(5) the receipts, expenditures, assets, and liabilities of the association.

(b) Every association having 3,000 or more members or an annual business amounting to $750,000 or more shall file a copy of the report with the secretary of state.

(c) A person who subscribes or verifies a report containing a materially false statement, known to the person to be false, commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both.

Notice of Delinquent Reports

Sec. 37. (a) If an association required by Section 36 of this Act to file a report with the secretary of state fails to do so in the prescribed time, the secretary of state shall notify the association of the delinquency by registered letter mailed to its principal office within 60 days after the report becomes delinquent. If an association required by Section 36 of this Act to file a report at its registered office but not required to file a copy with the secretary of state fails to do so in the prescribed time, the secretary of state or any member may notify the association of the delinquency by registered letter mailed to its principal office.

(b) If the association fails to file the report within 60 days from the date of notice under Subsection (a) of this section, a member of the association or the attorney general may seek a writ of mandamus against the association and the appropriate officer or officers to compel the filing to be made, and in the court shall require the association or the officers at fault to pay all the expenses of the proceeding including attorney fees.

Dissolution

Sec. 38. (a) An association may, at a regular or special meeting legally called, be directed to dissolve by a vote of two-thirds of the entire membership. If it is directed to dissolve, by a vote of a majority of the members voting, three of their number shall be designated as trustees, who shall liquidate, on behalf of the association and within a time fixed in their designation or within any extension of time, its assets, and shall distribute them in the manner set forth in this section.

(b) A suit for involuntary dissolution of an association organized under this Act may be instituted for the causes and prosecuted in the manner set forth in Articles 7.01 to 7.12, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act (Articles 1396–7.01 through 1396–7.12, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), except that any distribution of assets shall be in the manner set forth in this section.

(c) When an association is dissolved, its assets shall be distributed in the following manner and order:

(1) by paying its debts and expenses;
(2) by returning to the investors the par value of their capital;
(3) by returning to the subscribers to invested capital the amounts paid on their subscriptions;
(4) by returning to patrons the amount of patronage dividends credited to their accounts;
(5) by returning to members their membership capital; and
(6) by distributing any surplus in either or both of the following ways, as the articles may provide: either among those patrons who have been members or subscribers at anytime during the six years preceding dissolution, on the basis of patronage during that period, or as a gift to any cooperative association or other non-profit enterprise which may be designated in the articles.
Use of Name "Cooperative"

Sec. 39. (a) Only an association organized under this Act, a group organized on a cooperative basis under any other law of this state, or a foreign corporation operating on a cooperative basis and authorized to do business in this state under this or any other law of this state may use the term "cooperative," or any abbreviation or derivation of the term "cooperative," as part of its business name, or represent itself, in advertising or otherwise, as conducting business on a cooperative basis.

(b) A person, firm, or corporation that violates Subsection (a) of this section commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200, with an additional fine of not more than $200 for each month during which a violation occurs after the first month, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by any combination of those punishments.

(c) The attorney general may sue to enjoin a violation of this section.

(d) If a court of competent jurisdiction renders judgment that a person, firm, or corporation which employed the name "cooperative" prior to this Act, is not organized on a cooperative basis, but may nonetheless continue to use the word "cooperative," the business shall always place immediately after its name the words "does not comply with the cooperative association law of Texas" in the same kind of type, and in letters not less than two-thirds as large, as those used in the word "cooperative."

Promotion Expenses

Sec. 40. (a) No association may use its funds, directly or indirectly, issue shares, or incur indebtedness for the payment of compensation for the organization of the association, except necessary legal fees, or for the payment of promotion expenses, in excess of five percent of the amount paid for the shares or membership certificates involved in the promotion transaction.

(b) An officer, director, or agent of an association who gives, or any person, firm, corporation or association who receives a promotion commission in violation of this section commits a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both.

False Reports

Sec. 41. A person, firm, corporation, or association that maliciously and knowingly spreads false reports about the management or finances of any association commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $25 and not more than $200, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both.

Existing Cooperative Groups

Sec. 42. Any group operating on a cooperative basis on the effective date of this Act may elect by a vote of two-thirds of the members voting to secure the benefits of and be bound by this Act. If it elects to secure the benefits of this Act, it shall amend its articles and by-laws to conform with this Act. A certified copy of the amended articles shall be filed and recorded with the secretary of state and a fee of $5 shall be paid.

Foreign Corporations and Associations

Sec. 43. A foreign corporation or association operating on a cooperative basis and complying with the applicable laws of the state in which it is organized may transact business in this state as a foreign cooperative corporation or association.

Exemption From Taxes

Sec. 44. Each association organized under this Act is exempt from the franchise tax and from license fees imposed by the state or a political subdivision of the state.

Exemption

Sec. 45. This Act does not apply to any corporation or association organized and now existing or in the future organized under the Cooperative Marketing Act, as amended (Articles 5737 through 5764, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925).

Effect of Invalidity of Part of This Act

Sec. 46. If a court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge to be invalid or unconstitutional any clause, sentence, subsection or section of this Act, such judgment or decree shall not affect, impair, invalidate, or nullify the remainder of this Act, but the effect thereof shall be confined to the clause, sentence, subsection or section of this Act so adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional.

CHAPTER TEN. PUBLIC UTILITIES

8. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Article 1466c. Public Utility Regulatory Act [NEW].

9. TRADE ZONES

1466.5. Amarillo Trade Zone Corporation [NEW].

2. TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH

See, now, the Public Utility Regulatory Act, classified as art. 1466c.
Art. 1435a Cooperation by Entities in Electric Facilities Construction, Financing, etc.

Joint Powers Agency

Sec. 4a. (a) In order to more readily accomplish the purposes of this Act, two or more public entities by concurrent ordinances may create a joint powers agency to be known as a municipal power agency, without taxing power, as a separate municipal corporation, a political subdivision of the state, and body politic and corporate, to have and exercise all of the powers which are by Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and this Act, conferred upon a public entity or entities, provided that such agency shall not be authorized to engage in any utility business other than generation, transmission, and sale or exchange of electric energy to the participating public entities and to private entities who are joint owners with the agency of an electric generating facility located within the state. A public entity, at the time of the passage of such concurrent ordinance, must be one which has the authority to and is engaged in the generation of electric energy for sale to the public upon the effective date of this Act, but such entity may thereafter dispose of its electric generating capabilities. Prior to the passage of a concurrent ordinance to create a joint powers agency, the governing body of each public entity shall cause notice of its intention to adopt such ordinance to be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the date of the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the date set for the passage of the concurrent ordinance. The notice shall state the date, time, and place such governing body proposes to pass such ordinance, and that upon the effective date of the concurrent ordinances, the public entities so adopting them shall have created a public powers agency. If, prior to the day set for the passage of a concurrent ordinance, 10 percent of the qualified electors of the particular public entity shall present a petition to such governing body requesting a referendum election be called, then such ordinance shall not become effective until the qualified electors of such entity have approved such ordinance. The election shall be called and held in conformity with the Texas Election Code, the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and this Act. Except as herein provided, a concurrent ordinance shall not be subject to a referendum election.

(b) Public entities which establish a joint powers agency may, by concurrent ordinances, provide for the re-creation of such agency by the addition and deletion, either or both, of a public entity so long as there is no impairment of obligation of any existing obligation of the agency, provided that no agency may be re-created by the addition of a public entity from and after April 1, 1976, unless a majority of the participating qualified electors of the entity seeking to be added to the agency approve the same by a majority vote in an election called for that purpose, and provided further that no agency may be created from and after January 1, 1977, unless a majority of the participating qualified electors of each entity seeking to create such agency approve such creation by a majority vote in an election called for that purpose. Notice of such election shall be given as provided by Article 704, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(c) Concurrent ordinances are ordinances or orders adopted by the governing bodies of more than one public entity which contain identical provisions with respect to the creation or re-creation of a public powers agency.

(d) The public entities which create, or provide for re-creation by addition or deletion of a public entity, a joint powers agency shall by concurrent ordinances (1) define the boundaries of the agency, to include the territory within the limits of such public entities, (2) designate the name of the Municipal Power Agency, (3) designate the number of directors (not less than four) that will constitute the board of directors of the agency and the initial term (so as to initially provide staggered terms) as may be agreed upon by the said public entities as evidenced by such concurrent ordinances, and (4) specify the manner in which such directors shall be appointed, but in any event each public entity shall be entitled to appoint at least one director.

(e) Directors shall serve by places and the concurrent ordinances shall specify the director for which place (and his successors) the governing body of the particular public entity may appoint. A director shall be a qualified elector and reside within the boundary of the agency at the time of execution of his constitutional oath of office. Directors shall serve without compensation, and an employee, officer, or member of the governing body of a public entity may serve as a director of the agency, but shall have no personal interest, other than as may exist as an employee or officer or member of the governing body of a public entity, in any contract executed by the agency.

(f) The agency is empowered to make contracts, leases, and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons, and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it; to participate through appropriate contracts in power pooling and power exchange arrangements with other entities either through direct or indirect system interconnections and each entity is given full authority to purchase electric energy from the agency or to sell, dispose of, or exchange electric energy to the agency. The agency may sell, lease, convey, or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests, or properties which are, in its judgment, not needed for the efficient operation and maintenance of its electric facilities. The responsibility of the management, operation, and control of the properties belonging to the agency shall be vested in the board of directors.

(g) Contracts for the sale or exchange of energy by the agency may be entered whereby the purchaser is obligated to pay for the same irrespective of whether such energy is produced or delivered to the purchaser. The agency is likewise empowered to establish and maintain rates and charges for energy delivered, transmitted, or exchanged, which shall be reasonable and in accordance with prudent utility practices. In the absence of a contract whereby a purchaser of energy waives such right, the rates and charges for power and energy sold or exchanged by the agency shall be based upon periodic “cost of service studies” and be subject to modification. The rates and charges schedule or contract payments shall be developed with regard to the recovery of the cost of producing and transmitting, if such service is performed, such electric power and energy, including the amortization of the capital investment.

(h) The State of Texas reserves its power to regulate and control such rates and charges for electric energy supplied by the electric facilities, but does thereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the obligations issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the agency to establish and collect such rates and charges as will produce revenues sufficient to pay for (1) all necessary operational and maintenance expenses, (2) all interest and principal on obligations issued by the agency, (3) all sinking funds and reserve fund payments, and (4) for any other charges necessary to fulfill the terms of any agreements theretofore made or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the obligations, until the obligations, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and any other obligations of the agency in connection therewith, are fully met and discharged.

(i) To the payment of obligations issued by it, the agency may pledge the revenues of all or part of its electric facilities, including or not including those thereafter acquired, as the agency may determine, but the expense of operation and maintenance, including salaries, labor, materials, and repairs necessary to render efficient service, of the facilities whose revenues are so encumbered and pledged shall be a first lien on and charge against such revenues.

(j) The agency shall have the full power to issue revenue bonds or notes, herein sometimes referred to as obligations, from time to time for the accomplishment of its purposes within the interest rate limitations of Chapter 8, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k–2, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

(k) From the proceeds from the sale of obligations of the agency, the agency may set aside amounts for payments into the interest and sinking fund and reserve funds, and for interest and operating expenses during construction and development, as may be specified in the authorizing proceedings. Bond proceeds may be invested pending their use for the purpose for which issued, in such securities or interest bearing certificates or in time deposits as may be specified in such authorizing proceedings.

(l) Prior to delivery thereof, all obligations authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding special obligations of the agency issuing same, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration and the sale and delivery of the bonds or notes to the purchaser, they shall be incontestable.

(m) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purposes and in the manner now or hereafter provided by general law, including, without limitation, Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k–3, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

(n) All obligations issued by an agency pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies and shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such obligations shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

(o) The agency may adopt, and from time to time amend, rules and regulations to govern the operation of the agency, its employees, facilities, and service, but contracts for the construction of improvements which involve the expenditure of more than $20,000 shall be awarded by the agency only after notice of intent to receive competitive bids has been published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the state, the date of the first publication being at least 14 days prior to the date set for the receipt of bids, but contracts awarded by another entity or agent thereof, which is a joint owner of the facilities to be constructed shall be let under its contracting procedures. An entity may negotiate and enter into contract for the purchase of electric energy from the agency and payments for such energy purchased shall be an operating expense of the electric system of the purchaser.

(p) The agency may elect to utilize the Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed For Utilities and Licenses prescribed by the Federal Power Commission.

(q) The bonds or notes shall be signed by the presiding officer or the assistant presiding officer of the agency, shall be attested by its secretary, and shall bear the seal of the agency. It is provided, however, that such signatures may be printed or lithographed on the bonds and notes if authorized by the agency, and such may be impressed on the bonds or notes or may be printed or lithographed thereon. The agency may adopt or use for any purpose the signature of any person who shall have been an officer, notwithstanding the fact that he may have ceased to be such officer at the time when bonds or notes shall be delivered to a purchaser or purchasers. The bonds or notes shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years, from their respective dates of issuance, may be sold, within interest rate limitations herein provided, at a public or private sale at a price or under terms determined by the agency to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, within the discretion of the agency, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as approved by the agency, and may be in coupon form with or without provisions for registration as to principal or may be registrable as to both principal and interest.

(r) Bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this Act, and coupons; if any, representing interest thereon, shall when delivered be deemed and construed to be a “security” within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, of the Uniform Commercial Code (Chapter 785, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1987).

(s) This Act shall be liberally construed to carry out the purpose of its adoption and shall be in full and complete authority for the creation and operation of public powers agencies and the performance of the public duties imposed upon them. Insofar as this Act is inconsistent with any other laws, including Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or others regulating the affairs of municipal corporations, or with any home-rule charter provisions, then the provisions of this Act shall control.

1. Article 1106 et seq.
2. Article 701 et seq.

Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or state constitutions, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the agency shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof."

8. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 1446c. Public Utility Regulatory Act

ARTICLE I. SHORT TITLE, LEGISLATIVE POLICY, AND DEFINITIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be referred to as the “Public Utility Regulatory Act.”

Legislative Policy and Purpose

Sec. 2. This Act is enacted to protect the public interest inherent in the rates and services of public utilities. The legislature finds that public utilities are by definition monopolies in the areas they serve; that therefore the normal forces of competition which operate to regulate prices in a free enterprise society do not operate; and that therefore utility rates, operations and services are regulated by public agencies, with the objective that such regulation shall operate as a substitute for such competition. The purpose of this Act is to establish a comprehensive regulatory system which is adequate to the task of regulating public utilities as defined by this Act, to assure rates, operations, and services which are just and reasonable to the consumers and to the utilities.

Definitions

Sec. 3. (a) The term “person,” when used in this Act, includes natural persons, partnerships of two or more persons having a joint or common interest, and mutual or cooperative associations and corporations, as herein defined.

(b) The term “municipality,” when used in this Act, includes cities and incorporated villages or towns existing, created, or organized under the general, home-rule, or special laws of the state.

(c) The term “public utility” or “utility,” when used in this Act, includes any person, corporation, river authority, cooperative corporation, or any combination thereof, other than a municipal corporation, or their lessees, trustees, and receivers, now or hereafter owning or operating for compensation in this state equipment or facilities for:

(1) producing, generating, transmitting, distributing, selling, or furnishing electricity ("electric utilities" hereinafter);

(2)(a) the conveyance, transmission, or reception or communications over a telephone system; provided that no person or corporation not otherwise a public utility within the meaning of this Act shall be deemed such solely because of the furnishing or furnishing and maintenance of a private system; and provided further that nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to telegraph services, services of specialized communications common carriers not providing local exchange telephone service, television stations, or radio stations, or community antenna television services;

(b) providing radio-telephone services that may be authorized under the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service or Rural Radio Service rules of the Federal Communications Commission; provided, however, that radio-telephone service provided by wire-line telephone companies regulated by the Commission are excluded from the definition of radio-telephone utilities;

(3) transmitting or distributing combustible hydrocarbon natural or synthetic natural gas for sale or resale in a manner which is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission under the Natural Gas Act (15 U.S.C.A., Section 717, et seq.) ("gas utilities" hereinafter) provided that the production and gathering of natural gas, the sale of natural gas in or within the vicinity of the field where produced, the distribution or sale of liquefied petroleum gas, and the transportation, delivery, or sale of natural gas for fuel for irrigation wells or any other direct use in agricultural activities is not included.

(4) the transmitting, storing, distributing, selling, or furnishing of potable water to the public or for resale to the public for any use, or the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage, or other operation of a sewage disposal service for the public, other than equipment or facilities operated and owned for either purpose by a city, town or other political subvision of this state. The term "public utility" or "utility" includes any municipally owned gas or electric utility, whether owned separately or in conjunction with other municipalities operated by a board of trustees which as of May 1, 1975, was not directly appointed by the governing body of the municipality, and does not include any other municipally owned utility unless otherwise provided in this Act. The term "public utility" or "utility" shall not include any person or corporation otherwise a public utility that furnishes the services or commodity described in any paragraph of this subsection only to itself, its employees, or tenants as an incident of such employee service or tenancy, when such service or commodity is not resold to or used by others.

(d) The term "rate," when used in this Act, means and includes every compensation, tariff, charge, fare, toll, rental, and classification, or any of them demanded, observed, charged, or collected whether directly or indirectly by any public utility for any service, product, or commodity described in Subdivision (c) of this section, and any rules, regulations, practices, or contracts affecting any such compensation, tariff, charge, fare, toll, rental, or classification.

(e) The word "commission," when used in this Act, means the Public Utility Commission of Texas, as hereinafter constituted.

(f) The term "railroad commission," when used in this Act, means the Railroad Commission of Texas.

(g) The term "regulatory authority," when used in this Act, means, in accordance with the context where it is found, either the commission, the railroad commission, or the governing body of any municipalit.

(h) "Affected person" means any public utility affected by any action of the regulatory authority, any person or corporation whose utility service or rates are affected by any proceeding before the regulatory authority, or any person or corporation that is a competitor of a public utility with respect to any service performed by the utility or that desires to enter into competition.

(1) "Affiliated interest" or "affiliate" means:

(1) any person or corporation owning or holding, directly or indirectly, five percent or more of the voting securities of a public utility;

(2) any person or corporation in any chain of successive ownership of five percent or more of the voting securities of a public utility;

(3) any corporation five percent or more of the voting securities of which is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a public utility;

(4) any corporation five percent or more of the voting securities of which is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by any person or corporation that owns or controls, directly or indirectly, five percent or more of the voting securities of any public utility or by any person or corporation in any chain of successive ownership of five percent of such securities;

(5) any person who is an officer or director of a public utility or of any corporation in any chain of successive ownership of five percent or more of voting securities of a public utility;
Art. 1446c

TITLE 32 CORPORATIONS

(6) any person or corporation that the commission or railroad commission, after notice and hearing, determines actually exercises any substantial influence or control over the policies and actions of a public utility, or over which a public utility exercises such control, or that is under common control with a public utility, such control being the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of another, whether such power is established through ownership or voting of securities or by any other direct or indirect means; or

(7) any person or corporation that the commission or railroad commission, after notice and hearing determines is actually exercising such substantial influence over the policies and action of the public utility in conjunction with one or more persons or corporations with which they are related by ownership or blood relationship, or by action in concert, that together they are affiliated with such public utility within the meaning of this section, even though no one of them alone is so affiliated.

(j) "Allocations" means, for all utilities, the division of plant, revenues, expenses, taxes, and reserves between municipalities or between municipalities and unincorporated areas, where such items are used for providing public utility service in a municipality, or for a municipality and unincorporated areas.

(k) "Commissioner" means a member of the Public Utility Commission of Texas.

(l) "Cooperative corporation" means any telephone or electric cooperative corporation organized and operating under the Telephone Cooperative Act (Article 1528c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or the Electric Cooperative Corporation Act (Article 1528b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(m) "Corporation" means any corporation, joint-stock company, or association, domestic or foreign, and its lessees, assignees, trustees, receivers, or other successors in interest, having any of the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships, but shall not include municipal corporations unless expressly provided otherwise in this Act.

(n) "Facilities" means all the plant and equipment of a public utility, including all tangible and intangible real and personal property without limitation, and any and all means and instrumentalities in any manner owned, operated, leased, licensed, used, controlled, furnished, or supplied for, by, or in connection with the business of any public utility.

(o) "Municipally-owned utility" means any utility owned, operated, and controlled by a municipality or by a nonprofit corporation whose directors are appointed by one or more municipalities.

(p) "Order" means the whole or a part of the final disposition, whether affirmative, negative, injunctive, or declaratory in form, of the regulatory authority in a matter other than rulemaking, but including issuance of certificates of convenience and necessity and ratesetting.

(q) "Proceeding" means any hearing, investigation, inquiry, or other fact-finding or decision-making procedure under this Act and includes the denial of relief or the dismissal of a complaint.

(r) "Separation" means, for communications utilities only, the division of plant, revenues, expenses, taxes, and reserves, applicable to exchange or local service where such items are used in common for providing public utility service to both local exchange service and other service, such as interstate or intrastate toll service.

(s) "Service" is used in this Act in its broadest and most inclusive sense, and includes any and all acts done, rendered, or performed and any and all things furnished or supplied, and any and all facilities used, furnished, or supplied by public utilities in the performance of their duties under this Act to their patrons, employees, other public utilities, and the public, as well as the interchange of facilities between two or more of them. Service shall not include the printing, distribution, or sale of advertising in telephone directories.

(t) "Test year" means the most recent 12 months for which operating data for a public utility are available, and shall commence with a calendar quarter.

Applicability of Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act

Sec. 4. The Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act 1 applies to all proceedings under this Act except to the extent inconsistent with this Act.

1 Article 6252-13a.

ARTICLE II. ORGANIZATION OF COMMISSION

Creation of Commission; Appointment and Terms; Chairman

Sec. 5. A commission, to be known as the "Public Utility Commission of Texas" is hereby created. It shall consist of three commissioners, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the members of the senate present, and who shall have and exercise the jurisdiction and powers herein conferred upon the commission. Immediately after this Act takes effect, the governor shall, with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint one commissioner whose term shall expire two years after appointment; one commissioner whose term shall expire four years after appointment; and one commissioner whose term shall expire six years after appointment. At the expiration of each of the above named terms, there shall be appointed, in the same manner, one commissioner to hold office for a term of six years. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. At its first meeting following the biennial appointment and qualification of a commissioner, the commission shall elect one of the commissioners chairman.

Qualifications; Oath and Bond; Prohibited Activities

Sec. 6. (a) To be eligible for appointment as a commissioner, a person must be a qualified voter, not less than 80 years of age, a citizen of the United States, and a resident of the State of Texas. No person is eligible for appointment as a commissioner if at any time during the two-year period immediately preceding his appointment he personally served as an officer, director, owner, employee, partner, or legal representative of any public utility or any affiliated interest, or he owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, stocks or bonds of any class with a value of $10,000, or more in a public utility or any affiliated interest. Each commissioner shall qualify for office by taking the oath prescribed for other state officers and shall execute a bond for $5,000 payable to the state and conditioned on the faithful performance of his duties.

(b) No commissioner or employee of the commission may do any of the following during his period of service with the commission and for two years thereafter:

1. have any pecuniary interest, either as an owner, director, partner, or representative, employee, attorney, consultant, or otherwise, in any public utility or affiliated interest, or in any person or corporation or business entity a significant portion of whose business consists of furnishing goods or services to public utilities or affiliated interests, but not including a nonprofit group or association solely supported by gratuitous contributions of money, property, or services;

2. own or control any securities in a public utility or affiliated interest, either directly or indirectly;

3. accept any gift, gratuity, or entertainment whatsoever from any public utility or affiliated interest, or from any person, corporation, or business entity a significant portion of whose business consists of furnishing goods or services to public utilities or affiliated interests, or from any agent, representative, attorney, employee, officer, owner, director, or partner of any such business entity or of any public utility or affiliated interest; provided, however, that the receipt and acceptance of any gifts, gratuities, or entertainment after termination of service with the commission whose cumulative value in any one-year period is less than $100 shall not constitute a violation of this Act.

(e) The prohibited activities of this section do not include contracts for public utility products and services or equipment for use of public utility products when a member or employee of the commission is acting as a consumer.

(d) No commissioner or employee of the commission may directly or indirectly solicit or request from or suggest or recommend to, any public utility, or to any agent, representative, attorney, employee, officer, owner, director, or partner thereof, the appointment to any position or the employment in any capacity of any person by such public utility or affiliated interest.

(e) No public utility or affiliated interest or any person, corporation, firm, association, or business that furnishes goods or services to any public utility or affiliated interest, nor any agent, representative, attorney, employee, owner, director, or partner of any public utility or affiliated interest, or any person, corporation, firm, association, or business furnishing goods or services to any public utility or affiliated interest may give, offer to give, any gift, gratuity, employment, or entertainment whatsoever to any member or employee of the commission except as allowed by Subdivision (3) of Subsection (b) of this section.

(f) It shall not be a violation of this section if a member of the commission or a person employed by the commission, upon becoming the owner of any stocks or bonds or other pecuniary interest in a public utility or affiliated interest under the jurisdiction of the commission otherwise than voluntarily, informs the commission and the attorney general of such ownership and divests himself of the ownership or interest within a reasonable time. In this section, a "pecuniary interest" includes income, compensation and payment of any kind, in addition to ownership interests. It is not a violation of this section if such a pecuniary interest is held indirectly by ownership of an interest in a retirement system, institution, or fund which in the normal course of business invests in diverse securities independently of the control of the commissioner or employee.

(g) Unless specifically authorized by this Act for disposition of ex parte matters, no member or employee of the commission assigned to render a decision or to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in a proceeding may communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact or law with any party or his representative, except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.
Art. 1446c  TITLE 32 CORPORATIONS  536

(h) No member of the commission may seek nomination or election to any other civil office of the State of Texas or of the United States while he is a commissioner. If any member of the commission files for nomination for or election to any civil office of the State of Texas or of the United States, his office as commissioner immediately becomes vacant, and the governor shall appoint a successor.

Vacancies

Sec. 7. Whenever a vacancy in the office of commissioner occurs, it shall be filled in the manner provided herein with respect to the original appointment, except that the governor may make interim appointments to continue until the vacancy can be filled in the manner provided. Any person appointed with the advice and consent of the senate to fill a vacancy shall hold office during the unexpired portion of the term.

Employees

Sec. 8. (a) The commission shall employ such officers, hearing examiners, investigators, lawyers, engineers, economists, consultants, statisticians, accountants, inspectors, clerical staff, and other employees as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. All employees receive such compensation as is fixed by the legislature. Pending legislative determination, commission employees shall be paid the same salary as employees of the Railroad Commission holding comparable positions.

(b) The commission shall employ:

(1) a director of public utilities who has wide experience in utility regulation and rate determination;

(2) a chief engineer who is a registered engineer and an expert in public utility engineering and rate matters;

(3) a chief accountant who is a certified public accountant, experienced in public utility accounting;

(4) a director of research who is experienced in the conduct of analyses of industry, economics, energy, fuel, and other related matters that the commission may want to undertake; and

(5) a general counsel.

(c) The general counsel and his staff are responsible for the gathering of information relating to all matters within the authority of the commission.

The duties of the general counsel include:

(1) accumulation of evidence and other information from public utilities and from the accounting and technical and other staffs of the commission and from other sources for the purposes specified herein;

(2) preparation and presentation of such evidence before the commission or its appointed examiner in proceedings;

(3) conduct of investigations of public utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission;

(4) preparation of proposed changes in the rules of the commission;

(5) preparation of recommendations that the commission undertake investigation of any matter within its authority;

(6) preparation of recommendations and a report of such staff for inclusion in the annual report of the commission;

(7) protection and representation of the public interest before the commission; and

(8) such other activities as are reasonably necessary to enable him to perform his duties.

Salary

Sec. 9. The annual salary of the commissioners shall be determined by the legislature. Pending legislative determination, the commissioners shall be paid the same salary as members of the Railroad Commission.

Office; Meetings

Sec. 10. The principal office of the commission shall be located in the City of Austin, Texas, and shall be open daily during the usual business hours, Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excepted. The commission shall hold meetings at its office and at such other convenient places in the state as shall be expedient and necessary for the proper performance of its duties.

Seal

Sec. 11. The commission shall have a seal bearing the following inscription: "Public Utility Commission of Texas." The seal shall be affixed to all records and authentications of copies of records and to such other instruments as the commission shall direct. All courts of this state shall take judicial notice of said seal.

Quorum

Sec. 12. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, for the performance of any duty, or for the exercise of any power of the commission. No vacancy or disqualification shall prevent the remaining commissioner or commissioners from exercising all the powers of the commission.

Orders; Transcript and Exhibits; Public Records

Sec. 13. All orders of the commission shall be in writing and shall contain detailed findings of the facts upon which they are passed. The commission shall retain a copy of the transcript and the exhibits in any matter in which the commission issues an order. All files pertaining to matters which were at any time pending before the commission and to records, reports, and inspections required by Article V hereof shall be public records, subject to the terms of the Texas Open Records Act, Chapter 242, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Annual Report

Sec. 14. (a) The commission shall publish an annual report to the governor, summarizing its proceedings, listing its receipts and the sources of its receipts, listing its expenditures and the nature of such expenditures, and setting forth such other information concerning the operations of the commission and the public utility industry as it considers of general interest.

(b) In the annual report issued in the year preceding the convening of each regular session of the legislature, the commission shall make such suggestions regarding modification and improvement of the commission's statutory authority and for the improvement of utility regulation in general as it may deem appropriate for protecting and furthering the interest of the public.

Attorney General to Represent Commission

Sec. 15. The Attorney General of the State of Texas shall represent the commission in all matters before the state courts, and any court of the United States, and before any federal public utility regulatory commission.

ARTICLE III. JURISDICTION

General Power; Rules; Hearings

Sec. 16. The commission has the general power to regulate and supervise the business of every public utility within its jurisdiction and to do all things, whether specifically designated in this Act or implied herein, necessary and convenient to the exercise of this power and jurisdiction. The commission shall make and enforce rules reasonably required in the exercise of its powers and jurisdiction, including rules governing practice and procedure before the commission. The commission may call and hold hearings, administer oaths, receive evidence at hearings, issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers and documents, and make findings of fact and decisions with respect to administering the provisions of this Act or the rules, orders, or other actions of the commission.

Jurisdiction of Municipality; Surrender; Original and Appellate Jurisdiction of Commission

Sec. 17. (a) Subject to the limitations imposed in this Act, and for the purpose of regulating rates and services so that such rates may be fair, just, and reasonable, and the services adequate and efficient, the governing body of each municipality shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over all electric, water, and sewer utility rates, operations, and services provided by an electric, water, and sewer utility within its city or town limits.

(b) At any time after two years have passed from the date this Act becomes effective, a municipality may elect to have the commission exercise exclusive original jurisdiction over electric, water, or sewer utility rates, operations, and services within the incorporated limits of the municipality. The governing body of a municipality may by ordinance elect to surrender its original jurisdiction to the commission, or the governing body may submit the question of the surrender to the qualified voters at a municipal election. Upon receipt of a petition signed by the lesser of 20,000 or ten percent of the number of qualified voters voting in the last preceding general election in that municipality, the governing body shall submit the question of the surrender of the municipality's original jurisdiction to the commission at a municipal election.

(c) A municipality that surrenders its jurisdiction to the commission may at any time, by vote of the electorate, reinstate the jurisdiction of the governing body; provided, however, that any municipality which reinstates its jurisdiction shall be unable to surrender that jurisdiction for five years after the date of the election at which the municipality elected to reinstate its jurisdiction. No municipality may, by vote of the electorate, reinstate the jurisdiction of the governing body during the pendency of any case before the commission involving the municipality.

(d) The commission shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction to review orders or ordinances of such municipalities as provided in this Act.

(e) The commission shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over electric, water, and sewer utility rates, operations, and services not within the incorporated limits of a municipality exercising original jurisdiction over those rates, operations, and services as provided in this Act.

Telecommunications Utilities

Sec. 18. Subject to the limitations imposed in this Act, and for the purpose of regulating rates, operations, and services so that such rates may be just, fair, and reasonable, and the services adequate and efficient, the commission shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over the business and property of all telecommunications utilities in this state.

Gas Utilities

Sec. 19. (a) Subject to the limitations imposed in this Act, and for the purpose of regulating rates and services so that such rates may be fair, just, and reasonable, and the services adequate and efficient, the governing body of each municipality shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over all gas utility rates, operations, and services provided by any gas utility within its city or town limits.

(b) The railroad commission shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction to review all orders or ordinances of municipalities as provided in this Act. The railroad commission shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over the rates and services of gas utilities distributing natural gas or synthetic natural gas in areas outside the limits of municipalities, and it shall also have exclusive original jurisdiction over the rates and services of pipelines transmitting, transporting, delivering, or selling natural gas or synthetic natural gas to gas utilities engaged in distributing such gas to the public.

(c) The provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be in addition to all existing laws relating to the jurisdiction, power, or authority of the railroad commission over gas utilities and, except as specifically in conflict with this Act, such laws shall not be deemed to be limited hereby. Provisions of this Act applicable to gas utilities within the jurisdiction of the railroad commission shall apply to all such gas utilities, including those that are within the jurisdiction, power, or authority of the railroad commission by virtue of laws other than this Act.

Municipally Owned Utilities

Sec. 20. Nothing in this article shall be construed to confer on the commission or railroad commission power or jurisdiction to regulate or supervise the rates or service of any utility owned and operated by any municipality within its boundaries either directly or through a municipally owned corporation, or to affect or limit the power, jurisdiction, or duties of the municipalities that have elected to regulate and supervise public utilities within their boundaries, except as provided in this Act.

ARTICLE IV. MUNICIPALITIES

Franchises

Sec. 21. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in any way limiting the rights and powers of a municipality to grant or refuse franchises to use the streets and alleys within its limits and to make the statutory charges for the use thereof, but no provision of any franchise agreement shall limit or interfere with any power conferred on the commission or railroad commission by this Act. If a municipality performs regulatory functions under this Act, it may make such other charges as may be provided in the applicable franchise agreement, together with any other charges permitted by this Act.

Local Utility Service; Exempt and Nonexempt Areas

Sec. 22. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, municipalities shall continue to regulate each kind of local utility service inside their boundaries until the commission has assumed jurisdiction over the respective utility pursuant to this Act. If a municipality does not surrender its jurisdiction, local utility service within the boundaries of the municipality shall be exempt from regulation by the commission under the provisions of this Act to the extent that this Act applies to local service, and the municipality shall have, regarding service within its boundaries, the right to exercise the same regulatory powers under the same standards and rules as the commission, or other standards and rules not inconsistent therewith. Notwithstanding any such election, the commission may consider a public utility's revenues and return on investment in exempt areas in fixing rates and charges in nonexempt areas, and may also exercise the powers conferred necessary to give effect to orders under this Act, for the benefit of nonexempt areas. Likewise, in fixing rates and charges in the exempt area, the governing body may consider a public utility's revenues and return on investment in nonexempt areas. Utilities serving exempt areas shall be subject to the reporting requirements of this Act. Such reports shall be filed with the governing body of the municipality as well as with the commission. Nothing in this section shall limit the duty and power of the commission to regulate service and rates of municipally regulated utilities for service provided to other areas in Texas.

Rate Determination

Sec. 23. Any municipality regulating its public utilities pursuant to this Act shall require from those utilities all necessary data to make a reasonable determination of rate base, expenses, investment, and rate of return within the municipal boundaries. The standards for such determination shall be based on the procedures and requirements of this Act and said municipality shall retain any and all personnel necessary to make the determination of reasonable rates required under this Act.

Authority of Governing Body; Cost Reimbursement

Sec. 24. The governing body of any municipality shall have the right to select and engage rate consultants, accountants, auditors, attorneys, engineers, or any combination thereof, to conduct investigations, present evidence, advise and represent the governing body, and assist with litigation on public utility rate-making proceedings; and the public utility engaged in such proceedings shall be required to reimburse the governing body for the reasonable costs of such services.

Assistance by Commission or Railroad Commission

Sec. 25. The commission or the railroad commission may advise and assist municipalities upon re-
Sec. 26. (a) Any party to a rate proceeding before the governing body of a municipality may appeal the decision of the governing body to the commission or railroad commission.

(b) Citizens of a municipality may appeal the decision of the governing body in any rate proceeding to the commission or railroad commission through the filing of a petition for review signed by the lesser of 20,000 or 10 percent of the number of qualified voters of such municipality.

(c) Ratepayers of a municipally owned gas or electric utility outside the municipal limits may appeal any action of the governing body affecting the rates of the municipally owned gas or electric utility through filing with the commission or railroad commission, as appropriate, petition for review signed by the lesser of 10,000 or 5 percent of the ratepayers served by such utility outside the municipal limits. For purposes of this subsection each person receiving a separate bill shall be considered as a ratepayer. But no person shall be considered as being more than one ratepayer notwithstanding the number of bills received. Such petition for review shall be considered properly signed if signed by any person, or spouse of any such person, in whose name residential utility service is carried.

(d) The appeal process shall be instituted within 30 days of the final decision by the governing body with the filing of a petition for review with the commission or railroad commission and copies served on all parties to the original rate proceeding.

(e) The commission or railroad commission shall hear such appeal de novo and by its final order shall fix such rates as the municipality should have fixed in the ordinance from which the appeal was taken.

ARTICLE V. RECORDS, REPORTS, INSPECTIONS, RATES AND SERVICES

Records of Public Utility: Rates, Methods and Accounts

Sec. 27. (a) Every public utility shall keep and render to the regulatory authority in the manner and form prescribed by the commission or railroad commission uniform accounts of all business transacted. The commission or railroad commission may also prescribe forms of books, accounts, records, and memoranda to be kept by such public utilities, including the books, accounts, records, and memoranda of the rendition of and capacity for service as well as the receipts and expenditures of moneys, and any other forms, records, and memoranda which in the judgment of the commission or railroad commission may be necessary to carry out any of the provisions of this Act. In the case of any public utility subject to regulations by a federal regulatory agency, compliance with the system of accounts prescribed for the particular class of utilities by such agency may be deemed a sufficient compliance with the system prescribed by the commission or railroad commission; provided, however, that the commission or railroad commission may prescribe forms of books, accounts, records, and memoranda covering information in addition to that required by the federal agency. The system of accounts and the forms of books, accounts, records, and memoranda prescribed by the commission or railroad commission for a public utility or class of utilities shall not conflict nor be inconsistent with the systems and forms established by a federal agency for that public utility or class of utilities.

(b) The commission or railroad commission shall fix proper and adequate rates and methods of depreciation, amortization, or depletion of the several classes of property of each public utility, and shall require every public utility to carry a proper and adequate depreciation account in accordance with such rates and methods and with such other rules and regulations as the commission or railroad commission prescribes. Such rates, methods, and accounts shall be utilized uniformly and consistently throughout the ratesetting and appeal proceedings.

(c) Every public utility shall keep separate accounts to show all profits or losses resulting from the sale or lease of appliances, fixtures, equipment, or other merchandise. No such profit or loss shall be taken into consideration by the regulatory authority in arriving at any rate to be charged for service by any such public utility, to the extent that such merchandise is not integral to the provision of utility service.

(d) Every public utility is required to keep and render its books, accounts, records, and memoranda accurately and faithfully in the manner and form prescribed by the commission or railroad commission, and to comply with all directions of the regulatory authority relating to such books, accounts, records, and memoranda. The regulatory authority may require the examination and audit of all accounts.

(e) In determining the allocation of tax savings derived from application of such methods as liberalized depreciation and amortization and the investment tax credit, the regulatory authority shall equitably balance the interests of present and future customers and shall apportion such benefits between consumers and the public utilities accordingly. Where any portion of the investment tax credit has been retained by a public utility, that same amount shall be deducted from the original cost of the facilities or other addition to the rate base to which the credit applied, to the extent allowed by the Internal Revenue Code.

(f) For the purposes of this section, "public utility" includes "municipally owned utility."

Powers of Commission and Railroad Commission

Sec. 28. (a) The commission and the railroad commission shall have the power to:

(1) require that public utilities report to it such information relating to themselves and affiliated interests both within and without the State of Texas as it may consider useful in the administration of this Act;

(2) establish forms for all reports;

(3) determine the time for reports and the frequency with which any reports are to be made;

(4) require that any reports be made under oath;

(5) require that a copy of any contract or arrangement between any public utility and any affiliated interest be filed with it. It may require any such contract or arrangement not in writing to be reduced to writing and filed with it;

(6) require that a copy of any report filed with any federal agency or any governmental agency or body of any other state be filed with it; and

(7) require that a copy of annual reports showing all payments of compensation (other than salary or wages subject to the withholding of federal income tax) to residents of Texas, or with respect to legal, administrative, or legislative matters in Texas, or for representation before the Texas Legislature or any governmental agency or body.

(b) On the request of the governing body of any municipality, the commission or railroad commission may provide sufficient staff members to advise and consult with such municipality on any pending matter.

Inspections; Examination Under Oath; Compelling Production of Records; Inquiry into Management and Affairs

Sec. 29. (a) Any regulatory authority, and when authorized by the regulatory authority, its counsel, agents, and employees, shall have the right, at reasonable times and for reasonable purposes, to inspect and obtain copies of the papers, books, accounts, documents, and other business records, and to inspect the plant, equipment, and other property of any public utility within its jurisdiction. The regulatory authority may examine under oath, or it may authorize the person conducting such investigation to examine under oath, any officer, agent, or employee of any public utility in connection with such investigation. The regulatory authority may require, by order or subpoena served on any public utility, the production within this state at the time and place it may designate, of any books, accounts, papers, or records kept by that public utility outside the state, or verified copies in lieu thereof if the commission or railroad commission so orders. Any public utility failing or refusing to comply with any such order or subpoena is in violation of this Act.

(b)(1) A member, agent, or employee of the regulatory authority may enter the premises occupied by a public utility to make inspections, examinations, and tests and to exercise any authority provided by this Act.

(2) A member, agent, or employee of the regulatory authority may act under this section only during reasonable hours and after giving reasonable notice to the utility.

(3) The public utility is entitled to be represented when inspections, examinations, and tests are made on its premises. Reasonable time for the utility to secure a representative shall be allowed before commencing an inspection, examination, or test.

(c) The regulatory authority may inquire into the management and affairs of all public utilities, and shall keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the same are conducted.

Reporting of Advertising or Public Relations Expenses

Sec. 30. The regulatory authority may require an annual reporting from each utility company of all its expenditures for business gifts and entertainment, and institutional, consumption-inducing and other advertising or public relations expenses. The regulatory authority shall not allow as costs or expenses for rate-making purposes any of these expenditures which the regulatory authority determines not to be in the public interest. The cost of legislative-advocacy expenses shall not in any case be allowed as costs or expenses for rate-making purposes. Reasonable charitable or civic contributions may be allowed not to exceed the amount approved by the regulatory authority.

Unlawful Rates, Rules and Regulations

Sec. 31. It shall be unlawful for any utility to charge, collect, or receive any rate for public utility service or to impose any rule or regulation other than as herein provided.

Filing Schedule of Rates, Rules and Regulations

Sec. 32. Every public utility shall file with each regulatory authority schedules showing all rates which are subject to the original or appellate jurisdiction of the regulatory authority and which are in force at the time for any public utility service, product, or commodity offered by the utility. Every public utility shall file with, and as a part of such schedules, all rules and regulations relating to or affecting the rates, public utility service, product, or commodity furnished by such utility.

Office of Public Utility: Records; Removal From State

Sec. 33. Every public utility shall have an office in a county of this state in which its property or some part thereof is located in which it shall keep all books, accounts, records, and memoranda required by the commission or railroad commission to be kept in the state. No books, accounts, records, or memoranda required by the regulatory authority to be kept in the state shall be removed from the state, except on conditions prescribed by the commission or railroad commission.

Communications by Public Utilities With Regulatory Authority; Regulations and Records

Sec. 34. (a) The regulatory authority shall prescribe regulations governing communications by public utilities, their affiliates and their representatives, with the regulatory authority or any member or employee of the regulatory authority.

(b) Such records shall contain the name of the person contacting the regulatory authority or member or employee of the regulatory authority, the name of the business entities represented, a brief description of the subject matter of the communication, and the action, if any, requested by the public utility, affiliate, or representative. These records shall be available to the public on a monthly basis.

Standards of Service

Sec. 35. (a) Every public utility shall furnish such service, instrumentalities, and facilities as shall be safe, adequate, efficient, and reasonable.

(b) The regulatory authority after reasonable notice and hearing had on its own motion or on complaint, may ascertain and fix just and reasonable standards, classifications, regulations, or practices to be observed and followed by any or all public utilities with respect to the service to be furnished; ascertain and fix adequate and reasonable standards for the measurement of the quantity, quality, pressure, initial voltage, or other condition pertaining to the supply of the service; prescribe reasonable regulations for the examination and testing of the service and for the measurement thereof; and establish or approve reasonable rules, regulations, specifications, and standards to secure the accuracy of all meters, instruments and equipment used for the measurement of any service of any public utility. Any standards, classifications, regulations, or practices now or hereafter observed or followed by any public utility may be filed by it with the regulatory authority, and the same shall continue in force until amended by the public utility or until changed by the regulatory authority as herein provided.

Examination and Test of Equipment

Sec. 36. (a) The regulatory authority may examine and test any meter, instrument, or equipment used for the measurement of any service of any public utility and may enter any premises occupied by any public utility for the purpose of making such examinations and tests and exercising any power provided for in this Act and may set up and use on such premises any apparatus and appliances necessary therefor. The public utility shall have the right to be represented at the making of the examinations, tests, and inspections. The public utility and its officers and employees shall facilitate the examinations, tests, and inspections by giving every reasonable aid to the regulatory authority and any person or persons designated by the regulatory authority for the duties aforesaid.

(b) Any consumer or user may have any meter or measuring device tested by the utility once without charge, after a reasonable period to be fixed by the regulatory authority by rule, and at shorter intervals on payment of reasonable fees fixed by the regulatory authority. The regulatory authority shall declare and establish reasonable fees to be paid for other examining and testing such meters and other measuring devices on the request of the consumer. If the test is requested to be made within the period of presumed accuracy as fixed by the regulatory authority since the last such test of the same meter or other measuring device, the fee to be paid by the consumer or user at the time of his request shall be refunded to the consumer or user if the meter or measuring device is found unreasonably defective or incorrect to the substantial disadvantage of the consumer or user. If the consumer's request is made at a time beyond the period of presumed accuracy fixed by the regulatory authority since the last such test of the same meter or measuring device, the utility shall make the test without charge to the consumer or user.

ARTICLE VI. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE REGULATORY AUTHORITY

Power to Insure Compliance; Rate Regulation

Sec. 37. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the commission or railroad commission is hereby vested with all authority and power of the State of Texas to insure compliance with the obligations of public utilities in this Act. For this purpose the regulatory authority is empowered to fix and regulate rates of public utilities, including rules and regulations for determining the classification of customers and services and for determining the applicability of rates. No rule or order of the regulatory authority shall be in conflict with the rulings of any federal regulatory body.

Just and Reasonable Rates

Sec. 38. It shall be the duty of the regulatory authority to insure that every rate made, demanded, or received by any public utility, or by any two or more public utilities jointly, shall be just and reasonable. Rates shall not be unreasonably preferential, prejudicial, or discriminatory, but shall be sufficient, equitable, and consistent in application to each class of consumers. For ratemaking purposes, the commission or railroad commission may treat two or more municipalities served by a public utility as a single class wherever the commission or railroad commission deems such treatment to be appropriate.

Fixing Overall Revenues

Sec. 39. In fixing the rates of a public utility the regulatory authority shall fix its overall revenues at a level which will permit such utility to recover its operating expenses together with a reasonable return on its invested capital.

Fair Return; Burden of Proof

Sec. 40. (a) The regulatory authority shall not prescribe any rate which will yield more than a fair return upon the adjusted value of the invested capital used and useful in rendering service to the public.

(b) In any proceeding involving any proposed change of rates, the burden of proof to show that the proposed change, if proposed by the utility, or that the existing rate, if it is proposed to reduce the rate, is just and reasonable shall be on the public utility.

Components of Adjusted Value of Invested Capital and Net Income

Sec. 41. The components of adjusted value of invested capital and net income shall be determined according to the following rules:

(a) Adjusted Value of Invested Capital. Utility rates shall be based upon the adjusted value of property used by and useful to the public utility in providing service including where necessary to the financial integrity of the utility construction work in progress at cost as recorded on the books of the utility. The adjusted value of such property shall be a reasonable balance between original cost less depreciation and current cost less an adjustment for both present age and condition. The regulatory authority shall have the discretion to determine a reasonable balance that reflects not less than 60% nor more than 75% original cost, that is, the actual money cost, or the actual money value of any consideration paid other than money, of the property at the time it shall have been dedicated to public use, whether by the utility which is the present owner or by a predecessor, less depreciation, and not less than 25% nor more than 40% current cost less an adjustment for both present age and condition. The regulatory authority may consider inflation, deflation, quality of service being provided, the growth rate of the service area, and the need for the public utility to attract new capital in determining a reasonable balance.

(b) Separations and Allocations. Costs of facilities, revenues, expenses, taxes, and reserves shall be separated or allocated as prescribed by the regulatory authority.

(c) Net Income. By "net income" is meant the total revenues of the public utility less all reasonable and necessary expenses as determined by the regulatory authority. The regulatory authority shall determine expenses and revenues in a manner consistent with the following:

(1) Transactions with Affiliated Interests. Payment to affiliated interests for costs of any services, or any property, right or thing, or for interest expense shall not be allowed either as capital cost or as expense except to the extent that the regulatory authority shall find such payment to be reasonable. Any such finding of reasonableness shall include specific statements setting forth the cost to the affiliate of each item or class of items in question and a finding that the price to the utility is no higher than prices charged by the supplying affiliate to its other affiliates or divisions for the same item or items, or to unaffiliated persons or corporations.

(2) Income Taxes. If the public utility is a member of an affiliated group that is eligible to file a consolidated income tax return, and if it is advantageous to the public utility to do so, income taxes shall be computed as though a consolidated return had been so filed and the utility had realized its fair share of the savings resulting from the consolidated return, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the regulatory authority that it was reasonable to choose not to consolidate returns. The amounts of income taxes saved by a consolidated group of which a public utility is a member by reason of the elimination in the consolidated return of the intercompany profit on purchases by the public utility from an affiliate shall be applied to reduce the cost of the property or services so purchased. The investment tax credit allowed against federal income taxes, to the extent retained by the utility, shall be applied as a reduction in the rate based contribution of the assets to which such credit applies, to the extent and at such rate as allowed by the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Expenses Disallowed. The regulatory authority may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations with respect to the allowance or disallowance of certain expenses for rate-making purposes.

Unreasonable or Violative Existing Rates; Investigating Costs of Obtaining Service from Another Source

Sec. 42. Whenever the regulatory authority, after reasonable notice and hearing, on its own motion or on complaint by any affected person, finds that the existing rates of any public utility for any service are unreasonable or in any way in violation of any provision of law, the regulatory authority shall determine the just and reasonable rates, including maximum or minimum rates, to be thereafter observed and in force, and shall fix the same by order to be served on the public utility; and such rates shall constitute the legal rates of the public utility until changed as provided in this Act. Whenever a public utility does not itself produce or generate that which it distributes, transmits, or furnishes to the public for compensation, but obtains the same from another source, the regulatory authority shall have the power and authority to investigate the cost of such production or generation in any investigation of the reasonableness of the rates of such public utility.

Statement of Intent to Change Rates; Major Changes; Hearing; Suspension of Rate Schedule; Determination of Rate Level

Sec. 43. (a) No utility may make changes in its rates except by filing a statement of intent with the regulatory authority having original jurisdiction at least 35 days prior to the effective date of the proposed change. The statement of intent shall include proposed revisions of tariffs and schedules and a statement specifying in detail each proposed change, the effect the proposed change is expected to have on the revenues of the company, the classes and numbers of utility consumers affected, and such other information as may be required by the regulatory authority's rules and regulations. A copy of the statement of intent shall be mailed or delivered to the appropriate officer of each affected municipality, and notice shall be given by publication in conspicuous form and place of a notice to the public of such proposed change once in each week for four successive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in each county containing territory affected by the proposed change, and to such other affected persons as may be required by the regulatory authority's rules and regulations.

(b) The regulatory authority, for good cause shown, may, except in the case of major changes, allow changes in rate to take effect prior to the end of such 35 day period under such conditions as it may prescribe, subject to suspension as provided herein. All such changes shall be indicated immediately upon its schedules by such utility. "Major changes" shall mean an increase in rates which would increase the aggregate revenues of the applicant more than the greater of $100,000 or two and one-half percent, but shall not include changes in rates allowed to go into effect by the regulatory authority or made by the utility pursuant to an order of the regulatory authority after hearings held upon notice to the public.

(c) Whenever there is filed with the Regulatory Authority any schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rates then in force, the Regulatory Authority shall on complaint by any affected person or may on its own motion, at any time within 30 days from the date when such change would or has become effective, and, if it so orders, without answer or other formal pleading by the utility, but on reasonable notice, including notice to the governing bodies of all affected municipalities and counties, enter on a hearing to determine the propriety of such change. The Regulatory Authority shall hold such a hearing in every case in which the change constitutes a major change in rates, provided that an informal proceeding may satisfy this requirement if no complaint has been received before the expiration of 45 days after notice of the change shall have been filed.

(d) Pending the hearing and decision, the Regulatory Authority, after delivery to the affected utility of a statement in writing of its reasons therefor, may suspend the operation of the schedule for a period not to exceed 120 days beyond the date on which the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect. If the Regulatory Authority finds that a longer time will be required for a final determination, the Regulatory Authority may further extend the period for an additional 30 days. If the Regulatory Authority does not make a final determination concerning any schedule of rates within a period of 150 days after the time when the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the Regulatory Authority. This approval is subject to the authority of the Regulatory Authority thereafter to continue a hearing in progress. The Regulatory Authority may in its discretion fix temporary rates for any period of suspension under this section. During the suspension by the Regulatory Authority as above provided, the rates in force when the suspended schedule was filed shall continue in force unless the Regulatory Authority shall establish a temporary rate. The Regulatory Authority shall give preference to the hearing and decision of questions arising under this section over all other questions pending before it and decide the same as speedily as possible.

(e) If the regulatory authority fails to make its final determination of rates within 90 days from the date that the proposed change otherwise would have gone into effect, the utility concerned may put a changed rate, not to exceed the proposed rate, into effect upon the filing with the regulatory authority of a bond payable to the regulatory authority in an amount and with sureties approved by the regula­ try authority conditiond upon refund and in a form approved by the regulatory authority. The utility concerned shall refund or credit against future bills all sums collected during the period of suspension in excess of the rate finally ordered plus interest at the current rate as finally determined by the regulatory authority.

(f) If, after hearing, the Regulatory Authority finds the rates to be unreasonable or in any way in violation of any provision of law, the Regulatory Authority shall determine the level of rates to be charged or applied by the utility for the service in question and shall fix the same by order to be served upon the utility; these rates are thereafter to be observed until changed, as provided by this Act.

Rates for Areas Not Within Municipality

Sec. 44. Public utility rates for areas not within any municipality shall not exceed without commission or railroad commission approval 115 percent of the average of all rates for similar services of all municipalities served by the same utility within the same county.

Unreasonable Preference or Prejudice as to Rates or Services

Sec. 45. No public utility may, as to rates or services, make or grant any unreasonable preference or advantage to any corporation or person within any classification, or subject any corporation or person within any classification to any unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage. No public utility may establish and maintain any unreasonable differences as to rates of service either as between localities or as between classes of service.

Equality of Rates and Services

Sec. 46. No public utility may, directly or indi­ drectly, by any device whatsoever or in any manner, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by the utility than that prescribed in the schedule of rates of the public utility applicable thereto when filed in the manner provided in this Act, nor may any person knowingly receive or accept any service from a public utility for a compensation greater or less than that prescribed in the schedules, provided that all rates being charged and collected by a public utility upon the effective date of this Act may be continued until schedules are filed. Nothing in this Act shall prevent a cooperative corporation from returning to its members the whole, or any part of, the net earnings resulting from its operations in proportion to their purchases from or through the corporation.

Discrimination; Restriction on Competition

Sec. 47. No public utility may discriminate against any person or corporation that sells or leases equipment or performs services in competition with the public utility, nor may any public utility engage in any other practice that tends to restrict or impair such competition.

Payments in Lieu of Taxes

Sec. 48. No payments made in lieu of taxes by a public utility to the municipality by which it is owned may be considered an expense of operation for the purpose of determining, fixing, or regulating the rates to be charged for the provision of utility service to a school district or hospital district. No rates received by a public utility from a school district or hospital district may be used to make or to cover the cost of making payments in lieu of taxes to the municipality by which the public utility is owned.

ARTICLE VII. CERTIFICATES OF CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

Definitions

Sec. 49. For the purposes of this article only: (a) "Retail public utility" means any person, corpo­ ratio, municipality, political subdivision or agency, or cooperative corporation, now or hereafter operating, maintaining, or controlling in Texas facilities for providing retail utility service.

(b) "Public utility" does not include any person, corporation, municipality, political subdivision or agency, or cooperative corporation under the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission.

Certificate Required

Sec. 50. Beginning one year after the effective date of this Act, unless otherwise specified:

(1) No public utility may in any way render service directly or indirectly to the public under any franchise or permit without first having obtained from the commission a certificate that the present or future public convenience and necessity require or will require such installation, operation, or extension.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this article, no retail public utility may furnish, make available, render, or extend retail public utility service to any area to which retail utility service is being lawfully furnished by another retail public utility on or after the effective date of this Act, without first having obtained a certificate of public convenience and necessity that includes the area in which the consuming facility is located.

Exceptions for Extension of Service

Sec. 51. (a) A public utility is not required to secure a certificate of public convenience and necessity for:

(1) an extension into territory contiguous to that already served by it and not receiving similar service from another public utility and not within the area of public convenience and necessity of another utility of the same kind;

(2) an extension within or to territory already served by it or to be served by it under a certificate of public convenience and necessity;

(3) operation, extension, or service in progress on the effective date of this Act.

(b) Any extensions allowed by Subsection (a) of this section shall be limited to devices for interconnection of existing facilities or devices used solely for transmitting public utility services from existing facilities to customers of retail utility service.

Application; Maps; Evidence of Consent

Sec. 52. (a) A public utility shall submit to the commission an application to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity or an amendment thereof.

(b) On or before 90 days after the effective date of this Act, or at a later date on request in writing by a public utility when good cause is shown, or at such later dates as the commission may order, each public utility shall file with the commission a map or maps showing all its facilities and illustrating separately facilities for generation, transmission, and distribution of its services.

(c) Each applicant for a certificate shall file with the commission such evidence as is required by the commission to show that the applicant has received the required consent, franchise, or permit of the proper municipality or other public authority.

Prior Construction or Operation

Sec. 53. On application made to the commission within six months after the effective date of this Act, the commission shall issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity for the construction or operation then being conducted to any public utility actually providing service to any geographical area on the effective date of this Act, or to any person or corporation actively engaged on the effective date of this Act in the construction, installation, extension, or improvement of, or addition to, any facility or system used or to be used in providing public utility service.

Notice and Hearing; Issuance or Refusal; Factors Considered

Sec. 54. (a) When an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity is filed, the commission shall give notice of such application to interested parties and, if requested, shall fix a time and place for a hearing and give notice of the hearing. Any person interested in the application may intervene at the hearing.

(b) Except for certificates for prior operations granted under Section 53, the commission may grant applications and issue certificates only if the commission finds that the certificate is necessary for the service, accommodation, convenience, or safety of the public. The commission may issue the certificate as prayed for, or refuse to issue it, or issue it for the construction of a portion only of the contemplated system or facility or extension thereof, or for the partial exercise only of the right or privilege.

(c) Certificates of convenience and necessity shall be granted on a nondiscriminatory basis after consideration by the commission of the adequacy of existing service, the need for additional service, the effect of the granting of a certificate on the recipient of the certificate and on any public utility of the same kind already serving the proximate area, and on such factors as community values, recreational and park areas, historical and aesthetic values, environmental integrity, and the probable improvement of service or lowering of cost to consumers in such area resulting from the granting of such certificate.

Area Included Within City, Town or Village

Sec. 55. (a) If an area has been or shall be included within the boundaries of a city, town, or village as the result of annexation, incorporation, or otherwise, all public utilities certified or entitled to certification under this Act to provide service or operate facilities in such area prior to the inclusion shall have the right to continue and extend service in its area of public convenience and necessity within the annexed or incorporated area, pursuant to the rights granted by its certificate and this Act.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a public utility shall have the right to continue and extend service within its area of public convenience and necessity and to utilize the roads, streets, highways, alleys, and public property for the purpose of furnishing such retail utility service, subject to the authority of the governing body of a municipality to require any public utility, at its own expense, to relocate its facilities to permit the widening or straightening of streets by giving to the public utility 30 days' notice and specifying the new location for the facilities along the right-of-way of the street or streets.

(c) This section may not be construed as limiting the power of cities, towns, and villages to incorporate or extend their boundaries by annexation, nor may this section be construed as prohibiting any city or town from levying taxes and other special charges for the use of the streets as are authorized by Article 11.03, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Contracts Valid and Enforceable

Sec. 56. Contracts between retail public utilities designating areas to be served and customers to be served by those utilities, when approved by the commission, shall be valid and enforceable and shall be incorporated into the appropriate areas of public convenience and necessity.

Preliminary Order for Certificate

Sec. 57. If a public utility desires to exercise a right or privilege under a franchise or permit which it contemplates securing but which has not as yet been granted to it, such public utility may apply to the commission for an order preliminary to the issuance of the certificate. The commission may thereupon make an order declaring that it will, on application, under such rules as it prescribes, issue the desired certificate on such terms and conditions as it designates, after the public utility has obtained the contemplated franchise or permit. On presentation to the commission of evidence satisfactory to it that the franchise or permit has been secured by the public utility, the commission shall issue the certificate.

Continuous and Adequate Service; Discontinuance, Reduction or Impairment of Service

Sec. 58. (a) The holder of any certificate of public convenience and necessity shall serve every consumer within its certified area and shall render continuous and adequate service within the area or areas.

(b) Unless the commission issues a certificate that neither the present or future convenience and necessity will be adversely affected, the holder of a certificate shall not discontinue, reduce, or impair service to a certified service area or part thereof except for:

(1) nonpayment of charges;
(2) nonuse; or
(3) other similar reasons in the usual course of business.

(c) Any discontinuance, reduction, or impairment of service, whether with or without approval of the commission, shall be in conformity with and subject to such conditions, restrictions, and limitations as the commission shall prescribe.

Sale, Assignment or Lease of Certificate

Sec. 59. If the commission determines that a purchaser, assignee, or lessee is capable of rendering adequate service, a public utility may sell, assign, or lease a certificate of public convenience and necessity or any rights obtained under the certificate. The sale, assignment, or lease shall be on the conditions prescribed by the commission.

Interference with Other Public Utility

Sec. 60. If a public utility in constructing or extending its lines, plant, or system interferes or attempts to interfere with the operation of a line, plant, or system of any other public utility, the commission may issue an order prohibiting the construction or extension or prescribing terms and conditions for locating the lines, plants, or systems affected.

Improvements in Service; Interconnecting Service; Extended Area Toll-free Telephone Service

Sec. 61. After notice and hearing, the commission may:

(1) order a public utility to provide specified improvements in its service in a defined area, if service in such area is inadequate or is substantially inferior to service in a comparable area and it is reasonable to require the company to provide such improved service;
(2) order two or more public utilities to establish specified facilities for the interconnecting service; and
(3) order a telephone company or telephone companies to provide extended area toll-free service within a specified metropolitan area where there is a sufficient community of interest within the area and such service can reasonably be provided.

Revocation or Amendment of Certificate

Sec. 62. (a) The commission at any time after notice and hearing may revoke or amend any certificate of convenience and necessity if it finds that the certificate holder has never provided or is no longer providing service in the area, or part of the area, covered by the certificate.

(b) When the certificate of any public utility is revoked or amended, the commission may require one or more public utilities to provide service in the area in question.

ARTICLE VIII. SALE OF PROPERTY AND MERGERS

Report of Sale, Merger, etc.; Investigation; Disallowance of Transaction

Sec. 63. No public utility may sell, acquire, lease, or rent any plant as an operating unit or system in this state for a total consideration in excess of $100,000 or merge or consolidate with another public utility operating in this state unless the public utility reports such transaction to the commission or railroad commission within a reasonable time. On the filing of a report with the commission or railroad commission, the commission or railroad commission shall investigate the same with or without public hearing, to determine whether the action is consistent with the public interest. In reaching its determination, the commission or railroad commission shall take into consideration the reasonable value of the property, facilities, or securities to be acquired, disposed of, merged or consolidated. If the commission or railroad commission finds that such transactions are not in the public interest, the commission or railroad commission shall take the effect of the transaction into consideration in the rate-making proceedings and disallow the effect of such transaction if it will unreasonably affect rates or service. The provisions of this section shall not be construed as being applicable to the purchase of units of property for replacement or to the addition to the facilities of the public utility by construction.

Purchase of Voting Stock in Another Public Utility: Report

Sec. 64. No public utility may purchase voting stock in another public utility doing business in Texas, unless the utility reports such purchase to the commission or railroad commission.

Loans to Stockholders; Report

Sec. 65. No public utility may loan money, stocks, bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness to any corporation or person owning or holding directly or indirectly any stock of the public utility unless the public utility reports the transaction to the commission or railroad commission within a reasonable time.

Gas Reserve Rights: Approval of Sale, Conveyance, etc.

Sec. 66. No gas utility may sell, convey, bank, or assign rights to gas reserves to a utility or, where not in conflict with federal law, to an interstate pipeline without prior approval of the railroad commission.

ARTICLE IX. RELATIONS WITH AFFILIATED INTERESTS

Jurisdiction Over Affiliated Interests

Sec. 67. The commission or railroad commission shall have jurisdiction over affiliated interests having transactions with public utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission or railroad commission to the extent of access to all accounts and records of such affiliated interests relating to such transactions, including but in no way limited to accounts and records of joint or general expenses, any portion of which may be applicable to such transactions.

Disclosure of Substantial Interest in Voting Securities

Sec. 68. The commission or railroad commission may require the disclosure of the identity and respective interests of every owner of any substantial interest in the voting securities of any public utility or its affiliated interest. One percent or more is a substantial interest within the meaning of this section.

ARTICLE X. JUDICIAL REVIEW

Right to Judicial Review; Evidence

Sec. 69. Any party to a proceeding before the commission is entitled to judicial review under the substantial evidence rule. The issue of confiscation shall be determined by a preponderance of the evidence.

Costs and Attorneys' Fees

Sec. 70. Any party represented by counsel who alleges that existing rates are excessive or that those prescribed by the commission are excessive, and who is a prevailing party in proceedings for review of a commission order or decision, may in the same action recover against the regulation fund reasonable fees for attorneys and expert witnesses and other costs for its efforts before the commission and the court, the amount of such attorneys' fees to be fixed by the court. On a finding by the court that an action under this article was groundless and brought in bad faith and for the purpose of harassment, the court may award to the defendant public utility the reasonable attorneys' fees.

ARTICLE XI. VIOLATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

Action to Enjoin or Require Compliance

Sec. 71. Whenever it appears to the commission or railroad commission that any public utility or any other person or corporation is engaging in, or is about to engage in, any act in violation of this Act or of any order, rule, or regulation of the commission or railroad commission entered or adopted under the provisions of this Act, or that any public utility or any other person or corporation is failing to comply with the provisions of this Act or with any such rule, regulation, or order, the attorney general on request of the commission or railroad commission, in addition to any other remedies provided herein, shall bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the name of and on behalf of the commission or railroad commission against such public utility or other person or corporation to enjoin the commencement or continuation of any such act, or to require compliance with such Act, rule, regulation, or order.

Penalty Against Public Utility or Affiliated Interest

Sec. 72. (a) Any public utility or affiliated interest that knowingly violates a provision of this Act, fails to perform a duty imposed on it, or fails, neglects, or refuses to obey an order, rule, regulation, direction, or requirement of the commission or railroad commission or decree or judgment of a court, shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 for each offense.

(b) A public utility or affiliated interest commits a separate offense each day it continues to violate the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section.

(c) The attorney general shall institute suit on his own initiative or at the request of, in the name of, and on behalf of the commission, or railroad commission, in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover the penalty under this section.

Penalty for Violating Section 6 of This Act

Sec. 73. (a) Any member of the commission, or any officer or director of a public utility or affiliated interest, shall be subject to a civil penalty of $1,000 for each and every knowing violation of Section 6 of this Act, such penalty to be recovered in a suit filed in a court of competent jurisdiction by the attorney general on his own initiative or at the request of, in the name of, and on behalf of, the commission.

(b) Any person, other than an officer or director of a public utility or affiliated interest or a member of the commission, shall be subject to a civil penalty of $500 for each and every knowing violation of Section 6 of this Act, such penalty to be recovered in a suit filed in a court of competent jurisdiction by the attorney general on his own initiative or at the request of, in the name of, and on behalf of, the commission.

(c) Any member, officer, or employee of the commission found in any action by a preponderance of the evidence to have violated any provision of Section 6 of this Act shall be removed from his office or employment.

Personal Penalty

Sec. 74. (a) Any person or persons who willfully and knowingly violate the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a third degree felony.

(b) All penalties accruing under this Act shall be cumulative and a suit for the recovery of any penalty shall not be a bar to or affect the recovery of any other penalty, or be a bar to any criminal prosecution against any public utility or any officer, director, agent, or employee thereof or any other corporation or person.

Contempt Proceedings

Sec. 75. If any person fails to comply with any lawful order of the commission or railroad commission or with any subpoena or subpoena duces tecum or if any witness refuses to testify about any matter on which he may be lawfully interrogated, the commission or railroad commission may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction to compel obedience by proceedings for contempt.

Disposition of Fines and Penalties

Sec. 76. Fines and penalties collected under this Act in other than criminal proceedings shall be paid to the commission or railroad commission and paid by the commission or railroad commission to the state treasury to be placed in the general revenue fund.

Venue

Sec. 77. Suits for injunction or penalties under the provisions of this Act may be brought in Travis County, in any county where such violation is alleged to have occurred, or in the county or residence of any defendant.

ARTICLE XII. COMMISSION FINANCING

Assessments Upon Public Utilities

Sec. 78. An assessment is hereby imposed upon each public utility within the commission’s jurisdiction serving the ultimate consumer equal to one-sixth of one percent of its gross receipts from rates charged the ultimate consumers in Texas for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses incurred in the administration of this Act. Thereafter the commission shall, subject to the approval of the Legislature, adjust this assessment to provide a level of income sufficient to fund commission operation.

Payment Dates; Delinquency

Sec. 79. All assessments shall be due on August 31 of each year. Any public utility may instead make quarterly payments due on August 31, November 30, February 28, and May 31 of each year. There shall be assessed as a penalty an additional fee of 10 percent of the amount due for any late payment. Fees delinquent for more than 30 days shall draw interest at the rate of six percent per annum on the assessment and penalty due.

Payment into General Revenue Fund

Sec. 80. All fees, penalties, and interest paid to the commission under the provisions of this article shall be paid into the general revenue fund.

Approval of Budget

Sec. 81. The budget of the commission shall be subject to legislative approval as part of the appropriations act.

Accounting Records; Audit

Sec. 82. The commission shall keep such accounting records as required by the state auditor and shall be subject to periodic audit.
ARTICLE XIII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Complaint by Any Affected Person

Sec. 83. Any affected person may complain to the regulatory authority in writing setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any public utility in violation or claimed violation of any law which the regulatory authority has jurisdiction to administer, or of any order, ordinance, rule, or regulation of the regulatory authority.

Record of Proceedings; Right to Hearing

Sec. 84. A record shall be kept of all proceedings had before the regulatory authority, and all the parties shall be entitled to be heard in person or by attorney.

Judicial Stay or Suspension of Order, Ruling or Decision

Sec. 85. During the pendency of an appeal, the district court, the court of civil appeals, or the supreme court, as the case may be, may stay or suspend, in whole or in part, the operation of the regulatory authority order, ruling, or decision and such courts in granting or refusing a stay or suspension shall act in accordance with the practice of courts exercising equity jurisdiction.

Amendment

Sec. 86. [Amends art. 6252-9b, § 2(5)(A)].

Assumption of Jurisdiction

Sec. 87. (a) The regulatory authority shall assume jurisdiction and all powers and duties of regulation under this Act on January 1, 1976, except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The regulatory authority shall assume jurisdiction over rates and service of public utilities on September 1, 1976.

Effective Date

Sec. 88. This Act shall become effective on September 1, 1975, and the commission shall thereupon begin organization and the gathering of information as provided in this Act.

Liberal Construction

Sec. 89. This Act shall be construed liberally to promote the effectiveness and efficiency of regulation of public utilities to the extent that such construction preserves the validity of this Act and its provisions. The provisions of this Act shall be construed to apply so as not to conflict with any authority of the United States.

Repealer; Prior Rules and Regulations to Remain in Effect

Sec. 90. (a) Articles 1119, 1121, 1122, 1124, 1125, 1126, 1127, 1128, 1129, 1130, 1131, 1132, 1268, 1423, 1424, and 1425, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended; Section 8a, Chapter 283, Acts of the 40th Legislature, Regular Session, 1927 (Article 1011, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) and all other laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed effective September 1, 1976.

(b) All rules and regulations promulgated by regulatory authorities in the exercise of their jurisdiction over public utilities, as defined in this Act, shall remain in effect until such time as the commission or railroad commission promulgates provisions applicable to the exercise of the commission’s or railroad commission’s jurisdiction over public utilities.

Severability

Sec. 91. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN. TRUST COMPANIES AND INVESTMENTS

Art. 1513a. Creation of Trust Company; Purposes

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of Sec. 17]

Supervision of Banking Commissioner; Annual Statement; Examination of Trust Companies; Penalties

Sec. 2. (a) Such corporations shall be subject to supervision by the Banking Commissioner of Texas and shall file with the Banking Commissioner of Texas on or before February 1 of each year a statement of its condition on the previous December 31, in such form as may be required by the Banking Commissioner, showing under oath its assets and liabilities, together with a fee of $50 for filing; which statement when so filed shall not be open to the public but shall be for the information of the Banking Commissioner and his employees. The Banking Commissioner may, for good cause shown, extend the time for filing such statement for not more than 60 days. The Banking Commissioner, or his authorized assistants or representative, shall not make public the contents of said statement, or any information derived therefrom, except in the course of some judicial proceeding in this state.

(b) The Banking Commissioner of Texas shall have authority to examine or cause to be examined each such corporation annually or more often if he deems it necessary. Such corporation shall pay the actual traveling expenses, hotel bills, and all other actual expenses incident to such examination and a fee not exceeding $50 per day per person engaged in such examination. If such corporation has not sold in Texas, and does not offer for sale or sell in Texas, any of its securities which have been registered or with respect to which a permit authorizing their sale has been issued under the Securities Act, as presently in force or hereafter amended, the Banking Commissioner of Texas, in lieu of an examination, shall accept the financial statement filed by such corporation pursuant to the first paragraph of this Section. Such fees, together with all other fees, penalties and revenues collected by the Banking Department, shall be retained by the department and shall be expended only for the expenses of the department.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN. MISCELLANEOUS

Art. 1528c. Telephone Cooperative Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 3]

Powers of Corporation

Sec. 4. Each corporation shall have power:

(1) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;

(2) To have perpetual succession unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation;

(3) To adopt a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use it, or a facsimile thereof, as required by law;

(4) To furnish, improve and expand telephone service to its members, to governmental agencies and political subdivisions, and to other persons not in excess of ten per centum (10%) of the number of its members, provided, however, that, without regard to said ten per centum (10%) limitation, telephone service may be made available by a corporation through interconnection of facilities to any number of subscribers of other telephone systems, and through pay stations to any number of users; and provided, further, that a corporation which acquires existing telephone facilities may continue service to persons, not in excess of forty per centum (40%) of the number of its members, who are already receiving service from such facilities without requiring such persons to become members but such persons may become members upon such terms as may be prescribed in the by-laws; provided there shall be no duplication of services where reasonably adequate telephone services are available.

(5) To construct, purchase, lease as lessee, or otherwise acquire, and to improve, expand, install, equip, maintain, and operate, and to sell, assign, convey, lease as lessor, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of or encumber, telephone lines, facilities or systems, lands, buildings, structures, plants and equipment, exchanges, and any other real or personal property, tangible or intangible, which shall be deemed necessary, convenient or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the corporation is organized; provided that no cooperative shall furnish local telephone exchange service within the boundaries of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town or village within this State having a population in excess of one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, except where the governing body (the City Council of an incorporated area and Commissioners Court in an unincorporated area) after published notice and public hearing determines the population of such incorporated or unincorporated city, town or village within this State having a population in excess of one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants since taking and publishing the last preceding Federal Census, which order shall be entered of record in the official minutes of said governing body and shall be accepted as a true and correct determination of such population for all purposes hereunder unless contest thereof be filed within sixty (60) days from date of such order, or the official entry thereof, by any company or person at interest or living in the affected area, in a court of competent jurisdiction, in which event the question shall abide the result of such contest; and provided further that the corporation may continue to furnish telephone exchange service within the boundaries of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town or village within this State having a population in excess of one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants according to the latest Federal Census, if the area was previously receiving local telephone exchange service from the corporation prior to the time that the area increased in population to more than one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants or the area became annexed to an incorporated city, town, or village having a population in excess of one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants; and provided further that this Subsection shall not be considered as a limitation or expansion of the provisions of Subsection (4) of Section 4.

(6) To connect and interconnect its telephone lines, facilities or systems with other telephone lines, facilities or systems;

(7) To make its facilities available to persons furnishing telephone service within or without this State;

(8) To purchase, lease as lessee, or otherwise acquire, and to use, and exercise and to sell, assign, convey, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber, franchises, rights, privileges, licenses and easements;

(9) To issue membership certificates as hereinafter provided;

(10) To borrow money and otherwise contract indebtedness, and to issue or guarantee notes, bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness, and to secure the payment thereof by mortgage, pledge, or deed of trust of, or any other encumbrance upon, any or all of its real or personal property, assets, franchises, or revenues;

(11) To construct, maintain and operate telephone lines along, upon, under and across publicly owned lands and public thoroughfares, including all roads, highways, streets, alleys, bridges and causeways, subject, however, to the same restrictions and obligations required of electric transmission cooperatives in House Bill No. 393, Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature, Regular Session.¹

(12) To exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided by the laws of this State for the exercise of such power by other corporations constructing or operating telephone lines, facilities or systems.

(13) To conduct its business and exercise its powers within or without this State;

(14) To adopt, amend and repeal by-laws;

(15) To make any and all contracts necessary, convenient or appropriate for the full exercise of the powers herein granted; and

(16) To do and perform any other acts and things, and to have and exercise any other powers which may be necessary, convenient or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the corporation is organized.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 14(a) & (b)]

(c) Instead of electing all the directors annually, the by-laws may provide that the directors, other than those named in the articles of incorporation to serve until the first annual meeting of the members, shall be elected by the members for a term not to exceed three (3) years. If a term other than one (1) year is provided by the by-laws, then a staggered term will be provided with one-half (½) of the directors (or the number nearest thereto) being elected annually when a two (2) year term is provided, and one-third (⅓) of the directors (or the number nearest thereto) being elected annually when a three (3) year term is provided. Thereafter, as directors' terms expire, the members shall elect their successors to serve until the second or third succeeding annual meeting after their election.

Art. 1.03. Secretary of State as Chief Election Officer

Subd. 3. Upon petition of fifteen or more resident citizens of any one county to the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall, or may at any time upon his own initiative, appoint inspectors to observe all functions, activities, or procedures conducted pursuant to the election laws of this State. Any such inspectors shall be subject to the direction of and responsible to the Secretary of State and he may terminate any appointment at any time. Any such inspectors may be present at, observe, and take reasonable steps to evidence all activities, functions, and procedures (except for the marking of any ballot by a voter, unless being assisted by an election officer) at any polling place, place of canvass, central counting station, or other place where official election or registration functions take place. The Secretary of State or any member of his staff may, upon the initiative of the Secretary of State alone, whether any violation of election laws is suspected or not, be present at, observe, and take reasonable steps to evidence any activities, functions, and procedures at any polling place, place of canvass, central counting station, or other place where official election or registration functions take place. Any inspectors appointed under this provision shall report to the Secretary of State any violations of law observed and the Secretary of State may refer the violation to the Attorney General or a prosecuting attorney for appropriate action.

Art. 1.05. Ineligibility

Subd. 1. No person shall be eligible to be a candidate for, or to be elected or appointed to, any public elective office in this state unless he is a citizen of the United States eligible to hold such office under the Constitution and laws of this state, is not mentally incompetent as determined by a court, has not been convicted of a felony for which he has not been pardoned or had his full rights of citizenship restored by other official action, and will be 18 years of age or older on the commencement of the term to be filled at the election or on the date of his appointment, and unless he will have resided in this state for a period of 12 months next preceding the applicable date specified below, and for any public office which is less than statewide, shall have resided for six months next preceding such date in the district, county, precinct, municipality or other political subdivision for which the office is to be filled:

(1) For a candidate whose name is printed on the ballot for a general (first) primary election, the applicable date is the last day on which any candidate for the office involved could file his application to have his name printed on the ballot for that primary election.

(2) For an independent or nonpartisan candidate in a general or special election, the applicable date is the last day on which the candidate's application for a place on the ballot could be delivered to the appropriate officer for receiving the application.

(3) For a write-in candidate, the applicable date is the day of the election at which the candidate's name is written in.

(4) For a party nominee who is nominated by any method other than by primary election, the applicable date is the day on which the nomination is made.

(5) For an appointee to an office, the applicable date is the day on which the appointment is made.

Subd. 2. The foregoing requirements do not apply to any office for which the Constitution or statutes of the United States or of this state prescribe the exclusive qualifications for the office or prescribe qualifications in conflict herewith, and in such case the provisions of such other laws control.

Subd. 3. A home-rule city by charter may prescribe for its elective officers different age and residence requirements from those prescribed in Subdivision 1 of this section, but a charter may not set a minimum age greater than 21 years or a minimum length of residence in the state or city greater than 12 months next preceding the election.

Subd. 4. Except as provided in Section 104 of this code (Article 3.22, Vernon's Texas Election Code), no ineligible candidate shall ever have his name placed upon the ballot at any primary, general or special election. No ineligible candidate shall ever be voted upon nor have votes counted for him at any such primary, general or special election for the purpose of nominating or electing him, but votes cast for an ineligible candidate shall be taken into account in determining whether any other candidate received the necessary vote for nomination or election.

Subd. 5. No person who advocates the overthrow by force or violence or change by unconstitutional means of the present constitutional form of government of the United States or of this state shall be eligible to have his name printed on any official ballot in any general, special or primary election in this state.

Art. 1.05–1. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2098, ch. 682, § 28, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

Art. 1.08a. Bilingu­al Election Materials in English and Spanish

Elections and Areas in Which Bilingual Materials are Required

Subd. 1. (a) In every general, special, or primary election, by whatever authority held, which is held within a county in which five percent or more of the inhabitants are persons of Spanish origin or descent, according to the federal census specified in Paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the election materials enumerated in Subdivision 3 of this section shall be printed in both English and Spanish for use at the polling place in each election precinct that is not exempt from this requirement under Subdivision 2. In the elections of a political subdivision that includes territory in more than one county, the bilingual materials must be used in each precinct that includes territory lying within a county to which this subdivision applies unless the precinct is exempt under Subdivision 2.

(b) The census used for determining the percentage of persons of Spanish origin or descent is the last preceding federal decennial census for which the enumeration date was more than two years before January 1 of the calendar year in which the election is held.

Election Precincts Exempt from Requirement

Subd. 2. (a) An election precinct situated in a county to which Subdivision 1 applies is exempt from the requirement for bilingual election materials if official census information or other information shows that persons of Spanish origin or descent comprise less than five percent of the inhabitants of the precinct. The authority holding the election has the burden of establishing entitlement to the exemption. Unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the officer or body responsible for obtaining the supplies for the election is relieved of the duty to furnish bilingual materials for those precincts for which there has been filed with the clerk or secretary of the political subdivision responsible for the expenses of the election, at least 30 days before the date of the election, a certificate executed by the prepaying officer of the governing body of the political subdivision and approved by the governing body, identifying the precinct or precincts for which the exemption is claimed, together with an abstract of the official census information or other information relied on to support the exemption and a map or maps showing the precinct boundaries and the boundaries of the census enumeration areas referred to in the abstract. An authenticated copy of the resolution or other document evidencing the governing body's approval must be filed with the certificate.

(b) A new certificate and new supporting information must be filed following each decennial census. The supporting information must be revised following a change in election precinct boundaries, and a revised certificate must be filed if the certificate on file no longer correctly reflects the exempt precincts.

(c) In the case of a primary election held by a political party, the exempt precincts are those reflected in a certificate executed by the county judge or the secretary of state and filed in the office of the county clerk. The secretary of state is authorized to file a certificate for a county whenever the county judge has not filed a certificate by the 60th day before the date of the primary or whenever the certificate on file does not correctly reflect the exempt precincts.

Enumeration of Required Bilingual Materials; Preparation of the Materials

Subd. 3. (a) At each polling place where election materials in English and Spanish are required, the following materials shall be provided in bilingual form:

(1) Instruction cards for the information of voters shall be printed in both English and Spanish, either on separate cards to be posted side by side or on the same card with the Spanish text alongside the English text.

(2) Where voting machines or voting devices are used, a Spanish translation of the instructions for operating the machines or devices shall be posted in the compartment or booth that the voter occupies.

(3) All ballots and ballot labels may be printed with all ballot instructions, office titles, and propositions appearing in both Spanish and English. If the bilingual listing on the face of the ballot is not utilized, then a Spanish translation of the ballot shall be posted in each compartment or booth, and a statement shall be placed on the face of the ballot in Spanish to inform the voter that the Spanish translation is posted in the compartment or booth; and where paper ballots are used and booths are not provided for all voters, copies of the Spanish translation shall also be made available at the table where the voter selects his ballot, and a sign printed in Spanish shall be displayed at the table, informing the voter that he may take a copy of the Spanish translation for his use in preparing his ballot.

(4) All affidavit forms or other forms that voters are required to sign may have a Spanish translation printed beneath the English text or on the reverse side of the printed matter appearing on the form. If this translation is not utilized, then a Spanish translation of the affidavit shall be made available, and a statement shall be placed on the affidavit in Spanish that a Spanish translation is available upon request.

(b) The secretary of state shall prepare the Spanish translation for all bilingual materials required by Subdivisions 3 and 4 of this section, except ballot forms for local elections. The secretary of state shall prepare the Spanish translation of the ballot propositions for proposed constitutional amendments and other measures submitted by the legislature if the legislature fails to provide a Spanish text. The officer having the duty to make up the ballot for a local election shall prepare the Spanish translation of ballot material if the governing body of the political subdivision fails to provide a Spanish text.

Bilingual Materials for Absentee Voting

Subd. 4. In any countywide election, or in any election held in a political subdivision other than a county, in which bilingual election materials are required at any polling place in the county or other political subdivision, the absentee voting materials shall be printed in both English and Spanish. The forms for applying for an absentee ballot, the ballot envelopes and carrier envelopes, and any other instructions or forms furnished to the voters shall be printed in English with a Spanish translation on the face of the instrument or furnished separately along with the instrument. All ballots and ballot labels used for absentee voting shall be printed in the manner described in Subdivision 3; and whenever the Spanish translation of ballot propositions is printed separately from the ballot, a copy of the translation shall be furnished to each voter who votes by mail. In the conduct of absentee voting by personal appearance, any other materials enumerated in Subdivision 3 which are used in the voting shall be in bilingual form.

Optional Use of Bilingual Materials

Subd. 5. In any election held in a county to which Subdivision 1 of this section does not apply, or at any polling place where bilingual materials are not made mandatory under Subdivision 1, the governing body of the political subdivision responsible for the costs of the election may require the use of bilingual ballots and such other items of election materials enumerated in Subdivisions 3 and 4 as the governing body specifies, for any or all of the polling places as specified by the governing body; and the election officers of the political subdivision shall furnish bilingual materials in accordance with the resolution, ordinance, or other document by which their use is required. The governing body may provide for use of the bilingual materials on a continuing basis or on an election-by-election basis, as it sees fit.

Art. 1.08b. Encouragement to Vote of Non-English-Speaking Citizens

It is the intent of the legislature that non-English-speaking citizens, like all other citizens, should be encouraged to vote. Therefore, appropriate efforts should be made to minimize obstacles to voting by citizens who lack sufficient skill in English to vote without assistance.

The presiding judge of a voting precinct in which the election materials provided in Section 8a of this code are required to be used shall make reasonable efforts to appoint election clerks who are fluent in both English and Spanish.

Art. 1.08b. Verification of Petition Signatures

Whenever an application or petition of a candidate or a political party for a place on a ballot, or any other instrument authorized or required by this code, contains more than 1,000 signatures or names which need verification, the officer with whom the instrument is filed (including officers of political parties as well as public officers) may employ any reasonable statistical sampling method in determining whether the instrument contains the required number of names meeting the prescribed qualifications for signers or for names which may be listed thereon. However, in no event may the sample be less than one percent of the total number of names appearing on the instrument. [Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2081, ch. 682, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER TWO. TIME AND PLACE

Art. 2.01. Time and Place

A general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1964, and every two years thereafter, at such places as may be prescribed by law after notice as prescribed by law. Special elections shall be held at such times and places as may be fixed by law providing therefor. In all elections, general, special, or primary, the polls shall be open from seven o'clock a.m. to seven o'clock p.m.; provided, that in any county having a population of one million or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the polls may be opened one hour earlier at six o'clock a.m. on order of the commissioners court of such county entered in the minutes thereof. The foregoing authority of the commissioners court shall extend to all elections held by the state or by any county, city, school district, water district, or any other political subdivision or agency of this state held on one of the following dates: the third Saturday in January, the first Saturday in April, the second Saturday in August, or the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Provided, however, that in even-numbered years the only issues which may be included on the ballot of the election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November shall be the election of state and county officers and amendments to the constitution of this state submitted to the voters by the legislature. This requirement does not apply to runoff elections, elections held under Chapter 467, Acts of the 44th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1935, as amended, bond elections, or to the biennial party primary elections held to nominate candidates for public office. An election held on an unauthorized date is void.

(b) When a vacancy in office is to be filled at a special election, the election must be called for a date specified in Subsection (a) unless the governor finds the existence of an emergency that warrants calling the election for an earlier date. When the governor finds such an emergency, he may grant permission to call an emergency special election to fill a vacancy, the governing body shall submit a request to the governor for permission to call the election, and the governor may grant permission if he finds that an emergency exists.

(c) The date of the general (regular) elections of the political subdivisions of this state shall be as follows: an election which by preexisting law is set for a date falling in the month of December, January, or February shall be held on the third Saturday in January; an election which is set for a date falling in the month of March, April, May, or June shall be held on the first Saturday in April; an election which is set for a date falling in the month of July, August, or September shall be held on the second Saturday in August; and an election which is set for a date falling in the month of October or November shall be held on the first Monday in November. Provided, however, that in even-numbered years the only issues which may be included on the ballot of the election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November shall be the election of state and county officers and constitutional amendments submitted to the people by the legislature. The elections of political subdivisions which by preexisting law fall in the months of October or November in even-numbered years shall be held on the third Saturday in January. The governing body of local political subdivisions whose elections by preexisting law fall annually in the month of October or November shall be allowed to choose for their permanent election day any of the above four election dates. The filing deadline for candidates, the dates for canvassing the returns of the election, the date for commencement of terms of office filled at the election, and any other date incidental to the election shall fall on the date that has the same relationship to the date of the election as provided under the preexisting law. Where by preexisting law the terms of office are set to commence on a specified calendar date and the date of the election is changed by this section, the governing board of the political subdivision shall set the date on which the terms begin until otherwise provided by law. A runoff election, when required, shall be held on a date that provides the same time interval with relation to the main election as provided under the preexisting law.

(d) When under the provisions of Subsection (c) the beginning date for a term of office is changed to fall on an earlier date, the current term on the effective date of this section is shortened accordingly, and the holder of the current term shall surrender the office to his successor on the beginning date of the succeeding term or as soon thereafter as the successor has qualified. When the beginning date is changed to fall on a later date, the incumbent in office at the expiration of the current term as set by preexisting law shall continue to perform the duties of the office, as required by Section 17 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution, until the successor has qualified for the succeeding term.

(e) When a preexisting law requires that a special election be called within a specified time period after the occurrence of a certain event, the election shall be called for a date authorized in Subsection (a) of this section that falls within that time period; or if there is no authorized date within the period that allows sufficient time to comply with other requirements of law, the election shall be called for the first authorized date after its expiration, except that the election shall be called for some other date within the time period where the constitution requires it.

Art. 2.01c. Joint Elections of Political Subdivisions

(a) When two or more political subdivisions of this state are holding elections on the same day in all or part of the same territory, the governing bodies of any two or more of the political subdivisions may agree to hold their elections jointly in the election precincts that can be served by common polling places. When any other statute makes a joint election mandatory, a joint election must be held in accordance with the terms of the statute; and if any other political subdivisions are holding elections in any part of the same territory, any or all of them may also join in the agreement for a joint election.

(b) When a joint election is to be held, a resolution reciting the terms of the agreement, including the method for allocating the expenses for the election, shall be adopted by the governing body of each of the participating political subdivisions. The agreement may provide for use of a single ballot form at each polling place, to contain all the offices or propositions to be voted on at that polling place, or for separate ballot forms; provided, however, that no voter shall be given a ballot containing any office or proposition on which the voter is ineligible to vote. One set of election officers may be appointed to conduct the joint election, and any person who is qualified to serve as an election officer in the election of any one of the participating political subdivisions may be appointed to serve in the joint election. Poll lists, tally lists, return forms, and other records for the various elections may be combined in any manner convenient and adequate to record and report the result of each election. Where paper ballots or punchcard ballots are used, one set of ballot boxes and one stub box may be used for receiving all ballots and ballot stubs for the joint election. Returns on joint or separate forms may be made to, and the canvass made by, each officer, board, or body designated by law to receive and canvass the returns for each election, or one of such officers, boards, or bodies may be designated to receive and canvass the returns for the joint election and to report the results of each election to the proper authority. Where other records are combined, the officer designated by law to be the custodian of the records for any participating subdivision may be designated in the agreement to be the custodian of the combined records. Where the counted ballots for more than one subdivision are deposited in a single ballot box, the officer designated by law to be the custodian of the voted ballots for any one of the subdivisions may be designated in the agreement to be the custodian.

Art. 2.01c  ELECTION CODE 558

Section 1 of the 1975 Act added art. 2.01b; § 3 thereof provided:

"Sec. 3. (a) This Act shall take effect on January 1, 1976.
(b) This Act shall no longer be in effect after the first Monday after the third Saturday in January, 1978."

Art. 2.04. County Election Precincts Formed by Commissioners Court
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a)]

(b) No election precinct shall be formed out of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts, nor out of the parts of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts; and no election precinct shall be formed out of two or more congressional districts or state senatorial districts or state representative districts, nor out of the parts of two or more such districts. If in September of any year there exists any election precinct in the county which does not comply with the foregoing requirements, the commissioners court shall make the necessary changes before the first day of October, either at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose; and the order shall be published as provided in Paragraph (a) of this section. Subject to the provisions of the first sentence of this paragraph, no election precinct shall have resident therein less than 100 nor more than 2000 voters as ascertained by the number of registered voters for the last preceding presidential general election year; provided, however, that in counties of less than 100,000 population according to the last preceding federal census, the commissioners court may establish precincts of less than 100 but not less than 50 voters; and provided further, that in counties of less than 50,000 population according to the last preceding federal census, the commissioners court may establish precincts of less than 50 voters upon the petition of 25 or more registered voters within the county. In precincts in which voting machines or devices have been adopted for use in accordance with Section 79 or Section 80 of this Code,\(^1\) the maximum number of voters shall be 3000. There shall be a minimum of one election precinct wholly contained within each commissioners precinct.

\(^1\) Articles 7.14, 7.15.

Art. 2.06a. Municipal and School District Election Dates

In counties where voting machines or electronic voting systems are used, all municipal and school district elections in which candidates are running for office, including without limitation, elections in home-rule cities and independent, municipal, and county school districts, otherwise scheduled to be held within 14 days of the date on which a proposed amendment or amendments to the Constitution of Texas are to be submitted to a vote of the electorate, may be held on the same date as the constitutional amendment election if the governing body of the municipality or the school district so provides. If the governing body changes the date of the elections as authorized by this Act, it may set the date of any second or runoff primary which may be necessary for any date not earlier than the 14th day after the first election and not later than the latest date which would have been permissible if the date of the first election had not been changed. This Act shall make no change in the term of office or commencement thereof in any election affected hereby. [Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2108, ch. 688, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2.06-1. Expired

CHAPTER THREE. OFFICERS OF ELECTION

Art. 3.07. Service, Duties, and Privileges of Watchers
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) to (e)]

(d) Each watcher appointed in accordance with this code shall be permitted, but not required, to sit conveniently near the judges or clerks so that he can observe the conduct of the election, including but not limited to the reading of the ballots, the tallying and counting of the votes, the making out of the returns, the locking of the ballot boxes, their custody and safe return. He shall also be permitted to be present when assistance is given by any election judge in the marking of the ballot of any voter not able to mark his own ballot, to see that the ballot is marked in accordance with the wishes of the voter, but he must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law. He shall not be permitted to enter into any conversation with the judges or clerks regarding the election while it is progressing, except to call the attention of the judges or clerks to any irregularity or violation of the law that he may observe. The watcher shall call the attention of officers holding the election to any fraud, irregularity or mistake, illegal voting attempted, or other failure to comply with the laws governing such election at the time it occurs, if practicable and if he has knowledge thereof at the time, and such complaint shall be reduced to writing and a copy delivered to the election judge. Preventing a poll watcher from observing any activity including, but not limited to, the tallying of ballots at any polling place, place of canvass, or central counting station shall constitute a Class A misdemeanor.

CHAPTER FOUR. ORDERING ELECTIONS

Art. 4.10. Vacancy: Application to Get on Ballot

Subd. 1. (a) Any person desiring his name to appear upon the official ballot at any special election held for the purpose of filling a vacancy, when no party primary has been held, may do so by presenting his application to the proper authority. Such application shall set forth:

(1) The name of the office sought;
(2) His occupation, his postoffice address, and the county of his residence;
(3) His age, place of birth, kind of citizenship, and length of residence in the county and state.

(b) In any special election for a statewide or district office which is regularly filled at the general election for state and county officers, the application shall also set forth the candidate's political party affiliation or shall state that the candidate is not affiliated with any political party.

Subd. 2. Such application must be filed not later than 5 p.m. of the 31st day before any such special election, and shall not be considered filed unless it has actually been received by the officer with whom it is to be filed.

Subd. 3. (a) The application must be filed with the Secretary of State in the case of a statewide or district special election. It must be accompanied with a fee of $1,000 for a statewide office, including without limitation the office of United States Senator, a fee of $500 for the district office of United States Representative, a fee of $400 for the district office of State Senator, and a fee of $200 for the district office of State Representative; or, in lieu of the filing fee, the application must be accompanied with a petition signed by at least 5,000 registered voters of the state in the case of a statewide office, and by at least 500 registered voters of the district in the case of a district office. A petition must show the address, voter registration number, and date of signing for each signer. No person may sign the petition of more than one candidate for the same office, and if a person signs the petition of more than one candidate, the signature is void as to all such petitions. A petition may be in multiple parts. To each part, which may consist of one or more sheets, there must be attached the affidavit of some registered voter, giving his address and voter registration number, and stating that each signature appearing in that part of the petition was affixed in the presence of the affiant and that to the best knowledge and belief of the affiant each signature is genuine and each person signing was a registered voter at the time of signing. A petition so verified is prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and that the persons signing it are registered voters. Fees received under this subdivision shall be deposited in the general revenue fund of the state.

(b) Upon receipt of an application which conforms to the above requirements, the Secretary of State shall issue his instruction to the county clerks of the state, or of the district in the case of a district vacancy, directing that the name of the applicant be printed on the official ballot.

(c) The party affiliation of the candidate shall be printed on the official ballot following the name of the candidate. If the candidate has stated in his application that he is not affiliated with any political party, the word “Independent” shall be printed on the ballot following the candidate's name. In other respects, the ballot shall be printed as indicated in Section 61 of this code (Article 6.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code) for a special election in which no party nomination has been made.

Subd. 4. The application must be filed with the city secretary or clerk in the case of a municipal special election. A home-rule city by charter may require that the application be accompanied with a reasonable filing fee or a petition of voters in lieu of the filing fee. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 356, ch. 151, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER FIVE. SUFFERAGE

Art. 5.01. Classes of Persons Not Qualified to Vote

The following classes of persons shall not be allowed to vote in this state:

1. Persons under 18 years of age.
2. Idiots and lunatics.
3. All paupers supported by the county.
4. All persons convicted of any felony except those restored to full citizenship and right of suffrage or pardoned.

Art. 5.02. Qualifications and Requirements for Voting

(a) Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who is a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state and is eighteen years of age or older, and who has complied with the registration requirements of this code, is a qualified voter. No person may vote in an election held by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision unless he is a resident of the subdivision on the day of the election; and, except, as expressly permitted by some other provision of this code or another statute of this state, no person may vote in an election precinct other than the one in which he resides. The provisions of this section, as modified by Section 35 of this code (Article 5.03, Vernon's Texas Election Code), apply to all elections, including general, special, and primary elections, whether held by the state, by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state, or by a political party.

(b) All citizens of this state who are otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election of this state or any district, county, municipality, or other political subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections. The Secretary of State shall, by directive, implement the policies stated herein throughout the elective procedures and policies by or under authority of this state. Enforcement of any directive of the Secretary of State pursuant to this section may be by injunction obtained by the Attorney General.

Art. 5.05. Absentee Voting

Who May Vote Absentee

Subd. 1. (a) Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who will be 65 years of age or older on the day of the election, or who because of sickness, physical disability, confinement in jail, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place in the election precinct of his residence on the day of the election, may nevertheless cause his vote to be cast at any election held in this state by compliance with the applicable method herein provided for absentee voting. If a voter's religious belief prohibits him from voting during any part of the time during which the polls are open on the day of the election, he shall nevertheless be entitled to vote absentee even though the prohibition does not operate throughout the entire time that the polls are open. A voter who is confined in jail is entitled to vote absentee if at the time of applying for an absentee ballot he is:

(1) serving a misdemeanor sentence which extends through election day;

(2) being held for trial after a denial of bail;

(3) being held without bail pending the appeal of a felony conviction; or

(4) being held for trial or pending an appeal on a bailable charge but he expects not to have been released on bail by the date of the election.

(b) Absentee voting shall be conducted by two methods:

(1) voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, and

(2) voting by mail.

All voters coming within the foregoing provisions of this subdivision may vote by personal appearance at the clerk's office if they are able to make such appearance within the period for absentee voting. Where the ground for voting absentee is confinement in jail, it is not mandatory that the voter be allowed to make a personal appearance, but the officer in charge of the jail, in his discretion, is authorized to make the necessary arrangements to permit the voter to vote by personal appearance.

(c) The following persons, and no other, may vote by mail:

(i) Qualified voters who will be 65 years of age or older on the day of the election, or who because of sickness or physical disability, or because of religious beliefs, cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election. It must be mailed to the clerk, and the clerk shall preserve the envelope in which it is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than by mailing it to him, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. The voter shall state in his application the address to which the ballot is to be mailed to him, which must be either his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living. If the ballot is furnished to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him, or if it is mailed to any address other than one of the foregoing, it shall be void and shall not be counted. The marked ballot must be mailed to the clerk, and if returned in any other manner it shall be void and shall not be counted.

(ii) Qualified voters who, before the beginning of the period for absentee voting, make application for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county of their residence on election day, and who expect to be absent from the county during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period of absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he expects to be absent from the county of his residence on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period for absentee voting. The application shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election, and may be mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the voter in person, but the clerk shall not furnish a ballot to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him. Applications made under this paragraph may be mailed either from within or without the county of the voter's residence, but in every case the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk is postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.
ELECTION CODE

(iii) Qualified voters who, after the beginning of the period for absentee voting, apply for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county and who are absent from such county at the time of applying for an absentee ballot and expect to be absent from such county during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he is absent from the county at the time of making the application and expects to be absent on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The clerk shall not mail a ballot to any such voter unless the envelope in which the application is received is postmarked from a point outside the county, and the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the envelope in which the application is received and the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk are each postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

(iv) Qualified voters who are confined in jail under one of the circumstances listed in the first paragraph of this subdivision. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than twenty days before the day of the election. It must be enclosed in an envelope and either mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the jailer or one of his deputies or assistants, who shall place his signature on the envelope at the time of its delivery. The clerk shall preserve the envelope in which the application is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than as expressly authorized herein, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. The clerk shall mail the ballot to the voter in care of the jail where he is confined; and if the ballot is furnished to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him, or if it is mailed to any other address, it shall be void and shall not be counted. The marked ballot must be mailed to the clerk, and if returned in any other manner it shall be void and shall not be counted.

(d) An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail shall state the applicant's permanent address and the address to which the absentee ballot is to be mailed to the applicant, and shall also state the address to which his voter registration certificate is to be mailed back to him.

Application for Ballot

Subd. 2. (a) A voter desiring to vote absentee shall make written application for an official ballot to the county clerk of the county of his residence, which application shall be signed by the voter, or by a witness at the direction of the voter if for any reason the voter is unable to sign his name. The application shall state the ground on which the applicant is entitled to vote absentee, and in case of an application by mail, it shall also state the additional information required by Subdivision 1 of this section.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by the voter registration certificate of the voter, or in lieu thereof, his statement in writing that same has been lost or mislaid, has been left at the voter's home (where he is applying from a temporary address), or has been used for applying for an absentee ballot in another election (stating the nature and date of the election) and has not been returned to him. If the ground of application is sickness or physical disability by reason of which the voter cannot appear at the polling place on election day, a certificate of a duly licensed physician or chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner certifying to such sickness or physical disability shall accompany the application, which certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

This is to certify that I have personal knowledge of the physical condition of , and that because of sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place for an election to be held on the day of , 19.

Witness my hand at , Texas, this day of , 19.

(c) Expected or likely confinement for childbirth on election day shall be sufficient to entitle a voter to vote absentee on the ground of sickness or physical disability, and a physician executing a certificate for a pregnant woman may state in the certificate that because of pregnancy and possible delivery she will be or may be unable to appear at the polling place on election day.
Art. 5.05

ELECTION CODE

Section 5.05

Any person who requests a physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner to execute a certificate for another person without having been directed by such other person to do so, and any physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner who knowingly executes a certificate except upon the request of the voter named therein or upon request of someone at the voter's direction, or who knowingly delivers a certificate except by delivering it to the voter in person or by mailing it to the voter at his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living, or who knowingly falsifies a certificate, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both so fined and imprisoned.

(d) A voter who gives false information in his application for an absentee ballot is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both so fined and imprisoned.

Voting by Personal Appearance in County-wide Elections

Subd. 3a. (a) In a county-wide election, or in an election less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee voting by personal appearance shall be conducted on a voting machine or that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, if the clerk is satisfied as to the right of the applicant to vote, the clerk shall place a notation on the list of registered voters showing that the particular person has voted absentee and shall enter the voter's name on a poll list of absentee voters. He shall note the number of the voter's registration certificate on the application, and shall return the certificate to the voter. The application shall be preserved in the clerk's office for the length of time provided by law for preservation of voted ballots.

(b) In the conduct of absentee voting under this subdivision, the clerk shall possess the same power as a presiding judge with respect to examination and acceptance of a voter. If the right of an applicant to vote is challenged, the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this Code (Article 8.09, Vernon's Texas Election Code) shall be followed.

(c) Where paper ballots are used for absentee voting, after a voter has been accepted, the clerk shall furnish the voter with an official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election. The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark his ballot and detach and sign the ballot stub, and shall deposit the ballot in a ballot box and the stub in a stub box in the manner provided in Section 97 of this Code (Article 8.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The ballots shall be deposited in a ballot box locked with two locks, the keys of one of which shall be kept during the period for absentee voting by the sheriff and the keys of the other by the county clerk. The stubs shall be deposited in a stub box prepared in accordance with Section 97 of this Code (Article 8.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

(d) Where a voting machine is used for absentee voting by personal appearance, after a voter has been accepted, he shall then be permitted to cast his ballot on the voting machine. Returns of absentee votes cast on a voting machine shall be made under the appropriate provision of Section 79 of this Code (Article 7.14, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Voting by Personal Appearance in Election Less Than County-wide

Subd. 3b. (a) In an election less than county-wide in which absentee paper ballots are to be sent to the regular polling places for counting, upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, the clerk shall thereupon furnish to the voter the following absentee voting supplies:

(1) One official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election.

(2) One ballot envelope, which shall be a plain envelope, without any markings except the words "Ballot Envelope" printed on the face thereof, followed by the instructions contained in this subdivision and Subdivision 4 for marking the ballot, for placing it in the carrier envelope, and for returning a ballot to be voted by mail, together with a statement of the deadline for placing the ballot in the mail and for delivery to the clerk's office in that election, the text of the provisions in Subdivision 15 of this section which relate to assistance to the voter in preparing his ballot, and the text of Section 330 of this code (Article 15.30, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The textual material may be continued onto the reverse side of the envelope if necessary.
(3) One carrier envelope, upon the face of which there shall appear the words "Carrier Envelope for Absentee Ballot" and the name, official title, and post-office address of the county clerk, upon the other side there shall appear spaces for showing the nature and date of the election and the number or name of the election precinct in which the voter resides (which the clerk shall fill in before he furnishes the supplies to the voter), and a certificate in substantially the following form:

"I certify that the enclosed ballot expresses my wishes, independent of any dictation or undue persuasion of any person and that I did not use any memorandum or device to aid me in the marking of the ballot.

By: ____________________________

(Signature of person who assisted voter. See Ballot Envelope for restrictions and penalties.)

(b) The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark the ballot, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign the certificate on the carrier envelope, and deliver the carrier envelope to the clerk. The clerk shall note the number of the voter's registration certificate on the application, and shall return the certificate to the voter.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 3c and 3d]

Subd. 4. (a) The period for absentee voting by mail shall begin on the twentieth day preceding the date of the election. An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail must be received in the clerk's office not later than the close of business on the fourth day preceding election day. In county-wide elections and in elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, on the day of the election the ballot box and stub box used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the keys to the ballot box, the jacket envelopes containing the ballots voted by mail and accompanying papers, the poll list for absentee voting on which the clerk has entered the names of persons voting by personal appearance, and the list of registered voters used by the county clerk, shall be delivered to a special canvassing board consisting of a presiding judge and two or more election clerks appointed in the same manner as provided for appointment of the election officers for regular polling places at that election. The county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board at such hour as the presiding judge shall direct, but not earlier than the hour at which the polls are opened and not later than the hour specified in Subdivision 4 of this section as the deadline for returning the marked ballots to the clerk's office. If delivered before the deadline, the clerk shall deliver in like manner to the board, immediately following the deadline, all ballots preceding election day. The ballot may be marked by the voter at any time after he receives it.

(b) On the twentieth day preceding election day, or as soon thereafter as possible, the clerk shall mail an official ballot, ballot envelope, and carrier envelope, as described in Subdivision 5b of this section, to each voter who has theretofore made application for a ballot in compliance with this section. On applications which are received between the twentieth day and the fourth day preceding election day, the clerk shall forthwith mail the absentee voting supplies to the voter.

(c) The voter shall mark the ballot, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot, and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign the certificate on the carrier envelope. The carrier envelope shall then be mailed, postage pre-paid, to the county clerk.

(d) As soon as practicable after receipt of the carrier envelope containing the marked ballot, the clerk shall note the number of the voter's registration certificate on the application, and shall mail the certificate to the voter at the address given in the application for returning the certificate to the voter, or if no such address is given, to the voter's permanent address.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 4a to 5]

Subd. 6. (a) In all countywide elections, and in elections less than countywide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, on the day of the election the ballot box and stub box used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the keys to the ballot box, the jacket envelopes containing the ballots voted by mail and accompanying papers, the poll list for absentee voting on which the clerk has entered the names of persons voting by personal appearance, and the list of registered voters used by the county clerk, shall be delivered to a special canvassing board consisting of a presiding judge and two or more election clerks appointed in the same manner as provided for appointment of the election officers for regular polling places at that election. The county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board at such hour as the presiding judge shall direct, but not earlier than the hour at which the polls are opened and not later than the hour specified in Subdivision 4 of this section as the deadline for returning the marked ballots to the clerk's office. If delivered before the deadline, the clerk shall deliver in like manner to the board, immediately following the deadline, all ballots.

Counting of Ballots in County-wide Elections

Subd. 6. (a) In all countywide elections, and in elections less than countywide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, on the day of the election the ballot box and stub box used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the keys to the ballot box, the jacket envelopes containing the ballots voted by mail and accompanying papers, the poll list for absentee voting on which the clerk has entered the names of persons voting by personal appearance, and the list of registered voters used by the county clerk, shall be delivered to a special canvassing board consisting of a presiding judge and two or more election clerks appointed in the same manner as provided for appointment of the election officers for regular polling places at that election. The county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board at such hour as the presiding judge shall direct, but not earlier than the hour at which the polls are opened and not later than the hour specified in Subdivision 4 of this section as the deadline for returning the marked ballots to the clerk's office. If delivered before the deadline, the clerk shall deliver in like manner to the board, immediately following the deadline, all ballots.
Art. 5.05  ELECTION CODE

received by mail before the deadline which have not previously been delivered to the board.

(b) This special canvassing board shall open the jacket envelopes, announce the voter's name, and ascertain in each case if he is qualified to vote at that election and if he has complied with all applicatable provisions of this section to entitle his ballot to be cast. On ballots voted by mail, the board shall compare the signatures on the application and the carrier envelope, and in case the board finds that the signatures correspond, that the application and the certificate on the carrier envelope are duly executed, that the voter is a qualified elector, and that he has voted in a manner authorized in this section, they shall enter his name on the official poll list (on which voters voting by mail shall be listed separately from those who have voted by personal appearance) and shall open the carrier envelope so as not to deface the certificate thereon, and shall place the sealed ballot envelope in the ballot box and the stub in the stub box. The carrier envelope, application, and accompanying papers shall be replaced in the jacket envelope and returned to the county clerk at the same time the voted ballots are returned, and shall be preserved for the length of time provided by law for the preservation of the voted ballots.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 6(c) to 14a]

Assistance to Voter; Use of English Language

Subd. 15. (a) No assistance shall be given a voter in marking his absentee ballot except where the voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of his inability to read the language in which the ballot is printed or because of some bodily infirmity which renders him physically unable to write or to see or to operate the voting equipment. If a voter who is voting by personal appearance is entitled to assistance, he may be assisted by the clerk or a deputy clerk or by any qualified voter of the political subdivision in which the election is held, selected by the voter. If a voter who is voting by mail is entitled to assistance, he may be assisted by any person 18 years of age or older, selected by the voter. The person assisting the voter shall not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote, and shall confine the assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming the candidates and the political parties to which they belong, and the person shall prepare the ballot as the voter directs. Where any assistance is rendered in marking an absentee ballot other than as allowed in this subdivision, the ballot shall not be counted but shall be void for all purposes.

(b) In absentee voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, any voter unable to speak or understand the English language may communicate with the clerk in some other language, and if the clerk is unable to speak or understand the language used by the voter or if he requests that the voter communicate through an interpreter, the voter shall be entitled to communicate through an interpreter of his choice, who shall be a qualified voter in the county. Before acting as interpreter, the person chosen by the voter shall take the following oath, to be administered by the clerk: "I solemnly swear that I will correctly interpret and translate each question, answer, or statement addressed to the voter by the clerk and each question, answer, or statement addressed to the clerk by the voter." When any language other than the English language is used either by the voter or by the clerk, any watcher present shall be entitled to request and receive a translation into the English language of anything spoken in some other language.

11, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 5.05a. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg. p.
2098, ch. 682, § 28, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

Art. 5.05b. Voting by Former Residents of State in Presidential Elections

Former Residents Eligible to Vote

Subd. 1. A former resident of this state who has become a legal resident of another state of the United States or of the District of Columbia may vote for presidential and vice presidential electors in the county of his former residence if:

(1) on the day of the election he will not have resided in the state of his present residence for a period of 90 days and will not be eligible to vote in that state, and

(2) he otherwise possesses the substantive qualifications of an elector in this state, as defined in Section 34 of this code (Article 34 of this code (Article

(3) at the time of his removal he was registered as a voter in this state, and

(4) he complies with the provisions of this section.

Application for Presidential Ballot

Subd. 2. (a) A person eligible to vote under the provisions of this section may vote either by personal appearance or by mail. The voter shall make a written, signed application to the county clerk of the county of his former residence for a ballot permitting him to vote for president and vice president only, on a form to be prescribed by the secretary of state and furnished by the county clerk.
Subd. 3. When a voter desires to vote a ballot by mail, the procedure for absentee voting by mail in a countywide election shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable and is not inconsistent with this section. The clerk shall mail the voter a ballot from which the clerk has stricken all offices and propositions other than the offices of president and vice president, together with a ballot envelope and a carrier envelope containing such markings and instructions as the secretary of state prescribes. When the election officer checks the voter’s name on the list of registered voters and enters his name on the poll list, the officer shall add a notation that the voter is voting under this section, in the presidential race only. The ballots cast under this section shall be counted and return made thereof along with and on the same forms as the other absentee ballots.

Procedure for Voting by Personal Appearance

Subd. 4. A voter may vote by personal appearance at the clerk’s office at any time that the office is open to the public, beginning on the 20th day preceding the election and ending on the day of the election. When the voter appears in person, the clerk shall furnish him with a ballot, ballot envelope, and carrier envelope prepared in accordance with Subdivision 3 of this section, and the ballot shall be processed and counted along with the absentee ballots voted by mail.

Cancellation of Registration

Subd. 5. When the registrar receives a list of registered voters containing a notation that a voter has voted under this section, he shall cancel the registration if it is still in the active file in his records.

Art. 5.05c. Voting Limited Ballot After Removal to Another County

Definition of Limited Ballot

Subd. 1. The term “limited ballot” is used to mean a ballot listing only the offices and propositions on which a voter is entitled to vote under the procedure outlined in this section during a period not exceeding 90 days after his removal from one county to another county within the state. The term includes the ballot for any election at which the voter is entitled to vote, even though at some special or runoff elections the ballot may be identical with the full ballot for that election. For the purposes of this section, the day of arrival in the county of new residence is counted as the first day after removal.
Art. 5.05c

inconsistent with this section. Ballots cast under this section shall be counted and return made thereof along with and on the same forms as the absentee ballots.

Art. 5.05d. General Provisions on Voting by Persons Lacking Full Voting Rights

Subd. 1. The county clerk shall post at a conspicuous place in his office, for public inspection, a complete list of persons who have applied for a ballot under Section 37b or 37c of this code (Article 5.05b or 5.05c, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), stating thereon the applicant’s name, address, precinct of residence, the section of this code under which the application was made, and the date on which the ballot was delivered or mailed, which list shall be kept up from day to day. The names of persons voting under Section 37c shall be included on the precinct lists of absentee voters which the clerk furnishes to the presiding judges of the election, as provided in Subdivision 11 of Section 37 of this code (Article 5.05, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), with a notation by each name to indicate that the voter received a limited ballot under Section 37c.

Subd. 2. Applications and accompanying papers received pursuant to Sections 37b and 37c of this code (Articles 5.05b and 5.05c, Vernon’s Texas Election Code) shall be preserved in the clerk’s office for the length of time provided by law for preservation of voted ballots and shall be open to public inspection under the same rules as apply to applications for absentee ballots.

Art. 5.10a. Persons Entitled to Register

A person is entitled to register as a voter in the precinct in which he has his legal residence (i.e., domicile), as defined in Section 40 of this code (Article 5.08, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), if:

(1) on the date of applying for registration he is a citizen of the United States and is subject to none of the disqualifications, other than nonage, stated in Section 33 of this code (Article 5.01, Vernon’s Texas Election Code); and

(2) within 60 days after applying for registration he will be 18 years of age or older.

However, no person may vote at any election unless he fulfills all the qualifications of an elector for that election.

Art. 5.11a. Initial Registration Period for Permanent Registration

Subd. 1. An initial registration period for permanent registration shall begin on November 5, 1975, and shall continue through January 31, 1976. Between November 5, 1975, and December 15, 1975, the registrar shall mail by forwardable mail an application for registration to each person who was eligible to vote in the constitutional amendments election on November 4, 1975. Included on or accompanying each application shall be a statement informing the voter that his current registration will expire on March 1, 1976, and that he must complete the application for a new registration and return it to the registrar by January 31, 1976, in order to be registered to vote as of March 1, 1976. A registration for an application submitted under this provision shall take effect on March 1, 1976. Certificates shall be issued during February of 1976 to persons applying for registration under this provision. Applications received by the registrar after January 31, 1976, shall be treated in accordance with Section 45a of this code (Article 5.13a, Vernon’s Texas Election Code). Registrations in effect as of October 1, 1975, and registrations which become effective after that date but before March 1, 1976, shall remain in force through February 29, 1976, but not thereafter. Each voter whose registration becomes effective after November 4, 1975, but before March 1, 1976, shall be issued an initial certificate valid for the remainder of the voting year ending on February 29, 1976, and a certificate valid for voting in the two year period beginning on March 1, 1976.

Subd. 2. This section expires on March 2, 1976.

Art. 5.13a. Mode of Applying for Registration; Period for Which Registration is Effective

Subd. 1. Registration shall be conducted at all times the registrar’s office is open for business. A person may apply for registration in person or by mail. Each applicant shall submit to the registrar of the county in which he resides a written application which supplies all the information required by Section 45b of this code (Article 5.13b, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The Secretary of State shall prescribe the application form. He may prescribe one or more forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing voter registration certificates and a different form for use in counties not using those methods, but the registrar in each county shall accept any application made upon any form prescribed by the Secretary of State which supplies all the necessary information for registration. In addition to other requirements, the application form shall contain the following statement: “I understand that the giving of false information to procure the registration of a voter is a felony.” It shall also contain a space for recording the number of the voter's registration certificate.

Subd. 2. The application shall be signed by the applicant or his agent. However, if the person making the application is unable to sign his name either because of physical disability or illiteracy, he shall affix his mark, if able to do so, which shall be attested by a witness, whose signature and address shall be shown on the application. If a person making the application is physically unable to make a mark, the witness shall so state on the application. Subd. 3. The husband, wife, father, mother, son, or daughter of a person entitled to register may act as agent for such person in applying for registration, without the necessity of written authorization therefore, may sign for the applicant, and may receive the registration certificate. However, none of these persons may act as agent unless he is a qualified elector of the county. No person other than those mentioned in this subdivision may act as agent for a person in applying for registration. Except as permitted in this subdivision, a person who wilfully acts as agent for another in applying for registration or in obtaining a registration certificate is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

Subd. 4. A registration becomes effective on the 30th day after the date on which the registrar receives the application or on the day that the registrant attains the age of 18 years (the day before his 18th birthday), whichever is later. An application by mail is deemed to have been received by the registrar when it is actually placed into the possession of the registrar or his agent by a post-office employee, or is deposited in the registrar's mail box, or is left at the usual place of delivery for the registrar's official mail. If the registrar is unable to determine the exact date on which the application is deposited in his mail box, he shall treat it as having been deposited on the date of the last previous removal of mail from the box. Every registration of a voter which becomes effective on or after March 1, 1976, shall continue in effect until cancelled under some provision of this code.

Subd. 5. Any person who applies for registration of any person, or who signs an application purporting to be the application for registration of any person, either real or fictitious, other than the person making the application or affixing the signature, or someone for whom he may lawfully act as agent, or someone who is unable to sign and who requests him to sign for such other person, is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

Art. 5.13b. Information on Application

Required Information

Subd. 1. An application form for voter registration shall provide that the following required information be furnished by the applicant:

1. The applicant's first name, middle name (if any), and surname. If the applicant is a married woman using her husband's surname, she shall furnish her first name, maiden name, and husband's surname.

2. The applicant's sex.

3. The month, day, and year of the applicant's birth, and city or county and state, or foreign country, where the applicant was born.

4. A statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States.

5. If a naturalized citizen, the court of naturalization, or its location.

6. A statement that the applicant is a resident of the county.

7. If the applicant is currently registered in another county, the name of that county and the applicant's last residence address in that county.

8. The registrant's complete current permanent residence address (including apartment number, if any); or, if none, a concise description of the location of the registrant's residence;

9. The address to which the registration certificate is to be mailed, but only if mail cannot be delivered to the registrant's permanent residence.

10. If the application is made by an agent, a statement of the agent’s relationship to the applicant.

Optional Information

Subd. 2. The application form shall contain a space for showing the election precinct in which the applicant resides, but an application is not deficient
Art. 5.13b

ELECTION CODE

for failure to list the number or name of the precinct or for listing an incorrect number or name where the applicant's correct permanent residence address is given. It shall also contain a space for the applicant's social security number and telephone number, but an application is not deficient for failure to list these numbers. However, should it be made possible for the state to require that a registrant provide his social security number when applying for a registration certificate, the providing of such a number by all those applicants who possess such a number may be made mandatory by directive of the Secretary of State in the exercise of his authority pursuant to the provisions of Section 3, Texas Election Code (Article 1.08, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The registrar shall not transcribe, copy, or record any telephone number furnished on an application for registration. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 752, ch. 296, § 4, eff. Nov. 5, 1975.]

Art. 5.13c. Voter Registration Forms in Spanish

The secretary of state shall prescribe a voter registration application form that is printed in Spanish. In each county in which five percent or more of the inhabitants are persons of Spanish origin or descent, according to the last preceding federal decennial census, the registrar shall keep a supply of these, and shall keep a notice in Spanish posted at the place in his office where voter registration is conducted, stating that application forms in Spanish are available. Registrars in other counties may also use this form if they wish to do so. Every registrar in the state is required to accept and process applications that are tendered to him on the bilingual form, in the same manner as other applications. [Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 513, ch. 213, § 2, eff. May 16, 1975.]

Art. 5.14a. Registration Certificate Forms; Issuance of Certificates; Information Required on Certificate

Registration Certificate Forms

Subd. 1. (a) The form for a voter registration certificate shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State. He may prescribe one or more forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing certificates and a different form for use in counties not using those methods. A certificate form prescribed by the Secretary of State shall be valid for use only during a two-year period, such two-year period to begin on March 1 of even-numbered years, unless rescinded by the Secretary of State.

(b) The registration certificates for each county may be numbered or labeled in any manner which will enable the registrar to efficiently and accurately maintain the voter registration rolls. However, the Secretary of State may establish a standardized numbering or labeling system and require its adoption by the various counties.

Issuance of Certificates

Subd. 2. (a) When a properly executed application is received by the registrar, he shall make out an initial registration certificate in duplicate and shall mail the original copy to the voter at his regular mailing address, or if none, at his permanent residence address, in time for him to receive it before his registration becomes effective. The registrar may also deliver the original copy to the voter personally, or to an agent making the application under Section 45a of this code (Article 5.13a, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The duplicate copy shall be retained by the registrar. At the time he prepares the initial registration certificate, the registrar shall enter the certificate number in an appropriate space on the voter's application for registration.

(b) Between November 1 and the succeeding December 15 of each year in which no general election is held, beginning in 1977, the registrar shall prepare and mail to each registered voter in the county as of the preceding October 31 a registration certificate for use during the succeeding two voting years. The certificate shall be mailed to the permanent residence address shown on the voter's registration application; or, if provided, the mailing address. It shall not be sent in the same envelope as the voter's tax statement. Attached to or made a part of the registration certificate shall be adequate space for the voter to insert any change of information other than that printed on the certificate. If the voter has noted such changes, the notice shall be signed and affirmed by the voter and returned to the registrar for correction of the records and issuance of a corrected certificate to the voter.

The registration certificate or envelope containing the certificate shall be marked with a direction to the postal authorities not to forward it to any other address and to return it to the registrar if the addressee is no longer at that address, with the reason for nondelivery and address correction information to be furnished to the registrar. The registrar may make whatever arrangements with the postal authorities he deems suitable for handling the payment for the address correction service. In the event the certificate is returned and such forwarding address is received, the registrar shall mail to the registrant at such forwarding address a notice that his registration will be cancelled unless he certifies to the registrar by February 1 his current residence address or certifies to the registrar such other relevant information which would be determinative of his right to retain his current registered status.
If the voter replies to the notice, the registrar shall take the appropriate action indicated by the reply. If no reply is received by February 1 the registrar shall cancel the voter’s registration. Where the registration certificate is returned and no forwarding address information is available, that person’s registration shall be cancelled if the voter has not otherwise provided information to the registrar by February 1 of that voting year. The notice shall also inform the voter of the need to obtain a corrected registration certificate if any of the information appearing on his current certificate is incorrect. The notice shall state that the voter’s registration will be cancelled if the registrar does not receive an appropriate reply by February 1 of that voting year. If the voter replies to the notice, the registrar shall take the appropriate action indicated by the reply. If no appropriate reply is received by February 1 of that voting year, the registrar shall cancel the voter’s registration, and shall send notice thereof to the voter in the same manner as the notice. Except that, if a notice is returned to the registrar as undeliverable or no forwarding information is available, the registrar shall cancel the voter’s registration.

(c) Each voter whose registration becomes effective after October 31 of an odd-numbered year, beginning with 1977, but before the following March 1 shall be issued an initial certificate valid for the remainder of that voting year and a certificate valid for use during the two-year period beginning the following March 1.

(d) A registrar of voters who knowingly issues, mails, or delivers a registration certificate to a person other than the applicant therefor or his lawful agent as provided in Section 46a of this code (Article 5.18a, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

(e) Any person whose registration is cancelled under the provision of this section shall be required to reregister in the same manner as an initial registrant. The secretary of state shall prescribe forms for the various documents required by this section.

Information Required on Certificate

Subd. 3. (a) Each certificate shall show the voter’s name, permanent residence address, mailing address if any, sex, election precinct number, and if an initial certificate, the effective date of the registration. It shall contain a blank space for political party affiliation of the voter, to be completed as provided in Section 179a, of this code (Article 13.01a, Vernon’s Texas Election Code). It shall not show the voter’s telephone number or social security number. The certificate shall have a place for the voter’s signature, and shall contain or be accompanied by a written instruction to the voter that the certificate is to be signed by the voter personally immediately upon receipt, if the voter is able to sign his name. Each certificate shall clearly indicate the two-year period for which it is issued, and shall contain a statement that the voter shall receive a new certificate every two years so long as such voter does not become disqualified under some provision of the election laws. Each certificate shall contain a statement giving notice that voting by use of the certificate by any person other than the person in whose name the certificate is issued is a felony. Voting by use of certificate which has been issued to another is hereby expressly made a felony of the third degree.

(b) Each certificate may contain a notice to the voter to correct and return the certificate to the registrar in case any of the information thereon changes or is incorrect. It may be accompanied by a more detailed explanation of the registrant’s rights and duties under this code, including, but not limited to: a statement that his registration is permanent unless cancelled under some provision of the election laws; the procedure by which he will receive a new certificate every two years; the need to reregister if he moves to another county; the period during which he may vote a limited ballot after removal from the county; the need to notify the registrar to transfer his registration if he moves to a new precinct within the county; the period during which he may vote in his old precinct after removal to another precinct within the county; his right to vote without a certificate; and the procedure for obtaining a replacement for a lost certificate.

Art. 5.15a. Registration Files

Subd. 1. (a) The applications on which registration certificates are issued shall be filed in an active application file and shall remain in that file as long as the registration continues in effect. The active application file shall be maintained in alphabetical order by voter name for the entire county, except that if the registrar regularly obtains a list of registrants in that order through use of electronic data processing equipment, he may keep the file in numerical order by certificate number.

(b) The registrar shall also maintain an inactive application file. The registrar shall place in alphabetical order into this file all applications which are rejected. He shall also transfer to a separate inactive file the application of each voter whose registration is cancelled. The registrant shall enter on the application form the date on which the registration is rejected or the date on which the registration is cancelled before filing an application in the inactive file. The application shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of rejection or cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.
Art. 5.15a

Subd. 2. (a) After the registrar adds a voter's name to the list of registered voters from the duplicate registration certificate, he shall file the duplicate in an active duplicate registration certificate file. An active file shall be maintained in numerical order for the entire county.

(b) When a registration is cancelled, the registrar shall enter the date of and reason for cancellation on the duplicate certificate and shall transfer it to an inactive file arranged numerically for each voting year. The duplicate shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subd. 3. Applications and duplicate registration certificates may be removed from the registrar's office temporarily, under proper safeguards, for use in preparing registration certificates, lists of registered voters, and other registration papers by electronic data processing methods, but they may not be removed for any other purpose. Except as permitted in the preceding sentence, the applications, and the duplicate registration certificates shall be kept in the registrar's office at all times in a place and in such a manner as to be properly safeguarded. The files shall be open to public inspection at all times during regular office hours of the registrar, subject to reasonable regulations and to proper safeguards against alteration, mutilation, or removal.

