article 701 et seq.

³ Article 961 et seq.

Art. 1118n-4. Redemption of Outstanding Waterworks Revenue Bonds; Additional Revenue Bonds

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city having a charter, adopted or amended by a vote of the people, with power to levy an ad valorem tax of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, which city has outstanding tax-supported indebtedness equal to fifteen per cent (15%) or more of its assessed valuation, and has outstanding bonds payable from its waterworks revenues all of which will become subject to redemption within two (2) years after passage of the ordinance authorizing additional bonds as hereinafter provided. Any such city is hereinafter sometimes called an "eligible city."

Deposit in State Treasury of Amount of Outstanding Waterworks Revenue Bonds

Sec. 2. An eligible city shall have the right to deposit in the office of the State Treasurer of the State of Texas a sum of money equal to the principal amount of its said outstanding and unpaid waterworks revenue bonds plus the amount of interest which will accrue on each of said bonds calculated to the date on which it may be redeemed and the amount of contract premium if any, and concurrently with such deposit shall pay to the State Treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act a sum of money equivalent to one-eighth ($\frac{1}{8}$) of one per cent (1%) of the principal amount of said bonds and one fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of one per cent (1%) of the interest to accrue on all of said bonds, and an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the charges of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest of said bonds are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing said revenue bonds, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such bonds, the date when the principal becomes subject to redemption, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments, and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act and for no other purpose, and no part of such money except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services shall be used by or for the State of Texas or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

State Treasurer to Forward Money to Bank Where Bonds are Payable

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer not less than fifteen (15) days before such interest is due according to the tenor and effect of said bonds, and the principal becomes redeemable, to forward by registered mail to the bank or trust company where the principal of and interest on such bonds are payable, an amount sufficient to pay such principal and interest and premium if any, and to pay the service charges of such bank or trust company. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him bonds and coupons thus cancelled, and after he shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such cancelled bonds and coupons to such city.

Additional Revenue Bonds

Sec. 4. When an eligible city shall have deposited and paid into the office of the State Treasurer the money and shall have done the things required under Section 2 it shall have authority to issue additional revenue bonds, securing them by a pledge of the revenue from the operation of its waterworks system or of its waterworks and sewer systems, in such manner as is authorized by Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and for the purposes authorized in said Articles, and for the purpose of providing money to enable the city to comply with Section 2 of this Act. The deposit authorized by Section 1 hereof to be made with the State Treasurer shall be made prior to or concurrently with the sale and delivery of the new bonds authorized by this Act, but all other proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of such bonds may be had prior to the making of such deposit. No revenue bonds shall be issued under authority of this Section 5 unless they shall have been authorized at an election held in such city in accordance with the provisions of Article 704 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 382, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature. It is especially provided that regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law under which such new revenue bonds are to be issued, they shall constitute a first charge on the income of the waterworks system or waterworks and sewer systems, after the payment of the expense of maintenance and operation of such system or systems subject only to any payments which must be made to the State Treasurer from such income to prevent any default in principal of or interest on such outstanding revenue bonds, for the benefit of which such deposit shall have been made with the State Treasurer. The right of the holders of said outstanding revenue bonds to have any deficiency paid out of such income shall remain unimpaired.

Additional or Subsequent Waterworks Revenue Bonds

Sec. 5. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law or laws under which such new revenue bonds shall be issued, so long as any of said new revenue bonds are outstanding no additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the revenues of the system shall be issued thereafter except in accordance with limitations prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the revenue bonds first to be issued by such city pursuant to this Act; but it shall be lawful for such city to authorize and issue additional or subsequent waterworks revenue bonds provided that they are issued in all respects in conformity with and subject to limitations contained in such ordinance.

Withdrawal of Deposits from State Treasury

Sec. 6. After an eligible city has made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, at any time it may withdraw from the State Treasury the amount of money, both principal and interest, deposited on account of any bond by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said bond duly cancelled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such bond.

Rights of Holders of Bonds to Surrender Bonds

Sec. 7. At any time after an eligible city shall have made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, the holder of any such bond, irrespective of its maturity date, shall have the right to surrender such bond to the State Treasurer and shall receive therefor a sum equivalent to all money then remaining on deposit with the State Treasurer, made on account of such surrendered bond. Whereupon such bond shall be duly cancelled by the State Treasurer, and delivered or forwarded to such city.

Approval of Record and Bonds by Attorney General

Sec. 8. When an eligible city shall have duly authorized the issuance of its revenue bonds, and the record pertaining thereto shall have been presented to the Attorney General of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record and thereafter when such new revenue bonds are presented to him, to approve such bonds subject to the making of the deposit provided in Section 2 hereof. After such record and bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and after such bonds have been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be held for all purposes to be fully negotiable instruments and shall, according to their tenor and effect, be valid and binding revenue obligations of such city and shall be incontestable for any cause from and after such registration.

Bond of State Treasurer

Sec. 9. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4368 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Act Cumulative

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject, but to the extent that its provisions are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of other laws, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 11. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby. [Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 1032, ch. 446.]

Art. 1118n-5. Redemption of Outstanding Revenue Bonds and Issuance of New Bonds

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has outstanding waterworks or waterworks and sewer systems revenue bonds and which has on hand sufficient money to pay said bonds together with the interest thereon to the date when they become due or optional for prior payment and the contract premium if any. Any such city is hereinafter sometimes called "eligible city".

Refunding Bonds to Pay Outstanding Revenue Bonds

Sec. 1a. To provide sufficient money for the purposes stated in Section 1 of the Act hereby amended, a city is authorized to issue refunding bonds and sell them for cash, in which event a certified copy of the ordinance so providing shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of Public Accounts and he shall register such refunding bonds without cancellation of the underlying bonds and deliver them as provided in the ordinance. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum, evidenced by coupons, mature serially in not to exceed forty (40) years and be signed as other city bonds. If the bonds thus to be refunded are secured by a deed of trust or other encumbrance in which a trustee is named, the money for the payment of the underlying bonds, interest, stipulated premium, if any, and payment charges, may, in the discretion of the governing body of the city, be deposited with such trustee. Such refunding bonds and any additional bonds may be combined into a single issue. Refunding bonds and any additional bonds may be secured in any manner authorized by Article 1111, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended. Such refunding bonds may be issued without an election. Refunding bonds shall not be sold for cash in lieu of being exchanged unless all of the bonds to be paid therefrom become due or optional for redemption within three (3) years from the date of the proposed refunding bonds. If the underlying bonds are optional for redemption within said period of time, the city shall call them in the manner therein provided.

Deposits with State Treasurer

Sec. 2. An eligible city shall have the right to deposit in the office of the State Treasurer of the State of Texas a sum of money equal to the principal amount of its said outstanding and unpaid revenue bonds plus the amount of interest which will accrue on each of said bonds calculated to the date on which it is to become due or on which it may be redeemed and the amount of contract premium if any, and concurrently with such deposit shall pay to the State Treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act a sum of money equivalent to one-twentieth (1/20) of one (1%) per cent of the principal amount of said bonds and one-eighth (1/8) of one (1%) per cent of the interest to accrue on all of said bonds, and an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the charges of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest of said bonds are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing said revenue bonds, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such bonds, the date when the principal becomes subject to redemption, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments, and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act and for no other purpose, and no part of such money except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services shall be used by or for the State of Texas or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

Duties of State Treasurer

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer not less than fifteen (15) days before such interest is due according to the tenor and effect of said bonds, and the principal becomes redeemable, to forward by registered mail to the bank or trust company where the principal of and interest on such bonds are payable, an amount sufficient to pay such principal and interest, and premium if any, and to pay the service charges of such bank or trust company. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him bonds and coupons thus cancelled, and after he shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such cancelled bonds and coupons to such city.

Issuance of New Bonds

Sec. 4. When an eligible city shall have deposited and paid into the office of the State Treasurer the money and shall have done the things required under Section 2 it shall have authority to issue additional revenue bonds, securing them by a pledge of the revenue from the operation of its waterworks system or of its waterworks and sewer systems, in such manner as is authorized by Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and for the purposes authorized in said Articles. The deposit authorized by Section 1 hereof to be made with the State Treasurer shall be made prior to or concurrently with the sale and delivery of the new bonds authorized by this Act, but all other proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of such bonds may be had prior to the making of such deposit. No revenue bonds shall be issued under authority of this Section 5 unless they shall have been authorized at an election held in such city in accordance with the provisions of Article 704 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 382, Acts of the First Called Session of the 44th Legislature. It is especially provided that regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law under which such new revenue bonds are to be issued, they shall constitute a first charge on the income of the waterworks system or waterworks and sewer systems, after the payment of the expense of maintenance and operation of such system or systems subject only to any payments which must be made to the State Treasurer from such income to prevent any default in principal or interest on such outstanding revenue bonds, for the benefit of which such deposit shall have been made with the State Treasurer. The right of the holders of said outstanding revenue bonds to have any deficiency paid out of such income shall remain unimpaired.

Subsequent Issuance of Additional Bonds

Sec. 5. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law or laws under which such new revenue bonds shall be issued, so long as any of said new revenue bonds are outstanding no additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the revenues of the system shall be issued thereafter except in accordance with limitations prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the revenue bonds first to be issued by such city pursuant to this Act; but it shall be lawful for such city to authorize and issue additional or subsequent waterworks revenue bonds provided that they are issued in all respects in conformity with and subject to limitations contained in such ordinance.

Withdrawal of Deposits

Sec. 6. After an eligible city has made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, at any time it may withdraw from the State Treasury the amount of money, both principal and interest, deposited on account of any bond by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said bond duly cancelled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such bond.

Surrender, Payment and Cancellation of Bonds

Sec. 7. At any time after an eligible city shall have made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, the holder of any such bond, irrespective of its maturity date, shall have the right to surrender such bond to the State Treasurer and shall receive therefor a sum equivalent to all money then remaining on deposit with the State Treasurer, made on account of such surrendered bond. Whereupon such bond shall be duly cancelled by the State Treasurer, and delivered or forwarded to such city.

Approval of Record and Bonds; Registration

Sec. 8. When an eligible city shall have duly authorized the issuance of its revenue bonds, and the record pertaining thereto shall have been presented to the Attorney General of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record, and thereafter when such new revenue bonds are presented to him, to approve such bonds subject to the making of the deposit provided in Section 2 hereof. After such record and bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and after such bonds have been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be held for all purposes to be fully negotiable instruments and shall, according to their tenor and effect, be valid and binding revenue obligations of such city and shall be incontestable for any cause from and after such registration.

Bonds of State Treasurer

Sec. 9. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4368 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer, shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Act Cumulative

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative¹ of all other Acts on the subject, but to the extent that its provisions are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of other laws, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 11. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1118n-6. Validating; Bonds, Bond Elections, and Proceedings for Utility Systems in any City or Town; Home-rule City Elections for Disposition of City Owned Plant, Utility or Business

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by any incorporated city, town or village which pledge the revenues of water, sewer, electric, or gas system, or the revenues of parking meters, auditorium or auditoriums, swimming pool or pools, or any combination of the revenues of such systems or sources, and any and all proceedings pertaining to the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of statutory or general authority of such city, town or village or the governing body thereof to authorize such bonds and make such pledge of revenue or revenues, and notwithstanding the fact that the proposition as submitted to the voters might have been defective or insufficient or the fact that the election might not have been ordered and held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the statutes or General Laws, and irrespective of the sufficiency or existence of the pledge of the revenues in the voted proposition; and such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered, shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations against the revenues so encumbered, and the bonds shall be uncontestable. Provided, however, that this Act shall apply only to such bonds as were authorized at an election or elections wherein a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters who had duly rendered their property for taxation voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 1-A. All elections heretofore called or held in any home rule city prior to the effective date of this Act, for the purpose of authorizing the lease, sale, or other disposition of any city owned plant, utility or business or any part thereof in attempted compliance with Article 1112 or Article 1268, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed and approved notwithstanding the fact that the proposition submitted to the voters might have been defective or insufficient, or the fact that the election might not have been ordered and held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the Home Rule Charter of such city or the General Laws of this state, including those hereinabove particularly mentioned. Provided, however, that this Act shall only apply to those instances in which the lease, sale or other disposition of any city owned plant, utility or business, or any part thereof, were authorized at an election wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such city had voted in favor thereof.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the proceedings.

Art. 1118n-7. Redemption and Refunding of Outstanding Waterworks Revenue Bonds; Additional Revenue Bonds

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. Any city, including any city operating under a Home Rule Charter, having outstanding water revenue bonds payable from the net revenues of its waterworks system, the net revenues of which system for each of the two (2) fiscal years next preceding the date when it avails itself of this law are equal to two hundred per cent (200%) of the requirements for the payments of interest on and principal of such outstanding revenue bonds for the year when such requirements are the greatest shall, under the provisions of this Act, be considered hereinafter as an "Eligible City."

Negotiable Tax-Supported General Obligation Bonds, Issuance; Tax Levy to Pay

Sec. 2. An Eligible City, through its governing body may, for the express purpose of providing funds for the refunding or redemption of its outstanding water revenue bonds payable from the revenues of its waterworks system, issue negotiable tax-supported general obligation bonds, pledging therefor the full faith and credit of such city, in an aggregate amount not greater than the aggregate principal amount of such outstanding water revenue bonds, and the total interest thereon accrued to the final date of redemption of each such outstanding water revenue bond; provided, however, that if such Eligible City shall issue such negotiable tax-supported general obligation bonds under the authority of this Act, it shall make provision for the payment of such bonds by annual levies of ad valorem property taxes to pay the interest thereon and to provide a sinking fund to pay them at maturity; and provided, further, that no such bonds shall be issued under the authority of this Act unless the issuance thereof, and the levy of annual ad valorem property taxes to provide for the payment of the interest thereon and to create a sinking fund with which to pay them at maturity, shall have been authorized at an election called and conducted under the provisions of Chapter I, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and laws amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, which shall govern the issuance of all such bonds under the authority herein given.

Subrogation to Rights of Holders of Water Revenue Bonds Refunded

Sec. 3. Any Eligible City, which may provide funds for the refunding or redemption of its outstanding water revenue bonds in the manner prescribed in Section 2 hereof, shall thereupon become subrogated to the rights of the holders of the water revenue bonds refunded with funds thus provided, in so far as payments from the revenues of its waterworks system are concerned, and be entitled to have paid into its general fund from such revenues like amounts as would have been payable on the water revenue bonds thus refunded or redeemed, had the same remained outstanding; but such rights on the part of such Eligible City shall in nowise limit any encumbrance on the properties of its water system securing any other water revenue bonds secured by such encumbrance, nor shall such encumbrance in any-wise inure to the benefit of such Eligible City or in anywise be enforceable by it, but shall remain in full force for the sole benefit of the holders of any unpaid water revenue bonds of such city, whose rights to enforce such encumbrance shall remain superior to the rights of such city to payment from the revenues of its water system as hereinabove prescribed; nor shall any of the provisions of this Section of this Act be deemed as affecting the right of any such Eligible City to payments from such revenues from its water system into its general fund as might be provided by the terms of any contract under which its water revenue bonds may be issued, and any such payments shall be in addition to payments hereinabove prescribed in this Section.

Refinancing or Redemption Agreements; Additional Water System Revenue Bonds; Referendum

Sec. 4. An Eligible City may also enter into such agreements with the holders of its outstanding water revenue bonds as may be necessary to effect a refunding or refinancing or redemption of such outstanding bonds, or any part thereof, and further in aid of such refunding or refinancing or redemption, may enter into agreements with such other persons, firms or corporations as may be deemed advisable by any such city. All water system revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act, other than water system refunding revenue bonds, and an additional amount of new revenue bonds not exceeding the total amount of the then outstanding revenue bonds, shall be sold in accordance with the charter provisions of any such Eligible City. It may issue its water system refunding revenue bonds in the manner authorized by Chapter 250, Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, as amended by Chapter 23, Acts, 1951, Fifty-second Legislature,¹ and with or without an election, as such City shall determine. Such City may, from time to time, issue additional water system revenue bonds for the purpose of extending or improving said water system or for the purpose of acquiring privately or publicly owned water systems or water system facilities situated in or adjacent to such city, or for the purpose of acquiring an additional water supply by purchase or construction or by contribution to the construction of a reservoir by the Federal Government or any agency thereof and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, such bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and said additional bonds, when issued, shall be on a parity and of equal dignity with any water system refunding bonds issued by such city and shall be secured by a first lien on and pledge of the net revenues of said system, and, in the discretion of such city, may be further secured by a first mortgage on the physical properties constituting said system; provided, however, that in the event that all of said outstanding water revenue bonds cannot be obtained for refunding or redemption, then such new revenue bonds and any refunding bonds which may be authorized and issued hereunder shall constitute a first charge on the income and properties of the water system of said city, subject only to any payments which must be made from such income as required by the provisions of Sections 5, 6, 7 and 12, of this Act; provided, however, that before any additional water system revenue bonds, as herein authorized, are issued, they shall be authorized by a majority vote of the duly qualified taxpaying voters of such an Eligible City at an election ordered and held for that purpose, which election shall be ordered and held in the same manner as required by law for holding elections to authorize the issuance of tax-supported bonds. The right of the holders of any outstanding water revenue bonds not so refunded to have any deficiency paid out of such income shall remain unimpaired.

Deposit in State Treasury of Outstanding Water System Revenue Bonds

Sec. 5. An Eligible City shall have the right to deposit in the office of the State Treasurer of the State of Texas a sum of money equal to the principal amount of its outstanding and unpaid water system revenue bonds that cannot be obtained for refunding or redemption plus the amount of interest which will accrue on each of said bonds calculated to the date on which it is to become due or the date on which it is to become optional for prior redemption, or on which it may be redeemed, and the contract premium, if any, and, concurrently with such deposit, shall pay to the State Treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act a sum of money equivalent to one-eighth ($\frac{1}{8}$) of one per cent (1%) of the principal amount of said bonds, and one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of one per cent (1%) of the interest to accrue on all said bonds, and an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the charges of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest on said bonds are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time, such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing such water system revenue bonds, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such bonds, the date when the principal matures, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act, and for no other purpose, and no part of such money, except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services, shall be used by or for the State of Texas, or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

State Treasurer's Duties

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer not less than fifteen (15) days before such interest is due according to the tenor and effect of said bonds, and the principal becomes due, to forward by registered mail to the bank or trust company where the principal of and interest on such bonds are payable, an amount sufficient to pay such principal and interest, and to pay the service charges of such bank or trust company. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him bonds and coupons thus canceled, and after he shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such canceled bonds and coupons to such city. When an Eligible City shall have deposited and paid into the office of the State Treasurer the money and shall have done the things required under Section 3 it shall have authority to issue additional revenue bonds and refunding bonds as permitted in Section 2 hereof.

Rights of Holders to Surrender Bonds

Sec. 7. At any time after an Eligible City shall have made the deposits and payments required under Section 5 of this Act, the holder of any such bond, irrespective of its maturity date, shall have the right to surrender such bond to the State Treasurer and shall receive therefor a sum equivalent to all money then remaining on deposit with the State Treasurer, made on account of such surrendered bond; whereupon such bond shall be duly canceled by the State Treasurer and delivered or forwarded to such city.

Subsequent Issuance of Additional Revenue Bonds

Sec. 8. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law or laws under which such refunding bonds and new revenue bonds shall be issued, so long as any of said bonds are outstanding no additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the revenues of the system shall be issued thereafter except in accordance with limitations prescribed in the ordinance or deed of trust authorizing and securing the revenue bonds first to be issued by such city pursuant to this Act; but it shall be lawful for such city to authorize and issue additional or subsequent revenue bonds provided that they are issued in all respects in conformity with and subject to limitations contained in such ordinance or deed of trust.

Withdrawal of Deposits from State Treasury

Sec. 9. After an Eligible City has made the deposits and payments required under Section 5, at any time it may withdraw from the State Treasury the amount of money, both principal and interest, deposited on account of any bond by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said bond duly canceled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such bond.

Approval of Record and Bonds by Attorney General; Registration; Incontestability

Sec. 10. When an Eligible City shall have authorized the issuance of its revenue bonds, and the record pertaining thereto shall have been presented to the Attorney General of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record and thereafter when such new revenue bonds are presented to him, to approve such bonds subject to the making of the deposit provided in Section 5 hereof. After such record and bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and after such bonds have been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be held for all purposes to be fully negotiable instruments and shall, according to their tenor and effect, be valid and binding revenue obligations of such city and shall be incontestable for any cause from and after such registration.

Bond of State Treasurer

Sec. 11. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4368 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Cancellation of Bonds; Validation of Issuance and Sale of Canceled Bonds

Sec. 12. Whenever an Eligible City has purchased, from the holders thereof, any of its outstanding water system revenue bonds with money taken from its water system revenue bond interest and sinking fund, or from its Waterworks Bond and Interest Redemption Account, and whenever such bonds have been thereby canceled through error or otherwise, and whenever the governing body of any such city has adopted an ordinance authorizing the issuance or sale of any such canceled bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance or sale of such canceled bonds are hereby validated and confirmed, and any such canceled bonds shall constitute valid and legally binding obligations of any such city in accordance with their terms, and each such Eligible City is authorized to do all things necessary to refund or redeem any such canceled bonds, under the authority of this Act.

Act Cumulative

Sec. 13. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject, but to the extent that its provisions are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of other laws, or the provisions of the Charter of any Eligible City, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling. Chapter 541, Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature,¹ shall remain unimpaired by the provisions of this Act.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 14. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 854, ch. 320.]

Art. 1118n-8. Refunding Bonds, Issuance by Certain Cities Operating Under General Law and Owning Waterworks, Natural Gas and Sewer Systems

Eligible City

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to cities operating under general law, which own and operate waterworks, natural gas and sanitary sewer systems, and whose outstanding tax bond indebtedness, including accrued and unpaid interest thereon, exists in an aggregate amount of not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city for the purposes of this Act shall be an "eligible" city.

Refunding Bonds Authorized; Powers of Governing Body; Definition

Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up all or any part of its outstanding indebtedness, regardless of whether such indebtedness is in its original form or has been funded, or refunded, in whole or in part, such refunding bonds to bear interest at a rate or rates to be determined by the governing body of said city, not exceeding the average rate or rates of interest borne by the indebtedness to be refunded, and no election shall be required as a condition precedent to the issuance of the said refunding securities. The governing body of such eligible city, in addition to the levying of a tax to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds, is authorized to pledge to the payment of such principal and interest, a designated annual amount or a designated proportion of the net revenues from the operation of any one or more of the utility systems owned and operated by said city, which pledge shall remain in full force and effect so long as any part of the principal or interest of said refunding bonds is outstanding and unpaid. For the purposes of this Act the expression "net revenues" shall mean the gross revenues of such system or systems after the payment of the reasonable and necessary expenses of operation, maintenance, and collection of income and the payment of interest on and principal of any and all bonds theretofore issued, the payment of which is secured by a pledge of the revenues of any or all of said systems. When such city issues refunding bonds under the provisions of this law it shall be the duty of the city, after making said pledge of such utility revenues, to establish and maintain said utility systems and to fulfill the city's pledge of said utility revenues.

Amount of Bond Issue; Procedure for Issuance; Registration

Sec. 3. The refunding bonds authorized in this Act may be issued in an amount not exceeding the combined amount of outstanding principal, matured interest coupons, and accrued interest on said original securities and shall mature at such time or times as the governing body may prescribe. The procedure for the issuance of said refunding bonds shall be that which is prescribed in the statutes for the issuance of refunding bonds to take up outstanding bonds.

Such refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts in exchange for and upon cancellation of such original indebtedness after they shall have been approved by the Attorney General, and when so registered shall have all of the elements of protections of bonds approved by the Attorney General of Texas under the provisions of Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Negotiability

Sec. 4. Refunding Bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable coupon bonds payable to bearer, constituting general obligations of the issuing city, and the holders thereof shall succeed to all the privileges of the holders of the indebtedness constituting the basis of the refunding bonds except as modified and changed by the express terms of the proceedings employed in the refunding operation.

Act as Cumulative; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 5. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with, or are inconsistent with, the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with the provision of the charter of any such eligible city, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions and shall prevail.

Art. 1118n-9. Validating City Tax Bonds for Waterworks and Sewage Systems

Sec. 1. All proceedings in connection with any tax bonds heretofore favorably voted in any city, including any Home Rule City, for the purpose of constructing, improving and extending the waterworks and sewage systems of such city, including the acquisition of property necessary therefor, are hereby in all things validated and said bonds may be issued and delivered by the governing body of any such city for the purpose or purposes so voted and in the manner provided by Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, regardless of whether or not any such bonds so voted were submitted in only one proposition and regardless of the wording of the language appearing on the ballots concerning any proposition so submitted.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or any obligations issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 714, ch. 337.]

Art. 1118n-10. Refunding Outstanding Waterworks and Sewer Revenue Bonds; Additional Refunding Bonds

Eligible City

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has outstanding bonds secured by a pledge of net revenue of its sanitary sewer system and other bonds secured by a lien on its waterworks system and the revenues therefrom, and does not have the right to issue additional equal lien bonds payable from its waterworks revenues. As used herein "Eligible City" means a city to which this Act is applicable.

Refunding Bonds Secured by Pledge of Revenues; Issuance; Interest; Deposits in State Treasury

Sec. 2. An Eligible City is authorized to issue bonds, without the necessity of an election, for the purpose of refunding outstanding waterworks revenue bonds and sewer revenue bonds into an issue of refunding bonds which will be secured by and payable from a pledge of revenues of both the waterworks system and the sewer system. Such refunding bonds shall bear a rate of interest specified by the governing body of the City, but not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years. All or any part of such refunding bonds may, in lieu of being exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts for outstanding bonds, be sold for cash, in which event, there shall be deposited with the State Treasurer an amount of money sufficient to pay the unexchanged portion thereof plus interest to maturity on bonds which are not optional for redemption prior to maturity, and to the option date on bonds which are optional. There shall also be deposited with the State Treasurer the additional amount required by Chapter 541, Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature as amended.¹ The State Treasurer shall hold and disburse such funds as provided in Chapter 541 except that he is not required to transmit money to the Trustee or the bank of payment until one business day before each interest payment date on the bonds being refunded.

Elections Authorizing Bond Issue

Sec. 3. If, prior to such refunding, an Eligible City has had elections authorizing the issuance of bonds to be secured by a pledge of waterworks revenues and other bonds secured by sewer revenues, or either, such bonds may, after the issuance of such refunding bonds, be issued and secured by a pledge of net revenues of both the waterworks system and sewer system without the necessity of an additional election.

Additional Revenue Bonds; Ordinances; Junior Lien Bonds

Sec. 4. An Eligible City may issue additional revenue bonds which will be on a parity with previously issued and outstanding revenue bonds at any time under the conditions specified in the ordinance or ordinances which authorized the issuance of the then outstanding bonds. Articles 1111 to 1118, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law, except as otherwise provided herein. An Eligible City may issue junior lien bonds unless prohibited by the ordinance authorizing outstanding bonds.

Approval of Bonds by Attorney General; Incontestability

Sec. 5. All bonds issued under this Act shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his approval, and when approved by him, shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and thereafter such bonds shall be incontestable. [Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 321, ch. 119.]

Art. 1118n-11. Refunding Outstanding Interest Bearing Obligations; Cities Not Over 60,000

Issuer Defined

Sec. 1. The term "issuer," as used in this Act shall mean and include any city in the State of Texas which owns the water, sewer and electric utility systems serving such city and which had a population not exceeding 60,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

Issuing Refunding Bonds; Security; Election; Maturity and Interest; Negotiability

Sec. 2. Any issuer, by resolution, ordinance, order or other action of its governing body is authorized to issue refunding bonds to refund any outstanding interest bearing obligations, including but not limited to bonds, notes, warrants, certificates of obligation and certificates of indebtedness, and interest coupons appertaining thereto, heretofore or hereafter issued by or for or on behalf of said issuer, which obligations have stated maturity dates or are callable prior to maturity not more than 10 years after the date of delivery of such refunding bonds. One or more outstanding issues of obligations, and interest coupons appertaining thereto, may be refunded hereunder; provided that obligations will not be refunded hereunder by issuers unless such refunding results in the ability of the issuer to issue additional interest bearing obligations that could not have been issued but for such refunding due at least in part to provisions in the obligations being refunded or resolutions, ordinances or orders pertaining to such obligations being refunded which would have required a record of earnings or income in excess of that available to the issuer, and would have thus prevented the issuance of such additional interest bearing obligations; provided that when part of one or more of such issues is being refunded, the issuer must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Attorney General of the State of Texas, prior to his approval of the refunding bonds as hereinafter required, that adequate pledged resources are estimated to be available, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment when due of the unrefunded part of such issue or issues. Such refunding bonds may be secured by liens on, and made payable from, the same source as the obligations being refunded thereby, or may be secured by liens on, and payable from, taxes, revenues, property, any other or different source, or any combination of such sources, to the extent the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Texas Constitution or any statute to pledge, dedicate, or use any such source for the payment or security of any kind or type of interest bearing obligation; and the refunding bonds may be issued in combination with refunding bonds issued under other laws, new bonds, and with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all as determined within the discretion of the issuer; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any encumbrance in connection therewith; except that if the Texas Constitution would require an election or vote to permit any procedure, action, or matter pertaining to such refunding bonds, then an election to authorize any such procedure, action, or matter shall be held substantially in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ to the extent practicable, applicable, and appropriate. Said bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years from their date, and may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates within the discretion of the issuer. Said bonds and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, shall be negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code (except that such bonds may be made registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be executed, as provided by the issuer in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds.

Submission of Bonds and Proceedings to Attorney General; Approval and Registration; Incontestability; Registration

Sec. 3. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas; and after such approval and registration, such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. Such bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts after they are approved by the attorney general, without any surrender, exchange, or cancellation of the obligations being refunded.

Sale for Cash; Redemption

Sec. 4. The refunding bonds authorized by this Act shall be sold for cash in such manner and at such price (not less than par and accrued interest to date of delivery) as determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer, and may be sold in such principal amounts as are necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of and interest on any obligations being refunded, as the same mature and come due, or to provide all or any part of the money required to redeem any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on the date or dates upon which said obligations have been called for such redemption, including principal, any required premium, the interest to accrue on said obligations to said redemption date or dates, together with an amount sufficient to pay all expenses related to the issuance of the refunding bonds and the expenses of paying the obligations being refunded under this Act. If any of the obligations being refunded through the sale of refunding bonds under this Act are subject to redemption prior to maturity, they shall be duly called for such redemption on a date or dates upon which they are so redeemable, in accordance with the terms thereof, and the proceedings pertaining to such call, and any notice of redemption required in connection therewith, shall be submitted to the attorney general along with the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds. However, if the notice of redemption in connection with any such obligations being refunded is required by the terms thereof to be given or published at some future time after the date of the refunding bonds, such obligations shall not be considered as being then subject to redemption prior to maturity for the purposes of this Act, and in calculating the amount required to be deposited with the state treasurer under this Act, such amount shall be made sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on said obligations being refunded as the same mature and come due, without being redeemed prior to maturity.

Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 5. The issuer may immediately invest all or any required part of the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds, and any other necessary available funds, in direct obligations of, or obligations the interest on and principal of which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or in obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, which will mature, bear interest, and be payable, at such times and in such amounts as will provide and produce, without any reinvestment, the money (together with any uninvested money) required for the payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded, as the same mature and come due, and for the payment of the redemption price of any obligations being refunded and redeemed prior to maturity, on the date or dates upon which said obligations being refunded have been called for redemption, plus the additional amount required to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of said obligations for paying and redeeming same.

Deposits with Treasurer; Certification of Deposit Adequacy; Duties of Treasurer

Sec. 6. (a) The issuer shall immediately deposit with the state treasurer (1) the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds, to the extent such proceeds are not invested, and (2) all of said investments, and (3) an additional amount, if necessary, which shall be sufficient together with such other deposits to pay the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded, to pay the state treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act, equal to one-twentieth of one percent of the principal or par amount of the obligations being refunded, and one-eighth of one percent of the interest to accrue thereon (but not to exceed a total of $2,000 in connection with each issue of refunding bonds issued hereunder), plus an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of said obligations for paying and redeeming same. The treasurer shall certify to the issuer as to the adequacy of the investments (and money) deposited, giving due regard to the dates the principal and interest on the investments are scheduled to mature and come due. In calculating the adequacy of said investments required to be so deposited, the state treasurer may rely on receiving both the principal and the interest scheduled to mature and come due on said investments in accordance with their terms, respectively, and the amount which otherwise would be required to be so deposited, if no interest were scheduled to come due thereon, may be reduced accordingly. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to accept said deposits of investments and to collect promptly, when due and payable, all principal of and interest on said investments, but he shall not reinvest the same. It is further provided that the aforesaid investments shall be made in such manner that the proceeds therefrom, without any reinvestment, will be available for deposit, and shall be deposited, by the state treasurer, in the place or places of payment, in current available funds, in the required amounts, not later than one business day before each scheduled maturity date, due date, or redemption date, respectively, of said obligations being refunded. The state treasurer may rely on a certificate by the secretary or the chief clerical officer of the governing body of the issuer as to the amount of such service charges of the place or places of payment.

(b) It shall be the duty of the state treasurer, in his official capacity of public office, to accept and keep safely all deposits of money and investments made with him under this Act, and all proceeds from said investments; and no part of such deposits of money and investments, or proceeds therefrom, (excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses) shall be used by or for the benefit of the State of Texas, or for the benefit of any creditor of the State of Texas, and shall not be commingled with the General Fund of the state, or any other special funds or accounts held by the state treasurer. Each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, (excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses) shall be kept and maintained separate and apart from all other money and investments, and shall be kept and held, in escrow, and in trust, by the state treasurer, and shall be charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of the holders of the obligations to be paid therefrom, and said deposits of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, shall be used only for the purposes provided in this Act. Each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, shall be regarded as public funds, and legal title thereto shall be in the state treasurer, in his official capacity as trustee, until paid out as herein provided, but equitable title thereto shall be in the issuer, until so paid out. The writ of mandamus, and all other legal remedies, shall be available to any bondholder, the issuer or any other party at interest to require the state treasurer to perform his functions and duties under this Act. The surety bond or bonds given by the state treasurer in connection with the proper performance of his duties of office (excepting any special bonds given to protect funds of the United States government) shall protect and be construed as protecting all said deposits of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom. The state treasurer shall not in any way invest or reinvest any money deposited with him or received by him from any investment under this Act. In the event that any surplus funds should remain on hand with the state treasurer in connection with any deposit of money or investments, after he has finally performed all of his duties relating thereto under this Act, such surplus shall be returned to the issuer.

(c) When there is more than one place of payment for any such obligations being refunded, the state treasurer shall make all of the deposits required to be made by him under this Act at the one of said places of payment having the largest capital and surplus and located in the State of Texas, and if none of such places of payment is located in the State of Texas, then at the place of payment having the largest capital and surplus; and it shall be the duty of such place of payment, and the state treasurer shall so instruct it, to make the required current funds available, to the extent necessary, at the other place or places of payment, to pay or redeem said obligations under presentment therefor.

Alternative Place of Deposit; Duties of Places of Payment

Sec. 7. It is further provided, however, that in the alternative to making the deposit of said investments (together with any uninvested money) with the state treasurer, the issuer shall have the option of making such deposit with any place of payment for the obligations being refunded, if said place of payment is a bank or trust company located in the State of Texas, has trust powers, and is a member of the Federal Reserve System. In such case, such place of payment shall perform all applicable and pertinent functions and duties provided in this Act for the state treasurer, and shall be substituted hereunder for the state treasurer to the extent appropriate and practical, except as otherwise provided by this section. The deposits of such investments and money shall be held for safekeeping, in escrow, and in trust for and charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of and for the benefit of the holders of the obligations being refunded, all pursuant to an appropriate trust or escrow agreement between the issuer and the place of payment, upon such further terms and conditions, and for such consideration as may be agreeable to the parties thereto. Further, all deposits of money with any such place of payment shall constitute public funds and shall be secured at all times by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America, obligations the payment of principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit. When there is more than one place of payment for any such obligations being refunded it shall be the duty of such place of payment, with which such deposit is made, to make the required current funds available, to the extent necessary, at the other place or places of payment, to pay or redeem said obligations under presentment therefor.

Discharge and Final Payment or Redemption of Obligations; Subordination to Refunded Obligations

Sec. 8. When the initial deposit of investments (and any uninvested money) is made with the state treasurer or with a place of payment under this Act, such deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded, and although such obligations being refunded shall continue to be obligations of the issuer, automatically they shall become obligations of the issuer secured solely by and payable solely from such deposit and the proceeds therefrom; and upon the making of such deposit, all previous encumbrances existing in connection with said obligations being refunded (whether in connection with taxes, revenues, real and personal property, or any other source of security or payment) automatically shall terminate and be finally discharged and released, as a matter of law, and said encumbrances shall be of no further force or effect; and although said obligations being so refunded will remain outstanding, they shall be regarded as being outstanding only for the purpose of receiving the funds provided by the issuer for their payment or redemption under this Act, and they shall not be regarded as being outstanding in ascertaining the power of the issuer to issue bonds, or in calculating any limitations in connection therewith, or for any other purpose. It is further provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing language of this section, that the issuer may, in the alternative to the foregoing language of this section, provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds that such refunding bonds shall be subordinate to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent provided in said authorizing proceedings; and, except for any such specific provisions to the contrary in said authorizing proceedings, the foregoing language of this section shall be fully applicable.

Rights of Holders of Obligations

Sec. 9. The holder or holders of any such obligations being refunded shall never have the right to demand or receive payment thereof prior to the scheduled date or dates of the maturities, due dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of said obligations being refunded, and said holder or holders shall not be paid therefor prior to such date or dates, unless the issuer shall have specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of said obligations in the proceedings authorizing said refunding bonds.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 10. All bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative and Prevailing Effects of Act; Use of Other Laws

Sec. 11. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law or charter, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any issuer shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 12. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1118o-1. Validating Acts and Proceedings of Cities in Borrowing Money from Federal Agencies to Repair or Extend Dam for Waterworks System

In all cases where any city or town in this State has borrowed money from The Reconstruction Finance Corporation or any other agency of the United States Government, for the purpose of making repairs and extensions, or either, to a dam comprising a part of the waterworks system of said city or town, which the city or town has agreed to repay out of the revenues of said waterworks system, all acts performed by the city officials and all proceedings had by the governing bodies of such cities or towns in connection therewith are hereby validated, and all money so borrowed by such city or town together with the interest thereon at the rate stipulated in such proceedings is hereby declared to be a legal obligation of such city or town, payable out of the revenues of its waterworks system. The fact that a vacancy existed in the office of Mayor during all or any part of such proceedings, or the fact that other revenue obligations were then and are now outstanding against such system shall not affect the obligations and proceedings hereby validated.

Art. 1118p. Refunding Bonds in Counties of 525,000 or More; Payment from Water or Sewer Revenues

Issuance of New Revenue Bonds; Franchise to Foreclosure Purchaser

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply only in counties that have a population of five hundred and twenty-five thousand (525,000) or more, according to the last Federal Census. Any city or town that has issued bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations payable from the revenues of the water systems and/or sewer systems and/or sewage disposal plants of such city or town, all or a portion of which bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations are outstanding, may issue new bonds of such city or town payable from the net revenues of the water systems and/or sewer systems and/or sewage disposal plants of such city or town for the purpose of refunding such outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations and for the purpose of further building, improving, enlarging, extending, and/or repairing such systems, or any one of them, and may pledge the net revenues thereof to pay the interest on and principal of such refunding and further construction bonds, and in the discretion of the governing body of such city or town, may mortgage and encumber the physical properties of such system or systems, as the case may be, for that purpose, and grant a franchise to the purchaser under foreclosure to operate such system or systems, as the case may be, for a period of not exceeding twenty (20) years after purchase, subject to all the laws regulating the same then in force.

Designation; Maturity; Interest

Sec. 2. Such new bonds may be called Refunding and Further Construction Bonds, and may be made to mature serially or otherwise as the governing body of such city or town may direct not more than thirty (30) years from their date, and may bear interest at not exceeding five (5) per cent per annum; provided such new bonds shall not bear a higher rate of interest than the bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations that are refunded thereby.

Election

Sec. 3. Before the bonds herein authorized are issued, they shall be authorized by a majority vote of the duly qualified property taxpaying voters of such city or town at an election ordered and held for that purpose, which election shall be ordered and held in the same manner as required by law for holding elections to authorize the issuance of tax supported bonds.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration

Sec. 4. Such bonds and the record authorizing the same shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and approved by him, substantially the same as is required in the issuance of tax supported bonds. When such bonds shall have been approved by the Attorney General, they shall be turned over to the Comptroller of the State of Texas and by him registered in the following order:

First, the portion of such new bonds equal in principal amount to the outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations that are being refunded thereby, shall be registered only upon surrender and cancellation of such outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations that are being refunded thereby, until all of such outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations shall have been surrendered and cancelled.

Second, after all such outstanding revenue bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations of such city or town shall have been surrendered and cancelled, and an equal amount of such new bonds registered and delivered in lieu thereof, then the balance of such new bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller and delivered to the Mayor of such city or town, or upon his order, and may be sold by the governing body of such city or town and the proceeds thereof expended in further building, improving, enlarging, extending, and/or repairing such system or systems, as the case may be.

Act as Cumulative; Repeal of Conflicting Laws Only

Sec. 5. This Act is cumulative, and in addition to all other statutes authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds of cities and towns, and is intended to repeal only such laws and parts of laws as are in conflict herewith.

Repeal

Sec. 6. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict, and particularly that expression contained in Article 1113, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas which reads, "No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city or town, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid," is hereby specially repealed.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 421, ch. 251.]

Art. 1118q. Hydro-electric Generating Facilities, Acquisition of

Sec. 1. Any city in Texas which owns an electric distribution system, whether or not such city also owns facilities for the generation of electricity, may acquire by purchase, and improve, maintain and operate any privately owned facilities for the generation of hydro-electric power having an installed capacity of not less than two thousand (2,000) kilowatts, which may exist within five (5) miles of the boundary of such city, including all lands, flowage rights and water rights and related generating and transmission equipment and lines, and for the purpose of paying the cost of such acquisition and improvement may issue the bonds of such city pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as such Articles now exist or may be hereafter amended, which bonds representing purchase money shall be fully negotiable for all purposes. For the purpose of the issuance and payment of such bonds the hydro-electric generating facilities so acquired may be regarded as an independent electric system which, including the revenues thereof, may be pledged to the payment of such bonds without any pledge of the other electric facilities of such city or the revenues derived therefrom. Such acquisition may be effected through the purchase of such facilities or through the issuance of the bonds in exchange for such facilities, provided the same shall have been first authorized at an election held in accordance with the provisions of Article 1112 of the Revised Civil Statutes as amended.

Any city which shall so acquire hydro-electric generating facilities hereunder shall carry out the provisions of all contracts in existence at the time of such acquisition pursuant to which electric current generated by such facilities has been contracted to be sold, except as to any such contract which may be cancelled by voluntary agreement of the city and the party or parties entitled to purchase such electric current thereunder. Subject to the rights of the parties to any such existing contracts, any such city shall take for distribution by its distribution system such part of the output of the generating facilities so acquired as may be needed for that purpose, and may in the proceedings for the authorization of the bonds enter into such covenants for the use of and payment for such electric current from the revenues derived from the re-sale thereof as it may consider proper. Any electric current generated by such facilities which is not used by the city for distribution by its system to its consumers may be sold by the city to other purchasers and any such city is hereby empowered to enter into such short or long term contracts for such sale as it may deem advisable.

Sec. 2. The invalidity or ineffectiveness of any one or more provisions contained herein shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 383, ch. 203.]

Art. 1118r. Electric Light and Power Systems; Validation of Bonds

All revenue bonds issued by any city or town of five thousand inhabitants, or less, for the purpose of acquiring an electric light and power system for said city or town, which bonds were duly sold and delivered to the purchasers thereof at a price of not less than par and accrued interest, and the proceeds of which bonds were duly expended in the acquisition of such electric light and power system, are hereby in all things ratified, validated and confirmed, and such bonds shall constitute legal, binding and valid special obligations of said city or town and shall be payable in the manner provided in the ordinance authorizing their issuance.

Art. 1118s. Revenue Bonds for Sewage Disposal Facilities; Cities Serving Territory Outside Boundaries

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which owns a sewer system and disposal plant serving territory, other cities, and military establishments outside the corporate boundaries thereof.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of purchasing or constructing additional sewage disposal facilities, any city to which this Act is applicable is hereby authorized to issue its negotiable bonds, and to secure the payment of such bonds by pledging the net revenues to be derived from sewer service rendered outside the corporate limits of the city. Such bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of all or part of the net revenues to be derived from sewer service to be rendered within the city. In the issuance of bonds secured only by the net revenues from sewer service rendered outside of the boundaries of the city, the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds may specify what items of expense or portions thereof shall be deducted in arriving at the net revenues, or may prescribe any other formula for that purpose deemed appropriate by the governing body. In the issuance of such bonds, the city may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to the extent and subject to the conditions to be stated in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

Sec. 3. Any city to which this Act is applicable is authorized to enter into contracts with other cities, persons, corporations and the United States Government to furnish sewer service, and such other cities are authorized to enter into such contracts. Such contracts which have heretofore been entered into and which have not been questioned in litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, are hereby validated.

Sec. 4. Whenever a city issues bonds under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body thereof to fix rates for service in an amount to pay the maintenance and operation expense and sufficient to pay the bonds as they are scheduled to mature and the interest as it accrues, and to establish and maintain the funds as provided in the ordinance authorizing the bonds; provided, however, that where the consideration to be paid for sewer service is fixed by contract, such consideration shall not be increased during the term of the contract except as provided therein or by agreement of both parties.

Sec. 5. Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, and Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, shall be applicable to the issuance of bonds under this Act, except as otherwise provided in this Act, but no election shall be required for their issuance. When such bonds are approved by the Attorney General, they shall be incontestable.

Art. 1118t. Additional Revenue Bonds; Issuance Without Election

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city or town, including any home rule city, which now has or shall hereafter have outstanding revenue bonds issued under Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or other similar statutes, for the purpose of acquiring its electric and gas systems or to refund bonds issued for such purpose, shall have the power to issue additional revenue bonds for the sole purpose of extending and improving said systems and payable from the net revenues of said systems on a parity with said outstanding bonds, in the manner and to the extent authorized by law and by the ordinances or trust indentures authorizing such outstanding acquisition bonds or refunding bonds, without holding any election on the issuance thereof, regardless of other statutory or charter provisions to the contrary; provided thirty (30) days notice of intention to issue such bonds shall be given. Said notice shall be given as provided in the "Bond and Warrant Law of 1931," as amended,¹ except that the first publication shall be at least thirty (30) days prior to the date set for authorizing the bonds and that said notice shall contain a description by name and amount outstanding of any bonds or other indebtedness payable from the net revenues of such systems. Unless said notice is given as prescribed by the terms of this Section 1, said notice will be null and void and of no effect, and another notice as provided herein shall be given prior to the authorization of bonds covered by this Act.

Sec. 2. If a petition is filed in accordance with the provisions of said law, the election shall be ordered and held (on the issuance of said bonds) in accordance with said law; provided, however, that the question whether said bonds shall be issued may be submitted in a single proposition and without the necessity of designating the amount of bond proceeds to be expended on each system.

Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act.

Art. 1118u. Additional Revenue Bonds; Waterworks, Sewers and Swimming Pool

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has heretofore issued bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues of its waterworks system, sewer system and swimming pool, retaining therein the right to issue additional parity bonds to be payable from and secured by such revenues, and which has held or hereafter holds an election resulting favorably to the issuance of additional bonds to be payable from and secured by a pledge of waterworks system, sewer system and swimming pool revenues.

Sec. 2. Any city to which this Act is applicable is authorized to issue the bonds authorized or to be authorized by such election and to secure them with a pledge of the net revenues of the waterworks and sewer system, and, in the discretion of the governing body of the city, the bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of the net revenues of the swimming pool. Such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall constitute valid and binding special obligations of such city.

Art. 1118v. Refunding Outstanding Revenue Bonds Issued for Certain Utilities or Combination of Utilities

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city or town, including any home rule city, which now has or hereafter may have outstanding revenue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues from the operation of its electric light and power system, gas system, water system, sewer system, or any combination of two or more of such systems, and other outstanding revenue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues from the operation of another of any such system or systems, which bonds have been issued in the manner provided by Articles 1111 to 1118, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended, or under any similar law, may issue refunding bonds to refund such outstanding bonds and pledge the revenues derived from the operation of all the systems whose revenues are pledged for the payment of the bonds to be refunded (regardless of the fact one or more issues of outstanding bonds to be refunded are payable from the revenues of one or more particular systems, and another issue or issues of such outstanding bonds to be refunded are payable from the revenues of a different system or systems); provided, however, that no bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues of a particular system or systems shall be refunded under this Act unless all bonds then outstanding which are so payable from the revenues of that system or systems are so refunded. Refunding bonds issued under this Act shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of other laws.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 479, ch. 229.]

Art. 1118w. Mass Transportation Systems; Power to Own, Acquire, Construct, Operate, Etc.; Federal Grants and Loans; Revenue Bonds

Power to Own, Hold, Purchase, Construct, Operate, Etc.

Sec. 1. Any city or town, including any Home Rule City operating under Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, as amended (hereinafter referred to as "city" or "such city") shall have power to own, hold, purchase, construct, improve, extend and operate street transportation systems for the carrying of passengers for hire within such city, its suburbs and adjacent areas.

Mass Transportation Services

Sec. 1a. Any such city or town shall be authorized to accept grants and loans from the United States of America to finance all or a portion of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, and improvement of facilities and equipment for use, by operation or lease or otherwise, in mass transportation service in such city, its suburbs and adjacent areas and in coordinating such service with highway and other transportation in such areas. Any such city or town shall be authorized, either individually or in cooperation with agencies of the United States of America, to undertake research, development and demonstration projects for mass transportation systems in such areas and to acquire, construct and reconstruct and improve facilities and equipment for use, by operation or lease or otherwise, in mass transportation service in such areas, on, under, over, along or across public streets and highways and on lands, easements and rights-of-way acquired for such purpose. Any such city or town shall be authorized to issue revenue bonds for such purposes and all of the provisions of the Act amended hereby shall apply to the additional powers and functions herein authorized.

Revenue Bonds or Notes; Power to Issue, Etc.

Sec. 2. Any such city shall have full power to issue bonds and notes from time to time and in such amounts as it shall consider necessary or appropriate for the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement or extension of such street transportation systems. All such bonds and notes shall be fully negotiable and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuing city, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuing city in the ordinance authorizing such bonds or notes. Such bonds and notes shall be sold for such price as the governing body of the city shall consider to be for the best interest of such city, provided that no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at a rate of more than six per cent (6%) per annum, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds or notes in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding however, from such computations the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds or notes prior to maturity. Subject to the restrictions contained in this Act each such governing board is given complete discretion in fixing the form, conditions and details of such bonds and notes.

Approval of Obligations by Attorney General;
Incontestability

Sec. 3. Prior to delivery thereof, all bonds and notes authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding special obligations of the city issuing same, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration they shall be incontestable.

Notice of Bond Issue Ordinance; Petition for Election

Sec. 4. Before passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes under this Act, the governing body of such city shall give notice of the time when such ordinance is to be passed. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such city, in at least two (2) issues thereof, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date so fixed for passage of the ordinance. Unless prior to the scheduled time for passing the ordinance a petition is filed with the City Secretary, signed by not less than ten per cent (10%) of the qualified voters of the city who have duly rendered their property for taxation, requesting that an election be held on the question of issuing such bonds or notes, the governing body may proceed in the issuance thereof without an election. If such petition is duly filed, it shall be the duty of the governing body to proceed in the manner prescribed in Chapter I of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, with an election on the question, and such bonds or notes shall not be issued unless a majority of the voters, voting at such election, vote favorably on the question. The governing body within its discretion may call an election for the issuance of the bonds or notes without awaiting the filing of a petition requesting a referendum election.

Power to Encumber; Additional Security

Sec. 5. In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes such cities shall have full power and authority to encumber all or any part of such street transportation systems, the properties thereof, the revenues therefrom, the franchise thereof, and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, including but not limited to properties, both real and personal, including motor buses or other vehicles, machinery and other equipment of any nature used in the operation thereof. As additional security for the payment of any such bonds or notes, any such city may, by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance, grant to the purchaser under the power of sale in such instrument, a franchise to operate any such transportation system, and the properties thereof so purchased, for a term of not over twenty-five (25) years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation of any such system shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties, including the pledged revenues, of the system so encumbered and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds or notes for any purpose authorized by law. But no such city shall be prohibited from making payment of such bonds or notes out of any other funds which may be lawfully used for the purpose. Any such city shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item of real estate or personalty, including motor buses or other vehicles, machinery or other equipment of any nature, or to acquire, use, hold, contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage or conditional sale, including but not limited to transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such city from encumbering any one or more transportation systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, mortgaging, enlarging, extending, repairing, or reconstructing another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real and person in connection therewith.

Additional Bond Issues; Extension or Improvement of System; Lien of Bonds

Sec. 6. Any city issuing bonds or notes payable from and secured by a pledge of revenue from the operation of a street transportation system and while all or part of such bonds remain outstanding, shall have the power, from time to time, and on one or more occasions to issue bonds or notes for the purpose of extending or improving, or both, any such transportation system, or to acquire another or other such transportation system or systems, and such bonds or notes shall constitute a lien upon the revenues, in the order of their issuance, inferior to the liens securing the payment of any or all issues and series of bonds or notes previously issued; provided, however, the foregoing provisions shall not be construed to prevent the passage of an ordinance or execution and issuance of any deed of trust, trust indenture, or similar instrument, providing therein for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds or notes on a parity with or of equal dignity with the previously issued revenue bonds or notes, and where any such ordinance, deed of trust, trust indenture or similar instrument may so provide, any such city shall have the power to authorize, issue, and sell additional bonds or notes, from time to time and in different series, payable from the revenues of such transportation system, and the revenues to be derived from such added sources, on a parity with bonds or notes previously issued and secured by liens on such transportation system, on a parity with and of equal dignity with the lien securing bonds or notes previously issued, subject to such conditions as may be contained in the ordinance, deed of trust or trust indenture providing for or securing such issue of original bonds or notes.

Refunding Bonds or Notes

Sec. 7. Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds or notes of a single series or issue or two (2) or more issues or series of bonds or notes and such refunding bonds or notes shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds or notes refunded, provided that when two (2) or more series or issues of bonds or notes are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds or notes the lien of all such refunding bonds or notes shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds or notes of the several series or issues of bonds or notes to be refunded are thus refunded. No refunding bonds or notes shall attain any degree or priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issues then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds or notes shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds or notes refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased so as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes, if any, enjoying a prior or inferior lien. Any such bonds or notes may be so refunded by the issuance of refunding bonds or notes, either to be exchanged for the bonds or notes being refunded and cancelled, or to be sold, with the proceeds thereof to be used for the redemption and cancellation of the bonds or notes being refunded. Such city may provide in any refunding bond or note issue such money as may be needed for paying any call premium and for payment of interest to the date fixed for calling for redemption the outstanding bonds or notes.

Operating Expenses as First Lien on Income; Priorities of Liens; Rates

Sec. 8. Whenever the revenues of any street transportation system shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs, and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such revenues. Provided, that only such extensions, as in the judgment of the governing body of such city, are necessary to keep the system in operation and render adequate service to such city and the inhabitants thereof, or such as might be necessary to meet some condition which would otherwise impair the original securities shall be a charge prior to any existing lien. The fares charged for transportation of passengers by any transportation system may be based on a zone system of determining fares or other fare classification determined by such city to be reasonable. There shall be charged and collected for such service a sufficient rate to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement charges (and to provide for extensions to the extent permitted and limited hereby) and to provide and maintain in the manner and at the times prescribed in such ordinances, deeds of trust and indentures, money sufficient for debt service and reserves for the security and orderly payment of such bonds or notes, unless otherwise deemed necessary by the governing body of the city in order to maintain the level and quality of service desired. Except as may be otherwise permitted under the ordinance authorizing or the deed of trust or indenture securing the bonds or notes, no part of the revenues of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such city, except that any such city may receive payments from any such system in lieu of ad valorem taxes previously paid by the owners of an acquired system until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

Obligations as Legal Investments

Sec. 9. All such bonds and notes shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, saving and loan associations and insurance companies. Such bonds and notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds and notes shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Records and Accounts; Annual Reports; Penalties

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the mayor of such city to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the revenues collected and showing separately the amount either expended or set aside for operation, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, extensions, and for debt service as to such bonds or notes. It shall likewise be the duty of the superintendent or manager of such system to file with the mayor of such city, not later than February 1st, a detailed report of the operations for the year ending January 1st preceding, showing the total sums of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as the result of operation of such system during such calendar year. Failure or refusal on the part of the mayor to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, such system or records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such system, or on the part of such superintendent or manager, to file or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, such mayor or superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); and any taxpayer or holder of such indebtedness residing within such city shall have the right, by appropriate civil action in the District Court of the County in which such city is located, to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Management Pending Encumbrance; Lease of System

Sec. 11. During the time any such system is encumbered either as to its revenues or as to both its physical properties and revenues, the management and control of such system may by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance, be placed with the governing body of such city, or may be placed with a board of trustees to be named in such instrument, consisting of not more than five (5) members, one (1) of whom shall be the mayor of such city. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such instrument, but shall never exceed two per cent (2%) of the gross receipts of such system in any one (1) year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such instrument. In all matters where such instrument is silent, the laws and rules controlling the governing body, of such city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. The governing body of any such city or any board of trustees in whose management and control any such system may be placed, with the approval of the governing body of such city, evidenced by adoption of a resolution, in lieu of operating any such system, shall have power and authority to enter into any lease or other contractual arrangement for the operation of same by any privately owned and operated corporation in consideration of such rentals either guaranteed or contingent, based on revenues or gross profits or net profits, or any other basis of compensation, which may be determined to be reasonable by such governing body or such board as the case may be; providing however, that any such lease or contractual arrangement between such city and private corporation, shall be preceded by a public notice and request for the submission of bids in the manner required by law for the taking of bids for public construction contracts, and said city shall accept the best bid submitted, taking into consideration the rental to be paid, the experience and financial responsibility of the corporations submitting such bids.

Art. 1118x. Metropolitan Rapid Transit Authorities

Findings

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(a) A dominant part of the state's population is located in its rapidly expanding metropolitan areas which generally cross the boundary lines of local jurisdictions and often extend into two or more counties;

(b) The concentration of population in such areas is accompanied by a corresponding concentration of motor vehicles which are generally powered by internal combustion engines that emit pollutants into the air, which emissions result in increasing dangers to the public health and welfare, including damage to and deterioration of property as well as harm to persons, and hazards to air and ground transportation;

(c) Such concentration of motor vehicles places an undue burden on existing streets, freeways and other traffic ways, resulting in serious vehicular traffic congestion that retards mobility of persons and property and adversely affects the health and welfare of the citizens and the economic life of the areas;

(d) The proliferation of the use of motor vehicles for passenger transportation in such areas is caused in substantial part by the absence or inefficiency and high cost of mass transit services available to the citizens of such areas, and it is in the public interest to encourage and provide for efficient and economical local mass rapid transit systems in such areas for the benefit and convenience of the people and for the purpose of improving the quality of the ambient air therein and reducing vehicular traffic congestion; and

(e) The inalienable right of all natural persons to use the air for natural purposes does not vest in any person the right to pollute the air by artificial means, but such artificial use is subject to regulation and control by the state.

Definitions

Sec. 2. The following words and terms, wherever used and referred to in this Act, have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) "Metropolitan area" means any area within the State of Texas having a population density of not less than 250 persons per square mile and containing not less than 51 percent of the incorporated territory comprising a city having a population of not less than 1,200,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future federal census, and in which there may be situated other incorporated cities, towns and villages and the suburban areas and environs thereof.

(b) "Principal city" means the city of largest population in a metropolitan area.

(c) "Authority" means a rapid transit authority created pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(d) "Board" means the governing body of an authority.

(e) "Mass transit" means transportation of passengers and hand carried packages and/or baggage of said passengers by means of motorbus, trolley coach, street railway, rail, suspended overhead rail, elevated railways, subways, or any other surface, overhead or underground transportation (except taxicabs), or by any combination of the foregoing.

(f) "System" means all real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever, owned or held at any time by an authority for mass transit purposes, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing), land, interests in land, buildings, structures, rights-of-way, easements, franchises, rail lines, bus lines, stations, platforms, terminals, rolling stock, garages, shops, equipment and facilities (including vehicle parking areas and facilities and other facilities necessary or convenient for the beneficial use and access of persons and vehicles to stations, terminals, yards, cars, and buses), control houses, signals and land, facilities and equipment for the protection and environmental enhancement of all such facilities.

(g) "Motor vehicle" means a vehicle self-propelled on two or more wheels by an internal combustion engine or motor over roadways other than fixed rails and tracks.

Creation of Rapid Transit Authority

Sec. 3. The governing body of a principal city in a metropolitan area may, on its own motion, and shall, upon being presented with a petition so requesting signed by not less than 5,000 qualified voters residing within such metropolitan area, institute proceedings to create a rapid transit authority in the following manner:

(a) Such governing body shall by ordinance or resolution fix a time and place for holding a public hearing on the proposal to create such an authority, which ordinance or resolution shall define the boundaries of the area proposed to be included in such authority. If it is proposed to make the boundaries of the authority coterminous with the boundaries of the county in which the principal city is located, such resolution or ordinance shall so state and it shall not be necessary otherwise to describe the territory proposed to be included.

(b) Notice of the time and place of such public hearing, including a description of the area proposed to be included in such authority, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in such metropolitan area, the first publication to be not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for such hearing.

(c) The governing body of the principal city shall conduct said hearing at the time and place specified in such notice, and may continue such hearing from day to day and from time to time until completed. Any interested person may appear and offer evidence for or against the creation of the proposed authority, and may present evidence as to whether or not the creation of such proposed authority and the construction and operation of a mass transit system in such metropolitan area

(1) would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority,

(2) would be of public utility, and

(3) would be in the public interest, as well as any other facts bearing upon the creation of such an authority and the construction and operation of such system.

(d) If, after hearing the evidence adduced at such hearing, the governing body of the principal city finds that the creation of such an authority, and the construction and operation of such a system, would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority, would be of public utility, and would be in the public interest, such governing body shall adopt an ordinance creating such authority and prescribing the boundaries thereof. Such boundaries may include all or any part of the area described in such notice but shall not contain additional territory without further notice and hearing in the manner herein provided. The authority shall bear the name of the principal city and shall be known as "_____ Rapid Transit Authority," and when so created and confirmed at an election held for that purpose, shall have and may exercise the powers authorized by this Act.

(e) After such hearing by the governing body of such authority, the said authority shall submit the proposed plan to the governor's interagency transportation council for their review and comment.

Transit Authority Board

Sec. 4. The management, control and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of nine members, five of whom shall be appointed by the governing body of the principal city, two of whom shall be appointed by the commissioners court of the county with the largest population of all counties situated in whole or in part within the boundaries of the authority, and two of whom shall be appointed by the mayors of all incorporated cities, towns and villages (except the principal city) situated in whole or in part within the boundaries of the authority. Three of the members appointed by the governing body of the principal city, one of the members appointed by the commissioners court, and one of the members appointed by the incorporated cities, towns and villages (except the principal city) shall serve for an original term of one year and all other members shall serve for an original term of two years. Thereafter, all members shall serve for a term of two years.

The mayor of the city of largest population (other than the principal city) within the authority shall serve as chairman of an appointment board composed of all mayors of cities, towns and villages situated wholly or partially within the authority (excluding the principal city) and shall, by notice in writing to all members, call such meetings of the appointment board as may be deemed necessary to appoint a member to the board. Initial appointments shall be made within 60 days after the creation of an authority. Failure to make such appointments shall not impair the authority of the board to organize and conduct its business so long as a majority has been appointed and qualified. All vacancies on the board, whether by death, resignation or termination of the term of office, shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the manner provided for the original appointment of the member whose office becomes vacant.

Each member of the board shall be entitled to the sum of $50 for each meeting of the board which he attends, not to exceed five meetings in any calendar month; and shall be reimbursed for his necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties.

The members of the board, who shall be resident citizens and qualified voters of the authority, shall elect from among their number a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary. The board may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the board, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretaries shall, in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the authority, perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the board. No member of the board or officer of the authority shall be pecuniarily interested and/or benefitted, directly or indirectly, in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

Any member of the board may be removed from office by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or malfeasance in office; provided, however, that the board shall furnish to such member a statement in writing of the nature of the charges as grounds for such removal which shall become final unless the member, within 10 days, requests a hearing before the board and opportunity to be heard in person or through counsel. After any such hearing, if the board by a majority vote finds that the charges are true, then its decision shall be final.

The board shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the authority. Upon written notice, the chairman or the general manager may call special meetings as may be necessary. The board, when organized, shall by resolution spread upon the minutes, set the time, place and day of the regular meetings, and shall likewise adopt rules and regulations and such bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. Five members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the board members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

Confirmation and Emission Tax Election

Sec. 5. After the original board is organized, it shall call an election at which the following proposition shall be submitted to the qualified voters within the authority:

"Shall the creation of the _____ Rapid Transit Authority be confirmed and shall the board of such authority be authorized to levy and collect motor vehicle emission taxes?"

Notice of such election shall state the day and place or places for holding the election, the maximum vehicle emission taxes, by category, that may be authorized, and the proposition to be voted on and shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the authority. The first publication shall be at least 15 days before the date set for the election. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Election Code, as amended.

Immediately after such election, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall return the results to the board, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results at the earliest practicable time. If a majority of the votes cast at the election is in favor of confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy and collection of motor vehicle emission taxes, then the board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that the authority is created and that the board is authorized to levy and collect motor vehicle emission taxes, which order shall contain a description of the boundaries of the authority, and a certified copy of which shall be filed with the Texas Mass Transportation Commission and in the deed records of the county or counties in which the authority is located.

If a majority of the votes cast at the election is against confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy and collection of motor vehicle emission taxes, the board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that confirmation of the creation of the authority was defeated, and file a certified copy of such order with the Texas Mass Transportation Commission, whereupon the authority shall be dissolved.

Such election may be held separately or in conjunction with other elections, and the cost thereof shall be paid by the principal city.

Powers of the Authority

Sec. 6. The authority, when created and confirmed, shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including, but not limited to, the following powers herein granted:

(a) The authority shall have perpetual succession.

(b) The authority may sue and be sued in all courts of competent jurisdiction and may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for costs and may appeal from a judgment or judgments without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

(c) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, and may hold, use, sell, lease or dispose of, real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever, and licenses, patents, rights and interests necessary, convenient or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(d) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, own, operate and maintain a system or systems within its boundaries, and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns and villages and political subdivisions, and for such purposes shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, roads, highways and other public ways and to relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, and alter the construction of, any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, pipelines and facilities, conduits and facilities, and other properties, whether publicly or privately owned, as necessary or useful in the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance and operation of the system, or to cause each and all of said things to be done at the authority's sole expense. The authority shall not proceed with any action to change, alter or damage the property or facilities of the state, its municipal corporations, agencies or political subdivisions or of owners rendering public services, or which shall disrupt such services being provided by others, or to otherwise inconvenience the owners of such property or facilities, without having first obtained the written consent of such owners or unless the authority shall have first obtained the right to take such action under its power of eminent domain as herein specified. In the event the owners of such property or facilities desire to handle any such relocation, raising, change in the grade of, or alteration in the construction of such property or facilities with their own forces, or to cause the same to be done by contractors of their own choosing, the authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with such owners providing for the necessary relocations, changes or alterations of such property or facilities by the owners and/or such contractors and the reimbursement by the authority to such owners of the costs incurred by such owners in making such relocations, changes or alterations and/or in causing the same to be accomplished by such contractors.

In the event the authority, in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, makes necessary the relocation, adjustment, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any street, alley, highway or road, any railroad track, bridge or other facilities or properties, any electric lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any telephone or telegraph lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any water, sanitary sewer or storm sewer pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any cable television lines, cables, conduits or other facilities or properties, or any other pipelines and any facilities or properties relating thereto, any and all such relocations, adjustments, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing of grade or altering of construction shall be accomplished at the sole cost and expense of the authority, and all damages which may be suffered by the owners of such property or facilities shall be borne by the authority.

(e) The authority shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space, or any combination thereof; provided that such right shall not be exercised in a manner which would unduly interfere with interstate commerce or which would authorize the authority to run its vehicles on railroad tracks which are used to transport property.

Eminent domain proceedings brought by the authority shall be governed by the provisions of Title 52, Eminent Domain, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they now exist or hereafter may be amended,¹ insofar as such provisions are not inconsistent with this Act. Proceedings for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be commenced by the adoption by the board of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by the authority of the property or interest therein described in the resolution, and that such acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement or development of the system and is in the public interest. The resolution of the authority shall be conclusive evidence of the public necessity of such proposed acquisition and that such real or personal property or interest therein is necessary for public use.

(f) The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with any other public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, or transportation system for the joint use of their respective facilities, installations and properties of whatever kind and character within the authority and to establish through routes, joint fares or transfer of passengers.

(g) The authority shall establish and maintain rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated or maintained by the authority which shall be reasonable and nondiscriminatory and which, together with receipts from motor vehicle emission taxes collected by the authority, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;

(2) to pay the interest on and principal of all bonds issued by the authority under this Act which are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(3) to pay all sinking fund and reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out of such taxes and revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(4) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or with any person in their behalf.

It is the intention of this Act that the motor vehicle emission taxes and the rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such motor vehicle emission taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in Subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4), of this subsection next above, or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and all other obligations of the authority in connection with such bonds, are fully met and discharged.

(h) The authority may make contracts, leases and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons, and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditional sales contracts, leases, equipment trust certificates, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. Any revenue bond indenture may provide limitations upon the exercise of the powers stated in this section and such limitations shall apply so long as any of the revenue bonds issued pursuant to such indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(i) The authority may sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests or properties which are not needed for, or, in the case of leases, which are not inconsistent with, the efficient operation and maintenance of the system. It may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, at any time, any surplus materials or personal or real property not needed for its requirements or for the purpose of carrying out its power under this Act.

(j) The authority shall by resolution make all rules and regulations governing the use, operation and maintenance of the system and shall determine all routings and change the same whenever it is deemed advisable by the authority.

(k) The authority shall have power to lease the system or any part thereof to, or contract for the use or operation of the system or any part thereof by, any operator; provided, however, that a lease of the entire system shall be subject to the written consent and approval of the governing body of the principal city.

(l) The acquisition of any land or interest therein pursuant to this Act, the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority's system and facilities, and the exercise of any other powers herein granted an authority, are hereby declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity.

Bonds and Notes

Sec. 7. (a) The authority shall have no power to assess, levy or collect any ad valorem taxes on property, nor to issue any bonds or notes secured by ad valorem tax revenues. The authority, however, shall have the full power to issue bonds and notes, from time to time and in such amounts as it shall consider necessary or appropriate, for the acquisition, purchase, construction, reconstruction, repair, equipping, improvement or extension of such rapid transit system or systems and all properties thereof whether real, personal or mixed. All such bonds and notes shall be fully negotiable and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuing authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuing authority in the resolution authorizing such bonds or notes, and may be sold at public or private sale whichever the board may deem more advantageous.

(b) Prior to delivery thereof, all bonds and notes authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding obligations of the authority issuing same, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration and the sale and delivery of the bonds to the purchaser, they shall be incontestable.

(c) In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes, such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber and pledge all or any part of the receipts from motor vehicle emission taxes and all or any part of the revenues of its rapid transit system or systems, and to mortgage and encumber all or any part of the properties thereof, and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds and notes in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. As additional security for the payment of any such bonds or notes, any such authority may, by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance, grant to the purchaser under the power of sale in such instrument, a franchise to operate any such rapid transit system or systems, and the properties thereof, for a term not to exceed 25 years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. If not prohibited by the resolution or indenture relating to outstanding bonds or notes, any such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item or items of real estate or personalty, including motorbuses, transit cars and other vehicles, machinery and other equipment of any nature, and to acquire, use, hold or contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage or conditional sale, including, but not limited to, transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such authority from encumbering any one or more rapid transit systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, enlarging, extending, repairing or reconstructing, another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real, personal and mixed, in connection therewith.

(d) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purposes and in the manner provided by general law, including, without limitation, Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

(e) Whenever the revenues of any rapid transit system shall be encumbered under this Act, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials and repairs necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such revenues. The fares charged for transportation of passengers by any rapid transit system may be based on a zone system of determining fares or other fare classification determined by such authority to be reasonable.

(f) All such bonds and notes shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations and insurance companies. Such bonds and notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds and notes shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

(g) If revenue bonds are to be issued by an authority to acquire any existing transportation system, or any part thereof, and the owner thereof is willing to accept said revenue bonds in lieu of cash, then in that event the revenue bonds may be exchanged for the property or for the stock of a corporation owning the property to be dissolved simultaneously.

Motor Vehicle Emission Taxes

Sec. 8. (a) The board of an authority shall be authorized to levy and cause to be collected motor vehicle emission taxes as herein provided. Such taxes shall be collected by the county tax assessor-collector of each county, situated in whole or in part within the authority from each motor vehicle owner whose residence is within such county and within the authority. Not later than November 1 of each year, the board shall certify to the county tax assessor-collector of each county situated in whole or in part within the authority's boundaries the rate of tax prescribed for each class of motor vehicles for the ensuing tax year. At the time the owner of a motor vehicle applies each year to the State Highway Department through the county tax assessor-collector of the county in which he resides for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him for the ensuing or current motor vehicle registration year or unexpired portion thereof, such owner shall pay to the county tax assessor-collector the motor vehicle emission taxes due or to become due to such authority on such motor vehicle for the ensuing or current tax year at the applicable rate prescribed by the board. The county tax assessor-collector shall refuse to issue a registration license for a motor vehicle until the emission tax thereon for the period covered by such registration license has been paid.

(b) The tax year for motor vehicle emission taxes shall consist of calendar quarters, the first quarter to commence on April 1 of each year. Each application so filed during the second quarter, the third quarter, or the fourth quarter shall be accompanied by three-fourths, one-half, or one-quarter, respectively, of the annual tax; and each application for re-registration filed subsequent to June 30th shall be accompanied by an affidavit that such vehicle has not been previously operated within the boundaries of the authority during any quarter of the current tax year, failing which the tax for the entire tax year shall be paid in full.

(c) The authority shall furnish to the tax assessor-collector of each county situated in whole or in part within the boundaries of the authority, motor vehicle emission tax receipts in triplicate each of which shall, when issued, bear a number or other identifying symbol of the motor vehicle for which issued. The tax assessor-collector shall retain one copy and deliver the original to the taxpayer.

(d) Each tax assessor-collector shall receive a uniform fee of 45 cents for each tax receipt issued by him each tax year pursuant to this Act. Such fees shall be used to pay expenses reasonably incurred in collecting such taxes and issuing all tax receipts pursuant hereto.

(e) Each tax assessor-collector shall remit to the authority on or before the 15th day of each month, or at such other intervals of time as may be agreed upon by the authority and each tax assessor-collector, all taxes, penalties and interest collected on behalf of the authority for the preceding calendar month, or other agreed time interval, after deducting the collection fees and mailing charges described in the next preceding paragraph.