Art. 5.15b. Service Program of Secretary of State; Copies of Master State Voter File

Subd. 1. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to provide a service program to assist registrars in efficiently maintaining accurate and current lists of registered voters. Such service program shall provide for, but is not limited to:

(a) obtaining initial lists of registered voters and other necessary information from the registrars of voters in order to create master files of such information;

(b) obtaining periodic information from registrars and from any other available sources for the following purposes:

1. to maintain the master files,
2. to aid in the determination of the proper status of persons on the lists of registered voters,
3. to aid in the determination of the proper registration information to be associated with each registrant;

(c) conducting the various procedures necessary or proper for the implementation of the service program by utilization of automatic data processing equipment or by other means;

(d) furnishing information which may be useful to the registrars in the performance of their duties;

(e) contracting with political subdivisions of this state to provide such other services as are necessary to the performance of the duties of election officials. Fees collected through such contracts shall be retained by the secretary of state to defray expenses of the service program.

Subd. 2. Implementation of this program shall be by directive of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall make a full report to the legislature which convenes in January of 1977 of all steps taken to implement this program. He shall include in his report a description of any difficulties encountered and his recommendations, if any, for corrective legislation.

Subd. 3. Each March 1 and September 1 the secretary of state shall prepare a copy of the master state voter file on magnetic tape, which shall include each voter's county, voting precinct number, name, permanent residence address, mailing address if any, sex, year of birth, and registration number. It shall not include any voter's social security number or telephone number. The secretary of state shall furnish a copy of this tape to any person requesting it. Each person requesting a copy shall submit an affidavit that the information obtained will be used only for the purpose of informing voters about candidates for public office or about public issues, and will not be used to advertise or promote commercial products or services. The secretary of state shall provide the copy within 15 days of the date on which he receives the request. He shall exact a uniform charge against each person to whom he furnishes a copy of the tape. The charge shall not be greater than an amount deemed sufficient to reasonably reimburse the secretary of state for his actual expense in furnishing the copy, and in any event shall not exceed five cents per hundred names furnished.

Subd. 4. Any person who uses information obtained under Subdivision 3 of this section for any purpose other than informing voters about candidates for public office or about public issues is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

Sections 17 and 18 of the 1975 Act provided:

"Sec. 17. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to utilize any funds previously appropriated for the biennium ending August 31, 1975, for the purpose of publication of constitutional amendment explanatory statements, but which have not and will not be expended for that purpose, in connection with the implementation of the service program described in Section 7 of this Act."

"Sec. 18. Sections 1, 7, and 17 of this Act take effect immediately upon passage or as soon thereafter as permitted by law. All other sections preceding this section take effect on November 5, 1975."
Art. 5.16a. Correction of Errors on Certificates; Lost Certificates

Correction of Error

Subd. 1. When after issuance of a registration certificate it is discovered that an error has been made in filling out the blanks on the certificate through mistake of the registrar or through mistake of the voter in supplying the information, the voter may present the certificate to the registrar for correction and the registrar shall issue a corrected certificate and correct the information on the registration records on file in his office.

Replacement of Lost Certificate

Subd. 6. (a) If a voter to whom a registration certificate has been issued presents to the registrar his signed statement that the certificate has been lost or destroyed, the registrar shall issue to the voter a replacement certificate as a single-copy document, showing the same registration number and the same information as shown on the original certificate. The registrar shall make a notation on the face of the certificate showing it to be a replacement. He shall attach the statement to the voter's application.

A person who states in a request for a replacement certificate that his registration certificate has been lost or destroyed, knowing the statement to be false, is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(b) A replacement certificate issued after October 31 in an odd-numbered year shall be valid for use during the two-year period beginning on the following March 1. But it shall bear a notation that it may be used beginning on the date of issuance, except that a corrected replacement certificate shall be dated for use beginning on the 30th day following receipt by the registrar of the voter's old certificate or statement of loss.

Art. 5.18a. Change of Residence; Cancellation or Transfer of Registration

Change of Residence Within Precinct

Subd. 1. A registered voter who changes his place of residence within the election precinct shall give written notice to the registrar of the change of address and obtain a corrected certificate as provided in Subdivision 1 of Section 48a of this code (Article 5.16a, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Change of Residence to Another Precinct Within County

Subd. 2. A registered voter who changes his residence to another election precinct within the county may vote a full ballot in the precinct of his former residence, if otherwise qualified, during the first 90 days after the removal, but not thereafter, in any election in which there is listed on the ballot any office or proposition on which he is eligible to vote at his new residence.

If he obtains a transfer of his registration to the precinct of his new residence during the 90-day period, he may vote only in the precinct of his new residence after the 29th day following the transfer. He may not vote in the precinct of his new residence before the 30th day following the transfer.

To obtain a transfer of his registration, the voter shall present the registrar with a written, signed request that his registration be transferred to the precinct of his new residence. Upon receiving a request for transfer, the registrar shall make the necessary changes on the registration records in his office and shall issue a new corrected registration certificate to the voter. He shall attach the request to the registrant's original application.

Change of Residence to Another County

Subd. 3. (a) A registered voter who moves from one county to another within the State must reregister in the county of his new residence in the same manner as an initial registrant. However, during the first 90 days after removal the voter may vote a limited ballot, as provided in Section 37c of this code (Article 5.05c, Vernon's Texas Election Code), if a reregistration in the county of new residence has not become effective.

(b) Where a registered voter who resides in a municipality or other political subdivision which is situated in more than one county moves from one county to another within the political subdivision, if the election precincts of the political subdivision are so constituted that the voter lives in the same precinct, he may continue to vote on the registration in the county of former residence at elections held by that political subdivision so long as that registration continues in effect. If he resides in a different precinct, during the first 90 days after the removal he may continue to vote in the precinct of his former residence at elections held by the political subdivision, on the registration in the county of former residence, if a reregistration in the county of new residence has not become effective.

Notification to Registrar in County of Former Residence

Subd. 4. When the registrar receives an application for registration of a voter who is registered in some other county, he shall notify the registrar of that county, giving him the voter's name, former registration certificate number if known, former residence address. Upon receipt of notice, the registrar of the county wherein the voter was formerly registered shall cancel the registration in that county.
Art. 5.18a

Subd. 5. (a) The registrar may utilize any means available to determine whether a registered voter's current legal residence may be other than that indicated as the voter's legal residence on the registration records.

(b) Upon receiving information indicating that a registrant has a residence other than that shown on the registrant's registration records, or that indicates the existence of any grounds of disqualification other than death, the registrar shall send a notice to such person by forwardable mail at the permanent residence address or, if provided, the mailing address on the registrant's registration application and any new address of the registrant, if known, requesting a verification of the registrant's current residence address, or other relevant information which would be determinative of the registrant's right to retain his current registered status, and providing information of the necessity for the registrant to amend the registration records subsequent to a change in legal residence or to provide information establishing his right to retain his current registered status. The notice shall state that the registrant's registration will be cancelled if the registrant does not receive an appropriate reply within 60 days from the date on which the notice is mailed. If the registrant replies to the notice, the registrar shall take the appropriate action indicated by the reply. If no reply is timely received, the registrar shall cancel the registration. Notice of such cancellation shall be sent to the registrant at the new address, if it is known; otherwise, it shall be sent to the residence of mailing address on the registration records. If the notice mailed to the permanent residence address on the registrant's application is returned to the registrar with no forwarding address information available, the registrar shall cancel the registration.

(c) In the event the registrar cancels a voter's registration pursuant to Paragraph (b) of this subdivision, such voter may, within 10 days after the date of cancellation by the registrar, request, in writing, a hearing before the registrar. The registrar, upon notice to the voter, shall conduct a hearing within five days of receipt of the request from the voter, or at any later time upon the consent of the voter. The registrar shall then determine whether to cancel the registration. The voter may appeal from a decision to cancel his registration to a district court of the county of registration within 29 days after the registrar's decision, and the decision of the district court shall be final. A voter who appeals a cancellation of his registration under the provisions of this paragraph may continue to vote until a final decision is made cancelling his registration.

Subd. 6. The Secretary of State shall prescribe forms for the various documents required by this section. However, the registrar may also accept and use forms other than those prescribed by the Secretary of State.

Art. 5.18d. Change of Name

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1]

Subd. 2. If otherwise qualified, a voter whose name is changed is eligible to vote under the new registration at any election held after 29 days after the registrar makes the changes on the registration records. He may vote under the former registration at any election held within 29 days after the new registration, upon making an affidavit that his certificate of registration under the former name has been surrendered to the registrar. The voter shall sign the form for the affidavit of a lost certificate, and the election officer shall add a notation in explanation of the circumstances.

Art. 5.19a. List of Registered Voters

(1) Before the first day of March each year, the registrar shall prepare for each election precinct of the county a certified list of registered voters who, as of the 30th day prior to March 1 are entitled to registration for the voting year in which March 1 falls. Each precinct list shall be arranged alphabetically by the names of the voters and showing each voter's name, residence address, sex, date of birth and registration number. The registrar shall deliver to each board, executive committee, or other authority having the duty of furnishing supplies for any general, special, or primary election to be held within the county during the voting year for which the list is prepared, one set of such lists for all precincts wholly or partially within the boundaries of the particular political subdivision if all elections which may be held by such authority are less than countywide. The registrar shall also furnish to each such authority an updated supplemental list of the voters in each precinct who will have been registered for 29 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list. When a runoff election is held, before the first day of absentee voting in the runoff election the registrar shall prepare a supplemental list of the voters who will have been registered for 29 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list or the supplemental list prepared for the first election. With each supplemental list the registrar shall also furnish a list of persons whose registration information has been changed or corrected or whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct since preparation of the last set of lists. The authority shall furnish to the presiding judge in each precinct the original and supplemental lists of voters in his precinct at the time it furnishes other election supplies. Prior to the opening of the polls, the presiding judge shall strike off the registration list the names of persons whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct, and shall correct the list for persons whose registration information has been changed or corrected.

Art. 5.19b. Reimbursement of County by State

Subd. 1. Before April 1 of each year, the registrar shall submit to the Comptroller of Public Accounts a certified statement of the total number of new registrants, together with the total number of registration certificates which were cancelled under the provisions of Section 50a of this code (Article 5.18a, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), during the 12-month period ending February 1 of the year in which the statement is submitted. Before April 1 of each even-numbered year, the registrar shall include, in addition to the above statement, a certified statement of the total number of registered voters shown on the precinct registration lists as of March 1 of that year.

Subd. 2. Before June 1 of the year in which the statement is submitted, the Comptroller shall issue a warrant to each county in the aggregate of the following amounts:

(1) 40 cents multiplied by the total number of new registrants, and

(2) 40 cents multiplied by the number of voter registration certificates cancelled under the provisions of Section 50a of this code (Article 5.18a, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), as shown by the certified statement required by Subdivision 1 of this section, and

(3) when the total number of registered voters is supplied in accordance with Subdivision 1 of this section, 40 cents multiplied by the difference between the total number of registered voters and the total number of new registrants under this Act during the two 12-month periods prior to the statement in each county. However, before issuing a warrant the Comptroller may require additional proof to substantiate the certified statement.

Subd. 3. If the secretary of state determines that the registrar of any county has not substantially complied with the provisions of this code, he shall so notify the comptroller. The comptroller shall then withhold from such county the warrant provided for in Subdivision 2 of this section until notified by the secretary of state that the registrar is in compliance with this code.

Subd. 4. The disbursements prescribed by this section shall be made from the general revenue fund as provided by legislative appropriations. All money received by a county under this section shall be deposited in the county treasury in a special fund to be used for defraying expenses of the registrar’s office in the registration of voters. None of the money shall be deemed to be fees of office or be retained by the registrar as fees in counties where the registrar is compensated on a fee basis.

CHAPTER SIX. OFFICIAL BALLOT

Art. 6.01. Official Ballot

In all elections by the people, the vote shall be by official ballot, which shall be numbered and elections so guarded and conducted as to detect fraud and preserve the purity of the ballot. No ballot shall be used in voting at any general, primary or special election held to elect public officers, select candidates for office or determine questions submitted to a vote of the people, except the official ballot, unless otherwise authorized by law. At the top of the official ballot shall be printed in large letters the words “Official Ballot.” It shall contain the printed names of all candidates whose nominations for an elective office have been duly made and properly certified. The names shall appear on the ballot under the head of the party that nominates them, except as otherwise provided by this Code. No name shall appear on the official ballot except that of a candidate who was actually nominated (either as a party nominee or as a non-partisan or independent candidate) in accordance with the provisions of this Code. The name of no candidate shall appear more than once upon the official ballot, except (a) as a candidate for two or more offices permitted by the Constitution to be held by the same person; or (b) when a candidate has been duly nominated for the office of President or Vice-President of the United States and also for an office requiring a state-wide vote for election. The name of no candidate of any political party that cast 20 percent or more of the votes for governor at the last preceding general election for that office shall be printed on any official ballot for a general election, unless nominated by primary election, on primary election day, except as otherwise provided in this code. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2091, ch. 682, § 14, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 6.04. Removing or Substituting Names on Printed Ballots

Subd. 1. If the ballots for an election have already been printed when notice of a substitute nomination for an office is received, instead of having new ballots printed, the official board charged with the duty of furnishing the supplies for the election may make the necessary change in either of the following methods: (1) by having the ballots overprinted to blot out the name of the former nominee and to print above, below, or alongside it the name of the new nominee, if space on the ballot permits use of this method, or (2) by printing pasters or stickers bearing the name of the new nominee, to be pasted over the name of the former nominee.

Subd. 2. If after the ballots are printed it becomes necessary to remove the name of a nominee for whom a substitute nomination has not been made or to remove the name of an independent candidate in order to comply with Section 2091 of this code, instead of having new ballots printed, the officer or board charged with the duty of furnishing the supplies for the election may make the change either by having the ballots overprinted to blot out the name of the candidate (and also the square beside the name in the case of paper ballots) or by furnishing blank pasters or stickers to be pasted over the name and square.

Subd. 3. When pasters are used, a paster shall be affixed to each ballot before the presiding judge of the precinct, or the absentee voting clerk, endorses his name on the ballot for identification, or before the opening of the polls where the voting is by use of a voting machine or a voting device to which ballot labels are attached. As used in this section, the term “ballots” includes ballot labels. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2103, ch. 685, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 6.05b. Order of Party Columns on the Ballot

In any election held at the expense of the county, in which party columns appear on the official ballot, the columns shall be arranged in the following order, beginning on the left-hand side of the ballot:

(1) columns of parties with state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election, arranged in the order of the number of votes cast throughout the state for each party's candidate for Governor at the last preceding general election for that office, with the party whose candidate for Governor received the highest vote being placed in the first column;

(2) columns of parties without state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election;

(3) a column for independent candidates;

(4) a column for write-in candidates.

If there is no independent or nonpartisan candidate whose name is to be printed on the ballot, the column for independent candidates shall be omitted.

Where voting machines are used in the election and the columns on the ballot are arranged horizontally, the columns shall appear on the ballot in the order herein provided, beginning at the top of the ballot instead of on the left-hand side. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2091, ch. 682, § 15, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 6.07. Constitutional Amendments and Other Questions

Subd. 2. A notice of each proposed constitutional amendment shall be published, under the authority of the Secretary of State, as required by Section 1, Article XVII, Constitution of Texas. The Secretary of State shall contract with the eligible newspapers for the publication of the notices; shall furnish affidavit forms, in duplicate, to be executed by the owner, editor or publisher of the newspaper, when two publications have been made; shall furnish one approved copy of each executed affidavit to the Comptroller, who shall then authorize the Treasurer to issue a warrant in the amount specified. Executed affidavits must be returned from the owner, editor, or publisher of the newspaper to the Secretary of State within 30 days from the date of the last publication; unless this time limit is observed, the Secretary of State shall refrain from approving affidavits for payment. Provided, however, if the Secretary of State deems it more expeditious or economical, he may make a written contract with any state-wide association of daily and weekly newspapers in Texas for the publication of the notices of such constitutional amendments in newspapers eligible to publish them. Such association shall cause such notices to be published in the eligible newspapers in the manner required by the Constitution; shall furnish such materials as are necessary for a correct and uniform publication of such notices; shall furnish affidavit forms, in duplicate, to such newspapers, to be executed by the owner, editor, or publisher thereof, when two publications have been made; shall make an itemized report to the Secretary of State showing the names of all the newspapers in which such notices were published, the number of column inches submitted to each publication, the cost of publication in each newspaper, together with a clipping for such newspaper, and any other information desired by the Secretary of State pertaining to such task; shall return within 30 days from the date of the last publication all affidavits executed by the owner, editor, or publisher of such newspapers, together with an affidavit executed in duplicate by the general manager of such association that the notices have been published by said newspapers as required by the Constitution, to the Secretary of State, who shall, after satisfying himself as to the proper publication of such notices, furnish one approved copy of the executed affidavit of the general manager of the association to the Comptroller, who shall authorize the Treasurer to issue a warrant in the amount specified to the association. The Comptroller and Treasurer shall forthwith perform their duties in this connection, so that undue length of time shall not elapse between publication and payment therefor. The Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient fund for such publication, such fund to be estimated by the Secretary of State.

Subd. 2a. (a) Where the Secretary of State contracts directly with the newspapers for publication of notices of proposed constitutional amendments, each newspaper which publishes a notice is entitled to be paid for the publication an amount computed at the rate of 85 percent of the newspaper's published national rate for advertising per column inch if the Secretary of State furnishes to the newspaper a copy of the notice in the form of a camera-ready paste-up proof, a matrix, or a printing plate, and an amount computed at the full rate of the newspaper's published national rate for advertising per column inch if the Secretary of State does not furnish a copy of the notice in that form.

(b) Where the Secretary of State contracts with a state-wide association of newspapers for the publication of the notices, the association is entitled to be paid an amount equal to the sum of the cost of publication in each newspaper, computed at the full rate of each newspaper's national rate for advertising per column inch. The commission retained by the association shall be on a percentage basis uniformly applied to all newspapers, and the percentage shall be stipulated in the contract between the Secretary of State and the association.

Subd. 4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, the amendments revising one or more articles of the Constitution of Texas that are proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 11 as passed by the regular session of the 64th Legislature are to be printed and numbered on the official ballot in the order in which the propositions are numbered by that resolution.

(b) This subdivision is enacted as a temporary law and expires on December 31, 1975.

Publicizing amendments proposed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., SJR No. 11. Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1181, ch. 440, § 1 to 4 provided:

"Sec. 1. As required in Section 1 of Article XVII of the Texas Constitution the secretary of state shall publish notice and send copies to the county clerks of the constitutional amendments contained in Senate Joint Resolution No. 11 as passed by the Regular Session of the 64th Legislature.

"Sec. 2. (a) In addition to the constitutional requirements contained in Section 1 of Article XVII, the secretary of state may prepare a tabloid explaining the constitutional amendments contained in Senate Joint Resolution No. 11 as passed in the Regular Session of the 64th Legislature. The secretary of state may request the assistance of the attorney general and the Texas Legislative Council in preparing the information to be included in the tabloid.

"(b) The tabloid shall be printed in two versions: an English language version and a Spanish language version.

"(c) Not later than 30 days before November 4, 1975, the secretary of state shall distribute the English language version by mailing a copy, postage prepaid, by United States mail, to each precinct judge and to each county judge in the counties of over 100,000 population according to the 1970 census, the English language version shall be mailed to each con-u\[d\]ontingual postal patron.

"(d) The secretary of state shall make the Spanish language version readily available to the Spanish-speaking people of Texas. Information concerning the availability of the Spanish language version and how to request copies is to be printed, in Spanish, on the front of the English language version.

"Sec. 3. The secretary of state may prepare a 'side-by-side' comparison of the major provisions of the constitutional amendments contained in Senate Joint Resolution No. 11 as passed in the Regular Session of the 64th Legislature and the corresponding provisions of the constitution as it exists on May 1, 1975. The secretary of state may make the side-by-side comparison available to the general public on request.

"Sec. 4. There is hereby appropriated to the secretary of state out of the General Revenue Fund for the biennium ending August 31, 1975, the sum of $600,000 for the purpose of implementing this Act."
of some bodily infirmity he is physically unable to operate the machine or to see, he may be assisted by two election officials, or by a person selected by the voter, who shall operate the machine so as to vote the ballot in accordance with the voter's wishes, and he shall be permitted to keep the curtain of the machine closed no longer than five minutes. The provisions of Section 95 of this Code shall govern the assistance rendered under this section insofar as they can be made applicable.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 18(a) and (b)]

(c) If the machine is provided with a device which produces a printed record of the numbers registered on the counters, the procedure outlined herein shall be followed in lieu of the procedure set out above for preparation of the statements of canvass. The presiding judge, in the presence of at least two clerks and two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be) and of any other person lawfully present who wishes to observe, shall take the necessary steps to secure a printed record from each machine. Ample opportunity shall be given to all persons lawfully entitled to be present at the polling place to examine the printed record. The printed record shall then be signed by the presiding judge and two clerks and by two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be), certifying that the printed record was obtained from the machine designated thereon, and the certified printed record shall constitute the official statement of canvass for that machine.

Art. 7.15. Providing for Electronic Voting Systems

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1]

Definitions

Subd. 2. As used in this section, unless otherwise specified:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 2(a)]

(b) "Automatic tabulating equipment" or "tabulating equipment" means any apparatus which automatically examines and counts voted ballots and tabulates the results.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 2(c)]

(d) "Ballot card" means a card which is used in conjunction with ballot labels and which is marked or pierced by the voter in the process of voting an official ballot.

(e) "Ballot labels" means a booklet or one or more pages or sheets of paper or other material containing the names of offices, candidates and parties, and statements of measures to be voted on, and which is used in conjunction with ballot cards.

(f) "Ballot" may refer to paper ballots which are counted by automatic tabulating equipment and which contain the matters to be voted on and the voter marks, stamps, or otherwise indicates his choices directly on the ballot itself, or it may refer to ballot cards, ballot labels, or combinations of ballot cards and ballot labels, or it may refer to ordinary manually-counted paper ballots, depending on the context.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 2(g)]

Examination and Approval of Electronic Voting Systems Subd. 3.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 3(a)]

(b) Before making and filing his report, the Secretary of State shall require the system to be examined by three examiners to be appointed by the Secretary of State for such purpose, one of whom shall be expert in patent law, one of whom shall be expert in electronic data processing, and one of whom shall be expert in election law and procedure, and shall require from them a written report on their examination, which shall be attached to the Secretary of State's report and kept on file. Each examiner shall receive one hundred and fifty dollars as his compensation and expenses in making the examination and report. Neither the Secretary of State nor any examiner shall have any pecuniary interest in any electronic voting system. When a system has been approved, every improvement or change must be filed with the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State may, at any time, in his discretion, reexamine an electronic voting system. Any electronic voting system not approved as herein provided cannot be used at any election in this state.

Adoption by Commissioners Court

Subd. 5. (a) The commissioners court of any county in the state may adopt one or more kinds of approved electronic voting systems for use in elections in part or all of the election precincts in the county or in part or all of the conduct of absentee voting, or both. If a particular system is not adopted for use throughout the county, the commissioners court shall designate the precincts in which such system is to be used, and any other authorized method of voting may be used in the remaining precincts. In any precinct designated for use of a particular electronic voting system, the voting in that precinct may be supplemented by use of some other authorized method of voting when in any election it appears that the number of available units of the system designated for use in that precinct is inadequate for that election; and the officer or board charged with the duty of furnishing supplies of the election may make such supplementation under those conditions.

(b) The commissioners court at any time may rescind or modify its previous order or orders adopting any electronic voting system and may discontinue use of the system altogether.

(c) The electronic voting system adopted by the commissioners court shall be used at the biennial general elections for state and county officers in precincts and for absentee voting as designated by the court for use of such system. In all other elections, general, special, or primary, the authority holding the election shall determine within its discretion whether the voting for the particular election shall be by use of such system or by some other authorized method of voting. The determination shall be made by the commissioners court in elections held at the expense of the county, by the governing body of the municipality or political subdivision in elections held by municipalities and other political subdivisions, and by the county executive committee of the party holding the election in primary elections of political parties.

Experimental Use of Electronic Voting Systems

Subd. 6. The commissioners court of any county in the state may secure, for experimental use in elections in one or more precincts or for absentee voting, without formal adoption thereof, any kind of electronic voting system approved by the Secretary of State, and its use at any election in designated precincts or for absentee voting within the period specified by the commissioners court for experimental use of such electronic voting system shall be as valid for all purposes as if it has been formally adopted; provided, however, that the period for experimental use shall not exceed two years from the date of the order authorizing its use.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 7 and 8]

Absentee Voting

Subd. 9. (a) When an electronic voting system has been adopted by the commissioners court, then the system may be used in any election for absentee voting by personal appearance or by mail, or both. The authority charged with holding the election may within its discretion determine by proper resolution or order whether or not an electronic voting system will be used for absentee voting by personal appearance or by mail, or both, at such election. If an electronic voting system is to be used for such absentee voting and more than one kind of system has been adopted by the commissioners court, the authority shall specify what kind is to be used.

(b) If the authority holding the election determines that an electronic voting system shall be used for absentee voting, the necessary ballots and voting equipment shall be provided in the clerk’s office. The procedure for absentee voting where ordinary paper ballots are used shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable. If an electronic voting system is used for voting by personal appearance and the absentee ballots voted by mail are counted manually, such ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this code (Subdivision 6, Article 5.05, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), except that the county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board when the presiding judge so directs. The board shall also prepare the voted electronic voting system ballots for delivery to the central counting station in the manner provided in Subdivision 19 of this section, and such ballots shall be delivered to the central counting station and there tabulated, as provided in Subdivisions 19 and 20 of this section. The presiding judge of the central counting station shall add and attach the results of any manually counted ballots and attach the results of any write-in votes to the tabulation made on the automatic tabulating equipment, and shall make returns showing the totals thus obtained.

(c) When absentee ballots voted by personal appearance or by mail are to be marked with an ordinary pen or pencil in the manner that ordinary paper ballots are marked, and the absentee ballots are to be counted manually, the ballots shall be handled in the manner provided in Section 37 of this code (Subdivision 6, Article 5.05, Vernon’s Texas Election Code) for the handling of absentee paper ballots, and shall be counted and tallied by a special canvassing board in the same way that ordinary paper ballots are tallied.

Form of the Ballot

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 11(a) to (b)(4)]

(5) In elections in which party columns appear on the ordinary paper ballot, the following method of showing party affiliations may be used in lieu of party columns. The title of each office shall be printed on the ballot followed by the names of the candidates for that office and their party affiliations, if any. Provision shall be made at the head of the ballot for voting a straight party ticket, and the candidate of the party which is printed in the first party column on ordinary paper ballots shall be printed in the first position under the office title, the candidate of the party which is printed in the second column on ordinary paper ballots shall be printed in the second position, and so on. Uncontested races may be listed separately from contested races under the heading “Uncontested Races,” and may be voted on as a bloc.

(c) This paragraph (c) shall govern the form of the ballot to be used with electronic voting systems in which the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on are set forth on ballot labels and the voter records his vote by marking or punching a ballot card which is used in conjunction with the ballot labels.

(1) Ballot cards may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow, which shall be used for sample ballots only) and may be printed in any type of ink or combinations of ink that will be suitable for use in the automatic tabulating equipment in which they are intended to be placed. Ballot labels may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow) that will be suitable for the intended manner of use. Printing on the ballot label shall be of such size that it will be clearly legible when read by the voter in the manner contemplated by the voting system being used.

(2) Ballot cards may contain printed code marks or prepunched holes to assure that the card is properly positioned in the voting device, if the ballot labels are attached to a voting device, or to assure that the card is placed in correct reading position in the tabulating equipment, but the code marks or prepunched holes shall not be used in any way that will reveal the identity of the voters voting the ballots.

(3) The names of candidates, offices, parties and statements of issues to be voted on may be printed on two or more ballot labels. Where all candidates for the same office or all party columns cannot conveniently be placed on the same face of the same label, the candidates or columns may be carried on more than one page, but in such event the first page of the sequence shall contain a statement that the names of other candidates or other parties appear on the following page or pages. If the ballot is printed on more than one ballot label, different tints of paper, other than yellow, may be used for different pages of the ballot labels, and other suitable means may be adopted to facilitate the use of the ballot labels with the ballot card. When party columns appear on the ballot, there shall be printed at the head of the ballot the names of the parties and a space for voting a straight ticket.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 11(c)(7)]

(8) A separate write-in ballot, which may be in the form of a card, ballot, or envelope which the voter places with his ballot or ballot card after voting, shall be provided to permit voters to vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot.

(d) This paragraph (d) shall apply to the form of the ballot for all electronic voting systems.

(2) The statement of propositions and measures submitted to the voters may be abbreviated on the ballot if necessary, provided there is displayed at the polling place the verbatim statement on each proposition or measure as it appears on paper ballots. Abbreviation of matter to be voted on throughout the state shall be done by the Secretary of State.

Preparation of Ballot and Program

Subd. 11a. (a) The ballots to be used at an election shall be prepared and procured under the same regulations as ordinary paper ballots, except that the officer responsible for making up the ballot may determine the number of ballots or ballot cards needed for the election based on the turnout for similar elections in the past and shall confer with the programmer for that election before ordering the ballots printed, to make sure that the ballot is properly prepared for counting by means of the electronic tabulating equipment which will be used.

(b) The authority charged with the duty to provide ballots shall select a competent person to prepare the program for the electronic tabulating equipment. The programmer may be one of the persons appointed or approved by the commissioners court under Paragraph (b), Subdivision 20 of this section or some other person, but if the program is prepared by anyone other than the tabulation supervisor, it must be submitted to the tabulation supervisor for his approval at least 10 days before the election.

Subd. 14. If a voter is unable to read the language in which the ballot is printed or if because of some bodily infirmity he is physically unable to operate the voting equipment or to see, he may be assisted by two election officers, or by a person selected by the voter, who shall mark the ballot in accordance with the voter's wishes. The provisions of Section 95 of this code govern the assistance rendered insofar as they can be made applicable.

Subd. 18. (a) At any time after the expiration of one hour after the voting has begun, the presiding judge may direct the receiving officers to deliver ballot box No. 1 to the clerks preparing the ballots for the central counting station, who shall immediately deliver in its place ballot box No. 2, which shall be opened and examined and securely closed and locked; and until the boxes are again interchanged, the voters shall deposit their ballots in box No. 2. In this manner, ballot boxes No. 1 and No. 2 may be interchanged periodically as directed by the presiding judge, but the box for receiving the ballots shall not be exchanged and the ballots shall not be removed from it at any time before the polls are closed unless there are more than 10 ballots in the box. Once the box for receiving the ballots is delivered to the clerks preparing the ballots for the central counting station, they shall remove the voted ballots from the ballot box and carry out the procedures prescribed in Subdivision 19 of this section preparatory to making the ballots, envelopes, and other materials ready for delivery to the central counting station.

(b) The authority holding the election may in its discretion also provide that voted ballots of designated precincts shall be delivered by authorized election officials, in the presence of watchers, to a central counting station at stated intervals during the day and that the processing of such ballots in accordance with the procedures prescribed in Subdivision 20 may begin prior to the close of the polls. Such processing may be limited by the authority holding the election to procedures preparatory to the counting and tabulating of ballots, or the authority holding the election may also permit the preliminary counting and tabulating of ballots with automatic tabulating equipment; but in no event shall any results be disclosed prior to the close of the polls, and all persons connected with the handling and tabulating of the ballots shall be subject to the provisions of Section 105 of this code (Article 8.13, Vernon's Texas Election Code) with respect to revealing information as to the results of the election.

CHAPTER EIGHT. CONDUCTING ELECTIONS AND RETURNS THEREOF

Art. 8.08. Procedure for Accepting Voter; Signature Roster

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 3]

Subd. 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code which prescribes a criminal penalty, an election officer who knowingly violates any provision of this section shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than 90 days, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

Art. 8.13. Aid to Voter

Subd. 1. Not more than one person at the same time shall be permitted to occupy any one compartment, voting booth or place prepared for a voter, nor shall any assistance be given a voter in preparing his ballot, except when a voter is unable to prepare the same because of the voter's inability to read the language in which the ballot is printed or because of some bodily infirmity which renders the voter physically unable to write or to see, in which case two officers of such election shall assist the voter (with the aid of an interpreter, when necessary), they having first sworn that they will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how such voter shall vote; that they will confine their assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and that they will prepare the voter's ballot as such voter directs. If the election is a general election, the election officers who assist such voters shall be of different political parties, if there be such officers present. One or more watchers may be present when the assistance herein permitted is being given by election officers, but each watcher must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law.

Subd. 2. Instead of being assisted by two election officers as hereinabove provided, a voter who is entitled to assistance may select any qualified voter residing in the precinct to assist him, and no other person shall be permitted to be present while the ballot is being prepared. Before assisting the voter, the person selected shall take the following oath, which shall be administered by one of the election officers: "I solemnly swear that I will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote; I will confine my assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating propositions to be voted on and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and I will prepare the voter's ballot as the voter directs."

Subd. 3. Where any assistance is rendered in preparing a ballot other than as herein allowed, the ballot shall not be counted, but shall be void for all purposes.

Art. 8.17. Bystanders Excluded

From the time of opening the polls until the announcement of the results of the canvass of votes cast and the signing of the official returns, the boxes and official ballots shall be kept at the polling place in the presence of one or more of the judges, and watchers, if any. No person, except those admitted to vote, shall be admitted within the room where the election is being held, except the judges, clerks, persons admitted by the presiding judge to preserve order, inspectors, and watchers.

Art. 8.22. Death or Ineligibility of Candidate Before Election

(a) When the name of a deceased or ineligible candidate is printed on the ballot for a general or special election, as provided in Section 233 of this code, the votes cast for him shall be counted and return made thereof; and if he receives a plurality of the votes cast for the office where a plurality is sufficient for election, or if he receives a majority of the votes cast for the office where a majority is required for election, the vacancy shall be filled as in the case of a vacancy occurring after the election. If he is one of the two highest candidates in an election where a majority is required and no one has a majority, the two candidates with the highest votes other than the deceased or ineligible candidate shall be certified as the two highest candidates for the runoff election.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN. NOMINATIONS

Article 13.01a. Who Are Members of Organized Party

(4) An applicant for party affiliation shall become a qualified member of a political party which is holding primary elections when he has voted within that party’s primary or has taken part in a convention of that party prior to a primary. At the head of the signature roster for each primary election there shall be printed the following statement: "I swear that I have not voted at a primary election or participated in a convention of any other political party during this voting year." The presiding judge or another election officer designated by him shall place each voter under oath and require him to swear to this statement before he signs the roster.

The first time a voter presents his voter registration certificate at a primary election, the election officer shall stamp the appropriate party designation within the party affiliation space on the face of the certificate. If the voter is voting on a statement of a lost registration certificate, the presiding judge shall issue to him a certificate of his having voted, in the following form:

\text{have voted on this date in the}\]

\text{Article 13.08a. Presidential Primaries; Selection of Delegates to National Nominating Conventions of Parties Holding Primaries [NEW].}\]
When a voter votes by absentee ballot in a primary election, the county clerk shall stamp the appropriate party designation on the voter's registration certificate; of if the voter is voting on a statement of a lost or unreturned certificate, the clerk shall deliver or mail to the voter, at the time specified by law for returning a registration certificate to an absentee voter, a certificate of his having voted by absentee ballot in the primary.

(5) To become qualified to participate in any party convention of a party which does not hold a primary or to become qualified for party membership for any party convention held prior to a primary, each voter who desires to participate in the convention shall present to the precinct chairman his affidavit that he has not participated in the primary or convention of any other party during that voting year. Thereupon, the precinct chairman shall stamp the appropriate party designation on the voter’s registration certificate if the voter presents it, and if the registration certificate is not presented, the chairman shall issue to the voter a certificate in the following form:

Precinct Chairman, Precinct No. __________ County, Texas.

Each precinct chairman is authorized to administer the oath required by this subsection. Within 10 days after the precinct convention, he shall arrange the affidavits in alphabetical order and deliver them to the county clerk. If he receives an affidavit after the date of the precinct convention, he shall deliver it to the county clerk within 10 days after he receives it. The county clerk shall keep the affidavits on file in alphabetical order within each precinct for a period of two years after the end of the voting year in which they are filed. The county clerk shall maintain a separate file for each political party.

(6) A voter registration certificate which has been stamped with a party designation, a certificate of having voted in a primary election, or a certificate of party affiliation issued by a precinct chairman, all as provided in this section, shall serve as evidence that the person whose name appears on the certificate is affiliated with the party designated on the certificate and is therefore eligible to participate in that party’s conventions.

Art. 13.07a. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2054, ch. 675, § 8, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

Art. 13.08. Conduct of the Primary Elections

(a) The primary election held by a political party pursuant to Sections 180 and 181 of this code (Articles 13.02 and 13.03, Vernon’s Texas Election Code) shall be conducted through the party’s state executive committee and county executive committees in accordance with the procedures detailed in this code.

(b) In order for a candidate to have his name placed on the ballot for the general primary election, his application for a place on the ballot must be accompanied by a filing fee or a nominating petition in compliance with Subsection (c) or (d) of this section.

(c) The schedule of fees for either a full term or an unexpired term for the various offices is as follows:

- All statewide offices ................ $1,000
- United States representative .... 1,000
- State senator ..................... 600
- State representative .............. 300
- Member, state board of education . 100
- Chief justice or associate justice, court of civil appeals .......... 500
- District judge or judge of any court having status of a district court as classified in Section 61c of this code ...................... 500
- District attorney or criminal district attorney .................. 500
- All county offices, as classified in Section 61c, 1 except county surveyor and inspector of hides and animals ................. 200
- County surveyor or inspector of hides and animals ............... 100
- County commissioner, County of 200,000 or more inhabitants ...................... 500
- County under 200,000 inhabitants .......................... 200
- Justice of the peace or constable, County of 200,000 or more inhabitants .......... 400
- County under 200,000 inhabitants .......................... 150
- Public weigher ................. 100

No fee shall be charged for any office of a political party.

(d) In lieu of the payment of a filing fee, a candidate may file a nominating petition which may be in multiple parts and must be signed by the qualified voters eligible to vote for the office for which the candidate is running as follows:

- For statewide office, 5,000 signatures.
- For district, county, precinct, or other political subdivisions, equal in number to at least two percent of the number of votes cast in the territory for that party's candidate for governor in the last preceding gubernatorial general election. However, in no event shall the number required be more than 500; and if two percent of the votes cast in the territory was less than 25, the number required is the lesser of 25 signatures or 10 percent of the number of votes cast.

Where a candidate is running in a district, county, or precinct which has been created or the boundaries of which have been changed since the last gubernatorial general election, he may request that the secretary of state in the case of a county clerk of the county in which the county clerk of the county in which the precinct is situated in the case of a precinct office, make an estimate in advance of the filing deadline of the number of votes cast for that party's candidate for governor within that territory at the last gubernatorial election. Not later than the 15th day after receiving such a request, the officer shall make the estimate and notify the candidate, and also the officer with whom the candidate files his application. The estimate shall be used as the official basis for computing the number of signatures required on a petition. If an advance estimate is not requested, the officer with whom the petition is filed shall make the estimate and notify the candidate, and also the officer with whom the candidate files his application. The estimate shall be used as the official basis for computing the number of signatures required on a petition. If an advance estimate is not requested, the officer with whom the petition is filed shall make the estimate, whenever necessary, before he acts on the sufficiency of the petition. In every instance, the candidate may challenge the accuracy of the estimate, and if he is dissatisfied with the final decision of the officer he may appeal the decision to any district court having jurisdiction in the territory involved.

The following statement shall appear at the head of each page of the petition: "I know the contents of this petition. I am a qualified voter eligible to vote in the forthcoming primary election of the (fill in name) Party for the office for which (fill in name) is a candidate. I have not signed the petition of a candidate who is running for any office 2 the primary of any other party. I understand that by signing this petition I become ineligible to affiliate with any other party or to participate in the primary elections, conventions, or other party affairs of any other party, including a party which is not holding a primary election, during the voting year in which this election is held, and that I am guilty of a misdemeanor if I attempt to do so.”

To each part of the petition shall be attached an affidavit of the person who circulated it, stating that he called each signer's attention to the statement and read it to him before the signer affixed his signature to the petition, and further stating that he witnessed the affixing of each signature, that the correct date of signing is shown on the petition, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name is signed. A petition so verified is prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and the persons signing it are registered voters.

The petition must show the following information with respect to each signer: His address (including his street address if residing in a city, and his rural route address if not residing in a city), his current voter registration certificate number (also showing the county of issuance if the office includes more than one county), and the date of signing. The secretary of state shall prescribe a form for the petition before the 30th day prior to the filing deadline and provide copies of that form to the state chairman and the county chairmen of each party holding a primary election. However, a candidate may use any other form which complies with the requirements of this section. It is the specific intent of the legislature that there shall be no requirement for the administering of an oath to any person signing a petition under the provisions of this section.

A petition filed under this section shall be filed with the same officer with whom an application for a place on the ballot for the office being sought is to be filed and must be filed at the same time as such an application.

(e) The fees paid to the county chairman and received from the state chairman pursuant to the provisions of Section 190 (Article 13.12, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and any contributions made to the county chairman or the county executive committee for the specific purpose of helping defray the costs of the primary elections shall be deposited to the credit of the primary fund referred to in Section 196 (Article 13.18, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and shall be applied to payment of the costs of the primary elections. The county chairman and the committee may also use any other available funds toward defraying costs. The remaining costs incurred shall be borne by the state except as otherwise provided by procedures outlined in the Texas Election Code. Within five days after the regular filing deadline, the chairman of the state executive committee shall forward to the secretary of state all filing fees for statewide offices collected pursuant to Subsection (c) of this section and an itemized listing of such fees. At the same time, the state chairman shall also forward all filing fees for district offices collected pursuant to Subsection (c) of this section to the county chairman for each county lying partially or wholly within such district. The amount forwarded to each county chairman shall be equal to the quotient obtained upon dividing the appropriate filing fee by the number of counties in the district of the candidate paying the fee. The secretary of state shall deposit the fees forwarded to him in a suspense account with the state treasurer.
In each county in which voting machines or an electronic voting system has been adopted, the county commissioners court shall permit the county-owned voting machines or voting equipment to be used for the primary elections, including the conduct of absentee voting for the elections, at a charge for use at each election not exceeding $16 per unit for voting machines adopted under Section 79 (Article 7.14, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), and not exceeding $8 per unit for voting equipment adopted under Section 80 (Article 7.15, Vernon’s Texas Election Code); provided, however, that the county commissioners court shall not be required to provide voting machines or equipment for use in any election precinct in which fewer than 100 votes were cast in the preceding first or general primary or runoff primary election. The maximum amount fixed in this subsection includes the lease price for the use of the unit, and also the charge for its preparation and maintenance if the county provides these services. The county is entitled to reimbursement for the cost of transporting the machines or equipment to and from the polling places if the county provides this service. Where voting is by an electronic voting system, the county may not charge for use of county-owned automatic tabulating equipment at the central counting station; but all actual expenditures incidental and necessary to operation of the central counting station in counting the ballots are payable out of the primary fund.

All expenses of the county clerk in conducting absentee voting in the primary elections, including the employment of additional deputies where necessary, shall be paid by the county. A county is not entitled to reimbursement for any expenditure of county funds in connection with absentee voting or any other services rendered by the county clerk in the primary elections, except for voting machines and/or punch card units used in conducting the absentee voting or any other services for which reimbursement is specifically authorized by law.

The county chairman shall account for the county funds in connection with absentee voting or any other services for which reimbursement is specifically authorized by law.

The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate rules under which compensation is limited to polling places at which voters of more than one election precinct cast their votes, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10(g) (Article 2.02(g), Vernon’s Texas Election Code). The rules for such common polling places shall provide for adequate public notice by the county chairman to the voters in election precincts affected by the application of such rules and shall provide for an adequate number of polling places taking into account all other relevant factors including distances of polling places from parts of the precincts served, estimated voter turnout, and geographic or other boundaries. However, the secretary of state may not require that there be less than one polling place for each commissioner’s precinct for reimbursement purposes.

The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate rules in regard to the maximum number of election clerks who may be compensated for their services at a polling place and the maximum number of other necessary office personnel employed to assist in the performance of the duties placed upon the county chairman, taking into account the number of registered voters in the election precinct or precincts, the number of votes cast in the precinct, county, or state in previous elections, the method of voting, and any other relevant factors. The secretary of state must allow compensation for the presiding judge, alternate judge, and at least one clerk for each precinct. The secretary of state may allow compensation for clerks and other necessary office personnel employed in excess of the applicable limits set by his rules if he finds that the employment of additional clerks or other office personnel was justified by a good cause. The total compensation paid to the county chairman and the secretary of the county executive committee (where the executive committee has named a secretary) in the performance of the duties placed upon the chairman shall not exceed five percent of the amount actually spent in holding the primary elections for the year; provided, however, that in no case shall the total compensation paid be less than $300 nor more than $8,000.

The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate any other reasonable rules which will minimize the costs of the primary elections. The secretary of state shall furnish a copy of all rules promulgated pursuant to this section to each county chairman at least 10 days before the election to which the rules apply.

The county chairman shall account for the primary fund in the manner provided in Section 196 of this code.

The secretary of state shall not approve any expenditure of state funds to any county organization that practices discrimination based on race, sex, age, creed, or national origin. The attorney general shall be specifically responsible for the enforcement of this section.

In the event a court of competent jurisdiction declares any portion of this section or any other provision of this code relating to the financing of primary elections to be invalid, the secretary of state shall promulgate reasonable rules for the enforcement of the intent of the legislature, consistent with the court’s judgment and the valid portions of the code. Such authority of the secretary of state shall include authority to promulgate a schedule of filing fees, if necessary, and that schedule shall be substituted for the statutory schedule until the legislature enacts a new schedule.

Art. 13.08a  STATE FINANCING

(a) Each county chairman of each political party in the state which is holding primary elections shall submit to the secretary of state at least 30 days before the first primary election a sworn itemized estimate of the costs for conducting the first primary election in his county, together with a sworn statement of the filing fees and contributions received by the chairman, for such primary elections to and including the date of such sworn statement. The secretary of state shall review the estimate and shall notify the chairman of any items which he has disallowed as unauthorized or excessive expenditures. Expenditures may be allowed only for those purposes which are properly payable out of the primary fund under existing law as established by the statutes, court decisions, and administrative rulings of this state. Any other provisions of this code notwithstanding, the secretary of state shall pay for expenditures which, in his discretion, are reasonably necessary for the proper conduct and supervision of the primary elections under the provisions of this code. The secretary of state is authorized to set forth guidelines to determine the necessity of expenditures in conducting primary elections. The secretary of state shall subtract from the approved estimate any balance remaining from previous primary elections in the appropriate primary fund, and any amount of the fees and contributions received by the chairman for the conduct and financing of the primary elections for the particular year, and shall certify to the comptroller of public accounts the net estimated amount which is payable out of the state funds, together with the secretary of state's calculation of three-fourths of that amount. The comptroller shall forthwith issue a warrant to the chairman for three-fourths of the certified amount.

(b) In each county in which a second or runoff primary is necessary, within 10 days after the first primary the county chairman shall submit to the secretary of state a sworn itemized estimate of the costs of the runoff primary. As in the case of the first primary, the secretary of state shall notify the chairman of items which he disallows, and shall certify to the comptroller the approved estimated amount which is payable out of state funds, together with the secretary of state's calculation of three-fourths of that amount; and the comptroller shall issue a warrant to the chairman for three-fourths of the certified amount.

(c) Within 20 days after the date of the runoff primary, the county chairman shall submit to the secretary of state a sworn itemized report of the actual costs, filing fees collected, and contributions received for the primary election or elections (as the case may be) held by his party in his county. If the actual expenditure for an item exceeded the estimated amount, the chairman shall submit an explanation of the reason for the increased expenditure, and the secretary of state shall allow the increase if good cause is shown. The secretary of state shall certify to the comptroller the difference between the total amount payable out of state funds and the amount which has already been transmitted to the chairman. If the total amount of fees and contributions and the payments from the state exceeds the actual expenditures incurred, the chairman shall retain the difference in the primary fund referred to in Section 196 of this code (Article 13.18, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The exact amount of the balance in the primary fund shall be reported to the secretary of state in the actual expense report provided by this section and said amount shall be a beginning balance on hand for the next ensuing primary conducted by the chairman or his successor. If the primary fund is invested as authorized in Section 196, the beginning balance on hand for the next ensuing primary shall be the amount of the primary fund after termination of the investment.

(d) Each county chairman shall deposit to the credit of the primary fund all warrants received by him under this section. Expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the county executive committee for the conduct of the primary elections shall be paid from the primary fund, in the manner authorized by the committee.

(e) The county chairman is responsible for payment of claims for primary election expenses, and the state is not liable to any claimant for failure of the county chairman to pay a claim. No county chairman shall be personally liable, nor shall a county executive committee be liable for any debts incurred in the administration of the primary but unpaid because the appropriation provided by the legislature was not sufficient to cover the actual expenditures made.

(f) A county chairman may request that the secretary of state approve an expenditure for the purposes of the auditing of the expenditures made out of the primary fund; however, the secretary of state shall not be required to approve such an expenditure. The secretary of state may require an audit of the primary fund, without such a request, when, in his discretion, he believes a valid purpose will be served by such a procedure.

(g) The secretary of state shall prescribe and shall furnish to the county chairmen the forms which they are to use in submitting statements and reports to the secretary of state.

(h) Wherever the word "county chairman" is used in this section, it shall apply to the county chairman or his successor in office, and such county chairman shall not be personally liable except for the misapplication of funds.
(i) In any case in which the secretary of state disallows an item of expenditure under Subsection (a) or (b) of this section, or refuses to allow an increase under Subsection (c) of this section, the county chairman may appeal to the district court of Travis County by filing a petition within 20 days after the date the notification is received from the secretary of state, and the district court shall allow such expenditures as are properly payable out of the primary fund under existing law. Any item not certified to the comptroller of public accounts within 15 days after its submission to the secretary of state may be considered disallowed for this purpose.

Art. 13.08b. Refund Upon Death of Candidate

No refund of a filing fee shall be made except to a candidate who dies or is declared ineligible to be a candidate for the office before the date of the first or general primary election, in which case the fee paid by the candidate shall be refunded to the candidate or to his estate, as appropriate.

Art. 13.08c. Funding

Funds for the administration of the primary financing provisions of this code shall be supplied from the General Revenue Fund or any special fund which the legislature may direct by the General Appropriations Act. Said funds shall be appropriated for the 1976 primary elections and for subsequent primary elections thereafter, and shall be an amount payable from the General Revenue Fund or any special fund which the legislature may direct to pay all necessary expenses of primary elections approved by the secretary of state under the provisions of this code. The secretary of state is authorized to expend funds appropriated in the General Appropriations Act for the administration of primary elections for seasonal and part-time help, consumable supplies and materials, travel expenses, professional fees and services, and current and recurring operating expenses in an amount not to exceed $60,000.

Art. 13.12a. Nomination and Election to Fill Unexpired Term

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (1) and (2)(i).]

(ii) If the vacancy occurs on or after the fifth day preceding the regular filing deadline and more than thirty days before the day of the general primary election, nomination for the unexpired term shall be made by primary election, and candidates shall have until the end of the twenty-fifth day preceding the day of the general primary in which to file applications for a place on the primary ballot. The applications must be received and filed in the office of the proper chairman before the deadline, and applications mailed but not actually received before the deadline shall not be accepted for filing. Except as otherwise provided herein, the application shall conform to the requirements of Article 13.12 of this Code and shall be accompanied by the filing fee or petition provided for in Article 13.08 of this Code. Immediately following the deadline for filing applications, the state chairman shall certify to the county chairman the names of candidates, if any, who have filed applications with him and paid their filing fee or filed a petition in accordance with this paragraph. Whenever the name of more than one candidate for the same office is to be placed on the ballot pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, the county chairman shall call a meeting of the primary committee, in time to allow printing of the ballots before commencement of absentee voting in the general primary, and the primary committee shall determine by lot, in open meeting, the order in which the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballot. If there is not more than one candidate for the same office, the county chairman shall be authorized to make any necessary changes in the ballot as previously made up by the primary committee.

1 Article 13.08a.

Art. 13.18a. District and Precinct Executive Committees

(1) For a district composed of more than one county or part thereof, the county chairman of each county wholly within the district shall be ex officio a member of the district executive committee for each such district of which his county is a part. When a part of a county is joined with one or more other counties or parts of counties to form a district, at a meeting of the county executive committee on the second Monday in February preceding each general primary election the precinct chairman of the election precincts included within such part of the county shall elect one of their number to serve as district committeeman; and a district committeeman shall be selected in this manner for each type of district and for each district for which any part of the county less than the whole county is joined with territory in another county or counties. The district committee thus formed shall elect its own chairman. Whenever a vacancy occurs in a district office and the district committee is empowered to name a nominee or a substitute nominee, or whenever for any other reason it becomes necessary for the district committee to meet and organize, the chairman of the district executive committee shall call a meeting of the district committee by giving notice to each member of the time and place where such meeting will be held and of the purpose of the meeting. The state chairman shall designate one member as temporary chairman, who shall call the meeting to order and preside until the committee elects its own chairman. The chairman elected by the committee shall continue to act as chairman during the remainder of that term of office, and shall call any subsequent meetings of the committee which are held during that time.

(3) For a district composed of only a part of one county, the precinct chairmen of the election precincts included within the district shall constitute the district executive committee. At the meeting of the county executive committee on the second Monday in February preceding each general primary election, the precinct chairmen within the district shall elect one of their number to serve as chairman of the district executive committee; and a chairman shall be selected in this manner for each type of district and for each district composed of only a part of the county.

Art. 13.35. Date and Place for State Convention

At the meeting of the State Executive Committee held on the second Monday in March preceding each general primary election the said committee shall decide upon the date, hour and place where the State convention of the party shall be held, said date to be any day between the first and third Tuesdays, exclusive, in September, 1976, and each two (2) years thereafter. The chairman of the State executive committee shall file with the Secretary of State a notice of the date, hour and place of holding the State convention and a copy of such notice shall be mailed to the county chairman of that party in each county in the State at least ten (10) days before the convention is held.

Art. 13.38. State Convention

The state convention to announce a platform of principles and to announce nominations for Governor and other state offices, held by a political party making nominations by primary election, shall meet on a date between the first and third Tuesdays, exclusive, in September of each even-numbered year, such date and the place of said meeting to be determined by the state executive committee as provided in Section 213 of this Code,1 and shall remain in session from day to day until all nominations are announced and the work of the convention is finished. The convention shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman of the state executive committee, one of whom shall be a man and the other a woman, and sixty-two members thereof, two from each senatorial district of the state, one of whom shall be a man and the other a woman, the members of the committee to be those who shall be recommended by the delegates representing the counties composing the senatorial districts respectively, each county voting its convention strength, each of whom shall hold office until his successor is elected; and, in case of a vacancy, a majority of the members of the committee shall fill the vacancy by electing some eligible person thereto, but such person shall be of the same sex as the vacating member and from the same senatorial district.

At any meeting of the state executive committee a person cannot hold a proxy or participate in such meeting unless he is a resident of the same senatorial district as the member giving the proxy, and no person shall be permitted to hold or vote more than one proxy.

1 Article 13.35.
Art. 13.45. Nominations by Parties Receiving Less Than 20 Percent of Vote for Governor

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1] Parties Receiving Less Than Two Percent of Vote for Governor

Subd. 2. (a) Any political party whose nominee for governor received less than two percent of the total votes cast for governor in the last preceding general election for that office, or any new party, or any previously existing party which did not have a nominee for governor in the last preceding general election for that office, may nominate candidates by conventions as provided in Sections 224 and 225 of this code, but in order to have the names of its nominees printed on the general election ballot there must be filed with the secretary of state, within 30 days after the date for holding the party's state conventions held by the party in accordance with Sections 222a and 224 of this code, signed and certified by the temporary chairman of each respective precinct convention, listing the names, addresses (including street address or post-office address), and registration certificate numbers of qualified voters attending such precinct conventions in an aggregate number of at least one percent of the total votes cast for governor at the last preceding general election for that office; or if the number of qualified voters attending the precinct conventions is less than that number, there must be filed along with the precinct lists a petition requesting that the names of the party's nominees be printed on the general election ballot, signed by a sufficient number of additional qualified voters to make a combined total of at least one percent of the total votes cast for governor at the last general election for that office. The address and registration certificate number of each signer shall be shown on the petition. No person who, during that voting year, has voted at any primary election or participated in a convention of any other party shall be eligible to sign the petition.

(b) To each person who signs the petition there shall be administered the following oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to the petition: "I know the contents of the foregoing petition, requesting that the names of the nominees of the Party be printed on the ballot for the next general election. I am a qualified voter at the next general election under the constitution and laws in force, and during the current voting year I have not voted in any primary election or participated in any convention held by any other political party, and I will not vote in a primary election or participate in a convention of any other party during the remainder of this voting year." The petition may not be circulated for signatures until after the date of the party's precinct conventions. Any signatures obtained on or before that date are void.

(c) Any person who signs a petition after having voted in a primary election or participated in a convention of any other party during the same voting year, or any person who votes in a primary election or participates in a convention of any other party during the same voting year after having signed the petition, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

(d) The chairman of the state executive committee shall be responsible for forwarding the precinct lists and petition to the secretary of state.

(e) At the time the secretary of state makes his certifications to the county clerks as provided in Section 3 of this code, he shall also certify to the county clerks the names of parties subject to this subdivision which have complied with its requirements, and the county clerks shall not place on the ballot the names of any nominees of such a party which have been certified directly to them unless the secretary of state certifies that the party has complied with these requirements.

Art. 13.45a. Regulation of Party Affairs and Conventions

Art. 13.46. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2098, ch. 682, § 28, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

Art. 13.47a. Application for Nomination; Affidavit of Intent to Run; Filing

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 and 2]

Sec. 4. The requirements of Section 1 do not apply to candidates for unexpired terms where the vacancy in office occurs subsequent to the tenth day preceding the regular deadline for filing applications for a place on a primary election ballot as prescribed in Paragraph 2 of Section 190 of this code (Article 13.12, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Art. 13.50. Nonpartisan or Independent Candidate

Subd. 1. This section applies to nonpartisan or independent candidates for federal, state, district, county, and precinct offices in the general election provided for in Section 9 of this code (Article 2.01, Vernon's Texas Election Code). A person may run as a nonpartisan or independent candidate for any such office, other than the offices of president, vice president, and presidential elector, by complying with this section and other applicable provisions of this code.

Subd. 2. (a) As a condition precedent to having a candidate's name printed on the official ballot as an independent candidate under this section, in addition to the application required by Subdivision 3 of this section, the person must file, by the deadline provided in Section 190 of this code (Article 13.12, Vernon's Texas Election Code), a declaration of his intent to run as an independent candidate. The declaration shall state the person's name, occupation, county of residence, post office address, age, and the office for which he intends to run, and shall be signed and duly acknowledged by the person desiring to be a candidate. It shall be filed with the officer with whom the application required by Subdivision 3 of this section is filed.

(b) The requirements of Paragraph (a) of this subdivision do not apply to candidates for unexpired terms where the vacancy in office occurs subsequent to the tenth day preceding the regular deadline for filing application for a place on a primary election ballot as prescribed in Section 190 of this code (Article 13.12, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and do not apply to candidates for any office for which the filing deadline in a primary election is extended under the provisions of Paragraph 2a of Section 190. However, an independent candidate who is not required to file a declaration of intent under Paragraph (a) of this subdivision must file with the secretary of state or the county judge, as the case may be, his written consent to become a candidate, within 30 days after the second primary election day.

Subd. 3. The name of a nonpartisan or independent candidate may be printed on the official ballot in the column for independent candidates, after a written application signed by qualified voters addressed to the proper officer, as herein provided, and delivered to him within 30 days after the second primary election day, as follows:

If for an office to be voted for throughout the state, the application shall be signed by one per cent of the entire vote of the state cast for Governor at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a district office in a district composed of more than one county, the application shall be signed by three per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a district office in a district composed of only one county or part of one county, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a county office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such county at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

If for a precinct office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such precinct at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the number of signatures required on an application for any district, county, or precinct office need not exceed 500.

Subd. 4. No application shall contain the name of more than one candidate. No person shall sign the application of more than one candidate for the same office; and if any person signs the application of more than one candidate for the same office, the signature shall be void as to all such applications. No person shall sign such application unless he is a qualified voter, and no person who has voted at either the general primary election or the runoff primary election of any party shall sign an application in favor of anyone for an office for which a nomination was made at either such primary election.

Subd. 5. In addition to the person's signature, the application shall show each signer's address, the number of his voter registration certificate, and the date of signing.

Subd. 6. Any person signing the application of an independent candidate may withdraw and annul his signature by delivering to the candidate and to the officer with whom the application is filed (or is to be filed, if not then filed), his written request, signed and duly acknowledged by him, that his signature be cancelled and annulled. The request must be delivered before the application is acted on, and not later than the day preceding the last day for filing the application. Upon such withdrawal, the person shall be free to sign the application of another candidate for the same office.

Art. 13.52. Consent to Run

Upon receipt of an application which conforms to the above requirements, the Secretary of State shall issue his instruction to the county clerks of the state or of the district, as the case may require, and the county judge shall issue his instruction to the county clerk of the county, directing that the name of the candidate on whose favor the application is made shall be printed on the official ballot in the independent column under the title of the office for which he is a candidate; provided, that any candidate who is required by Subdivision 2, Section 227 of this code (Subdivision 2, Article 13.50, Vernon’s Texas Election Code) to file a statement of intent to become an independent candidate must have filed such statement in compliance with the provisions of that subdivision, and any candidate not required to file such statement must file with the Secretary of State or the county judge, as the case may be, his written consent to become a candidate, within 30 days after the second primary election day.

Art. 13.54. Nominations by Parties Without State Organization

Any political party without a state organization desiring to nominate candidates for county and precinct offices only may nominate such candidates therefor by a county convention held on the second Saturday in May of the election year, which convention shall be composed of delegates from the various election precincts in the county, elected therein at conventions held in such precincts on the first Saturday in May. All nominations made by any such parties shall be certified to the county clerk by the chairman of the county committee of such party, and, after taking the same course as nominations of other parties so certified, shall be printed on the official ballot in a separate column, headed by the name of the party; provided, a written application for such printing shall have been made to the county judge not later than June 30 following the conventions, signed by qualified voters of the county equal in number to at least three per cent of the entire vote cast for governor in such county at the last general election for that office. No person who is affiliated with any other political party is eligible to sign the application. The application shall contain the following information with respect to each person signing it: his address, the number of his voter registration certificate, and the date of signing. The application may not be circulated for signatures until after the date of the precinct conventions, and any signatures obtained on or before that date are void. The application may be in multiple parts. To each part there shall be attached an affidavit of the person who circulated it, who must be a registered voter in the county, stating that he witnessed the affixing of each signature, that the correct date of signing is shown on the application, and that to his best knowledge and belief each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name is signed. An application so verified is prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and that the persons signing it are qualified voters of the county.

Art. 13.56. Death, Withdrawal, or Ineligibility of Candidate; Filling Vacancy in Nomination

(a) A nominee of a political party may decline and annul his nomination by delivering to the officer with whom the certificate of his nomination is filed and to the chairman of the executive committee having the power to fill a vacancy in such nomination, not later than the 21st day before the day of the election, a declaration in writing, signed by him and acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments, whereupon the officer receiving the declaration shall take the necessary action to have the name of the nominee removed from the ballot. A nominee may not decline the nomination after the 21st day before election day.

(b) If prior to the 20th day before the day of the election, a nominee dies or declines the nomination, or is declared ineligible to be elected to or to hold the office for which he is a candidate, the executive committee of the party for the state, district, county, or precinct, as the office to be nominated may require, may nominate a candidate to supply the vacancy. A certificate of such nomination, signed and duly acknowledged by the chairman of the executive committee, must be filed with the officer with whom the certificate of the original nomination was filed and must set forth the name of the original nominee, the cause of the vacancy, the name of the new nominee, the office for which he was nominated, and when, where, by whom, and how he was nominated. If the vacancy occurs on or before the 75th day before election day, the certificate must be filed not later than the 55th day before election day; if the vacancy occurs after the 75th day before election day, the certificate must be filed not later than the 20th day after it occurs, but in any event not later than the 21st day before election day. The officer with whom the substitute nomination is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the name of the new nominee to be placed on the ballot.

(c) In any case where a district committee is empowered to name a nominee and fails to do so, the state executive committee may name a candidate for such office and certify the name to the proper officer to have the name printed on the official ballot for the general election. The certification must be filed not later than the 15th day after the deadline for certification by the district committee and in any event not later than the 21st day before election day.

(d) If a party nominee dies before the 24th day before election day, or if he declines the nomination or is declared ineligible before the 20th day before election day, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If a nominee dies between the 24th day and the 21st day before election day, both dates included, and no one is nominated to take his place, or if a nominee dies or is declared ineligible on or after the 20th day before election day, his name may be printed on the ballot and the procedure set out in Section 104 of this code shall be followed.

(e) An independent candidate may withdraw his candidacy and cause his name to be kept off the ballot by delivering to the officer with whom the application requesting his name to be placed on the ballot was filed, not later than the 21st day before election day, a declaration in writing, signed and duly acknowledged by him, whereupon the officer with whom the declaration is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the candidate's name to be removed from the ballot. A candidate may not withdraw after the 21st day before election day.

(f) If an independent candidate in the general election for state and county officers withdraws or is declared ineligible before the 20th day before election day, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies after completing all the procedural requirements for candidacy and before the 20th day before election day, his name shall be printed on the ballot if he was the incumbent in the office for which he was a candidate or if no other candidate's name is to be printed on the ballot in that race; otherwise, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies or is declared ineligible on or after the 20th day before election day, his name shall be printed on the ballot. When a deceased or ineligible candidate's name is printed on the ballot, the procedure set out in Section 104 of this code shall be followed.

(g) If an independent candidate in any election other than the general election for state and county officers dies before the second day before the filing deadline for independent candidates in that election, or if he withdraws or is declared ineligible before the 20th day before election day, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies or after the second day before the filing deadline or if he is declared ineligible on or after the 20th day before election day, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the procedure set out in Section 104 of this code shall be followed.

(h) When a candidate dies and his name is to be removed from the ballot under any provision of this section, the officer responsible for making up the ballot for the election shall remove the candidate's name upon receiving reliable information of the death. However, in the case of a candidate whose name is certified to the county clerk by the secretary of state, the clerk shall not remove the candidate's name from the ballot without authorization from the secretary of state.

(i) The provisions of this section in regard to independent candidates apply to all general and special elections, by whatever authority held, except that charter provisions of a home-rule city supersede the provisions of this section. The term "independent candidate" means any candidate, not the nominee of a political party in a partisan election, who is seeking ballot position in any general or special election.

1 Article 8.22.

Art. 13.58. National Convention

(a) Any political party holding primary elections in an election year during which it desires to elect delegates to a national convention shall hold a state convention at such hour and place and on such date as may be designated by the state executive committee of the party, such date to be any day between the second and fourth Tuesdays, inclusive, following the second primary election date. Such convention shall be composed of delegates duly elected at the county and senatorial district conventions as provided for in Section 212 of this code. The chairman of the state executive committee shall notify the Secretary of State as to the date, hour and place at which the state convention will be held and shall also mail a copy of such notice to each county chairman and the temporary chairman of each senatorial district convention in the state at least ten days prior to the date of the state convention.

Art. 13.58a. Presidential Primaries; Selection of Delegates to National Nominating Conventions of Parties Holding Primaries

Subd. 1. Each political party holding primary elections in this state in an election year during which a national convention of the party will be held to nominate a candidate for president of the United States shall hold a presidential primary election in conjunction with the party's general primary election on the first Saturday in May, for the purpose of electing a portion of the delegates to represent the state at the national convention. The expenses of the presidential primary shall be paid in the same manner as the expenses of the general primary.

Method of Selecting Delegates to National Convention

Subd. 2. (a) The voting delegates and alternates to represent this state at the national nominating convention of a political party which is required to hold a presidential primary election in this state shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) At least 75 percent of the voting delegates apportioned to this state shall be elected from state senatorial districts at the presidential primary of the party, as provided in Subdivisions 4 through 7 of this section; provided, however, that the state executive committee of the party, by a vote of two-thirds of the membership, may choose to elect delegates from congressional districts. The candidates for election as delegates are those persons nominated by the delegate selection committees of the presidential candidates who qualify to participate in the presidential primary in accordance with Subdivision 3 of this section, and are pledged to the presidential candidate on whose behalf they are nominated. The state executive committee of the party shall determine the exact number of delegates to be elected at the primary, and shall apportion that number among the senatorial or congressional districts in accordance with an apportionment formula prescribed by national party rules. The percentage of voting delegates apportioned by the state executive committee of each party to be elected as provided herein shall be as close to 75 percent as mathematically practicable and permitted by national party rules.

(c) Not later than January 2 of the presidential election year, the chairman of the state executive committee of each party holding a presidential primary election shall certify to the secretary of state:

1. the total number of voting delegates apportioned to this state;
2. the number of delegates to be elected at the primary election and the number apportioned to each senatorial or congressional district for election at the primary;
3. the number of delegates to be selected at the state convention; and
4. the number of alternates apportioned to the state to be chosen at the state convention.

Method of Qualifying as Presidential Candidate

Subd. 3. (a) Any person eligible to hold the office of president of the United States may qualify to participate as a presidential candidate in the primary of the party of the candidate's choice by filing with the secretary of state, not later than 6 p. m. on the first Monday in February preceding the primary, a signed, acknowledged application accompanied by petitions for pledged delegates signed by registered voters of each senatorial or congressional district in which the person desires to be a candidate, equal in number to not less than one percent of the total number of votes cast in the district for all candidates for governor in the last preceding general primary election of the party.

(b) The secretary of state shall prescribe the form of all applications and petitions which are to be filed pursuant to this section.

(c) A voter may not sign petitions representing a greater number of delegates than the number to be elected in the district of which he is a resident. A voter who violates these provisions commits a Class C misdemeanor.

Candidate's District Delegate Slates

Subd. 4. (a) Each presidential candidate shall be represented on the primary ballot in any senatorial or congressional district of his choice by a slate of nominees for election as delegates to the national convention in the number that the state executive committee apportions to the district for election at the primary. Each presidential candidate shall appoint a delegate selection committee in each senatorial or congressional district in which he wishes to be represented on the ballot by delegate nominees. The committee, which shall consist of not less than 10 registered voters of the senatorial or congressional district, shall choose the slate of nominees to represent the candidate on the ballot. Not later than the second Monday in February preceding the primary, the candidate shall file with the secretary of state the names and addresses of the persons appointed to the candidate's delegate selection committees. The candidate shall designate in the filed instrument one member of each committee to serve as its chairman.

(b) Not later than the third Monday in February preceding the primary, each candidate's delegate selection committees shall meet at a time set by the state executive committee of the party and at a place set in each district by the chairman of the delegate selection committee for that district, for the purpose of choosing the slates of delegate nominees to represent the candidate at the primary. Each nominee for delegate must be a qualified voter in the senatorial or congressional district for which that nominee is chosen. These committees shall be charged with the responsibility of insuring that the delegate selection process is free and open and that full opportunity for public participation is afforded; provided, however, that the delegate selection committee may require each participant to pledge himself or herself by oath to the committee's presidential candidate. These meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the respective national and state parties.
(c) All meetings of delegate selection committees of candidates of the same party shall be held at a uniform time throughout the state, and shall begin at a reasonable hour, except where it is determined by the state chairman of the party that inclement weather or unforeseen impediments would significantly reduce participation in the delegate selection process.

(d) It is a Class C misdemeanor for any individual to participate in the meetings of delegate selection committees of more than one candidate for president, or to swear falsely an oath of commitment to a candidate prior to participation in a delegate selection committee meeting.

(e) Not later than the first Monday in March, the chairman of each senatorial or congressional district delegate selection committee shall file with the secretary of state a list of names and addresses of persons chosen as delegate nominees in that senatorial or congressional district, together with the chairman’s certification that each person listed has consented to become a nominee for the position.

(f) The names of a presidential candidate’s delegate nominees shall not be printed on the primary ballot in any senatorial or congressional district of the state if:

1. The presidential candidate fails to file the names of the candidate’s delegate selection committees with the secretary of state within the prescribed time;
2. The candidate’s delegate selection committee in any senatorial or congressional district fails to nominate the requisite number of nominees for that district; or
3. The chairman of any one or more of the candidate’s delegate selection committees fails to file the names of the delegate nominees with the secretary of state within the prescribed time.

However, the death or withdrawal of a delegate nominee after nomination by the delegate selection committee does not disqualify a presidential candidate from participating in the primary. The chairman of each delegate selection committee shall fill vacancies in the slate of nominees in the manner provided in Subdivision 5 of this section.

(g) Not later than the second day after the first Monday in March, the secretary of state shall mail or deliver to the state chairman of each political party holding a presidential primary a certification of the names and addresses of the delegate candidates whose names are to be placed on the ballot in each senatorial or congressional district of the state in that party’s primary, together with the name of the presidential candidate that each delegate candidate represents or the designation of the delegate candidate’s uncommitted status. The state chairman shall certify to the county chairmen of the party the names of the delegate candidates that are to appear on the presidential primary ballot for the various senatorial or congressional districts, together with the name of the presidential candidate that each delegate candidate represents or the designation of the delegate candidate’s uncommitted status and the number of delegates to be elected in each senatorial or congressional district, at the same time that the state chairman certifies the names of candidates to appear on the general primary ballot as provided in Section 190 of this code (Article 13.12, Vernon’s Texas Election Code).

Changes in Candidate’s State Before the Primary

Subd. 5. (a) A presidential candidate may withdraw from the presidential primary by filing with the secretary of state a signed, acknowledged request that the names of the candidate’s delegate nominees not be printed on the ballot, not later than the 21st day before election day. If a presidential candidate dies or withdraws before the 20th day before election day, the names of the candidate’s delegate nominees shall not appear on the ballot. If a candidate dies during the 20 days before election day, the votes cast for the candidate’s delegate nominees shall be counted and those who are elected become uncommitted delegates, subject to becoming pledged to some other presidential candidate as prescribed by state party rules.

(b) Any person nominated for election as delegate may withdraw as a delegate nominee by filing a signed, acknowledged declaration of withdrawal with the chairman of the delegate selection committee that made the nomination and with the secretary of state not later than the 31st day before the primary. A nominee may not withdraw during the 30 days preceding the primary. However, if elected, a delegate may resign after the election. If a delegate nominee dies or withdraws before the 30th day preceding the election, the chairman of the delegate selection committee shall select a replacement and certify the name and address of the replacement to the secretary of state within five days after the death or withdrawal. If a nominee dies during the 30 days preceding the election, the nominee’s name remains on the ballot, and if the nominee receives the necessary vote for election, the vacancy is filled in the same manner as a vacancy occurring after the election.

(c) A presidential candidate may refuse to be represented by a nominee for delegate by giving written notice to the chairman of the candidate’s delegate selection committee that made the nomination and to the secretary of state, not later than the 31st day before the primary, whereupon that person’s name shall be replaced on the ballot under the same procedure as for a deceased or withdrawn nominee.
(d) When the secretary of state receives notice of any change in the ballot makeup for a presidential primary after the secretary of state has certified the delegate nominations to the state chairman, the secretary of state shall notify the state chairman, and the state chairman in turn shall notify the appropriate county chairman of the change that is to be made. No change shall be made except upon authorization of the secretary of state.

The Presidential Primary Ballot

Subd. 6. (a) The names of the candidates for delegate to the national convention shall be printed as the first race on the official ballot for the general primary. The slates of the various presidential candidates shall be listed in a vertical column beneath the heading and instruction note prescribed in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, each slate appearing in the order determined by lot for the names of the presidential candidates in each county, in the same manner as the names of the candidates for nomination on the general primary ballot. The names of the delegate nominees making up each slate shall be printed on the ballot in the order certified by the secretary of state, which shall be the same order in which the chairman of the presidential candidate's delegate selection committee certified the names to the secretary of state. Alongside the name of each delegate nominee there shall be printed the name of the presidential candidate to whom the delegate nominee is pledged. A space shall separate each slate from the others.

(b) When paper ballots are used, the presidential portion of the ballot shall be in substantially the following form:

DELEGATES TO NATIONAL PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATING CONVENTION

(The blank is to be filled in with the number allocated to the senatorial or congressional district for which the ballot is prepared.)

Delegate Candidate    Presidential Candidate
[ ] delegate for (First presidential candidate)
[ ] delegate for (First presidential candidate)
[ ] delegate for (Second presidential candidate)
[ ] delegate for (Second presidential candidate)
[ ] delegate for (Third presidential candidate)
Etc.

(c) Appropriate changes shall be made in ballots for voting machines and electronic voting systems, consistent with the method of voting used.

(d) The type for all names of delegate candidates shall be of uniform style and size; provided, however, that the names of all delegate candidates shall be printed in capital and lowercase letters and the names of all presidential candidates shall be printed in capital letters. The secretary of state shall prescribe a sample ballot as a guide to the size and style of type to be used for each of the items (heading, instructions, names of candidates, etc.) to be printed on the ballot, and the state chairman shall furnish a copy of the sample ballot to each county chairman at the time of certifying to the county chairman the names to appear on the ballot.

(e) Write-in voting for delegate candidates is not permitted, and any write-in votes shall not be counted.

Canvass of Returns

Subd. 7. (a) The returns of the votes cast for delegate candidates in a presidential primary shall be canvassed by senatorial or congressional district in the same manner as the returns for district offices in the general primary. The candidates elected in each senatorial or congressional district are those who receive, respectively, the highest number of votes, the second highest number of votes, and so on in descending order, according to the number of delegates to be elected. In the event two or more delegate candidates receive the same number of votes, the winner shall be determined by lot at the meeting of the state executive committee at which the returns are canvassed.

(b) Within 48 hours after the state executive committee canvasses the returns, the state chairman shall certify to the secretary of state the number of votes received by each candidate for delegate in each senatorial or congressional district, with a breakdown of the district vote by county if the district includes territory in more than one county.

(c) Delegates elected from senatorial or congressional districts to the national convention shall be voting delegates from their senatorial or congressional districts to the state convention.

Uncommitted Delegates

Subd. 8. (a) Any group of 10 or more registered voters of a senatorial or congressional district who wish to have a slate of uncommitted delegate candidates appear on the presidential primary ballot in that district shall file a signed, acknowledged statement to that effect with the secretary of state not later than 6 p.m. on the first Monday in February preceding the primary. The statement must be accompanied by a petition signed by registered voters of the district equal in number to not less than one percent of the total number of votes cast in the district for all candidates for governor in the last preceding general primary election of the party. Each group shall appoint a delegate selection committee, which shall consist of not less than 10 registered voters of the senatorial or congressional district and may include signers of the statement. Not later than the second Monday in February preceding the primary, the group shall file with the secretary of state the names and addresses of the persons appointed to the group’s delegate selection committee, and shall designate in the filed instrument one member of the committee to serve as its chairman. The delegate selection committee shall function in all respects as a presidential candidate’s delegate selection committee for a senatorial or congressional district.
Article 13.58a

(b) Any individual registered voter of a senatorial or congressional district who wishes to become an uncommitted delegate candidate but does not wish to appear on the ballot as a part of a slate of uncommitted delegate candidates shall file an application with the secretary of state not later than 6 p.m. on the first Monday in February preceding the primary. The application must be accompanied by a petition signed by registered voters of the district equal in number of not less than one percent of the total number of votes cast in the district for all candidates for governor in the last preceding general primary election of the party.

(c) Limitations on the number of petitions a voter may sign are stated in paragraph (c) of Subdivision 3 of this section.

(d) The uncommitted delegate candidates shall be so designated on the ballot, and shall be governed by the same privileges and restrictions as pledged delegate candidates insofar as they can be made applicable. The notation in Subdivision 6 of this section that a delegate candidate is running as a delegate for a particular presidential candidate shall be replaced on the ballot with the notation “Uncommitted delegate.”

Selection of Delegates and Alternates at State Convention

Subd. 9. (a) The remaining number of delegates allotted to the state which were not elected at the party’s presidential primary and all alternates shall be selected by the state convention of the party, in accordance with state and national party rules.

(b) Not later than the fifth day prior to the opening of the state convention, each presidential candidate and the chairman of the delegate selection committee of each uncommitted group of voters entitled to a portion of the delegates or alternates to be chosen at the state convention shall file with the state chairman of the party the names of a committee to function at the state convention for the purpose of screening and rejecting proposed delegates and alternates to be chosen by the convention that are unacceptable to the presidential candidate or the uncommitted group. Each screening committee shall consist of not less than 10 members, one of whom shall be designated in the filed instrument as the chairman of the committee.

Pledge of Delegates and Alternates

Subd. 10. (a) By assenting to nomination on a presidential candidate’s slate, each delegate candidate representing a presidential candidate in a presidential primary becomes pledged to the presidential candidate on whose slate the delegate candidate is nominated.

(b) A person who is elected as a delegate to the national convention on the slate of a presidential candidate at the primary or who is selected by the state convention as a delegate or alternate to the national convention to represent a particular presidential candidate, and who does not resign from the position, is pledged by law to support that presidential candidate at the national convention until the candidate is nominated at the convention or until the delegate or alternate is released from the pledge as follows:

(1) first nominating convention ballot: delegate or alternate shall be released from the pledge only in the event of death or withdrawal of the candidate;

(2) second nominating convention ballot: delegate or alternate may be released from the pledge by decision of the candidate;

(3) third nominating convention ballot: delegate or alternate shall be released from the pledge if the candidate has failed to receive 20 percent or more of the total vote cast on the preceding ballot; or by decision of the candidate;

(4) fourth and subsequent nominating convention ballots: delegates and alternates are by law released from any pledge.

Filling Vacancies in a Delegation

Subd. 11. (a) A delegate who resigns prior to or is absent from the national convention shall select from among the alternates of the same candidate preference or unpledged status the particular alternate to take the place of the resigned or absent delegate. If the delegate fails to select the alternate, or if, due to death or disability, a delegate is unable to select the alternate, the delegation shall fill the vacancy by selecting an alternate of the same candidate preference or unpledged status as the delegate replaced.
(B) Any delegate or alternate may resign by giving written notice to the delegation chairman and the state chairman of the party at any time before the date of the national convention.

Candidacy for Other Office

Subd. 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person's name may be printed on the primary ballot as a candidate for nomination to the office of president of the United States or as a nominee for election as delegate to the national convention of a political party, and also as a candidate for nomination to any other public office or for election to any party office.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN. POLITICAL FUNDS REPORTING AND DISCLOSURE ACT

Article
14.01. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

(A) "Candidate" is defined as any person who has knowingly and willingly taken affirmative action for the purpose of seeking nomination or election to any public office which is required by law to be determined by an election. Some examples of affirmative action are:

1. Filing of application for a position on a ballot.
2. Filing of application for nomination by a convention under Section 224a of this code.\(^1\)
3. Independent candidate's declaration of intent under Section 224a of this code.
4. Public announcement of a definite intent to run for office at a particular election, either with or without designating the specific office to be sought.
5. Statement of definite intent and solicitation of support through letters or other modes of communication, prior to a public announcement.

The filing of a designation of a campaign treasurer is not affirmative action which makes one a candidate as defined in this chapter.

(B) "Office-holder" is defined as any person serving in a public office as defined herein and any other constitutionally designated member of the Executive Department.

(C) "Corporation" is defined as every organization organized or operating under authority of the Texas Business Corporation Act or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, any corporation or association organized by authority of any law of Congress or of any other state or nation than Texas, national, state, private or unincorporated banks, trust companies, building and loan associations or companies, insurance companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, cooperatives, abstract and title insurance companies, and stock companies.

(D) "Contribution" is defined as:

1. any advance, loan, deposit, or transfer of funds, goods, services or any other thing of value, or any contract or obligation, whether enforceable or unenforceable, to transfer any funds, goods, services, or anything of value to any candidate, or political committee, which advance or other such item is involved in an election; providing that an individual or group of persons is involved in an election upon the receipt of a contribution or the making of an expenditure which was given or made and received with the intent that it be used or held for some election and that the receipt of or making of the contribution or expenditure may occur before, during, or after an election; or as

2. any advance, deposit or transfer of funds, goods, services or anything of value or creation of any contract or obligation, enforceable or unenforceable, to transfer any funds, goods, services or anything of value to any office-holder for the purpose of assisting such person in the performance of duties or activities in connection with the office which are nonreimbursable by the state or political subdivision.

(E) "Expenditures" is defined as any payments made or obligations incurred

1. by a candidate, or political committee, when such payments or obligations are involved in an election; or

2. by an office-holder, when such payments are made in the performance of duties or activities in connection with the office which are nonreimbursable by the state or the political subdivision.

"Involved in an election" has the same meaning as in (D) above.
Art. 14.01

ELECTION CODE

(F) “Election” is defined as any election held to nominate or elect a candidate to any public office. It shall also include any election at which a measure is submitted to the people.

(G) “Public office” is defined as any office created by or under authority of the laws of the state, that is filled by the voters.

(H) “State office” is defined as any public office of the state government which is to be filled by the choice of the voters of the entire state, except presidential electors.

(I) “District office” is defined as any public office of the state government, less than statewide, which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in more than one county, and the offices of State Senator, State Representative, and State Board of Education.

(J) “County office” is defined as any public office of the state or county government which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in only one county or less than one county, except for those offices specifically enumerated as district offices above.

(K) “Municipal office” is defined as any public office of any incorporated city, town, or village which is to be filled by the choice of the voters.

(L) “Office of a political subdivision” is defined as any public office of any political subdivision of this state which is organized as a body politic and has a governing board or body, except counties, cities, towns and villages, which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in that subdivision.

(M) “Measure” is defined as any proposal submitted to the people for their approval or rejection at an election, including any proposed law, Act or part of an Act of the legislature, revision of or amendment to the constitution, local, special, or municipal legislation or proposition or ballot question.

(N) “Person” is defined as an individual, corporation, partnership, labor union or labor organization, or any unincorporated association, firm, committee, club, or other organization or group of persons including any group of persons associated with a political party or element thereof.

(O) “Political committee” is defined as any group of persons

(1) formed to collect contributions or make expenditures in support for or in opposition to a candidate or candidates, whether presently identifiable or not, or a measure or measures, whether presently identifiable or not, on a ballot in a public election; or

(2) formed to collect contributions or make expenditures for office holders whether presently identifiable or not.

(P) “Specific purpose political committee” is defined as:

(1) any political committee which accepts only contributions and/or makes only expenditures in support for or in opposition to candidates who are identifiable and for whom the office(s) to be sought are known and any political committee only accepting contributions and/or making expenditures in support for or in opposition to measures which are identifiable; or

(2) any political committee which accepts only contributions and/or makes only expenditures in assisting identifiable office-holders.

(Q) “General purpose political committee” is defined as:

(1) any political committee which accepts contributions and/or makes expenditures in support for or in opposition to candidates who are indefinite in identity or for whom the office(s) to be sought are unknown and any political committee which accepts contributions and/or makes expenditures in support for or in opposition to measures which are indefinite in identity; or

(2) any political committee which accepts contributions and/or makes expenditures in assisting office-holders, who are not identified.

(R) “Political advertising” is defined as anything in favor of or in opposition to any candidate for public office or office of a political party, or in favor of or in opposition to any political party, or in favor of or in opposition to the success of any public officer, or in favor of or in opposition to any measure submitted to a vote of the people, which is communicated in any of the following forms:

(1) anything published in a newspaper, magazine, or journal or broadcast over a radio or television station in consideration of money or other thing of value; or

(2) any handbill, pamphlet, circular, flier, commercial billboard sign, bumper sticker, or similar printed material.

The term does not include nonpolitical letterheads, ordinary printed invitations to and tickets for fund-raising events or other affairs, campaign pins, buttons, fingernail files, matchbooks, emblems, hats, pencils, and similar materials.

ELECTION CODE

Art. 14.03

The 1975 Act, which by §§ 2 to 14 amended arts. 14.01 to 14.10, 14.13 and 14.15, provided in §§ 1, 15 to 17:

Sec. 1. This Act shall be styled the Political Funds Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1975.

Sec. 15. Nothing in this Act repeals or otherwise affects Article 5428a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes, as added by Chapter 48, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973.

Sec. 1b. There is hereby appropriated to the Secretary of State out of the General Revenue Fund the amount of $204,020 for the year ending August 31, 1977, and the amount of $147,020 for the year ending August 31, 1976, for the purpose of implementing this Act.

Sec. 17. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 14.02. Appointment of Campaign Treasurer

(A) Notwithstanding the following subsections of this section, no designation of a campaign treasurer shall be required in order that an office-holder accept contributions or make expenditures to be reported under subsection (H)(1)(b) of Section 243.1

Unexpended campaign contributions, as defined in Subsection (D)(1) of Section 237, which were lawfully accepted and have been previously reported pursuant to this Code, may be used by an office-holder for expenditures in connection with the office pursuant to subsection (E)(2) of Section 237. Notwithstanding the requirement set forth in subsection (F)(1) of this section, any contribution that has been lawfully accepted and duly reported under this Code prior to the designation of a campaign treasurer may be utilized as campaign contributions after such designation.

(B) Every candidate for nomination to or election to a state or district office and every political committee in any such election or in an election involving a statewide measure shall designate a campaign treasurer by written appointment filed with the Secretary of State, and may also designate assistant campaign treasurers for each county affected by such candidacy by written appointment to be filed either with the county clerk of said county, or the Secretary of State.

(C) Every candidate for nomination to or election to a county office and every political committee in any such election or in an election involving a county measure shall designate a campaign treasurer by written appointment to be filed with the county clerk of such county.

(D) Every candidate for nomination to or election to a municipal office or an office of a political subdivision and every political committee in any such election or in an election involving a measure of a municipality or political subdivision shall designate a campaign treasurer by written appointment to be filed with the clerk or secretary of the municipality or political subdivision and, if the political subdivision extends beyond the boundaries of one county, may also designate assistant campaign treasurers for each county affected by such candidacy.

(E) Any campaign treasurer or assistant campaign treasurer designated as provided in this Sec-

Art. 14.03. Campaign Contributions

(A) It shall be lawful for an individual not acting in concert with any other person to expend a sum in a campaign which shall not in the aggregate exceed $100 per election for any lawful purpose out of his own funds to aid or defeat any candidate or measure, where the sum is not to be repaid to him. Such a sum will not be reportable to any authority unless it constitutes a contribution. If an individual not acting in concert with any person wishes to expend more than $100 for any lawful purpose out of his own funds to aid or defeat any candidate or candidates or measures, he may do so either by making a contribution or by complying with all of the provisions of this chapter as if he were a campaign treasurer of a political committee.
Art. 14.03  ELECTION CODE  598

(B) It shall be lawful for any individual to donate his own personal services and personal traveling expenses to aid or defeat any candidate or measure and such a donation shall not constitute a contribution or expenditure, as defined in Section 237 of this code only so long as he either is not compensated or reimbursed for same.

(C) It shall be unlawful for any person to make any contribution or expenditure in the name of another or on behalf of another without revealing that fact in order that the proper disclosure may be made.

(D) Except as expressly permitted by Paragraphs
(A) and (B) of this Section it shall be unlawful for any person, other than a candidate, his campaign treasurer, or assistant campaign treasurer, or the campaign treasurer of a political committee, to make or authorize any campaign expenditure. Except as provided in Paragraphs (A) and (B) of this Section, campaign expenditures must be made by the candidate, campaign treasurer, or assistant campaign treasurer, or the campaign treasurer of a political committee.

Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 14.03a.  Limitations on Campaign Expenditures

(a) Subject to Subsection (c) of this section, no candidate in an election for a statewide office of the state government may make campaign expenditures in excess of the applicable limit, as follows:

(1) in a general primary election, 10 cents multiplied by the voting-age population of the state;

(2) in a runoff primary election, 4 cents multiplied by the voting-age population of the state;

(3) in a general election, 10 cents multiplied by the voting-age population of the state.

(b) As used in this section, “voting-age population” means the estimated voting-age population of the state as certified by the United States Secretary of Commerce pursuant to Section 608 of Title 18, United States Code, in January of the calendar year in which the election is held.

(c) Each limitation established by Subsection (a) or Subsection (f) shall be increased by the percentum difference between the price index for the 12 months preceding the beginning of the calendar year in which the election is held and the price index for the calendar-year 1974, as certified by the United States Secretary of Labor pursuant to Section 608 of Title 18, United States Code.

(d) For the purpose of calculating the spending limits of this section and except as otherwise provided in Subsection (f), any amount spent by a candidate, his campaign treasurer, or assistant campaign treasurer, or any amount spent on behalf of a candidate by a political committee or political action committee which is supporting the candidate, is deemed to have been spent by the candidate. For the purposes of this section, a contribution which a political committee makes to a candidate is not an expenditure on behalf of the candidate.

(e) The campaign treasurer of a political committee or political action committee which is supporting a candidate may not make expenditures on behalf of the candidate in excess of a limit fixed by the candidate or his campaign treasurer in a signed statement furnished to the campaign treasurer of the political committee or political action committee before he incurs any such expenditure. The candidate or his campaign treasurer may change the limit at any time before the election if the expenditures incurred by the committee at the time of the change do not exceed the limit previously set for the committee. On each statement that a candidate files under Section 244 of this code, as amended, the candidate shall list the expenditure limit that he or his campaign treasurer has set for each political committee supporting him with respect to the election to which the statement relates. Where a political committee makes an expenditure on behalf of more than one candidate, the entire amount is charged to each candidate’s expenditure limit.

(f) Expenditures made by an executive committee of a political party or by any other political committee on behalf of the nominees of a political party in a general election without identifying individual candidates are not chargeable to the expenditure limits of the individual candidates.

(g) All civil and criminal penalties stated in this chapter for making an unlawful campaign expenditure apply to expenditures which are in excess of the amount permitted by this section. A candidate is liable for expenditures made by him, his campaign treasurer, or assistant campaign treasurer, in excess of the difference between the candidate’s expenditure limit for the election and the aggregate of the limits that the candidate or his campaign treasurer has fixed for political committees that are supporting him in the election. The campaign treasurer of a political committee is liable for expenditures in excess of the limit that the candidate or his campaign treasurer has fixed for the committee in the election.

Art. 14.04. Civil Remedy

(A) Any person who makes or knowingly accepts an unlawful campaign contribution or who knowingly makes an unlawful expenditure in support of a candidate shall be civilly liable to each opposing candidate whose name appeared on the ballot in the election in which the unlawful contribution or expenditure was involved for double the amount or value of such unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure and reasonable attorneys fees for collecting same.

(B) Any person who knowingly makes or knowingly accepts an unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure not expressly supporting any candidate but opposing a particular candidate or candidates shall be civilly liable to each of such opposed candidates for double the amount or value of such unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure and reasonable attorneys fees for collecting same.

(C) Any person who knowingly makes or knowingly accepts an unlawful contribution or expenditure shall, in addition to any other penalties, be civilly liable to the State of Texas for an amount equal to triple the amount or value of such unlawful contribution or expenditure.

Art. 14.05. Criminal Penalty

Any person who knowingly makes or knowingly accepts an unlawful contribution or who knowingly makes an expenditure in violation of this Chapter shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor unless otherwise provided by law.

This article was renumbered from article 14.06 and amended by the 1975 Act.

Art. 14.06. Corporations and Labor Organizations Not to Contribute

(A) Except to the extent permitted in Section 317, Texas Election Code, it is unlawful for any corporation, as defined in this Act, to make a contribution or expenditure, as defined in Section 237 of this code, or any labor organization to make a contribution or expenditure, or for any candidate, office-holder, political committee, or other person to knowingly accept any contribution prohibited by this Article except as herein expressly provided.

(B) For the purpose of this section, "labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or any ageney or employee representation committee or plan, in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work.

(C) As used in this section, the phrase "contribution or expenditure" shall also include giving, lending, or paying any money or other thing of value, directly or indirectly, to any candidate, or political committee, campaign treasurer, assistant campaign treasurer, or any other person, for the purpose of aiding or defeating the nomination or election of any candidate or of aiding or defeating the approval of any measure submitted to a vote of the people of this state or any subdivision thereof; provided, however, that nothing in this section or in Section 317, Texas Election Code, shall prevent the making of a loan or loans to any candidate, office-holder, or political committee, for campaign or other lawful purposes by any corporation which is legally engaged in the business of lending money and which has conducted such business continuously for more than one year prior to the making of such loan, provided the loan is made in the due course of business and is not directly or indirectly a contribution. As used in this Article, the phrase "contribution or expenditure" shall not include expenditures for the following purposes: communications, on any subject, by a corporation to its stockholders and their families or, if the corporation is an association, to its members and their families, or by a labor organization to its members and their families: non-partisan registration and get-out-the-vote campaigns by a corporation aimed at its stockholders and their families, or, if the corporation is an association, at its members and their families, or by a labor organization aimed at its members and their families; or the establishment, administration and solicitation of contributions to a separate segregated fund to be utilized for political purposes by a corporation or labor organization. It is provided that it shall be unlawful for such a fund to make a contribution or expenditure by utilizing money or anything of value secured by physical force, job discrimination, or financial reprisals, or by dues, fees, or other moneys required as a condition of membership in a labor organization or as a condition of employment, or by moneys obtained in a commercial transaction.

(D) Any corporation or labor organization making or promising a gift, loan, or payment to any candidate, political committee, campaign treasurer, assistant campaign treasurer, or other person in violation of this section shall be civilly liable for double the amount or value of such loan or gift, promised or made, to each opponent of the candidate, or political committee, opposed by such gift, loan, or payment.
Art. 14.06  ELECTION CODE 600

An opponent of the candidate is an opposing candidate whose name appeared on the ballot in the election in which the unlawful gift, loan, or payment was involved. The corporation or labor organization shall be civilly liable to the State of Texas for an amount equal to triple the amount or value of any unlawful gift, loan, or payment to any candidate, office-holder, political committee, campaign treasurer, or assistant campaign treasurer.

(E) Any corporation or labor organization that violates Subsection (A), (B), or (O) of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree.

(F) Every officer or director of any corporation or labor organization who shall consent to any such unlawful gift, loan, or payment or such unlawful promise to give, lend, or pay by the corporation or labor organization shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree.

(G) Any candidate, office-holder, political committee, campaign treasurer, or assistant campaign treasurer who knowingly accepts such unlawful gift, loan, or payment from a corporation or labor organization shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree.

Art. 14.07  Records and Sworn Statement

(A) Each candidate, office-holder, and political committee, or a campaign treasurer representing the same, is hereby required to keep an accurate record of contributions received, and of all expenditures made. Such record shall contain all information hereinafter required to be reported by such candidate, office-holder, or political committee. Such record shall be updated prior to the date a campaign treasurer is required to make a report of contributions received and expenditures made. Each statement shall include the dates and amounts as described in Subsection (H) of this section. Each statement shall include the names and complete address of each person from whom contributions in an aggregate amount of more than $50 has been received or borrowed during the appropriate reporting period as described in Subsection (H) of this section. Each statement shall also include the dates and amounts and the full names and complete addresses of all persons to whom any expenditures aggregating more than $50 was made during the appropriate reporting period, and the purpose of such expenditures. Each report shall also include a total of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the appropriate reporting period.

(B) Each opposed candidate whose name is printed on the ballot, each write-in candidate taking affirmative action in an election and each political committee involved in an election concerning a candidate or measure shall file a sworn statement at each time required herein. Each office-holder and political committee as defined in Subsections (O)(2), (P)(2), or (Q)(2) in Section 237 of this Code shall file a sworn statement as required herein.

(C) Each statement shall be included in the annual report of the Texas Ethics Commission. Each statement shall include the full names and complete addresses of all persons from whom contributions in an aggregate amount of more than $50 has been received or borrowed during the appropriate reporting period, and the purpose of such expenditures. Each report shall also include a total of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the appropriate reporting period.

(D) Each political committee receiving contributions or making expenditures on behalf of a candidate, or office-holder, shall notify the candidate, or office-holder, as to the name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer, if one is required. The candidate, or office-holder, shall include within each statement required by this code a list identifying the name and address of each such political committee and its campaign treasurer, if one is required. "On behalf of" means the knowing acceptance of a contribution for a candidate(s), or office-holder(s), or the making of an expenditure for a candidate(s), or office-holder(s). Any campaign treasurer, candidate, office-holder, or other person managing a political committee, who violates the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(E) Such statements shall be accompanied by the following affidavit verified by the person filing the statement:

"I do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement, filed herewith, is in all things true and correct, and fully shows all information required to be reported by me pursuant to the Political Funds Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1976."

(F) The statement and oath shall be filed as follows: for a county office (any office of the state or county government which is filled by the choice of the voters residing in only one county or less than one county), or a measure submitted at an election called by a county, with the county clerk of the county; for a district office (any office of the state government, less than statewide, which is filled by the choice of the voters residing in more than one county) or a state office, or statewide measure, or other constitutionally designated members of the Executive Department, with the secretary of state; for a municipal office, or a measure submitted at an election called by a municipality, with the city secretary or city clerk of the municipality; and for an office of a political subdivision, or a measure submitted at an election called by a political subdivision.
other than a county of municipality, with the secretary of the governing body of the political subdivision. General purpose political committees shall file the required sworn statements and oaths with the Secretary of State. The deadline for filing any statement required under this section is 5 p.m. of the last day designated in the pertinent subsection for filing the statement. When the last day of filing falls on a Saturday or Sunday or an official state holiday enumerated in Article 4591, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, the deadline for filing is extended to 5 p.m. of the next day which is not a Saturday or Sunday or enumerated holiday. A statement shall be deemed to be timely filed if it is placed in the United States Post Office or in the hands of a common or contract carrier properly addressed to the appropriate authority within the time limits applicable to the statement. The postmark or receipt mark (if received by a common or contract carrier) will be prima facie evidence of the date that such statement was deposited with the post office or carrier. The person making the report may show by competent evidence that the actual date of posting was to the contrary.

(G) A candidate, office-holder, or political committee shall not accept a contribution aggregating more than $500 in a reporting period from a political committee not in this state unless the contribution is accompanied by a written statement which sets forth the full name and complete address of each person who contributed more than $100 to such committee during the preceding twelve months and which is certified by an officer of the contributing political committee. A correct copy of any such statement shall be included with the statement filed on which the contribution is reported. For the purpose of reporting, “political committee not in this state” shall mean any political committee expending 80 percent or more of its expenditures in any combination of elections for state or district offices and/or measures and elections for county, municipal and political subdivisions offices and/or measures outside of this state within the immediately preceding twelve-month period.

(H)(1)(a) Candidates and the campaign treasurers of specific purpose political committees as defined in subsection (P)(1) of Section 237, shall file sworn statements at the times required in paragraph (4) of this subsection.

(b)(i) Office-holders and specific purpose political committees assisting office-holder(s) as defined in subsection (P)(2) of Section 237 of this Code shall file sworn statements on January 15 of each year of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the previous calendar year in accordance with the provisions of subsection (C) of this section but reporting only such contributions accepted and expenditures made that have not been previously reported.

(ii) In addition to the annual statement required in subsection (H)(1)(b)(i) above, any such office-holder shall file additional statements to cover all contributions received and expenditures made by such office-holder for that period of time prior to the designation of a campaign treasurer by such office-holder, and after such designation all contributions and expenditures are to be reported pursuant to subsection (H)(1)(a). The statements required by this subsection shall be filed not later than the 15th day following the designation of a campaign treasurer.

(2) Campaign treasurers of general purpose political committees shall file sworn statements at times required in paragraph (7) of this subsection.

(3) If the operations of a political committee necessitate a change in the applicability of paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection, the campaign treasurer of such political committee shall make such change and declare the identity of the authorities with whom future filings are expected to be made by filing (a) notification(s) with the authority(ies) with whom such committee has previously been required to file sworn statements. Failure to file such notice(s), when such change has been properly made, before the next applicable deadline for filing sworn statements under the formerly applicable sections, shall constitute a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Every candidate or specific purpose political committee shall file three sworn statements relating to the election in which such person is involved in addition to any statement as provided in paragraph (6) below. The three sworn statements shall be filed not later than the 30th day prior to the election, not later than the 7th day prior to the election, and not later than the 30th day after the election, respectively. A candidate who has been nominated by his party's primary in lieu of filing his third statement which encompasses nine (9) days prior to twenty-five (25) days after the election shall include in his first statement prior to the general election all previously unreported contributions and expenditures. The period reported in the first such statement shall begin on the day of campaign treasurer designation, and end on and include the 40th day prior to the election. The period reported in the second such statement shall begin on the 39th day before the election and end on and include the 10th day before the election. The period reported in the third such statement shall begin on the 9th day before the election and end on and include the 25th day after the election. In the event a candidate or specific purpose political committee becomes involved in an election after the end of any period covered by the regular reports otherwise required herein, the first applicable sworn statement shall be filed at the next regularly required deadline and its reporting period shall begin on the date of designation of campaign treasurer.
(5) In lieu of any third statement required, which falls on the 30th day after any general primary or special elections, whenever a candidate or specific purpose political committee is involved in a run-off election, not later than the 7th day before the run-off election, the candidate or specific purpose political committee shall file a statement of all previously unreported contributions and expenditures through the 10th day before the run-off election. The next statement required shall be filed not later than the 30th day after the run-off election and shall report all contributions received and all expenditures made during a period beginning on the 9th day before the run-off election and ending on the 25th day after the run-off election.

(6) Each year after the last deadline for filing a statement of contributions and expenditures, an additional statement shall be filed, provided, however, if there have been no expenditures made or contributions knowingly accepted since the last required reporting period, or if any contributions knowingly accepted and any expenditures made have all been reported under Subsection (H)(1)(b) of this section, there shall be no filing required. The annual statement shall be filed on or before January 15 (following the last filing) and the period shall cover all previously unreported contributions and expenditures through and including the 31st day of December.

(7) All general purpose political committees shall file sworn statements as designated herein:

(a) On January 15th of each year, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the previous calendar year which have not been previously reported;

(b) Not earlier than the 40th day and not later than the 30th day before the date of an election in which the general purpose committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the period from the date on which the general purpose political committee filed a designation of a campaign treasurer through the 40th day before the date of the election;

(c) Not earlier than the 10th day and not later than the 7th day before the date of an election in which the general purpose political committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made through the 10th day before the date of the election which have not been previously reported;

(d) Not earlier than the 25th day and not later than the 30th day after the date of an election in which the general purpose political committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made since the date covered by the last report filed under this subsection;

(e) Whenever a general purpose political committee is involved in a run-off election, in lieu of the statement to be filed by not later than the 30th day after the first election, the committee shall file a statement on the 7th day before the date of the run-off election showing all contributions received and all expenditures made since the date of the last report filed under this subsection;

(f) In the event a general purpose political committee becomes involved in an election after the end of any periods covered by the regular reports otherwise required herein, the first applicable sworn statement shall be filed at the next regularly required deadline and its reporting period shall begin on the date of designation of campaign treasurer.

(8) Candidates for offices created under laws of the United States are specifically exempted from the requirements of this section. It is provided, however, that they shall file copies of any reports required by federal laws with the secretary of state on the same date they file such reports with the appropriate federal authorities.

(9) Final Statement. A candidate or political committee may cease filing sworn statements regarding a campaign after a final statement has been filed and designated as such. Any of the required sworn statements may constitute a final statement if its filing results in the completion of the reporting of all contributions and expenditures involved in an election, together with the appropriate related information, required to be reported.

(10) In the event a general purpose political committee makes a contribution to either another general purpose political committee or an out of state political committee, and cannot thereby make the determination of the appropriate times to make filings of sworn statements, such contributing general purpose political committee shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this Section by filing a sworn statement with the Secretary of State fully reporting such contribution (as an expenditure) no later than the next succeeding filing deadline for the general primary election.

(I)(1) If any candidate, office-holder, or campaign treasurer of a political committee fails to file a sworn statement containing all information required by this chapter within 15 days of the deadline provided herein, such person shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(2) Any candidate, office-holder, campaign treasurer, or other person managing a political committee who swears falsely in a filed statement is subject to the provisions of Section 37.02 of the Texas Penal Code.

(J) Any candidate or campaign treasurer of a political committee who fails to report in whole or in part any contribution or expenditure as provided in the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be liable for double the amount or value of such unreported contribution or expenditure or unreported portion thereof, to each opposing candidate in the election in which same should have been reported. Each of such opposing candidates shall also recover reasonable attorneys' fees for collecting the above liquidated damages.

(K) Any candidate, office-holder, or campaign treasurer, of a political committee who fails to report in whole or in part any contribution or expenditure as provided in this Section, shall be civilly liable to the State of Texas for an amount equal to triple the amount or value of such unreported contribution or unreported expenditure.

(L) Statements filed under this Section shall be open to public inspection. They shall be preserved for a period of two years, after which they may be destroyed unless a court of competent jurisdiction has ordered their further preservation.

(M) No charge shall be levied for the filing of any report required by this section.

(N) No charge greater than that authorized by the State Board of Control for copies of similar documents filed with state agencies shall be charged for copies of any reports required to be filed by this section.

Art. 14.09. Political Advertising

(A) It is unlawful for any person knowingly to enter into a contract or transaction to print, publish or broadcast, any political advertising which does not disclose thereon that it is political advertising and which does not state the name and address of the person who personally entered into the contract or transaction with the printer, publisher, or broadcaster or in whose behalf such contract or transaction was entered into. A violation of this provision shall constitute a Class A misdemeanor. However, in the event the political advertisement conveys the impression that it emanates from a source other than its true source for the purpose of injuring any candidate or influencing the vote in any election, the candidate, campaign treasurer, assistant campaign treasurer or any other person purchasing or contracting for the furnishing of such political advertisement in support of or in opposition to any candidate or measure, who knowingly violates this subsection shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree.

(B) Any advertising medium or any officer or agent thereof who willfully demands or receives for any political advertising any money or other thing of value in excess of the sum due for such service, or any person who pays or offers to pay for such service any money or other thing of value in excess of the sum due, or any person who pays or offers to pay any money or other thing of value for the publication or broadcasting of political advertising except as advertising or production matter, shall be fined not more than $100. No advertising medium may charge a rate for political advertising in excess of the following:

(1) For advertising broadcast over a radio or television station, including a community antenna or cable television system, the rate charged shall not exceed the lowest unit charge of the station for the same class, condition and amount of time for the same period;

(2) For advertising printed or published by any other medium, the rate charged shall not exceed the lowest charge made for comparable use of such space for other purposes. The rate shall take into account the amount of space used, the number of times used, the frequency of use, and the kind of space used, as well as the type of advertising copy submitted by or on behalf of a candidate, or political committee. All discount privileges otherwise offered by a newspaper or magazine to advertisers shall be available upon equal terms to all candidates, or political committees.

(C) It is the legislative intent to impose both civil and criminal responsibility on corporations, partnersships, labor unions, or labor organizations, or any unincorporated associations, firms, committees, clubs, or other organizations, or groups of persons, including any groups of persons associated with a political party or element thereof, for violations of this section.

eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

This article was renumbered from article 14.10 and amended by the 1975 Act.

Art. 14.10. Campaign Communications

(A)(1) It is unlawful for any individual to misrepresent his identity or, if acting or purporting to act as an agent for any person, to misrepresent the identity of that person in any written or oral communication relating to the campaign of a candidate for nomination or election to a public office or election to the office of a political party or relating to the success or defeat of any ballot measure with the intent to injure any candidate or to influence the vote on the measure.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to issue any communication relating to the candidacy of a person for nomination or election to a public office or election to the office of a political party or relating to the success or defeat of any ballot measure, which purports to emanate from any source other than its true source.

(B)(1) It is unlawful for any candidate for nomination or election to a public office which is regularly filled at the general election for state and county goers to use the title of the office he seeks in his political advertising when the use of such title could reasonably be construed to lead the voters to believe that the candidate is the holder of the office sought, unless the candidate is the holder of the office at the time the representation is made.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to print, publish, or broadcast any political advertising, or to make any written or oral commercial communication, relating to the campaign of a candidate for nomination or election to a public office which is regularly filled at the general election for state and county officers which states, implies, or otherwise represents that the candidate is the holder of the office sought, unless the candidate is the holder of the office at the time the representation is made.

(c) A violation of this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

Art. 14.13. Regulation of Illegal Acts; Providing Duties for Secretary of State

(A) Filing complaint with Secretary of State. Any citizen of this state may file with the Secretary of State a complaint alleging that a person has committed one or more of the following violations of this chapter:

(1) Failure to file a statement of contributions and expenditures that is required to be filed with the Secretary of State, or late filing of a statement with the Secretary of State.

(2) Filing of a statement of contributions and expenditures that does not conform to law.

(3) Accepting a contribution or making an expenditure before the filing of a designation of a campaign treasurer in an election in which the designation is required to be filed with the Secretary of State.

(4) Making or accepting an unlawful contribution or making an unlawful expenditure.

(B) Form and contents of complaint. A complaint must:

(1) be signed and sworn to by the complaint-ant as containing allegations that are true and correct and made on personal knowledge; and

(2) state the name of the person accused, the election involved, if any, and the alleged violation; and

(3) allege facts indicating that the person accused has committed a violation.
(C) Notice to the accused. Upon receipt of a complaint meeting the requirements of Paragraphs (A) and (B) of this section, the Secretary of State shall give notice by registered or certified mail, restricted delivery, return receipt requested, to the person who is the subject of the complaint:

1. informing the person that the complaint has been filed;
2. attaching a copy of the complaint;
3. requesting the person to make a written response within 15 days after the date shown on the notice (the date of mailing); and
4. attaching a copy of this section.

(D) Referral to prosecuting attorney and Attorney General.

1. If the accused is a candidate or the campaign treasurer of a candidate or of a political committee supporting a candidate, the Secretary of State shall not report any alleged violations to the prosecuting attorney or to the Attorney General while the candidate is still engaged in the campaign in the specific election in which the alleged violation is said to have occurred or in a subsequent runoff or general election for the same term of office.

2. After a lapse of 25 days from the date of a notice pursuant to Paragraph (C) or after a lapse of 25 days from an election described in (D)(1) above of this section, if it appears that the person accused in the complaint may have failed to comply with the relevant provisions of law, the Secretary of State shall forward to the appropriate prosecuting attorney the original complaint and the accused’s response (if any) to the notice, together with certified copies of all pertinent records filed with the Secretary of State, in order that appropriate action may be taken.

(E) Malicious complaints. A civil action for damages against the complainant in favor of any person against whom a complaint is filed maliciously and without probable cause, after the termination of any resulting prosecution. In addition, a person who makes a false allegation in a complaint is subject to the provisions of the Texas Penal Code relating to the offense of perjury.

(F) The procedures outlined in this section are cumulative of other available procedures for investigation and enforcement of violations of this chapter. Nothing in this section shall be taken as precluding the filing of a complaint directly with a prosecuting attorney or as precluding investigations and prosecutions by a prosecuting attorney and actions by the Attorney General for recovery of civil penalties without a referral from the Secretary of State.

(G) Duties of Secretary of State.

1. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to present forms for any instruments required to be filed by this code, regardless of whether the instruments are to be filed with the Secretary of State or with some other authority, and to make such forms available to persons required to file such statements and information with the Secretary of State, or any other authority.

2. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to furnish such forms to the following: the State Executive Committee of any political party, the clerk of each county, the duly elected chairman of each county political subdivision or authority holding an election under this code.

3. The State Executive Committee, county clerk, county chairman, and secretary or clerk shall make available to all candidates, officeholders, or political committees the forms provided by the Secretary of State.

4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to interpret and administer the provisions of this Act in the exercise of his authority stated in Section 3, Texas Election Code (Article 1.03, Vernon’s Texas Election Code) and to make such interpretations and administrative rulings available to any person upon request.

Former article 14.13, added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1110, ch. 423, § 11, establishing County Election Commissions and a State Election Commission, was repealed by § 13 of the 1975 Act, enacting this article.

Art. 14.15. Venue for Offenses

Venue for any offense resulting from a violation of this chapter shall lie exclusively in the county of residence of the accused, except when the accused is a nonresident of Texas, in which case venue shall lie in Travis County.

CHAPTER ONE. THE BOARD, IT'S POWERS AND DUTIES

Art. 1.09A. Office of the State Fire Marshal [NEW]

The chairman of the board shall appoint a state fire marshal, who shall be a state commissioned officer, and who shall function as such subject to the rules and regulations of the board. He shall administer, enforce, and carry out the applicable provisions of this code relating to the duties and responsibilities of the state fire marshal under the supervision of the board. He shall hold his position at the pleasure of the board and may be discharged at any time.

The state fire marshal shall be the chief investigator in charge of the investigation of arson and suspected arson within the state, and may commission arson investigators to act under his supervision, and may revoke an investigator's commission for just cause. After consultation with the state fire marshal, the State Board of Insurance shall adopt necessary rules and regulations to guide the state fire marshal and his investigators in the investigation of arson and suspected arson.

Art. 1.30. Notification

(a) “Insurer” shall include but not be limited to capital stock companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, Lloyds associations, fraternal benefit societies, mutual and mutual-assessment companies of all kinds and types, statewide assessment associations, local mutual aids, burial associations, county and farm mutual associations, fidelity, guaranty and surety companies, trust companies organized under the provisions of Chapter 7 of Texas Insurance Code, and all other organizations, corporations, or persons transacting an insurance business, whether or not named above, unless such insurers are by statute specifically by naming this article exempted from the operation of this article.

(b) “Board” means the State Board of Insurance of Texas.

(c) “Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Insurance of Texas.

Notice of Order or Judgment

Sec. 2. An insurer shall notify the commissioner and deliver a copy of any order or judgment to the commissioner within 30 days of the happening in another state of any one or more of the following:

(1) suspension or revocation of his right to transact business;
(2) receipt of an order to show cause why its license should not be suspended or revoked;
(3) imposition of any penalty, forfeiture, or sanction on it for any violation of the insurance laws of such other state.

Penalty for Failure to Notify

Sec. 3. Any insurer who has failed to notify the commissioner and to deliver a copy of any order or judgment to him pursuant to Section 2 of this article shall forfeit to the people of the state a sum not to exceed $500 for each such violation, which may be recovered by a civil action. The board may also suspend or revoke the license of an insurer or agent for any such wilful violation.

Art. 1.30. Hazardous Financial Condition

(a) “Insurer” shall include but not be limited to capital stock companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, Lloyds associations, fraternal benefit societies, mutual and mutual-assessment companies of all kinds and types, statewide assessment associations, local mutual aids, burial associa-

ment associations, local mutual aids, burial associations, county and farm mutual associations, fidelity, guaranty, and surety companies, trust companies organized under the provisions of Chapter 7 of the Texas Insurance Code of 1951, as amended, and all other organizations, corporations, or persons transacting an insurance business, whether or not named above, unless such insurers are by statute specifically, by naming this article, exempted from the operation of this article.

(b) "Board" means the State Board of Insurance of Texas.

(c) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Insurance of Texas.

Order to Rectify Financial Condition

Sec. 2. Whenever the financial condition of an insurer when reviewed in conjunction with the kinds and nature of risks insured, the loss experience and ownership of the insurer, the ratio of total annual premium and net investment income to commission expenses, general insurance expenses, policy benefits paid, and required policy reserve increases, its method of operation, its affiliations, its investments, any contracts which lead or may lead to contingent liability, or agreements in respect to guaranty and surety, indicate a condition such that the continued operation of the insurer might be hazardous to its policyholders, creditors, or the general public, then the commissioner may, after notice and hearing, order the insurer to take such action as may be reasonably necessary to rectify the existing condition, including but not necessarily limited to one or more of the following steps:

(a) reduce the total amount of present and potential liability for policy benefits by reinsur-
(b) reduce the volume of new business being accepted;
(c) reduce general insurance and commission expenses by specified methods;
(d) suspend or limit the writing of new business for a period of time; or
(e) increase the insurer's capital and surplus by contribution.

Standards and Criteria for Early Warning

Sec. 3. The board is authorized, by rule and regulations, to fix uniform standards and criteria for early warning that the continued operation of an insurer might be hazardous to its policyholders, creditors, or the general public, and to fix standards for evaluating the financial condition of an insurer, which standards shall be consistent with the purposes expressed in Section 2 of this article.

Arrangements with Other Jurisdictions

Sec. 4. The commissioner is authorized to enter into arrangements or agreements with the insurance regulatory authorities of other jurisdictions concerning the management, volume of business, type of risks to be insured, expenses of operation, plans for reinsurance, rehabilitation, or reorganization, and method of operations of an insurer that is licensed in such other jurisdictions and that is deemed to be in a hazardous financial condition or needful of specific remedies which may be imposed by the commissioner and insurance regulatory authorities of such other jurisdictions.

Additional Authority of Article

Sec. 5. Authority granted by the provisions of this article is in addition to other provisions of law and not in substitution, restriction, or diminution thereof.

SUBCHAPTER C. RESERVES AND INVESTMENTS

PART II. AUTHORIZED LOANS

A life insurance company organized under the laws of this state may loan its several funds identified as follows, taking as collateral security for the payment of such loans the securities named below, and none other.

A. ANY OF ITS FUNDS ACCUMULATIONS

Such company may loan any of its funds and accumulations on the following securities:

1. First Liens Upon Real Estate.

First liens upon real estate, the title to which is valid and the value of which is at least one-third more than the amount loaned thereon; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of loans secured by first liens on real estate to any one corporation, company, partnership, individual or any affiliated person or group may not exceed ten (10%) per cent of the admitted assets of such insurer, and provided further that the amount of any such single loan secured by a first lien on real estate may not exceed five (5%) per cent of the admitted assets of the insurer. The limitation provided by this subsection shall not apply to any first lien on real estate where the Commissioner of Insurance finds that: (1) the making or acquiring of such lien is beneficial to and protects the interest of the insurer and (2) no substantial damage to the policyholders and creditors of such insurer appears probable from the taking or acquiring of such lien.

2. First Liens Upon Leasehold Estates.

First liens upon leasehold estates in real property and improvements situated thereon, the title to which is valid; provided that the duration of any loan upon such leasehold estates shall not exceed a period equal to four-fifths (4/5) of the then unexpired term of such leasehold estate, provided the unexpired term of the leasehold estate must extend at least ten (10) years beyond the term of the loan, and any such loan shall be payable only in equal monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual installments, on principal and interest during a period not exceeding four-fifths (4/5) of the then unexpired term of such leasehold estate.

3. Collateral Securities.

Upon any obligation secured collaterally by any such first liens on real estate or leasehold estates.

4. Policy Loans.

Security of its own policies. No loan on any policy shall exceed the reserve values thereof.

5. Other Securities.

It may loan any of its funds and accumulations, taking as collateral to secure the payment of such loan, any of the securities named or referred to in Part 1 of this Article 3.39 above in which it may invest any of its funds and accumulations.

6. Restrictions as to Value of Real Estate Removed Where Loans Insured by the United States.

The foregoing restrictions as to the value of the real estate security compared to the amount loaned thereon and as to the duration of such loans shall not be applied to loans if the entire amount of the indebtedness is insured or guaranteed in any manner by the United States, the Federal Housing Administration pursuant to the National Housing Act of 1934, as amended (12 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1701 et seq.), or by the State of Texas, or, if not wholly insured or guaranteed, the difference between the entire amount of the indebtedness and that portion thereof insured or guaranteed by the United States, the Federal Housing Administration pursuant to the National Housing Act of 1934, as amended, or by the State of Texas, would not exceed the amount of loan permissible under said restrictions.

7. Loans to be Authorized by Board of Directors.

No loan, except policy loans, shall be made by any such insurance company unless the same shall first have been authorized by the Board of Directors or by a committee charged with the duty of supervising such loans.

8. Insurance Requirements.

If any part of the value of buildings is required to be included in the value of such real estate to attain the minimum authorized value of the security, such buildings shall be insured against loss by fire in a company authorized to transact business in the state in which such real estate is located, or in a company recognized as acceptable for such purpose by the insurance regulatory official of the state in which such real estate is located, which insurance shall be in an amount of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the value of such buildings; provided, that the insurance coverage need not exceed the outstanding balance owed to the lending company when the outstanding balance falls below fifty per cent (50%) of the value of the buildings. The loss clause shall be payable to such company.

B. CAPITAL, SURPLUS AND CONTINGENCY FUNDS OVER AND ABOVE POLICY RESERVES

1. Capital Stock, Bonds, and Other Obligations of Solvent Corporations, and Educational or Religious Corporations.

It may loan its capital, surplus, and contingency funds, or any part thereof over and above the amount of its policy reserves, taking as security therefor the capital stock, bonds, bills of exchange, or other commercial notes or bills and the securities of any solvent corporation which has not defaulted in the payment of any debt within five (5) years.

next preceding such investment; or of any solvent corporation which has not been in existence for five (5) consecutive years next preceding such investment, provided such corporation has succeeded to the business and assets and has assumed the liabilities of another corporation, and which corporation and the corporation so succeeded have not defaulted in the payment of any debt within five (5) years next preceding such investment; or in the bonds or notes of any Educational or Religious Corporation where provision has been made for the payment of a sufficient amount of the first weekly or monthly revenues thereof to an interest and sinking fund account in a bank or trust company as an independent paying agent; provided, the market value of such stock, bills of exchange, or other commercial notes or bills and securities shall be at all times during the continuance of such loan at least fifty per cent (50%) more than the sum loaned thereon; provided that it shall not take as collateral security for any loan its own capital stock, nor shall it take as collateral security for any loan the stock of any one corporation to any extent more than ten per cent (10%) of the amount of its own capital, surplus, and contingency funds, nor shall it take as collateral security for any loan the stock of any manufacturing corporation with a net worth of less than Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), nor the stock of any oil corporation with a net worth of less than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000); and provided further, that it shall not take as collateral security for any such loan any stock on account of which the holder or owner thereof may in any event be or become liable to any assessment except for taxes.

SUBCHAPTER D. POLICIES AND BENEFICIARIES

Art. 3.42. Policy Form Approval

(a) No policy, contract or certificate of life, term or endowment insurance, group life or term insurance, industrial life insurance, accident or health insurance, group accident or health insurance, hospitalization insurance, group hospitalization insurance, medical or surgical insurance, group medical or surgical insurance, or fraternal benefit insurance, and no annuity or pure endowment contract or group annuity contract, shall be delivered, issued or used in this state by a life, accident, health or casualty insurance company, a mutual life insurance company, mutual insurance company other than life, mutual or natural premium life insurance company, general casualty company, Lloyds, reciprocal or interinsurance exchange, fraternal benefit society, group hospitalization service or any other insurer, unless the form of said policy, contract or certificate has been filed with the State Board of Insurance and approved by said Board as provided in Paragraph (c) of this Article. Provided, however, that this Article shall not apply to any society, company or other insurer whose activities are by statute exempt from the control of the State Board of Insurance and which is entitled by statute to an exemption certificate from said Board in evidence of its exempt status; provided, further, that this Act shall not be construed to enlarge the powers of any of the insurers subject to this Article.

(b) No application form which is required to be or is attached to the policy, contract or certificate, and no rider or endorsement to be attached to, printed upon or used in connection with any policy, contract or certificate described in Paragraph (a) of this Article shall be delivered, issued or used in this state by any insurer described in Paragraph (a) of this Article unless the form of said application, rider or endorsement has been filed with the State Board of Insurance and approved by said Board as provided in Paragraph (c) of this Article. Each individual accident and sickness insurance policy application form, which is required to be or is attached to the policy, shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Board promulgated pursuant to Subchapter G of this chapter. Provided, however, that this Article shall not apply to riders or endorsements which relate to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under such policies, contracts and certificates, and which are used at the request of the holder of the policy, contract or certificate.

(c) Every such filing hereby required shall be made not less than thirty days in advance of any such issuance, delivery or use. At the expiration of thirty days the form so filed shall be deemed approved by the State Board of Insurance unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by the written order of said Board. The State Board of Insurance may extend by not more than an additional thirty days the period within which it may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form, by giving notice of such extension before expiration of the initial fifteen day period and at the expiration of any such extended period, and in the absence of such prior affirmative approval or disapproval, any such form shall be deemed approved. The State Board of Insurance may withdraw any such approval at any time. Approval of any such form by such Board shall constitute a waiver of any expired portion of the waiting period, or periods, herein provided.

(d) The order of the State Board of Insurance disapproving any such form or withdrawing a previous approval shall state the grounds for such disapproval or withdrawal.
(e) The State Board of Insurance may, by written order, exempt from the requirements of this Article for so long as it deems proper, any insurance document or form specified in such order, to which in its opinion this Article may not practicably be applied, or the filing and approval of which are, in its opinion, not desirable or necessary for the protection of the public.

(f) The State Board of Insurance shall forthwith disapprove any such form, or withdraw any previous approval thereto if, and only if,

(1) It is in any respect in violation of or does not comply with this Code.

(2) It contains provisions which encourage misrepresentation or are unjust, unfair, inequitable, misleading, deceptive or contrary to law or to the public policy of this state.

(3) It has any title, heading or other indication of its provisions which is misleading.

(g) (1) The Board may, after notice and hearing, withdraw any previous approval of an individual accident and sickness insurance policy form if, after consideration of all relevant facts, the Board finds that the benefits provided under such policy form are unreasonable in relation to the premium charged. The Board shall from time to time as conditions warrant, and after notice and hearing, promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations and amendments thereto as are necessary to establish the standard or standards by which any previous approval of a policy form may be withdrawn. Any such rule or regulation shall be promulgated in accordance with Article 3.70-10 of the Texas Insurance Code. Nothing in this section shall be construed as granting the State Board of Insurance any power or authority to determine, fix, prescribe, or promulgate the rates to be charged for any individual accident and sickness insurance policy or policies.

(2) The Board shall require the filing of all rates to be charged for individual accident and sickness policies and may adopt necessary forms to be filed by insurers in conjunction with the annual statement required under Articles 3.07 and 3.20 of this code for reporting the experience on all individual accident and sickness insurance policy forms issued by the insurer so as to determine compliance with Subsection (1).

(h) Appeals from any order of the State Board of Insurance issued under this Article may be taken to the District Court of Travis County, Texas, in accordance with Article 21.44 of Sub-Chapter F of this Insurance Code, or any amendments thereof.

SUBCHAPTER E. GROUP; INDUSTRIAL AND CREDIT INSURANCE

Art. 3.50. Group Life Insurance

Definitions

Sec. 1. No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this state unless it conforms to one of the following descriptions:

(1) A policy issued to an employer, or to the trustees of a fund established by an employer, which employer or trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The employees eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the employer, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the employees of one or more subsidiary corporations, and the employees, individual proprietors, and partners of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships if the business of the employer and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships is under common control through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees.

(b) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from the employer's fund or funds contributed by him, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured employees. No policy may be issued on which the entire premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the then eligible employees, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the then eligible employees, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.
(c) The policy must cover at least ten (10) employees at date of issue.

(d) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the employees or by the employer or trustees. No policy may be issued which provides insurance on any employee which together with any other insurance under any group life insurance policies issued to the employer or to the trustees of a fund established by the employer exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual compensation of such employee from his employer or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser, except that this limitation shall not apply to group insurance on other than the term plan where such insurance is to be used to fund the benefits under a pension or profit sharing plan and the amount of such insurance does not exceed that required to provide at normal retirement date the pension specified by the plan, and except that a group policy which is issued by the same or another carrier to replace another group policy may provide term insurance not to exceed the amounts provided by the policy which it replaces, or the amounts provided above, whichever are greater.

(2) A policy issued to a labor union, which shall be deemed the employer and policyholder, to insure the members of such union who are actively engaged in the same occupation and who shall be deemed to be the employees of such union within the meaning of this Article.

(3) A policy issued to any association of employees of the United States Government or any subdivision thereof, provided the majority of such employees reside in this state, employees for the benefit of persons other than the policyholder subject to the following requirements:

(a) The persons eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the employer or if the policyholder is an association, all of the members of the association.

(b) The premium for a policy issued to any policyholder authorized to be such policyholder under Subsection (3) of Section 1, Article 3.50, Texas Insurance Code, may be paid in whole or in part from funds contributed by the employer, or in whole or in part from funds contributed by the persons insured under said policy; or in whole or in part from funds contributed by the insured employees who are members of such association of employees; provided, however, that any monies or credits received by or allowed to the policyholder pursuant to any participation agreement contained in or issued in connection with the policy shall be applied to the payment of future premiums and to the pro rata abatement of the insured employees' contribution therefor; and provided further, that the employer may deduct from the employees' salaries the employees' contributions for the premiums when authorized in writing by the respective employees so to do. Such policy may be placed in force only if at least 75% of the eligible employees or if an association of employees is the policyholder, 75% of the eligible members of said association, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required premium contributions and become insured thereunder. Any group policies heretofore issued to any of the groups named in Section 1(3) above and in existence on the effective date of this Act shall continue in force even though the number of employees or members insured thereunder is less than 75% of the eligible employees or members on the effective date of this Act.