Rate of Tax

Sec. 9. Motor vehicles shall be classified by groups based upon the number of cubic inches of cylinder displacement of their motors or engines and the maximum emissions tax which may be levied by any authority shall not exceed the respective annual sums shown in the following table:

Cubic Inches of Cylinder Displacement	Annual Tax Per Vehicle
0-50	$ 4
51-100	6
101-200	7
201-300	8
301-900	10
901 or more	15

The board of an authority shall each year fix the rate of tax for each group by fixing the percentage (not more than 100) of the foregoing respective maximum rates, which percentage shall apply equally and uniformly to all groups and to all members of each group.

Exempt Vehicles

Sec. 10. The owners of motor vehicles listed below shall be exempt from the payment of emission taxes on such vehicles, as follows:

(a) Those vehicles which are the property of and used exclusively in the service of the United States government, the State of Texas, or any county, city, school district or rapid transit authority thereof.

(b) Those used exclusively for fire-fighting; and

(c) Those owned by any person, association, corporation or partnership residing within the boundaries of an authority and doing business both within and without or wholly without such boundaries, which motor vehicles are not stationed or customarily kept within the boundaries of the authority and which are not regularly operated within such boundaries. "Regularly operated" means an average of two days per calendar week in a tax year or portion thereof for which such tax accrues. Residents of an authority claiming an exemption under this Subparagraph (c) shall file an affidavit with the county tax assessor-collector specifying the vehicles claimed to be exempted.

Payments and Penalties

Sec. 11. Motor vehicle emission taxes shall be due and payable on February 1 of each year for which levied and shall become delinquent if not paid by April 1 of such year; provided that taxes on vehicles becoming subject to such taxes after April 1 of any tax year shall be due and payable on the date such taxes accrue and shall become delinquent if not paid within 60 days thereafter.

The following penalties shall be payable on delinquent emission taxes, to wit: During the first month after delinquency, one percent; during the second month, two percent; during the third month, three percent; during the fourth month, four percent; during the fifth month, five percent; and during or after the sixth month, eight percent.

All delinquent emission taxes shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of their delinquency until paid.

Neither the levy, collection nor payment of a motor vehicle emissions tax shall be construed to authorize any act prohibited by law or by any rule or regulation lawfully promulgated.

Management

Sec. 12. The responsibility for the management, operation and control of the properties belonging to an authority shall be vested in its board. The board may:

(a) employ all persons, firms, partnerships or corporations deemed necessary by the board for the conduct of the affairs of the authority, including, but not limited to, a general manager, bookkeepers, auditors, engineers, attorneys, financial advisers and operating or management companies, and prescribe the duties, tenure and compensation of each. All employees may be removed by the board;

(b) become a subscriber under the Texas Workmen's Compensation Act with any old-line legal-reserve insurance company authorized to write policies in the State of Texas;

(c) adopt a seal for the authority;

(d) invest funds of the authority in direct or indirect obligations of the United States, the state, or any county, city, school district or other political subdivision of the state; funds of the authority may be placed in certificates of deposit of state or national banks or savings and loan associations within the state provided that they are secured in the manner provided for the security of the funds of counties of the State of Texas; the board, by resolution, may provide that an authorized representative of the authority may invest and reinvest the funds of the authority and provide for money to be withdrawn from the appropriate accounts of the authority for the investments on such terms as the board considers advisable;

(e) fix the fiscal year for the authority;

(f) establish a complete system of accounts for the authority and each year shall have prepared an audit of its affairs by an independent certified public accountant or a firm of independent certified public accountants which shall be open to public inspection; and

(g) designate one or more banks to serve as the depository for the funds of the authority.

All funds of the authority shall be deposited in the depository bank or banks unless otherwise required by orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the authority's bonds or notes.

To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of funds of counties of the State of Texas.

The board, by resolution, may authorize a designated representative to supervise the substitution of securities pledged to secure the authority's funds.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 13. The board may adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations:

(a) to secure and maintain safety and efficiency in the operation and maintenance of its facilities;

(b) governing the use of the authority's facilities and services by the public and the payment of fares, tolls and charges;

(c) regulating privileges on any land, easement, right-of-way, rolling stock or other property owned or controlled by the authority; and

(d) regulating the collection and payment of emission taxes levied by the board.

A condensed substantive statement of the rules and regulations and the penalty for their violation shall be published after adoption once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper with general circulation in the area in which the authority is located, which notice shall advise that breach of the rules and regulations will subject the violator to a penalty and that the full text of the rules and regulations is on file in the principal office of the authority where it may be read by any interested person. Such rules and regulations shall become effective 10 days after the second publication.

The board may set reasonable penalties for the breach of any rule or regulation of the authority which shall not exceed fines of more than $200 or imprisonment for more than 30 days or both. Such penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by the laws of the state and may be enforced by complaint filed in the appropriate court of jurisdiction in the county in which the authority's principal office is located.

An authority may employ its own peace officers with power to make arrests when necessary to prevent or abate the commission of an offense against the rules and regulations of the authority and against the laws of the state when the offense or threatened offense occurs on any land, easement, right-of-way, rolling stock or other property owned and controlled by the authority and to make arrests in cases of an offense involving injury or detriment to any property owned or controlled by the authority.

Competitive Bids

Sec. 14. Contracts for more than $2,000 for the construction of improvements or the purchase of material, machinery, equipment, supplies and all other property except real property, shall be let on competitive bids after notice published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to be at least 15 days before the date fixed for receiving bids, in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the authority is located. The board may adopt rules governing the taking of bids and the awarding of such contracts. This section shall not apply to personal and professional services or to the acquisition of existing transit systems.

Exemption of Bicounty Metropolitan Areas

Sec. 15. It is specifically provided that there shall not be included within the metropolitan area, as herein defined, any part of the territory situated within a bicounty metropolitan area. For the purpose of this exclusion, a "bicounty metropolitan area" is defined as an area comprised of two contiguous counties in each of which is located a city having a population of 350,000 or more according to the last preceding or any future federal census.

Right to Enter Land

Sec. 16. Engineers, employees, and representatives of an authority may go on any land within the authority boundaries to make surveys and examine the land with reference to the location of works, improvements, plants, facilities, equipment or appliances and to attend to any business of the authority; provided that two weeks' notice be given to the owners in possession and that if any of the authority's activities cause damage to the land or property, the land or property shall be restored as nearly as possible to the original state at the sole expense of the authority.

Exemptions from Taxes

Sec. 17. The property, revenues and income of the authority and the interest on bonds and notes issued by the authority shall be exempt from all taxes levied or to be levied by the State of Texas, its political subdivisions, counties or municipal corporations.

Severability Clause

Sec. 18. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision.

Construction of Act

Sec. 19. This Act shall be liberally construed to carry out the purpose of its adoption. This Act shall be cumulative of other laws on the subject but insofar as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 302, ch. 141, eff. May 21, 1973.]

3. CITY REGULATION

Art. 1119. Rates Prescribed, Etc.

The governing body of all incorporated cities and towns in this State incorporated under the General Laws thereof shall have the power to regulate, by ordinance, the rates and compensation to be charged by all persons, companies, or corporations using the streets and public grounds of said city or town, and engaged in furnishing water, gas, telephone, light, power, or sewerage service to the public, and also to prescribe rules and regulations under which such commodities shall be furnished, and service rendered, and to fix penalties to enforce such charges, rules, and regulations. The governing body shall not prescribe any rate or compensation which will yield more than a fair return upon the fair value of the property used and useful in rendering its service to the public, but which return in no event shall ever exceed eight (8) per cent per annum.

Art. 1120. Protective Ordinances, Etc.

The governing body shall have power to pass such ordinances as they may deem proper to protect any said company, corporation or person, in the free enjoyment of all their rights and franchises, to protect any interference with their property or privileges, and to prevent the free or unauthorized use or waste of the water or other commodity or service furnished.

Art. 1121. Reports

Any such company, corporation or person who may be engaged in furnishing to the inhabitants of any such city or town any water, light, gas or sewerage service, shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, file with the mayor of such city or town a written report sworn to by the manager, secretary or president of such corporation, by a member of such company, and by any such person, which shall show:

1. The amount of any lien or mortgage upon the properties composing such plant;

2. All other indebtedness pertaining to such enterprise and the consideration therefor;

3. The actual cost of the visible physical properties, date when installed and the present value thereof, and herein the lands, machinery, buildings, pipes, poles, circuits, mains shall each be treated separately;

4. The annual cost of operating such plant, showing separate items, the amount paid for actual salaries, amount paid for labor of all kinds, fixed charges, including interest, taxes and insurance, giving each separately, amount paid for fuel, for extension and repairs, giving each separately, and particularizing the extension and repairs, the cost of maintenance, amount paid for damages, claim or suits for damages, identifying each claim or suit, amount paid for miscellaneous expenses, and, if any machinery or equipment is abandoned, worn out or its use discontinued within the preceding year, the same shall be stated, the original cost, and the present value thereof shall be given;

5. The report shall give the gross earnings from any such plant, including revenues from every source whatever, stating items separately, amount received by each department.

Art. 1122. Penalties

Any such corporation, or any member of such company, or any such person mentioned in this chapter, who shall for thirty days wilfully refuse or fail to report in the manner provided by this chapter, shall forfeit and pay to any such city or town the sum of one hundred dollars per day for each and every day during which it shall continue in default; or, if any such corporation, or company, or person, shall file any report, knowing that the same does not truly report the facts about the matters mentioned therein, it shall forfeit and pay to such city or town the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for each such wilfully false report. Such forfeitures and penalties shall be recovered at the suit of such city or town brought in the county where such city or town is located.

Art. 1123. City Owned Plants

The governing body of any city or town incorporated under the general laws shall have the power where such city or town owns the plant, to regulate by ordinance, the rates and compensation to be charged the public by such city or town for water, sewerage, gas, electricity or other fluid or substance used for lights, heat or power, to establish and operate necessary plants for the manufacture, generation or production thereof, and to sell and distribute the same to the public within the corporate limits.

Art. 1124. Rates in Certain Cities

Any city having a special charter or a charter adopted or amended under the provisions of chapter 13 of this title,¹ and having authority under its charter to determine, fix and regulate the charges, fares or rates of compensation to be charged by any person, firm or corporation enjoying a franchise in said city, shall in determining, fixing and regulating such charges, fares or rates of compensation, base the same upon the fair value of the property of such person, firm or corporation devoted to furnishing service to such city, or the inhabitants thereof, and not upon any stocks or bonds issued or authorized to be issued, by, or any other indebtedness of, such person, firm or corporation. No city shall be responsible for, concerned with, authorize, approve or have jurisdiction over, the issuance or sale of any stocks or bonds by any such person, firm or corporation, but the issuance and sale thereof shall be governed solely by the Constitution and laws of this State applicable thereto.

Art. 1124a. Official Reading of Meters

Sec. 1. That hereafter any consumer or user of electric power, current, natural or artificial gas furnished by any private concern in any city, town or village in this State on complaint made to the city Commissioner or city council of any city, town or village within this State, shall have the right to have any meter which measures the amount of electricity or gas installed by the person furnishing said electrical current or gas for the purpose of ascertaining what amount to charge him for the use thereof, examined, read and tested by the agents, servants and employees of the city commissioners or city council, as the case may be; said agents, servants and employees being hereby given the right to break the seal, and examine, read and test the various meters and similar devices, in company with an agent of the furnisher of said electrical power, current and gas, if said furnisher desire its representative to be present, if not, then such examination to be had without him but three days' notice shall be given to all persons, firms or corporations furnishing said electricity or gas of said test.

Sec. 2. The word "meter" as used in this Act applies to any instrument, apparatus or machine used for measuring electric currents or gas and recording the results obtained.

Sec. 3. The words "person" and "furnisher" used in this Act refer to any corporation, association, partnership or individual engaged in furnishing electricity, electric current, electrical power or gas for consumption for hire in cities.

Sec. 4. That on demand of¹ said city council or city commissioners shall furnish the complaining consumer with a detailed report of the result of their reading, examination and testing of said meters or other said measuring devices for electrical current, or gas as hereinbefore referred to, said report to state whether or not said meter or measuring device is functioning properly, is in good condition, and the amount of electrical current, power or gas used by the consumer for any period of time preceding of not more than one year, such period to be designated by the consumer in his complaint hereinbefore mentioned.

Sec. 5. Any person or furnisher of electrical power and current or gas who fails or refuses to allow the agents of city commissioners or city council of any cities, towns or villages of the class hereinbefore mentioned to examine the meters and measuring devices hereinbefore referred to, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred ($200.00) dollars, each and every day of such refusal to constitute a separate offense.

¹ So in enrolled bill. Word "of" probably should be omitted.

4. JUDICIAL REGULATION

Art. 1125. Excessive Rates

All extortionate and unreasonable rates charged by public utility corporations, as hereinafter defined, are hereby declared to be unlawful; and the district courts of this State are hereby vested with jurisdiction and full power and authority to regulate, prevent and abolish the same; and said courts are given the power and authority whenever the public interest may require, to fix and establish rates for the service and products of all public utility corporations, and whenever the public interest may require and to carry out the provisions herein conferred, said courts are hereby expressly authorized to issue injunctions, quo warranto, and all other writs for the purpose of carrying out and making effective the purposes of this chapter, and said writs shall be governed by the rules and regulations now prescribed by law. No proceeding shall be begun in the district court having for its purpose the fixing or¹ rates of public utility corporations until and unless the city council of the city or town desiring to invoke the power herein conferred upon the district courts shall comply with the provisions of the succeeding article.

¹ So in enrolled bill. Probably should read "of".

Art. 1126. Complaint

If the city council of any city or town incorporated under the general laws of this State, shall desire to invoke the power of the district court granted in the preceding article, such council shall, by a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to said council, pass a resolution setting forth the matters complained of, naming the corporation against which the complaint is made, and in a general way the reasons for such complaint, and shall cause a copy of the same to be delivered to the president, vice president or secretary of said corporation, or cause to be left a copy of said resolution at the principal office of such corporation.

Art. 1127. Suit

If, within twenty days after the said corporation has been furnished with a copy of the resolution of the city council, the wrongs complained of shall not be corrected to the satisfaction of the city council, a petition setting forth the wrongs and grievances complained of, and stating the relief sought, may be filed in the name of the city or town as plaintiff against the corporation as defendant in any district court of the county in which such city or town may be situated. Process shall be issued upon said petition, and be served upon such corporation as now provided by law in civil cases. The case shall be set for trial in the same manner as other civil cases, except that it shall have precedence over all cases of a different character filed in such court as to the time of trial. Process shall issue in said cause in the same manner as process may issue in civil cases. The right of trial by jury of the issues involved shall also be given upon the demand of either party.

Art. 1128. Trial

Upon the trial of the cause, the court or jury, in arriving at a decision as to whether or not the rates complained of are reasonable or extortionate, and in fixing the rates, shall consider the cost of construction of the plant of the public utility corporation against which the petition is filed, the cost of the operation of such plant, its maintenance and repairs, the fixed charges that may be against the corporation, amount invested in such plant, and such other matters as may be material to the issues. The court trying the same shall have the power to order the corporation to make profert of its books and records for inspection in court in determining the question in issue. After a full hearing of all the evidence adduced, the court or jury shall have power, and it shall be their duty to fix the rates which may be charged by such public utility corporation; provided, that the rates fixed must be sufficient to yield such public utility company not less than ten per cent upon the investment, and the same shall continue in force for a period of three years. The rates fixed shall be entered of record upon the minutes of the court, and shall be held conclusive, as reasonable, fair and just, and shall remain for three years as the rates to be charged by such corporation, unless changed or modified by the judgment of said district court, or by the appellate courts to which either of the parties to said suit may appeal, or have writ of error.

Art. 1129. Appeal

If either party to the suit shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the court and the rate thereby established, an appeal may be taken by either party to the proper court of civil appeals, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said court of civil appeals, and shall have precedence in such court of all cases of a different character therein pending. The parties to said suit may apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of error.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1130. Enforcement

When the final judgment is rendered in any cause fixing the rates to be charged by said corporation, the court rendering such judgment shall order in its decree the enforcement of the same; and is authorized and empowered to provide in its decree that, if the same is not obeyed according to the terms thereof, the said corporation shall forfeit its charter if the same be a domestic corporation, or its permit to do business in this State if the corporation be a foreign corporation. If said order or decree be violated, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, or county or district attorney, under the direction of the Attorney General, to institute suit in the district court of the county in which such corporation may have its principal office, or in Travis County, for the forfeiture of the charter of such corporation, or the cancellation of its permit, as the case may be, and, if said charter be forfeited or permit canceled, the offending corporation shall thereafter be prohibited from carrying on its business within this State.

Art. 1131. Corporations Affected

The public utilities included within the meaning of this subdivision are defined to be water companies furnishing water to the public; gas companies furnishing gas to the public; electric light or power companies furnishing light or power to the public; telephone companies furnishing telephones to the public; sewerage companies conducting sewerage for the public, whether said companies are incorporated under the laws of this or a foreign State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1132. Cities Affected

Any city within this State, incorporated under a special law, may at its option, avail itself of the provisions of this subdivision, but the same shall be cumulative of any other method which may now be provided in such special charter, and this law shall not repeal any provisions of such special charters.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1133. May be Incorporated

When a town or village contains more than two hundred (200) and less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, it may be incorporated as a town or village in the manner prescribed in Chapter 11, Title 28, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and all amendments thereto.

Art. 1134. Mode of Incorporation

If the inhabitants of such town or village desire to be so incorporated, at least twenty residents thereof, who would be qualified voters under the provisions of this chapter, shall file an application for that purpose in the office of the county judge of the county in which the town or village is situated, stating the boundaries of the proposed town or village, the name by which it is to be known when incorporated, and accompany the same with a plat of the proposed town or village including therein no territory except that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes. If any town or village be situated on both sides of a line dividing two counties, application may be made to the county judge of either county in which a portion of said town or village is located, in manner and form as herein provided. A new election shall not be ordered in less than one year.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1134a. Incorporation of Cities and Towns Validated

Irregularities Not Invalidating Incorporation

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated and/or attempted in good faith to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or under the commission form of government, and which have in good faith functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated, as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid on account of irregularities in the petition for election, order for election, notice of election, returns of election, order declaring result of election, or other incorporation proceedings.

Governmental Proceedings Validated

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed in good faith by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, respectively, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective dates of such proceedings, and such governmental proceedings shall be effective the same as if such cities and towns had been regularly incorporated in the first instance.

Inapplicable to City or Town in Litigation

Sec. 3. The provisions of this bill shall affect no city or town now in litigation.

Art. 1134b. Validating Incorporation of Cities of 600 or Over

All cities and towns of six hundred inhabitants or more which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of Title XXVIII and to become incorporated cities and towns of six hundred inhabitants or more under the General Laws of Texas, and have failed to comply with all the requirements of said General Laws, or which are not included within the literal meaning of those cities which are authorized to accept the provisions of said general laws, and all towns and villages incorporated under Chapter 14 or Chapter 11 of Title XXVIII of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and which now have six hundred inhabitants or more, and which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of Title XXVIII and to become incorporated cities of six hundred inhabitants or more, but which said cities have from and after the dates of their several attempted incorporations and their several efforts to accept the provisions of said Title XXVIII, have exercised the functions of cities of the class named, and were by the State of Texas recognized as such cities, are hereby declared to be cities of six hundred inhabitants; and the several acts whereby they attempted to accept the provisions of said law are hereby in all things validated; and that all subsequent acts of said cities and towns done and performed as a city of six hundred inhabitants or more, after they had attempted to accept the provisions of said law, as aforesaid, are hereby validated and declared to be as binding as if said cities had been duly and legally incorporated; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as validating any act of said cities or the councils thereof, unless the same were authorized by the General Laws of the State under which they were attempting to act at the several dates when said acts were done; and provided, further, that the provisions of this article shall not validate the act of any town or city in adding additional territory to such city or town without the consent of such inhabitants so added to such city or town.

Art. 1134c. Validation of Incorporation of Cities and Towns between 200 and 10,000

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of more than two hundred (200) and less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and Senate Bill 144, passed by the Forty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1941,¹ whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election may have been ordered by the Commissioners Court instead of the County Judge, nor shall such incorporation be held invalid on account of irregularities in the petition for election, order of election, notice of election, returns of election, order declaring result of election, or other incorporation proceedings.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, respectively, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective dates of such proceedings, and such governmental proceedings shall be effective the same as if such cities and towns had been regularly incorporated in the first instance.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall affect no city or town now in litigation.

Art. 1135. Adjoining Territory Added

Whenever a majority of the inhabitants, who are qualified voters of any territory adjoining the limits of any town or village incorporated hereunder, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said town or village, any three of them may make affidavit to such fact and file such affidavit with the mayor of said town or village, and such mayor shall certify the same to the council of said town or village. Thereupon, such council may, by ordinance, receive such inhabitants as a part of said town or village. Thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said town or village and the inhabitants shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens and bound by all the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this chapter; provided, that the area of no town or village shall ever exceed that of cities or towns, as provided for in chapter one of this title.¹

Art. 1136. Election Order

If satisfactory proof is made that the town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, the county judge shall make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated and at a place designated within the town or village for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people. He shall appoint an officer to preside at the election, who shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding it. After a previous notice of ten days, by posting advertisement thereof at three public places in the town or village, the election shall be held in the manner prescribed for holding elections in other cases.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1137. Qualifications of Electors

Every person who has attained the age of twenty-one years and who has resided within the limits of the proposed town for the six months next preceding and is a qualified elector under the laws of this State, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1138. Ballots

On each ticket the voter must write or cause to be written or printed, "corporation" or "no corporation."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1139. Returns

If a majority of the votes are cast in favor of incorporation the officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the county judge within ten days after the same was held. The county judge shall, within twenty days after the receipt thereof make an entry upon the records of the commissioners court that the inhabitants of the town or village are incorporated within the boundaries thereof; which boundaries shall also be designated in the entry. A certified copy of such entry, together with the plat of the town or village, shall thereupon be recorded in the proper record of deeds of such county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1139a. Validating the Incorporation of Certain Cities and Towns

Where, in any city or town heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, the petition calling for an election for the purpose of incorporating any such city or town, the order of the County Judge ordering such election, the notice, or notices of such election, the order of the County Judge declaring the result of such election, by inadvertence, oversight, or mistake, contained an incorrect description by metes and bounds of the territory incorporated or here attempted to be incorporated as such city or town, or where any other such irregularity in the proceedings for such incorporation was had; and where the governing body of such city or town has entered an ordinance correcting and setting forth the true field notes of the territory so incorporated or attempted to be incorporated, or where such ordinance has been entered correcting any other such irregularity in the proceedings for the incorporation of such city or town, and where such city or town has been acting or operating as an incorporated city or town, such incorporation, and any and all ordinances correcting the field notes, or any other irregularity of the proceedings has¹ for incorporation, are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed and validated and such cities or towns are hereby declared to be legally and validly incorporated.

Art. 1140. Powers of Corporation

When the entry mentioned in the preceding article has been made, the town shall be invested with all the rights incident to such corporation under this chapter, and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to hold and dispose of real and personal property, provided such real property is situated within the limits of the corporation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1141. Election of Officers

The county judge shall immediately order an election for a mayor, a marshal and five aldermen. No person shall be eligible to any of said offices unless he possess the requisites provided by this chapter for persons qualified to vote hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1142. Commission

The county judge shall, immediately after the returns have been made, commission the candidate who received the highest number of votes for the office of mayor, and shall deliver certificates of election to the other officers elected.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1143. Term of Office

(a) The mayor, alderman and all other officers elected at the first election under this chapter, regardless of the time of such first election, shall hold their offices until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified at the next succeeding annual election, according to the provisions of the succeeding article.

(b) In lieu of one year terms of office, the board of aldermen may provide by ordinance for two year staggered terms of office for the mayor and aldermen. If such an ordinance is adopted, the mayor and two aldermen, determined by lot at the first meeting of the board of aldermen following the next annual election after the adoption of the ordinance, shall serve two year terms. The remaining aldermen hold office for an initial term of one year. Thereafter, all members of the board of aldermen hold office for terms of two years and until their successors have qualified.

Art. 1144. Annual Election

The annual election of officers of all towns and villages incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year. The mayor, or in case of his inability or refusal to act, any two aldermen, shall order such annual election by notices posted for at least twenty days at three public places within the corporate limits. The returns of such election shall be made to the town or village council, and certificates of election given by the mayor or person acting as such to the persons elected to the various offices of such corporation.

Art. 1145. Quorum May Pass By-laws

The mayor shall be the president of the board of aldermen and shall, with three of the aldermen, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and the quorum shall have power to enact such by-laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State as shall be deemed proper for the government of the corporation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1146. Powers of Aldermen

The board of aldermen shall:

1. Have power to levy and collect an occupation tax of not more than one-half of the amount levied by the State; also to levy taxes on persons and property, real and personal, within the corporation, subject to taxation by the laws of this State; but the tax on persons and property shall not, in any one year, exceed the rate of one-fourth of one per cent on the one hundred dollars valuation.

2. Have and exercise exclusive control over the streets, alleys and other public places within the corporate limits; provided, that, with the consent of the board of aldermen, where streets are continuations of public roads, the commissioners court shall have power to construct bridges and other improvements thereon which facilitate the practicability of travel on said streets.

3. Have the power to cause the male inhabitants between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years, except ministers of the gospel actually engaged in the discharge of their duties, to work on the streets and public alleys not to exceed five days in any one year, or furnish a substitute, or a sum of money, not to exceed one dollar for each day's work demanded, to employ such substitute.

4. Prevent, as far as practicable, any nuisances within the limits of the corporation, and cause such as exist to be removed at the expense of the person by whom they were occasioned or upon whose property they may be found.

5. Have power to prescribe the fine to be imposed by the mayor for the violation of any by-laws or ordinance, which shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars; but no fine shall be imposed except upon the verdict of a jury, should the defendant demand a trial by jury.

6. Fill, for the unexpired term, any vacancy which may occur in any office created by this chapter or by the board of aldermen under its provisions, such vacancy to be filled by the acting aldermen.

7. Have power to appoint such officers, other than those mentioned in this chapter, as shall be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of the same, to prescribe their duties and to fix their compensation; and shall also have power to dismiss them at any time and appoint others in their stead.

8. Prescribe the bonds and security which the marshal and such other officers as may be appointed shall give, which shall be executed and approved by the mayor, before the marshal or other officer shall enter upon the discharge of his duties, said bond to be payable to the corporation.

9. Have power to appoint another marshal or officer in the place of the one so elected or appointed if the bond required in the preceding paragraph is not given within five days after the marshal is elected or appointed.

10. The board of aldermen may establish markets and may do whatever else may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 1147. Powers of Marshal

The marshal shall have the same power within the town that constables shall have within their precincts, and shall be entitled to the same fees. He shall discharge all other duties that may be prescribed by the by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and shall receive therefor such fees as may be fixed by the board. He shall assess and collect the corporation tax, and if the same be not voluntarily paid, he shall have power to make the collection in the same manner and with like effect as is prescribed in chapter 5 of this title for collection of taxes in cities, so far as applicable.

Art. 1148. Tax Sales

When any property shall be liable to assessment for corporation taxes, and the owner is unknown, such property shall be valued by the marshal and assessed by its description, stating that the owner of the property is unknown; unless the taxes are paid, the property shall be sold for the payment thereof, as nearly as may be in the manner in which such property when duly rendered is required to be sold, and the sale shall be equally valid. Real estate sold for taxes due the corporation may be redeemed as provided in chapter 5 of this title. Where the purchaser does not reside within the limits of the corporation, the estate may be redeemed by making the payment into the treasury of the corporation for the benefit of the purchaser.

Art. 1149. Condemnation for Highways

Any town or village in this State, incorporated under this chapter or by special charter, shall have the right, and they are hereby empowered, to condemn the right of way and roadbed of any railway company whose roadbed runs within the corporate limits of such town or village, when deemed necessary and so declared, by a majority vote of the board of aldermen, for the purpose of opening, widening or extending the streets of such town or village; provided, there are less than four railroad tracks. Failing to agree on the damages to be paid therefor, the mayor shall prepare a statement in writing showing the point on said railroad right of way where said street is desired to be opened, widened or extended, giving the width and length of that portion of the right of way of the railroad sought to be condemned, and describing it so that it can be clearly identified, the object for which it is sought to be condemned, the name and style of the railway company, and file the same with the county judge of the county in which such town or village is situated, whereupon proceedings shall be had to condemn said right of way.

Art. 1150. Commissioners Court May Condemn

County commissioners shall have the right, upon petition of twenty freeholders of any community, or unincorporated town or city, to condemn roadbed of railroads for the same purpose mentioned in the preceding article.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1151. Crossings: Duty of Railroad

Every railroad company in this State shall place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way over or across which any public street of any incorporated town or village may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public; and in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed, by the town marshal of such town or village, it shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each week such railroad may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article, recoverable in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved, in a suit in the name of such town or village.

Art. 1152. Publication of Ordinances

Sec. 1. No ordinance or by-law shall be enforced until it has been published at least ten days in three public places in the town, or in a newspaper if one be published in the corporation. If no newspaper is published in the corporation, such ordinance or by-law may be published in some newspaper having general circulation in the town. If such newspaper be published weekly, the publication shall be made in one issue thereof.

Sec. 2. In lieu of the publication required in Section 1 of this Article, the governing body may in its discretion provide for the publication of a descriptive caption or title, stating in summary the purpose of the ordinance or by-law and the penalty for violation thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 468, ch. 212, § 1, eff. May 19, 1967.]

Art. 1153. Amendment of Charter

Towns and villages heretofore incorporated by the Congress of the Republic or the Legislature of this State may, by a resolution of the board of aldermen and a two-thirds vote of the voters at an election held therefor, amend their charters in any particular not in conflict with the constitution of this State or the Revised Statutes. In order to amend the charter of any town or village, it shall be necessary, before said amendment shall go into effect, for the board of aldermen to adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment; and a certified copy of the same shall be approved by the Attorney General and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State before the same shall take effect.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1153a. Change in Designation from Town to City

Sec. 1. Any town in this state which has been duly and legally created under the laws relating to cities and towns, and which has heretofore adopted or may hereafter adopt the provisions of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, may by ordinance passed by the governing body of such town, change its designation from town to city; provided, however, the change in the designation of such town shall in no wise affect its corporate existence or powers:

Sec. 2. Any bonds which have been voted by such town and which bonds are unissued prior to the change of such designation from town to city may be issued in the name of such city as designated in the ordinance changing its designation.

Art. 1154. Petition for Election; Change to Aldermanic Form

Sec. 1. Whenever ten (10%) per cent of the qualified voters of any incorporated city or town having a population of over five hundred (500) and less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants incorporated under the provisions of this title or any previous General Law, or hereafter incorporated under any General Law, or of any incorporated town or village having a population of more than five hundred (500) and less than one thousand (1,000) inhabitants incorporated under Chapter 11, of this Title or any previous General Law, or hereafter incorporated under any General Law, shall petition in writing the Mayor of said city, town or village requesting that an election be ordered to determine whether such city, town or village shall adopt the Commission form of government, the Mayor shall order an election in such city, town or village, to determine whether or not the Commission form of government shall be adopted. Thirty (30) days notice of such election shall be given by publishing such notice in some newspaper therein if there be one, and if none, then by posting notices of same at three (3) public places in such town, city or village. Provided, that any city or town now or hereafter operating under the Commission form of government may adopt the Aldermanic form of government as provided in Article 977, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or other lawful form of government for such city or town when authorized to do so by a majority vote at an election called and held for the purpose. Such election shall be called and held under the same procedure provided for the adoption of the Commission form of government.

Sec. 1a. Provided however, that in the event of such election where a city changes from a Commission form to an Aldermanic form of government, the Mayor and two Commissioners shall continue in office as Mayor and Aldermen respectively for the remainder of their respective terms.

Art. 1155. Unincorporated Towns

If any unincorporated city or town in this State, having a population of over five hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants, or any unincorporated town or village in this State having a population of more than two hundred and less than one thousand inhabitants, shall desire to be incorporated under the commission form of government as herein provided, an election to determine whether such incorporation may be had shall be called by the county judge of the county under the provisions herein governing incorporated cities and towns, and incorporated towns and villages, and notice of such election shall be given as herein provided, and if satisfactory proof is made that the city or town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, the county judge shall make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated, and at a place designated within the city or town or village, for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1156. Ballot

The ballots to be used in said election shall have written or printed thereon "For Commission" or "Against Commission."

Art. 1157. Election

The mayor or county judge, as the case may be, shall appoint two judges of election, one of which shall be designated as the presiding judge, and two clerks, to hold said election. The election shall be held and governed by the general laws of this State except as herein otherwise provided, and the returns shall be made to the mayor or the county judge, as the case may be within five days after said election shall have been held. If a majority of the votes cast are "For Commission," then the mayor or county judge shall enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the city council, or board of aldermen, or of the commissioners court, and after the entry of said order said incorporated city or town or village shall be under the commission form of government, and said unincorporated city or town, or unincorporated town or village, shall be incorporated and under the commission form of government.

Art. 1158. Officers

At such election there shall be elected two commissioners, who shall serve until the first Saturday in April following, and in said unincorporated cities and towns, and unincorporated towns and villages, there shall at such elections be elected a mayor and two commissioners, who shall serve until the first Saturday in April following. The mayor of the incorporated cities and towns, and incorporated towns and villages, adopting the commission form of government shall continue to hold his office for the term for which he was elected. The term of office of the mayor and commissioners, except the first elected under the provisions hereof, shall be two years, and they shall be elected on the first Saturday in April every two years.

Art. 1159. Vacancies

In case of the death or the resignation of the mayor or commissioners, the others shall fill the place by appointment, provided, that shall a vacancy occur from death, resignation, or failure to qualify, or any other cause, of the mayor and one commissioner at the same time, or of two commissioners at the same time, the vacancy shall be filled by special election called by the county judge of the county, upon notice for the time, and subject to all the regulations herein for the original election; the result of said election shall be certified by the county judge to the clerk of said commission, and shall be entered upon the minutes.

Art. 1160. Shall Supersede Council

In incorporated cities and towns and incorporated towns and villages, adopting the commission form of government under the provisions hereof, the members of the city council, and board of aldermen shall hold their offices until the commissioners elected hereunder shall have qualified, and after such qualification, the officers of the city council, and board of aldermen shall be abolished, and the mayor and commissioners herein provided for shall constitute the "Board of Commissioners" of said city or town, or town or village.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1161. Officers Appointed

Said "Board of Commissioners" shall appoint a competent person to be Clerk, who shall also be Assessor and Collector of Taxes of such city or town, or town or village. He shall before entering upon the duties of his office, enter into a good and sufficient bond, to be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, in an amount sufficient to adequately protect the funds of such city or town, but in no event less than twice the largest amount collected at any one time in the preceding fiscal or calendar year, to be determined by the Board of Commissioners, and said bond to be approved by the Board and filed and recorded in the minutes thereof. Said Clerk shall be invested and charged with and shall exercise all the power, rights and duties conferred upon and imposed by the General Laws, upon the Clerk, Treasurer, Assessor and Collector of Taxes, of cities and towns, or towns and villages, as the case may be. The Board shall also have the authority to appoint a City Attorney and such police force and such other officers as they may deem necessary, and fix the salary or other compensation to be received by such Clerk, and by such officers, and define their duties, and at any time may abolish any office which it creates, and may discharge any officer, clerk or employee which it appoints.

Art. 1162. Bond of Officers

The mayor and each commissioner shall enter into a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars each, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office; said bond of the officers, first elected hereunder, shall be approved within twenty days after the entry upon the minutes of the city council, or board of aldermen or the commissioners court, as the case may be, by the county judge of the county in which such city or town, or town or village is located, and to be payable to said city or town or town or village for its use and benefit. All subsequent bonds of officers elected hereunder shall be approved by the "Board of Commissioners."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1163. Commissioners, Duties, etc.

The "Board of Commissioners" of all incorporated and unincorporated cities or towns or towns and villages of over five hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants incorporated under or adopting the commission form of government under the provisions of this chapter, shall have all of the authority and powers, and be subject to all of the duties granted and conferred under Chapters 1 to 10 both inclusive of this title, except where same may conflict with some provision of this chapter. In incorporated and unincorporated towns and villages of more than two hundred and not more than five hundred inhabitants, adopted or incorporated under the commission form of government hereunder, the "Board of Commissioners" shall have all authority and powers conferred under Chapter 11 of this title except where the same may be in conflict with some provision contained herein.

Art. 1164. Meetings and Salary

Said Board shall hold at least one regular monthly meeting; and the mayor or two (2) commissioners may call as many special meetings as may be necessary to attend to the municipal business. Each commissioner and said mayor shall receive for his service Five Dollars ($5) per day for each regular meeting, and Three Dollars ($3) per day for each special meeting. The mayor or any commissioner shall not receive pay for more than five (5) special meetings in any one month. In lieu of such per diem said "Board of Commissioners" of any such town or city with not less than two thousand (2,000) population, may fix the salary to be received by the mayor and commissioners, not to exceed the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1200) per year for said mayor and Six Hundred Dollars ($600) per year for each commissioner.

In lieu of such per diem said "Board of Commissioners" of any such town or city containing less than two thousand (2,000) population, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may fix salary to be received by the mayor not to exceed the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600) per year.

Art. 1164a. Incorporations Validated

In all cities and towns heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated, under the provisions of Chapter 12, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of incorporation, or attempted incorporation, and the boundaries of which have been defined by the Board of Commissioners of such cities and towns, by ordinance duly adopted and placed in the Minutes of such Board of Commissioners, the incorporation of such cities and towns to include the exact territory described in said ordinance so adopted, be and the same is hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed; and the boundaries of said cities and towns as defined in such ordinance shall control and prevail over the boundaries set forth in the incorporation proceedings of such cities and towns.

Art. 1164b. Special Elections Changing Form of Government Validated

Sec. 1. In each instance where, prior to January 1, 1971, a special election has been held in a city or town operating under the general laws for the purpose of changing the form of government of such city or town from the aldermanic form to the commission form, or for the purpose of changing the form of government of such city or town from the commission form to the aldermanic form, as authorized by Article 1154, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and such special election was held on the same day that a primary election was held throughout the state as prescribed in the Election Code of the State of Texas, as amended, such special election for the purpose of changing the form of government in such city or town, and the election of city officials under the new form of government so adopted by the voters at such special election, shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that such special election was held on the same day as a primary election day. Such special election to change the form of government in any such city or town is hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, and the election of city officials under the new form of government so adopted by the voters at such election is hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all offices thereof since such election changing the form of government of all such cities and towns are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of an election changing the form of government under Article 1154, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or the election of city officials under the new form of government so adopted at such election, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 906, ch. 132, eff. May 10, 1971.]

Art. 1164c. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 1. All towns heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the commission form of government (as provided by Chapter 12 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended), which are now functioning or attempting to function as an incorporated municipality are hereby in all respects validated, ratified, and confirmed as of the date of the canvass of the returns and declaration of the result of the incorporation election; and the incorporation of such towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact the election or other proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, provided the election order was entered by the county judge or the person purporting to act as mayor of an unincorporated municipality at least 10 days prior to the election on incorporation, and a majority of the voters at the election approved such incorporation.

Sec. 2. The area and boundary lines of all such towns included by the original incorporation proceedings are in all things hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such towns, except such governmental proceedings that relate to any boundary changes subsequent to the date of incorporation or attempted incorporation, and all actions of officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed as of the respective date of such proceedings and acts.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation which constitutes a direct attack on the legality of the proceedings pursuant to which the incorporation or attempted incorporation was accomplished or to any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Art. 1164a-1. Adoption of City-Manager Plan

Any incorporated city, town or village in this State incorporated under the General Laws, having a population of less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, may vote upon the question of adopting a city-manager plan of government as in this Act provided.

Art. 1164a-2. Definition

The word "city" where used in this Act shall mean any city, town or village incorporated under the General Laws of this State, having a population of less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census.

Art. 1164a-3. Adoption of Act; Election; Petition

Before the provisions of this Act shall apply to and become operative in any city of this State, it shall be submitted to a vote of the legally qualified electors of such city for adoption, and shall receive a majority of all the votes cast thereon at such election. Provided, however, that upon the filing of a petition with the city clerk, signed by not less than twenty (20) per cent of the total number of legally qualified electors voting for mayor at the last preceding city election, requesting the mayor to call a special election for the adoption of this Act, it shall be the duty of the mayor within ten (10) days after the filing of such petition, to issue a proclamation calling a special election for such purpose, and such election shall be held within thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition. Such proclamation shall state that the election is called in order to submit this Act for adoption, and shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk, and shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation within the city for one time not less than ten (10) days preceding said election. Such proclamation shall be posted in at least five (5) conspicuous places within such city not less than ten (10) days preceding such election.

The ballots used for the submission of such question shall be substantially as follows:

FOR the governing body of the city of (naming the city) appointing a city manager and fixing by ordinance the salary of such manager.

AGAINST the governing body of the city of (naming the city) appointing a city manager and fixing by ordinance the salary of such manager.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 615, ch. 356, § 3.]

Art. 1164a-4. Appointment of City Manager; Salary

If a majority of all votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the appointment of a city manager, then the governing body of such city shall within sixty (60) days after such election appoint a city manager and by ordinance shall fix his salary.

Art. 1164a-5. Powers and Term of Manager

If such city has authorized by vote, as in this Act provided, the appointment of a city manager, then after the appointment of such city manager as herein provided, the administration of the city's business shall be in the hands of such manager. The manager shall be appointed by the governing body and shall hold office at the pleasure of the governing body. The governing body shall be responsible for the manager's efficient administration of the city's business. The governing body by ordinance may delegate to and confer upon such manager such additional powers and duties as in their judgment may be proper for the efficient administration of the city affairs.

Art. 1164a-6. Qualifications of Manager

The manager shall be chosen solely upon the basis of administrative ability. Choice shall not be limited by any resident qualifications. The manager shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties, in such amount as may be provided by ordinance.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 615, ch. 356, § 6.]

Art. 1164a-7. All Officers to be Appointive

When a majority of the voters have adopted the provisions of this Act as set out in Section 3,¹ thereafter all officers of such city except members of the governing body shall be appointed as may be provided by ordinance; provided that any officer who has been elected by a vote of the people shall be allowed to serve until the expiration of his term of office.

Art. 1164a-8. Abandonment of City-Manager Plan; Petition; Election

Any such city which has authorized the appointment of a city manager as in this Act provided may abandon such city-manager plan at any time after any such city has elected to come under the provisions of this Act, and on the filing of a petition with the city clerk signed by not less than twenty (20) per cent of the total number of legally qualified electors voting for mayor at the last preceding city election, requesting the mayor to call a special election for the abandonment of the city-manager form of government, it shall be the duty of the mayor within ten (10) days after the filing of such petition, to issue a proclamation calling a special election for such purpose, and such election shall be held within thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition. Such proclamation shall state that the election is called in order to submit the question of the abandonment of the city-manager plan of government as previously adopted by such city, and such proclamation shall be published as provided in Section 3 of this Act.¹

The ballots used for the submission of such question shall be substantially as follows:

FOR abandoning the city-manager plan of government in the city of (naming the city).

AGAINST abandoning the city-manager plan of government in the city of (naming the city).

Art. 1164a-9. Duties of Governing Body Upon Abandonment of City-Manager Plan

If a majority of all the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the abandonment of the city-manager plan, then the governing body of such city shall within sixty (60) days after such election discharge the city manager, and shall then assume the powers and duties delegated to such governing body under the existing laws, in the same manner and to the same extent as though the provisions of this Act had never been adopted.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 615, ch. 356, § 8.]

Art. 1164a-10. Conduct of Elections

Such elections as may be provided for or authorized by this Act¹ shall be called, held and conducted as near as practical the same as other city elections except as otherwise provided in this Act.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 615, ch. 356, § 9.]

Art. 1165. May Change Charter

Cities having more than five thousand inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature. No charter or any ordinances passed under said charter shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Constitution or general laws of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law, or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year which shall exceed two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and create a sinking fund of at least two per cent thereon. No city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every two years. The governing body of such city may, by two-thirds votes of its members, or upon petition of ten per cent of the qualified voters of said city, shall provide by ordinance for the submission of the question, "shall a commission be chosen to frame a new charter."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1166. Requisites of Submission

The ordinance providing for the submission of such question shall require that it be submitted at the next regular municipal election, if one should be held, not less than thirty nor more than ninety days after the passage of said ordinance; otherwise it shall provide for the submission of the question at a special election to be called and held not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days after the passage of said ordinance and the publication thereof in some newspaper published in said city. The ballot containing such question shall bear no party designation, and provision shall be made thereon for the election from the city at large of a charter commission of not less than fifteen members, nor more than one member for each three thousand inhabitants, provided, that a majority of the qualified voters, voting on said question shall have voted in the affirmative.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1167. Submission of Charter

The charter so framed by said commission shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said city at an election to be held at a time fixed by the charter commission not less than forty nor more than ninety days after the completion of the work of the charter commission; provision for which shall be made by the governing body of the city in so far as not prescribed by the general law. Not less than thirty days prior to such election, the governing body shall cause the city clerk or city secretary to mail a copy of the proposed charter to each qualified voter in said city as appears from the tax collector's rolls for the year ending January 31st, preceding said election. In preparing the charter the commission shall, as far as practicable, segregate each subject so that the voter may vote "Yes" or "No" on the same.

Art. 1168. First Election

Where the legislative or governing authority of any city, or where any mass meeting has selected a charter committee or charter commission, or where the mayor of any city has appointed a charter committee which has proceeded with the formation of a charter for said city, the provisions hereof as to the selection of the charter commission shall not apply to the first charter election to be held in said city under the terms of this law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1169. Adoption of Charter

If such proposed charter is approved by a majority of the qualified voters, voting at said election, it shall become the charter of said city until amended or repealed. No charter shall be considered adopted until an official order has been entered upon the records of said city by the governing body thereof declaring the same adopted.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1170. Amendments

When the governing body desires to submit amendments to any existing charter, said body may on its own motion, in the absence of a petition, and shall, upon receiving a petition signed by qualified voters in such city, town or political subdivision in number not less than five per cent (5%) thereof or 20,000 signatures, whichever is less, submit any proposed amendment or amendments to such charter. The ordinance providing for the submission of such amendment or amendments shall require the submission thereof at an election to be held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days after the passage of said ordinance. If the next regular municipal election is to be held during said period, the submission of said amendment or amendments shall be at such election. Otherwise, a special election shall be called for the purpose. Notice of the election for the submission of said amendment or amendments shall be given by publication thereof, in some newspaper of general circulation published in said city, on the same day in each of two (2) successive weeks; the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for said election. The form of such notice shall be as prescribed by the governing body or as may be otherwise prescribed by law, and shall include a substantial copy of the proposed amendment or amendments. Every amendment submitted must contain only one subject, and in preparing the ballot for such amendment, it shall be done in such manner that the voter may vote "Yes" or "No" on any amendment or amendments without voting "Yes" or "No" on all of said amendments. Each such proposed amendment, if approved by the majority of the qualified voters voting at said election, shall become a part of the charter of said city. No amendment shall be considered adopted until an official order has been entered upon the records of said city by the governing body thereof declaring the same adopted.

Art. 1170a. Validation of Proceedings to Amend Charter; Ordinance Not Published as Required

In any instance where the charter of a home rule city requires ordinances to be published in full in a newspaper once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks prior to passage and which city has heretofore held an election for the purpose of amending its charter and such election was called and held in all things in accordance with the applicable general laws of the State of Texas, and such election resulted favorably to the adoption of the amendment submitted as shown by resolution adopted by the governing body of any such city, all of the proceedings relating to the calling of such election, irrespective of whether such ordinance was published as required by its charter, the notice given precedent to or subsequent to the passage of the ordinance calling such election and the resolution adopted canvassing the returns and declaring the result of such election are hereby validated, and the charter of any such city as thus amended shall constitute the charter of such city under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 383, ch. 246, § 1.]

Art. 1171. Repealed by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 1108, ch. 500, § 2, eff. August 28, 1961

Art. 1172. Other Issues

Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the qualified voters of any city of over five thousand inhabitants from adopting any charter or amendment thereto, and at the same time electing officers under such charter or amendment.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1173. Certification

Upon the adoption of any such charter or amendment to any existing charter as provided herein, the mayor or chief executive officer exercising like or similar powers, of any such city, as soon as practicable, after the adoption of any such charter or amendment, shall certify to the Secretary of State an authenticated copy under the seal of the city, showing the approval by the qualified voters of any such charter or amendment, and the Secretary of State shall thereupon file and record the same in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose.

Art. 1174. Registration

The city secretary of any such city or officer exercising like or similar powers, upon the adoption and approval of any such charter or any amendment thereof by the qualified voters as herein provided, shall record at length upon the records of the city, in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose, any such charter, or amendment so adopted. When such charter or any amendment thereof shall be so recorded, it shall be deemed a public act and all courts shall take judicial notice of same and no proof shall be required of same. All cities may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for cost and may appeal from judgment without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1174a. Validating Charter or Charter Amendments

That each charter, and amendment to a charter adopted by any city or¹ more than five thousand inhabitants in this State, or where such city has amended or attempted to amend or adopt such charter, since the enactment of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-Third Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, relating to home rule, as well as all amendments and proceedings had under the same and all bonds issued under any amendment where the said bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and registered with the Comptroller, are hereby fully validated, ratified and confirmed and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as if adopted in strict compliance with all of the requirements of said Chapter 147, Acts of the Thirty-Third Legislature, and the General Laws of Texas relating thereto, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Art. 1174a-1. Validation of Adoption of Charter and Election and Assumption of Office

In each instance where an election has been held heretofore in a city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter for such city, and where copies of the proposed charter with the date of the election shown thereon were mailed to all of the voters within said city as shown by the tax rolls thereof, and a news item showing the date and purpose of said election was published in a newspaper published within such city at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the said election, and such news item did not state that the voting would be limited to property owners or taxpayers in the city, and where the officers holding the election did not deny anyone the right to vote upon the ground that he was not a property owner or taxpayer, and such election resulted favorably to the adoption of the charter as shown by a resolution adopted by the governing body of the city either before or after the election of¹ assumption of office by new members of such governing body under the charter, all of the proceedings relating to the adoption of such charter and the election of and assumption of office by the new members of the governing body are hereby validated, and such charter shall constitute the charter of said city under the Constitution and laws of this State.

¹ So in enrolled bill. Word "and" probably omitted.

Art. 1174a-2. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Officers

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter for such city, where copies of the proposed charter with the date of the election shown thereon were mailed to all voters within said city as shown by the tax rolls thereof, and a news item showing the date and purpose of said election was published in a newspaper published within such city at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such election, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter, all such proceedings relating to the adoption of said charter are hereby in all things validated, ratified, and confirmed, and said charter shall constitute the home rule charter of said city under the constitution and laws of this State. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter or the charter so adopted if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of this State and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other phrase, word, clause, sentence, or part of this Act.

Art. 1174a-3. Validation of Amendment of Charter; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Governing Boards

Sec. 1. In any instance where a home rule city has previously held an election for the purpose of adopting an amendment or amendments to an existing home rule charter, and copies of the proposed charter amendment or amendments were mailed to every qualified voter in the city as prescribed by law, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of adopting such amendment or amendments, and such city did not publish the proposed amendment or amendments after calling said election as required by Turner v. Lewie, 201 S.W.2d 86, is, and such proceedings are, hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed as if such notice had been published. All elections held under the provisions of said charter, as amended, for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by those persons receiving the highest votes at such election and all elections thereafter called and/or held to authorize the issuance of bonds by such city, are hereby in all things validated. All acts of said officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter amendment, or the charter as so amended, if the validity of the charter amendment proceedings, or of the charter, are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of this State and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act.

Art. 1174a-4. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Officers

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter for such city, where copies of the proposed charter with the date of the election shown thereon were mailed to all voters within said city as shown by the tax roll thereof, and a news item showing the dates and purpose of said election was published in a newspaper published within such city at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such election, and the proposed charter in its entirety was printed and published in a newspaper published within such city at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of such election, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter, all such proceedings relating to the adoption of said charter are hereby in all things validated, ratified, and confirmed, and said charter shall constitute the home rule charter of said city under the Constitution and Laws of this State. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter or the charter so adopted if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of this State, and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174a-5. Validation of Amendment of Charter; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Governing Boards

Sec. 1. In any instance where a Home Rule City has previously held an election for the purpose of adopting an amendment or amendments to an existing Home Rule Charter, and the Notice of Intention had been published in the official newspaper published in the city one time at least eighteen days prior to the passage of the ordinance calling the election and that the ordinance calling the election was published in an "Extra Edition" of the official newspaper published in the city at least twenty-eight days prior to the date of the election, and copies of the proposed Charter amendment or amendments were mailed to every qualified voter in the city as prescribed by law, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voted in favor of adopting such amendment or amendments is, and such proceedings are, hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed. All elections held under the provisions of said Charter as amended for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by those persons receiving the highest votes at such election and all elections thereafter and are held to authorize the issuance of bonds in such city are hereby in all things validated. All acts of said officers and officials in any such city are hereby in all things validated and the Charter of any such city as thus amended shall constitute the Charter of such city under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any Charter amendment or the Charter as so amended if the validity of the Charter amendment proceedings or the Charter are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of the state and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 192, ch. 102.]

Art. 1174a-6. Validation of Adoption of Charter of Home Rule Cities with Population in Excess of 10,000; Elections

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to every Home Rule City in the State of Texas having a population in excess of ten thousand (10,000) persons according to the 1960 Federal Census, which has adopted or attempted to adopt a new Home Rule Charter. All proceedings had and actions taken in connection with the adoption of said new charter are hereby in all things validated. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, it is expressly provided that all election proceedings relating to the adoption of said new charter, at which elections more than a majority of the qualified voters voting at said elections voted in favor of the proposition or propositions submitted at said elections, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. The validation provisions of this Act shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date of this Act questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

Art. 1174a-7. Validation of Adoption of Charter of Home Rule City in Counties of 500,000 or More; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Officers

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city in counties of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter, where copies of the proposed charter with the date of election shown therein were mailed to each qualified voter in said city as appeared from the tax collector's roll for the year ending January 31 preceding such charter election, and a majority of the qualified voters of such city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter as shown by the official canvass of election returns, all proceedings relating to the adoption of said charter are hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and said charter shall constitute the home rule charter of said city under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated, except to the extent that such acts have been heretofore invalidated by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or are hereafter so invalidated in litigation pending on the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter or the charter so adopted if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of this state and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174a-8. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Elections; Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a Home Rule Charter for such city, and in each instance where a home rule city has previously held an election for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of an amendment or amendments to an existing Home Rule Charter and a majority of the qualified voters (as shown by the canvass of the returns and declaration of the result of said election) participating at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such Charter, amendment or amendments, all of the proceedings relating to such election are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed and validated and said Charter or said Charter as so amended, as the case may be, shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of such city.

Sec. 2. All actions heretofore taken by the governing body of such city in the calling and holding of an election for the selection of members of the governing body of such city so the same shall consist of the number of persons specified in such Charter, amendment or amendments are hereby ratified and confirmed and the persons so elected and qualified are recognized as the governing body of such city.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings of home rule cities, save and except those relating to annexation of territory, are hereby ratified and confirmed and all actions of the governing bodies of home rule cities in calling and holding elections for bonds and in the authorization, issuance and delivery of bonds, warrants, scrip, and certificates of indebtedness or of assessment are hereby ratified and confirmed and said obligations shall have effect according to their purport and tenor.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed as validating any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174a-9. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Elections; Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home-rule charter for the city, and in each instance where a home-rule city has previously held an election for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of an amendment or amendments to an existing home-rule charter and a majority of the qualified voters (as shown by the canvass of the returns and declaration of the result of said election) participating at the election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter, amendment or amendments, all the proceedings relating to such election are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed, and validated, and the charter or the charter as so amended, as the case may be, shall constitute the home-rule charter of the city.

Sec. 2. All actions heretofore taken by the governing body of the city in the calling and holding of an election for the selection of members of the governing body of the city so the same shall consist of the number of persons specified in the charter, amendment or amendments are hereby ratified and confirmed and the persons so elected and qualified are recognized as the governing body of the city.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings of home-rule cities, save and except those relating to annexation of territory, are hereby ratified and confirmed and all actions of the governing bodies of home-rule cities in calling and holding elections for bonds and in the authorization, issuance, and delivery of bonds, warrants, scrip, and certificates of indebtedness or of assessment are hereby ratified and confirmed and the obligations shall have effect according to their purport and tenor.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed as validating any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174b. Validation of Annexation Proceedings of Home Rule Cities

Sec. 1. All elections, election orders, election proceedings and city ordinances annexing adjacent territory to, or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of, any Home Rule City that has adopted a charter under Article Eleven (11), Section Five (5), of the Constitution of Texas, and the provisions of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, but which City did not in fact have a population of five thousand according to the 1920 Federal Census, be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The city ordinances of all Home Rule Cities in the class described in the foregoing Section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated.

[Acts 1930, 41st Leg., 5th C.S., p. 139, ch. 16.]

Art. 1174c. Validating Annexation of Adjacent Territory

Sec. 1. All elections, election orders, election proceedings, city ordinances and amendments to charters annexing adjacent territory to, or extending and prescribing the corporate limitations of any home rule city that has adopted a charter under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, and the provisions of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, and Article 1175 of Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes, by which said city did not in fact have separate elections and separate election boxes for the city voters and the territory to be annexed, and did not comply with other requirements of the law, be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The city ordinances and charter amendments of all home rule cities in the class described in the foregoing section, fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated.

Art. 1174d. Validation of Annexation Proceedings in Home Rule Cities of 8,920 to 9,580 Population

All ordinances and proceedings and all actions, proceedings, and contracts taken or made in pursuance thereof, heretofore undertaken by virtue of Article 1175, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, providing for the extension of the corporate limits of Home Rule cities by any city which at such time was acting under a Home Rule charter, and which such ordinances, actions, proceedings, and contracts were undertaken prior to April 1, 1930, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and such extensions of the city limits of such cities so undertaken, as well as all proceedings and contracts taken or made in pursuance thereof and the exercise of dominion and governmental functions over such added territory by extension shall be deemed and held valid in all respects and to the same extent as if done under legislative authority previously given. The provisions of this Act shall apply only to cities having a population of not less than eight thousand, nine hundred and twenty (8,920) nor more than nine thousand, five hundred and eighty (9,580), according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Art. 1174e. Validation of Annexation Proceedings of Certain Home Rule Cities Occurring Before March 1, 1961

Sec. 1. All ordinances, resolutions and proceedings passed and adopted and all contracts made pursuant thereto, prior to the 1st day of March, 1961, by a home rule city undertaking to annex adjacent and contiguous territory to its corporate limits by virtue of the provisions of Article 1175 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 and the amendments thereto, or by virtue of the applicable provisions of its city charter, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and such extensions of the city limits of such cities so undertaken, as well as all proceedings and contracts taken or made in pursuance thereof and the exercise of dominion and governmental functions over such added territory, by annexation, shall be deemed and held valid in all respects and to the same extent as if done under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 1(a). Nothing herein shall validate any annexation proceedings where no bonds have been voted or issued by the annexing municipality prior to March 1, 1961, and after the commencement of such annexation proceedings.

Sec. 2. The effective date of this Act shall be January 1, 1962, and the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city if its annexation proceedings are involved in litigation at the time this law becomes effective.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 1009, ch. 439.]

Art. 1175. Enumerated Powers

Cities adopting the charter or amendment hereunder shall have full power of local self-government, and among the other powers that may be exercised by any such city the following are hereby enumerated for greater certainty:

1. The creation of a commission, aldermanic or other form of government; the creation of offices, the manner and mode of selecting officers and prescribing their qualifications, duties, compensation and tenure of office.

2. The power to fix the boundary limits of said city, to provide for the extension of said boundary limits and the annexation of additional territory lying adjacent to said city, to provide for the disannexation of territory within such city and to provide for the exchange of territory with other cities or towns, according to such rules as may be provided by said charter not inconsistent with the procedural rules prescribed by the Municipal Annexation Act.¹

3. To hold by gift, deed, devise or otherwise any character of property, including any charitable or trust fund; to plead and be impleaded in all courts, and to act in perpetual succession as a body politic.

4. To provide that no public property or any other character of property owned or held by said city shall be subject to any execution of any kind or nature.

5. To provide that no fund of the city shall be subject to garnishment, and the city shall never be required to answer in any garnishment proceedings.

6. To provide for the exemption from liability on account of any claim for any damages to any person or property, or to fix such rules and regulations governing the city's liability as may be deemed advisable.

7. To provide for the levying of any general or special ad valorem tax for any purpose not inconsistent with the Constitution of this State.

8. To provide for the mode and method of assessing taxes, both real and personal, against any person and corporation, including the right to assess the franchise of any public corporation using and occupying the public streets or grounds of the city, separately from the tangible property of such corporation.

9. To provide for the collection of all taxes, including the right to impose penalties for delinquent taxes.

10. The power to control and manage the finances of any such city; to prescribe its fiscal year and fiscal arrangements; the power to issue bonds upon the credit of the city for the purpose of making permanent public improvements or for other public purposes in the amount and to the extent provided by such charter, and consistent with the Constitution of this State; provided, that said bonds shall have first been authorized by a majority vote by the duly qualified property tax-paying voters voting at an election held for that purpose. Thereafter all such bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his approval, and the Comptroller for registration, as provided by law, provided that any such bonds after approval, may be issued by the city, either optional or serial or otherwise as may be deemed advisable by the governing authority. Whenever any city has heretofore been authorized, under any special charter, creating such city, to issue any bonds by the terms of such charter, the provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to interfere with the issuance of any such bonds under the provisions of any charter under which such bonds were authorized.

11. To have the exclusive right to own, erect, maintain and operate water works and water works system for the use of any city, and its inhabitants, to regulate the same and have power to prescribe rates for water furnished and to acquire by purchase, donation or otherwise, suitable grounds within and without the limits of the city on which to erect any such works and the necessary right of way, and to do and perform whatsoever may be necessary to operate and maintain the said water works or water works system and to compel the owners of all property and the agents of such owners or persons in control thereof to pay all charges for water furnished upon such property and to fix a lien upon such property for any such charges. To provide that all receipts from the water works may, in its discretion, constitute a separate or sacred fund which shall be used for no other purpose than the extension, improvement, operation, maintenance, repair and betterment of said water works system or water works supply, and to provide for the pledging of any such receipts and revenues for the purpose of making any of such improvements, and the payment of the principal and providing an interest and sinking fund for any bonds issued therefor under such regulations as may be provided by the charter adopted by such city.

12. To prohibit the use of any street, alley, highway or grounds of the city by any telegraph, telephone, electric light, street railway, interurban railway, steam railway, gas company, or any other character of public utility without first obtaining the consent of the governing authorities expressed by ordinance and upon paying such compensation as may be prescribed and upon such condition as may be provided by any such ordinance. To determine, fix and regulate the charges, fares or rates of any person, firm or corporation enjoying or that may enjoy the franchise or exercising any other public privilege in said city and to prescribe the kind of service to be furnished by such person, firm or corporation, and the manner in which it shall be rendered, and from time to time alter or change such rules, regulations and compensation; provided that in adopting such regulations and in fixing or changing such compensation, or determining the reasonableness thereof, no stock or bonds authorized or issued by any corporation enjoying the franchise shall be considered unless² proof that the same have been actually issued by the corporation for money paid and used for the development of the corporate property, labor done or property actually received in accordance with the laws and Constitution of this State applicable thereto. In order to ascertain all facts necessary for a proper understanding of what is or should be a reasonable rate or regulation, the governing authority shall have full power to inspect the books and compel the attendance of witnesses for such purpose.

13. To buy, own, construct within or without the city limits and to maintain and operate a system or systems, of gas, or electric lighting plant, telephone, street railways, sewerage plants, fertilizing plants, abattoir, municipal railway terminals, docks, wharfs, ferries, ferry landings, loading and unloading devices and shipping facilities, or any other public service or public utility, and to demand and receive compensation for service furnished for private purpose or otherwise, and to exercise the right of eminent domain as hereinafter provided for the appropriation of lands, rights of way or anything whatsoever that may be proper and necessary to efficiently carry out said objects. Any city shall have the power to condemn the property of any person, firm or corporation now conducting any such business and for the purpose of operating and maintaining any such public utilities and for the purpose of distributing such service throughout the city or any portion thereof; provided that any city may adopt by its charter any such rules and regulations as it may deem advisable for the acquiring and operation of any such public utilities.

14. To manufacture its own electricity, gas, or anything else that may be needed or used by the public; to purchase and make contracts with any person or corporation for the purchasing of gas, electricity, oil or any other commodity or article used by the public and to sell the same to the public upon such terms as may be provided by the charter.

15. To have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary; to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes; city halls, police stations, jails, calaboose, fire stations, libraries, school houses, high school buildings, academies, hospitals, sanitariums, auditoriums, market houses, reformatories, abattoirs, railroad terminals, docks, wharves, warehouses, ferries, ferry landings, elevators, loading and unloading devices, shipping facilities, piers, streets, alleys, parks, highways, boulevards, speedways, playgrounds, sewer systems, storm sewers, sewerage disposal plants, drains, filtering beds and emptying grounds for sewer systems, reservoirs, water sheds, water supply sources, wells, water and electric light systems, gas plants, cemeteries, crematories, prison farms, and to acquire lands within and without the city for any other municipal purposes that may be deemed advisable. The power herein granted for the purpose of acquiring private property shall include the power of the improvement and enlargement of the water works, including water supply, riparian rights, stand pipes, water sheds, the construction of supply reservoirs, parks, squares and pleasure grounds, public wharves, and landing places for steamers and other crafts, and for the purpose of straightening or improving the channels of any stream, branch or drain, or the straightening, widening or extension of any street, alley, avenue or boulevard. The power of eminent domain hereby conferred shall include the right of the governing authority, when so expressed, to take the fee in the lands so condemned and such power and authority shall include the right to condemn public property for such purposes.

16. To have exclusive dominion, control, and jurisdiction in, over and under the public streets, avenues, alleys, highways and boulevards, and public grounds of such city and to provide for the improvement of any public street, alleys, highways, avenues or boulevards by paving, raising, grading, filling or otherwise improving the same and to charge the cost of making such improvement against the abutting property, by fixing a lien against the same, and a personal charge against the owner thereof according to an assessment specially levied therefor in an amount not to exceed the special benefit any such property received in enhanced value by reason of making such improvement, and to provide for the issuance of assignable certificates covering the payments for said cost, provided that the charter shall apportion the cost to be paid by the property owners and the amount to be paid by the city, and provided further, that all street railways, steam railways, or other railways, shall pay the cost of improving the said street between the rails and tracks of any such railway companies and for two feet on each side thereof. The city shall have the power to provide for the construction and building of sidewalks and charge the entire cost of constructing of said sidewalks, including the curb, against the owner of abutting property, and to make a special charge against the owner for such cost and to provide by special assessment a lien against such property for such cost; to have the power to provide for the improvement of any such sidewalk or the construction of any such curb by penal ordinance and to declare defective sidewalks to be a public nuisance. The power herein granted for making street improvements and assessing the cost by special assessment in the manner herein stated shall not be construed to prevent any city from adopting any other method or plan for the improvement of its streets, sidewalks, alleys, curbs, or boulevards, as it may deem advisable by its charter.

17. To open, extend, straighten, widen any public street, alley, avenue or boulevard and for such purpose to acquire the necessary lands and to appropriate the same under the power of eminent domain and to provide that the cost of improving any such street, alley, avenue or boulevard by opening, extending and widening the same shall be paid by the owners of property specially benefited whose property lies in the territory of such improvement and to provide that the cost shall be charged by special assessment and that a personal charge shall be made against any owner for the amount due by him and to provide for the appointment by the county judge or other officer exercising like or similar powers, of three special commissioners for the purpose of condemning the said lands and for the purpose of apportioning the said cost, which apportionment of said cost shall be specially assessed by the governing authorities against the owners and the property of the owners lying in the territory so found to be specially benefited in enhanced value by said special commissioners. The city shall pay such portion of such cost as may be determined by the said special commissioners, provided the same shall never exceed one third the cost, and the property owners and their property shall be liable for the balance of the same as may be apportioned by said commissioners. The city may issue assignable certificates for the payment of any such cost against such property owners and may provide for the payment of any such cost in deferred payments, to bear interest at such rate as may be prescribed by the charter not to exceed eight per cent. The city may adopt any other method for the opening, straightening, widening or extending of its streets as herein provided for as may be deemed advisable, and charge the cost of same against the property and the owner specially benefited in enhanced value and lying in the territory of said improvement, that its charter may provide. The authority to adopt any other method shall include the manner of appointing commissioners, the manner of giving notice and the manner of fixing assessments or providing for the payment of any such improvement.

18. To control, regulate and remove all obstructions or other encroachments or encumbrances on any public street, alley or ground, and to narrow, alter, widen or straighten any such streets, alleys, avenues or boulevards, and to vacate and abandon and close any such streets, alleys, avenues or boulevards, and to regulate and control the moving of buildings or other structures over and upon the streets or avenues of such city.

19. Each city shall have the power to define all nuisances and prohibit the same within the city and outside the city limits for a distance of five thousand feet; to have power to police all parks or grounds, lakes and the land contiguous thereto and used in connection therewith, speedways, or boulevards owned by said city and lying outside of said city; to prohibit the pollution of any stream, drain or tributaries thereof, which may constitute the source of water supply of any city and to provide for policing the same as well as to provide for the protection of any water sheds and the policing of same; to inspect dairies, slaughter pens and slaughter houses inside or outside the limits of the city, from which meat or milk is furnished to the inhabitants of the city.

20. To license, operate and control the operation of all character of vehicles using the public streets, including motorcycles, automobiles or like vehicles, and to prescribe the speed of the same, the qualification of the operator of the same, and the lighting of the same by night and to provide for the giving bond or other security for the operation of the same.

21. To regulate, license and fix the charges or fares made by any person owning, operating or controlling any vehicle of any character used for the carrying of passengers for hire or the transportation of freight for hire on the public streets and alleys of the city.

22. To regulate the location and control the conduct of theaters, moving picture shows, ten pin alleys, vaudeville shows, and all places of public amusements.

23. To license any lawful business, occupation or calling that is susceptible to the control of the police power.

24. To license, regulate, control or prohibit the erection of signs or bill boards as may be provided by charter or ordinance.

25. To provide for the establishment and designation of fire limits and to prescribe the kind and character of buildings or structures or improvements to be erected therein, and to provide for the erection of fire proof buildings within certain limits, and to provide for the condemnation of dangerous structures or buildings or dilapidated buildings or buildings calculated to increase the fire hazard, and the manner of their removal or destruction.

26. To divide the city in zones or districts, and to regulate the location, size, height, bulk and use of buildings within such zones or districts, and to establish building lines within such zones or districts or otherwise, and make different regulations for different districts and thereafter alter the same. The governing authorities may be authorized by their charter to create a commission or board for the purpose of carrying out the powers of this section, or may provide for the creation of a board of appeals or review for the purpose of hearing and deciding on appeals from and reviewing any order, requirement, decision or determination of the governing authorities in carrying out the powers and authority herein conferred; provided the authority and power herein conferred shall never be construed to be a limitation of any other power and authority conferred in this chapter.

27. To provide for police and fire departments.

28. To provide for a health department and the establishment of rules and regulations protecting the health of the city and the establishment of quarantine stations, and pest houses, emergency hospitals and hospitals, and to provide for the adoption of necessary quarantine laws to protect the inhabitants against contagious or infectious diseases.

29. To provide for a sanitary sewer system and to require property owners to make connections with such sewers with their premises and to provide for fixing a lien against any property owner's premises who fails or refuses to make sanitary sewer connections and to charge the cost against said owner and make it a personal liability. To provide for fixing penalties for a failure to make sanitary sewer connections.

30. The power to require water works corporations, gas companies, street car companies, telephone companies, telegraph companies, electric light companies or other companies or individuals enjoying a franchise now or hereafter from the city, to make and furnish extensions of their service to such territory as may be required by the charter.

31. Provided that in all cities of over twenty-five thousand inhabitants, the governing body of such city, when the public service of such city may require the same, shall have the right and power to compel any street railway or other public utility corporation to extend its lines of service into any section of said city not to exceed two miles, all told, in any one year.

32. To provide for the establishment of public schools and public school system in any such city, and to have exclusive control over same and to provide such regulations and rules governing the management of same as may be deemed advisable; to levy and collect the necessary taxes, general or special, for the support of such public schools and public school system.

33. Whenever any city may determine to acquire any public utility using and occupying its streets, alleys, and avenues as hereinbefore provided, and it shall be necessary to condemn the said public utility, the city may obtain funds for the purpose of acquiring the said public utility and paying the compensation, therefor, by issuing bonds, notes or other evidence of indebtedness and shall secure the same by fixing a lien upon the said properties constituting the said public utility so acquired by condemnation or purchase or otherwise; said security shall apply alone to said properties so pledged; and such further regulations may be provided by any charter for the proper financing or raising the revenue necessary for obtaining any public utilities and providing for the fixing of said security.

34. To enforce all ordinances necessary to protect health, life and property, and to prevent and summarily abate and remove all nuisances and to preserve and enforce the good government, order and security of the city and its inhabitants.

Art. 1175b. Inspection and Test of Motor Vehicles

Ordinances Authorized

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in the State of Texas, whether incorporated under general or special law, including home rule cities, having a population in excess of two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall have and they are hereby given the power and authority to pass an ordinance or ordinances;

(a) Requiring all residents of said city, including corporations having their principal office or place of business in said city, owning a motor vehicle used for the transportation of persons or property, or both, and all persons using the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said city upon which to operate a motor vehicle, to have each and every such motor vehicle tested and inspected and to comply with such requirements, as may be imposed by said ordinance, not more than four times in each calendar year;

(b) Requiring that other and additional tests and inspections may be required of all motor vehicles involved in any wreck, collision, or accident before the same may be operated on the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said city after said wreck, collision, or accident;

(c) Requiring as a condition precedent to the right to use the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said city that motor vehicles operated thereupon shall have been tested and inspected, shall have been approved by said testing and inspecting authorities, and shall have complied with all provisions of said ordinance;

(d) Providing a penalty subject to the limitations of Article 1011 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas for the violation of any of the terms of said ordinance.

Testing Stations

Sec. 2. Said cities shall be and they are hereby authorized to acquire, establish, erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, and maintain motor vehicle testing stations and to pay for the same out of the fees charged for testing and inspecting said motor vehicles.

Fees

Sec. 3. Said cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to prescribe and collect a fee, not to exceed One Dollar ($1) per year per vehicle, for the testing and inspecting of each such motor vehicle. All fees so collected to be placed in a separate fund, out of which costs and expenses in connection with, or growing out of the acquisition, establishment, erection, equipping, improvement, enlargement, repairing, operating, and maintaining said testing stations, and automotive and Safety Education programs, may be paid.

Payment for Testing Stations; Encumbrance; Borrowing Money

Sec. 4. Said cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to pay for such testing stations and the equipping, maintaining, and operating thereof out of past or future earnings of said stations, and may mortgage and encumber said stations and everything pertaining thereto acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same or any part thereof, or to erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, or maintain said stations. No such mortgage or encumbrance shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law. Said cities may borrow money and issue warrants to finance in whole or in part the cost of the acquisition, erection, equipping, improvement, enlargement, or repair of said stations and to pledge for the punctual payment of said warrants and interest thereon all or any part of the fees or other receipts derived from the operation of such stations.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality.

Vehicles Operated Under Permits

Sec. 5a. Nothing herein or in any ordinance passed pursuant hereto shall apply to motor vehicles, trailers or semitrailers operated under a certificate or permit from the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Repeal

Sec. 6. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith shall be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of said conflict only.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 194, ch. 102.]

Art. 1175c. Vacancies in Offices in Cities Over 384,000

In case of vacancy from any cause in any elective office of any Home Rule City in this state having a population of three hundred eighty-four thousand (384,000) inhabitants or more according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, where the charter of such city does not, at such time, provide for the filling of such vacancy, the city council or governing body of such city, by majority vote, shall appoint someone to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term; and pending such appointment such governing body may appoint someone temporarily, for not more than sixty (60) days, to hold such office, which person or persons, as the case may be, shall be qualified in like manner as is then required of the elective official. Provided, however, that whenever any such city holds an election to vote upon proposed amendments to its charter, it shall at such time submit a proposed amendment thereto providing a method for filling any vacancy to elective offices which are not now provided for in said charter.

Art. 1175d. Water Supply Systems; Easements Over Highways in Certain Home Rule Cities

The City Commission of all Home Rule Cities of this State, having a population of not less than thirty-one thousand (31,000) and not more than thirty-two thousand, five hundred (32,500) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have and such Cities are hereby granted easements on and over all public highways and county roads in the county in which such City is situated, for the purpose of constructing, laying and maintaining water pipe lines which constitute a part of the water supply system operated by said Cities. Provided, however, that on all State highways such water pipe lines shall be laid at such place and in such manner as may be approved by the State Highway Engineers, and all such water pipe lines to be laid on any county road shall be laid in such manner and as may be approved by the County Engineer of such county; provided further, such water pipe lines shall not be laid in any manner that will unreasonably interfere with the use of such highways and public roads. Provided further that such lines shall be laid parallel to and in reasonably close proximity with the outer edge of the right of way of such State highway or public road, except that such lines may be laid across such highway or public road in the manner to be approved by the engineers of the aforesaid; and provided further that said lines shall be laid deep enough under the ground that the said pipe lines will not interfere with the grading or other use required by the Highway Department or the County Commissioners.

Art. 1175e. Parking Facilities

Sec. 1. Any home rule city in this state is hereby authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate and maintain structures, parking areas, parking garages or facilities for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances.

Sec. 2. Any such city is hereby authorized and shall have the power by the exercise of the right of eminent domain to acquire the fee simple title to property for the purpose of acquiring sites upon which to build parking structures, parking areas, parking garages or facilities for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or conveyances. Any such city is hereby authorized and shall have the power to regulate the use of such facilities and establish rates and charges for the use thereof. In the event that the city, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting, or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the city. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 3. The governing body of any such city may divide the city or any portion thereof into improvement districts clearly defining the limits of each district, and any such city shall have the power to borrow money on the credit of such city and issue bonds of the city for the acquisition of the public improvements authorized herein; but every proposition to borrow money on the credit of the city for the acquisition or construction of any of said public improvements within any improvement district shall be submitted to the qualified taxpaying voters living and owning property in such districts, and each proposition to borrow money on the credit of the city in any improvement district shall distinctly specify the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued and the public improvements to be constructed. If said proposition be sustained by a majority of the votes cast in such election in such district, the issuance of such bonds shall be lawful. All bonds shall specify for which purpose they were issued, shall bear interest at a rate not greater than 6½% per annum, and when sold, shall net not less than par value, with accrued interest to date of payment of the proceeds into the city treasury, and such bonds may be negotiated in lots, as the governing body of such city may direct. No debts shall ever be created against the city or any improvement district unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually upon the property in such improvement district a sum sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and create a sinking fund of at least 2% thereon. The interest and sinking fund tax shall be in addition to the other current taxes levied by the city, and shall be kept separate by the City Treasurer from other funds, and shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose than to pay interest and principal on such bonds and the City Treasurer shall honor no draft on said fund except to pay the interest and redeem the bonds for which it was provided. The sinking fund for such bonds may be invested in such securities as are now permitted by law for other municipal bonds. The tax levied for interest and sinking fund for bonds issued for public improvements in any district shall not exceed 50 cents on the $100.00 valuation annually which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes authorized or permitted to be levied by the charter of such city.

Art. 1176. Further Powers

The enumeration of powers hereinabove made shall never be construed to preclude, by implication or otherwise, any such city from exercising the powers incident to the enjoyment of local self-government, provided that such powers shall not be inhibited by the State Constitution.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1176a. Code of Civil and Criminal Ordinances

Power to Codify; Effect

Sec. 1. Any city of this state, whether incorporated under General or Special Law, shall have the power to codify its civil and criminal ordinances and adopt a civil and criminal code of ordinances, together with appropriate penalties for the violation thereof, which said code when adopted shall have the force and effect of an ordinance regularly enacted with the usual prerequisite of law.

Ordinances Changed Without Separate Amendment or Repeal

Sec. 2. That should it become necessary in the codification of such ordinances, both civil and criminal, to change, alter or repeal any portion thereof or to change the terminology of any ordinances heretofore adopted, such change being occasioned by a change in the form of government and the redesignation of offices and officers, then such city is hereby expressly authorized to amend, omit or repeal the same and to change the terminology to conform to its present form of government without the necessity of re-enacting, repealing or amending any such ordinance separately incorporated in said code.

Adoption of Code

Sec. 3. That upon the codification of said code of civil and criminal ordinances, such city is authorized to adopt such code by the enactment of an ordinance and upon the adoption thereof, the City Secretary shall record said code as adopted in the ordinance records of such city, and thereafter such record shall serve as a record of the ordinances so codified and it shall not be necessary in establishing the content of any particular ordinance so codified to go beyond said record.

Publication of Adopting Ordinance

Sec. 4. That the ordinance adopting such code shall be published in the official publication of such city, or in a newspaper published in the city or county, as now provided by law, provided, however, that if any such city operates under a special charter or special law which provides for the publication of ordinances both civil and criminal, then in that event such city shall comply with such special provision of its charter in publishing such adopting ordinance. The code, when so adopted, shall become effective immediately upon and after its passage and it shall not be necessary to publish said code in any publication whatsoever.

Printed Code as Evidence of Enactment of Particular Ordinance

Sec. 5. That any such city may cause a copy of such code, duly authenticated and approved under the signature of the mayor and attested by the city secretary, to be printed under the direction of the governing body, and when so printed it shall be admitted in evidence without further proof and shall be prima facie evidence in all courts of the existence and regular enactment of such particular ordinance.

Subdivision of Code into Chapters, Articles, Sections, Etc.

Sec. 6. That the code may be subdivided into chapters, titles, articles and/or sections within the discretion of the governing body making such codification and providing for its adoption.

Art. 1176b-1. Publication of Ordinances Enacted by Home Rule Cities

Sec. 1. Hereafter all ordinances passed by Home Rule Cities in the State of Texas organized and operating under the provisions of the Home Rule Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, and under Title 28, Chapter 13 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, may be published as provided by the Charters of such Cities, however, as an alternative method of publication the governing body may publish a descriptive caption or title stating in summary the purpose of the ordinances and the penalty for violation thereof; and in the event the Charter of any Home Rule City makes no provision for the method of publication, a full text of the ordinance may be published at least twice in the official newspaper of the City, or in lieu thereof a descriptive caption or title stating in summary the purpose of the ordinance and the penalty for violation thereof may be published.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all laws on this subject and wherever the provisions of this Act are in conflict with any existing law or laws on this subject, the provisions hereof, in so far as same are in conflict with any existing law or laws, shall govern and control.

Art. 1176b-2. Validation of Ordinances of Home Rule Cities Published in Compliance with Charters

All Ordinances heretofore passed by Home Rule Cities organized and operating under the provisions of Home Rule Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, and under the provisions of Title 28, Chapter 13, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, where such Ordinances have been passed in compliance with the provisions of the charters of said cities and have been duly published, as required by such charters, be and the same are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect, in so far as the required publication is concerned, as if published in strict compliance with all of the requirements of the General Laws of the State of Texas; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any proceedings, levies, or to any bonds or warrants issued thereunder, nor to ordinances passed and published in violation of the method and procedure prescribed in said charters, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act becomes a law, or which may be filed within ninety (90) days after this Act becomes a law; provided further, that any person, whose rights are adversely affected by an ordinance hereafter enacted in violation of said charter, shall be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction upon proper application and satisfactory proof. [Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 693, § 1.]

Art. 1176b-3. Validation of Ordinances of Home Rule Cities Authorizing Issuance of Time Warrants

This Act shall apply to every city or town incorporated and operating under a Home Rule Charter (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "city"). All ordinances or other proceedings heretofore adopted by the governing body of any city authorizing the issuance of time warrants of said city for the purpose of evidencing the indebtedness of such city for all or part of the cost of purchasing or acquiring, either or both, of rights-of-way for the public streets within said city, including incidental expenses in connection therewith, are hereby in all things validated; and any time warrants heretofore issued pursuant to the terms of any such ordinance or proceedings are hereby in all things validated; and any time warrants hereafter issued pursuant to the terms of any such ordinance or proceedings heretofore adopted shall, when issued, be valid and binding obligations of such city. It is expressly provided, however, that the validation provisions of this Act shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date of this Act which questions the legality of any of the matters hereby validated.

Art. 1177. Former Powers

All powers heretofore granted any city by general law or special charter are hereby preserved to each of said cities, and the power so conferred upon such cities, either by special or general law, is hereby granted to such cities when embraced in and made a part of the charter adopted by such city; and until the charter of such city as the same now exists is amended and adopted, it shall be and remain in full force and effect.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1178. Vested Rights

The adoption of any charter hereunder or any amendment thereof shall never be construed to destroy any property, action, rights of action, claims, and demands of any nature or kind whatever vested in the city under and by virtue of any charter theretofore existing or otherwise accruing to the city, but all such rights of action, claims or demands shall vest in and inure to the city and to any persons asserting any such claims against the city as fully as though the said charter or amendment had not been adopted hereunder. The adoption of any charter or amendment hereunder shall never be construed to affect the right of the city to collect by special assessment any special assessment heretofore levied under any law or special charter for the purpose of paving or improving any street, highway, avenue or boulevard of any city, or for the purpose of opening, extending, widening, straightening or otherwise improving the same, nor affect any right of any contract or obligation existing between the city and any person, firm or corporation for the making of any such improvements. For the purpose of collecting any such special assessment and carrying out of any such contract, the provisions of all charters shall be continued in force.

Art. 1179. Improvement Districts

Such city shall have the power to create and establish improvement districts, to levy, straighten, widen, enclose or otherwise improve any river, creek, bayou, stream or other body of water or streets or alleys, and to drain, grade, fill and otherwise protect and improve the territory within its limits, and shall have power to issue bonds for making such improvements, such improvement districts to be created and established agreeably to the general laws of this State providing for the creation of such improvement districts, and the issuance of such bonds shall be governed by the powers a city possesses in the matter of issuing bonds.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1180. Private Improvements

Such city shall further have the power to straighten, widen, levy, enclose, or otherwise improve any river, creek, bayou, stream, or other body of water, or streets or alleys and to drain, grade, fill and otherwise protect and improve the territory within its limits and to provide that the cost of making any such improvements shall be paid for by the property owners owning property in the territory specially benefited in enhanced value by reason of making such improvements, and a personal charge shall be made against such owners as well as a lien shall be fixed by special assessment against any such property, and the city may issue assignable certificates or negotiable certificates, as it deems advisable, covering such cost, and may provide for the payment of such cost in deferred payments and fix the rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent, and may provide for the appointment of special commissioners or otherwise for the making or levying of said special assessment, or may provide that the same shall be done by the governing authorities, and that such rules and regulations may be adopted for a hearing and other proceedings had as may be provided by said charter.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1180a. Improvement of Streams Within Boundaries by Certain Cities

Cities Which May Make Improvements; Power Conferred

Sec. 1. Any City having a population in excess of 150,000 people and less than 240,000 people, according to the last or any succeeding Federal Census, shall have and exercise the power and right to straighten, widen, levee, restrain or otherwise control or improve any river, creek, bayou, stream or other body of water, and to grade or fill land and otherwise protect life and property within the boundaries of such City, meaning hereby to confer the power to amend or abate any harmful excess of water, either constant or periodic, by any and all mechanical means, and, to that end, may provide and pay the cost of any such improvement, or any part thereof, in the manner and form provided by Articles 1179 and 1180, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, or the cost of any such improvement, or any part thereof, may be provided in any other manner or form lawful to be exercised by any such City under the Constitution of Texas and not expressly prohibited by the Charter of any such City.

Additional Powers

Sec. 2. Any such City, in addition to the power declared in Subdivision 1 of this Article, shall have these further specific powers, viz.:

a. To contribute to the cost, upkeep, replacement, alteration, extension, maintenance and operation of any works or improvements contemplated hereby, when such improvements are to be provided and/or operated by another.

b. To solicit and receive from another contribution to the cost of any such improvements and/or the alteration, enlargement, operation and maintenance thereof, when such works are to be provided and operated by any such City.

c. To purchase, or otherwise acquire and take over any such improvements, and/or the maintenance or the operation thereof, any one or all, and, electively and when so contracted, to assume any outstanding bond debt or other debt secured by lien, which debt does not bear interest at a rate greater than six per cent per annum, and which debt may have been incurred in order to provide any such works and improvements. It is the intent hereof that this provision shall supercede and control any provision of a City Charter not in conformity hereto, but it is expressly provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to create indebtedness exceeding the limit for debt appropriately fixed by Law; provided no such city, in purchasing or acquiring any such improvements, or the right to maintain and control the properties of such levee or improvement district, shall assume any bonded indebtedness outstanding and owing by such levee or improvement district, unless and until such city shall have first been authorized to do so by an election, at which such question of assuming any indebtedness and/or maintenance shall be first submitted to, and adopted by, the qualified property-tax-paying voters of said city.

d. To enter into contract with another whereby any such City may, jointly with another or independently, do any one or all of the things by this Act intended.

Powers Available to All Bodies Politic

Sec. 3. It is the intent hereof that any and all Bodies Politic which are subsidiary Governmental Agencies of the State, and otherwise having appropriate powers, may avail themselves of the provisions hereof and enter into contract one with another in order to accomplish the purpose of this Article.

Power to Provide Money

Sec. 4. Any such City and/or any other Body Politic and Corporate, which, under contract with a City having power hereunder, may seek to exercise the powers established by this Article, shall have the further power to provide the money required to construct, maintain and operate improvements hereunder, either separately or jointly under contract with another, in any manner lawful under the Constitution of Texas, and not expressly inhibited by the Charter and/or Statutory Act under which any such City or other contracting Body Politic may have its being.

Construction

Sec. 5. The word "another" or "others" as used herein shall be understood to include both the singular and the plural and shall be understood to include a City, a County, a Levee District, a Water Control and Improvement District, a Water Improvement District, a Navigation District and every other Body Politic under the Laws of Texas having Statutory powers concerning the control of harmful excess of water.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 831, ch. 345.]

Art. 1180b. Self-liquidating Recreational Improvements

Powers Granted to Certain Cities; Encumbrances

Sec. 1. That all cities having two hundred and thirty thousand (230,000) or more inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have the power to purchase and own, build, maintain, operate, mortgage and encumber health and recreational establishments, parks, playgrounds, hotels, bathhouses, bathing pools or facilities, and any and all other installations or establishments necessary or desirable as a part of health and recreational resorts, parks, or playgrounds, or any of them either, and the income therefrom and to provide, maintain, operate, and encumber such projects and facilities acquired by gift, devise, grant, or otherwise by such cities, and to evidence the obligations therefor by bonds, notes or warrants and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same with such instruments of pledge or mortgage as may be deemed to be desirable; or to remodel, rebuild, renovate, maintain and repair such health and recreational establishments, parks, playgrounds, hotels, bathhouses, bathing pools or facilities, and any and all other installations or establishments necessary or desirable as a part of such projects, or any of them. Provided, however, that such cities are prohibited from mortgaging or encumbering any property now owned by such cities, and the rights and privileges hereby conferred upon such cities shall only authorize such cities to mortgage and encumber property acquired by such cities after the date of the passage of this Act. No such obligation on any such project shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the property and revenue of the project or projects so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Acts as to Notice, Competitive Bids, Etc., Inapplicable

Sec. 2. That the provisions of House Bill No. 312, Chapter No. 163, Acts of the Forty-second Legislature, 1931,¹ with reference to notice, competitive bids and the right to referendum shall not apply to cities issuing "revenue bonds" under the authority conferred in this Act.

Encumbrance of Income; Operating Expenses as Prior Lien

Sec. 3. Whenever the income to be derived from the operation of any such project or projects shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs, and extensions necessary to properly maintain said project or projects, and every proper item of expense, shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. The rate of rental and concession charges for the use of the various installations, facilities and establishments of such project or projects shall be determined by the governing body of such project and no free service or rental shall ever be allowed. Rental and concession charges shall be charged and collected for the use of the various installations, facilities and establishments of such project or projects in an amount sufficient to pay operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation, replacements, salaries and interest charges, and to provide interest and sinking funds to pay the amount of any bonds issued to purchase, construct, maintain or improve any such project as herein enumerated or allowed, or any outstanding indebtedness against such projects, or any of them, and such charges shall be in accordance with the requirements of the Governmental Agency or Agencies lending or furnishing funds in aid thereof.

Contents of Contracts, Bonds, Etc.

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond, warrant and note issued or executed under this law shall contain this clause:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Management and Control by Governing Body

Sec. 5. The management and control of any such health and recreational establishments, parks, playgrounds, hotels, bathhouses, bathing pools or facilities, and any and all other installations or establishments necessary or desirable as a part of such project during the time that they are encumbered shall be, by the terms of such encumbrance, placed in the City Council or the Mayor and City Commissioners or other governing body as said city shall establish therefor. The City Council, Mayor and City Commissioners or the governing body of the project that shall be so established by the city shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the use and rental of said various installations, facilities, premises and establishments of such project or projects and for the payment of said rentals and concession charges. Such governing body shall have the power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such project or projects of the facilities or equipment thereof without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing, or injury to any such project or projects or premises on which same may be located.

Trustee Under Encumbrance

Sec. 6. A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon the default of principal or interest or violation of the terms and conditions of such contract and for the selection of his successor or successors if the original trustee of any substitute trustee should become disqualified or fail or refuse to act, and for attorneys' fees in amount not exceeding ten (10) per cent of the principal unpaid.

Foreclosure Procedure

Sec. 7. No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any Court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of any such obligation because of any default in payment of any installment of principal or interest or violation of the terms and conditions of such pledge or loan shall be exercised until ninety (90) days written notice shall be given to the City Council, Mayor and City Commissioners, or other governing body of such city, of the default claimed, which notice shall date from the sending of a prepaid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city. If the default claimed shall have been cured before the expiration of said ninety (90) days, it shall have like effect as if no default has occurred or been claimed.

Application of Income

Sec. 8. No part of the income of any such project or projects so encumbered shall be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such city until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

Art. 1181. Franchises

No charter or any amendment thereof framed or adopted under this charter, shall ever grant to any person, firm or corporation any right or franchise to use or occupy the public streets, avenues, alleys or grounds of any such city, but the governing authority of any such city shall have the exclusive power and authority to make any such grant of any such franchise or right to use and occupy the public streets, avenues, alleys, and grounds of the city. If, at any time, before any ordinance granting a franchise takes effect, a petition shall be submitted to the governing authority signed by five hundred of the bona fide qualified voters of the city, then the governing body shall submit the question of granting such franchise to a vote of the qualified voters of the city, at the next succeeding general election.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1182. Franchise Election

Such election shall occur within twelve months from the date such ordinance takes effect. If such election shall not occur within the said twelve months, then such ordinance may be submitted, if petitioned therefor as before provided, at a special election to be called by the governing body therefor. Whenever said ordinance is submitted at any election, notice thereof shall be published at least twenty days successively in a daily newspaper in said city prior to the holding of said election. The ballot used at said election shall briefly describe the franchise to be voted on and the terms thereof and shall contain the words "For the granting of a franchise" and "Against the granting of a franchise." If a majority of those voting at said election shall vote in favor of granting a franchise, the governing body upon canvassing the returns shall so declare and said franchise shall take effect in accordance with its terms. No franchise shall extend beyond the period fixed for its termination.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1182a. Annexation of Additional TerritoryElection

Sec. 1. Whenever the City Commission of any City within this State, acting under and by virtue of any Charter adopted under Home Rule Amendment Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of this State, shall initiate or order an election for the extension of the territorial limits of said city, to be submitted to the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing within the territorial limits of said city, to determine whether or not the adjacent territory desired to be annexed shall be included within the territorial limits of said city, said City Commissioners shall at the same time order an election to be held at some convenient place within said city limits, so that the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing in the territory contiguous to said city and proposed to be annexed, may appear and cast their vote for the purpose of determining whether a majority of the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing in said territory proposed to be annexed, favor the annexation of said territory proposed to be annexed.

Ballots for Election

Sec. 2. Whenever an election for the annexation of additional territory is held in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, said City Commissioners, when ordering such election for the annexation of said territory, shall prepare for the legally qualified property tax paying voters, printed ballots containing the following propositions to be voted on thereat:

"For annexation of additional territory and assumption by the city of all bonded indebtedness and flat rates owing to such water control and improvement district on the territory to be annexed and the levying and collecting of a tax on all property within the city limits sufficient to pay off and discharge said bonded indebtedness and flat rates."

"Against annexation of additional territory and assumption by the city of all bonded indebtedness and flat rates owing to such water control and improvement district on the territory to be annexed and the levying and collecting of a tax on all property within the city limits sufficient to pay off and discharge said bonded indebtedness and flat rates."

Assumption of Indebtedness of Annexed Territory

Sec. 3. If, at any election to be held under the provisions hereof, a majority of the legally qualified tax paying voters residing within the territorial limits of such city, and those residing within the territorial limits proposed to be annexed, shall each vote in favor of the annexation of such additional territory, said city shall thereby assume all of said bonded indebtedness and flat rates on the territory thus annexed and due such Irrigation District, Water Improvement District or Water Control and Improvement District, or either of them, and shall from thence forth out of the taxes collected on the territory thus annexed pay to said Irrigation District, Water Improvement District or Water Control and Improvement District, said bonded indebtedness and flat rates, owing to such district, or either of them, as same become due and payable, and no city thus annexing such territory shall be entitled to collect any taxes due it from the property owners within the territory annexed until said City shall pay such bonded indebtedness and flat rates, for the current year same become due and payable, and present to said property owner a receipt showing that said City has paid the same.

The order of election must give the metes and bounds of the territory to be annexed, and said metes and bounds shall be include¹ and made a part of the ordinance calling for the election.

The election herein provided for shall be ordered by the City Commissioners and the returns canvassed and the results declared as is provided by law for other elections pertaining to said City.

Said ordinance for the election must provide for separate elections and must be issued and public notice given thereof as in other city elections, and provided further that if a majority of the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing within the territorial limits of said city or if a majority of the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing within the territory desired to be annexed shall not be in favor of such annexations then such annexations shall not be made.

Powers Additional to Charter Provisions

Sec. 4. Provided further, however, that nothing in this Act shall be held or construed to repeal or nullify any charter provision of any city of over one hundred thousand inhabitants according to the last United States census, operating under Article 11, Section 5 of the Constitution providing for the annexation of additional territory by ordinance, but shall be construed as an additional power and cumulative of the said charter provisions.

Art. 1182b. Annexation of Adjacent Territory Including Water District or Towns

Cities Which May Annex Territory

Sec. 1. In all cities having a population of more than One Hundred Fifty Thousand (150,000) and less than One Hundred Sixty Thousand (160,000) at the time of the taking of the Federal Census of 1920 and operating under a special charter or the Home Rule Act, the power to provide for the annexation of additional territory lying adjacent to said city according to such provisions as may be provided by said charter is hereby expressly granted, recognized, ratified and confirmed.

Annexation Authorized

Sec. 2. Said cities may annex territory which includes one or more fresh water supply districts, organized under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas whether organized under general or special law; also which includes cities and towns of less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants operating under the general law.

Property of Annexed Territory Vested in City

Sec. 3. In the event such district or districts, or incorporated cities and towns are included in the annexed territory, it shall be the duty of the Governing Board of said City annexing such territory to adopt a resolution or pass an ordinance providing that all physical property belonging to said fresh water supply district or districts, or cities and towns so annexed, shall thereafter be vested in said city, provided that prior to the passage of any ordinance or resolution of the city annexing territory including fresh water supply district or districts, or incorporated cities and towns of under five thousand (5,000) inhabitants, the Board of Commissioners of such city annexing such territory, shall have been presented with an application for such annexation from the governing authority of such fresh water supply district or districts, or cities and towns of under five thousand (5,000) inhabitants included in the territory to be annexed.

Assumption of Indebtedness by City

Sec. 4. The ordinance or resolution passed or adopted by the governing board of said City shall provide that all bonded indebtedness of said fresh water supply district or districts and all legal indebtedness of such cities and towns, as provided herein, be assumed by said City. Immediately upon the passage of such resolution or ordinance the corporate existence of said fresh water supply district or districts, or cities and towns so annexed will have legally terminated and the outstanding bonds and interest unpaid thereon of said fresh water supply district or districts, and the legal indebtedness of such cities and towns, shall be paid by said City as they mature and accrue. [Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 65, ch. 30.]

Art. 1182c. Validating Annexation by Cities of Fresh Water Supply Districts

Cities in Which Proceedings Validated

Sec. 1. That in each instance when there has been presented to the governing body of any city having a population of 150,000 or more a petition by the supervisors of any Fresh Water Supply District theretofore organized under Title 128, Chapter 4, Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, or said Chapter 4 as amended,¹ asking that the territory therein described, including such Fresh Water Supply District, be annexed to such city, and the governing body of such city has adopted an ordinance annexing such territory to such city, including such Fresh Water Supply District, said ordinance and all proceedings had in connection with its adoption and with said annexation of territory are hereby validated and legalized.

Assumption of Indebtedness

Sec. 2. That in each instance when the governing body of any such city has provided by ordinance for the annexation of territory, including any such Fresh Water Supply District, to such city and has provided in said ordinance that all outstanding legal indebtedness and all outstanding bonds and interest unpaid thereon of any such Fresh Water Supply District shall be assumed and paid by said city, such outstanding indebtedness and all such outstanding bonds and interest unpaid thereon are hereby declared to be the legal indebtedness of said city and for the payment thereof such city is authorized to levy taxes upon all taxable property therein, provided that this Act shall apply only on bonds or indebtedness of any Fresh Water Supply District, authorized and created pursuant to the approving vote of a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of any such District; and provided, further, that this Act shall not operate to abolish or impair any of the contractual rights of the holders of said bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued or incurred by such Fresh Water Supply District.

¹ Article 7881 et seq. (repealed; see, now, Water Code, § 53.012 et seq.).

Art. 1182c-1. Cities and Towns Which Have Annexed Territory Within Water Districts

Application

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all incorporated cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities, and those operating under general laws or special charters (hereinafter called "city" or "cities"), which have heretofore annexed, or hereafter may annex, all or any part of the territory within one (1) or more water control and improvement districts, fresh water supply districts or municipal utility districts, which districts were organized for the primary purpose of providing such municipal functions as the supply of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses, the furnishing of sanitary sewer service or drainage services, any or all. Such cities shall succeed to the powers, duties, assets, and obligations of such district or districts in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided. Nothing herein shall prohibit any city from continuing to operate utility facilities within such districts in which such facilities are owned and are operated by such city at the effective date of annexation. This Act shall not apply in the case of any such district, the territory of which is now situated in more than one (1) incorporated city.

Taking Over Assets and Liabilities; Contracts

Sec. 2. In case all the territory within any such district is so annexed, such city shall take over all properties and assets, shall assume all debts, liabilities and obligations and shall perform all functions and services of such district, and after such annexation such district shall be abolished at the time and in the manner as provided in the sentence immediately following. The governing body of such city shall, by ordinance, designate the date upon which the city shall take over, shall assume all debts, and such district shall be abolished, and said date shall be in no event later than ninety (90) days after the effective date of such annexation; provided, that if the city fails to adopt such ordinance, the city shall automatically take over and assume such debts and the district shall be abolished ninety (90) days after the effective date of such annexation.

In case less than all of the territory within any such district is so annexed, the governing authorities of such city and district shall be authorized to enter into contracts in regard to the division and allocation of duplicate and overlapping powers, functions and duties between such agencies, and in regard to the use, management, control, purchase, conveyance, assumption and disposition of the properties, assets, debts, liabilities and obligations of such district. Any such district is expressly authorized to enter into agreements with such city for the operation of the district's utility systems and other properties by such city, and may provide for the transfer, conveyance or sale of such systems and properties of whatever kind and wherever situated (including properties outside the city) to such city upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by and between the governing bodies of such district and city. Such operating contracts may extend for such period of time not exceeding thirty (30) years as may be stipulated therein and shall be subject to amendment, renewal or termination by mutual consent of such governing bodies. No such contract shall contain any provision impairing the obligation of any existing contract of such city or district.

In the absence of such contract, such district shall be authorized to continue to exercise all the powers and functions which it was empowered to exercise and perform prior to such annexation, and the city shall not duplicate services rendered by the district within the district's boundaries without the district's consent, but may perform therein all other municipal functions in which the district is not engaged.

Abolition of Water Districts Within Cities and Towns

Sec. 2a. All water control and improvement districts, fresh water supply districts or municipal utility districts which have heretofore been or which may hereafter be created out of territory which, at the time of such creation, was situated wholly within the corporate limits of any incorporated city, town or village, including a home rule city (hereinafter called "City"), may be abolished in the manner herein provided. The governing body of such city shall be authorized, by a vote of not less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the entire membership of its governing body, to adopt an ordinance abolishing such water control and improvement district, fresh water supply district or municipal utility district if such governing body finds (a) that such district is no longer needed or (b) that the services furnished and functions performed by such district can be served and performed by the city and (c) that it would be to the best interests of the citizens and property within said district and the citizens and property within such city that such district be abolished.

If prior to the date when an ordinance adopted pursuant to this Section shall take effect, or within thirty (30) days after the same takes effect, or the publication of same, a petition signed and verified by the qualified voters of the city, equal in number to ten percent (10%) of the total vote cast at the city election for municipal officers next preceding the filing of said petition shall be filed with the city secretary protesting against the enactment or enforcement of such ordinance, it shall be suspended from taking effect and no action theretofore taken under such ordinance shall be legal or valid. Immediately upon the filing of such petition the secretary shall present it to the governing body of the city. Thereupon the governing body shall immediately reconsider such ordinance and if it does not entirely repeal the same shall submit it to popular vote at the next municipal election or the governing body may, in its discretion, call a special election for that purpose, and such ordinance shall not take effect unless a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon at such election shall vote in favor thereof.

Upon the adoption of an ordinance as hereinabove provided, such water control and improvement district, fresh water supply district or municipal utility district shall be abolished and dissolved and all properties and assets of such district shall thereupon vest immediately in such city and such city shall thereby assume and become liable for all bonds and other obligations for which such district is liable. Such city shall thereafter perform all services and functions theretofore performed or rendered by said district. When any district bonds, warrants or other obligations payable in whole or in part from ad valorem taxes have been assumed by such city, the governing body of such city shall thereafter levy and cause to be collected upon all taxable property within such city, taxes sufficient to pay principal of, and interest on, such bonds, warrants or obligations as they respectively become due and payable. Such city shall be authorized to issue refunding bonds in its own name to refund any bonds, warrants or other obligations, including unpaid earned interest thereon, so assumed by it. Such refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as heretofore or hereafter amended, provided that it shall not be necessary to give any notice of intention to issue such refunding bonds and no right of referendum thereon shall be available.

Sec. 2b. City Water Boards created by Section 6 of Chapter 134, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951,¹ which have remained in existence to preserve vested rights created thereunder shall, after a relevant city has annexed all the territory of the Water Control and Improvement District whose functions it has assumed and delegated to the City Water Boards, remain in existence with its full powers, so long as lands located within its jurisdiction are being used for farming, ranching and/or orchard purposes, and such City Water Boards, without limitation of any other powers they have, shall select and designate one or more depositories of the proceeds of all maintenance and water charges and other charges levied by any water control and improvement district annexed by a relevant city and of any other income or funds of said water control and improvement district, regardless of the fact that one or more members of said City Water Board may be a member of the board of directors or a stockholder of any such depository, and that the funds of said water control and improvement district may be kept in one or more separate and distinct accounts in said depository or depositories if the funds deposited in each such separate account are to be used for a different or separate designated purpose from the funds deposited in any other such separate account, and such funds deposited in any depository selected by said City Water Board shall be insured by an official agency of the government of the United States and shall be at least equally as well insured and protected as funds deposited in the official city depository of said relevant city.

Taxes to Pay Bonds; Refunding Bonds or Warrants

Sec. 3. When any district bonds, warrants or other obligations payable in whole or in part from ad valorem taxes have been assumed by such city, the governing body of such city shall thereafter levy and cause to be collected upon all taxable property within such city, taxes sufficient to pay principal of, and interest on, such bonds, warrants or obligations as they respectively become due and payable. Such city shall be authorized to issue its refunding bonds or warrants to refund any bonds, warrants or other obligations, including unpaid earned interest thereon, so assumed by it. Such refunding bonds or warrants shall be issued in the manner provided in the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as heretofore or hereafter amended, provided that it shall not be necessary to give any notice of intention to issue such refunding bonds or warrants and no right of referendum thereon shall be available. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Outstanding Obligations

Sec. 4. When all of the territory within such district has been annexed as hereinabove provided and in cases where such district has outstanding bonds, warrants or other obligations, payable solely from the net revenues from the operation of any utility system or property, such city shall nevertheless take over and operate such system or properties, and shall apply the net revenues from the operation thereof to the payment of such outstanding district revenue bonds, warrants or other bonded obligations in all respects as though the district had not been abolished.

If such city does not itself have outstanding revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations payable from, and secured by a pledge of, the net revenues of its own utility system or properties of like kind, or, if such city does have outstanding revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations payable from, and secured by pledge of, the net revenues of its own utility system or properties of like kind, but the revenues therefrom are sufficient to meet its own outstanding obligations to which such revenues are pledged, and have over a period of five (5) years prior to the effective date of this Amendment hereto had an annual surplus in said fund sufficient to meet the annual obligations for which the revenues from the water district, or districts, are pledged, such city may, at its option, combine such utility system or properties acquired from such district or districts with its own similar utility system or properties and, in such case, such city shall levy each year against all property subject to taxation by such city, an ad valorem tax in sufficient amount, when taken together with other funds and revenues of the city which may be lawfully appropriated and devoted thereto, to provide sufficient funds and moneys to make the payment of the principal of and interest on any such assumed bonds, warrants or other obligations so secured.

If any such city does have outstanding bonds, warrants or other bonded obligations payable from, and secured by a pledge of, the net revenues of the city's said utility system or properties of like kind, and such city does not have annually accruing to its surplus revenue fund an amount over and above the amount of such fund pledged to the payment of outstanding obligations of the city sufficient to meet the annual obligations for which the revenues from the water district or districts are pledged, then, until the refunding hereinafter authorized has been accomplished, the city shall continue to operate former properties of the district separate and apart from any similar properties of the city and shall not commingle in any way the revenue of any such several systems. Such city shall faithfully perform all duties, functions and obligations imposed by law or by contract upon the governing body of such district in regard to the outstanding bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable solely from the revenues of such former district's utility system or properties and shall likewise, separate and apart, perform all duties, functions and obligations imposed upon such city in connection with its own revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations; provided that overhead expenses may be allocated between any two (2) or more such systems of properties in direct proportion of the gross income of each.

Revenue Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. Any such city shall have authority to issue revenue refunding bonds in its own name for the purpose of refunding outstanding district revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations (including unpaid accrued interest thereon) assumed by such city and shall also have authority to combine any number of different issues of both district and city revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations into one series of revenue refunding bonds and pledge the net revenues of such utility systems or properties to the payment of such refunding bonds as the governing body shall deem proper. The provision of Articles 1111 to 1118, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended, shall apply to such revenue refunding bonds except as otherwise provided herein and provided that no election for the issuance of such bonds shall be necessary. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Newly Incorporated Cities or Towns

Sec. 6. When any city or town is newly incorporated over all or any part of the territory within a water control and improvement district, a fresh water supply district or municipal utility district, the governing body may adopt an ordinance making the provisions of this Act applicable to such city or town and, upon the adoption of such an ordinance by a vote of not less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the entire membership of such governing body, the provisions of this Act shall thereafter be applicable to such city or town and to such districts situated in whole or in part therein.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 7. If any clause, phrase, sentence, paragraph, section or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any particular person or thing, is held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act or the application thereof to any other person or thing.

Art. 1182c-2. Validation of Annexations by Cities and Towns of Less Than 100,000 Population of Territories of Water Control and Improvement Districts, Etc.; Exception

All annexations by cities and towns of less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, including Home Rule Cities, and those operating under general laws or special charters, heretofore made of territory or territories of water control and improvement districts or fresh water supply districts and the actions of such cities and towns in taking over all the properties and assets of such districts, in assuming the debts and liabilities and obligations of such districts, and in abolishing such districts are hereby in all things validated, ratified, and confirmed, and all bonds heretofore issued by such cities and towns to refund bonds, warrants or other obligations of such district or districts are hereby in all things validated, ratified, and confirmed; provided, that this Section shall have no application to pending litigation questioning the validity of any of the matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

Art. 1182c-4. Bonds; Issuance by Cities Over 500,000, in Lieu of Unissued Bonds of Annexed Water District

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all cities having a population of more than five hundred thousand (500,000) according to the then last preceding official United States census which have heretofore annexed or hereafter may annex one or more water control and improvement districts or fresh-water supply districts and have abolished or may abolish such districts as provided in Article 1182c-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (Chapter 128, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1947), as same has been, or may hereafter be, amended. In the event any such district had, prior to such abolition, voted bonds for the purpose of providing waterworks, sanitary sewer or drainage facilities, any or all, which bonds were not issued, sold and delivered prior to such abolition, the governing body of such city shall be authorized to issue and sell bonds of said city in an amount not exceeding the amount of such voted but unissued district bonds, for the purpose of carrying out the purpose or purposes for which said district bonds were voted. Such bonds shall be authorized by ordinance adopted by the governing body of said city in which provision shall be made for the levy of taxes upon all taxable property within said city for the payment of principal and interest thereon when due. Said bonds shall be sold for not less than par and accrued interest, shall mature, bear interest, be subject to approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as provided by law for other general obligation bonds of such city, and when so approved, registered, and sold, shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. All laws, general and special, and city charter provisions in conflict herewith are, to the extent of such conflict, hereby repealed but nothing herein shall affect the right of such cities to issue bonds for other purposes. All ordinances, acts and proceedings of the governing bodies of any such cities for the annexation of territory which includes any such water district or districts are hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed; provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall affect any pending litigation or the legal rights of parties involved in any litigation pending upon the effective date of this Act.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1428, ch. 495.]

Art. 1182c-5. Cities Which Have Annexed Territory Within Water Control and Improvement, Fresh Water Supply or Municipal Utility Districts

Application of Act; Succession to Powers, Duties, Assets and Obligations of Districts

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all incorporated cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities and those operating under General Laws or special charters (hereinafter called "city" or "cities"), which now or hereafter contain within their city or corporate limits (by virtue of annexation of territory or original incorporation, either or both) any part of the territory within one (1) or more water control and improvement districts, freshwater supply districts or municipal utility districts (hereinafter called "district" or "districts"), which districts were organized for the primary purpose of providing such municipal functions as the supply of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses, or the furnishing of sanitary sewer service, any or all, when the balance of the territory comprising such district or districts lies in another city or cities so that the entire district lies wholly within two (2) or more cities. Such cities shall succeed to the powers, duties, assets and obligations of such district or districts in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided. Nothing herein shall prohibit any city from continuing to operate utility facilities within any such district in which such facilities are, or were, owned and operated by such city at the time that the part of the territory of the district became, or becomes, a part of or included within the boundaries of such city.

Abolition of Districts; Distribution of Assets; Assumption of Obligations

Sec. 2. Such district may be abolished by mutual agreement between the district and the cities wherein such district lies. Subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, such agreement shall provide for the distribution among such cities of all the properties and assets of the district and for the pro rata assumption by such cities of all the debts, liabilities and obligations of the district, said distribution and assumption to be predicated or based upon the pro rata value of the properties and assets of the district going to such cities, respectively, to the entire value of such properties and assets. The determination of the value of such properties and assets may be on an original cost basis, a reproduction cost basis, or the fair market value basis. Such agreement shall designate the date upon which the district shall be abolished, and the agreement shall be approved by ordinance adopted by the governing body of each of the cities and by order or resolution adopted by the governing board of the district, and the same shall be so approved prior to the date designated in the agreement for such abolition, distribution, and assumption.

Abolition of Certain Multi-city Conservation and Reclamation Districts

Sec. 2A(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law or this Act, any conservation and reclamation district created or existing pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas which lies wholly within more than one city, and which, on April 1, 1971, did not lie wholly within more than one city, and which, on said date, was not a party to a contract providing for a federal grant for research and development pursuant to Title 33, Sections 1155(a)(2) and 1155(d) of the United States Code, as amended,¹ and which has provided or is providing fresh water supply, sanitary sewer and drainage services shall be abolished ninety (90) days after the inclusion of all of the territory of said district within said cities, and the physical assets, properties and facilities of the district shall be distributed to said cities and its intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts assumed by said cities in the following manner:

(a) All physical assets, properties and facilities of said district located within the boundaries of each respective city shall, at the date of distribution, belong to said city. The intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts of the district shall be assumed by the cities. That part of the intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts of the district assumed by each city shall be determined by multiplying the total intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations or other debts of the district by a fraction, the numerator of which is the original cost of all physical assets, properties and facilities of said district distributed to the city and the denominator of which is the total original cost of all physical assets, properties and facilities of the district. The term "original cost" as used in this section shall mean the actual cost of construction or acquisition. Operating expenses during construction, interest during construction, organizational expenses, engineering fees, legal fees, fiscal fees and other fees and expenses shall not be considered when determining the original cost of any physical assets, properties or facilities. Each city shall faithfully perform all duties, functions and obligations imposed by law or by contract upon the abolished district and its governing body in regard to any outstanding district bonds, warrants or other obligations payable in whole or in part from the revenues from the operation of the district's properties, assets and facilities; provided, however, that maintenance and operation expenses may be allocated by a city between two or more similar properties, assets and facilities owned and operated by the city in direct proportion to the gross income of each.

(b) All of the physical assets, properties and facilities which serve territory within more than one city shall continue to serve such territory and shall be operated and maintained by the city within which such properties, assets and facilities are located. Said city may make reasonable charges to the other cities served by such assets, properties and facilities for the operation and maintenance of such assets, properties and facilities.

(2) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the law or this Act, a district defined by Section 2A(1) may be abolished by mutual agreement between all of the cities wherein said district lies. Such agreement need not be approved by the district. The agreement may designate a date or dates, no later than ninety (90) days after the inclusion of all of the territory of said district within said cities, upon which the district shall be abolished. The agreement may provide a method by which the district's properties, assets and facilities shall be taken over by the cities, and the bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts of the district shall be assumed by said cities pursuant to such agreement. Said agreement may define those physical assets, properties and facilities of the district which serve territory within more than one city, and may provide a method by which said assets, properties and facilities shall be operated and maintained. An agreement executed pursuant to this section may contain all provisions necessary or proper to the abolition of said district, the distribution of its properties, assets and facilities, and the assumption of its bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations, and other debts. Said agreement may bind the parties for as long as fifty (50) years, notwithstanding any provision of the city charters of the respective cities to the contrary.

(3) If a city which has previously annexed territory within a district defined in Section 2A(1) annexes additional territory which lies wholly within such district and obtains the consent of all other cities which have previously annexed territory within said district and which have extra-territorial jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be annexed, then, notwithstanding any contrary provision of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970A, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended), such annexing city need not obtain the consent of any other municipality.

Levy of Taxes to Pay Obligations

Sec. 3. When its pro rata part of any district bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable in whole or in part from ad valorem taxes have been assumed by any such city, the governing body of such city shall thereafter levy and cause to be collected upon all taxable property within such city, taxes to pay its pro rata part of the principal of and interest on such bonds, warrants, or obligations, as they respectively become due and payable.

Operation of Systems with Outstanding Obligations Payable from Revenue

Sec. 4. When any such district is abolished and has outstanding bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable in whole or in part from net revenues from the operation of the district utility system or properties, the affected cities shall nevertheless take over and operate such system or properties through a board of trustees, hereinafter provided for, and shall apply the net revenues from the operation thereof to the payment of such outstanding district revenue bonds, warrants, or other obligations in all respects as though the district had not been abolished, and such system or properties shall be so operated until all such bonds, warrants, or other obligations shall have been retired in full, either by the payment thereof or by the refunding thereof into obligations of the cities. Such board of trustees shall consist of not more than five (5) members, shall be appointed by the governing bodies of the cities, shall serve for such term or terms, and shall perform such duties as shall be set forth in the agreement mentioned in Section 2 of this Act. It is specifically provided, however, that such board of trustees shall faithfully perform all duties, functions, and obligations imposed by law or by contract upon the abolished district and its governing board in regard to said outstanding district bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable in whole or in part from net revenues of the district utility system or properties, including the charging and collection of sufficient rates for the services of such system or properties and the application of revenues so as to comply with all covenants and agreements contained in the proceedings pertaining to such bonds, warrants, or other obligations with respect to the payment of the interest thereon and principal thereof and the maintenance of reserves and other funds. When all such district revenue bonds, warrants, or other obligations have been retired in full, either by the payment thereof or by the refunding thereof, then the properties and assets of the district shall be distributed among the cities as provided in Section 2 hereof, and such board of trustees shall thereupon be abolished.

General Obligation Refunding Bonds; Warrants; Issuance; Notice; Interest

Sec. 5. Any such city shall be authorized to issue general obligation refunding bonds in its own name to refund in whole or in part its pro rata part of any outstanding district bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable in whole or in part from ad valorem taxes (including unpaid earned interest thereon) so assumed by it. Such refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in the Bond and Warrant

Law of 1931, as heretofore or hereafter amended; ¹ provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to give any notice of intention to issue such refunding bonds and no right of referendum thereon shall be available. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Revenue Refunding Bonds for Payment of District Bonds, Warrants or Obligations; Combination of Issues

Sec. 6. Any such city shall be authorized to issue revenue refunding bonds or general obligation refunding bonds, either or both, in its own name to refund in whole or in part its pro rata part of any outstanding district bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable solely from net revenues (including unpaid earned interest thereon) so assumed by it, and shall also have the authority to combine any number of different issues or bonds of different issues of both district and city revenue bonds, warrants, or other obligations into one (1) or more series of revenue refunding bonds (and pledge the net revenues of such utility systems or properties to the payment thereof) or into one (1) or more series of general obligation refunding bonds, either or both, as the governing body may deem proper; provided however, that no originally issued city revenue bonds shall be refunded into city general obligation refunding bonds. The provisions of Articles 1111 through 1118, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, shall apply to such revenue refunding bonds except as otherwise provided herein, and no election for the issuance of such revenue refunding bonds shall be necessary; and in the issuance of revenue refunding bonds, it is expressly provided that such cities shall have the benefits provided by Article 1118n-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, including the power and authority to issue and sell revenue refunding bonds under Section 1a of said Article, as amended in 1955, and the provisions of such Article, as amended, relating to outstanding revenue bonds shall apply to outstanding revenue bonds assumed by cities under this Act. General obligation refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as heretofore or hereafter amended; provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to give any notice of intention to issue such refunding bonds and no right of referendum thereon shall be available. Such revenue refunding bonds or general obligation refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Art. 1182c-6. Validation of Contracts Affecting Water and Sewer Facilities of Cities and Contiguous Water Control and Improvement Districts

Sec. 1. In each instance where since Chapter 161, Laws of the Regular Session of the 55th Legislature of Texas, 1957, amending Article 1182c-1, Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, became effective, any city, including home rule cities, has entered into a contract with a contiguous Water Control and Improvement District, part or all of which district by reason of annexations to such city was at the time of the making of such contract within the territorial limits of such city, which contract provides for the operation of the water and sewer facilities of such district by such city and makes other provisions with respect to the operation of the water and sewer facilities of such district and such city and with respect to the rights of such district and such city thereto, such contract is hereby validated, ratified and confirmed and declared to be enforceable and legally effective in accordance with its terms, and the parties thereto are authorized to perform and carry out the provisions and obligations of such contract. No such contract shall be so construed as to have the effect of giving the outstanding bonds of any such district a lien on any revenues not contemplated by the proceedings authorizing such bonds, nor to have the effect of giving any outstanding bonds of such city a lien on any of the revenues pledged to the payment of such outstanding district bonds until all such outstanding district bonds shall have been retired.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not apply to any contract, the validity of which is under attack, in litigation pending in any court in Texas at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 1182d. Validating Relinquishment of Territory

That the Legislature of the State of Texas hereby validates, ratifies and approves all ordinances, relinquishing, discontinuing, and segregating any territory within the corporate limits of any Home Rule City in this state, having a population of more than twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants and less than twenty-one thousand (21,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal census; which city has adopted a charter under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas and the provisions of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, passed in 1913.

Art. 1182d-1. Donation of Unimproved Land to Counties for Use by Juvenile Boards; Validation; Authorization

Sec. 1. All donations of unimproved land by Home Rule cities of this State by grant or lease to the counties wherein they are located for use by the Juvenile Boards of said counties are hereby validated.

Sec. 2. Home Rule cities of this State are authorized and empowered to donate by grant or lease to the counties wherein they are located any unimproved land for use by the Juvenile Boards of such counties.

Art. 1182e. Exposition or Convention Halls in Cities of 290,000 or More

Powers Granted; Obligation Not a Debt

Sec. 1. That all cities having two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) or more inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census shall have the power to build and purchase, mortgage and encumber exposition and convention halls, or either, and the income thereof and to evidence the obligations therefor by bonds, notes or warrants and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same; or to remodel, rebuild, renovate and repair such exposition and convention halls, or either. No such obligation of any such exposition and convention halls shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the property of the exposition and convention hall so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Provisions as to Notice and Competitive Bids Inapplicable Until After January 1, 1936

Sec. 2. That notwithstanding any of the provisions of House Bill No. 312, Chapter No. 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931, the requirements of said House Bill No. 312, Chapter No. 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931,¹ with reference to notice, competitive bids and the right to referendum shall not apply to cities acting under the authority conferred in this Act until after January 1, 1936, instead of June 1, 1932, as provided in House Bill No. 312, Chapter No. 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931.

Lien on Income; Rates for Use

Sec. 3. Whenever the income to be derived from the operation of any exposition and convention hall shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs, and extensions necessary to properly maintain said exposition and convention hall and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. The rate for the use of said exposition and convention hall shall be determined by the governing body of such city and no free service or rental shall ever be allowed. There shall be charged and collected for the use of such exposition and convention hall a sufficient rental to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, betterments, and interest charges and for interest and sinking fund to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such exposition and convention hall or of any outstanding indebtedness against it.

Provision to be Inserted in Contract, Bond or Note

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond, or note issued or executed under this law shall contain this clause:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Governing Body to Manage

Sec. 5. The management and control of any such exposition and convention halls during the time that they are encumbered shall be, by the terms of such encumbrance, placed in the city council or other governing body of said city. The city council or other governing body shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the use and rental of said exposition and convention halls and for the payment of said rentals. Such governing body shall have the power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such exposition and convention halls without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing, or injury to any such exposition and convention halls or premises on which same may be located.

Provision for Trustee

Sec. 6. A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a Trustee to make sale upon the default of principal or interest or otherwise according to the terms of such contract and for the selection of his successor, if disqualified or failing to act, and for collection of fees not exceeding five (5) per cent of the principal. If such contract provides for the appointment of a Receiver, the Trustee, in the event of any default in the payment of principal and interest or otherwise under such contract, continuing for a period of thirty (30) days, may apply to the proper Court for the appointment of a Receiver. A Receiver so appointed may, subject to the order of the Court, enter and take possession of the properties and operate and maintain them and apply the net revenue to the liquidation of the debt. The Receiver may maintain and operate the properties and may use or rent any part of the properties for any purpose consistent with the continued use of the major part as an exposition and convention hall or, if so authorized by the Court, may rent all the properties for any lawful use, and all of such properties shall continue to be free from taxation until the indebtedness secured thereby is fully paid. The Receiver may rent any part or all of such properties to the city, and the city may lease the same from the Receiver. All rights of the Receiver and of any lessees or other persons holding under him shall cease when the indebtedness is paid or if the Trustee, in the exercise of its powers, shall sell the properties, provided that the Trustees may agree with any lessee of the properties from the Receiver not to sell the property during the term of his lease; provided also that if the principal of all the bonds shall not have been declared due or if such declaration being made shall have been annulled under the provisions of the contract of encumbrance, the rights of the Receiver may be terminated and the Receiver discharged by remedy or waiver of the default and upon application to the Court, and in such event the rights of any lessee from the Receiver shall be subject to adjudication and may be terminated or adjusted by the Court.

Validation of Proceedings, Mortgages, and Bonds

Sec. 6-a. Any proceedings taken by any such city under such Act and any mortgage or bonds heretofore authorized reciting the authority of such Act are hereby in all respects validated and confirmed as fully for all purposes as though duly and legally taken and authorized under such Act as now amended.

Notice to Governing Body Prior to Foreclosure or Action

Sec. 7. No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any Court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of any such obligation because of any default in payment of any installment of principal or interest shall be exercised until ninety (90) days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council or other governing body of such city that payment has been demanded and default made which notice shall date from the sending of a prepaid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city. If the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety (90) days together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten (10) per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date when same was originally due.

Income Not to be Used for Other Debts

Sec. 8. No part of the income of any such exposition and convention hall so encumbered shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such city until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

[Acts 1935, 44th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1655, ch. 425; Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 614, ch. 307, §§ 1, 2.]

Art. 1182f. Validating Certain Tax Proceedings

Sec. 1. All elections, election orders, election proceedings, and city ordinances by which any city or town having a home rule charter has attempted to amend said charter so as to eliminate any requirement in said charter that any portion of the annual ad valorem tax levied in said city or town shall be provided for or set apart for the use of the Public Free Schools in said city or town, which election resulted in a majority of the votes cast being favorable to the amendment of said charter, shall be deemed and held valid in all respects and to the same extent as if each and all things done by said city or town in attempting to amend said charter had been done and performed in strict compliance with law, and each such charter amendment so adopted or attempted to be adopted are hereby fully validated, ratified, and confirmed, and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as if adopted in strict compliance with all the requirements of the laws of the State of Texas and the charters of such cities and towns.

Sec. 2. Further provided that this Act shall only apply to cities and towns acting under a home rule charter and which charter sought to be amended provided that a portion of the annual ad valorem taxes levied shall be set apart for the use of the Public Free Schools; and further provided that this Act shall not apply to such cities and towns unless, prior to the voting of said amendment, the control of the Public Free Schools in such cities and towns had been separated from the jurisdiction of said cities and towns and such Public Free Schools were at the time of the holding of such election being operated under the control and jurisdiction of an independent school district.

Art. 1182g. Home Rule Cities of 900,000 or More; Investment of Trust Funds

Application of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all cities having a population of 900,000 or more, according to the preceding federal census, and whose home-rule charter provides for an elected comptroller, auditor, or treasurer.

Authority to Make Investments of Trust Funds and Special Deposits; Amount

Sec. 2. Any such city, acting by and through the official or officials thereof charged with the duty of managing and conducting its fiscal affairs and subject to the supervision and control of its governing body, as established from time to time by ordinance, is hereby authorized from time to time to make investments of trust funds and special deposits in the custody of such city, to the extent of the amount of such funds that, according to official estimates, are not required for immediate disbursement, by purchasing with such funds or some of them obligations of the United States government, or by placing such funds or some of them on time deposit with one or more depository banks of such city.

Withdrawal of Funds

Sec. 3. If at any time any of the funds so placed on time deposit are required before maturity they shall be made available by the depository bank but the depository bank shall not be liable for interest earned on any amount withdrawn before maturity.

Interest

Sec. 4. Said city official is hereby authorized to receive all interest earned on such investments and to place the same in the general fund of such city as compensation to the city for holding and handling said trust funds and special deposits for the benefit of the persons ultimately entitled to receive such funds and deposits.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act are cumulative of all other powers of investment possessed by any such city, whether derived from its charter or from the general law; and nothing contained herein shall ever be held to have effected any limitation on any such city's powers of investment otherwise so derived.

Art. 1182h. Validation of Ordinances Authorizing Bond Elections and Issuance of Bonds, and of Bonds Issued

Where any city in the state which operates pursuant to a home-rule charter has heretofore passed by unanimous vote of the governing body ordinances as emergency measures calling bond elections and authorizing the issuance of bonds, said ordinances are hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, including the purposes as stated in the voted propositions. All such bonds authorized by ordinances passed as emergency measures, including voted and authorized but undelivered bonds, are in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Art. 1183. Extension of Limits

The city council of all cities situated along or upon navigable streams in this State, and acting under special charters, may extend the limits of said city for the limited purposes named in the four succeeding articles, so as to include in said city the said navigable streams and the land lying on both sides thereof for a distance of twenty-five hundred feet from the thread of said stream to a distance of twenty miles or less in an air line from the ordinary boundaries of said city, either above or below the boundaries of said city, or both, by the passage of an ordinance extending the boundaries of said city to include the territory aforesaid, being a strip five thousand feet wide, and twenty miles, more or less, in length, or so much thereof as the city council may consider advisable to add to the limits of said city.

Saved from Repeal

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 447, ch. 160, enacting the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a) expressly provides in Article III of the Act that it shall not repeal or affect Articles 1183 to 1187 of the Revised Civil Statutes.

Art. 1184. Powers

The city council of said city shall have the right, power and authority to secure land within the territory so added to said city by purchase, condemnation or gift, for the improvement of the navigation of said navigable streams or waters either by the United States or by said city, or by any navigation or other improvement district, and for the purpose of establishing and maintaining wharves, docks, railway terminals, side tracks, warehouses or any other facilities or aids whatsoever to either navigation or wharves. In all condemnation proceedings under this law the same procedure shall apply that now applies in condemnation of land by cities for the purchase of streets.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1185. Status of Territory

For the purposes specified, the corporate limits of said cities shall, upon passage of said ordinance, be extended from the existing limits so as to include all the land added to said city by said ordinance. Such city shall have no right to tax the property over which such boundaries are extended, unless such property is within the line and within the limits of the general city boundaries or limits.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1186. Regulation

After the passage of the ordinance adding said territory to said city, said city shall have and exercise the fullest and most complete power of regulation of navigation and of wharfage and of wharfage rates and of all facilities, conveniences and aids to wharfage or navigation consistent with the Constitution of this State, and shall further have authority by criminal ordinances or otherwise, to police the navigation of said waters and the use of said wharves and facilities and aids to wharfage and navigation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1187. Restrictions

The power granted in the four preceding articles shall not authorize the extension of the territory of any city for the limited purposes named so as to include any land which is already part of any other city or town corporation whether incorporated under the general laws or under special law, or any land at the time belonging to any other city or town.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1187-1. Designation of Annexed Territory as an Industrial District

The governing body of any incorporated city which has heretofore annexed or which shall hereafter annex territory under authority of and for the limited purposes described in Articles 1183 through 1187 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, shall have the right, power, and authority to designate all or any part of such area so annexed and remaining in such limited purpose annexation status as an industrial district, as the term is customarily used, and to treat with such area from time to time as such governing body may deem to be in the best interest of the city. Included in such rights and powers of the governing body of any such city is the permissive right and power to enter into contracts or agreements with the owner or owners of land in such industrial district to guarantee the continuation of the limited purpose annexation status of such district, and its immunity from general purpose annexation by the city for a period of time not to exceed ten years, and upon such other terms and conditions as the parties might deem appropriate. Such contract or agreement shall be evidenced in writing and may be renewed or extended for successive periods not to exceed ten years each by such governing body and the owner or owners of land in such industrial district.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 842, ch. 353, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 1187a. Construction of Bridges Over Navigable Waters

Powers Granted; Wharves, Piers, Etc.; Sale or Lease

Sec. 1. Any city in this State, whether organized and operating under general law or under special charter granted by the Legislature of the State of Texas or under charter adopted or amended under Section 5 of Article 11 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which city is situated within the territorial limits of a navigation district organized under the general laws of the State of Texas and having a deep water port located within the limits of said city, may within such city purchase, construct, own, maintain and operate a bridge or bridges over or across any stream, inlet or arm of the Gulf of Mexico or entrance canal to said port connecting up any of the public streets, highways or other thoroughfares of said city and improve, enlarge or repair the same. Any such city may purchase, construct, own, maintain, operate or lease any wharf, pier, pavilion, and/or boat house and dams and dykes and spillways with roads and bridges thereon or thereover for the purpose of creating a fresh water supply for domestic, irrigation and other purposes within such navigation district, or within the county or counties adjacent to such fresh water basin and may acquire, reclaim, reconstruct, or fill in any submerged lands along its water front, may build and construct sea walls, breakwaters or other shore protection to protect its water front of said city, may provide for and construct water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets, or other like improvements in connection with such reconstructed or reclaimed properties and may operate, repair and otherwise maintain the same. And any such city reconstructing or reclaiming any such property may rent, lease or sell the same, or grant franchises for the use of any such reconstructed or reclaimed property and apply the income therefrom in accord with this Act, and may dredge out, construct, reconstruct, maintain and operate any channel in connection with any such deep water port in aid of navigation within said city and subject to the provisions of this Act.

Ordinances for Operation of Bridges

Sec. 2. Any such city may enact all necessary, appropriate and reasonable ordinances providing rules and regulations for the operation of any such bridge or bridges and concerning the manner in which traffic shall move over and across any such bridge or bridges not inconsistent with the General Laws of the State.

Construction of Act

Sec. 3. This Act shall be construed as cumulative authority for the purposes named herein, and as to the manner and form of issuance of any revenue bonds for any such purpose or purposes, and shall not be construed to repeal any existing laws with respect thereto, it being the purpose and intent of this Act to create an additional and alternate method for the purposes named herein.

Estimating Cost of Improvement

Sec. 4. Whenever the governing body of such city shall determine to acquire, construct, improve, enlarge, extend or repair any such bridge or bridges, and/or reclaim or reconstruct, improve, repair, or extend any such dams, dykes and spillways with roads and bridges thereon and thereover, sea walls, breakwaters, shore protection or water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets, wharfs, piers, pavilions, or other like improvements in any such reconstructed or reclaimed area or territory, it shall first cause an estimate to be made of the cost thereof, and thereafter it shall then cause a notice to be published in such city in a newspaper of general circulation once each week for four (4) consecutive weeks stating in said notice the following:

- (1) The contemplated improvement;
- (2) The estimated cost thereof;
- (3) The use or disposition of the reclaimed lands, if any;
- (4) The amount and location of lands to be reclaimed, if any;
- (5) The time when the ordinance authorizing said improvements and the issuance of the bonds shall be passed or acted upon (which shall be not less than twenty days after the last publication of said notice); and
- (6) Reference shall be made to the right of referendum, as provided for in the next succeeding paragraph.

If by the time set for action upon said ordinance, which shall be not less than twenty (20) days after the last publication of the notice provided for herein, as many as one hundred (100) of the qualified voters of such city whose names appear on the last approved tax rolls as property taxpayers, petition the city council or governing body of such city in writing to submit to a referendum vote the question as to the making of such improvements and the issuance of such bonds for such purposes, then such city, city council or governing body shall not be authorized to make said improvements or issue said bonds unless the proposition making such improvements and issuing such bonds for such purposes is sustained by a majority of the votes cast at such election for such purpose. The law in reference to elections for the issuance of city bonds as contained in Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Statutes of 1925,¹ shall govern in so far as consistent with the provisions of this Act. If such petition is not so filed with the city secretary, or clerk, then the city council or governing body may proceed with the improvements and may issue said bonds, but in the absence of such petition, the city council or governing body may at its discretion submit such question to a vote of the people.

Bonds for Improvement

Sec. 5. For the purpose of acquiring, constructing, improving, enlarging, extending or repairing any such bridge or bridges, and/or for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, reclaiming, reconstructing, repairing or improving any such dams, dykes and spillways with roads and bridges thereon and thereover sea walls, breakwaters, shore protection, water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets and other like improvements in such reconstructed or reclaimed area or territory, any one or all, any such city may borrow money and issue its negotiable bonds, provided that no such bonds shall be issued unless and until authorized by an ordinance which shall set forth a brief description of the contemplated improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the amount, the maximum rate of interest, time and place of payment and other details in connection with the issuance of such bonds. Such bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not more than six per centum (6%) per annum payable semiannually or otherwise, and shall be payable at such times, not exceeding forty-five (45) years from their date, and at such place or places as shall be prescribed in the ordinance providing for their issuance. The bonds and coupons shall be executed in such manner and shall be substantially in the form provided in the authorizing ordinance. Such bonds shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as the governing body shall deem for the best interest of the city. In no event shall any of the bonds be sold on a basis to yield more than six per centum (6%) per annum from the date of sale to the date of average maturity of the bonds sold, provided, however, that in any contract for the purchase or construction of any such project or projects as hereinbefore described, or for the improvement, enlargement, extension, reclamation, reconstruction or repair of the same, provision may be made that payment therefor may be made in such bonds. Such bonds and their coupons may be made payable in lawful money of the United States of America, or in gold coin of or equal to the standard of weight and fineness existing on the date thereof. Such bonds shall mature annually and the first installment thereof shall be made payable not less than two (2) years nor more than five (5) years from the date of such bonds. No such installment shall be more than two and one-half times as great in amount as the smallest prior installment of the same issue. If all of the bonds of an issue are not issued at the same time, the bonds at any one time outstanding shall mature as aforesaid. The principal of and interest upon such bonds shall be payable solely from the income and revenues derived from the operation of the bridge or bridges, sea walls, breakwaters, shore protection, water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets and other like improvements including rentals or other charges received from any reclaimed or reconstructed area or territory for the acquisition, construction, improvement, reconstruction, reclamation, enlargement, extension or repair of which the same are issued; provided, however, that where any such city acquires or constructs a bridge or bridges under authority of this Act, and in connection therewith acquires or constructs any sea wall, breakwaters or other shore protection and reclaims or reconstructs any submerged area or territory and constructs therein or thereon any water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets or other like improvements, any such city may, as additional security for the payment of any bonds issued for the acquisition or construction of any such bridge or bridges, pledge any income or revenues derived from any such projects, and additionally secure the payment of any such bonds with a mortgage on any such project or projects or reclaimed area as hereinafter provided. No bond or coupon issued pursuant to this Act shall constitute an indebtedness of such city within the meaning of any State constitutional or statutory limitation. No such obligation shall ever be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each such bond and coupon that the same have been issued under the provisions of this Act and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of such city within any state constitutional or statutory limitation, and that the holder of such bond shall never have the right to demand payment of such obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Security for Payment of Bonds

Sec. 6. As security for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, such city may mortgage and encumber any part, parts or all of the properties and facilities for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, reclamation, repair or improvement of the same such bonds were issued, and may provide in such mortgage or encumbrance for a grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder of a franchise to operate the properties and facilities so encumbered for a term of not over twenty (20) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. The ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall contain a substantial description of the franchise which is to appear in the mortgage.

Provision of Mortgage as to Foreclosure

Sec. 7. The mortgage or encumbrance shall provide for a trustee to enforce foreclosure and the city shall have the option at any five (5) year period within said twenty (20) years after purchase of properties designated in the franchise to repurchase said properties under reasonable terms and reasonable prices, to be set forth in said mortgage or encumbrance, but this limitation shall not extend to any reclaimed area acquired by individual purchasers.

Management of Encumbered Property

Sec. 8. The management and control of any such properties and/or facilities so encumbered, during the time they are so mortgaged and encumbered, shall be in the hands of the governing body of the city, except as otherwise provided in Section 29 of this Act. The provisions of this Section and Section 29 hereof shall not apply when there has been a sale on foreclosure under the mortgage in this Act provided for.

Bonds as Legal Investments

Sec. 9. The bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are legal investments for executors, administrators, trustees and other fiduciaries and for savings banks and insurance companies organized under the laws of this State.

Bonds Exempt from Taxation

Sec. 10. Bonds and interest coupons issued hereunder are hereby exempted from any and all State, county, municipal and other taxation whatsoever under the laws of the State of Texas, and it shall be plainly stated on the face of each such bond as follows:

"The principal of and interest on this bond are exempted from any and all State, county, municipal and other taxation whatsoever under the laws of the State of Texas."

Bonds as Negotiable Instruments

Sec. 11. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall have all of the qualities of negotiable instruments under the law merchant and the Negotiable Instruments law.¹

¹ Article 5932 et seq. (repealed; see now, Business and Commerce Code, § 3.101 et seq.).

Deposit of Proceeds of Bonds

Sec. 12. The governing body of any such city issuing any such bonds shall, where practicable, require that the proceeds of the sale of bonds issued under the provisions of this Act be deposited in a special account or accounts in a bank or banks which are members of the Federal Reserve System, and shall require, in so far as practicable, that each such deposit be secured by direct obligations of the United States Government having an aggregate market value at least equal to the sum at the time on deposit, or, in any event, the proceeds shall be deposited in some bank or other depository, either within or without the State, which will secure such deposit satisfactorily to said governing body.

Use of Proceeds of Bonds Solely for Improvements

Sec. 13. All moneys received from any such bonds shall be used solely for the acquisition, construction, improvement, reclamation, reconstruction, enlargement, extension or repair of the project or projects for which issued including not more than five per centum (5%) for engineering, legal and other expenses and discounts incident thereto; provided, however, that such moneys may be used also to advance the payment of interest on such bonds during the first three (3) years following the date of such bonds to not more than the contract rate of interest. Provided, that any unexpended balance of the proceeds of the sale of any such bonds remaining after the completion of the project for which issued shall be put immediately into the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund for such bonds, and the same shall be used only for the payment of the principal of the bonds, or, in the alternative, to acquire outstanding bonds of the general issue from which the proceeds were derived, by purchase of such bonds at a price (exclusive of accrued interest) not exceeding the face amount thereof. Any bonds so acquired by purchase shall be cancelled and shall not be reissued.

Validity of Signatures to Bonds

Sec. 14. In case any of the officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officers before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery.

Payment for Services Rendered City

Sec. 15. The reasonable cost and value of any service rendered to any such city by any such project or projects shall be charged against the city and shall be paid for monthly or otherwise, as the service accrues, from the current funds, or from the proceeds of taxes which such city, within constitutional limitations, is hereby authorized and required to levy in an amount sufficient for the purpose, and such funds, when so paid, shall be accounted for in the same manner as other revenues of such project or projects.

Additional Bonds for Extension of Projects

Sec. 16. Any city acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, reclaiming, improving, enlarging or repairing any project or projects as aforesaid pursuant to the provisions of this Act, may, at the time of the authorization of such bonds for any such purpose or purposes, provide in the authorizing ordinance for additional bonds for extensions and permanent improvements, which additional bonds may be issued and be negotiated from time to time as such proceeds for such purpose may be necessary. Such bonds, when so negotiated, shall have equal standing with the bonds of the same issue.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 17. Where a city has outstanding any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, it may thereafter issue and negotiate new bonds on such terms as the governing body of such city shall deem advisable for the purpose of providing for the payment of any such outstanding bonds. Such new bonds shall be designated "refunding bonds", and shall be secured to the same extent and shall have the same source of payment as the bonds which have been thereby refunded.

Rates or Charges for Services

Sec. 18. Rates or other charges for services and facilities afforded by the project and for sales of reclaimed area shall be sufficient to provide for the payment of the interest upon and principal of all such bonds as and when the same become due and payable, to create a Bond and Interest Redemption Fund therefor, to provide for the payment of expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the project or projects necessary to preserve the same in good repair and working order, to build up a reserve for depreciation of the project or projects, and to build up a reserve for improvements, betterments and extensions thereto other than those necessary to maintain the same in good repair and working order, as herein provided. Such rates and/or charges shall be fixed and revised from time to time so as to produce these amounts, and the governing body shall covenant and agree in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, and on the face of each bond at all times to maintain such rates and/or charges for services furnished by such project or projects as shall be sufficient to provide for the foregoing.

Cost of Operation as First Lien on Income

Sec. 19. The reasonable cost of administration and operation and the reasonable expense of maintaining such project or projects in good repair and working order shall be a first lien and charge against the income and revenues derived from the operation of such project or projects, superior to the lien of the mortgage or encumbrance on such project or projects.

Operation and Maintenance Account

Sec. 20. Out of the gross income and revenues of such project or projects there should be first set aside into an account to be known as the "Operation and Maintenance Account" monthly or oftener if necessary, sums sufficient to meet the cost and expenses set forth in Section 18 hereof. After provision for the "Operation and Maintenance Account" the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall make provision for a "Bond and Interest Redemption Fund" into which there shall be set aside monthly or oftener if necessary such portion of the gross income and revenues of such project or projects as shall be sufficient to pay when due the principal of and interest upon the bonds provided, however, that in the segregation and separation of such gross income and revenues the governing body of the city may prescribe a reasonable excess amount to be placed in said Bond and Interest Redemption Fund from time to time during the earlier years of maturities of such bonds so as thereby to produce and provide a reserve fund for contingencies to meet any possible deficiencies therein in maturities of future years.

Ordinance to Determine Fiscal Year

Sec. 21. The ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall definitely determine whether such project or projects shall be operated upon a calendar, operating or fiscal year basis and the dates of the beginning and ending of same.

Disposition of Surplus

Sec. 22. The governing body of such city may make adequate and suitable provision for the disposition of any surplus accumulations in the Operation and Maintenance Account, or Depreciation Account, by causing same to be transferred to the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, invested, or otherwise disposed of.

Provision for Redemption of Bonds Before Maturity

Sec. 23. The governing body of the city authorizing the bonds under the provisions of this Act may make provision for any such bonds to be called for payment on any interest payment date before maturity provided that the city shall have on hand in its Bond and Interest Redemption Fund sufficient moneys not otherwise appropriated or pledged, in excess of the interest and principal requirements within the next two succeeding calendar, operating or fiscal years.

Construction as Not Prohibiting Use of Available Incomes and Revenues

Sec. 24. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the city, county or the State from appropriating and using any part of its available income and revenues derived from any source, other than in case of the city, from the operation of such project or projects, in paying any immediate expenses of operation or maintenance of any such project or projects or otherwise aiding in financing any part of the construction of said bridge or bridges, or reclaiming any submerged area or territory herein described.

Projects Not Subject to Regulation by State Agencies

Sec. 25. Rates of the city charged for services and/or facilities furnished by any such project or projects shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any State bureau, board, commission or other like agency or instrumentality thereof; provided however, that the functions, powers and duties of the State Board of Health shall remain unaffected by this Act.

Separate Books and Records to be Kept

Sec. 26. Any city issuing bonds under the provisions of this Act shall install and maintain proper books of record and account (separate entirely from other records and account of such city) in which full and correct entries shall be made of all dealings or transactions of or in relation to the properties, business and affairs of the project or projects and the same shall be open for examination and inspection by any tax payer, user of the services furnished by the project or projects, or any holder of the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, or any one acting for or on behalf of such taxpayer, user of the services of the project or projects, or bond-holder.

Construction as Not Authorizing Impairing Other Obligations

Sec. 27. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city to impair or commit a breach of the obligation of any valid lien or contract created or entered into by it, the intention hereof being to authorize the pledging, setting aside and segregation of income and revenues as aforesaid only where consistent with outstanding obligations of such city.