(c) The policy must cover at least ten (10) employees at date of issue, or if an association of employees is the policyholder, ten (10) members of said association at date of issue.
(d) The term employees as used herein in addition to its usual meaning shall include elective and appointive officials of the state.

(4) A policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure debtors of the creditor, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The debtors eligible for insurance under the policy shall all be members of a group of persons numbering not less than fifty (50) at all times, who become borrowers, or purchasers of securities, merchandise or other property, under agreement to repay the sum borrowed or to pay the balance of the price of the securities, merchandise or other property purchase, to the extent of their respective indebtedness, but not to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) on any one life; provided, however, the face amount of any loan or loan commitment, totally or partially executed, made to a debtor for educational purposes or to a debtor with seasonal income by a creditor in good faith for general agricultural or horticultural purposes, secured or unsecured, where the debtor becomes personally liable for the payment of such loan, may be so insured in an initial amount of such insurance not to exceed the total amount repayable under the contract of indebtedness and, when such indebtedness is repayable in substantially equal installments, the amount of insurance shall at no time exceed the scheduled or actual amount of unpaid indebtedness, whichever is greater, and such insurance on such credit commitments not exceeding one year in duration may be written up to the amount of the loan commitment on a nondecreasing or level term plan, but such insurance shall not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) on any one life.

(b) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the creditor's funds or from charges collected from the insured debtors, or both.

(c) The insurance issued shall not include annuities or endowment insurance.

(d) The insurance shall be payable to the policyholder. Such payment shall reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness of the debtor to the extent of such payment; provided that in the case of a debtor for educational purposes or of a debtor with seasonal income, under a loan or loan commitment for general agricultural or horticultural purposes of the type described in paragraph

(a), the insurance in excess of the indebtedness to the creditor, if any, shall be payable to the estate of the debtor or under the provision of a facility of payment clause.

(5) A policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers in the same industry or by one or more labor unions, or to the trustees of a fund established by one or more employers in the same industry and one or more labor unions, or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions whose members are in the same or related occupations or trades, which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employers or members of the unions for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the union, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all of the employees of the employers and the employees of the trade association of such employers or all of the members of the union, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the unions, or both. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees, and the individual proprietor or partners if an employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director. No individual proprietor or partner shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless he is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of his time to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(b) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the trustees wholly from funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the union or unions, or by both, or, partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured persons, except that in no event shall the contribution by an insured person toward the cost of his insurance exceed forty cents per thousand per month. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the then eligible persons of each participating employer unit, excluding any as to whom evidence of insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible persons, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(c) The policy must cover at date of issue at least one hundred (100) persons; unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by employers which have assumed obligations through a collective bargaining agreement and are participating in the fund either pursuant to those obligations with regard to one or more classes of their employees which are encompassed in the collective bargaining agreement or as a method of providing insurance benefits for other classes of their employees, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by one or more labor unions.

(d) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured persons or by the policyholder or employer. No policy may be issued which provides term insurance on any person which together with any other term insurance under any group life insurance policy or policies issued to trustees or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual compensation of such employee from his employer or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser.

(e) The limitation as to amount of group insurance on any person shall not apply to group insurance on other than the term plan where such insurance is to be used to fund the benefits under a pension plan and the amount of such insurance does not exceed that required to provide at normal retirement date the pension specified by the plan, and except that a group policy which is issued by the same or another carrier to replace another group policy may provide term insurance not to exceed the amount provided by the policy which it replaces, or the amounts provided above whichever is greater.

(f) No policy may be issued (i) to insure employees of any employer whose eligibility to participate in the fund as an employer arises out of considerations directly related to the employer being a commercial correspondent or business client or patron of another employer (regardless of whether such other employer is or is not participating in the fund); or (ii) to insure employees of any employer which is not located in this state, unless the majority of the employers whose employees are to be insured are located in this state, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by one or more labor unions.

(6) No policy of wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance, as hereinafter defined, shall be issued or delivered in this state unless it conforms to the following requirements:

(a) Wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance is hereby defined as: a term life insurance plan under which a number of individual term life insurance policies are issued at special rates to a selected group. A special rate is any rate lower than the rate shown in the issuing insurance company's manual for individually issued policies of the same type and to insureds of the same class.

(b) Wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance may be issued to (1) the employees of a common employer or employers, covering at date of issue not less than five employees; or (2) the members of a labor union or unions covering at date of issue not less than five members; or (3) the members of a credit union or credit unions covering at date of issue not less than five (5) members.

(c) The premium for the policy shall be paid either wholly from funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the union or unions or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured person, except that in no event shall the contribution by an insured person toward the cost of his insurance exceed forty cents per thousand per month.

(d) No policy may be issued on a wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance basis which, together with any other term life insurance policy or policies issued on a wholesale, franchise, employee life insurance or group basis, provides term life insurance coverage for an amount in excess.
of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual compensation of such employee from his employer or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser. An individual application shall be taken for each such policy and the insurer shall be entitled to rely upon the applicant’s statements as to applicant’s other similar coverage upon his life.

(e) Each such policy of insurance shall contain a provision substantially as follows:

A provision that if the insurance on an insured person ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the union, such person shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without evidence of insurability an individual policy of life insurance without disability or other supplementary benefits, provided application for the individual policy shall be made, and the first premium paid to the insurer, within thirty-one (31) days after such termination.

(f) Each such policy may contain any provision substantially as follows:

(1) A provision that the policy is renewable at the option of the insurer only;

(2) A provision for termination of coverage by the insurer upon termination of employment by the insured employee;

(3) A provision requiring a person eligible for insurance to furnish evidence of individual insurability satisfactory to the insurer as condition to coverage.

(g) The limitation as to amount of group and wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance on any person shall not apply to group insurance on other than the term plan where such insurance is to be used to fund benefits under a pension plan and the amount of such insurance does not exceed that required to provide at normal retirement date the pension specified by the plan, and except that a group policy which is issued by the same or another carrier to replace another group policy may provide term insurance not to exceed the amounts provided by the policy which it replaces, or the amounts provided above, whichever are greater.

(h) Nothing contained in this Subsection (6) shall in any manner alter, impair or invalidate (1) any policy heretofore issued prior to the effective date of this Act; nor (2) any such plan heretofore placed in force and effect provided such prior plan was at date of issue legal and valid; nor (3) any policy issued on a salary savings franchise plan, bank deduction plan, pre-authorized check plan or similar plan of premium collection.

(6A) A policy may be issued to a principal, or if such principal is a life or life and accident or life, accident and health insurer, by or to such principal, covering when issued not less than ten (10) agents of the principal, subject to the following requirements:

(a) As used in this section, the term “agents” shall be deemed to include general agents, subagents and salesmen.

(b) The agents eligible for insurance under the policy shall be those who are under contract to render personal services for the principal for a commission or other fixed or ascertainable compensation.

(c) The premium for the policy shall be paid either wholly by the principal or partly from funds contributed by the principal and partly from funds contributed by the insured agents. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured agents must insure all of the eligible agents or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the services to be rendered by the agents to the principal. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured agents must cover at issue at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the eligible agents or at least seventy-five percent (75%) of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the services to be rendered by the agents; provided, however, that the benefits may be extended to other classes of agents as seventy-five percent (75%) thereof express the desire to be covered.

(d) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan excluding individual selection either by the principal or by the agents. No policy may be issued which provides term insurance on any agent which together with any other term insurance under any group life insurance policy or policies issued to the principal exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual commissions or other fixed or ascertainable compensation of such agent from the principal exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual commissions or other fixed or ascertainable compensation, whichever is the lesser.

(e) The insurance shall be for the benefit of persons other than the principal.

(7) A policy issued to the Veterans Land Board of the State of Texas, who shall be deemed the policyholder to insure persons purchasing land under the Texas Veterans Land Program as provided in Section 16(B) of Article 5421m, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (Chapter 318, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended).

(8) Any policy of group term life insurance may be extended, in the form of group term life insurance only, to insure the spouse and minor children, natural or adopted, of an insured employee, provided the policy constitutes a part of the employee benefit program established for the benefit of employees of the United States government or any subdivision thereof, and provided further, that the spouse or children of other employees covered by the same employee benefit program in other states of the United States are or may be covered by group term life insurance, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The premiums for the group term life insurance shall be paid by the policyholder from funds solely contributed by the insured employee.

(b) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured employee or by the policyholder, provided that group term life insurance upon the life of a spouse shall not exceed the lesser of (1) Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or (2) one-half of the amount of insurance on the life of the insured employee under the group policy; and provided that group term life insurance on the life of any minor child shall not exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00).

(c) Upon termination of the group term life insurance: with respect to the spouse of any insured employee by reason of such person's termination of employment or death, or termination of the group contract, the spouse insured pursuant to this section shall have the same conversion rights as to the group term life insurance on his or her life as is provided for the insured employee.

(d) Only one certificate need be issued for delivery to an insured employee if a statement concerning any dependent's coverage is included in such certificate.

Dependents: Continuation of Benefits After Death of Insured

Sec. 6. Any group life insurance policy which contains provisions for the payment by the insurer of benefits for members of the family or dependents of a person in the insured group may provide for a continuation of such benefits or any part or parts thereof after the death of the person in the insured group, and provided further that any amounts of insurance so provided by such benefits shall not be construed as life insurance for the purpose of determining the maximum amount of term insurance that may be issued on any one life.

Art. 3.50-2. Employees Uniform Group Insurance Benefits Act

Citation

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the “Texas Employees Uniform Group Insurance Benefits Act.”

Purposes

Sec. 2. It is hereby declared that the purposes of this Act are:

(a) to provide uniformity in life, accident, and health insurance and benefits coverages on all employees of the State of Texas;

(b) to enable the State of Texas to attract and retain competent and able employees by providing them with life, accident, and health insurance and benefits coverages at least equal to those commonly provided in private industry;

(c) to foster, promote, and encourage employment by and service to the State of Texas as a career profession for persons of high standards of competence and ability;

(d) to recognize and protect the state's investment in each permanent employee by promoting and preserving economic security and good health among state employees;

(e) to foster and develop high standards of employer-employee relationships between the State of Texas and its employees;

(f) to recognize the service to the state by elected state officials by extending to them the same life, accident, and health insurance and benefits coverages as are provided herein for state employees; and
(g) to recognize the long and faithful service and dedication of employees of the State of Texas and to encourage them to remain in state service until eligible for retirement by providing health insurance benefits for such employees.

Definitions

Sec. 3. (a) Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as used in this Act shall have the following meanings:

1. "Administering carrier" shall mean any carrier designated by the trustee to administer any insurance coverages, services, benefits, or requirements in accordance with this Act and the trustee's regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

2. "Annuitant" shall mean an employee who retires under the jurisdiction of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, pursuant to Chapter 352, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, as amended (Article 6228a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), Chapter 99, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended (Article 6228b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 573, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6228i, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and an employee who retires under the jurisdiction of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, pursuant to Chapter 3, Title I, Texas Education Code, who at the time of his retirement was or is an employee of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas school districts established within state eleemosynary institutions, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, the Central Education Agency, or the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System;

   (i) who receives his compensation for services rendered to the State of Texas on a warrant issued pursuant to a payroll certified by a department or by an elected or duly appointed officer of this state;

   (ii) who receives payment for the performance of personal services on a warrant issued pursuant to a payroll certified by a department and drawn by the state comptroller upon the State Treasurer against appropriations made by the Texas Legislature from any state funds or against any trust funds held by the State Treasurer or who is paid from funds of an official budget of a state department rather than from funds of the General Appropriations Act.

3. "Carrier" shall mean a qualified carrier as defined in this Act.

4. "Department" shall mean commission, board, agency, division, or department of the State of Texas created as such by the constitution or statutes of this state.

5. (A) "Employee" shall mean any appointive or elective state officer or employee in the service of the State of Texas, except employees of any university, senior or junior college, or any other agency of higher education within the meaning and jurisdiction of Chapter 61, Title 3, Texas Education Code: 2

   (i) who is retired or retires under the jurisdiction of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, pursuant to Chapter 352, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, as amended (Article 6228a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), Chapter 99, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended (Article 6228b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 573, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6228i, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and an employee who is retired or retires under the jurisdiction of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, pursuant to Chapter 3, Title I, Texas Education Code, who at the time of his retirement was or is an employee of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas school districts established within state eleemosynary institutions, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, the Central Education Agency, or the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System; or

   (ii) who receives his compensation for services rendered to the State of Texas on a warrant issued pursuant to a payroll certified by a department or by an elected or duly appointed officer of this state;

   (iii) who receives payment for the performance of personal services on a warrant issued pursuant to a payroll certified by a department and drawn by the state comptroller upon the State Treasurer against appropriations made by the Texas Legislature from any state funds or against any trust funds held by the State Treasurer or who is paid from funds of an official budget of a state department rather than from funds of the General Appropriations Act.

(B) Persons performing personal services for the State of Texas as independent contractors shall never be considered employees of the state for purposes of this Act.

(C) As of September 1, 1977, "employee" shall also mean and include any appointive state officer or employee of any university, senior or junior college, or any other agency of higher education within the meaning and jurisdiction of Chapter 61, Title 3, Texas Education Code.

6. "Employer" shall mean the State of Texas and all its departments.

7. "Health benefits plan" shall mean any group insurance policy or contract, medical, dental, or hospital service agreement, membership or subscription contract, salary continuation plan, or similar group arrangement provided by a carrier for the purpose of providing, paying for, or reimbursing expenses for health care services, including comparable health care services for employees who rely solely on spiritual means through prayer for healing in accordance with the teachings of a well recognized church or denomination.

8. "Dependent" shall mean the spouse of an employee or retired employee and an unmarried child under 25 years of age, including: (A) an adopted child and (B) a stepchild, foster child, or other child who is in a regular parent-child relationship and (C) any such child, regardless of age, who lives with or whose care is provided by an employee or annuitant on a regular basis if such child is mentally retarded or physically incapacitated to such an extent as to be dependent upon the employee or retired employee for care or support, as the trustee shall determine.

(9) "Qualified carrier" shall mean: (A) any insurance company authorized to do business in this state by the State Board of Insurance to provide any of the types of insurance coverages, benefits, or services provided for in this Act under any of the insurance laws of the State of Texas, which has a surplus of $1 million, a successful operating history, and which has had successful experience in providing and servicing any of the types of group coverage provided for in this Act as determined by the State Board of Insurance; (B) any corporation operating under Chapter 20 of the Insurance Code which provides any of the types of coverage, benefits, or services provided for in this Act, a successful operating history, and which has had successful experience in providing and servicing any of the types of group coverage provided for in this Act as determined by the State Board of Insurance; or (C) any combination or carriers as herein defined, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the trustee, providing, however, that for purposes of this Act carriers combining for the purpose of bidding and/or underwriting this program shall not be considered in violation of Sections 15.01 through 15.34, Chapter 15, Title 2, Competition and Trade Practices, Texas Business & Commerce Code.

(10) "Service" shall mean any personal service of an employee creditable in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the trustee.

(11) "Trustee" shall mean the State Board of Trustees, provided for in Section 6, Chapter 352, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, as amended (Article 6228a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), to administer the Employees Retirement System of Texas.

(12) "Active employee plan" shall mean a plan or program of group insurance as determined by the trustee as defined in Paragraph (11) above for the benefit of employees of the State of Texas as defined in this Act who are not retired.

(13) "Retired employees plan" shall mean a plan or program of group insurance as determined by the trustee for all retired employees as defined in this Act. This plan may be separate or a part of the active employee plan at the discretion of the trustee, and, if separate, shall include both full benefits and supplemental coverage options.

(b) In addition to the foregoing definitions, the trustee shall have authority to define by rule any words in terms necessary in the administration of this Act.

Administration

Sec. 4. The administration and implementation of this Act are vested solely in the trustee. As it shall deem necessary to insure the proper administration of this Act and the insurance coverages, services, and benefits provided for or authorized by this Act, the trustee, as an agency of the State of Texas, shall have full power and authority to hire employees. The duties of such employees and their compensation shall be determined and assigned by the trustee. The trustee may, on a competitive bid basis, contract with a qualified, experienced firm of group insurance specialists who shall act for the trustee in a capacity as independent administrators and managers of the programs authorized under this Act. The independent administrator so selected by the trustee shall assist the trustee to insure the proper administration of the Act and the insurance coverages, services, and benefits provided for or authorized by the Act and shall be paid by the trustee. Compensation of all persons employed by the trustee and their expenses shall be paid at such rates and in such amounts as the trustee shall approve, providing that in no case shall they be greater than those expenses paid for like or similar services. Also, as an agency of the State of Texas, the trustee shall have full power and authority to enter into interagency contracts with any department of the State of Texas. The interagency contracts shall provide for reimbursement to the state departments and shall define the services to be performed by the departments for the trustee. The trustee shall have full power and authority to promulgate all rules, regulations, plans, procedures, and orders reasonably necessary to implement and carry out the purposes and provisions of this Act in all its particulars, including but not limited to the following:

(a) preparation of specifications for all insurance provided by authority of this Act;
(b) prescribing the time at which and the conditions under which an employee is eligible for all coverages provided under this Act;
(c) determination of the methods and procedures of claims administration;
(d) determination of the amount of employee payroll deductions and the responsibility of es-establishing procedures by which such deductions shall be made;

(e) establishment of grievance procedures by which the trustee shall act as an appeals body for complaints by insured employees regarding the allowance and payment of claims, eligibility, and other matters;

(f) continuing study of the operation of all insurance coverages provided under this Act, including such matters as gross and net cost, administration costs, benefits, utilization of benefits, and claims administration;

(g) administration of the Employees Life, Accident, and Health Insurance and Benefits Fund, providing for the beginning and ending dates of coverages of employees and annuitants and their dependents under health benefit plans;

(h) adoption of all rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act and its purpose as it deems necessary to carry out its statutory duties and responsibilities;

(i) development of basic plans of group insurance coverages and benefits applicable to all state employees. The trustee also may provide for optional group insurance coverages and benefits in addition to the basic plan; and

(j) to provide either additional statewide optional programs or individual agency optional programs as the trustee may determine is appropriate.

Authority to Purchase Group Insurance

Sec. 5. (a) The trustee shall establish a plan or plans for active employees and retired employees, and is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to contract with one or more qualified carriers or a combination of qualified carriers for the establishment of such plans. The trustee is further authorized, empowered, and directed to establish the above referenced plans of group insurance which in the trustee's discretion may include but are not necessarily limited to the following: group life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment, health benefits plans, including but not limited to hospital care and benefits, surgical care and treatment, medical care and treatment, dental care, obstetrical benefits, prescribed drugs, medicines, and prosthetic devices and supplemental benefits, supplies, and services in conformity with the provisions of this Act, insurance protection against either long or short term loss of salary and any other coverages of group insurance which in the discretion of the trustee with consultation from the advisory committee shall be deemed advisable. All rules and regulations shall be promulgated pursuant thereto upon such terms and conditions as shall be agreed upon between the trustee and the carrier or carriers selected to provide such insurance coverages and benefits. The trustee shall determine the insurance coverages desired for state employees and will submit this information to the State Board of Insurance for any recommendations as to the types and sufficiency of such coverages. The State Board of Insurance will notify the board of trustees within 15 days as to any such recommendations and will furnish the board of trustees with a list of all carriers authorized to do business in the State of Texas who would be eligible to bid on the insurance coverage proposed. The trustee will notify those carriers that competitive bidding will be conducted and that they are to submit their bids to the State Board of Insurance by a specified date if they wish to bid on the contract. The State Board of Insurance will, after the designated closing date for receiving bids, examine and evaluate the bidding contracts and certify their actuarial soundness to the trustee within 15 days from the closing date. The trustee shall select the desired carrier or carriers and will notify the bidding eligible carriers as to the results of the bidding. The trustee shall select the desired carrier or carriers to provide services which shall be in the best interest of the employees covered by this Act. The trustee is not required to select the lowest bid but shall take into consideration other factors such as ability to service contracts, past experience, financial ability, and other relevant criteria. Should the trustee select a carrier whose bid differs from that advertised, such deviation shall be recorded and the reasons for such deviation shall be fully justified and explained in the minutes of the next meeting of the trustee.

(b) In the event the trustee shall select as the carrier one whose bid was not the lowest of all bids submitted, such selection shall be submitted together with justifications and reasons therefor to the State Board of Insurance. Such deviating selection shall not be deemed final and binding unless and until a majority of the State Board of Insurance has certified its approval in writing to the trustee, or upon the expiration of 30 days after receipt thereof by the State Board of Insurance such deviating selection shall be deemed approved.

(c) The trustee shall be required to submit for competitive bidding the coverages provided by the group plan as follows:

(1) at least every three years;
(2) whenever a change in the types and amounts of coverage occurs, provided that submission for competitive bidding shall not be required more than once a year from the last submission.

Benefit Certificates

Sec. 6. The trustees shall provide for the issuance to each employee insured under this Act a certificate of insurance setting forth the benefits to which the employee is entitled, to whom the benefits are payable, to whom the claims shall be submitted, and summarizing the provisions of the policy principally affecting the employee.

Annual Report

Sec. 7. As soon as practicable after the end of each calendar year but not later than 90 days thereafter, the trustee shall make a written report to the State Board of Insurance concerning the insurance coverages provided and the benefits and services being received by all state employees insured under the provisions of this Act. It shall be the duty of the State Board of Insurance to review such report and advise the trustee in regard to the insurance features of the coverages provided for all state employees and cooperate fully with the trustee in carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Reinsurance

Sec. 8. (a) The trustee shall arrange with any carrier or carriers issuing any policy or policies under this Act for the reinsurance, under conditions approved by the trustee, of portions of the total amount of Insurance under such policy or policies, with other qualified carriers which elect to participate in the reinsurance.

(b) The trustee shall determine for and in advance of a policy year which qualified carriers are eligible to participate as reinsurers and the amount of insurance under a policy or policies which is to be allocated to the issuing company and reinsurers. The trustee shall make this determination at least every three years and when a participating company withdraws.

Annual Accounting: Special Contingency Reserve

Sec. 9. (a) Carriers providing any policy purchased under this Act shall provide an accounting to the trustee not later than 90 days after the end of each policy year. The accounting shall set forth, in a form approved by the trustee:

1. the amounts of premiums actually accrued under the policy from its date of issue to the end of the policy year;
2. the total of all mortality and other claims, charges, losses, costs, and expenses incurred for that period; and
3. the amount of the insurers’ allowance for a reasonable profit and contingencies for that period.

(b) An excess of the total of Subdivision (a)(1) of this section over the sum of Subdivisions (a)(2) and (a)(3) of this section shall be held by the carrier issuing the policy as a special contingency reserve to be used by the carrier only for charges, claims, costs, and expenses under the policy. The reserve shall bear interest at a rate determined in advance of each policy year by the carrier and approved by the trustee as being consistent with the rates generally used by the carrier for similar funds held under other group insurance policies. When the trustee determines that the special contingency reserve has attained an amount estimated by it to make satisfactory provision for adverse fluctuations in future charges, claims, costs, or expenses under the policy, any further excess shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Employees Life, Accident, and Health Insurance and Benefits Fund. When a policy is discontinued, any balance remaining in the special contingency reserve after all charges have been made shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the fund. The carrier may make the deposit in equal monthly installments over a period of not more than two years.

Exemption from Execution

Sec. 10. All insurance benefit payments, employee contributions, optional benefits payments, and any and all rights, benefits, or payments accruing to any person under the provisions of this Act, as well as all money in any fund created by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby exempt from execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process whatsoever and shall be unassigned except as specifically provided in this Act.

Group Life Insurance

Sec. 11. (a) The trustee is authorized and directed to establish a group life insurance program for all employees, including retired employees, of this state as herein provided, which, subject to the conditions and limitations contained in this Act and the trustee's rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, will provide for each employee group life insurance in such an amount as shall be determined by the trustee. In addition to the benefits hereinabove provided and subject to the conditions and limitations of the policy or policies purchased by the trustee, such policy or policies shall provide such payments and benefits for employees and retired employees as shall be determined by the trustee. The trustee is also authorized to include the dependents of employees in the group life insurance program.

(b) The trustee shall prescribe regulations providing for the conversion of other than annual rates of pay to annual rates of pay, and specify the types of pay included in annual pay and all other matters necessary to implement this section.

Death Claims; Order of Precedence; Escheat

Sec. 12. (a) The amount of group life insurance and group accidental death and dismemberment in-insurance in force on an employee at the date of his death shall be paid, on the establishment of a valid claim, to the person or persons surviving at the date of his death, in the following order of precedence:

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the employee in a signed and witnessed writing received before death in the employing office. For this purpose, a designation, change, or cancellation of beneficiary in a will or other document not so executed and filed has no force or effect.

Second, if there is no designated beneficiary, to the widow or widower of the employee.

Third, if none of the above, to the child or children of the employee and descendants of deceased children by representation.

Fourth, if none of the above, to the parents of the employee or the survivor of them.

Fifth, if none of the above, to the duly appointed executor or administrator of the estate of the employee.

Sixth, if none of the above, to other kin of the employee entitled under the laws of the domicile of the employee at the date of his death.

(b) If, within one year after the death of the employee, no claim for payment has been filed by a person entitled under the order of precedence named by Subsection (a) of this section, or if payment to the person within that period is prohibited by any statute or regulation, payment may be made in the order of precedence as if the person had predeceased the employee, and the payment bars recovery by any other person.

(c) If, within two years after the death of the employee, no claim for payment has been filed by a person entitled under the order of precedence named in Subsection (a) of this section, and neither the trustee nor the office established by the administering carrier has received notice that such a claim will be made, payment may be to the claimant who in the judgment of the trustee is equitably entitled thereto, and the payment bars recovery by any other person.

(d) If, within four years after the death of the employee, payment has not been made under this section and no claim for payment by a person entitled under this section is pending, the amount payable escheats to the credit of the fund.

Automatic Coverage

Sec. 13. No employee of the State of Texas shall be denied any of the group insurance coverage provided under this Act and funded by the State of Texas. Every employee shall be automatically covered under the group insurance provided for in this Act on the date he becomes eligible for insurance, and each policy of insurance purchased by the trustee providing such insurance shall provide for such automatic coverage.

Payment of Premiums

Sec. 14. The State of Texas shall contribute monthly to the cost of each insured employee’s group insurance such amount as shall be appropriated therefor by the legislature in the General Appropriations Act or by the governing board of state departments in their respective official operating budgets if their employees are compensated from funds appropriated by such budgets rather than by the General Appropriations Act. If such employee or annuitant refuses in writing the coverages, benefits, or services provided by this Act by a statement in writing satisfactory to the trustee, then in no event shall the State of Texas make any contribution to the cost of any other insurance coverages, services, or benefits on such employee or annuitant. If any insured employee or annuitant applies for coverage for which the premium exceeds the state’s contribution under this Act, he shall authorize in writing and in a form satisfactory to the trustee a deduction from his monthly compensation or annuity the difference between the cost of benefits under said group policies and the amount contributed therefor by the State of Texas.

Employer Contributions

Sec. 15. (a) On or before the first day of November next preceding each regular session of the legislature, the trustee shall certify to the Legislative Budget Board and budget division of the governor’s office for information and review the amount necessary to pay the contributions of the State of Texas to the trustee for insurance premiums on the coverages provided under this Act during the ensuing biennium. This amount shall be included in the budget of the state which the governor submits to the legislature. The trustee shall certify on or before August 31 of each year to the state comptroller of public accounts and the State Treasurer the estimated amount of state contributions to be received for employees covered by this Act during the ensuing year.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act, there is hereby allocated and appropriated to the trustee, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, from the several funds from which state employees receive their respective salaries, a sum equal to the total of all employer contributions computed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations of the trustee promulgated pursuant thereto.

(c) All money hereby allocated and appropriated by the state to the trustee under this Act shall be paid to the trustee in monthly installments based on the annual estimate by the trustee of the contributions to be received for all state employees during said year; provided, however, that in the event said estimate of the contributions of the state employees shall vary from the actual amount of the employer contributions during the year, such adjustments shall be made at the close of each fiscal year as may be required. Each of said monthly installments shall be paid into the appropriate fund created by this Act in the amount certified by the trustee.

(d) The trustee shall certify to the governing boards of those state departments who provide contributions for their employees from operating budgets provided from sources other than the General Appropriations Act the proportionate amounts needed to pay their respective contributions. Such certifications shall be made at least 30 days prior to the meeting at which the governing board adopts its operating budget.

Employees Life, Accident, and Health Insurance and Benefits Fund

Sec. 16. (a) There is hereby created with the treasury of the State of Texas an Employees Life, Accident, and Health Insurance and Benefits Fund which shall be administered by the trustee. The contributions of employees, annuitants, and the state provided for under this Act shall be paid into the fund. The fund is available:

(1) without fiscal year limitation for all payments for any insurance coverages provided for under this Act; and

(2) to pay expenses for administering this Act within the limitations that may be specified annually by the legislature.

(b) Portions of the contributions made by employees, annuitants, and the state shall be regularly set aside in the fund as follows: a percentage, not to exceed one percent of all contributions, determined by the trustee to be reasonably adequate to pay the administrative expenses made available by Subsection (a) of this section. The trustee, from time to time and in amounts it considers appropriate, may transfer unused funds for administrative expenses to the contingency reserves of the plans then under contract with the trustee. When funds are so transferred, each contingency reserve shall be credited in proportion to the total amount of the subscription charges paid and accrued to the plan for the contract term immediately before the contract term in which the transfer is made. The income derived from dividends, rate adjustments, or other refunds made by a plan shall be credited to its contingency reserve. The contingency reserves may be used to defray increases in future rates, or may be applied to reduce the contributions of employees and the state to, or to increase the benefits provided by, the plan from which the reserves are derived, as the trustee from time to time shall determine.

(c) The trustee shall have full power to invest and reinvest any of the money in the fund subject only to the restrictions contained in Section 7, Chapter 352, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, as amended (Article 6228a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The interest on and the proceeds from the sale of these obligations become a part of the fund.

(d) When insurance coverages or benefits provided for under this Act are discontinued, the contingency reserve of that plan shall be credited to the contingency reserves of such insurance continuing under this Act for the contract term following that in which termination occurs, each reserve to be credited in proportion to the amount of the subscription charges paid and accrued to the plan for the year of termination.

Studies, Reports, Records, and Audits

Sec. 17. (a) The trustee shall make a continuing study of the operation and administration of this Act, including surveys and reports on group insurance coverages and benefits available to employees and on the experience thereof.

(b) Each contract entered into under this Act shall contain provisions requiring carriers to

(1) furnish such reasonable reports as the trustee determines to be necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this Act; and

(2) permit the trustee and representatives of the state auditor to examine records of the carriers as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(c) Each state department shall keep such records, make such certifications, and furnish the trustee with such information and reports as may be necessary to enable the trustee to carry out its functions under this Act.

Group Insurance Advisory Committee

Sec. 18. There is hereby created and established the Group Insurance Advisory Committee, which shall consist of 21 members who shall be employees of the State of Texas. One classified employee shall be appointed from each of the 10 largest state agencies or departments by the chief administrative officer of those agencies or departments, one member shall be the executive director of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, and one member shall be a classified employee of the governor's office, appointed by the governor. The remaining members shall be elected by and from the classified employees of the other state departments and agencies in a manner consonant with the election for membership to the board of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, but not more than one employee shall be from any one agency or department. All members of the committee shall be appointed or elected for three-year terms; provided, however, that in the initial appointments and election, the trustee shall designate seven members to serve for one year, seven to serve for two years, and seven to serve for three years. Subsequent appointments or elections shall be for three-year terms. During a term of appointment or election, vacancies shall be filled by an employee of the same agency from which the vacancy occurred, being appointed by the board of trustees for the balance of the vacated term. The Group Insurance Advisory Committee shall advise and consult with the trustee on matters concerning all insurance coverages provided under this Act. The committee shall cooperate and work with the trustee in coordinating and correlating the administration of the group insurance program among the various state departments and agencies. The duties of each member of the Group Insurance Advisory Committee shall be to secure input from fellow employees and shall be considered additional duties required of his or her other state office or employment and all expenses incurred by any such member in performing his or her duties as a member of the committee shall be paid out of funds made available for those purposes to the agency or department of which he or she is an employee or officer.

Coverage for Dependents

Sec. 19. Any employee or annuitant shall be entitled to secure for his dependents any uniform group insurance coverages provided for employees under this Act, as shall be determined by the trustee. Such payments for such coverages for dependents shall be deducted from the monthly pay of the employee or from his retirement benefits in such manner and form as the trustee shall determine. A surviving spouse of an employee or a retiree who is entitled to monthly benefits paid by a retirement system named in this Act may, following the death of the employee or retiree, elect to retain the spouse's authorized insurance coverage and also retain authorized insurance coverage for any dependent of the spouse, at the group rate for employees, provided such coverage was previously secured by the employee or retiree for the spouse or dependent, and the spouse directs the applicable retirement system to deduct required premiums from the monthly benefits paid the surviving spouse by the retirement system. Upon termination of the monthly annuity, insurance coverage in the group shall terminate.

Effective Date

Sec. 20. This Act shall become effective September 1, 1975, but no insurance coverages shall be provided hereunder until such time as the trustee shall have made a study of the coverages and benefits authorized by this Act and gathered the necessary statistical data and information to secure such group insurance and the Texas Legislature has appropriated the funds necessary to provide the insurance coverages and benefits provided for in this Act; provided, however, that subject only to the legislature's appropriating the necessary funds, group insurance coverages for state employees contemplated by this Act shall be provided beginning not later than September 1, 1976. Departments are specifically authorized to continue or initiate state employee insurance plans and policies with state financial participation until the date and time this Act is implemented; provided, however, that any experience rating refunds becoming payable to such department under any such plans or policies on or after the date and time this Act is implemented shall be paid to the Employees Life, Accident, and Health Insurance and Benefits Fund, and such payment shall be deemed payment to such department.

Affect of Section Headings

Sec. 21. Section headings contained in this Act shall not be deemed to govern, limit, expand, modify, or in any manner affect the scope, meaning, or intent of the provisions of any section hereof.

Severability

Sec. 22. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act in all its particulars and as to all other persons and circumstances shall be valid and of full force and effect, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision; and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Repeal

Sec. 23. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

[Article 3.50–2 was not enacted as part of the Insurance Code of 1951.]

Art. 3.51–2. County and Political Subdivision of the State of Texas—Officials, Employees, and Retirees

(a) Each county or political subdivision of the State of Texas is authorized to procure contracts insuring its officials, employees, and retirees or any class or classes thereof under a policy or policies of group life, group health, accident, accidental death and dismemberment, and hospital, surgical, and/or medical expense insurance. The dependents of any such officials, employees, and retirees may be insured under group policies which provide hospital, surgical and/or medical expense insurance. The employees' contributions to the premiums for such insurance issued to the employer as the policyholder may be deducted by the employer from the employees' salaries when authorized in writing by the respective employees so to do; provided, however, no state funds shall be used to procure such contracts, nor shall any state funds be used to pay premiums under said contracts of insurance.

(b) Any county or political subdivision of the State of Texas which is authorized by law to procure a contract insuring its respective officials, employees, and retirees or any class or classes thereof under a policy or policies of group insurance covering one or more risks may pay all or any portion of the premiums on such policy or policies from the local funds of such county or political subdivision of the State of Texas; provided that the amount of group life insurance on any one official, employee, or retiree shall not exceed $25,000.

Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not thereby be rendered invalid or unconstitutional, nor be affected thereby."

Art. 3.51-4. Payment of Premiums of Group Life and Health Insurance Policies for Retirees of the Central Education Agency, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, Retired Employees of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation Who Accepted Retirement Under the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, Retired Employees of the Texas Youth Council Who Accepted Retirement Under the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, and Retired Employees of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas Who Accepted Retirement Under the Teacher Retirement System of Texas

The premium cost of group life, health, accident, hospital, surgical and/or medical expense insurance for retirees of the Central Education Agency, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, for retired employees of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the Texas Youth Council, and the Teacher Retirement System of Texas who accepted retirement under the Teacher Retirement System of Texas pursuant to Chapter 3, Texas Education Code, shall be paid by the State of Texas, subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) Payment shall be from the funds of the agency, commission, board or department from which the officer or employee retired, shall be limited to the same amount allowed active employees under current group life and health insurance programs of the agency, commission, board or department, and shall be made in accordance with rules and regulations to be established no later than September 1, 1973, by the Central Education Agency, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, and the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System for its respective retirees and no later than September 1, 1975, by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the Texas Youth Council, and the Teacher Retirement System of Texas for their retired employees who accepted retirement under the Teacher Retirement System of Texas pursuant to Chapter 3, Texas Education Code.

(b) The agency, commission, board and department shall certify to the state comptroller of public accounts and to the state treasurer each month the amount required each month to pay the insurance premiums of the said retirees, and the State of Texas shall pay the amount so ascertained each month, beginning September 1, 1973, to the Central Education Agency, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, and the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, and beginning September 1, 1975, to the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation and the Texas Youth Council.

1 Education Code, § 3.01 et seq.

Art. 3.51-4. Extension of Term Life Insurance to Spouses and Children

Sec. 1. Insurance under any group term life insurance policy issued and delivered pursuant to the laws of the State of Texas, except a policy issued and delivered to a creditor pursuant to Section 1(4) of Article 3.50 of the Texas Insurance Code or pursuant to any other law of the State of Texas providing for credit life insurance, may be extended to cover the spouse, the children under 21 years of age, natural or adopted, and the children over 21 years of age, natural or adopted, who are enrolled as full-time students at an educational institution or are physically or mentally disabled and who are under the supervision of the parents, of each insured thereunder, provided that the amounts of insurance under the policy are based on some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured or the policyholder, and provided further that the amount of such insurance on the life of the spouse shall not
Art. 3.51-5. Payments of Group Life and Health Insurance Premiums for Retired Employees of the Texas Central Education Agency, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the Texas Youth Council, a Texas Senior College or University, and the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

(a) The costs of group life and health insurance premiums to persons retired under the Teacher Retirement Act, who at the time of their retirement were employed by the Texas Central Education Agency, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the Texas Youth Council, a Texas senior college or university, and the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, shall be fully paid from the funds of such agency, commission, institution, or board under the following provisions and conditions:

1. The coverage of this Act shall extend to all such retired persons within the limits of eligibility under state contracts in force on the effective date of this Act or as may be otherwise provided by law;

2. Such payment shall be in accordance with rules and regulations established by such agency, commission, institution, or board;

3. Such agency, commission, institution, and board shall certify to the Comptroller of Public Accounts and the State Treasurer each month the amount so ascertained each month to such agency, commission, institution, and board;

4. Payments shall begin on the first day of the month following the month in which this Act takes effect and shall continue to be paid until otherwise provided by law.

(b) There are hereby authorized to be paid out of the funds of each agency, commission, institution, or board named in the Act the sums necessary to fund the payments of premiums provided in this Act.

Art. 3.51-6. Group and Blanket Accident and Health Insurance

Group Insurance Defined; Coverage, Certificate, Fees or Allowances

Sec. 1. (a) Group accident and health insurance is hereby defined to be that form of accident, sickness, or accident and sickness insurance covering groups of persons as provided in Subdivisions (1) through (5) below:

1. Under a policy issued to an employer or trustees of a fund established by an employer, who shall be deemed the policyholder, insuring employees of such employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer. The term "employees" as used herein shall be deemed to include the officers, managers, and employees of the employer, the individual proprietor, or partner if the employer is an individual proprietor or partnership, the officers, managers, and employees of subsidiary or affiliated corporations, the individual proprietors, partners, and employees of individuals and firms, if the business of the employer and such individual or firm is under common control through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise, and retired employees. A policy issued to insure employees of a public body may provide that the term "employees" shall include elected or appointed officials. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship;

2. Under a policy issued to an association, including but not limited to a labor union or organizations of such unions, membership corporations organized or holding a certificate of authority under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, and cooperatives and corporations subject to the supervision and control of the Farm Credit Administration of the United States of America, and which association shall have a constitution and bylaws, and which has been organized and is maintained in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance, to insure members, employees, or employees of members (active and retired for the benefit of persons other than the association or its officers or trustees);

3. Under a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers in the same or related industry or by one or more labor unions or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions or by an association as defined in (2) above, which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employers or members of the unions or such association, or employees of members of such association for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions or such association. The term "employees" as used herein may include the officers, managers, and employees of the employer, retired employees, and the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship;

(4) under a policy issued to any person or organization to which a policy of group life insurance may be issued or delivered in this state to insure any class or classes of individuals that could be insured under such group life policy;

(5) under a policy issued to cover any other substantially similar group which, in the discretion of the commissioner of insurance, may be subject to the issuance of a group accident and sickness policy or contract.

(b) The spouse and dependents of employees or members referred to in Subdivisions (a)(1) through (a)(5) of this section may be included within the coverage provided in a group policy.

(c) An insurer issuing a group policy under this article shall furnish to the policyholder for delivery to each employee or member of the insured group a certificate of insurance which shall contain a statement, in summary form, of the essential features of the insurance coverage of such employee or member and to whom benefits are payable. If dependents are included in the coverage, only one certificate need be issued for each family unit.

(d) No group policy of accident, health, or accident and health insurance shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state which does not conform to the requirements and definitions set forth in Subdivisions (a)(1) through (a)(5) of this section.

(e) No insurer shall pay to any individual, firm, corporation, or group entity any fees or allowances for services related to group policies except as reimbursement for the cost of such services which would otherwise have been provided by the insurer, provided that this provision shall not limit the right of the insurer to pay dividends or make returns of premium to any group or to any combination of groups or make provision for rate stabilization funds with combinations of groups, nor shall it prohibit payment of commissions or compensation to a duly licensed agent.

1 Civil Statutes, Art. 1396-1.01 et seq.

Blanket Insurance Defined: Application or Certificate: Liability for Death or Injury of Member: Fees or Allowances

Sec. 2. (a) Blanket accident and health insurance is hereby defined to be that form of accident, health, or accident and health insurance covering groups of persons as provided in (1) through (9) below:

(1) under a policy issued to any common carrier or to any operator, owner, or lessor of a means of transportation, who or which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering a group of persons who may become passengers defined by reference to their travel status on such common carrier or such means of transportation; or, under a policy issued to any automobile and/or truck leasing company, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering a group of persons who may become either renters, lessees, or passengers defined by their travel status on such rented or leased vehicles;

(2) under a policy issued to an employer, who shall be deemed the policyholder, covering any group of employees, dependents, or guests, defined by reference to specified hazards incident to an activity or activities or operations of the policyholder;

(3) under a policy issued to a college, school, or other institution of learning, a school district or districts, or school jurisdictional unit, or to the head, principal, or governing board of any such education unit, who or which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering students, teachers, or employees;

(4) under a policy issued to any religious, charitable, recreational, educational, or civic organization, or branch thereof, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering any group of members or participants defined by reference to specified hazards incident to any activity or activities or operations sponsored or supervised by such policyholder;

(5) under a policy issued to a sports team, camp, or sponsor thereof, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering members, campers, employees, officials, or supervisors;

(6) under a policy issued to any governmental or volunteer fire department or fire company, first aid, civil defense, or other such governmental or volunteer organization, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering any group of members or participants defined by reference to specified hazards incident to an activity or activities or operations sponsored or supervised by such policyholder;

(7) under a policy issued to a newspaper or other publisher, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering its carriers;

(8) under a policy issued to an association, including a labor union, which shall have a constitution and bylaws and which has been organized and is maintained in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering any group of members or participants defined by reference to specified hazards incident to an activity or activities or operations sponsored or supervised by such policyholder;

(9) under a policy issued to cover any other risk or class of risks which, in the discretion of the commissioner of insurance, may be properly eligible for blanket accident and sickness insurance. The discretion of the commissioner of insurance may be exercised on an individual risk basis or class of risks, or both.

(b) An individual application need not be required from a person covered under a blanket accident and sickness policy or contract, nor shall it be necessary for the insurer to furnish each person a certificate.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the legal liability of any policyholder for the death of or injury to any member of a group.

(d) No blanket policy shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state which does not conform to the requirements and definitions set forth in Subdivisions (a)(1) through (a)(9) of this section.

(e) No insurer shall pay to any individual, firm, or corporation any fees or allowances for services related to blanket policies except as reimbursement for the cost of such services which would otherwise have been provided by the insurer provided that this provision shall not limit the right of the insurer to pay dividends or make return of premium to any group or any combination of groups or make provision for rate stabilization funds with combinations of groups, nor shall it prohibit the payment of commissions or compensation to a duly licensed agent.

Payment of Benefits

Sec. 3. All benefits under any group or blanket accident and sickness policy shall be payable to the person insured, or to his designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to his estate, except that if the person insured be a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release, such benefits may be made payable to his parent, guardian, or other person actually supporting him. The policy may provide that all or a portion of any indemnities provided by any such policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical, or surgical services may, at the option of the insurer and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proofs of such loss, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but the policy may not require that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person. Payment so made shall discharge the obligation of the insurer with respect to the amount of insurance so paid.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this article shall not be applicable to:

(1) credit accident and health insurance policies subject to Article 3.53 of the Insurance Code, as amended;

(2) any group specifically provided for or authorized by law in existence and covered under a policy filed with the State Board of Insurance prior to April 1, 1975;

(3) accident and health coverages that are incidental to any form of group automobile, casualty, property, or workmen's compensation — employers' liability policies promulgated or approved by the State Board of Insurance;

(4) any policy or contract of insurance with a state agency, department, or board providing health services to all eligible persons under Section 6, The Medical Assistance Act of 1967, as amended (Article 695j-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), 343–353 (42 U.S.C.A. 1396–1396g), providing health care and services under a state plan.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 5. The State Board of Insurance is authorized to issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the various provisions of this article. Rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article shall be subject to notice and hearing pursuant to Section 10, Chapter 397, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955 (Article 3.70–10, Vernon's Texas Insurance Code).

SUBCHAPTER G. ACCIDENT AND SICKNESS INSURANCE

Art. 3.70–1. Purpose; Definitions; Scope of Act; Rules and Regulations; Standards for Policy Provisions; Minimum Standards; Outline of Coverage; Pre-Existing Conditions; Administrative Procedures

(A) Purpose. The purpose of this Act shall be to provide for reasonable standardization, readability, and simplification of terms and coverages contained in individual accident and sickness insurance policies; to facilitate public understanding of coverages; to eliminate provisions contained in individual accident and sickness insurance policies which may be unjust, unfair, misleading, or unreasonably confusing in connection either with the purchase of such coverages or with the settlement of claims; and to provide for full and fair disclosure in the sale of accident and sickness coverages.
(B) Definitions. As used in this Act,

(1) "Board" shall mean the State Board of Insurance of the State of Texas.

(2) "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Texas.

(3) "Policy of accident and sickness insurance" as used herein, includes any policy or contract providing insurance against loss resulting from sickness or from bodily injury or death by accident or both.

(4) "Policy" means the entire contract between the insurer and the insured, including the policy, riders, endorsements, and the application, if attached.

(C) Scope of Act. This Act shall apply to and govern individual accident and sickness insurance policies issued, or issued for delivery, in the State of Texas by life, health and accident companies, mutual life insurance companies, mutual assessment life insurance companies, mutual insurance companies, local mutual aid associations, mutual or natural premium life or casualty insurance companies, general casualty companies, Lloyds, reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges, nonprofit hospital, medical, or dental service corporations including but not limited to companies subject to Chapter 20 of this code, as amended, stipulated premium insurance companies, or any other insurer which by law is required to be licensed by the Board; provided, however, this Act shall not apply to any society, company or other insurer whose activities are by statute exempt from the control of the Board and which are entitled by statute to an exemption certificate from the Board in evidence of their exempt status, nor to fraternal benefit societies; nor to credit accident and sickness insurance policies written under Article 3.53 of this code, as amended; provided further, that this Act shall not be construed to enlarge the powers of any of the enumerated companies. Conversion policies issued pursuant to a contractual conversion privilege under a group accident and sickness insurance policy shall not be subject to Subsections (D) through (H) of this article.

(D) Rules and Regulations. The Board is authorized to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the various purposes and provisions of this article.

(E) Standards for Policy Provisions.

(1) The Board shall issue reasonable rules and regulations to establish specific standards including standards for readability of policies and for full and fair disclosure, that set forth the manner, content, and required disclosure for the sale of individual policies of accident and sickness insurance which shall be in addition to and in accordance with applicable laws of this state which may cover but shall not be limited to:

(a) terms of renewability;
(b) initial and subsequent conditions of eligibility;
(c) nonduplication of coverage provisions;
(d) coverage of dependents;
(e) pre-existing conditions;
(f) termination of insurance;
(g) probationary periods;
(h) limitations;
(i) exceptions;
(j) reductions;
(k) elimination periods;
(l) requirements for replacement;
(m) recurrent conditions; and
(n) the definition of terms including but not limited to the definition of hospital so developed shall not be applicable to companies organized under Chapter 20 of this code, as amended.

(2) The Board may issue rules and regulations that specify prohibited policy provisions, not otherwise specifically authorized by statute, which in the opinion of the Board are unjust, unfair, or unfairly discriminatory to the policyholder, any person insured under the policy, or beneficiary.

(F) Minimum Standards for Benefits.

(1) The Board shall issue rules and regulations to establish minimum standards for benefits under each of the following categories of coverage in individual policies of accident and sickness insurance:

(a) basic hospital expense coverage;
(b) basic medical-surgical expense coverage;
(c) hospital confinement indemnity coverage;
(d) major medical expense coverage;
(e) disability income protection coverage;
(f) accident only coverage;
(g) specified disease or specified accident coverage; and
(h) limited benefit coverage.

(2) Nothing in this section shall preclude the issuance of any policy which combines two or more of the categories of coverage enumerated in Paragraphs (a) through (h) of Subsection (1) of this section.

(3) No policy shall be issued, or issued for delivery, in the State of Texas which does not meet the prescribed minimum standards for the categories of coverage listed in Paragraphs (a) through (h) of Subsection (1) of this section which are contained within the policy unless the Board finds such policy to be a supplemental policy, a policy experimental in nature or finds such policy will fulfill a reasonable public need and such policy meets the requirements set forth in Article 3.42 of the Insurance Code.

(4) The Board shall prescribe the method of identification of policies based on coverages provided.

(G) Outline of Coverage.

(1) In order to provide for full and fair disclosure in the sale of individual accident and sickness insurance policies, no such policy shall be issued, or issued for delivery, in the State of Texas unless: (i) in the case of a direct response insurance product, the outline of coverage described in Subsection (2) of this section accompanies the policy; (ii) in all other cases, the outline of coverage described in Subsection (2) of this section is delivered to the applicant at the time application is made and an acknowledgement of receipt or certificate of delivery of such outline is provided the insurer with the application. In the event the policy is issued on a basis other than that applied for, the outline of coverage properly describing the policy must accompany the policy when it is delivered and clearly state that it is not the policy for which application was made.

(2) The Board shall prescribe the format and content of the outline of coverage required by Subsection (1) of this section. "Format" means style, arrangement, and overall appearance, including such items as the size, color, and prominence of type and the arrangement of text and captions. Such outline of coverage shall include:

(a) a statement identifying the applicable category or categories of coverage provided by the policy as prescribed in Section (F) of this article;

(b) a description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy;

(e) a statement of the exceptions, reductions, and limitations contained in the policy;

(d) a statement of the renewal provision including any reservation by the insurer of a right to change premiums;

(e) a statement that the outline is a summary of the policy issued or applied for and that the policy should be consulted to determine governing contractual provisions;

(f) a summary of such provisions required to be in the policy by Section 3, Chapter 397, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 3.70–3, Vernon's Texas Insurance Code), as the Board may determine to be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(g) Any other statements, descriptions, or outlines that the Board may determine to be reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(H) Pre-existing Conditions. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3(A)(2)(b), Chapter 397, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 3.70–3, Vernon's Texas Insurance Code), if an insurer elects to use a simplified application form, with or without a question as to the applicant's health at the time of application, but without any questions concerning the insured's health history or medical treatment history, the policy must cover any loss occurring after 12 months from any pre-existing condition not specifically excluded from coverage by terms of the policy. (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3(A)(2)(b), Chapter 397, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 3.70–3, Vernon's Texas Insurance Code), or of Paragraph (1) of this subsection, no individual policy of accident and sickness insurance issued or issued for delivery in this state to a person age 65 or over, may contain a provision excluding from coverage any loss due to a pre-existing condition, not specifically excluded from coverage by name or specific description in an exclusion endorsement or rider effective on the date of the loss, for a period in excess of six months from the effective date of coverage under the policy; provided, however, that if the Board finds that the public interest would be served thereby, it may authorize a policy provision excluding coverage for pre-existing conditions for a period in excess of six months but in no event shall such period exceed one year. (3) Except as so provided, a policy issued under the provisions of this section may not include wording that would permit a defense based on pre-existing conditions.

(I) Administrative Procedures. Rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this Article shall be subject to notice and hearing pursuant to Section 10, Chapter 397, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955 (Article 3.70–10, Vernon's Texas Insurance Code).

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1975 amendatory act amended subsecs. (A) and (B) of art. 3.70–3; § 4 amended art. 3.42; § 5 amended art. 3.70–9; and § 6 thereof provided:

"Sec. 6. This Act shall apply to all policies of accident and sickness insurance issued, or issued for delivery, in the State of Texas after June 1, 1975. This Act shall not apply to policies issued, or issued for delivery, in the State of Texas prior to such date."
Art. 3.70-3. Accident and Sickness Policy Provisions

(A) Required Provisions. Except as provided in paragraph (C) of this section each such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain the provisions specified in this subsection in the words in which the same appear in this section; provided, however, that the insurer may, at its option, substitute for one or more of such provisions, provisions of different wording approved by the Board, in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations promulgated by the Board, which are in each instance not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary; and provided further that Provisions 6, 8, and 9 shall not be required provisions under this Subsection A for companies organized under Chapter 20 of this code, as amended.

Such provisions shall be preceded individually by the caption appearing in this subsection or, at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the Board may approve.

(1) A provision as follows:

Entire Contract; Changes: This policy, including the endorsements and the attached papers, if any, constitutes the entire contract of insurance. No change in this policy shall be valid until approved by an executive officer of the insurer and unless such approval be endorsed hereon or attached hereto. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions.

(2) A provision as follows:

Time Limit on Certain Defenses: (a) After two years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such two-year period.

(The foregoing policy provision shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim as to loss resulting from a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy.)

Reinstatement: If any renewal premium be not paid within the time granted the insured for payment, a subsequent acceptance of premium by the insurer or by any agent duly authorized by the insurer to accept such premium, without requiring in connection therewith an application for reinstatement, shall reinstate the policy; provided, however, that if the insurer or such agent requires an application for reinstatement and issues a conditional receipt for the premium tendered, the policy will be reinstated upon approval of such application by the insurer or, lacking such approval, upon the forty-fifth day following the date of such conditional receipt unless the insurer has previously notified the insured in writing of its disapproval of such application. The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than ten days after such date. In all other respects the insured and insurer shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under the policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium, subject to any provisions endorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement. Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid, but not to any period more than sixty days prior to the date of reinstatement.

(The last sentence of the above provision may be omitted from any policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (1) until at least age 50 or, (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue.)

(5) A provision as follows:
Notice of Claim: Written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within twenty days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by the policy, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible. Notice given by or on behalf of the insured or the beneficiary to the insurer at . . . . (insert the location of such office as the insurer may designate for the purpose), or to any authorized agent of the insurer, with information sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed notice to the insurer.

(In a policy providing a loss-of-time benefit which may be payable for at least two years, an insurer may at its option insert the following between the first and second sentences of the above provision:
Subject to the qualifications set forth below, if the insured suffers loss of time on account of disability for which indemnity may be payable for at least two years, he shall, at least once in every . . . . (insert a number not less than one nor more than six) months after having given notice of claim, give to the insurer notice of continuance of said disability, except in the event of legal incapacity. The period of . . . . . . (insert a number not less than one nor more than six) months following any filing of proof by the insured or any payment by the insurer on account of such claim or any denial of liability in whole or in part by the insurer shall be excluded in applying this provision. Delay in the giving of such notice shall not impair the insured's right to any indemnity which would otherwise have accrued during the period of . . . . . . (insert a number not less than one nor more than six) months preceding the date on which such notice is actually given.)

(6) A provision as follows:
Claim Forms: The insurer, upon receipt of a notice of claim, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not furnished within fifteen days after the giving of such notice the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting, within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, the character and the extent of the loss for which claim is made.

(7) A provision as follows:
Proofs of Loss: Written proof of loss must be furnished to the insurer at its said office in case of claim for loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment contingent upon continuing loss within ninety days after the termination of the period for which the insurer is liable and in case of claim for any other loss within ninety days after the date of such loss. Failure to furnish such proof within the time required shall not invalidate nor reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to give proof within such time, provided such proof is furnished as soon as reasonably possible; and in no event, except in the absence of legal capacity, later than one year from the time proof is otherwise required.

(8) A provision as follows:
Time of Payment of Claims: Indemnities payable under this policy for any loss other than loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss. Subject to due written proof of loss, all accrued indemnities for loss for which this policy provides periodic payment will be paid . . . . (insert period for payment which must not be less frequently than monthly) and any balance remaining unpaid upon the termination of liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof.

(9) A provision as follows:
Payment of Claims: Indemnity for loss of life will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation and the provisions respecting such payment which may be prescribed herein and effective at the time of payment. If no such designation or provision is then effective, such indemnity shall be payable to the estate of the insured. Any other accrued indemnities unpaid at the insured's death may, at the option of the insurer, be paid either to such beneficiary or to such estate. All other indemnities will be payable to the insured.
Art. 3.70-3

642

If any indemnity of this policy shall be payable to the estate of the insured, or to an insured or beneficiary who is a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release, the insurer may pay such indemnity, up to an amount not exceeding $...... (insert an amount which shall not exceed $1,000), to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or beneficiary who is deemed by the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto. Any payment made by the insurer in good faith pursuant to this provision shall fully discharge the insurer to the extent of such payment.

Subject to any written direction of the insured in the application or otherwise all or a portion of any indemnities provided by this policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical or surgical services may, at the insurer's option and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proofs of such loss, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but it is not required that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person.)

(10) A provision as follows:

Physical Examinations and Autopsy: The insurer at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and as often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of a claim hereunder and to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

(11) A provision as follows:

Legal Actions: No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of this policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of three years after the time written proof of loss is required to be furnished.

(12) A provision as follows:

Change of Beneficiary: Unless the insured makes an irrevocable designation of beneficiary, the right to change of beneficiary is reserved to the insured and the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy or to any change of beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to any other changes in this policy.

(The first clause of this provision, relating to the irrevocable designation of beneficiary, may be omitted at the insurer's option.)

(B) Other Provisions. Except as provided in paragraph (C) of this section, no such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain provisions respecting the matters set forth below unless such provisions are in the words in which the same appear in this section; provided, however, that the insurer may, at its option, use in lieu of any such provision a provision of different wording approved by the Board, in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations promulgated by the Board, which is not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Any such provision contained in the policy shall be preceded individually by the appropriate caption appearing in this subsection or, at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the Board may approve.

(1) A provision as follows:

Change of Occupation: If the insured be injured or contract sickness after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in this policy or while doing for compensation anything pertaining to an occupation so classified, the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in this policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rates and within the limits fixed by the insurer for such more hazardous occupation. If the insured changes his occupation to one classified by the insurer as less hazardous than that stated in this policy, the insurer, upon receipt of proof of such change of occupation, will reduce the premium rate accordingly, and will return the excess pro-rata unearned premium from the date of change of occupation or from the policy anniversary date immediately preceding receipt of such proof, whichever is the more recent. In applying this provision, the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be such as have been last filed by the insurer prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the insurer is liable or prior to date of proof of change in occupation with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided at the time this policy was issued; but if such filing was not required, then the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be those last made effective by the insurer in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss or prior to the date of proof of change in occupation.

(2) A provision as follows:

Misstatement of Age: If the age of the insured has been misstated, all amounts payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

(3) A provision as follows:

Other Insurance in This Insurer: If an accident or sickness or accident and sickness policy or policies previously issued by the insurer to the insured be in force concurrently herewith, making the aggregate indemnity for ...... (insert type of coverage or coverages) in excess of $...... (insert maximum limit of indemnity or indemnities) the excess insurance shall be void and all premiums paid for such excess shall be returned to the insured or to his estate; or, in lieu thereof:

Insurance effective at any one time on the insured under a like policy or policies in this insurer is limited to the one such policy elected by the insured, his beneficiary or his estate, as the case may be, and the insurer will return all premiums paid for all other such policies.

(4) A provision as follows:

Relation of Earnings to Insurance: If the total monthly amount of loss of time benefits promised for the same loss under all valid loss of time coverage upon the insured, whether payable on a weekly or monthly basis, shall exceed the monthly earnings of the insured at the time disability commenced or his average monthly earnings for the period of two years immediately preceding a disability for which claim is made, whichever is the greater, the insurer will be liable only for such proportionate amount of such benefits under this policy as the amount of such monthly earnings or such average monthly earnings of the insured bears to the total amount of monthly benefits for the same loss under all such coverage upon the insured at the time such disability commences and for the return of such part of the premiums paid during such two years as shall exceed the pro-rata amount of the premiums for the benefits actually paid hereunder; but this shall not operate to reduce benefits other than those payable for loss of time.

(5) A provision as follows:

Unpaid Premium: Upon the payment of the premium paid for the benefits payable under this policy shall be such as the lesser, nor shall it operate to reduce benefits other than those payable for loss of time.

(The foregoing policy provision may be inserted only in a policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums (1) until at least age 50 or, (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue. The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "valid loss of time coverage," approved as to form by the Board, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by governmental agencies or by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, or to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the Board or any combination of such coverages. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include any coverage provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen's compensation or employer's liability statute), or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations.)

(6) A provision as follows:

Cancellation: The insurer may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered to the insured, or mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer, stating when, not less than five days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective; and after the policy has been continued beyond its original term the insurer may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered or mailed to the insurer, effective upon receipt or on such later date as may be specified in such notice. In the event of cancellation, the insurer will return promptly the unearned portion of any premium paid. If the insurer cancels, the earned premium shall be computed by the use of the short-rate table last filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided when the policy was issued. If the insurer cancels, the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata. Cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior to the effective date of cancellation.

(7) A provision as follows:
Conformity With State Statutes: Any provision of this policy which, on its effective date, is in conflict with the statutes of the state in which the insured resides on such date is hereby amended to conform to the minimum requirements of such statutes.

(8) A provision as follows:
Illegal Occupation: The insurer shall not be liable for any loss to which a contributing cause was the insured's commission of or attempt to commit a felony or to which a contributing cause was the insured's being engaged in an illegal occupation.

(9) A provision as follows:
Intoxicants and Narcotics: The insurer shall not be liable for any loss sustained or contracted in consequence of the insured's being intoxicated or under the influence of any narcotic unless administered on the advice of a physician.

Art. 3.70-9. Violation
Any person, partnership, or corporation wilfully violating any provision of this Act or order of the Board made in accordance with this Act, shall forfeit to the people of the state a sum not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for each such violation, which may be recovered by a civil action. The Board may also suspend or revoke the license of an insurer or agent for any such wilful violation.

Art. 3.72. Variable Annuity Contracts
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 7]

Investment of Separate Account Funds

Sec. 8. Any domestic insurance company which has established one or more separate variable annuity accounts pursuant to this article may invest and reinvest all or any part of the assets allocated to any such account in and only in the securities and investments authorized by Article 3.39 of this Insurance Code for any of the funds of a domestic life insurance company, free and clear of any and all limitations and restrictions in such Article 3.39, and in addition thereto in common capital stocks or other equities which are listed on or admitted to trading in a securities exchange located in the United States of America, or which are publicly held and traded in the "over-the-counter market" as defined by the State Board of Insurance and as to which market quotations have been available. None of the assets allocated to any such variable annuity account shall be invested in common stocks of corporations which shall have defaulted in the payment of any debt within five years next preceding such investment. No such company shall invest in excess of the greater of (a) Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or (b) five percent (5%) of the assets of any such separate variable annuity account in any one corporation issuing such common capital stock, except that subject to the approval of the State Board of Insurance all of the assets of a separate account may be invested in the shares of one or more open-end management companies registered under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940 and qualifying as a diversified company thereunder. The assets and investments of such separate variable annuity accounts shall not be taken into account in applying the quantitative investment limitations applicable to other investments of the company. In the purchase of common capital stock or other equities, the insurer shall designate to the broker, or to the seilor if the purchase is not made through broker, the specific variable annuity account for which the investment is made.

SUBCHAPTER B. CASUALTY INSURANCE AND FIDELITY, GUARANTY AND SURETY BONDS

Art. 5.13-1. Legal Service Contracts
(a) Every insurer governed by Subchapter B of Chapter 5 of the Insurance Code, as amended,1 and every life, health, and accident insurer governed by Chapter 3 of the Insurance Code, as amended,2 is authorized to issue prepaid legal services contracts. Every such insurer or rating organization authorized under Article 5.16 of the Insurance Code shall file with the State Board of Insurance all rules and forms applicable to prepaid legal service contracts in a manner to be established by the State Board of Insurance. All rates, rating plans, and charges shall be established in accordance with actuarial principles for various categories of insureds. Rates, rating plans, and charges shall not be excessive, inadequate, unfairly discriminatory, and the benefits shall be reasonable with respect to the rates charged. Certification, by a qualified actuary, to the appropriateness of the charges, rates, or rating plans, based upon reasonable assumptions, shall accompany the filing along with adequate supporting information.

(b) The State Board of Insurance shall, within a reasonable period, approve any form if the requirements of this section are met. It shall be unlawful to issue such forms until approved or to use such schedules of charges, rates, or rating plans until filed and approved. If the State Board of Insurance has good cause to believe such rates and rating plans do not comply with the standards of this article, it shall give notice in writing to every insurer or rating organization which filed such rates or rating plans stating therein in what manner and to what extent such noncompliance is alleged to exist and specifying therein a reasonable time, not less than 30 days thereafter, in which such noncompliance may be corrected. If the board has not acted on any form, rate, rating plan, or charges within 30 days after the filing of same, they shall be deemed approved. The board may require the submission of whatever relevant information is deemed necessary in determining whether to approve or disapprove a filing made pursuant to this section.

(c) The right of such insurers to issue prepaid legal services contracts on individual, group, or franchise bases is hereby recognized, and qualified agents of such insurers who are licensed under Articles 21.07 and 21.14 of the Insurance Code, as amended, and Chapter 213, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended (Article 21.07–1, Vernon’s Texas Insurance Code), shall be authorized to write such coverages under such rules and regulations as the State Board of Insurance may prescribe.

(d) The State Board of Insurance is hereby vested with power and authority under this article to promulgate, after notice of hearing, and to enforce, rules and regulations concerning the application to the designated insurers of this article and for such clarification, simplification, and augmentation as in the discretion of the State Board of Insurance are deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes of this article.

(e) This article shall be construed as a specific exception to Article 3.54 of the Texas Insurance Code.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as compelling the State Board of Insurance to establish standard or absolute rates and the board is specifically authorized, in its discretion, to approve different rates for different insurers for the same risk or risks on the types of insurance covered by this article; nor shall this article be construed as to require the State Board of Insurance to establish a single or uniform rate for each risk or risks or to compel all insurers to adhere to such rates previously filed by other insurers; and the board is empowered to approve such different rates for different insurers, and is required to approve such rates as filed by any insurer unless it finds that such filing does not meet the requirements of this article.

SUBCHAPTER C. FIRE INSURANCE AND ALLIED LINES

Art. 5.43–1. Fire Extinguishers; Installation and Servicing; Penalties

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 3]

Regulation and Licensing

Sec. 4. (a) Each firm engaged in the business of servicing portable fire extinguishers or installing or servicing fixed fire extinguisher systems must have a certificate of registration issued by the State Board of Insurance. The initial fee for the certificate of registration is $75 and the renewal fee for each year thereafter is $75.

(b) Each employee, other than an apprentice, of firms engaged in the business of servicing portable fire extinguishers or installing or servicing fixed fire extinguisher systems who services extinguishers or fixed systems, must have a license issued by the State Board of Insurance. The initial fee for the license is $5 and the renewal fee for each year thereafter is $5.

Art. 5.43–2. Fire Detection and Alarm Devices and Systems; Regulation of Sales, Service, Installation and Maintenance

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to regulate the sales, servicing, installation, and maintenance of fire detection and fire alarm devices and systems in the interest of safeguarding lives and property.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) "Person" means a natural person, including an owner, manager, officer, employee, occupant, or individual.

(2) "Organization" means a corporation, government, or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, firm or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(3) "Advisory council" means a group of five individuals experienced and knowledgeable in one or more of the following areas: sale, installation, maintenance, or manufacturing of fire alarm or detection systems, electrical engineering, fire services or be a member of a fire protection association which is to be appointed by the State Board of Insurance.

(4) "Board" means the State Board of Insurance.

(5) "Sale" means sale or offering for sale, lease, or rent any merchandise, equipment, or service at wholesale or retail, to the public or any person, for an agreed sum of money or other consideration.

(6) "Installation" means the initial placement of equipment and/or the extension, modification, or alteration of equipment already in place.

(7) "Approval, approved" means that equipment which has been tested or listed by a nationally recognized fire testing laboratory such as but not limited to Underwriters' Laboratories, Incorporated, or Factory Mutual Research Corporation, or has gained specific written approval for the use intended by the state marshal.

(8) "Maintenance" means to maintain in a condition of repair that will allow performance as originally designed or intended.

(9) "Service, servicing" means any charging, recharging, maintaining, repairing, testing, or installing.

(10) "Fire detection device" means any arrangement of materials, the sole function of which is to provide indication of fire, smoke, or combustion in its incipient stages.

(11) "Fire alarm device" means any device capable, through audible and/or visible means, of sounding a warning that fire or combustion has taken or is taking place.

(12) "Fire alarm installation superintendent" means an individual or individuals who shall be designated by each company that sells, services, installs, or maintains a fire alarm or detection system to inspect and certify that each fire alarm or detection system as installed meets the standards as provided for by law.

Exceptions

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated under this Act shall have uniform force and effect throughout the state and no municipality or county shall hereinafter enact any ordinances, rules, or regulations inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this Act. Provided, however, that any municipality or county ordinances, rules, or regulations in force or effect on the effective date of this Act shall not be invalidated because of any provision of this Act. Provided further that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to the sale, offer for sale, or installation of approved fire detection devices or approved fire alarm devices designed for and installed in other than commercial, business, or public buildings.

Administration

Sec. 4. The board shall administer the Act and it may issue rules and regulations which it considers necessary to its administration through the state fire marshal. The board, in promulgating necessary rules and regulations, may utilize recognized standards such as, but not limited to, those of the National Fire Protection Association, the National Electrical Code, those recognized by federal law or regulation, those published by any nationally recognized standards-making organization, or any information furnished by individual manufacturers. Also, the board may issue necessary rules and regulations for protection of life and property, after due notice and hearing.

Registration and Licensing

Sec. 5. (a) Each organization engaged in the business of selling, servicing, installing, or maintaining fire alarm or fire detection devices shall have a certificate of registration issued by the board. The initial fee for the certificate of registration is $250 and the renewal fee for each year thereafter is $150.

(b) Each separate office location of an organization engaged in the act of selling, leasing, servicing, maintaining, or installing fire detection or fire alarm devices or systems, other than the location identified on the certificate of registration, shall have a branch office registration certificate, issued by the board. The initial fee for this branch office registration certificate is $50 and the renewal fee for each year thereafter is $50. The board shall identify each branch office location as a part of a registered organization before a branch office registration certificate may be issued.
(c) Each fire alarm installation superintendent must obtain a license issued by the board. The initial fee for the license is $25 and the renewal fee for each year thereafter is $15.

(d) No person may inspect with the intention of certifying any fire alarm or fire detection system or device unless he is the holder of a valid and current license issued pursuant to this Act.

(e) A person licensed pursuant to this Act to inspect and certify a fire alarm or fire detection system or device shall be an employee or agent of an organization that holds a valid and current certificate of registration issued pursuant to this Act.

(f) A person who sells, services, installs, or maintains fire alarm systems or fire detection devices shall be an employee or agent of an organization that holds a valid certificate of registration issued pursuant to this Act.

Powers and Duties of the State Board of Insurance

Sec. 6. The board shall delegate authority to exercise all or part of its functions, powers, and duties under this Act, including the issuance of certificates, to the state fire marshal, and the state fire marshal along with assistance of a nonbinding advisory council to be appointed by the board shall implement such rules and regulations as may be determined by the board to be essentially necessary for the protection and preservation of life and property in controlling:

(1) the registration of organizations engaging in the business of selling, servicing, installing, or maintaining fire alarm or fire detection devices and systems;

(2) the requirements for the sale, service, installation, or maintenance of fire alarm or fire detection devices or systems by:

(A) conducting examinations and evaluating the qualifications of applicants for a certificate of registration to engage in the business of selling, servicing, installing, or maintaining fire alarm or fire detection devices and systems;

(B) evaluating and determining which organizations shall be approved as testing laboratories for fire alarm and fire detection devices and systems; and

(C) evaluating and approving a required training program for all persons who engage in the business of selling, servicing, installing, or maintaining fire alarm or fire detection devices and systems.

Certain Acts Prohibited

Sec. 7. No organization pursuant to this Act may do any of the following:

(1) sell, service, install, or maintain fire alarm or fire detection devices and systems without a valid and current certificate of registration;

(2) obtain or attempt to obtain a certificate of registration by fraudulent representation; or

(3) sell, service, install, or maintain fire alarm or fire detection devices or systems contrary to the provisions of this Act or the rules and regulations formulated by the board under the authority of this Act.

Fees Collected

Sec. 8. The fees herein provided for, when collected, shall be placed with the State Treasurer in a separate fund, which shall be known as the fire alarm and detection systems fund, and expenditures shall be made from said fund as set forth in the General Appropriations Act.

Selling or Leasing Fire Alarm or Fire Detection Devices

Sec. 9. (a) No device or alarm, the sole intended purpose of which is to detect and/or give alarm of fire, may be sold, offered for sale, leased, or installed in this state unless it carries a label of approval of a nationally recognized testing laboratory or a laboratory approved by the fire marshal.

(b) No fire detection or alarm device may be sold or installed in this state unless accompanied by printed information supplied to the owner by the supplier or installing contractor concerning:

(1) instructions describing the installation, operation, testing, and proper maintenance of the device;

(2) information which will aid in establishing an emergency evacuation plan for the protected premises; and

(3) the telephone number and location, including notification procedures, of the nearest fire department.

Applications and Hearings on Licenses and Certificates

Sec. 10. (a) Applications and qualifications for certificates issued hereunder shall be made pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board.

(b) The board shall conduct hearings or proceedings concerning the suspension, revocation, or refusal of the issuance or renewal of certificates of registration or approvals of testing laboratories issued under this Act or the application to suspend, revoke, refuse to renew, or refuse to issue the same.

(c) A certificate of registration or testing laboratory approval may be denied, or same duly issued may be suspended or revoked, or the renewal thereof refused, if after notice and public hearing, the board finds from the evidence presented at said hearing...
Art. 5.43-2

INSURANCE CODE

that one or more provisions of this Act or of any rule or regulation promulgated under this Act has been violated.

Penalties

Sec. 11. (a) Any person who individually, or as an employee or agent of an organization, violates any of the provisions of this Act or order of the board made in accordance with this Act, shall forfeit to the people of the state a sum not to exceed $500 for each such violation, which may be recovered by a civil action.

(b) In addition to any other penalties, any person of an organization who performs a function that requires a certificate of registration as described herein without first obtaining such certificate of registration commits a Class B misdemeanor.

Art. 5.53-A. Home Warranty Insurance

Sec. 1. Any company licensed to engage in the business of fire insurance and its allied lines, or marine insurance, or both, is authorized to write home warranty insurance in Texas. Home warranty insurance is not inland marine insurance, but shall be governed in the same manner and to the same extent as inland marine insurance.

Sec. 2. As used in this Code, the term "home warranty insurance" means insurance assuring either

(1) performance by builders of residential property of their warranty obligations to purchasers of such property; or

(2) against named defects arising from failure of the builder to construct residential property in accordance with specified construction standards.

[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 56, ch. 32, § 1, eff. April 3, 1975.]

SUBCHAPTER G. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION AND LONGSHOREMEN'S AND HARBOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE

Art. 5.76. Prevention of Injuries and Assignment of Rejected Risks

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) and (b).]

(c) It shall be the duty of the companies and associations, members of the agency established pursuant to Paragraph (b) of this article, to provide insurance, in the manner herein provided, for any risk under the Workmen's Compensation Law of Texas, the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, and/or the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969, as amended, or for any city, county or any other political subdivision, agency or department of the State authorized to provide workmen's compensation insurance for its employees under any laws of the State of Texas, heretofore or hereafter enacted, which risk shall have been tendered to and rejected by any member of said agency. It shall be the further duty of the companies and associations, members of the agency established pursuant to Paragraph (b) of this article, to provide insurance in the manner herein provided on all policies and claims in existence for any insurance company which has been declared insolvent by the courts of this State or any other state in the same manner as if said policies had been written by servicing companies of this agency. With respect to said claims in existence at the time of said declaration of insolvency and paid by the agency, the agency shall have the same rights against the receiver of said insolvent company as are provided by the laws of this State for workmen's compensation loss claimants of the insolvent insurance company. From and after the date the rules made and adopted under Paragraph (e) have been approved by the Board the procedures and remedies established under this article shall be the sole and exclusive procedure and remedies, either at law or in equity, of any applicant for such insurance whose insurance has been rejected or cancelled by any company or association.

SUBCHAPTER J. PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE FOR PHYSICIANS, PODIATRISTS, AND HOSPITALS [NEW]

Art. 5.82. Rating Procedures

[Text of article effective until Dec. 31, 1977]

Scope of Article

Sec. 1. This article shall apply to the making and use of insurance rates by every insurer licensed to write or engage in writing professional liability insurance for any person licensed to practice medicine or podiatry or certified to administer anesthesia in this state or any hospital licensed under the Texas Hospital Licensing Law, as amended (Article 4437f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), including ratings organizations acting on behalf of insurers.
Rate Standards

Sec. 2. Rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) To the extent deemed credible, consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss experience within this state and if the loss experience within this state is not credible, then due consideration may be given to past and prospective loss experience outside this state, to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies, to dividends or savings allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders or members, to past and prospective expenses both countrywide and those specifically applicable to this state and to all other relevant factors, including trend factors, within and outside this state.

(b) Risks may be grouped by classifications, by rating schedules, or by any other reasonable methods, for the establishment of rates. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both. Such standards may measure any difference among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses.

(c) Rates shall be reasonable and shall not be excessive, inadequate, or shall they be unfairly discriminatory. No rate shall be held to be excessive unless such rate is unreasonably high for the insurance coverage provided and a reasonable degree of competition does not exist in the area with respect to the classification to which such rate is applicable. No rate shall be held to be inadequate unless such rate is unreasonably low for the insurance coverage provided and is insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses; or unless such rate is unreasonably low for the insurance coverage provided and the use of such rate has or, if continued, will have the effect of destroying competition or creating a monopoly.

Filing of Rates

Sec. 3. (a) The provisions of Article 5.15, Texas Insurance Code, shall apply to the filing of rates and rating information required under this article.

(b) Nothing contained in this article or Chapter 5, Subchapter B of the Insurance Code concerning the regulation of rates, rating plans, and rating classifications shall, as applies to the writing of professional liability insurance for licensed hospitals, podiatrists, and physicians and certified anesthetists give the board the power to prescribe uniform or absolute rates; nor shall anything therein be construed as preventing the filing of different rates for risks in a given classification or modified rates for individual risks made in accordance with rating plans, as filed by different insurers or organizations authorized to file such rates. As used in this subsection, "absolute rates" mean rates, rating classifications, or rating plans filed by an insurer or authorized rating organization in accordance with Chapter 5, Subchapter B, Insurance Code, which rates, rating classifications, or rating plans so filed are required to be used, to the exclusion of all others, by each insurer lawfully engaged in writing policies of insurance.

(c) The provisions of Article 5.18 of this chapter shall apply to this subchapter.

Time for Filing Claims

Sec. 4. Notwithstanding any other law, no claim against a person or hospital covered by a policy of professional liability insurance covering a person licensed to practice medicine or podiatry or certified to administer anesthesia in this state or a hospital licensed under the Texas Hospital Licensing Law, as amended (Article 4437f, Vernon's Texas Statutes), whether for breach of express or implied contract or tort, for compensation for a medical treatment or hospitalization may be commenced unless the action is filed within two years of the breach or the tort complained of or from the date the medical treatment that is the subject of the claim or the hospitalization for which the claim is made is completed, except that minors under the age of six years shall have until their eighth birthday in which to file, or have filed on their behalf, such claim. Except as herein provided, this section applies to all persons regardless of minority or other legal disability.

Reporting of Claims and Claims Information

Sec. 5. Each insurer who issues policies of professional liability insurance covering persons licensed to practice medicine or podiatry or certified to administer anesthesia in this state or hospitals licensed under the Texas Hospital Licensing Law, as amended (Article 4437f, Vernon's Texas Statutes), shall file annually with the State Board of Insurance a report of all claims and amount of claims, amounts of claims reserves, information relating to amounts of judgments and settlements paid on claims, and other information required by the board. The board is hereby empowered to formulate and promulgate a form upon which such information shall be reported. The form shall be so devised as to require the information to be reported in an accurate manner, reasonably calculated to facilitate interpretation.

Annual Premiums

Sec. 6. Policies of professional liability insurance under this article shall be written on not less than an annual premium basis.
Notice of Cancellation or Nonrenewal

Sec. 7. An insurer who issues a policy of professional liability insurance covered by this article shall give at least 90 days' written notice to an insured if premiums on the insurance are to be increased or the policy is to be cancelled or nonrenewed other than for nonpayment of premiums or because the insured is no longer licensed. If the premiums are to be increased, the notice shall state the amount of the increase, and if the policy is to be cancelled or nonrenewed, the insurer shall state in the notice the reason for cancellation.

Maintenance Tax and Other Provisions

Sec. 8. (a) Insurance written pursuant to this subchapter shall also be subject to the provisions of Article 5.24, Texas Insurance Code.

(b) The State Board of Insurance shall make necessary rules and regulations to effectuate the purposes of this article.

Art. 5.82 INSURANCE CODE 650

CHAPTER SIX. FIRE AND MARINE COMPANIES

Article 6.01-A. Reserving Home Warranty Insurance [NEW]

Art. 6.01-A. Reserving Home Warranty Insurance

Sec. 1. Every company writing home warranty insurance in Texas shall maintain reinsurance or unearned premium reserves on all policies in force.

Sec. 2. The reserves on home warranty insurance shall be computed in the same manner and to the same extent as fire insurance is reserved in accordance with Article 6.01 of this Code.

Art. 9.01. Short Title and Legislative Purpose and Intent

A. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the “Texas Title Insurance Act.”

B. The Legislature of the State of Texas finds that the business of title insurance, both the direct issuance of policies and the reinsurance of any assumed risks, of every type, shall in all respects be totally regulated by the State of Texas so as to provide for the protection of every consumer and purchar of a title insurance policy. It is the express legislative intent that this Chapter 9 accomplish such a result.

Art. 9.02. Definitions

(a) “Title Insurance” means insuring, guaranteeing or indemnifying owners of real property or others interested therein against loss or damage suffered by reason of liens, encumbrances upon, or defects in the title to said property, and the invalidity of liens thereon, or doing any business in substance equivalent to any of the foregoing in a manner designed to evade the provisions of this Act.

(b) The “business of title insurance” shall be deemed to be (1) the making as insurer, guarantor or surety, or proposing to make as insurer, guarantor or surety, of any contract or policy of title insurance; (2) the transacting or proposing to transact, any phase of title insurance, including solicitation, negotiation preliminary to execution, execution of a contract of title insurance, insuring and transacting matters subsequent to the execution of the contract and arising out of it, including reinsurance; or (3) the doing, or proposing to do, any business in substance equivalent to any of the foregoing in a manner designed to evade the provisions of this Act.

(c) “Title Insurance Company” means any domestic company organized under the provisions of this Act for the purpose of insuring titles to real property, any title insurance company organized under the laws of another state or foreign government meeting the requirements of this Act and holding a certificate of authority to transact business in Texas and any domestic or foreign company having a certificate of authority to insure titles to real estate within this state and which meet the requirements of this Act.

(d) “Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Texas.

(e) “Board” means the State Board of Insurance of the State of Texas.

(f) “Title Insurance Agent” means a person, firm, association, or corporation owning or leasing and controlling an abstract plant as defined by the Board, or as a participant in a bona fide joint abstract plant operation as defined by the Board, and authorized in writing by a title insurance company to solicit insurance and collect premiums and to issue or countersign policies in its behalf.

(g) "Escrow Officer" means an officer or employee of a title insurance agent whose duties include any or all of the following:

1. Countersigning title insurance policies, commitments and binders;
2. Supervising the preparation and delivery of title insurance policies, commitments and binders;
3. Receiving, handling, or disbursing escrow funds; provided that no clerical employees who perform any of the above duties under the direction and control of an escrow officer shall be included in this definition.

(h) "Foreign Title Insurance Company" means a title insurance company organized under the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Texas.

(i) "Abstract plant" as used herein shall mean a geographical abstract plant such as is defined by the Board from time to time and the Board, in defining an abstract plant, shall require a geographically arranged plant, currently kept to date, that is found by the Board to be adequate for use in insuring titles, so as to provide for the safety and protection of the policyholders.

(j) "Residential real property" means any real property which has improvements thereon and is designed principally for the occupancy of one to four families (including individual units of condominiums and cooperatives).

(k) "Thing of value" includes any payment, advance, funds, loan, service, or other consideration.

(l) "Person" includes individuals, corporations, associations, partnerships and trusts.

Art. 9.06. Capital Stock and Surplus Required

Except as provided by Article 9.56, Section 4A of this Chapter 9, all title insurance companies created and operating under the provisions of this Chapter must have a paid up capital of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) and a surplus of not less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000), provided, however, that the minimum unimpaired capital and surplus for a corporation which was authorized to transact title insurance business on the effective date of this Chapter and which on that date had an unimpaired capital of less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) and a surplus of less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000) shall be as follows:

(a) Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) capital and One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) surplus until July 1, 1976;

(b) From July 1, 1976, to July 1, 1977, Five Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($525,000) capital and One Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars ($160,000) surplus;

(c) From July 1, 1977, to July 1, 1978, Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($650,000) capital and Two Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($220,000) surplus;

(d) From July 1, 1978, to July 1, 1979, Seven Hundred Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($775,000) capital and Two Hundred Eighty Thousand Dollars ($280,000) surplus;

(e) From July 1, 1979, to July 1, 1980, Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($900,000) capital and Three Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($340,000) surplus; and

(f) After July 1, 1980, every such corporation shall be required to have and maintain unimpaired capital of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) and surplus of not less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000) as otherwise required by this Chapter.

Art. 9.07. Policy Forms and Premiums

Corporations organized under this Chapter, as well as foreign corporations and those created under Subdivision 57, Article 1302, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, or under Chapter 8 of this Code, or any other law insofar as the business of either may be the business of title insurance, shall operate in Texas under the control and supervision and under such uniform rules and regulations as to forms of policies and underwriting contracts and premiums therefor, and such underwriting standards and practices as may be from time to time prescribed by the Board; and no Texas or foreign corporation, whether incorporated under this Chapter or any other law of the State of Texas, shall be permitted to issue any title policy of any character, or underwriting contract, or reinsure any portion of the risk assumed by any title policy, on Texas real property other than under this Chapter under such rules and regulations. No policy of title insurance, reinsurance of any risk assumed under any policy of title insurance, or any guarantee of any character on Texas titles shall be issued or valid unless written by a corporation complying with all provisions of and authorized or qualified under this Chapter, except as is provided in Article 9.19D. Before any premium rate provided for herein shall be fixed or charged, reasonable notice shall issue, and a hearing afforded to the title insurance companies and title insurance agents authorized or qualified under this Chapter and the public. Under no circumstances may any title insurance company or title insurance agent use any form which is required under the provisions of this Chapter 9 to be promulgated or approved until the same shall have been so promulgated or approved by the Board.

The Board shall have the duty to fix and promulgate the premium rates to be charged by title insurance companies and title insurance agents created or operating under this Chapter for policies of title insurance or other promulgated or approved forms, and the premiums therefor shall be paid in the due and ordinary course of business. Premium rates for reinsurance as between title insurance companies qualified under this Chapter shall not be fixed or promulgated by the Board, and title insurance companies may set such premium rates for reinsurance as such title insurance companies shall agree upon.

Under no circumstance shall any premium be charged for any policy of title insurance or other promulgated or approved forms different from those fixed and promulgated by the Board, except for premiums charged for reinsurance. The premium rates fixed by the Board shall be reasonable to the public and nonconfiscatory as to the title insurance companies and title insurance agents. For the purpose of collecting data on which to determine the proper rates to be fixed, the Board shall require all title insurance companies and all title insurance agents operating in Texas to submit such information in such form as it may deem proper, all information as to loss experience, expense of operation, and other material matter for the Board's consideration.

The Board shall hold an annual hearing during November of each calendar year, commencing in 1975, to consider adoption of premium rates and such other matters and subjects relative to the regulation of the business of title insurance as may be requested by any title insurance company, any title insurance agent, any member of the public, or as the Board may determine necessary to consider. Proper notice of such public hearing and the items to be considered shall be made to the public and shall be sent direct to all title insurance companies and title insurance agents qualified or authorized to do business under this Chapter for at least four (4) weeks in advance of such hearing.

Premium rates when once fixed shall not be changed until after a public hearing shall be had by the Board, after proper notice sent direct to all title insurance companies and title insurance agents qualified or authorized to do business under this Chapter, and after public notice in such manner as to give fair publicity thereto for at least four (4) weeks in advance. The Board must call such additional hearing to consider premium rate changes at the request of a title insurance company.

The Board may, on its own motion, following notice as required for the annual hearing hold at any time a public hearing to consider adoption of premium rates and such other matters and subjects relative to the regulation of the business of title insurance as the Board shall determine necessary or proper.

Any title insurance company, any title insurance agent, or other person interested, feeling injured by any action of the Board with regard to premium rates or other action taken by the Board, shall have the right to file a suit in the District Court of Travis County, within thirty (30) days after the Board has made such order, to review the action. Such cases shall be tried de novo in the District Court in accordance with the provisions of Article 21.44 of the Insurance Code and shall be governed by the same rules of evidence and procedure as other civil cases in said court; in which suit the court may enter a judgment setting aside the Board's order, or affirming the action of the Board.

Art. 9.09. Prohibiting Transacting of Other Kinds of Insurance by Title Insurance Companies or the Transacting of Title Insurance by Other Types of Insurance Companies

Corporations, domestic or foreign, operating under this Chapter shall not transact, underwrite or issue any kind of insurance other than title insurance on real property; nor shall title insurance be transacted, underwritten or issued by any company transacting any other kinds of insurance; provided, however, that the above prohibitions shall not apply as to any corporation, domestic or foreign, which on October 1, 1967 was transacting, underwriting and issuing within the State of Texas title insurance and any other kind of insurance. Any corporation now organized and doing business under the provisions of Chapter 8 and actively writing title insurance shall be subject to all the provisions of this Chapter except Article 9.18 relating to investments.

Art. 9.11. Revocation of Right to do Business

Any foreign or domestic corporations issuing any form of title insurance policy or other promulgated or approved forms, or charging any premium rates on an owner, mortgagee, or other title insurance policy, or on other promulgated or approved forms, except for the premium rates charged for reinsurance, on Texas real property other than forms and premium rates prescribed by the Board, under the provisions of this Chapter shall forfeit its right to do business in this state. The provisions of this Article 9.11 shall not, however, be applicable to premium rates charged in connection with reinsurance transactions between or among title insurance companies doing business under the provisions of this Chapter, provided any such reinsurance contract complies with the provisions of Article 9.19 of this Chapter. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1068, ch. 409, § 6, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 9.13. Fees
The general laws applicable to payment of filing fees of corporations having capital stock are hereby made applicable to corporations coming under the provisions of this Chapter. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 7, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

The original charter of corporations doing the business of title insurance and incorporated under the provisions of this Chapter, or under Subdivision 57, Article 1302, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, or under Article 1302a, Texas Civil Statutes (Acts 1929, 41st Legislature, page 383, Chapter 245, Section 1) or under any other law regardless of the nature of such amendment, shall be certified only to and filed only with the Board, and only the Board shall collect from the said companies filing fees required under the law. All other laws or parts of laws, to the extent that the same are in conflict with the provisions of this Article, shall not hereafter apply to such corporations. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 8, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 9.15. Certificate of Authority
The Board after having satisfied itself by such investigation as it may deem proper with reference to the payment of capital stock and surplus as required by this Chapter 9, and the value of the assets offered in payment thereof (the expense of which examination shall be borne by the title insurance company), shall issue to such title insurance company a certificate of authority to transact the character of business provided for in this Chapter on either an annual or a continuing basis. No title insurance company, domestic or foreign, shall transact business under this Chapter unless it shall hold a valid certificate of authority. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 9, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 9.19. Maximum Liability
A. No title insurance company operating under the provisions of this Chapter shall issue any policy of title insurance on any real property located within the State of Texas involving a potential liability by virtue of such policy of more than fifty (50%) percent of the capital stock and surplus as stated in the most recent annual statement of the company unless the excess shall in due course be reinsured in some other title insurance company authorized to do business in Texas under this Chapter. Each title insurance company authorized to do business under the provisions of this Chapter may reinsure any or all of its policies and contracts issued on real property situated within the State of Texas, provided:

(i) the reinsuring title insurance company shall be licensed to do business in the State of Texas under the provisions of this Chapter; and
(ii) the form of the reinsurance contract shall be approved in advance by the Board.
B. If the Board has first approved one or more forms of reinsurance contracts for a title insurance company, such title insurance company may thereafter continue using such form or forms without submitting individual reinsurance contracts to the Board. Authority is reserved to the Board, however, to alter the required form so previously approved by it after first giving written notice to the title insurance company or title insurance companies affected by such required change.
C. No title insurance company authorized to do business in Texas under the provisions of this Chapter may accept reinsurance risks on real property situated within the State of Texas except from other title insurance companies holding a certificate of authority to do business in the State of Texas under the provisions of this Chapter.
D. The Board may, however, upon application and hearing permit any title insurance company licensed to do business in this State under this Chapter to acquire reinsurance upon an individual policy or facultative basis from title insurance companies not licensed to do business in this State, provided:

(i) any such non-admitted foreign title insurance company has a combined capital and surplus of at least $1,400,000 evidenced by its annual statement last preceding the acceptance of such reinsurance; and
(ii) any such title insurance company so authorized to do business under this Chapter has exhausted the opportunity to acquire such reinsurance from all other title insurance companies so authorized to do business under the provisions of this Chapter.

Art. 9.25. Capital and Surplus Required; Foreign Corporations
No foreign corporation shall conduct the business of title insurance in this state unless it shall show from its financial statement and such other examination as the Board may desire to make, an unimpaired capital of not less than One Million Dollars
Art. 9.25  INSURANCE CODE

($1,000,000.00) and surplus of not less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00), provided, however, that the minimum unimpaired capital and surplus requirements for a foreign corporation operating under a certificate of authority on the effective date of this Chapter, which corporation on such date had an unimpaired capital of less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) and surplus of less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00) shall be as follows:

(a) Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) capital and One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) surplus until July 1, 1976;

(b) From July 1, 1976, to July 1, 1977, Five Hundred Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($525,000.00) capital and One Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars ($160,000.00) surplus;

(c) From July 1, 1977, to July 1, 1978, Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($650,000.00) capital and Two Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($220,000.00) surplus;

(d) From July 1, 1978, to July 1, 1979, Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($775,000.00) capital and Two Hundred Eighty Thousand Dollars ($280,000.00) surplus;

(e) From July 1, 1979, to July 1, 1980, Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($900,000.00) capital and Three Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($340,000.00) surplus; and

(f) After July 1, 1980, every such corporation shall be required to have and maintain unimpaired capital of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) and surplus of not less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00) as otherwise required by this Chapter.

Art. 9.30  Rebates and Discounts

A. No commission, rebate, discount, or other thing of value shall be paid, allowed or permitted by any title insurance company, domestic or foreign, or by any title insurance agent doing the business of title insurance provided for in this Chapter, relating to title policies or underwriting contracts and no portion of any premium shall be paid to any person for soliciting or referring title insurance business; provided this Article 9.30 shall not prevent any title insurance company, domestic or foreign, doing business under this Chapter, from appointing as its title insurance agent and making such arrangements for division of premiums as may be approved by the Board.

B. No person shall give and no person shall accept any portion, split, or percentage of any charge made or received for the rendering of a real estate settlement or closing in connection with a transaction involving the conveyance or mortgaging of real estate located in the State of Texas other than for services actually performed.

C. Nothing in this Article 9.30 shall, however, be construed as prohibiting (a) the payment of a fee to attorneys at law for services actually rendered or (b) the payment to any person of a bona fide salary, compensation or other payment for goods or facilities actually furnished or for services actually performed.

Art. 9.40  Right of Title Insurance Company to Examine Agent's Trust Fund Accounts and to Require Reports

Any title insurance company may at such time or times as it sees fit, through its examiners or auditors or through independent certified public accountants commissioned by it, examine the trust fund accounts and records pertaining thereto of any of its title insurance agents, such examination to be made at the expense of the title insurance company; or the title insurance company may require special reports from any such agent regarding any of its transactions. Each title insurance company shall periodically, but at least every two years, audit the unused forms in the possession of each of its title insurance agents so as to determine that all used forms have been reported to the title insurance company. A report of each such audit shall be made to the State Board of Insurance.

Art. 9.48  Title Insurance Guaranty

Title

Sec. 1. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Title Insurance Guaranty Act."

Purpose

Sec. 2. This article is for the purposes and findings set forth in Section 1 of Article 21.28-A of the Insurance Code and in supplementation thereto by providing funds in addition to assets of impaired insurers for the protection of the holders of "covered claims" as defined herein through payment and through contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or of substitution or otherwise.

Scope

Sec. 3. This article shall apply only to all title insurance (direct and reinsurance) written by title insurance companies authorized to do business in this state and doing business under and regulated by the provisions of this Chapter 9.
Sec. 4. This article shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose under Section 2 which shall constitute an aid and guide to interpretation.

Sec. 5. As used in this article

(1) A. “State Board of Insurance” is the State Board of Insurance of this State.

B. “Commissioner” is the Commissioner of Insurance of this State.

(2) “Covered claim” is an unpaid claim of an insured which arises out of and is within the coverage and not in excess of the applicable limits of a title insurance policy to which this article applies, issued or assumed (whereby an assumption certificate is issued) by an insurer licensed to do business in this state and covered by this article, if such insurer becomes an “impaired insurer” after the effective date of this article and the insured real property (or lien thereon) is located within this state. Individual “covered claims” shall be limited to $100,000 and shall not include any amount in excess of $100,000. “Covered claim” shall also include any sum up to $100,000 for which any insurer is liable in connection with the fidelity or solvency of any title insurance agent of such insurer as authorized by Article 9.49 of this chapter of this code. “Covered claim” shall not include any amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association, as subrogation recoveries or otherwise. “Covered claim” shall not include supplementary payment obligations, including but not limited to adjustment fees and expenses, attorneys’ fees and expenses, court costs, interest, and bond premiums, incurred prior to the determination that an insurer is an “impaired insurer” under this article.

(3) “Insurer” is any title insurance company authorized to do business in this state, and doing business under and regulated by the provisions of this Chapter 9.

(4) “Impaired insurer” is (a) an insurer which, after the effective date of this article, is placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction based on a finding of insolvency, and which has been designated an “impaired insurer” by the commissioner; or (b) after the effective date of this article, an insurer placed in conservatorship after it has been deemed by the commissioner to be insolvent and which has been designated an “impaired insurer” by the commissioner.

(5) “Payment of covered claims” is actual payment of claims and also is the utilization of funds of the impaired insurer and funds derived from assessments for consummation of contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities arising from covered claims.

(6) “Net direct written premiums” is the gross amount of premiums paid by policyholders for issuance of policies of title insurance insuring risks located in this state and to which this article applies. The term does not include premiums for reinsurance accepted from other licensed insurers, and there shall be no deductions for premiums for reinsurance ceded to other insurers.

Assessments

Sec. 6. Whenever the commissioner determines that an insurer has become an impaired insurer, the receiver appointed in accordance with Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code or the conservator appointed under the authority of Article 21.28-A or Article 9.29 of the Insurance Code shall promptly estimate the amount of additional funds needed to supplement the assets of the impaired insurer immediately available to the receiver or the conservator for the purpose of making payment of all covered claims. Thereafter, the commissioner shall be empowered to make such assessments as may be necessary to produce the additional funds needed to make payment of all covered claims. The commissioner may make partial assessments as the actual need for additional funds arises for each impaired insurer.

The commissioner shall assess individual insurers in proportion to the ratio that the total net direct written premium collected in the State of Texas by the insurer during the next preceding year bears to the total net direct written premium collected by all insurers (except impaired insurers) in the State of Texas. Assessments during a calendar year may be made up to, but not in excess of, two percent of each insurer’s net direct written premium for the preceding calendar year. If the maximum assessment in any calendar year does not provide an amount sufficient for payment of covered claims of impaired insurers, assessments may be made in the next successive calendar years.

Insurers designated as impaired insurers by the commissioner shall be exempt from assessment from and after the date of such designation and until the commissioner determines that such insurer is no longer an impaired insurer.

The commissioner shall designate the impaired insurer for which each assessment or partial assessment is made and it shall be the duty of each insurer to pay the amount of its assessment to the conservator or receiver, as the case may be, within 30 days after the commissioner gives notice of the assessment, and assessments may be collected by the con-said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. Neither the receiver nor the conservator shall be required to give an appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Funds derived from assessments under the provisions of this article shall not become assets of the impaired insurer but shall be deemed a special fund loaned to the receiver or the conservator for payment of covered claims, which loan shall be repayable to the extent available from the funds of such impaired insurer, as herein provided.

No insurer shall be deemed or considered to have or incur any liability, real or contingent, under the provisions of this Article 9.48 of this Chapter 9 until any such assessment shall have been actually made in writing by the commissioner under the provisions of this Article 9.48.

Penalty for Failure to Pay Assessments

Sec. 7. The commissioner may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of any insurer who fails to pay an assessment when due.

Any insurer whose certificate or authority to do business in this state is cancelled or surrendered shall be liable for any unpaid assessments made prior to the date of such cancellation or surrender.

Accounting for and Repayment of Assessments

Sec. 8. Upon receipt from an insurer of payment of an assessment or partial assessment, the receiver or conservator shall provide the insurer with a participation receipt which shall create a liability against the impaired insurer, and the holder of such participation receipt shall be regarded as a general creditor of the impaired insurer; provided, however, that with reference to the remaining balance of any portions of assessments received by the receiver or conservator and not expended in payment of "covered claims," the holders of such participation receipts shall have preference over other general creditors and shall share pro rata with other holders of participation receipts. The receiver or conservator of any impaired insurer shall adopt accounting procedures reflecting the expenditure and use of all funds received from assessments or partial assessments and shall make a final report of the expenditure and use of such funds to the commissioner, which final report shall set forth the remaining balance, if any, from the funds collected by assessment. The receiver or conservator shall also make any interim reports concerning such accounting as may be required by the commissioner. Upon completion of the final report, the receiver or conservator shall, as soon thereafter as is practicable, refund pro rata the remaining balance of such assessments to the holders of the participation receipts.

Payment of Covered Claims

Sec. 9. When an insurer has been designated by the commissioner as an impaired insurer, the receiver or conservator, as the case may be, shall marshal all assets of the impaired insurer, including but not limited to those which are designated as or that constituted reserve assets offsetting reserve liabilities for all liabilities falling within the definition of "covered claim" as defined in this article. The receiver or conservator shall apply all of such assets to the payment of covered claims, but may utilize funds received from assessments in the payment of claims, pending orderly liquidation or disposition of such assets. When all covered claims have been paid or satisfied by the receiver or conservator, any balance remaining from the liquidation or disposition of such assets shall first be applied in repayment of funds expended from assessments. Such repayments shall be credited as remaining balances and be refunded as provided in Section 9 of this article.

In addition to authorization to make actual payment of covered claims, the receiver or conservator is specifically authorized to utilize such marshalled assets and funds derived from assessments for the purpose of negotiating and consummating contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for outstanding liabilities of covered claims. The commissioner shall not require the insurer that reinsures or assumes the policies of the impaired insurer or enters into an agreement to substitute itself in the place of the impaired insurer, to issue assumption certificates or other written evidence of such agreement to the policyholders of the impaired insurer, except to policyholders that have made a claim for loss arising under their policy (issued by the impaired insurer) before the date of such reinsurance, assumption or substitution agreement. The commissioner shall require that the reinsurance, assumption, or substitution agreement be filed as a public record with the State Board of Insurance. The commissioner shall approve such agreement unless, after public hearing held within 30 days following such filing, he determines that such agreement does not effectively protect the policyholders of the insurers to give notice of such hearing to its policyholders. Such notice shall be by publication, not less than seven days in advance of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation printed in the State of Texas. No cause of action shall lie against the impaired insurer for breach of contract or refund of premium after the agreement has been approved by the commissioner and the notice of hearing before the commissioner shall so advise the policyholders of the impaired insurer.

This article shall not be construed to impose restriction or limitation upon the authority granted or authorized the commissioner, the conservator, or the receiver elsewhere in the Insurance Code and other statutes of this state but shall be construed and authorized for use in conjunction with other portions of the Insurance Code dealing with delinquency proceedings or threatened insolvencies or supervisions or conservatorships.

Approval of Covered Claims

Sec. 10. Covered claims against an impaired insurer placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be processed and acted upon by the receiver or ancillary receiver in the same manner as other claims as provided in Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code and as ordered by the court in which such receivership is pending; provided, however, that funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the receiver and the amount of the assets marshalled by the receiver for payment to holders of covered claims; and provided further that in ancillary receiverships in this state, funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the ancillary receiver and the amount of assets marshalled by the receivers in other states for application to payment of covered claims within this state. Such funds received from assessments shall not be liable for any amount over and above that approved by the receiver for a covered claim, and any action brought by the holder of such covered claim appealing from the receiver's action shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the receiver may review his action in approving a covered claim and for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the receivership.

If a conservator is appointed to handle the affairs of an impaired insurer, the conservator shall determine whether or not covered claims should or can be provided for in whole or in part by reinsurance, assumption, or substitution. Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made, the conservator shall give notice of such determination to claimants falling within the class of "covered claims." The conservator shall mail such notice to the latest address reflected in the records of the impaired insurer. If the records of the impaired insurer do not reflect the address of a claimant, the conservator may give notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation. Such notice shall state the time within which the claimant must file his claim with the conservator, which time shall in no event be less than 90 days from the date of the mailing or publication of such notice. The conservator may require, in whole or in part, that sworn claim forms be filed and may require that additional information or evidence be filed as may be reasonably necessary for the conservator to determine the legality or the amount due under a covered claim. When an impaired insurer has been placed in conservatorship, the funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claim approved by the conservator and the amount of assets marshalled by the conservator for payment to holders of covered claims. Any action brought by the holder of such covered claim against the impaired insurer shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the conservator may review his action in approving a covered claim and may for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the conservatorship.

Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made or upon order of the court to the receiver to give notice for the filing of claims, any person who has a cause of action against an insured of the impaired insurer under a title insurance policy issued or assumed by such insurer shall, if such cause of action meets the definition of "covered claim," have the right to file a claim with the receiver or the conservator, regardless of the fact that such claim may be contingent, and such claim may be approved as a "covered claim" (1) if it may be reasonably inferred from the proof presented upon such claim that such person would be able to obtain a judgment upon such cause of action against such insured; and (2) if such person shall furnish suitable proof that no further valid claims against such insurer arising out of his cause of action other than those already presented can be made; and (3) if the total liability of such insurer to all claimants arising from the same title insurance policy shall be no greater than its total liability would be were it not in liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation. In the proceedings of considering "covered claims," no judgment against an insured taken after the date of the commencement of the delinquency proceedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as evidence of liability, or of the amount of damages, and no judgment against an insured taken by default or by collusion prior to the commencement of the delinquency pro-ceeedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as conclusive evidence either (1) of the liability of such insured to such person upon such cause of action, or (2) of the amount of damages to which such person is therein entitled.

The acceptance of payment from the receiver or conservator by the holder of a covered claim or the acceptance of the benefits of contracts negotiated by the receiver or conservator providing for reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or for substitution shall constitute an assignment to the impaired insurer of any cause of action or right of the holder of such covered claim arising from the occurrence upon which the covered claim is based. Such assignment shall be to the extent of the amount accepted or the value of the benefits provided by such contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or substitution. Such assignment to the impaired insurer may be assigned to the insurer executing such reinsurance, assumption or substitution agreement.

Release From Conservatorship or Receivership

Sec. 11. An impaired insurer placed in conservatorship or receivership for which assessments have been made under the provisions of this article shall not be authorized, upon release from conservatorship or receivership, to issue new or renewal insurance policies until such time as the impaired insurer has repaid pro rata in full to each holder of a participation receipt the assessment amount paid by the receipt holder or its assignee; provided, however, the commissioner may, in approving such reinsurances, assumption or substitution agreements, constitute an assignment to the impaired insurer of any cause of action or right of the holder of such covered claim arising from the occurrence upon which the covered claim is based. Such assignment shall be to the extent of the amount accepted or the value of the benefits provided by such contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or substitution. Such assignment to the impaired insurer may be assigned to the insurer executing such reinsurance, assumption or substitution agreement.

Creation of Advisory Association

Sec. 12. There is created by this article an advisory association to be known as the “Texas Title Insurance Advisory Association”, herein called the “advisory association”, to be composed of four insurers. Within 30 days after the effective date of this article, the State Board of Insurance shall appoint the insurers who will serve as the initial advisory association. Of the initial advisory association members, one shall be appointed to serve for a one-year term of office, one shall be appointed to serve for a two-year term of office, one shall be appointed to serve for a three-year term of office, and one shall be appointed to serve a four-year term of office. Subsequent members of the advisory association shall serve for the term of office as stated above and shall be elected by insurers, subject to the approval by the commissioner.

The initial members of the advisory association and subsequent members shall be chosen to afford fair representation to all insurers subject to this article, giving due consideration to geographical location and segments of the industry represented in Texas. Vacancies on the advisory association shall be filled for the remaining period of the term in the same manner as the initial appointments.

The advisory association shall conduct its meetings in Austin, Texas, in the Insurance Building of the State of Texas. Meetings shall be held upon call by the commissioner or upon written request of a majority of the members. Meetings shall not be open to the public, and only members of the advisory association, members of the State Board of Insurance, the commissioner, and persons authorized by the commissioner shall attend such meetings.

The advisory association shall advise and counsel with the commissioner upon matters relating to the solvency of insurers. The commissioner shall call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that an insurer is insolvent or impaired and may call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that a danger of insolvency or impairment of an insurer exists. The advisory association shall, upon majority vote, notify the commissioner of any information indicating that an insurer may be unable or potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations and request a meeting with the commissioner. At such meetings the commissioner may divulge to the advisory association any information in his possession and any records of the State Board of Insurance, including examination reports or preliminary reports from examiners relating to such insurer. The commissioner may summon officers, directors, and employees of an insolvent or impaired insurer, or an insurer the commissioner considers to be in danger of insolvency or impairment, to appear before the advisory association for conference or for the taking of testimony. Members of the advisory association shall not reveal information received in such meetings to anyone unless authorized by the commissioner or the State Board of Insurance or when required as witness in court. Advisory association members shall be subject to the same standard of confidentiality as is imposed upon examiners under Article 1.18 of the Insurance Code, except that no bond shall be required of advisory association members.

The advisory association shall, upon request by the commissioner, attend hearings before the commissioner and meet with and advise the commissioner, the liquidator or conservator appointed by the commissioner, on matters relating to the affairs of an impaired insurer and relating to action that may be taken by the commissioner, liquidator, or conservator to best protect the interests of persons holding covered claims against an impaired insurer and relating to the amount and timing of partial assessments and the marshalling of assets and the processing and handling of covered claims.

Reports or recommendations made by the advisory association to the commissioner, liquidator, or conservator shall not be considered public documents, and there shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action against a member of the advisory association or the advisory association for any report, individual report, recommendation or individual recommendation by the advisory association or members to the commissioner, liquidator, or conservator.

Members shall serve without pay, but their expenses in attending meetings shall be paid subject to the authorization by the legislature in its appropriations bills or otherwise, and subject to the rules of the State Board of Insurance. Members shall serve until their successors are appointed.

Any insurer that has an officer, director, or employee serving as a member of the advisory association shall not lose the right to negotiate for and enter into contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liability or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities covered claims with the receiver or conservator of an impaired insurer. The entering into any such contract shall not be deemed a conflict of interest.

The advisory association or any insurer assessed under this article shall be an interested party under Section 3(h) of Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code.

The State Board of Insurance shall within 90 days after the effective date of this article promulgate reasonable organizational rules for the association which shall set forth, among other things, quorum and attendance requirements for meetings, procedural rules to be followed at association meetings and rules concerning the replacement of members.

Recognition of Assessments in Rates and Premium Tax Offset

Sec. 13. Insurers shall be entitled to recoup assessments up to one percent of their net direct written premiums from rates promulgated, established, or approved by the State Board of Insurance in the next calendar year. The State Board of Insurance in promulgating, establishing, or approving rates shall take into account assessments and refunds of assessments made in accordance with this article and shall include in the formula forming the basis for promulgating, establishing, or approving rates sums sufficient to provide for such recoupment.

Unless the State Board of Insurance has determined that all amounts paid by each insurer on assessments on total net direct written premiums have been included in the rates and premiums as provided above, any amounts not so included shall be allowed to such insurer as a credit against its premium tax under Article 7064, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The tax credit referred to herein shall be allowed at a rate of 20 percent per year for five successive years following the date of assessment and at the option of the insurer may be taken over an additional number of years.

Advertisement

Sec. 14. It shall be unlawful for an insurer to advertise or refer to this Act in any manner as an inducement to the purchase of title insurance.

Immunity

Sec. 15. There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any insurer subject to this article or its agents or employees, the advisory association, or the commissioner or his representatives for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this article.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 16. The State Board of Insurance is authorized and directed to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the various purposes and provisions of this article and in augmentation thereof.

Appeals

Sec. 17. Any action or ruling of the commissioner under this article may be appealed as provided in Article 1.04 of the Insurance Code, as amended. The liability of the appealing insurer for an assessment shall be suspended pending appeal by such insurer contesting the amount or legality of such assessment.

Control Over Conflicts

Sec. 18. The provisions of this article and the powers and functions authorized by this article are to be exercised to the end that its purposes are accomplished. This article is cumulative of existing laws, but in the event of conflict between this article and any other law relating to the subject matter of this article or its application, the provisions of this article shall control.

Unconstitutional Application Prohibited

Sec. 19. This article and law does not apply to any insurer or other person to whom, under the
Art. 9.48

Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Texas, it cannot validly apply.

Art. 9.49. Insured Closing

Title insurance companies operating under the provisions of this chapter are hereby expressly authorized and empowered to issue upon request on real property transactions in this state at no charge whatever insured closing and settlement letters, in the form prescribed by the board, in connection with the closing and settlement of loans made by title insurance agents for any title insurance company operating under the provisions of this chapter. After January 1, 1976, only the form prescribed by the board shall be used thereafter in issuing such insured closing and settlement letters. The liability of the title insurance company shall not be changed or altered by the failure of the title insurance company to issue such insured closing and settlement letters as authorized by this Article 9.49.

Art. 9.50. Home Solicitation Transactions Act as Consumer Protection Law

Chapter 246, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 5069–13.01 through Article 5069–13.06, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall be deemed and considered a consumer protection law when construed in connection with any policy of title insurance issued in this state.

Art. 9.51. Title Insurance Agents Right to Surrender License

No title insurance agent shall be permitted to surrender his license under the provisions of Article 9.37 of this Chapter 9 if, prior to the offer to surrender such license, an action shall have been commenced under the provisions of Article 9.37 by the commissioner of insurance for revocation of such person's title insurance agent's license.

Art. 9.52. Escrow Officer's Right to Surrender License

No escrow officer shall be permitted to surrender his license under the provisions of Article 9.44 of this Chapter 9 if, prior to the offer to surrender such license, an action shall have been commenced under the provisions of Article 9.44 by the commissioner of insurance for revocation of such person's escrow agent's license.

Art. 9.53. Uniform Closing and Settlement Statements

On or prior to January 1, 1976, the board, after notice and hearing, shall prescribe uniform settlement and closing statement forms to be used in connection with the settlement and closing of any conveyance or mortgaging of real estate in which transaction a title insurance policy is issued by any title insurance company or title insurance agent. The board is specifically authorized to establish separate forms for transactions involving improved residential real property and for all other real property transactions. The forms prescribed by the board shall be designed so that dual forms or separate forms provided for each party to the transaction identifying only the charges made to such party may be used at any settlement or closing.

Every such settlement and closing statement furnished to a party to the transaction shall state thereon the name of any person, firm, or corporation receiving any sum from such party to the settlement or closing. The title insurance company and the title insurance agent, however, shall be required to include within the closing and settlement statement only those items of disbursement as are actually disbursed by the title insurance company or the title insurance agent. If a title is examined or any closing or settlement services rendered by an attorney, other than a full-time employee of either the title insurance company or the title insurance agent, the amount of such fee (shown as included in the premium) and the name of the attorney (which may be expressed by the name of the firm, if applicable) to whom such fee was paid shall be shown thereon. Such form shall also conspicuously and clearly itemize the charges imposed upon such party in connection with the settlement and closing. If a charge for title insurance is made to such party, the form shall state whether the title insurance premium included in such charges covers or insures the mortgagee's interest in the property, the borrower's interest, or both.

Any title insurance company or any title insurance agent may at its election use the uniform closing statement prepared under the provisions of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (Public Law 93–533)1 in lieu of the uniform closing statement prescribed by the board.

The provisions of this Article 9.53 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to the settlement or closing of any residential real estate transaction regulated by the provisions of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (Public Law 93–533).

The provisions of this Article 9.53 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to a settlement or closing if neither a title insurance company, a title insurance agent, an attorney for a title insurance company or title insur-
Art. 9.54. Advance Disclosure of Settlement Costs Involving Residential Property

Every title insurance company and every title insurance agent licensed to do business in Texas under the provisions of this Chapter 9 shall, in connection with the issuance of any type of title policy guaranteeing either a lien upon or the title to improved residential property, upon written request of the buyer, seller, or borrower prior to settlement and closing, furnish to any such requesting party to such transaction an itemized disclosure in writing, to the extent that the information is available, concerning any item or items of charges to be made for which an estimate has been made or for which notation has been made that the information is not available or that the amount shown is an estimate of such charge. Such person shall be advised in writing as to the identity of the person or organization responsible for such charges to be made for which an estimate has been made or for which notation has been made that the information is not available.

Provided, however, that the title insurance company or title insurance agent providing the disclosures of items of charge shall not be required to disclose costs or charges which the lender is required by any law to disclose to such party. Nothing contained in this Article 9.54 shall be deemed or construed as placing upon any title insurance company or title insurance agent any of the obligations imposed upon lenders by reason of the Federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (Public Law 93–533).\(^1\)

The provisions of this Article 9.54 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to a settlement or closing if neither a title insurance company, a title insurance agent, an attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent, nor a representative of the title insurance company, title insurance agent or attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent has actually handled the closing or settlement of such real estate transaction.

Art. 9.55. Requirement for Issuance of Owners and Mortgagor Title Policies in Connection With Residential Property

After January 1, 1976, whenever any improved residential real property situated in the State of Texas shall be sold and a mortgagee title policy issued to guarantee the validity of a lien thereon, the title insurance company or title insurance agent so issuing such mortgagee title policy of insurance shall also issue an owner title policy to the owner of such property and the required premium as promulgated by the board shall be charged.

The provisions of this article may, however, be rejected, provided that the person acquiring title shall, at or prior to closing and settlement, execute a written and acknowledged rejection wherein the purchaser rejects issuance of such owner title policy. The form of such rejection shall be prescribed, after notice and hearing, by the board.

The provisions of this Article 9.55 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to a settlement or closing if neither a title insurance company, a title insurance agent, an attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent, nor a representative of the title insurance company, title insurance agent or attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent has actually handled the closing or settlement of such real estate transaction.

Art. 9.56. Creation and Operation of Attorney's Title Insurance Company

Authorization; Applicability of Chapter; Legislative Intent

Sec. 1. (a) This Article 9.56 authorizes, under the limitations and express requirements as herein contained, the incorporation and operation of an "attorney's title insurance company."

(b) All provisions of Chapter 9 of this Insurance Code shall be applicable to such attorney's title insurance company as may be so incorporated, except as shall be otherwise expressly provided in this Article 9.56. The provisions of this Chapter 9 which apply to title insurance companies shall also apply to attorney's title insurance companies except as otherwise expressly provided in this Article 9.56; the provisions of this Chapter 9 which apply to title insurance agents shall also apply to title attorneys, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Article 9.56.

(c) Any rule, regulation, or promulgated premium rate heretofore adopted by the State Board of Insurance or hereafter adopted by the State Board of Insurance under the provisions of Chapter 9 of this Insurance Code shall likewise be applicable to any such attorney's title insurance company and to any title attorneys.

\(^{1}\) 12 U.S.C.A. § 2601 et seq.

1 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes '75 Supp. -43
(d) It is the express intent of the Legislature of the State of Texas that any such attorney's title insurance company as and when created shall be expressly regulated as are other title insurance companies conducting the business of title insurance under the provisions of this Chapter 9 of this Insurance Code unless expressly provided in this Article 9.56 to the contrary.

Definitions

Sec. 2. The following definitions shall be applicable to this Article 9.56 of this Chapter 9, to wit:

(a) "Attorney's title insurance" means insuring, guaranteeing, or indemnifying owners of real property or others interested therein against loss or damage suffered by reason of liens, encumbrances upon, or defects in the title to said property, and the invalidity of liens thereon, issued only in connection with and as a part of a real property transaction and title opinion of a title attorney as the term "title attorney" is defined herein, or doing any business in substance equivalent to any of the foregoing in a manner designed to evade the provisions of this Chapter 9.

(b) The "business of attorney's title insurance" shall be conducted by and through a title attorney, as herein defined, duly appointed by such attorney's title insurance company and such business of attorney's title insurance shall be deemed to be

(1) the making as insurer, guarantor, or surety, or proposing to make as insurer, guarantor, or surety, of any contract or policy of title insurance;

(2) the transacting or proposing to transact, any phase of title insurance, including solicitation, negotiation preliminary to execution, execution of a contract of title insurance, insuring and transacting matters subsequent to the execution of the contract and arising out of it, including reinsurance; or

(3) the doing, or proposing to do, any business in substance equivalent to any of the foregoing in a manner designed to evade the provisions of this Chapter 9, all as a part of a real estate transaction and title opinion of a title attorney.

(c) "Attorney's title insurance company" means any domestic company organized under the provisions of this chapter for the business of attorney's title insurance.

(d) "Title attorney" means any attorney who

(1) is a member in good standing of the State Bar of Texas; and

(2) owns one or more shares of stock in the attorney's title insurance company by which he is appointed a title attorney under this section; and

(3) is actively engaged in the practice of law; and

(4) owns or leases and controls an abstract plant as defined by the board, or is a participant in a bona fide joint plant operation as defined by the board, or has a contract to obtain title information from an abstract plant licensed by the board (which said contract is upon the form promulgated by the board and the portion of the premium to be paid to the owner or the operator of said abstract plant has been approved by the board), or who is the appointed title attorney for an attorney's title insurance company and bases his title opinion upon title evidence furnished from an abstract plant approved by the board and owned or leased and controlled by such attorney's title insurance company, except that in the event any attorney does not own or lease and control a licensed abstract plant nor is a participant in a bona fide joint plant operation and is further unable to contract to obtain title information from an abstract plant licensed by the board and located in the county in which such attorney is a resident, such attorney may satisfy the requirements of this Subsection (4) by filing with the board disclosure of the inability to obtain said contract as a part of his license application upon a form prescribed by the board so as to make such disclosure a part of the application; and

(5) is appointed as a title attorney by an attorney's title insurance company by contract making such arrangements for division of premium as may be approved by the board under this chapter and authorized by such attorney's title insurance company to solicit insurance and collect premiums and to issue or countersign policies in its behalf; and

(6) is certified as such to the State Board of Insurance; and

(7) is licensed by the board as a title attorney for such attorney's title insurance company.

May Incorporate

Sec. 3. Private corporations may be created by 15 or more State of Texas resident members of the State Bar of Texas to insure titles to lands or interest therein in this state and indemnify the owners of such lands, or the holders of interests in or liens on such lands, against loss or damage on account of encumbrances upon or defects in the title to such lands or interests therein, provided that such title insurance shall be issued only in connection with and as a part of a title opinion of a title attorney, without any premium or fee therefor except the prescribed title insurance rates provided for in Article 9.07 of this Chapter 9.

Subject to the provisions of Article 9.06 of this Chapter 9, and Section 4 of this article, the capital shares of such corporations may be issued for a par value of $100 or more per share, and in one or more classes, provided, however, that (a) except as provided in (b) hereafter, all such shares shall be subscribed and paid for, and issued to members of the State Bar of Texas, residing in the State of Texas, subject to the right of reacquisition of such shares by such corporation in the event of death of such attorney shareholder or failure of such attorney shareholder to be and remain a licensed member of the State Bar of Texas, or failure of such attorney shareholder to be and remain qualified to be appointed a title attorney under the provisions of this Article 9.6; and (b) nothing herein contained prohibits an association of the organized State Bar of Texas, the State Bar of Texas, or any foundation created by or through the State Bar of Texas, whose purposes include among others the continuing legal education of the bench and bar of Texas, from owning shares of any class thereof, providing at least 15 resident members of the State Bar of Texas at all times own shares therein whether of the same class or not.

Capital Stock and Surplus Required—Association of the Organized State Bar of Texas, the State Bar of Texas, or any Foundation Created By or Through the State Bar of Texas

Sec. 4. (a) The attorney's title insurance company created as an affiliate or subsidiary of the organized State Bar of Texas, the State Bar of Texas, or any foundation created by or through the State Bar of Texas, and operating under the provisions of this section, must have a paid-up capital of not less than $250,000 and a surplus of not less than $150,000.

(b) Any other attorney's title insurance company shall meet the capital and surplus requirements upon organization as required by Article 9.06 of this Chapter 9.

Requirements for Title Attorneys

Sec. 5. No attorney shall act within this state as a title attorney for an attorney's title insurance company without first having been (1) licensed as a title attorney for such company by the board and (2) filing a bond or cash deposit in lieu thereof as required in Section 9; and no attorney's title insurance company shall allow or permit any attorney to act as its title attorney within the state unless said attorney shall first have obtained a license and filed a bond as required by this chapter.

Title Attorney's Licenses

Sec. 6. (a) Before an initial license is issued to any Texas licensed attorney to act as a title attorney within the State of Texas for an attorney's title insurance company, there shall first be filed by the attorney's title insurance company with the board an application for a title attorney's license, on forms to be provided by the board, accompanied by a fee of $2. The application shall be signed and duly sworn to by the attorney's title insurance company and the applicant title attorney. Such application shall contain the following:

1. that the applicant title attorney is a bona fide licensed Texas attorney, resident of Texas; and
2. that the applicant title attorney is actively engaged in the practice of law; and
3. that the applicant title attorney is known to the attorney's title insurance company to have a good business reputation, to be a current member of the State Bar of Texas, in good standing, and is worthy of the public trust and said attorney's title insurance company knows of no fact or condition which would disqualify him from receiving a license; and
4. that the applicant title attorney is qualified as defined in this Article 9.56 of this Chapter 9.

The board shall grant such title attorney's license if it determines from the application and its own investigation that the foregoing requirements have been met.

(b) On or before the first day of June of each year, every attorney's title insurance company operating under the provisions of this Chapter 9 shall certify to the board, on forms provided by the board, the names and addresses of every title attorney of said attorney's title insurance company, and shall apply for and pay a fee of $2 for an annual license in the name of each title attorney included in said list; if any such attorney's title insurance company shall terminate any licensed title attorney, it shall immediately notify the board in writing of such act and request cancellation of such license, notifying the title attorney of such action. No such attorney's title insurance company shall permit any title attorney appointed by it to write, sign, or deliver title insurance policies within the state until the foregoing conditions have been complied with, and the board has granted said license. The board shall deliver such license to the attorney's title insurance company for transmittal to the title attorney.
Art. 9.56  INSURANCE CODE  664

Licenses shall continue until the first day of the next June unless previously cancelled; provided, however, that if any attorney's title insurance company surrenders or has its certificate of authority revoked by the board, all existing licenses of its title attorneys shall automatically terminate without notice.

The board shall keep a record of the names and addresses of all licensed title attorneys in such manner that the title attorneys appointed by any attorney's title insurance company authorized to transact the business of an attorney's title insurance company within the State of Texas may be conveniently ascertained and inspected by any person upon request.

(c) If an attorney's title insurance company terminates its contract with a title attorney or gives notice of termination to the title attorney, then any such title attorney may, within 30 days after either occurrence apply to the board for continuation of his license with an amendment thereto showing the name of another attorney's title insurance company for whom he is or will be authorized to act.

Authority of Title Attorney

Sec. 7. (a) A duly licensed title attorney may issue policies of title insurance for an attorney's title insurance company only if: (1) such title attorney is an appointed title attorney for an attorney's title insurance company; and (2) such title attorney bases each title opinion upon separate and current title evidence furnished by a licensed abstract plant of the records of the county in which the real property, the title to which is to be insured, is located; and (3) if such title attorney does not own or lease and control a licensed abstract plant and does not participate in a bona fide joint plant operation, such title attorney pays to the licensed abstract plant furnishing the title information the portion of the premium which may be agreed upon between the title attorney and the licensed abstract plant and approved by the board under the contract to furnish title information provided for under Paragraph (b) of this Section 7.

(b) The board shall, not later than January 1, 1976, promulgate the form of the contract to be made and entered into between a title attorney and a licensed abstract plant whereby title information shall be furnished by a licensed abstract plant to a title attorney. Such contract shall state therein the standards for the information which is to be furnished. Contracts shall be entered into between each title attorney and each licensed abstract plant. The board may from time to time alter, change, or amend the form of such contract.

The parties to any such contract shall determine the portion of the premium to be paid by the title attorney to the licensed abstract plant, except that the board is authorized to and may disapprove any division of the premium which the board finds to be excessive or inadequate. Such portion of the premium to be paid to the licensed abstract plant shall be deemed and considered as the "regular charge" for title information as that term is used in Article 9.34 of this Chapter 9. Within 10 days following execution, the parties to each such contract shall file a copy of the executed contract with the board. Each such contract shall be deemed to be approved as to the division of the premium until the parties are notified of disapproval by the board.

(c) In the event a title attorney does not own or lease and control a licensed abstract plant nor is a participant in a bona fide joint plant operation and is unable to contract with a licensed abstract plant to obtain the required title information in the county in which the real property, the title to which is to be insured, is located, such title attorney may deliver (but not issue) title insurance policies in conformity with the provisions of Article 9.34 of this Chapter 9. Likewise, a title attorney may deliver (but not issue) a title insurance policy upon real property in conformity with the provisions of Article 9.34 of this Chapter 9 when based upon a duly certified abstract of title prepared by a licensed abstract plant covering the particular real property from the sovereignty of the soil to the date of the transaction.

(d) Each annual audit of each title attorney shall include therein disclosure of the payments for title information and to whom such payments were made."

Title Attorneys' Licenses: Surrender, Forfeiture, Grounds for Revocation, Notice, Hearing, and Appeal

Sec. 8. (a) Any title attorney may surrender his license at any time by giving notice to the board and to the attorney's title insurance company concerned, except that no title attorney shall be permitted to surrender his license under the provisions of this Section 8 if prior to the offer to surrender such license an action shall have been commenced under the provisions of this Section 8 by the Commissioner of Insurance for revocation of such title attorney's license. Any title attorney shall automatically forfeit the license under the attorney's title insurance company represented if he shall terminate his relationship with the attorney's title insurance company.