Borrowing from Federal Agencies

Sec. 28. Any such city mentioned in Section 1 of this Act, in addition to the powers conferred under this Act, is hereby granted and shall hereafter have the power to borrow money from the Federal Government or any of its agencies created for the purpose of making such loan, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining said bridge and the other improvements herein provided for and to mortgage and encumber said properties and facilities and the net revenues and income from the operation thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired to secure the payment of the funds necessary to said construction and improvement and as additional security therefor by the terms of such encumbrance may pledge and encumber the net income and revenues from the operation of all of said properties and facilities and may provide in such encumbrance for a grant to the purchaser under a sale or foreclosure thereunder of a franchise to operate the property and facilities so encumbered for a term of not over twenty (20) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force.

Permit from Navigation and Canal Commissioners

Sec. 29. Anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, no such bridge shall be constructed, maintained or operated over any entrance channel to any port operated by any navigation district without a permit from the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of such District and all plans and specifications for said bridge shall be subject to the joint approval of the governing bodies of the city and district. Whenever any said toll bridge is constructed, maintained and operated over and across any entrance channel into a deep water port under the provisions of this Act, the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of the Navigation District governing said port shall have the power to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the operation of said bridge in aid of navigation and shall have and exercise direct control over the operation of the mechanical facilities of said bridge, providing for the clearance of the channel for the ingress and egress of vessels to said deep water port and to employ and direct all agencies in the management and operation of same, and said facilities shall be maintained and operated under the direct control and direction of said Navigation and Canal Commissioners; provided, that said Commissioners may appropriate and use any available revenues of said District in defraying part of the cost of operation and maintenance of any bridge or bridges constructed hereunder. No city shall have the power to construct, maintain or operate any such bridge over any such entrance channel to any such deep water port except in conformity with this section.

County Appropriation Authorized

Sec. 30. Any county in which any such city is situated is hereby authorized to appropriate to any such city for use in constructing any such bridge or bridges, or reclaiming or reconstructing any such submerged area or territory, or constructing seawall or breakwater protection for its waterfront, any available revenues of such county, and any such county is authorized to appropriate and apply any part of its available income and revenues to the operation and maintenance of any such project or projects.

Appropriations by State Highway Department

Sec. 31. The State Highway Department of the State of Texas, with the approval of the Governor may appropriate and apply any available revenues of such department to aid in the construction, operation and maintenance of any bridge or bridges acquired or constructed under the provisions of this Act, together with any approaches thereto, or the acquisition of any properties in connection with or in furtherance thereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 32. The invalidity of any section, sentence, clause, paragraph or portion of this Act shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Act.

[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 774, ch. 231.]

Art. 1187a-1. Bonds for International Bridge Across Rio Grande Validated; Additional Bonds for Repairs and Improvements

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any City operating under its Special Charter or Home Rule Charter, which has amended such Charter by a vote of the people so as to authorize the issuance of negotiable revenue bonds for the purpose of providing funds for paying the cost of the acquisition of the part of an International Bridge situated within the United States of America and extending from such City across the Rio Grande.

Sec. 2. All bonds authorized by the governing body of any such City for the purpose of acquiring the part of the International Bridge which is situated within the United States of America and which extends from such City across the Rio Grande, and which bonds are payable solely from the revenues derived from tolls charged for the use of such bridge are hereby validated, and when such bonds are approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, sold and delivered, they shall constitute valid, binding and negotiable obligations of such City payable only from the revenues pledged for their payment. The governing body of any such City within its discretion, is empowered to authorize and issue additional negotiable revenue bonds for the purpose of repairing and improving such bridge in an amount not exceeding ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the revenue bonds issued to acquire such property.

Art. 1187a-2. Home Rule Cities Owning Portion of Bridge Over Rio Grande River Financed by Revenue Bonds; Additional Bonds for Acquisition, Construction, Repair and Improvement

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any Home Rule City which owns the portion of an international toll bridge over the Rio Grande River which is situated within the United States of America and whose Home Rule Charter authorizes the City Council of any such city to issue bonds payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of such bridge for the purpose of providing funds to acquire such bridge and to construct, repair and improve such bridge, or for any of such purposes.

Sec. 2. Where any such city has bonds outstanding payable from the revenues of such bridge, additional bonds may be issued to the extent and under the conditions prescribed by the provisions of the outstanding bonds and the proceedings relating thereto, including the provisions of any trust indenture securing such outstanding bonds, and any such additional bonds may be secured by a pledge of and lien on the net revenues of the bridge on a parity with such outstanding bonds to the extent, in the manner, and under the conditions set out in the proceedings and the trust indenture authorizing and securing such previously issued and outstanding bonds.

Sec. 3. Any such city which, on or prior to the effective date of this Act, by ordinance duly passed by the governing body thereof and pursuant to published notice of intention as required by the charter to issue additional bonds for any one or more of the purposes specified in Section 1 hereof, or for capital improvements to such bridge, has authorized the issuance of any such additional bonds payable from the net revenues of such bridge and secured by a trust indenture or by a supplement to any previously executed indenture is authorized to issue, sell and deliver such additional bonds, and any such additional bonds when approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas and sold and delivered in accordance with law, shall be valid and binding special obligations of such city. All proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds, including the execution and delivery of a trust indenture or supplemental trust indenture securing such bonds, and any provisions contained therein which by expression or reference provide for the substitution of new bonds or coupons for any such bonds or coupons which may be lost, mutilated or stolen, provide for the issuance of refunding bonds, authorize the issuance of additional parity bonds for the purpose of constructing another bridge, restrict the rights of minority bondholders, grant to the trustee a lien on the revenues and funds coming into its possession to secure the payment of fees and charges justly due such trustee and providing under certain conditions for the modification of such trust indenture or supplement thereto, be and they are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed and validated. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 9, ch. 8.]

Art. 1187b. Revenue Bonds for Certain Purposes in Certain Cities Authorized

Purposes for Which Bonds may be Issued

Sec. 1. Any city in this State, whether organized and operating under General Law or under Special Charter granted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, or under charter adopted or amended under Section 5 of Article 11 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which city is situated within the territorial limits of a navigation district organized under the General Laws of the State of Texas, and having a deep water port located within the limits of said navigation district, is hereby authorized and empowered to issue its negotiable bonds, notes, or warrants, payable from revenues other than taxation, for either one or any or all of the following purposes, to-wit:

(a) The construction, maintenance, and operation of a toll bridge or toll bridges over and across, or a tube, underpass, or tunnel under any stream, inlet, or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, or entrance channel to such port connecting up any of the public streets and thoroughfares of, or in, and to said city;

(b) The construction, maintenance, and operation, and/or extension of a sewage disposal plant within or without the limits of said city;

(c) The construction, maintenance, and/or extension, or improvement of sanitary sewer lines and/or storm sewer lines within or without the limits of said city;

(d) The construction, maintenance, and/or extension or improvement of water mains or water lines from the source of water supply of said city to any part of said city or within said city as may be found necessary by the governing body thereof;

(e) The acquisition, reclamation, reconstruction, elevation, and filling in of any submerged or lowlands along the water front of said city, and the construction of sidewalks, streets, and gas lines within the territory or area so acquired and/or reclaimed;

(f) The construction, maintenance, and/or extension or improvement of seawalls, breakwaters or other shore protections to protect the water front of said city;

(g) The construction, reconstruction, maintenance, operation and dredging out of any channel or boat basin in connection with any such deep water port;

(h) The construction, maintenance, replacement, and operation of a basin and boat slips, dry docks, boat service stations, walls, piers, wharfs, and structures in connection with such boat basin and slips.

Bonds as Charge on Revenues of Improvements

Sec. 2. No such bonds, notes or warrants shall ever evidence any debt or obligation of such city, but shall be solely a charge upon the revenues and/or properties and improvements pledged to secure their payment, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds, or otherwise lend its credit, for any purposes authorized by law.

Pledge of Revenues for Payment of Bonds, Notes or Warrants

Sec. 3. Any and all bonds, notes or warrants, as well as interest thereon, issued under authority of this Act, shall be redeemed or paid by an appropriation or pledge of all revenues derived from either one or all of the improvement projects herein authorized, and/or tolls collected from the operation of any existing bridge or bridges, if such tolls are so authorized, as hereinafter provided, and payment of such bonds, notes or warrants may be additionally secured by a mortgage on any such improvement project or projects, including any toll bridge or toll bridges and reclaimed lands; it being the intent hereof to authorize and to provide that all sources of income and revenue derived from any one or more of such improvement projects may be pledged and applied to the payment of the obligation or obligations issued for the purpose of constructing and providing for another one or more of such improvement projects; provided, that said city may provide for the construction, maintenance and operation of all of the improvement projects enumerated in Section 1 of this Act, and improvements in connection therewith, by the issuance and sale of one series of bonds, notes or warrants in the discretion of the governing body thereof.

Election for Issuance

Sec. 4. Any and all bonds, notes or warrants authorized by this Act shall never be issued unless a proposition for the issuance of such bonds, notes or warrants, as the case may be, shall have been first submitted to the qualified voters who are property taxpayers of such city. The method of ordering and holding such election shall be governed by the laws of this State regulating elections for the issuance of city bonds under Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Statutes of 1925.¹ If at such election a majority of the property taxpaying voters, voting at such election, cast their ballots in favor of the issuance of the bonds, notes or warrants, as the case may be, the governing body of said city, shall as soon thereafter as practicable, issue said bonds, notes or warrants.

Maturity and Denominations

Sec. 5. Such bonds, notes or warrants shall mature not later than thirty years from their date; they shall be issued in such denominations, and payable at such time or times as may be deemed most expedient by the governing body of such city, and shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum. The General Laws relative to city bonds, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall apply to the issuance, approval, certification and registration, and the sale of the bonds, notes or warrants provided for in this Act.

Contents of Bonds; Attorney General's Approval

Sec. 6. Each bond, note or warrant issued under authority of this Act shall contain this clause:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

All bonds, notes or warrants issued hereunder shall be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by cities or towns; and in event such bonds, notes or warrants are approved by the Attorney General, they shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of municipal bonds.

Borrowing from Federal Agencies

Sec. 7. Any such city is hereby further expressly authorized and empowered to borrow money from the Government of the United States, from the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, and any and all other agencies of the Government of the United States, which now are or hereafter may be authorized to make loans to public corporate bodies and municipalities, or from any person, firm, or corporation, and which loans may be made on such terms and in such amounts as may be agreed upon between the Government of the United States or its lending agency, or such person, firm, or corporation, and the governing body of such city; and any and all such loans shall be evidenced by negotiable bonds, notes, or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act in cases where the project or projects are to be financed pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

Destruction of Existing Bridges or Other Structures

Sec. 8. Power and authority is hereby conferred upon the governing body of any such city to remove or demolish any existing bridge or other structure owned and operated by said city, if in the discretion of such governing body the removal or the demolishing of such bridge or structure may be necessary in carrying out to completion any one or more of the improvement projects herein authorized.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 9. The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred upon any such city operating under the provisions of this Act, for the purpose of enabling such city to acquire the fee simple title, easement or right-of-way to, over and through any and all lands, water, or lands under water, private or public (except land and property used for cemetery purposes), within or without the limits of any such city, necessary in the constructing and maintaining of either one or all of the improvements herein authorized. In the event of the condemnation, or the taking, damaging or destroying of any property for such purposes, the city shall pay to the owner thereof adequate compensation for the property taken, damaged or destroyed. All such compensation and damages adjudicated in any condemnation proceedings, and all damages which may be done to the property of any person or corporation in the construction of any such improvement project, shall be paid out of funds derived from the sale of bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act. All procedure with reference to condemnation, the assessment of and estimating of damages, payment, appeal, the entering upon the property pending the appeal, etc., shall be in conformity with the procedure prescribed in Title 52, Articles 3264 to 3271, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and any amendments thereto.

Conversion of Existing Bridges into Toll Bridges

Sec. 10. Whenever the governing body of any such city finds that it will not be necessary and/or practicable to construct any toll bridge or toll bridges under authority of Subdivision (a) of Section 1 of this Act, then in that event any existing bridge or bridges owned and/or operated by any such city over and across any such stream, inlet or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, or such entrance channel to such port, connecting up any of the public streets and thoroughfares of or in and to such city, may be by ordinance converted into a toll bridge or toll bridges, and the governing body of such city is hereby authorized to assess and collect such tolls for the use of any such bridge or bridges as within its judgment are reasonable and sufficient in amount, together with other income and revenues derived from the improvement projects, to pay the principal of and interest on all bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act as the same shall mature; provided, however, that all such tolls or charges so collected shall be placed in the interest and sinking fund account created for the purpose of paying the interest on and principal of all bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act, and such tolls or charges shall be applied to no other purpose; and, provided further, that the authority to assess and collect such bridge tolls and the irrevocable application of the same to the payment of bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act shall be authorized at the election to be ordered by the governing body of such city to determine whether or not any such bonds, notes or warrants shall be issued and sold.

Execution of Mortgages or Deeds of Trust

Sec. 11. Before such bonds, notes or warrants shall be put on the market the Mayor and the person acting as City Treasurer or Finance Commissioner, pursuant to authority conferred by ordinance of the governing body, may execute a proper indenture, mortgage or deed of trust, making effective the mortgage lien on the properties pledged or mortgaged to secure payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or warrants, naming in such indenture, mortgage or deed of trust a bank or banking institution, with trust powers, and such indenture, mortgage or deed of trust shall be placed of record in the proper Deed of Trust and Mortgage Records of the county or counties in which any of such mortgaged properties may be situated, and may provide in such indenture, mortgage or deed of trust for a grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the properties so encumbered for a term of not over twenty (20) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force; provided, however, that the city shall have the option at any five (5) year period within said twenty (20) years after purchase of the properties designated in the franchise, to repurchase said properties under reasonable terms and at reasonable prices, to be set forth in said mortgage or encumbrance, but this option shall not extend to any lands or properties in the reclaimed area which may be acquired from the city by individual purchasers.

Costs of Administration and Operation as Lien

Sec. 12. The reasonable costs of administration and operation and the reasonable expense of maintaining such project or projects in good repair and working order shall be a first lien and charge against the income and revenues derived from the operation of such project or projects, superior to the lien of the indenture, mortgage or deed of trust on such project or projects.

Operation and Maintenance Account; Sinking Funds

Sec. 13. Out of the gross income and revenues of such project or projects, there shall be first set aside into an account to be known as the "Operation and Maintenance Account" monthly, or oftener if necessary, sums sufficient to meet the costs and expense set forth in Section 12 hereof. After provision for the "Operation and Maintenance Account," the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, notes or warrants shall make provision for a "Special Interest and Sinking Fund Account" into which there shall be set aside monthly, or oftener if necessary, such portion of the gross income and revenues of either one or all of such project or projects as shall be sufficient to pay when due the principal of and interest on the bonds, notes or warrants.

Revenues Applied to Payment of Bonds

Sec. 14. No part of the income and revenues of either one or all of such project or projects shall be used or devoted to any purpose or purposes, save and except the purposes prescribed in Sections 12 and 13, hereof, so long as such notes, bonds or warrants shall be outstanding and unpaid; and the use or payment of such income and revenues, or any part thereof, for any other purpose shall be a diversion thereof and punishable as provided by Article 94 of the Penal Code of this State, Revision of 1925.

Permits for Bridges

Sec. 15. No such bridge shall be constructed, maintained or operated over any entrance channel to any port operated by any navigation district without a permit from the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of such District and all plans and specifications for said bridge shall be subject to the joint approval of the governing bodies of the city and district. Whenever any said toll bridge is constructed, maintained and operated over and across any entrance channel into a deep water port under the provisions of this Act, the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of the navigation district governing said port shall have the power to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the operation of said bridge in aid of navigation and shall have and exercise direct control over the operation of the mechanical facilities of said bridge, providing for the clearance of the channel for the ingress and egress of vessels to said deep water port and to employ and direct all agencies in the management and operation of same, and said facilities shall be maintained and operated at the expense of said city but under the direct control and direction of said navigation and canal commissioners. No city shall have the power to construct, maintain or operate any such toll bridge over any such entrance channel to any such deep water port except in conformity with this section.

Construction Against Repeal of Existing Law

Sec. 16. This Act shall not be construed to repeal any existing laws with respect thereto, it being the purpose and intent of this Act to create an additional and alternative method for the purposes named herein.

Bridge Defined; Toll Bridges

Sec. 16a. That wherever the word "bridge" or the word "bridges" appears in said Senate Bill No. 43, Chapter 17, passed at the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, the same shall be construed to mean and include the words "tube, underpass, or tunnel," and said Act, in authorizing the construction, maintenance, and operation of a toll bridge or toll bridges over and across any stream, inlet, or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, or entrance channel to such port connecting up any of the public streets or thoroughfares of or in and to said city, the same shall likewise authorize the construction, maintenance, and operation of a tube, underpass, or tunnel under any stream, inlet, or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, and entrance channel to such port connecting up any of the public streets or thoroughfares of or in and to said city, and the authority contained in said Chapter 17, passed at the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, shall in all things authorize the construction, maintenance, and operation of a tube, underpass, or tunnel, and empower such city to charge tolls sufficient to pay from such revenues all bonds, notes, or warrants issued for the purposes enumerated in said Act.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 17. If any section, sub-section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act.

[Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 48, ch. 17; Acts 1935, 44th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1639, ch. 417, §§ 1 to 3.]

Art. 1187c. Municipal Fish Markets; Bonds Secured by Pledge of Properties

Powers Granted; Obligation Not a Debt

Sec. 1. That any City in this State with a population of over one thousand (1,000) people located on the Coast of Texas, or on any Gulf, Bay or Inlet, or within five (5) miles thereof, and in which commercial fishing and shrimping is an established industry, shall have the power to purchase and/or build a municipal fish market for the purpose of encouraging, developing and standardizing the fishing and shrimping industry, which among other services shall have sanitary facilities and equipment for cleaning, packing, shucking, canning and cold storage of shrimp, oysters and other sea food, and any such city shall have the right to borrow money, (and subject to the restrictions prescribed in Section 2 hereof to borrow money and to accept grants, either or both, from the United States of America or any agency thereof), for the purpose of building, purchasing or acquiring a municipal fish market and the necessary real property to be used as a site therefor; that any such city shall have the power to procure the funds for such purpose by issuing bonds or revenue notes for such purpose, and to secure the payment of such revenue bonds or revenue notes by mortgaging the physical properties so acquired, or to be acquired, and pledging the net revenues received therefrom, and by the terms of the encumbrance may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure a permit to operate the same subject to such laws as may then be in force regulating the operation of such industry, or may secure the revenue bonds or notes by pledge of revenues without a mortgage of the physical properties; such revenue bonds or revenue notes shall bear interest at a rate fixed by the governing body of such city not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and shall mature serially in such installments as may be fixed by said governing body within forty (40) years from their date, and at the option of the holder, may be registered as to principal only. Such obligations as may be incurred under the terms of this Act shall never be a debt of such city but solely a charge upon the property so encumbered and the revenues therefrom, and such obligation shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for purpose authorized by law.

Conditions Precedent to Loans or Grants from United States

Sec. 2. No such city shall have authority to accept a loan and grant, either or both, from the United States of America or any agencies thereof, for such purpose, except subject to the following conditions:

(a) The construction of the market must be approved by the Health Department of the State of Texas, as conducive to the health of the people of the State who consume food products from Texas Coast waters;

(b) The construction of the market must be approved by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, as feasible, and of economic importance to the fishing industry generally, in the entire district to be served by the market, as distinguished from the local or civic benefits to be derived therefrom by such city, and that the economic need for such project is not already adequately met by some other or similar institution accessible to the district to be served;

(c) Any such market shall be and shall remain subject to such rules and regulations as to health and sanitation as shall be prescribed by the State Health Department and by all agencies and departments of the United States of America having power to impose such rules and regulations.

Bonds and Notes Negotiable

Sec. 3. All revenue bonds and all revenue notes issued hereunder shall be considered and held to be negotiable under the Negotiable Instruments Law heretofore enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas.

Disposition of Revenues

Sec. 4. The expense of operating and maintaining any such market including all salaries, labor, materials and repairs necessary to permit such market to render efficient service shall always be a first lien and charge against the revenues received from its operation. All of the gross revenues from the operation of such market, after the payment of such maintenance and operating expenses shall be pledged and used exclusively to the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds or notes. Provided if in the judgment of the governing body of such city it is necessary to extend or enlarge such market, the city is authorized to make a junior pledge of the revenues of such market and of the extension to be constructed. In the event such subsequent pledge is made it shall be inferior in all respects to the pledge theretofore made, and the city may issue such junior revenue bonds or notes having interest rates, maturities and covenants as herein prescribed for the first issue of such bonds or notes. The city shall establish, deposit and secure the special funds to facilitate the payment of the principal and interest of all of such bonds and/or notes. It is the intent of this Act that all of the revenues from the operation of such market, after paying maintenance and operating expenses shall be used for debt service, and the surplus if any shall be used to buy in and cancel such revenue bonds or revenue notes before maturity or in the alternative shall be invested in such securities as shall be prescribed in the contracts under which money for such construction of such market may be furnished to the city.

Law Governing Notice, Referendum and Competitive Bidding

Sec. 5. Cities and towns building municipal fish markets under the provisions of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of Article 2368—a Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, with reference to notice, right of referendum and competitive bidding.

Bonds Not Payable from Taxation

Sec. 6. Any and all revenue bonds and revenue notes issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall have stamped or printed thereon the following:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Refunding Bonds; Leases; Sale of Facilities

Sec. 7. Any city of the class described in Section 1 above, having outstanding municipal fish market revenue bonds may, by ordinance adopted by the governing body thereof, issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding all or any part of such outstanding bonds. Such refunding bonds shall be issued and the payment thereof secured in the same manner provided for the issuance of such original bonds, except that no election, notice or right of referendum shall be required. The governing body of such city shall be authorized to enter into lease contracts with persons, firms or corporations for the use of all or any part of the facilities of such municipal fish market and properties appurtenant thereto for such period of time not exceeding twenty (20) years and upon such terms and conditions as such governing body shall deem proper; and the governing body of such city shall be authorized to enter into sales contracts with persons, firms or corporations conveying all or any part of the facilities of such municipal fish market and properties appurtenant thereto under such terms and conditions as such governing body shall deem proper; provided that authority to enter into such lease or sales contracts shall be subject to the prior covenants and agreements relating to any outstanding revenue bonds issued for the purpose of acquiring such municipal fish market.

Art. 1187d. Municipalities Authorized to Encumber Abattoirs

Cities to Which Act Applies

Sec. 1. All cities situated not more than one hundred (100) miles from the Gulf of Mexico, and not more than fifty (50) miles from any stream forming an international boundary, shall have power to mortgage and encumber their abattoirs and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements, including buildings and other structures, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such mortgage or encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such abattoirs, and the improvements thereof, for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Pledge of Income

Sec. 2. All cities situated not more than one hundred (100) miles from the Gulf of Mexico, and not more than fifty (50) miles from any stream forming an international boundary, shall have power to pledge the income from their abattoirs and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements including buildings and other structures, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such pledge may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such abattoirs and the improvements thereof for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Notes or Warrants Issued Without Referendum

Sec. 3. Such cities shall have the power to issue notes or warrants in any sum not to exceed the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), for such purposes without submitting such proposition to a vote of the qualified taxing voters. This law shall take precedence over all conflicting city charter provisions.

Repeals

Sec. 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed to the extent in conflict herewith.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, portion, clause, or part of this Act be invalid or unconstitutional, the same shall not affect any remaining parts of this Act and it is expressly hereby declared that the Legislature would have passed such remaining parts of this Act with such invalid or unconstitutional section, portion, clause or part omitted.

Art. 1187e. Harbors, Ports or Navigational FacilitiesCities on Gulf Coast; Authority to Issue Negotiable Revenue Bonds, Refunding Bonds or to Accept Loans or Grants

Sec. 1. (a) Any city located on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or on any channel, canal, bay or inlet connected with the Gulf of Mexico, shall have the right, power and authority to issue negotiable revenue bonds or accept loans or grants from the Federal, State or County Governments or any of their agencies, or from any other source or sources, to build, acquire, purchase, construct, enlarge, extend, repair, maintain, improve, replace, develop, regulate, operate, lease, mortgage and encumber their harbors, ports, or navigational facilities in connection therewith or any aids thereto, including but not limited to boathouses, boat pilings, seawalls, breakwaters, shore protections, wharfs, docks, walks, piers, pavilions, ways, walls, lands, bulkheads, fills, canals, channels, slips, pools, waterways, turning basins, dry docks, service facilities, bridges, tubes, underpasses, tunnels, ferries, buildings, warehouses, structures, bunkering facilities, equipment, loading devices, floating plants, lighterage, aids to navigation, improvements, towing facilities, and all other facilities or improvements or aids incident to or necessary or desirable in connection therewith, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such mortgage or encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such structures and facilities, and the improvements thereof, for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force.

(b) Such city shall have the right, power and authority to issue negotiable revenue bonds for the purposes mentioned herein payable from such revenues as are pledged by the governing body of such city to the payment of such bonds, and the applicable provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended,¹ shall be applicable to the issuance of such bonds, except as otherwise provided in this Act.

(c) Such city shall have the right, power and authority to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds authorized by this Act and interest thereon. Such refunding bonds may be issued to refund more than one series of outstanding bonds and combine pledges for the outstanding bonds for the security of the refunding bonds, and may be secured by other or additional revenues. The provisions of this law with reference to the approval by the Attorney General of Texas and the remedies of the holders shall be applicable to refunding bonds. Refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the resolution authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the bank where the original bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the original bonds to their option date or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without concurrent surrender and cancellation of the original bonds. No election shall be necessary for the refunding of any bonds provided for in this Act. Refunding bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds of a single series or issue or two or more consecutive issues or series of bonds, and such refunding bonds shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds refunded, provided that when two or more consecutive series or issues of bonds are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds, the lien on all such refunding bonds shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds of the several series or issues of bonds to be refunded are surrendered in exchange for such new refunding bonds. No refunding bonds shall attain any degree of priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issue then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased so as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds enjoying a prior or inferior lien.

Series Bonds; Pledge of Revenues; Rates for Charges; Payment of Interest and Expenses; Default in Payment of Principal or Interest

Sec. 2. (a) Bonds and refunding bonds provided for in this Act may be issued in more than one series and from time to time.

(b) To secure payment of principal and interest of the revenue bonds authorized by this Act, such city may pledge the gross or net revenues of:

(1) any or all of the installations, improvements, projects, or properties which are built, purchased, constructed, enlarged, extended, repaired, improved, replaced, developed, or financed by the proceeds of bonds authorized by this Act, and

(2) any or all of the existing facilities, installations, improvements, projects, or properties of such city existing prior to the issuance of such bonds under the provisions of this Act which may be pledged, and

(3) any or all contracts theretofore or thereafter made by such city which may be pledged, and

(4) any or all other revenues specified by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds authorized by this Act which may be pledged.

The ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds and pledging revenues may reserve the right, under conditions therein specified, to issue additional bonds which will be on a parity with or subordinate to the bonds then being issued. The term "gross revenues," as used in this Section of the Act, shall mean the entire revenues of the installations, improvements, projects, or properties pledged. The term "net revenues," as used in this Section of the Act, shall mean the gross revenues of the installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities pledged by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds after deducting the amount necessary to pay the cost of maintaining and operating such installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities. Any revenues from contracts which are pledged shall be the entire amount due such city under such contract unless specified in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds. Such city shall have the right, power and authority to transfer to the general fund of such city and use for general or special purposes, revenues pledged of the said installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities, by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds but only in the amount and to the extent as may be authorized and permitted in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) When bonds payable from revenues are issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to fix, and from time to time to revise, the rates of compensation for charges, rates, rentals, tolls, leases, and services rendered by such city in connection with such installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities, of which the revenues are pledged which will be sufficient to pay the expense of operating and maintaining such installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities, and to pay the bonds as they mature and the interest as it accrues and to maintain the reserve and other funds as provided in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds unless otherwise specifically provided for in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds. When bonds payable from revenues are issued under this Act, the face of the bonds shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." Such bonds authorized under this Act shall never be a debt of such city but solely a charge upon the property and facilities and contracts as authorized by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(d) From the proceeds from the sale of the bonds payable from revenues, such city may set aside an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during construction and a reserve interest and sinking fund, and such provision may be made in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds.

(e) Proceeds from the sale of any bonds provided for in this Act may also be used for the payment of all expenses necessarily incurred in accomplishing the purposes for which the bonds are issued and in the issuance of the bonds, including but not limited to engineering fees, architectural fees, legal fees, fiscal agent fees, and the cost of printing, issuing and delivering the bonds.

(f) In the event of a default or a threatened default in the payment of principal or interest on bonds payable from revenues, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon petition of the holders of twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding bonds of the issue thus in default or threatened with default, appoint a receiver with authority to collect and receive all income of the installations, improvements, projects, properties, facilities, or contracts of which the revenues were pledged, employ and discharge agents and employees, take charge of funds on hand, and manage the proprietary affairs of such installations, improvements, projects, properties, facilities, or contracts of which the revenues were pledged without consent or hindrance by the governing body of the city. Such receiver may also be authorized to rent or lease the installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities of which the revenues were pledged, renew such contracts with the approval of the court appointing him. The court may vest the receiver with such other powers and duties as the court may find necessary for the protection of the holders of the bonds.

Election Authorizing Bond Issue; Notice

Sec. 3. No bonds authorized by this Act, except refunding bonds, shall be issued unless authorized by an election at which only the qualified voters who reside in such city and who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation and unless a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the issuance of the bonds. Such election shall be held and notice thereof given as is provided in the case of the issuance of municipal bonds by such city.

Examination of Bonds and Record by Attorney General; Approval; Registration; Incontestability

Sec. 4. After any bonds, including refunding bonds, are authorized under the provisions of this Act, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination as to validity thereof. If such bonds have been authorized in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, and subject to the limitation of Section 6(b) of this Act, he shall approve the bonds or refunding bonds and the bonds or refunding bonds then shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Thereafter, the bonds or refunding bonds shall be legal, valid and binding and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 5. All such bonds and refunding bonds of such city shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Authority of Cities to Issue Bonds Payable from Taxes; Applicability of Act; Location of Installations

Sec. 6. (a) No such city nor any other city in the State of Texas shall have any right, power or authority to issue any bonds payable from taxes under the provisions of this Act.

(b) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city of the State of Texas having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) or more according to the last preceding United States census, and the Attorney General of Texas shall have no authority or duty to approve any bonds under the provisions of this Act for cities having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) or more according to the last preceding United States census.

(c) The installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities which are authorized by this Act to be built, acquired, purchased, constructed, enlarged, extended, repaired, maintained, improved, replaced, developed, or financed under the provisions of this Act shall be within the corporate limits of such city.

Exemption from Taxation of Installations and Bonds

Sec. 7. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of such city and of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, such city in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution and shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on such installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities, or any part thereof, and the bonds or refunding bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 8. This law is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas that are applicable but to the extent that the provisions of any such laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Severability

Sec. 9. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. [Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 4th C.S., p. 73, ch. 30; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 134, ch. 80, § 1.]

Art. 1187f. Harbor and Port Facilities; Cities and Towns Over 5,000 on Gulf or Connecting Waters; Bonds

Application of Act; Authority of City

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to every incorporated city or town (including Home Rule Cities) located on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or any channel, canal, bay or inlet connected therewith, having a population of more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the Federal Census last preceding the taking of any action by such city under the provisions of this Act. Every such city or town owning and operating port facilities (referred to hereinafter as "city") is hereby empowered and authorized to build, construct, purchase, acquire, improve, enlarge, extend, repair, maintain, or replace any and all improvements and facilities which the governing body thereof deems to be necessary or convenient for the proper operation of the ports or harbors of such city. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, it is expressly provided that such improvements and facilities mentioned above shall include lands, properties, wharves, piers, docks, roadways, belt railways, warehouses, grain elevators, dumping facilities, bunkering facilities, floating plants and facilities, lightering facilities, towing facilities, any and all equipment and supplies, and all other structures, buildings, and facilities which the governing body deems to be necessary or convenient for the proper operation of the ports or harbors of such city. The improvements and facilities mentioned in this Section 1 are hereinafter referred to as the "improvements and facilities."

Tax Bonds and Revenue Bonds; Election

Sec. 2. For the purpose of providing funds for any of the improvements and facilities provided in Section 1 hereof, the governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue from time to time tax bonds or revenue bonds of said city, either or both; provided, however, that no bonds payable from ad valorem taxes, except refunding bonds, shall be issued unless and until they have been authorized at an election at which a majority of the persons qualified to vote and voting at said election have voted in favor thereof, said election to be called and held under the provisions of and in accordance with Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as the same is now or may hereafter be amended.¹

Pledge of Revenues; Collection of Fees and Charges; Payment of Interest and Principal

Sec. 3. Revenue bonds may be issued secured solely by a pledge of and payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of all or any designated part or parts of the improvements and facilities then in existence or to be improved, constructed, or otherwise acquired, with the duty of the city to charge and collect fees, tolls, and charges, so long as any of the revenue bonds or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid, sufficient to pay all maintenance and operation expenses of the improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), the interest on such bonds as it accrues, the principal of such bonds as it matures, and to make any and all other payments as may be prescribed in the ordinance and other proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds. "Net revenues" as used herein shall mean the gross revenues derived from the operation of those improvements and facilities the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds less (a) the reasonable expenses of maintaining and operating said improvements and facilities, and said maintenance and operation expenses shall include, among other things, necessary repair, upkeep, and insurance of said improvements and facilities, and (b) if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter, any annual payment of the city as may be set out in said Charter.

Interest, Sinking and Reserve Funds; Additional Bonds; Surplus Revenues

Sec. 4. In the ordinance adopted by the governing body authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds and in the proceedings relating thereto, the governing body may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund, reserve fund or funds, and any other funds provided for therein, and may provide where such funds shall be deposited, and may make such additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation, maintenance, and upkeep of those improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), including provision for the leasing of all or any part or parts of said improvements and facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from leases thereof, as it may deem appropriate. Said ordinance and other proceedings may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said net revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to the conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or other proceedings. Said ordinance and other proceedings may provide for an annual payment to the general fund of the city of such an amount as may be specified in said ordinance or as may be specified in the Home Rule Charter of the city if it is operating under such a Charter, said annual payment to be made from revenues received from the operation of the improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds). Said ordinance and other proceedings may also provide that surplus net revenues received from the operation of the improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged) may be used for the payment of interest on and principal of any tax bonds issued by the city under this Act. Such ordinance and other proceedings may contain such other provisions and covenants, as the governing body shall determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of the State of Texas or by this Act (provided, however, that if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter and said Charter contains provisions relating to the improvements and facilities, such ordinance and other proceedings shall be in keeping with such Charter provisions if such Charter provisions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act); and the governing body may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of said revenue bonds.

Ordinance Authorizing Bonds; Form of Bonds; Maturity; Interest; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 5. All bonds of the city (tax bonds and revenue bonds) issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, shall be issued in the name of the city, shall be signed by the mayor (or presiding officer) of the city and countersigned by the city secretary (or city clerk), and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds may provide for the bonds to be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officers, either or both, and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a printed facsimile seal; and provided further that the interest coupons attached to said bonds may also be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. Said bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and shall be sold at public sale at a price and under terms determined by the governing body to be the most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard interest tables then currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the bonds. Such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest.

After bonds have been authorized by the city such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and if such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, the said Attorney General shall approve the same. After such approval, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. When any revenue bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts (including lease contracts) made between the city and another party or parties (public agencies or otherwise), a copy of such contract or contracts and of the proceedings authorizing the same shall be submitted to the Attorney General along with the bond record, and the approval by the Attorney General of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or contracts, and thereafter the contract or contracts shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

Proceeds of Sale

Sec. 6. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, the governing body may appropriate or set aside out of such proceeds (i) an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, (ii) an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds, and, (iii) in the case of revenue bonds, such amount or amounts as may be prescribed by the bond ordinance to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds and into any other funds, as specified in said ordinance.

Outstanding Bonds; Unpaid Interest

Sec. 7. While any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act or any interest thereon remain outstanding and unpaid, the management and control of such improvements and facilities (and the physical properties comprising the same), by the terms of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, may be placed in the hands of the governing body of the city or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such ordinance, consisting of not more than seven (7) members, one (1) of whom shall be a member of the governing body of such city; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter and said Charter contains provisions requiring that the improvements and facilities be managed or controlled by a board of trustees, then the provisions of such Charter shall be followed. The compensation of the members of the board of trustees, the terms of office of such members, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising the same, the election or appointment of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties shall be specified in said ordinance; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter as mentioned above and the Charter contains provisions relating to any of the foregoing matters mentioned in this sentence, it is expressly provided that the provisions of such ordinance relating to such matters shall be in accordance with and governed by the Charter provisions. In all matters where such ordinance or Charter are silent, the laws and rules governing the governing body of the city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.

Refunding Bonds; Ordinance; Approval and Registration

Sec. 8. (a) The governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue tax bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding tax bonds (original or refunding) issued by the city under the provisions of this Act and accrued interest thereon. Such refunding bonds may be issued to refund bonds of more than one series or issues of outstanding tax bonds. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

(b) The governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding revenue bonds (original or refunding) issued by the city under the provisions of this Act, or heretofore issued for any of the purposes covered by Section 1 of this Act or payable from the revenues of any of the improvements and facilities covered by said Section 1, and accrued interest thereon. Revenue refunding bonds, at the option of the governing body, may be combined with new or original revenue bonds into one series or issue of bonds. Such revenue refunding bonds may be issued to refund bonds of more than one series or issue of outstanding revenue bonds and combine pledges for the outstanding bonds for the security of the refunding bonds, and such revenue refunding bonds may be secured by pledges of other net revenues and additional net revenues; provided, that such refunding will not impair the contract rights of the holders of any of the outstanding revenue bonds which are not to be refunded. Revenue refunding bonds may bear interest at a rate higher than that borne by the bonds refunded; provided, that such interest rate shall not exceed the rate specified in Section 6 of this Act.

(c) Refunding bonds (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds) shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded; but in lieu thereof, the ordinance authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold at public sale and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient, not only to pay the principal of the underlying bonds, but also to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity dates, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. In those situations where the proceeds of revenue refunding bonds are deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, they shall be so deposited under an escrow agreement so that such proceeds will be available for the payment of the interest on and principal of said underlying bonds as such interest and principal respectively become due; and such escrow agreement may provide that such proceeds may, until such time as the same are needed to pay interest and principal as the same become due, be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America, in which instances the interest earned on such investments shall be considered as revenues of the improvements and facilities.

(d) When any refunding bonds (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds) have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

(e) All the provisions of this Act relating to original bonds, insofar as the same may be made applicable, shall also apply to refunding bonds issued hereunder (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds).

Applicability of Statutes; Mortgage of Properties

Sec. 9. Insofar as the same may be applicable, the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, together with all amendments thereof and additions thereto, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and any city covered by this Act shall have, with respect to revenue bonds issued hereunder, all the powers granted by said Statutes. However, where the provisions of said Statutes are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail. Further, it is expressly provided that the city shall have no power or authority to mortgage or encumber the physical properties of the improvements and facilities.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (tax bonds and revenue bonds, and original bonds and refunding bonds) shall be, and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be, and are hereby declared to be, legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 11. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas that are applicable, but when a city acts under the provisions of this Act, to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail.

Validation of Bonds and Proceedings

Sec. 12. Any revenue bonds heretofore issued by a city which are payable from the revenues of any of the improvements and facilities covered by Section 1 hereof, and all the proceedings relating to such bonds, are hereby in all things validated. It is provided, however, that the validation provisions of this Section 12 shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date hereof questioning the validity of the matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

Art. 1188. Authority

When two (2) or more incorporated towns or cities in this State adjoining and contiguous to each other in the same county shall be desirous of being consolidated, it shall be lawful for them to do so by calling and holding an election for such purpose so as to consolidate under one government and take the name of the largest city, unless provided otherwise at the time of such consolidation, in the manner and subject to the provisions of Chapter 15, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Art. 1188-(a). Consolidation of Cities, Towns or Villages Under 5000 with Cities Over 5000

Upon complying with the provisions hereinafter prescribed in this Chapter, any city, town or village of less than five thousand (5,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census may be consolidated under one government with an adjoining and contiguous city having a population of more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, when both of said municipalities are situated in the same county having a population of more than three hundred thousand (300,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census.

This section is hereby declared retroactive to the following extent: All petitions purporting to be signed by qualified voters and presented to the governing body and all ordinances, resolutions, notices, declarations or other acts by the governing body of any city, town or village coming within the applicable provisions of this section, purporting to be in compliance with the statutory provisions contained in Chapter 15 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925; and any notice, declaration, certificate or other act required to be done or purporting to have been done by any Mayor, Councilman, Commissioner, Alderman, City Secretary or City Clerk in compliance with the statutory requisites of Chapter 15 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, shall have the same legal effect as if there had then existed a law authorizing each act to have been done and authorizing cities, towns and villages of less than five thousand (5,000) population to consolidate. Any election held prior to the enactment of this Act submitting the question of consolidation to the qualified voters of cities or towns authorized to consolidate by this Act, shall in all things be deemed a legal and valid election as if this law had been in existence on the date of such election; provided the requirements of law applicable to consolidation of cities and towns have otherwise been complied with.

Art. 1189. Petition; Elections; Contests; Time Limitations

(a) Whenever as many as one hundred (100) qualified voters of each of said cities shall petition the governing body of their respective cities to order an election for the purpose of voting on the consolidation of such cities into one city, said bodies may order an election to be held at the usual voting places in the city on such proposition. If any such petition be signed, however, by qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for city officials in any of said cities, next preceding the filing of said petitions, the respective governing bodies receiving such a petition shall order an election to be held on such proposition, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) The election on consolidation shall first be held in the city having the smallest population according to the last preceding Federal Census. When a petition for consolidation has been presented to the governing body of the city having the smallest population, such governing body may, on a petition signed by one hundred (100) qualified voters, order an election for such purpose within forty-five (45) days after the receipt thereof. Upon the presentation of a petition in the city having the smallest population signed by qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for the city officials in such city next preceding the filing thereof, the governing body of the city shall order an election within forty-five (45) days after the filing of the petition. Any such election shall be held within not less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of the election order.

(c) When the proposition has received a majority vote in favor of consolidation at an election in any city, the larger city or cities where no election has been held, in inverse order of rank in population according to the last preceding Federal Census, may or shall, depending on the number of qualified signatures on the petition presented in each such city, order an election on the same proposition within forty-five (45) days after the election returns have been canvassed in the next smaller city in which a majority have voted in favor of consolidation. Any such election shall be held within not less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of the election order. If the proposition for consolidation fails to receive a majority of the votes in an election held for that purpose in any city, the larger city or cities which have not held an election shall not order an election for consolidation.

(d) If an election contest is timely filed in any such election, the governing body of each larger city which has not held its consolidation election may defer holding the election until the election contest is finally terminated. If no election contest is timely filed in any such election, the governing body of the next larger city may, when acting on a petition filed by one hundred qualified voters, and shall, when acting on a petition filed by voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for city officials, order an election for such purpose.

(e) If the proposition for consolidation fails to receive a majority of votes in favor thereof in an election in any of such cities, no consolidation election involving the same identical cities on the consolidation proposition which is defeated shall be held within two (2) years from the date of the defeat of such proposition in a consolidation election in any such city.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 68, ch. 35, § 1, eff. March 22, 1971.]

Art. 1190. Election

The governing body of each of said cities shall appoint from among the qualified voters of their respective cities, judges and clerks of said elections, and such elections shall be conducted under the ordinances of said cities, and in conformity with the general laws of this State. All persons voting at such election in favor of consolidation shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "For Consolidation," and all persons voting at such election not in favor of consolidation shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against Consolidation."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1191. "Consolidation"

The term "consolidation," as used in this Chapter, means the adoption by the smaller city or cities of the charter and ordinances and name of the larger of said cities, and the inclusion within the larger city of all of the territory of the smaller city or cities so consolidated with it, and the area of the smaller city or cities shall become subject to all the laws and regulations of the larger city.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 380, ch. 183, § 2.]

Art. 1191a. Qualified Electors

All those Electors qualified to vote for city officers shall be eligible to vote in the elections herein provided.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 380, ch. 183, § 3.]

Art. 1192. Registration

If a majority of the qualified voters at said election in each of said cities shall vote in favor of consolidation, the mayor or chief executive officer exercising like or similar powers of each of said cities as soon as practicable after the returns of said election have been made, shall certify to the Secretary of State an authenticated copy under the seal of the said cities showing the approval of the qualified voters of the consolidation of the two cities. The Secretary of State shall thereupon file and record the same in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose. The returns of such election shall be recorded at length in the record books of the respective cities, and the consolidation of such cities shall be held thereupon to be consummated.

Art. 1193. Merger

After the consummation of such consolidation, all record books, public property, money on hand, credits, accounts and all other assets of the smaller of the annexed cities shall be turned over to the officers of the larger city, who shall be retained in office as the officials of the consolidated city during the remainder of their respective terms, and by such consolidation the offices existing in the smaller municipality shall be abolished and declared vacant, and the persons holding such offices shall not be entitled after the consummation of such consolidation, to further remuneration or compensation. All outstanding liabilities of the two cities so consolidated shall be assumed by the consolidated city. Whenever at the time of any such consolidation the respective cities shall have on hand any bond funds voted for public improvements not already appropriated or contracted for, such money shall be kept in a separate fund and devoted to public improvements in the territory for which such bonds were voted, and shall not be diverted to any other purpose.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1193a. Validating Extension of Corporate Limits of Certain Cities and Towns

Sec. 1. That this Act shall affect all cities in the State of Texas having a population of not less than 11,000 and not more than 11,500, according to the 1920 United States Census, and which are located in counties situated on a boundary of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. In every instance wherein a city coming under the provisions of this Act has attempted to extend its corporate limits by including all of the territory of an adjoining city of less than 5,000 population, and has attempted to accomplish such extension of boundaries under Statutes providing for the consolidation of cities of more than 5,000 population, and/or in every instance wherein said extension of territory was attempted under Charter provisions which provide for the annexation of adjoining territory without reference to the fact that the adjoining territory is included in an incorporated city, all actions, resolutions, elections and ordinances taken, held, made or passed in reference thereto or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated irrespective of any irregularities, and in like manner as if said consolidation or annexation had been authorized in the first instance.

Art. 1193b. Validating Extension of Limits of Certain Cities

That all ordinances and proceedings, and all actions and proceedings and contracts, taken or made in pursuance thereof, of any city having a population of more than twenty-five hundred (2500) inhabitants as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, which have been heretofore passed since the passage of Chapter 110 of the 41st Legislature of the State of Texas of 1929,¹ providing for the extension of corporate limits of such city, are hereby ratified and confirmed, such extensions and actions, proceedings and contracts, taken or made in pursuance thereof, shall be deemed and held valid in all respects to the same extent as if done under legislative authority, previously given.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1194. Creation of Court

There is hereby created and established in each of the incorporated cities, towns, and villages of this State, a court to be known as the "Corporation Court."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1194A. Change of Name

The name "Corporation Court" is changed to the "Municipal Court." All other statutory references to the Corporation Court shall be construed to mean the Municipal Court.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1689, ch. 547, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 1195. Jurisdiction

A corporation court shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city, town or village, in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the said city, town or village, and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which said city, town or village is situated in all criminal cases arising under the criminal laws of this State, in which punishment is by fine only, and where the maximum of such fine may not exceed two hundred dollars, and arising within such territorial limits.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1196. Judge of the Municipal Court

Such court shall be presided over by a judge to be known as the "judge of the municipal court" who, in cities, towns or villages incorporated under special charter shall be selected under the provisions of the charter concerning the election or appointment of the judge to preside over the municipal court. All such provisions are hereby made applicable to the judge of the municipal court herein provided for. All other statutory references to the "recorder" shall be construed to mean the "judge of the municipal court."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2423, ch. 771, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 1196(a). Home Rule Cities; Judge

The Corporation Court in any city heretofore or hereafter incorporated, or adopting or amending its Charter, under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, commonly known and referred to as the "Home Rule Amendment", shall be presided over by a judge to be known as the "Recorder", "City Judge", or "Judge of the Corporation Court", as such official may be called in the charter of any city, and who shall be selected under the provisions of the City Charter concerning the election or appointment of the judge to preside over the Corporation Court.

All judges now holding office and presiding over any such Corporation Court in any such city and heretofore appointed or elected in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of such city are hereby declared to be the duly constituted, appointed or elected judge of such Court and shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly selected in accordance with the provisions hereof and shall have qualified according to law.

Art. 1197. Judge in Other Cities

In cities, towns and villages, not incorporated under special charter, the mayor shall be ex-officio recorder of the "corporation court," unless the governing body shall by ordinance authorize the election of a recorder, in which case a recorder shall be elected in the same manner and for the same time as the mayor is elected.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1197a. Recorder

The governing body of any city, town or village not incorporated under special charter nor incorporated under or adopting or amending its charter under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, commonly known and referred to as the "Home Rule Amendment," may by ordinance provide for the appointment and qualifications of the recorder of the Corporation Court in any such city, town or village.

In any such city, town or village so providing by ordinance for the appointment of the recorder of such Corporation Court and which has not theretofore provided for the election of such recorder in the manner authorized by Article 1197, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, the mayor of such city, town or village shall cease to be the ex-officio recorder of such Court upon the enactment of such ordinance and the recorder first appointed shall hold his term of office corresponding to the unexpired term of said mayor, and every two (2) years thereafter a recorder shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years.

In any such city, town or village so providing for the appointment of the recorder of such Corporation Court and which has theretofore provided for the election of such recorder, the recorder first appointed shall be appointed at the expiration of the term of office of the then recorder so elected and shall hold his term of office for two (2) years, and every two (2) years thereafter a recorder shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years.

All recorders of such Corporation Courts in such cities, towns and villages shall hold their terms of office for the term appointed and until their successors have been appointed and qualified.

Art. 1198. Term of Office

Wherever in any such city, town or village, the office of the presiding magistrate of the municipal court therein shall not have expired when the recorder is elected, the recorder first elected shall hold his term of office corresponding to the unexpired term of said magistrate; and every two years thereafter such recorder shall be elected for a term of two years.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1199. Vacancy

A vacancy in the office of recorder or clerk of the court in any city, town or village, shall be filled by the governing body for the unexpired term only.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1200. Clerk

A clerk for said corporation court shall be elected by the governing body of each such city, town or village, at the same time at which the recorder is elected; but it may be provided by ordinance that the city secretary shall be ex-officio clerk of the said court, who may be authorized to appoint a deputy with the same power as the secretary. Such clerk shall hold his office for two years. In case of ex-officio clerk, he shall hold his office during his term as city secretary. The clerk shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the said court, issue all process, and generally perform all the duties of the clerk of a court as prescribed by law for a county clerk in so far as the same may be applicable.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1200a. Two Courts Authorized in Cities Having Over 250,000 PopulationEstablishment; Judges

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities of this State having a population in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) according to the latest preceding United States census, may, by an ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of two (2) Corporation Courts. The Mayor of any such city shall have the power to appoint two (2) or more Judges for such Corporation Courts and designate the seniority of the Judges, with the confirmation of the governing body of the city, so that either or both Courts may be in concurrent or continuous session, either day or night.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such Corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all Corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinance; Provisions Authorized

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as Recorder of said Court or Courts.

(2) That such Courts and the Recorders thereof may transfer cases from one Court to another, and that any Recorder of any of such Courts may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

(3) That there shall be a Corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such Corporation Courts, together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

(4) That complaints shall be filed with such Corporation Court Clerk in such manner as to provide for an equal distribution of cases among such Courts.

Procedure

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all Corporation Courts.

Conflicting Laws Repealed

Sec. 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only, and this Act shall supersede any provisions of any special charters of cities which are contrary to the terms hereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Legislature in adopting this Act that no portion shall become inoperative by reason of the invalidity of any other portion.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 92; Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 226, ch. 130, § 1.]

PARTICULAR MUNICIPAL COURTS

Art. 1200aa. Wichita Falls

Creation; Formation by Ordinance; Additional Courts

Sec. 1. There is created in the City of Wichita Falls a court of record to be known as the "Municipal Court," to be held in that city if the governing body of the city, by legally adopted ordinance, finds and determines that the conditions of the dockets of the other courts of the county are such as to require the formation of the municipal court in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city. The governing body of the city may by ordinance determine that more than one municipal court is required in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city, in which case the governing body of the city may establish as many municipal courts as it deems necessary and the ordinance establishing the municipal courts shall designate the municipal courts as Municipal Court No. 1, Municipal Court No. 2, and as each municipal court is established it shall be designated with the next succeeding number.

Criminal Jurisdiction; Writs; Terms; Exchange of Benches

Sec. 2. (a) Municipal courts in Wichita Falls shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all criminal cases arising under the charter and ordinances of the city and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction in all criminal cases arising under the laws of the State of Texas and arising within the territorial limits of the city, in which punishment is by fine only, and where the maximum of such fine may not exceed $200. The Municipal Court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction in all misdemeanor cases arising under the traffic laws of the State of Texas as defined in Chapter 173, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended,¹ and Chapter 421, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947, as amended² where the offense was committed within the corporate limits of the city.

(b) The judge of a municipal court may grant writs of mandamus, injunction, attachment, and all other necessary writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) Municipal courts shall hold no terms and may sit at any time for the transaction of the business of the courts.

(d) Where more than one municipal court is established by the governing body of the city, the judges of the municipal courts may, at any time, exchange benches and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts; and any and all acts thus performed by any of the judges shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters, and proceedings.

² Article 6701d.

Criminal Jurisdiction; Conformance to This Act

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of all courts exercising criminal jurisdiction is conformed to the terms and provisions of this Act.

Judges; Qualifications; Appointment; Compensation; Removal; Vacancies; Bond and Oath

Sec. 4. Municipal courts shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be known as the "municipal judge," who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing with two or more years of experience in the practice of law in this state, a citizen of the United States and of this state. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence within the city during his tenure of office. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office, and shall not engage in the private practice of law while in office. He shall be selected and appointed to office by the Board of Aldermen.

(a) Municipal court judges shall receive a salary to be set by the governing body of the city which may not be diminished during his term of office. A municipal judge may not be removed from office during the term for which he was appointed except for cause to the same extent and under the same rules that judges of the county courts may be removed from office.

(b) At the end of the term of office for which a municipal judge is appointed, the governing body of the city may appoint the person serving as municipal judge to another two-year term, or the governing body of the city may declare the office of municipal judge vacant.

(c) Any vacancy in the office of municipal judge by death, resignation, or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

(d) Pending such nomination as hereinabove provided, as well as during any period during which a municipal judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the mayor of the city, by and with the consent of the governing body of said city, is authorized to appoint some qualified person to act in the place and stead of the municipal judge, and the appointee shall have all the powers and discharge all the duties of the office, and shall receive the same compensation therefor as is payable to the regular municipal judge while he is so acting.

(e) Municipal judges shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Complaints by City Attorney

Sec. 5. All proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced upon original complaint filed by the city attorney of the city, provided, however, that parking tickets, including red meter tickets, need not be signed by the city attorney unless a complaint is tried in court. All such complaints shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney.

Filing of Original Papers; Notations on Case Folder

Sec. 6. The clerk of the municipal courts under the direction of the presiding judge shall file the original complaint and the original of all judgments, orders, motions, or other papers and proceedings in each case in a folder for permanent record. No separate minute book for the court is required, but the original papers filed with the court shall constitute the records of the courts, provided however, that such records may be kept by the clerk on microfilm when over one year old and shall be admissible in evidence as provided by Articles 3731a, 3731b, and 3731c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, in civil cases. The clerk of the municipal courts shall cause to be noted on the outside of each case folder the following information:

- (1) The style of the action;
- (2) The nature of the offense charged;
- (3) The date the warrant was issued and return made thereon;
- (4) The time when the examination or trial was had, and if a trial, whether it was by a jury or before the judge of the court;
- (5) Trial settings;
- (6) The verdict of the jury, if any;
- (7) Judgment of the court, if any;
- (8) Motion for a new trial, if any, and the decision thereon;
- (9) If an appeal was taken; and
- (10) The time when, and the manner in which the judgment and sentence was enforced.

Orders or judgments, showing disposition of parking tickets as well as red meter tickets, not tried in court, need not be signed by the court.

Clerk of Municipal Courts; Appointment; Duties

Sec. 7. The clerk of the municipal courts shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. It shall be the duty of the clerk or his deputies to keep the records of proceedings of the court and to issue all processes and generally to do and to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of county court at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts shall hold his office at the pleasure of the governing body of the city, and shall perform his duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge.

Court Reporter; Qualifications; Appointment; Duties

Sec. 8. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases tried before the municipal courts, the governing body of the city shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession and have the qualifications required of a court reporter in the county courts or county courts at law as provided by the general laws of Texas. The reporter shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the governing body of the city at a salary to be fixed by the governing body. The court reporter of the court is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, prosecutor, nor the judge demands it. The governing body of the city may authorize and appoint more than one court reporter for each court established so as to dispose of the business of the courts without delay. The court reporter shall perform his duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge.

Evidence; Admissibility in Other Proceedings

Sec. 8a. That testimony, exhibits or evidence given by any witness in the course of any proceeding in such municipal courts shall be solely for the purpose of such proceeding or appeal therefrom and, in any other civil proceeding, evidence relating to such testimony, exhibits, evidence or reproductions thereof shall be privileged and not admissible for any purpose.

Costs

Sec. 9. No court costs shall be assessed or collected by any municipal court in any case tried in the courts, except warrant fees or capias fees as authorized by the code of criminal procedure for corporation courts.

Service of Process

Sec. 10. All processes issuing out of municipal courts may be served by a policeman of the city or by any peace officer under the same rules as are provided for service by sheriffs and constables of process issuing out of a county court so far as applicable.

Prosecutions by City Attorney; Bailiff

Sec. 11. All prosecutions in municipal courts shall be conducted by the city attorney of the city, or his assistant or deputy. The chief of police of the city shall in person or by deputy attend the court and perform the duties of a bailiff.

Complaint; Form

Sec. 12. Proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced by complaint filed by the city attorney, which shall begin: "In the name and by authority of the State of Texas"; and shall conclude "Against the peace and dignity of the State." All complaints shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney and may be signed by any credible person upon information and belief sworn to before the city attorney, or his assistant or deputy, who, for that purpose shall have power to administer the oath. The complaint shall be in writing and shall state:

(1) The name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, shall describe him as accurately as practicable;

(2) The offense with which he is charged in plain and intelligible words;

(3) It must appear that the place where the offense is charged to have been committed is within the jurisdiction of the municipal court; and,

(4) It must show, from the date of the offense stated therein that the offense is not barred by limitations. All pleadings in the municipal courts shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of such courts.

Right to Jury Trial; Selection of Jurors

Sec. 13. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense shall be entitled to be tried by a lawful jury of six persons. The municipal judge may set certain days of each week or month for the trial of jury cases. Juries for the court shall be selected as follows: On the adoption of this Act by the governing body of the city and between the 1st and 15th days of August of each year thereafter, the clerk of the municipal court or one of his deputies, and the city clerk, or one of his deputies, shall meet together and select from the list of qualified jurors in the city, the jurors for service in the municipal courts for the ensuing year. The list of jurors shall be taken from the voters registration list of the City of Wichita Falls. The officers shall write the names of all persons who are known to be qualified jurors under the law residing in the city on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on the cards, whenever possible, the post-office address of each juror so selected. The cards containing the names shall be deposited in a jury wheel to be provided for that purpose by the governing body of the city. The wheel shall be constructed of any durable material, shall be so constructed so as to freely revolve on its axle, and may be equipped with a motor to revolve the wheel so as to thoroughly mix the cards. The wheel shall be locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock. The wheel and the clasps into which the locks are fitted shall be arranged so that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of the locks are unlocked. The keys to the locks shall be kept one by the city clerk and the other by the clerk of the municipal court. The city clerk and the clerk of the municipal court shall not open the wheel nor permit it to be opened by any person except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified. The city clerk shall keep the wheel when not in use in a safe and secure place where it cannot be tampered with.

(b) Not less than 10 days before January 1 and July 1 of each year, the clerk of the municipal court, or one of his deputies, and the city clerk or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the municipal judge shall draw from the wheel containing the names of jurors, after the wheel has been turned and the cards thoroughly mixed, one by one the names of jurors to provide the number directed by the judge for each week of the six months next ensuing for which a jury may be required, and shall record the names as they are drawn upon a separate sheet of paper for each week for which jurors may be required. At the drawing no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present. The officers attending the drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. If at any time during the next six months and prior to the next drawing date it appears that the list already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of six months, additional lists for as many additional weeks as the judge may direct will be drawn in the same manner. The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the municipal court, or the deputy, doing the drawing and the municipal judge in whose presence the names were drawn, to be the lists drawn by him for that semiannual period and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes endorsed "List No. _____ of the Petit Jurors drawn on the _____ day of _____, 19____, for the Municipal Court of Wichita Falls, Texas." The clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly endorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or his deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his office under lock and key. When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing the names shall be sealed in separate envelopes endorsed "Cards containing the names of jurors list No. _____ of the Petit Jurors drawn on the _____ day of _____, 19____, for the Municipal Court of Wichita Falls, Texas." Each envelope shall be retained unopened by the clerk until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled. After the jurors so impaneled have served four or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk or his deputy and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors from the wheel. If any of the lists drawn are not used, the clerk or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the six-month period and return the cards to the wheel. A juror serving on a jury in the court shall receive not less than $5 for each day and for each fraction of a day he attends the court as a juror and in no event less than that paid in county courts.

Ordinances and Corporate Limits; Judicial Notice

Sec. 14. Municipal courts shall take judicial notice of all the city ordinances and the corporate limits of Wichita Falls in all cases tried in the courts.

Code of Criminal Procedure; Applicability

Sec. 15. Except as modified by this Act, the trial of cases before municipal courts shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas applicable to county courts.

Bonds

Sec. 16. All bonds taken in proceedings in the courts shall be payable to the State of Texas for the use and benefit of Wichita Falls.

Judgment and Sentence

Sec. 17. The judgment and sentence, in case of conviction before municipal courts shall be in the name of the State of Texas, and shall recover of the defendant the fine and costs for the use and benefit of the city; except when otherwise ordered by the court, the court shall require that the defendant remain in custody of the chief of police of such city until the fine and costs are paid; and order that execution issue to collect the fines and penalties.

Appeals

Sec. 18. Appeals from municipal courts shall be heard by the county court except in cases where the county court has no jurisdiction of appeals from justice courts, in which cases, the appeals shall be heard by the court having jurisdiction of appeals from justice courts.

Right of Appeal; State

Sec. 19. The state shall have no right of appeal.

Right of Appeal; Defendant; Motion for New Trial

Sec. 20. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in a municipal court under the rules hereinafter prescribed, and a motion for a new trial shall be prerequisite to the right of appeal from a municipal court.

Motion for New Trial; Time; Filing

Sec. 21. A motion for a new trial must be made within five days after the rendition of judgment and sentence, and not afterward.

Such motion must be in writing and filed with the clerk of said court.

New Trial; State

Sec. 22. In no case shall the state be entitled to a new trial.

Notice of Appeal; Bond; Time

Sec. 23. An appeal may be taken by giving notice of appeal in open court, which shall be noted on the docket of the court or embodied in the order overruling the motion for new trial. The notice must be given or filed within 10 days after the order overruling the motion for a new trial is rendered. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been given and approved by the court. The appeal bond must be filed with the court within 10 days after the order of the court refusing a new trial has been rendered, and not afterwards.

Bail on Appeal

Sec. 24. In appeals from the judgments and sentence of a municipal court, the defendant shall, if he be in custody, be committed to jail unless he gives bail, to be approved by the judge of the municipal court, in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against him, payable to the State of Texas for the use and benefit of the city; provided the bail shall not in any case be for a less sum than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instanter, if the court is in session; and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Perfecting Appeal; Filing of Bond

Sec. 25. Appeals from municipal courts may be perfected by filing the appeal bond provided for in the preceding section upon approval by the municipal court, subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 34.

Record and Briefs on Appeal

Sec. 26. In view of the crowded conditions of the dockets of the courts, the record and briefs on appeal in a case appealed from a municipal court shall be limited so far as possible to the questions relied on for reversal.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 27. The record on appeal in a case appealed from a municipal court shall consist of a transcript, and where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Assignments of Error; Waiver

Sec. 28. The motion for a new trial in a case appealed from a municipal court shall constitute the assignments of error on appeal. A ground of error not distinctly set forth in a motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Record on Appeal; Stipulation

Sec. 29. The city attorney, or his assistant or deputy, and the defendant, or his attorney, by written stipulation filed with the clerk of the municipal court may designate the parts of the record, proceedings, and evidence to be included in the record on appeal.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 30. The clerk of the municipal court, under written instructions of the defendant, or his attorney, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true copy of the proceedings in the municipal court, and, unless otherwise designated by agreement of the parties, shall include the following:

- (1) the complaint upon which the trial was had;
- (2) the order of the court upon any motions or exceptions;
- (3) the judgment of the court and the verdict of the jury;
- (4) any findings of fact or conclusions of law by the court;
- (5) the judgment of the court;
- (6) the motion for new trial and the order of the court thereon;
- (7) the notice of appeal;
- (8) any statement of the defendant or the city attorney as to the matter to be included in the record;
- (9) the appeal bond;
- (10) certified bill of cost;
- (11) any signed paper designated as material by the defendant, or his attorney, or the city attorney or his assistant or deputy.

The defendant, or his attorney, may file with the clerk and deliver or mail to the city attorney a copy of the written instruction, and the city attorney may file and deliver or mail a written direction to the clerk to include in the transcript additional portions of proceedings in the trial court.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 31. (a) The statement of facts of the testimony of the witnesses need not be in narrative form but may be in question and answer form. The defendant, or his attorney, may prepare and file with the clerk a condensed statement in narrative form of all or part of the testimony and deliver a true copy thereof to the city attorney and if the city attorney is dissatisfied with the narrative statement, he may require the testimony in question and answer form to be substituted for all or part thereof.

(b) All matters not essential to the decision or the questions presented in the motion for new trial, shall be omitted from a statement of facts. Formal parts of all exhibits and more than one copy of any document appearing in the transcript or the statement of facts shall be excluded. All documents shall be abridged by omitting or abbreviating a formal portion thereof.

(c) It shall be unnecessary for the statement of facts to be approved by the trial court or judge thereof when agreed to by the defendant, or his attorney, and the city attorney.

(d) A written request for a statement of facts shall be made to the court reporter of the municipal court by the defendant or his attorney.

Agreed Statement of Case

Sec. 32. The defendant, or his attorney, and the city attorney may agree upon a brief statement of the case and upon the facts proven as will enable the appellate court to determine where there is error in the judgment of the trial court. Such statements shall be copied into the transcript in lieu of the proceedings themselves.

Transcript and Statement of Facts; Filing

Sec. 33. The transcript and the statement of facts shall be filed with the clerk of the municipal court within 60 days from the date of the order overruling the motion for new trial, and shall be promptly forwarded by the clerk of the municipal court to the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken.

Preparation of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Fee

Sec. 34. The defendant shall pay a fee of $10 to the clerk of the municipal court for the preparation of the transcript and statement of facts, at the time of request therefor. If the case is reversed on appeal, the $10 fee shall be refunded to the defendant.

Briefs; Filing

Sec. 35. Briefs shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which an appeal is taken within 10 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts in the municipal court.

Procedure on Appeal

Sec. 36. The court to which the appeal is taken shall hear and determine appeals from municipal courts at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice. Oral arguments before the court shall be under such rules as the court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 37. The court, having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require. The court shall presume

- (1) that the venue was proven in the court below;

(2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn;

(3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint;

(4) that the court's charge was certified the judge and filed by the clerk before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the municipal court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

In each case decided by the court having jurisdiction of appeals, the court shall deliver a written opinion either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the court, but cases relied upon by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the court shall set forth the reasons for such decision. Copies of the decision of the court shall be mailed by the clerk of the court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as rendered by the court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 38. When the judgment of the court having jurisdiction of appeal from municipal courts becomes final, the clerk of the court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal court from which the appeal was taken. When the record is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it upon the docket of the municipal court. Where the judgment has been affirmed no proceedings need be had after filing the record in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a casus for the defendant, or an execution against his property.

New Trial

Sec. 39. Where the appeal court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to Court of Criminal Appeals; Applicability of Code of Criminal Procedure; Record

Sec. 40. Appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas from the decision of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, when permitted by law, shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas, except that when an appeal is permitted by law, the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts filed in the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts shall constitute the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts before the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas or as the rules of the court of criminal appeals may provide in such cases.

Places and Quarters for Court, Etc., Salaries

Sec. 41. (a) The municipal court shall be held in the city at a place or places within the corporate limits of the city as may be designated by the governing body of the city in the ordinances establishing the court.

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide suitable quarters for the court, and all costs of providing a court and office space for the court, the clerk, and court reporter shall be paid for by the governing body of the city. All salaries paid to the judge, clerk, court reporter, and employees of the municipal court shall be paid by the governing body of the city.

Payment and Deposit of Fines, Etc.

Sec. 42. All fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds in municipal courts shall be paid to the clerk of the municipal court. The clerk of the municipal court shall deposit all fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds directly into the general fund of the city.

Judges, Clerks and Court Reporters: Civil Service Ordinance; Retirement; Vacation; Sick Leave; Etc.

Sec. 43. The judges of municipal courts, the clerks and deputy clerks of the courts, and the court reporters of the municipal courts shall not be considered to be classified employees under the city civil service ordinance. However, the governing body of the city may provide by ordinance that all other employees of the municipal courts may be hired and paid as classified employees of the city under the city civil service ordinance. The judges, clerks, deputy clerks, and court reporters may be authorized or required by the governing body of the city to participate in the retirement program of the city. The judges, clerks, deputy clerks, and court reporters of municipal courts shall receive the same vacation, sick leave, and other benefits as are provided for other nonclassified employees of the city under such regulations as may be provided by the governing body of the city by ordinance.

Vacation of Court; Transfer of Pending Cases

Sec. 44. After the establishment of a municipal court if the governing body of the city shall by legally adopted ordinance find and determine that the condition of the dockets of the other courts of the county is such as not to require the existence of the municipal court in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city, then the office of municipal judge, clerk of the municipal court, court reporter, and other employees of the court shall be declared vacated as of the end of the term for which the municipal court judge was last appointed. In that event, any case pending in the municipal court shall be transferred to the proper court having jurisdiction of the offense. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2255, ch. 762, eff. Sept. 1, 1969; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., pp. 2501 to 2504, ch. 822, §§ 1 to 6, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 1200b. Home Rule Cities of 31,000 to 32,500 May Establish Two Courts

Establishment

Sec. 1. All Home Rule cities of this State having a population of more than thirty-one thousand (31,000) and not more than thirty-two thousand, five hundred (32,500) inhabitants according to the 1940 Federal Census, may, by an ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of two (2) corporation Courts.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinance; Provisions Authorized

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as Recorder of said Court or Courts, one of which shall be designated the City Judge.

(2) Such courts and the Recorder thereof may transfer cases from one Court to another, and that any recorder of any such Court may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

(3) There shall be a corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such corporation Courts together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

Procedure

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all corporation Courts.

Conflicting Laws Repealed

Sec. 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only and this Act shall supersede any charter provision of such cities which are contrary to the terms hereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Legislature in adopting this Act that no portion shall become inoperative by reason of the invalidity of any other portion.

[Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 287, ch. 177.]

Art. 1200c. Cities of 350,000 Population in Counties Having 500,000 But Less Than 650,000 Population

Establishment; Number; Judges

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities of this State having a population in excess of three hundred fifty thousand (350,000) and being in a county having a population in excess of five hundred thousand (500,000), but less than six hundred fifty thousand (650,000), according to the last preceding United States Census may, by an ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of two (2) or more corporation courts, not to exceed one (1) court for each eighty thousand (80,000) population according to the last preceding census. The Mayor of any such city shall have the power to appoint two (2) or more judges for each such court and designate the seniority of the judges, with the confirmation of the governing body of the city, so that any of such courts may be in concurrent or continuous session either day or night.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinances, Provisions Of

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as Recorder of said Court or Courts.

(2) That such Courts and the Recorders thereof may transfer cases from one Court to another, and that any Recorder of any of such Courts may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

(3) That there shall be a corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such corporation Courts, together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

(4) That complaints shall be filed with such corporation Court Clerk in such manner as to provide for an equal distribution of cases among such Courts.

Appeals

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all corporation Courts.

Repeals

Sec. 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only, and this Act shall supersede any provisions of any special charters of cities which are contrary to the terms hereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Legislature in adopting this Act that no portion shall become inoperative by reason of the invalidity of any other portion.

Art. 1200d. Cities Over 130,000 and Not More Than 285,000

Establishment; Judges

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities of this State having a population over one hundred and thirty thousand (130,000) and not over two hundred and eighty-five thousand (285,000), according to the last preceding United States census, may, by ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of one (1) or more Corporation Courts, not exceeding four (4). The judges of such courts shall have the same qualifications, and be selected in the same manner, as may be provided for the judge of the existing Corporation Court in the charter of such city, or as may be provided in any future charter or charter amendment. If the present charter of such city requires the election of the judge by vote of the people, the governing body may designate a person as judge of each newly created court until the next regular city election. Such courts may be in concurrent or continuous session, either day or night.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such Corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all Corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinance; Provisions Authorized

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided by the charter of such city, the governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as judge of said Court or Courts.

(2) That such Courts and the judges thereof may transfer cases from one (1) Court to another, and that any judge of any of such Courts may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

(3) That there shall be a Corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such Corporation Courts, together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

(4) That complaints shall be filed with such Corporation Court Clerk in such manner as to provide for an equal distribution of cases among such Courts.

Procedure

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all Corporation Courts.

Art. 1201. Cities Empowered

Cities having more than one thousand inhabitants under the preceding Federal census may proceed in accordance with the provisions hereof, independently of and without reference to any other applicable law or charter provision, present or future, which, however, shall remain in force as alternative methods. The term "city" or "cities" used herein shall include all incorporated towns and cities acting hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1202. Powers

Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of a city may lay out, open, establish, widen, straighten, or extend any highway within its limits, and purchase, condemn, and take property therefor. The cost of property purchased, taken or damaged, and costs of condemnation and making assessments hereinafter referred to, and of the enforcement, collection, sale or realization into money of assessments or certificates, together with all other costs of making such improvements, may be paid wholly from any fund of the city available therefor, or wholly from the fund created by said assessments, or partly from each of said funds. The governing body shall have power to assess part or all of such costs against the owners of property abutting or in the vicinity of such improvements specially benefited thereby, and against said property, and to collect, enforce, sell or realize said assessments into money. The term "highway" shall include any street, avenue, boulevard, alley, public place or square, dedicated or to be dedicated to public use.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1203. Further Powers

Cities may purchase by agreement with the owner any property, all or part of which in the opinion of the governing body is necessary for the making of improvements under the terms hereof, and pay for same out of any fund available. Cities may sell and convey any part of such property not appropriated to such improvement on such terms and for such consideration as they may see fit, and the proceeds shall become a part of a special fund out of which the cost of improvements provided for herein may be defrayed and shall be used for no other purpose, but only the cost of property actually appropriated to such improvement shall be included in any assessment made under the provisions hereof.

Art. 1204. Resolution

When the governing body shall determine to proceed hereunder it shall so declare by resolution which may state the nature and extent of the improvement to be made and the limits thereof, and may describe the parcel or parcels of land proposed to be taken or condemned by any description substantially identifying the same, or by lot or block number, or number of front feet, or by the name of the owner, or if owned by an estate, the name thereof. No mistake or omission of said resolution shall invalidate it, and its passage shall be conclusive of the public use and necessity of the proposed improvement.

Art. 1205. Survey

Upon passage of such resolution, the city engineer or engineer designated by the governing body shall prepare and submit to said body a plat showing the nature and limits of the proposed investments,¹ the boundaries thereof, and the points between which it is proposed to establish the same, and the property through which it is to be extended, which is to be taken or condemned therefor, and shall in writing report the estimated total cost of said improvement, and of each parcel of property to be condemned or acquired. The governing body shall examine said plat and report and correct errors therein, if any, but no error or omission shall invalidate the same, or any proceeding had thereafter pursuant thereto.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

¹So in enrolled bill. Probably should read "improvements."

Art. 1206. Condemnation Commission

(a) No property shall be taken without just compensation first made to the owner. If the amount of said compensation shall not be agreed upon, the governing body shall cause to be prepared, on behalf of the city, a statement in writing containing a description of the parcel or parcels of property sought to be taken, the names of the owner or owners thereof, if known, and the purpose for which said property is sought to be taken. The statement shall be filed with the Judge of a County Court at Law, if such Court exists in the county where the property is situated, otherwise with the County Judge of such county. Upon filing the statement the Judge shall forthwith, in term time or vacation, appoint a Commission consisting of three disinterested freeholders of said county who are qualified voters to assess the damages to accrue to said owners, or other interested parties, by reason of condemnation of said property.

In event of the death, disability, refusal to act, incapacity for any reason, or absence for more than thirty days from said county of any Commissioner appointed, at any time, the Judge shall forthwith appoint a new Commissioner or Commissioners having the qualifications herein prescribed, who shall succeed to and exercise all the powers and duties of the Commissioner or Commissioners originally appointed, and vacancies so caused in said Commission shall be so filled by the Judge whenever they occur. But all proceedings of said Commissioners prior to said vacancy shall be valid and it shall not be necessary for the Commissioners then qualified and acting to again do any Act or take any proceeding already done or performed, but said Commissioners shall proceed after the filling of said vacancy and take all steps and do all things provided to be done hereunder as if no such vacancy had occurred.

(b) The clerk, secretary, or recording officer of the city, or the said Commission itself, shall give written notice to the owners of property proposed to be taken or damaged and to all persons having any interest in or lien upon said property, of a hearing before said Commission, which notice shall state the time and place of hearing, and may contain a brief statement of the nature and extent of the proposed improvement, and a description of the property proposed to be taken; such description may be by lot and block number, front feet, the name of the owner or owners, or by any other description which will substantially identify said property. Notice of said hearing shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is situated, not less than three separate days, the first publication to be not less than ten days prior to the date of hearing. Notice by publication shall be valid and binding upon the real and true owners of property and all persons having an interest in or lien upon the same, if it shall generally notify them to appear and be heard, without specifically designating said parties by name, and no error or mistake in the name of any person to whom said notice is directed shall invalidate the same. Said notice shall also be served by delivering to said owners, lienholders, or interested parties, if residents of the county where said property is situated, or to their agent or attorney, or if a minor to the Guardian thereof, a copy of said notice. The person serving said notice shall make and file with the clerk, secretary or recording officer of the city a return in writing thereon, stating when and how he served said notice. The governing body may provide for other and additional notice, but notice by publication shall in all cases be valid and binding, whether other notice is given or not. The governing body may provide for and cause to be given, in accordance with due process of law, any other and additional notice of any other hearing which may become or be deemed necessary upon the vacation of the office of a Commissioner and appointing of a new one, or for any other reason, and to provide for such hearings and the nature and effect thereof, and to cause as many and different hearings to be held in the course of condemnation proceedings as may be deemed necessary. Said Notices, and the return thereon, shall be filed with the city and preserved in its records.

(c) Hearings shall be adjourned and shall be kept open until all parties interested and appearing shall be fully heard. All owners, interested parties, or lienholders shall have the right to appear at said hearings in person or by agent or attorney, and be heard as to the value of property proposed to be taken or as to the damages to property not taken, resulting from the improvement, or as to the legality or regularity of the proceedings or any right of said owners and other parties. All objections or contests shall be in writing and filed with said Commission. When all parties have been heard the Commission shall close the hearing and find the damages due owners, lienholders, or others interested, for property taken or damaged, and shall in their findings apportion between them the amounts payable to each, and shall date and sign a report in writing, in duplicate, one of which reports shall be filed with the clerk, secretary or recording officer of the city, and one with the Clerk of the Court by whose Judge the Commission was appointed.

All proceedings of the governing body with reference to such condemnation, as well as all notices issued in connection therewith, returns thereof, orders, reports, and other proceedings of the Commission, and certified copies of all orders or proceedings of any Judge or Court with reference thereto, may be recorded in the Minutes of said governing body, and said record, or certified copies, thereof, and the original shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all facts therein recited.

(d) Any party affected by the decision of said Commission who shall be dissatisfied therewith, shall, within ten days after the filing of said report with said Judge, file in his Court in opposition thereto, setting forth in writing the particular cause or causes of objection, and thereupon the adverse party or parties shall be cited and said cause shall be tried and decided as other civil causes in said Court. If no objections are filed with said Judge within said time, he shall cause the said report to be entered in the Minutes of his Court and make the same the judgment thereof, and may issue the necessary process to enforce the same.

Upon the expiration of said time for filing objections, the findings of said Commission shall become final and binding upon the parties, their heirs, successors and assigns, and shall not thereafter be questioned in any proceeding.

(e) Said Commissioners shall each be entitled to receive as compensation not exceeding Ten ($10.00) Dollars for every day employed by them in the performance of their duties.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1930, 41st Leg., 5th C.S., p. 236, ch. 75, § 1.]

Art. 1207. Statutes Applicable

The applicable provisions of the laws relating to eminent domain are made a part of this law, and shall apply to proceedings hereunder, and all parties shall proceed in accordance with and be governed by said articles, unless otherwise herein provided. The city shall not be required to execute the bond referred to in said laws.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1208. Errors

The governing body, said commission and judge before whom condemnation proceedings are pending, shall take all steps and do all things proper to correct any error, invalidity or irregularity in any proceeding with reference thereto, and shall do so at the instance of any interested party. No error or omission in said proceedings shall invalidate the same, but any proceeding may be corrected, taken again, or adjourned, until such corrections are made or omissions supplied.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1209. Assessments

Whenever the governing body shall order the making of any improvement herein referred to, it may then or thereafter at any time provide by resolution that all or part of the costs thereof, as defined in the third article of this chapter, shall be assessed against said property abutting said proposed improvement, or in the vicinity thereof, and the owners thereof specially benefited thereby, together with reasonable attorney's fees and all costs incurred in the collection of said assessments, and shall have power to apportion the same among the owners of said property, and may designate the property proposed to be assessed, or the district within which property will be benefited and within which assessments may be made, provided no assessment shall be made against any property, or its owner, in excess of the special benefits thereto in the enhanced value thereof from said improvement. No assessments shall be made against any property exempt from execution, but the owner shall be personally liable and assessed therefor.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1210. Lien

Assessments shall constitute a prior lien upon the property to all others, except ad valorem taxes, and shall relate back and take effect as of the date of the resolution ordering the same.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1211. Notice of Assessment

No assessment shall be made against owners of property benefited, or their property, until after a reasonable opportunity to be heard shall have been given them, lienholders, and others interested, before such governing body, or the commission hereafter referred to, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof published three (3) times prior to said hearing in some newspaper of general circulation in the city; and, if the owner is a railway or street railway, by additional written notice delivered either in person to its local agent, or by depositing said written notice in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll; and the written notice, if required, to be mailed or delivered, and the first publication to be made not less than ten (10) days prior to said hearing, and the names of owners, lienholders, and others interested need not be specifically set out in said notice, but the parcel or parcels of land proposed to be assessed shall be briefly described in said notice, either by lot and block, number, front feet, or by any other description reasonably identifying the same, or by reference to any plat, report or record filed in connection with said proceedings. The governing body or commission shall have the power to give other and additional notice, but said published notice, together with said written notice, if required, shall be sufficient.

Art. 1212. Hearing

At said hearing said owners, lienholders, and other interested parties shall have the right to contest in writing said assessments, the special benefits, irregularities or invalidities thereof, or any prerequisite thereto, and to produce testimony in support of said contests, and the governing body or said commission shall determine the amounts, if any, to be assessed.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1213. Assessments Levied

The governing body shall make assessments by ordinance. Said assessments may be enforced by suit brought by the city for the benefit of any holder and owner of such assessments or of the certificates issued thereon, or brought by such holder and owner; or by the sale of the property assessed in the same manner as near as possible as is provided for the sale of real estate for municipal taxes. Assessments may be made payable in not exceeding sixteen installments, the last maturing in not over fifteen years, and may bear interest at not over eight per cent per annum.

Art. 1214. Assessment Commission

At the time of or after the passage by the governing body of the resolution ordering such assessments, it shall have power in its discretion to declare that said hearing to property owners and other interested parties shall be had before the commissioners then or thereafter appointed to make condemnations, or before their successors are appointed should a vacancy occur, and thereupon such commission shall cause to be given the notice or notices provided in the third preceding article, and it shall have all the powers conferred by this law upon such governing body, and shall do all things with reference to said assessments which said governing body is hereby empowered to do, except as herein expressly provided. If said hearing shall be before said commission, it shall report in writing its findings to the governing body, which shall examine said report, and, if found correct, approve the same, and shall by ordinance assess against the owners and their property found to be benefited by said improvements, the amounts found to be properly chargeable against them.

Art. 1215. Certificates

The city may issue assignable certificates, payable to the city, or to the purchaser thereof, declaring the liability of owners and their property for the payment of assessments, and may fix the terms, time of payment, the conditions of default, and maturity thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1216. Suit on Certificate

The allegations of such recitals of such certificates in any suit brought for the enforcement thereof, shall be a sufficient allegation of all proceedings had by said governing body with reference to the making of said improvements and the assessment of the cost thereof; and of all prerequisites to the said assessment, and shall be deemed sufficient to permit proof of said proceedings and prerequisites without the necessity of alleging and setting forth the same in the pleadings, by caption, substantially or in full.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1217. Reassessments

No error in any proceeding hereunder, or in the description of property, or in the name of the owner, shall invalidate an assessment, which shall nevertheless be in effect as against the real and true owner and his property. Whenever the governing body is advised of such error it shall correct the same, and shall at the request of any interested party reassess any owner or property erroneously assessed, after lawful notice and hearing and in accordance with benefits as herein provided as to original assessments, and may fix the time and terms of payment of said sums so reassessed, and issue assignable certificates evidencing the same as herein provided as to original assessments. The right to make said reassessments shall continue until the expiration of six years from the date of the ordinance making the original assessment. But if the same shall have been resisted or brought in question in any action at law, the time consumed in said action shall be excluded in computing said term of six years. In making such reassessments it shall not be necessary to do any act, or take any step, or again perform any prerequisite already legally done or performed with reference to the original assessment, but the governing body may in its discretion proceed without again taking steps already validly taken or performed provided no reassessment shall be made until after the notice and hearing and in accordance with benefits, as herein provided.

Art. 1218. Deficiency Assessments

If after any assessment has been made hereunder, if by means of an increased award of compensation for property taken or damaged in condemnation proceedings hereunder, or on appeal from the award of said commission, or for any other reason, the amount assessed and apportioned between the property owners benefited shall be found insufficient to defray all the costs of the improvement as herein defined, the governing body may, in its discretion, assess the deficiency against owners of property benefited, and their property, and apportion same among them, after the hearing and notice herein provided and after complying with each provision hereof applicable to original assessments; or said deficiency assessments may be made after notice and hearing before said commission in the manner provided in the fourth preceding article and assignable certificates evidencing said assessment may be issued by the city.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1219. Suit

Any property owner against whom or whose property an assessment or reassessment has been made, may, within ten days thereafter bring suit to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto on account of any error or invalidity therein, but thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns, or successors shall be barred from such action or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessment or reassessment, in any action in which the same may be brought into question.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1220. Enforcement of Law

The governing body shall have power to pass any ordinance or resolution, or to adopt rules and regulations, or to take any steps proper to give full legal effect to every part of this chapter. No assessment or reassessment shall be affected or invalidated in any manner by any error, omission or invalidity in any proceeding of the city hereunder with reference to the making of any improvement herein provided for, or with reference to the taking or condemnation of any property therefor, or with reference to determining and paying damages for property taken or damaged, but regardless thereof, and regardless of the fact that at the date of said assessments said improvements may not have been completed, the said assessments shall be in all things valid and binding. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1220a. Notices of Assessments for Street Improvements

"Street" Defined

Sec. 1. That the term "street" as used herein, shall include any street, avenue, alley, highway, boulevard, drive, public place, square or any portion or portions thereof.

Filing Notice of Assessment

Sec. 2. That whenever the Governing Body of any city, town or village shall, by resolution, ordinance or other proceedings, order, direct or provide or determine it to be necessary that any street be improved in any manner, then if it is proposed that all or any part of the cost of such improvements be levied or assessed and made a lien on property abutting thereon, there shall be filed with the County Clerk of the county or counties in which such property is situated, a notice signed in the name of such city, town or village by its Clerk, Secretary or Mayor or other officer performing the duties of such. Such notice shall meet all requirements of this Act when it shows substantially that the Governing Body of such city, town or village has ordered, directed or otherwise provided or determined it to be necessary that such street be improved and shall give the name thereof with the two cross streets or other approximate lengthwise limits between which same is to be or has been improved, or shall otherwise identify or designate same and shall state that a portion of the cost of such improvement is to be or has been specially assessed as a lien upon property abutting thereon. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of streets or improvements.

Notice Designating Property Subject to Lien

Sec. 3. If it is proposed that all or any part of the cost of improving any such street be assessed as a lien on any property other than that abutting thereon, then a notice so signed shall be filed with the Clerk of the county or counties in which such property affected is situated, and such notice in such cases shall designate the property proposed to be assessed or the district within which assessments have been or may be made or shall otherwise identify the property against which a lien is proposed to be assessed.

Requisites of Notice; Filing

Sec. 4. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged, and same may be filed at any time and the County Clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same in the records of mortgages or deeds of trust and shall index same in the name of the city, town or village and in the name or other designation of the street or streets to the improvement of which the notice relates.

Time of Taking Effect of Lien

Sec. 5. That in all instances coming within the purview of this Act the lien of any assessment or re-assessment upon the property assessed or re-assessed shall take effect and be in force at and from the filing of the notice herein provided for and not before such filing and substantial compliance with the provisions of this Act shall be sufficient.

No Retroactive Effect

Sec. 6. That this Act shall not apply to or in any wise affect special assessments or re-assessments or liens fixed nor to any assessments, re-assessments or liens for any such improvements ordered, directed or provided for prior to the time this Act takes effect.

Other Laws Superseded as to Time Liens Take Effect

Sec. 7. That this Act shall supersede all other parts of laws with reference to the time that liens of any assessments or re-assessments shall take effect.

[Acts 1930, 41st Leg., 5th C.S., p. 147, ch. 21.]

Repeal

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2721, ch. 886, effective June 14, 1971, relating to the microfilming of records by counties and classified as article 1941(a), provided in section 2 that all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, to the extent of conflict only, including but not limited to this article.

Art. 1221. May Install

Incorporated cities or towns of more than five thousand inhabitants under the preceding Federal census for the purpose of making local public street improvements by installing and maintaining special lighting systems in said cities or portions thereof, may proceed in accordance with the provisions of the next succeeding nineteen articles, independently of and without reference to any other applicable law or charter provisions, present or future, except as herein provided for, which said law or charter provision shall remain in force as alternative methods. The term "city" or "cities," as used herein, shall include all incorporated cities and towns acting hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1222. Petition

Subject to the terms hereof, whenever a petition is filed with the governing body setting forth that a certain street, streets, or portions thereof not less than one block, naming and describing the same, or certain districts composed of streets, highways, boulevards or alleys, should be specially illuminated, and that an additional system is necessary for that purpose, and stating that such illumination thereof will be a public improvement and will be conducive to the public welfare, and is signed by a majority of the owners of property abutting on said street, streets or portions thereof, and praying that the governing body of such city specially illuminate such street, streets or portion thereof, and construct, install, equip and maintain additional system of street lights for that purpose, the governing body shall proceed in the manner hereinafter set out.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1223. Plans

The petitioning property owners may provide in said petition plans and specifications together with the kind of poles and lights and other material necessary to properly install said special lighting system, or such part of same as they desire to specify, and the governing body in that instance may order the same or any part thereof used in the construction of said system. If the kind specified in said petition is not available, the governing body shall use material of like kind and quality to that specified in said petition. Said body may reject any or all of said plans and specifications and have same prepared as hereinafter provided for.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1224. Resolution

The governing body shall have power, by resolution, to order the making of the public improvements mentioned herein, or any of them, by a majority vote, without first being petitioned to do so by the abutting property owners as hereinbefore provided, and the passage of such resolution shall be conclusive of the public necessity and the benefits thereof, and no notice of such action by the governing body shall be requisite to its validity. Such resolution shall in general terms, set forth the nature and extent of the improvements or improvement to be made, the street, streets or portions thereof to be illuminated, the material or materials with which the improvements are to be constructed, and the method or methods under which the cost of such improvements are to be paid. Such resolution shall be passed whether the improvements are made with or without the petition of the abutting property owners.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1225. Specifications

Upon the passage of the resolution by the governing body as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the city engineer, or the official of the city whose duties most nearly correspond to that of city engineer, to forthwith prepare plans and specifications for the said improvement, which, when completed, shall be submitted to the governing body for its approval.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1226. Bids

When the plans and specifications have been approved and adopted by the governing body, it shall be the duty of the city secretary, or other officer as may be designated by the governing body, to at once advertise for sealed bids for the construction of such improvements in accordance with the specifications. Such advertisement shall be inserted in a daily paper of general circulation in the city concerned, and shall state the time within which the bids may be received as prescribed by the governing body, which shall not be less than ten and not more than fifteen days from the insertion of said advertisement. Bids shall be filed with the city secretary, or such other officer as the governing body may designate, and shall be opened and read at a public meeting of the governing body. Such body shall have the right to accept such bids as it shall deem most advantageous to the abutting property owners concerned in the improvement, or may reject any and all bids. No bid shall be amended, changed or revised after being filed.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1227. Contract

When the bids for such improvements have been accepted by the governing body, the city shall enter into a contract with the contractor or contractors to whom the work has been let for the performance thereof, which contracts shall be executed in the name of the city by its chief executive and attested by the city secretary, or such other officer as may be designated by the governing body, with the corporate seal.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1228. Assessments

The city shall have power to assess the whole cost of installing and completing the improvements provided for herein, both for labor and material, against the owners of property abutting upon the street, streets or portions thereof, upon which said improvements are to be constructed, and who are specially benefited thereby, and shall have power to fix a lien against such property to secure the payment of the proportion of such costs assessed against the owners of such property. In no event shall costs be assessed against such owners or their property, or their personal liability therefor finally determined until after the hearing hereinafter mentioned, and after the adjustment of equities between such owners. The cost assessed against any property or the owner thereof, shall not exceed the amount of the special benefit in enhanced value which such property shall receive from such improvement.

Art. 1229. Mode of Assessment

The portion of the costs of such improvements which may be assessed against any such property or its owners, shall be in proportion as the frontage of the property of each owner is to the whole frontage of the property on the street, streets or portions thereof abutting on the special lighting system, and such cost shall be apportioned in accordance with what is commonly known as the frontage or front foot rule; provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the governing body in particular cases be unjust or unequal, it shall be the duty of said body to assess and apportion said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the specific benefit in enhanced value to be received by each owner of such property, the equities of such owners and the adjustment of such apportionment, so as to produce a substantial equality of the benefits received by and the burdens imposed upon each owner.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1230. Statement

The contract or contracts for such improvements having been executed and approved by the governing body, the city engineer, or the officer of the city whose duties most nearly correspond to that of city engineer, shall prepare a written statement which shall contain the names of such persons, firms, corporations or estates as may own property abutting on the section to be improved, the number of front feet owned by each, and describing the property owned by each, either by lot and block number, or otherwise so describing such property as may be sufficient to identify same; and such statement shall contain an estimate of the total cost of the improvement, the amount per front foot to be assessed against abutting property and its owners, and the total estimated amount to be assessed against each owner. Such statement shall be submitted to the governing body whose duty it shall be to examine same and correct any errors that may appear therein, but no error, omission or mistake in said statement shall in any manner invalidate any assessment made, or lien or claim of personal liability fixed thereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1231. Notice of Hearing

When the statement shall have been examined and approved by the governing body, it shall declare by resolution, and directing notice thereof to be given to the owners aforesaid by publication for ten consecutive days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the city where the improvement is to be made; but if there be no daily newspaper in such place, then the governing body shall give such notice to such owners by registered mail at least ten days before the time set for the hearing as hereinafter provided. The notice shall state the time and place of the hearing and the street, streets or portions thereof to be improved, with a general description of such improvements and a statement of the amount per front foot proposed to be assessed against the property, and a notice to all such property owners and all persons interested to appear at such hearing. It shall not be necessary to include in such notice a description of any property or the name of the owner, but such notice shall nevertheless be binding and conclusive upon all owners of property, or persons interested in or having a lien or claim thereon.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1232. Hearing

On the day set out in the notice for the hearing, not less than ten days from the date of such notice, or at any time thereafter before the close of the hearing, any person, firm or corporation interested in any property which may be claimed to be subject to assessment for the purpose of paying the cost of the improvement, in whole or in part, shall be entitled to a hearing before the governing body as to all matters affecting said property, or the benefits thereto, or such improvements, or any claim of liability, or objection to the making of said improvements, or any invalidity or irregularity in any proceeding with reference to making said improvements, or any other objection thereto. Such person, firm, or corporation shall file their objections in writing, and thereafter the governing body shall hear and determine the same, and all persons interested shall have full opportunity to produce evidence and witnesses and appear in person or by attorney; and a full and fair hearing thereof shall be given by such governing body, which hearing may be adjourned from time to time without further notice. The governing body shall have the power to inquire into and determine all facts necessary to the adjudication of such objections and the ascertainment of the special benefits to such owners by reason of the contemplated improvements; and shall render such judgment or order in each case as may be just and proper. Any objection to the irregularity of the proceedings with reference to the making of such improvements as herein provided, or to the validity of any assessment or adjudication of personal liability against such property or the owners thereof, shall be deemed waived unless presented at the time and in the manner herein specified.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1233. Order of Assessments

When the hearing above mentioned has concluded, the governing body shall, by ordinance, assess against the several owners of the property abutting on the street, streets or portions thereof, such proportionate part of the cost of improvements as said body shall have adjudged against the respective owners and their property. Said ordinance shall fix a lien upon such property and declare the respective owners thereof to be personally liable for the respective amounts to be assessed; and shall state the time and manner of payment of such assessment; and said governing body may order that the said assessments shall be payable in installments, and prescribe the amount, time and manner of payment of such installments, which, except as hereinafter provided, shall not exceed six, and the last payment shall not be deferred beyond five years from the completion of such improvement and its acceptance by the city. The said ordinance shall also prescribe the rate of interest to be charged upon deferred payments, not to exceed seven per cent per annum; and may provide for the maturity of all deferred payments and their collection upon default of any installment of principal or interest.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1234. Lien

Each property owner shall have the privilege of discharging the whole amount assessed against him, or any installment thereof, at any time before maturity, upon payment thereof with accrued interest. The fact that more than one parcel of land, the property of one owner or jointly owned by two or more persons, firms or corporations, have been assessed together in one assessment, shall not invalidate the same or any lien thereon, or any claim of personal liability thereunder. The cost of any such improvement assessed against any property or owner thereof, together with all costs and reasonable attorneys fees when incurred, shall constitute a personal claim against such property owner, and shall be secured by a lien on such property superior to all other liens, claims, or titles, except city, county and State taxes, and such personal liability may be enforced by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction. In any suit brought under this article, it shall be proper to join as defendants two or more property owners who are interested in any single improvement or any single contract for such improvement. The person or persons who own property at the date of any ordinance providing for the assessment thereof, shall be severally and personally liable for their respective portions of the said assessment. The lien of such improvements shall revert back and take effect as of the date of the original resolution ordering the improvement, and the passage of such resolution shall operate as notice of such lien to all persons. Any error or mistake in such ordinance in the name of the owner of the property assessed, shall not invalidate the lien or personal liability thereby created, but the same shall nevertheless exist against the real and true owner of such property as if correctly described.

Art. 1235. Suit

At any time within ten days after the hearing herein provided for has been concluded, any person or persons having an interest in any property which may be subject to assessment under this law, or otherwise having any financial interest in such improvement or improvements or in the manner in which the cost thereof is to be paid, who may desire to contest on any ground the validity of any proceeding that may have been had with reference to the making of such improvements or the validity in whole or in part of any assessment or lien or personal liability fixed by said proceedings, may institute suit for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. Any person who shall fail to institute such suit in said period of ten days, or who shall fail to diligently prosecute such suit in good faith to final judgment, shall be forever barred from making any such contest or defense in any other action, and this estoppel shall bind their heirs, successors, administrators and assigns. The city and the person or persons to whom the contract has been awarded shall be made defendants in such suit, and any other proper parties may be joined therein.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1236. Proceedings

There shall be attached to the plaintiff's petition an affidavit of the truth of the matters therein alleged, except such matters as are alleged on information and belief, that said suit is brought in good faith and not to injure or delay the city or the contractor or any owner of real estate abutting on the improvement. Unless the provisions of this article are complied with by the plaintiff or plaintiffs, such suit shall be dismissed on motion of any defendant and in that event plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be barred and estopped to the same extent as if suit had not been brought. In any case where a suit is brought as above provided, then the performance of the work may be suspended at the election of either the city or contractor until such suit shall be finally determined in the court of original jurisdiction or any appellate court to which the same may be taken by appeal or writ of error. Every appeal or writ of error shall be perfected within thirty days from the adjournment of the term of court of original jurisdiction at which final judgment was rendered in such suit; and no appeal or writ of error to review the judgment of said court may thereafter be taken or sued out by either party. Any such suit shall be entitled to precedence in the courts of this State, both of original and appellate jurisdiction, and shall be heard and determined as promptly as practicable.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1237. Certificates

The governing body may provide that for the cost, which is assessed against the abutting property and its owners, the contractor to whom the work may be let shall look only to such property owners and their property, and that the city shall be relieved of liability for such cost. The governing body may also authorize assignable certificates against abutting property or property owners. The recital in such certificates that the proceedings with reference to making such improvements have been regularly had in compliance with the terms of this law, and all prerequisites to the fixing of this lien and the claim of personal liability evidenced by such certificate, having been performed, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited, and no other proof thereof shall be required, but in all courts the said proceedings and prerequisites shall, without further proof, be presumed to have been had or performed. Such certificates shall be executed by the chief executive of the city, and attested with the corporate seal by the city secretary or such other officer as may be designated by the governing body.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1238. Public Improvements

The governing body, if it deems it to be more advantageous to the public, provided public funds are available therefor, may order by resolution the making of any local public improvement by installing a special lighting system as contemplated herein, and for such purpose shall prescribe the district composed of the street or streets, highways, boulevards or alleys, or any portion thereof, that are sought to be improved by the establishment and maintenance of such special lighting system. Specifications shall be prepared therefor under the direction of the governing body and bids shall be invited upon the same as provided herein for making such local improvements. Contracts shall be let as provided herein for making contracts in other cases. A hearing shall be accorded to all property owners owning property abutting upon the streets in such districts to be improved by the said lighting system, and the cost of the same shall be assessed against such property in the same manner as provided herein in other cases; a special lien shall be created against the abutting property and the owners thereof shall be personally liable as is provided herein in all other cases. The cost of making the said improvement shall be paid out of any available funds of the city which may be provided by said body. The amount of the cost of making such improvements so paid by the city to the contractor shall be reimbursed to the city by the property owners whose property is assessed in the manner provided for herein. All proceedings relative to making the assessments and issuing assignable certificates shall apply as far as practicable to the procedure to be followed in making the public improvements under the terms of this article.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1239. General Powers

The governing body may provide additional rules and regulations governing hearings and the issuance of notices therefor as may be deemed advisable in order to afford a full hearing to all property owners concerning the assessments levied or to be levied against them on account of the special benefits received from the improvements so ordered. Such body may use such money as is at its disposal to assist in the financing of the public improvements herein provided for.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1240. Control

After the public improvements provided for in the preceding nineteen articles have been completed and the job accepted by the city, the same shall become the property of the city, and the city shall maintain the same at its own expense, as a part of its regular lighting system.

Art. 1241a. Procedure for Abolition of Cities and Towns

Authority to Abolish Corporate Existence

Sec. 1. Incorporated towns and villages, and cities and towns incorporated under the general laws, and cities and towns of ten thousand inhabitants or less chartered under special law, including those which may have here-before accepted the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28, may abolish their corporate existence in the manner hereinafter provided.

Petition and Election

Sec. 2. When four hundred of the qualified voters resident in any such city, town, or village desire the abolishment of such corporation, they may petition the mayor to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such city, town, or village on the same date provided by law for the next general election for mayor therein. If a majority of the qualified voters resident in any such city, town, or village is less than four hundred in number, then the mayor shall order an election as above provided upon the presentation to him of a petition signed by three-fourths of the resident voters of such city, town, or village.

Eligible Voters; Results; Declaration of Abolition

Sec. 3. All persons who are legally qualified resident voters of the city, town, or village where such election is to be held shall be entitled to vote at such election. If a majority of such voters voting at such election shall vote to abolish such corporation, the mayor shall declare such corporation abolished and certify such fact to the commissioners court of the county. Such commissioners court shall enter said order upon its minutes, and said corporation shall cease to exist.

Order; Conduct and Canvass of Election by Mayor; Laws Governing Election

Sec. 4. The election as herein provided shall be ordered, conducted and canvassed by the mayor as in the case of the incorporation of such city, town, or village, except that the mayor shall perform all acts performable in the case of incorporation by the county judge. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, such election shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas applicable generally to elections in incorporated cities.

Repeals

Sec. 5. The following statutes are specifically repealed: Acts 1895, p. 166, G.L. Vol. 10, p. 896; Acts 1899, p. 245; Acts 1897, p. 194; these being codified respectively as Articles 1241, 1242, 1243, and 1261. No other laws are hereby repealed except insofar as they are inconsistent herewith.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1989, ch. 736, eff. June 18, 1967.]

Arts. 1242, 1243. Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1988, ch. 736, § 5, eff. June 18, 1967

Art. 1244. Receiver

In all cases where any city or town having theretofore had a valid corporate existence, under the laws of this State, has abolished said corporate existence in the manner provided by law, and in all cases where any city or town having a valid corporate existence under such laws may hereafter abolish their corporate existence, any creditor of any such city or town may apply to the judge of the district court of the district in which such city or town may be situated, for the appointment of a receiver for said corporation. After having posted up in at least three public places in the county where such city or town is located, one of which shall be in said city or town, written notice stating the substance of the application, when and before whom the same will be heard, such judge in term time or vacation, may appoint a suitable person as such receiver for such corporation, and shall fix the amount of bond to be given by such receiver in at least double the probable amount of the indebtedness or value of the property of such town or city, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such officer, and for the paying over and delivery of all money and property coming into his hands as such receiver, to the parties entitled to receive same, such bond to be approved by the judge making the appointment; and same, together with order of appointment, shall be filed with, and recorded in, the minutes of said court by the district clerk of the county where such city or town is situated. Receivers appointed under the provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation as the court may allow.

Art. 1245. Duties of Receiver

A receiver appointed under the preceding article, after having given the required bond, and after having same duly filed and recorded, shall take charge of all the real and personal property, including moneys, minute books, ordinances, etc., except such property as pertains to the public free schools or devoted exclusively to public use, and shall return an inventory of all such property, money, books, etc., so received by him to the next succeeding term of the district court for the county in which such city or town is situated; and, for the purpose of securing such property, money, books, etc., he may, under the order of said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, bring suit against any person in possession of such property, books, or moneys, or indebted to said city or town, the same as such city or town could were it still incorporated.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1246. Claim

Any person, firm or corporation, having any claim against such city or town, shall within six months from the appointment of said receiver, present to him a statement of the amount of such claim, duly verified, which, if he finds correct, he will mark allowed, and file same in the district court; and at its next regular term, if no protest be filed, said claim shall be approved by said court and shall thereafter be considered a valid debt against such city or town.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1247. Notice of Claim

No such claim or account against such city shall be allowed or approved by the receiver without notice of the presentment thereof first having been given, by publication in some newspaper, if any, in the town or city where same is filed or presented, for four consecutive weeks, and in case there be no newspaper published in such town or city, then by posting notice of the presentment of such claim at the courthouse door of the county in which said town or city is situated, for four weeks prior to the allowance of said claim or account. Such notice, whether published or posted, shall state the name and residence of the creditor, the amount and date of said claim and account, and for what purpose incurred.

Art. 1248. Adjustment

If such receiver finds any claim so presented to him unjust, in whole or in part, he shall endorse his finding thereon, and return same to the claimant, who may file same with the district court, if he desires to accept the findings of the receiver, and such claim for the amount allowed by the receiver may be acted upon by said court as other claims.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1249. Contest, Suit

In case any protest by any taxpayer of said city or town be filed against any claim in said court, together with a bond to be approved by said court, that he will pay all costs of suit in case said claimant established his claim in full in any State court in which he may sue thereon, then such district court shall refuse to approve such claim until it shall have been established by judgment, recovered thereon in a State court of competent jurisdiction. Such suit to establish such claim or any claim disallowed in part or in whole, may be brought against the receiver, who shall make all legal defense against such claim. The court trying said claim is hereby authorized to hear and consider any material defense that may be or may have been urged against said claim, except that of limitation, though such claim, prior thereto, may have been reduced to judgment, but such judgment shall be considered, upon such trial, as prima facie evidence of the justice of such a claim.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1250. Judgment and Costs

Any judgment recovered against such receiver upon a claim against such city or town shall be allowed by the receiver and approved by the district court wherein the receivership is pending. In all suits upon claims wherein protest and bond were filed in the district court, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he recovers judgment for the full amount for which he asked the approval of the said district court. In suits upon claims rejected in part by the receiver, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he establishes his claim for a greater amount than was allowed by the receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1251. Limitation

Limitations shall not run, begin to run or be plead against any claim against such city or town at any time prior to six months after the appointment of such receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1252. Certain Dissolutions

No receiver shall be appointed for any such city or town whose corporate existence was dissolved prior to July 17, 1905, where the application therefor was not filed in said court within two years from and after July 10, 1905.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1253. Suits Barred

No suit shall be brought against such receiver upon any claim, against the allowance of which a protest has been filed, as herein provided for, at any time after six months from the date of filing such protest, nor after the expiration of six months from the date of the disallowance of any such claim in whole or in part, where the claim has not been filed in the district court, after such disallowance as hereinbefore provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1254. Payment of Claims

The district court of the county in which such town or city is situated, and in which such receivership is pending, shall provide for the payment of all claims legally established against such city or town, and determine the priority of any claims and order the sale of all property in the hands of the receiver subject to sale for such purpose, and direct such receiver to pay such claims. If the money and proceeds of property are insufficient to pay such indebtedness, then said court, at the request of any creditor, at the first regular term of said court in each year, shall levy a tax upon all the property and real and personal estate situated within the limits of said city or town, as previously incorporated, on the first day of the preceding January, not exempt from taxation under the Constitution and laws of this State, sufficient to discharge the indebtedness, but not to exceed the rate allowed by existing law for such purposes in incorporated cities and towns.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1255. Collection of Tax, Etc.

Whenever the district court, having jurisdiction in the premises, has or may order the assessment and collection of taxes for the payment of the indebtedness of such town, or city, the tax assessor for the county in which such town or city is situated, shall assess the taxes so ordered in like manner as taxes in rural school districts. The county tax collector for such county shall collect such taxes in like manner as taxes in rural school districts. This article shall not repeal any part of Articles 1245 to 1250 inclusive. For the services rendered under this article, the assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation as for like services for the assessment and collection of taxes in rural school districts; and said collector shall pay such taxes when collected, to the receiver of such city or town.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1256. Delinquent Taxes

Suits may be brought by the receivers against delinquents, and a lien shall exist upon all property for such taxes, the same as though the corporate existence of such city or town had never been abolished, and such levy and assessment had been made by its council and assessor.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1257. Prior Claims

The compensation of the receiver, together with all court costs and expenses, shall constitute a prior claim against such city or town, and shall be first paid out of any money on hand or collected. In case of taxation the money collected each year shall be paid pro rata upon all claims according to their priorities until all claims established and all costs and expenses are fully paid. On final settlement of such receivership, any money or property left on hand shall be turned over by the receiver to the trustees or other officers in charge of the public free school the district of which is wholly situated within the boundaries of such city or town for the benefit of such school, but if there be no public free school the district of which is within the boundaries of said city or town, then the money or property left on hand shall be turned over to the county in which said city or town is situated, the money to be placed in the general fund of such county, and property to be used for the benefit of such county.

Art. 1258. Public Schools

Where the public free schools of such city or town are under the management of trustees appointed or elected by the voters of the city or town, or by the city or town council, at the time its incorporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, such trustees shall have the management of said schools for the remainder of the term for which they were appointed or elected, subject to the supervision of the commissioners court, unless such city or town shall sooner become incorporated for school purposes only.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1259. School Taxes

All taxes for municipal or school purposes which shall have been levied prior to the date of the abolishment of such corporation, and which shall not have been paid, shall be collected by the receiver, together with such penalties and interest as may be due; but the portion of such taxes levied for the purpose of maintaining the public free schools of said city or town shall be paid over by said receiver to the trustees of the public free schools of said city or town and applied by them for the purpose for which they were levied.

Art. 1260. Public Buildings

When any corporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, and shall at the time of any such abolishment own any public buildings, public parks, public works or other property, and the same shall not have been sold or disposed of as provided in this chapter, the same shall be managed and controlled by the commissioners court of such county for the purpose to which same were originally used and intended; and, for this purpose, the commissioners court shall have and exercise, with reference thereto, the powers originally conferred by charter upon the mayor and aldermen of such city.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1261. Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1988, ch. 736, § 5, eff. June 18, 1967

Art. 1262. When Corporation Ceases to Function

When any corporation is abolished, or if any de facto corporation has been or shall be declared void by any court of competent jurisdiction, or if the same shall cease to operate and exercise the functions of such corporation or de facto corporation, when such corporation or de facto corporation has indebtedness outstanding, then the officers of such corporation, in office at the time of such dissolution, or at the time such corporation ceases to operate and exercise the functions of such corporation, shall take charge of the property of the corporation and sell and dispose of same, and shall settle the debts due by the corporation, and for said purpose shall have power to levy and collect a tax from the inhabitants of said city, town or village in the same manner as the said corporation. In the event of their failure or refusal to do so, and upon the petition of any number of the citizen taxpayers of such corporation or of the holders of the evidences of indebtedness of such corporation or de facto corporation, to the proper court within this State having jurisdiction in the county in which such dissolved or de facto corporation shall have been situated, the judge of said court shall appoint three trustees to take charge of such property and dispose of same and settle the debts of such corporation or de facto corporation, and for said purpose the said trustees so appointed shall be vested with all the powers herein given to the officers of such corporation.

Art. 1263. Action for Debt

The holder of any indebtedness against any municipal corporation which has or may be dissolved in any way provided in the preceding article, including dissolution of a de facto corporation by a court of competent jurisdiction, may maintain a suit in the proper court within this State having jurisdiction in the county in which such dissolved or de facto corporation shall have been situated, to establish said indebtedness against said municipal corporation, and service may be had on such dissolved corporation by serving the citation upon any person who was the mayor, secretary or treasurer of said corporation or pretended to act as such, at the time of its dissolution, and judgment may be rendered in such suit in favor of the holder of such indebtedness against such municipal corporation as fully as if it had not been dissolved or its organization declared void. The status of such city, town or village shall be and remain the same in so far as it affects the holders of its indebtedness, until such indebtedness has been paid.

Art. 1264. Current Expenses

Any incorporated city or town in this State, whether incorporated under the general laws of this State, or incorporated by special charter adopted in the manner provided by law, and having a population of 161,000 or more according to the preceding Federal census, may, through its governing body, provide for the payment of its current expenses for any current fiscal year, or for any portion of such fiscal year, by the issuance of warrants drawn against the current revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, in the manner following:

1. Such warrants shall be dated and numbered consecutively as they are issued, and shall become a lien upon the revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, available for the payment thereof, and shall be paid consecutively according to their respective dates and numbers as funds for the payment thereof become available.

2. If no funds are available to pay such warrants at the time of their issuance, the governing body may provide for the payment of interest upon such warrants, or may provide for the payment of a discount thereon. Such interest or discount shall never exceed an amount equal to six per cent per annum upon the face of such warrants for the period of time intervening between the date of their issuance and the time of their payment.

3. In no event shall the governing body provide for the issuance of warrants upon which interest or discount is to be paid, in excess of eighty per cent of the estimated revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, after the deduction of all interest upon the bonded indebtedness of such city or town to be paid out of the revenues for such fiscal year, and such sums as may be required to be paid into any sinking fund or into any special fund or any special trust fund of said city or town out of its revenues for such fiscal year.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1265. Extension of Limits

Any city having a population of 100,000 and under 150,000 as shown by the preceding Federal census, shall have the power and authority to amend its charter so as to extend its boundary limits by annexing additional territory adjacent and contiguous to such city, where the territory so annexed does not include any incorporated city or town having more than five thousand inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census. Such extension shall be effected in the manner following:

1. The governing body of such city may, upon its own motion, and shall upon the petition of at least ten per cent of the qualified voters of said city as shown by the preceding general election, submit such proposed amendment to a vote of the qualified voters of such city, which election shall be held as provided by chapter 13 of this title.

2. If such amendment is adopted by a majority of those voting at such election, and such annexed territory shall include any incorporated city or town of five thousand inhabitants or less, then, from and after the adoption of such amendment, the incorporation of such city or town of five thousand inhabitants or less shall be abolished and shall cease to exist, and all record books, public property, public buildings, money on hand, credit accounts and other assets of the annexed incorporated city or town shall become the property of said larger city and shall be turned over to the officers thereof, and by such annexation, the offices existing in the smaller municipality shall be abolished and the persons holding such offices shall not be entitled to further remuneration or compensation; and all legal outstanding liabilities of such smaller city shall be assumed by the enlarged city.

3. Whenever such annexed city or town shall have on hand any bond funds for public improvement and not already appropriated or contracted for, such money shall be kept in a separate special fund and devoted to public improvements in the territory for which such bonds were voted, and shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose.

4. After such annexation, all claims, fines, debts and taxes due or payable to the annexed city or town shall thereupon become due and payable to said larger city and shall be collected by it. If taxes for the current year shall have been duly assessed prior to said annexation, then the amount so assessed shall remain as the amounts due and payable from the inhabitants of such annexed city or town for such current year.

5. Providing however that nothing in this Article shall be held or construed to repeal or nullify any charter provision of any city of over 100,000 and under 150,000 inhabitants, according to the preceding Federal census, operating under Article 11, Section 5 of the Constitution providing for the annexation of additional territory by ordinance but shall be construed as an additional power and cumulative of the said charter provisions, and all such charter provisions in effect at the time of the original passage of this Article are hereby ratified and confirmed and declared to be in full force and effect.

Art. 1266. Discontinuing Territory

Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city in this state of four thousand (4,000) or more population according to the preceding Federal Census located in a county having a population according to such census in excess of two hundred and five thousand (205,000) territory to the extent of at least three (3) acres contiguous, unimproved and adjoining the lines of any such city, or wherever there exists within the corporate limits of any city in this state of five hundred and ninety-six thousand (596,000) or more population according to the last preceding Federal Census, improved territory which is non-taxable to the city and which is contiguous and adjoining the lines of any such city, the governing body of any such city, whether organized by Special Law, home rule charter, or General Laws of this state, may by ordinance duly passed discontinue said territory as a part of any such city. When said ordinance has been duly passed, the governing body shall cause to be entered an order to that effect on the minutes or records of such city; and from and after the entry of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of such city.

Art. 1267. Oil and Mineral Lands

Cities and towns chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special Act or charter, which may own oil or mineral lands, shall have the power and right to lease such oil or mineral lands for the benefit of such town or city, but shall not lease for such purposes any street or alley or public square in said town or city, or any land therein dedicated by any person to public uses in such town or city; and no well shall be drilled within the thickly settled portion of any city or town, nor within two hundred feet of any private residence.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1268. Sale or Lease of Franchise

Any individual, association or corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this State, including any municipal corporation of this State, engaged in manufacturing, producing, supplying or selling electricity, natural or artificial gas, steam, or water, or owning or operating any street railway within any incorporated city, town or village within this State, where the rates charged for such service are subject to regulation under authority of the laws of this State, may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters thereof having been first obtained at an election held for that purpose, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of its entire plant or business or any part thereof, to any other individual, association or corporation which, at the time of said sale, lease or other disposition of said plant or business or any part thereof, is doing, or has authority to do, a like business in said incorporated city, town or village. Nothing herein shall authorize any corporation to engage in any kind of business not authorized by its charter.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1268a. Natural Gas Systems; Authority to Lease and Grant Option to Purchase

Any city which owns its natural gas distribution system and has heretofore had an election resulting favorably to a sale of such system may, by majority vote of its governing body, enter into a contract leasing said system to any person, firm or corporation. Any such city may also grant an option to the lessee or to any other person, firm or corporation to purchase the system at a price specified or to be determined in the manner provided in such lease or option contract. It is provided, however, that if the city has any bonds outstanding payable from the revenues of its gas system, it shall not make such lease or option contract except under conditions specified in the ordinance authorizing the bonds, unless provision is made for the full payment of the bonds with interest to their maturities or to the date they are to be redeemed prior to maturity.

Art. 1268b. Lease of City-owned Swimming Pools

The governing body of any incorporated city or town (including home rule cities) is hereby authorized to lease any city-owned swimming pool, to be operated by the lessee as a public swimming pool under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by such governing body and such lessee. Any such lease shall be authorized by ordinance or resolution adopted by such governing body, and the lease agreement shall be executed on behalf of the city or town, by the mayor and the city secretary or clerk, and the seal of the city shall be impressed thereon. Such lease may cover any period of time not to exceed fifty (50) years.

Art. 1269. Repealed by Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 667, ch. 299, § 1

Art. 1269a. Municipal Bands

That the word "band" as used in this Act shall mean a band composed of such musical instruments as are recognized in the standard instrumentation established for the use of United States Army Bands.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 22, p. 82, § 1.]

Art. 1269b. Same Subject—Establishment and Maintenance

That any incorporated city or town in this State is authorized to establish and maintain a band in such city or town, and to appropriate such part of the revenues of such city or town for the maintenance and operation of such band as the governing body of such city or town may determine. It is provided, however, that the total amount of such appropriation for any one year shall not exceed three mills for each one dollar of taxable value of property within such city or town.

Art. 1269c. Same Subject—Election

That it shall be the duty of the governing body of any city or town within this State, upon a written petition signed by a number of property tax paying voters in such city or town equal to at least ten per cent of the total number of votes cast at the last regular municipal election, to submit to the qualified property tax paying voters within such city or town, at an election for that purpose, the question of whether or not a band shall be established and maintained by such city or town. Such elections shall be held as nearly as possible in accordance with the law in reference to regular elections in said city or town, but said governing body is hereby empowered by resolution to order such elections and prescribe the form of ballot for use therein and the time and manner of holding the same. Such governing body shall canvass and determine the result of such elections in the manner provided by law for canvassing and returning the results of general elections held therein, and the result of the election shall be entered upon the minutes of said governing body. If the majority of the voters voting upon said question at such election shall vote to establish and maintain a band, the governing body shall thereupon proceed to establish, and thereafter maintain, such band.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 22, p. 82, § 3.]

Art. 1269d. Same Subject—Subsequent Elections

That the governing body of any city or town shall upon similar petition as provided in Section 3 of Chapter 22 of the General Laws of the 39th Legislature, Regular Session, 1925,¹ cause subsequent elections to be held for the purpose of determining whether or not a band shall be established and maintained by a city or town; or where any city or town has been previously authorized to establish and maintain a band, at an election held for that purpose, whether or not the establishment and maintenance of said band by said city or town shall be abrogated. If at an election held to abrogate the establishment and maintenance of a band by a city or town, a majority of the voters voting at such an election shall vote in favor of the proposition to abrogate the establishment and maintenance of a band, the governing body of said city or town shall thereupon discontinue said band and the maintenance thereof. Said elections shall be held and conducted in the same manner as provided in Section 3 of Chapter 22 of the General Laws of the 39th Legislature, Regular Session, 1925, but no two of such elections shall be held within the same city or town within a period of less than two (2) years.

Art. 1269e. Same Subject—Ordinances

When it shall be determined to establish and maintain a band in any city or town, the governing body thereof shall have full power to pass all ordinances and resolutions to enable such city or town to maintain such band, and in addition thereto such governing body shall elect a non-partisan citizen commission of not more than five nor less than three members whose duty it shall be to negotiate contracts and formulate rules and regulations and do all things necessary or proper to establish, control and maintain said band.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 22, p. 83, § 5.]

Art. 1269f. Same Subject—Charters Affected

That this Act shall not modify or in any manner affect any special charter which has been heretofore granted by the Legislature, nor any charter heretofore adopted by the voters of any city or town.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 22, p. 83, § 6.]

Art. 1269h. Airports, Maintenance and Operation

Acquisition; Sale or Lease

Sec. 1. A—The governing body of any incorporated city in this State may receive through gift or dedication, and is hereby empowered to acquire, by purchase without condemnation or by purchase through condemnation proceedings, and thereafter maintain and operate as an airport, or lease, or sell, to the Federal Government, tracts of land either within or without the corporate limits of such city and within the county in which such city is situated, and the Commissioners Court of any county may likewise acquire, maintain and operate for like purpose tracts of land within the limits of the county.

B—The governing body of any incorporated city in this State may receive through gift or dedication, and is hereby empowered to acquire by purchase without condemnation, and thereafter maintain and operate as an airport, or lease, or sell to the Federal Government, tracts of land without the county in which such city is situated, provided said tracts are not within five (5) miles of another incorporated city that has a population of more than fifteen hundred (1500) people, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

C—The governing body of any incorporated city in this State may, and is hereby empowered, to acquire through condemnation proceedings, tracts of land located without the county in which said city is located, provided said tracts of land are within six (6) miles of the county boundary of the county in which said city is located, and are not within five (5) miles of another incorporated city having a population in excess of fifteen hundred (1500) people, according to the last preceding Federal Census; and that said city may thereafter maintain and operate as an airport, or lease, or sell, said tracts to the Federal Government; provided, however, that the grant herein made to acquire land through condemnation proceedings, without the county in which said city is located, shall expire on December 31, 1942, but that tracts of land acquired prior to that date, and under the authority of this Act, may continue to be operated, leased, or sold, as provided in this Act.

D—In addition to the power herein granted the Commissioners Courts of the several counties of this State are hereby authorized to lease any airport that has been or may be acquired by the county, as herein provided, to any incorporated city or municipality within such county, or to the Federal Government, or to any other person, firm or corporation for the purpose of maintaining and operating an airport; and providing further that any incorporated city having acquired land for an airport, or an airport, under the authority of this Act shall have the right to lease said land or airport to the county in which such incorporated city is located.

E—In addition to the power which it may now have, the Commissioners Court of any county, or the governing body of any incorporated city in this State, shall have the power to sell, convey or lease all or part of any airport or property connected therewith, heretofore established or that may be hereafter established; also any land which has been or may be acquired under the provisions of this Act, to the United States of America for any purpose necessary for National Defense, or for air mail purposes or any other public purpose; or to the State of Texas or any branch of the State Government which may be authorized to own or operate airports, and to any person, firm or corporation. The Commissioners Court and governing body of any incorporated city shall promulgate rules and regulations for the use of any such airports.

Bond Issues and Tax

Sec. 2. (a) For the purpose of condemning or purchasing, either or both, lands to be used and maintained as provided in Section 1 hereof, and improving and equipping the same for such use, the governing body of any city or the Commissioners Court of any county, falling within the terms of such Section, may issue negotiable bonds of the city or of the county, as the case may be, and levy taxes to provide for the interest and sinking funds of any such bonds so issued, the authority hereby given for the issuance of such bonds and levy and collection of such taxes to be exercised in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.¹

(b) In addition to the powers herein granted, the Commissioners Courts of counties having a population of not less than fifteen thousand (15,000) and not more than fifteen thousand, two hundred and fifty (15,250), according to the last preceding Federal Census, are hereby authorized to issue time warrants for the purposes herein stated, but the Commissioners Court of any such county proposing to issue such warrants shall comply with the provisions of Chapter 163, Acts of the Forty-second Legislature,² with reference to notice to issue such warrants and with reference to the levy and collection of taxes in payment thereof, and the right to referendum election therein shall apply.

² Article 2368a.

Management by City or Commissioners Courts; Nonliability for Injuries

Sec. 3. Any Air Port acquired under and by virtue of the terms of this Act shall be under the management and control of the governing body of the city or the Commissioners Court of the county acquiring the same, which is hereby expressly authorized and empowered to improve, maintain and conduct the same as an Air Port, and for that purpose to make and provide therein all necessary or fit improvements and facilities and to fix such reasonable charges for the use thereof as such governing body or Commissioners Court shall deem fit, and to make rules and regulations governing the use thereof. All proceeds from such charges shall be devoted exclusively to the maintenance, up-keep, improvement and operation of such Air Port and the facilities, structures, and improvements therein, and no city or county shall be liable for injuries to persons resulting from or caused by any defective, unsound or unsafe condition of any such Air Port, or any part thereof, or thing of any character therein or resulting from or caused by any negligence, want of skill, or lack of care on the part of any governing Board or Commissioners Court, officer, agent, servant or employee or other person with reference to the construction, improvement, management, conduct, or maintenance of any such Air Port or any structure, improvement, or thing of any character whatever, located therein or connected therewith.

Special Tax for Maintenance or Operation

Sec. 4. That in addition to and exclusive of any taxes which may be levied for the interest and sinking fund of any bonds issued under the authority of this Act, the governing body of any city or the Commissioners Court of any county, falling within the terms hereof, may and is hereby empowered to levy and collect a special tax not to exceed for any one year five cents on each One Hundred Dollars for the purpose of improving, operating, maintaining and conducting any Air Port which such city or county may acquire under the provision of this Act, and to provide all suitable structures, and facilities therein. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city or county to exceed the limits of indebtedness placed upon it under the Constitution.

Art. 1269h-1. Validating Bonds Issued to Acquire Lands for Airports by Cities and Counties

In instances wherein elections have been held or called prior to the effective date of this Act bonds otherwise issued in accordance with law and for purposes permitted under said Chapter 83, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature,¹ are hereby validated, notwithstanding the fact that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds either have been used or may be used to purchase lands for airport purposes, which together with lands already owned by any such city for airport purposes will exceed six hundred and forty (640) acres; provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to any bonds the validity of which has been attacked in any litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 1269h-2. Pledge of Ad Valorem Tax to Payment of Airport Operation and Maintenance Expense

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city operating under its Home Rule Charter, either adopted pursuant to the Home Rule amendment to the Constitution of Texas, or granted by the Legislature and amended pursuant to said provision of the Constitution, having a population of 200,000 or more according to the last preceding Federal Census, which owns land acquired for airport purposes, and which, either in whole or in part, is leased to an airport operating company or corporation.

Sec. 2. In the event any such city shall determine to issue revenue bonds as authorized by Chapter 43, Acts of the 53rd Legislature of Texas, First Called Session, 1954, as amended,¹ to acquire the improvements constructed by any such airport operating company or corporation on any such land and to further improve its airport or airports, such city, in addition to the pledge of the revenues and income of said airport or airports to the payment of the operation and maintenance expenses and principal of and interest on such bonds, shall be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of such operation and maintenance expenses, as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose, all or any part of the ad valorem tax authorized by Chapter 114, Acts 1947, 50th Legislature, Regular Session.² The proceeds of any tax thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds to assure the efficient operation and maintenance of such airport or airports and such city, in its discretion, may covenant in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds that certain costs of operating and maintaining such airport or airports, as may be enumerated in said proceedings, will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax. If it is deemed advisable by the city that revenue bonds theretofore issued under said Chapter 43, supra, and then outstanding, should be refunded so as to facilitate the financing of the acquisition of said improvements and the further improvement of its airport or airports, it shall be authorized to make a like pledge of said tax in the proceedings authorizing such refunding bonds and any additional revenue bonds issued for the purposes prescribed in said Chapter 43, supra.

Art. 1269i. Mortgage of Airports for Improvements

Cities to Which Applicable

Sec. 1. All cities having a population of more than One Hundred and Sixty Thousand (160,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census shall have power to mortgage and encumber their airports and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase the same or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements, including buildings, repair shops and other structures, and, as additional security therefor, by the terms of such mortgage or encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such airport and the improvements situated thereon for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever by a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Pledge of Income

Sec. 2. All cities having a population of more than One Hundred and Sixty Thousand (160,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census shall have power to pledge the income from their airports and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase the same or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements including buildings, repair shops and other structures, and, as additional security therefor, by the terms of such pledge may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such airport and the improvements situated thereon for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Notes or Warrants Issued Without Referendum

Sec. 3. Such cities shall have the power to issue notes or warrants in any sum not to exceed the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) for such purposes without submitting such proposition to a vote of the qualified taxpaying voters. This law shall take precedence over all conflicting city charter provisions.

Repeals

Sec. 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed to the extent in conflict herewith.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, portion, clause, or part of this Act be invalid or unconstitutional, the same shall not affect any remaining part or parts of this Act and it is expressly hereby declared that the Legislature would have passed such remaining parts of this Act with such invalid or unconstitutional section, portion, clause or part omitted.

[Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 72, ch. 24.]

Art. 1269j. Additional Powers of Certain Cities

Acquisition; Bonds; Rates; Pledges; Definition

Sec. 1. In addition to the powers which it may now have, any City having a population of more than forty thousand (40,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have power

(a) to own, maintain and operate an airport, either within or without, or partially within and partially without, the corporate limits of such city;

(b) to construct, acquire by gift, purchase, lease or the exercise of the right of eminent domain, improve, enlarge, extend or repair any airport, and to acquire by gift, purchase, lease or the exercise of the right of eminent domain, lands or rights in land in fee simple in connection therewith;

(c) to borrow money and issue its bonds or warrants to finance in whole or in part the cost of the acquisition, construction, improvement, enlargement, extension or repair of any airport;

(d) to prescribe and collect rates, fees, rents, tolls or other charges for the service and facilities afforded by such airport; and

(e) to pledge to the punctual payment of said warrants and interest thereon all or any part of the income, rents, revenues, tolls or other receipts derived from the operation of such airport, in addition to the taxes which shall be levied annually, for the payment of the principal and interest on such warrants.

An airport within the meaning of this Act shall include all lands and buildings or other improvements necessary or convenient in the establishment and operation of an airport, and shall include such lands and improvements as are necessary to assemble or manufacture aircraft for military or naval uses, or for any other governmental purpose, and to provide housing and office space for employees necessary or incidental to such purposes.

Form and Contents of Warrants

Sec. 2. Warrants may be authorized to be issued under this Act by ordinance which may be adopted at the same meeting at which it is introduced by a majority of all the members of the governing body of the city then in office and shall take effect immediately upon adoption. Such warrants shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding five (5) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, may be made payable to bearer, may be in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, may be in such denomination or denominations, may be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, may carry such registration privileges, may be subject to such terms of redemption, may be executed in such manner, may contain such terms, covenants and conditions, and may be in such form, either coupon or registered, as such ordinance or subsequent ordinance may provide. Said warrants shall mature annually in such amounts so that the aggregate amount of principal and interest falling due in each year shall be substantially equal over a period not to exceed thirty (30) years from their date. Said warrants shall be sold at public or private sale at not less than par. Said warrants shall be negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Negotiable Instruments Law¹ of this State. Said warrants bearing the signature of the officers in office at the date of the signing thereof shall be valid and binding obligations notwithstanding that before the delivery thereof and payment therefor any or all of the persons whose signatures appear thereon shall have ceased to be officers of the city issuing the same.

¹ Article 5932 et seq. (repealed; see, now, Business and Commerce Code, § 3.101 et seq.).

Limitation on the Amount of Warrants Which May Be Issued

Sec. 3. No city shall issue any warrants pursuant to this Act in an aggregate amount in excess of One Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($125,000).

No Election Necessary

Sec. 4. No election shall be necessary to authorize the issuance of warrants pursuant to this Act, but the city shall comply with the provisions of Chapter 163, Acts of the Forty-second Legislature,¹ with reference to bidders and notice of intention to issue such warrants and the right to referendum therein specified shall apply.

Tax Levy

Sec. 5. Whenever any city shall issue warrants pursuant to this Act, a tax sufficient to pay when due the principal and interest on such warrants shall be levied annually and assessed, collected and paid in like manner with other taxes of such city, provided, however, that if such warrants are payable from taxes and additionally secured by a pledge of the income, rents, revenues, tolls, and other receipts derived from the operation of the airport for which such warrants were issued, the tax to be levied and assessed by such city may be reduced by the amount of money on hand pledged to the payment of the principal and interest of such warrants.

Charges for Use of Airport

Sec. 6. The governing body of a city issuing warrants pursuant to this Act shall prescribe by ordinance and collect reasonable rates, fees, tolls, rentals or other charges for the service and facilities furnished by the airport for which such warrants have been issued. The rates, fees, tolls, rentals or other charges so prescribed shall be such as will produce revenues sufficient (a) to pay when due all warrants and interest thereon, for the payment of which such revenues shall have been pledged, including reserves therefor; (b) to provide for all expenses of operation and maintenance of such airport, including reserves therefor.

Sale or Lease of Airport

Sec. 7. The governing body of the City shall have the power to sell, convey, or lease all or any portion of such airports heretofore established, or that may be hereafter established, to the United States of America for the purpose of air mail or any other public purpose, including the purpose of runways for the landing of aircraft, the assembling or manufacture of aircraft or aircraft parts, or any other purpose deemed by the Government of the United States necessary for the national defense, or to the State of Texas or any branch of the State Government, or to any municipality for any such purpose, or to any other person, firm or corporation to carry out any necessary or incidental purpose; and that such governing body shall provide rules and regulations for the proper use of any such airports, whether used for pleasure, experiment, exhibition, commercial purpose, or for the national defense.

Airport a Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The acquisition and operation of an airport are hereby declared to be a public purpose and a matter of public necessity.

Approval of Attorney General

Sec. 9. Said warrants shall be presented to the Attorney General for examination and if he approves the same they shall be registered in the office of the State Comptroller. Such warrants after receiving the certificate of the Attorney General and having been registered in the Comptroller's office, shall be held in each action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. The only defense which can be offered against the validity of such warrants shall be forgery or fraud. In each action brought to enforce collection of such warrants the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof shall be admitted and received in evidence of the validity of such warrant or warrants together with the coupons attached thereto.

Construction of Act

Sec. 10. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, including any charter provision. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, including any charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling. If any provision of this Act, or the application of such provisions to any person, body or circumstance shall be held invalid, the remainder of the Act, or the application of such provision to persons, bodies, or circumstances other than as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1269j-1. Validating Interest Bearing Time Warrants Issued to Finance Airports or Airport Improvements by Cities Having Over 285,000 Population

All interest-bearing time warrants heretofore authorized by ordinance of the governing body of any city in Texas having a population of two hundred and eighty-five thousand (285,000) or more according to the latest United States Census, issued or authorized to be issued in payment or part payment for the construction of administration buildings, hangars, and hangar doors for its airport and/or to improve, enlarge, extend, or repair its airport, are hereby validated, ratified, and legalized, and such warrants shall not be invalid on account of irregularities in the notice to bidders, and shall not be invalid because the notice to bidders did not contain notice that it was the intention of the governing body to pay for such improvements and the contracts therefor by the issuance of time warrants. The contracts for such improvements and payment therefor by the issuance of interest-bearing time warrants shall not be invalid on account of the notice to bidders not containing a clause to the effect that it was the intention to pay for such improvements and the contracts therefor by the issuance of interest-bearing time warrants and stating the maximum amount, interest rate, and maximum maturity date of such contemplated warrants. This Act shall apply to such warrants and the contracts on which they are based whether such warrants shall have been completely issued, or whether they have been authorized by ordinance and not as yet completely issued; and in so far as they have not as yet been completely issued, the governing body of such city is authorized in due course to complete the issuance thereof.

Art. 1269j-2. Repealed by Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 784, ch. 391, § 16

Art. 1269j-3. Investments by Political Subdivisions of State in Defense Bonds or Other United States Obligations

All political subdivisions of the State of Texas which have balances remaining in their accounts at the end of any fiscal year may invest such balances in Defense Bonds or other obligations of the United States of America; provided, however, that when such funds are needed the obligations of the United States in which such balances are invested shall be sold or redeemed and the proceeds of said obligations shall be deposited in the accounts from which they were originally drawn.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 481, ch. 321, § 1.]

Art. 1269j-4. Auditoriums, Exhibition Halls and Similar Buildings; Cities Over 125,000 Population

Powers of Cities; Obligations to be Charge on Property Only

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities and towns, including home rule cities, having a population exceeding one hundred and twenty-five thousand (125,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have power to build and purchase, to mortgage and encumber their municipal auditoriums, exhibition halls, coliseums, and other buildings or structures for public gatherings, either, or all, and the income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to evidence the obligation therefor by the issuance of bonds, notes or warrants, and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same; or to purchase additional lands and facilities, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair such buildings and structures, or any one of them, including the purchase of equipment and appliances necessary in the operation of such buildings and structures. No such obligation of any such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Sale or Encumbrance; Submission to Voters

Sec. 2. No such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such City; nor shall same be encumbered for more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) except for purchase money, or to refund any existing indebtedness lawfully created, until authorized in like manner. Such vote in either case shall be ascertained at an election, which election shall be held and notice thereof given as is provided in the case of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities.

Lien of Expenses; Rates and Charges; System of Records and Account; Report of Operations

Sec. 3. Whenever the income of any municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall be encumbered under this law, the expenses of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs and additions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. Provided, that only such repairs and additions, as in the judgment of the governing body of such city, are necessary to keep such building or structure for public gatherings in operation and render adequate service to such city and the inhabitants thereof, or such as might be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the original security, shall be a lien prior to any existing lien. The rates charged for the use of and for services furnished by any such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall be equal and uniform, and no free use or service shall be allowed except for activities and institutions operated by such city. There shall be charged and collected for such use and services a sufficient rate to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment, and interest charges, and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such buildings or structures or any outstanding indebtedness against same. No part of the income of any such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expenses or obligation of such city, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

It shall be the duty of the chief executive officer of such city to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the free uses and services rendered, and the value thereof, and showing separately the amounts expended and the amounts set aside for operation, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, additions, interest, and the creation of a sinking fund to pay off such bonds and indebtedness.

It shall likewise be the duty of the superintendent or manager of such municipal auditorium or other building or structure for public gatherings, to file with the chief executive officer of such city, not later than February 1, a detailed report of the operation of such building or structure for the year ending January 1 preceding, showing the total sums of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as a result of operation of such building or structure during such calendar year.

Failure or refusal on the part of the chief executive officer to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, such system of records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, or on the part of such superintendent or manager to file or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor, and upon conviction therefor, such chief executive officer or such superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) and not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); and any taxpayer or holder of such indebtedness residing within such city shall have the right, by appropriate civil action in the district court of the county in which said city is located, to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Evidence of Indebtedness to Include Statement as to Funds from Which Payable; Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness issued or included under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." Where bonds are issued hereunder, they may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by such cities. In such case, the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other municipal bonds.

Projects Self Liquidating

Sec. 5. Projects financed in accordance with this law are hereby declared to be self liquidating in character and supported by charge other than by taxation.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 595, ch. 350.]

Art. 1269j-4.1. Public Improvements in Cities of 5,000 or More; Bonds; Occupancy Tax

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, including Home Rule Cities, having a population of five thousand (5,000) or more according to the last preceding federal census.

Buildings, Structures, Parking Areas and Facilities; Leases

Sec. 2. Any such city is hereby authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) public improvements such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries, or other city buildings (either or all), and golf courses, tennis courts, and other similar recreational facilities, and to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances; and provided that any such lease shall be on such terms and conditions as said city shall deem appropriate.

Revenue Bonds; Ordinance; Pledge of Revenues; Charges for Services; Leases

Sec. 3. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide all or part of the funds for the establishment, acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment or repair (any or all) of public improvements such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries or other city buildings, either or all, and golf courses, tennis courts, and other similar recreational facilities, and the establishment, acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment or repair (any or all) of structures, parking areas or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances.

(b) Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of such city and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the revenues of said public improvements or said parking or storage facilities, as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds. To the extent that such revenues may have been pledged to the payment of revenue or revenue refunding bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of the city, and subject to limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties acquired out of the proceeds from the sale of such bonds.

(c) When any of the revenues of such public improvements and facilities are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city to cause to be fixed, maintained and enforced charges for services rendered by properties and facilities, the revenues of which have been pledged, at rates and amounts at least sufficient to comply with and carry out the covenants, and provisions contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

(d) If any such city leases as lessee any one or more such public improvements, structures, parking areas or facilities, such city shall have authority to pledge to the lease payments required to be made by such city all or any part of the revenues of such public improvements, structures, parking areas or facilities.

Occupancy Tax Authorized

Sec. 3a. Any such city is hereby authorized to levy by ordinance a tax upon the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room furnished by any hotel, where the cost of occupancy is at the rate of $2 or more per day. Such tax may not exceed three percent of the consideration paid by the occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel.

Ordinances, Bonds and Taxes; Validation

Sec. 3b. All ordinances heretofore passed and adopted by the governing body of any such city levying a tax upon the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room furnished by any hotel, where such cost of occupancy is at the rate of two dollars ($2) or more per day and such tax is equal to or less than three percent (3%) of the consideration paid by the occupant of such room to such hotel, and any bonds heretofore issued that are secured in whole or in part by a pledge of such tax, are hereby in all respects validated and held to be enforceable as of the respective date of passage and adoption of said ordinances levying such tax or issuing such bonds. All such occupancy taxes to be levied or attempted to be levied pursuant to such ordinances are hereby validated and declared fully enforceable to the same extent as if levied or attempted to be levied pursuant to valid laws duly enacted by the Legislature of this State specifically providing authority for the passage and adoption of such ordinances and the levy of such taxes.

Disposition of Revenue

Sec. 3c. (a) The revenue derived from any occupancy tax authorized or validated by this Act may only be used for:

(1) the acquisition of sites for and the construction, improvement, enlarging, equipping, repairing, operation, and maintenance of convention center facilities including, but not limited to, civic center convention buildings, auditoriums, coliseums, and parking areas or facilities for the parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances located at or in the immediate vicinity of the convention center facilities;

(2) the furnishing of facilities, personnel and materials for the registration of convention delegates or registrants;

(3) for advertising for general promotional and tourist advertising of the city and its vicinity and conducting a solicitation and operating program to attract conventions and visitors either by the city or through contracts with persons or organizations selected by the city.

(b) Any city which levies and collects an occupancy tax which is authorized or validated by this Act may pledge a portion of the revenue derived therefrom to the payment of the bonds which the city may issue pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 of this Act, if such bonds are issued solely for one or more of the purposes set forth in the preceding subsection; provided that any city which levies and collects such tax shall reserve a portion of the tax revenue equal to at least one-half of one percent of the cost of occupancy and may reserve all of the tax revenue from the cost of the occupancy of hotel rooms for the purpose of advertising and conducting solicitation programs to acquaint potential users with public meeting and convention facilities, and for promotion of tourism and advertising of the city and its vicinity either by the city or through contract with persons or organizations selected by the city.

Definitions

Sec. 3d. As hereinabove employed, the following words, terms and phrases are defined as follows:

(a) "Hotel" shall mean any building or buildings in which the public may, for a consideration, obtain sleeping accommodations. The term shall include hotels, motels, tourist homes, houses, or courts, lodging houses, inns, rooming houses, or other buildings where rooms are furnished for a consideration, but "hotel" shall not be defined so as to include hospitals, sanitariums, or nursing homes.

(b) "Consideration" shall mean the cost of the room in such hotel only if the room is one ordinarily used for sleeping, and shall not include the cost of any food served or personal services rendered to the occupant of such room not related to the cleaning and readying of such room for occupancy.

(c) "Occupancy" shall mean the use or possession, or the right to the use or possession, of any room in a hotel if the room is one ordinarily used for sleeping and if the occupant's use, possession, or right to use or possession extends for a period of less than thirty (30) days.

(d) "Occupant" shall mean anyone, who, for a consideration uses, possesses, or has a right to use or possess any room in a hotel if the room is one ordinarily used for sleeping.

Payment of Principal or Interest on Bonds

Sec. 4. The owners or holders of such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal of or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation, except as to room taxes, if pledged.

Interest and Sinking Funds; Reserve Funds

Sec. 5. In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue or revenue refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities, the revenues of which are pledged, including provision for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements or facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

Payment of Interest; Expense of Sale and Delivery of Bonds; Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 6. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside, out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit, or both. Moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, in the reserve fund or funds, and in any other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

Signatures on Bonds; Maturity Dates; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 7. All bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the city and countersigned by the City Secretary or City Clerk, and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds and any attached interest coupons to be signed by facsimile signatures and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a facsimile as provided by Acts 1961, 57th Legislature, page 406, Chapter 204 (Article 717j-1, V.A.C.S.). Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

Revenue Refunding Bonds; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 8. Any city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds similarly secured to refund either original bonds or revenue refunding bonds theretofore issued by such city under this Act, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinance or ordinances and shall be executed and shall mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

Legal and Authorized Investments; Securing Deposit of Public Funds

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall be and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Act of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas, but to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail; and this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions.

Art. 1269j-4.2. Coliseums or Stadiums of Counties in Excess of 500,000; Sale to Certain Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city to which Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended (Article 1269j-4.1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply (each such city herein called an "authorized city") and to any county which has a population in excess of 500,000 according to the then most recent federal census, which county has issued bonds for the purpose of constructing a coliseum or stadium within the county and which is operating such coliseum directly and is not having the same operated by another through a lease or other agreement not subject to cancellation by the county in event of a sale of such facilities (each such county being herein called an "authorized county").