(b) The license of any title attorney may be denied, or a license duly issued may be suspended or revoked or a renewal thereof refused by the board, if, after notice and hearing as hereafter provided, it finds that the applicant for or holder of such license:

(1) has wilfully violated any provision of this Chapter 9; or

(2) has intentionally made a material misstatement in the application for such license; or
(3) has obtained, or attempted to obtain, such license by fraud or misrepresentation; or
(4) has misappropriated or converted to his own use or illegally withheld money belonging to an attorney's title insurance company, an insured, or any other person; or
(5) has otherwise demonstrated lack of trustworthiness or competence to act as a title attorney; or
(6) has been guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices; or
(7) has materially misrepresented the terms and conditions of title insurance policies or contracts; or
(8) is not of good character or reputation; or
(9) has failed to maintain a separate and distinct accounting of escrow funds, and has failed to maintain an escrow bank account or accounts separate and apart from all other accounts; or
(10) has failed to remain a member of the State Bar of Texas, or has been disbarred; or
(11) is no longer actively engaged in the practice of law.

(c) Before the license of any title attorney shall be denied, or suspended or revoked, or the renewal thereof refused hereunder, the board shall give notice of its intention so to do, by registered mail, to the applicant for or holder of such license and to the attorney's title insurance company who desires that such license be granted or continued in effect, and a duly authorized representative of the attorney and a date not less than 10 days from the date of mailing such notice when the applicant or licensee and a duly authorized representative of the attorney's title insurance company may appear to be heard and produce evidence. In the conduct of such hearing, the commissioner of insurance or any regular salaried employee specially designated by him for such purpose shall have power to administer oaths, to require the appearance of and examine any person under oath, and to require the production of books, records, or papers relevant to the inquiry upon his own initiative or upon the request of the applicant or licensee. Upon termination of such hearing, findings shall be reduced to writing and, upon approval by the commissioner, shall be filed in his office and notice of the findings sent by registered mail to the applicant or licensee and the attorney's title insurance company concerned.

(d) No applicant or licensee whose license has been denied, refused, or revoked hereunder shall be entitled to file another application for a license as a title attorney within one year from the effective date of such denial, refusal, or revocation, or, if judicial review of such denial, refusal, or revocation is sought, within one year from the date of final court order or decree affirming such action. Such application, when filed after one year, may be refused by the board unless the applicant shows good cause why the denial, refusal, or revocation of his license shall not be deemed a bar to the issuance of a new license.

(e) If the board shall refuse an application for any license provided for in this Act, or shall suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew any such license at said hearing, then any such applicant or licensee, and any attorney's title insurance company concerned, may appeal from said order by filing suit against the board as defendant in any of the district courts of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, within 20 days from the date of the order of said board. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes of a different nature on the docket. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court. Any party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. The board shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Bonds for Title Attorneys

Sec. 9.  (a) Every attorney who has been licensed as a title attorney shall make, file, and pay for a surety bond with a corporate surety company authorized to write surety bonds in this state, payable to the State Board of Insurance in the sum of $7,500, which bond shall obligate the principal and surety to pay such pecuniary loss as any party to an escrow agreement in which the title attorney is escrowee shall sustain through acts of fraud, dishonesty, theft, embezzlement, or wilful misapplication on the part of any title attorney, and to pay such pecuniary loss as any party to an escrow agreement in which the title attorney is escrowee shall sustain through acts of fraud, dishonesty, forgery, theft, embezzlement, or wilful misapplication on the part of such title attorney, either directly and alone, or in concert with others. In lieu of such bond any title attorney may deposit with the board cash (or securities approved by the board) which cash and securities shall be in the amount of $7,500 and subject to the same conditions as provided for in said bond.

(b) If at any time it appears to the board that the terms of any title attorney's bond may have been violated, the board may require the title attorney to appear in Travis County with such records as the board deems proper on a named date not earlier
Any title attorney or attorney's title insurance company feeling aggrieved by any action of the board hereunder shall have the right to file a suit in a District Court of Travis County in the time and manner provided in Section 8.

Rights of Attorney's Title Insurance Company to Examine Title Attorney's Fund Accounts and Require Reports

Sec. 11. Any attorney's title insurance company may at such time or times as it sees fit, through its examiners or auditors or through independent certified public accountants commissioned by it, examine the trust fund accounts and records pertaining thereto of any of its title attorneys, such examination to be made at the expense of the attorney's title insurance company; or the attorney's title insurance company may require special reports from any such title attorney regarding any of its transactions.

Application to Other Title Insurance Companies

Sec. 12. The business of attorney's title insurance shall only be conducted by attorney's title insurance companies, as defined herein, and no title insurance company, foreign or domestic, or title insurance agent or escrow officer of a title insurance agent presently or hereafter licensed to transact a title insurance business in the State of Texas, pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter 9 of this Insurance Code, may operate as an attorney's title insurance company or a title attorney under the provisions of this chapter.

Exemption From Other Acts

Sec. 13. (a) The sale, issuance, or offering of any capital stock to persons permitted by the provisions of this Article 9.56 to own such capital stock are hereby exempted from all provisions of the laws of this state, other than this Chapter 9, which provide for supervision, registration, or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance, or offering of securities; and the sale, issuance, or offering of any such capital stock to such persons shall be legal without any action or approval whatsoever on the part of any official or state regulatory agency authorized to license, regulate, or supervise the sale, issuance, or offering of securities.

(b) The shares of stock of each attorney's title insurance company (regardless of class) may be owned only (except as provided in Section 3 of this Article 9.56) by attorneys duly licensed by the State Bar of Texas, residing in the State of Texas, and qualified to be appointed a title attorney under the provisions of this Article 9.56. Each certificate evidencing any share shall have endorsed thereon provisions relating to limitation upon the alienation of such shares whereby such shares may be owned only by such qualifying attorneys or the attorney's title insurance company so issuing such shares. The pro-vions of this Section 13B shall not, however, be applicable to shares owned by the organized State Bar of Texas, the State Bar of Texas, or any foundation created by or through the State Bar of Texas, whose purposes include among others the continuing legal education of the bench and bar of Texas.

(c) At time of organization of any attorney's title insurance company, the applicants for such attorney's title insurance company shall, as a part of the application for granting and approving the charter, file with and obtain the approval of the State Board of Insurance an acceptable plan providing for the reacquisition of any and all shares of stock of such attorney's title insurance company issued to any qualified attorney when such attorney no longer remains qualified to own the same or upon the death of such attorney, whichever shall first occur. Such plan shall, in addition to its other provisions, contain an express provision that under no circumstance may such attorney's title insurance company acquire outstanding shares of its stock as treasury stock if such reacquisition of such shares will result in reducing the capital and surplus of such attorney's title insurance company below the minimum capital and surplus required for the initial organization of such attorney's title insurance company.

(d) In the event of the death of any title attorney, the attorney's title insurance company shall have a period of nine months following the death of such title attorney within which to acquire such deceased title attorney's share or shares.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN. GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR MUTUAL ASSESSMENT COMPANIES

Art. 14.17. Certificate of Authority Required; Exemptions

It shall be the duty of the Board of Insurance Commissioners to require any corporation, person, firm, association, local mutual aid association, or any local association, company, or organization to have a certificate of authority before being authorized to carry on any insurance business in this State. If, in any event, any such company, person, firm, association, corporation, local aid association, or local organization is writing any form of insurance whatsoever without a permit or certificate of authority issued by the Department of Insurance of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Board to make known said fact to the Attorney General of the State of Texas, who is hereby required to institute proceedings in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, to restrain such corporation, person, firm, association, company, local aid association, or organization from writing any insurance of any kind or character without a permit; provided no provision of this and the preceding Article shall be construed to apply to associations which limit their membership to the employees and the families of employees of any particular designated firm, corporation, or individual, nor shall it apply to associations which limit their membership to bona fide borrowers of a Federal agency in Texas and members of the borrower's immediate family who are living with him and who are not engaged in nonfarm work for their chief income, and which association has been in existence for at least five (5) years, and which are not operated for profit and which pay no commissions to anyone and whose operating expenses do not exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) per month; provided, however, that all such associations shall make annual reports to the Department of Insurance on blanks furnished for that purpose, showing the financial condition, the receipts and expenditures, and such other facts as the Board of Insurance Commissioners may require. No such association shall be permitted to operate, however, without making report to the Insurance Department of the State of Texas and securing a permit to so function. Such permit shall be for the current year or fractional part thereof and shall expire on the thirty-first day of May thereafter and shall be renewed annually upon the approval of the financial statement of the organization by the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Art. 14.20. Reduced Benefits or Excluded Coverage on Life Policies; Health and Accident Policies Excluded

Sec. 1. Any company or association licensed and operating under this chapter, may with the approval of the State Board of Insurance issue policies providing for reduced benefits when death or injury occurs while the insured is engaged in military, naval, aerial service, or aerial flight in time of peace or war; or in case of death of the member by his own hand while sane or insane; or while engaged in certain hazardous occupations to be named in the policy; or if death or injury is caused by mob violence or legal execution; or reduce or exclude benefits for sickness from certain named causes. Attention shall be called on the front page of the policy to any reduction or exclusion of benefits provided herein, and the circumstances or conditions under which reduction or exclusion of benefits are applicable shall be plainly stated in the policy. The provisions of this Section 1 of this Article 14.20 shall apply to all outstanding policies already containing such limitations.

Sec. 2. In the event a policy providing natural death benefits shall contain a provision for reduction (other than for the specific reductions enumerated and authorized by Section 1 of this Article 14.20) of the highest or ultimate death benefit stated in such policy for a specified insured, such reduced death benefit for such specified insured shall at all times during the period of time such reduction in death benefit is in effect equal at least 120 percent of the total premium then paid upon such policy by such specified insured; the period of any such reduced benefit (other than as enumerated and authorized by Section 1 of this Article 14.20) shall not exceed five years from issue date. This Section 2 of this Article 14.20 shall not be applicable, however, to any policy of life insurance upon which the reduction of the death benefit is not applicable at the time of the death of such specified insured.

Sec. 3. In the event a policy of life insurance shall provide, during any of the first five years of such policy, for an increase in the death benefit whereby the initial amount of the death benefit for a specified insured shall be increased one or more times during such five-year period, such amount of death benefit for any such specified insured shall at all times during the period or periods of such increasing benefit equal at least 120 percent of the premiums paid on such policy by such specified insured during the period of such increase. This Section 3 of this Article 14.20 shall not be applicable, however, to any policy of life insurance after it has been in force for more than five years from the policy issue date.

Sec. 4. The provisions of Section 2 and Section 3 of this Article 14.20 shall not be applicable to family group life policies as the term "family group life policies" is defined in Section 2(a)(2) of Article 14.15 of this Insurance Code.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Article 14.20 shall not apply to health and accident policies.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN. MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANIES OTHER THAN LIFE

Art. 15.05-A. Application of Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act [NEW].

Art. 15.05-A. Application of Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act

Insofar as the provisions of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended (Article 1396–1.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), are not inconsistent with or contrary to any applicable provisions of the Insurance Code, as amended, the provisions of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act as amended (Article 1396–1.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply to and govern mutual insurance companies as defined in Article 15.01 of this chapter. Provided however, any such mutual insurance company may upon advance approval of the Commissioner of Insurance pay dividends to its members, and wherever in the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended (Article 1396–1.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), some duty, responsibility, power, authority, or act is vested in, required of, or to be performed by the secretary of state, such is to be vested in, required of, or performed by the Commissioner of Insurance insofar as such mutual insurance companies are concerned. Art. 20A.01. Short Title

This Act may be cited as the Texas Health Maintenance Organization Act. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 514, ch. 214, §§ 1 to 34, eff. Dec. 1, 1975.]
Art. 20A.02. Definitions

(a) "Basic health care services" means health care services which an enrolled population might reasonably require in order to be maintained in good health, including, as a minimum, emergency care, inpatient hospital and medical services, and outpatient medical services.

(b) "Board" means the State Board of Health.

(c) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.

(d) "Enrollee" means an individual who has been enrolled in a health care plan, including covered dependents.

(e) "Evidence of coverage" means any certificate, agreement, or contract issued to an enrollee setting out the coverage to which the enrollee is entitled.

(f) "Group hospital service corporation" means a nonprofit corporation organized and operating under Chapter 20 of the Insurance Code.1

(g) "Health care" means prevention, maintenance, and rehabilitation services provided by qualified persons other than medical care.

(h) "Health care plan" means any arrangement whereby any person undertakes to provide, arrange for, pay for, or reimburse any part of the cost of any health care services and at least part of such arrangement consists of arranging for or the provision of health care services, as distinguished from mere indemnification against the cost of such service, on a prepaid basis through insurance or otherwise.

(i) "Health care services" means any services, including the furnishing to any individual of medical or dental care, or hospitalization or incident to the furnishing of such care or hospitalization, as well as the furnishing to any person of any and all other services for the purpose of preventing, alleviating, curing or healing human illness or injury.

(j) "Health maintenance organization" means any person who undertakes to provide or arrange for one or more health care plans.

(k) "Medical care" means furnishing those services defined as the practice of medicine in Section 11, Chapter 426, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953 (Article 4510a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(l) "Person" means any natural or artificial person, including, but not limited to, individuals, partnerships, associations, trusts, or corporations.

(m) "Physician" means anyone licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas.

(n) "Provider" means any practitioner other than a physician, such as a registered nurse, pharmacist, pharmacy, hospital, or other institution or organization that furnishes health care services, who is licensed or otherwise authorized to practice in this state.

*Article 20.01 et seq.

Art. 20A.03. Establishment of Health Maintenance Organization

(a) Notwithstanding any law of this state to the contrary, any person may apply to the commissioner for and obtain a certificate of authority to establish and operate a health maintenance organization in compliance with this Act. No person shall establish or operate a health maintenance organization in this state, or sell or offer to sell or solicit offers to purchase or receive advance or periodic consideration in conjunction with a health maintenance organization without obtaining a certificate of authority under this Act. A foreign corporation may qualify under this Act, subject to its registration to do business in this state as a foreign corporation under the Texas Business Corporation Act and compliance with all provisions of this Act and other applicable Texas statutes.

(b) Within 90 days of the effective date of this Act, every existing health maintenance organization shall submit an application for a certificate of authority. Each such applicant may continue to operate until the commissioner acts on the application. In the event that an application is denied, the applicant shall henceforth be treated as a health maintenance organization whose certificate of authority has been revoked.

Art. 20A.04. Application for Certificate of Authority

(a) Each application for a certificate of authority shall be on a form prescribed by rule of the commissioner and shall be verified by the applicant, an officer, or other authorized representative of the applicant, and shall set forth or be accompanied by the following:

(1) a copy of the basic organizational document, if any, of the applicant, such as the articles of incorporation, articles of association, partnership agreement, trust agreement, or other applicable documents, and all amendments thereto;

(2) a copy of the bylaws, rules and regulations, or similar document, if any, regulating the conduct of the internal affairs of the applicant;

(3) a list of the names, addresses, and official positions of the persons who are to be responsible for the conduct of the affairs of the applicant, including all members of the board of directors, board of trustees, executive committee, or other governing body or committee, the principal officer in the case of a corporation, and the partnership or members in the case of a partnership or association;

(4) a copy of any independent or other contract made or to be made between any provider, physician, or persons listed in Paragraph (5) hereof and the applicant;

(5) a statement generally describing the health maintenance organization, its health care plan or plans, facilities, and personnel;

(6) a copy of the form of evidence of coverage to be issued to the enrollee;

(7) a copy of the form of the group contract, if any, which is to be issued to employers, unions, trustees, or other organizations;

(8) a financial statement showing the applicant's assets, liabilities, and sources of financial support; if the applicant's financial affairs are audited by an independent certified public accountant, a copy of the applicant's most recent regular certified financial statement shall be deemed to satisfy this requirement unless the commissioner directs that additional or more recent financial information is required for the proper administration of this Act;

(9) a description of the proposed method of marketing the plan, a financial plan which includes a three-year projection of the initial operating results anticipated, and a statement as to the sources of working capital, as well as any other sources of funding;

(10) a power of attorney duly executed by such applicant, if not domiciled in this state, appointing the commissioner and his successors in office, or a duly authorized deputy, as the true and lawful attorney of such applicant for a certificate of authority, with respect to the sources of working capital, as well as any other sources of funding;

(b) A health maintenance organization shall file notice with the commissioner prior to any modification of the operations or documents described in Subsection (a) of this section. As soon as reasonably possible after the filing has been made, the commissioner shall in writing approve or disapprove the same. Any filing shall be considered approved unless disapproved within 30 days; provided that the commissioner may by official order postpone the action for such further time not exceeding 30 days, as may be considered necessary for proper consideration.

Art. 20A.05. Issuance of Certificate of Authority

(a)(1) Upon receipt of an application for issuance of a certificate of authority, the commissioner shall begin consideration of the application and forthwith transmit copies of such application and accompanying documents to the board.

(2) The board shall determine whether the applicant for a certificate of authority, with respect to health care services to be furnished:

(A) has demonstrated the willingness and potential ability to assure that such health care services will be provided in a manner to assure both availability and accessibility of adequate personnel and facilities, in a manner enhancing availability, accessibility, and continuity of services;

(B) has arrangements, established in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the board with the concurrence of the commissioner, for an ongoing quality of health care assurance program concerning health care processes and outcome; and

(C) has a procedure, established by rules and regulations of the board with the concurrence of the commissioner, to develop, compile, evaluate, and report statistics relating to the cost of operation, the pattern of utilization of its services, availability and accessibility of its services.

(3) Within 45 days of receipt of the application by the board for issuance of a certificate of authority, the board shall certify to the commissioner whether the proposed health maintenance organization meets the requirements of this section. If the board certifies that the health maintenance organization does not meet such requirements, it shall specify in what respects it is deficient.

(b) The commissioner shall, after notice and hearing, issue or deny a certificate of authority to any person filing an application pursuant to Section 4 of this Act within 75 days of the receipt of the certification of the board. Issuance of the certificate of authority shall be granted upon payment of the application fee prescribed in Section 32 of this Act if:
Art. 20A.06. Powers of Health Maintenance Organization

(a) The powers of a health maintenance organization include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) the purchase, lease, construction, renovation, operation, or maintenance of hospitals, medical facilities, or both, and ancillary equipment and such property as may reasonably be required for its principal office or for such other purposes as may be necessary in the transaction of the business of the health maintenance organization;

(2) the making of loans to a medical group, under an independent contract with it in furtherance of its program, or corporations under its control, for the purpose of acquiring or constructing medical facilities and hospitals, or in the furtherance of a program providing health care services to enrollees;

(3) the furnishing of medical care services through physicians who have independent contracts with the health maintenance organizations; the furnishing or arranging for the delivery of health care services through providers or groups of providers who are under contract with or employed by the health maintenance organization; provided, however, that a health maintenance organization is not authorized to employ or contract with physicians or providers in any manner which is prohibited by any licensing law of this state under which such physicians or providers are licensed;

(4) the contracting with any person for the performance on its behalf of certain functions such as marketing, enrollment, and administration;

(5) the contracting with an insurance company licensed in this state, or with a group hospital service corporation authorized to do business in the state, for the provision of insurance, indemnity, or reimbursement against the cost of health care and medical care services provided by the health maintenance organization;
(6) the offering, in addition to the basic health care services, of:

(A) additional health care or medical services;

(B) indemnity benefits covering out-of-area emergency services; and

(C) indemnity benefits in addition to those relating to out-of-area and emergency services, provided through insurers or group hospital service corporations;

(7) receiving and accepting from government or private agencies payments covering all or part of the cost of the services provided or arranged for by the organization;

(8) all powers given to corporations (including professional corporations and associations), partnerships, and associations pursuant to their organizational documents which are not in conflict with provisions of this Act, or other applicable law.

(b)(1) The health maintenance organization shall file notice, with adequate supporting information, with the commissioner prior to the exercise of any power granted in Subdivision (1) or (2) of Subsection (a) of this section. The commissioner shall disapprove such exercise of powers which, in his or her opinion, would substantially and adversely affect the financial soundness of the health maintenance organization and endanger its ability to meet its obligations. If the commissioner does not disapprove within 30 days of filing, it shall be deemed approved; provided that the commissioner may, by official order, postpone action for such further time, not exceeding 30 days, as may be considered necessary for proper consideration.

(2) The commissioner may promulgate rules and regulations exempting from the filing requirements of this subdivision those activities having a de minimis effect.

Art. 20A.07. Governing Body

(a) The governing body of any health maintenance organization may include physicians, providers, or other individuals, or any combination of the above.

(b) The governing body shall establish a mechanism to afford the enrollees an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation through the establishment of advisory panels, by the use of advisory referenda on major policy decisions, or through the use of other mechanisms.

Art. 20A.08. Fiduciary Responsibility

Any director, officer, member, employee, or partner of a health maintenance organization who receives, collects, disburses, or invests funds in connection with the activities of such organization shall be responsible for such funds in a fiduciary relationship to the enrollees.

Art. 20A.09. Evidence of Coverage and Charges

(a)(1) Every enrollee residing in this state is entitled to evidence of coverage under a health care plan. If the enrollee obtains coverage under a health care plan through an insurance policy or a contract issued by a group hospital service corporation, whether by option or otherwise, the insurer or the group hospital service corporation shall issue the evidence of coverage. Otherwise, the health maintenance organization shall issue the evidence of coverage.

(2) No evidence of coverage, or amendment thereto, shall be issued or delivered to any person in this state until a copy of the form of evidence of coverage, or amendment thereto, has been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(3) An evidence of coverage shall contain:

(A) no provisions or statements which are unjust, unfair, inequitable, misleading, deceptive, which encourage misrepresentation, or which are untrue, misleading, or deceptive as defined in Section 14 of this Act; and

(B) a clear and complete statement, if a contract, or a reasonably complete facsimile, if a certificate, of:

(i) the medical and health care services and the issuance of other benefits, if any, to which the enrollee is entitled under the health care plan;

(ii) any limitation on the services, kinds of services, benefits, or kinds of benefits to be provided, including any deductible or co-payment feature;

(iii) where and in what manner information is available as to how services may be obtained;

(iv) the total amount of payment for health care services and the indemnity or service benefits, if any, which the enrollee is obligated to pay with respect to individual contracts, or indication whether the plan is contributory or noncontributory with respect to group certificates; and

(v) a clear and understandable description of the health maintenance organization's methods for resolving enrollee complaints. Any subsequent changes may be evidenced in a separate document issued to the enrollee.

(4) Copy of the form of the evidence of coverage to be used in this state, and any amendments thereto, shall be subject to the filing and approval requirements of Subsection (b) of this section, unless it is subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner under the laws governing health insurance or group hospital service corporations, in which event the filing and approval provisions of such law shall apply. To the extent, however, that such provisions do not apply to the requirements of Subdivision (3), Subsection (a) of this section, the requirements of Subdivision (3) shall be applicable.

(b)(1) No schedule of charges for enrollee coverage for medical services or health care services or amendments thereto may be used in conjunction with any health care plan until a copy of such schedule or amendments thereto has been filed with the commissioner.

(2) Such charges may be established in accordance with actuarial principles for various categories of enrollees, provided that charges applicable to an enrollee shall not be individually determined based on the status of his or her health. However, the charges shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, and the benefits shall be reasonable with respect to the rates charged. A certification, by a qualified actuary, to the appropriateness of the charges, based on reasonable assumptions, shall accompany the filing along with adequate supporting information.

(c) The commissioner shall, within a reasonable period, approve any form if the requirements of this section are met and any evidence of coverage if the requirements of this section are met. It shall be unlawful to issue such form until approved or to use such schedule or charges until filed. If the commissioner disapproves such filing, he or she shall notify the filer. In the notice, the commissioner shall specify the reason for the disapproval. A hearing shall be granted within 30 days after a request in writing by the person filing. If the commissioner does not approve any form within 30 days after the filing of such forms or charges, they shall be deemed approved.

(d) The commissioner may require the submission of whatever relevant information he or she deems necessary in determining whether to approve or disapprove a filing made pursuant to this section.

Art. 20A.10. Annual Report

(a) Each health maintenance organization shall annually, on or before the 1st day of March, file a report, verified by at least two principal officers, with the commissioner, with a copy to the board, covering the preceding calendar year.

(b) Such report shall be on forms prescribed by the commissioner and shall include:

(1) a financial statement of the organization, including its balance sheet and receipts and disbursements for the preceding year, certified by an independent public accountant;

(2) any material changes in the information submitted pursuant to Section 4 of this Act;

(3) the number of persons enrolled during the year, the number of enrollees as of the end of the year, and the number of enrollments terminated during the year;

(4) a summary of the information compiled pursuant to Section 12 of this Act in such form as required by the board; and

(5) such other information relating to the performance of the health maintenance organization as is necessary to enable the commissioner to carry out the duties under this Act.

Art. 20A.11. Information to Enrollees

Every health maintenance organization shall annually provide to its enrollees:

(a) the most recent annual statement of financial condition, including a balance sheet and summary of receipts and disbursements;

(b) a description of the organizational structure and operation of the health care plan and a summary of any material changes since the issuance of the last report;

(c) a description of services and information describing where and how to secure the services; and

(d) a clear and understandable description of the health maintenance organization's method for resolving enrollee complaints.

Art. 20A.12. Complaint System

(a)(1) Every health maintenance organization shall establish and maintain a complaint system which has been approved by the commissioner after consultation with the board to provide reasonable procedures for the resolution of written complaints initiated by enrollees concerning health care services.

(2) Every health maintenance organization shall submit to the commissioner and to the board an annual report in a form prescribed by rule of the commissioner after consultation with the board.

(b) The commissioner or board may examine such complaint system.

Art. 20A.13. Protection Against Insolvency

Each health maintenance organization shall furnish a surety bond in a reasonable amount satisfactory to the commissioner or deposit with the commissioner cash or securities acceptable to the commissioner in at least the same amount as a guarantee that the obligations to the enrollees will be performed. The commissioner may waive this requirement when satisfied that the assets of the organization or its contracts with insurers, group hospital service corporations, governments, or other organizations are sufficient to assure reasonably the performance of its obligations.

Art. 20A.14. Prohibited Practices

(a) No health maintenance organization, or representatives thereof, may cause or knowingly permit the use of advertising which is untrue or misleading, solicitation which is untrue or misleading, or any form of evidence of coverage which is deceptive. For the purposes of this Act:

(1) A statement or item of information shall be deemed to be untrue if it does not conform to fact in any respect which is or may be significant to an enrollee of, or person considering enrollment in, a health care plan;

(2) A statement or item of information shall be deemed to be misleading, whether or not it may be literally untrue, if, in the total context in which said statement is made or such item of information is communicated, such statement or items of information may be reasonably understood by a reasonable person, not possessing special knowledge, regarding health care coverage, as indicating any benefit or advantage or absence of any exclusion, limitation, or disadvantage of possible significance to an enrollee of or person considering enrollment in, a health care plan, if such benefit or advantage or absence of limitation, exclusion, or disadvantage does not in fact exist;

(3) An evidence of coverage shall be deemed to be deceptive if the evidence of coverage, taken as a whole, and with consideration given to typography and format, as well as language, shall be such as to cause a reasonable person, not possessing special knowledge regarding health care plans, and evidence of coverage therefor, to expect benefits, services, charges, or other advantages which the evidence of coverage does not provide or which the health care plan issuing such evidence of coverage does not regularly make available for enrollees covered under such evidence of coverage.

(b) Article 21.21, as amended, of the Insurance Code, shall be construed to apply to health maintenance organizations and health care plans and evidence of coverage, except to the extent that the commissioner determines that the nature of health maintenance organizations and health care plans and evidence of coverage renders such sections clearly inappropriate.

(c) An enrollee may not be cancelled or not renewed except for the failure to pay the charges for such coverage, or for such other reason as may be promulgated by rule of the commissioner.

(d) No health maintenance organization, unless licensed as an insurer, may use in its name, contracts, or literature, any of the words "insurance," "casualty," "surety," "mutual," or any other words descriptive of the insurance, casualty, or surety business or deceptively similar to the name or description of any insurance or surety corporation doing business in this state.

(e) No physician or health care provider or group of physicians or providers or health care facility or institution may exclude any other physician or provider from staff privileges, facilities, or institutions solely on the ground that such physician or provider is associated with a health maintenance organization issued a certificate of authority under this Act.

(f) Only those persons who comply with the provisions of this Act and are issued a certificate of authority by the commissioner may use the phrase "health maintenance organization" or "HMO" in the course of operation.

Art. 20A.15. Regulation of Agents

The commissioner may, after notice and hearings, promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary to provide for the licensing of agents. An agent means a person directly or indirectly associated with a health care plan who engages in solicitation or enrollment.

Art. 20A.16. Powers of Insurers and Others

(a) An insurance company licensed in this state, pursuant to Chapter 2, 3, or 15 of the Insurance Code, or a group hospital service corporation authorized to do business in this state, may either directly or through a subsidiary or affiliate organize and operate a health maintenance organization under the provisions of this Act. Notwithstanding any other law which may be inconsistent herewith, any two or more such insurance companies or group hospital service corporations, or subsidiaries or affiliates thereof, may jointly organize and operate a health maintenance organization under the provisions of this Act.
Art. 20A.17. Examinations

(a) The commissioner may make an examination of the affairs of any health maintenance organization as it is deemed necessary, but not less frequently than once every three years.

(b) The board may make an examination concerning the quality of health care services of any health maintenance organization and providers with whom such organization has contracts, agreements, or other arrangements as often as it deems it necessary, but not less frequently than once every three years.

c(1) Every health maintenance organization shall make its books and records relating to its relationship with the health maintenance organization.

(2) Medical, hospital and health records of enrollees and records of physicians and providers providing service under independent contract with a health maintenance organization shall only be subject to such examination as is necessary for an ongoing quality of health assurance program concerning health care procedures and outcome in accordance with an approved plan as provided for in this Act. Said plan shall provide for adequate protection of confidentiality of medical information and shall only be disclosed in accordance with applicable law and this Act and shall only be subject to subpoena upon a showing of good cause.

(3) For the purpose of examinations, the commissioner and board may administer oaths to and examine the officers and agents of the health maintenance organization and the principals of such physicians and providers concerning their business.

(d) Article 1.19, as amended, of the Insurance Code shall be construed to apply to health maintenance organizations, except to the extent that the commissioner determines that the nature of the examination of a health maintenance organization renders such clearly inappropriate.

Art. 20A.18. Management and Exclusive Contracts

(a) No health maintenance organization may enter into an exclusive agency contract or management contract, unless the contract is first filed with the commissioner and approved under this section within 30 days after filing or such reasonable extended period as the commissioner may specify by notice given within the 30 days.

(b) The commissioner shall disapprove a contract submitted under Subsection (a) of this section if he finds that:

1. it subjects the health maintenance organization to excessive charges;
2. the contract extends for an unreasonable period of time;
3. the contract does not contain fair and adequate standards of performance;
4. the persons empowered under the contract to manage the health maintenance organization are not sufficiently trustworthy, competent, experienced, and free from conflict of interest to manage the health maintenance organization with due regard for the interests of its enrollees, creditors, or the public; or
5. the contract contains provisions which impair the interests of the organization's enrollees, creditors, or the public in this state.

Art. 20A.19. Hazardous Financial Condition

(a) Whenever the financial condition of any health maintenance organization indicates a condition such that the continued operation of the health maintenance organization might be hazardous to its enrollees, creditors, or the general public, then the commissioner of insurance may, after notice and hearing, order the health maintenance organization to take such action as may be reasonably necessary to rectify the existing condition, including but not necessarily limited to one or more of the following steps:

1. to reduce the total amount of present and potential liability for benefits by reinsurance;
2. to reduce the volume of new business being accepted;
3. to reduce expenses by specified methods;
4. to suspend or limit the writing of new business for a period of time; or
5. to increase the health maintenance organization's capital and surplus by contribution.
(b) The commissioner is authorized, by rules and regulations, to fix uniform standards and criteria for early warning that the continued operation of any health maintenance organization might be hazardous to its enrollees, creditors, or the general public, and to fix standards for evaluating the financial condition of any health maintenance organization, which standards shall be consistent with the purposes expressed in Subsection (a) of this section.

Art. 20A.20. Suspension or Revocation of Certificate of Authority

(a) The commissioner may suspend or revoke any certificate of authority issued to a health maintenance organization under this Act if the commissioner finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The health maintenance organization is operating significantly in contravention of its basic organizational documents, its health care plan, or in a manner contrary to that described in and reasonably inferred from any other information submitted under Section 4 of this Act, unless amendments to such submissions have been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(2) The health maintenance organization issues evidence of coverage or uses a schedule of charges for health care services which does not comply with the requirements of Section 9 of this Act.

(3) The health care plan does not provide or arrange for basic health care services.

(4) The board certifies to the commissioner that:

(A) the health maintenance organization does not meet the requirements of Section 5(a)(2) of this Act; or

(B) the health maintenance organization is unable to fulfill its obligation to furnish health care services as required under its health care plan.

(5) The health maintenance organization is no longer financially responsible and may be reasonably expected to be unable to meet its obligations to enrollees or prospective enrollees.

(6) The health maintenance organization has failed to implement a mechanism affording the enrollees an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation under Section 7(b) of this Act.

(7) The health maintenance organization has failed to implement the complaint system required by Section 12 of this Act in a manner to resolve reasonably valid complaints.

(b) A certificate of authority shall be suspended or revoked only after compliance with this section.

(c) When the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization is suspended, the health maintenance organization shall not, during the period of such suspension, enroll any additional enrollees except newborn children, or newly acquired dependents of existing enrollees, and shall not engage in any advertising or solicitation whatsoever.

(d) When the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization is revoked, such organization shall proceed, immediately following the effective date of the order of revocation, to wind up its affairs, and shall conduct no further business except as may be essential to the orderly conclusion of the affairs of such organization. It shall engage in no further advertising or solicitation whatsoever. The commissioner may, by written order, permit such further operation of the organization, as he may find to be in the best interest of the enrollees, to the end that the enrollees will be afforded the greatest practical opportunity to obtain continuing health care coverage.

Art. 20A.21. Rehabilitation, Liquidation, or Conservation of Health Maintenance Organizations

All rehabilitation, liquidation, or conservation of a health maintenance organization shall be considered to be rehabilitation, liquidation, or conservation of an insurance company and shall be conducted under the supervision of the commissioner pursuant to Articles 21.28, as amended, 21.28-A, and 21.28-B of the Insurance Code. The commissioner may also order the conservation, liquidation, or rehabilitation of a health maintenance organization if the commissioner is of the opinion that the continued operation of the health maintenance organization would be hazardous either to the enrollees or to the people of the state.

Art. 20A.22. Rules and Regulations

The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Art. 20A.23. Appeals

(a) Any person who is affected by any rule, ruling, or decision of the commissioner or board shall have the right to have such rule, ruling, or decision reviewed by the State Board of Insurance by making an application to the State Board of Insurance. Such application shall state the identities of the person, the rule, ruling, or decision complained of, the interest of the person in such rule, ruling, or decision, the grounds of such objection, the action sought of the State Board of Insurance, and the reasons and grounds for such action by the State Board of Insurance. The original shall be filed with the chief clerk of the State Board of Insurance together with a certification that a true and correct copy of such application has been filed with the commissioner. Within 30 days after the application is filed, and after 10 days' written notice to all parties of record, the State Board of Insurance shall review the action complained of in a public hearing and render its decision at the earliest possible date thereafter. The State Board of Insurance shall make such other rules and regulations with respect to such applications and their consideration as it considers to be advisable, not inconsistent with this Act. Said application shall have precedence over all other business of a different nature pending before said State Board of Insurance.

(b) In the public hearing, any and all evidence and matters pertinent to the appeal may be submitted to the State Board of Insurance whether included in the application or not.

(c) If any person who is affected by any rule, ruling, or decision of the State Board of Insurance be dissatisfied with any rule, ruling, or decision adopted by the commissioner, board, or State Board of Insurance, that person, after failing to get relief from the State Board of Insurance, may file a petition setting forth the particular objection to such rule, ruling, or decision, or either or all of them, in a district court of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, against the State Board of Insurance as a defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. Said appeal shall be filed within 20 days after the State Board of Insurance has entered an order. The decision of the State Board of Insurance shall not be enjoined or stayed except on application to such district court after notice to the State Board of Insurance. The proceedings on appeal shall be under the substantial evidence rule, and such appeal shall be taken to a district court in Travis County, Texas. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said appeal shall at once be returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. The State Board of Insurance shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Art. 20A.24. Violation of Act

A person or an agent or an officer of a health maintenance organization who wilfully violates this Act or the rules promulgated pursuant to this Act or who knowingly makes a false statement with respect to a report or a statement required by this Act is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

Art. 20A.25. Confidentiality of Medical and Health Information

Any data or information pertaining to the diagnosis, treatment, or health of any enrollee or applicant obtained from such person or from any physician or provider by any health maintenance organization shall be held in confidence and shall not be disclosed to any person except to the extent that it may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act; or upon the express consent of the enrollee or applicant; or pursuant to a statute or court order for the production of evidence or to discovery therefor; or in the event of claim or litigation between such person and the health maintenance organization wherein such data or information is pertinent. The health maintenance organization shall be entitled to claim such statutory privilege against such disclosure which the physician or provider who furnishes such information to the health maintenance organization is entitled to claim.

Art. 20A.26. Statutory Construction in Relationship to Other Laws

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, provisions of the insurance law and provisions of the group hospital service corporation laws shall not be applicable to any health maintenance organization granted a certificate of authority under this Act. This provision shall not apply to an insurance company or a group hospital service corporation licensed and regulated pursuant to the insurance laws or the group hospital service corporation laws of this state except with respect to its health maintenance organization's activities authorized and regulated pursuant to this Act.

(b) Solicitation of enrollees by health maintenance organizations granted a certificate of authority, or their representatives or agents, shall not be construed to violate any provision of law relating to solicitation or advertising by providers or physicians.

(c) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as permitting the practice of medicine as defined by the laws of this state. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal, modify, or amend Section 3, Chapter 627, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 4505, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and no health maintenance organization shall be exempt from same.

(d) The provision of factually accurate information regarding coverage, rates, location and hours of service, and names of affiliated institutions, physicians, and providers by health maintenance organizations or its personnel to potential enrolled participants shall not be construed to be violative of any provision of law relating to solicitation or advertising by physicians or providers. Such information with respect to providers or physicians shall in no manner be contrary to or in conflict with any law or ethics regulating the practice of practitioners of any professional service rendered through or in connection with such providers or physicians.

(e) Any health maintenance organization authorized under this Act which contracts with a health facility or enters into an independent contractual arrangement with physicians or providers organized on a group practice or individual practice basis shall not by virtue of any contracts or arrangements be deemed to have entered into a conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of Sections 15.01 through 15.34 of the Business & Commerce Code.

(f)(1) This Act shall not be applicable to any person licensed to practice medicine in this state, nor to any professional association organized under the Texas Professional Association Act, as amended (Article 1528f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), nor to any nonprofit corporation organized and complying with Section 4, Chapter 627, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 4509a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), so long as that person, professional association, or nonprofit corporation is engaged in the delivery of health or medical care that is within the definition of the practice of medicine as defined in Section 2(k) of this Act.

(2) Any person, professional association, or nonprofit corporation referred to above, which shall employ or enter into a contractual arrangement with a provider or group of providers to furnish basic health care services as defined in Section 2(a) of this Act, would be subject to the provisions of this Act, and shall be required to obtain a certificate of authority from the commissioner.

(g)(1) No health maintenance organization shall be exempt from any statute that provides for the regulation and certification of need of health care facility construction, expansion, or other modification, or the institution of a health care service through the issuance of a certificate of need, if at the time of establishment of operation or during the course of operation of the health maintenance organization it becomes subject to the provisions of that statute.

(2) If the proposed plan of operation of the health maintenance organization includes the provision of any facility and/or service that makes the health maintenance organization subject to the statute mentioned in Subdivision (1) of this subsection, the commissioner may not issue a certificate of authority until the commissioner has received a certified copy of the certificate of need granted to the health maintenance organization by the agency responsible for the issuance of the certificate of need.

Art. 20A.27. Public Record

All applications, filings, and reports required under this Act shall be treated as public documents, except that examination reports shall be considered confidential documents which may be released if, in the opinion of the commissioner, it is in the public interest.

Art. 20A.28. Authority to Contract

The commissioner or board, in carrying out their obligations under this Act, may contract with other state agencies or, after notice and hearing, with other qualified persons to make recommendations concerning the determinations to be made by the commissioner or board.

Art. 20A.29. Physician-Patient Relationship

This Act shall not be construed to:

(a) authorize any person, other than a duly licensed physician or practitioner of the healing arts, acting within the scope of his or her license, to engage, directly or indirectly, in the practice of medicine or any healing art, or

(b) authorize any person to regulate, interfere, or intervene in any manner in the practice of medicine or any healing art.

Art. 20A.30. Officers and Employees Bond

Each health maintenance organization shall, by resolution adopted and entered on its minute book, a copy of which properly certified to by the president, secretary, or general manager shall be filed with the commissioner, designate therein some officer who shall be responsible in the handling of the funds of the health maintenance organization. Said health maintenance organization shall make and file for such officer a surety bond with a corporate surety company authorized to write surety bonds in this state, as surety, satisfactory and payable to the State Board of Insurance in the sum of not less than $25,000 for the use and benefit of said corporation, which said bond shall obligate the principal and surety to pay such pecuniary loss as the health maintenance organization shall sustain through acts of fraud, dishonesty, forgery, theft, embezzlement, wrongful abstraction, or wilful misapplication on the part of such person, either directly or alone or in connivance with others. In lieu of any such bond, any such officer may deposit with the commissioner cash, or securities approved by the commissioner, which cash or securities shall be in the amount and subject to the same conditions as provided for in said bond.

In addition to the bond required in the preceding paragraph, each health maintenance organization shall procure for all other office employees, or other persons who may have access to any of its funds, separate bonds or blanket bonds with some surety licensed by the State Board of Insurance to do business in Texas, in an amount or amounts fixed by the commissioner with a minimum of $1,000 and a maximum of $10,000, satisfactory and payable to the commissioner for the use and benefit of the health maintenance organization obligating the principal and surety to pay each pecuniary loss as the health maintenance organization shall sustain through acts of fraud, dishonesty, forgery, theft, embezzlement, wrongful abstraction, or wilful misapplication on the part of such persons, either directly and alone, or in connivance with others. Successive recoveries on any of the bonds provided from this article may be had on such bonds until same are exhausted.

Art. 20A.31. Injunctions

When it appears to the commissioner that a health maintenance organization is violating or has violated this Act or any rule or regulation issued pursuant to this Act, the commissioner may bring suit in a district court of Travis County to enjoin the violation and for such other relief as the court may deem appropriate.

Art. 20A.32. Fees

Every organization subject to this chapter shall pay to the commissioner the following fees:

(a) for filing a copy of its original application for certificate of authority or amendment thereof, $250;

(b) for filing each annual report pursuant to Section 10 of this Act, $100;

(c) the expenses of any examinations conducted pursuant to this Act; and

(d) for every other filing required by this Act, $25.

Art. 20A.33. Taxation

(a) To defray the expense of carrying out the provisions of this Act, there shall be annually assessed and collected by the State of Texas, through the State Board of Insurance, from each corporation operating under this Act, in addition to all other taxes now imposed, or which may hereafter be imposed by law, a tax of one percent of all revenues received by such corporation in return for issuance of health maintenance certificates or contracts in this state, according to the reports made to the State Board of Insurance as required by law. Said taxes, when collected, shall be placed in a separate fund with the State Treasurer which shall be kept separate and apart from other funds and money in his hands, and shall be known as the Health Maintenance Organization Fund, said fund to be expended during the current and succeeding years, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in carrying out such provisions. Such expenditures shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum assessed and collected from such corporations; and should there be an unexpended balance at the end of any year, the State Board of Insurance shall reduce the assessment for the succeeding year so that the amount produced and paid into the State Treasury together with said unexpended balance in the treasury will be sufficient to pay all expenses of carrying out the provisions of this Act, which funds shall be paid out and filed by a majority of the State Board of Insurance when the comptroller shall issue warrants therefor. Any amount remaining in said fund at the end of any year shall be carried over and expended in accordance with the provisions of this article during the subsequent year or years. Provided, that no expenditures shall be made from said fund except under the authority of the legislature as set forth in the general appropriations bill.

(b) Each corporation complying with requirements of this Act shall on or before the first day of March of each year file its annual statement showing the gross amount of revenues collected during the year ending December 31 preceding, and each such corporation if organized under the laws of this state shall pay an annual tax for the gross amounts of revenues collected for the issuance of health maintenance certificates or contracts in accordance with Article 7064a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended; if such corporation is not organized under Texas laws, said corporations shall pay an annual tax for the gross amounts of revenues collected for the issuance of health maintenance certificates or contracts in accordance with Article 4769, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Upon receipt of the sworn statement above provided, the State Board of Insurance shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of taxes due by such corporation which shall be paid to the State Treasurer on or before March 15 following, and the State Treasurer shall issue his receipt therefor as evidence of the payment of such tax. Such taxes shall be for and on account of business transacted within this state during the calendar year ending December 31 in which such payments were collected, or for that portion of the year during which the corporation transacted business in this state.

(c) Each such corporation shall be subject to the provisions of Articles 7074 through 7078 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 514, ch. 214, §§ 1 to 34, eff. Dec. 1, 1975.]

Art. 20A.34. Effective Date

This Act shall take effect on the first day of December, 1975. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 514, ch. 214, §§ 1 to 34, eff. Dec. 1, 1975.]

SUBCHAPTER E. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 21.39-B. Restriction on Transactions with Funds and Assets

Sec. 1. Any director, member of a committee, or officer, or any clerk of a domestic company, who is charged with the duty of handling or investing its funds, shall not:

(1) deposit or invest such funds, except in the corporate name of such company, provided, however, that securities kept under a custodial agreement or trust agreement with a bank or trust company may be issued in the name of a nominee of such bank or trust company if such bank or trust company has corporate trust powers and is duly authorized to act as a custodian or trustee and is organized under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof and either is a member of the Federal Reserve System or is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;

(2) borrow the funds of such company;

(3) be interested in any way in any loan, pledge, security, or property of such company, except as stockholder; or

(4) take or receive to his own use any fee, brokerage, commission, gift, or other consideration for, or on account of, a loan made by or on behalf of such company.

Sec. 2. The State Board of Insurance may promulgate such regulations as may be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this article are applicable to all domestic insurance companies subject to regulation by the Insurance Code, as amended, and any provision of exemption or any provision of inapplicability or applicability limiting such regulation in any chapter of the code are not in limitation of the provisions of this article, and in the event of conflict between this article and any other article of the code or in the event of any ambiguity, the provisions of this article shall govern.

As used herein, the term "insurance companies" includes stock companies, reciprocals or inter-insurance exchanges, Lloyds associations, fraternal benefit societies, stipulated premium companies, and mutual companies of all kinds, including state-wide mutual assessment corporations, local mutual aids, burial associations, and county mutual insurance companies and farm mutual insurance companies and all other organizations, corporations, or persons transacting an insurance business, unless such insurance companies are by statute specifically, by naming this article, exempted from the operation of this article.

Art. 21.49-3. Medical Liability Insurance Underwriting Association Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as the "Texas Medical Liability Insurance Underwriting Association Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. (1) "Medical liability insurance" means insurance coverage against the legal liability of the insured and against loss, damage, or expense incident to a claim arising out of the death or injury of any person as the result of negligence in rendering professional service by one licensed to practice medicine or podiatry or certified to administer anesthesia in this state or any hospital licensed under the Texas Hospital Licensing Law, as amended (Article 4437f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(2) "Association" means the joint underwriting association established pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(3) "Net direct premiums" means gross direct premiums written on automobile liability and liability other than auto insurance written pursuant to the provisions of the Insurance Code, less policyholder dividends, return premiums for the unused or unabsoed portion of premium deposits and less return premiums upon cancelled contracts written on such liability risks.

(4) "Board" means the State Board of Insurance of the State of Texas.

Joint Underwriting Association

Sec. 3. (a) A joint underwriting association is hereby created, consisting of all insurers authorized to write and engaged in writing, within this state, on a direct basis, automobile liability and liability other than auto insurance on or after January 1, 1975, as provided in the Insurance Code, specifically including and applicable to Lloyds and reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, but excluding farm mutual insurance companies as authorized by Chapter 16 of this code, and county mutual insurance companies as authorized by Chapter 17 of this code. Every such insurer shall be a member of the association and shall remain a member as a condition of its authority to continue to transact such kind of insurance in this state. The purpose of the association shall be to provide medical liability insurance on a self-supporting basis.

(b) The association shall, pursuant to the provisions of this article and the plan of operation with respect to medical liability insurance, have the power on behalf of its members:

(1) to issue, or to cause to be issued, policies of insurance to applicants, including incidental coverages and subject to limits as specified in the plan of operation; provided that no individual or organization may be insured by policies issued by the association for an amount exceeding $300,000;

(2) to underwrite such insurance and to adjust and pay losses with respect thereto, or to appoint service companies to perform those functions;

(3) to assume reinsurance from its members; and

(4) to cede reinsurance.

(c)(1) The board shall, after consultation with the joint underwriting association, representatives of the public, the Texas Medical Association, the Texas Podiatry Association, the Texas Hospital Association, and other affected individuals and organizations, promulgate a plan of operation consistent with the provisions of this article, to become effective and operative no later than 90 days after the effective date of this Act.

(2) The plan of operation shall provide for economic, fair, and nondiscriminatory administration and for the prompt and efficient provision of medical liability insurance, and shall contain other provisions including, but not limited to, preliminary assessment of all members for initial expenses necessary to commence operations, establishment of necessary facilities, management of the association, assessment of members to defray losses and expenses, commission arrangements, reasonable and objective underwriting standards, acceptance and cession of reinsurance, appointment of servicing carriers, and procedures for determining amounts of insurance to be provided by the association.

(3) The plan of operation shall provide that any profit achieved after reimbursement of members' contributions in accordance with Section 4(b)(5) of this article by the association shall be added to the reserves of the association.

(4) Amendments to the plan of operation may be made by the directors of the association, subject to the approval of the board, or shall be made at the direction of the board.

Procedures

Sec. 4. (a)(1) Any licensed physician, licensed podiatrist, or hospital or certified anesthetist shall, on or after the effective date of the plan of operation, be entitled to apply to the association for such coverage. Such application may be made on behalf of an applicant by an agent authorized pursuant to Article 21.14 of this code.

(2) If the association determines that the applicant meets the underwriting standards of the association as prescribed in the plan of operation and there is no unpaid, uncontested premium due from the applicant for prior insurance (as shown by the insured having failed to pay or make written objection to premium charges within 30 days after billing) then the association, upon receipt of the premium, or such portion thereof as is prescribed in the plan of operation, shall cause to be issued a policy of medical liability insurance for a term of one year.

(b)(1) The rates, rating plans, rating rules, rating classifications, territories, and policy forms applicable to the insurance written by the association and statistics relating thereto shall be subject to Subchapter B of Chapter 5 of the Insurance Code, as amended,\(^1\) giving due consideration to the past and prospective loss and expense experience for medical professional liability insurance within and without this state of all of the member companies of the association, trends in the frequency and severity of losses, the investment income of the association, and such other information as the board may require; provided, that if any article of the above subchapter is in conflict with any provision of this Act, this Act shall prevail.

(2) Within such time as the board shall direct, the association shall submit, for the approval of the board pursuant to Article 5.15 of the Insurance Code, an initial filing, in proper form, of policy forms, classifications, rates, rating plans, and rating rules applicable to medical liability insurance to be written by the association.

(3) Any deficit sustained by the association in any one year shall be recouped, pursuant to the plan of operation and the rating plan then in effect, by one or more of the following procedures:

(A) an assessment upon the policyholders;
(B) a rate increase applicable prospectively;
(C) a credit against premium taxes under Article 7064, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The tax credit shall be allowed at a rate of 20 percent per year for five successive years following the year in which said deficit was sustained and at the option of the insurer may be taken over an additional number of years.

(4) After the initial year of operation, rates, rating plans, and rating rules, and any provision for recoupment should be based upon the association's loss and expense experience, together with such other information based upon such experience as the board may deem appropriate. The resultant premium rates shall be on an actuarially sound basis and shall be calculated to be self-supporting.

(5) In the event that sufficient funds are not available for the sound financial operation of the association, in addition to assessments paid pursuant to the plan of operation in accordance with Section (3)(c)(2) of the article, all members shall, on a basis authorized by the board, as long as the board deems it necessary, contribute to the financial requirements of the association in the manner provided for in Section 5. Any assessment or contribution shall be reimbursed to the members with interest at a rate to be approved by the board. Pending recoupment or reimbursement of assessments or contributions paid to the association by a member, the unrepaid balance of such assessments and contributions may be reflected in the books and records of the insurer as an admitted asset of the insurer for all purposes, including exhibition in annual statements pursuant to Article 6.12 of this code.

ruling, or decision, appeal to the board of directors of the association. The board of directors of the association shall hear said appeal within 30 days after receipt of such request or appeal and shall give not less than 10 days' written notice of the time and place of hearing to the person making such request or the duly authorized representative. Within 10 days after such hearing, the board of directors of the association shall affirm, reverse, or modify its previous action or the act, ruling, or decision appealed to the board of directors of the association.

(b) In the event any person insured or applying for insurance is aggrieved by the final action of the board of directors of the association or in the event the association is aggrieved by the action of the board with respect to any ruling, order, or determination of the board of directors of the association or the board, the aggrieved party may, within 30 days after such action, make a written request to the board for a hearing thereon. The board shall hear the association, or the appeal from an act, ruling, or decision of the association, within 30 days after receipt of such request or appeal and shall give not less than 10 days' written notice of the time and place of hearing to the association making such request or the person, or his duly authorized representative, appealing from the act, ruling, or decision of the board of directors of the association. Within 30 days after such hearing, the board shall affirm, reverse, or modify its previous action or the act, ruling, or decision appealed to the board. Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the board may suspend or postpone the effective date of its previous rule or of the act, ruling, or decision appealed to the board. The association, or the person aggrieved by any order or decision of the board, may thereafter appeal in accordance with Article 1.04(f) of the Insurance Code of Texas.

Privileged Communications

Sec. 8. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against the association, its agents or employees, an insurer, any licensed agent, or the board or its authorized representatives, for any statements made in good faith by them in any reports or communications, concerning risks insured or to be insured by the association, or at any administrative hearings conducted in connection therewith.

Annual Statements

Sec. 9. The association shall file in the office of the board, annually on or before the first day of March, a statement which shall contain information with respect to its transactions, condition, operations, and affairs during the preceding calendar year. Such statement shall contain such matters and information as are prescribed and shall be in such form as is approved by the board. The board may, at any time, require the association to furnish additional information with respect to its transactions, condition, or any matter connected therewith considered to be material and of assistance in evaluating the scope, operation, and experience of the association.

Examinations

Sec. 10. The board shall make an examination into the affairs of the association at least annually. Such examination shall be conducted, the report thereon filed, and expenses borne and paid for, in the manner prescribed in Articles 1.15 and 1.16 of the Insurance Code.

Dissolution of the Association

Sec. 11. Upon the effective date of this article, the board shall, after consultation with the joint underwriting association, representatives of the public, the Texas Medical Association, the Texas Podiatry Association, the Texas Hospital Association, and other affected individuals and organizations, promulgate a plan of dissolution consistent with the provisions of this article, to become effective and operative on the expiration of this Act. The plan of dissolution shall contain provisions for maintaining reserves for losses which may be reported subsequent to the expiration of all policies in force. If, at the expiration of five years and annually thereafter, if necessary, from the expiration date of this Act the board finds, after notice and hearing, that all known claims have been paid or otherwise disposed of by the association, then the board may wind up the affairs of the association by distributing to the members of the association any profits remaining after payment to a special fund created by the statutory liquidator of the board a reasonable reserve to be administered by said liquidator for unknown claims. If such reserve fund proves inadequate, the association shall be treated as an insolvent insurer in respect to the application of the provisions of Article 21.28-C, Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Act, Insurance Code. Notice of claim shall be made upon the board.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1975 Act provided:

"Sec. 2. (a) There is created a medical professional liability study commission to consist of the following members:

1. the lieutenant governor, or his designee;
2. the speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, or his designee;
3. one senator who shall be a member of the Senate Economic Development Committee, to be appointed by the lieutenant governor;
4. one representative who shall be a member of the House Insurance Committee, to be appointed by the speaker;
5. two representatives of the joint underwriting association established in this bill, to be appointed by the chairman of the board of directors;
6. two persons licensed to practice medicine in Texas, to be appointed or designated by the president of the Texas Medical Association;
7. two persons licensed to practice law in Texas, to be appointed or designated by the president of the Texas Bar Association;
8. two licensed insurance agents, one to be appointed or designated by the president of the Texas Association of Insurance Agents and one..."
member to be appointed by the president of the Insurance Commissioners of Texas;
(9) four hospital administrators, to be appointed or designated by the Texas Hospital Association;
(10) two individuals not associated with any of the above associations, to be appointed by the governor; and
(11) two members representing the two insurers who would have the largest assessment under Section 5 of this Act.

"(b) The commission shall meet and organize before August 1, 1975. Appointments or designations shall be made by an authorized official or public officer by notifying in writing the chairman of the board of directors of the association, with a copy to the Secretary of State of Texas. The lieutenant governor or his designee or a member of the commission appointed by the lieutenant governor shall serve as chairman. The commission shall meet at least twice in each calendar year of 1975 and at least four times annually thereafter, or more often as the commission considers necessary to carry out its purposes.

"(c) The legislative council shall provide staff assistance to the commission if necessary.

"(d) The commissioner of insurance shall provide all information and reports at his disposal which the commission requests.

"(e) No member of the commission shall be entitled to any compensation, except all reasonable travel and other expenses shall be paid to the commission members. Any commission member who is a member of the legislature shall be entitled to reimbursement of his expenses from the appropriate contingent expense fund.

"(f) The commission is authorized to employ such staff as it sees fit to carry out its functions.

"(g) The commission shall have authority to adopt reasonable rules and regulations in relation to such items as meetings, quorums, voting, and other matters relating to the orderly conduct of its business.

"(h) The commission shall make specific recommendations, including proposed legislation to the governor, lieutenant governor, speaker, legislative council, and members of the legislature on or before December 1, 1976. The report shall offer specific recommendations regarding the professional liability problem. In addition, the report shall include, but not be limited to, discussions of the following topics:

1. the scope and extent of the medical professional liability problem;
2. reasons for the increase in such claims;
3. effects of the rise in such claims on physicians and health care providers, including the increased use of defensive medicine and increased premium costs;
4. effect of claims increase on patients, including increased costs;
5. alternative approaches and proposed solutions to this problem;
6. review of comparable law on compensation commissions, arbitration panels, screening panels, and recommendations regarding use;
7. review of existing and proposed laws governing compensation and the amount of compensation to patients, including the time within which claims may be brought and the elements of loss for which compensation may be recovered;
8. any other matters or procedures which the commission considers relevant to its report.

"(c) This commission shall expire on the last day of the regular session of the 65th Legislature."
(1) no individual life shall be insured for more than $5,000.00,

(2) each such policy shall be reserved and reinsured as required under the provisions of Chapter Three of this Insurance Code, and

(3) each such life policy shall be issued only upon an endowment or limited pay basis.

Each stipulated premium company possessing capital and unencumbered surplus of at least the combined total sum of $100,000.00, over and above all liabilities, including contingent liabilities, may issue annuity contracts as authorized and permitted under the provisions of Chapter Three of this Insurance Code. Reserves on such contracts shall be maintained in accordance with the statutes governing reserves on equivalent contracts issued by legal reserve companies, as such laws now exist or as they may hereafter be amended. Any insurer which elects to write annuity contracts under authority of this Article shall thereafter be required to maintain capital and unencumbered surplus of at least the combined total sum of $100,000.00, over and above all liabilities, including contingent liabilities, and any such company shall be regarded as insolvent which fails to maintain capital and unencumbered surplus of at least a combined total sum of $100,000.00, over and above all liabilities, including contingent liabilities.

Art. 23.02. Supervision; Requirements

All corporations organized under the provisions of this chapter shall be under the direct supervision of the State Board of Insurance, and shall be subject to the following requirements:
Art. 23.02  INSURANCE CODE  688

(1) After incorporation, but as a condition of doing business other than seeking applicants and obtaining contracting attorneys, they shall have collected in advance from at least 200 applicants (unless a lesser number of applicants is found by the State Board of Insurance to be a large enough number of applicants to constitute a workable prepaid legal service plan) the application fee and at least one month's payment for services. Such funds shall, at all times prior to issuance by the State Board of Insurance of its certificate of authority as below provided, be maintained in a trust account in a bank in Texas and shall be refunded in full should such certificate of authority not be issued. It shall thereafter be a condition of continued operation that a minimum number of 200 participants or lesser number previously approved by the State Board of Insurance be maintained.

(2) They shall file a statement of their operations for the year ending December 31 each year, said statement to reach the State Board of Insurance of its certificate of authority as below provided, be maintained in a trust account in a bank in Texas and shall be refunded in full should such certificate of authority not be issued. It shall thereafter be a condition of continued operation that a minimum number of 200 participants or lesser number previously approved by the State Board of Insurance be maintained.

(3) They shall maintain solvency in each of its funds, i.e., the admitted assets of each such fund shall exceed its liabilities (except for claim liability covered by attorney guarantees provided by Article 28.15 of this code), and it shall be a continuing condition of licensing by the State Board of Insurance that such solvency be maintained.

(4) If any such corporation files an acceptable statement showing solvency, and otherwise complies with this chapter, the State Board of Insurance shall issue it a certificate of authority authorizing it to transact business until such certificate shall be revoked for noncompliance with law, by operation of law or as provided by this chapter.

Art. 23.03. Attorneys Under Contract

Each corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter before issuing any contract for prepaid legal services shall have and so long as it issues such contracts maintain such number of contracting attorneys as is sufficient in the determination of the State Board of Insurance to service the participant contracts contemplated by the corporation's plan of operation.

Art. 23.04. Officers: Employees Bond

Each corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter shall, by resolution adopted and entered on its minute book, a copy of which properly certified to by the president, secretary, or general manager shall be filed with the State Board of Insurance, designate some officer or officers who shall be responsible in the handling of the funds of the corporation. Said corporation shall make and file for each such officer a surety bond or blanket bond covering all such officers with a corporate surety company authorized to write surety bonds in this state, as surety, satisfactory and payable to the State Board of Insurance in the sum of not less than $25,000 for each officer for the use and benefit of said corporation, which said bond shall obligate the principal and surety to pay such pecuniary loss as the corporation shall sustain through acts of fraud, dishonesty, forgery, theft, embezzlement, wrongful abstraction or willful misapplication on the part of each such officer, either directly and alone or in connivance with others, while employed as such an officer or exercising powers of such office. In lieu of such bond any such officer may deposit with the State Board of Insurance cash (or securities approved by the State Board of Insurance) which cash or securities shall be in the amount and subject to the same conditions as provided for in said bond.

In addition to the bond required in the preceding paragraph, each corporation shall procure for all other office employees, or other persons who may have access to any of its funds, separate bonds or blanket bonds with some surety licensed by the State Board of Insurance to do business in Texas, in an amount or amounts fixed by the State Board of Insurance with a minimum of $1,000 and a maximum of $10,000 for each employee, satisfactory and payable to the State Board of Insurance for the use and benefit of the corporation obligating the principal and surety to pay each pecuniary loss as the corporation shall sustain through acts of fraud, dishonesty, forgery, theft, embezzlement, wrongful abstraction or willful misapplication on the part of such persons, either directly and alone, or in connivance with others. Successive recoveries on any of the bonds provided from this article may be had on such bonds until same are exhausted.

Art. 23.05. Claims: Cancellation of Certificate of Authority

All lawful claims for payment based upon certificates issued to participants shall be paid within 120 days after receipt of due proof of claim. Written notice of claim given to a corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter shall be deemed due proof in the event the corporation fails, upon receipt of notice, to furnish the participant making claim within 15 days such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing such claims. The State Board of Insurance after public hearing on written specifications after 20 days notice shall cancel the certificate of authority of any such corporation found to be not in compliance with this chapter, operating fraudulently, or which fails to pay its valid claims in accordance with the provisions of this article.

Art. 23.06. Dissolution
Any dissolution or liquidation of any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be under the supervision of the State Board of Insurance. In case of dissolution of any group formed under the provisions of this chapter, participants' claims shall be given priority over all other claims except cost of liquidation.

Art. 23.07. Method of Dissolution
Any corporation operating under this chapter may be dissolved at any time by a vote of its board of directors, and after such action has been approved by the State Board of Insurance. In the case of voluntary dissolution, the disposition of the affairs of the corporation shall be made by the officers (including the settlement of all outstanding obligations to participants), and when the liquidation has been completed and a final statement, in acceptable form, filed with and approved by the State Board of Insurance, the provisions for voluntary dissolution under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act shall be followed to dissolve the corporation. In all other cases where a corporation operating under this chapter is found to be insolvent, or to have violated the provisions of this chapter, on a determination of this condition, and after due notice and hearing, the affairs of the corporation shall be disposed of by a liquidator appointed by and under the supervision of the State Board of Insurance, or, in appropriate cases, under the direction of a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County.

Art. 23.08. Fees; Taxes
(a) The State Board of Insurance shall charge a fee of $50 for filing the annual statement of each corporation operating under this chapter; an application fee of $100 for each corporation applying under this chapter; and a fee of $25 for the issuance of each certificate of authority to the corporation.

(b) To defray the expense of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, there shall be annually assessed and collected by the State of Texas, through the State Board of Insurance, from each corporation operating under this chapter, in addition to all other taxes now imposed, or which may hereafter be imposed by law, a tax of one percent of all revenues received by such corporation in return for issuance of prepaid legal services contracts in this state, according to the reports made to the State Board of Insurance as required by law. Said taxes, when collected, shall be placed in a separate fund with the State Treasurer which shall be kept separate and apart from other funds and money in his hands, and shall be known as the Prepaid Legal Services Fund, said fund to be expended during the current and succeeding years, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in carrying out such provisions. Such expenditures shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum assessed and collected from such corporations; and should there be an unexpended balance at the end of any year, the State Board of Insurance shall reduce the assessment for the succeeding year so that the amount produced and paid into the State Treasury together with said unexpended balance in the treasury will be sufficient to pay all expenses of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, which funds shall be paid out and filed by a majority of the State Board of Insurance when the comptroller shall issue warrants therefor. Any amount remaining in said fund at the end of any year shall be carried over and expended in accordance with the provisions of this article during the subsequent year or years. Provided, that no expenditures shall be made from said fund except under authority of the legislature as set forth in the general appropriations bill.

(c) The payment of the maximum tax of one percent provided by the preceding section of this article by any corporation complying with this chapter in any year either as a maintenance tax or as a voluntary elected payment into the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas or a combination of such payments equaling such one percent shall be deemed to be a payment in lieu of any franchise or other gross receipts tax by or under the laws of this state and such corporation shall be exempt from such franchise and other gross revenue taxes as would apply to such corporation during the period for which the one percent tax or voluntary payment or combination thereof is made.

Art. 23.09. Applications
Any corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter shall be authorized to accept applicants, who upon issuance of a benefit certificate shall be entitled to legal services for such period of time as is provided therein. Such corporation shall be governed by this chapter and shall not be construed as being engaged in the business of insurance nor subject to laws respecting insurers so long as it complies with the provisions of this chapter. The provisions of this article shall not be deemed to declare the issuance of contracts for prepaid legal services when done by those entities other than corporations complying with this chapter not to be the business of insurance. The right of corporations complying with the requirements of this chapter to issue prepaid legal services contracts on individual, group, and franchise bases is recognized. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 126, ch. 60, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 23.10. Corporations Non-Profit; Funds; Investments
The corporations complying with the requirements of this chapter shall be governed and conducted as non-profit nonmembership organizations for the purpose of contracting for and obtaining legal services for their participants through contracting attorneys, in consideration of the payment by the participants of a definite sum to fund the payment of attorneys fees for the legal services to be furnished by the contracting attorneys. Provided further, that each such corporation shall have two funds, namely: the claim fund and the expense fund. The claim fund shall be composed of at least 80 percent of the regular payments by participants, and the application fees. The percentage amounts above stated may be modified by the State Board of Insurance upon showing that such is in the best interest of the then existing persons receiving legal services under contract or that such is necessary for the development of the corporation during its first year of existence. The application fees shall be paid by applicants prior to issuance of a benefit certificate, and shall not apply as a part of the cost of receiving benefits under the benefit certificate issued. Claim fund investments may include, besides lawful money and demand deposits, only certificates of deposits, share accounts, and time deposits in public banks and savings and loan institutions whose deposits are insured by a federal governmental agency, and obligations of a state or the federal government; and the expense fund investments may include only such as are legal investments for the capital, surplus, and contingency funds of capital stock life insurance companies. The net income from the investments shall accrue to the funds, respectively, from which the investments were made. The claim fund shall be disbursed only for the payment of valid claims, taxes on income of such fund, security transfer costs, and refunds of fees paid into such fund; and to the extent approved by the State Board of Insurance, cost of settling contested claims, expenses directly incurred on or for preservation of investments of the claim fund and contracts authorized under Article 23.19 of this code. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 126, ch. 60, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 23.11. Authority to Contract
Corporations complying with the requirements of this chapter shall have authority to contract in accordance with this chapter with attorneys in such manner as to assure to each participant holding a benefit certificate of the corporation the furnishing of such legal services by attorney under contract, or who shall agree to contract, to the extent agreed upon in prepaid legal service contract between the corporation and the participant, with the right to the corporation to limit in the prepaid legal service contract and benefit certificate the types and extent of benefits and the circumstances for which such legal services shall be furnished. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 126, ch. 60, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 23.12. Limitations
The corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter shall not contract itself to practice law in any manner, nor shall the corporation control or attempt to control the relations existing between a participant and his or her attorney, but the corporation shall confine its activities to contracting as an agent on behalf of its participants for legal services to be rendered only by and through contracting attorneys, who shall never be employees of the corporation but shall at all times be independent contractors maintaining a direct lawyer and client relationship with the participants. Such corporation must agree to contract under Article 23.11 of this code with any attorney licensed by the Supreme Court to practice law in Texas. Contracting attorneys shall maintain such professional liability, and errors and omissions insurance as the corporation shall deem proper and the State Board of Insurance may by uniform rule declare a minimum amount of each such coverage to be maintained. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 126, ch. 60, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 23.13. Contingent Liabilities
Any person may advance to the corporation on contingent liability basis such funds as are necessary for the purposes of its business or to enable it to comply with any requirements of this chapter and such money and interest thereon as may have been agreed upon shall be repayable and shall be repaid only on prior approval of the State Board of Insurance. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 126, ch. 60, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 23.14. Supervision
Every corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter shall, before accepting applications for participation in said non-profit legal service plan, have sufficient money in its expense fund to cover initial operations and shall submit to the State Board of Insurance a plan of operation together with a rate schedule of its charges and a schedule and projections of costs of legal services to be contracted for on behalf of the participants; which plan, rate schedule, and the sufficiency of expense fund shall first be approved by the State Board of Insurance as adequate, fair, and reasonable and not excessive before such corporation shall en-
Art. 23.15. Approval of Rates

The State Board of Insurance shall likewise approve the ratio of benefits to be paid to anticipated revenues from the rate schedule proposed to be used if such be found to be actuarially sound. No prepaid legal services contract or benefit certificate thereunder shall be issued by corporations complying with this chapter without such finding. The contracting attorneys shall guarantee to the participants the services stated under the benefit certificates and shall agree to perform such services which they agree to render to the participants under the benefit certificates without there being any liability for the cost thereof to the participants beyond the funds of such corporation held for their benefit in accordance with the plan of operation of the corporation. Such corporations may issue prepaid legal service contracts without such guarantees and providing for indemnity for costs of attorney services where the attorney is not a contracting attorney under such rules and regulations as may be approved by the State Board of Insurance provided that the State Board of Insurance be satisfied that the plan of operation of the corporation (including but not limited to a proper amount of free surplus) is adequate to assure the performance of such contracts.

Art. 23.16. Benefit Certificates and Legal Services Contracts

Every corporation shall issue to its applicants that are covered by a contract for prepaid legal services benefit certificates setting forth the benefits to which they are or may become entitled. Such certificates, application forms, and contracts made between the corporation and the participants' employer or group representative shall be in form approved by the State Board of Insurance prior to issuance. The State Board of Insurance shall be authorized to issue rules and regulations concerning such forms to provide that they shall properly describe their benefits and not be unjust, misleading, or deceptive.

Art. 23.17. Blank Deposits

All funds collected from applicants and participants of a corporation complying with this chapter shall be deposited to the account of the corporation in a public bank, which is a state depository having Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation protection of its deposits.

Art. 23.18. Finance Procedures

A corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter shall not pay any of the claim funds collected from participants to any attorney except for legal services rendered by such attorney to the participants.

Art. 23.19. Participation Contracts; Agreements with Insurers

Corporations complying with the requirements of this chapter shall be authorized to contract with other organizations complying with this chapter and insurers licensed to do business in Texas for joint participation through mutualization contract agreements or guaranty treaties or otherwise cede or accept legal services obligations from such companies on the whole or any part of such legal service obligations, provided that such contract forms, documents, treaties, or agreement forms are filed with and approved by the State Board of Insurance to be in accordance with the plan of operation of the corporation prior to their effectiveness.

The State Board of Insurance shall be authorized to issue rules and regulations concerning such participation contracts and agreements with insurers as provided by this article in accordance with and in carrying out its purposes.

Art. 23.20. Expenses of Directors: Meetings

No director of any corporation created under this chapter shall receive any salary, wages, or compensation for his services, but shall be allowed reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in attending any meeting called for the purpose of managing or directing the affairs of the corporation.

Art. 23.21. Examination of Books and Records

Every corporation complying with this chapter shall keep complete books and records, showing all funds collected and disbursed, and all books and records shall be subject to examination by the State Board of Insurance, the expense of such examination to be borne by said corporation.

Art. 23.22. Complaints

The State Board of Insurance shall refer any complaints received by it concerning the performance of any attorney connected with any corporation complying with this chapter to the Supreme Court of the State of Texas or to any person designated by the Supreme Court to receive attorney grievances from the public.
Art. 23.22

Art. 23.23. Regulation of Agents

The State Board of Insurance may after notice and hearing promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary to license and control agents of corporations complying with this chapter. An agent means a natural person who solicits legal services contracts or enrolls applicants.

Art. 23.24. Hazardous Financial Condition

(a) Whenever the financial condition of any corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter indicates a condition such that the continued operation of such corporation might be hazardous to its participants, creditors, or the general public, then the State Board of Insurance may, after notice and hearing, order such corporation to take such action as may be reasonably necessary to rectify the existing condition, including but not necessarily limited to one or more of the following steps:

(1) to reduce the total amount of present and potential liability for benefits by use of Article 23.19 of this code;
(2) to reduce the volume of new business being accepted;
(3) to reduce expenses by specified methods; or
(4) to suspend or limit the writing of new business for a period of time.

Where none of the foregoing remedies is effective and the hazardous condition is determined to be a shortage of money in the expense fund the State Board of Insurance may after further notice and hearing order funds sufficient to cure the hazardous condition to be placed in the expense fund. The State Board of Insurance shall not have authority hereby to require the maintenance of money in the expense fund except as provided by Article 23.02(3) of this code.

Art. 23.25. Management and Exclusive Agency Contracts

(a) No corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter may enter into an exclusive agency contract or management contract, unless the contract is first filed with the State Board of Insurance and approved under this article within 30 days after filing or such reasonable extended period as the State Board of Insurance may specify by notice given within the 30 days.

(b) The State Board of Insurance shall disapprove a contract submitted under Section (a) of this article if it finds that:

(1) it subjects the corporation to excessive charges;
(2) the contract extends for an unreasonable period of time;
(3) the contract does not contain fair and adequate standards of performance;
(4) the persons empowered under the contract to manage the corporation are not sufficiently trustworthy, competent, experienced, and free from conflict of interest to manage the corporation with due regard for the interest of its participants, creditors, or the public; or
(5) the contract contains provisions which impair the interests of the corporation's participants, creditors, or the public in this state.

Art. 23.26. Application of Other Laws

(a) Corporations complying with this chapter shall be subject to and are required to comply with the provisions of the Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act and the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act as those laws now exist or may be amended in the future to the extent the provisions of this chapter are not in conflict therewith.

(b) The following provisions of the Insurance Code as they now exist or shall hereafter be amended shall, where not in conflict with this chapter, apply to corporations complying with the provisions of this chapter to the same extent as they apply to insurers and to those doing the business of insurance: Articles 1.01, 1.02, 1.04, 1.08, 1.09, 1.09-1, 1.11, 1.12, 1.13, 1.14, 1.15, 1.16, 1.17, 1.18, 1.19, 1.20, 1.21, 1.22, 1.23, 1.24, 1.25, 1.29, 3.12, 3.13, 3.14, 21.21, 21.25, 21.28, 21.28A, and 21.47 and Sections 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 17 of Article 1.10 of the Insurance Code, as amended.

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 3. Definitions and Use of Terms

When used in this Code, unless otherwise apparent from the context:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) to (d)]

(e) "County Court" and "Probate Court" are synonymous terms and denote county courts in the exercise of their probate jurisdiction, courts created by statute and authorized to exercise original probate jurisdiction, and district courts exercising probate jurisdiction in contested matters.

(f) "County Judge," "Probate Judge," and "Judge" denote the presiding judge of any court having original jurisdiction over probate proceedings, whether it be a county court in the exercise of its probate jurisdiction, a court created by statute and authorized to exercise probate jurisdiction, or a district court exercising probate jurisdiction in contested matters.

(g) "Court" denotes and includes both a county court in the exercise of its probate jurisdiction, a court created by statute and authorized to exercise original probate jurisdiction, or a district court exercising original probate jurisdiction in contested matters.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (h) to (s)]

(t) "Minors" are all persons under eighteen years of age who have never been married or who have not had disabilities of minority removed for general purposes.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (u) to (hh)]

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 104, ch. 45, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2195, ch. 701, § 1, eff. June 21, 1975.]

§ 5. Jurisdiction of District Court and Other Courts of Record With Respect to Probate Proceedings and Appeals from Probate Orders

(a) The district court shall have original control and jurisdiction over executors, administrators, guardians and wards under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

(b) In those counties where there is no statutory probate court, county court at law or other statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court, all applications, petitions and motions regarding probate, administrations, guardianships, and mental illness matters shall be filed and heard in the county court, except that in contested probate matters, the judge of the county court may on his own motion, or shall on the motion of any party to the proceeding transfer such proceeding to the district court, which may then hear such proceeding as if originally filed in such court. In contested matters transferred to the district court in those counties, the district court, concurrently with the county court, shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons and to apprentice minors, as provided by law. Upon resolution of all pending contested matters, the probate proceeding shall be transferred by the district court to the county court for further proceedings not inconsistent with the orders of the district court.

(c) In those counties where there is a statutory probate court, county court at law, or other statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court, all applications, petitions and motions regarding probate, administrations, guardianships, and mental illness matters shall be filed and heard in such courts and the constitutional county court, rather than in the district courts, unless otherwise provided by the legislature, and the judges of such courts may hear any of such matters sitting for the judge of any of such courts.

(d) All courts exercising original probate jurisdiction shall have the power to hear all matters incident to an estate, including but not limited to, all claims by or against an estate, all actions for trial of title to land incident to an estate and for the enforcement of liens thereon incident to an estate, all actions for trial of the right of property incident to an estate, and actions to construe wills.

(e) All final orders of any court exercising original probate jurisdiction shall be appealable to the courts of (civil) appeals.

§ 28. Personal Representative to Serve Pending Appeal of Appointment

Pending appeals from orders or judgments appointing administrators or guardians or temporary administrators or guardians, the appointees shall continue to act as such and shall continue the prosecution of any suits then pending in favor of the estate.

§ 36.  Duty and Responsibility of Judge

It shall be the duty of each county and probate court to use reasonable diligence to see that personal representatives of estates being administered under orders of the court, guardians of the persons of wards, and other officers of the court, perform the duty enjoined upon them by law pertaining to such estates and wards. The judge shall annually, if in his opinion the same be necessary, examine the condition of each of said estates, the well-being of each ward of the court, and the solvency of the bonds of personal representatives of estate and guardians of persons. He shall, at any time he finds that the personal representative's bond is not sufficient to protect such estate or ward, require such personal representatives to execute a new bond in accordance with law. In each case, he shall notify the personal representative, and the sureties on the bond, as provided by law; and should damage or loss result to estates or wards through the gross neglect of the judge to use reasonable diligence in the performance of his duty, he shall be liable on his bond to those damaged by such neglect.

CHAPTER VI.  SPECIAL TYPES OF ADMINISTRATION AND GUARDIANSHIP.

PART 3.  SMALL ESTATES

§ 137.  Collection of Small Estates Upon Affidavit

The distributees of an estate shall be entitled thereto, to the extent that the assets, exclusive of homestead and exempt property, exceed the known liabilities of said estate, without awaiting the appointment of a personal representative when:

(a) No petition for the appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted; and

(b) Thirty days have elapsed since the death of the decedent; and

(c) The value of the entire assets of the estate, not including homestead and exempt property, does not exceed Five Thousand Dollars; and

(d) There is filed with the clerk of the court, having jurisdiction and venue an affidavit sworn to by such distributees as have legal capacity, and, if the facts warrant, by the natural guardian or next of kin of any minor or incompetent who is also a distributee, which affidavit shall be approved by the judge of the court having jurisdiction and venue, to be recorded in "Small Estates" records by the clerk, showing the existence of the foregoing conditions, the names and addresses of the distributees, and their right to receive the money or property of the estate, or to have such evidences of money, property or other rights of the estate as found to exist transferred to them, being heirs, devisees, or assignees, and listing all assets and known liabilities of the estates; and

(e) A copy of such affidavit, certified to by said clerk, is furnished by the distributees of the estate to the person or persons owing money to the estate, having custody or possession of property of the estate, or acting as registrar, fiduciary or transfer agent of or for evidences of interest, indebtedness, property or other right belonging to said estate.

Henceforth the county clerk of every county in this state shall provide and keep in his office an appropriate book labeled "Small Estates," with accurate index, in which he shall record every such affidavit so filed, upon being paid his legal recording fee, said index to show the name of decedent and reference to land, if any, involved.

PART 4.  INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATION

§ 147.  Enforcement of Claims by Suit

Any person having a debt or claim against the estate may enforce the payment of the same by suit against the independent executor; and, when judgment is recovered against the independent executor, the execution shall run against the estate of the testator in the hands of the independent executor which is subject to such debt. The independent executor shall not be required to plead to any suit brought against him for money until after six months from the date of the probate of the will appointing him.

CHAPTER VII.  EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS, AND GUARDIANS

PART 2.  OATHS AND BONDS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

§ 200.  Bond of Married Person Under Eighteen Years of Age

When a person under eighteen years of age who is or has been married shall accept and qualify as executor, administrator, or guardian, any bond required to be executed by him shall be as valid and binding for all purposes as if he were of lawful age. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 105, ch. 45, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

PART 5. GENERAL POWERS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

§ 230. Care of Property of Estates

(b) Estates of Wards (1) General Powers and Duties. The guardian of the estate of a ward is entitled to the possession and management of all properties belonging to the ward, to collect all debts, rentals, or claims due such ward, to enforce all obligations in his favor, and to bring and defend suits by or against him; but, in the management of the estate, the guardian shall be governed by the provisions of this Code. It is the duty of the guardian of the estate to take care of and manage such estate as a prudent man would manage his own property. He shall account for all rents, profits, and revenues that the estate would have produced by such prudent management.

(2) Power to Make Tax-Motivated Gifts. (A) On application of the guardian or any interested party, and after notice to all interested persons and to such other persons as the court may direct, and on a showing that the ward will probably remain incompetent during his lifetime, the court may, after hearing and by order, authorize the guardian to apply such principal or income of the ward's estate as is not required for the support of the ward during his lifetime or of his family towards the establishment of an estate plan for the purpose of minimizing income, estate, inheritance, or other taxes payable out of the ward's estate. The court may authorize the guardian to make gifts of the ward's personal property or real estate, outright or in trust, on behalf of the ward, to or for the benefit of

(i) organizations to which charitable contributions may be made under the Internal Revenue Code and in which it is shown the ward would reasonably have an interest,
(ii) the ward's heirs at law who are identifiable at the time of the order,
(iii) devisees under the ward's last validly executed will, if there be such a will,
(iv) and a person serving as guardian of the ward provided he is eligible under either category (ii) or (iii) above.

(B) The person making application to the court shall outline the proposed estate plan, setting forth all the benefits to be derived therefrom. The application shall also indicate that the planned disposition is consistent with the intentions of the ward insofar as they can be ascertained. If the ward's intentions cannot be ascertained, the ward will be presumed to favor reduction in the incidence of the various forms of taxation and the partial distribution of his estate as herein provided.

(C) The court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the ward or any interested party at any stage of the proceedings, if deemed advisable for the protection of the ward or the interested party.

(D) Subsequent modifications of an approved plan may be made by similar application to the court. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 268, ch. 114, § 1, eff. April 30, 1975.]

§ 236. Sums Allowable for Education and Maintenance of Ward

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a)]

(b) Court Approval of Previous Expenditures. When a guardian has in good faith expended funds from the corpus of his ward's estate for support and maintenance for emergency purposes, and when it is not convenient or possible to first secure approval of the Court, if the proof is clear and convincing that such expenditures were reasonable and proper and such that the Court would have granted authority to make the expenditures out of the corpus, and that the ward received the benefits of such expenditures, the judge, in the exercise of his sound discretion, may approve such expenditures in the same manner as if such expenditures were made by the guardian out of the income from the ward's estate. Provided, however, such expenditures may not exceed the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000). [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 978, ch. 374, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975.]

CHAPTER VIII. PROCEEDINGS DURING ADMINISTRATION AND GUARDIANSHIP

PART 4. PRESENTATION AND PAYMENT OF CLAIMS

§ 312. Contest of Claims, Action by Court, and Appeals

[See Compact Edition Volume 2 for text of (a) to (d)]

(e) Appeal. When a claimant or any person interested in an estate or ward shall be dissatisfied with the action of the court upon a claim, he may appeal therefrom to the courts of (civil) appeals, as from other judgments of the county court in probate matters. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2196, ch. 701, § 14, eff. June 21, 1975.]

§ 313. Suit on Rejected Claim

When a claim or a part thereof has been rejected by the representative, the claimant shall institute suit thereon in the court of original probate jurisdiction in which the estate is pending or in any other court of proper jurisdiction within ninety days after such rejection, or the claim shall be barred. When a rejected claim is sued on, the endorsement made on or annexed thereto shall be taken to be true without further proof, unless denied under oath. When a rejected claim or part thereof has been established by suit, no execution shall issue, but the judgment shall be certified within thirty days after rendition, if of any court other than the court of original probate jurisdiction, and filed in the court in which the cause is pending, entered upon the claim docket, classified by the court, and handled as if originally allowed and approved in due course of administration.

§ 320. Order of Payment of Claims
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a).]
(b) Estates of Wards. The guardian shall pay all claims against the estate of his ward that have been allowed or approved, or established by suit, as soon as practicable, in the following order:

1. expenses for the care, maintenance and education of the ward or his dependents;
2. expenses of administration;
3. other claims against the estate.

(c) A claimant whose claim has not been paid may petition the court for determination of his claim at any time before it is barred by the applicable statute of limitations and upon due proof procure an order for its allowance and payment from the estate.

PART 5. SALES

§ 341. Application for Sale of Real Estate
(a) Application may be made to the court for an order to sell property of the estate when it appears necessary or advisable in order to:

1. Pay expenses of administration, funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness of decedents, and allowances and claims against the estates of decedents and wards.
2. Make up the deficiency when the income of a ward's estate, and the personal property thereof, and the proceeds of previous sales, are insufficient for the education and maintenance of the ward, or to pay debts against the estate.
3. Dispose of property of the estate of a ward which consists in whole or in part of an undivided interest in real estate, when it is deemed to the best interest of the estate to sell such interest.

(4) Dispose of real estate of a ward, any part of which is nonproductive or does not produce sufficient revenue to make a fair return upon the value of such real estate, when the improvement of same with a view to making it productive is not deemed advantageous or advisable, and it appears that the sale of such real estate and the investment of the money derived therefrom would be to the best interest of the estate.

(5) Conserve the estate of a ward by selling mineral interest and/or royalties on minerals in place owned by a ward.

(6) Dispose of any interest in real property of the estate of a decedent, when it is deemed to the best interest of the estate to sell such interest.

(b) Any natural or adoptive parent of a minor who is not a ward may apply to the court for an order to sell property of a minor without being appointed guardian, when the value of the property does not exceed $1,500. A sale of property pursuant to an order of the court under the subsection is not subject to disaffirmance by the minor.

(c) Such parent shall make application under oath to the court for the sale of such property. Venue for such application shall be the same as in applications for the appointment for guardians of a minor. The application shall contain the following information:

1. A Legal description of the property.
2. The name of the minor, or minors and his interest in the property.
3. The name of the purchaser.
4. That such sale of the minor’s interest is for cash.
5. That all funds received by the parent shall be used for the use and benefit of such minor.

(d) The court shall upon receipt of such application set the same for hearing at a date not less than five days from date of filing of such application, and if it deems necessary may cause citation to be issued.

(e) At the time of the hearing of said application, the court shall order the sale of such property, if it is satisfied from the evidence that the sale is in the best interest of said minor.

(f) When the order of sale has been entered by the court, the purchaser of such property shall pay the proceeds of such sale belonging to said minor or minors into the registry of the court.

(g) Nothing in this section shall prevent the proceeds so deposited from being withdrawn from the registry of the court under Section 144 of the Texas Probate Code.

§ 355. Action of Court on Report of Sale
After the expiration of five days from the filing of a report of sale, the court shall inquire into the manner in which the sale was made, hear evidence in support of or against such report, and determine the sufficiency or insufficiency of the representative's general bond, if any has been required and given; and, if he is satisfied that the sale was for a fair price, was properly made and in conformity with law, and has approved any increased or additional bond which may have been found necessary to protect the estate, the court shall enter a decree confirming such sale, showing conformity with the foregoing provisions of the Code, and authorizing the conveyance of the property to be made by the representative of the estate upon compliance by the purchaser with the terms of the sale, detailing such terms. If the court is not satisfied that the sale was for a fair price, was properly made, and in conformity with law, an order shall be made setting the same aside and ordering a new sale to be made, if necessary. The action of the court in confirming or disapproving a report of sale shall have the force and effect of a final judgment; and any person interested in the estate or in the sale shall have the right to have such decrees reviewed as in other final judgments in probate proceedings.

PART 9. PARTITION OF WARD'S ESTATE IN REALTY
§ 388. Partition of Ward's Interest in Realty
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) to (e)]
(f) Judicial Proceeding to Secure Partition. If the guardian of the estate of a ward is of the opinion that it is for the best interest of said ward's estate that any real estate which said ward owns in common with others, part owner or owners, should be partitioned, he may bring suit in the court in which such guardianship proceedings are pending against the other part owner for the partition of such real estate; and the court after hearing such suit may, if it is satisfied that such necessity exists, enter an order partitioning such real estate to the owner thereof.

PART 12. FINAL SETTLEMENT, ACCOUNTING, AND DISCHARGE
§ 404. Closing Administration of Estates of Decedents and Guardianship of Wards or Their Estates
Administration of the estates of decedents and guardianship of the persons and estates of wards shall be settled and closed:

(a) Estates of Decedents. When all the debts known to exist against the estate of a deceased person have been paid, or when they have been paid so far as the assets in the hands of an administrator or executor of such estate will permit, and when there is no further need for administration.

(b) Persons and Estates of Wards.
1. Of a Minor. When the minor dies, or becomes an adult by becoming eighteen years of age, or by removal of disabilities of minority according to the law of this state, or by marriage.

2. Of Incompetents. When the ward dies, or is decreed as provided by law to have been restored to sound mind or sober habits, or, being married, when his or her spouse has qualified as survivor in community.

3. Of a Person Entitled to Funds From Any Governmental Source. When the ward dies, or when the court finds that the necessity for the guardianship has ended.

4. Exhaustion of Estate. When the estate of a ward becomes exhausted.

5. When Income Negligible. When the foreseeable income accruing to a ward or to his estate is so negligible that maintaining the guardianship in force would be burdensome. In such case the court may authorize such income to be paid to a parent, or some other person who has acted as guardian, to assist as far as possible in the maintenance of the ward, and without liability to account to the court for such income.

Art. 7150. Exemption from Taxation

The following property shall be exempt from taxation, to-wit:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 19]

(1) Libraries and archival institutions

(2) Zoos

(3) Valuation of Open-space land used to support raising of livestock or produce farm crops or forest products [NEW].

20. American Legion and other Veterans' Organizations.—Hereafter all buildings, together with the lands belonging to and occupied by such organizations known as The American Legion, American Veterans of World War II, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Disabled American Veterans, Jewish War Veterans, Catholic War Veterans, the American G.I. Forum, or any non-profit organization chartered or incorporated under the Texas Statutes for the purpose of preserving historical buildings, sites and landmarks, not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit, shall be exempt from taxation in this State. Provided, however, that no organization listed by the Attorney General of the United States or the Secretary of State of this State as subversive shall be entitled to exemption from taxation under the laws of this State.

22. All real and personal property owned by non-profit corporations (as defined in the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act), which property is reasonably necessary for, and used for, the promotion of any of the following purposes:

(1) Libraries and archival institutions

(2) Zoos

entitled to an exemption of the first $2,500 of the assessed value of his property.

(e) A disabled veteran whose disability is more than 70 percent is entitled to an exemption of the first $3,000 of the assessed value of his property.

(f) A disabled veteran whose disability is 10 percent or more and who is 65 years old or older is entitled to an exemption of the first $3,000 of the assessed value of his property.

(g) A disabled veteran whose disability consists of the loss of the use of one or more limbs, total blindness in one or both eyes, or paraplegia is entitled to an exemption of the first $3,000 of the assessed value of his property.

Qualification Under More Than One Exemption

Sec. 4. A disabled veteran who qualifies under more than one of the exemptions under Section 3 of this Act is not entitled to aggregate or combine the value of the exemptions, but may take the exemption allowing the largest exclusion.

Surviving Spouse’s Exemption

Sec. 5. The surviving spouse of a person who dies while on active duty in the armed services of the United States is entitled to an exemption of the first $2,500 of the assessed value of the spouse’s property.

Surviving Child’s Exemption

Sec. 6. A surviving child of a person who dies while on active duty in the armed services of the United States is entitled to an exemption of the first $2,500 of the assessed value of the child’s property during the period that the child is under 21 years old and is unmarried.

Effective Date of Exemption

Sec. 7. An exemption authorized under Sections 5 and 6 of this Act becomes effective on January 1 of the year following the year in which the member of the armed services of the United States died, and the eligibility of the surviving spouse or child is determined on the effective date of the exemption.

Deceased Disabled Veteran; Exemption of Surviving Spouse

Sec. 8. The surviving spouse of a deceased disabled veteran, who at the time of his death was entitled to an exemption under Section 3 of this Act, is entitled to an exemption equal to the amount the deceased disabled veteran was entitled to receive at the time of his death, if the surviving spouse is unmarried.

Deceased Disabled Veteran; Exemption of Qualified Child

Sec. 9. (a) This section applies only if there is no person receiving an exemption under Section 8 of this Act.

(b) Each qualified child of a deceased disabled veteran who was entitled to an exemption under Section 3 of this Act at the time of his death is entitled to an exemption from property taxes in an amount determined under Subsection (c) of this section.

(c) The amount of the exemption allowable under Subsection (b) of this section is determined by dividing the amount of the exemption to which the deceased disabled veteran was entitled at the time of his death by the number of qualified children.

(d) A qualified child of a disabled veteran is any child who is less than 21 years old, is unmarried, and has property which would be subject to taxation by any taxing unit in the state without regard to the exemption authorized in this section.

Multiple Exemptions

Sec. 10. (a) A person who is entitled to an exemption under this Act as a disabled veteran and also is entitled to an exemption as the surviving spouse or child of a deceased disabled veteran or as the surviving spouse or child of a person who died while on active duty in the armed services of the United States is entitled to add the value of each exemption and is exempt from property taxes in an amount equal to the sum of the exemptions.

(b) A person who is entitled to an exemption as the spouse of a deceased disabled veteran is not entitled to an exemption as the child of a disabled veteran or as the child of a person who died while on active duty in the armed services of the United States.

Tax Assessor-Collectors Form for Claiming Exemption

Sec. 11. The tax assessor-collector of each taxing unit responsible for assessing and collecting property taxes in this state shall provide to each person appearing at the office of the tax assessor-collector to render his property or to have his property assessed and to each person personally visited by the tax assessor-collector to assess property a form on which the person may claim any exemption allowed under this Act.

Regulations of Comptroller of Public Accounts

Sec. 12. The comptroller of public accounts shall make regulations providing for the manner in which proof of eligibility of an exemption may be made. The comptroller may also make regulations concerning the duties of tax assessor-collectors under this Act and the manner in which an exemption may be claimed.

Purpose of Act

Sec. 13. The purpose of this Act is to provide for exemptions under the authority of Article VIII, Section 2(b), of the Texas Constitution. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2516, ch. 719, art. 20, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1976.]
Art. 7150i. Exemption of Historic Sites

[Text of article added conditioned on constitutional amendment, rejected by the People on November 4, 1975]

The governing body of any political subdivision of this state that levies property taxes may exempt from property taxation part or all of the value of a structure, and the land necessary for access and use thereof, if the structure is:

1. designated as a Recorded Historic Landmark by the Texas Historical Commission and by the governing body of the taxing unit; or
2. designated as a historically significant site that is in need of tax relief to encourage its preservation under an ordinance adopted by the governing body of the taxing unit.

Sec. 2 of ch. 395 provided:

Sec. 2 of art. XXV of ch. 719 provided:

“Sec. 2. This Article takes effect on the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment proposed in Section V of Senate Joint Resolution 11 as adopted by the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975."

Senate Joint Resolution II was rejected by the voters at election held November 4, 1975.

Art. 7150j. Notice of Homestead Exemption Availability to Person 65 or Older

If a county or other political subdivision adopts the residence homestead exemption for persons 65 years of age or older as permitted by Article VIII, Section 1–b(b), of the Texas Constitution, and requires persons to make a timely claim for the exemption, the subdivision shall include in at least one written communication mailed to its taxpayers each year a notice that the exemption is available and a form that a claimant may complete and return to the subdivision’s tax office by mail to claim the exemption.

Articles I to XXV of the 1975 Act revised and amended certain tax laws; art. XXVIII, § 1, thereof provided: “This Act takes effect September 1, 1975, unless otherwise specified within an Article.”

Art. 7174a. Valuation of Open-space Land Used to Support Raising of Livestock or Produce Farm Crops or Forest Products

[Text of article effective Jan. 1, 1977, upon adoption of constitutional amendment, rejected by the People on November 4, 1975]
elude all real property employed and all improvements and structures used in connection with the real property, provided that confined feeding operations, structures used for processing farm crops, forest products, and those structures designated for residential use shall be valued at market value. Pursuant to rule-making authority, the comptroller shall develop and distribute to all taxing authorities appraisal manuals setting forth this method of valuing open-space land, including average net income figures for livestock, farm crops, and forestry enterprises, and such appraisal manuals shall be used by each taxing authority in determining the value of open-space land. For the valuation function enumerated in Section 4 of this Act the tax records of the evaluations of open-space land used to support the raising of livestock or production of farm crops or forest products shall also contain the full market value of the open-space land. The local taxing authority shall develop and enforce procedures to verify that the land in question meets the conditions contained in Section 1(1) of this Act.

Sec. 3. The income capitalization rate to be used in determining the value of open-space land shall be 10 percent or an amount equal to 2 percent greater than the average variable interest rate specified by the Federal Land Bank of Houston, in Houston, Texas, for the immediately preceding tax year, whichever percentage is the greater.

Sec. 4. If the local taxing authority finds that the open-space land devoted to the production of farm crops, forest products, or livestock ceases to be used for the production of farm crops, forest products, or livestock, the land shall be appraised at market value, and the owner shall pay to each taxing authority imposing ad valorem taxes on the land a tax equal to the difference between the taxes paid or payable on the land during the previous four years under its open-space land for farm crops, forest products, or livestock designation and that tax that would have been levied had the land been appraised at market value for the same period of time plus interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum calculated from the dates on which the difference would have become due.

Sec. 5. The value for ad valorem tax purposes of open-space land used for the production of forest products as provided in Section 2 of this Act shall not be less than the appraised value of such land for the 1976 tax year; provided, however, that the value used for any tax year shall never exceed the fair market value of the land as determined by other appraisal methods.

Sec. 6. This Act takes effect January 1, 1977, but only if the constitutional amendment proposed by Section 5, S.J.R. No. 11, 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975, is adopted.¹

¹ Senate Joint Resolution 11 was rejected by the voters at election held November 4, 1975.

CHAPTER EIGHT. COLLECTION AND COLLECTOR

Art. 7260. Monthly Reports

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 7]

8. (a) The Tax Collector shall, on proof of error, be entitled to deduct amounts of ad valorem tax payments, if paid in error, from the amounts of taxes due the State of Texas; and same shall be by him refunded to claimants; and the State Comptroller shall, on proof of error, honor such deductions the same as if made in the month in which the payment was actually made.

(b) This section applies only in a case of mistake acknowledged by the tax collector and does not apply to a case involving a dispute between a taxpayer and the tax collector.

(c) The comptroller may honor a deduction made under the authority of this section only after an independent examination of the evidence offered in proof of the claim and on a finding that the claim is valid and arises from a mistake.

Art. 7261. Duties of Clerk and Collector

7. When the Tax Collector determines that county ad valorem taxes or other ad valorem taxes collected by the Tax Collector on behalf of other Tax Units have been erroneously paid or overpaid, through mistake of law or fact, the Tax Collector, upon verification by the County Auditor of the erroneous payment or overpayment, may refund such erroneous payment or overpayment from available tax-collection revenues received or other available funds appropriated for this purpose. Application for a refund must be made by the taxpayer affected and filed with the Tax Collector within three (3) years of the date of the erroneous payment or overpayment. For all refunds in excess of $500 the Tax Collector must present the application for the refund to the Tax Unit’s governing body for verification and approval.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. IN CERTAIN CASES

Art. 7359. City May Use County Officers

Any incorporated city, town or village in this State is hereby authorized by ordinance to authorize the county tax assessor and county tax collector of the county in which said city, town or village is situated, to act as tax assessor and tax collector respectively for said city, town or village. The property in said city, town or village utilizing such county assessor and collector shall be assessed at the same value as it is assessed for county and State purposes, except that real property in an incorporated city in a county of 830,460 population, or greater, according to the last preceding federal census, by ordinance of the city government may be assessed at a greater rate of value than the same property is assessed for state and county purposes. When an ordinance is so passed making available their services, said assessor shall assess the taxes for said city, town or village and perform the duties of tax assessor for said city, town or village according to the ordinances of said city, town or village and according to law; and said collector shall collect the taxes and assessments for said city, town or village and turn over as soon as collected to the city depository of said city or other authority authorized to receive such taxes or assessments, all taxes or money so collected, and shall perform the duties of tax collector of said city, town or village according to the ordinances thereof and according to law, deducting from the taxes so collected his fees provided for herein; and they shall respectively receive for such services one percent of the taxes so collected, except the fee for the collection of taxes of a city in a county having a population of 830,460 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, may be determined by agreement between the county tax assessor-collector and the city of an amount not to exceed the actual costs to the county.

Art. 1.034. Dates for Filing Reports and Making Payments

The Comptroller of Public Accounts is authorized to prescribe the date for filing reports and payments required to be made pursuant to the provisions of this Title notwithstanding other specific requirements for reporting or payments contained in the Title except those specific provisions of Chapter 20 of this Title.

[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2315, ch. 719, art. 15, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 1.13. Timely Filing of Reports

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) to (g) ]

(h) Notwithstanding any other specific provision in this title to the contrary, the comptroller is authorized to grant upon written request by any person required to file or make any report by this title on or before a specified date a reasonable extension of time not to exceed 45 days to make or file the return or returns. In order to be eligible for an extension of time in which to file a return, the person must state in the request the reasons or grounds for the extension of time and remit 90 percent of the taxes estimated to be due on or before the filing date specified in other provisions of the title.

Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:
"This Act takes effect September 1, 1975."

Art. 1.13A. Penalty and Interest

Notwithstanding any other specific provisions of this title to the contrary, any penalty and/or interest provided by this title will not become due or payable upon a determination by the comptroller that the person making any report required by this title exercised reasonable diligence to comply with the provisions of this title.

(9) There is hereby levied a use tax in the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20) upon any person to whom any metal dealer plate is issued by the Texas Highway Department pursuant to the provisions of Article 6686, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The tax shall be paid on each metal plate issued and shall be in lieu of any other tax levied under this Chapter. The taxes levied by this section shall be paid to the Texas Highway Department, which Department shall deposit said funds in the State Treasury to be credited in the same manner as other taxes collected under this Chapter. The tax shall be paid at the same time application is made for the issuance of any metal dealer plate and the Texas Highway Department shall refuse to issue any such plate until said tax is paid.

Art. 6.041. Revocation; Suspension of Motor Vehicle Retail Seller's Permit; Procedure

(1) Whenever any motor vehicle owner required by Article 6.04 to obtain a Motor Vehicle Retail Seller's Permit fails to comply with any provision of this Chapter or with any rule or regulation of the Comptroller relating to such tax prescribed and adopted under this Chapter, the Comptroller upon hearing, after giving the person twenty (20) days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of hearing and requiring him to show cause why his permit or permits should not be revoked, may revoke or suspend any one or more of the permits held by the person.

(2) The Comptroller shall give to the person written notice of the suspension or revocation of any of his permits.

(3) The notices may be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination.

(4) The Comptroller shall not issue a new permit after the revocation of a permit unless he is satisfied that the former holder of the permit will comply with the provisions of this Chapter and the rules and regulations of the Comptroller. The Comptroller may prescribe the terms under which a suspended permit may be reissued.

(5) The action of the Comptroller may be appealed by the taxpayer in the same manner as a final deficiency determination.

(9) The State Treasurer shall require that payment in full for stamps or meter settings be made within fifteen (15) days from the date the stamps or the set meter are received by the distributor. Upon receipt of an order for stamps or the setting of a meter, the State Treasurer shall snip such stamps or set such meter in compliance with the order and transmit with the stamps or the meter a certified statement showing the amount due for said stamps or meter setting, and the distributor shall forward a remittance as payment in full of the amount certified as due by the State Treasurer within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the stamps or the set meter and the certified statement. However, in order to secure the payments of the tax as provided in this Section, a distributor must file with the State Treasurer a surety bond, approved by the State Treasurer and the Attorney General, with a corporate surety authorized to do business in this State, conditioned upon payment in full for the stamps or meter settings within the time specified in this Section. Payment by a company check or by personal check of a bonded distributor shall be treated as cash payment when received by the State Treasurer for payment of stamps or meter settings received by the bonded distributor. The State Treasurer shall fix the amount of the bond, in an amount equal to one and one-half times the credit in stamps and/or meter settings requested by the distributor and approved by the State Treasurer for the purchase of stamps and/or meter settings during the succeeding month.

Any distributor who fails to forward the proper remittance by the due date shall be notified by the State Treasurer within five (5) days after the due date to appear within five (5) days before the Treasurer to show cause why he should not be denied the privilege of ordering stamps as herein provided, and if such distributor shall fail to show good cause, the Treasurer is hereby authorized to discontinue the shipment of stamps or the setting of meters as provided in this Section and to enforce payment of the bond.

CHAPTER 8. CIGARS AND TOBACCO PRODUCTS TAX

Art. 8.02. Tax Levy and Rate

There is hereby levied a tax upon the "first sale" of cigars and tobacco products as those terms are defined herein, which tax shall be determined by the following schedule:

(a) Upon cigars of all description weighing not more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000), one cent (1¢) for each ten (10) cigars or fraction thereof.

(b) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for not more than three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) per one thousand (1,000).

(c)(1) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for over three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, containing no substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients, having a factory list price exclusive of this tax of less than two hundred fifteen dollars ($215) per thousand (1,000), eleven dollars ($11) per thousand (1,000).

(2) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for over three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, containing no substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients, having a factory list price exclusive of this tax of two hundred fifteen dollars ($215) per thousand (1,000), fifteen dollars ($15) per thousand (1,000).

(3) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for over three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, containing a substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients, fifteen dollars ($15) per thousand (1,000).

(4) All cigars described in this Paragraph (c) are presumed to contain a substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients unless the report to the Comptroller made for the purpose of establishing the tax upon such cigars is accompanied by an affidavit, by the manufacturer when the manufacturer prepares such report or by both the manufacturer and the distributor, when the distributor prepares such report, stating that specific cigars described in such report contain no sheet wrapper, sheet binder, or sheet filler.

(d) Upon all chewing tobacco and all smoking tobacco including granulated, plug-cut, crimp-cut, ready-rubbed, and other kinds and forms of tobacco prepared in such manner as to be suitable for smoking in a pipe or cigarette: the tax shall be twenty-five percent (25%) of the factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2319, ch. 719, art. 23, § 1, eff. July 1, 1975.]

Art. 11.01. Express Companies

Repeal

This article is repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2306, ch. 719, art. IV, § 1, effective Jan. 1, 1976.

Art. 11.05. Sleeping, Palace or Dining Car Companies

Repeal

This article is repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2306, ch. 719, art. III, § 1, effective Jan. 1, 1976.

Art. 12.01. Base and Rate of Tax

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every domestic and foreign corporation heretofore or hereafter chartered or authorized to do business in Texas or doing business in Texas shall file such reports as are required by Articles 12.08 and 12.19 and pay to the Comptroller a franchise tax for the period from May 1 of each year to and including April 30 of the following year, based on whichever of the following Subsections (a), (b), or (c) shall yield the greatest tax:

(a) Basic Tax. Four Dollars and Twenty-five Cents ($4.25) per $1,000 or fractional part thereof applied to that portion of the sum of the stated capital, surplus, and undivided profits the sum of which for the purposes of this chapter is hereafter referred to as "taxable capital," allocable to Texas in accordance with Article 12.02. As used in this chapter, the phrase "stated capital" shall have the same meaning as defined in Article 1.02 of the Texas Business Corporation Act;

(b) Four Dollars and Twenty-five Cents ($4.25) per $1,000 or fractional part thereof applied to the assessed value for county ad valorem tax purposes of the real and personal property owned by the corporation in this state; or

(c) Fifty-five Dollars ($55).

(2) Other than those corporations enjoying the use of public highways by virtue of a certificate of public convenience and necessity granted by the Railroad Commission of Texas, the corporations enumerated below shall be required to pay a franchise tax equal to one-fifth of the franchise tax imposed under Subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this article, whichever is the greater, but not less than the entire tax imposed by Subsection (1)(e) of this article:

(a) corporations paying annually a tax on intangible assets as required by the laws of this state;

(b) corporations incorporated only for the purpose of owning or operating street railways or passenger bus systems in any city or town and suburbs thereof;

(c) corporations incorporated and doing business only for the purpose of maintaining or owning or operating electric interurban railways; and

d) corporations, four-fifths or more of whose assets are invested in, and four-fifths or more of whose gross income is received from, voting common capital stock which comprises four-fifths or more of the total fully voting common capital stock of one or more corporations which are public utility corporations as defined by the laws of Texas whose rates or services are regulated, or subject to a regulation in whole or in part, by law.

(6) A corporation may deduct from its taxable capital taxable in this state the amortized cost of a solar energy device acquired by the corporation for the production of energy or for heating or cooling and used in this State by the corporation. The cost may be amortized for any period not less than 60 months in equal monthly amounts beginning on the month the device is placed into service in this State and extending only during the period that the device is in use in this State. A corporation making a deduction under this Section shall file with the Comptroller an amortization schedule showing the period during which a deduction is to be made and on the request of the Comptroller shall provide proof of the cost of the device and of its operation in this State. A separate deduction may be taken for each device placed in service in this State by the corporation.

Section 2 of art. XII of the 1975 Act amended article 12.03; § 3 amended article 12.06(3); § 4 repealed article 12.211; and § 5 thereof provided:

"Sec. 5. This Article is not intended to be nor shall it or any provision of it ever be construed or deemed to be 'an Act of the Legislature passed subsequent to the effective date of Public Law 91-136 (112 U.S.C.A. § 5461) as that term is used in Acts 1971, 62nd Legislature, p. 1296, Chapter 292, Article 7, Section 1, effective July 1, 1971 (see note under article 20.02, Compact Edition, volume 21."

Art. 12.03. Corporations Exempt

(1) The franchise tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to:

(a) an insurance company; surety, guaranty, or fidelity company; transportation company; sleeping, palace car, and dining company now required to pay an annual tax measured by their gross receipts;

(b) a corporation organized as a railway terminal corporation and having no annual net income from the business done by it;

(c) a nonprofit corporation organized for the exclusive purpose of promoting the public interest of any county, city, or town, or other area within the state;

(d) a nonprofit corporation organized for the purpose of religious worship;

(e) a nonprofit corporation organized for the purpose of providing places of burial;

(f) a nonprofit corporation organized for the purpose of holding agricultural fairs and encouraging agricultural pursuits;

(g) a nonprofit corporation organized for strictly educational purposes, including a corporation organized for the sole purpose of providing a student loan fund or student scholarships;

(h) a nonprofit corporation organized for purely public charity;

(i) a savings and loan association chartered or authorized to operate as a building or savings and loan association under the provisions of the Texas Savings and Loan Act (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);

(j) an open-end investment company, as defined in and subject to the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.Code, secs. 80a-1 et seq.), and which also is registered as such investment company under The Securities Act, as amended (Articles 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);

(k) a nonprofit corporation organized for the sole purpose of educating the public in the protection and conservation of fish, game, and other wildlife, as well as grasslands and forests;

(l) a nonprofit water supply or sewer service corporation organized in behalf of cities or towns pursuant to Chapter 76, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1933, as amended (Article 1434a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);

(m) a nonprofit corporation organized for the purpose of constructing, acquiring, owning, leasing, or operating a natural gas facility in behalf of and for the benefit of a city or residents of a city;

(n) a nonprofit corporation organized for the purpose of providing convalescent homes or other housing for persons 62 years of age or older or for handicapped or disabled persons without regard to whether the corporation is for purely public charity;

(o) a nonprofit corporation engaged exclusively in the business of owning residential property for the purpose of providing cooperative housing for any person or persons;

(p) a corporation exempted from the payment of a franchise tax by the provisions of any of the laws of this state other than this chapter;

(q) a nonprofit corporation which has been exempted from the federal income tax under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3), (4), (5), (6), or (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, as it existed on January 1, 1975; and
(r) corporations engaged exclusively in the business of manufacturing, selling, and installing solar energy devices, which term, for the purposes of this chapter, means a system or series of mechanisms designed primarily to provide heating or cooling or to produce electrical or mechanical power or both by means of collecting and transferring solar-generated energy and includes mechanical or chemical devices having the capacity for storing solar-generated energy for use in heating or cooling or in the production of power.

(2) Each corporation eligible for exemption from the franchise tax under Subdivision (q) of Section 1 of this article shall furnish to the comptroller evidence sufficient to establish that it is exempt from the federal income tax. The federal exemption may be established by furnishing to the comptroller no later than the end of the month nearest the expiration of 15 months from the date of charter or certificate or from September 1, 1975, whichever is later, a copy of the letter of exemption issued to the corporation by the Internal Revenue Service. If a letter of exemption has not been timely issued by the Internal Revenue Service, the corporation may furnish to the comptroller within such 15-month period evidence that the corporation has in good faith filed an application for the federal exemption and, except as indicated in Section (6) of this article, the franchise tax exemption, when finally established under either of the above procedures, will be recognized as of the date of the corporation's charter or certificate.

(3) If a corporation timely furnishes evidence to the comptroller that it has made application in good faith for a federal income tax exemption, and if the application is finally denied by the Internal Revenue Service, no penalty provided in this chapter shall be applicable to the corporation from the date of its charter or certificate to the date of such final denial.

(4) If a corporation's exemption from the federal income tax is withdrawn by the Internal Revenue Service for failure of the corporation to qualify or to maintain its qualification therefor, the corporation's franchise tax exemption shall terminate on April 30 next following the effective date of withdrawal of the federal exemption, and thereafter such corporation shall be subject to and shall be liable for the franchise tax levied by this chapter.

(5) Any corporation, whether or not eligible for exemption under Section 501(c)(3), (4), (5), (6), or (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, as it existed on January 1, 1975, may elect to apply to the comptroller for exemption under an applicable provision of Section (1) of this article, by furnishing in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the comptroller evidence sufficient to establish its exemption. If the application is submitted to the comptroller no later than the end of the month after the expiration of 15 months from the date of charter or certificate, or from September 1, 1975, whichever is later, except as indicated in Section (6) of this article, the exemption when finally established will be recognized as of such date of charter or certificate.

(6) The provisions of this article do not require any additional application, report, letter of exemption, or other evidence from a corporation eligible for exemption under Section (1) of this article, which corporation was granted exemption by the comptroller or by the secretary of state prior to September 1, 1975. Provided that nothing in this article or in any other laws of this state shall be construed to authorize a refund or credit for franchise tax paid prior to September 1, 1975, by a corporation eligible for or determined by the comptroller to be exempt under this article from the payment of franchise tax, unless the comptroller determines that the corporation through mistake of law or fact overpaid the franchise tax due by it prior to September 1, 1975. Provided, further, that if a corporation which was granted an exemption prior to September 1, 1975, no longer qualifies for exemption under Section (1) of this article, such previously granted exemption shall terminate on April 30, 1976, and thereafter such corporation shall be subject to and shall be liable for the franchise tax levied by this chapter.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (1) and (2).]

(3) Effective September 1, 1975, each foreign corporation doing business in this State shall have on deposit with the Comptroller of Public Accounts the Five Hundred Dollars ($500) trust amount described in Section (2) above. Upon determination by the comptroller that a foreign corporation has maintained a continuous status in good standing for three (3) consecutive reporting years, or upon determination by the comptroller that a corporation is exempt from payment of the franchise tax under Article 12.08 of this chapter or other laws of this state, such corporation shall be exempt thereafter from the security requirements of this article, and the comptroller shall return the trust deposit to the corporation; provided, however, that such exemption from the security requirement shall continue only until such time that it is determined by the comptroller that the corporation has failed to file all reports or to pay the franchise tax or other payments required by this chapter, or that the corporation no longer qualifies for exemption from the franchise tax, at which time the comptroller shall notify the corpora-

CHAPTER 13. TAX ON COIN-OPERATED MACHINES

Art. 13.01. Definitions
The following words, terms and phrases as used in this Chapter are defined as follows:

(1) The term "owner" means any person, individual, firm, company, association or corporation owning any "coin-operated machine" in this State.

(2) The term "operator" means any person, firm, company, association or corporation who exhibits, displays or permits to be exhibited or displayed, in a place of business other than his own, any "coin-operated machine" in this State.

(3) The term "coin-operated machine" means every machine or device of any kind or character which is operated by or with coins, or metal slugs, tokens or checks, "music coin-operated machines" and "skill or pleasure coin-operated machines" as those terms are hereinafter defined, shall be included in such terms.

(4) The term "music coin-operated machine" means every coin-operated machine of any kind or character, which dispenses or vends or which is used or operated for dispensing or vending music which is operated by or with coins or metal slugs, tokens or checks. The following are expressly included within said term: phonographs, pianos, graphophones, and all other coin-operated machines which dispense or vend music.

(5) The term "skill or pleasure coin-operated machines" means every coin-operated machine of any kind or character whatsoever, when such machine or machines dispense or are used or are capable of being used or operated for amusement or pleasure or when such machines are operated for the purpose of dispensing or affording skill or pleasure, or for any other purpose other than the dispensing or vending of "merchandise or music" or "service" exclusively, as those terms are defined in this Chapter. The following are expressly included within said term: marble machines, marble table machines, marble shooting machines, miniature race track machines, miniature football machines, miniature golf machines, miniature bowling machines, and all other coin-operated machines which dispense or afford skill or pleasure. Provided that every machine or device of any kind or character which dispenses or vends merchandise, commodities or confections or plays music in connection with or in addition to such games or dispensing of skill or pleasure shall be considered as skill or pleasure machines and taxed at the higher rate fixed for such machines.

(6) The term "service coin-operated machines" means every pay toilet, pay telephone and all other machines or devices which dispense service only and not merchandise, music, skill or pleasure.

(7) The term "commission" means the Texas Amusement Machine Commission.

Art. 13.02. Amount of Tax

(1) Every "owner", save an owner holding an import license and holding coin-operated machines solely for re-sale, who owns, controls, possesses, exhibits, displays, or who permits to be exhibited or displayed in this State any "coin-operated machine" shall pay, and there is hereby levied on each "coin-operated machine", as defined herein in Article 13.01, except as are exempt herein, an annual occupation tax of $15.00.

(2) Provided that the first money taken from each coin-operated machine each calendar year shall be paid to the owner to reimburse the payment of that year's annual occupation tax levied above and those levied by any city or county. No owner shall agree or contract or offer to agree to contract to waive this reimbursement either directly or indirectly. No owner shall agree or contract with a bailee or lessee of a coin-operated machine to compensate said bailee or lessee in excess of fifty percent (50%) of the gross receipts of such machine after the above reimbursement has been made. In addition to all other penalties provided by law the commission shall revoke any license held under Article 13.17 by any person who violates this Subsection.

(3) The commission may provide a duplicate permit if a valid permit has been lost, stolen, or destroyed. The fee for a duplicate permit is $2.

Art. 13.03. Exemptions From Tax

Gas meters, pay telephones, pay toilets, food vending machines, confection vending machines, beverage vending machines, merchandise vending machines, and cigarette vending machines which are now subject to an occupation or gross receipts tax, stamp vending machines, and "service coin-operated machines," as that term is defined, are expressly exempt from the tax levied herein, and the other provisions of this Chapter.

Art. 13.04. Public Nuisance

Every coin-operated machine subject to the payment of the tax levied herein, and upon which the said tax has not been paid as provided herein, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and may be seized and destroyed by the commission, its agents, or any law enforcing agency of this State as in such cases made and provided by law for the seizure and destruction of common nuisances.

Art. 13.05. Injunction; Venue; Payment of Tax as Condition Precedent; Records and Reports

(1) Any person who shall invoke the power and remedies of injunction against the commission to restrain or enjoin it from enforcement of the collection of the tax levied herein upon any grounds for which an injunction may be issued, shall file such proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, and venue for such injunction is hereby declared to be in Travis County, Texas.

(2) Before any restraining order or injunction shall be granted against the commission to restrain or enjoin the collection of the taxes levied herein the applicant therefor shall pay into the suspense account of the State Treasury all taxes, fees, and assessments then due by him to the State and the application for restraining order or injunction shall reflect said fact of payment under oath of the applicant, his agent, or attorney. Provided that said applicant shall keep for the inspection at all times of the Attorney General and the commission or their authorized representatives, a complete, itemized record of the taxes, fees, and assessments, paid into the suspense account of the Treasurer under the provisions of this Chapter and said restraining order or injunction shall be granted against the commission to restrain the collection of the tax levied herein except such person, firm, association or corporation as may have applied for said injunction. All other persons not securing an injunction shall pay to the Treasurer the taxes the funds so deposited shall be refunded by the Treasurer to said applicant.

(3) No person, firm, association or corporation required to pay the taxes levied herein to the State may receive or take advantage of any benefit of any restraining order or injunction against the commission to restrain the collection of the tax levied herein except such person, firm, association or corporation as may have applied for said injunction. All other persons not securing an injunction shall pay to the commission all taxes, fees, and assessments due by him under the provisions of this Chapter and said restraining order or injunction shall in no way interfere with or impair the power of the commission to collect and enforce the payment of the taxes, fees, and assessments involved in any litigation from taxes the funds so deposited shall be refunded by the Treasurer to said applicant.

Art. 13.06
Attachment of Permit to Machine

Provided further, the permit issued by the commission to evidence the payment of the tax levied herein shall be securely attached to the machine in a manner that will require continued application of steam and water to remove the same.

Art. 13.07. Rules and Regulations; Revocation of Licenses or Permits

(1) The commission may make and publish rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this Chapter or the other laws or the Constitution of this State or of the United States, for the enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter and the collection of the revenues hereunder.

(2) If any individual, company, corporation or association who owns, operates, exhibits or displays any coin-operated machine in this State, shall violate any provision of this Chapter or any rule and regulation promulgated hereunder, the commission shall investigate the violation, make findings of fact, and may recommend to the Attorney General that a license, permit, or registration certificate be revoked. If the licenses, permits, or registration certificate of any individual, company, corporation, or association owning, operating or displaying coin-operated machines in this State is revoked, such individual, company, corporation, or association shall not operate, display or permit to be operated or displayed such machines until the licenses, permits, or registration certificates are reinstated or until new licenses, permits, or registration certificates are granted.

Art. 13.08. Permits; Collection of Tax; Payment of Expenses

The commission shall collect, and issue permits for the payment of the tax levied herein and to employ all the agencies of the law available to him for the enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter. Provided that Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) of the funds derived under the provisions of this Chapter shall be deposited annually to the credit of the General Revenue Fund as payment for the services of the commission and other State agencies in the enforcement of this Chapter.

Art. 13.09. Existing Laws; Violations not Authorized

Nothing herein shall be construed or have the effect to license, permit, authorize or legalize any machine, device, table, or coin-operated machine, the keeping, exhibition, operation, display or maintenance of which is now illegal or in violation of any Article of the Penal Code of this State or the Constitution of this State.

Art. 13.10. Records

Every "owner" of one or more coin-operated machines in this State shall keep for a period of two (2) years for the inspection at all times by the Attorney General and the commission, or their authorized representatives, a complete, itemized record maintained in accordance with accepted auditing and accounting practices of each and every such machine purchased, received, possessed, handled, exhibited or displayed in this State. Such record shall be kept at a permanent address which address shall be designated on the application for permit and shall include the following information: The kind of each such machine, the date acquired or received in Texas, the date placed in operation, the location or locations of each machine including county, city, street and/or rural route number, the date of each and every change in location, the name and complete address of each and every operator, the full name and address of the owner, or if other than an individual the principal officers or members thereof and their addresses. Such information shall be shown completely and separately for each and every machine.

Art. 13.11. Violations of Act; Penalty; Suit to Recover Penalty

If any "owner" of a coin-operated machine within this State shall (a) permit any coin-operated machine under his control to be operated, exhibited or displayed within this State without said permit being attached thereto, or (b) if any person shall exhibit, display or have in his possession within this State any coin-operated machine without having annexed or attached thereto a permit issued by the commission showing the payment of the tax due thereon for the current year, or (c) if any person required to keep records of coin-operated machines in this State shall falsify such records, or (d) shall fail to keep such records, or (e) shall refuse or fail to present such records for inspection upon the demand of the commission or its authorized representatives, or (f) if any person in this State shall use any artful device or deceptive practice to conceal any violation of this Chapter, or (g) mislead the commission or its authorized representatives in the enforcement of this Chapter, or (h) if any person in this State shall fail to comply with the provisions of this Chapter, or violate the same, or (i) if any person in this State shall fail to comply with the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission, or violate the same, he shall forfeit to the State as a penalty, the sum of not less than Five Dollars ($5) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500). Each day's violation shall constitute a separate offense and incur another penalty, which, if not paid shall be recovered in a suit by the Attorney General of this State in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, or any court having jurisdiction.

Art. 13.12. Offenses; Penalty

(a) If any person shall exhibit, display or have in his possession within this State any coin-operated machine without having annexed or attached thereto a valid permit issued by the commission showing the payment of the tax due thereon for the current year, or

(b) if any person required to keep records of coin-operated machines in this State shall falsify such records or

(c) shall fail to keep such records, or

(d) shall refuse or fail to present such records for inspection upon the demand of the commission or its authorized representatives, or

(e) if any person in this State shall use any artful device or deceptive practice to conceal any violation of this Chapter, or

(f) mislead the commission or its authorized representatives in the enforcement of this Chapter, or

(g) if any person in this State shall fail to comply with the provisions of this Chapter, or violate the same, or

(h) if any person in this State shall fail to comply with the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission, or violate the same, he shall be guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.

Art. 13.13. Sealing Machine to Prevent Operations; Penalty for Breaking Seal

Provided that the commission or its authorized representatives, may seal any such machine upon which the tax has not been paid in a manner that will prevent further operation. Whoever shall break the seal affixed by said commission or its authorized representatives, or whoever exhibit or display any such coin-operated machine after said seal has been broken or shall remove any coin-operated machine from location after the same has been sealed by the commission shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as set out in Article 13.12 of this Chapter. The commission shall charge a fee of $25.00 for the release of any coin-operated machine sealed for nonpayment of tax.

Art. 13.14. Apportionment of Tax; Tax Levy by Counties and Cities

Except as herein provided in this Chapter, one-fourth (¼) of the net revenue derived from this Chapter shall be credited to the Available School Fund of the State of Texas and three-fourths (¾) of the net revenue derived from this Chapter shall be credited to the Clearance Fund, established by Article XX of House Bill No. 8, Chapter 184, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941. Provided that all counties and cities within this State may levy an occupation tax on coin-operated machines in this State in an amount not to exceed one half (½) of the State tax levied herein.

Art. 13.15. Sealing of Machines by City or County

Any city or county levying an occupation tax on coin-operated machines is hereby authorized to seal any such machine on which the tax has not been paid. Any city or county levying an occupation tax on coin-operated machines is hereby authorized to charge a fee not exceeding Five Dollars ($5) for the release of any machine sealed as provided herein for nonpayment of tax. Whoever shall break the seal affixed in the name of any city or county or exhibit, display or remove from location any machine on which the seal has been broken shall be guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.

Art. 13.16. Taxes, Penalties and Interest Under Re-enacted or Repealed Statutes; Offenses and Penalties Under Prior Laws

All occupation taxes, penalties and interest accruing to the State of Texas by virtue of any of the re-enacted or repealed provisions as set out in this Chapter before the effective date of this Chapter shall be and remain valid and binding obligations to the State of Texas for all taxes, penalties, and interest accruing under the provisions of prior or pre-existing laws, and all such taxes, penalties and interest now or hereafter becoming delinquent to the State of Texas before the effective date of this Chapter are hereby expressly preserved and declared to be legal and valid obligations to the State.

The passage of this Chapter shall not affect offenses committed, or prosecutions begun, under any pre-existing law, but any such offenses or prosecutions may be conducted under the law as it existed at the time of the commission of the offense.

(6) The application must contain a statement that the information contained in it is true and complete, and this statement shall be made under oath.

(7) The statement of ownership contained in the application becomes a public record upon issuance of a license. Other information in the application is confidential.
Art. 13.17

TITLE 122A. TAXATION—GENERAL

(8) The application shall designate an office in this state where the applicant proposes to maintain the records which he is required to maintain by this Article, otherwise by law, or by rule or regulation of the commission.

Fee with Application

Sec. 13. The application must be accompanied by the annual license fee in the form of a cashier's check or money order payable to the commission.

Records and Reports; Offenses; Penalty

Sec. 14. (1) The licensee shall keep records and make reports to the commission of the information specified in Subsection (2) of Section 12 of this Article at intervals specified by the commission, and upon demand by the commission. He shall immediately notify the commission in writing of any change in ownership of the licensed business.

(2) It is an offense for a person to willfully fail or refuse to make reports required by this Section.

(3) It is an offense for a person to willfully withhold or conceal any information required to be reported by this Section from a person who has the duty to make the report.

(4) A person who violates this Section is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

Types of Licenses

Sec. 15. (1) A person who wishes to engage in certain business dealing with music coin-operated machines or skill or pleasure coin-operated machines shall apply for a general business license, or an import license, or a repair license, or any combination of these.

(2) A general business licensee may engage in business to manufacture, own, buy, sell, rent, lease, trade, repair, maintain, service, transport or exhibit within the state, and store music and skill or pleasure coin-operated machines.

(3) An import licensee may engage in business to import, transport, own, buy, repair, sell, and deliver, music and skill or pleasure coin-operated machines, for sale and delivery within this State.

(4) A repair licensee may engage in the business of repairing, maintaining, servicing, transporting, or storing music, skill, or pleasure coin-operated machines.

Fees

Sec. 16. (1) The annual license fee for a general business license shall be as follows:

For an applicant with 50 or fewer machines, $200;

For an applicant with 51–200 machines, $400;

For an applicant with over 200 machines, $500.

(2) The annual license fee for an import license is $500.

(3) The annual license fee for a repair license is $50.

(4) The commission may not refund any part of a license fee after the license is issued. In the event a license is not issued, the commission may retain $25 to cover administrative costs, and may refund the balance.

(5) Cities and counties within this state may charge a license fee in an amount not to exceed one-half of the license fee required herein.

Exemptions

Sec. 16A. (1) A person who owns or exhibits coin-operated machines is exempt from the licensing and record keeping requirements imposed by this Article if:

(a) he operates or exhibits his machines exclusively on premises occupied by him, and in connection with his business; and

(b) he owns no machine subject to the occupation tax imposed by this chapter located on the business premises of another person; and

(c) he has no financial interest, direct or indirect, in the coin-operated music, skill, or pleasure machine industry, except for the interest he owns in his machines used exclusively on premises occupied by him.