Sec. 2. The commissioners court of any authorized county, upon finding (a) that the coliseum or stadium owned and operated by it is in need of expansion or other improvement, and (b) that such expansion or other improvement may be better accomplished without resort to the tax funds and resources of the county by the sale of such coliseum or stadium and related land to an authorized city in which such facility is located, may sell such coliseum or stadium and related land and facilities to such authorized city pursuant to an agreement of sale and purchase entered into in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. A sale and purchase, as authorized in Section 2 of this Act, shall be upon such terms and for such price as shall be agreed between the authorized county and the authorized city, but in no event shall such price be less than the amount of the then outstanding bonds of the county issued for the purpose of constructing and equipping such coliseum or stadium. Such sale and purchase price may be paid by the authorized city in cash and the funds to pay the same may be obtained by such city in any manner now permitted by law; or, such sale and purchase price may be paid by the city in installments with interest at not lower than the same rates borne by the county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds. The funds with which to make such installments may be obtained by such city in any lawful manner, including, but not limited to, one or a combination of the following methods, to-wit: (a) Such installments, by the agreement, may be made payable to the authorized county out of revenues of the stadium or coliseum thus sold on dates coinciding with or earlier than the dates upon which principal and interest on such county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds shall mature and come due. If this method of payment is selected, the payments due the county may be treated as a fixed operating expense of the stadium or coliseum payable solely from the revenues of such facilities. When received by the county, such funds shall be utilized for the purpose of retiring and paying interest upon its outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds when due. (b) Such city and such county may agree that the city shall issue a series of coliseum or stadium acquisition revenue bonds (or include such purpose as a part of a larger series of coliseum or stadium revenue bonds), which revenue bonds (or part of a larger series allocable to such purchase) shall be delivered to the county in payment of the purchase price for said stadium or coliseum. Such bonds shall be at least payable at the times and in the same amounts as, and bear not lower than the same rates of interest borne by, the county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds, so as to provide funds from such revenue bonds to the county with which to pay the principal and interest when due upon its said outstanding bonds. Such revenue bonds of the city may be upon such other terms as the city and the county may agree and may include any mortgage security authorized by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended. Upon delivery of such bonds to the county, the county shall hold the same for the account of the Interest and Sinking Fund created in connection with its outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds and shall utilize the payments when received to pay the principal and interest on its said bonds when due.

Sec. 4. Any such sale authorized by this law shall be effected by delivery of a deed, with reservation of such vendor's liens on such facilities as may be appropriate in connection with the selected method for payment of the purchase price, from the county and approved by the commissioners court and accepted by the city in accordance with the terms of such sale and purchase agreement. From and after the delivery of such deed, the city shall be the complete and total owner of the coliseum or stadium, and the land and facilities thus conveyed, and may thereafter exercise all the powers with respect thereto authorized and implied by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended, and any other laws applicable to such city, for the purpose of operating, maintaining, improving, or expanding a coliseum or stadium, and may in connection with the financing thereof include such indoor and outdoor recreational facilities, properties and entertainment attractions as may be considered by the city to be appropriate in connection therewith and may lease, or enter into operating agreement with respect to, all or any part of the same for such periods and upon such terms as the city may determine.

Art. 1269j-4.3. Parking Facilities; Revenue Bonds; Gulf Coast Cities of 55,000 to 120,000

Application to Certain Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to every incorporated city or town (including Home Rule Cities) located on the Coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or any channel, canal, bay or inlet connected therewith, having a population of more than fifty-five thousand (55,000) and less than one hundred twenty thousand (120,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census.

Parking Facilities

Sec. 2. That any such city is hereby authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) permanent public improvements, to-wit: structures, parking areas or facilities (hereinafter called "improvements") for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances; provided that any such lease shall be on such terms and conditions as said city shall deem appropriate.

Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide all or part of the funds for the establishment, acquisition, lease, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment or repair (any or all) of said improvements.

(b) Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of such city and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the revenues of said improvements (any or all) as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds. To the extent that such revenues may have been pledged to the payment of revenue or revenue refunding bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of the city, and subject to the limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties acquired out of the proceeds from the sale of such bonds.

(c) When any of the revenues of such improvements are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city to cause to be fixed, maintained and enforced charges for services rendered by such improvements, the revenues of which have been pledged, at rates and amounts at least sufficient to comply with and carry out the covenants and provisions contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

Bonds; Demand of Payment

Sec. 4. The owners or holders of such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal of or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Funds; Additional Bonds and Covenants

Sec. 5. In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue or revenue refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities, the revenues of which are pledged, including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of, as lessor or lessee, all or any part of said improvements and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payment from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

Bond Proceeds; Appropriation; Investment

Sec. 6. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside, out of the bond proceeds, an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited in the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred or to be incurred in the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit, either or both, moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, and the reserve fund or funds, and any other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

Bonds; Signatures; Seal; Facsimiles; Maturity; Interest; Approval and Registration

Sec. 7. That all bonds shall be signed by the mayor of the city and countersigned by the city secretary or city clerk, and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds and any attached interest coupons to be signed by facsimile signatures and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be in facsimile as provided by Acts, 1961, 57th Legislature, page 406, Chapter 204 (Art. 717j-1, V.A.C.S.), as amended. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six and one-half per cent (6½%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be called prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable.

Refunding Bonds; Approval and Registration

Sec. 8. Any city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds to refund either original bonds or revenue refunding bonds theretofore issued by said city under this Act, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinance or ordinances and shall be executed and shall mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable.

Bonds; Negotiability; Legal Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall be and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Act of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect; Precedence

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas, but to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail; and this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions.

Art. 1269j-4.4. Sea Life Park and Oceanarium; Certificates of Indebtedness

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any city or town which owns a sea life park and oceanarium, the same having been, or the same being, constructed, equipped and developed wholly or partly with the proceeds of general obligation park bonds duly voted by the inhabitants of such city or town, is hereby authorized to issue Certificates of Indebtedness for the purpose of obtaining funds for operating, maintaining, repairing, further equipping, developing, expanding or obtaining inventories for such sea life park and oceanarium or for paying for such services and items when performed, obtained or acquired by others for the benefit of any such city or town under the terms of any lease, use, purchase, or concession agreement, operating agreement or other type of agreement relating to the development, operation, equipping, staffing, maintenance or upkeep of any such facilities; and for the same purposes, such obligations may be issued in connection with any other public facilities which are owned by such city or town in conjunction with such sea life park and oceanarium and which are of the type authorized by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965 (Article 1269j-4.1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or under said Act and Chapter 400, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 1269j-4.2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Acquisition of Facilities and Rights by Cities and Towns from Person or Corporation

Sec. 1(a). If any such city or town has heretofore or shall hereafter cause any part or all of said facilities to be operated on its behalf by a person or corporation under the terms of a lease, use, purchase, concession agreement, operating agreement, or other type of agreement, such city or town, upon a determination by the governing body thereof that the same could be better and more efficiently operated directly by it or by another method, including an operating board appointed by it, with such powers as may be granted by ordinance, or by any other method, and with the consent and agreement of such person or corporation to the rescission of any such agreement shall be authorized to purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the properties, assets, rights and facilities of any such person or corporation and to issue certificates of indebtedness therefor in accordance with the terms of this Act, expressly including the right to purchase or acquire any broadcasting or similar rights, and the same may be used, sold or resold by such city or town and in conjunction with which such use or sales, such city or town may promote or advertise such city or town or any such facilities or any events to be conducted therein or in connection therewith.

Issuance; Terms and Conditions; Security

Sec. 2. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be issued when authorized by ordinance adopted by the governing body of any such city or town and may mature serially or otherwise and may be issued upon such other terms and conditions as may be contained and specified in any such ordinance, including, but not limited to, provisions as to interest rate or rates, registration and redemption privileges, and any manner and method of sale, exchange for goods, property or services, and for the delivery thereof; and the same may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues, or both; provided that, in the issuance of any such obligations payable from taxes, the issuer shall comply with the provisions of the Texas Constitution requiring in such cases that sufficient taxes to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due be duly and properly levied.

Pledge of Revenues to Payment of Certificates of Indebtedness; Deed of Trust or Mortgage Lien

Sec. 2(a). If any such city or town shall elect to pledge the revenues from the aforesaid facilities to the repayment of any certificate of indebtedness issued under this Act, or in connection with the refunding thereof as herein permitted, either alone or in combination with taxes, as permitted in Section 2 of this Act, then such city or town may pledge all or any part of the designated revenues to result from the ownership or operation of any or all of the facilities, properties and rights described in Section 1 and Section 1(a) of this Act, and, within the discretion of the governing body of such city or town, may additionally secure the same by a deed of trust or mortgage lien on any part or all of the physical properties of the city which are described in this Act, in which event, such deeds of trust or mortgages may be executed as may be deemed appropriate in addition to the ordinance contemplated in Section 1 hereof. If any such city or town shall elect to refund any certificates of indebtedness issued hereunder pursuant to Section 4 of this Act, it is hereby expressly provided that any such refunding bonds may be secured by any part or all of the aforesaid revenues and by a deed of trust or other mortgage lien upon said properties or by taxes or by any combination thereof, and irrespective of the nature of the initial security pledged or committed to the payment of the certificate of indebtedness as initially issued.

Certificates as Investment Securities

Sec. 3. Any Certificates of Indebtedness issued under authority of this Act shall constitute "Investment Securities" under Chapter 8 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code,¹ and may be issued in such form and denominations and under such other terms, conditions and details, and may be executed, all as provided in the proceedings authorizing the same; and all Certificates of Indebtedness which shall recite that they have been issued under authority of this Act for the purposes herein authorized shall be incontestable for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms and for all purposes.

¹ Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Refunding into Bonds

Sec. 4. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be wholly or partially refunded into bonds in any manner and upon such terms as now permitted by law with respect to the refunding of other indebtedness or obligations of any such city or town, including Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended, and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, 1969 (Article 717k, and Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposit of Public Funds

Sec. 5. All Certificates of Indebtedness issued under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies of all kinds and types, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any city, county or other political subdivision of this State. Said obligations also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of any city, county or other political subdivision or public agency.

Contracts and Agreements; Operation, Etc. of Facilities; Proceeds of Certificates

Sec. 6. Upon or in anticipation of the issuance of any Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act, (or in anticipation of the receipt of revenues from said facilities in lieu of the issuance of Certificates of Indebtedness) the governing body of any such city or town shall be authorized and permitted to make and enter into such contracts and agreements relating to the operation, maintenance, upkeep, equipment, development, expansion or supplying of or for any said public facilities, of such types and kinds, upon such terms, in such manner and in accordance with such procedures as the governing body of such city or town shall deem best, necessary and proper; and the proceeds of such Certificates of Indebtedness (or in lieu thereof such revenues) may be utilized and devoted to the satisfaction thereof.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 7. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of such Certificates of Indebtedness and the performance of the other acts, powers and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions, procedures or limitations on borrowing or contracting contained therein, including the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except as may be specifically required herein, and when any obligations are being issued or any act or contract is undertaken or made under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law otherwise applicable to such city or town, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control.

Severability

Sec. 8. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

- (1) "County" means any county in the state.
- (2) "Judge" or "county judge" means the county judge of a county.
- (3) "Authority" means a civic center authority created under this Act.

(4) "Board" or "board of directors" means the board of directors of an authority.

(5) "Bond resolution" means the resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds.

(6) "Person" means any individual, public agency as defined in this Act, public or private corporation, copartnership, association, firm, trust, estate, or any other entity.

(7) "Public agency" means a city, as defined in this Act, the United States, this state, or a political subdivision or governmental agency of the United States or of this state.

(8) "City" means an incorporated city, town, or village, whether operating under general law or under a home rule charter.

(9) "Facility" means the improvements and facilities described in Section 21 of this Act, or a designated portion of those improvements and facilities.

SUBCHAPTER B. CREATION OF AUTHORITIES

Creation Authorized

Sec. 3. Civic center authorities without taxing power may be created in accordance with this Act.

Authority a Political Subdivision

Sec. 4. An authority created in accordance with this Act is a body politic and corporate and is a political subdivision of the state.

Composition of Authority

Sec. 5. An authority may include the area of any county or portion thereof, including cities and other public agencies, and the area comprising an authority need not be in one body, but may consist of separate bodies of land separated by land not included in the boundaries of the authority.

Petition Required

Sec. 6. (a) When it is proposed to create an authority, a petition requesting creation shall be filed with the county judge of the county in which such authority is proposed to be created. The petition shall be signed by a majority of the members of each of the governing bodies of two or more cities. Such petition shall describe the boundaries of the proposed authority by metes and bounds or by lot and block number, if there is a recorded map or plat and survey of such area, or by natural or artificial boundaries or survey lines. If the area of the authority is to be composed entirely of cities, it shall be sufficient if the petition recites that fact and specifies the cities to be included. Such petition shall contain the names of those persons recommended for the authority's first board of directors, the number of said directors shall be an odd number, but not less than five nor more than eleven. Such petition shall state the desirability of or the need for the creation of the authority and shall include the name of the authority which shall be generally descriptive of the locale of the authority followed by the words "Civic Center Authority." A copy of such petition shall be recorded in the deed records of the county in which the authority is located, and no other authority in the same county shall have the same name.

(b) The petition shall be accompanied by a deposit of $200 to cover the cost of publishing notice of the hearing hereinafter mentioned. If all of such moneys are not required for such purpose, the excess shall be returned to the petitioners.

Hearing

Sec. 7. (a) Upon the filing of a petition with the county judge, said judge shall fix a date, time and place at which the petition shall be heard by him, such date to be not more than 20 days from the date of such filing of the petition. The county judge shall issue notice of the date, time, and place of hearing, and the notice shall inform all persons of their right to appear and contest the form and allegations of the petition and the desirability of or need for the creation of the authority.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the authority is located at least one time, the date of publication to be at least 10 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing.

(c) The county judge shall examine the petition to ascertain the sufficiency thereof, and any person interested may appear before him in person or by attorney and offer testimony touching the sufficiency of the petition and whether the creation of the authority is desirable or necessary. The county judge shall have jurisdiction to determine all issues raised touching the sufficiency of the petition and creation of the authority. The hearing may be adjourned from day to day, and the county judge shall have the power to make all incidental orders in respect to the matters before him.

(d) If, upon the hearing of the petition, the county judge finds that it conforms to the requirements of Section 6 of this Act and that the creation of the authority is desirable or necessary, the county judge shall so declare by his order and grant the petition. If he finds that such authority is neither desirable nor necessary, he shall refuse to grant the petition.

(e) Any person who signed the petition or any person who did actually appear and protest the petition and offer testimony for or against the creation of the authority may appeal to an appropriate district court from the order of the judge, granting or refusing the petition, within 30 days after the entry of such order.

SUBCHAPTER C. ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Board of Directors

Sec. 8. An authority shall be governed by a board of not less than five nor more than eleven directors, as provided in Section 6 of this Act.

Qualifications of Directors

Sec. 9. To be qualified to serve as a director of an authority a person shall be 21 or more years of age, a resident citizen of the State of Texas and must reside within the boundaries of the authority.

Term of Office

Sec. 10. The term of office of the first board of directors shall be two years from the date the authority is created and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Thereafter, at two-year intervals the members of such boards of directors shall be appointed by the county judge upon the advice and consent of, and only from among those persons recommended by, all of the respective cities included within the boundaries of the authority and contracting with the authority under the terms of this Act. Such directors shall serve for a term of two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

Vacancies

Sec. 11. A vacancy in the office of a director or any office on the board shall be filled by appointment by the board of directors for the unexpired term. If at any time the number of qualified directors shall be less than a majority of the board because of the failure or refusal of one or more directors to qualify to serve, or because of his or their death or incapacitation, or for any other reason, then the county judge shall, upon the petition of any resident of the authority, appoint the necessary number of directors to fill all vacancies on the board.

Organization of Board; Election of Officers

Sec. 12. After the directors have qualified by making the proper bond and taking the proper oath, they shall organize by electing a president, a vice president, a secretary, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are deemed necessary. The authority's treasurer may be a director of a state or national bank. The treasurer shall give bond in such amount as may be required by the board, conditioned that he or it will faithfully account for all moneys which shall come into his or its custody as treasurer of the authority.

Quorum

Sec. 13. A majority of the directors appointed shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of such majority shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the authority. The president shall preside at all meetings of the board and shall be the chief executive officer of the authority. The vice president shall act as president in case of the absence or disability of the president. The secretary shall act as president if both the president and vice president are absent or disabled. The secretary shall act as secretary of the board and shall be charged with the duty of seeing that all records and books of the authority are properly kept. The board may appoint another director, the general manager or any employee as assistant or deputy secretary to assist the secretary and any such person shall be entitled to certify as to the authenticity of any record of the authority.

Bylaws

Sec. 14. The board is empowered to adopt bylaws to govern:

- (1) the time, place, and manner of conducting its meetings;
- (2) the powers, duties, and responsibilities of its officers and employees;
- (3) the disbursement of funds by checks, drafts, and warrants;
- (4) the appointment and authority of director committees; and
- (5) the keeping of records and accounts and such other matters as the board deems appropriate.

Meetings and Notice

Sec. 15. The board shall establish regular meetings to conduct authority business and may hold special meetings at such other times as the business of the authority requires. The board shall hold its meetings at one of its designated meeting places. Notice of the time, place and purpose of any meeting of the board shall be given by posting at a place convenient to the public within the boundaries of the authority. A copy of the notice shall be furnished to the clerk of the county in which the authority is located who shall post the same on a bulletin board in the county courthouse or sub-courthouse used for such purpose. The notice of the meeting shall be posted for at least three days prior to a meeting, unless there is an emergency or urgent public necessity, which shall be expressed in the notice. Failure to post notice as required herein shall not affect the validity of any action taken at a regular meeting of the board but shall affect the validity of action taken at a special meeting unless the board declares in action taken at that special meeting that an emergency existed. Any interested person may attend any meeting of the board.

Authority Office and Meeting Place

Sec. 16. The board of directors shall designate, establish and maintain an authority office and meeting place within the authority. The board may also establish a meeting place outside the authority. If the board establishes a meeting place outside the authority, it shall give notice of the location thereof by filing a true copy of its order establishing the location of the authority office with the county clerk and also by publishing the location in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the authority is located. If the location of the meeting place outside the authority is thereafter changed, notice of the change shall be given in the same manner.

Fees of Office

Sec. 17. The directors may receive as fees of office the sum of not to exceed $25 per day for each day of service necessary to discharge their duties, but such fees shall not exceed the sum of $100 in any one month regardless of the number of days of necessary service during that month.

General Manager

Sec. 18. A director may be employed as general manager of the authority at such compensation as may be fixed by the other directors, and, when so employed, he shall continue to perform the duties of a director. If the general manager is not a director, he shall furnish a fidelity bond payable to the authority in the amount of $5,000 conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties.

Bond and Oath of Office

Sec. 19. As soon as practicable after a director is appointed, he shall give a bond for $5,000 payable to the authority and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. Each director shall take the oath of office prescribed for the commissioners court, except that the name of the authority shall be substituted for the county. The bond and oath shall be filed with the authority and retained in its records.

Qualification of Directors

Sec. 20. After an authority has been created by the granting of a petition therefor, the first members of the board of directors shall make their bonds and take the oath of office and thereafter shall meet and organize. Said bonds of the first board of directors shall be approved by the county judge. The bonds for subsequent directors shall be approved by the board of directors of the authority.

SUBCHAPTER D. POWERS AND DUTIES

General Powers

Sec. 21. Any authority created under this Act is authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) public improvements such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries, recreational buildings or facilities, or other public buildings and related facilities (either or all), and to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances. Any such lease may be on such terms and conditions as the board of directors of said authority shall deem appropriate as in this Act provided.

Addition of Cities

Sec. 22. A city may be added to and become a part of an authority upon filing a petition to that effect with an authority's board of directors. Such petition must be signed by a majority of the members of the governing body of such city. If the authority's board determines such addition to the authority is desirable or necessary, such board shall so find and enter its order adding such city to such authority, and a copy of same shall be recorded in the county deed records. Such an added city, however, shall not have any authority or power with respect to recommending or appointing members to the authority's board of directors unless and until it becomes a contracting city as mentioned in Section 10 of this Act.

Management of District

Sec. 23. The board shall have control over and management of all of the affairs of the authority and shall employ persons, firms, partnerships, or corporations deemed necessary by the board for the conduct of the affairs of said authority, including, but not limited to, engineers, attorneys, financial advisors, a general manager, bookkeepers, auditors, and secretaries. The board of directors shall determine the term of office and compensation of all employees. All employees may be removed by the board. The board of directors may require a bond of any employee payable to the authority and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties.

Supplies

Sec. 24. The board shall also have the right to purchase all materials, supplies, equipment, vehicles, and machinery needed by the authority.

Seal

Sec. 25. The directors shall adopt a seal for the authority.

Destruction of Records

Sec. 26. All original minutes and orders of the board, all construction contracts and all instruments relating thereto, all bonds of the authority's board of directors, and all bonds of the authority's officers and employees shall be kept in a safe place and maintained as permanent records of said authority. No minutes or orders or resolutions of the board of directors shall be destroyed. All records necessary for the authority's annual audits and necessary to comply with the term of its bond resolutions shall be retained for at least one full year after the expiration of the next preceding fiscal year. Authority contracts other than construction contracts and records relating thereto shall be retained for at least four years after the performance thereof. Except for the foregoing, an authority's records may be destroyed when the board determines that they are no longer needed or useful. As to any authority records destroyed, the board of directors shall designate the person or persons to destroy same and the manner of such destruction. If the board deems it advisable it may cause any instruments to be first inventoried or micro-filmed before they are destroyed.

Director Interested in Contract

Sec. 27. A director who is financially interested in any contract with the authority shall disclose that fact to the other directors and may not vote on the acceptance of the contract or participate in the discussion on the contract. The failure of a director to disclose his financial interest shall invalidate the contract.

Suits

Sec. 28. All authorities created under the provisions hereof shall be governmental agencies and bodies politic and corporate, and may, through their directors, sue and be sued in any and all courts of this state in the name of such authority. Service of process in any suit may be had by serving any three directors. All courts of this state shall take judicial knowledge of the establishment of such authorities.

Contracts in Name of Authority

Sec. 29. Authority shall contract and be contracted with in the name of said authority.

Fees and Charges

Sec. 30. An authority shall have the power to adopt, promulgate, and enforce all necessary charges, fees or rentals for providing any authority facilities or services.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 31. An authority may adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations as to any or all of its facilities.

Acquisition of Land

Sec. 32. An authority is empowered to acquire lands, materials, easements, rights-of-way, and everything deemed necessary, incidental, or helpful for the purpose of accomplishing any one or more of the purposes provided in Section 21 of this Act. An authority shall have the right to acquire all such property by gift, grant, purchase, or condemnation, and the right to acquire property shall include property deemed necessary for the construction, improvement, extension, enlargement, operation, or maintenance of its facilities. An authority may acquire either the fee simple title to, or an easement upon, all lands, both public and private, either within or beyond its boundaries and may acquire the title to, or an easement upon, property other than lands held in fee. An authority may also lease property upon such terms and conditions as the board of directors may determine advantageous to the authority.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 33. An authority may acquire any lands, easements, or other property within its boundaries by condemnation, and in case of a condemnation, the authority may elect to condemn either the fee simple title, or an easement only. The right of eminent domain shall be exercised in the manner provided in Title 52, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 3264, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that an authority shall not be required to give bond for appeal or bond for costs in any condemnation suit or other suit to which it is a party and shall not be required to deposit double the amount of any award in any such suit. Such proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the directors and in the name of the authority.

Costs of Relocation of Property

Sec. 34. In the event that the authority, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocations, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the authority. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, rerouting, or changing grade, or alteration of construction and providing comparable replacement without enhancing such facilities after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sale of Surplus Land

Sec. 35. Any property or land owned by the authority which may be found to be surplus and not needed by the authority may be sold under order of the directors of the authority either by public or private sale or such property may be exchanged for other property.

Leases

Sec. 36. An authority may lease to or from any person, all or any part of any facilities constructed or acquired or to be constructed or acquired by it. The lease may contain the terms and provisions which the board determines to be advantageous to the authority. The term of any lease shall not exceed 40 years from the date thereof.

Contracts

Sec. 37. An authority shall have authority to contract with a public agency for furnishing or making available all or a part of the authority's facilities or services and for the joint ownership and operation of any improvements, facilities, and equipment necessary to accomplish any purpose or function permitted by an authority. An authority may enter into contracts with any person in the performance of any purpose or function permitted by an authority, such contracts not to exceed 40 years' duration and to be on such terms and conditions as the board of directors may deem desirable, fair and advantageous.

Contracts Over $10,000

Sec. 38. (a) The board shall advertise a contract for more than $10,000 for the purchase of materials and all things to constitute the facilities of the authority or for construction as specified in Subsections (b) through (d) of this section.

(b) The board shall advertise the letting of a contract, including the general conditions, time, and place of opening of sealed bids. The notice shall be published in one or more newspapers published in the county. The notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date that the bids are opened, and the first publication shall be at least 14 days before the opening of sealed bids.

(c) A contract may cover all the facilities to be provided by the authority, or the various elements of the facilities may be segregated for the purpose of receiving bids and awarding contracts. A contract may provide that the facilities will be constructed in stages over a period of years.

(d) A contract may provide for the payment of a total sum which is the completed cost of the facilities or may be based on bids to cover cost of units of the various elements entering into the work as estimated and approximately specified by the authority's architects or engineers or a contract may be let and awarded in any other form or composite of forms and to any responsible person or persons which, in the board's judgment, will be most advantageous to the authority and result in the best and most economical completion of the authority's proposed facilities.

Additional Work; Change Orders

Sec. 39. After a contract has been awarded and the authority determines that additional work is needed or that the character or type of work or facilities should be changed, the board may authorize change orders to such contract provided same does not increase the total cost of the contract by more than 25 percent.

Construction Bids

Sec. 40. (a) A person who desires to bid on proposed construction work shall submit to the board a written sealed bid together with a certified or cashier's check on a responsible bank in the state or a bidder's bond for at least two percent of the total amount of the bid.

(b) Bids shall be opened at the same time, and the board may reject any or all of the bids.

(c) If the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into a proper contract with the authority or fails or refuses to furnish the bond required by law, he shall forfeit the amount of the check or bond which accompanied his bid.

Executing and Recording Construction Contract

Sec. 41. (a) Contracts for construction work shall be in writing and signed by the board and the contractor.

(b) The contract shall be kept in the authority's records and be available for public inspection.

Contractor's Bond

Sec. 42. Any person, firm, partnership, or corporation to whom a contract is let must give good and sufficient performance and payment bonds in accordance with Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Repayment of Organizational Expenses

Sec. 43. The authority's directors are authorized to pay all costs and expenses necessarily incurred in the creation and organization of an authority, the cost of investigation and making plans, engineer's or architect's report, and other incidental expenses, and to reimburse any person for money advanced for such purposes. Any such payments may be made from money obtained from the sale of bonds first issued by the authority.

Premium on Directors or Employees Bonds

Sec. 44. The board of directors may pay the premium on surety bonds required of officials or employees of the authority out of any available funds of the authority including proceeds from the sale of bonds.

Depository

Sec. 45. The board of directors shall by order or resolution designate one or more banks within or without the authority to serve as the depository for the funds of the authority. All funds of the authority shall be deposited in the depository bank or banks unless otherwise required by orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the authority's bonds. To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of funds of counties of the State of Texas.

Investments

Sec. 46. Funds of the authority may be invested and reinvested by the board of directors in direct or indirect obligations of the United States of America or any agency thereof, of the State of Texas or of any county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas. Funds of the authority may be placed in certificates of deposit of state or national banks or savings and loan associations within the State of Texas provided that the same are secured in the manner provided for the security of the funds of counties of the State of Texas.

Accounts and Records; Audits

Sec. 47. A complete system of accounts shall be kept by the authority and an audit of its affairs for each year shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountant or a firm of independent certified public accountants. The fiscal year of the authority shall be from January 1 to December 31, unless and until changed by the board of directors. A signed copy of the audit report shall be delivered to each member of the board of directors not later than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year. A copy of the audit shall be kept on file at the authority office and shall constitute a public record open for inspection by any interested person or persons during normal office hours.

SUBCHAPTER E. REVENUE BONDS

Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 48. The authority is authorized to issue its revenue bonds for all or any of the purposes set forth in this Act. Said bonds may be issued when duly authorized by a resolution adopted by the board and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the authority's revenues from its facilities or whatever source derived, including but not limited to the proceeds of contracts and leases. Said bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than 40 years from their date or dates, and shall bear interest at any rate or rates permitted by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, all as shall be determined by the board. Said bonds and interest coupons, if any, appertaining thereto, shall be investment securities under the terms of Chapter 8 of the Business & Commerce Code¹ and may be issued registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, at the option of the board, or they may contain a mandatory redemption provision all as may be provided by said board. Such bonds may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner and under such terms, conditions and details, and shall be signed and executed, as provided by the board in the resolution authorizing their issuance.

¹ Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Additional Security for Bonds

Sec. 49. The bonds, within the discretion of the board, may be additionally secured by a deed of trust or mortgage lien upon part or all of the physical properties of the authority, and franchises, easements, leases, and contracts and all rights appurtenant to such properties, vesting in the trustee power to sell such properties for payment of the bonds or interest thereon, power to operate the properties and all other powers and authority for the further security for the bonds. Such trust indenture, regardless of the existence of the deed of trust or mortgage lien on the properties, may contain provisions prescribed by the board for the security of the bonds and as preservation of the trust estate, and may make provisions for amendment or modification thereof, and may condition the right to expend authority money or sell authority property upon approval of a registered professional engineer or architect selected as provided therein and may make provisions for investment of funds of the authority. Any purchaser under a sale under the deed of trust or mortgage lien, where one is given, shall be absolute owner of the properties, facilities and rights so purchased and shall have the right to maintain and operate same.

Provisions of Bonds

Sec. 50. In the resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds as provided in this Act (including refunding bonds) the board may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, the reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation, contracts and leases, as such board may deem appropriate. The resolutions of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in such resolutions. The resolutions of the board issuing bonds may contain other provisions and covenants, as the authority's board may determine, not prohibited by the Texas Constitution or by this Act, and said board may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any authority bonds.

Use of Bond Proceeds

Sec. 51. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, the board may appropriate or set aside an amount for the payment of interest and administrative and operating expenses expected to accrue during the period of construction, as may be provided in the bond resolutions, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds.

Sale of Bonds

Sec. 52. After the issuance of said bonds, the board shall sell the bonds on the best terms and for the best possible price.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration by Comptroller

Sec. 53. All bonds issued by an authority shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with law he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. After the approval and registration of bonds by the comptroller, they shall be incontestable in any court or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. If said bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts or a lease or leases made between the authority and another party or parties (public agencies, cities, or otherwise), a copy of each such contract or lease and of the proceedings authorizing same may or may not be submitted to the attorney general along with the bond records, and, if so submitted, then the approval by the attorney general of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or lease, and thereafter such contract or lease shall be incontestable.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 54. (a) By resolutions adopted by its board, an authority shall have the power and authority to issue bonds to refund all or any part of its outstanding bonds, including matured but unpaid interest coupons. Refunding bonds shall mature serially or otherwise not more than 40 years from their date and shall bear interest at any rate or rates permitted by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas. Refunding bonds may be payable from the same source as the bonds being refunded or from other additional sources, shall be approved by the attorney general as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the resolutions authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued before the cancellation of the bonds being refunded provided an amount sufficient to pay the interest and principal on the underlying bonds to their maturity dates, or to their option dates if said bonds have been duly called for payment prior to maturity according to their terms, has been so deposited in the place or places where said underlying bonds are payable, and the comptroller of public accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. The refunding may be accomplished in one or several installment deliveries. Refunding bonds, and the interest coupons appurtenant thereto, shall be investment securities under the provisions of Chapter 8 of the Business & Commerce Code¹ and shall be issued as provided in this Act.

(b) In lieu of the method set forth in Subsection (a) of this section, an authority may refund its bonds as provided by the general laws of the State of Texas.

¹ Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Bonds Legal Investments; Security for Funds

Sec. 55. All bonds issued by the authority shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas, and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. Authority bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas, and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Paid Bonds or Coupons

Sec. 56. All authority bonds and interest coupons, or notes and warrants when paid, shall be delivered to the authority or destroyed and evidence of such destruction furnished the board.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2468, ch. 807, eff. June 8, 1971.]

Art. 1269j-4.6. Contracts with Civic Center Authorities

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any incorporated city, town, or village (hereinafter "city") of the State of Texas, whether operating under the general laws or under a home-rule charter.

Contracts Authorized; Purposes

Sec. 2. A city, pursuant to approval by a majority of its governing body, is hereby authorized to enter into a contract or contracts with a civic center authority under which the authority, for the benefit of the contracting city or contracting cities, may establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) public improvements within or without the boundaries of such city such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries, or other public buildings and related facilities (either or all), and may establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances, as may be authorized to the authority by the laws of this state (hereinafter "facilities"), and under which the authority may furnish all or any part of its authorized services and facilities within or without the boundaries of such city to the contracting city or cities. Such contract may be upon such terms and conditions as the city may deem desirable, fair and advantageous, such contract not to exceed 40 years' duration.

Payments by City to Authority; Sources

Sec. 3. Payments by a city to an authority shall be made, as prescribed in the contract between the city and the authority, from any available funds, including, without limitation of the above, ad valorem taxes; provided, however, that if a city wishes to pledge ad valorem taxes as part or all of the required payments under the contract with an authority, it must follow the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, neither an authority nor the holder of any bonds of the authority shall have the right to demand payment of the city's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation. If the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, payments under the contract may be payable from and constitute solely an obligation against the taxing powers of the city or may be payable both from taxes and from such funds and revenues as may be prescribed in the contract.

Election by City; Authority to Levy and Collect Ad Valorem Tax; Contracts as Obligations against Taxing Power; Qualified Electors

Sec. 4. (a) If an election is held, substantially according to applicable procedure prescribed in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ in reference to the issuance of bonds by cities, by a city and carried, determining that the governing body of the city is authorized to levy and collect an ad valorem tax to pay all or a portion of the payments to be made by the city under a contract to be entered into by and between the city and an authority, the contract, in such event, will constitute an obligation against the taxing power of the city to the extent therein provided. After such election and at or prior to the time such city enters into such contract it shall, in accordance with the Texas Constitution, make provision for assessing and collecting annually a sufficient sum to pay such contract and creating a sinking fund of at least two percent thereon. No election is required for the exercise of any power conferred by this Act except for the levy of such tax.

(b) Only electors of the city who are qualified to vote at such elections under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas and the Constitution of the United States shall be entitled to vote at such elections.

Authority of this Act

Sec. 5. If there be any conflict or inconsistency between this Act and the general laws of the State of Texas and/or any provision of a home-rule charter of a contracting city, the provisions of this Act shall control.

Art. 1269j-4.7. Certificates of Indebtedness Authorized for New Community Plan Adopted by City or Town Under Federal Act

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any city or town, which has by duly adopted resolution, order or ordinance approved or approved in principle a New Community Development project under the Urban Growth and New Community Development Act of 1970, enacted by the United States Congress as Title VII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1970, Public Law 91-609,¹ is hereby authorized to issue Certificates of Indebtedness for the purposes of acquiring, purchasing, constructing, repairing, renovating, improving and/or equipping any public projects or public facilities of any type, including but not excluding others, parks, streets, drainage facilities, water supply and distribution facilities, sewage and waste collection, disposal and treatment facilities, plants and properties, and for the purpose of planning, developing, engineering and financing such public projects and the payment for professional services incident thereto and in connection therewith.

Issuance; Ordinance; Terms and Conditions; Interest; Pledge of Revenues; Levy of Taxes

Sec. 2. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be issued when authorized by ordinance adopted by the governing body of any such city or town and may mature serially or otherwise and may be issued upon such other terms and conditions as may be contained and specified in any such ordinance, including but not limited to provisions as to interest rate or rates, registration and redemption privileges, and any manner and method of sale, or as to exchange for goods, property or services, and for the delivery thereof. Said Certificates of Indebtedness may be issued in amount sufficient to provide for escrowed interest during such periods, not exceeding three years as such ordinance may direct, and/or may provide for deferred interest payments for such period as may be agreed upon with the purchaser thereof; and the same may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues by utility system or systems of the issuer, or both; provided that, in the issuance of any such obligations payable from taxes, the issuer shall comply with the provisions of the Texas Constitution requiring in such cases that sufficient taxes to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due be duly and properly levied.

Investment Securities; Incontestability

Sec. 3. Any Certificates of Indebtedness issued under authority of this Act shall constitute "Investment Securities" under Chapter 8 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code,¹ and may be issued in such form and denominations and under such other terms, conditions and details, and may be executed, all as provided in the proceedings authorizing the same; and all Certificates of Indebtedness which shall recite that they have been issued under authority of this Act for the purposes herein authorized shall be incontestable for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms and for all purposes.

¹ Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Refunding Bonds; Security

Sec. 4. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be wholly or partially refunded into bonds in any manner and upon such terms as now permitted by law with respect to the refunding of other indebtedness or obligations of any such city or town, including Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which refunding bonds may be secured by taxes and/or any revenues of any utility system and/or in any other manner permitted by said acts, irrespective of the purposes for which such Certificates of Indebtedness were issued or the manner in, or source from, which they were secured or were payable.

Legal Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 5. All Certificates of Indebtedness issued under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies of all kinds and types, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any city, county or other political subdivision of this State. Said obligations also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of any city, county or other political subdivision or public agency.

Cumulative and Prevailing Effect

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of such Certificates of Indebtedness and the performance of the other acts, powers and procedures or limitations on borrowing contained therein, except as may be specifically required herein, and when any obligations are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law otherwise applicable to such city or town, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control.

Severability

Sec. 7. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1269j-4.8. Off-Street Parking Facilities; Revenue Bonds; Cities Over 650,000

Application

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any city with a population of more than 650,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

General Authority

Sec. 2. A city subject to this Act may acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, construct, improve, enlarge, and operate off-street parking facilities. The city may contract with any public or private entity for the performance of any function authorized under this section.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. For any purpose authorized under Section 2 of this Act, the governing body of the city may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from a facility authorized under this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 4. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of facilities authorized under this Act, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges

Sec. 5. Each eligible city shall be authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the city.

Pledges

Sec. 6. (a) The city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges, shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the facilities authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the city, and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The city may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Public Purpose

Sec. 7. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance by a city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities for providing an off-street parking facility is a public purpose and a proper municipal function.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 8. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the city. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a city under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 11. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 12. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1269j-4.9. Farmers' Markets; Revenue Bonds; Cities Over 650,000

Definition

Sec. 1. In this Act, "farmers' market" means a public marketplace at which persons are permitted to sell agricultural and other products.

Application

Sec. 2. This Act applies to any city with a population of more than 650,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

General Authority

Sec. 3. A city subject to this Act may acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, construct, improve, enlarge, and operate a farmers' market. The city may contract with any public or private entity for the performance of any function authorized under this section.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 4. For any purpose authorized under Section 3 of this Act, the governing body of the city may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from a facility authorized under this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of facilities authorized under this Act, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges

Sec. 6. Each eligible city shall be authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the city.

Pledges

Sec. 7. (a) The city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges, shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the facilities authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the city, and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The city may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance by a city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities for providing a farmers' market is a public purpose and a proper municipal function.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 9. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the city. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a city under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. Art. 1269j-5. Airport Revenue Bonds; Cities with Population Over 70,000

Sec. 1. All cities having a population of more than seventy thousand (70,000) according to the last preceding federal census, may issue revenue bonds for enlarging, or extending, or repairing, or improving its airport, or for any two (2) or more such uses. Included within the meaning of improvements without limiting the generality of the term, is the construction or enlargement of hangars and related buildings for use by tenants or concessionaires of the airport, including persons, firms or corporations rendering repair or other services to air carriers. Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of such city. Such revenue bonds shall be secured by a pledge of all, or such part of, the revenues from the operation of the city's airport as may be prescribed in such ordinance. To the extent that the revenues of the airport may have been pledged to the payment of revenue bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed revenue bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of the city and subject to limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues, a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties comprising such airport. Included within the authority to pledge revenues and without limiting the generality of such authority is the right to pledge all or any part of the lease consideration to be received by the city for any such hangars or buildings, and within the discretion of the governing body of the city the sole security for such bonds may be the revenues to be received from leasing any one or more of such hangars and buildings, together with or without a lien upon such hangars or buildings and the land on which they are to be situated.

Sec. 2. No money raised or to be raised from taxation shall be used to pay the principal of or interest on any revenue or refunding bonds issued under this Act. When any of the revenues of such airport are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the City in reference to the revenues pledged, to cause to be fixed, maintained and enforced charges for services to be rendered by properties and facilities whose revenues have been pledged at rates and amounts sufficient to provide for the expense of maintenance and operation of such properties and facilities and to provide the amounts of money required under such ordinance to pay principal of and interest on the revenue bonds and to provide the reserve funds required by such ordinance.

Sec. 3. The Revenue Bonds shall be sold at a price or prices so that the interest cost of the money received therefor, computed to maturity in accordance with standard bond interest tables, shall not exceed five per-cent (5%) per annum; shall mature serially or otherwise within thirty (30) years from their date; shall be negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Act of the State of Texas; shall not be finally issued until approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval shall be incontestable.

Sec. 4. Refunding Bonds bearing an interest rate or interest rates which result in the same or a lower over-all interest cost to City may be either issued in exchange for or to provide funds to repurchase and retire any such revenue bonds.

Sec. 4(a). Bonds issued by any city having a population of one hundred fifty thousand (150,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, pursuant to the provisions of this law shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations and all insurance companies. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Art. 1269j-5.1. Airport Revenue Bonds; Cities with Population of 500,000 or More

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, including Home Rule Cities, having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of establishing, improving, enlarging, extending or repairing (any or all) the airport or airports of such city, including the acquisition of land therefor, said bonds to be issued in the manner provided and as authorized by Chapter 43, Acts of the 53rd Legislature of Texas, First Called Session, 1954, as presently or hereafter amended,¹ the bonds issued hereunder to be payable from all or any designated part or parts of the revenues of said airport or airports (including the revenues from any airport or airports then existing or to be thereafter acquired, either or both) as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds; and, except as the same may be inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of said Chapter 43, as presently or hereafter amended, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (the provisions of said Act to govern and take precedence in the event of any such inconsistency or conflict). Without in any way limiting the generality of "establishing, improving, enlarging, extending, or repairing (any or all) the airport or airports of such city, including the acquisition of land therefor," as used above, it is expressly provided that the same shall include, among other things, buildings, improvements, landing fields, and such other facilities and services that the city deems to be necessary, desirable, or convenient to the efficient operation and maintenance of its airport or airports. With respect to the pledge of revenues and income of said airport or airports to the payment of the operation and maintenance expenses and principal of and interest on such bonds, as provided by said Chapter 43, such city shall be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of such operation and maintenance expenses, either as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose or in lieu thereof, a continuing, annual ad valorem tax at a rate or rates on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) sufficient for such purposes, all as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds pursuant to the provisions of this Act; provided, that such tax or taxes shall be within the Constitutional or Charter limit for the cities covered by this Act; and provided further, that no part of any moneys raised by such tax or taxes shall ever be used for the payment of the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such tax or taxes thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by, or provided in, the ordinance or operation and maintenance of such airport or airports, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance or ordinances that certain costs of operating and maintaining such airport or airports, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs, will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax.

(b) In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provision for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements and facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

(c) From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit (either or both). Moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, in the reserve fund or funds, and in the other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

(d) All bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the city and counter-signed by the City Secretary (or City Clerk), and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds to be signed by the facsimile signatures of said Mayor and City Secretary (or City Clerk), either or both, and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a facsimile seal of the seal of the city; and provided further, that the interest coupons attached to said bonds may also be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

(e) Any city covered by this Act shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds to refund revenue bonds (either original bonds or refunding bonds) theretofore issued by such city under Chapter 43, supra, or under said Chapter 43 and this Act, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinance or ordinances and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. The provisions of Sections 2(a) and 2(b) of this Act shall apply with equal force to refunding bonds issued hereunder.

(f) All bonds issued under this Act, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall be and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Art. 1269j-5.2 Airport Revenue Bonds; Home Rule Cities with Population of 125,000 or More

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any home-rule city having a population of 125,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census, which owns or has leased or has otherwise acquired control of land for airport purposes, and which is operating such land for such purposes.

Sec. 2. In the event any such city shall determine to issue revenue bonds under and for any of the purposes and secured by any of the revenues authorized by Chapter 43, Acts of the 53rd Legislature of Texas, 1st Called Session, 1954, as amended (compiled as Article 1269j-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), such city, in addition to the revenues and income of said airport or airports pledged to the payment of operation and maintenance expenses and principal of and interest on such bonds, shall be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of such operation and maintenance expenses, as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose, all or any part of the ad valorem tax authorized by Section 8 of Chapter 114, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947 (compiled as Article 46d-8, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The proceeds of any tax thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds to assure the efficient operation and maintenance of such airport or airports, and such city, in its discretion, may covenant in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds that certain costs of operating and maintaining such airport or airports, as may be enumerated in said proceedings, will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax. If it is deemed advisable by the city that revenue bonds theretofore issued under said Chapter 43, supra, and then outstanding, should be refunded so as to facilitate the financing of the acquisition of any improvements to and the further improvement of its airport or airports, it shall be authorized to make a like pledge of said tax in the proceedings authorizing such refunding bonds and any additional revenue bonds issued for the purposes prescribed in said Chapter 43, supra.

Art. 1269j-6. Validating Bonds for Auditorium, Equipment and Facilities, Issued by Cities, Including Home-rule Cities

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by an incorporated city, including home-rule cities, for the purpose of constructing a municipal auditorium and to purchase or acquire the necessary lands, equipment and facilities therefor, including lands for parking and the necessary equipment and facilities therefor, and which pledge the revenues of the auditorium to be acquired, constructed and equipped by the use of the proceeds of such bonds, and which pledge the revenues of a coliseum, if any, owned by the city, together with the parking facilities in connection therewith, for either or both, including all present and future extensions, additions, replacements and improvements thereto, for either or both, and which pledge other revenues to be derived from parking meters in the city and from certain existing swimming pools in the city, and any and all acts and proceedings pertaining to the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of statutory or general authority of such city or the governing body thereof to authorize such bonds and make such pledge of the revenue or revenues; and such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas and sold and delivered, regardless of whether such sale and delivery is made prior to or after the effective date of this Act, shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations against the revenues so encumbered, and said bonds shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. This Act shall take precedence over any law or parts of any law to the contrary or in conflict herewith.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the proceedings.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 237, ch. 63.]

Art. 1269j-7. Validating Interest-bearing Time Warrants and Scrip; Refunding Bonds; Proceedings; Exception

Sec. 1. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas, of Chapter 362, Acts of the Fifty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session, 1955,¹ where the governing body of any city in this State has entered into contracts or agreements, or has incurred and recognized or approved claims for the construction of public works or improvements, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders authorizing the issuance of scrip or interest-bearing time warrants to pay for or to evidence the indebtedness incurred by such city for the cost of such public works or improvements, and such materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, all such contracts or agreements and claims, and assignments of such claims and such scrip and interest-bearing time warrants, and the proceedings adopted by such governing body relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip and interest-bearing time warrants heretofore issued by the governing body of any city in this State in payment for or to evidence the indebtedness incurred for work done by such city and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services purchased or secured in connection with such work, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any scrip or interest-bearing time warrants issued by the governing body of a city in this State unless such city has received full value and consideration for the issuance of such scrip or interest-bearing time warrants as may be evidenced by certificate of the Mayor and City Secretary. It is expressly further provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any city the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, orders, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by any governing body of a city in this State authorizing the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any such city and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any city the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 1269j-8. Validating Notes and Warrants

Sec. 1. All notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants heretofore issued and sold or authorized to be issued and sold or attempted to be issued and sold by any and all cities in the state for the purpose of obtaining funds for public purposes are in all respects validated.

Sec. 2. All orders, ordinances, and resolutions of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing such notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants, or attempting to authorize the same, or any of the same, and the sales and attempted sales thereof for cash for the par or principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date of delivery thereof, are in all respects validated.

Sec. 3. All orders, ordinances, and resolutions of said governing bodies of said cities levying and directing the levying and assessing of taxes to provide for the payment of interest and principal of such notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants, as they respectively mature, are in all respects validated.

Sec. 4. All notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants validated by this Act may be refunded into bonds at any time after the effective date of this Act upon proper authorization thereof by a duly adopted bond ordinance of the governing body of any such city. Such bonds shall be made to mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 40 years, and shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding six percent per annum, and shall contain such other covenants, details and specifications as may be contained in such bond ordinance, and after approval thereof by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 5. This Act is not intended to validate nor does it apply to any notes, warrants, time warrants, or treasury warrants which are on the effective date hereof the subject matter of any litigation pending in any court in this state in which the validity thereof is being challenged.

Art. 1269j-9. Validation of Proceedings for Public Improvements on Civic Centers, Etc.

Sec. 1. All proceedings, including all revenue bonds and all provisions, pledges, security, and other terms thereof, and the terms and conditions of the sale of such bonds; and all contracts, agreements, leases, operating agreements, options, and all other agreements and proceedings; taken, had, made, entered into or executed by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas, in connection with the establishment, acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, operation, maintenance and/or use of public improvements authorized by and described in Chapter 63, page 148, Acts of 1965, 59th Legislature, Regular Session, as amended by Chapter 563, page 1239, Acts of 1967, 60th Legislature, Regular Session (compiled, as amended, as Article 1269j-4.1, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), are in all things hereby fully validated, confirmed, approved and ratified.

Provided, however, nothing contained in this Act shall serve to validate, confirm, approve, or ratify any municipal ordinance, regulation, contract, agreement, or proceeding relating to utilities. Moreover, nothing contained in this Act shall serve to validate any contract or agreement relating to utilities entered into by the city or its agencies.

Sec. 2. All orders, resolutions, ordinances, indentures, and other actions authorizing the issuance of or securing any such revenue bonds, and the sale thereof, and the other agreements and proceedings validated in Section 1 hereof are themselves hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and ratified.

Sec. 2A. The provisions of this Act shall not serve to validate any proceedings the validity of which is being questioned on the effective date of this Act in any litigation in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state, if such proceedings are ultimately determined invalid in such litigation under the existing laws of this state.

Art. 1269k. Housing Authorities Law

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be referred to as the "Housing Authorities Law."

Finding and Declaration of Necessity

Sec. 2. It is hereby declared:

(a) that there exist in the State insanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations and that persons of low income are forced to reside in such insanitary or unsafe accommodations; that within the State there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations available at rents which persons of low income can afford and that such persons are forced to occupy overcrowded and congested dwelling accommodations; that the aforesaid conditions cause an increase in and spread of disease and crime and constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals, and welfare of the residents of the State and impair economic values; that these conditions necessitate excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, public health and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities;

(b) that these slum areas cannot be cleared, nor can the shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons of low income be relieved, through the operation of private enterprise, and that the construction of housing projects for persons of low income (as herein defined) would therefore not be competitive with private enterprise;

(c) that the clearance, replanning, and reconstruction of the areas in which insanitary or unsafe housing conditions exist and the providing of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income are public uses and purposes, for which public money may be spent and private property acquired and are governmental functions of State concern; that it is in the public interest that work on such projects be commenced as soon as possible in order to relieve unemployment which now constitutes an emergency; and the necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted; is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

Definitions

Sec. 3. The following terms, wherever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) "Authority" or "Housing Authority" shall mean any of the public corporations created by Section 4 of this Act.

(b) "City" shall mean any city.

"The City" shall mean the particular city for which a particular housing authority is created.

(c) "Governing Body" shall mean the Council or Commission of the city.

(d) "Mayor" shall mean the Mayor of the city or the officer thereof charged with the duties customarily imposed on the Mayor or executive head of the city.

(e) "Clerk" shall mean the clerk of the city or the officer charged with the duties customarily imposed on such clerk.

(f) "Area of operation" shall include the city and the area within five (5) miles of the territorial boundaries thereof; provided, however, that the area of operation of a housing authority of any city shall not include any area which lies within the territorial boundaries of some other city as herein defined.

(g) "Federal Government" shall include the United States of America, the United States Housing Authority, or any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(h) "Slum" shall mean any area where dwellings predominate which, by reason of dilapidation, overcrowding, faulty arrangement or design, lack of ventilation, light, or sanitary facilities, or any combination of these factors, are detrimental to safety, health, and morals.

(i) "Housing Project" shall mean any work or undertaking:

(1) to demolish, clear, or remove buildings from any slum area; such work or undertaking may embrace the adaptation of such area to public purposes, including parks or other recreational or community purposes; or

(2) to provide decent, safe, and sanitary urban or rural dwellings, apartments, or other living accommodations for persons of low income; such work or undertaking may include buildings, land, equipment, facilities, and other real or personal property for necessary, convenient, or desirable appurtenances, streets, sewers, water service, parks, site preparation, gardening, administrative, community, health, recreational, educational, welfare, or other purposes; or

(3) to accomplish a combination of the foregoing. The term "housing project" also may be applied to the planning of the buildings and improvements, the acquisition of property, the demolition of existing structures, the construction, reconstruction, alteration, and repair of the improvements and all other work in connection therewith.

(j) "Persons of low income" shall mean families or persons who lack the amount of income which is necessary (as determined by the authority undertaking the housing project) to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding.

(k) "Bonds" shall mean any bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued by the authority pursuant to this Act.

(l) "Real Property" shall include all lands, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto, or used in connection therewith, and every estate, interest, and right, legal or equitable, therein, including terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage, or otherwise and the indebtedness secured by such liens.

(m) "Obligee of the authority" or "obligee" shall include any bondholder, trustee, or trustees for any bondholder, or lessor demising to the authority property used in connection with a housing project, or any assignee or assignees of such lessor's interest or any part thereof, and the Federal Government when it is a party to any contract with the authority.

Creation of Housing Authorities

Sec. 4. In each city (as herein defined) of the State there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "Housing Authority" of the city; provided, however, that such authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the governing body of the city, by proper resolution shall declare at any time hereafter that there is need for an authority to function in such city. The governing body may upon its own motion, or shall upon the filing of a petition signed by one hundred (100) qualified voters and residents of the city, make a determination as to whether or not there is need for an authority to function in the city.

The governing body shall adopt a resolution declaring that there is need for a housing authority in the city, if it shall find (a) that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such city or (b) that there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such city available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford. In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary said governing body may take into consideration the degree of overcrowding, the percentage of land coverage, the light, air, space, and access available to the inhabitants of such dwelling accommodations, the size and arrangement of the rooms, the sanitary facilities, and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the authority, the authority shall be conclusively deemed to have become established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of a resolution by the governing body declaring the need for the authority. Such resolution or resolutions shall be deemed sufficient if it declares that there is such need for an authority and finds in substantially the foregoing terms (no further detail being necessary) that either or both of the above enumerated conditions exist in the city. A copy of such resolution duly certified by the clerk shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action, or proceeding.

Appointment, Qualifications, and Tenure of Commissioners

Sec. 5. When the governing body of a city adopts a resolution as aforesaid, it shall promptly notify the Mayor of such adoption. Upon receiving such notice, the Mayor shall appoint five (5) persons as commissioners of the authority created for said city. Two (2) of the commissioners who are first so appointed shall be designated to serve for terms of one year and the remaining commissioners shall be designated to serve for terms of two (2) years, respectively, from the date of their appointment, but thereafter commissioners shall be appointed as aforesaid for a term of office of two (2) years except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. No commissioner of an authority may be an officer or employee of the city for which the authority is created. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. A certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any commissioner shall be filed with the clerk and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services, but he shall be entitled to the necessary expense, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties.

The powers of each authority shall be vested in the commissioners thereof in office from time to time. Three (3) commissioners shall constitute a quorum of the authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the commissioners present, unless in any case the bylaws of the authority shall require a larger number. The Mayor shall designate which of the commissioners appointed shall be the first chairman, but when the office of the chairman of the authority thereafter becomes vacant, the authority shall select a chairman from among its commissioners. An authority shall select from among its own commissioners a vice-chairman, and it may employ a secretary (who shall be executive director), technical experts, and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. For such legal services as it may require, an authority may call upon the chief law officer of the city or may employ its own counsel and legal staff. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

Interested Commissioners or Employees

Sec. 6. No commissioner or employee of an authority shall acquire any interest direct or indirect in any housing project or in any property included or planned to be included in any project, nor shall he have any interest direct or indirect in any contract or proposed contract for materials or services to be furnished or used in connection with any housing project. If any commissioner or employee of an authority owns or controls an interest direct or indirect in any property included or planned to be included in any housing project, he immediately shall disclose the same in writing to the authority and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the authority. Failure to so disclose such interest shall constitute misconduct in office.

Removal of Commissioners

Sec. 7. For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner of an authority may be removed by the Mayor, but a commissioner shall be removed only after he shall have been given a copy of the charges at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing thereon and had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. In the event of the removal of any commissioner, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings thereon, shall be filed in the office of the clerk.

Powers of Authority

Sec. 8. An authority shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, and having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(a) To sue and to be sued; to have a seal and to alter the same at pleasure; to have perpetual succession; to make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers of the authority; and to make and from time to time amend and repeal bylaws, rules, and regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, to carry into effect the powers and purposes of the authority.

(b) Within its area of operation: to prepare, carry out, acquire, lease, and operate housing projects; to provide for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, alteration, or repair of any housing project or any part thereof.

(c) To arrange or contract for the furnishing by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, or facilities for, or in connection with, a housing project or the occupants thereof; and (notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or in any other provision of law) to include in any contract let in connection with a project, stipulations requiring that the contractor and any subcontractors comply with the requirements as to minimum wages and maximum hours of labor, and comply with any conditions which the Federal Government may have attached to its financial aid of the project.

(d) To lease or rent any dwellings, houses, accommodations, lands, buildings, structures, or facilities embraced in any housing project and (subject to the limitations contained in this Act) to establish and revise the rents or charges therefor; to own, hold, and improve real or personal property; to purchase, lease, obtain options upon, acquire by gift, grant, bequest, devise, or otherwise any real or personal property or any interest therein; to acquire by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any real property; to sell, lease, exchange, transfer, assign, pledge, or dispose of any real or personal property or any interest therein to insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the authority against any risks or hazards; to procure insurance or guarantees from the Federal Government of the payment of any debts or parts thereof (whether or not incurred by said authority) secured by mortgages on any property included in any of its housing projects.

(e) To invest any funds held in reserves or sinking funds, or any funds not required for immediate disbursement, in property or securities in which savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to purchase its bonds at a price not more than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest, all bonds so purchased to be cancelled.

(f) Within its area of operation: to investigate into living, dwelling, and housing conditions and into the means and methods of improving such conditions; to determine where slum areas exist or where there is a shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income; to make studies and recommendations relating to the problem of clearing, replanning, and reconstructing of slum areas, and the problem of providing dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, and to cooperate with the city, the county, the State or any political subdivision thereof in action taken in connection with such problems; and to engage in research, studies, and experimentation on the subject of housing.

(g) Acting through one or more commissioners or other person or persons designated by the authority; to conduct examinations and investigations and to hear testimony and take proof under oath at public or private hearings on any matter material for its information; to administer oaths, issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of books and papers and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are outside of the State or unable to attend before the authority, or excused from attendance; to make available to appropriate agencies (including those charged with the duty of abating or requiring the correction of nuisances or like conditions, or of demolishing unsafe or unsanitary structures within its area of operation) its findings and recommendations with regard to any building or property where conditions exist which are dangerous to the public health, morals, or safety or welfare.

(h) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted. No provisions of law with respect to the acquisition, operation, or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to an authority unless the Legislature shall specifically so state.

Operation Not for Profit

Sec. 9. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State that each housing authority shall manage and operate its housing projects in an efficient manner so as to enable it to fix the rentals for dwelling accommodations at the lowest possible rates consistent with its providing decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations, and that no housing authority shall construct or operate any such project for profit, or as a source of revenue to the city. To this end an authority shall fix the rentals for dwelling in its projects at no higher rates than it shall find to be necessary in order to produce revenues which (together with all other available moneys, revenues, income, and receipts of the authority from whatever sources derived) will be sufficient

(a) to pay, as the same become due, the principal and interest on the bonds of the authority;

(b) to meet the cost of, and to provide for, maintaining and operating the projects (including the cost of any insurance) and the administrative expenses of the authority; and

(c) to create (during not less than the six (6) years immediately succeeding its issuance of any bonds) a reserve sufficient to meet the largest principal and interest payments which will be due on such bonds in any one year thereafter and to maintain such reserve.

Rentals and Tenant Selection

Sec. 10. In the operation or management of housing projects an authority shall at all times observe the following duties with respect to rentals and tenant selection:

(a) It may rent or lease the dwelling accommodations therein only to persons of low income and at rentals within the financial reach of such persons.

(b) It may rent or lease to a tenant dwelling accommodations consisting of the number of rooms (but no greater number) which it deems necessary to provide safe and sanitary accommodations to the proposed occupants thereof, without overcrowding.

(c) It shall not accept any person as a tenant in any housing project if the person or persons who would occupy the dwelling accommodations have an aggregate annual income, excluding that earned by children attending school full time, in excess of five (5) times the annual rental of the quarters to be furnished such person or persons except that in the case of families with three (3) or more minor dependents such ratio shall not exceed six to one; in computing the rental for this purpose of selecting tenants, there shall be included in the rental the average annual cost (as determined by the authority) to the occupants, of heat, water, electricity, gas, cooking range, and other necessary services or facilities, whether or not the charge for such services and facilities is in fact included in the rental.

Nothing contained in this or the preceding section shall be construed as limiting the power of an authority to vest in an obligee the right, in the event of a default by the authority, to take possession of a housing project or cause the appointment of a receiver thereof or acquire title thereto through foreclosure proceedings, free from all the restrictions imposed by this or the preceding section.

Co-operation Between Authorities

Sec. 11. Any two (2) or more authorities may join or co-operate with one another in the exercise of any or all of the powers conferred hereby for the purpose of financing, planning, undertaking, constructing or operating a housing project or projects located within the area of operation of any one or more of said authorities.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 12. An authority shall have the right to acquire by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any interest in real property, including a fee simple title thereto, which it may deem necessary for its purposes under this Act after the adoption by it of a resolution declaring that the acquisition of the real property described therein is necessary for such purposes. An authority may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in Articles 3264 to 3271, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto; or it may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided by any other applicable statutory provisions for the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Property already devoted to a public use may be acquired in like manner, provided that no real property belonging to the city, the county, the State, or any political subdivision thereof may be acquired without its consent.

Planning, Zoning, and Building Laws

Sec. 13. All housing projects of an authority shall be subject to the planning, zoning, sanitary and building laws, ordinances, and regulations applicable to the locality in which the housing project is situated. In the planning and location of any housing project, an authority shall take into consideration the relationship of the project to any larger plan or long-range program for the development of the area in which the housing authority functions.

Bonds

Sec. 14. An authority shall have power to issue bonds from time to time in its discretion, for any of its corporate purposes. An authority shall also have power to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of paying or retiring bonds previously issued by it. An authority may issue such types of bonds as it may determine, including bonds on which the principal and interest are payable:

(a) exclusively from the income and revenues of the housing project financed with the proceeds of such bonds, or with such proceeds together with a grant from the Federal Government in aid of such project;

(b) exclusively from the income and revenues of certain designated housing projects whether or not they were financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of such bonds; or

(c) from its revenues generally. Any of such bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of any revenues or a mortgage of any housing project, projects, or other property of the authority.

Neither the commissioners of an authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds and other obligations of an authority (and such bonds and obligations shall so state on their face) shall not be a debt of the city, the county, the State or any political subdivision thereof and neither the city nor the county, nor the State or any political subdivision thereof shall be liable thereon, nor in any event shall such bonds or obligations be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of said authority. The bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction. Bonds of an authority are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and to be public instrumentalities and, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from taxes.

Bonds or Legal Investments

Sec. 14-A. Repealed by Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 427, § 2.

Form and Sale of Bonds

Sec. 15. Bonds of an authority shall be authorized by its resolution and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding eight (8) per centum per annum, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium) as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide.

The bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sale held after notice published once at least five (5) days prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city or the county and in a financial newspaper published in the City of New York, New York, provided, however, that such bonds may be sold at not less than par to the Federal Government at private sale without any public advertisement.

In case any of the commissioners or officers of the authority whose signatures appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such commissioners or officers before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable.

In any suit, action, or proceedings involving the validity or enforceability of any bond of an authority or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the authority to aid in financing a housing project to provide dwelling accommodations for persons of low income shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for a housing project of such character and said project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and constructed in accordance with the purposes and provisions of this Act.

Provisions of Bonds, Trust Indentures, and Mortgages

Sec. 16. In connection with the issuance of bonds or the incurring of obligations under leases and in order to secure the payment of such bonds or obligations, an authority, in addition to its other powers, shall have power:

(a) To pledge all or any part of its gross or net rents, fees, or revenues to which its right then exists or may thereafter come into existence.

(b) To mortgage all or any part of its real or personal property, then owned or thereafter acquired.

(c) To covenant against pledging all or any part of its rents, fees, and revenues, or against mortgaging all or any part of its real or personal property, to which its right or title then exists or may thereafter come into existence or against permitting or suffering any lien on such revenues or property; to covenant with respect to limitations on its right to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any housing project or any part thereof; and to covenant as to what other, or additional debts or obligations may be incurred by it.

(d) To covenant as to the bonds to be issued and as to the issuance of such bonds in escrow or otherwise, and as to the use and disposition of the proceeds thereof; to provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed, or mutilated bonds; to covenant against extending the time for the payment of its bonds or interest thereon, and to redeem the bonds, and to covenant for their redemption and to provide the terms and conditions thereof.

(e) To covenant (subject to the limitations contained in this Act) as to the rents and fees to be charged in the operation of a housing project or projects, the amount to be raised each year or other period of time by rents, fees, and other revenues, and as to the use and disposition to be made thereof; to create or to authorize the creation of special funds for moneys held for construction or operating costs, debt service, reserves, or other purposes, and to covenant as to the use and disposition of the moneys held in such funds.

(f) To prescribe procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bond holders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds of holders of which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given.

(g) To covenant as to the use of any or all of its real or personal property; and to covenant as to the maintenance of its real and personal property, the replacement thereof, the insurance to be carried thereon and the use and disposition of insurance moneys.

(h) To covenant as to the rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach by it of any covenant, condition, or obligation; and to covenant and prescribe as to events of default and terms and conditions upon which any or all of its bonds or obligations shall become or may be declared due before maturity, and as to the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived.

(i) To vest in a trustee or trustees or the holder of bonds or any proportion of them the right to enforce the payment of the bonds or any covenants securing or relating to the bonds; to vest in a trustee or trustees the right, in the event of a default by said authority, to take possession and use, operate, and manage any housing project or part thereof, and to collect the rents and revenues arising therefrom and to dispose of such moneys in accordance with the agreement of the authority with said trustee; to provide for the powers and duties of a trustee or trustees and to limit the liabilities thereof; and to provide the terms and conditions upon which the trustee or trustees or the holders of bonds or any proportion of them may enforce any covenant or rights securing or relating to the bonds.

(j) To exercise all or any part or combination of the powers herein granted; to make covenants other than and in addition to the covenants herein expressly authorized, of like or different character; to make such covenants and to do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to secure its bonds, or, in the absolute discretion of said authority, as will tend to make the bonds more marketable notwithstanding that such covenants, acts, or things may not be enumerated herein.

Certificate of Attorney General

Sec. 17. Any authority may submit to the Attorney General of the State any bonds to be issued hereunder after all proceedings for the issuance of such bonds have been taken. Upon the submission of such proceedings to the Attorney General, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to examine into and pass upon the validity of such bonds and the regularity of all proceedings in connection therewith. If such proceedings conform to the provisions of this Act and are otherwise regular in form and if such bonds when delivered and paid for will constitute binding and legal obligations of such authority enforceable according to the terms thereof, the Attorney General shall certify in substance upon the back of each of said bonds that it is issued in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

Remedies of an Oblige of Authority

Sec. 18. An obligee of an authority shall have the right in addition to all other rights which may be conferred on such obligee, subject only to any contractual restrictions binding upon such obligee:

(a) By mandamus, suit, action, or proceeding at law or in equity to compel said authority and the commissioners, officers, agents, or employees thereof to perform each and every term, provision, and covenant contained in any contract of said authority with or for the benefit of such obligee, and to require the carrying out of any or all such covenants and agreements of said authority and the fulfillment of all duties imposed upon said authority by this Act.

(b) By suit, action, or proceeding in equity, to enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful, or the violation of any of the rights of such obligee of said authority.

Additional Remedies Conferrable by Authority

Sec. 19. An authority shall have power by its resolution, trust indenture, mortgage, lease, or other contract to confer upon any obligee holding or representing a specified amount in bonds, or holding a lease, the right (in addition to all rights that may otherwise be conferred) upon the happening of an event of default as defined in such resolution or instrument, by suit, action, or proceeding in any Court of competent jurisdiction:

(a) To cause possession of any housing project or any part thereof to be surrendered to any such obligee.

(b) To obtain the appointment of a receiver of any housing project of said authority or any part thereof and of the rents and profits therefrom. If such receiver be appointed, he may enter and take possession of such housing project or any part thereof and operate and maintain same, and collect and receive all fees, rents, revenues, or other charges thereafter arising therefrom, and shall keep such moneys in a separate account or accounts and apply the same in accordance with the obligations of said authority as the Court shall direct.

(c) To require said authority and the commissioners thereof to account as if it and they were the trustees of an express trust.

Exemption of Property from Execution Sale

Sec. 20. All real property of an authority shall be exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, and no execution or other judicial process shall issue against the same nor shall any judgment against an authority be a charge or lien upon its real property; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to or limit the right of obligees to foreclose or otherwise enforce any mortgage of an authority or the right of obligees to pursue any remedies for the enforcement of any pledge or lien given by an authority on its rents, fees, or revenues.

Aid from Federal Government

Sec. 21. In addition to the powers conferred upon an authority by other provisions of this Act, an authority is empowered to borrow money or accept grants or other financial assistance from the Federal Government for or in aid of any housing project within its area of operation, to take over or lease or manage any housing project or undertaking constructed or owned by the Federal Government, and to these ends, to comply with such conditions and enter into such mortgages, trust indentures, leases, or agreements as may be necessary, convenient or desirable. It is the purpose and intent of this Act to authorize every authority to do any and all things necessary or desirable to secure the financial aid or cooperation of the Federal Government in the undertaking, construction, maintenance, or operation of any housing project by such authority.

Tax Exemption and Payments in Lieu of Taxes

Sec. 22. The property of an authority is declared to be public property used for essential public and governmental purposes and such property and an authority shall be exempt from all taxes and special assessments of the city, the county, the State or any political subdivision thereof; provided, however, that in lieu of such taxes or special assessments, an authority may agree to make payments to the city or the county or any such political subdivision for improvements, services, and facilities furnished by such city, county, or political subdivision for the benefit of a housing project, but in no event shall such payments exceed the estimated cost to such city, county, or political subdivision of the improvements, services, or facilities to be so furnished.

Reports

Sec. 23. At least once a year, an authority shall file with the clerk a report of its activities for the preceding year, and shall make recommendations with reference to such additional legislation or other action as it deems necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Housing Authorities in Counties

Sec. 23a. In each county of the State there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "Housing Authority" of the county; provided, however, that such housing authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the Commissioners Court of such county, by proper resolution shall declare at any time hereafter that there is need for a housing authority to function in such county, which declaration shall be made by such Commissioners Court for such county in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the declaration of the governing body of a city required by Section 4 of the Housing Authorities Law for the purpose of authorizing a housing authority created for a city to transact business and exercise its powers (except that the petition referred to in said Section 4 shall be signed by one hundred qualified voters and residents of such county).

The commissioners of a housing authority created for a county may be appointed and removed by the Commissioners Court of the county in the same manner as the commissioners of a housing authority created for a city may be appointed and removed by the Mayor, and except as otherwise provided herein, each housing authority created for a county and the commissioners thereof, within the area of operation of such housing authority as hereinafter defined, shall have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, immunities, privileges, and limitations provided for housing authorities created for cities and the commissioners of such housing authorities, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for cities were applicable to housing authorities created for counties; provided, that for such purposes the term "Mayor" or "governing body" as used in the Housing Authorities Law shall be construed as meaning "Commissioners Court", and the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county" unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context; and provided further that a housing authority created for a county shall not be subject to the limitations provided in clause (c) of Section 10 of the Housing Authorities Law with respect to housing projects for farmers of low income.

The area of operation of a housing authority created for a county shall include all of the county in which it is created except that portion of the county which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city.

Creation of Regional Housing Authority

Sec. 23b. If the Commissioners Court of each of two (2) or more contiguous counties by resolution declares that there is a need for one housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed for a housing authority in such counties, a public body corporate and politic to be known as a regional housing authority shall thereupon exist for all of such counties and exercise its powers and other functions in such counties; and thereupon each county housing authority created for each of such counties shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed to the regional housing authority as hereinafter provided; provided that the Commissioners Court of a county shall not adopt a resolution as aforesaid if there is a county housing authority created for such county which has any obligations outstanding unless first, all obligees of such county housing authority and parties to the contracts, bonds, notes, and other obligations of such county housing authority agree with such county housing authority to the substitution of such regional housing authority in lieu of such county housing authority on all such contracts, bonds, notes, or other obligations; and second, the commissioners of such county housing authority adopt a resolution consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, obligations, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as hereinafter provided; and provided further that when the above two (2) conditions are complied with and such regional housing authority is created and authorized to exercise its powers and other functions, all rights, contracts, agreements, obligations, and property of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vest in such regional housing authority, and all obligations of such county housing authority shall be the obligations of such regional housing authority and all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they may have been asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such county housing authority.

When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided above, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed with the clerk of the county where such real property is, provided that nothing contained in this sentence shall affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided above.

The Commissioners Court of each of two (2) or more contiguous counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for one regional housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed in such counties, if such Commissioners Court finds (and only if it finds)

(a) that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford and

(b) that a regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit than the housing authority of such county to carry out the purposes of the Housing Authorities Law in such county.

In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the regional housing authority, the regional housing authority shall be conclusively deemed to have become created as a public body corporate and politic and to have become established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of a resolution by the Commissioners Court of each of the counties creating the regional housing authority declaring the need for the regional housing authority. Each such resolution shall be deemed sufficient if it declares that there is need for the regional housing authority and finds in substantially the foregoing terms (no further detail being necessary) that the conditions enumerated above in (a) and (b) exist. A copy of such resolution of the Commissioners Court of a county, duly certified by the county clerk of such county, shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action, or proceeding.

Area of Operation of County or Regional Housing Authorities

Sec. 23c. The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall include all of the counties for which such regional housing authority is created and established except that portion of the counties which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city. Provided that a county or regional housing authority shall not undertake any housing project or projects within the boundaries of any city unless a resolution shall have been adopted by the governing body of such city (and also by any housing authority which shall have been theretofore established and authorized to exercise its powers in such city) declaring that there is a need for the county or regional housing authority to exercise its powers within such city.

The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall be increased from time to time to include one or more additional counties not already within a regional housing authority (except in such portion or portions of such additional county or counties which lie within the territorial boundaries of any city) if the Commissioners Court of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of such regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties each adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for the inclusion of such additional county or counties in the area of operation of such regional housing authority. Upon the adoption of such resolutions, the county housing authority created for each such additional county shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed to the regional housing authority as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that such resolutions shall not be adopted if there is a county housing authority created for any such additional county which has any obligations outstanding unless first, all obligees of any such county housing authority and parties to the contracts, bonds, notes, and other obligations of any such county housing authority agree with such county housing authority and the regional housing authority to the substitution of such regional housing authority in lieu of such county housing authority on all such contracts, bonds, notes, or other obligations; and second, the commissioners of such county housing authority and the commissioners of such regional housing authority adopt resolutions consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, obligations, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as hereinafter provided; and provided further that when the above two (2) conditions are complied with and the area of operation of such regional housing authority is increased to include such additional county, as hereinabove provided, all rights, contracts, agreements, obligations, and property of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vest in such regional housing authority, all obligations of such county housing authority shall be the obligations of such regional housing authority and all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they may have been asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such county housing authority.

When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided above, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed with the clerk of the county where such real property is, provided that nothing contained in this sentence shall affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided above.

The Commissioners Court of each of the counties in the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for the addition of such county or counties to the regional housing authority, if

(a) the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties finds that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford and

(b) the Commissioners Court of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties find that the regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit to carry out the purposes of this Housing Authorities Law if the area of operation of the regional housing authority shall be increased to include such additional county or counties.

In connection with the issuance of bonds or the incurring of other obligations, a regional housing authority may covenant as to limitations on its right to adopt resolutions relating to the increase of its area of operation.

In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary under this or the preceding Section, the Commissioners Court of a county shall take into consideration the safety and sanitation of dwellings, the light and air space available to the inhabitants of such dwellings, the degree of overcrowding, the size and arrangement of the rooms and the extent to which conditions exist in such dwellings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

No governing body of a county shall adopt any resolution authorized by this or the preceding Section unless a public hearing has first been held. The clerk of such county shall give notice of the time, place, and purpose of the public hearing at least ten days prior to the day on which the hearing is to be held, in a newspaper published in such county, or if there is no newspaper published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the State and having a general circulation in such county. Upon the date fixed for such public hearing an opportunity to be heard shall be granted to all residents of such county and to all other interested persons.

Commissioners of Regional Housing Authority

Sec. 23d. When a regional housing authority has been created as provided above, the Commissioners Court of each county included in such regional housing authority shall thereupon appoint one person as a commissioner of the regional housing authority. When the area of operation of a regional housing authority is increased to include an additional county or counties as provided above, the Commissioners Court of each county shall thereupon appoint one additional person as a commissioner of the regional housing authority. The Commissioners Court of each such county shall thereafter appoint each person to succeed such commissioner of the regional housing authority. A certificate of the appointment of any such commissioner shall be filed with the clerk of the county, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. If a regional housing authority includes only two counties, the commissioners of such authority appointed by the Commissioners Court of such counties shall appoint one additional commissioner to such authority. The commissioners of such authority appointed by the Commissioners Court of such counties shall likewise appoint each person to succeed such additional commissioner; provided that the term of office of such person begins during the terms of office of the commissioners appointing him; and provided further that no person shall be appointed to succeed such additional commissioner in the event the area of operation of the regional housing authority is increased to include more than two counties. A certificate of the appointment of any such additional commissioner of such regional housing authority shall be filed with the other records of the regional housing authority and shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such additional commissioner. The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall be appointed for terms of two (2) years except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired terms. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, except as otherwise provided herein.

For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner of a regional housing authority may be removed by the Commissioners Court appointing him, or in the case of the commissioner appointed by the commissioners of the regional housing authority, by such commissioners; provided that such commissioner shall be removed only after he shall have been given a copy of the charges against him at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing thereon and provided that such commissioner shall have had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. In the event of the removal of a commissioner by the Commissioners Court appointing him, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings thereon, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county; and in the case of the removal of the commissioner appointed by the commissioners of the regional housing authority, such record shall be filed with the other records of the regional housing authority.

The commissioners appointed as aforesaid shall constitute the regional housing authority, and the powers of such authority shall be vested in such commissioners in office from time to time.

The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall elect a chairman from among the commissioners and shall have power to select or employ such other officers and employees as the regional housing authority may require. A majority of the commissioners of a regional housing authority shall constitute a quorum of such authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes.

Powers of Regional Housing Authority

Sec. 23e. Except as otherwise provided herein, a regional housing authority and the commissioners thereof shall, within the area of operation of such regional housing authority, have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, privileges, immunities and limitations provided for housing authorities created for cities or counties and the commissioners of such housing authorities in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for cities or counties were applicable to regional housing authorities; provided, that for such purposes the term "Mayor" or "governing body" as used in the Housing Authorities Law shall be construed as meaning "Commissioners Court" and the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county" unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context; and provided further that a regional housing authority shall not be subject to the limitations provided in clause (c) of Section 10 of the Housing Authorities Law with respect to housing projects for farmers of low income. A regional housing authority shall have power to select any appropriate corporate name.

Rural Housing Projects

Sec. 23f. County housing authorities and regional housing authorities are specifically empowered and authorized to borrow money, accept grants and exercise their other powers to provide housing for farmers of low income. In connection with such projects, any such housing authority may enter into such leases or purchase agreements, accept such conveyances and rent or sell dwellings forming part of such projects to or for farmers of low income, as such housing authority deems necessary in order to assure the achievement of the objectives of this Act. Such leases, agreements or conveyances may include such covenants as the housing authority deems appropriate regarding such dwellings and the tracts of land described in any such instrument, which covenants shall be deemed to run with the land where the housing authority deems it necessary and the parties to such instrument so stipulate. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed as limiting any other powers of any housing authority.

Housing Applications by Farmers

Sec. 23g. The owner of any farm operated, or worked upon, by farmers of low income in need of safe and sanitary housing may file an application with a county housing authority or a regional housing authority requesting that it provide for a safe and sanitary dwelling or dwellings for occupancy by such farmers of low income. Such applications shall be received and examined by housing authorities in connection with the formulation of projects or programs to provide housing for farmers of low income.

Farmers of Low Income Defined

Sec. 23h. "Farmers of low income," as used in this Act, shall mean persons or families who at the time of their admission to occupancy in a dwelling of a housing authority:

- (1) live under unsafe or insanitary housing conditions;
- (2) derive their principal income from operating or working upon a farm; and

(3) had an aggregate average annual net income for the three years preceding their admission that was less than the amount determined by the housing authority to be necessary, within its area of operation, to enable them, without financial assistance, to obtain decent, safe and sanitary housing, without overcrowding.

Severability

Sec. 24. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances, other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected hereby.

Act Controlling

Sec. 25. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Art. 1269k-1. Bonds or Other Obligations of Housing Authorities as Legal Investments and Security

Authorization; Purpose

Sec. 1. Notwithstanding any restrictions on investments contained in any laws of this State, the State and all public officers, municipal corporations, political subdivisions, and public bodies, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, and other persons carrying on a banking business, all insurance companies, insurance associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds or other obligations issued by a housing authority pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law (Chapter 462, Regular Session of the 45th Legislature, as amended by House Bill No. 102, 2nd Called Session of the 45th Legislature, and amendments thereto)¹ or issued by any public housing authority or agency in the United States, when such bonds or other obligations are secured by a pledge of annual contributions to be paid by the United States Government or any agency thereof, or secured or guaranteed by a pledge of the full faith and credit of the United States Government or any agency thereof, and such bonds and other obligations shall be authorized security for all public deposits; it being the purpose of this Act to authorize all persons, firms, corporations, associations, political subdivisions, bodies and officers, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them, including, but not limited to, sinking, insurance, investment, retirement, compensation, pension and trust funds, and funds held on deposit, for the purchase of any such bonds or other obligations; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as relieving any person, firm, or corporation from any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

Severability

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provisions of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, are held invalid the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Act Controlling

Sec. 4. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Art. 1269k-2. Validation of Establishment and Acts of Housing Authorities

Establishment and Organization

Sec. 1. The establishment and organization of housing authorities pursuant to the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law (House Bill Number 821, Chapter 462, page 1144, Regular Session of the Forty-fifth Legislature, as amended by House Bill Number 102, Chapter 41, page 1924, Second Called Session of the Forty-fifth Legislature, as amended by House Bill Number 834, Chapter 1, page 427, Regular Session of the Forty-sixth Legislature, and any amendments thereto),¹ together with all proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

Contracts and Undertakings

Sec. 2. All contracts, agreements, obligations, and undertakings of housing authorities heretofore entered into relating to financing or aiding in the development, construction, maintenance, or operation of any housing project or projects or to obtaining aid therefor from the United States Housing Authority, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) loan and annual contributions, contracts, and leases with the United States Housing Authority, agreements with municipalities or other public bodies (including agreements which are pledged or authorized to be pledged for the protection of the holders of any notes or bonds issued by housing authorities or which are otherwise made a part of the contract with such holders of notes or bonds) relating to cooperation and contributions in aid of housing projects, payments (if any) in lieu of taxes, furnishing of municipal services and facilities, and the elimination of unsafe and unsanitary dwellings, and contracts for the construction of housing projects, together with all proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

Notes and Bonds

Sec. 3. All proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done in or for the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, and delivery of notes and bonds by housing authorities for the purpose of financing or aiding in the development or construction of a housing project or projects, and all notes and bonds heretofore issued by housing authorities are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

Art. 1269k-3. Validation of Acts, Bonds, Contracts, Etc., of Housing Authorities in Counties of 90,000 to 100,000; National Defense Activities

Sec. 1. The acts of any housing authority created by and organized pursuant to the "Housing Authorities Law" of the State of Texas, and which is located in any county in Texas having a population of not less than ninety thousand (90,000) and not more than one hundred thousand (100,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, in undertaking the development and administration of housing projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, whom the housing authority determines would not otherwise be able to secure safe and sanitary dwellings within the vicinity thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed in all respects.

Sec. 2. All bonds, notes, contracts, agreements, and obligations of housing authorities created by and organized pursuant to the "Housing Authorities Law" of the State of Texas, and which are located in any county in Texas having a population of not less than ninety thousand (90,000) and not more than one hundred thousand (100,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, heretofore issued or entered into relating to financing or undertaking (including cooperating with or acting as agent of the Federal Government in) the development or administration of any housing project to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, are hereby validated, ratified, approved, confirmed, and declared enforceable in all respects.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 1301, ch. 576.]

Art. 1269k-4. Projects by Housing Authorities to Make Available Dwellings for Persons in National Defense Activities

Declaration of Necessity

Sec. 1. It is hereby found and declared that the national defense program involves large increases in the military forces and personnel in this State, a great increase in the number of workers in already established manufacturing centers, and the bringing of a large number of workers and their families to new centers of defense industries in the State; that there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings available to such persons and their families in this State, which impedes the national defense program; that it is imperative that action be taken immediately to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for such persons, to enable the rapid expansion of national defense activities in this State and to avoid a large labor turnover in defense industries which would seriously hamper their production; that the provisions hereinafter enacted are necessary to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, which otherwise would not be provided at this time; and that such provisions are for the public use and purpose of facilitating the national defense program in this State. It is further declared to be the purpose of this Act to authorize housing authorities to do any and all things necessary or desirable to secure the financial aid of the Federal Government, or to cooperate with or act as agent of the Federal Government, in the expeditious development and the administration of projects to assure the availability, when needed, of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities.

Time Limit for Initiation of Development; Rights and Powers of Authority; Definitions

Sec. 2. Any housing authority may undertake the development and administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, whom the housing authority determines would not otherwise be able to secure safe and sanitary dwellings within the vicinity thereof; but no housing authority shall initiate the development of any such project pursuant to this Act after December 31, 1943.

In the ownership, development or administration of such projects, a housing authority shall have all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities that such authority has under any provision of law relating to the ownership, development or administration of slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income were applicable to projects developed or administered to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities as provided in this Act; and housing projects developed or administered hereunder shall constitute "housing projects" under the Housing Authorities Law, as that term is used therein; provided, that during the period (herein called the "National Defense Period") that a housing authority finds (which finding shall be conclusive in any suit, action or proceeding) that within its area of operation (as defined in the Housing Authorities Law), or any part thereof, there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings, which impedes the national defense program in this State, and that the necessary safe and sanitary dwellings would not otherwise be provided when needed for persons engaged in national defense activities, any project developed or administered by such housing authority (or by any housing authority cooperating with it) in such area pursuant to this Act, with the financial aid of the Federal Government (or as agent for the Federal Government as hereinafter provided), shall not be subject to the limitations provided in Section 10 and the second sentence of Section 9 of the Housing Authorities Law;¹ and provided further, that, during the National Defense Period, a housing authority may make payments in such amounts as it finds necessary or desirable for any services, facilities, works, privileges or improvements furnished for or in connection with any such projects. After the National Defense Period, any such projects owned and administered by a housing authority shall be administered for the purposes and in accordance with the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law.

Cooperation with Federal Government; Sale of Project to Federal Government

Sec. 3. A housing authority may exercise any or all of its powers for the purpose of cooperating with, or acting as agent for, the Federal Government, in the development or administration of projects by the Federal Government, to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, and may undertake the development or administration of any such project for the Federal Government. In order to assure the availability of safe and sanitary housing for persons engaged in national defense activities, a housing authority may sell (in whole or in part) to the Federal Government, any housing project developed for persons of low income but not yet occupied by such persons; such sale shall be at such price and upon such terms as the housing authority shall prescribe, and shall include provision for the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the authority relating to such project.

Cooperation with Federal Government by other State Public Bodies

Sec. 4. Any state public body, as defined in the Housing Cooperation Law (House Bill No. 820, Regular Session of the 45th Legislature, page 1141, as amended by House Bill No. 103, Second Called Session of the 45th Legislature, page 1940,¹ and any additional amendments thereto) shall have the same rights and powers to cooperate with housing authorities, or with the Federal Government, with respect to the development or administration of projects, to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, that such state public body has pursuant to such Law for the purpose of assisting the development or administration of slum clearance or housing projects for persons of low income.

Bonds as Security for Public Deposits and as Legal Investments

Sec. 5. Bonds or other obligations issued by a housing authority for a project developed or administered pursuant to this Act, shall be security for public deposits and legal investments to the same extent and for the same persons, institutions, associations, corporations, bodies and officers, as bonds or other obligations issued pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law¹ for the development of a slum clearance or housing project for persons of low income.

Validation of Bonds, Notes, Contracts, and Obligations

Sec. 6. All bonds, notes, contracts, agreements and obligations of housing authorities heretofore issued or entered into relating to financing or undertaking (including cooperating with or acting as agent of the Federal Government) in the development or administration of any project to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defects or irregularities therein, or any want of statutory authority.

Act as Independent Authorization

Sec. 7. This Act shall constitute an independent authorization for a housing authority to undertake the development or administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, as provided in this Act, and for a housing authority to cooperate with, or act as agent for, the Federal Government in the development or administration of similar projects by the Federal Government. In acting under this authorization, a housing authority shall not be subject to any limitations, restrictions or requirements of other laws (except those relating to land acquisition) prescribing the procedure or action to be taken in the development or administration of any public works, including slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income, or undertakings or projects of municipal or public corporations or political subdivisions, or agencies of the State. A housing authority may do any and all things necessary or desirable to cooperate with, or act as Agent for, the Federal Government, or to secure financial aid, in the expeditious development or in the administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, and to effectuate the purposes of this Act.

Definitions

Sec. 8. (a) "Persons engaged in national defense activities," as used in this Act, shall include: enlisted men in the military and naval services of the United States and employees of the War and Navy Departments assigned to duty at military or naval reservations, posts or bases; and workers engaged, or to be engaged, in industries connected with, and essential to, the national defense program; and shall include the families of the aforesaid persons who are living with them.

(b) "Persons of low income," as used in this Act, shall mean persons or families who lack the amount of income which is necessary (as determined by the housing authority undertaking the housing project) to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding.

(c) "Development" as used in this Act, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for the planning, land acquisition, demolition, financing, construction or equipment in connection with a project (including the negotiations or award of contracts therefor), and shall include the acquisition of any project (in whole or in part) from the Federal Government.

(d) "Administration," as used in this Act, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for management, operation or maintenance, in connection with any project, and shall include the leasing of any project (in whole or in part) from the Federal Government.

(e) "Federal Government," as used in this Act, shall mean the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(f) The development of a project shall be deemed to be "initiated", within the meaning of this Act, if a housing authority has issued any bonds, notes or other obligations with respect to financing the development of such project of the authority, or has contracted with the Federal Government, with respect to the exercise of powers hereunder, in the development of such project of the Federal Government for which an allocation of funds has been made prior to December 31, 1943.

(g) "Housing Authority", as used in this Act, shall mean any housing authority established or hereafter established pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law (House Bill No. 821, Regular Session of the 45th Legislature, page

1144, as amended by House Bill No. 102, Second Called Session of the 45th Legislature, page 1924, as amended by Section 2 of House Bill No. 834, Regular Session of the 46th Legislature, page 427, and any additional amendments thereto).¹

Powers Additional and Supplemental

Sec. 9. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition, and supplemental, to the powers conferred by any other law, and nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting any other powers of a housing authority.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 10. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any persons or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1269l. Housing Co-operation Law

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be referred to as the "Housing Co-operation Law."

Finding and Declaration of Necessity

Sec. 2. It has been found and declared in the Housing Authorities Law that there exist in the State unsafe and insanitary housing conditions and a shortage of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income; that these conditions necessitate excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, public health and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities; and that the public interest requires the remedying of these conditions. It is hereby found and declared that the assistance herein provided for the remedying of the conditions set forth in the Housing Authorities Law constitutes a public use and purpose and an essential governmental function for which public moneys may be spent and other aid given; that it is a proper public purpose for any State Public Body to aid any housing authority operating within its boundaries or jurisdiction or any housing project located therein, as the State Public Body derives immediate benefits and advantages from such an authority or project; and that the provisions hereinafter enacted are necessary in the public interest.

Definitions

Sec. 3. The following terms, whenever used or referred to in this Act shall have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) "Housing authority" shall mean any housing authority created pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law of this State.

(b) "Housing project" shall mean any work or undertaking of a housing authority pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law or any similar work or undertaking of the Federal Government.

(c) "State Public Body" shall mean any city, town, county, municipal corporation, commission, district, authority, other subdivision or public body of the State.

(d) "Governing Body" shall mean the council, Commissioners Court, board, or other body having charge of the fiscal affairs of the State Public Body.

(e) "Federal Government" shall mean the United States of America, the United States Housing Authority, or any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

Cooperation in Undertaking Housing Projects

Sec. 4. For the purpose of aiding and cooperating in the planning, undertaking, construction or operation of housing projects located within the area in which it is authorized to act, any State Public Body may upon such terms, as it may determine:

(a) Dedicate, sell, convey or lease any of its property to a housing authority or the Federal Government;

(b) Cause parks, playgrounds, recreational, community, educational, water, sewer or drainage facilities, or any other works, which it is otherwise empowered to undertake, to be furnished adjacent to or in connection with housing projects;

(c) Furnish, dedicate, close, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan or replan streets, roads, roadways, alleys, sidewalks or other places which it is otherwise empowered to undertake;

(d) Plan or replan, zone or re-zone any part of such State Public Body; make exceptions from building regulations or ordinances; any city or town also may change its map;

(e) Enter into agreements, (which may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary) with a housing authority or the Federal Government respecting action to be taken by such State Public Body pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Act; and

(f) Do any and all things, necessary or convenient to aid and co-operate in the planning, undertaking, construction, or operation of such housing projects.

(g) Purchase or legally invest in any of the bonds of a housing authority and exercise all of the rights of any holder of such bonds.

(h) With respect to any housing project which a housing authority has acquired or taken over from the Federal Government and which the housing authority by resolution has found and declared to have been constructed in a manner that will promote the public interest and afford necessary safety, sanitation, and other protection, no State Public Body shall require any changes to be made in the housing project or the manner of its construction or take any other action relating to such construction.

(i) In connection with any public improvements made by a State Public Body in exercising the powers herein granted, such State Public Body may incur the entire expense thereof. Any law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding, any sale, conveyance, lease, or agreement provided for in this Section may be made by a State Public Body without appraisal, public notice, advertisement, or public bidding.

Further Cooperation in Undertaking Housing Projects

Sec. 4-a. For the purpose of aiding and cooperating in the planning, undertaking, construction or operation of housing projects located within the area in which it is authorized to act, any State Public Body may upon such terms as it may determine: (a) enter into agreements with respect to the exercise by such State Public Body of its powers relating to the repair, elimination or closing of unsafe, insanitary or unfit dwellings; and (b) cause services to be furnished to the housing authority of the character which it is otherwise empowered to furnish.

Contracts for Payments for Services

Sec. 5. In connection with any housing project located wholly or partly within the area in which it is authorized to act, any State Public Body may contract with a housing authority or the Federal Government with respect to the sum or sums (if any) which the housing authority or the Federal Government may agree to pay during any year or period of years, to the State Public Body for the improvements, services and facilities to be furnished by it for the benefit of said housing project, but in no event shall the amount of such payments exceed the estimated cost to the State Public Body of the improvements, services or facilities to be so furnished; provided, however, that the absence of a contract for such payments shall in no way relieve any State Public Body from the duty to furnish, for the benefit of said housing project, customary improvements and such services and facilities as such State Public Body usually furnish without a service fee.

Loans to Housing Authority

Sec. 6. When any housing authority which is created for any city, becomes authorized to transact business and exercise its powers therein, the governing body of the city shall immediately make an estimate of the amount of money necessary for the administrative expenses and overhead of such housing authority during the first year thereafter, and shall appropriate such amount to the authority out of any moneys in such city treasury not appropriated to some other purposes. The moneys so appropriated shall be paid to the authority as a loan. Any city located in whole or in part within the area of operation of a housing authority shall have the power from time to time to lend money to the authority or to agree to take such action. The housing authority, when it has money available therefor, shall make reimbursements for all such loans made to it.

Procedure for Exercising Powers

Sec. 7. The exercise by a State Public Body of the powers herein granted may be authorized by resolution of the governing body of such State Public Body adopted by a majority of the members of its governing body present at a meeting of said governing body, which resolutions may be adopted at the meeting at which such resolution is introduced. Such a resolution or resolutions shall take effect immediately and need not be laid over or published or posted.

Notice of Proposed Action; Petitions and Election

Sec. 7-a. None of the actions named in this Act shall ever be consummated until the governing body of such state public body shall have given notice of its intention to enter into a cooperation agreement with a housing authority, such notice to be given by publishing a copy thereof in its officially designated newspaper, if it has one, at least twice; which notice shall state that at the expiration of sixty (60) days the governing body will consider the question of whether or not it will enter into a cooperation agreement. If, during such sixty-day period, there is presented to the governing body a petition that an election be held on the question of whether or not such governing body shall enter into such cooperation agreement, signed by two thousand (2,000) or five per cent (5%), in number, of all the qualified voters of such state public body, and such petition is found to have the requisite number of legally qualified voters, then it shall be the duty of the governing body to order an election to be held for such purpose at such time as it may designate in the election call; provided, however, that no such election shall be held unless two (2) weeks notice is given as is presently required by law to be given in connection with elections on the question of issuing tax supported bonds. All qualified voters residing in such state public body shall be entitled to vote at such election, and if a majority of those shall be entitled to vote at such election, and if a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of such cooperation agreement, the governing body shall execute such cooperation agreement.

Provided, however, the governing body of said state public body may on its own motion call an election to be held on the question of whether such governing body shall enter into such cooperation agreement. All qualified voters residing in such state public body shall be entitled to vote at such election, and if a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of such cooperation agreement, the governing body of such state public body shall then be authorized to execute such cooperation agreement.

In the event such governing body of a state public body fails or refuses to give notice of its intention to enter into a cooperation agreement with a "Housing Authority" or fails or refuses on its own motion to submit said proposition to the qualified voters of such state public body, as hereinabove provided, then upon the filing of a petition demanding same signed by two thousand (2,000) or five per cent (5%) in number of the qualified voters of said state public body, the governing body of said state public body shall order an election for the purpose of submitting a proposition for the approval of such "Housing Project". All qualified voters residing in such state public body shall be entitled to vote at such election, and if a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of such cooperation agreement, the governing body shall then be authorized to execute such cooperation agreement; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not affect any actions taken or to be taken by a state public body with respect to a "Housing Project" for which a cooperation agreement as that term is defined by this Article has been executed prior to the effective date of this Act. The law pertaining to elections for the issuance of city and county bonds as contained in Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, insofar as applicable to and not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall govern the elections herein provided for.

Supplemental Nature of Act

Sec. 8. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law.

Severability

Sec. 9. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1269I-1. Rent Control

Sec. 1. Rent control as established by the Act of the Eighty-first Congress of the United States, extending rent control for a period of fifteen (15) months from and after March 31, 1949, as further described in Housing and Rent Act of 1949, H.R. 1731,¹ is hereby abolished in the State of Texas and is declared to be no longer needed in the State of Texas, and all Federal rent controls are hereby declared no longer needed in the State of Texas.

Sec. 1a. It is further provided however that the governing body of any city or town may, by ordinance duly passed, finding that a housing emergency exists, establish rent control in such city or town for the duration of such housing emergency provided that the ordinance so passed is approved by the Governor of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. If any part, Section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted, and does here now enact, such remaining portions despite any such invalidity.

 1 50 U.S.C.A. Appendix, § 1884 et seq.

Art. 1269l-2. State Department of Health; Planning and Assistance for Political Subdivisions; Acceptance of Federal Grants for Housing

The Texas State Department of Health is hereby authorized, upon the request of the governing body of any political subdivision or the authorized agency of any group of political subdivisions:

(a) to arrange planning assistance (including surveys, community renewal plans, technical services, and other planning work) and to arrange for the making of a study or report upon any planning problem of any such political subdivision or political subdivisions submitted to the State Department of Health, provided, however, that the employees of the State Department of Health shall not themselves make such surveys, studies, or reports;

(b) to agree with such governing body or the agency of such governing bodies as to the amount, if any, to be paid to the State Department of Health for such service; and

(c) to apply for and accept grants from the Federal Government or other sources in connection with any such assistance, study, or report, and to contract with respect thereto.

The regular functions of the Texas State Department of Health may be utilized in this program, provided that any additional employees shall be paid from sources other than General Revenue Funds of the State.

Art. 1269l-2.1 Governor's Office; Planning Assistance for Political Subdivisions; Payment; Federal Grants; Transfer of Property, Etc.

Sec. 1. The governor or his designated representative is hereby authorized, upon request to¹ the governing body of any political subdivision or the authorized agency of any group of political subdivisions:

(a) to arrange planning assistance (including surveys, community renewal plans, technical services, and other planning work) and to arrange for the making of a study or report upon any planning problem of any such political subdivision or political subdivisions submitted to the governor or his representative;

(b) to agree with such governing body or the agency of such governing bodies as to the amount, if any, to be paid to the governor's office for such service; and

(c) to apply for and accept grants from the federal government or other sources in connection with any such assistance, study or report, and to contract with respect thereto. The regular functions of the office of the governor or other state agencies may be utilized in this program.

Sec. 2. All property, records, and personnel used by the State Department of Health in administering such programs for planning assistance as are authorized in this Act are transferred to the governor's office.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall take effect and be in full force on and after September 1, 1969.

Sec. 4. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1449, ch. 429, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 1269l-3. Urban Renewal Law

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Urban Renewal Law."

Findings and Declarations of Necessity

Sec. 2. It is hereby found and declared that there exist in cities of the State slum and blighted areas (as herein defined) which constitute a serious and growing menace, injurious and inimical to the public health, safety, morals and welfare of the residents of the State; that the existence of such areas contributes substantially and increasingly to the spread of disease and crime, necessitating excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for the preservation of the public health and safety, for crime prevention, correction, prosecution, and punishment and for the treatment of juvenile delinquency and for the maintenance of adequate police, fire and accident protection and other public services and facilities, and that the existence of such areas constitutes an economic and social liability, substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of such cities and retards the provision of housing accommodations; that the prevention and elimination of slum and blighted areas is a matter of State policy and State concern in order that the State and its cities shall not continue to be endangered by areas which are focal centers of disease, constitute pernicious environments for the young, and while contributing little to the tax income of the State and its cities, consume an excessive proportion of its revenues because of the extra services required for police, fire and other forms of protection; that by such prevention and elimination property values, freed from the depressing influence of blight, will be stabilized, and tax burdens will be distributed more equitably, and the financial and capital resources of the State, required for the prosperity of, and provision of necessary governmental services to, its people, will be strengthened; that this menace can best be remedied by conjunctive action of private enterprise, of the cities through the regulatory process and the exercise of other powers provided hereunder, and of other public bodies, acting pursuant to approved urban renewal plans; that the carrying out of plans for a program of voluntary or compulsory repair and rehabilitation of buildings and improvements in such areas, the public acquisition of real property and demolition or removal of buildings and improvements where necessary to eliminate slum conditions or conditions of blight or to prevent the development, spread or recurrence of such conditions in such areas, the disposition of any property acquired in such areas incidental to the foregoing, and any assistance which may be given by any public body in connection therewith, are public uses and purposes for which public money may be expended and the power of eminent domain exercised; and that the necessity in the public interest for the provisions herein enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

It is further found and declared that slum and blighted areas, if permitted to continue without the governmental aids herein provided, will produce the conditions and evils hereinabove enumerated; that a slum area or a badly deteriorated area may require clearance therefrom of the buildings and improvements thereon, as provided in this Act, since the prevailing condition of decay may make impracticable the reclamation of the area by rehabilitation; that a less deteriorated area, a deteriorating area, or an area blighted for other reasons may, through the means provided in this Act, be susceptible of rehabilitation in such manner that the conditions and evils hereinabove enumerated may be remedied or prevented; and that it is the intent of this Act that to the greatest extent feasible, and compatible with sound and enduring urban renewal objectives—to wit, eliminating slums and urban blight, preventing the spread or recurrence thereof, and remedying the physical causes thereof in terms of blighted properties—private enterprise shall, in the administration of this Act, be encouraged to carry out such objectives to the extent of its capacity to do so with the assistance of the aids herein provided.

Not Available for Public Housing; Exception; Election

Sec. 3. (a) No real property acquired under the provisions of this Act shall be sold, leased, granted, conveyed or otherwise made available for any public housing, except as provided in subsection (b) of this Section.

(b) Real property acquired under the provisions of this Act may be sold, leased, granted, conveyed or otherwise made available for public housing if an election is held at which a majority of the qualified electors voting approve that use of the property. The election shall be called and held in the same way that an election is called and held under Section 5 of this Act, except that any qualified voter of the city may vote at the election. At the election, the ballots shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "Permitting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing."

(c) If the qualified voters of a city have approved the use of land acquired under this Act for public housing, an election may be called for the purpose of prohibiting the use of land of that type for public housing. The election shall be called and held in the same manner as an election held under subsection (b) of this Section, except the ballots shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "Prohibiting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing." If a majority of the qualified electors voting favor prohibiting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing, the prohibition contained in subsection (a) of this Section applies. An election which results in prohibiting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing does not affect land which has been sold, leased, granted, conveyed or otherwise made available for public housing at the time of the election.

(d) When an election is held under this Section, no other election may be held under this Section in the same city for a period of one year.

Definitions

Sec. 4. The following terms wherever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following meanings, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context.

(a) "Agency" or "Urban Renewal Agency" shall mean a public agency created by Section 16 of this Act.

(b) "City" shall mean any incorporated city, town or village in the State of Texas.

(c) "Public body" shall mean the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof, or any department, agency or instrumentality of any such public body.

(d) "City Council" shall mean the city council or other legislative body charged with governing the city.

(e) "Mayor" shall mean the mayor or other chief executive officer of a city.

(f) "Clerk" shall mean the clerk or other official of the city who is the custodian of the official records of such city.

(g) "Federal Government" shall include the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(h) "Slum Area" shall mean an area within a city in which there is a predominance of either residential or nonresidential buildings or improvements which are in a state of dilapidation, deterioration or obsolescence due to their age, or for other reasons; or an area in which inadequate provisions have been made for open spaces and which is thus conducive to high population densities and overcrowding of population; or an area of open land which, because of its location and/or situation within the city limits of a city, is necessary for sound community growth, by re-platting and planning and development, for predominantly residential uses; or an area in which conditions exist, due to any of the hereinabove named causes, or any combination thereof, which endanger life or property by fire or by other causes, or which is conducive to the ill-health of the inhabitants of the area or to the transmission of disease, and to the incidence of abnormally high rates of infant mortality, or which is conducive to abnormally high rates of crime and juvenile delinquency, or which is not conducive to an orderly development by reason of inadequate and/or improper platting with adequate lots for residential development of lots, streets and public utilities, and is thus an area which is detrimental to the public health, safety, morals or welfare of the city.

(i) "Blighted Area" shall mean an area (other than a slum area) which, by reason of the presence therein of slum or deteriorated or deteriorating residential or nonresidential buildings, structures, or improvements, or by reason of the predominance therein of defective or inadequate streets or defective or inadequate street layout or accessibility, or by reason of the existence therein of insanitary, unhealthful or other hazardous conditions which endanger the public health, safety, morals or welfare of the inhabitants thereof and of the city, or by reason of the predominance therein of the deterioration of site or other improvements, or by reason of the existence therein of conditions which endanger life, or property by fire or from other causes, or by reason of the existence therein of any combination of the hereinabove stated causes, factors, or conditions, results in a condition in that area which substantially retards or arrests the provisions of a sound and healthful housing environment, or which thereby results in and constitutes an economic or social liability to the city, and is thus a menace, in its present condition and use, to the public health, safety, morals or public welfare of the city, provided, that any disaster area referred to in Section 7(h) of this Act shall constitute a blighted area.

(j) "Urban Renewal Project" may include undertakings of a city (as herein defined) in an urban renewal area for the elimination and for the prevention of the development or spread of slums and blight, and may involve slum clearance and redevelopment (as herein defined) in an urban renewal area, or rehabilitation or conservation (as herein defined) in an urban renewal area, and may include open land which, because of its location and/or situation, is necessary for sound community growth which is to be developed, by replatting and planning, for predominantly residential uses, or any combination or part thereof in accordance with the urban renewal plan therefor.

(k) "Urban Renewal Activities" shall, wherever used in this Act, include "slum clearance and redevelopment" or "rehabilitation or conservation" which shall be limited to clearance or rehabilitation measures or any combination thereof which might be required to prevent further deterioration of an area which is tending to become either a blighted or a slum area and shall specifically include:

(1) acquisition of (i) a slum area or a blighted area or portion thereof or (ii) land which is predominately open and which because of obsolete platting, diversity of ownership, deterioration of structures or of site improvements or otherwise, substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of the community;

(2) demolition and removal of buildings and improvements;

(3) installation, construction, or reconstruction of streets, utilities, parks, playgrounds and other improvements necessary for carrying out in the urban renewal area the urban renewal objectives of this Act in accordance with the urban renewal plan;

(4) disposition of any property acquired in the urban renewal area including sale, initial leasing or retention by the city at its fair value for uses in accordance with the urban renewal plan;

(5) carrying out plans for a program of voluntary repair and rehabilitation of buildings or other improvements in accordance with the urban renewal plan; and

(6) acquisition of any real property in the urban renewal area where necessary to remove or prevent the spread of blight or deterioration or to provide land for needed public facilities.

(l) "Urban Renewal Area" shall mean a slum area or a blighted area or a combination thereof, which the city council designates as appropriate for an urban renewal project.

(m) "Urban Renewal Plan" shall mean a plan for an urban renewal project, which plan (1) shall conform to the general plan of the city as a whole, except as provided in Section 7(h) of this Act and (2) shall be sufficiently complete to indicate zoning and planning changes, if any; building requirements; land uses; maximum densities; such land acquisition, redevelopment, rehabilitation, and demolition and removal of structures as may be proposed for the urban renewal area; and the plan's relationship to local objectives respecting public transportation, traffic conditions, public utilities, recreational and community facilities, and other improvements.

(n) "Real Property" shall include all lands, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto, or used in connection therewith, and every estate, interest, right and use, legal or equitable, therein, including terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage or otherwise.

(o) "Bonds" shall mean any bonds (including refunding bonds), notes, interim certificates, certificates of indebtedness, debentures or other obligations.

(p) "Obligee" shall include any bondholder, agents or trustees for any bondholders, or lessor demising to the city property used in connection with an urban renewal project, or any assignee or assignees of such lessor's interest or any part thereof, and the Federal Government when it is a party to any contract with the city.

(q) "Person" shall mean any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or body politic; and shall include any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other person acting in a similar representative capacity.

(r) "Area of Operation" shall mean the area within the corporate limits of a city.

(s) "Board" or "Commission" shall mean a board, commission, department, division, office, body or other unit of the city through which the city elects, pursuant to Section 15 hereof, to perform powers, functions or duties under this Act.

(t) "Conservation" shall mean the preserving, protecting and keeping of an area which is susceptible to blight from succumbing to blight.

(u) "Deteriorated" shall mean the impairment as to quality, character, value or safety due to use, wear and tear or other physical causes.

(v) "Planning Commission" shall mean a planning commission established pursuant to law or charter.

(w) "Rehabilitate" shall mean to restore to a former state of solvency, efficiency or the like. "Rehabilitation" shall mean the restoration of buildings or structures in order to prevent deterioration of an area which is tending to become either a blighted or slum area.

Finding of Necessity by City Council

Sec. 5. No city shall exercise any of the powers conferred upon cities by this Act until after the City Council shall have adopted a resolution, after giving notice and ordering an election on the question of whether the City Council shall adopt such resolution, finding that:

(1) one or more slum or blighted areas exist in such city; and

(2) the rehabilitation, conservation, or slum clearance and redevelopment, or a combination thereof, of such area or areas is necessary in the interest of public health, safety, morals or welfare of the residents of such city.

Such notice shall be published at least twice in the newspaper officially designated by the City Council and shall state that on a date certain, which date shall be stated in the notice and shall be not less than sixty (60) days after the publication of the first of such notices, the City Council will consider the question of whether or not it will order an election to determine if it should adopt such a resolution. On the date specified in the notice to consider such question the City Council may, on its own motion, call an election to determine whether it shall adopt such a resolution and shall, in any event, call such election if there has been presented to it during such period a petition that such election be held, signed by at least five per cent (5%) of the legally qualified voters residing in such city and owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, duly rendered for taxation. If it be determined to call such an election, at least thirty (30) day's notice thereof shall be given. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no powers granted by this Act shall be exercised by any city until an election shall have been held as herein provided with a majority of the votes cast at such election being cast in favor of the exercise of such powers by such city. Only qualified voters residing in said city, owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be entitled to vote at such election. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall then be authorized to adopt it. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote against the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall not adopt it and such resolution shall not again be proposed within the period of one (1) year.

Alternate Method of Approval

Sec. 5a. Provisions in Section 5 to the contrary notwithstanding, any city which has not approved the exercise of urban renewal powers pursuant to Section 5 prior to the enactment of this Section may, in lieu of complying with Section 5, approve the exercise of urban renewal powers for a specific urban renewal project in the following manner:

(a) An election to approve an urban renewal project shall be called and held in the same manner that elections are called and held under Section 5 of this Act. Only qualified voters residing in the city, who own taxable property within the boundaries thereof duly rendered for taxation, may vote at the election.

(b) The resolution calling the election and the notice of the election shall contain the following information:

(1) a complete legal description of the area included in the proposed project;

(2) a statement of the nature of the proposed project; and

(3) the total amount of local funds to be spent on the proposed project.

(c) The ballot proposition at the election need not contain a complete legal description of the area included in the project, but shall contain a general description of the area which is sufficient to give notice to the voters of where the proposed project is to be carried out. The proposition shall also contain a statement of the nature of the proposed project and the total amount of local funds to be spent on the project.

(d) If the ballot proposition is approved, the city may not exceed in any respect the limitations imposed on the project in the resolution calling the election with respect to the area, nature, or amount of local funds to be spent on the project. If the city desires to expand the project beyond any of those limitations, the proposed expansion must be approved at an election in the same manner as an original project.

(e) Voter approval is not required for preliminary planning of an urban renewal project.

(f) This Section shall not require any further elections, resolutions or actions of any city presently exercising the powers conferred by this Act. All elections, findings, actions, determinations, decisions, rules, regulations and conveyances of any city or agency exercising the powers conferred by this Act are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed; except such elections, findings, actions, determinations, decisions, rules, regulations or conveyances which are the subject of litigation pending at the time of enactment of this amendment.

Workable Program

Sec. 6. A city, in furtherance of the urban renewal objectives of this Act, may formulate a workable program for utilizing appropriate private and public resources (including those specified in Section 8 hereof) to encourage needed urban rehabilitation, to provide for the redevelopment of slum and blighted areas, or to undertake such of the aforesaid activities or other feasible municipal activities as may be suitably employed to achieve the objective of such a workable program. Such workable program should include specifically, without limitation, provision for the prevention of the spread of blight into areas of the city which are free from blight, through diligent enforcement of housing and occupancy controls and standards; the rehabilitation or conservation of slum and blighted areas, in so far as it shall be practicable to convert them into areas free from blight, by replanning, removing congestion, providing parks, playgrounds and other public improvements, encouraging voluntary rehabilitation, and compelling the repair and rehabilitation of deteriorated or deteriorating structures; and the clearance and redevelopment of slum areas.

Preparation and Approval of Urban Renewal Plan

Sec. 7. (a) A city shall not prepare an urban renewal plan for an urban renewal area unless the City Council has, by resolution, determined such an area to be a slum area or a blighted area or a combination thereof, and designated such area as appropriate for an urban renewal project. The City Council shall not approve an urban renewal plan until a general plan for the city has been prepared. A city shall not acquire real property for an urban renewal project unless the City Council has approved the urban renewal plan in accordance with subsection (d) hereof.

(b) Any person or agency, public or private, may submit an urban renewal plan to the city. Prior to its approval of such an urban renewal plan, the City Council shall submit such proposed plan to the urban renewal agency and the planning commission of the city, if any, for review and recommendations as to its conformity with the general plan for the development of the city as a whole. The agency and planning commission shall submit their written recommendations with respect to the proposed urban renewal plan to the City Council within thirty (30) days after receipt of the plan for review. Upon receipt of such recommendations or, if no recommendations are received within said thirty (30) days, then without such recommendations, the City Council may proceed with the hearing on the proposed urban renewal plan prescribed by subsection (c) hereof.

(c) The City Council shall hold a public hearing on the proposed urban renewal plan before it may approve the urban renewal plan, after notice of hearing has been given by publication three (3) times in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city, the first of which notices shall be published at least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing. Such notice shall describe the time, date, place and purpose of the hearing, shall generally identify the urban renewal area and shall outline the general scope of the urban renewal project under consideration.

(d) Following such hearing, the City Council may approve an urban renewal plan if it finds that

(1) a feasible method exists for the location of families or individuals who will be displaced from the urban renewal area in decent, safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations within their means and without undue hardship to such families or individuals;

(2) the urban renewal plan conforms to the general plan of the city as a whole; and

(3) the urban renewal plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the city as a whole, for the rehabilitation or redevelopment of the urban renewal area by private enterprise.

(e) An urban renewal plan may be modified at any time; provided, that if modified after the lease or sale by the city of real property in the urban renewal project area, such modification shall be subject to such rights at law or in equity as a lessee or purchaser, or his successor or successors in interest, may be entitled to assert. If any proposed modification of the urban renewal plan adopted for an area should affect the street layout, land use, public utilities, zoning, if any, open space and density, then such modification shall not be made until it has been submitted to the planning commission and a report rendered to the City Council as outlined in subsection (b) hereof.

(f) Upon the approval of an urban renewal plan by the city, the provisions of said plan with respect to the future use and building requirements applicable to the property covered by said plan shall be controlling with respect thereto.

(g) In any urban renewal area or project, if there exists a building or buildings in good state of repair and so located that the building or buildings can be incorporated into the renewal project pattern or plan adopted for that area, such building or buildings shall not be acquired without the consent of the owner or owners; provided further that if any owner of property in such area agrees to use such property in a manner not inconsistent with the purposes of the urban renewal plan and the improvements on such property do not constitute a fire or health hazard, then such property shall not be subject to the powers of eminent domain. Any property owner shall have the right to contest before the City Council such powers of eminent domain as respects his individual ownership and shall have the right of appeal to the District Court with a trial de novo.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, where the local governing body certifies that an area is in need of redevelopment or rehabilitation as a result of a flood, fire, hurricane, earthquake, storm, or other catastrophe respecting which the Governor of the State has certified the need for disaster assistance under Public Law 875, Eighty-first Congress, or other Federal law, the local governing body may approve an urban renewal plan and an urban renewal project with respect to such area without regard to the provisions of subsection (d) of this Section and the provisions of this Act requiring a general plan for the municipality and a public hearing on the urban renewal project.

Encouragement of Private Enterprise

Sec. 8. A city, to the greatest extent it determines to be feasible in carrying out the provisions of this Act, shall afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the city as a whole, to the rehabilitation or redevelopment of the urban renewal area by private enterprise. A city shall give consideration to this objective in exercising its powers under this Act, including the formulation of a workable program, the approval of urban renewal plans (consistent with the general plan of the municipality), the exercise of its zoning powers, and enforcement of other laws, codes and regulations relating to the use of land and the use and occupancy of buildings and improvements, the disposition of any property acquired, and the provision of necessary public improvements.

Powers

Sec. 9. A city shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(a) To conduct preliminary surveys to determine if the undertakings and carrying out of urban renewal projects is feasible.

(b) To undertake and carry out urban renewal projects within its area of operation.

(c) To make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers under this Act.

(d) To provide or arrange or contract for the furnishing or repair by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, streets, roads, public utilities or other facilities for or in connection with an urban renewal project; to install, construct and reconstruct streets, utilities, parks, playgrounds, and other public improvements necessary for carrying out urban renewal projects.

(e) To acquire by purchase, lease, option, gift, grant, or bequest, devise, eminent domain or otherwise, any real property (or personal property for its administrative purposes) together with any improvements thereon, necessary or incidental to an urban renewal project; to hold, improve, clear or prepare for redevelopment any such property; to mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber or dispose of any real property; to insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the city against any risks or hazards, including the power to pay premiums on any such insurance; and to enter into any contracts necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Act.

(f) To invest any urban renewal project funds held in reserves or sinking funds or any such funds not required for immediate disbursements, in property or securities in which banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to redeem such bonds as have been issued pursuant to Section 15 of this Act at the redemption price established therein or to purchase such bonds at less than redemption price, all such bonds so redeemed or purchased to be cancelled.

(g) To borrow money and to apply for and accept advances, loans, grants, contributions and any other form of financial assistance from the Federal Government, the State, County or other public body or from any sources, public or private, for the purposes of this Act, and to give such security as may be required and to enter into and carry out contracts in connection therewith. A city may include in any contract for financial assistance with the Federal Government for an urban renewal project such provisions and conditions imposed pursuant to Federal Law as the city may deem reasonable and appropriate and which are not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act.

(h) Within its area of operation, to make or have made all plans necessary to the carrying out of the purposes of this Act and to contract with any person, public or private, in making and carrying out such plans and to adopt or approve, modify and amend such plans. The city is authorized to develop, test and report methods and techniques and carry out demonstrations and other activities, for the prevention and the elimination of slums and urban blight, and to apply for, accept and utilize grants of funds from the Federal Government for such purposes.

(i) To prepare plans and provide reasonable assistance for the relocation of persons (including families, business concerns, and others) displaced from an urban renewal project area to the extent essential for acquiring possession of and clearing such area or parts thereof to permit the carrying out of the urban renewal project.

(j) To appropriate such funds and make such expenditures as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, and to levy taxes and assessments for such purposes; to close, vacate, plan or replan streets, roads, sidewalks, ways or other places; to plan or replan, zone or rezone any part of the city and to make exceptions from building regulations; and to enter into agreements with an urban renewal agency vested with urban renewal powers under Section 15 of this Act (which agreements may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule or law to the contrary), restricting action to be taken by such city pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Act; provided, however, that no taxes or assessments shall be levied under authority or for the purposes of this Act unless and until such levy shall first have been submitted to a vote of the property-owning taxpayers of said city, and said proposition shall have received a majority of the votes cast as being "for" such levy.

(k) Within its area of operation to organize, coordinate and direct the administration of the provisions of this Act as they apply to such city in order that the objective of remedying slum and blighted areas and preventing the causes thereof within such city may be most effectively promoted and achieved, and to establish such new office or offices of the city or to reorganize existing offices in order to carry out such purpose most effectively.

(l) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 10. A city shall have the right to acquire by condemnation any interest in any real property, including a fee simple title thereto, which it may deem necessary for or in connection with an urban renewal project under this Act; provided, however, that if any such urban renewal project shall include a "slum clearance and redevelopment section," as that term is hereinafter defined, which section a city shall propose to clear for redevelopment and re-use other than for a public use, a city may not acquire by condemnation any such "slum clearance and redevelopment section" or portion thereof, unless it shall appear, and the City Council shall have found and determined, by resolution duly adopted, that the rehabilitation of such section without clearance would be impractical, infeasible and ineffective, based upon its finding that at least fifty per cent (50%) of the structures in such section are dilapidated beyond the point of feasible rehabilitation, or are otherwise unfit for rehabilitation, and that there exist other blighting characteristics, such as overcrowding of structures on the land, mixed uses of structures, narrow, crooked, inconvenient, congested, unsafe or otherwise deficient streets, or deficiencies in public utilities or recreational and community facilities. A city may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in Articles 3264 to 3271, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. Property already devoted to a public use may be acquired in like manner; provided, that no real property belonging to the State, or any political subdivision thereof, may be acquired without its consent. The term "slum clearance and redevelopment section," as that term is used in this Section, shall be construed as meaning, and shall mean, any substantial contiguous part or portion of an urban renewal area which a city shall propose to acquire and clear of all buildings, structures and other improvements thereon for redevelopment and reuse in accordance with the urban renewal plan.

Relocation of Transmission Lines, Etc.

Sec. 10a. In the event any city or urban renewal agency or other public body, in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, makes necessary the relocation, raising, re-routing or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph property or facility, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, re-routing, changing of grade or alteration of construction, shall be accomplished at the expense of the city, urban renewal agency or other public body making the same necessary.

Disposal of Property in Urban Renewal Area

Sec. 11. (a) A city may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer real property or any interest therein acquired by it, and may enter into contracts with respect thereto, in an urban renewal area for residential, recreational, commercial, industrial or other uses or for public use, or may retain such property or interest for public use, in accordance with the urban renewal plan, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land, as it may deem to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, all of which shall be written into the instrument transferring or conveying titles; provided, that such sale, lease, other transfer, or retention or any agreement relating thereto may be made only after approval of the urban renewal plan by the City Council. The purchasers or lessees and their successors and assigns shall be obligated to devote such real property only to the uses specified in the urban renewal plan, and may be obligated to comply with conditions enumerated in the deed of conveyance, including the obligation to begin within a reasonable time any improvements on such real property required by the urban renewal plan. Such real property or interest shall be sold, leased, otherwise transferred, or retained at not less than the fair value for uses in accordance with the urban renewal plan. In determining the fair value of real property for uses in accordance with the urban renewal plan, a city shall take into account and give consideration to the uses provided in such plan; the restrictions upon, and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by the purchaser or lessee or by the city retaining the property; the objectives of such plan for the prevention of the recurrence of slums or blighted areas; and such other matters as the city shall specify as being appropriate. The city or renewal agency in an instrument of conveyance to a private purchaser or lessee may provide that such purchaser or lessee may sell any or all of the unimproved property without profit to the seller. The purchaser, after improving a parcel or parcels of land in accordance with the plan of development adopted for the area, may sell the same before he completes the development of the area or tract of land he purchased; provided, however, that such sale of parcel or parcels of improved land will not relieve him from the obligation of completing the development of the area of land that he had purchased. The purchaser likewise may sell a parcel or parcels of land that he has purchased for redevelopment to another person who will be obligated to improve the parcel or parcels purchased by him in accordance with the plan of development for that project; provided, however, that such resale of any unimproved parcel of land will be without profit to the seller and provided that any subsequent purchaser will be obligated to improve the property as provided by the urban renewal plan and the conditions set forth in the deed of conveyance. Real property acquired by a city which, in accordance with the provisions of the urban renewal plan, is to be sold to private developers shall be sold as rapidly as feasible in the public interest consistent with the carrying out of the provisions of this urban renewal plan. Any instrument executed by a city or urban renewal agency and purporting to convey any right, title or interest in any property under this Act shall be presumed to be executed in compliance with the provisions of this Act in so far as title or other interest of any bona fide lessees or transferees or purchasers, of such property is concerned.

(b) All sales of real property in an urban renewal area to private persons shall be sold upon competitive sealed bids after advertising in the official publication or newspaper of general circulation, said advertisement to be published once at least fifteen (15) days before such sale, inviting bids for purchase of real estate in the urban renewal area in whole or parcels as the city may determine. Prior to the advertising for bids for the sale of any real estate the city shall adopt as part of the specifications in the general plan of improvement the conditions that will be binding upon the purchaser, his heirs, assigns or successors in title as the case may be. The city or renewal agency shall have the right to accept the highest and best responsible bid and the purchase price must be paid in cash. If the city or agency shall be of the opinion that the bids are not satisfactory in adequacy of price, or bid, they may reject all and readvertise; provided, however, that the agency will not make a sale of any property unless the price and conditions are approved by the governing body of the city. It is the declared policy of this Act that any real estate acquired in connection with an urban renewal and rehabilitation project shall be sold by the city or urban renewal agency within a reasonable length of time for purposes applicable to each project, save and except that land the city will retain for the use of the general public for municipal purposes. Land to be resold shall be resold within a reasonable time, taking into account the general economic condition at that time.

(c) Any real estate except real property not fit for human habitation or real property declared sub-standard by any governmental agency, acquired in an urban renewal area may be temporarily leased by the city, provided that any such temporary lease shall provide for the right of cancellation so that the city may sell or dispose of the property for the purposes intended by this Act.

(d) Any real property acquired under the terms of this Act which is not, within a reasonable length of time, devoted to a purpose or purposes applicable to the urban renewal project for which it was acquired, may, after notice, be repurchased by the former owner as a matter of right, at the price for which it was acquired from him, less any actual damages sustained by him by virtue of such taking of his land, unless the land be devoted to such purpose or purposes within sixty (60) days after such former owner shall have given the record owner and the city notice in writing of his intention to exercise his right of repurchase; provided, that after such repurchase by such former owner, any building or buildings placed or allowed to remain on such property shall be made to conform to the pattern and intent of the urban renewal project if and when it be carried out.

(e) Any purchaser, lessee, or subsequent purchaser or lessee referred to above as private developers of any portion of the lands acquired under this Act is expressly authorized to give said lands as security for loans for the purpose of financing the development of the property. Such purchasers and lessees are expressly authorized to execute and deliver to any lenders, notes, deeds of trust with powers of sale, mortgages and any other instruments which may be required in connection with obtaining and securing the repayment of such loans, it being the intention of this section that purchasers, and lessees of such lands have all the rights, titles and incidents of ownership therein which are enjoyed by purchasers and lessees of lands generally, and that as such purchasers and lessees they be entitled to mortgage and encumber said lands either for purchase price or for improvements in accordance with the objectives of this Act as any other purchaser or lessee of land in Texas might be entitled to do, and that any subsequent owner or lessee of said land who might acquire title by virtue of a foreclosure of any lien given to secure such indebtedness or by conveyance or assignment in satisfaction of debt shall become the owner or lessee of said land subject only to the restrictive covenants with respect to the use and improvement of said land which might be set forth in the original conveyance from the municipality, and subject in no manner to any condition precedent or condition subsequent which might result in reverter or forfeiture of title and without restraint as to the amount for which said property may thereafter be resold or leased.

Property Exempt from Taxes and from Levy and Sale by Virtue of an Execution

Sec. 12. (a) All property of a city, including funds, owned or held by it for the purposes of this Act shall be exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, and no execution or other judicial process shall issue against the same nor shall judgment against a city be a charge or lien upon such property; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to or limit the right of obligees to pursue any remedies for the enforcement of any pledge or lien given pursuant to this Act by a city on its rents, fees, grants or revenues from urban renewal projects.

(b) Where real estate property in the project area is acquired and is owned as a part of the project by the city or the urban renewal agency and such project is not subject to ad valorem taxes by reason of its ownership due to the provisions of Section 12(a) hereof there may be, as a part of gross project cost, reasonable payments in lieu of taxes.

Co-operation of Public Bodies

Sec. 13. (a) For the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking or carrying out of an urban renewal project located within the area in which it is authorized to act, any public body may, if it determines that such project will benefit and be of advantage to the public body or its residents, upon such terms, with or without consideration, as it may determine:

(1) dedicate, sell, convey or lease any of its interest in any project or grant easements, licenses, or other rights or privileges therein to a city;

(2) incur the entire expense of any public improvements made by such public body in exercising the powers granted in this Section;

(3) do any and all things necessary to aid or co-operate in the planning or carrying out of an urban renewal plan;

(4) lend, grant or contribute funds to a city;

(5) enter into agreements which may extend over any period notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary with a city or other public body respecting action to be taken by such public body pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Act, including the furnishing of funds or other assistance in connection with an urban renewal project; and

(6) cause public buildings and public facilities, including parks, playgrounds, recreational, community, educational, water, sewer, or drainage facilities, or any other works which it is otherwise empowered to undertake to be furnished; furnish, dedicate, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan or replan streets, roads, sidewalks, ways or other places; plan or replan, zone or rezone any part of the public body or make exceptions from building regulations; and cause administrative and other services to be furnished to the city.

If at any time title to or possession of any urban renewal project is held by the Federal Government, the provisions of the agreement referred to shall inure to the benefit of and may be enforced by the Federal Government. As used in this subsection, the term "city" shall also include an urban renewal agency vested with all of the urban renewal project powers pursuant to the provisions of Section 15.

(b) Any sale, conveyance, lease or agreement provided for in this Section may be made by and between public bodies without appraisal, public notice, advertisement or public bidding.

(c) For the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking or carrying out of an urban renewal project of an urban renewal agency hereunder, a city (in addition to its other powers and upon such terms, with or without consideration, as it may determine) may do and perform any or all of the actions or things which, by the provisions of subsection (a) of this Section, a public body is authorized to do or perform, including the furnishing of financial and other assistance.

(d) For the purpose of this Section or for the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking or carrying out of an urban renewal project of a city, such city may in addition to any authority to issue bonds pursuant to Section 15 hereof, issue and sell its general obligation bonds. Any bonds issued by a city pursuant to this Section shall be issued in the manner and within the limitations prescribed by the laws of this State for the issuance and authorization of bonds by such city for public purposes generally.

Title of Purchaser

Sec. 14. Any instrument executed by a city or by an urban renewal agency and purporting to convey any right, title or interest in any property under this Act shall be conclusively presumed to have been executed in compliance with the provisions of this Act in so far as title or other interest of any bona fide purchasers, lessees or transferees of such property is concerned.

Exercise of Powers in Carrying Out Urban Renewal Project

Sec. 15. (a) A city itself may exercise its urban renewal project powers (as herein defined) or may, if the City Council by resolution determines such action to be in the public interest, elect to have such powers exercised by an urban renewal agency created by Section 16 hereof. In the event the City Council makes such determination, the urban renewal agency shall be vested with all of the urban renewal project powers in the same manner as though all such powers were conferred on such agency instead of the city. If the City Council does not elect to make such determination, the city in its discretion may exercise its urban renewal project powers through a board or commission or through such officers of the city as the City Council may by resolution determine.

(b) As used in this Section, the term "urban renewal project powers" shall include the rights, powers, functions and duties of a city under this Act, except the following: the power to determine an area to be a slum or blighted area or combination thereof and to designate such area as appropriate for an urban renewal project; the power to approve and amend urban renewal plans and to hold any public hearings required with respect thereto; the power to establish a general plan for the locality as a whole; the power to establish a workable program under Section 6; the power to make the determinations and findings provided for in Section 5, Section 7(d) and Section 8; the power to issue general obligation bonds; and the power to appropriate funds, to levy taxes and assessments, and to exercise other powers provided for in Section 9(j).

(c) In the event the city elects to create an urban renewal agency under the terms of this Act, no renewal or rehabilitation project shall be undertaken by the agency unless the area proposed to be a renewal or rehabilitation area and the plan of improvement of the project area is approved by the governing body of such city.

(d) An urban renewal agency created by Section 16 hereof, shall, in addition to all other powers which may be vested in it, have power to issue bonds from time to time in its discretion to finance the undertaking of any urban renewal project under this Act, including, without limiting the generality thereof, the payment of principal and interest upon any advances for surveys and plans, and shall also have power to issue refunding bonds for the payment or retirement of such bonds previously issued by it. Such bonds shall be made payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from the income, proceeds, revenues, and funds of the urban renewal agency derived from or held in connection with its undertaking and carrying out of urban renewal projects under this Act; provided, however, that payment of such bonds, both as to principal and interest, may be further secured by a pledge of any loan, grant or contribution from the Federal Government or other source, in aid of any urban renewal projects of the urban renewal agency under this Act, and by a mortgage of any such urban renewal projects, or any part thereof, title to which is in the urban renewal agency. Bonds issued under this Section of this Act shall not constitute an indebtedness of the State of Texas or any county or political subdivision of such state other than the issuing urban renewal agency, and shall not be subject to the provisions of any other law relating to the authorization, issuance or sale of bonds. Bonds issued under this Section of this Act are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from all taxes. Bonds issued under this Section shall be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body of the urban renewal agency and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rates or rate, not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics, as may be provided by such resolution or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto. Such bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sales held after notice published prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the area of operation and in such other medium of publication as the urban renewal agency may determine or may be exchanged for other bonds on the basis of par; provided, that such bonds may be sold to the Federal Government at private sale at not less than par, and, in the event less than all of the authorized principal amount of such bonds is sold to the Federal Government, the balance may be sold at private sale at not less than par at an interest cost to the urban renewal agency of not to exceed the interest cost to the urban renewal agency of the portion of the bonds sold to the Federal Government. In case any of the officials of the urban renewal agency whose signatures appear on any bonds or coupons issued under this Act shall cease to be such officials before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such officials had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond issued under this Act or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the urban renewal agency in connection with an urban renewal project, as herein defined, shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purposes and such project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(e) All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds or other obligations issued by an urban renewal agency pursuant to this Act; provided that such bonds and other obligations shall be secured by an agreement between the issuer and the Federal Government in which the issuer agrees to borrow from the Federal Government and the Federal Government agrees to lend to the issuer, prior to the maturity of such bonds or other obligations, moneys in an amount which (together with any other moneys irrevocably committed to the payment of interest on such bonds or other obligations) will suffice to pay the principal of such bonds or other obligations with interest to maturity thereon, which moneys under the terms of said agreement are required to be used for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on such bonds or other obligations at their maturity. Such bonds and other obligations shall be authorized security for all public deposits. It is the purpose of this Section to authorize any persons, political subdivisions and officers, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds or other obligations. Nothing contained in this Section with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

Urban Renewal Agency

Sec. 16. (a) There is hereby created in each city a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "urban renewal agency" of the city; provided, that such agency shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the City Council has made the findings prescribed in Section 5 and has elected to have the urban renewal project powers exercised by an urban renewal agency as provided in Section 15, and has submitted such proposition to a vote of the people of said city, and received a favorable vote thereon, as provided in Section 5 of this Act.

(b) If an urban renewal agency is created by the city under this Act to exercise the powers of this Act, the mayor, by and with the advice and consent of the City Council, shall appoint a board of commissioners of the urban renewal agency which shall consist of not less than five (5) members nor more than nine (9) members who shall serve for two (2) years.

The commissioners shall designate one of their number to serve as Chairman and one as Vice-chairman, for terms of one (1) year, respectively. A commissioner must be a resident citizen of the city and a real property owner. The actual number of commissioners of the urban renewal agency shall be determined by the City Council at the time of appointment and the number may not be increased or decreased more than once every two (2) years. At the time of their original appointment, a bare majority of the commissioners shall be designated to serve for one (1) year and the remaining for two (2) years, respectively. In the event of a vacancy caused by death, removal from the city or any valid cause, such vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment but only for the unexpired term. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified.

(c) A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services but shall be entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties. A certificate of the appointment or re-appointment of each commissioner shall be filed with the clerk of the city and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum; provided, however, that if the agency is composed of five (5), seven (7) and nine (9) members, respectively, any action to be valid must be adopted or rejected by a vote of a majority of the total commissioners of the agency. An urban renewal agency may employ an executive director, technical experts and such other agents and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation. For such legal service as it may require, an agency may employ or retain its own counsel and legal staff. An agency authorized to conduct business and exercise powers under this Act shall file with the city on or before March 31st of each year a report of its activities for the preceding calendar year, or quarterly if requested by the City Council. Said report shall include a complete financial statement by the agency setting forth its assets, liabilities, income and operating expense as of the end of such calendar year. At the time of filing the report, the agency shall publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the city that such report has been filed with the city and that the report is available for inspection during business hours in the office of the city secretary and in the office of the agency.

(d) For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner may be removed by the City Council only after a hearing and after he shall have been given a copy of the charges at least ten (10) days prior to such hearing and have had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel.

Judicial Proceedings

Sec. 17. In all suits brought to review, modify, suspend, or satisfy rules, orders, decisions, or other acts of the City Council, or other agency, the trial shall be de novo, as that term is used and understood in an appeal from a Justice of the Peace Court to the County Court. In such de novo trials, no presumption of validity or reasonableness or presumption of any character shall be indulged in favor of any such order, rule or regulation, nor shall evidence as to the validity or reasonableness thereof be heard, and the determination in respect thereto shall be made upon facts found therein, as in other civil cases, and the procedure for such trials and the determination of the orders and judgments to be entered therein shall be governed solely by the rules of law, evidence and procedure prescribed for the courts of this State by its Constitution, statutes and rules of procedure applicable to the trial of civil actions. It is the intent of the Legislature that such trial shall be strictly de novo and that the decision in each such case shall be made independently of any action taken by the Board, upon preponderance of the evidence adduced at such trial and entirely free of the so-called "substantial evidence" rule enunciated by the courts in respect to orders of other administrative or quasi-judicial agencies.

Interested Public Officials, Commissioners or Employees

Sec. 18. No public official or employee of a city (or board or commission thereof) and no commissioner or employee of an urban renewal agency which has been vested by a city with urban renewal project powers under Section 15 hereof, shall voluntarily acquire any interest, direct or indirect, in any urban renewal project or in any property included or planned to be included in any urban renewal project of such city or in any contract or proposed contract in connection with such urban renewal project. Where such acquisition is not voluntary, the interest acquired shall be immediately disclosed in writing to the City Council and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the City Council. Such official or employee shall then, within three (3) months after such involuntary acquisition, either resign his position, or divest himself of his interest in such urban renewal project. If any such official, commissioner or employee shall own or control or shall have owned or controlled within the preceding two (2) years, any interest, direct or indirect, in any property which he knows is included or planned to be included in any urban renewal project, he shall immediately disclose this fact in writing to the City Council, and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the City Council, and any such official, commissioner or employee shall not participate in any action by the City (or board or commission thereof), or urban renewal agency affecting such property. Any disclosure required to be made by this Section to the City Council shall concurrently be made to any urban renewal agency which has been vested with urban renewal project powers by the city pursuant to the provisions of Section 15. No commissioner or other officer of any urban renewal agency, board or commission exercising powers pursuant to this Act shall hold any other public office under the city other than his commissionership or office with respect to such urban renewal agency, board or commission. Any violation of the provisions of this Section shall constitute misconduct in office.

Separability of Provisions

Sec. 19. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Inconsistent Provisions

Sec. 20. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling but shall not repeal any charter provision of any home rule city which provides for the same purposes set forth in this Act and shall be considered cumulative of the powers of the cities.

Additional Conferred Powers

Sec. 21. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred upon cities by any provision of the Constitution of Texas, the general laws of the State of Texas, or by the charters of home rule cities of the State of Texas.

Right to Repurchase

Sec. 22. Provided, however, the original owner from which property was acquired hereunder by condemnation or through the threat of condemnation, shall have the first right to repurchase at the price at which same shall be offered.

FIREMEN AND POLICEMEN

Art. 1269m. Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service in Cities Over 10,000

Creation of Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service

Sec. 1. There is hereby established in all cities in this State having a population of ten thousand (10,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and having a paid Fire Department and Police Department, a Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service.

Definitions

Sec. 2. By the term "Fireman" is meant any member of the Fire Department appointed to such position in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 9, 10 and 11 of this Act, or entitled to Civil Service Status under Section 24 of this Act. By the term "Policeman" is meant any member of the Police Department appointed to such position in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 9, 10 and 11 of this Act, or entitled to Civil Service Status under Section 24 of this Act. By the term "Commission" as used herein is meant the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission. The term "Director" means Director of Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service.

Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission

Sec. 3. There is hereby established in all such cities a Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission, which shall consist of three (3) members, to be selected as follows: Members of the Commission shall be appointed by the chief executive of any such city, and such appointment shall be confirmed by the City Council or legislative body of any such city before any such appointments shall be effective. Of the first three (3) Commissioners so selected under the provisions of this Act to comprise the Commission, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years, and one (1) shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years. Thereafter the term of office of each Commissioner shall be for three (3) years, or until a successor is appointed, confirmed, and qualified. Any such vacancies in said Commission, caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, or by failure of any appointee to qualify within ten (10) days after appointment, shall be filled in the manner hereinabove specified, and such appointment shall be for the unexpired term of the retiring Commissioner of the appointee failing to qualify.

All such Commissioners shall be of good moral character, resident citizens of the particular city for which they are appointed, shall have resided in said city for a period of more than three (3) years, shall each be over the age of twenty-five (25) years, and shall not have held any public office within the preceding three (3) years.

It is provided however, that in all such cities which have in existence a Civil Service Commission, that said Civil Service Commission shall constitute the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission of that city, but said Commissioner shall administer the Civil Service of Firemen and Policemen in accordance with this law.

It is further provided that in any such city which has in existence a Civil Service Commission, the appointment of members to such Civil Service Commission shall be made in conformity with provisions of this Act, after the expiration of presently existing term or terms of the members comprising such Civil Service Commission and, if necessary, in such cities having staggered terms of membership on such Civil Service Commission, the first appointment made under the provisions of this Act shall be made for terms of such number of years less than three (3) as will cause a staggered or rotating system of terms to conform with the provisions of this Act.

Organization of Commission

Sec. 4. The Commissioners shall within ten (10) days after the qualification of the membership, and annually thereafter during the month of January, elect a Chairman and a Vice-chairman.

Powers of Commission

Sec. 5. Two (2) members of the said Commission shall constitute a quorum to transact business. The Commission shall make such rules and regulations for the proper conduct of its business as it shall find necessary and expedient, provided that no rules or regulations shall ever be adopted which will permit the appointment or employment of any person without good moral character; or any person unfit mentally or physically; or any person incompetent to discharge the duties of such appointment or employment. Such rules and regulations shall prescribe what shall constitute cause for removal or suspension of Firemen or Policemen, but no rule for the removal or suspension of such employees shall be valid unless it involves one or more of the following grounds:

Conviction of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude; violations of the provisions of the charter of said city; acts of incompetency; neglect of duty; discourtesy by said employee to the public or to fellow employees while said employee is in line of duty; acts of said employees showing a lack of good moral character; drinking of intoxicants while on duty, or intoxication while off duty; or whose conduct was prejudicial to good order; refusal or neglect to pay just debts; absence without leave; shirking duty, or cowardice at fires; violation of any of the rules and regulations of the Fire Department or Police Department or of special orders, as applicable.

Investigations and Inspections

Sec. 5a. The Commission may make investigations concerning, and report upon all matters touching, the enforcement and effect of the provisions of this Act, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder; shall inspect all institutions, departments, offices, places, positions and employments affected by this Act at least once every year; and shall ascertain whether this Act and all such rules and regulations are being obeyed. Such investigations may be made by the Commission or by any Commissioner designated by the Commission for that purpose. In the course of such investigation the Commission or designated Commissioner shall have the power to administer oaths, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the producing by them of books, papers, documents, and accounts pertaining to the investigation, and also to cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the State to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the court of original and unlimited jurisdiction to civil suits of the United States; and the oaths administered hereunder and the subpoenas issued hereunder shall have the same force and effect as the oaths administered by a magistrate in his judicial capacity; and the failure upon the part of any person so subpoenaed to comply with the provisions of this Section shall be deemed a violation of this Act, and punishable as such.

Director of Civil Service

Sec. 6. There is hereby created the office of Director of Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service, which shall be filled by the appointment of the Commission of some person meeting the same requirements as hereinabove provided for members of the Commission. Said Director may be either a member of the Commission, another employee of said city, or some other person. The legislative body of such city shall determine what salary, if any, shall be paid to such Director. Said Director shall at all times, be subject to removal by the Commission. He shall serve as Secretary to the Commission, and shall perform all such work incidental to the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service as may be required of him by the Commission.

It is provided, however, that in those cities which have a duly and legally constituted Director of Civil Service, by whatever name he may be called, said Director shall be the Director of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service, but he shall administer civil service pertaining to Firemen and Policemen in accordance with this Law.

Office Space

Sec. 7. The City Council or governing body of any such city shall provide adequate and suitable office space for the conduct of the business of the Commission.

Classification of Firemen and Policemen; Educational Incentive Pay

Sec. 8. The Commission shall provide for the classification of all firemen and policemen. Such classification shall be provided by ordinance of the City Council, or legislative body. Said City Council, or legislative body, shall prescribe by ordinance the number of positions of each classification.

No classification now in existence, or that may be hereafter created in such cities, shall ever be filled except by examination held in accordance with the provisions of this law. All persons in each classification shall be paid the same salary and in addition thereto be paid any longevity or seniority or educational incentive pay that he may be entitled to. This shall not prevent the Head of such Department from designating some person from the next lower classification to fill a position in a higher classification temporarily, but any such person so designated by the Head of the Department shall be paid the base salary of such higher position plus his own longevity pay during the time he performs the duties thereof. The temporary performance of the duties of any such position by a person who has not been promoted in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall never be construed to promote such person. All vacancies shall be filled by permanent appointment from eligibility lists furnished by the Commission within ninety (90) days after such vacancy occurs.

Firemen and policemen shall be classified as above provided, and shall be under civil service protection except the Chief or Head of such Fire Department or Police Department, by whatever name he may be known.

Said Chiefs or Department Heads shall be appointed by the Chief Executive, and confirmed by the City Council or legislative body except in cities where the Department Heads are elected. In those cities having elective Fire and Police Commissioners the appointments for Chiefs and Heads of those Departments shall be made by the respective Fire or Police Commissioners in whose Department the vacancy exists, and such appointments shall be confirmed by the City Council or legislative body.

Said City Council or legislative body may authorize educational incentive pay in addition to regular pay for policemen and firemen within each classification, who have successfully completed courses in an accredited college or university, provided that such courses are applicable toward a degree in law enforcement-police science and include the core curriculum in law enforcement or are applicable toward a degree in fire science. An accredited college or university, as that term is used herein, shall mean any college or university accredited by the nationally recognized accrediting agency and the state board of education in the state wherein said college or university is located and approved or certified by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education as teaching the core curriculum or its equivalent or, in the case of fire science degree courses, approved or certified by the Texas Commission on Fire Protection, Personnel Standards, and Education. Core curriculum in law enforcement, as used herein, shall mean those courses in law enforcement education as approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System and the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.

Examination for Eligibility Lists

Sec. 9. The Commission shall make provisions for open, competitive and free examinations for persons making proper application and meeting the requirements as herein prescribed. All eligibility lists for applicants for original positions in the Fire and Police Departments shall be created only as a result of such examinations, and no appointments shall ever be made for any position in such Departments except as a result of such examination, which shall be based on the applicant's knowledge of and qualifications for fire fighting and work in the Fire Department, or for police work and work in the Police Department, as shown by competitive examinations in the presence of all applicants for such position, and shall provide for thorough inquiry into the applicant's general education and mental ability.

An applicant who has served in the armed forces of the United States and who received an honorable discharge shall receive five (5) points in addition to his competitive grades.

Appropriate physical examinations shall be required of all applicants for beginning or promotional positions, and the examinations shall be given by a physician appointed by the Commission and paid by such city; and in the event of rejection by such physician, the applicant may call for further examination by a board of three (3) physicians appointed by the Commission, but at the expense of the applicant, and whose findings shall be final. The age and physical requirements shall be set by the Commission in accordance with provisions of this law and shall be the same for all applicants.