(2) Machines which are exhibited by a nonlicensed owner exempt under this section must be registered with the commission. The owner shall obtain a registration certificate each year. The registration certificate shall show the name and address of the location of each machine and shall certify that the machine has a valid tax stamp affixed to it. The owner shall obtain his registration certificate by filing sworn application.

(3) Each time the location of a machine is changed, the owner of the registration certificate shall notify the commission of the change by filing an amendment to the registration certificate within 10 days of the change.

(4) The fee for registration of machines affected by this section is $10 for the business entity in which the owner's machines are exhibited.

Removal of Stamp Prohibited; Penalty

Sec. 17. (1) No person other than the commission may intentionally remove a current registration stamp from a music or skill or pleasure coin-operated machine.
(2) A person who violates this Section is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.

License as Consent to Entry

Sec. 18. Acceptance of a license issued under this Article constitutes consent by the licensee that the commission or any peace officer may freely enter upon the licensed business premises during normal business hours for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this Article.

Mandatory Grounds for Refusal, Suspension, or Revocation of License

Sec. 19. (1) The commission shall not issue a general business or import license for a business under this Article if it finds that the applicant

(a) has been finally convicted of a felony in a court of competent jurisdiction during the five years preceding the filing of the application; or

(b) has been on probation or parole as a result of a felony conviction during the two years preceding the filing of the application.

(2) The commission may not issue or renew a license for a business under this Article, and shall suspend for any period of time, or cancel a license, if it finds that the applicant or licensee is indebted to the State by judgment for any fees, costs, penalties, or delinquent taxes.

(3) The commission may not issue or renew a license for a business pursuant to the terms of this Article if the applicant does not designate and maintain an office in this state or if the applicant does not permit inspection by the commission of all records which the applicant or licensee is required to maintain.

(4) The commission shall issue an original license to an applicant who complies with the requirements of Subsections (1) and (2) of this Section.

Discretionary Grounds for Refusal, Suspension, or Revocation of License

Sec. 20. (1) A license issued pursuant to the authority of this Article may be revoked, or renewal refused, if:

(a) the licensee has intentionally violated a provision of this Article or a regulation promulgated pursuant to the authority of this Article;

(b) the licensee has intentionally failed to answer a question, or intentionally made a false statement in, or in connection with, his application or renewal;

(c) the licensee extends credit without registering his intent to do so with the consumer credit commission;

(d) the licensee uses coercion to accomplish a purpose or to engage in conduct regulated by the commission;

(e) a contract or agreement between the licensee and a location owner contains a restriction, of any kind and to any degree, on the right of the location owner to purchase, agree to purchase, or use a product, commodity, or service not regulated under the terms of this Article;

(f) issuance of, or failure to suspend or cancel, the license would be contrary to the intent and purpose of this Article.

(2) The commission shall conduct a hearing to ascertain whether a licensee has engaged in conduct which would be grounds for revocation. The commission shall make findings of fact, and, if the commission determines that grounds for revocation exist, the commission shall file those findings with the Attorney General. The Attorney General upon receipt of the record may institute an action to impose the penalties provided by this Act in Article 13.11 or to revoke the license. The action shall be instituted in a district court in the county of the licensee's place of business.

Applicant and Licensee Defined

Sec. 21. In Sections 19 and 20 of this Article, unless the context requires a different definition, the words "applicant" and "licensee" include each partner of a partnership; each trustee of a trust; each receiver of a receivership; each officer and director of a corporation; and each shareholder owning not less than 25 percent of the outstanding shares; any individual applicant or licensee; each officer, director, and member of any association or other entity not specified and, when applicable in context, the business entity itself.

Notice and Hearing

Sec. 22. (1) An applicant or licensee is entitled to at least ten days' notice and a hearing in the following instances:

(a) after his original application for a license has been refused;

(b) before his application for a renewal of a license may be refused;

(c) before the commission may file a recommendation of revocation, denial, or other sanction, with the Attorney General.

(2) Notice of hearing for refusal, cancellation, or suspension may be served personally by the commission or its authorized representative or sent by United States certified mail addressed to the applicant or licensee at his last known address. In the event that notice cannot be effected by either of these methods after due diligence, the commission may prescribe any reasonable method of notice calculated to inform a person of average intelligence and prudence in the conduct of his affairs. The commission shall publish notice of a hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the licensee conducts his business activities.

Notice of Commission's Order

Sec. 23. (1) Any order refusing an application or renewal application shall state the reasons for refusal, and a copy of the order shall be delivered immediately to the applicant or licensee.

(2) An order recommending cancellation or suspension of a license shall state the reasons for the cancellation or suspension, and a copy of the order shall be delivered immediately to the licensee.

(3) Delivery of the commission's recommendation of refusal, cancellation, or suspension may be given by

(a) personal service upon an individual applicant or licensee;
(b) personal service upon any officer or director or partner or trustee or receiver, as the case may be;
(c) personal service upon the person in charge of the business premises, temporarily or otherwise, of the applicant or licensee;
(d) sending such notice by United States certified mail addressed to the business premises of the applicant or licensee;
(e) posting notice upon the outside door of the business premises of the applicant or licensee.

(4) Notice is complete upon performance of any of the above.

Review of Commission Action

Sec. 24. (1) Appeal by an affected person from all actions of the commission other than a recommendation to the Attorney General for the revocation of a license as provided in Article 13.07(2) and Article 13.17 Section 20(2) of this Act or from denial of requested action shall be to a District Court of the county of the licensee's place of business. The review shall be conducted by the court and shall be confined to the record. If the record is found to be incomplete, the court may order that additional evidence be taken before the commission. The commission may modify its findings and decision or order by reason of the additional evidence and shall file such evidence and any modifications, new findings, decisions, or orders with the court. In cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the commission, not shown in the record, proof thereon may be taken in the court.

(2) The court shall not substitute its judgment for that of the commission as to the weight of the evidence on questions of fact committed to commission discretion. The court may affirm the decision of the commission in whole or in part; the court shall reverse or remand the case for further proceeding if substantial rights of the appellant have been prejudiced because the commission's findings, inferences, conclusion, or decisions are:

(a) in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions;
(b) in excess of the statutory authority of the commission;
(c) made upon unlawful procedure;
(d) affected by other error of law;
(e) not reasonably supported by substantial evidence in view of the reliable and probative evidence in the record as a whole; or
(f) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

Appeals

Sec. 25. Appeal from any final judgment of the District Court may be taken by any party, including the commission, in the manner provided for in civil actions generally; provided that the commission may not appeal a decision on motion of the Attorney General to revoke a license.

Prohibited Financial Relationships; Credit Transactions; Penalty

Sec. 26. (1) It shall be unlawful for a person who has a financial interest in a business required to be licensed by this Article or for any agent on behalf of such person to contract either orally or in writing to convey an interest in real property whether by lease, sub-lease or otherwise if such contract contains a provision or provisions in any way limiting the other party's right to secure music or skill or pleasure coin-operated machines from any source.

(2) It shall be unlawful for a person to secure or attempt to secure a contract of lease or bailment of a music or skill or pleasure coin-operated machine by coercion, threats or intimidation, through the commission of, or threat to commit, any act prohibited by the penal laws of this State.

(3) A person who violates Subsection (1) of this Section shall be guilty of a third-degree felony.

(4) Any person required to be licensed by this Article may make an extension of credit or lend the licensee's credit to a lessee or a bailee of a music or skill or pleasure coin-operated machine, or on behalf of either for business or commercial purposes when the following terms and conditions have been met and the following duties and obligations satisfactorily assumed and discharged.

(a) Before making the first such extension of credit, the licensee under this Article shall first notify the Consumer Credit Commissioner of the State of Texas of the intent of such licensee to make extensions of credit in the conduct of the licensee’s business.

(b) The consideration for such extensions of credit shall not be less than one-half percent or exceed interest or its equivalent at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month, computed according to the United States Rule. Consideration excludes court costs and attorney’s fees as determined by the court, but includes the aggregate interest, fees, bonuses, commissions, brokerage, discounts, expenses, and other forms of costs charged, contracted for, or received by a licensee or any other person in connection with investigating, arranging, negotiating, procuring, guaranteeing, making, servicing, collecting, and enforcing an extension of credit or forbearance of money, credit, goods, or things in action, or any other service rendered. If in any transaction any consideration in excess of that provided above is charged or received by the licensee directly, or indirectly, except as the result of an accidental and bona fide error corrected upon discovery, the unpaid balance of the indebtedness created by such transaction shall be void, and that portion of any indebtedness so created which has been paid to the licensee, either the principal or its equivalent or interest or its equivalent, or both, shall be repaid by the licensee to the person.

(c) No extension of credit may be made by any person required to be licensed by this Article unless it is evidenced by a written agreement signed by the parties thereto specifying both the amount of credit extended, the consideration for such extension of credit, and the terms according to which such extension of credit is to be repaid.

(d) Each licensee making extensions of credit authorized by this Section shall keep in this State books and records, which shall be consistent with accepted accounting and auditing practices, relating to all such extensions of credit authorized by this Section sufficient to enable any competent person to determine whether or not such licensee is complying with this Section. Such records shall be preserved for four (4) years from the date of the transaction to which they relate, or two (2) years from the date of the final entry made with regard to such transaction, whichever is later.

(e) At such times as the Consumer Credit Commissioner may deem necessary, or at the request of the commission or the Attorney General, the Consumer Credit Commissioner, or his duly authorized representative, may make an examination of the place of business of each licensee hereunder, and may inquire into and examine the transactions, books, accounts, papers, correspondence, or records of such licensee insofar as they pertain to the extensions of credit regulated by this Section. In the course of such examinations, the Consumer Credit Commissioner or his duly authorized representative shall have free access to the office, place of business, files, safes and vaults of such licensee, and shall have the right to make copies of such books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records. The Consumer Credit Commissioner or his duly authorized representative may, during the course of such examination, administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject pertinent to any matter about which the Commissioner is authorized or required by this Section to consider, investigate or secure information. Any licensee who shall fail or refuse to let the Consumer Credit Commissioner or his duly authorized representative examine or make copies of such books or other relative documents shall thereby be deemed in violation of this Section. The information obtained in the course of such examination shall be confidential. Each licensee shall pay to the Consumer Credit Commissioner an amount assessed by the Commissioner to cover the direct and indirect costs of such examination, including a proportionate share of general administrative expenses, which amount shall be retained and held by the Consumer Credit Commissioner, and no part of such fee shall ever be paid into the General Revenue Fund of this State. All expenses incurred by the Consumer Credit Commissioner in conducting such examinations shall be paid only from such fees, and no such expense shall ever be charged against the funds of this State.

(f) The Consumer Credit Commissioner may make regulations necessary for the enforcement of this Section and consistent with all its provisions. Before making a regulation the Consumer Credit Commissioner shall give each licensee at least thirty (30) days’ written notice of a public hearing, stating the time and place thereof and the terms or substance of the proposed regulation. At the hearing, any licensee or other person may be heard and may introduce evidence, data, or arguments or place the same on file. The Consumer Credit Commissioner, after consideration of all relevant matters presented, shall adopt and promulgate every regulation in written form, stating the date of adoption and date of promulgation. Each regulation shall be entered in a permanent record book which shall be a public record and be kept in the Consumer Credit Commissioner’s office. A copy of each regulation shall be mailed to each licensee, and no regulation shall become effective until the expiration of at least twenty
(20) days after such mailing. On the application of any person and payment of the cost thereof, the Consumer Credit Commissioner shall furnish such person a certified copy of any such regulation.

(4) Any person who violates Subsection (3) of this Section is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 19. MISCELLANEOUS OCCUPATION TAX

Art. 19.01. Miscellaneous Occupation Taxes

There shall be levied on and collected from every person, firm, company or association of persons, pur­ suing any of the occupations named in the following numbered subdivisions of this Article, an annual occupation tax, which shall be paid annually in ad­ vance except where herein otherwise provided, on every such occupation or separate establishment, as follows:

(1) Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 320, § 12, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (2) to (10)]

CHAPTER 20. LIMITED SALES, EXCISE AND USE TAX

Art. 20.01. Title—Definitions

This Chapter is known and may be cited as the “Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act,” and the following words shall have the following meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (A) to (K)]

(3) “Sales Price” does not include any of the following:

(a) Cash discounts allowed on sales.

(b) The amount charged for tangible personal property returned by customers when the entire amount charged therefor is refunded either in cash or credit, or refunds on the sales price of taxable services.

(c) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales or wholesale sales of tires and fishing equipment whether imposed upon the retailer, wholesaler, or the consumer, under Subtitles D and E, Title 28 (Internal Revenue Code), United States Code.¹

(d) The amount charged for finance charges, carrying charges, service charges or interest from credit extended on sales of taxable items under conditional sale contracts or other contracts providing for deferred payments of the purchase price.

(e) The value of tangible personal property taken by a seller in trade as all or a part of the consideration for a sale of a taxable item of any kind or nature.

(f) Charges for transportation of tangible personal property after sale.

(g) The amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing, applying, remodeling, or repairing the tangible personal property sold.

[Text of subsec. (5)(h) added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 262, ch. 108, § 1]

(h) Voluntary gratuities.

[Text of subsec. (5)(h) added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2907, ch. 719, art. VIII, § 1]

(h) The face value of United States of America coin or currency in a sale of United States of America coin or currency in which the total consideration given by the purchaser exceeds the face value of the coin or currency.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (M) to (X)]

(Y) Newspaper. “Newspaper” means those publications which are printed and distributed periodically at daily, weekly, or other short intervals not exceeding four weeks, for the dissemination of news of a general character and of a general interest. For purposes of this section, advertising is considered to be news of a general character and of a general interest. The term “newspaper” does not include hand­bills, circulars, flyers, or the like, unless such items, when printed, are printed for the purpose of distribution as a part of a publication which itself constitutes a newspaper within the meaning of this section, and are in fact actually distributed as part of a newspaper as herein defined.

[F] Certain Meals and Food Products. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use or other consumption in this State of:

1. Meals and food products (including soft drinks and candy) for human consumption served by public or private schools, school districts, student organizations, or Parent-Teacher Associations pursuant to an agreement with the proper school authorities, in an elementary or secondary school during the regular school day or by a Parent-Teacher Association during a fund-raising sale the proceeds of which do not go to the benefit of an individual.

2. Meals and food products (including soft drinks and candy) for human consumption when sold by a church or at a function of said church.

3. Meals and food products (including soft drinks and candy) for human consumption when served to patients and inmates of hospitals and other institutions licensed by the State for the care of human beings.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (G) to (E)]

[H] United States; State; Political Subdivision; Religious, Eleemosynary Organizations. There are exempted from the computation of the amount of the taxes imposed by this Chapter, the receipts from the sale, lease or rental of any taxable items to, or the storage, use or other consumption of taxable items by:

1. The United States, its unincorporated agencies and instrumentalities.

2. Any incorporated agency or instrumentality of the United States wholly owned by the United States or by a corporation wholly owned by the United States.

3. The State of Texas, its unincorporated agencies and instrumentalities.

4. Any county, city, special district or other political subdivision of this State.

5. Any organization created for religious, educational, charitable or eleemosynary purposes, provided that no part of the net earnings of any such organization inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. [Text of subsec. (H)(6) effective until June 1, 1978]

6. Any nonprofit organization engaged in commemorating the Bicentennial of the American Revolution, provided such taxable items are used by the organization in commemorating the Bicentennial of the American Revolution, provided that no part of the net earnings of the organization inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and provided further that this exemption will expire on June 1, 1978. [See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (I) to (M)]

[N] Animal Life; Feed; Seeds; Plants; Fertilizer. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from sales of, and the storage, use or other consumption of:

1. Any form of animal life of a kind the products of which ordinarily constitute food for human consumption. Horses, mules and work animals.

2. Feed for farm and ranch animals and for animals which are held for sale in the regular course of business.

3. Seeds and annual plants the products of which ordinarily constitute food for human consumption or are to be sold in the regular course of business.

4. Fungicides, insecticides, herbicides, defoliants and desiccants exclusively used or employed on farms or ranches in the production of food for human consumption, feed for any form of animal life, or other agricultural products to be sold in the regular course of business.

5. Fertilizer.

6. Machinery or equipment exclusively used or employed on farms or ranches in the production of food for human consumption, production of grass, the building or maintaining of roads and water facilities, feed for any form of animal life, or other agricultural products to be sold in the regular course of business, and machinery, equipment, and gooseneck trailers exclusively used in the processing, packing, or marketing of agricultural products by the original producer at a location operated by the original producer exclusively for processing, packing, or marketing his own products.

(P) Vessels.

(1) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from the sale, lease or rental of, or the storage, use or other consumption in this State of materials, equipment and machinery which enter into and become component parts of ships or vessels exclusively and directly used in a commercial enterprise, including commercial fishing vessels, and vessels used commercially as vessels for pleasure fishing by individuals as paying passengers thereon, of eight (8) tons displacement and over, and the receipts from the sale of such ships or vessels exclusively and directly used in a commercial enterprise when sold by the builder thereof, and repair services, renovation, and/or conversion, including labor and materials to such ships or vessels exclusively and directly used in a commercial enterprise.

(Q) Certain Aircraft. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from the sale, use, storage, lease or other consumption of aircraft sold to persons using such aircraft as certified or licensed carriers of persons or property, or sold to persons and used for the exclusive purpose of training or instructing pilots in a licensed course of instruction, or sold to any foreign government or sold to persons who are not residents of this State and repair services to aircraft operated by a certified or licensed carrier of persons or property.

(1) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from the sale, lease, or rental of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this State of:

(a) tangible personal property which will enter into and become an ingredient or component part of a newspaper, as that term is defined in Article 20.01(Y) of this Chapter, whether or not such newspaper is printed for ultimate sale at retail within or without this State; and

(b) tangible personal property used or consumed in or during any phase of actual printing or processing of such newspaper, provided that the use or consumption of such tangible personal property is necessary or essential to the performance of such printing or processing operations. Chemicals, catalysts, and other materials which are used for the purpose of producing or inducing a chemical or physical change during such printing or processing operations or for removing impurities or otherwise placing a newspaper in its final distributable form are included within the exemption, as are other articles of tangible personal property used in such a manner as to be necessary or essential in the actual printing or processing operations. The exemption provided herein does not include the following:

(i) machinery, equipment, and replacement parts and accessories therefor, having a useful life when new in excess of six (6) months;

(ii) machinery, equipment, materials, and supplies used in a manner that is merely incidental to the printing or processing, such as, for example, intraplant transportation equipment, and maintenance and janitorial equipment and supplies;

(iii) hand tools used in the printing and processing; and

(iv) tangible personal property used by the newspaper printer in any activities other than the actual printing or processing operation, such as, for example, office equipment and supplies, equipment and supplies used in selling or in distributing activities, in gathering information for publication, or in transportation activities.

(2) Wrapping, Packing and Packaging Supplies.

(a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from sales of all internal and external wrapping, packing, and packaging supplies and materials to any person for use in wrapping, packing, or packaging any newspaper for the purpose of expediting or furthering in any way either the sale of that newspaper or the distribution of that newspaper if distributed without charge.

(b) For the purpose of this Section, wrapping, packing, and packaging supplies shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(i) wrapping paper, wrapping twine, bags, cartons, crates, crating materials, tape, rope, rubber bands, labels, staples, glue, and mailing tubes; and

(ii) property used inside a package in order to shape, form, preserve, stabilize, or protect newspapers contained therein.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision in this Chapter to the contrary, there are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from the following transactions:

(a) Transactions involving a transfer for a consideration of the title or possession of a newspaper, as defined in Article 20.01(Y) of this Chapter, which has been produced, fabricated, or printed to the special order of the customer, provided such customer was responsible for gathering substantially all the information contained in such newspaper, formulating the layout, design, and format of such newspaper, and further provided that such customer would otherwise have been entitled to the exemption contained in Section (1) of this Article 20.04(BB) except for the fact that such customer did not own and operate or otherwise possess or control a printing facility capable of printing and processing such newspaper; and

(b) Transactions involving a transfer for a consideration of the title or possession of items such as handbills, circulars, flyers, advertising supplements, or the like, which have been printed to the special order of the customer, provided that such items, when printed, are printed for the exclusive purpose of being distributed as a part of a newspaper, as defined in Article 20.01(Y) of this Chapter, are actually distributed as part of such a newspaper, and further provided that such items, after being printed, are not delivered to such customer but are instead delivered to the person responsible for the distribution of the newspaper of which the items were originally intended to be a part.

(EE)(1) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Chapter the receipts from the sale, lease, or rental of, and the storage, use, or other consumption of food products, candy, carbonated beverages, and diluted juices, whether or not the product is sold for immediate consumption, if the sale:

(i) is made by a person under 18 years of age who is a member of a nonprofit organization devoted to the exclusive purposes of education or physical or religious training, and groups associated with public or private elementary or secondary schools;
(ii) is made as a part of a fund-raising drive sponsored by the organization;
(iii) all net proceeds from the sale go to the organization for its exclusive use.

(2) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this chapter the storage, consumption, or other use in this state of food products acquired in a sale exempted by the provisions of Subsection (1) of this section. The exemption allowed by this subsection applies only to the purchaser at the exempt sale. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 669, ch. 282, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2306, ch. 719, art. 6, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2309, ch. 719, arts. 11, § 2, 13, § 1, 16, § 1, 18, § 1, 21, § 1 and 22, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 21. ADMISSIONS TAX

Art. 21.02. Tax Imposed

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (1)]

(2) There is hereby levied on each admission to entertainments such as motion pictures, operas, plays and like amusements held at a fixed or regularly established motion picture theater, and on each admission to a skating rink, where the admission charged is in excess of One Dollar and Five Cents ($1.05) and not more than One Dollar and Fifteen Cents ($1.15) a tax of one cent (1¢); and where the admission charged is in excess of One Dollar and Fifteen Cents ($1.15) a tax of two cents (2¢) plus one cent (1¢) on each ten cents (10¢) or fractional part thereof in excess of One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents ($1.25).

(3) There is hereby levied a tax of one cent (1¢) on each ten cents (10¢) or fractional part thereof paid as admission to horse racing, dog racing, and like mechanical or animal contests and exhibitions, except automobile racing and motorcycle racing.

(4) There is hereby levied a tax of one cent (1¢) on each ten cents (10¢) or a fractional part thereof paid as admission to dance halls, night clubs, and any and all other like places of amusements, contests, and exhibitions where the admission charged is in excess of fifty-one cents (51¢).

REVISED CIVIL STATUTES

TITLE 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1c. [Expired]

By the terms of § 2 of this article, the Governor's Committee on Human Relations ceased to exist on August 31, 1975.

Art. 26. Oaths, Affidavits and Affirmations; Persons Authorized to Administer and Issue Certificate; Armed Forces Members and Spouses; Presumption; Absence of Seal

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

4. In addition to the methods above provided, any such oath, affidavit, or affirmation made by a member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America or any Auxiliaries thereto, or by the husband or wife of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America or any Auxiliaries thereto, may be administered by any commissioned officer in the Armed Forces of the United States of America or in the Auxiliaries thereto, and a certificate of such fact may be made by such officer.

In the absence of pleading or proof to the contrary it shall be presumed, when any certificate of an oath, affidavit, or affirmation is offered in evidence, that the person signing such as a commissioned officer was such on the date signed, and that the person making such oath, affidavit, or affirmation, to which such officer certifies, was one of those with respect to whom such action is hereby authorized.

No oath, affidavit, or affirmation administered in accordance with the provisions of this sub-section 4 of this Act shall be held invalid by reason of the failure of the officer certifying to such oath, affidavit, or affirmation to attach an official seal to the certificate thereto.

ARTICLE 41b. Audits of River Authorities [NEW]

Sec. 1. The fiscal accounts of each river authority in this state shall be audited annually. The board of directors of a river authority may have the authority's fiscal accounts audited at authority expense by an independent public accountant or certified public accountant holding a permit from the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy. If a river authority does not elect to have the fiscal accounts audited by an independent public accountant or a certified public accountant, the state auditor shall audit the authority in the manner provided by law for state government audits. The annual audit, if performed by an accountant other than the state auditor, shall be completed within 120 days after the close of the district's fiscal year.

Sec. 2. The audit shall be performed according to the generally accepted auditing standards adopted by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and shall include the auditor's representation that the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Sec. 3. After the board of directors of the authority approves the annual audit report, the report shall be filed with the Texas Water Rights Commission. If the board of directors refuses to approve the audit report, the board shall nevertheless file the report with the commission along with a statement detailing the reasons why the report was not accepted.

Sec. 4. A copy of the audit report shall be available for public inspection in the administrative office of the river authority during regular office hours.

Sec. 5. It is not necessary that the board of directors advertise for competitive bids before selecting the independent public accountant or certified public accountant to perform the annual audit required by the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 6. If the state auditor considers it necessary, he may have an audit made of any river authority in this state. The audit shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for audit of the state government.

Sec. 7. Section 7b, Chapter 293, Acts of the 48th Legislature, 1943, as amended (Article 4413a–7b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

Financial Assistance

Sec. 5.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 5(a)]

(b) There may be paid to subsidize the adoption an amount not to exceed the amount that would be paid for foster care for the child if the placement for adoption had not taken place, if the department, pursuant to rules and regulations which it shall adopt, determines that the need for such assistance exists.

(c) The county responsible for the care of the child in a foster home is responsible for the payments provided for by this section. State funds may be used to make payments for children whom the State Department of Public Welfare places for adoption and for whom the Department was managing conservator at the time of such placement and state funds shall be used to make payments for children whom the State Department of Public Welfare places for adoption who are recipients of aid to families with dependent children at the time of the placement.

CHAPTER ONE. COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE

Art. 55c. Financing Programs to Encourage Production and Use of Agricultural Commodities; Referendum; Exemptions; Political Activity; Budget Approval

Exemptions

Sec. 2A. Rice, flax, and cattle are exempt from all provisions of this Act. The original referendum and subsequent biennial board elections may provide exemptions for producers within the boundaries of the assessment district, provided such exemptions are included in full written form on the election ballot and are approved by two-thirds or more of those voting in the election.

Producers' Assessment Exemptions

Sec. 14B. (a) Producers of any agricultural commodity may exempt their product sales from assessments by filing a signed request for exemption with the processor at the time of each sale. The processor shall include copies of the exemption requests with remittance of assessed funds each month to the secretary-treasurer of the commodity producers board for the commodity.

(b) The commissioner shall prescribe exemption forms to be used. The board shall furnish the prescribed exemption forms to all processors within the district of operation.

Collection of Assessment; Refund

Sec. 15. (a) The levying of an assessment which has been authorized by referendum vote shall be made and collected as provided in this section.

(b) The board shall determine the commodity process point at which collection of the assessment shall be made, except that when the producer and processor are the same legal entity the processor shall collect the assessment at the time of processing, also, except that when a producer retains ownership after processing, the processor shall collect the assessment at time of processing and the secretary-treasurer of the board shall notify all such processors at that point of process, by registered or certified mail, that on and after the date specified in the letter, the processor, when making any purchase of the commodity or advancing any funds therefor, shall collect the assessment from the producer by deducting the amount thereof from the purchase price or funds advanced at that process point.

(c) The amount of the assessment collected shall be clearly shown on the sales invoice or other document evidencing the transaction, and a copy of such receipt shall be furnished the producer by the processor.

(d) The processor collecting the assessment shall remit such funds monthly, not later than the 10th day of the month following that in which they were collected, to the secretary-treasurer of the commodity producers board for such commodity, unless otherwise provided in the original referendum which authorized creation of the assessment district.

(e) The secretary-treasurer shall deposit all money received by the board under this Act, including assessments, donations from individuals, concerns, or corporations, and grants from state or other governmental agencies, in a bank selected by the board. The money shall be expended for the purposes specified in this Act.

(f) Any producer who has paid such assessment may, if he desires to do so, obtain a refund of the amount paid, if application for a refund is made within 60 days after the date of payment. Such application shall be in writing on a form designed and furnished for such purpose by the commodity producers board. The application shall be filed with the secretary-treasurer of the board, accompanied by proof of the payment of the assessment, and it is the duty of the secretary-treasurer to promptly pay the refund to the producer not later than the 10th day of the month following the month in which the application and proof of payment is received.

Art. 55f. Grading of Livestock

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “Livestock” means cattle, sheep, goats, and hogs.

(2) “Commissioner” means the state commissioner of agriculture.

(3) “Person” means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association of individuals.

Grading on Request

Sec. 2. The commissioner or his authorized agents may grade livestock alive in this state on request of the owner or a cooperative marketing association.

Agents; Competency Requirements

Sec. 3. The commissioner may employ agents for the purpose of grading livestock and may require applicants for employment or persons employed as inspectors to pass examinations and meet other requirements established by the commissioner to demonstrate competence in grading livestock.

Grade Standards

Sec. 4. Grade standards for classifying livestock under this Act shall be the standards and classifications of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Regulations; Fees

Sec. 5. The commissioner may promulgate regulations relating to the method and procedures for the grading service. The commissioner may collect from persons who requested grading, fees for livestock grading in amounts to cover costs incurred in providing the grading services. Fees collected as provided in this Act shall be deposited in the state treasury.

certifying agency for the Registered class of seed or plants for the purpose of maintaining genetic purity and identity.

(9) The terms “Certified seed” and “Certified plant” mean a class of certified seed or plants which is the progeny of Breeder, Foundation, or Registered seed or plants, except as otherwise provided by federal law, and is produced and handled under procedures established, in accordance with federal requirements, by a seed or plant certifying agency for the Certified class of seed or plants for the purpose of maintaining genetic purity and identity.

State Seed and Plant Board

Sec. 3. (a) The State Seed and Plant Board is an agency of the state. The board consists of six members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Membership must include:

(1) one individual from the Soils and Crop Sciences Department, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas A & M University;

(2) one individual from the Department of Plant and Soil Sciences, Texas Tech University;

(3) one individual licensed as a Texas Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plant producer who is not employed by a public institution;

(4) one individual who sells Texas Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants;

(5) one individual actively engaged in farming but not a producer or seller of Texas Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants; and

(6) the head of the seed division of the state department of agriculture.

(b) An individual appointed from a state university or the state department of agriculture serves on the board as an ex officio member. A member serves for a term of two years and until his successor has qualified. Members serve without compensation but are entitled to reimbursement by the state for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(c) A member whose employment is terminated with the agency or department from which he was appointed or who ceases to be engaged in the business or professional activity which he was appointed to represent vacates his membership on the board.

(d) The board annually shall elect a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary. The board shall meet at such times and places as determined by the chairman.

Licensing of Foundation, Registered, and Certified Seed and Plant Producers

Sec. 4. (a) The board may establish, not inconsistent with federal law, procedures for and eligibility of various kinds and varieties of seed and plants for genetic purity and identity certification. The board may establish standards of genetic purity and identity, not inconsistent with federal law, for classes of certified seed and plants of various kinds or varieties for which the board determines that standards are desirable. The board shall report to the commissioner the standards promulgated for the certification eligibility of various kinds and varieties of seed and plants and shall report to the commissioner the various kinds and varieties eligible for certification. In establishing the standards, the board may consider all factors affecting the quality of seed and plants. This paragraph (a) shall not go into effect until one year from the time of passage of this Act.

(b) A person who wants to produce a certified class of seed or plant for which the board has established standards of genetic purity and identity may apply to the board for licensing as a Foundation, Registered, or Certified producer of seed or plants. To be licensed as a producer, a person must satisfy the board that:

(1) he is of good character and has a reputation for honesty;

(2) his facilities meet board requirements for producing and maintaining seed or plants for the certification generations desired; and

(3) he has met any other board requirements as to knowledge of the production or maintenance of seed or plants for the certification generations for which he applies to be licensed.

(c) The board may prescribe regulations governing the production and handling by licensed producers of certified classes of seed and plants to insure the maintenance of genetic purity and identity.

(d) A license to produce Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants is not transferable and is permanent unless revoked as provided in this Act. A person licensed as a producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants is eligible to produce certified seed or plants, as provided in his license, of the class for which he is licensed or of any lower class of certified seed or plants, as determined by the board.

Registration of Plant Breeders

Sec. 5. (a) A person engaging in the development, maintenance, or production of seed or plants for which standards of genetic purity and identity have been established by the board may apply to the board for registration as a plant breeder. Application for a certificate of registration shall be made on forms prescribed by the board, accompanied by a non-refundable registration fee of not more than $100, as determined by the board. To be registered as a plant breeder, a person must satisfy the board that he is skilled in the science of plant breeding. The board may require skill to be shown by evidence of accomplishments in the field and may require an oral or written examination in the subject.

(b) A certificate of registration is not transferable and is permanent unless revoked as provided in this Act.

Protection of Foundation, Registered, and Certified Cotton Varieties

Sec. 6. (a) The board shall promulgate regulations governing the registration for certification eligibility of newly developed varieties of cotton. A person desiring to register a new variety of cotton shall apply for registration to the board on forms prescribed by the board. To obtain registration for a new variety of cotton, a person must satisfy the board that the cotton to be registered is a distinct new variety and must meet board requirements regulating control of production, maintenance, and handling of the cotton for genetic purity and identity.

(b) On issuance of a certificate of registration for a new cotton variety, the board shall notify the commissioner of the eligibility for certification of seed of the variety.

(1) After issuance of a certificate of registration for a new cotton variety, no person may use the name given the new variety by the registrant in the sale of noncertified cottonseed for a period of 17 years from the date of issuance of the certificate of registration.

(2) Subdivision (1), Subsection (b) of this section does not apply to a variety for which an application is pending for United States plant variety protection, not specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed, nor to a variety for which a certificate has been issued for United States plant variety protection, not specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed.

(c) This section does not require registration of new varieties of cotton. On 10 days' notice to the board, a person may withdraw from the operation of this section a cotton variety previously registered to him.

(d) This section does not prohibit contracts between a registrant and seedmen or farmers for the production or sale of certified seed of the new cotton variety.

(e) This section does not prohibit one farmer from selling to another farmer cottonseed of a new variety grown on his own farm, as provided in Subsection (e), Section 5 of the Texas Seed Law, as amended (Article 93b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(f) At any time when the board determines that a critical situation exists because rain, hail, drouth, insects, or other natural elements beyond producers' control have reduced the supply of planting seed of a registered cotton variety, the board may hold a public hearing to determine the extent of the emergency. Notice of the time, place, and nature of the hearing shall be published in at least three newspapers of general circulation in the state at least seven days before the hearing. At the hearing, if the board deems advisable after presentation of evidence from interested parties, the board may allow noncertified seed grown from certified seed of the variety in which a shortage exists to be sold by variety name for that crop year only. This subsection does not apply to a variety for which an application is pending for United States plant variety protection, specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed, nor to a variety for which a certificate has been issued for United States plant variety protection, specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed.

(g) This section does not apply to seeds marketed or approved for certification eligibility before September 1, 1969.

Other Board Duties

Sec. 7. The board shall approve tests for certified classes of seed and plants and formats of labels for certified classes of seed and plants. The board shall prescribe qualifications for inspectors and shall nominate candidates for employment by the commissioner as certified seed and plant inspectors.

Certification of Seed and Plants

Sec. 8. (a) The state department of agriculture is the certifying agency in Texas for the certification of seed and plants. The commissioner shall appoint a sufficient number of inspectors nominated by the board to carry out the inspection provisions of this Act.

(b) A person licensed as a Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plant producer, registered as a plant breeder, or having a certificate of registration for a cotton variety is eligible to have seed or plants of an eligible class and variety certified by the commissioner. On request by a licensed producer, registered plant breeder, or registrant of a cotton variety to have his seed or plants certified, the commissioner shall cause inspections to be made of the producer's or registrant's fields, facilities, and seed or plants. Inspection may include tests approved by the board and carried out by inspectors under the authority of the commissioner. After inspection, if the commissioner determines that the production of seed or plants has met the standards and regulations prescribed by the board, he shall cause to be attached to each container of the product a label identifying the seed or plant and the certified class and including such other information as prescribed by statute or regulations of the board.

(c) However, as a condition to the granting of certification labels, the commissioner shall collect inspection fees in amounts determined by the commissioner to be necessary to cover the costs of inspection and labels.

Seed and Plants from Outside the State

Sec. 9. (a) The commissioner may promulgate regulations, tests, and standards which must be met before seed or plants represented to be of a certified class may be shipped into the state for distribution in the state. Regulations, tests, and standards promulgated shall be designed to insure buyers in the state of having available certified seed and plants of known origin, genetic purity, and identity. Regulations, tests, and standards promulgated shall correspond to appropriate regulations, tests, and standards used in certifying seed and plants produced in Texas.

(b) The commissioner may require inspections of seed and plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state and may collect fees to cover costs of inspection, as determined by the commissioner. The commissioner may require inspection fee payment before distribution in the state.

(c) No person may distribute in this state seed or plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state, unless the person has first complied with any regulations, including testing requirements, promulgated by the commissioner for seed or plants shipped into the state.

(d) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state seed or plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state, unless the seed or plants have been certified by an official certifying agency in the state, province, or country of origin or have been certified by the commissioner.

(e) Seed or plants shipped into the state for distribution in the state which are represented to be of a certified class and which are found by the commissioner after investigation to violate the requirements of this section are restricted from distribution. In addition, the commissioner may order the seed or plants in violation confiscated and retained under his general supervision. An owner or consignee of restricted or confiscated seed or plants may appeal the commissioner's order by filing an appeal within 10 days of the order. Appeal is in the county court of the county where the seed or plants are restricted or were confiscated. The appeal in county court is by trial de novo. If no appeal is filed as provided in this Act, or if after an appeal in county court, the commissioner's action is not reversed, the commissioner may cause confiscated seed or plants to be destroyed.

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 10. (a) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state seed or plants with labeling or packaging accompanying the seed or plants using the terms "from officially inspected fields," "state inspected," "approved seed," "approved plants," "approved socks," "approved trees," "inspected fields," "foundation seed," "certified plants," or terms having the same meaning, unless the seed or plants have been certified as being Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants.

(b) No person may represent himself to be a registered plant breeder or licensed producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants unless he has been registered or licensed as provided in this Act.

(c) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants not in compliance with this Act or with regulations authorized by this Act to be promulgated.

(d) No person may sell or offer for sale seed or plants represented to be certified in explicit oral or written statements or by misleading oral or written statements if the seed or plants have not been certified or have not been certified as being of the class of which they are represented.

Revocation of Registration, License, and Certification

Sec. 11. (a) If an inspector reports to the commissioner that a registered plant breeder or licensed producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants has made exaggerated claims for his products or has failed to observe any regulation governing the maintenance and production of a certified class of seed or plants which he is registered or licensed to produce or maintain, the commissioner may give written notice to the breeder or producer of the time and place of a revocation hearing to be held by the commissioner not less than 10 days after issuance of notice.

(b) If at the hearing, the commissioner finds that the registered plant breeder or licensed producer has made exaggerated claims or has violated any regulation for the production and maintenance of the certified class of seed or plants involved, the commissioner may revoke the registration or license and order the cancellation and withdrawal of all appropriate certification labels previously issued for the seed or plants.

1 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes '75 Supp.—48
(c) A registered plant breeder or licensed producer whose registration or license has been revoked and whose certification labels have been cancelled and withdrawn may appeal the commissioner’s action to the board by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 30 days of the revocation. The commissioner shall report the notice of appeal to the board, which shall give written notice of the time and place for an appeal hearing to the appellant. The hearing on appeal may not be less than 10 nor more than 30 days after notice of appeal is filed with the commissioner. If the commissioner’s action is reversed at the appeal hearing, the board shall direct the commissioner to reinstate the registration or license and reissue certification labels for seed or plants for which labels were previously cancelled and withdrawn.

Deposit of Fees

Sec. 12. All fees collected under the provisions of this Act shall be deposited in the State Treasury in a special account known as the special agricultural fund, to be used in the administration of this Act.

Penalties

Sec. 13. (a) A person who violates Subsection (b), Section 6 of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000.

(b) A person who violates Subsections (c) or (d) of Section 10 of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $500, by confinement in county jail for not more than 60 days, or by both.

(c) A person who violates Subsections (e), (d), or (e) of Section 9, or Subsections (a) or (b) of Section 10 of this Act, is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100, by confinement in county jail for not more than 30 days, or by both.

Repealer

Sec. 14. Articles 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 64a, 65, 66, and 67, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and Chapter 98, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 1929, as amended (Article 67a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), are repealed.

Effective Date

Sec. 15. This Act takes effect September 1, 1975. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 348, ch. 149, §§ 1 to 15, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER FOUR. AGRICULTURAL SEEDS

Art. 93b. Texas Seed Law

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) When used in this Act:

(1) The term “person” shall include an individual, partnership, corporation, company, society, vendor, or association.

(2) The term “agricultural seeds” shall include the seeds of grass, forage, cereal, and fiber crops and any other kind of seeds commonly recognized within this State as agricultural or field seeds, and mixtures of such seeds.

(3) The term “vegetable seeds” shall include the seeds of those crops which are grown in gardens or on truck farms and are generally known and sold under the name of vegetable seeds in this State.

(4) The term “labeling” includes all labels, and other written, printed, or graphic representations, in any form whatsoever, accompanying and pertaining to any seed whether in bulk or in containers, and includes invoices.

(5) The term “advertisement” means all representations, other than those on the label, disseminated in any manner or by any means, relating to seed within the scope of this Act.

(6) The term “treated” means given an application of a substance or subjected to a process designed to reduce, control, or repel disease organisms, insects, or other pests which attack seeds or seedlings growing therefrom.

(7) The term “public notice” means a description of proposed action or the text of adopted rules or regulations published in three newspapers of general circulation throughout the State for a period of three consecutive weeks.

(b) The Commissioner of Agriculture may classify and define types, kinds, classes, genera, species, subspecies, hybrids, and varieties of agricultural, vegetable, and weed seeds for purposes of this Act. After public notice and public hearing, the Commissioner of Agriculture may classify noxious weed seeds and may establish the rate of each allowed, or prohibit the inclusion of any of them, in containers of agricultural or vegetable seed described in Section 3 of this Act. Immediately after any ruling by the Commissioner of Agriculture made under the provisions of this subsection, the Commissioner shall cause public notice of the new rules or the amendments to the existing rules to be published. Copies of any new rules or changes in the existing rules shall be made available to anyone who requests a copy.

CHAPTER THREE. PINK BOLLWORM

Art. 75. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 567, ch. 225, § 1, eff. May 20, 1975
Sec. 3. Each container of agricultural or vegetable seed which is sold, offered for sale, or exposed for sale, within this state for sowing purposes shall bear thereon or have attached thereto in a conspicuous place a plainly written or printed label in the English language, giving the following information:

(a) For Agricultural Seeds.

1. The name of the kind or the kind and variety for each agricultural seed component present in excess of 5 percent of the whole and the percentage by weight of each: Provided, that if the variety of those kinds generally labeled as to variety as designated in the rules and regulations is not stated, the label shall show the name of the kind and the words, "Variety Not Stated." Hybrids shall be labeled as hybrids.

2. Lot number or other lot identification.

3. Origin, if known, of all agricultural seeds. If the origin is unknown, that fact shall be so stated.

4. Percentage by weight of all weed seeds.

5. (A) The name and number of each noxious weed seed will be shown at rate per pound.

(B) All determinations of noxious weed seeds are subject to tolerances and methods of determination prescribed in the rules and regulations under this Act.

6. Percentage by weight of agricultural seeds other than those named on the label.

7. Percentage by weight of inert matter.

8. For each named agricultural seed (a) percentage of germination as prescribed in the rules and regulations exclusive of hard seed, (b) percentage of hard seed, if present, and (c) the calendar month and year the test was completed to determine such percentages. Following (a) and (b) the additional statement "total germination and hard seed" may be stated as such, if desired.

9. Name and address of the person who labeled said seed, or who sells, offers, or exposes said seed for sale within this state.

(b) For Vegetable Seed in containers weighing one pound or more:

1. The name of each kind and variety of vegetable seed component present in excess of five percent of the whole and the percentage by weight of each, in order of predominance.

(2) Name and address of the person who labeled said seed.

(3) Kind and variety of seed.

(4) Percentage purity.

(5) Germination in accordance with the rules and regulations.

(6) Date of Test.

(7) If present, name and number of noxious weed seeds per pound.

(8) Lot number or other lot identification.

(c) For Vegetable Seed in containers weighing less than one pound:

1. Kind and variety of seed;

2. The calendar month and year of the germination test, or the year for which the seed was packaged;

3. Name and address of the person who labeled the seeds; and

4. For seed with a percentage of germination less than the standard prescribed in the rules and regulations:

(A) Percentage of germination, in accordance with the rules and regulations, exclusive of hard seed;

(B) Percentage of hard seed, if present; and

(C) The words "Below Standard" in a size not smaller than eight-point type.

(d) The labeling requirements for vegetable seeds are met if the seed is weighed from a properly labeled container in the presence of the purchaser.

Promulgation of Rules and Regulations Concerning Labels; Procedure

Sec. 3a. (1) All seeds named and treated as prescribed in this Act (for which a separate label may be used) shall be labeled in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

(2) The Commissioner of Agriculture, after public notice, shall hold a public hearing in Austin, Travis County, Texas, concerning any proposed rules and regulations or any amendments to the rules and regulations pertaining to the seeds described in this section.

(3) Immediately following any ruling by the Commissioner of Agriculture made pursuant to the provisions of this section, the Commissioner shall publish the new rules or the amendments to the existing rules in at least three newspapers of general circulation throughout the State for a period of three consecutive weeks. Copies of any new rules or changes in the existing rules shall be made available to anyone who desires a copy.
Sec. 4. (a) It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale or transport for sale any agricultural and vegetable seeds within this state:

(1) Unless the test to determine the percentage of germination required by Section 3 shall have been completed within a nine month period, exclusive of the calendar month in which the test was completed, immediately prior to sale, exposure for sale, or offering for sale or transportation; except that the Commissioner of Agriculture may prescribe, amend, adopt and publish after public hearing following public notice rules and regulations to designate a longer period for any kind of agricultural or vegetable seed which is packaged in such container materials and under such other conditions prescribed by the Commissioner of Agriculture as he finds will, during such longer period, maintain the viability of said seed under ordinary conditions of handling.

(2) Not labeled in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or having a false or misleading labeling.

(3) Pertaining to which there has been a false or misleading advertisement.

(4) Containing noxious weed seeds in excess of the limitations per pound subject to tolerances and methods of determination prescribed in the rules and regulations under this Act.

(5) If any labeling, advertising, or other representation subject to this Act represents the seed to be certified seed of any class unless:

(A) A seed certifying agency has determined that the seed conforms to standards of purity and identity as to kind, species, subspecies (if appropriate), or variety in accordance with rules and regulations of the certifying agency; and

(B) The seed bears an official label issued for the seed by a seed certifying agency, certifying that the seed is of a specific class, kind, species, subspecies (if appropriate), or variety.

(6) Labeled with a variety name but not certified by an official seed certifying agency, when it is a variety required by federal law to be sold only as a class of certified seed (except that seed from a certified lot may be labeled as to variety name when used in a mixture by, or with approval of, the owner of the variety).

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 4(b)]

Sec. 5. (a) The provisions of Sections 2 and 3 do not apply:

(1) To seed or grain not intended for sowing purposes.

(2) To seed in storage for cleaning and processing, if the invoice, labeling, or other records pertaining to the seed bear the phrase “seed for processing.”

(3) To seed being transported to, or consigned to, a seed cleaning or processing establishment for cleaning or processing, if the invoice or labeling accompanying the seed bears the phrase “seed for processing.” Provided, that any labeling or other representation which may be made with respect to the unclean seed shall be subject to this Act.

(b) No person shall be subject to the penalties of this Act, for having sold, offered, or exposed for sale in this State any agricultural or vegetable seeds which were incorrectly labeled or represented as to kind, variety, type, treatment, or origin, which seeds cannot be identified by examination, unless he has failed to obtain an invoice or grower’s declaration giving kind, or kind and variety, or kind and type, treatment, and origin, if required.

(c) Providing that nothing in this Act shall be construed as preventing one farmer from selling to another farmer such seed grown on his own farm, as covered by the provisions of this Act, without having said seed tested and labeled as provided for herein, when such seed is not advertised in the public communications media outside the vendor’s home county, is not sold, offered for sale, or exposed for sale by an individual or organization for a farmer, and is not shipped by common carrier.

Duties and Authority of the Commissioner of Agriculture

Sec. 6. (a) The duty of enforcing this Act and carrying out its provisions and requirements shall be vested in the Commissioner of Agriculture. It shall be the duty of such officer, who may act through his authorized agents:

(1) To sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test agricultural and vegetable seed transported, sold, offered, or exposed for sale within this State for sowing purposes, at such time and place and to such extent as he may deem necessary to determine whether said agricultural or vegetable seed is in compliance with the provisions of this Act, and to notify promptly the person who transported, sold, offered, or exposed the seed for sale of any violation.

(2) To prescribe and, after public hearing following public notice, to adopt rules and regulations governing the methods of sampling, inspecting, analysis, tests and examination of agricultural and vegetable seed, and the tolerances to be followed in the administration of this Act, which shall be in general accord with officially to the Commissioner of Agriculture an inspection fee to be set by the Commissioner of Agriculture. Said inspection fee shall be deposited in the State Treasury by the Commissioner, and placed by the State Treasurer in the special Department of Agriculture Fund.

(b) The procedure for paying the inspection fee on agricultural seed shall be either by the use of the Texas Tested Seed Label or by means of the reporting system but shall not be by means of both such procedures, and shall in addition to such rules and regulations which the Commissioner of Agriculture is herewith authorized to issue, be in compliance with all the provisions of this Act.

(c) When the inspection fee is to be paid by use of the Texas Tested Seed Label the person who distributes, sells, offers for sale or exposes for sale agricultural seed for planting purposes shall purchase said Texas Tested Seed Label from the Commissioner of Agriculture and shall attach the label to each container of seed sold, offered for sale or otherwise distributed for sale for planting purposes within this state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby empowered to promulgate rules and regulations prescribing the form of the labels and the manner of showing the analysis information required in Section 3 of this Act.

(d) When the inspection fee is paid by means of the reporting system, the Commissioner of Agriculture shall, after application for a permit, issue a permit bearing an assigned number to any person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes for sale agricultural seed for planting purposes within this state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized at his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may promulgate, to prescribe and furnish such forms and to require the filing of reports. The inspection fee shall be due on the total pounds sold or distributed. In addition to all other provisions of this Act, each person who is issued a permit to sell, offer for sale or otherwise distribute agricultural seed and pay the inspection fee in accordance with the reporting system shall:

(1) Maintain and furnish such records as the Commissioner of Agriculture may require to reflect accurately the total pounds of agricultural seed handled, sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale as planting seed. The Commissioner of Agriculture or his duly authorized agents shall have permission to examine the records of the permittee during normal working hours.

(2) File with the Commissioner of Agriculture within thirty days after the close of each quarter year ending the last day of November, February, May and August, sworn reports covering the total pounds of all sales of agricultural seed prescribed practice in interstate commerce, to provide definition of terms, and such other rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure the efficient enforcement of this Act.

(b) Further, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner of Agriculture individually or through his authorized agents is authorized:

(1) To enter upon any public or private premises during regular business hours in order to have access to seeds and the records from personnel authorized by management connected therewith subject to the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, and any truck or other conveyor by land, water, or air at any time when the conveyor is accessible, for the same purpose.

(2) To issue and enforce a written or printed "stop-sale" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of agricultural or vegetable seed which the Commissioner of Agriculture has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act which shall prohibit further sale of such seed until such officer has evidence that the law has been complied with. Provided, that in respect to seed which has been denied sale as provided in this paragraph, the owner or custodian of such seed shall have the right to appeal from such order to a court of competent jurisdiction where the seed is found, praying for a judgment as to the justification of said order and for the discharge of such seed from the order prohibiting the sale in accordance with the findings of the court; and provided further, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as limiting the right of the enforcement officer to proceed as authorized by other sections of this Act.

(3) To establish and maintain or make provision for seed testing facilities, to employ qualified persons, and to incur such expenses as may be necessary to comply with these provisions.

(4) To make or provide for making purity and germination tests of seed for farmers and dealers on request; to prescribe rules and regulations governing such testing; and to fix and collect charges for the tests made.

(5) To cooperate with the United States Department of Agriculture in seed law enforcement.

Sec. 7. (a) For the purpose of administering the Texas Seed Act, any person who sells, offers for sale or otherwise distributes for sale any agricultural seed within this state for planting purposes shall pay subject to an inspection fee sold during the preceding quarter. An inspection fee penalty of 10 percent of the amount due or $10, whichever is greater, is incurred if a report is not submitted when due and prior written approval for a delayed report has not been obtained.

(3) When located outside the State of Texas and when distributing agricultural seed in the State of Texas, shall maintain in the State of Texas the records and information required by Subsection (d), Section 7, of this Act or pay all costs incurred in the auditing of records at a location outside the state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized and directed to revoke the permit of any person who fails to comply with this requirement. Itemized statements of costs incurred in any such audits shall be furnished the permittee by the Commissioner promptly on completion of any such audit, and the permittee must pay the costs within thirty (30) days from the date of the statement.

(4) Affix to each container of agricultural seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in bulk, a plainly printed or written statement giving the information required in Section 3 of this Act.

Any failure of a permittee to observe these regulations, file required reports, or pay fees required shall be grounds for cancellation of the permit.

(e) The inspection fee must be paid during each germination period that said seed remains offered or exposed for sale. For any seed on which the germination test has expired, payment of the inspection fee is the responsibility of the custodian of said seed.

(f) Any person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes seed in bulk when inspection fee payment is by means other than the reporting system must furnish to the purchaser one Texas Tested Seed Label printed with the analysis information required in Section 3 of this Act for each 100 pounds or fraction of 100 pounds sold.

(g) The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized to prescribe, amend, adopt, and publish after public hearing following public notice, such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out and make effective the provisions of this section.

Vegetable Seed License

Sec. 7A. (a) After September 1, 1975, no person may sell, offer or expose for sale, or otherwise distribute for sale in this state any vegetable seed for planting purposes unless the person has a valid current vegetable seed license issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

(b) After public notice and a public hearing, the Commissioner of Agriculture may determine from time to time the license fee required of an applicant for an original or renewal vegetable seed license. Application for a license must be made on forms prescribed by the Commissioner. A vegetable seed license expires on August 31 of each year.

c) No license is required of a person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes for sale vegetable seed in containers bearing the name and address of a person licensed under this section.

License Fee; Surety Bond

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of (a)]

(b) The following fees are hereby prescribed and shall be paid by applicants for license under this Act, and the Commissioner, his agents and employees are hereby authorized to collect the same.

(1) For license as a “dealer” or “handler” of citrus fruit, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(2) For license as a “commission merchant” and/or “contract dealer,” as the term is in this Act defined, Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(3) For a license as a “buying agent,” the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(4) For a license as a “transporting agent,” the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(5) For a license as a “dealer” who sells any citrus fruit from door to door or from temporary locations, the sum of One Dollar ($1).

c) All “commission merchants” and/or “dealers” and “contract dealers,” as the terms are in this Act defined, except persons applying only for licenses to sell citrus fruit from door to door or from temporary locations, shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a good and sufficient surety bond, payable to the Governor of the State of Texas and his successors in office in the following amounts for the number of standard packed boxes of citrus fruit, or the equivalent thereof, of exclusive of citrus fruit grown by said “commission merchant” and/or “dealer” or “contract dealer,” which the “commission merchant” and/or “dealer” or “contract dealer” handled during the previous year:

(1) $5,000  up to 5,000 boxes;
(2) $10,000  between 5,000 and 50,000 boxes;
(3) $25,000  over 50,000 boxes.

Regulations as to Purchase

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for any dealer, packer, processor or warehouseman to purchase or receive or handle any citrus fruit without requiring the person from whom such citrus fruit is purchased or received, to furnish a statement in writing of (a) the owner of said citrus fruit, (b) the grower of said citrus fruit, together with the approximate location of the orchard where said fruit was grown, (c) the date said fruit was gathered and by whose authority the person from whom such citrus fruit is purchased or received or handle any citrus fruit without requiring the owner of said citrus fruit, (b) the grower of said citrus fruit, together with the approximate location of the orchard where said fruit was grown, and such records shall be kept in a permanent book or folder and shall be available to inspection by any interested party. The Commissioner or his authorized representatives may periodically investigate licensees or persons alleged to be selling citrus fruit in violation of this Act and, without notice, require evidence of purchase of any citrus fruit in their possession.

Art. 118b-1. Coloring Citrus Fruit

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 5]

Standards for Fruit to be Colored

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any person to use on citrus fruit, or apply thereto, any coloring matter unless such fruit passes the requirements of the State maturity tests, and in addition thereto, oranges shall pass the following minimum requirements for total soluble solids of the juice thereof and for ratio of total soluble solids of the juice thereof to anhydrous citric acid:

(a) When the total soluble solids of the juice is not less than nine (9) per cent, the minimum ratio of total soluble solids to the anhydrous citric acid shall not be less than nine to one.

(b) When the total soluble solids of the juice is not less than eight and one-half (81/2) per cent, the minimum ratio of total soluble solids to the anhydrous citric acid shall be not less than ten to one.

(c) Coloring matter shall not in any case be applied to any oranges which do not meet the standards set out in subsections (a) and (b) above. Likewise, coloring matter shall not in any case be applied to any oranges unless the juice content thereof shall be at least four and one-half (41/2) gallons to each standard packed box of one and two-fifths (11/2) bushels capacity, the juice to be extracted by hand, without mechanical pressure.

(d) In determining the total soluble solids of citrus fruit within the purpose and meaning of this Act, the Brix hydrometer shall be used, and the reading of the hydrometer corrected for temperatures shall be considered as the per cent of the total soluble solids. Anhydrous citric acid shall be determined by titration of the juice, using standard alkali and phenolphthalein as the indicator, the total acidity being calculated as anhydrous citric acid.

Enforcement of Act, Chief of Maturity Division

Sec. 8. The enforcement of this Act and of the rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner shall be under the direction and control of the Commissioner, and shall be intrusted by him to the Chief of the Maturity Division. All employees, inspectors, and officers of the Commissioner authorized by Chapter 244, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature, as amended, shall also be charged with such duties hereunder as may be imposed by the Commissioner, or the Chief of the Maturity Division.

Marking or Branding Colored Fruit

Sec. 11. Each piece of fruit treated with coloring matter as provided herein shall be branded or marked with the words “Color Added” in letters at least three-sixteenths of an inch in height, but this provision shall be deemed to have been complied with if not more than forty-five (45) per cent of any such fruit is imperfectly or partially marked or branded. In the event such fruit is branded or marked with a trade-mark or name, or brand, by a two-line die in one operation, such words “Color Added” shall be placed above the trade-mark or name or brand.

Each package or container in which is sold, delivered, transported, or delivered for transportation any citrus fruit treated with coloring matter as provided herein, shall be marked, or branded, or have attached thereto securely a tag upon which is marked or branded the words “Color Added” in letters at least three-fourths of an inch in height, provided that the Commissioner may by regulation change the requirements of this Section to conform to any law or regulation promulgated under Federal authority.

CHAPTER SEVEN A. PLANT DISEASES AND PESTS

Art. 135b–5. [Repealed].

See, now, art. 135b–5a.

Art. 135b–5a. Pesticide Control Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Pesticide Control Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) “Active ingredient” means:
   (A) in the case of a pesticide other than a plant regulator, defoliant, or desiccant, an ingredient which prevents, destroys, repels, or mitigates any pest;
   (B) in the case of a plant regulator, an ingredient which, through physiological action, accelerates or retards the rate of growth or rate of maturation or otherwise alters the behavior of ornamental or crop plants or the products of them;
   (C) in the case of a defoliant, an ingredient which causes leaves or foliage to drop from a plant; and
   (D) in the case of a desiccant, an ingredient which artificially accelerates the drying of plant tissue.

(2) “Adulterated” applies to any pesticide:
   (A) if its strength or purity falls below the professed standard or quality expressed on its labeling or under which it is sold;
   (B) if any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the pesticide;
   (C) if any valuable constituent of the pesticide has been wholly or in part abstracted; or
   (D) if any contaminant is present in an amount which is determined by the commissioner to be a hazard.

(3) “Animal” means any vertebrate or invertebrate species, including but not limited to man and other mammals, birds, fish, and shellfish.

(4) “Antidote” means a practical treatment used in preventing or lessening ill effects from poisoning and includes first-aid treatment.

(5) “Certified applicator” means an individual who is determined by an official regulating authority, as provided in this Act, to be competent to use and supervise the use of any restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticide covered by his valid current certified applicator’s license.

(6) “Commercial applicator” means a person who owns or manages a pesticide application business engaged in the application of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides to the land of another.

(7) “Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas or his authorized agent.

(8) “Competent” means properly qualified to perform functions associated with pesticide application, the degree of competency required being directly related to the nature of the activity and the associated responsibility.

(9) “Defoliant” means any substance or mixture of substances intended to cause the leaves or foliage to drop from a plant, with or without causing abscission.

(10) “Desiccant” means any substance or mixture of substances intended to artificially accelerate the drying of plant tissue.

(11) “Device” means any instrument or contrivance, other than a firearm, which is used to trap, destroy, repel, or mitigate any pest or any other form of plant or animal life (other than man and bacteria, viruses, or other microorganisms on or in living man or other living animals), but not including equipment used for the application of pesticides when sold separately from the pesticides.

(12) “Direct supervision” means that, in the application of a restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticide, the application is made by an individual acting under the instructions and control of a certified applicator responsible for the actions of that individual and available if and when needed, although the certified applicator may not be physically present at the time and place of the pesticide application.

(13) “Distribute” means to offer for sale, hold for sale, sell, barter, or supply.

(14) “Due notice” means notice of the time and place at which a hearing is to occur, notice of the subject matter and a general statement of the proposed action, and notice of the class or group of persons to be directly affected, caused to be published by the commissioner in three newspapers of general circulation throughout the state not less than 10 days before the hearing.
(15) “Environment” includes water, air, land, all plants, and man and other animals living in or on water, air, or land, and the interrelationships that exist among them.

(16) “Equipment” means any type of ground, water, or aerial equipment or contrivance employing motorized, mechanical, or pressurized power and used to apply any pesticide to land or to anything that may be inhabiting or growing or stored on or in the land, but does not include any pressurized hand-sized household apparatus used to apply any pesticide, or any equipment or contrivance for which the person applying the pesticide is the source of power or energy used in making the pesticide application.

(17) “Fungus” means any non-chlorophyll-bearing thallophyte (any non-chlorophyll-bearing plant of a lower order than mosses and liverworts), such as rust, smut, mildew, mold, yeast, or bacteria, except a non-chlorophyll-bearing thallophyte on or in living man or other living animals and except one on or in processed foods, beverages, or pharmaceuticals.

(18) “Inert ingredient” means an ingredient that is not an active ingredient.

(19) “Ingredient statement” means a statement of the name and percentage of each active ingredient together with the total percentage of the inert ingredients in a pesticide.

(20) “Insect” means any of the numerous small invertebrate animals generally having a segmented body and for the most part belonging to the class Insecta, comprising six-legged, usually winged forms such as beetles, bugs, bees, and flies, and includes allied classes of arthropods, the members of which are wingless and usually have more than six legs, such as spiders, mites, ticks, centipedes, and wood lice.

(21) “Label” means the written, printed, or graphic matter on, or attached to, a pesticide or device or any of its containers or wrappers.

(22) “Labeling” means a label and any other written, printed, or graphic matter prepared by a registrant:

(A) accompanying the pesticide or device at any time; or

(B) to which reference is made on a label or in literature accompanying or referring to a pesticide or device, except accurate, nonmisleading references made to current official publications of federal or state institutions or agencies authorized by law to conduct research in the field of pesticides.

(23) “Land” means any land or water areas, including airspace, and any plant, animal, structure, building, contrivance, or machinery, whether fixed or mobile, appurtenant to or situated on a land or water area or airspace, including any used for transportation.

(24) “License use category” means a classification of pesticide use based on the subject, method, or place of pesticide application.

(25) “Nematode” means an invertebrate animal of the phylum Nematelminthes and class Nematoda (an unsegmented round worm with an elongated, fusiform, or sac-like body covered with cuticle), inhabiting soil, water, plants, or plant parts.

(26) “Noncommercial application” means a person or government agency or department which wants to use restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides or the authority to demonstrate restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides and does not qualify as a private applicator and is not required to have a commercial applicator’s license.

(27) “Person” means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, governmental entity, or association of individuals.

(28) “Pest” means any insect, snail, slug, ro- dent, bird, nematode, fungus, weed, or any other form of terrestrial or aquatic plant or animal life or virus, bacteria, or other microorganism (except viruses, bacteria, or other microorganisms in living man or other living animals), which the commissioner declares to be a pest.

(29) “Pesticide” means any substance or mixture of substances intended to prevent, destroy, repel, or mitigate any pest, or any substance or mixture of substances intended for use as a plant regulator, defoliant, or desiccant.

(30) “Pesticide dealer” means a person who distributes restricted-use pesticides or state-limited-use pesticides which by regulation are restricted to distribution only by licensed pesticide dealers, except manufacturers and formulators of pesticides who do not sell directly to the user.

(31) “Plant regulator” means any substance or mixture of substances intended through physiological action to accelerate or retard the rate of growth or rate of maturation, or otherwise to alter the behavior of ornamental or crop plants or the products of them, but does not include any substance to the extent that it is intended as a plant nutrient, trace element, nutritional chemical, plant inoculant, or soil amendment.

(32) “Private applicator” means a person who uses or supervises the use of any restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticide for the purpose of producing any agricultural commodity:

(A) on property owned or rented by him or his employer or under his general control; or
(B) if applied without compensation other than trading of personal services between producers of agricultural commodities, on the property of another person.

(33) "Registered applicator" means a competent person working under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

(34) "Regulatory agency" means a state agency with responsibility for certifying applicators of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides, as provided in Section 16 of this Act.

(35) "Restricted-use pesticide" means any pesticide classified as a restricted-use pesticide by the administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(36) "State-limited-use pesticide" means any pesticide which, when used as directed or in accordance with widespread and commonly recognized practice, the commissioner determines, after a hearing, requires additional restrictions to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment, including effects on man, land, crops, and animals other than pests.

(37) "Unreasonable adverse effects on the environment" means any unreasonable risk to man or the environment, taking into account the economic, social, and environmental costs and benefits of use of a pesticide.

(38) "Weed" means any plant that grows where not wanted.

Sec. 3. The term "misbranded" applies:

(1) to any pesticide or device subject to this Act:

(A) if its labeling bears any statement, design, or graphic representation relating to the pesticide, device, or the ingredients of either which is false or misleading in any particular;

(B) if it is an imitation of or is distributed under the name of another pesticide or device; or

(C) if any word, statement, or other information required by this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in this Act to appear on a label or labeling, is not prominently placed on a label or labeling with such conspicuousness, as compared with other material on the label or labeling, and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use;

(2) to any pesticide:

(A) if its labeling bears any reference to registration under the provisions of this Act unless the reference is required by regulations promulgated as provided in this Act;

(B) if the labeling does not contain a statement of the use classifications for which the product is registered;

(C) if the label does not bear:

(i) the name, brand, or trademark under which the pesticide is distributed;

(ii) an ingredient statement on that part of the immediate container which is presented or displayed under customary conditions of purchase, and on any outer container or wrapper of a retail package, if the ingredient statement on the immediate container cannot be clearly read without removing the outer wrapping;

(iii) directions for use which are necessary for effecting the purpose for which the product is intended, and if complied with, are adequate for the protection of health and the environment;

(iv) if the pesticide contains arsenic in any form, a statement of the percentages of total water-soluble arsenic, calculated as elementary arsenic;

(v) the name and address of the manufacturer, registrant, or person for whom the pesticide was manufactured; or

(vi) numbers or other symbols to identify the lot or batch of the manufacturer of the contents of the package;

(D) if the label does not clearly display appropriate warnings, symbols, and cautionary statements commensurate with the toxicity or use classification of the pesticide; or

(E) if the pesticide container does not bear a label or if the label does not contain all information required by this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in this Act.

Sec. 4. (a) The Pesticide Advisory Committee is a committee consisting of the deans of the departments of agriculture of Texas A & M University and Texas Tech University, the executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, the commissioner of the State Department of Health, and the commissioner of agriculture, or their designated representatives. Members of the committee serve as ex officio members and receive no compensation as committee members but are entitled to reimbursement from the funds of their respective departments or agencies for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.
(b) The committee meets at least once a year and at such other times as determined by the commissioner, for the purpose of advising the commissioner on the best use of pesticides for the protection of the public health and welfare, animal life, and property. The committee shall receive requested assistance from state universities and state agencies, including assistance from consultants retained by state universities or state agencies, to aid the committee in its recommendations to the commissioner regarding any pesticide program or any other related matter submitted by the commissioner for committee recommendations.

Registration of Pesticides

Sec. 5. (a) Every pesticide which is distributed within this state or is delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside the state, must be registered with the commissioner by the manufacturer, or by any person whose name appears on the label of the pesticide, if not the manufacturer, before the pesticide may be distributed, delivered for transportation, or transported as provided in this subsection. However, registration is not required for the transportation of a pesticide from one plant or warehouse to another plant or warehouse operated by the same person and used solely at the second plant or warehouse as a constituent part of a pesticide registered under the provisions of this Act.

(b) A person who applies for registration of a pesticide shall file with the commissioner a statement including:

(1) the name and address of the applicant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the pesticide label, if not the applicant's;

(2) the name of the pesticide;

(3) a complete copy of all labeling to accompany the pesticide and a statement of all claims to be made for it, including the directions for use;

(4) the use classification, whether for restricted or general use, as provided in the federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, as amended,1 or in regulations promulgated as provided in the Act;

(5) the use classification proposed by the applicant, if the pesticide is not required by federal law to be registered under a use classification; and

(6) other information required by the commissioner for the determination of eligibility for registration.

(c) The commissioner may require the submission of the complete formula for a pesticide, including active and inert ingredients, as a prerequisite to registration. The commissioner may require a full description of the tests made and the results of the tests on which claims are based before approving registration of a pesticide not registered under federal law or a pesticide for which federal or state restrictions on use are being considered.

(d) A person located outside this state shall, as a condition to registration of a pesticide, file with the commissioner an instrument in writing designating a resident agent for service of process in actions taken in the administration or enforcement of this Act. In lieu of designating a resident agent, the person may designate in writing the secretary of state as the recipient of service of process for the person in this state.

(e) Registration expires annually on December 31. A person who applies for renewal of registration must include in his application only such information as is different from the information furnished at the time of the most recent registration or renewal of registration.

(f) As a condition to registration, an applicant shall pay to the commissioner an annual registration fee of $30 for each pesticide to be registered as provided in this Act.

(g) Any pesticide registration in effect on December 31 for which a renewal application has been filed and a renewal registration fee paid continues in effect until the commissioner notifies the applicant that the registration has been renewed or denied renewal.

(h) A person who fails to apply for renewal of pesticide registration before March 1 of any year shall, as a condition to the renewal of registration, pay a late registration fee of $5 for each brand to be renewed, to be added to the amount of the renewal registration fee.

(i) The commissioner may not approve an application for registration of a pesticide unless he finds that the composition of the pesticide warrants the proposed claims made for it and that the pesticide, its labeling, and other materials required to be submitted as provided in this Act comply with the requirements of this Act.

(j) The commissioner may register pesticides for additional uses and methods of application not covered by federal regulation but not inconsistent with federal law, for the purpose of meeting special local needs. Before approval of any registration for special local needs, the commissioner shall determine that the applicant meets other requirements of this section.

1 7 U.S.C.A. § 135 et seq.
Art. 135b–5a  AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE  752

Denial or Cancellation of Registration

Sec. 6. (a) If the commissioner has reason to believe that any use of a registered pesticide is in violation of the provisions of this Act or is dangerous or harmful, he may issue to the registrant of the pesticide written notice of a hearing on denial or cancellation of registration. The notice must contain a statement of the time and place of the hearing, which may not be less than 10 days after issuance of notice. After opportunity at the hearing for presentation of evidence by interested parties, the commissioner may deny or cancel the registration of the pesticide if he finds that:

1. use of the pesticide has demonstrated uncontrollable adverse environmental effects;
2. use of the pesticide is a detriment to the environment which outweighs benefits received by its use;
3. even when properly used, the pesticide is detrimental to vegetation, except weeds, or to domestic animals or the public health and safety;
4. any false or misleading statement about the pesticide has been made or implied by the registrant or his agent, in writing, verbally, or through any form of advertising literature; or
5. the registrant or the pesticide has not complied with a requirement of this Act or rule promulgated as provided in this Act.

Experimental Use Permit

Sec. 7. (a) Any person may apply to the commissioner for an experimental use permit for a pesticide. The commissioner may issue an experimental use permit if the commissioner determines that the applicant needs the permit in order to accumulate data necessary to register a pesticide under this Act. An application for an experimental use permit may be filed before or after an application for registration is filed.

(b) Use of a pesticide under an experimental use permit is under the supervision of the commissioner and is subject to such terms and conditions and be for such period of time as the commissioner may prescribe in the permit.

(c) The commissioner may revoke any experimental use permit at any time if he finds that its terms or conditions are being violated or that its terms and conditions are inadequate to avoid unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 8. (a) The commissioner may, after due notice and a public hearing, make appropriate regulations for carrying out the provisions of this Act, including but not limited to regulations providing for:

1. the collection, examination, and reporting of records, devices, and samples of pesticides;
2. the safe handling, transportation, storage, display, distribution, and disposal of pesticides and their containers; and
3. labeling requirements for all pesticides and devices required to be registered under the provisions of this Act.

(b) After due notice and a public hearing, the commissioner may adopt from time to time lists of state-limited-use pesticides for the entire state or for designated areas within the state. If the commissioner determines that a pesticide requires restrictions or additional restrictions on distribution or use to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment, he may include the pesticide on a list of state-limited-use pesticides. The commissioner may regulate the time and conditions of use of a state-limited-use pesticide and may require that it be purchased or used only with permission of the commissioner, only under his direct supervision in certain areas under certain conditions, and only in specified quantities and concentrations. The commissioner may require persons authorized to distribute or use state-limited-use pesticides to maintain records of their distribution and use of all state-limited-use pesticides and may require that the records be kept separately from other business records.

Pesticide Dealer License

Sec. 9. (a) No person may distribute in this state restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides without having a valid current pesticide dealer license issued by the commissioner for each location in the state which is used for distribution. Any person licensed as a dealer under Chapter 349, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, as amended (Article 135b–4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) shall not be required to pay an additional fee for the license prescribed in this section.

(b) Application for a pesticide dealer license is on forms prescribed by the commissioner, accompanied by a nonrefundable annual registration fee of not more than $100, as determined by the commissioner. A pesticide dealer license expires on December 31 of each year.

(c) A person without a place of business in the state may obtain one pesticide dealer license for all of his out-of-state locations. As a condition to the issuance of a license, he shall file a statement as provided in Subsection (d), Section 5, of this Act.

(d) Each pesticide dealer license must be prominently displayed in the dealer's place of business. Failure to so display a license is a ground for revocation of the license.
(e) If an application for a renewal of a pesticide dealer license is not filed with the commissioner by March 1 of any year, a late license fee of $5 is due in addition to the annual license fee and must be paid before issuance of the renewal license.

(f) Licensed pesticide dealers shall maintain for a period of two years records of each restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticide sold. Information included in the records shall be as prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may require submission of records to him. Failure to submit requested records is a ground for revocation of a license.

(g) This section does not apply to a licensed pesticide applicator who distributes restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides only as an integral part of his pesticide application business and who dispenses the pesticides only through equipment used in his pesticide application business. This section does not apply to any federal, state, county, or municipal agency which provides pesticides only for its own programs.

Denial or Revocation of Pesticide Dealer License

Sec. 10. (a) If the commissioner has reason to believe that an applicant has failed to comply with requirements of Section 9 of this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9, or if the commissioner has reason to believe that a licensee has failed to comply with requirements of Section 9 or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9, he may issue written notice to the applicant or licensee of the time and place of a hearing to be held by the commissioner on denial or revocation of license. The hearing may not be less than 10 days after issuance of notice.

(b) After opportunity at the hearing for presentation of evidence by the applicant or licensee, the commissioner may refuse to issue a pesticide dealer license or revoke a pesticide dealer license, if he finds that the applicant or licensee has failed to comply with applicable requirements of Section 9 of this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9.

Enforcement

Sec. 11. (a) The commissioner or his authorized agents may enter at reasonable hours any building or place owned, controlled, or operated by a registrant or dealer, where from probable cause it appears that the building or place contains pesticides, for the purpose of inspection, examination of records, and sampling. The commissioner or his authorized agents may take a sample for official analysis from any package or lot of pesticides found within the state.

(b) The commissioner may issue and enforce a written or printed stop-sale order to the owner or custodian of any pesticide which he has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, prohibiting further sale of the pesticide until the commissioner determines that the pesticide is no longer in violation of the Act.

(c) The owner or custodian of a pesticide to which a stop-sale order applies may appeal from the order to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the pesticide is found. Appeal is by trial de novo. This section does not limit the right of the commissioner to proceed as authorized by other sections of this Act.

(d) The commissioner may institute an action in his own name to enjoin any violation of a provision of this Act. Venue is in the county where the alleged violation occurred or is occurring.

Other Powers and Duties of the Commissioner

Sec. 12. (a) The commissioner may contract with state colleges and universities, state agencies, or commercial laboratories for examination of pesticides. Contracts with commercial laboratories may be let only on the basis of competitive bidding.

(b) The commissioner shall make or provide for sample tests of pesticides on request, and he may charge and collect fees for the tests necessary to cover expenses incurred in making or providing for the tests.

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 13. (a) No person may distribute within the state, or deliver for transportation or transport in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside this state, any of the following:

(1) any pesticide which has not been registered as provided in this Act;

(2) any pesticide if any of the claims made for it or any of the directions for its use or other labeling differs from the representations made in connection with its registration;

(3) any pesticide unless it is in the registrant's or the manufacturer's unbroken immediate container and there is affixed to the container, and to the outside container or wrapper of the retail package, if there is one through which the required information on the immediate container cannot be clearly read, a label bearing the information required in this Act and the regulations adopted under this Act; provided that an applicator may after acquiring such an unbroken container, open and transport the open container to and from application and storage sites as necessary;
Art. 135b-5a  AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE  754

(4) any pesticide which has not been colored or discolored as required by the provisions of this Act;

(5) any pesticide which is adulterated or misbranded or any device which is misbranded; or

(6) any pesticide in a container which is unsafe due to damage.

(b) No person may:

(1) detach, alter, deface, or destroy, wholly or in part, any label or labeling provided for in this Act or regulations adopted under this Act, or to add any substance to or take any substance from a pesticide in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this Act or the regulations adopted thereunder;

(2) use or cause to be used any pesticide contrary to its labeling or to regulations of the commissioner limiting use of the pesticide;

(3) handle, transport, store, display, or distribute a pesticide in a manner that violates the provisions of this Act or rules promulgated by the commissioner as provided in this Act; or

(4) dispose of, discard, or store any pesticide or pesticide container in a manner that is calculated to cause injury to humans, vegetation, crops, livestock, wildlife, pollinating insects or to pollute any water supply or waterway.

(c) No person, except the person to whom a pesticide is registered, may use for his advantage or federal officials or their employees, or to physicians or physicians or in emergencies to pharmacists and other qualified persons for use in the preparation of antidotes, any information relating to pesticide formulae, trade secrets, or commercial or financial information acquired by authority of this Act and marked as privileged or confidential by the registrant.

Exemptions

Sec. 14. (a) The penalties provided for violations of Section 13 of this Act do not apply to:

(1) any carrier while lawfully engaged in transporting a pesticide or device within this state if the carrier on request permits the commissioner to copy all records showing the transactions in and movement of the pesticides or devices;

(2) public officials of this state and the federal government while engaged in the performance of their official duties in administering state or federal pesticide statutes or regulations or while engaged in pesticide research;

(3) the manufacturer or shipper of a pesticide for experimental use only by or under the supervision of an agency of this state or of the federal government authorized by law to conduct research in the field of pesticides, if the manufacturer or shipper holds a valid experimental use permit as provided in this Act; and

(4) a pesticide or device manufactured or formulated solely for export to a foreign country and prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the purchaser. If not so exported, the provisions of this Act apply.

(b) Chemical compounds being used only to develop plot data as to the possible pesticidal action of the chemicals are exempt from registration requirements of this Act.

Regulation of Pesticide Use and Application

Sec. 15. (a) The Texas Department of Agriculture is the lead agency and is responsible for coordinating activities of state agencies in the regulation of pesticide use and application and is responsible for submitting a state plan for the certification of pesticide applicators to the administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency. This agency shall have the responsibility for coordinating, planning, and approving of training programs and shall utilize the resources of the state, both private and public, including but not limited to state universities, colleges, junior colleges, and community colleges as well as the Texas A & M Extension Service and Experiment Stations. The agency shall make all plans in this area on the basis of convenience to applicants, thoroughness of preparation and testing, and maximum economy in expenditures for this purpose. The agency may make full use of authorizations contained in Section 31 of this Act in carrying out these provisions.

(b) The commissioner shall certify pesticide applicators involved in agricultural pest control (except animal pest control), forest pest control, ornamental and turf pest control (except as provided in the Texas Structural Pest Control Act, as amended (Article 135b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)), seed treatments, right-of-way pest control, regulatory pest control, and demonstration pest control.

(c) The Texas Animal Health Commission shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in animal pest control.

(d) The Texas Water Quality Board shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in aquatic pest control.

(e) The State Department of Health shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in health-related pest control.

(f) Definitions of the license use categories described in Subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section are as provided by federal statutes or regulations.
(g) A person who wants to be certified as a pesticide applicator under license use categories regulated by more than one agency may do so by paying a single license fee to the agency regulating his primary business and by meeting certification requirements for each category for which he desires certification. He must pay testing fees required by each agency.

(h) The licensing of certified commercial and noncommercial applicators is contingent on the availability of federal funds to pay costs of administering and enforcing the program. If federal funds and other funds made available for this program are not sufficient to pay all costs of administering and enforcing the program, the commissioner shall certify the fact and discontinue the licensing of certified commercial and noncommercial applicators. The commissioner shall cause notice of discontinuance of the program to be published in the Texas Register, and the effective date of discontinuance shall be determined by the commissioner but may not be before the date of publication of notice in the register. If sufficient federal funds become available after discontinuance, the commissioner shall certify the availability of sufficient funds to pay all costs of administration and enforcement of the program and shall resume licensing of certified commercial and noncommercial applicators. The commissioner shall cause notice of resumption of the program to be published in the Texas Register, and the effective date of resumption shall be determined by the commissioner but may not be before the date of publication of notice in the register. During any period of discontinuance, no person is required to have a license as provided in this Act to use pesticides but a person may be prosecuted for acts committed or omitted when the program was in effect.

Sec. 16. The head of each state agency with responsibility for certification of pesticide applicators, as provided in Section 15 of this Act, may, after due notice and a public hearing, promulgate regulations to carry out the provisions of this Act for which he is responsible. The regulations may prescribe methods to be used in the application of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides. Regulations may relate to the time, place, manner, methods, and amounts and concentrations of pesticide application and to the materials used in pesticide application, and may restrict or prohibit use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in designated areas during specified periods of time. Regulations shall be promulgated only after consideration of precautions or restrictions necessary to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Sec. 17. No person, except an individual acting under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, or except a private applicator, may use or supervise the use of any restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticide, unless he is licensed as a certified commercial or noncommercial applicator and is authorized by his license to use restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories covering his proposed pesticide use. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit any property owner from using in his house or on his lawn or in his garden any pesticide labeled for such use except one that may be registered and classified for use only by certified applicators.

Classification of Commercial and Noncommercial Licenses

Sec. 18. The head of each regulatory agency may classify commercial and noncommercial licenses under subcategories of license use categories, according to the subject, method, or place of pesticide application. An agency head shall establish separate testing requirements for licensing in each license use category within which his agency is responsible, and may establish separate testing requirements for licensing in subcategories within a license use category. Each regulatory agency may charge a nonrefundable testing fee of not more than $10 for testing in each license use category.

Commercial Applicator License

Sec. 19. (a) No person, except an individual working under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, may apply restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides to the land of another for hire or compensation at any time without having a valid current commercial applicator license issued by a regulatory agency for the license use categories and subcategories, if any, in which the pesticide application is to be made.

(b) Application for an original or renewal license shall be on forms prescribed by the regulatory agency and shall be accompanied by an annual license fee of not more than $100, as determined by the head of the regulatory agency. Each license application shall include such information as is prescribed by regulation of the head of the regulatory agency.

(c) Before issuance of an original commercial applicator license, an applicant must pass an examination demonstrating his competence and knowledge of the use and effects of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories or subcategories for which he has applied to be licensed. An individual to whom a commercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed.
licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a business, the business must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a business commercial applicator license.

(d) A regulatory agency may not issue a commercial applicator license until the license applicant files with the agency evidence of financial responsibility, consisting either of a bond executed by the applicant as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in Texas as surety or a liability insurance policy or certification of a policy, protecting persons who may suffer damages as a result of the operations of the applicant. The bond or liability insurance policy, however, need not apply to damages or injury to agricultural crops, plants, or land being worked upon by the applicant. The surety bond or insurance must be approved by the regulatory agency and conditioned on compliance with the requirements of this Act and any regulations promulgated as provided in this Act.

(e) The amount of the bond or liability insurance required may not be less than $5,000 nor more than $100,000 for property damage insurance and may not be less than $5,000 for bodily injury insurance. The head of the regulatory agency may, by regulation, require different amounts of bond or insurance coverage for different classifications of operations under this Act. The bond or liability insurance must be maintained at not less than the sum set by the agency head at all times during a period licensed. The head of the regulatory agency shall be notified by the party taking action at least 10 days prior to any reduction requested by a licensee or any cancellation of a bond or policy; otherwise, liability of the surety or insurer for all claims is limited to the face amount of the bond or liability insurance policy. The agency head may accept a liability insurance policy or bond in the proper sum which has a deductible clause in an amount of not more than $1,000 for the total amount of liability insurance or bond required by this section. However, if the applicant has not satisfied the requirement of the deductible amount in any prior legal claim, a policy or bond with a deductible clause may not be accepted by an agency head unless the applicant furnishes the agency with a surety bond which satisfies the amount of the deductible clause as to all claims that may arise as a result of his operation. Should the surety furnished become insufficient or otherwise unsatisfactory, a licensee shall, on notice of the insufficiency or other defect, immediately file a new bond or policy of insurance. Failure to file a bond or policy of insurance and failure to maintain the security in the required amounts are grounds for suspension or revocation of a commercial applicator license.

(f) The head of a regulatory agency may not issue a commercial applicator license if it has been determined that:

1. the applicant has been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude in the last five years;
2. the applicant has had a previous license, authorized by this Act to be issued, revoked within the last two years;
3. the applicant, or his representative if the applicant is a business, has been unable to satisfactorily fulfill certification requirements; or
4. the applicant for any other reason cannot be expected to be able to fulfill the provisions of this Act applicable to the license use category for which application has been made.

Noncommercial Applicator License

Sec. 20. (a) A person not engaged in the pesticide application business who is not a private applicator, except a person acting under the direct supervision of a certified or private applicator, may not use restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides without having a valid current noncommercial applicator license issued by a regulatory agency for the license use categories and subcategories, if any, in which the pesticide application is to be made.

(b) Application for an original or renewal license shall be on forms prescribed by the regulatory agency. A nongovernmental applicant shall accompany his application with an annual license fee of not more than $50, as determined by the head of the regulatory agency. No license fee may be charged a governmental entity applying for a license.

(c) Before issuance of an original noncommercial applicator license, an applicant must pass an examination demonstrating his competence and knowledge of the use and effects of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories or subcategories for which he has applied to be licensed. An individual to whom a noncommercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a governmental entity, the entity must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a governmental entity noncommercial applicator license.

Private Applicator Exemption

Sec. 21. A private applicator is not required to have a license or to be certified to use restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides. The commissioner is authorized to establish a program to certify private applicators, on a voluntary basis, who wish to apply restricted use pesticides in compliance with federal law.
Reciprocal Agreements

Sec. 22. The head of a regulatory agency may waive part or all of any license examination requirements on a reciprocal basis with any other state or federal agency which has substantially the same examination standards.

License Renewal

Sec. 23. Each commercial applicator license and noncommercial applicator license expires on December 31 of the year in which it was issued. A person having a valid current license may renew the license for another year without retesting by paying to the regulatory agency an annual license fee, as provided in this Act, unless the head of the regulatory agency determines that additional knowledge is required in the license use categories or subcategories in which the licensee applies for license renewal, in which case the passing of a new examination is necessary for license renewal. However, if a certified applicator does not file with the regulatory agency by March 1 of any year his application for license renewal, accompanied by payment of the annual license fee, he must pass another examination before he may be recertified.

Maintenance of Records

Sec. 24. Each regulatory agency shall require its licensees except private applicators to maintain records of their use of pesticides. Information to be included in the records is as prescribed by regulation of the regulatory agency. A regulatory agency may require its licensees to keep records of their application of specific restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides and may require the records to be kept separately from other business records. Records must be kept for a period of two years from the date of pesticide application. A licensee shall, on written request of the regulatory agency, furnish the agency a copy of any records requested pertaining to the application of pesticides.

Registration and Inspection of Equipment

Sec. 25. (a) Each regulatory agency shall provide for the registration and inspection of equipment used in the commercial application of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides and may require repairs or alterations of equipment before further use. The head of a regulatory agency shall by regulation promulgate standards that must be met before registration of equipment.

(b) Each piece of registered equipment shall be identified by a license plate or decal furnished by a regulatory agency at no cost to the licensee and attached to the equipment in a manner and location as prescribed by the regulatory agency.

Suspension and Revocation of a Certified Applicator License

Sec. 26. (a) The head of a regulatory agency which licensed a certified applicator may suspend temporarily for not more than 10 days, after written notice of noncompliance, and, after opportunity for a hearing not less than 10 days after issuance of written notice to the licensee of the time, place, and nature of the hearing, may suspend, modify, or revoke any provision in the license of a certified applicator, if he finds that the licensee has committed any of the following acts, each of which is a violation of this Act:

1. made a pesticide recommendation or application inconsistent with the labeling or with the restrictions of the use of the pesticide imposed by the federal Environmental Protection Agency or the state;

2. operated in a faulty, careless, or negligent manner;

3. refused or, after notice, failed to comply with any applicable provision of this Act, the rules and regulations adopted as provided in this Act, or any lawful order of the head of a regulatory agency by which he is licensed;

4. refused or neglected to keep and maintain the records required by this Act or to make reports when and as required;

5. failed to maintain a bond or policy of insurance as required by this Act;

6. made false or fraudulent records, invoices, or reports;

7. used fraud or misrepresentation in making an application for, or renewal of, a license; or

8. aided or abetted a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this Act, conspired with a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this Act, or allowed his license to be used by another person.

(b) In addition to revocation, modification, or suspension of a license, a licensee who violates Subsection (a) of this section is subject to the other penalty provisions of this Act. An unlicensed person who violates Subsection (a) of this section, to the extent that it is applicable to unlicensed persons, is subject to the penalty provisions of this Act.

Appeal

Sec. 27. (a) A person whose application for registration of a pesticide has been denied or whose registration for a pesticide has been cancelled may appeal the action of the commissioner by filing an appeal in the district court of Travis County within 30 days of the date of denial or cancellation by the commissioner. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be delivered to the commissioner.
(b) A person whose application for experimental use permit, pesticide dealer license, commercial applicator license, or noncommercial applicator license has been denied, or whose experimental use permit, pesticide dealer license, commercial applicator license, or noncommercial applicator license has been revoked, modified, or suspended for more than 10 days, may appeal the action of the commissioner or head of a regulatory agency by filing an appeal in the district court of the county of his residence or in the district court of Travis County, within 30 days of the date of denial, revocation, modification, or suspension. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be delivered to the person whose action has been appealed.

(c) Appeal is governed by the substantial evidence rule.

Reports of Pesticide Damage Claims

Sec. 28. (a) Any person claiming damages from a pesticide application may file with the regulatory agency which licensed the certified applicator whose action allegedly caused damage a written statement claiming that he has been damaged. To be eligible for consideration by the agency, the report must be filed within 30 days of the alleged occurrence, or if a growing crop is alleged to have been damaged, the report must be filed prior to the time that 25 percent of the crop has been harvested or within 30 days, whichever is less. The report must contain, but is not limited to, the name of the person allegedly responsible for the application of the pesticide, the name of the owner or lessee of the land on which the crop is grown and for which damage is alleged to have occurred. The regulatory agency shall prepare a form to be furnished to persons to be used in filing damage reports, and the form may contain such other information as is required by the head of the regulatory agency.

(b) The regulatory agency shall, on receipt of a report, notify the licensee and the owner or lessee of the land on which the alleged acts occurred, and any other person who may be charged with responsibility for the damages claimed. The regulatory agency shall furnish copies of the report to these people on request. The regulatory agency shall inspect damages whenever possible and shall report its findings to the person claiming damage and to the person alleged to have caused the damage.

(c) The failure to file a report is no bar to the maintenance of any criminal or civil action. However, if the person failing to file a report is the only person claiming injury from the particular use or application of a pesticide, the regulatory agency, when in the public interest, may refuse to hold a hearing for the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license issued under this Act to a person alleged to have caused damage.

(d) If damage is alleged to have occurred, the claimant shall permit representatives of the regulatory agency and the licensee to observe within reasonable hours the land or nontarget organism alleged to have been damaged, in order that the damage may be assessed.

Storage and Disposal of Pesticides

Sec. 29. (a) The commissioner may promulgate regulations governing the storing and disposal of pesticides and pesticide containers for the purpose of preventing injury from storage or disposal to man, vegetation, crops, or animals, and preventing pollution of any waterway in a way harmful to man or wildlife.

(b) No person may store or dispose of any pesticide in violation of regulations promulgated by the commissioner as provided in this section.

Inspection by Regulatory Agency

Sec. 30. (a) The head of a regulatory agency or his authorized representatives may enter any public or private premises at reasonable times:

1. to inspect any equipment authorized or required to be inspected under this Act, and to inspect the premises on which the equipment is kept or stored;
2. to inspect or sample land exposed or reported to be exposed to pesticides;
3. to inspect areas where pesticides are disposed of or stored; or
4. to observe the use and application of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides.

(b) If the head of a regulatory agency or his authorized representatives are denied access to any land where access was sought at a reasonable time for any of the purposes described in Subsection (a) of this section, the head of the regulatory agency may apply to a magistrate for a warrant authorizing access to the land for any of the above described purposes. On a showing of probable cause to believe that a violation of any regulation relating to a purpose of inspection described in Subsection (a) of this section has occurred, the magistrate shall issue the search warrant for the purposes requested.

(c) A regulatory agency may bring suit to enjoin violations or threatened violations of provisions of this Act within its responsibility and may request the appropriate prosecuting attorney to prosecute violations of the penal provisions of this Act.

Cooperative Agreements

Sec. 31. Each regulatory agency may receive grants-in-aid from any federal agency and may enter into cooperative agreements with a federal agency, an agency of this state or a subdivision of this state, or an agency of another state for the purpose of obtaining assistance in the implementation of this Act.

Penalty

Sec. 32. A person who violates any provision of this Act is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor. Each violation is a separate offense.

Persons Regulated by the Texas Structural Pest Control Act

Sec. 33. Sections 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30, and 31 of this Act do not apply to persons regulated by the Texas Structural Pest Control Act, as amended (Article 135b-6, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Repealer

Sec. 34. The Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act of Texas, as amended (Article 135b-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

Effective Date

Sec. 35. Sections 32 and 34 of this Act take effect November 1, 1976. All other sections of this Act take effect January 1, 1976.

Art. 135b-6. Structural Pest Control Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) For purposes of this Act a person shall be deemed to be engaged in the business of structural pest control if he engages in, offers to perform, advertises for, solicits, or performs any of the following services for compensation:

(1) identifying infestations or making inspections for the purpose of identifying or attempting to identify infestations of:

(A) arthropods (insects, spiders, mites, ticks, and related pests), wood-infesting organisms, rodents, weeds, nuisance birds, and any other obnoxious or undesirable animals which may infest households, railroad cars, ships, docks, trucks, airplanes, or other structures, or the contents thereof, or

(B) pests or diseases of trees, shrubs, or other plantings in a park or adjacent to a residence, business establishment, industrial plant, institutional building, or street;

(2) making inspection reports, recommendations, estimates, or bids, whether oral or written, with respect to such infestations; or

(3) making contracts, or submitting bids for, or performing services designed to prevent, control, or eliminate such infestations by the use of insecticides, pesticides, rodenticides, fumigants, or allied chemicals or substances or mechanical devices.

(b) As used in this Act:

(1) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization, or any combination thereof, or any type of business entity.

(2) "Restricted-use pesticide" means a pesticide classified for restricted or limited use by the administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(3) "State-limited-use pesticide" means a pesticide classified for restricted or limited use by the state commissioner of agriculture.

(4) "Certified applicator" means an individual who has been licensed and determined by the board to be competent to use or supervise the use of any restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticide covered by his currently valid certified applicator license.

(5) "Direct supervision" means that, in the application of a pesticide, the application is made by an individual acting under the instructions and control of a certified applicator responsible for the actions of that individual and available if and when needed for consultation or assistance although the certified applicator need not be physically present at the time and place of the pesticide application.

(6) "Branch office" means any place of business other than the primary office that has at least one (1) employee during normal business hours who is capable of answering customers' normal questions, scheduling normal inspections or work, or performing structural pest control functions; provided, however, that a facility serving solely as a telephone answering service shall not be a branch office.

(7) "Structural Pest Control Business License" means that license issued to a person entitled that person and his employees to engage in the business of structural pest control under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 3]

Licensing Standards; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 4. (a) The board shall develop standards and criteria for licensing individuals engaged in the business of structural pest control. The board may require individuals to pass an examination demonstrating their competence in the field in order to qualify for a Certified Applicator's License.

(b) The board shall develop standards and criteria for issuing Structural Pest Control Business Licenses to persons engaged in the business of structural pest control. Persons engaged in the business of structural pest control must possess a Structural Pest Control Business License for each place of said business, including each branch office. Each structural pest control business licensee shall have in his employment at all times a certified applicator.

(c) The board shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the methods and practices of structural pest control when it determines that the public's health and welfare necessitates such regulations in order to prevent adverse effects on human life and the environment. The rules and regulations relating to the use of economic poisons shall comply with applicable standards of the federal government and the state commissioner of agriculture governing the use of such substances.

(d) The board may waive all or part of any examination requirement on a reciprocal basis with any other state or federal agency which has substantially the same standards as those prescribed by the board.

Prohibited Acts; Temporary License

Sec. 5. (a) Except as provided in Subsection (b), no person, except an individual under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, may engage in the business of structural pest control after the effective date of this Act unless he meets the standards set by the board and possesses a valid Structural Pest Control Business License issued by the board.

(b) A person who has engaged in the business of structural pest control for a period of two years next preceding the effective date of this Act may apply to the board within 90 days after the effective date of this Act and shall be issued a temporary Structural Pest Control Business License and Certified Applicator's License which shall be valid for a period not to exceed two years upon payment of the required fee and completion of a temporary licensing form as prescribed by the board without further qualifications or examination. All applicants under this subsection shall furnish evidence substantiating their eligibility before temporary licenses may be granted.

Application Forms; Expiration and Renewal; Nontransferability; Arrest and Conviction Records

Sec. 6. [See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 6(a) to (c)]

(d) The Department of Public Safety shall, upon request, supply the board arrest and conviction records of individuals applying for or holding Structural Pest Control Business Licenses or Certified Applicator's Licenses.

Fees, New Developments; Proof of Study

Sec. 7. (a) An applicant for an initial or renewal Structural Pest Control Business License or a Certi-
(b) The policy or contract shall be maintained at all times in an amount not less than $30,000. Failure to renew the policy or contract or maintain it in the required amount is a ground for suspension or revocation of a Structural Pest Control Business License.

Records by Licensee

Sec. 7B. The board may require each licensee to make records, as prescribed by the board, of his use of pesticides. Records required shall be maintained for at least two years on business premises of the licensee and shall be made available for inspection by the board and by its authorized agents during normal business hours.

Disposition of Fees

Sec. 8. The proceeds from the collection of the fees provided in this Act shall be deposited in a special fund in the State Treasury to be known as the Structural Pest Control Fund, and shall be used for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Act. Any balance in the special fund at the end of each State fiscal biennium in excess of appropriations out of that fund for the succeeding biennium shall be transferred to the general revenue fund.

License Suspension, Revocation and Refusal: Appeal

Sec. 9. [See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 9(a).]

(b) An applicant or licensee may appeal from an order or other action of the board by an action in the district court of Travis County. Notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days of issuance of the order by the board. The hearing in district court shall be governed by the substantial evidence rule.

Civil Penalties and Injunctive Relief

Sec. 10. (a) A person who violates any provision of this chapter or any rule, regulation, license, or other order of the board is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation to be recovered as provided in this chapter. Whenever it appears that a person has violated or is threatening to violate any provision of this chapter, or any rule, regulation, license, or other order of the board, then the board, or the executive director when authorized by the board, may have a civil suit instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty.

(b) Upon application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule, regulation, license, or other order of the board, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(c) At the request of the board, or the executive director when authorized by the board, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the State of Texas for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty or for both injunctive relief and penalty, as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section.

Criminal Penalties

Sec. 10A. (a) A person commits an offense if he:

(1) violates Section 5 of this Act;
(2) violates regulations adopted under Section 4 of this Act; or
(3) intentionally makes a false statement in an application for a license or otherwise fraudulently obtains or attempts to obtain a license.

(b) Each day of violation is a separate offense.

(c) An offense under this section is a misdemeanor punishable on conviction by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200.

Exceptions

Sec. 11. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to nor shall the following persons be deemed to be engaging in the business of structural pest control:

(1) an officer or employee of a governmental or educational agency who performs pest control services as part of his duties of employment;
(2) a person who performs pest control work upon property which he owns, leases, or rents as his dwelling;
(3) a nurseryman, holding a certificate from the commissioner of agriculture pursuant to Articles 126 and 126a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, when doing pest control work on growing plants, trees, shrubs, grass, or other horticultural plants; and
(4) a person or his employee who is engaged in the business of agriculture or aerial application or custom application of pesticides to agricultural lands.

Board as Sole Licensing Authority

Sec. 11A. The Texas Structural Pest Control Board is the sole authority in this state for licensing persons engaged in the business of structural pest control.

CHAPTER NINE. SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION AND PRESERVATION

Art. 165a-4. State Soil and Water Conservation

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

State Soil and Water Conservation Board

Sec. 4. A. There is hereby established to serve as an agency of the State and to perform the functions conferred on it in this Act, the State Soil Conservation Board. The Board will consist of five (5) members. The five (5) elective members of the Board shall be selected as follows: The State of Texas is hereby divided into five (5) State Districts for the purpose of selecting five (5) members of the State Soil Conservation Board. The State Soil Conservation Board shall designate one of its elective members to serve as chairman.

D. Each member of the State Soil Conservation Board shall take the state constitutional oath of office, and said State Soil Conservation Board shall designate one of its elective members to serve as chairman.

Vacancies upon such board shall be filled for an unexpired term or for a full term, by the same manner in which the retiring members were respectively elected. Elective members of the board may receive compensation for their services on the board, not to exceed the sum of $30 per diem for each day of actual service rendered, but each member shall be entitled to expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in the discharge of his duties as a member of the board.

CHAPTER TEN. MILK PRODUCERS AND DISTRIBUTORS

Art. 165-3. Milk Grading and Pasteurization

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following definitions shall apply in the interpretation and enforcement of this Act:

A. Sanitization. Sanitization is the application of any effective method or substance to a clean surface for the destruction of pathogens, and of other organisms as far as is practicable. Such treatment shall not adversely affect the equipment, the milk or milk product or the health of consumers, and shall be acceptable to the health authority.

B. Milk Producer. A milk producer is any person who operates a dairy farm and provides, sells, or offers milk for sale to a milk plant, receiving station, or transfer station.
C. Milk Hauler. A milk hauler is any person who transports raw milk and/or raw milk products to or from a milk plant, a receiving or transfer station.

D. Milk Distributor. A milk distributor is any person who offers for sale or sells to another any milk or milk products.

E. State Health Officer. The term “State Health Officer” shall mean the Commissioner of Health of the State of Texas.

F. Health Authority. The health authority shall mean the city or county health officer or his representative. The term “Health Authority”, wherever it appears in these specifications and requirements, shall mean the appropriate agency having jurisdiction and control over the matters embraced within these specifications and requirements.

G. Dairy Farm. A dairy farm is any place or premises where one or more cows or goats are kept, and from which a part or all of the milk or milk product(s) is provided, sold, or offered for sale to a milk plant, transfer station, or receiving station.

H. Milk Plant and/or Receiving Station. A milk plant and/or receiving station is any place, premises, or establishment where milk or milk products are collected, handled, processed, stored, pasteurized, bottled, or prepared for distribution.

I. Transfer Station. A transfer station is any place, premises, or establishment where milk or milk products are transferred directly from one transport tank to another.

J. Official Laboratory. An official laboratory is a biological, chemical, or physical laboratory which is under the direct supervision of the State or a local health authority.

K. Officially Designated Laboratory. An officially designated laboratory is a commercial laboratory authorized to do official work by the supervising agency, or a milk industry laboratory officially designated by the supervising agency for the examination of producer samples of Grade “A” raw milk for Pasteurization.

L. Person. The word “person” shall mean any individual, plant operator, partnership, corporation, company, firm, trustee, or association.

State Health Officer to Fix Specifications

Sec. 2. The State Health Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to define what shall constitute Grade “A” raw milk, Grade “A” raw milk products, Grade “A” pasteurized milk, and Grade “A” pasteurized milk products and to fix specifications, rules or regulations for the production and handling of such milk and milk products, according to the safety and food value of the same and the sanitary conditions under which the same are produced and handled. Such definitions, specifications, rules or regulations shall be based upon and shall be in general harmony with (but need not be identical to) the definitions, specifications, rules or regulations relating to such milk and milk products set forth in the most recent federal definitions, specifications, rules and regulations. Such definitions, specifications, rules or regulations shall be set forth in specifications, rules or regulations promulgated by the State Health Officer in accordance with the procedures prescribed by Section 2A hereof.

Any city, county, or other political subdivision, or any Health Officer thereof, adopting any specifications, rules or regulations for any grade of milk or milk products or enforcing and administering the same, shall be governed in adopting, enforcing and administering any such specifications, rules or regulations by the specifications, rules or regulations promulgated hereunder by the State Health Officer and such specifications, rules or regulations adopted by any city, county or other political subdivision shall be in conformity with specifications, rules or regulations promulgated by the State Health Officer.

Notice and Hearing; Emergency Specifications; Advice; Filing Copy; Effective Date

Sec. 2A. Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any specification, rule or regulation, the State Health Officer shall:

(1) give at least sixty (60) days notice of his intended action. The notice shall include a statement of either the expressed terms or an informative summary of the proposed action, and the time when, the place where, and the manner in which interested persons may present their views thereon. The notice shall be published not less than forty-five (45) nor more than sixty (60) days prior to such intended action in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and in each of the five most populous counties in Texas, according to the latest U. S. Census. In addition, the notice is to be mailed to all persons who have made timely written requests of the agency for advance notice of its specification, rule or regulation making proceedings; provided, however, that failure to mail such notice shall not invalidate any actions taken or specifications, rules or regulations adopted; and
Art. 165-3  AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE

(2) afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. Opportunity for oral argument must be granted if requested by twenty-five persons, by a governmental subdivision or agency, or by an association having not less than twenty-five members. The State Health Officer shall consider fully all written and oral submissions respecting the proposed specification, rule or regulation. Upon adoption of a specification, rule or regulation, the State Health Officer, if requested to do so by an interested person either prior to adoption or within thirty (30) days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating therein its reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption.

(3) If the State Health Officer finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires adoption of a specification, rule or regulation upon fewer than sixty (60) days notice and states in writing his reasons for that find, he may proceed without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that he finds practicable, to adopt an emergency specification, rule or regulation. The specification, rule or regulation may be effective for a period of not longer than one hundred twenty (120) days renewable once for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, but the adoption of an identical specification, rule or regulation under Subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this section is not precluded.

(4) No specification, rule or regulation hereafter adopted is valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with this section. A proceeding to contest any specification, rule or regulation on the ground of noncompliance with the procedural requirements of this section must be commenced within two (2) years from the effective date of the specification, rule or regulation.

(5) The State Health Officer may use informal conferences and consultations as means of obtaining the viewpoints and advice of interested persons with respect to contemplated specification, rule or regulation making. The State Health Officer is also authorized to appoint committees of experts or interested persons or representatives of the general public to advise him with respect to contemplated specification, rule or regulation making. The powers of such committees shall be advisory only.

(6) The State Health Officer shall file with the Secretary of State a certified copy of each specification, rule or regulation adopted by him and shall mail a printed copy of each specification, rule or regulation adopted by him to all County and City Health Officers.

(7) Each specification, rule or regulation adopted is effective forty-five (45) days after filing except that: (1) a later date specified in the specification, rule or regulation shall be the effective date; and (2) subject to applicable constitutional or statutory provisions, an emergency specification, rule or regulation becomes effective immediately upon filing, or at a stated date after filing, if the State Health Officer finds that this effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(8) Specifications, rules or regulations filed with the Secretary of State shall all be made available upon request to any person at prices fixed by the Secretary of State to cover costs of mailing, publication and copying.

Sampling, Testing and Inspection of Grade "A" Milk and Milk Products

Sec. 7. The governing body of any city in the State of Texas may make mandatory the grading and labeling of milk and milk products sold or offered for sale within their respective jurisdictions; provided such milk or milk products sold or offered for sale shall be covered by the definitions, specifications and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner of Health under Section 2 for Grade "A" raw milk or milk products, and for Grade "A" pasteurized milk or milk products, by adopting an ordinance to that effect, and by providing the necessary facilities for determining the grade and for the enforcement of this Act; provided, however, the provisions of this section shall apply only to milk or milk products, sold or offered for sale by any person, partnership, or corporation, directly to the consumer of such milk or milk products.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. COTTON

Art. 165–4e. Registration of Cotton Buyers [NEW].

Art. 165–4a. National Fibers and Food Protein Commission

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Creation of Commission; Duties

Sec. 2. The Natural Fibers and Food Protein Commission, composed of the president or successor of The Texas A & M University System, the president of The University of Texas at Austin, the president of Texas Tech University, and the president of Texas Woman’s University, is hereby created and established to cause surveys, research and investigations to be made relating to the utilization of the cotton fiber, cottonseed, wool, mohair, oilseed products, other textile products, and other products of the cotton plant, with authority to contract with any and all State and Federal Agricultural Agencies and Departments of the state, and all State Educational Institutions and State Agencies to perform any such services for the commission and for the use of their respective available facilities, as it may deem proper, and to compensate such Agencies, Departments and Institutions, to be paid from money appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of this Act, which appropriations of moneys for research of cotton, wool, mohair, oilseed products and other products of the cotton plant or other textile products are hereby authorized; grants and gifts from the United States or private sources may be accepted for such purposes, and shall be subject only to limitations contained in such grants or gifts.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 3]

Chairman; Meetings; Liaison Officer; Executive Director

Sec. 4. The Natural Fibers and Food Protein Commission shall elect a chairman to serve for a period of two years. The commission shall meet at least once each year at a time specified by the chairman. Each member of the commission shall designate a member of his staff as a liaison officer to work with committees and staff members of the commission and agencies, departments, and institutions consulting or contracting with the commission in the daily operations of the work of the commission. The commission may employ an executive director to coordinate the operations of committees and staff members and oversee the research being done for the commission by consulting and contracting agencies, departments, and institutions.

Natural Fibers Committee; Food Protein Committee

Sec. 5. (a) The chairman, with the approval of the commission, shall appoint not more than 25 persons to a natural fibers committee. Persons appointed to the committee must be representative of the interests of persons in the natural fibers industry. Members of the committee serve for two-year terms ending on the last day of the state fiscal year in each odd-numbered year. The committee annually shall elect a chairman. The committee shall meet in January and July of each year at a time specified by the committee chairman for the purposes of (1) reviewing research being done for the commission in areas involving natural fibers, and (2) making annual recommendations to the commission for implementation of programs and further research. A majority of the membership of the committee constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting a meeting.

(b) The chairman shall, with the approval of the commission, appoint not more than 25 persons to a food protein committee. Persons appointed to the committee must be representative of the interests of persons in the food protein industry. Members of the committee serve for two-year terms ending on the last day of the state fiscal year in each odd-numbered year. The committee annually shall elect a chairman. The committee shall meet in January and July of each year at a time specified by the committee chairman for the purposes of (1) reviewing research being done for the commission in areas involving food protein, and (2) making annual recommendations to the commission for implementation of programs and further research. A majority of the membership of the committee constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting a meeting.

Executive Committee

Sec. 6. The chairman shall, with the approval of the commission, appoint five persons to an executive committee. One person shall be representative of the wool industry; one of the mohair industry; two of the cotton industry; and one of the food protein industry. Appointed members of the committee serve for two-year terms ending on the last day of the state fiscal year in each odd-numbered year. In addition to the appointed members, the committee consists of the chairmen of the natural fibers and food protein committees. The executive committee annually shall elect a chairman. The committee shall meet semiannually at a time specified by the committee chairman. Special meetings may be authorized or called by the chairman of the commission. At its meetings the committee shall review the work of the commission and advise the commission on matters relating to programs and budgets. A majority of the membership of the committee constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting a meeting.

Art. 165-4c. Registration of Cotton Buyers

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “Commissioner” means the commissioner of agriculture.

(2) “Cotton producer” means a person who grows cotton.

(3) “Cotton buyer” means a person who buys cotton from a producer on a forward contract.
(4) “Person” means an individual, association, partnership, corporation, or other private entity.

Registration Required

Sec. 2. (a) No person may purchase cotton on a forward contract from a cotton producer without first having registered with the commissioner as a cotton buyer.

(b) A registration under this section is valid for a period of one year after the date of registration.

Applications

Sec. 3. (a) Each person who wants to engage in activities in this state which require registration under this Act shall file with the commissioner an application for registration.

(b) The application must include:

(1) the name and address of the applicant; and

(2) the name of each trade association relating to cotton producing and marketing of which the applicant is a member.

(c) The applicant shall submit with each application an application fee of $25.

Registration Permitted

Sec. 4. No later than 30 days after the filing of an application for registration as a cotton buyer, the commissioner shall register the applicant.

Information

Sec. 5. The commissioner shall publish a list of all registered cotton buyers and shall provide a copy of the list to interested persons without charge. The list may include the number of years that the person has been registered in this state as a cotton buyer.

Penalty

Sec. 6. (a) It is an offense to violate Subsection (a), Section 2 of this Act.

(b) An offense under this section is a Class C misdemeanor.

Disposition of Funds

Sec. 7. All funds collected under this Act shall be deposited in the state treasury and shall be used for the purpose of administering and enforcing this Act.

Effective Date

Sec. 8. All provisions of this Act take effect January 1, 1976.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1863, ch. 584, §§ 1 to 8, eff. Jan. 1, 1976.]
1. CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

Art. 182a. Disposition of Cruelly Treated Animals

Sec. 1. In this Act "cruelly treated" means tortured, seriously overworked, unreasonably abandoned, unreasonably deprived of necessary food, care, or shelter, cruelly confined, caused to fight with another animal, or otherwise cruelly treated.

Sec. 2. (a) If a county sheriff or an officer who has responsibility for animal control in an incorporated city or town has reason to believe that an animal has been or is being cruelly treated, he may apply to a justice court in the county where the animal is located for a warrant to seize the animal. On a showing of probable cause to believe that the animal has been or is being cruelly treated, the court shall issue the warrant and set a time within 10 days for a hearing in the court to determine whether the animal has been cruelly treated. The officer executing the warrant shall cause the animal to be impounded and shall give written notice to the owner of the animal of the time and place of the justice court hearing.

(b) If the owner of the animal is found guilty in county court of a violation of Section 42.11, Penal Code, involving the animal, this finding is prima facie evidence at the hearing that the animal has been cruelly treated. Statements of an owner made at a hearing provided for in this Act are not admissible in a trial of the owner for a violation of Section 42.11, Penal Code. After all interested parties have been given an opportunity to present evidence at the hearing, if the court finds that the owner of an animal has cruelly treated the animal, the court shall order the animal returned to the owner.

Sec. 3. (a) Notice of an auction ordered as provided in this Act must be posted on a public bulletin board where other public notices are posted for the city, town, or county. At the auction, a bid by the former owner of the animal or his representative may not be accepted.

(b) Proceeds from the sale of the animal shall be applied first to the expenses incurred in caring for the animal during impoundment and in conducting the auction. The officer conducting the auction shall pay any excess proceeds to the justice court ordering the auction. The court shall cause the excess proceeds to be returned to the former owner of the animal.

(c) If the officer is unable to sell the animal at auction, he may cause the animal to be destroyed or may give the animal to a nonprofit animal shelter, pound, or society for the protection of animals.

Sec. 4. An owner of an animal ordered sold at public auction as provided in this Act may appeal the ruling by giving notice of appeal in justice court within 10 days of the hearing. Appeal is by means of a hearing in county court in the county where the animal was impounded. At the hearing in county court, the court may assess costs of the hearing. During the pendency of an appeal under this section the animal shall not be sold, destroyed, or given away as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of this Act.

ADMINISTRATIVE JUDICIAL DISTRICTS

Art. 200a. Administrative Judicial Districts

Numbers and Composition

Sec. 1. The State of Texas is hereby divided into nine (9) Administrative Judicial Districts, which districts shall be numbered and composed of Counties as follows:

Art. 200a

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to designate one of the regularly elected district judges, or a retired district judge, or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience on a district court, who, if retired, voluntarily retired from office, who resides within the district, and who has certified his willingness to serve, in each of said districts as Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial District. Adequate quarters for the operation of such District and preservation of records shall be provided in the courthouse of the county in which such Presiding Judge resides. Upon the death, resignation or expiration of the term of office of such Presiding Judge, the Governor shall thereafter immediately appoint or reappoint a Presiding Judge of the Administrative District, as in the first instances above. Presiding Judges of Administrative Judicial Districts shall serve for a term of four (4) years from date of qualification as such administrative judge.

Compensation for Performing Duties as Presiding Judge of Administrative Judicial Districts

Sec. 11.

(b) In addition to and cumulative of all other compensation, expenses, and perquisites authorized by law and this Act, the Presiding Judge of any Administrative Judicial District in Texas which has forty or more district courts therein, when such Presiding Judge is a retired district judge or appellate judge, as provided in Section 2 of this Act, shall receive not less than $5,000.00 nor more than $15,000.00 per annum as compensation for performing duties as the Presiding Judge of such Administrative Judicial District. Biennially the Council of Judges of such Administrative Judicial District shall fix the amount of such compensation by a majority vote of the judges. Each county comprising such Administrative Judicial District shall pay out of the officers salary fund or the general fund of the county the amount of salary apportioned to it as herein provided. The aforesaid salary, or compensation, and all other expenses incidental thereto, shall be paid annually by the said counties in such Administrative Judicial District to the Presiding Judge of such Administrative Judicial District, and by said judge placed in an Administrative Fund, from which fund said salary, and other expenses incidental thereto, shall be paid. Said salary shall be paid in twelve equal monthly payments. Said salary shall be apportioned according to the assessed property valuation of each judicial district comprising such Administrative Judicial District and after so apportioned the amount apportioned shall be apportioned to each county comprising the judicial district according to the assessed property valuation of the county.

Art. 249a. Regulation of Practice of Architecture

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 11]

Annual Registration and Fee; Certificate of Renewal; Failure to Renew; Suspension and Revocation

Sec. 12.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 12(a)]

(b) Any registered architect who shall fail to have his or her registration certificate renewed before the first day of January of each and every year shall have his or her registration certificate suspended; and it shall be the duty of the secretary-treasurer of the Board to mail a notice of such suspension to such architect at his last known address. But the failure to renew such registration certificate in the time stated shall not deprive such architect of the right of reinstatement and renewal thereafter; but the fee to be paid upon the renewal of a registration certificate after the first day of January and before the first of April of the same year shall be an additional Twenty Dollars ($20.00) to cover the additional expense incurred by the Board in effecting the renewal; and in the event that the renewal is not made before the first day of April of the same year, such certificate to practice architecture in this State may be revoked and an entry of such revocation made in the official records of the Board; and thereafter the applicant may be required in the discretion of the Board in each case to take and satisfactorily pass such examination as may be prescribed by the Board, and if the applicant passes such examination successfully the fee to be paid upon the renewal of the registration certificate shall be, in such case, the sum not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) as set by the Board; and provided that a registered architect, as herein defined, who is on active duty as a member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America subsequent to October 1, 1940, and who was at the time of his entry into said service or is now in good standing as a registered architect in this State, shall have his name continued on the list of registered architects and shall be exempt from the payment of any further fee during his service, as aforesaid, and until separated from the service; and when his active duty status ceases and he is separated from the service, he shall be exempt from payment of such fee for the then current fiscal year.

TITLE 14

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Article 320c. Liability of Attorney for Costs in Civil Proceeding [NEW].

Art. 320a-1. State Bar Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 and 2]

Members of State Bar; Unlicensed Persons Prohibited From Practicing; Assistance of Law Students or Unlicensed Graduate In Trial of Cases Subject to Rules and Regulations; Licensed Persons

Sec. 3. All persons who are now or who shall hereafter be licensed to practice law in this State shall constitute and be members of the State Bar, and shall be subject to the provisions hereof and the rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas; and all persons not members of the State Bar are hereby prohibited from practicing law in this State except as provided below. A bona fide law student attending a law school approved by the Supreme Court of Texas who has completed two-thirds of the required curriculum for graduation as computed on an hourly basis, or one-half of the required curriculum for graduation computed on an hourly basis if the student is enrolled in a clinical legal education course for which course credit is awarded, or a graduate of an approved law school during the interim between graduation and the first offering of the state bar examination after graduation, or a graduate of an approved law school who has taken the state bar examination for the first time but has not received the results of that examination, may, with the consent of the presiding judge, assist licensed attorneys in the trial of cases. His participation in the trial of cases shall be governed by rules and regulations which shall be promulgated within 90 days after this Act becomes law by a joint committee composed of five members of the State Bar designated by the president of such bar and four members of the State Junior Bar designated by the president of such bar. The presiding officer of the joint committee shall be chosen by the committee members from the members designated by the State Bar. All rules and regulations promulgated within 90 days after this Act becomes law by the joint committee shall be subject to approval by the Supreme Court of Texas, but shall contain at least the following minimum requirements:

(1) that a qualified law student or qualified unlicensed law school graduate may file instruments and motions and handle other routine matters before any court or administrative body of this State;

(2) that a qualified law student or qualified unlicensed law school graduate may make an appearance for the purpose of trial and the arguing of motions, provided that he is accompanied at such appearance by an attorney licensed to practice law in this State, in all courts of this State; and

(3) that a qualified law student or qualified unlicensed law school graduate may not appear in or conduct any contested hearing or trial, before any administrative tribunal or in any of the courts, unless accompanied at such appearance by an attorney licensed to practice law in this State.

Within the meaning of this section, all persons furnishing evidence of or complying with any of the following provisions shall be deemed as now licensed to practice law within this State, viz:

(a) That he is now enrolled as an attorney at law before the Supreme Court of this State.

(b) A license or the issuance of a license by the Board of Legal Examiners of this State authorizing him to practice law within this State.

(c) A license or the issuance of a license to practice law within this State by any authority, which, at the time of the issuance thereof, was authorized by the laws of this State, then in effect, to issue the license.

(d) Where an attorney, licensed before October 6, 1919, has lost or misplaced his license, issued by legal authority, and where the proof of its issuance is not available in the records of the Court in Texas in which he claims it was issued, then his status as a licensed attorney in this State may be established by a certificate of the District Judge in the District of his residence that such person has been engaged in the practice of law within this State for a period of five (5) years immediately and continuously next preceding the effective date of this Act, and, within the judgment of said District Judge, said attorney has theretofore been duly licensed to practice law under the laws of the State of Texas and is of good moral character. Before any such certificate shall be issued by a District Judge, the Judge shall give an opportunity to the president of the local bar association in the county of said attorney's residence to be heard.

(e) Any proof satisfactory to the Supreme Court of this State that he is and was, upon the effective date of this Act, authorized to practice law within this State.

Art. 320c. Liability of Attorney for Costs in Civil Proceeding

Regardless of any law or rule to the contrary, an attorney who is not a party to a civil proceeding is not liable for payment of costs incurred by any party to the proceeding.

TITLE 14—APPENDIX

CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Adopted July 25, 1974
Effective September 1, 1974
Amended to September 24, 1974

Canon 1
A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary.

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

Canon 2
A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in all his Activities

A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

B. A judge should not allow his family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. He should not testify voluntarily in an adjudicative proceeding as a character witness.

Canon 3
A Judge Should Perform the Duties of his Office Impartially and Diligently

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

A. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

(2) A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him.

(3) A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of his staff, court officials, and others subject to his direction and control.

(4) A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law, and, except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other private communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding.

(5) A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

(6) A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any court, and should require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

(7) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording, or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions (Estes vs. Texas, 381 U.S. 532; Sheppard vs. Maxwell, 384 U.S. 333), except that a judge may authorize:

(a) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record, or for other purposes of judicial administration;

(b) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investitive, or ceremonial proceedings;

(c) the photographic or electronic recording and reproduction of appropriate court proceedings under the following conditions:

(i) the means of recording will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings;

(ii) the parties have consented, and the consent to being depicted or recorded has been obtained from each witness appearing in the recording and reproduction;

(iii) the reproduction will not be exhibited until after the proceeding has been concluded and all direct appeals have been exhausted; and

(iv) the reproduction will be exhibited only for instructional purposes in educational institutions.

B. Administrative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his staff and court officials subject to his direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

(4) A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

C. Disqualification. (Art. V, Sec. 11 Texas Constitution; Art. 15 V.A.T.S.; C.C.P. Art. 30.01).

(1) A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including, but not limited to, instances where:

(a) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(b) he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(c) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(2) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(b) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

Canon 4

A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and the Administration of Justice

A judge, subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him:

A. He may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

B. He may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

C. He may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

Canon 5

A Judge Should Regulate his Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with his Judicial Duties

A. Avocational Activities. A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on non-legal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his office or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

B. Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or non-legal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization’s fund raising events, but he may attend such events.
(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

C. Financial Activities.

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

(2) Subject to the requirement of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity including the operation of a business. A judge should not be an officer, director or manager of a publicly owned business. For purposes of this Canon, a "publicly owned business" is a business having more than ten owners.

(3) A judge should manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he should divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Neither a judge nor a member of his family residing in his household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:

(a) a judge may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and his spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;

(b) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants;

(c) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor, or loan only if the donor is not a party or other person whose interests have come or are likely to come before him, and, if its value exceeds $100, the judge reports it in the same manner as he reports compensation in Canon 6C.

(5) For the purposes of this section "member of his family residing in his household" means any relative of a judge by blood or marriage, or a person treated by a judge as a member of his family, who resides in his household.

(6) A judge is not required by this Code to disclose his income, debts, or investments, except as provided in this Canon and Canons 3 and 6.

(7) Information acquired by a judge in his judicial capacity should not be used or disclosed by him in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his judicial duties.

D. Fiduciary Activities. A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his family; and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties. "Member of his family" includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. As a family fiduciary a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) He should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

(2) While acting as a fiduciary a judge is subject to the same restrictions on financial activities that apply to him in his personal capacity.

E. Arbitration. A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator.

F. Practice of Law. A judge should not practice law.

G. Extra-judicial Appointments. A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational, and cultural activities.

Canon 6

A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities

A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation. Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

B. Expense Reimbursement. Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his family. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

C. A judge shall file with the Judicial Qualifications Commission of this State on or before the last Friday of April of each year a financial report consisting of the following documents:

(a) A true copy of the most recent Federal income tax return filed by him.

(b) An affidavit which asserts compliance with Article 6252-9b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, the financial disclosure law.

(c) A verified list of the names of the corporations, businesses or other financial undertakings in which he has an interest. If any of the above have no name, then a description of their nature shall be given.

(d) At the expiration of two years from the time a judge by reason of death, disability or other reason is no longer subject to recall to judicial service, the Commission shall destroy the documents filed by a judge in compliance with this Canon.

The copy of income tax return called for in subparagraph (a) above shall be transmitted in a sealed envelope, placed by the Commission in safekeeping, and shall be opened only during an investigation and pursuant to a majority vote of the full Commission duly assembled.

If the federal government has granted an extension of time for the filing of an income tax return, that fact shall be made known to the Judicial Qualifications Commission on or before the last Friday of April of the year in which the tax return is due. The judge shall in that case file the copy of his income tax return with the Judicial Qualifications Commission within ten days after he files his income tax return with the government.

The list of corporations and businesses in which the judge has a financial interest called for in subparagraph (c) above shall be transmitted in a separate sealed envelope, placed by the Commission in safekeeping, and shall not be opened or the contents thereof disclosed except in the manner hereinabove providing for the opening and examination of the documents called for in subparagraph (a) above, or as hereinafter provided.

At any time during or after the pendency of a cause, any party may request information as to whether the most recent list filed by the judge or judges before whom the cause is or was pending contains the name of any specific person or corporation or other business which is a party to the cause or which has a substantial, direct, or indirect financial interest in its outcome. Neither the making of the request nor the contents thereof shall be revealed by the Chairman to any judge or other person except at the instance of the individual making the request. If the request meets the requirements hereinabove set forth, the Chairman shall render a prompt answer thereto and thereupon return the report to safekeeping for retention in accordance with the provisions hereinabove stated. All such requests shall be verified and transmitted to the Chairman of the Commission on forms to be approved by it.

Canon 7

A Judge Should Refrain from Political Activity Inappropriate to his Judicial Office

A. Political Conduct in General.

(1) A judge or a candidate for election to judicial office should not:

(a) act as a leader or hold any office in a political organization;
CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Canon 7

(b) make speeches for a political organization or candidate or publicly endorse a candidate for public office;

c) solicit funds for or pay an assessment or make a contribution to a political organization or candidate, attend political gatherings, or purchase tickets for political party dinners, or other functions, except as authorized in subsection A(2).

(2) A judge holding an office filled by public election between competing candidates, or a candidate for such office, may, insofar as permitted by law, attend political gatherings, speak to such gatherings on his own behalf when he is a candidate for election or reelection, identify himself as a member of a political party, and contribute to a political party or organization.

(3) A judge should resign his office when he becomes a candidate either in a party primary or in a general election for a non-judicial office, except that he may continue to hold his judicial office while being a candidate for election to or serving as a delegate in a state constitutional convention, if he is otherwise permitted by law to do so.

(4) A judge should not engage in any other political activity except on behalf of measures to improve the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice.

B. Campaign Conduct.

(1) A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office that is filled either by public election between competing candidates or on the basis of a merit system election:

(a) should maintain the dignity appropriate to judicial office, and should encourage members of his family to adhere to the same standards of political conduct that apply to him;

(b) should prohibit public officials or employees subject to his direction or control from doing for him what he is prohibited from doing under this Canon;

(c) should not make pledges or promises of conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office; announce his views on disputed legal or political issues; or misrepresent his identity, qualifications, present position, or other fact.

Any candidate for judicial office, including an incumbent judge, and others acting on his behalf, should refrain from all conduct which might tend to arouse reasonable belief that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his own candidacy.

Compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct

A. The following judges shall comply with this Code:

Those elected in a statewide election.
Justices of courts of civil appeals.
Commissioners of any appellate court.
District judges.
Judges of domestic relations courts.
Judges of juvenile courts.
Judges of county courts at law.

Provided, however, that Canon 6C(b) shall apply only to those judges who are subject to Article 6252–9b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

The Code shall not apply to county judges whether they are also judges of juvenile courts or not.

B. Judge Pro Tempore. A judge pro tempore is a person who is appointed to act temporarily as a judge.

(1) While acting as such, a judge pro tempore is not required to comply with Canon 5C(2), (3), D, E, F, and G, and Canon 6C.

(2) A person who has been a judge pro tempore should not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

C. Retired Judge. A retired judge who is eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with all the provisions of this Code except Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, and G, and Canon 6C, but he should refrain from judicial service during the period of an extra-judicial appointment not sanctioned by Canon 5G. A retired judge who is not subject to recall for judicial service or who by reason of disability does not perform such services, which facts are shown to the satisfaction of the Judicial Qualifications Commission is excused from compliance with Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, and G, and Canon 6C.