No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Fire Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday unless the applicant has at least five (5) years prior experience as a peace officer. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his forty-fifth birthday.

All police officers and firemen coming under this Act must be able to intelligently read and write the English language.

When a Fireman or Policeman is given a physical examination to determine if he is physically able to continue his duties, the physician appointed by the Commission to make such examination shall submit a complete physical report to the Chief of the Fire Department if the person so examined is a Fireman, and to the Chief of the Police Department if the person so examined is a Policeman. The Chief of each respective Department shall be the sole judge as to whether or not such Fireman or Policeman is able to continue his duties.

Method of Filling Positions

Sec. 10. When a vacancy occurs in the Fire Department or Police Department, the Fire Chief or head of the Fire Department or the Police Chief or head of the Police Department shall request in writing from the Commission the names of suitable persons from the eligibility list, and the Director shall certify to the chief executive of said city, the names of three (3) persons having the highest grades on the eligibility list, and the said chief executive shall thereupon make an appointment from said three (3) names. The appointment shall be of the person with the highest grade, except there be a valid reason why such appointment should be given to the one making the second or third highest grade. Whenever such appointment is made of one not holding the highest grade, such reasons shall be reduced to writing and filed with the Commission, and there shall be set forth plainly and clearly good and sufficient reasons why said appointment was not made to the person holding the highest grade in the event the one holding the third highest grade shall receive the appointment. In the event the person holding the highest is not certified for the appointment, he shall be furnished with a copy of the reasons therefor as filed with the Commission, and in the event the one having the third highest grade is appointed a copy of such reasons shall also be furnished to the one holding the second highest grade. This Section shall be limited by the other provisions hereof relating to promotions.

Certification of Employees

Sec. 11. Whenever a person is certified and appointed in the said Fire Department or Police Department, the Director shall forward a record of the person so certified and appointed to the Fire Chief or head of the Department or Police Chief or head of that Department, forward a similar copy to the chief executive, and retain a copy in the civil service files. The record shall show: The date notice of examination was posted, date on which person certified took examination to be placed on eligibility list, name of person or persons conducting examination, relative position of person on eligibility list, date when person certified took physical examination, name of physician making examination, with information as to whether or not applicant was accepted or rejected, date on which request for filling such vacancy was made, date on which applicant was notified to report for duty and date on which his pay is to start. If the Director shall willfully fail to comply with any provisions of this Section, it shall be the duty of the Commission to forthwith remove him from office. The failure however, of the Director of Civil Service to comply with any of the provisions of this Section shall in no way impair the civil service standing of any employee.

Probationary and Full-fledged Firemen and Policemen

Sec. 12. A person who has received appointment to the Fire Department or Police Department hereunder, shall serve a probationary period of six (6) months. During such probationary period, it shall be the duty of the Fire Chief or head of the Fire Department or Police Chief or head of the Police Department to discharge all Firemen or Policemen whose appointments were not regular, or not made in compliance with the provisions of this Act, or of the rules or regulations of the Commission, and to eliminate* from the payrolls any such probationary employee. When Firemen or Policemen, however, have served the full probationary period, having been appointed in substantial compliance with Sections 9, 10, and 11 of this Act and not otherwise, they shall automatically become full-fledged civil service employees and shall have full civil service protection. All positions in the Fire Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, and in the Police Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, shall be classified by the Commission and the positions filled from the eligibility lists as provided herein.

All offices and positions in the Fire Department or Police Department shall be established by ordinance of the City Council or governing body, provided however that the failure of a City Council or governing body to establish a position by ordinance shall not result in the loss of Civil Service benefits under this Act by any person appointed to such position in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 9, 10 and 11 of this Act, or entitled to Civil Service Status under Section 24 of this Act.

Notice of Examinations

Sec. 13. Ten (10) days in advance of any entrance examination or examination for promotion, the Commission shall cause to be posted on a bulletin board located in the main lobby of the city hall, and the office of the Commission, and in plain view, a notice of such examination, and said notice shall show the position to be filled or for which examination is to be held, with date, time, and place thereof, and in case of examination for promotion, copies of such notice shall be furnished in quantities sufficient for posting in the various stations or subdepartments in which position is to be filled. No one under eighteen (18) years of age shall take any entrance examination, and appointees to the Police and Fire Department shall not have reached their thirty-sixth birthday for entrance into the Fire Department or Police Department. The results of each examination for promotion shall be posted on a bulletin board located in the main lobby of the city hall by the Commission within twenty-four (24) hours after such examination.

Promotions; Filling Vacancies

Sec. 14. The Commission shall make rules and regulations governing promotions and shall hold promotional examinations to provide eligibility lists for each classification in the Police and Fire Departments, which examinations shall be held substantially under the following requirements:

A. All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen and firemen who have held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below in salary of that classification for which the examination is to be held; except where there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

B. Each applicant shall be given one (1) point for each year of seniority in his Department, but never to exceed ten (10) points.

C. The Commission shall formulate proper procedure and rules for semi-annual efficiency reports and grade of each member of the Police or Fire Departments, which efficiency reports shall be made on each man by his immediate superior, and each efficiency report shall be based on thirty (30) points as the highest grade in efficiency. The immediate superior officer of each member, after completing such report, shall deliver the original and two (2) copies, with suggestions for improvement and reasons for grade, to his immediate superior officer, who shall correct and approve the same and forward one (1) copy to the member reported on, and forward the original and one (1) copy to the Head of the Department who shall retain one (1) copy and forward the original to the Commission for filing. Upon examination for promotion each applicant shall receive a credit of not to exceed thirty (30) points based on the average of his semi-annual efficiency reports filed with the Commission from the effective date of this Act, but not to exceed the last two (2) semi-annual efficiency reports prior to the time of examination.

D. (1) All applicants shall be given an identical examination in the presence of each other, which promotional examination shall be entirely in writing and no part of which shall be by oral interview, and all of the questions asked therein shall be prepared and composed in such a manner that the grading of the examination papers can be promptly completed immediately after the holding of the examination and shall be prepared so as to test the knowledge of the applicants concerning information and facts, and all of said questions shall be based upon material which has been made available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction and upon the applicant's efficiency. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

(2) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each policeman applicant shall be computed by adding such policeman applicant's points for seniority and his credit based on the average of his last two (2) semi-annual efficiency reports to his grade on such written examination. Grades on such written examinations shall be based upon a maximum grade of seventy (70) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each applicant's answers to such questions.

(3) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each fireman applicant shall be computed by adding the fireman applicant's points for seniority to his grade on the written examination. Grades on the written examination shall be based on a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each fireman applicant's answers to the questions. The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(4) Each applicant shall have the opportunity to examine his examination and his answers thereto together with the grading thereof and if dissatisfied shall, within five (5) days, appeal the same to the Commission for review in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) No person shall be eligible for promotion unless he has served in such Department for at least two (2) years immediately preceding the day of such promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years actual service in such Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain. Provided, however, that the requirement of two (2) years service in the Department immediately preceding the day of promotional examination shall not be applicable to those persons recalled on active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. Such persons shall be entitled to have time spent on active military duty considered as duty in the Department concerned. However, any person whose absence for active military duty exceeds twelve (12) months, shall be required to serve ninety (90) days upon returning to the Department before he shall become eligible to participate in a promotional examination, such period being considered essential for bringing him up to date on equipment and techniques.

(6) No person shall be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Fire or Police Department of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who has not been a bona fide fire fighter in a Fire Department or a bona fide law enforcement officer for five (5) years in the State of Texas.

E. Upon written request by the Heads of the Departments for a person to fill a vacancy in any classification, the Commission shall certify to the Head of the Department the three (3) names having the highest grades on such eligibility list for such classification for the vacancy requested to be filled, and the Head of such Department shall appoint the person having the highest grade, except where such Head of the Department shall have a valid reason for not appointing such highest name, and in such cases he shall, before such appointment, file his reasons in writing, for rejection of the higher name or names, with the Commission, which reasons shall be valid and subject to review by the Commission upon the application of such rejected person.

The name of each person on the eligibility lists shall be submitted to the Head of the Department three (3) times; and if passed over three (3) times with written reasons filed thereafter and not set aside by the Commission, he shall thereafter be dropped from the eligibility list. All eligibility lists shall remain in existence for one (1) year unless exhausted, and at the expiration of one (1) year they shall expire and new examinations be given.

F. The Commission shall proceed to hold examinations to create eligibility lists within ninety (90) days after a vacancy in any classification occurs, or new positions are created, unless an eligibility list is in existence.

G. In the event any new classification is established either by name or by increase of salary, the same shall be filled by competitive examination in accordance with this law.

Civil Service Rights of Department Head

Sec. 15. When the services of the Chief or head of the Fire Department or Police Department are terminated as such and he is removed as such Department head, he shall be reinstated in the Department and placed in a position no lower than the rank he held at time of appointment, and he shall retain all rights of seniority in the Department; provided, that should such Department head be charged with an offense in violation of civil service rules, and be dismissed from the public service, or be discharged from his position, he shall have the same rights and privileges of a hearing before the Commission, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as may classified employees, and if the Commission should find such charges to be untrue, or unfounded, said employee shall thereupon immediately be restored to the Department as above provided, and said employee shall enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunder according to seniority, and shall be paid his fully salary for the time of suspension.

Indefinite Suspensions

Sec. 16. The Chief or Head of the Fire Department or Police Department of the city government shall have the power to suspend indefinitely any officer or employee under his supervision or jurisdiction for the violation of civil service rules, but in every such case the officer making such order of suspension shall, within one hundred and twenty (120) hours thereafter, file a written statement with the Commission, giving the reasons for such suspension, and immediately furnish a copy thereof to the officer or employee affected by such act, said copy to be delivered in person to such suspended officer or employee by said department head. Said order of suspension shall inform the employee that he has ten (10) days after receipt of a copy thereof, within which to file a written appeal with the Commission. The Commission shall hold a hearing and render a decision in writing within thirty (30) days after it receives said notice of appeal. Said decision shall state whether or not the suspended officer or employee shall be permanently or temporarily dismissed from the Fire or Police Department or be restored to his former position or status in the classified service in the department. In the event that such suspended employee is restored to the position or class of service from which he was suspended, such employee shall receive full compensation at the rate of pay provided for the position or class of service from which he was suspended, for the actual time lost as a result of such suspension. All hearings of the Commission in case of such suspension shall be public.

The written statement above provided to be filed by the department head with the Commission, shall not only point out the civil service rule alleged to have been violated by the suspended employee, but shall contain the alleged acts of the employee which the department head contends are in violation of the civil service rules. It shall not be sufficient for the department head merely to refer to the provisions of the rules alleged to have been violated and in case the department head does not specifically point out the act or acts complained of on the part of such employee, it shall be the duty of the Commission promptly to reinstate him.

In any civil service hearing hereunder, the department head is hereby restricted to his original written statement and charges, which shall not be amended, and no act or acts may be complained of by said department head which did not happen or occur within six (6) months immediately preceding the date of suspension by the department head. No employee shall be suspended or dismissed by the Commission except for violation of the civil service rules, and except upon a finding by the Commission of the truth of the specific charges against such employee.

In the event the Commission orders that such suspended employee be restored to his position as above provided, it shall be the duty of the department head immediately to reinstate him as ordered and in event the department head fails to do so, the employee shall be entitled to his salary just as though he had been regularly reinstated.

In the event such department head wilfully refuses to obey the orders of reinstatement of the Commission, and such refusal persists for a period of ten (10) days, it shall be the duty of the chief executive or legislative body of the city to discharge such department head from his employment with the city.

The Commission may punish for contempt any department head who wilfully refuses to obey any lawful order of reinstatement of the Commission, and such Commission shall have the same authority herein to punish for contempt as has the Justice of the Peace.

Purpose of Law; Hearings

Sec. 16a. It is hereby declared that the purpose of the Firemen and Policemen's Civil Service Law is to secure to the cities affected thereby efficient Police and Fire Departments, composed of capable personnel, free from political influence, and with permanent tenure of employment as public servants. The members of the Civil Service Boards are hereby directed to administer the civil service law in accordance with this purpose; and when sitting as a board of appeals for a suspended or aggrieved employee, they are to conduct such hearing fairly and impartially under the provisions of this law, and are to render a fair and just decision, considering only the evidence presented before them in such hearing.

Procedure Before Commission

Sec. 17. In order for a Fireman or Policeman to appeal to the Commission, it shall only be necessary for him to file within ten (10) days with the Commission a statement denying the truth of the charge as made, or a statement taking exception to the legal sufficiency of such charges and asking for a hearing by the Commission. In all hearings, of every kind and character, the employee shall have the right to be represented by counsel, the witnesses may be placed under the rule. All such hearings shall be public. The Commission shall have the authority to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses.

Appeal to District Court

Sec. 18. In the event any Fireman or Policeman is dissatisfied with the decision of the Commission, he may, within ten (10) days after the rendition of such final decision, file a petition in the District Court, asking that his order of suspension or dismissal or demotion be set aside, that he be reinstated in the Fire Department or Police Department, and such case shall be tried de novo. Such cases shall be advanced on the docket of the District Court, and shall be given a preference setting over all other cases.

Demotions

Sec. 19. Whenever the head of the Fire Department or Police Department may desire the demotion to a lower rank of an officer or employee under his supervision or jurisdiction, such Department head may recommend in writing to the Commission that such employee be so demoted, giving his reasons therefor, and requesting that the Commission make such order or demotion, furnishing a true copy of such recommendation immediately, in person, to the employee to be affected by such demotion. Said Commission shall have the authority to refuse to grant said request for demotion. If, however, said Commission feels that probably¹ cause exists for said demotion, they shall give such employee ten (10) days advance written notice to appear before them at a time and place specified in said written notice to the employee, and said employee shall have the right to a full and complete public hearing upon such proposed demotion. The Commission shall not demote any employee without such hearing.

Disciplinary Suspensions

Sec. 20. The head of either the Fire or Police Department shall have the power to suspend any officer or employee under his jurisdiction or supervision for disciplinary purposes, for reasonable periods, not to exceed fifteen (15) days; provided, that in every such case, the department head shall file with the Commission within one hundred and twenty (120) hours, a written statement of action, and the Commission shall have the power to investigate and to determine whether just cause exists therefor. In the event the department head fails to file said statement with the Commission within one hundred and twenty (120) hours, the suspension shall be void and the employee shall be entitled to his full salary. The Commission shall have the power to reverse the decision of the department head and to instruct him immediately to restore such employee to his position. In the event such department head refuses to obey the order of the Commission, then the provisions with reference to salaries of the employees and to the discharge of the department head as well as the other provisions of Section 16, pertaining to such refusal of the department head, shall apply.

Reduction of Force; Reinstatement List

Sec. 21. In the event that any position in the Fire Department or Police Department is vacated or abolished by ordinance of the City Council, or legislative body, the employee holding such position shall be demoted to the position next below the rank of the position so vacated or abolished; provided that when any position or positions of equal rank may be abolished or vacated, the employee or employees with the least seniority in the said rank shall be the one or ones who are demoted.

In the event that it thereby becomes necessary to demote an employee or employees to the position next below the rank of the position so vacated or abolished, such employee or employees as are involuntarily demoted without charges having been filed against them for violation of civil service rules shall be placed on a position reinstatement list in order of their seniority. If any such position so vacated or abolished is filled or re-created within one (1) year, the position reinstatement list for such position shall be exhausted before any employee not on such list is promoted to such position. Promotions from the position reinstatement list shall be in the order of seniority.

In the event positions in the lowest classifications are abolished or vacated, and it thereby becomes necessary to dismiss employees from the Department, the employee with the least seniority shall be dismissed, but such employees as are involuntarily separated from the Department without charges having been filed against them for violation of civil service rules, shall be placed on the reinstatement list in order of their seniority. The reinstatement list shall be exhausted before appointments are made from the eligibility list. Appointments from reinstatement list shall be in the order of seniority. Those who shall have been on any such reinstatement list for a period of three (3) years shall be dropped from such list but shall be reinstated upon request from the Commission.

Political Activities; Leaves of Absence

Sec. 22. Employees in the Fire Department or Police Department shall not be permitted to take an active part in any political campaign of another for an elective position of the city if they are in uniform or on active duty. The term active part means making political speeches, passing out cards, or other political literature, writing letters, signing petitions, actively and openly soliciting votes and making public derogatory remarks about candidates for such elective positions.

Firemen and Policemen coming under the provisions of this Act are not required to contribute to any political fund or render any political service to any person or party whatsoever; and no person shall be removed, reduced in classification or salary, or otherwise prejudiced by refusing to do so; and any official of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who attempts the same shall be guilty of violating the provisions of this Act.

No fireman or policeman shall be refused reasonable leave of absence without pay, provided that a sufficient number of employees to carry out the normal functions of the Department shall be provided, for the purpose of attending any fire or police school, conventions, or meetings, the purpose of which is to secure more efficient departments and better working conditions for the personnel thereof, nor shall any rule ever be adopted affecting their constitutional right to appear before or petition the Legislature. Provided however, that no Civil Service Commission or governing body of any city shall further restrict the rights of employees of the Police and Fire Departments to engage in political activities except as herein expressly provided.

Military Leave of Absence

Sec. 22a. The Civil Service Commission on written application of a member of the fire or police department shall grant military leave of absence without pay to such member to enable him to enter military service of the United States in any of its branches, such leave of absence to continue during the period of active military service of such member. The Civil Service Commission shall grant such leave retroactively back to the commencement of the Korean War. Any such member receiving military leave of absence hereunder shall be entitled to be returned to the position in the department held by him at the time the leave of absence is granted, upon the termination of his active military service, provided he receives an Honorable Discharge and remains physically and mentally fit to discharge the duties of that position; and further provided he makes application for reinstatement within ninety (90) days after his discharge. Upon being returned to said position, such member shall receive full seniority credit for the time spent in the military service. During the absence from the department of any such member to whom military leave of absence shall have been granted by the Civil Service Commission the position in the department held by such member shall be filled in accordance with the other provisions of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Act subject to the person filling such position being replaced by the member to whom military leave of absence has been granted upon his return to active duty with the department. Any person so replaced and remaining with the department and by reason of such replacement being returned to a position lower in grade or compensation shall have a preferential right for subsequent appointment or promotion to the same or similar position of that from which he has been replaced over any eligibility list for such position, provided he remains physically and mentally fit to discharge the duties of such position.

Publishing of Rules; Mailing, Posting and Distribution

Sec. 23. The Commission shall cause to be published all rules and regulations which may be promulgated by it, and shall publish classification and seniority lists for each department, and such rules and regulations and lists shall be made available upon demand.

Whenever the Commission shall have adopted any such rules or regulations by a majority vote, and shall have caused same to be reduced to writing, typewriting or printing, such rules and such regulations shall thereupon be deemed to be sufficiently published and promulgated within the meaning of this Act and shall be valid and binding, upon the Commission doing or causing to be done the following:

(1) By mailing a copy of such rules and regulations to the Commissioner of Fire and Police, the Chief of the Police Department, and the Chief of the Fire Department.

(2) By posting all such rules and regulations at a conspicuous place for a period of seven (7) days in the Central Police Station and for the same period in the Central Fire Station.

(3) By mailing a copy of all such rules and regulations to each branch fire station.

The Director of Civil Service shall keep on hand copies of said rules and regulations for free distribution to members of the Fire and Police Departments requesting same, and said rules and regulations shall be kept available for inspection by any interested citizen.

No additional publication by way of insertion in a newspaper shall be required and no action need be taken by the City Council or governing body of any such city with reference to said rules or regulations; and in all cities coming under the provisions of this Act, where the Commission has heretofore adopted any such rules and regulations, and has caused same to be reduced to writing, typewriting or printing, and complied with all provisions of this Section, such rules and such regulations are hereby validated ab initio regardless of whether same have been published in a newspaper, or by posting, or otherwise, and regardless of whether any section has been taken with reference thereto by the City Council or governing body of such city.

Status of Present Employees

Sec. 24. Firemen or Policemen in the actual service of each city affected hereby, at the time of the final passage of this Act, and entitled to civil service classification, shall enjoy the status of civil service employees without having to take any competitive examinations for the position occupied at the time, provided such Firemen and Policemen have been in the service of said city for more than six (6) months.

Sec. 25. Repealed by Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1171, ch. 391, § 8.

Sick and Injury Leaves of Absence

Sec. 26. Permanent and temporary employees in the classified service shall be allowed a total of sick leave with full pay computed upon a basis of one and one-fourth ($1\frac{1}{4}$) full working days allowed for each full month employed in a calendar year, so as to total fifteen (15) working days to an employee's credit each twelve (12) months.

Employees shall be allowed to accumulate fifteen (15) working days of sick leave with pay in one (1) calendar year.

Sick leave with pay may be accumulated without limit and may be used while an employee is unable to work because of any bona fide illness. In the event that the said employee can conclusively prove that the illness was incurred while in performance of his duties, an extension of sick leave in case of exhaustion of time shall be granted.

In the event that a Fireman or Policeman for any reason leaves the classified service, he shall receive, in a lump sum payment, the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated sick leave, provided that such payment shall not be based upon more than ninety (90) working days of accumulated sick leave. Provided, that in order to facilitate the settlement of the accounts of deceased employees of the Fire or Police Departments, all unpaid compensation due such employee at the time of his death shall be paid to the person or persons surviving at the date of death, in the following order or precedence and such payments shall be a bar to recovery by any other person of amounts so paid.

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the employee in writing to receive such compensation filed with the Civil Service Commission prior to the employee's death;

Second, if there be no such beneficiary, to the widow or widower of such employee;

Third, if there be no such beneficiary or surviving spouse, to the child or children of such employee, and descendants of deceased children, by representation;

Fourth, if none of the above, to the parents of such employee, or the survivor of them;

Fifth, if there be none of the above, to the duly appointed legal representative of the estate of the deceased employee, or if there be none, to the person or persons determined to be entitled thereto under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Texas.

Provided that all such cities coming under the provisions of this Act shall provide injury leaves of absence with full pay for periods of time commensurate with the nature of injuries received while in line of duty for at least one (1) year. At the expiration of said one-year period, the City Council or governing body may extend such injury leave, at full or reduced pay, provided that in cities that have a Firemen's or Policemen's Pension Fund, that if said injured employee's salary should be reduced below sixty per cent (60%) of his regular monthly salary, said employee shall be retired on pension until able to return to duty.

Vacations; Accumulations of Vacation Leave

Sec. 26(a). All firemen and policemen in the classified service shall earn a minimum of fifteen (15) working days vacation with pay in each year. In computing the length of time during which a fireman or policeman may be absent from work for the vacation provided by this Section, only those calendar days during which the member would be required to work if he were not on vacation shall be counted as vacation days. Vacation leave may not be accumulated from year to year, except as approved by the governing body of the city.

Termination of Service; Accumulated Sick and Vacation Leave; Lump Sum Payment; Cities of 1,200,000 or More

Sec. 26(b). (a) In any city in this State having a population of one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, a fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service for any reason shall receive in a lump sum payment the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated sick leave, provided that the payment shall be based upon not more than ninety (90) working days of accumulated sick leave plus one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of all remaining working days of accumulated sick leave in excess of the ninety (90). Any fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service or loses his life as the result of a line of duty injury or illness or the beneficiaries of such fireman or policeman shall be paid the full amount of his salary for the total number of his working days of accumulated sick leave.

(b) In any city in this State having a population of one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, a fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service for any reason shall receive in a lump sum payment the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated vacation leave, provided that such payment shall be based upon not more than sixty (60) working days of accumulated vacation leave. Any fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service or loses his life as the result of a line of duty injury or illness or the beneficiaries of such fireman or policeman shall be paid the full amount of his salary for the total number of his working days of accumulated vacation leave.

Firemen or Policemen Prohibited from Striking

Sec. 27. It shall be unlawful from and after the passage of this Act for any Fireman or Policeman, coming under the provisions of this Act, to engage in any strike against the agency of the government by which they are employed.

Firemen or Policemen, coming under the provisions of this Act, who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, after conviction, be fined not less than Ten Dollars ($10) or more than One Hundred Dollars ($100), or by confinement in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

And in addition to such fine and imprisonment, any Fireman or Policeman who has been convicted of the violation of the provisions of this Section of this Act shall thereby be automatically released and discharged from such Police or Fire Department and shall thereafter be ineligible to receive any pay or compensation out of any public funds provided for the support of such Police or Fire Department.

Adoption of Act by Vote or Otherwise

Sec. 27(a). Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act as amended by this House Bill No. 79, passed at the Fifty-fifth Regular Session of the Legislature, shall not apply to any city unless such city has already adopted and has in effect the provisions of this Act before the effective date of this amending Act, or unless first determined at an election at which the adoption or rejection of this Act shall be submitted. Upon receiving a petition signed by qualified voters in said city in number not less than ten per cent (10%) of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election, the governing body of said city shall call an election within sixty (60) days after said petition has been filed with governing body. If at said election a majority of the votes cast shall favor the adoption of this Act, said governing body shall put such Act into effect within thirty (30) days after the beginning of the first fiscal year of said city after said election. The question shall be submitted for the vote of the qualified electors as follows:

FOR the adoption of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Act.

AGAINST the adoption of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Act.

When any election has been held in a city, at which election the adoption or rejection of Chapter 325, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, (Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, Article 1269m) has been submitted, whether such election has been held prior to the effective date of this amending Act or subsequent thereto, a petition for another such election shall not be filed for at least one (1) year subsequent to the election so held; and said petition for any such election after the first election shall be signed by qualified voters in said city in number not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election; and any such election after the first election shall be held at the next general municipal election to be held in such city after the filing of such petition.

Repeal of Provisions in City by Vote

Sec. 27(b). In any city in which the provisions of this Act have been in effect for a period of one (1) year, if a petition of ten per cent (10%) of the qualified voters of such city shall be presented to the governing body of such city to call an election for the repeal of the provisions of this Act, then and in that event, the governing body of such city shall call an election of the qualified voters to determine if they desire the repeal of such provisions. Should a majority of the qualified voters so vote to repeal the provisions of this Act, then the provisions shall become null and void as to such city.

Repeal and Saving Clause

Sec. 28. This Act shall supersede all other civil service pertaining to Firemen and Policemen in the cities covered hereby. If any section, paragraph, portion, sentence, line, phrase, clause, or word of this Act should be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, then such unconstitutionality or invalidity of any other section, paragraph, portion, sentence, line, phrase, or word hereof, and it is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that each and all of the said portions as above specified that are not held to be unconstitutional or invalid, shall be and remain in full force and effect, just as though said unconstitutional or invalid portions, if any, were eliminated from the text of this Act.

Emergency Appointment of Persons Over 35

Sec. 28(a). When a city affected by the provisions of this Act is unable to recruit qualified employees in the Fire and Police Departments because of the maximum age limit provided by this Act, and the governing body finds that such condition constitutes an emergency, then the Civil Service Commission of said city shall recommend to the governing body such additional rules and regulations governing the temporary employment of persons in the Fire and Police Departments who are over the age of thirty-five (35) years. Provided, however, that persons employed under the provisions of such rules shall:

- A. Be designated as "temporary" employees.
- B. Be ineligible for pension benefits.
- C. Be ineligible for appointment or promotion when one or more permanent applicants or employees are available.
- D. Be ineligible to become full-fledged Civil Service Employees.
- E. Be terminated before any permanent Civil Service Employee is terminated pursuant to Section 21 of this Act.

† Savings Clause

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1158, ch. 546, codified as article 4413 (29aa), provides in section 8 that nothing contained in the Act should be deemed to limit the powers and duties of municipal or county governments, nor to affect the provisions of this article. See art. 4413 (29aa), § 8.

Art. 1269n. Political Campaigns; Coercing Policeman or Fireman

(a) No person may coerce a policeman or a fireman to participate or to refrain from participating in a political campaign.

(b) Any person who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $2,000 or by confinement in the county jail for not more than two years, or both.

Art. 1269o. Two Platoon Fire System and Hours of Labor in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. In all cities containing more than One Hundred Thousand (100,000) inhabitants and less than One Hundred Twenty Thousand (120,000) inhabitants, in this State, according to the last preceding Federal Census, in counties containing more than Nine Hundred (900) square miles, and in all cities of Two Hundred Sixty-five Thousand (265,000) inhabitants, or more, in this State, according to the last preceding Federal Census, in counties containing more than Fifteen Hundred (1500) square miles, which maintain an organized, paid fire department, there shall be established and maintained two platoon fire system, and no employee of such department shall be compelled to be on duty more than ten (10) consecutive hours during the day time, nor more than fourteen (14) consecutive hours during the night time; provided, that in no event shall employees of such fire departments be required to be on duty more than fourteen (14) hours in any period of twenty-four (24) consecutive hours, except as provided in Section 2 of this Act.

Sec. 2. The head or chief officer of such fire department or companies in such cities shall so arrange the working hours of the employees of such fire department or companies so that each employee shall work, as near as practicable, an equal number of hours per month; provided the two platoons may be so arranged as to work twenty-four (24) hours each on duty and twenty-four (24) hours off duty; provided, that the head or chief officer of such department, his aids or assistants may, in their discretion, in cases of emergency or great conflagrations require such employee, or employees to continue on duty during such conflagration or emergency, for a greater period than specified in Section 1 hereof.

Sec. 3. That any chief of such fire department or companies or any other officer or person who violates or causes to be violated any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than ten and No/100

($10.00) Dollars, nor more than One Hundred and No/100 ($100.00) Dollars; each employee required or permitted to work in violation of the provisions hereof and each and every day of such violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Art. 1269p. Hours of Labor and Vacations of Firemen and Policemen in Certain Cities

Cities Over 25,000; Hours of Labor

Sec. 1. No member of any fire department or police department in any city of more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants shall be required to be on duty more than six (6) days in any one week.

Exception for Emergencies

Sec. 2. The preceding subdivision shall not apply to cases of emergency.

Cities Over 30,000; Vacations

Sec. 3. Each member of any such departments in any city of more than thirty thousand (30,000) inhabitants shall be allowed fifteen (15) days vacation in each year with pay; provided that the provisions of this Section of this Act shall not be applied to any member of any such department in any city of more than thirty thousand (30,000) inhabitants unless such member shall have been regularly employed in such department or departments for a period of at least one (1) year.

Number of Vacation Days and Holidays

Sec. 3a. Firemen and Policemen shall have the same number of vacation days and the same number of holidays, or days in lieu thereof, that is granted to other municipal employees.

Federal Census

Sec. 4. Each preceding Federal Census shall determine the population.

Designation of Vacation Days and Holidays

Sec. 5. The city officials having supervision of the fire department and police department shall designate the days of the week upon which each such member shall not be required to be on duty, and the days upon which each such member shall be allowed to be on vacation.

Cities Over 10,000; Hours of Labor

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants but not more than sixty thousand (60,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require or permit any fireman to work more than seventy-two (72) hours during any one calendar week. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than sixty thousand (60,000) inhabitants but not more than one hundred twenty-five thousand (125,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require or permit any fireman to work more than an average, during a calendar year, of sixty-three (63) hours per week. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than one hundred twenty-five thousand (125,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require or permit any fireman to work more than an average, during a calendar year, of sixty (60) hours per week.

Provided further, that in any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the number of hours in the work week of members of the fire department whose duties do not include fighting fires, including but not limited to mechanics, clerks, investigators, inspectors, fire marshals, fire alarm dispatchers and maintenance men, shall not exceed the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen.

Provided further, that in computing the hours in the work week of firemen subject to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, there shall be included and counted any and all hours during which such firemen are required to remain available for immediate call to duty by continuously remaining in contact with a fire department office by telephone or by radio.

Provided, however, that in any such city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, in the event of an emergency, firemen may be required to work more than the maximum number of hours herein provided; and in such event firemen working more than the maximum hours herein provided shall be compensated for such overtime at a rate equal to one and one-half times the compensation paid to such firemen for regular hours.

Cities Over 10,000; Overtime

Sec. 6A. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require or permit any policeman to work more hours during any calendar week than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen.

Provided, however, that in any such city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, in the event of an emergency, policemen may be required to work more than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of other city employees; and in the event policemen are ordered to work a greater number of hours than the number of hours in such normal work week of other city employees, such policemen shall be compensated for any such overtime at a rate equal to one and one-half times the compensation paid to such policemen for regular hours.

Effectiveness of Act

Sec. 6B. The governing body of each city which comes under the provisions of this Act¹ shall put into effect the provisions hereof, without referendum or election, on or before the first day of the next fiscal year of such city after the effective date of this Act.

Working Extra Hours

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed to prevent firemen and policemen from working extra hours when exchanging hours of work with each other with the consent of the department head.

Penalty

Sec. 8. The city official having charge of the fire department or police department in any such city who violates any provision of this Act shall be fined not less than Ten ($10.00) Dollars nor more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, and each day on which said city official shall cause or permit any Section of this Act to be violated shall constitute and be a separate offense.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Art. 1269q. Compensation of Firemen and Policemen in Certain Cities

Sec. 1. It is hereby provided that in any city of this State of not less than one hundred seventy-five thousand (175,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any succeeding Federal Census, each member of the Fire Department and of the Police Department shall receive and be paid the sum of not less than Two Hundred Twenty ($220.00) Dollars per month, and the additional sum of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($3.50) per month commencing January 1, 1974, which shall be increased to Four ($4.00) Dollars per month commencing January 1, 1975, for each year of service in such Police or Fire Department up to and including twenty-five (25) years of service in such department, as a minimum wage for the services so rendered. This longevity or service pay shall be paid in addition to all other moneys paid for services rendered in said department.

It is provided further, that in all cities in this State with inhabitants thereof between ten thousand (10,000) and one hundred seventy-five thousand (175,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, each member of the Fire Department and of the Police Department shall receive and be paid the following sums per month according to the population of each such city of ten thousand (10,000) or more and up to forty thousand and one (40,001), such salary shall be One Hundred Sixty-five ($165.00) Dollars per month minimum; in all such cities with inhabitants of forty thousand and one (40,001) to one hundred thousand and one (100,001) inhabitants, such minimum salaries shall be One Hundred Ninety-five ($195.00) Dollars per month; and in all such cities from one hundred thousand and one (100,001) to one hundred seventy-five thousand (175,000) inhabitants, such minimum salaries shall be Two Hundred Ten ($210.00) Dollars per month; and in all such cities the additional sum of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($3.50) per month commencing January 1, 1974, which shall be increased to Four Dollars ($4.00) per month commencing January 1, 1975, for each year of service in such Fire or Police Department up to and including twenty-five (25) years of service in such department, as a minimum wage for the services so rendered. This longevity or service pay shall be paid in addition to all other moneys paid for services rendered in said departments.

Provided, however, that in all cities in this State having a population in excess of ten thousand (10,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any succeeding Federal Census, the minimum salary of each member of the Fire Department and of the Police Department may be increased to not less than the minimum amount stated in a petition signed by qualified voters in said city in number not less than twenty-five (25%) per cent of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election. Said petition shall state the amount of the proposed minimum salary aforesaid, and when it is filed with the governing body of a city said governing body shall call an election within ninety (90) days after said petition has been so filed to determine whether said proposed minimum salary shall be adopted. If at said election a majority of the votes cast shall favor the adoption of said proposed minimum salary, said governing body shall put such salary into effect on or before the first day of the next fiscal year of said city. No other issue shall be joined on the same ballot with the proposition submitted at the election as herein provided. The question shall be submitted for the vote of the qualified electors and the ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The proposed minimum salary of $_____ per month for Firemen and Policemen." The requested salary set forth in the petition mentioned above shall be inserted in lieu of the blank space in the proposition. When an election has been held in a city pursuant to the provisions of this Act, a petition for another election in said city shall not be filed for at least one year subsequent to the election so held. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the city concerned from adopting under the provisions of this Act without an election the minimum salary set forth in the petition filed with the governing body of said city.

Sec. 2. Any city official, or officials, who have charge of the Fire Department or Police Department, or who are responsible for the fixing of the wages herein provided in any such city, who violate any provisions of this Act, shall be fined not less than Ten ($10.00) Dollars nor more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars; and each day on which such city official, or officials, shall cause or permit any violation of this Act shall constitute and be a separate offense.

Sec. 3. Provided further, that all municipal governments affected by this Act, shall, within thirty (30) days following enactment, set up classifications in Police and Fire Departments providing for duties under such classifications and specifying salary for each classification; and thereafter any member of any Fire and Police Department who is called upon to perform the duties under any such classification shall be paid the salary provided therefor for such period as he performs such duties.

Art. 1269r. Compensation of Firemen and Policemen for Court Appearances

Sec. 1. (a) A municipality shall pay firemen and policemen for appearances, made on their time off, as witnesses in criminal suits or in suits in which the municipality or other political subdivision or governmental agency is a party in interest.

(b) Payment for court appearances made on time off shall be at the fireman's or policeman's regular rate of pay and shall be limited to required appearances made by the fireman or policeman in his capacity as a fireman or policeman.

Sec. 2. Payment made under the provisions of this Act may be taxed as court costs in civil suits in which a fireman or policeman appears as a witness.

Sec. 3. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to reduce or prohibit compensation paid in excess of the regular rate of pay.

1. COMMISSION MERCHANTS

Art. 1274. "Commission Merchant" Defined

Any person, firm or corporation pursuing, or who shall pursue the business of selling produce, or goods, wares or merchandise of any kind upon consignment for a commission, shall be held to be a commission merchant.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1275. Bond of Every commission merchant shall make bond in the sum of three thousand dollars, with a solvent surety company doing business in this State or with two or more good and sufficient sureties, who are residents of this State, and who shall make affidavit that they in their own right, over and above all exemptions, are worth the full amount of the bond they sign as sureties, payable to the county judge of each county in which such commission merchant maintains an office, and to the successors in office of such county judge as trustees for all persons who may become entitled to the benefits of this subdivision; conditioned that such commission merchant will faithfully and truly perform all agreements and contracts entered into with consignors for said produce, goods, wares or merchandise, will promptly receive and sell such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, and will on receipt of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise class the same, and if such class as made by such commission merchant is not as high as that made and sent to him by the consignor, he (the commission merchant) will immediately notify the consignor of such fact and of the class made by him; and, as soon as sold will send to the consignor a full and complete account of sales of same, giving an itemized account thereof, and the price received, the dates of sales, and shall, within five days after said produce, goods, wares or merchandise are sold, send to the consignor the full amount received for the same, less the commission due said commission merchant under the contract of assignment, such bond to be approved by the county judge of the county in which said commission merchant maintains an office, and by said judge filed for record in the county clerk's office as chattel mortgages are now authorized to be filed by law.

Repeal

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2721, ch. 886, effective June 14, 1971, relating to the micro-filming of records by counties, and classified as article 1941(a), provided in section 2 that all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, to the extent of conflict only, including but not limited to this article.

Art. 1275a. Penalty

Whoever shall pursue the business of selling produce or goods, wares or merchandise of any kind upon consignment for commission, without first making and filing the bond required by the laws regulating commission merchants, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 1276. Suits on Bond

Such bond shall be made and filed for record in each county in which such commission merchant maintains an office, and in which county suits may be maintained upon such bond by any person claiming to have been damaged by a breach of its condition. Said bond shall not become void upon the first recovery thereon, but may be sued upon until the amount thereof is exhausted. When said bond by suits of recovery has been reduced to the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, said commission merchant shall be required to enter into a new bond in the sum of three thousand dollars as required in the first instance. Said new bond shall be liable for all future contracts, agreements or consignments thereafter entered into by said commission merchant and consignor of such produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise, and upon failure of said commission merchant to give said new bond as above required, he shall cease doing business in this State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1277. Unlawful Interest in Sales

No factor or commission merchant to whom any cotton, sugar, produce or merchandise of any kind is consigned for sale on commission or otherwise, shall purchase the same or reserve any interest whatever therein upon the sale of same, either directly or indirectly, in his own name or in the name or through the instrumentality of another, for his own benefit or for the benefit of another, or as a factor or agent of any other person, without express written license from the owner or consignor of such cotton, sugar, produce or other merchandise, or some person authorized by him, under a penalty of forfeiture of one-half the value of cotton, sugar, produce or other merchandise so purchased or sold, to be recovered by the owner of the same by suit in the county where the sale took place, or wherein the offending party resides.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1278. Account of Sales

Upon the shipment of any produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise, consigned for sale to any factor or commission merchant, it is hereby made his duty that such commission merchant will faithfully and truly perform all agreements and contracts entered into with consignors for said produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares and merchandise; that said commission merchant will promptly receive and sell such produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise, in accord with the contract of consignment and will on receipt of such produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise class the same, and if such class as made by such commission merchant is not as high as that made and sent to him by the consignor, he, (the commission merchant) will immediately notify the consignor of such fact and of the class made by him and as soon as sold will send to the consignor a full and complete account of sales of same, giving an itemized account thereof, and the price received, the dates of sales, and shall, within five days after said produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise are sold, send to the consignor the full amount received for the same, less the commission due said commission merchant under the contract of consignment; and if cotton, sugar, or other produce sold by weight, the weight of same in gross, and the tare allowed, and be accompanied by the certificate or memorandum, signed by the weigher who weighed the same, of the weight and condition as required by law, and upon failure of said commission merchant to comply with any one of the provisions of this article, he and the bondsmen required by this subdivision shall be liable for all actual damages incurred by the consignor or by reason thereof, and in addition thereto a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by the consignor in a suit filed for said actual damages and for said penalty.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1279. False Charges

No commission merchant or factor shall be permitted to make any charge for mending or patching, or roping bales, or for cooperage or repairing bales, or for labor, or hauling, or cartage, or for storage, marking or weighing, unless the same has been actually done; and, in case of any such charge, a bill of particulars shall be rendered notwithstanding any usage or custom to the contrary to make such charge, by rate or average; and the person offending against any provision of this article shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit by the owner or consignor.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1280. Duties of Shipper

Each consignor of produce, goods, wares, or merchandise in this State consigning produce, goods, wares, or merchandise to commission merchants to be sold on commission shall, when he consigns such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, send to such commission merchant a written statement in which such consignor shall state the amount, the quality or class, the condition of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise so consigned, and if said merchant, on receipt of same, fails to promptly notify said consignor of any objection he may have to the class, quality or quantity so consigned, then such statement shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that said consignment of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise is truly stated in said statement by the consignor to said commission merchant. When such produce, goods, wares or merchandise is received by said commission merchant, such merchant shall give to the agent of the railroad or other carrier so delivering such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, a receipt for same which receipt shall state the quality, quantity, grade and condition of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, and said agent of the railroad or other carrier shall keep such receipt on file in his office subject to the inspection of any one interested in such shipment, for six months from the date of such receipt.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

2. LIVE STOCK COMMISSION MERCHANTS

Art. 1281. Live Stock Commission Merchant

Any person, firm or corporation, who shall pursue the business of selling live stock, cattle, cows, calves, bulls, steers, hogs, sheep, goats, mules, horses, jacks, and jennets or any of them, upon consignment for a commission or other charges, or who shall solicit consignment of live stock as a commission merchant or agent, or who shall advertise or hold himself out to be such, shall be deemed and held to be a live stock commission merchant within the meaning of this subdivision and subject to all the provisions and penalties herein prescribed. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1281a. Live Stock Commission Merchant

Any person, firm or corporation who pursues the business of selling live stock, cattle, cows, calves, bulls, steers, hogs, sheep, goats, mules, horses, jacks and jennets, or any of them, upon consignment for a commission or other charges, or who solicits consignment of live stock as a commission merchant or agent, or who advertises or holds himself out to be such shall be held to be a live stock commission merchant within the meaning of this chapter. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 1282. To Make Bond

All live stock commission merchants before they shall engage in said business within this State, are hereby required to make bond in an amount hereinafter specified, signed by a solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State and having a paid up capital of not less than five hundred thousand dollars, which said bond shall be payable to the county judge of the county in which such commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, and to his successors in office, as trustee for all persons who may become entitled to the benefits of this law, such bond to be filed by such county judge in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, and in which county suits shall be instituted for any illegal breaches of said bond.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1282a. Failure to Give Bond

Whoever advertises or solicits business as a live stock commission merchant or in any way pursues the occupation of a live stock commission merchant without first having made the bond required by the laws of this State, or fails to keep and maintain said bond in full force and effect as required by such laws, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than two years, or be fined not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars or be both so fined and imprisoned.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 1283. Conditions and Amount of Bond

Said bond shall be conditioned that such livestock commission merchant will faithfully obey and carry out all the terms and provisions of this law, and will faithfully and truly perform all agreements entered into with all the consignors, owners or those holding valid liens on said live stock with respect to receiving, handling, selling and making remittances and payments of the net proceeds thereof to the said named parties, or to the person, firm or corporation to whom said consignors, owners or valid lien holders shall direct such payments to be made; and said bond shall further provide and shall be conditioned that such commission merchant shall within forty-eight hours of the sale of live stock so consigned, excluding the day of sale, Sunday, and holidays, remit the net proceeds thereof to the parties rightfully entitled to receive the same, or to such person, firm or corporation to whom such parties shall direct the payment to be made, or shall within forty-eight hours of the sale of such live stock for said parties at interest deposit to the credit of such parties their respective interest in the net proceeds thereof in some State or National Bank in the city or town where such livestock commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, if requested by any or all of the said parties at interest to do so. The amount of such bond shall be not less than the nearest multiple of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars above the average amount of sales and/or purchases of live stock by such livestock commission merchants during two business days, based on the total number of the business days, and the total amount of such sales and/or purchases in the preceding twelve (12) months, or in such part thereof in which such livestock commission merchant did business, if any. For the purpose of this computation, three hundred eight (308) shall be deemed the number of business days in a year. In any case, however, the amount of bond shall be not less than Two Thousand ($2,000) Dollars; and when the sales and/or purchases, calculated as hereinbefore specified, exceed Fifty Thousand ($50,000) Dollars as to any particular livestock commission merchant, the amount of the bond need not exceed Fifty Thousand ($50,000) Dollars plus ten (10%) per cent of the excess. Any person, firm or corporation who has not heretofore engaged in the business of a livestock commission merchant shall give bond in an amount adequate to cover the probable volume of business to be done by such merchant, the amount of bond to be fixed by the County Judge of the county in which such livestock commission merchant has his principal office or place of business. After such livestock commission merchant, his successors or assigns, has engaged in such business for a period of twelve (12) months, then, the amount of such bond shall be determined as otherwise provided in this Act. Whenever in the judgment of the County Judge of the county in which such commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, the condition of the business of any such livestock commission merchant is such as to render his bond inadequate, such bond, upon notice, shall be increased to an adequate amount as determined by such County Judge. In case two or more livestock commission merchants are the employees or agents solely of the same principal, they may be covered by a single bond in an amount based on their combined purchases and/or sales determined in accordance with this Act. In any other case, two or more live-stock commission merchants may be covered by a single bond; provided, however, that the amount of such combined bond shall be not less than the aggregate sum of individual bonds, determined in accordance with this Act. All surety bonds, or their equivalents, shall contain a provision requiring that at least ten (10) days' prior notice in writing be given to the County Judge of the county in which such commission merchant has his principal office or place of business by the party terminating such bonds or equivalents, in order to effect their termination.

Art. 1284. Duty of Court, Judge

The county judge shall carefully scrutinize said bond when tendered and if satisfied therewith approve said bond. No bond shall be approved by him which is not in the amount prescribed by this law, and conditioned as required by this law and executed by such surety company. The data as to such surety company shall be first duly certified to the said county judge by a certificate to that effect issued by the Commissioner of Insurance.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1285. Bond Recorded

Said bond together with the sworn statement made to the county judge by the applicant seeking the approval of the same and setting forth the average daily sales of such applicant for the twelve months period next prior thereto, shall, as soon as practicable after the approval of said bond by the county judge, be filed for record in the county clerk's office in the county where the principal business of said commission merchant is to be carried on, and shall be recorded at length and properly indexed in a well-bound book kept for that purpose, to be labeled "Bonds of Live Stock Commission Merchants" and shall also file and securely retain in the archives of his office said original bond and sworn statement. Said clerk shall immediately upon the recording and indexing of said bond and statement furnish to the person, firm or corporation filing the same a correctly certified copy thereof. It is also made the duty of said commission merchant to procure said certified copy from said clerk at the earliest practicable date after the filing and recording thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Repeal

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2721, ch. 886, effective June 14, 1971, relating to the microfilming of records by counties, and classified as article 1941(a), provided in section 2 that all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, to the extent of conflict only, including but not limited to this article.

Art. 1285a. To Post Copy of Bond

Any live stock commission merchant who shall fail at any time to keep conspicuously posted in the main office of his principal place of business a certified copy of the bond furnished to him by the county clerk under the law shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. Each day said copy shall not be so posted is a separate offense.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 1286. Deposit of Proceeds

If the proceeds of any live stock sold by said live stock commission merchant shall become involved in a dispute between contending claimants or if said live stock commission merchant is notified that other parties are asserting rights to said proceeds, or any part thereof, in opposition to the claim of those shipping said stock to said commission merchant, said live stock commission merchant shall deposit the amount of said net proceeds involved in such contention in some State or National bank in the town or city where said live stock commission merchant has his principal place of business, and promptly notify all interested parties of his said action in the premises; whereupon no further liability as to such funds so deposited shall accrue or continue as to said live stock commission merchant, either personally or on his bond.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1286a. Failure to Remit Promptly

Any person engaged in the business of a live stock commission merchant, as defined by this chapter, who shall intentionally fail and refuse, within forty-eight hours after the sale of any live stock consigned to him to remit the net proceeds thereof to the person rightfully entitled to receive the same, or to such person, firm or corporation as said party rightfully entitled thereto shall direct, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than one nor more than twelve months or both.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 1286b. Appropriating Proceeds

Any person engaged in the business of live stock commission merchant who shall appropriate or use for any purpose other than remitting to such person, firm or corporation entitled to receive the same, any portion of the net proceeds of live stock so sold by such live stock commission merchant, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 1287. Suit on Bond

The bond provided for by this law may be sued upon and recovery had thereon by any persons claiming to have been damaged by a breach of its conditions. Said bond shall not become void upon the first recovery thereon but may be sued upon until the amount thereof is exhausted. Upon a reduction of said bond by recoveries thereon to the extent of one-half thereof said live stock commission merchant shall be required forthwith to make and file a new bond conditioned as in the third article of this subdivision so as to restore said bond to the required amount. If it shall come to the knowledge of the county judge that the surety company making such bond has become insolvent or is not financially able to make the said bond ample and sufficient in the opinion of said judge, then said officer shall notify said commission merchant to execute a new bond as herein provided for; whereupon it shall be the duty of such commission merchant to make a new bond the same as originally required by the provisions of this law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1287a. Livestock Auction Commission Merchants

Definition; Application

Sec. 1. Any person, firm, or corporation pursuing, or who shall pursue the business of selling livestock, cattle, cows, calves, bulls, steers, hogs, sheep, goats, mules, horses, jacks, and jennies, or any of them, at auction, upon consignment for a commission or other charges, or who shall solicit consignments of livestock as a commission merchant or agent, or who shall advertise or hold himself out to be such shall be deemed and held to be a livestock auction commission merchant within the meaning of this subdivision and subject to all the provisions and penalties herein prescribed.

Provided, however, that in all counties in this State containing a population of not less than one hundred and ninety thousand (190,000) nor more than two hundred thousand (200,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, the limitations and conditions imposed by this Act shall not apply to any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons pursuing the business of selling mules, horses, jacks, and jennies.

Bond Required

Sec. 2. All such livestock auction commission merchants, before they shall engage in said business within the State, are hereby required to make bond in an amount specified hereinafter, signed by a solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State, and having a paid up capital of not less than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000), which said bond shall be payable to the County Judge of the county in which such commission auction merchant has his principal office or place of business, and to his successor in office, as trustee for all persons who may become entitled to the benefit of this Law, such bond to be filed by said County Judge in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such commission auction merchant has his principal office or place of business, and in which suit shall be instituted for any illegal breaches of said bond.

Conditions, Amount and Termination of Bond; Reports

Sec. 3. Said bond shall be conditioned that such livestock commission merchant shall faithfully obey and carry out all the terms and provisions of this law, and will faithfully and truly perform all agreements entered into with all the consignors, owners, or those holding valid lien on said livestock with respect to receiving, handling, selling, and making remittances and payments of the net proceeds thereof to said named parties, or to the person, firm, or corporation to whom said consignor, owner, or valid lien holder shall direct such payments to be made; and said bond shall further provide and shall be conditioned that said auction commission merchant shall, within forty-eight (48) hours of a sale of the livestock so consigned, including the day of sale, Sundays, and holidays, remit the net proceeds thereof to the parties rightfully entitled to receive the same, or to such person, firm, or corporation to whom such parties shall direct the payment to be made, or shall, within forty-eight (48) hours of a sale of such livestock for said parties at interest, deposit to the credit of such parties their respective interests in the net proceeds thereof in some State or National Bank in the city, town, or county where such livestock auction commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, if requested by any or all of said parties at interest to do so. The amount of such bond shall be not less than the nearest multiple of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) above the average amount of sales and/or purchases of livestock by such livestock auction commission merchant, during two (2) business days, based on the total number of the business days, and the total amount of such sales and/or purchases in the preceding twelve (12) months, or in such part thereof in which such livestock auction commission merchant did business, if any. For the purpose of this computation, three hundred and eight (308) shall be deemed the number of business days in a year, and all livestock auction commission merchants may in making this computation use three hundred and eight (308) days as the number of business days in a year, regardless of whether livestock auction sales are actually conducted on all of the three hundred and eight (308) days aforesaid. In any case, however, the amount of bond shall be not less than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000); and when the sales and/or purchases, calculated as hereinbefore specified, exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) as to any particular livestock auction commission merchant, the amount of the bond need not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) plus ten per cent (10%) of the excess. Any person, firm or corporation who has not heretofore engaged in the business of a livestock auction commission merchant shall give bond in an amount adequate to cover the probable volume of business to be done by such merchant, the amount of bond to be fixed by the County Judge of the county in which such livestock auction commission merchant has his principal office or place of business. After such livestock auction commission merchant, his successors or assigns, has engaged in such business for a period of twelve (12) months, then, the amount of such bond shall be determined as otherwise provided in this Act. In case two (2) or more livestock auction commission merchants are the employees or agents solely of the same principal, they may be covered by a single bond in an amount based on their combined purchases and/or sales determined in accordance with this Act. In any other case, two (2) or more livestock auction commission merchants may be covered by a single bond; provided, however, that the amount of such combined bond shall be not less than the aggregate sum of individual bonds, determined in accordance with this Act. Said bond shall further provide that the person, firm, or corporation executing the same shall keep a true and accurate record of the description of all such livestock so sold at auction, which record shall be subject to be inspected by any citizen of Texas, which shall give a description of such livestock by color, probable age, and the marks and brands, if any there be, and the location of said marks and brands. Said livestock auction commission merchant executing such bond shall make quarterly report of such livestock so sold, giving the name of the consignor or person purporting to own the same, together with his address and the name and address of the person or persons purchasing the same. All such surety bonds shall contain a provision requiring that at least ten (10) days prior notice in writing be given to the County Judge of the county in which such commission auction merchant has his principal office or place of business by the party terminating such bond, in order to effect its termination.

Exception of Commission or Company Subject to Federal Regulation

Sec. 3a. The provision of Section 3 above shall have no application to any Livestock Auction Commission or Company which is subject to and regulated by the United States Department of Agriculture under the Packers and Stock Yards Act.¹

Record of Vehicle in which Transported

Sec. 3a. In addition to the requirements set forth in Section 3 above and the other provisions of this Act, said Livestock Auction Commission Merchant shall keep a true and correct record of livestock received, sold or disposed of by him as follows:

1. On livestock received by him for the purpose of sale or other disposition he shall keep a record of the motor vehicle and the trailer or semi-trailer on which such livestock was transported to the place where such livestock is sold or to be sold by him; such record of such vehicle or vehicles to be on a form prescribed by the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas, which shall show the name of the owner of such vehicle or vehicles, name of the owner of the livestock transported thereon, and the name, make, and current highway registration number of such vehicle or vehicles. Such record must be prepared and made available by such Livestock Auction Commission Merchant for public inspection within twenty-four (24) hours after the receipt of any such livestock by him.

2. On livestock sold or otherwise disposed of by him he shall keep a record of the motor vehicle and the trailer or semi-trailer on which any such livestock was transported or removed from the place of sale; such record shall be on a form prescribed by the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas and shall show the name and address of the purchaser of such livestock, the destination thereof, the name and address of the owner of the vehicle or vehicles upon which said livestock is transported from said place of sale. Such record must be prepared and made available by such Livestock Auction Commission Merchant immediately after such livestock is sold and before such livestock is removed from the place of sale. He shall furnish the driver of the vehicle transporting such livestock away from the place of sale with a copy of such record and the driver of such vehicle shall keep the same in his possession while transporting such livestock away from such place of sale and shall exhibit such record to any peace officer or enforcement officer on demand.

3. The records to be made and kept as herein required shall be retained by such Livestock Auction Commission Merchant for at least one (1) year from the date thereof and shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours. Provided, however, that the records herein provided for shall not apply to a private sale in which the livestock of only one individual, partnership, firm, or corporation is offered for sale.

Violations of Section 3a

Sec. 3b. Any person who violates any of the provisions of Section 3a shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

Approval of Bond by County Judge

Sec. 4. The County Judge shall carefully scrutinize such bond when tendered and, if satisfied therewith, shall approve said bond. No bond shall be approved by him which is not in the amount prescribed by this Law and conditioned as required by this Act and executed by such surety company.

Bond Filed in Office of County Clerk

Sec. 5. Said bond shall be, as soon as practicable, after the approval of same by the County Judge, filed for record in the office of the County Clerk in the county where the principal business of said commission auction merchant is to be carried on, and shall be recorded at length and properly indexed in a well bound book kept for that purpose, to be labeled "Bonds of Livestock Auction Commission Merchants." It is also made the duty of such auction commission merchant to procure a certified copy of such bond from the said County Clerk at the earliest practicable date, after the filing and recording thereof.

Deposit of Proceeds of Sale in Case of Dispute Between Claimants

Sec. 6. If the proceeds of any livestock so sold at auction by said livestock auction commission merchant shall become involved in a dispute between contending claimants, or if said livestock auction commission merchant is notified that some other party or parties are asserting right to said proceeds, or any part thereof, in opposition to the claim of those consigning said stock to said commission auction merchant, said livestock auction commission merchant shall deposit the amount of such net proceeds involved in such contention in some State or National Bank in the town, city, or county where said livestock commission merchant has his principal place of business and promptly notify all interested parties of his said action in the premises, whereupon no further liability as to such funds so deposited shall accrue or continue as to said livestock auction commission merchant or on his bond.

Suits on Bond

Sec. 7. The bond provided for by this Law may be sued upon and recovery had thereon by any person claiming to have been damaged by a breach of its condition. Said bond shall not become void upon the first recovery thereon, but may be sued upon until the amount thereof is exhausted. Upon a reduction of said bond by recovery thereon, to the extent of one-half thereof, said livestock auction commission merchant shall be required forthwith to make and file a new bond, conditioned as in the third Article of this Subdivision, so as to restore said bond to the required amount. If it shall come to the knowledge of the County Judge that the surety company making such bond has become insolvent, or is not financially able to make said bond ample and sufficient in the opinion of said County Judge, then said officer shall notify said livestock auction commission merchant to execute a new bond as therein provided for; whereupon it shall be the duty of such livestock auction commission merchant to make a new bond the same as originally required by the provisions of this Law.

Persons Included as Commission Merchants

Sec. 8. Any person, firm, or corporation who pursues the business of selling livestock, cattle, cows, calves, bulls, steers, hogs, sheep, goats, mules, horses, jacks, and jennies, or any of them, upon consignment at auction for a commission or other charges, or who solicits consignments of livestock as an auction commission merchant or agent, or who advertises and holds himself out to be such, shall be held to be a livestock auction commission merchant within the meaning of this Chapter.

Penalty for Failure to Make Bond, Keep Property Description or Make Reports

Sec. 9. Whoever advertises or solicits business as a livestock auction commission merchant, or in any way pursues the occupation of a livestock auction commission merchant, without first having made the bond required by the law of this State, or failed to keep and maintain said bond in full force and effect as required by such law, or who shall fail to keep an accurate description of said property, giving the marks and brands thereon, if any, or who shall fail to make quarterly reports to the Commissioners Court of the county in which he pursues such business, giving such description of said livestock, which shall contain the name of the consignor, together with the name and address of the person or persons purchasing the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25), nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or be confined in the county jail of such county for any period of time not exceeding thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for Failure to Remit Proceeds

Sec. 10. Any person engaged in the business of livestock auction commission merchant, as defined by this Chapter, who shall intentionally fail and refuse, within forty-eight (48) hours after the sale of any livestock consigned to him and sold by him at auction, to remit the net proceeds thereof to the person or persons rightfully entitled to receive the same, or to such person, firm, or corporation as said parties rightfully entitled thereto shall direct, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished with a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25), nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100), or be imprisoned in the county jail for not exceeding thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for Appropriation of Net Proceeds

Sec. 11. Any person engaged in the business of a livestock auction commission merchant, who shall appropriate or use for any purpose, other than remitting to said person, firm, or corporation entitled to receive the same, any portion of the net proceeds of livestock so sold at auction by such livestock auction commission merchant, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), and shall be confined in the county jail in said county not exceeding one year.

Penalty for Failure to Post Copy of Bond

Sec. 12. Any livestock auction commission merchant who shall fail at any time to keep conspicuously posted in the main office of his principal place of business a certified copy of the bond furnished to him by the County Clerk, under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100), and each day that said copy shall not be so posted is a separate offense.

Art. 1287-3. Regulation of Vegetable Producers, Handlers and Dealers

Definitions

Sec. 1. As used in this Act:

(a) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas. The Commissioner is authorized to utilize all employees of the Department of Agriculture in the enforcement of this Act.

(b) "Vegetables" shall include agricultural commodities and mean any and all of the following enumerated commodities: asparagus, beans (string, wax or green), beets (bunched or topped), broccoli (Italian sprouting), cabbage (for sauerkraut), cantaloupes, carrots (bunched or clipped), cauliflower, celery (rough), corn (green), cucumbers (slicing), dewberries and blackberries, eggplant, endive, or escarole or chicory, garlic, kale, lettuce, melons (honey ball and honey dew), mustard greens, okra, onions, parsley, peaches, pears, peas (fresh), peppers (sweet), potatoes, potatoes (sweet), radishes, romaine, shallots, spinach, strawberries, tomatoes (fresh), turnips (bunched or topped), or rutabagas, turnip greens and watermelons.

(c) "Person" means any individual, partnership, group of persons, corporation or business unit handling vegetables.

(d) "Handle" means buying or offering to buy, selling or offering to sell, or shipping for the purpose of selling, whether as owner, agent, or otherwise, any vegetables purchased within the State of Texas. Persons buying or shipping vegetables for canning, processing or handling are defined as handlers.

(e) "Dealer" means any person who handles vegetables.

(f) "Buying agent" means any person authorized by any licensed dealer to act for him in the handling of vegetables.

(g) "Transporting agent" means any person authorized by any dealer to act for said dealer in the transporting of vegetables.

(h) "Warehouseman" means any person who receives and stores vegetables for compensation.

(i) "Packer" means any person who prepares and/or packs vegetables for barter, sale, exchange or shipment.

(j) "Commission merchant" shall include "contract dealer" and means any person who purchases vegetables on credit, or who takes vegetables into his possession for consignment or handling on behalf of the producer or owner, or in any manner which does not require nor result in the payment to the producer, seller or consignor of the full purchase price in current money of the United States at the time of delivery to such commission merchant or when title passes from such producer, seller or consignor to such commission merchant.

(k) "Producer" means any person engaged in the business of growing or producing any vegetables.

License

Sec. 2. No person shall engage in the business of a dealer in vegetables unless such person shall first have procured a license in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Application for License; Contents

Sec. 3. Any person desiring to engage in business as a dealer in vegetables within the State shall, prior to engaging in such business, file with the Commissioner an application for, and receive a license. Such application shall be made under oath and the Commissioner shall provide forms for such applications.

(a) Such application shall set forth the following specific information:

(1) The full name of the applicant and whether the applicant is an individual, partnership, corporation, exchange or association of persons; the full name and the address of the principal business office of the applicant and the address of the principal business office of applicant within the State of Texas; in the event that the applicant be a foreign corporation, the application shall name the state in which such corporation was chartered.

(2) Foreign corporations filing applications for license under this Act shall indicate clearly in such application the name and the address of an agent for service within this State upon whom service of legal process may be had in any suit brought against said corporate applicant within the State of Texas.

(3) How long the applicant has been engaged in business in the State of Texas.

(b) In addition the applicant shall answer the following questions which shall be made a part of the application:

(1) Have you heretofore been licensed in the State of Texas as a dealer in vegetables?

(2) If you have answered that you have been so licensed, has any license so granted you within the State of Texas ever been suspended or revoked, or both?

(3) If you have answered that a license so issued you within the State of Texas has been suspended or revoked, or both, you will state when, where and give a short statement of the reason for such suspension or revocation, or both.

Fee; Issuance or Refusal of License; Hearing; Appeal

Sec. 4. All applications for license under this Act shall be accompanied by tender of payment in full of such fee as is required for the license. On receipt of such application and the required fee, the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee shall immediately issue such license, provided that no license shall be issued when the application indicates that such person has had a similar license suspended or revoked, or both, until the Commissioner is furnished with satisfactory proof that the applicant is, on the date of the filing of such application, qualified to receive the license applied for. The issuance of license to persons who have suffered prior suspension or revocation of license in this State shall be discretionary with the Commissioner. In the exercise of such discretion, the Commissioner is authorized to take into consideration the facts and circumstances pertaining to the prior suspension or revocation, the financial condition of the applicant, as of the date of this application, and the obligations due and owing by the applicant to growers and producers of vegetables.

"Obligation" means any judgment of any court in this State or certified claim outstanding against the applicant as of the date of the application under consideration. Prior to refusal of license by the Commissioner, any applicant for license shall be entitled to an open hearing on the facts pertaining to such application, said hearing to be conducted by the Commissioner, or his duly licensed agent. If after such hearing the Commissioner, in the exercise of his discretion, refuses the license applied for, the applicant shall, within ten (10) days from and after the denial of such license by the Commissioner and not thereafter, file his appeal from the order of the Commissioner denying such license, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this State. If the Commissioner shall determine that the license applied for shall not be granted, the Commissioner shall deduct from the license fee tendered with such application, the sum of Five Dollars ($5), such sum to be retained by the Commissioner to defray costs and expenses incident to the filing and examination of said application and shall return the balance of the license fee so tendered with such application to the applicant.

Fee Schedule

Sec. 5. The following fees are hereby prescribed and shall be paid by applicants for license under this Act, and the Commissioner, his agents and employees are hereby authorized to collect the same:

- (a) For license as a "dealer" or "handler" of vegetables the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25).
- (b) For license as a "commission merchant" and/or "contract dealer" Twenty-five Dollars ($25).
- (c) For a license as a "buying agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).
- (d) For a license as a "transporting agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).

Surety Bond of Commission Merchants; Amount; Form; Actions on Bonds

Sec. 6. (a) All commission merchants shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a good and sufficient surety bond, payable to the Governor of the State of Texas and his successors in office, for the following amounts, based upon the amount of vegetables purchased by said "commission merchant" during the previous year:

- (1) $5,000 up to $25,000 of purchases;
- (2) $10,000 between $25,000 and $100,000 of purchases;
- (3) $25,000 over $100,000 of purchases.

(b) In the case of a new business, the bond shall be $5,000. After experience for six months the amount of the bond shall be re-determined. However, the bond must be obtained before the new "commission merchant" may do business.

(c) The bond furnished shall be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe and shall be conditioned upon faithful compliance with the terms and provisions of this Act and upon the faithful performance of the conditions and terms of all contracts made by said "commission merchants" pertaining to the handling of vegetables under this Act.

(d) A cause of action may be maintained upon said bond by any person with whom said applicant deals in purchasing, handling, selling and accounting for sales of vegetables as provided in this Act; the aggregate accumulated liability under such bond shall not exceed the face amount thereof, and each such bond shall continue in full force and effect until notice of termination thereof is given by registered mail to the Commissioner. Such fact shall be set forth in the face of said bond, but such notice shall not affect the liability which may have accrued thereon prior to termination.

(e) No license shall be issued to any "commission merchant" prior to the delivery to the Commissioner and the approval by him of the bond required under the provision of this Section.

Cancellation of License; Complaint; Hearing and Determination

Sec. 7. Any license issued under the provisions of this Act shall remain in full force and effect for a period of twelve (12) months from and after the date of issuance thereof unless said permit shall be cancelled in the manner hereinafter provided and pursuant to the proceedings hereinafter required, to wit:

(a) Any party aggrieved, injured or damaged by virtue of any violations of the terms and provisions of this Act by any licensee or by the transporting or buying agent of any licensee hereunder, may file with the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee a verified complaint, setting out the specific violations complained of.

(b) The Commissioner shall set a date not more than ten (10) days from the receipt of such complaint for the hearing thereof; and notify the person complained of, furnishing him with a copy of such complaint, by registered mail to the last known address of such person.

(c) The Commissioner may, at his discretion, recess the hearing provided for in this Section from day to day if in his discretion the ends of justice demand such continuance; for the purpose of said hearings the Commissioner shall have the authority to summon witnesses; to inquire into matters of fact; to administer oaths, and to issue the subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of obtaining any books, records, instruments, or writing, and other papers pertinent to the investigation at hand.

(d) Upon the conclusion of said hearing and the introduction of all evidence by the respective parties thereto, the Commissioner shall make his decision on the basis of the evidence introduced therein, and shall, if the evidence warrants, issue his order canceling the license of the person complained of.

Notice of Cancellation; Appeal

Sec. 8. Any licensee, whose license is so cancelled by an order of the Commissioner, shall be notified in writing by registered mail of the cancellation of said license and it shall be unlawful and a violation of this Act for any licensee or buying or transporting agent to operate from and after said notification of cancellation, provided that said licensee or buying or transporting agent whose license has been so cancelled, shall have the right to appeal from the order of the Commissioner canceling said license, to any court of competent jurisdiction within this State, provided that such appeal shall be filed in said court within ten (10) days from and after receipt by licensee of notice of said cancellation, and provided further that the effect of said appeal by said licensee or licensee's agent shall not act to supersede the order of cancellation issued by the Commissioner, pursuant to final determination of the question of cancellation by said court.

Appeal from Commissioner's Ruling

Sec. 9. Any applicant for license whose application is rejected or any dealer who has been licensed hereunder and whose license is subsequently cancelled, may have an appeal from the Commissioner's ruling to any court of competent jurisdiction.

Contracts of Purchase; Payment to Seller; Demand for Purchase Price

Sec. 10. Any dealer who shall cause a producer or seller or owner, or agent of producer, seller or owner, to part with the control or possession of all or any part of his vegetables, and who agrees by his contract of purchase to pay the purchase price upon demand following delivery, shall immediately make payment thereafter to such owner or seller. Demand for the purchase price may be made upon dealer in writing, and the mailing of a registered letter making such demand addressed to said dealer at his business address, shall be prima facie evidence that demand was made upon the mailing of said letter.

Agreement to Part with Control or Possession of Vegetables and to Waive Right to Demand Purchase Price

Sec. 11. When a dealer causes a producer, seller or owner, or agent of producer, seller or owner, to part with the control or possession of all or any portion of his vegetables by means of any agreement under which the producer, seller or owner or agent of producer, seller or owner, has waived the right to demand the purchase price, as and when he parts with said control or possession of vegetables, such agreement for the handling, purchase or sale of vegetables by the dealer and the producer, seller or owner, shall be evidenced in writing in duplicate and shall set out in full the details of such transactions. In the event the agreement does not specify the time and manner of settlement, then the dealer shall settle therefor within thirty (30) days from the delivery of the vegetables into the dealer's control, and the dealer shall then directly account to and pay over to the said producer the full amount called for by the agreement.

Expiration and Renewal of License; Identification Cards; Contents; Return

Sec. 12. (a) Any license issued hereunder will authorize the licensee and none other, to engage in the business as a dealer for one year from date of issuance, at which time said license shall expire and become null and void. Any license issued to applicant under the provisions of this Act, which expired by its own terms, may be renewed upon payment to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the proper license fee as provided for the original issuance thereof. Said license and the identification cards hereinafter provided shall not be assignable and any attempt to assign same shall void such license or identification card. Upon application to the Commissioner by any licensed dealer, a reasonable number of "buying agent" and "transporting agent" identification cards may be issued and credited to such dealer, under such rules and regulations as said Commissioner may prescribe, and said Commissioner is hereby empowered to charge a fee not to exceed One Dollar ($1) for each card so issued.

(b) Such cards shall bear the name of the licensee, dealer, and the number of his license, also the name of the dealer's agent, and shall state thereon that said licensed dealer, as the principal, has authorized the agent named on the card, the holder thereof, to act for and on behalf of said principal, either as "buying agent" or as "transporting agent" as above defined. "Buying agent" identification cards shall be of a different color from "transporting agent" cards. Such identification cards shall be at all times carried upon the persons of such agents who shall, upon demand, display such cards to the Commissioner or his agents or representatives, or to any person with whom said agent may be transacting business under this Act.

(c) If and when the holder of any identification card ceases to be the agent of the dealer by whom he was employed, it shall be the duty of said agent to return immediately such agent's card to the Commissioner for cancellation, and failure to do so shall constitute a violation of this Act.

Written Statement from Seller; Contents; Records

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for any dealer, packer, processor or warehouseman to purchase or receive or handle any vegetables without requiring the person from whom such vegetables are purchased or received, to furnish a statement in writing of

- (a) the owner of such vegetables,
- (b) the grower of such vegetables,
- (c) the approximate location of the land where such vegetables were grown,
- (d) the date such vegetables were gathered, and
- (e) by whose authority such vegetables were gathered.

Such records shall be kept in a permanent book or folder and shall be available to inspection by any interested party.

Investigation of Violations; Hearings; Orders

Sec. 14. For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner shall, either upon his own initiative or upon the receipt of a properly verified complaint, to investigate all alleged violations of this Act and for the purpose of making such investigation, he shall have, at all times, free and unimpeded access to all books, records, buildings, yards, warehouses, storage, and transportation and other facilities or places in which any vegetables are kept, stored, handled, processed or transported, and in furtherance of such investigation either the Commissioner in person or through his authorized representatives, may examine any portion of the ledger, books, accounts, memorandum, documents, scales, measures and other matters, objects or persons pertinent to such alleged violation under investigation. The Commissioner shall take such action and hold such public hearing as in his judgment are shown to be necessary after such investigations, and shall take the proper action with reference to the cancellation or suspension of the license of any dealer hereunder shown to have been guilty of a violation of the terms of this Act. Such hearings shall be held in the nearest city or town in the county where violations are alleged to have occurred. Any order made by the Commissioner with reference to the revocation or cancellation of any license granted under the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Consignment or Commission Basis; Record; Contents

Sec. 15. Where any vegetables are handled by any dealer upon a consignment or commission basis, unless otherwise agreed in written contract between the dealer and owner, the dealer shall, upon demand of the seller, or owner, his agent or representative, furnish said owner or seller, his agent or representative, a complete and accurate record showing, among other things, the date of sale, to whom sold, the grade and selling price of said vegetables, together with itemized statement showing what expenses of any kind or character incurred in the sale or handling of said vegetables including the commission, if any, to the dealer, and the failure or refusal of such dealer to furnish such information within ten (10) days after such demand by owner or seller, his agent or representative, shall constitute a violation of this Act.

Contracts Guaranteeing Producer Minimum Price; Commission or Service Charges