Effective Date of Compliance

A person to whom this Code become applicable should arrange his affairs as soon as reasonably possible to comply with it. If, however, the demands on his time and the possibility of conflicts of interest are not substantial, a person who holds judicial office on the date this Code becomes effective may:

A. continue to act as an officer or director of a publicly owned business for a period not to exceed four (4) years from the effective date of this Code;

B. continue to act as an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary for the estate or person of one who is not a member of his family.

Art. 326k-38b. 49th Judicial District Attorney

Representation of State

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 49th Judicial District shall represent the state in all criminal cases in the district court for the 49th Judicial District and shall represent the state in all criminal cases in Webb County.

Compensation

Sec. 2. The district attorney shall be compensated in such amount as may be fixed by general law relating to salaries paid to district attorneys by the state and, in addition, his compensation may be supplemented by the commissioners court of any one or more of the counties composing the 49th Judicial District in an amount to be fixed by the commissioners court. Also, the commissioners court of any county in the district may supplement the salary of the district attorney for the prosecution of misdemeanor cases in the county.

Assistants, Investigators and Secretaries; Compensation

Sec. 3. The commissioners court of any county in the district may provide the salary of any assistant district attorney, investigator, or secretary and may prescribe as a qualification for retaining the job that such personnel reside in the county. Assistant district attorneys and investigators, in addition to their salaries, may be allowed actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties, not to exceed the amount fixed by the district attorney and approved by the commissioners court. All claims for travel expenses may be paid from the general fund or any other available funds of the county.

Office Equipment and Expenses; Automobiles

Sec. 4. The commissioners court of any county in the district may furnish telephone service, typewriters, office furniture, office space, supplies, and such other items and equipment as are necessary to carry out the official duties of the district attorney's office, and to pay the expenses incident to the operation of the district attorney's office. The commissioners courts are further authorized to furnish automobiles for the use of the district attorney's office for the purpose of conducting the official duties of the office, and to provide the maintenance thereof.

Gifts and Grants

Sec. 5. The commissioners court of the county or the counties composing the district may accept gifts and grants from any foundation or association for the purpose of financing adequate and effective prosecution programs within the county or district. [See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

Sec. 4. The district attorney is entitled to compensation for his services in an amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary paid to district attorneys by the state. In addition to the salary paid the district attorney by the state, the Commissioners Court of Brazos County may supplement the salary of the district attorney in an amount to be fixed by the commissioners court.

Sec. 5. (a) The district attorney, with the approval of the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, may appoint such assistant district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, secretaries, clerks, and other personnel as he deems necessary to carry out the duties of his office.

(b) An assistant district attorney shall be licensed to practice law in this state and may perform for the state and the county all duties conferred and imposed by law on the district attorney. An investigator need not be licensed to practice law. An investigator shall have authority, under the direction of the district attorney, to make arrests and execute processes in criminal cases and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

(c) Each assistant district attorney, investigator, stenographer, secretary, clerk, and other personnel may be required by the district attorney to make bond in such amount as the district attorney may direct, and all personnel are subject to removal at the will of the district attorney. Each assistant district attorney and investigator, when appointed, shall take the constitutional oath of office.

(d) Salaries of the assistant district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, secretaries, clerks, and other personnel shall be fixed by the district attorney, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court of Brazos County. In addition to their salaries, the district attorney and each assistant district
Art. 326k–64a. Representation of State in Oldham County District Court

Sec. 1. The County Attorney of Oldham County shall represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before the district court in Oldham County. The Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County shall assist the county attorney in Oldham County on his request or, in the event of his inability to act, on appointment by the judge of the district court in Oldham County. If there is no county attorney in Oldham County, the Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County shall represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before the district court in Oldham County on appointment by the judge of the district court in Oldham County.

Sec. 2. The Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County shall be entitled to the expenses and allowances as provided in the General Appropriations Act for district attorneys who serve more than one county. The state shall pay Oldham County a sum equal to 30 percent of the salary paid to district attorneys by the state.

Section 3 of the 1975 Act provided:

"There is appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund the sum of $7,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1976, and the sum of $7,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1977, for expenses and allowances to the Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County as provided in Section 2 of this Act. There is appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund the sum of $6,990 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1976, and the sum of $7,440 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1977, as payment to Oldham County as provided in Section 2 of this Act."

Art. 326k-75. Hays County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Hays County is created.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond; Residence

Sec. 2. The Criminal District Attorney of Hays County shall be at least 25 years of age, a practicing attorney in this state for five years, and a resident of Hays County. He shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath of office, and give the bond required of district attorneys by the constitution and general laws of this state. He shall reside in Hays County during his term of office.

Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites; District Attorney of 22nd Judicial District; Application of Act

Sec. 3. (a) It is the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Hays County or his assistants to be in attendance on each term and all sessions of the district courts in Hays County and all sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Hays County held for the transaction of criminal business, and exclusively to represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before those courts and perform such other duties as may be conferred by law on the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions, and perquisites as are provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this state.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 22nd Judicial District shall only represent the State of Texas in the counties of Caldwell and Comal. The provisions of this Act apply only to Hays County and do not affect the office of district attorney or the duties and powers of the district attorney in the counties of Caldwell and Comal. The District Attorney of the 22nd Judicial District shall continue to fulfill the duties of district attorney in the counties of Caldwell and Comal, but his duties in the County of Hays are divested from him and invested in the Criminal District Attorney of Hays County.

Appointment; Election and Term

Sec. 4. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the governor shall appoint a criminal district attorney for Hays County, who shall hold office until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected a criminal district attorney for Hays County for a term ending on December 31, 1978. At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 80, and Article XVI, Section 65 of the Texas Constitution.

(b) A vacancy occurring in the office of Criminal District Attorney of Hays County shall be filled by appointment by the governor, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(c) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 22nd Judicial District shall only stand for election and be elected from the counties of Caldwell and Comal. The present district attorney for the 22nd Judicial District shall continue in office as the district attorney in the counties of Caldwell and Comal until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Compensation

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Hays County shall be compensated for his services by the state in such a manner and in such amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary to be paid to district attorneys by the state, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the commissioners court in such amount as it deems advisable.

Abolition of County Attorney’s Office

Sec. 6. The office of County Attorney of Hays County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1038, ch. 402, §§ 1 to 6, eff. June 19, 1975.]

Art. 326k-76. Fort Bend County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Fort Bend County is created.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 2. The criminal district attorney or his assistants shall be in attendance on each term and all sessions of any district court in Fort Bend County. The criminal district attorney and his assistants shall represent the state in criminal and civil cases, unless otherwise provided by law, pending in the district courts and inferior courts having jurisdiction in Fort Bend County. He shall have and exercise, in addition to the specific powers given and duties imposed on him and his assistants by this Act, all powers, duties, and privileges within Fort Bend County conferred on district attorneys and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state relative to criminal and civil matters for and in behalf of the county and the State of Texas.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 3. The criminal district attorney shall possess the qualifications, take the oath, and give the bond required by the constitution and laws of this state of district attorneys.

Assistants: Appointment; Compensation; Removal

Sec. 4. The criminal district attorney shall appoint assistant criminal district attorneys and other assistants necessary to the proper performance of his official duties, with the approval of the commissioners court. The assistants shall be paid a salary to be set and approved by the commissioners court and paid out of the general fund of the county. The assistants are subject to removal at the will of the criminal district attorney and are authorized to perform any duty conferred by law on the criminal district attorney.

Stenographers: Appointment; Compensation; Removal

Sec. 5. The criminal district attorney may appoint stenographers, who may or may not possess the qualifications prescribed by law for district and county attorneys, who shall perform the necessary stenographic work assigned by the criminal district attorney, and who shall receive as compensation a salary set by the commissioners court payable out of the county funds. The stenographers are subject to removal at the will of the criminal district attorney.

Offices Expenses

Sec. 6. Fort Bend County is authorized to set aside each year a sum of money to be expended by the criminal district attorney in the preparation and conduct of criminal affairs of the office.

Compensation

Sec. 7. The criminal district attorney shall be compensated for his services by the state in such manner and amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary to be paid to district attorneys by the state, and in addition, his salary may be supplemented by the commissioners court in such amount as it deems advisable.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 8. The office of County Attorney of Fort Bend County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Appointment; Election and Term; Vacancy; Private Practice of Law

Sec. 9. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the governor shall appoint a criminal district attorney for Fort Bend County, who shall hold office until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected a criminal district attorney for Fort Bend County for a term ending on December 31, 1978. At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected for a regular four year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(b) Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Criminal District Attorney of Fort Bend County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(c) After January 1, 1977, the Criminal District Attorney of Fort Bend County and any assistant criminal district attorneys may not actively engage in the private practice of law while serving as criminal district attorney or assistant criminal district attorney in and for Fort Bend County.

District Attorney of 23rd Judicial District

Sec. 10. (a) On the effective date of this Act the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District of Texas shall only represent the State of Texas in the counties of Wharton and Matagorda.

The provisions of this Act shall not affect the office of district attorney or the duties and powers of the district attorney in the counties of Wharton and Matagorda, and the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall continue to perform his duties in the counties of Wharton and Matagorda. This Act applies only to Fort Bend County. From the effective date of this Act, the duties of the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District in Fort Bend County are divested from him and invested in the Criminal District Attorney of Fort Bend County, who shall represent the state in all district courts having jurisdiction in Fort Bend County.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall only stand for election and be elected from the counties of Wharton and Matagorda. The present district attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall continue in office as the district attorney in the counties of Wharton and Matagorda until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

Art. 326k-77. Rockwall County Criminal District Attorney

(Text of article effective Jan. 1, 1977)

Creation of Office

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County is created.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond; Residence

Sec. 2. The Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County shall be a practicing attorney in this state and a resident of Rockwall County. He shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath of office, and give the bond required of district attorneys by the constitution and general laws of this state. He shall reside in Rockwall County during his term of office.

Duties; Fees; Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It is the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County or his assistants to be in attendance on each term and all sessions of the district courts in Rockwall County and all sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Rockwall County held for the transaction of criminal business, and exclusively to represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before those courts and perform such other duties as may be conferred by law on the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions, and perquisites as are provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this state.

Commission; Compensation; Payment; Private Practice of Law

Sec. 4. (a) The Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County shall be commissioned by the governor and shall receive as compensation an annual salary payable in equal monthly installments. The salary shall include the amount equal to the amount paid district attorneys by the State of Texas and shall be paid by the comptroller of public accounts as appropriated by the legislature. In addition, the Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County may be paid in equal bimonthly installments out of the officers' salary fund of Rockwall County an amount which, when added to the amount paid by the State of Texas, equals an amount not to exceed 90 percent of the total salaries paid to the Judge of the 86th Judicial District by the State of Texas and Rockwall, Kaufman, and Van Zandt counties.

(b) The Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County shall not engage in the private practice of law.

Assistants, Investigators, etc.; Appointment and Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County may appoint a staff composed of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel as are required for the proper and efficient operation and administration of the office. All salaries of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel shall be an amount set by the criminal district attorney with the advice and consent of the commissioners court and shall be paid by the commissioners court in equal bimonthly installments from the officers' salary fund of Rockwall County. In addition to the salary provided the criminal district attorney, his assistants, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel, the Commissioners Court of Rockwall County may allow the criminal district attorney, his assistants, and investigators such necessary expenses as the commissioners court deems reasonable. The expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses.

Oath of Assistants; Powers and Duties

Sec. 6. The assistant criminal district attorneys of Rockwall County shall take, on appointment, the constitutional oath of office. The assistant criminal district attorneys of Rockwall County are authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury, and generally perform any duty devolving on the Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County and exercise any power and perform any duty conferred by law on the Criminal District Attorney of Rockwall County.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 7. The office of County Attorney of Rockwall County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Election and Term; Vacancy

Sec. 8. (a) At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Rockwall County a Criminal District Attorney for Rockwall County for a two-year term beginning on January 1, 1977.

(b) At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, the criminal district attorney shall be elected for a regular four-year term, as provided by the Texas Constitution.

(c) A vacancy occurring in the office of criminal district attorney shall be filled by appointment by the governor, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

Effective Date

Sec. 9. Except as provided by Section 8 of this Act, the provisions of this Act take effect on January 1, 1977.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1923, ch. 625, §§ 1 to 9, eff. Jan. 1, 1977.]

Art. 326k-78. Van Zandt County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County is created to become effective on September 1, 1975.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond; Residence

Sec. 2. (a) The Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County shall be at least 25 years of age, a practicing attorney in this state for two years, and a resident of Van Zandt County. He shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath of office, and give the bond required of district attorneys by the constitution and general laws of this state. He shall reside in Van Zandt County during his term of office.

(b) If no person with the qualifications of age and experience required in Subsection (a) has filed for this office 30 days prior to the filing deadline these qualifications of age and experience will be waived for the election involved only.

Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It is the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County or his assistants to be in attendance on each term and all sessions of the district courts in Van Zandt County and all sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Van Zandt County held for the transaction of criminal business and exclusively to represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before those courts and perform such other duties as may be conferred by law on the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions, and perquisites as are provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this state.

Commission; Compensation; Payment

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County shall be commissioned by the governor, and shall receive as compensation an annual salary payable in equal monthly installments. The salary shall include the amount equal to the amount paid district attorneys by the State of Texas and shall be paid by the comptroller of public accounts, as appropriated by the legislature. In addition, the Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County shall be paid in equal monthly or bimonthly installments, as determined by the Commissioners Court of Van Zandt County, out of the officers' salary fund of Van Zandt County an amount which, when added to the amount paid by the State of Texas, equals an amount not less than 90 percent of the total salaries paid to the Judge of the 86th Judicial District by the State of Texas and Kaufman, Van Zandt, and Rockwall counties.

Assistants; Investigators, etc.; Appointment and Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, may appoint a staff composed of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel as the Commissioners Court of Van Zandt County may authorize. All salaries of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel shall be an amount set by the criminal district attorney with the approval of the commissioners court and shall be paid by the commissioners court in equal monthly or bimonthly installments from the officers' salary fund of Van Zandt County. In addition to the salary provided the criminal district attorney, his assistants, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel, the Commissioners Court of Van Zandt County may allow the criminal district attorney, his assistants and investigators such necessary expenses as the commissioners court deems reasonable. The expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses.

Oath of Assistants; Powers and Duties

Sec. 6. The assistant criminal district attorneys of Van Zandt County shall take, on appointment, the constitutional oath of office. The criminal district attorney and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and duty to represent the State of Texas in all criminal cases pending in any court of Van Zandt County, as well as perform other statutory or constitutional duties imposed on district and county attorneys of this state. The assistant criminal district attorneys of Van Zandt County are authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury, and generally perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County and exercise any power and perform any duty conferred by law on the Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County.

Private Practice of Law

Sec. 7. The Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County and his assistants shall not engage in the private practice of law while serving as criminal district attorney or assistant criminal district attorney of Van Zandt County. This section becomes effective on September 1, 1975.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 8. The office of County Attorney of Van Zandt County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

County Attorney Commissioned; Election and Term; Vacancy

Sec. 9. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the County Attorney of Van Zandt County shall be commissioned as the Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County. He shall fill the office of criminal district attorney until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is lawfully elected and has qualified. The person elected at the general election in 1976 shall fill the office of criminal district attorney until the general election in 1978 and until his successor is lawfully elected and has qualified.

(b) At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(c) Any vacancy occurring in the office of Criminal District Attorney of Van Zandt County after the office is filled initially by the County Attorney of Van Zandt County, as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 646, §§ 1 to 9, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Section 10 of the 1975 Act provided:

"If any paragraph, phrase, clause, or section of this statute be held invalid, it shall not affect the balance of this statute, but it is expressly declared to be the intention of the legislature that it would have passed the balance of the Act without such portion as may be held invalid."

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 332b. Denton, Randall, Collin, Grayson, Gregg, Orange, Lamar, and Fannin Counties; Compensation of Criminal District or County Attorney

Sec. 1. Denton County, Randall County, Collin County, Grayson County, Gregg County, and Orange County, in all of which counties there is either the office of criminal district attorney or the office of county attorney performing the duties of a district attorney, shall receive annually from the state an amount equal to the compensation paid by the state to district attorneys as authorized by Article V, Section 21, Constitution of Texas. Such compensation shall be paid into the salary fund of each county in 12 equal monthly installments.

Sec. 1a. Lamar County and Fannin County, in which counties there is the office of county attorney performing the duties of a district attorney, shall each receive $5,000 annually from the state. Such compensation shall be paid into the salary fund of each county in 12 equal monthly installments.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1899, ch. 606, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1951, ch. 642, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Sections 2 and 3 of Acts 1975, 64th Leg., ch. 606, provided:

"Sec. 2. There is hereby appropriated out of the general revenue fund the sum of $5,000 for each fiscal year of the biennium for each county attorney, beginning September 1, 1975, to fund the state's cost under this Act."

"Sec. 3. This Act shall become effective on September 1, 1975."

Art. 332b-1. Brazoria, Ellis, Limestone, Hidalgo and Rusk Counties; Compensation of Criminal District or County Attorney

Brazoria County, Ellis County, Limestone County, Hidalgo County, and Rusk County, in all of which counties there is either the office of criminal district attorney or the office of county attorney performing the duties of a district attorney, the official performing such services shall be compensated for his services by the State in such manner and in such amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary to be paid to district attorneys by the State. The Commissioners Court may pay such official any compensation it deems advisable and shall pay such official sufficient compensation to insure that his total compensation is not less than the total compensation received by such official on the effective date of this Act.

TITLE 16

BANKS AND BANKING

CHAPTER FOUR. STOCK, STOCKHOLDERS, BY-LAWS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES

Art. 342-410. Directors, Officers and Employees—Liability—Reimbursement for Expenses

Except as otherwise provided by statute, directors and officers of state banks shall be liable for financial losses sustained by state banks to the extent that directors and officers of other corporations are now responsible for such losses in equity and common law. Any officer or director who does not approve of any act or omission of the board, and desires to relieve himself from any personal liability for such act or omission shall promptly announce his opposition to such act or omission and cause such opposition to be spread upon the minutes of the directors’ meeting. If for any reason such opposition is not spread upon the minutes of the directors’ meeting, he shall promptly report the facts to the Commissioner.

Any person may be indemnified or reimbursed by a state bank, through action of its board, for reasonable expenses actually incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he is a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of said bank. The board may authorize the purchase by the bank of insurance covering the indemnification of directors, officers or employees. If there is a compromise of such an action or threatened action, there shall be no indemnification or reimbursement for the amount paid to settle the claim or for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such claim without the vote, or the written consent, of the owners of record of a majority of the stock of the bank. No such person shall be indemnified or reimbursed if he has been finally adjudged to have been guilty of, or liable for, willful misconduct, gross neglect of duty, or a criminal act. This article shall not bar any right or action to which such person would be entitled at common law or any other statute of this State.

CHAPTER NINE. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 342-903. Branch Banking Prohibited

No State, national or private bank shall engage in business in more than one place, maintain any branch office, or cash checks or receive deposits except in its own banking house. For purposes of this article “banking house” means the building in whose offices the business of the bank is conducted and which is functionally one place of business, including (a) office facilities whose nearest wall is located within five hundred (500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by closed circuit television or pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device, and (b) in addition, if authorized in the manner hereinafter provided, not more than one (1) automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within two thousand (2,000) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom and is connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected automobile drive-in facility or by closed circuit television, pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device. The entire banking house shall for all purposes under the law be considered one integral banking house. The term “automobile drive-in facility” as herein used shall mean a facility offering banking services solely to persons who arrive at such facility in an automobile and remain therein during the transaction of business with the bank.

An automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within two thousand (2,000) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom shall be authorized only in the following manner: Written application for authority to operate the same shall be filed with the Commissioner by the bank proposing such facility, which application shall specify the location of the proposed facility. Promptly upon the filing of such written application the Commissioner shall, by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, notify each bank, if any, whose central building is situated within a one (1) mile radius of said proposed facility, hereinafter called the “Interested Banks,” of the filing of such application, transmitting with such notice a true copy of said application. If within thirty (30) days following the mailing of such notice no written protest to the operation of the said proposed facility has been filed with the Commissioner by an Interested Bank, or, if there are no Interested Banks, said proposed facility shall thereupon be fully authorized without the necessity of any further action by the applying bank or by the Commissioner. However, if a written protest to the operation of said proposed facility is filed with the Commissioner during said thirty (30) day period by one or more of the Interested Banks, said application shall be promptly considered by the State Banking Board at a public hearing duly called, noticed and held in the same manner as hearings to consider applications for the granting of bank charters, and authorization to operate said proposed facility shall be granted at such hearing unless the State Banking Board shall find that the operation thereof will substantially and adversely affect one or more of the Interested Banks, in which case authorization shall be denied. National banks and private banks doing business in this State shall voluntarily submit to the jurisdiction of the State Banking Board, and abide by the determination of the Board as to whether or not permission should be granted to establish and operate an additional drive-in facility authorized under this article, provided that any national bank which does not abide by the determination of the Board shall immediately forfeit all rights it may have under State law to act as reserve depository for any State chartered bank and to act as depository for the public funds of the State and any county, city, municipality, school district or any other political subdivision of the State, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank unless and until the Commissioner certifies to the depositor that said national bank is conducting its business in compliance with the Board's determinations and orders. In addition the Attorney General shall seek an injunction against any violation of the Board's orders under this article, provided that any national bank or private bank. Any bank adversely affected by a violation of this article may, and the Attorney General, upon request of the Commissioner, shall bring suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this article. The party who prevails in such proceeding shall recover costs of suit and reasonable attorney's fees. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 531, ch. 215, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 342-910a. Legal Holidays for Banks or Trust Companies—Alternative Legal Holidays for Banks or Trust Companies—Discrimination Prohibited

Sec. 1. Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Notwithstanding any existing provisions of law relative to negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or commercial paper, but subject to the provisions of Section 2 of this article, only the following enumerated days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed: Saturdays, Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25.

When the dates January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed, and when such dates fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following such Sunday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed.

All such legal holidays shall be neither business days nor banking days under the laws of this State or the United States, and any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed at or by any bank or trust company on such days may be performed on the next succeeding business day and no liability or loss of right of any kind shall result therefrom to any bank or trust company.

Sec. 2. Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Any bank or trust company may elect to designate days on which it may close for general banking purposes pursuant to the provisions of this section, instead of Section 1 of this article, provided that any bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed on the following enumerated days, which days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes: Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25. When the dates January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday may also, if the board of directors so elects, be a legal holiday for all banking purposes on which each bank and trust company so electing shall remain closed, and when such dates fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following each Sunday shall also be a mandatory legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed. Except as herein provided, any bank or trust company doing business in this state may, at its option, elect to be governed by this section and close for general banking purposes either on Saturday or on any other weekday of any week in the year and may elect to be closed on the preceding Friday when January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on a Saturday, provided:
(a) such day is designated at least 15 days in advance by adoption of a resolution concurred in by a majority of the board of directors thereof (or, if an unincorporated bank or trust company, by its owner or a majority of its owners, if there be more than one owner); and

(b) notice of the day or days designated in such resolution is posted in a conspicuous place in such bank or trust company for at least 15 days in advance of the day or days designated; and

(c) a copy of such resolution certified by the president or cashier of such bank or trust company is filed with the office of the commissioner of Banking Department of Texas.

The filing of such copy of resolution as aforesaid with the office of the commissioner of the Banking Department of Texas shall be deemed to be proof in all courts in this state that such bank or trust company has duly complied with the provisions of this section. Any such election to so close shall remain in effect until a subsequent resolution shall be adopted and notice thereof posted and a copy thereof filed in the manner above provided.

If any bank or trust company elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday as herein provided, it may, at its option, remain open on such day for the purpose of performing limited banking services. Notice of election to perform limited banking services shall be contained in the resolution and notices, above provided, with respect to closing for general banking purposes. Limited banking services may include such of the ordinary and usual services provided by the bank as the board of directors may determine, except the following: making loans, renewing or extending loans, certifying checks, issuing cashier's checks, and providing access to safety deposit boxes or to property held in safekeeping by the bank.

Such day upon which such bank or trust company may elect to close for general banking purposes shall with respect to such institution be treated as a legal holiday for all purposes and not a business day; provided that if such bank shall elect to perform limited banking services on such day, the same shall not be deemed a legal holiday for the performance of limited banking services. Any bank or trust company which elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday but which elects to perform limited banking services shall not be subjected to any liability or loss of rights for performing limited banking services or refusing to perform any other banking services on such day.

Art. 342-951. Mortgage Banking Institutions—Supervision by Commissioner

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Sec. 2. On or before February 1 of each year, any mortgage banking institution that meets the requirements of Section 1 shall file with the Banking Commissioner of Texas a statement of its condition as of the previous December 31. The statement of condition shall be filed in the form prescribed by the banking commissioner and shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $50. The statement of condition is for the information of the banking commissioner and his employees only and its contents shall not be made public except in the course of some judicial proceeding in this state.

Sec. 3. The banking commissioner shall annually examine or cause to be examined the books and accounts of any mortgage banking institution which meets the requirements of Section 1. The institution being examined shall pay the actual expenses incident to the examination and a fee of not more than $50 per day per person engaged in the examination. Such fees, together with all other fees, penalties and revenues collected by the banking department, shall be retained by the department and shall be expended only for the expenses of the department.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1369, ch. 523, §§ 3 and 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
TITLE 17

BEES

Art. 565b. Labeling and Sale of Honey, Honey Products and Imitation Honey

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “Pure honey” means the nectar of plants which has been transformed by, and is the natural product of, honeybees, and is either in a honeycomb or has been taken from a honeycomb and packaged in a liquid, crystallized, or granular condition.

(2) “Label” means, as a noun, written or printed material accompanying a product and furnishing identification or description, including material attached to a product or its immediate container, material attached to packaging containing a product in its immediate container, and material inserted in an immediate container or other packaging of a product.

(3) “Label” means, as a verb, to attach or insert a label.

(4) “Person” means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association of individuals.

Sec. 2. (a) No person may label, sell, keep, expose, or offer for sale a product identified on its label as “honey,” “liquid or extracted honey,” “strained honey,” or “pure honey,” unless the product consists exclusively of pure honey.

(b) No person may label or sell, or keep, expose, or offer for sale, any product that resembles honey and that has on its label a picture or drawing of a bee, beehive, or honeycomb, unless the product consists exclusively of pure honey.

(c) No person may label or sell, or keep, expose, or offer for sale, any product that resembles honey and is identified on its label as “imitation honey” in any form.

(d) No person may label or sell, or keep, expose, or offer for sale, any product consisting of honey mixed with any other ingredient, unless the product bears a label with a list of ingredients, and unless the word “honey” appears in the list of ingredients in the same size type or print as the other ingredients.

(e) No person may label or sell, or keep, expose, or offer for sale, any product consisting of honey mixed with any other ingredient and containing the word “honey” in the product name in a larger size of type or print or in a more prominent position than the other words in the product name.

Sec. 3. A person who violates the provisions of this Act is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1872, ch. 588, §§ 1 to 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
BLUE SKY LAW—SECURITIES

Art. 581-5. Exempt Transactions

Except as hereinafter in this Act specifically provided, the provisions of this Act shall not apply to the sale of any security when made in any of the following transactions and under any of the following conditions, and the company or person engaged therein shall not be deemed a dealer within the meaning of this Act; that is to say, the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any sale, offer for sale, solicitation, subscription, dealing in or delivery of any security under any of the following transactions or conditions:

A. At any judicial, executor's, administrator's, guardian's or conservator's sale, or any sale by a receiver or trustee in insolvency or bankruptcy;

B. The sale by or for the account of a pledge holder or mortgagee, selling or offering for sale or delivery in the ordinary course of business to liquidate a bona fide debt, of a security pledged in good faith as security for such debt;

C. (1) Sales of securities made by or in behalf of a vendor, whether by dealer or other agent, in the ordinary course of bona fide personal investment of the personal holdings of such vendor, or change in such investment, if such vendor is not engaged in the business of selling securities and the sale or sales are isolated transactions not made in the course of repeated and successive transactions of a like character; provided, that in no event shall such sales or offerings be exempt from the provisions of this Act when made or intended by the vendor or his agent, for the benefit, either directly or indirectly, of any company or corporation except the individual vendor (other than a usual commission to said agent), and provided further, that any person acting as agent for said vendor shall be registered pursuant to this Act;

(2) Sales by or on behalf of any insurance company subject to the supervision or control of the Board of Insurance Commissioners of any security owned by such company as a legal and bona fide investment, provided that in no event shall any such sale or offering be exempt from the provisions of this Act when made or intended, either directly or indirectly, for the benefit of any other company as that term is defined in this Act.

D. The distribution by a corporation of securities direct to its stockholders as a stock dividend or other distribution paid out of earnings or surplus;

E. Any offer and any transaction pursuant to any offer by the issuer of its securities to its existing security holders (including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities or nontransferable warrants) if no commission or other remuneration (other than a stand-by commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this state.

F. The issue in good faith of securities by a company to its security holders, or creditors, in the process of a bona fide reorganization of the company made in good faith, or the issue in good faith of securities by a company, organized solely for the purpose of taking over the assets and continuing the business of a predecessor company, to the security holders or creditors of such predecessor company, provided that in either such case such securities are issued in exchange for the securities of such holders or claims of such creditors, or both, and in either such case security holders or creditors do not pay or give or promise and are not obligated to pay or give any consideration for the securities so issued other than the securities of or claims against said company or its predecessor then held or owned by them;

G. The issue or sale of securities (a) by one corporation to another corporation or the security holders thereof pursuant to a vote by one or more classes of such security holders, as required by the certificate of incorporation or the applicable corporation statute, in connection with a merger, consolidation or sale of corporate assets, or (b) by one corporation to its own stockholders in connection with the change of par value stock to no par value stock or vice versa, or the exchange of outstanding shares for the same or a greater or smaller number of shares; provided that in any such case such security holders do not pay or give or promise and are not obligated to pay or give any consideration for the securities so issued or sold other than the securities of the corporation then held by them.
Art. 581-5

H. The sale of any security to any bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, surety or guaranty company, savings institution, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940,\(^1\) small business investment company as defined in the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended,\(^2\) or to any registered dealer actually engaged in buying and selling securities; or the issue or sale of any investment contract in connection with an employees' stock bonus, annuity, pension, profit-sharing or similar employee benefit plan provided the securities purchased under the plan either would be exempt if sold by a registered dealer under Section 6 hereof or shall be qualified under Section 7 hereof or purchased in a transaction exempt under Section 5 hereof.

I. Provided such sale is made without any public solicitation or advertisements, (a) the sale of any security by the issuer thereof so long as the total number of security holders of the issuer thereof does not exceed thirty-five (35) persons after taking such sale into account; (b) the sale of shares of stock pursuant to the grant of an employees' restricted stock option as defined in the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States; or (c) the sale by an issuer of its securities during the period of twelve (12) months ending with the date of the sale in question to not more than fifteen (15) persons (excluding, in determining such fifteen (15) persons, purchasers of securities in transactions exempt under other provisions of this Section 5, purchasers of securities exempt under Section 6 hereof and purchasers of securities which are part of an offering registered under Section 7 hereof), provided such persons purchased such securities for their own account and not for distribution.

The issuer shall file a notice not less than five (5) days prior to the date of consummation of any sale claimed to be exempt under the provisions of clause (c), of this Subsection I, setting forth the name and address of the issuer, the total amount of the securities to be sold under this clause, the price at which the securities are to be sold, the date on which the securities are to be sold, the names and addresses of the proposed purchasers, and such other information as the commissioner may reasonably require, including a certificate of a principal officer of the issuer that reasonable information concerning the plan of business and the financial condition of the issuer has been furnished to the proposed purchasers. The commissioner may by order revoke or suspend the exemption under this clause (c) with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act.

The revocation or suspension of this exemption shall be inapplicable to the issuer until such issuer shall have received actual notice from the commissioner of such revocation or suspension.

J. Wherein the securities disposed of consist exclusively of notes or bonds secured by mortgage or vendor's lien upon real estate or tangible personal property, and the entire mortgage is sold or transferred with all of the notes or bonds secured thereby in a single transaction;

K. Any security or membership issued by a corporation or association, organized exclusively for religious, educational, benevolent, fraternal, charitable, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any stockholder, shareholder, or individual members, and where no commission or remuneration is paid or given or is to be paid or given in connection with the disposition thereof;

L. The sale by the issuer itself, of any securities that are issued by a state or national bank, or building and loan association organized and operating under the laws of the State of Texas and subject to the supervision of the Commissioner of Banking of the State of Texas, or a federal loan and savings association;

M. The sale, by the issuer itself, of any securities that are issued by the United States, any political subdivision or agency thereof, any territory or insular possession of the United States, the State of Texas, any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, or by any county, city, municipal corporation, district or political subdivision of the State of Texas or any authorized agency of the State of Texas;

N. The sale and issuance of any securities issued by any farmers cooperative association organized under Chapter 8 of Title 93, Articles 5737-5764, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas as amended; and the sale of any securities issued by any farmers cooperative society organized under Chapter 5 of Title 46, Articles 2514-2525, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas. Provided, however, this exemption shall not be applicable to agents and salesmen of any farmers cooperative association or farmers cooperative society when the sale of such securities is made to non-members, or when the sale of such securities is made to members or non-members and a commission is paid or contracted to be paid to the said agents or salesmen;

O. The sale by a registered dealer of outstanding securities provided that:

1. Such securities form no part of an unsold allotment to or subscription by such dealer as a participant in the distribution of such securities by the issuer thereof; and

2. Securities of the same class, of the same issuer, are outstanding in the hands of the public; and

3. Such securities are offered for sale, in good faith, at prices reasonably related to the current market price of such securities at the time of such sale; and

4. No part of the proceeds of such sale are paid directly or indirectly to the issuer of such securities; and

5. Such sale is not directly or indirectly for the purposes of providing or furthering any scheme to violate or evade any provision of this Act; and

6. The right to sell or resell such securities has not been enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction in this state by proceedings instituted by an officer or agency of this state charged with enforcement of this Act; and

7. The right to sell such securities has not been revoked or suspended by the commissioner under any of the provisions of this Act, or, if so, revocation or suspension is not in force and effect; and

8. At the time of such sale, the issuer of such securities shall be a going concern actually engaged in business and shall then be neither in an organization stage nor in receivership or bankruptcy; and

9. Such securities or other securities of the issuer of the same class have been registered by qualification, notification or coordination under Section 7 of this Act; or at the time of such sale at least the following information about the issuer shall appear in a recognized securities manual or in a statement, in form and extent acceptable to the commissioner, filed with the commissioner by the issuer or by a registered dealer:

a. A statement of the issuer's principal business;

b. A balance sheet as of a date within eighteen (18) months of the date of such sale; and

c. Profit and loss statements and a record of the dividends paid, if any, for a period of not less than three (3) years prior to the date of such balance sheet or for the period of existence of the issuer, if such period of existence is less than three (3) years.

The term “recognized securities manual” shall include the manuals published by Moody's Investment Service, Standard & Poor's Corporation, Best's Life Insurance Reports, and such other nationally distributed manuals of securities as may be approved for use hereunder by the commissioner.

The commissioner may issue a stop order or by order prohibit, revoke or suspend the exemption under this Subsection O with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon any purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act. Notice of any court injunction enjoining the sale, or resale, of any such security, or of an order revoking or suspending the exemption under this subdivision with respect to any security, shall be delivered or shall be mailed by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested, to any dealers believed to be selling, or offering for sale, securities of the type referred to in the notice; and the prohibitions of (6) and (7) above of this Subsection O shall be inapplicable to any dealer until he has received actual notice from the commissioner of such revocation or suspension.

Except for the manuals published by Moody's Investment Service, Standard & Poor's Corporation, and Best's Life Insurance Reports, the commissioner may for cause shown revoke or suspend the recognition hereunder of any manuals previously approved by the commissioner under this Subsection but no such action may be taken by the commissioner unless upon notice and opportunity for hearing as provided by Section 24 of this Act. Any interested party aggrieved by any decision of the commissioner pursuant to such hearing may appeal to the district court of Travis County, Texas, in the manner provided by Section 27 of this Act. A judgment sustaining the commissioner in the action complained of shall not bar after one year an application by the plaintiff for approval of its manual or manuals hereunder, nor shall a judgment in favor of the plaintiff prevent the commissioner from thereafter revoking such recognition for any proper cause which may thereafter accrue or be discovered.

P. The execution by a dealer of an unsolicited order for the purchase of securities, where the initial offering of such securities has been completed and provided that the dealer acts solely as an agent for the purchaser, has no direct or indirect interest in the sale or distribution of the security ordered, and receives no commission, profit, or other compensation from any source other than the purchaser;

Q. The sales of interests in and under oil, gas or mining leases, fees or titles, or contracts relating thereto, where (1) the total number of sales by any one owner of interests, whether whole, fractional, segregated or undivided in any single oil, gas or mineral lease, fee or title, or contract relating thereto, shall not exceed thirty-five (35) within a period of twelve (12) consecutive months and (2) no use is made of advertisement or public solicitation; provided, however, if such sale or sales are made by an agent for such owner or owners, such agent shall be licensed pursuant to this Act. No oil, gas or mineral unitization or pooling agreement shall be deemed a sale under this Act.

R. The sale by the issuer itself, or by a subsidiary of such issuer, of any securities which would be exempt if sold by a registered dealer under Section 6 (other than Subsection 6-E) of this Act.

S. The sale by or through a registered dealer of any option if at the time of the sale of the option

(1) the performance of the terms of the option is guaranteed by any broker-dealer registered under the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which guaranty and broker-dealer are in compliance with such requirements or regulations as may be approved or adopted by the board;

(2) the option is not sold by or for the benefit of the insurer of the security which may be purchased or sold upon exercise of the option;

(3) the security which may be purchased or sold upon exercise of the option is either (a) exempted under Subsection F of Section 6 of this Act or (b) quoted on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation system and meets the requirements of Paragraphs (1), (6), (7), and (8) of Subsection O of Section 5 of this Act; and

(4) such sale is not directly or indirectly for the purposes of providing or furthering any scheme to violate or evade any provisions of this Act.

For purposes of this subsection the term “option” shall mean and include any put, call, straddle, or other option or privilege of buying or selling a specified number of securities at a specified price from or to another person, without being bound to do so, on or prior to a specified date, but such term shall not include any option or privilege which by its terms may terminate prior to such specified date upon the occurrence of a specified event.

1 15 U.S.C.A. § 80a-1 et seq.

Art. 581-25-1. Receiverships of Persons or Assets of Persons Acting as Dealers

A. Whenever it shall appear to the commissioner, either upon complaint or otherwise, that:

(1) any person or company, a substantial portion of whose business consists of acting as a dealer (as defined in Subsection C of Section 4 of this Act), whether or not duly registered by the commissioner as in this Act provided, shall have engaged in any act, transaction, practice, or course of business declared by Section 32 of this Act to be a fraudulent practice;

(2) such person or company shall have acted as a dealer in connection with such fraudulent practice; and

(3) the appointment of a receiver for such person or company, or the assets of such person or company, is necessary in order to conserve and protect the assets of such person or company for the benefit of customers, security holders, and other actual and potential claimants of such person or company the commissioner may request the attorney general to bring an action for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company.

B. Upon request by the commissioner pursuant to Subsection A of this Section 25-1, and if it appears to the attorney general that the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25-1 exist with respect to any person or company, the attorney general may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the State of Texas for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company. The facts set forth in the petition for such relief shall be verified by the commissioner upon information and belief. Such action may be brought in a district court of any county wherein the fraudulent practice complained of has been committed in whole or part, or of any county wherein any defendant with respect to whom appointment of a receiver is sought has its principal place of business, and such district court shall have jurisdiction and venue of such action; this provision shall be superior to any other provision of law fixing jurisdiction or venue with regard to suits for receivership. In any such action the attorney general may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoenas requiring the forthwith appearance of any defendant and his employees, salesmen, or agents and the production of documents, books, and records as may appear necessary for any hearing, to testify and give evidence concerning matters relevant to the appointment of a receiver.

C. In any action brought by the attorney general pursuant to Subsection B of this Section 25-1, the court, upon a proper showing by the attorney general of the existence of the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25-1 with respect to any person or company, may appoint a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company. If such receiver is appointed without notice to and opportunity to be heard for such person or company, such person or company shall be entitled to apply in writing to the court for an order dissolving the receivership, and, if such application is made within 30 days after service upon such person or company of the court's order making such appointment, shall be entitled to a hearing thereon upon 10 days written notice to the attorney general.

D. No person shall be appointed a receiver pursuant to this Section 25-1 unless such person be found by the court, after hearing the views of the attorney general, the commissioner, and, if deemed by the court to be practicable, the person or company against whom such relief is sought, to be qualified to discharge the duties of receiver giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case. No bond for receivership shall be required of the commissioner or attorney general in any proceeding under this Section 25-1 but the court shall require a bond of any receiver appointed hereunder, conditioned upon faithful discharge of the receiver's duties, in an amount found by the court to be sufficient giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case.

E. The remedy of receivership provided by this Section 25-1 shall be in addition to any and all other remedies afforded the commissioner or the attorney general by other provisions of statutory or decisional law of this state, including, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, any such provision authorizing receiverships.

Art. 581-28-1. Adoption of Rules and Regulations
A. For purposes of this Section 28-1, the term "rule and regulation" shall mean any statement by the board of general and future applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy or describes the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of the board. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule or regulation, but does not include statements concerning only the internal management of the board not affecting private rights or procedures or forms or orders adopted or made by the board or the commissioner pursuant to other provisions of this Act.

B. The board may, from time to time, in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, make or adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out and implement the provisions of this Act, including rules and regulations governing registration statements, applications, notices, and reports, and defining any terms, whether or not used in this Act, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act. For the purpose of adoption of rules and regulations, the board may classify securities, persons, and matters within its jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. The board may, in its discretion, waive any requirement of any rule or regulation in situations where, in its opinion, such requirement is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

C. No rule or regulation may be made or adopted unless the board finds, after notice and opportunity for comment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act.

D. The board may, by rule or regulation adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1, delegate to the commissioner or the deputy commissioner such of the authority granted to the board under this Section 28-1 to hold hearings for adoption of rules and regulations and to make or adopt rules and regulations, or to waive the requirements thereof, as it may, from time to time, deem appropriate. All rules and regulations made or adopted by the commissioner or the deputy commissioner pursuant to such delegated authority shall be made or adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1.

E. No provision of this Act imposing any liability or penalty applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule or regulation of the board, notwithstanding that the rule or regulation may later be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

F. In exercising the power granted by this Section 28-1 to make or adopt rules and regulations, the board shall be bound by and shall follow the provisions of any administrative procedure act or other like act of general applicability to state boards, commissions, or departments having statewide juris-

Section 28-1 with respect to such matters.

G. A notice of any proposed rule or regulation shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and shall set forth the full text of any proposed rule or regulation or a summary thereof indicating the place where copies of the full text of such proposed rule or regulation may be obtained, the date on which the board intends its action to be effective, the place or places to which any person may mail or at which any person may deposit written data, views or arguments relating to the proposed action and the final date by which such data, views or arguments must be received for consideration by the board, which date shall not be earlier than 30 days from the date on which notice was first published in accordance with this Section 28-1.

H. The board, at its discretion, may call a hearing to take public testimony concerning a proposed rule or regulation. If the board calls a hearing, a notice setting forth the time, place, and nature of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County at least 20 days prior to the hearing date. All hearings shall be public.

I. After consideration of all relevant matters presented to the board, the board may make any modifications to the proposed rule or regulation that it shall find necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act and the rule or regulation as originally promulgated. The board may then promulgate the rule or regulation, as modified, provided that it shall not be effective until at least 45 days after the date the notice of proposed action was first published pursuant to Subsection G of this Section 28-1. Notice of the adoption of any proposed rule or regulation shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and shall set forth the full text of the rule or regulation, as adopted, or a summary thereof indicating the place where copies of the full text of the rule or regulation may be obtained.

J. At the time of publication of any notice published pursuant to Subsections G, H, or I of this Section 28-1, the board shall mail a copy of such notice to each person who has requested in writing that copies of such notices be mailed to him and who has paid to the board the fee, if any, prescribed by the board therefor. The failure of the board to mail a copy of any notice to any person or persons or the failure of any person or persons to receive any such copy shall not affect the validity of any rule or regulation adopted by the board pursuant to this Section 28-1 or of any proceedings in connection therewith or pursuant thereto.

K. The board shall maintain a copy of all rules and regulations in effect, for public inspection, at the principal office of the board.

L. The validity of any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to the power granted by Subsection B of this Section 28-1 may be determined in any proceeding brought pursuant to any other section of this Act to which the board or the commissioner is a party; otherwise, the validity of any such rule or regulation may be determined only in an action for declaratory judgment in the District Court of Travis County, and not elsewhere, and then only if it is alleged that the rule or regulation, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or threatens to interfere with or impair the legal rights or privileges of the plaintiff. The board shall be made a party to any such declaratory judgment action. A declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the plaintiff has requested the board to pass upon the validity or applicability of the rule or regulation in question.

Art. 581-34. Actions for Commission; Allegations and Proof of Compliance

No person or company shall bring or maintain any action in the courts of this state for collection of a commission or compensation for services rendered in the sale or purchase of securities, as that term is herein defined, without alleging and proving that such person or company was duly licensed under the provisions hereof and the securities so sold were duly registered under the provisions hereof at the time the alleged cause of action arose; provided, however, that this section or provision of this Act shall not apply (1) to any transaction exempted by Section 5 of this Act, nor (2) to the sale or purchase of any security exempted by Section 6 of this Act.

CHAPTER ONE. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 606a. State Telecommunications Consolidation Act of 1975

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the State Telecommunications Consolidation Act of 1975.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) “Telecommunications services” as used in this Act pertains to intercity communications facilities or services, provided that any dedicated circuits included as part of the consolidated system are considered to begin and end at the main connecting frame. “Telecommunications services” does not include single agency point-to-point radio systems or facilities or services of criminal justice information communication systems.

(2) “Consolidated telecommunications systems” is the network of telecommunications services serving the government of the State of Texas.

(3) “State agency” or “agency” means:

(A) any department, commission, board, office, or other agency that:

(i) is in the executive branch of state government;

(ii) has authority that is not limited to a geographical portion of the state; and

(iii) was created by the constitution or a statute of this state; or

(B) a university system or an institution of higher education as defined in Section 61.003, Texas Education Code, as amended, other than a public junior college or community college.

System of Telecommunications Services

Sec. 3. (a) The State Board of Control shall plan, establish, and manage the operation of a system of telecommunications services for all state agencies. Each agency shall identify its particular telecommunications services requirements and the site at which the service shall be provided.

(b) The board shall fulfill the telecommunication requirements of each state agency to the extent possible and to the extent that funds are appropriated or available for this purpose.

(c) The board may negotiate rates and execute contracts with telecommunication service utilities for services, lease transmission facilities on a competitive bid basis if possible, and develop, establish, and maintain carrier systems necessary to the operation of the telecommunications system established under this Act.

(d) All contracts with telecommunications carriers shall contain the provision that the State Board of Control or any participating agency may obtain any data relating to the costs to the state of parallel tolls.

Policies and Guidelines

Sec. 4. (a) In order to insure efficient utilization of telecommunication systems at minimum cost to the state, the board shall promulgate and disseminate to all agencies appropriate policies, guidelines, operating procedures, and telephone directories.

(b) Each agency shall comply with the policies, guidelines, and operating procedures promulgated by the board. The board, with the advice of the State Auditor, shall maintain records relating to the consolidated telecommunications system as necessary to enable the board to analyze the cost effectiveness of the system to the state agencies, and shall advise the legislature at each session as to the cost effectiveness of the system. If, in the opinion of the board, the total cost of the system reaches a level which would justify total state ownership and operation of the system, the board shall recommend to the legislature the implementation of such action.

Balancing of Technological Advancements and Existing Facilities

Sec. 5. In the planning, design, implementation, and operation of the telecommunication systems and facilities, the board shall maintain an appropriate balance between the adoption of technological advancements and the efficient utilization of existing facilities and services in order to avoid misapplication of state funds and degradation or loss of the integrity of existing systems and facilities.
Art. 606a

Facilities and Services to be Integrated or Shared

Sec. 6. Telecommunication facilities and services, to the extent feasible and desirable, shall be provided on an integrated or shared basis, or both, to avoid waste of state funds and manpower.

Payment for Services and Facilities

Sec. 7. (a) The board shall develop a system of billings and charges for services provided in operating and administering the consolidated telecommunication system, which allocates the total state cost to each entity serviced based on proportionate usage.

(b) The comptroller of public accounts shall establish in the State Treasury a revolving account for the administration of this Act. The account shall be used as a depository for funds received from entities served and as a source of funds to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire services, supplies, and equipment, and to pay salaries, wages, and other costs directly attributable to the provisions and operations of the system.

(c) In order to provide an adequate cash flow as may be necessary for purposes of this Act, using state agencies and other entities, upon proper notification, shall make monthly payments into the telecommunication revolving fund account from appropriated or other available funds. The legislature, in its discretion, may appropriate funds for the operation of the system directly to the board. In that case the revolving fund shall be used to receive funds due from local government entities and other agencies to the extent that their funds are not subject to legislative appropriation.

Participation by Local Governments, et cetera

Sec. 8. The board may contract with each house of the legislature, legislative agencies, counties, cities, districts, and other political subdivisions and agencies not within the definition of "state agency," for utilization of the state telecommunication system.

Designated Agent

Sec. 9. The board is designated as the agency of this state responsible for obtaining telecommunication services.

CHAPTER THREE. PURCHASING DIVISION

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 12]

Products of Mentally Retarded or Physically Handicapped Persons

Sec. 13. The following manufactured products, if they meet the state specifications as to quantity, quality, and price, shall have preference in purchases made of those types of items by the Board:

1. Articles of workshops, organizations, or corporations whose primary purpose is training and employing mentally retarded persons or physically handicapped persons.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 13A]

Not Applicable to Blind-made Goods or Services

[Text of Sec. 13B as added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2393, ch. 734, § 12]

Sec. 13B. The provisions of this Act are not applicable to state purchases of blind-made goods or services when the blind-made goods or services are offered for sale to state agencies and departments as a result of efforts made by the Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-made Products and Services acting in accordance with legislation applicable to the committee.

1 [See art. 664-6.]

[Text of Sec. 13B as added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2393, ch. 734, § 18]

Sec. 13B. The provisions of this Act are not applicable to state purchases of blind-made goods or services when such blind-made goods or services are offered for sale to state agencies and departments, or agencies and departments of political subdivisions, as a result of efforts made by the Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-Made Goods and Services acting in accordance with legislation applicable to the committee.

1 [Article 664-5.]

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 14 to 16]

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1927, ch. 626, §§ 11 and 12, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2393, ch. 734, §§ 17 and 18, eff. June 21, 1975.]

Art. 664-5. Pilot Program for Purchase of Blind-Made Products and Services

[For similar provisions, enacted by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1925, ch. 626, see article 664-6.]

Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) The purpose of this article is to further the State of Texas' policy of encouraging and assisting handicapped citizens to achieve maximum personal independence by engaging in useful and productive activities.

(b) This article is additionally based on legislative findings that:
(1) the program herein established will result in job opportunities needed by multiply handicapped blind persons who, unless provided with such employment opportunities, have no practical alternative other than to become lifetime, nonproductive residents of state institutions; and

(2) the immense savings in costs of permanent institutionalization of such multiply handicapped blind persons will greatly exceed the nominal costs of the program hereby established.

c) The further purpose of this article is to research, demonstrate, and develop approaches through which the state's purchase of blind-made goods and services may, if shown to be sound and effective in meeting the needs of severely handicapped individuals, be generally extended to disability groups other than the blind.

Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-Made Products and Services

Sec. 2. There is hereby established a committee to be known as the Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-Made Products and Services (hereinafter referred to as the committee) to be composed of a private citizen conversant with the problems incidental to the employment of the blind, a representative of a sheltered workshop for the blind organized under the laws of the State of Texas, a representative of a sheltered workshop organized under the laws of the State of Texas for the purpose of serving disability groups other than the blind, a representative of a volunteer organization operated primarily for the purpose of serving a disability group or groups other than the blind, and a representative of each of the following agencies or departments of the government of the State of Texas: the State Board of Control, the department of any state-supported institution of higher education offering an advanced degree in vocational rehabilitation counseling, the department of the Central Education Agency concerned with vocational education or with special education, the State Commission for the Blind, and the State Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The members of the committee shall be appointed by the administrator of the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped for terms of two years expiring on January 31 of odd-numbered years, shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in the performance of services performed in connection with the work of the committee, and shall designate one of their number to be chairman. A member of the committee who is unable personally to attend a scheduled meeting of the committee may designate a person from his agency or department to represent him at the meeting.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the committee to determine the fair market price of all suitable products and services manufactured by the blind and offered for sale to the various agencies and departments of the government of the State of Texas and of the political subdivisions of the state by any nonprofit agency for the blind organized under the laws of the State of Texas and recognized by the State Commission for the Blind as capable of contributing to the purposes of this article, to revise such prices from time to time in accordance with changing market conditions, and to make such rules and regulations regarding specifications, time of delivery, authorization of a central nonprofit agency to facilitate the distribution of orders among agencies for the blind, and other relevant matters of procedure as shall be necessary to carry out the purposes of this article. The needs of various state agencies shall be processed by requisition through the State Board of Control and in accordance with those rules and regulations to be established by the State Board of Control.

Procurement at Determined Price

Sec. 4. All suitable products or services hereinafter procured in accordance with applicable state specifications by or for any state department or agency, including agencies and departments of political subdivisions, shall be procured from such nonprofit agencies for the blind in all cases where such products or services are available within the period specified at the price determined by the committee to be the fair market price for the products or services so procured, unless otherwise specifically provided by the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Technical Consultation From Governor's Budget Office and Legislative Budget Board

Sec. 5. In carrying out the duties specified in this article, the committee shall have available to it technical consultation by representatives of the governor's budget office and the Legislative Budget Board on matters relating to the cost-benefit consequences of this program for the government of the State of Texas, and such representatives of the governor's budget office and the Legislative Budget Board shall have complete access to all records pertinent to the program herein established and shall make such reports to the legislature as they might from time to time deem indicated.

Coordination with Texas Department of Corrections

Sec. 6. It is the intent of the legislature that there be close cooperation between the committee and the Texas Department of Corrections in furthering the purposes of this article and in contributing to the economy of state government. To these ends, the committee and the Texas Department of Corrections are authorized to enter into such contractual agreements, cooperative working relationships, or other arrangements as might be determined necessary for effective coordination and the efficient realization of the objectives of the committee and the Texas Department of Corrections.

Correlation with Related Federal Programs

Sec. 7. The committee is expressly authorized to adopt, insofar as applicable, procedures, practices, and standards utilized by any presently existing or subsequently authorized federal program of like effect to the state program herein established.

Feasibility Study; Reports; and Recommendations

Sec. 8. As part of its activities under this article, the committee shall study the feasibility of extending the program herein established to severely handicapped individuals whose disabilities are not of a visual nature. The study shall include an assessment of the potential market of the State of Texas and its political subdivisions for goods and services manufactured by severely handicapped individuals in nonprofit, sheltered workshop facilities throughout Texas, estimated number of individuals who might benefit from an extension of the program and who are not being effectively served through other available state-supported programs of education and special services for the handicapped, consideration of the manufacturing capabilities of sheltered workshops throughout the state, and consideration of additional costs, if any, or additional savings, if any, accruing to the state’s general revenue fund in the event of the program’s expansion. The committee shall report its findings to the governor and the legislature, together with the committee’s specific recommendations as to any indicated statutory changes and timetables for the implementation and administration of an expansion of the program, if the committee recommends expansion of the program in the future.

Research

Sec. 9. In order to conduct the feasibility study authorized in Section 8 of this article, the committee and cooperating sheltered workshops are authorized to utilize the labor and services of individuals with various types of disabilities of a nonvisual nature in manufacturing goods and services for the State of Texas and its political subdivisions.

Rules

Sec. 10. The Governor’s Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped is authorized, following consultation with and recommendation by the committee, to promulgate such rules as might be necessary for the effective implementation and administration of this article.

[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2390, ch. 734, § 16, eff. June 21, 1975.]

Art. 664-6. Purchase of Blind-Made Goods and Services by State Agencies, Departments and Institutions

[For similar provisions, enacted by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2390, ch. 734, § 16, see article 664-5]

Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) The purpose of this Act is to further the State of Texas’ policy of encouraging and assisting handicapped citizens to achieve maximum personal independence by engaging in useful and productive activities.

(b) This Act is based on legislative findings that:

(1) the program established by this Act will result in job opportunities needed by multiple-handicapped blind persons who, unless provided with employment opportunities, have no practical alternative other than to become lifetime, nonproductive residents of state institutions; and

(2) the immense savings in costs of permanent institutionalization of multiple-handicapped blind persons will greatly exceed the nominal costs of the program.

Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-Made Products and Services

Sec. 2. The Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-made Products and Services is created. In this Act the Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-made Products and Services is referred to as the “committee.” The committee is composed of a private citizen conversant with the problems incident to the employment of the blind, a representative of a sheltered workshop for the blind organized under the laws of this state, a representative of a sheltered workshop organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of serving disability groups other than the blind, a representative of a volunteer organization operated primarily to serve a disability group other than the blind, and a representative of each of the following agencies or departments of this state: the State Board of Control, the department of a state-supported institution of higher education offering an advanced degree in vocational rehabilitation counseling, the department of the Central Education Agency concerned with vocational education or with special education, the State Commission for the Blind, and the state Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The members of the committee shall be appointed by the governor for terms of two years expiring on January 31 of odd-numbered years, shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in the performance of services in connection with the work of the committee, and shall designate one of their number to be chairman.
A member of the committee who is unable personally to attend a scheduled meeting of the committee may designate a person from his agency or department to represent him at the meeting.

Fair Market Price; Determination; Revision; Distribution of Orders

Sec. 3. The committee shall determine the fair market price of all suitable products and services manufactured by the blind and offered for sale to the various agencies and departments of the State of Texas by a nonprofit agency for the blind organized under the laws of this state and recognized by the State Commission for the Blind as capable of contributing to the purposes of this Act, may revise the prices in accordance with changing market conditions, and may make the rules and regulations regarding specifications, time of delivery, authorization of a central nonprofit agency to facilitate the distribution of orders among agencies for the blind, and other relevant matters of procedure necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act. The needs of the various state agencies shall be processed by requisition through the State Board of Control and in accordance with those rules and regulations to be established by the State Board of Control.

Procurement at Determined Price

Sec. 4. All suitable products or services procured by or for a state department or agency shall be procured from nonprofit agencies for the blind if the products or services are available within the period specified and at the price determined by the committee to be the fair market price for the products or services unless otherwise specifically provided by the Constitution of the State of Texas. However, in no event, shall the price paid be in excess of the cost of comparable products or services available from other sources.

Technical Consultation From Governor's Budget Office and Legislative Budget Board

Sec. 5. The governor's budget office and the Legislative Budget Board shall advise the committee on matters relating to the cost-benefit consequences of this program for the government of the State of Texas. The committee shall provide the governor's budget office and the Legislative Budget Board complete access to all records pertinent to the program established by this Act.

Coordination with Texas Department of Corrections

Sec. 6. The committee shall cooperate with the Texas Department of Corrections in furthering the purposes of this Act and in contributing to the economy of state government. The committee and the Texas Department of Corrections may enter into the contractual agreements, cooperative working relationships, or other arrangements necessary for effective coordination of the objectives of the committee and the Texas Department of Corrections.

Correlation with Related Federal Programs

Sec. 7. The committee may adopt procedures, practices, and standards utilized by any agency or program of the United States.

Feasibility Study; Reports; Recommendations

Sec. 8. (a) The committee shall study the feasibility of extending the program established by this Act to handicapped persons whose disabilities are not visual.

(b) The study shall include:

1. an assessment of the state as a potential market for goods and services manufactured by severely handicapped persons in nonprofit, sheltered workshop facilities in this state;
2. the estimated number of persons who would benefit from an extension of the program and who are not being effectively served through other available state-supported programs;
3. consideration of the manufacturing capabilities of sheltered workshops in this state; and
4. consideration of additional costs or savings that would accrue to the state if the program is expanded.

(c) The committee shall report to the governor and to the presiding officer of each house of the legislature its findings and specific recommendations, if any, for statutory changes and procedures for expansion of the program, if the committee recommends expansion.

Research

Sec. 9. The committee and cooperating sheltered workshops may utilize the labor and services of individuals with nonvisual disabilities in manufacturing goods and services for the state.

Rules

Sec. 10. The governor may, after consulting with the committee, promulgate the rules necessary for the effective implementation and administration of this Act.

Article

678i. Energy Conservation in Buildings Act [NEW].

Art. 666. Salvage and Surplus Act of 1957

[See Compact Edition, Volume 1 for text of 1 to 6]

Transfer or Sale of Surplus and Salvage Equipment or Material

Sec. 6a. (a) When a state agency reports to the Board of Control that it has surplus or salvage equipment or material, the Board shall inform other state agencies of the existence, kind, number, location and condition of the equipment or material and it shall maintain a mailing list, renewable annually, of county, municipal, school district, or junior college district purchasing agents or other officers performing similar functions who have asked for information on such surplus or salvage equipment or material as the State may have available.

(b) The county, municipal, school district, or junior college district purchasing agent or other officer shall notify the Board of Control within 30 days from the date of the notice of the Board of Control if he desires to negotiate for surplus or salvage equipment or material.

(c) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice of the Board of Control, and if the Board of Control determines that the equipment or material will not satisfy a state need, the Board may authorize the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material or equipment to any county, municipality, school district, or junior college district which has expressed a desire to negotiate.

(d) The Board of Control shall adopt rules and regulations to govern occasions when more than one county, municipality, school district, or junior college district, or any combination thereof expresses a desire to negotiate for the same surplus or salvage material or equipment. The Board may adopt other necessary rules and regulations to govern the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material and equipment to counties, municipalities, school districts, and junior college districts.

(e) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice from the Board of Control, and no county, municipality, school district, or junior college district has expressed a desire to negotiate, or if one or more counties, municipalities, school districts, or junior college districts, or any combination thereof has expressed a desire to negotiate but is unable to negotiate a sale or transfer of the equipment or material within 40 days from the date of the notice from the Board of Control, the Board may offer the equipment or material to the organization known as the Texas Partners of the Alliance, a registered agency with the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, with the approval of the Partners of the Alliance office of the Agency for International Development. The equipment or material shall be offered at its fair market value as determined by mutual agreement between the Board of Control and the Texas Partners of the Alliance.

spaces requested for use by members and administrative staff of the Legislature, in the areas described in Subsection (a) of this section.

(c) The State Board of Control shall assign and mark reserved parking spaces on the Capitol driveways for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Secretary of State for their unrestricted use.

(d) The State Board of Control may assign parking spaces to elected state officials and appointed heads of state agencies who occupy space in state buildings located within the bounds set forth in Section 1 of this Act.

(e) If spaces are available, the State Board of Control may assign parking spaces to handicapped state employees and other state employees of state agencies occupying space in state buildings located in the area described in Section 1 of this Act.

(f) The State Board of Control may designate and mark parking spaces for state-owned vehicles and visitor and business parking within the bounds set forth in Section 1 of this Act.

(g) The State Board of Control may establish and collect a reasonable monthly parking charge for each assigned parking space within the bounds set forth in Section 1 of this Act, except those parking spaces assigned to the respective houses of the Legislature on the Capitol driveways.

(h) A person who parks an unauthorized vehicle in a space assigned under the provisions of this Act commits an offense.

(i) The provisions of Section 3 of this Act do not apply to the property or the parking facility under the management and control of the Texas Employment Commission and located within the bounds set forth in Section 1 of this Act.

Marking and Designation of Parking Spaces

Sec. 4. The State Board of Control is hereby authorized to request the State Highway Department to assist it in the marking and/or designation of such parking spaces as the Board of Control shall deem necessary and to maintain the painting of lines, curb markings and furnish such directional or informational signs as the Board of Control shall deem necessary in the area described in Section 1 of this Act. The Texas Department of Public Safety shall provide advice and assistance to the Board of Control when requested and shall at all times have at least one commissioned officer assigned to duty in the Capitol area.

Security Officers; Designation as Peace Officers; Powers and Duties; Bond

Sec. 7. The State Board of Control is authorized to employ security officers for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and may commission such security officers as it deems necessary as peace officers. When so commissioned, said officers are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities of peace officers; provided, that such peace officers shall take and file the oath required of peace officers and shall execute and file with the State Board of Control a good and sufficient bond in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to the Governor of this state and his successors in office with two or more good and sufficient sureties conditioned that he will fairly and faithfully perform all of the duties as may be required of him by law, and that he will fairly and impartially enforce the law of this state and that he will pay over any and all monies, or turn over any and all property, to the proper person legally entitled to the same, that may come into his possession by virtue of such office. Said bond shall not be void for the first recovery but may be sued on from time to time in the name of any person injured until the whole amount thereof is recovered. It shall be unlawful and constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in this Act for any person or persons to impersonate any of said officers.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7a]

Powers and Duties Exercised on any State Property; Reimbursement of Costs

Sec. 8. The powers and duties conferred on the State Board of Control by this Act may, at the request of a state agency, be exercised on any property owned or leased by the state. The cost of any service performed by the State Board of Control under this section, for a requesting agency, when performed by the Board outside the areas described in Section 1 of this Act, shall be reimbursed to the State Board of Control by this Act may, at the request of a state agency, be exercised on any property owned or leased by the state. The cost of any service performed by the State Board of Control under this section, for a requesting agency, when performed by the Board outside the areas described in Section 1 of this Act, shall be reimbursed to the Board by that agency pursuant to a contract executed in accordance with The Interagency Cooperation Act (Article 4419(32), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Art. 678i. Energy Conservation in Buildings Act

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Energy Conservation in Buildings Act.

Purpose
Sec. 2. The purpose of this Act is to provide for the development of improved design, lighting, insulation, and architectural standards to promote efficient energy use in state buildings including buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, to reduce wasteful or uneconomic consumption of energy by balancing the cost of energy procurement against the cost of energy conserving building practices to achieve the minimum lifetime cost for all new state buildings, including new buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, measured by combined construction and operating costs, and to provide information to the public relating to energy saving uses, designs, construction methods, and techniques for all new and existing buildings.

Adoption and Promulgation of Standards for State Buildings
Sec. 3. (a) Within one year after the effective date of this Act, the State Building Commission, after consultation with the Governor's Energy Advisory Council, shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards that all new state buildings, including new buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, are required to meet. These standards shall include both performance and procedural standards for maximum energy conservation allowed by the latest and most effective technology consistent with the requirements of public health and safety regulations and economic considerations.

(b) The standards shall be promulgated in terms of energy consumption allotments and shall take into consideration the various classes of building uses. Performance standards shall allow for design flexibility since only the total allotment of energy is prescribed.

(c) Procedural standards shall be directed toward specific design and building practices that produce good thermal resistance and low air leakage and toward requiring practices in the design of mechanical and electrical systems which conserve energy. The procedural standards shall address, when applicable, the following items:

1. insulation,
2. lighting, according to the lighting necessary for the tasks for which each area is intended to be used,
3. ventilation,
4. the potential use of new systems for saving energy in ventilation, climate control, and other areas, and
5. any other item which the State Building Commission deems appropriate.

Design Standards by Other Entities
Sec. 4. (a) The boards of regents and boards or governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions exempted under the State Building Construction Administration Act (Article 678, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards as provided in Section 3 of this Act for all new buildings under their authority. The standards shall be consistent with those promulgated by the State Building Commission for other state buildings and be prepared in cooperation and consultation with the State Building Commission and the Governor's Energy Advisory Council.

(b) The State Building Commission shall assist the boards and governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section with the preparation of energy conservation standards by providing technical assistance and advice.

Technical Assistance Program
Sec. 5. The State Building Commission, after consultation with the Governor's Energy Advisory Council and the Texas Department of Community Affairs, shall prepare model energy conservation building codes and make them available for use by cities in enacting or amending their ordinances.

Staff
Sec. 6. The State Building Commission may employ staff necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Energy Conservation Manual
Sec. 7. (a) Within 180 days after the effective date of this Act, the State Building Commission shall produce and publish an energy conservation manual for potential use by designers, builders, and contractors of residential and nonresidential buildings. The manual shall be furnished on request at a reasonable price sufficient to cover the costs of printing and help defray research costs in establishing design standards. The manual shall contain the following:

(1) guidelines for energy conservation established by the State Building Commission;

(2) forms, charts, tables, and other data to assist designers and builders in meeting the guidelines;

(3) design suggestions for meeting or exceeding the guidelines; and

(4) any other information which the State Building Commission finds will assist persons to become familiar with the latest technologies that they might use in meeting the guidelines.

(b) The manual shall be updated periodically as significant new energy conservation information becomes available.

Art. 695a-2. Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children

Adoption of Compact

Sec. 1. The Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children is adopted by this state and entered into with all other jurisdictions joining therein in form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON THE PLACEMENT OF CHILDREN

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE AND POLICY

It is the purpose and policy of the party states to cooperate with each other in the interstate placement of children to the end that:

(a) Each child requiring placement shall receive the maximum opportunity to be placed in a suitable environment and with persons or institutions having appropriate qualifications and facilities to provide a necessary and desirable degree and type of care.

(b) The appropriate authorities in a state where a child is to be placed may have full opportunity to ascertain the circumstances of the proposed placement, thereby promoting full compliance with applicable requirements for the protection of the child.

(c) The proper authorities of the state from which the placement is made may obtain the most complete information on the basis on which to evaluate a projected placement before it is made.

(d) Appropriate jurisdictional arrangements for the care of children will be promoted.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

(a) "Child" means a person who, by reason of minority, is legally subject to parental, guardianship, or similar control.

(b) "Sending agency" means a party state, officer, or employee thereof; a subdivision of a party state, or officer or employee thereof; a person, corporation, association, charitable agency, or other entity which sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought any child to another party state.

(c) "Receiving state" means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

(d) "Placement" means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family free or boarding home or in a child-caring agency or institution but does not include any institution caring for the mentally ill, mentally defective, or epileptic or any institution primarily educational in character, and any hospital or other medical facility.
ARTICLE III. CONDITIONS FOR PLACEMENT

(a) No sending agency shall send, bring, or cause to be sent or brought into any other party state any child for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption unless the sending agency shall comply with each and every requirement set forth in this article and with the applicable laws of the receiving state governing the placement of children therein.

(b) Prior to sending, bringing, or causing any child to be sent or brought into a receiving state for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption, the sending agency shall furnish the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state written notice of the intention to send, bring, or place the child in the receiving state. The notice shall contain:

1. The name, date, and place of birth of the child;
2. The identity and address or addresses of the parents or legal guardian;
3. The name and address of the person, agency, or institution to or with which the sending agency proposes to send, bring, or place the child;
4. A full statement of the reasons for such proposed action and evidence of the authority pursuant to which the placement is proposed to be made.

(c) Any public officer or agency in a receiving state which is in receipt of a notice pursuant to Paragraph (b) of this article may request of the sending agency, or any other appropriate officer or agency of or in the sending agency's state, to be entitled to receive therefrom, such supporting or additional information as it may deem necessary under the circumstances to carry out the purpose and policy of this compact.

(d) The child shall not be sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought into the receiving state until the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state shall notify the sending agency, in writing, to the effect that the proposed placement does not appear to be contrary to the interests of the child.

ARTICLE IV. PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL PLACEMENT

The sending, bringing, or causing to be sent or brought into any receiving state of a child in violation of the terms of this compact shall constitute a violation of the laws respecting the placement of children of both the state in which the sending agency is located or from which it sends or brings the child and of the receiving state. Such violation may be punished or subjected to penalty in either jurisdiction in accordance with its laws. In addition to liability for any such punishment or penalty, any such violation shall constitute full and sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of any license, permit, or other legal authorization held by the sending agency which empowers or allows it to place or care for children.

ARTICLE V. RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

(a) The sending agency shall retain jurisdiction over the child sufficient to determine all matters in relation to the custody, supervision, care, treatment, and disposition of the child which it would have had if the child had remained in the sending agency's state, until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes self-supporting or is discharged with the concurrence of the appropriate authority in the receiving state. Such jurisdiction shall also include the power to effect or cause the return of the child or its transfer to another location and custody pursuant to law. The sending agency shall continue to have financial responsibility for support and maintenance of the child during the period of the placement. Nothing contained herein shall defeat a claim of jurisdiction by a receiving state sufficient to deal with an act of delinquency or crime committed therein.

(b) When the sending agency is a public agency, it may enter into an agreement with an authorized public or private agency in the receiving state providing for the performance of one or more services in respect of such case by the latter as agent for the sending agency.

(c) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in the receiving state from performing services or acting as agent in that state for a private charitable agency of the sending state; nor to prevent the agency in the receiving state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of the sending agency without relieving the responsibility set forth in Paragraph (a) hereof.

ARTICLE VI. INSTITUTIONAL CARE OF DELINQUENT CHILDREN

A child adjudicated delinquent may be placed in an institution in another party jurisdiction pursuant to this compact but no such placement shall be made unless the child is given a court hearing on notice to the parent or guardian with opportunity to be heard, prior to his being sent to such other party jurisdiction for institutional care and the court finds that:

1. Equivalent facilities for the child are not available in the sending agency's jurisdiction; and
2. Institutional care in the other jurisdiction is in the best interest of the child and will not produce undue hardship.

ARTICLE VII. COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR

The executive head of each jurisdiction party to this compact shall designate an officer who shall be general coordinator of activities under this compact in his jurisdiction and who, acting jointly with like officers of other party jurisdictions, shall have power to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE VIII. LIMITATIONS

This compact shall not apply to:

(a) the sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state by his parent, step-parent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, adult uncle or aunt, or his guardian and leaving the child with any such relative or nonagency guardian in the receiving state;

(b) any placement, sending, or bringing of a child into a receiving state pursuant to any other interstate compact to which both the state from which the child is sent or brought and the receiving state are party, or to any other agreement between said states which has the force of law.

ARTICLE IX. ENACTMENT AND WITHDRAWAL

This compact shall be open to joinder by any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and, with the consent of congress, the government of Canada or any province thereof. It shall become effective with respect to any such jurisdiction when such jurisdiction has enacted the same into law. Withdrawal from this compact shall be by the enactment of a statute repealing the same, but shall not take effect until two years after the effective date of such statute and until written notice of the withdrawal has been given by the withdrawing state to the governor of each other party jurisdiction. Withdrawal of a party state shall not affect the rights, duties, and obligations under this compact of any other party state or of the United States or the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Appropriate public authorities," with reference to this state, means the Commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare.

(2) "Appropriate authority in the receiving state," with reference to this state, means the Commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare.

(3) "Executive head," with reference to this state, means the governor.

(4) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare.

(5) "Compact" means the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children.

(6) "Department" means the State Department of Public Welfare.

Sec. 3. (a) Financial responsibility for a child placed as provided in the compact is determined, in the first instance, as provided in Article V of the compact. After partial or complete default of performance under the provisions of Article V assigning financial responsibility, the commissioner may bring suit under the provisions of Section 14.05, Family Code, and may file a complaint with the appropriate prosecuting attorney, claiming a violation of the provisions of Section 25.05, Penal Code.

(b) After default, if the commissioner determines that financial responsibility is unlikely to be assumed by the sending agency or the child's parents, he shall cause the child to be returned to the sending agency.

(c) After default, the department shall assume financial responsibility for the child until the responsibility is assumed as provided in Article V of the compact, until it is assumed by the child's parents, or until the child is safely returned to the sending agency.

Sec. 4. The commissioner may not approve the placement of a child in this state without the concurrence of the individuals with whom the child is proposed to be placed or the head of an institution with which the child is proposed to be placed. The commissioner may not approve the discharge of a child placed in a public institution in this state without the concurrence of the head of the institution.

Sec. 5. A juvenile court may place a delinquent child in an institution in another state as provided in
Art. 695a-2 BOARD OF CONTROL

Article VI of the compact. After placement in another state, the court retains jurisdiction of the child as provided in Article V of the compact.

Compact Administrator

Sec. 6. The governor shall appoint the commissioner as compact administrator.

Art. 695a-3. Child Care Licensing Act

Title

Sec. 1. (a) This Act may be cited as the Child Care Licensing Act.

Legislative Intent and Declaration of Purpose and Policy

(b) It is the legislative intent to protect the health, safety, and well-being of the children of the state who reside in child care facilities. Toward that end, it is the purpose of this Act to establish statewide minimum standards for the safety and protection of children in child care facilities, to insure maintenance of these standards, and to regulate such conditions in such facilities through a program of licensing. It shall be the policy of the state to insure protection of children under care in child care facilities, and to encourage and assist in the improvement of child care programs. It is the further legislative intent that the freedom of religion of all citizens shall be inviolate. Nothing in this Act shall give any governmental agency jurisdiction or authority to regulate, control, supervise, or in any way be involved in the form, manner, or content of any religious instruction or the curriculum of a school sponsored by a church or religious organization.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) “Department” means the State Department of Public Welfare.

(2) “Division” means the division established or designated by the State Department of Public Welfare to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(3) “Child care facility” means a facility providing care, training, education, custody, treatment, or supervision for a child who is not related by blood, marriage, or adoption to the owner or operator of the facility, for all or part of the 24-hour day, whether or not the facility is operated for profit, and whether or not the facility makes a charge for the service offered by it.

(4) “Child” means an individual under 18 years of age.

(5) “Person” includes an individual, a public or private agency, an association, or a corporation.

(6) “Child caring institution” means a child care facility which provides care for more than 12 children for 24 hours a day, including facilities known as children’s homes, halfway houses, residential treatment camps, emergency shelters, and training or correctional schools for children.

(7) “Foster group home” means a child care facility which provides care for 7 to 12 children for 24 hours a day.

(8) “Foster family home” means a child care facility which provides care for not more than 6 children for 24 hours a day.

(9) “Day care center” means a child care facility which provides care for more than 12 children under 14 years of age for less than 24 hours a day.

(10) “Group day care home” means a child care facility which provides care for 7 to 12 children under 14 years of age for less than 24 hours a day.

(11) “Registered family homes” means a child care facility which regularly provides care in the caretaker’s own residence for not more than 6 children under 14 years of age, excluding the caretaker’s own children, and which provides care after school hours for not more than 6 additional elementary school siblings of the other children given care, provided that the total number of children including the caretaker’s own does not exceed 12 at any given time.

(12) “Family day home” means a child care facility which provides care for not more than 6 children under 14 years of age for less than 24 hours a day not in the caretaker’s own residence nor in the residence of one or more of such children.

(13) “Agency home” means a private home providing care for not more than 6 children, which is used only by a licensed child placing agency, and which meets division standards.

(14) “Child placing agency” means a person other than the natural parents or guardian of the child who plans for the placement of or places a child in an institution, agency home, or adoptive home.

(15) “State of Texas” or “state” does not include political subdivisions of the state.

(16) The term “facilities” without the modifier “child care” includes child care facilities and child placing agencies.
Sec. 3. (a) The State Department of Public Welfare shall establish or designate a division within the department for the licensure and regulation of child care facilities and child placing agencies and the enforcement of the provisions of this Act and the regulations and standards adopted pursuant thereto and such other duties and responsibilities as the department may delegate or assign.

(b) The commissioner of the department shall appoint as director of the division an individual qualified in one of the following ways:

1. by meeting the qualifications required of a child care administrator by Chapter 231, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 695a–1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);
2. by holding a graduate degree in social science or law and having five years administrative experience in a field related to child care;
3. by having 10 years' experience in a field related to child care, at least five of which must be administrative.

(c) The department shall employ sufficient personnel and shall provide adequate training to the persons employed to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(d) The director may divide the state into regions for the purposes of administering this Act.

Required License

Sec. 4. (a) No person may operate a child care facility or child placing agency unless he holds a valid license issued by the division.

(b) This section does not apply to:
1. state-operated facilities;
2. agency homes;
3. facilities operated in connection with a church, shopping center, business, or establishment where children are attending church services, shopping, or engaging in other activities on or near the premises, which with respect to churches or other religious institutions shall include but not be limited to Sunday school, retreats, or weekly catechism or other schools or classes for religious instruction;
4. schools or classes for religious instruction conducted by churches during the summer months for not more than two weeks, known as vacation Bible schools;
5. youth camps licensed by the State Department of Health;
6. hospitals licensed by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation or the State Department of Health;
7. an educational facility accredited by the Central Education Agency or the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools that operate primarily for educational purposes in grades kindergarten and above;
8. an educational facility that operates solely for educational purposes in grades kindergarten through at least grade two and does not provide custodial care for more than one hour during the hours before or after the customary school day, and are members of an organization which promulgates, publishes, and requires compliance with the health, safety, fire, and sanitation standards at least equal to those required by state, municipal, and county health, safety, fire, and sanitation codes;
9. kindergarten or preschool educational programs operated as part of the public schools of this state or of private schools accredited by the Central Education Agency that offer educational programs through grade six and that do not provide custodial care during the hours before or after the customary school day;
10. registered family homes as defined in Section 2 of this Act.

(c) In the event that a child caring institution operates facilities that are noncontiguous, but of a near proximity and demonstrable singleness of operation (as determined by patterns of staffing, finance, administrative supervision, and programs) a single license may be issued to the institution noting the addresses and facilities appropriate.

Rules, Regulations, and Standards

Sec. 5. (a) The department shall promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(b) The department shall promulgate minimum standards for child care facilities covered by this Act which will:
1. promote the health, safety, and welfare of children attending any facility;
2. promote safe, comfortable, and healthy physical facilities for children;
3. insure adequate supervision of the children by capable, qualified, and healthy personnel;
4. insure adequate and healthy food service, where it should be offered;
5. prohibit racial discrimination by child care facilities; and
Art. 695a–3

BORDER OF CONTROL

822

(6) include procedures by which parents and guardians are given opportunity for consultation in formulation of the children's educational and therapeutic programs.

(c) In promulgating minimum standards for child care facilities, the department should take cognizance of the various categories of facilities, including facilities offering specialized care, and the various categories of children and their particular needs. Standards for child care institutions must require an intake study before a child is placed in an institution. The study may be conducted at a community mental health and mental retardation center.

(d) In promulgating minimum standards the department may take cognizance of, and may differentiate with respect to, the following child care facilities: child caring institutions, foster homes, day care centers, group day care homes, family day homes, registered family homes, and agency homes.

(e) The department shall promulgate minimum standards for child placing agencies.

(f) The department shall promulgate standard forms for applications and inspection reports.

(g) The department shall promulgate a standard procedure for receiving and recording complaints and a standard form for complaints.

(h) Before adoption of minimum standards, the division shall present the proposed standards to the State Advisory Committee on Child Care Facilities for its review and comment and shall send a copy of the proposed standards to each licensee covered by the proposed minimum standards at least 60 days prior to the effective date of the proposed standards in order to enable the persons to review the proposed standards and make written suggestions to the department and the council.

(i) A comprehensive review of all standards, rules, and regulations must be made at least every six years.

(j) The department shall not regulate or attempt to regulate or control the content or method of any instruction or the curriculum of a school sponsored by a church or religious organization.

(k) The department may in specific instances waive the compliance with a minimum standard on a determination that the economic impact is sufficiently great to make such compliance impractical.

Rules Relating to Immunization of Children

Sec. 6. (a) The department shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to immunization of children admitted to facilities.

(b) The rules shall require the immunization of each child at an appropriate age against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, rubella, and rubeola and a test for tuberculosis, and the immunization must be effective on the date of first entry into the facility; provided, however, a child may be provisionally admitted if he has begun the required immunizations and if he continues to receive the necessary immunizations as rapidly as is medically feasible.

(c) The State Department of Health shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to the provisional admission of children to facilities. The State Board of Health may modify or delete any of the immunizations listed in this section or may require immunization against additional diseases as a requirement for admission to facilities; but no form of immunization shall be required for a child's admission to a facility if the person applying for the child's admission submits either an affidavit signed by a doctor in which it is stated that, in the doctor's opinion, the immunization would be injurious to the health and well-being of the child or of any member of his family or household, or an affidavit signed by the parent or guardian of the child stating that the immunization conflicts with the tenets and practice of a recognized church or religious denomination of which the applicant is an adherent or member.

(d) Each facility shall keep an individual immunization record for each child admitted, and the records shall be open for inspection by the division at all reasonable times.

(e) The State Department of Health shall provide the required immunizations to children in areas where no local provision exists to provide these services.

Inspection

Sec. 7. (a) An authorized representative of the division may visit a child care facility or child placing agency during the hours of operation for purposes of investigation, inspection, and evaluation.

(b) The division shall inspect all facilities licensed or certified by the division at least once a year and may inspect other facilities as necessary. At least one of the yearly visits must be unannounced, and all may be unannounced.

(c) An investigation visit must be made if a complaint is received by the division. The division representative must notify the director or authorized representative of the director of the facility being investigated that a complaint is being investigated. The results of the investigation must be reported in writing to the director.

(d) The division may call on political subdivisions and governmental agencies for appropriate assistance within their authorized fields.

Consultation

Sec. 8. (a) The department shall offer consultation to potential applicants, applicants, licensees, and holders of certification in meeting and maintaining standards for licensing and certification and in achieving programs of excellence related to the care of children served.

(b) The department shall offer consultation to prospective and actual users of facilities.

Advisory Opinions and Declaratory Orders

Sec. 9. (a) The director of the division may give advisory opinions on compliance of planned facilities or planned changes in existing facilities with division rules, regulations, and minimum standards.

(b) If a written opinion signed by the director of the division and the division representative administering this Act in a division region is acted on by an applicant or licensee, it is binding upon the division as a declaratory order.

Records

Sec. 10. (a) All persons operating a licensed or certified child care facility or child placing agency shall maintain individual child development records, individual health records, statistical records, and complete financial records.

(b) All persons operating a licensed facility, other than a child care facility which provides care for less than 24 hours a day, or an agency home, shall have its books audited annually by a certified public accountant and include a copy of the accountant's statement of income and disbursements with each application for a license.

Issuance of License

Sec. 11. (a) A person desiring to operate a child care facility or child placing agency shall apply in writing to the division for a license.

(b) The division shall supply the applicant with the appropriate application forms and a copy of the appropriate minimum standards.

(c) On receipt of the application, the division shall conduct an investigation of the applicant and the plan of care for children.

(d) The division shall complete its investigation and render a decision on the application within two months after receipt of the application.

(e) If the division determines that the facility has reasonably satisfied all requirements, it shall issue a license.

(f) In issuing a license, the division may impose restrictions on the facility, including, but not limited to, the number of children to be served and the type of children to be served.

(g) A variance of an individual standard set forth in the standards may be granted for good and just cause by the division.

(h) A license applies only to the location stated on the application and license issued and is not transferable from one person to another or from one place to another. If the location of the facility is changed or the owner of the facility is changed, the license is automatically revoked.

(i) The licensee must display the license in a prominent place at the facility.

(j) Prior to expiration of its license, a facility may apply for a new license in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the division. The application must be completed and acted on prior to the expiration of a license. Evaluation to determine if the applying facility meets all requirements must include a specified number of visits to the facility and review of all required forms and records.

Provisional License

Sec. 12. (a) The division shall issue a provisional license to a facility whose plans meet the department requirements but which is (1) not currently operating, (2) not licensed for the location stated in the application, or (3) changing ownership.

(b) A provisional license is valid for six months from the date of issuance and is nonrenewable.

Biennial License

Sec. 13. (a) A biennial license will be issued if the division determines that the facility meets all requirements on a continuing basis. The evaluation shall be based on a specified number of visits to the facility and a review of all required forms and records.

(b) A biennial license shall be valid for two years.

Certification and Registration

Sec. 14. (a) Child care facilities and child placing agencies operated by the state, and registered family homes, are exempt from the licensing requirements of this Act, but state operated facilities must receive certification of approval from the division and registered family homes must be registered.

(b) To be certified, the facilities must meet all department standards, rules and regulations, and provisions of this Act that apply to licensed facilities of the same category. The operator of a certified facility must display the certification in a prominent place at the facility. Certification of approval must be renewed every two years.
(c) To be registered, the facility must meet department standards, rules, regulations, and provisions of this Act that apply to registered facilities.

Agency Homes

Sec. 15. (a) An agency home is exempt from the licensing requirements of this Act but shall be considered part of the child placing agency operating the home when the agency is licensed.

(b) The agency homes must meet all department standards, rules and regulations, and provisions of this Act that apply to child care facilities caring for a similar number of children for a similar number of hours each day.

(c) The operator of the licensed agency must display a copy of the license in a prominent place at an agency home used by the agency.

(d) If an agency home fails to meet the requirements of Subsection (b) of this section, the division shall suspend or revoke the license of the child placing agency.

State Advisory Committee

Sec. 16. (a) The State Advisory Committee on Child Care Facilities is hereby established.

(b) The commissioner of the department shall appoint 15 citizens to serve as members of the committee for terms of two years.

(c) The members must represent the following groups:

1. parents, guardians, or custodians of the children who use the facilities;
2. child advocacy groups;
3. operators of the facilities; and
4. experts in various professional fields which are relevant to child care and development.

(d) At least three members of the division staff shall meet with the committee, and the division shall provide staff necessary for the committee.

(e) The committee shall review rules and regulations and minimum standards relating to child care facilities and child placing agencies promulgated by state agencies, and shall advise the department and the division, the council, and state agencies on problems of child care facilities and child placing agencies.

(f) The committee shall receive and review the annual report of the division.

(g) The committee shall meet twice a year, and the members shall receive their actual travel expenses and the state per diem.

Annual Report

Sec. 17. (a) The division shall present to the governor, lieutenant governor, and members of the legislature an annual report of its activities.

(b) The annual report must include:

1. a report by regions of applications; provisional licenses issued, denied, suspended, and revoked; licenses issued, denied, suspended, and revoked; emergency closures and injunctions; and compliance of state operated agencies with certification requirements;
2. a summary of the amount and kinds of in-service training and other professional growth opportunities provided to division staff;
3. a summary of training and other professional growth opportunities offered to child care facilities staff;
4. a report of new administrative procedures, of the number of staff and staff changes, and of plans for the coming year.

(c) Copies of the annual report shall be made available to any citizen of the state upon request.

Suspension

Sec. 18. (a) If a facility has temporarily suspended operations but has definite plans for renewing operations within the time limits of the issued license, the division may suspend the license.

(b) If the division finds repeated noncompliance with standards that do not endanger the health or safety of the children, the division has the option of suspending the license for a definite period of time instead of denying or revoking the license. In order to qualify for suspension under this subsection, the facility must:

1. show it can meet the standards within the suspension period, and
2. suspend its operations.

(c) If a facility does not comply with standards after the suspension, the division must deny or revoke its license.

Denial or Revocation

Sec. 19. (a) If the division finds that a facility does not comply with the provisions of this Act, the department standards, department rules and regulations, or the specific terms of a license or certification, it must deny or revoke the license or certification of approval.

(b) The division must notify the person operating or proposing to operate the facility of the reasons for the denial or revocation and the person's right of appeal within 30 days of receipt of the director's notification.
(c) If the person wishes to appeal, he must notify the director by certified mail within 30 days and must state in the notification the reasons against denial or revocation. The person must send a copy of the notification to the assigned division representative.

(d) Within two weeks following the date the appeal notification was mailed, the director shall notify the person that the request for an appeal hearing is denied, or he shall appoint an advisory review board to hear the appeal.

(e) Within two weeks following notification to the person that an advisory review board will hear his case, the director shall appoint five of the person's peers to an advisory review board and shall set a date for the hearing. The date for the hearing must be within four weeks following the date of the appointment of the members.

(f) The advisory review board shall hear the appeal and render an advisory opinion to the director within one week of the hearing. The board members shall receive actual travel expenses and state per diem for each day of the hearing.

(g) The advisory opinion will be reviewed by a committee composed of the director, the division representative responsible for establishing standards, and the division representative administering this Act in the region in which the facility is located. The committee shall render a decision within two weeks after receiving the advisory opinion and shall notify by certified mail the person of its decision.

(h) Within 30 days after receipt of the committee's decision, the person whose license has been denied or revoked may challenge the decision in a suit filed in a district court of Travis County or in the county in which the facility is located. The trial shall be de novo.

(i) On request by a person challenging a division decision in a court suit, the division shall supply him with a copy of the verbatim transcript of his advisory review board hearing, at his expense. Records of the hearing shall be kept for one year after a final decision is rendered.

(j) Unless the division uses the procedures set forth in Section 22 or 23 of this Act, a person may continue to operate a facility during an appeal of the denial or revocation of its license.

Application of Administrative Procedure Act

Sec. 20. The Administrative Procedure Act, S.B. No. 41, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975, applies to all procedures and proceedings under this Act, except where it is contrary or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, in which case the provisions of this Act shall govern.

Sec. 21. (a) If the division finds any violation of this Act or the department's minimum standards or rules and regulations by a facility other than a state-operated facility that places the children in the facility in immediate peril, it may close the facility and place the children attending the facility in another facility.

(b) A division representative finding conditions that place children in a facility in peril shall immediately contact the director of the division and request the director or his designee to immediately inspect the facility for verification of the conditions.

(c) If the division finds any violation of this Act or the department's minimum standards or rules and regulations by a state operated facility that threatens serious harm to the children in the facility, the division representative shall immediately report the finding to the governor and the commissioner of the department.

(d) Closure under this section is an emergency measure. After closing a facility, the division must seek an injunction against continued operation of the facility as prescribed in Section 22 of this Act.

Injunctive Relief

Sec. 22. (a) Whenever it appears that a person has violated or is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this Act or of any rule, regulation, or standard of the department, the division may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court of Travis County or in the county in which the facility is located, for injunctive relief, including temporary restraining orders, to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each day of violation and for each act of violation, as the court may deem proper, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalties. Upon application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this Act or of any rule, regulation, standard, or order of the board, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(b) At the request of the division, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the State of Texas for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty, or for both injunctive relief and penalty, as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section.

Civil Penalty

Sec. 23. Any person who violates any provision of this Act or rule, regulation, or standard of the department which threatens serious harm to the children in the facility, or who violates any provision of this Act or rule, regulation, or standard of the department three or more times within a period of a year, or who operates a facility without a license or certification as required under this Act, or who places a public advertisement for an unlicensed facility, is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each day of violation and for each act of violation, as the court may deem proper. Civil penalties shall be cumulative and in addition to the remedies of injunction and criminal penalties provided in this Act.

Criminal Penalty

Sec. 24. (a) A person operating a child care facility or child placing agency without a license is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(b) A person placing a public advertisement for an unlicensed facility is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.

Prior Issued Licenses

Sec. 25. Licenses issued before the effective date of this Act remain valid for a period not to exceed two years from the effective date of this Act.

Repealer

Sec. 26. Section 8(a), The Public Welfare Act of 1941, as amended (Article 695c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

Effective Date

Sec. 27. This Act shall take effect January 1, 1976.

Art. 695a–4. Administration of Federally Established Day Care Programs

State Agency

Sec. 1. The State Department of Public Welfare is hereby designated the state agency to administer a day care program established by federal law and financed partially or totally by federal funds.

General Administrative Rules and Regulations

Sec. 2. (a) The Commissioner of Public Welfare shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the administrative provisions of the program consistent with federal law and regulations.

(b) The rules must include procedures to allow operators of day care centers to review and comment on proposed rules and policies.

(c) The rules must establish procedures for input by the parents of the children in a day care center into the operation of the center.

(d) The commissioner may promulgate eligibility standards for admission into the program, provided such standards make provision for exceptions where deemed necessary to maintain family self-sufficiency and integrity.

Administration of Federal-local Program

Sec. 3. (a) If the program is to be funded through political subdivisions of the state or local agencies approved by the department matching federal grants, the department shall promulgate procedures for effective delivery of services consistent with this section and with federal law and regulations.

(b) If the services are provided through contracting with operators of day care centers upon request from political subdivisions or local agencies, the department may not promulgate standards for selection of the type of centers more restrictive than required by federal law or regulations.

(c) The department shall establish an accounting system consistent with federal law and regulations which will provide that an operator of a day care center contracting with the department:

(1) shall receive prepayment in accordance with policies and procedures mutually agreed upon by the state comptroller of public accounts and the Department of Public Welfare, and

(2) shall be paid on the basis of legitimate and reasonable expenses, insofar as possible, given federal regulations and the Department of Public Welfare policy, instead of being paid on the basis of number of children attending the center, provided that upon being monitored by the department, the contracting operator can substantiate that there were sufficient preparations in the development of the services offered.

Art. 695a–5. Placement of Children From Another State

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Child" means a person who, by reason of minority, is legally subject to parental, guardianship, or similar control.

(2) "Child care facility" means any facility that provides care, training, education, custody, treatment, or supervision for any minor child who is not related by blood, marriage, or adoption to the owner or operator of the facility, whether or not the facility is operated for profit, and whether or not the facility makes a charge for the service offered by it.
827

(3) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare.

(4) "Department" means the State Department of Public Welfare.

(5) "Placement" means an arrangement for the care of a child in a family free, in a boarding home, or in a child care facility or institution, including any institution caring for the mentally ill, mentally defective, or epileptic, but does not include any institution primarily educational in character or any hospital or other primarily medical facility.

(6) "Sending agency" means a state, a subdivision of a state, an officer or employee of a state or a subdivision of a state, a court of a state, or a person, partnership, corporation, association, charitable agency, or other entity, located outside this state, which sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought any child into this state.

Notice of Intention to Place Child in State; Additional Information; Notice to Sending Agency; Requisites for Approval

Sec. 2. (a) Prior to the placement in this state of a child from another state, the sending agency shall furnish the department written notice of its intention to place the child in this state. The notice must contain:

(1) the name and the date and place of birth of the child;

(2) the names and addresses of the child's parents or legal guardian, and the legal relationship of the named persons to the child;

(3) the name and address of the person, agency, or institution with which the sending agency proposes to place the child; and

(4) a full statement of the reasons for the placement and evidence of the authority under which the placement is proposed to be made.

(b) After receipt of a notice provided for in Subsection (a) of this section, the commissioner may request additional or supporting information as he deems necessary from any appropriate authority in the state where the child is located.

(c) No sending agency may send, bring, or cause to be sent or brought into this state any child for placement, until the commissioner notifies the sending agency in writing that the proposed placement does not appear to be contrary to the best interests of the child.

(d) The commissioner may not approve the placement in this state of a child from outside this state without the concurrence of the individuals with whom the child is proposed to be placed or the head of an institution with which the child is proposed to be placed.

(e) No child care facility in this state may receive a child for placement unless the placement conforms to requirements of this Act.

Retention of Jurisdiction and Financial Responsibility of Sending Agency; Failure to Support; Concurrence in Discharge

Sec. 3. (a) After placement in this state, the sending agency retains jurisdiction over the child sufficient to determine all matters relating to the custody, supervision, care, treatment, and disposition of the child which it would have had if the child had remained in the sending agency's state, until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes self-supporting, or is discharged with the concurrence of the commissioner. The sending agency may cause the child to be returned to it or transferred to another location, except as provided in Subsection (e) of this section.

(b) The sending agency has financial responsibility for support and maintenance of the child during each period of placement in Texas. If the sending agency fails wholly or in part to provide financial support and maintenance during placement, the commissioner may bring suit under the provisions of Section 14.05, Family Code, and may file a complaint with the appropriate prosecuting attorney, claiming a violation of the provisions of Section 25.05, Penal Code.

(c) After failure of the sending agency to provide support or maintenance, if the commissioner determines that financial responsibility is unlikely to be assumed by the sending agency, or by the child's parents or guardian, if not the sending agency, he shall cause the child to be returned to the sending agency.

(d) After failure of the sending agency to provide support or maintenance, the department shall assume financial responsibility for the child until responsibility is assumed again by the sending agency, until it is assumed by the child's parents or guardian, or until the child is safely returned to the sending agency.

(e) The commissioner may not concur in the discharge of a child placed in a public institution in this state without the concurrence of the head of the institution.

Delinquent Child

Sec. 4. No child adjudicated delinquent in another state may be placed in Texas unless the child has received a court hearing, after notice to a parent or guardian, and at the hearing, the child had an opportunity to be heard and the court made findings that:

(1) equivalent facilities for the child are not available in the sending agency's jurisdiction; and
(2) institutional care in Texas is in the best interests of the child and will not produce undue hardship.

Private Charitable Agencies

Sec. 5. This Act does not prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in this state from performing services or acting as agent in this state for a private charitable agency in a sending state, nor prevent the agency in this state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of a sending agency, without altering financial responsibility as provided in Section 3 of this Act.

Exemptions

Sec. 6. This Act does not apply to:

(1) the sending or bringing of a child into this state by his parent, stepparent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, adult uncle or aunt, or his guardian, and the leaving of the child with any person described in this subdivision or with any nonagency guardian in this state; or

(2) any placement, sending, or bringing of a child into this state under the provisions of an interstate compact to which both Texas and the state from which the child is sent or brought are parties.

Penalties

Sec. 7. (a) An individual or corporation which violates Subsections (a) or (c) of Section 2 of this Act is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(b) A child care facility in this state which violates Subsection (e) of Section 2 of this Act is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor. On conviction, the court shall revoke any license to operate as a child care facility or child-caring institution issued the facility by the department.

Repealer

Sec. 8. Sections 6 and 7, Chapter 194, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 695a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), are repealed.

Effective Date

Sec. 9. This Act takes effect September 1, 1975. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2402, ch. 736, §§ 1 to 9, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
Art. 695c. Public Welfare Act of 1941

Child-Caring Institutions

Sec. 8(a). As used in this Act, the following terms, words, and provisions shall be construed as defined and set forth herein.

1. Definitions.

(k) Person. Person includes an individual, an agency, an association, or a corporation.

2. Provisions for License to Operate.

(e) Fees. (1) Child-placing agencies, in cases either of placement for adoption or of placement for care and custody, shall not be prohibited from charging a reasonable fee for placement, consultation or other child-placing activities either from the parents or other person responsible for the child involved, or from the foster parents receiving the child; provided that no person engaged in child-placing activity may make the availability of services or the amount of the fee for services (other than legal services) contingent upon the retention of a particular attorney or an attorney from a particular group of attorneys; provided further that the natural parents, legal guardian, or foster parents may pay such agency a reasonable amount for staff and other services, board, maintenance, and medical care of such child and may reimburse the agency for medical care and maintenance plus staff and other services on behalf of the mother of such child in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the State Department of Public Welfare as hereinafter provided. (2) License to operate, for each type of facility as herein defined, shall be issued without fee, and under such reasonable and uniform rules and regulations as the State Department of Public Welfare shall prescribe as hereinafter provided; and the type of facility for which a license is issued shall be indicated on such license.

(a) No person operating a child care facility may allow an individual to prepare or dispense food served in the facility if the individual does not possess as a minimum requirement a health certificate signed by a licensed physician within the previous 12-month period.

(b) The State Department of Public Welfare shall check the certificates during its inspection visits.

(c) The Department of Public Welfare may, after consultation with the Department of Public Health, require additional minimum public health safety requirements of the persons covered by this Act.

12. Misdemeanor.

Any person who (i) impersonates an official, employee, representative, agent, or solicitor of any licensed institution or agency within the scope of this Act, (ii) falsely represents himself as representing a licensee under this Act, (iii) solicits funds in the name of, or for, any licensee under this Act without authorization, (iv) without a license conducts a child-caring institution, a commercial child-caring institution, a child-placing agency, or places children for adoption, or (v) violates the provisions of Subsection 4a of this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or confinement in county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both. Each day of violation shall be considered a separate offense.

13. Sale or Purchase of Child.

(a) No person who possesses a child or who has the custody, conservatorship, or guardianship of a child whether or not in actual possession of the child, may offer or agree to accept or accept anything of value for the delivery of the child to another or for the possession of the child for purposes of adoption.

(b) No person may offer or agree to give or give anything of value to another for acquiring or maintaining the possession of a child for the purpose of adoption.
(c) This section does not apply to the payment of a fee to a child-placing agency when authorized under Subsection 2(e) of this section, to fees of an attorney or physician for actual services rendered in the usual course of a legal or medical practice, nor to the reimbursement of actual medical or legal expenses incurred by any person for the benefit of the child.

(d) A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor unless the person has been convicted previously of violating this subsection, in which case, the subsequent violation is a felony of the third degree.

Repeal

Section 8(a) of this article is repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2250, ch. 708, § 26, effective January 1, 1976. See, now, art. 695a-3.

Child Support Collection, Parent Locator and Paternity Determination Services

Sec. 18-B. (a) The State Department of Public Welfare, as the single state agency designated to administer a statewide plan for child support, is authorized to provide child support collection, parent locator, and paternity determination services to enable it to participate in programs established by federal law.

(b) The State Department of Public Welfare is authorized to:

(1) accept, transfer, and expend funds made available by the government of the United States, the State of Texas, or public or private source, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section;

(2) promulgate rules and regulations to provide the child support services;

(3) initiate legal actions needed to implement the provisions of this section;

(4) enter into contracts or agreements necessary to administer this section; and

(5) request agencies of the state and political subdivisions of the state to search their records to help locate absent parents.

(c) An applicant for or recipient of financial assistance shall be required to assign to the State Department of Public Welfare any rights to support from any other person, which the applicant or recipient may have in his own behalf or for a child for whom the applicant or recipient is claiming assistance, including the right to an amount accrued at the time the assignment is executed. The State Department may distribute support payments or parts of payments received by it to the family for whom the payments are made and for providing assistance and services to and on behalf of needy dependent children.

(d) If an assignment has been made pursuant to this section, child support payments shall be made to the State Department of Public Welfare. If a court has ordered support payments to be made to an applicant for or recipient of financial assistance who has assigned support rights, the State Department may file notice of the assignment with the court ordering the payments. The notice shall include:

(1) a statement that the assignment has been made;

(2) the name of the child and caretaker for whom support has been ordered by the court;

(3) the style and cause number of the case in which support was ordered; and

(4) a request that the payments ordered be made to the State Department of Public Welfare. Upon receipt of the notice and without a requirement of a hearing, the court shall order that the payments be made to the State Department.

(e) In fulfilling its child support obligations, the State Department of Public Welfare may assist in the judicial determination of the paternity of an illegitimate child whose support rights have been assigned to the department, and shall attempt to locate absent parents and shall cooperate with federal agencies, other agencies of the State of Texas, and other states in locating the parents.

(f) The State Department of Public Welfare may make parent locator, child support collection, or paternity determination services available to an individual not otherwise eligible for the services upon application of the individual. A reasonable application fee and costs may be assessed for the services under rules and regulations developed by the State Department.

(g) Money received by the State Department of Public Welfare under assignments or as fees pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special fund in the State Treasury or in accounts in financial institutions and may be expended for administration of the programs provided for in this section and to provide assistance and services to and on behalf of needy dependent children. All other funds received pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special fund in the State Treasury.

(h) All files and records on recipients of the assistants and services provided under this section and on an alleged father of an illegitimate child are confidential. Release of information from the files and records shall be restricted to purposes directly connected with the administration of the child support collection, paternity determination, parent locator, or aid to families with dependent children programs. Information may be released to public officials un-
Disclosure of Information Prohibited; Names of Recipients

Sec. 33. (1) It shall be unlawful, except for purposes directly connected with the administration of general assistance, aid to dependent children, or social services programs, and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Department, for any person or persons to solicit, disclose, receive, make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of, any list of, or names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving such assistance, directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the State Department or subdivisions or agencies thereof, or acquired in the course of the performance of official duties.

(2) The rule-making power of the State Department shall include the power to establish and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing the custody, use, and preservation of the records, papers, files, and communications of the State Department and its local offices. Wherever, under provisions of law, names and addresses of recipients of public assistance or social services programs are furnished to or held by any other agency or department of government, such agency or department of government shall be required to adopt regulations necessary to prevent the publication of lists thereof or their use for purposes not directly connected with the administration of public assistance or social services programs.

CHAPTER ONE. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND REGULATIONS

Article 715b. Bond Registration Act [NEW] 717k-5. Validation of Contracts, Warrants and Refunding Bonds Authorized by Counties, Cities of Towns [NEW].
717n-1. Counties over 1,000,000; Issuance of Certificates of Indebtedness for Certain Purposes [NEW].
717e. Local Government Sport Centers [NEW].

Art. 715b. Bond Registration Act

Citation of Act

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the “Bond Registration Act.”

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) “Comptroller” means the comptroller of public accounts.

(2) “Fully registrable” means, with reference to the public securities, that the principal of and interest on such securities are payable only to the registered owner thereof, the principal thereof being payable upon presentation of the securities at the place of payment and the interest thereon being payable to the registered owner at the most recent address of said registered owner shown on the books of the registrar.

(3) “Issuer” means the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, authority, or any other political corporation of the State of Texas having the authority to issue public securities.

(4) “Public securities” means bonds, notes, certificates of obligation, certificates of indebtedness, or other obligations for the payment of money lawfully issued by an issuer.

(5) “Registered owner” means the payee named in a fully registrable public security, his legal representative or successor.

(6) “Registrar” means the comptroller of public accounts or a commercial bank meeting the requirements of this Act which is named as registrar in the proceedings authorizing public securities.
pons appertaining thereto by the comptroller upon presentation of such securities to the comptroller. Such attachment and removal may occur successively from time to time. No matured coupon will be attached or reattached by the comptroller.

Exchange or Change in Form of Securities

Sec. 6. (a) If the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities provide or have heretofore provided that such public securities having appertaining thereto coupons or being fully registrable may be exchanged or such public securities change form by attachment or removal of coupons in accordance with Section 5 hereof, and such public securities on initial issuance are approved by the attorney general in accordance with law and registered by the comptroller, upon exchange or their change in form by attachment or removal of coupons in accordance with this Act, it shall not be necessary for the attorney general to again approve and it shall not be necessary for the comptroller to again register such public securities, resulting from such exchange or change in form, but the public securities resulting from such exchange or change in form shall as a matter of law be considered as having been approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller.

(b) If such public securities are exchanged, the registrar shall cause to be placed on the public securities received in exchange an appropriate inscription manually signed verifying that the public securities received in exchange are in lieu of the public securities presented for exchange.

Change of Registered Owner or Address; Replacement for Damaged, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Bonds: Form and Identity Changes

Sec. 7. (a) If the comptroller is named as registrar in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities, upon the change on the registration books of the registrar of the registered owner or his address, the comptroller shall notify all places of payment with reference to such change or changes.

(b) In the event application is made to the comptroller for the replacement of damaged, destroyed, lost, or stolen bonds, pursuant to Chapter 334, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965 (Article 715a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and any such bond or bonds as described in said application do not appear in the comptroller's records in the form and bear the identity as originally registered by the comptroller, the applicant for such replacement shall furnish the comptroller a chronology of the changes from the original, registered form and identity as to enable the comptroller, under regulations promulgated by him to effect such purpose, to trace the changes in form and identity by such chronology, of such bond or bonds into the original, registered form and identity.

Cost and Expenses for Registration and Exchange of Securities

Sec. 8. Where the proceedings authorizing public securities provide for public securities to be fully registrable whether initially or through exchange or conversion, such proceedings shall provide to the extent the issuer is to pay the cost and expenses in connection with the registration and exchange of such public securities including the fees of the registrar therein named. The comptroller shall adopt reasonable regulations for his performing the services provided for herein, and shall publish a schedule of fees for performing such services.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 9. (a) The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all laws or parts of laws, general or special, and specifically are not intended to qualify the Texas Uniform Commercial Code or limit the negotiability of public securities as provided therein.

(b) In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Act and the provisions of any city charter the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Severability

Sec. 10. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person, political subdivision, or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of this Act, which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of the Act are declared to be severable.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1132, ch. 431, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975.]

Art. 717k-5. Validation of Contracts, Warrants and Refunding Bonds Authorized by Counties, Cities or Towns

Sec. 1. In every instance where the commission- ers court of a county or the governing board of a city, including home-rule cities, or town in this state has entered into contracts for, or has determined the advisability thereof by giving notice of intention to issue interest-bearing time warrants in payment therefor, the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city, including home-rule cities, or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants, and the proceedings adopt-
Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act or any application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Art. 717n-1. Counties over 1,000,000; Issuance of Certificates of Indebtedness for Certain Purposes

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any county having a population in excess of 1,000,000, according to the most recent Federal Census, is authorized, subject to the limitations contained in this Act, to issue certificates of indebtedness:

(1) in the amount of not more than $2,000,000 for the purpose of constructing, enlarging, furnishing, equipping and repairing county buildings and other permanent improvements; and

(2) in the amount of not more than $3,500,000 for the purchase of right-of-way in participation with the Texas Highway Department in connection with designated state highways and for the construction of curbs, gutters and drainage facilities for such designated highways.

(3) If bonds are not issued under this Act by January 1, 1980, this Act will no longer be in effect.

Maturity; Interest; Negotiability; County Registration; Amount

Sec. 2. Such certificates shall be authorized by order of the commissioners court and shall mature in not to exceed 35 years from their date. Interest may be evidenced by coupons. Said certificates shall be sold for cash, and they shall be fully negotiable. Said certificates shall be signed by the county judge, attested by the county clerk, and registered by the county treasurer. Certificates shall not be issued under this Act in excess of $5,500,000.

Tax Levy and Assessment

Sec. 3. When such certificates are issued, it shall be the duty of the commissioners court to levy and have assessed and collected a tax under Article VIII, Section 9 of the Constitution, sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on the certificates as such principal and interest become due.

Approved by Attorney General; Registration

Sec. 4. The certificates and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, who shall endorse his certificate of registration thereon, and thereafter they shall be incontestable.

Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 5. The certificates of indebtedness shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, savings and loan associations, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such certificates shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such certificates shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value or to the extent of their market value, whichever value is the smaller, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1873, ch. 589, §§ 1 to 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 717o. Local Government Sport Centers

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Local government" means a county, an incorporated city or town, or an independent school district.

(2) "Ordinance," in the case of an independent school district, means "resolution," and in the case of a county means "order."

(3) "Sport center" means a facility used for sporting activities and events, including auxiliary facilities such as parking areas and restaurants.

Application of Act

Sec. 2. A local government may take advantage of this Act only if all or most of its territory is located in a county that has a population of more than 650,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

General Authority

Sec. 3. (a) A local government may construct, acquire, lease, improve, enlarge, and operate one or more sport centers under this Act.

(b) Two or more local governments acting jointly may do anything authorized by this Act to be done by a single local government. When two or more local governments act jointly, joint action by all local governments involved is necessary to perform any official act. Two or more local governments may act jointly under this subsection only if each of them is authorized individually to take advantage of this Act and all or most of the territory of each of them is located in the same county or in adjacent counties.

(c) A local government or combination of them acting under this Act may contract with any public or private entity including a coliseum advisory board or similar body, for the performance of any function authorized under this Act other than the performance of an official governmental act that is required to be done by the governing body of a local government.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 4. For any purpose authorized under Section 3 of this Act, the governing body of a local government may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from a facility authorized under this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms and details, as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of facilities authorized under this Act, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges

Sec. 6. The local government is authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the local government.

Pledges

Sec. 7. (a) The local government may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the facilities authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the local government, and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the local government may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The local government may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

(d) No holder of any bond or bonds issued under this Act shall ever have the right to demand payment thereof out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act are public purposes and proper functions of local governments.
kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A local government has the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. MISCELLANEOUS

Exemption from Securities Laws

Sec. 11.01. Savings accounts, certificates, and other evidences of interests in the savings liability of associations subject to this Act and of Federal associations are not “securities” for any purpose under The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1, et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). Securities of these associations other than interests in the savings liability of the associations are not subject to the registration requirements of The Securities Act, as amended. Any person whose principal occupation is that of an officer of an association is exempt from the registration and licensing provisions of The Securities Act, as amended, with respect to that person’s participation in a sale or other transaction involving securities of the association of which the person is an officer.

6. REGULATION OF MOTOR CARRIERS

Art. 911b. Motor Carriers and Regulation by Railroad Commission

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 17]

Identification Plate on Motor Vehicles

Sec. 18. It shall be unlawful for any motor carrier as hereinbefore defined to operate any motor vehicle within this State unless there shall be displayed and firmly fixed upon the front of such vehicle an identification plate to be furnished by the Commission. Each plate shall be designed so as to identify the vehicle on which the same is attached as being a vehicle authorized to operate under the terms of this law; said plate shall bear the number given to the vehicle by the Commission and such other marks of identification as may be necessary. The plate for common carrier vehicles and the plate for contract carrier vehicles shall be different in design. The identification plate provided for herein shall be in addition to the regular license plates required by law. It shall be the duty of the Commission to provide the plate and each motor vehicle operating in this State shall display such plate as soon as the same is received and such plate shall be issued annually thereafter and attached to each motor vehicle not later than September 1st of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. The Commission shall be authorized to collect from the applicant a fee of one dollar ($1) for each plate so issued, and all fees for such plates shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the "Motor Carrier Fund."

Art. 912a-1. Definitions

Words used in this Act in the present tense include the future as well as the present; words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter; the singular number includes the plural and the plural the singular; “writing” includes “printing” and “typewriting”; “oath” includes “affirmation.” When used in this Act, the following terms shall, unless the context otherwise indicates, have the following respective meanings:

The term “cemetery”, within the meaning of this title, is hereby defined as a place dedicated to and used and intended to be used for the permanent interment of the human dead. It may be either a burial park, for earth interments; a mausoleum for vault or crypt interments, a crematory, or crematory and columbarium for cinerary interments, or a combination of one or more thereof.

The term “perpetual care cemetery” shall mean a cemetery for the benefit of which a perpetual care fund shall have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

The term “nonperpetual care cemetery” shall mean a cemetery for the benefit of which no perpetual care fund has been established in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

The term “perpetual care” shall mean to keep the sod in repair, to keep all places where interments have been made in proper order, and to care for trees and shrubs, providing for the administration of perpetual care funds in instances wherein those administering such funds fail or refuse to act.

“Burial Park” means a tract of land which has been dedicated to the purposes of and used, and intended to be used, for the interment of the human dead in graves.

“Grave” means a space of ground in a burial park intended to be used for the permanent interment in the ground of the remains of a deceased person.

“Mausoleum” means a structure or building of most durable and lasting fireproof construction used, or intended to be used, for the permanent interment in crypts and vaults therein of the remains of deceased persons.

“Crypt” or “Vault” as herein used means the chamber in a mausoleum of sufficient size to inter the uncremated remains of a deceased person.

“Lawn Crypts” or “Garden Crypts,” sometimes called cryptoria, means subsurface concrete and reinforced steel receptacles installed in multiple units, for burial of the remains of a deceased person in a casket.

“Columbarium” means a structure or room or other space in a building or structure of most durable and lasting fireproof construction or a plot of earth, containing niches, used, or intended to be used, to contain cremated human remains.

“Crematory” means a building or structure containing one or more furnaces used, or intended to be used, for the reduction of bodies of deceased persons for cremated remains.

“Crematory and columbarium” means a building or structure of most durable and lasting fireproof construction containing both a crematory and columbarium, used, or intended to be used, for the permanent interment therein by inurnment of the remains of deceased persons.

“Niche” is a recess in a columbarium, used, or intended to be used, for the permanent interment of the cremated remains of one or more deceased persons.

“Lot,” or “plot” or “burial space” means space in a cemetery owned by one or more individuals, an association, or fraternal or other organization and used, or intended to be used, for the permanent interment therein of the remains of one or more deceased persons. Such terms include and shall apply with like effect to one, or more than one, adjoining graves; one, or more than one, adjoining crypts or vaults; one, or more than one, adjoining niches.

“Temporary receiving vault” as herein used means a vault in a structure of most durable and lasting construction used and intended to be used for the temporary deposit therein for a reasonable time only of the remains of a deceased person.

“Interment” means the permanent disposition of the remains of a deceased person by cremation, inurnment, entombment or burial.
“Cremation” as herein used means the interment of a body of a deceased person by reduction to cremated remains in a crematory and the deposit of the cremated remains in a grave, vault, crypt, or niche.

“Inurnment” means placing the cremated remains in an urn and permanently depositing the same in a niche.

“Entombment” means the permanent interment of the remains of a deceased person in a crypt or vault.

“Remains” means the body of a deceased person.

“Cremated remains” means remains of a deceased person after incineration in a crematory.

“Cemetery business,” “cemetery businesses” and “cemetery purposes” are herein used interchangeably and shall mean any and all business and purposes requisite or necessary for or incident to establishing, maintaining, managing, operating, improving, and conducting a cemetery and the interring of the human dead, and the care, preservation and embellishment of cemetery property.

The terms “cemetery association” and “association” are herein used interchangeably and shall mean any corporation now or hereafter organized, or any association not operated for a profit, which is or shall be authorized by its articles to conduct any one or more or all of the businesses of a cemetery.

“Directors” as herein used, means the board of directors, board of trustees, or other governing body of the cemetery association.

The term “plot owner,” “owner,” or “lot proprietor” as used herein means any person in whose name a burial plot stands, as owner of the exclusive right of sepulture therein, in the office of the association, or who holds from such association a conveyance of the exclusive right of sepulture, or a certificate of ownership of the exclusive right of sepulture, in a particular lot, plot, or space.

[Furnished by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 86, ch. 40, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 912a–3. Receipt and Disbursement of Filing Fees, Examination Fees, Penalties and Revenues

At the time of the filing of the statement of its perpetual care fund each cemetery filing same which serves a city the population of which is greater than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census shall pay to the Banking Commissioner of Texas each year a filing fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). Filing fees, examination fees, penalties and other revenues collected under this Act shall be received and disbursed by the Banking Department of Texas as provided by and in accordance with Article 12 of Chapter I, the Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended, in the administration and enforcement of the laws relating to the operation of perpetual care cemeteries and to the creation, investment, and expenditure of cemetery perpetual care funds and for investigations either on its own initiative or on complaints made by others with reference to the operation of perpetual care cemeteries and the creation, investment, and expenditure of cemetery perpetual care funds; provided, that a reasonable part of the amount transferred each year of the biennium by the Banking Department to the General Revenue Fund, to cover the cost of governmental service rendered by other departments, may be made up from fees, penalties and other revenues collected under the provision of this Act. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 86, ch. 40, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

1 Article 342–112.

Art. 912a–15. Establishment and Maintenance of Perpetual Care

Every cemetery association which has established and is now maintaining, operating or conducting a perpetual care cemetery and every association which shall hereafter establish, maintain, operate or conduct a perpetual care cemetery within this state, pursuant to this Act, shall establish with a trust company or a bank with trust powers, no two (2) of the directors of which shall be directors of the cemetery association for the benefit of which such fund is established, an endowment fund of which the income only can be used for the general perpetual care of its cemetery and to place its cemetery under perpetual care; provided, however, that if there is no such trust company or bank with trust powers, qualified and willing to accept such trust funds at the regular fees established by the Texas Trust Act, located within the county within which such cemetery association is located, then and only then, such endowment fund may be established with a Board of Trustees composed of three (3) or more persons, no two (2) of the trustees of which shall be directors of such cemetery association. The principal of such fund for perpetual care shall never be voluntarily reduced, but shall remain inviolable and shall forever be maintained separate and distinct by the trustee or trustees from all other funds. Any such trustee or trustees and the perpetual care trust operated by them shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of the Texas Trust Act. The principal of such fund shall be invested, from time to time reinvested, and kept invested as required by law for the investment of such funds, and the net income arising therefrom shall be used solely for the general care and maintenance of the property entitled to perpetual care in the cemetery for which the fund is established, and shall be applied in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine to be for the best interest of the cemetery for which such fund is established, but shall never be used for improvement or embellishment of unsold property to be offered for sale. In the event the Board of Directors shall fail to generally care for and maintain that portion of the cemetery entitled to perpetual care, as hereinbefore provided, any five (5) or more lot owners in said cemetery whose lots are entitled to perpetual care shall have the right by suit for mandatory injunction or for a Receiver to take charge of and expend said net income, filed in the District Court of the county in which the cemetery is located, to compel the expenditure either by the Board of Directors or by such Receiver of the net income from the perpetual care fund for the purpose hereinabove set forth.

If a cemetery association is operating a cemetery without provision for perpetual care, and if it is authorized by law and wishes to operate said cemetery as a perpetual care cemetery, it shall so notify the Banking Commission of the State of Texas and shall, in accordance with the foregoing provisions hereof, establish a perpetual care fund equal to the amount which would have theretofore have been paid into such a fund, in accordance with provisions of this Act, if such cemetery had been operated as a perpetual care cemetery from and after the date of the first sale of burial space therein, or the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act, which ever is the greater. If the amount of the perpetual care fund so established is the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act, such cemetery association or corporation shall be entitled to a credit against amounts hereafter required by the provisions of this Act to be paid by it unto such perpetual care fund equal to the excess of the amount of such perpetual care fund, as originally established by it, over what would have been the amount thereof if its amount had been determined without regard to Section 29 of this Act.

In establishing its perpetual care trust fund the association may from time to time adopt plans for the general care, maintenance and embellishment of its cemetery.

A cemetery association which has established a perpetual care fund may also take, receive, and hold therefor and as a part thereof or as an incident thereto any property, real, personal or mixed, bequeathed, devised, granted, given or otherwise contributed to it therefor.

The perpetual care trust fund authorized by this Section and all sums paid therein or contributed thereto are, and each thereof is hereby, expressly permitted and shall be and be deemed to be for charitable and eleemosynary purposes. Such perpetual care fund shall be deemed to be a provision for the discharge of a duty due from the person or persons contributing thereto to the persons interred and to be interred in the cemetery and likewise a provision for the benefit and protection of the public by preserving and keeping cemeteries from becoming places of disorder, reproach, and desolation in the communities in which they are situated. No payment, gift, grant, bequest, or other contribution for such general perpetual care shall be or be deemed to be invalid by reason of any indefiniteness or uncertainty of the persons designated as beneficiaries in the instruments creating said trust, nor shall said fund or any contribution thereto be or be deemed to be invalid as violating any law against perpetuities or the suspension of the power of alienation of title to property.

Each perpetual care cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to such amount as may have been stipulated in any contract under which perpetual care property was sold prior to March 15, 1934, plus a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until such fund reaches a minimum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), after which each such cemetery shall deposit an amount equivalent to a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until September 3, 1945. Each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after September 3, 1945, until July 1, 1963. A minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property and a minimum of Five Dollars ($5.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between March 15, 1934, and July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. From and after July 1, 1963, until September 1, 1975, each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of...
Dollars ($10.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. Such minimum requirements shall apply to all property in which the exclusive right of sepulture has been sold and paid for, whether used for interment purposes or not.

After July 1, 1963, each agreement for the sale of burial space in a perpetual care cemetery shall set out separately the part of the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser which is to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. If the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser is payable in installments, all amounts paid thereon shall be applied, first, to the part thereof not required to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund, to the extent thereof, and the remainder shall, when received by the seller, be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. Any funds required to be deposited in its perpetual care trust fund by a seller of burial space shall be so deposited not later than ten (10) days after the end of the calendar month during which they are received. If the seller shall fail to so deposit such funds within the time required hereunder, it shall be liable for and the Banking Commissioner shall collect as a penalty the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day for the period of such failure, and, upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner of the refusal of the seller to pay to the Banking Commissioner such penalty, the Attorney General shall institute a suit to recover said penalty and for costs and such other relief by the state as in the judgment of the Attorney General is proper and necessary. No cemetery shall hereafter operate as a perpetual care, permanent maintenance, or free care cemetery until the provisions hereof are complied with.

The amount to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund shall be separately shown on the original purchase agreement and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the purchaser. In the sale of burial space, no commission shall be paid a broker or salesman on the amount to be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any other provision of the laws of the State of Texas or any provision in a trust agreement executed for the purpose of providing perpetual care for a cemetery, such trust agreement may, by agreement entered into between the cemetery association and the trustee or trustees acting under such trust agreement, be amended so as to include any provision which is not inconsistent with any provision in this Act.

From and after September 1, 1975, each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of seventy-five cents (75¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after said date. A minimum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property, except that on crypts accessible only through another crypt the minimum requirement shall be Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per each such crypt, and a minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to September 1, 1975, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. The amount of money to be placed in the perpetual care trust fund for lawn crypts shall be the same as crypts in an aboveground mausoleum.

Art. 912a–28. Articles of Incorporation; Requisites and Contents

No perpetual care cemetery shall ever be organized without its Articles of Incorporation filed with the Secretary of State showing the subscriptions and payment in cash of its full Capital Stock, the designation of the location of its cemetery property, and a certificate showing the deposit of its Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund as provided in Section 29 of this Act. The minimum amount of such Capital shall be in accordance with the following schedule: Those serving a town or city having a population of less than fifteen thousand (15,000), Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000); those serving a city having a population of fifteen thousand (15,000) but not more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants, Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000); those serving a city of twenty-five thousand (25,000) or more inhabitants, Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000).

Nothing contained in this Section 28 shall apply to cemetery corporations chartered prior to the effective date of this Act, provided, however, that any corporation which amends its charter shall be required to comply with the minimum requirements set forth in this Section 28.

Art. 912a–29. Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund; Minimum; Necessity and Requisites

Any Corporation chartered under this Act desiring to operate a Perpetual Care Cemetery, before being chartered must establish a minimum Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund, according to the following schedule:

Cemeteries with a Capital Stock of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) must deposit with the trustee, as provided by law, a Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) in cash.

Those with a Capital Stock of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000), a Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) in cash; and,

Those with a Capital Stock of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), or more, a Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) in cash.

The Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund shall be permanently set aside and deposited in trust with the Trustee, as is provided in Section 15 of the Perpetual Care Cemetery Code. Upon all sales made of lots, spaces, crypts, mausoleum space and columbariums, the deposits as required by law, to be placed in trust for the Perpetual Care and Maintenance of the Cemetery, shall be allowed as a credit against the original Perpetual Care and Maintenance Guarantee Fund to the full amount of the original deposit. The Corporation thereafter shall continue to deposit in the Perpetual Care Fund, the minimum amount required by law, and such additional amount as may be required by the Rules and Regulations and/or the Trust Agreement or contract of said Cemetery Corporation or Association, for the Perpetual Care and Maintenance of the Cemetery.

Nothing contained in this Section 29 shall apply to cemetery corporations chartered prior to the effective date of this Act, provided, however, that any corporation which amends its charter shall be required to comply with the minimum requirements set forth in this Section 29.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 86, ch. 40, § 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 912a–31. Examinations of Cemetery Associations’ Perpetual Care Trust Funds and Records; Fees and Expenses

It shall be the duty of the Banking Commissioner to examine, or cause to be examined, each of such perpetual care cemetery associations annually or as often as necessary, for which the examined association shall pay to the Commissioner a fee not to exceed Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) per day or fraction thereof, for each examiner, the total fee not to exceed Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) for any one regular examination.

If in any case the conditions existing in any such association are found to be such as to necessitate an additional examination or a prolonged audit to ascertain the true status of its affairs, the whole expense of such additional examination or such prolonged audit shall be defrayed by such association.

Limitation on Annexations

Sec. 7.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7A and 7B]

B-1. (a) No home rule or general law city may annex any area, whether publicly or privately owned, unless the width of such area at its narrowest point is at least 500 feet, except that a city having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) inhabitants or less may annex an area that is less than 500 feet in width if the corporate limits of the city are contiguous with the property on at least two sides.

Art. 974a. Platting and Recording Subdivisions or Additions

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 and 2]

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for the County Clerk of any county in which such land lies to receive or record any such plan, plat or replat, unless and until the same shall have been approved by the City Planning Commission of any city affected by this Act, if said city has a City Planning Commission and if it has no City Planning Commission, unless and until the said plan, plat, or replat shall have been approved by the governing body of such city. If a city has a City Planning Commission, the governing body may, by ordinance, additionally require approval of said plan, plat, or replat by the governing body. If such land lies outside of and within five (5) miles of more than one (1) city affected by this Act, then the requisite approval shall be by the City Planning Commission or governing body, or both, as the case may be, of such of said cities having the largest population; provided, however, that the governing body of any city having the largest population may enter into an agreement with any other city or cities affected, or the governing body of the largest city may enter into an agreement with any other city within five (5) miles conferring the power of approval within stated portions of the area upon such other city; but any such agreement shall be revocable by either city at the end of twenty (20) years after the date of the agreement or at the end of such shorter period of time as may be agreed upon. A copy of any such agreement shall be filed with the County Clerk, and during the time the agreement continues in force he shall not receive or record any such plan, plat or replat unless it has been approved by the City Planning Commission or the governing body, or both, as the case may be, of the city or cities upon which the power of approval is conferred by the agreement. Any person desiring to have a plan, plat or replat approved as herein provided, shall apply therefor to and file a copy with the Commission, if there be one, or with the governing body if there is no Commission. The Commission, or governing body, as the case may be, shall act upon the same within thirty (30) days from the filing date. If said plat be not disapproved within thirty (30) days from said filing date, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the Commission, or the governing body if there is no Commission. If a city with a Commission has required that approval be given by the governing body, then the governing body shall act upon the same within thirty (30) days after the approval by the Commission, or after the approval by reason of nonaction. If said plat be not disapproved by the governing body within said thirty (30) days, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the governing body. A certificate showing the filing dates hereunder and the failure to take actions thereon within the periods herein prescribed shall on demand be issued by the City Planning Commission or governing body, as the case may be, of such city, and said certificate shall be sufficient in lieu of the written endorsement or other evidence of approval herein required. If the plan, plat, or replat is approved, such Commission or governing body shall indicate such finding by certificate endorsed thereon, signed by the Chairman or presiding officer of said Commission or governing body and attested by its Secretary, or signed by a majority of the members of said
Commission or of the Governing Body when appropriate under this Act. Such Commission or governing body shall keep a record of such applications and the action taken thereupon, and upon demand of the owners of any land affected, shall certify its reasons for the action taken in the matter.

Art. 974d–20. Validation of Consolidation of Certain Cities

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in each of two adjoining incorporated cities within the same county in this state on the question of the consolidation or merger of the two cities under one government, and a majority of the voters of each city who participated in the election voted in favor of the proposition submitted to them, and thereafter the officers of the smaller city turned over to the officers of the larger city the record books and assets of the smaller city and the officers of the larger city entered upon the performance of their duties as officers of the consolidated city, and the consolidated city is now functioning or attempting to function as a validly constituted municipality, the consolidation is hereby validated in all respects as of the date of the consolidation or attempted consolidation. All proceedings involved in the consolidation are hereby validated, and the consolidation shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings in either of both of the elections may not have been in accordance with law in regard to the prerequisites for ordering the elections may not have been in accordance with law in regard to the prerequisites for ordering the election, or any other procedure.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body and other officers of a consolidated city which is within the terms of this Act are hereby validated as of the date of the proceedings against any claim of invalidity because of any defect in the consolidation proceedings or because of any purported authorization for or utilization of advisory services of former officers of the smaller city during a period following the consolidation.

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof; nor does it apply to any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction before the effective date.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 164, §§ 1 to 3, eff. May 8, 1975.]

Art. 974d–21. Validations of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws before the effective date of this Act, which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of the cities and towns, including any extensions by annexation before June 3, 1975, are validated in all respects, except that the incorporation in or extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), is not validated by this Act.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of the cities and towns since their incorporation are validated in all respects as of the date of the proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning any of the acts or proceedings, other than incorporation proceedings or boundary extensions, hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d–22. Validation of Incorporation, Charters and Amendments of Cities over 5,000; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Revenue Bonds; Exceptions

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of cities and towns (including home-rule cities) heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Texas, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. That each charter, and amendment to a charter adopted by any city of more than 5,000 inhabitants in this state, or where such city has amended or attempted to amend or adopt such charter, since the enactment of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, and as thereafter amended, relating to home rule, and all of the amendments and proceedings had under same, and that all bonds issued under any amendment where said bonds issued under any amendment have been approved by the attorney general and registered with the comptroller of public accounts are hereby fully validated, ratified, and confirmed and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as is adopted in strict compliance with all of the requirements of said Chapter 147, Acts of the 33rd Legislature, and as thereafter amended, and the general laws of Texas relating thereto.

Sec. 3. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 4. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 5. Where any city in the state which operated under the general law or pursuant to a home-rule charter has heretofore at an election submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation purposes for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purposes stated in such propositions, such bonds being payable from the revenues stated in such proposition or payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied therefor, and such propositions having carried by the vote of a majority of the persons voting in such election, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the pertinent statutes and all proceedings heretofore had by any such city to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of Section 11 of Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (irrespective of the location of the improvements to be constructed or acquired with bond proceeds), are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of such bonds. All of such proceedings relating to the authorization of bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER THREE. DUTIES AND POWERS OF OFFICERS

Article 999d. Purchase of Liability Insurance for Certain Municipal Employees [NEW].

Art. 999d. Purchase of Liability Insurance for Certain Municipal Employees

A municipality may insure the officers and employees of the fire and police departments and other municipal employees who drive emergency vehicles against liability to third persons arising from and out of the use and operation of automobiles, motor trucks, and other motor vehicles used as municipal emergency medical, fire, or police vehicles in the line of duty by procuring policies for that purpose with insurance companies authorized to do business in this state. All insurance taken out by a municipality shall be on forms approved by the State Board of Insurance. No municipality may purchase liability insurance in excess of $20,000 because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident, $100,000 because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and $5,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

CHAPTER FOUR. THE CITY COUNCIL

Art. 1011i. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2352, ch. 721, § 90, eff. Sept. 1, 1976

See, now, the Public Utility Regulatory Act, classified as art. 1446c.
Art. 1015j-1. Promotional Advertising for Growth and Development in Cities of Not More Than 500,000; Board of Development; Appropriations and Expenditures Authorized; Appointment of Manager

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

Sec. 3a. To assist it in carrying out the provisions of this Act, the governing body may appoint a person to manage the promotion, development, tourism, and convention activities of the city, or it may designate a city official to carry out that function. The person appointed or designated shall serve ex officio as the secretary of the board of development.

CHAPTER FIVE. TAXATION

Art. 1042b. Assessment and Collection of Taxes in Cities, Towns, Villages, Drainage Districts, and Other Districts

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

Valuation

Sec. 4. The property situated within and subject to taxation in said incorporated cities, towns or villages, drainage districts, water control and improvement districts, water improvement districts, fresh water supply districts, navigation districts or hospital districts taking advantage of this Act shall be assessed at the same value as it is assessed for county and state purposes, except that real property in all incorporated cities in counties of 830,460 population or greater, according to the last preceding federal census, by ordinance of the city government may be assessed at a greater rate of value than the same property is assessed for state and county purposes.

Art. 1066c. Local Sales and Use Tax Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 11]

Delinquent Taxes; Collection Suits; Notice and Limitations; Parties; Seizure and Sale of Property

Sec. 12. A. In any city where the Local Sales and Use Tax has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in Article 20.09, Chapter 20, Title 122A. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the Comptroller shall notify the Tax Collector of the city to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the Attorney General. The city, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the Attorney General as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such city. The notice sent by the Comptroller to the tax collector of the city showing the delinquency of a taxpayer for the local sales and use tax constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of local sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

C. (1) A city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in Subsection A of this Section and are owed to the city under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit, written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the Comptroller, and the Attorney General and if neither the Comptroller nor the Attorney General disapproves the suit by written notice to the city.

(2) The Comptroller or Attorney General may disapprove the institution of tax suit by a city if:

(i) negotiations between the State and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the State and the city seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the State and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the State will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise, and use taxes due under Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of State law or a provision of the Texas or United States Constitution in which the State has an overriding interest.

(3) A notice of disapproval to a city must give the reason for the determination of the Comptroller or Attorney General. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. A city, after one (1) year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in paragraph (1) of Subsection C of this Section, even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the city has previously given notice and the Comptroller or Attorney General has previously disapproved the suit.

(4) In any suit under this Subsection for the collection of city tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by another city or the State unless the State is a party to the action.

(5) A copy of the final judgment in favor of a city in a case in which the State is not a party shall be abstracted by the city and a copy of the judgment together with a copy of the abstract shall be sent to the Comptroller. The city shall collect the taxes awarded to it under the judgment as provided by Article 20.09(C)(4), Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and is responsible for the renewal of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by a city on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the Comptroller. The Comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by cities.

CHAPTER NINE. STREET IMPROVEMENTS

Article 1105b-4. Validation of Assessments and Reassessments for Street, Sewer and Water Improvements [NEW].

Art. 1105b-4. Validation of Assessments and Reassessments for Street, Sewer and Water Improvements

Sec. 1. In this Act, "highway" has the meaning given it in Section 2, Chapter 106, Acts of the 40th Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1927, as amended (Article 1105b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 2. This Act applies to:

(1) the levy of assessments or reassessments against property abutting a highway or portion of one and against the owners of the property for improvements to the highway or portion of it, where the city acted or purported to act under the authority of Chapter 106, Acts of the 40th Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1927, as amended (Article 1105b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);

(2) the levy of assessments or reassessments against benefitted property and the owners of the property for improvements to a sanitary sewer system or water system or both within the limits of the city levying the assessments or reassessments, where the city acted or purport-physical properties and revenues, the management and control of such system may by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance, be placed with the governing body of such city, or may be placed with a board of trustees to be named in such instrument, consisting of not less than three (3) nor more than nine (9) members, one (1) of whom shall be the mayor of such city. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such instrument, but shall never exceed two per cent (2%) of the gross receipts of such system in any one (1) year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such instrument. In all matters where such instrument is silent, the laws and rules controlling the governing body, of such city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. The governing body of any such city or any board of trustees in whose management and control any such system may be placed, with the approval of the governing body of such city, evidenced by adoption of a resolution, in lieu of operating any such system, shall have power and authority to enter into any lease or other contractual arrangement for the operation of same by any privately owned and operated corporation in consideration of such rentals either guaranteed or contingent, based on revenues or gross profits or net profits, or any other basis of compensation, which may be determined to be reasonable by such governing body or such board as the case may be; providing however, that any such lease or contractual arrangement between such city and private corporation, shall be preceded by a public notice and request for the submission of bids in the manner required by law for the taking of bids for public construction contracts, and said city shall accept the best bid submitted, taking into consideration the rental to be paid, the experience and financial responsibility of the corporations submitting such bids. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1187, ch. 445, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975.]

Art. 1118x. Metropolitan Rapid Transit Authorities
[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. The following words and terms, wherever used and referred to in this Act, have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) "Metropolitan area" means any area within the State of Texas having a population density of not less than 250 persons per square mile and containing not less than 51 percent of the incorporated territory comprising a city having a population of not less than 600,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future federal census, and in which there may be situated other incorporated cities, towns and villages and the suburban areas and environs thereof; provided, however, that bi-county metropolitan areas as subsequently defined herein, are not included or in any way affected by this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 2(b) to (g)]

Creation of Rapid Transit Authority

Sec. 3. (a) The governing body of a principal city in a metropolitan area may, on its own motion, and shall, upon being presented with a petition so requesting signed by not less than 5,000 qualified voters residing within such metropolitan area, institute proceedings to create a rapid transit authority in the manner prescribed in this section.

(b) Such governing body shall by ordinance or resolution fix a time and place for holding a public hearing on the proposal to create such an authority, which ordinance or resolution shall define the boundaries of the area proposed to be included in such authority. The initial territory included in an authority shall be all the territory included in the county in which the major portion of the principal city is situated.

(c) Notice of the time and place of such public hearing, including a description of the area proposed to be included in such authority, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in such metropolitan area, the first publication to be not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for such hearing. The governing body of any principal city shall furnish to the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or any successor thereof, a copy of the notice described herein.

(d) The governing body of the principal city shall conduct said hearing at the time and place specified in such notice, and may continue such hearing from day to day and from time to time until completed. Any interested person may appear and offer evidence for or against the creation of the proposed authority, and may present evidence as to whether or not the creation of such proposed authority and the construction and operation of a mass transit system in such metropolitan area

(1) would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority,

(2) would be of public utility, and

(3) would be in the public interest, as well as any other facts bearing upon the creation of such an authority and the construction and operation of such system.
Art. 1118x

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(e) If, after hearing the evidence adduced at such hearing, the governing body of the principal city finds that the creation of such an authority, and the operation of such a system, would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority, would be of public utility, and would be in the public interest, such governing body shall adopt an ordinance creating the authority and prescribing the territory to be included, but the actual territory included in the authority is subject to the results of the election provided for in this Act. The authority shall bear a name to be designated in the ordinance creating the authority and when so created and confirmed at an election held for that purpose, shall have and may exercise the powers authorized by this Act.

(f) After such hearing by the governing body of the principal city, it shall submit the proposed plan to the governor's interagency transportation council for their review and comment.

Transit Authority Board

Sec. 4. (a) Until such time as the composition of the board is changed in accordance with other provisions of this Act, the management, control, and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of five members, who shall be appointed by the governing body of the principal city and shall serve for a term of two years.

(b) All vacancies on the board, whether by death or resignation shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the manner provided for the original appointment. On expiration of the terms of office of the members of the board, all or any may be reappointed or another person may be appointed to replace a member for the succeeding term.

(c) Each member of the board shall be entitled to the sum of $50 for each meeting of the board which he attends, not to exceed five meetings in any calendar month; and shall be reimbursed for his necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties. Payment to members for attendance at meetings held before the authority has received any revenues, from taxes or otherwise, shall be deferred until funds become available to make the payment.

(d) The members of the board, who shall be resident citizens and qualified voters of the authority, shall elect from among their number a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary, except that if the board is constituted in the manner provided in Subsection (c) of Section 6B of this Act, the chairman shall be selected as specified in that subsection. The board may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the board, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretaries shall, in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the authority, perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the board. No member of the board or officer of the authority shall be pecuniarily interested or benefitted, directly or indirectly, in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(e) Any member of the board may be removed from office by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or malfeasance in office; provided, however, that the board shall furnish to such member a statement in writing of the nature of the charges as grounds for such removal which shall become final unless the member, within 10 days, requests a hearing before the board and opportunity to be heard in person or through counsel. After any such hearing, if the board by a majority vote finds that the charges are true, then its decision shall be final.

(f) The board shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the authority. Upon written notice, the chairman or the general manager may call special meetings as may be necessary. The board, when organized, shall by resolution spread upon the minutes, set the time, place and day of the regular meetings, and shall likewise adopt rules and regulations and such bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the board members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

Confirmation and Tax Election

Sec. 5. (a) After the original board is organized, at such time as it deems implementation of the authority to be feasible, it shall call a confirmation and tax election in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Before ordering an election the board shall by order entered in its minutes determine the nature and rate of any tax that it desires to levy.

(c) Before ordering an election, the board shall notify the commissioners court of the county of its intention to do so. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, the commissioners court by order shall create not more than five designated election areas in the unincorporated portion of the county. Each designated election area's outer boundaries, to the extent practicable, shall coincide with a boundary of a county voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided between two different designated election areas. The total area of all designated election areas shall include all of the unincorporated portions of the county.
(d) When the board orders a confirmation and tax election, it shall submit to the qualified voters within the authority the following proposition:

"Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax be authorized?"

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held under the provisions of this Act shall be furnished to the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or its successor.

(f) The election shall be conducted so that votes are separately tabulated and canvassed and that the result is declared in separate units of election within the authority, as follows:

1. The portion of the principal city inside the initial limits of the authority plus any incorporated cities or towns which are wholly located within the perimeter of the outer boundary of the principal city constitutes a unit of election;
2. Each designated election area created by the commissioners court constitutes a unit of election;
3. Every other incorporated city or town wholly located within the initial limits of the authority shall constitute a unit of election.

(g) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall return the results to the board, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results separately with respect to each unit of election. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall continue to exist and be comprised of those units. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is against the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall cease to exist. Unless the vote is favorable in the unit of election which includes the principal city, the authority shall cease to exist in its entirety. If the votes cast are such that the authority will continue to exist, the board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that the creation of the authority is confirmed and describing the territory which comprises the authority. A certified copy of the order shall be filed with the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or its successor and in the deed records of the county in which the authority is located.

(h) If the votes cast are such that the authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the board shall enter an order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the Texas Mass Transportation Commis-

Sec. 6. (a) The authority, when created and confirmed, shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including, but not limited to, the following powers granted in this section.

(b) The authority shall have perpetual succession.

(c) The authority may sue and be sued in all courts of competent jurisdiction and may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for costs and may appeal from a judgment or judgments without giving supersedes or cost bond.

(d) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, and may hold, use, sell, lease or dispose of, real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever, and licenses, patents, rights and interests necessary, convenient or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(e) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, own, operate and maintain a system or systems within its boundaries, and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns and villages and political subdivisions, and for such purposes shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, roads, highways and other public ways and to relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, and alter the construction of, any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, pipelines and facilities, conduits and facilities, and other properties, whether publicly or privately owned, as necessary or useful in the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance and operation of the system, or to cause each and all of said things to be done at the authority's sole expense. The authority shall not proceed with any action to change, alter or damage the property or facilities of the state, its municipal corporations, agencies or political subdivisions or of owners rendering public services, or which shall disrupt such services being provided by others, or to otherwise inconvenience the owners of such property or facilities, without having first obtained the written consent of such owners or unless the authority shall have first obtained the right to take such action under its power of eminent domain as herein specified. In the event the owners of such property or facilities desire to handle any such relocation, raising, change in the grade of, or alteration in the construction of such property or facilities with their own forces, or to cause the same to be done by contractors of their own choosing, the authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with such owners providing for the necessary relocations, changes or alterations of such property or facilities by the owners and/or such contractors and the reimbursement by the authority to such owners of the costs incurred by such owners in making such relocations, changes or alterations and/or in causing the same to be accomplished by such contractors.

(f) In the event the authority, in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, makes necessary the relocation, adjustment, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any street, alley, highway or road, any railroad track, bridge or other facilities or properties, any electric lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any telephone or telegraph lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any water, sanitary sewer or storm sewer pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any cable television lines, cables, conduits or other facilities or properties, or any other pipelines and any facilities or properties relating thereto, any and all such relocations, adjustments, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing of grade or altering of construction shall be accomplished at the sole cost and expense of the authority, and all damages which may be suffered by the owners of such property or facilities shall be borne by the authority.

(g) The authority shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space, or any combination thereof, provided that such right shall not be exercised in a manner which would unduly interfere with interstate commerce or which would authorize the authority to run its vehicles on railroad tracks which are used to transport property.

(h) Eminent domain proceedings brought by the authority shall be governed by the provisions of Title 52, Eminent Domain, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they now exist or hereafter may be amended, insofar as such provisions are not inconsistent with this Act. Proceedings for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be commenced by the adoption by the board of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by the authority of the property or interest therein described in the resolution, and that such acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement or development of the system and is in the public interest. The resolution of the authority shall be conclusive evidence of the public necessity of such proposed acquisition and that such real or personal property or interest therein is necessary for public use.

(i) The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with any other public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, or transportation system for the joint use of their respective facilities, installations and properties of whatever kind and character within the authority and to establish through routes, joint fares or transfer of passengers.

(j) The authority shall establish and maintain rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated or maintained by the authority which shall be reasonable and nondiscriminatory and which, together with receipts from taxes collected by the authority, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

1. to pay all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;
2. to pay the interest on and principal of all bonds issued by the authority under this Act which are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable;
3. to pay all sinking fund and reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out of such taxes and revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and
4. to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or with any person in their behalf.

(k) It is the intention of this Act that taxes levied and the rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in the resolution of the authority.
Subdivisions (1), (2), (3) and (4), Subsection (j) of this subsection, or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and all other obligations of the authority in connection with such bonds, are fully met and discharged.

(1) The authority may make contracts, leases and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons, and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditions, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. Any revenue bond indenture may provide limitations upon the exercise of the powers stated in this section and such limitations shall apply so long as any of the revenue bonds issued pursuant to such indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(m) The authority may sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests or properties which are not needed for, or, in the case of leases, which are not inconsistent with, the efficient operation and maintenance of the system. It may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, at any time, any surplus materials or personal or real property not needed for its requirements or for the purpose of carrying out its power under this Act.

(n) The authority shall by resolution make all rules and regulations governing the use, operation and maintenance of the system and shall determine all routings and change the same whenever it is deemed advisable by the authority.

(o) The authority shall have power to lease the system or any part thereof to, or contract for the use or operation of the system or any part thereof by, any operator; provided, however, that a lease of the entire system shall be subject to the written consent and approval of the governing body of the principal city.

(p) The acquisition of any land or interest therein pursuant to this Act, the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority’s system and facilities, and the exercise of any other powers herein granted an authority, are hereby declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity.

(q) The authority may contract with any city, county, or other political subdivision for the authority to provide public transportation services to any area outside the boundaries of the authority on such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties.

Sec. 6A. (a) Territory may be added to an authority only according to the provisions of this section.

(b) The governing body of any incorporated city or town wholly located within the county in which the authority is situated may hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall be annexed to the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town votes for annexation, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the city or town shall become a part of the authority.

(c) The commissioners court of the county in which is located the greatest geographical portion of the principal city may hold an election in any one or more of the designated election areas formed in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of this Act on the question of whether the area in which the election is held shall be annexed to the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in any area where such an election is held votes in favor of annexation, the commissioners court shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the area shall become a part of the authority.

(d) If a city or town which is a part of an authority lawfully annexes additional territory which is not a part of the authority, the annexed territory becomes a part of the authority.

(e) At the time territory is added to an authority under the provisions of this section, any tax which the board of the authority has already been authorized to levy applies to the added territory.

Sec. 6B. (a) If less than 50 percent of that part of the population of the county (the county in which the authority is situated) which is outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority shall consist of the original five members or their successors plus one additional member to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city within the authority as confirmed, and one other additional member to be appointed by the commissioners court of the county in which the authority is situated.
(b) If more than 50 percent but less than 75 percent of the population of the county outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority consists of the original five members or their successors, plus two additional members to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities, except the principal city, located within the authority, and two other members appointed by the commissioners court of the county. Population figures shall be computed on the basis of the last preceding United States census.

(c) If 75 percent or more of the population of the county outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board consists of 11 members, including the original five members or their successors, two additional members appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city located within the authority, three other additional members appointed by the commissioners court of the county, and one member, who serves as chairman, who is appointed by the other ten members.

(d) When this Act requires that the mayors of municipalities except the principal city appoint a member of the board, the mayor of the municipality of greatest population among the municipalities shall serve as chairman of an appointment board composed of the mayors of all appropriate municipalities and shall, by notice in writing to all members, call meetings of the appointment board as necessary to make the appointments. Appointments shall be made within 60 days after a position comes into existence or becomes vacant.

(e) The terms of office of additional members of the board appointed under the provisions of this section are two years, but the appointing agency may shorten the initial terms to make the expiration dates coincide with those of the previously existing positions.

(f) Vacancies on the board are filled by appointment by the same agency that made the original appointments for the vacant positions. Each member of the board whose term expires shall continue to serve until his successor has been appointed.

(g) In the event the membership of the board must be increased under the provisions of this section, the board as previously constituted may continue to act as the governing board of the authority until the additional members have been appointed and seated.

Bonds and Notes

Sec. 7.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(a) and (b)]

(c) In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes, such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber and pledge all or any part of the revenue realized from any tax which the authority is authorized to levy, and all or any part of the revenues of its rapid transit system or systems, and to mortgage and encumber all or any part of the properties thereof, and everything pertaining thereof to acquired or to be acquired and to prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds and notes in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. If not prohibited by the resolution or indenture relating to outstanding bonds or notes, any such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item or items of real estate or personalty, including motorbuses, transit cars and other vehicles, machinery and other equipment of any nature, and to acquire, use, hold or contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage or conditional sale, including, but not limited to, transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such authority from encumbering any one or more rapid transit systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, enlarging, extending, repairing or reconstructing, another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real, personal and mixed, in connection therewith.

(b) Bonds payable solely from revenues may be issued by resolution of the board, but no bonds, except refunding bonds, payable wholly or partially from taxes, may be issued until authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the authority voting in an election called and held for that purpose.

Motor Vehicle Emission Taxes

Sec. 8. (a) Subject to approval at an election, the board of an authority shall be authorized to levy and cause to be collected motor vehicle emission taxes as herein provided. No increase in taxes as originally authorized may be levied unless the increase is approved at an election. Such taxes shall be collected by the county tax assessor-collector of each county, situated in whole or in part within the authority from each motor vehicle owner whose residence is within such county and within the authority. Not later than November 1 of each year, the board shall certify to the county tax assessor-collector of each county situated in whole or in part within the authority’s boundaries the rate of tax prescribed for each class of motor vehicles for the ensuing tax year. At the time the owner of a motor vehicle applies each year to the State Highway Department through the county tax assessor-collector of the county in which he resides for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him for the ensuing or current motor vehicle registration year or unexpired portion thereof, such owner shall pay to the county tax assessor-collector the motor vehicle emission taxes due or to become due to such authority on such motor vehicle for the ensuing or current tax year at the applicable rate prescribed by the board. The county tax assessor-collector shall refuse to issue a registration license for a motor vehicle until the emission tax thereon for the period covered by such registration license has been paid.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8(b) to 11]

General Powers of Taxation

Sec. 11A. (a) In addition to or in lieu of the motor vehicle emission taxes provided for in this Act, the board of an authority may levy and collect any kind of tax, other than an ad valorem tax on property or sales or use tax, which is not prohibited by the Texas Constitution.

(b) No tax of any kind may be levied and collected by the board until a proposition proposing the tax has first been submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified electors of an authority voting at an election held by the board for that purpose. A separate proposition must be submitted for each kind of tax proposed, and propositions may be submitted in the alternative with provision for the method of determining the results of the election. Each proposition must include a brief statement of the nature of the proposed tax. The notice of the election must include a statement or description of the basis of or rate at which the tax is proposed to be levied. Any subsequent increase in a tax must also be approved at an election.

(c) Prior to an election to authorize a tax other than motor vehicle emission taxes or a sales and use tax, the board shall adopt a complete tax code and rules and regulations providing for the nature and amount of any tax with provisions for complete administration and enforcement, including the time and manner of payment, exemptions, liens, interest, penalties, discounts for advance payment, refunds for erroneous payment, fees for collection, collection procedures, manner of enforcement, required returns, registration and reports of taxpayers, the duties and responsibilities of tax officers and taxpayers, the delegation to tax officers to make additional rules and regulations and determinations and to obtain records as may be appropriate, and every other provision which may be determined to be desirable, including incorporation of any tax laws and remedies for the administration and enforcement that are available to the state or any political entities under general law.

(d) A tax code and rules and regulations may be amended by the board from time to time after an election approving a tax, but no amendment may increase the amount of a tax unless the increase is approved at an election.

County Authority to Contract with Authority

Sec. 15A. A commissioners court may contract with an authority for the authority to provide public transportation services to any unincorporated area outside the boundaries of the authority for a term and on those conditions as are determined to be desirable by the commissioners court and the board. The county may levy and collect taxes or pledge and encumber other receipts or revenues as may be required to make any payments to the authority under the provisions of the contract.

Elections

Sec. 15B. (a) This section governs all elections ordered by the board except elections held under the provisions of Section 5 of this Act.

(b) Notice of an election ordered by the board shall be given by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication in a newspaper with general circulation in the authority at least 21 days before the election.

(c) A resolution calling an election and the notice of the election are sufficient if the date and hours of the election, the voting places within voting precincts for the election, and the propositions to be voted on are specified. The board may define and declare voting precincts, determine the manner of absentee voting, and prescribe the election officers.

(d) As soon as practicable after an election, the board shall canvass the returns of the election and declare the results.

(e) Where not otherwise provided in this section, the general election laws apply.

Eligibility of Excepted Areas for Federal Funds

Sec. 17A. Ratification by referendum of a regional authority under the terms of this Act by less than all incorporated cities within the metropolitan area as defined herein shall not affect in any way the eligibility of such excepted incorporated cities to receive federal transit grants under the National Mass Transportation Assistance Act of 1974, or any subsequent federal statutes.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 1145. Quorum May Pass By-laws

The mayor shall be the president of the board of aldermen. At the first meeting of each new board of aldermen or as soon as practicable, the board shall elect one alderman to serve as president pro tempore for a term of one year and to perform the duties of the mayor in the event of the mayor's failure, inability, or refusal to act. The mayor shall, with three of the aldermen, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the mayor's absence, any four of the aldermen constitute a quorum. The quorum has the power to appoint any alderman as a presiding officer at any meeting at which the mayor and president pro tempore are absent. The quorum shall have power to enact such by-laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State as shall be deemed proper for the government of the corporation.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN. HOME RULE

Art. 1175. Enumerated Powers

Cities adopting the charter or amendment hereunder shall have full power of local self-government, and among the other powers that may be exercised by any such city the following are hereby enumerated for greater certainty:

[Text of subd. 35 as added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 235, ch. 89, § 8, eff. Jan. 1, 1976]

35. A home-rule city may adopt all buildings to be constructed in accordance with energy conservation standards included in the building code, if any. [Text of subd. 35 as added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 627, ch. 258, § 1] of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds less (a) the reasonable expenses of maintaining and operating said improvements and facilities, and said maintenance and operation expenses shall include, among other things, necessary repair, upkeep, and insurance of said improvements and facilities, and (b) if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter, any annual payment of the city as may be set out in said Charter. Revenue bonds issued hereunder may be sold at public or private sale, notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or Charter to the contrary.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN. MUNICIPAL COURT

PARTICULAR MUNICIPAL COURTS

Art. 1200bb. Midland

Creation; Formation by Ordinance

Sec. 1. There is created in the city of Midland a court of record to be known as the “City of Midland Municipal Court,” to be held in that city if the governing body of the city of Midland, by ordinance, finds and determines that the formation of a municipal court of record is necessary in order to provide a more efficient disposition of appeals arising from the municipal court.

The authority of the governing body of the city of Midland to create a municipal court of record in the city of Midland includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. If more than one municipal court of record is created, the judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and sit and act for and with each other in a case, matter, or proceeding pending in a municipal court, and any and all acts thus performed by a judge are valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, and proceeding.

The municipal court of record authorized in this section is referred to in this Act as the “municipal court.”

Sec. 2. The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts, and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of Midland relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judge; Qualifications

Sec. 3. The municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence in the city during his tenure of office. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not engage in the private practice of law while in office. He shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. He shall be paid a salary to be determined by the governing body of the city. The salary shall not be based on or in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body of the city shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Court Clerk

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and such deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel, including at least one bailiff for each court, as are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

Court Reporter

Sec. 5. For the purpose of preserving a record in the cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter, who shall be appointed by the municipal court judge and whose compensation shall be determined by the governing body of the city. The qualifications of the court reporter shall be determined by the judge, or if there is more than one judge, by the presiding judge.
Art. 1200bb  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  860

The record of proceedings may be preserved by the court reporter by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of them. The court reporter is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Ordinances; Judicial Notice

Sec. 6. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Appeal; Appellate Courts

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Midland County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Appeals on the Record; No De Novo Appeals

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after it is filed. The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court within 10 days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, he shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a less sum than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instantaneously, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) The municipal court clerk, upon written request from the defendant, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall always include the following:

1. the complaint;
2. material docket entries made by the court;
3. the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
4. the judgment;
5. the motion for new trial;
6. the notice of appeal;
7. all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
8. bills of exception, if any are filed.
(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court if so instructed in writing by either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.
Sec. 15. (a) A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial if such transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant; or

(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or

(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial.

(b) The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of his notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Filing of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Time Limits; Completion and Approval of Record; Transfer of Record to Clerk of Appellate Court

Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;

(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 13 of this Act; and

(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal: Contents and Filing

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals, except that the points of error on appeal shall be confined to those points of error set forth in the defendant's motion for new trial.

(b) The defendant shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within fifteen days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his briefs with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Procedure on Appeal: Review or Error

Sec. 18. The appellate court shall hear and determine appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal: Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 19. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against his property.

New Trial

Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals; Record

Sec. 22. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. The appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Sec. 23. All laws in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby conformed to the provisions of this Act.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 228, ch. 87, §§ 1 to 23, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 1200cc. Cities Over 1,200,000

Creation of Municipal Courts of Record; Vacation of Additional Municipal Courts

Sec. 1. (a) A municipal court of record is created in any city with a population of more than 1,200,000 as determined by the last preceding federal census.

(b) Additional municipal courts of record may be created and judges for such courts may be authorized in any city with a population of more than 1,200,000 as determined by the last preceding federal census by action of the governing body of the city through a legally adopted ordinance that specifies that the condition of dockets in the other municipal courts of the city is such as to require additional municipal courts in order to properly dispose of the cases on the dockets of these courts, and that enumerates the number of additional municipal courts necessary to properly dispose of those cases. Municipal courts that are in existence on the effective date of this Act and that were created pursuant to any Article in Title 25, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall on such date become municipal courts of record and may, subject to meeting other requirements provided by law for municipal courts, continue their operation under the authority of this Act without passage of such ordinance.

(c) After the establishment of an additional municipal court or courts, if the governing body of the city determines that the continued existence of some or all of the additional municipal courts is not required in order to properly dispose of cases on the dockets of all the municipal courts, the governing body shall by legally adopted ordinance declare the offices of some or all of the additional municipal judges vacated at the end of the term or terms for which such judge or judges were last selected. In that event, any cases pending in a vacated municipal court shall be transferred to the proper court having jurisdiction of the offense.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Municipal courts created under the provisions of this Act shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which the city is situated in criminal cases arising within such territorial limits under the criminal laws of this state in which punishment is only by fine not exceeding $200.

Judges; Additional Judges; Presiding Judge; Qualifications

Sec. 3. (a) Municipal courts shall be presided over by judges to be known as “municipal judges.”

(b) The city shall provide by charter or by ordinance for the selection of its municipal judges, provided the selection shall be for a definite term in office of not less than two nor more than four years, whose duration within these limits shall be determined by charter, ordinance, or the method prescribed in Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution. Any definite term or indefinite period in office that a municipal judge has begun on the effective date of this Act shall terminate no later than four years after such effective date. A municipal judge may continue in office after the end of his term for not more than 90 days or until his successor is selected and qualified, whichever occurs first.

(c) If there is more than one municipal judge in the city the mayor and city council of the city shall appoint one of the judges to be the presiding municipal judge of the city. If the city has a municipal judge who is either its only municipal judge or its only municipal judge who is not serving in a temporary or part-time capacity, such judge shall be the presiding municipal judge for all purposes of this Act.

(d) The presiding judge shall:

(1) maintain a central docket for all cases filed in the geographical limits of the city over which the municipal courts of the city have jurisdiction;

(2) provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket to the individual municipal judge in order that the business of the courts will be continually equalized and distributed among them;

(3) temporarily assign various judges of the municipal courts to exchange benches for other such judges and to sit and act for each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts, when necessary for the expeditious disposition of the business of the courts;

(4) cause all dockets, books, papers, and other records of the municipal courts to be permanently kept and permit these records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested party;

(5) cause to be maintained as part of the records of the municipal courts an index of municipal-court judgments such as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts; and

(6) where necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts, provide for the preservation by microfilm of the records of such courts, subject to the same requirements provided by law for the preservation by microfilm of records under the custody of county clerks.

(e) A judge of a municipal court created under the provisions of this Act shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state. No person may serve in the office of municipal judge while he holds any other office or employment in the government of such city, and the holding of such other office or employment by any person serving in the office of municipal judge shall create an immediate vacancy in the judicial office.

Sec. 4. A municipal judge is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based, directly or indirectly, on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his term of office. The governing body shall predetermine the salary of the municipal judge prior to his appointment, if he is appointed, or at least two weeks prior to the deadline for filing for election, if he is elected.

Sec. 5. (a) When a vacancy in the office of municipal judge occurs, the governing body of the city shall appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for such position to fill the office of municipal judge for the unexpired term of the judge serving in that office prior to the vacancy.

(b) While a municipal judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body of the city may appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for such position to sit for the regular municipal judge. The appointee shall have all the powers and duties of the office and shall receive the same compensation as is payable to the regular municipal judge while he is so acting.

(c) A municipal judge may be removed from office only under the procedures outlined in Article V, Section 1-a, of the Texas Constitution.

Sec. 6. The governing body of the city shall provide such courtrooms, juryrooms, offices and office furniture, libraries, legal books and materials, and other supplies and facilities as the governing body determines are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts.

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The county criminal court of such county where said court is situated shall have jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.
Art. 1200cc

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, he shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for less sum than $50.

The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant is in custody, he shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instanter, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts, which may be prepared by a certified court reporter of such court or from mechanical recordings of the proceedings or from video-tape recordings of the proceedings. If the court finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by defendant that he is unable to pay or give security for the record on appeal, the court will order the reporter to make such transcription without charge to the defendant.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) The municipal court clerk, upon written request from the defendant, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall include the following:

1. the complaint;
2. material docket entries made by the court;
3. the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
4. the judgment;
5. the motion for new trial;
6. the notice of appeal;
7. all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
8. bills of exception, if any are filed.

(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court prepared from mechanical recordings or video-tape recordings of the proceedings.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts; Agreed Statement; Designated Items and Payment

Sec. 15. A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(a) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings, in the case, as provided herein, that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial if such transcription is requested by the court reporter by the defendant; or

(b) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or

(c) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial; or

(d) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are prepared from the mechanical recordings or video-tape recordings of said proceedings.
Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;

(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 13 of this Act; and

(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the completion notification and approval in appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal: Contents and Filing

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(b) The defendant shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Disposition on Appeal: Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 18. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 19. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against his property.

New Trial

Sec. 20. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals: Record

Sec. 21. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. The appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the Court of Criminal Appeals.
Art. 1200cc CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES 866

Court Personnel

Sec. 22. (a) Each municipal judge in his discretion is authorized to appoint a court reporter to transcribe the trial proceedings, including testimony, voir dire examination, objections, and final arguments and shall appoint a court reporter when the defendant or the state requests it prior to trial. Each reporter shall be a sworn officer of the court, when transcribing testimony shall be well skilled in his profession. Each reporter shall be compensated by the city in such manner as the governing body of the city shall determine.

(b) It shall be the duty of the clerk to perform such clerical duties, insofar as they are prescribed by law for the municipal judge and for the county clerk of a county court at law.

(c) The governing body of the city shall provide the municipal courts with such other municipal court personnel as the governing body determines is necessary for the proper operation of the court. Such personnel shall perform their duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge to whom assigned. The governing body shall determine the salaries of such personnel.

Seal

Sec. 23. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court with a seal with a star of five points in the center and the words "Municipal Court in [City], Texas." The impress of the seal shall be attached to all papers, except subpoenas, issued out of the court and shall be used by each municipal judge or his clerk to authenticate all official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge.

Effective Date

Sec. 24. This Act is effective beginning January 1, 1976.

Repealer

Sec. 25. To the extent that any local, special, or general law, including Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975, conflicts with any provision of this Act, that law is repealed.

CHAPTER NINETEEN. ABOLITION OF CORPORATE EXISTENCE

Art. 1241a. Procedure for Abolition of Cities and Towns

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Petition and Election

Sec. 2. When four hundred of the qualified voters resident in any such city, town, or village desire the abolition of such corporation, they may petition the mayor to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such city, town, or village on the same date provided by law for the next general election for mayor therein. If a majority of the qualified voters resident in any such city, town, or village is less than four hundred in number, then the mayor shall order an election as above provided upon the presentation to him of a petition signed by two-thirds of the resident voters of such city, town, or village.

CHAPTER TWENTY. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art.

1267. Oil, Gas or Mineral Lands

Sec. 1. Cities and towns chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special Act or charter, which may own oil, gas or mineral lands, shall have the power and right to lease such oil, gas or mineral lands for the benefit of such town or city in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the governing body of such town or city may determine, but shall not lease for such purposes any street or alley or public square in said town or city; and no well shall be drilled within the thickly settled portion of any city or town, nor within two hundred feet of any private residence.

Sec. 2. If any portion of this Act is held unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining portion shall nevertheless be valid the same as if the invalid portion had not been a part thereof. A lease executed pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to be a sale within the meaning of the laws of this state relating to the sale of city land. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws which are by their terms expressly applicable to city land, and any such laws which are not by their terms expressly so applicable shall not be construed as affecting the right and power granted to towns and cities by this Act.

ART. 1269j-4.15. Park Purposes; Acquisition and Improvement of Property by Cities of 1,200,000 or More

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, including home-rule cities, having a population of 1,200,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census.

Acquisition, Construction and Improvement of Property: Operating Contracts

Sec. 2. Any such city is authorized to acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, any or all, property (real, personal, or mixed) and to construct or otherwise acquire, improve, and equip any property for park purposes, including, but not by way of limitation: establishing, acquiring, leasing, or contracting as lessee or lessor, purchasing, constructing, improving, enlarging, equipping, repairing, operating, or maintaining (any or all) golf courses, clubhouses, and pro shops, tennis courts, and facilities, swimming pools, marinas, recreation centers, rugby fields, baseball fields, zoos, clarification lakes or pools, park transportation systems and equipment, theaters, bicycle trails, multipurpose shelters, service facilities, and any other recreational facilities, all or any (hereinafter called "Facility" or "Facilities"), together with all necessary water, sewer, and drainage facilities, and to establish, acquire, lease, or contract as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or parking facilities to be used in connection with such Facilities for parking and storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances; and provided that any of such leases or contracts may be on such terms and conditions as said city shall deem appropriate. Also, such city shall have authority to enter into a contract or agreement under which the Facilities may be operated on behalf of the city, such operating contracts or agreements to contain such terms or conditions as said city shall deem appropriate. Each and all of the foregoing purposes are hereby found and declared to be public purposes and proper municipal functions.
Art. 1269j-4.15  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such taxes thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by or provided in the ordinance for operation and maintenance of such Facilities, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance that certain costs of operating and maintaining such Facilities, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax.

1 Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Fees, Rentals, Rates and Charges

Sec. 5. Each such city shall be authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of the Facilities in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the city.

Pledge of Revenues, income or Receipts; Mortgages or Deeds of Trust

Sec. 6. (a) The city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the Facilities.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the Facilities owned or to be acquired by the city and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The city may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 7. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose under any terms or conditions as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the city. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a city under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Examination, Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 8. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration, the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable for any reason and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposit of Public Funds

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons apparrent thereto.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided.

When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any law or home-rule charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 11. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Sec. 4. The following terms wherever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following meanings, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 4(a) to (w)]

(x) When this Act is applied to a county,
"mayor" means county judge, "city council" means the commissioners court, and the "city" means county, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Finding of Necessity; Powers of Counties

Sec. 5. (a) No city shall exercise any of the powerss conferred upon cities by this Act until after the City Council shall have adopted a resolution, after giving notice and ordering an election on the question of whether the City Council shall adopt such resolution, finding that: (1) one or more slum or blighted areas exist in such city; and (2) the rehabiltation, conservation, or slum clearance and redevelopment, or a combination thereof, of such area or areas is necessary in the interest of public health, safety, morals or welfare of the residents of such city. Such notice shall be published at least twice in the newspaper officially designated by the City Council and shall state that on a date certain, which date shall be stated in the notice and shall be not less than sixty (60) days after the publication of the first of such notices, the City Council will consider the question of whether or not it will order an election to determine if it should adopt such a resoolution. On the date specified in the notice to consider such question the City Council may, on its own motion, call an election to determine whether it shall adopt such a resolution and shall, in any event, call such election if there has been presented to it during such period a petition that such election be held, signed by at least five per cent (5%) of the legally qualified voters residing in such city and owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, duly rendered for taxation. If it be determined to call such an election, at least thirty (30) day's notice thereof shall be given. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no powers granted by this Act shall be exercised by any city until an election shall have been held as herein provided with a majority of the votes cast at such election being cast in favor of the exercise of such powers by such city. Only qualified voters residing in said city, owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be entitled to vote at such election. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall then be authorized to adopt it. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote against the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall not adopt it and such resolution shall not again be proposed within the period of one (1) year.

(b) Any county that has a population of more than 700,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may exercise all powers provided for cities under this Act. Those powers may be exercised only with respect to areas of the county not inside the corporate limits of a city or town. The county may not exercise any power under this Act unless the commissioners court adopts a resolution as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, the adoption of which has been first approved at an election. The election shall be held throughout the county in the same way an election is held in a city under Subsection (a) of this section. The adoption of a resolution is not approved unless a majority of the voters voting on the question in the entire county as well as in each incorporated city and town in the county approves adoption. In cities only partly in the county, only voters residing in the county may vote.

Art. 1269I-4. Community Development Act of 1975

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the “Texas Community Development Act of 1975.”

Public Purposes

Sec. 2. It is hereby found and declared that the activities specified in Sections 4 and 6 of this Act contribute to the development of viable urban communities by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment, and by expanding economic opportunities for eligible persons as defined by the federal Housing and Community Development Act of 1974; 1 and that the objectives of such activities are matters of public interest and legitimate public purposes for municipalities within this state.

¡42 U.S.C.A. § 5301 et seq.

Definitions

Sec. 3. In this Act:

(a) “Community Development Program” means a planned and publicized program of work designed to improve the living and economic conditions of primarily low and moderate income persons, and which includes any of the activities or functions specified for a community development program under this Act.

(b) “Governing body” means the governing body of any municipality in this state.

(c) “Municipality” means any city, town, or village incorporated under the laws of this state.

Powers of Municipalities; Limitations

Sec. 4. (a) Any municipality is hereby authorized to implement a community development program upon adoption by the governing body of an ordinance or resolution enacting the same.

(b) A community development program implemented by any municipality may include the following activities:

(1) the acquisition of real property, including air rights, water rights, and other interests therein which is blighted, deteriorated, deteriorating, undeveloped, or inappropriately developed from the standpoint of sound community development and growth; appropriate for rehabilitation or conservation activities; appropriate for the preservation or restoration of historic sites, the beautification of urban land, the conservation of open spaces, natural resources, and scenic areas, the provision of recreational opportunities or the guidance of urban development; to be used for the provision of public works, facilities, and improvements eligible for assistance under this Act, or to be used for other public purposes;

(2) the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or installation of public works, facilities, and sites or other improvements, including neighborhood facilities, senior centers, historic properties, utilities, streets, street lights, water and sewer facilities, foundations and platforms for air rights sites, pedestrian malls and walkways and parks, playgrounds, and recreation facilities, flood and drainage facilities, and parking facilities, solid waste disposal facilities, and fire protection services and facilities which are located in or which serve designated community development areas;

(3) code enforcement in deteriorated or deteriorating areas in which such enforcement, together with public improvements and services to be provided, may be expected to arrest the decline of the area;

(4) clearance, demolition, removal, and rehabilitation of buildings and improvements, including interim assistance and financing the rehabilitation of privately owned properties when incidental to other activities;

(5) special projects directed to the removal of material and architectural barriers which restrict the mobility and accessibility of elderly and handicapped persons;

(6) payments to housing owners for losses of rental income incurred in holding for temporary periods housing units to be utilized for the relocation of individuals and families displaced by program activities under this title;

(7) disposition, through sale, lease, donation or otherwise, of any real property acquired pursuant to this Act or its retention for public purposes;

(8) provision of public services not otherwise available in areas where other activities authorized under this Act are being carried out, if such services are determined to be necessary or appropriate to support such other activities, and/or if such services are directed toward improving the community’s public services and facilities, including those concerned with the employment, economic development, crime prevention, child care, health, drug abuse, education, welfare, or recreation needs of persons residing in such areas, and coordinating public and private development programs;

(9) payment of the nonfederal share required in connection with a federal grant-in-aid program undertaken as part of a local community development program;

(10) payment of the cost of completing a project funded under Title I of the federal Housing Act of 1949; ¹

(11) relocation payments and assistance for individuals, families, businesses, organizations, and farm operations displaced by activities assisted under this Act;

(12) activities necessary to develop a comprehensive community development plan, and to develop a policy-planning-management capacity, so that recipients of assistance under this Act may more rationally and effectively determine their needs, set long-term goals and objectives, devise programs and activities to meet these goals and objectives, evaluate the progress of such programs in accomplishing these goals and objectives, and carry out management, coordination, and monitoring of activities necessary for effective planning implementation; and

(13) payment of reasonable administrative costs and carrying charges related to the planning and execution of community development and housing activities, including the provisions of information and resources to residents of areas in which community development and housing activities are to be concentrated with respect to the planning and execution of such activities.

c) Any municipality may provide for and implement programs to provide financing for the rehabilitation of privately owned buildings through the use of loans and grants from federal money remitted to a municipality for the purposes of this Act; except that municipalities are prohibited from providing municipal property or funds for private purposes. Any program established for financing the rehabilitation of buildings from federal funds may prescribe procedures under which the owner(s) of such building(s) shall agree to partially or fully reimburse the municipality for the cost of such rehabilitation.

¹42 U.S.C.A. § 1450 et seq.

Required Procedures

Sec. 5. Prior to the exercise of powers established under Section 4 of this Act, the governing body of any municipality shall:

(a) identify areas of the municipality in which predominantly low and moderate income persons dwell, and set out within the community development program areas of the municipality where community development activities, building rehabilitation, or the acquisition of privately owned buildings or land are proposed to be undertaken; and

(b) adopt, by resolution or ordinance, a plan under which citizens may publicly comment on the proposed community development program; and

(c) conduct public hearings on the proposed community development program at least 15 days prior to its final adoption by the governing body; and

(d) adopt the provisions of the community development program by resolution or ordinance.

Limitations on Powers

Sec. 6. For the purpose of implementing any of the activities enumerated in Section 4 of this Act, compliance with Section 5 shall be sufficient; provided, however, that in no event shall a municipality implementing any of the activities enumerated in Section 4 have the power of condemnation for the purpose of rehabilitating or removing buildings or for the purpose of acquiring real property of any kind for the purpose of resale. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to grant municipalities the authority to implement an urban renewal project under the terms and provisions of the Texas Urban Renewal Law without an enabling referendum passed by the voters or to exercise powers of eminent domain as granted by the Texas Urban Renewal Law. In order to exercise such powers, the municipality must have adopted the provisions of the Texas Urban Renewal Law in the manner prescribed by such Act.

Continuation of Urban Renewal

Sec. 7. This Act shall not be construed to alter or change the status, operations, contracts, or obligations of any existing urban renewal agency adopted pursuant to the Texas Urban Renewal Law, nor should any provisions of this Act be construed as to prevent the governing body of any municipality from adopting the provisions of and authority granted under the Texas Urban Renewal Law.

Scope

Sec. 8. The powers of municipalities described in this Act are granted in addition to all other powers of municipalities, and are intended to be cumulative thereof.

Validation of Previous Proceedings

Sec. 9. All ordinances or resolutions heretofore passed and adopted by the governing body of any such municipality implementing a community development program as defined and authorized by this Act are hereby validated as of the date of such ordinance or resolution, and are declared fully enforceable to the same extent as if such ordinance or resolution had been passed in accordance with laws duly enacted by the legislature of this state specifically providing for the passage and adoption of such ordinances or resolutions. All governmental proceedings and acts heretofore performed by the governing bodies of such municipalities and all officers thereof in implementing a community development program as authorized by this Act are hereby ratified as of the date of such proceedings and acts.

Applicability to "New Towns"

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the use of the powers or federal funds referred to herein to establish any "new town" or "new town in town" pursuant to Title IV of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C.A. 3901 et seq.), Title VII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1970 (42 U.S.C.A. 4501 et seq.), or Section 107(a) of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C.A. 5307).

Severability

Sec. 11. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO. CIVIL SERVICE

FIREMEN AND POLICEMEN

Art. 1269m. Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service in Cities Over 10,000

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 8]

Cities of 1,200,000 or more, Educational or Training Incentive Pay

Sec. 8A. (a) In any city in this state having a population of 1,200,000 or more inhabitants, accord-intermediate and advanced certificates authorized by said commission. The City Council or legislative body may offer different amounts of incentive pay for different levels of certification.

(c) Education incentive pay shall relate to the successful completion of at least 60 semester hours in an accredited college or university with a minimum of 12 semester hours in fire science or other fire protection field of study, such as courses dealing with technical support and administrative staff services, having been completed. The phrase “technical support,” as used herein, shall mean fields of study which deal with fire suppression, fire prevention, fire prevention education, enforcement of building, fire, and other codes related to the protection of life or property, photography, arson or fire investigation, criminal identification, polygraph training, the technical phases of fire and emergency radio communication, and any other field of study relating to fire technical support which is directly related to the proper and efficient operation of the fire department as may be determined by the chief or head of such department. The phrase “administrative staff services” as used herein shall mean fields of study which deal with fire administration, fire personnel including nonclassified personnel, and fire training procedures including basic and in-service training. This phrase shall also include fields of study which deal with fire press relations, fire community relations, and any other administrative fields of study which may be directly related to the proper and efficient operation of the fire department as may be determined by the chief or head of such department.

Additional incentive pay may be offered upon the successful completion of 120 semester hours in an accredited college or university and the attainment of a bachelor's degree, provided that such degree is in connection with a major in fire science, fire protection, or any other field of study as fully described above.

Such training incentive pay shall relate to the successful completion of education, training, and experience and the successful achievement of additional certification by the Texas Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education. The phrase “additional certification” as used herein shall mean certification by the Texas Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education in excess of the basic fire fighter certification. This phrase is intended to include but is not limited to the intermediate, advanced, or other certificates authorized by said Commission. The City Council or legislative body may offer different amounts of incentive pay for different levels of certification.

2 See art. 4413(35).
CHAPTER THREE. CORPORATE RIGHTS AND POWERS

Art. 1580. Agents to Contract for County

Counties of 74,000 or more

"Section 1. (a) In all counties of this state having a population of seventy-four thousand (74,000) or more inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, a majority of a Board composed of the judges of the District Courts and the County Judge of such county, may appoint a suitable person who shall act as the county purchasing agent for such county, who shall hold office, unless removed by said judges, for a period of two (2) years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified, who shall execute a bond in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), payable to said county, for the faithful performance of his duties.

(b) It shall be the duty of such agent to make all purchases for such county of all supplies, materials and equipment required or used by said county or by a subdivision, officer, or employee thereof, excepting such purchases as may be lawfully made by competitive bid, and to contract for all repairs to property used by such county, its subdivisions, officers, and employees, except as by law are required to be contracted for by competitive bid. All purchases made by such agent shall be paid for by warrants drawn by the county auditor on the county treasurer of such county as in the manner now provided by law.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, other than such purchasing agent, to purchase any supplies, materials and equipment for, or to contract for any repairs to property used by, such county or subdivision, officer, or employee thereof, and no warrant shall be drawn by the county auditor or honored by the county treasurer of any such county for any purchases except by such agent and those made by competitive bid as now provided by law; provided that the county purchasing agent may lawfully cooperate with the purchasing agent for any incorporated city or cities in such county to purchase such items in volume as may be necessary, and the County Treasurer shall honor any warrant drawn by the county auditor to reimburse any city purchasing agent making such purchases for the county.

(d) On the first day of July of each year, such purchasing agent shall file with the county auditor and the county judge of such county an inventory of all property of the county and of each subdivision, officer, or employee thereof on hand, and it shall be the duty of the county auditor to examine carefully such inventory and to make an accounting for all property purchased or previously inventoried and not appearing in such inventory.

(e) In order to prevent unnecessary purchases, such agent shall have authority and it shall be his duty to transfer county supplies, materials and equipment from any subdivision, department, officer, or employee of the county when such supplies, materials, or equipment are not actually needed or used by such subdivision, department, officer, or employee that may require such supplies and materials, or the use of such equipment and such agent shall furnish to the county auditor a list of such supplies, materials, and equipment so transferred.

(f) Such agent shall receive as compensation for his services a salary of not less than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) per year, payable in equal monthly installments. The salary of the county purchasing agent shall be paid out of the General Fund and/or the Road and Bridge Fund of such county by warrants drawn on the county treasurer and shall be set by the Board as designated in Section 1(a) of this Act.

(g) Said agent may have assistants to aid in the performance of his duties as county purchasing agent.

(h) Said agent and said assistants may have such help, equipment, supplies and traveling expenses with the approval of said Board of judges, as they may deem advisable, the amount of said expenses to be approved by said Board."

CHAPTER FIVE. COUNTY SEATS

Art. 1605a. Branch Office Buildings in Cities of 15,000 or More Outside County Seat

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of each county of this State shall have the power and authority to provide, maintain, and repair an office building and/or jail in one or more cities, other than the county seat, having a population of Fifteen Thousand (15,000) or more, according to the last preceding federal census in the same manner as the Commissioners Court may now provide for and maintain a courthouse and jail at the county seat, and upon the acquisition or construction of such office building, the Commissioners Court may authorize, in the same manner as authorized by Article 1605, the maintaining of branch offices in each of said cities, except the District Clerk, County and District Judges, County Clerk, and County Treasurer, provided that all officers shall keep all original records at the county seat, and deputies may be provided as authorized by Article 1605. The Commissioners Court shall have the care and custody of such buildings and may place such limitations as it may see fit on the authorization and maintenance of branch offices.

Sec. 2. Said office building and/or jail may be provided for, maintained and repaired by the issuance of bonds as is provided by Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, and all amendments thereto, or to provide, maintain, the repair the same through the issuance of evidences of indebtedness in the same manner as courthouses and jails at the county seats, and the taxes may be levied therefor in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as for courthouses and jails at the county seat; provided, however, that the cost of any such office building and/or jail shall not exceed more than two percent of the taxable values of the county for the last preceding year.

Sec. 3. All acts heretofore taken and proceedings heretofore adopted by the Commissioners Court in any county providing for the purchasing of a site, and erecting and equipping an office building for county officers in any city other than the county seat of such county, all evidences of indebtedness heretofore authorized to finance the same, and all tax levies heretofore made in behalf of such evidences of indebtedness are in all things confirmed, approved and validated; provided, however, nothing in this Act shall validate any evidence of indebtedness the validity of which is in question in a court of competent jurisdiction on the effective date of this Act if the ultimate decision of the court is against the validity thereof.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 645, ch. 266, § 1, eff. May 20, 1975.]
TITLE 34

COUNTY FINANCES

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1644e. Fiscal Year [NEW].

2. COUNTY AUDITOR

Art. 1645e-3. Compensation of County Auditors in Counties of 90,000 to 97,500 [NEW].

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1644e. Fiscal Year

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of a county at a regular meeting may adopt an order making the fiscal year of the county a one-year period beginning on October 1 of each year.

Sec. 2. The fiscal year of a county is a calendar year unless the commissioners court has adopted a fiscal year that begins on October 1 pursuant to Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 3. If the commissioners court of a county adopts a fiscal year that begins on October 1, it may revert to a fiscal year based on a calendar year by adopting an order to that effect at a regular meeting.

Sec. 4. If a law prescribes a certain date or month each year for taking action with regard to a county budget, and the law is based on the assumption that the county fiscal year is a calendar year, in counties that have a fiscal year that begins on October 1 the law shall be construed as prescribing a date or month three months earlier than the date or month specified in the law.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1928, ch. 627, §§ 1 to 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

2. COUNTY AUDITOR

Art. 1645e-3. Compensation of County Auditors in Counties of 90,000 to 97,500

In all counties with a population of more than 90,000 but not more than 97,500, according to the last preceding federal census, the annual salary of the county auditor shall be in an amount determined by the district judge or judges having authority to appoint the county auditor, and shall not exceed the annual salary of the county judge.

Art. 1650a. Mileage Expenses

The commissioners court may reimburse the county auditor for expenses incurred in traveling to and from the county seat in his personal automobile to perform his official duties and to attend conferences and seminars relating to the performance of his official duties. However, the commissioners court may not reimburse the auditor for expenses incurred in traveling between his personal residence and county office, or for expenses incurred in any other travel of a personal nature. The commissioners court by order shall fix the rate of reimbursement, not to exceed 10 cents a mile. Reimbursement shall be made monthly from the appropriate county funds on submission of sworn expense reports by the county auditor.

In all counties having a population of 1,500,000 or more according to the last preceding or any future federal census, the commissioners court may reimburse the county auditor and his assistants for expenses incurred in traveling to and from the county seat in their personal automobiles to perform official duties and to attend conferences and seminars relating to the performance of official duties. However, the commissioners court may not reimburse the auditor or his assistants for expenses incurred in traveling between their personal residence and county office, or for expenses incurred in any other travel of a personal nature. The commissioners court by order shall fix the rate of reimbursement at a reasonable rate. Reimbursement shall be made monthly from the appropriate county funds on submission of sworn expense reports by the county auditor and his assistants.

Art. 1659a. Counties of 800,000; Bids for Supplies or Materials; Advertisement; Filing

In all counties having a population of eight hundred thousand (800,000) or more, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, supplies of every kind, road and bridge material, or any other material, for the use of said county, or any of its officers, departments, or institutions must be purchased on competitive bids, the contract to be awarded to the party who, in the judgment of the Commissioners Court, has submitted the lowest and best bid. Where the total expenditure for any such purchase or any such contract shall exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000), advertisements for bids for such supplies and material, according to specifications giving in detail what is needed, shall be made by the county purchasing agent once each week for two (2) successive weeks in a daily newspaper published and circulated in the county. Such advertisements shall state where the specifications are to be found, and shall state the time and place for receiving such bids. All bids shall be publicly opened on the day and time appointed. A copy of such competitive bids shall be kept on file after opening by the county auditor as a part of the records of his office, and shall be subject to inspection by anyone desiring to see them. All bids received shall be furnished by the county purchasing agent to the Commissioners Court; and when the bids received are not satisfactory to the Commissioners Court, the Commissioners Court shall reject that bid or bids and readvertise for new bids.

In the event of an emergency which precludes the obtaining of bids in accordance with the foregoing provisions, or in the case of a public calamity, where it becomes necessary to appropriate supplies or other materials to preserve the property of the county, or to relieve the necessity of its citizens, the Commissioners Court may by order specifically setting forth the nature of the emergency or public calamity permit the purchase of supplies, road and bridge materials, or any other materials without first taking bids in the manner described above.

All bids taken pursuant to the provisions of this article which shall exceed the amount of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) may be secured by a certified check, cashier's check, or a bid bond, in the amount of 5 percent of the amount of the bid, payable to the county and conditioned in the case of a bid bond that the successful bidder will supply the materials or supplies described in the bid. In addition, if so described in the specifications to which the bid is directed, a bidder shall condition the bid bond which shall be required in the specifications upon the further condition that the successful bidder will enter into a performance bond for the supplying of the supplies, road and bridge materials, or any other materials, if awarded the contract for which the bid is submitted. The bond, if one is required by the Commissioners Court, shall be in a sum equal to the amount of money to be paid by the county under the contract and shall be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in Texas and having an agent within the county, and having a capital stock of $100,000 or more. All bonds which may be tendered hereunder shall be filed with the office of the County Clerk.

2. LAW LIBRARY

Art. 1702j. Law Libraries in Counties of 700,000 to 1,000,000

Application of Act; Costs

Sec. 1. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining a county law library for each county coming within the terms of this Act, there shall be charged as costs, and taxed, collected, and paid as other costs, a sum to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court, of not more than $5, in each civil case, except suits for delinquent taxes, hereafter filed in every district or county court, including county courts at law, in each county having a population of not less than 700,000 nor more than 1,000,000, according to the last preceding federal census. In no case shall the county be liable for the cost imposed by this Act.

CHAPTER ONE. TERMS AND JURISDICTION

The Court of Civil Appeals for the Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District may transact its business at the county seat of any of the counties within its district, as the Court shall determine it necessary and convenient, providing that all cases originating in Nueces County shall be heard and transacted in such county.

[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2357, ch. 726, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Section 2 of the 1975 Act provided: “All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.”

CHAPTER TWO. CLERKS AND EMPLOYEES

Art. 1831a. Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District; Reproduction Recording and Retention of Records [NEW].

Plan for Reproduction

Sec. 1. The clerk of the court of civil appeals for the Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District may, pursuant to his duty to preserve:

(1) all records certified to his court,
(2) all papers relative thereto,
(3) all orders and opinions of the judges of said court, and
(4) all other documents of or proceedings in said court, provide a plan for the reproduction by microfilm or other process which correctly and legibly reproduces or which forms a medium of copying or reproducing all such records for which the said clerk is or may become responsible by law.

The plan shall be in writing and shall include provisions for maintenance, retention, security, and retrieval of all records so microfilmed or otherwise duplicated.

Requirements of Plan

Sec. 2. Any such plan shall provide for the following requirements:

(1) All original instruments and records shall be recorded and released into the file system within a specified minimum time period after presentation to the clerk.
(2) Original paper records may be used during the pendency of any proceeding.
(3) The plan shall include setting standards for organizing, identifying, coding, and indexing so that the image produced during the microfilming or other duplicating process can be certified as a true and correct copy of the original and may be retrieved rapidly.
(4) All materials used in the microfilming or other process which correctly and legibly reproduces or which forms a medium of copying or reproducing all records, as herein authorized, and all processes of development, fixation, and washing of said photographic duplicates shall be of quality approved for permanent photographic records by the United States Bureau of Standards.
(5) The plan shall provide for permanent retention of the records and shall provide security provisions to guard against physical loss, alterations, and deterioration.

Adoption of Plan

Sec. 3. The clerk may present such plan in writing to the justices of the court of civil appeals for the Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District. If a majority of such justices determine that the plan meets the requirements set forth in Section 2 of this Act, they shall so inform the clerk in writing, and the clerk may adopt the plan. The decision of the justices shall be entered in the minutes of said court, and thereafter all reproductions of original documents of said court made in accordance with the plan shall be considered to be the original records for all purposes and shall be so accepted by courts and administrative agencies in this state. All transcripts, exemplifications, copies, or reproductions on paper or on film of an image or images of any microfilmed or otherwise duplicated record shall be deemed to be certified copies of the original for all purposes.
Destruction of Original Records

Sec. 4. Upon certification of the clerk to the librarian of the state that all requirements have been met and are on record as provided by this plan, the clerk may destroy all records which have been filed with or left in the possession of the clerk in any hearing or proceeding in the court, including all original documents generated by the court in connection with said hearing or proceeding, after one year has elapsed following the time at which the judgment of said court of civil appeals has become final and times for appeal have expired without having perfected appeal, or mandate which is finally decisive of such matters has been issued, further providing, that after these requirements are reached and prior to actual destruction of the instruments and records by the clerk, any party or parties or the state librarian by petitioning the court may move for the return of such documents and records.

Repealer

Sec. 5. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1364, §§ 1 to 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
CHAPTER TWO. DISTRICT CLERK

Art. 1899b. Recording Proceedings of More Than One Court

Combining the Minutes: Civil and Criminal Separate

Sec. 1. (a) All district clerks who have duties in more than one district court are authorized to combine all the minutes of the civil business of the several courts into one record book.

(b) All aforesaid district clerks are also authorized to combine the criminal minutes in the same manner.

(c) The civil minutes are to be kept in a book separate from the criminal minutes.

Manner of Entry

Sec. 2. Entry of all business in the minutes of both the civil book and the criminal book are to be made sequentially, regardless of the district court from which the business originates.

[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1183, ch. 441, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975.]

CHAPTER THREE. POWERS AND JURISDICTION

Art. 1918a. Court Coordinator System in Counties over 700,000 [NEW]

The criminal district courts and the district courts of general jurisdiction giving preference to criminal cases in counties with a population in excess of 700,000 according to the last preceding federal census may establish and maintain a court coordinator system. The district courts shall, by rule, designate the duties to be performed by the coordinators to improve criminal justice and expedite the processing of criminal cases through the district courts. The court coordinators in each county shall cooperate with administrative judges and state agencies having duties in the area of the operation of the courts to promote uniform and efficient administration of justice in the state. The court coordinators serve by appointment of the district courts and at the pleasure of the district courts, and shall receive reasonable compensation to be determined by the judges of those courts, not to exceed 70 percent of the salary paid by the state to the judges of those courts. The district courts may appoint appropriate staff and supporting personnel according to the needs of each local jurisdiction. The commissioners court of each county shall provide from the fines and fees collected by these courts the necessary funding for the court coordinator system on order and directive of the district courts to be served, provided that if said fines or fees are insufficient to provide the total funding for this program the county shall provide the additional funds needed.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 589, ch. 240, § 1, eff. May 20, 1975.]

CHAPTER FIVE. CRIMINAL DISTRICT COURTS

JEFFERSON COUNTY

Art. 1926–63. Criminal Judicial District of Jefferson County

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

Sec. 4. (a) The Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County shall be commissioned by the Governor and may receive as compensation a salary in an amount not more than the total salary, including all supplements, paid to the highest paid district judge in the district. The salary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, to be paid out of the Officer's Salary Fund of Jefferson County if adequate; if inadequate the Commissioners Court shall transfer necessary funds from the General Fund of the County to the Officer's Salary Fund.

(b) Jefferson County shall receive annually from the State of Texas under the provisions of this Act an amount equal to the amount paid district attorneys by the State of Texas, and shall be paid by the comptroller of public accounts as appropriated by the legislature in 12 equal installments. Such funds shall be paid into the salary fund of Jefferson County.

(e) The Criminal District Attorney of Jefferson County shall not engage in the private practice of law in that he shall not appear and practice as an attorney at law in any court of record in this state except in behalf of the State of Texas or Jefferson County as herein provided.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1821, ch. 557, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
CHAPTER ONE. THE COUNTY JUDGE

Art. 1933a. Appointment of Special County Judges in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. The provisions of this Article apply only to counties in which there is no statutory county court at law or statutory probate court, and in which all duties of the county court devolve upon the county judge. The provisions hereof are cumulative of all other provisions of law for appointment or election of special county judges, and existing provisions are repealed hereby only to the extent of any conflict.

Sec. 2. The county judge may at any time appoint a special county judge, with respect to any pending matter, whether of civil or criminal nature, in accordance with the provisions following:

(a) Such action may be taken on the motion of any counsel of record in such pending matter, or on the court’s own motion.

(b) All counsel of record are entitled to notice and hearing on such motion.

(c) If the county judge finds that good cause exists therefor, he shall appoint a special county judge, at his discretion, except: (1) the person so appointed must be a duly licensed attorney at law; (2) the person so appointed must be the person agreed upon by all counsel of record in the pending matter, if they are able to so agree; and (3) due consideration shall be given by the court to such recommendations as may be made by the attorneys of such court for the further implementation of this Act and the accomplishment of the purposes hereof.

(d) The motion for, and order appointing, the special county judge, shall be noted in the dock- et, and may be reduced to writing and filed among the papers in the pending cause.

(e) Thereafter, the special county judge, while sitting in the matter in which he is so appointed, shall have and exercise all powers of a county judge in relation to the matter involved; and shall be entitled to compensation in such amount as the commissioners court of the county may provide.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., ch. 475, §§ 1, 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Section 3 of the 1975 Act, the emergency provision, provides, in part: “The purpose of this Act is to improve the administration of justice in county courts, in view of the problems inherent in the crowded condition of the dockets of constitutional county courts, in the numerous and diverse nature of other nonjudicial duties devolving upon county judges, and in the fact county judges are not required to be licensed attorneys although confronted by questions of increasing legal complexity.

Art. 1970-31.30. Retired Judges as Substitutes in Dallas County

Sec. 1. (a) When the regular judge of a county court at law, county criminal court, county criminal court of appeals, or probate court for Dallas County is absent or is from any cause disabled or disqualified from presiding, the presiding judge of the First Administrative Judicial District may appoint a retired judge to sit for the regular judge, provided the retired judge:

(1) voluntarily retired from office;
(2) resides within the First Administrative Judicial District;
(3) certifies his willingness to serve;
(4) has previous judicial experience; and
(5) otherwise meets the qualifications required of the regular judge.

(b) When the docket of a county court at law, county criminal court, county criminal court of appeals, or probate court for Dallas County becomes so excessive that the presiding judge deems it an emergency, he may appoint a retired judge who meets the qualifications set out in Subsection (a) of this section to sit for the regular judge for as long as the emergency exists.

Sec. 2. A retired judge appointed to sit for a regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall execute the bond and take the oath of office which is required by law for the regular judge for whom he is sitting.

Sec. 3. A retired judge appointed under the provisions of this Act has all the power and jurisdiction of the court and the regular judge for whom he is sitting and may sign orders, judgments, decrees, or other process of any kind as “Judge Presiding” when acting for the regular judge.

Sec. 4. A retired judge appointed to sit for the regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall receive for the services actually performed the same amount of compensation which the regular judge is entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid for such services shall be paid out of the county funds on certification by the presiding judge of the First Administrative Judicial District that the retired judge has rendered the services and is entitled to receive the compensation. No part of the amount paid to a retired judge sitting for the regular judge shall be deducted or paid out of the salary of the regular judge.
Sec. 5. The provisions of the Act are cumulative of all laws pertaining to the election or appointment of a special judge, and if, in addition to a retired judge appointed to sit temporarily for a regular judge, a special judge is needed, he shall be appointed or elected as now authorized by law.

Art. 1970-31c. Probate Court No. 3 of Dallas County

Sec. 1. There is created a county court to be held in and for Dallas County to be called the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County.

Sec. 2. Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County shall have the general jurisdiction of the probate court within the limits of Dallas County concurrent with the jurisdiction of the Probate Court of Dallas County, the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, and of the County Court of Dallas County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and administrative, settle accounts of executors, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings, and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law. It is the intention of this Act that the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County shall have the primary responsibility, at all times, for all mental illness proceedings.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County there shall be transferred to the docket of the court under the jurisdiction of the county judge and of the judges of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Dallas County and of the Probate Court of Dallas County and of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the Probate Court of Dallas County, in the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, and in the County Court of Dallas County as will equalize the number of such cases pending on the dockets of each of said four courts, with the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County having responsibility, at all times, for all mental illness proceedings. However, should an emergency or an overcrowded docket preclude the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County from effectively diminishing the number of mental illness proceedings before it, such cases may be transferred, with the concurrence of the judge of one or more of the other probate courts in Dallas County, to the dockets of one or more of the other probate courts of Dallas County. All writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of the Probate Court of Dallas County, Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, and County Court of Dallas County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County as though originally issued therefrom. All new mental illness proceedings filed on said day or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Dallas County irrespective of the court or judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by the clerk in the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County in the order in which the same are deposited with him for filing.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Dallas County shall retain as heretofore the powers and jurisdiction of the court existing at the time of the passage of this Act and shall exercise its own powers and jurisdiction as a probate court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those provided hereinafore to be transferred to and filed in the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County. The County Judge of Dallas County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Dallas County as they now exist shall be exercised by the County Judge of Dallas County except insofar as the same shall have been committed heretofore to the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, or to the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, or as the same shall by this Act expressly be committed to the Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County, the Probate Court of Dallas County, the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, the County Courts of Dallas County at Law Numbers 1, 2, 3, and 4, or any other County Court at Law of Dallas County heretofore or hereafter created.

Sec. 5. There shall be two terms of Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County in each year and the first term shall be known as the January-June term, which shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July, and the second of such terms shall be known as the July-December term and shall begin on the first Monday in July and continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of the court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County shall be well informed of the laws of the state and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state for not less than five consecutive years prior to his election. A judge of the court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County as soon as may be possible after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Dallas County a judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 90 and Article XVI, Section 65 of the Texas Constitution.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County by appointment of a judge of the court who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. In case of the absence, disqualification, or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County, the County Judge of Dallas County shall sit and act as judge of the court and may hear and determine either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of the court any matter or proceeding there pending and may enter such orders in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County, and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County on any matters or proceedings pending in any of the courts. In the case of the absence, disqualification, or incapacity of the County Judge of Dallas County, the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County, a special judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County may be appointed or elected as provided by the general laws relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

Sec. 11. The County Clerk of Dallas County shall be the Clerk of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County, Texas." The Sheriff of Dallas County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof.
The Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County shall have an administrative assistant to aid him in the performance of his duties. The salary of the administrative assistant shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 12. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to county judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of the court, all of which shall be paid by him into the county treasury as collected and from after the date of his qualification as Judge of said Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County he shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Dallas County which shall be the same salary as that paid to the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County.

Sec. 13. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict only. All other laws applicable to the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall be applicable to Probate Court Number 3 of Dallas County. As to all other laws and parts of laws this Act shall be cumulative.

TARRANT COUNTY CRIMINAL COURTS

Art. 1970–62d. County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County

Sec. 1. There is created a county court to be held in and for Tarrant County to be called the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County.

Sec. 2. The County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County shall have and same is vested with concurrent jurisdiction within the county of all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate, that is vested in the county courts having jurisdiction in criminal cases under the constitution and laws of Texas. Any appeals from convictions had under the laws of the State of Texas and ordinances of the municipalities located in Tarrant County in justice courts, corporation courts, and other municipal courts in the county may be transferred from the County Criminal Court No. 3 to the County Criminal Court No. 4 at the discretion of the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 and with the consent of the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4.

Sec. 3. The County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County and the practice therein and appeals therefrom shall be as prescribed by law relating to the county courts. The terms of the County Criminal Court No. 4 shall be held not less than four times each year, and the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County shall fix the time at which the court shall hold its terms until the same may be changed according to law.

Sec. 5. As soon as possible after the passage of this Act, there shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4, who shall be well informed in the laws of the state and who shall hold his office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor has qualified. At the next general election, there shall be elected a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 who shall hold office for the unexpired term. The judge of the court elected at the general election in 1978 and thereafter shall hold office for four years and until his successor has qualified. No person is eligible to be judge of the court unless he is a citizen of the United States and of this state who has been a practicing lawyer of this state or a judge of a court in this state for four years next preceding his appointment or election, and who shall have resided in the County of Tarrant for two years next preceding his appointment or election.

Sec. 6. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 7. A special judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County may be appointed or elected as provided by the laws relating to County Courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 8. The County Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County. The seal of the court shall be the same as provided for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "The County Criminal Court No. 4, Tarrant County, Texas." The sheriff of Tarrant County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 9. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County shall collect the same fees provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the county treasury. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 shall receive the same compensation as provided by law and fixed by the commissioners court for the judges of the County Criminal Courts Nos. 1, 2, and 3 of Tarrant County, to be paid monthly out of the county treasury by the commissioners court. The judge shall not engage in the practice of law while in office.

Sec. 10. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 11. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the court, jury, and parties, the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the court, and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. The provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for the district courts shall apply in all their provisions, insofar as they are applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and the reporter is entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and shall take the same oath as provided for the stenographers of district courts of this state, and shall be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the district courts of this state.

Sec. 12. After this Act becomes effective, the judges of the County Criminal Courts Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 of Tarrant County shall make a just and fair division of the cases pending on the dockets of the County Criminal Courts Nos. 1, 2, and 3, and after such division is made the clerk shall transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County all cases allotted to the County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County in the division so made by the judges. Thereafter, the judge of a county criminal court in Tarrant County may, in his discretion, transfer any cause that may at any time be pending in his court to the other courts by an order or orders entered in the minutes of his court. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred. The judge of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispose of the cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in that court. In cases transferred to any one of the county criminal courts in Tarrant County, as provided in this Act, all process extant at the time of the transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 13. The judges of the County Criminal Courts Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 of Tarrant County may, in their discretion, exchange benches and sit and hear cases in the court in which the case or proceeding is then pending, and try or otherwise dispose of same.

HARRIS COUNTY

Art. 1970-110a.2. Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

Sec. 4. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court, under the direction of the County Judge and by order entered on the Minutes of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the County Court of Harris County, Texas, as shall be, as near as may be, four-fifths in number of the total of all of same then pending, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said County Court of Harris County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day, or thereafter filed, with the County Clerk of Harris County, irrespective of the Courts or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk alternately in said Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County and said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County in the order in which the same are deposited with said Clerk for filing, beginning first with the Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County, filing the next with the Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, and continuing alternately thereafter, and further, said Clerk shall keep separate dockets for each of said Courts. The County Judge of Harris County, in his discretion, may, by an order entered upon the Minutes of the County Court of Harris County, on or after the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County, transfer to said Probate Court No. 2 any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending in the County Court of Harris County and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made. Each of the Judges of the County Court and said Probate Courts Nos. 1 and 2 may, at any time, with the consent of the Judge of the County Court or the Judge of the Probate Court to which transfer is to be made by an order entered upon the Minutes of the County Court or of such Probate Court of Harris County, transfer to said County Court or other Probate Court any such matter or proceeding then or thereafter pending in such County or Probate Court of Harris County, and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returnable to and filed in the County Court or the Probate Court to which such transfer is made and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the County Court or the Probate Court to which such transfer may be made.

Art. 1970-110c.3. County Criminal Court at Law Nos. 8 and 9

(a) There are hereby created two courts to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the “County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County, Texas,” and the “County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County, Texas.”

(b) The County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 8 and 9 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and they are hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Harris County, and the judges of said courts shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided that said courts shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the judge thereof.

(c) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County, Texas, and a judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and shall serve until the next general election and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified.
At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Harris County a judge of each of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 8 and 9 of Harris County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65 of the Texas Constitution. The judge shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this state for not less than five years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court in equal monthly installments; but such judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case, as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County, Texas, or in the office of the judge of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County, Texas, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Said courts or the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction.

(d) The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 8 and 9 of Harris County, Texas, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to official shorthand reporters shall and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporters herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporters shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the district courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Harris County is paid.

(e) The district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County, Texas, and of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County, Texas. The district clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas.

(f) The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said courts when required by the judges thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this state executing process issued out of said courts shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

(g) The seals of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 8 and 9 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seals shall contain the words “County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County, Texas,” and the words “County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County, Texas,” respectively, and said seals shall be judicially noticed.

(h) A special judge of each of said courts may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

(i) The terms of the courts hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February, and April of each year. The sessions of said courts shall be held in such places as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

(j) When this Act becomes effective, the district clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall alternately file the first 200 cases to be filed in the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 8, and the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 9, with 100 cases being filed in each of the two said courts. Thereafter, cases shall be filed in rotation so thereafter of every 9 cases filed, each of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 shall each receive one case.

(k) The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 8 and 9 of Harris County, Texas, may exchange benches with each other and with the judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, in the same manner that the judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Harris County, Texas, are authorized to exchange benches. The judges of the County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 of Harris County, Texas, may transfer criminal causes between said courts by entry of an order on the docket of the court from which the cause is transferred, provided that no cause shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

(l) The practice in said County Criminal Courts at Law Nos. 8 and 9 and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts.

(m) In cases transferred to any one of the County Criminal Courts at Law of Harris County, Texas, as provided in this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer shall be made.

PARTICULAR COUNTY COURTS

Art. 1970–310. Other Acts Creating or Affecting Jurisdiction of Particular County Courts

POTTER COUNTY

Art. 1970–311b. County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County

Text of article effective Jan. 1, 1977

Sec. 1. There is created a court to be held in Amarillo, Potter County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Potter County and the County Court at Law of Potter County in all matters and causes, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of this state, county courts have jurisdiction. This provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge of Potter County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the judge of Potter County.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice courts in all civil matters which by the general laws of this state is conferred on justice courts. Neither the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County nor the judge thereof shall have jurisdiction to act as a coroner or to preside at inquests, or have jurisdiction of claims which come within the jurisdiction of the Small Claims Court as prescribed by Chapter 309, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, as amended (Article 2460a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 4. No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from any final judgment of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County in civil cases of which the court had appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice court where the judgment or amount in controversy would not exceed $100, exclusive of interest and costs.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed to deprive the justice courts of jurisdiction now conferred on them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County over such matters as are specified in this Act; nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of an appeal to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County from the justice court, where the right of appeals to the county court now exists by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court of Potter County shall retain the general jurisdiction of a probate court. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the court, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by general law governing county courts throughout the state. The County Judge of Potter County shall be the judge of the County Court of Potter County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Potter County except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judges of the County Courts at Law of Potter County.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the county courts. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Potter County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Potter County.

Sec. 8. No person may be elected or appointed judge of the court who is not a resident citizen of Potter County. He also shall have been a licensed attorney of the State of Texas for at least four years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected judge shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The County Attorney of Potter County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 10. As soon as this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Potter County shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Potter County a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. The commissioners court shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of the court.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 13. A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive a sum of money for each day he actually serves equal to the compensation for each day paid to the regular judge of County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the commissioners court.

Sec. 14. In the case of the disqualification of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try the case or cases in which the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County is disqualified. In case of the selection of a special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, the special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 13 of this Act.

Sec. 15. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law No. 2.

Sec. 16. The county clerk of Potter County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County.”

Sec. 17. The sheriff of Potter County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 18. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Potter County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County and the judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of the county courts at law or county court may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to one of the other courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. On concurrence of the judges of the county courts at law of Potter County and the judge of the county court of Potter County, jurors may be summoned for service in all county courts and shall be used interchangeably in all such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect shall be as valid as if no change had been made, and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of the courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 19. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County shall be filled by the commissioners court, and when so filled the judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

Sec. 20. The judges of the County Court at Law of Potter County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County may each be paid an annual salary of not more than the total salary paid any District Judge in and for Potter County to be paid out of the general fund of Potter County by the County Treasurer of Potter County, on the order of the commissioners court of the county.

Sec. 21. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as specified in Section 20 of this Act.

Sec. 22. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. The reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Potter County to be paid out of the county treasury of Potter County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters are hereby made to apply in all provisions, insofar as they are applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 23. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County.

Sec. 24. The County Clerk of Potter County shall distribute the cases filed, both civil and criminal. All cases with even numbers shall be filed and docketed in the County Court at Law of Potter County and all cases with odd numbers shall be filed and docketed in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County. With the consent of the judge of the court to which a case is transferred, the judge of either county court at law or the county court shall have the power to transfer to the other courts any case pending upon the docket of his court over which the courts have concurrent jurisdiction, except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted. The judges of the county courts at law may, in their discretion, exchange benches and sit and hear cases in the court in which the case or proceeding is then pending, and try or otherwise dispose of same.

Sec. 25. The effective date of this Act is January 1, 1977.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 15]

Sec. 16. (a) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may receive an annual salary up to an amount equal to the total annual salary of the County Attorney of Grayson County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Grayson County, Texas, on the order of the Commissioners Court of said County, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the County Judge's fee, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Section.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may not actively engage in the private practice of law while serving as judge of the county court at law.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 17 to 20]

Art. 1970-332a. County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County

Sec. 1. On the date determined by the provisions of Section 19 of this Act, there is created a court to be held in Sherman, Grayson County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County shall have and exercise the jurisdiction in all matters and cases, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of this state county courts have jurisdiction, and has jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court at Law of Grayson County in matters and cases, civil and criminal, original and appellate.

The County Court of Grayson County shall have and retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a probate court and has jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County in probate matters and cases. The provisions of this Act do not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court nor of the County Judge of Grayson County as presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, or matters which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge of the County Court of Grayson County. The County Judge of Grayson County shall be the judge of the county court of the county, and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Grayson County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law.

Sec. 4. (a) The County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice courts in all civil and criminal matters which by the general laws of this state are conferred upon justice courts.

(b) No appeal or writ of error shall be taken to the court of civil appeals from any final judgment of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County in civil cases of which the court has appellate or original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice court, where the judgment or amount in controversy does not exceed $100, exclusive of interest and costs.

(c) This Act shall not be construed to deprive the justice courts of the jurisdiction now conferred upon them by law, but only to give concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County over such matters as are specified in this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to deny the right of appeal to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County from the justice court where the right of appeal to the county court now exists by law.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County, and the practice therein, and the appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to county courts. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County shall be held in the Courthouse of Grayson County, and shall begin on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October, and December of each year, and shall continue in session until the Saturday before the first Monday in
Sec. 6. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County shall be a qualified voter in Grayson County, shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this state, shall be a resident of Grayson County, and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than one year next preceding his appointment or election.

Sec. 7. At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, a judge shall be elected for a regular four-year term by the qualified electors of Grayson County.

Sec. 8. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County may be filled by the commissioners court, and when so filled the judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. In the case of the disqualification of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 in any case pending in this court, the county judge or the judge of the County Court at Law of Grayson County may sit in such case, or, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases; and in default of such agreement a majority of the practicing lawyers of Grayson County shall elect a judge to try such cases where the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 is disqualified.

Sec. 10. (a) The judges of the county court and the county courts at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(b) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of one of the other courts, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken before the transfer, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 11. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County, or the judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction to the County Court at Law No. 2.

Sec. 12. The County Attorney of Grayson County shall represent the state in all prosecutions pending in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Grayson County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County."

Sec. 14. The jurisdiction or authority now vested by law in the county court for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County.

Sec. 15. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County may receive an annual salary up to an amount equal to the total annual salary of the County Attorney of Grayson County to be paid out of the county treasury of Grayson County on the order of the commissioners court of the county, and the salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the county judge's fee, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as specified in this section.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County may not actively engage in the private practice of law while serving as judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 16. All cases appealed from the justice court and other inferior courts in Grayson County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Grayson County or the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County, under the provisions heretofore governing such appeals.

Sec. 17. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes.
as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 18. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for his court in the manner now provided for district courts in this state who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not more than the compensation paid the official shorthand reporters of the district courts of Grayson County. The salary shall be fixed, determined, set, and allowed by the commissioners court of Grayson County, and shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statement of facts, and all other fees. The salary when so fixed and determined by the commissioners court shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, or the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the commissioners court, in the same manner as salaries of other county officers are paid. From and after passage of this Act, all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in district courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the commissioners court of Grayson County.

Sec. 19. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County is created on January 1, 1979, or on a date determined by the Commissioners Court of Grayson County by an order entered on its minutes, whichever date is earlier. If the County Court at Law No. 2 is created on January 1, 1979, the office of the judge is initially filled by the judge elected at the general election in 1978. If the County Court at Law No. 2 is created on an earlier date by order of the commissioners court, the governor shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and has qualified.

HILL COUNTY

Art. 1970–333. Hill County; Jurisdiction; Clerk’s Duties; Shorthand Reporter; County Attorney’s Duties

Sec. 1. The County Court of Hill County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate Court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compus mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compus mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such Court; to conduct lunacy hearings; to apprentice minors as provided by law, and to issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; to punish contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by General Law governing County Courts throughout the State; and in addition thereto, the County Court of Hill County and the Judge thereof, subject to the conditions stated in this Act, shall have jurisdiction over matters of original civil jurisdiction, original criminal jurisdiction, appellate civil jurisdiction, and appellate criminal jurisdiction as are normally exercised by County Courts under the Constitution and General Laws of this State; provided, however, that all future Statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, shall be operative in said Hill County as fully as though this Statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. The Judge of the 66th District Court in Hill County will be the presiding Judge, insofar as the District Court and the county court are concerned, over original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters in causes over which by the laws of this State the County Court of Hill County would have original or appellate jurisdiction; and all such causes will be filed with the District Clerk of Hill County in the District Court. The Judge of the District Court may, in his discretion, assign to the County Court of Hill County, for trial and disposition, cases, or portions of cases, of original and appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters and causes over which, by the General Laws of this State, the County Court of Hill County would have original or appellate jurisdiction. The assignments shall be made by docket notation. The purpose and intent of this Statute is to vest the 66th District Court and the County Court of Hill County with concurrent jurisdiction over matters of original and appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters over which, by the General Laws of this State, the County Court of Hill County would have original or appellate jurisdiction, subject to the control over assignments of the cases, or parts of the cases, by the District Court, as provided in this section.

Sec. 3. The District Clerk of Hill County shall continue to perform all the clerical functions of the County Court of Hill County as to all matters and causes over which the District Court and County Court have concurrent jurisdiction, as provided in this Act. Insofar as all cases over which the District Court and County Court have concurrent jurisdiction, the Clerk shall charge fees at the rate set by law for County Court cases.
Sec. 4. The Judge of the County Court of Hill County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for his Court in the manner provided for District Courts in this State, who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. In addition to transcript fees, fees for statement of facts and all other fees, the official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Hill County in an amount not more than the compensation paid the official shorthand reporter of the District Court in Hill County and to be paid out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court, in the same manner as salaries of other County officers are paid. All provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in District Courts shall in all respects govern, except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter shall be fixed and determined by the Commissioners Court of Hill County.

Sec. 5. The duties of the County Attorney of Hill County shall not be changed or affected by this Act, and the County Attorney shall perform the same duties as were performed prior to the passage of this Act.

Art. 1970-348a. County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County

Sec. 1. There is created a court to be held in Tyler, Smith County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County shall have jurisdiction in all matters, causes, and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of this state county courts have jurisdiction, and jurisdiction of the County Court at Law No. 2 is concurrent with that of the County Court of Smith County and the County Court at Law of Smith County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Smith County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court. The County Judge of Smith County shall be the judge of the County Court of Smith County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Smith County, except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County shall be the same as the terms of the County Court of Smith County and may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Smith County.

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years, shall be well-informed in the laws of the state, and shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Smith County, Texas, for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Smith County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of the court. The judge appointed serves until the general election in 1976, and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 for a term ending on December 31, 1978. At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall be elected for a regular four year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Smith County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.
Sec. 6. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive for each day he actually serves the same compensation as provided for a special judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the commissioners court.

Sec. 9. In the case of the disqualification of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try the case or cases where the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County is disqualified. In case of the selection of a special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, the special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided for a special judge in the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 10. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction to the county court at law. The County Court at Law No. 2, or the judge thereof, shall also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

Sec. 11. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may sit in the absence from the courtroom of the County Judge of Smith County in all matters, causes, and proceedings without the necessity of transferring those matters, causes, and proceedings, except matters coming under the jurisdiction of the commissioners court where the county judge would be the presiding officer of that court.

(b) The county judge, if a duly licensed attorney, may sit in the absence from the courtroom of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 in all matters and causes without the necessity of transferring those matters and causes. The judges of the county courts at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other without the necessity of transferring the case involved.

(c) Except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted, the judges of the county court and the county courts at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(d) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of one of the other courts, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken before the transfer, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 12. The Criminal District Attorney of Smith County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Smith County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County.”

Sec. 14. The Sheriff of Smith County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 15. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Smith County, and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County and the judge thereof. Jurors and talesmen summoned for either of the county courts at law or the county court may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other courts for service and may be used as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. On concurrence of the judges of the county courts at law and the judge of the County Court
Court of Smith County, jurors may be summoned for service in all of those courts and shall be used interchangeably in all such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of the courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 16. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure, and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County.

Sec. 17. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County shall receive an annual salary equal to the annual salary of the judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County as set by the commissioners court, to be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the commissioners court. The salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

Sec. 18. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. The reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Smith County to be paid out of the county treasury of Smith County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 19. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County, with the consent of the commissioners court, may employ a secretary. The secretary is entitled to a salary as determined by the commissioners court.

Sec. 20. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. The reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Smith County to be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the commissioners court. The salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this section.

Sec. 1A. The name of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Bell County is changed to County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County, and all laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by the Legislature applicable or relating to the County Court at Law of Bell County shall hereafter be applicable and shall relate to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County.

Sec. 1B. The county judge of the County Court of Bell County shall receive an annual salary of $7,500, and all laws relating to county judges shall hereafter be applicable to and relate to the County Court of Bell County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County.

Art. 1970–350a. County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County

Sec. 1. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County is created.

(b) The County Court at Law No. 2 has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Bell County and the County Court at Law of Bell County.

(c) The County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(d) The County Judge of Bell County is the Judge of the County Court of Bell County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Bell County unless by this Act committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of Bell County, by order duly entered of record, shall prescribe not less than four terms each year for the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County.
Sec. 3. (a) As soon as practicable after this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Bell County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County. The judge appointed serves until January 1, 1977, and until his successor has qualified. At the general election in 1976, a successor shall be elected to serve until January 1, 1979. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Bell County a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than three years, be well informed in the laws of this state, and must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Bell County for a period of not less than two years prior to his election or appointment. During his term of office the Judge may not appear and plead as an attorney at law in any court of record in this state.

(c) If any vacancy occurs in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, the commissioners court shall appoint the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2, who must have the same qualifications prescribed in Subsection (b) of this section, and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

(d) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall receive a salary in an amount determined by the commissioners court not to exceed the salary prescribed by the commissioners court for the County Judge of Bell County. Such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(f) A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

(g) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Bell County, and for this additional work as a member of the juvenile board he shall be allowed compensation in like manner as other members of said juvenile board, such compensation to be determined and fixed by order of the commissioners court and to be paid in addition to any other compensation to which he is entitled under the provisions of law.

Sec. 4. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Bell County, Texas, shall serve as County Attorney, Clerk, and Sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Bell County.

(b) The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bell County.

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Bell County.

(b) The Judge of each of the County Courts at Law or the County Court of Bell County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any cause, civil or criminal, on his docket to the docket of either of those courts, and the judges of those courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time. Whenever a judge of one of those courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case from his court to one of the other courts, and either judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either of the county courts at law or the county court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other court and there hear and determine any case there pending, and each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The judges may try different cases in the same court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any county court at law or the county court. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of the judge of either of the county courts at law or the county court, either of the other judges may hold court for him. Either of the judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of the county courts at law or the county court and determine the same or may hear and determine any question in any case, and either judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case. In cases transferred to one of the county courts at law or the county court by order of the judge of one of the other courts, all process, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as fixed by law and by this Act. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken in the cases, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the District Courts of Bell County, Texas, may at the request of either the Judge of the County Court, the County Court at Law, or the County Court at Law No. 2 be made available by the district judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either the County Court, the County Court at Law, or the County Court at Law No. 2.

BRAZOS COUNTY

Art. 1970-359. County Court at Law of Brazos County

[Text of article effective Jan. 1, 1977]

Sec. 1. On January 1, 1977, the County Court at Law of Brazos County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, original and appellate, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, prescribed by law for county courts.

(b) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Brazos County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Brazos County in probate, administrations, guardianship, and mental illness proceedings. The County Court of Brazos County shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Brazos County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court.

(c) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases, in juvenile proceedings if designated to serve as juvenile court, and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

(d) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(e) The County Judge of Brazos County is the judge of the County Court of Brazos County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Brazos County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Brazos County are the same as those for the County Court of Brazos County.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Brazos County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Brazos County, and actively engaged in the practice of law in Brazos County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Brazos County a judge of the court created by this Act for a two-year term beginning on January 1, 1977. Every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected by the qualified voters of Brazos County for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Brazos County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Brazos County shall receive a salary to be determined by the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, in an amount not less than the salary of the county judge of Brazos County and to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner as other county officials. He shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The commissioners court shall provide adequate courtroom and office space for the judge of the County Court at Law of Brazos County.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff in Brazos County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Brazos County. They shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Brazos County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Brazos County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Brazos County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Brazos County shall conform to that prescribed by law for county courts.

(b) After the effective date of this Act, all cases of concurrent jurisdiction provided for in this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the courts having concurrent jurisdiction.

(c) The Judge of the County Court at Law of Brazos County or the Judge of the County Court of Brazos County may, in his discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on his own motion, transfer any probate matter on his docket to the docket of the other court. The judges of the courts may, in their discretion, in any probate matter exchange benches from time to time. Whenever a judge in one of the courts is disqualified in a probate matter, he shall transfer the matter from his court to the other court. Either judge may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any probate matter pending in either court, without having the case transferred, or may sit in the other court and there hear and determine any probate matter there pending. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the matter is pending. The judges may try different probate matters in the same court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the courtroom of the other. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either judge, the other judge may hold court for him in any probate matter. Either of the judges may hear any part of or question in any probate matter pending in either of the courts and determine the matter or question. Either judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case. In any matter transferred by order of the judge of one of the courts, all process, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the matter shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the matter shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the matter is transferred to as are fixed by law and by this Act. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the matter as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer may be made.
Sec. 7. (a) The laws that govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court may, on request of the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 110, ch. 50, eff. Jan. 1, 1977.]

Section 8 of the 1975 Act amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 4, ch. 2 (art. 1970-310 note) and § 9 thereof provided: "With the exception of Section 4, Subsections (a) and (b), this Act becomes effective on January 1, 1977."

WEBB COUNTY

Art. 1970-360. County Court at Law of Webb County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Webb County is created. It shall sit in Laredo.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Webb County has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Webb County. The county court at law also has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Webb County in all matters of probate, and shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and habitual drunkards, and shall grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors, and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of the estates of deceased persons, and apprentice minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. (a) The County Court at Law of Webb County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

(b) In addition to the jurisdiction conferred on the County Court at Law of Webb County by the other provisions of this Act, the county court at law has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts of Webb County in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected, or dependent child proceedings, Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, and all jurisdiction, powers, and authority now or hereafter placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce, marriage, and annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons, and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons; corporations, trustees, or other legal entities, which are now or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, and the county court at law and its judge have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The provisions in this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts in Webb County, and the district courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given in this subsection is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the district courts.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Webb County shall have and retain concurrently with the court created by this Act the general jurisdiction of a probate court. The county court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised and retained by the judge of the County Court of Webb County, except as provided by this Act or otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 5. The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, except that such judge of the county court at law shall in no way have any authority over the administrative business of Webb County which is now performed by the County Judge of Webb County.

Sec. 6. The County Court at Law of Webb County shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of the court has been disposed of. However, no term of the court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commence­ ment of its new term, except on an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular cause therein specified.

Sec. 7. (a) The judge of the county court at law shall have been a bona fide resident of Webb County for two years prior to his appointment or election and shall be a qualified voter in Webb County. He shall be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of five years prior to this appointment or election.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall not engage in the private practice of law after his appointment or election.

(c) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Webb County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Webb County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the general election in 1976 and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected a judge of the county court at law for a term ending on December 31, 1978. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Webb County a judge of the County Court at Law of Webb County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(d) A vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Webb County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(e) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(f) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary of not less than $20,000 per annum and no more than $30,000 per annum, to be paid out by the county treasury by order of the commissioners court, and the salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The judge of the county court at law shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the County Court at Law of Webb County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge’s fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as specified in this section.

(g) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 8. (a) The District Attorney of the 49th Judicial District and the Sheriff of Webb County shall serve as district attorney and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Webb County. The District Clerk of Webb County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in the cases enumerated in Section 3 of this Act, and the County Clerk of Webb County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Section 2 of this Act. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their office and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Webb County.

Sec. 9. (a) As soon as practicable following the effective date of this Act, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the County Court of Webb County and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act, and the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the district courts of Webb County and may transfer a sufficient number of those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act to equalize the dockets. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Webb County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(c) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Section 3 of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Webb County and the County Court at Law of Webb County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within his jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. This provision providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law is cumulative of and in addition to the provisions herein provided for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 10. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

Sec. 11. The Commissioners Court of Webb County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Sec. 12. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Webb County.”

NACOGDOCHES COUNTY

Art. 1970–361. County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County

Sec. 1. On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. The County Court of Nacogdoches County shall have no jurisdiction over the matters of which jurisdiction is given to the county court at law by this Act. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Nacogdoches County as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.
The County Judge of Nacogdoches County is the judge of the County Court of Nacogdoches County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Nacogdoches County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall begin on the first Mondays in January, April, July, and October in each year, and each term of the court shall continue in session until the convening of the next succeeding term.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Nacogdoches County a judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Nacogdoches County, and the appointee holds office until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Nacogdoches County at an amount not less than $15,000 or more than 80 percent of the total annual salary paid to the judge of the 145th Judicial District of Texas. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury of Nacogdoches County on orders from the commissioners court. Additionally, he shall be entitled to reasonable traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help. The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall charge the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury. During his term of office, the judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall diligently discharge the duties of his office on a full-time basis and shall not engage in the private practice of law.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try or recuses himself from trying a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Nacogdoches County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. All provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of a reporter for the district court shall apply, so far as applicable, to the official shorthand reporter authorized to be appointed by the judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County. The reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and shall perform the same duties as provided in the general laws and in addition shall receive a salary, not to exceed the compensation paid to the official shorthand reporter of the district court of Nacogdoches County, to be determined by the judge of the county court at law and paid out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Nacogdoches County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) All cases and matters, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, pending before the County Court of Nacogdoches County on the effective date of this Act are transferred to the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, and other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the county court at law. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the county court at law as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 248, ch. 99, eff. April 30, 1975.]

COLLIN COUNTY

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Collin County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts.

(b) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Collin County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Collin County in probate, administrations, guardianship, and mental-illness proceedings. The County Court of Collin County has the general jurisdiction of a probate court but does not have jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain or other original civil or criminal jurisdiction or appellate civil or criminal jurisdiction. All future statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the legislature shall be operative in Collin County as fully as though this statute had not been enacted. The County Judge of Collin County is the judge of the County Court of Collin County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Collin County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(c) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent-domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(d) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

Sec. 3. The terms of the county court at law shall commence on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Collin County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Collin County and actively engaged in the practice of law in Collin County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Collin County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Collin County. The judge appointed serves until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected a judge of the county court at law for a term ending on December 31, 1978. At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, the judge of the county court at law shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Collin County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Collin County shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Collin County at an amount not less than $18,000 nor more than 80 percent of the total annual salary paid to the judge of a district court having jurisdiction in Collin County. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury and which may not be paid to the judge.
Art. 1970-362  COURTS—COUNTY  908

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law of Collin County is a member of the Juvenile Board of Collin County.

(f) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

(g) During his term of office, the judge of the county court at law shall diligently discharge the duties of his office on a full-time basis and shall not engage in the private practice of law.

Sec. 5. (a) The Criminal District Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Collin County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Collin County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowance prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Collin County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Collin County,” but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Collin County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Collin County shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for the county courts apply to the county court at law.

Sec. 7. All cases and matters within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Collin County pending before the 199th District Court on the effective date of this Act are transferred to the County Court at Law of Collin County. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, and other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the county court at law. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the county court at law as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the county court at law. If, in a civil or criminal case within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Collin County on appeal from the 199th District Court, the court of civil appeals, the supreme court, or the court of criminal appeals enters judgment remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, the case shall be remanded to the County Court at Law of Collin County, and all jurisdiction in respect to that particular case shall thereafter vest in the county court at law. The county clerk and district clerk shall promptly take all necessary steps to effect the transfer of a certified bill of cost and any unused cost deposit or jury fee, all original papers, and certified copies of interlocutory judgments or orders in the cases transferred and shall docket the cases on the docket of the county court at law in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the 199th District Court. This Act does not affect final judgments heretofore rendered by the 199th District Court pertaining to matters and causes transferred to the county court at law by this Act, and the district court retains jurisdiction to enforce those final judgments.

Section 8 of the 1975 Act amended §§ 1 to 3 of art. 5139HHH; § 9 repealed subs. (b) to (e) of art. 199a, § 3.028; and § 10 provided: "The effective date of this Act is January 1, 1976."

MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Art. 1970-363. County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County

Sec. 1. On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for the County Court of Montgomery County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Montgomery County.

(b) The county court at law shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice courts in all criminal matters which by the general laws of this state are conferred on justice courts. This Act does not deprive the justice courts of the jurisdiction now conferred on him by law, but grants concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County over the matters specified in this Act. This Act does not deny the right of appeal to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County from the justice court where the right of appeal to the county court now exists by law.

(c) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.
Sec. 3. (a) The county court at law or its judge may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(b) The County Judge of Montgomery County is the judge of the County Court of Montgomery County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Montgomery County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County is a member of the Montgomery County Juvenile Board.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County are the same as those for the County Court of Montgomery County.

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years who has resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Montgomery County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election, and shall be well informed in the laws of the state.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act, a judge shall be elected to serve until January 1, 1979. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Montgomery County a judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County, and the appointee holds office until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(c) During his term of office, the judge shall not engage in the private practice of law while serving as the county court at law judge.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County shall receive a salary to be determined by the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County in an amount not less than the salary of the County Judge of Montgomery County. He shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge.

(f) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge when the judge of the county court at law is disqualified. A special judge must have the same qualifications as the judge of the county court at law and is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 6. (a) The County Attorney of Montgomery County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County, as provided by law for prosecutions in the county court.

(b) The County Clerk and Sheriff of Montgomery County shall serve as clerk and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County. The Commissioners Court of Montgomery County may employ as many additional deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices in Montgomery County.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County, and shall serve at the pleasure of the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Montgomery County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them.
However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring the case involved.

(d) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 8. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Montgomery County and the judge thereof for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County and the judge of the county court at law. Jurors summoned for either of the courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service and may be used as if summoned for the court to which they may be transferred. On concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County and the Judge of the County Court of Montgomery County, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect shall be as valid as if no change had been made, and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of the courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 9. (a) The Commissioners Court of Montgomery County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law shall have a seal identical with the seal of the County Court of Montgomery County, except that it shall contain the words “County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County.”

Sec. 10. This Act becomes effective on July 1, 1975.

Art. 1970-364. County Court at Law of Fort Bend County

Sec. 1. (a) The County Court at Law of Fort Bend County is created.

(b) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Fort Bend County.

(c) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law.

(d) The county court at law, or its judge, may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court; and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(e) The County Judge of Fort Bend County is the judge of the County Court of Fort Bend County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Fort Bend County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 2. The terms of the County Court at Law of Fort Bend County are the same as those for the County Court of Fort Bend County.

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office provided by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Houston County. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury of Houston County on orders from the commissioners court. Additionally, he shall be entitled to reasonable traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help. The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall charge the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury. During his term of office, the judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall diligently discharge the duties of his office on a full-time basis and shall not engage in the private practice of law.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try or excuses himself from trying a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Houston County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Houston County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court, who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. All provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of a reporter for the district court shall apply, so far as applicable, to the official shorthand reporter authorized to be appointed by the judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County. The reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and shall perform the same duties as provided in the general laws and in addition shall receive a salary not to exceed the compensation paid to the official shorthand reporter of the district court of Houston County, to be determined by the judge of the county court at law and paid out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Houston County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Houston County.
Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Houston County shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) All cases and matters, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, pending before the County Court of Houston County on the effective date of this Act are transferred to the County Court at Law of Houston County. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, and other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the county court at law. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the county court at law as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

HENDERSON COUNTY

Sec. 1. On the date determined by the provisions of Section 8 of this Act, the County Court at Law of Henderson County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, original and appellate, as prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction in those matters is concurrent with that of the County Court of Henderson County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Henderson County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, public highways, and all other matters which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer. The County Court of Henderson County shall retain the general jurisdiction of a probate court and the county court at law does not have probate jurisdiction.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The County Judge of Henderson County is the judge of the County Court of Henderson County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Henderson County.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Henderson County are the same as those for the County Court of Henderson County.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Henderson County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas. He may not actively engage in the private practice of law while serving as judge of the county court at law.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Henderson County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Henderson County shall receive a salary to be determined by the Commissioners Court of Henderson County in an amount not less than $20,000 per year nor more than $25,000 per year and to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner as other county officials. In addition to a salary, the commissioners court may provide office and traveling expenses which it deems necessary. The judge of the county court at law shall charge the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Henderson County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Henderson County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Henderson County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Henderson County,” but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Henderson County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Henderson County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Henderson County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 7. (a) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

Sec. 8. (a) It is expressly provided that the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until the Commissioners Court of Henderson County enters an order adopting the same.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Henderson County shall have the option of either appointing a judge to the County Court at Law of Henderson County or allowing said judge to be elected at the next general election. If a judge is appointed, said judge serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. If a judge is appointed or elected as provided herein and completes an unexpired term, then said judge shall stand for election at the next general election and every fourth year thereafter for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. If this Act is made effective and a judge of the County Court at Law is elected for the first time to a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution, said judge shall stand for election every fourth year thereafter as provided in said sections of the Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Henderson County until the next general election. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for the removal of county judges.

Sec. 9. The Henderson County Commissioners Court is hereby empowered to submit the question of creating a county court at law for Henderson County to a vote of the people of Henderson County at any countywide general or special election.
CHAPTER THREE. CITATION

Art. 2039b. Citation of Nonresidents for Tax Purposes [NEW]

Acceptance of Benefits Relating to Taxation Deemed Equivalent to Appointment of Agent

Sec. 1. In addition to any procedures for citation provided under Rule 117a, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, the acceptance by a nonresident of this state, or by a person who was a resident of this state at the time of accrual of a cause of action but who subsequently removes therefrom, of the rights, privileges, and benefits extended by law to such person(s) of owning, having, or claiming an interest in property, real or personal, subject to taxation by the State of Texas and its legal subdivisions, or any of them, shall be deemed equivalent to appointment by such nonresident of the comptroller of public accounts of this state or his successor in office, to be his true and lawful attorney and agent upon whom may be served all lawful process in any civil action or proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted against such nonresident(s) growing out of taxation by the state and its legal subdivisions, or any of them, of property in which such nonresident(s) owned, had, or claimed a taxable interest on the first day of any tax year(s) for which taxes on such property have not been paid. Such service of process, as herein provided, shall have the same effect as if made personally on the defendant within the State of Texas.

Manner and Method of Service

Sec. 2. Service of process under this Act shall be in the same manner and method as that prescribed in Chapter 125, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as last amended by Chapter 502, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (compiled as Article 2093a of Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which relates to citation of nonresident motor vehicle operators by serving the chairman of the state highway commission; provided, however, in the service of such process certified mail shall be used rather than registered mail.

"Nonresidents" Defined

Sec. 3. "Nonresidents" as used in this Act includes corporations, partnerships and all other legal entities or representatives owning, having, or claiming a taxable interest in such property at the time(s) specified in Section 1 hereof.

Severability Clause

Sec. 4. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1900, ch. 607, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER SIX. CERTAIN DISTRICT COURTS

Art. 2093c. Assignment Clerk of Districts Courts of Bexar County

A majority of the Judges of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 160th, 131st, 166th, 144th, 175th, 186th, 187th, and 73rd District Courts may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve said Courts in Bexar County under the presiding Judge of said District Courts in the setting and disposing of cases on the general docket. Such Assignment Clerk shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by said Judges in connection with the setting and disposing of cases. The salary of such Clerk shall be set by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County and paid in monthly installments out of the General Fund or the Jury Fund of such County, as the Commissioners Court may provide, on voucher approved by the Presiding Judge of said Courts; such salary shall be not less than $17,000 per annum. The appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.

CHAPTER SEVEN. THE JURY

1. JURIES IN CERTAIN COUNTIES

Art. 2101. Interchangeable Juries

The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 5]

6. A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, in a county in which two district courts have jurisdiction, both district judges may meet together at such times as they may agree upon and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the district courts of the county for each week for as many weeks in advance as they deem proper, and may order the drawing of such number of jurors for each of said weeks, which jury is known as the general panel of jurors for service in both district courts for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. Both judges shall act together in carrying out the provisions of this section. They may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week and may order the jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and the designated judge, for the time he is chosen to act, shall organize the juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The jurors, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, shall be served by the sheriff to appear and have immediate supervision and control of them. The jurors, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, shall be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before the judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in either of the district courts. The jurors, when impaneled, constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in both district courts in the county and shall be used interchangeably. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of either court, the judge having control of the general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.

B. With the approval of both district judges, jurors impaneled under the provisions of Subdivision A of this subsection may constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in all county courts and statutory county courts in the county, in addition to service as jurors in both district courts, and in such event, shall be used interchangeably in all district and county courts.

C. The provisions of this subsection are cumulative of and in addition to the methods now authorized by law for the selection of a jury panel in the counties herein named, and the adoption of the method provided in this subsection is entirely optional with and in the discretion of the district judges of any such county coming under the terms of this law.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 330, ch. 137, § 1, eff. May 8, 1975.]

3. JURY FOR THE WEEK

Art. 2122. Pay of Jurors

(a) Each grand juror and each petit juror in a civil or criminal case in a district or criminal district court, county court, county court at law, or justice court is entitled to receive not less than $5 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he serves as a juror. The commissioners court of each county shall determine annually, within the minimum and maximum prescribed in this subsection, the amount of per diem for jurors, which shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county. A person who responds to the process of a court, but who is excused from petit jury service by the court for any cause after being tested on voir dire, is entitled to receive not less than $5 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court in response to such process.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of (b)]

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1353, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

4. THE JURY IN COURT

Art. 2133. Qualifications

All persons both male and female eighteen years of age or older are competent jurors, unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter. No person shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

1. He must be a citizen of the State and of the county in which he is to serve and qualified under the Constitution and laws to vote in said county.

2. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.

3. He must be able to read and write, except as otherwise provided herein.

4. He must not have served as a juror for six (6) days during the preceding six (6) months in the District Court, or during the preceding three (3) months in the County Court.

5. He must not have been convicted of a felony.

6. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felony.

A person who is legally blind is not disqualified to serve as a juror in a civil case solely by reason of his legal blindness, but is subject to a challenge for cause in a civil case unless, in the opinion of the court and all parties to the suit and the prospective juror, his legal blindness does not render him unfit to act as a juror in that particular case. If a party to the suit challenges a prospective juror by reason of his legal blindness, it shall not count as one of that party’s peremptory challenges.

Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write cannot be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the third subdivision; and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient.

Where the word “he” is used in this Section it shall be used in the generic term so as to include both male and female persons.

In this Article, “legally blind” shall mean having not more than 20/200 of visual acuity in the better eye with correcting lenses, or visual acuity greater than 20/200 but with a limitation in the field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN. GENERAL PROVISIONS

3. OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

Art. 2324. Duty of Reporter

Each Official Court Reporter shall upon request:

Attend all sessions of the court; take full shorthand notes of all oral testimony offered in cases tried in said court, together with all objections to the admissibility of the evidence, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions thereto; take full shorthand notes of closing arguments when requested to do so by the attorney for any party to such case, together with all objections to such arguments, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions thereto;

Preserve all shorthand notes taken in said court for future use or reference for three full years, and furnish to any person a transcript of all such evidence or other proceedings, or any portion thereof as such person may order, upon the payment to the official shorthand reporter of the fees provided by the judge.

When any party to any suit reported by any such reporter shall desire a transcript of the evidence in said suit, said party may apply for same by written demand, and the reporter shall make up such transcript and shall receive as compensation therefor a reasonable amount, subject to the approval of the judge of the court if objection is made thereto, taking into consideration the difficulty and technicality of the material to be transcribed and the time within which the transcript is requested to be prepared. The original transcript fee charged shall pay for the original plus one copy of the transcript, and additional copies may be purchased for a fee per page not in excess of one-third (⅓) of the original cost per page. In addition such reporter may make a reasonable charge, subject to the approval of the trial court if objection shall be made thereto, for postage and/or express charges paid; photostating, blue-printing or other reproduction of exhibits; indexing; and preparation for filing and special binding of original exhibits. Provided further, that in case any such reporter shall charge in excess of the fees herein allowed by the judge, whether by accident or design, he shall, on demand filed with the court, make refund of the excess to the party to which it is due. Provided, however, that the Supreme Court of Texas under its rulemaking authority shall provide for the duties and fees of court reporters in all civil judicial proceedings, except as provided by law.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 826, ch. 319, § 1, eff. May 27, 1975.]

Art. 2326j-29. Appointment and Compensation of Reporter for 31st Judicial District

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 and 2]

Sec. 3. Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary meals, traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties. These allowances may be in the same amounts as are allowed for employees of the State of Texas. Such expenses shall be paid by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the General Fund of the county upon the sworn statement of the reporter approved by the judge.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 794, ch. 306, § 1, eff. May 27, 1975.]

4. MANDAMUS

Art. 2328a. Judicial Council

Creation; Purposes

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the Texas Judicial Council for the continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts, and methods for its improvement.

1 West’s Tex. Stats. & Codes ’75 Supp.—59

Duties of Council

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Council:

1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.

2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

3. To formulate methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice.

4. To gather judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.

5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable. All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.

7. To hold one meeting in each calendar year, and such other meetings as may be ordered by the Council or under its authority, and at such time and place as may be designated by it or under its authority.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 6 to 8]

TITLE 43

COURTS—JUVENILE

Art. 2338-1c. Appointment of Retired Special Juvenile or Domestic Relations County Judge to Sit for Regular Domestic Relations or Special Juvenile Court Judge

Sec. 1. (a) When the regular judge of a special juvenile court of Harris or Dallas County or any domestic relations court in this state is absent or is from any cause disabled or disqualified from presiding, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court may be appointed by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which the appointed judge resides to sit for the regular judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, provided the retired judge voluntarily retired from office and certifies his willingness to serve.

(b) When the docket of a special juvenile court of Harris or Dallas County becomes so excessive that the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district deems it an emergency, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court residing within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, who meets the qualifications set out in Subsection (a) of this section, may be appointed by the presiding judge to sit for the regular judge for as long as the emergency exists.

Bond and Oath of Retired Judge

Sec. 2. A retired judge appointed to sit for a regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall execute the bond and take the oath of office which is required by law for the regular judge for whom he is sitting.

Compensation

Sec. 4. A retired judge appointed to sit for the regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall receive for the services actually performed the same amount of compensation which the regular judge is entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid for such services shall be paid out of the county funds on certification by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district that the retired judge has rendered the services and is entitled to receive the compensation. No part of the amount paid to a retired judge sitting for the regular judge shall be deducted or paid out of the salary of the regular judge.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 5. The provisions of the Act are cumulative of all laws pertaining to the election or appointment of a special judge, and if, in addition to a retired judge appointed to sit temporarily for a regular judge, a special judge is needed, he shall be appointed or elected as now authorized by law.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1816, ch. 552, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2338-9b.2 Masters in Dallas County Domestic Relations Courts

Appointment; Termination; Qualifications; Compensation; Costs

Sec. 1. (a) Each judge of a court of domestic relations in Dallas County or any successor court thereto may appoint a full-time master as provided in this Act. The appointment shall be made subject to the approval of the commissioners court. The services of the master may be terminated if the performance of his duties is unsatisfactory to the judge of the court.

(b) A master shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be a citizen of this state. The compensation for a master shall be fixed by the commissioners court and shall be paid out of the jury fund of Dallas County. If the judge of the court determines that the parties litigant are able to defray the costs of the master’s compensation, such costs may be taxed as costs against either or both of the parties.
Referral of Certain Civil Cases to Master

Sec. 2. If the judge of a court of domestic relations in Dallas County or any successor court thereto deems it advisable, he may appoint a master and refer to the master any civil case involving motions of contempt for failure or refusal to pay child support, temporary support, or separate maintenance; motions for failure or refusal to comply with court orders concerning visitation with children growing out of separate maintenance and divorce actions; motions for changes of conservatorships; motions for revision of child-support payments; and motions for revision of visitation privileges.

Powers

Sec. 3. (a) In all cases designated in Section 2 of this Act, the judge of a court of domestic relations in Dallas County or any successor court thereto may authorize the master to hear evidence, to make findings of fact thereon, to formulate conclusions of law, and to recommend judgment to be entered in such cases. In all cases referred to the master, the order of reference may specify or limit the powers of the master and may direct him to report only on particular issues, or to do or perform particular acts, or to receive and report on evidence only, and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing hearings and for filing reports.

(b) Subject to the limitations and specifications stated in the order, the master shall have the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary and proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production of evidence before him on all matters embraced in the reference, and he may rule on the admissibility of evidence, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference. He has the authority to issue summons for the appearance of witnesses and to swear the witnesses for the hearing and may examine them himself. A witness appearing before him that is duly sworn is subject to the penalties of perjury. If a witness after being duly summoned fails to appear or having appeared refuses to answer questions, on certification of such refusal to the referring court, the court may issue attachment against the witness and may fine or imprison the witness.

Findings; Notice

Sec. 4. On the conclusion of the hearing in each case, the master shall transmit to the referring judge all papers relating to the case, together with his findings and a statement that notice of his findings and of the right to a hearing before the judge has been given to all adult principals, minors, or parents, guardians, or custodians of any minor whose case has been heard by the master. This notice may be given at the hearing or otherwise as the referring court directs.

Action on Master's Report

Sec. 5. After it is filed, the referring court may adopt, modify, correct, reject, or reverse the master's report or recommit it for further information, as the court may deem proper and necessary in the particular circumstances of the case. Where judgment has been recommended, the court in its discretion may approve the recommendation and hear further evidence before rendition of judgment.

Hearing

Sec. 6. Adult principals or a minor child or his parents, guardians, or custodians are entitled to a hearing by the judge of the referring court if within three days after receiving notice of the findings of the master they file a request with the court for a hearing. The referring court may allow the hearing at any time.

Decree Upon Adoption by Court

Sec. 7. If no hearing before the judge of the referring court is requested or the right to such hearing is waived, the findings and recommendations of the master become the decree of the court when adopted by an order of the judge.

Notice of Time and Place of Hearing

Sec. 8. Prior to the hearing by the master, the parties litigant shall be given due notice as provided by law of the time and place of the hearing.

Jury Trial

Sec. 9. In any proceeding where a jury trial has been demanded, the master shall refer the case back to the referring court for a full hearing before the court and jury, subject to the usual rules of the court in such cases.

TITLE 44
COURTS—COMMISSIONERS

2. POWERS AND DUTIES

Art. 2344. Seal
Each commissioners court shall have a seal, where­on shall be engraved either a star with five points or a design selected by the court and approved by the secretary of state, and the words, "Commissioners Court, County, Texas," (the blank to be filled with the name of the County) which seal shall be kept by the clerk of said court and used in authentication of all official acts of the court, or of the presiding officer or clerk of said court, in all cases where a seal may be necessary for the authen­tication of any of said acts.
[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 42, ch. 21, § 1, eff. March 20, 1975.]

2. POWERS AND DUTIES

Art. 2370c-2. Criminal Justice Facilities in Certain Counties and Cities Eligible Counties and Cities
Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to any county in this state and to any city in such county which city is not the county seat of such county but has a population of more than 20,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

Authorization
Sec. 2. Counties and cities to which this Act is applicable are hereby authorized jointly or severally to own, construct, equip, enlarge, and maintain a building or buildings in such city to constitute a criminal justice center providing facilities of a public nature with relation to or incidental in the adminis­tration of criminal justice, including, without limitation, accommodations for the handling, processing, and detention of prisoners, and offices for state, county, and city administrative and judicial officials, courtrooms, garages, and parking areas.

Contracts
Sec. 3. Such county and city shall have authority to specify by contract the purpose, terms, rights, objectives, duties, and responsibilities of each of the contracting parties, including the amount, or proportionate amount, of money to be contributed by each for land acquisition, building acquisition, construc­tion, and equipment; the method or methods by which such moneys are to be provided; the account or accounts in which such money is to be deposited; the party which shall award construction or other contracts or that such contracts shall be awarded by action of both parties; and the manner in which disbursements shall be authorized. Such contract may further provide for the creation of an adminis­trative agency or may designate one of the parties to supervise the accomplishment of the purposes of the contract and to operate and maintain the joint facilities, and any administrative agency so created or party so designated shall have authority to em­ploy personnel and engage in other administrative activities as necessary in accomplishing the purposes of the contract and in operating and maintaining the joint facilities.

Methods of Meeting Costs
Sec. 4. The county and city contract may specify that moneys required of them in meeting the cost of providing the criminal justice center shall be derived from current income and funds on hand budgeted by them for such purpose, or through the authorization and issuance of bonds by either or both the county and city under the procedures prescribed for the issuance of general obligation bonds for other public buildings and purposes, or by the issuance by either or both the county and the city of certificates of obligation under the provisions of Article 2368a-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, or by a combination of those methods. In lieu of or in combination with the employment of taxing power in the payment of such bonds or certificates of obligation, same may be payable from and secured by income derived from the criminal justice center facilities, including that from leases and from the proceeds of parking or other fees. In the financing of the facilities herein authorized eligible counties and cities jointly or sev-generally may accept grants, gratuities, advances, and loans from the United States, the State of Texas, or any of their agencies, any private or public corporation, or any other person.

Office Facilities

Sec. 5. As applicable to counties eligible to employ the provisions of this Act, any county officer, in addition to the office he maintains at the county seat, may maintain office facilities in the herein authorized criminal justice center notwithstanding provisions of Article 1605, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other law limiting the location of county offices to the county seat of their respective counties.

Art. 2372h-4. Payroll Deductions; Authorized Purposes

Sec. 1. (a) The commissioners court of any county of 20,000 or more population may authorize payroll deductions to be made from the wages and salaries of county employees, on each employee’s written request, to a credit union, to pay membership dues in a labor union or a bona fide employees association, and to pay fees for parking in county owned facilities.

(b) Each employee requesting a deduction under this Act shall submit to the county auditor a written request indicating the amount to be deducted from the employee’s wages or salary and to transfer the withheld funds to the credit union, proper labor union or employees association, or county funds. The request shall remain in effect until the county auditor receives written notice of revocation signed by the employee.

(c) The amount deducted from an employee’s wages or salary for the purpose stated in this Act shall not be more than the amount stipulated in the written request.

(d) Participation in the program authorized by this Act is voluntary on the part of any county employee and the county.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not alter, amend, modify, or repeal any of the provisions of Chapter 185, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947 (Article 5154c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 3. Public funds shall not be used to defray the administrative cost of making the deductions authorized under this Act, except those deductions relating to payment for parking. The credit union, labor union or employees association shall pay the full and complete administrative cost, if any, as determined and approved by the commissioners court of the deductions made for their benefit under this Act.

Art. 2372p-3. Licensing and Regulation of Bail Bondsmen

Sec. 3.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 3(a) and (b) ]

(c) The provisions of this Act do not apply to the execution of bail bonds in counties having a population of less than 124,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 3(d) and 4 ]

County Bail Bond Board

Sec. 5. (a) There is hereby created in all counties having a population of 124,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, a County Bail Bond Board.

Art. 2372q-1. Regulation of Private Water Companies in Counties Over 1,500,000

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “Commissioners court” means the commissioners court of any county with a population of more than 1,500,000, according to the last preceding federal census.
Art. 2372q-1

COURTS—COMMISSIONERS

Sec. 2. (a) The rates and services of a private water company in a county with a population of more than 1,500,000, according to the last preceding federal census, shall be regulated by the commissioners court as provided in this Act, if:

(1) the private water company is charging or proposes to charge residential rates in any service area which exceed by 30 percent or more the highest residential rates charged by the water department of the largest city in the county; or

(2) a petition is submitted to the commissioners court signed by at least 30 percent of the persons residing, according to the last preceding federal census, in one or more of the service areas served by a private water company requesting that the commissioners court exercise regulatory authority over the company serving them.

(b) To determine whether or not the commissioners court should assume regulatory authority over a private water company under Subdivision (1), Subsection (a) of this section, each private water company operating inside the boundaries of a county with a population of more than 1,500,000, according to the last preceding federal census, on the effective date of this Act shall submit to the commissioners court copies of all of its schedules of rates and charges and proposed schedules of rates and charges within 15 days after the commissioners court assumes regulatory authority unless this information has already been filed under some other section of this Act.

(c) The private water company whose rates, charges, or both are being considered at the hearing shall be given notice by certified mail return receipt requested.

(d) Notice required by this section shall be given at least 10 days before the day of the hearing.

Sec. 3. (a) Each private water company over which the commissioners court assumes regulatory authority shall file with the commissioners court copies of all of its schedules of rates and charges and proposed schedules of rates and charges within 15 days after the commissioners court assumes regulatory authority unless this information has already been filed under some other section of this Act.

(b) A private water company regulated under this Act which proposes to change any of its rates, charges, or both shall file with the commission copies of the proposed schedules of rates, charges, or both at least 40 days before they are to take effect.

Sec. 4. On receiving schedules of existing or proposed rates, charges, or both from a private water company under the regulatory authority of the commissioners court, the commissioners court shall set a time, place, and date for a public hearing to consider approval of the rates, charges, or both and shall issue notice as provided in this Act. The hearing shall be held not earlier than 25 nor later than 30 days after the date the schedules are filed.

Sec. 5. (a) Notice of a hearing shall be posted in at least one public place in each service area affected by or to be affected by the proposed rates, charges, or both and at the courthouse in the place for posting notice of meetings of the commissioners court.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be published at least one time in a newspaper of general circulation in each service area affected by or to be affected by the rates, charges, or both.

(c) The private water company whose rates, charges, or both are being considered at the hearing shall be given notice by certified mail return receipt requested.

(d) Notice required by this section shall be given at least 10 days before the day of the hearing.
Access to Books, Records and Information of Water Company

Sec. 6. The commissioners court and its employees and agents are entitled to access to all books, records, and other information of a private water company which may be necessary for the commissioners court to determine if it may exercise regulatory authority under Section 2(a)(1) of this Act and to carry out its regulatory authority under this Act.

Inspection of Files and Information Gathered

Sec. 7. At least 10 days before the date set for the hearing, the commissioners court shall make all files and information gathered by it and its employees and agents relating to the matter to be heard available for inspection during regular office hours.

Personal Appearance at Hearing; Recess

Sec. 8. (a) Any person who desires to appear at the hearing and present testimony, evidence, exhibits, or other information may do so in person, by counsel, or both.

(b) The commissioners court may recess the hearing from day to day.

Compelling Testimony; Oaths; Subpoenas

Sec. 9. The commissioners court may compel the testimony of any person necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, and may administer oaths to persons who appear to testify before the commissioners court. Also, the commissioners court may issue subpoenas to compel the testimony of any persons and the production of any documents or information necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Determination; Written Order

Sec. 10. (a) Within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing, the commissioners court shall determine whether or not to approve the schedules of rates, charges, or both that were considered at the hearing and if the schedules are to be adopted, shall decide on any modifications in the schedules that the commissioners court considers necessary based on its own investigation and evidence and information gathered at the hearing.

(b) On making a determination, the commissioners court shall issue a written order stating its determination and the reasons for its determination.

Fair Return on Value of Property; Public Relations Expenses

Sec. 11. (a) No rate or charge determined by the commissioners court may yield more than a fair return on the fair value of property used and useful in rendering service to the public and no return on a rate or charge may exceed eight percent a year.

(b) In making a determination on a rate, charge, or both, the commissioners court shall not include in the basis for establishment of the rate, charge, or both any amounts spent by the private water company for advertising or other public relations expenses.

Appeal

Sec. 12. Orders of the commissioners court issued under this Act may be appealed to a district court in the county in which the commissioners court has jurisdiction.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 13. (a) The commissioners court, after notice and hearing, may adopt by order any rules and regulations that it considers necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(b) The commissioners court by rules and regulations may adopt reasonable standards to be followed by private water companies operating under its regulatory authority in delivering their services to the public.

Annual Report of Water Company

Sec. 14. (a) Each private water company under the regulatory authority of the commissioners court shall file with the commissioners court before January 1 of each year a report which shall include:

1. the amount of a lien or mortgage on any property of the company;
2. other indebtedness of the company and the consideration for it;
3. the actual cost of the visible physical property of the company and the date it was installed and the present value of it with land, machinery, buildings, pipes, mains, and other items of property being listed separately; and
4. the annual cost of operating the facilities of the company including amounts paid for actual salaries; labor; fixed charges including interest, taxes, and insurance; fuel; extension and repairs; maintenance; damages, claims, or suits for damages; and miscellaneous expenses.

(b) If machinery or equipment of the company is abandoned, worn out, or its use discontinued within the preceding year, this shall be stated in the report together with the original cost and the present value.

(c) The report shall state the gross earnings of the company including revenues from every source and shall state each item separately and the amount received by the company.
Sec. 15. A private water company that violates any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the commissioners court is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation to be recovered as provided in this Act.

Injunctive Relief or Civil Penalty

Sec. 16. (a) Whenever it appears that a private water company has violated or is violating, or is threatening to violate, any provision of this Act, or any rule, regulation, or order of the commissioners court, the commissioners court may have a civil suit instituted in a district court in the county in which the commissioners court has jurisdiction for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty.

(b) On application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the commissioners court, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(c) At the request of the commissioners court, the county attorney shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the county for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty, or both, as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section.

Art. 2372r. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 114, ch. 52, § 1, eff. April 18, 1975

See, now, art. 6145.1.

Art. 2372s-1. Regulation of Parking in Certain Courthouse Parking Lots

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply in every county having a population of not less than 12,500 nor more than 18,000, and in every county having a population of not less than 14,000 nor more than 14,100, and in every county having a population of not less than 15,000 nor more than 15,340, and in every county having a population of not less than 15,083 nor more than 18,099, and in every county having a population of not less than 18,099 nor more than 28,000, and in every county having a population of not less than 140,000 nor more than 150,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. The commissioners court is authorized to purchase such equipment as is necessary and make and enforce regulations for parking in county-owned or county-leased parking lots in, under, adjacent to, or near the county courthouse. The commissioners court may in its discretion contract with the city for enforcement of the regulations and likewise the city in its discretion may contract with the county. The Sheriff's Department of such counties is hereby authorized to enforce any and all regulations passed by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 3. A person who violates a regulation authorized by this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $20.

Art. 2372s-3. Parking on County Property

Adoption of Regulations

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of a county by order may adopt regulations as to the parking of vehicles on property owned or leased by the county.

Regulations

Sec. 2. Regulations adopted under this Act may:

(1) limit the use of parking spaces to certain vehicles or types of vehicles;

(2) limit the time a vehicle may remain parked in a specific space or area; and

(3) prohibit the parking of vehicles in certain areas.

Signs

Sec. 3. If parking is restricted or prohibited in a place, the county shall erect at the place one or more appropriately worded signs reasonably calculated to inform the drivers of vehicles of the restriction or prohibition. No sign is required to indicate that parking is prohibited on a lawn or other area that does not appear to be a place intended for use as a parking area.

Violations; Defenses

Sec. 4. An individual who parks a vehicle in violation of a regulation adopted under this Act commits a Class C misdemeanor. It is a defense to prosecution under this section that:

(1) the place where the actor parked is one where a sign or signs are required by Section 3 of this Act; and
(2) a sign or signs meeting the requirements of Section 3 of this Act were not in place at the time the actor parked.

Towing and Storing of Vehicles

Sec. 5. A county may provide for the towing away and storing at the owner's expense of any vehicle parked in violation of regulations adopted under this Act. This section does not authorize the towing away of a vehicle that is parked under circumstances where the person parking it would have a defense to prosecution under Section 4 of this Act. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 569, ch. 228, eff. May 20, 1975.]

Art. 2372s-4. Parking Regulations and Purchase of Equipment by Counties of 235,000 or More

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of a county having a population of 235,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, may purchase necessary equipment and make and enforce parking regulations for parking in a county-owned or county-leased parking lot in, under, adjacent to, or near the county courthouse.

Sec. 2. (a) The commissioners court may contract with the governing body of the city in which the county seat is located for enforcement of the parking regulations promulgated under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act.

(b) The sheriff's department of the county may enforce parking regulations promulgated under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 3. A person who violates a parking regulation promulgated under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act commits a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $20. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2198, ch. 702, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2372u. Regulation of Outdoor Lighting and Subdivisions Near Major Astronomical Observatories

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Major astronomical observatory" means a facility established for making scientific observation of astronomical phenomena and equipped with a telescope having an aperture at least 75 inches in diameter.

(2) "Outdoor lighting" means any type of lighting equipment, fixed or movable, designed or used for illumination outside of buildings or homes, including lighting for billboards, street lights, searchlights used for advertising purposes, externally or internally illuminated on- or off-site advertising signs, and area-type lighting. It does not include lighting equipment required by law to be installed on motor vehicles, or lighting required for the safe take-off and landing of aircraft.

County Regulatory Authority

Sec. 2. (a) To protect against the use of outdoor lighting in a way that interferes with scientific astronomical research, the commissioners court of a county may adopt orders regulating the installation and use of outdoor lighting within the unincorporated territory located within the same county and within 75 miles of a major astronomical observatory, regardless of whether the observatory is in the county.

(b) Orders adopted under this section may:

(1) require that a permit be obtained from the county for the installation or use of certain types of outdoor lighting, and establish fees for the issuance of permits;
(2) prohibit the use of those types of outdoor lighting found to be incompatible with the effective use of the observatory;
(3) establish requirements for the shielding of outdoor lighting; and
(4) regulate the times during which various types of outdoor lighting may be used.

Regulation of Subdivisions

Sec. 3. (a) This section applies only to real estate subdivisions subject to the plat-approval authority of a commissioners court and located within 75 miles of a major astronomical observatory.

(b) A commissioners court may adopt orders establishing standards applicable to proposed subdivisions designed to minimize the interference with observatory activities from outdoor lighting. The commissioners court may not approve a plat of a proposed subdivision that does not meet those requirements.

Standards May Vary

Sec. 4. Orders adopted under this Act may apply more stringent standards in areas where the impact of outdoor lighting on activities of the observatory is greater.

Adoption of Orders

Sec. 5. No orders may be adopted by a commissioners court under this Act, unless:

(a) a request for such orders be made by the Director of McDonald Observatory; then

(b) such requested orders may be adopted by a commissioners court after a public hearing has been held on the proposed order; of which

(c) at least two weeks public notice has been given of such hearing.

Exemption

Sec. 6. No outdoor lighting in existence or under construction on the effective date of this Act shall be subject to the provisions of this Act.

Penalty

Sec. 7. (a) An individual, corporation, or association that violates an order adopted under this Act commits a Class C misdemeanor.¹

(b) A county or district attorney may sue in the district court to enjoin violation of this Act.

(c) Both civil and criminal enforcement may be used against the same conduct.

Judgments Not Claimed by Plaintiff

Sec. 10a. (a) If a judgment against a defendant has not been paid and the whereabouts of the plaintiff who was awarded the judgment are unknown, the defendant shall use due diligence to locate the plaintiff, which includes sending a letter by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the plaintiff at his last known address and the address appearing in the plaintiff’s statement of his claim and any other records of the court.

(b) If, after the use of due diligence, the plaintiff is not located, the defendant may deposit payment of the judgment into the court in trust for the plaintiff and obtain a release of the judgment, which release shall be executed without delay by the judge of said court on behalf of the plaintiff.

(c) All trust funds paid into the court, as provided in this section, shall be paid over by the judge at least once a month to the county clerk to be deposited in and withdrawn from the clerk’s trust fund account in the county depository for trust funds in the possession of the county clerk, in the same manner as trust funds deposited in county and district courts to abide the result of a legal proceeding are deposited and withdrawn.

(d) If the plaintiff does not claim the payment of his judgment within two (2) years from the date of its deposit in the county clerk’s trust fund account, the money shall escheat to the state.

CHAPTER 11. REGULATORY BODY

The Credit Union Act, formerly set out in this Title as Articles 2461-1 to 2461-49, was enacted by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 540, ch. 186, §§ 1 to 49. Former Articles 2461 to 2484d, regulating Rural Credit Unions, were repealed by § 50 of the 1969 Act.

Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2240, ch. 707, § 1, revised and amended the 1969 Act, as herein set out, to consist of Articles 2461-1.01 to 2461-11-17.

For disposition of subject matter of repealed Articles 2461-1 to 2461-49, see Table, post.
CHAPTER 1. SHORT TITLE, DEFINITION AND PURPOSES

Art. 2461-1.01. Short Title
This Act may be cited as the Texas Credit Union Act.
[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-1.02. Definition and Purposes
In this Act:
(1) "Credit union" means a voluntary, cooperative, nonprofit savings institution, incorporated under this Act for the purposes of encouraging thrift among its members, creating a source of credit at a fair and reasonable rate of interest, and providing an opportunity for its members to use and control their own money in order to improve their economic and social condition.

(2) "Commission" means the Credit Union Commission.

(3) "Commissioner" means the Credit Union Commissioner.
Art. 2461-1.02 CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS

(4) "Department" means the Credit Union Department.
(5) "Deputy commissioner" means the Deputy Credit Union Commissioner.

Art. 2461-1.03. Effect of Headings

The division of this Act into chapters and sections and the use of section and chapter headings are solely for convenience and have no legal effect in construing this Act.

CHAPTER 2. ORGANIZATION PROCEDURE

Art. 2461-2.01. Incorporators

Any seven or more adult persons, a majority of whom are residents of this state, and all of whom share a definable community of interest, may act as incorporators of a credit union by signing, verifying, and delivering in duplicate to the commissioner articles of incorporation for the credit union.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-2.02. Articles of Incorporation

The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

(1) the name, which contains the words "credit union" and is different from that of any other existing credit union;
(2) the name of the town or city and county where the proposed credit union will have its principal place of business;
(3) the term of existence of the credit union, which shall be perpetual;
(4) the fiscal year of the credit union, which ends on December 31 of each calendar year;
(5) the par value of the shares of the credit union, which shall be $5, or multiples thereof;
(6) the name and address of each incorporator and the number of shares subscribed by each; and
(7) the number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who will serve as directors until the first annual meeting or until their duly elected successors are elected and qualify.

Art. 2461-2.03. Filing of Articles of Incorporation

(a) The incorporators shall file with the commissioner:

(1) a duplicate of the original articles of incorporation;
(2) a duplicate of the original bylaws for the general operation of the credit union; and
(3) biographical information concerning each member of the original board of directors, entered on forms prescribed by the commissioner and signed by each member.

(b) With the approval of the commission, the commissioner shall set a uniform charter fee and uniform investigation and report charges for all credit unions. The department shall publish the fees and rates for charges set by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner may investigate the charter application, bylaws, and the biographical information concerning each director named in the application to determine whether the proposed credit union and its initial board of directors meet the requirements of this Act and of the regulations promulgated under this Act.

(d) If the proposed credit union or its initial board of directors does not meet the requirements of this Act and of the regulations promulgated under this Act, the commissioner shall deny the application in writing. If the incorporators file a written notice of appeal with the commission within 30 days after denial of the application, the commission shall set a date for a hearing on the application. On that date, the commission shall hold a hearing in accordance with the regulations promulgated under this Act.

(e) If the commissioner determines that all statutory requirements and regulations have been satisfied, or if on a hearing the commission determines that they have been satisfied, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of incorporation and shall return copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws to the incorporators.

Art. 2461-2.04. Effect of Issuance of Certificate of Incorporation

The corporate existence of a credit union begins at the time the commissioner issues a certificate of incorporation. The certificate of incorporation is conclusive evidence of the incorporators' compliance with the requirements of this Act and of the credit union's incorporation under this Act.

Art. 2461-2.05. Requirement Before Commencing Business

A credit union may not transact any business or incur any indebtedness, except such as is incidental to its organization or to obtaining subscriptions to or payment for its shares, until:

(1) it has received minimum paid-in capital of at least $1,000;
Art. 2461-2.06. Right to Amend Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

A credit union may amend its articles of incorporation or its bylaws in the manner provided in its bylaws. A credit union shall submit amendments to its articles of incorporation or bylaws to the commissioner in duplicate. Amendments to articles of incorporation or bylaws become effective at the time the commissioner issues a certificate of approval.

Art. 2461-2.07. Restrictions on Use of Name

No person, corporation, partnership, or association, other than a credit union or association of credit unions organized under this Act or the Federal Credit Union Act, may use a name or title containing the words "credit union" or any derivation thereof, represent itself as a credit union, or conduct business as a credit union. Violation of this section constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000, by confinement in jail for not more than two years, or both. The commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this section.

Art. 2461-2.08. Place of Business

A credit union shall maintain a principal place of business and shall file with the commissioner a statement specifying the post office address of its principal place of business. If a credit union gives the commissioner prior written notification, a credit union may establish at locations other than its principal place of business additional offices that are reasonably necessary to furnish services to its members.

Art. 2461-2.09. Reports

On or before February 1 of each year, each credit union organized under this Act shall report to the department on a form supplied by the department for this purpose. On filing the report, a credit union shall pay to the commissioner a filing fee of $10, except no credit union chartered within the preceding six-month period is required to pay a filing fee. The department may, in its discretion, require a credit union to file additional reports. If a credit union does not file a report within 15 days after February 1 of any year, the commissioner shall charge the credit union a late fee of $5 for each day that the report is in arrears, except the commissioner may waive payment of the late fee for good cause shown.

Art. 2461-2.10. Exemption from Certain Taxes

Each credit union organized under this Act is exempt from all franchise and other license taxes. The intangible property of a credit union organized under this Act is not taxable by the state or any of its political subdivisions.

CHAPTER 3. MEMBERSHIP

Art. 2461-3.01. Membership Defined

Membership in a credit union is limited to the incorporators and other persons who:

1. Share a definable community of interest, in accordance with the bylaws of the credit union, including a community of interest based on occupation, association, or residence;
2. Have paid an entrance fee if one is required by the bylaws;
3. Have subscribed to and paid for one or more shares; and
4. Have complied with any other requirements contained in the articles of incorporation and bylaws.

Art. 2461-3.02. Meetings of Members

Members of a credit union shall hold annual and special meetings at the time, place, and in the manner provided in the bylaws. At all meetings, each member has only one vote, regardless of his shareholdings. No member may vote by proxy, except a member that is an organization may be represented and vote by one of its members or shareholders who is authorized, in writing, by the organization's governing body to represent the organization.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 4. POWERS OF CREDIT UNION

Art. 2461-4.01. General Powers

Subject to the provisions of this Act, the articles of incorporation, and the bylaws of the credit union, each credit union organized under this Act may:

1. Make contracts;
2. Sue and be sued in the name of the credit union;
3. Adopt and use a common seal and alter its seal at pleasure;
4. Purchase, hold, lease, or dispose of property necessary or incidental to its operations, subject to regulations issued by the commissioner;
(5) require the payment of an entrance or membership fee not to exceed $1;

(6) receive from its members payments on shares or deposits and to conduct Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other thrift programs for the membership;

(7) act as fiscal agent of the United States, under such regulations as the secretary may promulgate, as agent for any instrumentality of the United States, and as agent of this state or any governmental division or instrumentality of this state;

(8) lend its funds to its members in the manner provided in this Act;

(9) purchase or otherwise provide insurance for the benefit or convenience of its members;

(10) borrow money from any source, but if, after incurring a debt, the total debt of the credit union will exceed an amount equal to 25 percent of its shares, deposits, and surplus, the debt may not be incurred without the prior approval of the commissioner, and the commissioner shall grant or deny a request for approval under this subsection within 10 days after it is made;

(11) act under the order or appointment of any court of record, without giving bond, as guardian, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, custodian, or as depository for any money paid into court for members; act as depository for any money constituting the estates of deceased members; accept funds or money for deposit by fiduciaries, trustees, or receivers, if managing or holding funds in behalf of a credit union or one or more members of the credit union; accept funds or money for deposit by building and loan associations, savings departments of banks, commercial banks, savings banks and trust companies, or insurance companies if the membership or the primary ownership of the institutions, associations, or companies is confined or restricted to or for the benefit of credit unions and their members or organizations of credit unions, or if the institutions, associations, or companies are designed to serve or otherwise assist credit union operations; and act as custodian of individual retirement accounts, custodian of pension funds of self-employed individuals or of the sponsor of a credit union, or as trustee under pension and profit-sharing plans; and all powers granted under the provisions of this subsection are subject to standards prescribed by regulations promulgated under this Act;

(12) invest funds in the manner provided in this Act;

(13) make deposits in legally chartered banks, trust companies, and central-type credit union organizations, and purchase shares and invest in savings and loan associations;

(14) hold membership in other credit unions organized under this Act or other laws, subject to rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, and hold membership in other organizations as may be approved by the board of directors;

(15) declare dividends, pay interest on deposits, and pay interest refunds to borrowers in the manner provided in this Act;

(16) impress a lien on the shares and accumulation of dividends and interest of any member to the extent of any loans made to the member directly or indirectly, or on which the member is surety, and for any other obligations due by the member;

(17) change its principal place of business to another place in the state, or change the location in the state of any subsidiary places of business, on giving written notice to the commissioner;

(18) collect, receive, and disburse money in connection with the sale of travelers checks, money orders, and similar instruments, and for other purposes that may provide benefit or convenience for its members, and for those purposes, levy incident charges;

(19) levy a charge not to exceed reasonable administrative costs for each check negotiated to the credit union by a member or other person if the check is returned by the drawee bank because it is drawn against insufficient funds, there is a stop payment order, the account on which it is drawn is closed, or it is drawn against uncollected funds, or if it is returned for a similar reason; this charge is in addition to interest authorized by law and is not a part of the interest collected or agreed to be paid on a subject loan under any state law that limits the rate of interest that may be charged in any transaction, but the charge is an expense of administration;

(20) make donations or contributions to any nonprofit, civic, charitable, or community organization as authorized by the board of directors subject to rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner and subject to federal or state laws regulating these contributions;

(21) operate as a central credit union, with the approval of the commissioner; and

(22) cause any or all records kept by the credit union to be copied or reproduced by any photostatic, photographic, electronic, or microfilming process that correctly and permanently
Art. 2461-4.02. Incidental Powers

A credit union may exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to accomplish the purposes for which the credit union is organized. A credit union may exercise the powers granted corporations organized under the laws of this state, including those powers necessary or requisite to enable the credit union to promote and carry on most effectively its purposes. A facsimile, exemplification, or certified copy shall, for all purposes, be deemed a facsimile, exemplification, or certified copy of the original record.

Art. 2461-4.03. Conformity to Federally Chartered Credit Unions

The commissioner by rule or regulation may authorize credit unions organized under this Act to engage in any activity in which the credit unions could engage if they were operating as federally chartered credit unions at the time authority is granted, if on investigation or hearing, the commissioner finds it necessary to preserve and protect the welfare of the credit unions and to promote the general economy of this state.

CHAPTER 5. DIRECTION OF AFFAIRS

Art. 2461-5.01. Management

The business and affairs of a credit union are managed by a board of directors of not less than five members, by a credit committee of not less than three members, and by those officers prescribed in the bylaws of the credit union.

Art. 2461-5.02. Certificate of Election

The chairman of the board and the secretary shall execute a certificate of election that sets forth the names and addresses of the officers, directors, and committee members elected or appointed, and shall file a copy of the certificate of election with the department within 30 days after the election or appointment.

Art. 2461-5.03. Board of Directors

(a) Directors of the credit union are elected at an annual membership meeting, by and from the membership, and in the manner provided in the bylaws.

(b) The duties of the board of directors are prescribed by the bylaws.

(c) The terms of the members of the board of directors are prescribed in the bylaws.

(d) The board of directors shall elect from its own number a chairman, who shall preside at all meetings of the board. The board shall elect from its own members a treasurer and secretary of the credit union.

Art. 2461-5.04. Officers

(a) The officers of a credit union consist of:

(1) a chairman of the board;

(2) a treasurer;

(3) a chief executive officer in charge of operations whose title is president, who may or may not be a member of the board of directors;

(4) a secretary; and

(5) such other officers as may be prescribed in the bylaws.

(b) The board of directors may employ or shall designate the president, who may or may not be, in the discretion of the board, the same person as the treasurer or credit manager. The treasurer and the secretary may be the same person, but the president and secretary may not be the same person.

(c) The board of directors shall elect the officers of the credit union at the time and in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.

(d) Each officer shall serve for one year or until his successor is elected and qualifies.

(e) The duties of the officers are prescribed in the bylaws.

Art. 2461-5.05. Credit Committee; Credit Manager; Loan Officers

(a) The board of directors shall appoint a credit committee in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.

(b) The terms of the members of the credit committee are prescribed in the bylaws.

(c) The credit committee shall supervise the making of loans to members.

(d) The credit committee shall meet at least once a month or more frequently if the business of the credit union requires.

(e) A credit union may not make a loan unless it has been considered by the credit committee and approved by a majority of the credit committee present at the meeting at which the loan is considered.
Art. 2461-5.05 CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS

(f) The credit committee may appoint one or more loan officers and delegate to each loan officer the power to approve loans. At least once a month, each loan officer shall furnish to the credit committee a record of each loan approved or not approved by the loan officer during the month preceding the date of the meeting of the credit committee. The loan officer may make loans without the necessity for any meetings other than those prescribed in this subsection and without the necessity of the prior approval by any members of the credit committee, if the bylaws permit. The credit committee shall consider and act on all applications for loans not approved by the loan officer within 30 days after the date the application or request for loan is forwarded to the credit committee.

(g) With the approval of the board of directors, the president may appoint a credit manager to serve in lieu of the credit committee. The credit manager, if so appointed, shall supervise the making of loans to members and shall have the same powers, duties, rights, and prerogatives extended the credit committee under the provisions of this section. A credit union may have only one credit manager, who may be the same person as the president.

Art. 2461-5.06. Compensation and Bond

(a) No director may receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for serving as a director or committee member. Directors may receive reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in carrying out their duties.

(b) The board of directors shall purchase from a surety company authorized to do business in this state a blanket security bond covering all officers, employees, members of official committees, attorneys at law, and other agents of the credit union to protect the credit union against loss caused by the failure of a person to faithfully perform his duties.

Art. 2461-5.07. Audits

(a) The board of directors shall make or cause to be made a comprehensive annual audit of the books and affairs of the credit union, in accordance with established principles and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, and shall submit a summary of the audit to the members of the credit union at the next annual membership meeting. The board shall report the results of the audit to the department. The board of directors shall make or cause to be made any supplementary audits or examinations that it deems necessary. The board of directors shall make or cause to be made verifications of the accounts of the members with the records of the credit union if required by regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(b) If the representative examiners from the department find that the board of directors is not acting in accordance with this Act and the regulations issued under it, the commissioner may appoint an independent committee from outside the credit union and its membership to perform an audit, the costs and expenses of which are borne by the credit union.

Art. 2461-5.08. Misconduct and Penalties for Misconduct

(a) No person may demand or receive, directly or indirectly, any bonus, commission, or other consideration on account of the making of a loan or investment or the purchase of any asset by a credit union.

(b) Any officer, director, committee member, loan officer, or employee of a credit union who knowingly permits a loan to be made to a nonmember or participates in a loan to a nonmember commits a Class B misdemeanor. Additionally, the offender is primarily liable to the credit union for the amount illegally loaned. The illegality of the loan is no defense in any action of the credit union to recover on the loan. Extension of credit to a nonmember for the sale of real or personal property owned by the credit union or for the sale of assets acquired in liquidation or repossession shall not be construed as a loan to a nonmember.

(c) Any officer, director, committee member, loan officer, or employee of a credit union, or any person who knowingly permits or participates in a loan in violation of this Act, the bylaws of the credit union, or rules and regulations of the commissioner, other than a loan in violation of Subsection (b) of this section, commits a felony of the third degree.

Art. 2461-5.09. Officers, Directors, and Employees; Cease and Desist; Removal; Appeal

(a) The commissioner may find that an officer, director, or employee of a credit union, or the credit union itself, acting through any authorized person, has:

(1) violated the provisions of this Act or any other law or regulation applicable to credit unions;

(2) refused to comply with the provisions of this Act or any other law or regulation applicable to credit unions;
(3) willfully neglected to perform duties, or committed a breach of trust or fiduciary duty;
(4) committed any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the credit union's business which endangers the credit union's reputation or threatens its solvency;
(5) refused to submit to examination under oath;
(6) conducted business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner; or
(7) violated any conditions of its charter or of any agreement entered with the commissioner or the department.

(b) If the commissioner makes any of these findings, he shall give notice in writing to the credit union and the offending officer, director, or employee, stating the particular violations or practices found. The commissioner shall call a meeting of the directors of the credit union and lay before them the findings and demand a discontinuance of the violations and practices found.

c) If the commissioner finds that an order to cease and desist is necessary and in the best interest of the credit union involved and its depositors, creditors, and members, then at the directors' meeting above provided or within 30 days thereafter the commissioner may serve on the credit union, its board of directors, and any offending officers, directors, or employees, a written order to cease and desist from the violations and practices enumerated in the order and to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to correct the conditions resulting from the violations or practices. The cease and desist order is effective immediately if the commissioner finds that immediate and irreparable harm is threatened to the credit union, its depositors, or members; otherwise, the order shall state the effective date, not less than 10 days after delivery or mailing of the notice. Unless the credit union or directors file a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 10 days after the delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order is final. A copy of the order shall be entered in the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of the order and certify to the commissioner that the person has been removed from office.

d) If the commissioner subsequently finds by examination or other credible evidence that the offending officer, director, or employee has continued violations or practices previously charged and found by the commissioner, after notice and demand made under Subsection (b) of this section, and further finds that removal from office or employment is necessary and in the best interest of the credit union and its depositors, creditors, and members, then the commissioner may serve the officer, director, or employee with an order of removal. The order shall state the grounds for removal with reasonable certainty and shall effect immediate suspension from office or employment. Unless the credit union, the director, or the person removed files a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 10 days after the delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order of removal is effective and final as of the date of suspension, and the person removed may not hold office, be employed by, or participate in the affairs of the credit union. A copy of the order shall be entered in the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of the order and certify to the commissioner that the person has been removed from office.

(e) If the person removed fails a timely appeal, the commissioner shall set a time and place for hearing the appeal, giving reasonable notice to the person removed. The commission may adopt any rules or procedures necessary to govern the fair hearing and adjudication of the questions appealed.

(f) If, after a cease and desist order or an order of removal becomes effective and final, a credit union or its board of directors or any duly authorized officer of the credit union fails or refuses to comply with an order, then the commissioner may, after giving notice, assess a civil penalty against the credit union in an amount not to exceed $100 for each day the credit union is in violation of the order. If a credit union fails to pay the penalty assessed, the commissioner may institute a suit for collection of the civil penalty in a district court of Travis County.

CHAPTER 6. CAPITAL ACCOUNTS

Art. 2461-6.01. Capital

The capital of a credit union consists of the aggregate amount of the share and deposit accounts of its members plus all reserves and undivided earnings of the credit union.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-6.02. Share Accounts

(a) Share accounts consist of payments made by members on shares, all of which are common shares of one class, subscribed, paid for, and transferred in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.

(b) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, a credit union has a lien on the shares or deposits of a member for any sum due to the credit union from the member or for any loan endorsed by the member.

(c) The credit union may require 60 days' notice for withdrawal of shares.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1976.]
Art. 2461-6.03 Deposit Accounts

Deposit accounts, if any, are operated in accordance with the policies and conditions prescribed by the board of directors.
[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-6.04 Thrift Club Accounts

Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other thrift programs, if provided for the use of members, are operated in accordance with the policies and conditions prescribed by the board of directors.

Art. 2461-6.05 Multiple-party Accounts

(a) A member may designate any person, organization, association, corporation, or partnership to hold shares, deposits, and thrift club accounts with the member in joint tenancy. One or more or all of the joint tenants may make deposits and withdrawals subject to the terms of a multiple-party account agreement accepted by the credit union. A credit union shall maintain all multiple-party account agreements as a permanent part of the records pertaining to multiple-party accounts. At least one party to a multiple-party account must be a member of the credit union in which the account is established. No joint tenant, unless also a member, may vote, obtain loans, or hold office in the credit union. Payment of part or all of a multiple-party account to any one or more of the joint tenants discharges, to the extent of the payment, the liability of the credit union to all.

(b) The net contribution of a party to a multiple-party account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits or shares made by or for the party, less all withdrawals made by or for the party which have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The net contribution includes, in addition, any share or deposit of life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question. During the lifetime of all parties to a multiple-party account, unless the multiple-party account agreement with the credit union provides otherwise, sums on deposit or in share accounts may be paid on the demand of one or more parties even though it is presumed that sums on deposit or in share accounts belong to the parties in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit or in share accounts. Unless the multiple-party account agreement with the credit union provides otherwise, and in the absence of satisfactory proof of the net contributions, those who are parties from time to time shall be presumed to own the joint account in equal undivided interests.

(c) The death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on the beneficial ownership of the account, other than to transfer the decedent's right in the account to the estate of the decedent, unless the account is a survivorship account or trust account established in accordance with the laws and with the constitution of this state and the bylaws of the credit union. Nothing in this Act otherwise prevents a credit union from operating the account in accordance with the terms of the multiple-party account agreement.

(d) A multiple-party account payable to two or more persons, jointly or severally, that does not expressly provide that there is a right of survivorship, is presumed to be a nonsurvivorship account.

(e) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, when a party to a multiple-party account is indebted to a credit union, the credit union has a right to set off against the entire amount of the account.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in conflict with the laws of the United States or of the State of Texas as those laws govern the taxation of multiple-party accounts.

Art. 2461-6.06 Minor Accounts

A credit union may issue shares or deposits in the name of a minor, and a minor may withdraw the shares or deposits. Payments made on withdrawals by a minor are valid. A minor may vote in the meetings of the members if permitted by the by-laws, except no minor may vote through his parent or guardian. No minor is eligible for any office or committee membership within the credit union unless the bylaws specify otherwise.

Art. 2461-6.07 Trust Accounts

A credit union may issue shares or deposits in the name of a member in trust for a beneficiary, including a minor, but no beneficiary, unless the beneficiary is also a member, may vote, obtain loans, hold office, or be required to pay an entrance fee. Payment of part or all of the shares or deposits to a member shall, to the extent of the payment, discharge the liability of the credit union to the member and the beneficiary; and the credit union shall be under no obligation to see the application of the payment. If a member to whom shares or deposits are issued or held in trust dies, and the credit union has no other written evidence of the existence or terms of any trust, the credit union shall pay the shares or deposits and any dividends or interest to the beneficiary or to the legal representative of the Art. 2461-6.08. Third Party Claims

No credit union organized under the laws of this state, nor any federal credit union domiciled in this state is required to recognize the claim of any third party to any share account or deposit, or to withhold payment of any share account or deposit to the depositor or to the order of the depositor, unless and until the credit union is served with citation or other appropriate process issuing out of a court of competent jurisdiction in connection with a suit instituted by the third party for the purpose of recovering or establishing an interest in the deposit or share account.

CHAPTER 7. LOANS

Art. 2461-7.01. Purpose, Terms, and Interest Rate

If made in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, a credit union may make loans to members for such purposes and on such security and terms as the credit committee, credit manager, or loan officer approves, at rates of interest not exceeding one percent per month on the unpaid monthly balance. Every loan must be evidenced by a written instrument.

Art. 2461-7.02. Loan Limit

No credit union may make a loan or aggregate of loans to any one member in an amount greater than 10 percent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union.

Art. 2461-7.03. Line of Credit

The credit committee, an authorized loan officer, or the credit manager may approve in advance a line of credit, and may grant advances to a member within the limit of the extension of credit. If a line of credit has been approved, no additional loan applications are required if the aggregate obligation does not exceed the limit of the extension of credit.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.04. Participation Loans and Other Loan Programs

(a) A credit union may participate in loans to members jointly with other credit unions, corporations, or financial organizations.

(b) A credit union may participate in guaranteed loan programs of the federal and state governments.

Art. 2461-7.05. Loans to Officials

(a) A credit union may make loans and extend lines of credit to its directors, employees, loan officers, credit manager, and to members of its credit committee, if:

(1) the loan complies with the requirements of this Act with respect to loans to other borrowers and is not on terms more favorable than those extended to other borrowers; and

(2) the board of directors approves the loan, if the loan or aggregate of outstanding loans to any one person is greater than $2,500, plus pledged shares and deposits.

(b) A credit union may permit a director, employee, loan officer, credit manager, and member of its credit committee to act as comaker, guarantor, or endorser of a loan to another member, unless the loan standing alone or added to any outstanding loan or loans to the comaker, guarantor, or endorser exceeds $2,500, plus pledged shares and deposits, in which case approval of the board of directors is required.

Art. 2461-7.06. Prepayment Privilege

Any loan may be paid or prepaid in whole or in part, without penalty, during regular working hours on any day on which the credit union is open for business.

CHAPTER 8. INVESTMENTS

Art. 2461-8.01. Investment of Funds

A credit union may invest funds not used in loans to members:

(1) in capital shares, obligations, participation certificates, or preferred stock issues of any agency, association, or company organized either as a stock company, mutual association, membership corporation, or trust company, if the membership or ownership of the agency, association, or company is confined or restricted to credit unions and their members or organizations of credit unions, and if the agency, association, or company is designed to serve or otherwise assist credit union operations; in loans to any credit union association or corporation, national or state, of which the credit union is a member; and investments in any one agency, association, or company of the type described in this subsection may not exceed an aggregate... amount of five percent of the credit union's total assets or the amount of its reserve fund, whichever is less;

(2) in obligations of the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions;

(3) in certificates of deposit or passbook accounts issued by a state or national bank, or issued by a building and loan association or a savings and loan association, subject to regulations promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) in securities, obligations, participations, or other instruments of, issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the federal government or any of its agencies, or in any trust or trusts established for investing directly or collectively in the same;

(5) in loans to other credit unions in an amount not to exceed 25 percent of the total dollar amount of the capital of the lending credit union, or to any trust or trusts established for lending directly or collectively to credit unions;

(6) in purchases from any liquidating credit union, in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, of notes made by individual members of the liquidating credit union at such prices as may be agreed to by the commissioner, or by the liquidating agent or board of directors of the liquidating credit union and the board of directors of the purchasing credit union.

CHAPTER 9. RESERVE ALLOCATIONS; DIVIDENDS; SHARE REDUCTION

Art. 2461-9.01. Reserve Allocations

(a) The commissioner shall, with the approval of the commission, promulgate rules and regulations prescribing reserve allocations and requiring credit unions to maintain any reserves necessary to protect the interests of their members.

(b) The reserve fund belongs to the credit union. The credit union shall use its reserve fund to meet all losses except those resulting from an excess of expenses over income. The credit union may not distribute any reserves except the reserve account established by this Act, may decrease the proportion of the gross income to be placed in the reserve fund, and may transfer part or all of the undivided earnings to the reserve fund.

Art. 2461-9.02. Dividends

The board of directors of a credit union may declare a dividend from undivided earnings in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

Art. 2461-9.03. Share Reduction

When the losses of any credit union, resulting from a depreciation in value of its loans or investments or otherwise, exceed its undivided earnings and reserve fund and the estimated value of its assets is less than the total amount due the shareholders, the credit union may, by a majority vote of the entire membership, order a reduction in shares of each of its shareholders to divide the loss proportionately among the members. If the credit union later realizes from its assets a greater amount than was fixed by the order of reduction, the credit union shall divide the excess among the shareholders whose assets were reduced, but only to the extent of the reduction.

CHAPTER 10. CHANGE IN CORPORATE STATUS

Art. 2461-10.01. Suspension

(a) If the commissioner finds that the capital of a credit union is seriously impaired, or that it is conducting its affairs in an unsafe, unauthorized, or unlawful manner, or that it refuses to submit to examination, the commissioner may take possession of the property and business of the credit union and retain possession until the commissioner permits it to resume business or orders its liquidation. Simultaneously, the commissioner shall cause notice of suspension to be given to the board of directors and shall call for a hearing within 10 days, at which hearing the board of directors may show cause why the suspension should not be continued or the credit union should not be liquidated. The board of directors may waive this hearing.

(b) If the commissioner, after issuing notice of suspension and providing opportunity for a hearing, rejects the credit union's plan to continue operations, the commissioner may issue a notice of involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidating agent who shall proceed as provided in Section 10.02 of this Act.

Art. 2461-10.02. Liquidation

(a) When the commissioner finds that the interests of depositors and creditors of a credit union are seriously jeopardized through insolvency or imminent insolvency and that it is to the best interest of the depositors and creditors that the credit union be closed and its assets liquidated, the commissioner may close and liquidate the credit union.
(b) Unless involuntary liquidation has already been initiated by the commissioner, a majority of the credit union members present at a meeting specially called to consider the matter, but not less than a quorum, may vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union if a notice of the special meeting was mailed to the members of the credit union at least 10 days prior to the meeting. Immediately after the mailing of a notice of a special meeting called to consider the matter of liquidation, the credit union shall cease to operate except for the purposes of accepting payments on loans or other obligations due the credit union. If the vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union passes, the credit union may do no further business except that incidental to liquidation. The chairman of the board or the president and the secretary shall, within five days following the meeting and the affirmative vote to dissolve and liquidate, notify the department of intention to liquidate and shall include a list of the names of the directors and officers of the credit union together with their addresses. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the commissioner may appoint a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors of the credit union in liquidation if it is found that it is to the best interests of the depositors and creditors to do so.

(c) At any time within five days after the commissioner has closed any credit union under the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section or has appointed a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors under the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section, the credit union acting through its directors may sue in the district court of the county in which the credit union is located to enjoin the commissioner from liquidating the credit union. The court may, without notice or hearing, restrain the commissioner from liquidating the assets of such credit union pending hearing of the suit on the merits, and shall, in that event, instruct the commissioner to hold the assets of the credit union in the commissioner’s possession pending final disposition of the suit. The commissioner may, with approval of the court, take such actions as may be necessary or proper to prevent loss or depreciation in the value of the assets. The court shall, as soon as possible, hear the suit on the merits and shall enter a judgment either enjoining the commissioner from liquidating the assets of the credit union or refusing to issue an injunction. Appeal shall lie from the judgment as in other civil cases, but the commissioner, irrespective of the character of judgment entered by the trial court or of any supersedeas bond filed, shall retain possession of the assets of such credit union pending final disposition on appeal.

(d) The credit union in liquidation shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all acts required in order to wind up its business, and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted. The board of directors or the liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay, in the following order:

1. expenses incidental to liquidation including any surety bond that may be required;
2. any liability due nonmembers;
3. depositors;
4. thrift club accounts as provided in this Act; and
5. distributions to members proportionate to the shares held by each member as of the date liquidation was voted.

(e) A liquidating agent may, subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner:

1. receive and take possession of the books, records, assets, and property of the credit union in liquidation; sell, enforce collection of, and liquidate all assets and property; compound all bad or doubtful debts; sue in the name of the liquidating agent or in the name of the credit union in liquidation; and defend actions brought against the liquidating agent or against the credit union;
2. receive, examine, and pass on all claims against the credit union in liquidation, including claims of members on shares;
3. make distribution and payment to creditors and members as their interests may appear; and
4. execute such documents and papers and do such other acts and things that the liquidating agent may deem necessary or desirable to discharge his duties.

(f) Subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, the board of directors or liquidating agent of a credit union in liquidation shall:

1. cause notice to be given to creditors and members to present and make legal proof of their claims, which notice must be published once a week in each of three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where the credit union in liquidation maintained an office or branch for the transaction of business on the date it ceased unrestricted operations; except that when the aggregate book value of the assets and property of the credit union in liquidation is less than $10,000, the commissioner shall declare the credit union in liquidation to be a “no publication” liquidation, and publication notice to creditors and members is not required in such case;
(2) from time to time make a ratable liquidation dividend on all claims that have been proved to the satisfaction of the board of directors or the liquidating agent or adjusted in a court of competent jurisdiction, and, after the assets of the credit union have been liquidated, make further liquidation dividends on all claims previously proved or adjusted (the statement of any amount due to the creditor as shown on the books and records of the credit union may be accepted in lieu of a formal proof of claim on behalf of any creditor or member); but all claims not filed before payment of the final dividend are barred; claims rejected or disallowed by the board of directors or by the liquidating agent are also barred unless suit is instituted within three months after notice of rejection or disallowance; and

(3) in a "no publication" liquidation, determine from all sources available, and within the limits of available funds of the credit union, the amounts due to creditors and members, and after 60 days have elapsed from the date of notification to the department of a voluntary liquidation or from the date of appointment of the liquidating agent distribute the funds of the credit union to creditors and members ratably and as their interests may appear.

(g) The commissioner shall prescribe the certificate to be completed by the liquidating agent or by the board of directors attesting to liquidation, that distribution has been made and that liquidation has been completed. The commissioner, on receipt and approval of the certificate, shall cancel the charter of the credit union. The corporate existence of the credit union shall continue for a period of three years from the date of cancellation of its charter, during which period the liquidating agent, or any duly appointed successor, or such persons as the commissioner may designate, may act on behalf of the credit union for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and it may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(h) No liquidating agent, officer, director, or employee of a credit union in liquidation may acquire any of the assets of the credit union or purchase any loans of the credit union. None of these persons may obtain from the liquidation any compensation or profit for personal benefit, whether directly, indirectly, for the benefit of any member of the person's family or any person associated with the person, or for the benefit of any business enterprise with which the person is associated, except for the credit union in liquidation. The liquidating agent may receive such reasonable compensation as may be set forth in the contract of employment, and nothing in this Act shall prevent compensation of the liquidating agent or those salaried employees and salaried officers of the credit union during the pendency of the liquidation, which payments shall be considered expenses incidental to liquidation. Any person who participates in a violation of this subsection commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 and not less than $100, or by confinement in jail for not more than six months, or both. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-10.03. Merger

(a) A credit union may, with the approval of the department, merge with any other credit union under the existing charter of the other credit union, pursuant to a plan agreed to by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each credit union present at the meetings of members called for that purpose. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the plan be approved by a majority of the members of the credit unions.

(b) After agreement by the directors and approval by the members of each credit union, the president and secretary of each credit union shall execute a certificate of merger containing the following information:

1. the time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan of merger was agreed to;
2. the vote of the board of directors in favor of and against the adoption of the plan;
3. a copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan of merger was agreed to;
4. the time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan was approved;
5. the vote of the membership in favor of and against approval of the plan; and
6. the name of the surviving credit union.

(c) The merging credit union shall submit the certificates and a copy of the plan of merger to the department. On approving the merger, the department shall return the certificates and plan to the merging credit unions.

(d) After a merger is effected, all property, property rights, and interests of the merged credit union vest in the surviving credit union without deed, endorsement, or other instrument of transfer, and all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the merged credit union are assumed by the surviving credit union under whose charter the merger is effected.

(e) This section shall be construed, whenever possible, to permit a credit union organized under any other act to merge with one organized under this Act.
[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-10.04. Conversion
The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to permit the conversion of a credit union organized under this Act to a federal credit union, and the conversion of a federal credit union to a credit union organized under this Act.
[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 11. REGULATORY BODY

Art. 2461-11.01. Credit Union Commission
(a) The Credit Union Commission consists of six members, all of whom are from state-chartered credit unions. The commission shall consult with, advise, and make recommendations to the commissioner. The jurisdiction, authority, powers, and duties previously conferred and imposed by law on the Banking Commissioner in relation to the management, control, regulation, and general supervision of credit unions are conferred and imposed on the commission and commissioner.

(b) The Credit Union Department is composed of the Credit Union Commission and a Credit Union Commissioner, together with other officers and employees within the department. The department shall supervise and shall regulate, as provided in this Act, all credit unions organized under the laws of the State of Texas. The department shall periodically make comprehensive studies of the statutes of this state as they pertain to credit union operations. The commissioner shall report the recommendations of the department when and as necessary to the legislature for consideration. As of December 31 of each year the department shall report annually to the governor the receipts and disbursements of the department for each calendar year, and shall report to the appropriate committees of the house of representatives and of the senate within the first 60 days of each regular session of the legislature.

Art. 2461-11.02. Qualifications of Members
All members of the commission must have a minimum of five years' active experience in the operation of a credit union. No two members of the commission may be residents of the same state senatorial district.
[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-11.03. Appointment and Terms of Members
The members of the commission are appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, for terms of six years, with the terms of two members expiring every two years. As of the effective date of this Act, the terms of the respective members of the Credit Union Commission then serving shall continue until their normal expiration dates.

Art. 2461-11.04. Vacancies
In the event of the death, resignation, or removal of a member of the commission, or if a member ceases to have the qualifications necessary to original appointment, the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint a qualified person to fill the unexpired term.
[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-11.05. Expenses of Members
Each member of the commission is entitled to reimbursement of the reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties.

Art. 2461-11.06. Meetings
(a) The commission shall hold regular meetings at least two times each year. The chairman of the commission, the commissioner, or any three members of the commission may call special meetings. The commission may adopt rules and regulations governing the time and place of meetings, the character of notice of special meetings, and the conduct of all meetings, including the form in which minutes of the meetings are maintained.

(b) A majority of the membership of the commission constitutes a quorum for the purpose of transacting any business.

(c) The commission shall annually elect one of its members to serve as chairman. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the commission.

(d) The commissioner shall attend meetings of the commission and shall preside in the absence of the chairman. The commissioner may not vote at any meeting.

(e) No commission member may act on matters under consideration which specifically relate to any credit union incorporated under Chapter 2 of this Act in which the member of the commission is an officer, director, or shareholder.
[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-11.07. Rulemaking Power
(a) The commissioner, with the approval of the commission, shall promulgate general rules and regulations pursuant to this Act and from time to time may amend the same. The rules and regulations shall apply to all credit unions organized under this Act.

(b) The commissioner and the commission may not promulgate rules and regulations in contradiction of existing rules and regulations until notice of the terms or substance of the proposed rule or regulation or amendment is submitted, in writing, to all credit unions subject to regulation. Each credit union may, within 60 days after the date of issuance of the notice, submit, in writing, comments or questions relevant to the proposed rule or regulation to the commissioner. The commission shall consider the written comments or questions submitted by the credit union, together with relevant materials available from the files and records of the department. The commission may hold a public hearing if necessary. The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations in writing. The commissioner, with the approval of the commission, shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the conduct of any public credit union, together with relevant materials available from the files and records of the department. The commissioner, the commissioner shall supervise and regulate all credit unions doing business in this state, except federal credit unions organized and existing under federal law, in accordance with this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated under this Act.

(b) The commissioner shall enforce the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated from time to time.

(c) With the approval of the commission, the commissioner shall levy and collect all supervision fees, penalties, charges, and revenues required to be paid by credit unions.

(d) The commissioner shall submit to the commission at least once a year a full and complete report of the receipts and expenditures of the department. The commission may require more frequent reports. The commission shall adopt and from time to time amend, budgets that direct the purposes and prescribe the amounts for which the fees, penalties, charges, and revenues may be expended or levied.

(e) The commissioner, with the approval of the commission, shall promulgate rules and regulations requiring credit unions doing business within the state to provide or cause to be provided share and deposit insurance for members and depositors.

Art. 2461–11.08. Credit Union Commissioner

The commission shall appoint, by at least four affirmative votes, a Credit Union Commissioner who shall serve as an employee and at the pleasure of the commission. The commissioner must have at least 5 years' practical experience within the 10 years immediately prior to his appointment. The experience may consist of experience in the executive management of a credit union or in the employment of a credit union regulatory agency.

Art. 2461–11.09. Deputy Credit Union Commissioner

Subject to the approval of the commission, the commissioner may appoint a Deputy Credit Union Commissioner. The deputy commissioner must meet the same qualifications as does the commissioner. The deputy commissioner, if any, shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner. He may exercise all the powers and prerogatives of the commissioner and shall perform all the duties of the commissioner during the commissioner's absence or inability to act or otherwise at the direction of the commissioner.

Art. 2461–11.10. Powers of Credit Union Commissioner

(a) On the appointment and qualification of a commissioner, the commissioner shall supervise and regulate all credit unions doing business in this state, except federal credit unions organized and existing under federal law, in accordance with this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated under this Act.

(b) The commissioner shall enforce the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated from time to time.

(c) With the approval of the commission, the commissioner shall levy and collect all supervision fees, penalties, charges, and revenues required to be paid by credit unions.

(d) The commissioner shall submit to the commission at least once a year a full and complete report of the receipts and expenditures of the department. The commission may require more frequent reports. The commission shall adopt and from time to time amend, budgets that direct the purposes and prescribe the amounts for which the fees, penalties, charges, and revenues may be expended or levied.

(e) The commissioner, with the approval of the commission, shall promulgate rules and regulations requiring credit unions doing business within the state to provide or cause to be provided share and deposit insurance for members and depositors.

Art. 2461–11.11. Credit Union Examiners

Subject to recruitment and qualifications approved by the commission, the commissioner shall appoint credit union examiners in sufficient number to perform fully the duties and responsibilities under this Act and the laws of this state.

Art. 2461–11.12. Annual Examination

The department, by and through its duly appointed examiners, shall perform an examination of the books and records of each credit union subject to this Act at least once each year. Each credit union shall furnish the examiner full access to all books, papers, securities, records, and other sources of information under the control of the credit union. The examiner may administer oaths. The examiner shall report the results of each examination on a form prescribed by the commissioner and approved by the commission. The examiner shall include in the report a general statement of the affairs and condition of the credit union. The department shall send a copy of the report to the board of directors of the credit union examined within 30 days after the examination. Each credit union shall pay an examination fee based on the costs of performing the examination.
Art. 2461-11.13. Oaths of Office; Bond

The commissioner, the deputy commissioner, if any, each credit union examiner, and every other officer and employee of the commission, shall before assuming the duties of office, take an oath and make fidelity bond in the sum of $10,000 payable to the governor and all successors in the office of governor, in individual, schedule, or blanket form, executed by a surety appearing on the list of approved sureties acceptable to the United States government. Each oath and bond required under this Act must be in a form approved by the commission. The premiums for the bond are paid out of the funds of the department.

The attorney general shall defend any action brought against any member of the commission or against any of its officers or employees by reason of the official act or omission of the person, whether or not the person is a member, officer, or employee of the commission at the time of the initiation of the action. Venue for any actions taken against the commission, its officers, or employees lies in Travis County.

Art. 2461-11.15. Compensation of Employees

The commissioner, the deputy commissioner, if any, each examiner, and every other officer of the commission, except commission members, are employees of the commission, subject to its orders and directions, and are entitled to receive compensation fixed by the commission, but in no event may any employee receive compensation exceeding that paid to the governor. The compensation is paid from funds of the department.

Art. 2461-11.16. Transfers to General Revenue Fund

The department shall transfer $1,000 each year to the general revenue fund to cover the costs of governmental service rendered by other departments.

Art. 2461-11.17. Exemption from Securities Laws

Credit unions, their officers, employees, and agents in the sale, issuance, or offering of savings and share accounts of any credit union and their deposit and share accounts, whether state or federally chartered, are exempt from the registration provisions of the laws of this state, other than this Act, which provide for the supervision, registration, or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance, or offering of securities as the term is defined in Section 4, Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The sale, issuance, or offering of any such accounts or shares is legal without any action or approval on the part of any official, other than the credit union commissioner, authorized to license, regulate, or supervise the sale, issuance, or offering of securities.

TITLE 47

DEPOSITORIES

CHAPTER ONE. STATE DEPOSITORIES

Art. 2530. Deposit of Securities

In the event the State Depository, as designated in the preceding Article, shall elect to deposit said pledged securities, above mentioned, with the State Treasurer, the said securities shall be delivered to the Treasurer and receipted for by him, and retained by him in the vaults of the State Treasury. Provided, however, that such bank so designated as depository shall elect to deposit said pledged securities with the State Treasurer, of depositing same with another State or National Bank situated in the State, subject to the approval of the Board; said securities to be held in trust by said custodian bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the depository bank. Upon the receipt of said securities, said custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said securities pledged to the State Treasurer. The security evidence by such trust receipts shall be subject to inspection by the Board or its agents at any time deemed advisable by said Board. Said custodian bank shall have a capital stock and permanent surplus of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, and said bank designated as depository shall itself defray the charges, if any, of such custodian bank for accepting and holding said securities.

A State Depository bank shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas; such securities to be held by said Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities are so deposited and subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the State Depository bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the State Treasurer and the State Depository bank.

Subject to the approval of the Board, a State Depository may have the right to substitute one group of securities for another group of securities pledged with the State Treasurer, when and as such State Depository may desire to make such substitution, so long as the securities desired to be substituted by such bank shall come within the classification of securities acceptable under the terms of this Act.

If, in any case, or at any time, such bonds or other securities are not satisfactory security, in the opinion of the Board, for the deposits made under this Act, they may require such additional security to be given as will be satisfactory to them. Said Board shall, from time to time inspect such bonds and see that the same are actually kept in the vaults of the State Treasury and in said custodian banks. If the pledged securities are deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, the Board shall conduct such audits and inspections of the records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas as may be reasonably necessary to verify the existence of and proper accounting for said pledged securities. In the event that any State Depository shall fail to pay deposits or any part thereof on the check of the Treasurer, he shall have the power to forthwith realize upon such bonds or other securities deposited by said bank, and disburse the money arising therefrom, according to law, upon the warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the funds for which said bonds or other securities were secured. Any bank making deposits of bonds or other securities with the Treasurer under the provisions of this Act may cause such bonds or other securities to be endorsed or stamped, as they may deem proper, so as to show that they are deposited as collateral and not transferable, except as herein provided.

Upon request of the owner or owners, the Treasurer or custodian bank may surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest when due on securities deposited by depository banks, provided, said securities are ample to meet the requirements of the State.

Whenever any private bank now organized as provided for by the private banking laws of Texas should seek to become a depository for State funds or any other governmental agency, it shall agree in writing to submit itself to examination as to its solvency.

Responsibility for Rendering Services to the Visually Handicapped; Inter-agency Agreements; Cooperation with Federal Government

Sec. 2a.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2a(a) to (d)]

(e) The State Commission for the Blind and other concerned state agencies or instrumentalities may not refuse to enter into any interagency agreement developed for the purpose of advancing the declared policies of the State of Texas regarding the rehabilitation or education of the blind and visually handicapped. Such agreements shall be negotiated and undertaken with a view toward extending and improving the types of services regularly, routinely, currently and effectively being carried out by state-supported agencies and instrumentalities directly at the time of the effective date of this subsection. The programs or services so developed through interagency agreements or contracts shall be implemented with due consideration to making efficient use of all available specialty and fiscal resources, and with careful attention being first given to avoiding unnecessary duplication, overlap, or redundancy.

Executive Director; Other Workers

Sec. 3. The Board of the State Commission for the Blind may appoint and fix the compensation of an executive director, assistant executive director, and such other workers as may be necessary to make effective the purposes of the State Commission for the Blind within the appropriations available. Upon undertaking specific activities supportive of programs of special education and vocational education for the blind and visually handicapped, the Board of the State Commission for the Blind is authorized to employ a total of five individuals in exempt positions, to consist of the executive director and assistant executive director, a deputy director for cooperative programs with other agencies and departments of the state or of its political subdivisions, a deputy director for technical and consultative services to private organizations and special resource facilities within the field, and a deputy director for the regular programs of the agency. The salaries and related costs of these positions may be paid out of the general funds of the agency, out of special grants received by the agency, or through funds becoming available under interagency agreements. The Board of the State Commission for the Blind may establish the salaries of these exempt positions in amounts not to exceed the average amounts paid for equivalent positions in any other five state agencies engaged in the direct extension of state-supported services to eligible individuals.

1 See art. 4413(202).

Art. 3207d. Early Identification and Registry of Blind and Visually Handicapped

Sec. 1. Under the general supervision of the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped,1 there shall be maintained a current and comprehensive register of the blind and of persons within the State of Texas handicapped by a visual condition that is likely to deteriorate either to blindness or to a substantial visual handicap.

Sec. 2. An individual employed by an organization directly or indirectly supported by the State of Texas or deriving income from the vending of goods or services to the State of Texas or any political subdivision of the state or engaged in a business or profession requiring a license issued under the laws of the State of Texas on encountering in a business or professional capacity an individual who is handicapped by a serious visual impairment shall, if a professional or commercial relationship is established with the visually handicapped individual:

1 determine through inquiry if the visually handicapped individual is known to the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped; and

2 if the visually handicapped individual is not known to the Governor's Coordinating Office, forward to the Governor's Coordinating Office the name, mailing address, telephone number if available, age, sex, race, and federal Social Security number of the visually handicapped individual if a Social Security number is available.

Sec. 3. On receipt of information forwarded pursuant to Section 2 of this article, staff designated by the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped to maintain the register of blind and visually handicapped individuals shall contact the visually handicapped person about whom information has been forwarded to ascertain if the individual should appropriately be included on the register. If it appears that the individual's visual condition is not of a nature such that special governmental services are or potentially might be required because of the visual condition, the individual need not be included on the Register of Blind and Visually Handicapped, but if the individual's visual condition is such that governmental services are presently needed or might with reasonable likelihood be needed at a future date, appropriate information concerning the individual shall be included in the register.

Sec. 4. Appropriate systems, standards, and procedures shall be developed for the Register of the Blind and Visually Handicapped to assure:

1 that information contained in the register is effectively shared with all state programs offering services that are beneficial to the blind and visually handicapped;

2 that state programs providing services to blind and visually handicapped persons supply for inclusion in the register information pertinent to the services provided and the outcome of the services;

3 the effective long-range planning of state services for the blind and visually handicapped;

4 the meaningful evaluation of the effectiveness and impact of special services provided to the blind and visually handicapped; and

5 the maintenance of a service monitoring and review process to minimize unreasonable delays in the initiation of appropriate services, duplication of services, or inadequate coordination of the respective educational, rehabilitative, or other special effort which various organizations might from time to time exert in behalf of blind or visually handicapped individuals.

Sec. 5. The Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped is authorized to enter into such arrangements as might be determined necessary, appropriate, and consistent with objectives of cost-effectiveness in developing the electronic data processing capabilities required for efficiently discharging the responsibilities enumerated in this article.

SAN ANTONIO STATE SCHOOL

Art. 3263g. San Antonio State School

Sec. 1. There is hereby established the San Antonio State School for the education, care, and treatment of mentally retarded persons. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation may enter into agreements with the State Department of Health for use of the excess facilities of the San Antonio Chest Hospital in the operation of the school.

Sec. 2. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation shall appoint personnel necessary to operate and maintain the school and to adequately treat the persons admitted within the limits of legislative appropriations. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation shall admit persons and shall provide for their care and maintenance under the state laws, rules, and regulations governing the admission and care of mentally retarded persons.

Art. 3271a. Texas Engineering Practice Act

Sec. 11. A roster showing the names and places of business of all registered professional engineers shall be prepared and published by the Board each biennium at a time determined by the Board. Copies of this roster shall be furnished without charge to any engineer licensed by the Board on the written request of the engineer, placed on file with the Secretary of State, and furnished to any person upon written request who tenders a reproduction fee set by the Board in an amount not to exceed Five Dollars ($5.00).

Sec. 13. Applications for registration shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the Board, shall contain statements made under oath, showing the applicant's education and a detailed summary of his actual engineering work, and shall contain not less than five (5) references, of whom three (3) or more shall be engineers having personal knowledge of his engineering experience.

The registration fee for professional engineers shall be Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

Sec. 16. It shall be the duty of the Board to notify every person registered under this Act of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate. Renewal may be effected by the payment of a renewal fee set by the Board not to exceed Forty-five Dollars ($45.00). The Board is hereby given authority and duty to determine the amount of such renewal fee required to effectively carry out the administration and enforcement of all the provisions of this Act. Failure on the part of any registered engineer to renew his certificate annually shall not deprive such person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal of a certificate when the renewal is past due shall be increased ten per cent (10%) for each month or fraction of a month that renewal payment is delayed; provided, however, that the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed twice the normal renewal fee.
Art. 3272b. Duties of Depositories of Dormant or Inactive Accounts

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 3]

Report to State Treasurer

Sec. 4. On or before May 1st of the year following the first publication required by this Article, the depository shall submit in duplicate copies a report to the State Treasurer listing the names of all such depositors or creditors whose names were published, whose whereabouts and the whereabouts of any owner of such deposit or credit still remain unknown, and each of whose deposits or accounts still remain in a dormant or inactive status. Such report shall set forth in alphabetical order the name and last known address of the depositor or creditor, the date and amount appearing to be due each depositor or creditor when the account first became dormant or inactive, or on January 1, 1959, whichever date is later, the amount credited to such account at the time of the report, the date of the last transaction with the depositor or creditor, and its identification number, if any. If the amount then credited to an account is less than the amount of the initial dormant deposit or inactive account, except for its share of publication costs, the reason for such reduction shall be stated.

The subscribing officer shall certify under oath that the report is a complete and correct statement of all dormant deposits and inactive accounts held by the depository subject to the reporting provisions of Section 4 of Article 3272b; that the existence and whereabouts of the listed depositors or creditors are unknown to the depository; and that the listed depositors or creditors have not asserted any claim or exercised any act of ownership with respect to the reported accounts during the past seven (7) years.

Together with the foregoing report, the depository shall deliver to the State Treasurer a sum equal to the total amount of the accounts listed in the report, and the State Treasurer shall sign a receipt therefor and shall assume custody thereof. The State shall be responsible for the safekeeping thereof, and any depository delivering such deposits or accounts to the State Treasurer under this Act is relieved of all liability for any claim which then exists or which may thereafter arise or be made in respect to the property.

State Conservator Fund

Sec. 5. All funds received by the State Treasurer under the provisions of this Article or from the escheat of any deposit, credit, account or other property held by any bank or other institution covered by Section 1(a) hereof shall be deposited into a separate fund to be known as the "State Conservator Fund," from which there shall be set aside and maintained a revolving expense fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) for the purpose of paying expenses incurred by the State Treasurer in the enforcement of the provisions of this Article, including the expense of publications, forms, notices, examinations, travel, and employment of necessary personnel; and thereafter any amounts remaining unpaid to owners shall be transferred to the Available School Fund; provided that the State Conservator Fund shall never be reduced below Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). This sum shall remain available for payments to those who may at any time in the future establish their ownership or right as herein provided to any deposit or account delivered to the State Treasurer under this Act. The moneys in such fund over Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) shall be invested from time to time by the State Treasurer in investments which are approved by law for the investment of any State funds, and the income thereof shall be and become a part of the said State Conservator Fund. The expense fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) is hereby appropriated to the State Treasurer for the purposes above stated for the biennium ending August 31, 1963.

The State Banking Commissioner shall transfer to the State Treasurer for deposit in the State Conservator Fund all dormant deposits and other funds formerly owned by or deposited in liquidated depositories which have been held by the Commissioner for more than twenty (20) years and of which the whereabouts of the depositors, creditors or owners have been unknown to him for more than twenty (20) years. Upon delivery, together with a certificate of such facts under oath of the State Banking Commissioner, the funds shall be subject to conservation and disposition under the terms of this Arti-
Art. 3272b  ESCHÉAT

The State Banking Commissioner shall deliver to the State Treasurer a record of the names of the liquidated depositories, and the names and last known addresses of the depositors and creditors and the amounts of the deposits, credits, or other funds.

The State Treasurer shall compile an alphabetical list containing the name and last known address of each depositor or creditor listed on the depository reports and the amount of each depositor account. The State Treasurer shall revise the list not later than June 1 of each year. The list shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

Proceedings of the State Legislature

Sec. 1a. All available written or electronic records of the proceedings of the state legislature which are required by the rules of the respective houses to be preserved may be attested by the presiding officer of each house or by a deputy designated by him for such purpose. The attested records or copies or duplications thereof shall be, so far as relevant, admitted in the courts of this state as evidence of the matters stated therein, subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Act, without the necessity of the presence in the court of the presiding officer or deputy designated to attest, preserve, or display the records, copies, or duplications.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2 and 3]

Authentication of Copy

Sec. 4. Such writings or electronic records may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy or electronic duplication attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy. Except in the case of a copy of an official writing or official electronic recording from a public office of this State or a subdivision thereof, the attestation shall be accompanied with a certificate that the attesting officer has the legal custody of such writing. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States, or by any officer of a United States military government, stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office. In the case of the matters in Section 2a, the substance, contents, and/or wording of any of such matters may also be evidenced by certification, as to existence on a particular date or dates by the governmental head of such country or his secretary, or such country’s attorney (such as attorney general) or assistant attorney or chief legal head, or the president, leader or head of its or one of its law-making bodies or the secretary thereof; or judge or any justice of any appellate court of such country and if none, judge or any justice of one or any one of its highest judicial tribunals. All such attested and certified instruments and the contents of the certificate and the title of the person making same, shall be evidence of the matters, statements, representations and title contained therein.

Art. 3737g. Advance Payment to Tort Claimants; Introduction of Evidence

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the making of advance payments for economic loss to claimants without permitting the introduction of evidence of advance payments on the issue of liability or damages during subsequent litigation, but permitting the allowance of advance payments as a credit against any sum judicially established as a claimant’s total damages. The making of periodic payments to claimants for medical expenses, wages lost, and property damaged, often without taking any form of release, will avoid delays in and promote payments for economic loss to persons in need.

“Advance Payment” Defined

Sec. 2. In this Act, “advance payment” includes but is not limited to, any partial payment or payments made by any person, corporation, or insurer to another which is predicated on possible tort liability for medical, surgical, hospital, or rehabilitation services, facilities, or equipment; loss of earnings; out-of-pocket expenses; bodily injury; death; or property damage, loss, or destruction.

Inadmissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment at Trial

Sec. 3. In any civil action in which a party or someone on his behalf, such as his insurer, has made an advance payment prior to trial, any evidence of or concerning the advance payment shall be inadmissible at the trial on liability or damages in any action brought by the claimant, his survivor, or his personal representative to recover damages for personal injuries or related damages, for wrongful death of another, or for property damage or destruction.

Admissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment after Verdict or Decision; Right to Jury Trial Undenied

Sec. 4. If an action results in a jury verdict or decision of the court for damages in favor of a party, the party against whom the verdict or decision is entered may introduce evidence of advance payments after the verdict or decision and before final judgment, and the court shall then reduce the amount awarded to the claimant by the amount of the advance payment proved to have been made prior to trial. Such advance payments shall not be permitted as a reduction of the amount awarded unless there is evidence at the trial on liability that the party to whom the advance payments were made suffered loss as described in Section 2 herein, equal to or exceeding the amount of such advance payments. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deny to any party his constitutional right to trial by jury on the amount of the credit at a time subsequent to the trial on liability and damages.

Application of Act

Sec. 5. This Act applies to any action filed after the effective date of this Act, regardless of the site of the accident, location of property, or residence of the parties.

Statute of Limitations Tolled

Sec. 6. The making of an advance payment tolls the running of the statute of limitations until the last payment is made unless the person making the advance payment notifies the recipient in writing at the time of each payment that the applicable statute of limitations is not tolled.

Art. 3810. Sales Under Deed of Trust

All sales of real estate made under powers conferred by any deed of trust or other contract lien shall be made in the county in which such real estate is situated. Where such real estate is situated in more than one county then notices as herein provided shall be given in both or all of such counties, and the real estate may be sold in either county, and such notice shall designate the county where the real estate will be sold. Notice of such proposed sale shall be given by posting written notice thereof at least 21 days preceding the date of the sale at the courthouse door of the county in which the sale is to be made, and if the real estate is in more than one county, one notice shall be posted at the courthouse door of each county in which the real estate is situated.

In addition, the holder of the debt to which the power is related shall at least 21 days preceding the date of sale serve written notice of the proposed sale by certified mail on each debtor obligated to pay such debt according to the records of such holder. Service of such notice shall be completed upon deposit of the notice, enclosed in a postpaid wrapper, properly addressed to such debtor at the most recent address as shown by the records of the holder of the debt, in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service. The affidavit of any person having knowledge of the facts to the effect that such service was completed shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of service. Such sale shall be made at public vendue between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. of the first Tuesday in any month.

Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided: "This Act shall become effective on January 1, 1976, and it shall apply only to sales made after that date."

Art. 3886h. Compensation of District Attorneys, Assistants, Investigators, Secretaries and Office Personnel in 34th District

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District may be paid a salary in an amount not to exceed the total salary and supplemental compensation paid from the state and county funds to the Judge of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District of Texas. The amount of county contributions to the salary paid by the State of Texas to the District Attorney of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of El Paso County. The salaries of Assistant District Attorneys, Investigators, secretaries, and other office personnel shall be fixed by the District Attorney, subject to approval of the Commissioners Court of El Paso County.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of El Paso County, Texas, in said Thirty-fourth Judicial District, is hereby authorized to pay the salaries of the Assistant District Attorneys, Investigators, secretaries, and other office personnel as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and to supplement the salary of the District Attorney paid by the State of Texas in such an amount that the total salary paid shall not exceed the maximum provided for in Section 1 hereof. Nothing shall affect the present existing law relating to the manner of selecting and determining the number of Assistant District Attorneys and Investigators except as herein provided.

Art. 4413(29aa). Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Powers of Commission

Sec. 2. The Commission shall have the authority and power to:

(a) Promulgate rules and regulations for the administration of this Act including the authority to require the submission of reports and information by any state, county, or municipal agency within this state which employs peace officers.

(b) Establish minimum educational, training, physical, mental and moral standards for admission to employment as a peace officer:

(1) in permanent positions, and

(2) in temporary or probationary status.

(c) Certify persons as being qualified under the provisions of this Act to be peace officers.

(d) Certify persons as having qualified as law enforcement officer instructors under such conditions as the Commission may prescribe.

(e) Establish minimum curriculum requirements for preparatory, in-service and advanced courses and programs for schools or academies operated by or for the state or any political subdivisions thereof for the specific purpose of training peace officers or recruits for the position of a peace officer.

(f) Consult and cooperate with counties, municipalities, agencies of this state, other governmental agencies, and with universities, colleges, junior colleges, and other institutions concerning the development of peace officer training schools and programs of courses of instruction.

(g) Approve, or revoke the approval of, institutions and facilities for schools operated by or for the state or any political subdivision thereof for the specific purpose of training peace officers or recruits for the position of peace officer, and issue certificates of approval to such institutions and revoke such certificates of approval.

(h) Operate schools and facilities thereof and conduct courses therein, both preparatory, in-service, basic and advanced courses, for peace officers and recruits for the position of peace officer as the Commission may determine.

(i) Contract with other agencies, public or private, or persons, as the Commission deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies and reports as it may require to cooperate with municipal, county, state and federal law enforcement agencies in training programs, and to otherwise perform its functions.

(j) Make or encourage studies of any aspect of law enforcement, including police administration.

(k) Conduct and stimulate research by public and private agencies which shall be designed to improve law enforcement and police administration.

(l) Employ an Executive Director and such other personnel as may be necessary in the performance of its functions.

(m) Visit and inspect all institutions and facilities conducting courses for the training of peace officers and recruits for the position of peace officer and make evaluations as may be necessary to determine if they are complying with the provisions of this Act and the Commission's rules and regulations.

(n) Adopt and amend rules and regulations, consistent with law, for its internal management and control.

(o) Accept any donations, contributions, grants or gifts from private individuals or foundations or the federal government.

(p) Report annually to the Governor and to the Legislature at each regular session on its activities, with its recommendations relating to any matter within its purview, and make such other reports as it deems desirable.

(q) Meet at such times and places in the State of Texas as it deems proper; meetings shall be called by the Chairman upon his own motion, or upon the written request of five members.

(r) Establish procedures for the revocation of certificates issued to a peace officer under the provisions of this Act.

Reporting Standards and Procedures

Sec. 2B. (a) The Commission shall establish such reporting standards and procedures for matters of employment and termination of peace officers by law enforcement agencies, for matters concerning the activities of certified training academies, and for other matters it deems necessary for the administration of this Act.

(b) The Commission shall furnish each agency and certified training academy with the required reporting forms.
The chief administrative officer of a law enforcement agency or certified training academy shall be responsible for compliance with the reporting standards and procedures.

Peace Officers; Tenure; Probationary Appointments; Training Sec. 6.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 6(a) to (g)]

(b) "Peace officer," for the purposes of this Act, means only a person so designated by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and by Section 51.212, Texas Education Code.

Revocation of Certificate Sec. 6A. The Commission may revoke a certificate issued to a peace officer under the provisions of this Act if the Commission determines that the officer has violated a rule, regulation, requirement, specification, or other standard established by the Commission. The Commission shall revoke a certificate issued to a peace officer under the provisions of this Act if the officer is convicted in any state or federal court of a felony.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 7 and 8]

Convicted Felons as Peace Officers Sec. 8A. (a) No person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States may be certified by the Commission as qualified to be a peace officer.

(b) Final conviction of a felony under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States disqualifies a person previously certified by the Commission as qualified to be a peace officer, and the Commission shall immediately revoke the certification of a person so convicted.

(21) "Registration" means a permit granted by the board to an individual to perform the duties of a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager.

(22) "Registrant" means an individual who has filed an application with the board to perform the duties of a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager.

(23) "Handgun" has the meaning given in Section 46.01(5), Penal Code.

(24) "Director" means the director of the Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies.

Exceptions

Sec. 3. (a) This Act does not apply to:

(1) a person employed exclusively and regularly by one employer in connection with the affairs of an employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship; provided, however, any person who shall carry a handgun in the course of his employment shall be required to obtain a private security officer commission under the provisions of this Act;

(2) an officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this State or a political subdivision of either, while the employee or officer is engaged in the performance of official duties;

(3) a person who has full-time employment as a peace officer as defined by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, who receives compensation for private employment on an individual or an independent contractor basis as a patrolman, guard, or watchman if such person is:
(a) employed in an employee-employer relationship; or
(b) employed on an individual contractual basis; and
(c) not in the employ of another peace officer;

(4) a person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information for purposes of credit worthiness or collecting debts or ascertaining the financial responsibility of applicants for property insurance and for indemnity or surety bonds, with respect to persons, firms, and corporations;

(5) an attorney-at-law in performing his duties;

(6) admitted insurers, insurance adjusters, agents, and insurance brokers licensed by the State, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them;

(7) the legal owner of personal property which has been sold under a conditional sales agreement or chattel mortgage;

Text of § 14(a)(6) as amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 788, ch. 303, § 1

(6) the legal owner of

(A) personal property which has been sold under a conditional sales agreement or a mortgage, or

(B) personal property placed on the premises of another under the terms of a lease or the contractual agreement between the legal owner of the personal property and either the owner, lessee, sublessee, or tenant of the premises;

(8) a locksmith who does not install detection devices;

(9) a person who owns and installs detection or alarm devices on his own property or, if he does not charge for the device or its installation and installs it for the protection of his personal property located on another's property, on the property of another;

(10) an employee of a cattle association who is engaged in inspection of brands of livestock under the authority granted to that cattle association by the Packers and Stockyards Division of the United States Department of Agriculture;

(11) registered professional engineers practicing in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Engineering Practice Act.1

(b) Licensees and employees of licensees under the provisions of this Act shall not be required to obtain any authorization, permit, franchise, or license from or pay any other fee or franchise tax to or post a bond in any city, county, or other political subdivision of this State to engage in business or perform any service authorized under this Act.

(c) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this subsection, no city, county, or other political subdivision of this State shall impose any charge, service charge, fee, or any other type of payment for the use of city, county, or other public facilities in connection with businesses or services rendered by the licensees under this Act, except that any city or town may levy and collect reasonable charges for the use of central alarm installations located in a police or fire dispatching office, that is owned, operated, or monitored by such city or town. Provided further, that any city or town may require discontinuation of service of any alarm signal device which, because of mechanical malfunction or faulty equipment, causes at least five false alarms in any 12-month period. Such city or town may cause the disconnection of any such device until the same is repaired to the satisfaction of the appropriate municipal, official, and the city or town may levy and collect reasonable inspection and reinspection fees in connection therewith. "Mechanical malfunction" and "faulty equipment" shall not relate, for the purposes of this section, to false alarms caused by human error or an act of God.

(d) Although under the provisions of this Act the security department of a private business that hires or employs an individual in the capacity of a private security officer to possess a handgun in the course and scope of his duties is required to make application for a security officer commission for the individual according to the provisions of this Act, the security department of a private business shall not be required to make application to the board for any license under this Act.

1 Article 3271a.

SUBCHAPTER B. ADMINISTRATION

Creation of Board

Sec. 4. (a) A Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies is created to carry out the functions and duties conferred on it by this Act.

(b) The position of director of the Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies is created. He shall serve as chief administrator of the board. He shall not be a member of the board, but shall be a full-time employee of the board, fully compensable in an amount to be determined by the Legislature. The director shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the board, and shall have no financial or business interests, contingent or otherwise, in any security services contractor or investigations company.

(c) All legal process and all documents required by law to be served upon or filed with the board shall be served or filed with the director at the designated office of the board. All official records of the board or affidavits by the director as to the content of such records shall be prima facie evidence of all matters required to be kept by the board.

Board Membership

Sec. 5. The board is composed of the following members:

1. the director of the Texas Department of Public Safety or his designated representative shall serve as an ex officio member of such board, and such service shall not jeopardize the individual's official capacity with the State of Texas;

2. the Attorney General or his designated representative shall serve as an ex officio member of such board, and such service shall not jeopardize the individual's official capacity with the State of Texas;

3. one city or county law enforcement officer shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate;

4. two members shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, who are citizens of the United States and residents of the State of Texas; and

5. three members shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who are licensed under this Act, who have been engaged for a period of five consecutive years as a private investigator or security services contractor, and who are not employed by the same person as any other member of the board.

Oath of Office

Sec. 6. (a) The members of the board appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate shall take the constitutional oath of office before an officer authorized to administer an oath within this state.

(b) Upon presentation of the oath, together with the certificate of appointment, the secretary of state shall issue commissions to appointees as evidence of their authority to act as members.

Terms of Office

Sec. 7. (a) The appointed members of the board serve staggered six-year terms, and the terms of two appointed members expire on January 31 of each odd-numbered year. Each appointed member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and has qualified.
license, registration, or security officer commission, or who has received any other penalty or sanction by the board.

(b) The board shall have a seal, the form of which it shall prescribe.

Issuance of Subpoenas

Sec. 11A. (a) In the conduct of any investigation conducted under the provisions of this Act, the board may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of pertinent books, accounts, records, and documents. The officer conducting a hearing may administer oaths and may require testimony or evidence to be given under oath.

(b) No witness is privileged to refuse to testify to any fact, or to produce any paper, respecting which he is properly examined by the officer conducting the hearing. Any person called upon to testify or to produce papers upon any matter properly under inquiry by the board, who refuses to so testify or produce papers upon the ground that his testimony or the production of papers would incriminate him or tend to incriminate him, shall nevertheless be required to testify or to produce papers, but when so required under these objections he is not subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he truthfully testifies or produces evidence.

(c) If a witness refuses to obey a subpoena or to give any evidence relevant to proper inquiry by the board, then the board may petition a district court of the county in which the hearing is held to compel the witness to obey the subpoena or to give the evidence. The court shall immediately issue process to the witness to obey the subpoena or to give the evidence. The court shall immediately issue process to the witness and shall hold a hearing on the petition as soon as possible. If the witness then refuses, without reasonable cause or legal grounds, to be examined or to give any evidence relevant to proper inquiry by the board, the court shall punish the witness for contempt.

Revocation, Suspension, etc.

Sec. 11B. (a) The board may revoke or suspend any registration, license, or security officer commission, reprimand any registrant, licensee, or commissioned security officer, or deny an application for a registration, license, or security officer commission, or renewal thereof on proof:

(1) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has violated any provisions of this Act or of the rules and regulations promulgated under this Act;

(2) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has committed any act resulting in conviction of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude;

(3) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has practiced fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation;

(4) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has made a material misstatement in the application for or renewal of a license, registration, or security officer commission;

(5) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has demonstrated incompetence or untrustworthiness in his actions.

(b) The board shall, before acting under Subsection (a) of this section provide 30 days' written notice to the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant of the charges and give him an opportunity to request a hearing before the board and be represented by an attorney. A hearing shall be scheduled by the board on such request.

(c) In the event that the board denies the application for, or revokes or suspends any license, security officer commission, or registration, or imposes any reprimand, the board's determination shall be in writing and officially signed. The original copy of the determination when so signed, shall be filed with the board and copies shall be mailed to the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant, and the complainant within two days after the filing.

(d) The board may suspend any registration on conviction in this state or any other state or territory of the United States, or in any foreign country, of a felony for a period not exceeding 30 days pending a hearing and a determination of charges. If the licensee is a corporation, proof of actual participation and knowledge on the part of the registrant is required. If the hearing is adjourned at the request of the registrant, the suspension may be continued for an additional period of the adjournment.

Organization and Meetings of the Board

Sec. 12. (a) The board shall meet within 30 days after the effective date of this Act, and thereafter at regular intervals to be decided by a majority vote of the board.

(b) The board, including the representative of the director of the Department of Public Safety if he so designates one, shall elect from among its members a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary to serve two-year terms commencing on September 1, of each odd-numbered year. The chairman, or in his absence, the vice-chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the board and perform the other duties prescribed in this Act.

(c) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum to transact business.
Art. 4413(29bb)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  968

(d) At the first meeting, the board shall specify the date and place of the first examinations for licenses to be held.

SUBCHAPTER C. LICENSES
License Required and False Representation Prohibited

Sec. 13. (a) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act for any person to engage in the business of, or perform any service as, a private investigator or security services contractor or to offer his services in such capacities or engage in any business or business activity required to be licensed by this Act unless he has obtained a license under the provisions of this Act.

(b) It is unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act for any person to represent falsely that he is employed by a licensee.

(c) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act for any individual to make application to the board as manager or to serve as manager of an investigations company or security services contractor unless the individual intends to maintain a supervisory position on a daily basis for the investigations company or security services contractor.

Qualifications
Sec. 14. (a) An applicant for a license or his manager must:

(1) be at least 18 years of age;
(2) be a citizen of the United States;
(3) not have been convicted in any jurisdiction of any felony or any crime involving moral turpitude for which a full pardon has not been granted;
(4) not have been declared by any court of competent jurisdiction incompetent by reason of mental defect or disease and has not been restored;
(5) not be suffering from habitual drunkenness or from narcotics addiction or dependence;
(6) not have been discharged from the armed services of the United States under other than honorable conditions;
(7) be of good moral character;
(8) be in compliance with any other reasonable qualifications that the board may fix by rule.

(b) An applicant who applies for a license to engage in the business of an investigations company or his manager shall have three (3) years consecutive experience prior to the date of said application in the investigative field, as an employee, manager, or owner of an investigations company or other requirements as shall be set by the board. The experience of the applicant must be reviewed by the board or by the director and determined to be adequate to qualify the applicant to engage in the business of an investigations company.

(c) An applicant who applies for a license to engage in the business of a security services contractor or his manager shall have two (2) consecutive years experience prior to the date of said application in the security services field, as an employee, manager, or owner of a security services contractor or other requirements as shall be set by the board. The experience of the applicant must be reviewed by the board or by the director and determined to be adequate to qualify the applicant to engage in the business of a security services contractor.

Application and Examination
Sec. 15. (a) An application for a license under this Act shall be in the form prescribed by the board. The application shall include:

(1) the full name and business address of the applicant;
(2) the name under which the applicant intends to do business;
(3) a statement as to the general nature of the business in which the applicant intends to engage;
(4) a statement as to the classification under which the applicant desires to be qualified;
(5) the full name and residence address of each of its partners, officers, and directors, and its manager, if the applicant is an entity other than an individual;
(6) two recent photographs of a type prescribed by the board of the applicant, if the applicant is an individual, or of each officer and of each partner or shareholder who owns a 25 percent or greater interest in the applicant, if the applicant is an entity;
(7) two classifiable sets of fingerprints of the applicant, if the applicant is an individual, or of each officer and of each partner or shareholder who owns a 25 percent or greater interest in the applicant, if the applicant is an entity;
(8) a verified statement of his experience qualifications;
(9) a letter from the police department and a letter from the sheriff’s department of the city and county wherein the applicant resides concerning the character of the applicant and containing any objection or recommendation as to his application; and a letter from the Texas Department of Public Safety setting forth the record of any convictions of any applicant for a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude; and
(10) any other information, evidence, statements, or documents as may be required by the board.

(b) An application for a license under this Act shall include the Social Security number of the one making application.

(c) The board may require an applicant or his manager to demonstrate qualifications by an examination to be determined by the board.

(d) Payment of the application fee prescribed by this Act entitles the applicant or his manager to one examination without further charge. If the person fails to pass the examination, he shall not be eligible for any subsequent examination except upon payment of the reexamination fee which shall be set by the board in an amount not in excess of the renewal fee for the license classification for which license application was originally made.

Classification of License

Sec. 16. (a) No person may engage in any operation outside the scope of his license.

(b) For the purpose of defining the scope of licenses, the following license classifications are established:

(1) Class A: investigations company license, covering operations as defined in Subdivision (3), Section 2, of this Act;

(2) Class B: security services contractor license, covering operations as defined in Subdivision (9), Section 2, of this Act;

(3) Class C: covering the operations included within Class A and Class B.

(c) A person licensed only as a security services contractor may not make any investigation except as incidental to the theft, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation, or concealment of any property which he has been hired or engaged to protect.

Fees

Sec. 17. (a) The fee for a Class A original license is $150; for the renewal of a Class A license, the fee is $100.

(b) The fee for a Class B original license is $150; for the renewal of a Class B license, the fee is $100.

(c) The fee for a Class C original license is $225; for the renewal of a Class C license, the fee is $175.

(d) A delinquency fee shall be for not less than $10, nor more than $25.

(e) The fee for a license to operate a branch office, as defined in Subdivision (20), Section 2, of this Act shall be $50; for the renewal of a branch office license, the fee is $50.

(f) All fees, money, and fines collected under this Act shall be deposited in the Treasury of the State of Texas.

Manager to Control Business

Sec. 18. (a) The business of each licensee shall be operated under the direction and control of one manager, and no licensee shall make application to qualify more than one individual to serve as manager.

(b) No person shall act as a manager of a licensee until he has complied with each of the following:

(1) demonstrated his qualifications by a written examination;

(2) made a satisfactory showing to the board that he has the qualifications prescribed by Section 14 of this Act, and that none of the facts stated in Subsection (a), Section 11B, of this Act exist as to him.

(c) If the manager, who has qualified as provided in this section, ceases to be manager for any reason whatsoever, the licensee shall notify the board in writing within 14 days from such cessation. If notice is given, the license shall remain in force for a reasonable length of time to be determined by the rules of the board pending the qualifications as provided in this Act, of another manager. If the licensee fails to notify the board within the 14-day period, his license shall be subject to suspension or revocation.

(d) When the individual on the basis of whose qualifications a license under this Act has been obtained ceases to be connected with the licensee for any reason whatsoever, the business may be carried on for such temporary period and under such terms and conditions as the board shall provide by regulation.

Handgun: Security Officer Commission

Sec. 19. (a) It is unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act:

(1) for a person to employ an individual as a private security officer and knowingly authorize or permit him to carry a handgun during the course of performing his duties as a private security officer if the board has not issued him a security officer commission under this section; or

(2) for an individual employed as a private security officer to knowingly carry a handgun during the course of performing his duties as a private security officer if the board has not issued him a security officer commission under this section.
It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act for any person to hire or employ an individual or for any individual to accept employment in the capacity of a private security officer to carry a handgun in the course and scope of his duties unless the private security officer is issued a security officer commission by the board.

(b) The board, with the concurrence of the Texas Department of Public Safety, may issue a security officer commission to an individual employed as a uniformed private security officer provided the geographical scope of the security officer commission is restricted to one named county in the State of Texas and all counties contiguous to the named county, except as allowed in Subsection (c) of this section.

(c) The board, with the concurrence of the Texas Department of Public Safety, may issue a security officer commission that is broader in geographical scope within the State of Texas than that specified in Subsection (b) of this section if the broader scope is shown to be in the public interest and necessary to the performance of the duties of the private security officer.

(d) The board, with the concurrence of the Texas Department of Public Safety, shall issue a security officer commission to a qualified employee of an armored car company that is a carrier that has a permit from the proper federal or state regulatory authority to conduct the armored car business in accordance with the permit or certificate. A security officer commission issued to an employee of an armored car company shall be broad enough in its geographical scope to cover the county or counties in which the armored car company has a permit or certificate to conduct its business.

(e) The employer of a private security officer who makes application for a security officer commission shall submit an application to the board on a form provided by the board. A $10 fee shall accompany each application for a security officer commission.

(f) No security officer commission may be issued to any individual who is under 18 years of age, who is a convicted felon, or who has committed any act which if committed by a licensee would be grounds for suspension or revocation of a license under this Act.

(g) The board shall send a copy of each application for a security officer commission to the Texas Department of Public Safety and to the sheriff of the county and the chief of police of the principal city of the county in which the applicant resides. A sheriff or chief of police who wishes to object to the issuance of a security officer commission to a particular applicant may do so by mailing or otherwise delivering a written statement of his objection and his reasons to the board. If the board decides to issue a security officer commission over the objections of a sheriff or chief of police, it shall mail a notice of its decision to the objecting officer and give him an opportunity to request a hearing before the board to contest the board's decision. If the objecting officer files a request for a hearing within 30 days after the date the notice was mailed to him, the board shall set the matter for a hearing. The board may not issue a security officer commission over the objection of a sheriff or chief of police unless it finds at the hearing that there is good cause to issue the commission over the objection or, if no hearing is requested, until the time for requesting a hearing has passed.

(h) Each security officer commission issued under this section shall be in the form of a pocket card designed by the board, and shall identify the licensee or the security department of a private business by whom the holder of the security officer commission is employed. A security officer commission expires on the date the license of the licensee who employs the officer expires or, if the officer is employed by the security department of a private business, one year after the date it is issued. No charge may be imposed for the pocket card, but an annual renewal fee for a commission shall be fixed by the board at not less than $3 or more than $5.

(i) If the holder of the security officer commission terminates his employment with the licensee or the security department of a private business or transfers his residence to another county, he must return the pocket card to his employer and his employer must return the pocket card to the board within 14 days of the date of termination of the employment or transfer of business.

(j) The board shall provide by rule the procedure by which a licensee or the security department of a private business may issue a temporary security officer commission to a private security officer who has made application to the board for a security officer commission.

(k) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to the holder of a valid temporary security officer commission issued under this section if the holder is in uniform and in possession of only one handgun and engaged in the performance of his duties.

(l) The board may suspend or deny a security officer commission if the holder or applicant is indicted for a felony or for a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

Training Programs

Sec. 20. (a) The board shall establish training programs to be conducted by agencies and institutions approved by the board. The board may approve training programs conducted by licensees if the licensees offer the courses listed in Subsection (b) of this section, and if the instructors of the training program are qualified instructors approved... by the board. The board shall approve a training program conducted by the security department of a private business to train its own personnel, without regard to its curriculum, if it is adequate for the business' security purposes.

(b) The basic training course approved by the board shall consist of a minimum of 16 hours and shall include:

1. legal limitations on the use of handguns and on the powers and authority of a private security officer;
2. familiarity with this Act;
3. field note taking and report writing;
4. range firing and procedure, and handgun safety and maintenance; and
5. any other topics of security officer training curriculum which the board deems necessary.

(c) The board shall develop a commissioned security officer training manual to be used in the instructing and training of commissioned security officers.

(d) The board shall promulgate all rules necessary to administer the provisions of this section concerning the training requirements of this Act.

(e) The board may not issue a security officer commission to an applicant employed by a licensee unless the applicant submits evidence satisfactory to the board that:

1. he has completed the basic training course at a school or under an instructor approved by the board;
2. he meets all qualifications established by this Act and by the rules of the board;
3. he has satisfied his handgun training instructor that he has attained a minimum average marksmanship competency of 160 out of 300 on an “Army L” target or a minimum of 80 out of 150 on an F.B.I. Silhouette target (N.R.A. B-27), at 50 feet with 10 shots slow fire, 10 shots time fire, and 10 shots double-action.

(f) The board may not issue a security officer commission to an applicant employed by the security department of a private business unless the applicant submits evidence satisfactory to the board that:

1. he has completed an approved training course conducted by the security department of the business;
2. he meets all qualifications established by this Act and by the rules of the board.

(g) In addition to the requirements of Subsections (e) and (f) of this section, the board by rules and regulations shall establish other qualifications for persons who are employed by licensees or the security department of a private business in positions requiring the carrying of handguns. These qualifications may include physical and mental standards, standards of good moral character, and other requirements that relate to the competency and reliability of individuals to carry handguns. The board shall prescribe appropriate forms and rules and regulations by which evidence that the requirements are fulfilled is presented.

(h) The board shall prescribe appropriate rules and regulations for the maintenance of records relating to persons issued security officer commissions by the board.

Form of Licenses

Sec. 21. A license or a branch office license, when issued, shall be in the form prescribed by the board, and shall include:

1. the name of the licensee;
2. the name under which the licensee is to operate; and
3. the number and date of the license.

Posting

Sec. 22. (a) The license shall at all times be posted in a conspicuous place in the principal place of business of the licensee.

(b) Each branch office license shall at all times be posted in a conspicuous place in each branch office of the licensee.

Change of Address and New Officers

Sec. 23. Notification to the board shall be made within 14 days after the change of address of the principal place of business of a licensee, the change of address of a branch office, or the change of a business name under which a licensee does business. A licensee shall within 14 days after such change, notify the board of any and all changes of his address, of the name under which he does business and of any changes in its officers or partners.

License Not Assignable

Sec. 24. A license issued under this Act is not assignable.

Termination of License

Sec. 25. The board shall prescribe by rule the procedure under which a license issued under this Act may be terminated. The fee for the termination of a license under this Act shall be established by the board in an amount not to exceed $5.

Notice to Local Officials

Sec. 26. Notice of the issuance, revocation, reinstatement, or expiration of every license, commission, or registration card issued by the board shall be furnished to the sheriff of the county and the chief office license shall be $50; the fee for a renewal for such license shall be $50.

Registration of Employees or Private Investigators

Sec. 32. (a) Every employee of a licensee who is employed as a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager must be registered with the board within 14 days after the commencement of such employment.

(b) The minimum age of a person registered under this section shall be 18 years of age.

(c) The board may promulgate by rule any additional qualifications of an individual registered under this section as a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager.

Application for Registration

Sec. 33. The application for registration shall be verified and shall include:

1. The full name, residence address, residence telephone number, date and place of birth, and the Social Security number of the employee;
2. A statement listing any and all names used by the employee, other than the name by which he is currently known, together with an explanation setting forth the place or places where each name was used, the date or dates of each use, and a full explanation of the reasons why each such name was used. If the employee has never used a name other than that by which he is currently known, this fact shall be set forth in the statement;
3. The name and address of the employer and the date the employment commenced and a letter from the licensee requesting that the employee be registered under his license;
4. The title of the position occupied by the employee and a description of his duties;
5. Two recent photographs of the employee, of a type prescribed by the board, and two classifiable sets of his fingerprints;
6. A letter from the police department and a letter from the sheriff's department of the city and county wherein the applicant resides concerning the character of the applicant and containing any objection or recommendation as to his application;
7. Such other information, evidence, statements, or documents, as may be required by the board.

Pocket Card

Sec. 34. A pocket card of such size, design, and content as may be determined by the board shall be issued to each registrant under this Act. The date of issuance shall be noted on such pocket card, and the date of expiration shall also be noted. Such pocket card shall contain a color photograph and signature of the registrant.

Undercover Agents: Exemption

Sec. 35. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, employees of a licensee who are employed exclusively as undercover agents shall not be required to register under this Act with the board.

Pocket Card: Annual Renewal

Sec. 36. The pocket card of each registrant expires on the date the license of the licensee who employs the registrant expires. On notification from the board the month before expiration of the registrant's pocket card, each registrant shall file for renewal of registration on a form designed by the board.

Pocket Card: Return

Sec. 37. When an individual to whom a pocket card has been issued under Section 32 of this Act terminates his position, he shall return the pocket card to the licensee within five days after his date of termination.

Cancellation

Sec. 38. Within seven days after the licensee has received the pocket card of a terminated registered employee, the licensee shall mail or deliver the pocket card to the board for cancellation, along with a letter from the licensee stating the date the registered employee terminated, the date the licensee received the pocket card of the terminated registered employee, and the cause for which or the conditions under which the registered employee terminated.

Registration Fee

Sec. 39. The registration fee for private investigators, managers, and branch office managers required by this Act shall be fixed by the board at not more than $7 nor less than $4. The annual renewal registration fee for private investigators, managers, and branch office managers required by this Act shall be fixed by the board at not more than $5 nor less than $3.

Bonds Filed for License

Sec. 40. No license shall be issued under this Act unless the applicant files with the board a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this State in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) conditioned to recover against the principal, its servants, officers, agents and employees by reason of its wrongful or illegal acts in conducting such business licensed under this Act; in addition to the surety bond required hereunder, every applicant for a license shall, prior to the issuance of the same, file with the board proof of a policy of public liability insurance in the sum of not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) conditioned to compensate any person for damages, including but not limited to bodily injuries, caused by wrongful acts of the principal, its servants, officers, agents and employees in the conduct of any business licensed by this Act.

Action on Bonds to Recover Damages

Sec. 41. The bond required by this Act shall be made payable to the State of Texas, and anyone so injured by the principal, its servants, officers, agents and employees, shall have the right and be permitted to sue directly upon this obligation in their own names, and this obligation shall be subject to successive suits for recovery until complete exhaustion of the face amount hereof.

Suspension for Failure to file Surety Bond

Sec. 42. (a) Every licensee shall at all times maintain on file with the board the surety bond required by this Act in full force and effect and upon failure to do so, the license of such licensee shall be forthwith suspended and shall not be reinstated until an application therefor, in the form prescribed by the board, is filed together with a proper bond.

(b) The board may deny the application notwithstanding the applicant's compliance with this section:

(1) for any reason which would justify refusal to issue or a suspension or revocation of a license; or

(2) for the performance by applicant of any practice while under suspension for failure to keep his bond in force, for which a license under this Act is required.

(c) Bonds executed and filed with the board pursuant to this Act shall remain in force and effect until the surety has terminated future liability by a 30-day notice to the board.

Cash Deposited in Lieu of Surety Bond

Sec. 43. The sum of $10,000 in cash may be deposited with the State of Texas, in lieu of the surety bond required by this Act.

SUBCHAPTER D. ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS

Penal Provisions

Sec. 44. Any person who knowingly falsifies the fingerprints or photographs submitted under Subdivisions (6) and (7) of Subsection (a), Section 15, is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years. Any person who violates any of the other provisions of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by fine not to exceed $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or both. Expiration and Renewal of License and Registration Card

Sec. 45. (a) Licenses issued under this Act expire at 12 midnight on December 31 of each year if not, in each instance, renewed. To renew an unexpired license, the licensee shall, on or before the date on which it would otherwise expire, apply for renewal on a form prescribed by the board, and pay the renewal fee prescribed by this Act. On renewal, a renewal license shall be issued to the licensee.

(b) Removal of a license shall not prohibit the bringing of disciplinary proceedings for an act committed before the effective date of the renewal.

(c) Licensees shall apply for renewal from November 1st to December 1st of each year.

Expiration Dates of Licenses; Proration of Fees

Sec. 46. The board by rule may adopt a system under which licenses expire on various dates during the year. For the year in which the expiration date is changed, registration fees payable on December 31 shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each licensee shall pay only that portion of the license fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On renewal of the license on the new expiration date, the total license fee is payable.

Activity During Suspension of License

Sec. 47. A suspended license is subject to expiration and shall be renewed as provided in this Act, but such renewal does not entitle the licensee, while the license remains suspended and until it is reinstated, to engage in the licensed activity, or in any other activity or conduct in violation of the order or judgment by which the license was suspended.

Reinstatement of a Revoked License

Sec. 48. A revoked license is subject to expiration as provided in this Act, but it may not be renewed. If it is reinstated after its expiration, the licensee, as a condition precedent to its reinstatement, shall pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which it is reinstated, plus the delinquency fee, if any, accrued at the time of its revocation.

Notification of Conviction for Felony or Crime Involving Moral Turpitude

Sec. 49. The Texas Department of Public Safety shall notify the board, and the police department and the sheriff's department of the city and county wherein any person licensed, commissioned, or regis­

Membership; Duties

Sec. 5. The commission shall be composed of twenty-four appointed members and two ex officio members as follows: four county officials, four city officials, two public school officials, two representatives of other political subdivisions, two federal officials residing in Texas and responsible for federal programs operating in the State, and four private citizens all appointed by the Governor; three State Senators appointed by the Lieutenant Governor; three State Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House; and the Lieutenant Governor (ex officio) and Speaker of the House of Representatives (ex officio). The duties to be performed by each public official or employee appointed to the commission or serving ex officio shall be considered duties in addition to those otherwise required by that person's office.

Terms of Office; Vacancies; Records

Sec. 7. (a) Appointed members of the commission shall hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the terms of eight appointed members, including one Senator and one Representative, expiring on the first day of September in each odd-numbered year.

Authority to Make Interlocal Contracts and Agreements
Sec. 4.
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4(a) to (c)]
(d) The contracting parties to any interlocal contract or agreement shall have full authority to create an administrative agency or designate an existing political subdivision for the supervision of performance of an interlocal contract or agreement and any administrative agency so created or political subdivision so designated shall have the authority to employ personnel and engage in other administrative activities and provide other administrative services necessary to execute the terms of any interlocal contract or agreement. For purposes of this Act any body politic and corporate organized under the laws of this state shall be considered a political subdivision.

(e) The contracting parties to any interlocal contract or agreement shall have full authority to contract with state departments and agencies as defined in Article 4413(32), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, or any similar department or agency of an adjoining state. The contracting parties to interlocal contract or agreement shall have specific authority to contract with the Department of Corrections for the construction, operation and maintenance of a regional correctional facility provided that title to the land on which said facility is to be constructed is deeded to the Department of Corrections and provided further that a contract is executed by and between all the parties as to payment for the housing, maintenance and rehabilitative treatment of persons held in jails who cannot otherwise be transferred under authority of existing statutes to the direct responsibility of the Department of Corrections.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1385, ch. 460, §§ 1 to 3, eff. June 19, 1975.]
Section 4 of the 1975 amendatory act provided: "Any law in conflict with this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict."

Art. 4413(32e). Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations

Purpose
Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the economical delivery of the services provided by state government by means of a comprehensive review of governmental structure and administration.

Definitions
Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Committee" means the Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations.

(2) "Departments and Agencies" means all departments, bureaus, agencies, boards, commissions, and other instrumentalities of the executive branch of the state government.

Creation of Committee
Sec. 3. There is created the Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations.
Membership

Sec. 4. (a) The committee consists of the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the secretary of state, and other members appointed as provided by this section.

(b) The governor shall appoint nine persons, none of whom may be members of the house or of the senate.

(c) The lieutenant governor shall appoint three members of the senate.

(d) The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint three members of the house of representatives.

Terms and Vacancies

Sec. 5. (a) The initial members of the committee shall take office within 30 days after the effective date of this Act and shall serve until the expiration of the committee.

(b) Vacancies among the appointed members shall be filled for the unexpired terms in the same manner as the original appointments were made.

Compensation

Sec. 6. (a) Legislative members of the committee shall serve without additional compensation. Each member shall be reimbursed from the appropriate fund of the member's respective house for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred in performing the duties of the committee.

(b) Persons appointed pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Act shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses from appropriations made by the legislature to the committee.

(c) The duties to be performed by each public official or employee appointed to the committee shall be considered duties in addition to those otherwise required by that person's office.

Officers

Sec. 7. The lieutenant governor shall serve as chairman of the committee. The speaker of the house of representatives shall serve as vice-chairman of the committee.

Quorum

Sec. 8. Ten members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business.

Duties

Sec. 9. The committee shall:

(1) examine and evaluate the organization and methods of operation of the departments and agencies of state government;

(2) develop proposals for improving the structure and administration of state government in order to assure the delivery of governmental services at the lowest possible cost;

(3) recommend policies and programs to minimize creation of new departments and agencies of state government and to control the growth of existing departments and agencies; and

(4) recommend suspension of government programs and services that duplicate and exceed in cost those same services offered by private business.

Powers

Sec. 10. The committee or any subcommittee of its membership designated by the chairman may:

(1) appoint and fix the compensation of necessary staff, including the retention of independent auditors;

(2) hold open hearings, take testimony, and administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses;

(3) secure directly from any department or agency of state government any information deemed necessary for the implementation of this Act;

(4) make findings and issue reports in the execution of the duties imposed by Section 9 of this Act.

Appropriations; Private Funds

Sec. 11. The legislature shall appropriate money necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act in the General Appropriations Act for the biennium ending August 31, 1977, or in special appropriation acts for the purpose. Private funds including public or private foundation funds may be used to defray the cost of conducting any of the affairs of the committee upon authorization by the committee.

Cooperation of Other Departments and Agencies

Sec. 12. (a) The Texas Legislative Council, the Legislative Budget Board, the Legislative Audit Committee, the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, and the Division of Planning Coordination shall, through their respective administrative officers, furnish staff assistance to the committee upon request.

(b) Each department and agency of state government is directed to furnish assistance and information to the committee upon request.

Reports; Recommendations; Dissolution

Sec. 13. The committee may make an interim report on its progress, together with any specific recommendations it may deem desirable, to any session of the 64th Legislature, and shall make its final report to the 65th Legislature not later than 30 days after that legislature is organized. Unless extended by the 65th Legislature, the committee is dissolved on May 31, 1977.

CHAPTER NINE. COMMISSIONS AND AGENCIES

Art. 4413(34). Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2063, ch. 678, § 5, eff. June 20, 1975

The repealed article, creating the Mass Transportation Commission, was derived from Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1825, ch. 615. See, now, arts. 6635, 6663c.

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1.01 and 1.02]

Definitions

Sec. 1.03. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) "Motor vehicle" means every fully self-propelled vehicle which has as its primary purpose the transport of a person or persons, or property, on a public highway, and having two or more wheels.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1.08(2) to 4.06]

SUBCHAPTER E. PROHIBITIONS

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5.01]

Manufacturers; Distributors; Representatives

Sec. 5.02. It shall be unlawful for any manufacturer, distributor or representative:

(1) Require or attempt to require any dealer to order, accept delivery of or pay anything of value, directly or indirectly, for any motor vehicle, appliance, part, accessory or any other commodity unless voluntarily ordered or contracted for by such dealer.

(2) Refuse or fail to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order from a dealer having a franchise agreement for the retail sale of any motor vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer, distributor, or representative, any new motor vehicle or parts or accessories to new motor vehicles as are covered by such franchise if such vehicle, parts or accessories are publicly advertised as being available for delivery or are actually being delivered; provided, however, this provision is not violated if such failure is caused by acts of God, work stoppage or delays due to strikes or labor disputes, freight embargoes or other causes beyond the control of the manufacturer, distributor, or representative.

(3) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, terminate or refuse to continue any franchise with a dealer unless (A) the dealer and the Commission have received written notice sixty days before the effective date thereof setting forth the specific grounds for termination or noncontinuance and (B) if the dealer files a protest with the Commission, it is established by a preponderance of evidence at a hearing called by the Commission that there is good cause for the termination or noncontinuance. The Commission shall consider all the existing circumstances in determining good cause, including without limitation the dealer's sales in relation to the market, the dealer's investment and obligations, injury to public welfare, adequacy of service facilities, equipment, parts and personnel of the dealer and other dealers of new motor vehicles of the same line-make, whether warranties are being honored, and compliance with the franchise agreement. Good cause shall not be shown solely by a desire for further market penetration. If a franchise is terminated or not continued, another franchise in the same line-make will be established within a reasonable time unless it is shown to the Commission that the community or trade area cannot reasonably support such a dealership. If this showing is made, no dealer license shall be thereafter issued in the same area unless a change in circumstances is shown.

(4) Use any false, deceptive or misleading advertising, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(5) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, prevent any dealer from changing the capital structure of his dealership or the means by or through which he finances the operation thereof, provided that the dealer meets any reasonable capital requirements agreed to by contract of the parties.

(6) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, fail to give effect to or attempt to prevent any sale or transfer of a dealer, dealership or franchise or interest therein or management thereof unless it is shown to the Commission after hearing that the result of such sale or transfer will be detrimental to the public or the representation of the manufacturer or distributor.

(7) Require or attempt to require that a dealer assign to or act as an agent for any manufacturer, distributor or representative in the secure-
Art. 4413(36) HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

ing of promissory notes and security agreements given in connection with the sale or purchase of new motor vehicles or the securing of policies of insurance on or having to do with the operation of vehicles sold.

(8) Fail, after complaint and hearing, to perform the obligations placed on the manufacturer in connection with the delivery, preparation and warranty of a new motor vehicle as provided in the manufacturer's warranty, preparation, and delivery agreements on file with the Commission.

(9) Fail to compensate its dealers for the work and services they are required to perform in connection with the dealer's delivery and preparation obligations according to the agreements on file with the Commission which must be found by the Commission to be reasonable, or fail to adequately and fairly compensate its dealers for labor, parts and other expenses incurred by such dealer to perform under and comply with manufacturer's warranty agreements. In no event shall any manufacturer or distributor pay its dealers a labor rate per hour for warranty work that is less than that charged by the dealer to the retail customers of the dealer nor shall such labor rate be more than the retail rate. All claims made by dealers for compensation for delivery, preparation, and warranty work shall be paid within thirty days after approval and shall be approved or disapproved within thirty days after receipt. When any claim is disapproved, the dealer shall be notified in writing of the grounds for disapproval. The dealer's delivery, preparation, and warranty obligations as filed with the Commission shall constitute the dealer's sole responsibility for product liability as between the dealer and manufacturer.

(10) Operate as a manufacturer, distributor, or representative without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

(11) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, to prevent or refuse to honor the succession to a dealership by any legal heir or devisee under the will of a dealer or under the laws of descent and distribution of this State unless it is shown to the Commission, after notice and hearing, that the result of such succession will be detrimental to the public interest or to the representation of the manufacturer or distributor; provided, however, nothing herein shall prevent a dealer, during his lifetime, from designating any person as his successor dealer, by written instrument filed with the manufacturer or distributor.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 297, ch. 128, §§ 1, 2, May 6, 1975.]

Art. 4413(41). Amusement Machine Commission

Creation; Members; Appointment; Terms

Sec. 1. There is hereby created an agency of the State of Texas which shall be designated as the Texas Amusement Machine Commission; said Commission shall consist of three (3) members to be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate and three (3) ex officio members, who shall have the right to vote, to be the Director of the Department of Public Safety, or his nominee; the Commissioner of Consumer Credit, or his nominee; and the Attorney General, or his nominee. None of the three appointed members, shall be or have ever been an "owner" or "operator" of any "coin-operated" machine as those terms are defined in Chapter 13, Title 122A, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended. Members of the Commission shall serve for six (6) years. Appointees shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1A to 3]

Compensation of Members

Sec. 4. All members of the Commission shall be compensated in an amount of Thirty-five Dollars ($35.00) per day for each day they are actually engaged in performing their duties whether or not in attendance at a meeting; provided, however, they shall not draw compensation for more than sixty (60) days in any one fiscal year. In addition to the per diem provided for herein, members of the Commission shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary traveling expenses in the performance of their duties.

Advisory Committee

Sec. 8. (a) The Commission may create an advisory committee to assist it in the execution of its duties under this Act.

(b) If the Commission creates an advisory committee, it may appoint no more than six persons to the committee. A person is qualified to be appointed to the advisory committee if he engages in any aspect of the coin-operated machine industry.

(c) A member of the advisory committee receives no salary. Each member is entitled to be reimbursed for his actual and necessary traveling and per diem expenses incurred in serving on the committee.

1 Taxation—General, Art. 13.01 et seq.

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as The Energy Policy Planning Act of 1975.

Declaration of Policy
Sec. 2. The legislature declares that:

(1) the future energy prospects portend such grave consequences for the economy and environment of Texas that all state government policies and actions must be taken in accordance with an articulated state energy policy;

(2) for the state to articulate a state energy policy requires energy policy planning coordinated between all relevant state offices on the basis of the best available data analyzed by sophisticated technological, environmental, and sociological methods of policy analysis;

(3) extensive research and development in energy-related matters of particular importance to the Texas energy situation are essential to maintaining a viable economy and high quality of life in this state; and

(4) there must be one state body responsible for this energy policy planning of such stature to provide the adequate degree of public visibility and awareness of energy matters such as research and development and conservation and to speak authoritatively when dealing with other state and federal agencies and officials.

Creation of the Governor’s Energy Advisory Council
Sec. 3. The Governor’s Energy Advisory Council is created. Voting members are the governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the house of representatives, attorney general, chairman of the Railroad Commission, commissioner of the General Land Office, agriculture commissioner, comptroller, one senator appointed by the lieutenant governor, and one member of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. Nonvoting members are the chairman and vice-chairman of the advisory committee. Ex officio members of the Governor’s Energy Advisory Council serve in addition to their other duties. The governor is chairman, and the lieutenant governor is vice-chairman. The governor may designate a representative to vote for him in his absence. The Governor’s Energy Advisory Council shall meet at least once every three months and at the call of the chairman.

Duties of the Council
Sec. 4. (a) The Governor’s Energy Advisory Council shall promote the policy declared in Section 2 of this Act by formulating, continually reassessing, and modifying a state energy policy for recommendation to the legislature and executive officers. The functions in this formulation process for which the Governor’s Energy Advisory Council has primary responsibility include:

(1) developing and maintaining an energy data base system and econometric modeling of the state;

(2) analyzing manpower needs for anticipated and desired developments in the structure of the Texas economy due to energy developments;

(3) analyzing technological developments of particular importance to the state’s development under the anticipated and desired energy prospects for possible promotion and encouragement;

(4) maintaining an awareness of all energy related research inside and outside of this state of importance to this state in order to promote information exchange and coordination;

(5) monitoring and reviewing existing and proposed actions and policies of all state and federal agencies to determine the energy impact and to recommend possible alternatives more consistent with the state energy policy; and

(6) recommending legislation and executive action to foster the development of increased energy supplies, more efficient energy systems, and increased conservation of energy.

(b) The Governor’s Energy Advisory Council shall administer a public awareness program to inform the public of:

(1) the energy prospects for the state;

(2) the alternative futures in economic and environmental terms under different energy policies;

(3) the manpower needs of alternative energy policies;

(4) the potential importance of research and development in certain areas;

(5) the importance and methods of energy conservation; and HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

(6) the probable impact of existing and proposed action by state or federal governmental bodies.

(c) The Governor's Energy Advisory Council shall review and comment on existing and proposed action by the federal government.

(d) The Governor's Energy Advisory Council shall administer the Energy Development Fund and perform other duties imposed by law.

Powers of the Council

Sec. 5. (a) The governor shall hire an executive director and all other necessary staff for the Governor's Energy Advisory Council to perform the duties enumerated in Section 4 of this Act. All staff responsible for technical assessments or for the development of computer or econometric systems, excluding administrative personnel, must be qualified by academic training and actual work experience in the area of their respective responsibilities.

(b) Subject to the approval of the governor, the Governor's Energy Advisory Council may contract with consultants, partnerships, corporations, universities, state agencies, and other governmental bodies to provide services necessary to perform its duties.

(c) After public hearings the Governor's Energy Advisory Council shall formulate guidelines and formulas for assessing the energy impact of all proposed actions by any state agency.

Advisory Committee

Sec. 6. The Advisory Committee to the Governor's Energy Advisory Council is created. The Governor's Energy Advisory Council may appoint members to the advisory committee. Heads of other state agencies who are not members of the Governor's Energy Advisory Council and citizens of the state who if appointed would represent a balanced cross-section of socioeconomic, geographic, and economic sectoral bases are eligible for membership. Members of the advisory committee shall be reimbursed for actual expenses of travel for the business of the advisory committee within statutory guidelines. Each citizen member of the advisory committee shall receive $25 per diem compensation. The advisory committee shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman to serve as ex officio nonvoting members of the Governor's Energy Advisory Council.

Cooperation by Other State Agencies

Sec. 7. All other state agencies shall cooperate with, coordinate with, and heed the recommendations of the Governor's Energy Advisory Council to the utmost degree possible within the range of action available to an agency short of conflict with existing statutory duty or discretion imposed on or granted to the agency.

Expired

Sec. 8. This Act expires on September 1, 1977. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 971, ch. 370, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN. GOVERNOR'S COORDINATING OFFICE FOR THE VISUALLY HANDICAPPED [NEW]

Article 4413(202). Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this article is to create the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped to insure more effective coordination and cooperation among all public and private non-profit organizations established and operated to provide services that are pertinent to the special needs of blind and visually handicapped individuals and to carry out the functions hereinafter specified in this article.

Definition

Sec. 2. In this article, the term "visually handicapped" includes the blind, the deaf-blind, and persons with a visual impairment that requires the provision of special services.

Creation of Office

Sec. 3. (a) The Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped is hereby established.

(b) The governor, after receiving recommendations of the Policy Board and Technical Advisory Council for Planning and Operations, shall appoint an administrator and other staff for the office, and they shall serve at his pleasure.

(c) State agencies that provide services to the visually handicapped may loan or detail employees to the office. The administrator may enter into contracts with the state agencies for the reimbursement of costs incidental to the loaning or detailing of employees.

Functions of the Office

Sec. 4. (a) The Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped shall:

(1) provide advocacy and ombudsman services for visually handicapped citizens of the state;

(2) hear, consider, and mediate or resolve those differences arising among state-supported organizations responsible for the direct extension of services to visually handicapped individu­als when such organizations are unable to re­solve such differences themselves and in a manner consistent with the best interests of visually handicapped individuals;

(3) assure effective interagency coordination of the service efforts of the agencies represented on its technical advisory council, so that the respective efforts of such agencies tend to be adequately coordinated and complementary rather than fragmented and duplicative;

(4) serve as an information center and referral resource for the visually handicapped;

(5) evaluate the impact of agencies, departments, and institutions carrying out programs or services that are relevant to the needs of visually handicapped individuals, including the development of sufficient specialized manpower to meet such needs, and assess the cost-effectiveness of all services authorized and funded by the legislature to assist visually handicapped individuals either directly or indirectly;

(6) develop mechanisms and procedures that tend to assist visually handicapped individuals in bridging gaps between educational, institutional, rehabilitative, vocational, and related types of services operated by public and private nonprofit organizations throughout the state;

(7) receive, review, and investigate reports received of individuals whose educational services have been terminated under individualized written service plans because of a certification that such individuals are incapable of benefitting from services, and assure that the situation and circumstances of such individuals are appropriately reviewed at least once annually according to the requirements of law;

(8) generally supervise, oversee, and assure the effective management and operation of

(A) a centralized state register of the blind and visually handicapped;

(B) a state program of purchasing goods and services manufactured by handicapped individuals according to the requirements of law and in nonprofit sheltered workshop facilities;

(C) a comprehensive diagnostic and evaluation center for multiply handicapped blind children and youth; and

(D) a centralized special media depository consisting of Braille, large print, recorded materials, and related types of communicative media required by individuals unable to read ordinary print;

(9) develop standards and procedures to assure that all state agencies and departments responsible for extending substantial and identifi­able services to visually handicapped individuals consider the views of visually handicapped individuals or groups in matters of policy development and implementation arising in the administration of authorized state service pro­grams; and

(10) provide accurate and timely information to the governor and the legislature regarding the practical impact of state services on the lives of visually handicapped citizens of the state, together with appropriate recommendations as to future funding, necessary changes in existing statutes, and related matters that bear on the progressive and efficient improvement of services for the visually handicapped.

(b) The Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped shall not undertake the direct operation of any substantial service activities that any other agency of the state is authorized, capable, and willing to discharge.

(c) Interagency contracts or agreements entered into by state agencies, departments, or institutions to advance the purposes of this article or to facilitate the delivery of services to visually handicapped individuals shall be deemed effective for all pertinent purposes when a copy of such interagency contract or written agreement is placed on file with the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped, the type of interagency coordination and cooperation which this Article encourages in a complex area of human services being beyond the contractual situations contemplated by the Interagency Cooperation Act (Article 4413(32), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Technical Advisory Council for Planning and Operations

Sec. 5. (a) The Technical Advisory Council for Planning and Operations is established. The chief executive officers or their designees of the Central Education Agency, Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, State Commission for the Blind, and the Texas School for the Blind serve as ex officio members of the council. In addition, the administrator shall appoint a member of the faculty of a college or university which specializes in the area of training for the blind and two representatives of nonprofit organizations which provide services for the visually handicapped to serve on the council.

(b) Lay members of the council serve for terms of two years, receive no compensation, and are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties.

(c) The administrator may appoint representatives of other public or private agencies to serve as advisors to the council and may authorize the reimbursement of their actual and necessary expenses incurred in serving the council.

1 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes '75 Supp. — 63
(d) The council shall serve as an interagency planning council for the coordination of services to the visually handicapped. The council shall assist the administrator in clarifying the statutory responsibilities and expectations of each agency and in determining which agency is primarily responsible for serving a multiply handicapped blind individual.

Policy Board

Sec. 6. (a) The Policy Board for Services to the Visually Handicapped is established.

(b) The board is composed of 10 members appointed by the governor, with the following qualifications:

1. the president of a state organization of the blind to alternate every two years;
2. the president of the student body of the Texas School for the Blind or a visually handicapped student in a public school to serve as ex officio member;
3. the president of the state society of ophthalmology or the state association of optometry to alternate every two years;
4. a special education teacher who works with the visually handicapped at the Texas School for the Blind or in a public school to alternate every two years;
5. a parent of a multiply handicapped blind child;
6. a parent of a visually handicapped child;
7. a blind person not employed in rehabilitation or special education; and
8. three representatives of the general public.

(c) Members of the board serve for terms of two years. Members do not receive a salary but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in carrying out their duties.

(d) The board shall advise the administrator of the needs of the visually handicapped in this state, recommended methods of meeting those needs, and assist the administrator in evaluating state programs and services provided for the visually handicapped. The board shall also assist the administrator in establishing the policies, rules, and regulations required to implement the provisions of this Act.

[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2386, ch. 734, § 14, June 21, 1975.]

Section 28 of the 1975 Act provided:

"(a) There is appropriated to the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped the sum of $300,000 from the General Revenue Fund, to be used during the biennium ending August 31, 1977, for the purposes of this Act.
(b) There is appropriated to the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped any federal funds that become available to it to be used during the biennium ending August 31, 1977, for the purposes of this Act, including the construction of facilities to be operated on an interagency basis.
(c) The legislature intends that the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped and all other state agencies carrying out activities significantly affecting the lives of visually handicapped citizens of this state enter into any cooperative agreements and interagency contracts that are expedient or necessary to assure the most effective use of all available resources."
CHAPTER ONE. HEALTH BOARDS AND LAWS

Art. 4414a. Department of Health Resources Created

To better protect and promote the health of the people of Texas, the Texas Department of Health Resources is created. The Texas Department of Health Resources consists of the Texas Board of Health Resources, the Director of Health Resources, and an administrative staff.

Art. 4415a. Appointment, Composition and Terms of the Board of Health Resources

(a) The Texas Board of Health Resources consists of 18 members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Governor shall make appointments so that:

(1) six members are physicians licensed under the laws of this state, each of whom has been engaged in the practice of medicine in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(2) two members are hospital administrators with at least five years' experience in hospital administration in this state prior to appointment;

(3) one member is a dentist who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of dentistry for at least five years in this state prior to appointment;

(4) one member is a registered nurse who is licensed to practice professional nursing under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of nursing in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(5) one member is a veterinarian who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(6) one member is a pharmacist who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of pharmacy in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(7) one member is a nursing home administrator who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged as a nursing home administrator in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(8) one member is an optometrist who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of optometry in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(9) one member holds a civil engineering degree from an accredited university or college, is licensed by the State of Texas as a professional engineer, and has specialized in the practice of sanitary engineering in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(10) one member is a doctor of chiropractic who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of chiropractic for at least five years in this state prior to appointment; and

(11) two members are citizens who have none of the qualifications required of the other 16 members.

(b) Except for the initial appointees, members of the Texas Board of Health Resources hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the terms of six members expiring on February 1 of each odd-numbered year. In making the initial appointments, the Governor shall designate six members for terms expiring in 1981, six members for terms expiring in 1979, and six members for terms expiring in 1977.

(c) The Governor shall biennially designate one member as Chairman and one member as Vice-chairman.

Art. 4416a. Quorum and Meetings of the Board of Health Resources

A majority of the members of the Texas Board of Health Resources constitute a quorum for the trans-
Art. 4416a  HEALTH—PUBLIC  984

action of business. The Board shall meet at Austin at least once each month, on dates to be fixed by the Board, and shall hold such special meetings as may be called by the Chairman. Timely notice of such special meetings shall be given to each member. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 882, ch. 323, § 5.07, eff. May 28, 1975.]

Art. 4417a. Compensation and Oath of Office of the Board of Health Resources

The members of the Texas Board of Health Resources receive no fixed salary, but each member shall be allowed, for each and every day in attending the meetings of the Board, the sum of $50, and said members shall be allowed traveling and other necessary expenses while in the performance of official duty. The members of the Texas Board of Health Resources shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office before an officer authorized to administer oaths within this state, and, upon presentation of such oath of office, together with the certificate of their appointment, the Secretary of State shall issue Commissions to them, which shall be evidence of their authority to act as such. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 832, ch. 323, § 5.07, eff. May 28, 1975.]

Art. 4418a. Powers and Duties of the Board of Health Resources

The Texas Board of Health Resources shall:

(1) employ the Director of Health Resources, who shall be a person licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas, who shall serve at the will of the Board;

(2) investigate the conduct of the work of the Texas Department of Health Resources, and for this purpose to have access, at any time, to all books and records thereof, and to require written or oral information from any officer or employee thereof;

(3) adopt rules, not inconsistent with law, for its own procedure, a copy of which rules shall be filed in the Texas Department of Health Resources.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 832, ch. 323, § 5.07, eff. May 28, 1975.]

Arts. 4418b to 4418c. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 832, ch. 323, § 5.08(1), (2), eff. May 28, 1975

Art. 4418d. Duties of the Director of Health Resources

The Director of Health Resources shall be the executive head of the Texas Department of Health Resources, and he shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, perform the duties assigned to him by the Texas Board of Health Resources. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 832, ch. 323, § 5.07, eff. May 28, 1975.]

Art. 4418h. Health Planning and Development Act

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1.01. This Act may be cited as the Texas Health Planning and Development Act.

Policy, Purpose

Sec. 1.02. The policy of this state and the purpose of this Act are to insure that health-care services and facilities are made available to all citizens in an orderly and economical manner and to meet the requirements of, and to implement, the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93–641), the federal rules and regulations promulgated under that Act, and other pertinent federal authority. To achieve this public policy and purpose, it is essential that appropriate health planning activities be undertaken and implemented and that health-care services and facilities be provided in a manner that is cost effective and that is compatible with the health-care needs of the various areas and populations of the state.

1 42 U.S.C.A. § 300k et seq.

Definitions

Sec. 1.03. In this Act:

(1) “Applicant” means any person who makes application to the commission pursuant to this Act.

(2) “Application” means a written request for consideration by the commission pursuant to this Act.

(3) “Certificate holder” is the person named in the certificate of need or exemption certificate and any person owning title or interest in the person named in the certificate of need or exemption certificate.

(4) “Certificate of need” means a written order of the commission setting forth the commission’s affirmative finding that a proposed project sufficiently satisfies the criteria prescribed for such projects by this Act and by rule of the commission.

(5) “Commission” means the Texas Health Facilities Commission.

(6) “Department” means the Texas Department of Health Resources.

(7) “Development” means those activities, other than planning or predevelopment activities, as determined by rule of the commission, which on their completion result in the consummation of a project or a significant financial commitment toward the consummation of a project, and includes the adoption of ordinances, orders, or resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds.

(9) “Health-care facility,” referred to as “facility,” includes, regardless of ownership, but is not limited to, a public or private hospital, institution, extended care facility, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, home health agency, outpatient care facility, outpatient surgical and single procedure facility, ambulatory health-care facility, health center, family planning clinic, kidney disease treatment facility, radiation therapy facility, alcoholism and drug treatment facility, health maintenance organization, and other specialized facilities where inpatient or outpatient health-care services for observation, diagnosis, active treatment, or overnight care for patients with obstetrical, medical, mental or psychiatric, surgical, tubercular, alcoholic, chronic, or rehabilitative conditions are provided requiring daily direct supervision by a physician or a practitioner of the healing arts, but does not include the office of those physicians or practitioners singly or in groups in the conduct of their profession.

(10) “Health maintenance organization,” referred to as “HMO,” has the meaning given the term in the Texas Health Maintenance Organization Act.

(11) “Health systems agency” means a non-profit private corporation or public regional planning body acting as an instrumentality of the federal government and designated in accordance with federal law and subject to approval of the governor and his periodic review and redesignation.

(12) “Institutional health-care services,” referred to as “services,” means the health-care services provided in health-care facilities and includes, but is not limited to, inpatient or outpatient services for observation, diagnosis, treatment, or rehabilitation, and all care for patients with obstetrical, medical, surgical, tubercular, mental, alcoholic, chronic, or rehabilitative, or other conditions.

(13) “Party” means any person who by formal intervention or action as determined by rule of the commission participates in the consideration of a specific application by the commission.

(14) “Person” means an individual, sole proprietorship, charity, trust, estate, institution, group, association, firm, joint venture, partnership, joint stock company, cooperative, corporation, the state or a political subdivision or instrumentality of the state, the federal government or a political subdivision or instrumentality of the federal government, any receiver, trustee, assignee, or other similar representative or any other legal entity.

(15) “Project” means services, facility, or HMO requiring a certificate of need or an exemption certificate under this Act.

(16) “Statewide Health Coordinating Council” means the council appointed by the governor in accordance with federal law to advise the department generally on the performance of its functions.
SUBCHAPTER B. TEXAS HEALTH FACILITIES COMMISSION

Sec. 2.01. The Texas Health Facilities Commission is established and is administratively attached to the Texas Department of Health Resources. The department, at the request of the commission, shall provide administrative assistance to the commission; and the department and the commission shall coordinate administrative responsibilities in order to avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities and services. The department, at the request of the commission, shall submit the commission's budget requests to the legislature.

Composition

Sec. 2.02. The commission is under the direction of three commissioners appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. At least one commissioner, at the time of appointment, must be a resident of a county having a population of less than 50,000, according to the last preceding federal decennial census. However, a commissioner by moving to another county does not vacate the office. The governor shall not appoint to the commission any person who is actively engaged as a health care provider or who has any substantial pecuniary interest in a facility.

Terms of Office

Sec. 2.03. Commissioners hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the term of one commissioner expiring on February 1 of each odd-numbered year. In making the initial appointments, the governor shall designate one commissioner for a term expiring February 1, 1977, one for a term expiring February 1, 1979, and one for a term expiring February 1, 1981.

Chairman, Vice-chairman

Sec. 2.04. The governor shall biennially designate one commissioner to serve as chairman and one commissioner to serve as vice-chairman.

Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 2.05. Each commissioner is entitled to a salary within the limits of legislative appropriations and to reimbursement for actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in performing their official duties.

General Duties of Commission

Sec. 2.06. In addition to the other powers and duties prescribed by this Act, the commission shall:

(1) administer a state certificate of need program as prescribed by this Act and to comply with federal law;

(2) promulgate and adopt rules determined to be necessary for the administration and enforcement of Subchapters B and C of this Act;
(3) issue written orders regarding certificates of need, exemption certificates, declaratory rulings, and other matters which may properly come before it;

(4) make an annual report to the governor and the legislature of the commission's operations and provide other reports that the governor or the legislature may require;

(5) administer all funds entrusted to the commission; and

(6) prescribe the personnel policies for the commission and perform other duties and functions that may be prescribed by law.

Executive Officer

Sec. 2.07. (a) The chairman is the chief executive and administrative officer of the commission.

(b) In addition to the other powers and duties prescribed by this Act, the chairman as chief executive officer of the commission shall:

(1) administer the duties and functions of the commission;

(2) employ and remove personnel and prescribe their duties, responsibilities, and compensation; and

(3) submit through and with the approval of the commission requests for appropriations and other funds to operate the commission.

(c) In the absence of the chairman for any cause, the vice-chairman has the powers and duties assigned to the chairman.

Offices and Divisions

Sec. 2.08. The commission shall establish offices and divisions of the commission that it deems necessary to carry out the functions and duties of the commission. The commission may assign functions and duties to the various offices and divisions, provide for additional offices and divisions, and reorganize the commission if necessary to improve its efficiency or effectiveness.

Funds

Sec. 2.09. For the purpose of carrying out its duties and functions, the commission may apply for, contract for, receive, and expend any appropriations or grants from the state, the federal government, or any other public source, subject to any limitations and conditions prescribed by legislative appropriation.

Review of Institutional Health Services

Sec. 2.10. The commission, after consultation with the department, the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the State Department of Public Welfare, and other appropriate health-related state agencies, shall review and determine the appropriateness of all institutional health services being offered in the state and shall make public its determinations by filing a report with the secretary of state.
